Thanksgiving is Thanks-living in 2026

by John Berry

MANE ATTRACTION

with JOHN BERRY

I am living on borrowed time.

Many of you know by now that I have what doctors describe as "end-stage" kidney disease.

I have had it all my life — 83 years of it — and was diagnosed 38 years ago by chance.

I am saddled — or in my case sulkied — with dialysis several times a week and realize that all of the scriptures on this incurable polycystic kidney disease insist that the average life span of one with this is "between 53 and 70 years of age."

So, yes, I am living on borrowed time.

Having stated that, I am happy to be alive and appreciate my days left on this beautiful earth and still writing columns from the gift that Dave Briggs and Debbie Little bestowed upon me some time ago so I can continue to preach the gospel about our great sport.

I worry about its survival, as you all know, but love it to a point where there is no return as I continue my scriptures since my first writing appeared in the Horseman and Fair World in their Feb. 4, 1964 edition — coming up on 63 years ago — about saving the beloved, but now extinct, time trial.

While I watch my dimes and quarters earned through Social "inSecurity," and any other tidbits, in looking back at it all, I would change nary one thing.

After all, they aren't going to throw those remaining dimes and quarters at any casket — since I am donating my body to science so they can study those beloved kidneys, however little function they have left, and learn something in search for a cure.

I reminisce regularly on the fantastic folk I have met since my first foray to Sportsman's Park (SpK) on Aug. 22, 1959 and > "I loved all breeds of horses and began with show horses and jumpers up at the fairgrounds. When I came to the States, I wound up at Ben White Raceway in Orlando, the rest is history."

> — Aime Choquette

remember, as clearly as today, the great Su Mac Lad winning the final race that night in 2:02 and a piece for a gent named John Peat.

No need going over the rest of his career wearing out three sets of the top trotters of that era winning $885,000 and change.

I have met an innumerable number of horsefolk over the years with a few being as famous as one can imagine with the vast majority that hardly anyone outside of their respective families would recognize in pictures.

Among the famous are many that have been somewhat forgotten this day — the Dancers, Haughtons, Frank Ervin, Joe O'Brien, Delvin, Curly Smart (the first icon I actually met in 1961).

Never, when I was coerced into going to SpK from a bowling alley in Chicago at age 16 after finding out that someone won a good chuck of change betting on me, would I ever have dreamt of knowing any of these icons.

Aug. 22, 1959 was the day that I began to throw my life away, and I'm happy about it.

Of course, as time went on — and not just a Peppy Relco track record mile at Sportsman's in 1:58.4 — a bit later, many others crept into my life, Bill O'Donnell, John Campbell, Ben Webster, Jim Doherty, Herve, Clint Galbraith, Gags (Mike Gagliardi), Buddy Gilmour, Dave Magee, and hundreds more.

I've mentioned my Curly Smart story and just how famous he was when I misdialed his number from a payphone on Rt. 23 in Delaware, OH with the operator replying, "Curly's number is 363-5524."

"Curly?" I replied. "The operator said, "Everybody knows Curly!"

That is the definition of the word famous.

Over 50 years ago, Dave Magee and I went over to have lunch at a cafeteria across from Maywood Park, 50 years ago, before fame had ever found Dave, and he and I are friends to this very day.

But there were others that also played a huge and wonderful role in this life, not nearly as famous, but, nevertheless, it was wonderful just rubbing shoulders with them, both on and off a racetrack.

Dick Baker, Bil Wick, Aime Choquette, Phil Pines, Walter Latzko, Edgar Leonard, Odell Thompson, Lou Rapone, Edith Mouw, Lew Williams. Most are gone now, but a few of 'em are hangin on as they, too, live on borrowed, as we all do.

Wally Hennessey, Mickey McNichol have been blessings in my life…all on borrowed time.

And I cannot forget about all the BDHP (Broken Down Horse Players) that have enriched my life, as well, with their complaints, successes, and tales that match no other sport.

It's about 45 years ago that I spent many a day in the chill of fall/winter reminiscing at the corner of Main Street and South Street in Freehold with Dick Baker about the earlier days of our grand sport.

We spoke about old-timers Thomas "world's record" Murphy and Tom Berry.

Henry T. Adios crept into our conversations, as did Cardigan Bay and Nevele Pride.

But Su Mac Lad was his favorite, I think.

When he drove onto the backstretch of Sportsman's Park just as I was getting "Hooked on Harness Racing," Dick Baker remembered how he was in one of Irving Berkemeyer's newly acquired hearses — he was in that business — and everyone on the backside was wondering "Who died?"

Once Baker did the once over on "Sumie," he gave it his blessing and the $35,000 changed hands and Su Mac Lad was in the Dancer Stable.

Remembering Bill Wick always brings a smile to my face.

He was a farrier — a horse shoer — as his first love was the horse.

He had a reputation that was unsurpassed back then and the who's who in our sport garnered his services to show 19 Hambletonian winners in DuQuoin and 18 Little Brown Jug winners in Delaware, OH.

To me, he's an immortal and I was honored to call him a wonderful friend.

He passed in 2015 and I think of him often.

Aime Choquette was a legendary horseman and second trainer for Delvin Miller for, probably, close to a half century and had a hand in conditioning great horses like Meadow Skipper, Tarport Hap, Delmonica Hanover, and so many others.

One time long ago, he told me, "I loved all breeds of horses and began with show horses and jumpers up at the fairgrounds.

"When I came to the States, I wound up at Ben White Raceway in Orlando, the rest is history."

Choquette possessed a wisdom beyond the meaning of that word and I was blessed to be in his presence anytime, anyplace, anywhere.

He lived until almost 103, and I miss him.

Phil Pines was one of the icons of the written word and a gentleman to the nth degree, as was Walter Latzko, both of whom graced Goshen's Hall of Fame until there passing.

It was Pines who put me on to last year's Thanksgiving story about the two guys that tried to corner the turkey market in North Jersey and the surrounding New York area but wound up with a horse known as "Decker's Worthless Mare" that, eventually, became Goldsmith Maid and won $364,000, which is about $7 or $8 million today!

Lou Rapone and I were friends from his days with Pole Adios (who was so ornery that he had to be trained in back of a pickup truck), Meadow Russ, Tarport Prince, and a lot of others, as well, until he took his dying breath not quite making age 100.

Rapone was a superior "gate-man" and could get horses off the wings as "good as any," they said.

One night, Rapone was catch driving a horse and he looked at the trainer and asked, "Can he leave?"

The trainer looked at Lou and replied in no uncertain terms, "I don't know, I have only had him for a year-and-a-half."

Odell Thompson is a name that few know these days, but, make no mistake, I have had the honor of knowing him for over 40 years and he had an uncanny way to care for horses and keep them healthy.

He was —and still is — a terrific story teller who told me about a gent that had a horse that started 24 times and 24 times it was out-of-the-money.

"So," Thompson recalled, "I went right up to his stall, grabbed his halter and yelled at him, 'If you don't get in the money tonight, you'll be pulling a milk wagon tomorrow morning.'

"The horse was last at the quarter, last at the half, last at the three-quarter pole, and turning for home, I started waving that whip and, all of a sudden, the horse looked back at me and said, 'Hey take it easy on me, I've got to get up at 4:30 tomorrow morning!'"

Without you wonderful folk, as they said in a famous movie:

"I've got no style, I've got no class, without you, I'd be on my…"

Ask yourself, where would I be?

Well, I'm out of time, space, and memory now, but remember, Thanksgiving is Thanks-living!

I am proof.

May The Horse Be With You!

MEADOWLANDS MATTERS
with DEBBIE LITTLE

Giving thanks matters at The Meadowlands

by Debbie Little

It's been a great year for many at The Meadowlands, and with this week's holiday in mind, a few shared what they're thankful for.

Trainer Rico Robinson, who currently sits fifth in wins for the year in The Big M standings, kept it short and to the point, saying that he's thankful for "God, family, my health, and opportunities."

Meadowlands' leading driver Brett Beckwith, who missed two months earlier this year after a bad accident at Saratoga, said he's appreciative of all those that support him.

"This year, I'm most thankful for the people in my corner, between a great family, girlfriend, and close friends I can always count on being there for me," Beckwith said. "Hopefully, everyone enjoys a wonderful Thanksgiving with their loved ones."

Lauren Tritton ranks in the top 20 in wins at The Big M and holds the record for the most victories by a female driver on a card — four — at the track.

Tritton said she's thankful for, "My little family; the opportunities I've been given; my team at the barn; my clients who have faith in us; all the young girls who I inspire; and my health and strength to let me do what I love."

With a barn that includes New Jersey-sired Diabolic Hill, winner of the Breeders Crown and Matron, trainer Annie Stoebe said she's thankful for, "My amazing horses and all the amazing people I'm surrounded with."

According to The Meadowlands' chief operating officer/general manager Jason Settlemoir, he's thankful for a lot.

"There are many things I am grateful for this Thanksgiving," Settlemoir said. "Above all, I am thankful for everything that God has done and continues to do for my family and I.

"I am so grateful for so many positive influences in my life. And I'm thankful for my health, family, Travis, Jeffrey, Mom, Aunt Bobbie, Aunt Linda, my sister Lynn and her husband David, along with every other family member, there far too many to name

Claus Andersen
Joe Bongiorno, The Meadowlands' leading trainer, said he has a lot to be thankful for in 2026.

each, friends, our equine athletes, the horse racing industry's sponsors, owners, breeders, trainers, drivers, and grooms, Jeff Gural and his wife Paula, The Meadowlands Racetrack, Winners Bayonne of NJ, Tioga Downs Casino and Resort, Vernon Downs Casino and Hotel, our customers and our employees, our partnership with the SBOA of NJ, Mark Ford, Al Ochsner, and the entire board of directors, Roger Huston and the Delaware County Fair, the home of the Little Brown Jug."

Trainer Julie Miller had a great 2026 with a successful barn that included undefeated New Jersey Sire Stakes and New Jersey Classic finals champ Wall Of Fame.

"Obviously, what I am most thankful for is my family, horses, owners, employees, etc.," Miller said, adding with a laugh, "I am very thankful for a successful and profitable year with the stable, so we can pay for the farm we built.

"Also, to be blessed with Wall Of Fame, undefeated filly and best 2-year-old trotting filly in the country. Words can't describe how thankful, blessed and lucky I am this year."

It's been quite a year for Andrew Harris, who co-owns/trains Meadowlands Pace and Breeders Crown champ Brandon Blvd, who is the front-runner for Horse of the Year.

"I'm most grateful for my family that pushes and supports me," Harris said. "Owners that are friends and idols and horses that are champions. I'm grateful for health and faith."

Joe Bongiorno has been uber-hot this year at The Meadowlands and currently leads the trainer standings in wins and is second to Beckwith in the driver standings.

"I have a lot to be thankful for," Bongiorno said. "First off, an amazing son and fiancée. Our son Parker continues to amaze us every day. He's such a smart, loving, happy little guy and we get so much joy out of raising him and being his parents.

"Also, I'm very thankful to have bounced back as strong as I did this year after a tough year for me last year mentally. My team at JB Racing has done an outstanding job this year and it has been a great year driving so I'm just very appreciative of all of that.

"I couldn't do it without the owners and other trainers' support, so I am very grateful for them as well."

Ake Svanstedt sits sixth in the trainer standings at The Meadowlands and it's been a special year for Team Svanstedt – Ake and his wife Sarah – because in addition to success on the track, Ake was elected to the Harness Racing Hall of Fame in Goshen, NY and will be inducted in July of 2027.

"Happy Thanksgiving from the Svanstedt Stable," Sarah said. "To the Meadowlands' owners and management team, the racing office, track and paddock crews, officials, and everyone in security, hospitality, broadcasting, and wagering – thank you.

"Your commitment to the horses, and the people who care for them helps keep The Meadowlands the heart of harness racing in North America. We're proud to race here and grateful to everyone who makes it possible.

"Wishing the entire Meadowlands family, a wonderful Thanksgiving."

BETWEEN THE LINES

with BRETT STURMAN

Who will get the nod in razor tight battle for Horse of the Year?

by Brett Sturman

Going back a few years, beginning with Bulldog Hanover in 2022 and then followed by Confederate and Twin B Joe Fresh, it was reliably predictable before formal announcement that these horses would be crowned Dan Patch Horse of the Year from their respective campaigns. Even last year where there was debate around whether 2-year-old Beau Jangles should win the award, he ended up taking the title with a rather comfortable vote total in the end.

This year, however, should be far closer. In the most current Hambletonian Society/Breeders Crown Standardbred Poll, 3-year-old pacing colt Brandon Blvd narrowly leads 4-year-old stallion Super Chapter by poll points 333 to 321. Within that, Brandon Blvd has received 22 first-place votes while Super Chapter has received nine first-place votes. On To Norway, Twin B Joe Fresh, and Wall Of Fame all have garnered at least one first-place vote as well, but for all intents and purposes this race will come down to the current top two.

Before getting into the battle between the top pair, I don't want to appear dismissive of On To Norway. Prior to last weekend's FanDuel Championship for open trotters, I thought he had a very real case to be made for divisional — and overall trotting — awards over Super Chapter based on their head-to-head records even though Super Chapter had, overall, the more accomplished resume this year.

But in that race last Saturday (Nov. 14) at The Meadowlands, a place where he had lost twice prior to On To Norway early in the season, Super Chapter proved best. Riding a dream second-over trip right on the back of Super Chapter, On To Norway came up a head short, and with that I believe Super Chapter quelled the noise coming from On To Norway following that horse's gutsy Breeders Crown win from a month ago.

Focusing now on the most likely two that Horse of the Year will come down to: Brandon Blvd brings with him a relatively rare Meadowlands Pace and Breeders Crown combination. Whereas in last week's column I talked about Apex riding the Hambletonian to year-end honors, the one-two punch that Brandon Blvd packs with those two signature wins go even further in his own awards battle.

Dave Landry

Brandon Blvd (Dexter Dunn) winning his Bluegrass test at The Red Mile on Oct. 3.

It's been a special year for Super Chapter, as it's been for Brandon Blvd. But if I had to guess, I think Horse of the Year winds up mirroring the most current Top 10 Poll in which Brandon Blvd will narrowly prevail.

Prior to it being accomplished this year, there have only been five instances since the year 2000 where horses completed a Meadowlands Pace and Breeders Crown sweep. It last occurred in 2023 (Confederate), 10 years prior in 2013 (Captaintreacherous), 2005 (Rocknroll Hanover), 2001 (Real Desire), and in 2000 (Gallo Blue Chip).

Of those five horses, Confederate, Rocknroll Hanover, and Gallo Blue Chip went onto win Horse of the Year. Despite those wins, Real Desire missed Horse of the Year in 2001 to arch rival Bettor's Delight, and in a similar scenario that could play out this year, Captaintreacherous lost to an older trotter, a mare, Bee A Magician. It shows that while the Pace/Crown combination is a rarity and it can lead to Horse of the Year, it's not necessarily an automatic.

In addition to those two signature wins, Brandon Blvd also won the Max Hempt at Pocono along with a Bluegrass division at The Red Mile in which he took his lifetime-best win time of 1:47.2. He also won the rich $400,000 Kentucky Championship Series final, which came four days before the Little Brown Jug.

If you wanted to grasp for holes to poke at the resume and perhaps maybe some Super Chapter voters will look to this, Brandon Blvd did not race in either this year's Adios or Little Brown Jug, opting instead for the rich Kentucky Sires Stakes finals. It may not be a big deal at all today in skipping those races, but maybe worth noting those were once races that prior champions have included in making their mark.

Brandon Blvd's only losses throughout the year came in tough first-over tries in the North America Cup elimination and North America Cup final; the latter of which he went a giant first-over mile from post 10. His only other losses were a blip in a small five-horse field in the Cane Pace on Hambletonian Day, and a Breeders Crown elimination loss that I certainly wouldn't pin on the horse.

Other than that, Brandon Blvd won every time he stepped onto the track. As evidenced by the number of different 3-year-olds who won their share of the major races this year, I don't think this year's crop was a dominant one, but it was a competitive one. And in a long, grueling 3-year-old season that saw many of the top early season contenders rise and fall, Brandon Blvd was there in the beginning, and he was there in the end, completing his season with a well-earned win in the Breeders Crown.

Now switching gears to Super Chapter, immediately prior to the Breeders Crown I wrote that in my estimation, he had the edge at that time over Brandon Blvd.

In that Breeders Crown, Super Chapter ended up going an impossibly hard trip from an outside post and lost. Losing that race didn't diminish at all the ability of Super Chapter, but his loss — regardless of the reason — combined with the win of Brandon Blvd, did at least change the calculus somewhat.

Super Chapter has put together a 4-year-old campaign for the ages. His multiple Grade 1s includes the Cashman, Maple Leaf Trot, and $1 million Yonkers International Trot. In winning the Maple Leaf Trot, he became the first 4-year-old to win that race since Market Share 13 years ago. He closed out his season last week with another statement-making win as referenced earlier in the FanDuel Championships.

Along those lines, if there is an edge that Super Chapter has, it's in the level of competition that he's beaten this year. Whereas Brandon Blvd did what he was asked against a solid — but not legendary — sophomore pacing crop, Super Chapter shined as a 4-year-old against older, more seasoned trotting warriors and bested them at nearly every call. He truly had a uniquely accomplished season with the wins he put together.

It's hard to separate by the numbers also, where Brandon Blvd sports a record of 14 10-3-1, while Super Chapter shows a comparable 11 8-2-0. These two are one-two in seasonal earnings as well.

It's been a special year for Super Chapter, as it's been for Brandon Blvd. But if I had to guess, I think Horse of the Year winds up mirroring the most current Top 10 Poll in which Brandon Blvd will narrowly prevail. Brandon Blvd was consistent, workmanlike, beat throughout the year those he was expected to beat, and won two of the most important races. I sense he's done enough to win this year's Horse of the Year award.

HOLLYWOOD'S HITS

with BOB HEYDEN

No two ways about it Brandon Blvd should be Horse of the Year

by Bob Heyden

As soon as they hit the wire in the sophomore pacing colt and gelding Breeders Crown, I knew we had just seen the Horse of the Year (HOY) and likely the final race for Brandon Blvd.

He left no doubt at all as he fought off the third winningest sophomore of 2026 in Melillo ($910,266) and still had to deal with No. 2 Al Papi ($1,212,718) who he successfully held at bay.

The absolute best divisional shots were fired at his head — cannon blasts — that he not only withstood but essentially laughed off. His brilliant season of 14 10-3-1 with $1,513,695 is more than enough to give the Punisher 11 Stable and trainer Andrew Harris their very first such honor.

That dollar figure is 170G up on likely runner-up Super Chapter who posted his own stellar season of 11 8-2-0 with $1,344,207. That included a Yonkers International Trot win and a dominance of the older trotting set. He posted his second-straight $1.2 million campaign which is simply unheard of at 3 and 4.

So why not Super Chapter you might ask?

Well, the HOY vote is all about nit-picking. Super Chapter's got three losses all to the same horse, On To Norway. Shartin N had that same deal in 2019 with Caviart Ally, but she had put so much distance on the field never leaving her No. 1 weekly spot in the Top 10 poll, it essentially didn't matter.

Not here though.

Brandon Blvd did it from start to middle to finish. Go ahead and look up how many horses are 1-2 in the North America Cup in mid-June and then dominate in the year end Breeders Crown.

He won the richest Meadowlands Pace in 14 years ($810,000) against a stellar group when it looked like for all the world he was about to be collared. His numbers do all the talking in case you're still not sure. Heck I know voters who are voting for On To Norway over Super Chapter in the older trotting division.

OK, so where does this, the 80th year of balloting, place Brandon Blvd in history?

He's a son of Downbytheseaside who was the 2017 HOY runner-up to Hannelore Hanover.

This would mark the second straight year that a son of Somebeachsomewhere will be the HOY-winning sire, an award that somehow eluded the great Somebeachsomewhere (2025 Beau Jangles is a son of Cattlewash).

This would be the 26th time a HOY would be trained by a Canadian-born conditioner. And the second-straight year a first-time winner is from Canada as Andrew Harris would follow Dr. Ian Moore and Beau Jangles from 2025.

Brad Conrad
Brandon Blvd (Dexter Dunn) winning the $664,500 Grade 1 Breeders Crown final for sophomore pacing colts at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

Harris turns 42 on Dec. 2 while Marcus Melander, trainer of Super Chapter, is just 34.

Quite a difference considering that the average age of the last four first-time HOY winning trainers is 69.5 years: Dr. Ian Moore, Chris Ryder, Jack Darling, and Jim King, Jr.

Brandon Blvd averaged 108G and change per start. The last 3YOPC to be named HOY, Confederate in 2023, did the same.

The last three pacers to average 100G per start are named Brandon Blvd, Confederate, and Bulldog Hanover.

Brandon Blvd is set to become the ninth-straight pacer to earn the year end's highest honor.

The combined age of Harris and Melander is just 76. If you think that's some sort of youth record, it's not. In 1986, 20-year-old Marc Fontaine handled undefeated HOY Forrest Skipper and 29YO Mark O'Mara trained also undefeated runner-up Jate Lobell.

All in all, it was a great competitive year that made for plenty of year-end conversation, but when you shake it all out on the Scrabble board the letters come out B R A N D O N B L V D.

BOBBING AND WEAVING

• Here's wishing our very best to Ross Croghan, 73, who underwent another back surgery on Monday (Nov. 23).

• How about 9-year-old Captain Midnight coming back to the races after a 2,246-day layoff? Racing now at Hoosier Park, under the tutelage of Tyler George, the son of Captaintreacherous (standing stud since) has been quite competitive hitting the board in two of his first three. His prior lines show that he was in the 2020 Breeders Crown elim and Progress and also was entered in the Matron won by Cattlewash. Plus, a son of Captain Midnight, Aye Aye Captain Russ, was in the same race. By the way that's the same Cattlewash who since has become a HOY sire.

• Congrats to Marcus Melander who has now been voted the Dan Patch Trainer of the Year at both 27 and 34.

• Hats off to Chris Ryder. From 2019-25 he has amazingly had five different horses in the top three in the HOY balloting: 2019 Bettor's Wish (second), 2020 Party Girl Hill (second), 2021 Niki Hill (second), 2024 Twin B Joe Fresh (winner), and 2025 Miki And Minnie (third).

• 2027 will mark the 30th anniversary of the Dan Patch name in front of all the year-end award winners.

• How about a shout out to the oldest living Hall of Famer Bruce Nickells who stunningly still holds this record. There are 12 freshman pacing seasons in our sports history that have exceeded $1 million and only Nickells trained two: 1990 Miss Easy $1,128,596 and 1992 Immortality $1,033,028.

Inmarosa better than ever, punches ticket to Prix d'Amérique

by Thomas Hedlund

Laurent-Claude Abrivard's Inmarosa (Amiral Sacha) punched the first ticket to the 2027 Prix d'Amérique after crushing her opponents over the final kilometer of Sunday's (Nov. 22) $125,000 Prix de Bretagne at Vincennes.

Léo Abrivard, as usual, was in the sulky behind the now 8-year-old mare, who was tipped three-wide down the final backstretch with 1,000 meters remaining. In a matter of strides, she overpowered pacesetter Borups Victory with 600 meters to go.

From there, Inmarosa was in a league of her own, drawing away to an overwhelming victory in a 1:55.1 mile rate over the Prix d'Amérique distance of 2,700 meters.

Watch the race replay here.

"What she did today was really something special," Léo Abrivard said. "Once again, she's qualified for the Prix d'Amérique, and she's a fantastic champion.

"When I made my move, I didn't know whether we would be able to get past Borups Victory, but once we did, I already felt around the final turn that the race had won. She just flew past the others, and I've actually never experienced being able to raise my arm in celebration halfway down the stretch."

Inmarosa was sent off at 17-1.

Free Time Jepson (Face Time Bourbon) closed strongly for second after finding racing room from second-over at the top of the stretch, but had far too much ground to make up on Inmarosa.

Mathieu Mottier's Keep Going (Follow You) finished third, while Björn Goop secured the fourth and final qualifying spot behind Daniel Wäjersten's Kuiper (Face Time Bourbon). After spending most of the race along the rail, Kuiper produced an impressive late rally when an opening finally appeared with 100 meters remaining.

At age 8, Inmarosa appears to have found another gear. She entered Sunday's race off a victory in the €90,000 Prix des Cévennes at Vincennes.

It was her second victory of 2026, while last year's campaign included triumphs in the Harper Hanover's Race and €120,000 Prix du Bourbonnais, as well as a second-place finish in the Prix de France, a third in the Paralympiatravet, and a fourth in the Prix de Paris. She also established a world record in the Harper Hanover's Race.

"The mare is getting older, and many times I've thought things would become more difficult for her, but she just keeps impressing us," Léo Abrivard said. "Inmarosa is simply a phenomenon."

NOBEL SPEED CAPITALIZES ON POCKET TRIP IN PRIX PIERRE PLAZEN

Sunday's program at Vincennes also featured major stakes races for the 3-year-old trotters.

Nobel Speed (Hooker Berry—Vague Speed) took advantage of a pocket trip to capture the $125,000 Prix Pierre Plazen, a Group 2 event for 3-year-old colts, for driver Anthony Barrier. Barrier sent Nobel Speed to the lead early before surrendering command to Not This Time.

Once Nobel Speed found racing room in the stretch, he quickly put the race away, winning in a 1:58.1 mile rate for 2,700 meters.

Favorite Nobel du Rib (Face Time Bourbon) produced a tremendous recovery to finish second after making a break at the start and losing considerable ground, while Nob Hill (Gu d'Héripré) finished third.

SIX STRAIGHT FOR NAYA D'ERONVILLE

Naya d'Eronville had to work a little harder than usual to record her sixth consecutive victory in Sunday's $125,000 Prix Guy Deloison for 3-year-old fillies at Vincennes.

Clément Duvaldestin sent Naya d'Eronville (Hohneck—Calliope de Reux) to the lead early in the Group 2 event, and the filly fought off her challengers to win in a 1:59.1 mile rate for 2,700 meters.

She held off Nocive du Choquel (Face Time Bourbon) by a half-length. The runner-up had launched a three-wide attack with 900 meters remaining before racing first-over for the final 650 meters.

Nacre du Mouthieux (Ready Cash) closed for third with Théo Duvaldestin in the sulky.

CAPTAIN COREY SON DOMINATES SWEDEN'S BIGGEST 2-YEAR-OLD RACE

No Swedish-bred 2-year-old has ever earned more money racing on Swedish soil than Rocksteady Artist, and on Saturday (Nov. 21), the colt put on a show for Claes Sjöström in the $240,000 Svensk Uppfödningslöpning, Sweden's premier race for 2-year-old trotters, at Jägersro.

Sjöström was in no particular hurry leaving the gate, allowing Rocksteady Artist (Captain Corey—Ravine) to race first-over early before taking command from stablemate Dundee with one lap remaining.

Dundee and Jorma Kontio had been quickest off the gate, but once Rocksteady Artist reached the front, there was little doubt about the outcome. With a half-lap remaining, Auguste advanced to the outside of Sjöström's colt but never posed a serious threat.

The son of Captain Corey drew away effortlessly to win in a 1:57.2 mile rate for 1,640 meters.

Watch the race replay here.

"It's a wonderful feeling, and this is exactly how you imagine it will feel when you're sitting in the bathtub a week before the race, driving it in your head," Sjöström said with a smile.

"It turned out to be very easy. Rocksteady Artist felt fantastic and raced extremely well."

For Sjöström, it was the biggest victory of his career, both as a trainer and as a driver.

BREAKING STRIDE
with TREY NOSRAC

The Distant Dozen (Intro)

by Trey Nosrac

Welcome to the Distant Dozen. You know who you are. Nobody else does. You will remain incognito.

Your fellow conspirators are scattered across Nevada, Florida, North Carolina, California, Tennessee, Alabama, Texas, Oregon, South Carolina, Washington, with one expatriate in Brazil. These locations are hardly hotbeds of harness racing. Most of you have never seen a harness race and wouldn't know a sulky from a shopping cart.

Perfect. We will go slowly and have fun. There will be visuals.

You agreed to participate in an experiment, and I intend to reward your recklessness. Should our baby horse grow into a solid competitor, your reward may be a microscopic sliver of the net earnings and perhaps some swag like a T-shirt and a cap.

No contracts. No financial risk. No obligations. No names. All that is required is your attention. This will be a real horse, but not an official partnership. Consider any rewards as gifts for your participation.

Those of us addicted to this fascinating sport have not had much success introducing harness racing to new people. We start with races, wagering, racing programs, and complicated terminology. This time, we will begin with a horse, a single horse with a unique personality.

The working premise is that maybe people need to care about a horse before they care about a horse race. Along the way, they will meet the people who care for the horse. We'll let that horse tell the story and see whether 12 strangers become interested in what happens next.

Buying a yearling racehorse is an unusual exercise in optimism. We look at a young horse that has never raced, study the family, inspect legs, ask questions, write checks, and hope that after long months of practice, somewhere inside the animal is a competitive racehorse. Each baby horse is a story. Nobody knows how the story will develop.

Here's a trivia-night word: anthropomorphism is the literary practice of giving animals human characteristics, including the ability to think, speak, and tell their own stories. It's hardly a literary breakthrough. Anna Sewell did it in Black Beauty in 1877. Michael Morpurgo gave us another equine orator in War Horse in 1982. And Garth Stein let a dog named Enzo philosophize about human behavior in The Art of Racing in the Rain in 2008.

Our horse will be considerably less literate, young, inexperienced, bewildered, a bit flippant, and constantly eavesdropping on the human beings who hold the reins.

As usual, I have placed the cart before the horse. Over the next few weeks, I will scramble and purchase a partial interest in a yearling (a yearling is a 1-year-old horse). My preference is to find a horse that lives in Ohio and has a trainer and grooms who will be comfortable becoming part of the story.

In late January, our as-yet-unknown horse will introduce themself and begin telling their story via weekly posts on the HRU website. By late June of 2027, you might be racing for money and watching on your iPad.

Between those dates, anything can happen. The horse doesn't know what's coming. Neither do the Distant Dozen. And neither, as usual, does Trey.

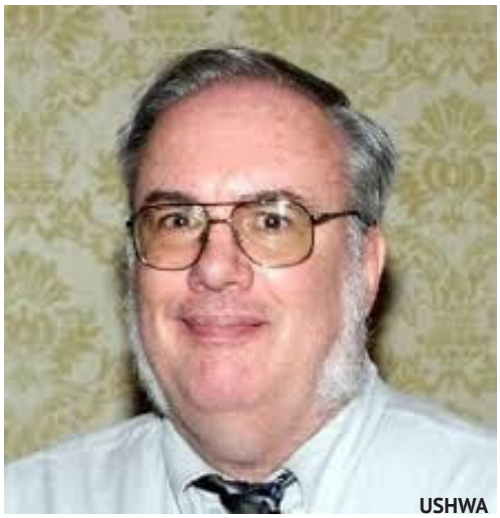
Jerry Connors named 2026 USHWA Member of the Year

by U.S. Harness Writers Association

The United States Harness Writers Association (USHWA) has named Jerry Connors its 2026 Member of the Year, recognizing the long-time national secretary for his service to the association and the time and expertise he gives to its members. Connors, a life member from the Keystone Chapter, previously received the award in 2005.



USHWA

Jerry Connors.

Connors has served as USHWA's national secretary since 2002 and was reelected in February 2026. He coordinates with chapters on director representation at national meetings and receives chapter nominations for the Dan Patch and Hall of Fame Awards. His service extends to the questions that come up between meetings, when officers and members turn to him for advice or for the history behind an association decision.

"I have always known how important Jerry is to USHWA, but since stepping into the role of president this year, I've come to appreciate even more just how invaluable he is," said USHWA president Heather Vitale. "He has been such a tremendous resource and a huge support to me along the way, and I honestly don't know what I'd do without him at times. Whether it's answering questions, offering advice, or helping navigate things behind the scenes, Jerry is always there. But it's not only me he is helping: Jerry is always willing to give his time, knowledge, and energy to anyone in USHWA that needs it. He never hesitates to go above and beyond. I'm incredibly grateful for all he does."

Inducted into the Communicators Hall of Fame in 2016, Connors has worked as a sire stakes administrator, track publicist, handicapper, announcer, race timer, chart caller, and magazine columnist. His reporting for the Pennsylvania Harness Horsemen's Association has covered racing from the Pennsylvania fair circuit to the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes championships at Pocono.

Connors' Member of the Year award recognizes what he does with that experience. He makes himself available to members across the association, helps chapter leaders carry out their work, and shares his knowledge with the officers guiding USHWA today. He becomes the fourth USHWAn to receive the award twice, joining Steve Wolf, Moira Fanning, and Leon Zimmerman.

Connors will be among those honored at the Dan Patch Awards banquet, which is to be held at the Rosen Shingle Creek Resort in Orlando on Feb. 21. A link for hotel reservations is already online at usharnesswriters.com, and more information will be soon forthcoming, including information on sponsorships for the banquet and advertising in the souvenir banquet journal.

The U.S. Harness Writers Association is the leading group of communicators about the standardbred horse. USHWA conducts the official annual balloting for the sport's most prestigious honors: induction to the Hall of Fame and Communicators Hall of Fame, along with the selection of the Horse of the Year, Trotter, and Pacer of the Year, and the leading divisional horses of each season. Each year USHWA hosts the Dan Patch Awards banquet, honoring the best and brightest performers in North American harness racing. This banquet is the Association's principal source of funding, and with generous financial support from the harness racing and breeding industry, USHWA is able to host the banquet at a world-class facility in a world-class manner.

Burke tandem headlines Grade 2 Progress Pace

by Bally's Dover

A pair of Ron Burke-trained millionaires — Al Papi and Melillo — have been made the morning-line favorites in tonight's (Nov. 25) Grade 2 $223,960 Progress Pace, for 3-year-old male pacers, at Bally's Dover.

Al Papi, who set the pace in the Grade 2 Hap Hansen Matron on Nov. 12 before Odds On Mr Mamba overpowered him late for a 1:49.3 victory, has been installed the 2-1 morning-line favorite from the pole. The Papi Rob Hanover—Baron Remy colt has won six of 19 races this season and will retain regular driver Yannick Gingras. His stablemate Melillo will start from post 5 as the 5-2 second choice, with Todd McCarthy taking over the driving duties of the Sweet Lou—Rosemary Rose colt from Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. after a fourth-place effort in the Matron.

Odds On Mr Mamba and driver Dexter Dunn will start from post 2 as the 7-2 third choice following their win in the Matron. The Odds On Equuleus—Honky Tonk Woman gelding is one of two other millionaires in the field, along with Fragment (Jason Bartlett, post 3, 9-2).

The complete Progress Pace field, with drivers, trainers and morning line odds, is as follows:

$223,960 GRADE 2 PROGRESS PACE — 3-YEAR-OLD COLTS AND GELDINGS

PP — Horse — Driver — Trainer — Odds

1. Al Papi — Yannick Gingras — Ron Burke — 2-1
2. Odds On Mr Mamba — Dexter Dunn — Melanie Wrenn — 7-2
3. Fragment — Jason Bartlett — Petter Engblom — 9-2
4. Highland B Best — Troy Beyer — Katie Beyer — 8-1
5. Melillo — Todd McCarthy — Ron Burke — 5-2
6. Show Me Your Ace — Patrick Ryder — Chris Ryder — 10-1
7. Toast Of The Town — Tim Tetrick — Noel Daley — 8-1

The Progress is carded as the 10th of 15 races on tonight's program at Bally's Dover. The program also features the $110,000 Ramona Hubbard Delaware Standardbred Breeders' Fund series final for 2-year-old pacing fillies, carded as race 6. First post is 4:30 p.m. (EST).

Aintmyfirstro Deo (Scott Zeron) winning the $48,000 New Jersey Standardbred Development Fund final for 2-year-old pacing colts on Saturday at The Meadowlands.

New Jersey

Aintmyfirstro Deo best in NJSDF freshman final

by James Witherite / Meadowlands media relations

In a rookie season that saw him capture the New Jersey Sire Stakes Platinum championship and hold his own against nationally-acclaimed company with a third-place finish in the Kindergarten Classic final, Aintmyfirstro Deo saved his best for last, capping his 2026 campaign with a career-best 1:50 win in the $48,000 New Jersey Standardbred Development Fund (NJSDF) final for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings on Saturday (Nov. 21) at The Meadowlands.

Aintmyfirstro Deo and driver Scott Zeron yielded for a pocket ride behind Goal Oriented (driven by Joe Bongiorno) at the end of a :26.4 first quarter before angling back off the pegs midway up the backstretch to reclaim the top spot at the :54.3 half. On the far turn, Aintmyfirstro Deo braced for a steady first-over push from Vavoom (Jason Bartlett) before shrugging him off turning for home past the 1:23.1 three-quarters. The Perfect Sting—Some Renditions gelding capped his lifetime-best mile with a :26.4 sprint home and staved off a late rally from Goal Oriented, who took aim from the pocket with 150 yards to go, by a diminishing head. Vavoom finished third, six lengths behind.

"I thought if Joey was controlling the speed a little bit slower than that in the third quarter, I'd lose the sprint," said Zeron. "So, I took it into my own hands, and my guy delivered because Joe had a fair shake to get out and made it a good race.

"That was pretty impressive to go [1:]50 flat in November."

From 11 starts this season, Aintmyfirstro Deo has won seven times and earned $244,750, over nine times his yearling purchase price of $27,000, for Hutchison Harness. The Megan Scran trainee paid $4 to win as the even-money favorite.

Perfect Sting completed a siring sweep of the NJSDF pacing divisions when Perfect Body and Brett Beckwith delivered a decisive 1:51.2 score in the $48,000 final for 2-year-old pacing fillies.

After being looped by Perfect Kiss (Bartlett) into the first turn, Perfect Body remained in the two-path and worked forward to clear Perfect Kiss at the end of a :27.3 quarter. From there, the Perfect Sting—Sweet Body filly faced nary a threat, coasting through middle splits of :56 and 1:24 before steadily extending her winning margin over Perfect Kiss to 2¾ lengths. Denim N Pearls (Ryder Skinner) was a one-paced third after mounting a mild first-over push off the far turn.

"She's gotten so much better as the year goes on," said Beckwith of Perfect Body, who improved her seasonal tally to six wins and $267,550 in earnings for trainer Christopher Choate and the partnership of Randall Beach, Craig Smith, Charles Rowe, and Carl Austin, Jr. "Hopefully she can develop into a really nice 3-year-old."

As the 3-10 favorite, Perfect Body paid $2.60 to win.

Odds-on favorites swept both $48,000 trotting divisions: Kindergarten Series champ HL Kapara ($2.40) fended off pocket foe French Mistress to take the filly section in 1:54.2, and Kountry Infusion ($2.80) held steadfast under a host of challengers for a 1:55.3 maiden-breaking win in the male split.

In the filly trot, HL Kapara and driver Tim Tetrick used the entire first turn to work clear of French Mistress (Bartlett) past a :27.3 quarter. The Chapter Seven—Sel's Choice rated middle splits of :57.2 and 1:25, parried a stern outside push from third-place finisher Day One Dandy (Zeron) and keeping pocket foe French Mistress three-quarters-of-a-length at bay for her fourth win from 12 starts.

Lisa Photo

Kourtney Infusion (Yannick Gingras) winning the NJSDF final for 2-year-old trotting colts.

Harry Landy, who trains HL Kapara, has taken an unconventional approach with the filly, whose NJSDF win lifted her to $188,023 in earnings for owner/breeder Share A Horse Inc.

"She actually rides most of the week; she doesn't even see a harness," he said. "She rides four miles at a trot and sometimes goes in the pool. I try to teach them how to do everything. You're working different muscles, especially the shoulders for the trotters."

The male trot saw Yannick Gingras take his time working Kountry Infusion to the lead, waiting for Bacio Blue Chip (Bruce Richardson) to clear Sampras (Bongiorno) at the end of a :28.3 quarter before releasing the Muscle Hill—Cash Infusion colt to the top. After clearing midway up the backstretch, Kountry Infusion shrugged off a bid from third-place finisher Bacio Blue Chip off the home turn and evaded an inside challenge from runner-up Sampras to win by three-quarters-of-a-length.

"I could tell Joe had some trot behind me, but it was maybe keeping him locked in long enough that he wouldn't beat us," said Gingras, "but my horse felt really good."

Trainer Åke Svanstedt co-owns Kountry Infusion, who has earned $36,025, with Brochart Stable and Joe Sbrocco & JAF Racing.

BOMBS AWAY: After favorites won six of the first eight races on the card, the long shot players got to have some fun. Driver Brad Chisholm, who guided four winners Friday night, scored with Rocknroll Gold in the ninth race, who paid $101.00. In the next race, Beckwith guided Johnny Lincoln N to victory with a payoff of $93.40.

But the big one was yet to come.

Vinny Ginsburg teamed up with Hes A Sweetheart to take the 14th race after gunning down 2-5 favorite Fox Valley Mamba, and the return for a $2 win ticket was a whopping $176.40.

A LITTLE MORE: Zeron, Beckwith, and Tetrick all guided two winners to lead the driver colony… Jeffrey Smith's two victories topped the trainers… All-source betting on the 14-race program totaled $1,727,864.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Francisca beats Franchesca in DSBF filly final

by Bally's Dover

Already the fastest 2-year-old female trotter ever in the history of the Delaware Standardbred Breeders' Fund (DSBF) program by virtue of her 1:56 win in second-round preliminary action, Ron Burke trainee Francisca lowered her stakes record by another fifth of a second on Monday (Nov. 23) when she posted a decisive 1:55.4 score over Franchesca in the $110,000 DSBF series championship for rookie trotting fillies at Bally's Dover.

In line to Jason Thompson, Francisca was an unhurried fourth behind stablemate Daringly (driven by Corey Callahan) through a :28.3 first quarter, inherited third with a lap to go when Angel In Flight (Montrell Teague) broke stride, and angled first-over approaching the :58 half to begin her pursuit of the top spot. The Southwind Frank—Panamera filly made steady progress, took the lead from Daringly with three-eighths-of-a-mile remaining, and opened a four-length lead past the 1:26 three-quarters. She ultimately prevailed by 3½ lengths over Franchesca (Russell Foster), who sustained an overland grind to overtake Daringly for second and narrowly hold off a late rally from third-place finisher Vamoose (Eddie Dennis).

Francisca, who competes as a homebred for Burke Racing Stable and Weaver Bruscemi, increased her career earnings to $65,000. Now a two-time winner from three starts, she paid $2.80 to win as the 2-5 favorite.

The race was named for Marv Bachrad, longtime harness racing publicist and commentator at Bally's Dover and the defunct Brandywine Raceway.

ASHA launches online auction to benefit Knight family

The Alberta Standardbred Horse Association (ASHA) has launched the Homestretch Assistance Program Silent Auction in honor of Scott Knight, with 100 per cent of proceeds going directly to Knight's family.

Just over a month ago, the Canadian harness racing community suffered a heartbreaking loss when Knight tragically passed away following an accident at Desert Park.

"Our harness racing community may be small, but its heart is enormous," said a statement by Alberta Standardbred Horse Association on social media. "In the weeks since Scott's passing, people from across Canada and around the world have reached out, asking how they can help and showing just how strong the bonds within our sport truly are. Thanks to the incredible generosity of individuals and businesses throughout our racing community, we have some amazing items up for auction. We invite everyone to take part, place a bid and help us come together for a family that means so much to our community."

Click here to access the online silent auction, which currently includes stallion breedings, equipment, racing services, and dining experiences.

Anyone who would like to donate to the auction should contact ASHA board member Tiffany Schwenk at tiffany.schwenk@businessinstincts.com before the end of day today (Nov. 25).

The auction ends on Monday (Nov. 30).

Northfield Park unveils new state-of-the-art Ohio State Racing Commission test barn

Northfield Park has completed a state-of-the-art test barn to support the Ohio State Racing Commission's (OSRC) regulatory testing and help protect the integrity and safety of Ohio harness racing.

Designed by Adam Building, the barn provides upgraded accommodations for regulatory personnel, veterinarians, and horses undergoing required testing.

"Providing a first-class racing environment means investing not only in our racing surfaces and facilities, but also in the infrastructure that protects the integrity of the sport," said Mike Colacarro, executive director of racing at Northfield Park. "This new state-of-the-art test barn is an important addition to our property and demonstrates our commitment to supporting the Ohio State Racing Commission and the continued success of harness racing in Ohio."

The state-of-the-art test barn is part of Northfield Park's broader investment in its backstretch and racing operations.

Northfield Park thanks everyone who helped plan and build the barn, as well as the Ohio State Racing Commission for its continued partnership and oversight.

Fragment voted U.S. Trotting District 8 Horse of the Year

Multiple graded stakes winner and two-time New York champion 3-year-old pacing colt Fragment has been voted the U.S. Trotting Association's District 8 Horse of the Year.

Trained by Per Engblom for owners Engblom Farm, Doug Sipple and Peaceful Acre Farm, the son of Huntsville has five wins in 13 starts this year, and $591,716 in seasonal earnings.

Fragment began his major stakes season with a triumph in the $200,000 (Grade 2) MGM Grand Messenger Pace final at Yonkers. Throughout the season he was first or second in five legs of the New York Sire Stakes, and captured the rich $300,000 (R1) NYSS final with primary driver Jason Bartlett in the sulky.

In addition, Fragment finished second in the $197,100 Empire Breeders Stake at Tioga, finished fourth in the $550,000 Grade 1 Little Brown Jug final, and was fifth back just 3¾ lengths in the $664,500 Grade 1 Breeders Crown final to Dan Patch Harness Horse of the Year candidate Brandon Blvd.

When the Monticello-Goshen Chapter of the U.S. Harness Writers Assoc. (USHWA) holds their 67th annual Awards banquet on Sunday (Dec. 6, 2026), presenting sponsor the New York Sire Stakes, along with representatives of the U.S. Trotting Association's District 8, will honor a host of additional human and equine honorees, including:

U.S. Trotting District 8 Human Awards go to: Driver of the Year, Jason Bartlett; Trainer of the Year, Noel Daley; Owner of the Year, Purple Haze Stables; Breeder of the Year, Crawford Farms.

U.S. Trotting District 8 Horse Awards: Horse of the Year, Fragment (3-year-old colt pace), Rose Run Cowboy (2CP), Cowboy Candy (2FP), Uncle Rob (2CT), Kountry Plunge (2FT), Savage Cindy (3FP), Read The Room (3CT), Sharp Seven (3FT).

New York Sire Stakes 2026 Horse Awards: Bastonata Bluechip (2CP), Huntsville Honey (2FP), Uncle Rob (2CT), Kountry Plunge (2FT), Fragment (3CP), Savage Cindy (3FP), AI (3CT), Sharp Seven (3FT).

New York Sire Stakes 2026 Human Awards: Driver of the Year, Jason Bartlett; Trainer of the Year, Ake Svanstedt; Owner of the Year, Purple Haze Stables; Breeder of the Year, Crawford Farms.

NY Excelsior Series 2026 champions: Bacchus Blue Chip (2CP), Prop Bet (2FP), Telling Tall Tales (2CT), Solar Queen (2FT), Aries Blue Chip (3CP), Lady Oakley (3FP), Number Seven (3CT), My Philomene (3FT).

NY County Fair 2026 champions: Chief Hunt (2CP), Ashlee's Choice (2FP), Atomic Promise (2CT), Double Stack (2FT), Harry's Boy (3CT), Met's Tour (3FT); Driver of the Year: Wade Tomaszewski, Trainer of the Year: James Rothfuss.

Funds raised through the banquet and souvenir journal have allowed the Monticello-Goshen Chapter to give well over $165,000 to Goshen Historic Track and the Harness Racing Museum & Hall of Fame over the last two decades. The Track and the Museum are two separate and distinct entities that share the same hallowed ground and a mutual purpose of preserving and promoting harness racing.

The practice of raising money and donating funds to Historic Track and the Hall of Fame began in the mid-1970s with Monticello Raceway publicity icon John Manzi, and has continued ever since.

Winter Wonderland and Market Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park

Woodbine Mohawk Park invites the local community to the fourth annual Winter Wonderland and Market, coming up this Saturday (Nov. 28) at Woodbine Mohawk Park from 3-7 p.m.

The afternoon of festive family-friendly fun features a holiday market of more than 40 local vendors, seasonal kid's activities, photos with Santa, and live magic shows.

At approximately 6:20 p.m., Santa and The Grinch will face off in the annual Christmas-themed exhibition race.

Guests are invited to spread some holiday cheer by bringing a new, unwrapped toy and/or non-perishable food item to support local families in need.

Toy donations will benefit Tiger Jeet Singh Foundation's Miracle on Main Street, while food donations to Food for Life Halton can be dropped into the hot tub in the main lobby sponsored by Hot Tub Movers.

The holiday festivities will lead into an evening of live racing. The first race post time is 6:30 p.m.

Admission and parking are free. All are welcome to join in the holiday fun.
