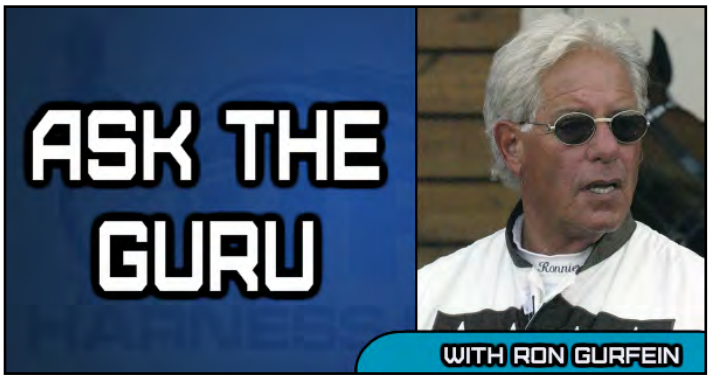
Hambletonian worsts to first, Triple Crown musings, more thoughts on Speedy Somolli and go-to Lexington restaurants

All in this week's edition of harness racing's most popular advice column.

by Ron Gurfein



Tidbits: To Alan J Leavitt (AJL) about your comment on Speedy Somolli (HRU Feedback).

I am very impressed that a man that reads Joyce Carol Oates can reduce himself to read my column. That said you took my "decent" comment out of context. It remains my opinion that he was a decent sort in comparison with the likes of Muscle Hill. On another note, I trained a few Speedy Somollis and many Cantab Halls another AJL sire and there was little comparison there. Although Cantab Hall didn't produce Hambletonian winners, in my opinion he was a better sire. Somali, on the other hand, did sire three Hambletonian winners, actually two and a half (one dead heat) none of which was a household name.

Lazarus delivered as advertised in the Dan Patch. Congratulations to Team Takter. After a brutal trip to the quarter pole he won in hand for Yannick Gingras in a stunning performance. Yannick added after the event that he thought under the right conditions he may pace in 1:46 or better. If the scenario can be achieved, the maestro will get it accomplished.

Team Takter also prevailed in the Millstein with Thinkbig Dreambig, a colt that I selected for a great performance every week and he repeatedly got in trouble. I had no handicapping column this week and a $17 ticket is missed by my readers. Now you know why I am not a gambler.

I have no idea how many of the HRU community are golf fans, but if you are I hope you had the opportunity to see the last 36 holes of the PGA Championship last weekend. Brooks Koepka born in horse country (Wellington, FL) and Tiger Woods finished one-two in a most riveting afternoon of golf. Two unbelievable facts: first Tiger, who has come back from back fusion surgery, shot a record 130 for the last 36 holes of a major and he wasn't sure he would ever play again and Brooks won his third major at age 28.

Be prepared in November for my yearly anniversary column it will be The Guru Asks You.

I may temporarily change my cloak to the Pacing Guru as my favorite pacing yearling of 2018 De Los Cielos Deo and my favorite performing colt at Sunshine Meadows, Captain Ahab, remain undefeated winning the sires stakes at The Meadows and the Dream Maker final at Woodbine Mohawk Park, respectively. I anxiously await the showdown that I think will occur sooner than later.

Joseph T Schmidt asks: What is the worst placed finish in a Hambletonian elimination of a horse that would go on to win the final? Who was it and what was the year?

In modern times I can only think of one and it would be Probe in 1989 when he dead heated in the race off with Park Avenue Joe. He won the first heat and made a break in the second finishing 9th.

I am sure in earlier times there were some, but to research 90 races is above my pay grade. In today's world, these type of recoveries are impossible unless there is one division because if there are eliminations the furthest back you can finish is fifth because only 10 horses will be in the final. In earlier years, they decided the winner by what they called summary, where you must win two heats to be declared the winner. Under those circumstances a horse could make a break and finish 19th in the first heat and come back and win the next two and be the winner, the summary would be (19-1-1). Of interest is the fact that both Bonefish (1975) and Steve Lobell (1976) were forced to go four heats to get the grand prize. Steve Lobell almost died in the effort, and due to his near fatal experience, the Hambletonian Society reduced the amount of possible heats to three. I personally have raced three heats in the DuQuoin oven where it can be 100 degrees in the shade and will say it's not a fun experience.

Peter Lister asks: The Kentucky Sires Stake are around the corner and I will be attending the Red Mile. What are some of the great restaurants you would recommend?

Peter, to begin with, I want it to be very clear you cannot use the word "great" to describe any Lexington restaurant. However if you are adventurous and are willing to travel a bit, there is a gem in Midway maybe a dozen miles from downtown called the Holly Hill Inn. Its founder Ouita Michel is one of the most successful restaurateurs in the state of Kentucky. Fresh seasonal ingredients from local farmers are at the heart of Chef Michel's menus. Dinners are only served Wednesday through Saturday with an amazing brunch on Saturday and Sunday. They have a wonderful wine list.

As for dinner in the city, there are many fun places where you can have a nice meal. My personal favorite is Le Deauville on Limestone. Mark, the very French proprietor, can be a little too French if you don't know him, but once you do, all is well. The scene is the best Lexington has to offer and the later you stay the crazier it gets. Steak is always good and many of the French dishes are nice. The mussels are by far their best offering and they have an all you can eat on Tuesday. The salads and appetizers are also worth trying as well as the onion soup.

Dudley's on Short is by far the best you can do for lunch. There is a formal room for quiet dinning or a business meeting or the bar area, more fun but noisy and not private. There are a lot of good choices for lunch and they have specials each day. I like the North Mill Club or the Cobb Salad. Dinner here is a lively affair also, however the Steak Frites is my only recommendation. Aside from that, you are on your own. Debbie Long, the owner, is a charming lady I have known for 35 years. If you go, please say hello for me.

Tony's of Lexington is the new kid on the block. Located across from Triangle Park, it's walking distance from the major hotels. It's big, noisy, and they serve good steak. It's a favorite of many horsepeople, so much so that many eat there exclusively during sale time. I suggest reservations at that time of year. The food is good, maybe pricey for Kentucky, but to me it's like dining in the farm show arena, just not cozy enough.

For sushi lovers, there is a good one. Not far from downtown (maybe 2 miles) — Tachibana, a restaurant owned by Toyota Corp., serves very good Japanese fare. As with most good sushi restaurants, it's a bit pricey, but the lunch specials are amazing. You can have a fabulous lunch for around $10. It's on the way to Fasig-Tipton so it is quite convenient. The spicy salmon hand roll is the best.

John Furgele asks: Why are pacing and trotting Triple Crowns not as ballyhooed as the thoroughbred Triple Crown? When Justify won the Derby it was on to the Preakness. When Atlanta won the Hambletonian there was no mention of the Yonkers Trot or any other race.

It would be lovely to be able to make a comparison between thoroughbred and standardbred Triple Crowns. Unfortunately, the thoroughbreds have (this is a guess) 1,000 fans to every one of ours. They have the power in numbers to attract major advertisers and have huge national television coverage. We had Cadillac for a while, but it didn't last very long. Our sport has become solely a sport of the people, the other is one that attracts the rich and famous and the media all year long. When Bobby Flay, or Rob Gronkowski buy a horse it is of national interest. When George Segal or David McDuffee buy a horse it's only of importance to their heirs.

In regard to the next race, the Yonkers Trot is a month away, the Preakness is two weeks after the Derby. We are accustomed to racing every week, so it's hard to accurately assess the probability of a race a month away.

The thoroughbred media are way more attuned to the Triple Crown than the standardbred crew. One reason being that the runners' Crown is contested in a five-week span, ours at times has been months. This year, the Hambletonian was on Aug. 4, the Yonkers Trot final Sept. 1 and the Kentucky Futurity is Oct. 7 — over a two-month span.

This year's Hambletonian was such a mess that I wrote that I couldn't wait till the Kentucky Futurity to see the same group all over again with all things going right. I never thought about the Yonkers Trot as a format to bring out the best in the horse. Half-mile track racing is a way of gambling and in no way a platform to test the ability of the equine athlete. Just the post position draw can pretty much eliminate a contestant before the man says go.

Thanks to all my readers for the kind words Please keep the questions coming in. If you like the columns I write on food, books, movies etc. please email me and if you prefer me sticking to horses, I would be very interested to hear. Your input is very important to me. Have a wonderful week.

Manchego to face seven Hambletonian starters in Zweig

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

The public's faith in 3-year-old female trotter Manchego wavered ever so slightly earlier this month in the Hambletonian Oaks, when for the first time in her career she was not the favorite, but she looked to restore confidence with her stakes-record 1:50 win in the event. Now, she will try to bolster her status by taking on the boys in tonight's $350,000 Dr. Harry M. Zweig Memorial open trot at Vernon Downs in upstate New York.

Manchego is the 5-2 morning-line favorite in the Zweig, where she will face a field of eight male rivals. Manchego, who has won 17 of 19 career races, will start from post two with Yannick Gingras driving for trainer Jimmy Takter. She will try to become the first filly since Moni Maker in 1996 to win an open division of the Zweig.

The card also includes the $180,000 fillies-only division of the Zweig, which features stakes-winner and world-record-holder Plunge Blue Chip and Frank Zanzucckі Trot winner Basquiat. In addition, there is an $80,000 Zweig consolation division for the colts. Racing begins at 6:10 p.m.

Prior to wins in her Oaks elimination and the final, Manchego saw her career-opening 15-race victory streak snapped when she went off stride in the Earl Beal Jr. Memorial at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono on June 30 and got beat by a nose by Plunge Blue Chip in her world-record 1:49.4 mile on July 14 at The Meadowlands.

The 2017 Dan Patch Award-winner also saw a streak of 20 consecutive appearances in the sport's Top 10 dating back to last season come to an end. She returned to the Top 10 following her win in the Oaks.

"She showed up (in the Hambletonian Oaks) and she was huge," said Barry Guariglia, whose Black Horse Racing is among Manchego's owners with John Fielding and Herb Liverman. "I thought the elim and the final was what she's all about. If you take a step back and look at the disappointment when she made that break in the Beal, there are no other blemishes to speak of. I'm very pleased with her."

Guariglia knew Manchego's win streak would come to an end at some point, and to see it happen when she made the break on the final turn of the Beal while challenging for the lead softened the blow.

"I knew it would happen eventually," Guariglia said. "To do it that way was almost better because you had no shot instead of getting nosed out on the line. It wasn't for lack of ability."

Dave Landry

Manchego (at home at Jimmy Takter's Farm) will take on the boys tonight in the Zweig at Vernon Downs.

As for missing by a nose the honor of being the fastest 3-year-old trotter in harness racing history, Guariglia said, "That other filly went the race of her life. It happens. That's the only thing missing, that mark by a tick, but I've got a funny feeling somewhere down the road maybe we'll get a shot at it again."

Manchego's connections bypassed the opportunity to race the boys in the Hambletonian, preferring instead to compete in the all-filly Oaks. It paid off, with Gingras and Takter teaming for their fifth consecutive win in the event.

Tonight, Manchego will see a number of colts from the Hambletonian, including second-place finisher Met's Hall, Alarm Detector, Classichap, Evaluate, Fashionwoodchopper, Patent Leather, and Six Pack. The Hambletonian was won by another filly, Atlanta. She was not eligible to the Zweig.

"It's one heat, so we thought we would try it again," Guariglia said about facing the boys, which Manchego also did in the Beal. "We'll see what happens. We drew well. It looks like a pretty competitive race.

"I take every week as a challenge. You're kind of expected to win week to week, so it's a little bit harder maybe mentally. But I don't take anything or anybody for granted because it's a horserace."

Guariglia, a financial advisor, has enjoyed harness racing for more than 40 years. He was at the Meadowlands Racetrack when it opened in 1976 and got into racehorse ownership at the age of 27. Winning the Oaks was a thrill.

"I never won anything like the Oaks, never a race that big, on Hambo Day," Guariglia said. "That was a lot of fun. It was a little chaotic in the winner's circle but that's OK too. It was a nice crowd, a nice spot to be.

"It's wonderful. It doesn't get any better."

Makethemark best among 5-year-olds

by Thomas Hedlund

Petri Salmela-trained Makethemark (Maharajah) won the $218,0000 Jubileumspokalen for 5-year-olds at Solvalla Tuesday night and the performance was impressive.

Twelve of the best 5-year-old trotters in Europe was found behind the gate in this year's edition of Jubileumspokalen in Stockholm and over 1.3 miles the race became a real show for the spectators.

Diamanten, Cyber Lane, Double Exposure, Love Matters and Pastore Bob were all charged for the task and with a race like this, over 1.3 miles on a 5/8 track, the right post positions are important and Makethemark began from post 4 and driver Ulf Ohlsson could just let his horse slip down to the second lane and wait to use Makethemark's speed in the home stretch.

Love Matters took the lead from Pastore Bob in a heavy first quarter and the son of Explosive Matter early got company from Cyber Lane on the outside.

Milligan's School attacked from third over with a quarter to go and behind him Makethemark waited for order to attack, a command which was given at the end of the last turn. The son of Maharajah flew the last 200 meters and came home in mile rate 1:53.4.

Makethemark is a talented Swedish trotter that showed early that he belonged among the best in the crop both as a 3- and 4-year-old. Unfortunately for the entourage around the horse, Petri Salmela forgot to engage the horse in last year's Derby, the biggest target for the 4-year-olds in Sweden. This victory was a bit of a revenge and proof that Salmela has a horse that can challenge the more merited trotters in the elite events in Europe in the future.

Stefan Melander trained Milligan's School that finished second ahead of Cyber Lane.

"I've won many nice races throughout my career as a trainer, but this is the biggest that has happened to me in this sport," Salmela said.

Makethemark proved already in Norrbottens Stora Pris in Boden in June that he belongs among the top trotters when he seriously challenged Propulsion and got close at the wire.

Darling Mearas win European Championship

The European Championship for Mares was held the same night at Solvalla and $98,000 dollars waited for the winner.

Stefan Persson trained and driven Darling Mearas (Cantab Hall) started for the 22nd time in her life and showed her great capacity by winning in a mile rate 1:54.4 over 1.3 miles.

Stefan Persson drove his horse perfectly all the way. From the start he used Darling Mearas' speed to get to the front, but that position was nothing that Persson was interested in when Alessandro Gocciadoro sent Trndy O.K. forward in second lane. A cover race behind the leader was the best move and Darling Mearas exploded to an easy win.

"This is just incredible and I'm so happy right now. It's not every trainer that gets a chance to train a horse like this and she's been doing almost everything right since she started her career," Persson said.

Snowstorm Hanover wins Big Noon Pokalen

American-bred Kentucky Futurity winner Snowstorm Hanover (Muscle Massive) hadn't shown anything extraordinary on Swedish tracks before the Big Noon Pokalen at Solvalla on Tuesday night. Örjan Kihlström steered the 4-year-old Muscle Massive son to a world record over 1,660 meters in a race that had a voltstart. Snowstorm Hanover won in 1:55.2 and got $33,000 for the victory.

Sweden International Yearling Sale

In conjunction with the Jubileumspokalen at Solvalla, the Sweden International Yearling Sale was held outside of Stockholm and about 100 trotters were catalogued. Ninety-one trotters were sold and the average price for the yearlings landed on $45,379, which was a proper increase from the last year's sale.

The highest-priced yearlings sold were Habrik Am (Bold Eagle—Tamla Celeber) and Hefner Am (Muscle Hill—She Loves You) that each sold for $174,000.

Trainer Roger Walmann bought two of the three top three sold and paid $141,000 for the Father Patrick son Holy Ground, out of Moonlight Kronos, mother of Walmann's top trotter Dibaba.

Aubrion du Gers strongest in Paris

Jean-Michel Bazire-trained Aubrion du Gers (Memphis du Rib) showed great strength again when he won the $170,000 Prix d'Europe at Enghien, Paris on Tuesday afternoon.

Bazire put in the highest gear in Aubrion du Gers before the last turn in the 1.8 miles long race and when in lead before the home stretch, the 8-year-old had to defend himself against attacking Bird Parker. Aubrion du Gers had no problem fending off the attack to win Prix d'Europe for the second year in a row in new stakes record, mile rate of 1:54.3.

Hambletonian future wager results in healthy payoffs

Those that backed Atlanta early were rewarded.

for the Meadowlands and Hambletonian Society

A 2018 Hambletonian Future Wager featuring three separate pools resulted in healthy payoffs for those who backed Atlanta to become the 14th filly winner of the Hambletonian. The minimum future wager was $1.00, with win wagering only with 17 per cent take-out and 15 betting interests each time the pool was opened. The winner of each pool was determined by the official first-place finisher in the 2018 Hambletonian on Saturday, Aug. 4

The first pool, which opened June 22 and closed June 24 offered the top 14 contenders at the time with the remaining eligibles, including all fillies paid to the Oaks, as "the field." Those who bet the field in this pool got the eventual winner Atlanta and a $7.00 win mutuel.

The second future pool opened on July 20 and closed July 22. Atlanta debuted in the Future Pool at 8-1. Those who bet her in that pool got a mutuel payoff of $8.00.

The third Hambletonian Future Wager was opened after the race entries were drawn into the two elimination heats on Aug. 1 at noon and closed on Aug. 3 at 10 p.m. Hambletonian Eve. With Atlanta's official entry into the Hambletonian instead of the Oaks, the future line was set at 4-1.

After cutting extreme fractions and finishing second in her elimination heat, Atlanta rebounded in the final heat and won the $1 million Hambletonian final with the same pace-setting tactics. She rewarding those who backed her in Future wager #3 with $11.80, much better than the $6.40 she returned live on track on race day.

Total wagered on all three pools exceeded $33,000. The bet will return in 2019.

Hambletonian prop bet results

With legalized Sports Wagering now out of the gate at a full gallop in New Jersey, the FanDuel Sports Book at The Meadowlands Racetrack hosted several Hambletonian-related prop bets for the $4 million Hambletonian card on Saturday, August 4.

Of the eight prop bets offered, winning bets were:

- That the winning margin of victory would be less than 1 ½ lengths – it was Atlanta by a length.
- The head-to-head prop bet on pre-race favorites: colt Six Pack vs. the unbeaten filly Atlanta. Atlanta the winner of the Hambletonian final; Six Pack did not advance after an incident-marred elimination heat.

Claus Andersen

Atlanta's Hambletonian victory not only touched off a celebration for driver Scott Zeron and assistant trainer Ernie Hendry of the Rick Zeron Stable, it also was cause for celebration for those that backed the filly in futures betting.

- That the winning time of the Hambletonian would less than or equal to 1:51- it was 1:50.4.
- Whether the winner of the final would emerge as from the first or second elimination heart: Atlanta was in the first elimination heat.

One of the wagers offered was a parlay that required picking the winners of the two Hambletonian elimination heats, the Hambletonian Oaks final, (Hambletonian companion race for trotting fillies) and the winner of the Yankees-Red Sox game. That bet was not hit by any player.

The Meadowlands grandstand was packed on Hambletonian day, from the Roof to the FanDuel Sports Book. There was much cross-playing by bettors on both racing and sports.

More information about race dates and hours of operation for the sports book can be found at FanDuel Sports Book and The Meadowlands Racetrack .

Zeron wins all three KYSS filly tests at Red Mile

The 2018 edition of the Kentucky Sires Stakes (KYSS) got underway on Thursday evening at the historic Red Mile with five $30,000 divisions of leg #1 (three for the fillies and two for colts) covering the first five races and Hambletonian-winning driver Scott Zeron reprising his way with the ladies by winning all three of the filly splits.

French Café was a 1:54.4 winner in the first filly division (race 2) for Zeron who was subbing for trainer Julie Miler's husband Andy. The pair rolled up uncovered then powered by for an open-length win over early leader Can't Touch It (Takter) and Lindy Pearl (Brett Miller). French Café, by Father Patrick, was winning for the third time and took a new career mark here for breeder/owners Marvin Katz and Al Libfeld.

Zeron also teamed up to win a KYSS with filly Dark As A Pocket for trainer Paula Wellwood.

Zeron came right back in the third race to score with Dreamville Stables' flashy Trixton filly Dark As A Pocket for a familiar connection in trainer Paula Wellwood in 1:55.4. She was winning her third straight and was well in hand in an uncovered move around turn two for the score over Asiago (Takter) and Feel Invincible AS (Elliott Deaton). Dark As A Pocket is a Lexington Selected Yearling Sale graduate who brought $90,000 for breeders Steve Stewart, Kemppi Stables Oy and Pond-A-Acres.

The cleverly named Taylor Swiftly was arguably the most impressive of Thursday night's winners, storming by the field through the stretch in :27.3 off a second over ride for Zeron in a 1:55.1 mile with the greatest of ease. Whispering Oaks (Gingras) was up close throughout but had no answer for the winner while Graceful (Lachance) rallied for third. Taylor Swiftly is a Lindy Farms homebred from the first crop of Peter Haughton Memorial winner Don't Let'em went away as the prohibitive 1-9 favorite in the first race but reminded us why they race them as he went off-stride while settled in fourth midway up the backstretch, taking a significant show pool bridge jumper with him as he didn't set quickly enough to recover for a placing.

Barn mate Super Schissel saved the day for the Jimmy Takter barn with the trainer driving him to a 1:56 win while triggering a mutual return of $84.40 with the exacta and trifecta both paying off on "all". Reign Of Honor (Pat Lachance) closed to be second returning $177 to place and $150 to show with Manatlas (Brett Miller) paid $90 to show.

This was the first career win for Super Schissel, a son of first crop sire Uncle Peter and a $115,000 Lexington

Selected Sale buy for the account of Al Libfeld and Perry Soderberg. Coyote Wind Farms is the breeder.

Mike Wilder, fresh back from a trip to Ireland for the Vincent Delaney Memorial, was a winner in the other colt split with Forecast for trainer John Butenschoen. Wilder held his charge well back early then closed hard, widest of all through the stretch trotting a 28 end to the 1:56 mile over Practical Cat (Gingras) and Lindy's Crazy Hall (Zeron). The winner is owned by Wiswell, Goehlen and Schick who paid $70,000 for the Diamond Creek bred in Lexington last fall.

KYSS freshman pacers will race on Saturday evening here at The Red Mile with a 7:00 pm post time.

Burke records 9,000th career training win

Trainer Ron Burke, freshly over $200 million in career earnings, added another milestone to his huge collection when he trained the 9,000th winner of his career on Tuesday night, winning with On The Virg at Northfield Park for the magic tally.

Starting the day at 8,994 career wins, he bagged three wins at The Meadows and one at Scioto during afternoon racing, running his tally to 8,998. Victory #8,999 came with Southwind Storm as she finished a sweep of her four prelims in the PA Stallion Series for 2TF with a Pocono victory.

That win came at 9:14 p.m. A check of the USTA stats exactly two hours later saw Burke still hovering at 8,999, but then two late results were made "official" within the system, which is how the totals rise in PATHWAY. The milestone #9,000 came at 9:41 at Northfield with On The Virg, who wasn't even favored in a "nw3500L4" class, but was 14 lengths clear of the field in 1:50 — reaching the achievement in style.

And the night still wasn't over for Burke, as at 10:18 he won a New York Sire Stakes event at Saratoga with Bicorne Hanover, the first step on his undoubted way to 10,000 career training victories according to official records.

Fourth Dimension sidelined for rest of 2018 season

Fourth Dimension, the 2017 Dan Patch Award winner for best 2-year-old male trotter, will miss the remainder of this season because of a small fracture on his left knee, trainer

Mark Hall / USTA

Marcus Melander and Fourth Dimension.

Marcus Melander said Monday. Fourth Dimension last raced on Aug. 4 in an elimination for the Hambletonian and went off stride following the half-mile point.

Melander said the colt will require four months to recover from the injury. He said no decision was made, yet, regarding Fourth Dimension's future.

This year, Fourth Dimension was winless in four races. He finished second in his seasonal debut, and then went off stride in the final turn of his elimination for the Earl Beal Jr. Memorial. He went off stride again in his division of the Stanley Dancer Memorial and the Hambletonian.

"It's very disappointing, but there is nothing we can do about it other than give it time to heal," Melander said. "It was a very small fracture, which is probably why we didn't find it before. After (the Beal) he wasn't himself. He was fine when we trained him at home, but when he was going faster there was something bothering him more than just soreness. We went over him and couldn't find anything. Sometimes those small fractures take time before you can see them. We took him again and did a complete bone scan on him and they found it. I'm glad we found it."

Fourth Dimension is a son of Chapter Seven out of Corazon Blue Chip. He was purchased for $200,000 under the name Seventh Wonder at the 2016 Lexington Selected Sale and his family includes Dan Patch Award winner Magician. The colt is owned by Anders Strom's Courant Inc.

Last year, Fourth Dimension won eight of 11 races, setting or equaling four track records in the process. His victories included the Valley Victory Stakes, a division of the International Stallion Stakes, an elimination for the Breeders Crown, and four divisions of the New York Sire Stakes. He has earned $409,195 lifetime.

"We'll see what Anders wants to do," Melander said. "There should be some interest in him as a stud. He had a great year last year and he's got a great pedigree and is a good-looking horse. If he wants to stand him as a stud, he can do that; if he wants to race him next year, he can do that, too. He's got options. We've got a couple months before anything needs to be decided."

Draw complete for Sunday's $200,000 Prix D'Ete

On Tuesday, management from the Hippodrome 3R and the Quebec Jockey Club, drew the post positions for Sunday's $200,000 Prix D'Ete for 4-year-old pacers.

1. Eddard Hanover (Stephan Brosseau)
2. Beckhams Z Tam (Ricky Macomber)
3. Filibuster Hanover (Louis Philippe Roy)
4. American Wiggle (Louis Philippe Roy)
5. Blood Line (Trevor Henry)
6. Modern Reflection (Louis Philippe Roy)
7. Miso Fast (Daniel Dube)
8. Western Joe (Doug McNair)

Trainer Ron Burke has two horses in the Prix D'Ete, Eddard Hanover and Filibuster Hanover and Richard Moreau also has two horses entered, American Wiggle and Modern Reflection.

Team Burke and Jimmy Takter (Blood Line) are each seeking their third Prix D'Ete victory in the past five years as these two stables have dominated the race the past four years.

Jay Randall hits 4,000-win milestone

Driver Jay Randall joined the 4,000-win club on Wednesday (Aug. 15) when he piloted young trotter Brookroadgeorge (CR Excalibur) to victory at Saratoga Casino Hotel.

A longtime regular at Saratoga after beginning his career back in the 1970s, Randall was named the track's top up-and-coming driver in 1982. Now about 40 years into what has been a solid, consistent career in the sulky for the native New Yorker, Randall came into the evening with 3,999 career victories as a driver.

The 57-year-old reinsman wasted very little time reaching the career milestone on Wednesday night as he prevailed in his first drive on the card. Brookroadgeorge moved first-over and powered past his rivals before reporting home in 2:00.2 as an open length winner. The victory was the second in the young career of the Bruce Borden-trained trotter and the 4,000th in the illustrious career of longtime Spa regular Randall.

Randall wasted no time securing career victory number 4,001 as he piloted one of his trainees, So So Incredible (So Surreal), to a wire-to-wire score just a couple races after recording his milestone win on Wednesday.

Randall, who is enjoying his best season in several years, currently sits sixth in the driver standings at the Spa

Live racing resumes on Friday evening at Saratoga with a first post time set for 7:05 p.m.

Stag Party scorches around Grand River in record time

On Wednesday evening the top 2-year-old pacing colts and fillies in Ontario made Grand River Raceway their stage for the second straight week, and Stag Party wrote his name in lights with a commanding track, Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) and Canadian record performance in the second Gold division.

Starting from the advantageous Post 1, Stag Party moved smartly off the gate and parked Battle of Waterloo champion Bronx Seelster through a :26.3 quarter. When Bronx Seelster finally backed into the pocket, driver David Miller took his foot off the gas and Stag Party cruised to a :55.4 half and a 1:24.3 three-quarters. In the stretch, Miller asked the fan favorite to pick up the tempo once again, and Stag Party drew away to a five-length victory in 1:52.3. Bronx Seelster finished second and Stag Party's stablemate in the Casie Coleman barn was third.

"I wasn't expecting to break the track record with him, but I thought he'd be pretty good," said Coleman. "I wasn't expecting that kind of a mile, but he did it well in hand and Dave hardly had to speak to him much finishing, so I was real happy with him."

N C J Photography

Stag Party (David Miller) setting a track, Canadian and Ontario Sires Stakes record of 1:52.3 on the half-mile oval at Grand River Raceway on Wednesday in OSS Gold action.

The 1:52.3 mile shaved two-fifths of a second off the 1:53 track and Canadian record set by 2-year-old pacing colt Tarpon Hanover in the 2012 Battle of Waterloo Final and took a full second off the 1:53.3 Ontario Sires Stakes record for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings on a half-mile track established by Warrawee Needy at Flamboro Downs in 2011.

Coleman conditions the son of Bettors Delight and My Lady Day for her partners in the West Wins Stable of Cambridge, John Fielding of Toronto, Mac Nichol of Burlington and McKinlay & Fielding of Toronto. The partners acquired the colt for $125,000 at last fall's Harrisburg Yearling Sale and have watched him record three wins and one second through his first four starts, banking $113,900.

Stag Party will make his next start in the Aug. 25 Nassagaweya Stakes at Woodbine Mohawk Park and, as long as he continues to impress his connections, will follow that up with several more starts against the best young horses in North America.

"He's got the four big ones at Mohawk next, the Nassagaweya, Champlain and the Metro, so he'll be gearing up for those ones next," said Coleman. "I might have to dodge a couple of those Ontario Sires Stakes, just with how busy his schedule is going to be. I'll play it by ear when we get up closer to it."

Miller made the trip to Grand River specifically to drive Stag Party, to get a feel for the colt before they head into the open stake events, and the New Jersey resident was pleased with the youngster.

"I was really impressed with him. I told them, when I got off the bike, I said, 'I'll be there when he races next week.' That's a pretty good stamp of approval," said Miller with a chuckle. "He left the gate very well and his manners were good and I'm excited about him. I baby raced probably 500 babies this year and I had to go all the way to Canada to get one like that."

The other $96,400 pacing colt Gold division was captured by Battle of Waterloo runner-up Bettors Wish, who cruised home to a two-and-a-half length victory in 1:55. Keystone Concrete finished second and Coleman trainee Better Up was promoted from fourth to third when his stablemate Sporty Mcsportster, in rein to Miller, suffered interference in the stretch from eventual third-place finisher Sports Teen. As a result, Sports Teen was placed from third down to sixth, behind Sporty Mcsportster.

Paul MacDonell piloted fan favourite Bettors Wish to his second Gold win for trainer Chantal Mitchell and owners Chris Ryder of Allentown, NJ, Bella Racing Ltd. of Delaware, OH, Fair Island Farm Inc. of Versailles, KY and Kenneth Solomon of Coral Springs, FL. The Bettors Delight son was a $20,000 purchase from the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale and has posted four wins, one second, one third and earnings of $185,438 in his first six starts.

Trainer Dave Menary and driver Jody Jamieson swept the $97,200 pacing filly divisions with Battle of the Belles champion Quebec Blue Cup and runner-up Ideation Hanover.

Both fillies controlled the tempo from start to finish, with Ideation Hanover cruising from Post 1 to a 1:55 victory in the first split. Kylie Seelster finished one length behind the fan favorite in second and Menary trainee Blossom Onthebeach was third.

Menary Racing Inc., Michael Guerriero and Alan Alber share ownership of Ideation Hanover. The Bettors Delight daughter was a $50,000 acquisition from the Harrisburg Yearling Sale and boasts a record of two wins, two seconds, one third and $101,600 through five starts.

Quebec Blue Chip romped to her third straight victory over the Grand River oval, pacing under the wire seven lengths ahead of favorite Sweet Young Thing and Crisp Mane in 1:56. Menary Racing Inc., Michael Guerriero, Kenneth Ewen and Bruce Norris own the Sportswriter daughter, who was a $40,000 purchase from Harrisburg. Through six starts she now has four wins, one second and one third for earnings of $167,488.

"I kind of figured both fillies would be on the front, and that's the way it worked," said Menary, who will also give the fillies a chance to test their skills against the best in North American in the upcoming Eternal Camnation Stake at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Aug. 25.

"In the last couple weeks I think they've earned the opportunity," said the horseman. "Hopefully they can carry this, translate it to the bigger track."

The two-year-old pacing colts and fillies will return to Gold Series action on September 28 at Woodbine Mohawk Park in the fourth of five regular season events.

Ontario Sires Stakes action continues at Grand River Raceway on Monday, August 27 with the fourth Grassroots event for the three-year-old trotting fillies.

Tall Drink Hanover wins Whenuwishuponastar

Tall Drink Hanover avoided a second-quarter jam up to win Tuesday's $37,000 Whenuwishuponastar Series Final at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

A field of eight rookie pacing fillies competed in the finale of the three-week Whenuwishuponastar Series.

Trainer Tony Alagna sent out the strong duo of round one winners Key West and Tall Drink Hanover. The betting public made Key West the heavy 1-5 favorite, but a second-quarter incident likely cost her a third-consecutive victory.

Carousel and driver Doug McNair blasted off the wings of the gate to grab the early lead and post a :27.4 opening-quarter. Tall Drink Hanover got away third, while Key West was following fourth.

As the field entered the backstretch, driver Andrew McCarthy angled Tall Drink Hanover to the outside, which turned out to be the winning move. Carousel appeared to pull herself up, leading to Tarryn A Strip and Key West getting into a jam up collision.

Key West made a break due to the interference. The favorite did reset to stay in the race mid-pack. Meanwhile, Tall Drink Hanover scooted away and posted fractions of :56.3 and 1:24.2.

In the stretch, Tall Drink Hanover cruised home in :27.4 to collect her second win in four starts. Key West grinded through the mix up on the outside around the final turn and ultimately finished up in :27.3 to cross the wire second, beat 3 ½ lengths.

Deb finished third, while Abuelita Hanover and Beach Bar finished in a dead-heat for fourth.

A daughter of Captaintreacherous, Tall Drink Hanover was a $35,000 Harrisburg yearling purchase and is owned by Alagna Racing LLC, Marvin Katz and Riverview Racing LLC.

Tall Drink Hanover (Andrew McCarthy) winning Tuesday's $37,000 Whenuwishuponastar Series Final at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The Alagna trainee has followed up back-to-back third-place finishes at The Meadowlands with a pair of wins at Mohawk Park.

"She's pretty nice this filly, does everything right, covers a lot of ground and really handy," said McCarthy after driving Tall Drink Hanover for the first-time Tuesday.

"We got lucky coming out of the first turn, we missed that carnage… we weren't going a helluva lot at that stage, so I thought I would get her out and getting her moving and try and get her up front there close enough and I just got lucky that I did move her when I did."

On the heels of Captain Ahab's Dream Maker victory Monday, Tall Drink Hanover gave the Alagna barn its second series victory in as many nights.

"This filly has been improving," said Alagna post-race. "She came from the Harrisburg Sale as opposed to the Lexington Sale, like Key West did, and she's been on the improve and we were just lucky that Key West and this filly didn't get in trouble when that filly of Doug's (McNair) made a break or pulled up on the front."

Tall Drink Hanover established a new career mark with her 1:52.1 clocking and has now earned $27,900 for her connections. She paid $15.80 to win.

Rock N McRoll fastest in PA Stallion stakes

Rock N McRoll zipped to the front, held off the late challenge of Trillions Hanover and scored in 1:53.2, fastest in Wednesday's $80,000 Pennsylvania Stallion Series stake at The Meadows.

The event for freshman filly pacers was contested over four divisions, with Skater Chick, Unspoken Promise and May Bride Hanover also taking splits. Tony Hall fashioned a stake double behind Skater Chick and May Bride Hanover.

It was just the second career start for Rock N McRoll; she didn't she the lead at all in her career debut. But she responded well when Dave Palone asked her for early speed, and she dug in late to hold off Trillions Hanover by a neck. Pretty N Fast completed the ticket.

"I think she'll find her way into the sires stakes program," Palone said. "She just was a little behind. I love the way some of the trainers set them up with a start or two until they get feeling good about themselves before they throw them to the wolves. This filly is not short on ability or attitude."

Linda Toscano trains the daughter of A Rocknroll Dance—McGibson for Cherry Creek Stables, Camelot Stable, Little E and Enviro Stables. It was one of four wins for Palone on the 13-race card.

Hammered down to 1-9, Skater Chick extended her winning streak to three by moving three wide down the backside and prevailing under wraps in 1:53.3, matching her career best. Able Hanover was second, 2-1/2 lengths back, with Typhoon third.

"She has a lot of ability, but she's still a little green," Hall said of the daughter of Sweet Lou-Ram Rocker. "She was kind of in and out, so I figured it would be better just to get out rather than fight with going between horses. She was good."

Mark Harder conditions Skater Chick for Donald Lindsey, Paul Kleinpaste and Garth Bechtel.

Unspoken Promise wasn't quite sure what she was being asked to do, but ultimately, she straightened out and dashed through the Lightning Lane to overtake the pace-setter, Sweet Cherry, by a neck in 1:54.4. Dark Rhapsody earned show. Jim Pantaleano piloted the daughter of Somebeachsomewhere—Pucker Up for trainer Tom Fanning and owners Howard Taylor and Fanning Racing LLC.

"She was a little snaky going down in through there," Pantaleano said. "She's had a little issue running in and getting on the right line; that's why I took her inside. She needs a little more practice. She has some go. She has some skills for sure."

Live racing at The Meadows resumes Saturday, when the program features The Meadow Cheer, a $180,862 PA Sires Stake for 2-year-old filly pacers. First post is 1:05 p.m.

Captain Ahab crushes in Dream Maker final

Captain Ahab remained undefeated with a dominating performance in Monday's $39,000 Dream Maker Series final at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

A full field of 10 rookie pacing colts and geldings squared off in the finale of the three-week event. Captain Ahab went off as the 3-5 favorite, as he entered the final undefeated in three starts, including a convincing first leg score.

The Tony Alagna-trained son of Captaintreacherous was to team up with driver Andrew McCarthy, but travel issues for McCarthy led to veteran reinsman Paul MacDonell picking up the assignment.

New Image Media

Captain Ahab (Paul MacDonell) remained undefeated with a dominating performance in Monday's $39,000 Dream Maker Series final at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Best In Show got the affair rolling by storming out to the lead and posting a :27 opener. A charged-up Shipshape sat in the pocket, while stablemate Captain Ahab got away third.

The heavy-favorite got his cue from MacDonell entering the backstretch and made an effortless move to the lead, pacing by the half in :55.1. Despite Captain Ahab rolling right along on the lead, several of the rookies got jammed up entering the far turn.

Blank Canvas, who was also undefeated entering Monday's final, moved to the outside from sixth before the half and came with a hard first-up attack at the leader on the far turn. The undefeated rookies were side by side at three-quarters in 1:23.3.

Captain Ahab didn't shy away from the pressure and instead stepped his game up a level.

The Alagna student put away Blank Canvas at the top of the lane and proceeded to pull away from his rivals with ease to win by 3 ¾ lengths in a career-best equaling 1:51.1. Best In Show finished second, while Captain Nash was third. Blank Canvas dropped back to finish eighth.

"I just barely scratched the surface here tonight," said MacDonell post-race. "There was so much left in the tank and he does it so easy. He's got a great future."

A $100,000 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale purchase, Captain Ahab is currently the top colt from sire Captaintreacherous' first crop of 2-year-olds. The undefeated rookie is the second foal, first colt, out of Western Ideal mare Acquavella, who is a full-sister to 2014 Metro Pace champion Artspeak.

With his fingerprints all over the family, Alagna had an easy-decision to make when deciding to pursue Captain Ahab as a yearling.

"I trained the mare Acquavella and she was meant to be a great mare, got hurt early and she was responsible for Artspeak because I went back and bought Artspeak because I liked the mare so much," said Alagna.

"Training the mare and knowing what kind of ability she had, she got hurt and never got to live up to her potential, so when we saw this colt, being by Captain, it was a no-brainer."

Captain Ahab has now earned $36,500 for owners Brittany Farms LLC, Brad Grant, Vincent Barbera and Captain Ahab Racing.

Alagna noted Captain Ahab will remain in Ontario and compete in upcoming Grand Circuit events at Woodbine Mohawk Park, with eyes on the Sept. 22 Metro Pace.

Captaintreacherous, who won the Metro Pace as a rookie in 2012, is enjoying a tremendous start to his career as a stallion. Alagna trained the two-time U.S. Pacer of the Year and is proud of what he is seeing unfold this season.

"We started with 18 Captaintreacherous, 17 are racing and I think 12 of them have already won and taken marks," said Alagna. "We're very proud of what he has done so far."

Captain Ahab's next start is scheduled for the Nassagaweya Stakes on Aug. 25.

De Los Cielos Deo stays unbeaten with PASS win

While horses usually don't bet, in Tuesday's $188,111 Pennsylvania Sires Stake (PASS) at The Meadows, De Los Cielos Deo hit a rare trifecta: he extended his career unbeaten streak to five; he completed a sweep of the four PASS preliminary legs and he vaulted over $100,000 in earnings.

The event for freshman colt and gelding pacers, known as the Tyler B, was contested over three divisions, with Crimson And Chrome and Captain Victorious taking the other splits.

De Los Cielos Deo quarter-poled to the front for Yannick Gingras and cruised home in 1:52, 1-1/2 lengths better than the first-over Proof. Ehrmantraut earned show. The victory continued the PASS domination of De Los Cielos Deo, who captured his four wins by a combined 9 lengths.

Chris Gooden

De Los Cielos Deo (Yannick Gingras) extended his career unbeaten streak to five, completed a sweep of the four Pennsylvania Sires Stakes preliminary legs and vaulted over $100,000 in earnings with his victory Tuesday at The Meadows.

Ron Burke, who trains the son of Captaintreacherous—Lisjune — a $140,000 yearling purchase for Burke Racing Stable, Larry Karr, J&T Silva-Purnel& Libby and Weaver Bruscemi LLC — said he would train the colt up to the $252,000 PASS championship (Sept. 1 at The Meadows) rather than seek a prep race.

"I don't worry about getting starts for these kinds of colts," Burke said. "I'd rather save starts than get starts. Bad horses need races. Good horses will train themselves up. It took me forever to learn that.

"He has top-range potential. For as long as we've been training him down, I've said this is easily the best colt we've had since Sweet Lou. Before the year's over, I think he'll do something special."

Victorious in his only previous PASS start, Crimson And Chrome made it two straight by erasing a 3-length deficit in the lane for Tim Tetrick and downing Semi Tough by 1/2 length in 1:51.3. Air Force Hanover completed the ticket.

"He kind of struggled early," said winning trainer Jim King, Jr. "He had lots of determination, lots of good things to like about him, but it didn't come that easy to him. So we just took our time with him. We were mostly concerned with making him a good 3-year-old. We're underway for that; it's a good start."

Tim Tetrick LLC owns the Sweet Lou—McSauna gelding, who's eligible for the Liberty Bell, the Simpson and the Keystone Classic at The Meadows.

Captain Victorious found himself in an unfamiliar first-over chase but made the most of it for David Miller, holding off Sugar Factory by a neck in a stake-fastest 1:51.2. Cruise Captain was third.

"It wasn't the trip I wanted to give him," Miller said. "He got a little rough when the gate folded, and that cost him getting away. He went a big trip first over. He was pretty game."

Julie Miller conditions the son of Captain Treacherous—Belclare for Andy Miller Stable, Jean Goehlen and Caroll Huffman.

NYSS for 2-year-old trotting fillies at Yonkers

The 2-year-old trotting fillies hit town Monday night (Aug. 13), plying Yonkers Raceway's $157,000 New York Sire Stakes Pat Quaglietta Trot.

'Twas a night for the favorites over the sloppy surface.

Perfect plebe Winndevie (Trond Smedshammer, $3.40) made it 5-for-5 in the opening ($52,000) event, putting away leading (:29.1, 1:00.3, 1:30.3) Quincy Blue Chip (Jim Morrill Jr.) late. Winndevie, from post position No. 3, then whipped that rival by a couple of lengths in 1:59.

Hanna Dreamgirl (Tim Tetrick) was third.

For Winndevie, a daughter of Credit Winner owned by Purple Haze Stable and trained by her driver, she won both of her local tries. The exacta paid $6.30, the triple returned $10.60 and the superfecta (Hot Chapter [Andy Miller]) paid $23.80.

"I don't know what else to say? She's 5-for-5," Smedshammer said.

Indeed.

The evening's second ($53,000) division saw Amal Hall (Miller, $2.60) — from post No. 4 — settle early, move the lead before the half, then barely hold off With Out a Doubt (Tim Tetrick) by a desperate nose (:28.4, :59.3; 1:28.4, life-best 1:58.4).

Thanks For Leaving (catch-driver Jordan Stratton) was a pocket third, with Blue Prayer (Dan Daley) fourth.

For Amal Hall, a Credit Winner miss co-owned by her driver, Gty Stable & Dumain Haven Farm and trained by Mrs. (Julie) Miller, she won three (with three seconds) in six seasonal starts. The exacta paid $5.80, the triple (three wagering choices in order) returned $10.60 and the superfecta paid $41.80.

"She's just a handy, half-mile (track) horse who does her job," Miller the driver said.

The final ($52,000) sire stakes division saw the original six-pack pared to a barbershop quartet, as two of the ladies came up ill.

Pole-sitting Conway Kellyanne (Charlie Norris, $2.90) had no issues at all (:29.1, 59.1, 1:29.4, 2:00.1). She disposed of a pocket Julamay Mass (Miller) by a length-and-a-half, while an out-the-mile Sweet Chapter (Mark MacDonald) was third.

Qiss Me Blue Chip (Scott Zeron) lagged, broke and was a distanced fourth.

For Conway Kellyanne, a daughter of Conway Hall (stunner) trained by her driver for co-owners Carrie Norris, Acadia Farms and G&B Racing, she's now won three of her five seasonal efforts. The exacta paid $13, with triple and superfecta wagering cancelled due to the short field.

When first/last seen here, Conway Kellyane won at a $40.20 mutuel.

"She going to stay with the sire stakes," Charlie Norris said. "She fits in with them."

Appleby Hanover wins 5-mile race

Appleby Hanover, a 5-year-old son of Well Said, emerged victorious in the $10,000 5 Milles (5 Miles en anglais) Casino-Charlevoix Pace at St-Aimé-des-Lacs, QC on Sunday afternoon, placed from second to first after Montana Ben, who beat him to the wire by a head after covering the 8,800-yard marathon distance, was disqualified for causing interference in the ten-circuit race.

The time of the 5-mile race was 12:16, well off the track record.

Appleby Hanover, who rallied late after having the lead early in the race, did not race at two, but here recorded the 10th victory of his career, and his fourth this year, during which he has set his lifetime mark of 1:55.1h at Trois Rivieres.

Dany Mainguy handled the sulky assignment for trainer/owner Michel Allard.
