BIG THREE TOP TITAN FIELD

by Mike Farrell

A standout renewal of the $220,750 Titan Cup for Free-For-All trotters attracted an impressive lineup, topped by the big three of Arch Madness (Balanced Image), Lucky Jim (S J's Photo) and Corleone Kosmos.

Arch Madness has been an international star this season, winning 6 of 7 including the Oslo Grand Prix in Norway and an Elitlopp elimination in Sweden. He made a smooth transition back to the U.S., winning last week's Titan Cup prep in a 1:51.3 waltz. The 7-year-old gelding trained by Trond Smedshammer has already banked $361,545 this year. He has post No. 6 with Brian Sears set to drive the 9-5 favorite

This will be a key test for Lucky Jim, the 2009 Dan Patch winner as top older trotter. He made breaks in his first three starts this season and was transferred from Julie Miller to Erv Miller. He qualified twice for the new barn and returned to action in a Meadowlands Invitational on June 17 with a dominant win in 1:52.3. Miller will keep the 6-year-old gelding with a history of foot trouble on a limited schedule.

"He's as good as he's ever been," Miller said. "We don't have to race him a whole lot, just enough to keep him tight because he can go with most of them when he's OK."

The second choice at 3-1, Lucky Jim starts from post No. 4 with Andy Miller at the lines.

Corleone Kosmos has hit the comeback trail in good order this season. After a 1 for 11 campaign in 2010, Corleone Kosmos has already won three times this year. This will be his sixth straight Titan Cup appearance. David Miller will drive the 8-1 shot from post No. 2 for trainer Ross Croghan.

Beyond the big three, champion mare Buck I St Pat (Jailhouse Jesse) is still looking for her first win this year. She has hit the board in four of six races, including a neck loss in the Maxie Lee final at Harrah's Chester. She is listed at 5-1 with Tim Tetrick steering for trainer Ron Burke.

The field also includes Cutler winner Slave Dream (Pearsall Hanover), Four Starz Speed (Conway Hall), Pilgrims Chuckie (Broadway Hall), Neighsay Hanover (Muscles Yankee) and Sir Caviar (S J's Caviar).

Saturday also marks the debut of a new wager at the Meadowlands: a Pick 5 starting in the first race. The Pick 5 is a 50-cent minimum wager with a 15-percent takeout. If nobody selects all five winners in the Pick 5, 75 percent of the net pool will be carried over to the next racing card and 25 percent will be distributed as a consolation.

"We were one of the first tracks to introduce the wager last year at Monmouth Park and it was very well received, so hopefully the same will hold true at the Meadowlands," said assistant vice president of racing Alex Dadoyan. "Starting in the first race, it won't interfere with our popular nightly Pick 4 wager, but should have the ability to generate some nice payoffs for the early part of the card and some occasional carryovers."

In other Meadowlands news, race replays are back on SNY, the local cable sports channel. The show had been dropped earlier this year in the chaos surrounding the track's future.

The shows are 30 minutes in length on weekdays and one full hour on weekends. Air times are 2 a.m. for Thursday and Friday recaps and 1:30 a.m. for Saturday.

"I think it is important to our customers as we enter the heart of our championship meet to get back on SNY, as well as remaining on TVG," said Meadowlands Racetrack lessee Jeff Gural. "I also think it is important to have the one hour show on Saturday, which was something I always looked forward to as well. We are working on a plan to present to the industry that will hopefully expand our coverage next season."

Racing From The Meadowlands will continue to air on TVG at 6 a.m. Eastern.

No Purse Help for New Jersey Racing

Saying it goes against his effort to make horse racing self sustaining, New Jersey Gov. Chris Christie on Friday vetoed the minutes of a Wednesday meeting of the New Jersey Racing Commission approving $15 million in subsidies to augment horse racing purses. The newjerseynewsroom.com reported that Christie wrote a searing letter, saying that the "actions of the commissioners of the NJRC appear to constitute an abdication of their responsibilities as commissioners to protect the best interests of the State of New Jersey and its citizens." "The NJRC's decision to allocate $15 million in state subsidies for the support of New Jersey horse racing industry contradicts and jeopardizes my stated goal of creating a self-sustaining course for the horse racing industry, which culminated in the recent agreements with private individuals to shift track operations at both the Meadowlands Racetrack and Monmouth Park from the State to the private sector."

State Budget Impasse Shuts Down Running Aces

From Running Aces Harness Park:

Due to the Minnesota State Government Shutdown, Running Aces must temporarily close our business to the public. We are saddened that 600 of our employees are now unnecessarily without work along with thousands of others impacted throughout the state. We are hoping that such closure will be short lived and that our guests will soon be able to return to Running Aces for their entertainment enjoyment. Democratic Governor Mark Dayton and the Republican-controlled Minnesota House of Representatives and Senate failed after months of wrangling to produce a compromise budget by the July 1 deadline and thus many "non-essential" state agencies and tens of thousands of state employees have been laid off, including the administration, veterinary and judging staffs of the Minnesota Racing Commission, which are needed to conduct a race program. Running Aces, which has completed just 18 or 51 scheduled programs for 2011, did not have a program scheduled for Friday night but had drawn race programs for Saturday, Sunday, Tuesday and Wednesday of the coming week. Decisions will be reached on a daily basis on the status of those programs until the situation gets clarification. State law requires Running Aces to race 50 programs annually in order to operate the card room casino.

Rosecraft Raceway Looking to Re-open

The Associated Press reports that Rosecraft Raceway has applied to resume live harness racing at the Fort Washington track after three years. Penn National Gaming, Rosecraft's new owner, submitted a license application in May. Penn National wants to have 20 days of live racing this year and 54 days in 2012. The Maryland Racing Commission will consider the request on July 6. Penn National bought bankrupt Rosecraft for $11 million this year. Rosecraft suspended live racing in 2008.

Former Garden State Park Publicist Fidati Dies

by Jerry Connors

William "Bill" Fidati, 76, a Philadelphia journalist known to many in harness racing as the long-serving publicity director at Garden State Park, died June 27, 2011. Fidati, who earned a B.A. from Notre Dame and was number one in his class, worked for two major Philadelphia newspapers--the Daily News and then the Bulletin, for two decades. He was regarded as a "digger" by colleague Frank Bilovsky, someone who could get to the heart of a story. He could "get people to tell him things." Fidati won the Best Reporting Award from the area's Press Association for his coverage of City Hall in 1970. He also showed a 40-year genius for lending a helping hand to fledgling journalists who showed the talent to work their way up, sometimes in the face of a hard-boiled lot who were the news and were covering the news. Andrea Mitchell, now NBC's chief foreign affairs correspondent, recalled, "He reached out and mentored me...and even got me to smoke the occasional cigar," a Fidati trademark. Cont. p3

Fidati also worked the racing beat (one freshly-graduated publicity pup remembers Fidati watching him writing out a story in longhand, a leftover from college days, and predicted, "You won't be doing that long"), and he was named publicity director of Philadelphia Park (now Parx) in 1982, and moved across the river when the new Garden State opened four years later. A newcomer to harness racing office work remembers her first job at Garden State, "operating the matrix board," but she remembers much more vividly how Mr. Fidati helped her in various jobs when she started to write about the races. "Then, in 1986, the Breeders Crown races were at Garden State," stated Communicators Hall of Fame nominee Moira Fanning, "and while working for Bill I was introduced to Tom Charters." That quarter-century relationship, starting at Mr. Fidati's home base, is still going strong today with the outstanding work done by the duo for the Hambletonian Society and the Breeders Crown. It would require a long, long search to find somebody who had a bad word to say about Bill Fidati--or for that matter about a co-worker of his at Garden State and a very close friend, present Dover PR chief Marv Bachrad. Both were quiet men by nature, but thoughtful, and they led by example to a long list of young workers on their way up the racing ladder. Mr. Fidati was close with his sister, Louise Grieve, living just down the block from her, and he is survived by her and nieces Denise Paykos, Donna Vivian, and Dawn Zappacosta. A funeral mass in Bordentown, N.J., preceded Mr. Fidati's interment today in Calvary Cemetery, Florence, N.J

Flipper J Sets Goshen Track Record

by Ken Weingartner, Harness Racing Communications

When driver Jason Bartlett asked Flipper J to go, the colt went. Straight into history.

Flipper J, a 3-year-old colt pacer, set the record for the fastest mile ever at Historic Track by winning a $15,000 division of the New York Sire Stakes in 1:52.4 on Friday afternoon (July 1). His time shattered the previous mark of 1:55, which was first set in 1992 by Justin Kin and equaled three times, including twice on Friday before Flipper J's race.

Friday's card at Historic Track, celebrating its 101st anniversary of Grand Circuit racing, featured nine divisions of the New York Sire Stakes for 3-year-old male and female pacers.

Flipper J, trained by Linda Toscano for owner Ken Jacobs, set the track record despite losing one of his front shoes.

"He's just a good horse," Bartlett said. "He gets around a half-(mile track) great. I didn't even know what I was going, he just felt good. When I asked him, he just took off around the last turn. That was pretty quick, I'll tell you."

Flipper J has won two of six races this year and earned $38,122. Last season, he won five of 11 starts and $115,869.

In Friday's race, he got the lead with a :26.4 opening quarter-mile and never looked back. He reached the half-way point in :57 and three-quarters in 1:24.3. He won by 1-1/2 lengths over Overnight Delight.

"That's pretty awesome, it really is," Jacobs said about Flipper J's performance. "He loves the front end and when he gets the front end he's hard to beat. This was a good time to get (the track record) because the weather is nice. He's a pretty nice horse.

"Last year, he never got the credit I thought he should have, and this year he's starting to prove it. That's a pretty big mile. I've never seen anything like it. I'm very proud of him." Cont. p4

Flipper J's victory gave Jacobs three wins on the day, joining filly pacer Lucky Turn and colt pacer Major Way.

"I love it down here," said Jacobs, who lives in Baldwinsville, N.Y. "It's pure racing. It's not like people are betting and yelling at you if you don't do good. Everybody is happy."

Bartlett finished the day with five wins, four of them with horses trained by Toscano. Among them was JK Owhatanite, a 3-year-old filly pacer who won the card's first race by equaling the previous track record of 1:55. Her time, though, established the record for a female pacer of any age.

"She's a good filly," Bartlett said. "She did that pretty easy. She just does everything she's supposed to do. We weren't worried about how fast we were going, we just wanted to win the race. But that's a big mile here."

JK Owhatanite has won five of six races this year, including the $197,634 Lismore at Yonkers in early June.

As for his own big day, Bartlett said, "It was great. Driving for Linda, she has great horses. It ain't me, it's the horses, that's for sure."

Also equaling the previous track record Friday was 3-year-old colt pacer Denver Dolly, who won by 5-1/4 lengths with driver George Brennan at the lines. There were six races won with times of less than 1:56 on Friday.

Denver Dolly has won two of seven races this year and earned $21,077. He has six victories in 19 career starts.

"That was a very impressive mile for him," trainer George Ducharme said. "This year, he's been chasing the better colts, and he's a step below them. I was hoping to miss some of them here, and it worked out great. I hope this will build his confidence and get him braver, so if he does get in with those other colts he'll feel like he can be competitive."

Also picking up wins Friday were American Rage (Jordan Stratton), Dreamlands Roxy (Jeff Gregory), All About Kisses (Stephane Bouchard) and Party Dream (Bartlett).

Abby Simpson won the Ladies Invitational for the second consecutive year. Simpson, the wife of driver Brandon Simpson, has 46 career victories to her credit.

She guided Pembroke Joe Dunn from last place, more than 13 lengths behind the leader, to the front with a strong stretch drive. Pembroke Joe Dunn, trained and owned by Scott Blackler, won by 2-1/4 lengths over Jody Riedel-driven Whitaker Blue Chip in 1:59.3.

"He didn't start the way I wanted him to," Simpson said. "I was hoping to go to the front, but that's why your plans change. But he got around traffic really nice. He's a good horse."

"It always feels good to win, but I just want to go out and drive the best I can for the trainer and not embarrass myself. It's fun to get out there and drive with the ladies. I met Brandon racing and it's been a long time since I've gotten to do this stuff, so doing it every now and then is really fun."

George Casale won the Catskills Amateur Drivers race, guiding Isn't She Lovely to victory in 1:59.4. The free-legged pacing mare, trained by Steven Moore, rallied from fifth place at the top of the stretch to win by three-quarters of a length over the Eric Taddeo-driven Admirals Chance.

"There was a lot of early speed, so I just laid back and hoped the horse could loop the field, which she did," Casale said. "At three-quarters I had a lot of pace. She dug in every step of the way. It was all the horse. She's perfect to drive."

Winning Mister led every step of the way for a comfortable victory in Friday night's featured Open trot at Mohegan Sun at Pocono Downs. The 1-5 favorite, who was coming off an Open win at Chester and set a track record at Pocono earlier this season, was sent right to the front end by driver George Napolitano Jr. a few steps into the race. That's where he stayed for the duration, setting imposing fractions that kept all of his challengers at bay. He coasted home 2 1/4 lengths in front of Waldorf Hall, while Lolique came on for the show. Winning Mister, sired by Angus Hall and owned by Robert Key of Leechburg, PA, won for the 11th time in 20 races this season. It was his 24th career victory, pushing his lifetime earnings to $766,644.

Leaving from post three, The Chancellor (Jason Bartlett) was away fifth as 2-1 choice Whata Winner (Jim Doherty), Cold Winner (Dan Dube), invading Lorenzo Dream (Cat Manzi) and Grain of Truth (Jeff Gregory) all left the gate. A three-wide "Lorenzo" made the lead just after a :27.4 opening quarter-mile, then found a :56.2 half. Whata Winner moved from third, taking The Chancellor with him toward the 1:25.4 three-quarters. Lorenzo Dream clung to a short lead in early stretch, but he was about to get swallowed up before the 1:55.2 mile marker. The Chancellor, with the best trip, led the charge. He was 1 1/2 lengths better than Grain of Truth while getting the 1 1/16 miles in 2:02.3. Whata Winner--photoed for second--KLM Express (Jim Marshall III) and Don'tellmywife (George Brennan) completed the cashers. The Chancellor, a 5-year-old Yankee Glide gelding trained by Julie Miller for Andy Miller and Arden Homestead, returned $28.60 (sixth choice) for his third win in nine seasonal starts.

Leaving from her assigned outside seven-hole (in one slot after a scratch), 3-2 favorite Delightful Diva (Brenna) diced and sliced her way through intervals of :26.4, :55.4 and 1:23.3. Only Monochromatic (Manzi) was within earshot through the much of the chase, with "Diva" hitting the mile in 1:51.4 before getting the added distance in 1:58.2, a new standard for aged pacing mares. Monochromatic was second, beaten three lengths, with a from-last Symphony in Motion (Gregory), Ramona Disomma (Jordan Stratton) and Up Front Kelli Jo (Dube) grabbing the remainder. Delightful Diva, a 6-year-old Bettor's Delight lass owned by KDM Stables and trained by Lou Pena, $5.10 for her seventh win in 21 seasonal starts.
