See You At Peelers Will Pass on Yonkers Race; Takter Still Searching For Answers

By Mike Farrell

The speculation earlier this season centered on whether See You At Peelers (Bettor's Delight), harness racing's fabulous filly, might take on the boys in next week's Little Brown Jug.

What's ailing See You at Peelers?

after the phone call he got Thursday morning.

Takter, in Canada for the big stakes this weekend at Mohawk Raceway, got the report that See You At Peelers was still not right after a training session at his farm in New Jersey.

"Marcus (Johansson) trained her today and he said something is not right with her," Takter said.

Takter was hoping the superstar filly could rebound to make a New York Sires Stakes engagement on Monday night at Yonkers Raceway.

See You At Peelers was immediately scratched from the Yonkers race, and the hunt for answers continues.

By all outward indications, See You At Peelers is sound. Whatever has thrown her off her game is internal. And that's the frustrating part.

Takter had planned to send her to the Cornell University Veterinary Center for a stress test earlier this week. He worried about subjecting her to a demanding high-speed test, and opted to pass on the examination.

Now there isn't any choice. See You At Peelers will head to Cornell on Sept. 26 with Takter by her side to monitor the process.

"I was a little bit scared of it," Takter said of the stress test. "They put the horse up to :51 speed. I'm still a little scared of it but I think I have to find out what's actually going on with her at high speed. I've never had a horse do this stress test, so I really don't know what it does. It's new to me, so I have to be sure I'm up there when they do it. I

The conjecture now shifts to when, and if, See You At Peelers will race again.

Trainer Jimmy Takter is fresh out of answers, especially need to see what's going on."

The Sires Stakes race at Yonkers came into play with the training session set for Thursday.

"We entered on Wednesday with the understanding she had to be good in the training this morning," Takter said. "Unfortunately, she wasn't."

As for the future, Takter has "no idea."

"The filly is so good and sound but a couple of things are not normal. The girl that takes care of her knows the horse and she noticed things that are not right. I don't know. That's why it's difficult to be a trainer. You have to dig yourself out of a hole some times. She's not going to participate in a race unless I know she's a serious contender and she's back to her old self."

Her old self was one of the best the sport has ever seen. See You At Peelers reeled off 22 consecutive wins to start her career, including a win over the boys in the Art Rooney Pace at Yonkers.

Red flags went up when she lost her last two, a tiring sixth in Nadia Lobell at the Meadows and a disqualification from a victory in a Sires Stakes at Tioga Downs.

THE BUSINESS OF RACING

Yonkers Handle Up Slightly Since Pena Ban

By Bill Finley

With Lou Pena no longer allowed to compete at Yonkers, betting handle has shown a small increase.

In the first 22 racing days since Pena last competed at Yonkers, the nightly average all-sources handle has been $744,606. In the last 22 racing days he competed there the average nightly handle was $705,730. Since Pena has been gone, handle has risen $38,876 per night or by 5.5 percent.

The 22-days-versus-22 days comparison is not a perfect one. Parts of it include nights when Yonkers was competing against the Meadowlands and some nights occurred after the Big M closed. Yonkers also lost some cards in the post-Pena era due to Hurricane Irene that might have had large handles.

Lady Rainbow Seeks Elusive Win in Moni Maker

By Mike Farrell

It's the old good news, bad news quandary with respect to Lady Rainbow (Muscles Yankee) as she heads into the $233,400 Moni Maker for 3-year-old filly trotters on Friday night at the Meadows.

Want the good news first? Lady Rainbow has won $405,476 this season to rank among the leaders in the division while facing top level competition in the U.S. and Canada.

So, what's the bad news? She is 0 for 8 this year and is closing in on a dubious record. Sand Vic (Mr Vic) holds the mark, for most money earned in a year without a victory. He banked $476,061 in 14 races in 2005.

You have to give Lady Rainbow full marks for consistency and effort. She has hit the board in her last seven starts including the Hambletonian Oaks, the Simcoe, the American National and the Hudson Filly Trot.

What's a gal to do, but keep trying?

Lady Rainbow has post No. 7 with co-owner, co-breeder and trainer Rick Zeron at the lines.

Her last race, the Simcoe, was one of her most impressive losses. After making an early break, she still managed to trot home in :27 to get second money.

Lady Rainbow is 5-1 on the morning line.

Rick Zeron will drive Lady Rainbow in the Moni Maker

Iron Lady (Taurus Dream) is the 5-2 favorite from post No 3. Following a 1:54.1 American National victory. Meadows kingpin Dave Palone will be in the sulky.

Beatgoeson Hanover (Andover Hall) carries a three-race winning streak into the Moni Maker as the 3-1 second choice.

Upset-minded Caitrin Hall (Tom Ridge) has the rail at 12-1 following her victory at Harrah's Chester in the Pennsylvania Sires Stakes Championship.

Harness Horse Youth Foundation Teams With Indiana Yearling Sales to Auction Equine-themed Collector's Items

The Harness Horse Youth Foundation is teaming up with a pair of Indiana yearling sales to offer a pair of very unusual collector's items by way of silent auction, which will benefit the HHYF's education fund.

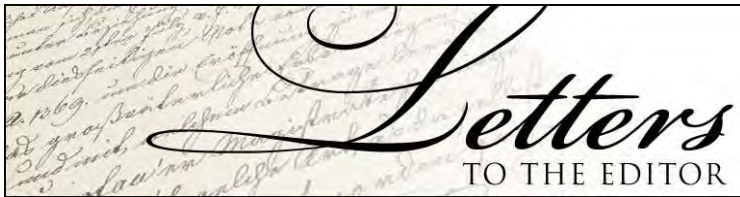

At the Indiana Premier Yearling Sale, September 23 and 24, HHYF will sell an equine-themed, hand-carved jewelry case. This seven drawer case, with two doors and a top compartment, is carved with mares and foals in meadow scenes. The exterior is made of light robin wood with a hand-rubbed finish, and the interior is fully lined in blue velveteen. The case is 42 inches tall by 12 inches deep and 15 inches wide. The jewelry case will be available for viewing the evening of Thursday, September 22 and this auction concludes at 2 PM on Saturday, September 24.

The Hoosier Classic Sale on October 13-15 features a one-of-a kind mare and foal mosaic from Lebanon. The mosaic measures 24x32 inches without frame and feature earth-toned background tiles. It will be elegantly framed with non-glare glass, ready for hanging at the time of the auction. The mosaic will be available for viewing beginning during the sale preview on October 12 and bidding concludes at 1 PM on Saturday, October 15.

Bidding will be held in $50 increments on both items and payment in cash or check, payable to HHYF (no credit cards), is required by conclusion of the yearling sale. If the winning bidder is not present, HHYF will make every effort through the sales company to contact the winning bidder. In the event an item must be shipped, it will be sent COD and include all shipping and packaging costs. For more information, contact Ellen Taylor at HHYF. 317-867-5877 or ellen@hhyf.org.

The Harness Horse Youth Foundation is a charitable 501(c)3 organization dedicated to providing young people and their families educational opportunities with harness horses, in order to foster the next generation of participants and fans. The Foundation has been making a difference in young people's lives since 1976, and its programs include interactive learning experiences with these versatile animals, scholarship programs, and creation and distribution of educational materials. For more information on opportunities through HHYF, or to support its mission, go to www.hhyf.org.

I agree with most of Bill Finley's ideas for fixing the triple crowns but he forgot one thing. The thoroughbreds also have well known prep races leading up to the Kentucky Derby. I know about the Road To The Meadowlands Pace and The Road To The Hambletonian because I see it in the Meadowlands Program but how many other harness racing patrons do. The prep races need to be publicized as prep races at their respective tracks. I'd also like to encourage Balmoral, Northfield and Hoosier or Indiana to move or create a race for 3 year olds to serve as a prep so their patrons will have more interest in the triple crown races. These races could also be for their state sired horses or open to all 3 year olds. Who knows, maybe someday the Hambletonian winner will be from a Northfield race. If the Meadowlands doesn't want to move the Pace, it can be the final mega prep race leading up the The North American Cup at Mohawk. That's a race with a $1.5 million dollar purse and maybe they wouldn't mind moving the date.

—Barry Miller

I agree with Bill Finley that harness racing's Triple Crowns need fixing, but he's got the wrong races in the pacing Triple Crown. You can't have a Triple Crown and exclude the North America Cup. Granted, it is in Canada but it's easily one of the three most important pacing races in harness racing for 3-year-old males. So say goodbye to the Cane Pace and make it the Meadowlands Pace, Jug and North America Cup.

—John Atkins

More 9-11-01 Reflection

I was in my first year of college at St. John's University. It was the second week of class, and I was in a Legal Studies class that morning. Midway through the class, someone came into the room and said that a plane had hit one of the towers of The World Trade Center. We talked aloud in the class wondering how it were possible for a plane to be flying so low over New York City to hit the building. We left class and went to the top of Grymes Hill, giving us a clear view of the Manhattan Skyline. We watched in horror as we saw the second plane hit Tower 2, and immediately someone said, "this is on purpose." We all ran to our cars and left campus, heading home. I called two of my closest friends, who were NYU students to see if they were okay, as I listened to reports of possible multiple hijacked planes on the radio. My father was a principal in a Brooklyn Intermediate School. He made the decision not to dismiss his students, worried about what they would see on the television at home, especially those who may have had parents that worked in Manhattan, or worse at The World Trade Center. He remained in his school until 11:00 PM that night, until the last child was picked up. When he finally came home, I hugged him. Five of my friends lost their fathers that day, one was a student at St. John's. I saw him when classes resumed on Friday September 14th. I hugged him and asked "what are you doing here?" He responded, "I just need to do something to not think about it. My dad's gone, and sitting in my room at home is not going to change that." I broke down and cried. I will never forget.

Three divisions--two off the card--went postward in a brisk wind.

The lone ($83,653) wagering event was, on paper, the most contentious, with standout statebreds Lawgiver Hanover (George Brennan), Steelhead Hanover (Jim Morrill Jr.) and Heston Blue Chip (Tim Tetrick) drawing the first three slots.

"Heston" took matters into his own hooves early, making the lead before a 29-second opening quarter-mile. The 4-5 choice then waltzed from there, hitting the half in :58.3 and the three-quarters in 1:26.4. A length-and-a-quarter lead turning for home turned to 2 1/2 lengths at the wire, which he found in 1:54.2 (:55.3 back half).

"Lawgiver" held off Steelhead Hanover for second, with Who's Your Maddy (Brian Sears) and Sir Howie's Z Tam (Pat Lachance) completing the cashers.

For Heston Blue Chip, an American Ideal colt owned by Ken Jacobs and trained by Linda Toscano, he returned $3.60 and is now seven-for-eight this summer, with earnings in excess of $158,000.

The exacta paid $6.60, with the triple returning a Raceway season-low $8.20.

"He just shows up and does his work," Tetrick said. "It was windy out there, and these horses aren't used to racing in 60 (actually 62)-degree weather yet, so that was a very good race by him."

A pair of non-bettors, worth $83,653 and $82,153, were won by...
