Odds On Mr Mamba
(James MacDonald) handed Beau Jangles
his first lifetime defeat while winning the second elimination for the Pepsi
North America Cup on Saturday at Woodbine
Mohawk Park.

Odds On Mr Mamba triumphs, beats Beau in NA Cup elims

Sweet Lovin Lou won the other elimination for the $1 million Grade 1 final set for June 13.

by Ray Cotolo for Woodbine communications

World champion Odds On Mr Mamba shipped north from Indiana and vanquished the previously-unbeaten reigning Canadian and U.S. Horse of the Year Beau Jangles, while Sweet Lovin Lou stoutly powered first over to give driver James MacDonald a difficult choice after he guided both to victories in the pair of $50,000 Grade 1 Pepsi North America Cup eliminations on Saturday night (June 6) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

MacDonald worked a covered trip for Odds On Mr Mamba and exploded with fervor down the grandstand side to land the win in his North America Cup elimination in a 1:48.2 mile.

Melillo looped after his stablemate Ubrute rushing into a :26.2 first quarter and grabbed the lead, but Gentleman's Club soon swung out of third and swept to the front as the field rolled up the backstretch. Beau Jangles, the 2-5 favorite, gapped in fourth but received the cue from driver Bob McClure to attack past three-eighths and moved through the gears to hit top speed into a :54.1 half. Brandon Blvd tracked the favorite through the turn with Odds On Mr Mamba perched third over.

Beau Jangles blitzed Gentleman's Club rounding the last turn but failed to clear to the lead. He held a head up on Gentleman's Club past three-quarters in 1:21.1 while Brandon Blvd fanned three wide and Odds On Mr Mamba unwound even wider spinning for home. Beau Jangles inched by Gentleman's Club while Brandon Blvd and a drifting Odds On Mr Mamba burst past the inside pair to battle for the lead late. Brandon Blvd dug in on a straight line but failed to stave Odds On Mr Mamba's momentum late in a neck decision at the finish.

Race replay here.

Beau Jangles held third with Melillo and Redland Rocket Man securing the last berths into the final.

"I just wanted to get myself into a good spot turning for home where I could let him do his best work, whether that was too far back or whatever," MacDonald, who picked up the drive on Odds On Mr Mamba when Dexter Dunn opted for Brandon Blvd, said after the race. "They told me what a kick he had and Dexter said the same thing, so I thought if I could be second, third over it would work out great. In the first turn I was happy to get Dexter in because I thought Beau [Jangles] move back to the lead. It worked out amazing tonight. A lot of times when they run out like that down the lane, they usually can't get there, they lose the competitive raciness because they don't have someone right beside them. I know I'm confident they'll get them straightened out for next week."

Trainer Melanie Wrenn said picking James MacDonald to drive Odds On Mr Mamba was "a pretty easy decision. James is a great driver, and his home turf, the whole nine yards. How could we go wrong? And plus, we had one start, and 'Mamba' is probably better off the pace like that, and we didn't really want to be in the hunt, so we knew that James would do the right thing."

And despite the long-awaited matchup against Beau Jangles coming in the North America Cup elimination, MacDonald also said, "I think it's going to add more to the [NA Cup final]. Some people look at it as Beau Jangles not being undefeated anymore, but I think we've learned over the years champions bounce back. And I think for Beau Jangles, Doc Moore will have him amazing, Bob will drive him perfect, and it's going to be a heck of a horse race."

elimination. The $1
Saturday (June 13).

A homebred Odds On Equuleus gelding for Dana Parham's Odds On Racing, Odds On Mr Mamba stayed unbeaten from two starts this year and won his ninth race from 10 starts in his career, earning $528,219.

"He's grown a bit, but he's still not a big horse, but he has a huge heart, and he just wants to do it," Wrenn said after the race. "He did everything perfectly. He didn't miss a meal. He shipped fantastic. It wasn't a problem."

Sent off as the second choice in the betting, Odds On Mr Mamba paid $7.40 to win.

Odds-on favorite Sweet Lovin Lou cruised uncovered into the last turn and persisted to overhaul tiring horses in the first North America Cup elimination in 1:48.2.

a :26.3 first quarter. He pocketed No Waitlist heading into the backstretch with pylon-starter Superchamp Hanover following in third and Sweet Lovin Lou landing in fourth. Al Papi motored to the half in :54.1, at which point driver James MacDonald tipped Sweet Lovin Lou off the pylons from fourth and advanced on the outside while Al Papi continued to speed towards three-quarters in 1:20.4. Sweet Lovin Lou lunged forward as the pace flattened into the stretch and spurted away under a hand drive to a 1¼-length victory over a game Al Papi in second.

Race replay here.

Azrael Blue Chip rallied from second over for third ahead of an even No Waitlist while Lindy Dragonwater secured the last spot into the final.

“Dan [Lagace] did a great job training him down and we just kind of brought him along each start,” MacDonald said after the race. “Raced him off the pace, last week [in the Somebeachsomewhere] he was closing again and I thought tonight he was ready to do a little work and he showed he was. I just kind of rode out there first over – last year he’d get a little roly in the turns, but he was flawless tonight. Dan did a great job, smoothed him out, had him perfect so that made my job easier. I just coasted up to the lead and when I called on him at the top of the stretch he just exploded.”

A colt by Sweet Lou, Sweet Lovin Lou nabbed his first win of the season in his third start and his fourth win in his career from 12 starts, earning $312,317 for owners Lagace Stables, Edwin Buhler, Big Als Stables, and Brittany Farms Micki Rae. The victory lowered Sweet Lovin Lou’s lifetime mark by over two seconds.

“He’s always showed the speed, he’s just been mature – he actually turns 3 tomorrow,” trainer Dan Lagace said after the race. “We spent all winter and his first couple of races just trying to teach him to relax, to settle, and James has done a great job. He’s the same way as last year. His hobbles are four inches longer, but other than that he’s the same. We had him in an open [bridle] all winter just to teach him that it’s okay to relax and settle. Chasing good horses for a long season and being immature, when you’ve got someone like James in your corner and he’s teaching them and letting them finish strong, you can’t ask for anything better.”

Sent off as the 3-5 favorite, Sweet Lovin Lou paid $3.20 to win.

Gearing up for the 43rd Pepsi North America Cup

by Bob Heyden

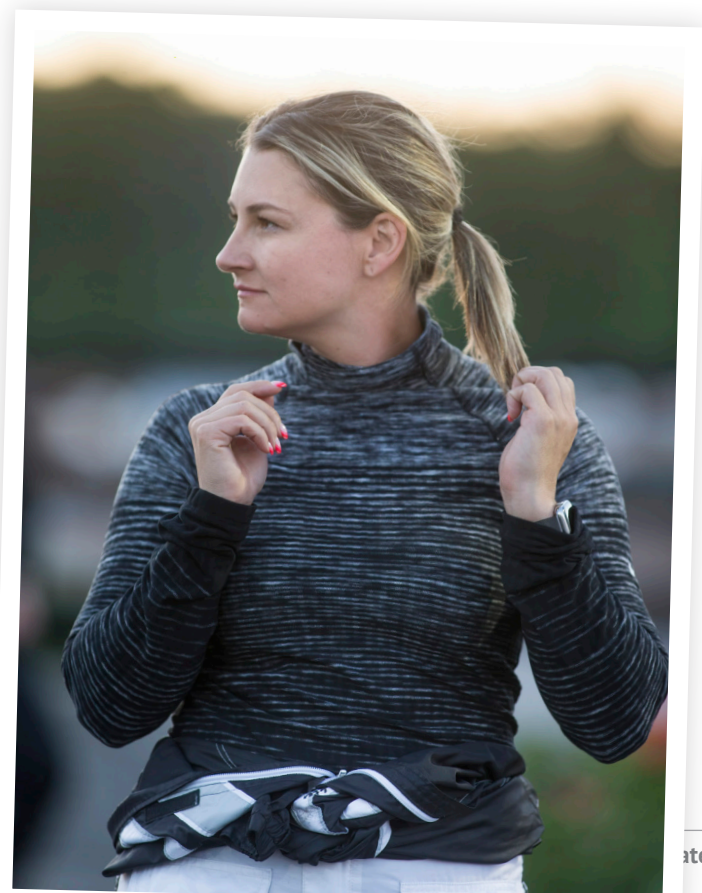

It's still early in the 2026 racing season, but already there is huge anticipation for the Grade 1 43rd Pepsi North America Cup set for next Saturday (June 13) at Woodbine Mohawk Park. Here are some interesting notes about Canada's biggest race for sophomore pacers:

EIGHT FOR THE LADIES

Eight of the last 20 editions have been won by a female trainer with Nancy Takter going back-to-back in 2019 and 2020 starting with a then stakes record 1:47.2 by Captain Crunch, followed by Horse of the Year Tall Dark Stranger.

HUGE WITHOUT TWO MAJORS

Art Major holds the unique distinction of having made the most money in any single sophomore season ($1,562,779 in 2002) without a dime coming from either the Meadowlands Pace or the North America Cup.

THE TRUTH ABOUT PIERCE

Ron Pierce is two weeks away from his 70th birthday.

He started his amazing streak of six straight years winning at least one-million-dollar race with Total Truth in the $1,350,000 2006 edition of the NA Cup getting the best of favored Feelin Friskie.

OWNING THE CUP

Jeff Snyder has owned an astounding four NA Cup winners. Also notable, the 3 Brothers Stable won in both 2014 with JK Endofanera and 2019 with Captain Crunch.

CATLIKE PATIENCE

How about the gruelling wait for “The Catman” Cat Manzi? He had a 21-year wait from 1983 to 2004 between his first million-dollar race (finishing second by a nose with Trutone Lobell in the $1.7 million Woodrow Wilson in 1983 won by Carl’s Bird) and his victory in the 2004 North America Cup with Mantacular.

SWEET REDEMPTION

In 2012, Sweet Lou entered the NA Cup stretch and soon had a three-length lead. He wasn’t able to maintain it that night, but, last year, his son Louprint took it all the way to the wire and set a new stakes record of 1:47.1 in the process.

ON THE ROAD TO SIX FIGURES

Interesting to note that the NA Cup debuted in 1984 at $596,500, the very same year that the Meadowlands Pace went for its biggest ever pot of $1,293,000. On The Road Again won that Pace and when he hung them up he briefly led all pacers all-time in money towards the end of 1985 until Nihilator surged by late.

KATZ’S LEGACY

Marvin Katz, who will be enshrined in the Harness Racing Hall of Fame on July 5 is so high profile and had such success with trotting females it’s easy to forget he is no one-trick pony. He had pacer Expensive Scooter winning the Breeders Crown for freshman pacing colts at Freehold in 1993. He and Al Libfeld and Sam Goldband teamed with Duke Of York to win both the 1997

HOLLYWOOD HODGEPODGE

- Hats off to Allegiant, who was so dominant last Sunday (May 31) in Sweden. A review of her 2024 Breeders Crown reveals a quirky stat. She was 9-for-24 lifetime entering the race. That was the eighth best career winning percentage in the field.
- Had Green Speed been eligible to the 1977 Kentucky Futurity we likely would have witnessed some history. Had he entered and won, there would have been a Triple Crown winner in both harness and thoroughbred racing for the first and still only time. That was the year Seattle Slew won the thoroughbred Triple Crown.
- June 12 this year marks a full decade since we lost Leo C. McNamara. A third-generation horseman and executive administrator of the SBOA of New Jersey, he was just 60. His legacy will be from Hanover Shoe Farms and Two Gaits Farm.
- Muscle Hill is now 20 and holds a record which may be safe for the next century. On Hambletonian Day from 2016-19, a combined 102 of that day's combatants were sired by Muscle Hill.

- The June 18, 1977 edition of the Cane Pace might have been the oddest or most unique edition – you decide. Father and son Jack and John Kopas went 1-2 with Jade Prince and Nat Lobell, respectively. A mishap marred the race with breakers scattering horses early, including B Gs Bunny. There were 18 lengths from the top pair back to third.
- Kikikatie is the first broodmare with her first five foals all having a 1:50 or better record. Prelude Lobell was the first broodmare to do it with five offspring in 2:00 or better.
- Can it really be 25 years since the Castleton Farm dispersal? At the end of 2001, 392 weanlings and broodmares collectively brought over $7.6 million.
- Ake Svanstedt moved to the U.S. at the end of 2013 and has been a force ever since. But, his first winner in the States came in late November 1999 at Pompano Park with a pacer – Aldonte by a nose. It was part of the Swedish-American Pace promotion held at the Florida track.

Pete McMullen and Chantal Turpin hope for a hometown advantage in Inter Dominion Series

by Adam Hamilton

Pete McMullen and Chantal Turpin have gone from pony trot rivals almost 30 years ago to one of the biggest and best training teams in Australasia.

The married couple, both now 34, were just 6 years old when they first raced against each in pony trotting races at Brisbane's home of harness racing, Albion Park.

Next month they will return to Albion Park, also known as "The Creek," with two of the biggest stars of the rich Brisbane Inter Dominion series.

“ Sometimes you do stop and think we’re going into our hometown Inter Dominion [at Albion Park] with a favorite [Gus] and second favorite [The Janitor], but Chantal [Turpin] and I have a big team of horses and young family, so we’ve got lots to think about.”

~ Pete McMullen

Exciting pacer The Janitor is second favorite behind the great Leap To Fame for the $1 million pacing final.

The brilliant but sometimes headstrong Gus is a raging hot favorite to win the $500,000 trotting final.

The iconic series consists of two rounds of qualifying heats on July 4 and 11 before the finals on July 18.

“Sometimes you do stop and think we’re going into our hometown Inter Dominion with a favorite and second favorite, but Chantal and I have a big team of horses and young family, so we’ve got lots to think about,” McMullen said.

“Of course, it’s exciting and it’s great to have stars like The Janitor and Gus.”

McMullen recalls driving against Turpin as a youngster and that grew into a relationship when the pair were 16.

“We’ve been together since then,” he said.

When they started dating, they were both junior drivers on the rise.

“At the time, we were the first two people to drive more than 100 winners before we turned 18. Others have done it since,” McMullen said.

“Chantal was the top junior driver in her first year. She kept driving a lot up until we started a family, but only does it occasionally now.”

Turpin has driven 431 winners and, interestingly, her last winner in the sulky was The Janitor at Albion Park on Nov. 23, 2024.

“She likes driving, but it’s just so hard with everything else now,” McMullen said.

The couple run Somerset Farm, about an hour west of Brisbane, for the past four years.

“As well as training about 50 horses, we’ve got two daughters [Riley and Olivia], and we stand stallions at the farm, too,” he said.

“The girls are into their sport, which is great, but that brings with it a lot of work and time with it, too. In a good way, of course.

“That’s part of why we went into the farm and the stallions, so I could back off the driving a bit and have more time with the kids.”

As a trainer, Turpin boasts over 1,900 winners, including nine at Group 1 level.

She and McMullen have become not just a huge Queensland force, but a major Australasian player as well.

That was never more evident than when Gus, who has taken lots of patience and hard work to trot safely and show his full talent, won the huge Group 1 double – Dominion Trot and New Zealand Trotting free-for-all – at New Zealand’s famous Cup Week at Addington last November.

“That was fairytale stuff,” McMullen said. “Not that we didn’t think he had the ability or was good enough to do it, but just to actually go to another country and win on such a big stage as that, not once, but twice in a week.

“It was so rewarding after all the work we, especially Chantal, had put into him.

“We loved him from the start, but he would do things wrong and when you asked him to run, he’d just want to flat out.

“New Zealand showed how far he’s come. It gave us more confidence in him and earned him respect from rivals, too.”

It also gave McMullen his eighth and ninth Group 1 wins in a stellar driving career, which has netted over 3,500 wins.

He’s won two Australian Driving Premierships, ending the great Chris Alford’s six-year dominance in 2021 and repeating the dose in 2022.

McMullen also won the 2014 Australian Drivers’ Championship and finished sixth when he represented Australia in the 2023 World Driving Championship.

(The Janitor), have been both the foundations and source of growth in the stable.

“Success breeds success, along with the ability to turn horses over and look for a replacement,” McMullen said.

“That’s where we’ve been good at selling horses to the U.S., who have gone on and done good jobs.

“We sell a lot of horses to the States and that enables the owners to reinvest. It’s been a really important part of our success.”

Like so many in harness racing, McMullen and Turpin come from harness racing families.

McMullen’s grandfather was the legendary Hall of Famer, JC “Hollywood” McMullen. His father, John, has had plenty of success.

Turpin’s father, Tony, has had training success and is also the Albion Park track curator.

So, who’s the best chance out of Gus and The Janitor to give the barn its first Inter Dominion crown?

The betting says Gus.

“He’s right on target,” Pete said. “He ran :26 or maybe a bit quicker for his last half beating a good pacer in a trial the other day. There are not many trotters who could do that. He’s as fast as any pacer we’ve got.”

With champion mare Keayang Zahara missing the trotting series, Gus clearly looks like the one to beat.

“The Janitor has Leap To Fame to deal with again and I’d be [Leap To Fame’s] biggest fan,” Pete said. “He’s unbelievable, he’s unreal.

“We’ve got close to him in the Blacks A Fake [last December] and Miracle Mile [in March] which gives you hope our turn will come one day, but we’re going to need luck. We’re going to need everything to go right.”

When The Janitor dashed at Leap To Fame in the last 150 meters of the Miracle Mile, most thought he would win.

“So did I for a moment,” Pete said. “I think I headed him and he kicked back. I definitely lost momentum on the home bend when they pushed me wide, so I’d have got to him quicker and earlier, but would he have still kicked back again?

“A bit like Gus, but not quite to the same extent, The Janitor has been a work in progress. It’s all starting to come together for him. Hopefully this will be his year.”

Winbak Farm's "Name a Foal" contest returns to Mohawk on North America Cup Night

by Melissa Keith

When Winbak Farm introduced its inaugural "Name a Foal" contest in May 2011, it was a bittersweet moment. The first foal in search of name submissions from the public was the final offspring of Classic Wish, who died while giving birth to a Somebeachwhere colt overnight on March 17, 2011.

The great mare was inducted to the Goshen (2004) and Canadian Horse Racing (2010) Halls of Fame during her lifetime. She raced for six seasons, taking her mark in a time trial at The Red Mile in October 1993, with John Campbell in the sulky. Classic Wish encountered bad luck in her 2-year-old campaign, facing interference in her Aug. 10, 1992 Ontario Sires Stakes debut at Elmira Raceway and then becoming caught up in an accident in her next Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) start, Aug. 31 at the same track. She nonetheless won wire-to-wire for driver Allan Cullen in her first start at Mohawk, on Sept. 14, 1992. Over her career, Classic Wish won 26 of 144 starts before making an even greater impact as a broodmare.

Classic Wish produced 12 foals as a Winbak Farm broodmare, joining the farm in March 1997 after being purchased by Joe Thomson for $42,000.

The Armbr Emerson mare started her second career with an all-time great first foal: 2001 O'Brien Horse of the Year Bettors Delight (p, 3, 1:49.4m; $2,581,461), born in 1998. The son of Cam's Card Shark is also a Canadian (2007) and U.S. (2013) Hall of Fame inductee, for his Dan Patch and O'Brien divisional awards at ages 2 and 3, as well as his considerable legacy as a stallion.

Classic Wish's second foal was the No Nukes gelding No Wishes (p, 5, 1:51.4z; $373,503), followed by Triple Crown and Breeders Crown champion No Pan Intended (p, 3, 1:50.3m; $1,581,735), voted Dan Patch 3-Year-Old Male Pacer of the Year, Pacer of the Year, and Horse of the Year in 2003. Roll With Joe (p, 3, 1:48.2m; $1,805,102) was voted the 2011 Dan Patch 3-Year-Old Pacing Colt of the Year. Classic Wish's 11 offspring to race have earned a combined $7,459,538 on the racetrack, a remarkable record.

In May 2011, Winbak Farm honored Classic Wish by introducing a "name the foal" contest. Ten entrants submitted names for the late mare's orphan colt; the winning entry was "Classics Greatwish." All of the contest participants were sent a Winbak Farm ballcap. The farm subsequently welcomed nearly 100 public name submissions for a mini horse born that year.

Classics Greatwish (p, 3, 1:52.2f; $27,955) sold for $185,000 at Harrisburg as a yearling, but never reached the nearly-impossible expectations that came with his pedigree. The gelding retired in March 2017 after an off-the-board result in his final start at Northfield Park, and reached mandatory retirement age (15) this year.

The 2026 edition of Winbak Farm's "name a foal" contest is coming to Woodbine Mohawk Park on one of its biggest cards of the meet: Pepsi North America Cup final night (Saturday, June 13). The foal in search of a name is a blaze-faced bay colt by top Canadian trotting sire Muscle Mass out of Clover Market, a Winbak-bred chestnut who made only three starts, all at Vernon Downs, before proving more successful as a broodmare.

Clover Market's first two foals are the International Moni gelding Crypto Currency (5, 1:53.3f; $97,001) and The Bank gelding Market Banker (4, 1:54.2s; $66,462), who last raced at Mohawk in January 2026 and took his mark there on May 12, 2025 for driver Chris Christoforou and trainer Camilla Christoforou.

A partnership between Winbak Farm and Woodbine Mohawk Park means that Clover Market and her colt will be in a paddock in front of the Mohawk grandstand Saturday night (June 13), with Winbak personnel alongside to answer questions. Entries in the "Name a Foal" contest can be submitted by scanning a QR code with a phone on the night of the event; one of a select top 10 will become the colt's registered name.

Answers and questions

by Trey Nosrac

The answer to last week's puzzle was: rare book collecting, a passion that was especially popular in the United States from the late 1800s through the mid-1900s.

While J.D. Rockefeller, Leland Stanford, C.K.G. Billings, and Cornelius Vanderbilt passionately raised and raced trotting horses, at nearly the same moment in history, Henry Clay Folger, Henry Edward Huntington, J.P. Morgan, and Robert Hoe were building some of the greatest rare-book collections in America. Their libraries became cathedrals of paper and ink. Dealers like A.S.W. Rosenbach became celebrities. Newspapers breathlessly covered the purchase of a Shakespeare First Folio the same way sports pages covered great horse races.

Oddly enough, one could argue that trotting horses and rare books stood nearly neck and neck as America's most fascinating hobbies during the Gilded Age.

What drove these men? Why would a man spend a fortune pursuing a trotter he could never profit from financially? Why would another spend the same fortune chasing a Shakespeare folio he would never read cover to cover, or a Gutenberg Bible written in German?

Gambling was not the motivation for owning a great trotter. Business was not the reason a man would spend a fortune chasing a Gutenberg Bible that they would never sell.

A great trotting horse and a great rare book share something unusual – both are temporary possessions connected to permanence. A man may own a horse for a few seasons. A collector may possess a manuscript for 20 years. But neither truly owns the thing. They are merely caretakers of history.

Perhaps, in some strange way, they believed they were buying proximity to immortality. A great trotting horse and a great rare book share something unusual – both are temporary possessions connected to permanence. A man may own a horse for a few seasons. A collector may possess a manuscript for 20 years. But neither truly owns the thing. They are merely caretakers of history.

That feeling is very different from the modern culture of gambling. Gambling is immediate. Cashing tickets is temporary. Purse money disappears almost as quickly as it arrives. Stewardship is different. Stewardship is generational. You attach yourself to something larger than your own life.

That may explain why old photographs of collectors and horsemen fascinate us. Whether it is Huntington standing among towering bookshelves or Vanderbilt beside a champion trotter, the expression is often remarkably similar. Pride, certainly, but also reverence.

There may only be one Gutenberg Bible. There are only a few hundred First Folios. There will only be one Hambletonian champion in 2026. Scarcity creates emotional gravity. And perhaps that explains why these passions are so intense among both the wealthy and ordinary people alike. Humans seem drawn toward things that feel permanent in a temporary world.

Perhaps it is as simple as this: Deep down, we all want to be part of a story.

And perhaps that explains why these passions are so intense among both the wealthy and ordinary people alike. Humans seem drawn toward things that feel permanent in a temporary world.

That is why gambling alone can never sustain a sport. Sitting in a car while hoping for an exacta box to hit or sweating an over-under wager on an NBA game does not create permanence. None of it creates mythology.

Nobody remembers those moments. But people remember Vanderbilt, Huntington, Lou Dillon, Dan Patch, Greyhound, and Hambletonian champions. The collector and the horseman leave fingerprints on history because their passions produce narratives more valuable than money.

Perhaps that is the danger facing modern harness racing, and maybe the entire modern world. We have become obsessed with economics while starving the mythology. The big picture seems to be passe. In our sport, we endlessly discuss purse structures, signal fees, casino subsidies, and survival strategies while failing to consider that the true fuel of every enduring sport or hobby is emotional attachment.

The great bibliophiles and the great horsemen may have been chasing the same dream – to place their hands on something extraordinary for a moment, and for just a little while, to become part of its story.

AMONG OURSELVES

with FRANK COLTOLO

Daily common arithmetic still defines reliable horse racing handicapping

by Frank Coltole

Mrs. Dawning taught mathematics as if she was present when humans used bones and pebbles to evaluate survival critical to daily existence. She was well respected at Public School 121 in Brooklyn, NY. Once she told students she was descended from the family present when mankind accepted long division. She enjoyed teaching sixth-graders as if they were members of the pre-historic apes in the opening scenes of "2001; A Space Odyssey."

We had no way to battle the ole gal's teaching methods; no less her demeaning delivery while explaining why some ancient Greek named Diophantus became known as the "Father of Algebra." All in all, she made us feel that no matter what we learned about mathematics it would never be enough to balance a checking account.

There were a few great math teachers in Junior High School. Great when compared to Mrs. Dawning because I began to understand basic arithmetic that would change my life forever. Not only did I grow into an adult able to balance my checking account but to apply math to everyday life and eventually learn to handicap horse races and manage my money so as to turn a profit investing in one of life's most unpredictable games.

It turned out that when I became faced with learning how to handicap horse racing, I was being taught by people who did not realize it was part of their daily lives even if they never so much as counted the legs on a racehorse. The definition of handicapping was always this: "Any disadvantage that makes success more difficult." The most ordinary situations in our lives present success and failure. We attempt measuring each of them to succeed and hope our estimations are accurate. Our tools – as defined by the brilliant James Quinn – are Experience and Knowledge and Intuition (E + K + I).

Take any simple task you face daily. How do you decide ways to accomplish its Success? You have a basic equation ($E + K + I = S$). All things being equal you trust you will arrive at your job on time (S).

You have a general knowledge (K) of the disadvantages most likely to produce failure. You apply the best successful route to arrive at a certain time (E).

You research the weather forecast and traffic reports affecting your usual route and make sure your car has enough gas and oil and basic operating functions (I).

But factors may differ day to day so you measure chances that a weather change or an unexpected traffic jam or some unpredictable situation will contribute to failure. You may leave earlier to combat the changes you know (I) by using an alternate route (K) or another tactic you used before to succeed (E). The basic equation does not change but the strengths of each element may need adjustment.

That is the process is handicapping and you do it every day with each situation you face because the human race aims for success over failure; it's an act of maintaining survival. Now add arithmetic. Assign percentage values to the chances of success and you are 99 per cent ahead of anyone who thinks handicapping horse races is the task of "picking a winner."

In college I was required to take elementary math as a prerequisite to my major – Communication Arts. The lightbulb shone brightly. I memorized an odds-to-percentages chart and understood the use of percentages in political polls and how they were misused in commercial advertisements and successfully used in all scientific studies. And of course, on the tote board at Roosevelt Raceway.

After graduating I practiced without betting and though still crudely using that basic equation, I embraced arithmetic like professional gamblers. With a mere pittance of a bankroll, I practiced with minimal bets and amazed some of my friends going to Roosevelt Raceway with me by not betting every race based solely on some wacky system or a local tout or a tip sheet or my birth date or license-plate number, etcetera.

I began to use the percentage-to-odds table to handicap my chances of succeeding in life paths. I looked at everything with a calculated approach while my friends made no attempt at being objective when placing bets. They were driven by emotion and ego. They ignored the value of cashing a winning ticket as opposed to how many tickets they cashed. And they never passed a race because their perception of value could not compete with their hunger to brag, they picked winners on the sole brilliance of their handicapping.

Plus, I learned to keep records and they did not. I knew when I was wrong when I lost and why I was right when I won. All because simple math would not allow me to pick winners. Just to play them.

Gingras sweeps Goodtimes eliminations with Magic Punk, Neighver Punt

by Ray Cotolo for Woodbine communications

Yannick Gingras flew into Woodbine Mohawk Park for a pair of drives in the two $30,000 Goodtimes eliminations – a Grade 2 event for trotting 3-year-olds – on Friday night (June 5) and found the winner's circle with both, guiding 4-5 favorite Magic Punk and 4-1 third choice Neighver Punt to victories.

In the first elimination, Magic Punk floated off the wings from post 7 and gradually advanced to take the lead from Greenarrow Hanover past a :28 first quarter. As Magic Punk cleared, second-choice Strobe Lite tipped off the pylons from fourth and marched uncovered up the rim to reach for the lead into a :56 half. Gingras obliged to sit the pocket moving for the final turn and readied to pounce with his charge. Magic Punk spurred out of the pocket past three-quarters in 1:24.3 and slid away from Strobe Lite in the stretch to register an easy $2\frac{3}{4}$ -length win. Wolfpack Crown grabbed third from Greenarrow Hanover while Land The Plane earned the last berth into the final.

"[Trainer] Ake [Svanstedt] said he'd be a little aggressive in the post parade and races two-fingered," Gingras said after the race. "He had a lot of trot; push-button in the race. I used him a couple of times the way the race shook out, but he was well in hand. It was easy to let James [MacDonald] go – his horse was one of the horses to beat – and I figured I'd get him getting to the top of the stretch. It was no worries."

Magic Punk, a colt by Wishing Stone out of the Explosive Matter mare I D Entity NO, remained unbeaten from two starts this year with his other win coming in the Grade 3 Dexter Cup last month at The Meadowlands. Svanstedt trains the six-time winner from 10 starts, with $427,879 earned, for owner Magic Punk Inc. He paid $3.50 to win.

Gingras fished cover for a second-over tow and successfully downed even-money favorite Touchedbyanangel in the final strides of a 1:51.4 mile in the second Goodtimes elimination.

After 8-5 second choice Exactly broke stride behind the gate, Royal Captain fired from post 6 to take the lead from pylon-starter Classified ripping into a :26.3 first quarter. Touchedbyanangel planted into fourth ahead of Neighver Punt and strode along up the backstretch until Gingras began creeping off the pylons approaching a :55.4 half, at which point driver Doug McNair pulled off the cones to push for the lead into the far turn. Royal Captain clung to a diminishing advantage with Touchedbyanangel looming to three-quarters in 1:24 and gave way in the stretch while McNair's charge hustled for the finish. Neighver Punt had clear sailing in the final eighth and persisted to reel in the loose leader with every stride late for a neck victory. Royal Captain held third with Classified finishing fourth and Dream For Peace closing for the last spot into the final.

"[I was told] he's easy to drive, so I figured him out in the post parade," Gingras said after the race. "I was confident in the middle of the last turn, but when we kicked for home Dougie [McNair] took off a little bit and I was like 'alright, we'll be second' but he was still trotting. Down late he really dug in, so credit to the horse."

Marcus Melander trains Neighver Punt, a colt by Bar Hopping out of the Donato Hanover mare Twice Is Right, for owner Courant Inc. The colt collected just the second win of his career from 12 starts, pushing his career earnings to $110,654, and paid $10.60 to win.

The post positions for the Goodtimes final were drawn following the eliminations. The elimination winners earned the right to draw first for posts 2 through 6. Below is the field for the Goodtimes final, which will take place on the undercard of the $1-million Pepsi North America Cup next Saturday (June 13).

Loua Dipa rebounds, Be Perfect BG and Perfect Thought score in Fan Hanover eliminations

by Ray Cotolo for Woodbine communications

World champion Loua Dipa returned to Woodbine Mohawk Park off a defeat in her debut to rip a 1:48.3 mile and win the last of three $35,000 Fan Hanover eliminations – a Grade 1 Stake for 3-year-old pacing fillies – on Saturday night (June 6) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Sliding into fourth approaching a :27 first quarter, Loua Dipa, driven by Ronnie Wrenn, Jr., gathered steam for the backstretch and hustled after leader A Clean Deal as she maintained speed into a :54.1 half. Loua Dipa stretched forward to grab the lead from A Clean Deal moving for the far turn and breezed past three-quarters in 1:20.2. She muscled through the stretch and held a healthy advantage to the finish to stride in a 2¾-length winner over Daya, who skimmed the pylons to grab second from A Clean Deal.

Race replay here.

“She’d been real sharp qualifying,” said Wrenn, Jr. when asked whether he was concerned about Loua Dipa’s last race being a month ago. “Nothing surprises me with her, but she put in a game effort and beat a couple of really nice fillies in there so I was proud of her. She definitely grew up a little bit and they changed her bridle, but she feels like her old self. She was awesome tonight.”

Loua Dipa, a homebred daughter of Sweet Lou, won for the 10th time from 15 starts in her career and padded her bankroll to $1,174,788 for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC and Weaver Bruscelli LLC. The Ron Burke trainee paid $3.20 to win.

Tony Beaton’s undefeated Perfect Sting filly Be Perfect BG trounced her peers under no urging to post a 1:48.4 effort in the second Fan Hanover elimination.

Driver Dexter Dunn eased Be Perfect BG, the 1-5 favorite, towards the lead out of post 6 and smoothly cleared pylon-starter Easy Station to a :26.4 first quarter. Be Perfect BG grabbed a slight breather to a :54.4 half and rolled steadily through the turn with Easy Station anxiously tracking Dunn’s helmet. However, the favorite faced no trouble after three-quarters in 1:22, as she peeled away in the stretch for a 2¼-length win under wraps over Easy Station with Sangria Summer in third.

“She did everything that was asked of her last year and in impressive fashion,” Dunn said after the race. “Obviously had a good break – I think that probably really helped her. Just looking at her physically, she really bulked up this year and she’s come back better than ever. She was doing it pretty easy. We came to three-quarters and she started to pick the tempo up herself. She’s a real racehorse; she really wants to do it.”

Be Perfect BG has now won nine straight from nine starts in her career and banked $343,318 for owners Gaston Bibeau, Gestion Eric Bibeau Inc., and Ecurie CSL. She paid $2.30 to win.

The first elimination saw a surprise with odds-on favorite Topville Lucky toppled by a furious charge down the center of the track from Perfect Thought to score the win in a 1:49.3 mile.

Lavender Seelster launched for the lead to a :26.2 first quarter and settled into the backstretch as the two favorites began a brush for the front. Seaside Charm led the charge and cleared command while Topville Lucky steadily ground forward and eventually crossed to the lead after a :54.1 half. All the while driver James MacDonald angled Perfect Thought into a second-over position nearing three-quarters in 1:21.4 and started fanning towards the center of the track. Seaside Charm took a shot out of the pocket after Topville Lucky as she labored for home before she plateaued. Perfect Thought hit top gear once the top pair tired and swooped to the lead with ease and crossed the beam a winner by 1¾ lengths.

Lavender Seelster zipped through a seam at the inside for second while Jen Tilly kicked from last for third.

Coming into the Fan Hanover, Perfect Thought’s last race came nearly a month ago after she scratched from the New Jersey Sire Stakes final. On the scratch, MacDonald said “She’s a filly and unpredictable weather in the year; it was just a case she tied up. But Scott [Zeron] and Megan [Scran] have done such a great job with her. She was coming into the race really, really good and I was fortunate enough to get on her at the right time. She felt like a million dollars and I saw she was always charging late, but I moved her over and she just jumped forward. Hopefully she can bring her ‘A’ game next week.”

Harry Poulton trains Perfect Thought, a daughter of Perfect Sting, for owner Thestable Perfect Thought. She won her first race of the year from three starts and her fifth race from 13 starts in her career, earning $297,274. Sent off as the fourth choice in the betting, she paid $24.40 to win.

Louies Girl N and Miki And Minnie take Roses Are Red eliminations

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

Louies Girl N and Miki And Minnie were winners in Saturday (June 6) evening's Roses Are Red eliminations at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The older pacing mares for the Roses Are Red delivered a pair of exciting splits to determine the field of 10 for next Saturday's $220,000 Grade 1 final.

Louies Girl N and driver Jason Bartlett went a big trip first-up to win the first $35,000 elimination in 1:49.4. The even-money favorite moved out from third nearing the half to make a bid for the lead and ended up in a third-quarter throwdown with leader Always B Naughty, reaching that marker in 1:21.2.

In the stretch, Louies Girl N took a clear lead and then had to dig deep late to hold off a challenge from 99-1 shot Always Dawn and hold on for the win. Rodeo Drive Deo was third, while Twin B Joe Fresh finished fourth in her seasonal debut. Grit N Grace got the last spot into next week's final with a fifth-place finish.

Bad Dream, Louies Girl N is now seven-for-nine on the season with over $330,000 earned. The Per Engblom trainee has stepped up big to join the Grand Circuit ranks for owner Peaceful Acre Farm.

“After we raced her a couple of times, I was hoping she was going to be an open mare at Yonkers, because you showed that pretty quick, and well, she just kept getting better and better,” said Engblom. “This was the first race on a big track, and I thought it was going to be a long way home for being first up, but she handled it well.”

Louies Girl N paid $4.20 to win.

Miki And Minnie and driver James MacDonald converted off a second-over trip to win the second elimination in 1:50.1.

Getting away fourth, the Chris Ryder trained Miki And Minnie was able to follow The Last Martini around the last turn in that second-over position as Aardie B Miki N cut out fractions of :26.2, :55.1, and 1:23.1.

In the stretch, Miki And Minnie muscled by The Last Martini to pick up her first win as a 4-year-old. The Last Martini held second, while Absolution got up for third at 25-1. The top five finishers were rounded out by Talk Curdy To Me and Skywalker Sea.

A daughter of Always B Miki, Miki And Minnie is now one for two to start her 4-year-old campaign. The career winner of $2.7 million picked up her 20th lifetime win from 28 starts for owners Craig Henderson, Robert Mondillo, and Lawrence Minowitz.

Miki And Minnie paid $2.10 to win.

Mossdale Ben N, Odds On Chesapeake take Northfield featured events

by Ayers Ratliff for Northfield Park

Driver Jimmy Marohn, Jr. walked into the paddock at Northfield Park for the second time in his career and first in 25 years when he came to the northeast oval on Saturday (June 6) to drive Mossdale Ben N (post 2) in the Grade 2 $250,000 Battle of Lake Erie.

Marohn, Jr. went to the gate with a plan to land on the lead, but that plan was quickly spoiled by Women Layer (Luke Hanners, post 1) who was hustled off the wings and parked Helium N (Dan Noble, post 4) through blazing :25.4 and :52.3 early fractions.

“I wanted to be aggressive off the gate and try to cut it,” said Marohn, Jr. “But that didn’t work out and we had to wait for our trip.”

Up the backstretch, Helium N was weary and started to tire. Not only was he tired, he had also softened-up Women Layer through a 1:20 three-quarters. Captain Albano (Todd McCarthy, post 3) moved three-wide, and Prince Hal Hanover (Matt Kakaley) moved four-wide approaching the stretch.

Marohn, Jr., who had been in the garden spot the entire mile with a ringside seat to the Women Layer/Helium N slugfest, pulled the pocket and narrowly held off a hard-charging Prince Hal Hanover to stop the clock in 1:48.4, winning the Battle of Lake Erie by a nose.

Owned by PJT Investments, the 8-year-old son of the 2013 Battle of Lake Erie Champion A Rocknroll Dance out of Mossdale Sue, is trained by Peter Tritton who picks up his second battle score after winning in 2018 with Bit Of A Legend N. It was the 22nd victory for the gelding and bolstered his lifetime bankroll to $902,069.

Mossdale Ben N returned $15.80 to win. Prince Hal Hanover was the runner-up and Huntinthelastdolar was third. Also, completing the race in order were: Women Layer, Captain Albano, Ken Hanover, For Once Inmy Life, Bythemissal, and Helium N.

Two races earlier on the card, Odds On Chesapeake rolled down the stretch to take the $100,000 Buckeye Distaff in 1:51 from post 7. It was the first win of the year and 14th lifetime score for the 4-year-old daughter of Downbytheseaside—Macaroon.

The race was a slugfest in the early stages as Real Star (Trevor Smith) took no prisoners from the rail through a scintillating :25.3 opening quarter. Hey Hey Mama (Luke Hanners, post 2) then made her move to the front and led through fractions of :54 and 1:21.4 taking substantial heat from No Foolin April (Brett Miller, post 9), who made a relentless first-over bid.

Odds On Chesapeake was in the live outer flow and was tipped three-wide at the top of the stretch to pace a last quarter in :28.3 and finish 1¼ length in front as she victoriously crossed the wire.

Odds On Chesapeake is owned by Odds On Racing and trained by Virgil Morgan, Jr. Her $50,000 payday increased her lifetime earnings to $718,560.

Finishing behind Odds On Chesapeake who returned $14.60 to win, were: No Foolin April, Hey Hey Mama, High Flyin’ Filly, Prolific Fire, Tarapasta, Naked On A Hill, Real Star, and Factory Girl.

Pennsylvania SIRE STAKES REPORT

Miss Jum Jabber headlines PASS at The Meadows

by Tyler Stillings for the Meadows Standardbred Owners Association

The twilight card at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows on Friday (June 5) featured sophomore pacing fillies as the center of attention. Four $20,000 Pennsylvania Stallion Series divisions served as the opening act for three $35,851 Pennsylvania Sire Stakes (Adios Betty) divisions.

In the first PASS division, driver Andrew McCarthy waited until just before the quarter pole before moving Miss Jum Jabber, sporting a six-race win streak, to the lead in a :28.1 opening panel. The pace never slowed from there, with fractions of :56.2 at the half and a :26.3 backside sprint to the three-quarters in 1:23.

Miss Jum Jabber still needed a :27 final quarter to hold off a persistent Bahama Momma by three-quarters-of-a-length on her way to a lifetime-best 1:50 victory. It was her seventh consecutive win. The mile by the daughter of Bettor's Wish was the fastest of the three divisions. Miss Jum Jabber is trained by Brett Pelling and owned by Brett Pelling Racing LLC.

A compact field of five in the second division provided the closest PASS finish, as just a half-length separated the first four finishers. At the wire, it was Hope Hill and driver Mike Wilder using the Lightning Lane to win by a head in 1:51.1. Wilder put the Papi Rob Hanover filly in position in the first turn to follow favorite Bettor Be A Star. After a 2-hole trip and a :27.2 closing kick, Hope Hill recorded a new lifetime mark and added an Adios Betty victory to her résumé. Hope Hill is owned by Tom Hill and trained by Virgil Morgan, Jr.

The third division saw I'm A Lou Lou and Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. go coast-to-coast to win in 1:50.1. Leaving from post 4, Wrenn, Jr. sent the Sweet Lou filly through a tone-setting :27 opening quarter, with Makemblush Hanover tracking in second. I'm A Lou Lou used a :26.4 third quarter to try to seal the deal, but Wrenn, Jr. still needed a :27.3 final panel to hold off the game Makemblush Hanover by three-quarters-of-a-length. Ron Burke trains the filly for the owners Burke Racing Stable, Knox Services, Larry Karr, and Phil Collura.

The four Stallion Series divisions began with Sicerto, who came first-over from fourth during a :27.1 third quarter, to get past front-runner Carolina by a half-length for a lifetime-best 1:52 victory. Sicerto is owned by CTC Stable, KDP Stable, and Manklin Creek LLC. The daughter of Sweet Lou is trained by Noel Daley. An easy second quarter and a :26.1 third-quarter sprint proved to be the right combination for Tall Dark Tequila's Stallion Series victory in the second division. Dave Palone sent the Tall Dark Stranger filly to the lead before the quarter and she outlasted Make It Right for a career-best 1:51.4 effort. Hunter Oakes trains Tall Dark Tequila for owners Flying A Racing Stable and Chuck Pompey.

The combination of Ron Burke and Wrenn, Jr. captured divisions 3 and 4, first with Joyful Hanover and then with Real Fast. Wrenn, Jr.'s quarter-pole move with Joyful Hanover put the filly in position to use a :27.1 final quarter to hold off Gracious by a length. The 1:51.3 effort was a career mark for the Always B Miki filly owned by Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Bruscelli LLC, William Switala, and James Martin.

Sitting third until the three-quarter pole, Wrenn, Jr. moved Real Fast and, aided by a :27.1 closing panel, the filly lived up to her name with a 1:52 Stallion Series victory. The Papi Rob Hanover filly was a two-length winner for owners Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Bruscelli LLC, Knox Services, and Slaughter Racing Stable.

For the evening, the Burke Stable took training honors with five victories, while driver Wrenn, Jr. won seven of the card's 11 races. Hollywood Casino at The Meadows resumes racing Saturday (June 6), with a first-race post time of 12:45 p.m. (EDT).

ENDURANCE THE REAL DEAL IN POCONO SIRE ACTION

Endurance, the 3-year-old trotting colt who was outstanding at 2 and has continued on at 3 to be one of the favorites for the Hambletonian, was again impressive at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania on Saturday afternoon (June 6), when he won his $50,502 division of the second prelim of his group's Pennsylvania Sire Stake. Endurance, who gave sire Captain Corey a Sire Stakes credit in addition to the two he earned in Stallion Series competition Saturday, went his mile in 1:51.4, equaling the fastest trotting time of the year at Pocono.

Andrew McCarthy, routing his schedule for a cameo appearance in northeast Pennsylvania before going on to Toronto, was away fifth with the winner and stayed in that position as 113-1 shot Overseas blistered early numbers of :26.1 and :54.3. When McCarthy gave the word to Endurance down the backstretch, the horse quickly went into higher gear, and when pocketsitter Geologic moved out late down the back to avoid a pocket shuffle, McCarthy gave no thought to cover and steamed on three-wide to circle to command just past a 1:23 three quarters.

No one could go with Endurance through the stretch (Geologic was 3¼ lengths back at the finish), and Endurance looked shut down at the wire. Apex may have gotten the decision in the Mohawk Million and Spencer Hanover just got by in the Oak Grove Derby final, but trainer Chris Beaver and owners Super Endurance Stable, Bill Manes, Leo Fleming, and Mark Moger has had their horse give no indication that they still shouldn't be looking forward to Aug. 8.

The other PASS division was won by the undefeated Greenshoe gelding Highland Destiny, unraced at 2 but now perfect in four 2026 starts after a 1:54.1 victory in his $50,102 division. The winner was taken back early by driver Scott Zeron from the outermost post 7 after many others inside stepped away well, but after a quarter in :27.4 and just before a half in a pedestrian :57, Highland Destiny started then sustained a big-time uncovered move, going from fifth to first before the 1:25 third split (own third quarter :27.1 raw) and opened daylight.

Minoan, who had shown early speed, got stuck behind a tired horse on the far turn as Highland Destiny got a big advantage, but once clear he swung out then back in the stretch inside the leader (who had had only three lifetime starts; a surprise tactic maneuver?). But his steady charge just failed by a head, with Highland Destiny having enough to take the triumph for trainer Nancy Takter and Highland Thoroughbred Frm.

As mentioned, Captain Corey sired two of the winners in the three $20,000 Stallion Series sections – which like the Sire Stakes generated no horse who won both his prelims. In the Stallion Series, Tim Tetrick drove two of the three winners, including the fastest in Captain Jordan. The colt left for position, quickstepped a :27.2 individual third quarter to clear to command and won by 1¾ lengths in 1:54.3, like the other StS winners taking a new mark. Captain Jordan is owned by Joseph Faraldo and the Triple D Stables Inc. of trainer Scott DiDomenico, now only four wins shy of 3,000 career victories.

Tetrick and Captain Corey earned another credit with Captainforlife As, a gelding who won in 1:54.4. Captainforlife As brushed to the lead in front of the stands the first time and went on to win by 3¾ lengths for trainer Anette Lorentzon and ACL Stuteri AB. Rounding out the Stallion Series winners was the International Moni gelding Nose Jammer, who returned 11-1 despite this being his 11th career victory – he was one of the top fair horses in PA at 2 – after coming up the Pocono Pike to nose out Drambuie Hanover (the first four were within a half-length) in 1:55.2 for driver Andy Miller and trainer Todd Schadel, the latter co-owner with wife Christine.

Three years later, the Somebeachsomewhere gelding Ruthless Hanover is still the fastest horse ever on a five-eighths-mile track with his 1:46.3 mile at Philly at age 6, and at 9 he still retains much talent, going to the top in a $20,000 fast-class pace and lighting up the board with splits of :26.2, :54, and 1:20.1 for driver George Napolitano, Jr. en route to a 1:48.1 tally, the fastest mile of the year at Pocono. It's hard to believe that Ruthless Hanover had not already achieved millionaire status, but with this victory the star for Team Cancelliere – trainer Tom and owner John – brought his bankroll to $1,004,989.

We mentioned Endurance as a top contender for the Hambletonian – the big Saturday card also featured a Top Ten contender for the Meadowlands Pace, the Always B Miki gelding Always B Charlie, who won in 1:51.2 on the front end for driver Scott Zeron, trainer Nancy Takter, and Upstart Racing.

Anthony Napolitano was top horseman on the day with three winners; doubles were achieved by drivers Tyler Buter, Tim Tetrick, and Scott Zeron, and trainers Deborah Daguet, Nancy Takter (both driven by Zeron) and Darren Taneyhill (both driven by Anthony Napolitano).

The second of nine consecutive 5 p.m. twilight Sunday cards is tonight (June 7) at Pocono, with separate $15,500 events for up-and-coming male pacers and for the top claiming pacing horses on the grounds. Free Pocono program pages are or will be available at www.ppha.org.

New Jersey SIRE STAKES REPORT

'American' displays lasting power at Big M

by Dave Little / Meadowlands media relations

Taking advantage of a rated first half, American Power pulled off an upset Friday night (June 5) at The Meadowlands, defeating two big-time, headline-grabbing Hambletonian contenders in the featured $25,000 second leg of the New Jersey Sire Stakes for 3-year-old colt and gelding Platinum-level trotters.

Mega Shark had the lead at the quarter in :28.1 before American Power surged past that one to take the field of 11 past the half in an underwhelming :57. Just before the half, Diabolic Hill, the even-money second choice who is No. 4 on Ken Warkentin's Road to the Hambletonian Top 10, vacated the 5-hole to go after the leader uncovered. Apex, the 4-5 favorite who is top-ranked, picked up that cover as American Power went by three-quarters in 1:25.4.

But a first-over trip wasn't going to cut it for Diabolic Hill, and Apex, who gapped his cover around the far turn, saw his rally nearing the wire fall short. Apex finished second with Diabolic Hill a tired third as they both made their seasonal debuts.

It was no sweat for trainer Marcus Melander. His horses finished 1-2, and while Dexter Dunn handled Apex, American Power did just fine with Mattias Melander, Marcus' brother.

American Power (Mattias Melander) winning the New Jersey Sire Stakes Platinum-level dash for 3-year-old colt trotters on Friday at The Meadowlands.

“The New Jersey Sire Stakes final is next for this horse,” said Mattias of the Hambletonian eligible. “And then we’ll take it from there.”

A superbly bred colt by Walner—Ariana G, American Power completed the mile in a lifetime-best 1:52 to win by a safe neck. He has won all three of his starts this season and returned $30.80 to win as the 14-1 third choice in the wagering.

LADIES’ NIGHT: In addition to Debbie Little (the associate editor/columnist at Harness Racing Update) and Meadow Twaddle (marketing director of The Meadows Standardbred Owners Association) serving as host and co-host, respectively, of the live simulcast presentation, there were also a pair of $25,000 Platinum-level New Jersey Sire Stakes dashes for 3-year-old trotting fillies on the card.

Naked And Famous (Six Pack—Sleep Tight My Luv) won the first division of the second leg in ultra-impressive fashion. The Noel Daley trainee surged past leader Days Away at the half before trotting her back half in :55.1 to stop the clock in a lifetime-best 1:51.1. Driven by Todd McCarthy, she broke in last when in tight heading to the half as the favorite in the Oak Grove Trotting Oaks final, one week after establishing a track-record of 1:51.2 in her elim. As the 3-5 favorite, she returned $3.40 to win.

The second division went to the Jason McGinnis-trained, Anthony MacDonald-driven Jailbird Jog (Tactical Landing—Miss Don Fanucci S), who made the lead at the half in :56 before trotting a back-half in :55.4 to complete a 1:51.4 lifetime best. The Oak Grove Oaks winner scored for the third time this year in four tries and paid $5.40 as the 8-5 second choice.

DEBBIE’S MONSTER DOUBLE: Hall of Famer Debbie Little, who was filling in for her husband, Dave, made her presence felt in a big way.

Debbie, who was a handicapper and writer for the New York Post for 27 years before getting her gig at HRU, showed no rust as a track tout, giving out seven winners on the card.

In addition, she absolutely crushed it late, as she used a 1-2 favorite (best bet Wishuponastar Deo) in the 14th race as a single to go along with a 50-1 bomb in the finale (Ms Frances Assisi, one of two horses she included) to make a gigantic score.

Her “Little’s Late Double” called for an investment of $40, and those who played along cashed in for a segment-record $868, a profit of $828, after cashing their $20 base bets on the $86.80 payout.

A LITTLE MORE: Jason Bartlett led the driver colony with three winners... All-source handle on the 15-race card totaled $2,579,871.

New York SIRE STAKES REPORT

Read The Room, Silverstein, R Ro get NYSS wins at Tioga

by John Horne for Tioga Downs

Tioga Downs played host to three divisions of the New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) for sophomore trotters on Friday (June 5).

Read The Room (Sarah Svanstedt) charged late to win the $59,100 first division for colts and geldings.

Highway Six (Jeff Gregory) laid down all the early fractions first to the quarter in :27.1, to the half in :57.1 and to three quarters in 1:25.

As they reached the stretch Read The Room ($13.36) popped out of the pocket and came flying late to take the win in a lifetime best of 1:53.2. Highway Six had to settle for second. Twin B Seven Sins (Niko Karna) finished third.

Read The Room is a colt by Chapter Seven and is owned by Little E LLC., B Nasstrom Holding Inc, Nils Munkhaugen, and trainer Ake Svanstedt. It was his first win this season and his third career victory.

Silverstein (Matt Kakaley) cruised to easy victory in the $59,100 second division for colts and geldings.

Silverstein ($2.64) went to the front and led to the quarter in

Fred Brown
R Ro (Tyler Buter) won the lone $123,900 New York Sire Stakes division for 3-year-old trotting fillies on Friday at Tioga Downs.

Fred Brown

Read The Room (Sarah Svanstedt) won one of two NYSS divisions for sophomore trotting colts.

:27.4. He used a :29.3 second quarter to be first to the half in :57.2. Sevenato (Trond Smedshammer) was first to make a move going first-up down the backstretch, but Silverstein was first to three quarters in 1:26.4.

As they reached the stretch second place finisher Al (Tyler Buter) went all out after the leader, but Silverstein was too strong and won easily in 1:53.3. Seven Grand (Sarah Svanstedt) was third best.

Silverstein is a gelding by Chapter Seven and is owned by Dark Horse Farms and trained by Matthew Burkholder. It was his second win this season and his sixth career victory.

R Ro (Tyler Buter) won the lone $123,900 NYSS for fillies.

Storybook Love (Todd Ratchford) was first to the quarter in :27, and she slowed things down with a :30 second quarter for a half in :57. Sharp Seven (Jeff Gregory) then took control and led to three quarters in 1:25.

R Ro ($7.02) ran down second place finisher Sharp Seven in deep stretch to nail down the win in a lifetime best of 1:53.3. Lauren's Chapter (Niko Karno) took home third money.

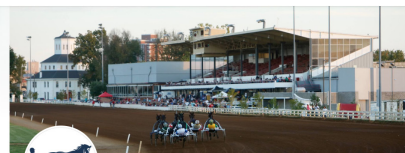

R Ro is a filly by Chapter Seven and is trained by John Butenschoen for lessee M And L De/Armitage Farm. It was her first win in 2026 and she now has three career victories.

Letitia headlines abbreviated Thursday card at Running Aces

by Darin Gagne for Running Aces

Running Aces was forced to cancel the remainder of the Thursday night (June 4) program in the best interest of safety for racing participants when dangerous lightning moved into the area and was forecast to remain in the area for an extended period of time.

Casy Leonard and Dean Magee both drove two winners on the abbreviated program and trainer Justin Anfinson also sent out two winners.

Letitia (Leonard, $6) captured the $17,000 Minnesota-sired sophomore filly pace in a career best 1:55 for owner/trainer Ed Snyder, getting home 1¾ lengths ahead of heavy favorite Starstruck Fool (Scott Cisco) with longshot Hot Cheddar Flirt (Mooney Svendsen) home in third. The winner is by Three Of Clubs.

Cool Mr Cool (Leonard, $2.80) was very impressive in the $17,000 sophomore colts 'A' division, posting a 5¼ length tally in a career best 1:53.1 for owners Kyle Larner, Jay de Long, and Terry Knothe and trainer Justin Anfinson.

Bright Path (Nick Roland, $3.80) surged late to capture victory in the $8,500 sophomore class 'B' pace in 1:57.4 for a new lifetime mark and his third career win for owner Cathy Dessert and trainer Justin Anfinson.

Fox Valley Groupie (Magee, $2.60) delivered as the heavy favorite in the second leg of the Burning Blaze Pacing series in 1:53.3 to advance to a perfect four-for-four in 2026 for owners Hart Walker and Jim Ballinger and trainer Brett Ballinger.

Live Racing returns to Running Aces today (June 7) for a 10-race program that will get underway at 6 p.m. (CDT).

HARNESS RACING PRESS RELEASES, NOTES & ANNOUNCEMENTS

Tyler Smith drives two winners in second leg of BSS for sophomore filly pacers

Driver Tyler Smith guided a pair of winners as Eldorado Scioto Downs hosted five $20,000 divisions of the second leg of the Buckeye Stallion Series for sophomore filly pacers on Friday (June 5).

The Smith-driven Bad Girl Up won the fourth division by three lengths in a lifetime-best 1:52. The Lather Up filly led the field past the quarter pole in :26.3 and was in second place at the halfway mark as Zoom Call (Luke Hanners) was in front in :56. Zoom Call continued to lead and crossed the three-quarters in 1:24.2 with Bad Girl Up in the pocket. Down the final stretch, Bad Girl Up moved outside of Zoom Call and pulled away for the victory. Zoom Call was second followed by Ima Beach Girl (Justin Irvine) in third. Bad Girl Up is trained by Ron Potter for owners Last Laugh and Spring Haven Farm. She has two wins and $19,890 in earnings in five seasonal starts.

Smith was also the winning driver in the third division, guiding Rhodena Blue to victory in a lifetime mark of 1:51.4 for trainer Neil MacInnis. The Lather Up filly was in fifth place and trailed leader Juliet Capulet (Sam Widger) by three lengths at the three-quarter pole. But Smith took her four wide behind the leader entering the final stretch, and a late push put her in front at the line. Blood Queen (Marvin Luna) was second, and Juliet Capulet was third. Rhodena Blue is co-owned by MacInnis and his daughter, Rory. She has two wins in four seasonal starts with $17,629 in earnings.

Shehasaway (Brett Miller) recorded the fastest mile of the five divisions on Friday, winning the first division in a lifetime-best 1:51.3. The Summa Cum Laude filly was in sixth place at the quarter pole but took the lead at the halfway mark en route to winning by three-quarters-of-a-length. Jamie Amanda (Hanners) and Pina Cum Laude (Luna) rounded out the top three. Shehasaway is trained by Steve Bauder, who co-owns the horse with Douglas Swihart and Harold Bauder. Friday marked her first seasonal win, giving her three career victories and $74,432 in lifetime earnings.

Racing Artist (Luna) won the second division in a lifetime mark of 1:52.2 for her first victory of the season. Trained by Bill Webb, the Racing Hill filly won by 1¼ lengths over Beach Babe Hanover (Irvine) in second with Odds On Dividend (Hanners) finishing third. Racing Artist is owned by Webb and Denny Miller. She has a lifetime record of 9-4-6 and $78,640 in earnings in 20 starts.

Sea Me (Hanners) took the fifth division by a quarter length in 1:53.2, giving her two wins in three seasonal starts and increasing her earnings to $16,500. Not raced as a freshman, the Downbytheseaside filly led wire-to-wire in the victory. She's Lit (Smith) and Climate (Luna) rounded out the top three. Sea Me is trained by Virgil Morgan, Jr., who co-owns the horse with Let It Ride Stables and Odds On Racing.

Buckeye Stallion Series at Scioto Downs

Five divisions of the $20,000 Buckeye Stallion Series for 3-year-old filly trotters were held at Eldorado Scioto Downs on Thursday (June 4). Guardian Angel AS was the only sire who scored a double when his daughters Mockingbird AS and Guardian Doll took their respective divisions.

Mockingbird AS was the first Guardian Angel AS daughter to win, in 1:57, for owner/trainer and co-breeder Anette Lorentzon. Marvin Luna guided the 2-1 second choice who is out of the Taurus Dream mare Savannah Dream who now has two wins in 10 lifetime starts and $52,350 in earnings. Co-bred by Lorentzon and ACL Stuteri AB, Mockingbird AS won by a length over Kira (Tyler Smith).

In just the next race, and the last of the BSS series races, Guardian Doll won in 1:55.2 for trainer Deborah Swartz and driver Ronnie Gillespie. Sent off as the 3-5 favorite, it was the filly's third win in 12 lifetime starts for owners Jeff Fought Racing, Adam Friedland, and Brian Carsey. The $45,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from breeders Doug Millard and Spring Haven Farm, Guardian Doll won by 3½ lengths over Chasingstardust AS (Chris Page).

Earlier on the card, No Approval Needed and Brett Miller took the first division in 1:54.3. Sent off as the odds-on favorite, the Uncle Peter filly out of the Dejarmbro mare Sealedwithapproval won by a quarter-of-a-length over Dublins Breanna (Braiden Rhoades). The Ryan Stahl trainee now has seven lifetime wins in 14 starts and $39,686 earned for owners Stahl, Stephen Reis, and Matt Lambert. Bred by GBW Breeding Farm, No Approval Needed was a $10,000 Buckeye Classic Yearling Sale purchase.

The second division was won in 1:55.3 by the In Range filly She's In and Tyler Smith. A winner by a neck in 1:55.3 over Capturethephoto (Austin Hanners), the Miles Wollam trainee is now three-for-nine lifetime and a perfect one-for-one on the season. Bred by Allen Fisher, She's In was a $41,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase for owner Robert Kline. The 8-1 fourth choice paid $19.80 to win.

Sam Widger steered Princess Karolyn to a 1¾ length victory in the third division for co-owner and trainer Rosy Weaver. The mile tied her lifetime best of 1:55 taken earlier this season. The Creatine filly out of the Credit Winner mare Social Success was a $40,000 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale purchase from breeder Marlin Detweiler. Heartland Acres co-owns the filly who now has nine wins in 19 lifetime starts and $68,465 in earnings. Joyofmylife AS (Chris Page) was second. The winner paid $16.80 to win.

The 91-day 2026 Eldorado Scioto Downs regular season runs through Sept. 19. Races are held Tuesday-Saturday, with a special holiday card on Labor Day instead of the Tuesday card that week. The track will then re-open for the Breeders Crown, with eliminations held Oct. 16-17 and the finals Oct. 23-24. More information about all the racing action at Scioto can be found on the Eldorado Scioto Downs website.

OHHA to Live Stream 2026 Ohio County Fair Races

The Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association (OHHA) will live stream Ohio county fair races again this summer. The OHHA is scheduled to showcase 125 race cards from 66 county and independent fairs.

"We are excited to again bring Ohio county fair racing to harness racing fans in Ohio, the United States, and across the world," OHHA executive director Frank Fraas said.

The OHHA will kick off the 2026 schedule with coverage from the Paulding County Fairgrounds in Paulding, OH, on Monday and Tuesday, June 8-9.

The OHHA's 2026 fair coverage will include "Five Days in Delaware" programming from the Delaware County Fairgrounds on Sept. 20-24 highlighted by the 81st Little Brown Jug.

The live streams of the fair races will be available on the OHHA YouTube page and on harnessracingohio.com. Links to the streams will be posted to the OHHA Facebook page.

OHHA's Harness Racing Fantasy League is back for 2026 with more ways to win

The Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association's Harness Racing Fantasy League is back for 2026 with big changes and more ways to win.

Entries are currently being accepted for the 2026 Fantasy League and are due June 15. The contest runs from July 1 through Oct. 31.

The Harness Racing Fantasy League affords everyone the opportunity to experience the sport from an ownership perspective by selecting horses for their personal fantasy stable. Each stable consists of six horses comprised of five Ohio-sired 2-year-olds sold at a public auction and an Ohio-sired "wild card" horse of any age, sex, or gait. Stables will be ranked based on total earnings, and the standings will be posted to the OHHA Fantasy League page.

A total of $5,000 in cash prizes is up for grabs this year. The winner will receive the grand prize of $1,500. Second place will receive $800, and third place will receive $400. Fourth through 10th place will each receive $100, and the lowest-earning stable will also receive $100. New this year will be cash payouts at the quarter, half, and three-quarter poles with $500 going to the leading stable on Aug. 1, Sept. 1, and Oct. 1. Other prizes include OHHA swag for any fantasy stable owner whose horse sets a track record or wins an Ohio Sires Stakes final.

The Fantasy League is also introducing a “Beat the Experts” competition, pitting participants against the OHHA’s four experts – Matt Clark, Ashley Dailey, Roger Huston, and Stephen Taylor – who met some of this year’s eligible horses while filming the Freshman Focus series. Anyone who tops them all in the final standings will be entered into a drawing, and one lucky winner will receive two tickets to an Ohio professional sporting event. The 2026 Freshman Focus series is available on the OHHA YouTube channel.

For more information on the Fantasy League and to access entry forms and a list of eligible horses, visit the OHHA Fantasy League page. Entries are limited to one per person, and a current valid email address is required. Completed forms must be emailed to the OHHA’s Kim Poma at kpoma@ohha.com or faxed to 614-221-8726. No phone entries will be accepted.

Meadowlands hosts first Breakfast with the Babies session of 2026

The Meadowlands hosted its first Breakfast With The Babies session of the season on Saturday (June 6), featuring 11 2-year-old qualifying races.

Breakfast With The Babies is sponsored by the Tactical Landing Syndicate, Ecurie D Syndicate, and Karl Syndicate.

Trotters dominated the day, with nine of the 11 baby races dedicated to the square-gaited freshmen. Temperatures hovered around the 80-degree mark during the session with a light breeze from the southeast.

Wall Of Fame kicked off the baby races with an open-length crush for Team Orange Crush in the first 2-year-old qualifier of the season. With Andy Miller at the controls, Wall Of Fame comfortably cruised through opening fractions of :31.3 and 1:03, then kicked home with a :55.4 back half to trip the timer in 1:58.4 nearly five lengths the best. Two Day Hangover (Dexter Dunn) and Seven Thirds (Scott Zeron) completed the top trio.

Julie Miller trains Wall Of Fame, a daughter of Walner—Saadet bred by 30 Plus Stable and Klemmer Holdings Inc. of Trenton, ON. The filly was a $60,000 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale purchase, now owned by Andy Miller Stable Inc. of Cream Ridge, NJ, Jean Goehlen of Franconia, NH, Hutchison Harness LLC of North Ridgeville, OH, and Rick Huffman of Sigourney, IA.

Allure Kemp showed serious speed for driver Tim Tetrick in the second baby race, exploding with an impressive brush in the stretch to pick off tempo-setter Jyn Erso (Mattias Melander) at the wire to win by a neck in a 1:58 effort. Sitting fourth through fractions of :30.1, :59.3, and 1:29.2, Allure Kemp received her cue in the lane and got up to best Jyn Erso in the final strides. Halo Lindy (A. Miller) finished well to nab third.

A $50,000 Harrisburg yearling bred by Steve Stewart and Kemppe Stable of Paris, KY, Allure Kemp (Calgary Games—Here Nor There) is trained by Rene Sejthen for owner Garbo Stables Inc. of Delray Beach, FL.

Mats sat patiently in the pocket for trainer/driver Ake Svanstedt through the first seven-eighths of his initial test, watching Bigtime Chapter (Dunn) set fractions of :30.4, 1:01.4, and 1:32.2, then willingly trotted past that rival approaching the wire to score by a neck in 1:59.3. Kaws (Zeron) was next best.

Bred by Ab Svensk Reklamfinans of Del Ray Beach, FL, Mats (Walner—Beautiful Sin) is now owned by S R F Stable of Del Ray Beach.

A Man Without Love might find some now that he’s achieved a freshman mark of 1:58.4 from his first on-track appearance. The son of Captain Corey—Dusty Eighteen sat third for driver Jason Bartlett in the fourth qualifier as Octavius (Dunn) delivered uncontested panels of :30, 1:00.2, and 1:31 ahead of Gio's Hope (Zeron). The rookie trotters fanned out in the stretch, with A Man Without Love besting Gio's Hope by a half-length. Octavius held third.

Rene Sejthen co-owns and trains A Man Without Love for co-owners Philip Steinberg of Weston, FL, and Island Maan Stable of Brampton, ON. The $40,000 Lexington Selected yearling was bred by Al Libfeld of Pickering, ON.

Birr Castle (Captain Corey—Melania) bested her competition for driver Dunn and trainer Marcus Melander in the fifth baby race of the morning.

The Pheasant Hill Farm-owned homebred trotted in third as stablemate Offer Is Nothing (Zeron) handled fractions of :31, 1:02.1, and 1:33.1 on the front end. With a strong first-up attack around the final turn, Birr Castle kicked home confidently to best Exquis (Anthony MacDonald) by 1¾ lengths in 2:00.1. Chica Bonita (Lauren Tritton) completed the top trio.

Merry Zee merrily crossed the wire in 1:58.4 to capture the sixth baby race of the morning. Yannick Gingras sat second with the Ron Burke trainee as Final Stretch (Bartlett) fronted the field through fractions of :31.2, 1:01, and 1:31. Angled just before the third station, Merry Zee cruised home to best a pylon-skimming Luxe Lindy (Tyler Miller) by more than a length, with Final Stretch staying for third.

Burke trains Merry Zee (Gimpanzee—Merry Ann) for breeders and owners Burke Racing Stable LLC of Fredericktown, PA, Knox Services Inc. of Mt. Vernon, OH, and Weaver Brusceci LLC of Canonsburg, PA.

Though driver Scott Zeron didn't put him there, Wrong Sounds Right found himself on the lead turning for home in the morning's seventh qualifier and the son of Tactical Landing—Broadway Jo Ell earned a 2:01 speed badge in victory. Oil Jack (Dunn) trotted on top through fractions of :31.3, 1:02.2, and 1:33.1, then blew a gasket on the far turn and drifted into the three path before rolling off-stride. Pocket-sitting Wrong Sounds Right inherited the lead, then outsprinted Dream Shaq (Mattias Melander) in a strong tussle to the wire to win by just less than a length. Sign Of The Cross (Bartlett) was third.

Carbon Fiber was the strongest of the four rookies in the eighth dash, going all the way to deliver a 1:59.2 score. Gingras asked the son of Gimpanzee—Brunella to front the field through fractions of :32.3, 1:02.2, and 1:31.3 before Carbon Fiber confidently shot home in :27.4 for the winning effort. Gustav Vasa (Dunn) was no threat in second, more than three lengths back, with Offenbach (Zeron) recovering from an early miscue to finish third.

Bred by Goran Falk of Allentown and Christina Takter of East Windsor, NJ, Carbon Fiber was a $20,000 Harrisburg purchase of Burke Racing Stable LLC, Phil Collura of Mountain Top, PA, Knox Services Inc. and Frank Baldachino of Harvey Cedars, NJ.

Super Way delivered on his blue-blooded pedigree with a handy 2:01 victory on debut. Driver Anthony MacDonald got Super Way away in second behind Kountry Infusion (Svanstedt) through fractions of :32.1, 1:02.3, and 1:32.1, then angled the freshman out in the stretch for the open-length tally. Kountry Infusion finished second, more than three lengths off the winner, while Detonate (Zeron) blew up and made a second break across the wire in third.

A son of Walner and the accomplished award winner Ariana G, Super Way is trained by Jason McGinnis for Thestable Super Way Group of Brunswick, OH. The colt was a $48,000 Lexington Selected purchase, bred by Marvin Katz of Toronto and Al Libfeld of Pickering, ON.

Over to the pace, Totally Tyler totally delivered for his connections at first asking. Bred and owned by Brad Grant of Milton, ON, Totally Tyler and driver Yannick Gingras cleared to the lead after a :31.3 opening quarter from Call Me Crazy (Stacy Chiodo) and made every call a winning one from there. After a 1:01 half and third station reached in 1:29.1, Totally Tyler tore home in :27.1 to trip the timer in 1:56.2. Call Me Crazy and Philly's Sting (Lauren Tritton) were next to cross the wire, separated by double digits.

Ron Burke trains Totally Tyler (Bulldog Hanover—Band Stand), the full brother to 2025 Three Diamonds winner and Burke pupil Shes A Bulldog.

Crunchstyle closed out the session of baby races with a solid wire-to-wire tally in 1:57.2. Lauren Tritton guided the son of Captain Crunch—Ideal Lifestyle A away from the inner most starting spot, and Crunchstyle delivered on his front-end mission from there. After fractions of :31, 1:01.2, and 1:30.2, Crunchstyle sprinted home in :27 to fend off the late bid of pocket-sitting Atomix Hanover (MacDonald) to win by roughly a neck. Boomshakalaka (Gingras) finished third.

A $7,500 yearling purchase from the Goshen Yearling Sale, Crunchstyle is trained by Juan Cano — also the co-owner (as Cano Racing Stable LLC) with Ernie Davis LLC of Hamilton, NJ. Hot Lead Farm of Allentown, NJ is the breeder.

Racing at The Big M shifts its schedule next week, with cards contested on Thursday (June 11) and Friday (June 12). A double draw for the Thursday and Friday cards will be held on Monday (June 8).

Qualifiers and the next Breakfast With The Babies session also land on a different day next week, moving to Thursday (June 11) at 9 a.m. The entry box for qualifiers and baby races closes on Wednesday (June 10) at 10 a.m.
