Bowing to Beau in the Pepsi North America Cup

Despite suffering his first career defeat last week, Beau Jangles – at slightly inflated odds – will be my choice to win this year’s Pepsi North America Cup.

Headlined by Pepsi North America Cup XLIII (43), Saturday’s massive, graded stakes-filled card at Woodbine Mohawk Park has the potential to be one of the best top-to-bottom Cup cards in history. Beginning with the $1 million signature event and then followed by all other graded stakes in race order, here’s how I see the night shaping up.

In last week's elimination, it became apparent that Beau Jangles was going to be in trouble when moving with purpose first-over from fourth but he wasn't allowed, or able, depending on your perspective, to clear the 45-1 longshot leader Gentleman's Club through fractions of :54.1 and 1:21.1.

to the defeat of Beau Jangles in his North America Cup elimination. To be sure, last year's Horse of the Year was beaten fair and square when third last week to both Odds On Mr Mamba and Brandon Blvd. Gone now is his aura of invincibility, but I'm not ready to judge that race too harshly.

In last week's elimination, it became apparent that Beau Jangles was going to be in trouble when moving with purpose first-over from fourth but he wasn't allowed, or able, depending on your perspective, to clear the 45-1 longshot leader Gentleman's Club through fractions of :54.1 and 1:21.1. I was wondering at the time why Andrew McCarthy on Gentlemen's Club didn't want to yield to Beau Jangles and have a much greater likelihood of at least qualifying for the final, but instead wound up being dueled into submission and then faded. The skirmish took its toll on Beau Jangles too, who tried to fight on through the stretch but at that point it was only a matter of when he was going to be passed by both of the top two eventual finishers.

I'm not making excuses at all for Beau Jangles. But I don't think the elimination race changed many opinions. If you liked Beau Jangles last week and supported him when his odds were 2-5, he's very appealing now at perhaps something where if I had to guess, 7-5. On the other hand, Odds On Mr Mamba stormed into Ontario and swept with a wide stretch rally at odds of slightly better than 5-2. With that win and now a slight post edge for the final, he has more of the look of an even money proposition, though the hometown crowd could still shift things towards “Beau.”

Aside from the trips last week, Odds On Mr Mamba cast away any doubts of ability due to his size or lesser-quality breeding with that visually impressive win, and all credit is due to him. He proven that he’s every bit as good as the sport’s best 3-year-olds, and maybe even the best one when all is said and done on Saturday.

It’s not just a two-horse race, but the post draw has made life far more difficult for Brandon Blvd. He came into last week’s elimination off that 1:48.1 score in the Somebeachsomewhere, got the second-over trip last week and was snapped at the wire by the wide-rallying Odds On Mr Mamba. Brandon Blvd was Dexter Dunn’s somewhat, to me, surprising pick last week over Odds On Mr Mamba, so some stock should be put into that. In last year’s North America Cup final it was Madden Oaks and Braxten Boyd blasting from post 10 and it almost worked out; I’d imagine Dunn would be looking for something similar.

Sweet Lovin Lou was a winner of the other Cup elimination last week, and he was impressive in doing so. In that race, he made his move from fourth while being behind a gapped-out longshot in the third position, made inroads into a well-supported leader who had things his own way up front, and ended up prevailing comfortably enough in 1:48.2. The week prior he offered crisp pace at both ends of his mile to be second to Brandon Blvd. It’s not a surprise, but James MacDonald who drove both elimination winners, has elected to stay with Odds On Mr Mamba, so Scott Zeron picks up the drive here with Sweet Lovin Lou.

A worthwhile longshot could be Melillo, who starts from the rail with last year’s Cup winning driver, Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. He was aggressively handled early in his elimination, yielded to a longshot who he eventually had to navigate his way around later in the mile – this was a highly impressive 2-year-old last year.

If you want to consider last week’s race, the battle, Saturday will be the war. And Beau Jangles, tried and tested on this oval – will be my top pick.

Beau Jangles – Odds On Mr Mamba – Melillo

RACE 3, $240,000 GRADE 2 GOODTIMES FINAL

Magic Punk is now two-for-two on the season following his elimination win last week and has looked flawless in the early going this year thus far. His Dexter Cup effort at The Meadowlands on May 2, where he closed furiously to win despite being well out of position was impressive. From there, he showed his class in winning his Goodtimes elimination here last week with confidence. In that race, he was parked, yielded to his main threat, but didn't sit for long before he was right back out to go engage that foe and kept on through the stretch. He's near or at the top of the Hambletonian rankings now and is the one that the Goodtimes final goes through.

In that same referenced elimination, Ontario-sired Strobe Lite was well supported against Magic Punk and was raced aggressively. Despite being passed he was still trying to take another late shot and now lands the rail for the final; could work out a stalking trip from there. In the other Goodtimes elimination, Neighver Punt was able to make up a couple of lengths very late to nail Touchedbyanangel in a strong 1:51.4, who I thought looked clear after grinding to the lead first-over into the stretch. Touchedbyanangel has been sparring back and forth with Strobe Lite in Ontario-sired racing while Neighver Punt wasn't able to get involved against Magic Punk in the Dexter Cup.

RACE 7, $215,000 GRADE 2 ARMBRO FLIGHT FINAL

A well-known group of talented trotting mares gather for what will be their first of many battles this season, with the welcomed addition of new 4-year-olds, highlighted by last year's 3-year-old divisional champion, Yo Tillie.

Yo Tillie returns to Woodbine Mohawk Park where she won last year's Breeders Crown to cap off that dream season. She comes off a seemingly inexplicable loss in her most recent at Oak Grove a few weeks ago to Aperfect Annie but aside from that blip will likely be seen as one of the top contenders. A win in this race would send last year's Older Female Trotter of the Year Warrawee Michelle over the $2 million mark in career earnings and she too, was a Breeders Crown winner here last October. Dial Square S won this race last year and was one of the best in this division at points during that summer but wasn't as strong as things went on. She makes her second start back and still feels like she should be respected. Bravo Angel S is now four-for-five on the year for Engblom and had plenty of moments against these types last year; 6-year-old perhaps has the seasoning edge over a few others in here such as Yo Tillie.

Beginning with Dexter Dunn's choice in the pair of Ryder trainees over Miki And Minnie, Twin B Joe Fresh wasn't at her best in last week's elimination when making her first appearance of the year and first start since last year's Allerage on Oct. 5. In her elimination, she couldn't have received a better trip right on the back of Louies Girl N, but she wasn't able to quicken off that cover and you could only rate her performance at best, fair, and post 9 for Saturday's final will only complicate things further.

Louies Girl N continues to assert herself as a force in the division this year and she was able to win last week despite a first-over trip where she tussled with Always B Naughty; was a dominant winner two back in the Betsy Ross at Harrah's Philadelphia. She'll have to deal with the other elimination winner Miki And Minnie, who closed out last year by beating older pacing mares as a 3-year-old in the FanDuel. She comes out of that Betsy Ross race two back as well but will be better situated this time around. Always Dawn lands another outside post but was closing fast last week at odds of 99-1 after being a bit detached heading into the final turn. Rodeo Drive Deo is a proven commodity against these too and there was nothing wrong with her stretch run last week either. The Last Martini went first-over last week and was good in holding it together for second; don't forget she dead-heated here last year with Miki And Minnie in the Breeders Crown as a big longshot.

Miki And Minnie – Louie's Girl N – Rodeo Drive Deo

RACE 10, $420,000 GRADE 1 FAN HANOVER FINAL

Something has to give as Loua Dipa squares off against the lifetime unbeaten Be Perfect BG for Fan Hanover glory.

Last week Loua Dipa proved once again her affinity for the Woodbine Mohawk Park oval as she was sensational in winning her elimination in 1:48.3, bouncing back nicely from her surprising defeat in Pennsylvania to start off the year on May 1. Be Perfect BG has been just that through nine career races for trainer Anthony Beaton and was a sharp 1:48.4 elimination winner, but she's never faced the likes of Loua Dipa. Loua Dipa is, of course, capable of being beaten, but I wouldn't want to go against her based on the track record here or what we saw last week. A Clean Deal was bet down to 9-5 last week against Loua Dipa and gave it her best shot but in the end wasn't as strong, lost the runner-up spot late, and now moves to post 10. Credit to Perfect Thought for her upset elimination win at odds of 11-1 in a time of 1:49.3; quality looking filly has yet to figure out Be Perfect BG in New Jersey. Easy Station did well to handle the big step up last week and is fortunate enough to land the rail once again; she continues to go faster.

Trainers at the draw for the Pepsi North America Cup.

Post positions drawn for the 43rd Pepsi North America Cup

by Grace Martin / Woodbine communications

Top contenders Odds On Mr Mamba, Sweet Lovin Lou, and Beau Jangles will all start in posts 3 through 5 in Saturday's (June 13) $1 million Pepsi North America Cup (Grade 1) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Elimination winners Odds On Mr Mamba and Sweet Lovin Lou were guaranteed to land a post anywhere from 2 through 6. Odds On Mr Mamba landed post-3 and Sweet Lovin Lou drew post-4.

It was a dramatic face-off last Saturday (June 6) when Odds On Mr Mamba handed Beau Jangles his first loss in the second Cup elimination. Trainer Melanie Wrenn was pleasantly surprised by Odds On Mr Mamba's victory.

"I knew he was a super nice colt but I truly didn't think we were going to win," Wrenn said "Beau Jangles is pretty massive, and it was a big surprise for me. I knew he was fast, but he's really fast."

James MacDonald, the driver of both Odds On Mr Mamba and Sweet Lovin Lou in their respective eliminations, has selected to drive Odds On Mr Mamba in the Cup final for trainer Melanie Wrenn and owners Odds On Racing.

"It's always tough when you bring a horse along at 2, you baby race them, you fall in love with them, and it's always hard to make a decision like that," MacDonald said.

"I think the North America Cup is, in my opinion, one of the premier races in the world, and it's going to be a big crowd, and they, I can't wait to see the great racing, and [the Cup] is going to be a war."

Odds On Mr Mamba, the world's fastest 2-year-old of all-time (1:47.4), enters Saturday with nine wins and 10 starts.

"He [Odds On Mr Mamba] clearly was drifting a little bit, as everyone saw, but Melanie and Pete [Wrenn] were confident they could have him steering better, and I think no matter how the race goes, it's good to have that kick, and hopefully I can work a trip out and do something productive, because he's a special horse," MacDonald said.

Sweet Lovin Lou had a powerful performance to win last Saturday's first elimination for Dan Legace and Partners. Legace announced Scott Zeron will drive, a decision he came to easily.

"Even when I raced 'Lou' last year in Kentucky, I listed James down first, but I put Scott down as an alternative if James wasn't going to make it. I think they both have the same style and fit the horse great," Legace said.

Reigning Horse of the Year Beau Jangles drew post 5. The superstar went into the elimination undefeated with 15 wins, including the Metro Pace and Breeders Crown. He suffered his first loss on Saturday night, but he will look to rebound for trainer Dr. Ian Moore.

“We figured [the loss] was going to happen at some point in time,” Moore said. “It might have happened at the wrong time, hopefully not, but I still think he raced very well under the circumstances, and he seems to be fine, I jogged him today after a couple days off. So, hopefully, we’ll have him ready to go on Saturday. I don’t think we’ve ever drawn inside of eight in this before. So, that was good to see that 5 for sure, and that is my lucky number.”

Ron Burke trains three of Saturday’s Cup contenders: Melillo, Lindy Dragonwater, and Al Papi. Burke goes for his third North America Cup win after winning last year’s edition with Louprint and in 2014 with JK Endofanera.

Melillo, to be driven by 2025 Cup winner Ronnie Wrenn, Jr., drew post 1. Lindy Dragonwater, 2025 Ohio Sire Stakes champion, has post 6, and Al Papi drew post 8.

With seven wins in 13 starts, Azrael Blue Chip will see the Cup debut for trainer Besim Odza. Driven by Andrew McCarthy, Azrael Blue Chip will start from post 7.

Brandon Blvd, winner of the Grade 3 Somebeachsomewhere Stakes, is one of the major players in the Cup, but had no luck in the draw, landing post 10. The Andrew Harris trainee has nine wins in 13 starts.

“Brandon Blvd has done a lot of firsts, I mean, last year as a 2-year-old, he was the first 1:48.4 pacer here at Woodbine, and last week he was the first horse to go by Beau Jangles, so if there are any firsts out there, he can accomplish, maybe this is it,” Harris said.

Local hopeful No Waitlist drew post 9 for owner Tim Dickerson, trainer Blake McIntosh, and driver Doug McNair.

Redland Rocket Man will be looking for the upset from post 2 for first-time Cup trainer John Pentland of Dorchester, and Cup-winning driver Louis-Philippe Roy.

FIELD FOR THE 43RD PEPSI NORTH AMERICA CUP:

Horse racing's Antonaccis enshrined in another Hall of Fame

The Antonaccis are already a Hall of Fame family, but they will need to make more space in their trophy case. On Wednesday (June 10), brothers Frank “The Elder” and Jerry Antonacci were officially enshrined in the National Waste & Recycling Association (NWRA) Hall of Fame as part of the class of 2026.

Frank “The Elder” and Jerry were formally inducted during the NWRA’s Annual Awards Gala held as part of the inaugural Waste Leadership Summit in Washington, DC.

“The Hall of Fame reflects the highest standards of leadership and service in our industry,” said Don Ross, chairman of the NWRA board of trustees/president of The Don Ross Group, in a press release about the event.

Ross also said that Frank and Jerry, “demonstrated an unwavering commitment to building strong organizations, investing in their people, and advancing the waste and recycling industry through integrity and innovation. Their collective impact will be felt for generations to come.”

Harness Hall of Famer Guy “Sonny” Antonacci founded the family’s waste management business, Somers Sanitation, with a single truck serving Somers, CT. Today Jerry and Frank “The Elder,” who is also enshrined in the Harness Racing Hall of Fame, lead USA Hauling & Recycling, Inc., which along with its subsidiaries is one of the largest privately held, family-owned waste and recycling organizations in the United States.

In that same press release, Michael E. Hoffman, president/chief executive officer of NWRA and Hall of Fame Class of 2020, said, “Each of these honorees represents the best of our industry. Their leadership, integrity, and dedication have not only built successful organizations, but have also shaped the next generation of industry professionals and strengthened the communities they serve. We are honored to recognize their lasting impact.”

MANE ATTRACTION

with JOHN BERRY

DeVaux won the Belmont, but ‘Grandma’ started it all

by John Berry

What a race, a thoroughbred race.

Though I am a harness racing enthusiast through and through, I love all breeds of our equine athletes and go back to the days of Kelso, probably 60 years ago, as well, and I was even the last thoroughbred announcer under the Calder banner at that historic racecourse.

Cherie DeVaux won the Belmont, and two thirds of the Triple Crown, in thoroughbred racing.

There were pioneers that ushered the way in to this historic feat for racing.

Remember Barbara Jo Rubin?

She was the first woman to win a thoroughbred race on American soil in 1969 – described as a groundbreaking figure that paved the way for the ladies in thoroughbred racing.

Then there was Diane Crump, the first woman to ride in the Kentucky Derby.

That was – I can’t believe it – 56 years ago.

Julie Krone comes to mind, too, quite possibly the greatest female jockey in thoroughbred racing history – she being the first of her gender to win a Triple Crown race.

That was 33 years ago, when she won the Belmont.

Rosie Napravnik won the Kentucky Oaks – twice – and has appeared in the Kentucky Derby lineup multiple times.

How about Patricia Cooksey, superior rider that won over 2,100 races and was the first to compete in the Preakness Stakes.

Going back in time a bit, Mary Hirsch, a trainer par excellence and among the first women to be inducted into thoroughbred racing’s Hall of Fame.

Jena Antonucci, she being the first trainer to win a Triple Crown race – Arcangel just three years ago.

How soon we forget.

Yes, history is fleeting.

And, then, along came DeVaux.

Harness racing has its share of great women, as well, and, while we don’t have enough room to mention all of them, “Lady J,”

Many media outlets covered [Neva “Grandma” Burrright’s] pioneering spirit in magazine articles during the 1940s and 1950s, including Coronet, Life, and Esquire, with the title of that article being, “Flashing Home with Her Pacer Far in the Lead.”

Jacqueline Ingrassia, certainly has the respect of everyone in our sport.

Jo Ann Looney-King is another grand figure in our sport, going back 50 years to her Looney days.

On the training side of things, Casie Coleman has won so many Little Brown Jug events and Breeders Crown races that one cannot count them on two hands or, probably, even 10 hands.

Linda Toscano has well over 2,000 training wins and $50 million in earnings, including A Hambletonian winner and a Horse of the Year.

Nancy Takter is yet another – an elite trainer competing at the loftiest levels of the sport.

Julie Miller always seems to have a competitor on the biggest stages in our sport.

Brenda Teague, Paula Wellwood, and Tracy Brainard have paid their dues, as well, in the racetracks of North America.

We cannot forget “Queen Bea” Farber or Kelly Case, who has been grinding out a living in harness racing for well over four decades and has survived and succeeded through her sheer tenacity and hard work.

And one can’t forget as we travel back to the days of Edith Mouw, Hilda Heydt, and even Mildred Williams.

I realize I have missed other prominent ladies in our sport – and that’s regrettable – but this Mane Attraction, in its salute to our ladies, now focuses on how it all got started.

And it all started with “Grandma” – Neva Burrright.

Grandma Burrright put down the limestone, sand, loam, and clay that makes up our racetracks this very day – a pioneer like no other in our sport.

Neva Elizabeth Tomlinson Burrright had a lifelong connection to harness racing – literally – with her exploits honored, first, by the Illinois Harness Horsemen’s Hall of Fame and, nationally, by our sport’s Hall of Fame in Goshen, NY, as she was posthumously elected as an Immortal in the driver/trainer category, distinguishing her talent and contributions to our sport in a field that has been dominated by men since harness racing’s foundation was poured after Messenger came to our country in 1788.

Burrright was born Aug. 10, 1883 in Mt. Carroll, IL, on a racetrack! Her father, John Beers Tomlinson, was a farmer and horse trainer while her mother, Emma Linda Gill Tomlinson shared the agrarian life in Mt. Carroll and the County.

Burrright’s early years were shared with her folks in an equestrian environment, where the family relied on crops such as corn and wheat, as well as raising livestock, with their horses used for plowing fields, transportation and, of course, county fair exhibits, which included racing exhibitions.

Burrright married Albert Holman, an established trainer/driver on July 1, 1903 in Mt. Carroll where the family was influenced by the surrounding agricultural and equestrian communities.

Burrright became the “dam” of seven children starting in 1904, with the youngest being Neva Joyce, a “foal” of 1926.

She managed the household and raised the children in a closely knit environment with travel very frequent for races, where she became active as a trainer, along with timing horses at the local fairs.

Holman passed on May 22, 1927 at the age of 56 and Burrright became a widow at the age of 43.

She married Arthur LaForrest “Forrest” Burrright on July 5, 1928 and settled in Oregon, IL.

Her first drives at the Illinois fairgrounds were undocumented, but served to hone her skills before the era of pari-mutuel racing.

Her progression from training to driving ear-marked her as a pioneer and she was eventually recognized as the first professional harness racing driver in the United States.

Grandma Burrright reached unchallenged status on Sept. 23, 1943 during the Grand Circuit at the now famed half-mile track in Delaware, OH, when she drove her gelding Luckyette in a multi-heat event where she achieved victory and set a world record for women drivers on a half-mile oval with a time of 2:04 3/4.

Not only did she set the world record, she beat one of the most noted horsemen in history, Sep Palin, shocking the racing world, and this performance put a spotlight on her skills, as she was 60 years old at the time.

Grandma’s triumph was backed by automobile heiress Francis Dodge Johnson.

After World War II, Grandma Burrright began competing at Maywood Park in 1946, establishing her as a nationally recognized driver/trainer.

In 1948, at age 65, she spent long hours managing her stable and competing against the men at that famed half-mile oval.

Throughout the early 1950s she competed at fair tracks throughout Illinois and mentored younger drivers in the family, including Joyce Hankins, who became prominent during her career, as well.

To those who have inquired how Neva inherited the name, Grandma, it was reportedly used when she raced at Roosevelt Raceway in August of 1946, reflecting her status as a grandmother competing in harness racing against the very strong roster of drivers at that iconic Raceway.

Many media outlets covered her pioneering spirit in magazine articles during the 1940s and 1950s, including Coronet, Life, and Esquire, with the title of that article being, “Flashing Home with Her Pacer Far in the Lead.”

She also appeared on the television show “What’s My Line” in 1954.

While she was instrumental in ushering the female gender into harness racing, it wasn’t all a bed of roses, as she lost two sons, Ross and Hugh, to racing accidents along her path to the Hall of Fame.

Her career lasted 57 years with her passing on Feb. 12, 1958, two days after she suffered a stroke.

Her husband, the aforementioned Arthur Forrest Burrright, passed away two days later.

Yes, Neva Grandma Burrright was, indeed, a legend who opened the door for the grand women in our sport competing on our tracks in North America and around the world to this very day.

May The Horse Be With You!

Grand River Opening Day hit a high note for Christine Fairhall

by Matthew Lomon

Opening Day at Grand River Raceway had a different ring to it this year for Christine Fairhall, who after a decade-plus at the Elora, ON, oval, experienced her first curtain-raiser as raceway manager.

“It would have to be the most eventful of them all,” said Fairhall with a laugh. “When I first started, I really wasn’t responsible for much. Later on, I became responsible for one department, and now it’s pretty much everything. I’ve obviously had plenty of memorable opening days, but this one was probably the most exciting.”

The 10-race program on Wednesday (June 3) gave Grand River’s new raceway manager the opportunity to stretch her legs and get a feel for race day operations from a different lens than year’s past.

“It was a nice day that I enjoyed being a part of,” Fairhall said. “I much prefer to be out with everybody. I never want to micromanage anyone, but I do want to be visible to all of our staff, horsepeople, and guests, so that if anything does come up, small or large, I’m there. That way nobody has to take time to sit down and send me an email when they get home after a long day.

“It was hectic, but a good vibe. Everybody was in the moment and glad to be back.”

Highlighted on the track by local pacing stars Ladies From Hell, who notched her 63rd career victory, and All My Lovin, now over $50,000 in lifetime earnings, the five-eighths-mile raceway’s season opener went off without a hitch.

Grand River’s auspicious start carried over into days two – Friday (June 5) – and three – Monday (June 8) – with Fairhall crediting a veteran crew for keeping the ship running smoothly.

“Our staff is incredible,” she said. “There’s a core group of returning staff, so they knew their roles inside and out. That’s a huge help for me and for the people coming in. Our paddock coordinator [Nancy Braid] is amazing, I don’t know how she does it. She has everything figured out before anybody even gets to the track and that’s a relief for new people who maybe haven’t been to Grand River or haven’t been for a while.

“I know for us as staff, we’re excited to be back, and we want to make sure our horsepeople and guests feel the same way.”

The early returns from both key groups have been quite promising.

“We’ve gotten positive feedback about the track surface,” Fairhall said. “That’s something we’re very focused on maintaining throughout the season.

“Wagering has also been up so far this season compared to last year. We’ve been fortunate to have carryovers in our Hi-5 and Pick-5 pools, and we hope that trend continues as the Ontario Sires Stakes roll into town next week.”

The premier showcase for the next generation of Ontario-sired stars will make its first of eight appearances at Grand River this season with a second leg Prospect Series tilt for 3-year-old trotting colts on Wednesday (June 17).

As Fairhall noted, OSS competition has a distinct way of upping the ante around the facility.

“It makes for an especially lively day, that’s for sure,” she said. “We’ll get some horses from different stables and have races going for bigger purses, so that will increase our presence a little bit and bring more visibility.

“Days like that keep everybody in the mutuels and the paddock on their toes but in a good way. There’s always something to look forward to when the OSS comes to town.”

“[This year’s Opening Day at Grand River Raceway] would have to be the most eventful of them all. When I first started, I really wasn’t responsible for much. Later on, I became responsible for one department, and now it’s pretty much everything [as raceway manager]. I’ve obviously had plenty of memorable opening days, but this one was probably the most exciting.”

Grand River’s summer calendar is set to feature several other attractions beyond an octet of OSS visits.

While the specifics are still being ironed out, the list of events includes Harness the Hope, the popular breast cancer research, awareness, and support fundraising initiative, the fan-favorite wiener dog races, Caretaker Appreciation Day, and much more.

The day needing no introduction, Grand River’s hallmark event Industry Day, returns on Aug. 3 with the Battle of Waterloo, the Battle of the Belles, and an exciting addition for horseplayers.

“We are hosting our leg of the Bet Ontario handicapping contest on Industry Day this year, which is something different,” Fairhall said.

“Our regular NEIGHbourhood kids area will be changed over for that day to an Ontario Racing kids experience area,” Fairhall said. “It will include a lot of fun educational horse-related and racing-related activities for kids and family. The whole east field area will be designated for family fun, as well.”

Also coming as part of the loaded Industry Day lineup is a virtual reality experience from the Bill Galvin Racing Alliance, VIP tickets for dining and viewing in the Captain’s Quarters restaurant, food trucks, and festive floral arrangement décor.

The signature card of racing holds a special place in the hearts of many around Grand River, including Fairhall.

In 2019, her family’s horse Karma Seelster pulled off a 27-1 upset over 1-9 favorite Alicorn in the Battle of the Belles.

“There was a lot of running around that day because I was working, and two of my daughters were as well,” said Fairhall, granddaughter of the legendary Keith Waples, adding with a laugh, “We did quickly run down for a winner’s circle photo but afterwards I thought, ‘Oh man, I should have changed shirts’ because we all had our blue Grand River shirts on. But it was a really nice moment for our family, and bettors too with her good price.”

While not as eventful as a 27-1 upset in a $157,500 race, Fairhall’s first week as raceway manager has certainly been illuminating.

“I’m definitely getting a better sense of what everyone does in their roles at the track and how things flow,” she said. “I appreciate all their efforts. Stepping out of the smaller department has given me greater insights as to what’s happening on the other side of those doors.

“Also, I’m a very visual person. I can read and hear from everybody what their duties are and grasp it, but I am much better when I can see it firsthand. So, being able to see everybody in action and work alongside them has been a big help.”

Fairhall was particularly impressed by the team members managing the paddock gate.

“It seems like they need five hands to do everything required to allow people in,” she said. “You need to scan licenses, write down and check horses, check the time, and so much more.

“They’re doing a tremendous job at getting everybody in as quickly as possible for the night while keeping our security balance at the same time.”

Fairhall also praised Grand River’s seasoned staff members for helping a cohort of new employees find their collective footing during and between race dates.

“Everybody is working very hard at getting up to speed,” she said. “We’ve found that the horsepeople are very patient with that, and our guests are as well.”

When Fairhall last spoke with All Over Ontario in early May, she said the year would be a success if everyone who walked through the door left feeling confident that Grand River was doing its best to provide a safe, enjoyable and pleasant experience.

Her first days running point have only strengthened that belief.

“Now that I have spent more time with our staff and hope to spend more time meeting and getting to know the horsepeople, I feel even more confident that we are capable of pulling that off,” she said.

“I knew from my time here that we had a great group, and seeing everybody in action from this perspective has only reinforced that further.”

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Magic Man strikes late at Vincennes

by Thomas Hedlund

Magic Man unleashed a powerful late kick to capture the $125,000 Prix Jules Thibault for 4-year-olds at Vincennes on Saturday (June 6). Driven by Eric Raffin, the Etienne Dubois trainee sat third along the rail before finding clear racing room at the top of the stretch. Longtime leader Mentor de Play fought gamely but could not withstand the winner's late surge.

Magic Man (Prodigious–Garden Party) scored in a mile rate of 1:55.4 over 2,700 meters, with Mentor de Play (Dahlia du Rib) finishing second in the same time. Mack de Blary (Face Time Bourbon) was third in 1:55.

LANCIER DU GOUTIER BACK IN THE WINNER'S CIRCLE

The $125,000 Prix Jean Le Gonidec for 5-year-olds went to Lancier du Goutier after a perfect pocket trip behind pacesetter Louis Vuitton Mijo.

Clément Duvaldestin angled the son of Ready Cash into the clear at the head of the stretch and the Thierry Duvaldestin trainee surged past late to win comfortably in 1:52.1 over 2,175 meters. Strong-closing Liberté de Choisel (Captain Sparrow) finished second in the same time, while Louis Vuitton Mijo (Dollar Macker) held on well for third in 1:52.3.

It was the first victory of the season in four starts for Lancier du Goutier, whose résumé already includes a runner-up finish in the semi-classic Prix Robert Auvray. Last year he captured both the $330,000 Critérium des 4 Ans and the $125,000 Prix Jules Thibault.

IBIKI DE HOUELLE DOMINATES PRIX CHAMBON P

Ibiki de Houelle delivered an eye-catching performance for Alexis Collette in the $125,000 Prix Chambon P for older horses.

Collette made a key tactical move by relinquishing the lead to Koctel du Dain with 2,100 meters remaining before pulling from the pocket and moving first-over 800 meters from the finish.

After grinding down the leader entering the final turn, Ibiki de Houelle (Love You–Sawade de Houelle) powered away impressively and was strongly urged through the wire while setting a new race record of 1:54.3 over 2,850 meters.

Horchestro (Sam Bourbon) finished second, while Koctel du Dain (Boccador de Simm) held third.

MADRID HAUFOR CONTINUES WINNING STREAK

Madrid Haufor and Damien Bonne swept to the lead 800 meters from home and held off all challengers in the $125,000 Prix Guy Le Gonidec for 4-year-old fillies.

The daughter of Real de Lou–Bastia Haufor stopped the clock in 1:56.3 over 2,700 meters, defeating Mystery Queen (Prodigious) and Midway Lady (Royal Dream).

Trained by Christian Bigeon, Madrid Haufor recorded her second consecutive semi-classic victory following her triumph in the Prix de Tonnac-Villeneuve. It was also her first victory of the 2026 season.

BORUPS VICTORY HEADS OSLO GRAND PRIX

Daniel Wäjersten holds a strong hand heading into Sunday's (June 14) $212,000 Oslo Grand Prix at Bjerke.

His stable star Borups Victory (Googoo Gaagaa) narrowly missed qualifying for the Elitlopp final but now returns as the likely favorite from post 2 behind the gate.

Wäjersten will also send out Kuiper (Face Time Bourbon), while Daniel Redén fields both Epic Kronos (Muscle Hill) and defending Oslo Grand Prix champion Kentucky River (Father Patrick).

OSLO GRAND PRIX – 2,100 METERS (AUTO START)

1. Harley Gema (Bold Eagle) – Björn Goop
2. Borups Victory (Googoo Gaagaa) – Daniel Wäjersten
3. Baron Tilly (Ready Cash) – Carl Johan Jepson
4. Epic Kronos (Muscle Hill) – Örjan Kihlström
5. Kentucky River (Father Patrick) – Rikard N. Skoglund
6. Get A Wish (Wishing Stone) – Robert Bergh
7. Powwow (Papagayo E.) – Lars Anvar Kolle
8. Y Not Diamant (Odessa Santana) – Robin Bakker
9. Eldorado Jet (Twister Bi) – Magnus A. Djuse
10. Kuiper (Face Time Bourbon) – Mats E. Djuse

GOCCIADORO DOMINATES AT SAN SIRO

Alessandro Gocciadoro opened Thursday's (June 4) card at San Siro in Milan with three consecutive victories, highlighted by Guglielmo Jet's triumph in the Group 1 $180,000 Gran Premio Tino Triossi. After taking over the lead without resistance after 600 meters, Guglielmo Jet (Maharajah—Nagasaki Jet) controlled the race from there and sprinted away entering the stretch to score in 1:56.2 over 2,100 meters.

The victory was his second Group 1 success of the season following the $220,000 Anact Stakes Plus+ in Turin. His résumé also includes victories in the Gran Premio Carlo Marangoni and the prestigious Prix Charles Tiercelin at Vincennes.

INGRID AM SHINES AMONG THE FILLIES

Antonio Di Nardo guided Ingrid Am (El Ideal—Connemara As) to victory in the $75,000 Gran Premio Nazionale Filly.

Allowed to take over the lead after 500 meters, Ingrid Am controlled the race throughout and successfully held off late challenges from both Ice Killer Gar and I Love America, winning in 1:56.2.

Ice Wise As (Calgary Games—Temple Blue Chip) captured the $25,000 Anact Stakes for 3-year-old fillies from the front, drawing away effortlessly in 2:01 over 2,100 meters. She is a half-sister to an exceptional group of performers including:

- Vivid Wise As – €3.5 million winner
- Far Wise As – €340,703
- All Wise As – €255,389
- Crown Wise As – €153,444

IL TRIO JET UPSETS IDEAL TURDANCE

The heavily favored Ideal Turdance saw his bid for a seventh consecutive victory come to an end in the $180,000 Gran Premio Nazionale for 3-year-olds. Both the winner and runner-up were trained by Alessandro Gocciadoro.

Il Trio Jet (Wishing Stone—Troika Jet) blasted to the lead entering the first turn and Santo Mollo successfully defended against repeated challenges from Ideal Turdance.

Forced to race first-over throughout, Ideal Turdance could never get by the leader. After moderate fractions up front, Il Trio Jet sprinted clear in the stretch to win decisively in 1:59.1 over 2,100 meters.

ÖNAS PRINCE RETIRED

One of Scandinavia's most beloved stars is calling it a career. Önas Prince (Chocolatier), trained by Per Nordström, has been among Europe's elite performers for the past four to five seasons following an outstanding juvenile and classic campaign.

The 9-year-old was runner-up to Francesco Zet in the Paralympiatravet final in early May, but Per Nordström announced via social media that the fan favorite has made his final start.

"Sometimes life doesn't write the ending we hoped for," he said. "After another setback, it is now clear that Önas Prince has most likely raced for the last time. If that truly was your final race, you leave the racetrack with your head held high. Not only as a fantastic racehorse, but as a true warrior who won our hearts forever. Thank you for every mile, every victory, every comeback, and every unforgettable moment."

MIDNIGHT SUN RACING IN BODEN

Mid-June traditionally means one thing in northern Sweden: the $200,000 Norrbottens Stora Pris, run beneath the midnight sun at Boden Racetrack.

A strong field has assembled, headed by defending champion Gio Cash (Victor Gio), who returns as one of the leading contenders. Daniel Wäjersten will drive Gio Cash himself after Dexter Dunn guided him through the Elitlopp campaign. Wäjersten also sends out Mellby Jinx (Ready Cash).

The post-position draw favored Francesco Zet (Father Patrick), who landed post 5. The Daniel Redén-trained star won this race in both 2023 and 2024 and enters off a commanding victory in the Paralympiatravet final.

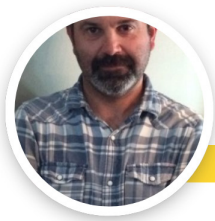

Elitloppet fourth-place finisher Jobspost (Ready Express), fresh off a career-best 1:48.4 mile mark, returns for another crack at the elite level with Björn Goop back in the sulky.

NORRBOTTENS STORA PRIS – 2,140 METERS (AUTO START)

1. H.C.'s Crazy Horse – Magnus A. Djuse
2. Kingen Mearas – Ulf Ohlsson
3. Makalu Doc – Rikard N. Skoglund
4. Castor The Star – Mika Forss
5. Francesco Zet – Örjan Kihlström
6. Laredo Boko – Sandra Eriksson
7. Mellby Jinx – Mats E. Djuse
8. Gio Cash – Daniel Wäjersten
9. Jobspost – Björn Goop
10. Jerka Sting – Claes Sjöström

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Lakiyah Teachey takes her mind off racing by being around horses

by Chris Lomon

Lakiyah Teachey is following in her family's standardbred racing footsteps while also forging her own path to success.

As a fourth-generation horsewoman and the granddaughter of U.S. Hall of Fame trainer George Teague, Jr., Teachey, who calls Magnolia, DE, home, was perhaps destined to join the ranks of a sport that has surrounded her since her earliest days.

"I got into horse racing through my grandfather," she said of the horseman who has campaigned some of the top horses of the 21st century, including 2004 Horse of the Year and Hall of Famer Rainbow Blue, 2015 Horse of the Year Wiggle It Jiggleit, and 2018 North America Cup winner and world champion Lather Up. "My earliest memory of racing is probably when I was around 11 or 12. It was always my grandfather and my mom, Shanika, who worked for my grandfather. She was always around the barn, so I was there, hanging out with my mom and the horses."

An unraced daughter of Im Gorgeous (OH) named Cookie Lyon played an instrumental role in Teachey's decision to pursue a career in racing.

"I absolutely loved her," Teachey said. "She was the mare who got me started in the barn. I would go there every day and see my little 'Cookie.' She was actually the first horse I sat behind. That is the horse who started everything for me wanting to be in the business."

When Teachey began immersing herself in different aspects of the sport, the timing was anything but ideal.

"I was around 14 when I got my paddock license," she said. "I started right after COVID, so it was a bit of a weird time to start things off. Everyone was wearing masks and things were obviously quite different from anything we had ever known. It wasn't full-time at that point – I was still a high school student – but I was at the barn more often and enjoying it more than I ever had. So, on weekends, or after school, I was at the barn. It was around that time when I knew that this was what I wanted to do."

Advice from trusted and familiar faces was plentiful.

It was also welcome and put into practice.

"The biggest thing I learned early on is that if you work hard, you do get rewarded for it," Teachey said. "When you put work first and really put that time in, you will see the results, especially in this business. Yes, you do miss out on a lot of things, but you know that coming into it, so that aspect of your life never comes as a surprise."

One moment that did catch her somewhat off guard came last spring at Harrington Raceway.

After two starts to launch her training life one month earlier with Lather Me Up, the son of Lather Up lined up behind the starter car for the second race on April 16, 2025.

While bettors made the horse the even-money favorite, Teachey wasn't nearly as confident.

Driven by Cody Poliseno, Lather Me Up reached three-quarters in 1:34.4 before drawing clear and winning by a length in 2:04.3.

"It was definitely a little nerve-wracking," she said. "I was nervous and I didn't really know how he would race that day and then once the race got underway, I wasn't sure how he would race on the lead. When he got there, he just kept going and digging in. When he got to the wire, everything kind of sank in that moment. It means a lot to train horses that my grandfather gave me the opportunity to have. My grandfather and grandmother [Joy] owned the horse, so it made the win even more memorable.”

Teachey completed her first season with a record of 1-0-3 from nine starts. This year, she has a mark of 0-2-3 from 14 starts. Somethn In Da Air just missed on April 27 at Harrington, falling a neck shy of taking all the spoils.

“This year, I am focusing on my horses,” Teachey said. “I have a horse, No Gel Nikki, who is a baby. She is the first horse I trained by myself, so she means the world to me. I have another horse, Somethn In Da Air, who I got last year from my grandfather. He's been a challenge. It took six months to get him to the racetrack. It's rewarding to see the work you put in pay off.”

Not everything has gone according to plan.

“I had another horse, Mr Catchaflight, who I got from my grandfather last year,” she said. “He was a bit of a project. I only had him for a short time and he unfortunately passed away – the necropsy came back inconclusive – on the track in his third start.”

The loss remains one of the most difficult experiences of her young career.

“I try to honor him in what I do,” Teachey said. “I raised him from a baby, so losing him early on was very tough. I want to fight for him and prove myself for him.”

Teachey is equally committed to providing each horse in her stable with their own tailor-made plan.

Individualized attention is the cornerstone of her training approach.

“I learned that every horse is different and that I want to train each horse on their own program,” she said. “I am not a one-size-fits-all trainer. Whatever works for each horse is what I will do. If something isn't working, I am going to try something different. All my horses truly are individuals. I don't want to put pressure on my horses – I believe they feel that stress. I want to prepare them and work with them to be the best they can be and when they go out there, I want to feel as though I have given them the best chance to be successful. If it doesn't work out the way we want, we will try to find a solution and come back stronger next week.

“Every day is different, so you have to come in with a fresh mindset. Just because you had a bad day the day before doesn't mean it will be the same tomorrow. I want to bring a positive mindset every day I am in the barn.”

Admittedly, on some days, it is far easier said than done.

“The most stressful part of the job is just not knowing what will happen in a race, despite all the preparation you and the horse put in together,” she said. “When you get those big wins and you see things all come together, it's a wonderful feeling and a huge relief.”

She is also quick to credit the people around her.

“I am so grateful for my team and the help I have. This is a job you cannot do by yourself,” she said. “The people that I have around me are tremendous and they give me so much help. When I was still in high school and then in college, they made everything so stress-free for me. Anything I need, they are always there for me.”

Away from the pressures of racing, Teachey enjoys a slower pace.

One of her greatest passions is retraining standardbreds for second careers under saddle.

“I enjoy riding horses,” she said. “I have drifted a little bit into retraining standardbreds into riding horses. It's something I enjoy, giving them a second career and others the happiness that these horses have given me. I ride for a trainer in Harrington and show her horses. To have something that allows me to take my mind off racing for a bit – and still be around horses – is wonderful.”

A feeling she has known for as long as she can remember.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Minnesota-sired sophomore trots and Fifty Rivers highlight Sunday Aces' card

by Darin Gagne for Running Aces

Nick Roland steered HM Magical Money to a gate-to-wire upset victory in the $17,500 Minnesota-sired sophomore boys trot in 1:59 for his first win of the season and a new career mark on Sunday night (June 7) at Running Aces. It was also a career milestone for Roland as it marked his 2,500th trip to victory lane as a driver. Roland, 43, is the all-time leading driver at Running Aces with over 1,200 wins at the Minnesota oval. HM Magical Money, a son of Tom Ridge, held safe by a head over heavy favorite Bang Bang Boogie. The winner is owned by Thomas and Kathy Shipley and Royal Roland and trained by Nick Roland. The gelding paid $18.20 to win.

SV Shining Star (Rick Magee, $2.40) captured the $17,500 filly trot again this week in 1:59 for her fifth career win for owner Jay DeLong and trainer Justin Anfinson. Anitra's Dance (Cisco) was a solid runner up for the second straight week.

Fifty Rivers posted a dominating performance in the $15,000 open handicap trot for his second straight win and his seventh tally of the season.

Driver Casey Leonard left aggressively from post 6 with the sharp 4-year-old and took part in an early three-way speed battle with Escaper (driver Rick Magee) and Go Have Fun (Brady Jenson). Escaper had the early lead before Go Have Fun surged to the top at the :27.3 quarter with Fifty Rivers looming outside.

Leonard and Fifty Rivers were settled on the lead as they registered the half mile in :56.2 and Go Have Fun picked up the pocket trip with Escaper now back in third. Down the backstretch Peanutbutterfalcon (Scott Cisco) was launched to the outside from fourth while Fifty Rivers picked up the tempo on the front as they reeled off three panels in 1:25.

Fifty Rivers had a one-length lead at the top of the lane and Escaper tipped out for the drive but Fifty Rivers dug in very impressively to draw clear late and post a 2½-length score over Escaper in 1:53.1. Peanutbutterfalcon rallied past Go Have Fun for the show dough. The mile clocking was the second fastest trotting mile ever at Running Aces.

The winner, a son of Fiftydallarbill, is owned by JMF Racing and is trained by Kathie Plested. He paid $5.40 to win.

Chicora (Leonard, $2.20) posted her second straight win with a scintillating five-length romp in the $12,500 Banker Volo series final over Swan Jefe and Isthatevnaquestion. It was the second straight win and third of the season for the 5-year-old daughter of Lear Jetta who is owned and trained by Jenni King.

Fourteen-year-old pacer Armabluechipboy N, a son of Santanna Blue Chip, picked up his third win of the year and his 34th career win in a $5,200 claiming event in a sharp 1:54.2 for owner Michael Arnold and trainer Bob Lems. Leonard was the winning pilot on the career winner of $418,950, who paid $15.40 to win.

Leonard led the program with four wins while Nick Roland had both a driving and training double and both Magee and Anfinson also posted doubles.

HARNESS RACING PRESS RELEASES, NOTES & ANNOUNCEMENTS

Virgil Morgan Jr notches 8,000th training victory

Virgil Morgan, Jr. got lifetime training win No. 8,000 Saturday night (June 6) at Eldorado Scioto Downs, but it was a bit of a nail biter to see if he'd get the victory at his home track.

Morgan, Jr. has been the leading trainer at Scioto for 31 years, but with horses racing at both Northfield and Scioto Saturday night, he could have gotten the victory at either track – and in the span of an hour, he won four races between the two.

Win No. 7,998 came at an 8:43 p.m. off time when Carbine and Jeremy Smith took the open III at Scioto in 1:50.3. The very next race, win No. 7,999 came at 9:01 p.m. when Bright Bet and Cam McCown won the open II in 1:50. Win No. 8,000 came at 9:19 p.m. when Justin Irvine guided I Did It Myway to victory in 1:50 in a NW8501L4 event. Morgan, Jr. then got win No. 8,001 taking the Buckeye Distaff at Northfield with Odds On Chesapeake.

I Did It Myway did not do it the easy way to get Morgan, Jr. the milestone victory. Parked three-wide into the first turn, the Captaintreacherous stud took the long way around through a :26 opening quarter and :53.3 half. Heading down the backstretch, Irvine ducked I Did It Myway to the rail as Rock The Hill (Devon Tharps) continued to lead the field to the 1:20.4 third quarter. Going deep into the passing lane, I Did It Myway squeezed through to win by a length-and-a-half over Kage Daniel (Marvin Luna); Rock The Hill finished third.

I Did It Myway is owned by David Hamm, EVM racing and Glenn Phillips. The 7-year-old now has 41 wins in 125 lifetime starts and $1.51 million in earnings.

Morgan, Jr. hit win No. 7,000 four years ago and has averaged 229 wins each year over the last eight years. He currently sits second by career training wins behind Ron Burke and nearly 1,000 wins ahead of Erv Miller who sits in third. Morgan, Jr. also currently sits fifth in career training earnings with over $83.3 million, behind Burke, Jimmy Takter, Erv Miller, and Robert McIntosh.

Morgan, Jr. looks to secure his 32nd leading trainer accolades for the 2026 racing season at Scioto and has a good lead after Saturday's program with 44 wins, which has him 25 ahead of Burke who sits second and Heather France who sits third with 17.

The 91-day 2026 Eldorado Scioto Downs regular season runs through Sept. 19. Races are held Tuesday-Saturday, with a special holiday card on Labor Day instead of the Tuesday card that week. The track will then re-open for the Breeders Crown, with eliminations held Oct. 16-17 and the finals Oct. 23-24. More information about all the racing action at Scioto can be found on the Eldorado Scioto Downs website.

Voukefalas goes 1:47.1 in Big M's Exit 16W

Given that earlier in the evening a remarkably strong storm made it necessary to halt racing for 65 minutes, it's hard to believe that harness racing's fastest mile of 2026 took place at The Meadowlands Saturday night (June 6).

Maybe Voukefalas didn't watch the weather reports.

The 6-year-old son of Lazarus N–Inittowinafortune rocked the clock in the slop at the mile oval, as he won the featured $35,000 Exit 16W Pop Up Series final in a remarkable lifetime best of 1:47.1.

"I'm super happy," said winning trainer Mike Russo. "He trained back so good last year, then when it was time to race, he just had something nagging him the whole year that I couldn't get a handle on. He trained back super this year and stayed that way."

Voukefalas was vicious from start to finish, as driver Braxten Boyd asked the veteran for speed from the get-go and got it. Leaving from post 10 in the 10-horse field, Boyd and "Vouk" were stacked up four wide into the first turn before getting right in behind 4-5 favorite Best Chip, who bested Vouk last week in 1:48.4. Best Chip led at the quarter in :26.4 but Voukefalas stormed past that foe soon thereafter, clearing before the three-eighths and hitting the half in a sizzling :53.3.

The top duo made their way into the far turn as World Of Wishes mounted a first-over challenge that would yield no results, while Voukefalas streaked past three-quarters in 1:20.4.

The stretch drive proved that Voukefalas was clearly best on this night, as Best Chip popped out of the pocket for trainer/driver Joe Bongiorno with about an eighth to go and had every chance, but after steadily gaining ground nearing the wire, Voukefalas hung on for a safe head win. Downbythewater, the 2-1 second choice, finished third.

The winner was sent to the gate as the 7-2 third choice in the wagering, much to the surprise of his trainer.

"I was kind of surprised he wasn't the favorite tonight, even from the 10-hole," said Russo, whose student was the 6-5 chalk when he lost to Best Chip.

"Mike texted me after the draw, and I said, 'Oh my goodness, we got the 10,'" said Boyd. "We had to be the last ones to the lead. What an awesome animal. You're dropping two :53 halves in a row. That's just incredible. What a good horse. I wanted to control my own destiny [once we made the lead]."

The victory gave Voukefalas 13 wins from 59 lifetime starts, good for earnings of $998,854 for owner Michael N. Pagonas. He returned $9 to his backers.

"He was so good, I couldn't possibly be happier," said Russo. "Voukefalas needed to remind some people who he is."

CARRYOVER CRAZY: There will be a pair of carryovers to entice punters when live racing resumes.

The Early 20-cent Pick-5 went unhit and has a carryover of $24,117, while the 20-cent Pick-6 did not yield a winning ticket for a second straight offering, upping that carryover to $11,808.

The Early Pick-5 is offered on races 1-5 while the Pick-6 is available on dashes 3-8.

A LITTLE MORE: There was a logjam atop the driver leaderboard as Tyler Buter, William Carter, Boyd, Bongiorno and Colin Kelly all recorded doubles... Per Engblom and Aaron Lambert topped the trainers with a pair of walks down victory lane apiece... All-source wagering on the 15-race program totaled $2,899,658.

High-priced talent highlights Breakfast With The Babies

After an 11-dash session in the first week, Breakfast With The Babies returned to Meadowlands Racetrack in a special midweek appearance on Thursday (June 11) featuring 16 dashes and some of the standardbred industry's most sought-after yearlings of 2025 in action for the first time.

The Meadowlands carded 16 baby races for Thursday, a warm morning with a light breeze, temperatures in the mid 80's and warming into an afternoon heat advisory. Contrary to rumor, that heat advisory did not stem from the New York Knicks' thrilling Game 4 comeback victory at home over the San Antonio Spurs in the NBA finals on Wednesday night.

Breakfast With The Babies, however, was definitely presented by the Tactical Landing Syndicate, Ecurie D Syndicate, and Karl Syndicate, with those trotters standing at Southwind Farms of New Jersey.

Trainer Petter Engblom swept the proverbial early daily double, sending out the winners of the session's first two dashes. Both trotters were guided to victory by driver Jason Bartlett.

In the first baby race, Little By Little tracked Sweetest Of All (driven by Scott Zeron) through fractions of :31, 1:00.2 and 1:30.1 before angling out in the stretch. Little By Little gradually wore down the tempo-setter and hit the wire a half-length the best, with the mile timed in 1:58. Sweetest Of All was a solid second, with Winning Addiction (Ake Svanstedt) next across the wire.

A $22,000 Goshen Yearling Sale purchase by Engblom Farm LLC of Wrightstown, NJ, Evans Nation of Seaford, NY and Hickory Hollow Stables of Spencerville, IN, Little By Little is a filly from the first crop of Back Of The Neck out of Chambers Cove. She was bred by Andrew Lapp of Gordonville, PA, and she's the first foal of Back Of The Neck with a race record.

The second qualifier played out in a similar manner. Engblom pupil Secret Lover found herself in third down the backside as Zaneyatta (Svanstedt) hit the quarter poles in moderate splits of :31.4, 1:03.1 and 1:33.1. Bartlett right-lined Secret Lover just before that third station, and closed strongly with a :26.4 final quarter to win in 2:00.2. Special Orchid (Zeron) also flashed late trot to finish second, three-quarters of a length back of the winner, with Zaneyatta rounding out the top trio.

Sold at the 2025 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale for $115,000, Secret Lover (Chapter Seven—Elegant Touch) is a homebred owned by Diamond Creek Racing LLC of Lexington, KY.

One of the session's few wire-to-wire winners, Yankee Boss delivered decisively on debut in the third baby race for trainer and driver Ake Svanstedt. Clearing his rivals from post five to front the field early, Yankee Boss managed fractions of :31, 1:01 and 1:30.4 and then trotted home in :27.2 for the 1:58.1 decision. Oscar Papa Bravo (Bartlett) finished three lengths back of the winner, followed by Reverance (Zeron).

Purchased through an online mixed sale in early 2025 for $6,500, Yankee Boss (Captain Corey—Brigit Of Kildare) is a colt owned by Kiwi Stables LLC of La Plata, MD and Graham Grace Stables LLC of Clifton, VA. Yankeeland Partners LLP of Frederick, MD is the breeder of record.

In the session's fourth dash, Andrew McCarthy angled Grandiflora through trotters in the stretch and the daughter of Muscle Hill-Floribunda S got up in time to best tempo-setter Olbia (Dexter Dunn) in 1:58. Olbia set fractions of :30.2, :59.4 and 1:29.1, but fell just a neck short at the wire. Globalpac Hanover (Svanstedt) bested Julia Shining Queen (Zeron) for third.

Bred by Menhammar Stuteri Ab of Paris, KY and purchased in Lexington for $40,000, Grandiflora is a Noel Daley pupil owned by Sjoblom Racing & M Dolan of Chesterfield, NJ, FAC Racing LLC of Scarsdale, NY and Niko Karna of Allentown, NJ.

Fifth race victor Lifetime Dreamer provided Svanstedt with his second winner of the morning and sire Ecurie D with his first male record performer. Following Knotts (Tyler Buter) through fractions of :30.3 and 1:01.2, Svanstedt right-lined Lifetime Dreamer before the 1:30.3 third station and the rookie roared home in :28.2 to prevail in 1:59.1. Morethanenough (Zeron) came up short but looked solid in a runner-up effort, with Run

For You (Andy McCarthy) completing the top trio.

A $65,000 Lexington Selected yearling, Lifetime Dreamer (Ecurie D Dk—Lifetime Gift) is owned by Svanstedt (as Ake Svanstedt Inc. of Wrightstown, NJ), breeder Brittany Farms LLC of Versailles, KY, Bruni Racing Team Inc. and Suleyman Yuksel Stables Inc. of Delray Beach, FL.

Two-year-olds from Ecurie D Dk scored victories in three of the morning's dashes, as Internal Dialog flew home in :28.1 for driver Scott Zeron to best A Million Reasons (Dunn) by a nose in 2:01.1. A Million Reasons inherited the lead after stablemate Count The Tears (Mattias Melander) broke after the :30.4 opening quarter, set middle fractions of 1:02.2 and 1:32.2, but was picked off in the final strides. Oh Goodi (Anibal Borjas) was next best in that sixth qualifier.

Trained by Megan Scran, Internal Dialog (Ecurie D Dk—Livininthefastlane) was bred by Concord Stud Farm LLC and Julie Meirs of Cream Ridge, NJ. Ontario-based owners Stephen Palermo of Etobicoke, Todd Coleman of Paris, Jeff Ruch of Innisfil and Dean Lockhart of Collingwood purchased the filly in Lexington for $32,000.

As the highest priced yearling of 2025, and the highest priced yearling filly sold at auction in North America, Dejeuner comes to the track with high expectations. The daughter of Walner—French Cafe passed her first test with flying colors. Sitting third in the session's seventh baby race for driver Andy McCarthy as an amped-up Hammer Clinched (Cory Stratton) set fractions of :30, :59.4 and 1:30.2, Dejeuner outsprinted Orchestra (Dunn) to the wire in a 1:59 mile. Orchestra wasn't winded but finished a neck back of the winner, with Loveagain Volo (Zeron) in third.

The sister to 2024 Elegantimage champ and half millionaire French Champagne, Dejeuner topped the 2025 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale after Winning Key Inc. of Leechburg, Pa. doled out $1 million to secure the filly and place her in the hands of trainer Noel Daley. Dejeuner was bred by Marvin Katz and Al Libfeld of Toronto and Pickering, ON.

Seven Pledges garnered a substantial amount of interest as a yearling in Harrisburg, a son of Chapter Seven and the first foal from Clockwork Orange — a sister to Allegiant, now the world's fastest trotter after her 1:48 stunner in the 2026 Elitloppet. Selling for $700,000 with New Jersey-based William Pollock, Bruce Areman and trainer Andrew Harris as the owners, Seven Pledges sat in the pocket for driver Jason Bartlett during his first test in the eighth qualifier as Top Reacher (Dunn) doled out fractions of :30.4, 1:00 and 1:28.4. Bartlett asked Seven Pledges in the stretch, and the colt delivered a 1:57 winning effort on debut. Top Reacher was just short of the wire, a head back in second, with Wyoming (Svanstedt) the next to cross the finish line.

Jonas Schlabach of Apple Creek, OH is the breeder of record for Seven Pledges.

No slouch on the pedigree side, Love's Passion sold on the first day in Harrisburg for $300,000 and she showed signs of being a solid investment. Bred by Hanover Shoe Farms and now owned by Jeffrey Snyder of New York, NY and Arthur Pronti of Jersey City, NJ, the three-quarter sister to 2025 Breeders Crown winner Spencer Hanover sprinted past rivals in the stretch for a 1:59 victory in Thursday's ninth qualifier. Sitting comfortably in third for driver Dunn as Pure Luxury (Svanstedt) set fractions of :30.4, 1:01.2 and 1:31, Love's Passion got her cue in the lane and she responded assertively to best her foes by 2 ½ lengths, closing in :27.2. Pure Luxury stayed for second, with Mystique Landing (Tyler Buter) in for third.

Marcus Melander, the trainer of 2026 Hambletonian hopeful Spencer Hanover, also trains Love's Passion (Walner - Secret Passion).

Melander trainees made it back-to-back baby race winners as Pul Biber went coast-to-coast for driver Scott Zeron in the morning's 10th qualifier. The Muscle Hill—Aleppo Pine S colt posted the session's largest win margin — 5 ½ lengths — after setting fractions of :32, 1:01.1 and 1:30.3 then sprinting away for a spicy 1:59 speed badge. Orpheus (Svanstedt) and Mackinac Isle (Borjas) completed the top trio.

S R F Stable of Del Ray Beach, FL owns Pul Biber, who was bred Ab Svensk Reklamfinans of Del Ray Beach.

Hook N Reel duplicated those winning tactics in the 11th baby race to give Team Svanstedt its third winner of the morning. Sent to the front from post three, Hook N Reel set sail and didn't look back. After fractions of :31.4, 1:02 and 1:32.1, Hook N Reel rambled home in :27.3 for the 1:59.4 score. Charge The Hill (Bartlett) was second throughout and just over four lengths back of the winner, with Muscleaid (Trond Smedshammer) next best.

Bred by Concord Stud Farm LLC, Hook N Reel (Captain Corey—Flos Conch Shack) was a $170,000 Lexington Selected yearling and is now owned by Svanstedt along with Brochart Stable Inc. of Delray Beach, FL and S R F Stable.

With a name like Free Scottie, it's fitting to see 'The Money Man' Scott Zeron get the call to drive the son of Walner—You Ato Dream, and the tandem connected successfully in the 12th baby race. Sitting second to stablemate Lebron Bi (Dunn) through a :28.4 opening panel, Free Scottie inherited the lead when Lebron Bi put in steps down the backstretch and rolled off-stride. Free Scottie found himself free on the front end and floored it from there. After a :59.3 half and 1:29.1 third quarter, Free Scottie flew home in :28.3 for the sharp 1:57.4 victory. Boozay Cowboy (Andy McCarthy) closed well to wrangle second with Jameson Deo (Svanstedt) in third.

Giving trainer Marcus Melander his third win of the day, Free Scottie is owned by Holly Lane Stud East Ltd. of Vero Beach, FL with Daniel & Jean-Christophe Plouffe of Bromont, QC. Bred by Steve Jones of Montgomery, NY, Free Scottie was a $95,000 Lexington yearling.

Petter Engblom also conditioned three of the session's winners, achieving the hat trick in the 13th qualifier courtesy of pacer Positive Process. The daughter of Captaintreacherous—Ideation Hanover fronted the field through opening panels of :30.4 and

:59.1, yielded to Ranch Water (Zeron) through the 1:27.2 third station, and then mowed down that rival in the stretch for a 1:55.3 mark. Cowboy Candy (Aaron Lambert) finished 2 ½ lengths back in second with Sweet As Silk (Todd McCarthy) a strong-closing third.

Fair Winds Farm Inc. of Cream Ridge, NJ bred Positive Process, now owned by Engblom Farm LLC and Douglas Siple of Georgetown, DE after a $65,000 sale in Harrisburg last fall.

Training triples numbered four during the BWTB session, as Andrew Harris sent out two of 2025's highest priced pacing yearlings to victory in back-to-back baby races.

The most expensive pacing-bred yearling from last year's sales, Seaside Ubeaut unleashed a :55 back half on debut in the 14th baby race for a 1:56.4 mark. The regally-bred daughter of Downbytheseaside—Warrawee Ubeaut sat third for driver Dunn as Downtown Blvd (Todd McCarthy) set fractions of :32.1 and 1:01.1. Dunn angled Seaside Ubeaut out from third before the 1:30 third quarter, and the pacing filly powered home with a final quarter of :26.2 to best Downtown Blvd by a pair of lengths. Nzinga (Bartlett) completed the top trio.

Harris co-owns Seaside Ubeaut, a $500,000 Lexington Selected yearling, with William Pollock and Bruce Areman. She was bred by Burke Racing Stable LLC of Fredericktown, PA, Crawford Farms Racing of Syracuse, NY, J And T Silva Purnel And Libby of Ocean Ridge, FL and Phil Collura of Mountain Top, PA.

Vainqueur was the highest-priced male pacing-bred yearling of 2025 at $375,000, was also obtained by Pollock, Areman and Harris, and was also victorious (as his name would predict) during the Thursday baby race session. Dunn engineered this victory as well, a wire-to-wire win in 1:56.3 after fractions of :30, 1:00 and 1:29.2. American Lou (Bartlett) made the winning colt earn that victory, closing rapidly to his outside but finishing a neck short at the wire. Beatle Blue Chip (Todd McCarthy) finished third.

A son of Bulldog Hanover and the first foal of Dan Patch Award-winning millionaire Fire Start Hanover, Vainqueur was sold at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale with Steve Stewart of Paris, KY, Urie Byler of Middlefield, OH, Black Creek Farm of Grabill, IN and Maumee River Stables of New Haven, IN listed as the breeders.

Lone Cypress closed out the 16-dash baby session impressively, as an off-the-pace winner in 1:57.2. Todd McCarthy sat third with the son of Pebble Beach—Three Times A Lady as Bona Fide Bluechip (Dunn) paced on top through panels of :30.4, :59.4 and 1:29.1. On the move from third before that third station, Lone Cypress stretched out and pulled clear of the pacesetter in the stretch through a :28.1 final quarter to win in 1:57.2. Bona Fide Bluechip stayed for second, a length back of the winner, with Big Mac Dylan (Borjas) in for third.

Tony Alagna trains Lone Cypress, a $20,000 Lexington Selected yearling now owned by Robert Leblanc of New York, NY, Pryde Stables Inc. of North York, ON, Steven Head of Edgewater, MD and William Beattie of Toronto, ON. The colt, from the first crop of his accomplished sire, was bred by Steve Stewart, Conquest Acres LP of Grabill, Ind. and Michael Robinson of Lewis Center, OH.

Breakfast With The Babies returns to its regular Saturday time slot next week, with a session slated for Saturday, June 20 and a first post time of 9 a.m.

Due to the World Cup soccer match being played at the NY/NJ Stadium (fka MetLife Stadium) on Saturday, June 13, live harness racing at the Big M takes place this week on Thursday, June 11, and Friday, June 12 with a 6:35 p.m. first post time.

Touchedbythesea, Time Has Come win at Northfield, now two-for- two in BSS

Northfield Park Racino hosted five $20,000 divisions each of the second leg of the Buckeye Stallion Series for sophomore colt pacers and trotters on Saturday (June 6). Touchedbythesea and Time Has Come both scored victories, giving them a two-for-two start in the BSS.

SOPHOMORE COLT PACERS: Touchedbythesea (Chris Page) won the third of five divisions of sophomore colt pacers. After taking an opening-leg win in a lifetime mark of 1:52.3 at Eldorado Scioto Downs on May 9, the Downbytheseaside gelding led wire-to-wire and crossed the line in 1:54.3 on Saturday. Touchedbythesea won by 1¾ lengths over Fire The Prez (Chris Lems) in second followed by Ninety-nineproblems (Mike Wilder) in third. Trained by Ron Burke for owners Burke Racing Stable, Knox Services, Slaughter Racing Stable, and Weaver Brusceci, Touchedbythesea has three wins and $26,300 in earnings in five seasonal starts.

Other highlights included dominant wire-to-wire victories by The Ebony Dragon and Gypsy's Brother.

The Ebony Dragon (Luke Hanners) won the fifth division by 9½ lengths in a lifetime mark of 1:51.4. The Fear The Dragon colt led at all three calls in :28, :56.2, and 1:23.3, stretching his advantage to three lengths at the three-quarter pole and six lengths entering the final stretch. The Great Escape (Wilder) was second followed by 51-1 longshot Bet The Beach (Page) in third. The Ebony Dragon is trained by Tyler Bates for owners Suzanne Bates and Cedar Point Beach Racing. He has 14 wins and earnings of $93,522 in 26 career starts.

In the second division, Gypsy's Brother (Tyler Smith) led the field at every call in :27, :56, and 1:23.2 en route to winning by 7¾ lengths in a lifetime-best 1:52. The Racing Hill gelding led by three lengths at the three-quarter mark and 4½ lengths entering the final stretch. Captain's Dance (Sam Widger), a 20-1 longshot, and Heerz Corinthian (Brett Miller) rounded out the top three. Winless in seven starts as a freshman, Gypsy's Brother has hit the board in four of six starts with earnings of $22,885 this year. He is trained by owner and breeder Herman Hagerman.

Thunder Jam (Miller) won the first division by 1¼ lengths in 1:53.3 for trainer Tim Twaddle and owner Timothy Billow. Global (Dan Noble) and Willow Dale (Trevor Smith) rounded out the top three. Thunder Jam, a Downbytheseaside gelding, holds a 4-4-2 career record with $83,320 in earnings in 16 starts.

Ultimate Catch (Lems) won the fourth division by a half-length in 1:55.4 with Pompcircumstance (Noble) and Odds On Mister X (Page) rounding out the top three. The Catch The Fire gelding is trained by Scott Cox for owners Wayne Mast, Jr. and Jason Ash. He has five wins and $45,024 in earnings in 17 career starts.

SOPHOMORE COLT TROTTERS: Time Has Come (Kurt Sugg), a winner in the opening leg of the BSS at Scioto in 1:56.1, recorded a lifetime mark of 1:56 in taking the fourth of five divisions of colt trotters on Saturday. The Uncle Peter gelding won by three-quarters-of-a-length with Eckert Hill Brady (Widger) and Jackie Jann (Wilbur Yoder) rounding out the top three. Time Has Come is trained by Miles Wollam for owners Marty Wollam and Acadia Farms. He has hit the board in seven of eight career starts with six wins and $47,578 in earnings.

Deer In Range (Page) won the first division by three-quarters-of-a-length in a lifetime-best 1:55.3, giving the In Range gelding six wins in seven seasonal starts and earnings of $33,500 after not racing as a freshman. He is trained and owned by Allen Miller. Dan's Victory (Miller) and Ready For Pictures (Lems) finished second and third, respectively.

Mister Moolah (Tr. Smith) won the second division by three-quarters-of-a-length in 1:57.1. Hall Stead (Ty. Smith) was second followed by Okay One More (Noble) in third. Mister Moolah is a Ready For Moni gelding trained by Danny Collins, who co-owns the horse with Paul Phillips, Charles McLain, and Keith Gisser. He has three wins and $29,810 in earnings in eight lifetime starts.

In the third division, Mile Range (Miller) won by ¾ lengths in a lifetime mark of 1:55.3. Long Hill (John Ciocca, Jr.) and Party Boy Tom (Yoder) rounded out the top three as 61-1 and 59-1 longshots, respectively. Mile Range is an In Range gelding trained by Steve Carter for owners Hatfield Stables and James Crawford IV. This marked his first seasonal win, increasing his lifetime victory total to seven and earnings to $50,588 in 19 starts.

Lane Holding Court (Noble) won the fifth division by 2¼ lengths, recording a lifetime mark of 1:55.4 in his second career victory in eight starts. The Lane Of Stone gelding increased his lifetime earnings to $21,793. Siggie (Tr. Smith), a 72-1 longshot, was second followed by Ready For Sunshine (Hanners) in third. Lane Holding Court is trained by Mark Winters and owned by Harry Horowitz Estate.

The Buckeye Stallion Series continues on June 15 with the third leg for sophomore colt trotters at Northfield Park Racino.

Drew Monti hits 3,000-win plateau in Buffalo Raceway victory

Make My Deo ($4.68) was able to make driver Drew Monti's day on Saturday afternoon (June 6) at Buffalo Raceway as he rallied from six lengths down with a quarter-mile to pace to give Monti his 3,000th driving victory of his career.

Monti, who is from Depew, NY, splits time driving on the Western New York circuit and at Plainridge Park in Massachusetts. The 31-year-old Monti currently leads the driving colony at Buffalo Raceway with 94 wins and over $700,00 in purse earnings. He is the defending champion at both Buffalo Raceway and Batavia Downs in 2025.

The countdown to 3,000 came after the sixth race as Monti steered Pro Beach to a neck win in wire-to-wire fashion. Sitting just one victory shy of the magical mark, Monti had four chances to get that win in front of family and the hometown fans before he was able to break through for the score in the 11th race as Make My Deo seemed to be on a mission to allow it to happen.

Kevin Cummings showed the way on the afternoon with four victories including a $122,00 bomb aboard Cumulus BB in the 14th race. David McNeight III had a pair of scores along with the previously mentioned Monti.

Babies out in force Tuesday at Philly

Fourteen fields of freshmen faced the starting gate in the first full-scale set of 2-year-old qualifiers of the season at Harrah's Philadelphia. Driver Andy Miller and trainer Julie Miller were the dominant figures in the trotting action; the team of driver Cory Mumford and trainer Jamie Sullivan posted three 2:00 miles with male pacers, including the fastest mile among all the freshmen; and sire Papi Rob Hanover saw three of his four pacing daughters succeed.

Team Orange Crush were connected with three of the four trotting filly winners, the fastest of whom was the Walner—Flyer Mel miss Mrs Rattigan, who went wire-to-wire in 1:59.2, last half a crisp :57.2, for owner Michael Anderson. Two other trotting fillies who won for the Millers include Jula Florence (Chapter Seven—Jula Shes Magic) in 2:00 - :57.3 - :28.3 and the Greenshoe miss Honky Tonk Babe in 2:02.4.

There were only two section for male trotters, and the Millers won with the fastest trotter of the day (and just missed the fastest pacer's clocking by a fifth), the Love You—Southwind Adele colt Adios Amigos Kemp, who flashed successive back quarters of :29 to win in 1:58 for Andy Miller Stable Inc., Arden Homestead Stable, Jean Goehlen, and Adios Amigos Stable.

Switching over to the pacing males, Cory Mumford piloted three precocious freshmen to victory for trainer Jamie Sullivan, the fastest of which was the 1:57.4 wire-to-wire victory of Miki's Big Bang, a colt by Always B Miki—Shebang N who sped home in :56.2 - :27.4 to show his talent for owner James Fleming. The other pair of colt winners for Mumford and Sullivan, both also pacesetters, are owned by the triumvirate of David Hamm, Glenn Phillips, and Frank Chick and are both sons of Stay Hungry: Hungry Marco (dam Always Giggling) in 1:58.1 - :56 - :27.2, and Midnight Drive (dam Turnoffthelights) in 1:58.2 - :56.2 - :27.2.

The quickest winner among the three Papi Rob Hanover freshman pacing fillies was PA Layla (dam Tava), moving past the quarter to the lead for driver Andrew McCarthy and finishing in :57.1 - :28.2 to complete her mile in 1:58.2 for the ownership of Patricia Stables LLC, L A Express Stable LLC, Sjoebloom Racing Inc., and trainer Noel Daley (McCarthy and Dailey also combined with the Captaintreacherous—Bet On Sunday baby distaff Treacherous Bet for a 2:01.2 - :56 - :27.3 tally).

Papi Rob Hanover's other two winners during the Tuesday morning set were JK Alwaysbpositive (dam JK Alwaysbalady, 1:59.4 - :56.3, :27.4) and Ginger Tree Ashley (dam Magic Starlight, 2:00.3 - :57.4).

The meet's leading driver, Tim Tetrick, had a win in three of the four baby groupings, then added two more in the qualifiers for older horses later in the morning.

Replays of the Philly qualifiers can be seen at www.phha.org.

Vernon Downs to feature Empire Breeders Classic

Vernon Downs will play host to the Empire Breeders Classic (EBC) for sophomore trotting colts and geldings as well as the fillies, today (June 12) at a special post time of 12:15 p.m.

Spencer Hanover (Jason Bartlett) will be the one to beat in the $176,500 EBC for colts and geldings. The colt by Chapter Seven was a Breeders Crown champion as a freshman. As a sophomore he is three-for-three, including winning the Oak Grove Derby and a leg of the New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) at Vernon Downs.

The Ron Burke trained AI (Tyler Buter) could be his major competition. The colt by Chapter Seven is still searching for his first win of 2026. He had a five-win freshman campaign including a win in the NYSS final.

The morning-line favorite in the $195,020 EBC for fillies is Nezuko Kamado S (Scott Zeron). She won the inaugural Big Apple final for 2-year-olds. She is one-for-one this season with a NYSS win at Vernon Downs. The filly by Chapter Seven is trained by Marcus Melander.

Six-time winner Sharp Seven (Jeff Gregory) and 2025 Breeders Crown champion Storybook Love (Todd Ratchford) are major contenders. Both are Chapter Seven fillies. Sharp Seven is trained by George Ducharme. Storybook Love is trained by Matthew Bax.

Vernon will also feature a 121,800 leg of the NYSS for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings. Knoxville (Tyler Buter) and Unmatched Wisdom (Leon Bailey) are the top two morning-line choices. They both have a NYSS win this season.

Knoxville is a colt by Huntsville that is trained by Ray Schnitker. Chuck Connor, Jr. trains Unmatched Wisdom, a gelding by American Ideal.

Once again, the 13-race card starts at 12:15 p.m.
