Odds On Mr Mamba strikes late to take thrilling Pepsi North America Cup

by Chris Lomon / Woodbine communications
additional quotes by Dave Briggs

In a sophomore showdown for glory, prestige, and a place in the history books, it was the diminutive Indiana-sired gelding Odds On Mr Mamba (Odds On Equuleus–Honky Tonk Woman) who came up huge, with a late strike in the 43rd edition of the $1 million Grade 1 Pepsi North America Cup on Saturday night (June 13) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

In the process, five-time Canadian Driver of the Year James MacDonald scored his first NA Cup victory.

“It felt amazing,” MacDonald said. “The way the trip worked out, I couldn’t have planned it any better. I’m just lucky, blessed, to get the drive and blessed with the way the race worked out and just a happy guy.”

The pre-eminent North American event for 3-year-old pacers once again showcased some of the sport’s brightest stars, adding another compelling chapter to its rich history in front of a packed house on a spectacular, stakes-laden evening at the Milton oval.

No Waitlist and Al Papi, leaving from post 9 and post 8, respectively, blasted off the gate and looked to set the early tone, with the former landing in the top spot, followed by Melillo and Beau Jangles, the 3-5 choice who had his unbeaten string snapped at 15 in one of last week’s Cup eliminations. Odds On Mr Mamba, second choice on the tote board, sat sixth through an opening quarter in :26.1.

Beau Jangles was given his cue to carry on and took the lead ahead of a half in :54.1, with Al Papi, No Waitlist, and Brandon Blvd filling out the top four, while driver James MacDonald and Odds On Mr Mamba remained sixth.

Brandon Blvd picked up the pursuit of Beau Jangles and began to ratchet up the pressure on the pacesetter, while Odds On Mr Mamba began to make inroads on the lead pair.

“Lyndsey was a tremendous resource when we bought our horse farm in KY. She made the experience a delight with her knowledge and hands on approach. The entire process was seamless from touring the farm till closing time. We highly recommend her for help with any size property you may be considering to purchase.”

Claus Andersen
Indiana-sired Odds
On Mr Mamba won
one for the Hoosier
State.

Claus Andersen
It was the first NA Cup victory for trainer Melanie Wrenn.

It was Beau Jangles on top by three lengths after three-quarters in 1:21.1, as Brandon Blvd, saddled with post 10, continued to grind away on the outside, while Odds On Mr Mamba roared onto the scene with a powerful outside burst, setting the stage for a scintillating stretch drive.

At the wire, Odds On Mr Mamba bested Brandon Blvd by a half-length. Beau Jangles finished a shade behind the runner-up in third and Al Papi crossed the wire fourth.

The final time was 1:48.1.

"In the last turn, I was like 'I'm going to win by five,' with the trip [Odds On Mr Mamba] got," MacDonald said. "Then, when I moved him, it turned into a dog fight. They both kicked away – Beau and Brandon – and we were slugging it halfway down the line. I said, 'I'm going to be third' and then he just finds a way to find a little more to get it done."

It was also the first Cup crown for trainer Melanie Wrenn and prominent owner/breeder Dana Parham of Odds On Racing.

"He comes like a freight train," Wrenn said. "I've never seen a horse that turns it on like him. He wants to be there at the wire, that's what he wants to do. He generally gets it done."

The winner's circle included driver James MacDonald, owner/breeder Dana Parham of Odds On Racing, trainer Melanie Wrenn and her husband and fellow horseperson Peter Wrenn.

Coming into the race, MacDonald, who was making his seventh Cup appearance, said he was confident.

"I just thought the way the draw set up, I thought I was going to get a great trip, and it was a dream come true. I watched my brother [Mark] win this race with Sportswriter, and I was at Kawartha Downs, never thinking I was ever going to do anything like this on this kind of stage. So, it's pretty special for me, and I'm just so thankful I got the drive, and so, so lucky to be here.

"I'm so proud of the horse, so happy for Melanie and the connections, and it's just time to party."

Wrenn, who finished fourth with Odds On Osiris in the 2020 edition, was in an equally celebratory mood.

"I was so nervous," she said. "I mean, I knew he was in a good spot at that point, but I mean, he was in with so many nice horses, and he's just amazing. I love him.

"I knew we were going to give it a heck of a try, and he never quits when they're coming to the wire. He's always gaining on them. So, we had a pretty good shot."

It was the third win in as many starts in 2026 for the bay gelding, who arrived at the North America Cup final off a gutsy neck victory in his Cup elimination race, a 1:48.2 mile paced last Saturday at Mohawk.

Odds On Mr Mamba, who holds status as the fastest 2-year-old in harness racing history, a 1:47.4 mile on Oct. 2, 2025, at Hoosier Park, won the Indiana Sires Stakes final and Elevation Stakes last year and took an Indiana Sires Stakes division on May 25, 2026.

Odds On Mr Mamba, who paid $6.10 for Saturday's win, is 10-0-0 from 11 career starts, along with over purse earnings of $880,405.

"It was something that we pointed this horse to, and but there's so many other good horses, and so many other things that can go wrong," said Dana Parham, of Odds On Racing. "But for this year it went right for us, and maybe not quite perfect for some of the others."

"I do want to thank Pepsi and Mohawk for putting on this great event. I think they should be recognized, so I want to thank all of them."

Odds On Mr Mamba's sire, Odds On Equuleus, finished 10th in the 2013 NA Cup, and finished his racing career with 20 wins, $938,000 in purse earnings, and a mark of 1:47.4.

*A new wagering record of $687,448 on the North America Cup race was set, eclipsing the previous record of $681,000 in 2015.

Friday night (June 12) racing at Woodbine Mohawk Park was temporarily on hold for what seemed like an eternity after race 3. The track had been busy with 3-year-old fillies warming up for Ontario Sires Stakes Grassroots leg 2 pacers and Grade 3 Casual Breeze trotters divisions. Around 7:30 p.m., announcer Chad Rozema suddenly asked the public to stand back from the rail as a horse galloped past the tote board, pulling an empty jog cart.

An accident had occurred where the track's far turn curves toward the stretch, before the three-quarter pole, far enough away that spectators were unclear on who was involved or what took place. According to eyewitnesses who were on the track, along with a statement from Woodbine communications, two horses driven by Dr. Ian Moore and Sarah Svanstedt had collided while traveling in opposite directions.

The horse on the run was Jay, a 3-year-old Cattlewash filly trained by Moore. The other horse, 3-year-old Googoo Gaagaa filly All Time Trot S, was led out of the infield, where she had been unhitched. Svanstedt was driving the Ake Svanstedt trainee when they were reportedly run into by Jay, whom AGCO veterinarian Dr. Chris Robson said had randomly shied away from a tractor.

People began running to assist the fallen trainers and catch Jay, who eventually pulled up near the paddock. They also attended to All Time Trot S, who was quickly unharnessed and led back to the paddock. A few minutes later, Moore was crouching a short distance from Svanstedt, who was still motionless on the track. She was lifted onto a stretcher by paramedics and loaded onto an ambulance shortly before 8 p.m.. Halton Regional Paramedic Services and Malton Regional Police also attended the scene.

A few minutes later, the emergency services vehicles moved to the paddock turn. Moore appeared to be in good spirits, despite a bandaged left arm. After being examined by paramedics, he left for the hospital with wife Nancy and son Tyler. Jay, who was entered in race 6, an OSS Grassroots event, was scratched lame.

The 1-9 Casual Breeze favorite All Time Trot S looked her usual self in the race 7 post parade and scoring down for driver James MacDonald. Her first-over rally from fourth past the half was nonetheless unable to carry her past 8-1 pacesetter (and race winner) Kngstlkr Games on the final turn. All Time Trot S began losing ground down the stretch, dropping back to eighth by the finish.

All Time Trot S
 was unhurt in the spill, which sent her driver Sarah Svanstedt to hospital.

Dr. Chris Robson said that the AGCO Standardbred Rules of Racing state that a horse who runs loose must be examined and scratched if necessary. He said that Jay had a “knee blown up” and that Doc Moore’s arm injury was a “bad abrasion.”

Robson added that All Time Trot S was not injured and not required to scratch.

“She just went in the infield and stood there like a good horse [after the collision],” he said.

Sarah Svanstedt had been listed to drive Busy Miss Lissy S in the other Casual Breeze division. She was replaced by Tyler Jones after the spill. Sarah, whom Robson said had been “going a training mile” with All Time Trot S at the time of the accident, was momentarily knocked out and suffered a broken collarbone.

Racing resumed about 45 minutes after the accident. Woodbine communications posted on Twitter (X) at 8:32 p.m. that “both trainers were conscious and will be transported to a local hospital for further examination” and “both horses are okay.”

Campbell talks about rolling a seven in the Meadowlands Pace

by Debbie Little

With the 50th edition of the Meadowlands Pace only a month away, HRU spoke with Hall of Fame driver John Campbell about his record seven victories in the East Rutherford oval's signature event.

HEARTBREAK TO HILARION

Going into the 1982 Meadowlands Pace, Campbell was hoping to be driving his own in the final.

"I had a horse that I trained and owned part of myself, Merger," Campbell said. "He set a world record at the end of his 2-year-old year, and we had really high hopes for him coming back.

“[Dexter Nukes] was a special [Meadowlands Pace] win for me. George Gilmore trained him, and he was my uncle by marriage; my dad’s sister was married to George.”

- John Campbell

And I prepped him and was pointing him for the Meadowlands Pace, and he absolutely raced terribly in his elimination, and didn’t get qualified [for the final]. I was devastated with his performance as much as any horse ever when I was training. He just raced poorly, and we had no explanation.”

Luckily for Campbell, Bill O’Donnell had driven two in the eliminations.

“I was very, very down about [Merger], and then [trainer] Jerry Silverman asked me about going with one of his, and Billy [O’Donnell] was going to wait until the draw, and I said sure, because I had no other options, that was fine with me. And then Rompin Home drew inside [post 1], and Hilarion drew 10, so I knew I was going to have the 10-hole, but I was still in the race, which I was somewhat excited about, even though I was so disappointed about Merger, and then everything just worked out okay.”

On more than one occasion over the years, Campbell has said that the 10-hole is just a starting point, and before this particular race, he was originally thinking about just getting a check.

“Well, it is absolutely, because going into the race it looked like a lot of early speed... and before we hit the start, I looked over, and nobody was leaving. I couldn’t believe it. So, I just left the gate as hard as he could, and he got crossed right over, and he got covered up by Jack Parker with a horse [Elitist] that I knew could carry me into the stretch and you know, everything worked out really well.

“[Hilarion] was very fortunate to get out on No Nukes’ back; the horse second over couldn’t keep up around the last turn, otherwise I would have never gotten out. It just was one of those races where everything fell in place and went in our favor.”

Campbell was 27 when he won that first Meadowlands Pace.

“I never even thought about the age thing at the time,” he said. “You just don’t. I mean, that never even came into it. I mean, I knew it was my first million-dollar win. It was the Meadowlands Pace. It was a big deal, and all that, but the age factor, I never even gave it a thought.”

'NUKE'LEAR FAMILY

In 1989, Camped captured his second Pace with Dexter Nukes.

"Well, that was a special win for me," Campbell said. "George Gilmore trained him, and he was my uncle by marriage; my dad's sister was married to George. And he had come to The Meadowlands... and Tom Dexter, the owner, wanted to make a [driver] change, so George had called me up and asked me about going with him, and I said yes. And then he just kept getting better and better, and he actually won the New Jersey Classic before that.

"So, the family connection was just very, very special for us, [my wife] Paula and I, and my family, obviously with George being my uncle, and my aunt Pat. It was really special to win both the New Jersey Classic and the Meadowlands Pace with Dexter Nukes."

WHAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN

In 1994, Campbell scored a hat trick in the Pace with Cam's Card Shark, who had so much potential.

"He was a horse that was hard to keep sound," Campbell said. "He dealt with problems the whole [sophomore] year, but at that time of the year, he was really sound and really good, and he was really on his game.

"Actually, I didn't have to do too much, he did everything, and he was really just at the top of everything at that point. If he had been sound, he would have had one of the greatest 3-year-old years in history, but he wasn't able to race in the Jug, or any more after that.

"It was a challenge keeping him sound right from the time he came out as a 3-year-old, but at Meadowlands Pace time he was really sound and really dominant."

Cam's Card Shark's owner Jeffrey Snyder said that he listened to Campbell when it came to scratching out of the Little Brown Jug.

"He was really sore that day, and I was sure that we couldn't get him raced two heats, so I didn't see the point of pushing him and having something potentially really bad happen to him," Campbell said. "I talked to Jeff and Bill Robinson, and I said, 'There's no way this horse can go two heats. I don't see the upside of just going out there for one heat in case something bad happens.'"

PAIR FOR PELLING

Campbell's fourth and fifth Pace wins came via horses trained by Brett Pelling.

The first was David's Pass in 1995, who finished fourth in his elimination and only made it into the final because he won the shake. The fastest fourth-place finisher from the three eliminations made it to the Pace final, but David's Pass and CA Connection both finished fourth in an identical fastest time, so they shook out pills and David's Pass made the final.

"David's Pass was a horse, even though he won both [the Meadowlands Pace and North America Cup], he wasn't a dominant 3-year-old," Campbell said. "He had to have a trip, and if he didn't get a trip, he just couldn't overcome that. And he didn't race as well in the [Pace] elimination, so he got lucky there [to make the final]. And then in the final, he got the perfect trip for him. He was second over, followed cover right into the stretch, and off of that kind of trip he would deliver a really good run the last quarter. The trip made all the difference in the world to him, because he was a horse that couldn't overcome a bad trip and beat those horses.

"That kind of separates the really good horses from the great horses. The great horses can overcome that trip and still be successful. The good horses that race at that level, they just can't. They need the trip and everything to go kind of their way, and then they'll race at that level, but they can't overcome adversity."

Campbell's second Pelling Pace champion, The Panderosa, was very different from David's Pass.

"I thought the only way [The Panderosa] wouldn't win is if I overdrove him early in the race," Campbell said. "There was a lot of action up front, and I just rode out parked, and didn't use him, and I just kind of led him right up there easy to the leaders at the three-quarter pole, and then when I asked him in the stretch, he just opened up. Up until that point, and even that night, he was dominant over the 3-year-old crop, but that was the last really good race that The Panderosa went in his life."

The Panderosa was Campbell's second Pace winner from post 10.

"The post position is something you have no control over, so there's no sense worrying about it," he said. "It is what it is. It was two different scenarios. With Hilarion, he had the 10-hole, and everything had to go absolutely perfect for him to win. For The Panderosa, it didn't have to go perfect, he could overcome a tough trip, and he was just that much better than those colts at that point."

THE 'REAL' THING

In the 25th edition of the Meadowlands Pace in 2001, Campbell won the Pace, for a sixth time, with Real Desire.

"Well, Real Desire had been a really good 2-year-old, and Randy Waples had driven him, and then he came back at 3, and he just didn't do well in the North America Cup," Campbell said. "So, when he came down for the Meadowlands Pace, [trainer] Blair [Burgess] wanted to qualify him, and he said, 'Will you go with him and see what you think about him? So, I did, and he qualified really well. And then I wasn't sure what I was going to have for the Meadowlands Pace, but I thought in the back of my mind, I don't think I'm going to have anything better than Real Desire.

“So, anyway, he went into the [elimination] race off a really good qualifier, and was really, really impressive. His best race was off the pace, he really came off his cover good... Bettors Delight was in there [in the Pace final], and he was really good at the time as well, and I knew I had to be close enough at the head of the stretch. If I was close enough, that was the only chance I had to run him down, I couldn't come from too far back. And I got him second over, but the cover stalled really bad in the last turn, so I had to flip him three wide, but he got back in behind Bettors Delight for a few steps, and I think that made the difference in the race, and he was able to grind him down and win.”

SEVENTH HEAVEN

Campbell's seventh and final Pace victory came in 2002 with Mach Three, who at 3-5, had the shortest odds of all of his Pace champs.

"[Mach Three (post 1)] was going in in really good order as well," Campbell said. "And again, I just wanted to keep him out of trouble. He drew better than The Panderosa, so I just kind of settled in fifth on the rail, going to the quarter. The quarter was pretty hot, and once they settled, I was in a spot where I was going to have to either go back to the front or be first over, and when I tipped him out, he was back to the front in no time, he just exploded. But then when he did that, he relaxed, and I was able to rate him the third quarter, and once he got that third-quarter breather, he kicked home strong, and he was just the best of that group at that point. He kind of lost his form later in the year, but at that point he was just the best 3-year-old there was, right then."

Five of Campbell's Meadowlands Pace winners were favorites and the two that weren't were the second choice.

"It's nice to have that top 3-year-old lined up," he said. "It doesn't always work out that way, but it is nice to have one of the top 3-year-olds, because let's be honest, there's a lot of money for those 3-year-olds to race for, and you want to have a horse that figures in the race. You don't want to be 25-1 in every big race."

As for this year's Pace contenders, Campbell said the picture isn't clear enough yet, but this weekend's North America Cup final will start to separate the contenders from the pretenders.

"That's why they have more eliminations for the North America Cup than they do some of the 3-year-old races later in the year, because they haven't all gotten together yet, and people haven't figured out where their horse fits in that division. But once the North America Cup comes, you have eliminations and a final, and that pecking order becomes much clearer."

TALES FROM THE CURMUDGEON

with MURRAY BROWN

Joel Kravet remains in the business for the love of the horse

by Murray Brown

I have never met Joel Kravet in the flesh, but I consider him to be a friend. I've now been writing this column for going on seven years. For most of that time, Kravet has been sending me emails, sometimes relating to a specific column, or others relating to his experience in our sport – sometimes just speaking of his outlook on harness racing in general terms.

I felt as though I knew him, yet speaking realistically, I hardly know him at all. What I did know is that he is what I would describe as a “lifer,” someone who has been involved with our sport for the longest of times and someone who has very deep feelings for it.

For how long? I had no idea. It was time to find out. We had an extended conversation on Tuesday (June 9) where we discussed many topics, most of them harness horse related and relating to his history in the sport.

Tell me something about yourself.

“I’m a New Yorker, bred, born, and raised. I was raised in the Bronx, but have lived in Manhattan for all my adult life. I’m now 83 years old. Like many New Yorkers who came of age in the ‘60s and ‘70s I started going to the ‘trotters’ when Roosevelt and Yonkers Raceways were among the places to be.

“People today might find it hard to believe, but back then harness racing was a major league sport. There were many days when harness racing drew more people than the Yankees, the Knicks, the Rangers or the football Giants.

“Like most of my friends, we started sneaking into the track even before we became of legal age to do it.

“While in college, I was in a serious car accident which resulted in my schooling becoming interrupted. I needed to get a job. I asked myself, why not get a job at the trotters?”

“People today might find it hard to believe, but back [in the ‘60s and ‘70s] harness racing was a major league sport. There were many days when harness racing drew more people than the Yankees, the Knicks, the Rangers or the football Giants.”

– Joel Kravet

So, what did you do?

“It was 1967. I went to the stable gate at Roosevelt and asked if anybody was looking for help. As it happened, Jim Hackett happened to be going by at about that time and asked me what experience I had around horses. I answered honestly that I had none, but I was willing to work and wanted to learn. He then asked if I drank or did drugs. I responded in the negative. He said that since I had no experience with horses, he couldn’t put me to work with them. But he had an exceptional 3-year-old pacing colt for which the insurance policy required that it had 24-hour care. He needed a night watchman for the colt. The colt’s name was Best Of All and he sure enough lived up to his name and to the opinion Hackett had of him. He became a world champion and a winner of the Little Brown Jug, when that was pacing’s major race, and to some still is, and pacing’s equivalent to The Hambletonian.

“When Hackett moved his stable back to stable owner Samuel Huttenbauer’s farm near Cincinnati, he took me along. He put me in the charge of his assistant Bud Parshall who he told to make a good groom of me. Parshall was an outstanding horseman and I enjoyed working there, but soon learned that I probably didn’t have much of a future in the horse business, at least not as a groom.

“I returned to school and continued going to the track. I also occasionally would take a trip to Philadelphia and attend the races at Liberty Bell Park. One evening while walking through the paddock there, I met John Patterson, Jr. known to most people as Sonny. I asked him for a job. He gave me his dad’s phone number and told me to call him in Georgia. I called and Mr. Patterson told me that if I could get to their training center in Dalton, that he would have a job waiting for me.

“I see not being able to adapt as one of the major reasons why our sport is just hanging on. With harness racing, I see less and less motivation being put upon the love of the horse and its development and more and more on the money to be gained by being in it. Don’t get me wrong. I see the need for monetary success, but I think the desire for profit has overcome the love of the horse and the joie de vivre that goes with being involved in the ownership of horses.”

– Joel Kravet

“Sonny was a quiet introspective sort of guy, but we hit it off, quickly becoming friends. I apparently hadn’t gotten working with the horses out of my blood. So, I took a bus to Georgia and soon enough I was rubbing two heads in the Patterson Stable. I stayed there for about three years and became very close friends with Sonny and developed a great admiration of his dad John Patterson, Sr. I have yet to meet a person who I would rate ahead of Mr. Patterson, either as a man or as a horseman. They don’t make them any better.

“I had stopped working with the horses, but still maintained an avid interest in them. Sonny and I began owning horses together. We’d buy them cheap, concentrating on horses eligible to the New York Sire Stakes. Sonny would make racehorses from them and we would then sell them at a profit. We did quite well for some time. Then Sonny got into a terrible accident where he broke his foot. For some unknown reason, it never healed properly and he wasn’t able to continue his career as one of the very best to ever sit behind a horse, especially a trotter.”

What did you do after you stopped working with the Pattersons?

“I went into the dry-cleaning business with my wife and a friend of mine. It is where I still am involved today. We started a firm called Atthorp Cleaners on W 79th Street in Manhattan. After 43 years, the firm and I are still there. But the dry-cleaning business has had to change with the times. When we began, all our business was over the counter. Today the vast majority of it is pick-up and delivery. We had to adapt and we did. I see not being able to adapt as one of the major reasons why our sport is just hanging on. With harness racing, I see less and less motivation being put upon the love of the horse and its development and more and more on the money to be gained by being in it. Don’t get me wrong. I see the need for monetary success, but I think the desire for profit has overcome the love of the horse and the joie de vivre that goes with being involved in the ownership of horses.

“I never stopped owning and to some degree managing horses. I own pieces of all sorts of horses, racehorses, broodmares, yearlings, and babies. I doubt that there will ever be a time when I’m not involved. It’s in my blood. I still follow the sport as closely as I am able to. I’m one of the few today who still loves going to the races. My major problem is that I loved going with friends. Sadly, most of my friends have now passed away.

“I’m still involved both individually and as a shareholder in Anthony MacDonald’s The Stable. I still avidly peruse all the yearling catalogs and tell Anthony which horses I like. If he should buy one whose pedigree I like and for which a vacancy exists with his group of owners, I am available to come in as a part owner.

“As for my likes, I much prefer trotters to pacers, I suppose that comes from my experience with the Pattersons.”

MIDWEST CHRONICLES

with JAMES PLATZ

Graber has yet another promising trotting filly in Bluebird Kazoom

by James Platz

Bluebird Kazoom started the season racing in another state, conditioned by a different trainer for a former partnership. Wednesday evening (June 10), the sophomore trotting filly collected her first Indiana Sires Stakes leg, winning for the seventh time in 2026 with a 1:54 effort. Now trained by Henry Graber, Jr., she won by nearly six lengths as the favorite in the $49,000 contest.

Prior to the opening round of sires stakes held on Memorial Day at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino, Bluebird Kazoom pieced together an impressive streak competing in Ohio. The Swan For All—Stella Kemp lass, then owned by Hoosiers Orva

“If I can dial [Bluebird Kazoom’s shoeing] in 100 per cent, I’m not saying we can beat [the top sires stakes fillies in her division], but I don’t think they’re going to embarrass her. We haven’t seen the bottom yet. I’m just hoping we don’t have to see it yet. Jordan was pretty impressed. He said that she did it pretty easy the other night.”

— Henry Graber, Jr.

Dean Gillette

Bluebird Kazoom (Jordan Ross) winning her Indiana Sires Stakes test for 3-year-old trotting fillies on Wednesday at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

Bontrager, Jr. and Isaiah Schwartz, went five-for-five at Northfield Park for trainer Brian Miller. She capped her time in the Buckeye State with a more than five-length romp in the $20,000 final of the Hunter Myers Memorial Series, trotting in 1:57. The filly was listed on onGait.com, and a partnership that includes Hillside Stables, Indiana Stables LLC, Hickory Hollow Stables, and Michael Rosenthal, topped all prospective buyers with a $50,200 bid.

"I was watching her race at Northfield and I had an agent contact me saying she was for sale," Graber, Jr. said. "You know, she was winning pretty easily, but it was kind of hard to gauge how she's going to be at Hoosier. It's just a completely different track."

Nineteen days after her final Northfield start, Indiana-sired Bluebird Kazoom made her debut for the new connections, trying her hand in the state's top program. Despite the Northfield streak, the filly was still a work in progress. At 2 she attempted to qualify at Hoosier Park but made a pair of breaks. When arriving in Graber, Jr.'s barn, he was greeted with a challenge.

"She was really good, but the trainer had told me that she was interfering on the right hind," the conditioner said. "We left the same shoes on her for the first start and just made a couple of equipment changes, it didn't help her any."

Steered by Jordan Ross, Bluebird Kazoom raced fifth in the field of six throughout the circuit, timed in 1:55.3. Graber, Jr. began making shoeing changes in hopes of improving the filly. In a June 6 start for Indiana Sires Stakes eligible fillies the trotter collected her first win for the new connections. Again, guided by Ross, the second choice took the lead after a :28.1 first panel and proceeded to click off fractions of :58 and 1:27.2 before stopping the clock in 1:54.2. Although she reached the winner's circle, shoeing was still an issue late in the race.

"She had a shoe come off right at the wire," Graber, Jr. said. "Jordan told me he could see when it started getting really loose around the fair start line. He just had to hold her together, but he said she felt like she could go more."

Graber, Jr. continued to fine-tune Bluebird Kazoom's shoeing. Bred by Daryl Miller, Delvin Miller, and Kenneth Bontrager, the 3-year-old was sent off as the favorite in the second round of sires stakes action after the scratch of Fresh Face Yankee in Wednesday's fourth race. Lining up in post 4, Ross settled in the pocket shortly after the wings folded and then placed her on the engine after the quarter. Bluebird Kazoom commanded the field the rest of the way, reaching three-quarters with a two-length advantage and building on the margin all the way to the wire.

"It's still not quite 100 per cent; I'd say it's 98 per cent better," Graber, Jr. said of the shoeing. "I think we've got 13 days in between sires stakes starts, so we'll fiddle around with the back end a little bit and see if we can get her to clear 100 per cent."

Three races, three different shoeing configurations. However, the filly is getting dialed in, and her last effort produced a career best time. Now a winner in seven of eight, Bluebird Kazoom has banked $62,225.

"I was watching [Bluebird Kazoom] race at Northfield and I had an agent contact me saying she was for sale. You know, she was winning pretty easily, but it was kind of hard to gauge how she's going to be at Hoosier. It's just a completely different track."

— Henry Graber, Jr.

"She's put together really nice," Graber, Jr. said. "She's kind of long. But her back end, she just handles her back feet a little differently than what most trotters would. She's got a really good attitude."

Last season, Graber, Jr. sent out a trio of top trotting fillies that dominated the sophomore trotting filly division at Hoosier Park. Bluebird Kazoom will carry the torch for the stable, and the conditioner has already noted differences between last year's crop and his newest addition.

"She's a little different than the other fillies we've had," he said. "We had trouble getting them to eat and keeping weight on them. She eats everything you give her. She just loves going out in the morning. She'll jog, and then she'll go back for a while in the afternoon. But the other fillies, they went out, but they were banging at the gate shortly after they went out. They didn't want to stay out. She'll go out, run around a little bit, and eat grass until you get her in."

Despite the differences, Graber, Jr. hopes that Bluebird Kazoom can replicate some of last year's success with the trifecta of Miracle Maven, Better Tak'em, and Classical Jane. She needs to continue her progression to take on the best in the group, led by 2-year-old divisional champ For Dayze, a winner in both sires stakes legs she has contested.

"If I can dial her in 100 per cent, I'm not saying we can beat them, but I don't think they're going to embarrass her," Graber, Jr. said. "We haven't seen the bottom yet. I'm just hoping we don't have to see it yet. Jordan was pretty impressed. He said that she did it pretty easy the other night."

SUPERSTAR FEMALES OF HARNESS RACING
with VICTORIA M. HOWARD

Watch out boys, the ladies are coming

by Victoria Howard

Normally, this column is about two-legged female superstars, but this week we're shining the spotlight on some of the many four-legged female stars. After watching the sensational mare, Allegiant, win the Elitlopp it was time our four-legged gals got some praise and glory.

The Elitlopp, "The Elite Race," is the one of the most prestigious trotting races in the world. It is held at the Solvalla Racetrack in Sweden and started in 1952. Originally named Solvallas Jubileumslopp, the winner of the very first Elitloppet was the German horse Permit.

On May 31, Allegiant, the daughter of Tactical Landing—Too Good for You, went a monstrous mile after charging to the front and never looking back. It was as if Allegiant confidently said to the others in the race, "come and get me," but they couldn't.

Not only did the U.S.-bred superstar beat some of the best trotters harness racing has to offer; she shattered the world record in an incredible 1:48.

It had been 28 years since a mare named Moni Maker won the prestigious race, but Allegiant reminded us to never underestimate the power of a lady.

Allegiant trained by Daniel Redén and driven to victory by Örjan Kihlström won the Elitlopp, barefoot, in a kilometer rate of 1:07.1, for a mile rate of 1:48.

It has been said that we live in a man's world, but watch out fellas, because the ladies are coming.

Unfortunately, I couldn't list all the sport's champion ladies because there are way too many, but the first thing that came to my mind when I think of champion standardbred mares/fillies, is, in my opinion, one of the best trainers the sport ever had.

Known as "The Lady's Man," Hall of Famer, Bruce Nickells had the Midas Touch when it came to mares.

I'm happy to say 97-year-old Nickells – yes, that's right, Nickells will be 98 this July 5 and is still with us – is retired and living in Indiana with his daughter Brooke and granddaughter Bryce.

Between 1985 and 1993 Nickells trained the greats, Follow My Star (p, 4, T1:52.3, $1,537,503), Central Park West (p, 2, 1:53.3f, $534,863), Hall of Fame Immortal Miss Easy (p, 3, 1:51.1, $1,777,656), Hazelton Kay (p, 2, 1:53.4, $762,651), and world champion Immortality (p, 3, 1:51, $1,614,939).

Other top mares Bruce trained include the 1989 Hambletonian Oaks winner Park Avenue Kathy (3, 1:56.4, $553,521), Bruce's Lady (p, 3, 1:53.3, $772,607), and last but not least, my favorite, the 1994 Sweetheart Pace winner Efishnc (p, 3, 1:54.1, $570,113).

Years ago, there were so many fabulous trotting mares, such as Roquepine, Une De Mai, Impish, Elaine Rodney, and Fresh Yankee.

A few top pacing mares were Countess Adios, Belle Acton, Silk Stockings, Dottie's Pick, and Ramola Hanover, who was the dam of Romeo and Romulus Hanover.

Which brings us to the present.

Several of the sport's royally bred females are:

- Call Me Goo (Googoo Gaagaa—Callmemza) – A world champion with career earnings of more than $1,441,236. Her resume includes a stakes record in the Armbro Flight, the Allerage Farms Mare Trot, the Six Pack Mare Trot, and legs of the Miss Versatility Series.

- Atlanta (Chapter Seven—Hemi Blue Chip) – When she retired, she was the fourth richest female trotter with $3.5 million in earnings, and a mark of 1:49.1. She was small in size but had a huge heart. She even had a Breyer model created for her. A hard act to follow.

[Party Girl Hill] was once described as “a Rolls-Royce with hair.”

- Ramona Hill (Muscle Hill–Lock Down Lindy) – Winner of the Hambletonian with lifetime earnings of $1,363,050. Her yearling filly, Rani Hanover, was the highest priced yearling ($925,000) ever sold at Lexington.
- Hannelore Hanover (Swan for All–High Sobriety) – With earnings of $3,069,857, she went a world record-equaling 1:51. She was named Horse of the Year, becoming the first trotting mare ever to receive this honor since 1999.
- Peaceful Way (Angus Hall–Royal Bait) – A world champion with $2,746,240. Winner of the Breeders Crown Open Mare Trot, Allerage Farms Open at The Red Mile and the American National Open Trot. When she retired, she was the third-leading North American money winning trotting mare of all time.
- Bee A Magician (Kadabra–Beehive) – A world champion who earned over $4.1 million and won 45 races. Winner of the Breeders Crown, Moni Maker, Hambletonian Oaks, and the Peaceful Way, among others. As a sophomore she won 17 of her races and set a world record of 1:51.
- Party Girl Hill (Captaintreacherous–Look Cheap) – In the Jugette, she won her elimination in 1:49.3 – the first sub-1:50 mile on a half-mile track. In a division of the Tattersalls Pace, she became the second pacing filly to beat the boys in a race worth at least $100,000 in the last 30 years. She was once described as “a Rolls-Royce with hair.”

- Shartin N (Tintin In America–Bagdarin) – With $2,555,629 in earnings and a mark of 1:46.4, she was a world champion and winner of the Roses Are Red, Lady Liberty, Golden Girls, Artiscap, and many others. She became the fastest standardbred horse ever bred in New Zealand.
- Peace Corps (Baltic Speed–Worth Beein’) – She 1:52.4 at 3 and had lifetime earnings of $4,137,737. At one time she was the richest standardbred in history and a multiple world champion. Her wins include the Breeders Crown, World Trotting Derby, Kentucky Futurity, and Merrie Annabelle. She was also the winner of the Elitlopp.

These superstar females are just a handful of the best fillies/mares in the history of harness racing.

Yes, we’ve come a long way ladies!

Historic harness memories baked in the summer

by Bob Heyden

Let's take a look at a baker's dozen historic summertime standardbred happenings.

1. Albatross on July 1, 1972 at Sportsman's Park. He won the $25,000 race by 1½ lengths over Kentucky and Nansemond. He lowered his own mark to 1:54.3, edging past his previous career best of 1:54.4 set twice in the 1971 Tattersalls. His 1:54.3 mark would last for four years until Jade Prince beat it with a 1:54.1 mile at The Red Mile in October of 1976.

2. John Campbell's richest win came on the first Saturday in August of 2006 when Glidemaster won the $1.5 million Hambletonian with a 1:51.1 stakes record.

3. Early in the summer of 1984 at The Meadowlands, 16-year-old Susan Looney won a pari-mutuel race with One For All to become the youngest driver to ever do so. Shortly after, the age rule was changed and no other 16-year-old was able to duplicate Looney's feat. What is she doing now? Dr. Susan Looney was just voted CEO of the Year from the American Association Of Community Colleges as the president of Reading Area Community College.

4. June 27, 1998 in the Ladyship Stakes at The Meadowlands, Campbell drove sophomore pacing filly Armbro Romance to a 1:49.4 win over fellow Artsplace filly Galleria to record history's first female sub-1:50 race mile. Six weeks later, Campbell upped the ante with the first sub-1:50 effort by a mare when Jays Table won the Breeders Crown in 1:49.3.

5. In the 2008 Hambletonian, Deweycheatumnhowe defeated Crazed to become the only horse to be undefeated through the Hambletonian. Tim Tetrick drove the runner-up for Team Antonacci. Tetrick ended the year with a record total for any driver of $19,752,066 despite missing the final six weeks for hip surgery. Had Crazed gotten up to win in the Hambletonian, Tetrick would have had the sport's only $20 million season by a driver.

6. In the 2005 Meadowlands Pace, owner Jeffrey Snyder finished 1-2 with Rocknroll Hanover defeating Village Jolt.

7. August 23, 1969 in the Roosevelt International, Une De Mai got the measure of two-time defending Horse of the Year Nevele Pride over 1¼ miles in 2:33.2. After the race, Nevele Pride's trainer, Stanley Dancer, said he was taking his horse home for a rest. Instead, eight days later, Nevele Pride won in 1:54.4 to lower the 1:55 world record Greyhound set 31 years prior. Six days after that, Nevele Pride set a new half-mile world record of 1:56.4 that stood for 19 years until Mack Lobell surpassed it in 1988.

8. A post 10 winner in the Hambletonian? Not until the August 2023 edition when Tactical Approach skimmed the pylons for Scott Zeron and Nancy Takter. Tetrick took the companion Oaks with Heaven Hanover also from the far outside on the same day.

9. In July of 2017, Walner set the Dancer record at The Meadowlands with a breezy 1:50.2 stakes best. He was set to be a huge favorite in the Hambletonian, but was scratched due to injury and was soon on to an outstanding stallion career.

10. July 11, 2015, J L Cruze and Campbell combined for the sport's first sub-1:50 trotting mile at The Meadowlands. The 1:49.4 mile came while holding off defending Trotter of the Year Shake It Cerry.

11. Jenna's Beach Boy set his 1:47.3 world record on June 22, 1996 – one day into the summer. He is still the only pacer to win the Breeders Crown at 2, 3, and 4.

12. In the summers of 1977 and 1978, Ron Pierce, then working as a caretaker for Art Unger, was instrumental in veteran gelding Shadyside Trixie's success. Pierce also worked for Ernie Spruce and the Dancers, too. Today, Pierce is on the brink of turning 70.

13. All three Triple Crown dead heats came in summertime – the 1989 Hambletonian with Probe and Park Avenue Joe, the 1992 Yonkers Trot with McCluckey and Magic Lobell, and the 2004 Cane Pace at Freehold between Timesareachanging and Western Terror.

Harness ghosts of the past

by Trey Nosrac

As usual, I was under a misconception. A 2 a.m. rabbit hole led to the true story. You might find it of interest.

Many of us were napping or reading our racing programs during history classes about the Roman Empire. Since I was not paying attention, I did not realize that the Roman Colosseum and the Circus Maximus were completely different structures, from completely different eras, with completely different purposes.

The Colosseum, also known as the Flavian Amphitheatre, was built around 70–80 AD. This is the place we usually think about when we think of the actor Russell Crowe and the Gladiator fights. The Colosseum also specialized in staging animal hunts, public spectacles, a steady diet of public executions, and staging mock battles in an oval amphitheater that sat roughly 50,000–70,000 people.

Six hundred years before the Colosseum, the Circus Maximus was rocking. In ancient Rome, the word circus did not have the same meaning as today, with clowns, tents, and cotton candy. Nor did it refer to the Cirque du Soleil with bizarre acts, music, and strobe lighting. In ancient Rome, the word circus referred to a large oval racetrack used for chariot racing.

A Roman hearing “Circus Maximus” would have understood it as “The Grandest Racing Venue in the Empire.” The Circus Maximus was a racetrack for chariot racing and was huge. How Huge? Close your eyes and picture the Ohio State football stadium, then add the Michigan State football stadium, then add a few more stadiums. This massive place was built for racing horses; horses that were fast, dangerous, political, and wildly popular.

The Circus Maximus was a racetrack with famous drivers, favored horses, fanatic fans, gambling, rivalries, wealthy horse owners, and the occasional riot. These Ancient Roman chariot drivers were closer to modern harness racing stars; they were not gladiators. One driver, Gaius Appuleius Diocles, reportedly earned an amount that historians estimate would equal hundreds of millions of dollars today. He raced for different “teams” identified by colors that resembled modern sports franchises.

The Romans packed the Circus Maximus to watch chariots pulled by teams of horses thunder around a long oval track divided by a center barrier called the spina. Fans wore the colors of racing factions the way modern fans wear Dodgers or Buckeyes gear. The major stables were organized into teams identified by colors: Blues, Greens, Reds, and Whites. Entire sections of society emotionally attached themselves to these teams.

We have spent a century, the length of our little sliver of history, under the impression that wagering is the only possible economic engine for the sport. The Romans were packing a quarter-million-seat facility to watch horses pull vehicles with people driving, long before casinos, simulcasting, or ADWs existed.

The similarities become even stranger when you dig deeper. Roman fans followed the breeding and acquisition of horses the way modern horsemen follow yearling sales. Successful stables spent heavily to acquire the best horses and drivers. Wealthy patrons funded teams seeking prestige as much as profit.

Roman chariot races typically involved seven laps around the track. Spectators kept track of laps using large markers on the spina (spine or center divider), much like modern fans watching fractions and progress around the oval. Post positions mattered. Race strategy mattered. Drivers fought for position heading into the turns. Getting pinned behind a fading rival could ruin a race. A clean trip could make a hero. A bad trip could trigger arguments that lasted until the next race day.

The Romans debated drivers, horses, and racing strategy endlessly. There were scandals involving fixed races, political favoritism, and accusations of corruption. Fans screamed at officials. They worshipped certain horses. They blamed losses on bad trips.

It appears people have been yelling, “You pulled too soon!” or, “Why in the hell didn’t he pull?” for about 2,000 years.

One aspect the Romans understood and capitalized on was that racing was not merely gambling. It was identity, belonging, tribal, and emotional. Many Romans identified themselves first as Blues, Greens, Reds, or Whites. Some fans inherited their allegiance from their parents. They stayed loyal through losing seasons, controversial officials, and disappointing performances. Fans of the Circus Maximus behaved just like modern sports fans and owners.

We have spent a century, the length of our little sliver of history, under the impression that wagering is the only possible economic engine for the sport. The Romans were packing a quarter-million-seat facility to watch horses pull vehicles with people driving, long before casinos, simulcasting, or ADWs existed. People may have wagered a few Aureus (gold coins), Denarius (silver coins), and Sestertius (brass coins) among themselves, but they came because they were emotionally invested in the competition and the experience. They wanted to belong to something strange and slightly magical.

Harness racing still contains nearly all the ingredients that once captivated Rome: speed, a dash of danger, loyalty, strategy, bloodlines, personalities, beautiful horses, rumbling hoofs, and impossible victories. The bones are still there. We need to re-harness them.

A Roman satirist named Juvenal said it best:

“Duas tantum res anxius optat, panem et circenses.”

“The people long eagerly for just two things, bread and circuses.”

Neighver Punt powers forward for Goodtimes win

by Ray Cotolo for Woodbine communications

Marcus Melander pupil Neighver Punt, driven by Dexter Dunn, worked from mid-field off a covered trip and gradually reeled in his competition to score the winning blow late and take the $240,000 Grade 2 Goodtimes Stakes, for 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings, on Saturday night (June 13) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Royal Captain ripped off the wings of the gate to take the lead to a :26.3 first quarter chased by Dream For Peace and Classified rolling into third. Touchedbyanangel gapped the top three from fourth but gathered speed into the backstretch to swoop to the lead before a :55.4 half, at which point 3-5 favorite Magic Punk pulled off of the pylons from fifth to lead an outside attack.

Magic Punk advanced up the rim through the last turn to match strides with Touchedbyanangel while tracked by Strobe Lite from second over and Neighver Punt from third over. Touchedbyanangel clung to his diminishing lead past three-quarters in 1:24.2 and resisted Magic Punk's charge until the final eighth-of-a-mile. Strobe Lite built momentum off cover as did Neighver Punt down the center of the track once Magic Punk hit the front. Neighver Punt, as he did to win his elimination, laid sight on the leader and extended for the finish to reach the line a winner in 1:52 by 1¾ lengths. Magic Punk clung to second ahead of Strobe Lite in third while Touchedbyanangel held onto fourth.

"We just had no early go there," Dunn said after the race. "He was a little shy [of the starter]. We got away back, but we were following two favorites so I knew we would get a good drag into it. I had to nurse him on the last turn quite a bit but he really exploded off a helmet up the straight. He was struggling a little bit with his gait [being shoeless], but they had the pulldown blind on him tonight. I pulled them down going around the last turn and got him up on the bit. In the home straight, when I really asked him, he was gold.”

A colt by Bar Hopping out of the Donato Hanover mare Twice Is Right, Neighver Punt won his second race from four starts this season and his third race from 13 starts in his career, earning $230,654 for owner Courant Inc. Melander collected his first victory in the Goodtimes Stakes while Dunn earned his second, his first coming back in 2022 when steering Fast As The Wind to victory. Sent off as the second choice in the betting, Neighver Punt paid $7 to win.

Bourbonista S blows away competition in Armbro Flight upset

by Ray Cotolo for Woodbine communications

Sent off as the third longest shot in the betting, Marcus Melander trainee Bourbonista S bounded off the gate from post 9 for a pocket seat and shook free at the right time spinning for home to dart through a wide inside gap and crush her competition in the $215,000 Grade 2 Armbro Flight, for older trotting mares, at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Saturday night (June 13).

Claus Andersen

Bourbonista S (Dexter Dunn) winning the $215,000 Grade 2 Armbro Flight on Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Driver Dexter Dunn dashed forward with Bourbonista S alongside post-10 starter Champagne Problems to brush over the field early barreling for a :26.1 first quarter. Champagne Problems pushed to the lead over Bourbonista S and coasted up the backstretch towards a :55.1 half, where 3-5 favorite Warrawee Michelle flushed off the pylons from fourth as Miracle Maven and Bravo Angel S loomed forward on the outside from the back.

Champagne Problems shortened stride rounding the last turn, thrusting Warrawee Michelle to the fore passing three-quarters in 1:23.2 while Miracle Maven fanned three wide and Bourbonista S maneuvered out from the pocket into a tight seam. Warrawee Michelle set down for the finish with Bourbonista S in the wings, and once Champagne Problems faded out of the mix Dunn had ample room to the pylons to unleash his charge approaching the final eighth. Bourbonista S bounded towards the lead and opened a wide advantage over her peers under a comfortable hold by Dunn to the finish to register a handy 1:50.4 lifetime-best performance by 4¼ lengths. Miracle Maven took second with Warrawee Michelle in third and Dial Square S in fourth following a disqualification of Bravo Angel S from second to 10th due to causing interference in the first turn.

driver Dexter Dunn.

“Marcus [Melander] and the team have done a great job with her,” said Dunn, who earned his first victory in the Armbro Flight with this win. “We left out pretty hot in the first quarter but she traveled great the whole way. If the first quarter wasn’t so hard, I might’ve looked to remove her – we burned a lot of gas there getting out from the wide draw. I didn’t like my spot coming off the turn, though. I was in a bit of trouble, but we got lucky and she really exploded once she got clear. She’s big and strong, and she’s been getting better and better. There was no reason for me not to be confident with her.”

A 5-year-old mare by Face Time Bourbon out of the Joke Face mare Affinity Kronos, Bourbonista S won her second race from six starts this season and her seventh race from 27 starts in her career, banking $259,511. She is owned by Deo Volente Farms LLC and breeder Panamera Racing, and she shattered her previous lifetime best of 1:54, taken in December of last year when with trainer Noel Daley and equaled in her 2026 debut; her first start for Melander.

“She showed a lot of potential in Sweden as a 4-year-old before she was brought over here,” said Melander, who also nabbed his first win in the Armbro Flight. “We just put her in our program for about three months and then qualified and just started to race her. She’s been building up nicely – last time at The Meadowlands we pulled the shoes for the first time and today was the second time, so she got a lot quicker when we did that.”

Bourbonista S, imported to North America in November of 2025 following a campaign in Sweden where she finished prominently behind eventual 2026 Elitloppet champion Allegiant, paid $89.60 to win.

Bravo Angel S crossed the line second, but after an inquiry, was determined to have interfered with Monalishi who finished 10th after an interference break at the quarter. Bravo Angel S was disqualified and placed 10th behind Monalishi who was placed 9th.

Thorn in their side: Miki And Minnie takes Roses Are Red

by Chris Lomon / Woodbine communications

Miki And Minnie, sent on her way as the 8-5 choice, rocketed home to take all the spoils in the Grade 1 $320,000 Roses Are Red final at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Saturday (June 13).

Miki And Minnie, with James MacDonald in the race bike, sat an unhurried fifth through a :26 first quarter carved out by Skywalker Sea in the pacing fixture for fillies and mares, 3-year-olds and up. Grit N Grace tracked in second, followed by The Last Martini and Twin B Joe Fresh, winner of the past two editions of the race.

Skywalker Sea continued to control the flow, while Twin B Joe Fresh was directed to the outside by Dexter Dunn ahead of a half in :54.1. MacDonald and Miki And Minnie were on the move soon after, winding up with a spirited outside rush.

It was Skywalker Sea, at 49-1, still calling the shots through three-quarters in 1:21.1, but a host of rivals came calling, including Miki And Minnie, who stormed to the lead in mid-stretch, and then fended off a serious late surge from The Last Martini to post a three-quarter length win in a new career-best mark of 1:48.1. Louies Girl N, who won her Roses Are Red elimination last Saturday, finished third. Talk Curdy To Me, at 75-1, was fourth.

“Like I said to [trainer] Chris [Ryder] before, you know, when you have a great horse, I find they find good trips on their own,” said MacDonald, who teamed with Miki And Minnie to win their Roses Are Red elimination in 1:50.2. “She’s such a special mare, and it’s just been a privilege to get to sit behind her.

New Image Media

Miki And Minnie (James MacDonald) winning the Roses Are Red on Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

“It’s one thing to see them race and do it all the time, but another thing to sit behind them. I knew she probably would kick back on, but I knew I had two good ones chasing her, and I was just really happy that she kept digging.”

Said Ryder, who also trains Twin B Joe Fresh, “I didn’t have any qualms about [Miki And Minnie] going against the older horses. She’s done it before. We laid her off and brought her back, and she’s just an easy horse to train. She’s just a terrific filly.”

A 4-year-old daughter of Always B Miki out of the Roll With Joe mare That’s The Ticket, Miki And Minnie is 2-0-1 from three starts this season and 21-6-2 from 29 lifetime starts, along with nearly $3 million in purse earnings for owners and breeders Craig Henderson, Robert Mondillo, and Lawrence Minowitz.

Loua Dipa game in record-breaking Fan Hanover win

by Ray Cotolo for Woodbine communications

Driver Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. confidently stayed inside the pocket with Loua Dipa into the last turn and found clearance coming for home to emerge victorious from a neck-and-neck sprint to the finish with unbeaten Be Perfect BG for a stakes-, track-, and Canadian-record victory in the $420,000 Grade 1 Fan Hanover, for 3-year-old pacing fillies, on Saturday (June 13) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Be Perfect BG hustled from the center of the gate, prompting Wrenn, Jr. to accelerate with Loua Dipa out of post 3. Loua Dipa strung out Be Perfect BG through a :26.3 first quarter and comfortably tracked the 3-5 favorite up the backstretch to a :54.2 half. Perfect Thought, an elimination winner, pulled outside from sixth to push uncovered after the other two elimination winners moving to the last turn. As she marched forward, Wrenn, Jr. opted to remain at the cones through the turn and raced locked at the cones behind Be Perfect BG to three-quarters in 1:21.2.

Rounding the bottom corner, Be Perfect BG lifted for home and began drifting off the pylons, giving Wrenn, Jr. a seam to fire. Loua Dipa clawed forward through the final eighth and stretched her neck out late to put away Be Perfect BG in a 1:48.1 mile by a head. Perfect Thought gave chase in third and Sangria Summer took fourth.

"I wanted to sit one-two and as long as Dexter had to use his horse a little bit to clear me, I was happy to sit the 2-hole," said Wrenn Jr., who won for the first time in the Fan Hanover along with trainer Ron Burke. "I got lucky, shook loose late; she's a true champion. Raced great. I was very confident in the horse; she knows how to win. I know she's as tough as nails. She knows where the wire is and dug in late."

Loua Dipa, a homebred Sweet Lou filly out of the Pet Rock mare Looksgoodinaromper for owners Burke Racing Stables LLC and Weaver Brusceci LLC, eclipsed the longstanding Canadian record for 3-year-old pacing fillies of 1:48.2 first set in 2012 by American Jewel in the Fan Hanover Stakes, matched twice in this race – first by Sylvia Hanover in 2023 and then by Its A Love Thing in 2024 – and most recently equaled in 2025 by Miki And Minnie. She won her second race from three starts on the season and her 11th race from 16 starts in her career, earning $1,384,788 in a campaign that already has Ron Burke saying she's the best filly he's ever trained.

"And that's saying a lot," Burke said after the race, "because I can name a ton of other ones, but she's special. She does things other horses can't do. I think we've yet to see even the best of what she can do."

"I don't think ever in her career she's had to go to the inside, so that's something new for her, and she fought all the way and got her head in front. But I give that other filly credit – she didn't quit fighting. She was going right along with her so I was happy to get up."

Sent off as the second choice in the betting, Loua Dipa paid $4.40 to win.

There was a big crowd at Woodbine Mohawk Park for NA Cup Night.

Positive trends at Woodbine Mohawk Park for the Pepsi North America Cup

by Melissa Keith

Pepsi North America Cup night is always one of the year's top cards at Woodbine Mohawk Park and across North America. Even a cursory glance at the crowd makes it clear that fans and bettors who otherwise play from home, at OTBs or not at all, are willing to show up to see the sport's best horses and drivers in action. With summery weather, a fast-racing surface and local celebrity Beau Jangles in the mix, there was a good chance that handle would also reflect the strong attendance.

After Neighver Punt and Dexter Dunn won the first Grand Circuit event of the card, the race 3 Goodtimes final (Grade 2), in 1:52 for trainer Marcus Melander, the atmosphere heightened trackside. Two track security guards keeping watch over the winner's circle area answered questions about how the evening compared with previous editions.

"You know, we have some fairly big ones coming up after this one, but this one here is still the king of kings," said one security guard, an employee of 17 years. He said it was "a bit too early" to judge whether Cup Night 2026 would surpass previous editions.

The audience was "half and half," according to the guard: half old-timers and regulars, half younger people and newcomers to Mohawk.

"It always brings out a lot of people," he said. "We noticed that a lot of the younger kids are coming out. You know: People in their 20s and teens are coming out here looking for something different. On

“ [North America Cup Night] always brings out a lot of people. We noticed that a lot of the younger kids are coming out. You know: People in their 20s and teens are coming out here looking for something different. On top of that, we have the regulars who live nearby, the devoted horse racing fans, whether they're a racer, owner, trainer or just spectators that just love to come here. On a night like this, it just brings everybody out... I heard that they were expecting 8,000 [spectators]...It's kind of hard to keep track, but I know that for the fireworks night in May we had like 5,500 or 6,000. ”

— Mohawk security guard

“I think handle is always pretty good on these nights, and I think it was very good tonight. I think the $5 All-Stakes Pick-3 was a good idea, a good wager, and I think they should try to do more of it on the big nights. The crowd was great. The good thing about nights like this is you get all kinds. You get die-hards; you get newbies; you get tag-alongs, people that family members bring.”

top of that, we have the regulars who live nearby, the devoted horse racing fans, whether they're a racer, owner, trainer or just spectators that just love to come here. On a night like this, it just brings everybody out... I heard that they were expecting 8,000 [spectators]...It's kind of hard to keep track, but I know that for the fireworks night in May we had like 5,500 or 6,000.”

A man sporting a Legends Day shirt from Clinton Raceway stood near the rail, wearing a North America Cup 2026 ball cap autographed by the drivers.

“I like them all,” said Rodney Caswell. “I come to the North America Cup every year and then the Breeders Crown in the fall, when it's here. I've been betting horses 40 years. Mom and dad never gambled, but I got the bug, I guess. We had a farm and I had a pony, and then when I was 19 I got into the racing.”

Like many in the audience, Caswell was previously involved in the industry.

“I mostly raced at Kawartha,” he said. “My brother [Philip Caswell] had one trotter that we raced here a few times, Complete Hand [4, 1:59.2f; $36,462].”

The Newcastle, ON resident had come to Mohawk with “a couple of people from Bowmanville” for North America Cup night.

Caswell said that there was “a very good crowd” in his estimation as a fan who had attended many past editions.

“I think they're doing a good job [with promotion],” he told HRU. “I've been out [as an owner] I'm going to say eight years, but it just gets in your blood and you appreciate it.”

A teller said that there were “more Americans than normal” at the windows, some because “they are here with their horses.” She mentioned that swag and souvenir giveaways might be part of the attraction for some fans, but that many had a good collection already, making this less of a factor in the night's strong attendance.

The record handle for the Pepsi North America Cup card was set in 2022 at Mohawk, with $6,317,624.47 wagered that evening.

Garnet Barnsdale is the handicapper who writes Mohawk's Horseplayer's Journal. He said he was “going to the [North America Cup] race back when it was still the Queen City Pace at Greenwood” and has attended most editions.

Barnsdale observed that attendance and wagering seemed strong this year.

“I think handle is always pretty good on these nights, and I think it was very good tonight,” he said. “I think the $5 All-Stakes Pick-3 was a good idea, a good wager, and I think they should try to do more of it on the big nights. The crowd was great. The good thing about nights like this is you get all kinds. You get die-hards; you get newbies; you get tag-alongs, people that family members bring.”

Barnsdale said that improved attendance was likely to lead to improved handle, despite the sizable percentage of non-wagering children and others in the crowd.

“It would help,” he said. “I would be almost sure that the on-track handle would be better with good attendance, helped by good weather.”

Did Barnsdale think that harness racing might be reaching a new audience because of popular events like the Pepsi North America Cup drawing on-track fans again?

“I don't know for sure, but I very much hope so,” he said.

From the perspective of the public-facing racetrack workers and fans, there have been many changes since 1984, the year that the first North America Cup debuted at Greenwood Raceway.

“I guess we have to be more concerned about the safety of the horses,” a security guard noted of what changed about his job on the big night. “Today is an exception: It's a lot more busy than usual because you've got the biggest race of the year. As I see it, summer is over once the NA Cup is over!”

The 2026 North America Cup, won by Odds On Mr Mamba and driver James MacDonald for trainer Melanie Wrenn, attracted a record $687,448.89 in handle, with a total handle of $5,610,228 for the overall 13-race card. The grand total of on-track wagering for the card was $227,428. The previous highest single-race handle for a North America Cup was $681,000 in 2018.

Spencer Hanover and Nezuko Kamado S get EBC wins at Vernon

by John Horne for Vernon Downs

Vernon Downs played host to the Empire Breeders Classic (EBC) for 3-year-old trotting fillies and sophomore colts and geldings, as well as New York Sire Stakes for male sophomore pacers on Friday (June 12).

Spencer Hanover (Jason Bartlett) won the $176,530 EBC for colts and geldings.

Read The Room (Sarah Svanstedt) took the early lead and led to the quarter in :29. As they headed down the backstretch Spencer Hanover ($2.10) made his move first-over from third and took command going to the half in :58.1. He then cruised to three quarters in 1:26.1.

As they reached the stretch Read The Room popped out of the pocket and went after the leader but could not get to Spencer Hanover. Second place finisher Twin B Seven Sins (Niko Karna) made a strong late bid, but Spencer Hanover had the jump and won in 1:54.3. Seven Grand (Ake Svanstedt) finished third.

Spencer Hanover is a colt by Chapter Seven. He is trained by Marcus Melander for owners Jeffrey Snyder and Arthur Pronti. He is now four-for-four in 2026. It was his seventh career victory.

Nezuko Kamado S (Scott Zeron) took the $195,020 EBC for fillies.

Nezuko Kamado S (Scott Zeron) won the Empire Breeders Classic final for 3-year-old trotting fillies.

Sharp Seven (Jeff Gregory) laid down all the early fractions, and was first to the quarter in :28, to the half in :56.2, and three quarters in 1:24.3.

As they reached the stretch, the first to make a move was second-place finisher R Ro (Tyler Buter). Nezuko Kamado S ($3.24) came flying from the far outside and blew on by to win equalling her lifetime mark of 1:52.4. Lauren's Chapter (Niko Karma) finished third.

Nezuko Kamado S is a filly by Chapter Seven and is owned by Courant Inc. and trained by Marcus Melander. She is two-for-two as a sophomore and now has eight career first-place finishes.

Knoxville (Tyler Buter) dominated the $121,800 New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) for pacing sophomore colts and geldings.

Knoxville ($3.62) charged to the quarter in :28.1, and led to the half in :56.1. He found another gear as he widened the lead going around the final turn and was first to three quarters in 1:23.1.

As they made the turn for home it became a race for second as Knoxville won in a lifetime best of 1:50.3. Mighty Matt (Braxten Boyd) got second place money, while Hunt Off The Press (Jason Bartlett) finished third.

Knoxville is a colt by Huntsville, and is owned by Milton Leeman, Louis Palumbo, Ted Gewertz, and trainer Ray Schnitker. It was his third win this season. He now has four career victories.

'Norway' marches on at BIG M, wins 27th straight

by Dave Little / Meadowlands media relations

On To Norway silenced any doubters he might have had, as the Indiana invader upped his winning streak to 27 after taking one of four $50,000 splits of the second leg of the Graduate Series for 4-year-olds of both gaits Friday night (June 12) at The Meadowlands.

The gelded son of Muscle Massive—One Class Act got away from the gate third in the first division for trotters before moving to the lead at the half in :55.2. With Yannick Gingras steering the Ron Burke trainee, On To Norway hit three-quarters in 1:23.1 while pressured by Meshuggah before shrugging off that foe and drawing clear to an easy 1:49.3 score, a lifetime best which equaled the fastest mile of the year in the sport on the trot, which was established earlier on the card.

"He did it pretty easy," said Gingras. "He had plenty left [in the stretch]."

As the 4-5 favorite, On To Norway returned $3.60 to his backers after winning for the 31st time from 37 lifetime starts.

Super Chapter gave notice that he's gunning for a second-straight divisional title after crushing his foes in the second division for trotters in a lifetime-best 1:49.3 in his seasonal debut.

The Marcus Melander trainee, who earned $1.2 million during a sensational 2025, picked up right where he left off, as driver Dexter Dunn put him on the lead and never had an anxious moment while cutting out fractions of :27.3, :55.4, and 1:23.3. His mile time is the co-fastest of the year in the sport on the trot, along with On To Norway.

A son of Chapter Seven—Lifetime Pursuit, Super Chapter has now won 15 of 26 lifetime starts, good for earnings just shy of $1.8 million. As the 2-5 favorite, he paid $2.80.

In the first of two Graduate dashes on the pace, Go Go Grasshopper, an excellent upper-echelon overnight horse when last seen in December, showed he is now something more.

The ridgling by Sweet Lou—Faster Faster went all the way on the front end for trainer/driver Joe Bongiorno in his seasonal debut. After reaching the half in a tepid :56, "Grasshopper" roared home to the tune of a :52.3 back half to stop the clock in a lifetime-best 1:48.3. The pocket-sitting Swingtown was moving to the winner in deep stretch only to come up a nose short. Bruno No No No, the 4-5 favorite, went first-up for the final half and had to settle for third.

As the 8-5 second choice in the betting, Go Go Grasshopper returned $5.40 to win as he scored for the seventh time from just 18 lifetime starts. Smooth Dream, who went eight-for-eight at The Meadowlands a year ago, finished fourth.

Captain Optimistic, the Nancy Takter trainee who was a major player on the sophomore male pacing trail a year ago, sent out word that he might be a superstar as a 4-year-old, unleashing a season's-fastest 1:46.4 score in the second Graduate pace with Scott Zeron at the controls.

The son of Captaintreachorous—Cinamony brushed to the lead at the half in a demanding :53.2 before pacing his back half in an identical :53.2 clocking to complete the mile in an effort that lowered his previous lifetime best by one-and-one-fifth seconds.

He returned $7.60 as the 5-2 second choice in the betting after winning for the 14th time in 34 career tries. His earnings are now just under $1.2 million.

A LITTLE MORE: Bookie J, at No. 6 the highest-ranked horse in the track's Road to the Meadowlands Pace Top 10 poll not racing in the North America Cup, had an easy time of it in a New Jersey Standardbred Development Fund pace, going wire-to-wire in a lifetime-best 1:48.4 as the 1-9 favorite for Dunn and trainer Chris Ryder to stay perfect in five 2026 outings... Rodney Duncan, with a final bankroll of $822, and John Skladany, $497, finished 1-2, respectively, in the $1,000 Meadowlands Monthly Handicapping Contest. Each has now earned a spot in the $10,000 contest final on Dec. 12... Dunn led the drivers with five wins on the card while Melander led the trainers with four walks down victory lane... All-source betting on the 14-race program totaled $2,581,056.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Apex prevails in NJSS Platinum final

by James Witherite / Meadowlands media relations

After coming up just short of stablemate American Power in his 2026 debut last week, divisional Dan Patch Award winner Apex absolutely looked the part of a 1-9 favorite in his second seasonal showing, posting a career-best 1:50.3 win in Friday's (June 12) $225,000 New Jersey Sire Stakes Platinum Division final for 3-year-old male trotters at The Meadowlands.

Dexter Dunn was in no hurry early with the Walner–Mission Brief colt, landing in fifth on approach to the first turn as Diabolic Hill (driven by Todd McCarthy) and American Power (Mattias Melander) advanced to dispute the early lead. Following a brief pocket tuck behind Diabolic Hill, American Power pushed forward to control a :27.4 first quarter before yielding to Diabolic Hill on the backstretch. Meanwhile, Dunn and Apex were lurking on the outside after angling off the pegs midway on the first turn and gradually floating forward, and they accelerated to take charge at the :55.2 halfway station.

On the far turn, American Power began a second move when Ardonne (Scott Zeron) flushed him out with five-sixteenths to go, but he could only offer mild pressure to Apex past the 1:23.3 three-quarters before leveling off in the stretch. Apex was kept to his task by mild Dunn encouragement in mid-stretch, and he threw down a :27 closing sectional to keep Diabolic Hill's inside bid a half-length at bay with plenty in reserve. American Power protected third, another three lengths in arrears.

"He had a great year last year, but he's definitely matured a lot," said Dunn of Apex. "We were out until the half, and when he got the front, he was marching on and feeling great... Hopefully this guy's on track for another good season."

A seven-time winner from 11 starts, Apex has earned $990,548 for Jeffrey Snyder, S R F Stable, and Steve Stewart. The Marcus Melander trainee paid $2.20 to win.

Dunn and Melander teamed up to also take the $40,000 New Jersey Sire Stakes Silver Division final for 3-year-old male trotters with the Muscle Hill–Nixie Volo gelding Nix Nacken, who rolled to a world-record 1:50 victory for Courant Inc. Dunn also captured the $40,000 New Jersey Sire Stakes Silver final for 3-year-old trotting fillies, teaming Carter Pinske trainee Brattitude, a daughter of Tactical Landing–Love Muffin, to a 1:52.3 win for the partnership of Robert LeBlanc, David Anderson, Pryde Stables Inc., and John Fielding.

In the $225,000 New Jersey Sire Stakes Platinum final for 3-year-old trotting fillies, Madam Cheval overcame mid-race traffic trouble by fanning five-wide off the home turn and closing into a collapsing pace for a lifetime-best 1:51.3 score.

Tim Tetrick dove Madam Cheval into the pocket to draft behind Emmas Mystery CCL (Andy McCarthy) through a :27.4 first quarter, but the pair was quickly relegated to fourth as Oak Grove Trotting Oaks winner Jailbird Jog (Anthony MacDonald) sustained her three-wide push through the first turn to eclipse both the two-wide Custom (Jason Bartlett) and Emmas Mystery CCL and take charge upon reaching the backstretch. As Jailbird Jog pulled the tempo back slightly through a :56.1 half-mile, 3-2 favorite Naked And Famous (Todd McCarthy) began her first-over push out of midfield, and the advancing outer tier caused Madam Cheval to be shuffled back to seventh midway on the far turn.

With five-sixteenths to go, Naked And Famous had put a length on Jailbird Jog but failed to clear her stubborn inside foe and began to tire off the corner for home. Meanwhile, Tetrick found room to angle Madam Cheval fourth-over before fanning the Walner–Shake It Cerry filly five-wide past three-quarters in 1:24.1. Jailbird Jog reclaimed the lead and extended it back to a length at the eighth pole, but the third-quarter pressure did her in as a host of pursuers from off the pace engulfed her in the final yards. Madam Cheval closed best down the grandstand side to eclipse stablemate Leading Lady (Scott Zeron), who emerged three-wide around the tiring Naked And Famous, by a neck. Custom split foes in deep stretch to save third.

Naked And Famous faded to finish ninth in the 10-horse field.

“I got a little lucky to get out down the backside into third-over position, but once she got clear sailing, she knew what to do,” said Tetrick of Madam Cheval, whom Nancy Takter trains for Maurizio Biasuzzi’s M. Biasuzzi Stable Inc. “She’s come back really good this year; every start’s been a good one.”

A four-time winner from 16 starts, Madam Cheval boosted her career earnings to $248,552 with her third win from four attempts this season. Sent off as the 9-1 fifth choice, she paid $21.60 to win.

Indiana SIRE STAKES REPORT

Door Dash delivers the upset in INSS

by Connor Mahoney / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Door Dash driven by Kevin Lambright for trainer Trent Stohler left the field stunned by pulling off a monster upset (paying $85) while winning the $95,000 second leg of Indiana Sires Stakes for 3-year-old colt and gelding pacers at Hoosier on Friday (June 12).

Slotted in post 1, Door Dash elected to put in a bid for an early lead before What Nooo Waaay (John De Long) crossed over in front of him to front the field of eight. At the quarter in :26.3, What Nooo Waaay led the field single file tightly followed by Door Dash and King Tellit (Jay Cross) in third.

Along the backstretch, the pacers remained unchanged with What Nooo Waaay leading the charge. Growing restless, Mystical Rock It (LeWayne Miller) challenged the leading trio along the outside, while the back of the field raced to the half in :55.1.

The post time 1-9 favorite Swiss Lights (Trace Tetrick) had to navigate a breaking Dancingdreamer (Marcus Miller) on the backstretch, moving around the interference to give chase in fifth on the far turn. What Nooo Waaay held strong to the three-quarters in 1:22.4 while Door Dash stalked from the pocket in second.

Door Dash took aim at the leader turning for home, tipping from the 2-hole and moving alongside What Nooo Waaay.

Battling a tough trip earlier in the race, Swiss Lights moved into second but Door Dash was gone on the lead midway through the lane. Rocketing home in :26, the 41-1 longshot Door Dash completed its delivery with time to spare at the wire in 1:49.1 three lengths clear. Swiss Lights rallied for second, while Aces And Cinches (Kyle Wilfong) got up for third.

The Rockin Image gelding, Door Dash, is bred and owned by Trent Stohler Stable Inc., Benjamin Graber, and Tim Graber. Door Dash rocketed his lifetime earnings to $60,650 for his third win of the season.

DAN D MAN CAN, SAN PATRICIO STAY PERFECT IN INSS

A pair of sophomore trotting colts remained perfect on the season as Dan D Man Can and San Patricio took their respective divisions of the second leg of Indiana Sires Stakes on Thursday (June 11) at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

The Erv Miller trained Dan D Man Can teamed up with regular pilot Atlee Bender to take the $49,500 first split on the evening.

In post 4, Dan D Man Can took his time out of the gate hovering around the middle of the seven-horse field as Swan Affect (Marcus Miller) looked to set the tone gliding to the lead just ahead of Inverness Ave (John De Long). Swan Affect maintained his tempo showing the way for the rest of the field to the first quarter in :28.

The field started to expand as the duo of Swan Effect and Inverness Ave hoped to separate themselves from Kousin Karl (Trace Tetrick) and the post time favorite Dan D Man Can. Eventually, the trotters started to regroup while Swan Affect held the line strong to the halfway point in :56.1. Kousin Karl drifted wide to challenge Inverness Ave with Swan Affect nodding past the three-quarters in 1:24.4.

Beginning to close the gap from fourth, Dan D Man Can moved to the outside with sights set on the lead trio. Hanging on by a thread, Swan Affect battled off Inverness Ave and Kousin Karl; however, Dan D Man Can was shot out of a cannon down the outside in :27.3 to surge clear by a length on the line in 1:53.3. Swan Affect held on for second, while Inverness Ave got up for third.

The Dover Dan gelding is owned by Red Barn Stable, Douglas Overhiser, and Lava Java Stable. Dan D Man Can was bred by Homestead Acres. Dan D Man Can added his third straight win of the season to boost his lifetime earnings to $189,715, and paid $3.40 to win.

San Patricio driven by Trace Tetrick for trainer Tyler Butenschoen backed up his recent performances staying hot to dominate the $50,000 second division.

From the jump, the post time favorite San Patricio out of post 6 took little time to find the lead in front of Sunday Swagger (Marcus Miller) and lead the field of eight to the quarter in :28. San Patricio remained in front down the backstretch with the closest trotters, Sunday Swagger and August Salazar (John De Long), from second and third. Claiming the halfway mark in :56, San Patricio led a pack of four Sunday Swagger, August Salazar, and Bravo Alpha (Kyle Wilfong) leaving the rest of the field behind.

The field stayed the same at the turn to the stretch in 1:24.1 as San Patricio was not giving the rest of the field an inch. Battling for position, August Salazar wore down Sunday Swagger along the outside. It was too little too late for August Salazar as San Patricio did not falter down the stretch home free to the wire in 1:52.4, 2¾ lengths clear. August Salazar climbed to second, while Sunday Swagger fought off the field for third.

The 3-year-old San Patricio is owned by Tony Holmes, Michael Holmes, June Zent, and Timothy Thornton. San Patricio was bred by Tony Holmes and Walter Zent. The Swan For All gelding increased his lifetime earnings to $163,900 on his third-straight win to start his sophomore season and paid $2.40.

HARNESS RACING PRESS RELEASES, NOTES & ANNOUNCEMENTS

Trainer Chris Ryder wins 2,000th

On Thursday (June 4), Hall of Fame horseman Chris Ryder recorded his 2,000th training win in North America since the USTA statistics began to be kept in 1991, with his son Patrick (now in the Top 10 at Philly) driving Chris' own Piano Man, a Bettor's Wish sophomore gelding, to a maiden win in 1:53.4 in the day's opener. Chris, a native of New Zealand, is currently training two of the free-for-all pacing mares' toughest individuals, 2024 Horse of the Year Twin B Joe Fresh and double Dan Patch winner Miki And Minnie; it would take many more lines of print to name all of the good horses that have benefited from the direction of Chris over the last three-plus decades.

Troy Beyer, like Pat Ryder both 31 years old and a member of the Philly sulky leaders, continues to be the hero of the local longshot players after bringing home Blue Cupertino at a mutuel of $91.40. It was Beyer's fourth $50+ "bomber" at the meet; no other driver has more than one.

Simon Allard had a very big day on Thursday, reaching the wire first five times, twice for trainer and sometimes-partner (A 1 Racing) Mark Akins. Driver Corey Callahan had a double, as did trainer Joe Columbo.

Next week at Harrah's Philadelphia, 2-year-olds are on the condition sheet. Free Philly program pages are or will be available at www.phha.org.

McCoy and Hoovler series finals held at Scioto

Filly pacers were on display Friday (June 12) at Eldorado Scioto Downs as two more $30,000 series finals were held in the Steve McCoy and Skip Hoovler events for NW1 and NW2 fillies, respectively.

The Steve McCoy, for those that were non-winners of one, was oversubscribed in the two legs leading to Friday's final, with four divisions each week. All the winners were back for the final and it was Sea Me and Luke Hanners who prevailed in 1:51.3 over stablemate Zoom Call (Chris Page). Setting fractions of :27.1 and :55.4 before being challenged going down the backside by Estuary (Marvin Luna), Sea Me fought back at the 1:22.4 third-quarter to win by a neck.

Co-owned by trainer Virgil Morgan, Jr., Let It Ride Stables and Odds On Racing, Sea Me is now three-for-four lifetime with $31,500 earned. The Downbytheseaside filly is out of the Bettors Delight mare Single Me and was unraced at 2.

Rodeo Dancer swept the Skip Hoovler for non-winners of two pacers, winning in 1:50.2 with Brett Miller at the lines for trainer Steve Bauder. Leaving from post 5, Miller looked to keep rolling through the opening quarter but took a brief seat as the field went around the first turn. Shortly after the :26.1 opening quarter, Rodeo Dancer rolled up to take the lead and tripped the beam at the :53.2 half and 1:22 third-quarter. Laude Da (Page) came three-wide but could only get within four-and-a-quarter lengths of the race winner.

Rodeo Dancer is by Rodeo Romeo out of the Somebeachsomewhere mare Parts Unknown. Owned and bred by Oompas Farm and Robert Mondillo, the 3-year-old filly now has four wins in 12 lifetime starts and $104,200 in earnings.

The 91-day 2026 Eldorado Scioto Downs regular season runs through Sept. 19. Races are held Tuesday-Saturday, with a special holiday card on Labor Day instead of the Tuesday card that week. The track will then re-open for the Breeders Crown, with eliminations held Oct. 16-17 and the finals Oct. 23-24. More information about all the racing action at Scioto can be found on the Eldorado Scioto Downs website.

Buffalo Raceway to eliminate passing lane in 2027

When Buffalo Raceway reopens for the live harness racing season in March of 2027, there will be a big change on the track. Starting next season, the passing lane, also known as the "lightning lane," will be eliminated.

Buffalo Raceway chief operating officer James Mango said of the move, "It is our hope that the racing will be more competitive and less boring. It has all become too routine despite the full fields and good purses."

The Western New York Harness Horsemen's Association president Michael Torcello said of the switch, "Half-mile track racing can sometimes get stale. Whenever Buffalo Raceway management feels they can add excitement to our racing and make the product better, we are happy to cooperate."

For the rest of the season, which concludes on Saturday (July 18), the passing lane will still be effect.

$3,091 carryover and $20,000 guaranteed pool in Monday's Pick 5 at Yonkers

Nobody had five of five in the Pick-5 on Friday night (June 12) at MGM Yonkers Raceway, meaning there will be a $3,091.42 carryover when racing resumes on Monday (June 15). That will also bump the normal $10,000 guarantee in the sequence on a Monday program up to $20,000.

The guarantee in the Pick-5 is being offered as part of the United States Trotting Association's Strategic Wagering Program, and free past performances for the Pick-5, courtesy of TrackMaster, will be available at handicapping.ustrotting.com. The Pick-5, which begins in race 5 and has a $1 minimum, has a takeout rate of 20 per cent.

Stakes action returns to the oval with eliminations for the Grade 2 MGM Grand Messenger Stakes and Grade 2 MGM Yonkers Trot (if necessary) for 3-year-old males coming up on Friday (June 19). Those races will begin this year's Pacing and Trotting Triple Crowns, and the finals the following Friday (June 26) will be joined by the companion Grade 3 New York New York Mile and Grade 3 Park MGM Pace for 3-year-old fillies.

MGM Yonkers Raceway is operating on a Monday through Friday live racing schedule with post time each night at 6:45 p.m. (EDT).

Last chance to nominate to the Next Generation

Nominations are still open for the Next Generation events for Ohio-sired 2-year-olds, but time is running out! Those interested in securing a spot can make a $12,000 nomination by June 15. The Next Generation for all four 2-year-old divisions will be held Saturday (July 4).

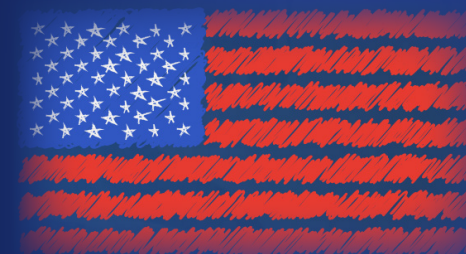

Each division is limited to nine (9) entrants with eight (8) spots needing purchased in order for the event to fill. If more nominations are received for any division that would exceed nine entrants, a lottery drawing will be held only between those nominations received since the May 15 deadline; anyone who previously submitted a nomination by the April 15 or May 15 deadlines is guaranteed a spot.

Full conditions for The Next Generation are available on the USTA website at horsemen.ustrotting.com.

The 91-day 2026 Eldorado Scioto Downs regular season runs through Sept. 19. Races are held Tuesday-Saturday, with a special holiday card on Labor Day instead of the Tuesday card that week. The track will then re-open for the Breeders Crown, with eliminations held Oct. 16-17 and the finals Oct. 23-24. More information about all the racing action at Scioto can be found on the Eldorado Scioto Downs website.
