Connections hope Brandon Blvd intersects with the Meadowlands Pace winner's circle

by Debbie Little

MEADOWLANDS MATTERS

with DEBBIE LITTLE

When you're installed as the 3-5 morning-line favorite for one of the richest purses in the sport, you're expected to win.

That's the position that owners Punisher 11 Stable LLC find themselves in with their colt Brandon Blvd for the Grade 1, $810,000 Meadowlands Pace tomorrow night (July 11) at The Meadowlands.

The 3-year-old open pace, presented by Genova Burns LLC, would be the biggest win for the combined ownership of Bill Pollock, Bruce Areman, and Andrew Harris, now known collectively as Punisher 11.

"I thought that would be better and easier [going in as the favorite] – wrong, it's harder," Pollock said. "If 'Brandon' goes in not as the favorite and we don't win, all right, we didn't win, we gave it a good shot. But when you're the overwhelming favorite, which maybe we will be, and you lose, it's 'Man, what happened? What did you do?' You know, it's a whole new ball game."

As a 13-time All-American softball player, Pollock knows quite a bit about competing and winning, and it's from his competition days and his jersey number where their stable gets its name.

"Our softball team went 132-13 one year traveling the country," he said. "Everybody was big, everybody was strong, everybody had nicknames hitting home runs, so I was 'The Punisher.'"

Brandon Blvd (Dexter Dunn) winning his Meadowlands Pace elimination last Saturday.

Pollock was brought into the sport a few years ago by his longtime friend Areman.

"He's learned a lot in the last three years," Areman said. "He loves the business. Somebody like him is just a gem for this business."

“I would be so happy for this horse to win, because it’s everything for him. He wants that big horse. He’s always wanted that big horse, but to have it come with one that we bought as a baby, and you know, that Andrew developed, would be pretty cool.

The Punisher Posse purchased the son of Downbytheseaside—Alexis Faith, sold under the name Wayne Harvey, at the 2024 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale for $425,000.

“When I bought him, I loved this horse,” Harris said. “He was the one horse I had circled in the book, like, ‘We have to walk away with that horse’... I didn’t love his name when I bought him. Actually, I hated his name when I bought him.

“When I was working for [trainer] Casie [Coleman], I had Alexis Faith and she was a freak of a mare... So, breeding side, I was like, this is a home run right here, and then when I saw the colt himself, a big, good-looking strapping colt with a super bright eye, sharp animal, and I wasn’t the only one that saw this. This was one of the most expensive pacing yearlings at that sale. Everybody saw what I saw... he just looked the part.”

Harris had the name Brandon Blvd in mind because it’s the street where Pollock and several members of his family live.

“I think that the best horses that I have been around always have a cool story behind them, and I don’t know what it is, but you can find a lot of champions that have a cool story behind their name,” Harris said. “So, I’d always had it in my head that when we got a good one, we’ve got to name it something cool, and you know, seeing that almost their whole family lives on that road, that road means a lot to them. So, I was like, ‘When we get the right one, we’re going to name him Brandon,’ and he was just the one that seemed to fit the bill.”

Dave Landry
Trainer Andrew Harris at The Red Mile in September of 2025.

Harris has adopted a simple philosophy when it comes to going in as the Pace favorite.

“So, this is a new experience for me,” Harris said with a laugh. “I think I’m indifferent to it. I don’t pay attention to the noise as much. I just stay off my phone during big races and stuff like that, and don’t look at all the social media stuff. I just try to stay in my lane and try to make sure that my horse is as good as he can be, and then if I’ve done my job and [driver] Dex [Dunn] does his job, and the horse does his job, then we’re all going to be smiling at the end of the day.”

Pollock said he’s experiencing some emotions of his own heading into tomorrow night.

“I was talking about that with somebody today, and I told them it’s very difficult, because you’re nervous with somebody else performing rather than you doing it,” Pollock said. “Because, when I played all over the country and in Canada, I wasn’t nervous when I was playing. Watching my horses race, I’m extremely nervous, and I don’t know why. I don’t know why I am, but for this race on Saturday, I’ll be on edge for this race.

“First place is [around] $400,000 for Saturday. Second place would be $200,000. I’d take $200,000 for first right now, rather than $400,000 for second, because it’s the reputation of the Meadowlands Pace that I want for this horse.

“Money is important. You can’t keep the car running without gas, so that’s very important, but it’s not the only thing. Otherwise, who would do harness racing if all you’re worried about is money? There are other investments to do besides harness racing, I’m sure, that make a lot more money, but once you’re in it, you really get the bug of it, and I really enjoy the prestige of the horses winning.”

New, increased late wagers is an enhanced touch to Meadowlands Pace card

by Brett Sturman

Before getting into the Meadowlands Pace night racing action, one of the recurring themes of this column through the years has been advocating a need for higher minimum base wagers. I believe that the race to the bottom for small 10 and 20-cent wagers hasn't been conducive to growing handle or generating high payouts.

With that, I was pleasantly surprised to see the announcement from The Meadowlands this week that beginning on Pace Night they would be raising the base wager for their final Pick-3 of the night from $1 to $3 and increasing the base wager for the Late Double from $2 to $5. I love the concept of thinking bigger.

For many traditionalists, the idea of a $3 Pick-3 or a $5 Double might sound extreme, but it's been proven over the past year or so in the thoroughbred industry. I first started noticing an even higher $5 late Pick-3 and $5 Double earlier this year at tracks like Oaklawn and Keeneland. Even the Horseshoe Indianapolis thoroughbred track runs the $5 Late Double and has cited its popularity and success. With The Meadowlands being one of only a small handful of harness racing tracks that have a high enough handle in general to support the increase in the late wagers, I think it's absolutely worth a shot to try it and see if it catches on.

I've already seen some of the detractors of the idea on social media with the arguments mainly being that it's pricing out the smaller players. I don't agree with it. An incremental increase in only these two wagers, especially knowing that the other two Doubles and all other Pick-3's on the card are still at the standard base denomination is a healthy experiment. It certainly does force a typical retail player to more carefully construct their tickets, especially in the Pick-3 as they can't spread out their tickets as much if sticking with the same budget, but in that process, it does force more strategic handicapping. There's going to be an adjustment period but I'll be very curious to see if The Meadowlands can prove it out. I think it has a real chance of being successful and perhaps the start of a newer trend.

As for the super 14-race card itself, here are my thoughts on some horses that caught my eye of late.

RACE 9 – $425,000 GRADE 1 HAMBLETONIAN MATURITY

The drive that Yannick Gingras delivered last week with On To Norway in the Graduate final should go down as one of the best of his entire career. Working out a second-over trip from post 9, it looked like he might get caught in a blind switch as Super Chapter made a three-wide move to his outside. But Gingras waited patiently, assessed correctly that there was room about to open on the inside, angled in, caught a fortuitous break when the horse to his outside broke, and then was able to split and come through for the record win in 1:48.3. Super Chapter was game in defeat and I'm looking forward to seeing what the rematch of these two brings. Walspea held remarkably well last week as the one who set the fast fractions; responded nicely to the Tetrick driver change. Go Dog Go was too far back last week but maybe Todd McCarthy can make some magic happen here from post 11 in a 13-horse field.

RACE 10 – $810,000 GRADE 1 MEADOWLANDS PACE FINAL

Brandon Blvd looms the heavy chalk to take home this year's Meadowlands Pace, and rightfully so. He may have wound up the favorite even without the defection of two of the top 3-year-olds and following last week's elimination win in 1:47.3 and at this rate his record speaks for itself. The closest threat should be Sweet Lovin Lou who arrived late last week to be a decent second to Brandon Blvd and also chased him willingly late in a mile this spring at Woodbine Mohawk. Gentleman's Cup put up that big 1:47.4 win here at the end of June; Governor's Cup winner can maybe put a scare into the favorite with his very best. Al Papi represents perhaps the best of the four Burke entrants. Messenger runner-up was fighting on at the end of the North America Cup race and will be involved early. I've liked stablemate Melillo but so far it looks like he's not quite as strong as he was last year.

RACE 8 – $135,700 GRADE 2 WILLIAM HAUGHTON MEMORIAL DIVISION 1

Ervin Hanover has been huge in every start in the year thus far and was so good last week that he was able to overcome his 0-for-8 curse at The Meadowlands and roll impressively to a 1:46.3 win, just one-fifth off his lifetime best of 1:46.2 taken last year at Woodbine Mohawk Park. In his way on Saturday will be the 4-year-old Captain Optimistic, who "graduated" last week in a time of an identical 1:46.3 to Ervin Hanover, and that's the second time in his last three starts that he's gone sub-1:47. It seems like a lot to go from beating (top) restricted 4-year-olds to the older and more seasoned Ervin Hanover, but it will be a good barometer as to how some of these best Graduate horses may fare as the year goes on in the FFA pacing wars. The second William Haughton Memorial in race 11 isn't without top stars either. It's a wide-open race where Fallout, Ken Hanover, Captain Albano, Lou Hill – or even Oakwood Ardan IR who has surprised against these just like he almost did last week – could win.

RACE 3 – $143,150 GRADE 2 DEL MILLER MEMORIAL DIVISION 2

In this second of two Del Miller Memorial splits, Ygritte has emerged as an unforeseen Hambletonian Oaks contender. Now five-for-five on the year, she surprised in her second start back in May when wearing down All Time Trot S first-over to win the Lady Suffolk and has kept on her winning ways since then. She hasn't raced since June 19, but was flattered when a colt who she beat two races ago (It Could Be Worse) came back to win a Reynolds division last week here in 1:50.3. Other contenders in this race include R Ro, She's Moni, with race favoritism likely going to the outside filly, Jailbird Jog. Waiting for Svandstedt to deliver with Isabella Bi one of these nights too. The Del Miller Memorial in the preceding race 2 features Nezuko Kamado S against Leading Lady.

RACE 4 – $145,900 GRADE 3 STANLEY DANCER MEMORIAL DIVISION 1

Hambletonian contenders abound in the two Dancer splits. As referenced a moment ago, It Could Be Worse stole away on the front-end last week in his Reynolds division to turn back at the 1-5 favored Nix Nacken en route to that 1:50.3 score. For Nix Nacken, his heavy favoritism was warranted following his 1:50-flat win two back in the New Jersey Sires Stakes Silver final but the first-over trip didn't work out for him last week in a race where maybe Dunn was a little too confident. Last year's Breeders Crown winner Spencer Hanover is hard to gauge. Aside from the break at Yonkers in his last start, I thought his 1:54.3 two back at Vernon was just okay. But prior races from Oak Grove, especially that 1:51.3 win over top Hambletonian prospect Endurance, was excellent. Highland Destiny broke last week here in the Reynolds but looks to have an upside. In race 6's second Dancer division is last year's divisional champion and most lists' #1 Hambletonian prospect, Apex. Also in that race is Yonkers Trot winner Inexpressable. Despite Tetrick engineering the upset win in that race at the extended distance, it looks like Zeron will get the call now.

RACE 5 – $180,120 GRADE 3 JERRY SILVERMAN MEMORIAL

The first matchup between Loua Dipa and Be Perfect BG did not disappoint at all but now round 2 comes on the Saturday Pace card. Both fillies raced their hearts out in that narrow 1:48.1 win by Loua Dipa in the Fan Hanover. Be Perfect BG was actually favored over Loua Dipa in that Fan Hanover race but has the outside post 9 to deal with in this spot at The Meadowlands. Loua Dipa was upset the last time she raced at The Meadowlands, with a loss coming to She's A Bulldog in November's Three Diamonds final. It's to be seen if they can elevate to the level of the top two, but fillies such as I'm A Lou Lou, Perfect Thought, Darlin's Angel, and even the NJSDF winner Car Keys have talent.

RACE 7 – $165,750 GRADE 2 DOROTHY HAUGHTON MEMORIAL

Chris Ryder stars Miki And Minnie and Twin B Joe Fresh separated themselves as the best two mares in last week's Perfect Sting and will look to dominate a similar bunch here in the Dorothy Haughton. Miki And Minnie was game to track down Twin B Joe Fresh in that race and as a result has been elevated to the No. 1 ranked horse in the sport, while equally strong was Twin B Joe Fresh who looks to have come back now to her better form. Louies Girl N will look to upset the Ryder duo as she moves from post 9 last week down to the rail position now.

The $425,000 Grade 1 E.T. Gerry, Jr. Hambletonian Maturity at 1 and 1/8 miles is without doubt one of the toughest handicapping tasks given me in years. Thirteen go to the gate (as of this column's deadline three days before the race) with more than a good argument for each. That alone makes it a near-impossible task to assign odds equaling 100 per cent with any confidence of accuracy. My suggestion is to pass betting to win on the race and enjoy it as a spectator.

Nothing compares to the Meadowlands Pace

by Bob Heyden

Saturday (July 11) is the 50th edition of the Meadowlands Pace and absolutely nothing can hold a candle to the last 49 years of this classic. History was made everywhere. Let's take a look at some of the great moments.

1. It started out a very big deal in 1977 as the richest race ever at $425,000 and was won by a New Jersey local Carl LeCause and Escort who then stood stud in the Garden State.
2. John Campbell has a record seven Pace trophies and Tim Tetrick has six. Tetrick has a chance to tie with longshot Toby Or Not Toby tomorrow night.
3. Twelve times the Meadowlands Pace has gone faster than 1.48 flat.
4. The sports very first $1 million race was indeed a Meadowlands Pace (1980) won by Niatross. It was the fourth edition and each time it was the sports all time highest-ever pot.
5. Beach Towel won the 1990 Pace from post 10 and surged past $2 million for that season. The first to do so in one year.
6. Harry Poulton had a pair of 1980s Pace winners named On The Road Again (1984) and Matt's Scooter (1988). Neither was favored.
7. The Pace had no disqualifications in the first 44 years and now two in the past five years.
8. Seven times the track record has been set in the Meadowlands Pace.

9. Three times the Pace winning driver has been 25 or under: Braxten Boyd (25) last year with Madden Oaks, Tim Tetrick (25) in 2007 with Southwind Lynx, and the youngest Montrell Teague (24) in 2015 with Wiggle It Jiggleit.

10. The first five Meadowlands Pace winners had the driver also training, but only Ray Remmen has done it since 1990 with Beach Towel.

11. Niatross is the only reigning HOY (1979) to compete in the Meadowlands Pace (1980). Beau Jangles will not join him this year.

12. The Pace has gone for as much as $1,293,000 in 1984 (On The Road Again).

13. No driver has won this back-to-back since 2013-14 when Tim Tetrick did so with Captaintreacheraus and He's Watching.

14. Twenty-five straight Meadowlands Pace finals have gone sub 1:50. The last that didn't was HOY Gallo Blue Chip in 2000 with a decisive 1:50.4 victory.

15. Bill Robinson is the last trainer to win it consecutively doing so with Presidential Ball and Cams Card Shark in 1993 and 1994, respectively.

16. Over 50? Brian Sears did it last at 51 in 2019 with Best In Show. David Miller the year prior at 53 with Courtly Choice. Ron Pierce had his last two Pace victories after turning 50: Well Said (2009) and Roll With Joe (2011) at 53 and 55, respectively.

17. John Campbell's first ever million-dollar win came in the Meadowlands Pace with Hilarion.

18. Jason Bartlett will look to get on the Meadowlands Pace board this year with Bookie J.

19. Ralph Hanover and Niatross are the only two Triple Crown winners to also take down the Meadowlands Pace, in 1983 and 1980, respectively, both setting single season earnings records those same years.

20. The two ladies who have captured Pace glory did so back-to-back: Linda Toscano in 2019 with Best In Show and Nancy Takter followed with HOY Tall Dark Stranger.

CAN HHYF GRADS GO BACK-TO-BACK IN THE MEADOWLANDS PACE?

Cameron Capone is a Harness Horse Youth Foundation grad and captured the Pace last year with Madden Oaks and this year Besim Odza will try to make it back-to-back for HHYF.

Hall of Fame welcomes Class of 2026

To watch a replay of the 2026 Hall of Fame induction ceremonies, click here.

The venue was different, but the celebration remained the same. A power outage Sunday morning (July 5), coupled with a forecast for heavy rain and lightning later in the day, resulted in Sunday evening's Harness Racing Hall of Fame induction ceremony being relocated from the lawn at the Harness Racing Museum & Hall of Fame in Goshen, NY, to the Country Club at Otterkill in nearby Campbell Hall. Nevertheless, a large crowd gathered at the new location to celebrate the sport's Hall of Fame Class of 2026.

Vieux Carre Farms owner Dr. John Egloff, breeder/owner Marvin Katz, Blue Chip Farms founder Michael G. Kimelman, and Preferred Equine owner David Reid led the group, which was honored during the annual induction dinner.

Bettor's Wish, Buck I St Pat, Manchego, Nuncio, and broodmares Eloquent Grace and Lucy's Pearl were recognized

Dr. John Egloff graduated from Texas A&M Veterinary School in 1966 and in the ensuing years became associated with some of the most notable Standardbreds of the past six decades, first at Lana Lobell Farms and then at his own Vieux Carre Farms.

Among the horses foaled and raised at Vieux Carre Farms were Hall of Fame pacer Always B Miki, as well as his sire, Always A Virgin, and dam, Artstopper. Always B Miki, who was the 2016 Horse of the Year and onetime fastest horse in harness racing history (1:46), earned $2.71 million in his career while Always A Virgin banked $1.13 million lifetime.

The farm also raised Pine Chip, the onetime world's fastest trotter (1:51 in a time trial in 1994) and earner of $1.71 million. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2004.

Other standouts raised at Vieux Carre included pacers Shark Gesture and Total Truth, both earners of more than $2 million lifetime, as well as millionaires Huntsville, Check Six, Yagonnakissmeornot, Tyberwood, Somwherovrarainbow, Feel Like A Fool, I Am A Fool, and Semi Tough.

In addition to his work with horses, Dr. Egloff has been active in numerous roles within the industry, including as a Hambletonian Society director, Harness Racing Museum and Hall of Fame trustee, Standardbred Breeders Association of Pennsylvania vice president, and Pennsylvania Horse Racing Commission member.

"When I walk through the Hall of Fame, the number of people that I'm looking at who were my friends, who were my clients, over the last 50 years is pretty mindboggling," Dr. Egloff said. "And it's really pretty thrilling to think that I'm going to get to join them. That's really special."

Marvin Katz has bred and/or owned a long list of Dan Patch and O'Brien Award winners, including Hall of Famers such as Ariana G (bred and owned with Al Libfeld), Tall Dark Stranger, Captaintreachers, and Peaceful Way. Other award-winners have included Kissin In The Sand, To Dream On, Forever Starlet, Federal Flex, Duke Of York, and Up And Ready.

Katz has won the Hambletonian, with Muscle Massive in 2010; four editions of the Hambletonian Oaks, including with homebred sisters All The Time and Ariana G consecutively in 2016-2017; and multiple editions of the Meadowlands Pace, North America Cup and Metro Pace. He also has 15 Breeders Crown trophies to his credit.

In addition, Katz has been part of four O'Brien Breeder of the Year Award wins as well as a Dan Patch Breeder of the Year Award.

His other contributions to the sport include sitting on the Woodbine Entertainment Board of Directors, serving as a Hambletonian Society director, and also as a trustee of the Harness Racing Museum and Hall of Fame. In 2019, he launched the Breeders Crown Charity Challenge, which has raised over $2.4 million for national and regional charities.

"Standing here tonight, being inducted into the Harness Racing Hall of Fame, is both humbling and deeply meaningful," Katz said. "To be recognized alongside the greats of this industry, those who have shaped the sport, is an honor beyond anything I could have ever imagined.

"As I reflect on this honor, I realize that harness racing has given me much more than great horses and memorable victories. It has given me friendships that have lasted a lifetime. It has given me opportunities to work alongside extraordinary people. It has given me challenges that taught me perseverance and success that taught me gratitude. I accept this honor with tremendous gratitude and great respect for all those who make it possible."

Michael Kimelman, Sr. known as The Chief, founded Blue Chip Farms with his father, Oscar (a Hall of Fame Immortal), and brother Ted. It soon became one of the sport's top breeding operations, standing stallions such Most Happy Fella and Bettor's Delight, but Kimelman's impact spread far beyond the upstate New York farm.

Kimelman was a driving force behind the growth of the New York Sire Stakes program at home, and he worked with others to strengthen the ties between North American and European breeders and owners abroad. He also played a role in the establishment of French wagering on the Hambletonian.

He has served as a director of the Hambletonian Society since 1987, as well as a member of the Society's Executive Committee and Breeders Crown Committee.

Kimelman was unable to attend the induction ceremony, so his son Michael P. Kimelman accepted on his behalf.

"People make the world go around and my father is so honored to be reunited with friends and heroes like Billy Haughton, Stanley Dancer, Bill Popfinger, George Sholty, Del Cameron, John Campbell, Frank Antonacci and so many more, with a very special shout-out to his good friend that he's had so much fun with, Michel Lachance," Kimelman said. "Thank you all for sharing this with him. And as the Chief often says, 'Live life, it's the greatest game ever invented.'"

David Reid is best known as the president of Preferred Equine Marketing, the full-service sales and bloodstock agency he established with Geoff Stein in 1988. Stein, who passed away in 2012, was inducted into the Hall of Fame as an Immortal in 2021.

Preferred Equine has sold more than 29,000 horses and grossed over $800 million in total sales over the years. Last fall, Preferred Equine had more than $31 million in sales at the Standardbred Horse Sale, setting the all-time consignor record for the event.

In addition to his work with Preferred Equine, Reid is the co-manager of the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale and a stallion syndication manager. He also was among the owners of the Hall of Fame trotting mare Moni Maker and has enjoyed success on the Thoroughbred side, as well, with the Ice Wine Stables.

His service to the industry includes being a trustee of the Harness Racing Museum and Hall of Fame and a director of the Hambletonian Society. He also has been active with the Harness Horse Youth Foundation and served as the first president of the Standardbred Transition Alliance.

"To be standing here tonight being inducted into the Harness Racing Hall of Fame is something I truly never imagined when I got involved in the sport," Reid said. "I'm deeply honored, humbled, and grateful.

"I've been very fortunate in my life in my career. It's given me tremendous opportunities to meet people from all walks of life, experience tremendous diversity, create memorable moments from many countries. Like many of you, my career has been a major part of my life and during that time I continually learned from the sport's great and influential leaders. Like so many in the room tonight, love, luck and loyalty have all played significant roles in my journey.

"This is not an individual honor. That couldn't be further from the truth. So many people share this award; I can't thank them all. Some are gone, but they're never forgotten."

Derick Givner, the editor of DRF Harness, is a three-time Hervey Award winner for news/commentary writing. He started his career at Sports Eye in 1996 and established the Daily Racing Form's DRF Harness brand in 2012.

He has been honored with the Phil Pines Award and the Clyde Hirt Media Award, and he was named the U.S. Harness Writers Association's Member of the Year in 2019. He is a member of the New York City chapter of USHWA, has served as its Chapter Director on several occasions, and is chairman of USHWA's Integrity Committee. Earlier this year, he was elected USHWA's national first vice president.

"I couldn't do what I do without the help of everyone in the industry; track management, drivers, trainers, caretakers, breeders, and everyone in between," Giwner said. "Your cooperation is vital to providing the best content to the public. Whether you roll your eyes when my name pops up on your phone, or smile and look forward to hearing from me, I want to thank you all for taking the time to be part of it."

"I love harness racing. I love the puzzle of handicapping, the grace of the horses, the fierce on-track battles, the people in the spotlight, and the people behind the scenes who make it great. I couldn't imagine a different path in life, and I'm so grateful to have been a small part of its history."

Tara Ellen Taylor has served for over 30 years as the Executive Director of the Harness Horse Youth Foundation, an industry organization which introduces young people to harness racing through hands-on involvement with horses.

Starting in 1996, she has been the person behind the efforts of summer programs run annually by the HHYF in association with racetracks and horsemen's groups, and she is a contributor to both HHYF's many promotional and educational pieces and several trade publications.

She was elected to the Indiana Horse Racing Hall of Fame in 2024 and has received numerous other honors, including USHWA's Stan Bergstein Proximity Award in 2008. Taylor follows in the footsteps of her mother Margot, who is a Hall of Fame Immortal.

"Upon research on what makes a quality Hall of Fame speech, I discovered that providing a bit of motivation was appropriate," Taylor said. "On this special evening, I take this opportunity to encourage every person who appreciates the business on any level to consider these six thoughts."

"I believe we, individually and collectively, must step up the education to the general public about the greatness of our industry; put aside petty arguing and do the next right thing; strategize to develop innovative ways of long-term sustainability; nurture upcoming leadership; improve lines of communication amongst all those involved; and cherish the opportunities we have to participate in our own unique way. Our future depends on it."

Prior to Sunday's program, Janet Terhune, the director of the Harness Racing Museum & Hall of Fame, thanked those involved in making the venue change a success.

"We made the decision at 9:30 (a.m.) and everybody jumped into action," Terhune said. "Between the museum staff and the catering people here, everyone pulled together and made it all work. We started bringing things here, setting up tables, brought the flowers, brought the awards – you name it, we brought it. This doesn't happen without a great team, and we have a great team."

Carter Duer to Hall of Fame; summer HOF ballot candidates announced

by U.S. Harness Writers Association

The Hall of Fame screening committee of the U.S. Harness Writers Association (USHWA), after meeting with a select group of Harness Racing Museum trustees over the Fourth Of July weekend, announces that Carter Duer has been elected to the Harness Racing Hall of Fame. The direct election in the veterans designation is provided for in the USHWA bylaws, allowing for one longtime distinguished contributor to the sport who has cut back on current direct activity being put straight in by the committee, selecting from nominations made by chapters of USHWA.

Carter Duer, as have so many Hall of Famers, grew up in the sport, assisting his father and grandfather with their Delmarva-based stable, which raced along the East Coast. Duer decided that working with the horses would be his career, and moved to Lexington, KY to work with Castleton Farm.

Duer's talents quickly became apparent, as he then was sent to Florida to establish a new wing of Castleton. He later returned to Kentucky to manage the central operation for several years, and then moved to Kentuckiana Farms, where he worked successfully with Tom Crouch and further built his own resume of excellence in breeding (especially stallion management) and preparation of yearlings.

Duer would go on to establish his own Peninsula Farms in central Kentucky, which would have a major hand in the development of such stars as Valley Victory, Jenna's Beach Boy, and Captain Corey. He became a leading innovator, using new methodologies to improve on conventional methods of developing yearlings.

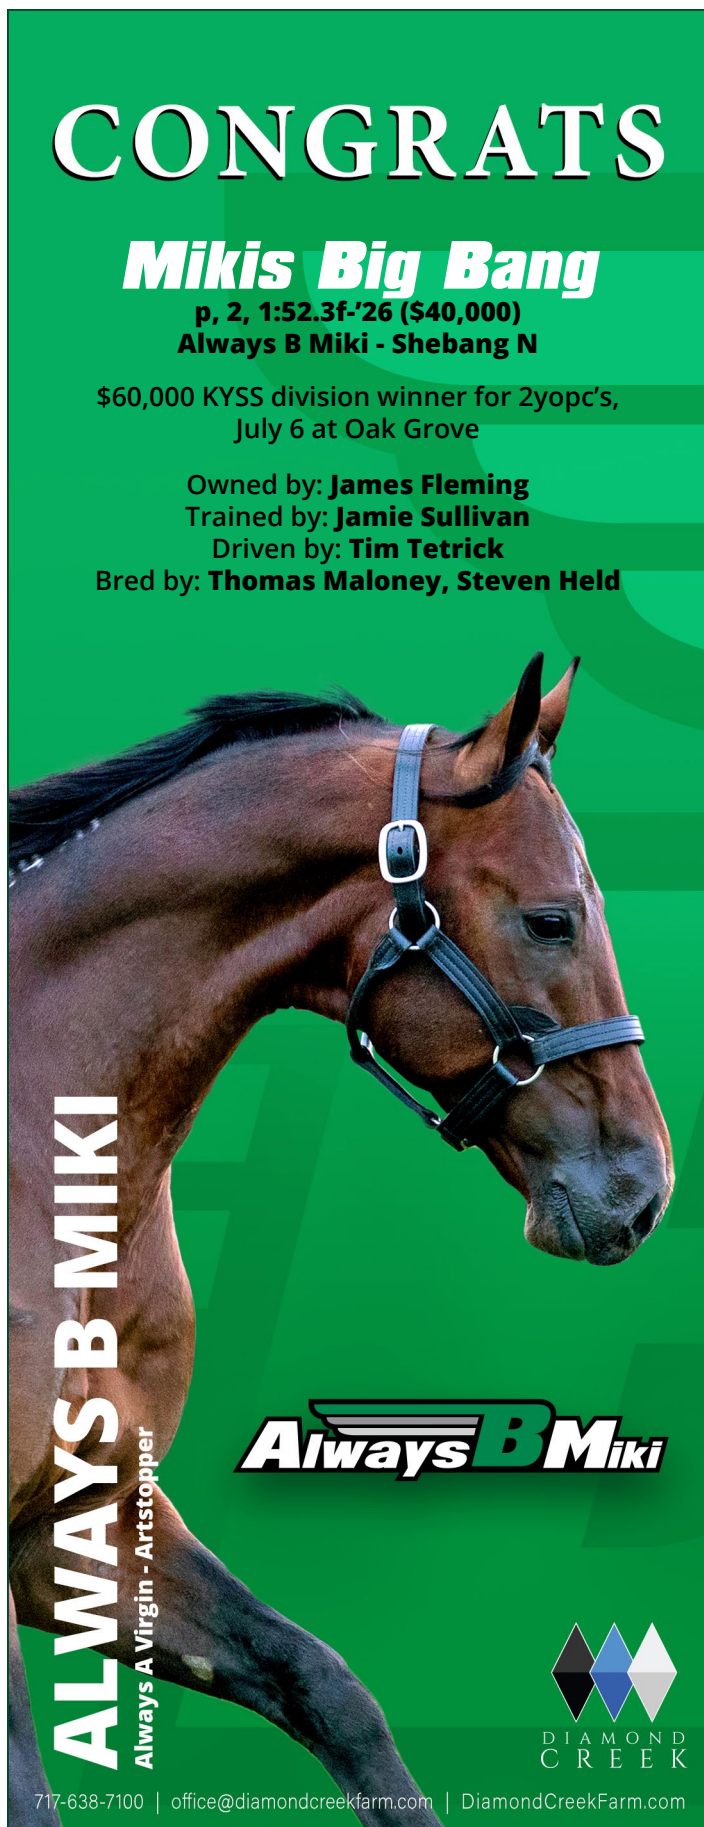

As a "veteran," Duer at 87 has reduced his involvement in the sport, although he still assesses consignments and also mentors younger breeders.

Duer will be feted for his Hall of Fame selection on two occasions: the first comes in February 2027, at the Dan Patch Awards banquet hosted by USHWA, to be held at the Rosen Shingle Creek Resort in Orlando. The second will be during his Hall induction, in July 2027, at the annual Hall of Fame dinner in Goshen.

At Goshen, the screening committee and Hall Of Fame trustees also discussed the Hall of Fame candidates nominated by the USHWA chapters, and the screening committee has decided to advance the following three people to the summer balloting of USHWAs and Hall of Famers:

- Al Libfeld, who is one of the most successful owners and breeders in North American standardbred racing has campaigned and/or produced a long list of champion horses on the racetrack and in the breeding shed;
- Åke Svanstedt, a member of the Swedish Hall of Fame for his many years of excellence racing trotters on the Continent, who decided to transfer his operations to North America in 2014, hit the ground "running" with champion Sebastian K S, and has become a fixture at every level of racing trotters throughout the U.S. and Canada;
- Russell Williams, grandson of the legendary Lawrence Sheppard of Hanover Shoe Farms, who has made a sizable contribution to the sport in management at Hanover and at the Standardbred Horse Sales Company, as president of the U. S. Trotting Association, and with his own modest but significant racing/breeding operation.

This trio will be joined on the ballots by Communicators Hall of Fame nominees Kim Rinker and the late Barry Lefkowitz, selected by USHWA's directors and voted on by the Association's members. A candidate must receive 75 per cent of the yes-no ballots cast to earn election into the Hall. Results will be announced later in the summer. Electees would be honored in Florida and at Goshen, as Duer will be.

RACING INTO THE FUTURE

with BOB DUFF

Pari-mutuel powered games combine horse racing and casino action

by Bob Duff

It's horse racing. It's a casino game. Actually, it's both. And it's all on the up and up, entirely legal, and regulated.

Pari-mutuel-powered games, also known as PPGs, combine two popular forms of gambling while providing a workaround for the suddenly out-of-favor sweepstakes casinos.

As unregulated entities, sweepstakes casinos ran afoul of state gambling regulators and ultimately, the state governments that oversee those regulators. Several states have moved, or are moving to ban sweepstakes casinos from operating.

One thing you have to give the people in the gambling industry is that they are an ingenious bunch. When one door closes, they find a way around the problem. And pari-mutuel powered games are proving to be the solution to the problem that sweepstakes casinos were causing.

All outcomes from PPGs are directly connected to the actual results of real-life horse racing events. Sites like LoneStar Bet, GiddyUp Casino, and Horseplay look just like an online casino and even operate like an online casino, but here's the catch, they all operate under the auspices of licensed racing frameworks. Everything they offer for you to play is legal and regulated by the same regulators as online horse racing advance deposit wagering sites.

That's why they are working where unregulated sweepstakes casinos were coming under increased scrutiny and, in some states, ultimately being put out of business.

PPGs are all above board. The operators of these sites answer to a regulator. They follow the rules that are in place.

WHAT ARE PARI-MUTUAL POWERED GAMES?

The platform at Horseplay looks like it's a casino. There are slots, hold and wins, jackpots, and video poker games. So, what gives?

Well, nothing, until the outcome of an actual horse race gives these machines an outcome.

Normally, a random number generator determines the result of a slot machine spin. With PPGs, the spin of the slot is created by the results of a horse race that just happened. This is the loophole these sites are conveniently exploiting to offer sites with PPGs in states where online casino gambling hasn't been legally approved. And it's all legal and regulated.

Eighteen states currently permit PPGs. That list includes Alabama, California, Colorado, Delaware, Florida, Kansas, Montana, New Hampshire, New Mexico, New York, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Vermont, Wisconsin, and Wyoming.

Instead of putting money into the machine, with PPGs, you buy tickets, similar to how you would place a bet on a horse race. And you aren't competing against the house, as you would with an online casino. You are competing with other players who also purchased tickets. All of the tickets that are purchased go into the same pool of live, real-time horse races. Again, this is similar to how a pari-mutuel pool works at a racetrack.

Pari-mutuel-powered slots consist of the bettor paying for either four, 12, 28, or 60 plays of a slot game. The licensed off-track betting system then utilizes the consumer funds to algorithmically place pari-mutuel wagers on the next live, real-world horse race.

The results of the pari-mutuel wagers are then used to dynamically create a visual slot game for the consumer to view, which will display to them the winnings received from the pari-mutuel wagers submitted on the live real-world horse race.

PARI-MUTUEL POWERED LOTTERY GAMES

Another version built on the same principle is pari-mutuel-powered lottery-style games. Instead of playing slots, you are playing a game similar to Keno.

You start out by making a selection of five or six numbers. These numbers correspond to the results of five or six consecutive real-world horse races. Those funds are then used by the betting site's licensed off-track betting system to place a pari-mutuel wager.

When the races in the pool are complete, the numbers of the five or six race winners (depending upon whether you played a Pick-5 or Pick-6) are displayed in the form of a fun and entertaining lottery ball format. This is done after the actual races involved in the betting play are all completed.

There are also pari-mutuel-powered Match 3 games. These consist of bettors paying for two, five, 10, or 20 plays of a Match 3 game. The licensed off-track betting system utilizes the betting funds in the pool and algorithmically places pari-mutuel wagers on the next live real-world horse race.

The results of the pari-mutuel wagers are then used to dynamically create a virtual Match 3 game for the consumer to view, which will display to them the winnings received from the pari-mutuel wagers submitted on the live real-world horse race.

It's horse racing. It's a casino game. Actually, it's both. And it's all on the up and up, entirely legal, and regulated. Pari-mutuel-powered games, also known as PPGs, combine two popular forms of gambling while providing a workaround for the suddenly out-of-favor sweepstakes casinos.

HOW ARE THESE GAMES LEGAL TO PLAY?

In many states where you can't legally play casino games, you can utilize PPGs.

Unlike fixed-odds betting on other sports, which is governed exclusively by state law, pari-mutuel wagering on horse racing is governed by both federal law and by applicable state law. Under federal law, the Interstate Horse Racing Act (IHRA) was enacted in 1978 to support the practice of being in one state and betting on a horse race running in another state. The new law permitted wagering communications to cross state lines to facilitate an individual in one state to bet on the outcome of a horse race in another state.

In 2000, with widespread racing industry support, the IHRA was amended to further clarify coverage of individual wagering through an online betting system located in another state.

PPGs are simply pari-mutuel wagers, with the outcomes presented in a different manner. These games are legal in every state where a licensed off-track betting system can accept traditional pari-mutuel wagers.

Since each PPG play is basically a bet on a horse race, racetracks are getting a piece of the takeout from every wager. Typically, that amounts to anywhere between 15-25 per cent, based on the agreement in place with the advance deposit wagering site handling the bets.

by Melissa Keith

Six months into 2026, Canada's 2024 Somebeachsomewhere Horse of the Year has yet to surface for her 4-year-old season. Because Chantilly (p, 3, 1:49.4s; $949,732) is a homebred mare owned by prominent breeder Millar Farms of Stouffville, ON, it's natural to wonder whether the O'Brien 2- and 3-Year-Old Pacing Filly of the Year is beginning a new life as a broodmare.

But on Tuesday (July 8), Chantilly's trainer ended speculation about her future plans, for now. Nick Gallucci told HRU that the daughter of Big Jim—Shiraz Seelster would not be joining “Chantilly is doing well. We started her back this week. She has been off since April with nagging soundness issues.”

— Nick Gallucci

divisional rival Miki And Minnie on the track anytime soon.

“Chantilly is doing well,” Gallucci said. “We started her back this week. She has been off since April with nagging soundness issues.”

The “nagging soundness issues” mentioned by Gallucci have kept Chantilly sidelined from even qualifying this year, after an interrupted start to training back at age 4.

“If she stays sound, we are hoping to have her back racing sometime in September,” he said.

There were no plans to retire or breed Chantilly this year.

“We will see how she comes back,” said her trainer. “She is still eligible to everything.”

Chantilly was sustained to, but missed, the Grade 1 Roses Are Red, won on June 13 by Miki And Minnie over The Last Martini in 1:48.1, the co-fastest mile by a female pacer in Canada this year.

The Grade 2 Milton Stake has eliminations slated for Aug. 28 at Mohawk, which is likely too early for Chantilly’s anticipated return. She is also among the 22 distaff pacers eligible to the Grade 1 Breeders Crown Mare Pace at Scioto Downs on Oct. 24, with eliminations on Oct. 17 if required.

As a 2-year-old, Chantilly first qualified on June 28, 2024 at Woodbine Mohawk Park. She won the non-wagering debut in 1:59.4 for driver James MacDonald and made an eye-catching pari-mutuel start on July 9, 2024. The filly opened up late to win by over four lengths in 1:54 in an Ontario Sires Stakes Grassroots leg 1 at Mohawk. It was all the proof needed that Chantilly was actually an OSS Gold filly.

The Gallucci trainee won by 2½ lengths in OSS Gold company at Mohawk on July 16, 2024, lowering her personal best to 1:50.4. Chantilly went undefeated at her home track the remainder of the season, dominating in OSS Gold, while also winning the Grade 3 Eternal Camnation, plus the Grade 1 She’s A Great Lady elimination and final over two-time place finisher The Last Martini.

The win margins were usually striking: Chantilly concluded her freshman year with a 6½ length victory in the Oct. 12, 2024 OSS Gold Super Final at Mohawk, winning in 1:50.2 for regular driver MacDonald. It was the fastest mile by a 2-year-old pacing filly that year.

Owner George Millar was so convinced of his filly's ability that he nominated and sustained Chantilly to the Grade 1 Pepsi North America Cup, where she would have made history had she gone into the eliminations against colts and geldings. She started the year by wiring in back-to-back Mohawk qualifiers on April 25 and May 2, 2025 and won her first sophomore start on May 17 in an SBOA final for Ontario-sired 3-year-old filly pacers. At the time, Gallucci told this publication that she "wasn't really in tip-top Chantilly form."

Chantilly took her lifetime mark in OSS Gold leg 1 on May 24, 2025 at Mohawk, opening up by over four lengths on runner-up Wickedpace. But Millar had decided that she would aim for the Grade 1 Fan Hanover on June 14, not the North America Cup. Chantilly won going away in 1:50.1 over The Last Martini in their June 7 elimination, but ended up scratched sick from the final, won by Miki And Minnie in 1:48.2. On June 21, she was scratched from OSS Gold leg 2.

July 11, 2025, Chantilly bounced back with a 1:51 flat qualifier at Mohawk, beating the only other horse entered (9-year-old gelding Highlandbeachlover) by over nine lengths and pacing a :25.4 last quarter. Although she romped again in OSS Gold leg 3 on July 22, the O'Brien champion faced her first defeat in a controversial Mohawk filly and mare preferred on Aug. 8.

Chantilly finished second to Miki And Minnie, 2024 Dan Patch 2-Year-Old Pacing Filly of the Year, in the Aug. 16 James M Lynch

Memorial at Pocono Downs. On Aug. 24, at Rideau Carleton, post 8 proved too much to overcome for 1-9 favorite Chantilly, who ended up sixth in OSS leg 4. She was scratched sick from the Sept. 5 Simcoe Stakes at Mohawk.

After two winning qualifiers on Sept. 19 and 26, Chantilly found redemption in OSS Gold leg 5 on Oct. 2 and the Oct. 11 OSS Gold Super Final, where the 1:50 victory sealed her second divisional O'Brien Award. She finished off the board in the Grade 1 Breeders Crown 3-Year-Old Pacing Filly elim and final at Mohawk, however, and has not had a charted line since Oct. 25, 2025.

Meanwhile, Chantilly's 2-year-old full sister will not launch her racing career on the same note as her precocious older sibling. "Little Darlin won't race this year," Gallucci said. "She's shut down for the season."

Little Darlin is the second foal of Shiraz Seelster and has been retained by three-time Armstrong Breeder of the Year Millar Farms. The 9-year-old Bettors Delight mare was bred back to Big Jim in March 2025.

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

'Zet' shines in Norway, 'Hoist' repeats in Finland, Gocciadoro sweeps Naples features

by Thomas Hedlund

Veteran star Don Fanucci Zet reminded the European trotting world he still belongs among the elite with a dominant victory in Sunday's (July 5) $160,000 Ulf Thoresen Grand International at Jarlsberg.

Driven by Örjan Kihlström, the 10-year-old son of Hard Livin overcame a demanding first-over journey to overpower a deep international field.

Don Fanucci Zet left alertly from post 7, but Executiv Ek was quickest from the inside and secured the lead for Alessandro Gocciadoro. Betting Pacer settled second-over for Björn Goop, while Get A Wish enjoyed the pocket trip behind the leader.

Kihlström was left parked every step of the way, yet Don Fanucci Zet simply proved too strong.

Behind the winner, the race tightened dramatically in the stretch as Get A Wish angled off the rail and Daim Brodda finally found racing room after sitting locked along the pylons. None, however, could threaten the Daniel Redén trainee, who drew away impressively despite the taxing trip.

Replay here.

The victory was worth approximately NOK 800,000 and added another chapter to one of Scandinavia's most remarkable careers.

"I actually shed a little tear," Redén said. "It's been an unbelievable journey, starting with buying his dam at a Lexington sale when I thought I was going to prove I could train pacers. That didn't work out, but everything that came afterward has been incredible. And I have to say – we also have the best driver the sport has ever seen. Örjan doesn't make mistakes. I could see he was actually rating the horse while sitting first-over, saving his speed. I've been to Jarlsberg many times without winning this race, so this means a great deal."

MASSIMO HOIST REPEATS IN FINLAND'S SUUR-HOLLOLA-AJO

Finland's top older trotter, Massimo Hoist, successfully defended his title in Sunday's (July 5) $160,000 Suur-Hollola-Ajo at Lahti with another front-end masterpiece.

After advancing through one of four elimination heats earlier the day before, Hannu Torvinen quickly sent the son of Muscle Hill to the lead in the championship. Corazon Combo raced first-over while Run For Royalty tracked second-over, and Amanda Deo enjoyed the pocket trip.

None of it mattered.

Massimo Hoist kicked away in the stretch to score in a 1:55.3 mile rate for 2,140 meters, with Amanda Deo finishing second. Main Stage rallied strongly from fifth-over, circling three-wide throughout the final lap to finish third for Santtu Raitala.

Replay here.

The victory made it back-to-back Suur-Hollola-Ajo titles for Massimo Hoist, whose dam, Venice, also captured the prestigious Finnish event in both 2016 and 2017.

GOCCIADORO STABLE CAPTURES BOTH NAPLES FEATURES

The powerful Alessandro Gocciadoro stable swept Sunday's (July 5) two major stakes at Garigliano, with Il Trio Jet and In the Night Gar giving the Italian conditioner a memorable afternoon.

In the $180,000 Gran Premio Città di Napoli (Group 1), Il Trio Jet (Wishing Stone) controlled the race from the front for Santo Mollo. The 3-year-old opened a commanding advantage down the backstretch before holding safely in the lane to win by three-quarters-of-a-length in a 1:57.2 mile rate for 2,100 meters.

It was his second consecutive Group 1 victory after capturing the Gran Premio Nazionale in his previous start.

The filly division of the $75,000 Gran Premio Città di Napoli also went to the Gocciadoro barn as Federico Esposito guided In the Night Gar (Victor Gio) to victory.

After moving first-over approaching the final turn, In the Night Gar wore down pacesetter Irma Ferm through the stretch, with both fillies stopping the clock in 1:55.1. Earlier this season, In the Night Gar captured the $200,000 Breeders Course Final at Solvalla.

FRENCH STARS ASSEMBLE FOR PRIX DE WASHINGTON

Four of this year’s French Elitlopp participants headline Saturday’s (July 11) $125,000 Prix de Washington over the mile at Enghien.

Idao de Tillard, Go On Boy, Jabalpur, and Keep Going all return to action in one of France’s premier speed tests, joined by accomplished performers Inmarosa, Lovino Bello, and Fulton. Recent winners of the race include Go On Boy (2025), Hohneck (2024), and Etonnant (2023).

REDÉN TO DRIVE FRANCESCOZET HIMSELF

One of Saturday’s most intriguing storylines comes at Årjäng, where Daniel Redén will drive Francesco Zet himself for the first time in the champion’s career in the $100,000 Årjängs Stora Sprinterlopp.

Redén had hoped to put former mentor Stefan Melander in the sulky as a tribute to the trainer who helped shape his career. However, Swedish licensing regulations require drivers in major stakes to have made a minimum number of recent starts, leaving Melander ineligible. Instead, Redén will climb into the bike himself as Francesco Zet faces defending champion Gio Cash in one of Sweden’s marquee sprint events.

lend a helping hand and equally eager to be around pacers and trotters.

The only regret she had, one that has remained unchanged over the years, was having to leave for the day.

"I remember my mom bringing me to the barn, showing me what she does and I thought, 'I am in love with this,'" Collins said. "I just enjoyed being around the horses so much. I told my mom that this is something I really wanted to do. I would have stayed all day if I could."

Collins, a caretaker by trade, comes by her love of horses and racing naturally.

Her mother, Tracy, is a familiar face on the U.S. East Coast harness racing scene.

In 2025, the elder Collins joined the training ranks and sent out her first starter, at Rosecroft, in April of that year.

Recently, mother and daughter shared a milestone moment thanks to that same horse, now 4-year-old trotting mare St Pattys Platinum.

The daughter of E L Platinum out of the Malabar Millenium mare St Pattys Paige recorded her first career victory in what was her 19th lifetime start, the win coming on June 29 at Ocean Downs.

“I love being with [the horses] every day, coming to the barn and seeing their faces. As soon as I walk through the door, I have a big smile on my face. I am always thinking about them and talking about them when I’m not at the barn. I can never get them out of my head.”

With Eugene Robinson in the race bike, St Pattys Platinum, sent off at 18-1, was five lengths clear of her closest rival after three-quarters in 1:30.1 and extended that advantage to seven lengths at the top of the stretch.

The bay crossed the wire a half-length in front in 2:00.4.

It was an emotional triumph on several levels.

“When she won, I was bawling,” Kansas said. “I was crying so much, but I was happy. It was the best feeling. I don’t think anyone outside of the business could ever understand the feeling when your horse wins.

“I jogged her and I have learned a lot from her.”

The victory was bittersweet for Tracy.

“My boss at the time, Daryl Glazer, got very sick with cancer,” Tracy said. “He passed away in September 2023. His husband [Chris Yochim] wanted me to keep going with his horses. They had a lot of young trotters and some I have in the barn are Chris and Daryl’s, the last ones they bred together.

“St Pattys Platinum was one of them and he was a tough one to figure out. A lot of people thought it wouldn’t work out with her. Kansas kept telling me she had potential, so we decided to keep her. Kansas has been a big part of this filly’s success. It’s been a journey with her. So, that win was my first training win and for Chris, who owns and bred her, it was his first win since Daryl passed away. It was a special moment for both me and Kansas.”

Working side-by-side with her mother continues to be a match made in horse heaven for Kansas.

“She teaches me a lot and helps me a lot,” Kansas said. “She has given me a lot of great advice over the years. I would say the one that stands out the most is to be patient with the horses and I will be successful.”

Tracy also encourages her daughter, who paddocks horses every week, to chase her own dreams in harness racing.

Kansas’ ultimate goal, one she thinks about often, is to become a driver.

“Ever since I started training horses and jogging them, it is something I really want to do,” she said. “And I love to go fast. My colors will be light blue and white.”

For now, the young horsewoman will take each day at a much slower, but equally rewarding pace – enjoying every moment she spends with her horses.

“I love being with them every day, coming to the barn and seeing their faces,” she said. “As soon as I walk through the door, I have

During her time outside of the barn, she still manages to get her horse fix, thanks to a pair of retired standardbreds.

“Arthur and Stacy Stafford owned Blazing Bobby Sox when he was racing,” said Kansas, of the pacer who won 35 races and recorded $504,632 in purse earnings. “I will be taking him to the National Standardbred Horse Show this September. I also have Super Fly (a 14-time winner with $260,570 in career purse earnings), another horse from Arthur and Stacy, who they have leased to me.

“Both horses are great and I spend a lot of time riding them and taking care of them.”

When asked what would define a successful 2026 season, Kansas takes a moment to consider the question.

“I would like to do well with my two retired horses at the National show, and I would love to keep winning with the horses in our barn,” she said. “I just want to keep going forward.”

Just what one would expect from someone with plenty of determination and drive.

MANE ATTRACTION

with JOHN BERRY

Sporn pours salt on an old wound

by John Berry

Phil Sporn, one of the premier pedigree experts in our grand sport, came down to visit for a few hours last week.

Sporn and I were editors at Sports Information Data Base (SIDB) in New Jersey back 40-plus years ago when the internet had not yet exploded onto the scene.

We were in charge of recording the history of harness racing for that, now, incredible information highway known as the internet.

We were just a little bit early with SIDB – maybe five years or so – as the company, which covered all sports, ran out of cash, and folded.

We had some great sports experts on the staff like Bill Shannon, a legendary scorekeeper for Major League Baseball, known as an encyclopedic baseball historian.

Logan Hobson and Bob Canobbio were there, too, working with Jon Gibbs and they created FightStat, used for boxing broadcasts and renamed CompuBox after SIDB shut its doors.

It is still the boxing standard for recording punches today.

Sporn and I covered just about everything from the Narragansett Pacers of the 1600s to Conqueror's speed record for 100 miles in 1853 to Scotsdam's world record mile in 1962 to the feature events in our sport hours before we closed up shop.

He brought with him a "salt-shaker" to pour on the wounds from a story I wrote for Hub Rail Magazine around 50 years ago about why this sport will never see a 1:50 mile.

No, Sporn didn't actually bring a salt shaker with him, he just picked the one up on the table to start pouring.

Yes, I have to admit that I did not think a 1:50 mile would be possible back then and provided some solid evidence to back up my thoughts.

My reasoning was based on the then evidence as every single mile from Steady Star's world record 1:52 time trial on up and down the ladder seemed to need a breather somewhere during the mile – you know, :29 and a piece to around :30.

There were some "freaks of nature" back then like Dan Patch in the early 1900s and Billy Direct in the late 1930s – both 1:55 pacers, although Dan Patch's mile was not credited to him as he used a windshield, which was banned shortly before.

And Greyhound's mile in 1:55 1/4 back in 1938 was, yet, another one that would stand the test of time.

Anyhow, every single mile of consequence leading up to my article back then provided evidence that a 1:50 mile could never be achieved by a standardbred.

But the breed evolved and, neck by neck, head by head, nose by nose, the standardbred breed became anything but standard.

When Niatross finally achieved that pinnacle of speed – 1:49.1 – on Oct. 1, 1980, his splits were :27.3, :27, :27.1, and :27.2.

No breathers in that one.

Yes, we've transformed into a new breed.

No more 2:10 2-year-old list. No more 2:05 3-year-old list.

Our new breed – without a new, definitive name – was emerging before our eyes, just like every other invention made in our lifetime from the automobile to four channel television to 500 channel cable TV to the rotary phone and, then, the smart phone to the internet.

And Coca-Cola and Pepsi were invented the lifetime before ours.

But this one event involved a horse of a different color.

Four quarters in succession put together that became what we all thought would prove to be a new milestone for the new breed about to emerge – even more superior than the standardbred. Maybe, instead of "standardbred," we could have named our emerging breed maybe "pacing bred" and "trotting bred."

There were no cheap quarters in the Niatross time trial, that's for sure.

Even as late as the Niatross era, a :27 and a piece quarter could go a long way, as far as earnings potential goes.

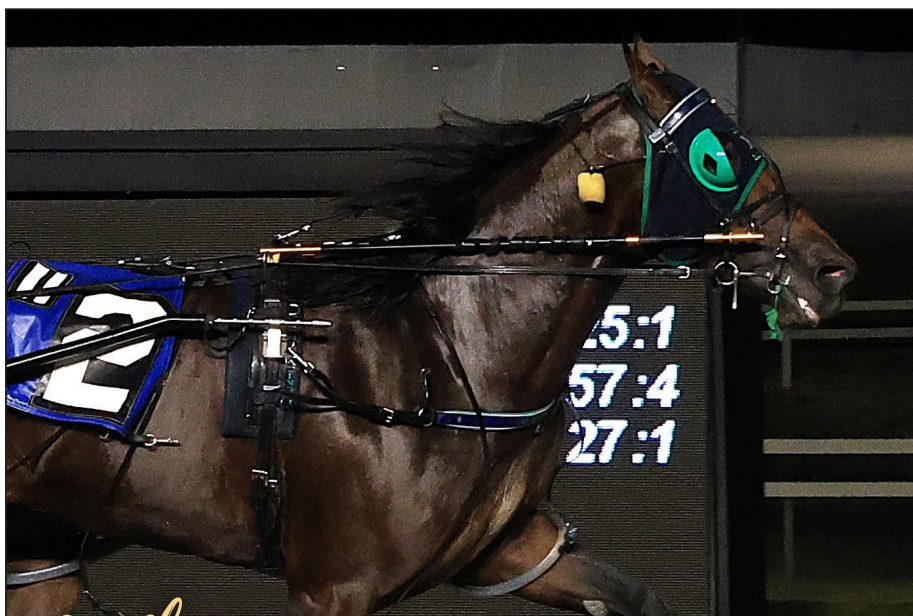

Heck, just a few seasons before Niatross, Illinois had a sharp free-for-aller by the name of Taurus Bomber.

I witnessed his great two-heat performance in Springfield, IL back in 1976 when he won in 1:54.4, back in 1:54.3 with each mile featuring a "breather" somewhere in the mile of :29.4 in the second stanza of first heat and :30 during the third quarter in the fastest heat with that first heat featuring a final quarter of :27.2.

There was one night at Washington Park where four of'em were on the line during an official final quarter in :27.4, off three-quarters in 1:34.1.

You know how one thought spawns others?

Well, remembering further back when I was a just a little tyke, and combining that with Sporn's salt shaker story about my 1:50 mile, it brought back wonderful memories of my grandfather, Pop, as we called him, when he would take me for an ice cream cone and shell out a quarter, including tax, to cover the cost.

Yes, a quarter could go a long, long way back in the late 1940s, and even beyond.

When Pop took me out for ice cream, some of the race secretaries at the emerging tracks were Jerry Baier, Ed Keller, Bill Connors, Al Saunders, Walter Gibbons, and Pres Jenuine, to name a few. Even Hank Thomson, who, admittedly, knew nothing about being a race secretary but was hired by Joe Neville in Delaware, OH because he could provide publicity for the Little Brown Jug through his newspaper, The Gazette.

And the publicity guys back then became legendary like Col. Dave Herman, Paul Keim, Jesse Stuff, Ed Walsh, Lou Barasch, again, to name a few, and a bit later from the aforementioned era, Bill Brown, Jr., Biff Lowry, Bob Cox, Allen Jerome Finkelson, Woody Lawless, Joe Goldstein, Charlie Stokes, again, to name a few.

Now, I realize that I am aging – thankfully – as I knew many of them in my early years in the sport.

The Grand Circuit back then went from the East Coast to the West Coast – Westbury, NY, to Santa Anita, CA – with stops along the way at the Missouri State Fair, Springfield, IL, DuQuoin, IL, Indianapolis, IN, Toledo, OH, Delaware, OH, Lexington, KY, Reading, PA, Saratoga, NY, and, of course Goshen, NY.

Back then, Rodney was the fastest horse in the older group for trotters – time trialing in 1:57.2 while Volume was the fastest 3-year-old trotter with a time-trial mark of 2:02.1.

The quickest 2-year-old was Lusty Song at 2:02.1.

As for the pacers, the 3-year-old colt Good Time put up a number of 1:58.4 in a time trial while the fastest 2-year-olds were the fillies Tassel Hanover and Beryl Hanover, both time trialing in 2:02.

And Proximity won 19 dashes while winning over $50,000 for the second straight year.

Yes, :29 quarters were very rare in those days and Greyhound's 1:55 1/4 standard in 1938 was still one in the books approaching 1950.

It was, virtually, the same story for the pacers with Billy Direct's 1:55 mile at Lexington still on the books, as well, from 1938.

And, one other note, the fastest quarter ever trotted was :27 by the vaunted gelding Uhlan, accomplishing that feat in 1913.

Fast-forward to the days of 2026.

I took one of my grandsons for ice cream at the mall the other day and stopped for that same treat that delighted me in 1949 and paid over $8 for a two-scoop cone.

I realized then that a quarter really doesn't buy too much these days.

We are just getting into the heart of the harness racing season and I notice that even the :27 quarter doesn't buy much, either.

A few examples popped up on Friday (June 26) at Harrah's Hoosier Park when Aye Aye Capt Russ paced his mile in 1:51.1 – just a typical overnight event – and paced the fastest final quarter of all in that event in :26 flat, and finished eighth, passing only one other horse in there.

Door Dash was another example, racking up a final panel in :26.2 finishing seventh and passed by another one in the Indiana Sires Stakes event in an event won by Swiss Lights, who also paced a final quarter in :26.3 in a wire-to-wire win in 1:48.4.

Combustion was in Hoosier's $22,000 open pace and raced a final furlong (thoroughbred time) in :25.4 and was lucky to pick up the nickel there, pacing his mile in 1:50.3.

Saturday evening in Indiana, in a mares' event, Bombay Parkway paced her final quarter in :26.1 and got nothing.

Up North of the Border at Woodbine Mohawk Park, it seems the "Canadian quarter" doesn't go too far, either.

In a conditioned event for 5-year-olds and younger, Axial won in 1:48.4 – :26.4, the fastest closer, Pac Man Hanover, paced a final quarter in :26.2 and could do no better than fourth and Fire Control blitzed his finale in :26.3 and earned, nothing.

In an event for the fillies and mares, Cold Creek Fuego came home in :25.4 and earned z-e-r-o as the winner won in 1:48.1.

The fillies and mares open pace saw the fastest closer in the race, pace home in :26 and couldn't pass a single home in the lane when it counted – her last three quarters in 1:21.3 – earning nothing.

In a conditioned pace Dublin Dasher kicked home in :25.3 – that's a mile rate of 1:42.2 – and earned his owner and trainer not one dime.

These are just regular overnight races with the steaks season still on the Bar-B-Que grill getting warmer and warmer and the stakes season for our sport sizzling up week-by-week.

If we had waited to write this column two months from now, you'd see a whole Mane Attraction column of :26 quarters and :25 quarters, and, perhaps, some 24 and a piece final panels.

It all ties together.

A quarter doesn't buy too much anymore at the ice cream parlor.

And a quarter – no matter how fast – doesn't go too far for many of the new breed of standardbred that I call the "pacing bred" and the "trotting bred."

And a 1:50 mile in some overnight events and in just about all stakes events ain't even worth a plugged nickel.

May The Horse Be With You!

ALL OVER ONTARIO

with MATTHEW LOMON

Matt Trelford's harness racing journey began when he could barely walk

by Matthew Lomon

Some of the first steps Matt Trelford ever took on this Earth were at the racetrack, which made the grandson of late Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Famer William 'Bud' Fritz feel right at home.

"The hometown tracks are where I grew up; on the backstretches, running through the grandstands at Hanover," said Trelford. "The older I got, it was Orangeville [Raceway] and Elmira [now Grand River Raceway]."

"It was a big deal to go to Greenwood or Mohawk – we got to go the odd time with grandpa – but most of the time, Hanover, Orangeville, and Elmira were where we were."

Connected to the sport from an early age, even a toddling Trelford could recognize his grandfather's greatness.

"He was really something in the late '80s and early '90s," Trelford said. "That was pretty neat when I was growing up. I remember he was even on TSN – he was like Wayne Gretzky to me back then."

As Trelford entered his teenage years, he transitioned from spectator and fan to active participant on the family farm.

Picking up the trade from his grandfather, and Fritz's sons, Trelford's uncles, Terry and Randy, he built his foundation before stepping away for a few years to attend college.

Then came a call from Randy that, unbeknownst to him at the time, would reel Trelford in for good.

"One night, Randy was driving at Georgian [Downs] and he got in a wreck and broke his collarbone," Trelford said. "He phoned me and I ended up around Mohawk helping him out for a bit."

"It was just supposed to be a short-term thing but I ended up being down there for 15-20 years."

The years alongside his uncle Randy flew by.

Before Trelford knew it, he was working with brothers/drivers Anthony and James MacDonald. After that, he found himself in Florida working for trainer Gregg McNair, whose wife Susie also happens to be Trelford's aunt.

"I trained babies with the McNairs for eight or nine years, moving back and forth from Florida," Trelford said. "When you're training horses around the McNairs, it's unbelievable who you'll see. At one time you're dealing with [Hall of Fame driver] Ron Waples and Chris Matthews, who are just top-class horsemen."

Trelford's near-decade-long stint with the McNairs ended around the start of the COVID-19 pandemic, when he returned home for good.

Mulling over his next steps, Trelford decided in 2023 to obtain his trainer's license. This was after he had purchased a young filly named Lastkickathecan for $10,000.

With his application pending approval through the early months of the Wheeling N Dealin trotter's career, Trelford assigned training duties to another one of his uncles, Dale Fritz.

Still involved behind the scenes when Lastkickathecan showed serious promise on the racetrack, Trelford took over as the trainer of record in August of 2023.

"Everything just clicked with her," he said. "I was building some confidence, so I thought I might as well try it out."

The Mildmay, Ontario-based conditioner's instincts proved spot on, as in just her second career start, Lastkickathecan scored an Ontario Sires Stakes Grassroots leg at 12-1.

"Everything just set up almost perfectly," Trelford said. "She was something else, that horse. Every time you took her to the racetrack you knew you were going to get a good effort out of her."

The bay, out of Deweycheatumnhowe mare Simone Hall, even captured the heart of Trelford's mother Laurie.

"My mom just loves her," he said. "She's never owned anything but she's followed racing her whole life and was just over the moon with her. She'd wait till the programs came out – Robert Reid [Jr.] always had something good to say about her in the Horseplayers' Journal – and she just thought that was the best."

The Trelford-Fritz clan's time with Lastkickathecan was as memorable as it was short-lived.

On Sept. 30, 2023, while warming up for the Grassroots final for 3-year-old trotting fillies, Lastkickathecan injured herself in a freak accident, and later passed away.

"It was a very tough ending to our time with her," Trelford said. "My sister was getting married that night, so I was there and not at the race. I had sent some people to race her for me and I don't know what happened. She ended up throwing herself coming off the track and hit her head and that was it."

"I got the call at the wedding, and that really put a damper on things."

Eternally grateful for the horse who taught him as much as he did her, Trelford's success with Lastkickathecan inspired him to grow his stable with the help of his father Roy, who has accompanied him to the last three London Classic Yearling Sales.

Consisting of trotters Small Town Road and Green Silverado, and pacer Miss Party Girl, Trelford's new trio is already paying dividends in 2026.

"They're all big, strong, healthy horses, and they seem to put

“They don’t all make it to the track, but these three got there, and we’ve been able to build off it.”

Trelford has a vision for each of his trainees.

“I’d like to see Small Town Road just bang away at Hanover, and the same goes for Miss Party Girl – they’re turning into pretty nice B-track racehorses,” he said.

“Green Silverado, I think she’s got a pretty high ceiling, so I’d like to see her compete in the [Ontario] Sires Stakes through the summer and into the fall, then put her away on a good note and get her going again next spring.”

Off to a strong start after setting career highs across the board in 2025, Trelford has never been one to harp on the numbers.

He said, sharing a moment with loved ones, like winning Horse of the Year at his hometown Hanover Raceway with the Rick Rier-owned Century Liberty, is bigger than one person – and that’s what the Fritz-Trelfords have always been about.

“It was really special last year to get that award at Hanover,” he said. “It might not be as special to some people but it was to me.”

Ontario's standardbred industry receives additional funding of more than $14 million

by Dave Briggs / Ontario Racing

Ontario Racing is excited to announce that it is immediately contributing additional funding of more than $14 million to the Ontario Standardbred horse racing industry as part of the Ontario government's plan to increase support to protect agriculture and rural jobs across the province.

The new money for the standardbred industry is part of $35 million in additional funding for all three racing breeds, combined, for each of the next five years.

Claus Andersen
Racing action at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Pepsi North America Cup night.

Ontario Racing's industry representative board of directors voted to direct 83 per cent of the additional funds toward Ontario's breeding sector and racing participants.

Standardbred racing is conducted at 11 of the province's 14 racetracks.

Highlights of how the additional funding will be allocated this year specific to the standardbred industry in Ontario include:

- An increase of $5 million for the Standardbred Improvement Program (SIP) that conducts, among other programs, the Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS).

• An additional $4.3 million will be directed through SIP to races restricted to overnights for Ontario Bred and Sired horses held at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

• OSS Gold Series legs now carry total purses of $200,000 for legs split into multiple divisions and a purse of $150,000 for those conducted in a single division. Super Final purses have increased from $300,000 to $350,000. Purses for Grassroots legs have increased to $30,000 and each Grassroots championship event will now go for $100,000. Prospect Series legs have been increased to $10,000 and the Prospect Series finals will each have a purse of $25,000.

• $4.79 million in additional purse funding – $1 million to purses at Woodbine Mohawk Park and $3.79 million, total, to the province's other 10 tracks – to push total core standardbred purses funded by government to $58 million.

• At the Premier level (Woodbine Mohawk Park), overnight purses will rise about 11 per cent from an average of about $18,000 to around $20,000.

• At the Signature level (Flamboro, Georgian, Grand River, and Western Fair), overnight purses will increase about 42 per cent from approximately $7,000 to $10,000.

• At the Grassroots level (Clinton, Dresden, Hanover, Hiawatha, Kawartha, and Lakeshore), overnight purses will increase about 22 per cent from about $4,500 to $5,500.

Ontario Racing thanks the Ontario Government for investing in jobs in the province's horse racing sector.

The funding increase will be used to create a more competitive horse racing industry, protect jobs, and support the nearly 18,000 Ontarians who earn a living from the horse racing sector. The additional funds will also address inflation that has risen by approximately 25 per cent since the province signed an important long-term funding agreement with the industry eight years ago.

The horse racing industry in Ontario annually injects over $1.9 billion to the Ontario economy and provides approximately $330 million in provincial taxes. Horse racing drives economic activity in dozens of communities across the province, particularly in rural areas where economic opportunities may be limited.

The funding comes through the fifth amendment to the Amended and Restated Funding Agreement for Live Horse Racing, signed in 2018. The additional funds will position the Ontario horse racing sector to better invest in breeding, capital infrastructure and purses.

It is important to note that since the fifth amendment was finalized in June 2026, purse levels through March 2027 will have some incremental funding not available at the start of the season blended into purses for the remainder of this season. Purse levels may fluctuate slightly in the remaining four years of the additional funding to reflect the overall increase being spread over a full year.

Callie Rocks, Mystical JK score in INSS at Hoosier

Two-year-old pacing fillies began their Indiana Sires Stakes journey at Harrah's Hoosier Park on Wednesday (July 8) with a pair of divisions. Callie Rocks driven by Trace Tetrick for trainer Tyler George sets the tone by winning the $65,500 first split. Meanwhile, Mystical JK driven by Kyle Wilfong for trainer Jay Hochstetler, was shot out of a cannon down the stretch to take down the second division.

lengths, Callie Rocks maintained her strong start firing past the halfway mark in :57.2.

As Callie Rocks lead grew to the third quarter turn in 1:25.4, Skyway Elegant was hanging onto second by a thread with Ponda Era making a play first-over on the outside. Finding an extra gear down the stretch in :26.2, Ponda Era made a late challenge with a :26.2 last quarter but could not reach Callie Rocks who held on by a quarter-length in 1:53. JK's Fast (John De Long) shook loose late to rally for third, three-quarters-of-a-length behind the winner.

Owned by Nathan Yoder, Gary Graber, and Stephen Stoll, Callie Rocks added her winning paycheck to boost her lifetime earnings to $41,306 for her third career win. The daughter of Rockin Image—Cat Race was bred by David Fry.

It was a much different route to victory for Mystical JK (Wilfong), as the duo went from last-to-first in the final stanza en route to the mild upset victory.

Leaving from post 5, Mystical JK was away fifth in the early stages while Kountry Legacy (De Long) cut the opening quarter in :28. Owleo's Pride (Ricky Macomber, Jr.) brushed up the backstretch to the front, taking control before the half in :56.1. The fillies stacked up slightly entering the final turn, before Owleo's Pride continued to three-quarters in 1:25 under fire from Fantastech (Marcus Miller) while Mystical JK took the worst of the log-jam and was shuffled to last, five lengths back.

Owleo's Pride turned away Fantastech before Mystical JK began to wind up her rally on the wide side, blitzing home in :26.1 to nail Owleo's Pride by a nose at the wire in 1:52.1. Fantastech held for third, 1½ lengths back of the top two.

It was the first win in two tries for Mystical JK, a daughter of JK Endofanera—Mystical Carrie. She now has $32,500 banked for owners Connie Hochstetler, Mary Buddig, Janet Schwartz, and South of the Tracks Racing, Mystical JK was bred by Mystical Marker Farms.

ROOKIE TROTTING FILLIES KICK OFF INSS AT HOOSIER

Kicking off the Indiana Sires Stakes season for 2-year-olds on Tuesday (July 7), Harrah's Hoosier Park showcased a trio of divisions for the first leg for 2-year-old trotting fillies won by Queen Ada Jean, Dance Remix, and Unburdened.

Queen Ada Jean driven by Kyle Wilfong for trainer Jay Hochstetler charged late to win the $46,000 first split on the evening as the 3-1 third choice in the wagering.

Leaving from the rail in the field of seven, Wilfong guided Queen Ada Jean into fourth allowing for challengers to pass by as the post time favorite Janae (Jordan Ross) went off-stride at the start. Rebuffpinklady (Doug Rideout) was the quickest off the wings, leading to the first turn in :29.1. Queen Ada Jean moved up to third as Gladden (Jay Cross) jumped it off from third, while Rebuffpinklady showed the way to the halfway pole in :59.4 with Judy's Legacy (John De Long) sitting in second. At big odds, Rebuffpinklady hit the turn strong offering separation from Judy's Legacy to the three-quarter pole in 1:29.4. Queen Ada Jean found her footing gliding past Judy's Legacy before accelerating to the lead and cruising in 1:58.1 by 3½ lengths. Savings Account (Marcus Miller) rallied for second from the backfield, while Rebuffpinklady fell to third.

The winning Dover Dan—Challax Hanover filly is owned by Jay Hochstetler, Finkelberg Racing LLC, South Of The Tracks Rac Inc. The 2-year-old filly was bred by John Bontrager, Jr. Queen Ada Jean increased her lifetime earnings to $23,600 for her first career win in two tries. Queen Ada Jean paid $8.40 to win.

Making the track her dance floor, Dance Remix driven by Jordan Ross for trainer Henry Graber, Jr came from behind to claim the $46,500 second division.

Away from post 6, Dance Remix found a seat in midpack as Verity (Jared Finn) blitzed to the lead from the outside to command the first quarter turn in :27.4. Verity's lead was short lived as M M's Vision (John De Long) flew past the leader along the backstretch hitting the halfway mark in :59. Dance Remix led the charge from fourth shuffling along the outside as M M's Vision maintained her lead to the stretch in 1:28.3. Headed for home, Dance Remix turned on the jets, boosting past M M's Vision with a :27.2 rally to cross the finish line in 1:56.3 two lengths clear. M M's Vision held for second, while In the Buff (Kyle Wilfong) got up for third.

The 2-year-old is owned by S&R Racing Stables and Indiana Stables LLC, while being bred by Richard Fry. The Rebuff—Antsy Dancey filly made her first deposit into her lifetime earnings account of $23,250 winning her first start of her career. Dance Remix paid $7.60 to win.

Unburdened followed suit in the $46,000 third division, making her career debut a winning effort with Marcus Miller in the bike for Erv Miller.

Leaving from the rail, Unburdened was away third in line while Satin Serenade (John De Long) rocketed to the top from the far outside to cut the opening quarter in :28.3. The field raced single-file on the backstretch, with Satin Serenade laying down middle-half fractions of :59.3 and 1:29.2 before Miller right lined the 1-2 favorite. Once fed racetrack, Unburdened gobbled up ground, trotting home in :27.2 with a statuesque Miller in the bike to cruise to a two-length victory on the wire. Twister Sister (James Yoder) shook loose for second, with Intricate Dance (Doug Rideout) finishing third.

The winning daughter of Temporal Hanover—Muscle Baby Doll was bred by Black Creek Farm and Hickory Hollow Stables. Unburdened is owned by Erving Miller Stable, Anthony Lombardi, and D&M Trading II and is now one-for-one to begin her career.

Kentucky SIRE STAKES REPORT

Hope Hill sets track record with Oak Grove KYSS win

by Oak Grove Racing publicity

Virgil Morgan, Jr. trainee Hope Hill outfooted the surrounding early speed to take the lead and cruise on the muscle to a track-record 1:49.1 victory in the $80,000 Kentucky Sire Stakes (KYSS) "A" division for 3-year-old pacing fillies on Wednesday afternoon (July 8) at Oak Grove Racing, Gaming & Hotel.

Leaving from post 3, driver Dexter Dunn hustled Hope Hill to the lead through a :26.2 first quarter to pocket Caviart Daisy (driven by Scott Zeron) and then hit the brakes slightly moving for a :54.4 half. Interstellar (Marvin Luna) angled off the pylons from fourth to lay a mild first-up attack since Hope Hill smoothly accelerated for three-quarters in 1:22 and kept chugging through the remainder. She crossed the beam 1¼ lengths better than Caviart Daisy with Interstellar chasing in third and Gala (Todd McCarthy) leveling off from a second-over trip for fourth.

A filly by Papi Rob Hanover—Ruth Hill, Hope Hill won her fourth race from six starts this season and her eighth race from 15 starts in her career, earning $190,655 for owner/breeder Tom Hill. She snapped the previous track record for 3-year-old pacing fillies of 1:49.4 set in 2023 by Charleston and matched last season by Unreasonable, paying $4.42 to win in the process.

Funky Buddha (Tim Tetrick) posted arguably the most game mile of the meet at Oak Grove when never relenting in his first-over challenge against odds-on leader Show Me Your Ace (Dunn) to then hold firmly for the win at odds of 10-1 in a 1:49.3 mile. Tetrick charged out of post 7 with the Tony Dinges trainee and was forced to push forward after leader Show Me Your Ace with Captain Apple (Yannick Gingras) and Louville (Scott Zeron) sealing any vacancies at the pylons. Funky Buddha raced at Show Me Your Ace's throat to a :26.4 first quarter and through a :54.1 half before the favorite retreated midway up the backstretch, at which point Funky Buddha faced a late bid from Papi Rick (Andy McCarthy) rolling from mid-pack. Past three-quarters in 1:21.3, Funky Buddha dug in against the late flanking onslaught for a head victory at the line with Captain Apple skimming through a seam at the pylons for second and Papi Rick settling for third. Prince Willie (Joey Putnam) rallied from last for fourth.

A 3-year-old colt by Sweet Lou–The Double Deuce, Funky Buddha won his second race from five starts and his fifth race from 15 starts in his career, earning $203,840 for owner Rick Berks. He paid $22.18 to win.

Trainer Brett Pelling registered a hat trick on the card with three wins inside of the six $40,000 KYSS “B” divisions on the card. He sent the colt Sea Bistro Hanover (Todd McCarthy, 1:50.3 winning mile; $4.40 to win) to victory as well as a pair of fillies in Gracious (Todd McCarthy, 1:52; $3.30) and Sunny Station (Todd McCarthy, 1:50.2; $3.08). Gonebutnotforgottn (Tetrick, 1:50.1; $6.72) won in the other “B” division for sophomore pacing fillies while Benny B Hill (Dunn, 1:50.4; $7.04) and Fire Run (Luna, 1:50.3; $45.30) scored in the other dashes for sophomore pacing males.

After the day’s KYSS action, Little Expensive (Tyler Miller, 1:52; $27.28) pulled an upset in the undercard feature, the $40,000 open handicap trot. Miller worked a pocket trip behind Platinum As (Gingras) through a clip of :27.2, :55.4, and 1:23.3 before pouncing to score by 1¼ lengths with The Rogue Prince (Markus Niklasson) rallying from a ground-saving trip for second. Platinum As settled for third and 3-5 favorite Jigger DK (Todd McCarthy) closed mildly for fourth. Julie Miller trains Little Expensive, a 6-year-old gelding by Muscle Hill–Seviyorum, for owners Andy Miller Stable, Jean Goehlen, and VIP Internet Stable LLC. He won his fourth race from nine starts this season and his 22nd race from 71 starts in his career, earning $448,046.

Live racing at Oak Grove returns for closing week of the 2026 harness racing season on Monday (July 13) with a 15-race card featuring a pair of $80,000 KYSS finals for pacing 2-year-olds. First-race post time is 10:55 a.m. (CDT). For more information including free past performances, visit oakgrovegaming.com.

DUNN WINS FIVE, MELANDER WINS THREE IN OAK GROVE’S ‘TUESDAY AT THE TROTS’

Driver Dexter Dunn posted another five-win day on “Tuesday at the Trots” (July 7) at Oak Grove Racing, Gaming & Hotel including a sweep of the $60,000 Kentucky Sire Stakes (KYSS) “A” divisions for trotting 3-year-olds with a pair of Marcus Melander pupils, which were part of a three-win day for the trainer.

Zephyr Kemp brushed to the top past a :27.3 first quarter and cruised to a 1:53.2 victory in the KYSS “A” division for sophomore trotting males. Dunn cleared stablemate Midwest Chimp (driven by Mattias Melander) and coasted through middle fractions of :56.3 and 1:25.4 before pulling away for a three-length victory under a firm hold. (Atlee Bender) kicked from a ground-saving trip for second over Midwind Chimp while Conboy (Joey Putnam) also hugged the cones for fourth.

A colt by Calgary Games—Southwind Adele owned by Kemppi Stables Oy Inc., Suojalampi Stable Inc., PCW Racing LLC, and Sjoebloom Racing Inc., Zephyr Kemp won his second race from five starts this season and his fifth race from 15 starts in his career, earning $162,150. He paid $3.58 to win.

In the following race, Dunn vaulted over the top with Melander trainee Crossover for a 1:53.1 victory in the KYSS “A” division for sophomore trotting fillies. Dunn planted his charge into third while Heart For Two (Yannick Gingras) sped from a wide draw to the lead in a :27.4 first quarter. Heart For Two stayed steady to a :56.2 half but endured a challenge to three-quarters in 1:24.4 as odds-on favorite Naked And Famous (Todd McCarthy) loomed from the pocket with Crossover following her cover. Naked And Famous stalled in her challenge while Crossover edged three wide spinning for home and powered by her rivals with ease to slide away for a 2¼-length win. Heart For Two held second from pylon-skimming Avenzee (Tim Tetrick) in third with Naked And Famous finishing evenly in fourth.

A daughter of Gimpanzee—Piranha Fury competing for owner S R F Stable, Crossover won her third race from five starts this season and her fifth race from 12 starts in her career, earning $100,418. She paid $6.20 to win.

Dunn piloted Melander’s other winning trainee on the day with a front-stepping effort by Octavius (1:57.2 winning mile; $2.86 to win) in the second of three $40,000 KYSS “B” divisions for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings. The other winners from Dunn’s five on the day included Marino (1:55.4; $10.58), who rallied off a helmet to win the first “B” division for freshman trotting males, and a first-over sweep to the last turn for victory by Coreys Love (1:54.3; $18.28) in the third of four KYSS “B” divisions for 3-year-old trotting fillies.

Chris Beaver trainee Special Day (Andy McCarthy) blitzed up the rim rounding the last turn to score a 1:54.1 win in the $60,000 KYSS “A” division for 2-year-old trotting males. McCarthy floated away fourth as favorites Carbon Fiber (Gingras) and Delivery Boy (Dewayne Minor) swooped forward towards the top in a contentious :28.1 first quarter. Delivery Boy marched to the lead approaching three-eighths to pocket Carbon Fiber and clocked a :56.4 half before hitting the brakes for three-quarters. As Minor tried to grab a breather, McCarthy angled out into an attack and surged to the lead with Special Day after three-quarters in 1:25.4 before edging away for a two-length win. Delivery Boy held second from Carbon Fiber in third with Oddsologist (Dunn) chasing in fourth.

Co-owned by Beaver with Bill Manes and Leo Fleming, Special Day is unbeaten from two starts and has banked $50,000. The Walner—Hello Tomorrow colt paid $14.92 to win.

Merry Zee (Gingras) took command early and scored the tactical edge on 4-5 favorite Redice (Bender) to win the $60,000 KYSS "A" division for 2-year-old trotting fillies in a 1:56.1 mile. After taking the lead to a :28.1 first quarter, Merry Zee yielded control briefly to 47-1 shot Giveheavenhill (Junior Guelpa), who raced wide all through the first turn until clearing command after three-eighths. Gingras looped back to the lead with Merry Zee to a :58 half and coasted up the backside while Redice worked into a second-over position behind longshot Carly P (Todd McCarthy). While Carly P stalled in her bid to three-quarters in 1:27.2, Merry Zee scooted away from the field and opened nearly three lengths rounding for home as Redice found clear sailing. Merry Zee held firmly to the finish for a 2-3/4-length win over Redice while Luxe Lindy (Tyler Miller) rallied to take third from Carly P.

Ron Burke trains Merry Zee, a filly by Gimpanzee—Merry Ann, for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC, Knox Services Inc., and Weaver Bruscemi LLC. She won her first race in her second start and has now earned $40,000, paying a $5.66 mutuel for the victory.

The fastest mile of the 17-race card actually came from the final KYSS "B" division for 3-year-old trotting colts when Lucas Wallin trainee Kaizen (Markus Niklasson) stayed unbeaten with a lifetime-best 1:52.4 effort. Niklasson sat patiently with the $350,000 yearling purchase as favorite August Salazar (Gingras) cut early fractions of :27.2 and :56.4. Kaizen then advanced up the rim to three-quarters in 1:25 under chilly handling and with the whip tucked away before spurting by August Salazar in the stretch sprint for a half-length win. Kjell Andersen owns the colt by Walner—Jolene Jolene who paid $10.68 to win.

Of the remaining KYSS "B" divisions on the day: Back Country (Tetrick, 1:57.2; $6.34) took the final dash for freshman trotting males; the three splits for freshmen trotting fillies went to Heart Of Secret (Gingras, 1:56.2; $2.88), Lickety Split (Verlin Yoder, 1:58.1; $5.82) and Green Ballet (Andy McCarthy, 1:57.2; $20.70); the other two divisions for sophomore trotting males were taken by the Joe Bongiorno-trained tandem of Zidane Kemp (Tetrick, 1:53; $9.26) and King Of The Wind (Tetrick, 1:53.4; $3.96); and the other three splits for sophomore trotting fillies went to Calyx (Todd McCarthy, 1:54; $12.84), Degas (Gingras, 1:53.3; $3.84) and Country Glide (Andy McCarthy, 1:53.2; $4.06).

MIKI'S BIG BANG GAME IN OAK GROVE KYSS WIN

Jamie Sullivan trainee Miki's Big Bang ground forward from off the speed to tackle strung-out leader Midnight Drive and clinch the win in the $60,000 Kentucky Sire Stakes (KYSS) "A" division for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings on Monday afternoon (July 6) at Oak Grove Racing, Gaming & Hotel.

Tricky Hill (driven by Andy McCarthy) fired from post 4 to the top with Ballardrggoldfngnr (Archie Buford) pushing forward along with pylon-starter Declamation (Yannick Gingras) to a :26.3 first quarter. Midnight Drive (Dexter Dunn) floated from post 8 to the middle of the pack with no vacancies at the pylons, forcing Dunn to send his charge after the lead. Dunn cleared command just passing a :55.1 half, at which point Miki's Big Bang (Tim Tetrick) tipped off the pylons from fifth and steadily advanced up the rim towards his stablemate. The two locked into battle off three-quarters in 1:23.4 and stayed neck and neck until the final yards, where Miki's Big Bang lunged forward and grabbed victory by a half-length in 1:52.3. Midnight Drive settled for second with I'm Toohot For You (Marcus Miller) rallying from second over for third and Blazin Lou (Atlee Bender) closing from third over for fourth.

A colt by Always B Miki—Shebang N, Miki's Big Bang competes for owner James Fleming. He now has one win and one second in two outings, earning $40,000, and returned $16.72 to win.

Banana Beach (Ronnie Gillespie) maintained supremacy over her cohort with a comfortable 1:52.4 stroll on the lead in the $60,000 KYSS "A" division for 2-year-old pacing fillies. Gillespie worked his filly by Pebble Beach—Sweet Anna Banana to the top out of post 7 through a :27.1 first quarter to pocket pylon-starter Lindy Believer (Gingras), who then followed Gillespie's helmet keenly to a :56.2 half and 1:25 three-quarters. Banana Beach spun off the bottom corner and quickened with just a light tap of the whip to put away Lindy Believer by a length while Baby Puppy (Miller) gave chase for third and Jk Alwaysbpositive (Tetrick) took fourth.

Ronnie Gillespie trains Banana Beach, a two-time winner with $50,000 banked, for owners Heather Sparks and Dr. Madonna Morrison. She paid $2.94 to win.

A total of five $40,000 KYSS "B" divisions were contested on the 15-race card. In the filly dashes, Sweet As Silk (Todd McCarthy, 1:54.3 winning mile; $4.36 to win) and Dame Frances (Bender, 1:52.2; $2.90) notched front-stepping wins while Bluebird Beach (Todd McCarthy, 1:54.2; $3.18), Fenway Station (Bender, 1:54.4; $23.10), and Lone Cypress (Todd McCarthy, 1:53; $4.42) won in the colt and gelding splits.

The 15-race card on Monday also featured a pair of $37,000 open pacing events. Muskateer Hanover (Tetrick, 1:49.3; $7.68) went pillar-to-post to best 1-5 favorite Captain Arturovico (Dunn) in the open pace while Bonitas Best Bet (Dunn, 1:51.1; $5.62) persevered first over to overhaul pacesetter Aintnothingucando (Gingras) to win the fillies and mares open handicap pace over second-up Lyin' Eyes. Wayne Oke trains Muskateer Hanover, a 6-year-old gelding by Sweet Lou—Marinade Hanover, for owner Calcutta Stable LLC while Ron Burke conditions Bonitas Best Bet, a 5-year-old mare by All Bets Off—Bonita Beach, for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC, Frank Baldachino, Weaver Bruscelli LLC, J & T Silva, and Purnel & Libby.

The victory, which came after a long technical delay caused by a mass network outage, put $75,000 on the card of the gelded son of Muscle Mass out of Pretty Crafty and pushed winning driver James MacDonald over $90 million in career earnings.

Sent off as the betting favorite in the field of eight, Unstable Genius sat near the back of the pack in the early going as Arm N Hammer (Bob McClure) led the field through the quarter-mile fraction of :27.4. Grand Manalishi (Tyler Jones) took command before the :57.2 half, but shortly after, Tyler Moore sent Detonater Hanover toward the front out of the fourth spot followed closely by Unstable Genius. Detonater Hanover was in the lead at the three-quarter pole, reached in 1:26.3, but Unstable Genius went past in mid-stretch to win by one length. Detonater Hanover held on for second, followed by Grand Manalishi, Kountry Cantab (Trevor Henry), and Spiritual Guidance (Mark MacDonald).

“That’s kind of unheard of for 2-year-old trotting colts starting out here – a mile in :54 and finish the way we did,” MacDonald told WEG broadcaster John Rallis. “We were smoking. So, definitely a great first impression, and a great first debut.”

The mile was just three-fifths-of-a-second off the 1:53.4 OSS record for a 2-year-old trotting colt on a seven-eighths-mile track set by You Got It Kemp in 2024 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Unstable Genius paid $4.50.

Watch the race replay here.

A $140,000 yearling purchase at the 2025 London Classic Yearling Sale, Unstable Genius was bred by Ashley and Dean Wilson, is owned by Pollack Racing LLC of Venetia, PA and trained by Dave Menary.

“Dave was so high on [Unstable Genius training down],” MacDonald said. “He is such a great trainer and has had so many great horses. So, when they’re talking them up like that, it gives you a little extra confidence in them. He was spot on because the horse couldn’t have been any better tonight.”

As for going over $90 million in career earnings, MacDonald said, “It means a lot. Doug [McNair] and I have been talking about it, because he’s closing in on $100 million, and I remember just watching the greats when I was starting here, and seeing them get their signs for $100 million. I was thinking, ‘I wonder if I will ever get half of that or even a quarter of that.’ It’s a number that really stood out to me when I went watching great drivers from the past here, and if I ever get there – and I hope I do – it will be a pretty special day.”

On the Monday card at Woodbine Mohawk Park there were also four $30,000 Grassroots events for 2-year-old pacing fillies. The winners were:

- Downtown Boogie (Cattlewash—Dance Until Dawn) won her career pari-mutuel debut in 1:55.3 for breeder Stephanie Smith-Rothaug, owners Mac Nichol, and Kiwi Stables, trainer Dr. Ian Moore and driver Mark MacDonald. Downtown Boogie was a $150,000 U.S. purchase at the 2025 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

ROOKIE FILLIES RISE TO THE OCCASION IN OSS GOLD

Two-year-old filly trotters Queen Of Bs, Verily, and Rebel Moon won their respective $66,666 OSS Gold opening legs, Sunday evening (July 5) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Queen Of Bs, trained by Matt Bax for owner Brad Grant, kicked things off with a gritty score in the first OSS Gold dash on the 12-race card.

It was 46-1 outsider Simea who seized early command in the seven-horse field and proceeded to open up a sizable lead in the early going. Queen Of Bs settled into second, followed by Song From Heaven and Cold Breeze, as Simea marched through an opening quarter in :27.4.

Simea continued to lead the way through half in :58.4, as Louis-Philippe Roy, at the controls of Queen Of Bs, kept close tabs on the pacesetter before moving to the outside to engage her rival into the turn for home. Simea, with Bob McClure in the race bike, repelled that initial challenge as Roy tucked his charge back along the rail ahead of three-quarters in 1:27.2.

A host of rivals then came calling in early stretch as a game Simea looked to fend off her foes. Roy and Queen Of Bs wrested the lead away in the late going, only to have a hard-charging Major Contender announce her arrival in the final strides.

At the wire, Queen Of Bs held on for a nose win in 1:55.1. Major Contender was second, Simea was third and Cold Breeze finished fourth.

The daughter of King Of The North out of the Conway Hall mare Win Missy B arrived at her second start off a runner-up effort in her debut on June 26 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

“This filly, since day one, she wants to do it and she definitely has the talent,” said Bax. “We added a head pole – she’s just so green. You could see that tonight. She is just going to get better as the year goes on as she figures out racing. But right now, she has a nice kick going home.

“It was pretty close. I didn’t think that she had it but thank goodness she did.”

Bred by Winning Key Inc., Queen Of Bs was a $140,845 (CDN) purchase at the 2025 Harrisburg Sale.

She paid $9.70 for the win.

Four races later, Verily, trained by Meg Crone for WJ Donovan, put on a platinum debut performance in her OSS Gold division.

Northernlights Glo blasted off the wings to take the early lead, followed by Fleetwood Dancer, Flawless Lady, and Karma Queen.

It was Northernlights Glo leading the way through an opening quarter in :28.1, but the lead was short lived, as Flawless Lady, who left from the outside post 8, marched on to take over the proceedings, while Louis-Philippe Roy, piloting Verily, kept a patient hand with his rookie pupil, the pair sitting sixth.

Flawless Lady held a 1½-length advantage through a half in :58.3, while Verily remained sixth. Roy then followed the cover of Outlast, and the duo began to pick up outside momentum heading into the turn for home.

Fifth and rolling after three-quarters in 1:27.4, Verily was a menacing four-wide presence in mid-stretch, but needed to collar Northernlights Glo, who had retaken the lead with about 100 yards left to the finish line.

A relentless Verily was able to get the measure of Northernlights Glo in deep stretch, besting her game rival by one length for the win in 1:55.2, powered by :26.4 final quarter. Fleetwood Dancer was third and Flawless Lady finished fourth.

Bred by Overseas Farms Ltd., the daughter of Muscle Mass out of the E L Titan mare Yen arrived at her OSS Gold engagement off a pair of qualifiers at Woodbine Mohawk Park, including a 1:59.3 mile – she was second – on June 26.

“I was very happy with both of them [qualifiers],” said Crone. “The first one [a 2:05.2 mile June 19] was just an experience of being here at Mohawk. The second time, she was great. Louis was really impressed by her.”

The bay was an $85,000 (CDN) purchase at the 2025 London Classic Yearling Sale.

“Bill Donovan picked her out,” Crone said. “We went back and looked at her and we loved her. We’re really excited.”

Verily paid $14.90 for the win.

Rebel Moon struck gold in the final OSS Gold division race of the evening.

Jyn Erso got the first call off the gate and glided to the early lead, with R Rosie seated second, Rebel Moon third, and Selectively Sweet in fourth through an opening panel in :28.2. R Rosie was directed to the lead soon after and held a 1½-length advantage over Jyn Erso after a half in :58.4.

Jody Jamieson then pivoted Rebel Moon to the outside and set their sights on R Rosie before reaching the three-quarters station in 1:28.1.

From there, it was a stretch-drive throwdown between the fillies, who matched strides until Rebel Moon finally wore down a gutsy R Rosie for a hard-earned half-length win. Jyn Erso finished third and Northern Song took fourth.

The final time was 1:56.

Trained by Carl Jamieson for owners Sarah Anthon and Ellen Ott, Rebel Moon arrived at Sunday's dash off a fourth (elevated from fifth) in her debut on June 26 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

"Last time, it was just her first start," said Jody. "I think her last quarter was in :27[.1]. She was perfect. She's always been perfect. She trotted great from the day we broke her. She's been a sweetheart all along."

Bred by Jeff Gillis, the daughter of Muscle Mass out of the Father Patrick mare Kiss An Angel posted a pair of qualifiers ahead of her first start, including a winning effort in 2:01.2 on June 19 at the Milton oval.

Sent on her way as the 7-5 choice, she paid $4.80 for her milestone victory.

In other Sunday evening OSS action at Woodbine Mohawk Park, driver Doug McNair and trainer Gregg McNair swept the three Grassroots divisions for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings, winning with Atlas Ross, C Script, and Yes I Am Hanover.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Jason Bartlett wins seven at Buffalo Raceway

by Brian J. Mazurek for Buffalo Raceway

The New York Sire Stakes came to Buffalo Raceway with the freshman pacers for both sexes taking center stage and while there were no major upsets, some good efforts were put in.

But the top performance, however, belonged to driver Jason Bartlett as he made the shuffle off to Buffalo well worth it as he garnered seven victories, a second, and a third-place finish in 10 races. He collected two Sire Stakes wins and five in the Excelsior Series.

In the $54,500 pace for the colt and gelding pacers, Bastonata Bluechip ($5.76) was a bit tardy off the starting gate, giving the field about a five-length head start, but that wasn't an issue in the end as he notched a half-length score over Wardensville (Tyler Buter) in 1:55.4 with Global Choice (Bartlett) getting third. It was the fastest time among the four New York Sire Stakes winners.

With Wardensville taking control of the top approaching the opening panel, he put up splits of :28.1, :57.1 and 1:26.4. Bastonata Bluechip meanwhile scrambled back into the race and a first over trip got him to the lead. Turning for home, Bastonata Bluechip (Matt Kakaley) stayed straight as an arrow and rallied to get the impressive win.

Owned by Joe P Racing Stable, Fiddler's Creek Stables, and Alexander Racing Stable, it was the first victory in his first outing for Bastonata Bluechip (American Courage—Ascending). Conditioned by Travis Alexander, the win put $27,500 in the bank for Bastonata Bluechip.

In the second event for the males, Marie's Jet ($6.04) was extremely stubborn on the front end and never gave in to Beatle Blue Chip (Drew Monti) and Clear Deal (Leon Bailey) in the stretch, posting a half-length victory.

Taking off and grabbing the advantage approaching the opening marker, Marie's Jet (Bartlett) was able to kick out splits of :28.4, :58.4, and 1:27.3.

Beatle Blue Chip was first over around the final turn with Clear Deal sitting in the pocket. Both were in range of Marie's Jet in the stretch but neither one could find the right answer in getting past him.

Owned by Vincent Ferriero and Carlye Yanstick, Marie's Jet (Roll With Joe—R Marie Hanover) is trained by Aaron Lambert. The victory, the second in as many starts in his young career, increased his seasonal account to $33,250.

It was a sweet victory for Cowboy Candy ($3.08) in the $51,500 first division in the NYSS for the female pacers as she wired the short field of four in a career best 1:56. She held back Too Pink To Pass (Lauren Tritton) by a length while Hurricane Schmazy (Mark MacDonald) took third place honors.

After grabbing the advantage in the early going, Cowboy Candy (Bartlett) stomped out fractions of :28.4, :58.4, and 1:28.1 as Too Pink To Pass sat in the pocket. Sinful Cindy Too (Cory Stratton) made a first over move approaching the three-quarter marker but that effort quickly stalled out.

In the lane, Cowboy Candy stayed on point as Too Pink To Pass made a timid late bid but came up a length short.

Owned by Chain Lightning Stables and trained by Lambert, it was the second win in three tries for Cowboy Candy (So Surreal—Caviart Elena). The victory jumped her earnings to $78,100 on the season.

In the other NYSS division for the gals, Phast Phyllis ($6.46) was just that on, going coast-to-coast, topping the heavily favored Fendilicious (Bartlett) by three lengths in 1:56.2. Country Money (Stratton) picked up the show check.

Phast Phyllis (Braxten Boyd) was able to register fractions of :28.4, :58.1, and 1:27.4 with Fendilicious drafting along in the pocket. Phast Phyllis wasn't going to be denied however as she kept her nose to the grindstone and held back the challenge of Fendilicious.

Co-owned by Paul Kautz and trainer Cameron Capone, Phast Phyllis (Huntsville—Robin J) earned a nice $26,750 in her first offering.

In the first bracket of the Excelsior Series worth $20,000 each for the damsels, local upstart Memums Spitfire ($37.06) roared the down stretch three wide and beat Ava's Note (Brett Crawford) by 4¼ lengths in 1:57.4. Memums Spitfire was driven by Wade Tomaszewski, trained by Thomas Mays, and owned by Curtis Edholm.

The second leg totally belonged to Bellissimabluechip ($3.94) as she blew out the field by 13 lengths in 1:57.3. She easily went gate-to-wire putting away U Are My Shadow (Brett MacDonald) and Mojarra's Jeannie (Boyd).

Spider Claire (Bartlett) was the fastest of the ladies in the Excelsior as she posted a 1¼ length victory over Wine Down Wensday (Buter) in 1:57. She returned $5.18 for the decision.

In the final division, Maxina also won in blowout fashion as she delivered a 9¼ length thumping Steph Pony Lovedat in 1:57.2. It was Bartlett's seventh win on the program and Maxina returned $4.58 for the triumph.

The first division of the $20,000 Excelsior Series for the pacing gentlemen went to Babylons Blue Chip ($2.40) as he subdued My Brothers Keeper by two lengths in 1:57.1.

Twin B Wildfire (Bartlett) toyed with the field in the second event for the fellas as he trounced the field by 9¼ lengths in 1:57.1. He beat runner up Shadow Hill (Bruce Clarke) and paid $2.46 as the chalk.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Luna, Alagna sweep fourth leg of OHSS for sophomore colt pacers at Northfield

by Wes Mayberry / Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association

Driver Marvin Luna and trainer Tony Alagna teamed to win both $75,000 divisions of the fourth leg of the Ohio Sires Stakes for sophomore colt pacers at Northfield Park Racino on Monday (July 6).

Luna drove Alagna trainee Myboypank to victory in 1:52.2 in the first division. It was the second OSS win of the season for the Catch The Fire gelding, who also took a victory in the second leg at Eldorado Scioto Downs on May 25 in a lifetime mark of 1:50. Myboypank won Monday's race by a neck over Tsunami Seas (Brett Miller) with When Is Parade (Tyler Smith) finishing third. Owned by Samuel Bowie, Myboypank has hit the board in six of seven seasonal starts with four wins. He has six victories and $101,070 in earnings in 11 lifetime starts.

Up In Place won the second division of the OHSS for sophomore colt pacers on Monday with Luna in the sulky for Alagna and owners John Barnard and Alagna Racing. The Lather Up colt tripped the wire in 1:53.1, winning by 1¾ lengths. Rock Son (Dan Noble) and Pet Project (Trevor Smith) rounded out the top three. Up In Place is a perfect five-for-five this season, including three OHSS wins, with $111,250 in earnings. He recorded his lifetime mark of 1:50.4 in the second leg of the OHSS and has six wins and $154,675 in earnings in 13 career starts.

Celebrating its 50th season in 2026, the Ohio Sires Stakes continues Saturday (July 11), with the first leg for 2-year-old colt and filly trotters at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

OHIO SIRES STAKES ACTION AT SCIOTO DOWNS

Six $50,000 divisions of the Ohio Sire Stakes for 3-year-old fillies went behind the gate Saturday (July 4) at Eldorado Scioto Downs. Four divisional winners set new lifetime marks, with the last winner of the night, Vanna By The River, demolishing her previous best by over three seconds, winning in 1:50.

Setting fractions of :26.4, :54.4, and 1:21.4, driver Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. had a strong hold of Vanna By The River and attempted to put some separation between them and the rest of the field. The duo crossed the wire three-quarters-of-a-length ahead of Laude Da (Chris Page) and Sassy By The Sea (Tyler Smith). Vanna By The Sea went off at 2-1 and paid $6.40 to win.

Owned by Our Three Sons Stable and trained by Cory Stratton, Vanna By The River's win was her third in 21 lifetime starts. Now with $168,445 in earnings, the daughter of Downbytheseaside out of the Sweet Lou mare Sweet Ace was a $48,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from LMN Bred Stables.

Wrenn, Jr. won another pacing division in 1:50.3 with Seaside Charm for trainer Ron Burke. Getting the perfect pocket trip behind Rodeo Dancer (Brett Miller), Seaside Charm came up the passing lane to win, in a new lifetime mark, for owners Thomas and Scott Dillon. By Downbytheseaside out of the Bettors Delight mare Summer Charm, Seaside Charm was bred by Brookside Stables and Amos Lengacher. The filly now has five wins in 13 starts and $115,180 in earnings. The 8-5 second favorite won over Rodeo Dancer; Beach Babe Hanover (Justin Irvine) was third.

Rhodena Blue made her first jump up into OHSS action a winning won when Tyler Smith guided her to victory in 1:52. The pair made a third-quarter brush to advance from seventh to second down the backside and just got up to win by a half-length over Bad Girl Up (Mike Wilder) and Seaside Shuffle (Page) who was third. Co-owned by 11-year-old Rory Mac Innis and her father Neil who also bred and trains, Rhodena Blue now has four wins in 13 starts and $57,578 in earnings. The daughter of Lather Up out of the Camluck mare Mc Taylor went off at 4-1 and paid $10.20 to win.

The three divisions of trotters saw last year's Dan Patch 2-Year-Old Trotting Filly of the Year Setyoursightshigh win her first start of the season in 1:54. Getting away fourth, Setyoursightshigh and Wilder moved just at the half and won by two lengths over Mooter Tooter (Miller) and Sarah's Mission (Page). By In Range out of the Cantab Hall mare Special Interest, Setyoursightshigh was a $50,000 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale purchase from Kentuckiana Farms who has now earned $729,409 lifetime. Owned by Heights Stable, Mantorp, AMG Stable, and K Kjellgren Livs AB, Saturday's victory was her eighth win in 15 lifetime starts.

Joyofmylife As and Tony Hall went gate-to-wire to win the first race on the card in 1:54.2. The Guardian Angel As filly out of the Muscle Hill mare Josie's Joy is a homebred for ACL Stuteri AB and Kjell Johansson. The mile established a new lifetime mark for Joyofmylife As who now has five wins in 12 starts and $115,375 in lifetime earnings. Going off at 16-1, Joyofmylife As paid $35.40 to win. Godusa (Wilder) was second with Fairytale Moni (Miller) third.

Chip Shot and Wrenn, Jr. took her division, also as a new lifetime mark of 1:54.2, for trainer Vernon Beachy. The Mission Accepted filly out of the Chapter Seven mare Obsessed Blue Chip, is now two-for-two on the season, with six lifetime wins in 11 starts. Chip Shot has earned $63,478 for co-owner/breeder John Schlabach and Walnut View Farm. Readi Two (Hugh Beatty) came from the back to get up for second with Lindy In My Dreams (Wilder) finishing third.

The 91-day 2026 Eldorado Scioto Downs regular season runs through Sept. 19. Races are held Tuesday-Saturday, with a special holiday card on Labor Day instead of the Tuesday card that week. The track will then re-open for the Breeders Crown, with eliminations held Oct. 16-17 and the finals Oct. 23-24. Maine SIRE STAKES REPORT

Real Horrorshow frightens competition

by Chris Tully for the Maine Sire Stakes

Maine's glamour boys division rolled back into town on Wednesday (July 8) at Bangor Raceway for two $15,000-plus divisions for 3-year-old colt pacers, with Real Horrorshow returning to the scene of his lone defeat three weeks ago.

Now that the Pine Tree State-bred star has returned to form, track management allowed just win wagering, eliminating place and show bets, along with Real Horrorshow being barred from the wagering entirely.

Ironically, Rebel's Revenge (Aaron Hall) became the 1-9 public choice and is the only horse to hand the previously unbeaten Real Horrorshow his first lifetime defeat.

Regular driver Kevin Switzer, Jr. was back in action from pylon position in the $15,434 Maine event and proceeded to set moderate fractions of :30 and 1:01.1 while maintaining a two- to three-length advantage over the pocket sitting Rebel's Revenge.

There was no outer flow movement past the half and into the much swifter 1:29.3 third panel as the rest of the field was over a dozen lengths behind the two leaders.

Down the stretch Rebel's Revenge tried valiantly to reel in the pacesetter Real Horrorshow, but to no avail. The wagering-barred "anointed one" tripped the timer in 1:57.3, grabbing his second consecutive victory and 11th of his career.

Trained by the senior Kevin Switzer, who also co-owns with Kathleen Mofield and Anthony Sivik, Jr., the son of Dude's The Man increased his lifetime earnings to $118,381. He was bred in Maine by Luke and Patricia Varnum.

Rebel's Revenge finished second; Ghost Of Winter (Joey Mosher) was third.

In the second $15,659 division for sophomore pacing colts and geldings the lukewarm 4-5 favorite Itsjustmoney enjoyed pylon position, while even-money second choice Daytoremember was saddled with post 7 and had his work cut out for him.

Switzer, Jr. protected Itsjustmoney's inside placement and rolled through comfortable initial fractions of :29.1 and :59.1, while Heath Campbell was parked with Daytoremember but ranged up to second position by the time the field hit the midway point at historic Bass Park.

Dude's The Jet (Dave Ingraham) moved first over while heading to the 1:29 third station, picking up Nuh Uh (Andy Harrington) three-deep around the final turn.

When the cavalry charge of pacers hit the top of the lane Daytoremember bounced out of the pocket and proceeded to take command by mid-stretch. While the pacesetter fought back gamely, the day belonged to Daytoremember in 1:58.3.

Owned, trained, and bred by Valerie Grondin the son of Dude's The Man returned $4.20 for his third start of the season, and second victory.

Nuh Uh finished third.

Looking ahead, First Tracks Cumberland hosts the 2-year-old colt pacers tonight (July 10), with the 3-year-old pacing fillies back at Bangor on Sunday (July 12).

For more information about the Maine Standardbred Breeders Stakes, follow them on Facebook @MaineBreedersAssociation, or go to their website: MaineSireStakes.com.

MAINE'S FROSH FILLIES DEBUT AT BANGOR

The Pine Tree State's next crop of harness horses made their pari-mutuel debut at Bangor Raceway on Sunday (July 5) with two $14,000-plus divisions of Maine Sire Stakes for 2-year-old pacing fillies.

While stallion Dude's The Man has enjoyed robust success as of late, it appears that he will have some company atop the progeny leaderboard as foals from the first crop of State Treasurer swept both divisions at historic Bass Park.

The son of Real Desire had already produced the winners of over $5.5 million during his six-year stint in Ontario, including Stockade Seelster p, 3, 1:48.4 ($1.2 million). With the move to Maine in 2023, this group by State Treasurer p, 1:47 ($1.9 million) is coming of age and started his stateside swing with real patriotic Independence weekend fireworks.

In the first $14,808 division it was No Small Wonder who wowed the early crowd and leaped out to a 10-length advantage by the :30.1 opening panel.

Driver Kevin Switzer, Jr. was able to reel in the fast filly who is trained and co-owned by the senior Kevin Switzer. With middle splits in 1:01.4 and 1:32.1 the daughter of State Treasurer appeared to be very comfortable on the front end as she led every step of the way.

The first foal from I Am Wonder Women p, 2, 1:56.1f ($70,693) coasted home in 2:02.3 and prevailed by 2¾ lengths. Switzer co-owns with Kathleen Mofield and Anthony Sivik, Jr. No Small Wonder was bred in Maine by Luke and Patricia Varnum.

There were no mutuels on this early non-wagering event. Siri (Heath Campbell, Jimmy Nickerson) finished second; Feel The Fury (Aaron Hall, Marc Tardif) was third, and both these fillies were also sired by State Treasurer.

In the second $14,983 Maine Sire Stakes for 2-year-old pacing fillies it was Bettor's Treasure who gave her Goshen (Orange County, NY) connections a victory on Hall of Fame Day.

When the wings folded the daughter of State Treasurer (McGwire Sowers) blasted out for an early lead from post 5 and after a :32.4 opening panel had five lengths on the field by the 1:04.3 midway marker.

Past the 1:34.4 third panel the loose pocket sitting Showfaith Showdown (Nick Graffam) had gotten closer to the pacesetter and was within 1½ lengths at the head of the stretch.

Down the lane Bettor's Treasure found another gear and used a :29.3 last quarter to score by 2½ lengths in 2:04.2.

Trained and co-owned by David Dziengiel with John and Thelma Kiernan and Anthony Lake, the filly is stabled at Goshen Historic Track. Bettor's Treasure had previously qualified at Monticello with her conditioner in the bike on two occasions, showing consistent miles around 2:02. She was bred in Maine by Larry Dancer and is the second foal of racing age from the Bettors Delight mare Bettor Buns p, 3, 1:55.2h ($71,001).

Showfaith Showdown finished second; Mad Moxxi (John Nason) was third in the second non-bettor.

HAYDEN EQUALS TRACK RECORD IN MAINE SIRE STAKES

Sophomore trotting filly Hayden put her name in the record books on the country's 250th birthday, equaling the track record in her division on Saturday (July 4) at Cumberland Raceway.

In the $14,000 Maine Sire Stakes for 3-year-old distaff trotters the daughter of Cantab Fashion wasted little time taking command with trainer/driver Gary Hall sending the 2-5 favorite out for an early lead. With 9-5 second choice Pembroke Lady (Heath Campbell) tipping out and challenging the leader going to the :30 second first panel, the bold move lasted only a few strides before ducking back in the 2-hole.

Hall let out a notch on Hayden after heading into the softer 1:01.2 midway point, prompting Mike Cushing to pull Our Last Quote and begin the outer flow. That challenge was relatively short-lived as that 6-1 third choice ducked back into the gap left open by a stalling Pembroke Lady as the field passed the third station in 1:31.1.

Around the turn and down the stretch Hayden and Hall continued to put distance between themselves and their pursuers, drawing off by 4½ lengths to score in a track record equaling 2:01.1.

Owned and bred by Stephen Hall, it was the second seasonal victory for Hayden, along with a new time badge. She returned $2.80 for the fourth win of her career.

Our Last Quote finished second; Race Me Boomer was third.

In the other $14,783 Maine Sire Stakes division for 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings, last week's victor Wildier N Idy continued to show his racing prowess. Cutting early fractions of :30 and 1:01.4 the son of To The Hilt showed no signs of slowing down.

As is par for the course, Athearn gave his colt a second-quarter breather and then tapped the accelerator and brushed through a 1:31 third panel. Down the stretch, the duo continued to gain separation and sprinted home a 4¾ length winner in 2:00.2, a new lifetime mark.

Wildier N Ivy is trained by Gretchen Athearn and owned by Patricia Leavitt. Bred by the late Mike Andrew, he now has $122,322 in lifetime earnings.

The early, non-wagering race was the second seasonal outing, and victory, for Wildier N Idy. Gus's Workout (Heath Campbell) finished second; Trottinfortreasure (Kevin Switzer, Jr.) was third.

Racing resumes today (July 10) and will continue with a Friday - Saturday schedule for the remainder of the month. The only exception being a three-day run from Friday (July 24) through Sunday (July 26) during the penultimate weekend of the meet.

First post is 12:15 pm (EDT) during the extended pari-mutuel meeting, which runs through Aug. 2.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

More The Better N fillies shine in MDSS

by Maryland Standardbred Race Fund

Three-year-old pacing and trotting fillies took center stage Wednesday night (July 8) at Ocean Downs as the opening preliminary leg of the Maryland Sire Stakes got underway. Two pacing divisions and one trotting division, each carrying a purse of $10,000, were contested on the fast track.

The pacing fillies were dominated by daughters of More The Better N, who captured both preliminary divisions.

In the opening division, Pamfin ($3.60) and driver Roger Plante, Jr. worked out a perfect pocket trip before edging clear late to defeat Cedar Lane Lover by a three-quarter-length margin in 2:01.1. Trained by Steve Le Blanc, Pamfin tracked pacesetter I'm Feeling Spicy through fractions of :29.1, 1:01.2, and 1:31.3 before finding racing room in the stretch and prevailing in the final strides. I'm Feeling Spicy held on for third after cutting the mile.

The second pacing split produced another exciting finish as More Than Better ($4.60) rallied three-wide around the final turn to collar Miss Val's Way in the closing yards, scoring by a half-length in 1:57. Russell Foster drove the Herman Hagerman trainee, who overcame a fifth-place trip early before unleashing a powerful stretch kick. Miss Val's Way was a game second after taking over at the head of the lane, while That'sloveto finished a close third. Early leader I Say That Too established fractions of :27.4, :57.4, and 1:27 before yielding in deep stretch.

The evening's lone trotting division showcased another impressive performance by the offspring of Il Mago, whose progeny filled the top five finishing positions.

Progressivekathy ($6), driven by Russell Foster for trainer Ronald Millman, tracked early leader Twisted Janet before wearing down her competition through the stretch to post a 1½-length victory in 1:59.4. Twisted Janet set comfortable fractions of :30, :59.4, and 1:29 before Progressivekathy mounted her winning rally. Penn Tell Her completed the trifecta.

Foster was the night's only multiple Maryland Sire Stakes driving winner, capturing the trotting division with Progressivekathy and the second pacing division with More Than Better.

The Maryland Sire Stakes for 3-year-old fillies continues next Wednesday (July 15) with the second preliminary leg as horses accumulate points toward the rich championship finals later this month.

Three-year old colts and geldings return on Monday (July 13) for their second preliminary leg.

MARYLAND SIRE STAKES KICKS OFF 2026 SEASON

The opening preliminary leg of the 2026 Maryland Sire Stakes for 3-year-old colt and gelding trotters and pacers kicked off Monday evening (July 6) at Ocean Downs, with one trotting division and two pacing divisions contested for purses of $10,000 each.

The evening began with the sophomore trotting division, where Y'all Got No Shot stamped himself as the early favorite in the series. Driven by Russell Foster for trainer Richard Hans, the son of Yall Beneath Me controlled the action from the outset, carving out fractions of :29, :58.1, and 1:26.4 before drawing away to a commanding 17¾-length victory in 1:57. Stablemate Booger Bear completed a Richard Hans exacta, while Doctor Scott finished third. The mile established a new stakes and track record for 3-year-old gelding trotters.

The first pacing division produced the night's most exciting finish as B Real dug in gamely to prevail by a nose over Dapper Time and Inca Social in 1:56.4. Corey Braden guided the son of Rusty's For Real to the front just before the three-eighths marker before holding off the late challenge from the race favorite Dapper Time through the stretch. Inca Social completed the trifecta only a nose back as well.

The second pacing division belonged to heavy favorite Better Gon, who delivered a front-end tour de force for driver Corey Braden and trainer Adrian Wisher, Jr. The son of More The Better N dictated every step of the mile before sprinting home in :29 to score by 7½ lengths in 1:56.3. Coach Cooley rallied for second, with Beach Buggy finishing third.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Slipped Onmybeans, Captain Ricky and Big Keliane all shine in Aces freshman action

by Darin Gagne for Running Aces Casino, Hotel and Racetrack

The Tuesday night (July 7) harness racing program at Running Aces shined the spotlight onto the Minnesota-sired rookie trotters and pacers, with $76,000 in purses across five divisions of freshman events.

In the $16,000 'A' split for pacing fillies, Slipped Onmybeans (by Captainryanmichael) lived up to the hype as the 1-20 favorite and delivered her third career win in four starts while posting a new mark of 1:56.1 over Stormy Shores and Lady Gulf. Dean Magee drove the ($2.10) winner for owner/trainer Scott Banitt.

Captain Ricky (also by Captainryanmichael) rallied late to capture his first pari-mutuel win with a 1:56.4 mile over Bombi and Goodly, respectively, in the $16,000 male 'A' pacers division for owners Alan and Cheryl Sandbulte and Stephanie Anfinson and trainer Justin Anfinson. Casey Leonard was the pilot behind the ($4.80) winner.

Big Keliane (by Big Oil) advanced to three-for-three lifetime with a solid one length tally in the $21,000 trot, with a 2:04.4 mile over Turbo Tinker and Spiceitupwithoil. Nick Roland was in the bike for owners Jay DeLong, Ken Stauffer, Stephanie Anfinson, and Craig Banks and trainer Justin Anfinson. The win return was $3.20.

The $11,000 'B' pacing division went to Lochloosa (Gulf Shores) in 1:56.4 for trainer/driver Brady Jenson and owner Jeff Fought Racing, returning $8.20 to win players, and the $7,000 'C' pacing division went to Cacheforthedevil (Aracache Hanover) in 1:56.2 with Nick Roland in the bike for owner Kevin Magee and trainer Mikaela Del Giudice. The win return was $3.60.

The $16,000 open handicap pace went to Alta Revelry N (Sunshine Beach) who surged from the pocket in the final sixteenth-of-a-mile to get up by a head over heavy favorite Cash Money Twenty in a thrilling photo finish in 1:51.1 for his fourth win of the season. Roland piloted the $11.80 winner for J M F Racing and trainer Luke Plano.

BANG BANG BOOGIE AND SV SHINING STAR DELIVER AS FAVES IN SOPHOMORE TROTS AT RUNNING ACES

Trotters were in the spotlight on the Sunday night (July 5) harness racing program at Running Aces, with two divisions of the Minnesota-sired 3-year-olds going for $17,500 each, as well as the $16,000 open handicap as the night's featured events.

Bang Bang Boogie (by New Jersey Viking) rolled to his third straight win and his sixth win of the season in the colts and geldings division with a very sharp gate-to-wire effort in a new career best time of 1:56.2 with driver Rick Magee in tow, checking home 1½ lengths better than HM Magical Money (Nick Roland) with My Little Maverick (Brady Jenson) a solid third.

Bang Bang Boogie is owned by Stephanie Anfinson and Ken Stauffer and is trained by Justin Anfinson. The win mutuel was $2.40.

SV Shining Star, also driven by Rick Magee, lived up to the hype in the filly split, making a mid-race move to the top from third and proceeding to draw away from her rivals at every call from there, en route to a 2¾ length score in 1:58.1 over Anitra's Dance (Luke Plano) and Model Good Looks (Jenson).

The impressive daughter of Be The Best is owned by Jay De Long and is also trained by Anfinson. Her win mutuel was $2.20.

Fifty Rivers (by Fiftydallarbill) turned in a sharp effort in the open handicap event to pick up his eighth win of the year, Driver Casey Leonard sent him into immediate action from post 6 and they had to work a bit to get to the top and relegate Peanutbutterfalcon (Scott Cisco) to the pocket position. Once on the lead Fifty Rivers ($4) led comfortably throughout before facing a strong late challenge from the pocket sitter deep in the lane which resulted in a close photo that showed Fifty Rivers as the winner by a nostril over Peanutbutterfalcon. Chapolier (Plano) was third in the 1:54.4 mile.

The winner is owned by J M F Racing and is trained by Kathie Plested.

Sunday's leaders included drivers Magee and Josiah Miller and trainers Anfinson and Gerald Longo, all of whom posted doubles on the card.

HARNESS RACING PRESS RELEASES, NOTES & ANNOUNCEMENTS

Blooded Horse Sales Company mourns passing of longtime president Jerry M. Haws

It is with profound sorrow and immense respect that the Blooded Horse Sales Company announces the passing of the company's longtime general manager and president, Jerry M. Haws. He was 85. Haws passed away peacefully on July 3, 2026, surrounded by his family following a battle with lung cancer.

Continuity of leadership and operations

Driven by Haws' deep commitment to the company's long-term future, the board of directors placed a strong emphasis on proactive succession planning. To ensure a seamless transition, the board appointed Jerry Haws Jr. (JJ) as general manager and president at the beginning of this year.

The board continues to express its absolute confidence in JJ's leadership skills and ability to guide the company into its next chapter.

"Jerry led the sale with a constant focus on treating people fairly and providing the best value for our customers," said JJ Haws. "We will continue to serve our clients with integrity and work hard to honor the incredible legacy my grandfather and my dad built. Our people and their knowledge are our strongest asset; we are blessed to have such committed employees. We maintain our promise to our clients who have trusted us with their business for decades and look forward to doing so for years to come."

Billie Haws, Jerry's wife, will continue in her vital capacity as office manager and company secretary. Further anchoring the company's continuity and tech-driven efficiency are Jerry's sons, Charles Haws, who serves as technology architect, and Asa Haws, who oversees technology operations. Together with president JJ Haws, the family and the company's dedicated team assure all consignors, buyers, and industry partners that business will proceed seamlessly. Clients can remain entirely confident that their auctions, account management, and trusted relationships with Blooded Horse Sales will continue without a single moment of interruption.

The legacy of Jerry M. Haws

Haws was born on Dec. 28, 1940, in Kingfisher, OK. He was a 1959 graduate of Guthrie High School and earned his BA in Chemistry from the University of Oklahoma in 1964. He proudly served in the Army National Guard and was called to active duty during the Vietnam conflict, serving at Fort Polk, LA, and Fort Hood, Texas.

For more than five decades, Haws was deeply dedicated to serving and advancing the standardbred horse industry. In 1975, he joined his former father-in-law, Asa H. Jewell, at the Blooded Horse Sales Company after his predecessor Robert B. Jewell stepped away. Haws proudly served as president of the company for nearly 50 years before transitioning the role to his son, Jerry Junior (JJ), earlier this year.

Under the elder Haws' leadership the company leaned into technology and efficiency, which continued to solidify its place in the standardbred horse industry.

"Jerry was a true visionary; as the world changed, he leaned in," his wife Billie said. "He asked his son Charles to write a custom program that produced print-ready pedigrees; that innovation made everything faster and more accurate. We later added online bidding. Jerry was always looking for ways to make us better."

The work was his true passion, and he treasured the employees of the sales company, whom he considered an extension of his own family. He built a culture where everyone knew their job mattered and everyone knew Haws had their back.

He also dedicated years of service to the boards of directors for the United States Trotting Association (USTA), New Vocations Retired Racehorse Adoption Program, and Kentucky Harness Horseman Association (KHHA), where he also served several years as vice-president.

He is survived by his beloved wife Billie (Brumfield); his children JJ (Nancy) Haws, Charles (Shira Karp) Haws, Asa Haws, Britt Clem, JL Clem, Mateya Hartley; his grandchildren, Jo and Clara Haws.

Honoring Haws' memory

Memorial donations may be made to the Wilmore Presbyterian Church, 100 N. Lexington Ave., Wilmore, KY 40390.

Look for spiced up betting menu on Big M Pace Night

In an effort to titillate player's palates, The Meadowlands will increase the minimum bet on two existing wagers as well as adding a new one altogether to what is already one of the most interesting and popular betting menus in the harness game.

All of this will be happening Saturday (July 11) on the track's biggest night of the year, when eight stakes events – featuring the $810,000 Meadowlands Pace presented by Genova Burns LLC – will be contested for estimated purse money totaling more than $2.4 million.

The Big M is known for its multi-leg bets, and the new-look wagers will again challenge punters to select more than one winner on a ticket.

The Late Pick-3, which spans races 12 through 14, will now have a $3 minimum bet instead of the $1 that will continue to be offered on the other Pick-3s throughout the card. The Late P3 will allow players to make bigger scores by taking more of an aggressive stance. A Pick-3 that used to pay $78, will now return $234.

The same will be true of the Late Daily Double, which takes place on races 13-14. It will now sport a minimum play of $5, instead of the usual $2. Like the bigger minimum Pick-3, players will be put in a more contentious position, as a double that used to pay $40, will now pay $100 with the new minimum.

Daily Double fans will also be treated to an extra opportunity on the card, as the track will add a Mid-Card Double with a $2 minimum on races 8 and 9.

"We have some fans who made some recommendations, and we always listen," said track Chief Operating Officer and General Manager Jason Settlemoir. "We thought they had some good ideas. At the end of the day, trying new things is always something we are willing to do, especially with something like increasing minimum bets. We have a lot of players at our track that play several-dollar tickets on wagers such as the Pick-5 and Pick-4, so we figured, let's see how adding a $3 Pick-3 and a $5 Double would be received. Maybe down the road we'll consider other adjustments."

Party with the stars at the Meadowlands Pace

Come on out for the biggest party in harness racing Saturday (July 11) night at The Meadowlands and experience a huge night of fun and top-notch harness racing, featuring the $810,000 Meadowlands Pace presented by Genova Burns LLC.

The program will offer 14 races with purses totaling $2.5 million, and it would be difficult to not conclude that this is the best program in the sport thus far in 2026. Eleven of the dashes are stakes events, so it's no surprise that many of the sport's equine standouts will be on the track.

In addition, there will be so much going on, everyone will find something interesting to do or see on the night of the mile oval's signature event. There will be plenty for youngsters to do as well, so bring the kids.

On your way in the door, pick up your free Meadowlands Pace T-shirt, which commemorates the 50th edition of the storied stakes event as well as paying tribute to the World Cup soccer tournament.

There are also rides, games, live music and food trucks, so this is one night when you have to be at the track.

For complete information, go here.

Some of the superstar performers on the program include:

- Del Miller Memorial (3-year-old filly trot) – Nezuko Kamado S, fresh off a 1:52.1 lifetime-best win at The Big M in the Reynolds, tops the first division while the unbeaten Ygritte (five-for-five) takes on Oak Grove Oaks winner Jailbird Jog in division two.

- Stanley Dancer Memorial (3-year-old colt and gelding trot) – Oak Grove Derby winner Spencer Hanover faces rival Endurance, the 2-5 favorite who “Spencer” defeated in the Bluegrass State, in division one. Apex, the current Hambletonian favorite, tops the second division.

- Jerry Silverman Memorial (3-year-old filly pace) – Loua Dipa, the millionaire Fan Hanover winner who took the 2025 Breeders Crown and is the defending divisional champion from the Ron Burke barn, is the one to beat.

- Dorothy Haughton Memorial (open mare pace) – Last week in the Perfect Sting, Chris Ryder stablemates Miki And Minnie and Twin B Joe Fresh finished 1-2 in a memorable battle to the wire in the stop. The duo will go at it again, along with Louies Girl N, who finished fourth in that dash.

- William Haughton Memorial (open pace) – Defending Older Male Pacer of the Year Ervin Hanover registered his first Big M win after eight failures last week in the Dave Brower and will try to stay perfect in four seasonal starts in the first division. He'll face Graduate winner Captain Optimistic. Each hit the wire in 1:46.3 in those victories, which is the fastest time of the year in the sport. Captain Albano is looking to rebound in division 2 after a tough-trip, 11-hole outing in Ervin Hanover's score.

- E.T. Gerry, Jr. Hambletonian Maturity (4-year-old open trot at 1 1/8 miles) – In a thrilling Graduate final one week ago, On To Norway became the fastest trotter in North American harness racing history, stopping the clock in 1:48.3 while taking down defending divisional champion Super Chapter. The duo figure to provide more thrills in this 1 1/8-mile test that sports a bulky 13-horse field.

- Meadowlands Pace (3-year-old open pace) – Off a powerhouse 1:47.3 lifetime-best win in the lone elimination, Brandon Blvd has been installed as the 3-5 morning-line favorite in the $810,000 final. He'll be driven by five-time Dan Patch Driver of the Year Dexter Dunn and is trained by Andrew Harris, the conditioner for the powerful Punisher 11 Stable. Each is looking for their first Pace wins. Sweet Lovin Lou, who won one of two North America Cup eliminations, closed well for second to “Brandon” when Lasix was added for the first time.

MEADOWLANDS PACE FIELD: This is the field for the Pace, an open event for 3-year-olds, with all changes, with post position, horse, driver, trainer and morning-line odds:

PP – Horse – Driver – Trainer – Odds

1. Toby Ornot Toby – Tim Tetrick – Scott DiDomenico – 20-1
2. Brandon Blvd – Dexter Dunn – Andrew Harris – 3-5
3. Lindy Dragonwater – James MacDonald – Ron Burke – 20-1
4. Gentleman's Club – Andy McCarthy – Aaron Lambert – 8-1
5. Melillo – Ronnie Wrenn Jr. – Ron Burke – 10-1
6. Bookie J – Jason Bartlett – Chris Ryder – 12-1
7. Sweet Lovin Lou – Scott Zeron – Dan Lagace – 6-1
8. Al Papi – Yannick Gingras – Ron Burke – 10-1
9. Azrael Blue Chip – Brett Beckwith – Besim Odza – 30-1
10. Ubrute – Todd McCarthy – Ron Burke – 15-1

NOTE: Post time is 10:33 p.m.

Brandon Blvd drew for posts 1-6 for winning the elimination.

Morning-line odds by John Rallis.

LIVE ON FOX: The Meadowlands Pace card will once again be shown to a national television audience Saturday night as part of the New York Racing Association's (NYRA) “America's Day at the Races” series.

The three-hour live broadcast can be seen on FOX Sports 1 (FS1) and will begin at 8 p.m. Providing commentary and analysis will be the team of Jessica Otten and Gabe Prewitt.

The presentation is the third of seven on FOX that will feature Big M races during the 2026 stakes season, with the next broadcast coming on Aug. 8 when the 101st edition of the $1-million Hambletonian is the featured event. That show will be on FS2, with the telecast kicking off at 11:30 a.m.

WHO'S ON THE SHOW? This weekend, TROT Magazine associate editor and Mohawk TV personality John Rallis and DRF Harness editor Derick Giwner will be back for a second straight week participating in The Big M's live simulcast presentation.

Tonight, Rallis will join regular host Dave Little on the Sam McKee Memorial Broadcast Set while Gary DiLeo provides interviews from the paddock.

Saturday night will find Giwner sitting alongside Little on set with Rallis and Little handling interviews from the winner's circle.

As usual, Ken Warkentin will be in his spot at the top of the grandstand calling the action for both programs.

SATURDAY NIGHT SPECIALS: Here is the lineup of wagers that will be offered on Saturday's 14-race Meadowlands Pace Night card. The Mid-Card Double is a new wager, while the Late Pick-3 and Late Double offer new base bets, designed for players to make bigger scores.

- Races 1-5: 20-cent Early Pick-5
- Races 3-8: 20-cent Pick-6
- Races 6-9: 50-cent Early Pick-4 ($50,000 guaranteed pool)
- Race 7: 10-cent Early Pentafecta (Hi-5)
- Races 8-9: $2 Mid-Card Double

Rookie Grand Circuit races set to begin at Woodbine Mohawk Park

Woodbine Mohawk Park is set to ramp up its Grand Circuit 2-year-old stakes with the Tompkins-Geers first up followed by a new format and increased purses for the Dream Maker, Whenuwishuponastar, Millard Farms, and Pure Ivory.

The Tompkins-Geers and four other 2-year-old stakes are all open events and offer strong racing opportunities for American-breds and for Ontario eligible horses looking at races outside sires stakes.

The Tompkins-Geers for 2-year-old pacers will take place tonight (July 10), while the Tompkins-Geers for rookie trotters is set for the following weekend (July 17, 18).

As for Dream Maker, Whenuwishuponastar, Millard Farms, and Pure Ivory, all four events have switched from a series format (two preliminary legs and a final) to eliminations and a final. The events also switched from late closing to early closing, with nominations in February and sustaining payments in the months following.

Under the new format, the Dream Maker and Whenuwishuponastar for 2-year-old pacers are estimated to have a final purse of $125,000 each, while the Millard Farms and Pure Ivory for trotters are both estimated at $150,000.

The dates for the Tompkins-Geers, Dream Maker, Whenuwishuponastar, Millard Farms, and Pure Ivory are listed below:

July 10

Tompkins-Geers (2-year-old colt pace)

Tompkins-Geers (2-year-old filly pace)

July 16

Tompkins-Geers (2-year-old filly trot)

July 17

Tompkins-Geers (2-year-old colt trot)

July 30

Pure Ivory – Eliminations (2-year-old filly trot)

July 31

Millard Farms – Eliminations (2-year-old colt trot)

Aug. 7

Pure Ivory (G3) – Final (2-year-old filly trot)

Millard Farms (G3) – Final (2-year-old trot)

Aug. 13

Whenuwishuponastar – Eliminations (2-year-old filly pace)

Aug. 14

Dream Maker – Eliminations (2-year-old pace)

Aug. 21

Whenuwishuponastar (G3) – Final (2-year-old filly pace)

Dream Maker (G3) – Final (2-year-old pace)

WCHRA partners with Desert Park Exhibition Society to bring harness racing to Osoyoos, BC

Exciting news for harness racing fans: the Western Canada Horse Racing Association (WCHRA) has officially finalized an agreement with the Desert Park Exhibition Society (DPES) and the Town of Osoyoos to bring competitive harness racing to Osoyoos, BC, with the launch of Desert Park Raceway.

Nestled in the stunning Okanagan Valley, Desert Park Raceway offers an incredible setting for standardbred racing, surrounded by panoramic views of the mountains, local vineyards, the town, and Osoyoos Lake. This is the famous pocket desert at the very southern tip of the Okanagan Valley, right near the U.S. border. It is the northernmost tip of the Great Basin Desert that extends from Mexico and is known as a desert because of its warm, dry climate.

WCHRA has completely rebuilt the property's five-eighths-of-a-mile racetrack surface specifically for high-caliber harness racing. Built to maximize the stretch drive, the newly designed homestretch spans an impressive 810 feet in length. Five-eighths tracks typically feature a stretch run between 400 and 600 feet, making the Desert Park Raceway stretch one of the absolute longest of its kind in North America, which will produce some exciting racing for fans and horsemen.

Pending final regulatory approval, the track plans to host 20 race cards in the fall of 2026, targeting a mid-September launch. Horsemen will have plenty of incentive to compete, as the upcoming race meet will offer some of the highest average daily purses in Western Canada.

"We are thrilled to bring harness racing to Osoyoos," said Kelly MacMillan, president of the WCHRA. "The South Okanagan climate is going to be absolutely ideal for horse racing in the fall. Because this association is run by horsemen for horsemen, we are deeply committed to safe, competitive racing that will put on a spectacular, customer-focused show for the fans while building a secure future for our sport. We appreciate the incredible support from DPES and the Town of Osoyoos to make this dream a reality."

The racing operations will be fully managed by the WCHRA, a newly formed not-for-profit society created solely for this purpose. Driven by horsemen and fully supported by Harness Racing BC (HRBC), the WCHRA ensures a vibrant future for the standardbred industry in BC. This entire racing program is completely self-funded through horse racing operations within British Columbia.

"We are absolutely excited to welcome WCHRA and become the new home of harness racing in British Columbia," said Rebekka Lim, president of the Desert Park Exhibition Society. "Desert Park has a rich history as an equestrian hub, and this racing program is a perfect addition to the horse-centric activities we host on the property all year round. It's a huge win for our facility and for horse lovers across the province."

Today kicks off an exciting new chapter in the BC horse racing industry. Stay tuned for more updates from WCHRA in the coming weeks as things progress, including specific race dates and features. There will be full stabling onsite and stall applications for the fall meet will be available starting July 10.

Osoyoos offers a wide variety of accommodations, from campgrounds to resorts, many featuring scenic mountain, vineyard or lake views. While built to handle the busy summer tourist crowds, these options provide plenty of affordable lodging for the fall racing season. For those wanting to stay close to the action, a limited number of serviced RV sites are available directly on the Desert Park property next to the barns on a first-come, first-served basis.

Grand River Raceway is ready to crown the next top dog at the 2026 wiener dog races

Grand River Raceway (GRR) is excited to bring back their most popular race night of the year - Wiener Dog Races.

Also referred to as "the most adorable race of the season," tonight (July 10), 30 dachshunds will race in three heats of 10 dogs in between the horse races. The three winners from each heat move on to the final race consisting of nine dogs who will dash to the finish line to take home the title of top dog.

This is a free family-friendly event with several options for food, entertainment, and seating.

Dreamland Pet, GRR's friendly neighbors, joined the fun for the first time as presenting sponsor. They have provided each wiener dog competitor a fun prize pack. Top dogs (top 3 winners) will get an extra special treat.

Dreamland Pet will be on-site with a booth and are excited to be a part of this fun event.

"We are so honored to be involved with the cutest event of the racing season," said Oscar Meier store manager of Dreamland Pet. It's amazing how a day of cheering on racing wiener dogs can bring people together. We can't wait to cheer on all of this year's competitors and see who takes home the championship title."

Grand River Raceway hospitality director Alaya Cohen said, "It is a fun filled day attracting a variety of people to experience the horse track and see the pups dress up and ready to claim first place."

Cohen emphasized how special "Wiener Dog Day is as it is important for families and friends from all over to enjoy time outdoors, connect with the community, and enjoy good food."

FAQ's:

- Free entry to all. Feel free to find seating on the tarmac, grandstands, and The GrandWay Patio.
- Buy a wiener dog shirt or hat to start or add to your GRR swag collection. On sale for $15 (including tax). Limited quantity available, so grab yours before they run out. Cash, credit, and debit accepted.
- Come for dinner:

Food Trucks – There will be two food trucks on-site to enjoy. At the East Gate.

The GrandWay Lounge and GrandWay Patio BBQ will be open for dinner. A BBQ combo will be featured – hot dog $13 or chicken skewer $14 combo including kettle chips and a drink.

- VIP tickets in the Captain's Quarters are SOLD OUT! Contact bookings@thegrandway.com to get on the list to be contacted first when tickets go on sale next year.
- Vote for your favorite wiener – The People's Choice Awards are here. Brought to you by Dreamland Pet, voting closes tonight (July 10) at 8 p.m.

Doors open at 5:30 p.m. GRR asks that you respect all guests and staff and allow everyone an opportunity to see the dogs race.

New to horse racing? A list of frequently asked questions regarding GRR race nights can also be found on the "Wiener Dog Race" webpage. GRR live racing is scheduled every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday nights at 6:20 p.m.

'Magic' punks field in Big M's Reynolds

Magic Punk worked out a perfect pocket trip behind 9-5 favorite Diabolic Hill and went by in deep stretch to record a one-length victory in the second of two colt and gelding divisions of the W.N. Reynolds Memorial for 3-year-old trotters at The Meadowlands Saturday night (July 4).

A colt by Wishing Stone—I D Entity No, Magic Punk scored in the $34,125 dash in a lifetime-best 1:51.4 for driver Yannick Gingras and trainer Ake Svanstedt while lifting his lifetime numbers to seven wins in 12 starts, good for earnings of just over $366,000. He paid $6.40 to win as the 2-1 second choice in the wagering.

It Could Be Worse took the $33,625 opening division for males by one length in a lifetime-best 1:50.3 for Tim Tetrick and Linda Toscano, going all the way on the point after taking over just after the quarter. The Captain Corey—Emiliciousboomboom colt rebuffed a stiff challenge from 1-5 favorite Nix Nacken, who rallied well from first-over after racing sixth down the backside, engaged the leader turning for home, but faltered late to third as Southwind Alamo rallied to get second.

Sent to the gate as the 6-1 second choice, It Could Be Worse returned $14.20 to win.

Nezuko Kamado S (Chapter Seven—Zefira Kronos IT) won the $33,225 first division for fillies in a lifetime-best 1:52.1 for Scott Zeron and Marcus Melander, holding off Jailbird Jog by a big nose. The 6-5 favorite returned $4.40.

Custom (Walner—Goldy Mary FR) took the $33,725 second female split surging late after picking up a live second-over trip for Jason Bartlett and Per Engblom. She returned $3.80 as the 4-5 favorite after winning for the sixth time from just 13 lifetime tries.

A LITTLE MORE: A carryover of $13,604 motivated players to bet $32,700 of new money into the Early 10-cent Pentafecta (Hi-5) pool, and despite the 4-5 favorite ending up on top, winning tickets with the combination of 4-1-7-6-8 were exchanged for $119.54 for a dime base wager... DRF Harness editor Derick Giwner had a big night serving as co-host on the live simulcast presentation. Giwner, who was inducted into the Communicators Hall of Fame at the Harness Racing Museum and Hall of Fame on Sunday, selected eight winners on top, which included five exactas. His highlight was picking On To Norway, who returned $9.40 to Giwner's followers... All-source handle on the 11-race program totaled $2,619,583.

Oak Grove betting menu adjusted

In the homestretch of the 2026 harness racing season, Oak Grove has again amended its wagering menu as part of a continual effort to provide dynamic and engaging betting opportunities for its customers. Oak Grove has raised the minimum wager on three bets: the trifecta, superfecta, and the Pick-5. The trifecta minimum has been raised from 50 cents to one dollar while superfecta minimum has been raised from 10 cents to 50 cents and the Pick-5 has been raised from 20 cents to one dollar. Minimums on the rest of the wagering slate (Win-Place-Show, Exacta, Pick-4, et al.) remain the same at one dollar. Oak Grove wishes to remind customers that the takeout on all multi-race wagers at the track (Pick-4 and Pick-5) is just 15 per cent.

Live racing at Oak Grove continues on a Monday-Wednesday rotation through closing day, which is now next Wednesday (July 15) to serve as a makeup card for the days lost due to the heat cancellation last week. First-race post time for the rest of the meet at Oak Grove will be 10:55 a.m. (CDT). For more information, visit oakgrovegaming.com.

Favored frosh trotters sweep PA All-Stars

Two-year-old trotters are not regarded by many as the safest of bets, but all three favorites in the $30,000 divisions of the first freshman stake of the year on Saturday (July 4) at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania, the Pennsylvania All-Stars for male babies, got the job done impressively.

The Father Patrick—Me Too Baby colt Dream Shaq was the quickest of the three winners – and he also was the narrowest of winners, defeating pacesetter Celebrity Hunter by a head in 1:55.4 in his pari-mutuel bow. Dream Shaq was content to sit third as the leader put up fractions of :28.2, :57.4, and 1:27.2, moving out on the final turn and trotting his own last split in :28 in defeating Celebrity Hunter in a long ding-dong stretch duel for trainer Marcus Melander and the ownership of Brixton Medical Inc. and Hatfield Stables.

Dream Shaq was driven by Dexter Dunn, and if we say that this drive was a cameo appearance at the mountain oval for him, we must give the context that Dexter's sulky day started at 8 a.m. at The Meadowlands, where he drove in eight baby races, and that his sulky will end nearing 11 p.m., as he left Pocono to go right back to the Jersey oval to drive in 11 stakes race. (The glamorous life...)

The International Moni—Dancin On The Wall gelding Lindy On The Wall now has four program lines – two qualifiers followed by two purse races – and they all end in a "1." Andrew McCarthy got the fleet freshman to the top mid-first turn and put up fractions of :29.2, :59.1, and 1:28.2, then tacked on a :28.1 kicker to lower his mark to 1:56.3. Eddie Dennis trains the winner for E&K Stable Inc., William Mears, and Roy Parker, Jr.

Red Storm Hanover opened the stakes action by leading for every step in his cut, with the timer reading :29.2, :59.2, 1:28.2, and 1:57.1 for a maiden mark. Yannick Gingras drove the Captain Corey—Ready Any Time colt for trainer Ake Svanstedt, whose Ake Svanstedt Inc. co-owns the winner with M Biasuzzi Stable Inc.

The Happy Birthday, America distaff open handicap pace, with a purse of $27,500, was taken by Sweetnikkilou A after two moves in 1:49.4. The meet's top driver Tyler Buter spotted the daughter of Sweet Lou early, then moved with cover, swung wide off it, then decisioned Pocono Piker Rocket Deo by a neck, with pacesetter Millwood Bliss N (:26.2, :55, 1:22.2) another three-quarters-of-a-length behind. Nifty Norman conditions the game pacer for his Enzed Racing Stable Inc.

Driving doublers were Buter, Anthony Napolitano, and Tim Tetrick.

Freshman pacing colts contest Pocono stakes

Two-year-old pacing colts and geldings made their first stakes appearances Monday afternoon (July 6) at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania, contesting three $30,000 divisions of their Pennsylvania All-Stars event.

Hungry Marco, a Stay Hungry—Always Giggling colt and thus a three-quarter brother to the multiple stakes winner Gigglingonthebeach, came from Philly to the mountain oval with three successful trips behind the starting gate, a winning qualifier on either side of an overnight triumph, and added a stakes victory to his burgeoning resume in 1:54, the fastest All-Star division.

Hungry Marco was sent to the lead by driver Ridge Warren, set moderate fractions of :28.3, :58.1, and 1:27, then hustled home in :27 to finish out the quickest win in his young career, a half-length ahead of closer (:26.3) of Celtic Wine to his right, with pocketsitter Loud Luxury just another neck behind to his left. Jamie Sullivan conditions the talented colt for the triumvirate of David Hamm, Glenn Phillips, and Frank Chick.

The Sweet Lou—Captiva Island colt Gobstopper became the only successful stakes winning favorite on Monday when he defeated Hard Four in 1:54.1 for his first winning mile. Gobstopper tailed Hard Four, who came uncovered after early splits of :28.3 and :58.2 before getting a short lead by the 1:26.4 three quarters; the winner then paced his individual last quarter in :27.1 to catch the game first-over by a head. Anthony Napolitano was in the sulky for trainer Michael Deters and owner Rick Berks.

Dapper Station, a double qualifier winner before a good second in his betting bow, made the lead before the :28.3 quarter in his section, then pushed favored Midwind Buxton before yielding for the 2-hole during middle fractions of :58.1 and 1:27.1. Dapper Station vacated the golden chair and put in his own last split of :27.1 to complete a 1:54.3 mile (the track was still rated "good" before being rerated to "fast" for the other All-Stars cuts) a neck to the good of the chalk while rewriting his own lifetime best. The Captain Crunch—Dandy's Sweetness gelding was driven by Tyler Buter for trainer Hunter Oakes and the ownership of H O Racing Inc., Louis Peachey, and Tribbett Racing.

The overnight feature was a $20,000 fast-class trot, taken by Celebrity Bambino in 1:52.2 (fast track), his second straight triumph after some behavioral troubles. Here Celebrity Bambino made two moves then withstood late-flyer Super Duper Cooper by a half-length for the familiar pairing of driver Tyler Buter and trainer Ron Burke, both leading their standings at this meet, and the ownership of Burke Racing Stable LLC, J&T Silva Stables LLC, Knox Services Inc., and Phil Collura.

An intriguing and popular exhibition race was arranged by trainer Brandy Wine and driver Braxten Boyd, who are expecting a child – a “match race” between “Momma’s Boy” and “Daddy’s Girl,” outfitted in blue and pink respectively, with the winner announcing to the world whether the baby was to be a boy or a girl! “Momma’s Boy” hit the wire first, with many members of the happy families, friends, and members of the Pocono community joining the expectant parents in the winner’s circle after the novel event.

Buter brought home five winners on the card to further extend his driving lead, with George Napolitano, Jr. winning four times (No. eight in the all-time sulky standings, he is now three victories shy of the 13,000 milestone), and Warren reporting home first three times (not counting his “success” behind “Momma’s Boy”). Enrico Robinson had the only training double, both driven by “George Nap.”

the first driving victory of his career aboard Getting Euchred in race 4, taking the lead from the gate and never looking back en route to a 1:56.1 triumph.

The excitement extended well beyond the racetrack. The Clinton Mustangs hosted a successful Day at the Races fundraiser, raising more than $6,000 through a variety of activities held throughout the afternoon in support of their organization.

With record-breaking performances on the track, milestone victories, and another successful community partnership, Kin Pace Day once again showcased why Clinton Raceway continues to be one of Ontario’s premier destinations for grassroots harness racing and community celebration.

The 2026 live harness racing season continues Sunday (July 12) with ever popular kids day, featuring The Young Gunz mini race, Ontario Racing Kids Experience, and so much more. Details can be found at clintonraceway.com.

Double the records, double the excitement on Kin Pace Day at Clinton Raceway

Clinton Raceway’s signature Kin Pace Day lived up to its reputation on Sunday (July 5), delivering not one, but two new track records while celebrating the rich history of harness racing in Huron County.

The first record fell in race 2 during the Ontario Sired 3-Year-Old Colt and Gelding Grassroots trot. Mass Deployment stopped the clock in 1:56.3 with driver Tyler Borth in the bike, eclipsing the previous mark of 1:58.1 established in 2019 by ZORGWIJK TIM in the 3-year-old colt trotting division.

The day’s marquee event, the $50,000 Kin Pace final, provided another historic performance. Post-time favorite McBubbles, owned by Hutt Racing Stable and expertly driven by veteran reinsman Jody Jamieson, powered to victory in 1:54.1, setting a new Kin Pace record and adding another chapter to the race’s storied history.

Kin Pace serves as Clinton Raceway’s signature event, honoring the Clinton Kinsmen, whose vision more than 55 years ago helped establish seasonal harness racing at the small-town Ontario oval. Each year, the race celebrates both the sport’s rich traditions and the community volunteers whose dedication helped build one of Ontario’s most beloved racing destinations.

The afternoon also featured a memorable milestone for an up-and-coming horseman. Driver Evan Stephenson celebrated
