Brandon Blvd prevails in dramatic Meadowlands Pace finish

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Brandon Blvd took the lead on the backstretch and then held off a slew of challengers in the stretch to capture the Grade 1 $810,000 Meadowlands Pace, for 3-year-olds, in 1:48.1 Saturday (July 11) at The Meadowlands.

Al Papi was second in the 50th edition of the race, sponsored by Genova Burns LLC, with Gentleman's Club third, and Melillo fourth. All three were just a head behind Brandon Blvd in the photo finish while fifth-place Sweet Lovin Lou was a length back.

It was the first Meadowlands Pace victory for driver Dexter Dunn as well as for the Punisher 11 Stable ownership group of William Pollock, Bruce Areman, and trainer Andrew Harris.

"There's no words," Dunn said about getting his first Pace triumph. "I've got to thank Andy and Bill and Bruce for giving me the drive on Brandon. It's such a historic race, and I've come close before [finishing second by a head in 2019]. The emotions are so different when you get to win it. My emotions right now are right up there."

Said Harris, "It's thrilling to get this done. A big huge thank you to Bill and Bruce. They could have gone to anybody, and they gave me a little shot and here we are. I'm sitting here with the Meadowlands Pace in my trophy cabinet. It's the greatest feeling in the world and I can't thank them enough."

Brandon Blvd (2, Dexter Dunn) held off a late calvary charge to win the $810,000 Grade 1 Meadowlands Pace on Saturday at The Meadowlands.

Starting from post 2, Brandon Blvd got away fourth going into the first turn as Sweet Lovin Lou won a battle with Gentleman's Club and Toby Ornot Toby to lead to the opening quarter in :26.3. Dunn kept Brandon Blvd in motion and took the top spot on his way to the half in :54.2 but Melillo was on the move first-over, with Al Papi following that cover.

Brandon Blvd and Melillo raced side by side around the final turn, reaching three-quarters in 1:21.4, before others joined the pursuit down the stretch. Brandon Blvd began to separate himself from Melillo, but Al Papi charged on the outside and Gentleman's Club from between horses to keep the pressure on Brandon Blvd all the way to the wire.

"He got out of the gate good," Dunn said. "I was in a spot where I could keep moving to the front or come first-over. He's been so strong, so we moved to the front.

"[In the stretch] I was sort of surrounded by horses and they were all traveling fairly good. I had a look over my shoulder and I knew it was going to be a battle up the straight. To the horse's credit, he really dug deep tonight.

"He probably didn't feel quite as sharp as last week [in his 1:47.3 elimination victory]. I was a little worried on the last turn, but he's a tough horse and he knows how to win."

Added Harris about the finish, “You’ve got every thought going through your head, and they’re great horses. To show his heart and battle like he does is just a credit to the horse.”

Brandon Blvd, a son of Downbytheseaside—Alexis Faith, won for the fourth time in six races this season and 11th time in 16 career starts. The colt, bred by Crawford Farms, pushed his lifetime earnings to $1.07 million.

“He’s a great horse,” Pollock said. “He’s well worth the [$425,000 yearling price] investment. We love the horse. He’s very aggressive. We’ve got a super, super driver; couldn’t do any better than Dex. I’m very happy about it.

“This was so exciting.”

Said Areman, “The big boy dug in pretty good there,” before later adding, “It’s a little different when you pick the horse out as a baby and you break them and you train them down and develop a champion. Andrew did it, and I’m really proud of him.”

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Idao de Tillard sets French record in Prix de Washington

by Thomas Hedlund

Idao de Tillard added another milestone to his remarkable career Saturday (July 11), lowering the French all-age mile record with a commanding 1:49.2 victory in the $125,000 Prix de Washington at Enghien. With Théo Duvaldestin making his first drive behind the superstar in more than three years, the son of Severino blasted to the front early and never looked back.

Although trainer Thierry Duvaldestin hadn't necessarily planned to race on the lead, circumstances dictated the strategy.

"We really hadn't planned on taking the lead immediately, but we didn't have much choice," Thierry said. "I wasn't exactly sure what Théo was going to do because we hadn't discussed the tactics very much beforehand. I simply told him, 'If you end up parked, don't worry — trust the horse.' He kept up a strong pace, negotiated the turn comfortably, and then they both sprinted home. Go On Boy is a tremendously tough horse."

"It's a great feeling [for Gio Cash to win the Årjängs Stora Sprinterlopp]. We knew we had a top horse coming into the race in top form, and it was nice to see him bounce back after the Elitlopp and his race in Boden. He felt terrific throughout, although he drifted out a little after I pulled the ear plugs."

Idao de Tillard (Théo Duvaldestin) setting a 1:49.2 record for the fastest mile, ever, on French soil while winning the $125,000 Prix de Washington on Saturday at Enghien.

The outcome was largely decided during the opening half-mile when Go On Boy was forced to race three-wide before eventually reaching the outside of the leader. That difficult trip left the defending Prix de Washington champion with too much ground to make up.

Idao de Tillard still had plenty left turning for home and held Go On Boy safely at bay through the stretch, crossing the wire one length in front. The 1:49.2 victory is the fastest mile ever trotted on French soil.

Go On Boy was a determined second despite his taxing journey, while Rikita JP (Mister JP) closed well to finish third.

Thierry was quick to praise his longtime rival after the race.

“You really have to tip your hat to Go On Boy,” he said. “He fought us every step of the way. I think the trip made the difference in our favor, but we’re incredibly happy. This victory means a great deal to us emotionally. Idao de Tillard delivered a tremendous performance, never made a mistake, and once again showed that his speed is his greatest weapon. I hope he can keep racing as long as Go On Boy has. As he gets older, I think he can become a true specialist at these one-mile races.”

GIO CASH SUCCESSFULLY DEFENDS ÅRJÄNG SPRINT TITLE

Defending champion Gio Cash rebounded in style Saturday (July 11), controlling the pace from start to finish to capture the $100,000 Årjängs Stora Sprinterlopp in 1:51.3.

The race lacked early fireworks, but the finish still provided plenty of drama.

Driver Daniel Wäjersten hustled Gio Cash (Victor Gio) to the front before the opening turn, a move that ultimately decided the outcome. Main rival Francesco Zet (Father Patrick), driven by trainer Daniel Redén, landed in the pocket, while Xanthis Harvey (Propulsion) was forced to grind away first-over.

As the field entered the stretch, Gio Cash remained full of pace, and Wäjersten’s primary concern became keeping Francesco Zet pinned along the rail. Although Gio Cash drifted outward after Wäjersten pulled the ear plugs, the favorite never found enough room to launch a serious challenge.

“It’s a great feeling,” Wäjersten said. “We knew we had a top horse coming into the race in top form, and it was nice to see him bounce back after the Elitlopp and his race in Boden. He felt terrific throughout, although he drifted out a little after I pulled the ear plugs.”

The judges’ photo confirmed Gio Cash drifted approximately one lane off the rail in deep stretch, but it had no bearing on the outcome.

Xanthis Harvey delivered one of the strongest performances of his career while battling first-over throughout, holding gamely for second. Francesco Zet, meanwhile, never found clear racing room from the pocket and had to settle for third.

TALES FROM THE CURMUDGEON

with MURRAY BROWN

Joe Fiorello's talents are showcased at River Run Racehorse Retirement with Dr J Hanover

by Murray Brown

One Saturday last March, I was at Sunshine Meadows watching the babies going through their routines when this young man on horseback came alongside the deck. Wanting to make conversation, I asked him the name of the horse which he was riding. His response was "Dr J Hanover." Only half believing him, I said, "Really? I go back a long time with that horse. I remember him as a yearling named Stepenwolf Hanover. He was one of the highlights of our [Hanover's] 2014 yearling sale selling with that name. He was bought for $300,000 by clients in the Tony Alagna stable who subsequently changed his name to Dr J Hanover, to honor Dr. Bridgette Jablonsky, then the farm manager at Hanover Shoe Farms."

Following his relatively undistinguished 2-year-old season, he was gelded. Doing that likely marked the turning point in his racing career. He went from being a disinterested colt to becoming a very significant racehorse.

After a few starts at 3, he was purchased by Hall of Fame, Ontario-based owner Brad Grant who kept him in the Canadian division of the Alagna Stable under the supervision of Tony's mother Donna Lee. There began a lifetime association between the horse and Donna, which only was interrupted by Donna Lee's passing in February of 2025.

On the racetrack, Dr J Hanover became a world champion and earned over a million Canadian dollars. When his racing career came to an end, Dr J Hanover followed Donna Lee, first to Sunshine Meadows in Florida and then to her newly purchased home in Kentucky where she was overseeing the Kentucky division of her son Tony's racing stable. Fate then stepped in. Donna Lee had been valiantly fighting cancer for a few years. Sadly, it was a battle she was destined to lose. After Donna's passing, Tony adopted Dr J Hanover. I asked the young man, whose name is Joe Fiorello, how he happened to come together with Dr J Hanover. It's a long story that has a somewhat happy ending.

“I had met Denise Molina, a woman who was an expert at converting former racehorses to saddle and the show ring. Together with her, we transformed Thirty Eight Special into an excellent riding horse here at Sunshine Meadows. We lost him to colic more than a year ago. I had regularly kept in touch with Tony [Alagna] since [his mom] Donna’s passing... [and] we talked about Dr J [Hanover] possibly becoming a substitute for Thirty Eight Special in my care.”

— Joe Fiorello

Would you tell us a little about yourself?

“I’m from New Jersey. I began drinking when I was 13 and went from there to also using illegal drugs. I was an alcoholic and recovering drug user. I’ve now been sober for 31 years. At 19, I realized that I desperately needed to turn my life around. I moved to Florida and have been living here ever since. I began working in a hospital working in an area where I can provide outreach help to people facing the same demons that I’ve overcome.”

How did that relate to harness racing and more specifically to Dr J Hanover?

“The fact is I had no background or experience with horses or more specifically with harness racing. I was in the slots area at Pompano Park one night and hit it big. I won several thousand dollars after investing $20 in a slot machine. As luck would have it, I was on my way home from my windfall, when I received a phone call from a friend of mine. racehorse that he was considering buying. What did I know about horses? Nothing, but I had a bunch of money that was burning a hole in my pocket. I told him that I was in. The horse's name was Janet. She was to be trained by Richie Silverman who was also going to be part of its ownership group. I started hanging around the stable area and the Silverman Stables. Within three months our partnership owned five horses. I became friends with Richie's dad, Jerry, who was to become my mentor and somewhat of a surrogate father. Jerry told me that he would teach me everything there was to know about harness racing. He did teach me a lot, but I've still got a lot to learn, some of which even Jerry didn't know. I hung around the stable, often times coming before work early in the morning or later in the day after work. After some time, I was allowed to jog and even occasionally train.

Being around the horses became a compulsion. I'd sometime follow them up north when they began racing. Then in February of 2024, Jerry died. I was lost, but my love of the horses was far from satisfied."

Then what happened?

"I started hanging around Tony Alagna's stable. Tony had nearly 100 horses on the grounds at Sunshine Meadows. I asked Tony's mom, Donna Lee, if I could help out and perhaps learn. Over time, she became one of my dearest friends. Donna's favorite horse was Dr J Hanover. Most of the horse's success was achieved under the guidance of Donna. When Dr J's racing career came to an end, Donna took him with her – first to Florida and then to Kentucky when she set up camp there. It was while he was in Florida that I first met him. My friendship with Donna continued and I visited her and Dr J in Kentucky while they lived there. Then Donna sadly passed away in February of 2025. Of course, Tony took over the care of Dr J."

How did you come to take over his stewardship?

"It's kind of a long and involved story. One of the original group of five horses that our group was involved with was a trotter named Thirty Eight Special. One day, out of the blue, I received a call telling me that Thirty Eight Special was in a kill pen in Virginia. If he wasn't rescued, he was going to slaughter. I called my partners and we put together enough money to rescue him. I had met Denise Molina, a woman who was an expert at converting former racehorses to saddle and the show ring. Together with her, we transformed Thirty Eight Special into an excellent riding horse here at Sunshine Meadows. We lost him to colic more than a year ago. I had regularly kept in touch with Tony since Donna's passing. I'm not sure whether it was Tony or me, but we talked about Dr J possibly becoming a substitute for Thirty Eight Special in my care. I also had another rescue, a horse called River who had not raced, that we converted to saddle. Dr J joined River and River Run Racehorse Retirement was founded. River Run is small, now consisting of only Dr J and River out of necessity. It's a one man and two horse entity. I still have my day job and am only able to work with the horses in the early morning and after work hours. I get proposals from trainers and owners all the time asking me to take their usually non-competitive racehorses and help adapt them to a situation where they can lead a secondary useful existence. Sadly, I have neither the time nor the means necessary to take over more than what I now have. But I am still young and willing to work at it. MIDWEST CHRONICLES

with JAMES PLATZ

Sassie Kassie a fair circuit frontrunner for Lambright family

by James Platz

The Indiana fair circuit is in full swing, and with more than a month in the books, several trotters and pacers have emerged as leaders in their respective divisions. Sassie Kassie has emerged as one of the top freshman pacing fillies on the scene, now four-for-four on the season for the husband-and-wife team of Kevin and Kassie Lambright. She is positioned as one of the top contenders in the Governor's Cup championships, slated for next month.

"If she's on the front, when a horse comes at her, she fights them off," said Kevin, who has steered her to each of her four seasonal wins. "I like her grittiness."

So far, Sassie Kassie has not found herself in many close battles at the wire. Instead, her victories have been of the open lengths variety. In her debut at Converse on June 10, the Capt Midnight—Hedges Avenue A filly paced home in :28.4 to win by 2½ lengths in a time of 1:59. Moving next to Harrah's Hoosier Park, the freshman distanced the field by four lengths with a 1:56.1 effort. Racing July 2 at Frankfort, Sassie Kassie and her pilot endured their toughest test, but still managed to reach the wire nearly two lengths in front. Earlier this week at Shelbyville, the winning margin was seven lengths.

Through six rounds of fair circuit action, Sassie Kassie is tied with Bella Notte atop the division, each with four wins and 204 points accumulated. The season, to date, is impressive considering the filly was nearly turned out earlier this year.

and I was excited to have her filly. They're so sweet. They can sometimes flip a switch and, you know, have a little attitude, but for the most part, they're the sweetest things to be around. She's a family horse. Our son loves her and they're so close."

Sassie Kassie has already earned back her purchase price. The Lambrights plan to race her lightly this season, in hopes of having a nice 3-year-old next season. After racing, Kassie plans to breed the filly.

"We have property and I already have a retired racehorse out in the field," she said. "She's got a forever home. She's a family pet."

"Early on I really didn't think she was going to make it because she was so sore, and that's why I staked her just to the fairs," Kevin said. "But she kind of surprised me and she's doing pretty good for us right now. I had to blister her a little bit, and I gave her a couple of weeks off right when all the payments were due. That's why I just made the fair payments. After I gave her those couple of weeks off, she came back pretty good."

Sassie Kassie was not purchased out of a yearling sale. The Lambrights had a chance to acquire her privately due to Kassie's connection to the filly's dam. Her father was part of the group that imported the mare from Australia.

"An agent had brought 'Hedge' to my dad and his owner, and they just decided that they really liked her," Kassie said. "We had some luck with overseas horses. We had a couple good ones, but Hedge was just the consistent money earner. I fell in love with her, she was just a gritty, gritty old mare."

Racing down under, Hedges Avenue A was a 12-time winner. The Rock N Roll Heaven mare competed in Australia from ages 3 through 6 before arriving in the United States. She added another 15 wins racing primarily at The Meadows, taking a 1:52.2 mark. When her racing career was complete, breeder Freeman Bontrager purchased Hedges Avenue A. He gave Kassie first option on purchasing the mare's first foal.

"She had set all these records on bull ring tracks, all half-mile tracks down in Australia," she said of the mare. "I had told Kevin that I was hoping that 'Sassie' would be like that, just be able to get around the fair track. Hedge was a really big mare and she could still get around those small tracks."

Sassie Kassie has proven she can do just that. And, according to her owner and trainer, the filly is strikingly similar to the dam.

"They look alike," she said. "They're identical. I just loved Hedge

Gambling action throughout the ages

by Trey Nosrac

On race days, the Circus Maximus hosted crowds that rivaled the biggest sporting events of our era. Imagine Ohio State versus Michigan, except the rivalry lasted centuries. Romans packed the grandstands dressed in faction colors, shouting for the Blues or Greens as if the fate of the Empire depended on the next turn.

How did the Romans handle gambling on the horse races?

Enthusiastically.

Gambling on chariot racing in ancient Rome was widespread, popular, and deeply woven into the culture. Spectators wagered on the great factions: the Blues, Greens, Reds, and Whites. Those unable to attend likely found their own informal ways to wager a few denarii on the outcome. They wagered on famous drivers, on horses, and on rivalries. If there was a race, somebody was betting on it.

What the Romans did not have was an army of regulators, commissions, auditors, tax collectors, and computer systems tracking every dollar. Roman gambling existed in a world of nods and winks. The government tolerated it. Emperors occasionally participated in it. The wagers flowed freely, and the Circus Maximus remained the center of Roman entertainment for centuries.

Gambling happened; it always seems to happen. But gambling was never the engine of Roman racing. It just put the whole racing scene on steroids.

The Romans would ask us a simple question: Why did you make the bet more important than the race? We built sophisticated wagering systems, advance-deposit wagering, computer algorithms, rebates, and sportsbooks. Yet we neglected the thing they considered most important - fanatic passion.

What we can learn from the chariot races is not that gambling is bad; it is that gambling grows more powerful when fueled by loyalty, rivalry, and belonging. In Roman times, the wager was never the show. The wager just made the show louder.

But without regulated gambling, who staged the races, and why? The presenters of Roman races were often political. An emperor, or a man hoping to become one, understood the value of keeping the masses happy and occupied. Putting on a damn good show at the Circus Maximus was a powerful tool.

For many Romans, faction loyalty was not a race-day hobby. It was part of daily life. That sense of belonging is the secret ingredient modern harness racing seems to overlook. Those of us who participate in the sport know how intriguing and immersive racing can be. Today, racing asks new fans and new gamblers to care about a race. The Romans asked them to care about a team.

That's a big difference.

Nobody asks a Browns fan why he cares, but he does. Browns fans may never place a wager, yet they passionately follow the home team, player acquisitions, front-office maneuvers, and every other facet of the franchise. Ancient racing fans were similarly passionate about their factions, and the gambling followed, long before legal sportsbooks appeared on every commercial break.

The Romans understood this concept two thousand years ago. Wagering followed loyalty. A Green faction supporter remained a Green faction supporter. Wagers or not, they celebrated victories. They argued with rival fans. They followed the drivers. They discussed racing endlessly.

The Romans enjoyed a huge advantage: chariot racing was the top dog in their sporting world. For a time, modern harness horse racing enjoyed an advantage of its own. Legal gambling was scarce, and racetracks had much of the market to themselves. That comfortable window is closing fast. Today, wagering is everywhere, and harness racing competes for the gambling dollar against casinos, lotteries, sportsbooks, online platforms, and games available on a phone at the kitchen table.

The Romans would likely attack our modern problem by leaning into something the rest of the sporting world still understands: People follow people. People follow stories. People follow teams. Then they gamble.

That is why I continue to believe that some form of team competition could strengthen modern harness racing. The idea does not require changing the sport. It does not require new racetracks. It does not require new horses. It requires new reasons to care.

What if harness racing minimized gambling in its quest to recruit a new generation? What if harness racing stopped viewing gambling as its primary product? What if the product became more communal? Imagine 10 private stables competing under their own banners. Fans choosing sides. Rivalries developing. Stories spreading. Gambling might still exist in the background, but it would no longer carry the entire weight of the sport.

Perhaps the greatest lesson from Roman gambling is that gambling itself was never enough.

The crowds did not flock to the Circus Maximus because they wanted to wager. They came for the factions, the rivalries, the personalities, and the stories. The Romans built the greatest racing spectacle in history on involvement, not betting.

Perhaps it is time to put the horse before the cart of gambling.

SUPERSTAR FEMALES OF HARNESS RACING

with VICTORIA M. HOWARD

Mackenzie Kiel is 'Queen of the amateurs'

by Victoria Howard

Mackenzie Kiel has a lot to look forward to. At only 29 years old, she owns, breeds, and trains standardbreds, and has recently added driver to her resume.

In fact, on May 8, Kiel had a night she will always remember for she had her first driving double, with Captain Terminator and Don't Freak Out, thus she was dubbed by fellow horsewomen as the "Queen of the Amateurs."

Racing mainly at Rosecroft Raceway and Ocean Downs, presently Kiel runs a stable of five.

She has been operating her own stable for the last 10 years, but harness racing and standardbreds were nothing new to her.

Courtesy Mackenzie Kiel
Mackenzie Kiel in action.

Her uncle Jay (Ed Gannon, Jr.) and grandmother, Barbara Gannon are the main people who got Kiel involved in the sport, which became her career after graduating from high school.

On Kiel's mother's side of the family, her grandfathers, uncles and cousins were all involved in the sport, so it was no surprise when Kiel followed in their footsteps. Or should I say hoof steps.

"I've had horses all my life, but mostly riding horses," Kiel said. "I got involved in the business about 11 years ago when I started working with my uncle. That was it. I was hooked and never looked back.

CLICK TO ENTER

"I was born in Easton, MD, but now reside in Denton, MD. My horses are stabled at my farm in Denton and race mostly in Maryland."

What has been your most memorable time racing horses?

"That would have to be the night my horse, Derby Dog Hanover won in 1:51. He was the first horse that my partner and I bought together, and he is so special to us. We scraped every penny we could to purchase him.

"At first, he was a little nutty and could be a handful in the race. At the time we bought him he was a 4-year-old and I believe he ended that year with eight wins.

"He has since calmed down a bit and last year I took him to the Fredrick Fair to drive. I ended up getting two wins with him which were my first winning drives.

"He is now the family pet, and my wife told me we can never sell him. To date he got us over 29 wins."

What is the biggest race you have won?

"Although it was not a major race, I won an open at Ocean Downs with 'Derby Dog.' To most horsemen that may not seem like a big thing but to me it was a milestone."

Is there one special night of racing that you will always remember?

"It was on March 6, 2026. That was the night I got my first pari-mutuel win as a driver. It was at Rosecroft Raceway, and I was driving Captain Terminator. I had the seventh [post] position and got away eighth. I pulled at the half with cover and won by a head in 1:57.2.

"Two races later I was driving Derby Dog Hanover and finished second by a head. I was on cloud nine and that night will always be special."

Do you breed horses?

"I just bred a mare, so I am looking forward to her foaling next year. At this stage I am not heavily involved in the breeding business, but this is a start. We will see where it goes."

Besides the anticipation of the foal, I hear there will be another blessing soon coming your way.

"Yes. A double blessing. My wife is pregnant with our first baby that is due this July. She has always loved animals but knew nothing about horses until she met me.

“I'd like to see more of the females in the sport start driving. We are not shy and frightened. I believe that we can give the men a run for their money.”

— Mackenzie Kiel

“I have taught her a lot about the business and occasionally she will come to the track and helps.”

Women drivers have come a long way and today there are a lot of females involved in the sport: from drivers, trainers, grooms, owners, and veterinarians. Is there anyone in particular you look up to?

“I think more and more women are getting involved and even becoming drivers. We have at least three young women in Maryland who drive regularly in the amateur races. At the fairs we've had 'Powder Puff' races with as many as 10 gals driving that day.

“I'd like to see more of the females in the sport start driving. We are not shy and frightened. I believe that we can give the men a run for their money.

“In the past, harness racing once had a woman driver named Bea Farber who was as good as any male driver. Today we have an incredible young woman named Lauren Tritton who is beating the men at the best tracks in major races. I truly admire her. One day I hope I can be mentioned in the same way as she is. She is fearless, game, and not afraid to take on the boys.”

Is there anyone you would like to thank for your success?

“Yes. I want to thank my two biggest supporters: my mother Susan Gannon and my wife Kristen.

“Also, I'd like to give some of the girls at my home track a big shout out for being so encouraging when I was thinking about getting my driver's license and always hyping me up before and after the race, no matter where I may finish.”

Nezuko Kamado S, Jailbird Jog sparkle in Del Miller

by James Witherite / Meadowlands media relations

Nezuko Kamado S kept her undefeated sophomore season intact with a lifetime-best 1:50.1 score in the $141,900 first division of the Grade 2 Del Miller Memorial, for 3-year-old trotting fillies, on Saturday (July 11) at The Meadowlands.

Scott Zeron bided his time early with Nezuko Kamado S, who landed in third as Lainey W (driven by Dexter Dunn) cleared Southwind Chaska (Tim Tetrick) to control a :27.1 first quarter. Odds-on favorite Nezuko Kamado S edged off the pegs with nine-sixteenths to go, stuck her head past Lainey W at the end of a :55.2 half, and completed her middle move before the far turn.

From that moment, it was never in doubt for Nezuko Kamado S, a daughter of Chapter Seven out of Zefira Kronos IT. She coasted through a :27.3 third quarter uncontested as Leading Lady (Matt Kakaley) failed to pose a threat on the outside, and she had no trouble fending off a late bid from runner-up Southwind Chaska – who found room to take aim on the outside in mid-stretch – by a half-length under just mild encouragement. Lainey W was a one-paced third.

Jailbird Jog (James MacDonald) winning the second Del Miller Memorial division.

"I think she got lonely on the front," said Anders Ström, whose Courant Inc. owns and bred Nezuko Kamado S, who has won all four of her engagements this season to date. "The driver seemed to be very happy with her."

Now a 10-time winner from 15 career starts under the care of trainer Marcus Melander, Nezuko Kamado S stamped herself as a top contender for the Grade 1 Hambletonian Oaks, slated for Aug. 8, at The Big M.

"She was very good last year; she did everything she had to do," Ström said. "She is a big, powerful mare, and she will develop as she goes along hopefully to become one of my best fillies and mares."

"I'm thrilled about the future for her; I'm looking forward to what's going to happen the rest of the season."

Nezuko Kamado S paid $3 to win.

In the $143,150 second division, Jailbird Jog mounted a last-to-first rally in the final three-sixteenths of the mile to post a 1:52 victory as the 7-5 favorite.

In line to James MacDonald, Jailbird Jog sat last in the seven-horse field as Ygritte (Mattias Melander) brushed from third to clear She's Moni (Zeron) past a :26.3 first quarter and controlled middle splits of :55.1 and 1:24.3. Apex (Dexter Dunn) winning the second Dancer division.

in the second Dancer division, going for a purse of $144,650. Inexpressable finished third.

Long shot Jim Beam led the field to the opening quarter in :28.3 before driver Dexter Dunn moved Apex to the top on their way to the half in :57.2. American Power made a first-over bid on the final turn and, after reaching three-quarters in 1:26, pulled even with Apex in the lane. Apex, though, came home in :26 to secure the victory.

Apex, last year's divisional Dan Patch Award winner, has won back-to-back starts since a second-place finish by a neck to American Power in his seasonal debut. The son of Walner—Mission Brief has captured eight of 12 career races and earned $1.06 million for owners Jeffrey Snyder, S R F Stable, and Steve Stewart. The colt was bred by the Mission Brief Stable.

"I think he's feeling better and better every week now," Melander said about Apex. "I feel like he's in good form at this point and I'm looking forward to the next couple weeks here."

"It's a long season and I don't want to peak him too early. I'm very happy with how his schedule has been looking so far. I think we'll just go straight now to the [Hambletonian] eliminations in three weeks."

Sent off as the 1-9 favorite, Apex paid $2.20 to win.

In the first Dancer division, going for a purse of $145,900, driver Andrew McCarthy and Endurance posted a half-length win over It Could Be Worse with Silverstein another half-length back in third.

It Could Be Worse went to the front from post 7 in a :28.2 opening quarter before McCarthy put Endurance in motion from third and grabbed the lead on the way to a :57.3 half. Nix Nacken, who had been parked out from the start, pulled alongside Endurance as they reached three-quarters in 1:25.2, but Endurance turned away that challenge before keeping It Could Be Worse and Silverstein at bay through the stretch.

Endurance, a son of Captain Corey—Love Session, has four wins in five starts this season for trainer Chris Beaver. He has won three in a row since a second-place finish in the Oak Grove Trotting Derby on May 16.

"I was impressed [in the Oak Grove Trotting Derby]; he went a really tough trip," Beaver said. "Every race since, he was in pretty soft, but he had plenty of trot every time. Today, he was in with some good horses. He kind of had his way, but it wasn't really his kind of trip, either."

For his career, Endurance has won 10 of 13 races and earned $848,799. The colt is owned by Super Endurance Stable, Bill Manes, Leo Fleming, and Mark Moger. He was bred by Steve Stewart and Martti Ala-Seppala.

"I think he's kind of a special colt," Manes said. "Chris bought him and asked us if we wanted to be partners with him and he's turned out to be far more than what we ever expected."

Sent off as the 3-5 favorite, Endurance paid $3.40 to win.

Loua Dipa takes Silverman, Twin B Joe Fresh wins Dorothy Haughton Memorial

by Frank Coto / Meadowlands media relations

Loua Dipa and Twin B Joe Fresh were powerful winners in graded stakes events at The Meadowlands on Saturday night (July 11) as part of the stakes-filled Meadowlands Pace program.

The $180,120 Grade 3 Jerry Silverman Memorial presented a mighty duel down the stretch from the two favorites in blazing fractions with Loua Dipa and Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. getting the nod in a track- and stake-record 1:48 victory.

Darlin's Angel made a sharp early move over three leavers to get the top early through a steep opening quarter of :26.1. I'm A Lou Lou soon rushed out of third to take the lead with Loua Dipa following her in the outer lane, and Loua Dipa smoothly cleared command in the shuffle to a :53.3 half.

Be Perfect BG, parked from the start after floating forward out of post 9, marched uncovered to take on Loua Dipa and that duel burned three-quarters in a fiery 1:20. But Loua Dipa fended off the persistent challenge of Be Perfect BG to the finish in front by a neck with Darlin's Angel zipping up the inside for third and She's A Bulldog finishing fourth.

"I knew it was going to take to the wire [for us] to get there," Wrenn, Jr. said after the race. "Dexter's horse [Be Perfect BG] raced great, she was out the whole way and she never went away; she was there until the end. These two fillies are going to battle all year.”

Loua Dipa, a daughter of Sweet Lou—Looksgoodinaromper, is trained by Ron Burke and owned by Burke Racing Stable and Weaver Brussemi. She paid $3.80 to win while raising her lifetime earnings to $1,118,118 and collecting the 13th victory in her career. Her 1:48 win equals the track record for 3-year-old pacing fillies set in 2019 by Tall Drink Hanover, and the time eclipses the 1:48.3 stakes record set in 2021 by Hot Mess Express and matched in 2022 by Max Contract.

The $165,750 Dorothy Haughton Memorial, a Grade 2 Mares Open Pace, was a commanding win for 2024 Horse of the Year Twin B Joe Fresh with her usual guide Dexter Dunn as they took the stake for the third year in a row.

Unreasonable left the gate best, getting to the top with Louies Girl N securing the pocket from the pylon post to the first panel in :26.2. Dunn confidently brushed his charge to the lead into the backstretch, routing her path to a half in :55 with Unreasonable on her tail while stablemate Miki And Minnie ground uncovered up the rim from the back of the pack. Twin B Joe Fresh scooted away from her rivals to three-quarters in 1:23 and was in full control through the stretch to hit the beam in 1:48.4. Unreasonable inched forward late to finish second, beaten a half-length, and Miki And Minnie settled for third.

“I hadn’t lost faith in her and I wasn’t looking for her to turn the tables,” trainer Chris Ryder said after the race, “but I knew she’d be going forward and as soon as she got to the half in :55 it was her race to lose. I’m just so proud of her to win this race three years in a row. I’m almost speechless; it’s fantastic. We had a hiccup in Canada – it was mainly the foot and she tied up. I thought she was alright for the Roses Are Red and she wasn’t, but I didn’t lose faith in her. She’s Twin B Joe Fresh and if she’s out there you better watch out!”

Ryder, Dunn, Peter Trebotica, and Barry Spak own Twin B Joe Fresh, a 6-year-old mare by Roll With Joe—Fresh Breeze with 38 wins and $2,990,744 earned from 54 starts. She paid $4.60 to win.

Bythemissal (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) winning the first division of the $135,700 Grade 2 William Haughton Memorial on Saturday at The Meadowlands.

Bythemissal gives Burke 17,000th win with William Haughton upset

Lou Hill captures second division.

by Ray Coto / Meadowlands media relations

Torrid fractions poised double millionaire Bythemissal for a furious bid from last down the center of the track to score his first stakes win as a 7-year-old with a 1:47 upset at 55-1 in the first of two $135,700 divisions of the Grade 2 William Haughton Memorial on Saturday night (July 11) at The Meadowlands.

Graduate final winner Captain Optimistic barreled for the lead out of post 7 and swooped past early leavers Maximus Miki and For Once Inmy Life to take the top through a :25.1 first quarter. Odds-on favorite Ervin Hanover landed in fourth and angled off the pylons in the backstretch but stalled on the rim while Captain Optimistic torched a :52.3 half and maintained that speed to three-quarters in 1:19.4. Ervin Hanover floundered from the first-up grind rounding for home while Captain Optimistic reached desperately for the line. For Once Inmy Life emerged off the pylons with a late bid before the stands-side pair of Bythemissal and Swingtown swarmed the front with the strongest momentum late. Bythemissal soared by everyone to win by 1¼ lengths with Swingtown second, For Once Inmy Life third, and Captain Optimistic fourth.

"It was one of the few races you don't mind sitting last because they were going to eventually get tired and I knew my horse had a lot of pace," driver Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. said after the race. "He's a really good horse for a reason and he raced great tonight. About halfway down the stretch [I knew I won] – I knew I had to outpace Swingtown, which is tough in itself because he finished a strong second, but this horse is all class, he knows how to win, he's done it for many years now and I'm just happy for the horse."

Winning his second race from eight starts this season and his 33rd race from 65 starts in his career, Bythemissal has amassed $2,653,239 for owners Burke Racing Stable, Eric Good, Rich Lombardo Racing, and Weaver Brussemi. The gelding by Downbytheseaside—Dismissal registered his first stakes victory since winning the Joe Auger Memorial at Harrah's Philadelphia last year, though he did equal the Canadian record later in the year with a lifetime-best 1:46.4 mile winning a Canadian Pacing Derby elimination. With his win in the Haughton Memorial, Bythemissal also gave Burke the historic milestone of 17,000 training wins.

"I just told him congrats – actually, he told me because I didn't know he was one away," Wrenn, Jr. said. "I'm just happy to be part of the team and to be able to drive some of these great horses, and I'm happy for him too. He deserves it."

Later on in the card after On To Norway won the Hambletonian Maturity, Burke said, "It's a lot of wins, a lot of losses but I'm very proud of it. I love to think I could get to 20,000 but that's a long way. That's my goal – to keep pushing to at least there."

Bythemissal, sent off as the longest shot on the board, paid $116.20 to win.

Lou Hill bagged the other division of the William Haughton Memorial with a 1:47.2 effort. Driver Yannick Gingras grabbed the early lead with Lou Hill before yielding command as Coaches Corner circled from second to the lead through a :27 first quarter. Fallout then tipped off the cones and brushed towards the lead to push the tempo to a :53.1 half while Ken Hanover pulled out of fourth to advance uncovered towards the lead. Lou Hill sat locked in the shuffle as Ken Hanover drew alongside Fallout, but with Captain Albano gapping cover from second over Gingras had clearance to tip outside coming to three-quarters in 1:20.2. Lou Hill then swung off cover and surged past Ken Hanover to win by 1½ lengths with Captain Albano giving chase in third and Coaches Corner settling for fourth.

"He's actually been pretty good all along and a very uncomplicated horse," trainer Per Engblom said after the race. "We can train him hard and he's doing well training, nice and sound and likes to race. When he was second at Miami Valley [in the Pacey Mindlin Memorial] I thought he was a horse for the top class."

A 5-year-old gelding by Sweet Lou—Pretty Katherine, Lou Hill won his eighth race from 13 starts this season and his 21st race from 52 starts in his career, collecting $599,242 for owner/breeder Tom Hill. He paid $10.80 to win.

On To Norway becomes millionaire with G1 Maturity score

by James Witherite / Meadowlands media relations

After taking on all comers in the Hoosier State as a sophomore, Indiana sensation On To Norway has proven worthy of the Grand Circuit stage so far in his 4-year-old season, following up his 1:48.3 score in last week's Grade 2 Graduate Series final with a gutsy 2:04.3 victory over 1-1/8 miles in the Grade 1 $425,000 E.T. Gerry, Jr. Hambletonian Maturity, for 4-year-old trotters, on Saturday (July 11) at The Meadowlands.

The Muscle Massive—One Class Act gelding made headlines with his 27-race win streak that stretched through June 12, and his victory over 12 rivals in the Maturity — his first Grade 1 triumph, to boot — pushed him over $1 million in career earnings.

On To Norway was widest of six early leavers in the long approach to the first turn, and Yannick Gingras worked him clear of Super Chapter (driven by Dexter Dunn) to take charge after the :26.3 first quarter. Once On To Norway cleared, he pulled the tempo back to a :56 half mile before Go Dog Go (Todd McCarthy) made steady gains out of midfield to take first-over aim at On To Norway through the far turn while Super Chapter kept close tabs from the pocket.

After hitting three-quarters in 1:24.1, as On To Norway accelerated to shrug off Go Dog Go turning for home and opened a two-length cushion at the eighth pole, Dunn found room to hook Super Chapter three-wide around Go Dog Go and in front of Greenma (Trond Smedshammer), who gapped second-over cover upon cornering for home.

As was the case in the Graduate final, On To Norway was tasked with fending off a late push from Super Chapter, and the Ron Burke trainee again proved up to the assignment, parrying last year's Dan Patch Award-winning sophomore male trotter by a diminishing neck. Delaney Hanover (Scott Zeron), one of four mares in the field, finished third, another 3¾ lengths behind, after saving ground just off the front flight.

"To have the fastest trotter ever in North America is unreal," said Frank Baldachino, who owns On To Norway in partnership with Burke Racing Stable, Black And White Stable, and Michael Rosenthal. "He comes out east and puts in performances like that; he's just an incredible animal."

Now a 33-time winner from 40 starts, On To Norway has earned

On To Norway (Yannick Gingras) winning the $425,000 Grade 1 Hambletonian Maturity on Saturday at The Meadowlands.

$1,052,631 in his career. And to say that he has exceeded his connections' expectations would be a major understatement.

"When we bought him, I was hoping he'd be a good Indiana Sires Stakes horse," Baldachino said. "And for him to pay off winning these Grand Circuit stakes is the biggest bonus ever."

As the 8-5 second choice, On To Norway paid $5.40 to win.

Indiana SIRE STAKES REPORT

Whoomp wins thriller in INSS at Hoosier

by Connor Mahoney / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Winning the showdown with arch-rival Somemore Blue, Whoomp driven by John De Long for trainer Roger Welch slugged it out down the stretch to finish on top in the $94,000 fourth leg of Indiana Sires Stakes for 3-year-old filly pacers on Saturday (July 11) at Hoosier Park.

Racing side by side, Whoomp in post 4 and Somemore Blue (Marcus Miller) in post five; Whoomp was the quickest away fending off the early battle from Somemore Blue. Whoomp forced her familiar opponent to settle in behind her to meet the quarter in :26.1. Whoomp led the unchanged six-horse field to the half-mile mark in :54.2.

Moving into the final turn, the lead duo began to separate from the remainder of the field. The Rockin Image filly, Whoomp blazed past the three-quarters in 1:22.4 with Somemore Blue beginning to peek to her outside.

Gearing up for a star-studded finish, Somemore Blue took her shot as the highly anticipated grudge match took shape. Whoomp found the accelerator as Somemore Blue was looking for an opportunity to go eye-to-eye with the leader. Popping out the ear plugs, Whoomp powered on fighting off her challenger, sprinting home in :25.4 to get the better end of the duel by a quarter-of-a-length in 1:48.3. Treacherous Woman (Kyle Wilfong) got up for third, 6¼ lengths back of the top pair.

Whoomp added her third win of the season in four tries, finding the winner's circle for her owners: William De Long, Wm Patrick De Long, and Jesse De Long. Whoomp, bred by William De Long and Patrick De Long, boosted her lifetime earnings to $491,726 and paid $6.20 to win.

Week 23 of live racing at Hoosier Park starts off with a 13-race card on Tuesday (July 14) featuring $10,000 guarantees in both the Late Pick-4 (races 10-13) and Late High-5 (race 13) in partnership with the USTA's Strategic Wagering Program. First post is 5:30 p.m.

Dean Gillette

ANOTHER MILE AGAIN HEADS SEVEN-NIGHT WIN FOR TRACE TETRICK AT HOOSIER

Turning over a deuce of 2-year-old Indiana Sires Stakes Colts and Geldings Pace races, Another Mile Again driven by Trace Tetrick for trainer Ron Burke scored a win with ease in the $66,000 stakes race. Following suit, Mr Bear continued his flying start to his career with an impressive outing for the team of Marcus and Erv Miller.

Up the gap out of post 5, Another Mile Again was forced to work along the outside being closed off from the rail to grab the eventual lead at the first turn in :26.3. Setting the tone early, Another Mile Again led the way for Straightblueskies (Jordan Ross) and Nu Chex To Cash (Anthony Miller) to the halfway mark in :55.2. Dr Drake (Atlee Bender) was the first to move along the outside hoping to go first over on Another Mile Again. Not allowing much of a chance, Another Mile Again hit the throttle on the final turn on his way to three-quarters in 1:23.4. Down the stretch, Another Mile Again was all business cruising to the wire in 1:51.4 a 2¼ length winner. This Captain Rocks (Spence Taylor) got up for second, while Nu Chex To Cash rallied for third.

The 2-year-old Jk Endofanera colt is owned by Burke Racing Stable LLC, Frank Baldachino, Know Services Inc, and Michael Rosenthal. Bred by Engle Equine LLC, Another Mile Again boosted his lifetime earnings to $36,000 for his first career win.

This win marked the second straight on the night for Tetrick for his eventual seven on the 14-race card. Starting the night strong Tetrick dominated the first half of the card combining for victories in the first with Fox Valley Sampson, Ponda One in the fourth, Always-A-Laser in the fifth, in the eighth driving Capt Peach, LA Captain Morgan in the 11th, and closing out the win total with Blaze On N.

Mr Bear driven by Marcus Miller for trainer Erv Miller served up a similar display wiring the field to dominate in the $65,500 second division of Sires Stakes.

Away from the rail, Mr Bear got away in no time claiming the lead as the field lined up in numerical order behind the favorite to the quarter in :26.3. The seven-horse field followed single file until Straighttemperment (Jordan Ross) made a brief break on the first turn, forcing his hand first-over outside of pocket-sitter Gwtrigger (Kyle Wilfong). Mr Bear met the halfway pole in :55.4 fending off Straighttemperment. Growing congested while moving two-wide, Mr Bear remained the leader of the pack to three-quarters in 1:24.3. Showing his class at a young age, Mr Bear appeared to have no weakness down the stretch blitzing home in :26.2 to win by 2¼ lengths in 1:51. Tell Me It's You (John De Long) rallied from last with a :25.4 last quarter to be second, with Gwtrigger snagging the show spot.

Mr Bear is now a perfect three-for-three to begin his career, increasing his lifetime earnings to $44,750. The 2-year-old Rockin Image gelding is owned by Ervin Miller Stable Inc, D&M

Trading II LLC, Levi Bontrager, and Laura Perniciaro. Mr Bear was bred by Mark Adams and Timothy Sullivan.

Veteran foes battled later in the card, with Harrisburg Heist leaving the Bluegrass state for the first time this year and claiming victory in the $22,000 open pace with John De Long aboard for Ron Burke.

Leaving from post 7 in the full field of 10, Harrisburg Heist looped around Golden Bay N (Trace Tetrick) to assert himself on top at the quarter in :26.1. Catching a second-quarter breather, Harrisburg Heist was to the half in :55.1 before opening up by two lengths on the far turn to three-quarters in 1:22.3 while Little Rocket Man (Kyle Wilfong) raced first-over and into third. No one could get to the favorite in the lane, with Harrisburg Heist coasting to the wire clear by three-parts-of-a-length in 1:49.4 over Crooked Smile (Jordan Ross), who rallied between foes for second, while Little Rocket Man held for third.

Harrisburg Heist has won six of eight on the year, banking $191,500 in 2026. The 4-year-old Downbytheseaside gelding has earned $754,202 lifetime for owners Burke Racing Stable, Knox Services, Phillip Collura, and Weaver Brussemi.

(July 9) night card at Hoosier Park with Ponda Solve, Nectar Of The Gods, and So Joyful all taking home victories.

In the $46,000 first split, it was Ponda Solve and leading driver Trace Tetrack wiring the field for trainer Ron Burke.

Leaving out of post 3, Ponda Solve was intent on snagging the lead out of the gate fending off Broadway Tempo (Doug Rideout) to fire past the first turn in :28.4. Single file down the backstretch, the field remained unchanged with Ponda Solve focused at the helm matching the halfway mark in :59.2. The post time favorite Heffae (Lamar Wingard) looked to go first-over on the leader before Ponda Solve ticked off the three-quarters in 1:29.1. Laying it all out on the track Heffae battled along the outside hoping to catch a slip up from Ponda Solve. The Swan For All colt, Ponda Solve finished the race how he started in front clearing the wire in 1:57.2 a measured length in front. Heffae claimed second, with Steppinouttohelp (Robert Taylor) rallying for the show.

Depositing a healthy earnings pool into his lifetime total of $24,440, Ponda Solve achieved his first ever pari-mutuel win in career start number two. Ponda Solve is owned by Burke Racing Stable, Lawrence Karr, Michael Rosenthal, and Knox Services Inc. The 2-year-old was bred by Ponda-A-Acres and Fashion Hill Farm.

Finding favor down the stretch, Nectar Of The Gods scored the winning knockout blow a couple races later in the eighth with trainer Mike Micallef in the sulky.

The five-horse field found their spots with ease setting out the order to the first turn in :29.1 with Rockinrowdy (Jared Finn) leading early and Nectar Of The Gods hovering close behind. Immediately after the turn, Nectar Of The Gods steamrolled along the outside to take the advantage before being leapfrogged by Starboard (Jordan Ross) at the half-mile pole in :59.4. Copperstone (Kyle Husted) wheeled first-over on the far turn to move alongside the leader at three-quarters in 1:29.4. Copperstone did not slow down there motoring past the leader. Wanting in on a piece of the action, Nectar Of The Gods made it a three-horse race storming the stretch in :27.3 striking the wire in 1:57.4 a half-length clear. Starboard reclaimed second, while Copperstone settled for third.

Owned by Bet The House LLC and bred by Steve Jones, Nectar Of The Gods paid $6.40 to win. The Temporal Hanover colt boosted his lifetime earnings to $26,250 for the first win of the 2-year-olds lifetime.

In the $46,500 third and final division, So Joyful and driver John De Long utilized a backside brush en route to victory for trainer Ernie Gaskin.

Leaving from post 2, So Joyful was away third while Diamond Popper (Brandon Bates) took command early to the opening quarter in :29.1. De Long right-lined So Joyful from there, blitzing to the top before the half in 1:00.2, then trotting to three-quarters 2½ lengths clear at three-quarters in 1:30. From there So Joyful sprinted away, trotting home in :27.4 to hit the wire 4½ lengths clear in 1:57.4. Royal Response (Markus Niklasson) rallied for second, with Diamond Popper holding sway for third.

It was the first win in the second try for So Joyful, who is owned by All-Wright Racing, Brian Code, and James Nellinger. The son of Rebuff was bred by Luckiana Farm and Aaron Stutzman and has a career bankroll of $23,850.

Carve (Andrew McCarthy) set a 1:51.3 track record for sophomore trotting fillies on Friday at Harrah's Philadelphia in her Pennsylvania Sire Stakes event.

Carve sets track record in Philly's PA Sires action

by PHHA / Harrah's Philadelphia

A total of $178,654 was on the line during races for 3-year-old trotting fillies Friday afternoon (July 10) with Harrah's Philadelphia during third round preliminary action of the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes (two divisions) and Stallion Series (four sections). Favorites won all six of the stakes races, and the hot sire Captain Corey fathered four of the winners, including both Sire Stakes winners.

Individual honors went to Carve in one of the Sire Stakes divisions as she lowered her mark to 1:51.3 while rewriting the divisional track record from the 1:52.1 set by Fashion Annie in 2023. Carve, who sat in the pocket behind fractions of :26.3, :55.1, and 1:23.1, benefited from clever handling by driver Andrew McCarthy as last year's PASS champ Ginger Tree Lex cleared the pacesetter with a :26.4 backside move, with Carve going out and up to challenge the new leader, wearing down her opponent by a half-length for trainer Noel Daley and the partnership of Patricia Stables LLC, L A Express Stable LLC, and Sjoebloom Racing Inc.

Frattina Diablo S became the only filly to post two PASS wins in this grouping to date when she triumphed in 1:52.3. Despite not racing since her other Sires win 26 days ago, "Frattina" set fractions of :28.2, :57.1, and 1:25, then dug in to ward off persistent pocket challenger Little Road by a head with a :27.3 finishing kick. Tim Tetrick was in the sulky for trainer Tony Alagna and owners Steve Stewart and Dreamlover AB.

The two Captain Coreys who won in Stallion Series competition both earned themselves a second series success in winning by open lengths. First up was I Take The Cake, who equaled her mark of 1:52.3 by trotting a last half of :55.4 for driver Scott Zeron, and trainer Blake MacIntosh, the latter co-owner with Hutt Racing Stable. Just a fifth behind that one, and taking a new mark, was Islandgirl Hanover, who brushed to the lead during quarter two then stormed back numbers of :54.4 - :27.1

for trainer/driver Trond Smedshammer and Purple Haze Stables LLC.

Smedshammer took another Stallion Series cut with the sometimes-fractious but very fast Greenshoe filly Green Maztake, who came from sixth at the half, showing a :55.2 rallying kick to be along by a head over Skyline Salty Girl while lowering her mark four seconds to 1:54.2 for M3 Racing Stable. The International Moni filly Denarius was the other stakes success story on Friday, defeating Naachtun by three-parts-of-a-length while lowering her mark to 1:52.4 for driver Zeron, trainer Nancy Takter (her first start overseeing the filly), and Moni Maker Stable.

Fastest mile of the day was the 1:49.3 put in by the Sweet Lou mare Sweetnikkilou A in the $16,000 distaff fast-class handicap. The Aussie mare paced home strongly from second-over to win for driver Zeron and trainer Nifty Norman and his Enzed Racing Stable Inc.

Zeron took driving honors for the day, scoring with the two Stallion Series trotters and two overnight horses. Andrew McCarthy won three races, as did Smedshammer (who also trains all three of his stakes winners for the only training multiple of the afternoon).

Today's card at Harrah's Philly, which begins at 12:40 p.m., is focused as usual on fast pacing males, with a $14,000 feature for up-and-coming prospects and a $13,000 matchup for the established fast-class setup. Free Philly program pages are or will be available at www.phha.org.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

'Nevis,' 'Reacher' win NJSS dashes at Big M

by Dave Little / Meadowlands media relations

Nevis Peak and Top Reacher were two good-looking winners at The Meadowlands Friday night (July 10) when the mile oval carded one dozen first leg New Jersey Sire Stakes events for 2-year-olds of each sex and gait on the program.

Platinum division races went for a purse of $25,000, while Silver splits were contested for $10,000.

Nevis Peak, despite going off as the even-money favorite, wasn't on the gate at the start and was actually last in the field of seven out of the first turn in a Platinum division dash for filly trotters, but the daughter of Walner—Ramona Hill had little trouble overcoming that handicap.

Driver Yannick Gingras managed to get into a live flow after the half as Special Orchid towed her into contention heading to the far turn. At the head of the stretch, Gingras swung the Ron Burke trainee into the three-path for the stretch drive, and she responded with explosive trot.

Nevis Peak was in full flight when she took over at the eighth pole and went on to a $2\frac{3}{4}$ -length victory in 1:54.3. Caught Speeding rallied well for second, with Sweetest Of All third. Nevis Peak returned \$4.20 to win.

"She baby raced [from off the pace] and delivered tonight," said Gingras of the $250,000 Lexington sale acquisition. "[Her connections] loved her all along. She did it well in hand tonight for sure. Her gait is really good. She's a natural."

Dexter Dunn worked out a second-over trip with 6-5 favorite Top Reacher in a Platinum split for colt and gelding trotters before roaring past leader Pul Biber inside the sixteenth pole in a 1:56.2 effort. The Muscle Hill—Top Expectations colt is trained by Marcus Melander. He returned $4.40 to his backers after defeating Pul Biber by one length. Pearl Of Hanover was third.

"We were sort of moving along pretty good, he's a really nice colt," said Dunn. "With his manners and his attitude, I think he can have a really good season."

The other 10 NJSS contests on the program were taken by the following horses:

- Race 3 – Silver division, colt and gelding trot: Celebrini (Tactical Landing–Wheely Quick), Tim Tetrick was the driver, trained by Nancy Takter, winning time 1:57.3, paid $5.20 as the 8-5 second choice.
- Race 5 – Silver division, filly trot: Mrs Rattigan (Walner–Flyer Mel), Andy Miller, Julie Miller, 1:57.3, $11.40 as the 9-2 second choice.
- Race 7 – Platinum division, filly trot: Rio De Janeiro (Walner–Devilish Delight), Scott Zeron, Takter, 1:55.4, $7.20 as the 5-2 second choice.
- Race 8 – Platinum division, filly trot: Wall Of Fame (Walner–Saadet), Andy Miller, Julie Miller, 1:54.1, $3.80 as the 4-5 favorite.
- Race 9 – Silver division, filly trot: DEAD HEAT: Olbia (Muscle Hill–Graceful Lady), Dunn, Melander, 1:55.3, $2.40 as the 3-5 favorite; Irish Faith (Walner–Irish Melody Fr), Jason Bartlett, Petter Engblom, 1:55.3, $5 as the 7-1 fourth choice.
- Race 10 – Silver division, colt and gelding trot: Jazzy Blues (Muscle Hill–Bare My Soul), Todd McCarthy, Carter Pinske, 1:56.1, $34.60 as the 16-1 fifth choice.

- Race 11 – Silver division, filly pace: She Stings Twice (Perfect Sting–Shesgoingongone), Brett Beckwith, Cory Stratton, 1:54.1, $36.40 as the 17-1 sixth choice.

- Race 12 – Platinum division, colt and gelding trot: Mats (Walner–Beautiful Sin), Gingras, Ake Svanstedt, 1:54.1, $4.20 as the even-money favorite.

- Race 13 – Platinum division, filly pace: Sterl The Pearl (Lazarus N–Cloud Diva), Joe Bongiorno, Joe Bongiorno, 1:53.2, $12 as the 5-1 third choice.

- Race 14 – Platinum division, colt and gelding pace: Aintmyfirstro Deo (Perfect Sting–Some Renditions), Zeron, Megan Scran, 1:54.1, $3.40 as the 3-5 favorite.

A LITTLE MORE: Beckwith, Zeron, Gingras, Dunn, and Andy Miller tied atop the driver leaderboard with two winners apiece... Takter, Melander, and Julie Miller topped the trainers with a pair of victories apiece... All-source handle on the 15-race card totaled $2,059,515.

Dunn and Melander sweep NYSS at Vernon

by John Horne for Vernon Downs

Vernon Downs played host for two $55,500 divisions of the New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings on Friday (July 10).

Gio's Hope (Dexter Dunn) captured the first division.

Seven Pledges (Jason Bartlett) got to the quarter first in :28.2. He used a :29.2 second quarter as he led to the half in :57.4. Gio's Hope ($15.92) made his move first-up from third as they went around the final turn. Seven Pledges was first to three quarters in 1:26.

Gio's Hope and second place finisher Seven Pledges battled into the stretch. Gio's Hope surged to the front and won going away in 1:55. T Money (Tyler Buter) finished third.

Gio's Hope is a colt by Chapter Seven—Southwind Hope and is owned by Brixton Medical and Hatfield Stables while trained by Marcus Melander. He is now one-for-one in his career.

Bigtime Chapter (Dunn) takes the second division.

Uncle Rob (Tyler Miller) went straight to the front from his outside post and was first to the quarter in :29.1. Bigtime Chapter ($6.86) popped the pocket and took over control reaching the half first in :59.2. He led to three quarters in 1:28.3.

As they reached the stretch, second-place finisher Uncle Rob gave everything he had but fell short as Bigtime Chapter won in 1:57.2. Archon (Jordan Stratton) was third best.

Bigtime Chapter is a colt by Chapter Seven—Fined Tuned Lady, owned by Jeffrey Snyder, and trained by Melander. He is now one-for-one.

Vernon Downs returns to live racing today (July 12) with a post time of 5:05 p.m.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Diesel Thunder Boy reigns in sophomore action at Running Aces

by Darin Gagne for Running Aces Casino, Hotel and Racetrack

The Thursday night (July 9) harness racing program at Running Aces featured two divisions of the Minnesota-sired sophomore pacers going for $17,500 each, as well as the weekly $16,000 mares open handicap pace.

In the colts and geldings division, Diesel Thunder Boy and driver Scott Cisco left alertly from post 5 for the early lead while the race favorites Wild About Me (Nick Roland) and Cool Mr Cool (Casey Leonard) were both parked out for the fast :27.2 quarter, with Cool Mr Cool making the top and Wild About Me winding up in the pocket spot during the :28.2 second panel.

Down the backstretch, Luke Skyrocket (Luke Plano) launched a first over bid and applied pressure to the leaders with CL Dancer following the cover.

Cool Mr Cool still had command at the 1:25.2 three-quarters and Wild About Me was still close in the pocket with Diesel Thunder Boy saving ground behind him.

As they swung for home Cool Mr Cool began to feel the effects of the wide early trip and quick early fractions and the field stacked up for the stretch drive, with Diesel Thunder Boy shaking free and surging in the passing lane late to get up for a half-length win in 1:54.1 over Wild About Me, while Luke Skyrocket out-kicked Cool Mr Cool to pick up third money.

The winner is by Aracache Hanover and is owned by Nathalie Tremblay and Dave Kuri and is trained by Tremblay. It was the first win of the season and a new career mark for Diesel Thunder Boy ($17.60).

Starstruck Fool (by Karpathian Kid) held on gamely against pocket sitter Hot Cheddar Flirt to win the filly division by three-quarters-of-a-length in 1:55.1 with Thiskidcanfly rallying late for third. Scott Cisco was the winning pilot for owners Jeri and Briar Roland and trainer Dan Roland. Starstruck Fool ($3.40) now shows four wins from seven starts this year.

K T Part E (Cattlewash) lived up to the hype as the 1-2 favorite in the mares open event, holding on by a head for a gate-to-wire tally over pocket sitter Premier Desirey in 1:51 with Fillister Photo checking in third.

It was the seventh win of 2026 for K T Part E ($3) for owner/trainer/driver Brady Jenson.

Drivers Jenson, Cisco, Plano, and Roland all had doubles on the card, while Jenson also posted a training triple and Plano a training double.

Live racing returns to Running Aces tonight (July 12) for "Circus Night at the Races" which will feature Circus performances by Circus Juventas in between races, as well as "Pepsi Family Night" specials and kid's activities, trout fishing, food trucks, Sole Survivor contest, and more. Ten races are on tap with first post at 6 p.m. (CDT).

Maine SIRE STAKES REPORT

Youngsters shine at Cumberland Friday

by Chris Tully for First Tracks Cumberland

With their seasonal hopes on the line, the Maine faithful sent this year's group of freshmen sidesteppers out onto the Cumberland Raceway on Friday (July 10) for three $14,000 divisions of the Maine Sire Stakes for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings.

With nothing but a qualifying race or two under their belts the fresh-faced youngsters provided some thrills, and some anxious moments, for the Downeast crowd at the iconic Southern oval.

Despite being rough gaited as the wings folded Agent James Bond (9-5, Kevin Switzer, Jr.) rolled on aggressively and then inherited the point when the favorite Dudeisadelight (4-5, Ron Cushing) made a speed break down the backstretch as the first division headed toward their very first pari-mutuel :30 opening panel.

Agent James Bond led the single file pack to a 1:00.4 half-mile marker with Dudeisadelight back on-stride tracking along in the pocket and Survive The Ride (6-1, Aaron Hall) poised in third. At the paddock draw gate Painter's Treasure (13-1, Andy Harrington) tipped from fifth and nine lengths in arrears to start the outer flow. They reached the third stanza in 1:30.4 with Survive The Ride providing Painter's Treasure with second over cover as they rounded the turn for home.

Harrington tipped Painter's Treasure three-wide for the stretch drive and reeled in his combatants to prevail by a neck in 2:02.1 for trainer Sara Harrington.

Owned and bred by Bill "Yarmouth Lumber" Phipps, the son of State Treasurer is a half-brother to Glorilla p, 3, 1:56f ($101,421). He paid a whopping $28.60 to win the first race of his career.

Agent James Bond finished second; Dudeisadelight was third.

The second $14,000 division was a gate-to-wire romp by The Gucci Man and Kevin Switzer, Jr.

Setting strategic early fractions of :29.1 and 1:01.1, the son of Dude's The Man was able to gain separation after a 1:30.4 third panel and win by 6¾ lengths in 2:00.2, the swiftest division of the 81-degree afternoon.

Owned, trained, and bred by Marc Tardif, the 2-1 second choice returned $6 while posting a :29.3 final quarter. Harriman (9-1, Nick Graffam), a half-brother to Cousin Margie p, 3, 1:54h ($126,532) finished second; favorite Rustysonlytreasure (8-5, Aaron Hall) was third.

In the third and final $14,000 division of the Maine Sire Stakes it was another wire-to-wire triumph for Top Notch Treasure who completed the circuit in 2:02.2.

Driver Mike Stevenson set comfortable fractions of :30.4, 1:03, and 1:32.4 before drawing off to win by six lengths as the 3-5 favorite.

Trained by Christopher Dubois for owner Steven Moskowitz Racing, Top Notch Treasure is a State Treasurer half-brother to This Dudes Perfect p, 4, 1:56.3h ($87,699). He was bred in Maine by Lynn-Marie Plouffe and returned $3.20.

Justcallmebuddy (8-5, Aaron Hall) a Deuce Seelster full brother to Justcallmebuck p, 4, 1:51f ($212,960) finished second; Two Bolts (16-1, Mike Cushing) was third.

Graffam led all drivers with four wins on the 13-race program, including a victory in the overnight featured $6,400 NW5000 trot with Party At Seven (1:58.4, $12.80).

HARNESS RACING PRESS RELEASES, NOTES & ANNOUNCEMENTS

George Napolitano, Jr. records win number 13,000 at Philly

George Napolitano, Jr. drove the 13,000th winner of his career on Friday afternoon (July 10) at Harrah's Philadelphia, rallying La Miki N into a :53.4 final half to give the Always B Miki mare a lifetime mark of 1:51 while recording his milestone triumph.

Napolitano and La Miki N made the lead just past the midpoint of the first turn, but Wise Professor was out and brushing for the lead past the :27.4 quarter, getting a breather to a :57.1 half. There was no third quarter breather as Wise Professor blazed down the back in :26.1 for a 1:23.2 three quarter split, with La Miki N and Napolitano doing their best to stay within shouting difference.

Wise Professor carried the lead well into the stretch but began to tire a bit, and "George Nap" kept La Miki N up on the bit, and finally rallied the Kiwi import to be along for a neck decision.

Napolitano, Jr., 60, joins seven others in the 13,000 win club: in order, Dave Palone, Anthony Morgan, Aaron Merriman, Herve Fillion, David Miller, Tim Tetrick, and Cat Manzi. Many have connections to Philly – Palone won the feature race here on Opening Day in 2007 and Morgan and Miller have raced here regularly in years past. Between Tetrick and Napolitano, Jr., they have won 19 of the 20 dash-winning titles at the Harrah's oval – and the other leader, in the inaugural 2007 season, was Manzi.

The native of Long Island, whose horses have earned over $121 million, has found Eastern Pennsylvania to be very good to him – in addition to his eight sulky crowns and four UDR championships at Philly, Napolitano, Jr. has won 15 dash, 13 UDR, and five training titles at Pocono, and campaigned successfully at Pompano for several years. He won the 2010 North American driving title, and he remains tied for the most wins on one pari-mutuel card with 11.

PHHA / Harrah's Philadelphia

Roy doubles up in Tompkins-Geers

Driver Louis-Philippe Roy swept Friday (July 10) evening's Tompkins-Geers Stakes for 2-year-old pacers at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The first Grand Circuit event of the season for 2-year-old pacers at the Campbellville oval saw a division for fillies and division for boys contested.

Campbellville resident Roy took top spot in both, guiding filly Charolais Cattle to an 8-1 victory before steering even-money choice Shalom Hanover to a wire-to-wire score.

Making his career debut, Shalom Hanover turned heads with an impressive 1:50.4 score for Roy and trainer Dr. Ian Moore in the $62,063 Tompkins-Geers for colts and geldings. The son of Papi Rob Hanover left from post 6 in the field of nine and made the front in a :27.2 opener. After a :29 second-quarter, Shalom Hanover ramped things up for a :27.3 third-quarter, followed by a :26.4 kicker with Roy sitting chilly to win by 2¼ lengths.

Moore, who sent out three in the race, swept the Exacta with second choice Mascarpone following throughout for the runner-up spot. Nineleven Hanover was third, while L A Captain was fourth.

A $50,000 (USD) Harrisburg yearling purchase, Shalom Hanover is the 10th foal out of Western Hanover mare Sammys Magic Girl, making him a half-brother to 2020 and 2021 O'Brien Award winner Scarlett Hanover.

The season debut score earns Shalom Hanover $31,031 for owners Shalom Hanover Stable of Cambridge. He paid $4 to win.

The $71,376 Tompkins-Geers for 2-year-old pacing fillies saw Dave Menary trainee Charolais Cattle come first-up on the far turn and power by in the lane to a 1:53 victory.

A daughter of Cattlewash, Charolais Cattle left from post 9 in an overflow field of 11, sitting a parked out seventh around the first turn before settling in. The action up front saw multiple lead changes in the second split, as favorite Im Sweet On Lou was three-wide for a large portion of the backstretch before clearing just after a :55.4 half.

Charolais Cattle got the cue to move at the half and wasn't finding any cover, as Roy and the rookie grinded first-up to within two lengths of leader Im Sweet On Lou at three-quarters in 1:24.4.

In the stretch, Charolais Cattle kept on motoring to take over the lead and get clear to win by a length-and-a-half. Luc Blais' trainees Rockin Jade Deo and Beachside Caroline completed the top three. Rockin Jade Deo notably rallied from a third-over seventh position to finish second.

Owned by Menary Racing Inc. and Riverview Stable, Charolais Cattle broke her maiden in her third start on Friday evening. She was most recently fifth in an Ontario Sires Stakes Gold division last week after a runner-up finish on June 25.

Charolais Cattle is the third foal out of Ponder mare Final Decision, who is a full-sister to 2012 Pepsi North America Cup winner Thinking Out Loud. The Cattlewash filly was a $40,000 (USD) Lexington Selected Yearling Sale purchase.

A $2 win ticket on Charolais Cattle returned $18.90.

The Tompkins-Geers Stakes continues next week with the 2-year-old filly trot event set for Thursday (July 16) followed by the rookie colt and gelding trot on Friday (July 17).

Reins of Hope online auction to benefit Saratoga barn fire victims

The Reins of Hope 2026 online charity auction opened on Friday (July 10) at 5 p.m. (EDT), bringing together the racing community and supporters from across the country to raise funds for those affected by the devastating June 16 barn fire at the Saratoga Casino Hotel harness track in Saratoga Springs, NY.

Created by Kentucky Derby-winning trainer Cherie DeVaux, who has longstanding ties to the Saratoga standardbred community, the auction is a grassroots effort to support the individuals impacted by the tragedy. The auction will run through 7 p.m. (EDT) on Tuesday (July 21), with 100 per cent of the proceeds benefiting the victims of the fire.

The auction is being hosted by Purple Haze Standardbred Adoption Program and organized by Biederman Real Estate and Auctioneers.

"Racing is a close-knit community, and when tragedy strikes, we come together," said DeVaux. "Reins of Hope is an opportunity for horsemen, racing fans, businesses, and supporters to make a meaningful difference for those rebuilding after this heartbreaking loss."

The online auction will feature a wide variety of unique items and experiences donated by members of the racing industry, businesses, and supporters including stallion seasons, memorabilia, artwork, race day experiences and much more.

"The response from the racing community has been incredibly generous," organizers said. "Every donated item and every bid represents support for the people whose lives were turned upside down by this tragedy."

Community members, racing fans, and supporters are encouraged to participate in the auction, share it with others, and help maximize its impact.

Legends Day online auction now open in support of the Clinton Public Hospital Foundation

The countdown to Legends Day 2026 is underway, and supporters can begin bidding on an incredible lineup of auction items with the annual Legends Day Online Auction.

The auction, presented in support of the Clinton Public Hospital Foundation, will remain open until Friday (July 24), giving bidders two weeks to compete for an exciting collection of unique experiences, vacation getaways, sports memorabilia, and one-of-a-kind harness racing items.

This year's auction features something for everyone, including:

- A Prince Edward Island cottage vacation rental
- Harness racing equipment and collectibles
- Sports memorabilia
- A round of golf with Harness Racing Hall of Famer John Campbell
- Gift certificates, entertainment packages, and many more outstanding items generously donated by businesses and individuals throughout the community and beyond.

Every bid helps support the Clinton Public Hospital Foundation while adding to the excitement leading up to Legends Day, one of harness racing's premier charitable events.

"We are incredibly grateful to the many businesses, organizations, and individuals who have donated auction items," said Jessica Carnochan, marketing manager at Clinton Raceway. "Their generosity continues to make this fundraiser a success, and every item purchased helps make a meaningful difference for our local hospital."

The online auction has become an important part of the Legends Day fundraising efforts, raising thousands of dollars in support of healthcare close to home. Organizers encourage everyone to browse the auction, bid often, and share it with family and friends.

Legends Day 2026 will be held on Sunday (July 26) at Clinton Raceway, featuring the National Driving Championship, Hall of Fame driver appearances, family entertainment, and a full day of world-class harness racing while celebrating the 25th anniversary of Legends Day and the 50th Anniversary of the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame.

The online auction opened Friday (July 10) and closes Friday (July 24). Don't miss your opportunity to take home an incredible item while supporting an important community cause. Check back often in the next few days as new items will continue to be added.

This week's fines and suspensions

HRU is providing links to publicly-available fines and suspension lists for convenience.

Readers are reminded that because a person's name appears on the list does not necessarily mean they are guilty of an offense. Many times, cases are not finalized and many of the accused are still entitled to due process.

Also, please note, for context, the first link is to the Association of Racing Commissioners International's classification system of drug penalties to give readers a sense of the difference between a Class 1 and a Class 4 positive.
