In Adios, Loua Dipa is in the rarest of territories

by Brett Sturman

Dave Landry

Loua Dipa (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) setting the 1:48 world record for 2-year-old pacing fillies in the International on Oct. 3, 2025 at The Red Mile. She will take on the boys in the Adios eliminations on Saturday at The Meadows.

BETWEEN THE LINES

with BRETT STURMAN

While it has become somewhat more commonplace on the trotting side, a 3-year-old filly beating male rivals at the highest of levels has been extremely rare on the pacing side. So rare in fact – and an indication of just how nearly impossible it is – that it's hardly ever been attempted.

That's what makes the news of Loua Dipa entering this year's Adios No. 60 so significant. According to the press release issued by The Meadows this week, Loua Dipa becomes the first filly to enter the Pace for the Orchids since the filly named With Thanks in 1969, which was in the race's infancy in just its third year. With that filly not winning, it would naturally make Loua Dipa the first filly ever to take the race, if she wins.

What type of company does entering this race bring Loua Dipa into? The gold standard is Fan Hanover. Any conversation about a sophomore pacing filly beating male rivals immediately comes to her famed win in the 1981 Little Brown Jug; seemingly the highest honor for a pacing filly against males in the sport's modern era.

For [the Adios] that sometimes falls in the shadow of the days following the Meadowlands Pace, this year is a major exception. The supplemental entry of Odds On Mr Mamba and the inclusion of the filly Loua Dipa with a realistic chance to win could make this year's Adios one of the most dramatic in the history of the race. And a win from Loua Dipa would put her name on the shortest of lists with immortal pacing fillies.

Thinking and researching more on the subject, the list of fillies attempting to race against males – let alone winning – doesn't seem to get much longer. Drop The Ball comes to mind when attempting to race in the 2011 Meadowlands Pace, but she broke in her elimination and finished ninth. There were big headlines last year when pacing filly Chantilly was nominated and had sustained payments into the 2025 North America Cup, but that never came to fruition and I'm not sure how realistic that ever was.

I'm not sure she ever received the accolades deserved for accomplishing the feat, but in 2020 Party Girl Hill did defeat 3-year-old males in her division of the Tattersalls Pace in 1:47.2 at The Red Mile. That year's eventual Horse of the Year Tall Dark Stranger drew into the other Tattersalls division that day, but that's one of those "what if's" had those two been able to go head-to-head. It was widely cited at that time that in Party Girl Hill winning, she became only the second pacing filly to beat male rivals in a race worth at least $100,000 in the last 30 years.

It's one of those things that this column in the past has attempted to explain but there's no definitive answer: Why are fillies far more competitive against males on the trotting side than on the pacing side? Whatever the reason, the extreme rarity is what makes the Loua Dipa storyline much more compelling.

It's one of those things that this column in the past has attempted to explain but there's no definitive answer: Why are fillies far more competitive against males on the trotting side than on the pacing side? Whatever the reason, the extreme rarity is what makes the Loua Dipa storyline much more compelling.

Back to present day, the connections of Loua Dipa have spoken confidently in published quotes this week, and for good reason. Last year's Breeders Crown and Dan Patch winner has been in the process of establishing herself as a potentially generational filly, and a win in this year's Adios would be massive in proving that legacy.

Loua Dipa's race last on Saturday (July 11) in the Jerry Silverman Memorial at The Meadowlands is likely what gave her connections the last bit of confidence to give the green light for her entry into the Adios Pace. In winning the Silverman in a time of 1:48 over her hard-fought rival Be Perfect BG, she won faster than the Meadowlands Pace five races later, which went in a time of 1:48.1. Making it more impressive, Loua Dipa was used when making a move past the half-mile mark in a time of :53.3, whereas the half-mile call in the Meadowlands Pace was nearly a full second slower in a time of :54.2. The faster fractional splits and final time doesn't necessarily outweigh a hundred years of limited precedent, but it does give reason to be more optimistic than normal for Loua Dipa's chances.

DON'T MISS A MILE.

The morning line has established Loua Dipa at 5-2 with Odds On Mr Mamba pegged early at 7-2 but it will be interesting to see which way the public goes. On one hand I'd think the male Odds On Mr Mamba would naturally have the advantage, but on the other hand it's Loua Dipa for Burke at their home base.

After I complained last month about marquee horses meeting for the first time in an elimination instead of a final, the same has happened here with Loua Dipa against the supplemental entry, Pepsi North America Cup winner Odds On Mr Mamba in the first of two Adios eliminations set for this Saturday (July 18). What a matchup. The morning line has established Loua Dipa at 5-2 with Odds On Mr Mamba pegged early at 7-2 but it will be interesting to see which way the public goes. On one hand I'd think the male Odds On Mr Mamba would naturally have the advantage, but on the other hand it's Loua Dipa for Burke at their home base. Not to be overlooked in the same elimination are two other Burke stablemates that are lurking, including PA Sire Stakes star Another C Note.

For a race that sometimes falls in the shadow of the days following the Meadowlands Pace, this year is a major exception. The supplemental entry of Odds On Mr Mamba and the inclusion of the filly Loua Dipa with a realistic chance to win could make this year's Adios one of the most dramatic in the history of the race. ADVENTURES IN ILLINOIS

with NEIL MILBERT

Last rites for Hawthorne?

by Neil Milbert

The standardbreds and thoroughbreds who have been on the Chicago metropolitan area's endangered species list for the last five years appear to be on the verge of becoming extinct.

The reason is because there were no bidders for the area's only remaining racetrack, bankrupt Hawthorne Race Course, when an auction was held on July 13.

That means the earlier $90 million "stalking horse" bid by ALLIMAC is the only offer, and the secrecy-shrouded Delaware shell corporation's plans call for the 119 acres in south suburban Stickney to be used for real estate development rather than continuing racing and adding a casino component.

Hawthorne's creditors reportedly are in the neighborhood of 250 and the total amount owed by the Carey family-owned track is estimated at $138 million.

Judge Timothy Barnes' final sales hearing in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for Northern Illinois is scheduled for July 20.

It seems unlikely that the Hawthorne thoroughbred meeting that began April 19 and is scheduled to run through Nov. 1 will be completed and it's almost certain that the track's Suburban Downs harness affiliate won't have any racing this year.

The thoroughbred meeting has shrunk to Sunday only programs. Fields have been small and purses paltry.

All 14 of the harness programs scheduled for January and February were wiped out because of Hawthorne's inability to pay purses and other bills and the Illinois Racing Board suspended Suburban Downs' license on Jan. 26. The now-highly unlikely Suburban Downs fall meeting is scheduled for Nov. 6-Dec. 27.

If, as expected, Hawthorne discontinues racing, the only track remaining in Illinois will be Fairmount Park, which conducts thoroughbred racing and racino gambling in Collinsville, across the Mississippi River from St. Louis.

Hawthorne received permission from the Illinois Racing Board to become a racino in 2020 (a year after casino wagering was permitted at racetracks as part of a big Illinois gambling expansion law). Track president Tim Carey announced plans for a $40 million racino addition and a portion of the grandstand soon was demolished.

But then the project stalled. Despite Carey's repeated assurances before the Racing Board during the next six years that "we're right on the cusp" of finding a partner it never came to fruition.

In 1995, an all-time Illinois high was wagered on a combined total of 516 harness programs at Hawthorne, Sportsman's, Maywood, and Balmoral. In stark contrast, it's almost certain that in Illinois this year that pari-mutuel betting on the standardbreds will be limited to five August programs at the State Fair in Springfield and three at the DuQuoin State Fair at the end of August and the first week in September.

In the early 1970s Hawthorne was one of seven tracks in the Chicago metropolitan area. The others were Maywood Park, which inaugurated pari-mutuel harness racing in Illinois in 1946; the tradition-rich thoroughbred track Arlington Park; Sportsman's Park; Washington Park (Arlington's sister track); Balmoral Park; and Aurora Downs.

Hawthorne is one of North America's oldest tracks, dating back to May 20, 1891. Four years later betting on races was banned in Illinois. Thomas Carey (great grandfather of Tim Carey) bought the track in 1909 and after three unsuccessful attempts to revive racing was in the forefront in getting the ban repealed in the early 1920s.

Harness racing made its debut at Hawthorne in the spring of 1970.

Zarex smashes world record in Eskilstuna Derby prep

by Thomas Hedlund

Zarex stamped himself as one of Sweden's leading Derby contenders Wednesday (July 15) with a sensational, world-record performance in the $60,000 ICA Maxi Eskilstuna Fyraåringstest over 2,640 meters at Eskilstuna.

Driven and trained by Daniel Wäjersten, the son of Ready Express cruised to the front and never faced a serious challenge, stopping the timer in a 1:54.1 mile rate to establish a new world record for 4-year-olds over the distance.

Wäjersten gradually increased the tempo throughout the race, and by the final turn Zarex had disposed of his main rivals. The

"He was outstanding," Wäjersten said. "We kept increasing the pace the entire way. My toughest rivals were right there turning for home, but he simply left them behind. I was a little concerned when the favorite, Perfect Chest, came alongside, but my horse just accelerated again in the stretch. He's really improved after the winter and has taken another step racing barefoot."

The previous world record, 1:55.2, was established by Fame And Glory in the same race two years ago before he went on to capture the Swedish Derby.

ELITLOPP CHAMPION ALLEGIANT TUNES UP FOR HUGO ÅBERGS

The biggest ovation of the evening belonged to Allegiant.

Fans at Eskilstuna greeted the reigning Elitlopp champion with spontaneous applause during the post parade as the daughter of Tactical Landing made her final prep for the $320,000 Hugo Åbergs Memorial later this month. Starting from the rail in a $30,000 Diamantstoet division, Allegiant surrendered the lead early to Nephtys Boko, who was sent to the front by Björn Goop. Driver Örjan Kihlström calmly reclaimed the lead after 600 meters, and once on the front end the outcome was never seriously in doubt.

Maharasha mounted a first-over challenge through the final turn, but Allegiant always had the situation under control before drawing clear to score in a 1:54.3 mile rate for 2,140 meters.

"She left the gate well, but Björn came quickly and I didn't have to use any extra energy getting back to the front," Kihlström said. "Everything felt comfortable. Maharasha raced very well on the outside, but Allegiant only does what she has to do. She felt exactly the way she's supposed to. She has incredible gait and tremendous determination."

The victory sends Allegiant into the July 28 Hugo Åbergs Memorial in peak form.

"This race fit perfectly into her schedule and it's close to home," trainer Daniel Redén said while acknowledging the enthusiastic crowd. "What a night. Horses like these are what make our sport special."

TWO MAJOR STAKES HIGHLIGHT SUNDAY'S ACTION

Sunday's spotlight shifts to both Finland and Sweden, where two of the weekend's biggest events will be contested.

At Mikkeli, a stellar group of older trotters will line up in the $155,000 St. Michel-Ajo over the mile.

Hall of Fame driver Örjan Kihlström will bypass the $360,000 Stochampionatet final at Axevalla to partner Don Fanucci Zet, who is expected to start as the favorite after his recent victory in Norway's Ulf Thoresen Grand International.

Trainer Daniel Redén will also be represented by defending St. Michel champion Double Deceiver, whom he will once again drive himself after drawing an advantageous post 3.

Redén has an opportunity to duplicate last year's feat by winning major stakes in two different countries on the same day. Last year La Yuca captured the trophy in Stochampionatet while Redén himself drove Double Deceiver to victory in Finland.

Back in Sweden, Kihlström qualified Jiovanha Falkone for the Stochampionatet final before choosing Finland over Axevalla. If Jiovanha Falkone were to win the Swedish classic while Don Fanucci Zet captures the St. Michel, it would mark a remarkable day for the stallion, whose daughter Pamela Boko is also among the 12 finalists.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Ashley Lendvoy found harness racing by putting out the right message

by Chris Lomon

Ashley Lendvoy never imagined a single social media post would lead her to a career in harness racing.

When her high school days came to an end, Lendvoy mulled over what the next phase of her life would look like.

After much deliberation, contemplation, and entertaining a few scenarios, she opened her laptop one evening and started typing.

"I was always into horses and I started riding when I was younger," Lendvoy said. "When I finished school, I didn't know what I wanted to do, so I posted that I was looking for a part-time job working with horses."

She didn't have to wait long to receive a response.

"[Trainer] Carmen Auciello's crew reached out to me and asked if I was interested in working there," she said. "I took the offer and I started in a part-time role, which turned into a full-time job. After that, I never got out of the industry."

"It was probably within the first year that I realized I wasn't going to leave. I went on to work for [trainer] Shawn Steacy, where I had the chance to paddock the horses. I wanted to learn more and I had that opportunity. It was with Shawn when I decided I wanted to be a trainer. I loved being a groom, rubbing on horses, and taking care of them in the barn, but I wanted to do more."

In 2021, Lendvoy graduated to the training ranks.

Her first start came in October of that year at Flamboro Downs, and was with a familiar face, namely, Lady Oxford, the bay daughter of Big Jim she had bought in September.

With driver Austin Sorrie in the race bike, Lady Oxford finished second in her first start for Lendvoy.

On Nov. 4, 2021, the brown mare, bred by Craig Turner, delivered the rookie trainer her milestone victory.

“I don’t come from a racing background, so a lot of my friends outside of this [industry] don’t understand the time and effort that you have to put into it. You have to maybe miss certain events or holidays, so there are times when people don’t understand why that happens.”

— Ashley Lendvoy

“She has two babies now and she will stay with me forever,” said Lendvoy of the horse whose final race came in July of 2023. “She wasn’t an easy horse, and she had a lot of issues. She had breathing problems; she would tie up and I had to work with her a lot. But she taught me a lot. I think the ones that are challenging are the ones who teach you the most.”

Now, some nearly five years after that win, Lendvoy is closing in on 1,000 starts.

Her most successful season, numbers-wise, came in 2024 when she won 39 races from 290 starts and recorded $324,141 in purse earnings. She was also named Grand River’s Trainer of the Year and two of her horses, Betthebeach Yankee and Razzin Jazz, set track records — they both still stand — at the Ontario oval.

Valuable lessons learned along the way have been plentiful.

One in particular continues to guide Lendvoy in all she does, even if it can be a challenge on most days.

“Patience,” she said with a laugh. “You have to have a lot of it. I am not great at it, but I have learned over time that is one of the big keys to doing well in this industry. You have to take the time to know each horse because every horse is different.”

It’s why Lendvoy resists a one-size-fits-all approach.

“What you do for one — even if it works well — might not work for another horse,” she said. “You have to work with them, find out what they are like, any issues they may have, and then tailor a program that works for them. That’s why I always like to have a certain number of horses in my barn. It’s very rewarding when you get to know each horse as an individual.”

As for what she deems the ideal number of horses under her care to be, Lendvoy would like to expand her current roster.

"I have four right now, which is low," she said. "I have five, if you include my mare and the little baby by her side and a yearling who will arrive in the fall. Last winter, I had around 15 horses, and I have had that number on two or three occasions. That gets a little bit stressful. I feel like 10 is a good number for me."

Her greatest joy is in working with young horses.

"I get attached and enjoy working with young horses, seeing them grow and succeed," Lendvoy said. "I would love to focus on those types."

Shesundertheradar, a daughter of Tactical Landing, is one example of Lendvoy's affinity for those who slot into that category.

"She was sent to me late in her 2-year-old career and I got to race her in a few stakes," Lendvoy said. "She was second in the Pure Ivory and third in the Peaceful Way. We raced her in the Breeders Crown elims and she came up sick. I raced her in the preferred last winter over London as an aged mare. She got injured and now is a broodmare, so I'm excited for her offspring."

Lendvoy is also bullish on the fortunes of Push To Start, a 3-year-old son of Six Pack.

"I bought him as a yearling with my best friend since childhood," she said. "He just trotted in [1]:53 at Mohawk and he's paid into lots of stakes races this summer all over the U.S., so we are looking forward to that."

Like her contemporaries, the ups and downs of a life in racing can be admittedly difficult to navigate at times.

Watching one of her horses cross the wire first is the ultimate high. Having people outside of racing embrace what it takes to get there is a challenge in itself.

"The best part is when your hard work pays off," she said. "The toughest part is just how hard certain days and times can be. It can be physically demanding and obviously, the hours are long. It’s hard, understandably, for people outside of the industry to understand what horsepeople do on a daily basis.

“I don’t come from a racing background, so a lot of my friends outside of this don’t understand the time and effort that you have to put into it. You have to maybe miss certain events or holidays, so there are times when people don’t understand why that happens.”

The best days are the ones that settle into stride the moment she walks into the barn.

“A good day is when everything went smoothly and the horses are happy and healthy,” she said. “It’s always great when things are going great – that’s the best.”

None better than when she walks one of her horses over to the winner’s circle.

While she might not look outwardly effusive in those moments, inwardly, she is full of emotion.

“I keep it inside, but I am happier than I could even explain,” she said.

A feeling that she never could have experienced if it weren’t for a single social post.

“I’m definitely glad I did that,” she said. “At one point, I didn’t know what life had in store for me. Now I do.”

Donald Lindsey focuses on the present with D A Adele

by Matthew Lomon

The education of D A Adele is still very much in its infancy, making any talk about her future a purely speculative endeavor.

So, rather than looking too far ahead, the 2-year-old trotter and her trainer Donald Lindsey are more than content to focus on the present.

"She seems to do everything right and has a good attitude up to this point," Lindsey said. "But we'll have to gather more information before we start thinking about her future at all."

The returns, at least in the early stages of D A Adele's development, have been encouraging, especially given the tight turnaround between schooling, qualifying, and her professional debut.

"She was really well-mannered during the qualifier," said Lindsey of the July 3 baby race. "She schooled the week before at Grand River, but with Grand River not qualifying last week, we took her to Mohawk to qualify. She was good-gaited and didn't do anything wrong, so we were happy with her."

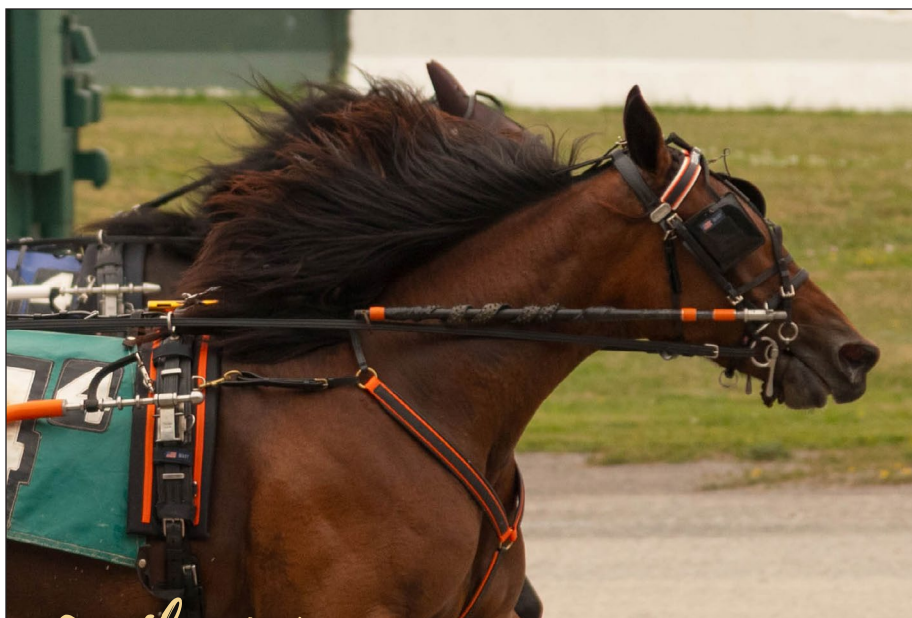

Pleased with the practice mile, Lindsey, along with his father Paul, who owns D A Adele, and driver David Boughton, had a collective decision to make.

"Typically, we would have qualified again, but since we were so close to Grand River and it wasn't a ship at all, we decided to put her in the Prospect and get more education in her," Donald said.

The plan proved prudent for all parties, as the debuting daughter of Muscle Mass—Adina flashed a fiery competitive spirit, holding on by a nose with Boughton in the race bike to secure the top spot in her $10,000 division of the Ontario Sires Stakes Prospect Series at Grand River.

Watching on as D A Adele locked horns with a late-surging Snowdream Hanover, Donald "wasn't 100 per cent sure" she had gotten there in the moment, but his trotter had indeed passed the test.

"I was just glad she got through," he said. "In the end, it worked out with a small field and being close to home that she could have both a valuable learning experience and pick up a check along the way."

“If we go to the Grassroots and [D A Adele] shows limitations, then we go head back to the Prospect. If she goes to the Prospect and keeps developing, then we can go to the Grassroots. It’s a pretty fluid situation and not really a huge decision at this point.”

— Donald Lindsey

The successful outing was as informative for Donald as it was for D A Adele.

“She hasn’t trained and went with a lot of horses so far, so I knew she’d be green,” he said. “When Dave came off, he said she’d likely be better chasing, but also that she was pretty disciplined and trotted well.

“It just happened that she was a little green on the lead, but I’m not really worried about her being short or coming up short. After the race, she pulled up very headstrong and still looked good.”

D A Adele’s final time of 1:59.2 stood as the fastest of the three Prospect Series winners on July 8 at Grand River.

While labeling the feat a confidence-booster may be premature for a 2-year-old with such limited experience, it was, at the very least, another step in the right direction.

“I’ll need to gather more information to see if it would be confidence, but her being on the gate, being able to brush the lead, and cut a mile was encouraging,” Donald said.

“I hope it was just greenness on the end of the mile, and I think it was judging by the way she qualified and passed horses and trotted very strongly to finish her qualifier. It’s yet to be determined if it’s confidence, but she’s done everything we’ve asked so far.”

Getting D A Adele to the races has truly been a team effort. Between Lindsey, his father Paul, and Boughton, each has contributed to their young trotter’s ongoing development.

“[D A Adele] seems to do everything right and has a good attitude up to this point. But we'll have to gather more information before we start thinking about her future at all.”

— Donald Lindsey

“I was laid up most of the winter, so my dad did pretty much all the training and driving,” Donald said. “Then Dave came around and trained her a few times when he got back from Florida. He took her to Grand River, trained her once and put her into school.”

D A Adele has also benefited from the expertise of Josey Shetler. A member of the renowned Shetler racing family, Josey handled D A Adele's early-stage education after Paul privately purchased her as a yearling from trainer Bill McClure.

The sharp-minded brown filly has never been one to turn heads with her physical presence, but as Donald knows firsthand, success isn't determined solely by what's on the outside.

“She seems to get over the ground pretty well, trots well, and she's smart... I'd probably compare her to a horse that I used to have called Keystone Orion – small, not a lot of substance, but once you put them behind the gate, they show that they have a good attitude and good racing instincts,” he said.

Keystone Orion, a recently retired son of Angus Hall—Ozone Hanover, enjoyed a stellar career between the rails, making 317 starts (50-43-44) and earning north of $543,000.

Donald, instead of letting his mind wander to what could be, has more immediate matters to tend to with D A Adele.

“I've not thought of a ceiling for her at all,” he said. “We moved quickly to qualify her last Friday [July 3] and then placed her in the Prospect for education. She's only paid into the Sires Stakes this year, so that will be the focus for the year. Then we'll see how she progresses and decide where to go.”

Whichever direction that is, Donald is prepared to embrace the journey.

“If we go to the Grassroots and she shows limitations, then we go head back to the Prospect,” he said. “If she goes to the Prospect and keeps developing, then we can go to the Grassroots. It's a pretty fluid situation and not really a huge decision at this point.”

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Sea Bistro Hanover matches all-age Oak Grove track record with KYSS win

by Oak Grove Racing publicity

Brett Pelling trainee Sea Bistro Hanover set flight past the quarter and muscled around the track to equal the fastest pacing mile ever at Oak Grove Racing, Gaming & Hotel with a 1:48 victory in the $80,000 Kentucky Sire Stakes (KYSS) final for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings on Wednesday (July 15), capping the closing week of the 2026 season which offered nearly $2 million in purses.

Leaving from post 5, driver Todd McCarthy motored Sea Bistro Hanover away into third as Papi Rick (driven by Andy McCarthy) ripped out of post 7 to a :26 first quarter chased by post-8 starter Captain Apple (Yannick Gingras). Sea Bistro Hanover angled out of third passing the stands the first time and brushed by Papi Rick for the lead while maintaining his speed to a :54.2 half. Captain Apple flushed off the cones to race first up as his stablemate Show Me Your Ace (Dexter Dunn) pushed on the outside from mid-pack, but Sea Bistro Hanover continued at a quick clip to three-quarters in 1:21.1. Papi Rick remained the closest pursuer spinning for home, though Sea Bistro Hanover staved off that late challenge for a half-length win with Benny B Hill (Scott Zeron) saving ground to take third and Funky Buddha (Tim Tetrick) rallying from third over for fourth.

A gelding by Captaintreacherous—Santa Rosa, Sea Bistro Hanover won his third race from eight starts this season and his fourth race from 15 starts in his career, earning $103,850. His 1:48 mile crushes the previous track record for 3-year-old pacing geldings of 1:49.1 set last year by Harrisburg Heist and matches the all-age pacing record established in 2024 by Admiral Hill. Sent off as the third choice in the betting, he paid $10.14 to win.

Hope Hill (Dunn) slashed her track record set a week ago with a 1:48.3 stroll to win the $80,000 KYSS final for 3-year-old pacing fillies, lowering the previous mark by three-fifths-of-a-second.

Sea Bistro Hanover (Todd McCarthy) matching the 1:48 all-age track record with his win in the $80,000 Kentucky Sire Stakes final for 3-year-old pacing colts on Wednesday at Oak Grove.

Dunn looped his charge out of third past a :26 first quarter to take the lead from Gonebutnotforgottn (Tim Tetrick) and sailed through steady middle fractions of :54 and 1:21.4. Interstellar (Marvin Luna) mounted a first-over challenge into the backstretch but plateaued turning for home while Hope Hill coasted to the line a winner by three-quarters-of-a-length. Gonebutnotforgottn shook free from the pocket late but settled for second with Interstellar holding third and Caviart Daisy (Scott Zeron) saving ground for fourth.

Virgil Morgan, Jr. trains Hope Hill, a homebred Papi Rob Hanover – Ruth Hill filly, for owner Tom Hill. She won her fifth race from seven starts this season and her ninth race from 16 starts in her career, earning $230,655. She paid $3.18 to win.

Oak Grove hosted five $50,000 KYSS “B” divisions on the closing day undercard. Caviart Anders (Todd McCarthy, 1:49.4 winning mile; $8.08 to win), Louaville (Scott Zeron, 1:51; $4.20), and Thiago Hanover (Dunn, 1:50; $5.94) won the dashes for sophomore pacing males while Lady Panera (Atlee Bender, 1:52.1; $43.24) and Bettor Be A Star (Dunn, 1:51.2; $3.08) won the splits for sophomore pacing fillies.

Bender secured another driving title at Oak Grove, reclaiming the crown after finishing second in last year’s standings to Luna. Bender led all drivers through the meet with 52 wins while Dunn took second with 44 wins. Todd McCarthy scored a hat trick on closing day to tie for third at 33 wins on the meet alongside Marcus Miller while Joey Putnam’s one win on closing day placed him in a tie for fifth with Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. at 26 wins.

On the training side, North America’s leading trainer Ron Burke secured the leading trainer title with 31 wins on the meet, thwarting defending champ Erv Miller – Oak Grove’s leading trainer the last three years – by two victories. Tony Dinges finished third in the standings with 21 wins followed by Wayne Oke in fourth with 20 wins and Joe Putnam overtaking fifth from Carter Pinsky with 17 wins after scoring a closing day victory.

Live racing at Oak Grove will return in 2027. For more information, visit oakgrovegaming.com.

CARBON FIBER SETS TRACK RECORD WITH OAK GROVE KYSS WIN

Carbon Fiber found a perfect trip from the pocket behind quick fractions and capitalized effortlessly in the stretch for a track-record victory in the $80,000 Kentucky Sire Stakes final for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings on “Tuesday at the Trots” (July 14) at Oak Grove Racing, Gaming & Hotel.

Leaving from post 5, driver Yannick Gingras tucked Carbon Fiber into second as Delivery Boy (driven by Dewayne Minor) rolled out of post 4 for the lead and scorched the track to a :26.3 first quarter and :54.4 half. Delivery Boy continued on the lead to three-quarters in 1:23.3 all while Gingras readied his charge for an attack in the last turn. Carbon Fiber lifted from second spinning for home and easily edged past the tiring leader through the lane to register a 2¾-length win in a 1:53 mile. Special Day (Andy McCarthy) tracked the top two throughout to take second while Delivery Boy tired to third and Oddsologist (Dexter Dunn) gave chase in fourth.

Ron Burke trains Carbon Fiber, a gelding by Gimpanzee – Brunella, for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC, Phil Collura, Knox Services Inc., and Frank Baldachino. The gelding won his second race from three starts and has now earned $67,200. His 1:53 mile, a lifetime best, also lowers the track record at Oak Grove for 2-year-old trotting geldings from 1:55.1 set in 2022 by Yo Lucky Moni. Carbon Fiber’s mile is also the fastest ever trotted at Oak Grove by a 2-year-old, beating Endurance’s and Allegiant’s 1:53.2 mark taken in 2025 and 2023, respectively. Sent off as the 2-1 second choice, Carbon Fiber paid $6.10 to win.

Gingras doubled in KYSS final action on the day with a win in the race prior by Petter Engblom trainee Heart Of Secret in the $80,000 “A” division for 2-year-old trotting fillies. Heart Of Secret sped for the lead to a :26.4 first quarter and cruised through a quaint middle half of :56.4 and 1:25.1 before spurting away for a 4¼-length win chased by Merry Zee (Dunn) in second. Luxe Lindy (Tyler Miller) emerged from off the speed for third while pocket-sitter Green Ballet (Andy McCarthy) tired to fourth.

A filly by Gimpanzee—House Music FR, Heart Of Secret remained unbeaten from two starts and has now banked $60,000 for owners Follow Me Stable LLC and Engblom Farm LLC. She paid $4.32 to win.

Avenzee (Tim Tetrick) landed a 10-1 upset in the $80,000 KYSS final for 3-year-old trotting fillies when capitalizing on a stalking trip and from the early break of 1-9 favorite Crossover (Dunn) for a 1:52.4 lifetime-best effort. Tetrick positioned his charge into third behind Degas (Gingras), who settled for the pocket through a :27.2 first quarter as Country Glide (Andy McCarthy) brushed forward. Country Glide took the field by the half in :55.4 and strode unpressured up the backstretch towards three-quarters in 1:24.1, but Degas began creeping off the pylons around the last turn with Avenzee following suit. Degas laid aim on Country Glide rounding the bottom corner and struck the lead while Tetrick fanned three wide with Avenzee and gathered the strongest momentum late, towering past Degas in the closing strides for a length win. Decreed (Atlee Bender) rallied for third with Country Glide holding fourth.

Tyler Butenschoen trains Avenzee, a filly by Gimpanzee—Avenir, for owners Harmony Oaks Racing Stable Inc., Heritage Standardbreds, and M And L Of Delaware LLC. She won her third race from eight starts this season and from 15 starts in her career, earning $116,205. She paid $22.46 to win.

Zephyr Kemp (Dunn) rallied from a second-over trip to score as the slight even-money favorite in the $80,000 KYSS final for 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings. With the other even-money choice Kaizen (Markus Niklasson) breaking stride rounding the first turn, Zephyr Kemp planted into fourth as Midwind Chip (Scott Zeron) dashed for the lead in a :27.1 first quarter. Dunn stayed put through a :56.3 half and fished cover from Onemorekickmeout (Bender) to the backstretch to perch into a striking position nearing three-quarters in 1:24.3. Zephyr Kemp fanned off Bender's helmet rounding the last turn and strode to the front under confident handling and cruised to the beam a 1¼-length winner. Zidane Kemp (Tetrick) scurried wide through the turn and down the center of the track to grab second with Midwind Chimp third and pocket-sitting King Of The Wind (Gingras) settling for fourth.

Marcus Melander trains Zephyr Kemp, a colt by Calgary Games—Southwind Adele, for owners Kemppi Stables Oy Inc., Suojalampi Stable Inc., PCW Racing LLC, and Sjoebloom Racing Inc. He won his third race from six starts this season and his sixth race from 16 starts in his career, earning $202,150. One of four winners on the day for trainer Melander, Zephyr Kemp paid $4.14 to win.

Melander's grand slam began with a natural hat trick through three $50,000 KYSS "B" divisions, winning in the first 2-year-old trotting filly dash with A Million Reasons (Dunn, 1:57 winning mile; $2.28 to win), the second 2-year-old trotting male split with Kaws (Zeron, 1:56.3; $6.12) and in the first division for 3-year-old trotting fillies with Art Of The State (Zeron, 1:53.3; $9.94).

Oak Grove hosted six other $50,000 KYSS "B" divisions on the 15-race card. Nights In Miami (Marvin Luna, 1:55.1; $4.56) won the other split for freshman trotting males, London Bi (Zeron, 1:57; $6.70) and Twinkle Toes Dolan (Andy McCarthy, 1:55.3; $4.68) won the other dashes for freshman trotting fillies, Confident Volo (Joey Putnam, 1:52.2; $22.50) and Maga Hill (Tetrick, 1:53; $31.52) won the pair of races for 3-year-old trotting males and Vicenza (Todd McCarthy, 1:54.4; $89.98) won the other split for sophomore trotting fillies.

For Dayze, Bluebird Kazoom win big in INSS

by Connor Mahoney / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Taking care of business in the $48,500 fourth leg of Indiana Sires Stakes for 3-year-old trotting fillies, For Dayze and Bluebird Kazoom coasted to the winner's circle as heavy favorites in their respective slits at Hoosier Park on Wednesday (July 15).

Kicking off the INSS, For Dayze driven by John De Long for trainer Roger Welch calmly powered down the stretch to victory.

Away from post 5, the post-time favorite For Dayze eased herself out of the gate looking to find her spot despite the rest of the field gunning for the lead. Honeymoon (Trace Tetrack) cruised away from the gate the quickest moving along the rail, meeting the first turn in :27.2. As the field remained unchanged with Honeymoon hitting the halfway mark in :57.2, Dial Nine One One (Marcus Miller), Homesweethome (Jordan Ross), and For Dayze posed the biggest threat to round off the top four.

Providing action ahead of the turn, Homesweethome bounced to the outside with For Dayze opting to do the same following that cover. Racing side-by-side at three-quarters in 1:26.1, Honeymoon's lead was hanging on by a thread with Homesweethome bearing down. Down the stretch, Homesweethome's rally fell short opening the way for For Dayze to glide along the outside without breaking a sweat to take over the lead from Honeymoon to coast to the wire to win in 1:53.3 by 1½ lengths. Omg Am I Ok charged late for second, while Honeymoon held on for third.

For Dayze is owned by William De Long and Patrick De Long. The daughter of Swan For All—Southwind Storm was bred by Ernie Lambricht. For Dayze increased her lifetime earnings to $339,960 following her third win of the year.

Leading the way, the entire race, Bluebird Kazoom driven by Jordan Ross for trainer Henry Graber, Jr. wired the field in race 11's INSS contest.

The post-time favorite Bluebird Kazoom wasted no time getting off the gate to beat out Help Cum Laude (Marcus Miller) to the first turn in :28.1. Controlling the field from the driver's seat, Bluebird Kazoom led an unchanged field to the half-mile pole in :57.2. Make It Spicy (Trace Tetrack) was the first trotter to move out of line, motoring up the outside challenging the top pair from fifth. Bluebird Kazoom reached three-quarters in 1:26.1 with Make It Spicy now bringing the heat from second. Finding racing room between the trotters, Help Cum Laude reclaimed her spot from Make It Spicy hoping to make a bid at the leader. Bluebird Kazoom would never open that door, soaring to the wire in a new lifetime best in 1:53.2 three lengths clear. Help Cum Laude held onto second, while Make It Spicy settled for third.

The 3-year-old Swan For All filly is owned by Hillside Stables, Indiana Stables LLC, Hickory Hollow Stables, and Michael Rosenthal. Bluebird Kazoom was bred by Delvin Miller, Kenneth Bontrager, and Daryl Miller. Bluebird Kazoom flew her lifetime earnings up to $110,475 for her eighth win of the season.

Seveallisto pulls shocker in NYSS at Buffalo Raceway

by Brian J. Mazurek for Buffalo Raceway

Seveallisto ($49.90) appeared to be battling for minor awards in the stretch drive of the first division ($54,750) of the New York Sire Stakes for the 2-year-old filly trotters at Buffalo Raceway on Wednesday afternoon (July 15). But then a sudden surge by Seveallisto at the wire changed all that as she clipped a stunned French Pastry by a nose in 2:00.1 over the fast track.

French Pastry (Andy Miller) seemed to have matters well under control throughout the race with reasonable fractions of :30, 1:00, and 1:30.2. Rounding the final turn, French Pastry looked to be cruising home for the win with a $3\frac{1}{4}$ length advantage as Seveallisto (Leon Bailey) and T N Tosh (Jeff Gregory) were jockeying for second and third place honors. But midway down the lane, French Pastry was getting a bit leg weary while Seveallisto found another gear and was rapidly chewing up ground.

The big question in the race to the wire was if French Pastry have enough left in the tank or would Seveallisto have enough real estate to close the deal. A photo was needed to separate the two participants and it showed Seveallisto managing to get a nose in front to pull off the big upset. T N Tosh claimed the third-place check.

Owned by the Purple Haze Stables LLC and trained by Jessica Okusko, it was the first win in her first asking for Seveallisto (Chapter Seven—Callisto Dream). The win was worth a nice $28,750.

The second division, worth $55,750, saw Jula Florence ($4.66) take the victory over Wavy Xavie by a half-length in 2:00 with the tempo setting Little By Little (Jason Bartlett) finishing in third.

Little By Little was able to take the battle for early control with splits of :30, 1:00.4, and 1:31. But with a quarter mile to trot, the action picked up as Jula Florence and Wavy Xavie got into contention.

Around the final bend, Jula Florence pulled to the outside while Wavy Xavie made her closing bid in the passing lane, sandwiching Little By Little. In the stretch, Jula Florence got on even terms then was able to slowly pull away to score with Wavy Xavie taking a solid second place and Little By Little finishing in third.

Co-owned by the Andy Miller Stable, Inc., Windsong Stables, and Domain Haven Farms, LLC, Jula Florence (Chapter Seven—Jula Shes Magic) is conditioned by Julie Miller. The victory was worth $28,750 and pushed her career earnings to $31,750.

There were a pair of \$20,000 Excelsior races for the freshman filly trotters on the program. Native Pride (Gregory) came roaring down the passing lane and trimmed Solar Queen (Jordan Stratton) by $1\frac{1}{4}$ lengths in 2:02.1, notching the \$6 triumph.

In the second division, Bleacher Creature (John Stark, Jr.) was able to use a late rush and push past Wicked Wink in 2:04.3 for the $2\frac{1}{2}$ length victory. She returned \$4.62 as the lukewarm favorite.

The final two days of the live racing season at Buffalo Raceway takes place today and Saturday afternoon. Those two final programs in the 2026 year will have 12 races apiece with post time each day at 2:30 p.m.

Minnesota-sired freshmen featured at Running Aces

by Darin Gagne for Running Aces Casino, Hotel and Racetrack

The Tuesday night (July 14) harness racing program at Running Aces featured six divisions of Minnesota-sired trotters and pacers as well as the weekly top open handicap pace.

Big Keliane (by Big Oil) advanced to four-for-four lifetime after a big gate-to-wire effort in a career best 2:03 in the $17,500 freshman filly trot over Spiceitupwithoil and Firebird Photo. Nick Roland was the winning driver for trainer Justin Anfinson. The win mutuel was $2.20.

Turbo Tinker (also Big Oil) posted a career best effort in 2:03.2 to capture the $17,500 freshman male trot division by two lengths over Wishingiwasthinking and Easiersaidwithrum. Casey Leonard drove the $3 winner for trainer Anfinson.

Slipped Onmybeans (Captainryanmichael) added her fourth career win in just five outings with an impressive 1:55.4 career best mile over Hurricane Shores and Lady Gulf in the $16,000 fillies "A" pace. Dean Magee was the winning pilot for owner/trainer Scott Banitt. She returned $2.40.

Bombi (Three Of Clubs) was a very sharp winner in the male "A" pace division in 1:55.2 with Mooney Svendsen in the bike for owner/trainer Mark Anderson. Captain Ricky rallied late for second and Goodly was third best. Bombi returned $9.40 on top.

The other freshman pacing winners included Fancy Cruiser (Fancy Schmancy) with Dean Magee in 1:56 who paid $5.80, and Barry The Hacker (Three Of Clubs) with Casey Leonard in 1:58.2, paying $4 to win.

In the $16,000 open, it was all about Alta Revelry N and driver Luke Plano, as they made it two in a row with a sharp gate-to-wire score by 1¼ lengths in 1:50.2 over Dandy's Freedom with Speaking Volumes rounding out the top three.

Alta Revelry N (Sunshine Beach) was never in doubt en route to his 33rd career win. The talented 6-year-old gelding is owned by J M F Racing and is also trained by Plano. He paid $2.60 as the heavy favorite.

Drivers Magee, Leonard, and Plano all posted doubles, while Anfinson, Banitt, and Plano also posted training doubles.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Sophomore fillies in MD Sire Stakes at Ocean Downs

by Maryland Standardbred Race Fund

The second preliminary leg of the Maryland Sire Stakes for 3-year-old filly pacers and trotters highlighted Wednesday (July 15) night's card at Ocean Downs, with two pacing divisions and one trotting division contested for purses of $10,000.

The evening opened with the first pacing division, where I Say That Too continued her impressive sophomore campaign with another dominant performance. Driven by Corey Braden and trained by Stacey McLenaghan, the daughter of Rusty's For Real controlled the race from gate-to-wire, posting fractions of :28.1, :58.4, and 1:27.1 before drawing away to a comfortable five-length victory in 1:56.3. I'm Feeling Spicy chased gamely to finish second, while Miss Val's Way completed the trifecta.

The lone trotting division produced the night's most dramatic finish as Progressivekathy rallied in deep stretch to collar pacesetter Twisted Janet by a head. Russell Foster guided the Ronald Millman trainee to her second consecutive Maryland Sire Stakes victory, with the daughter of Il Mago stopping the timer in 1:59.2. Twisted Janet turned in a determined effort after setting every fraction before settling for second, while More Than Topsy finished a distant third.

The second pacing division featured another thrilling finish as That'sloveto held off the late bid of More Than Better by a head in 1:57.2. Driver Johnathan Ahle put the Dominik Miga-trained filly on the lead from the outset, and the daughter of Dapper Dude dug in through the lane after carving out fractions of :28.1, :58, and 1:28. More Than Better closed strongly but came up just short, with Areta finishing third.

With two preliminary legs now complete, the sophomore fillies will look ahead to their respected finals on Wednesday (July 29) at Ocean Downs.

Maine SIRE STAKES REPORT

Campbell-Grondin sweep Maine trots at Bangor

by Chris Tully for the Maine Sire Stakes

The husband-and-wife team of driver Heath Campbell and trainer Valerie Grondin enjoyed a sweep of both of the $14,000-plus divisions of the Maine Sire Stakes at Bangor Raceway on Wednesday (July 15) with a pair of sophomore trotters.

In the first $14,408 division for 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings, the current point leader Wilder N Idy (Mark Athearn) made an uncharacteristic miscue in the early going, giving Campbell plenty of racetrack for Gus's Workout to blast out to a 10-length advantage.

Hitting early fractions of :28.4 and :59.1 the son of Whataworkout never had an anxious moment as the duo continued to lead the field by open lengths. Following a 1:29 third panel Campbell eased the trotter home in 2:00.3, shaving nearly five seconds off of the gelding's previous time badge.

Owned and bred by Lynn-Marie Plouffe it was the trotter's first stakes win, and boosted his lifetime earnings to $69,512 in the 15-length romp for trainer Grondin.

Trottingfortreasure (Kevin Switzer, Jr.) finished second; Wilder N Idy was third in the early, non-wagering event.

In the second $15,261 Pine Tree State-bred event for 3-year-old trotting fillies it was the freshmen filly champ, Pembroke Lady, who found her previous form and made it to the winner's circle for the first time this season.

Campbell wasted little time putting the daughter of Pembroke Slugger out on the point and led the field into a soft :31.2 opening panel. On top by three lengths, with the rest of the trotting distaffs tracking along single file, Pembroke Lady took her followers through a 1:03.4 midway marker and likewise into the 1:34.1 third station.

With no pressure in sight Campbell strode home in 2:04.2 by 4¼ lengths giving Pembroke Lady a new lifetime mark. Trained by Grondin, owned by Brenda Varney, and bred by the late William Varney, it was the filly's ninth lifetime victory and increased her bankroll to $111,761.

Out Last Quote (Mike Cushing) finished second; I Think I Can (John Nason) was third in the second non-wagering race. Leading divisional point earner, Hayden, also made an early break and was not a factor.

Looking ahead, First Tracks Cumberland hosts all the 2-year-old trotters who are making their pari-mutuel debut today (July 17). Over the weekend Cumberland also presents the 2-year-old pacing fillies on Saturday (July 18) with Bangor featuring the 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings on Sunday (July 19).

HARNESS RACING PRESS RELEASES, NOTES & ANNOUNCEMENTS

Grade 1 Delvin Miller Adios to be featured on CBS Sports Network

Hollywood Casino at The Meadows in conjunction with the Meadows Standardbred Owners Association is proud to announce that CBS Sports Network will nationally televise the 60th edition of the Grade 1 Delvin Miller Adios Pace for the Orchids on Saturday (July 25, 2026).

Presented by 1/ST BET, the Adios will serve as the centerpiece of three hours of live race-day coverage. The day will begin with two hours of content across Primetime Racing's (www.primetimeharnessracing.com) social media platforms (2 p.m. to 4 p.m. ET) before transitioning to a live national, one-hour cable telecast on CBS Sports Network at 5 p.m. ET.

"We are very grateful to everyone who has come together to make this broadcast possible," said Michael Carter, director of racing at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows. "From the team at CBS Sports, to the Primetime Racing Broadcast Team, to the Meadows Standardbred Owners Association, and everyone here at The Meadows, this has truly been a collaborative effort. We are excited for the opportunity to showcase our signature event to a national audience."

The CBS Sports Network has a reach of nearly 60 million households across the United States.

The Delvin Miller Adios is one of only five Grade 1 stakes races for sophomore colt pacers in North America. Elimination races will be contested on Saturday (July 18), with the top finishers advancing to the July 25 final.

The Adios Day program will also feature a stakes-filled undercard, highlighted by the Mickey Burke Sr. Adioo Volo, the companion event to the Adios, which attracts many of the nation's top 3-year-old pacing fillies.

"This is the biggest day of our racing season," Carter said. "The Adios consistently draws our largest on-track crowd and generates our highest wagering handle of the year. The race itself never disappoints, bringing together the sport's premier horses, trainers, and drivers. Having the opportunity to present this event to a national television audience is something we are incredibly proud of, and an opportunity we simply could not pass up."

Media and on-site sponsorship opportunities remain available for Adios Day. Interested parties may contact Meadow Twaddle of the Meadows Standardbred Owners Association at marketing@themsoa.com for additional information.

Post time for the July 25 race card is scheduled for 11:30 a.m. ET at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows.

#SendItIn Night at Scioto Downs

Grand Circuit and Graded stakes action come to Eldorado Scioto Downs on Saturday (July 18) with four $100,000 Grade 3 events – the Nadia Lobell and Moni Maker for 3-year-old fillies and the #SendItIn and Cleopatra invitational paces for older horses.

The events are part of an action-packed 17-race card, with Buckeye Stallion Series events for 3-year-old trotters. Before the races there will be a drivers' autograph session, near the winner's circle, from 4:40-5:15 p.m. A bounce house will also be available starting at 5 p.m. First post for the night will be 5:25 p.m.

The first of the Grade 3 events, the Nadia Lobell for 3-year-old pacing fillies, will go off as race 11. Ohio-sired Seaside Shuffle (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) and Laude Da (Yannick Gingras) bookend the field of seven for the Ron Burke barn and are 5-1 and 4-1, respectively on the morning line. Topville Lucky (Dexter Dunn), coming in from the red-hot Andrew Harris barn, is also 4-1, with I'm A Lou Lou (Tim Tetrick), also from the Burke barn, installed as the 3-1 morning-line favorite.

Going off as race 12 is the Moni Maker for 3-year-old trotting fillies. The 8-5 morning-line favorite is Victorianas Secret (Wrenn, Jr.) from the Vernon Beachy barn. Beachy won the first Moni Maker event held at Scioto Downs in 2024 with Allegiant. Beachy's 2026 entrant, another Tactical Landing daughter, is four-for-five so far this season with $114,931 in earnings. Sam Beegle brings over Ginger Tree Lex (Andrew McCarthy) who is the 5-2 second choice.

The nine-horse Cleopatra field will be race 13 on the card with Miki And Minnie (Dunn) leaving from post 3 as the short 5-2 morning-line favorite for trainer Chris Ryder. Stalking her will be Three Times Bettor (Todd McCarthy) from the Brett Pelling barn, installed as the 3-1 second choice. Both Pelling and Ryder have won previous editions of the Cleopatra – Pelling with Test Of Faith in 2022, the inaugural year and Ryder with Twin B Joe Fresh in 2024. This year's field of mares already has over $1.3-million earned in 2026 with 39 wins in 92 starts.

Race 14 will be the highly anticipated #SendItIn invitational, also with nine horses going to post. Prince Hal Hanover (T. McCarthy) comes in for Dr. Ian Moore and is the 7-2 morning-line favorite. The #SendItIn was started back in 2020 and has seen the likes of Brassy Hanover, Workin Ona Mystery, Tattoo Artist, Charlie May, Seafire, and Racing Rebel all making the trip to the winner's circle. Trainer Brian Brown is a three-time winner and, while he does not have an entrant in this year's race, his daughter Jessica McCown does with Win Lous Or Draw, who will start from post 8 with her husband Cameron McCown doing the driving.

Along with the pre-card drivers' autograph session, another promotion will be for the bettors, a second chance drawing. Losing Saturday tickets can be dropped into the drum at the mutuel line in the grandstand for a chance to win a free bet for later that evening. Four winners will be selected after the 8th, 9th, 10th, and 11th races to place a $250 win wager on the Nadia Lobell, Moni Maker, Cleopatra, and #SendItIn races, respectively.

The 91-day 2026 Eldorado Scioto Downs regular season runs through Sept. 19. Races are held Tuesday-Saturday, with a special holiday card on Labor Day instead of the Tuesday card that week. The track will then re-open for the Breeders Crown, with eliminations held Oct. 16-17 and the finals Oct. 23-24. More information about all the racing action at Scioto can be found on the Eldorado Scioto Downs website.

Monte Be Good fastest in first leg of BSS for freshman colt pacers

Monte Be Good recorded the fastest mile of the four $20,000 divisions of the first leg of the Buckeye Stallion Series for freshman colt pacers on Wednesday (July 15) at Northfield Park Racino.

Driven by Dan Noble, Monte Be Good led gate-to-wire and won the fourth division by 2¼ lengths in 1:56. The Monte Miki gelding is trained by Cory Deyermund for owner Kapp Equine Estates. He is now two-for-two this season with $14,500 in earnings. Monte Be Good recorded fractions of :28.4, :58.4, and 1:27.4 en route to the victory. Crownasaurus (Kurt Sugg) and Eagle Spirit (Ronnie Gilliespie) rounded out the top three in the race.

Hear The Thunder (Chris Lems) won the second division by 1½ lengths in 1:56.2. The Robert Brooks trainee led gate-to-wire with fractions of :28.1, :58.1, and 1:27.2 and has now hit the board in all five seasonal starts with three wins and two thirds to go with $15,030 in earnings. Nonstopseaside (Justin Irvine) was second followed by Kb Moneyball (Gillespie) in third. Hear The Thunder is a Catch The Fire gelding owned by Ivy Holdings.

Another Catch The Fire gelding, Into The Blaze, won the third division in 1:56.4. He was driven by his trainer, Gillespie, who owns the horse with Adam Friedland and Jacob Beard. Pre Fire (John Ciocca, Jr.) led the field past the first three calls in :28.1, :59.1, and 1:28.2. Into The Blaze was in second place trailing the leader by 1¼ lengths entering the final stretch before winning by three-quarters-of-a-length with Pre Fire in second and Total Sum (Darren Dowler) in third. He is two-for-two on the season with $11,607 in earnings.

Making his debut purse start, Mental Up (Sugg) took the first division by two lengths in 1:57. The Lather Up gelding is trained by Mike Polhamus for owners Trojan Standard Bred and Newberry Stable. Rose Run Champ (Lems) led the way past the first three calls in :29, :59.3, and 1:28.1 and finished second but was placed third behind Seaside Saint (Noble) due to a break. Mental Up trailed the leader by two lengths at the three-quarter pole before taking the win.

The Buckeye Stallion Series continues today (July 17) with six $20,000 divisions of the first leg for freshman filly pacers as part of a 16-race card at Eldorado Scioto Downs starting at 5:25 p.m.

Freshman trotters in Buckeye Stallion Series at Scioto Downs

Buckeye Stallion series action for freshmen dominated the Tuesday (July 14) card at Eldorado Scioto Downs. Driver Anthony MacDonald and trainer Jason McGinnis teamed up to win three of the 12 divisions (seven for fillies and five divisions for colts), each going for $20,000.

Dublins Ferani was the pair's first winner of the night when the filly won by a length-and-a-half over Rangel (Austin Hanners) in 1:58.1 for owner Thestable Dublins Ferani. By Uncle Peter out of the Donato Hanover mare Pat On The Back, Dublins Ferani was a $12,000 August Blooded Horse Sale purchase from breeder Dublin Valley Farm. It was the first lifetime win in three attempts for Dublins Ferani, who most recently finished third in The Next Generation on July 4th, who now has $30,500 in earnings.

Next up was Popular Expert who won by a half-length over Inrange Anytime (Kevin Detweiler) in 1:58.1 for owner Thestable Popular Expert. By What The Hill out of the Pegasus Spur mare Mona Lisa Spur, Popular Expert was an $8,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from breeder Marvin Raber. It was the first win in two starts for the gelding who now has $11,080 in earnings. Popular Expert went off at 8-1 and paid $18.20 to win.

Their final winner was a homebred for TheStable.ca's fractional ownership group – Lou Armstrong won by $8\frac{3}{4}$ lengths over Serg Garcia (Chris Lems) in 1:58.4. By Cuatro De Julio out of the My MVP mare My Jazz, Lou Armstrong is owned by Thestable Lou Armstrong and the victory now has him with \$15,000 in earnings in his three lifetime starts with two trips to the winner's circle.

Other filly winners for the evening included Moni Tree (Trevor Smith/Danny Collins) won by three lengths over Judeah (Lems) in 1:57.4 for owners Collins, Alan Swayne, Jr., Charles Mclain, and Phillips Stables. By Ready For Moni out of the Muscles Yankee mare New Leaf, Moni Tree was a $28,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from breeder Winbak Farm. Moni Tree went off at 12-1 and paid $26.40 to win.

Another Ready For Moni filly, Moni Line (Kurt Sugg/Michael Lee), won by a neck over DS Alisson (Lems) in 1:57.3 for owners Lee, Steven Maas, and Jesse Wittmer. Out of the Muscle Hill mare South Win Bax, Moni Line was a $20,000 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale purchase from breeder Glengate Farm. Moni Line went off at 6-1 and paid $15.20 to win.

Coach Me To Win (Chris Page/Steve Carter) won by a length-and-a-half over Seven Lick Holiday (Tyler Smith) in 1:58.4 for owners Hatfield Stables, Brent Davis, and Carter. By Coach K Hanover out of the Muscle Massive mare Flirtin Flare, Coach Me To Win was a $17,500 Buckeye Classic Yearling Sale purchase from breeder Perry Coblentz.

Mitey Lil (Lems/Daren Harvey) won by a length-and-a-quarter over Soaring Sophia (Ronnie Gillespie) in 1:57.4 for owners Wayne Mast, Jr., Johns Racing Stable, and Callam Racing. By Volstead out of the Neely Dunn mare Super Lily, Mitey Lil was bred by Johns Racing Stable and Wes Hershberger. Mitey Lil went off at 5-1 and paid $13 to win.

Been Thru Hill (Carson Conrad/Dalton Walls) won by $2\frac{1}{2}$ lengths over Betterbehoppin (Luke Hanners) in 1:59.2 for owner/breeder Charles Hartzell. It was the second win of the year for the filly by What The Hill out of the Uncle Peter mare Trumpeter Swan who now has \$16,000 in earnings.

The last filly division was won by Sweet Valorie (Luke Hanners/Karen Fread) in 1:58.1. Winning by $3\frac{1}{4}$ lengths over Volnilla Cupcake (Chris Page), Sweet Valorie now has \$13,000 in earnings for owners Fread and Jan Fread. By Volstead out of the What The Hill mare Sweet Magnolia, Sweet Valorie was a \$7,000 Buckeye Classic Yearling Sale purchase from breeder Andy Miller.

Colt winners included Mind On My Moni (Lems/Vernon Beachy), who won by $3\frac{1}{4}$ lengths over Dollar Guard (Tony Hall) in 1:56.4 for owners 518 Group, Gitup Racing, Ryan Smith, and Todd's Auto. By Ready For Moni out of the Angus Hall mare JJ's Jordyn, Mind On My Moni was a \$21,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from Winbak Farm. It was the second win for the colt who now has \$14,500 in earnings.

Easter BB (David Miller/Phillip Knox) won by $6\frac{1}{4}$ lengths over ME Ready (Sandy Beatty) in 1:57 for Brant Brower. By Creatine out of the Whom Shall I Fear mare Fear Her Makeup, Easter BB is a homebred for Brower and Burlin Brower. Easter BB came out of the Kentucky fair circuit and now has four wins in five lifetime starts and \$25,330 in earnings.

Little Dirt Cowboy (Sugg/Kara Miller) won by two lengths over I'm Fromthecountry (Justin Irvine) in 1:59.2 for owner/breeder Callam Racing. By In Range out of the Full Count mare Anniesbluejeanbaby, Little Dirt Cowboy went off at 16-1 and paid $34.20 to win.

The 91-day 2026 Eldorado Scioto Downs regular season runs through Sept. 19. Races are held Tuesday-Saturday, with a special holiday card on Labor Day instead of the Tuesday card that week. The track will then re-open for the Breeders Crown, with eliminations held Oct. 16-17 and the finals Oct. 23-24. More information about all the racing action at Scioto can be found on the Eldorado Scioto Downs website.

Teams Melander, 'Buterschoen' win two PCD stakes; Captain Corey wins three Team Melander, driver Mattias and trainer/brother Marcus, won two of the four $30,000 divisions of a Pennsylvania All-Stars event for 2-year-old trotting fillies. Team "Buterschoen," driver Tyler Buter and trainer John Butenschoen, won the other two.

But neither team did as well as red-hot sire Captain Corey, whose offspring won three of the four sections.

Both of the Melander horses were by Captain Corey; both were six-figure yearlings; both were betting favorites; and both set the pace through most of their miles. The fastest of the four winners, Two Day Hangover (dam Sherry Lyns Lady), was making her career debut, but she was ready for a 1:55.1 victory, $1\frac{1}{4}$ lengths ahead of Slave To Fashion, for Brittany Farms LLC and Marvin Katz LLC.

The other of the brothers' winners, Birr Castle (dam Melania), followed up on a victory in a PA Sire Stakes in her career bow with a 1:56 mile Tuesday (July 14), withstanding potential pocket rocket Orinoco by a half-length for Pheasant Hill Farm.

The third Captain Corey stakes success was the Buter / Butenschoen horse Winner Hanover (dam Won An Done), and she enjoyed the biggest victory margin, $4\frac{3}{4}$ lengths over One Tequila after setting the pace. Winner Hanover suffered interference in her first outing, but she bounced back nicely for a maiden mark of 1:57.3 for owners James Crawford IV and Rich Preziotti.

The second of the Buter / Butenschoen winners was Patty's Girl, a Father Patrick—Day At The Spa miss owned by Bay Pond Racing Stable. Patty's Girl made an auspicious first start with a victory in 1:55.2, getting passed down the back by favored Cabaletta

Hanover yet able to rally to defeat that foe by a half-length.

Buter, Pocono's leading driver, had his two stakes successes as part of a natural five-bagger, his total wins on the day. The victories came in races 5 through 9 – which happen to be the races of the Pick-5 wager at Pocono, which, ironically, went unsolved, necessitating a carryover to Saturday's card.

In addition to Buter's five-timing exploits, George Napolitano, Jr. drove three winners. And as mentioned, driver Mattias Melander had two victories, as did trainers Butenschoen and Marcus Melander, the only conditioners with multiple winners.

Saturday's 1 p.m. Pocono card will feature carryovers in the two "Five" wagers – the Pick-5, as mentioned, and the High-5 in the last race. A crack field of fast-class pacers will highlight the racing, competing for a $29,000 purse. Free Pocono program pages are or will be available at www.phha.org.

The Red Mile announces 2026 Grand Circuit schedule featuring the 134th Kentucky Futurity

The Red Mile has announced its 2026 Grand Circuit racing schedule, featuring six premier afternoons of championship harness racing on Oct. 1 through Oct. 3, and Oct. 8 through Oct. 10. First post for all six Grand Circuit programs is 1 p.m. EDT. The schedule is highlighted by the 134th Kentucky Futurity, which will be contested on Oct. 3.

The updated schedule places the Kentucky Futurity one week earlier than in previous years, creating an exciting opening weekend of Grand Circuit racing while positioning Lexington as the center of the standardbred industry during one of its busiest times of the year.

"We're excited about this year's Grand Circuit schedule," said Joe Costa, president/CEO of The Red Mile. "A tremendous amount of thought went into building this schedule. When you're coordinating races of this caliber, there are a lot of moving parts, and we worked closely with our horsemen and industry partners to create a schedule that serves the best interests of the horses, the participants, and our fans. We believe moving the Kentucky Futurity to the opening weekend creates an outstanding showcase for one of our sport's most historic races while making Lexington an even more exciting destination during Grand Circuit season. We look forward to welcoming the industry and racing fans from across North America to The Red Mile this October."

The Grand Circuit meet once again coincides with the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale, bringing together the sport's leading owners, breeders, trainers, drivers, and racing fans from across North America for more than a week of world-class racing and horse sales.

2026 Grand Circuit Schedule

- Allerage Open Pace
- Bluegrass Stakes – 3-year-old colt trot
- Bluegrass Stakes – 3-year-old filly trot

Beyond the championship racing, fans can expect enhanced entertainment, hospitality, and special events throughout both Grand Circuit weekends as The Red Mile continues to build on the momentum surrounding one of harness racing's most prestigious meets. Additional details regarding hospitality, promotions, and special programming will be announced in the coming weeks.

The 2026 live racing season at The Red Mile is set to kick-off on Sunday (July 26) with a 5:05 p.m. post time. Racing will continue through Oct. 10 and will follow a Sunday through Wednesday schedule with a post time of 5:05 p.m. on Sundays and a 1 p.m. post on Mondays, Tuesdays, and Wednesdays.

Pace Night stars shined bright at Big M

Meadowlands Pace Night delivered all of the drama and thrills that the sport's biggest evening of racing promised it would on Saturday (July 11) at The Meadowlands, as not only did some star performers walk away with big stakes events scores, but in the process, prepared for races that are even more harness-calendar impactful.

The results:

- Del Miller Memorial (3-year-old filly trot) – Nezuko Kamado S won her division in 1:50.1 on the front end, while Jailbird Jog circled up from seventh and last after getting into a fourth-over flow to set up what figures to be a fabulous Hambletonian Oaks, which has eliminations at The Big M on July 31.
- Stanley Dancer Memorial (3-year-old colt and gelding trot) – In the last major prep before the Aug. 8 Hambletonian, Endurance made it four wins in five 2026 tries in division one, and if he is to win the Hambletonian, he'll have to bring his best. Apex, the winter-book favorite to win America's Trotting Classic, scored in the other division with ease as the 1-9 favorite.
- Jerry Silverman Memorial (3-year-old filly pace) – Loua Dipa outlasted arch-rival Be Perfect BG for a second consecutive stakes event (the Fan Hanover was the first), and in doing so, so inspired her connections that she will now take on the boys in the Adios, which has eliminations this Saturday (July 18) at The Meadows. On Wednesday afternoon, the release of the Hambletonian Society/Breeders Crown Standardbred Poll revealed that Loua Dipa was No. 1 in the rankings.
- Dorothy Haughton Memorial (open mare pace) – After Miki And Minnie got the better of Chris Ryder stablemate Twin B Joe Fresh in the July 4th Perfect Sting, "Joe" scored a measure of revenge in the Dorothy Haughton, as "Miki" couldn't stay with the 2024 Horse of the Year and ended up third.
- William Haughton Memorial (open pace) – A wild result in division one as a parked-out trip did 1-5 favorite Ervin Hanover in and fast fractions on the front end were more than Captain Optimistic could handle. Bythemissal, eighth and last while four-wide at three-quarters, charged home to grab the victory at odds of 57-1.

Lou Hill worked out a live cover trip to win the second division in a lifetime-best 1:47.2.

- E.T. Gerry, Jr. Hambletonian Maturity (4-year-old open trot at 1 1/8 miles) – The remarkable On To Norway held off Super Chapter in a scintillating matchup of the best two 4-year-old trotters in North America. On To Norway also defeated Super Chapter in the Graduate on July 4th, when he became the fastest trotter in history by virtue of a 1:48.3 clocking. He now is the clear 4-year-old division leader. Will the duo continue to be successful once they move up in class to face the older "killers" in the trotting division who are 5-years-old and older is the question.

- Meadowlands Pace (3-year-old open pace) – Brandon Blvd might have been 1-5, but his win did not come easily. Al Papi (who finished second), Gentleman's Club (third), and Melillo (fourth) were all in the photo finish at the conclusion of a 1:48.1 mile. "Brandon" pushed his lifetime bankroll past the $1-million mark after winning for the 11th time from just 16 lifetime starts.

THE SCHEDULE: Live harness racing at The Meadowlands will be conducted on a Friday-Saturday basis through Sept. 12 with a first-race post time of 6:35 p.m.

There are some exceptions to those rules.

The 101st edition of the $1-million Hambletonian is on Saturday (Aug. 8), and that card begins at noon.

On Saturday (Aug. 15), racing will begin at 7 p.m.

In addition, there is a Thursday program scheduled. It will take place on Aug. 6.

There is another day that simulcast racing fans need to be aware of.

The Big M will be closed for simulcasting on Sunday (July 19), when the World Cup championship match will be played at MetLife Stadium.

Finally, there will be no live racing at The Meadowlands on Friday (Aug. 14), and Friday (Aug. 28), due to preseason football at MetLife Stadium.

A CLOSE RACE: With just nine race cards remaining in the Winter-Spring-Championship Meet, the battle for top driver is still very much up for grabs.

It's a two-way fight, as Brett Beckwith, whose 146 wins led The Big M in 2025, currently has 88 victories. Joe Bongiorno is in hot pursuit with 83.

The duo is incredibly close when it comes to how effective they have been for their backers. Beckwith wins at a rate of 22.1 per cent, while Bongiorno scores at a 21.3 per cent clip.

For some perspective, there are 22 drivers who have at least 100 starts at The Big M this year, and the only two with win percentages 20 per cent or higher other than Beckwith and Bongiorno are Yannick Gingras (22 per cent) and Dexter Dunn (23.6 per cent).

WHO'S ON THE SHOW? This weekend, a married Hall of Fame couple will return to the Sam McKee Memorial Broadcast Set.

Harness Racing Update columnist and associate editor Debbie Little will serve as host of the live simulcast presentation tonight, with her husband, Dave, sitting alongside in the co-host chair.

The duo, both members of the Communicators Hall of Fame, were longtime New York tabloid handicappers and writers, with Debbie having worked at The New York Post from 1993-2020 and Dave at The New York Daily News from 1991-2015.

Saturday night will find owner and occasional Big M track announcer and simulcast show contributor Larry Fox on set in the co-host seat with Dave Little in his usual spot hosting the show.

Ken Warkentin will be in his place at the top of the grandstand calling the action for both programs, while Gary DiLeo will handle interviews from the paddock with winning connections.

TAKEOUT SMALL, WIN BIG: Here is the lineup of wagers that will be offered on tonight's and Saturday night's 15-race programs. They all offer a low 15 per cent takeout.

- Races 1-5: 20-cent Early Pick-5
- Races 3-8: 20-cent Pick-6
- Races 6-9: 50-cent Early Pick-4 ($50,000 guaranteed pool)
- Race 7: 10-cent Early Pentafecta (Hi-5)
- Races 8-12: 20-cent Late Pick-5
- Races 10-13: 50-cent Late Pick-4 ($50,000 guaranteed pool)
- Race 15: 10-cent Late Pentafecta (Hi-5)

SHINY NEW WAGERS: Here are the new wagers that made their debuts on Meadowlands Pace Night that will continue to be part of the wagering menu.

- Races 8-9: $2 Mid-Card Double
- Races 13-15: $3 Late Pick-3
- Races 14-15: $5 Late Double

On Pace Night, the Mid-Card Double paid $605.60 thanks to Bythemissal's upset in the eighth race at 57-1. The Late Pick-3 returned $982.20, while the Late Double, despite a 1-5 favorite winning the 14th race, paid $84 at the conclusion of the 15th.

Zweig Memorial set for Sunday evening at Vernon

The Dr. Harry M. Zweig Memorial trot will be raced at Vernon Downs on the evening of Sunday (July 19) with a first post of 6:05 p.m. (pending regulatory approval).

The Zweig main event for both the open and filly divisions will be comprised of the top nine lifetime money winners that declare. Consolation races are offered, contingent upon a sufficient number of entries.

The Zweig main event open and filly divisions will require horses to report for detention by 8 p.m. on Saturday (July 18). Contact number for detention is 315-717-2617.

Those in need of a room at the Vernon Downs hotel should make that request at vernonracing@vernondowns.com in advance.

Yonkers Raceway to correct June 26 Pick-5 payout

Due to an unspecified glitch in the system, on Friday (June 26), MGM Yonkers Raceway paid out the Pick-5 based on the actual money bet into the pool rather than the listed $15,000 guarantee.

Track management immediately began to investigate the situation and is currently in the process of properly paying out the correct amount to the two winning tickets.

Homicide Hunter will lead post parade for the Spirit of Massachusetts Trot

On Sunday (July 19), Plainridge Park will once again host their signature stakes, the $300,000 Grade 2 Spirit of Massachusetts Trot and $150,000 Grade 3 Clara Barton Distaff Pace, when the Grand Circuit rolls into town. But along with all of today's trotting stars that will be on hand to compete in the Spirit, thanks to a sponsorship by Plainridge Park, the Standardbred Owners of Massachusetts, and the Harness Horseman's Association of New England, another world champion trotting star from almost a decade ago, who is now a champion in another lane, will also make an appearance.

Homicide Hunter, who became the fastest trotter in harness racing history after posting his 1:48.4 mile in a Grand Circuit event at The Red Mile in 2018, will be at Plainridge Park for a meet and greet with the fans, and to lead the post parade for the ninth edition of the Spirit of Massachusetts Trot.

That 1:48.4-mile time helped Homicide Hunter to be named Older Male Trotter of the Year in 2018 by the U.S. Harness Writers Association. He retired from racing two years later with over $1.7 million in earnings, but almost immediately started a new career that has seen him rise back to the top.

Nancy Longobardi is a director of the Standardbred Owners of Massachusetts and she is extremely excited for Homicide Hunter's visit.

"Jolene Andrews is one of our trainers at Plainridge and she told us about the success Homicide Hunter has had in his new career after racing, and suggested he would be a perfect fit for our Spirit Day activities," Longobardi said. "So, we contacted Molly D'Agostino and the whole thing came together rather quickly.

"We look forward to having the whole MMXX Team here along with 'Homi,' as we continue to champion for and support a second career for all our race horses."

Under the ownership of Crawford Farms Racing of Syracuse, NY, Homicide Hunter is the star of MMXX Standardbreds, a non-profit standardbred show team and aftercare initiative that is helping to reshape what life after racing looks like for standardbreds. His new career as a showhorse has been nothing less than spectacular as he has seemingly mastered all the disciplines he competes in.

Molly D'Agostino founded MMXX Standardbreds in 2020 and they have since excelled in the transition of vetted adoptions from racing owners and trainers to riding homes. Since 2023, the program has completed 400 adoptions at no cost to the connections of the horses.

Once the standardbreds arrive from racing, they receive training for the change to riding, and are conditioned to get accustomed to structured training environments. The MMXX program has made horses who have gone through it, some of the most accessible and beginner-friendly riding horses in the industry and suitable for immediate transition into riding homes.

Although many other retired standardbreds have excelled as show horses through MMXX, none have had the notoriety of Homicide Hunter coming from the track.

Michelle Panebianco is the owner/CEO of Crawford Farms Racing and Homicide Hunter, and is a major supporter of MMXX Standardbreds. She has placed other horses from her racing operation with MMXX and has watched them succeed. But in an interview that she did earlier this year, Crawford clearly puts Homicide Hunter at the top of her list.

"He's just so special," Crawford said. "On the racetrack, he was defined by speed and straight lines. In the show ring, success demands something entirely different: rhythm, softness, adjustability, and expression. His transition highlights a truth that MMXX Standardbreds is working to bring into the mainstream."

Here is a list of awards Homicide Hunter won in just his first year of competition in 2025:

- Standardbred Pleasure Horse Organization (SPHO) United States Horse of the Year
- SPHO National Year-end Rookie of the Year

- SPHO National War Horse of the Year
- SPHO National In-Hand Champion
- SPHO National Two-Gait Champion
- Tri-State Horseman's Association Gaited Reserve
- Downeast Performance Series Green Res Champion
- Pinto Horse Association World Champion

Riders Sydney Espinoza and Emily Furno both guided Homicide Hunter in his award-winning competitions last year.

This will be the only live meet and greet this year with Homicide Hunter, who remains one of the fastest trotters of all time.

You will also have the opportunity to meet some of the riders from Team MMXX including world champion rider, Grace Glasko of Chepachet, RI.

Homicide Hunter will have his own paddock adjacent to the grandstand where he will meet his fans and you will be able to take photos with him, the MMXX team and the famous PtHA World Championship Buckle.

Post time for the first race on Spirit Sunday is 2 p.m.

Miki Shan N draws post 2 for Governor's Plate defense

The stage is officially set for the 58th Governor's Plate after Tuesday's draw determined the eight-horse field that will battle for Prince County's richest pacing prize at Red Shores at the Summerside Raceway Saturday (July 18). Post time for the opening race is 5 p.m.

With Atlantic Canada's biggest stars assembled, the 58th Governor's Plate has all the ingredients for another memorable edition of one of the region's premier harness racing events.

Defending champion Miki Shan N landed post 2 in the $50,000 Governor's Plate final, presented by Summerside Chrysler Dodge, as he looks to add another chapter to an already remarkable Atlantic Canadian resume for trainer Chris MacKay. The reigning Governor's Plate and Gold Cup & Saucer champion has finally tasted East Coast defeat in recent weeks after a previously unblemished record.

Get Wings drew the coveted rail after his impressive 1:52.4 Plate elimination victory and will look to capitalize on the inside advantage in the final for trainer Vaughan Doyle.

Maritime pacing star Bee Two Bee starts from post 3 from the Ashley Gamester barn after a strong showing in his elimination, while the red-hot Ammo drew post 4 after a third in his elimination for trainer Ron Matheson.

JMR Speak Away leaves from post 5 after a gritty fourth-place finish grinding away on the outside in his Plate elimination from the Darren Crowe barn while hometown favorite Doc Awesome has post 6 for trainer Darla MacEachern.

The Tulsa King has post 7 after a fourth in his elimination from the Mike McGuigan barn, while Arbitrage Hanover rounds out the field from post 8 after his 1:50.3 all-age track record in his Plate elimination for trainer Clifford Murphy.

Hayter family continues to honor Vic's legacy at Clinton Raceway this Sunday

Some traditions are built around competition. Others are built around love, remembrance, and giving back.

This Sunday (July 19), the Hayter family will once again celebrate the life of Vic Hayter with the 11th running of the $18,000 Vic Hayter Memorial Invitational Trot at Clinton Raceway – a day that has become one of the most meaningful events on the annual racing calendar.

For Greg Hayter, the event is about much more than a horse race. It is a way to honor his father's memory in a place that brought him genuine happiness.

"Dad loved Clinton Raceway because of the people as much as the horses," said Greg Hayter. "It was somewhere he always looked forward to going, and this race allows us to keep that connection alive. Every year is an opportunity to celebrate the kind of person he was, remember the impact he had on so many people, and give back to a sport and a community that meant so much to him. As long as we're able, we'll continue to do that."

Vic Hayter passed away in February 2016 at the age of 77 following a battle with cancer. While many knew him as the successful owner of Stratford's Arden Park Hotel and Festival Inn – now the Best Western Plus The Arden Park Hotel – those closest to him knew harness racing was one of his greatest passions. For nearly four decades, he proudly owned standardbred racehorses and rarely missed an opportunity to spend a Sunday afternoon at Clinton Raceway.

What began as a tribute has grown into a day that horsepeople across Ontario look forward to each season. In addition to sponsoring the featured invitational trot, the Hayter family once again has increased the day's overnight purses by 10 per cent and will provide a complimentary meal for all horsepeople competing on the card.

"The Hayter family has created something incredibly special," said Clinton Raceway general manager Ian Fleming. "This day reminds us that harness racing is about more than what happens on the track. It's about family, friendships, and the people who help shape our sport. Vic's generosity and passion continue to be felt every July, and we're grateful to the entire Hayter family for ensuring his legacy lives on at Clinton Raceway."

The tradition of giving back continues beyond the racetrack, with proceeds from the day's fundraising efforts supporting Out of the Ashes Big Animal Rescue, a cause that reflects the Hayter family's enduring love and compassion for animals.

Fans are invited to join the Hayter family for an afternoon of outstanding harness racing and fellowship, followed by a Chicken BBQ dinner. Dinner tickets are still available for $30 and will be served from 4:30-5:30 p.m. Gates open at noon, with the first race on the 10-race card scheduled for 1:30 p.m.

Tobins Swiftie, Country Rhythm win Gold In P.E.I. Colt Stakes at Summerside

Tobins Swiftie claimed the fastest division of the P.E.I. Colt Stakes for 2-year-old pacing fillies as Governor's Plate Week racing continued Wednesday evening (July 15) at Red Shores at the Summerside Raceway.

Jason Hughes was in the race bike behind the Ashley Gamester trained daughter of Somewhere Fancy—Putnam Mackenzie in her $21,920 Gold division of the P.E.I. Colt Stakes as she stopped the clock in 1:56.3 for owners Donald MacRae of Vernon Bridge, PEI, and Jean Marc MacKenzie of Toronto, ON

The race started with heavily favored Sheeowtime Speed (driven by Marc Campbell) make a break in stride, leaving the rest of the field to capitalize as Tobins Swiftie ($14) struck the front and paced through splits of :30.2, :59.4, and 1:28.2 before uncorking a final panel of :28.1. Starship Daisy (Corey MacPherson) was second best ahead of Redland Equinox (Kenny Arsenault).

The other $21,920 Gold division had Country Rhythm ($4.20) and driver Myles Heffernan, Sr., first to the lead and holding on for a half-length 1:59.1 victory for owner/trainer/breeder Myles Heffernan, Jr., of Summerville. Rosetown Aurora (MacPherson) sat the pocket to finish second with Fox Harbour Filly (Marc Campbell) rallying for third.

In the $10,960 P.E.I. Colt Stakes Grassroots divisions for rookie pacing fillies, Lady Of Malice ($2.70) took a lifetime mark of 1:59.3 in her outing in a 13-length romp for driver Langille, co-owner/trainer Kyle Williams and co-owner James Trainor of Ellerslie.

Isle B Ur Diamond ($2.70) won her Grassroots division in 2:01.1 for trainer/driver Darryl MacLean, who co-owns the Fine Diamond filly with Gordon MacLean of Winsloe, PEI, and Stephen Downey of New Brunswick.

Big Heart N Soul ($3.50) delivered a victory in another Grassroots divisions with a first-over move for trainer/driver Gilles Barrieau and owner Wayne MacRae of Fall River, NS.

The biggest Grassroots upset was in race 7 as Here For The Party ($28.50) gave Truro, NS, driver Keith Legge the first stakes victory of his driving career, winning by five lengths in 1:59.4. George Rennison, who had two wins on the card, trains the Sunshine Beach filly for Nova Scotia owners Clarissa Maher, Rennison Racing Inc., and Ian MacDonald.

The race 4 Arnold Kiggins Memorial Pace had Howmac Maleficent (Ken Murphy) placed up to first in 1:58 for co-owner/trainer Gordie Hennessey and co-owners Lori Hennessey of Charlottetown, PEI, and Paul Emile Bernard of Dieppe, NB.
