All hail the queen as Captains Mistress dethrones Leap To Fame in Inter Dominion pacing final

Captains Mistress is the first mare in 37 years to beat the boys in the Inter Dominion pacing final.

by Adam Hamilton

THE DOWN UNDER DIARY

with ADAM HAMILTON

Racing doesn't get any better.

In one of the greatest Inter Dominions of all time, the "King" was dethroned by the "Queen" on Saturday (July 18) at Albion Park. Brilliant young Kiwi-bred mare Captains Mistress led throughout to end Leap To Fame's unbeaten record across three Inter Dominion campaigns.

But Leap To Fame's performance was arguably the best of his career in defeat.

Captains Mistress took a full second off the 2,680-meter track record with a scorching 1:51.8 mile rate for 2,680 meters.

Leap To Fame refused to lie down, getting within 1.2 meters at the finish after everything went wrong, especially in the first half of the race.

Veteran Max Delight was trapped three-wide and going nowhere while Leap To Fame was on his back and the champ was dragged back to near last when Max Delight had to drag back.

It was a jubilant winner's circle for Captains Mistress' connections.

Meanwhile, Captains Mistress worked to the front and was rolling along in her comfort zone.

Leap To Fame eventually came three-wide around the field to get outside Captains Mistress, but was already under pressure when he did.

"I wanted to make him work when he was out there, I had to," Captains Mistress' driver Cam Hart said.

"She was cruising down the back straight, it was only about the 400 meters when he was able to drop in behind me when I got a bit worried.

"It then came down to a matter of whether she would tough it out because you knew he would.

"Every time he came at her, she kept finding. She had to be a champion to win and she is."

Leap To Fame's trainer/driver Grant Dixon said, "He went great. You couldn't ask any more of him."

Captains Mistress became the first mare in 37 years to beat the boys in the Inter Dominion pacing final. That was Jodie's Babe in 1989.

She joins Jodie's Babe as just the second mare in the 95th running of the Inter Dominion pacing final.

Trainer Jason Grimson also put his name in the record books as the youngest trainer, at just 32, to win a third final.

He also became just the third trainer to win finals with three different pacers after his wins with Boncel Benjamin (2021) and I Cast No Shadow (2022). The others are Hall of Famers Brian Hancock and Mark Purdon.

Captains Mistress' owner Mick Boots had previously talked of retiring the mare to the breeding barn at the end of this year, but Grimson said he will convince him to race on for another season.

"I want to win a Miracle Mile with her," Grimson said.

GUS TAKES INTER DOMINION TROTTING FINAL

Brilliant trotter Gus created history winning Saturday's $500,000 Group 1 Inter Dominion trotting final.

He became the first Queensland-trained trotter to win the final in its 50th running.

And it's been four years in the making for Chantal Turpin and Pete McMullen.

“The ability has always been there [with Gus], but just needed to crack him. I just love this horse; he means the world to me.”

— Chantal Turpin

“The ability has always been there, but just needed to crack him,” Turpin said. “I just love this horse; he means the world to me.”

McMullen added with a laugh, “Chantal’s said she loves him more than me, but I guess he needs a driver.

“Seriously though, I’m so proud of Chantal and the team. He’s taken a lot of time, hard work, and patience and rewarded us.

“Growing up, you dream of winning an Inter Dominion, I just didn’t think it would be on a trotter.

“He’s a bit of a history maker this guy, winning that big Group 1 double in New Zealand late last year, too.”

McMullen resisted temptation to use Gus’ great draw [barrier 2].

“His best asset is his speed and I opted to drive him for that, so I let him find his feet and settle early,” he said.

“He’s just so fast, but he showed he’s tough tonight, too. He really had to dig in late to catch the leader and then hold off the others.”

Gus held on to beat the find of the series, Gotfeelingsyouknow, with another outsider Toro Stride finishing third.

“We’ll enjoy this and then look to take him back to New Zealand again in November,” McMullen said.

LUKE MCCARTHY WINS HIS EIGHTH QUEENSLAND OAKS

Champion driver Luke McCarthy added to his dominance of the Group 1 Queensland Oaks with an eighth win in the classic Saturday night.

Last year he drove the Mick Stanley-trained Soho Americano to upset Captains Mistress.

On Saturday night, he trained and drove the much-traveled Ripples to prove the toughest staying in a frantically run Oaks.

Ripples’ 1:52.8 mile rate for 2,138 meters took two seconds off the race record.

And moved her owner Mick Harvey, who also races open-class star Kingman, to declare her the best filly in Australia.

"When they went so hard, it brought her right into the race from the back row," McCarthy said. "She's all class and really deserved this one after huge runs at Bathurst and in the NSW Oaks."

It was McCarthy's 90th Group 1 win in Australia alone.

He then made it 91 in the next race when champion mare Eye Keep Smiling won her third successive Group 1 Golden Girl.

It was as much a trainer triumph as it was driving, given the mare took a long time to get mojo back after a failed attempt to breed from her through embryo transfer last year.

"It's only the past three weeks I've really thought I've got her back," McCarthy said. "These top horses are so special, it's very rewarding to win races like this, especially three in a row."

Amazingly, Eye Keep Smiling is already a mother. Her only foal, a Bettors Delight yearling, was sold in March and is with top New Zealand trainers Cran and Chrissie Dalgety.

BRAD HEWITT OVERCAME ADVERSITY TO QUEENSLAND DERBY

Racing can be cruel and kind.

Top NSW trainer/driver Brad Hewitt experienced both this week, starting with a major injury to arguably the best horse he has trained, Hollywood Strip.

The NSW Derby winner was $1.50 (for a $1 bet) to add the Queensland Derby to his CV, but fractured a pastern midweek.

Remarkably, Hewitt still won the Derby last night with his second-stringer, Palladium.

"We're still a bit deflated, but you have to dust yourself off as this showed," he said. "He's been going super and I thought he could win, just not having that sort of run [outside the leader]."

Hollywood Strip, who boasts 13 wins from 15 starts, will be sidelined for at least the rest of this year after having screws inserted in his pastern.

Palladium dug deep to beat Yottie, who followed him everywhere and had his chance, with leader Maxo Mighty holding on bravely for third.

The New Zealand-bred pacer could return to his homeland for three feature targets later this year.

The seed was first planted when Final Deadline began brilliantly from a standing-start to win the Group 2 Redcliffe Cup three starts back.

"It was a confidence-booster as far as the standing-start New Zealand Cup goes," she said. "If we went across, we'd also take in the [Group 1] New Zealand free-for-all and their big 4-year-old race [the Group 1 Christian Cullen].

"We love this horse. He's just kept improving since we got him from New Zealand and he's potentially the best horse I've trained.

"Perth is another option for their big 4-year-old races at the end of the year, but New Zealand is the preferred option if they maintain their big prize money."

Final Deadline's win was his seventh from just 11 starts this season, along with another three seconds.

Driven superbly by Adam Sanderson, Final Deadline benefitted from an early speed burn between leader Fate Awaits and another key runner Always B Cool and wore down a very brave Fate Awaits in the last 70 meters to win.

Second phase of Richard Moreau appeal hearing begins

by Melissa Keith

Following an April decision by the Ontario Horse Racing Appeal Panel (HRAP), the appeal hearing of trainer Richard Moreau moved into a second phase which began on Friday (July 17). Counsel for the Defense, Jean-Marc MacKenzie, had previously argued that evidence against the 10-time Canadian Trainer of the Year failed to meet forensic integrity standards. The panel determined that the appeal's first phase did not eliminate the need for part two.

"This is not a case involving a trainer who ignored his obligations," MacKenzie said. "It's not a case involving a trainer who disregards the rules. The evidence will demonstrate a trainer who took his responsibility seriously."

He added that "responsibility should be proportionate to control," suggesting that Moreau was not the person with the most control over Funtime Bayama when the gelding tested positive for the prohibited performance-enhancer DPO (darbepoetin alfa).

"That is why the rules look beyond titles; because titles alone cannot tell the complete story," MacKenzie said describing how a trainer may be only nominally in charge of a horse. "Control does. Authority does. Decision-making does."

This was the alleged scenario when Moreau was listed as Funtime Bayama's trainer, but Sylvain, Justin, and Yves Fillion (of Bayama Farms Inc. of Saint-Andre-D'Argenteuil, QC) were largely in charge.

The first witness for the appellant was Dr. Christoph Grossenbacher, who was questioned by Jean-Marc MacKenzie's nephew, Robert MacKenzie, a Cornell University law professor and member of the Ontario and New York bars. Grossenbacher introduced himself as "a veterinarian with a special interest in standardbred racetrack medicine" who has been working in Guelph and Rockwood, ON for the past 15 years.

Grossenbacher told the panel that Moreau had been among his major clients for nearly a decade prior to the trainer's 10-year suspension, which began on July 23, 2024.

“This is not a case involving a trainer [Richard Moreau] who ignored his obligations. It’s not a case involving a trainer who disregards the rules. The evidence will demonstrate a trainer who took his responsibility seriously.”

— Jean-Marc MacKenzie

“He was one of the most careful people I have ever dealt with,” said the veterinarian, referring to Moreau’s diligence about medications.

He called Moreau’s farm “probably one of the nicest farms, if not the nicest barn, I deal with,” with horses “extremely well taken care of” and “conservative” veterinary treatment.

Robert MacKenzie asked Grossenbacher if he knew the Filions. He replied that had initially met four-time O’Brien Driver of the Year Sylvain and his father, Yves, when Stephane Laroque trained some of their stable. Grossenbacher said he had treated Funtime Bayama when the horse was 2 and shipped a common joint supplement (glycosaminoglycan) to Bayama Farms for him in early 2024.

When Funtime Bayama returned to Moreau’s farm in April 2024, Grossenbacher resumed treating him at a frequency “higher than other horses,” but with “the regular, run-of-the-mill, standardbred racetrack practice.” He said that when he worked with Funtime Bayama, he usually spoke with Yves on the phone or with Sylvain in person.

“[T]hey were kind of directing me and I was discussing that with Richard, and Richard basically says, ‘Whatever they need, they can get. They’re fine; they know what they’re doing,’” Grossenbacher said.

Robert MacKenzie asked how often he had visited the gelding between April and June 2024.

“I don’t have many healthy patients that I see that often... I would say it’s unusual,” Grossenbacher replied, placing Funtime Bayama in the top 2 per cent of his patients by frequency of visits.

"It's maybe a bit less unusual when we look at the fact that [Funtime Bayama] was clearly pointed to the two biggest races of the early season [for 3-year-old pacers]... the North America Cup and the Meadowlands Pace. With Richard, less was more. With this horse, I did get the impression that more was more... But nothing that I ever thought would harm the horse."

The veterinarian described Funtime Bayama as "generally in very good health."

"What would be a reason for running and tracking the hematology and continued hematology tests?" asked Robert MacKenzie.

Grossenbacher said, "You would try and gauge the fitness of the horse through red blood cells."

He said he knew of DPO being used to stimulate production of red blood cells and raise hematocrit (red cell volume in blood) and hemoglobin (oxygen-carrying protein in red blood cells); a horse administered DPO would have "at least a 10 per cent improvement of those values," and "there's no [permitted] substance that will jump red blood cells like that."

Counsel for the Registrar Brendan van Niejenhuis reminded Grossenbacher about a Lasix overage in Moreau-trained Real Willey in July 2023.

"Do you recall that although there was a variation ordered of the penalty applied, that Mr. Moreau's responsibility as trainer was upheld in that case because of the absolute liability rule?" van Niejenhuis asked.

Van Niejenhuis questioned Grossenbacher about DPO detection. The veterinarian said he didn't use the long-acting substance, which is not evident in a complete blood count.

"I can't remember in 40 years ever pulling that many blood tests in such a short period of time on a horse that was racing [like Funtime Bayama]. It would be totally different if the horse was in the hospital, the horse was sick, recovering from an infection."

"It's not really something you consider, especially of a high-level, multiple award-winning, very well cared for barn... I would not expect any of my clients to be using it," Grossenbacher said.

He said that his work with Funtime Bayama ceased after June 17, 2024, when the horse was sold.

Dr. Garth Henry was the next witness to testify. The longtime standardbred vet said he had "known and worked for Richard [Moreau] for many years" in Montreal.

"[We] started out as an employer-employee relationship; he was working for me in Montreal when he was first getting into the business," Henry said.

He called Moreau "a top-notch [veterinary] client" and friend. They purchased Moreau's current farm together, maintaining the business partnership for around six years.

Robert MacKenzie asked Henry about why a trainer would request bloodwork on a horse.

"Almost exclusively poor performance," he replied. "I can honestly say I can never remember looking at a blood [test] for Richard just because he wanted to know the numbers."

Funtime Bayama's AST and creatine kinase levels on multiple tests showed "zero evidence of myopathy" (tying up), said Henry.

When MacKenzie inquired about the five blood tests conducted on Funtime Bayama between late April-early June 2024, Henry called them "excessive."

"I can't remember in 40 years ever pulling that many blood tests in such a short period of time on a horse that was racing," Henry said. "It would be totally different if the horse was in the hospital, the horse was sick, recovering from an infection."

Henry said he had learned about EPO and the "longer-acting" DPO before they became illegal in racing.

"I would say late '90s, 2000, this product became of interest to horse trainers," he said.

"[The Filions] were kind of directing me [when it came to Funtime Bayama] and I was discussing that with Richard [Moreau], and Richard basically says, 'Whatever they need, they can get. They're fine; they know what they're doing.'"

— Dr. Christoph Grossenbacher

Owners looking to bypass a trainer with veterinary requests remain uncommon.

"In the extremely rare times that has happened in my career, after I finished the discussion with the owner, before I did anything, I would contact the trainer and say, 'FYI, your owner has asked me to do this,'" said Henry, remarking that the case was "a very unique situation."

"I can't think of any other owner that has more training, farm, breeding, veterinary, experience than the Filion family," he said. "The owners that I worked for, they were businessmen... They didn't have the knowledge or the experience to even initiate an equine therapeutic program at any level, whether it be EPO or antibiotics."

HRAP chair Stanley Sadinsky asked Henry, "If you were the trainer of record and responsible for the horse, wouldn't you be curious as to why all these blood tests were being asked for?"

Henry replied, "We're talking about this specific situation with the Filions and Funtime Bayama. 'They've run thousands of blood tests in their career. I'm not going to be the one to tell Yves Filion that this horse doesn't need a blood test... Is it abnormal? Yes. Is it worth picking a fight with an owner, a trainer, a veterinarian? Probably not.'"

The hearing continues on Tuesday, July 21.

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Nebraska de Ginier extends winning streak, sets French record at Enghien

by Thomas Hedlund

The standout performance on Enghien's marquee card Saturday (July 18) belonged to rising 3-year-old colt Nebraska de Ginier (Golden Bridge), who delivered a breathtaking effort in the Group 3 $100,000 Prix Henri Cravoisier.

Trained by Alexandre Buisson Nebraska de Ginier has been a different horse since joining the stable. After finishing unplaced in his career debut as a 2-year-old, he was transferred to Buisson late last year. His first start for the new barn produced only a fourth-place finish in November before a winter break.

Since returning to the races on March 22, however, the colt has been unbeatable.

Entering Saturday's one-mile test at Enghien with six consecutive victories, Nebraska de Ginier (Anthony Barrier) shared favoritism with Philippe Allaire trainee Nat King Cole (Ready Cash). And the two favorites dominated the race from the outset.

Nat King Cole controlled the pace while Nebraska de Ginier was forced to grind away first-over through sizzling fractions, including the equivalent of :54.1 for the opening half-mile and 1:22.4 through the first 1,200 meters.

Despite the demanding trip, Nebraska de Ginier wore down the leader shortly after turning for home, surged clear with authority, and drew away for an impressive victory.

Nuevo Cash (Ready Cash), who found room from the pocket in mid-stretch, closed strongly to finish second, while Nelson Emge (Hohneck) rallied well from second-over for third. Nat King Cole faded to fourth after setting the torrid pace.

Nebraska de Ginier stopped the timer in a sensational 1:51.4 mile rate, matching runner-up Nuevo Cash's time while establishing a new French record for 3-year-olds over the mile.

The previous mark of 1:52.1 (1:09.7 kilometer rate) was established by Lovino Bello when he won the same race two years ago.

The victory was Nebraska de Ginier's seventh straight, with three of those wins this season coming at Vincennes in the Prix de Gien, Prix Coronis, and Prix de Mamers, further cementing his status as one of France's brightest sophomore gelding stars.

MACK DE BLARY RETURNS TO THE WINNER'S CIRCLE AT ENGHIEU

French 4-year-old standout Mack de Blary (Face Time Bourbon) reminded everyone of his class Saturday, snapping a four-race winless streak with a comfortable victory in the $100,000 Prix de Milan at Enghien.

Saturday.

Trained by Thierry Duvaldestin and driven by his son Théo Duvaldestin, Mack de Blary was the dominant colt of his French crop last season. His impressive résumé includes victories in the Critérium des 3 Ans (€300,000), Prix Ready Cash (€200,000), Yearling Cup 2025 (€150,000), Prix Victor Régis (€120,000), and Prix Emmanuel Margouty (€120,000).

His most recent victory had come in the Prix Ready Cash at Vincennes in early December before a lengthy layoff. Saturday's start was his third since returning from more than four months on the sidelines.

The race itself proved straightforward.

After Maestro Vrie (Village Mystic) controlled the early stages, Théo Duvaldestin inherited the lead approaching the halfway point. The opening 1,200 meters were covered in a moderate 1:26.1 mile rate, allowing Mack de Blary to settle comfortably on the front end.

Turning for home, the son of Face Time Bourbon quickly put the race away, drawing clear with ease to score in a 1:54.4 mile rate for 2,150 meters.

Italian-bred Golden Gio (Face Time Bourbon) rallied well from second-over to finish second, while Maestro Vrie held gamely for third.

OUIJA BELLA CAPTURES FRANCE'S FIRST 2-YEAR-OLD RACE ON DIRT

France's first three races for 2-year-olds this season were all contested on grass, producing two winners by freshman sire Idao de Tillard — colt Opal Rainbow and filly Odida — while Only One Hero, from the first crop of fellow freshman stallion Invictus Madiba, captured the other division.

Saturday at Enghien, however, marked the season's first juvenile race on a dirt surface as 10 fillies lined up in the $37,000 Prix de la Porte des Lilas over 2,250 meters.

Heavy favorite Olgaya, a daughter of Idao de Tillard from the Thierry Duvaldestin stable, failed to live up to expectations and finished fourth.

Instead, Ouija Bella (Village Mystic—Aura des Jacquets), trained by Jocelyn Robert and driven by Eric Raffin, emerged victorious, stopping the clock in a mile rate of 2:03.3 for the 2,250-meter event.

TALES FROM THE CURMUDGEON

with MURRAY BROWN

The Vincent Delaney Memorial should be on everyone's bucket list

by Murray Brown

This column is being written from our hotel room at The Westbury Hotel in Dublin, Ireland.

Why are we in Dublin you might ask? Primarily because our grandson Russell is doing an internship here and we are visiting. Russell just finished his freshman year at Bucknell University. The internship in various pursuits was offered primarily to upper classmen, but Russell was one of two freshmen who were accepted. To say that we are incredibly proud of the young man Russell has grown up to be, would be somewhat of an understatement. In just one word, Russell is terrific.

But we also have dear friends in Dublin – the Delaneys, Derek and Lillian, and their daughter Lexie.

I first wrote of the Delaneys and their sponsorship of the Vincent Delaney Memorial (VDM), the richest race for pacers in the United Kingdom and Ireland on Dec. 19, 2021. The race had its genesis from the sudden passing of Derek and his brother James' younger brother Vincent, at the terribly young age of 27.

Needless to say, the death of one so young was shocking. How could Derek and James build a memorial to their brother? They established a stakes race for 2-year-old pacers which carried the name of Vincent. The first Vincent Delaney Memorial was raced at Portmarnock Raceway about 30 minutes from Dublin. The first race in 2012 carried a purse of 10,000 euros and was open to colts and fillies.

Since that first VDM, the race has spawned a sister event for fillies and has incrementally grown to where this year's events combined will go for 125,000 euros for 2-, 3-, and 4-year-olds. With 65,000 of that going to the freshman divisions.

What began as an important, but relatively minor race, has now grown to become the VDM Festival of Racing, encompassing participants and fans from all over the world. This year's events will also include the Bernie Kelly Memorial International Ladies Race that includes eight women drivers from all over the world, vying for female driving supremacy: Erin Flanagan (Ireland), Kelly Peacock (United Kingdom), Laura Frendo (Malta), Miia Salminen (Finland), Britt Grift (Netherlands), Chrissy Johnson (United States), Marie-Claude Auger (Canada), and Cynthia Bourke (Australia). This is fitting because Kelly was a huge part of the founding of the VDM and was a big part of the administration in the sport in Ireland where it was all about the ladies. The Hambletonian Society helps to sponsor it along with USTA, OHHA, COSA, USHDC, GLADA, and the Kelly family.

The racing itself has moved across the Irish Sea to Tir Prince Raceway in North Wales. But the festival itself and all events leading up to the racing is still resident in Ireland.

When it comes time to race, everybody boards the ferry and they are off to Wales.

Speaking specifically of our trip, our overseas journey began with five days spent in my favorite city in the world, London. As Samuel Johnson said, "The person who is tired of London is tired of life."

London was hopping. We were there during the last week of Wimbledon. England was still involved in the FIFA World Cup. The theatres were packed. People, mostly young ones, were everywhere. Almost everywhere we went, we were the oldest people. Every time we were on the underground people got up and offered us their seats. People were so kind. I had no idea that we looked so old and infirmed.

After five days, we took an early morning flight to Dublin.

The energy in Dublin is awesome. It seemed to me as though life there revolves around the pubs. Young people are everywhere, talking, singing, and raising their glasses.

We had dinner the first night with Russell and caught up with him. He is doing exceptionally well. He loves Ireland, his job, the people with who he works, and most especially the Irish Joie de Vivre.

On Wednesday night, our last evening here, we all met for dinner with Derek and Lillian at the gorgeous rooftop restaurant Dion. It was wonderful meeting up with old friends. Russell and

In my mind, there are three great small-town events that every harness racing fan needs to attend entirely for the love of the sport. They are the Little Brown Jug, the Gold Cup & Saucer, and the [Vincent Delaney Memorial]. If you haven't been to any of them, you owe it to yourself to do so.

the Delaneys hit it off beautifully.

Lots of horse talk with Derek. Firstly, the bad. Ireland seems to be beset with many of the problems we have here in North America. Harness racing is very much a secondary sport to that of our thoroughbred brethren. The number of race dates have declined. Breeding which had been on an upward trajectory is now on hold.

Regarding the good, this year's VDM Festival shapes up to be one of the biggest and best ever. The purse for the Vincent Delaney Memorial will be 65,000 euros. Unfortunately, this year's VDM weekend coincides with that of the Hambletonian, which will negatively affect North American attendance here.

Heather Wilder will be coming with a group of approximately 26 North Americans. Australians, and Canadians. Mike Tanner CEO of the USTA will be on the tour with his wife Gail.

I mentioned to Derek that the first time I'd heard of Dexter Dunn was when I saw him win the VDM. Dunn has actually been here twice. Others of note who have competed here are Wally Hennessey, Anthony Butt, Aaron Merriman, George Brennan, Dan Noble, Jordan Stratton, and Mike Wilder. I'm sure there are some I've left out. To those, I apologize.

I'll close by saying, in my mind, there are three great small-town events that every harness racing fan needs to attend entirely for the love of the sport. They are the Little Brown Jug, the Gold Cup & Saucer, and the VDM. If you haven't been to any of them, you owe it to yourself to do so.

HOLLYWOOD'S HITS

with BOB HEYDEN

The dishwasher's funeral

by Bob Heyden

His name was Diego. I'm not sure if that was his first or last name. It didn't matter. At right around 80 years old, he just passed away. Actually, it was more of a gathering than a funeral. There was no obit, just a lot of friends and family coming together to remember a man who lived a life of decency, dedication, caring, that always put his cherished family first.

Diego was a dishwasher at The Meadowlands for the entirety of its run, when it was operated by the State of New Jersey from 1976 through 2011.

I am actually keeping a promise here. I told Diego, 25 or so years ago, that when he was gone, I would mention it. He then wondered aloud why anybody would care about the passing of a dishwasher from The Meadowlands years and years ago. I am glad, so glad, he asked.

I remember the first time or two I met him. It was the early 1980s at The Meadowlands in the kitchen in Pegasus. I made a habit of occasionally visiting those who worked behind the scenes. What I saw was an intense guy who basically never looked up. He obviously took pride in what he was doing, big time.

Right away I knew this is a primo candidate for my makeshift goodie packages. I would load up ginger ale, programs, cookies, and, on occasion, Meadowlands Fair passes. Like-minded Kim Rinker saw me a few times knowing my mission full well. I soon found out that Diego was the ultimate sharer, because people that I didn't know would, on occasion, thank me for programs and Mrs. Heyden's cookies. Yeah, he was that kind of guy.

I came to find out he was one prince of a guy. Dedicated, unselfish, proud, and the last one out the door after work. He saw the good in all. He was uncomfortable not working. Front And Center would be a good horse name, but never for him. His anonymity was a reality but also a goal of sorts. He never ever seemed to think what he did was a big deal. Hey, who doesn't work 105 hour weeks, right?

Getting the news of his passing got me thinking about what are the measures of accomplishment. Is it the amount of bricks or cinder blocks you put down and if so, why not the amount of plates and forks you gave cleaned? I remember asking him about how people look at him and his family and does he ever wish things were different. Absolutely not he would tell me. He was privileged to be here and working at The Meadowlands and to raise his family. Never a bitter moment; not a one, ever.

I also recall his coming to The Meadowlands a few times as a patron when they raced on Sunday afternoons. He loved the races. He came to an open house or two also. One time he told me he was bringing his daughter to pet the horses. Daughter as in singular, because he had two. So, I decided this was the perfect time to bring a Mrs. Heyden's giant basketball-sized chocolate chipper. He arrives in paddock park with both daughters, and I have one cookie. Thankfully I deferred to those way more creative than me and we figured it out.

Another time I went to his granddaughter's birthday party and instead of a gift I palmed her a handful of five-dollar bills. Even a 6-year-old fully appreciated that. I soon learned, in a memo to self, that although it was a great idea, she had plenty of friends at that age and they too have birthdays. I stepped out for a Dunkin Donuts break but it actually was to reload. Oh my how Diego loved those girls.

Diego was proud, sincere, constantly in motion, polite, and simply didn't know how to be anyone else. Diego wasn't a visionary, nor a statesman. Some refer to his immediate group as lower class, even inferior, but to that I respond, 'He didn't choose his heritage.' What he did choose was to come here in the early 1970s from Ecuador and do everything and anything possible to make a better life for his family. He asked for no favors. His sleeves were rolled up 24/7. He carried his own pail and weight. No corners cut here. He earned everything.

If you take one look at the smile on his granddaughter's face how could you tell me he didn't do good? I actually remember telling him that he didn't get to decide his own significance, nor his legacy, that's up to us.

Let me conclude with something I just found. Unrelated to Diego I have been going through a ton of stuff I have and to be honest it's a monumental chore. I came across a thank you note from 1997 from the office of then New Jersey Governor Christie Whitman. I had done a seminar in February 1997 at The Meadowlands for her and her group. Most attendees made it through very heavy snow, and my mother had outdone herself in preparing a big tray for the Governor and her entourage. Governor Whitman was kind enough to thank mom and needless to say it meant quite a bit to my mother. But, attached to the very same paper clip was only one other note. It was around the same time I would guess, but with no date on it. It was from Diego's daughter Mia. It said, "Mr. Hollywood, thanks so much for the cookies you sent to us. Everyone loved them."

Note the word everyone. Sharing the same paper clip with my thank you note from the Governor. It didn't, and doesn't, seem out of place at all.

AMONG OURSELVES

with FRANK COLTOLO

Odds-and-ends handicapping is the guide to cashing for profit, Part 2

by Frank Cotole

Part 1 is here.

It is an astounding blend of academics and gambling that taught me more than any textbook through high school. At first, I did not understand how the two subjects could complete a perfect marriage. That was not my fault because I grew up in the 1950s surrounded by poorly taught and emotionally crippled people.

The guidance counselor in my junior high school told my mother I was an “outsider who would never fit into the mainstream.” That was a gentle way to label me a “loser.” A teacher in that same school system warned my mother I was a “classic risk-taker” which could only lead to hurting myself and maybe even some of those around me. Those opinions molded the grades they gave me no matter what work I produced along the way.

The smartest thing I ever did while being judged a student in perpetual disrepair was to ignore them all; dismiss their predictions of my failure and build my own wheelhouse. All in all, it was a battle of fear and yet I paid no attention to the anxiety it caused and focused on only the academic bits and pieces that served me and enjoyed the company of my artistic side.

No wonder I was attracted to how math could be one of a gambler's greatest tools. It expressed opinions and literally was accountable for successes and failures. So, I could survive and thrive regardless of being dismissed by generations of closed minds.

What were the odds? I learned to answer that question one pari-mutuel bet after another. I embraced the necessary academics of math using the odds-to-percentages table and the utilities to manage the money I risked by their measures and the results were emancipating. I was no longer a hopeless longshot at anything I tried to achieve; I became an anomaly among the wagering masses: I made a profit playing the horses.

The second element, as I always swore, was grasping “Money Management.” It is the enemy of the common gambler who refuses to play like a professional. And that is necessary to satisfy the conditions of making a profit at a game with no regard for your feelings or your bank account. A successful gambler never needs bragging rights when winning nor blames the fates when losing. A successful gambler follows the professional rules even though the process includes unpredictable luck or the lack of it in no particular proportions. The matter of ruin is reduced to high odds when the process is not corrupted by ego or fear or any emotion raring to toss the formula asunder.

Another great thing about the team of academics and mathematics is with some experience under the belt the individual player can tweak the rules here and there. The main elements can be adjusted; the process can be personalized. The mark of the individual gambler is usually present in any wagering campaign. Why? Because the foundation of professional play is more powerful than whatever emotional components invade a process of simply picking winners.

Even more brilliant factors adorning the true process of handicapping is the fact that there are many times it insists you do not make any particular wager. Yes. The smartest way to respect the math and the method is to agree upon no action at all. This is a factor that tests the nerves of a gambler. What a magnificent feeling it becomes when a bettor is able to ignore making a bet on a race simply because the chances established came up short. Especially after passing a race and watching one of the top choices on a personal odds line win.

“You passed on that horse?” a betting friend of mine said to me.

“Yes,” I said.

“You told me it was your top choice. Who did you wind up playing?”

“I did not play the race at all.”

“But why? You had a top choice.”

“I wanted more than the bet offered.”

That is a typical conversation with the average pari-mutuel player. I understand his questions but he refuses to accept my answers. So did many of the public handicappers I knew and worked with professionally. I care not to argue with them as much as I do not care to make a serious wager on any race not meeting my methods.

Of course, he was right about the success of cashing a ticket if the horse you bet upon won. But he was unable to grasp the most important truth of the matter: Success is not measured by the number of winning tickets you cash but by the prices of the winning tickets you cash.

The biggest payoff in racing isn't always found at the cashier's window but in the next chapter.

Always bet on the story

by Trey Nosrac

Would you rather...

Bet $100 on the field goal attempt from 53 yards with the clock down to 2 seconds?

Or would you rather bet $100 that the hometown Detroit Lions will win the game?

Or would you bet $100 on the Detroit Lions to win the Super Bowl before the season begins?

Would you rather...

Bet $100 that the second quarter time in a trotting race will be below 29.2 seconds?

Or would you rather bet $100 on the winner of this 3-year-old trotting race?

Or would you rather skip all the smaller wagers for a few years and put a few thousand dollars of disposable income on partial ownership of a yearling?

* * *

These are choices with many shades of answers. Trey would go with the pre-season Lions winning the Super Bowl wager and the yearling purchase.

As a general rule, Trey loves the story more than the jolt, or as Seinfeld would say, not that there's anything wrong with a jolt. Trey loves a long, complicated story (except for James Joyce books, where, after multiple attempts, I can't get past the first chapter of The Dubliners or Ulysses).

To me, each foal that wobbles to its feet and finds mom is the beginning of a long, complex story, sometimes good, sometimes less good, but, to me, riveting. Or I will pick up in the middle of a story at a yearling sale. For others, holding the winning Super Tri ticket that pays a colossal amount is a memory of a lifetime. Obviously, people are wired differently.

How many thousands of horses have you wagered on that were simply animals with numbers on their back? You never had the slightest attachment besides the finish line. The greatest teams, horses, and athletes become compelling because we know where they came from, what obstacles they faced, are facing, and what they stand to gain – or lose.

Who should we build for in our future?

The smart money probably suggests that harness horse racing should try to carve a niche for itself in the sports gambling and casino worlds. After all, jolt wagers have provided consistent gold for the companies that produce them. I don't think our sport is built for that world. My longshot play would be on the long players in the stakes racing game, and even the long players in our gambling universe.

A harness horse race lasts two minutes. A horse's journey lasts two, three, or four years. Sometimes much longer. It starts with a pedigree page in a sales catalog. Then comes the nervous bidding, the first training miles, the first qualifier, the first victory – or the first disappointment. Every owner knows there are moments when you wonder if you've purchased the next Hambletonian champion or should consider building a shed in your backyard for a new pet. That's part of the adventure.

Modern gambling chases the immediate rush. Nothing wrong with that. But the rush disappears almost as quickly as the ticket is cashed, if it ever gets cashed. Stories linger. They give us someone to cheer for next week, next month, and next season. And I believe that the insane world we live in will, for some people, slow down, and those people will be searching for places to linger.

That may be one of the biggest opportunities for harness racing.

Instead of asking fans to fall in love with a random horse, on a random Tuesday night, perhaps we should invite them to follow 10 remarkable young trotters through an entire season.

Invite them to purchase a small percentage of a yearling with you. Invite them to try fractional ownership. Let them meet fellow owners. Introduce the trainers. Show the setbacks, the veterinary scares, the miraculous recoveries, and the moments when an awkward youngster suddenly figures out what racing is all about.

Sports need stories long and short.

How many thousands of horses have you wagered on that were simply animals with numbers on their back? You never had the slightest attachment besides the finish line. The greatest teams, horses, and athletes become compelling because we know where they came from, what obstacles they faced, are facing, and what they stand to gain – or lose.

Maybe that's the wager our industry should be making. Not another exotic bet. Not another gimmick. A bet that if we tell better stories, and hook them to the horses, people will care more deeply. They would celebrate victories and mourn defeats because, in some small way, those stories have become their own.

The biggest payoff in racing isn't always found at the cashier's window but in the next chapter.

A pari-mutuel wager asks who will win in the next two minutes? Stakes racing asks, who will become a champion over the next two years? Those are completely different emotional investments.

There is a psychological principle behavioral economists call the IKEA effect – people value things more when they've helped create them. Harness racing needs more versions of that.

We don't want to end up selling the wrong product in our pari-mutuel horse races.

Maybe we should be selling journeys. The sell might not be as difficult as we fear.

A pari-mutuel wager asks who will win in the next two minutes? Stakes racing asks, who will become a champion over the next two years? Those are completely different emotional investments.

Hambletonian eligibles set to clash in Zweig

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

The road to next month's Hambletonian and Hambletonian Oaks passes through Vernon Downs today (July 19) when the upstate New York oval hosts Grade 2 Dr. Harry M. Zweig Memorial races for 3-year-old male and female trotters.

Diabolic Hill, the No. 2-ranked horse in Meadowlands announcer/analyst Ken Warkentin's Road to the Winning Key Farm Hambletonian, is among a field of nine Zweig Memorial Open Trot participants all eligible to the 101st edition of America's Trotting Classic for sophomore trotters, which will be held Aug. 8 (eliminations Aug. 1, if necessary) at The Meadowlands.

The Annie Stoebe-trained Diabolic Hill, with driver Todd McCarthy, will leave from post 5 in today's $300,000 Zweig Memorial Open. The field also includes four other trotters in Warkentin's Road to the Hambletonian Top 10: No. 4 Magic Punk, No. 5 American Power, No. 8 Neighver Punt, and No. 10 Nix Nacken.

Diabolic Hill, a son of Muscle Hill—Crysti Dream, has raced three times this year. He finished third in a leg of the New Jersey Sire Stakes Platinum Series on June 5 before registering second-place finishes in the NJSS final (a half-length behind Apex, who is No. 1 in the Road to the Hambletonian rankings) on June 12 and in a division of the W.N. Reynolds Memorial (a length behind Magic Punk) on July 4. All three races were at The Meadowlands.

"I'm excited to get him to the Zweig," Stoebe said about Diabolic Hill, who in the Reynolds got the lead from post 9 exiting the first turn and remained on top into deep stretch before pocket-sitting Magic Punk got by in a 1:51.4 mile. "His last start, he's not as game on the front; he loves having a target. He got nipped at the end but came a huge back half.

"He's raced good every start, in my opinion. I'm just hoping that trip-wise it works out [today] and he can get his first win of the year. He feels good coming into it."

Diabolic Hill — owned by Stoebe, Mario Mazza, and AC Crawford Racing Stable — battled immaturity issues last year but still won five of 10 races, including the Grade 1 Valley Victory Stakes, and was second in the Grade 1 Breeders Crown for freshman male trotters on his way to $506,636 in earnings. During the offseason, he matured into a different horse.

New Image Media

Diabolic Hill (Todd McCarthy) winning at Woodbine Mohawk Park

"He's not as diabolical, like he was last year," Stoebe said with a laugh. "He's like a little sports car now; Todd can do whatever he wants with him. He's very manageable and nice to be around. I'm so happy with my horse."

Stoebe, who started her stable in 2021, has had horses compete in the Grade 1 Hambletonian Oaks, for 3-year-old female trotters, in the past – Instagram Model in 2023 and Elista Hanover in 2024 – but prior to last year never raced any male trotters. Now, she is working to get Diabolic Hill prepared for the Grade 1 Hambletonian.

"I'm really looking forward to getting to be in that race," Stoebe said. "It's definitely a lot of stress and pressure but I'm trying to enjoy it along the way. You have to take it all into perspective. It's good pressure to have and good stress to have. It's exciting. You just focus on the horse, and he's turned into such a cool animal. You enjoy being around him and hanging out with him now. It's nice to have such a nice horse."

Following the Zweig, Diabolic Hill is eligible to the Tompkins-Geers Stakes at The Meadowlands on July 25.

"So, we're going to take this weekend, and if we need the Geers, we'll race," Stoebe said. "If not, we won't."

Neighver Punt, who won the Grade 2 Goodtimes Stakes at Woodbine Mohawk Park on June 13, is one of three Zweig Memorial Open participants from the stable of trainer Marcus Melander, along with American Power and Nix Nacken. Neighver Punt (with driver Scott Zeron) will start today from post 9 while American Power (James MacDonald) leaves from post 4 and Nix Nacken (Dexter Dunn) from post 8.

Magic Punk, who won the Grade 3 Dexter Cup at The Meadowlands on May 2 and was second in the Goodtimes, will leave from post 2 with Yannick Gingras in the sulky for trainer Åke Svanstedt.

Also on today's card is the $139,000 Zweig Memorial Filly Trot, with a nine-horse field made up entirely of Hambletonian Oaks eligibles.

That group includes 2025 Dan Patch Award winner Setyoursightshigh, who will start from post 4 with Dunn driving for Melander; All Time Trot S, who won last year's Grade 1 Goldsmith Maid Stakes and leaves from post 7 with Gingras driving for Svanstedt; Busy Miss Lissy S, who won last year's Grade 3 Kindergarten Classic Series final and starts from post 2 with trainer Svanstedt in the sulky; and Madam Cheval, who won the 2026 New Jersey Sire Stakes Platinum final and leaves from post 5 with Tim Tetrack driving for Nancy Takter.

Action at Vernon Downs begins at 6:05 p.m. (EDT) tonight. The Zweig Memorial Filly Trot is race 9 on the card, with the Zweig Memorial Open Trot going as race 11.

Antognoni S (Yannick Gingras) winning the $250,000 MGM Grand Prix Trotting Series final on Dec. 19, 2025 at Yonkers.

Massachusetts

Burke is high on Antognoni S and 'Kody' in the Spirit of Massachusetts Trot

by Tim Bojarski for Plainridge Park

Hall of Fame trainer Ron Burke has already won two Grade 2 Spirit of Massachusetts Trots with It's Academic, but he'll be looking to add a third on the strength of a powerful pair of starters he will bring to Plainridge Park today (July 19) for this year's $300,000 edition of the Spirit.

Burke's one-two punch features the Dan Patch 2025 Trotter of the Year, Lexus Kody, and one of the hottest trotters currently on the circuit, Antognoni S. Both of these horses are coming off career years and have been stringing wins together this year as well.

Antognoni S came into Burke's stable in 2024 and made his first start in January of 2025. And ever since then, he's had his trainer very impressed.

"The development of Antognoni has been just incredible," Burke said. "By the end of last year and right through the beginning of this year, he has been unbelievable. His turn of foot is incredible and I could not be more impressed with the horse."

Last year, Antognoni S had 16 wins in 24 starts with three seconds and three thirds, compiling $481,537 in purses while racing across North America. And his success has carried over to this year. So far, he is unbeaten in 2026 with five wins in a row, and an active eight-race win streak going back to last year.

"I feel that he is the best trotter in the country right now," Burke said. "I think he's better than On To Norway, right now. I hate to ever go against 'Kody' with him because he's great too. But ever since last October, I told the guys, look, I know Kody is killer, but I think that Antognoni is better."

After being peerless at The Meadowlands, Harrah's Philly, and Yonkers so far this year, Antognoni S will come to Massachusetts to try and put another one in the win column.

Lexus Kody had a dream season in 2025 and the numbers certainly show it. Eleven wins in 21 starts with three seconds, four thirds, over $1.3 million in earnings and a 1:49.1 lifetime mark at Woodbine Mohawk Park that made him the first trotter in Canadian history to break the 1:50 barrier.

"By the end of the year, nothing was going wrong for this horse and he finally learned how to harness his ability to put himself in better spots," Burke said. "Actually, the last bad thing that happened to him was when he tipped out of the hole and was going to win [the Spirit] last year, and just rolled off into a run."

His outstanding performances continued this year at The Meadowlands when he won in 1:49.4 to equal the track record there.

"Right now, he's just as good as he was last year," Burke said. "The first couple starts we weren't really thrilled with, but he's really seemed to come back sharp now. His preparation week-to-week is pretty simple and he sticks to a fairly normal training schedule. He'll be ready for Sunday."

$300,000 GRADE 2 SPIRIT OF MASSACHUSETTS TROT

PP — Horse — Driver — Trainer

1. Lexus Kody — Tim Tetrick — Ron Burke — 3-1
2. Hey Porter — Brett Beckwith — Enrico Robinson — 7-1
3. A New Leader — Mitchell Cushing — Mitchell Cushing — 15-1
4. Antognoni S — Yannick Gingras — Ron Burke — 2-1
5. Security Protected — Cory Stratton — Cory Stratton — 7-1
6. Up Your Deo — Ake Svanstedt — Ake Svanstedt — 6-1
7. Aetos Kronos S — Dexter Dunn — Marcus Melander — 4-1

Burke is also bringing a pair of 4-year-old mares to start in the $150,000 Grade 3 Clara Barton Distaff Pace, which is the under-card feature to the Spirit of Massachusetts.

Rodeo Drive Deo was a seven-time winner at 3, including a victory in the Jugette, with a mark of 1:50 and earnings of $618,032 for her efforts. This year she started out fast, but ran into an issue that has since been cleared up.

"Rodeo Drive Deo wasn't good after she won her first start of the year in 1:49.4 at Pocono," Burke said. "She came back flat and we found a cyst in her throat and had a procedure done to have it removed. In her first start back after that [which was two starts ago] she was okay. But her last start she was really good, and she's ready to race now.

"That last start, starting from way outside made her non-competitive, but she finished strong on the end. After the race, Yannick [Gingras] pulled up and said 'Don't worry, she was good tonight. She's ready, I was just in an impossible spot.'

"Now for the first time in weeks, she drew inside, her throat's good, and I am really looking for a big performance out of her. I'm certain that cyst was affecting her performance and by the end of the year, she'll be right up with those top mares."

Champagne Room was a four-time winner in the Kentucky Sire Stakes last year and finished second in the final, but posted her 1:48.4 mark at Mohegan Sun Pocono before she went south. And her six total wins helped her bankroll ($221,992) in 2025 before the end of the year.

This year she started out strong with a 1:50.3 win at Harrah's Philly before going back to Kentucky for 4-year-old stakes at Oak Grove, and this will be only her second start against older mares.

"Champagne Room has been in and out," Burke said. "She started the year great and then she kind of got flat. Timmy [Tetrick] said after her last start, 'Don't worry, I was just in an impossible spot.' So, she's better than that line. In here she's looking to figure it out, get a check, and get her year going."

Odds On Mr Mamba, Al Papi victorious in Grade 1 Adios eliminations

by Hollywood Casino at The Meadows racing media

Odds On Mr Mamba and Al Papi will lead the field in Saturday's (July 25) $420,000 Grade 1 Delvin Miller Adios final, presented by 1ST/BET, at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows after they won their respective $25,000 eliminations for 3-year-old pacers on Saturday (July 18) afternoon.

Pepsi North America Cup champion Odds On Mr Mamba and driver James MacDonald won the first elimination on the front-end in 1:49.3. After showing speed from post 6, the supplemental entrant cleared filly Loua Dipa (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) and Frantic Hanover (Tim Tetrack) before the :26.1 quarter went on the board. From there, Odds On Mr Mamba kept command to the half in :54.4 and the three-quarters in 1:22.1 as Loua Dipa waited in the 2-hole until Wrenn, Jr. guided her to the outside on the final bend.

Loua Dipa was unable to make headway on the pace-setter after she pulled, though, and although Frantic Hanover had a better kick from the 3-hole, he couldn't get by Odds On Mr Mamba, who held sway to win by a neck in a 1:49.3 mile. Treacherous Lou (Doug McNair) closed well after an inside trip to get past Loua Dipa for third at odds of 75-1. They were followed by Another C Note (Yannick Gingras), who would make the final as the fifth-place finisher from the two eliminations with the higher lifetime earnings.

A gelding by Odds On Equuleus, Odds On Mr Mamba is trained by Melanie Wrenn for owner Odds On Racing of Boca Raton, FL. Bred by Odds On Nourrir, Odds On Mr Mamba has 11 wins and a third from 13 career starts, has earned $764,305 and paid $3.20 to win as the 3-5 favorite. He led a $19 exacta and a $199.20 trifecta.

Al Papi came up just a fifth-of-a-second short of his sire Papi Rob Hanover's track, stakes, and world record with a 1:47.2 triumph for Gingras in the second elimination.

No Waitlist (McNair), another supplemental entrant, shot through from post 1 to cut a crisp opening-half of :25.3 and :54.1, but Al Papi was flushed out of third just past the half by Sweet Lovin Lou (Scott Zeron). Once he was fed racetrack, Al Papi paced up to and around No Waitlist prior to the 1:20.3 three-quarters as Sweet Lovin Lou tracked Al Papi before he dropped into the pocket.

In the stretch Al Papi remained clear and his :26.4 final quarter slammed the door on a two-length victory. Melillo (Wrenn, Jr.), who got shuffled from the pocket after Al Papi took the lead, was able to move out to get by the tiring No Waitlist before he dropped back in on the far turn, then finished with interest to come in second over Sweet Lovin Lou. Toast Of The Town (MacDonald) was unable to keep up in the cover flow but did secure a berth in the final by finishing fourth.

Ron Burke, who will send out five horses in the final, sent out Al Papi for owners/breeders Burke Racing Stable LLC of Fredericktown, PA, J&T Silva- Purnel & Libby of Ocean Ridge, FL, Larry Karr of Randolph, NJ, and Weaver Brusceci LLC of Canonsburg, PA. From 19 lifetime tries, Al Papi has compiled a summary of 5-7-4, has banked $727,885 and returned $3.80 to win as the 4-5 favorite. He keyed a $6 exacta and a $14 trifecta.

Saturday's program at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows also had three Roy Davis Arden Downs divisions for 2-year-old male pacers that were won by:

- Atomix Hanover (by Stay Hungry and bred by Hanover Shoe Farms Inc., paid $3 to win) in 1:51.4 for driver MacDonald, trainer Tim Twaddle and owners Thestable Atomix Hanover and Hutchison Harness LLC., both from Ohio;
- Eastie Boy (by Sweet Lou and bred by owners Burke Racing Stable LLC, Weaver Brusceci LLC, and Phil Collura, all from Pennsylvania, paid $3.40 to win) in 1:52.2 for driver Wrenn Jr. and trainer Burke;

- Loud Luxury (by Captaintreacherous and bred by 1876472 Ontario Inc. and Princeton Farms Inc., paid $9.40 to win) in 1:55.2 for driver Tetrick, trainer Burke and owners Burke Racing Stable LLC, Libby And Purnel, Knox Services Inc., and Frank Baldachino from Pennsylvania, Florida, Ohio, and New Jersey.

Post time for next Saturday's program, led by the 60th edition of the Delvin Miller Adios, will be 11:30 a.m. (EDT). Presented by 1/ST BET, the Adios will serve as the centerpiece of three hours of live race-day coverage. The day will begin with two hours of content across Primetime Racing's (primetimeharnessracing.com) social media platforms from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. before transitioning to a live national, one-hour cable telecast on CBS Sports Network at 5 p.m.

The Adios Day program will also feature a stakes-filled undercard, highlighted by the Mickey Burke, Sr. Adioo Volo, the companion event to the Adios, which attracts many of the nation's top 3-year-old pacing fillies.

Al Papi (Yannick Gingras) won the second Adios elimination in 1:47.2.

Fragment romps in NYSS leg at Tioga

by John Horne for Tioga Downs

Fragment (Jason Bartlett) captured the $123,900 leg of New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) for sophomore colt and gelding pacers at Tioga Downs on Saturday (July 18).

Knoxville (Tyler Buter) was first to the quarter in :27.4, but Fragment ($2.24) wasted no time taking over the lead with a lap to go and led to the half in :55.4.

He cruised to three quarters in 1:23.2, but as they reached the stretch Fragment found another gear and left second place finisher Knoxville and third place finisher Fearless Partners (Colin Kelly) in his dust.

Fragment stopped the clock in a lifetime best of 1:49.3.

Fragment is a 3-year-old colt by Huntsville and is trained by Per Engblom for owners Douglass Sipple, Peacefull Acre Farm, and Engblom Farm LLC. It was his third win this season and his 12th career victory.

Tioga also hosted three $20,000 divisions of the New York Excelsior Series for sophomore male pacers.

Fred Brown

Fragment (Jason Bartlett) winning the New York Sire Stakes event for sophomore pacing colts on Saturday at Tioga Downs.

The first Excelsior Series division was won by Deborah Daguet trainee Aries Blue Chip ($2.80) driven by Jason Bartlett in 1:50.3 over Twin B Manhunt and American Pastime. Cooperstown Boy ($3.88) took the second Excelsior Series tilt for trainer Jared Bako with Colin Kelly at the controls in 1:51.4 over Wish You The Best and Lighten Up Francis, while Johnny Wiggles ($5.14) took the third for the combination of Bako and Bartlett in 1:51.2 over Casper The Ghost and Hard To Forget.

Bartlett had a driving hat trick and Dan Daley had a driving-training double. Kelly and Leon Bailey had driving doubles, while Bako had a training double.

Tioga Downs returns to live racing today (July 19) starting at 12:30 p.m.

Indiana SIRE STAKES REPORT

Aces And Cinches wins showdown in INSS

by Connor Mahoney / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Aces And Cinches driven by Kyle Wilfong for trainer Ron Burke won a nail bitter down the stretch in the fifth leg of the $94,000 Indiana Sires Stakes for 3-year-old colt and gelding pacers at Hoosier on Friday (July 17).

Looking to go back-to-back in INSS, Aces And Cinches cruised out of post 5 settling into his spot along the rail into fourth. Meanwhile, Swiss Light (Trace Tetrack) fended off Dancingdreamer (Marcus Miller) for an early lead at the turn in :26. On the backstretch, the six-horse field remained unchanged with Dancingdreamer, Door Dash (Kevin Lambricht), and Aces And Cinches on the case for challenging the leader as Swiss Light blazed past the halfway mark in :53.3.

Aces And Cinches led the charge along the exterior side-by-side with Dancingdreamer beginning his first-over charge. Swiss Lights continued his onslaught through the three-quarters in 1:21.2. Swiss Lights stayed strong down the stretch fighting off Aces And Cinches on his right and Dancingdreamer to his left. Looking to have the race wrapped up, Aces And Cinches found a second wind blowing past the leader right at the wire by a half-length in 1:48.2. Swiss Lights fell to second, while Door Dash charged late for third.

Aces And Cinches stayed hot, winning his second INSS contest of the season, boosting his lifetime earnings to $140,400. Bred out of Alpine Stables, The Odds On Equuleus colt is owned by Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brussemi LLC, Frank Baldachino, and Michael Rosenthal. The post time favorite, Aces And Cinches, paid $3.20 to win.

DAND MAN CAN STAYS UNDEFEATED, JORDAN ROSS JOINS 1,000-WIN CLUB AT HOOSIER

Persevering down the stretch, Dan D Man Can, driven by Atlee Bender for trainer Erv Miller, continued his perfect start to 2026 winning the fourth leg of the $95,500 Indiana Sires Stakes for 3-year-old colt trotters at Hoosier on Thursday (June 16).

On the outside from post 7, Dan D Man Can was put to work early powering towards the front, but not before Swan Affect (Marcus Miller) took the field of seven to the quarter in :27. Dan D Man Can trotted around Swan Affect before the backstretch before he passed the halfway pole in :56.1 tightly followed by Swan Affect and Bravo Alpha (LeWayne Miller). Premier Bluebird (Kyle Wilfong) soared from fourth going side by side with Swan Affect for second moving into the final turn. Dan D Man Can held firm to the three-quarters in 1:25.2 nearing the stretch. The rest of the field would not go down without a fight converging on Dan D Man Can. Leading the pack, Dan D Man Can battled off all the threats to reach the wire first in 1:53.1, three-parts-of-a-length clear. Swan Affect held on for second, while Inverness Ave (John De Long) rallied for the show along the cones.

Now six-for-six at 3, Dan D Man Can is owned by Red Barn Stable, StepbyStep Racing, and Lava Java Stable. The post-time favorite boosted his lifetime earnings to $291,715, paying $3.40 to win. The Dover Dan gelding was bred by Homestead Acres.

Earlier in the card, driver Jordan Ross recorded his 1,000th career driving win accomplishing this milestone with Tipsy In Vegas for trainer Missy Essig.

From post 1, Tipsy In Vegas rocketed on the rail forcing Ponda Avenue (Marcus Miller) to take the long way hitting the first turn in :28.3. Tipsy In Vegas and Ross reclaimed the lead passing the halfway mark in 1:00. Tipsy In Vegas would cruise for the rest of the mile knocking down the three-quarter pole in 1:29.4. Not slowing up down the stretch Tipsy In Vegas notched Ross' 1,000th career win in 1:57.1.

Ross began racing in the Indiana Sired Fair Circuit with his first pari-mutuel win coming in 2016 with Bolt For Home for trainer Robert Taylor at Converse. Becoming a more frequent driver at Hoosier Park in 2017, Ross would often partner up with Taylor for his races at Hoosier during that time. Today, Ross has secured himself as one of the top drivers at Hoosier Park totaling 109 wins so far this season.

In his career, Ross has totaled over $11 million in career earnings on over 8,000 starts. Ross is currently fourth in driver wins at Hoosier this season. Likewise, Ross has consistently been piloting Indiana Sires Stakes horses and represented the United States in the 2023 World Driving Championship.

New Jersey SIRE STAKES REPORT

Aintmyfirstro Deo, Perfect Body win NJSS dashes at Big M

by Dave Little / Meadowlands media relations

Aintmyfirstro Deo and Perfect Body emerged victorious at The Meadowlands Friday night (July 17) when the mile oval carded 10 second leg New Jersey Sire Stakes events for 2-year-olds of each sex and gait on the 15-race pari-mutuel program.

Platinum division races went for a purse of $25,000, while Silver splits were contested for $10,000.

In race 3, a colt and gelding Platinum division pace, the Megan Scran-trained Aintmyfirstro Deo, off a sparkling front-end 1:54.1 score in his pari-mutuel debut, won again, but used a far different tactic to get the job done.

Sitting fifth in the field of six to the three-quarter-mile mark, driver Scott Zeron called on the gelded son of Perfect Sting—Some Renditions for late pace when they reached the top of the lane, and he responded in a big way, using a stretch-length rally to record a safe neck victory over Velvet Ditch in a lifetime-best 1:52.3.

“He’s a nice horse; Megan has done a nice job with him,” said Zeron speaking of his horse, as well as his significant other. “[He was gelded because] he was not easy to break. He would lay down on the track and not get up. It’s interesting when you drive a baby. Last week [with this horse] I took control [on the front] too early [but we won anyway]. This week, I was lucky enough I was still in striking distance when we turned for home.” As the 3-5 favorite, Aintmyfirstro Deo returned $3.20 to his backers.

Perfect Body didn’t pace a straight line in the stretch, but didn’t need to while taking a Platinum division for filly pacers in race 5.

The Chris Choate trainee worked her way into a second-over trip after the half-mile marker, tipped off that cover shortly after the field straightened up into the stretch, and despite bearing out for the final eighth-of-a-mile, had more than enough pace to record a three-quarter-length score over 9-5 favorite Sterl The Pearl in 1:51.4.

“She seems like she’s pretty nice,” said winning driver Brett Beckwith. “She’ll figure out [how to stay straight] as she goes. We’ll see how it shakes out. It’s tough. If it was me, I would let her figure it out as she goes, but, it’s up to Chris, obviously.”

Perfect Body, a daughter of Perfect Sting—Sweet Body, returned $12 to win as the 5-1 third choice in the wagering.

Perfect Body (Brett Beckwith) winning the NJSS Platinum event for 2-year-old pacing fillies.

The other eight NJSS contests on the betting program were taken by the following horses:

- Race 1 – Platinum division, filly trot: Wall Of Fame (Walner–Saadet), Andy Miller was the driver, trained by Julie Miller, winning time 1:52, paid $2.80 as the 2-5 favorite.
- Race 4 – Silver division, filly pace: Soap In My Eyes (Perfect Sting–Seadog Lady), Dexter Dunn, Tony Beaton, 1:53.3, $8.60 as the 3-1 second choice.
- Race 7 – Silver division, colt and gelding trot: Delta (Tactical Landing–Bayou), Dunn, Marcus Melander, 1:55, $6.80 as the 2-1 third choice.
- Race 8 – Platinum division, filly trot: Grandiflora (Muscle Hill–Floribunda S), Todd McCarthy, Noel Daley, 1:52.3, $7.60 as the 5-2 second choice.
- Race 9 – Silver division, colt and gelding trot: Maxman (Walner–Lovely Lindy), Tim Tetrick, Linda Toscano, 1:56, $37.80 as the 17-1 fifth choice.
- Race 11 – Silver division, filly trot: Turtle Dove (Walner–When Dovescry), Dunn, Melander, 1:56.1, $2.60 as the 1-5 favorite.

• Race 12 – Silver division, filly trot: Whoopedoo Hanover (Six Pack–Woohoo Hanover), Yannick Gingras, Blake MacIntosh, 1:55.4, $22.80 as the 10-1 fourth choice.

• Race 13 – Platinum division, colt and gelding trot: Lifetime Dreamer (Ecurie D DK–Lifetime Gift), Gingras, Ake Svanstedt, 1:52.4, $4.40 as the 6-5 second choice.

Before the pari-mutuel card began, there were a pair of NJSS dashes contested as non-betting events. Those winners were:

• NB1 – Silver division, colt and gelding pace: Jerzy George (Lazarus N–Holy Trinity), Andy McCarthy, Chris Freck, 1:54.1.

• NB2 – Platinum division, colt and gelding trot: Wrong Sounds Right (Tactical Landing–Broadway Jo Ell), Todd McCarthy, Jim Campbell, 1:54.2.

A LITTLE MORE: Gingras and Dunn led the driver colony with three wins apiece... Todd McCarthy won twice on the betting card as well as one non-bettor... Melander and Svanstedt topped the trainers with a pair of walks down victory lane each... Track announcer Ken Warkentin treated his fans to a big night at the windows, giving out seven winners... All-source handle on the 15-race card totaled $2,479,094.

Frosh trotters celebrate with Party At Seven at Cumberland

by Chris Tully for First Tracks Cumberland

Two $15,000-plus divisions of the Maine Sire Stakes for 2-year-old trotters were featured on Friday's (July 17) 13-race card at Cumberland Raceway that also saw heavy favorite Party At Seven make quick work of a $6,400 overnight race.

Young trotters making their debut in the Maine Sire Stakes kicked off the day, with the first $14,000 division slated as an early non-wagering race. That 2-year-old filly trot was captured by Princess Caledonia in 2:09.4. The daughter of To The Hilt is trained, driven, and co-owned by Gary Hall with partners James Kelley Jr., Betsey Kelley, and Kristina Hall. She was bred in Maine by Anita Anastosopolous.

Mikella Bella (Heath Campbell) finished second; Cape Cod Friday (Dave Ingraham) was third.

The second $15,210 division for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings belonged to U Know I Know and Kenneth Watson who steered the son of Whataworkout to a two-length victory in 2:07.3. Owned and bred by Barbara Lawson, he returned $8 for trainer Lisa Watson.

Come On Charlie (Mark Athearn) was parked the entire first half and finished second; Race Me Bruno (Wally Watson) was third.

For all of these youngsters, it was their first lifetime purse starts.

When the wings folded for the seventh race NW5000 trot, Party At Seven (4-5, Nick Graffam) ducked in the 2-hole as TCS Brenda (9-2, Dave Ingraham) blasted out for an early lead. Less than two furlongs had elapsed when Graffam tipped the public's choice out to take command into a :28.3 opening panel.

Under single file alignment the field breezed past the half in :58.3 with Party At Seven leading the charge, TCS Brenda in a loose pocket second, and Brutalizer (7-2, Andy Harrington) trotting in third. With Party At Seven on top by three heading down the backstretch the final time, Harrington pulled the right line on Brutalizer to improve his position. They hit the third station in 1:27.4 and round the turn for home with Brutalizer still parked, but now second.

Party At Seven had all but decided the race at the head of the stretch while on top by four, and looking for more. However, the battle was still raging on for second with TCS Brenda on the inside and fighting back against the ongoing attack of Brutalizer. At the finish line Party At Seven tripped the timer in 1:57.2, just one tick off the track record for an older gelding trotter.

Trained by Michelle Lefebvre for owner Ralph Silvestri, the 6-year-old son of Chapter Seven returned $2.80 for the 6½ length triumph. He was bred by Spring Haven Farm and now has 12 wins lifetime, with six coming this season, while increasing his lifetime earnings to $118,880.

TCS Brenda tussled back to retake second; Brutalizer was third.

Graffam led all drivers on the program with three trips to the winner's circle.

HARNESS RACING PRESS RELEASES, NOTES & ANNOUNCEMENTS

Governor Hochul signs critically important legislation for New York state-bred standardbred horses

New York Governor Kathy Hochul on Friday (July 17) signed into law critically important legislation (A9234B/S9183) that addresses a serious issue that has been facing the state's standardbred breeding industry as a result of the implementation of previous legislation to allow shipped semen. This newly-approved bill clarifies NY Sire Stakes eligibility and provides that all foals, by registered New York Sires, are eligible to compete in the New York Sire Stakes program, regardless of conception location. It further maintains the ability to provide lucrative Breeders Awards for those NY-sired offspring out of mares that resided in the state of New York for 180 consecutive days in the year of conception. This legislation provided much needed clarification and basis for all NY Sire Stakes participants, at all levels, to continue to grow New York's standardbred breeding and racing industry and allow competitive equalization with other state racing programs.

The state's standardbred breeding and racing industries celebrated today's signing and thanked both the Governor and the bill's legislative sponsors, NYS Assembly racing chair Carrie Woerner and NYS Senate racing chair Joseph Addabbo, Jr., for making this important clarification.

Tom Grossman of Blue Chip Farms said, "Our industry is incredibly grateful to Governor Hochul for recognizing the importance of clarifying this issue for breeders across the state and we owe a huge debt of gratitude to Assembly Member Woerner and Senator Addabbo for recognizing the importance of this legislation; for shepherding it through both legislative houses nearly unanimously; and for their continued advocacy in ensuring that it was signed into law. This is a true game-changer for New York breeding and agriculture."

New York State Assembly racing & wagering chair Carrie Woerner said, "This legislation provides certainty for breeders, owners, and investors by guaranteeing eligibility for all horses sired by New York stallions, creating a stronger foundation for the future of our state's standardbred industry. By encouraging investment in New York breeding operations, supporting agricultural jobs, and making our program more competitive with other leading racing states, we're ensuring New York remains a national leader in harness racing."

NYS Senate racing, gaming & wagering committee chair Joseph P. Addabbo, Jr. said, "New York's harness racing and breeding industry is a vital part of our state's agricultural economy, creating jobs and preserving an important tradition beneficial to many communities. This legislation provides clarity for breeders, owners, and horsemen by ensuring that all foals sired by registered New York stallions remain eligible for the New York Sire Stakes program, regardless of where conception occurs, while continuing to reward those who invest in and support New York's breeding industry. I'm grateful to have advanced this bill with Assemblywoman Woerner and I appreciate the Governor's support of this legislation to strengthen New York's standardbred industry and provide breeders and farms the security needed to invest in our state's future."

Joseph Faraldo, president of the Standardbred Owners Association of New York said, "We are incredibly grateful to Governor Hochul for her leadership in signing this bill, which provides the clarity our industry has urgently needed. This legislation is a game changer that allows New York to remain the premier destination for standardbred racing and breeding. We also owe a debt of gratitude to Assembly Member Carrie Woerner and Senator Joseph Addabbo, Jr. for their unwavering advocacy and for recognizing the vital role our industry plays in New York's agricultural economy."

David Reid, owner of Preferred Equine Marketing and co-manager of the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale said, "This legislation is a monumental win for New York breeders. By clarifying Sire Stakes eligibility regardless of where a foal is conceived, Governor Hochul and our legislative champions have provided the stability we need to keep investing in our state's agricultural future."

Don Hawk, owner of Mill Creek Farms said, "For an operation like ours, certainty is everything. This clarification in this legislation allows us to plan our breeding seasons with confidence, knowing that the rules are clear and the opportunities for New York-sired horses are better than ever. We owe a huge thank you to Assembly Member Woerner and Senator Addabbo. Their advocacy on behalf of the standardbred industry has secured a stronger foundation for everyone from small farm owners to major boarding operations across the state. Collaborating with the standardbred industry leaders who worked diligently on this matter has been a true honor."

Oak Grove 2026 meet wraps record-breaking year with handle growth

Oak Grove Racing, Gaming & Hotel wrapped its sixth year hosting live harness racing this past week, which proved to be the greatest season yet for the southwest Kentucky track with continued handle gains year over year as well as a successful foray onto the Grand Circuit with the inaugural running of the $500,000 Oak Grove Trotting Derby as well as the $300,000 Oak Grove Trotting Oaks.

The introduction of the Oak Grove Trotting Derby and Oaks, which were held alongside a rich day of racing on Preakness Saturday (May 16), added buzz and anticipation for racing at Oak Grove coming into 2026, which has already been building as more and more owners, horsepeople and gamblers have been drawn to the ever-improving harness racing product out of southwest Kentucky. These marquee races for Oak Grove – the latest stepping stone towards harness racing's classic events in the Hambletonian and Hambletonian Oaks – provided year-defining performances by Oaks winner Jailbird Jog and Derby winner Spencer Hanover as well as Derby runner-up Endurance, and their performances have bolstered their champion profiles to add depth to the body of the sport's top trotting prospects on the approach to the career-defining races in the Hambletonian and Hambletonian Oaks.

With the quality of racing both in overnights and stakes improving at Oak Grove year over year, the bettors have also responded with their dollars to help the track once again grow in wagering handle. Gamblers pushed nearly $13 million through the windows on Oak Grove action in 2026, a 13 per cent increase from 2025's gross handle. And for the third year in a row, Oak Grove broke its single-day handle record on the Monday following the Kentucky Derby, but because bettors showed such high interest in Oak Grove racing on that day, the track responded by building a robust card that included the eliminations for the inaugural Oak Grove Trotting Derby and Oaks. The bettors responded to the loaded card of stakes racing with the sport's best horses, drivers, and trainers in competition by pushing a record $873,180 through the windows, crushing the previous single-day handle record by 50 per cent. Oak Grove's growth in the harness racing sphere has remained constant, with handle increasing at the track every single year since its opening in 2020.

Adding to the record-breaking season, Oak Grove literally broke records on the track with a total of 12 track records set through the 2026 season. Track records started to fall on the May 4th card of racing when Naked And Famous scorched the track to win her elimination for the Oak Grove Trotting Oaks in 1:51.2, besting a nearly two-year-old track record for sophomore trotting fillies. From there, 11 other track records were either equaled or lowered on the revamped Oak Grove surface including the all-age marks on the pace and trot with Whiskey Wow trotting the fastest mile ever over the track with a 1:50.3 win in a Kentucky Sire Stakes event on May 25th and Sea Bistro Hanover pacing a 1:48 mile on closing day to win his Kentucky Sire Stakes final for 3-year-old males as well as to match the record set by Admiral Hill as a 4-year-old in 2024.

Oak Grove will carry this momentum into 2027 with the second edition of the Oak Grove Trotting Derby and Oaks, and with every season will provide a high-quality racing product for gamblers as well as owners, breeders, and trainers to help create lucrative opportunities for industry participants competing inside of the horse racing capital of the world, Kentucky.

Friday's OSS Gold and Grassroots events rescheduled to Sunday

The Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) events originally scheduled for Friday (July 17) at Woodbine Mohawk Park have been rescheduled after poor air quality forced the cancellation of the entire Friday night card at the Milton, ON track.

The $150,000 OSS Gold Series Leg 3 event for 3-year-old trotting colts has been rescheduled to Sunday (July 19) as race 12. All post positions remain the same as originally drawn.

The three $30,000 OSS Grassroots divisions for 2-year-old pacing colts have been moved to Monday (July 20). Friday's race 3 will be contested as Monday's race 11. Friday's race 7 will be contested as Monday's race 12. Friday's race 10 will be contested as Monday's race 13. All post positions remain the same as originally drawn.

Twin B Joe Fresh looks razor sharp heading into the Clara Barton at Plainridge

Twin B Joe Fresh has been racing at the highest levels of competition in North America since 2022 and has posted gaudy numbers throughout a career that finds her as formidable now as she has ever been. And after winning her third straight Dorothy Haughton Memorial at The Meadowlands in a season's best clocking of 1:48.4 last week, she will be heading to Plainridge Park to compete in the $150,000 Grade 3 Clara Barton Distaff Pace this afternoon (July 19).

From the start of her 2-year-old season through the end of last year, Twin B Joe Fresh had the natural ability and good fortune to win 36 races in 49 starts, earn over $2.8 million, and receive four Dan Patch Awards, including Horse of the Year in 2024. But in November of 2025, the year she was named Older Pacing Mare of the Year, she had to deal with a major obstacle. Twin B Joe Fresh had surgery to repair a hairline fracture of her left front cannon bone.

The surgery went well and her prognosis for full recovery was excellent. And as any real champion is prone to do, Twin B Joe Fresh rose to the challenge and succeeded.

After six months off, Twin B Joe Fresh made her return to the racetrack by qualifying twice at The Meadowlands. She finished third in the first one and won the second by 3¾ lengths in 1:51.1.

Her first engagement of the year was the Roses Are Red Stake at Woodbine Mohawk Park, where things didn't go that well, according to her co-owner/trainer Chris Ryder.

"The first start back, she tied up," Ryder said. "Like really bad. And then she had a bit of a problem with her foot through the week and she just didn't race any good. She always has an issue with her foot and most times we feel we have it right, but sometimes it's not."

After a short two-week break, she made her next start in an overnight at Harrah's Philly where things turned around and put her on a big-time roll.

She won Harrah's open in 1:48.4, then came back to finish second by only a neck to her stablemate Miki And Minnie in the Perfect Sting in 1:48. Then in her most recent outing, she won the earlier mentioned Haughton Memorial in a gutsy stretch drive where she held off Unreasonable and Miki And Minnie to win in 1:48.4.

Those three starts posted notice that Twin B Joe Fresh was back.

"Obviously the last few weeks, those two or three starts she's back to herself," Ryder said. "She's probably as good as she can be. Her routine is the same this year as in the past, everything is the same. We don't want to change anything, It's pretty standard, she just jogs and trains and we look after her. But she's back."

This week in the Barton, Twin B Joe Fresh won't see Miki And Minnie at Plainridge, however she will face Unreasonable, Talk Curdy To Me, and Rodeo Drive Deo from last week, who all paced home in :25 and change and finished within four lengths of the winner last week despite their various trips. However, like most weeks, Twin B Joe Fresh looks like the one to beat again today and to her trainer, she looks like she's ready for the challenge.

"She's fine this week," Ryder said. "I like it when you get them racing every week and we can be easy on her through the week. I think she gets a bit more comfortable racing that way when you get a couple starts in a row, then you don't need to do too much work with her at home."

So far this year, Twin B Joe Fresh has added $128,266 to her purse totals meaning she is only $9,255 from eclipsing the $3 million dollar plateau in lifetime earnings, which would add another accomplishment to the career of this generational pacing queen.

The Clara Barton Distaff Pace is programmed as the seventh race today with an estimated post time of 4 p.m. and the Spirit of Massachusetts trot will follow in race eight with an estimated post time of 4:20 p.m.

Post time for the first race is 2 p.m.

Carryover and guaranteed pool in Monday's early Pick-4 at Yonkers

After a two-day hiatus due to cancelations caused by poor air quality, racing returned to MGM Yonkers Raceway on Friday (July 17). On the program, the early Pick-4 sequence was not hit, leading to a $4,943.22 carryover and a $30,000 guaranteed pool in the wager on Monday (July 20).

Monday night's program also includes the traditional $10,000 guaranteed pool in the Pick-5.

The guarantees in the early Pick-4 and Pick-5 are being offered as part of the United States Trotting Association's Strategic Wagering Program, and free past performances, courtesy of TrackMaster, will be available at handicapping.ustrotting.com.

Both the early Pick-4, which gets underway in race 1, and Pick-5, which begins in race 5, have a $1 minimum and a takeout rate of 20 per cent.

MGM Yonkers Raceway is operating on a Monday through Friday live racing schedule with post time each night at 6:45 p.m. (EDT).

Record wager highlights historic night at Summerside Raceway

A new all-time wagering record was established Friday evening (July 17) during the 150th anniversary season of harness racing in Summerside as Windemere Skye remained undefeated and Buckhead Ridge rewrote the track record book at Red Shores at the Summerside Raceway.

The 15-dash program generated $219,019 in wagering; the largest single-card handle in the history of racing in Summerside. The historic program also saw a reunion of previous announcers at the historic oval with each calling a race on the card.

Windemere Skye ($2.10) extended her perfect career record to 17-straight victories in the second $19,100 P.E.I. Colt Stakes Gold division for 3-year-old pacing fillies in race 13.

Marc Campbell sent the Earl Watts trainee directly to the front from post 2 and controlled fractions of :28.4, :58.4, and 1:28 before closing the mile in :28 seconds to win by three lengths in 1:56. Elm Grove Uncannie (driven by Ken Murphy) finished second while Going For Blood (Kenny Arsenault) completed the triactor.

Windemere Skye, a daughter of Somewhere Fancy, is owned by Windemere Farms of Springvale and Matt Burke of Stratford.

Beach Jewels ($15.20) captured the other eventful $19,100 P.E.I. Colt Stakes Gold division in race 10 for driver Corey MacPherson and trainer Kevin MacLean.

The daughter of Arthur Blue Chip tracked the leaders before capitalizing on breaking horses and pacing home in 28.3 to win by a neck in 1:57. Mysterious Ways (Adam Merner) finished second with Mattnificent Rose (Ken Murphy) third. Beach Jewels is owned by Reg MacPherson of Stratford.

Buckhead Ridge ($2.50) demolished the Summerside Raceway trotting records with a 1:55.3 victory in the $8,000 Andrew Perry Memorial Trot in race 8. Campbell guided the Landon Campbell trainee to stop the clock in 1:55.3 to lower the previous all-age track trotting record of 1:57.1 set by Bless Me Father in 2025. Fight Song (Jason Hughes) finished second with Flemsteen (Ken Murphy) third.

The 6-year-old son of Nuncio is owned by Brady Doyle of Stratford.

Trumps Girl ($2.50) was dominant in the $9,000 Ruby Chappell Memorial open mares consolation in race 9. Marc Campbell placed the David O'Brien trainee on the front and never looked back, winning by four lengths in 1:53.4 for owner Tommy Collings of Mount Stewart. Tobins Brownie (Adam Merner) finished second while Sensational Gal (Gilles Barrieau) was third.

The six $9,550 P.E.I. Colt Stakes Grassroots divisions for sophomore fillies were won by Isle Mach Da Money ($4) in 1:55.4 for trainer/driver Gilles Barrieau, Redland Precious ($13) in 1:57 for driver Brodie MacPhee and trainer Tom Weatherbie, Lila Berry ($3) in 1:57 for Marc Campbell and trainer Mike McGuigan, Into The Maelstrom ($30.60) in 1:58.1 for Murphy and trainer Clifford Murphy, Electraflyng ($7.50) in 1:57.3 for trainer/driver Darryl MacLean, and Stormys Hush Money ($12.70) in 1:59 for Marc Campbell and trainer Donald Milligan.

Campbell led all drivers on the record-setting program with five victories.

Vernon to host stakes packed card featuring Zweig Memorial on Sunday

Vernon Downs will play host to a jammed packed full stakes card featuring the Grade 2 Dr. Harry M. Zweig Memorial Open Trot and Fillies Trot for 3-year-olds. There will be over $837,000 in prize money on Sunday over 14 races.

Trainer Marcus Melander will send three horses to the starting gate in the $300,000 Dr. Harry M. Zweig Memorial Open Trot. American Power (James MacDonald) a 3-year-old colt by Walner has three wins in five starts this season including a second in the Stanley Dancer last weekend. Nix Nacken (Dexter Dunn) has a win, a second, and two thirds this season. The 3-year-old gelding by Muscle Hill has won over $230,000 in his career. His third horse is Neighver Punt (Scott Zeron), a 3-year-old colt by Bar Hopping. He has two wins this season and three career victories.

Trainer Ake Svanstedt is sending Dexter Cup winner Magic Punk (Yannick Gingras) to the party. He has three wins and a second this season in just four starts and is expected to be a strong contender. MGM Yonkers Trot runner-up Kingmen (Jason Bartlett) gives trainer Per Engblom a real chance. The 3-year-old colt by Walner has won over $200,000 in his career. Diabolic Hill (Todd McCarthy) is winless as a sophomore but the 3-year-old colt by Muscle Hill has accumulated over $570,000 in his career. He is trained by Anne Stoebe.

Captain Jordan (Captain Corey), Practical Man (Tactical Landing), and Highball Hanover (Bar Hopping) round out the nine-horse field.

In the $139,000 Zweig Fillies Trot features a pair of fillies from trainer Ake Svanstedt. He sends seven-time winner Busy Miss Lissy S (Svanstedt) and five-time winner All Time Trot S (Yannick Gingras). Marcus Melander trained Setyoursightshigh (Dexter Dunn) and Ygritte (Mattias Melander). Setyoursightshigh (In Range) has won eight times in her career and has won over $729,000 in prize money so far. Ygritte (Gimpanzee) has won five of six starts this season. Trainer Nancy Takter sends two fillies to the race as well. Madam Cheval (Tim Tetrick) is a filly by Walner. She has three wins in five starts this season. Leading Lady (Matt Kakaley) by Walner is a four-time winner.

R Perfect Goo (Googoo Gaagaa), Royal Patti (Walner), and Cash Out Express (International Moni) round out the nine-horse field.

New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) for 2-year-old colts and geldings as well as 2-year-old fillies will each have two divisions racing. There will also be eight NY Excelsior Series races for 2-year-olds of both sexes on the card.

The 14-race card starts at 6:05 p.m.

Saturday's OSS events at Woodbine Mohawk Park and Hiawatha Horse Park rescheduled

The Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) events originally scheduled for Saturday (July 18) at Woodbine Mohawk Park and Hiawatha Horse Park, have been rescheduled after poor air quality forced the cancelation of racing.

The two $100,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold leg 2 divisions for 2-year-old pacing colts at Woodbine Mohawk Park have been rescheduled as non-wagering events prior to the start today's (July 19) card. Saturday's race 7 will go postward at 5 p.m. tonight. Saturday's race 10 will go postward at 5:20 p.m. tonight. All post positions remain the same as originally drawn.

Today's regular card of racing at Woodbine Mohawk Park will also feature:

- The two $100,000 Gold Series leg 2 races for 2-year-old pacing fillies as originally scheduled (races 2 and 7)
- The four $30,000 Grassroots Series leg 2 races for 2-year-old pacing fillies as originally scheduled (races 1, 5, 8, 10)
- The $150,000 Gold Series leg 3 event for 3-year-old trotting colts (race 12) moved to today's card after the Friday (July 17) Woodbine Mohawk Park card was canceled. All post positions remain the same as originally drawn.

Saturday's OSS events at Hiawatha Horse Park – the Grassroots leg 3 and Prospect Series leg 3A, both for 3-year-old pacing colts – have both been rescheduled for Saturday (July 25) at Hiawatha. All post positions remain the same as originally drawn.
