It was the third win by the Burke Brigade in their hometown race.

by Greg Reinhart

Al Papi led a sweep of the exacta for trainer Ron Burke in the Grade 1 $420,500 Delvin Miller Adios, presented by 1ST/BET, for 3-year-old male pacers on Saturday afternoon (July 25) at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows. Driven by Yannick Gingras in the 60th edition of the Delvin Miller Adios, Al Papi won on the front-end in 1:48.1, defeating stablemate Melillo.

Starting from post 4, off a 1:47.2 win in his elimination a week ago, Al Papi blasted out and cleared another Burke Brigade member in Frantic Hanover (Tim Tetrick) well before the :26.3 quarter. Pepsi North America Cup champion Odds On Mr Mamba (James MacDonald) lined up third, followed by Burke-trained Melillo (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.), who was able to slide down from post 9.

At the half-mile marker, which was posted in :54.2, Al Papi was still on top, but behind him a two-wide Sweet Lovin

Lou (Scott Zeron) was trying to flush Melillo, who in turn was trying to get Odds On Mr Mamba to pull, which he did past that station. Al Papi was strong on the front-end, though, and Odds On Mr Mamba was only able to advance up to Gingras' wheel as they raced on the backstretch for the final time.

It looked like Al Papi was heading for a romping win heading to three-quarters in 1:20.2 as he got separation on Odds On Mr Mamba and Frantic Hanover in the pocket, but he got rough-gaited for a bit on the final turn, which allowed the competition to get back into the race. Despite losing his momentum, Al Papi responded when asked by Gingras and wouldn't let anybody go by, defeating the rallying Melillo by a head. Odds On Mr Mamba was a game third off the uncovered trip, followed by Frantic Hanover and Sweet Lovin Lou.

"In the middle of the last turn, honestly, I thought I was going to win by 10 lengths," Gingras said. "That's how he felt. He was so strong and I had the plugs in. I was still just letting him rock, and he just got a little bumpy on me for a couple of strides. Once he gathered himself up, I couldn't get him going again. He just kind of lost his focus. Thankfully, we still came out on top."

This was the third win in the Delvin Miller Adios for both Gingras and Burke, but the first time they had teamed up to capture it.

"I've won it a few times, but never for the Burke Brigade," Gingras said. "I know this race means the world to the Burke Brigade, so it's probably the most special one."

A Papi Rob Hanover—Baron Remy colt, Al Papi is a homebred for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC. of Fredericktown, PA, J&T Silva- Purnel & Libby of Ocean Ridge, FL, Larry Karr of Boca Raton, FL, and Weaver Bruscelli LLC of Canonsburg, PA. Al Papi has compiled a summary of 6-7-4 from 20 starts, has earned $938,135 and paid $3.80 to win as the 4-5 favorite. He led a $19.60 exacta and a $75.80 trifecta.

"Every time it's even better than the last time," said Burke, who sent out five horses in the Delvin Miller Adios final for the second straight year. "Being 1-2 is something my dad had done before. I'm proud to try to imitate things he had done. We're very happy. The horses raced great and Yannick drove a great race."

"Once we got everybody seated and we had one parked on the outside, I was pretty sure we were in the right spots to get where we wanted. Then on the last turn it got a little bunched up and I was like 'uh oh, this could be trouble.' My horses were surging at the wire, so I was happy. I thought they hung on, but you hate to come over here and find out you were second."

Testimony continues in Richard Moreau appeal hearing

by Melissa Keith

"His life is hanging in the balance."

These were the words of witness Ken Middleton, spoken on Wednesday (July 22) at the Ontario Horse Racing Appeal Panel (HRAP) hearing of suspended trainer Richard Moreau. The Woodbine Mohawk Park announcer, injured in a June 2023 training accident, said that he was at times searching for the right words in providing testimony.

On July 17, Moreau's former employee Justin Turcotte answered questions concerning the trainer's farm and Funtime Bayama, the horse at the center of the appeal. Turcotte told Counsel for the Appellant Robert MacKenzie that he had worked for Moreau "off and on 20 years... probably six to eight years consecutive up until all of this had happened" in 2024.

Turcotte said the property was secure, with a passcode-protected gate and multiple security cameras installed after a truck was stolen. He said horses received top-notch care and among caretakers and assistant trainers who worked for Moreau, "everybody loved it, like, nobody quit... It was family... That's hard to find, especially in this industry."

When MacKenzie asked about medications, Turcotte replied, "I've never seen anybody so strict about medication in my life."

Veterinary care from Dr. Christoph Grossenbacher was limited to essentials: "I use Chris myself, as a trainer now, and he's 100 per cent by the books," Turcotte said.

Funtime Bayama's owners and driver were unusually involved, said Turcotte.

"I had very little interaction with that horse... Sylvain [Filion] would be there every day to jog the horse, train the horse, but as far as interactions with them [Yves, Justin, and Sylvain Filion], there weren't a lot," Turcotte said. "I had 27 other horses that I had to oversee... Sylvain oversaw Funtime Bayama more than I ever did... He was never not at the farm."

Turcotte told MacKenzie that Sylvain Filion was in constant communication with others about testing and treating the healthy Funtime Bahama.

"It was an everyday thing, doing vet work with that horse... Every week, he would be injecting something different," Turcotte said.

MacKenzie asked Turcotte why Sylvain Filion "was around so much for this horse." Turcotte replied, "I guess because he was their unicorn. He was their special horse... [The Filions] had him since the horse was born."

He added that Sylvain drove other Moreau-trained horses regularly at Woodbine Mohawk Park, yet only spent time on the farm with Funtime Bayama. The Filions had the passcode to the farm gate; Turcotte said that sometimes "they were there before I was."

Turcotte said that Yves and Justin Filion would show up at Moreau's training center before Funtime Bayama's Saturday night races at Mohawk and return on Sunday mornings. When MacKenzie asked whether "any of the Bayama Farms individuals, the Filions, [would] come to the paddock barn" before races, Turcotte said he had seen Yves and Justin "two or three times." He said that on June 1, 8, and 15, 2024, Justin Filion was at the track with Funtime Bayama because "from what [he understood], [Yves] was not allowed to leave the province of Quebec... from what I heard, there was criminal charges against him." The charges were not specified in the HRAP hearing.

“It was an everyday thing, doing vet work with [Funtime Bayama]... Every week, [Sylvain Filion] would be injecting something different.”

— Justin Turcotte

There had only ever been one discussion involving Sylvain and Justin Filion, Richard Moreau, and Justin Turcotte, recalled the latter.

“After the NA Cup elimination, they had asked to give the horse a five-litre bag of electrolytes and an injectable shot of [B] vitamins [and iron],” Turcotte said. “They had asked to do it on a Sunday, but Richard refused... We did it on a Monday [to maintain Funtime Bayama’s routine].”

Counsel for the Registrar Brendan van Niejenhuis questioned Turcotte about being interviewed by Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario (AGCO) officials in the Mohawk race office shortly after Funtime Bayama tested positive for DPO in June 2024.

“You said at that time that there were a couple of locations in the barn that wouldn’t be fully captured by the cameras, right?” asked van Niejenhuis. Turcotte agreed.

On Tuesday (July 21), AGCO Equine Drug Unit inspector Brian Sharpe described his role in conducting nine unannounced inspections at Moreau’s farm between June-October 2024, to take blood and/or hair samples from horses. He said that he interviewed Turcotte, Sylvain Filion, caretaker Steve Labonte, Dr. Grossenbacher, and others, but Justin Filion did not respond to queries from AGCO inspector Brad Capes and Yves Filion’s legal representatives said “ongoing medical conditions” prevented him from responding.

Sharpe testified that on June 24, 2024, “we attended [Moreau’s farm] as there was indication that there may be DPO in the original out-of-competition test that was done by [AGCO] inspector [Brian] Nagano earlier in the month. At that point, it wasn’t confirmed, so we went out to collect secondary out-of-competition testing of Mr. Moreau’s horses.”

Sharpe noted that Mike Weber, a senior AGCO racing official, examined information from the inspections, “to determine what role the [listed] trainer had [in] the training of Funtime Bayama.” According to Weber’s analysis of who was performing Funtime Bayama’s care and conditioning, Sylvain Filion was found to have done the most (64 per cent of the duties).

MacKenzie asked that inspector Brad Capes’ Aug. 7, 2024 interview with Sylvain Filion be played as an exhibit during the hearing. In the recording, the driver tells Capes that Funtime Bayama was trained by Moreau.

“I had no responsibility, I just went up there and jogged the horse, [drove] the horse [in training miles], because I love it,” Sylvain said. When asked if he had done anything else, Sylvain said he fed the horse black licorice.

“In Richard Moreau’s statement, he indicated that you were the one that called the shots on Funtime Bayama’s training,” said Capes. “If you did the training, jogging and stuff, what was Richard’s role on Funtime Bayama?”

Sylvain replied that Moreau “was looking at the overall of it.” The driver said he “had no idea” how the horse tested positive for DPO.

MacKenzie asked Sharpe about another exhibit, a written agreement dated Nov. 30, 2023 between Moreau and Justin Filion, who signed as the owner of Funtime Bayama.

“Unfortunately, we can’t figure out exactly [Justin’s] full involvement with Bayama Farms and Funtime himself,” said Sharpe.

In cross-examination, van Niejenhuis asked Sharpe if he “viewed Mr. Moreau as the trainer of record for Funtime Bayama.”

The inspector replied that he did.

“[T]he public wagers money based upon that reasonable belief that the trainer of record is the one with real custody and responsibility for the horse, and regardless of what the public thinks, the named trainer of record takes on the responsibilities by naming themselves,” said van Niejenhuis, citing the rule of racing that specifies that trainers have “an obligation to protect the horse from interference by anyone.”

Prominent owners Brad Grant and Adriano Sorella; Quebec Jockey Club president Sylvain Descheneaux; caretaker Paul Shakes; trainer Brett Lester; and owner/trainer/announcer Ken Middleton also testified, primarily describing Moreau’s character and professionalism.

“For years and years... Richard maintained a level of greatness that I don’t think has been matched,” said Middleton. “It’s unprecedented, but the fact that he had success with clean results... He didn’t want the spotlight; he just wanted to race horses.”

The hearing continues on Aug. 6.

TALES FROM THE CURMUDGEON

with MURRAY BROWN

Matt Kakaley is ready should the Grand Circuit come calling

by Murray Brown

If one were to use just one word to describe Matt Kakaley as a driver, the word I would use is steady. At the end of each racing season, his name can usually be found in the top 10 drivers in North America or very close to it. Currently he is ranked seventh in North American earnings.

At the relatively young age of 38 for a driver, he has won 7,419 races and earned $127,718,048 at this writing. Drivers generally take some time to rise to the top.

“[Working for the Burkes at Northfield] was the greatest break I ever received. I was exposed to the greatest grouping of harness horses possible, especially to a young inexperienced kid. There was everything in the stable, overnights, claimers, top stakes horses, and young 2-year-olds just starting out. I eventually got to drive some of the very best horses not only in the stable, but also throughout North America. ”

— Matt Kakaley

I was somewhat surprised when perusing the ages of the 10 leading drivers in North America as this is written. In order of earnings, they are: 1. Jason Bartlett (44), 2. Yannick Gingras (46), 3. Dexter Dunn (37), 4. Tim Tetrick (44), 5. Chris Page (43), 6. Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. (40), 7. Kakaley (38), 8. Tyler Buter (40), 9. James MacDonald (40), and 10. Luke Hanners (26).

This column is meant to focus on Kakaley and not on all the leading drivers in North America, so that is where we will go.

Isn't it true that you were in effect born in a feed bucket and all you've ever known is harness racing?

“Yes, both my mom and dad came from a horse racing family. Dad still trains and drives occasionally. I started driving in Pompano in 2006. The first person who gave me horses to drive was Jacques Dupuis. I guess I was doing alright for a kid of 18. I certainly wasn't a star, but I won some races and was getting some experience.

“Mickey Burke, Sr. and Ronnie were looking to expand their stable and set up a division in Northfield Park under Mickey, Jr. They wanted someone young to help with the training and driving. They came down to Pompano. Wally Hennessey, Ricky Macomber, and Brian Hawk all recommended me to Mickey. Mickey asked me, ‘Can you be in Cleveland on Monday?’ I said, ‘I'll be there.’

“That was the greatest break I ever received. I was exposed to the greatest grouping of harness horses possible, especially to a young inexperienced kid. There was everything in the stable, overnights, claimers, top stakes horses, and young 2-year-olds just starting out. I eventually got to drive some of the very best horses not only in the stable, but also throughout North America.

“Another break that opened for me there, was that Brett Miller who was top dog there was moving to The Meadowlands and the Grand Circuit. That left a bit of an opening to fill.”

You were with the Burkes seemingly for a long time, then all of a sudden you weren't driving their horses anymore. What happened?

“The truth is, I really don't know. As luck would have it, I had my three highest earning years right after they stopped using me.

I loved working for them, especially Mickey, Sr. They are all great people. They had remarkable trust in a young kid and allowed me to drive all the horses in the stable. Sure, the great drivers like Yannick [Gingras] usually had first call, but the second best were usually pretty good.”

What was the best horse you drove while with the Burke Brigade?

“I guess that would have to have been Foiled Again. I was fortunate enough to have driven him several times including to three wins in the Battle of Lake Erie.”

You’ve also won a couple of Breeders Crowns.

“Yes, with the Burke stable with Percy Blue Chip and Dorsoduro Hanover.”

Do you miss being on the Grand Circuit going from track to track, driving the best horses and flying in company with the best drivers?

“I do miss it and I’m sure I would do it again if the opportunity presented itself.

“But, the other side of that coin is that it’s not so much fun if the horses you are scheduled to drive aren’t competitive. It’s not all that much fun when you know the best you possibly are going to do is get a check. If you aren’t put down on any power, it can get to be somewhat of a grind.

“That could relate to what I do now to some degree as well. I drive mostly at Pocono and Yonkers, with stops in the New York and Pennsylvania Sires Stakes when they are scheduled. I’m fortunate in that I get enough good drives at all those venues to keep the fun element alive in all of them. But I’d be wrong, if I said that the doubleheaders involved with racing at Pocono in the day and then driving to Yonkers to drive at night are fun. They are tiring. Nevertheless, it’s far from the worst way to make a living.”

Let’s speak about the GOATs in horses, drivers, and trainers, at least among those in your lifetime.

“With horses it would have to be Muscle Hill with trotters and Somebeachsomewhere with pacers. As others have mentioned, not only were they awe inspiring on the racetracks as competitors, but they did what they did with relative ease relative to their competition.

“With drivers, most people might say Dexter Dunn. There is no doubt that he is a true great. I’m not prepared to argue that point with anyone. But for me the greatest I’ve known, and still my idol today, is Brian Sears. Throughout my career, I tried to pattern my driving after Brian and the way he drove a horse, especially the way he always took care of it. When anyone is speaking of a GOAT of drivers, I’d be remiss in not also mentioning John Campbell.

“With trainers, my best would be Jimmy Takter and Ronnie Burke.”

What’s life like for you away from the racetrack?

“My better half Annie and I have an 8-year-old daughter, Ariana who is the love of our lives. I try to spend as much time with them as possible. It’s not easy to do so at this time of year when so much racing is going on at so many places. I look at Ariana and I ask myself where has the time gone. It seems just days ago when I was wheeling her in a baby carriage.”

EUROPEAN REPORT

Elitloppet champion Allegiant draws the rail for Hugo Åbergs Memorial

by Thomas Hedlund

The spotlight turns to Jägersro in Malmö on Tuesday (July 28) for the $320,000 Hugo Åbergs Memorial, and this year's edition has assembled another outstanding international field.

All eyes will be on Elitloppet champion Allegiant, who will attempt to prove her historic victory at Solvalla was no one-off performance as she renews her rivalry with many of Europe's top older trotters.

The 5-year-old daughter of Tactical Landing drew the rail with Örjan Kihlström listed to drive for trainer Daniel Redén.

While post one can be advantageous, it also presents challenges in a field loaded with gate speed from the middle of the front row. Asked on Saturday whether Allegiant could be in even better form than she was when winning the Elitlopp nearly two months ago, Redén didn't hesitate.

"Why not?" he replied.

Tuesday's program also features the $100,000 Breeders Course Finals for 3-year-olds over 1,640 meters, where leading international trainers Paul Hagoort, Alessandro Gocciadoro, and Michel Rothengatter appear to hold many of the strongest contenders.

INEXESS BLEU RETURNS TO WINNING WAYS AT ENGHEN

French star Inexess Bleu made a successful return to action on Saturday (July 25), capturing the $165,000 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardère at Enghien in his first start since competing in the Elitlopp at Solvalla in late May.

The Laurent-Claude Abrivard trainee, driven by Alexandre Abrivard, moved to the lead with one lap remaining in the 2,875-meter event after an uneven opening mile. Once on the front, Abrivard was able to back the pace down considerably, with the field reaching the first 1,875 meters in a modest 1:57 mile rate.

The race changed dramatically around the final turn when Hooker Berry (Booster Winner) launched a powerful first-over attack and briefly appeared ready to sweep past the favorite.

But Inexess Bleu (Vittel de Brévol) refused to surrender.

Digging in along the inside through the stretch, the tough gelding fought back gamely to repel all challengers and score in 1:55.1 for the extended distance, showing no lingering effects from his demanding Elitlopp campaign.

Keep Going (Follow You) finished strongly from the pocket to catch Hooker Berry for second right on the wire, while Krack Time Atout (Face Time Bourbon) continued his return to form with a solid fourth-place finish.

SUPERSTAR FEMALES OF HARNESS RACING

with VICTORIA M. HOWARD

Cindi Johnson is an angel without wings

by Victoria Howard

When most people think about what an angel looks like, they might visualize a tall male with long blond hair, sent from above to protect us. These are known as "Guardian Angels," and it is said that everybody has one assigned to them. We may not see or feel this celestial being, but when we are confronted with danger, somehow miraculously we manage to get out of it.

Although Cindi Johnson doesn't fit that description visually, in the sport of harness racing there are times when a driver and/or horse's life is put in danger due to an accident, loose horse, or a racehorse refusing to go to the gate, and at those times, as an outrider, she is that angel.

Going at a speed of 30 or 35 miles per hour, a horse can get spooked, like when a bird flies too close, or an animal runs across the racetrack while a race is going on. This may cause the horse to make a break, thus potentially causing a catastrophic situation.

Sadly, just as in other sports, harness racing can be dangerous.

During the history of harness racing, we have lost many wonderful drivers such as Billy Haughton, Shelley Goudreau, and the latest, a young driver named Hunter Myers who succumbed to his injuries last year during a race at The Meadows.

So, you see, racing is not all fun and games as many people think. It's horsemen doing what they love to do, even if there are risks.

The people and horses that put their life on the line every time they hit the racetrack are all heroes.

It is the job of the outrider to serve as an on-track safety officer, ready to respond to and manage any risks during training or racing.

These are the guardian angels to the drivers and horses.

Just like a lifeguard monitors a beach to prevent accidents and rescue swimmers in distress, an outrider scans the track to protect drivers and horses from harm.

These "angels on top of a horse" do not do this because it is a high paying job. They get nowhere near as much money as the drivers or trainers.

— Cindi Johnson

So, why did they choose this risky job?

I asked that question to Johnson who spent 20 years as an outrider working at several racetracks.

“I grew up in the business as both my uncles and mother were involved in harness racing,” Johnson said. “We raced our horses mainly at Louisville Downs and The Red Mile in Kentucky.

“I have been an outrider for 20 years, starting at one of the greatest harness racetracks, Pompano Park, located in Florida.”

Johnson was an outrider at Pompano six years, along with ponying thoroughbreds at Gulfstream Park, Calder Racecourse, and Hialeah Park.

“A woman named Mina LaRue who was my mentor and teacher got me the job at Pompano,” Johnson said. “In 2003 I got a job outriding at Lebanon Raceway in Ohio and rode the first year at Miami Valley and Dayton Raceway.

“In 2007 I started riding at Scioto Downs and in Delaware at The Little Brown Jug.

“Outriding at the Little Brown Jug was the experience of a lifetime, and if you’ve never been there, you must go.

“It’s what harness racing is all about. Everyone is cheering for one another and it’s one big family. I rode at the Jug for 10 years and have priceless memories I will always cherish.”

Johnson acknowledged that the job can be dangerous at times, and that an outrider must be alert every minute.

“My scariest experience in riding was at Lebanon Raceway,” she said. “I believe it was 2005 and the lights went out. The race had started and the horses were going to the three-quarter pole when, BAM, the lights went out.

"It took me a minute to focus, but then I saw one of the drivers on the track, so I yelled 'get to the fence if you could,' and thankfully, he did.

"I knew there was a loose horse somewhere out there, but it was pitch black and I couldn't see a thing.

"Driver Jeff Fout began hollering, 'Cindi, I'm here.' But it wasn't me who was behind him, it was the runaway horse.

"I caught the horse and the races were canceled the rest of the night because the lights never came back on."

Johnson also mentioned an incident at Lebanon Raceway.

"Five horses went down in a race," she said. "One of the horses pulled himself up and went to the paddock and I caught the other four. Again, thank God there were no serious injuries."

According to Johnson, the sport changed during her two decades in the saddle.

"I know our sport is nothing like it used to be," she said. "The horses today are going faster than ever, which is making it much riskier for the drivers and horses.

"As far as making it safer, I'm not sure what can be done because after all, it is horse racing."

Although she is no longer outriding, the 2010 LeeAnne Pooler Unsung Hero Award winner has a wealth of knowledge to share.

"My mother got sick, so in 2017 I retired to care for her," Johnson said. "I was 56 years old at the time and after outriding for 20 years, I thought it was time.

"My advice to someone who is thinking about making outriding a career is to first have a good horse under you; one that is calm and willing to do his job, and to always stay on your toes because things can happen at the drop of a dime.

"I tell them, if you are going to be an outrider there will be a lot of long days and nights. Sometimes the track is open on a holiday and instead of going to that picnic or party you were invited to; you have to be at the track ready to work until the last race is over and everyone is safe.

"And of course, never put yourself in a situation where you and your horse can get hurt.

"So, you must love horses, the racing, and in a way be married to your job. But like people say, 'When you love what you do, you're never working.' And I loved what I did and wouldn't change it for the world!"

A short story experiment

by Trey Nosrac

Last week in this slot was a ramble about the importance of telling stories for our sport.

Today will be an experiment that could make storytelling simple and free.

The idea would fall under the category of, "What does it hurt?"

Completely at random, one minute ago, I went to the entries/results tab of the USTA website and selected a couple of horses that were entered to race. There was no rhyme or reason for the choice, with the exception that I chose one racehorse from the upper level of racing and another from fair racing.

Next, I asked Artificial Intelligence to create a five-hundred-word story about both of these horses. My command was to create a few paragraphs that fill in some blanks, such as where they were raised, sold, trained, pedigrees, injuries, whatever AI could find to make an introductory story.

The goal was to take what are, at this moment, names in the entry box and turn them into more of a story. Let's see what happens.

IRONHORSE HERBIE

Ironhorse Herbie is not a millionaire. Most harness racing fans outside Michigan have probably never heard of him.

In the fall of 2024, Ironhorse Herbie walked into the Winner's Circle Speed Sale in East Lansing as Hip #13, a yearling colt by Musclesprincetonian out of the Big Stick Lindy mare Stickum Vicky. He was consigned by Brett Boyd Racing.

Bob Tait bought him for $25,000. That price deserves context. The 61 yearlings in the sale averaged $9,704. Herbie brought more than two and a half times the average and was the highest-priced trotter in the sale. The catalog offered a clue why. He was a full brother to Libbys Lucky Lady, a Michigan Sire Stakes champion and seven-time winner. Herbie arrived with expectations.

A year later, Ironhorse Herbie began trying to justify them - not at The Meadowlands or Lexington, but on the Michigan fair circuit. At 2, he won a Michigan Sired Colt Stakes Blue division at Caro and took a 2:10.2 record over the half-mile track. Published results from that summer show a young trotter who kept hanging around. After six starts, he had a win, three seconds, and a third.

Not a superstar, but an honest racehorse. Later published records placed his 2-year-old earnings near $20,000. Now he is 3 and still out there, traveling the Michigan fair circuit. In June 2026, his name appeared again in the Caro results, with Phil Peden listed in connection with him.

The story is simple. A $25,000 yearling. The sale's highest-priced trotter. A full brother to a Michigan champion. A 2-year-old stakes winner. A 2:10.2 fair-track record. Now he is a 3-year-old going from fairground to fairground, trying to earn another check. No documentary crew; just a horse, his people, a trailer, and another fairground down the road.

SURREAL IDEAL

Surreal Ideal was foaled in 2018, a son of So Surreal and the Western Ideal mare Jkmusicofthenite. As a yearling, he was cataloged as Hip #530 for the 2019 Standardbred Horse Sales Company auction. Raised at Eugene Yoder Farm in Topeka, IN, he was consigned by Spring Haven Farm, acting as agent for Eugene A. Yoder.

Then came the first interesting twist. He never went through the sale. The official results list Surreal Ideal simply as OUT. No sale price. No buyer. No auction-ring drama. For whatever reason, the future 1:47.2 pacer and winner of 12 consecutive races left no hammer price behind.

Then another blank. He did not race at 2. In a business where 2-year-old speed can determine reputations, careers, and bank accounts, Surreal Ideal began with an empty page.

At 3, racing for John Bontrager, Jr., he improved. By late October 2021, he had made 19 starts, won four, and earned a little more than $30,000.

Useful horse. Nice horse. Nothing screamed superstar. Near the end of that season, Vernon Beachy and his partners entered the story. Since December 2021, Surreal Ideal has raced for 518 Group LLC and Ohio-based Gitup Racing. At 4, he worked through conditioned races at Northfield Park and The Meadows. In August 2022, he paced in 1:49.3 at The Meadows.

Now things were getting interesting.

By August 2024, he was winning an open at The Meadows. In June 2025, at age 7, he won the $26,000 open pace at Scioto Downs in the fastest mile of the meet at that point. Stalled cover forced him four-wide near three-quarters, and he still came home to win by 2½ lengths.

Then he became almost impossible to defeat. During the fall of 2025, Surreal Ideal began stacking victories. The streak eventually reached 12 consecutive wins. In those 52 races, he finished in the top three 45 times. He won 25.

Trainer Vernon Beachy later said the horse had “kind of flown under the radar.” A yearling that was listed as OUT. An unraced 2-year-old. A horse that flew under the radar and is still flying.

I do not believe these AI products are great literary stories. I’m not even sure the stories are 100 per cent accurate.

I believe that if a human took the time to interview the owners, trainers, and drivers, the human writer could unearth quotes, stories, trivia, humor, perspective, and incidents that would add meat to the bones of what AI offered.

Where does this experiment go? Trey is not sure.

What I am sure of is that in less than five minutes, these two horses became much more than names in a program. I felt myself beginning to cheer for “Herbie,” the plucky underdog, and felt amazement at the feats of “Surreal.” The stories, as wooden as they were, made me care, and there must be some value in caring.

ADDENDUMS:

Ironhorse Herbie

On July 7, Ironhorse Herbie was in the trotting stakes for 3-year-old colts at Midland for a purse of $3,400. I was excited to learn I could stream this race. I was also surprised how excited I was for the start of the race. I logged in an hour early and watched several races. My connection was tenuous, but after selecting him as my horse for the silly little experiment, there was a whisper of a connection.

Herbie made a trotting miscue before the starting gate and drifted out of the picture. But not for long. Herbie regained his stride and began passing horses. At about the three-quarters mark, he was second and closing. Alas, the rally took out some steam, and my Herbie finished third. The experiment inspired me to run off the Michigan Fair racing schedule and post it above my desk - and don’t ask me why, I will follow Herbie through the summer.

Surreal Ideal

On the fourth of July, 2026, Surreal Ideal finished second by a head in the open class at Scioto Downs.

It was the eighth OSS Gold triumph in A Clean Deal's career, counting last year's $300,000 Super Finals triumph en route to being voted Canada's top 2-year-old pacing filly of 2025.

Sent off as the 1-5 favorite in the field of six, A Clean Deal (Cattlewash—Ideal Talker) was settled in fourth early by Doug McNair, who was out and moving before the half. The tandem was on top by the :54.4 half and held the lead through the 1:23 three-quarter pole before facing a stiff challenge in the stretch from Daya (Bob McClure). A Clean Deal was able to hold off Daya by one length, who was followed to the line, in order, by Cackle Berry (Tyler Jones), Romantic Beauty (Trevor Henry), and Pownal Bay Bobbi (Mark MacDonald).

"She's just so tough," McNair told Woodbine broadcaster Randy Waples in the winner's circle. "As you can see in that race, and a lot of her other races, she kind of lets them get to her, and looks like she's going to get beaten, and then she opens up again down by the wire. She's so tough and so easy to drive."

A Clean Deal paid $2.60 to win. There was no show wagering.

A Clean Deal had previously won two Gold events in her division this year — in 1:52.1 on May 23 (the same night Daya won a second division) and in a career-best 1:49.3 on June 26 — both at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Trained by Kyle Fellows, A Clean Deal is owned by Yolanda Fellows of Rockwood, ON, Blair Corbeil of Leduc, AB, Windermere Stable LLC of New York, NY, and James Ross of Wingham, ON.

A Clean Deal is now 11-0-2 in 14 career starts and 5-0-1 in seven 2026 starts. She has earned $280,262 this year and $734,726 lifetime. The filly was bred by Winbak Farm and was sold for $20,000 U.S. at the 2024 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

FRESHMAN TROTTER UNSTABLE GENIUS IMPRESSIVE AGAIN, REMAINS PERFECT IN OSS ACTION

Unstable Genius posted his second Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold victory in as many career starts, winning the lone $150,000 OSS Gold leg 2 division for 2-year-old trotting colts on Friday (July 24) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Sitting well off the pace through most of the mile, James MacDonald had to stick-handle through traffic and shoot up the inside in the stretch to win by a neck over Three Six Zero (Jody Jamieson) in a 1:54.2 mile that matched Unstable Genius' career best.

On July 6 at Woodbine Mohawk Park, in his career pari-mutuel debut, Unstable Genius won the first Gold Series event in his division.

Unstable Genius (James MacDonald) winning the lone $150,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Gold Leg 2 divisions for 2-year-old trotting colts on Friday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

On Friday, Unstable Genius had his work cut out for him turning for home. Grand Manalishi (Tyler Jones) had led the field of eight through fractions of :27.1, :56.3, and 1:25.2. Unstable Genius was fourth, 3½ lengths off the lead turning for home. MacDonald not only had to avoid some breakers and shoot up the inside, but he also had to hold off a wall of three other horses at the wire. Kountry Cantab (Trevor Henry) was third, followed by Detonater Hanover (Tyler Moore), and Grand Manalishi.

"Doug [McNair's] horse [D A Johnny Cash] kind of stumbled," MacDonald told Woodbine broadcaster Greg Blanchard. "It looked like he almost went down. I couldn't see that from where I was. I just saw Tyler [Jones] go out and [Grand Manalishi] made a break, and then Doug went in and made a break. I was just trying to kind of split between the two. And at that point, I probably didn't think I was going to get there, but the horse just made up so much ground, and I was lucky just to skim the cones and get through there because he was in a bad spot, but a great horse will overcome a lot."

"It's hard for 2-year-olds to navigate around when stuff like that happens in the last turn and then down by the wire it was tight and you have to grab him quickly and you easily could lose your footing at any point, but he's a rock-solid horse, and he really wants to trot."

Unstable Genius paid $2.50 to win. Show wagering was banned.

Unstable Genius, a gelded son of Muscle Mass out of Pretty Crafty, now sports earnings of $150,000 in just two career starts.

Top sophomore pacing fillies Somemore Blue and Whoomp hooked up for the fourth time this season in the $94,000 fifth leg of Indiana Sires Stakes, and left the night with the series evened at two apiece as Somemore Blue turned the tables on her arch-rival after a thrilling stretch duel in 1:49.4 for the father-and-son team of Erv and Marcus Miller.

Away from post 2 as the even-money second choice, Miller was intent on grabbing control from the outset, firing off the wings and forcing Whoomp (John De Long) to take the pocket seat as the duo blitzed to the opening quarter in :25.3. After the dust settled from the early skirmish, Somemore Blue tapped the brakes on the backstretch as she took the field of six to the halfway point in :54.3. The top pair began to separate on the far turn, with Miller kicking out the plugs in preparation for the stretch battle and Whoomp beginning to edge from the pocket at three-quarters in 1:23.1.

Somemore Blue cut the corner sharply into the stretch, leaving Whoomp a length-and-a-half to make up as the fillies sped to the eighth pole. Whoomp began to do her best work late, cutting into the deficit late but could not reach as Somemore Blue held her at bay by a neck on the wire in 1:49.4. It's My Story (Brandon Bates) rallied from last to be third, 4¼ lengths behind the top pair at 31-1.

Somemore Blue has won four of six on the year, with her lone two defeats being runner-up efforts to Whoomp. For her career, the daughter of Rockin Image—Missomebeach Blue has won 11 of 16, banking $452,691 lifetime for owners Stepbystep Racing, Ken Duffy, Lava Java Stable, and Never 2 Late Stable. Whoomp returned $4 to win.

It was one of five victories on the night for Marcus Miller, who won the first three races on the card aboard Six Sticks Of Gum ($5.60, 1:49.3), Bundoran N ($5.80, 1:50.4), and Miss Alexis ($17.60, 1:51.4) before tacking on one more late with Sanday A ($7.80, 1:51.2).

TRIO OF 2-YEAR-OLD TROTTERS IMPRESS IN INSS

The second leg of Indiana Sires Stakes for 2-year-old colt and gelding trotters headlined at Hoosier Park on Thursday (July 23) with Swan Good Bi driven by Jordan Ross for trainer Henry Graber, Jr. tasting victory first in the $46,000 field in race 4. Later, Nectar

Of The Gods won in a thriller for $46,000 in the eighth race. Meanwhile in race 11, the longest shot on the board Temporal Power stunned for $45,500 in INSS.

Working from last out of the outside post eight, Swan Good Bi kept the action in front of him while Copperstone (Lewayne Miller) flew through the first turn in :27, leaving the rest of the 9-horse field to play catch up. The lead would not last long as the revved-up Copperstone went off-stride, leaving the door open for Munich (Markus Niklasson) to steal his spot on top on the backstretch. Munich's advantage lasted just as long as Copperstone's as a parked and pressing High Honor Role (Kiwon Waldron) stole the show climbing to the lead at the halfway point in :57.

Munich and the post-time favorite So Joyful posed the immediate threat with Swan Good Bi still seventh on the far turn. High Honor Role remained the narrow leader to the three-quarters in 1:27 before So Joyful bounded to the lead first-over. Trotters began to swarm the new leader with a host of challengers fanning out four-across the track with Swan Good Bi widest of all, rocketing home in :26.4 to reach the wire first 1:55.2 by three-quarters-of-a-length. Ponda Cheetah (Marcus Miller) rallied to second, while Munich rebounded for third.

The victorious Swan For All—Bange Bi gelding notched his second straight win of the season to remain perfect increasing his lifetime earnings to $29,000. Swan Good Bi is owned by Indiana Stables LLC, Frank Baldachino, Michael Rosenthal, and James Zito. Bred by Erni Lambright, Swan Good Bi paid $9 to win.

Winning the heavyweight battle down the stretch, Nectar Of The Gods driven and trained by Mike Micallef claimed victory in the following rendition of the 2-year-old INSS action in race 8.

In post 3, Nectar Of the Gods alongside the post time favorite to his right (Ponda Solve) were out the quickest with Ponda Solve winning the early battle to the first turn in :28.4. Ponda Solve maintained his lead in the unchanged eight-horse field through the halfway mark in :58.4, tightly contested by Nectar Of The Gods and Kountry Dion (Kyle Wilfong). Rounding the final turn to three-quarters in 1:28.2, Ponda Solve and Nectar

Of The Gods separated from the rest, gearing up for a final battle on the homestretch. Trading blows the entirety of the stretch, Nectar Of The Gods outslugged Ponda Solve in a photo at the wire in 1:56.3 by a nose. Mendoza Mafia (Atlee Bender) rallied late to round out the trifecta.

The winning Temporal Hanover-Goddess colt is owned by Bet The House LLC and bred by Steve Jones. Nectar Of The Gods boosted his lifetime earnings to $49,250 for his second straight win in INSS bouts. Nectar Of The Gods paid $7.80 to win.

Paying $71.40 to win, Temporal Power driven by Joey Putnam for trainer Kristin Shetler shocked the seven-horse field to win the INSS Trot.

Temporal Power settled into the middle of the field out of post 4 as Heffae (Lamar Wingard) rocketed to a five-length lead at the quarter in :27.3. Heffae's lead began to shrink on the backstretch, as a parked Steppinouttohelp (Robert Taylor) and Royal Response (Markus Niklasson) in the pocket closed the gap to the half in :57.2. Heffae remained in control on the far turn, leading at three-quarters in 1:26.4 as Royal Response reclaimed second inside of Steppinouttohelp. Having not seen a pylon the entirety of the mile, Steppinouttohelp charged to the point midway through the lane before Temporal Power shook loose in the late stages, tracking that foe down with a :28.4 last quarter to win by a length in 1:56.4. Topsy In Vegas (Jordan Ross) rallied from the backfield to be third.

Owned by Per Eriksson, Michael Midford, Michael Retherford, and Pcw Racing LLC, Temporal Power posted his first career win and check for a lifetime earnings total of $22,750. The Temporal Hanover—Mystical Power colt was bred by Amos Schwartz.

Ohio Sires Stakes 2-year-old filly pacers at Scioto Downs

by Eldorado Scioto Downs

Speedy fillies went behind the gate in three $50,000 divisions of the Ohio Sires Stakes for 2-year-old pacers on Friday (July 24) at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

An easy winner in 1:51.3, David Miller piloted the fastest divisional winner, Tempting Flames. Originally getting away in the pocket, Miller pulled Tempting Flames just at the :28 quarter and led through fractions of :56.4 and 1:24.3. Coming home in :27, Tempting Flames won by 2¼ lengths over Late Night Legend (Luke Hanners); Yourgonaloveme (Ronnie Gillespie) was third.

Tempting Flames, by Catch The Fire out of the McArde mare Hotshot Temptress, was a $52,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from breeder Ivy Holdings. Owned by William Hartt and trained by Michael Hitchcock, Tempting Flames now has $75,000 earned in three lifetime starts.

Chris Page gave Cleveland Darby the perfect pocket trip and won the first division in 1:52.4. Breadnbutterz (Chris Lems) took the early lead and set fractions of :27.3, :56, and 1:24.1. Page pulled Cleveland Darby midway through the last turn and drew clear to win by 2½ lengths. Breadnbutterz was second, while Jar Of Hearts (Gillespie) came up the passing lane to finish third.

Cleveland Darby, by Downbytheseaside out of the McArde mare Loreenas Ruffian, was bred by Carl Howard. Owned by Burke Racing, Weaver Brusce, R A S Racing, and Larry Karr, the Ron Burke trainee has $37,000 earned in three lifetime starts.

The last division was won in gate-to-wire fashion by Party Up and David Miller in 1:53.1. Setting fractions of :27.1, :56, and 1:25, Party Up comfortably paced home to win by a quarter-length over Real Classy (Page); Splendid Station (Justin Irvine) was third.

Bred by Vieux Carre Farms, the Lather Up filly out of the Artsplace mare Artchitecture, was a $17,000 yearling sale purchase from Harrisburg. Owned by Morrison Racing and trained by Joe Bongiorno, Party Up now has $50,000 earned in two lifetime OHSS starts.

The 91-day 2026 Eldorado Scioto Downs regular season runs through Sept. 19. Races are held Tuesday-Saturday, with a special holiday card on Labor Day instead of the Tuesday card that week. The track will then re-open for the Breeders Crown, with eliminations held Oct. 16-17 and the finals Oct. 23-24. More information about all the racing action at Scioto can be found on the Eldorado Scioto Downs website.

Maine SIRE STAKES REPORT

by Chris Tully for First Tracks Cumberland

The Pine Tree State's hopefuls were back in full force on Friday (July 24) at Cumberland Raceway for three $15,000-plus divisions of the Maine Sire Stakes for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings.

The first $15,328 division was another gate-to-wire romp by The Gucci Man and Kevin Switzer, Jr.

Establishing calculated early fractions of :30.1 and 1:01, the son of Dude's The Man played catch me if you can with the rest of the field. When The Gucci Man hit the 1:30.4 third panel, he was on top by four and looking for more. All alone, the duo rolled on to a 9½ length victory in 1:59.4, the fastest division of the afternoon.

Owned, trained, and bred by Marc Tardif, the 1-9 heavy favorite returned $2.20 while posting a :29 final quarter in his second straight score. Justcallmebuddy (Aaron Hall) finished second; Duderrific (Dave Ingraham) rebounded for third.

In the second $15,538 division of the Maine Sire Stakes it was the first lifetime victory for Harriman who established a new 2:01.2 time badge in the process.

Driver Nick Graffam came from off the pace to catch the pacesetter Rustyonlytreasure (Aaron Hall) in mid-stretch to score by 1¼ lengths.

Bred, trained, and co-owned by Mike Graffam with partner Aaron Merriman (yes, that Aaron Merriman), the son of State Treasurer returned $2.40. Rustyonlytreasure finished second; Destiny Is All (McGwire Sowers) was third.

In the third and final $15,328 division of the Maine Sire Stakes it was a second-straight wire-to-wire win for Top Notch Treasure who hung on to win by three-parts-of-a-length in 2:00, a new lifetime best.

Trained by Christopher Dubois for owner Steven Moskowitz Racing, Top Notch Treasure is a State Treasurer half-brother to This Dudes Perfect p, 4, 1:56.3h ($87,699). He was bred in Maine by Lynn-Marie Plouffe and returned $2.40.

Driver Kevin Switzer, Jr. led all drivers with five wins on the 13-race program.

HARNESS RACING PRESS RELEASES, NOTES & ANNOUNCEMENTS

National Driving Championship set for largest audience in event history

The 2026 National Driving Championship, presented by Standardbred Canada, is set to reach the largest television audience in the event's history today (July 26) as PrimeTime Racing presents a three-hour live national broadcast on Game+ Network.

Beginning live at 2 p.m. (EDT) PrimeTime Racing will deliver three hours of championship coverage, featuring every race, expert commentary, driver interviews, and behind-the-scenes features from Clinton Raceway in Clinton, ON.

Hosts Greg Blanchard and Mark McKelvie will be joined by two-time World Driving champion James MacDonald, Canada's leading driver and the defending World Driving champion after earning the title in New Zealand in 2025.

The live broadcast – a first on national broadcast television for the National Driving Championship – will bring the excitement of Canada's premier driving championship to more than two million subscribers across the country, providing coast-to-coast coverage of the competition as Canada's top drivers battle for the national title and the opportunity to represent Canada on the international stage on Canadian soil in 2027.

Game+ is available through television providers from British Columbia to Newfoundland and Labrador, making the National Driving Championship accessible to fans across Canada. Viewers can find their local Game+ channel here.

The 2026 National Driving Championship promises to be one of the most widely viewed events ever presented by Standardbred Canada, bringing the country's premier driving competition to a national television audience.

Today's broadcast will also be streamed live on Standardbred Canada's website.

For more information on the 2026 National Driving Championship, visit standardbredcanada.ca.

Miss Eliza sets stakes record as freshman trotters shine in Arden Downs action

Trotting freshmen took center stage Friday (July 24) at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows with the Ed Ryan Arden Downs Stakes for fillies and the Robert J. Key Arden Downs Stakes for colts and geldings.

The first of two $20,000 Ed Ryan Arden Downs divisions saw The Captain's Wife and Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. cruise to a wire-to-wire, five-length victory. The daughter of Captain Corey posted fractions of :28.1, :58.2, and 1:28.1 before closing in :29.2 to stop the timer in 1:57.3. Aldiva Hanover rallied late to finish second for driver Justin Walters and trainer Zachary Moritz. The Captain's Wife is trained by Vernon Beachy for owners 51 Group LLC and Ryan Smith, both of Ohio.

The second Ed Ryan division proved to be the fastest and established a new stakes record. Heaven Knows and Brian Zendt sprinted to a :28 opening quarter before Dave Palone moved Miss Eliza from the pocket to the lead. The daughter of Captain Corey reached the half in :57.1, cruised through a :29 third quarter, and finished with a :28.2 final panel to stop the clock in a stakes-record 1:54.3. Shes A Home Run, with Emanuel Miller, finished one length back in second. Trained by Norm Parker, Miss Eliza was purchased by brothers Bart and Todd Brice for $50,000 at last fall's Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

Both divisions of the Robert J. Key Arden Downs Stakes came down to the final strides. In the opening division, Crimson Crown and Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. held off Bigmanballin and Wilbur Yoder in 1:57. Moving from third to the lead at the quarter, Crimson Crown dictated the pace before Bigmanballin ranged up alongside but could get no closer. The pair battled through the stretch, with Crimson Crown's :29.3 final quarter proving to be the difference. The son of Muscle Hill is trained by Matthew Burkholder for Dark Horse Farm LLC of Ohio. It was the first lifetime victory for the former $65,000 Harrisburg yearling purchase.

Norm Parker completed a training double by capturing the fastest Robert J. Key division with Red Andray. Driver Mike Wilder sent the colt to the front from post 7 and never looked back, holding off a late challenge from Hades Hanover and Brady Brown by a head to win in 1:56. The son of Captain Corey was an $85,000 purchase at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale for owners Bart and Todd Brice and Andray Farms of Pennsylvania.

Rose Run Champ headlines second leg of BSS for freshman colt pacers

Rose Run Champ recorded the fastest mile of four $20,000 divisions of the second leg of the Buckeye Stallion Series for freshman colt pacers at Eldorado Scioto Downs on Friday (July 24).

In sixth place and trailing the leader by 2¾ lengths entering the final stretch, Rose Run Champ (Brett Miller) rallied to win by 1½ lengths in 1:55.1. It was the first career win for the Downbytheseaside gelding, increasing his earnings to $14,280 in four starts. Kintsugi (Tyler Smith) was second followed by Kb Moneyball (Ronnie Gillespie) in third. Rose Run Champ is trained by Tim Twaddle for owner At The Wire Farms.

Declamation (Chris Page) won the first division by 1½ lengths in 1:55.2 for trainer Ron Burke and owner W Donovan. The Downbytheseaside gelding has a 1-1-1 record with earnings of $27,300 in four starts. Hear The Thunder (Chris Lems) and Monte Be Good (Miller) rounded out the top three.

Into The Blaze took the fourth division in 1:55.3 with Gillespie as trainer and driver. The Catch The Fire gelding was in fourth place as the field passed the first three calls in :28.1, :58.4, and 1:28.1. Two and a half lengths behind leader Mental Up (Kayne Kauffman) entering the final stretch, Into The Blaze used a late burst to edge Mental Up by a neck at the line to win in a lifetime-best 1:55.3. Dream Ignited (Luke Ebersole) was third. Into The Blaze is now three-for-three on the season with $21,607 in earnings. He is owned by Gillespie, Adam Friedland, and Jacob Beard.

In his debut purse start, Route Fifty (Austin Hanners) won the third division by 3¾ lengths in 1:56.3. The Downbytheseaside gelding went off with 13-1 odds and paid $29.40 to win. He was in fifth place and trailed leader Eagle Spirit (Gillespie) by over four lengths at the three-quarter pole before rallying to win.

Individual Medley (Marvin Luna) and Eagle Spirit rounded out the top three finishers. Route Fifty is trained by Virgil Morgan, Jr. for owners Country Club Acres, Joe Sbrocco, Wingfield Brothers, and Jaf Racing.

The Buckeye Stallion Series continues Aug. 7 with the fourth leg for sophomore filly pacers at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

Pick-5 mandatory payout on tonight's Dan Patch FFA Night at Running Aces

Running Aces will host the 2026 Dan Patch FFA final as part of a big 12-race program tonight (July 26) and is offering a mandatory payout in the track's 20-cent Pick-5 wager, which has a carryover of $45,280.68.

The sequence for the Pick-5 tonight will begin with the $50,000 Dan Patch FFA final in race 8, with an approximate post time of 8:34 p.m. (CDT). Track officials are estimating that more than $100,000 will be wagered into the pool tonight.

As part of the USTA's Strategic Wagering Program, free TrackMaster past performance pages for Running Aces are available on the USTA website and you can access today's program via this link: <https://www.trackmaster.com/freeContent/usta/freeContentFiles/hpl/ace0726x.pdf>.

The 2026 $50,000 Dan Patch FFA pace final offers a compact but competitive field of five, including 2024 winner and current all-age track record holder Muskateer Hanover (Brady Jenson, 8-5) who has won 10 races and over $173k this season, Cash Money Twenty (Casey Leonard, 7-5) who was the 2024 and 2025 Illinois Horse of the Year and has won six races at Running Aces this season and sports the fastest mile of the meet so far (1:50).

Alta Revelry N (Luke Plano, 2-1) is another top contender with five wins and $126k on his card in 2026 and the field is rounded out by 12-time winner Hazardos (Rick Magee, 10-1) and 17-time winner War Machine (Mooney Svendsen, 12-1).

The 2026 Dan Patch FFA final facts:

- Alta Revelry N has the fastest career record in the field with a mark of 1:48 taken in 2025 and Muskateer Hanover is the richest horse in the field with over $712k on his card.
- Jenson has won the Dan Patch FFA final in both of the last two years, with Dale Yeah in 2025 and Muskateer Hanover in 2024.
- The stakes record for the Dan Patch FFA final is 1:49.2, set in 2024.

• Jenson is the only driver in the field who has previously won the Dan Patch FFA final.

The undercard on Sunday also features the Minnesota-sired sophomore trotters going for $35,000 across two divisions, and a very nice field for the $16,000 open handicap trot which is also part of the mandatory pay Pick-5 sequence and kicks off the Late Pick-4 wager in race 9.

The Dan Patch night festivities will include a special visit from 2017 Dan Patch FFA winner Firedrake and the Hoof Beat Therapeutic Healing center. Firedrake will be located in the grassy area near the winner's circle for fan interaction. Heather Vitale will be onsite to help cover the big race and we will have Ken Walker doing live "calls to the post" from the track apron. There is a Dan Patch puzzle giveaway for the first 300 guests and there will be family night activities, drawings, a handicapping contest, food trucks, and much more.

Post time tonight is set for 6 p.m. (CDT).

'Wendy' and 'Gustav' win Kindergarten splits at Big M

Wendy J Stings and Gustav Vasa were two of the 2-year-olds that walked down victory lane Friday night (July 24) at The Meadowlands when eight $25,000 second leg divisions of the Kindergarten Series were contested for competitors of each sex and gait.

In a split for filly pacers (race 2), Wendy J Stings picked up her first career win in three tries, but needed the judges to intervene to do it.

The daughter of Perfect Sting—Paula's Power, who was sent to the gate as the 5-2 second choice in the field of six, sat fourth to the half before mounting a superb rally first-over. The Chris Ryder trainee collared leader Perfect Body, the 2-5 favorite, at the sixteenth pole, but Perfect Body bore out nearing the wire, bothering Wendy J Stings, who was elevated to first by the judges in the official order of finish. Perfect Body was placed second with Gift Of Faith third. The time for the mile was 1:52.2.

"She is really good," said winning driver Todd McCarthy. "She made a pretty good move up to the turn. There was a little contact just before the wire. We kind of got pushed aside. She's got a really good attitude and did a really good job. I was very pleased with the performance."

Wendy J Stings paid $7.60 to win.

Gustav Vasa pulled off an upset in a division for colt and gelding trotters in the eighth race, taking advantage of an early break by 3-5 favorite Captain Kenny J to score at 16-1 to nab his first win in two attempts.

With Dexter Dunn sidelined by a neck injury, trainer Marcus Melander was in the bike behind the colt by Face Time Bourbon—Ms Emily Mariette, and despite racing three-wide to the quarter, settled in on the lead after the favorite made a break and led at every call from there to record a safe 1:56 win by a half-length over New Hope. Jimdougie Armitage did well to get third after leaving from post 10 in the 10-horse field.

"He got a little excited in the first turn [in his debut when he went off-stride], so when Dexter couldn't be here tonight, I figured I'd go with him myself," said Melander. "There were some soft fractions [:58 to the half, 1:28.1 to three-quarters] but he's a good horse and he's going to go down to Kentucky for the sire stakes and we'll see how it goes."

As the fourth choice, Gustav Vasa returned $35.80 to his backers.

AND THE WINNERS ARE: The other six Kindergarten winners on the card were:

- Race 3: colt and gelding pace — Seine (a colt by Sweet Lou—Lock Bridge), Joe Bongiorno was the driver, Bongiorno is the trainer, time for the mile was 1:52.2 (first career win), the win payout was $3.60 for the 4-5 favorite.

- Race 5: filly trot — Orinoco (Captain Corey—Bonnie Lou), Yannick Gingras, Ake Svanstedt, 1:54.4 (first career win), $3.20 as the 3-5 favorite.

- Race 10: filly pace — JK Simcha (Bulldog Hanover—Joyride Hanover), Scott Zeron, Nancy Takter, 1:53.2 (career debut), $4.60 as the 6-5 favorite.

- Race 12: filly trot — HL Kapara (Chapter Seven—Sel's Choice), Jason Bartlett, Harry Landy, 1:57.3 (career debut), $2.20 as the 1-9 favorite.

- Race 13: colt and gelding pace — Wishawave (a colt by Bettor's Wish—Making Waves), Zeron, Linda Toscano, 1:52.3 (two wins in two lifetime starts), $2.20 as the 1-9 favorite.

- Race 14: colt and gelding trot — Southern Hanover (a colt by Captain Corey—Southwind Percy), Tim Tetrick, Toscano, 1:57.4 (first career win), $6.80 as the 2-1 second choice.

A LITTLE MORE: Zeron led the driver colony with three wins on the night... Svanstedt scored three times to top the trainers... Jim Sidor ($1,192.10) and Russ Slader ($750) were the top two finishers in the seventh 2026 monthly edition of the track's $1,000 handicapping contest. The duo have now earned spots in the $10,000 invitation-only contest finale on Dec. 12... All-source handle on the 15-race program totaled $2,213,452.

Harness Elite to bet $1 million on harness racing

Harness Elite, together with its partners and team members, are proud to announce the Million Dollar Betting Challenge, wagering $1 million USD on harness racing over a period of approximately 60 days, beginning on July 22.

Led by the Harness Elite team and supported by our growing community of serious horseplayers, the challenge is designed to demonstrate that harness racing remains one of the last great skill-based betting markets while encouraging more people to participate in the sport through informed, disciplined wagering.

JB Demers, founder of Harness Elite, states, "Too many horseplayers — and even people within the industry — have accepted the idea that harness racing isn't beatable. They point to smaller fields, late odds changes, take out, and short-priced favorites as reasons to stay away. We understand those concerns because we've lived them ourselves. But betting harness racing today simply requires a different approach."

The challenge is designed to demonstrate that disciplined, informed wagering can still be profitable, while showcasing harness racing to a broader audience. Throughout the campaign, Harness Elite will produce educational content covering handicapping strategy, bankroll management, value identification, race selection, and the realities of pursuing a long-term edge in the pari-mutuel marketplace. Following each race day, we will publish a transparent log of our wagers, along with regular performance summaries, observations, and lessons learned through our blog, email newsletter, and social media channels.

"This challenge isn't simply about betting one million dollars," Demers said. "It's about getting horseplayers to take another look at harness racing and showing them there are still opportunities for disciplined bettors willing to do the work."

Approximately 70 per cent of the total wagering handle will be directed toward United States and Canadian harness racetracks, reflecting our commitment to supporting the North American racing industry and its wagering pools. The remaining handle will primarily focus on French harness racing, with additional overnight wagering opportunities expected in Australia as conditions warrant. By participating across multiple international jurisdictions, the challenge will highlight the global nature of harness racing while demonstrating the analytical approaches and discipline required to compete in a variety of racing environments.

"The next generation of horseplayers will look different than the last," Demers said. "They'll be data-driven, technology-enabled, and comfortable using AI, machine learning, and advanced analytics as part of their handicapping and betting process. We believe the industry has an opportunity to embrace those players, learn what they value, and build products that keep them engaged. If this challenge helps start that conversation, it will be one of its greatest successes."

Every day of the challenge will feature race previews, wagering discussions, educational articles, podcasts, videos, social media updates, live betting commentary, post-race analysis, and transparent performance reporting. Followers will be able to see how experienced horseplayers approach race selection, identify value, churn handle, manage risk, and think about wagering over the long term. The challenge is intended to educate, entertain, and inspire confidence in harness racing as a game where skill and preparation can influence outcomes over time.

To maximize the impact of the initiative, Harness Elite will invest $50,000 in a comprehensive marketing campaign promoting the Million Dollar Betting Challenge to audiences well beyond the traditional harness racing community. Advertising will appear across sports betting and daily fantasy sports podcasts, gambling media, digital platforms, social media, video content, and other wagering-focused channels with the objective of introducing harness racing to serious, analytically minded bettors.

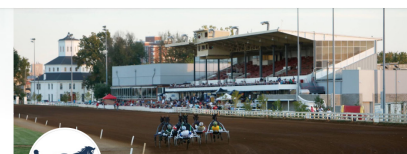

Millions of sports bettors devote countless hours to studying statistics, identifying value, and searching for opportunities where informed analysis can provide an advantage. Harness racing offers those same intellectual challenges in a fast-paced pari-mutuel environment where bettors compete against one another rather than against a sportsbook. The Million Dollar Betting Challenge is intended to introduce this audience to the excitement, depth, and strategy of harness racing while encouraging them to discover a betting market where preparation and disciplined decision-making can still make a meaningful difference.

When speaking about transparency, Demers said, "We're putting our money where our mouth is. Every wager, every winning streak, every losing streak and every lesson learned will be shared publicly. We believe that's how confidence is earned."

The challenge also seeks to strengthen the relationship between horseplayers and the harness racing industry. Serious bettors generate substantial wagering handle and are essential to the long-term success of the sport. By bringing together bettors, racetracks, industry organizations, and media partners around a shared objective, the Million Dollar Betting Challenge aims to increase wagering activity, create new fans, and demonstrate the value of investing in player engagement and education.

Harness Elite invites racetracks, horsemen's associations, advance deposit wagering platforms, breeders, owners, trainers, industry organizations, media outlets, and all supporters of harness racing to help amplify the impact of this effort by sharing our content, engaging with the campaign across their own platforms, and encouraging their audiences to participate. Organizations that share our vision are also invited to become official sponsors and promotional partners. Together, we can introduce thousands of new bettors to harness racing, increase wagering participation, and showcase the excitement and opportunity the sport continues to offer.
