Jody Jamieson 'super pumped' to win third Canadian National Driving Championship

WIRE TO WIRE

with DAVE BRIGGS

by Dave Briggs

Jody Jamieson stood at the top of the hill. Over his left shoulder, the Elliott family's majestic red barn stood sentinel over Clinton Raceway, as it has for generations, as both the sun and the crowd began a slow saunter to the exits on another tremendous Legends Day.

The Ontario-based driver had left the National Driving Championship (NDC) trophy and the Canadian flag he had excitedly wrapped around himself for the photographers back in the winner's circle, but the adrenaline was still flowing with the same intensity.

"I'm actually super pumped," Jamieson said about standing atop the hill of Canadian harness racing drivers on Sunday (July 26) after squeaking out a four-point victory in the Standardbred Canada event against seven reinsmen from the nation's four primary racing jurisdictions – the West, Ontario, Quebec, and the Atlantic.

It was Jamieson's third national championship to go with the ones he won in 2011 and 2014. He is also a two-time winner of the World Driving Championship (2001 and 2011 – the first before there was an NDC event where the Canadian representative earned their spot in the worlds).

But the experience of winning another Canadian title, this time at magical Clinton Raceway with a large family continent on hand, was just as impactful, if not more so.

Jamieson will turn 50 in November, and he understands these moments are becoming increasingly fleeting, despite a career that boasts over 9,000 wins and nearly $160 million in purse earnings; the vast majority of which garnered at Woodbine Entertainment Group tracks.

“Honestly, I didn’t think I’d get another chance at it,” he said of competing in the world championship. “I had a really great year last year, and it felt like it was a breakthrough year for me. I started it off again this summer doing well with stakes horses and babies. It just feels good. I feel like I’m back and I feel good. I feel hungry. I just want to win. I think I can win [the world championship] again.”

Jamieson said he was so motivated to stand atop the NDC podium that he came to Clinton earlier in the track’s season primarily to get to know the horses better.

“I specifically came [to race at Clinton] at the start of the season, just a couple of days, a couple of Sundays, just to get a feel for the horses around, and it really helped in my drafting process,” Jamieson said of the Standardbred Canada formula for the NDC that allows drivers to have some say in who they will drive. “I love the draft format. I know I’ve been pretty fortunate in it, but I also do love it. I think it’s the fairest way to go. In the race when I was picking first, that horse finished dead last today. So, you have to get lucky as well as be good and have good picks in your draft.”

Jamieson driving No Plan Intended to victory at Clinton, one of two wins he had during the National Driving Championship.

In the end, Jamieson earned 60 points thanks to two wins, a second and two thirds in the eight-race competition. Stéphane Brosseau of the Quebec / East Ontario region was second with 56 points, followed by Marc Campbell of PEI with 54 points. Tyler Borth, Ontario's other representative, finished fourth with 50 points.

That Canada will play host to the 2027 World Driving Championship, and will be represented both by Jamieson and defending world champion James MacDonald, has the former already looking forward to next summer.

"It will be Canadian racing," Jamieson said. "Any other time I've represented Canada and gone to another country, I didn't really know the horses and didn't really know the style. It takes a while to get going, but I think in the worlds, James and I should be off like rockets early. We should have a good idea about the horses, especially when we come through the middle of the competition [in Ontario] and when we get into PEI.”

Yes, he was looking ahead, but Jamieson, a fourth-generation horseperson, was also trying to savor the moment that came the same day Clinton feted a long list of legendary horsepeople enshrined in the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame. Collectively, that group of legends – which includes Jamieson’s father, Carl – has won over 70,000 races and earned nearly $1.2 billion as drivers or trainers.

“To win [the National Driving Championship] the same day that my dad drove in the Legends Day race as a Hall of Famer, I think it’s just amazing, just an awesome, awesome time,” Jody said.

MANE ATTRACTION

with JOHN BERRY

The tragedy of Illinois harness racing as its history disappears

by John Berry

The Neil Milbert story in a recent edition of Harness Racing Update that there is no more Chicago-area racing brings to a close a chapter – no, make that an encyclopedia – of racing in an area. Actually, make that an era that may never be rivaled in our sport.

Milbert has been a long-time journalist on the subject of racing – all types – in our beloved Prairie State.

He is one of the most respected journalists and has expertise in a plethora of sports which, thankfully, includes harness racing and his career with the Chicago Tribune began in the late 1960s and, again, thankfully, includes HRU.

When Neil Milbert puts his words on paper, readers should take note, especially, in this case, when he puts the final nail in the coffin of harness racing in Illinois.

I, myself, am an Illinois “foal” of 1943 and my Chicago roots on the South Side of that great city and, along with my “misspent youth,” brought me to Sportsman’s Park (SPk) on Aug. 22, 1959 where I witnessed the great Su Mac Lad win for John Peat – this prior to his sale to Mr. Berkemeyer when Stanley Dancer brought the best out of that grand trotter and amassed over $885,000 in lifetime bounty and wore out three sets of free-for-all trotters in New York.

I worked with – and for – the Illinois Harness Horsemen’s Association (IHHA) and Balmoral Park 50 years ago and spent many a day at rehab centers promoting goodwill in harness racing – capped off by a CBS news segment entitled “Someone You Should Know” for exposing the positive side of our grand sport.

There were countless memorable moments along the way before I moved to New Jersey in 1979 and, finally, Pompano way in 1986.

From SPk to Maywood Park to Washington Park to Balmoral Park, we had some great racing in the Chicago area – Bye

Bye Byrd, Midnite Hardy, Jimmy's Pilot, Active Don, Braidwood, Taurus Bomber, and Goose Filter quickly come to mind in those misspent youth days stretching into my mid-30s, a half century ago. Fairmount and Cahokia down south and Quad City Downs out west served their purpose for harness racing, too, and for many, many years.

Sportsman's Park hosted some wonderfully prestigious events over the years such as the American-National events, and they brought out the best horsemen in the business from all over the country, too.

Safford, Ervin, the Simpsons, Sr. and Jr., Del Miller, Hugh Bell, O'Brien, Bradbury, Buck Minniear, Sholty, Jimmy Arthur, Eddie Cobb, Joe Marsh, Jr., Haughton, Beaulieu, the Dancers – Stanley and Vernon – Bruce Nickells, Keith Waples, Harry Pownall, Sr., Baldwin, Hodgins, and Gagliardi, to name just a handful.

But our horsemen weren't left in the cold, Chris Boring, Daryl Busse, Stanley Banks, Del Insko, Jim Dennis, Billy Shuter, Bobby Williams, Gene Riegler, and Bob Farrington come quickly to mind reaching the winner's circle in those prestigious events.

The Dygert Memorial was hosted by Hawthorne Racecourse beginning in 1970 with grand trotters like Dayan, Speedy Crown, Savoir, Flower Child, and Delmonica Hanover among the earliest of winners, with Herbie winning for John Cisna, too.

Of course, Springfield and DuQuoin were two hot spots in racing circles with the Review Futurity events held at the Illinois State Fair in Springfield and the Hambletonian a long-time staple in DuQuoin.

There are many, many more memorable moments cast to the ages now as Illinois becomes the latest tragedy in a long list of track casualties over the past 50 years, and that is what Neil Milbert's words have done in spawning this Mane Attraction.

This isn't just about Chicago, my friends.

What has been lost is over 180 years of significant harness racing history involving over 200 cities, literally, from A to Z in Illinois.

Among these great cities are Altamont and Anna, Belleville and Belvidere, Cairo and Carlinville, Danville and, of course, DuQuoin, Earlville and Elgin, Fairfield and Farmer City, Galena and Galesburg, Harvard and Henry, Indianola, Jerseyville and Joliet, Kankakee and Kewanee, Lafayette and Libertyville, Macomb and Marengo, Newton and Nashville, Oregon and Olney, Palatine and Pana, Quincy, Rockford and Rushville, Sandwich and Shelbyville, Taylorville and Tuscola, Urbana, Vandal and Vienna, Warsaw and Waukegan, Xenia, Yorkville and, finally, Zeigler, among the many that may or may not survive.

Many of the above-mentioned cities were thriving with harness racing during the Civil War.

Chicago, itself, had harness racing in 1845 when Lady Jane and Byron proved to be the first two winners as harness racing was first introduced west of the shores of Lake Michigan in the Windy City.

Before Grand Circuit racing at Springfield and the subsequent building of the one-mile track in DuQuoin, Chicago was the place to be in Illinois for the appearance of all of the champions, including the immortal Flora Temple, who first appeared there in 1858, either in racing events or exhibitions.

Dexter, with Bud Doble, raced in Chicago and won in 1866, and Doble also handled the fabled Goldsmith Maid in no less than four annual appearances beginning in 1871.

He also exhibited Goldsmith Maid in Quincy in 1875.

World champion Maud S made a Chicago start on July 24, 1880 and the only horse to defeat her in a contested event, Charley Ford, in Cleveland, OH in 1880, returned to Chicago and completed his career as a livery horse over Chicago streets.

While the trotting horse was the control in those early years – pacers didn't come into vogue until well into the 20th century – there were some notable pacers that came into prominence in 1879 as the famed foursome of Mattie Hatter, Rowdy Boy, Sleepy Tom, and Lucy appeared in Chicago and Peoria.

But, most likely, the greatest pacer to race in Illinois was Johnston, that was so far ahead of his time that it was almost impossible to secure races for him, forcing him to compete in exhibitions only.

Johnston exploded in the racing world on Oct. 3, 1884 when he paced a mile in 2:06 1/4 over Chicago's one-mile track at the old Washington Park.

The only things good about the shuttering of harness racing in Illinois are the memories, and they will survive until my last breath.

It was first thought that the transmission was in error as Maud S was the only horse that had beaten 2:10 at that time.

Johnston was the first horse to pace a quarter mile in under a two-minute clip – 29 1/4 – in 1888, proving to some that a 2:00 mile was within the realm of a dream somewhere down the line.

Quite possibly, the most famous race in history was contested in Chicago in 1893, the year after the introduction of the bike wheel sulky.

It was the $15,000 Columbian free-for-all contested at the old Washington Park, near the World's Fair exhibition grounds.

The race took nine heats over three days – beginning Sept. 14 and concluding the 16.

The eventual winner was the grand mare Alix, who was bred in Iowa but foaled and raised in Illinois.

Alix was driven by Jack Curry and showed a nine-heat-summary of 1-6-8-1-6-2-3-2-1 with four heats contested the first day, four the second day and, then, the final on day three.

Alix won the first heat in a world record time of 2:07 3/4 with yet another mare, Hulda, winning the second and third heats for driver Orrin Hickok, he the brother of Wild Bill Hickok, the very famous frontier Marshall.

But Hulda pulled up lame in the next heat and was unable to go on to day two.

Pixley, yet another mare, won two heats on the second day of competition with six horses returning for day three with Alix capturing the crown.

In an event with three mares, five geldings and two stallions, only the mares were able to win any of the three heats necessary to win.

The race established a wagering record for a single event – nine heats – with over $100,000 bet.

The history of racing in Illinois would not be possible without one of the greatest horses of all time, Greyhound, and the Hayes family of DuQuoin.

At one time, Greyhound was the fastest – and most famous – trotter in history and Colonel E. J. Baker, from St. Charles, a wonderful gentleman and philanthropist owned him, and Stan Bergstein told me that he probably owned more 2:00 trotters than anyone involved in our sport.

The Hayes family put DuQuoin, on the map as a national landmark, especially in hosting the sport's most notable event – The Hambletonian.

Legislatively, night harness racing began in 1943 at the session of the General Assembly in Springfield.

Henry Knauf (who, eventually, became president of the USTA) introduced legislation to legalize pari-mutuel wagering.

At first, the bill was passed by the House but defeated in the Senate.

But, in 1945, Knauf reintroduced the bill and, with the help of Paul Powell, the bill overcame opposition and was signed into law by then Governor Dwight Green.

Overcoming more hurdles from County fair tracks that thought their racing programs would be damaged by lack of horse entries, an agreement was reached in 1949 for night-time presentation of harness racing with the stipulation that the pari-mutuel tracks would subsidize the county fair entry boxes guaranteeing at least five starters per race with ship-ins helping fulfill that obligation.

This enabled Sportsman's Park to open in 1949.

Subsequent bills were introduced and passed enabling the Illinois State Fair Colt Stakes to form with yet another bill passed establishing $10,000 added free-for-all events for 4-year-olds and up for Illinois bred horses.

Over the years, I, myself, was blessed to meet many great horsemen that have enriched my life until this very day.

These men and women and their horses didn't have to be famous –but some were – but the Midwest's long list includes Curly Smart, Bob Farrington, Dwayne Pletcher, Connel Willis, Lou Rapone, Edgar Leonard, Bob Williams, Edith Mouw, Gene Vallandingham, Gene Riegle, Billy Shuter, Butch Paisley, Frank O'Mara, Jim Dennis, Charlie Goins, Bill Roseboom, Del Insko, Kim Hankins, and hundreds more.

And their horses, my favorites, Frisco Watts, Pole Adios, free-legged Lewis Hanover, Morenci Chief, Yankee Madam, Sugar Moon, Dr. Hyslop, Meadow Russ, Tarport Princess, Poplar Sonny, Rockette Forbes, Fitment, Four Oaks, Selma Chief, Heather Mom, Jan Kaye, Glad Rags, Dancing David, and hundreds if not thousands more.

Yes, from Albatross' performance as a 2-year-old at SPk to Scotsdam's world record performance at May (that will never be cited in any record books), the Rusty Range track record of 1:58 at SPk and Four Oaks at Was winning at 1 1/16th miles among these grand memories.

Oh, I guess Bret Hanover's appearance was pretty special, too. You bet it was.

I have an incalculable number of memories from having a lunch with Dave Magee at the cafeteria across from Maywood Park back 50 years ago to when Maywood Park's George Miller forgot to put that "some-of-a-bitch five horse in my doubles."

My first writing appeared in the Horseman and Fair World in their Feb. 4, 1964 edition – the week Pompano Park opened – 62 years ago.

Since then, I've seen the best in the sport and the most tragic – witnessing Washington Park burning down.

That, probably, was the beginning of harness racing's slow demise.

The only things good about the shuttering of harness racing in Illinois are the memories, and they will survive until my last breath.

Neil Milbert's, too.

May The Horse Be With You!

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Allegiant smashes track record in Hugo Åbergs Memorial

by Thomas Hedlund

A huge crowd turned out at Jägersro on Tuesday (July 28) to see Elitlopp champion Allegiant, and the superstar mare rewarded them with one of the most dominant sprint performances ever witnessed on a Swedish racetrack. The 5-year-old daughter of Tactical Landing left no doubt about her superiority in the $320,000 Hugo Åbergs Memorial. As in the Elitlopp, driver Örjan Kihlström pulled the filly's hood before the start, and Allegiant exploded off the gate to seize command immediately. Unlike her blistering Elitlopp opening, the early fractions were just a little bit more measured this time, allowing Kihlström to rate the pace through a 1:20.1 over the opening 1,200 meters. From there, Allegiant simply drew farther and farther away from the field.

She crossed the wire in a sensational 1:49.2, establishing a new track record at Jägersro.

"You should be thanking Allegiant," Kihlström said. "She's the one doing all of this. It's almost unreal. She's taken trotting to another level. After the Elitlopp we wondered if she had gone too fast, but today we knew she could handle a demanding pace. I'm pretty sure I've never driven a better sprinter. I'm grateful to have the opportunity to sit behind horses like her. Once we reached the lead, I felt completely comfortable, and I thought it was safest to pull the hood before the start."

Trainer Daniel Redén struggled to find the right words.

"What an incredible individual," Redén said. "What an incredible horse. I honestly don't know what to say. I'm just happy so many people came out to see her."

Daim Brodda (Ready Express) finished a distant second, while Mellby Jinx (Ready Cash) completed the trifecta.

INTESA EK WEARS DOWN THE FAVORITE IN BREEDERS COURSE FILLY FINAL

The $100,000 Breeders Course final for 3-year-old fillies appeared headed for favorite Ifigenia of Brown, but Intesa Ek had other ideas. Driven by Magnus A. Djuse for trainer Alessandro Gocciadoro, the daughter of Face Time Bourbon ground away first-over after Robin Bakker had comfortably established Ifigenia of Brown (Walner) on the lead through modest fractions. After reaching the 1,200-meter mark in a leisurely 1:29.2 kilometer rate, the favorite looked poised for victory. Instead, Intesa Ek steadily increased the pressure around the final turn, surged to the front early in the stretch, and held safely despite Ifigenia of Brown fighting back along the inside. The winning time was a 1:56.4 mile rate.

ILIAS D'ARC SPOILS SWEDISH CELEBRATION

It looked as though Sweden would complete a clean sweep of the evening's feature events. All Dimensions, driven by Johan Untersteiner, controlled the pace in the $100,000 Breeders Course final for 3-year-old colts and geldings and opened clear entering the stretch. Then came the late charge from Italy. After enjoying a perfect pocket trip, Ilias d'Arc (Victor Gio) found room in mid-stretch. Driver Pietro Gubellini quickly built momentum, and the Harri Rantanen trainee surged past the leader in the final strides to win in a 1:54.4 mile rate, denying All Dimensions a memorable home victory.

Not 'Mamba,' but no slouch: streaking Aces And Cinches rolls into INSS leg 6

by James Platz

Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino will host the $94,500 sixth leg of Indiana Sires Stakes for sophomore pacing colts Thursday (July 30), and one of the favorites in the seven-horse field is a son of Odds On Equuleus. No, it's not North America Cup champion Odds On Mr Mamba. Instead, it is the streaking Aces And Cinches, riding a two-race tear for trainer Ron Burke in sires stakes action.

The son of the aforementioned Odds On Equuleus from the Roll With Joe mare Gypsy Bellevue began the season in the barn of trainer Daryl Bontrager. Under his care, Aces And Cinches recorded a win and a pair of third-place finishes in five attempts. Purchased by the partnership of Burke Racing Stable, Weaver

“This is a very strong group [in the INSS for 3-year-old male pacers]. This week Tyler George has Dancingdreamer, so that could mix things up a little bit. And then when [Odds On Mr] Mamba comes back, four of these colts can go with any 3-year-olds in the country. It's just going to be post position and who gets the best trip.”

— Adam Rucker

Bruscemi, Frank Baldachino, and Michael Rosenthal, the colt was moved to Burke's Indiana string, headed by Adam Rucker.

“We changed his shoes immediately,” Rucker said. “It was the first thing we did. I talked to Ronnie about that on the phone. He had degree shoes on all the way around, which really raises the horse's angles up. We got the shoes off and checked his angles and they were in our ballpark range where we like our horses. So, we just corrected some shoeing on him and he was good from day one.”

Aces And Cinches began training with What Nooo Waaay, runner-up to Odds On Mr Mamba in the opening leg, and Rucker liked what he saw in the new acquisition. After those initial training miles, it was decided to drop him into the second leg of sires stakes action. It would be his first taste of top-level competition this season.

“The second trip, I loved him and I just said, this horse is all right,” Rucker said of his first impressions. “He trained good. He's a stud. He's very big, very kind, and easy to get along with.”

Making his debut for the Burke stable, Aces And Cinches and driver Kyle Wilfong raced off the pace throughout the mile. Fifth in the stretch, the two kicked home in :25.4 to finish third while clocking a 1:50.1 mile.

“We changed [Aces And Cinches’] shoes immediately... I talked to Ronnie [Burke] about that on the phone. He had degree shoes on all the way around, which really raises the horse’s angles up. We got the shoes off and checked his angles and they were in our ballpark range where we like our horses. So, we just corrected some shoeing on him and he was good from day one.”

— Adam Rucker

“We didn’t over race him, we just took him off,” the conditioner said. “And he finished real good and went a big mile. After the race Kyle said, ‘This horse is all right.’”

Odds On Mr Mamba was absent from the second leg. After claiming the first round, he headed to Canada for the North America Cup. In leg 3, he returned, making an already competitive division that much deeper. Aces And Cinches and Wilfong lined up in post 8, and went off at odds of 56-1.

“We drew the outside and all the favorites were inside,” Rucker said. “We were kind of like, let’s just see if he races the same way and races good again.”

He backed up the previous start with another good outing. Aces And Cinches finished fourth in the contest, crossing the wire behind winner Swiss Lights, Dancingdreamer, and Odds On Mr Mamba, yet he recorded a 1:49.4 clocking, his fastest yet.

Due to the presence of Odds On Mr Mamba and others in the division, sires stakes legs have not attracted enough entries to require multiple divisions. As a result, every point is valuable, and after two starts, Aces And Cinches had enough to his credit to qualify for October’s $250,000 Super Final. With ‘Mamba’ on the road again for the Adios eliminations and final, the opportunity to score more points was available. Aces And Cinches seized the moment, collecting back-to-back wins, and now sits second in points with 124. He trails only Swiss Lights (142 points), a starter in each leg this season.

Drawing the outside in post 6 for the July 3 leg, the team switched up tactics just to see how Aces And Cinches would fare on the lead. He didn’t disappoint. Not only did the sophomore set the tempo throughout the circuit, he finished off the 1:48.1 mile with a :26.2 last quarter. The winning margin was more than four lengths.

“We trained him up a little harder,” Rucker said. “I was talking to Ronnie and he said, ‘Well, let’s just be aggressive with him tonight and see what we have.’ And that’s the night he went in [1]:48.1.”

Returning two weeks later, Aces And Cinches lined up behind the starting gate, tabbed as the favorite for the first time. This time Wilfong guided him to a spot in fourth along the rail after starting fifth in the field of six. Moving first up on the way to three-quarters, the sophomore closed in :26.4 to finish a half-length ahead of Swiss Lights, timed in 1:48.2.

“Daryl’s done a nice job bringing this horse up,” Rucker said. “He’s just very easy on himself. He’s got a very nice mouth. He sleeps a lot. He’s like a kitten in the barn. You don’t have to ever put a lead shank on him to take him out of the stall or put him on a horse trailer.”

In a little more than a month, the pacer has earned $113,000 for his connections while stamping himself as one of the top contenders in a tough group. Thursday, Aces And Cinches will have a chance to build on that momentum in yet another difficult test. Drawing post 6 in a field of seven, the race will again be without Odds On Mr Mamba, but will include leg winners Swiss Lights and Door Dash. To his outside is Dancingdreamer, transferred to the barn of defending Hoosier Park leading trainer Tyler George since finishing fourth in the last leg. The competition doesn’t get easier the rest of the way.

“This is a very strong group,” Rucker said. “This week Tyler George has Dancingdreamer, so that could mix things up a little bit. And then when Mamba comes back, four of these colts can go with any 3-year-olds in the country. It’s just going to be post position and who gets the best trip.”

THE DOWN UNDER DIARY

with ADAM HAMILTON

Will Rixon brushes off internet trolls before a holiday in the U.S.

by Adam Hamilton

After a race Down Under harness racing should have celebrated for weeks, the unfortunate dark side of the game ruined it for one of Australia's top young drivers.

Amidst the disappointment of Leap To Fame's luckless yet enormous run, in defeat to wonder mare Captains Mistress, in the Inter Dominion pacing final, an army of punters targeted Will Rixon as the reason Leap To Fame was denied a third successive crown.

Rixon's night was harrowing and very little of it was his fault.

What the 25-year-old endured in the hours and days after the race was an indictment on those who perpetrated it.

It all stemmed from his luckless drive on remarkable 10-year-old warhorse Max Delight, who boasts over $2.2 million in prize money and was contesting an amazing fourth Inter Dominion final.

Rixon knew he drew an awkward barrier 4 on a horse with his share of early speed, but not enough to lead.

But he had a plan.

Pacepix/Scott Hamilton

Will Rixon winning with Max Delight.

Rixon talked us through the incident which had everyone talking.

"Things didn't go to plan in the first 100 meters because most maps [how people expected horses to settle] had Minos coming out of the gate and finding the fence, but he wasn't driven that way and stayed in the running line, level with me," Rixon said.

"I was never concerned that much because I had Dangerous, Minos' stablemate, outside me around the whole first turn and I was happy to keep working forward [around Minos] to get to the running line [outside the leader, Captains Mistress].

"But once we came into the home straight [the first time], Jye [Coney, driver of Dangerous] really put his foot down. I did my best to go with him, but old 'Max' was a bit-flat footed and he got around me.

"Once Jye got to around me, he made it pretty clear he didn't want to follow me, so my only option unfortunately was to go back [to last], rather than be stuck three-wide the entire race."

The great Leap To Fame was following Max Delight in his quest to get around the field quickly to pressure the leader and main danger, Captains Mistress.

Rather than hook four-wide, Leap To Fame's driver Grant Dixon was dragged back to last as Rixon eased Max Delight back.

"I was surprised Grant [Dixon] didn't go around me [four wide] at that stage," Rixon said.

"It was a difficult night for me because when you get these opportunities in the biggest races, you hope to give your horse every chance. The build-up was so big to the race and I was disappointed how it all went."

Not long after Rixon was off the track, the public attacks, largely through social media, started.

They went beyond saying it was a bad drive, with many suggesting Rixon had deliberately got in Leap To Fame's way.

It was outrageously wrong and unfair.

"Everything that came up afterwards I thought was unfair to be honest," he said. "I wasn't overly happy with it and a bit upset to be honest.

"But the days after have shown I've got a lot of good people in my corner. Some close friends and family who were so supportive when I needed it.

"The amount of people who got in touch was pretty cool.

"I've just got to turn the page and, to be honest, it's just so unfortunate that was even spoken about after such a great race. It was such a successful night and didn't deserve that sort of talk."

It was a big downer on an otherwise phenomenal 2026 for Rixon where he scored the biggest win of his career, ironically on Max Delight, in the $1.25 million Group 1 Nullarbor at Perth's

Gloucester Park on April 17. It was his fourth Group 1 win as he nears 1,000 career wins.

Maybe Rixon will reach the 1,000-win milestone in the U.S.?

The surprisingly tall driver is close mates with former Aussie and now star U.S.-based driver Todd McCarthy and is heading over to stay with him for an extended holiday next week.

Some race driving is on the cards.

"I'll be taking my driver's bag, but it's more about a holiday after a big few years," Rixon said.

"I want to experience all the great racing over there and I'm excited I'll be there during Hambo time.

"I'm going to stay with Toddy and travel around a lot with him, so if the opportunity comes up for a few drives while I'm enjoying the break and the great racing, then I'd love to do it."

"Everything that came up afterwards [on social media criticizing my drive in the Inter Dominion final] I thought was unfair to be honest... I've just got to turn the page and, to be honest, it's just so unfortunate that was even spoken about after such a great race. It was such a successful night and didn't deserve that sort of talk."

— Will Rixon

Driver Will Rixon.

Like McCarthy, who was bred into harness racing, Rixon's pedigree is outstanding.

His grandfather was the late and legendary Bathurst horseman Tony "A.D." Turnbull, who has had many stars, but he is best known for the champion pacer of the 1970s Hondo Grattan, affectionately known as the "Bathurst Bulldog."

Hondo Grattan won 58 races, including two Inter Dominion finals (1973 and '74) and the 1974 Miracle Mile.

Rixon's mother, Cindy, was an accomplished horseperson herself.

And his father, Peter Rixon, famously trained former brilliant pacer Divisive, one of the best of his era and winner of the 2008 Miracle Mile.

Buoyed by the phenomenal success of Down Under drivers Dexter Dunn and Todd and Andy McCarthy, Will is one of a few Aussies who have expressed interest in one day giving it a crack in the U.S.

"Maybe later, I need a break and this is a holiday for me," he said with a laugh. "I might take a drive here or there, that's about it for me.

"Of course, you're in awe of what Dex, Toddy, and Andy have done and wonder, but for now I just want to go over and experience it all."

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Morgan Sheppard is 'Living the Dream'

by Chris Lomon

Sitting in the grandstand at Newfoundland's half-mile oval, Morgan Sheppard knew it wouldn't be her last visit.

Soon after finding a seat at the St. John's Racing & Entertainment Center in Goulds, a family-friendly neighborhood and former independent community, Sheppard realized she had found something special.

She had accompanied her father, longtime horseman Colin Sheppard, for the day, and the experience left a lasting impression.

"My dad, who was in the sport since he was a kid through his father, had been out of the racing game for about 16 years," Morgan said. "And then we started going back to the races. One day, he said, 'Let's go to the racetrack.' We were about an hour and a half away from Goulds. So, we got in our little Honda Civic and headed to the track. It was kind of over from there. We would watch the races and after the races were over, he would take me over to the barns. That was around 2009. The track was booming around that time, with a lot of big names out east – the Forwards, the Flemings, the MacDonalds – and others racing there.

"Once I saw the horses and met the horsepeople, making those connections, it didn't take long for me to fall in love with it all. By the following week, I was already asking my dad when we could return. He was beginning to miss the sport too and people started asking if he was going to get another horse."

The answer came in the form of Canadian Mint, a son of Million Dollar Cam.

Originally a $6,500 purchase at the yearling sale in Truro, NS, Morgan and her father ponied up $1,000 to buy the pacer.

Canadian Mint proved to be tailor-made for racing at Goulds, where Colin would sit in the race bike while Morgan headed to the barn area.

"This horse was really hard to do anything with," she said. "I never got much hands-on experience with him. My dad would race him and I would wander off to another barn where I would spend time with Gord Fleming. Between him and the Forwards,

Tiffany Bell

Morgan Sheppard in action.

I would spend a lot of time in their barns. I was just 9 or 10, but I would help them out. I was probably more in the way than helpful, but it was always a good day."

About 15 years ago, father and daughter began a tradition that continues today, making the annual trip to PEI for Old Home Week.

The celebrated summer harness racing festival is highlighted by the historic Gold Cup & Saucer race that takes place at Red Shores Racetrack & Casino at Charlottetown Driving Park.

"My dad and I started coming back for Old Home Week starting in 2011," Morgan said. "We have come every year since. At first, it was just a me and my dad trip because my parents had a restaurant back home, so my mom would hold the fort down for the week or 10 days we were gone. It was probably four or five years of just me and my dad. And then my dad said to my mom, 'Marie, you have to come to PEI because you'll love it.'"

"They decided to build a duplex in Brackley Beach, which is about 20 to 25 minutes from Charlottetown Driving Park. We started coming multiple times a year. Any time we could go, we did."

Prince Edward Island would soon become home for Morgan.

"I went to Memorial University and started my business degree there," she said. "I applied to UPEI for my second year and received my acceptance letter days later, in 2019. I packed up my little Honda Civic and moved to PEI."

Her connection to the harness racing world continued to grow once she arrived.

A bay pacer who would race 202 times, winning on 29 occasions, would be her introduction to the PEI racing scene.

"We had an older horse at the time, Give Em Heck," Morgan said. "He ended up having a broken coffin bone and was retired. He is with a good family friend in Tyne Valley, PEI, so he has plenty of acres to run on and is doing great. I feel very blessed."

Another horse soon played an equally important role in her journey.

“Once I saw the horses and met the horsepeople [at Goulds], making those connections, it didn’t take long for me to fall in love with it all. By the following week, I was already asking my dad when we could return. He was beginning to miss the sport too and people started asking if he was going to get another horse.”

— Morgan Sheppard

Doc Darryl, a son of Sunshine Beach, bred in Quebec by Hudson Standardbred Stb Inc, put Morgan in the driver’s seat – literally.

“In December of 2021, we bought Doc Darryl,” she said. “He was my first horse. He had been trained down and was off for a little break from racing for about two weeks. Kenny and Clifford Murphy trained him back up and he won his first three races for us.

“Kenny said to me one morning, ‘This is your time to shine, and you are going to go out and train him,’ she said. “I was extremely nervous. I had just started jogging, so I went out after he gave me a crash course on how to read a watch. He said to go in about 2:40. I ended up going around 2:45, so it was slow, but at that time I felt like I was absolutely flying. I was all shakes and jitters after, but he told me I did a good job and that I would keep doing it.”

She kept learning, and in 2022 earned her trainer’s license.

Her first win came with Shakemeup Hanover, a son of Bettors Delight, on Aug. 19, 2022, at Charlottetown Driving Park.

The victory prompted a myriad of emotions, ranging from trepidation to elation, all within the span of less than 10 minutes.

“It was my 10th lifetime start with a horse we bought from the late Earl Smith,” Morgan said. “He was a troublesome horse. We knew he had speed, but he couldn’t put it all together. He taught me a lot about patience.”

Especially on that summer evening in Charlottetown.

“That race happened on Old Home Week, so that was special for us because that’s why we started coming to PEI,” she said. “He got away third and dad put him on the front and let him roll along. Coming down the stretch, he opened up a two-length lead over the horse behind him. He went on the run, but it was only for a stride and then dad got him back on the pace. It took a long time to see if they were going to place him back to second. We were waiting and waiting, but they cleared it and declared him the winner. That was very exciting and we had a big group in the winner’s circle.”

There have been plenty more winning moments since then.

For the past three racing seasons, Sheppard has reached double digits in the win column, including a career-best 12 triumphs in 2025.

“Another big part of my journey has been building Living the Dream Stables. Through sharing our day-to-day life at the farm and the stories of our horses, we’ve built an incredible community online. The journey of Benny in particular has connected with so many people, and it’s been amazing to see how much support he’s received while also introducing new people to the standardbred industry.”

— Morgan Sheppard

Achieving that success has been a team effort.

“My partner, Darcy, works full-time at his own job and then comes home to help in any way he can,” Morgan said. “Whether it’s mucking stalls, putting horses away, jogging, training, or whatever else needs to be done, he’s always there to lend a hand without a single complaint.

“My dad is the backbone of our operation – he trains alongside me, jogs horses, shoes all of our own horses, and is an endless source of knowledge. My mom retired after a lifelong career as a school secretary but somehow works even harder now helping in the barns every day. And our groom, Jenny, is always willing to lend a hand and cares for our horses as if they were her own. It truly takes an entire team to keep our operation going, and I’m incredibly grateful for every one of them.”

Morgan is also grateful to be able to share her standardbred world with others.

“Another big part of my journey has been building Living the Dream Stables,” she said. “Through sharing our day-to-day life at the farm and the stories of our horses, we’ve built an incredible community online. The journey of Benny in particular has connected with so many people, and it’s been amazing to see how much support he’s received while also introducing new people to the standardbred industry.”

As for the racing side, Morgan is raising the bar, objective-wise, this year.

“I have a small goal set for myself for this year, for the 2026 racing season,” she said. “Every year, I try to have something that is attainable. If you put the work in, hopefully it works. My goal is to win 15 races this year. Last year, I set a goal of 10 wins, and we ended up with 12, so that was good to hit the milestone. This year, we have more horses than we usually do, so that’s why I landed on 15 wins.”

As for long-term objectives, Morgan, who serves on the Prince Edward Island Standardbred Horse Owners Association (PEISHOA) board and writes for the Atlantic Post Calls newspaper, resists the urge to look too far ahead.

Instead, she prefers to focus on one race at a time.

“I don’t have a big long-term goal,” she said. “My biggest thing is that if the horses we have try their best – if they finish sixth, pick up a check or win – that is all that matters to me.”

Looking back, Morgan knows exactly where it all began.

“You look back at the times that brought me into it,” she said, “and you can’t help but smile.”

Fields set for Hambletonian, Oaks elims at Big M

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager on behalf of the Hambletonian Society

Dan Patch Award winner Apex, MGM Yonkers Trot champion Inexpressable, and multiple stakes winners Diabolic Hill, Endurance, and Spencer Hanover were among 19 horses entered Tuesday (July 28) for the 101st edition of the Hambletonian Stakes, for 3-year-old trotters, at The Meadowlands.

Two $100,175 eliminations will be held Saturday (Aug. 1) at The Big M. The top five finishers from each elim will advance to the $1 million Grade 1 Winning Key Farm Hambletonian final on Aug. 8 at The Meadowlands.

Twenty-one horses entered the companion filly event, the Hambletonian Oaks, resulting in three $50,175 eliminations Saturday (Aug. 1) at The Meadowlands. The top three finishers from each elim plus the fourth-place finisher with the highest lifetime earnings will advance to the $500,000 Grade 1 Hambletonian Oaks final, also on Aug. 8.

Elimination winners will draw for post positions 1 through 6 in the final. All other finalists will be placed in an open draw for the remaining post positions. The draws for the finals of both the Hambletonian and Hambletonian Oaks will be conducted on Aug. 4 during a luncheon from 2-5 p.m. at The Chateau Grande in East Brunswick, NJ.

Apex, the No. 1-ranked horse in Meadowlands announcer/analyst Ken Warkentin's Road to the Winning Key Farm Hambletonian, and Spencer Hanover were among four horses entered by trainer Marcus Melander. The others were American Power and Nix Nacken.

After beginning this season with a neck loss to American Power, Apex has won the New Jersey Sire Stakes championship in a career-best 1:50.3 on June 12 and a division of the G3 Stanley Dancer Memorial on July 11, all at The Meadowlands. The son of Walner—Mission Brief has won eight of 12 lifetime races and earned $1.06 million. His victories last year included the Mohawk Million and Peter Haughton Memorial, both Grade 1 stakes.

Apex will leave from post 7 in a field of nine in the first

Hambletonian elimination, with Dexter Dunn in the sulky.

American Power also is in the first elimination, where he will leave from post 8 with driver James MacDonald. American Power was second to Apex in the Dancer and heads to his Hambletonian elim off a win in the Grade 2 Dr. Harry M. Zweig Memorial on July 19 at Vernon Downs. He won in a career-best 1:50, which is tied with Nix Nacken for the fastest mile of the season by a 3-year-old trotter.

Leaving from the outside post 9 in the first elimination will be Endurance, who has won three consecutive races, including a Dancer division, for trainer Chris Beaver and driver Andrew McCarthy. His only loss in five starts this season was a second-place finish behind Spencer Hanover in the inaugural Oak Grove Trotting Derby on May 16 at Oak Grove.

Inexpressable, who won the Grade 2 Yonkers Trot on June 26 at Yonkers Raceway, will start from post 3 in the first elimination, with Scott Zeron listed to drive for trainer Lucas Wallin. The Yonkers Trot is the first jewel in the Trotting Triple Crown, followed by the Hambletonian and Kentucky Futurity. Nine horses have captured the Trotting Triple Crown since its inception in 1955, the most recent being Marion Marauder in 2016.

Also in the first elim is Ardonne, who won the Grade 1 William Wellwood Memorial last year. He will start from post 5 with trainer/driver Åke Svanstedt.

Spencer Hanover, this season's richest 3-year-old trotter with $393,391, will start from post 3 in the second Hambletonian elimination. He was a Grade 1 Breeders Crown champion at age 2 and won this year's Oak Grove Trotting Derby on May 16 and the Empire Breeders Classic on June 12 at Vernon Downs. Jason Bartlett will drive Spencer Hanover for trainer Melander.

The second elimination also includes Diabolic Hill, who won last year's Grade 1 Valley Victory Stakes. This year, he was second to Apex in the New Jersey Sire Stakes championship and runner-up to American Power in the Zweig. He will leave from post 9 with Todd McCarthy driving for trainer Annie Stoebe.

Magic Punk, who won the Grade 3 Dexter Cup on May 2 at The Meadowlands, will start from post 7 in the second elim with Yannick Gingras driving for trainer Svanstedt, while 2025 Ohio Horse of the Year Big Ranger, who has won 11 of 13 career races, will leave from post 8 with Tim Tetrack driving for trainer Anette Lorentzon.

The Hambletonian eliminations are races 7 and 9.

Turning to the Hambletonian Oaks, Nezuko Kamado S is this season's fastest sophomore trotting filly thanks to her 1:50.1 triumph in a division of the Grade 2 Del Miller Memorial on July 11 at The Meadowlands. Unbeaten in four starts in 2026, she will leave from post 5 in the second Oaks elimination, with Scott Zeron in the sulky for trainer Melander.

The second elim also includes Storybook Love, who was a Breeders Crown winner last year, and starts Saturday from post 3 with Todd Ratchford driving for trainer Matt Bax.

Jailbird Jog, this season's richest 3-year-old trotting filly with $295,275, will start from post 4 in the first Oaks elimination. Her wins this season include the Oak Grove Trotting Oaks on May 16, a Del Miller Memorial division on July 11 and the Tompkins-Geers Stakes on July 25 at The Meadowlands. James MacDonald will drive for trainer Jason McGinnis.

Also in the first elimination is New Jersey Sire Stakes champion Madam Cheval, who will leave from post 7 with Tim Tetrick driving for trainer Nancy Takter.

The third elimination finds Dan Patch Award winner Setyoursightshigh, who heads to her race off a win in the Grade 2 Zweig Memorial Filly Trot on July 19 at Vernon. She has finished worse than second only once in 16 lifetime starts, with nine victories, and leaves from post 1 on Saturday with Dunn driving for Melander.

Leading Lady, who missed by a neck in both the Zweig and New Jersey Sire Stakes championship, will leave from post 5 in the third elim. Another Takter trainee, she will have Matt Kakaley in the sulky.

The third elimination also includes Victorianas Secret, who is coming off a victory in the Grade 3 Moni Maker Stakes on July 18 at Eldorado Scioto Downs and will leave from post 2 with Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. driving for trainer Vernon Beachy.

The Hambletonian Oaks eliminations are races 1, 4, and 6.

Racing begins at 6:20 p.m. (EDT). For free TrackMaster past performances for The Big M, visit the track's website here.

Kentucky SIRE STAKES REPORT

Go Dog Go returns a winner in Red Mile KYSS kickoff

by Ray Coto for The Red Mile

Odds-on favorite Go Dog Go perched behind tempo-setter Gimpanzee Dancer and pounced in the stretch for a simple 1:50.3 victory in the opening round of Kentucky Sire Stakes (KYSS) for 4-year-old trotting males on Tuesday (July 28) at The Red Mile.

Gimpanzee Dancer (driven by Andy McCarthy) motored out of post 6 to the top with Go Dog Go (Scott Zeron), leaving from the pylon post, securing the pocket to a :26.4 first quarter. Left with no challengers through a :56.1 half and 1:24.1 three-quarters, Gimpanzee Dancer prepared for the attack of Go Dog Go in the ensuing stretch sprint but could not repel the Carter Pinsky trainee. Go Dog Go spurted past Gimpanzee Dancer and coasted to the beam a two-length winner with Big Shoes (Todd McCarthy) chasing in third and Boots N Beer (Joey Putnam) following in fourth.

A stallion by Greenshoe—Primary Target, Go Dog Go competes for owners Wiesman Farms LLC and Al Libfeld. Go Dog Go won his third race from eight starts this season and his 10th race from 30 starts in his career, earning $712,410. He paid $3.28 to win.

Trainer Carter Pinsky also took the opening $35,000 round of the KYSS for 4-year-old trotting mares with Grand Reserve (Andy McCarthy) while also having three of the four competing in the non-betting race before the pari-mutuel card. Andy McCarthy grabbed the lead and took her peers around the track through a clip of :28.3, :57.1, and 1:24.3 to clock a 1:52 mile over pocket-chaser Aperfect Annie (Marvin Luna). Winnpanzee (David Miller) clinched third from Best Friends Girl (Todd McCarthy). Grand Reserve, a daughter of Walner—Bella Glos, competes for owner Hudson Standrbrd Stb Inc. She won her second race from 10 starts this season and her fifth race from 33 starts in her career, pushing her bankroll to $172,361.

Live harness racing at The Red Mile resumes on Sunday (Aug. 2) with KYSS action slated for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings headlined by the $80,000 Kentucky Championship Series. First-race post time on Sunday is 5:05 p.m. (EDT).

CAPTAIN ARTUROVICO SOARS IN RED MILE KYSS OPENER

Odds-on choice Captain Arturovico swept to the lead past the quarter and held authority to the finish for a comfortable 1:49.1 victory in the $35,000 kickoff leg of the Kentucky Sire Stakes (KYSS) for 4-year-old pacing males on Monday afternoon (July 27) at The Red Mile.

Driver Dexter Dunn eased into third with Captain Arturovico from the pylon post as Damn The Torpedoes (driven by Andy McCarthy) crossed over from post 7 to grab the lead to a :27.4 first quarter. Dunn soon pulled his charge from the pylons and brushed to the top before a :55.2 half and cruised under minimal pressure to three-quarters in 1:22.4. From there, he glided home for a 3¼-length victory while Damn The Torpedoes gave chase in second with Fusion (Josert Fonseca) rallying from a third-over trip for third, and Somelousomewhere (Atlee Bender) levelling off from a first-over bid past the half for fourth.

Ron Burke trains Captain Arturovico, a 4-year-old gelding by Captaintreacherous—Tilikum, for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC, Weaver Brussemi LLC, Larry Karr, and Phil Collura. The gelding collected his fifth win from 13 starts this season and his 17th victory from 43 starts in his career, pushing his earnings to $542,559. He paid $3.08 to win.

Dunn also scored in the $35,000 KYSS opening prelim for 4-year-old pacing mares, contested as a non-betting race before the pari-mutuel card, with Brett Pelling pupil Three Times Bettor in a 1:50.1 mile. After sitting a pocket trip to pacesetter Odds On Chesapeake (Luke Hanners) through opening fractions of :28.1 and :55.1, Three Times Bettor lifted after the leader approaching three-quarters in 1:24.1 and surged by smoothly in the stretch for a 1¼-length win. Odds On Chesapeake finished second with Caviart Delight (Todd McCarthy) closing for third, and Rose (Andy McCarthy) settling for fourth.

A daughter of Bettors Delight—Three Times A Lady, Three Times Bettor competes for owner Thaddeus Wier. She won her seventh race from nine starts this season and her 16th race from 26 starts in her career, good for $422,314 in earnings.

Ohio Sires Stakes 2-year-old colt pace action at Scioto Downs

by Eldorado Scioto Downs

Two $75,000 divisions of the Ohio Sires Stakes for 2-year-old colt pacers were held Saturday (July 25) at Eldorado Scioto Downs. Both divisions went in 1:52, but each was won by horses in different stages of their freshman campaign – Night Surfer won in his first lifetime start, but it was Don'ttruckwithme who is now undefeated, winning his first three lifetime races in impressive fashion.

Getting off the car from post 6, Chris Lems pointed Don'ttruckwithme to the front and never looked back, tripping the beam in :28, :56.4, and 1:24.1. Coming home in :27.4, the Catch The Fire gelding won by 2½ lengths over Ocean Party (David Miller); First Grade (Chris Page) was third.

Don'ttruckwithme won the Next Generation on July 4 and followed that up with a win in the first leg of the Ohio Sires Stakes. Bred by Judy Roegner, out of her Real Desire mare Age Of Consent, Don'ttruckwithme now has $150,000 earned. Daren Harvey trains Don'ttruckwithme who was a $37,000 purchase from the Ohio Selected Yearling Sale by Wayne Mast, Jr. Eden Acres Farmstead, and Kirk Nichols.

Brad Conrad

Night Surfer (Luke Hanners) winning the other division.

Brad Conrad

Don'ttruckwithme (Chris Lems) winning his Ohio Sires Stakes for 2-year-old pacing colts on Saturday at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

In the first division, eventual winner Night Surfer got away third from the rail while Jett James (Brett Miller) took the early lead, albeit parked, towards the :26.2 opening quarter. Marvin Luna kept Atlantic Ivey moving from post 7 and they made the front shortly thereafter, getting to the half in :55.3 and to the three-quarters in 1:24.3. Luke Hanners pulled Night Surfer midway down the backstretch in a first over bid, taking the lead as the field came off the last turn. Posting a :26.3 last quarter, Night Surfer won by three-quarters-of-a-length over North Rim (Page); Jett James was third.

Night Surfer, by Downbytheseaside out of the Bettors Delight mare Dark Force, was a $67,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from KAD Farms. Virgil Morgan, Jr. trains the colt for Let It Ride Stables, Morrison Racing Stables, and Steven Held.

The 91-day 2026 Eldorado Scioto Downs regular season runs through Sept. 19. Races are held Tuesday-Saturday, with a special holiday card on Labor Day instead of the Tuesday card that week. The track will then re-open for the Breeders Crown, with eliminations held Oct. 16-17 and the finals Oct. 23-24. More information about all the racing action at Scioto can be found on the Eldorado Scioto Downs website.

Indiana SIRE STAKES REPORT

Bender sweeps INSS on five-win night at Hoosier

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Atlee Bender ended the week of racing at Harrah's Hoosier Park in style, racking up five wins on the night including sweeping both $67,500 divisions of Indiana Sires Stakes for 2-year-old trotting fillies on Saturday (July 25).

Bender's first victory on the evening came as a stunner, driving the Jeff Cullipher trained Gladden who stormed late in the stretch to score at 27-1 from the second-tier.

Gladden was away in sixth early from post 10, meanwhile Janae (Jordan Ross) shot out of the gate the quickest to take control of the lead to the turn in :28.2 with Rebuffpinklady (Kevin Lambricht) keeping up in second. On the backstretch the field grew scattered with Janae, Rebuffpinklady, and Unburdened grabbing the halfway pole in :58.3 as Gladden joined the outer-flow from seventh. Janae's lead continued to hold strong to the three-quarters in 1:28.2. Unburdened moved sharply first-up on the leader cruising past Janae, looking to lock up the stakes race. From seventh, Gladden blitzed along the far outside in :26.4, nailing Unburdened by a head on the wire. Janae held sway for the show spot as the early pace setter.

Gladden cashed in her first win of the season in her second try for a lifetime total of $33,750. The Temporal Hanover—Pleaspleaspleas filly is owned by Duane Miller and Jeff Cullipher. Gladden was bred by Duane Miller. The 2-year-old paid $57.60 to win.

Dean Gillette

Gladden (Atlee Bender) winning her Indiana Sires Stakes event for 2-year-old trotting fillies on Saturday at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

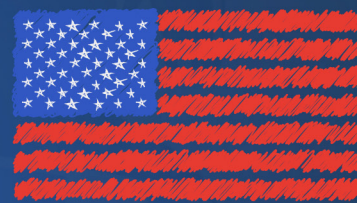

In the second division, Bender scored with the pocket-sitter Redice as the 5-2 second choice for trainer Erv Miller.

Leaving from the rail, Redice secured the pocket-trip behind a revved-up Satin Serenade (John De Long) who took control of the field of nine to the quarter in :27.3. The lead duo remained the same to the half in :57, before 6-5 favorite Dance Remix (Jordan Ross) tipped to the outside from fourth. Anticipating that move, Redice moved to the outside on the far turn, snatching the lead from Satin Serenade before three-quarters in 1:26.4. Redice was gone from there, powering clear by five lengths in the stretch to win in 1:55. Dance Remix got up for second, with Finish Big (Robert Taylor) third.

It was the second win in four outings this season for Redice. The daughter of Rebuff—Fuzzy Dice was bred by Kjell Andersen, Redice (Atlee Bender) winning the other division.

Lucas Wallin, and Pieter Delis and has banked $68,750 for owners Ervin Miller Stable, Anthony Lombardi, and Stepbystep racing.

That victory kicked off a natural grand slam in the bike for Bender who ended with five on the card, including Kaks The Boss ($5.20, 1:51.2), Docini ($6.20, 1:58) and Lady Panera ($3.40, 1:52.3). The last two were trained by Erv Miller, giving the conditioner a hat-trick on the night.

In addition to Indiana Sire Stakes, a pair of $22,000 open events for trotters and filly and mare pacers were contested, holding true to form with heavy favorites securing the victories.

Ponda Jet driven by Kyle Wilfong for trainer Jay Hochstetler tallied his third straight win, taking down the $22,000 open trot.

Ponda Jet is owned by Connie Hochstetler, Robert Buddig, and Allen Schwartz. The 6-year-old Dover Dan gelding increased his career earnings to $859,472. Ponda Jet claimed his fifth win of the season paying $2.60 to win.

Can'ttouchthese then held up her end of the bargain as the 1-5 favorite in the filly and mare open pace, winning from the pocket with John De Long aboard for trainer Roger Welch.

Can'ttouchthese has won back-to-back and four of eight on the season. The 21st career victory pushed the 4-year-old daughter of JK Endofanera—Can't Touch This' bankroll beyond $600,000, banking $608,256 for owners and breeders William De Long, Patrick De Long, and Douglas Riccolo.

In addition to the action on track, Harrah's Hoosier Park conducted Empire of Hope, raising $50,843 for the Standardbred Transition Alliance over the course of the last year.

Maine SIRE STAKES REPORT

Hayden gets redemption at Cumberland

by Chris Tully for First Tracks Cumberland

Maine's entire group of 2- and 3-year-old trotters invaded Cumberland Raceway on Sunday (July 26), with all eyes upon co-track record holder Hayden as the filly attempted to avenge her defeat in her most recent outing.

One of four $14,000-plus divisions of the Maine Sire Stakes on the afternoon program, the sophomore filly trot was carded as race 7 and it was evident that the 1-2 public choice was back to her previous form. Trainer/driver Gary Hall left swiftly from the outermost post 6 with the daughter of Cantab Fashion and set a swift :29.3 opening panel, leaving three lengths back to the pocket sitting Pembroke Lady (Heath Campbell).

Hayden was then checked back to a more reasonable 1:01.1 midway marker, prompting John Nason to come first over with I Think I Can. Through the 1:31.3 third panel the pacesetting distaff had allowed the aggressors to get within a half-length of her command. However, things changed dramatically around the final turn as Hall gave the filly her head and she scampered off to win by 7¾ lengths, leaving the rest of the field in her wake with a mile in 2:01.3.

Owned and bred by Stephen Hall, it was the third seasonal victory for Hayden, which was just two-fifths-of-a-second off of her previous track record performance. She returned $3 for the fifth win of her career, increasing her lifetime earnings to $70,160.

Our Last Quote (Mike Cushing) rallied for second; I Think I Can was third in the $15,486 event.

The other $15,035 Maine Sire Stakes for 2-year-old trotting colts was a pari-mutuel dash with Ken and Lisa Watson's U Know I Know emerging as that division's talent by virtue of his second consecutive victory.

Ken Watson drove the son of Whataworkout to another wire-to-wire romp in 2:06.2, scoring by five open lengths. Leaving from post 2 U Know I Know had 12 lengths on the field at the :31.4 opening panel, and after a 1:04 breather, 3-5 favorite Come On Charlie (Mark Athearn) had caught the colt past the 1:35.2 third station.

Nonetheless, as soon as the leader heard hoof beats nearby, he responded with a :31 closing kick to grab a new time badge.

Trained by Lisa Watson for owner/breeder Barbara Lawson, he returned $4 for his back-to-back triumph.

Pembroke Zagursky (Heath Campbell) was a fast closing second; Come On Charlie was third.

Earlier in the day, before the pari-mutuel card, Wilder N Idy also recaptured some of his previous glory in the $14,783 division for 3-year-old male trotters.

Following a miscue in his last start, the son of To The Hilt returned to his home turf to try to improve his fortunes for Team Athearn. Despite a bobble at the start, and spotting the pacesetting Gus's Workout (Heath Campbell) six lengths, driver Mark Athearn managed to regain the gelding's composure to get up in the final strides to prevail by three-parts-of-a-length in 2:01.

Trained by Gretchen Athearn for owner Patricia Leavitt, it was Wilder N Idy's third seasonal victory. Bred by the late Mike Andrew, his lifetime earnings are now $132,919 with 11 career victories under his belt.

Trottinfortreasure (Kevin Switzer, Jr.) was third.

In the second $14,681 early Maine Sire Stake for 2-year-old trotting fillies it was a stablemate battle right down to the wire as Mikella Bella overtook the pacesetting Princess Caledonia (Gary Hall) after the filly went off-stride in mid-stretch.

Driven by Heath Campbell for trainer/co-owner Gary Hall, the daughter of To The Hilt picked up her first win by a length in 2:09.4. Also owned by James Kelly, Jr., Betsey Kelley, and Kristina Hall, she was bred by Anita Anastasopoulos.

Cape Cod Friday (Dave Ingraham) was third.

Kevin Switzer, Jr. led all drivers on the Sunday card with four trips to the winner's circle, raising his stats on the seasonal leaderboard to 93 wins. Nick Graffam sits second with 70, and Aaron Hall is third with 59. Gary Hall, Marc Tardif, and Lisa Watson each enjoyed a pair of training wins on the program. Michelle Lefebvre leads all conditioners over the Spring-Summer meet with 54 wins, while Bob Marston is second with 43 heading into the final weekend of the campaign.

Racing resumes on Saturday (Aug. 1) for the final weekend of the Spring-Summer meet at First Tracks Cumberland.

First post is 12:15 pm (EDT) during the extended pari-mutuel meeting, which runs through Aug. 2.

SNOWONTHEPINES REMAINS UNDEFEATED IN MAINE

While the industry's attention may have been on the 60th Delvin Miller Adios on Saturday (July 25), Cumberland Raceway hosted their own showcase for sophomore pacers as two $15,000-plus divisions of the Maine Sire Stakes for 3-year-old pacing fillies featured the current, undefeated divisional star Snowonthepines.

The first $15,209 division, an early non-betting race, was another down the road performance for the daughter of Dude's The Man who has never seen the back of a helmet. Scoring from the pylon position regular pilot Kevin Switzer, Jr. sent the fast filly right out to the front, right where she likes it, and proceeded to set moderate opening fractions of :30 and 1:02.1.

Just Delightful (Ron Cushing) sat a comfortable pocket trip, and as the field went toward the 1:31.1 third panel Joey Mosher tipped Heymickeyyousofine from fifth to improve his position. However, there was no catching Snowonthepines as she threw down a :28.2 final quarter to put the finishing touches on a 1:59.3 score, winning by a measured 1½ lengths.

Owned and bred by Leighton Property, and trained by Marc Tardif, it was the fifth win of the season. While maintaining her unblemished record, and obtaining her 14th lifetime triumph, she increased her career earnings to $137,513.

Just Delightful finished second; She's A Firefly (Nick Graffam) was third.

In the second $15,209 Maine Sire Stakes for sophomore pacing distaffs, it was all Dudelookslikeafly who put the field in her rearview mirror from post 1, and never looked back.

Aaron Hall handled the driving duties for this member of the Tardif Taskforce, setting opening splits of :29.1 and 1:01 before any outer flow had developed. With Ekorus (Nick Graffam) sitting a tight pocket, Andy Harrington moved Race Me Ireland from third to engage the pacesetter as the field hit the third station in 1:30.4.

Down the lane the daughter of Dude's The Man hit the afterburners and drew off by 4½ lengths to win in 2:00. Trained by Marc Tardif for owners Leighton Property and Victoria Leighton, it was her third seasonal victory. Bred in Maine by Stephanie Gray, her lifetime earnings got a boost to $43,316.

Ekorus finished second; Race Me Ireland was third.

On the regular, pari-mutuel program drivers Nick Graffam and Kevin Switzer, Jr. traded punches through the first eight races, with each taking four. Graffam came back to win two more to lead all drivers with six wins on the 13-race program.

HARNESS RACING PRESS RELEASES, NOTES & ANNOUNCEMENTS

Unreasonable wins Mohegan Cup in track record 1:48

Unreasonable won the inaugural $75,000 Mohegan Cup for free-for-all pacing mares Sunday evening (July 26) at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania, tying Somwhero rainbow's 12-year-old track record for 4-year-old pacing mares with a powerful front-end victory in 1:48. That clocking is also the Pocono standard for females of any age.

The early rush for prime racing position necessitated Unreasonable to zoom up four-wide to take the lead, with the 1-2 favorite looping three inside rivals, including second choice (6-5) Louies Girl N. The latter pressed on three- then two-wide in hopes of getting a spot near the leader, but with 75-1 shot Front Page Story taking full advantage of track geometry from the rail and maintaining the pocket, Louies Girl N had to back off to third in the wicked :25.2 opener.

Just before the :54.1 half, 40-1 Champagne Room (the tote board co-third choice) started an uncovered move that put pressure on Unreasonable, forcing her to reach the three quarters in 1:21. The former's big raw brush ended on the far turn, and with Front Page Story gapping a bit in the pocket and Louies Girl N locked behind her, Unreasonable was able to maintain a clear advantage with the mildest of coaxing – and the third quarter of :27 or less she paced in the race. Louies Girl N was able to find belated clearance deep in the Pocono Pike to take second, 1¼ lengths behind the winner and a half-length ahead of longshot Front Page Story, who in turn preserved third in a photo with fellow longshot The Last Martini.

A daughter of Huntsville, Unreasonable had certainly been showing top form coming to Pocono, with two photo losses to Twin B Joe Fresh preceded by a third to Miki And Minnie in the best stakes company North America had to offer. In the Mohegan Cup (named after the Connecticut-based Native American tribe who operates Pocono), Unreasonable showed she can step with the very best of her division as she boosted her bankroll to $237,369 this year and $939,003 lifetime for the powerful combine of trainer Andrew Harris and Punisher 11 Stable LLC.

Matt Kakaley had three driving victories to take honors on the Sunday card. Åke Svanstedt guided two winners, both of whom he trained; Brad Chisholm drove two winners, both of whom are trained by Brett Pelling.

Timothy guts out Proud Series final victory on Red Mile opening night

Timothy stayed brave making an uncovered assault from the half to the finish to earn a gritty 1:51 victory in the $50,000 Kentucky Proud Series final for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings on opening night at The Red Mile on Sunday (July 26), a night which featured over $400,000 in purses.

Leaving from post 6, 20-year-old Zyler Maxwell floated Timothy, the 9-5 favorite, forward into third as Odds On Python (driven by Josh Sutton) motored to the lead approaching a :26.4 first quarter. Maxwell stayed put from third up the backstretch until Dragon Sting (Atlee Bender) started to tip off the pylons, forcing Maxwell to flush Timothy and lead the overland charge into a :55.2 half. Timothy plugged towards Odds On Python as the tempo stayed hot to three-quarters in 1:22.4 and the pair went toe-to-toe in the stretch, where Timothy muscled past the pacesetter and then staved off late charges to seize victory by a half-length in a 1:51 mile. Fletchers Field (Jeremy Bobbitt) closed for second with L B I (Tim Tetrick) also rallying late to take third.

Victor Allen trains Timothy, a colt by Catch The Fire—Designated Drinker, for owner Michael Tarkington. The colt won his sixth race from 13 starts, has now earned $64,725, and paid $5.62 to win.

Aerowulf (Andy McCarthy, 1:52.3 winning mile; $10.26 to win) opened the card with a first-up grind to win the Proud Series final for freshman pacing fillies. McCarthy forged up the rim from a mid-pack spot after odds-on favorite and pacesetter Watermelon Sizzle (Devon Tharps) posted a quick early clip of :26.2 and :55.1. Aerowulf steadily advanced on the favorite through the last turn and, after three-quarters in 1:24.1, thrust past and strode comfortably to a four-length win. Tammy's Wish (Tim Tetrick) persevered from a wide trip out of post 10 for second with Midnight Beauty (Zyler Maxwell) splitting through traffic for third. Carter Pinske trains Aerowulf, a filly by Catch The Fire—Lyons Katrina, for owner Dr. Madonna Morrison.

Doc's Girl Friday (Randy Jerrell, 1:52.1; $9.92) swarmed to the front after following cover from her stablemate and landed a neck win on 2-5 favorite Rocksy (Tim Tetrick) in the Proud Series final for sophomore pacing fillies. Jerrell caught a tow from Odds On Ufo (Marvin Luna) approaching a :55.2 half cut by Rocksy and readied for a stretch sprint while passing three-quarters in 1:23.3. As Odds On Ufo faltered into the stretch, Doc's Girl Friday lifted and reached for the lead late to nail Rocksy in the final strides while pocket-sitter Caviart Santa Fe (Joey Putnam) settled for third. Randy Jerrell trains Doc's Girl Friday, a filly by Shadow Play—Doc's Hope, for owner Dr. Andrew Roberts.

Pillsbury (Andy McCarthy, 1:54.4; $7.56) emerged from a ground-saving trip to collar loose longshot leader Festival (Josert Fonseca) to win the Proud Series final for sophomore trotting fillies. Festival, sent off at 55-1, repelled challenges from Woodside Jasmine (Jeremy Bobbitt) and Songbird (Marvin Luna) through fractions of :28.4, :57.2, and 1:25.2 while building a four-length cushion rounding for home. She wavered in the lane following the duels while McCarthy had ample clearance at the inside to gather momentum with Pillsbury and, once finding a seam late in the stretch, darted forward to win by a length with Julie Palema (Tyler Miller) recovering from a break at the start to take third. Carter Pinske trains Pillsbury, a filly by Gimpanzee—Flame Mearas S, for owner Dr. Madonna Morrison.

Mustang Baby (Tim Tetrick, 1:56.2; $4.22) took the lead past a :28.2 first quarter and held firmly to the finish to win the Proud Series final for freshman trotting fillies. She strolled comfortably through middle fractions of :57 and 1:27.1 while turning away the challenge from long-parked Countrydiamondmama (Andy McCarthy) when spinning for home. The Rod Debeck-owned/trained daughter of International Moni—Crazy Grigio coasted to a 1½-length win chased by Thrill Me (Tyler Miller), who rallied from third over to take second. Ms Ladybug (Marvin Luna) saved ground through the mile and took third.

Easter Bb (Wyatt Avenatti, 1:55.2; $3.16) found a pocket trip and pounced smoothly for the win in the Proud Series final for freshman trotting males. After taking control to a :28.2 first quarter, Easter Bb settled for a seat behind Yo Bo (Verlin Yoder) and, following splits of :57 and 1:27.1, angled outside to attack the leader coming for home. The Phil Knox trainee hustled by Yo Bo and pulled clear for a ¾-length win with Boitano (Anthony MacDonald) giving chase from a ground-saving trip for third. Brant Brower owns Easter Bb, a gelding by Creatine—Fear Her Makeup who also posted his fifth victory in a row with the Proud Series score.

Deuce Pop (Andy McCarthy, 1:53.2; $3.30) rushed wide around the last turn to snatch command and hold to the finish for the victory in the Proud Series final for sophomore trotting males. McCarthy landed towards the back of the pack to a :28.1 first quarter as Yo Billie (Verlin Yoder) climbed towards and then planted onto the lead before a :56 half. Yo Billie cruised unfazed on the lead to three-quarters in 1:24.4 while Deuce Pop roared three wide and rolled for the finish with steam. Deuce Pop ripped past Yo Billie and bore in through the stretch as Zillionaire Kemp (Tim Tetrick) stormed onto the scene from near last late, but McCarthy kept Deuce Pop to task to the finish for a half-length win. Gorilla Sighting (Atlee Bender) gave chase at the inside for third. Randy Jerrell trains and co-owns Deuce Pop, a colt by Tactical Landing—Atlantic Crest, with partners Atlantic Trot Inc. and Steve Stewart.

Crazygirlsburnsage (Josert Fonseca, 1:52; $5.26) pushed first up after fast early fractions and sailed home a snug winner in the Proud Series final for freshman pacing males. Fonseca tipped his charge off the pylons nearing a :55.1 first half and marched uncovered after pacesetter My Body Guard (Atlee Bender) to press for the lead. He surged past My Body Guard after three-quarters in 1:24.1 and crossed the line an easy winner by 1¾ lengths. Secret Sun (Zyler Maxwell) gave chase from a second-over trip for second while My Body Guard settled for third. Todd Luther trains Crazygirlsburnsage, a gelding by Perfect Sting—Sage N, for owner Greg Luther Racing LLC.

Oaks bound Jailbird Jog wins at Big M

Jailbird Jog prepared for next week's Hambletonian Oaks eliminations in fine style Saturday night (July 25) at The Meadowlands, taking the $68,650 Tompkins-Geers Stake for 3-year-old trotting fillies in a lifetime-best 1:51.2.

"[The trip] was just kind of what the doctor ordered," said winning driver James MacDonald. "You want them brave and strong going into the Hambletonian Oaks, and she's definitely peaking again. She was sensational in her last start [when she won a division of the Del Miller] and again today. I'm just so excited to get behind her."

MacDonald was in no particular hurry with the daughter of Tactical Landing—Miss Don Fanucci S, sitting sixth past the quarter (where Sugar Packet had the point in :28) and half (She's Moni in :55.2). Approaching the far turn, Jailbird Jog picked up a live tow from the first-over Frattina Diablo S as She's Moni raced clear of the field by 3½ lengths at three-quarters in 1:22.4 as Jailbird Jog advanced into fourth.

At the head of the stretch, Jailbird Jog was eased off her cover, and showed her familiar late kick, using a workmanlike effort to get past Frattina Diablo S with a little less than a sixteenth to go before reporting home a half-length winner. Emmas Mystery CCL was third.

"I got to be honest, today, it was kind of a hectic day [traveling to The Meadows — where MacDonald and Odds On Mr Mamba were third in the Adios — and then to The Meadowlands] running around," said MacDonald. "I was just happy to get here on time and get behind the big girl, and then be able to work out a nice trip for her. Hopefully, we can build off today and there are bigger things to come."

MacDonald, the five-time defending O'Brien Award winner as Canada's top pilot, was reminded that he's going for a second straight Oaks after scoring last year with Conversano.

"That would be amazing," said MacDonald. "Fingers crossed."

As the 3-5 favorite, Jailbird Jog trained by Jason McGinnis returned $3.20 to her backers. She's now won eight of 19 lifetime outings, good for earnings of $423,807.

IN TOP 'GEER': Nicholson, a colt by Walner—Love N Lindy, went wire-to-wire in the first of two $33,725 Tompkins-Geers divisions for 3-year-old colt and gelding trotters with Hambletonian aspirations.

Driven by Dexter Dunn and trained by Marcus Melander, Nicholson recorded his second career victory in a lifetime-best 1:52.2 and paid $7.20 as the 5-2 third choice in the wagering.

Minoan grabbed an early lead in the second division, rated the middle half in :57.1, and had just enough to hold off a late-charging Push To Start by a nose in a lifetime-best 1:52.2 for driver Niko Karna and trainer Noel Daley.

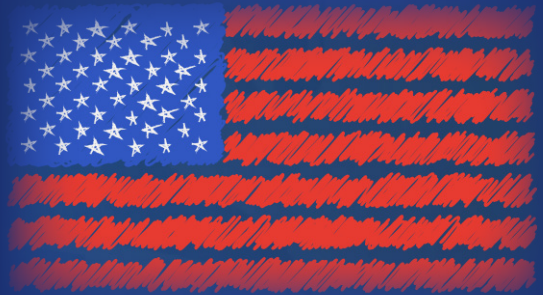

The gelded son of Bar Hopping—Regal Woman recorded his sixth lifetime win in 18 attempts and paid $6.40 as the 2-1 second choice.

Both Nicholson and Minoan are Hambletonian eligible.

A LITTLE MORE: Brad Chisholm led the driver colony with three winners on the night... All-source handle on the 15-race program totaled $2,378,656... Post time will change effective Friday (July 31), when racing resumes at 6:20 p.m.
