Ranking the 101st Hambletonian field from outsiders to my pick to win it all

BETWEEN THE LINES

with BRETT STURMAN

by Brett Sturman

Nineteen horses over two eliminations on Saturday (Aug. 1) at The Meadowlands will contest this year's Hambletonian. Grouping the horses by their likelihood to win, and in alphabetical order, here is a rundown of each one.

THE OUTSIDERS

AI – Picked up his first win of the season last week in an New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) event at Yonkers, a track where he seems to do some of his best work. He could only manage a fifth-place finish against Hambletonian hopefuls two back when riding an ideal second-over trip; Burke is aiming high here.

Ardonne – He was a top 2-year-old last year in winning the Grade 1 William Wellwood in a stakes-record-equaling time of 1:52.4, but just hasn't been the same horse this year, so far. He does go second start for Svanstedt on the barn change but is still in need of a big turnaround.

Highland Destiny – He was respected enough to be odds of 7-2 in the Dancer on July 4 when he broke, but things haven't gone his way at all in the three recent Meadowlands races. A Pennsylvania Sire Stakes (PASS) winner from June, he would need a big reversal from his race last week when appearing empty.

Kingmen – His lone win this year came in a 1:55 mile at Pocono, similar to his best mark last year of 1:55.1 at Mohawk. He wasn't terribly outmatched in some of those higher-tier New Jersey Sires Stakes (NJSS) races, but was well beaten last out in the Zweig when starting from the rail; would need to go faster.

Minoan – Comes off a lifetime best win of 1:52:2 last week in a stake at The Meadowlands, albeit against lesser. His Reynolds try from two back where he showed speed and tracked in behind It Could Be Worse wasn't bad but has a lot to prove against these.

Last year's 2-year-old champion [Apex] has consistently been the top-rated Hambletonian prospect all season long... Perhaps the one that the 2026 Hambletonian goes through.

Practical Man – A 1:53.4 winner over The Meadowlands surface this year, but not much on view to recommend as far as Hambletonian chances. Expect him to be generally dismissed as a big long shot against these. He does land the rail in his elimination though so a trip to next week's final is possible.

Requiem – He's had his moments against some of the best, including his third-place finish in May in the Oak Grove Derby to be less than two lengths behind Spencer Hanover and Endurance. That said, a Bluegrass winner from last year wasn't threatening in his Dancer split and would need to show further advancement.

Wolfpack Crown – May be the biggest longshot of all the Hambletonian entrants; appears further doomed by drawing post 10 for his elimination.

WITH A CHANCE

Inexpressable – Emerged onto the scene with his win in the Yonkers Trot when he stormed home with the added distance in that race. He handled the step up well enough next out when trying hard to rally from second-over but just couldn't push past American Power or reach Apex for that matter. Needs to continue to progress but is moving in the right direction.

It Could Be Worse – Had things his own way on the front end in the Reynolds when getting a big jump on the heavy favorite, but in the process was game through the stretch that night. He was perhaps even more impressive when locked in behind Endurance in his Dancer. These are the same trainer/driver connections that produced a Hambletonian win with Market Share in 2012 but I'm almost certain this one is going to lose Tetrack to Big Ranger.

Nix Nacken – He crushed NJSS Silver foes in that 1:50 win, which went even faster than the Platinum final that night, but hasn't been able to replicate that same success when hiked up against the classier Hambletonian prospects. At the same time, he hasn't been bad either; might just need to piece it together at the right time. Retains Dunn for his elimination but surely will lose him to Apex in the final.

Spencer Hanover – Has seen his stock fall over the past month. The 2-year-old Breeders Crown champion began this year right where he left off last year, including a win in the Oake Grove Derby and Empire Breeders Classic, but things have gone sideways since. I thought that EBC win was just okay in a slower time, and since then came consecutive breaks, including one in the Dancer when he appeared non-threatening even before. Qualified fine with Melander and is out to regain his luster.

THE WILDCARD

Captain Naughty – In from Indiana where his season-to-date doesn't particularly shout out Hambletonian, but he does warrant a renewed look on the barn change to Engblom. He qualified last Friday in a career best time of 1:52 and in the process was 10 lengths ahead of fellow Hambletonian entrant Ardonne. I wouldn't be surprised by anything, good or bad.

Unbeaten last year at 2 and highly impressive this year at 3, [Big Ranger] the Ohio star by sire In Range looks every bit the part of a potential Hambletonian champion.

MAIN CONTENDERS

American Power – Has really progressed well throughout these past couple of months. He was 14-1 in that NJSS win and proved it wasn't a fluke with another honest try in that NJSS Platinum final. Right behind Apex twice, he got first run last out at Nix Nacken in the Zweig and won nicely in a time of 1:50; continuing to get better and better.

Apex – Last year's 2-year-old champion has consistently been the top-rated Hambletonian prospect all season long. His wins in the NJSS Platinum final and in the Dancer three weeks ago both came at the shortest odds of 1-9, where he won both of those races confidently. His dam, the great trotting mare Mission Brief was favored in this race 11 years ago when she was second. Perhaps the one that the 2026 Hambletonian goes through.

Diabolic Hill – He's been solid in all four starts this year despite not having a win yet to show for it; sort of reminds me of Maryland in a similar situation entering last year's Hambletonian. It's been one thing or another including that recent Zweig effort when second to American Power after that one got the jump on him past a leader this one was in behind. He's been a top-level colt going back to the very beginning of his career last summer and there would be no better time to get his first win of the season soon; this week or preferably even, next week.

Endurance – It feels tough to split this one and Apex but we'll find out soon enough as they start two slots apart in the same elimination on Saturday. This one cruised last out to a win in the Dancer when bet down from 9-2 to 3-5 and won nicely in a time of 1:52. His lone loss this season came in that Oak Grove Derby race when he was essentially parked the mile and still only lost to a tripped-out Spencer Hanover who latched onto his cover. It almost doesn't seem fair that he, Apex, and American Power land the outside three slots in the same stacked elimination.

Magic Punk – He's another that's been solid throughout both his 2- and 3-year-old seasons and that race two back where he stormed home out of the pocket in :26.3 to surge past Diabolic Hill puts him in high status alone. He made a good account for himself in June in the Goodtimes at Mohawk and prior to that captured the Dexter Cup here at The Meadowlands, as that race can be seen even more now as taking on renewed importance. Perhaps something was learned from that first-turn break last out at Vernon.

THE PICK

Big Ranger – Unbeaten last year at 2 and highly impressive this year at 3, the Ohio star by sire In Range looks every bit the part of a potential Hambletonian champion. Following a then-track-record performance of 1:51.2 three back at Scioto with Ronnie Gillespie who had trained the horse to date, he was transferred to the barn of Anette Lorentzon where his next start out he lowered that mark over the same track down to 1:50.3. He's been freaky good in both that start and in the subsequent one for the new barn where he won by over 12 lengths. Entering the eliminations, he'll be my pick to win the Hambletonian.

It's Hambletonian time (almost)

by Bob Heyden

We're about a week from Hambletonian Day, so let's take a look at some numbers, facts, and Hambletonian happenings, especially with 100 now in the books.

DECADES OF SUCCESS

Chuck Sylvester is the only Meadowlands Hambletonian trainer to win in three different decades: 1987, 1989, 1998, 2002. His debut came in 1982 with a $6,000 yearling named Diamond Exchange who broke in his heat. Diamond Exchange was 23 2-3-4 with $26,017 at that point. Does that look like the horse who would become, in just the very next summer, The Meadowlands first 1:55 winner?

FAST 'VICTORY'

The very first sub 1:51 trotting mile in Meadowlands history came in the 2002 Cashman on Hambletonian Day when Victory Tilly and Stig Johansson stopped the teletimer in 1:50.4.

IMPROBABLE OCCURRENCES

That same year of 2002 saw a couple of occurrences that, at least on paper, appeared improbable. Chip Chip Hooray entered Hambletonian Day on the year just 4 1-0-1 with $59,200, yet took down the big one. Even stranger might be the case of Art Major who was in the Oliver Wendell Holmes with a 10 4-0-1 slate good for just $27,570 in 2002. Could anyone have guessed at that moment that he would be the sport's No. 1 earner at year's end with $1,562,779?

'MONI' 'MAN'

Malabar Man and Moni Maker were both Hambletonian Day stars in the late 1990s. He won it in 1997 and she was the only five-time Hambletonian Day winner: two in 1996 on Oaks Day and a record three Cashmans (1997, 1998, and 2000).

YA NEVER KNOW

In 2001 both the Hambletonian and Oaks winner were undefeated going in Scarlet Knight (eight-for-eight) and Syrinx Hanover (four-for-four). But just nine years later Bar Slide was just five-for-18 lifetime and Muscle Massive five-for-13 and each emerged victorious. Remember that Alf Palema was only three-for-17 career in 1992, Tagliabue was one-for-seven in 1995, and back to 1993 when American Winner was 5 1-0-1 for less than $3,000 at age 2.

SEVEN AND SEVEN

Consider that Swedes Jimmy Takter and Per Eriksson combined for an incredible seven Hambletonian trophies, with seven different drivers. Eriksson had Prakas (1985, Bill O'Donnell), Giant Victory (1991, Jack Moiseyev), and Alf Palema (1992, Mickey McNichol), while Takter debuted with Malabar Man (1997, Mal Burroughs) followed by Muscle Massive (2010, Ron Pierce), Trixton (2014, who Jimmy drove himself) and Pinkman (2015, Brian Sears).

SHOW ME THE MONEY

Hambletonian Day payoff No. 1 came in the 2012 NJ Classic and Sweet Rock erupted between horses for Brett Miller to the tune of $184.80. He was just 20 1-6-1 with $48,403 lifetime entering the big day.

IMPROBABLE?

In 1987, Rule The Wind, as a 2-year-old went to the post eight times with a pair of victories but just $2,170 to show for it. Then some 265 days then went by without a race. So, it was pretty shocking to see him start in the Hambletonian without a 3-year-old start. Even more surprising was his second-place elim finish to Armbrø Goal. He tired in the final however.

BY GEORGE

It's the 20th anniversary of the 2006 Hambletonian Day where Georges were everywhere. George Zoffinger was The Meadowlands CEO, George Foreman the Hambletonian guest of honor, and George Brennan was the new world record holder at 1:46 4 with Holborn Hanover.

19) David Reid and Geoff Stein were part owners of Moni Maker, but a few years prior they were also in the 1992 Oaks with Gin Gin Hanover.

THEY MADE 'EM TOUGH BACK THEN

In year one at The Meadowlands, Smokin Yankee was the defending Dan Patch 2-Year-Old Male Trotter of the Year and entered the Hambletonian with a 38 22-7-3 slate. Panty Raid was that year's 3-Year-Old Filly Trotter of the Year and she entered the Oaks with a 32 18-4-5 record lifetime. Baltic Speed, three years later, had 34 starts going into the Hambletonian where he was favored.

MORE MELANDER HAMBLETONIAN GLORY?

This year marks the 25th anniversary of Stefan Melander and Scarlet Knight taking the Hambletonian. A 9-year-old named Marcus Melander made his Meadowlands debut in 2001 rooting on his uncle. Could 2026 be Marcus' Hambletonian breakthrough year?

ONCE IN A LIFETIME

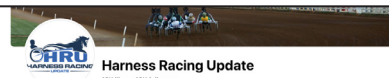

Todd McCarthy debuted in America's Trotting Classic in 2022 and did something never approached on Hambletonian Day before. He scored with two $100 plus winners: Kobe's Gigi ($105) and Cool Papa Bell ($106). What I did not know until scouring through old programs was that the night before he drove a 2-year-old in the Kindergarten named Once In A Lifetime.

Clinton keeps Legends Day fresh with imagination and innovation

by Debbie Little

(Editor's note: This week, Meadowlands Matters columnist Debbie Little went on a road trip to small-town Ontario)

In a recent column in HRU, Murray Brown wrote that there are three great small-town events – the Little Brown Jug, Gold Cup & Saucer, and Vincent Delaney Memorial – that should be on every harness fan's bucket list.

With all due respect to Mr. Brown, I think that his trifecta should be a superfecta that also includes Legends Day at Clinton Raceway.

Claus Andersen

On Sunday, Clinton Raceway played host to both Legends Day and the National Driving Championship.

The community of Clinton, ON, with a population of a little over 3,100, boasts a must-see biennial event thanks to the track's general manager Ian Fleming, marketing manager Jessica Carnochan, and their hard-working staff.

The Hall of Famers who put the "Legends" in Legends Day, explained why being there was so important.

John Campbell pointed out what a great job Fleming, Carnochan, and their team do to put on this event.

"They try to keep it fresh," Campbell said. "Last time, two years ago, the Hall of Fame was involved with an exhibit; they're here again celebrating. And then you add the National Driving Championship in and it just adds more to the day and it does bring more people, but it just goes to show the imagination and innovativeness that Ian and his staff have for keeping Legends Day fresh all the time."

For Campbell, who grew up in Ailsa Craig, ON, Clinton has special significance because it's where he had his very last drive on July 30, 2017.

"I promised the people here that that was going to be my last drive, and I've honored that," said Campbell, who has attended every Legends Day event since it started in 2001.

With Canada set to host the 2027 World Driving Championship, Legends Day was chosen as the venue for the eight-race National Driving Championship (NDC) competition to pick a representative to join reigning WDC titleholder James MacDonald in representing the Great White North next year.

Just like Campbell, Bill O'Donnell is also a Legends Day lifer. He said the people and memories keep him coming back.

"It's great to see this many people in a small town here," O'Donnell said. "It's unbelievable what a job they've done here this year, especially with the National Driving Championship. It's always been big, but this is three or four times as big."

Claus Andersen

Hall of Famer Steve Condren winning the 2026 Legends Day Trot.

Claus Andersen

Hall of Famers John Campbell and Ron Waples signing autographs.

Carl Jamieson said he was enjoying the festivities at Clinton, especially the meet and greet with the fans, but added with a laugh, "My hand's getting cramped a bit [from signing autographs]."

It was an extra special weekend for Jamieson as his granddaughter Siara competed at Clinton on Saturday (July 25) in the Junior National Driving Championship and his son, Jody, won the NDC competition on Sunday at Clinton.

"It's an honor to be here and do this for the people," Carl said. "I've driven lots up here. We had lots of horses that raced in the Grassroots through the years... Before Jody started driving, we had lots of horses that raced up here."

Doug Brown also drove quite a bit at Clinton over the years.

"It's always been a good place to come," Brown said. "They look after you well and the track's always good. The turns are a little tight, but other than that, it's a good place to race."

"Ian does a great job. He's always looking for new little twists to everything, and this year is just awesome with the National Driving Championship and Legends Day all worked into one. It's really good."

Steve Condren has been a fixture at Legends Day following his Hall of Fame induction in 2011.

Condren competed in and won this year's Legends Day Invitational Trot over Mike Saftic, Chris Christoforou, Blair Burgess, Doug Brown, Paul MacDonell, and Carl Jamieson.

"It was great to win," Condren said. "It was good to see everybody again and the atmosphere was special."

Some of Condren's Toronto-based fans call him "The Technician," because he would always make the right move at the right time and he knew what trip to give each horse, being that all horses are different. They also said he seemed to make very few mistakes during the running of a race.

Claus Andersen

Hall of Famers Carl Jamieson (left, the father of National Driving Championship winner Jody Jamieson), signing autographs with Wally Hennessey.

Wally Hennessey was scheduled to compete in the Legends Day Trot, but could not due to a recent injury at Saratoga that left him with fractured and bruised ribs.

But that didn't stop him from catching a ride with Michelle and Jessica Hallett for the eight-hour excursion to Clinton, so he could spend time with the fans and his fellow Hall of Famers.

"The ribs are doing very good; they're chilled and about ready to get barbecued," Hennessey said with a laugh. "It's just an honor to be sitting here with these guys. I mean, anybody that's a part of Legends Day has definitely had a successful career in racing, and we all know what it takes to get to be invited to this, so it's not an easy thing to be invited to. When you're sitting with this kind of company, it's pretty special."

"As long as I'm breathing, I'll be here for the rest of them. You walk through the grandstand and everybody's having a great time. They've got a great crowd today, one of the best, I think, and you know, the racing is excellent for a small track."

Ron Waples

"They take very good care of you here. Ian Fleming, who runs the track here and everyone else, they couldn't be any better to you. They just treat you like royalty."

Even though not part of the Legends Day Trot or autograph session, Hall of Famers Jack Darling and Dr. Ian Moore, among others, were present to enjoy the experience.

It was a busy weekend for Moore who was at The Meadows racing 24-hours prior on Adios Day, and had to leave Legends Day a little early to drive back to Mohawk to compete that night.

"Well, they asked me to be there, being a Hall of Fame member up here, and I also wanted to go and see my good friend Wally Hennessey," Moore said. "I enjoyed it. I always try to enjoy myself wherever I go."

Just like Campbell and O'Donnell, Ron Waples has been part of Legends Day since the beginning.

"As long as I'm breathing, I'll be here for the rest of them," Waples said.

He cited the fans and atmosphere as a reason to come back year after year.

"You walk through the grandstand and everybody's having a great time," he said. "They've got a great crowd today, one of the best, I think, and you know, the racing is excellent for a small track."

Claus Andersen
The view from the
the final turn.

Waples knows plenty about what Hambletonian Day is like at The Meadowlands and what Hall of Fame Day is like at Goshen Historic Track. When asked how he would compare the experience of Legends Day to those types of events, he said, "I think they're both on par. The fans are there because they love the racing, they love the horses, and you know anytime you can get that it's always a good time."

As if the Legends Day Trot and the NDC wasn't enough, the Bet Ontario Handicapping Contest sponsored by Ontario Racing, HPIbet, and the Central Ontario Standardbred Association, was part of the festivities as well.

The on-track, in-person wagering contest featuring total prizes of $10,000, had been a big hit at its previous stops – The Raceway at Western Fair District on Camluck Classic Night and Woodbine Mohawk Park on Pepsi North America Cup Night – and Clinton for Legends Day was no exception.

"It's really an initiative with Woodbine as well as our partners at OR, Ontario Racing," said Klaus Ebner director, simulcast and remote wagering for Woodbine Entertainment Group. "So, we decided to find ways of really getting more players to the racetrack. We've been working on a handicapping contest initiative for a while now, and it just happened that we finally put these together in terms of the technology side as well as the marketing side. So, it came together in time for this year, and we said we're going to try it as a sort of trial for this year."

"This is our third stop so far of the year... and then we'll also have another one next week for Industry Day at Grand River [Aug. 3], which is their big day there, and then from there we'll kind of focus more towards some of the bigger events we have at Mohawk for Ontario Sires Stakes [Oct. 3] as well as the Mohawk Million [Sept. 26]."

The championship for the contest will also take place at Mohawk on Ontario Sires Stakes Super Finals Night (Oct. 10).

"So, a lot of people are kind of used to the $2 win, place, show kind of contest," Ebner said. "We kind of said, 'You know what, like, why put limits on it? We're going to try it for the first time as being a wide-open contest.'"

"So, to that point, obviously, we're checking the wagers to make sure that the transparency is there, and everyone understands that we're monitoring the wagering. So, the leader right now [in the contest at Clinton] had a Pick-3 and a Pick-4, for instance, which are traditionally not wagers you would see in handicapping contests on the thoroughbred side or other contests. So, you wouldn't typically allow that to happen, but we're just saying to all the players, 'Hey, listen, play how you want to play, and it's more a case of winner takes all.' That's what it is."

NOTE: A year ago I spoke with Mike Lachance about his experiences at Legends Day including winning the inaugural Legends Day Trot. He encouraged me to go and check it out and I told him, "If you go next year, I'll go too." Although Lachance was not able to attend this year, I did go to my first Legends Day.

It was everything everyone always said it was and more.

Thanks to Jessica Carnochan for making me feel so welcome and to Garnet and Nick Barnsdale for picking me up at the Toronto airport and letting me tag along on their Legends Day excursion.

THE VIEW FROM WOODBINE MOHAWK PARK

with MELISSA KEITH

From Port Hood to Mohawk with the MacDonells

by Melissa Keith

At 6 p.m. tonight (July 31), a special place comes alive in rural Cape Breton, NS. The Irish Road Horsemen's Club plays host to its annual non-wagering matinee card, at a track which serves as a training center throughout the year. The talent that originates here is almost beyond belief. The connection to Woodbine Mohawk Park is sometimes invisible, but always indelible.

Lewis MacDonell is the father of young Ontario horsemen Mark and Keith MacDonell.

"It all ties back to our grandfather, Angus A. MacDonell," Lewis said. "His sons Donald Alex, 'Vesty' [John], and Blaise are all connected to the race game. 'Vesty' would be [trainer] Mary Ratchford's grandfather. He was in Michigan for years. He raced at Hazel Park, Wolverine, Northville, and Jackson. He was there for many, many years. His wife [Mary (Magdalene)] still lives there, but she's here now. She's back in Cape Breton with three of her daughters."

Blaise is the father of 2020 Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame inductee Paul MacDonell, while Donald Alex is the grandfather of Mark MacDonell, one of the original five candidates for the 2025 O'Brien Future Star Award. Ironically, one of the top three finalists for that award was Mary Ratchford, whose mother Jean Ratchford is one of Vesty's daughters.

"My father, Donald Alex, was the oldest of the family and he kind of started the thing off, racing in Port Hood and Inverness back in the '50s... He kept it going right up until he passed in 2002," Lewis said. "We had a horse called Coco Motion right up until then."

Grandfather Angus A. was a World War I vet who lost an arm in the Battle of Vimy Ridge.

"He came back and actually raced on the ice here, probably in the '30s with a trotting mare in a trotting sleigh," Lewis said.

Angus famously drove with a hook attached to where he had lost his arm in combat.

"We have a great place to train [at Port Hood Raceway], and we race just once a year to help offset all the costs for maintaining the track and stone dust and power bills. We'll have a barbeque and a beer garden on the homestretch there... Hopefully we'll have five dashes."

— Lewis MacDonell

Port Hood Raceway opened in June 1957. Lewis recalled that "there was nothing before that" on the property; local horsemen broke ground to build the new track in spring 1957. Racing stopped in the early 1960s.

"There was a dispute with the land," Lewis said. "They didn't have a clear title to it; there was kind of a mix-up there. Some people got kind of sour about it, and it kind of fell to the wayside. It changed hands two or three different times. Then, I think it was in the early '70s, it came up for a tax sale."

The Port Hood track was rescued by buyers who intended to keep it open for training.

"Seven individuals from the community bought it on the tax sale, and we've had it ever since then and keep it going," Lewis said. "They were all horsepeople and all involved... They just wanted to keep the track going for what it was."

The Irish Road Horsemen's Association runs Port Hood Raceway.

"We have a great place to train, and we race just once a year to help offset all the costs for maintaining the track and stone dust and power bills," Lewis told HRU. "We'll have a barbeque and a beer garden on the homestretch there... Hopefully we'll have five dashes."

Mark and Keith will be back for this year's races at Port Hood.

“My father, Donald Alex, was the oldest of the family and he kind of started the thing off, racing in Port Hood and Inverness back in the ‘50s... He kept it going right up until he passed in 2002. We had a horse called Coco Motion right up until then.”
— Lewis MacDonell

“Mark said he’s flying in tomorrow [July 29] morning; I think his grandmother’s going to pick him up,” Lewis said. “And then Keith’s coming home Thursday [July 30].”

Mark was listed to drive Southfield Sandy at Inverness July 29, his first pari-mutuel drive in Cape Breton in almost two years. The 25-year-old horseman’s initial qualifying drives were in Feb. 2023 at Mohawk and Flamboro; his first pari-mutuel driving win came on Feb. 25, 2024 at Flamboro with Dapper Fella. Mark’s maiden victory as a trainer was on June 27, 2021 at Inverness; his father drove winner Hughgetthecredit.

In late 2025, Keith joined his brother in Ontario.

“They’ve been together there since November, I guess,” Lewis said. “They’ve been helping Tony O’Sullivan with the 2-year-olds all winter.”

In October 2021, New Zealand-born O’Sullivan was named Woodbine’s standardbred race secretary after training and driving in Canada for over two decades. In June 2024, Jim Gillespie replaced him as race secretary.

Now O’Sullivan is coming back strong, as the MacDonell brothers assist with his stable at Classy Lane Training Centre in Puslinch, ON. Trainee Mericana Hanover (p, 2, Q1:56.1s; $2,498), a daughter of Captaintreacherous—Musical Hanover, won her debut qualifier July 3 at Mohawk. Leaving from post 10, she finished fifth in the July 10 Tompkins-Geers Stake at Mohawk, her first start.

On July 3 at Mohawk, Cattlewash—Pasta Blue Chip colt TH Benedict (p, 2, 1:52.2s; $52,395) broke his maiden in Ontario Sires Stakes Gold leg 1 for 2-year-old male pacers. It was O’Sullivan’s first training win since capturing the Sept. 30, 2021 OSS Grassroots semi-final with 2-year-old trotting filly Lovin Julie. TH Benedict finished second in OSS Gold leg 2 on July 19 at Mohawk, rescheduled after drifting smoke caused an earlier cancellation.

Expect to see other 2-years-olds from the O’Sullivan stable on track in the near future.

“They have three Bulldog [Hanovers]; I think they’re getting close to qualifying some of them,” Lewis said. “I’m not sure what the deal is, but we’ll find out when [Mark and Keith] get home.”

This year, Keith found success with trainees Dragons Better, Dragon You Along, and Tour Champion before they were claimed away. Tour Champion had provided him with his first Mohawk training win on Feb. 16.

“That’s just the way it works,” Lewis said.

Keith also raced Jack Boswall, who never missed a check for his 23-year-old trainer in three early-season Mohawk starts.

“Mark had three or four racehorses all winter with Laverne Turnbull,” Lewis said. “They’re at Miami now in Manitoba and they’re going to The Loop in Winnipeg when they start there in August.”

Seafarer won his Mohawk debut with Mark as trainer on Feb. 15; on June 23 at Georgian Downs, Mark also drove him to an 11-1 upset.

Although 12 years old when he drove his first race, finishing on the board with DWs Hidden Star at Port Hood, don’t expect to see Mark in the sulky there today (July 31).

“He’s got too much stuff to do with us around the track [tonight], helping out, maybe selling 50-50 or tri-cash tickets or whatever we have to do,” Lewis said. “I think I’ll be doing the same thing.”

It’s likely the same story for Keith, who won his second career drive there in 2019 with DWs Hidden Star.

Watching simulcast races from Mohawk makes a career in harness racing’s big leagues “something to strive for” among young Cape Bretoners, noted Lewis. Opportunities for hands-on learning are more important than pedigree alone.

“Mark and Keith, they grew up around the barn over here,” he said. “They came with me to Inverness when they were pretty small, like I did myself, back in the day. You were always around horses... That’s the way it works.”

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Maryland Sire Stakes champions crowned at Ocean Downs

by Maryland Standardbred Race Fund

Four new Maryland Sire Stakes champions were crowned Wednesday evening (July 29) at Ocean Downs as the state's top 3-year-old pacers and trotters competed for $100,000 finals in front of an enthusiastic crowd. The evening showcased dominant favorites, thrilling stretch battles, and standout performances from Maryland's premier sophomore stars.

The night began with the 3-year-old filly trot final, where Progressivekathy lived up to her overwhelming favoritism with a commanding gate-to-wire victory in 1:59. Driven by Russell Foster for trainer Ronald Millman, the daughter of Il Mago controlled the pace from the outset before winning by 5¾ lengths.

Bred and owned by Scott Woogen of Virginia, Progressivekathy capped an outstanding Maryland Sire Stakes campaign with the richest victory of her career. Twisted Janet sat second throughout and finished second for Corey Braden and trainer Adrian Wisher, Jr., while stablemate More Than Tipsy, also trained by Wisher, Jr. completed the trifecta.

The 3-year-old colt and gelding trot final produced one of the night's best races as Booger Bear edged favored stablemate Y'all Got No Shot in a thrilling stretch duel.

Driver Johnathan Ahle settled Booger Bear just behind the pacesetter before tipping out in the lane to wear down his rival and prevail by 2¼ lengths in a career-best 1:56.2. Richard Hans trains, owns, and bred the son of Y'all Beneath Me, who delivered a stakes- and track-record performance. Convicted Criminal rallied to finish third for Brandon Givens and trainer Les Givens.

Dapper Time (Russell Foster) winning the sophomore pacing colts' final.

The 3-year-old filly pace final featured another outstanding finish as That'sloveto dug in gamely to repel multiple challengers and earn a narrow victory in 1:56.

Johnathan Ahle, winner of two MD Sire Stakes finals, guided the daughter of Dapper Dude to the early lead and expertly rated fractions before holding off the late charge of I Say That Too by three-quarters-of-a-length. More Than Better closed strongly to finish another half-length back in third after rallying first-over around the final turn.

Trained, owned, and bred by Dominik Miga, That'sloveto has now captured two championships in succession as she won her final at Rosecroft back in October 2025.

The evening concluded with the 3-year-old colt and gelding pace final, where Dapper Time proved best after controlling the race from start to finish.

Russell Foster sent the son of Dapper Dude directly to the lead from the rail and never looked back, turning away every challenge before stopping the timer in 1:56. Coach Cooley chased throughout to finish second, while Better Gon overcame an early miscue and a wide trip to rally for third. This was the second stakes win of the evening for Russell Foster.

Jason Walters trains Dapper Time for owners Anthony Sapienza, Melissa Beckwith, and Nancy Longobardi. The colt was bred by Micki Rae Stables LLC and Tim Twaddle.

Next for the Maryland Standardbred Race Fund are races for horses that were foaled in Maryland with Maryland Standardbred Fund races on Monday and Wednesday of this upcoming week.

Indiana SIRE STAKES REPORT

Quartet of Indiana Sires Stakes contested Wednesday at Hoosier

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Indiana Sires Stakes dominated the proceedings on Wednesday (July 29) at Harrah's Hoosier Park, with a pair of divisions for both the rookie pacing colts and sophomore trotting fillies. Dr Drake and Mr Bear scored in their $65,500 divisions for pacing colts, while Bluebird Kazoom and For Dayze were dominant in their respective splits for trotting fillies.

Dr Drake kicked off the stakes action on the evening, scoring on the front end as the 6-1 third choice with Trace Tetrick aboard for trainer Jeff Cullipher.

Away from post 5, Tetrick wasted no time getting to the front, cruising around Nu Chex To Cash (Anthony Miller) as he blitzed to the quarter in :26.4. The field raced single-file to the half in :56.1, before the 1-5 favorite, Tell Me It's You (John De Long) tipped first-over from third. The favorite raced greenly on the far turn, drifting wide in fourth as Dr Drake continued the charge on the engine to three-quarters in 1:24.2. Dr Drake faced a two-pronged attack in the lane, with Nu Chex To Cash racing to his outside and 50-1 longshot Tell'sfirstglimpse (Atlee Bender) splitting horses to make it a three-across battle. Dr Drake held sway to the wire, fending off Nu Chex To Cash by a neck with Tell'sfirstglimpse just a half-length back as the mile was completed in 1:51.2.

Owned by Jeff Cullipher and Pollack Racing, Dr Drake has won each of his last two after an eighth-place effort in his career debut. The Rockin Image—Northern Beauty colt was bred by Merle Yoder and sports a career bankroll of $39,250 following the career best effort.

In the second division for pacing colts, Mr Bear delivered as the 1-9 favorite following an early miscue with Marcus Miller in the bike for his father, Erv.

Leaving from the rail in the field of seven, Mr Bear took a bad step and briefly went off-stride before gathering himself and settling in sixth as This Captain Rocks (Robert Taylor) led the field to the quarter in :27.2. This Captain Rocks grabbed leather to the half, reaching that point in :57.1 before Another Mile Again (Trace Tetrick) blitzed to the lead from third entering the far turn. Another Mile Again raced two lengths clear at three-quarters in 1:25.1 while Mr Bear began his long first-over charge from fifth, still with 7½ lengths to make up. Mr Bear would make up that deficit in a hurry, uncorking a vicious :25.2 stretch rally to blitz to the front and open up on the field by two lengths at the wire in 1:52. Another Mile Again was second, with his Ron Burke stablemate, Ponda Spice (Atlee Bender), grabbing third.

Now four-for-four to begin his career, Mr Bear boasts a bankroll of $78,000. The gray gelded son of Rockin Image—Mama's Lil Beach was bred by Mark Adams and Timothy Sullivan, and owned by Ervin Miller Stable, D&M Trading II, Levi Bontrager, and Laura Perniciaro.

Bluebird Kazoom driven by Jordan Ross for trainer Henry Graber, Jr. cruised to a dominant victory to take the $48,500 first division for 3-year-old trotting fillies.

In a battle early out of post 1, Bluebird Kazoom was put to the task of fending off Make It Spicy (Trace Tetrick) and the post time favorite Fresh Face Yankee (Jay Cross). Bluebird Kazoom remained at the helm to the first turn in :27.1 as Fresh Face Yankee advanced on the outside before making a break alongside Bluebird Kazoom. At the half in :56.4, Bluebird Kazoom led the field with Make It Spicy in close pursuit, and Fresh Face Yankee rejoining the field in last. Bluebird Kazoom remained in firm control at three-quarters in 1:26.2 as Fresh Face Yankee began a three-wide rally from the back of the field. Powering down the stretch, Bluebird Kazoom opened up the lead to the wire in 1:53.3 by 3¼ lengths on the line. Fresh Face Yankee rebounded into second, while Make It Spicy held for third.

Dean Gillette

Bluebird Kazoom (Jordan Ross) winning the first of two Indiana Sires Stakes events for 3-year-old trotting fillies on Wednesday at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

Bluebird Kazoom is owned by Hillside Stables, Indiana Stables LLC, Hickory Hollow Stables, and Michael Rosenthal. The 3-year-old Swan For All—Stella Kemp filly was bred by Delvin Miller, Kenneth Bontrager, and Daryl Miller. Bluebird Kazoom tallied her ninth win of the year for a lifetime earnings total of $134,725. Bluebird Kazoom paid $6.60 to win.

It was never a doubt in the 11th race as For Dayze driven by John De Long for trainer Roger Welch was all business winning the $49,000 second division for trotting fillies at 1-5.

Patient out of post 7, For Dayze slid toward the middle of the field into fifth at the start while Homesweethome (Jordan Ross) found the lead the quickest to the first turn in :27.2. Keeping up with the leader, Help Cum Laude (Atlee Bender) trotted from second with Honeymoon (Trace Tetrack) followed in third. Racing single file, Homesweethome stayed in command to the halfway pole in :56.4. Nearing the turn, Honeymoon led the charge on the leader with For Dayze following the live tow of Honeymoon. Homesweethome held on by a thread to the third turn in 1:26.2 as it was only a matter of time before Honeymoon, Help Cum Laude, and For Dayze blazed past the leader. Wasting no time in the homestretch, For Dayze separated from the challengers surging past the field to the wire in 1:53.4 by 1½ lengths. Help Cum Laude powered into second along the cones, with Expressive Gal (Kyle Wilfong) rallying into third.

The 3-year-old filly, For Dayze added her fourth win of the year, boosting her lifetime earnings to $364,460. For Dayze is owned by William De Long and Wm Patrick De Long, while being bred by Ernie Lambright.

A DUO OF INSS FILLIES VISIT WINNER'S CIRCLE; DE LONG SCORES SEVEN WINS

A pair of $66,000 Indiana Sires Stakes 2-year-old filly paces headlined the Tuesday (July 28) night card at Hoosier Park as Kountry Legacy and Fitterjake got the edge on the eight horse fields. Kountry Legacy driven by John De Long was the third of De Long's seven driving wins on the Tuesday night card.

Surging down the stretch, Kountry Legacy for trainer Jeff Cullipher stays perfect in INSS, taking down the race six field.

Kountry Legacy hung back off the gate from post 4 as Tellemhowitis (Kyle Wilfong) timed the gate best to the lead beating out Chancey Lucre to the first turn in :26.1. Single file onto the backstretch, the post time favorite Callie Rocks (Trace Tetrack) glided out of third to steal the lead before the halfway mark in :55.4. Leading the charge on the leader, Fantastech (Marcus Miller) and Kountry Legacy found their chance nearing the three-quarter turn. Callie Rocks held firm at the top as the eight-horse field closed in at the turn in 1:25. Hitting the homestretch, Kountry Legacy and Owleo's Pride (Ricky Macomber, Jr) rocketed past the leader in a final quarter time of :25.3, with Kountry Tab slamming the wire in 1:51.3 by a half-length. Owleo's Pride rallied into second, while Tellemhowitis got up for third.

This win was near the middle of De Long's seven-win night with victories coming with Sweet Image (race 2), Ponda Light (race 3), Jk's Star (race 9), Canttouchem (race 10), Kountry Karp (race 12), and Toy's For You (race 13).

The 2-year-old is owned by Pollack Racing LLC and Jeff Cullipher. Bred by Ola Yoder, the Capt Midnight—Shartin N filly boosted her lifetime earnings to $58,200 for her second win of her career. Kountry Legacy paid $9 to win.

In the race 8 field, Fitterjake driven and trained by Aaron Stutzman introduced herself into Sires Stakes action with a bang staying strong to the wire.

On the outside post 8, Fitterjake had her eyes set on the lead, soaring to the first quarter turn in :27.4. The odds on favorite Jk's Fast (John De Long) sat second on the leader Fitterjake upon arrival to the backstretch. Stretching the field, Fitter Jake paced past the half-mile mark in :58.2 as Mystical Jk (Kyle Wilfong) broke ground on the outside climbing up the ranks towards the leader. The top two pacers remained unchanged from the start with Fitterjake passing the three-quarters in 1:26.1. Setting up a battle on the homestretch, Fitterjake fended off the oncoming Jk's Fast all the way to the wire in 1:52 by a neck. Jk's Fast settled for second, while Mystical Jk held on for third.

The Jk Endofanera filly out of For Sharks Sake is bred and owned by James Miller. Fitterjake remains undefeated in her two career starts, totaling $38,000 in lifetime earnings. Fitterjake paid $6.20 to win.

Lauren's Chapter (Niko Karna) winning the $119,700 New York Sire Stakes event for 3-year-old trotting fillies on Wednesday at Batavia Downs.

New York SIRE STAKES REPORT

Lauren's Chapter upsets in NYSS action at Batavia

by Tim Bojarski for Batavia Downs

Lauren's Chapter (Chapter Seven—A Hopeful Prayer) stayed steady and on task, and that resulted in a big victory for her in the $119,700 New York Sire Stakes for 3-year-old trotting fillies at Batavia Downs on Wednesday (July 29) night.

Niko Karna settled Lauren's Chapter in fourth as the heavily favored Sharp Seven (Jason Bartlett) took the lead from Who Dares Win (James MacDonald) passing the quarter in :28.4. Sharp Seven then reached the half in :58.1 and rounded turn two headed for the second circuit.

As the race went by five-eighths, Karna tipped Lauren's Chapter into the breeze and the pair made their way up to second as they went by three-quarters. Positions remained unchanged until halfway through the final bend where Sharp Seven made a break and pulled to the outside of Lauren's Chapter. Then almost immediately after, Who Dares Win made a break, and went inside the cones. This left Lauren's Chapter all alone in the center of the track with the lead, who then cruised to the line where she won by 2¼ lengths in 1:57, which was a new seasonal mark.

Lauren's Chapter ($19.16) is owned by Patricia Stable & LAExpress, Sjoblom Racing & M. Dolan, Allister Stables, and Caviart Farms and trained by Noel Daley. The filly was bred by Little E and Andy Miller Stable.

There were also two $20,000 NYSS Excelsior Series races on the card.

The first was won by Bar Hall Beauty (Met's Hall—Bar Bar — Jason Bartlett/Nichols Devita — 1:58.1, $3.52) who is owned by David Hamm and Glenn Phillips and bred by Winbak Farms.

The second was won by Myths And Legends (Chapter Seven—Steamy Windows — James MacDonald/Marcus Melander — 1:57.3, $5.76) who is owned by S R F Stable and bred by Order By Stable Ab.

In overnight action, Drew Monti lit it up with five driving wins on the card, including a victory in the local featured $13,500 open handicap for fillies and mares with Elegant Woman A, who went right to the front and never looked back. After posting fractions of :28.1, :56.5, and 1:24.3, Elegant Woman A turned for home and held off Surfinmakescents A (Larry Stalbaum) by a half-length to win in 1:53.1 and establish a new career mark.

Elegant Woman A is owned by Vogel and Wags Nags, Jack Rice, her trainer Maria Rice, and her driver, Drew Monti.

Monti also won with Rightfully Mine (1:55.2, $16.52), Passionate Pen (1:57, $5.26), Rattling Pine (1:59, $3.38), and Street Art (1:58.1, $27.94) to complete his quintet.

Dave McNeight, Jr. had two training wins on Wednesday.

Live racing will resume at Batavia Downs on Saturday (Aug. 1) at 5 p.m.

Free full card past performance programs for every live card of racing at Batavia Downs can always be downloaded at the track's website (bataviadownsgaming.com) under the "Live Racing" tab. And you can watch all the races live as they happen for free on the Batavia Downs YouTube page.

PRIMACY STATION SETS MONTICELLO TRACK RECORD FOR 2YO MALES

The lone division of the $108,300 New York Sire Stakes for freshman pacing colts and geldings saw Primacy Station establish a new Monticello Raceway track record of 1:53.4 for 2-year-old male pacers on Monday (July 27).

Primacy Station (driven by Matt Kakaley) was first away from the gate and led the field through an opening quarter of :28.1 before Rose Run Cowboy (Yannick Gingras) moved from third to take the lead at the half in :57.

Maries Jet (Jason Bartlett) came first over at the five-eighths marker to be second behind Rose Run Cowboy still setting the tempo of 1:25.2 through three-quarters-of-a-mile. Turning for home, Primacy Station was still third behind those two.

Primacy Station ignored the passing lane and instead moved outside and passed rivals in mid-stretch to finish in 1:53.4, a length-and-a-quarter in front of Rose Run Cowboy with Marie's Jet holding on for third. Primacy Station paid $8.06 to win.

Primacy Station is the son of American Ideal—Preeminence and is trained by Travis Alexander for owners Alexander Racing Stable LLC, CMT Farms, EVM Racing LLC, and James Scarpas. It was his first Sire Stakes victory and third win in four starts increasing his career earnings to $77,374.

In four divisions of $20,000 Excelsior action for 2-year-old colts and geldings, Gingras won with Bacchus Blue Chip (American Ideal—Sunnynseventyfive) for Ron Burke in 1:55.1 and paid $6.14 to win; Bartlett won twice for trainer Hunter Oakes with Babylon Blue Chip (Huntsville—Onassis Blue Chip, $3.58) and Blast Blue Chip (Shadow Play—Shaka Blue Chip, $2.80); and Kakaley guided Alexander-trained Takes Courage (American Courage—Norinoro Hanover) to the winner's circle and a $6.92 payout.

Bartlett and Kakaley each had driving doubles. Trainers Alexander and Oakes also each had a pair of wins.

Among breeders, Bluechip Farms had a banner day with four winners with two of those sired by American Ideal and one each by Shadow Play and American Courage.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Captain Ricky crushes in freshman colts 'A' pace at Running Aces

by Darin Gagne for Running Aces Casino, Hotel and Racetrack

The Tuesday night (July 28) harness racing card at Running Aces featured six divisions of Minnesota-sired freshman trotters and pacers as well as an open handicap II pace.

Captain Ricky (by Captainryanmichael) stole the show with a very impressive and career best $4\frac{1}{4}$ -length romp in the \$16,000 colts 'A' pacing division. Driver Casey Leonard floated away in fourth early from post 8 while Fancy Cruiser (Dean Magee) and Cacheforthedevil (Nick Roland) battled for the front through a scorching :26.4 opening stanza.

Bombi made a big move to the front down the backstretch and Leonard guided Captain Ricky to the outside as they headed for the far turn and rolled up alongside the leaders as they swung for the stretch drive.

In the lane Captain Ricky kicked into high gear and took the lead with authority, drawing clear with every stride to leave his rivals scrambling for second money. Hammerin Harlan (Scott Cisco) emerged from the pack to grab the place spot while Bombi was forced to settle for third in the 1:54.2 mile.

It was the third career win from five starts for Captain Ricky ($5) for owners Alan and Cheryl Sandbulte and Stephanie Anfinson and trainer Justin Anfinson.

Slipped Onmybeans (also by Captainryanmichael) delivered yet again as the overwhelming public choice and registered her fifth career win from six outings in the $16,000 fillies 'A' division, taking a new career mark of 1:54.4 over Illbedajudgeofthat and Lady Gulf.

Dean Magee was the winning pilot for owner/trainer Scott Banitt. The win mutuel was $2.10.

The freshman trot winners included SV Sparklin Silver (by Be The Best) paying $73.20 with driver James Gould in a career best 2:03.3 in the filly division and WishingiwASFishing (by New Jersey Viking) paying $6 with driver Brandon Jensen in a career best 2:01.1 the colts division.

The class 'B' freshman pace went to A A Ron (by Gulf Shores) and driver Luke Plano in a career best 1:54.2 and the 'C' division went to Arts Finale (by Art's Chip) and driver Rick Magee who posted his first career win in 1:57.3.

Speaking Volumes (by Artspeak) went gate-to-wire in the $12,750 open II handicap pace in 1:52.4 for his fourth win of the season, holding off stablemate PD The Big Easy and Dandy's Freedom. Rick Magee drove the $11.40 winner.

Drivers Rick Magee and Luke Plano and trainers Justin Anfinson and Brady Jensen all posted doubles on the program.

HARNESS RACING PRESS RELEASES, NOTES & ANNOUNCEMENTS

Earlier post time, Hambletonian and Oaks elims on tap at Big M

With just nine days remaining until the 101st edition of the Winning Key Farms Hambletonian, The Meadowlands will continue to make changes designed to make the track experience better for the bettor as well as the horsemen and horsewomen who compete on a consistent basis at The Big M.

First and foremost, management at the mile oval has decided that an earlier start would be a good move, so, effective immediately, post time will be 15 minutes earlier than what it has been for some time, with the first race now scheduled to go at 6:20 p.m.

Racing will be conducted this weekend tonight (July 31) and Saturday (Aug. 1).

"We have been trying to finish earlier by decreasing the time between races," said track chief operating officer/general manager Jason Settlemoir. "And for the last several weeks, we have had an entry box that's been supporting 15-race programs.

"At the end of the day, we have decided on the earlier post time in an effort to complete our race cards before midnight. We also will eventually go back to 14-race programs on a consistent basis, but if we have enough horses to go with 15 races, we will then offer our horsemen and women the opportunity to race."

The new post time goes into effect just in time for the third leg of the New Jersey Sire Stakes. There will be nine leg three divisions for 2-year-olds contested on tonight's 15-race card, with an additional pair of non-betting events that will take place during the live simulcast show (at 6 p.m. and 6:10 p.m.).

Only one horse on the betting program is two-for-two in the NJSS. The Julie Miller-trained Wall Of Fame has won her two dashes by a combined 7½ lengths facing Platinum level filly trotters. Miller's husband, Andy, will be in the bike.

There is also a horse in the second non-bettor who has two wins in as many NJSS tries. The Megan Scran-schooled Aintmyfirstro Deo, who has been competing in the Platinum level colt and gelding pacing division, is a gelded son of Perfect Sting—Some Renditions who will be driven by Scran's significant other, Scott Zeron.

DOUBLE ELIMINATION: There will be three eliminations conducted Saturday night for the Hambletonian Oaks for 3-year-old trotting fillies. From those three contests, which are carded as the first, fourth, and sixth races, the top three finishers from each seven-horse field plus the fourth-place finisher with the highest career earnings will advance to the $500,000 final.

If all goes as expected, the top two horses in the division will collide in the Aug. 8 final. Jailbird Jog (race 1) has been beyond impressive in taking the July 11 Del Miller and July 25 Tompkins-Geers, both from well off the pace.

The daughter of Tactical Landing—Miss Don Fanucci S is trained by Jason McGinnis and driven by five-time defending O'Brien Award winner as Canada's top pilot, James MacDonald. They have drawn post 4.

Marcus Melander trains Nezuko Kamado S (race 4), the filly who, as of now, is the Oaks favorite. Nezuko Kamado S defeated Jailbird Jog when the two met in the July 4 Reynolds. The Chapter Seven—Zefira Kronos IT product is a perfect four-for-four this year and will be driven by Zeron from post 5.

With two elims, the $1-million Winning Key Farms Hambletonian will see the top five from each dash advance to the final. A total of 19 horses dropped into the entry box.

Unlike the Oaks, this division's big two will face each other in their elimination.

Apex, the winter book favorite who was the divisional champion from last year, has won two of three starts this season. The first was the $225,000 New Jersey Sire Stakes Platinum division final, the other, a $145,650 division of the Stanley Dancer.

Trainer Melander's colt by Walner—Mission Brief is driven by Dexter Dunn. The pair will depart from post 7 in race 7.

Endurance went a brutal first-over trip when he provided cover for eventual winner Spencer Hanover in the May 16 Oak Grove Derby. That is the only loss of the season in five tries for the colt by Captain Corey—Love Session, who is trained by Chris Beaver and driven by Andy McCarthy. They have drawn post 9.

THE SCHEDULE: Live harness racing at The Meadowlands will be conducted on a Friday-Saturday basis through Sept. 12 with a first-race post time of 6:20 p.m.

There are some exceptions to those rules.

The 101st edition of the $1-million Hambletonian is on Saturday (Aug. 8), and that card begins at noon.

On Saturday (Aug. 15), racing will begin at 7 p.m.

In addition, there is a Thursday program scheduled. It will take place on Aug. 6.

Finally, there will be no live racing at The Meadowlands on Friday (Aug. 14), and Friday (Aug. 28), due to preseason football at MetLife Stadium.

A NEW BETTING MENU: When racing resumes tonight, the new betting menu will be in its second week, and the menu will be in play for the foreseeable future. Two things that players likely noticed last week was the absence of the second 20-cent Pick-5, but that loss has set up a big rebirth. The 20-cent Survivor Pick-7 has returned.

This is the wagering menu for tonight's 15-race program:

- Races 1-5: 20-cent Pick-5
- Races 4-9: 20-cent Pick-6
- Races 6-9: 50-cent Pick-4 ($50,000 guaranteed pool)
- Race 7: 10-cent Pentafecta (Hi-5)
- Races 8-14: 20-cent Survivor Pick-7
- Races 10-13: 50-cent Pick-4 ($50,000 guaranteed pool)
- Races 11-12: $2 Daily Double
- Races 13-15: $3 Pick-3
- Races 14-15: $5 Late Double
- Race 15: 10-cent Pentafecta (Hi-5)

This is the wagering menu for Saturday's 14-race program:

- Races 1-5: 20-cent Pick-5
- Races 4-9: 20-cent Pick-6
- Races 6-9: 50-cent Pick-4 ($50,000 guaranteed pool)
- Race 7: 10-cent Pentafecta (Hi-5)
- Races 8-14: 20-cent Survivor Pick-7
- Races 10-13: 50-cent Pick-4 ($50,000 guaranteed pool)
- Races 11-12: $2 Daily Double
- Races 12-14: $3 Pick-3
- Races 13-14: $5 Late Double
- Race 14: 10-cent Pentafecta (Hi-5)

The two Pick-4s with guaranteed pools are offered in conjunction with the U.S. Trotting Association's Strategic Wagering Program.

The link is <https://handicapping.ustrotting.com/>

"We believe this gives us the most exciting wagering menu in the sport," said Settlemoir. "There are plenty of opportunities to make scores with the types of wagers that the players want."

COME TO THE DRAW: Head for the Chateau Grande in East Brunswick, NJ, on Tuesday (Aug. 4), and catch a special event on the harness racing calendar when the post position draws for the $1-million Hambletonian and $500,000 Hambletonian Oaks are conducted, and while you are there, enjoy some great food.

The luncheon begins at 2 p.m., with the draws for the Hambletonian and Oaks kicking off at 3 p.m.

The Big M's TV production team will be there, with a special appearance by former Big M simulcast show personality – and current FOX Sports harness racing analyst – Jessica Otten serving as host with Ken Warkentin assisting providing interviews.

The post draw can be viewed live on The Meadowlands Facebook page as well as The Meadowlands YouTube Channel for those who cannot attend.

The event is open to the public, but please RSVP here.

IT'S LIVE ON FOX: The Hambletonian and Hambletonian Oaks will be telecast live to a national television audience on Saturday (Aug. 8).

The show can be seen as part of the New York Racing Association's "Day at the Races" coverage of the thoroughbred action from Saratoga Race Course.

For those who would like to see the Hambletonian Oaks and Hambletonian live on TV, they should tune in to FOX Sports 2 (FS2) at 3 p.m.

Post time for the Oaks is 3:21 p.m. The Hambletonian is set for 4:35 p.m.

DOCUMENTING "GLORY": Much has changed since the year 2000, when the Y2K transition dominated millennium fears and Tiger Woods was the world's greatest golfer.

What has remained constant in the ensuing 25 years was that the Hambletonian at The Meadowlands unfolded as a spectacular event that featured human and equine stories of all shapes and sizes.

The 100th Anniversary of the Hambletonian: The Race to Glory, a documentary presented by the Hambletonian Society, lays out the champions of America's Trotting Classic from the year 2000 – when Yankee Paco, Canada's first Hambletonian-sired champion signaled the entrance of international participation in the race – ending with 2025, when Nordic Catcher S, driven and trained by Swedish Hall of Famer Ake Svanstedt, trotted into the history books as the 100th winner of the storied stakes event.

The 100th edition of the Hambletonian took place on Aug. 2, 2025, and will be the closing feature of a 60-minute retrospective of the brightest jewel in trotting's Triple Crown to be broadcast on CBS Sports Network (CBSSN) on Sunday (Aug. 2) at 3 p.m.

It will also be streamed on all Hambletonian Society and Meadowlands social media platforms beginning Sunday (Aug. 2).

WHO'S ON THE SHOW? This weekend, John Rallis, fresh off last week's appearance as interviewer on CBS Sports Network's live presentation of the Adios at The Meadows, and Derick Giwner, the editor at DRF Harness, will be back on the Sam McKee Memorial Set sharing their insights and selections alongside Big M simulcast show host Dave Little.

Rallis will be on the desk tonight serving as co-host, with Giwner getting in the chair on Saturday.

Ken Warkentin will be in his place at the top of the grandstand calling the action for both programs, while Gary DiLeo will handle interviews from the paddock with winning connections tonight, while Rallis will interview winning connections in the winner's circle on Saturday's program.

Page hits 8,000 win at Eldorado Scioto Downs

Chris Page hit a huge driving milestone when he piloted Later Dudes to victory in the fifth race at Eldorado Scioto Downs on Tuesday (July 28). Win No. 8,000 came nearly 25 years to the week of his first lifetime victory.

Page's career started in July of 2000 at the Knox County Fair in his hometown of Mt Vernon. It took him just over a year to get his first lifetime win, but it was only his 19th start. That day he won with Titanic Fella for trainer Erik Hall in a trail blazing 2:09 mile going for $800.

Page's driving career started to take off in 2006 when he logged 750 starts, and he's averaged 2,696 starts for the past five years. Logging that many starts, it didn't quite take Page two years to log 1,000 wins as he got his most previous milestone, 7,000th win, on Oct. 6, 2024.

Lifetime to date, the 42-year-old reinsman now has 46,600 starts with $89.47-million in earnings. He has won an astonishing 10 Jerry Kaltenbach Memorial Trophies, awarded to the driver (and trainer) who earn the most in that year's Ohio Sires Stakes action. Page, Scioto's 2025 leading driver, accomplished a childhood dream back in 2022 when he piloted Bythemissal to victory in the Little Brown Jug.

Overall, Page had four wins on the Tuesday card and currently is the leading driver at Scioto, just ahead of 25-year-old Luke Hanners who sits second.

The 91-day 2026 Eldorado Scioto Downs regular season runs through Sept. 19. Races will be held Tuesdays and Thursdays through Saturdays starting in August. There will be a special holiday card on Labor Day instead of the Tuesday card that week and no live racing on Friday (Sept. 18) to accommodate horsemen attending the Ohio Selected Yearling Sale. The track will then re-open for the Breeders Crown, with eliminations held Oct. 16-17 and the finals Oct. 23-24. More information about all the racing action at Scioto can be found on the Eldorado Scioto Downs website.

Jerry 'Buck' Sprinkle dies at 77

Horseman Jerry "Buck" Sprinkle, 77, died unexpectedly Sunday (July 26). Sprinkle had suffered a stroke a few days earlier and was hospitalized at the Albert B. Chandler Hospital at the University of Kentucky in Lexington when he died.

A native of Vernon, NY, Sprinkle started his career with horses on the Vernon Downs backstretch. His time in Vernon included working for the respected veterinarians Dr. John Steele and Dr. Paul Nolan.

During his later years of work, Sprinkle trained the trotting colt Toss Out 3, 1:54.1 ($409,828), who finished second in the 1993 World Trotting Derby. He was also involved with training 1991 Breeders Crown 3-Year-Old Filly Trot winner Twelve Speed. His association with those horses, and many others, was through his friendship with Dr. Paul Nolan and his wife, Ute. Ute and Buck developed many trotters in the U.S. and Ute then sold them to Europeans.

Nolan died last December and this summer Ute and Buck settled in Lexington just before the summer race meet at The Red Mile began so they could connect with friends and be immersed in the trotting world.

"He was enjoying going to the track, and we were talking about buying a yearling this fall," said Ute about Buck's days before he suffered a stroke.

Buck, who was one of 11 children, is survived by two sisters, Louann Spargo and Barbara Andrews, and many nieces and nephews. An oceanside memorial service for him will be held in South Florida later this year.

Market Share, It's My Show move to Hunterton Farm

Hunterton Farm has welcomed two new members to its retirement community of accomplished equines. Market Share 5, 1:50.2f ($3,792,101) and It's My Show p, 3, 1:46.4 ($1,541,620) recently arrived at the Paris, KY, farm.

"It's an honor to have horses like them on the farm," said Steve Stewart, who owns and operates Hunterton with his wife, Cindy.

"Market Share was babysitting yearlings at Southwind Farms," Steve said, "and we'll probably have him doing that here, and It's My Show has recovered from a career-ending injury, so we'll see how he is doing."

Market Share, a son of Revenue S, was born in Paris, KY, where he was raised by his breeder, Hayley Moore. In 2017, Market Share won the Hambletonian for owners Richard Gutnick, TLP Stable, and William Augustine, trainer Linda Toscano and driver Tim Tetrick. At age 4, he won the Breeders Crown, Maple Leaf Trot, and TVG final.

When Southwind Farms decided to close its doors, Gutnick started looking for a new home for Market Share.

"We wanted to place him at the Kentucky Horse Park," said Gutnick. "Besides winning the Hambletonian, he was a blue-ribbon winner at the Standardbred Pleasure Horse Show and had been ridden regularly. But we couldn't get him placed at the Horse Park because they wanted a different breed. Luckily, Steve Stewart said they would be happy to take him at Hunterton, and I'm very happy about that."

It's My Show's new home happens to be the place he was born. The 6-year-old gelding by Sweet Lou out of the great Put On A Show was foaled at Hunterton. He is settling in after a year-long recovery from a shattered pastern that required multiple screws to repair.

Trained by Linda Toscano, It's My Show had won the North America Cup, Little Brown Jug, and Canadian Pacing Derby before suffering his injury.

"I was given the option to euthanize him," said Richard Young, who co-owns the horse with Joanne Young. "The vets told me it was 50-50 if he survived. I'm in the business to race, but you have to be able to accept that bad things can happen. But I'm an animal lover, so I said 'let's try to save him.' I'm very happy the surgery was a success. He was at Mid-Atlantic [Veterinary Clinic] in New Jersey for four months."

It's My Show's dam, Put On A Show, still resides at Hunterton and is owned by a partnership that includes Steve Stewart.

Hunterton Farm will soon begin welcoming guests to inspect its 2026 yearlings and encourages visitors to ask to see Market Share and It's My Show.

Northfield moves post to 5 p.m. to accommodate 20 race card

Saturday night (Aug. 1) at Northfield Park features the special Summit County Fair race card with 20 live races on tap. With the added races, first post has been moved up to 5 p.m. Along with the racing, fans can enjoy a Fair Food Festival on the apron, a live DJ, a T-shirt toss, free face painting and balloon animals for the kids. Fans will also have the chance to meet a racehorse up close, making it a fun evening for the whole family.

Northfield will get back to traditional overnights on Sunday (Aug. 2) with a $7,069 pick-6 carryover and an estimated $20,000 pool. The Pick-6 is offered in conjunction with the U.S. Trotting Association's Strategic Wagering Program as well as the Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association.
