Julie and Andy Miller all in on Offshore Farm

TALES FROM THE CURMUDGEON

with MURRAY BROWN

by Murray Brown

In the midst of seemingly negative happenings in New Jersey's standardbred industry, such as the announcement that one of its leading nurseries Southwind Farms will shortly be ceasing operations, the Miller family (Julie, Andy, Tyler, and Olivia) have launched an innovative equine health center, known as Offshore Farm in the Garden State.

I spoke with Julie to discuss the new venture as well as several other areas of involvement in harness racing of the Miller family.

Given the apparent precarious state of harness racing in New Jersey where we are reduced to one racetrack, racing two nights a week, and the impending loss of the farm standing several of the most successful stallions, not only in New Jersey, but perhaps anywhere, why did you folks decide to in effect go against the grain in opening Offshore Farm?

"There is more than one answer to your question. The first is that for 20 years we were tenants at Gaitway Farm, an exemplary training center, where we were always treated exceptionally well. After being tenants for that long, we felt that it was time that we, in effect, became masters of our own ship. Our kids, Tyler and Olivia, had become involved in the family business. We felt that the time was right and we acted upon it. Like that line from William Shakespeare's Julius Caesar, 'There is a tide in the affairs of men, which taken at the flood leads on to fortune.' We feel that applied to us and we wanted to seize the opportunity.

"Another reason is that we felt the need for a full-service equine facility in the area. Our clientele is not entirely composed of standardbreds, although they are the majority. We cater to all breeds with of course harness horses being the majority.

“When describing Offshore Farm as a full-service equine facility, we mean just that. We have 50 acres in Cream Ridge, which includes a racetrack, a 54-stall stable, a hayfield, a water treadmill, and a water spa.

We are open for business not only to our own and our clients horses, but to those in the area who might want to avail themselves of our services. Our location is quite central in that we are not too far from the racetracks and training centers in not only New Jersey, but those in New York and Pennsylvania as well.”

Let’s talk about the makeup of your racing stable. How many horses do you have in training?

“Right now, we have somewhere around 50 horses racing or about to race. The majority of them are here at the farm, with a satellite group of about a dozen in Kentucky with our son Tyler. We previously had somewhere in the area of 70, but decided that it was beneficial to us and our clients to downsize somewhat.”

Watching those you have racing, it appears that you seem to favor trotters over pacers. Any reason?

“The primary reason is that is what our clients, and I suppose we, as well, prefer. We don’t necessarily go shopping with a view to buy all, or the majority of our yearlings at one gait or the other. I try to look at most of the yearlings cataloged in Kentucky and Harrisburg. The major factor in determining which yearlings we bid on is what interests our clients most. Of course, there are other factors, especially price. Another factor is dual eligibility. We don't consider that to be a necessity, but it is definitely a positive factor."

It's still early, in the season, but to me, it seems that one of the best 2-year-olds owned by the Millers, is not only a pacer, but it is one that isn't trained by this branch of the Miller family.

"You must be talking about Dame Frances. It's a funny story. I had looked at her and liked what I saw when I was at Hunteerton Farm. She is a beautiful filly and comes from maybe the hottest pacing family in the sport today. Andy had also looked at her and liked her. I had a notation to that effect in my catalog.

Andy and Tyler were racing in Massachusetts when she sold, so we weren't involved in the bidding. When the sheets came out, I saw that Andy's brother Erv had signed for her. I spoke to Erv and said that if he was looking for a partner in the filly, we would be interested. We thought no further of it. A while later we got a bill from Kentucky Standardbred for a piece of Dame Frances. We were a little surprised, because it had slipped our minds. But we were also pleased to be in on her. It's still early, but right now it looks as though she might be one of the best pacing fillies in the country. Atlee and Erv have done a great job with her. We also have a nice 2-year-old trotting filly, Wall Of Fame, who has already won three New Jersey Sire Stakes."

— Julie Miller

You are one of the most thorough yearling shoppers around. How does your stable shop for yearlings?

“I suppose that I do most of the leg work. I go to most of the farms and narrow our lists down for Andy, who, if he has the time, will also visit the farms. In most cases, he is busy racing, so he doesn’t get a chance to see them in person until we go to the sale.

“Andy and Tyler are great believers in watching videos, me, not as much. They watch them thoroughly, maybe sometimes seeing things that I don’t. I’m a great believer in seeing them in person. Sometimes I’m able to see things, usually related to disposition that are not obvious in a video. I’m also a big believer in first impressions. I like to see a yearling come out of the stall with its ears up and a look in its eyes saying that it is ready to take on the world.”

At which tracks do you guys most enjoy racing?

“I think most people would most likely say Lexington or The Meadowlands. I certainly can relate to that. They are great places with exceptional history, where some of our most important races take place. Coming from Illinois, the great tracks at Springfield and DuQuoin come to mind.

“As for me, my favorite tracks are the ones where we can do the most good. I’d much prefer to win a New York Sires Stakes at a place like Batavia than to finish sixth at The Red Mile.”

Let’s mention some of the better horses that are alumni of your stable.

“The horse that probably put us on the map was Lucky Jim. He made the year 2009 extra special for the Miller Stable. What a wonderful trotter he was. He not only earned $1,930,302 while in the stable, but he also took us places, most notably the Elitlopp, where horsepeople only dream of going. Others that we were proud to have played a part in their careers were French Wine [$1,630,899], Mets Hall [$1,295,306], Lindy The Great [$1,498,404], Devious Man [$1,338,677], Venerate [$1,217,706], Sevruga [$1,217,021], and the Breeders Crown winning filly Max Contract.”

'Beau,' 'Battles,' and Bet Ontario Handicapping Contest increase buzz around Grand River Industry Day

by Matthew Lomon

After a historic 36th edition of its annual Industry Day in which multiple track records fell, Grand River Raceway is champing at the bit ahead of the 37th renewal of its hallmark event.

"There's a buzz and commotion in the office while semi-new staff figure our way around everything and there's excitement from regular patrons who started looking for programs even before the draw was completed," raceway manager Christine Fairhall said.

"There's chatter in the paddock among owners, trainers, drivers, and staff alike, all wondering what to expect, what's going to happen – we're eager to get things underway."

Returning on its traditional first Monday in August slot (Aug. 3), the latest installment of Grand River's signature race date features a loaded 12-race card, headlined by the Battle of Waterloo (presented by Winbak Farm), the Battle of the Belles, and an Ontario Sires Stakes Gold leg for 3-year-old pacing colts.

The $205,000 Battle of Waterloo and $165,000 Battle of the Belles will carry significant momentum into their 28th and 17th editions, respectively, after both bouts saw record-setting finishes last year.

Defending Horse of the Year Beau Jangles, who will face the gate in the $150,000 OSS Gold leg on Industry Day, stopped the clock in 1:51 to capture the 2025 Battle of Waterloo.

In the co-main event, first-crop Bulldog Hanover filly Daya reset the record books with a blistering 1:50.4 mile.

It's those "where were you when" type of performances that have cemented Industry Day's place among the premier race dates on the Ontario harness racing calendar, year after year.

“Grand River’s been very fortunate to have had the opportunity to host horses like Beau Jangles, Daya, and countless others in our marquee events,” Fairhall said. “Our goal is for Grand River to remain a place where drivers, trainers, and owners want to come and show off their pride and joy.”

With no eliminations this year, the field of nine Ontario-sired rookie pacers is already set for the Battle of Waterloo.

“We have an amazing group of 2-year-old colts who will be pushing hard to be the next name on the trophy base – not to mention getting their share of the $205,000 purse,” Fairhall said.

“There’s obviously so much history with this race that means so much to our racetrack and we can’t wait to see how the next chapter unfolds.”

On the flip side, there were two eliminations for the Battle of the Belles, both contested on July 27 at Grand River and both ending with a familiar face in the winner’s circle.

“This year’s group of Belles’ finalists should put on a good show with Bob McClure winning both eliminations with his horses,” Fairhall said. “I think fans will be watching closely to see who he chooses to race in the final.”

“Grand River’s been very fortunate to have had the opportunity to host horses like Beau Jangles, Daya, and countless others in our marquee events. Our goal is for Grand River to remain a place where drivers, trainers, and owners want to come and show off their pride and joy.”

— Christine Fairhall

McClure, the regular reinsman on Beau Jangles, had his choice between 7-5 morning-line favorite Money Carlo and 9-5 second choice Jersey Bulldog, each convincing winners in their respective heats.

The Rockwood, ON-based reinsman ultimately opted for the latter.

The pair of Bulldog Hanover-sired fillies represent two of the nine entrants in the Battle of the Belles, which is sure to offer plenty of intriguing angles for horseplayers.

“From a wagering perspective, people always surprise me,” Fairhall said with a laugh. “They could keep the odds pretty level across the board, or they could choose a favorite like Money Carlo. But it’s a horse race, so anything can happen.”

The latter sentiment being one Fairhall knows well after watching her family’s horse Karma Seelster strike at 27-1 in the 2019 Battle of the Belles.

“Our family was very fortunate to be part of the Belles’ winning history,” she said. “Every filly from FBS Terror, who was the first Belles winner in 2009, to Daya setting a track record last year, proved worthy of competing on our signature card, and in doing so, stood out with the best Ontario has to offer.”

Steeped in Industry Day’s rich history as both a longtime employee and fan, Fairhall is no stranger to the aura around Grand River’s flagship showcase.

However, this year’s Industry Day, being her first as raceway manager, has a different ring to it.

“It’s a little more stressful,” Fairhall said with a laugh. “But I have full confidence in the people who work for us, sharing their passion to make the day as smooth, exciting, and memorable for everybody involved.”

To deliver that full-scale fan experience, Grand River is expanding its off-track offering with the help of Ontario Racing’s Kids’ Experience, which will be available in the NEIGHbourhood Kids Area.

“The OR Kids’ Experience gives our new and regular attendees something new to discover,” Fairhall said. “Our NEIGHbourhood staff will be available to observe and work within it, and possibly scope out some new ideas that we can add to our regular NEIGHbourhood area.”

Horseplayers also have something extra to look forward to with the Bet Ontario Handicapping Contest rolling into town on Industry Day.

“We’re the fourth leg of the contest, so I think that puts Grand River in a good spot because it’s already built some momentum and a bit of a following,” Fairhall said. “Plus, it’s getting closer to

with NEIL MILBERT

What's going to happen to Hawthorne's 11 OTBs?

by Neil Milbert

Now that harness and thoroughbred racing in the Chicago metropolitan area have ceased as a consequence of bankrupt Hawthorne Race Course's $90 million sale to the Delaware shell corporation Allimac 23 for real estate development a lingering question remains:

What will happen to Hawthorne's 11 off-track betting parlors?

According to the Illinois Racing Board's projects manager, Bob Dinneen, Hawthorne's license runs through Dec. 31 as does the license of its Suburban Downs harness subsidiary which had its license restored on May 13 after being suspended by the board on Jan. 26 because of the track's financial instability.

In order to apply to the board for a yearly organizational license an applicant must have a racing facility and OTB licenses are limited to licensed racetracks.

Those restrictions would seem to put Hawthorne's OTBs out of business in 2027.

"The big concern now is where the OTB profits [for the rest of the year] are going to go," said the Illinois Harness Horsemen's Association executive director Tony Somone. "For every dollar bet at the OTBs 20 cents is profit of which 10 cents goes to the horsemen and 10 cents goes to the racetrack.

"If the Racing Board is going to keep them open every penny should go to the unsecured creditors. It shouldn't go to Hawthorne's pockets. There are no rules on situations like this. These are questions that need to be addressed by the board."

The Racing Board's executive director, Domenic DiCera, will be out of the office through Aug. 11 so it's highly unlikely that anything will be decided until the regulatory body meets later in the month.

Besieged by approximately 250 creditors owed an estimated $138 million Hawthorne declared bankruptcy on Feb. 27.

Allimac was the only bidder for the 119-acre property that has been under Carey family ownership since 1909. Closing is scheduled for early September.

In the meantime, the track will stay open until Aug. 31 to allow the thoroughbreds remaining on the premises to train and give 337 stable area adult workers and their 147 children time to relocate.

The thoroughbred meeting began on April 19 – three weeks later than scheduled – and was scheduled to run through Nov. 1 but it ended prematurely on July 19. By then racing was limited to Sundays and purses for the last three weeks remain unpaid.

All 14 of the harness programs scheduled for January and February were canceled and the Nov. 6-Dec. 27 harness meeting will not be held, which means that 2026 will reach the finish line with no standardbred racing in the Chicago area for the first time since 1945, the year before pari-mutuel betting on the sport began at Maywood Park.

The only racetrack remaining in Illinois is Fairmount Park, a thoroughbred track and racino across the Mississippi River from St. Louis.

Many in the racing community were hoping that Fairmount would take over the Hawthorne parlors that are located in Crestwood, Evergreen Park, Hoffman Estates, Joliet, Lansing, McHenry, North Aurora, Oakbrook Terrace, Prospect Heights, Rockford, and Villa Park but Dinneen said that's impossible.

The Racing Board's projects manager cited the statute that stipulates OTBs must be located within 160 miles of the track that holds the license, and the 11 OTBs are beyond the Fairmount boundary.

game that deemphasize gambling. HRU archives articles, so my descent into insanity can be verified.

Some of the outlandish suggestions, presented in various writing formats, suggested that we build private, non-wagering, country club-like racing facilities to race our trotters and pacers. Tossed on the table were graphics, deck pitches, analogies, reasoning, financing, and suggested auxiliary businesses to complement and support the concepts.

After all this prodding and scribbling, the response was crickets. This lack of interest is understandable. Change is difficult. Even to my feverish, overoptimistic mind, these ideas felt like a stretch. They were simply rants from a loopy loose cannon.

Then, suddenly, a dash of validation when I stumbled upon a feature article in The New York Times, published on July 4, by Lawrence Ulrich. The article made me sit up in my hammock. Each paragraph made me say, "I suggested that for harness racing."

The title of the article is The Rise of Racetrack Country Clubs: 'Racing Is Golf on Steroids.' The subheading reads: A motorsports club north of Miami, on former orange groves, is being built to cater to enthusiasts and well-heeled novices eager to hit the gas and pull some Gs.

One of the photos showed a bulldozer moving dirt for a racing oval.

Below, inside the quotation marks, you will find slightly edited snippets of quotes from the car racing article. Following the quote, in parentheses, are references to a column that appeared in HRU this year about harness racing.

"Porsches and other performance cars were all dressed up with no place to go - certainly not at the hurricane-force speeds for which they're designed."

(We don't need all our harness horses to race blistering miles. There can be competitive racing without jaw-dropping speed.)

"Ari Straus and his family are plotting the latest country-club-style racetrack that lets members indulge. Mr. Straus and partners are spending $270 million to build a pair of motorsports circuits for members and their families."

(A few very wealthy people probably hold our reins. They could easily create private harness horse racing systems and operations.)

"Having a life-changing experience with family and friends you care about is something we value exponentially more today."

(Creating harness racing facilities centered around our magnificent horses will be a wonderful option in the fast-paced world.)

"Enormous earthmovers are carving out lakes and elevation changes, unheard of in notoriously flat Florida."

(We should build new harness racing facilities where land is cheap, the weather is warm in the winter, competitors are not close, and where the novelty of racing harness horses could become an asset.)

"...drivers explore the limits of their cars, with maximum perceived risk but low actual risk."

(New facilities should lean into participation and socialization as much as is reasonable.)

"...why isn't there a country club for car guys? How do I get that same passion, adrenaline, and camaraderie? Golf is OK, but racing is golf on steroids."

(New forms of turning passionate hobbies into more fulfilling activities will be on the menu for smart people, and harness horse racing is a perfect fit.)

"...they offered lifetime memberships, with no dues, to 50 founding members for $100,000 each. Several clubs have followed with higher fees and monthly family dues..."

(Trey never imagined this kind of money for participants. His budgets were much more modest)

"...another model pioneered by Autobahn: selling real estate to provide capital for development, including lavish clubhouses, lofts or homes with track views, and garages to store cars."

(Development and real estate investment at a harness racing facility was the thrust of one column, but Trey added RV and campgrounds and subsidiary money-generating operations.)

You get the gist.

There are dreamers in a sport with many similarities to ours. At this moment, car racing entrepreneurs are scraping out racing ovals and building facilities. The creators are actively finding new ways to ply their passion. This is reassuring. Maybe the ideas are crazy. Maybe Trey is crazy. Maybe nothing ever happens. But history sometimes makes yesterday's lunatics look like, well, not lunatics.

Vroom, vroom. Let's go. Let's keep an eye on this other form of racing and see what we can learn. Now, back to the hammock.

HOLLYWOOD'S HITS

with BOB HEYDEN

Was Hambletonian Day 2012 the greatest of them all?

by Bob Heyden

Here are 10 reasons why I believe the 2012 Hambletonian Day was the greatest of them all:

1. It was the last of eight Hambletonians that went for $1,500,000. Starting with Vivid Photo in 2005 and right through to Market Share in 2012. Ron Pierce was the only driver to double up during those years – Donato Hanover (2007) and Muscle Massive (2010) – and he had the 8-5 favorite in 2012, Uncle Peter, who finished seventh placed eighth.

2. Put On A Show certainly did. The 5-year-old daughter from the first crop of HOY Rocknroll Hanover had missed her entire 4-year-old season. The Chris Ryder trainee was driven by Jody Jamieson in the Lady Liberty and shot through in a new world record of 1:47.3 for females. She improved to 27-7-1 in 39 starts with $2,245,699 lifetime for owner Craig Henderson as well as Richard and Joanne Young.

3. Jimmy Takter finished a neck back of Market Share with Guccio in the $1.5 million Hambletonian. The colt was just two-for-14 lifetime with five seconds going in and stormed home to just miss.

4. Panther Hanover with Sylvain Filion won the McKee (then known as the U.S. Pacing Championship) in a sparkling 1:47.2. That time would hold up as the quickest of the entire year in the sport. Yes, that means that the both the fastest male and female mile of the entire year took place on the afternoon of Aug. 4, 2012. Hurricane Kingcole set the amazing fractions which included an industry best 1:18.1 three quarter time. He competed for Big Jim Carr of Hamilton, ON, who had just come off a couple of dream seasons with Big Jim, the horse.

5. The 10-cent Superfecta in the Hambletonian Oaks returned a staggering $17,582.77. This was triggered by a $116.40 upsetter Personal Style. The two overwhelming faves Check Me Out (23 20-3-0, $1,490,174) and Maven (18 12-2-1, $418,979) went off-stride in the final turn and lost all chance.

6. Captaintreacherous won the very last Woodrow Wilson in 1:49.3, a stakes record, by 10 lengths. The purse was $309,050, the smallest in the Wilson since it's 1977 inception ($280,000).

7. Jim Oscarsson won the Peter Haughton with Aperfectyankee, who was 15-1 on the morning line, but was bet down and paid $10.80. It would be just one year later that lightning struck AGAIN for Jim with a freshman named Nuncio.

8. Quietly the opener on the 15-race card was won by Delicious ($31.60) with Ron Pierce driving. This would be trainer Ron Gurfein's last Hambletonian Day victory.

9. Who had the most drives on the 2012 Hambletonian Day card? Tim Tetrick was in all 15 races, while Ron Pierce was in 14, Brian Sears in 13, and Yannick Gingras and Andy Miller each had 12.

10. Tim Tetrick did something unprecedented on that day, his Hambletonian winning day with Market Share. He drove the top three finishers in the Horse of the Year balloting at year's end all to victory. HOY Chapter Seven (84 votes) won the Cashman in a stakes equaling 1:50.1. Second in the balloting was Hambletonian champ Market Share, the Linda Toscano-trained stablemate of Chapter Seven. Third was Captaintreacherous (six votes).

Blood on the tracks: Another Hambletonian on tap thanks to Hambletonian

by Frank Coltole

A rare few following harness racing in New York City during the 1960s could identify the origin of the word Hambletonian; no less tell you it is the name of a horse; no less tell you the horse was a trotter; no less tell you an international horse race is named after that trotter.

"It ain't any race at Yonkers," said one punter.

"They don't run that at Roosevelt, do they?" said another.

"Is it a pace or a trot?" said one more.

I am among those whom I would demean about the word Hambletonian. Living in Brooklyn at that time did not expose the general betting public to harness racing across the country. To that audience a drive to Freehold Raceway in New Jersey was a trip demanding much planning to witness and bet on harness racing live.

Times change. For better or worse. But I bet there are still a slew of people up and down the East Coast — them being somewhat standardbred aware — unable to tell you that every harness horse on the planet owes its life to the horse named Hambletonian.

“What’s a Hambletonian, anyway?” said a bettor, looking over my shoulder reading this article.

“The horse called Hambletonian was the resident of a place called Hambleton Hills,” I said. “In the 1700s lots of racehorses took their names based on their birthplaces or training grounds.”

That was not so important. What matters is that Hambletonian has significance because every living standardbred’s bloodline can be traced to him. When I discovered that fact I was as amazed as impressed. Having traced my own bloodline to generations barely able to walk upright ignited my astonishment.

My first Hambletonian race took place at The Meadowlands during my first full-time journalist job for the sport. The event ended in a dead heat between Park Avenue Joe and Probe. The 1989 edition was still defined by winning multiple miles: “heats.” It was a format new to Brooklyn harness rubes such as myself.

As I learned more about the race’s namesake, I embraced the history of the sport with reverence, because history matters. I learned that reality long before I won my first bet at Yonkers Raceway. For any subject studied, its roots provide magnificent and detailed explanations of its who-what-where and -when.

This state of mind inspired me to pay greater attention to the Hambletonians I missed before 1989.

My study era arrived at a fortunate time for me; I was on the inside of the sport as a journalist. I was able to witness the affairs in the same arena as did great sources; people active in the sport's history still participating in breeding and training and owning and racing stalwart standardbred beasts.

I thought at first as a handicapper and bettor there would be little about pedigree able to influence my intricate skills; no less make me a buck or two. But the deeper I explored the individual studs the more I discovered I was wrong. The Hambletonian bloodline was affected by its foundation sire even a century later, but only in certain situations where I found them to my advantage that influenced my handicapping.

In the past few decades, the Hambletonian was as easy to handicap as most any overnight trot. In most cases the pedigree factor is moot; it basically does not provide an edge; unless you check sire statistics for the race entries' 2-year-old records.

Sometimes the less-than-obvious current successful sophomores set to race in a Hambletonian are products of sires that have done exceptionally well with their freshman crop, percentage-wise. The betting public weighs heavily on current form for obvious reasons. One in particular is that there are few statistics on rates of improvement. Ignoring troubled trips is always important. But measuring improvement is a vague science.

Suffice to say that the fields of every Hambletonian present the season's finest sophomore talents as to make handicapping the event a smart pass or a wise investment. In fact, the eliminations have often presented greater wagering values than the final; simply because those races include more of the season's best sophomores.

And all are the blood-related trotters that produced the likes of Mack Lobell and Malabar Man and Windsong's Legacy and Muscle Hill and Donato Hanover, etcetera, as well as the fillies like Continental Victory and Atlanta that defeated the colts fair and square, remain akin to those among the lesser-known standardbreds that raced weekly in claimers and ones like Molotov Memoirs (named after one of my books) that never make it to post at all.

Still the world is watching on that Saturday in August each year because in France and Germany and Sweden and Italy and even Russia there are hooves on the ground trotting their hearts away thanks to the founding heart of the breed, the son of thoroughbred King Fergus.

Apex, Big Ranger convert in Hambletonian elims

by James Witherite / Meadowlands media relations

Apex (7, Dexter Dunn) winning the first of two Hambletonian eliminations on Saturday at The Meadowlands.

Apex, Marcus Melander's millionaire trainee, stamped himself as a likely favorite for next week's $1 million Grade 1 Hambletonian by way of a gutsy 1:50.4 win in the first $100,175 elimination for the 101st edition of the classic for 3-year-old trotters on Saturday (Aug. 1) at The Meadowlands. Big Ranger delivered a statement win in the second elimination, leaving his nine foes well in his wake for a decisive 1:50 score.

After teaming Apex to wins in the New Jersey Sire Stakes championship and his division of the Grade 3 Stanley Dancer Memorial, Dexter Dunn floated the Walner—Mission Brief colt forward into midfield from post 7 as Al (driven by Yannick Gingras) split fellow leavers Captain Naughty (Jason Bartlett) and American Power (James MacDonald) to secure the lead through a :27.3 first quarter. Midway up the backstretch, Dunn angled Apex wide to flush Inexpressible (Scott Zeron) out from fourth, but Inexpressible charged ahead to clear the front at the :56.4 half-mile station, leaving Apex uncovered and two lengths off the lead with the toughest part of the race ahead of him.

Big Ranger (Tim Tetrick) winning the second Hambletonian elimination in 1:50.

"I knew it was going to be a tough mile no matter what we did with him," said Dunn. "We got away in a pretty good position, but we were only in for a little bit and out the rest of the mile."

Inexpressable threw down a :27.4 third quarter through the far turn, but Apex managed to gradually grind forward and sweep to the lead with 150 yards to go. Though Apex made easy work of Inexpressable, Endurance and Andy McCarthy posed a major threat down the grandstand side nearing the winning post after slipstreaming Apex's cover on the far turn.

"I thought Andy was going to pass me late in the stretch [with Endurance], but [Apex] really dug deep and wanted to fight him off," said Dunn.

Apex indeed proved up to the challenge, gamely parrying Endurance by a nose to record his ninth career win from 13 starts — and his third from just four tries this year — for the partnership of Jeffrey Snyder, SRF Stable, and Steve Stewart.

American Power split foes to save third out of a failing pocket; Captain Naughty and Al rounded out the top five finishers.

“He’s got that winning attitude,” said Dunn. “I think he’ll probably be sharper next week, as well; he’d only had three starts this year, and this should tighten him up a bit.”

On the strength of a four-race win streak, Big Ranger entered his elimination as the 2-5 favorite, and Tim Tetrick sustained a measured move with him out of mid-field to clear the front with nine-sixteenths to go after losing cover on the backstretch. Following a :55.3 half, Big Ranger braced for a first-over challenge from Nix Nacken (Dunn) on the far turn, and the pair drew 2½ lengths clear of Magic Punk (Gingras) midway through the far turn.

Nix Nacken forced Big Ranger to throw down a :26.4 third quarter, but the In Range—Big Blue Bird colt still had a :26.3 kicker left in the tank. Big Ranger knocked three-fifths-of-a-second off his lifetime mark with his victorious 1:50 effort and extended his record for trainer Anette Lorentzon to a perfect three-for-three after winning nine of his first 11 starts under the care of Ronnie Gillespie.

It Could Be Worse (Scott Zeron) emerged out of traffic to narrowly save second, four lengths in arrears, from Magic Punk; Spencer Hanover (Jason Bartlett) and Minoan (Andy McCarthy) rounded out the top five finishers.

“I was like, ‘This is a real horse,’” said Tetrick. “He impressed me from day one. He’s super smart, he’s got big lungs, he’s a real animal.

“He went under the wire strong; he was doing his work good. I got to sit behind horses on the first turn, and he settled good. When Yannick [Gingras] crossed over [to the lead with Magic Punk, before Big Ranger made his move], he bullied his way to the front, and when he got there, he relaxed... He passed a lot of tests today.”

With his elimination win, Big Ranger passed the $500,000 mark in career earnings for owner Madison Global. He paid $2.80 to win.

The top five finishers from each elimination have earned berths to the Hambletonian final, which will take place next Saturday (Aug. 8). By virtue of their victories, Apex and Big Ranger are guaranteed to draw a post position between 1 and 6. The barrier draw will take place Tuesday (Aug. 4) at a luncheon at the Chateau Grande, in East Brunswick, NJ.

Carve (Andrew McCarthy) winning the first of three Hambletonian Oaks eliminations on Saturday at The Meadows.

Carve, Busy Miss Lissy S upset; Setyoursightshigh rolls in Hambo Oaks elims

by Ray Coto / Meadowlands media relations

A pair of upsets landed in the trio of $50,175 eliminations for the Grade 1 Hambletonian Oaks at The Meadows on Saturday night (Aug. 1) with Carve and Busy Miss Lissy S finding the winner's circle in their respective eliminations while Setyoursightshigh, sent off as the slight third choice in the betting, also clinched a victory.

Carve skimmed through a seam at the pylons to nab the first Hambletonian Oaks elimination in a 1:51.1 mile. Driver Andy McCarthy pushed Carve to the point around the first turn but settled for the pocket as Madam Cheval brushed forward from the widest draw to take command into a :28 first quarter. Lainey W then lunged out of third onto the backstretch to swoop to the top, shuffling Carve into third to a :56.2 half. Stuck at the pylons to three-quarters in 1:24.3 with first-up Ygritte and second-over Jailbird Jog to her outside, Carve awaited a gap in the stretch that soon opened as leader Lainey W sprinted for the finish. Carve surged inside of Lainey W late in the stretch to bag a 1½-length win with Madam Cheval holding third.

Busy Miss Lissy S (Ake Svanstedt) winning the second Oaks elimination.

"I really didn't know how to play this race," Andy McCarthy said after the race. "She's got so much early speed, but sometimes if I use her too much early, she doesn't finish quite as strong. Once I saw Timmy [Tetrick with Madam Cheval] was on the gate and moving forward, I thought this should work out. She was on the muscle tonight. As soon as I had clearance to get through, I figured she had enough trot to finish it off."

Busy Miss Lissy S yielded command to pocket-popping Frattina Diablo S in the backstretch and coasted behind the leader to a :57 half. But once Nezuko Kamado S pulled off the pylons from fourth and pushed up the rim, driver Ake Svanstedt loomed out of the pocket with Busy Miss Lissy S and attacked for the lead to three-quarters in 1:25.2. She then reached for the finish under pursuit from Frattina Diablo S to hold onto the victory by a neck with Frattina Diablo S settling for third and Storybook Love earning the last berth into the final.

"She didn't race great last time [in the Zweig Filly Trot], but she also has been up and down with the training and the heat; the weather hasn't really been in our favor," Sarah Svanstedt of Team Svanstedt said. "I have said all along I am so impressed with Ake Svanstedt trains Busy Miss Lissy S, a filly by Calgary Games—Hill's Angel S, for owner Panamera Racing. She won her eighth race from 14 starts this season, earning $273,427, and paid $18.40 to win.

Driver Dexter Dunn circled Setyoursightshigh to the lead and nabbed easy fractions while holding strong against a cavalry charge to win the final Oaks elimination in 1:53.1. Dunn looped from the pocket after a :27.3 first quarter to lead up the backstretch to a :58 half before gradually accelerating through the remainder. Setyoursightshigh clocked three-quarters in 1:26.3 and spun for home with an ample cushion to withstand a flurry of rivals late for the win by a neck. Leading Lady recovered from a break at the start to rally for second with Custom finishing third.

"She was all class last year and didn't start the season off that flashy this year, but Marcus [Melander] and the team have got her back on track," Dunn said after the race. "She was excellent at Vernon and felt great tonight. I got pretty cheap fractions tonight, but the way she felt was really impressive. She definitely Marcus Melander trains Setyoursightshigh, a daughter of In Range—Special Interest, for owners Heights Stable, Mantorp LLC, AMG Stable Inc., and K. Kjellgren Livs Ab Inc. The filly won her 10th race from 17 starts, earning $823,997, and paid $7.40 to win.

Each elimination winner earned draw protection between posts 1 and 6 for the final, taking place as the co-feature to Hambletonian No. 101 next Saturday (Aug. 8).

Brandon Blvd (Dexter Dunn) winning the Tompkins-Geers division for sophomore pacing colts on Saturday at The Meadowlands.

Brandon Blvd, Darlin's Angel strong in Tompkins-Geers

by Frank Coto / Meadowlands media relations

Brandon Blvd and Darlin's Angel were convincing winners in a pair of Tompkins-Geers events on Saturday night (Aug. 1) at The Meadowlands.

The $54,150 Tompkins-Geers for pacing glamour boys presented another sterling mile by Brandon Blvd, the Meadowlands Pace winner and top sophomore pacing colt of 2026 who stopped the clock to win in 1:47.3.

Driven again by Dexter Dunn, Brandon Blvd sat fourth off the gate as Frantic Hanover pursued the top followed by Sea Bistro Hanover and Ubrute, with the latter rushing forward to take command in a fiery :25.4 first quarter. Ubrute muscled up the backstretch while Brandon Blvd left the pylons to test them all while the half clocked in at :54.1. Ubrute continued with a confident lead, but Brandon Blvd inched nearer under minimal effort as Dunn floated the Andrew Harris-trained millionaire through three-quarters in 1:21.3 to prove his superiority with a sprint to the finish under a hand drive for a 1½-length win. Sea Bistro Hanover got up for second over a late-charging Frantic Hanover as those two passed a tired Ubrute in the final surge to the wire.

"I think his consistency is his most impressive thing," Harris said after the race. "He just goes out there and shows up every week; it's hard to find one like that. I'm just truly blessed to have one like that. We gave him a little bit of extra time [off after the Meadowlands Pace] and used this as a prep race for next week, but I was super thrilled with how he came out of the [Pace]."

Harris hopes to have the colt ready for next week's Cane Pace. "With all the talent in that field it is great for racing," he said.

Bill Pollock, Bruce Areman, and Harris' Punisher 11 Stable owns Brandon Blvd, a son of Downbytheseaside out of the American Ideal dam Alexis Faith. He paid $2.40 to win while pumping his earnings to $1,097,802 after his 12th win in 17 starts over two seasons of racing.

In the $52,500 dash for sophomore pacing fillies, 1-5 favorite Darlin's Angel led every step for a lifetime-best 1:49.2 win. Driver Lauren Tritton steered the daughter of Captaintreacherous—Darlin's Delight past Car Keys to the lead through a :26.2 first quarter and controlled the pace to a :56 half as the field stayed in line to the final turn. Car Keys drafted behind Darlin's Angel while the others straggled in the ensuing sprint to three-quarters in 1:23.4. Darlin's Angel soared with no threats to the finish as Tritton pulled off to win by two lengths over Car Keys with Sunny Station following in third and Fabulous Hanover taking fourth.

"She's a nice filly," Tritton said after the race. "She always gives a hundred per cent and Juan [Cano]'s done a great job with her. Obviously, she got a nice sectional there today but she was just toying with them today. She actually took off again after the wire so I was really happy with her today."

Darlin's Angel, trained by Juan Cano, collected her fourth win from six starts this season and her eighth from 13 starts in her career. She increased her lifetime bankroll to $192,440 for owner/breeder Hot Lead Farms and paid $2.60 to win.

Detonater Hanover fastest in Millard Farms eliminations

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

Sharp victories by Detonater Hanover and Three Six Zero on Friday night (July 31) at Woodbine Mohawk Park sets up an intriguing matchup for next week's Grade 3 Millard Farms Stakes.

A pair of $25,000 eliminations were contested Friday for the Millard Farms, an event for 2-year-old trotters. The top-five finishers from each punched their ticket to the $155,000 final.

Dr. Ian Moore trainee Detonater Hanover turned heads in the first elimination by posting a national season's best clocking of 1:53.4 to win easily by 3½ lengths.

A son of Muscle Mass, Detonater Hanover and driver Tyler Moore got away third before moving to the lead in the second-quarter.

The duo moved around slight favorite Access Now, who posted a snappy :27.3 opening quarter. Fractions of :56.3 and 1:25.2 were posted before Detonater Hanover finished the job with a :28.2 kicker to secure his maiden-breaking win.

Access Now finished second, while Danz Card was third. Also advancing were Maximum Pressure and The Italian Job.

Detonater Hanover was an $80,000 (USD) yearling purchase at Harrisburg and has now earned $59,030 for the ownership group of Detonater Hanover Stable of Cambridge, ON.

The time of 1:53.4 is not only North America's fastest mile this season by a 2-year-old colt trotter, but also the fifth fastest overall by a rookie trotter this season.

A $2 win ticket returned $4.70.

Heavy favorite Three Six Zero got a perfect tune up trip in the second elimination, sitting third throughout before powering home for a 1:55.3 win.

Trained by Kyle Fellows, Three Six Zero came into Friday's race off a runner-up finish in an OSS Gold on July 24 and sporting a two wins from four starts record.

Rail-starter Honcho marched forward to command in the early-stages and posted fractions of :29.1, :58.2, and 1:27.1. Mahalo sat on the leader's back, while Three Six Zero was right in behind third until angling out nearing three-quarters.

Beauts Cabaret and Rebel Moon score in Pure Ivory elims

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

Rookie trotting fillies were in the spotlight Thursday (July 30) at Woodbine Mohawk Park for the eliminations of the Grade 3 Pure Ivory Stakes.

Formerly a three-week series, the Pure Ivory and three other annual 2-year-old events are now being raced as eliminations and a final in 2026. A group of 18 2-year-old trotting fillies were split into two $25,000 eliminations to determine the field for the $167,000 final.

The first elimination saw Beauts Cabaret find the wire just in time to hold off the flying pair of Emma Deo and Treasure King to win by a head in 1:55. Louis-Philippe Roy guided the Steve Bossence trainee to the victory.

Cold Breeze left hard from the outside to make the front ahead of Beaus Cabaret, posting fractions of :27.4, :57.2, and 1:26.4. Angling from the 2-hole, Beaus Cabaret was trying to reel in Cold Breeze for half the stretch before taking over. Emma Deo and Treasure King had sat side by side at three-quarters and both turned in :27 final-quarters to come flying after the eventual winner.

Cold Breeze watched the close finish from fourth, while Tic Tac Fashion was fifth to secure a spot in next week's final.

Entering Thursday off a debut victory, Beaus Cabaret improved to two-for-two for owners Stephen Palermo, Jeffery Ruch, and Bossence. The daughter of International Moni knocked nearly three seconds off her time from July 30 and now has $23,500 earned.

A $2 win ticket on Beaus Cabaret returned $8.70.

Rebel Moon converted off a second-over trip to win the second elimination for driver James MacDonald and trainer Carl Jamieson in 1:56.1.

The talk of the tote board in the second split was Rebel Moon's stablemate Major Contender, who went off at odds of 3-5, but finished sixth. R Rosie led the field through fractions of :28.1, :58, and 1:27.4 to set up a stretch showdown. Rebel Moon shot off cover to power victory in the lane, pushing by first-over attacker Song From Heaven and 2-hole tripper Stocks And Bonds for a length-and-a-quarter victory.

Dreamtrade rallied up for fourth, while Northern Song got fifth. Major Contender got a 3-hole trip and pushed home behind the third-place finisher, but finished sixth by just 2¾ lengths.

A judges inquiry into the start of the race left anxious moments for the top-two finishers as their numbers flashed. However, no change was made following the review.

Just like her stablemate, Rebel Moon was already an Ontario Sires Stakes Gold division winner ahead of the Pure Ivory. The daughter of Muscle Mass is now two-for-four with just over $52,000 earned for owners Sarah Anthon and Ellen Ott.

Wrong Sounds Right (Todd McCarthy) winning his New Jersey Sire Stakes platinum event for 2-year-old trotting colts on Friday at The Meadowlands.

Love's Passion nearing the far turn, had to swerve into the three-lane when Dandelion Wine popped out of the pocket for the stretch drive, but continued to gain through the lane — after a slight stall — before going on to a half-length win over Dandelion Wine.

"We're just taking it race-by-race for now," said Andy. "She was kind of staying alongside [Dandelion Wine through the stretch], but when I hollered at her, she got going again. She'll be in the sire stakes final next week and then we'll decide from there [what we are going to do]."

As the 1-9 favorite, Wall Of Fame returned $2.20 to win after completing the mile in 1:52.3.

In race 7, Wrong Sounds Right recorded his second victory in three tries after taking a split for Platinum-level colts and geldings on the trot for driver Todd McCarthy and trainer Jim Campbell.

The colt by Tactical Landing—Broadway Jo Ell used a wicked brush onto and around the far turn to challenge leader Lifetime Dreamer and was strong through the stretch to record a one-length score over Presidente in a lifetime-best 1:53.

"He's come along very nicely," said McCarthy. "We're really happy with him. He was pretty quiet in his qualifiers but now we've been able to kind of open him up a little bit and now he's coming along quite nicely. Jim's doing a great job with him. He's showing a lot of talent right now and we're just looking forward to next week and hopefully he comes out of tonight happy and healthy and we are hoping for a good draw next week [in the final]."

Sent off as the 12-1 fourth choice, Wrong Sounds Right returned $26 to win.

AND THE WINNERS ARE: The other seven NJSS winners on the card were:

- Race 2: Platinum filly pace — Perfect Hope Deo (Perfect Sting—Machnhope), Andy McCarthy was the driver, Noel Daley is the trainer, winning time 1:52 (first win in three career outings), paid $12.60 as the 5-1 fourth choice in the betting

- Race 4: Silver filly trot — Day One Dandy (Walner—Delilah Hanover), Scott Zeron, Nifty Norman, 1:54 (first win in three lifetime tries), $9 as the 7-2 third choice

- Race 6: Silver filly pace — Perfect Kiss (Perfect Sting—Dr J's Kiss), Todd McCarthy, Linda Toscano, 1:53.4 (first win in four starts), $4.40 as the 6-5 favorite

- Race 9: Silver colt and gelding trot — Maxman (Walner—Lovely Lindy), Tim Tetrick, Toscano, lifetime-best 1:55.2 (two-for-three lifetime), $16.40 as the 7-1 third choice

- Race 10: Silver colt and gelding trot — Wyoming (Walner—Wahoo Broline S), Yannick Gingras, Ake Svanstedt, 1:55.2 (first win in two tries), $7.60 as the 5-2 second choice

- Race 12: Silver filly trot — Declan Shea (Tactical Landing—Mymomsablizzard), Tetrick, Richard Johnson, 1:56 (first win in three career starts), $41 as the 19-1 sixth choice

- Race 13: Platinum filly trot — Nevis Peak (Walner—Ramona Hill), Gingras, Ron Burke, lifetime-best 1:53.4 (two-for-two lifetime), $5.80 as the 9-5 second choice

BEFORE THE BETTING CARD: A pair of non-wagering NJSS dashes were held before the start of the 15-race betting program, those races were won by:

- NB1: Platinum colt and gelding pace — Aintmyfirstro Deo (a gelded son of Perfect Sting—Some Renditions), Zeron, Megan Scran, lifetime-best 1:52 (now three-for-three in his career)

- NB2: Silver colt and gelding pace — Jerzy George (Lazarus N—Holy Trinity), Andy McCarthy, Chris Freck, lifetime-best 1:53.3 (now two-for-three lifetime)

A LITTLE MORE: Tetrick gave his fans' bankrolls a jolt with his four wins, none that went off as the favorite. He led the driver colony in victories for the night, scoring at 7-1, 19-1, 13-1, and 3-1... Daley and Toscano topped the trainers with a pair of victories apiece... All-source betting on the 15-race program totaled $2,500,176.

Jula Florence, Cowboy Candy, Kountry Plunge, and Annie Q nab NYSS wins at Tioga

Jula Florence (Tyler Miller) was a gate-to-wire winner in the $52,500 first division for freshmen trotting fillies.

Jula Florence ($11.74) led to the first quarter in :30.2, and using a :29.3 second quarter, was first to the half in 1:00. Seveallisto (Leon Bailey) came first-up heading down the backstretch, but Jula Florence shook her off and led to three quarters in 1:27.4.

Jula Florence put everyone away in the stretch winning in a lifetime best of 1:56.4. Secret Lover (Jason Bartlett) came up to get second money, while Seveallisto had to settle for third.

Jula Florence is a filly by Chapter Seven—Jula Shes Magic, trained by Jullie Miller for owners Windsong Stable, Dumain Haven Farm, and Andy Miller Stable. It was her second career win.

Kountry Plunge (Johnathan Ahle) grabbed the $53,500 second division for freshmen trotting fillies.

Kountry Plunge ($3.96) was first to the quarter in :28.3, to the half in :59, and to three quarters in 1:27.2.

As they reached the stretch second place finisher HL Kapara (Jason Bartlett) went all out after the lead but fell short as Kountry Plunge dug in and won in 1:55.3. Wavy Xavie (Jeff Gregory) finished third.

Kountry Plunge is a filly by Chapter Seven—Plunge Blue Chip, trained by Ake Svanstedt for owners Bender Sweeden, Ecurie Diocles AB, OBM Stable, and Svanstedt & Midnight Sun. She is now two-for-two in her young career.

Cowboy Candy (Jason Bartlett) surged late to win the $53,500 first division for 2-year-old pacing fillies.

Too Pink To Pass (Lauren Tritton) dashed to the first quarter in :26.3. Huntsville Honey (Matt Kakaley) then took her turn on the lead, leading to the half in :55 and to three quarters in 1:23.

As they made the turn for home Cowboy Candy ($5.68) made her move blowing right on by to win in a lifetime best of 1:51.4. Clear Choice (Braxten Boyd) came up to finish second, while Maxina (Johnathan Ahle) was third best.

Cowboy Candy is a filly by So Surreal—Caviart Elena, owned by chained Lightning Stables and trained by Aaron Lambert. It was her fourth win in five lifetime starts.

Big longshot Annie Q (Leon Bailey) went from last-to-first to capture the $54,500 second division for 2-year-old pacing fillies.

Fendilicious (Jason Bartlett) controlled all the early fractions and was first to the quarter in :27.4 and to the half in :57. Real Choice (Lauren Tritton) was first to make a move going first-up down the backstretch as Fendilicious led to three quarters in 1:25.3.

As they headed to the final turn Annie Q ($91.70) was seventh, but she came driving down the lane like a freight train passing them all to get her first career victory in 1:55.3. Real Choice had to settle for second. Phast Phyllis (Braxten Boyd) finished third.

INSS 2-year-old colt and gelding trotters shine at Hoosier

by Connor Mahoney / Harrah's Hoosier Park

A dynamic trio of INSS 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings in their third leg headlined the Friday (July 31) night card at Hoosier. So Joyful kickstarted the evening in the second race with a dominant display. Later in the night, Swan Good Bi was shot out of a cannon to win in the race 10 division. Closing out INSS in race 12, Nectar Of The Gods remained flawless taking all three legs in sire stakes affairs.

So Joyful driven by John De Long for trainer Ernie Gaskin impressed with a convincing victory in the $47,000 first chapter.

In the 1-hole, So Joyful eased off the starting gate as Ponda Solve (Trace Tetrack) glided from the outside post to the early advantage at the first turn in :28.2. Neatly lined up along the backstretch, the field remained stagnant with Ponda Solve in the driver's seat through the halfway mark in :57.1. Temporal Power (Joey Putnam) was the first to react from fifth along the right of the trotters. Ponda Solve stayed disciplined at the front as So Joyful applied pressure from second at the three-quarter turn in 1:26.3. Picking his moment, So Joyful breezed past Ponda Solve. So Joyful never looked back as he left the eight-horse field in the dust to stop the timer in 1:55.1 by seven lengths. Kountry Dion (Kyle Wilfong) claimed second, while Temporal Power soared into third.

The Rebuff colt is owned by All-Wright Racing LLC, Brian Code, and James Nellinger. The winning 2-year-old So Joyful was bred by Luckiana Farm and Aaron Stutzman. So Joyful added his second INSS victory of the season to boost his lifetime earnings to $51,030. So Joyful paid $5.60 to win.

Meanwhile, Swan Good Bi driven by Jordan Ross for trainer Henry Graber, Jr. laid it all out to take the field by storm in the $46,500 second division.

On the far outside post 7, Swan Good Bi elected to settle at the back of the field with Topsy In Vegas (John De Long) shooting out for the lead to the turn in :28.1. Keeping the line straight, Topsy In Vegas stayed in control to the half mile pole in :57.3

with the field staying unchanged. Topsy In Vegas led a tight ship with the field still in their same spot to the three-quarter turn in 1:26.4. Despite the field staying calm through three-quarters, the homestretch told a different story as Swan Good Bi was still not in the picture yet. Mendoza Mafia (Atlee Bender) discovered another gear in hopes of adding his first win to his collection as he bombed his way past the leader. Threading the needle between trotters by a neck, Swan Good Bi smashed the nitro as he blazed to a final quarter time of :26.4 as he crashed the wire in 1:55. Mendoza Mafia settled for second a neck back, while Topsy In Vegas fell to third.

Swan Good Bi remains undefeated in his young 2-year-old career through three starts, lifting his lifetime earnings to $52,250. The Swan For All gelding is owned by Indiana Stables LLC, Frank Baldachino, Michael Rosenthal, and James Zito. So Joyful was bred by Ernie Lambright.

In the $46,500 third and final division, Nectar Of The Gods, with trainer Mike Micallef in the bike, scored with a front-end victory to extend his win streak to three.

Away from post 3, Micallef passed on the early tuck and charged to the outside of Heffae (Lamar Wingard) as the pair raced together to the first quarter in :29.1. Nectar Of The Gods cleared on the backstretch, assuming command before the half in :59.2 as the field accorded back together as the tempo slowed. Nectar Of The Gods remained in charge on the far turn, racing to three-quarters in 1:29 with Heffae beginning to tip from the pocket. Heffae took aim at the head of the lane, moving alongside the leader before Nectar Of The Gods responded with a :27.4 final split to fend off the challenger by three-parts-of-a-length in 1:56.4. Priceless Help (Marcus Miller) was third, 3¾ lengths back of the winner.

Still perfect in stakes action after a runner-up effort in his career debut, Nectar Of The Gods has banked $72,500 for owners Bet The House LLC. Steve Jones bred the Temporal Hanover—Goddess colt.

BENDER SWEEPS INSS; DAN D MAN CAN STAYS PERFECT

Different night, same story for Dan D Man Can driven by Atlee Bender for trainer Erv Miller winning the $96,500 fifth leg of Indiana Sires Stakes for sophomore trotting colts to add to his perfect start to 2026 at Hoosier Park on Thursday (July 30). Meanwhile, Dancingdreamer found his form winning the sixth leg of the $94,500 INSS 3-year-old colts and geldings pace also with Bender in the bike as part of a five-win evening.

Trotting out of post 2, Dan D Man Can snagged the second spot off the wings where he left as the 2-5 favorite. As a result, it was smooth sailing off the gate for August Salazar (John De Long) to lead the field at the first turn in :27.3. Cruising out of third, Swan Affect (Marcus Miller) got up past Dan D Man Can and August Salazar to take command to the half-mile mark in :57.2. Dan D Man Can transitioned to the outside upon arrival at the turn, taking aim at the leader first-over. Swan Affect's lead stayed true to the final turn at three-quarters in 1:25.2 with Dan D Man Can right on his heels.

Turning for home, Dan D Man Can wore down the leader willing his way to the to the front. August Salazar found an extra gear from third to put in a late bid, but Dan D Man Can was decisive to the wire for his seventh straight win in 1:53.1 by a quarter-length. Inverness Ave (Kevin Lambright) got up for third at 30-1, with Pilot's Lucky Day (Brad Ferguson) rounding out the super at 38-1.

The winning Dover Dan gelding is owned by Red Barn Stable, Stepbystep Racing, Lava Java Stable, and Erv Miller Stable. The 3-year-old Dan D Man Can was bred by Homestead Acres. Dan D Man Can stays undefeated in 2026 continuing to sweep all legs of the INSS action boosting his lifetime earnings to $339,965. Dan D Man Can paid $2.80 to win.

Rallying late, Dancingdreamer driven by Atlee Bender for new trainer Tyler George took a new lifetime mark in $94,500 sixth leg of Sires Stakes for sophomore pacing colts.

On the outside looking in from post 7, Dancingdreamer accelerated to an early lead at the first turn in :26.2. Swiss Lights (Trace Tetrack) motored on the right after passing on the 2-hole trip. The post time favorite Aces And Cinches (Kyle Wilfong) pacing from third to first arrived at the halfway mark in :54.2. The field remained unchanged to the three-quarters in 1:22.3 with Aces And Cinches, Swiss Lights, and Dancingdreamer leading the way. The three-horse race didn't disappoint down the stretch with Dancingdreamer picking up a head of steam to hit the wire in 1:49 by a quarter-of-a-length rallying on the outside. Aces And Cinches held for second, Swiss Lights stayed in third.

Owned by Desyllas Racing LLC, William Beck, and Jeffry Eckburg, Dancingdreamer was bred by Luckiana Farm. Dancingdreamer claimed his third win of the season increasing his lifetime earnings to $293,475.

Including Dan D Man Can and Dancingdreamer, Bender had five wins on the 14-race program securing trips to the winner's circle with Meadowbrook Mark (race 2), Tarzan (race 7), and Assistant Coach (race 13).

by Darin Gagne for Running Aces Casino, Hotel and Racetrack

Sophomore pacers were in the spotlight at Running Aces on Thursday night (July 30) and Cool Mr Cool delivered yet another dazzling performance to solidify his position as the division leader among the male Minnesota-sired contenders.

Sent off as the heavy 1-5 chalk from post 5 in the $17,000 colts "A" split, Cool Mr Cool floated away in fifth position early and sat briefly before driver Casey Leonard activated him to the outside and he swept to the lead, making the top near the three eighths marker and relegating Diesel Thunder Boy (Scott Cisco) to the pocket while Luke Skyrocker and driver Luke Plano traveled in third.

The fractions were solid (:27.4, :56.4, and 1:25.1) and Cool Mr Cool held firm control during the middle stages of the affair with Westward Ho and driver Brady Jenson making a first over bid and Wild About Me (Nick Roland) following the cover around the far turn.

In the lane it was all Cool Mr Cool, who kicked into high gear with a :27.4 final panel to leave his rivals 2¾ lengths behind at the wire in the 1:53 mile. Diesel Thunder Boy held second and Westward Ho rounded out the trifecta.

Maine's Glamour Boys light up Bangor Fair

by Chris Tully for the Maine Sire Stakes

Maine's glamour boys division rolled back into the Queen City on Thursday (July 30) for the Fair meet at Bangor Raceway. A baker's dozen of 3-year-old colt pacers competed in two $15,000-plus divisions for purse money and bragging rights as the early pari-mutuel term comes to an end and Maine's fun and exciting fair season gets underway.

In the first $15,434 division Joey Mosher hustled Ghost Of Winter out to an early lead and repelled Deuce's Red (5-2, Mike Stevenson) who popped the deuce briefly, then recanted into a :29 opening panel.

With the rest of the field strung out by 10 lengths, those two continued to scamper off and reached the half in :57.3. Itsjustmoney (1-2, Kevin Switzer, Jr.) was far back in third, but gaining ground as the pacers made their way to the third station in 1:27.

Deuces Red pulled the pocket again, but was thwarted once again by a headstrong Ghost Of Winter who held sway through the final turn and into the long Bangor homestretch.

With ample high-lining and plenty of hootin' and hollerin' Mosher kept Ghost Of Winter on task and prevailed by 1½ lengths in 1:58.1, establishing a new lifetime mark.

Trained by Marc Tardif for owner Leighton Property, the son of Deuce Seelster picked up his third lifetime victory. Bred in Maine by Kristina Hall, he returned $13.40 to win.

Deuces Red finished second; Itsjustmoney was third.

In the second $15,659 division for sophomore male pacers, it was a battle of the favorites as Real Horrorshow (1-1, Kevin Switzer, Jr.) was looking for his fourth consecutive victory.

With a flurry of early speed under the historic Bass Park lights Rebel's Revenge (3-1, Aaron Hall) was the first out on top, but was soon engaged by a hard-charging Daytoremember (7-5, Heath Campbell) as the field rounded the first turn. Luke-warm favorite Real Horrorshow got away third.

Heading to the opening panel the early leavers battled stride for stride, leaving the rest of the field in a 10-length wake, they hit that station in a torrid :27.3 with Daytoremember ultimately taking command.

With the field now packed back together approaching the midway marker Real Horrorshow was the first to pull and was pressing on through that :59 half. Rebel's Revenge was sitting comfortably in third and Dude's The Jet (Joey Mosher) was moving second over.

Down the backstretch the final time Real Horrorshow was not giving up, having lost a little ground while parked around the third turn. They reached the third stanza in 1:27.2 with Daytoremember in command and being pressed on the outside by the public choice.

As they battled down the homestretch in an epic performance it was all Daytoremember as the son of Dude's The Man conquered his foes in 1:56.3, a new lifetime best.

Owned, bred, and trained by Valerie Grondin it was his sixth victory and fourth of the season. Winning by three-parts-of-a-length over Real Horrorshow, they returned $4.80.

Rebel's Revenge hung on for third.

Looking ahead, First Tracks Cumberland hosts the 2- and 3-year-old trotters today (Aug. 2). Maine Sire Stakes action concludes at the Bangor Fair with the 2-year-old colt pacers on Wednesday (Aug. 5).

HARNESS RACING PRESS RELEASES, NOTES & ANNOUNCEMENTS

Ohio Selected Jug Sale catalog download available

This year's Ohio Selected Jug Yearling Sale takes place Friday (Sept. 18) and the catalog is now available for download from the Ohio Harness Horse Breeders website here.

The sale features 280 of some of the finest yearlings bred in Ohio and this year's group is represented by large contingents from stallions such as Branded By Lindy, Catch The Fire, Downbytheseaside, In Range, Long Tom, Lou's Pearlman, Monte Miki, Pebble Beach, Ready For Moni, Summa Cum Laude, Volstead, and many more.

As in past seasons, Thursday (Sept. 17) is the annual "show day" and the floors and aisles of the barns will be busy as the handlers and prospective purchasers fill the shed rows.

While the sale is conducted by the Lexington Selected Yearling Sales Co., the auction is owned by the Ohio Harness Horse Breeders, a group of local nurseries that send some of their best and brightest horses to this sale each autumn.

In addition to a vast group of "first foals" from the mares represented, many of this year's offerings are brothers or sisters to world champions. Graduates of this sale are at the top, or near the top of every division of the Ohio Sire Stakes standings for 2- and 3-year-old trotters and pacers.
