What region are you rooting for on Hambletonian Day?

The battle lines are drawn between Ohio-connected Big Ranger and Endurance and New Jersey and Kentucky's Apex.

Whether you're talking basketball, football, hockey, or harness racing, regional lines get drawn, and the two elimination winners for Winning Key Farm Hambletonian 101 play right into that frame of mind.

Big Ranger (Tim Tetrick) winning his Hambletonian elim in a career-best 1:50 last Saturday at The Meadowlands.

Bragging rights will be determined on Saturday afternoon at The Meadowlands. Among the favorites, the Midwest will be rooting for Ohio's own Big Ranger and Endurance; the former is a son of the Buckeye State's In Range while the latter is co-owned and trained there. Representing the East Coast is Apex, a son of New Jersey-based Walner.

Big Ranger, the 2025 Ohio Horse of the Year, was installed as the 2-1 morning-line favorite off an ultra-impressive clocking of 1:50 in his Hambletonian elimination last week.

"I think he came in [to the Hambletonian elims] a little bit as a dark horse because nobody really knew what to expect," said trainer Anette Lorentzon. "I mean, the people that have seen

WHERE EXCELLENCE COMES STANDARD

“[Apex and Endurance] grew up in the same field together. It’s really kind of interesting that here you’ve got those two guys vying for the Hambletonian. In the elimination they were six inches apart, and they were born four days apart, and they basically were literally raised together.”

– Steve Stewart

him [race before], they know what they saw, and like I said, we believed in him. I knew he could go in [1]:50 for sure because he’d already done it at Scioto, but it’s a different level of horses when you go out here [to The Meadowlands] and race. So, you never know.”

Big Ranger, who was purchased at the 2024 Ohio Selected Jug Sale by Ohio-based owner Madison Global for $25,000, was previously trained and driven by Ronnie Gillespie, and has now been in the barn of Lorentzon for his last three starts.

“I had him about almost three weeks before we raced him the first time, so we got decent time to get to know him, and he’s a very nice horse to be around,” Lorentzon said. “He’s got a lot of energy and loves to chew on anything and everything. He’s full of himself usually in the mornings because he wants to go out in the morning and then he comes in and jogs and trains and then after that he’s fine. He’s not mean, he’s just full of himself.”

Under the tutelage of Lorentzon and her husband Tony Hall, Big Ranger raced twice at Scioto Downs in Ohio before heading to New Jersey. On June 13, the son of Tactical Landing’s daughter Big Blue Bird, went 1:50.3 in a leg of the Ohio Sire Stakes, followed by a 1:51.4 clocking on July 18 in the Buckeye Stallion Series.

“A lot of people questioned what I did with him before the [Hambletonian] elimination, but in my mind, we only had two choices,” Lorentzon said. “It was either bring him to Northfield

“I think [Big Ranger] came in [to the Hambletonian elims] a little bit as a dark horse because nobody really knew what to expect. and race him on a half-mile track in the sire stakes, or go in the Buckeye, which I know wasn’t that much competition, but we stayed on a five-eighths. So, I choose to go on a five-eighths because I know that he’s very good there.

“I know [driver] Timmy [Tetrack] also would have liked him out here [in New Jersey] to see, but I told Timmy that me and Tony had been talking about it, and the horse honestly has been going as fast at Scioto Downs as they’ve been doing out here at The Meadowlands.

“So, for me, he already showed the speed. He’s been going fast enough, and my gut feeling told me to keep him home as long as possible because, I mean, he’s got to change to our way of training... so that’s why I chose to keep him home since he wasn’t paid to the Stanley Dancer [at The Meadowlands on July 11]. So, that’s why I figured it didn’t make sense to bring him out here to qualify or something like that.”

Although Lorentzon has a stable in New Jersey overseen by her sister Anna, her main stable is based in Kentucky, and Tim Tetrack picked up the driving assignment on Big Ranger for his last three starts.

“We talked to the owners that we’re going to go for the Grand Circuit, so that’s when we looked at drivers and Timmy had been driving a lot of the horses for us before,” Lorentzon said. “So, I called him up and I asked him if he had anything for that race and I said ‘I don’t know how good he is, but if he’s good enough, we are looking forward to going to the Hambletonian.’

“So, I said, ‘If you have an opportunity, I would like you to come down and drive him. And he said, ‘Absolutely.’ He was more than happy when he drove him the first time.”

By virtue of winning his Hambletonian elim, Big Ranger was able to draw for a post between 1 and 6 and drew 4.

Apex, the Dan Patch 2-Year-Old Trotting Colt of the Year in 2025, and winter-book favorite for America’s Trotting Classic, sat atop Ken Warkentin’s Road to the Winning Key Farm Hambletonian for all 14 weeks heading into Saturday’s final.

Apex, who won his Hambletonian elimination by a nose over Endurance, has only known favorite status in his four starts this season, but was installed as the 5-2 morning-line second choice.

The impeccably bred Apex, out of multi-Dan Patch Award winner Mission Brief, was bred by the Mission Brief Stable and sold for $525,000 at the 2024 Standardbred Horse Sale to owners Jeffrey Snyder, S R F Stable, and Steve Stewart.

When asked how he feels about not being the Hambletonian morning-line favorite, Stewart said, “I like that a lot. I don’t like being the favorite. We bred Rebuff, and he went off as the 3-5 favorite and didn't get a check... You can't go under the radar when you have Apex, but if we're not favored, that's not a bad thing for Cindy and I."

Stewart (part of the Mission Brief Stable) and his wife Cindy are the owners of Hunterton Farm in Kentucky, where both Apex and Endurance were foaled.

"Those two grew up in the same field together," Steve said. "It's really kind of interesting that here you've got those two guys vying for the Hambletonian. In the elimination they were six inches apart, and they were born four days apart, and they basically were literally raised together.

"They went to the sale together. They sold the same day. One sold for $14,000 [Endurance], and one sold for $525,000 [Apex]. They don't know what they're worth, which is good. And both of them are really top horses, so it's kind of interesting.

"The only time they were ever separated in their lives was when at the end of the Harrisburg Sale, one went to Ohio with [co-owner/trainer] Chris Beaver, and the other one went to New Jersey, the opposite direction from Harrisburg two years ago... and they finished 1-2 in the Mohawk Million last year."

In his quest for Hambletonian glory, the Marcus Melander-trained Apex, who drew post 3 and will be driven by Dexter Dunn, looks to accomplish what his highly decorated parents could not do.

Just like Apex, Walner was the Hambletonian winter-book favorite in 2017, but after going two-for-two to start his sophomore season, including a win in a division of the Stanley Dancer, he was sidelined by an injury prior to the Hambletonian that ended his racing career.

The Richest Preps to the Hambletonian and Hambletonian Oaks

Rather than racing the fillies in the Hambletonian Oaks, Mission Brief took on the boys, and after winning her elimination, finished second by three-quarters-of-a-length in the final to Pinkman.

Much like the connections of Big Ranger, the owners of Endurance — Super Endurance Stable, Bill Manes, Leo Fleming, and Mark Moger — look to be singing a little Hang On Sloopy after the Hambletonian hits the wire. Ask an Ohio State fan if you don't get the reference.

Endurance, a colt by Captain Corey out of the Muscle Massive mare Love Session, is the 5-1 third choice from post 7 for driver Andy McCarthy for Saturday's million-dollar final.

"I'm sure it's never happened before, where you have two buddies raised together in literally the same field, prepped in the same barn, go to the sale, sell the same day, one sells for a fortune and the other one doesn't bring a whole lot, and they finished six inches apart in the Hambletonian elimination," Steve said. "Obviously, if Apex doesn't win, we hope Endurance does... we're very honored that we've got two boys that are vying for the big race and both of them have a real shot.

"What I think is wonderful about our sport is the fact that one sold for $14,000 and one sold for $525,000, and I think that is a reflection on our industry that anybody can play... So, there's room for everybody.

"I think a lot of guys that don't have a lot of money, say 'Oh, you can't compete, with those rich guys buying all the expensive ones.' Well, guess what? That's not true. And this is a perfect example, because they sold the same day in Harrisburg.

"I think Big Ranger didn't sell for a whole lot of money either... It sure is nice when there is such a contrast, and it's not all the big trainers, it's not all the big horses, and that's the beauty of our business, which I love."

Gillespie's big dream turns into huge disappointment as Hambletonian favorite Big Ranger taken away

by Hal McCoy

(Editor's note: Hal McCoy is a veteran, multi-award-winning Ohio-based sports journalist that was honored with a Career Excellence Award by the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2002. Recently, he has been providing OHHA harness racing stories for Press Pros Magazine. That's where this story first appeared).

Ronnie Gillespie's horse didn't have it on a muggy Tuesday afternoon, the second race at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

But Peppermint Man did, taking the lead as soon as the wings on the gate swung inward and never gave it up.

Bruce's VO N Coke, with Gillespie in the sulky, finished far up the track at this state-of-the-art facility.

"They took that one away from me, too," said Gillespie, a 52-year-old harness racing lifer, a trainer/driver who speaks softly, carries a big whip and is as respected as anybody who sets foot in a paddock.

On a police blotter, taking Peppermint Man away from Gillespie would be petty theft.

Earlier this summer, the same owners committed the equivalent of grand larceny.

Owner Madison Global took Big Ranger away from Gillespie. No explanation. No warning.

They pulled a trailer into Gillespie's farm.

"I thought they were delivering me a horse," he said. "Instead they told me they were there to haul away Big Ranger. I asked why and they said I'd better call the owners."

He did and received no reason. And months later Gillespie still has no explanation why Big Ranger was taken from him and given to trainer Anette Lorentzon.

$1 million Grade 1 Hambletonian, a horse that some insiders believe could be the next Muscle Hill.

"That was a big disappointment," said Gillespie, a sentence that qualifies as understatement of the decade in harness racing.

"It was a real shock because I broke the track record and woke up the next morning and they had the trailer at my place and said, 'We're taking him,' and gave me no explanation other than we're taking the horse.

When I looked at the watch, it was, ‘Whoa, I can’t believe this.’ I knew then. I knew this horse was really special.”

– Ronnie Gillespie

“I asked them why and they never did give it to me, but I heard from other people that they didn’t want me to drive him anymore.”

Madison Global put out a short and terse press release and said the move was made, “For several reasons,” but not one reason was given.

“As time goes on, you find out the real story because people are always going to talk and I kind of have an idea about what really happened and when the real story came out I was right,” Gillespie said.

The Mississippi native said he doesn’t want to put names out publicly, “Because it’s over with although it’s not a good feeling.

“Driving in the Hambletonian has always been my dream and we were on the same page. I had offered to send him to another trainer and I would just drive in the Hambletonian.

“And I was going to drive him in the Breeders [Crown] because it was here at Scioto, a place I love.

“But they never gave me the opportunity... I wake up one morning and they take him. I was out jogging and came back and saw the trailer and asked one of my guys, ‘Who’s that?’ And he said, ‘Some guy’s looking for you.’”

No, they were looking for Big Ranger and spirited him away.

“I called the owners and they didn’t say why, they just said, ‘We’re taking him.’ I thought they might offer me 5 or 10 per cent of what he made, but nothing.”

BREED, BUY, RACE & WIN IN OHIO!

Gillespie has been with that group for five years, "And I made 'em a lot of money. Now they've put me up for a lot of stress to take that type of horse away from me.

"Nothing against the other trainer [Anette Lorentzon], but her rep is not better than mine," Gillespie said. "I not only made him the 2-year-old [Ohio] Horse of the Year, I made him the [Ohio] Horse of the Year. He broke every track record where he went.

"He is probably the best horse ever to come through Ohio... I'm telling you, he is something special."

Gillespie won his 1,000th career race last July behind Big Ranger on the Scioto track, wire-to-wire in 1:56 at the Ohio State Trot.

"My lifetime dream is to drive in the Hambletonian," said Gillespie.

That won't happen. Gillespie, the man who trained Big Ranger and drove him until he was pulled away from him, will be at Scioto Downs Saturday while Big Ranger tries to make history at The Meadowlands.

In the second Hambletonian elimination last Saturday (Aug. 1), Big Ranger, with Tim Tetrick in the sulky, won in 1:50, a career best. Apex won the other elimination in 1:50.4.

Big Ranger, bred by Ohio's Spring Haven Farms, was purchased for $25,000 at the 2024 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale.

"I wanted to buy him and keep him myself and I wish I had," said Gillespie. Instead, Big Ranger's ownership belonged to Madison Global and they turned the colt over to Gillespie.

"At first I didn't think much about him, but about mid-February I knew he was something special," said Gillespie. "When I first started with him, he was laid-back and lazy. And because he is a big horse I wasn't pushing him."

Then the miracle.

"One day I went out to train him, some animal came out of the woods and scared him," said Gillespie. "He ran off and he was trotting. I hit the watch and said I was not going to look at the watch until he's done.

"When I looked at the watch, it was, 'Whoa, I can't believe this.' I knew then. I knew this horse was really special."

That was Feb. 16 of last year and as Gillespie put it, "That day he trained like a real horse."

So Gillespie trained him and drove him to seven straight wins in seven starts.

But on that chilly February morning, when Big Ranger trotted like a zephyr, Gillespie knew the horse was Mr. Big Stuff. He immediately made him eligible for everything the following year, the Breeders Crown and the Hambletonian.

Congratulations

“It was a real shock because I broke the track record [with Big Ranger] and woke up the next morning and [the owners] had the trailer at my place and said, ‘We’re taking him,’ and gave me no explanation other than we’re taking the horse. I asked them why and they never did give it to me, but I heard from other people that they didn’t want me to drive him anymore.”

– Ronnie Gillespie

“I knew very early about him because I would train him with pacers and 3-year-olds and it didn’t make no difference,” said Gillespie. “He was a professional all the time.”

And not only does Gillespie know it, Big Ranger knows it.

“He acts like a human being,” said Gillespie. “He knows he’s special. When you go in the barn, he wants the attention. He comes out of the barn with pride, with his head up. His confidence is really high.

“And from what I saw in the [Hambletonian] elimination he is going to be hard to beat.”

He said the last part with pride, knowing he laid the groundwork for perhaps a once-in-a-generation horse.

Of winning his 1,000th race behind Big Ranger, Gillespie said, “That was really special. I was at a fair and I had a chance to win my thousandth there. But I wouldn’t do it. I knew Big Ranger was in the Ohio State Fair and I wanted to win my thousandth with him there. And I did.”

Of course, he went wire-to-wire. He has gone wire-to-wire in every win, “except one,” said Gillespie.

“The first leg of the Sires Stakes,” Gillespie said. “He made a little jump behind the gate and I sat next-to-last. When I pulled him, he just opened up and took ‘em all.”

Training Big Ranger as a 2-year-old wasn’t all oats and flowers, though.

“He went through a lot, people don’t know that,” said Gillespie. “He went through a lot of different challenges. He had an abscess, his blood level count was very hot, very hot. It took me a lot, I had to do a lot of managing.

“He came back as a 3-year-old a lot healthier, got a lot bigger. And I knew he was ready when he set the record the first time I came to Scioto with him, 1:51, and I never touched him. And I said, ‘He’s ready now.’”

And he’s ready for the Hambletonian.

Gillespie wonders what it will be like.

He won’t get the chance. They took away his horse of a lifetime.

Gillespie shook his head and lowered it a bit, but proudly said, “Hopefully, I can find another one like him. But I’ve been at this for 25 years and never seen one like him. Find another like him? Doubt it.”

Handicapping the entire Hambletonian Day card

by Brett Sturman

With a 16-race bonanza, let's get right into the action with a full race-by-race rundown of all the action on the Hambletonian Day card (Aug. 8) at The Meadowlands.

RACE 1, $30,000 CONTINENTAL VICTORY 3-YEAR-OLD FILLY TROT

Getting it started at high noon on Saturday with a potential price and hunch play on the noticeable driver change to Todd McCarthy on the Marcus Melander-trained Nuance. Though unimpressive on the year-to-date, this 3-year-old switched to McCarthy in that recent qualifier to win in 1:52.2, and in the process beat a pair of older foes Tactical Moni and Delaney Hanover which appears meaningful, considering both of whom race later today in the Steele Memorial. Southwind Chaska took a lot of action in her Hambletonian Oaks elimination on the heels of that fast 1:50.1-timed mile two back to Nezuko Kamado S but came up short. Emma's Mystery CCL shined on this day here as a 2-year-old last year when beating No. 4 in winning her NJSS final; another that gets relief when dropping from Oaks contenders.

RACE 2, $100,000 NJSS PLATINUM DIVISION FINAL 2-YEAR-OLD MALE TROT

Wrong Sounds Right wasn't driven like a 12-1 outsider last week and didn't race like one either upon winning nicely in a time of 1:53, including a last quarter of :26.4. He's come along quickly since those June qualifiers and his July 10 debut; feels like any repeat of prior race against the same competition would be good enough; albeit at a much-reduced price. Presidente got the second-over cover of Wrong Sounds Right but couldn't get to within a length at the end; looks for another dream trip from the rail once again. Lifetime Dreamer had that fast and game 1:52.4 win two back but then clearly wasn't as strong in that race last week; which gelding do we get now in the daytime? Mats crushed in debut on July 10 and then didn't race again until last week when he was bet down to 4-5 and could only manage third when racing from the back. Svanstedt trainees land the outside posts 4, 5 and 6.

RACE 3, $310,750 GRADE 2 CANE PACE 3-YEAR-OLD OPEN PACE

Only five horses will be contesting the Cane Pace and that includes a supplemental entry in Odds On Mr Mamba, coming off a narrow defeat in the Adios Pace two weeks ago to the Burke duo of Al Papi and Melillo; anxious to see what the North America Cup champ brings in his Meadowlands debut. Race favoritism will go through Brandon Blvd who after that game try in the North America Cup, went onto win the Meadowlands Pace final, which was sandwiched in between two separate 1:47.3 wins here at The Meadowlands. Gentleman's Club did tune up for his Pace elimination with a 1:47.4 win in a conditioned race here at the end of June; maybe? Sweet Lovin Lou just seems like a step behind the very best ones right now.

RACE 4, $50,000 MUSCLE HILL 3-YEAR-OLD MALE TROT

Whereas the filly counterpart to this race in race 1 seems more open, this one goes through Nix Nacken. He had that 1:50 win five back and then has battled with the best 3-year-olds ever since, including a brutal first-over try last week against today's Hambletonian favorite Big Ranger – seems like his race to win or lose. Inexpressable was given a chance in his elimination last week but faded, maybe is better coming off the pace. Ardonne hasn't shown much this year but does make his third start for the new barn while dropping; chance to come to life? Kingmen is another that gets some relief.

RACE 5, $40,000 OPEN PACE

Best Chip came out blazing to kick things off on that July 11 card when he put up a 1:46.2 effort in the first race that night. He'll be out in the daylight again on Saturday's card and maybe that race was a sign of things to come. Fifth And Five and Neverstopdreamin N both came off similar cover trips in the same race last week where they did all they could to close willingly in :25.2. Go Go Grasshopper was a 1:49.2 winner when last seen here three back while dropping from the Graduate series. Captinhammerhead A invades from Pocono for Blackler off some fast lines.

RACE 6, $225,000 NJSS PLATINUM DIVISION FINAL 2-YEAR-OLD FILLY TROT

What's going to give in this race between unbeatens Nevis Peak and Wall Of Fame? Out of Hambletonian winner Ramona Hill who shined on this day 6 years ago, Nevis Peak capitalized off the perfect pocket trip last out when making it two-for-two to begin her career. But she'll be faced with a daunting task against Wall Of Fame who has looked downright scary thus far. That 1:52 mile at second asking was pretty amazing, as was her rally last out in :26 when in the end the race was never in doubt. Dandelion Wine loomed last week in that recent NJSS Platinum division and for a moment looked like she might last before being overtaken late; will get that first win soon enough. Grandiflora lost the tactical edge last week as the 3-5 favorite but that prior win in 1:52.3 was eye-catching.

RACE 7, $60,000 VINCENNES PREFERRED TROT

Antognoni S enters the Vincennes at six-for-seven on the year, with the second-finish two back at Plainridge being the lone blemish. He's been well-traveled of late but is no stranger to The Meadowlands and that includes a 1:51.1 win here earlier this year. Right to his outside is last year's Hambletonian hero, Nordic Catcher S. Following an injury, Nordic Catcher S returned to the races successfully on July 13 at Pocono when winning at first asking over some nice high-level trotters in 1:51; would love to see him follow that up with another top effort. What a gear that Bourbonista S has caught; 1:48.4 winner here in the Six Pack goes from mares to the very best males and keeps Dunn in the process. Dunn was listed on Mr Mouton who gets Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. as the programmed drivers were finalized, and if anything, it helps offer a price. This one was raging three races back in that 42-1 upset that ended the streak of On To Norway; not out of the question at all.

RACE 8, $281,200 GRADE 1 JOHN CASHMAN MEMORIAL OPEN TROT

Great matchup as Super Chapter goes against open foes now and meets up with Lexus Kody for the first time in their careers. Super Chapter had those two ultra-game races in July when just missing twice to On To Norway, one of which came in that record time of 1:48.3. Lexus Kody won when last seen here on July 4 in 1:49.4 and then shockingly went off at odds of 7-2 at Plainridge when everyone (or someone) went all-in on Antognoni S at odds of 1-9. Despite his status, Lexus Kody has only been made the favorite one time all year and despite the 5-2 morning line, I could see Super Chapter going off as the post-time leader. Aetos Kronos S hasn't been bad this year, but nonetheless remains zero-for-five now as a 10-year-old. Up Your Deo has been quietly good in his last two against Lexus Kody and can win; offers a price as an alternative to the top pair. French Wine makes his third start of the year and seeks to find that Breeders Crown magic.

RACE 9, $500,000 GRADE 1 WINNING KEY FARM HAMBLETONIAN OAKS FINAL 3-YEAR-OLD FILLY TROT

Nezuko Kamado S just missed last week in her elimination but she's been so good all year — and last year, for that matter — and rightfully will loom as the deserving Hambletonian Oaks favorite. She notched a lifetime best 1:50.1 two back when winning the Del Miller here and last week it took her just a little too long to find her best late stride in on the heels of No. 1; Zeron should have plenty of options from the post. Busy Miss Lissy S got the trip and the jump on No. 2 last week when popping the 2-hole nearing the top of the stretch; another that should be in a great stalking trip coming from the rail for Svanstedt. Elimination winner Setyoursightshigh was Dunn's pick over fellow Melander-trained Lainey W but I wasn't crazy about the elimination win. She lasted but there were a ton of others closing in, and that came despite getting away with a half mile of :58. That said, if Setyoursightshigh were to win, it could be a massive day for sire In Range. Almost 9-2 was a pretty nice price on Carve last week considering her try two back was against a top colt in Warrior, and prior to that was a 1:51.3 winner at Philly. She sprinted late up the rail to her elimination win last week and certainly has a chance.

RACE 10, $183,650 GRADE 2 DR. JOHN R. STEELE MEMORIAL MARES OPEN

Yo Tillie returned to winning ways last Saturday in the Miss Versatility where she just lasted by the slimmest of margins over Conversano who was a tough first-over customer in that race. Tactical Moni is bound — I think — to take a ton of action off her 15-1 morning line on the notable trainer change to Melander. After a 10-for-13 season last year, she's raced just once at 4 and it came in June at Plainridge when she broke stride, but that recent qualifier for the new barn looked entirely different and lures Dunn; lots to like. Walspea had late inside trot in that race won last out by Yo Tillie, her 1:48.3 speed try from the Graduate final is still fresh in my mind. I liked the off-the-pace trip Bravo Angel S got last out but she just hasn't been as strong of late. Warrawee Michelle is better than her race from last week; Dunn was listed to drive initially which I find interesting, despite him opting for the intriguing No. 2.

RACE 11, $1,000,000 GRADE 1 WINNING KEY FARM HAMBLETONIAN FINAL 3-YEAR-OLD OPEN

My column last week, which previewed all Hambletonian contenders was, in a handicapping rarity, quite prophetic. All of the same holds true with the addition of how game Endurance was from post 9 in a race where I can't believe he lost that photo; the fact he was 6-1 that night shows he could be the value play to capture Hambletonian 101.

RACE 12, $138,650 GRADE 2 SAM MCKEE MEMORIAL DIVISION 1 OPEN PACE

The first of two consecutive McKee splits is stacked, and it centers on Ervin Hanover who would look enticing as the current third choice on the morning line at 4/1. He had that notorious zero-for-eight Meadowlands curse lifted back on July 4 when he won the Brower in a time of 1:46.3 but then returned to his baffling Meadowlands ways when no good a week later in the William Haughton at 1-5. He returns now off an open win at Mohawk; would have to think his best is good enough if it shows up. Fellow Hanover, "Ken," is no stranger to "Ervin" from these past couple of years and was right there in his Haughton division two back in a game second to Lou Hill. Lou Hill followed up his Haughton win with a convincing down-the-road score at Scioto in the #SendItIn over Prince Hal Hanover but has to contend with the outside post 9 now. Captain Optimistic and Fallout are the two 4-year-olds in this group. Captain Optimistic went two different sub-1:47 miles during the Graduate races here in June but couldn't quite handle these types in July; gets another crack.

RACE 13, $139,900 GRADE 2 SAM MCKEE MEMORIAL DIVISION 2 OPEN PACE

He's one of the two 4-year-olds in here but Prince Hal Hanover catches the softer of the two McKee divisions and this is a field he can handle. He's had a couple tough first-over trips over the past couple of months and that includes his uncovered try two back against Lou Hill at Scioto where he was game in that mile to be second; similar honest tries would make him difficult. I'd like to see some speed, if possible, from Captain Albano out of post 8. It's been one thing or another with him as it typically has been for him at The Meadowlands but his chances would go up if he could be more prominent early; beaten fave against slightly better last out in the Haughton. Just when you think he's out, here comes Bythemissal with the upset at 57-1 three weeks ago in his Haughton division. Yes, that race did set up for him with the :52.3 half mile where the closers were coming from everywhere, but the ultra-classy horse showed he can't be forgotten. Swingtown continues to outrace his massive odds for the fourth straight week including last out where he was second to Bythemissal at odds of 40-1; rewarded now with the rail. Coaches Corner rates a shot from an inside post; hasn't been far from the very best in recent tries.

RACE 14, $156,500 GRADE 2 LADY LIBERTY MARES OPEN PACE

This is a field we pretty much know like the back of our hands and the dynamic in this division hasn't changed much throughout the season, where Twin B Joe Fresh and Miki And Minnie seems like a coin flip between the two Ryder trainees. Louies Girl N lands the rail just as she did here in the Dorothy Haughton three races ago in a race where she was respected at odds of 9-2 but needed a little bit late. In that same race, Unreasonable got the 2-hole trip to Twin B Joe Fresh, looked to be gapping it a little into the stretch but was coming back on late to just miss, just as was the case to that same rival next out at Plainridge. Waiting for signs of improvement from Rodeo Drive Deo.

RACE 15, $123,200 GRADE 3 SHADY DAISY 3-YEAR-OLD FILLY PACE

Supplemental entry Be Perfect BG has been just that throughout her 2- and 3-year-old career with exception to those two recent races won by Loua Dipa; both times of which Be Perfect BG raced her heart out. This seems like a spot to not only win but to do some damage to that current lifetime best mark of 1:48.4; special filly. Credit to Darlin's Angel who continues to impress for the training and driving combination of Cano and Tritton. She enters the Shady Daisy off a new career mark taken last week, and that came right after her Jerry Silverman try when third to Loua Dipa and Be Perfect BG in a race she had solid pace at both ends of the mile. Sangria Summer is the other supplemental entry and gets a driver change to James MacDonald for trainer Luc Blais; they didn't come here to take back from the outside post 8.

RACE 16, $22,500 N/W $15,000L5 PACE

Maybe see how the open pace in race 5 went to gauge Captain Crusader but his race last week against some of those foes was good. In that race, he came first-over from fourth, took the lead into the stretch while never fully clearing and was passed late by the 3-5 favorite and one other; switches to Tetrack. Downbythewater could be a threat despite post 10 as he was involved early in that same mile, as was Avanti who exits that same race although that horse goes from the rail to post 8. Apocalypsebluechip is the lone 3-year-old but was a 1:49.2 winner here three back when he came home in :25 flat; sub-1:50 winner at Pocono last out too. Handsome Stranger was actively used in that Yonkers mile two back; one of two Engblom trainees in this field along with No. 8.

HOLLYWOOD'S HITS

with BOB HEYDEN

'Timmy,' 'Tony,' and 'Anette' are looking for a 'Big' Hambletonian Day

by Bob Heyden

At just 44, Tim Tetrick has had a long history of setting records. He's set to compete in his all-time best, 20th consecutive Hambletonian.

Tetrick, the richest active driver in the building on Hambletonian Day, will handle Big Ranger for Anette Lorentzon.

Here are some facts about Tetrick:

Claus Andersen

Tim Tetrick.

1. If he wins the Hambletonian this year, Tetrick will have won Hambletonians 14 years apart. That would tie the record Ron Pierce set with American Winner in 1993 and then Donato Hanover in 2007.

2. If Tetrick does win the Hambletonian, it would mean he's won the first two legs of the 2026 Triple Crown with two different colts. He won the Yonkers Trot with Inexpressable, also for a Swedish-born trainer, Lucas Wallin.

3. If Big Ranger converts and does win the Hambletonian it will be the ninth time in the 21st century that the winning sire, In Range, himself did not compete in the Hambletonian final.

4. Tetrick remains the only driver to debut in the Hambletonian with a filly: Pampered Princess (2007) for Jimmy Takter. She missed the board in the Donato Hanover year after opting to not go to the Oaks. The irony there? Tetrick still won the Oaks, his first of four, with Danae.

5. He was fourth in the 2025 Hambletonian with Gap Kronos far outracing his odds of 72-1.

6. He is the only driver in New Jersey Hambletonian history to be second in the final with a maiden: Spy Proof (2021).

7. There were eight Hambletonians that went for $1.5 million between 2005-12. Tetrick won the finale with Market Share in 2012 and that stands as the richest victory in his spectacular career.

8. He has won a Hambletonian elim in an astounding 10 different years. Only John Campbell in New Jersey Meadowlands history with 11 has more.

9. Timmy has won the Hambletonian Oaks four times, but never with a favorite: 2007 Danae (2007) $50.80, Bar Slide (2010, $8.40), Fashion Schooner ($20.20, 2022) and Heaven Hanover $59.40 in 2023.

10 Nobody else has won the Oaks from post 10. He did it twice and he did it consecutively. In 2022 on the front end with Fashion Schooner [6-1] and then from last to first with Marcus Melander's Heaven Hanover (28-1) in 2023.

11. He's the only one who's won a Hambletonian elimination in four straight years: 2016-19.

12. With a win, he'll be the first U.S. born driver to win it in 11 years.

13 He is most certainly hoping for a redo of the 2012 Hambo Day on Saturday. Not just Market Share but also standouts Captaintreacherous and Chapter Seven. The 1-2-3 finishers in HOY balloting that season.

HAMBLETONIAN PAIRING FOR THE AGES

Move over Frankie and Anette, for Hambletonian Day 2026, it's Tony and Anette.

First, let's take a look at a few minor set of facts.

1. On Aug. 4, 2021 Hambletonian Day, Tony Hall had a single drive on the card in race 3.
2. Lorentzon had one entrant on the card in race 8.
3. They were racing for similar purses — $50,000 in the Muscle Hill for Hall and $60,000 for Lorentzon in the Vincennes.

Lorentzon is sending out the Hambletonian morning-line favorite in Big Ranger and Hall will be there too. Did I mention that they married last May?

"I've known Anette professionally since shortly after her arrival to the U.S. [in 2002]," Hall said. "I've known her personally for around seven years. She's one of the best trainers I've been around from any standpoint. She knows her horses and her work ethic is second to none. Her training program has taught me a lot about the European style of training. Her program covers all the basics on my book from strength building to keeping a horse sound and happy. A horse's positive attitude is what they need."

When asked what it is like so far being around Big Ranger, Hall said, "Big Ranger isn't comparable to any horse I've been around. And that is in my 30-plus years. He's special on many levels. He's never worked a day in his life. In my career, I've never seen a horse who loves his work more."

Here are a few more facts:

She arrived here 24 years ago and he's been an accomplished driver for three decades.

She specializes in trotters but has never been square in the public's eye for a race of this magnitude. He — also a newbie to the grandest of stages — stepped onto the Hambletonian Day stage only once and it was beyond memorable. That track record set by Jujubee was equaled in 2022 by Rebuff but this Saturday it looks to be well within the sights of several of the participants, most notably Big Ranger. After all, his 1:50 elimination blowout saw him looking for more.

He holds the record that she is gunning for, but, thanks to fate, hard work, and the seas parting just right, they will do it together on Saturday. No matter how outstanding his Hambletonian Day 2021 was, no matter how fabulous her time with Big Ranger has been, Saturday will be the day the he and she are we, regardless of where their colt finishes.

“Big Ranger isn't comparable to any horse I've been around. And that is in my 30-plus years. He's special on many levels. He's never worked a day in his life. In my career, I've never seen a horse who loves his work more.”

— Tony Hall

Valued win bets at The Meadowlands for selected races on the Hambletonian program

by Frank Cotolo

My personal odds lines (POL) offer win-wagering value guides. This set of top-class races is handicapped for The Meadowlands' program of Saturday (Aug 8). Each race's total odds equal 100 per cent and is dedicated to my accepted win wager odds.

The races missing from the day's card on this list have been designated passes for wagering due to uncertainty establishing accurate win odds. It is a subjective view trusted from a history of handicapping tens of thousands of events through many decades.

As a guide for any win bets, see the PLAY list after each race; it suggests win-pool overlays that may be available depending how the pari-mutuel pool is affected by the betting public. For the best wagering results do not accept less than the suggested payoffs.

MANE ATTRACTION

with JOHN BERRY

A peek at the 2026 Hambletonian, and Oaks, too

by John Berry

The 2026 Hambletonian and Hambletonian Oaks are now just moments away and, as usual, here's my yearly take on these two grand, historical events.

Several BDHC (Broken Down Horseplayer Club) members have appreciated my program morning lines over the years. My philosophy that "Hardly a man is now alive that paid his mortgage at 3-5," have hit home with handicappers, so, since I have written volumes on this subject matter, they are included in this Harness Racing Update column.

Every morning-line maker has somewhat of a different opinion in creating their line but my lines reflect where I believe the money will flow in the win pool and not the horse that will cross the finish line first.

I am a stickler when it comes to the morning line and every track has their own "magic number" for its creation.

The win takeout at The Meadowlands is listed at 17 per cent and that makes the magic number for that track 120, since 17 per cent of 120 is 20.4, and 120 less 20.4 is 99.6 about the closest number a track can get to the net pool payout of 100 per cent on win wagers without going over that break even number for them.

An accurate morning line (M/L) must be able to be achieved on a tote board.

If it is not accurate — I've seen some M/L's haphazardly made that range from a low of 80 to a high of 170 — they mislead the public because this can never be achieved on a tote board.

An accurate morning line is better for the bettor, especially the more novice guest that may only have interest in historical events, like the Hambletonian.

With that stated, my morning lines and comments are below and I wish everyone a wonderful and prosperous day taking in one of horse racing's most stories events.

THE HAMBLETONIAN

Listed in handicap order with their post, my morning line, driver, and trainer:

7. 9-2 — Endurance — Andrew McCarthy — Christopher Beaver

Never saw the inside part of the racetrack and flushed out live cover on backside. Closed fastest of all in last (in either elimination) — :26.2 — and needed one more stride. Post actually prevented stretching winning streak to four. Quick pace could prove catalyst for the upset.

4. 7-5 — Big Ranger — Tim Tetrick — Anette Lorentzon

Heavy chalk in elimination. Left from post 8 grinding forward reaching the top three-eighths in, accelerated thereafter putting away serious challenge turning for home with a :26.3 finale putting no doubt at the wire.

3. 5-2 — Apex — Dexter Dunn — Marcus Melander

Very impressive journey grinding forward uncovered through :26.4 final panel and kept gnawing once straightened away. Held valiantly and the line came just-in-time. Lightly raced this season and very prominent.

10. 8-1 — American Power — James MacDonald — Marcus Melander

Left alertly and found great spot, took charge on backside, yielded to new leader just step or two prior to the half, prominent rest of the way in very decent effort. Was forced into leaving with 8 post last week to join the fray and, again, had to leave cozy pocket backside to avoid being shuffled.

9. 20-1 — Spencer Hanover — Jason Bartlett — Marcus Melander

Away unhurried in last week's elimination, caught some live cover flow down the backside, fanned wide around tiring challenger, but very tough to dent :54.2 final half by a very sharp winner.

8. 20-1 — Magic Punk — Yannick Gingras — Ake Svanstedt

Went grinding forward from post 7 to take charge a stride or two past opening quarter, stayed in garden spot rest of the journey but just not quite up to denting winner's sprint home, and, also, out-gamed for second by a nose. Was nice effort after tough miscue race before in Zweig. Does step up to top rung on the ladder.

2. 30-1 — It Could Be Worse — Scott Zeron — Linda Toscano

Used inside post to show the way to backside before yielding, got the famed Meadowlands Shuffle next half mile, found a bit or room to roam in lane to get second in tight photo. Shows a 1:50.3 win at Big M in Reynolds but in with the big boys here.

1. 30-1 — Minoan — Todd McCarthy — Noel Daley

Away OK but got severely shuffled and found himself in a tough spot turning for home as winner the winner sprinted away from field. Still, sharp late trot to earn spot in final. Likes the front end of things but, again, steps up to territory he hasn't seen – except for last week where he was almost six lengths away.

5. 30-1 – Captain Naughty – Brett Beckwith – Per Engblom

Left alertly after breaker inside of him, settled in garden spot, got a bit of a shuffle rest of the way, and had good trot coming home. Still winless this semester – except for QUA win – but does step up to difficult task.

6. 20-1 – AI – Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. – Ron Burke

Left with alacrity in last, yielded on backside, kept up with foes throughout and safely qualified with decent effort. Hasn't faced the likes of this caliber since Oak Grove where he was an "even-steven" fourth.

AE-1 – Requiem – Matthew Burkholder

Had tough assignment in Big Ranger elimination, was away near the back of the pack, out halfway through following some cover but couldn't dent the top five though trotting home in :26.4, about a half-length away from fifth.

AE-2 – Highland Destiny – Nancy Takter

Was well back in seventh all the way around, was out at the third station drafting along and did close in :26.4 but hardly made a dent finishing two lengths back of fifth but, actually, had the fourth fastest closing kick in the mile.

HAMBLETONIAN OAKS

Listed in handicap order with their post, my morning line, driver, and trainer:

2. 5-2 – Nezuko Kamado S – Scott Zeron – Marcus Melander

Away in good order in fourth as rail horse made miscue leaving, pulled backside forcing hand – was careful not to lock up wheels turning for home while losing some ground and trotted final panel fastest of all and missed all the marbles by a neck.

7. 6-1 – Leading Lady – Matt Kakaley – Nancy Takter

Made miscue leaving last – the first one of her career – stayed out of everyone's way, settled down, got rolling when they straightened away, roared home in :25.2 to miss the whole shebang by a neck.

6. 4-1 – Carve – Andrew McCarthy – Noel Daley

Left well and took early lead, yielded prior to opening panel, sat silent and patient on backside, snuck through inside with power to claim win easily, her last quarter in :26.1 (maybe a shade better). Seems much better when has cover as has been nailed in past when on the lead too early.

5. 10-1 – Lainey W – James MacDonald – Marcus Melander

Away well from post 2 in last, brushed from third to the top, drifted out a lane allowing eventual winner through on inside but held off another rival at wire by a neck. In the hunt here.

4. 5-1 – Setyoursightshigh – Dexter Dunn – Marcus Melander

Was away decently enough, took charge with sharp quarter move, escaped with brush to soft half in :58 and trotted final half in :55.1 to hold off menacing challenger by a neck. Owns three race winning streak coming in and has come back swinging after stopping cold at Oak Grove in big race there in May.

10. 10-1 – Madam Cheval – Tim Tetrick – Nancy Takter

Zipped off wings from post 7 in eliminations to take charge in soft opening panel of :28, yielded for garden trip about seven sixteenths in, held firm throughout but was out-brushed in the lane. First time in full flight when gate opened in last but can fashion final quarters in :26.2-:26.3 from off the pace.

9. 20-1 – Frattina Diablo S – Todd MacCarthy – Tony Alagna

Left alertly for the early lead in last, yielded but anxious to reclaim once straightened away on backside. Just out-gunned even though her last quarter was :26.4. Consistent sort is prominent on or off the pace.

1. 10-1 – Busy Miss Lissy S – Ake Svanstedt – Ake Svanstedt

Left along with a pair of others to her inside, caught "double-bubbled" an eighth into the mile before forging to the lead to take control through soft opening panel. Yielded after that, seemed to be in tight quarters turning for home after pulling from 2-hole around final bend. Careful not to lock wheels with foe and, once clear, trotted last half in :54.3 – best mile of career – in holding off the favorite.

5. 12-1 – Custom – Jason Bartlett – Per Engblom

Found really nice spot early on, tilted out around final bend, closed stoutly in :25.4 but actually was out-brushed by Leading Lady near the wire. Still, very credible effort. Took a little time off after winning Reynolds and was only used in final quarter and looked sharp in return, but so did others.

8. 25-1 – Storybook Love – Todd Ratchford – Matthew Bax

Longest shot in her field, trotted an "even-steven" mile home in :26.2 to miss third by a neck but safely held fourth to make the final on lifetime earnings as big 2-year-old year saved her.

AE-1 – Jailbird Jog – Jason McGinnis

Seemed to have the toughest journey of all outside the entire route and finished fourth in her elimination kicking home in :26.2 but missed the top three by three-quarters-of-a-length. A factor if she, somehow, draws in.

AE-2 – Islandgirl Hanover – Trond Smedshammer

Avoided two breakers early in her elimination, sat chilly in fifth until straightening away, had severe pace – :25.4 – in the lane to miss the final by a neck.

Enjoy the festivities.

Toscano, Zeron look for the best from It Could Be Worse

by Rich Fisher for the Hambletonian Society

Trainer Linda Toscano and driver Scott Zeron have combined for some of the biggest wins harness racing can provide.

Now they are hoping It Could Be Worse allows them to team up for the most prestigious of all on Saturday (Aug. 8) in the $1 million Grade 1 Winning Key Farm Hambletonian, for 3-year-old trotters, at The Meadowlands.

Zeron drove It Could Be Worse to a second-place finish behind Big Ranger in the second of last weekend's two eliminations for the 101st edition of America's Trotting Classic. The top five finishers from each elim advanced to Saturday's final, where Big Ranger will enter as the 2-1 morning-line favorite following his 1:50 triumph.

"I was really happy with him," Toscano said about It Could Be Worse, who was a boxed-in sixth on the final turn of his elim. "He got away pretty good, and then he got trapped and I wasn't sure if he was going to get out. When he got out, he came out with real good trot at the end, and I was tickled that he got up for second."

It Could Be Worse will leave from post 2 in the Hambletonian final as Toscano attempts to capture the race for a second time (she became the first female trainer to win it, in 2012, with Market Share) and Zeron looks to hoist the trophy for a fourth time (which would put him in a tie with Ben White, Billy Haughton, Stanley Dancer, and Mike Lachance for the second most Hambletonian victories in history).

During their careers, Toscano and Zeron have won multiple Breeders Crowns together, as well as classics such as the Little Brown Jug and Jugette in the same year (2023), and the North America Cup.

"She and I have had so much success in the last five years it would be pretty cool for us to do it in this dance," Zeron said. "We've won a lot of majors and a lot of bucket list races, so this one with her and I together would be amazing to get done."

Zeron drove It Could Be Worse regularly last year, when the colt defeated eventual Dan Patch Award winner Apex in a preliminary round of the Kentucky Sire Stakes Championship

Dave Landry

Series and finished second to Endurance in the KYSS final. For the season, he hit the board in six of eight races and earned $189,620.

This year, with Zeron committed to another horse early in the season, Tim Tetrick drove It Could Be Worse in his first four races, including a 1:50.3 win in a division of the Reynolds Memorial and a second-place finish behind Endurance in a division of the Grade 3 Stanley Dancer Memorial. Tetrick, though, landed the drive with Big Ranger and Zeron was available to return to the sulky for Toscano.

"It's funny how life has a way of coming full circle," Toscano said.

It Could Be Worse, a son of Captain Corey—Emiliciousboomboom, heads to the Hambletonian final with 10 top-three finishes, including three wins, in 13 lifetime starts. He has earned $273,230 for owners The Bay's Stable, Pat and Mark Huber, Bill Elliott, and Camelot Stable.

"He was a game horse [as a 2-year-old]; he always gave you everything he had," Zeron said. "He was extremely versatile, but his asset was his gate speed. We used it a lot last year. He was always in a winnable position and the times he didn't win the race he was right there at the finish in the top three.

"This year, he has not changed at all. He's very quick footed and can leave well. When we're going the miles in [1]:50, maybe this Saturday better than [1]:50, we don't want to be too far away from the leader. We want to be quick out of the gate and situated up close."

It Could Be Worse has raced only at The Meadowlands this season, which was by design.

"I had no intentions of leaving The Meadowlands until the Hambo," Toscano said. "He's done everything I could ask him to do going into this race. He hasn't beaten Endurance, but other than that he's beaten most of them, so his credentials are there.

He's a nice trotter and I had single-minded focus on hopefully getting to the final."

Getting from the elimination to the final can be the most stressful part of the journey.

"I think the eliminations are far more nerve-wracking," Toscano said. "Of course, your nerves will kick in a little bit this week, but for me, I think it's always worse the week before because you've made it that far. There is nothing more heartbreaking than getting that close and then not making it to the final."

Toscano did not plan to make any last-minute changes ahead of the final.

"I think I've worked out most of the kinks at this point," she said. "I'm just hoping that he has a good, solid week and we'll go from there."

It Could Be Worse is 8-1 on the morning line, fourth choice behind Big Ranger, Apex (who won the other elimination by a nose over Endurance in 1:50.4) at 5-2, and Endurance at 5-1.

"If he's at 100 per cent on Saturday, he'll give me his all," Zeron said. "He's always capable of putting himself in a winning position. We've got a lot of fast horses and maybe the best trip wins it or maybe the best horse on that day wins. Everyone is fast these days, we'll see who's the grittiest."

Racing begins at noon on Saturday at The Meadowlands. The Hambletonian will be race 11, with a scheduled post time of 4:51 p.m. (EDT). The companion $500,000 Hambletonian Oaks is race 9 and will go at 3:36 p.m. The races will be shown live on FOX Sport 2 (FS2).

Libfeld, Svanstedt, Williams elected to Hall Of Fame; Lefkowitz, Rinker To Communicators Hall

by U. S. Harness Writers Association

The United States Harness Writers Association (USHWA) is pleased to announce the election of Al Libfeld, Åke Svanstedt and Russell Williams to the greatest honor in the industry, membership in the Harness Racing Hall of Fame.

USHWA has also elected the late Barry Lefkowitz and Kim Rinker to the pinnacle of their profession, membership in the Communicators Hall of Fame.

Al Libfeld has long been one of North America's leading owners and breeders. His statistics in the most prestigious races of the industry are ample proof of that statement: seventh among both owners and breeders in the all-time money category for the definitive Breeders Crown championship series, where his horses have had 11 Crown victories, and also a winner of the Hambletonian and four Hambletonian Oaks. He was a co-winner in the voting for the 2018 Stan Bergstein Proximity Award, the highest honor decided solely by members of the U.S. Harness Writers Association, for overall quality impact upon the sport, and has won breeding awards on both sides of the U.S./Canadian border.

A building company magnate, Libfeld and his early racehorse ownership experiences may not have been memorable, but when Dream Away won the 1997 Meadowlands Pace for Libfeld and partners Sam Goldband and Marvin Katz, Libfeld entered a stratum from which he has not departed for almost 30 years, and has expanded to include a parallel breeding operation. Libfeld continues to pursue success at the highest level with his 3-year-old trotting filly Storybook Love, last year's Crown champion in her division and an Oaks finalist.

Åke Svanstedt was already a Hall of Famer and five-time Trainer of the Year in his native Sweden, where he had over 5,000 victories as both a trainer and a driver. In 2014, he sought a new challenge, so he and wife Sarah set up operations in North America. It did not take long for Åke to establish himself, as Sebastian K S would soon go out and trot a 1:49 mile at Pocono Downs, then the fastest mile ever on the gait.

The intervening years have only built up the Svanstedt stable as a force to be reckoned with at any level of trotting competition on this side of the Atlantic. The stable has 12 Breeders Crown winners to its credit (sometimes Åke has multiple entries in rich finals like the Crowns, so some have been handled by top catch drivers); three Hambletonians, a Hambletonian Oaks, and a Hambletonian Maturity; two Yonkers International trots; two Trotters of the Year in Sebastian K and Jiggy Jog S; and the Dan Patch Trainer of the Year award in 2023. In just 13 campaigns in North America, Svanstedt has trained the winners of over $68 million.

Russell Williams has one of the best "pedigrees" in all of harness racing, tracing back to his grandfather Lawrence Sheppard, founder of the sport's leading nursery, Hanover Shoe Farms and a member of the Hall of Fame. Pedigrees, along with knowledge and service, are essential ingredients for success in harness racing, and Williams has applied all in his decades of management of Hanover Shoe Farms, which has been the sport's #1 breeder since records began to be kept in 1948, and the Standardbred Horse Sales Company, the annual Harrisburg auction.

Williams, a law graduate of the University of Richmond, has been influential on many levels of harness racing's top organizations. He has been a longtime USTA director, and since 2017 he has been president of the USTA (as was his grandfather Sheppard), taking strong stands on many of the complex issues that challenge the sport/industry in a competitive market. Russell was the 2014 Bergstein Proximity Award. And while he says his "is a modest owning/breeding operation," it has produced $3.5 million winner Nuncio and other talented performers. And his concern about horses whose racing and breeding careers are over is legendary.

Libfeld, Svanstedt, and Williams will be joined in entrance to the Hall of Fame by Carter Duer, who was elected into the Hall through the special Veterans designation in July.

COMMUNICATORS HALL OF FAME

A fan of harness racing since a youth, Barry Lefkowitz came up in the sport through the famous Monticello Raceway Publicity cohort, then held a number of publicity and administrative positions throughout the East, Midwest, and Canada. He made his primary publicity mark at Roosevelt Raceway, the sport's flagship track in its day, where he was responsible for the promotion of the Roosevelt International Trot, which involved everything from helping to secure horses to making sure of their accommodations once in Gotham to getting the word out about the crack field of the world's best trotters.

Lefkowitz later went into the insurance business while still performing a number of officer functions for USHWA, including a two-year term as president. His understanding of modern financial techniques along with his personal yet aggressive style transformed USHWA's financial stability. Though ill for a period beforehand, the sport was still stunned when he passed away just a couple of weeks after the 2025 Dan Patch banquet.

Kim Rinker had in her biography submitted for Communicators Hall consideration a total of 13 publications to which she makes or made regular contributions (that number might be low), three of which resulted in her winning Hervey Writing Awards. She worked for four racetracks and numerous organizations of the sport in executive roles. She authored 12 books (and a 13th is in the works). She has bridged the transition to today's journalism by developing formidable internet skills. And one accomplishment was not mentioned: she actually was a part-owner of a Preakness winner.

All of this comes before the many capacities in which she has served USHWA, including president, chair of the board (twice), contributor to several USHWA committees, and chair of the journal committee, the last-named a monumental undertaking adding greatly to the Dan Patch Awards Dinner. She is a former USHWA of the Year, and now her work and legacy reaches its ultimate recognition in entrance to the Communicators Hall.

Kim Rinker with Prairieland Raider.

Courtesy Kim Rinker

Duer, Libfeld, Svanstedt, Williams, Lefkowitz, and Rinker will be honored in two separate 2027 ceremonies. Official induction into the Hall of Fame and Communicators Hall of Fame will be on Sunday, July 4 in Goshen NY. The first formal recognition will occur at the U. S. Harness Writers Association's Dan Patch Awards Banquet, to be held at the Rosen Shingle Creek Resort in Orlando FL on Sunday, Feb. 21, 2027. More information on these events will be available on usharnesswriters.com and harnessmuseum.com in the upcoming months.

The United States Harness Writers Association (USHWA), the foremost group of communicators about the Standardbred horse, conducts the official annual balloting for the sport's most prestigious honors: election to the Hall of Fame and Communicators Hall of Fame, and the selection of the Horse of the Year, Trotter and Pacer of the Year, and all of the Dan Patch Awards.

Each year USHWA plays host to the Dan Patch Awards Banquet, honoring the best performers in North American harness racing. This banquet is the Association's principal source of funding, and with financial support from the harness racing industry, USHWA is able to host the banquet at a world-class facility in a world-class manner.

ALL OVER ONTARIO

with MATTHEW LOMON

Heather Pickett has a dependable Drinkin Buddy

by Matthew Lomon

Whether in the barn or behind the starting gate, an uncomplicated horse is every owner's dream.

For the last seven years, Drinkin Buddy has been just that for Heather Pickett and her husband Rick.

"He's just an honest horse that tries hard all the time," Heather said. "When you go to race him, he never really disappoints you. He gives what he can and if that's all he has today, then that's fine. I know he's done the best job he's able to do."

Heather's unwavering confidence in the lionhearted horse named after Canadian country music star Gord Bamford's 2007 hit has always been there.

Having brought Drinkin Buddy into the world, she foresaw a future others believed wasn't possible with a Your Nemesis—Zip Car pedigree.

"I bought Zip Car in 2010 when they still had the standardbred sales [Canadian Yearling Sale] at Flamboro," Heather said. "At the sale, they said, 'Does nobody want this filly?' So, I put up my hand and I got her for $1,000. After that, some people said, 'Oh, you're the one that bought that little horse?' This was back when I just started training, and I was taken aback by that a little bit.

"She started late in her 2-year-old year, and made a few starts; 3 was wishy-washy. She was second in the [2013] City of London, and then went on to be a preferred mare for five or six years for me. She had a heart of gold. That horse tried every lick, so I decided to keep her and breed her because she was my first baby that I'd ever purchased."

Zip Car, who went on to earn $152,448 across 98 career starts for Heather, was initially bred to Sunshine Beach.

Unfortunately, she, like three of the other mares she was stabled with, lost her first foal due to complications caused by a virus.

Once cleared, Heather moved Zip Car to the home of Stephen and Marilyn Gillard, the longtime horsepeople who owned Your Nemesis.

"I had a racehorse for them, so they had my broodmares for me," Heather said. "They stood Your Nemesis right there, and it was a live cover breeding, and an affordable breeding, and

"Taking your little baby that you've seen from day one and getting it to the races and actually winning is a great feeling. That's probably my favorite thing with training the racehorses."

— Heather Pickett

that's basically why we chose that combination because she was stabled right at their home farm."

Drinkin Buddy was born in the spring of 2019.

From the beginning, there was no mistaking that he was his mother's son.

"He was always a friendly horse," Heather said. "He was just a little bit nervous at the start. He started late in his 2-year-old year and didn't put it together right away but did get qualified and raced a couple of times."

An abbreviated rookie campaign was of no concern to Heather, as she had already traversed the same path with Zip Car.

The one notable difference, however, was that Drinkin Buddy's rookie campaign featured a trip to the winner's circle.

That hard-earned victory by a neck on Nov. 22, 2021 at The Raceway at Western Fair District remains a distinct source of pride for Heather.

"Taking your little baby that you've seen from day one and getting it to the races and actually winning is a great feeling," she said. "That's probably my favorite thing with training the racehorses."

While Drinkin Buddy's 3-year-old campaign was also cut short — this time by a viral infection — the plucky bay pacer worked tirelessly to find his form.

From the Picketts' perspective, that involved taking a risk, similar to one that cost them Drinkin Buddy's full brother, Just Ask Joe, last February.

"We ended up at one point trying to gain his confidence, and to me, it's hard to put a horse in a claimer, which is what ended up happening to Joe,” Heather said. “It stinks because somebody can buy them from you and you’re taking that risk.”

In this instance, the gamble paid off.

“Being a Your Nemesis, I thought we were a little safer,” she said. “We put him in a 10 claimer for non-winners of $25,000 or $30,000 at that point, and he was a really good fourth. Then he won and we put him up to the 20s and he just kept getting better and better when he was bigger and stronger.”

Allowing Drinkin Buddy, a taller horse, time to grow into his body was key in his development between ages 2, 3, and beyond.

“It’s nice to see them actually grow into the horse that they’re supposed to be and stay sound and solid year after year,” Heather said.

As Heather expected, Drinkin Buddy has only improved with age.

After years touring the Ontario grassroots circuit, the resolute racehorse worked his way up to a Mohawk regular.

Getting on the board at Canada’s premier harness racing venue took some time, but the memories from that first – and second triumph – were certainly worth the wait.

“The week James [MacDonald] won with him, he got his whip tangled up behind the gate and dropped it,” Heather said. “He said he didn’t know what was going to happen, but he ended up winning for fun without a whip for the whole race.”

It was a 3½-length win on July 19, 2025.

“The next week, James was away for another engagement, and Billy Davis, Jr., drove him,” Heather said. “I said to him, ‘Just so you know, James lost his whip, but the horse actually does better without a whip.’ Billy’s response was, ‘Yeah, I know. It was me that he hooked whips with, I lost mine too.’ We both laughed and then he went out and won that Pop Up Series final.”

At the time of publishing, Drinkin Buddy has made 146 starts, all for the Picketts, and earned north of $224,000.

Over that time, he has not only exceeded all expectations set by his pedigree but emerged as the heart and soul of the Picketts’ operation.

“Other than his viral infection, he’s been very, very easy to maintain, which is extremely impressive for a horse that’s raced that many times and at his age,” Heather said.

He’s dependable, he’s reliable, he’s a good friend the Picketts can always lean on – he’s their Drinkin Buddy.

“It means the world; it’s a great feeling,” Heather said. “He’ll have a home for life, that’s for sure.”

“[Drinkin Buddy is] just an honest horse that tries hard all the time. When you go to race him, he never really disappoints you. He gives what he can and if that’s all he has today, then that’s fine. I know he’s done the best job he’s able to do.”

Go Go Gadget (1, Jonathan Drury) was second to the wire, but elevated to first when C Script (Doug McNair) was disqualified for a pylon violation in the $205,000 Battle of Waterloo on Monday at Grand River Raceway.

Gogo Gadget wins Battle Of Waterloo

by Standardbred Canada, Ontario Racing, and Grand River Raceway

The Industry Day card at Grand River Raceway on Monday (Aug. 3) delivered a flurry of fireworks as Gogo Gadget took the $205,000 Battle Of Waterloo for Ontario-sired pacing colts after a placing. Meanwhile, Jersey Bulldog dominated the $165,000 Battle Of The Belles.

The Battle Of Waterloo served as the finale on the Industry Day card, where Gogo Gadget pulled off the mild 5-2 upset to score with Johnathan Drury in the bike for trainer Kyle Bossence.

The 1-2 favorite C Script got away quickly for driver Doug McNair as early challenger Wheels Up (Paul Davies) broke stride. Jonathan Drury had second choice Gogo Gadget in the pocket behind C Script past the :26.3 opening quarter, just ahead of No More Exs (Travis Henry). C Script led to the :56.2 half, with a first-over Will Farroh (Jason Ryan) pressing the pace from third. Reaching three-quarters in 1:24.3, C Script had only the pocket-pulling Gogo Gadget to contend with down the stretch.

Although the favorite held off Drury's colt by a half-length at the wire in 1:52.3, an inquiry was quickly posted. Judges determined that C Script went inside of three pylons late, so he was placed last. Slick Draw (Steven Hudon) was third-placed-second, with No More Exs bumped up to third.

Gogo Gadget, the diminutive son of Betting Line—JK Getupngo, was elevated to first, keeping his undefeated streak intact at four in a row for owner Tamara Vandewiel of Arthur, ON. The mile clocking was a new 2026 season's record for 2-year-old male pacers on a Canadian five-eighths mile track.

"He's done nothing wrong; he's just a gentleman," said Bossence, standing alongside Gogo Gadget in the Battle Of Waterloo winner's circle. "He always had a really quick snap off a helmet. The only thing I was a little bit worried about was his size. I just didn't know how long or how fast he'd be able to go with the size, but he's proven that."

Gogo Gadget's driver Drury said he was wondering whether C Script "got inside there a little bit" on the final turn, but his colt stepped up for his biggest win yet.

"He just keeps digging in," said Drury. "He's only a little fella, but every time I've had a chance to sit behind him, he's gotten just a touch better. I didn't think the 2-hole trip behind Dougie [McNair] was really ideal, because he was going to be able to steal away with the race and turn it into a sprint like he did. My guy's a little bit better if I could've gone first-up early and looked him in the eye, but it worked out. You don't like to take a win that way, but my colt deserved it too."

In the $165,000 Battle Of The Belles, Bob McClure and John Pentland teamed up for a spectacular victory with Jersey Bulldog in the main event for Ontario-sired 2-year-old filly pacers.

Money Carlo (James MacDonald) was first to the front, only to get circled by Aceandaten (Doug McNair) and jump off-stride en route to the quarter. Jersey Bulldog gained ground first-over to clear Aceandaten at the :27 opening quarter. Never headed the remainder of the mile with middle half fractions of :55.1 and 1:22.4, Jersey Bulldog widened her advantage to seven expanding lengths in the 1:51.3 victory, breaking her own 1:51.4 record as Canada's fastest seasonal winner for her age, sex, and gait on a five-eighths-mile track. Cattle Belle (Trevor Henry) and Lyons Flurry (Mark MacDonald) completed the triactor.

Jersey Bulldog was a 5-2 winner, as beaten 1-4 favorite Money Carlo rallied late for fifth.

An emotional McClure said he wouldn't have been surprised if Money Carlo had "shattered the Canadian record today," but "John [Pentland's] filly hasn't done a thing wrong since I've gotten the chance to sit behind her," making his choice to drive Jersey Bulldog instead of the other elimination winner a tough one.

"I couldn't split the fillies... They were both extremely talented," he said. "It's just my relationship with John [Pentland], he's been in my corner for a long time... I could settle for finishing second to Money Carlo, but it would've hurt finishing second to Jersey Bulldog and not being in the bike."

Pentland said that Jersey Bulldog had been "good all along," but had to be relocated from her original training center following a strangles outbreak, which did not affect her. "She went from there to Ideal Training Centre... when everything was clear, we brought her to Dorchester. My groom, Nancy Greddig, who is the best groom in the world... she deserves a ton of credit... The ownership on this horse is phenomenal... They don't offer anything except support."

The winning Bulldog Hanover—Gallie Beach filly is owned by Pentland along with Sherri Sumner of Dorchester, ON, Jack Darling Stables Ltd. of Cambridge, ON, and Alan Alber of Thornhill, ON. She won her July 27 Belles elimination for regular driver McClure, going away in a trip that resembled her victory in the $165,000 final.

Co-owner Alber described the Battle Of The Belles as "just a terrific win" for Jersey Bulldog and the team. "Like John [Pentland] said, it takes a village, and today the village worked, so we're very happy with the horse."

Fitterjake equals a track record at Hoosier in INSS

by Connor Mahoney / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Tying the Hoosier Park track record for 2-year-old pacing fillies in 1:49.2 (My Girl EJ – 2023), Fitterjake driven by Anthony Miller for trainer Aaron Stutzman wired the six-horse field to etch her name in Hoosier Park history in the first group of INSS for 2-year-old pacing fillies.

Slotted into post 1, Fitterjake did not skip a beat as she cruised to the early advantage tailed by Kountry Legacy (Trace Tetrick) at the first turn in :27.1. The top pair stretched the field on the backstretch as the pacers remained unchanged to the halfway mark in :54.4. Rounding the three-quarter turn in 1:22.3, Fitterjake held strong as the leader with the advancing Kountry Legacy on her heels. Onto the homestretch, Fitterjake and Kountry Legacy went head-to-head as the slugfest advanced to the wire. Fitterjake would get the best of Kountry Legacy stamping the wire in 1:49.2 matching the 2-year-old pacing filly track record by a neck. Kountry Legacy squared away second, while Owleo's Pride (Ricky Macomber, Jr.) held for third.

The winning 2-year-old Jk Endofanera—For Sharks Sake filly is owned and bred by James Miller. Fitterjake stayed perfect in her bright career, going three-for-three with a lifetime earnings total of $70,500. Fitterjake paid $6.80 to win.

Wrapping up the INSS 2-year-old filly pace, Mystical Jk driven by Kyle Wilfong for trainer Jay Hochstetler took the six-horse field for a ride winning with ease in race 8.

Mystical Jk sprinted out of the wings in post 4 to the first turn in :27.1, beating out Tellemhowitis (Marcus Miller). The field paced single file before Alexis It Is (Anthony Miller) Stormed to the lead alongside Mystical Jk at the halfway mark in :56.1. The leading duo were stuck together to the three-quarter turn in 1:24 with Mystical Jk back in the lead. Mystical Jk continued to build momentum pulling away from the field for a decisive victory in 1:50.4 by 4½ lengths. Tellemhowitis climbed to second, while Callie Rocks got up for third.

Mystical Jk is owned by Connie Hochstetler, Mary Buddig, Janet Schwartz, and South Of The Tracks Rac Inc. The Jk Endofanera filly out of Mystical Carrie was bred by Mystical Marker Farms LLC. Mystical Jk earned her second win in INSS for a boosted $72,920 in lifetime earnings.

In addition to the pacing fillies, 2-year-old trotting fillies took to the track with a pair of $66,500 divisions for their third leg of Indiana Sire Stakes, with Redice delivering a dominant effort in the first split with Atlee Bender aboard for trainer Erv Miller.

Away from post 3 as the 2-5 favorite, Redice tucked into third on the first turn while Prazana (John De Long) swept to the lead from the outside through a :28 opening panel. Twister Sister (James Yoder) moved to the lead from the pocket, taking command before the half of :57.3 when Redice moved to the outside from third. Redice charged to the lead at three-quarters in 1:27.3 before trotting away and hiding in the stretch, opening up by seven lengths on the wire with Bender sitting chilly in the sulky in 1:54.4. Gladden (Trace Tetrick) rallied for second, with Twister Sister holding for third.

Redice has won two straight against Sire Stakes company at Hoosier, and three of five in her rookie campaign. The clocking was a new career best for the daughter of Rebuff—Fuzzy Dice who was bred by Kjell Andersen, Lucas Wallin, and Pieter Delis. Redice has banked $102,000 for owners Ervin Miller Stable, Anthony Lombardi, and Stepbystep Racing.

Favorites swept the two-year-old trotting filly divisions, with Dance Remix and driver Jordan Ross taking the second division to deliver a nice birthday present for trainer Henry Graber, Jr.

Leaving from post 3, Dance Remix trotted to the front end on the opening turn, taking the field of eight to the first station in :28.3. Finish Big (Spence Taylor) brushed to the lead on the back stretch, pocketing the bettors' choice to the half in :57.2. Finish Big continued to trudge up front on the far turn, before Dance Remix popped the pocket with Unburdened (Marcus Miller) flushing that cover at three-quarters in 1:27.2. Unburdened loomed in the stretch, applying pressure to Dance Remix, but could not reach with Dance Remix holding serve by a half-length in a career best 1:55.2. In The Buff (Kyle Wilfong) rallied to secure the third spot.

Yet to be worse than second in three tries this year, winning twice, Dance Remix has banked $73,375 for owners S&R Racing Stables, Indiana Stables, and Alvin Graber, Jr. The daughter of Rebuff—Antsy Dancey was bred by Richard Fry.

New York

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Bailey J was as advertised in the $110,200 NYSS at Batavia

by Tim Bojarski for Batavia Downs

The New York Sire Stakes were at Batavia Downs on Wednesday (Aug. 5) evening and featured a field of eight 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings who competed for their share of the $110,200 purse and Bailey J (Chapter Seven—Fade Into You) proved once again that he is a force to be dealt with in this division on the strength of another impressive win.

Uncle Rob (Andy Miller) was four-wide around the first turn making his way to the lead ahead of Book It Armitage (Drew Monti) and Bailey J (Jason Bartlett) as they passed the quarter in :29.2. With the field now single file and following, Miller throttled down the half to :59.4 and continued to go unassailed around turn three and halfway up the backstretch. That's where Bartlett finally tipped Bailey J and forged towards the leader.

Uncle Rob passed three-quarters in 1:29.4 as Bailey J continued to creep ever closer with every stride. After rounding the last bend, Bailey J went wide turning for home, but Bartlett reined him in and guided him to victory as he bolted home on top by three-quarters-of-a-length over Uncle Rob in 1:58.3, featuring a :28.3 kicker.

Bailey J ($2.98) is owned by Ken Jacobs and trained by Noel Daley. Crawford Farms bred the winner.

There were also two NYSS $20,000 Excelsior Series races on Wednesday.

The first was won by Betelgeusebluechip (Crazy Wow—Tamgo Donato, 2:01.1, $3.40 Tyler Buter/Rob Harmon) who is owned by Go For Glory Stable, Robert Robinson, Billy Muggleston, and Harmon Racing Stable and bred by Blue Chip Bloodstock.

And the second was won by Telling Tall Tales (Back Of The Neck—Scores To Settle, 2:02.1, $3.92 Tyler Buter/Rob Harmon) who is owned by Harmon Racing Stable, Billy Muggleston, and Robert Robinson and bred by Runthetable Stables.

Later in the local featured $13,500 open handicap pace for fillies and mares, the heavily-backed Elegant Woman A captured her second straight top-class win at Batavia on the strength of a three-wide move and strong stretch finish.

Elegant Woman A (Drew Monti) got away sixth as Gentrify (Brett MacDonald) parked Think Of Galaxies (Leon Bailey) through fractions of :28.1, :57.3, and 1:26.2. During that third quarter,

Wendy J. Lowery

Bailey J (Jason Bartlett) winning his New York Sire Stakes event for 2-year-old trotting colts at Batavia Downs on Wednesday.

Elegant Woman A was third-over in the outer flow behind Windsun Charlotte (Dave McNeight III) and the pair was forced to go three-deep around Think Of Galaxies, who was fading going into the last turn. Windsun Charlotte drew alongside Gentrify, but Elegant Woman A was still three-deep off the turn and heading into the stretch. But once they straightened for home, Elegant Woman A took control of the race and paced to the line on top by three-quarters-of-a-length and won in 1:55.1.

It was the fourth win of the year for Elegant Woman A ($3.46), who is owned by Jack Rice, her trainer Maria Rice and her driver, Drew Monti.

Kevin Cummings had three driving wins while trainers Sam Smith and Rob Harmon scored two wins apiece during the night.

The $3,000 guaranteed pool in the Pick-5 wager on Wednesday paid big dividends as the winning combination of 2-6-5-4-3 returned $3,519.51 for the 50-cent wager.

Live racing will resume at Batavia Downs on Saturday (Aug. 8) at 5 p.m. and there will be a $3,435 carryover in the Jackpot Hi-5 pentafecta wager in the 13th race.

Free full card past performance programs for every live card of racing at Batavia Downs can always be downloaded at the track's website (bataviadownsgaming.com) under the "Live Racing" tab. And you can watch all the races live as they happen for free on the Batavia Downs YouTube page.

BARTLETT BAGS NYSS DOUBLE AT THE SPA

Jason Bartlett swept the pair of $74,500 New York Sire Stakes events for 2-year-old male pacers on Tuesday (Aug. 4) at Saratoga Casino Hotel, teaming Marie's Jet and Rose Run Cowboy to victory in their respective events.

Marie's Jet drew the rail and cut the mile in his division. Bartlett took the Aaron Lambert trainee to the half in :58.2 and braced for the challenge of odds-on favorite Primacy Station (Matt Kakaley). Those two engaged in a heavy-duty battle in the stretch before Marie's Jet held on by a nose to win in 1:54.4. Primacy Station came up just short of recording what would have been his fourth win in five career starts. Instead, it was the third score in the freshman campaign for Marie's Jet, who is just shy of $100,000 in earnings through five starts for owners Vincent Ferriero, Jr. and Carlye Yanstick.

Bartlett completed his Sire Stakes sweep when the Ron Burke-trained Rose Run Cowboy went coast-to-coast as the 1-5 favorite in the second division. Coming into the day winless in three tries, Rose Run Cowboy assumed the early lead and never looked back en route to a 1:54 score for owners Thomas and Scott Dillon. Man On A Hunt (Jacob Cutting) put in a formidable challenge around the final turn but came up 1¼ lengths short.

Live racing at Saratoga resumes on Saturday (Aug. 8); first post time is set for 6:45 p.m.

Red Mile abandons Wednesday card; remaining Sire Stakes rescheduled

by Ray Cotolo for The Red Mile

Due to intense rain that arrived in Lexington during the Wednesday (Aug. 5) card of harness racing at The Red Mile, the track had to cancel the remainder of the 14-race card for unsafe track conditions.

The Red Mile has rescheduled Wednesday's remaining state-bred races to a non-wagering card on Sunday (Aug. 9) starting at 3 p.m. (EDT). The five Kentucky bred races on the non-wagering card are headlined by the $80,000 Kentucky Championship Series opening preliminary for 2-year-old trotting fillies, which will be the first of the races held on the non-betting card.

Before the storms forced cancellation, The Red Mile hosted three of the four scheduled $15,000 Kentucky Golden Rod Series divisions as well as one of the two $30,000 Kentucky Commonwealth Series dashes. Mustang Baby (driven by Tim Tetrick, 1:56.3 winning mile; $5.54 to win), Putitondad'stab (Scott Zeron, 1:56.2; $3.32), and Martini Friday (Todd McCarthy, 1:56; $6.58) all reached the winner's circle in the Golden Rod divisions while Jot It Down (Dexter Dunn, 1:56.1; $6) went pillar-to-post in the single division of the Kentucky Commonwealth, hitting the beam a length better than pocket-chaser Luxe Lindy (Tyler Miller) and late-rallying La Fortuna (Andy McCarthy).

The Red Mile will return to its regularly scheduled harness racing action on Sunday night (Aug. 9) with a 17-race card starting at 5:05 p.m. (EDT). Sunday's pari-mutuel card is headlined by three $80,000 Kentucky Championship Series opening preliminary events with one division for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings and two divisions for 3-year-old trotting fillies.

Maryland SIRE STAKES REPORT

Nobody Knows It gets stakes and track record in MSF at Ocean Downs

by Maryland Standardbred Race Fund

A record-setting performance highlighted an exciting night of Maryland Standardbred Fund competition Wednesday (Aug. 5) at Ocean Downs as the state's freshman fillies took center stage in four divisions worth more than $113,000.

The evening featured three pacing divisions and one rich trotting event, but it was Nobody Knows It who stole the spotlight, rewriting the record book with a dazzling victory in the featured 2-year-old filly trot.

NOBODY KNOWS IT REWRITES THE RECORD BOOK

The richest race of the evening produced its most memorable performance as Nobody Knows It turned in a history-making mile in the $51,250 Maryland Standardbred Fund division for 2-year-old trotting fillies.

Corey Callahan sent the Richard Hans trainee directly to the lead entering the first turn, and the daughter of Betting Gangster S never looked back. Setting measured fractions of :29.1, :58.3, and 1:28, Nobody Knows It remained comfortably in control before drawing away to a two-length victory in 1:57.1.

The mile established both a new Ocean Downs track record and a new Maryland Standardbred Fund stakes record for 2-year-old trotting fillies, adding another accomplishment to an already impressive young career.

Owned and bred by Richard Hans, Nobody Knows It lowered her own mark while stamping herself as one of the premier freshman trotters in the region.

Sister Saloon raced gamely to finish second, while stablemate That's It For You closed well to complete the trifecta, giving trainer Richard Hans two of the top three finishers.

ALL THAT RUSTY UPSETS EARLY FAVORITE: The opening pacing division produced the night's first surprise as All That Rusty rallied from just off the pace to upset Land Of The Free and Blaze Of Glory.

Anthony Morgan guided the Herman Hagerman trainee into perfect striking position before unleashing a determined stretch drive. All That Rusty edged past Land Of The Free in the final strides to prevail by a neck in 1:58.2 after pacing her final quarter in :29.2.

Owned by Hagerman Racing, the daughter of Rusty's For Real rewarded her connections with a hard-fought victory over a field that featured several highly regarded freshmen.

SECRET SIGN HOLDS OFF HEAVY FAVORITE: The second division featured another outstanding performance as Secret Sign turned back overwhelming favorite Buenas Dias in an exciting stretch battle.

Corey Braden put the daughter of Heston Blue Chip on the lead from the rail and controlled the tempo through fractions of :29.1, :59.2, and 1:28.3. Buenas Dias mounted a determined challenge in the stretch, but Secret Sign dug in courageously to prevail by a nose in 1:57.1.

Trained by co-owner Stacey McLenaghan and owned along with Deborah Warnick, the Winbak Farm-bred filly purchased for $5,000 last fall earned a maiden score Wednesday evening.

WISDOM N GRACE CRUISES IN FINAL DIVISION: The evening concluded with another impressive front-end performance as Wisdom N Grace controlled every step of the final pacing division.

Brandon Givens wasted little time sending the daughter of Sports Column to the lead, and the Les Givens trainee quickly opened a commanding advantage. After reaching the half in :59, Wisdom N Grace maintained a sizable lead through three-quarters before coasting home a comfortable four-length winner in 1:57.4.

Elastic Heart finished second, while R U Kidding completed the top three.

Owned by Nanticoke Racing Inc., Henry Faragalli III, and Stephen Daugherty, the Winbak Farm-bred filly delivered one of the evening's most visually impressive victories. Wisdom N Grace was a $14,000 purchase at Harrisburg in 2025.

Maryland Standardbred Fund action continues this coming week with the 3-year-olds hitting the track on both Monday (Aug. 10) and Wednesday (Aug. 12).

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Minnesota-sired action featured at Running Aces

by Darin Gagne for Running Aces Casino, Hotel and Racetrack

Slipped Onmybeans (by Captainryanmichael) made it four-straight wins in the Minnesota-sired freshman filly 'A' pace with a new career mark in 1:54.1 over Illbedajudgeofthat and Lady Gulf at Running Aces on Tuesday night (Aug. 4). Dean Magee drove the $2.10 winner for Scott Banitt.

Captain Ricky (also by Captainryanmichael) picked up his fourth career win in the colts 'A' pace with a one length tally over Bombi and Cacheforthedevil in 1:55.4 with Leonard in the bike for trainer Justin Anfinson. He was the heavy chalk as well, paying $2.60.

Spiceitupwithoil (by Big Oil) posted a 39-1 upset in the freshman trot with a big late rally to get up by a neck over Turbo Tinker with Wishingiwashome third in a 2:01.3 mile. Luke Plano drove the $80.20 winner for trainer Anfinson.

The other freshman winners included The Steel Cage ($3.20) in the 'B' pace in 1:57.3 with Scott Cisco in the bike and Alfie's Adoration ($4.60) in the 'C' pace in 1:58.3 under reign to Mooney Svendsen.

Scott Cisco's victory was career driving win number 1,000.

The open handicap trot was among the featured events with a very nice field of seven square-gaiters lining up for battle in the $16,000 contest.

Fifty Rivers was the apple of the betting public's eye as the even money choice and drew post 6 while Escaper was given a 3-1 chance from post 7 and Peanutbutterfalcon, who started from the 2-hole, showed a 4-1 chance according to punters.

Driver Casey Leonard was intent on being near the top with Fifty Rivers and left aggressively for position, taking the early lead while Lexus Markus and Dean Magee were also quick off the mark and Escaper with Rick Magee also surged from the outside post toward the front.

Escaper took control just before the quarter flashed up in :27.3 and Fifty Rivers accepted the pocket trip while Lexus Markus and Peanutbutterfalcon traveled in third and fourth positions respectively. Escaper stole a :29.3 breather in the second panel while All Champy and Mooney Svendsen got rolling from the back of the pack to come first-over, providing cover flow for Go Have Fun (Brady Jensen) down the backstretch.

Escaper still held court around the far turn as they posted three-panels in 1:26.1 with Fifty Rivers snug in the pocket and All Champy grinding outside of the leaders.

In the lane All Champy forged to a narrow lead and Fifty Rivers surged into the passing lane to make it three across the track in a thrilling battle to the wire.

Fifty Rivers prevailed in the final strides for a half-length tally while All Champy nosed out Escaper for second money in the 1:55.3 mile.

The winner is a 4-year-old by Fiftydallarbill who now shows nine wins and earnings of $127,470 this season for owner J M F Racing. Trainer Kathie Plested sent out the top two finishers. The win tickets paid $4.

Dandy's Freedom (by Worldofrocknroll) surged late for his seventh win of the season in the $12,750 open II handicap pace in 1:52.4 over Handsome Sir and Tankalicious. Leonard trains and drives the $3.40 winner.

Leonard led the program with four driving wins and Anfinson posted a training triple.

HARNESS RACING PRESS RELEASES, NOTES & ANNOUNCEMENTS

Hambletonian Day at Big M to bring out the game's best

Hambletonian Day (Saturday, Aug. 8) is upon us, and, as usual, the 16-race card at The Meadowlands is packed with the game's biggest stars.

On Saturday, those who will be heading to the track have to keep in mind that post time for the first race is noon. Admission is $5, but you get a Hambletonian hat for paying your way in, so it is well worth the cost.

All dining is sold out, but don't worry, there are plenty of good eats to be had at concession stands inside the building and numerous food trucks outside on the apron extending into The Backyard.

Gates open at 10 a.m., so get there early and claim your spot.

As for the racing, there are 11 dashes of note that feature some of the game's best squaring off.

Here's a look:

- Race 2: $180,000 New Jersey Sire Stakes 2-year-old colt and gelding Platinum division trot final – Jim Campbell trainee Wrong Sounds Right, the 8-5 morning-line favorite, seeks his third straight win. The main foe is the 9-5 Presidente, who was a close second in each of his last two.
- Race 3: $310,750 Cane Pace (3-year-old open) – This dash features the first time that Meadowlands Pace winner Brandon Blvd, the 6-5 early choice, will take on North America Cup champion Odds On Mr Mamba (5-2).
- Race 6: $225,000 New Jersey Sire Stakes 2-year-old filly Platinum division trot final – Wall Of Fame (2-1) was victorious in each of her three preliminaries while Nevis Peak (5-2) skipped Leg 2 three weeks ago but was a winner in the two legs she did participate in.
- Race 8: $281,200 John Cashman Memorial (open trot) – The defending Dan Patch Trotter of the Year Lexus Kody (5-2) has won three in a row, including the JL Cruze and Spirit of Massachusetts. Can Super Chapter (7-2), off since July 11 after finishing second to On To Norway for a second straight start, be competitive as a 4-year-old taking on older?
- Race 9: $500,000 Winning Key Farm Hambletonian Oaks (3-year-old filly trot) – Nezuko Kamado S (2-1) came up a neck short in her elimination as the 1-5 public choice facing Busy

Miss Lissy S (4-1), and looks to get back on track and win for the fifth time in six seasonal tries.

- Race 10: $183,650 Dr. John R. Steele Memorial (mares open trot) – Yo Tillie (3-1), the defending divisional champ, is off a determined nose victory in 1:51 using Lasix for the first time in the Miss Versatility.

- Race 11: $1-million Winning Key Farm Hambletonian (3-year-old open trot) – Apex (5-2) has been the favorite to win America's Trotting Classic since last summer, and he did win his elimination, but Ohio invader Big Ranger (2-1) has taken the role of favorite away off an eye-popping 1:50 lifetime-best clocking in his first-ever appearance at The Big M in his elim.

- Races 12 and 13: $138,650 and $139,900, respectively, Sam McKee Memorial (open pace) – Both dashes look like great betting races with Captain Optimistic (3-1), a winner at The Big M earlier this year in 1:46.3, taking on William Haughton and #Senditin champ Lou Hill (7-2) in the first heat. Prince Hal Hanover (3-1), a lifetime earner of over $1.4 million, faces Haughton upset winner Bythemissal (9-2) in the second dash.

- Race 14: $156,500 Lady Liberty (open mares pace) – The two superstars from the Chris Ryder barn go at it again when Twin B Joe Fresh (5-2) takes on Miki And Minnie (3-1). 'Joe' took down 'Miki' in the July 11 Dorothy Haughton, which was one week after Miki bested Joe in the July 4 Perfect Sting.

- Race 15: $123,200 Shady Daisy (3-year-old filly pace) – Be Perfect BG (9-5) is five-for-seven this year and 10-for-12 lifetime. Her biggest challenge is likely to come from Darlin's Angel (3-1), who paced her back half in :53.2 on the way to a lifetime-best 1:49.2 win last week in the Tompkins-Geers.

"Hambletonian Day is finally here, and all of us at The Meadowlands are ready to give our customers a memorable experience," said track chief operating officer/general manager Jason Settlemyer. "All of our employees know what Hambletonian Day means. We will have customers who never miss a card in the building, and we also will have folks who come only on Hambo Day. Our goal is to show everyone a great time on not only what is our biggest day of the year, but the biggest day of the year for the entire sport."

THE SCHEDULE: Live harness racing at The Meadowlands will be conducted on a Friday-Saturday basis through Sept. 12 with a first-race post time of 6:20 p.m.

There are some exceptions to those rules.

The 101st edition of the $1-million Hambletonian is on Saturday (Aug. 8), and that card begins at noon.

On Saturday (Aug. 15), racing will begin at 7 p.m.

Finally, there will be no live racing at The Meadowlands on Friday (Aug. 14), and Friday (Aug. 28), due to preseason football at MetLife Stadium.

A TASTY MENU: The betting public at The Big M is accustomed to the new wagering menu, and the players' approval was confirmed when the second-biggest night of wagering of 2026 took place Saturday (Aug. 1) night, when more than $3.4 million was pushed through the windows.

This is the wagering menu for tonight's 14-race program:

- Races 1-5: 20-cent Pick-5
- Races 4-9: 20-cent Pick-6
- Races 6-9: 50-cent Pick-4 ($50,000 guaranteed pool)
- Race 7: 10-cent Pentafecta (Hi-5)
- Races 8-14: 20-cent Survivor Pick-7
- Races 10-13: 50-cent Pick-4 ($50,000 guaranteed pool)
- Races 11-12: $2 Daily Double
- Races 12-14: $3 Pick-3
- Races 13-14: $5 Late Double
- Race 14: 10-cent Pentafecta (Hi-5)

This is the wagering menu for Saturday's 16-race program:

- Races 1-6: 20-cent Pick-6 ($50,000 guaranteed pool)
- Races 3-7: 20-cent Pick-5 ($75,000 guaranteed pool)
- Races 4-7: 50-cent Pick-4
- Races 6-12: 20-cent Survivor Pick-7
- Race 7: 10-cent Pentafecta (Hi-5)
- Races 8-11: 50-cent Pick-4 ($125,000 guaranteed pool)
- Race 10: 10-cent Pentafecta (Hi-5)
- Races 11-14: 50-cent Pick-4 ($100,000 guaranteed pool)
- Races 12-16: 20-cent Pick-5
- Races 13-16: 50-cent Pick-4
- Race 13: 10-cent Pentafecta (Hi-5)
- Race 15: $5 Late Double
- Race 16: 10-cent Pentafecta (Hi-5)

The Pick-4s with guaranteed pools are offered in conjunction with the U.S. Trotting Association's Strategic Wagering Program.

IT'S LIVE ON FOX: The Hambletonian and Hambletonian Oaks will be telecast live to a national television audience on Saturday, Aug. 8.

The show can be seen as part of the New York Racing Association's "Day at the Races" coverage of the Thoroughbred action from Saratoga Race Course.

For those who would like to see the Hambletonian Oaks and Hambletonian live on TV, they should tune in to FOX Sports 2 (FS2) at 3 p.m.

Post time for the Oaks is 3:36 p.m. The Hambletonian is set for 4:51 p.m.
