After finishing second in the Hambletonian four times – including three times in the last four years – you would have forgiven trainer Marcus Melander for thinking he might be hexed as his pupil Apex turned for home on the lead Saturday afternoon (Aug. 8) at The Meadowlands as chief rival and race favorite Big Ranger pulled up alongside and threatened to go right past.

Except, despite all the agonizing just-misses and oh-so-closes en route to his first Hambletonian, Melander knew Apex would respond; and boy did he, going nose-to-nose with Big Ranger Apex's epic victory by a nose over Big Ranger in the $1 million Grade 1 event provided the first Hambletonian victory for trainer Marcus Melander, driver Dexter Dunn, owners Jeffrey Snyder and Steve and Cindy Stewart and redeemed sire Walner and dam Mission Brief.

The winning connections of the 101st Hambletonian.

as the two of them traded haymakers in the stifling New Jersey heat.

"I know he always fights," Melander said of Apex. "But, obviously, the other horse is a great horse, too."

In the end, Apex, the 5-2 second choice, was just a nostril hair better in a photo finish reminiscent of the epic 1989 Dead Heat Hambletonian between Probe and Park Avenue Joe. Except, in this case, the teletimer was borderline combustible – a 1:49.2 scorcher that goes down as the stakes and track record for 3-year-old trotters.

This one will go down as one of the greats.

"By the wire, I thought we got beat, because usually it's the outside horse [that wins those close finishes here]," the trainer said. "But, he'll give everything to be first and he did that today. He did everything on the front. He looked fantastic and he's just our champion."

Melander had finally escaped the media maelstrom. As he sat in the back of the shuttle taking people between the winner's circle and the paddock, he processed the enormity of it all. He held his young daughter Hailey's hand as she clutched some flowers and competed for his attention.

Twenty five years ago, Marcus' uncle, Stefan Melander, won the Hambletonian with Scarlet Knight.

"I was only 9 years old and can't remember too much about that, but it's great to get this done," Marcus said. "It's a relief, really."

"Every time we've been second, I've been disappointed at the result, but look at the horses and how they raced. Super Chapter, last year, he raced fantastic. Joviality [in 2022] raced fantastic. Oh Well [in 2023] raced fantastic and Tactical Approach got up on the inside [to win]. I've never been disappointed in the horses. They raced well."

That it took him 18 previous finalists since his first Hambletonian appearance in 2017 to finally get the chance to raise the famed reverse silver bowl just shows you how monumental an achievement it is.

Trainer Marcus Melander and daughter Hailey.

"Oh, it's hard," Marcus said. "It's very hard. We've tried many times. I'm sure we'll try a lot more times because maybe we can get it done again, but we finally got one win here."

Apex's driver, Dexter Dunn, knows the feeling.

He's had seven previous Hambletonian finalists before Apex finally took him to the winner's circle.

"It's unbelievable, just a great feeling, honestly," Dunn said. "I've had some chances. If a couple of those races had spanned out differently, we could've won before, but it's the Hambletonian and it's hard to win."

Asked if the feeling of finally breaking through was better than winning other stakes, Dunn was unequivocal.

"One hundred per cent," he said. "It's such a prestigious race. I used to watch it as a kid back in New Zealand. They'd show replays... on the trackside channel."

"This is the biggest thrill of my career."

In the process, Apex also redeemed both of his parents. His dam, Mission Brief, was the favorite in the 2015 Hambletonian only to suffer a narrow victory in Pinkman. Two years later, Apex's sire, Walner, likely would have been the Hambletonian favorite but was scratched due to injury and never raced again. What he did do is become a prolific sire – and now he has produced his first Hambletonian winner.

The woman that helped produce Apex, was justifiably emotional. When the win photo finally produced a winner, Cindy Stewart burst into tears. She and her husband, Steve, had also won their first Hambletonian – as owners.

In the stretch, Steve said Cindy, "just kept yelling, 'Stay up, stay up' because [Big Ranger] was just barrelling down on [Apex]. I asked Dexter in the winner's circle, 'When something like that happens, do you feel the horse?' He said, 'Oh yeah, you can feel him just like [saying] 'No, you're not.' [Apex] just found another gear and dug in."

On the way to the winner's circle, Cindy continued to cry.

"She was crying on the escalator on the way down," Steve said.

It was about an hour later and the couple were sitting at a window-side table in Pink, the track's restaurant appropriately named for how the Stewarts were feeling. Most of the other diners had already left and the sun was just the right height to illuminate Steve and Cindy's faces; not that it was necessary. They both were beaming.

Despite breeding three previous Hambletonian winners – Trixton in 2014, Forbidden Trade in 2019, and Tactical Approach in 2023 – there was something just different about owning a piece of Apex, whom they share with Jeffrey Snyder and Lennart Agren and Peter Weisberg's S R F Stable.

That the Stewarts also share in the breeding of Apex, with the rest of the seven-member Mission Brief Stable, made this one hard to beat.

"This one put it over the top," Cindy said, looking into Steve's eyes as he caught her gaze and smiled.

"It's our baby, our kid out there."

That kid is a product of two generations of mares that have called the Stewart's Hunterton Farms in Kentucky home.

It began when the Stewarts acquired Southwind Serena in 2009 and continued through her daughter, Mission Brief, who raced to acclaim for trainer Ron Burke and the Burke Brigade and then came home to Hunterton when she was sold upon retirement.

Apex is the fifth of Mission Brief's seven foals that have, collectively sold for $3.5 million. Apex, alone, sold for $525,000 at the 2024 Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling sale in Harrisburg, PA.

Snyder, who was also celebrating his first Hambletonian victory, was the driving force behind buying Apex.

"I happened to do the bidding," Snyder said. "The reason we picked him... is because Marcus trained a horse named Jaya Bae, who was a full sister and showed tremendous ability early and Mission Brief was a phenomenal mare, who raced in the Hambletonian, and that was it."

Considering Snyder has won just about everything there is to win on the pacing side of the sport – four Pepsi North America Cups, three Meadowlands Paces, three Jugs, three Breeders Crowns and two Metros – he was liking the view just fine from the top of the trotting mountain.

"It's the zenith or the apex," Snyder said. "[Apex is] aptly named. I'm just glad I have my family here. I've got great partners.

Among them, only S R F has tasted Hambletonian victory before – in 2021 with Captain Corey and 2017 with Perfect Spirit.

As for Marcus Melander, this was, finally, his day of days.

He not only won the Hambletonian, he also won the Grade 1 Hambletonian Oaks with Nezuko Kamado S – becoming just the fourth trainer to win the Hambletonian and Oaks in the same year – the John Cashman Memorial with last year's Hambletonian runner-up, Super Chapter, and the Vincennes with Bourbonista S.

Marcus had total earnings of $1,164,452 on Hambletonian Day. Of the 14 horses he had racing on Saturday, just two failed to crack the top five.

The trainer had finally crested the peak and the view was spectacular.

"I'm going to sleep well tonight," he said.

RACING INTO THE FUTURE

Will Kentucky Downs minimum bet increase set a new industry standard?

by Bob Duff

I've been around the track more than a few times during my 60+ years on this earth, and I've been to more than a few tracks.

And yes, I do like to bet on the horses. In the days of my youth, when I wasn't always flush with cash, it was always comforting to know that you could get some action on a race for as little as $2.

For as long as I can remember, $2 was the minimum bet at the track. I recall an episode of The Odd Couple (yes, I'm that old). Oscar Madison was betting on a race. His roommate, Felix Unger, also wanted to make a bet.

As a first-time bettor, all he was required to risk to feel the thrill of backing a horse was a measly $2. Oscar called the OTB and wagered $202 to win on the horse they were backing. Yes, he told the clerk on the other end of the phone, $202.

No, Felix protested. He wanted $1 to win, 75 cents to place, and 25 cents to show.

No, you couldn't do it that way. But you could get a win bet for a minimum outlay of $2. For as long as I can remember, just like the persistent paperboy in the 1980s John Cusack cult classic Better Off Dead, $2 was always the starting point.

Not anymore. At least not at Kentucky Downs.

When the thoroughbred track in Franklin, KY, launches its live meet of horse racing on Aug. 29, the minimum for win, place, and show betting will start at $5. That's a 150 per cent increase.

An across-the-board minimum bet on a race just jumped from $6 to $15. That's also a 250 per cent uptick in expenditure for a bettor. The late double and late exactor will also begin with $5 minimums.

At this juncture, we're left to wonder. Is this going to merely be an experiment, or a harbinger of the future of horse racing? Is the $2 minimum bet about to go the way of the phone booth, drive-in theatre, and fold-out map and steadily vanish from society?

KENTUCKY DOWNS HAS A HARNESS RACING CONNECTION

We know what you're saying. Kentucky Downs is a thoroughbred track. What does this have to do with harness racing?

That's a good question. And we've got a good answer.

In October 2023, the owners of Kentucky Downs opened Cumberland Run in Corbin, KY. It's a harness racing facility with a five-eighths mile track.

Cumberland Run's live meet for 2026 is slated to go, with race dates on Oct. 17, 18, 19, 20, 24, 25, 26, and 27, and Nov. 1, 2, 3, 8, 9, and 10.

If the $5 minimum win, place, and show bets are accepted at Kentucky Downs and go off without a hitch, why wouldn't the ownership group institute the same betting formula when Cumberland Run's race cards go postward?

A TRACK WITH AN INNOVATIVE HISTORY

Kentucky Downs is already a track that has made a major imprint on the salvation of the industry. In 2011, it was the first Kentucky track to offer the popular historical horse racing machines.

These machines, which look similar to slot machines, contain software that houses data from tens of thousands of actual past horse races. Players bet on the race into a pari-mutuel pool similar to how you would bet on live racing. The difference is, you don't see the names of anyone involved in the race — human or horse — until you make your bet.

Historical horse racing games have generated billions for Kentucky's horse racing industry. Some go as far as to suggest that these machines have saved the sport in the Bluegrass State.

When [Kentucky Downs] the thoroughbred track in Franklin, KY, launches its live meet of horse racing on Aug. 29, the minimum for win, place, and show betting will start at $5. KENTUCKY DOWNS IS NO SMALL PLAYER

The race meet might be short at Kentucky Downs. It runs for just seven days between Aug. 29 and Sept. 9. However, they pack a lot of action into that week of live racing.

The total purse for the seven race cards is $37 million. There are several graded stakes races, including two Breeders' Cup "win and you're in" races - the Kentucky Turf Sprint Stakes and Kentucky Turf Cup Invitational Stakes. Both are Grade 2 stakes events.

Those races are part of what's known as the U.S. Open Turf Championships, all held over Labor Day weekend. The highlight of the race card is the Nashville Derby. Featuring a $3 million purse, that's the second-highest purse for a thoroughbred horse race in the U.S.

There's always plenty of attention on these races. They will draw even more scrutiny this year, as everyone in the industry watches to see how bettors are reacting to the increase in minimum wagers.

It's not hyperbole to suggest that the week of racing at Kentucky Downs could have major implications for the future of the sport.

You can bet on that being the case, if you have $5 to spare.

ADVENTURES IN ILLINOIS

Hawthorne makes bizarre request

by Neil Milbert

Why is Hawthorne Race Course, a bankrupt Chicagoland track that has stopped racing and is being sold to a Delaware shell corporation that plans to convert the 119-acre property into a real estate development, applying for 2027 Illinois harness and thoroughbred dates?

This past week's request for Jan. 2-Dec. 26 dates for its Suburban Downs harness racing subsidiary and March 27-Oct. 31 thoroughbred dates is the latest bizarre episode involving Hawthorne, which will have no harness racing in 2026 and which ceased its abbreviated thoroughbred meeting almost four months ahead of schedule on July 19 with $1.3 million in unpaid purses for the final three programs.

The Illinois Racing Board will hold hearings and award dates on Sept. 19 but it seems as though the state's only remaining racetrack, Fairmount Park, the thoroughbred track and racino across the Mississippi River from St. Louis, is the only eligible entity.

"As of today, Hawthorne has a [2026] license so they can apply but I don't see how they can be awarded dates," said Tony Somone, executive director of the Illinois Harness Horsemen's Association (IHHA). "It seems they're waiting to partner up with someone to fix their problems."

Hawthorne filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy on Feb. 27. The track has at least 250 creditors and reportedly they are owed $138 million, although some estimates of the indebtedness are as high as $500 million.

The Delaware shell corporation, Allimac 23, was the only bidder when the Hawthorne auction was held in July and Judge Timothy Barnes of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court of Northern Illinois approved its $90 million offer.

Judge Barnes allowed the backstretch to remain open until Aug. 31 to enable the thoroughbreds remaining in the stable area to train and give the workers living on the backstretch time to relocate.

Closing is scheduled for early September.

"We have no idea how Hawthorne, which will formally lose possession of its track at the time of the closing, intends to host a race meet," said Chris Block, president of the Illinois Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association (ITHA), concurring with the IHHA's Somone. "We do not have any additional details to help explain the inexplicable."

Tim Carey, the president of family-owned Hawthorne, has not responded to numerous requests for comment.

THE LEADER IN ONLINE SALES.

In a statement Carey said: “We will continue to host inter-track wagering at our network of [11] betting bars and we will absolutely explore every available option to once again host racing.”

Based on the rules and regulations contained in the Illinois racing statute, the only way those things could happen in 2027 is if the sale to Allimac falls through at closing, bidding is reopened, and an entity that wants to continue racing wins and activates the dormant casino license Hawthorne was awarded by the Illinois Gaming Board in 2020.

The law prohibits a license being issued “to any person who does not at the time of application for the organization license own or have a contract or lease for the possession of a finished racetrack.”

“Maybe they’re thinking the closing may not take place,” Block speculated. “But, with that said, there’s no money to keep the track going.”

Another impediment is that Carey’s credibility appears suspect after announcing plans for a $40 million casino in 2020 and beginning the teardown of a portion of the grandstand, the project stalled. For five straight years Carey and his representatives at Racing Board meetings and dates hearings assured the board members he was “right on the cusp” of securing financing but it never came to fruition and last fall checks began bouncing.

Somone is skeptical of Carey’s ability to continue to host inter-track betting.

“Even the end of this year [after the closing] is a little bit debatable,” the IHHA executive director said. “That’s a maybe.”

“I would assume but don’t know for sure that every penny of profit [for Hawthorne] is going to go to the creditors. And if they don’t own the track, how can they get a license for the parlors next year?”

The racing community is hoping the Racing Board will clarify the situation when it meets on Aug. 19.

There have been published reports that Allimac 2023 wants to transform the track property into a data center but obstacles have emerged.

The trustees of Cicero, the south suburban Chicago community across the street from Hawthorne in Stickney, passed a resolution opposing development of a data center and last Tuesday officials in Stickney followed suit.

Whether or not this will impact the closing remains to be seen.

“I think it is a sabotage,” Funtime Bayama’s former caretaker testifies at Richard Moreau appeal hearing

by Melissa Keith

The Ontario Horse Racing Appeal Panel (HRAP) heard further statements in the ongoing appeal hearing of suspended trainer Richard Moreau on Thursday (Aug. 6). Two years have passed since the scratch of his last four horses entered at Woodbine Mohawk Park on July 23, 2024.

Counsel for the Appellant Jean-Marc MacKenzie asked HRAP chair Stanley Sadinsky to remind counsel for Yves and Sylvain Filion, as well as other witnesses, to abide by an exclusion order.

“We did make an order right at the outset of this hearing excluding witnesses, and that order applies to any witness who has given evidence ought not to discuss their evidence with anybody else who has not yet given evidence,” Sadinsky said. “Again, I have to rely on counsel to ensure that their witnesses comply with that particular direction.”

First witness Bradley Capes introduced himself as a horse racing inspector since 2016, when the Ontario Racing Commission (ORC) amalgamated with the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario (AGCO). He told Robert MacKenzie, Counsel for the Appellant, that on June 21, 2024, he was instructed by the AGCO to perform out-of-competition testing on horses trained by Moreau and inspect his farm.

“So, myself and [AGCO] inspector [Brian] Sharp and [AGCO veterinarian] Dr. [Pam] Chesterfield attended the property,” said Capes, adding that they tested “around 22 horses,” Funtime Bayama among them.

Capes said that he, Sharp, and Detective Sergeant Matt Noble of the Ontario Provincial Police interviewed people connected with Funtime Bayama, who had been found to have had the prohibited drug DPO (darbepoetin alfa) in his system on June 10, 2024. The gelding finished third in the June 15 North America Cup final at Mohawk, but was disqualified and placed last on June 24, 2024.

always gets back to you when you try to contact him, or if you’re looking for a specific horse and it may have gone out, he’ll tell you exactly where it went to. We’ve even tested needle tips and stuff that were [on the farm] and nothing nefarious [came] back.”

Capes stated that he had interviewed Moreau and driver Sylvain Filion at the time, as well as Andrew Harris, Funtime Bayama's current trainer, but was unable to reach Yves or Justin Filion, Sylvain's father and brother. Funtime Bayama was owned by Yves Filion's Bayama Farms of Saint-André-d'Argenteuil, QC, until June 20, 2024.

"Justin [Filion] never made contact with us whatsoever and was subsequently suspended because of non-compliance by the racing officials," Capes said. "Yves Filion had medical issues which he was going through, so we had to wait until his legal representative contacted us to let us know when his availability was, but that never came to fruition."

He noted that Yves' racing license was canceled in Nov. 6, 2024; Justin was suspended in August 2024 for failing to respond to AGCO racing officials' repeated attempts to make contact.

Robert MacKenzie asked Capes about other EPO (erythropoietin) and DPO cases he had investigated.

"Trainer Mike Brealey, he was one of the first ones with EPO at the AGCO, and I believe he got 10 years and $40,000 was the penalty," Capes said. "Then Ron Adams was another trainer that was associated [with] EPO, and he was [penalized with] 15 years out of the business and [fined] $60,000. The last one was Jacques Primeau... I don't know the number of years, but I believe [the fine] was close to $90,000."

Robert MacKenzie asked the AGCO inspector about testing protocols and whether his visits to Moreau's stable had been problematic.

"[Moreau] always gets back to you when you try to contact him, or if you're looking for a specific horse and it may have gone out, he'll tell you exactly where it went to," Capes said. "We've even tested needle tips and stuff that were [on the farm] and nothing nefarious [came] back."

Capes recalled that when he had been at Moreau's farm to conduct out-of-competition testing on June 24, 2024, "we asked if Funtime Bayama was there, because I had heard that the horse was claimed or bought and it was shipping out. It was just by luck that Funtime Bayama was there before it shipped out in the morning." There was "nothing unusual" detected in the 22 horses tested that day.

Robert MacKenzie asked about the location of Funtime Bayama's stall.

"Even though there is camera coverage for the whole barn, it's not the best visibility," Capes said. "There was nothing that was brought up or found in evidence [about] why the horse would be in there."

The inspector testified that Andrew Harris was the first person he interviewed about Funtime Bayama.

“I think it is a sabotage. And if it's one, it's internal... It is a sabotage, but done by them [Yves, Justin, and Sylvain Filion].”
— Steve Labonte

“[Harris] was up at the North America Cup that year, watched the horse [Funtime Bayama], wanted it, so he bought it,” Capes said. “Talking with Andrew, he was pretty good with us. He was pretty angry in regards to the outcome... Mr. Harris just said at the time that he didn't have a relationship with Richard, and he didn't even talk to Richard once about the horse itself, which is odd to me... Most of the conversation went through Sylvain Filion.” Funtime Bayama left Moreau's farm on June 24, 2024.

“[Harris] raced it a couple of times down in New Jersey, and the horse performed pretty poorly,” Capes said. “When he found out about the DPO... he said he was pretty angry in regards to what had happened. The only other thing that kind of stuck out in that conversation with him was [that] if he had heard... any inklings... prior to the North America Cup, he wouldn't have even bothered looking at the horse, knowing that it was being injected with DPO.”

Capes said that when he interviewed Sylvain Filion on Aug. 7, 2024, the driver did not give much detail because “he had a very quiet demeanor” and seemed “shocked in regards to the DPO positive.” Robert MacKenzie questioned Capes about horse ownership transfers from Bayama Farms to Les Ecuries S. Filion Inc. of Milton, ON in 2024. Capes said the timeframe “raised some red flags” with him.

Funtime Bayama's caretaker Steve Labonte appeared as a witness on Moreau's behalf, telling the panel that he had worked for the trainer intermittently between 2010-24. He testified that the farm was an excellent place to work, with strong security measures in place.

“Richard was really strict [about medications],” Labonte said. “It was not allowed to have a medication that had a cut-off time... He told us [grooms], ‘Don't ask the vet; I don't want anything with a cut-off time.’” Labonte added that medications with elimination times were locked in Moreau's office and administered solely under the trainer's watch.

Jean-Marc MacKenzie asked Labonte about the Filion family's influence on Funtime Bayama's care.

"On a daily basis, Sylvain was giving me the orders for this horse," he replied. "Yves dropped the horse off when [Funtime Bayama] first came from his farm in Quebec... He [chose] the stall that he wanted to... I thought it was weird, because he wanted that stall for some reason, I don't know why."

Labonte testified that the Filions called to tell him what to do with Funtime Bayama.

"I texted Sylvain and I said, 'Listen, I don't need your dad, your brother, and you [phoning]... Pick one,'" Labonte said.

After that, Labonte said communication consisted of texting with Sylvain, who would regularly show up to work "hands-on" with Funtime Bayama at Moreau's farm. He stated that he was asked by Sylvain to add Justin Filion's name to the list of people allowed to look after Funtime Bayama in the Mohawk retention barn. Labonte said that he later told Justin, "We don't need that many people around" the "nervous" gelding in the Mohawk paddock.

"What was the order of giving direction over that horse?" asked Jean-Marc MacKenzie.

"It was all coming from Yves, because every day, after Sylvain jogged... or trained the horse, he was going outside and calling," Labonte said. "I'm pretty sure he was calling dad. Every time.

Every single time. After the vet worked on the horse, [Sylvain would] take his phone, go outside, talk."

When Funtime Bayama was sold, Labonte said he was "caught off guard a little bit," because he had already been sent the gelding's stakes schedule, which included the 2024 Meadowlands Pace and Breeders Crown.

"As soon as the horse left [Moreau's farm], they stopped coming," he said.

The limited number of people with the passcode to the farm gate convinced Funtime Bayama's then-caretaker that the pacer's DPO positive could only be attributed to the Filions.

"I think it is a sabotage," said Labonte. "And if it's one, it's internal... It is a sabotage, but done by them."

A private investigator who looked into the circumstances leading up to the horse's 2024 DPO positive took to the stand on Aug. 6. His testimony will appear in an upcoming column, ahead of the next scheduled date for the hearing on Aug. 31.

Funtime Bayama recently took a new lifetime mark of 1:48.4 in the July 27 Red Mile open handicap, his third seasonal victory for trainer Harris and owners Punisher 11 Stable LLC of Freehold, NJ.

SUPERSTAR FEMALES OF HARNESS RACING

with VICTORIA M. HOWARD

Monica Banca is living her dream

by Victoria Howard

Monica Banca was born in Norway, “the land of the midnight sun,” a place that is far away from where she resides today – New York.

Harness racing is quite popular in Norway and is governed by the Norwegian Trotting Association, including both trotting and galloping races.

Throughout the years, horse racing in Norway has evolved with the establishment of dedicated racetracks and breeding programs. The country has produced several renowned harness trainers and drivers, notably Gunnar Eggen, a prominent Norwegian harness racing trainer/driver, who dominated the sport during the late 20th century.

And there’s Trygve Diskerud, a Norwegian trainer who was widely regarded as one of the most influential figures in Norwegian trotting. His career spanned several decades before he hung his colors up.

Several racehorses in Norway were Spikeld and Rex Rodney who achieved significant success in the sport. Spikeld (1993-2017) was a Norwegian trotting horse, trained by Kjell Hakonsen, that set a best time for a 7-year-old with a kilometer time of 1:18.6. Rex Rodney was a celebrated Norwegian trotter known for his remarkable racing career, dominating tracks from 1983 to 1991, including the prestigious Elitlopp in Sweden in 1986.

Although Banca’s family was not involved in the sport, her father, Tor Eriksen was very good friends with a standardbred horse trainer/driver in Norway.

Banca was enamored with the athletic animal and decided to pursue a career working with horses. She first got a job working for trainer Jomar Blekkan who taught the young girl the ropes and an opportunity to learn all about standardbreds.

“Jomar taught me a lot and trusted me, giving a young girl a lot of opportunities,” she said. “I owe him a lot for he was a major factor in my pursuing a career in the sport.”

In 1991 Banca relocated to the States and got a job with renowned trainer Trond Smedshammer, a fellow Norwegian.

Smedshammer is certainly no stranger to harness racing. He was born in Gjovik, Norway, a place known for its rich equestrian culture and moved to the United States in the early 1990s. It didn't take the young Norwegian to make a big name for himself as he has won both the Hambletonian and Hambletonian Oaks---one of only 12 trainers to accomplish that feat.

Monica worked for Smedshammer for four years and then worked for trainer Thomas Maibashka and Robert Silverman, among others.

"When I worked for Trond, he taught me so much," Banca said. "He is very knowledgeable, a great teacher and a very nice man.

"Eventually, I got married and had two children, Emily and Richard. In 2020, COVID hit and the world pretty much came to a halt, hindering our sport as well as everything else."

In 2021 Banca decided to take a chance and went all in and started her own stable.

"From the years 2013 through 2023, I was active driving in the amateur races," she said. "Presently, I have my own stable of five horses and I race mainly in Monticello. Four of them are owned by me and the fifth is owned by my daughter.

"My favorite and fastest horse is American Primetime. From 2014 through 2019 I took care of him and traveled around the country. He was a great horse who earned almost $900,000 and took a lifetime mark of 1:49."

Banca said she has great respect for other women in this sport with one name especially standing out to her.

"It would have to be Lauren Trittton," Banca said. "She is tough, fearless, and just an amazing horsewoman who throws herself all in to compete against the top drivers in the business."

Banca said she understands that our sport is not just about happy times, especially when you consider the recent devastating barn fire at Saratoga.

"There are a lot of barns that are old and in desperate need of rebuilding or modified," she said. "Every barn at every track should have fire alarms, fire extinguishers, and stricter enforcement of no smoking in the barns.

"These horses are our family and to many of us they are our livelihood. We need to protect them the best we can and be their voice because they cannot speak on their own."

As for Banca's plans for the future, she said, "I was raised that working hard and doing the right thing will pay off and I still believe that. I taught my daughter the same thing. I do everything on my own as I am the trainer, [sometimes driver], groom, and owner.

"I have been living my dream ever since then and am thankful for every minute. I mean, how many people get to do what they love every day, work with horses, and make a living?"

Subjects needed for longshot experiment

by Trey Nosrac

Trey is a big advocate of trying new experiments and writing about what happens when those experiments are put into action. It isn't always pretty, but it's always pretty interesting. Of course, there is a thin line between a controlled scientific experiment and hopping off a barstool and bellowing, "Let's do this!"

Trey is considering a new, rigorously controlled, documented experiment. The plan is to participate in the ownership of a yearling trotting horse. Lest you say that this is not new, I would disagree for two reasons.

1 - Every yearling is a new experiment.

2 - A dozen newbies will be included in this dance through our beloved sport.

The plan hinges on finding a dozen people who do not know the difference between a smooth-gaited trotter and a leaping serval. Optimally, the subjects will be naturally curious, not litigious, have a good sense of the absurd, and reside in locations that do not have a harness racing footprint, such as Alaska, Idaho, Montana, Hawaii, or Tahiti.

The only requirement for these participants is an email address where I can forward email HRU columns on the first Sunday of each month. The only thing these dozen people pay is attention (hopefully). No names, no money, no contracts, no nada. Serious efforts will be made so that you will not know me, and I will not know you.

Why would Thelma from Tahiti or Mike from Montana want to receive monthly copies of a column about a sport she probably never heard of? Trey's answer, as it is far too often, would be - why not?

Imagine that Thelma at tikibar@.edu.com is a member of the mailing list. For a minor investment of time, she will learn about a baby horse, where it came from, why it was purchased, what the purchasers' dreams are, how a trotter spends the first eight months of a racing career, and all the strange twists and turns that make our sport, in our minds, so engaging.

The monthly presentations will be light-hearted and whimsical. The horse will be real.

A small carrot will be put before the cart. At the end of the two-year-old racing season (around October, 2027), should the young horse have earned money, each of the dozen travelers on the internet journey will share five percent of the net profits as a participation stipend.

If my math is correct, if the trotter clears fifty thousand dollars after my expenses, each of you will receive a couple of hundred bucks in gift cards. Do not rely on any income from this horse. With Trey involved, the probabilities of earning money on this yet-to-be-selected yearling are about the same as a meteorite landing in your backyard barbecue pit. But our sport is built on such dreams.

There are methods and motives for this madness.

HRU will increase circulation by at least twelve subscribers.

Fresh, perhaps, young blood may be injected into our sport.

I will prove that geography is no longer a barrier to participating in our sport.

Thelma might become the most knowledgeable person in town when it comes to harness racing.

Most of all, we might have some fun.

I have created a temporary email account - TrottingDozen12@yahoo.com.

Now, a request. Search your memory banks. Consider the parameters of this experiment. Consider distant friends whom you have never infected with harness horse fever. Forward this column. If they are interested, they can send their email address (or, like me, create a separate, new email account to retain immunity and plausible deniability).

Optional for applicants is a two-sentence bio and location. It would be fun to find people from interesting geographic corners. Should I harvest a dozen potential followers, they will be notified.

It was hard to believe otherwise after watching the 10-year-old star capture the $120,000 Jämtlands Stora Pris at Östersund on Saturday (Aug. 8).

His rivals certainly didn't hand him anything early. Fredrik Plassen, driving Global Concept for trainer Jörgen Westholm, was reluctant to surrender the lead to the heavy favorite around the first turn. Eventually, however, Örjan Kihlström worked Don Fanucci Zet to the front following a sharp :26.4 opening quarter.

Global Concept made a break shortly after being passed, allowing Global Etalon (Brillantissime) to inherit the pocket.

From there, Kihlström was able to take the sting out of the pace. Don Fanucci Zet reached the 1,200-meter mark in a comfortable 1:27, giving the leader a valuable breather before the serious racing began.

Behind him, Daniel Wäjersten with Kuiper and Mats E. Djuse with Dream Mine engaged in a tactical waiting game. Eventually, Kuiper was sent forward first-over, while Dream Mine launched a three-wide attack down the backstretch and quickly moved into contention approaching the final turn.

His challenge soon flattened out.

Instead, the danger came from the pocket. Global Etalon found room at the top of the stretch and, for a brief moment, appeared capable of making a race of it.

It was an illusion.

Kihlström still had the ear plugs to pull, and once he did, Don Fanucci Zet found another gear. The son of Hard Livin accelerated away again and won comfortably in a 1:54 mile rate for 2,140 meters.

"He's just unreal," Kihlström said. "He's such an incredible horse. And today he was actually more fired up than usual. He felt terrific throughout. The opening was tough because the horse inside us didn't want to take a seat behind Don Fanucci Zet, so we had to go pretty fast early. Of course, you start thinking about that when Dream Mine is sitting back there waiting to attack, but today there was never really any danger."

Global Etalon held second, while Kuiper (Face Time Bourbon) turned in a game first-over performance to finish third.

IDAO DE TILLARD SETS TRACK RECORD AT ARGENTAN

Idao de Tillard added another major victory to his résumé on Saturday (Aug. 8), capturing the $125,000 Critérium de Vitesse de Basse-Normandie at Argentan in a track- and stakes-record 1:51.1 for the mile.

For trainer Thierry Duvaldestin, the victory came close to home. His training center in La Ferté-Fresnel is located approximately 45 kilometers from Argentan, making the Normandy oval something of a home track for the Duvaldestin stable.

The previous record belonged to Hohneck, who recorded a 1:09.2 kilometer rate in winning the race last year.

Idao de Tillard (Severino) was expected to control the event, although getting to the front proved more complicated than anticipated.

Inmarosa left quickly, forcing Clément Duvaldestin to take his time before eventually moving Idao de Tillard to the lead. Once there, the star trotter didn't always appear completely comfortable hugging the inside on Argentan's right-handed oval. At times, he carried his head outward, a tendency he has also displayed in the opposite direction during races at Vincennes.

Still, there was never any serious cause for concern.

Idao de Tillard remained in control throughout the stretch and safely held Jingle du Pont (Niky) and Ideal Lignerles (Repeat Love) at bay.

"I couldn't see the entire race from where I was standing, but I thought the horse looked very good without having to exert himself too much," Thierry Duvaldestin said. "It seemed like a comfortable race for him, and we all know how fast this horse can go. We raced him with shoes today because it was a right-handed track. He raced this direction earlier in his career, so there was no reason to think it would be a problem. Still, I told Clément to take it easy around the first turn, which is why it took a little while to reach the lead."

Despite his proximity to Argentan, the victory marked Duvaldestin's first in the historic event.

"It's a great feeling," he said. "When I was younger, I used to come here specifically to watch this race, and not that many years ago I watched Love You win it. So many great horses have won this race. It has a wonderful history, and that makes winning it very special."

Apex (3, Dexter Dunn) edges Big Ranger (4, Tim Tetrick) by a nose in the 101st Hambletonian on Saturday at The Meadowlands.

Apex a nose best in record-setting Hambletonian

Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Apex captured the $1 million Grade 1 Winning Key Farm Hambletonian Stakes, for 3-year-old trotters, on Saturday (Aug. 8) at The Meadowlands, holding off favorite Big Ranger by a nose in a stakes-record 1:49.2.

Minoan finished third, 4¼ lengths behind the top two finishers.

Apex's effort gave trainer Marcus Melander and driver Dexter Dunn their first Hambletonian wins. Melander had finished second in America's Trotting Classic four times, including three of the past four years.

Two races prior to the Hambletonian, Melander-trained Nezuko Kamado S won the filly companion race, the Hambletonian Oaks, by a neck over Carve. Melander became the fourth trainer in history to win the Hambletonian and Oaks in the same year, joining Jimmy Takter (twice), Jim Campbell, and Jan Johnson.

Dunn became the first driver since Mike Lachance in 2003 to win the Meadowlands Pace (in July with Brandon Blvd) and the Hambletonian in the same year.

In the Hambletonian, Big Ranger went to the front on the first turn, but Dunn kept Apex in motion and led that rival by a parked-out nose as he reached the opening quarter in :26.4. Apex was a length in front at the half in :54.3 and at three-quarters in 1:22.4, but Tim Tetrick was charging first-over with Big Ranger and the two were separated by a nose in the stretch, setting up their toe-to-toe fight to the finish.

Following a lengthy photo-finish review, Apex's No. 3 lit the top spot on the tote board. In addition to a stakes record, the final time of 1:49.2 set the track record for a 3-year-old trotter and was only one-fifth-of-a-second off the world record.

"Thank God we got there," Melander said. "It was tight. He has the will to win, and he put his nose first.

"I didn't think he held on, but he's a big fighter. He fights all the way to the finish line."

Apex's trainer Marcus Melander and daughter Hailey.

Dunn also was uncertain about the outcome after crossing the finish line.

"I was probably 5 per cent that I'd won and 95 that I got beat," he said. "It's amazing. The feelings that ran through me when I was told I won it; there's no better feeling. I watched this race when I was a kid back in New Zealand, and to be here and win it, it's incredible.

"He's so strong, this horse, and I had full confidence in him. He was pretty racy today. It was two great horses coming up the straight there. That was one hell of a battle."

Added Melander, "I was very confident in the horse. He had a good week and he warmed up good. I didn't know how the race was going to play out, but he's a very strong horse, and he'll fight. He's both strong and fast. But his strength is his big thing; his heart, his lungs and the will to win. He has everything a champion horse needs. He's definitely a champion."

Apex, the 2025 Dan Patch Award winner for best 2-year-old male trotter, has won 10 of 14 career races and earned $1.61 million for owners Jeff Snyder, S R F Stable, and Steve Stewart. The son of Walner, out of Mission Brief (who was second in the 2015 Hambletonian), was bred by Mission Brief Stable, a group that also includes Stewart.

"We bred Mission Brief, so we've had the family," Stewart said. "It's been a great ride, for sure. But the best thing is, partners like these [Apex] guys and the ones we have with Mission Brief, that means the world to us."

Snyder has won many of the sport's premier races, but this was his first Hambletonian.

"It's a very special moment," Snyder said. "This is the apex of our career, our life, of the horses we've raced. It's just amazing. He was super. All credit goes to Marcus Melander, Dexter Dunn, and the entire Melander team.

"We thought Apex was the winner, by a long nose. We were watching it from the finish line, and I thought that he had it.

Dunn hits unique double, Hambletonian Day handle $6,159,511

By Dave Little / Meadowlands media relations

Dexter Dunn became the first driver to win both the Meadowlands Pace and Hambletonian for the first time in the same year since Jack Moiseyev turned the trick in 1991 with Precious Bunny (Pace) and Giant Victory (Hambletonian)... A driver murderers' row of Tim Tetrick, Yannick Gingras, Dunn and James MacDonald tied atop the driver leaderboard with three wins apiece... Marcus Melander topped the trainers with four walks down victory lane... All-source wagering on the 16-race program totaled $6,159,511, a 2026 track and industry best... Nezuko Kamado S controls, wins 56th Hambletonian Oaks

by Ray Cotolo / Meadowlands media relations

A slick move through slow early fractions by driver Yannick Gingras to loop Nezuko Kamado S to the lead placed her at a strong tactical advantage to grit a last-ditch blitz by pocket-pouncing Carve and win the $500,000 Winning Key Farm Hambletonian Oaks in 1:51.4 on Saturday (Aug. 8) at The Meadowlands.

Nezuko Kamado S, the 4-5 favorite with Gingras substituting for injured driver Scott Zeron, eased out of post 2 into fourth as Carve motored from the center of the gate by pylon-starter Busy Miss Lissy S to take the lead. But after the first quarter clicked in just :28.2, Gingras floated Nezuko Kamado S off the pylons and lifted for the lead in the backstretch. She cleared Driver Yannick Gingras (left) hugs driver Scott Zeron. Gingras replaced Zeron on Nezuko Kamado S after Zeron suffered an injury in a racing accident at Yonkers.

"I really didn't want to be on the lead," Gingras said after the race. "I thought there would be a lot of speed from the outside, and I was surprised when the gate opened up [that] we weren't going much. I knew at that point, the middle of the first turn, that I was going to move to the lead, and it was a winning move. I knew in the last turn I had the horse to beat on my back. It was a matter of not going too fast and halfway down the stretch I let mine loose a little bit, and almost got loose a little too early because Andy's filly really quickened and gave me a run down the lane."

A filly by Chapter Seven out of the Muscle Hill mare Zefira Kronos IT, Nezuko Kamado S won her fifth race from six starts this season and her 11th race from 17 starts in her career, entering millionaire status with $1,052,969 in the bank for owner/breeder Courant Inc.

"It's fantastic [to win]," said Anders Ström of Courant Inc. "It's a homebred, great horse, great work by the trainer Marcus Melander and all his team, but it felt especially good to see Scott Zeron in the winner's circle with us today."

Ström, who also thanked Gingras for catching the drive after Nezuko Kamado S' regular pilot Scott Zeron was injured in a spill on Thursday night (Aug. 6) at Yonkers Raceway, said he left the decision for the driver change to trainer Marcus Melander.

"Scott took care of this filly all year," Melander said. "I feel very bad that he couldn't drive today. I'm very thankful Yannick could step in and do such good work, but I do want to say a big thank you to Scott as well. Without him, we wouldn't be here. We had three good horses coming into the race here, so of course you Gingras said, "I couldn't say yes fast enough, unfortunately that's not how you want to get a drive, but no doubt it was an easy decision. All the credit goes to Scotty [Zeron]. It's two years that he's been working on this filly for a day like today. It's bittersweet — I'm happy to pick up the drive and win the race — but the win is his. Sweet Lovin Lou (Tim Tetrick) winning the Grade 2 Cane Pace on Saturday at The Meadowlands.

Sweet Lovin Lou lunges for Cane Pace upset

by Ray Coto / Meadowlands media relations

Longshot Sweet Lovin Lou disrupted a three-prong stretch sprint of the betting favorites with a bold brush over the top to win the $310,750 Grade 2 Cane Pace, for pacing 3-year-olds, in a lifetime-best 1:47.3 effort on Saturday (Aug. 8) at The Meadowlands.

With Tim Tetrick picking up the drive for sidelined Scott Zeron, Sweet Lovin Lou took back from post 4 to race last in the quintet while an early scuffle ensued through a :27.1 first quarter. Meadowlands Pace champ Brandon Blvd, sent off as the 3-5 favorite, pushed forward but yielded to outside pursuers Odds On Mr Mamba and Gentleman's Club, with the latter sweeping to the top in the backstretch.

Gentleman's Club cut a :54.1 half with the field single-file and readied for attacks in the last turn. Odds On Mr Mamba loomed out of the pocket with Brandon Blvd carried three wide by three-quarters in 1:21.1 all while Tetrick gathered the strongest momentum with Sweet Lovin Lou from the back. By the eighth pole, Sweet Lovin Lou reached his best stride and barreled by a game Gentleman's Club to win by three-quarters-of-a-length with Brandon Blvd settling for third and Odds On Mr Mamba back in fourth.

"I've watched him go and he can sprint fast," Tetrick said after the race. "I was a little worried at the quarter when they only went [:]27.1 but then they started mixing it up. I still felt pretty confident going into the last turn and this horse really flew through the stretch. He also collected his fifth win from 18 starts in his career, pushing his earnings to $463,812. Sent off as the second longest shot in the betting, Sweet Lovin Lou paid $30.60 to win.

Super Chapter digs in to win Cashman Memorial

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Super Chapter and Lexus Kody hooked up in a stride-for-stride duel down the stretch of Saturday's (Aug. 8) $281,200 John Cashman Memorial, with Super Chapter getting his head in front in the final strides to win the Grade 1 event for older trotters in 1:50.1 at The Meadowlands.

Up Your Deo finished third, 2¾ lengths behind Super Chapter.

Hillexotic took the lead on the first turn, but driver Yannick Gingras pushed forward with Lexus Kody to take command at the :27.3 opening quarter. The field remained lined up behind the leader, with Hillexotic second and Super Chapter third, on the way to the half in :55.1. Driver Dexter Dunn bided his time until the final turn before making a charge with Super Chapter, drawing alongside Lexus Kody at three-quarters in 1:23.

From there, the two Dan Patch Award winners locked up in an epic battle before Super Chapter's late surge provided his winning margin over the 2025 Trotter of Year.

"I thought about moving to the front after the quarter, but Lexus Kody came on pretty good and I thought it was a battle we didn't need to get in to," Dunn said. "Once I moved in the last turn, [Super Chapter] moved with authority."

“That’s what makes this horse such a champion, you can do whatever you want. He’s just so classy; he’s one of my favorite horses to sit behind. He’s an absolute dude.”

Super Chapter, who was a divisional Dan Patch Award winner at 3 last year, has won 17 of 30 career races and hit the board an additional 10 times for trainer Marcus Melander. The son of Chapter Seven—Lifetime Pursuit, bred by Hanover Shoe Farms, has earned $2.08 million lifetime. He is owned by Jeffrey Snyder, Arthur Pronti, and Hanover Shoe Farms.

“It’s great to have him back as a 4-year-old,” Dunn said. “I was pretty happy when they said they were bringing him back. He never puts in a bad performance. You can always count on him.”

Super Chapter has three wins and two seconds in five races this year. His previous four starts all came against 4-year-olds.

“This is the first time he’s raced against older horses, and he came through for us,” Snyder said. “He’s been a very special horse from day one. We’re excited.”

Sent off as the 4-5 favorite, Super Chapter paid $3.60 to win.

Walspea (Yannick Gingras) winning the Grade 2 Dr. John R. Steele Memorial on Saturday at The Meadowlands.

Walspea rides pocket to G2 Steele Memorial triumph

by James Witherite / Meadowlands media relations

After falling just short of Yo Tillie in a Miss Versatility leg last week, Walspea found enough to strike the front in deep stretch and also evade a pair of late pursuers en route to a lifetime-best 1:50.3 score in Saturday's (Aug. 8) Grade 2 $183,650 Dr. John R. Steele Memorial, for trotting mares, at The Meadowlands.

Sent off the 7-5 favorite, Walspea and driver Yannick Gingras cleared early leader Woman Of Passion (driven by James MacDonald) at the end of a :27.1 first quarter, only to yield control to 2-1 second choice Yo Tillie upon reaching the backstretch. The 4-year-old Walner—Speak To Me mare drafted behind middle splits of :55.2 and 1:23 but found herself briefly boxed in as Lasting Dream (Daniel Dubé) mounted a mild first-over bid out of fourth through the far turn.

Lasting Dream made a brief push for second but leveled off cornering for home, enabling Gingras to find room to angle Walspea wide in the upper stretch. Once Gingras fed her racetrack, the Trond Smedshammer trainee switched gears, engulfed Yo Tillie with a sixteenth to go, and had enough left late to evade an inside sprint from runner-up Tactical Moni (Dexter Dunn) by a neck. Woman Of Passion hooked to the grandstand side in mid-stretch from her 3-hole ride to save third over Yo Tillie, who finished a beaten fourth.

"She matured mentally from 2 to 3," said Smedshammer of Walspea's development. "She's always shown tremendous speed, but she was hot and moody. Last year, she was better [than in her 2-year-old year]; she almost got it done in the [Hambletonian] Oaks with me driving. She's just been better this year. We maybe aimed a little high against the boys – against Super Chapter and those horses [in the Graduate Series] – but today, against the mares, she was really competitive."

Timed in 1:48.3 in defeat to On To Norway and Super Chapter in the Graduate final on July 4, Walspea took two and two-fifths-of-a-second off her previous lifetime mark with her victory in the Steele. Now a nine-time winner, Walspea has earned $441,299 in her career for Purple Haze Stables and M3 Racing Stable, and she paid $4.80 to win.

Women Layer, Captain Albano win G2 McKee splits

by James Witherite / Meadowlands media relations

Women Layer ground out a first-over ascent and sprang a 17-1 upset with his 1:48.2 score in the $138,650 first division of the Grade 2 Sam McKee Memorial on Saturday (Aug. 8) at The Meadowlands while Captain Albano fought off a bevy of late pursuers for a 1:48.3 victory in the $139,900 second section of the annual event for open pacers.

Women Layer, a four-time winner this year in open company at Eldorado Scioto Downs, let the dust settle early from post 2 in line to David Miller. The pair sat third through a :26.4 quarter before commencing their first-over bid as 9-5 second choice Captain Optimistic (driven by Andy McCarthy), who retook up the backstretch before briefly yielding control to 7-5 favorite Lou Hill (Yannick Gingras), pulled the half back to :55.

"It was a bit of a chance moving him first-up that early, but he felt strong on the line," said Miller. "And when I asked him in the stretch, he took right off."

Women Layer picked up the pace on the far turn and ground forward to force Captain Optimistic to quicken to three-quarters in 1:21.4 before seizing the lead at the eighth pole. After putting away Captain Optimistic, Women Layer used :26.2 stretch speed to evade a host of high-priced late pursuers, prevailing by a diminishing head in a blanket photo finish. Captain Moore A (Todd McCarthy), off at 45-1, hooked four-wide out of midfield and rallied for second; Surreal Ideal (Mike Wilder), off at 47-1, closed belatedly from last to just nab Ken Hanover (Tim Tetrick) for third, missing by just a half-length.

Virgil Morgan, Jr. trains Women Layer, now a 30-time winner with $967,261 in career earnings, for the partnership of Let It Ride Stables, Jeff Fought Racing, Larry Wills, and Jesmeral Stable. Off the fourth choice in the eight-horse field, 5-year-old Sweet Lou—Loreenas Ruffian gelding paid $37.80 to win.

In the second division, Captain Albano and James MacDonald floated forward from post 8 and were parked from midfield on the first turn as For Once Inmy Life (Jordan Stratton) slingshotted clear of Catalpa Rescue A (Matt Kakaley) to control a :26 first quarter. Captain Albano braved the breeze and advanced gradually to clear command midway up the backstretch, but was stung to a :54.1 half before facing a stern first-over test from 3-1 favorite and fellow double millionaire Bythemissal (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) through the far turn.

After being pressed to three-quarters in 1:21.4, Captain Albano dug deeper through the final furlong, driven out to withstand a swarm of challengers across the track and prevail by a neck. Prince Hal Hanover (Todd McCarthy) lifted four-wide to narrowly nab Bythemissal for second.

“Any time you get to sit behind a double millionaire on Hambo Day, it’s pretty special,” said MacDonald, who drove Captain Albano for trainer Noel Daley and the partnership of Patricia Stables, LA Express Stable, Sjoebloom Racing, and Michael Dolan. “It’s great to get the job done.

“Halfway down the lane, when one looked him in the eye, that’s when you see greatness. Maybe he’s not as great as he was earlier in the year, but he’s all class and found a way to get it done today.”

Now a 30-time winner, Captain Albano, a 5-year-old Captaintreacherous—Angelou entire, has earned $2,571,760 in his career. He paid $12.20 to win as the 5-1 fourth choice.

The Chris Ryder tandem of Twin B Joe Fresh and Miki And Minnie renewed their rivalry in the stretch of the $156,500 Grade 2 Lady Liberty on Saturday (Aug. 8) at The Meadowlands with Miki And Minnie scoring the winning blow in a 1:48 mile.

Twin B Joe Fresh, a two-time Dan Patch Award winner, shot out of post 7 to control the pace, followed to the :27.4 first quarter by Unreasonable, Miki And Minnie – last year's Dan Patch 3-Year-Old Pacing Filly champ – and the other five parading to a :54.2 half. The only movement in the backstretch came when driver James MacDonald initiated his attack off the pylons with Miki And Minnie, aiming at her stablemate as she scorched towards three-quarters in 1:21.3.

Miki And Minnie chased Twin B Joe Fresh with purpose in a gutsy stretch battle.

"I've never seen Miki And Minnie give up," trainer Chris Ryder said about Miki And Minnie after the race. "I never count her out. She was down about 2½ lengths not far into the stretch [from Twin B Joe Fresh] but it did not surprise me she made it."

In the :26.2 final quarter, Miki And Minnie tucked to draft behind her stablemate before laying a final siege in the closing eighth-of-a-mile. She smoothly surged by and put away Twin B Joe Fresh for a half-length win with Louies Girl N finishing third and Rodeo Drive Deo fourth.

"I'm just pleased to see them go the races they're supposed to go," Ryder said about his mares finishing first and second. "From week to week, you can get a little nervous when they're going to the gate just to make sure they perform, but I'm delighted with both of them."

Ryder also said the pair will be heading north for the Milton Stakes at Woodbine Mohawk Park in a few weeks.

Miki And Minnie, a double-millionaire homebred 4-year-old by Always B Miki out of the Roll With Joe mare That's The Ticket, competes for owners Craig Henderson, Robert Mondillo, and Lawrence Minowitz. Miki And Minnie boosted her bankroll to $2,329,227 in her 25th win from 34 starts while collecting her sixth win from eight starts this season. Sent the slight favorite over Twin B Joe Fresh, she paid $4.20 to win.

Sangria Summer surprises in Shady Daisy

by Ray Coto / Meadowlands media relations

Canadian invader Sangria Summer swooped onto the scene late from a prime stalking trip to foil hard-strung odds-on favorite Be Perfect BG and win the $123,200 Grade 3 Shady Daisy, for 3-year-old pacing fillies, in the final strides of a 1:48.1 mile on Saturday (Aug. 8) at The Meadowlands.

Leaving from post 7, driver James MacDonald pushed Sangria Summer forward and found a seat in third as Darlin's Angel motored from the pylon post for the lead into a :26 first quarter. Be Perfect BG floated away fifth but decided to press forward up the rim and steadily marched to take the lead from Darlin's Angel just before a :54.1 half. Car Keys edged out of third with a mild bid after the leader, tracked by Sangria Summer, while Be Perfect BG rolled through three-quarters in 1:21.4. Though the long early brush by the favorite showed its toll in the stretch when Darlin's Angel ripped from the pocket and narrowed on the leader with Sangria Summer gathering steam even wider. Darlin's Angel hit the front briefly in late stretch and then Sangria Summer slid by for a head win with Be Perfect BG left in third and Napalm another eight lengths behind in fourth.

"I know Serge Godin had bought her privately and they had high expectations of her," James MacDonald said after the race, "and if you've been following her in Canada – a lot of people might not have seen her – her last few races have just been fabulous. So I knew she was coming in pretty sharp. I was hoping I could work out some kind of a trip and I thought she'd give me a good run at the end."

Luc Blais trains Sangria Summer, a daughter of Captaintreacherous-Shower Play, for Serge Godin's Determination, which purchased this filly after the first start of her sophomore season from Ontario-based trainer Kevin Benn. The filly collected her fourth win from 10 starts this season and her fifth win from 20 starts in her career, earning $228,159. She paid $10.80 to win.

New Jersey SIRE STAKES REPORT

Lifetime Dreamer large, Wall Of Fame flaunts in NJSS Platinum finals

by Frank Coto / Meadowlands media relations

A world record mile was uncorked by Lifetime Dreamer in the $180,000 New Jersey Sires Stakes (NJSS) Platinum Series Division final for freshman trotting males and Wall Of Fame bested her cohort in the $225,000 final for freshman trotting fillies on Saturday (Aug. 8) at The Meadowlands.

In the final for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings, Yannick Gingras urged Lifetime Dreamer to the top leaving from the outside of the five-horse field. He cut the first quarter in :27.4 but yielded for the pocket when Presidente pulled and cleared command into the backstretch, gaining speed through a :55 half.

Gingras was in no rush behind Presidente but he put on the burners passing three-quarters in 1:23.3 to fly to the front and own the mile, winning in a scorching 1:51.1 – the fastest trotting mile ever by a 2-year-old at The Meadowlands while also equaling the fastest mile ever by a 2-year-old trotting male set in 2020 by colt Southwind Tyrion. Favorite Wrong Sounds Right hustled to get second with Easy Down Blonde picking up the show pieces.

The 1:51.1 mile by Lifetime Dreamer also lowers the 1:53.1 track record for 2-year-old trotting geldings set by Real Cool Sam in 2019 and the 1:51.4 North American record for 2-year-old trotting geldings set in 2024 by Memento Mori and matched in 2025 by Silverstein.

“He raced very well,” Sarah Svanstedt of Team Svanstedt said. “If you asked me [if he could go] for a world record, I couldn’t say he was up for that. But it’s warm weather, a nice track and a nice horse so it was possible. He has been pretty uncomplicated since day one, so that helps big time. Today he was just powerful and strong so it was just a pleasure to watch.”

Ake Svanstedt trains Lifetime Dreamer, a son of Ecurie D DK out of the Walner mare Lifetime Gift. Owned by Ake Svanstedt Inc., Brittany Farms LLC, Bruni Racing Team Inc, and Suleyman Yuksel Stables Inc., Lifetime Dreamer paid $6 to win in his second victory of four starts. He has now earned $110,000.

Odds-on favorite Wall Of Fame stayed undefeated from four starts with a 1:52.3 victory in the NJSS Platinum Series final for 2-year-old trotting fillies. The daughter of Walner—Saadet floated out of post 7 to land into sixth while Dejeuner blasted from the outside in a five-wide bid into the first turn. Dejeuner crossed to the top but relinquished the lead past a :28 first quarter to pocket-popping Dandelion Wine. Nevis Peak then joined the fold with a brush out of third into a :56.2 to snatch command just before the far turn. Once on the lead, Grandiflora took an uncovered shot with Wall Of Fame following with plenty of trot rounding towards three-quarters in 1:24. Wall Of Fame vaulted off cover and reached after Nevis Peak to put that one away to win by one length. Nevis Peak held for second and Orchestra rushed late to take third.

“We never expected that much [from her] but she just progressed really good all along,” Andy Miller said. “I was a little bit worried about being too far back, but I got carried into it good and she always trots through the wire.”

Trainer Julie Miller said, “She’s been really easy on herself training down and she had a super week going into it. There were great fillies in this race, so I was pretty proud we got over the wire first. When Andy and I discussed the race, we thought we might end up in the position we were in. I told Andy ‘Great drive!’, [but] you got to have a good horse, too.”

Wall Of Fame upped her bankbook balance to $150,000 for owners Andy Miller Stable Inc., Jean Goehlen, Hutchison Harness LLC, and Rick Huffman. She paid $3.80 to win.

Two Day Hangover (Dexter Dunn) setting a 1:53.3 Harrah's Philadelphia track record for 2-year-old trotting fillies while winning her Pennsylvania Sire Stakes event on Thursday.

Pennsylvania

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Track record equaled then lowered in PA Sires at Philly

by PHHA / Harrah's Philadelphia

There were two divisions of 2-year-old trotting fillies racing in preliminary number 2 of the group's Pennsylvania Sire Stakes action on Thursday afternoon (Aug. 6) at Harrah's Philadelphia. The two winners shared an amazing number of similarities: trainer Marcus Melander, driver Dexter Dunn, sire Captain Corey, being laid off for 23 days, favoritism, lowering their lifetime bests, staying undefeated, and setting a track record for their group. The one place there wasn't agreement was in the times: Birr Castle won the first grouping in 1:53.4 to equal the Philly divisional track standard, and then Two Day Hangover stopped the clock in 1:53.3 in the second cut to take sole possession of the record.

To recap chronologically, Birr Castle (dam Melania), who had been victorious in the first PASS prelim round, recorded her success before her stablemate, going right to the lead and set fractions of :27.2, :57, and 1:25.2, then holding off a late challenge from pocketsitter Orinoco by three-quarters-of-a-length for Pheasant Hill Farm (Ed Lohmeyer). The 1:53.4 equaled the mark of Country Victory (2024) and Ginger Hill Lex, who got her share of the record becoming last year's Sires champ in this division; this victory pushed Birr Castle's record to staying unblemished after three starts, with her other win in a Pennsylvania All-Stars race.

Those three lost their shared line in the local books 68 minutes later when Two Day Hangover (dam Sherry Lyns Lady, whose second dam was the famous D Train) captured the second division while lowering the record. With leavers to both sides of her, Dunn decided to duck "Two Day" into fourth early, and after fractions of :27.2 and :57.3 came uncovered. The new recordholder, whose only other start was also an All-Stars success, gained ground to the 1:25.4 three quarters, gained more around the turn and into the stretch to take the lead, and won off by 2½ lengths for Brittany Farms LLC and Marvin Katz LLC.

The five $20,000 complementary Stallion Series divisions, which brought the day's stakes purses to $211,892, had some commonalities too: the winners all established lifetime bests (four of them maiden marks), and none of the five were the crowd's choices. The fastest StS winner was the only non-maiden, Opa Mearas S (International Moni—Lily Kronos IT), a 1:55 winner for driver Andrew McCarthy, trainer Nicklas Andersen, and Snogarps Gard Inc.

McCarthy gained a second StS win with Sevenoops Hanover (Greenshoe—Sevenopper), a 1:57 winner for trainer Petter Engblom and Engblom Farm LLC, Evans Nation, and Hickory Hollow Stables.

Trainer/driver Trond Smedshammer also doubled in the Stallion Series: giving International Moni a second siring credit with Southwind Galli (dam Southwind Gilly), a 1:58.3 winner for American Viking Racing Stable and M3 Racing Stable, and with the debutante Sevecorey (Captain Corey—Seven Wood), home in 1:58 for Purple Haze Stables LLC.

Captain Corey got a second StS siring winner, and a fourth stakes win on the day, when T'wouldmakemesing (dam Woman Of Power) avoided wholesale early confusion en route to a 1:56.2 victory for driver Trae Porter, trainer George Ducharme, and FTM Racing Stable LLC.

All 15 races on Thursday were for trotters, and the highest classes had their weekly features, both won by driver Yannick Gingras. Developing horses, going for $14,000, were fronted by $76.80 winner Captain Parker, a Musical Rhythm gelding who dropped his mark to 1:53 for trainer Chuck Crissman, Jr. and owners Barbara Boese and Wendy Crissman. A $13,000 handicap for fast-class established horses went to the Wishing Stone gelding Guido Di, coming east from The Meadows and promptly winning in 1:53 for trainer Steve Schoeffel and owners Kathy Schoeffel, Lewis Falton, and Marian Schilling.

Gingras was the big human winner on the day with four sulky successes, two of which were for the new Hall of Famer Åke Svanstedt (one of Svanstedt's was with fellow new Hall of Famer Al Libfeld as a partner). Trainer/driver Smedshammer doubled; trainer Andersen had his winners driven by Andrew McCarthy and Philly leader Tim Tetrick, each of whom also had two; and of course, the featured Melander-Dunn combo.

Today at 12:40 at Harrah's Philly, there will be PA-sired action for the 2-year-old pacing filly set. Free Philly program pages are or will be available at www.phha.org.

Freshman trotters in Sires Stakes action at Scioto Downs

by Eldorado Scioto Downs

Trainer Vernon Beachy had a big night Thursday (Aug. 6) at Eldorado Scioto Downs when he swept the $75,000 Ohio Sires Stakes for 2-year-old colt trotters, setting a new track record in the midst, and won a third of the $50,000 filly divisions.

Mind On My Moni (Chris Lems) set a new track record, tripping the beam in 1:53.3. Leaving strong off the gate from post 9, Mind On My Moni led through every call of :27.4, :57, and 1:25.1 before winning by a half-length over a fast-closing Cool Julio (Tyler Smith); pocket sitter Walks The Fire (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) finished third.

Mind On My Moni is now undefeated in five lifetime starts with $104,750 earned. The gelded son by Ready For Moni out of the Angus Hall mare JJ's Jordyn was a $21,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from breeder Winbak Farm. Mind On My Moni, who went off at 7-1, paid $16 to win. The 1:53.3 winning time bested the previous track record for 2-year-old trotting geldings, which was set in 2025 by Ready Russell (1:54).

Beachy came back three races later to win the other $75,000 colt division with another Ready For Moni gelding – Debt Free – in 1:54.2. Wrenn, Jr. piloted this one from post 6 and got away fifth while Satan's Fury (Brett Miller) took the early lead going to the

:28 quarter. Sigurd (Hugh Beatty) was parked and took over for a short time before Motor Earle (Mike Micallef) came first up as the field headed towards the :56.4 half. Debt Free was third over and sitting third by the 1:25.1 third quarter. Posting a :28.3 last quarter, Debt Free got up to win by three-quarters-of-a-length over Iluvmymoni (David Miller); Motor Earle was third.

It was the second win in four lifetime starts for Debt Free who now has $83,750 earned. Out of the Chapter Seven mare Feelsofree, Debt Free was a $23,000 Buckeye Classic Yearling Sale purchase from breeder John Schlabach. Both Mind On My Moni and Debt Free are owned by 518 Group, Gitup Racing, Ryan Smith, and Todd's Auto.

Beachy's filly winner was Made For More (Wrenn, Jr.) in 1:54.1. Moni Line (D. Miller) made the early front going to the :27.2 opening quarter, but Made For More was quickly out and on the move from third. Leading through the :57.3 half and 1:25.3 third quarter, Made For More comfortably won under a hand drive by 2½ lengths over Rose Run Cybill (Kurt Sugg); Miz Ella Paige (Sam Widger) was third.

Made For More, by Long Tom out of the Chapter Seven mare Obsessed Blue Chip, is a homebred for owner John Schlabach. The Next Generation winner now has three wins in five lifetime starts and $152,250 earned.

The first $50,000 filly division went to Envious Queen (D. Miller) in 1:54.1. Leading at all points of call – :28.1, :57.2, and 1:25.2 – Envious Queen won by 2½ lengths over Janet's Big Star (Smith); Blue Ranger (Wrenn, Jr.) was third. It was the second win in four lifetime starts for the filly by Long Tom out of the RC Royalty mare Royal Envy who now has $63,625 earned. Co-owned by trainer Steve Carter, Hatfield Stables, and Cass Gallagher, Envious Queen was a $35,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from breeder Andrew Kauffman.

The last of the five freshman trotter divisions went to Secrets Ilia (B. Miller) in 1:55. Steady Mind (D. Miller) took the early lead but by the :28.1 quarter, Secrets Ilia had made the top. Taking the field to the :57.3 half and 1:26.3 third-quarter, Secrets Ilia opened up to win by 4¼ lengths. Take Her Home (Chris Page) was second, with Steady Mind third.

It was the third win in four starts for the Micah Miller trainee who now has $81,250 earned. Owned by Wayne Mast, Jr. and Callam Racing, the daughter of Long Tom out of the CJ's Secret mare CJ's Super Secret, was a $28,000 Buckeye Classic Yearling Sale purchase from breeder Mose Yoder.

The 91-day 2026 Eldorado Scioto Downs regular season runs through Saturday (Sept. 19). Races will be held Tuesdays and Thursdays through Saturdays starting in August. There will be a special holiday card on Labor Day instead of the Tuesday card that week and no live racing on Friday (Sept. 18) to accommodate horsemen attending the Ohio Selected Yearling Sale. The track will then re-open for the Breeders Crown, with eliminations held Oct. 16-17 and the finals Oct. 23-24. Purple Haze Stables-owned fillies shine in NYSS at Yonkers

by Yonkers Raceway media

Chapizzy and Seveallisto, a pair of daughters of Chapter Seven owned by Purple Haze Stables LLC., scored victories in their respective New York Sire Stakes splits for 2-year-old filly trotters on Friday night (Aug. 7) at MGM Yonkers Raceway. Driven by Matt Kakaley in the first $73,100 division, Chapizzy led through fractions of :30, 1:00.3, and 1:30, then used a 29 second final quarter to hold off pocket-sitter Anabella (Lauren Tritton) by a nose in a 1:59 mile. The 1-2 favorite French Pastry (Tyler Miller) was third after she broke behind the gate and then couldn't threaten after she caught up and tried a first-over move on the way to three-quarters. Trained by George Ducharme, Chapizzy was bred by Winning Key Inc. Chapizzy, who paid $9.84 to win as the 7-2 second choice, broke her maiden in her third attempt and has now earned $39,225. She was atop a $31.98 exacta and trifecta wagering was not offered. Kakaley went for the sweep with 4-5 choice Secret Lover in the other $74,500 section, and she was on top at the :28.4 quarter, :59.1 half, and 1:28.1 three-quarters. However, driver Leon Bailey wheeled Seveallisto out of the 2-hole on the last turn, and she went by Secret Lover in the lane on her way to a half-length victory in 1:58. Wavy Xavie (Jeff Gregory) checked in third. The Jessica Okusko-trained Seveallisto, bred by Spring Run Farm and Peter Barbato, has a summary of 3-0-1 from four outings and has banked $72,880. Seveallisto returned $22.82 to win as the 10-1 fourth choice and keyed a $63.74 exacta and a $120.62 trifecta. Two $20,000 New York Excelsior Series events for the rookie trotting fillies were won by:

ODDS ON MONETARY, SURREAL SPIRIT POST NYSS WINS AT YONKERS

Odds On Monetary and Surreal Spirit emerged with the wins from a pair of $82,500 New York Sire Stakes divisions for 3-year-old pacing fillies on Thursday night (Aug. 6) at MGM Yonkers Raceway. Driven by Matt Kakaley in the first flight, Odds On Monetary led through fractions of :27.3, :55.3, and 1:23.3, successfully dealt with pressure from a parked-out and first-over Existential (Brent Holland) in the middle-half and held sway over pocket-sitter Savage Cindy (Jordan Stratton) through the stretch and to the wire, winning by a length in 1:52.1. Ideal Beauty Queen (Tyler Buter) finished in third. A daughter of Huntsville bred by Crawford Farms LLC., Odds On Monetary is trained by Travis Alexander for owner Odds On Racing. She has a summary of 9-2-1 from 17 outings, has earned $357,865 and paid $2.86 to win as the 2-5 favorite. She led a $6.08 exacta and a $14.96 trifecta. In the other section, Two Twenty Swift (Yannick Gingras) was on top at the :27.3 quarter, :57.1 half, and 1:25.4 three-quarters, but Surreal Spirit, with trainer Jeff Gregory in the bike, angled out of the pocket on the final bend and went by Two Twenty Swift in the lane en route to a 1:53.3 victory. Two Twenty Swift was three-quarters-of-a-length back in second and Hunting Memories (Kakaley) grabbed third. The victorious So Surreal filly is owned by Edmund Namiotka Jr., Carol Namiotka and Linda Mund and was bred by Eric Taddeo. She has five wins, four seconds, and two thirds from 15 appearances, has banked $178,736 and returned $4.68 to win as the second choice. She was atop a $5.90 exacta and there was no trifecta wagering. Capturing a trio of $20,000 New York Excelsior Series splits on the program were:

- Taladega Express (by Huntsville and bred by Southwind Farms LLC., paid $10.60 to win) in 1:56.2 for driver Leon Bailey, co-owner/trainer Jessica Okusko and co-owners Salvatore Vullo and James De Armond;
- Carry Back (by Huntsville and bred by co-owners The Bay's Stable LLC. and Polger Holdings LLC. with South Mountain Stables and Mark Mullen, paid $2.96 to win) in 1:53.1 for driver Jim Marohn, Jr., trainer Linda Toscano and co-owners Fred Wallace, and Richard Jack;
- Lenna (by American Ideal and bred by Levi Bontrager, paid $2.46 to win) in 1:54 for driver Andy Miller, trainer Deborah Daguet, and owner Forrest Bartlett.

In race 4 on the program, there was a two-horse accident on the final turn that involved My Man Peter (Jason Bartlett) and Full Of Muscles (Scott Zeron). Both drivers were transported from the track and to the hospital via ambulance following the incident.

Hotcheddar Flirt and Diesel Thunder Boy top Running Aces sophomore action Thursday

by Darin Gagne for Running Aces Casino, Hotel and Racetrack

The Thursday night (Aug. 6) harness racing program at Running Aces featured the Minnesota-sired sophomore pacers going for $35,000 across two divisions as well as the weekly $16,000 mares open handicap pace.

In the $17,500 filly division, Starstruck Fool was the heavy favorite at 4-5 while Sparklinchardonnay had strong support at 8-5 and Hotcheddar Flirt was the clear third choice at 6-1 in the field of eight.

Driver Brady Jenson sent the favorite right to the front from post 6 while longshot Mercy (Justin Van Otterloo) secured the pocket and Hotcheddar Flirt dropped in third during the fast :27 opening quarter.

Starstruck Fool opened up on the lead through the middle stages of the contest with solid fractions of :56 and 1:24.2 with Prone To Wander (Rick Magee) trying a first-over bid down the backside which prompted Luke Plano to tip out Sparklinchardonnay for cover before making a three-wide move around the final turn.

The fractions began to catch up to Starstruck Fool as they straightened for home and while Sparklinchardonnay was gaining with every stride on the outside, driver Mooney Svendsen shook free from a ground-saving trip with Hotcheddar Flirt to surge between horses late and make it a three-way battle to the wire.

Hotcheddar Flirt (by Karpathian Kid) prevailed in the final stride by a neck over Sparklinchardonnay in 1:55 while Starstruck Fool had to settle for third.

The $14.20 winner is owned and trained by Rick Huffman.

Diesel Thunder Boy (by Aracache Hanover) posted a career best 1:53.3 win over favorites Cool Mr Cool and Wild About Me in the $17,500 colts division for his second win of the season for owners Nathalie Tremblay and Dave Kuri. Tremblay is also the winning trainer and was celebrated in the winner's circle for recently surpassing the $2 million mark in career purse earnings.

Rick Magee was the winning pilot and Diesel Thunder Boy paid $9 on top.

K T Part E (by Cattlewash) rolled to another impressive tally in the mares open event for two in a row and her ninth win of the year. She was a three-length winner over Mother Mary in 1:51.3 while Premier Desirey completed the trifecta.

The $2.80 winner is owned, trained, and driven by Brady Jenson.

Magee led the Thursday program with four driving wins while Jenson registered both a driving and training triple.

Live racing returns to Running Aces tonight (Aug. 9) for a 10-race program that will feature the $17,500 Steve Wiseman Memorial trot preview as well as "Pepsi Family Night" specials and kid's activities, trout fishing, food trucks, and a special visit from Bundles of Love, a local charity which provides handmade clothing for newborns of families in need. First post today is set for 6 p.m. (CDT).

Powwow back for more in 2026 MGM Yonkers International Trot

by Yonkers Raceway media

The MGM Yonkers International Trot welcomes its third participant as Norway's Powwow joins the field for the Grade 1 event scheduled for Sept. 12 at MGM Yonkers Raceway.

The son of 2015 MGM Yonkers International Trot winner Papagayo E, Powwow is making a second run at the $1,000,000 race after finishing third behind Lexus Kody in the 2025. For owner Tom Andersen, losing by less than a length last year, combined with the prestige of the race, sparked his decision to return.

"In Europe we call the race Yonkers International Trot the 'Word Championship of Trotting' and as such the winner of the race is world champion," said Andersen on the race's importance. "Powwow showed that Yonkers Raceway suits him and of course we love to compete against the best horses in the world."

A 6-year-old trained by Jan Kristian Whaaler, Powwow has a career record of 23 2-6-5. While the win stats don't jump off the page, the level of the competition he has been facing does.

"This year Powwow has started six times at the top international level," said Andersen, who added that Powwow will compete in the $300,000 (USD) Åby Stora Pris on Aug. 15 at 3,140 meters (approx. two miles) before shipping to New York. "His form is very good and we expect to have him in top condition on Sept. 12."

"Team Powwow's Norwegian slogan is 'Alt Er Mulig' - this means anything is possible. The start in the Yonkers International Trot will be the 25th for Powwow. Can he do as his father Papagayo E did in his 25th start and win the race as well?"

Powwow joins Diva Ek and Bourbonista in the lineup for the MGM Yonkers International Trot. More invitations will be extended in the coming days to complete the 10-horse field.

The race will be the focal point of a stellar card on Sept. 12 that starts at 11:50 a.m. (EDT) and includes the $2.4 million New York Sire Stakes finals for 2- and 3-year-olds as well as a pair of $200,000 invitationals – Bob Miecuna Trot and Aria Pace.

MGM Yonkers Raceway is currently operating on a Monday through Saturday racing schedule with post time at 6:45 p.m. (EDT) every night except Saturday when post time is 3:30 p.m.

Mellby Jinx joins the MGM Yonkers International Trot lineup

by Yonkers Raceway media

Always a stronghold for top trotting talent, Sweden will have two representatives in the $1,000,000 MGM Yonkers International Trot after trainer Daniel Wäjersten accepted an invitation for Mellby Jinx to participate in the yearly trotting classic. He will join U.S.-based Swedish entrant Bourbonista, as well as Diva Ek (Italy) and Powwow (Norway) in the worldwide event slated for Sept. 12 at MGM Yonkers Raceway.

Mellby Jinx has compiled 15 wins and over 40 in-the-money finishes in 66 career starts. The 8-year-old was recently third behind the freaky-fast Allegiant in her 1:49.2 track-record victory in the $320,000 Hugo Åbergs Memorial at Jägersro, Sweden on July 28.

"We had to go first on the outside the whole distance, so we were very happy about the performance," said Wäjersten, who will enter Mellby Jinx in a Swedish overnight-type race before shipping to the United States.

Mellby Jinx raced in the Elitlopp in 2025 and won his elimination before a lackluster performance in the final. This year Wäjersten declined an invitation to compete in the event.

"He had no power in the final," said Wäjersten, indicating that his horse didn't like competing in two heats on the same day.

Wäjersten is no stranger to the MGM Yonkers International Trot, having finished fourth as the trainer/driver behind Gio Cash. He views Mellby Jinx as on par with his stablemate but added that Gio Cash lost his last two head-to-head matchups.

After making his first visit to New York in 2025, Wäjersten is looking forward to getting another chance at racing on the big stage at Yonkers Raceway.

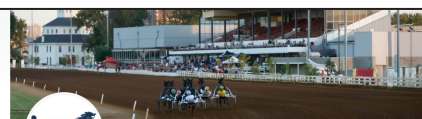

"It is an experience for everyone around the horse and it is also good money if you are in the top five," said Wäjersten. "When you have good horses, you want to be in this race."

Track management has reached out to the connections of a number of potential International participants and more horses will be announced in the coming days to complete the 10-horse field. The race will be the focal point of a stellar card on Sept. 12 that starts at 11:50 a.m. (EDT) and includes the $2.4 million New York Sire Stakes finals for 2- and 3-year-olds as well as a pair of $200,000 invitationals – Bob Miecuna Trot and Aria Pace.

MGM Yonkers Raceway is currently operating on a Monday through Saturday racing schedule with post time at 6:45 p.m. (EDT) every night except Saturday when post time is 3:30 p.m.

The Little Brown Jug featured on new Ohio State Fair Carousel

The 171st Ohio State Fair comes to a close today (Aug. 9), but that still gives you plenty of time to enjoy the fair food, agricultural displays, and a ride on the new Ohio Children's Carousel featuring a scene from the Little Brown Jug.

The Ohio Children's Carousel is one of many new projects that fairgoers will enjoy for the first time this year as the result of strategic planning that began in 2019 with the Expo 2050 Task Force to build better experiences at the state fairgrounds.

Governor Mike DeWine and First Lady Fran DeWine were personally involved in the design of the carousel, a tribute to Ohio's children, and the heart, history, and heritage of Ohio.

The Carousel includes the names of all 88 counties, as well as 12 rounding boards depicting iconic Ohio locations and events such as Neil Armstrong on the Moon, the Wright Brothers Flyer, and the Marblehead Lighthouse.

"We are honored to be a part of this great project," said Tom Wright, president of the Little Brown Jug Society. "Ohio has a rich history of important events and landmarks. We were excited to hear that we were included."
