Gural speaks on decision to move Hambletonian, Campbell responds

by Brett Sturman

BETWEEN THE LINES

with BRETT STURMAN

In the wake of last week's decision to move the Hambletonian from The Meadowlands to Harrah's Hoosier Park, the owner of The Meadowlands wasn't short on words and vowed to fight on.

Nearly one week after the announcement that the Hambletonian will be leaving New Jersey, envisioning the Hambletonian at any site other than The Meadowlands – the track the race has called home since 1981 – still has an inconceivable feel to it. Through the decades, the Hambletonian and The Meadowlands have become synonymous with one another and, as expected, the decision to separate the two has generated strong reactions.

Meadowlands owner Jeff Gural said the Hambletonian Society's decision to move the race was personal.

"I knew [the Hambletonian Society board of directors] didn't like me because of my position on the drugs in the sport, and the racing of the 4-year-olds," Gural said. "I think it was purely directed at me because of the integrity issues. They were never happy that I insisted that people on our exclusion lists couldn't race at The Meadowlands.

"[Society directors] are basically only interested in helping themselves as breeders, but you have to clean up the drugs and, in my mind, you need to improve the product. My view is that the founders of the Hambletonian Society would be turning over in their graves because they founded it not to help themselves as breeders, but to help the industry progress.”

Hambletonian Society president and CEO John Campbell said The Meadowlands’ exclusionary policy had no bearing on the decision to move the race.

“[Gural’s exclusion list] was no factor on why [the race] went out for bids or the awarding process,” Campbell said.

He added that the Hambletonian had already been raced under Gural’s exclusionary rules.

“The discussion [most recently] centered around the uncertainty of The Meadowlands and Jeff’s own words, both publicly and privately last year, when he said he would close The Meadowlands if he didn’t get a casino.

Still, Gural said he was “shocked” the Society moved the race given the potential implications on the industry as a whole.

“When I saw that the SBOANJ put out a statement where their lobbyist, who is responsible for getting the [state] subsidy, made it clear that by relocating the race they would make it harder for me to get a casino and harder for the state to get future subsidies... The vast majority of the industry is located in or near New Jersey. So, you know, it’s a shock.”

On the question of implications beyond The Meadowlands, Gural said, “I don’t think there’s any question that it hurts not just The Meadowlands, but the industry. The industry needs us to get a casino because they need to have one racetrack that has the money to put on these stakes, and where most of the people are focused on. Now that Illinois closed, we’re the only harness track operating without slots, what does that tell you?

“I can tell you also that the government – the people in the legislature, the politicians – are pissed. So, if their goal was to piss off the New Jersey politicians – they are furious.”

It has been noted that any possibility of moving the Hambletonian could have been eliminated last year, had The Meadowlands exercised its exclusive right of renewal for the race.

“I think [Gural] could have exercised his right of renewal and avoided this whole thing,” Campbell said.

Gural said, “I tried to explain to them that without the subsidy [the status of which was not known at the time of the right of renewal deadline], we don’t have the money to have the Hambletonian. I said, ‘Guys, it’s a new administration, it’s a new governor who happens to be a friend, but you never know. If we fail to get the subsidy, you’ll have time to find another location for the race. I’m pretty sure we’ll get the subsidy, but in the highly unlikely case we don’t – that’s what went into that decision.”

Aside from the alleged personal grievances, Gural doesn’t believe the move to Indiana makes sense logistically for fans or key industry participants.

“There are 16 million people that live within 25 miles of The Meadowlands,” he said. “The majority of owners live in New York,

New Jersey, and Pennsylvania, so coming to The Meadowlands for a weekend of racing is not that inconvenient. It's the same thing with all the people who buy yearlings at the upper end. They all live in those same areas, or they come from Europe. I doubt a lot of them are happy about it – I don't think I would go even if I had a horse in it."

Gural also mentioned that the parent company of Harrah's Hoosier Park has been sold to a private company, leaving an unknown future for horse racing.

"The [Hoosier Park] casino is being sold to Fertitta [Entertainment], so whomever [the Society] is dealing with isn't going to be there," Gural said.

Campbell said, "We did discuss [the sale of the parent company] with the Hoosier folks, but we feel confident that the contract and the proposal that they put forth for three years will be honored."

He also said he hopes the decision to move the Hambletonian will not impact whether the Breeders Crown returns to The Meadowlands.

"I would love to keep The Meadowlands in the Breeders Crown rotation in some fashion," Campbell said. "I hope this does not affect our decisions to host the Breeders Crown [at The Meadowlands] in the future."

The obvious question now is what comes next for The Meadowlands. Already down to two days a week of racing and declining handle over the past couple of seasons, would the move of the Hambletonian and its companion stakes finally be enough for Gural to call it quits? If that's what you were expecting, Gural's reaction couldn't be any further opposite to it.

“I’m angry,” said Gural. “I will definitely not throw in the towel, and I’m determined to make them regret the decision. The plan is to regroup and come up with a plan. I wish I was younger, honestly. I’m 84, and if I was 60, I could say, ‘Well, you know, I don’t have to worry about having a heart attack.’ Obviously, at 84, you do have to worry about your life expectancy. But as long as I’m around, I will make sure we fight.”

No matter one’s thoughts on Gural or The Meadowlands, it seems undeniable that the industry is best served with a healthy Meadowlands in it. It’s what makes Gural’s forward-looking comments a genuine bright spot, despite the short-term setback.

To that point Gural concluded, “We’ll figure it out. I’m not waving the white flag by any means. It’s so important that we get a casino, because then we could restore what it was.”

On the Hambletonian moving to Indiana: Take a deep breath everyone

by Bob Heyden

On the 18,110th day in the history of The Meadowlands, Aug. 13, 2026, the decision was made to move the Hambletonian to Hoosier Park in Indiana.

It was a 46-year run, with the last 44 carrying an unprecedented seven-figure purse. Six days earlier, in the 63,360th inch of the Hambletonian, the photo went to Apex. The first 63,359 had not yet decided it. Do the math folks. It means someone is going to be disappointed.

Many are expressing shock and dismay that the Hambletonian could head out. The initial reaction always centers on where the race had been, the history, the memories. That's totally understood. Hey, I worked there 36 years. I get it. But this is way too dismissive of where it is going.

It's 693 miles to Hoosier Park in Anderson, IN. Hey, that's 262 miles closer than DuQuoin.

We are still in the immediacy of the moment, which was shocking to many. What will now follow is a ton of noise. Change can indeed be quite difficult to accept. Itineraries are to be modified for sure. Breeder adjustments. Travel and Airbnb alterations. Anger and shock are part of the knee jerk reaction.

First, it's still in the U.S., which is a big relief. Let's be honest, there's never been a race more American than the Hambletonian.

Second, it's Hoosier Park. Most haven't been there and are probably not sure where it is. It opened on Sept. 1, 1994, ironically, 18 years to the day after The Meadowlands welcomed fans in for the very first time. The first couple of decades, Hoosier was feeling it's way, mostly serving only the locals. The last decade however has seen Indiana, and most notably Hoosier Park, become a major player on the Grand (Circuit) Stage. From JK She'salady winning the $151G Kentuckiana on Sept. 20, 2014 of her undefeated HOY season of 2014 to Confederate nailing down the Breeders Crown and HOY in 2023, the best of the best have all circled Hoosier Park as a destination stop along the way.

Third, the top drivers have all been semi-regulars of late. Who has the most track records at Hoosier with seven? Dexter Dunn. A couple of months after winning the 2023 Hambletonian with Tactical Approach from post 10, Scott Zeron duplicated that from post 10 in the Breeders Crown at Hoosier Park too. Yannick Gingras was the first to go back-to-back in the Grade 1 Dan Patch with Check Six in 2017 and Lazarus in 2018. Ake Svanstedt won four Breeders Crowns in Anderson, IN, in 2023 and Burke led all stables in Crown $$ that year. Dave Miller parlayed a Dan Patch and a Breeders Crown in 2020 with Century Farroh en route to being named the Canadian Horse of the Year. Tim Tetrick was actually a regular in Anderson at 20 and 21 years old long before he, well, became Tim Tetrick.

Fourth, the leading Hambletonian sire in its 101-year history, by a country block, was born in Carmel, IN. Stars Pride, a foal of 1947, was a scant nose in back of Lusty Song in 1950 or he would have been a Hambletonian winner himself. This $2,950 yearling completely changed the breed by siring eight Hambo winners, 10 Kentucky Futurity winners, and a mind-numbing four-straight Triple Crown winners: Ayres (1964), Nevele Pride (1968), Lindy's Pride (1969), and Super Bowl (1972).

For you pacing fans, Hal Dale was an Indiana foal (bred by William Thompson of New Ross, IN) of 1926 and after an OK racing career with a late start he too had a monstrous influence over the breed.

The richest race ever contested was the 1984 Wilson ($2,161,000) won by Nihilator. Robert Gangloff of Logansport, IN was his breeder.

Today, 90 per cent and up of all pacers competing in North America, Nihilator too, trace right back to Hal Dale. Indiana's own Hal Dale.

Fifth, the fastest male trotter ever, On To Norway (1:48.3), was bred in Indiana. The record he broke this year was the standard set by Homicide Hunter (1:48.4) on Oct. 6, 2018 at The Red Mile who was bred in neighboring Illinois. Homicide Hunter held the Hoosier Park track record among the trotting boys for consecutive wins until "Norway" came along. You get the point.

Let's look at it this way. If someone had told you a dozen years ago that Hoosier Park in Indiana would play host to 36 Breeders Crown races in a seven-year stretch (2017, 2020, and 2023) what would you have said then? If someone told you a half dozen years ago that the Indiana Hoosiers would go undefeated and take home the NCAA title in 2026 what would your reaction have been at that moment? If someone pulled you aside a decade ago and told you that the thoroughbred Triple Crown in the summer of 2026 was to be tinkered with, you likely would have dismissed it.

If you still think that Hoosier Park is some way-out-of-way place somewhere in the Midwest, consider this: on June 23, 1996 Jennas Beach Boy set the then all-age race record of 1:47 3 winning a thriller over Riyadh in the Driscoll at The Meadowlands. His very next race was two weeks later at Hoosier Park in the Dan Patch which he captured in a then stakes best 1:49 4. Bulldog Hanover, after his 1:45.4 world record effort at The Meadowlands in July 2022, his next race was 27 days later when he ventured to Hoosier Park, a track he was quite familiar with prior. He too made short work of his Dan Patch rivals. The biggest stars all seem to know where it is.

Maybe the recent doings of the Hambletonian Society are most reminiscent of the 1957 Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Giants both leaving town and setting up on the left coast 3,000 miles away. The Dodgers to Los Angeles and the Giants to San Francisco. A 1958 start-up for both. The extremely loyal fandom in New York did not take it well. Abandonment. Sold out. Emptiness. But that, eventually, played out well for both sides. The New York Metropolitans (Mets) were introduced five years later and rewarded those die-hards with an improbable 1969 World Series title. The Dodgers and Giants have thrived with multiple world championships since. Which begs the question, can both sides benefit here? Of course, but only time will tell.

I do want to remind those who wanted, no demanded, and fully expected, a lifetime of Meadowlands Hambletonians, those two were synonymous with each other and nothing will change that. Michael Jordan was and is completely synonymous with the Chicago Bulls and he left town too, after 1998. But the best comparison is the one and only Babe Ruth. The greatest New York Yankee of all and quite possibly the greatest player ever, anywhere. But he did not start with the Yankees but with the Boston Red Sox. He also did not finish with the Yankees but with the Boston Braves. The Hambletonian started in Syracuse and is now headed to Indiana folks.

Let's finish with this. In 1982 and 1983 the biggest money events in the sport for freshman and sophomore trotters were the Merrie Annabelle, now the Jim Doherty, the Peter Haughton, the Hambletonian Oaks, and the Hambletonian were all at The Meadowlands. Those two years of 1982 and 1983 saw Indiana still a decade plus out from getting pari-mutuel wagering on Sept. 1, 1994. Fast forward to 2027 and those four races for the very first time will be together again, but this time in the State of Indiana. Go back a decade or so and ask yourself how foreign or distant to even think something like this actually seemed. But you also might not have predicted the richest driver ever Dave Miller returning home in 2026 to the Midwest. Life comes at you fast folks, and doesn't ask your permission. This was a brushback pitch to many. High and inside. But no matter how you slice it, you have to get back up and move forward. One step in front of the other and give this room to breathe. Who knows, you might be setting your GPS to Indiana sooner than you think.

BDHC members speak up about Hambletonian move

by John Berry

Several members of the BDHC (Broken Down Horseplayer's Club) have let their feelings be known about the Hambletonian move to Harrah's Hoosier Park and their thoughts are quite revealing.

Smitty, M.P., Adolph A, and R. Phil were among the respondents and most everyone welcomes the move to the Midwest.

Smitty kicked off the festivities saying, "I think it's a very smart move.

"As I have mentioned in the past when asked, harness racing is supposed to be a spectator sport and conducted with the racing fan in mind and, while The Meadowlands does this in a big way on Hambletonian Day, it's still written with a bias towards horsemen [and women] in mind.

"A perfect example of that was in the [Hambletonian] Oaks when they had three eliminations of seven horses when the bettors would have much preferred two eliminations of 10 and 11 – really great betting races with more value for the players.

"I think that this [move] will draw many thousands of new comers to the race... and in a venue where the guy running the place [Gabe Prewitt] always has the wagering fan in his sights.

"Yes, I know that The Meadowlands had a great wagering menu on Hambletonian Day, but I guarantee you that Hoosier will come up with the stuff that us players dream of."

M.P. thinks that it will not only be a "player's paradise," it will be a cheaper venue with their "selection of hotels, motels, and suites available at prices much less than what is available in North Jersey."

In checking availability, there are places sponsored by Hilton, Comfort Inn, Holiday Inn, Quality Inn, Marriott, Embassy Suites,

— Pinochle Stan

Days Inn, Country Inn, Best Western, Wyndham and several others.

Adolph A is a “Hambletonian veteran” in his own words and has been to harness racing’s “greatest event” in DuQuoin and The Meadowlands and related, “Actually, I saw my first one with my father in Goshen, NY in 1955 and have been to those there and in DuQuoin and, of course, The Meadowlands.

“I’ve probably been to 15 or so over the years and the excitement is the same at all of ‘em.”

R. Phil chimed in with his thoughts saying, “Whether there is betting or no betting, the Hambletonian always draws crowds and Mr. Prewitt, I am sure, is already planning to put on a program that will knock the bettor’s socks off.

“How about a two-day Hambo Weekend with the Hambletonian Oaks featured on a Friday and the Hambletonian on the Saturday with an Oaks-Hambo Daily Double stretching through both days.

“That’s something that would be great and something right up that guy’s [Gabe Prewitt’s] alley.”

On the Dan Patch program on Aug. 14, Harrah’s Hoosier Park featured many of the folk that had so much to do with Dan Patch more than a century past – Myron McHenry, Joe Patchen, Marion Savage, and the $300,000 Dan Patch Free-For-All Pace, along with other features honoring great horses and people in our sport.

Pinochle Stan, a longtime “punter” – as he says – remarked, “I will only play tracks with handle where a $20 or $50 bet won’t kill a win ticket price.

“Meadowlands, Northfield, and Hoosier... and I am not happy it’s [the Hambletonian is] leaving The Meadowlands but, if it has to go anywhere, Hoosier is the choice.

“They are fan friendly and really put the game in the proper perspective when it comes to squeezing the most out of the betting situation.

“Good purses don’t, necessarily, make a track a viable betting option.

“If the betting handle can’t sustain the purses on their own, it’s not in play with me.

“Hoosier has a casino and a strong handle on most nights and that’s a good combo for the player.”

Luke Pan chimed in hoping that the betting card will have “a sensible [betting] menu where the pools aren’t stretched too thin and with some nice guarantees [pools] where you can make a nice bet without betting against yourself.”

As far as drawing fans is concerned, Luke reminds us that, “no matter where the Hambo or [Little Brown] Jug is concerned, the fans will show up.”

The Hambletonian has been hosted by many venues successfully in the past as it is a premier event in the horse racing world.

From Syracuse and Goshen to Lexington, even Yonkers, NY in 1943 due to World War II gas rationing, and DuQuoin, IL – population around 7,000 – the Hambletonian is a draw and there’s no reason that Anderson, IN won’t provide the same drawing power, enthusiasm, and excitement as the previous 101 Hambletonian events.

There will always be nay-sayers no matter what decisions are made but the Midwest is becoming a strong hub in harness racing, Ohio, Kentucky, and Indiana and this may be the poke-in-the-butt the sport needs to regain the magic it had during its hey-day, or is it hay-day.

There’s only one way to find out.

Personally, we can’t wait for Hambletonian Day 2027.

THE DOWN UNDER DIARY

with ADAM HAMILTON

Seaton Grima has early favorite Loucasso for $1.5M TAB Eureka

The young horseman shelved cabinet making to build a harness racing career.

by Adam Hamilton

Just a few years ago Seaton Grima walked away from harness racing to focus on an apprenticeship as a cabinet maker, but he's back and chasing the world's richest pacing race.

Grima, 23, described landing boom 3-year-old Loucasso to train as "by far the greatest and most exciting opportunity" he's had in the game.

Loucasso, who boasts seven wins and a second from just nine starts, is a clear favorite for the $1.5 million TAB Eureka in its new November 21 time slot at Club Menangle.

"I had to pinch myself when they asked me to train him, I'll be honest," Grima said. "He's the first headline horse I've had to train, the sort of horse you dream of getting."

"To get this opportunity at my age is just incredible. I'm so grateful to Jamie [Durnberger-Smith of Summit Bloodstock] and Aaron [Bain of Aaron Bain Racing]."

Grima won the high-profile owners around when he transformed another pacer they own, No Nottthebuttons, to win five of his first seven starts for the stable and finish second in the other two.

"They made no secret of the fact they were rewarding me for the job I'd done with him," Grima said. "I thought it was a buzz to get a chance with a horse like No Nottthebuttons, who I'd been keen on getting for a while, but Loucasso is next level."

While Loucasso made headlines on the track last season at 2, it's been the off-track drama where he's sparked all the talk so far in 2026.

Powerhouse Victorian trainers Emma Stewart and Clayton Tonkin trained him at 2 when he won the Group 1 Protostar, the APG final and the Group 2 Breeders Crown final, on his way to banking over $400,000.

Then came some injury niggles and parting of the ways between the owners, primarily Durnberger-Smith, with Stewart and Tonkin.

Loucasso then had a brief stint with champion NSW trainer/driver Luke McCarthy before finding his way to Grima.

He is poised to have his first race since winning Dec. 13, last year (when he won the Breeders Crown final by 25 meters), at Menangle on Tuesday.

A sparkling workout at Menangle last Friday followed by a low-key Newcastle trial on Wednesday night cemented the return.

"I wasn't out to do it and didn't really let him go, but he ran a :25.2 quarter in that Menangle workout last week," Grima said. "That's crazy fast."

"The Menangle race is a perfect kick-off race. It'll be a huge drop in class from what he's been racing. It's a race for non-winning 3-year-olds. It's more like a glorified trial."

Grima is well aware of all the speculation about Loucasso's injuries.

"All I can say is, I had him scanned a couple of weeks back and the vet said he's spot on and to keep doing what I'm doing," he said.

"The TAB Eureka is the aim, but he's come up so well, we'll have a go at the NSW 3YO Breeders Challenge as part of his build-up."

"If next week goes well, there's a heat and final series at Menangle for his class on Sept. 12 and 19. Then the first heats of the Breeders Challenge are 10 days after that final."

"It'll all help get him a great foundation into the TAB Eureka."

Such is the hype and excitement around Loucasso, he is a $3 (for $1 bet) favorite even this far out for the TAB Eureka.

It's the sort of thing Grima, who boasts 200 training wins and 288 as a driver, dreamt about when he first started to think seriously about a career in harness racing.

"Even though I'd been around horses for a long time, it was only during the later years of my [cabinet maker] apprenticeship, I really missed the horses and wanted to give it a proper go," he said.

"Horses aren't in the family. I grew up at the family farm and we just happened to live next door to [trainers] Simon and Grant Ellul. Grant was about 10 years older than me and I'd go and help them.

"It went from there to driving mini trotters and they taught me so much, including how to break in horses.

"I left school at 14 but it wasn't until I was about 16 when I met [trainer] Joe Conolly through a mutual friend and started going to the races with him and helping him work the horses and driving track work.

"It was Joe who suggested I get my driver's license when I was 18.

"I got a retired horse from Newcastle trainer Nathan Flaherty called All About Art to use to get the trial drives I needed.

"The horse thrived so well with Joe [Conolly] and I, we asked Nathan if we could race him and he said: 'he's all yours, go for it.' He gave me my first win as a driver and did a good job for us."

Despite that, Grima then stepped away from the sport to focus on finishing his apprenticeship and setting up a kitchen-making business.

"I just missed it too much," he said. "I went back to helping Joe and things started to happen pretty quickly.

"Tony Licastro [owner of star pacer Don Hugo], who is friends with my uncles, sent me a horse called Our Sequel to train with Joe and then Matt Leppard [punter and Victoria-based owner] rang me out of the blue and sent me Always Rockin and Jimmy Locke.

"From there I got my own license [to train] at 18. I went from training four or five at Joe's to 10-12 of my own out of mum [Virginia] and dad's [David] property here in Llandilo where I still am now, but have grown to 25 or 30 in work.

"I've had lots of support from many people, but wouldn't be training horses without all the support of mum and dad to use this place.

"We're close to Penrith and less than an hour from Menangle.

"We're busy because it's just myself and my partner, Chelsea Prothero, who also works full-time as a hotel manager. She's a massive help with the horses."

Grima said Licastro gave him his first "breakthrough" horse a few years back in Don Lou and another high-profile owner, Mick Harvey, followed with former star mare My Moonlite Dream.

"They were the horses who took me from winning races at Penrith and Newcastle, to being a factor at Menangle," Grima said. “Don Lou won a Goulburn Cup and about five in a row at Menangle at one stage, while My Moonlite Dream ran second in two heats of the [2024] Inter Dominion and made the final.”

— Seaton Grima

More recently, much-traveled pacer Helluva took Grima to the iconic Hunter Cup at Melton in February and ran a slashing fifth behind champions Swayzee and Leap To Fame.

“At that time, I had Helluva, a lovely mare called Joans Rising Star and another nice mare and thought I was going to have a great hand at the Brisbane Inter Dominion Carnival, but then one-by-one I sold them all to the USA,” he said.

“I owned all or a big part of them and at this stage of my career, to sell them and get some money behind me was really important.

“But I’ll admit it was frustrating being back home and watching all those big races.

“Then I got the call to train Loucasso and I thought to myself, now I’ve got a horse who can not only take me to those really big races, but he’s good enough to maybe win some of them.”

When Durnberger-Smith and Bain sent Loucasso to Grima, former brilliant but injury-plagued filly Miss Australiana joined him.

“It’s great to get her, too,” he said. “She’s had plenty of problems, but seems good at the moment and I’m looking at the Vicbred 4YO mares’ series with her in Victoria in the next couple of weeks.”

But it’s Loucasso, the TAB Eureka, and beyond which most excites Grima.

Melillo breaks through in Carl Milstein Memorial

by Kenneth Livengood /
Northfield Park Racino

Melillo got his signature event win at Northfield Park on Saturday night (Aug. 15), capturing the $300,000 Grade 2 Carl Milstein Memorial in 1:50.4.

Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. and Melillo were intent on leaving for position, but Myboypank (Marvin Luna) and Fire Run (Atlee Bender) both blasted off the gate, forcing Wrenn, Jr. to take back and let the dust settle. Myboypank and Fire Run battled through an opening quarter in :26.4 before Wrenn, Jr. was able to drive on to the front.

Just past the quarter, Wrenn, Jr. reached the lead but quickly released barnmate Aces And Cinches, and settled into the pocket. Aces And Cinches reached the half in :54.3 maintaining control through three-quarters in 1:22.

Turning for home with open road in the passing lane, Melillo exploded through and powered home to secure his signature stakes victory.

Redland Rocket Man and Brett Miller closed strongly after making a bold four-wide move on the far turn to finish second, while Fire Run came on for third.

The victory was particularly meaningful for Melillo as he is named after co-owner Jason Melillo.

"He's peaking at the right time and there's a lot of big races coming up," Wrenn, Jr. said. "When he got into the passing lane he exploded."

Wrenn, Jr. also believes Melillo has taken an important step forward mentally.

"He's figuring it out and knows how to win now," he said.

After coming so close in the Adios, Melillo delivered at 1-5 odds, earning his biggest victory to date in the $300,000 Carl Milstein Memorial.

CLEVER CODY ALL THE WAY IN MYRON CHARNA PACE

A familiar face returned to the Ohio spotlight in a big way Saturday night, as Clever Cody dominated the $100,000 Myron Charna Presidents Pace for Ohio-sired veteran pacers. A horse that struck fear into the hearts of Ohio horsemen not long ago, Clever Cody was a force throughout the Ohio Sires Stakes, capturing back-to-back championships and establishing himself as one of the division's toughest competitors. Now owned and trained by Francois Lecomte and driven by Luke Ebersole, the veteran pacer was aggressively handled off the wings and with an impressive burst of speed coming off the first turn and immediately took control of the race, carving out fractions of :26, :54.1, and 1:22.3.

Clever Cody turned for home with the field in pursuit and powered through the stretch to stop the clock in 1:50.1, matching his lifetime best. Chasing him home was a familiar name in the Myron Charna Presidents Pace, as 2022 winner Charlie May and Dan Noble came charging after the leader to finish second. Rose Run Zane and Justin Irvine rounded out the trifecta. Ebersole said after the race, "when you have the rail at Northfield you just got to go."

For Lecomte and Ebersole, the victory was a statement from a horse whose dominance once made him one of the most feared faces in Ohio racing. Clever Cody may have changed hands and found a new home in Lecomte's stable, but his performance in the $100,000 Charna showed that the former Ohio Sires Stakes champion still has plenty of fight left and remains a force to be reckoned with not just in Ohio.

JURASSIC HATTIE WINS TOM ALDRICH MEMORIAL TROT AFTER INQUIRY

Jurassic Hattie was placed as the winner of the $100,000 Tom Aldrich Memorial Trot for Ohio-sired older trotters on Saturday night. From her rail start she was the first one to the lead in :26.4 before yielding to Legacy Affair and Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. There wasn't much of a breather for Legacy Affair getting down to the half in :55. On the final turn, Jurassic Hattie popped to the outside off her ideal trip and couldn't get to Legacy Affair in the final stages as she crossed the wire a neck behind. However, the excitement quickly turned to anxious moments as the judges posted the inquiry sign. After reviewing the stretch action, the judges determined that Legacy Affair had gone inside two pylons at the top of the stretch and placed her second, elevating Jurassic Hattie to the winner's circle in 1:53.3.

The victory gave Jurassic Hattie her second straight win over Legacy Affair after taking last week's $65,000 Ohio State Fair. Jogging Full Trot saved ground and rallied for third. She is now a 17-time winner and has pushed her career earnings over three-quarters-of-a-million. She is owned by her breeder Jerry Welch and trained by Stacey Van Huizen.

$2.3M Sun Stakes Saturday bring sport's top horses to Pocono

by PHHA / Pocono

The lure of $2.3 million in purses, plus, in many cases, divisional bragging rights, have attracted a sizable portion of harness racing's stars to Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania this Saturday afternoon (Aug. 22) for its biggest card of the year, Sun Stakes Saturday. The 14-race program, starting at 2:30 p.m., is bringing to the mountain oval many of the best horses in North American harness racing, both this year and in recent campaigns.

The major format of the day is as follows: each of the four divisions of 3-year-olds, separated by sex and gait, are seeded by their money earnings in 2026, with a maximum of eight horses per field. The two stakes for males, the Grade 2 Earl Beal Memorial Trot and the Grade 2 Max C. Hempt Memorial Pace, will race for $300,000, $200,000, and $100,000 in three races for each respective group as sorted by seasonal money winnings. The Grade 1 James Lynch Memorial Pace and Grade 1 Delmonica Hanover Trot, the companion events for fillies, have $250,000-$125,000-$75,000 sections, their fields also separated by 2026's earnings.

There will also be $100,000 invitationals for the top older horses on both gaits: the Grade 3 Always B Miki Pace and the Grade 3 Sebastian K S Trot, named after the co-fastest pacer and fastest trotter ever at Pocono.

Here is a brief look at the top horses in the major contests on the Sun Stakes Saturday card, per event – The 3-year-old pacing events are very competitive in a pair of divisions within whom it has been hard to point out a clear leader, so we will turn our attention to them first:

You can't leave anybody out of consideration, so from post 1 to post 8 (asterisk* indicates one of three Ron Burke entrants in the race): Melillo* followed up a head loss in the Adios final with a win in the Milstein on Saturday; Brandon Blvd had been the most consistent of these until he came up a bit flat in the Cane; Al Papi* was powerful in both his Adios miles, and missed a head in the Meadowlands Pace; Odds On Mr Mamba won the North America Cup and his Adios elim; he could do on his best mile.

On the right side of the gate: Beau Jangles, Horse of the Year in 2025 and winner of his first 15 races, but then 0-for-5 since; Sweet Lovin Lou and Gentleman's Club, separated by a head in that order in the Cane; and Pennsylvania Sire Stakes multiple winner Another C Note*.

GRADE 1 JAMES LYNCH MEMORIAL PACE

($250,000 division race 10; $125,000 division race 6, $75,000 division race 2):

Loua Dipa, last year's divisional champion, looked on top of this group, but then tried the boys in the Adios and was unlucky and unsuccessful, and she has not been seen since.

Three fillies looking to fill the Loua Dipa void start from the middle of the field in the Lynch. Sangria Summer has won three of her last four starts, in the last beating her two main Lynch rivals in the Shady Daisy on Hambletonian Day – Darlin's Angel, winner of over 50 per cent in her career and just a head away in the Shady Daisy; and Be Perfect BG, who had 10 wins over two years and two photo losses to Loua Dipa, earning her favoritism in the Shady Daisy, and missed only three-parts-of-a-length in third after setting a fast pace. The late-developing Miss Jum Jabber was not eligible.

GRADE 2 EARL BEAL MEMORIAL TROT

($300,000 division race 13; $200,000 division race 9, $100,000 division race 3):

Hambletonian and 2YO champion Apex has been lightly-campaigned all year per his stable's philosophy, with only five starts to date, and has been kept out of the Beal; the horse who staged such a memorable stretch duel with him, Big Ranger, was not made eligible. This gives other good horses a chance to raise their divisional profile.

Minoan, third in the Hambletonian at 103-1, followed up with a PA Sire Stakes triumph at The Meadows last Saturday. Inexpressable, the Yonkers Trot champion, comes off a win in the Muscle Hill at The Meadowlands. Three others in the Beal – Al, Magic Punk, and Spencer Hanover – qualified for the Hambletonian final, but were disadvantageously-placed and finished well back in the big race; they have the credentials to win on their best effort.

GRADE 1 DELMONICA HANOVER TROT

($250,000 division race 11; $125,000 division race 7, $75,000 division race 1):

Setyoursightshigh, the Dan Patch Award winner in this group in 2025, is finding her top form at a good time: she won her Hambletonian Oaks elimination, and then was third in the final after having to go first-over. Victorianas Secret is obviously a very fast filly: she has won four of her last five, but her timing was not good in her loss in her Hambo Oaks elim – she made an early error then tried to rectify it with coming home in :54 - :25.3, only to lose by three lengths while sixth. And the hometown favorite will be Little Road, trained by 80 years young Roger Hammer, who shows four wins, one in a PA Sire Stakes, and two PASS photo defeats in her last six lines.

GRADE 3 SEBASTIAN K S TROT

($100,000 race 5):

The Burke stable has an embarrassment of riches in this division; for the Sebastian K S they have sent a very good representative:

Lexus Kody, 2025 Trotter of the Year, Yonkers International winner, and a head shy of being on a four-race win streak. Forty career victories and earnings of $2,234,124 speak to his durability and talent.

His main competitor appears to be Nordic Catcher S, from the barn of new Hall of Famer Åke Svanstedt, who was the 2025 Hambletonian champion, then was away from the races for almost a year. A win and a solid fourth in his two races in 2026 could suggest that he is approaching a very big mile. And don't overlook Sir Pinocchio, who wheels right back in after a 1:51.1 lifetime mark at Pocono on Monday (Aug. 17).

GRADE 3 ALWAYS B MIKI PACE

($100,000 race 14):

Here's another division that's been searching for a leader, and it might now have found one, and he's a local horse – Dandy Ideal, trained and part-owned in this area. Dandy Ideal went out to Hoosier Park last week and tied a track record in a 1:47.2 victory, and he paced that same time in equaling a world record at Pocono a few weeks back.

Captain Albano and Ken Hanover are familiar names who are "outsiders" in the Always B Miki in that they have drawn post 7 and 8, respectively. Another "outsider" could be Surreal Ideal, who draws well and who has sandwiched two Meadows open

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Beaton trainees Waves Of Fortune and Twin B Copacabana sweep Golds for 2-year-old pacing fillies

by Dave Briggs / Ontario Racing

Trainer Tony Beaton swept both $100,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Gold leg 3 events for 2-year-old pacing fillies on Monday (Aug. 17) at Woodbine Mohawk Park and, in the process, reached both 500 career wins and surpassed $15 million in earnings.

Beaton pupils Waves Of Fortune and Twin B Copacabana provided the trainer with the golden evening.

In the first division (race 2), Waves Of Fortune won her first Gold test of the year after being the runner-up to Money Carlo in the first two Golds. James MacDonald steered the daughter of Bettors Delight out of the Somebeachsomewhere mare Cozy Beach to a 1:51 career-best triumph. The margin of victory was 1¾ lengths over Lyons Flurry (Mark MacDonald).

Sent off as the 1-9 favorite in the field of six, Waves Of Fortune was eased into third by MacDonald as Lyons Flurry and Cattle Belle (Trevor Henry) battled for the lead with the former leading the field to the :26 opening quarter. Coming off the first turn, James had Waves Of Fortune in gear, and she quickly brushed to the front and took the group through the :55.1 half and 1:23.2 three-quarter station before opening up a bit in deep stretch.

Charolais Cattle (Louis-Philippe Roy) closed well to be third, followed by Qued Up (Tyler Borth) and Cattle Belle.

Waves Of Fortune paid $2.20.

Watch the race replay here.

Waves Of Fortune is now 2-2-0 in four career starts and has earnings of $109,500 for trainer and part-owner Tony Beaton, his wife Lisa Lefort, David Merce, and Teresa Davidson. Bred by Southwind Farms of New Jersey, Waves Of Fortune was sold for $17,000 at the 2025 Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling sale in Harrisburg, PA.

“We were always hopeful she would be a top-level filly,” Beaton told Woodbine broadcaster John Rallis. “Training down, she never did anything wrong and she always wanted to go forward.”

In the second division (race 9), previous two-time Gold champs Twin B Mayreau and Money Carlo met for the first time in a division that also featured Battle of the Belles champ Jersey Bulldog. But it was 31-1 long shot Twin B Copacabana that shot up the inside in the stretch and on to her first Gold victory.

Mark MacDonald guided the daughter of Cattlewash—Lovely Erin to the one-length triumph in a career-best 1:50.2.

Despite it being a field of six, the race was surprisingly competitive.

Twin B Mayreau (Tyler Jones), Twin B Copacabana and Money Carlo (James MacDonald) battled into the first turn, with the three fillies in that order at the :26.1 first-quarter station. James had Money Carlo out and rolling coming out of the turn and he led the group to the :55.3 half and the 1:23.2 three-quarter pole with Twin B Mayreau, Twin B Copacabana, and Jersey Bulldog (Bob McClure), the 6-5 favorite, all in close pursuit. Turning for home, Money Carlo held a slim lead as Mark ducked Twin B Copacabana up the inside and both Jersey Bulldog and Twin B

Mayreau attacked from Money Carlo's right flank.

Twin B Copacabana came home in :26.2 to seal the victory, but it was extremely tight for place and show. In the end, Money Carlo edged out Jersey Bulldog for second, followed by Twin B Mayreau in fourth. Twentydollardolly (Jean Renaud) grabbed the final check.

Despite his filly's long odds, Mark said he wanted Twin B Copacabana to be forwardly placed off the gate.

"These Ontario-breds are so tough," Mark said. "But, my filly's not bad. I know she was 31-1, but I was going to make them do a little work if they wanted to get around me."

Mark said shooting up the inside was, "just a calculated risk. I took a shot. I didn't want to be out uncovered in that turn since the half was only :55. I knew we were going to come a big back half... I wanted to stay on the rail and just hope something worked out late. And you know sometimes if you can get up the inside, a horse can beat anybody, and that's what worked out there."

Twin B Copacabana paid $64.90 to win.

Watch the race replay here.

It was the second win in five lifetime starts for the pacer, who now sports earnings of $83,000 for the Copacabana Stable of Waterdown, ON.

Twin B Copacabana was bred by Twinbrook Limited of Embro, ON. She was purchased for $90,000 at the 2025 London Classic Yearling Sale.

As for Beaton, Mark said the trainer has, "done such a great job. Look at all the fillies he's got. It's crazy. He's such a good trainer. I used to work with Tony when he was with Casie Coleman, and he developed Western Silk, Chancey Lady, all those horses and it's so cool to see him on his own and doing so well... it means a lot that he gave me an opportunity to drive some of these nice horses and I really appreciate it."

ATLAS ROSS NOW PERFECT THROUGH FOUR STARTS, TAKES GOLD IN LIFETIME BEST

Atlas Ross improved to a perfect four-for-four and set a 1:51.2 career best while winning the lone $150,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold leg 3 event for 2-year-old pacing colts on Sunday (Aug. 16) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

It was the third OSS victory of Atlas Ross' career and the second straight Gold score. The Gregg McNair trainee's first OSS win was a Grassroots victory on July 5 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Sent off as the even-money favorite in the field of nine, Doug McNair settled Atlas Ross fourth in the early going from the Moments later, Yes I Am Hanover (Bob McClure) took over the front, but McNair was also in pursuit, briefly took the lead and then relented the front to second choice Gogo Gadget (Jonathan Drury) who led the group to the :55.4 half. Gogo Gadget was still in charge at the 1:23.4 three-quarter pole, but both Big D Energy (Mark MacDonald) and Atlas Ross were closing. In the stretch, McNair sent Atlas Ross up the inside and, once clear of both Gogo Gadget and Big D Energy, Atlas Ross pulled away with authority to win by 1¾ lengths over a fast-closing Yes I Am Hanover.

"I wasn't sure what was pacing on the inside, but once he shot through, he kind of exploded," McNair told Woodbine broadcaster John Rallis. "He's a really fast colt."

Big D Energy was third, followed by Gogo Gadget and Kerplunk. Atlas Ross paid $4.10.

GRASSROOTS RESULTS

On Sunday's card, there were also three OSS Grassroots events at Woodbine Mohawk Park for 2-year-old pacing fillies. The winners were:

- Aceandaten (Cattlewash—Dreamin Girl) broke her maiden in 1:52 for breeders Tara Hills Stud and Bellevue Farms, owner Jason Castellan, trainer Gregg McNair and driver Doug McNair. Aceandaten was a $70,000 purchase at the 2025 London Classic Yearling Sale.
- Lyons Bulldog (Bulldog Hanover—Ava Hanover) set a 1:51.2 career best for breeder Vieux Carre Farms, owner Three Lyons racing, trainer Dr. Ian Moore and driver Mark MacDonald. Lyons Bulldog was purchased for $31,000 at the 2025 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.
- Diamondsbestfriend (Bulldog Hanover—Yellow Diamond) set a 1:51.4 career best for breeders Steve Jones and Fair Winds Farm, owner/trainer Jack Darling and driver Bob McClure. Diamondsbestfriend was purchased for $107,000 at the 2025 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

DAYA UPSETS A CLEAN DEAL IN SOPHOMORE PACING FILLIES' GOLD

Daya posted a 1:49.1 career-best mile and upset eight-time Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold champ A Clean Deal in the lone $150,000 OSS Gold leg 4 event for 3-year-old pacing fillies on Saturday (Aug. 15) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The mile was one-fifth-of-a-second off equaling the OSS record set by Boadicea in 2019.

Sent off as the 7-2 second choice in the short field of five, Daya (Bob McClure) chased down A Clean Deal (Doug McNair) in the stretch and won by a head over the latter for owner, breeder, and trainer Jack Darling of Cambridge, ON.

Daya led the field through the :26.3 opening quarter, but relented to 1-5 favorite A Clean Deal before the :54.4 half. McNair kept A Clean Deal on the lead through the 1:23 three-quarters, but, in the lane Daya sprinted past in deep stretch to record her second Gold victory of the year.

In the stretch, McClure appeared completely calm and confident that Daya was going to win.

"I wasn't as confident as him," Darling told Woodbine broadcaster John Rallis. "But when Bobby came out of that hole, he just sat there like a Sunday drive. He looked like he knew what was going to happen."

CHER HILL POSTS 1:52.4 CAREER-BEST VICTORY IN SOPHOMORE TROTTING FILLIES' GOLD

Cher Hill posted her first Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) victory of the season, winning the lone $150,000 OSS Gold leg 4 event for 3-year-old trotting fillies on Saturday (Aug. 15) at Woodbine Mohawk Park in a career-best 1:52.4.

Sent off as the 7-2 third choice in the field of seven, the daughter of Muscle Mass out of Lauramarie Hill, defeated 1-2 favorite Blue Jean Gal (James MacDonald) by two lengths.

Todd McCarthy drove Cher Hill to victory for trainer Gregg McNair and owner/breeder Tom Hill. McCarthy gave Cher Hill a pocket trip behind second choice Bingo Night (Tyler Jones) through fractions of :27.1, :57.2, and 1:25.2 before taking control of the race before the top of the stretch and holding off a late charge from Blue Jean Gal in the lane.

"I [was] just kind of cautious, just edging her out in the turn, and then when she straightened and I asked her to go on, she gave me a really good kick," McCarthy told Woodbine broadcaster John Rallis. "I was still nervous about James on my back there, but the way that [Cher Hill] kind of accelerated at the top of the stretch, I thought that he was going to have to be pretty good to get by tonight. She held up a sprint really well all the way to the line. So full credit to Gregg and having her spot on."

Flowing Tribute (Tyler Borth) was third, followed by Satu Wania (Travis Henry), and Me Laurel (Mark MacDonald). Bingo Night faded to last.

Kentucky SIRE STAKES REPORT

Seaside Ubeaut wires foes in Kentucky Championship Series

by Ray Coto for The Red Mile

Seaside Ubeaut snagged an easy lead and rolled through sensible fractions to win the $80,000 Kentucky Championship Series second preliminary for 2-year-old pacing fillies during a makeup card of racing on Monday evening (Aug. 17) at The Red Mile.

Leaving from post 3, Seaside Ubeaut (driven by Dexter Dunn) pushed for the front with My Taylors Swift (Todd McCarthy) securing the pocket towards a :28 first quarter. The field remained single file as Seaside Ubeaut coasted up the backstretch towards a :55.4 half but steadily broke ranks while Dunn's charge strode through the last turn. Banana Beach (Andy McCarthy) angled out of fourth to race first up while Seaside Ubeaut plugged towards three-quarters in 1:23.4. My Taylors Swift had room to pull from the pocket into the stretch and laid aim on the leader, but Seaside Ubeaut staved off that rival all through the stretch to cross the beam a neck better in a 1:50.3 mile with Banana Beach settling for third and Sister Girl Blues (Marvin Luna) giving chase in fourth.

Andrew Harris trains Seaside Ubeaut, a filly by Downbytheseaside out of world champion mare Warrawee Ubeaut who collected her second win from three starts and pushed her earnings to $61,400 for owner Punisher 11 Stable LLC.

Driver Tim Tetrick was unseated from Fendilicious just after the start of that Kentucky Championship Series division when one of his lines broke. Tetrick stood up from the incident and walked back to the paddock on his own power but booked off his remaining drives for the evening.

Tetrick won earlier on the makeup card in the lone $30,000 division of the Kentucky Commonwealth Series for 2-year-old pacing fillies when making a fierce first-over blitz in the last turn with Pillow Play to grab the lead and then hold off pocket-rallying Sweet As Silk (Todd McCarthy) for a

WALL OF FAME REMAINS UNBEATEN WITH KENTUCKY CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES WIN

Wall Of Fame flexed her class with a :54.2 back half to bring her undefeated record to five wins with a 1:52.2 effort in the $80,000 Kentucky Championship Series second preliminary for 2-year-old trotting fillies on Monday afternoon (Aug. 17) at The Red Mile.

Driver Andy Miller glided towards the top with Wall Of Fame and cleared narrowly through a :29.4 first quarter while Heart Of Secret (driven by Yannick Gingras) brushed by for the lead. Miller then looped Wall Of Fame back to the point and reclaimed command snugly to a :58 half before gathering steam through the far turn. Wall Of Fame clocked three-quarters in 1:25.3 and rolled for home to leave her competitors straggling through the lane while she cruised over the line a three-length winner. Heart Of Secret held second with Fleur Delacour (Dexter Dunn) rallying from second over for third, Sweetest Of All (Scott Zeron) taking fourth and Kissme Ifyoucan (Austin Hanners) tiring from a first-over push in the last turn for last in the quintet.

Julie Miller trains Wall Of Fame, a daughter of Walner—Saadet, for owners Andy Miller Stable Inc., Jean Goehlen, Hutchison Harness LLC, and Rick Huffman. The filly, purchased for $60,000 as a yearling at the 2025 Lexington Selected Sale, has banked $190,000 through her career and paid $3.26 to win.

Trainer Marcus Melander swept the pair of $30,000 Kentucky Commonwealth Series divisions for 2-year-old trotting fillies on the undercard as part of a hat trick on the day. Turtle Dove (Tim Tetrick, 1:54.4 winning mile; $7.16 to win) inherited the win in the first division via disqualification of 6-5 favorite Merry

Zee (Gingras), who crossed the line first but was placed last for switching to a pace in the last sixteenth, while Jot It Down (Dunn, 1:55.4; $14.44) powered first up to win the other division over stablemate A Tale Of Kemp (Marvin Luna). Melander's hat trick concluded with a win by Mine Mine Mine (Dunn, 1:56.4; $4.60) in the second of three $10,000 divisions for the Kentucky Wildcat Series.

Four $15,000 divisions of the Kentucky Golden Rod Series also hit the track on the 15-race card. Trainer Petter Engblom doubled with wins by Hanna Hill (Andy McCarthy, 1:54; $5.30) and Mooncraft (Gingras, 1:54.1; $5.08) while Your Grace (Luna, 1:56; $13.56) and London Bi (Andy Miller, 1:56.4; $9.26) won the other dashes.

RED MILE CANCELS, RESCHEDULES REMAINDER OF SUNDAY CARD

Due to lightning and storms around the Lexington area, The Red Mile suspended the Sunday night (Aug. 16) card after six races and rescheduled the evening's remaining races.

Before the inclement weather arrived, a trio of Kentucky-bred races hit the track Sunday evening. Baby Puppy (driven by Atlee Bender) soared from a stalking trip to win a $30,000 Kentucky Commonwealth Series division for 2-year-old pacing fillies by 4¼ lengths in a 1:51.2 mile over 47-1 shot Sweet Deb (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) and Lindy Believer (Yannick Gingras). Erv Miller trains the winning daughter of Bulldog Hanover—American Cheer who paid $5.40 to win.

Odds-on favorites landed in the pair of $15,000 Kentucky Golden Rod divisions contested. Era Dominance (Marvin Luna) ripped to a front-stepping romp by 5¾ lengths in a 1:51.1 effort, paying $3.80 to win, and Jk Alwaysbpositive (Tim Tetrick) later vaulted off a second-over trip for a three-quarter-length victory over pacesetter Odds On Momma (Dexter Dunn) in a 1:52.3 mile. She paid $3.16 to win.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Whoomp flips the script on rival Somemore Blue in INSS

by Connor Mahoney / Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino

The fifth installment in the Whoomp versus Somemore Blue saga saw Whoomp driven by John De Long for trainer Roger Welch take down her rival in the $93,500 Indiana Sires Stakes for 3-year-old pacing fillies at Hoosier Park on Saturday (Aug. 15).

Dueling out of the wings, Whoomp shot out of post 5 while being matched by Somemore Blue (Marcus Miller) from post 2 to open up a four lengths advantage on the rest of the five-horse field. Somemore Blue offered little opportunity for Whoomp to slide by easily, which forced Whoomp to drop in the pocket and follow Somemore Blue through the first fraction in :25.4. The early excitement stalled on the backstretch as the field remained unchanged to the half-mile mark in :55.1.

Whoomp elected to trail behind Somemore Blue, hoping to take advantage of the tiring track conditions. The attention focused on the top pair through the three-quarter turn in 1:23.4. Rounding the curve signaled Whoomp's time to party as she punched the nitro blazing past Somemore Blue to the wire in 1:49.3 by 1½ lengths behind the strength of a :25.3 final quarter. Somemore Blue settled for second after the battle down the stretch. It's My Story was third, eight lengths behind the winner.

The 3-year-old filly Whoomp snagged her fourth win of the year increasing her lifetime earnings to $561,976. Whoomp is owned by William De Long, Wm Patrick De Long, and Jesse De Long. Whoomp was bred by William De Long and Patrick De Long.

Earlier in the evening in race 8, Flagman driven by Kevin Lambright for trainer Rick Plano planted his flag in the winner's circle nailing the favorite at the wire to win the $22,000 open trot.

From post 1, Flagman waited for the post-time favorite Ponda Jet (Kyle Wilfong), who soared to the early advantage at the first turn in :27. Ponda Jet continued his lead on the backstretch with the trotters following the leader single-file in :55.4. Ponda Jet did not skip a beat through the three-quarter turn in 1:24.2 with Flagman at the ready. Wearing down the leader, Flagman chipped away at Ponda Jet to strike at the wire in 1:52.1 by a neck. Ponda Jet fell to second, while Finite (John De Long) rallied for the show.

The Guccio gelding, Flagman is owned by Maryann Plano. Flagman secured his third victory of the season. The 9-year-old increased his lifetime earnings to $836,619. Flagman paid $22.60 to win.

New York SIRE STAKES REPORT

Sharp Seven scores in NYSS at Monticello

by Monticello Raceway

The lone $115,000 division of the New York Sire Stakes for 3-year-old filly trotters at Monticello Raceway on Monday (Aug. 17) was a five-horse field that saw divisional leader Sharp Seven and driver Matt Kakaley score an eight-length gate-to-wire win in 1:56.3.

Sharp Seven was uncontested through the mile, which saw three of the five fillies make breaks, and faced no serious threat. Flying Copper (driven by Jim Taggart Jr.) was second, followed by Jula Hot To Chill (Greg Merton).

A daughter of Chapter Seven—Lookin Sharp, Sharp Seven is owned by Purple Haze Stable and trained by George Ducharme. It was her second NYSS win on the year and pushed her seasonal earnings to $155,575. She paid $3.26 to win.

My Philomene notched her first win of the year in her spilt of the $20,000 Excelsior Series for sophomore filly trotters, winning in 1:57.2 for trainer/driver Trond Smedshammer. The daughter of Chapter Seven—Irish Melody FR is owned by Melady Enterprises. Coya (Dan Daley) was second, followed by Stealing Banksy (Kakaley).

Myths And Legends (Kakaley) took her division in 1:58.1 and is now a five-time Excelsior winner. The Chapter Seven—Steamy Windows filly is owned by S R F Stable and trained by Marcus Melander. Modesty Blasie (Johnathan Ahle) was second, with Sapparilla Sal (Daley) rounding out the top three.

The final leg of New York Sire Stakes at Monticello will be held on Monday (Aug. 24), when 3-year-old male trotters come to town. Post time will be 12:10 p.m. (EDT).

ARCHON GRABS NYSS WIN AT TIOGA ON SUNDAY

Archon (Dan Daley) captures a $112,100 leg of the New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) for freshmen colt and gelding trotters on Sunday (Aug. 16) at Tioga Downs.

Archon ($13.20) got the early lead and crossed the first quarter pole first in :28. Hypersonic (Ake Svanstedt) took command with a lap to go and was first to the half in :57.1. Archon came first-up down the backstretch and reclaimed the lead and led to three quarters in 1:26.

As they reached the stretch second place finisher Uncle Rob (Andy Miller) went all out after the lead, but Archon was too strong and captured his first career victory in 1:54.4. Bigtime Chapter (Mattias Melander) finished third.

Archon, a colt by Chapter Seven—Queen Paige, is trained by Daley for owners James Crawford IV, Timothy Drag, and Rich Preziotti.

Braxten Boyd and Mitchell Cushing had driving hat tricks. Leon Bailey had a driving double. Michelle Warner and Cam Capone had training doubles.

Tioga Downs returns to live racing on Friday (Aug. 21) starting at 6:15 p.m.

Iluvmymoni's 1:54.3 mile highlights fourth leg of OHSS for freshman colt trotters

by Wes Mayberry / Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association

Iluvmymoni posted the fastest of the two $75,000 divisions of the fourth leg of the Ohio Sires Stakes for freshman colt trotters at Northfield Park Racino on Monday (Aug. 17).

Driven by David Miller, Iluvmymoni won the second division by three lengths in 1:54.3. The Ready For Moni gelding out of Iluvwineandroses led gate-to-wire, recording fractions of :28.1, :57.3, and 1:26. Mind On My Moni (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) was second followed by Roll'n In Moni (Chris Lems) in third. It was the third OHSS win of the season for Iluvmymoni, who is trained by Steve Carter for owners Brixton Medical and Hatfield Stables. He also has two runner-up finishes on the year, earning $120,125 in five starts.

Debt Free (Wrenn, Jr.) won the first division by three-quarters-of-a-length in 1:55.1. Motor Earle (Mike Micallef) and Lou Armstrong (Justin Irvine) rounded out the top three. Debt Free is trained by Vernon Beachy for owners 518 Group, Gitup Racing, Ryan Smith, and Todd's Auto. Also, a winner in the third leg of the OHSS, the Ready For Moni gelding has hit the board in all five seasonal starts with a 3-1-1 record while banking $121,250.

MADE FOR MORE, MIZELLA PAIGE VICTORIOUS

Made For More and Miz Ella Paige recorded victories as Northfield Park Racino hosted two $75,000 divisions of the fourth leg of the Ohio Sires Stakes for freshman filly trotters on Sunday (Aug. 16).

Made For More (Chris Lems) scored her second OHSS win of the season, taking the first division in 1:56.1. The Long Tom filly led gate-to-wire, recording fractions of :29, :58.4, and 1:27.4 en route to winning by 2½ lengths over Moni Line (Kurt Sugg). Janet's Big Star (Tyler Smith) was third. Made For More is trained by Vernon Beachy for owner John Schlabach. A winner in The Next Generation in 1:56.4 and the third leg of the OHSS in a lifetime-best 1:54.1 – both at Eldorado Scioto Downs – she has hit the board in all six seasonal starts with four victories and two seconds while banking $189,750.

After recording two seconds and a third in the first three legs of the OHSS this season, Miz Ella Paige (Sam Widger) came out on top in the second division in Sunday's fourth leg in a lifetime mark of 1:57.3. The Uncle Peter filly led gate-to-wire with fractions of :29, :59.3, and 1:28.2, winning by three lengths over Rose Run Cybill (Sugg) with Lady Bountiful (Chris Page) in third. Miz Ella Paige is owned by trainer Karen Fread and Randy Toth. The filly has hit the board in all five seasonal starts with two wins, two seconds, and one third to go with $73,000 in earnings.

Two Day Hangover (Mattias Melander) winning her Pennsylvania Sire Stakes event for 2-year-old trotting fillies on Monday at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania.

Captain Corey offspring again sailing to victory at Pocono

by PHHA / Pocono

Those watching the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes and Stallion Series are very used to seeing sons and daughters of sire Captain Corey sail away sail away sail away in the stretch to victory. Captain Corey swept the two PASS divisions of the third preliminary round for baby freshman trotters Monday afternoon (Aug. 17) at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania: with Orinoco, who followed two Sires seconds with a win, and then Two Day Hangover, now two-for-two in the Sires while handling an off track brought out by mid-card rain.

Captain Corey's offspring also won two of the four Stallion Series divisions during a card which featured $189,892 in stakes action, and which was soaked by rain mid-card, changing the surface from fast to sloppy.

Orinoco (dam Bonnie Lou) flowed right to the lead for Åke Svanstedt, rebuffed several challenges along the way by favored Birr Castle, who was bidding for her third straight PASS win, and finally won out by 1¼ lengths over that pesky foe in a new lifetime best of 1:54.1 before the rain came. Svanstedt trains the successful filly, and his Åke Svanstedt Inc. co-owns her with Knutsson Training Inc.

Absent from the first Sire Stakes leg, Two Day Hangover (dam Sherry Lyns Lady) set a moderate pace in the off going, then sprinted home in :28.1 to win in 1:55.2, with first-over Miss Eliza (a previous Sires winner) photoing Patty's Girl for the deuce. Two Day Hangover also has a PA All-Stars victory on her resume and starts off unbeaten in three starts for driver Mattias Melander, trainer Marcus Melander, and the partnership of Brittany Farms LLC and Marvin Katz LLC.

Captain Corey also sired one of the three third prelim contestants in the PA StS who now have two victories in that category:

T'wouldmakemesing (dam Woman Of Power), who followed cover then won in 1:57.3 in the first race (including all the Stallion Series races) conducted in sloppy going. Tyler Buter guided the winner for trainer George Ducharme and FTM Racing Stable LLC. The fourth Captain Corey winner was Andersson Hanover (dam Angel Eyes Hanover), grinding to a maiden-breaking 1:57 win for driver Patrick Ryder, trainer Chris Ryder, and owner John McKeon, Jr.

The other two second time StS winners were the International Moni—Lily Kronos IT filly Ops Mearas S, fastest of the StSers at 1:55.4 for driver Ridge Warren, trainer Nicklas Andersen (no relation to Andersson Hanover) and Snogarps Gard Inc., and the Greenshoe—Sevenopper miss Sevenoops Hanover, up in 1:56.2 to give Tyler Buter a second Stallion Series win as he guided her for trainer Petter Engblom and Engblom Farm LLC, Evans Nation, and Hickory Hollow Stables.

Mention must be made of the Met's Hall millionaire gelding Sir Pinocchio, who prepped for a slot in the Sebastian K S Free-For-All trot during Sun Stakes Saturday (Aug. 22) at the end of the week by going down the road on a still-fast track in 1:51.1 in a $21,000 overnight. Brian Sears got the drive behind the Linda Toscano trainee for owner Carolyn Atherton.

Meet leader Buter had four wins on the day, all for different trainers and as mentioned two in the Stallion Series. Driver

Dan Rawlings and trainer Jose Godinez mutually benefited each other in two victories.

The Sun Stakes Saturday card has now been drawn, and a separate story has been posted about the $2.3M in stakes action. All free Pocono program pages are or will be available at www.phha.org.

Saturday's (Aug. 15) card at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows was packed with sophomore Pennsylvania Sire Stakes trotting action. The filly division featured two $49,000 divisions known as the Stenographer and three PA Stallion Series divisions, while the colts competed in two $49,000 divisions known as the Super Bowl and two Stallion Series divisions.

Geologic and Yannick Gingras kicked off the day with a wire-to-wire effort in the first race of the card. Gingras had no intention of racing the Paul Kelly trainee anywhere but on the lead as they captured the first male PASS division. After a :26.4 opening quarter, the pair reached the half in :56.4 and three-quarters in 1:24.4 before finishing in :27.3. The son of Captain Corey stopped the clock in a career-best 1:52.1, the fastest division of the day. Geologic is owned by Paul Kelly Racing Stable, Go For Glory Stables LLC, Matthew Lamont, and VIP Internet Stables LLC.

Minoan captured the other colt division courtesy of a perfect steer by Andrew McCarthy. McCarthy forwardly placed the gelded son of Bar Hopping from post 6 to the lead before surrendering the top spot to Overseer and Charlie Norris at the three-eighths. Minoan followed through fractions of :56.3 and 1:24.3 before pulling the pocket at the head of the stretch. A :27.3 final quarter produced a career-best 1:52 effort for trainer Noel Daley, who owns Minoan in partnership with Patricia Stables LLC, L.A. Express Stable LLC, and Sjoebloom Racing Inc. Minoan now has four wins from 10 starts and earnings of more than $200,000 in 2026.

Shimmering Hanover turned in the fastest mile of the day with a stakes-record 1:51.3 performance in her PASS filly division. Yannick Gingras sent Shimmering Hanover toward the lead from the start, and after a long stretch through a :27.3 opening quarter, the pair cleared by the three-eighths pole and reached the half in :55.2. Heading toward the three-quarters, Shimmering Hanover was briefly challenged by pocket-sitter Ginger Tree Lex, but the daughter of Captain Corey used a 28-second final quarter to seal the victory for trainer Luc Blais. Shimmering Hanover is owned by Determination of Canada.

Little Road and Brady Brown went right down the road to win their division in 1:52.0. Unhurried through the early going, Brown was able to get a comfortable 57-second opening half for Little Road. A :27.3 third quarter was followed by a :27.2 final quarter, and the daughter of Fordham Road stopped the clock in 1:52 for her sixth win of the year from 11 starts. Roger Hammer bred, owns, and trains Little Road, who now has earnings of more than $100,000 this season.

Captain Jordan and Yannick Gingras went to the lead on their way to a lifetime-best 1:53.3 victory in the final Stallion Series division for colts. Captain Jordan now has two Stallion Series victories this season for trainer Scott DiDomenico and owners Joe Ferlando and Triple D Stables Inc.

The second Stallion Series division also produced a front-end winner. Mike Wilder quickly moved Captain Micah to the lead before the quarter and held off Emmett Hanover for a career-best 1:54.3 triumph. Trained by Travis Alexander for owner Gino Toscani, it was the first Stallion Series win for the son of Captain Corey.

I Take The Cake made it three-for-three in Stallion Series action by winning the fastest filly division in 1:53.2. Dave Palone got favorable fractions of :28, :57.1, and 1:25.1 to set up the four-length victory for the daughter of Captain Corey. I Take The Cake is trained by Blake McIntosh, who shares ownership with Hutt Racing.

Berry Good News was used early but held on late to earn her Stallion Series victory and a new lifetime mark of 1:54.1. The daughter of Greenshoe was driven by Dave Palone for trainer Nifty Norman and owners Melvin Hartman and David McDuffee.

Wendalyn Hanover and Tim Tetrick cleared prior to the half and held off Intisaar Mil to take the third Stallion Series filly division. Wendalyn Hanover is trained by Britney Dillon and owned by William Hartt. The daughter of Greenshoe trotted to a 1:54.2 victory.

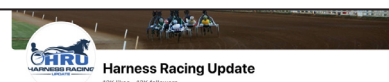

Saturday's top honors on the training side went to Rick Hercules with two wins, while Dave Palone led all drivers with four victories. Captain Corey proved to be the day's top sire, with five offspring making their way to the winner's circle.

Hollywood Casino at The Meadows will resume live racing on today (Aug. 19), with a first-race post time of 12:45 p.m.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

All Champy surges to victory in the Steve Wiseman Memorial Trot

by Darin Gagne for Running Aces Casino, Hotel and Racetrack

The feature race on Sunday night (Aug. 16) at Running Aces was the $35,000 Steve Wiseman Memorial Trot final which went to post with a very talented field of seven contenders, all trying for the coveted Wiseman trophy, blanket, and the winner's purse.

Fifty Rivers and driver Casey Leonard were sent off as the even-money favorites from post 4 with Inferno DK and Brady Jenson also heavily supported at 7-5 from post 3 and Peanutbutterfalcon with Scott Cisco rounding out the top picks on the board at 7-1 (post 5) while the 2024 Wiseman champion All Champy and driver Nick Roland were largely dismissed at 18-1 odds from post 6.

When the starter said "go" there was a mad scramble on for the front between Peanutbutterfalcon, Inferno DK, and Fifty Rivers that resulted in a scorching :26.2 opening quarter. Fifty Rivers made the front but had to work hard to get there while Inferno DK was relegated to the pocket, and after getting the first call Peanutbutterfalcon wound up traveling in third. Roland and All Champy also left alertly to secure the fourth position.

Fifty Rivers led comfortably during the middle half while posting fractions of :55.3 and 1:25 and All Champy tipped out to come first-over while both Chapolier and Lexus Markus tried bids from the back of the pack as the field bunched up around the far turn.

The early fractions were catching up with Fifty Rivers as they straightened for the stretch battle with All Champy gaining ground with every stride in the center of the track and Inferno DK closing on the inside.

All Champy forged to the lead in the shadow of the wire and Inferno DK was lunging inside but All Champy surged strongest in the final strides to score a three-quarters-of-a-length victory in 1:54.3 for his 52nd career win while Inferno DK completed the exacta and Peanutbutterfalcon rallied late to pass Fifty Rivers and grab the show dough.

This is the third straight year that All Champy has crossed the wire first in the Wiseman Memorial final but in 2025 he made a miscue right near the wire and was placed second.

The $38.80 winner is a classy 12-year-old veteran by Explosive Matter who increased his career earnings to $745,526.

All Champy is owned by Stephen Chambers and is trained by Kathie Plested.

Model Good Looks (by Southwind Cobra) and driver/trainer Brady Jenson made it two in a row in the $17,500 Minnesota-sired sophomore filly trot with a scintillating 9¾ length score in 1:57.4 over SV Shining Star and The Big Bomb. The $7.20 winner is owned by Larry Jenson and Ken Stauffer.

My Little Maverick (by Maverick) posted a new career mark with a 1:58.4 tally by a head over Bang Bang Boogie with Wisco Money Heist a close third in the Minnesota-sired $17,500 male trot for owners Aimes Racing and Connie Oke and trainer Elvin Zimmerman. Casey Leonard drove the $9.60 winner.

Casey Leonard and Brady Jenson both drove three winners on the card while Nick Roland and Rick Magee each recorded doubles and Jenson also scored a training double.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

MD Sire Stakes 2-Year-Olds begin at Ocean Downs

by Maryland Standardbred Race Fund

A new group of Maryland Sire Stakes contenders stepped onto the track Monday night (Aug. 17) at Ocean Downs as the first preliminary leg for 2-year-old colts and geldings got underway.

Three $10,000 divisions — one on the trot and two on the pace — put some of Maryland's promising young standardbreds in the spotlight. For many of these 2-year-olds, Monday night represented an important first step in what could become a season-long journey toward the Maryland Sire Stakes finals.

MY MAGO HOLDS ON IN TROTTING OPENER

The evening began with the first division for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings, and My Mago came away with a hard-earned victory.

Driven by Jared Moyer and trained by Adrian Wisher, Jr., My Mago settled into second early behind Lil Gerald, who led the field through the opening three quarters.

My Mago remained close through the middle stages before applying pressure as the field headed toward the final turn. By three-quarters, he was within a length-and-a-half of the leader, and he continued to close through the stretch.

The son of Il Mago out of My Kid Sister finally put his head in front late and held on to win by a half-length in 2:05.2.

Wings Of Warning weaved his way through traffic to finished second while In The Worst Way was third after making a break soon after the start.

My Mago is owned by Rudy Hostetler of Maryland.

CASH IS BETTER DELIVERS A DOMINANT PERFORMANCE

The first pacing division produced one of the night's most impressive performances as Cash Is Better took control early and never gave his rivals much of a chance.

With Corey Braden driving for trainer Courtney Brooks, Cash Is Better left from post 5 and immediately established command.

From there, he was in complete control.

The son of More The Better N out of R B G reached the quarter in :29.2 and continued to lead through a half in :59.2. He remained four lengths in front at three-quarters in 1:28.3 before finishing the mile in 1:57.1.

Cash Is Better crossed the wire 9¼ lengths ahead of Lovethatsoup with Free Shot who miscued early able to finish third.

Cash Is Better is owned and bred by Courtney Brooks of Maryland.

For the Maryland Standardbred breeding program, seeing a Maryland-owned and Maryland-bred 2-year-old dominate his first Sire Stakes appearance is precisely the kind of result that makes these races so meaningful.

SHOOTOUT TAKES THE SECOND PACE DIVISION

The final division of the evening belonged to Shootout, who delivered a professional front-end performance for his Maryland Sire Stakes debut.

Driven by Roger Plante, Jr. and trained by Steve Le Blanc, Shootout left from post 5 and quickly established control.

The son of Wearinmysixshooter out of The New Americana reached the quarter in :30.1 and maintained his advantage through a half in 1:00.4 and three-quarters in 1:30.2.

Octavian mounted a serious challenge in the stretch, but Shootout remained strong and held on by a quarter-length in 1:58.4 sprinting home in :28.2.

Octavian finished second with He's Got Talent third.

The winner is owned by Glenn Dyke of Delaware, Leblanc Racing Inc. of Delaware, and James Stuart of Delaware, with Dyke also listed as the breeder.

Maine SIRE STAKES REPORT

The Gucci Man sets Topsham track record

by Chris Tully for Maine Sire Stakes

It took three $15,000-plus dashes of Maine's 2-year-old colt and gelding pacers to complete that division's visit to Topsham Fair, closing out the week-long meet on Saturday (Aug. 15), with track records falling by the wayside.

In the first $15,153 split of the Maine Sire Stakes, an early non-wagering race, it was all Top Notch Treasure who has continued to build on his unblemished record. Scoring from pylon position, driver Mike Stevenson defended his ground and sent the son to State Treasurer out on a wire-to-wire circuit of winning calls.

Setting early fractions of :30.1 and 1:01.2 the first signs of a challenge came from Agent James Bond (Kevin Switzer, Jr.) as the field hit the third station in 1:31.1. At the head of the stretch the aggressor was within three-parts-of-a-length from the pacesetter, who dug in gamely and rolled down the Topsham lane to win by a measured length in 2:01.

Trained by Christopher Dubois for owner Steven Moskowitz Racing, he was bred in Maine by Lynn-Marie Plouffe and now has four straight victories this season.

South St Justin (Nick Graffam) finished third.

The second $15,324 division was yet another pillar-to-post romp by The Gucci Man and Kevin Switzer, Jr., which ended with the colt breaking the track record at the Topsham oval.

Setting swift early fractions of :28.1 and 1:00, the son of Dude's The Man was stung to the opening panel by Painter's Treasure (Andy Harrington), but settled into his preferred tempo-setting position. Following that early tussle that resulted in a 16-length gap to the rest of the pack, The Gucci Man set a comfortable 1:31.3 third panel with Painter's Treasure still in a tight pocket.

Through the final turn Switzer, Jr. let out a notch on his unbeaten freshman and cruised home in 2:00.3, the fastest division of the afternoon. The winning time was a new track record for 2-year-old pacing colts and shaved nearly a second off the 2:01.2 record set in 2002 by That's It That's All and driver Jason Bartlett.

Owned, trained, and bred by Marc Tardif, he was barred from the wagering while posting a :29 final quarter in his fourth straight score. Painter's Treasure finished second but paid $3.60 as 'the mutual winner' with Justcallmebuddy (Aaron Hall) finishing third.

In the third and final $15,153 division it was a new winner who claimed his first pari-mutuel victory over the historic Topsham Fair surface.

When the gate sprung it was Steev Oz Ten (Nick Graffam) who briefly held pylon position, then came Two Bolts and Mike Cushing who took the early lead from post 4. Duderrific (Dave Ingraham) had continued their push for the lead while parked through the :31.4 opening panel, and ultimately landed on the point.

The field was stretched out during that opening quarter but managed to tighten up a bit through the 1:02.1 midway marker. A precocious pocket-sitting Two Bolts allowed Duderrific to put three lengths on the field as he passed the third station in 1:31.4, with One Last Deal (Kevin Switzer, Jr.) marching first over around the final turn.

As the pacers roared down the stretch it was all Duderrific who picked up his first lifetime win in 2:00.4, just a tick off the newly established track record.

Trained by James Heap for owner/breeder M And L of Delaware, the son of Dude's The Man returned $8.80.

One Last Deal finished second; Two Bolts was third.

The harness racing action moved north to Skowhegan and kicked off on Tuesday (Aug. 18) with the 3-year-old colt and gelding pacers, followed today (Aug. 19) by the sophomore distaff pacers.

Logan Park wins Earl Rowe Memorial in record mile

Double-millionaire Logan Park reclaimed the Earl Rowe Memorial Invitational Trot crown in record fashion with an authoritative victory in Georgian Downs' $100,000 signature race on Saturday (Aug. 15).

The 2024 champion neutralized his post-8 draw with an early blast that put him on top as the field of eight entered the first turn, while favorite Emoticon Legacy (Bob McClure) dropped back to sixth. Logan Park stayed cool on the front with Gaines Hanover (Austin Sorrie) first-over past the half in :57 as that rival failed to advance past the leader's wheel. Doug McNair loosened his hold on Logan Park going to three-quarters in 1:24.1, putting his gelding 2½ lengths clear of the rest in the stretch. Emoticon Legacy charged down the outside after a four-wide swoop on the last turn but was two lengths short of the wrapped-up Logan Park, who stopped the clock in 1:51.4. Dame Good Time (Scott Young) was a closing third.

Logan Park's time lowered the track record for an older trotting gelding and the all-age Canadian standard for a gelded trotter on a five-eighths-mile oval. Fashion Frenzie's 1:52.3 mile from the 2022 Earl Rowe was the previous record at Georgian and shared the national record with Macallan, who matched that time in 2024 at Grand River Raceway.

The victory for Logan Park was his seventh this year in 11 outings as the Archangel—Rite Outa The Park gelding chases his fourth straight O'Brien Award as Canada's Older Trotting Horse of the Year. The Kyle Fellows trainee has won the Woodbine Mohawk Park open six times this year. After winning the 2024 Earl Rowe, Logan Park finished third last year by a neck. He is 51-for-113 lifetime with $2,482,685 earned for Outofthepark Stable of Rockwood, ON, Reg Higgs of Blenheim, ON, and Arpad Szabo of Bradford, ON. He paid $4.20 to win.

Three $30,000 divisions of the Ontario Sires Stakes Grassroots leg 3B for 2-year-old trotting colts were at the top of the undercard menu. Save You A Seat ($46.50) upset in the opener as he circled to the front early, yielded to sit the pocket, then collared favorite The Great Gazoo (Austin Sorrie) to prevail by three-quarters-of-a-length in 1:58.3. Anthony Haughan had the lines of the Archangel—Twin B Hugs gelding for trainer Francis Dumouchel.

A second upset came as Blank Shank ($34.10) wired the field in the second division for driver Ed Hensley and trainer Jean-Francois Maguire. The son of Archangel—Beer Maggs reached the line in front by two lengths and put up a time of 1:59.1.

Arm N Hammer ($4.70) took the third division, peeling off by 3¼ lengths in the stretch to win in 1:57.3 after leading throughout. Bob McClure drove the Muscle Mass-Ava Marion gelding for trainer Paul Reid.

Two-year-old trotters contested five divisions of leg 3B of the Prospect Series. The three filly winners were Highland Fire Ice ($4.80) in 2:01.1, Twelvecaratgold ($5.80) in 2:03, and Tirade Seelster ($31.20) in 2:00.4. Mess Around ($5.20, 2:03.1) and Naked Farmer ($4.50, 2:01) won the colt splits.

Sugar Man makes McKinnon's Gold Cup dream a reality

Mark McKinnon returned home to Prince Edward Island Saturday evening (Aug. 15) and watched a childhood dream move within reach as Sugar Man delivered a commanding performance in his $15,000 Atlantic Lottery Gold Cup & Saucer trial at Red Shores Racetrack and Casino at the Charlottetown Driving Park.

Sugar Man and stablemate Fifth And Five both advanced to the $100,000 Gold Cup & Saucer final, presented by Atlantic Lottery, for McKinnon and owner Pollack Racing LLC of Venetia, PA.

McKinnon grew up dreaming of winning the Gold Cup & Saucer but admitted he had largely surrendered that ambition after leaving the Island to work in Ontario.

"It was a childhood dream growing up, but one that I had basically given up on," McKinnon said. "But here we are."

Sugar Man ($3.10) was sent directly to the lead by driver Jody Jamieson in the first trial and controlled fractions of :26.2, :55, and 1:23 before closing the mile with a 27-second final quarter. The 4-year-old son of Papi Rob Hanover stopped the clock in 1:50, winning by 3½ lengths, just shy of the 1:49.4 track record held by Miki Shan N.

Brue Hanover (driven by Jason Hughes) finished second for trainer Ashley Gamester, while Jordy N (Louis-Philippe Roy) was third for trainer Jacques Dupont. The first three finishers from each trial earned places in the Aug. 22 final.

"This is the dream," McKinnon said. "This is the race I've always wanted to win. Having my name on them, putting the work in, and everything that goes along with it, it's definitely living the dream."

McKinnon credited Pollack Racing's Tom Pollack and the entire Dave Menary stable for giving him the opportunity to return home with the Gold Cup & Saucer starters.

"They're so supportive," McKinnon said. "They know the work we put in and they appreciate it. I couldn't be more thankful to them for this opportunity."

The Island-born horseman is accustomed to racing leading horses for major purses at Woodbine Mohawk Park in Ontario, but Saturday's trials brought a different level of emotion.

"We race great horses up there for big money week in and week out, but this was definitely a lot more when it came to the nerves," McKinnon said. "Once we got in here and started working on things and warming them up, I settled down because I was busy. But all day was a little stressful."

Menary was racing at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Saturday but sent McKinnon a photograph showing that he was watching Sugar Man's trial from the drivers' room. The rest of the stable also celebrated the victory from Ontario.

"His daughter sent a big voice note screaming and yelling," McKinnon said. "They're definitely happy for us out here. I'm thankful for them too because they're all working hard up there while they're short-staffed."

Helluva N ($12.30) captured the second trial by a head in a three-horse finish for driver Roy and trainer Dupont. Timeisonmyside (Anthony MacDonald) cut fractions of :27.1, :55.2, and 1:23 before Helluva N swept into contention and prevailed in 1:50.3.

Timeisonmyside finished second for trainer Jamie Smith, with McKinnon trainee Fifth And Five (Jamieson) only a neck back in third. Helluva N is owned by Ecurie CSL of Sorel-Tracy, QC.

Jamieson will have his choice between Sugar Man and Fifth And Five in the final.

"I haven't really talked to Jody a lot yet, but he said both horses were great," McKinnon said. "I assume he'll probably wait until Tuesday and see how the draw goes."

Defending Gold Cup & Saucer champion Miki Shan N ($5.20) successfully began his title defense in the third trial for driver Corey MacPherson and trainer Chris MacKay. Ammo (Marc Campbell) controlled fractions of :26.4, :55.2, and 1:23.4 before Miki Shan N powered past in the stretch to win by 1¼ lengths in 1:51.2.

Ammo finished second for trainer Ron Matheson, while Trumpster Blues (Brady Sweet) completed the qualifying trio for trainer Jeff Holmes. Miki Shan N is owned by Kap Singh Racing Stable of Yorktown Heights, NY, Stephen Klunowski of North York, ON, Earl Hill, Jr. of Ohsweken, ON, and Donald MacRae of Vernon Bridge.

McKinnon said racing all three trials on the same evening provided equal conditions for every Gold Cup & Saucer hopeful.

"It's still pretty wide open," McKinnon said. "It's going to come down to the draw. Tuesday is going to be a big factor. It's still going to be a very tough group."

McKinnon and Jamieson are both East Coast natives seeking their first Gold Cup & Saucer victory.

"He's wanted it for a long time and he always comes out," McKinnon said of Jamieson. "Hopefully we can team up and get it done."

Yellow Jacket stings foes in Big M's Home Grown

Yellow Jacket worked out a perfect trip along the inside and was unleashed at just the right moment by driver Vinny Ginsburg to take the featured $45,000 New Jersey Home Grown for 2-year-old colt and gelding pacers Saturday night (Aug. 15) at The Meadowlands.

Departing from post 2 in the nine-horse field, Ginsburg wedged Yellow Jacket into the pocket as We Want Eazy took the field past the quarter in :27.2 while 2-5 favorite Velvet Ditch was reserved early, racing in fourth.

"My horse looked like he can leave and [Velvet Ditch] seemed a little bit off, a little bit bad-gaited," said Ginsburg. "A little green, maybe. So, I had my horse step out of there. [We Want Eazy] was a decent horse to follow. I was intent on sitting in the 2-hole."

We Want Eazy took the field past the half in :55.4 as the wonky-gaited Velvet Ditch vacated the rail to go after the leader. 'Eazy' was still there at three-quarters in 1:24.2 as Velvet Ditch continued to inch closer on the rim, and at the head of the stretch, the two were on even terms.

Through the lane, We Want Eazy weakened, and Velvet Ditch appeared on his way to victory lane, but in mid-stretch, he took more bad steps, losing momentum with a sixteenth to go, just as Yellow Jacket was vacating the pocket finding a seam to race through. The son of Perfect Sting—Wingding Hanover used a burst of speed to grab a half-length win over a fast-closing B C's Odds On. Velvet Ditch held third.

"In deep stretch, [Velvet Ditch] got a little funky," said Ginsburg. "He was moving in and out. I kind of wanted to move my horse at the top of the stretch. He had a lot of go. But he hasn't been finishing his miles. So, I wanted to keep him in as long as I could. I got a little bit lucky in the stretch when things opened up. The more I asked him down by the wire, the faster he went."

Trained by Joe Holloway, Yellow Jacket won for the second time from five lifetime tries. The winning time of 1:52.4 was a lifetime best for the 5-1 second choice, who returned $12.80 to win.

FABULOUS FILLIES: There were also a pair of $25,000 New Jersey Home Grown dashes for 2-year-old filly pacers contested on the program.

The first division went to Perfect Hope Deo for driver Johnathan Ahle and trainer Noel Daley. Ahle put the daughter of Perfect Sting—Machnhope on the lead while parked to the quarter in a snappy :27.2 and went down the road from there to record her second win in five lifetime tries. She stopped the clock in a lifetime-best 1:51.4 and returned $2.20 to win as the 1-9 favorite.

Division two was taken by Sterl The Pearl for Brett Beckwith and Joe Bongiorno in a lifetime-best 1:51.3 in a powerhouse performance that resulted in a five-length jog in the park.

The daughter of Lazarus N—Cloud Diva returned $4.80 as the 7-5 second choice after upping her record to two wins from five career outings.

A LITTLE MORE: Beckwith led the driver colony with four wins on the night, while Bongiorno topped the trainers with three walks down victory lane... All-source handle on the 13-race program totaled $1,862,442.

Lady Cafe Au Lait extends streak to 12 in Sapphire

Lady Cafe Au Lait continued her sensational season Monday evening (Aug. 17) with another commanding victory in the Sapphire Open Mares, presented by the Fox Group, at Red Shores Racetrack and Casino at the Charlottetown Driving Park.

Marc Campbell sent Lady Cafe Au Lait to the lead in the third $30,000 Sapphire division and never looked back, controlling fractions of :27.2, :56.4, and 1:25.2 before sprinting home in :27.3 to win by four lengths in 1:53 flat. Badgirl Bridgette (driven by Ken Murphy) finished second with Sugar Bowl (Brady Sweet) third.

Lady Cafe Au Lait ($2.10) is trained by Earl Watts for owners Windemere Farms of Springvale and Matt and David Burke of Stratford.

Cc Rockin Rosie ($12.50) captured the first $30,000 Sapphire Open Mares division in race 7 for trainer/driver Adam Merner. The 4-year-old daughter of Rockin Image came three-wide at three-quarters before taking command and winning by three lengths in 1:54.2. Lady Devine (David Dowling) finished second with Saulsbrook Pika (Gilles Barrieau) third. Steven MacDonald of Stanhope and Tommy Collings of Mount Stewart share ownership.

Freaky Fanny ($20.20) delivered another upset in the second Sapphire division for trainer/driver Darren Crowe. The Artspeak mare rallied from fifth to catch the front stepping Trumps Girl (Brady Sweet) in the final strides, winning by one length in 1:54.3. Oh Ophelia (Barrieau) completed the triactor. Josh MacDonald of Little Pond owns the 5-year-old winner.

Trainer/driver Paul Langille tripled with Nolans Magic Shui ($2.60) in 1:57.3 and Disko Bay ($4.70) in 1:54.4, and returned to the winner's circle in the finale with Impeccable Shadow ($7.30), who held off Starship Glyde (Corey MacPherson) to win in 1:54.2.

Marc Campbell led all drivers with five victories on the program, while Earl Watts scored a training double.

It's a Pink Patio Party for Harness the Hope at Grand River Raceway

To our Harness the Hope friends and supporters,

Hope begins when community comes together and we are so very excited to host our fifth annual Harness the Hope fundraiser at Grand River Raceway on Friday (Aug. 28).

We proudly support Breast Cancer Canada and Pink Pearl Canada, both organizations are passionate and dedicated to helping those affected by a cancer journey.

The Grand River Agricultural Society will be matching all donated funds from the evening up to $12,500 to Harness the Hope.

We invite you to join us for the Pink Patio Party to enjoy a Wood Fire Pizza Buffet with accompanied sides, and an ice cream bar. You'll also enjoy live harness racing, a racing program, beautiful trackside views from The GrandWay Patio, and a community atmosphere.

- Every ticket purchased helps make a meaningful difference, with $20 from every ticket sold donated directly to Harness the Hope.

Reserve your seat today and join us for an evening of great food, exciting racing, and meaningful community impact. Together, we can make a difference, one ticket at a time.

<https://www.tickettailor.com/events/thegrandway/2327123>

Friday (Aug. 28, 2026) from 6–10 p.m. at The GrandWay Patio in Elora, ON.

With greatest thanks and appreciation,

Kristy Dustin / Harness the Hope
