No Hambletonian, no problem for a Meadowlands fan

by Debbie Little

MEADOWLANDS MATTERS

with DEBBIE LITTLE

The answer as to where the Hambletonian will be raced next is now known, but for some, questions still remain.

A longtime Meadowlands harness fan, known as Blades, for his love of the New York Rangers and his former beat covering high school hockey, questioned the impact of the decision.

"This year, the Hambletonian was only two elims and a final, it was three races out of the whole year," he said. "Is the prestige of having it that much to where if you don't have it, like you're diminished that badly?"

Blades, 63, lives in Florida now, but he grew up in New Jersey, and was just at The Meadowlands on Hambletonian Day with his buddies, Greg and Mike, as well as his son, Matt.

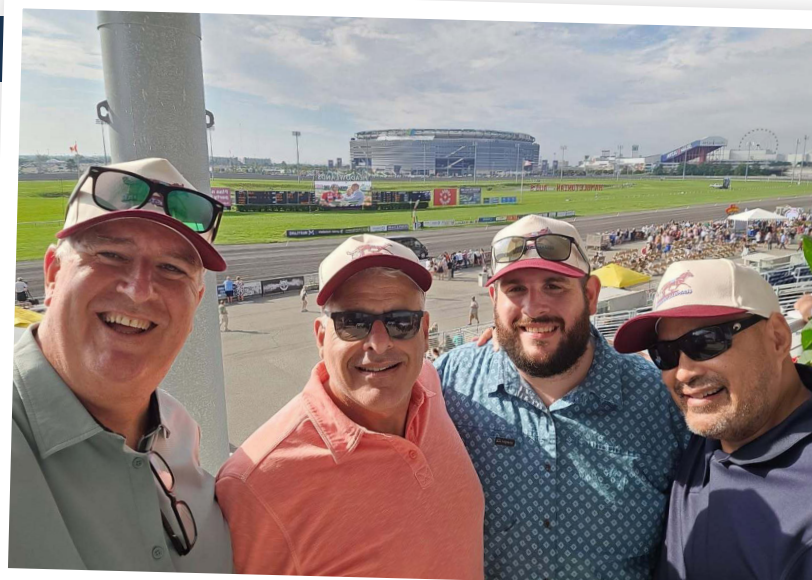

"I learned harness racing from my dad and my uncle Bert," Blades said. "And Greg, when I met him, he started coming with us, so he learned a lot of racing from my relatives. It sort of ties our families together a little bit.

"It's something that we felt that we liked enough to do again, and now my son went for the first time."

Since his son is 31, Blades added with a laugh, "It's not like a Hallmark story, but for us it was special."

Blades said Hambletonian Day was special to him because he was there from its beginning in East Rutherford.

"I remember that three-horse race [off] with Olaf breaking and Shiaway St Pat and Super Juan," he said. "We lived in Rockaway

[in New Jersey]. It was like a 45-minute drive, and we had a friend who could get us there in 30 minutes to make the Daily Double.

"We would be coming over Route 3, past the hotel, and you'd go up a ramp and then down a hill, but he would go so fast that we'd be airborne, like a monster truck, for like six seconds, that's how fast he was going.

"But we'd get there, we'd always make the Daily Double when Nick was driving. It was incredible. We had so much fun there."

Blades said his Hambletonian festivities started early this year.

"We went the previous Saturday night [Aug. 1 for the Hambletonian elims] and we hung out outside the whole night by the food trucks," he said. "We had an incredible dinner, and it was really fun. Whoever's running that, I thought they did a great job."

Although he has missed some Hambletonian Days over the years, Blades said this one ranked pretty high for him.

"The West Deck was fun," he said. "The buffet was good and the people were nice.

"We lost every bet, all of us, all four of us, but we all decided to bet Apex because he was pretty good money, like 5-2 or something. So, we all had Apex, and thank God he had a big nose.

"For all of us guys with big noses to finally win money on a horse with a bigger nose than the other horse was really nice. It made the day."

He also said he couldn't help but feel a little nostalgic when Larry Remen, brother of driver Ray Remmen, presented the trainer's trophy to Marcus Melander, the winning conditioner of Apex.

"I was a Ray Remmen fan," Blades said. "We were betting on Shiaway St Pat because of him. He was a Meadowlands local, so we really wanted to back him.

"He always won with long shots for us. I don't think Shiaway St Pat was a long shot, but we always bet on Ray Remmen."

Blades did have a question regarding future Hambletonian Days.

"There are a bunch of other races that are around the Hambletonian, and it's all the same barns, and same drivers, like Trond Smedshammer, Ake Svanstedt, Marcus Melander and others,” he said. “Are they going to bring all those other trots so they’ll all be part of Hambletonian Day in Indiana now? Is The Meadowlands losing those races, too? Because I could see that could be a problem. Those are all good races, except for when those horses break before the start, and it’s usually my horse.

Congratulations

“Couldn’t The Meadowlands create a trot, maybe two weeks after the Hambletonian or a month before the Hambletonian?” he said. “If they put up a lot of money, all these same trotters will come as a lead up to the Hambletonian, and they could have the same drivers and barns. It’s all about money. They’d come if they could make money.”

Unlike the Hambletonian, Hambletonian Oaks, Hambletonian Maturity, Tompkins-Geers, and Reynolds, which are owned by the Hambletonian Society and therefore will not be raced at The Meadowlands in 2027, most of the races on this year’s Hambletonian Day card are owned by the track.

“The Meadowlands was going strong before it had the Hambletonian, and the Hambletonian was going strong before it came to The Meadowlands,” Blades said. “They had a very long time together, and now they’re separating, but I think both should be able to hold on.”

As for whether his group would follow the famous words of Horace Greeley and “Go West” for next year’s edition of America’s Trotting Classic, his response was emphatic.

“We would never meet in Indiana for it, no way,” he said. “Maybe we’ll pick another race at The Meadowlands. It wasn’t about the Hambletonian really, it was about the Hambletonian at The Meadowlands.”

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Thank you for everything, Varenne

by Thomas Hedlund

The greatest trotter of all time is gone.

During the night on Monday (Aug. 17), Varenne suffered a heart attack. The Italian national icon was 31.

An era has ended.

Comparing horses from different generations is, of course, an impossible exercise. The sport changes, the competition changes and the circumstances are never quite the same. But some horses don't really need to be compared.

They simply stand above the rest.

When Swedish publication Sulkysport once ranked the greatest trotters of all time, Varenne was placed at No. 1. It seemed like the obvious choice. And there wasn't much of an argument against it.

What argument could there be?

Varenne made his mark on both sides of the Atlantic, retired with a record of 1:51.1 and earnings of €6,038,408. No trotter in history has earned more money.

But the money wasn't what made Varenne, Varenne.

It was the way he won.

Born in 1995, Varenne grew into the greatest trotting horse the world had ever seen. He made his native Italy proud, but his greatness extended far beyond the country's borders. On harness racing's biggest international stages, he wasn't merely another participant.

He became the standard by which the others were measured.

Very few horses become symbols of their sport.

Varenne was one of them.

His influence continued long after his racing career ended. Varenne became just as important to Italian breeding as he had been on the racetrack. He spent most of his stallion career at Il Grifone in Vigone before moving to l'Equicenter in Pavia in 2019.

From 2010 through 2022, Varenne was Italy's leading sire an incredible 13 times.

Seven of his Italian offspring became euro-millionaires: Vernissage Grif, Pascia' Lest, Lisa America, Lana del Rio, Napoleon Bar, Twister Bi, and Tony Gio.

Statistics, however, can never fully explain the greatness of a horse like Varenne.

For those fortunate enough to watch him race, the memories are about something else.

He made the impossible look easy.

Varenne was more than a champion. He was a superstar, an ambassador for harness racing and, for many, the greatest trotter who ever lived.

Varenne is gone.

But legends never really leave us.

DREAM MINE BACK IN THE WINNER'S CIRCLE

Dream Mine was second in his Elitlopp elimination and second to Allegiant in the final in 1:48.2, making him the fastest Swedish-born trotter of all time.

On Wednesday (Aug. 19) night at Solvalla, Dream Mine showed once again that his sensational Elitlopp performances were no fluke.

The 5-year-old son of Maharajah, trained by Jörgen Westholm, went wire-to-wire in the $300,000 Margareta Wallenius-Klebergs Pokal.

Mats E. Djuse had little trouble protecting the rail with Dream Mine, and when one of the major contenders, Gaining Experience, encountered problems early, Djuse was able to settle into a solid but comfortable tempo on the front end.

Dream Mine was somewhat more aggressive than usual during the race, and the early energy expenditure began to show late. Still, there was never any serious threat to the leader, who held firm to score in an impressive 1:52.1 mile rate for 2,140 meters.

"He got a little tired in the stretch because he was so keen during the race," Djuse said in the winner's circle. "I still felt pretty comfortable coming home, although you can never be completely sure."

"He was almost a little too fired up tonight. Dream Mine normally isn't like that, but he still did a great job of holding everything together."

For Westholm, the victory also fulfilled a promise made only weeks earlier.

"It's absolutely fantastic," he said. "Johan Helander from Menhammar Stud, Christer Nordin, who owns and bred Dream Mine, and I sat down about six weeks ago. Johan had only one demand when we made the deal – that we win the Margareta Wallenius-Klebergs Pokal. Now we've done it. I'm heading up to my lounge to pop the cork."

Late last month, Menhammar Stud acquired a 50 per cent interest in Dream Mine. Wednesday's victory provided an immediate return on that investment, with the winner collecting SEK 1.5 million.

Follow Him (Father Patrick), trained by Maria Törnqvist, followed strongly from the pocket to finish second, while Keep Asking (Chapter Seven) closed impressively three-wide after a third-over trip to finish third.

BETTING PACER PROVES TOUGHEST IN EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIP FOR MARES

Betting Pacer was three-wide for the final 600 meters and still the strongest at the wire as she produced a tremendous performance Wednesday at Solvalla, wearing down two-time defending champion Clarissa to capture the $200,000 European Championship for mares for Björn Goop.

Clarissa and Alessandro Gocciadoro made their move from third-over with 1,300 meters remaining and were allowed to take command from Daim Brodda without a fight approximately 300 meters later.

At that point, a third consecutive European championship appeared to be there for the taking.

Betting Pacer had other ideas.

Goop launched the daughter of Maharajah from second-over with 600 meters remaining and sent her three-wide after the leader. Betting Pacer gradually wore down Clarissa, getting her head in front with approximately 150 meters remaining.

Clarissa tried to fight back along the inside, but Betting Pacer refused to yield and prevailed in a 1:53.3 mile rate for 2,140 meters.

"It's really special that she finally put the exclamation point on her career," Goop said. "She had never won a major race before, but tonight she got one. It's fantastic and so well deserved."

Really, she should be standing up here on the podium tonight instead of me.

"She did all the work. She's competed in so many major races in so many countries and has always performed well. She's a true warrior and a real iron lady. She's continued to get stronger and improve, which is a great sign. Tonight, she felt terrific – just right on the bit, focused and ready to race.

"When Alessandro got to the lead so cheaply, I thought it might become difficult, but Betting Pacer showed a tremendous attitude tonight."

The victory continued an extraordinary summer for Goop. During Elitlopp weekend in late May, he won three races carrying approximately $100,000 winner's shares. A month later, he swept both $300,000 E3 finals at Bergsåker, and just last Saturday he captured the $300,000 Åby Stora Pris with Epic Kronos.

Clarissa (Exploit Caf) had to settle for second while receiving the same time as the winner.

Norwegian-bred Skylight (Readly Express) produced a powerful late rally to finish third after being tipped four-wide with 250 meters remaining.

DON FANUCCI ZET HEADS TO KYMI GRAND PRIX

The field has been finalized for Saturday's (Aug. 22) Group 1 $165,000 Kymi Grand Prix at Kouvola in Finland.

Daniel Wäjersten has dominated the race in recent years, winning the last two editions with Borups Victory. This time he sends out Mellby Joker (Muscle Hill), who will be driven by Finland's Olli Koivunen.

Another intriguing name is Working Class Hero (Village Mystic), who will make his first start for trainer Alessandro Gocciadoro.

Daniel Redén will travel to Kouvola with two contenders, sending out veteran star Don Fanucci Zet (Hard Livin) with Örjan Kihlström and Xanthis Harvey (Propulsion), whom Redén will drive himself.

FRANCESCO ZET'S SEASON OVER AFTER INJURY

Some troubling news followed Saturday's (Aug. 15) Åby Stora Pris when it was revealed that Francesco Zet, one of Europe's richest active trotters, had suffered an injury.

Trainer Daniel Redén provided an update Sunday, confirming that the 8-year-old's season is over and that his racing future remains uncertain.

"Francesco Zet was injured in connection with yesterday's start," Redén said. "Exactly what the injury means is still unclear, and because of that we don't know what the future holds."

"The only thing we know for certain is that his season is over. Now he will rest, undergo further examinations and receive all the time and care he needs. His health and well-being will always come first."

"Whether we will ever see 'Francesco' on a racetrack again remains to be seen. It's a difficult announcement to make, but right now I don't want to speculate or make any decisions before we know more."

"Francesco has already given us more than we could ever have asked for – unforgettable moments, enormous pride and memories that will remain in our hearts forever. He isn't just an incredible racehorse. He's a beloved friend and an important part of our stable."

"Now it's our turn to be there for him."

HAGOORT SCORES 1-2 FINISH IN GERMAN DERBY

Nine German Derby training victories – and this time Paul Hagoort did it with a one-two punch. Hagoort trainees Fragolino Rosso and Blizzard Diamant dominated the 131st edition of the $295,000 German Trotting Derby Sunday (Aug. 16) at Mariendorf in Berlin.

For regular stable driver Robin Bakker, deciding between the two contenders wasn't easy.

"We've all been looking forward to this race, but choosing a horse wasn't easy because both have shown so much ability," Bakker said. "In the end I had to trust my instincts. It wasn't a decision against Blizzard Diamant. It was a decision for Fragolino Rosso."

It proved to be the right one.

Bakker moved Fragolino Rosso (Booster Winner—Miss Chablis) to the lead with a little more than one lap remaining. Stablemate Blizzard Diamant and Mats E. Djuse advanced first-over around the final turn, seemingly setting the stage for a battle between the Hagoort pair.

There was no battle. Fragolino Rosso simply drew away to win comfortably in a stakes-record 1:53.3 mile rate for 1,900 meters. Blizzard Diamant (Indigious) finished 2½ lengths behind in second in 1:54, while Lugano Cortina (Green Manalishi) and Björn Goop were third in 1:55.

Hagoort believes there may be much more to come.

"Fragolino Rosso has the potential to become something out of the ordinary, something really special," he said. "His performances allow us, at least cautiously, to dream about what he might become. But we have to do everything right and take it step by step.

"Now the Derby is behind us, and next we'll start planning for the winter meeting in Paris. You can dream about the Prix d'Amérique, but the horse will tell us through his upcoming races just how big we're allowed to dream. And we shouldn't forget Blizzard Diamant, either."

MON JOLIE SHOCKS AT 121-1 IN GERMAN FILLY DERBY

Thomas Panschow delivered the upset of the weekend when Mon Jolie captured the €112,920 German Filly Derby at Mariendorf at odds of 121-1.

Starting from post 12, Panschow patiently worked out a trip with the Wolfgang Nimczyk trainee before finding room between horses in the final 50 meters.

Mon Jolie (Wishing Stone—Theresa As) exploded through the opening and got up in time to score in a 1:58.4 mile rate for 1,900 meters.

The upset wasn't entirely without warning. Mon Jolie had won four-consecutive races before finishing third in her German Filly Derby elimination.

DANY CAPAR INHERITS MONTECATINI SPOTLIGHT

Everything appeared set for heavy favorite Dubhe Prav to capture Saturday night's (Aug. 15) $115,000 Gran Premio Città di Montecatini.

Then came a costly break.

Alessandro Gocciadoro had backed Dany Capar (Exploit Caf—Sueia' Della Luna) into the pocket behind Dubhe Prav around the opening turn. The favorite was allowed to dictate the tempo from there and appeared to have the race under control. But entering the stretch, Dubhe Prav suddenly broke stride. That opened the door for Dany Capar, who came through to capture the Group 1 event in 1:56.4.

The victory added another major Italian title to Dany Capar's résumé. Earlier this year he captured the Group 1 Gran Premio Duomo, and his previous major victories include the Gran Premio Costa Azzurra in Turin, Gran Premio Palio dei Comuni at Montegiorgio, and another edition of the Gran Premio Duomo in Florence.

ALL OVER ONTARIO

with MATTHEW LOMON

Mauricia Miller's competitive family keeps her going when times get tough

by Matthew Lomon

Growing up, Mauricia Miller was no different than any other girl her age.

"Ever since I was a little girl, I've liked horses," she said. "Probably like 80 per cent of little girls out there."

It wasn't long before a nascent interest blossomed into a full-fledged passion – one that led her to the Keady, ON barn of respected horseman Larry Hall in 2009.

"I worked with Larry for quite a few years as a groom," Miller said. "He broke a lot of young horses and liked training young stakes horses more than anything."

Miller's time with Hall was an enriching endeavor across several key areas of horse stewardship, including, but not limited to, care, management, and ownership.

Life started progressing quickly for Miller after about five years under Hall's mentorship.

In the summer of 2014, she married her husband, Ezra Miller. It was also around this time that she needed to make a decision about her future in harness racing.

"When I got married, Larry got older and aged out of it, so if I wanted to race horses, I had to do it myself," Mauricia said. "So, I went out and got my trainer's license."

Now off, but not on her own, Mauricia, with Ezra by her side, began building the life in racing they envisioned.

"We don't put a whole lot of money into buying young horses, but I like fixing up horses," she said. "A lot of horses that we get come to us from other trainers who maybe have better stock to work with, and we get lucky. We get some that just know how to race, and we try to fix them up and keep them going."

Between the fundamentals Mauricia gained from Hall, and Ezra's enthusiasm for working with horses and honing his craft, the Millers embarked on their racing journey with a strong foundation beneath them.

And they've only deepened their understanding of the equine business since.

In doing so, the Millers relied heavily on a cross-disciplinary approach and the guidance of fellow husband-and-wife team Bill and Bonnie Rowntree.

"They're like family to us," Mauricia said. "They're big in the thoroughbred world, so they have a book full of horse knowledge that we've picked up, particularly on the business side. They had a very good structure with their yearling business and were highly successful. I've done a lot of yearling prep work over there, and so has Ezra.

"They're always a big help to us if we ever need anything, from hay to a babysitter. They're always here for us, and we're very grateful for them."

The Millers' quest for knowledge doesn't end with thoroughbreds.

"We also have a pair of percheron mares," Mauricia said. "We're going to be at the International Plowing Match this year, and I think having that cross-discipline experience is very important. Whether it be exercise or working, you learn a lot from different sectors, and you apply it to standardbreds. It just seems to work out."

Mauricia and Ezra's unique approach first paid dividends on Dec. 19, 2015, when 18-1 underdog Macktwowilldew pulled off the upset on a mild winter night at Flamboro Downs.

The moment almost felt too good to be true.

"I had another horse going that I had to warm up right after that race and I didn't even realize we won," Mauricia said with a laugh. "I was telling Ezra, 'You need to come over here and help me get over with this horse,' and he's like, 'No, we won.' I didn't know why the horse wasn't coming in, but then we all rushed out.

"In the win picture, I was actually sitting on the bike of the other horse I was warming up and I just stopped by – I almost missed my own first win picture. When the race went off, I saw that he left last, and he was more of a front-end horse. But Alfie Carroll did such a great job. He just flew."

Macktwowilldew, at the time a 6-year-old son of Mach Three, was one of the first horses Mauricia trained after taking the reins of her own stable.

The bay pacer's impact on Mauricia ended up being as profound as it was lasting.

"He knew more about racing than I did, and he definitely made me feel like I could do it," she said. "When you're starting out, you don't know if you're going to be a good trainer or not, but he helped instill that confidence in me."

In the years that followed, the Williamsford, ON-based conditioner continued to forge strong bonds with her trainees, namely, Stars Treasure and the gregarious gelding, Joe King.

"Stars Treasure was a really nice, good-gaited horse," said Mauricia of the Millers' first homebred. "He came along training. It just came to him so easy. He was so smart.

“Ever since I was a little girl, I’ve liked horses. Probably like 80 per cent of little girls out there.”

— Mauricia Miller

“Joe King was another one that just loved to race. When he got claimed from us, the whole barn just took a little note. He was so charismatic. He seemed like he was all that. He thought he was something. He was just a beautiful horse; a beautiful athlete.”

For everything Macktwowilldew, Stars Treasure, and Joe King meant to Mauricia, none will be remembered for delivering her first Woodbine Mohawk Park victory.

That distinction belongs to another bay pacer, Mikron, who was anything but similar to the transformative trio.

“He was probably one of the most challenging horses we had,” Mauricia said. “Ezra did a great job looking after him, even though shoeing was particularly difficult.

“He had been with a lot of different trainers — it was like he was too fast for his own good and wanted to make breaks all the time — but we got him leveled out a couple times.”

Striking the right balance has been a running theme throughout Mauricia’s 12-year training career.

As a mother of three, there were times when racing had to take a backseat to raising a family.

“If you look at the stats, they kind of go up and down,” Mauricia said. “My first son was born in 2014, and my last son was born in 2022. You can definitely see when life took me in another direction.”

Instead of letting her rapidly advancing personal and professional lives overwhelm her, Mauricia, with the help of her family, found a way to make both thrive.

“My aunt, Janet Rigsby, has had a lot of patience,” Mauricia said. “Anytime that I need her, she’s there at the drop of a hat to watch the kids or get them to bed.”

Having found their rhythm at home and at the racetrack, the Millers are still going strong in 2026.

Their stable of three consists of reliable warhorse Keystone Dakota and 4-year-old trotters Charmbo Chip, and Cash Out Hall.

“He knows what he’s doing, he knows how to race,” said Mauricia of Keystone Dakota. “I don’t think it matters who’s in the bike, he likes to take them for a ride. Charmbo Chip is a good-gaited horse. The kids really like him, too. He’s friendly. Cash Out Hall is a well-bred colt that we’re trying out. We’ll see how he improves over the next little bit.”

The Millers even have their own secret weapon on race day, their daughter Melanie.

“She wanted it known that the horses win because she gives them treats and pets all the time,” Mauricia said. “She’s definitely their biggest cheerleader.”

What started as a duet has since grown into a full-scale family operation.

With Mauricia and Ezra leading the charge, the Millers are right at home in the world of harness racing.

“It just seems to find us,” Mauricia said. “Sometimes, if you’re good at something and you step away, it bothers you that you’re not participating. It’s just hard to sit on the sidelines. I’ve done that a couple times having had three kids. You’re just sitting around waiting to do it again, looking for an opportunity.

“This sport is tough — it’s very competitive, but we’re a competitive family.”

Whitney Klotz cries when her horses win.

Not tears of disappointment or frustration, but the kind that comes from an overwhelming rush of pride and joy as a horse she has cared for crosses the finish line first.

"Whenever one of the horses I take care of wins, I usually cry," said Klotz, who works in the Ontario-based barn of trainer Jason Sherman. "I think some people are probably thinking, 'Something must be wrong. Why is she crying?' But that's just the emotion in me coming out, watching one of my horses come back to me and head to the winner’s circle.”

She also likens those moments to a certain colorful display reserved for special celebrations.

“It feels like fireworks going off when they win,” Klotz said. “That’s the best way I can describe it.”

Originally from Gravelbourg, a small community in south-central Saskatchewan, Klotz now calls London, ON, home. She had an early introduction to horses, albeit a different breed than the pacers and trotters she currently tends to.

“I grew up around riding horses, so I have always had a connection to the animal,” Klotz said. “They fascinated me when I was very young and that carried on throughout the years.”

Working in the horse industry, however, is a relatively new career. Prior to joining the caretaker ranks, Klotz was a schoolteacher, teaching various grades throughout her tenure.

When the worldwide pandemic struck, she found herself out of a job. The tedium prompted her to come up with a game plan.

“I wanted to volunteer, just finding something I could do to stay active,” she said. “I wasn’t sure what it would be, but I started thinking more about it.”

And that’s when she thought of her lifelong connection to the equine world.

“I started to volunteer with riding horses and then I met Jason,” she said. “I volunteered with him for a few months and he said that he really liked how I handled the horses and my work ethic. He offered me a job and that’s how I found my way into the industry.”

It didn't take Klotz long to develop a close connection to those under her watchful eye.

"Instantly," she said with a laugh. "How could I not? I have always had a love for horses. Standardbreds are far more different than the horses I grew up with. They are a lot more high energy, but they are amazing in every sense of the word. It took me a while to get used to working with a new breed."

And, like the students she once guided along, Klotz found herself in a similar position, albeit in a much different realm.

"Every horse is like a student, where they have their own personality and their own way of doing things," she said. "You get to learn who they are and how you can help them achieve their goals. That really appealed to me."

One of her favorite students came in the form of a nondescript bay son of Sportswriter.

Nassau Hanover, bred by Hanover Shoe Farms, grabbed the attention of Klotz the moment he first set foot in the Sherman barn.

"He was small and he wasn't very fast," she said. "He had been off for a while and when I started working for Jason, he had come back from being away from the races. I bonded with him right away. He was the one who really made me realize that I don't ever want to do anything else but this."

At times, Klotz found herself in the role of student with Nassau Hanover.

"He taught me patience," she said. "He had so much time away that we had to train him back down, so he taught me so much; things like how to put the equipment on, and how to understand them. I learned a lot. If he was trying to tell me something, I began to understand more about horses and how they communicate."

She is equally grateful for the friendships she has made along her racing journey.

"Since being in this profession, I have met some amazing people and have had the opportunity to create incredible new friendships," she said.

Fortunately, challenges associated with her job are minimal.

Certain points of a pair of seasons can present their share of hardships and hurdles.

"Winter can be tough at times," she said. "But, overall, nothing really is too difficult. The travel can be a lot in the summer. We have to travel far and sometimes that can be tiring."

Hardly enough, though, to make for any regret.

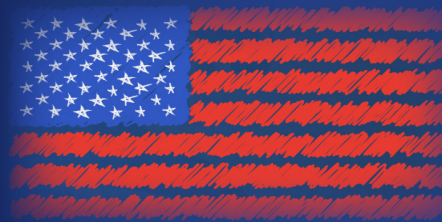

"Even on those days, you watch your horse go out and give their all and it makes everything worth it," Klotz said. "Even if they don't win, you see them race their heart out and you say to yourself, 'This is why we do it.'"

Klotz has that same feeling in other places.

“Even on those [long, tough] days, you watch your horse go out and give their all and it makes everything worth it. Even if they don't win, you see them race their heart out and you say to yourself, 'This is why we do it.'”

“Every horse is like a student, where they have their own personality and their own way of doing things. You get to learn who they are and how you can help them achieve their goals. That really appealed to me.”

— Whitney Klotz

“At the barn, when you walk in first thing in the morning and you hear them nickering, it makes you smile,” she said. “Not all of them do — some are loud and tell you they are ready to go, and others need you to inspire them — but I love being around them. Every day is different, but every day is good.

“We also have a farm where there are broodmares, yearlings, and weanlings. I really enjoy the breeding aspect of the sport. I spend a lot of time with them in the field, where I can bond with them. If I’m not racing, I’m usually out in the field playing with the babies, teaching them things and having that quiet one-on-one time.”

It is quite the opposite on race day.

Those are the times that can bring out a more vocal, animated side of Klotz.

“I try to stay quiet because sometimes people are around you and maybe they don’t like when someone is making a lot of noise,” she said. “I try to keep it inside as much as I can.”

There are occasions, however, when try as she might, stoicism gives way to euphoria.

“I will scream if they are leading in the stretch or if they are coming on late and it looks like they might get up for the win,” she said.

And if they happen to do that, it’s an equal measure of waterworks and fireworks for Klotz.

“You are so excited and so proud of them,” she said. “And then they come back to you, and you can see that they are proud of themselves. That is an even better feeling. And it’s usually in that moment when I get emotional. But that’s okay.”

For Klotz, there may be no better reason to cry.

Sangria Summer plays it cool

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Going on the road doesn't bother Sangria Summer. It seems not much else does, either.

Sangria Summer, who has the second-fastest mile of the season for a 3-year-old female pacer thanks to her 1:48.1 win in the Shady Daisy on Aug. 8 at The Meadowlands, next visits Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania for this Saturday's (Aug. 22) $250,000 Grade 1 James M. Lynch Memorial.

The Luc Blais trainee has three wins and a second-place finish in her past four races and is the 3-1 second choice on the morning line for the Lynch, which is one of six graded events on Pocono's Sun Stakes Saturday card. Sangria Summer will start from post 4 in a field of eight, with James MacDonald in the sulky.

"She's a very nice horse, very professional," said Blais, who trains Sangria Summer for owner Determination. "Wherever you go, she feels like it's home. She doesn't worry about this or that; she doesn't worry about anything. She's just a pleasure to be around."

Sangria Summer is a daughter of Captaintreacherous out of the mare Shower Play, who was an O'Brien Award winner in Canada at age 3 in 2018. Last year, Sangria Summer hit the board in three of 10 starts and earned a paycheck on nine occasions, including in two Grade 1 stakes — the Breeders Crown and She's A Great Lady. Determination bought the filly, previously trained by co-owner Kevin Benn, following her first race this year, a 1:53.1 victory in a conditioned race at Ontario's Woodbine Mohawk Park.

"I was impressed with the way she did it," Blais said about the victory, which saw Sangria Summer rally from fourth with a :26 last quarter. "We were looking for a horse like her. We don't have too many 3-year-olds this year and she caught our eye."

In nine races for Blais, Sangria Summer has hit the board seven times, winning three and earning $141,848. She finished fourth in the Grade 1 Fan Hanover Stakes on June 13 at Mohawk, where she was an inside seventh on the final turn before fanning five-wide in the stretch to close with a race-best :26.2 last quarter.

"She was locked in, but when she got out, she was flying at the end," Blais said.

Two starts later, Sangria Summer won a conditioned race with a sustained first-over bid, getting home in :26 to score in 1:48.4. She finished second in her next race, the Grade 3 Nadia Lobell at Eldorado Scioto Downs, before putting together back-to-back triumphs that both featured :25.4 last quarters.

Lisa Photo
Sangria Summer (James MacDonald) winning the Grade 3 Shady Daisy on Aug. 8 at The Meadowlands.

In the Grade 3 Shady Daisy, the second of those two victories, she won by a head over Darlin's Angel and three-quarters-of-a-length over third-place finisher Be Perfect BG. The time of 1:48.1, just one-fifth-of-a-second off the stakes record, has been bettered by only Loua Dipa (1:48) this season among the sophomore filly pacers.

"She raced super," Blais said about Sangria Summer, who has 11 top-three finishes in 20 career races and has earned $228,159. "She's got a nice gait, and she is very fast and tough. She doesn't look like she gets tired. She can carry her speed well. It's very exciting."

Blais, who received the O'Brien Award of Horsemanship in 2021, is best known for his success with trotters, including 2019 Hambletonian champion Forbidden Trade (who was Canada's Horse of the Year), and other Grade 1 winners such as Intimidate, Emoticon Hanover, On A Streak, and Emoticon Legacy (also all O'Brien Award honorees).

In recent years, though, he's also captured graded events with pacers, such as the Grade 2 Charles Juravinski Memorial Cup with Calicojack Hanover last year and the Grade 3 Potomac Pace with Enavant, upsetting Allywag Hanover, in 2021. Blais was third in the 2022 Grade 1 North America Cup with Frozen Hanover.

"A good horse is a good horse, it doesn't matter whether it's a trotter or pacer," Blais said. "You just try to keep them happy and fit. That's it. You just try not to mess them up and let them go the way they like."

Sangria Summer will see Be Perfect BG and Darlin's Angel again in the Lynch. Be Perfect BG is the 5-2 morning-line favorite and will leave from post 5 with Dexter Dunn driving for trainer Anthony Beaton. Darlin's Angel will go from post 6, with Lauren Tritton in the sulky for trainer Juan Cano. She is the 4-1 third choice.

Racing begins at 2:30 p.m. (EDT) for Sun Stakes Saturday at Pocono Downs. The Lynch Memorial is race 10 on the 14-race card that also features the $250,000 Grade 1 Delmonica Hanover for 3-year-old female trotters, the Grade 2 Max C. Hempt Memorial for 3-year-old male pacers, and the $300,000 Grade 2 Earl Beal, Jr. Memorial for 3-year-old male trotters.

Captain Naughty, Bahama Momma score in Kentucky Championship Series

by Ray Cotolo for The Red Mile

Captain Naughty strolled and Bahama Momma pounced to win their respective $80,000 second-preliminary divisions of the Kentucky Championship Series on Wednesday afternoon (Aug. 19) at The Red Mile.

Yannick Gingras sent Captain Naughty to the top in the Kentucky Championship Series division for sophomore trotting males and strode unfazed around the track for a 1:51 win. With 6-5 favorite It Could Be Worse (driven by Tim Tetrick) breaking stride at the start, Captain Naughty comfortably crossed to the lead approaching a :28 first quarter. The remaining four on stride followed the leader up the backstretch and made no challenges through a :56.2 half and 1:24.1 three-quarters. Captain Naughty rounded for home and accelerated with ease for a two-length win at the beam chased by Silverstein (David Miller), who clinched second from pocket-sitter Fineline Hanover (Todd McCarthy). Zephyr Kemp (Dexter Dunn) broke stride in the stretch but finished fourth.

Petter Engblom trains Captain Naughty, a homebred Captain Corey—Msnaughtyashill colt, for owner Denise Dennis. The colt — exiting a fifth-place finish in the Grade 1 Hambletonian — won his first race of the year from eight starts and collected his fifth victory in his career from 17 starts, banking $163,354. He paid $13.14 to win.

Bahama Momma (Joe Bongiorno) later lifted from a close stalking trip to deliver as the 7-5 chalk in a 1:49.1 mile in the Kentucky Championship Series division for sophomore pacing fillies. Bongiorno hustled Bahama Momma for the lead but soon yielded command to She's A Bulldog (Gingras) passing a :27 first quarter. Hope Hill (Dunn) then brushed forward to take control passing a :54.4 half and soon faced a first-over challenge from Seaside Shuffle (Tetrick) into the far turn. All the while Bahama Momma raced third at the inside and waited for clearance through three-quarters in 1:22.4. She's A Bulldog angled from the pocket into the stretch while Hope Hill drifted from the pylons, giving Bahama Momma a golden seam to dart through and collar the embattled duo late. Bahama Momma grabbed the lead late and won by a half-length over She's A Bulldog while Hope Hill settled for third between horses and Seaside Shuffle tired to fourth.

Bongiorno trains Bahama Momma, a filly by Tall Dark Stranger—Idyllic Beach, for owners Let It Ride Stables Inc. and Odds On Racing. The filly won her second race from seven starts this season and her fifth race from 17 starts in her career, accruing $238,370 in earnings. She paid $4.92 to win.

Both the sophomore trotting males and sophomore pacing fillies sparred in a pair of $30,000 divisions of the Kentucky Commonwealth Series on the 15-race card. Sunny Station (Todd McCarthy, 1:49.1 winning mile; $15.90 to win) stalked the speed and shot through a gap at the pylons to take the faster of the two dashes for pacing fillies over 3-2 favorite Interstellar (Marvin Luna) and pacesetter Atte Station (Miller). Untouchable As (Tony Hall, 1:51.3; $6.08) ripped from off the speed to land back-to-back wins in the Commonwealth Series, winning in the faster of the two divisions for trotting males. Pacing filly Gracious (Todd McCarthy, 1:51; $6.02) and trotting colt Midwind Chimp (Scott Zeron, 1:53.1; $41.78) also won in Kentucky Commonwealth Series action.

A pair of horses collected their fifth straight win when competing in the $15,000 Kentucky Golden Rod Series during the Wednesday card. Graceland Hill (Dunn, 1:50; $4.56) opened the day when brushing to the lead and holding off first-up Nash (Todd McCarthy) by a half-length in the first $15,000 division of the Kentucky Golden Rod Series for 3-year-old pacing fillies. Virgil Morgan, Jr. trains the daughter of Always B Miki—Darlinonthebeach, who has won six times from eight starts in her career, for owner Tom Hill. Deuce Pop (Todd McCarthy, 1:53.4; $4.18) later registered his fifth consecutive win when rallying from a stalking trip for a neck victory over rallying Lethal Legacy (Andy McCarthy). Randy Jerrell trains Deuce Pop, a Tactical Landing—Atlantic Crest colt with 11 wins on his card from 24 starts, and co-owns the colt with Atlantic Trot Inc and Steve Stewart.

Live harness racing at The Red Mile resumes on Sunday (Aug. 23) with a 14-race card headlined by the $80,000 Kentucky Championship Series third preliminary for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings. First-race post time is 5:05 p.m. (EDT).

MADAM CHEVAL UPSETS, 'SEA BISTRO' SCORCHES IN KENTUCKY CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Madam Cheval shipped in from a defeat in the Grade 1 Hambletonian Oaks and ripped off the speed for a 1:51 victory in the $80,000 Kentucky Championship Series second preliminary for 3-year-old trotting fillies while Sea Bistro Hanover torched the track earlier in the card with a 1:47.1 mile in the $80,000 second preliminary dash for sophomore pacing glamour boys.

Leaving from post 10 in the 12-horse contest, Madam Cheval (driven by Tim Tetrick) took back to 10th while Heart For Two (Marvin Luna) brushed briefly to lead through a shuffle to a :27.4 first quarter. Jailbird Jog (Yannick Gingras) followed and soon took the top before 7-5 favorite Carve (Andy McCarthy), making her first start since finishing as the runner-up in the Hambletonian Oaks, swept for the front. Madam Cheval meanwhile trotted steadily off the speed through a :55.3 half and caught cover to race fourth over into the far turn. Carve endured pressure from first-up Ygritte (Dexter Dunn) passing three-quarters in 1:24 as Tetrick lifted Madam Cheval three wide and gathered steam into the stretch. Madam Cheval chugged through the stretch to reel in her rivals and slide away for a length win over Ygritte while Carve held third and Jailbird Jog took fourth.

Nancy Takter trains Madam Cheval, a daughter of Walner out 2014 Dan Patch Trotter of the Year Shake It Cerry, for owner M. Biasuzzi Stable Inc. The filly, who cost $330,000 at the 2024 Lexington Selected Sale, won her fourth race from nine starts this season and her fifth race from 21 starts in her career, banking $317,096. She paid $46.94 to win.

Sea Bistro Hanover (Todd McCarthy) soared from a second-over trip earlier in the card with a :25.4 kicker to score in the Kentucky Championship Series second preliminary for sophomore pacing males. McCarthy sat off of :26.1 and :53.2 speed uncorked by Sneaky Squeaky (Joe Bongiorno) before catching cover from Bookie J (Dunn) on the march to three-quarters in 1:21. Bookie J tired while pocket-sitter Ubrute (Gingras) zipped through a seam at the pylons and Sea Bistro Hanover angled to the center of the track. Ubrute snatched a brief lead until Sea Bistro Hanover built momentum and motored by for a 1¾-length win under wraps. Funky Buddha (Tetrick) rallied for third and Bookie J held fourth.

Brett Pelling trains Sea Bistro Hanover, a gelding by Captaintreachers—Santa Rosa, for owners David McDuffee, Paul Bordogna and Melvin Hartman. The gelding, a $410,000 purchase as a yearling at the 2024 Harrisburg Sale, collected his fourth win from 11 starts this season and his fifth win from 18 starts in his career, pushing his earnings to $177,387. He paid $6.38 to win.

Trainer Carter Pinske scored a hat trick on the day. His first win came in the single $30,000 Kentucky Commonwealth Series division for 3-year-old trotting fillies when Decreed (Tetrick, 1:52.4 winning mile; $13.46 to win) stormed from off the speed to collar second-over rallying Degas (Gingras) and first-up Joyofmylife As (Tony Hall). Pinske then won a pair of $15,000 Kentucky Golden Rod Series divisions for sophomore trotting fillies with Clemency (Todd McCarthy, 1:52.4; $4.94) and Calyx (Todd McCarthy, 1:53.1; $6.64).

A pair of $30,000 Kentucky Commonwealth Series divisions for sophomore pacing males also highlighted the 15-race card. Thiago Hanover (Gingras, 1:49.1; $14.84) again took top honors from a front-stepping effort after pulling a 15-1 upset when winning the fastest division of the series' opening preliminary while Caillou Hanover (Atlee Bender, 1:50.1; $21.12) capitalized from a pocket trip to win the other division over pacesetter and odds-on favorite Captain Apple (Dunn).

Tempting Flames (David Miller) equalled the 1:50 world record for 2-year-old pacing fillies on a five-eighths mile track while winning her Ohio Sires Stakes test on Tuesday at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

Tempting Flames sets new Scioto Downs track record in Ohio Sires Stakes

by Eldorado Scioto Downs

Tempting Flames set a new track record Tuesday (Aug. 18) at Eldorado Scioto Downs while equaling the world record on a five-eighths-mile track for 2-year-old filly pacers. Taken in one of the two $75,000 Ohio Sires Stakes divisions, Tempting Flames hit the wire in 1:50, equaling the record set by Beach Cowgirl in 2022.

Breadnbutterz (Trevor Smith) blasted off the car from post 9 to make the early lead but it was short lived as the 1-9 favorite Tempting Flames and David Miller quickly took over by the :28 quarter. Coasting to a :54.2 half, Tempting Flames put separation on the field going to the 1:22.1 third quarter. The pair drew off to win by 7½ lengths over Breadnbutterz, with Splendid Station (Justin Irvine) third.

"It's pretty remarkable really," said trainer Mike Hitchcock. "It's hard to put into words. David said she was very good. I don't think her earplugs have been popped yet, so I don't know if that's good or bad."

"She's very athletic... she's quiet in the barn. She jogs very nice, trains nice. She's just a really great filly all around. She gets a little wound up in the paddock, but she likes to have company beside her, she likes to have another horse so she can see other horses, she's a lot quieter."

It was the fourth win in a row for Tempting Flames who now has $190,600 earned in six starts. By Catch The Fire out of the McArdle mare Hotshot Temptress, Tempting Flames was a $52,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from Ivy Holdings by William Hartt.

"She's just so rugged built, she's very muscular," Hitchcock said. "She's not huge but I think she'll grow some this winter and this fall. That's why I liked her when I purchased her at the sale, I just liked the way she was built, she looked strong and she's very, very well built."

Looking ahead, Tempting Flames has another leg of the OHSS, the Ohio Breeders Championship at the Delaware County Fair, but she's also looking to go outside of the state.

"She's got some stakes down in Kentucky, she's paid up in the Breeders Crown and the Matron," Hitchcock said. "Dan [Holmes], my second trainer, he does an awesome job and Lorie Davis, she does a really good job with her. She'll probably go out east, the biggest thing is going to be keeping her healthy and sound and happy."

"The best thing about the Breeders Crown is that it's like home-field advantage, it's what she's used to. She gets to stay in her home, in her stall, train at her own farm and get turned out. So, it's not going to be a change of atmosphere for her, so I think that's a plus. It's exciting, [owner] Billy [Hartt] is game, he loves the game. Everyone wants one like her so fingers crossed we'll keep it rolling."

Another filly out of a McArdle mare — Cleveland Darby — won the other OHSS division in 1:54. Taking the lead by the :28.3 opening quarter, Cleveland Darby gave way to Party Up (Luke Hanners) by the three-eighths and set fractions of :57.1 and 1:26.1. Cleveland Darby came up the passing lane to win by a-length-and-three-quarters over Party Up; Moni N The Safe (Brett Miller) was third.

Cleveland Darby, by Downbytheseaside out of Loreenas Ruffian, was bred by Carl Howard. Now owned by Burke Racing, Weaver Brusceci, R A S Racing, and Larry Karr, the Ron Burke trainee has three wins in five starts with $118,500 in earnings.

The 91-day 2026 Eldorado Scioto Downs regular season runs through Saturday (Sept. 19). Races are held Tuesdays and Thursdays through Saturdays, with a special holiday card on Labor Day instead of the Tuesday card that week and no live racing on Friday (Sept. 18) to accommodate horsemen attending the Ohio Selected Yearling Sale. The track will then re-open for the Breeders Crown, with eliminations held Oct. 16-17 and the finals Oct. 23-24. More information about all the racing action at Scioto can be found on the Eldorado Scioto Downs website.

New York SIRE STAKES REPORT

Annie O (Leon Bailey) winning her New York Sire Stakes event for 2-year-old pacing fillies on Wednesday at Batavia Downs.

Huntsville fillies take NYSS splits at Batavia Downs Wednesday

by Tim Bojarski for Batavia Downs

Nine Empire State-bred 2-year-old pacing fillies went postward in two divisions of the New York Sire Stakes at Batavia Downs on Wednesday (Aug. 19) night vying for their share of the available $104,000 in purse. And both winners were sired by the state's premier pacing stallion, Huntsville.

The first $51,500 division was won by Annie O (Huntsville—Rapunzel Blue Chip), who won by as many as she wanted.

Annie O (Leon Bailey) pushed off the gate to the front and never looked back one time. After posting quarters of :29, :58, and 1:26, Annie O took her 3½ length lead, rounded the bend and headed for home, where she extended that margin to 6¾ at the line and won in 1:55.1.

It was the third straight win for the heavily-backed Annie O ($2.30), who is owned by Bonnie Benson and Andrew Stafford, who also trains the filly. Southwind Farms bred Annie O.

Then in the second $52,500 group, Huntsville Honey (Huntsville—That's Incredible) sat in behind fast early quarters before striking late to win.

Huntsville Honey (Matt Kakaley) dropped in third as Too Pink To Pass (Lauren Tritton) tore to the quarter in :26.3, with Phast Phyliss (Bailey) applying the pressure through that panel. Positions then remained unchanged to the half in :57.1 and three-quarters in 1:26.1, where Huntsville Honey pulled and advanced towards Too Pink To Pass in the last turn. Too Pink To Pass still looked strong at the top of the lane, but Huntsville Honey wore her down in deep stretch, while holding off the last-closing Maxina (Drew Monti), to win by a quarter-length in 1:56.3.

Wendy J. Lowery

Huntsville Honey (Matt Kakaley) won the other division.

Huntsville Honey ($5.76) is owned by Joe Trice and trained by George Ducharme.

There were also three $20,000 NYSS Excel series races on the program and these were the winners:

- Memums Spitfire (Huntsville-Memumsnotnice) 2:00.2, $3.58, Wade Tomaszewski (driver), Tommy Mays (trainer), Curtis Edholm (owner), and Cedar Knoll Farm (breeder)
- Spider Claire (So Surreal—Notagain) 1:58, $2.12, Matt Kakaley (driver), Paul Roy (trainer), and Paul Roy and Ersilia Roy (owners/breeders)
- Where Is The Love (Huntsville—Itpapalotl) 2:00.2, $3.58, Lauren Tritton (driver), Linda Toscano (trainer), Steven Held and Bill Elliott (owners), and Knutsson Trotting (breeder)

In the overnight weekly featured $13,500 open handicap for fillies and mares, Face The Shadows (Kevin Cummings) sat third behind Elegant Woman A (Drew Monti), as she set the pace as a loose leader with fractions of :27.1, :56, and 1:24.4. In the turn, Elegant Woman A was on top by two lengths, and three ahead of Face The Shadows, who had been locked in on the pegs, but finally found some daylight spinning out of the turn. Despite the gap, Cummings had Face The Shadows under a heavy drive and the mare responded by making up the deficit, and then moving ahead by a length at the line to win in 1:54.1, which was a new seasonal mark by almost two full seconds.

It was the fifth win of the year for Face The Shadows ($20.52), who is owned by El Dorado Stables and Mike Torcello and trained by Sam Smith.

Driver Bailey was on top of his game on Wednesday winning a total of five races on the card. Aside from the already mentioned Annie O, Bailey also won with Kootenay Leia (1:54.4, $6.08), Cigar Night (1:59.3, $17.54), Bars Open (1:59.4, $6.84), and Initial Concept (1:58.1, $13.98). Bailey also added a second and three thirds from his 14 drives, giving him a stellar .468 UDR for the evening.

Live racing will resume at Batavia Downs on Saturday (Aug. 22) at 5 p.m. and will feature New York Sire Stake 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings competing for $114,900 in purses and the $50,000 Robert J. Kane Memorial Pace featuring a full field of top flight open class pacers.

Free full card past performance programs for every live card of racing at Batavia Downs can always be downloaded at the track's website (bataviadownsgaming.com) under the "Live Racing" tab. And you can watch all the races live as they happen for free on the Batavia Downs YouTube page.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Slipped Onmybeans and Captain Ricky both dazzle again at Running Aces

by Darin Gagne, for Running Aces Casino, Hotel and Racetrack

Freshman Minnesota-sired action was featured at Running Aces on Tuesday night (Aug. 18) and a couple of win streaks were on the line in the top divisions.

Slipped Onmybeans (by Captainryanmichael) rolled to her fifth straight win in the $15,000 fillies 'A' pace with a dominating 4¾-length tally in 1:54.3. The impressive filly driven by Dean Magee for owner/trainer/breeder Scott Banitt powered to the lead and once on top she opened up at every call. She was the 1-10 favorite and paid just $2.10 to win while Stormy Shores and Justin Van Otterloo rallied impressively from mid-pack to grab second money and Lady Gulf rounded out the top three.

Captain Ricky ($2.20) is also by Captainryanmichael and he turned in another sharp gate-to-wire effort from post 8 for his third straight tally and his fifth win of the season in the $15,000 male 'A' pace with a one length tally in 1:54.3 while A A Ron surged late for second and Bombi rolled home in third. Casey Leonard was the winning pilot for trainer Justin Anfinson and owners Alan and Cheryl Sandbulte and Stephanie Anfinson.

Turbo Tinker and driver Leonard orchestrated a perfect pocket trip and rallied inside late to make it two in a row in the $17,500 male trot division for his fourth career win, taking a new mark in 2:02 over Wishingiwafishing and Wind Hunter. The $3.40 winner is by Big Oil and is owned by Cathy Dessert and Ken Stauffer and also trained by Anfinson.

DM American Woman (by Tymal Templar) made the best of her second career start with a 2:02 victory in the $17,500 filly trot with Rick Magee in the bike for lessee and trainer Jenni King. She returned $9.20 on top.

Spiritofanoutlaw went down the road with a 1:51.4 score over Dandy's Freedom and Speaking Volumes in the $14,000 open II handicap pace for his fifth tally of the year for owner/trainer/driver Brady Jenson. The win mutuel was $5.40.

Brady Jenson led the program with both a driving and training triple, while Casey Leonard and Justin Anfinson both posted doubles.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Nobody Knows It sets stakes and track record at Ocean Downs

by Maryland Standardbred Race Fund

The first leg of the 2026 Maryland Sire Stakes for 2-year-old fillies got underway Wednesday night (19) at Ocean Downs, and it did not take long for the newest generation of Maryland Sire Stakes stars to make their mark.

In the opening race of the night, Nobody Knows It delivered a performance that will be remembered.

The daughter of Betting Gangster S out of Goo Luck Charm dominated the first division for 2-year-old trotting fillies, stopping the timer in 1:56.2 and establishing a new Maryland Sire Stakes record and a new Ocean Downs track record for the division.

It was a performance that announced, in emphatic fashion, that the 2026 Maryland Sire Stakes 2-year-old filly season had arrived.

With Corey Callahan in the sulky and Richard Hans handling the training duties, Nobody Knows It left from post 2 and immediately established control.

And once she reached the front, there was very little doubt about the outcome.

Nobody Knows It opened the mile in 28.2 seconds and reached the half in :58.2. She continued to widen her advantage through three-quarters, reaching that marker in 1:27.4 with a 12-length lead.

The final quarter was timed in 28.3 seconds.

When Nobody Knows It crossed the wire, she was 11¼ lengths in front of her stablemate, That's It For You.

The final time of 1:56.2 shattered the previous marks and gave the filly a stakes and track record in her very first Maryland Sire Stakes preliminary appearance.

That's It For You, also a daughter of Betting Gangster S and trained by Richard Hans, finished second with Aphea finishing third.

The victory also carried an especially strong Maryland connection.

Nobody Knows It is owned and bred by Richard Hans of Maryland.

For Hans, the night could hardly have started better. Not only did his filly win the opening Maryland Sire Stakes division, she did it in record-setting fashion while representing the Maryland breeding program.

IF I WIN UWIN CONTROLS THE PACE

The evening's first pacing division produced a much closer contest, with If I Win Uwin finding another gear in the stretch to pull away from Dapper Dudette.

Driven by Brandon Givens for trainer Les Givens, If I Win Uwin settled just off the early leader before taking command at the half.

The daughter of Dapper Dude out of Aubergine Hanover reached the half in 1:00.1 and remained in control through three-quarters in 1:30.3.

Dapper Dudette stayed within striking distance, but If I Win Uwin responded when called upon and opened up through the stretch to win by six lengths in 1:59.3.

Dapper Dudette finished second in 2:00.4, while Cougar Roar was third in 2:01.3.

The winner is owned by J M B Ventures of Maryland and was bred by Micki Rae Stables LLC of Massachusetts, providing another Maryland ownership connection to the evening's winners.

ALL THAT RUSTY REMAINS PERFECT ON THE NIGHT

The second pacing division produced another decisive winner as All That Rusty led from start-to-finish.

With Anthony Morgan driving for trainer Herman Hagerman, All That Rusty left from post 6 and quickly moved to the front.

The daughter of Rusty's For Real out of Allthatjazz De Vie controlled the race through fractions of :29, :59.2, and 1:29.3 before finishing in 1:59.1.

R U Kidding, who made a strong move from the back of the field, finished second in 2:00. Paddy The Baddy was third in 2:00.1, with Pure Energy fourth.

The filly is owned by Hagerman Racing of Ohio and was bred by Pamela Wagner of Virginia.

A NEW GENERATION TAKES THE STAGE

While the record set by Nobody Knows It understandably stole the spotlight, Wednesday's races offered several encouraging signs for the future of the Maryland Sire Stakes program.

These fillies are only 2 years old. The first preliminary leg is just the beginning of their journey, and Wednesday night's performances gave trainers and owners an early look at how their young horses stack up against the competition.

For some, the night brought a breakthrough.

For others, it provided valuable experience.

And, for a few, there will be plenty of time to regroup before the next opportunity.

That is what makes the preliminary legs so compelling. The horses are still developing, and the standings can change quickly as the season progresses.

Maine SIRE STAKES REPORT

Snowonthepines is a filly for all seasons

by Chris Tully for the Maine Sire Stakes

Marc Tardif's unbeaten 3-year-old pacing filly Snowonthepines continued her reign of supremacy as she put her unblemished record on the line at the Skowhegan State Fair on Wednesday (Aug. 19) during a pair of $17,000-plus divisions for the fairer set.

With the first division carded as an early, non-wagering race, racing fans enjoyed a beautiful twilight evening of racing, with Snowonthepines as the opening act while displaying her familiar pillar-to-post style.

Driver Kevin Switzer, Jr. put the daughter of Dude's The Man right on the point in the $17,209 split, exercising his right of first refusal with a sharp :29 opening panel.

As has been the norm in previous outings, Just Delightful (Ron Cushing) occupied a tight pocket seat as the field was carried to a :58.4 midway marker, with no outer flow developing. Past the third station in 1:28.4 it did not appear that anyone would challenge the undisputed divisional leader, as she floated around the turn and appeared poised for her 16th career victory, her disciples followed along in single file fashion.

Tripping the timer in 1:57.1, the mile was just two fifths off the track record for sophomore distaffs, and gave the filly phenom her seventh consecutive seasonal victory.

Snowonthepines was victorious in all nine of her races as a rookie, and now has $153,721 in lifetime earnings for trainer Marc Tardif and owner/breeder Leighton Property.

Just Delightful finished second by 1½ lengths; She's A Firefly (Aaron Hall) was third.

In the other $17,434 division, which was held on the regular program for 3-year-old pacing fillies, Heymickeyyousofine showed that she is no one hit wonder as the daughter of Dude's The Man picked up her second straight victory.

Campbell left swiftly from post 4 with Heymickeyyousofine, but not swiftly enough to beat Dudelooklikeafly to the lead as driver Aaron Hall had that filly off the "Wes Brown gate of renown" and on top in short order. The quick footed early leaver stung Heymickeyyousofine to a :29.1 opening panel, but she was able to clear by the time the field reached the half in 1:00.2.

Past the paddock turn the final time Kevin Switzer, Jr. tipped Perfectly Lovely to the outside, and was the only horse on the rim as the field rolled through the third stanza in 1:31.2.

Around the final turn and at the head of the stretch Ekorus (Nick Graffam) had gotten to within three-parts-of-a-length of the pacesetter and was poised to pounce. Seeing the threat, and with plenty left in the tank, Heath Campbell chirped to his charge and she responded by putting 2½ lengths between her and her would-be challengers.

Cruising home in 2:00.1 with a :28.4 final quarter kicker, it was the second straight victory, and third of the season for Heymickeyyousofine. Trained by Steve Vafiades, and owned by Jason Vafiades, she was bred in Maine by Kimberly Vafiades. She now has $47,258 in lifetime earnings and returned $5 to her backers.

Ekorus finished second; Graceofspades (Dave Ingraham) was third.

Looking ahead, the harness racing action continues at Skowhegan for the weekend, as the State Fair moves to matinees for the freshmen sidesteppers who close out the week-long meet with the 2-year-old pacing fillies today (Aug. 21) and their male counterparts on Saturday (Aug. 22).

GLAMOUR BOYS SCORCH SKOWHEGAN

Maine's glamour boys division rolled headstrong into the Skowhegan State Fair on Tuesday (Aug. 18) with the set's swift 3-year-old male pacers enjoying a purse increase to kick off the evening program.

In the first $17,209 Maine Sire Stake race, which was held before the regular card, driver Kevin Switzer, Jr. sent Real Horrorshow right out to the front, where the son of Dude's The Man likes to be.

Setting early fractions of :29.3 and 1:00.3 in the early going, while Rebel's Revenge (Aaron Hall) sat at tight pocket. Sitting third past the half, Joey Mosher urged Dude's The Jet first over as they passed the third panel in 1:29.4.

With the outer flow stalling Andrew Harrington pushed Itsjustmoney into third position at the head of the stretch as Rebel's Revenge tried to reel in Real Horrorshow. With an assertive :28.2 final quarter, the pacesetter went on to win his second in a row by 1½ lengths in 1:58.1.

Capturing his fifth win of the season, and 14th of his career, Real Horrorshow, increased his lifetime earnings to $146,220. Trained by the senior Kevin Switzer, who also co-owns with Kathleen Mofield and Anthony Sivik, Jr., he was bred in Maine by Luke and Patricia Varnum.

Rebel's Revenge finished second; Itsjustmoney was third.

In the second $17,209 division for sophomore male pacers, another non-wagering event, the terms were dictated by Daytoremember, who also decisively won his last start at Topsham.

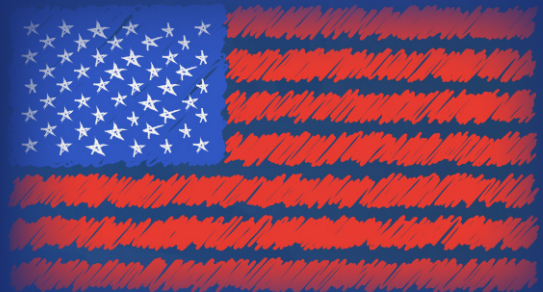

Driver Heath Campbell sent Daytoremember out for an early lead from post 4, setting primary fractions of :30.2 and 1:00.4 over the first circuit. Deuces Red (Mike Stevenson) stuck to the pacesetter like glue as the pair hit the third station in 1:29.3, while Nuh Uh (Andy Harrington) were first over and gaining ground down the backstretch for the final time.

Once again, the outer flow had failed to advance around the final turn as Campbell had Daytoremember in overdrive, they sped home in a :28 final quarter, stopping the timer in 1:57.3.

The son of Dude's The Man is owned, trained, and was bred by Valerie Grondin, and picked up his fifth consecutive win, and sixth of the season while breaking into the six figures with $101,878 earned. Daytoremember continues to lead Real Horrorshow by 25 points in the divisional standings.

Deuces Red finished second; Silence Ofdarkness got up for third.

Wins by Obsessed With Me, Easter Bb highlight fourth leg of BSS for freshman colt trotters

Obsessed With Me and Easter Bb secured their third Buckeye Stallion Series wins of the season on Wednesday (Aug. 19) as Northfield Park Racino hosted five $20,000 divisions of the fourth leg of the BSS for freshman colt trotters.

Also a winner in the second and third legs, Obsessed With Me (Chris Page) took the first division in 1:58.2, which was the fastest mile of Wednesday's five BSS races. The Ready For Moni gelding led gate-to-wire, recording fractions of :29.2, 1:00, and 1:29.2 en route to winning by two lengths over Senor Julio (Tyler Smith). Rizz N Moni (Dan Noble) was third. Obsessed With Me is trained by Matthew Burkholder for owner Dark Horse Farm. He has earned $32,500 in five starts.

After scoring wins in the first and third legs of the BSS, Easter Bb (Page) took Wednesday's fifth division in 1:59.1. The Creatine gelding led gate-to-wire with fractions of :29.4, 1:01, and 1:31 and won by five lengths. Vacation Hill (Noble) was second followed by Great Start (Luke Hanners) in third. Easter Bb has hit the board in all eight seasonal starts with seven wins and one third while banking $70,330. He is trained by Phillip Knox for owner Brant Brower.

Hanners joined Page in winning a pair of BSS races on Wednesday, taking the second and third divisions in the sulky with East King Street and Jet Range, respectively.

East King Street rallied from sixth place and five lengths back of the leader at the three-quarter pole to win by a length in 1:58.4 for his first career victory in five starts, increasing his earnings to $17,500. Way Too Easy (Chris Lems) led at each of the first three calls in :28, :58, and 1:28 before fading to finish fourth. Krazy Caviar (Sam Widger) was second followed by Bald Bob (Braiden Rhoades) in third. East King Street is an In Range gelding trained by Virgil Morgan, Jr. for owner Joyce A. McClelland Stable.

Jet Range was a gate-to-wire winner by 1½ lengths in 1:58.3, scoring his first career victory after recording fractions of :29, :59.3, and 1:29.4. Little Dirt Cowboy (Lems) and Glowing Acceptance (Noble) rounded out the top three. Jet Range is an In Range gelding trained by Morgan, Jr. for owners Joyce A. McClelland Stable and Larry Wills. He has a 1-1-1 record in five starts with earnings of $32,940.

Sergeant Chino (Justin Irvine) also recorded his first career win, taking the fourth division by a length in 1:59.2 to improve his record to 1-0-3 and increase his earnings to $15,880 in eight starts. He is trained by Tim Twaddle for owner Hold The Line Stable. Dynamic Count (Widger), who led at the first three calls in :28.1, :59.2, and 1:29.1, finished second with Serg Garcia (Lems) in third.

OUR GREY HEART HEADLINES WINNERS IN THIRD LEG OF BSS FOR FRESHMAN FILLY PACERS: Our Grey Heart headlined the winners of the four $20,000 divisions of the third leg of the Buckeye Stallion Series for freshman filly pacers Monday (Aug. 17) at Northfield Park Racino.

The Heart Of Chewbacca filly is now three-for-three in the BSS this year after taking the second division in gate-to-wire fashion in a lifetime-best 1:55.1. With Tyler Smith in the sulky, she recorded fractions of :27.4, :57.3, and 1:26 en route to winning by three lengths. Moondance Sara (Chris Page) and Poseformiki (Justin Irvine) rounded out the top three. Our Grey Heart is trained by Jeff Nisonger for owner Cis Racing. She has hit the board in all nine seasonal starts with a 6-2-1 record while banking $37,940.

Midnight Haze (Chris Lems) recorded the fastest mile of the four BSS races, winning the first division by three-quarters-of-a-length in 1:54.3. Miss Miki (Page) was second followed by Lyons Cartier (David Miller) in third. Midnight Haze is a Dancin Yankee filly trained by Edward Miller, who co-owns with Dr. Michael Latessa and Ashley Miller. She has two wins and one third with earnings of $18,400 in four seasonal starts.

You Go Cocoa (Aaron Merriman) took the third division by two lengths in 1:55.4 for her first career win in her second start, increasing her earnings to $11,000. The Well Said filly is owned and trained by Jason Thompson. Apple By The Sea (Luke Hanners) and Fran The Flame (Dan Noble) finished second and third, respectively.

Sea Jazz (Ronnie Gillespie) also scored her first career win, improving her record to 1-1-1 and increasing her earnings to $16,123 in five starts. Going off at 25-1 odds, the Downbytheseaside filly was in fourth place at the three-quarter pole before rallying to win the fourth division by a half-length in 1:55.4. Well Intentioned (Irvine) was second followed by Brie Blue Chip (Merriman) in third. Sea Jazz paid $52.20 to win. She is trained by Ryan Miller for owners Miller Racing Stable, Chris Gilbert, Redracer, and Roger Miller Jeff Bankey.

Handicappers look for triple treat in Big M contest

The Meadowlands Monthly Handicapping Contest sports a serious pot of gold at the end of an 11-month rainbow, and three of the contest's regular players are out to improve their chances of hitting big, as in 10 times big.

The way the competition works, the top two finishers from each monthly $1,000 contest earn an entry in the $10,000 final that takes place on Dec. 12, and with the first seven (of 11) legs complete, there are a trio of handicappers who already have two entries in the big-money finale.

Stefan Ferrara, John Skladany, and Patrick O'Malley will all be seeking a third entry into the late fall showdown when leg 8 of the MMHC takes place Saturday (Aug. 22) night.

It's important to finish at or near the top of the leaderboard, as the four players with the highest bankrolls at the end of the night win some cash (on a $500-$250-$150-$100 basis), but only the top two get a ticket to go for the big green.

"I love playing in handicapping contests," said O'Malley, 62, who lives in Westbury, NY. "I remember when The Meadowlands would host the World Harness Handicapping Championship every April. Players would come from all over the country to play. After COVID, the contest just couldn't get the same volume of players. I was very excited when The Meadowlands decided to host this contest and put up the prize money.

"It really doesn't make sense for anyone in attendance at the track not to play. It's free money. It's the same as going to the teller and buying a $100 voucher. If you hit something big, you can win some of the contest money. I love the strategy of the contest. I know a lot of the other players, so there are some bragging rights and trash talking involved. That makes it that much more fun."

Ferrara, 53, of Westchester, NY said with a laugh, "Since the beginning of the year, I was trying to sweep the board and have every entry into the final; that obviously hasn't worked out. But, in all seriousness, I'm going to give it my all to get a third or fourth entry into the final. I'm a Pick-4, 5 and 6 player. I need as many options as possible to make these plays.

"As far as what I like about these contests are, the simple answer is everything. [Big M director of marketing and events] Rachel [Ryan] and the powers that be have done an excellent job evolving in these contests. Just a couple of years ago, you were only allowed to make win-place-show wagers. I hated that because it didn't fit what I liked to do. Now, you can play any single wager you want. It truly is a great contest and I, for one, love coming out to The Meadowlands to compete in it."

Thus far this year, 14 entries have been earned for the year-end competition, those handicappers – with their contest totals – are:

- January: Del Kern ($934.01) and Ferrara ($840.76)
- February: Robert Glaser ($592.50) and Emile Issa ($500)
- March: Sean Loeb ($1,170.06) and O'Malley ($832)
- April: O'Malley ($554) and Ferrara ($380.20)
- May: Skladany ($1,031.60) and James Molina ($800)
- June: Rodney Duncan ($822.20) and Skladany ($497.28)
- July: Jim Sidor ($1,192.10) and Russ Slader ($750)

2026 contest schedule:

- Leg 8 – Saturday (Aug. 22)
- Leg 9 – Saturday (Sept. 5)
- Leg 10 – Oct. 23
- Leg 11 – Nov. 14
- Invitation-only $10,000 contest final: Dec. 12

Each monthly contest will follow the same format:

- Contestants must bet a minimum of five Meadowlands races.
- No minimum or maximum bet per race.
- All wagers offered on The Meadowlands program are eligible for the contest.
- Contestants keep all pari-mutuel winnings.
- Unlimited entries per person.

There is no entry fee, but a $100 live-money bankroll is required for players, and the prize pool is guaranteed at $1,000, funded by The Meadowlands.

On the night of the contest, players must register/check-in at the Clubhouse Lobby by 6:20 p.m. A $100 betting card must be purchased to participate, as this is a live-money/wagering contest.

The top two finishers from each $1,000 contest earn spots in the $10,000 tournament final on Dec. 12 (22 total players). First prize in the final is $5,000.

KEITH TO CALL: Melissa Keith, the former track announcer at Canada's Rideau-Carleton Raceway, will be in town this weekend to provide the play-by-play of the races, tonight and Saturday. Keith served as race caller when The Big M celebrated International Women's Day earlier this year.

But Keith isn't the only member of this weekend's talent team who can call a race.

Peter Kleinhans, who has been the voice of many tracks during his career, and is the current caller at Kentucky's Oak Grove, will put some of his other skills on display and provide analysis and selections on the Sam McKee Memorial Broadcast Set tonight while sitting alongside Big M TV regular host Dave Little, who is the former caller at Historic Track (Goshen, NY) and current man on the mic at the Orleans County Fair (Barton, VT).

Saturday night will find Larry Fox, the former announcer at Freehold Raceway who called The Big M races last Saturday, offering his TrackMaster rating expertise from the co-host chair.

Big M Winner's Circle Host Gary DiLeo may not have called any races in his life, but will handle interviews from the paddock with winning connections nonetheless.

A STELLAR MENU: The Meadowlands' betting public is accustomed to the new $3 Late Pick-3 (Races 11-13) and $5 Late Daily Double (12-13), but still go for the mile oval's wagers that offer a low 15 per cent takeout in a big way.

These are the bets that offer that low takeout for both of this weekend's 13-race programs:

- Races 1-5: 20-cent Pick-5
- Races 3-9: 20-cent Survivor Pick-7
- Race 5: 10-cent Pentafecta (Hi-5)
- Races 6-9: 50-cent Pick-4
- Races 8-13: 20-cent Pick-6
- Races 10-13: 50-cent Pick-4
- Race 13: 10-cent Pentafecta (Hi-5)

This weekend, there will be an additional daily double wager offered on races 7-8, a bet that will have a $2 minimum bet.

Woodmere Rock It impressive in Charlottetown

Woodmere Rock It produced an impressive performance Wednesday evening (Aug. 19), as the 2-year-old male pacer went 1:52.4 at Red Shores Racetrack and Casino at the Charlottetown Driving Park.

Anthony MacDonald sent Woodmere Rock It directly to the front in the second $17,400 P.E.I. Colt Stakes Gold division and the rookie carved out fractions of :28, :56.3, and 1:25 before closing the mile in :27.4 to win by 3¼ lengths.

Woodmere Rock It ($2.10) is trained by Jamie Smith for TheStable Woodmere Rock It of Guelph, ON. The son of Tobago Cays was bred by Woodmere Farms of Marshfield. The win puts him a perfect six-for-six with $34,525 in lifetime earnings.

Malicious Benny (driven by Marc Campbell) finished second, with Woodmere Dougal (Corey MacPherson) third.

The other $17,400 P.E.I. Colt Stakes Gold division went to Southdale Jeff ($16.30) and trainer/driver Adam Merner in 1:56.1. Much More Malice (Barrieau) was second ahead of Camco Kolton (MacPherson). The winning son of Rollwithitharry is owned by Mike May and Herman McQuaid of Charlottetown.

The seven $8,700 Grassroots divisions for 2-year-old pacing colts were won by Grampiesdirtyjokes ($5.80) in 1:58.3 for driver Campbell and trainer Landon Campbell, Philndangerous ($8.80) in 1:57.2 for driver Brodie MacPhee and trainer Tom Weatherbie and Wilson Cassidy ($2.10) in 1:57.2 for Campbell and trainer Kevin Bailey.

Ryder Roo ($4.30) was an eight-length winner in 1:56 for trainer Earl Watts with Paul Langille driving, while Me And The Boys ($2.90) prevailed in 1:59 for the Watts stable and driver Campbell.

Saulsbrook Andy ($7.30) captured his Grassroots assignment in 1:58.4 for driver MacPherson and trainer Chris MacKay. Irish Rover ($22.60) closed out the program with a 1:59.3 victory for trainer/driver Monica Sutherland.

Campbell recorded seven driving victories on the 15-dash program. His other winners were Play N Bad ($6.80) in 1:57.3 for trainer Warren MacKinnon, Captain Tate ($2.30) who won race 6 in 1:55 for Campbell and trainer Walter Walker, Big Bad Bruiser ($4.10) in 1:56.3 for trainer Neil Bambrick, and Bronx Drifter ($4.70) in 1:55 for trainer Trevin Shive.

UNDEFEATED STUNNING SPEED STARS IN P.E.I. COLT STAKES

Stunning Speed remained perfect while producing a dazzling mile Tuesday evening (Aug. 18) in P.E.I. Colt Stakes action at Red Shores Racetrack and Casino at the Charlottetown Driving Park during Old Home Week Racing.

Trainer/driver Mike McGuigan sent Stunning Speed directly to the front in his $14,650 2-year-old P.E.I. Colt Stakes trotting colt division and the Muscle Through It rookie never looked back. Stunning Speed ($2.70) carved out fractions of :29.2, :58.4, and 1:28.2 before winning by 1¾ lengths in 1:58.4 over a track rated good with a one-second variant. Hopthroughit (driven by Clare MacDonald) finished second with Earl Speed (Jason Hughes) third. The victory gave Stunning Speed five wins from five career starts and boosted his lifetime earnings to $32,669 for owners Little Pond Stables of Little Pond and The Coles Stable of Charlottetown.

Massivearmour ($2.10) kept his perfect record intact in the other $14,650 2-year-old trotting colt division for trainer Darryl MacLean. Gilles Barrieau controlled the race through splits of :30.4, 1:03, and 1:33.4 before Massivearmour powered away to win by 6¾ lengths in 2:03.4. Supreme Muscle (McGuigan) was second with I Dream Of Muscles (Jim Ripley) third. The Muscle Mass colt is now undefeated in three career starts with $23,309 earned for owners and breeders Calvin Larkin of Mermaid and Erika Bradley of Charlottetown.

Saulsbrook Disco ($4.90) captured the $14,650 P.E.I. Colt Stakes division for 2-year-old trotting fillies in 2:06.2 for trainer Landon Campbell and driver Marc Campbell. Early Speed (Myles Heffernan, Sr.) set the tempo before Saulsbrook Disco advanced first-over and prevailed by three-quarters-of-a-length. Redland Trixie (MacDonald) completed the triactor. The Muscle Through It filly has won four of her five career starts and banked $23,079 for What R The Oddz Stable of Orwell.

Hallysgurl ($2.10) overwhelmed her rivals in the $21,100 3-year-old trotting filly division for trainer Darryl MacLean and driver Barrieau. The Muscle Mass filly took command before the three-quarter pole and opened up to win by 6¾ lengths in 1:59.2. Bonmati (Corey MacPherson) was second with Miss Gracie Ridge (Brodie MacPhee) third. The victory was the ninth of Hallysgurl's 14-race career and increased her lifetime bankroll to $51,041 for owners and breeders Calvin Larkin and Erika Bradley.

Little Louis ($2.10) continued his remarkable career with a victory from post 8 in the $21,100 3-year-old trotting colt division. MacPherson moved the Kuri White trainee three-wide at the half-mile marker and Little Louis powered to the lead before winning by 2¾ lengths in 1:59.3. Hoponarocket (Barrieau) finished second while Call Of Honor (Ken Murphy) was placed third. The victory was the fifth from six starts this season and the 15th from 17 lifetime outings for owner/breeder East Coast Captains of Cornwall. Little Louis has now earned $116,048 in his career.

Adam Merner recorded a driving triple on the program. Listen Linda Lou ($5.70) opened the card with a 1:57.4 victory for trainer Carson Wilkie before Merner's own trainee House That Built Me ($3.30) romped by 7½ lengths in 1:58.1. Merner completed his three-win performance aboard the Todd Walsh-trained Raising Sand ($5.60) in 1:58.2.

Marc Campbell also recorded a driving triple as he guided the Charles Gaudreault-trained Shadow Roman ($2.80) to a maiden-breaking victory in 1:57.3 before winning with Saulsbrook Disco and Rina Labelle ($4), who stopped the clock in 2:01.2. Saulsbrook Disco and Rina Labelle also gave trainer Landon Campbell a training double.

No eliminations for Balanced Image Stakes

Nine Ontario-sired 2-year-old trotters have been entered in the 2026 Balanced Image Stakes and will advance straight to the $44,500 final on Saturday (Aug. 29) at Hanover Raceway.

The field includes Shes Flexin, one of two fillies entered in the race and a recent Ontario Sires Stakes Grassroots winner in her career debut last Wednesday at Grand River Raceway for trainer Katie Graham, and colt Wolfpack Doc, a two-time Prospect Series winner with success over the Hanover half-mile oval last month for trainer Tyler Moore. Meanwhile, trainer/driver Bruce Richardson will take aim at a second straight victory in Hanover's signature race with Grassroots competitor Loch Ness, joining the rest of the entrants hoping for a maiden-breaking stakes win.

The entries are listed below in alphabetical order with trainers and * indicating filly entrants:

Alarm Bell – Shannon Henry

Dreamtrade* – Luc Blais

Loch Ness – Bruce Richardson

Mr Predictable – Blake MacIntosh

Shes Flexin* – Katie Graham

Steadfastly – Luc Blais
