Harness racing was always the only choice for multi-generational horseman Tyler Buter

by Murray Brown

TALES FROM THE CURMUDGEON

with MURRAY BROWN

Tyler Buter is quite certain that he is at the very least a fourth-generation horseman, on each side of his family tree, no less.

Was there ever any doubt that his place in life would be anywhere other than in harness racing?

“Not a bit,” answered the native of Michigan, by way of Illinois and now a resident of Pennsylvania. “I’ve never done, or wanted to do, anything else.”

Buter has called the small town of Milford, PA home for the last four years. It serves as the geographic centerpiece of his driving career which mostly involves competing on a regular basis at Pocono Downs and Yonkers Raceway.

Occasionally, the Grand Circuit beckons. When it does, Buter is only too happy to make the trek to a venue such as he did last week to Hoosier Park where he guided Dandy Ideal to victory in the $300,000 Grade 1 Dan Patch Invitational.

On a regular basis though, Pocono Downs is the one which he refers to as his home track.

It is there where last season he led all drivers and is in the direction of where he appears to be headed this season.

people such as my dad Todd Buter, Rob Harmon, Mike Sweeney, Mike Watson, and others for having the trust in me when I first started. Without them, my career would not be where it is today.”

Do you now consider yourself to be a full-time driver?

“Yes. I began focusing on catch driving a few years ago and found this to be most satisfying. With the busy schedules between Pocono and Yonkers and with occasional forays to The Meadowlands, I wouldn’t have near enough time to do justice to training a race stable. I’m now 40 years old. I feel as though I probably have 10 or so more productive racing years. After that I might consider spending my winters in Florida; maybe riding in the mornings, sitting behind babies for a stable, and then having time to play golf in the afternoons.”

As you well know, when you are driving horses for a living, nothing is certain. Weren’t you involved in a pretty serious wreck at Yonkers a few years ago?

“It was pretty bad. But the time away from racing made me realize how much I loved the sport and how much I missed it. Even though I had a broken back, a broken collar bone, and several broken ribs, it could have been worse. Thankfully there were no head injuries. I was out a few months, but I’m still young and was able to come back quickly.”

Can you tell us about some of the better horses which you have been privileged to have sat behind?

“In terms of money earned and Grade 1 events won, the two that probably stand out right now are American Mercury [$1,125,969] and Dandy Ideal [$1,299,007]. I won the $500,000 Messenger with American Mercury and the $300,000 Dan Patch with Dandy Ideal.

“There have been young horses for such trainers as Ake Svanstedt and Nifty Norman who have yet to have won the Grade 1 races that they will probably win down the road. But there is one, barring misfortune, that I believe will go on to become one of the true greats in our sport’s history.

“Just recently I was able to drive Starstruck Dreamer for Noel Daley. Todd McCarthy, his regular driver, was busy driving at The Red Mile and was unable to get to Pocono to drive him in a PASS. Noel put me up to drive him there. He won as easy as could be. We were just cruising. In his next start at Chester with Todd up, he broke the world record winning in 1.48.4f, also just cruising. I have no idea what his limitations could be, but right now I look upon him as the kind of a horse that could take the sport to a new level.”

MIDWEST CHRONICLES

with JAMES PLATZ

It Liz Again delivers breakthrough win for Miller

by James Platz

Prior to Wednesday evening (Aug. 19), trainer Gerald Miller had suffered a few near misses in Governor's Cup championship races. But that changed when his trainee, It Liz Again, turned in a dominant stretch drive and another top performance to capture the $25,000 final for sophomore filly pacers at the Indiana State Fair. The 3-year-old bested the competition by nearly six lengths at the Indianapolis oval.

"She just takes care of business," Miller said.

That she did. It Liz Again entered the fair finals on the strength of back-to-back wins at Converse and Portland earlier in the month. In seven fair starts, the sophomore collected four victories and finished third in divisional points with 223. Only Rita's Girl (10 starts, 397 points) and Rockin Charli (seven starts, 269 points) accumulated more.

"I thought she would be one of the better ones in there," the trainer said. "You never know, sometimes somebody else isn't quite as good on a small track and on a big track they really shine. But I was pretty confident. I felt like we were the ones to beat.”

The Indiana fair circuit is contested on small tracks around the state, but the finals are held at the fairgrounds’ mile configuration. It Liz Again has experience on the bigger track. Before joining the fairs one month into the schedule, the pacer made 11 starts at Harrah’s Hoosier Park, beginning her campaign in early April.

Her seasonal debut came in the opening round of the Miss Windfall Series. She finished seventh that day in a race marred by an accident.

“She wasn’t in it, but it affected her,” Miller said. “We were able to avoid it, but it just took us out of the running.”

Over the next seven starts, It Liz Again hit the board six times, including a third-place effort in the $20,000 Windfall final followed by a pair of wins in conditioned events with LeWayne Miller in the sulky. After three off-the-board performances, the trainer recommended to breeder/co-owner Chris Choros and his partner, Therl Hensley, that the fairs might be a good spot for the 3-year-old.

“She wouldn’t get off the car very well,” Miller said. “And I think things just move a lot quicker up there. After she’d won a couple races, it just seemed like she was at a spot where she wanted to go in [1]:54 and her class wanted to go in [1]:53. And I think going to the fairs helped her a lot.”

As a freshman, It Liz Again raced on the fair circuit in 16 of 17 seasonal attempts, reaching the winner’s circle three times. She had proven to be competitive on the smaller tracks, and upon returning this season, she again found success, just not in her fair debut. Steered by Miller at Frankfort, the filly started from the second tier and finished last in the field of seven.

“After the first start or two, it just didn’t look like it was going to work out,” Miller said. “At that time, the class we were racing

“I thought [It Liz Again] would be one of the better ones in there [in the Indiana State Fair Governor’s Cup championship]. in at Hoosier stopped filling. So, we were going to have to find something else anyway.”

It Liz Again rebounded to turn in a solid fair campaign and qualify for the Governor’s Cup championships. Miller is no stranger to the fair finals. Working for years as an assistant trainer for Don Eash, the stable collected several fair finals trophies. Since going out on his own, reaching the winner’s circle at the Indiana State Fair in August has eluded him.

And this year has presented its own set of challenges. Miller began the fair campaign with sophomore gelding trotter Swan Bar, a horse he owns in partnership with Hensley and John Wilson that was an early contender in the division and a potential Governor’s Cup starter. The son of Swan For All scored consecutive wins at Converse to start the fairs before being sidelined. Despite only two starts, the gelding ranks 10th in divisional points.

“It’s been up and down,” Miller said. “I had a really nice trotter that I raced the first couple fairs and I thought I was going to have a lot of fun with him. He wound up injuring a knee and having to sit out.”

It Liz Again’s victory has helped soften the harsh realities of the up-and-down season. The efforts of the Highalator—American Farrah filly also helped Miller bag his first Governor’s Cup championship as a trainer.

“It was pretty great,” he said. “I guess I hadn’t really thought about it. It was kind of a big moment because it’s never gone my way on that day before. I’ve driven in a bunch of them, been second a bunch of times with other people’s horses. I was a neck or so from winning it two years ago with Bluebird Alexis and Don beat me that day.”

That day, Eash, his former employer, piloted Tell’s Rock N Roll to victory, leaving Miller with another near miss. By contrast, It Liz Again left little doubt Wednesday. Mike Peterson, who drove the filly to her two victories leading into the final, was back at the controls. In those contests, her winning margin of victory was four lengths and 15½ lengths, respectively.

When the gate folded in the night’s fifth race, Peterson dropped It Liz Again in second behind leader Rita’s Girl through a :27 first fraction before assuming control. Reaching the half in :55, the filly was shuffled when Rita’s Girl, driven by Kevin Detweiler, moved back to the top and passed three quarters in 1:23.3. It Liz Again put the race out of reach with a powerful :29.2 last quarter, taking a quarter-length margin at the head of the stretch and adding another 5½ lengths before stopping the clock in 1:53.1.

The winning time established a new lifetime mark for the filly. It Liz Again has earned $55,455 for her connections, and now she is a Governor’s Cup champion. As is Miller.

“I’ve had her since I picked her up as a yearling at Schwartz Boarding Farm,” he said. “I broke her and raced her ever since. She just never gets tired. She just keeps chugging, you know?”

A 46-year record run of Hambletonians at The Meadowlands

by Bob Heyden

The Hambletonian had nearly 50 years at The Meadowlands. That's a lot of years to go through, but let's start by putting a congratulatory bow on 20 records of varying importance, many set just this year.

1. With 101 Hambletonians in the books, only Apex and Karl had as few as four letters in their names.
2. The combined margin of victory in every Hambletonian from Yankee Paco in 2000 to Apex in 2026 is 25¾ lengths, less than a length per.
3. Ten different Hall of Fame trainers won a Hambletonian in New Jersey totaling 22 in all: Ray Remmen, Billy Haughton, Stanley Dancer, Jimmy Takter, Blair Burgess, Chuck Sylvester, Ron Gurfein, Per Eriksson, Jim Campbell, and Ake Svanstedt.
4. Dexter Dunn became the sixth driver-1:49.2 Apex-to set the all-time Hambletonian best in their first Hambletonian win (Apex, 1:49.2). He follows Andy McCarthy who tied the mark at 1:50.1 in 2020 with Ramona Hill; Brian Sears with Muscle Hill in 2009 (1:50.1); Ron Pierce in 1993 American Winner

5. The 46 Hambletonians went to 31 different drivers since the move to East Rutherford in 1981, identical to the training side of 31-for-46.

6. Four winning Hambletonian drivers from The Meadowlands era are no longer with us: Stanley Dancer (Duenna, 1983); Ulf Thoresen (Nuclear Kosmos, 1986); Mal Burroughs (Malabar Man, 1997); and Eric Ledford (Chip Chip Hooray, 2002).

7. Six trainers have also passed: Billy Haughton (Speed Bowl, 1982); again, Stanley Dancer who also trained Duenna in 1983; Skip Lewis (Historic Freight, 1984); Osvaldo Formia (Probe, 1989) and (Harmonious, 1990); Milton Smith (American Winner, 1993), and Ron Gurfein who captured three Hambletonians in the 1990s (Victory Dream, 1994), (Continentalvictory, 1996), and (Self Possessed, 1999).

8. If Dexter Dunn wins the 2027 Hambletonian in Indiana it would mark the first time in 44 years that any driver has won the Classic at two different venues: Stanley Dancer won one at The Meadowlands and three in DuQuoin.

9. Eight times since the 1981 move to New Jersey the Hambletonian has been the new richest race ever: $838,000 (1981), $875,750 (1982), $1,080,000 (1983), $1,219,000 (1984),

$1,272,000 (1985), $1,344,000 (1990), $1,500,000 (2005), to $1,520,333 (2009) when, fittingly, the richest single-season earner, Muscle Hill, won the richest Hambletonian.

10. In the 21st century, 14 of the first 16 Hambletonian-winning caretakers were female. Corinne Tripp in 1979 with Legend Hanover got the ball rolling for the avalanche to follow.

11. Can Apex end a 17-year drought? No Hambletonian winner has been named Horse of the Year the same year since Muscle Hill did it in 2009.

12. In 2010 Muscle Massive won the Hambletonian and Sportswriter won the North America Cup, the richest trot and pace of the year, respectively. Between them, they only won one more race.

13. Brett Beckwith at 23 years 7 months of age was fifth in the Hambletonian with Captain Naughty this year. That made him the youngest in Meadowlands Hambletonian history to get a check. Only Peter Haughton at 21 and then 22 in the late 1970s was younger. Eric Adeilsson was 20 in 1995 and tried to advance to the final but came up short.

14. The Meadowlands was a track of milestones indeed, most especially come Hambletonian time: The first sub 1:55 (1:54.3, Prakas, 1985), the first sub 1:54 (1:53.3, Mack Lobell, 1987), the 15. Has anyone ever had a decade like Tommy Haughton did in the 1980s? He debuted in the Hambletonian with Final Score (1980), finished second, and was then voted 3YOCT of the Year. In 1982, he became the youngest to win the Hambletonian at age 25 with Speed Bowl, the same month he set the new world race record of 1:51.3 with sophomore pacing colt Trenton. In 1989 he trains the Hambletonian fave with a 17-race winning streak Peace Corps but she came up a little short on that dead-heat day. He did not drive in the Hambletonian after that decade.

16. Muscle Massive, sire of history's fastest male trotter On To Norway (1 48.3), was a $425,000 yearling in 2008 and paid great dividends in 2010 becoming the lone high-ticket yearling in The Meadowlands era to parlay that into Hambletonian glory.

17. Jimmy Takter and daughter Nancy Takter are the last two trainers to go back-to-back in the Hambletonian. For dad it was 2014-15 and for Nancy it was 2023-24. Six combined when you add in 1997 and 2010 for Hall of Famer Jimmy.

18. Marcus Melander broke through in 2026 after a decade of dominance without winning. His uncle took down the trophy a quarter century back. Stefan Melander won with Scarlet Knight in 2001. Marcus is just 34 and Dunn is 36.

19. Apex was the first Mohawk Million winner to take the Hambletonian coming in with a powerful bio which included the Dan Patch 2YOCT trophy from 2025. But a standout past has never been a pre-requisite for winning. Shiaway St Pat in 1981 was a gelding bred in Michigan and his very next start after the Hambletonian was on the Michigan Fair circuit.

20. Jeffrey Snyder owns the Hambletonian all-time record setter in Apex (1:49.2). He also set the stakes record in 2004 with Rocknroll Hanover in the Metro at 1 49.4, the Meadowlands Pace stakes mark of 1:48.3, also with Rocknroll Hanover, in 2005, the North America Cup new standard in 2002 with Red River Hanover in 1:48.4, and then lowered that seven years later in Canada with Well Said in 1:48.1.

Call for rebirth of Chicagoland racing

by Neil Milbert

The executive director of the Illinois Harness Horsemen's Association (IHHA) has called on the racing community to bring Chicagoland racing "back to life."

Speaking at the Aug. 19 meeting of the Illinois Racing Board, Tony Somone said: "For the first time in forever, the third largest metropolitan economy in the U.S. is without horse racing. While this may not be the fault of everyone in this room, it's certainly our responsibility to bring it back."

The 14 harness programs scheduled for January and February were canceled because of Hawthorne Race Course's financial turmoil and the track's Nov. 6-Dec. 27 Suburban Downs harness meeting will not be held as a consequence of the bankrupt track's $90 million July sale to the Delaware corporation Allimac 23 that intends to redevelop the 119-acre property for real estate purposes.

The thoroughbred meeting at what was the only surviving Chicago racetrack began three weeks late in April and ended on July 19, four months ahead of schedule.

Allimac 23 is scheduled to close on Sept. 1.

"For harness horsemen, we have an answer to getting us back to racing on a full-time basis with pari-mutuel racing," Somone said. "We are all aware of that open license for one of seven townships in the south suburbs. We don't need any legislative help for that; it is in the current law. But for the license for the south suburbs to begin the certification process in an orderly fashion it is really only contingent on the people in this room."

"I have been in contact with three different groups, and I believe there may be more, that have told me they are ready to apply for racing dates in 2027. However, their concern is that Hawthorne still has control of the 35-mile boundary [prohibiting establishment of another racetrack without Hawthorne's permission]."

"We need to follow the framework of the law but these are unprecedented times and the laws are vague and open to wide interpretation in addressing how to handle a situation when no racetracks are able to operate. Add in the bankruptcy proceedings and things really get complicated."

Judge Timothy Barnes of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for Northern Illinois has allowed the backstretch to remain open until Aug. 31 to accommodate thoroughbreds training at the track and enable stable area workers and their children to remain residents.

“Whatever good will they [Hawthorne president Tim Carey and his management team] have earned over five or 10 years, it’s quickly evaporated with their heartless behavior in the past few months.”

— Dave McCaffrey

According to the Illinois Thoroughbred Horsemen’s Association (ITHA), at the time of the Racing Board meeting and Bankruptcy Court hearing on the same day, there were 113 horses, 155 adults, and 53 children on the backstretch. ITHA attorney Kevin Morse said departure plans had been arranged for all but 29 people and 22 were scheduled to leave with horses later in the week.

At the Bankruptcy Court hearing Hawthorne sought to move the eviction date of Aug. 31 that was specified in the sale order to Aug. 28 and call on the United States Marshall’s Service to throw out those who refused to leave.

Judge Barnes refused the request, saying he would only authorize forcible eviction if the people didn’t leave on Aug. 31.

Dave McCaffrey, a harness driver, trainer, and president of the IHHA before becoming the ITHA’s executive director, told The Blood Horse’s Bob Kieckhefer, “Whatever good will they [Hawthorne president Tim Carey and his management team] have earned over five or 10 years, it’s quickly evaporated with their heartless behavior in the past few months.”

The IHHA’s Somone agreed, “We all trusted them and believed in them and they disappointed us greatly. With well over $100 million in debt, Hawthorne [in February] filed for bankruptcy regulation to buy time to find a racing partner and failed to do so. Hawthorne was unable to fill their obligation to the harness horsemen, to the thoroughbred horsemen, to the Illinois Racing Board, and to the state.

“We need to move forward. I beg of you — this Racing Board and staff and anyone else who cares about our future — understand that the sooner Hawthorne steps aside, or is authorized to step aside, the sooner we can begin to plan for our future. When all is said and done you [Racing Board members and staff] have every right to make difficult decisions based on what is in the best interest of racing.”

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Don Fanucci Zet makes it look easy again

by Thomas Hedlund

Don Fanucci Zet was handed nothing for free in Saturday's (Aug. 22) $195,000 Kymi Grand Prix in Finland. It didn't matter.

The 10-year-old star once again made top-class competition look easy for Örjan Kihlström.

"He won very easily and I didn't even have to pull the ear plugs," Kihlström said.

And then came a description that perhaps sums up Don Fanucci Zet better than anything else.

"Every time he races, he makes it look like he's just playing around," Kihlström said. "It's incredible. The first 700 or 800 meters were tough, but he's a tough horse. He can handle almost anything. I think if you took him to the moon, he'd probably perform well there, too. He simply does his best under any circumstances."

Don Fanucci Zet (Hard Livin—Kissed By The West) was caught three-wide early before eventually taking command from Mellby Joker with 1,400 meters remaining. Working Class Hero moved up on his outside and applied serious pressure down the final backstretch.

But the challenger was the first to surrender.

The Daniel Redén-trained Don Fanucci Zet remained strong on the front and drew away comfortably to win in a 1:54 mile rate for 2,100 meters.

"Gocciadoro put quite a bit of pressure on us with Working Class Hero for a while, but 'Don Fanucci' felt very strong," Kihlström said. "Around the final turn, I felt we had the race under control. This horse is absolutely incredible."

Daniel Wäjersten trainee Mellby Joker (Muscle Hill) finished second from the pocket for Olli Koivunen, while Combat Fighter (From Above) narrowly held third over the fast-closing Luke The Spook (Greenshoe) and Adrian Kolgjini.

Don Fanucci Zet has now won six of eight starts this season. His career résumé stands at 39 victories from 74 starts and more than SEK 26 million in earnings.

At 10, he continues to win — and continues to charm racing fans throughout Europe.

THAI MEDINA DOES IT AGAIN IN E3 FINAL

The $300,000 E3 final for 3-year-old fillies at Romme turned into a speed show Saturday (Aug. 22), and the result was a familiar one.

Thai Medina won the long-distance E3 final earlier this summer. Now she has added the short-distance version, giving trainer/driver Björn Goop his third E3 victory of 2026.

And she did it while equaling the Swedish record.

Thai Medina (Face Time Bourbon) couldn't protect the rail against Cruiser in the opening battle and instead settled into the pocket behind the favorite.

Cruiser was forced into a demanding opening kilometer as pressure came in waves from Intesa Ek and Rosie Bros through the middle stages. The repeated moves also made life difficult for the horses racing at the back of the field, who never really found a smooth path into the race.

Morning Rain (Face Time Bourbon), runner-up in the long E3 final, found herself next-to-last in the outer flow before Daniel Wäjersten launched his attack around the final turn.

Behind her came Global Halo (Ready Cash), who was forced as wide as six-wide on the final turn before Joakim Lövgren turned her loose in the stretch.

Both flew home. But the race had already opened up perfectly for Thai Medina.

Goop found room from the pocket at the top of the stretch, and Cruiser was beginning to feel the effects of the demanding pace. Thai Medina did the rest, capturing her second E3 final of the season in a 1:53.4 mile rate, equaling the Swedish record.

"You almost have to pinch yourself," Goop said. "We've changed things in the stable so that each caretaker now has six horses instead of eight, and it has produced results. This filly has the right attitude. She's not very big, but she fights."

“[Don Fanucci Zet] won very easily and I didn't even have to pull the ear plugs.”

— Örjan Kihlström

“Originally, the plan was to try to protect the lead, but after the post parade I felt it would be better not to force things. With 400 or 500 meters to go, it looked like things might open up for us, although I didn't know how much Johan had left with the leader.”

Morning Rain finished second, while Global Halo's huge late rally earned her third.

STEADY SPENDER EQUALS SWEDISH RECORD

Steady Spender delivered an authoritative wire-to-wire performance in the colts and geldings division of Saturday's $300,000 E3 final.

Magnus A. Djuse protected the rail without too much difficulty behind the Eric Martinsson trainee, helped in part by the outside horses keeping each other parked approaching the opening turn.

“Everybody left pretty well, actually, and that might have helped us win the battle for the lead,” Djuse said. “This is a damn good horse, and I'm convinced we're going to see him in more major races. He felt great the entire way, and when we turned for home, I knew I still had plenty of horse.”

Favorite Zarajevo Games made a break during that early battle, while In The Wind Gar (Captain Corey) eventually advanced to race first-over down the backstretch.

The pace remained solid throughout, but Steady Spender (Readly Express) appeared to have his rivals under control around the final turn.

Djuse barely had to ask him for more in the stretch.

Steady Spender simply kept rolling and captured the E3 final in a stakes-record 1:53.2 mile rate, also equaling the Swedish record.

City Slicker (King City) and Claes Sjöström produced an eye-catching rally from well back to finish second, with In The Wind Gar third.

NAYAD'ERONVILLE SWEEPS PAST FAVORITES IN YEARLING CUP

For much of Saturday's (Aug. 22) $165,000 Yearling Cup at Vincennes, the race appeared to belong to the two favorites controlling things up front.

Instead, a Thierry Duvaldestin-trained filly stole the show.

Naya d'Eronville (Théo Duvaldestin) winning the $165,000 Yearling Cup on Saturday at Vincennes.

Nob Hill (Gu d'Heripre) and Mathieu Mottier took command in the €150,000 event for 3-year-olds, while favorite Neo de Joudes (Django Riff) settled first-over.

That gave Théo Duvaldestin a perfect second-over trip with Naya d'Eronville (Hohneck). The pace was modest, seemingly tilting the advantage toward the two horses up front. When the field turned for home, Neo de Joudes began applying serious pressure to Nob Hill and the race appeared set to become a battle between the favorites.

Then Naya d'Eronville was tipped out. She exploded.

The filly accelerated past both favorites well before the wire to win decisively in a 2:00.1 mile rate for 2,700 meters. Neo de Joudes finished second and Nob Hill held third.

The time itself should be viewed with some caution. Vincennes underwent extensive track renovations during the summer, and the surface has yet to reach its optimal condition, making current times difficult to compare with historical performances.

"They didn't go particularly fast, and that helped her," Thierry Duvaldestin said. "It wasn't really a speed race, which suited her. But when it was time to go, she showed that she can really move."

"They picked up the pace at one point, but there was also a part of the race where they went very slowly, so she was perfectly positioned behind the favorite. Really, she had the best trip in the race and benefited from the moderate tempo. When it came down to a short sprint, she finished very well."

"Early on she could be a little difficult and immature, but she's become much easier to handle and has improved as a racehorse. She's also racing barefoot now, and that's working well."

SUPERSTAR FEMALES OF HARNESS RACING

with VICTORIA M. HOWARD

Nicky Ratledge keeps reaching for the stars

by Victoria Howard

People get into the sport of harness racing in various ways. Some are born into it, meaning someone in their family is already involved; perhaps as a trainer, driver, or owner who dedicates their life caring for the horse.

Or it could be a child, brother/sister, cousin, etc. who goes to the barn or racetrack with that person and gets bitten by the bug.

~150 HEAD • ONE STANDARD OF CARE

Six decades building champions on the Standardbred side. Now we are building it again on the Thoroughbred side — same farm, same family, same standard. We're looking for the Farm Manager who wants to build it with us, succeeding a longtime manager moving toward retirement.

THE ROLE

Hands-on leadership of roughly 150 head — broodmares, foaling season, young stock, the crew, the land and the equipment. You'll run breeding season, take the yearlings to the sales ring, coordinate with on- and off-farm veterinarians, manage lay-up and rehab for the racing stable, and own the operating budget.

YOU BRING

Seven or more years on a Thoroughbred, Standardbred or comparable breeding farm — hands-on through foaling and breeding season, with time in a senior role. Real horsemanship, and the ability to build a crew and hold it to a standard.

WE OFFER

On-farm housing, health insurance and paid time off, and compensation commensurate with experience and expertise — plus a family three generations deep in this sport, still building, with room to make your mark.

LINDY FARMS OF CONNECTICUT

Generations of raising, breeding and selling world champions

SOMERS, CONNECTICUT

LINDYFARMS.COM

The bug I'm talking about is not a mosquito or a bee — it is the bug one gets when they see a horse — and fall in love. It's love at first sight, or should I say bite.

That is exactly what happened to Nicky Ratledge.

"I was born in Dover, DE," Ratledge said. "No one in my family was involved in the business and in my wildest dreams I never would have thought I would be doing what I'm doing today. I'm not complaining, I love what I do and wouldn't trade it for anything.

"When I was young, I was giving riding lessons to a little girl whose father owned standardbreds with trainer Tim Crissman. At that time, I was attending college and teaching riding to help support my way through college.

"It was not only a happy time in my life but also a very dark time for me for my mother, who was my best friend, was going through breast cancer.

"Tim saw that I was a hard worker and loved working with horses, so he offered me a job as a groom and was only too happy to teach this novice the tricks. That was 20 years ago, and today I am all in."

For the past eight years, Ratledge has trained her own stable and just started getting her qualifying drives.

"Presently, I train six horses for my owner Rodney Long who has been amazing," she said. "I owe him everything for trusting in me and giving me a chance of a lifetime.

"My horses are stabled in Smyrna, DE, at Merri Meadows Training Center, owned by Kinda MacDonald and I mainly race at Dover Downs and Harrington but have ventured out to Maryland at Rosecroft and Chester [in Pennsylvania].

"I may not be one of the better-known trainers in the business, but I am definitely one of the most dedicated and enthusiastic."

Having worked with standardbreds for several decades now, Ratledge has had plenty of exciting and rewarding times, but she said a couple stand out above the rest.

"That was when my first 'baby' made it to the races," she said. "Her name was Truthaboutnickster, and she won her very first race. Believe me, there was a lot of nail biting, sleepless nights, and hair pulling with this filly.

"Unfortunately, she had many setbacks, and it wasn't easy, but in my heart, I knew she was extra special. A lot of people told me to give up on her and don't waste my time and money, but I couldn't stop trying. Perhaps that's the bull headed me, but I'm so glad I didn't give up. I just knew she would eventually make it all worth it.

"Another great moment in racing was when I raced the first time at the Delaware's State Fair my own horse, Aiden Station, in the President Cup, which had the highest purse money."

Unfortunately, with the highs come the lows and Ratledge has experienced those as well.

“I may not be one of the better-known trainers in the business, but I am definitely one of the most dedicated and enthusiastic.”

— Nicky Ratledge

“Ouch, this one hurts,” she said. “It was definitely the time when my baby Truthaboutnickster was making her debut in her very first race. It was a 3-year-old stakes race.

“As I nervously watched my girl behind the gate, she knuckled over behind and broke her back pastern. I was beyond devastated, but I have since learned that anything can and does happen in a race or with one of our standardbreds. That’s part of the game, I guess, but I hate it.”

This column is for all the women in the sport of harness racing. Today, there are several ladies who are quickly rising up the ladder and taking a shot at the big boys, either by training or driving.

Some are well known and others not so much, but each and every one deserves the respect and honor for all the hard work they do.

“There are many hard-working dedicated women in the sport, and I think every one of them deserves recognition,” Ratledge said. “I admire them all but especially Linda MacDonald.

“Linda has given me so much advice in all aspects of the business; whether it’s in grooming, driving or training. She is the go-to woman in Delaware.”

Ratledge said she’s excited for what the future may hold.

“I dream big and reach for the stars,” she said. “I plan on getting my driver’s license and eventually driving in a few races. I’m not trying to be a driver, I just want to be able to say, ‘I did it!’

“Also, one time, I’d love to own a stakes baby and race in a stakes race. It is my dream. In harness racing there are many opportunities. You just have to keep reaching for the stars and hope to catch one.”

CHAPTER 2

A revealing return

The second visit to barn 6 was almost an instant replay, but with more drama. The detectives again sat in the Range Rover, looking at the barn door as horses clomped back and forth from the racetrack. The only difference today was a steady drizzle pinging against the roof.

Hooley set the Styrofoam cup of coffee in the armrest and said, "I got your email and attachment. AI made our frigging daily report a masterpiece. It doesn't feel right. It's like we hired a nerdy kid to do our homework, like we cheated or something."

Bones clicked his fingers together and said, "It made that report faster than I could sharpen my pencil."

"You figure this AI stuff is a tool or a time bomb?"

Bones hung his lanyard around his neck, waited a beat, and said, "Not sure, but the bad guys won't be shy about diving into the pool."

Hooley sighed, "Yeah, my time is almost up, but the world of cops and robbers is going to be different with this bizarro technology."

"I agree. But tell me, how is AI going to step in horse shit, drink coffee, eat doughnuts, chase a perp around, or give me a nickname? Plus, it couldn't give me the ownership papers on the horse or phone records. It suggests where to look, but we still need warrants and stuff. Where is the AI stuff going to end?"

Hooley shrugged, "Today, we're back to boots on the ground. Watch where you step. I'll take the lead and lean on Alex, cousin number two. Let's go."

They covered their heads with clipboards and sprinted through the rain to the barn. When they got inside and shook off the rain, the detectives were surprised to see the cousins had set up four aluminum-framed lawn chairs with red and blue webbing in the aisle of the barn. It was like a campfire without a fire.

Before they sat down, Hooley asked, "Which of these horses is Assets Accepted?"

The trainer pointed to a stall behind the campfire.

Hooley walked to the stall and stroked the nose of the horse. "All the horses look great, but they're all brown with shiny black eyeballs the size of golf balls. How do you tell them apart?"

The trainer took over the horse racing part of the meeting. "The name is on the halter, but every horse gets a chip in their neck. We don't need them because we spend more time with them than our own children, but judges or vets can wave a wand and keep track."

Hooley gave a thumbs up, "Nice, I like it. I'll tell you right now, chips in the necks of people would be a good plan and make our work a hell of a lot easier. Thirty-one years of asking names and addresses that are fake half the time, boom gone, and..."

Alex, cousin number two, interrupted the civil conversation with a nasty bark, "Let's cut the bullshit. What do you want? Ask your questions, stop the harassment. You're not going to find anything. You cops get one phone call from a crazy bitch, and all hell breaks loose. I have a lawyer and..."

This was Hooley's time to interrupt. He flashed his palm like a school crossing guard stopping a kid at the curb, "Alex, Alex, relax, nothing is breaking loose. We can move this meeting to the station, where you are welcome to bring your lawyers with you. We haven't nudged. We haven't made a single accusation. However, that may change, because your tone is off-putting."

At the word – off-putting, Bones gave a hiccup of laughter and covered up with a pretend clearing of his throat.

Hooley purred on like a therapist, "Now it is understandable that people in the midst of a messy divorce are under strain and prone to lashing out at others, but let us not take an adversarial posture. Let's sit in our chairs and get a few facts on the record."

The air went out of Alex like an inflatable kiddie pool hit by a lawn dart. They sat around the invisible campfire.

Field Interview Transcript

H: (Detective Gerald Hooley)

"When did you purchase Assets Accepted, the racehorse?"

A: (Alex Pettigrew, husband of the complainant)

"Last October."

H: "From whom?"

A: "A horse auction. All the horses in the sale are yearlings, which means they are a 1-year-old. They won't race for about eight months. We have the receipt, bill of sale, and papers."

H: "How much did you pay?"

A: "$60,000."

H: "That's a lot of money."

A: "It was about the average price for a horse at that sale."

H: "And you divided the purchase four ways: you, your cousin, and two women from Kansas?"

A: "Yes, we settled the ownership within a week. There are four equal owners. I have copies of the ownership and receipts for all the monthly expenses."

H: "What are the monthly costs?"

A: "When you add in all the costs, for staking, vets, training, trucking, and other stuff, the total is more than two grand per month."

H: "Divided by four?"

A: "Yes. Peter doesn't pay the training bill. Training horses is his job. He pays his portion of other bills, but the three of us pay training bills."

H: "Alex, do you work with this horse?"

A: "No. I don't have a trainer's license, just an owner's license. I'm an owner and do some of the paperwork."

H: "Now we get to some new territory. You are involved in a rather difficult marital situation."

A: "No. I am involved in a spousal cage match, lashed to a screaming, finger-pointing fanatic with her lawyers and a woman named Frieda prodding her to spectacular depths. She wants everything, including my sanity."

H: "And she wants your horse. Which leads us to an important question. During property settlement discussions, did you list the racehorse Assets Accepted as shared property?"

A: "No, she isn't interested in the sport. When we began divorce negotiations in January, it didn't occur to me that my hobby was fair game for her claws. And here is an important point that her lawyers can verify. I told her that if we were going to list the racehorse, she needed to pay her share of the purchase price and catch up with all the training bills, which would probably be doing me a favor because most horses don't make a profit."

H: "And what happened?"

A: "She had a two-minute sidebar with her lawyers, and one of the lawyers said they would keep the horse decision in abeyance, which is legal talk for we are thinking about it. I thought it was over. But nothing is over in this divorce."

H: "When the horse began to make money, did she want to revisit the ownership situation?"

A: "Yes, first qualifier, she starts ranting and poking."

H: "And you deny inflicting any physical or emotional damage to Frieda Slotnick?"

A: "One hundred per cent."

H: "The alleged incident happened near the winner's circle after the winning race on Monday. Were you aware that an incident took place?"

A: "All I know is my lunatic wife and her crazy friend Frieda showed up before the race and tried to get to the backstretch to see the horse and me. They called from the gate to ask if I could verify them. I said I could only verify that the women were insane and that they don't have any licenses or legal right to get into the backstretch, so I said my answer was no."

H: "Did you see her in the winner's circle?"

A: "No, my cousin and I did not go to the winner's circle, because we knew they would be there and cause a scene. We sent Spit, one of the grooms who works in the barns, to hold the horse for the cameras. Spit told us that someone fainted or something behind the winner's circle."

H: "What is Spit's last name, and is that his real first name?"

P: (Peter Pettigrew, horse trainer)

"His last name is Kendricks. I don't know his first name. He is called Spit because he walks horses to what is called the spit box, which is a barn where horses are held to be tested for illegal substances. He is like a horse babysitter while the testers pull vials of blood samples."

H: "Could you point out Spit?"

P: "No problem, I saw him a few minutes ago."

H: "Thank you, gentlemen. We will be in contact."

End Transcript.

Spit Kendricks was weathered, black as a raven, with a single gold tooth that accented his friendly smile. He was steering a wheelbarrow of straw and humming to himself when Peter Pettigrew shouted, "Yo, Spit."

Spit stopped, set down the handles, and turned.

"These guys are with the police; they want to talk to you."

Spit cocked his head, "That can't be good."

The detectives had noticed Spit as they drove towards the guard gate an hour earlier. He was outside the racetrack premises, smoking a joint under the no-smoking sign in the open door of an abandoned equipment garage.

Hooley held out his hand and said, "I'm Detective Hooley. This is my partner, Detective Marchais. Mind a few questions?"

Spit shook their hands, "Is there a camera somewhere? Is this a reality show? Do I get paid?"

Hooley chuckled, "No. No cameras, but his phone is recording."

Field Interview Transcript – (Addendum A)

H: (Officer Gerald Hooley)

"Just a few quick questions about the winner's circle when you attended the racehorse Assets Accepted last Saturday."

S: (Spit Kendricks, groom)

"Aw, man, did his blood come back dirty?"

H: "No, not that we know of. We are interested in the commotion."

S: "Oh, that, well, I didn't see much cause me and the horse were facing the racetrack. Jimmy T, the driver, and I were the only ones in the circle, and the horse was being a handful. The action was behind us, behind that four-foot-tall brick wall that keeps the audience apart from the horses and people watching the races. So, all I can say is what I heard."

H: "What did you hear?"

S: "A lady's voice, real loud, hollered, 'TOLD YOU.' Then there was a long wailing AYEEEEEEEE. And then more wailing AYEEEEEE. I had to get the horse back and saw a few people running, and a person seemed to be on the ground, behind the brick wall. So, I hopped on the fender of the race bike and hitched a ride back with the driver."

H: "Thanks."

S: "I know what might help you find out more about the kerfuffle – get the video of the race, you know, the replay. They film the races. Most gamblers only watch the race, but if you watch it all the way, the camera follows the horse and driver back to the circle until the picture is taken."

H: "Where do we get the replay?"

S: "Lotta ways. The USTA people can help out, or you can open a betting account. You can watch any race you want, and the little trips to the winner's circle after every race that most people don't watch."

Treacherous Nova (Louis-Philippe Roy) winning the Whenuwishuponastar final.

Roy sweeps Whenuwishuponastar, Dream Maker finals

by Ray Cotolo for Woodbine Mohawk Park

Louis-Philippe Roy nabbed the pair of Grade 3 events for pacing freshman at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Friday night (Aug. 21), winning the $120,000 Dream Maker final with undefeated colt Shalom Hanover and the $125,000 Whenuwishuponastar final with filly Treacherous Nova.

Shalom Hanover upped his unbeaten record to four with a 1:51.4 stroll as the 1-9 favorite in the Dream Maker final. Roy planted the Dr. Ian Moore trainee into fourth heading to a :27.1 first quarter and soon angled outside for a steady brush after leader LA Captain. He cleared control just after a :56.2 half and cruised around the far turn to clock three-quarters in 1:25.2 before sprinting for the finish in hand for a 3¼-length win. LA Captain held second from rallying Billy Hill while Total Account checked in fourth.

"The last few starts I feel like he's been the same pretty much," Roy said. "He's felt good and put those big miles in the States. Tonight, he didn't need to do that tough of a mile. I think Doc brought him here ready early in the season and I'm just excited to see when it's going to stop and if there's a horse that can beat him."

A colt by Papi Rob Hanover—Sammys Magic Girl, Shalom Hanover, owned by Shalom Hanover Stable, has now banked $169,558 from his four victories, which also includes a Tompkins-Geers stake in his debut at Woodbine Mohawk Park and a pair of Pennsylvania Sires Stakes wins – his most recent a lifetime-best 1:49.2 mile at Pocono Downs. Moore said after the race that his next start should be in the Nassagaweya Stakes Saturday (Aug. 29) at Woodbine Mohawk Park before shipping south for the Pennsylvania Sires Stakes final. He paid $2.10 to win.

Treacherous Nova ground first up and powered past favorite Mericana Hanover to win the Whenuwishuponastar final earlier on the card in a 1:51.2 mile.

Lyons Cariemontana rushed from the outermost post and crossed to the lead entering the first turn as Mericana Hanover plugged forward and laid aim on the top into a :27.1 first quarter. Mericana Hanover slid to the front into the backstretch and slowed the tempo to a :56.2 half, prompting Roy to angle outside with Treacherous Nova. Roy idled briefly to try and fish cover, but with no bites he marched up the rim after Mericana Hanover and drew to the leader's wheel passing three-quarters in 1:24.2. Treacherous Nova overhauled Mericana Hanover in the stretch and maintained her speed to the finish for a 1¼-length win over Mauritius, who rallied from a second-over trip for second. Rockin Jade Deo took third and Mericana Hanover settled for fourth.

"When she won her maiden, she had to work hard – we were sprinting at the end of the mile, and the fact that she really wanted to do it told me a little bit about what kind of filly she was," Roy said. "That wasn't my favorite spot to be [first up]. I was hoping to flush Bob [McClure with Rockin Jade Deo], especially knowing the two fillies up front raced [hard] to the quarter. That made me kind of happy coming on them first up instead of coming on fresh ones. Kevin Benn's group got her very ready for tonight. That's the first time she had the pull-plugs in; she used to have the cones where she could hear nothing. I don't know if that helped, but she stayed game on me until the wire."

Kevin Benn trains and co-owns Treacherous Nova, a filly by Captaintreacherous—JBs Shooting Star, with partners Leo Fleming and Dennis Chadwick. The filly won her second race from five starts this season and has now earned $81,500. Sent off as the second choice in the betting, Treacherous Nova paid $10.30 to win.

Detonater Hanover tops Wellwood elims; Athenas Girl quickest in Peaceful Way elims

by Ray Cotolo for Woodbine Mohawk Park

Trotting freshman sparred in a pair of eliminations for the Grade 1 William Wellwood Memorial and Peaceful Way Stakes on Friday (Aug. 21) at Woodbine Mohawk Park with Detonater Hanover and Gios Hope taking the Wellwood elims while Dataprivacy and Fashion Athena scored in the Peaceful Way elims.

Detonater Hanover resurfaced from a win in the Grade 3 Millard Farms final with a game push against Top Reacher to win his William Wellwood elimination in a 1:52.3 mile. Driver Tyler Moore floated Detonater Hanover towards the lead through a :27.3 first quarter and found a pocket seat once early leader Top Reacher looped back to the top before a :56.1 half. With Lincoln Kronos looming up the rim around the final turn, Moore tipped off the pylons and pressed Top Reacher to three-quarters in 1:24.2. Top Reacher clung to a diminishing lead in the stretch as Detonater Hanover clawed forward and struck the winning blow by a half-length at the beam. Ocean Storm rallied for third with Access Now fourth and The Italian Job earning the last berth into the final.

"It's been quite a ride," said Moore, who collected his first graded stakes win as a driver when winning the Millard Farms final on Aug. 7. "I'm very fortunate to be a part of it. Everybody's enjoying it and the horse is making it for all of us. He's been exceptional. It's been a long ride because I helped [my] dad with him when he first came up from Florida. The development of this guy has been unbelievable. I've been up front and close with how he's turned into this wicked horse. It's so amazing and I'm happy to be a part of it."

Trainer Dr. Ian Moore said, "When I brought him to Canada, he got really hot in terms of aggressive, and he was difficult for me to handle. When I had the accident here in the early part of June, I lost feeling in my left arm for a while, so I had no strength and it got a little difficult for a while, but [Tyler] helped with him every day. He knows him and he does well driving trotters so we had no problem."

A colt by Muscle Mass—Dancing Flames, Detonater Hanover collected his third win from five starts and has now earned $151,530 for owner Detonater Hanover Stable. He paid $3.90 to win.

Gios Hope brushed to the lead before the half and coasted to a 1:54.2 win in the other William Wellwood Memorial elimination. Driver Dexter Dunn sent the Marcus Melander trainee towards the top after a :28.1 first quarter and took over command from Data Breach heading to a :58 half. Yankee Boss mounted a first-up bid to three-quarters in 1:26.4 that Gios Hope swiftly rebuffed upon accelerating for home, and the odds-on favorite sailed in a 1¼-length winner chased by fast-closing Free Scottie in second. Data Breach took third with Yankee Boss tiring to fourth and Kountry Cantab grabbing the last spot into the final.

“He’s really nice. I like him a lot,” Dunn said after the race. “He was really good at Vernon and then, racing in New York on half-mile tracks, he felt terrific getting back to the bigger track. He’s quite a big boy, definitely have to nurse him a little bit more on the smaller track, but he felt really free tonight. He was traveling great around the last turn and when I asked him at the top of the stretch, he really lengthened his stride good and was doing it pretty comfortably.”

Winning his third race from four starts, Gios Hope, a colt by Chapter Seven—Southwind Hope, has now earned $116,967 for owners Brixton Medical Inc and Hatfield Stables. He paid $3.70 to win.

Dunn and Melander also teamed to win the faster of the two Peaceful Way eliminations with 4-5 favorite Athenas Girl in a 1:54 mile. Dunn settled his charge in fourth while City Of Light swept towards the top through a :28.1 first quarter and moseyed to the half in :58.2. Beauts Cabaret angled off the pylons from third moving for the last turn, giving Athenas Girl cover as City Of Light upped the tempo to three-quarters in 1:26.3. City Of Light hit another gear in the stretch, but could not withstand Athenas Girl once Dunn uncorked her and gathered steam to the center of the track. Athenas Girl stormed away for a 1¼-length win over City Of Light with Elusive Station checking in third, Major Contender closing for fourth and Beauts Cabaret tiring to fifth for the last spot into the final.

“I always liked her, she just wasn’t putting together under pressure on race day,” Dunn said after the race. “But she’s getting the hang of it. She’s got the speed, so she’s getting more confident now. She felt like she had lots of trot coming to three-quarters, and I obviously just wanted to stay flat and get her around the last turn. But once I tipped her off the helmet, she really trotted up the straight great tonight.”

Athenas Girl, a filly by Walner—Fashion Athena, won her second race from five starts and has now earned $32,606 for owner Brad Grant. She paid $3.60 to win.

Determination homebred Dataprivacy ripped from off the speed with a :54.3 back half to land a 23-1 upset in the second Peaceful Way elimination. Driver Bob McClure landed in ninth with the Luc Blais pupil while Treasure King rolled for the lead and cut a clip of :28, :58, and 1:26 under minimal pressure. But as Rebel Moon led the outer tier through the last turn before wavering into the lane, the backfield fanned across the track and built steady momentum after the laboring leader. Loves Passion weaved through traffic from a pocket trip as Verily charged from the backfield past an even Nevis Peak while Dataprivacy reached her best stride late. Dataprivacy soared over the top and snatched the win by a half-length over Loves Passion while Verily took third, odds-on favorite Nevis Peak settled for fourth from an even rally off a second-over trip, and Creamy Armitage grabbed the last berth in fifth.

“She’s been progressing pretty well,” Bob McClure said after the race. “She was having a bit of some gait issues, but her last start she raced really well; she won really handy. I trained her here on Saturday morning and she trained very, very good. Luc’s done a good job putting her together and I think it’s all coming into fruition now. I couldn’t be happier with her. I was pretty worried just getting into a spot for the final. She was a little shy behind the gate so we got away behind the eight ball early, but when I turned for home, she was pretty full of herself and when she started trotting, I was pretty confident she was going to hit the ticket, but it wasn’t until late I thought she had a chance to win.”

A filly by Muscle Hill out of 2020 Peaceful Way champion Donna Soprano, Dataprivacy won her second race from four starts and has now earned $31,500. She paid $49.60 to win.

Nordic Catcher S impressive in Grade 3 Sebastian K

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Nordic Catcher S won Saturday's (Aug. 22) \$100,000 Grade 3 Sebastian K Trot, for older trotters, by 2 $\frac{3}{4}$ lengths over Resolve To Win in 1:50.3 at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania. Hillexotic finished third.

Nordic Catcher S and trainer/driver Åke Svanstedt stormed to the front from post 2 in a :25.4 opening quarter before 3-5 favorite Lexus Kody pushed forward from fourth to take the lead passing the grandstand for the first time on the way to a :54.1 half. Nordic Catcher S followed Lexus Kody from the pocket before being flushed to the outside nearing three-quarters by a charging Resolve To Win from the rear of the seven-horse field.

Nordic Catcher S (Åke Svanstedt) winning the $100,000 Grade 3 Sebastian K Trot on Saturday at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania.

Lexus Kody remained on top to three-quarters, in 1:23.1, but Nordic Catcher S took over from there and opened up daylight on the field en route to his second victory in three races this season since returning from an injury that sidelined him after winning last year's Hambletonian.

"It's just great to have him back," assistant trainer Sarah Svanstedt said. "It was heartbreaking that he got injured in the Hambletonian last year. The process to bring him back, and the rehab he had to do, and making it back, there are no words for it. I'm very happy and proud of him."

Nordic Catcher S is a son of Six Pack out of the pacing mare That Woman Hanover.

"When I saw the watch at :25[.4], I was thinking that's a little bit of [the pacer] showing up here," Sarah Svanstedt said with a laugh. "He has a tremendous gait and he's big and strong. The track is very nice here today and the weather too. I was thinking [Åke] wanted to be right on a helmet with him, so everything worked out well. It was a good race for him."

Nordic Catcher S is owned by Åke Svanstedt Inc. and Little E LLC. He was bred by Nordic Horse Farm AB and Joie De Vie Farm. For his career, he has hit the board in 12 of 13 career races, winning seven and earning $880,335.

Sent off as the 6-5 second choice in the race named after former Svanstedt Stable star Sebastian K S, Nordic Catcher S paid $4.60 to win.

Victorianas Secret victorious in Delmonica Hanover

by PHHA / Pocono Downs

Victorianas Secret, despite having to come first-over in the lane, used superior talent to power off to victory in the $250,000 Grade 1 Delmonica Hanover Stake at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania on Saturday afternoon (Aug. 22), with the time of 1:51.2 equaling the stakes and track record set by Yo Tillie in the same race a year ago.

Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. got the Tactical Landing filly away in fourth from the rail as Pennsylvania-based Little Road, sent off as the favorite, went right to the top and forced opponents to take seats behind her to the :27 quarter. Setyoursightshigh, last year's divisional champion, was rushed to the lead in front of the stands and reached the half in :55.2, just as the winner began her outside move.

Victorianas Secret inexorably gained ground the length of the backstretch and was battling with the pacesetter at the 1:23.3 three-quarters; nearing the middle of the turn she had taken a short lead. Custom was on her back and tipped wide to mount a stretch challenge; she did well, but Victorianas Secret stayed sturdy and won by a half-length. Longshot Crossover claimed third; Little Road was shuffled when the leader tired and was not a late factor.

Largely unheralded until late spring, Victorianas Secret has put herself squarely in contention for divisional recognition, winning five of her last six starts, including a 1:50 mile at Lexington two weeks ago. The Vernon Brachy trainee has now boosted her earnings to $410,531 for owner Ryan Smith.

Earlier on the card, there were level I and II consolations for all four major stakes races.

$75,000 DELMONICA HANOVER II – The Tactical Landing filly Isabella Bi sat in third, backed out behind clearing first-up favorite Nuance nearing the far turn, then was able to gradually wear down the chalk by a head, with the 1:51.4 final time, just two-fifths off the divisional track record set by Yo Tillie in the Delmonica Hanover final last year. Newly-elected Hall of Famer Ake Svanstedt drove Isabella Bi, a 9-1 proposition who took off her shoes for the contest. Svanstedt trains and co-owns her with Joe Sbrocco & JAF Racing, Little E LLC, and Mr. Lars Olsson.

$125,000 GRADE 1 DELMONICA HANOVER I – Favored Busy Miss Lissy S was making a frontward move on the first turn when she lapsed from gait, and though catching in decent order was still seventh late on the backstretch. But Dexter Dunn got the filly, also a shoe-doffer, into a high gear and into a good far turn flow, and the victorious daughter of Calgary Games just kept on coming through the lane to just catch Southwind Chaska by a nose in a 1:52.4 mile. Ake Svanstedt trained both Delmonica Hanover consolation winners, this one for Midnight Sun Partners Inc.

Sangria Summer delights in Lynch Memorial

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Sangria Summer sat behind dueling leaders Darlin's Angel and Be Perfect BG around the final turn, then ducked to the inside in the stretch to rally for a one-length win in Saturday's (Aug. 22) $250,000 Grade 1 James M. Lynch Memorial, for 3-year-old female pacers, in a stakes-record 1:48.4 at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania.

Pacesetter Darlin's Angel finished second and Be Perfect BG was third. The previous Lynch Memorial stakes record was 1:49, set by Grace Hill in 2021.

Darlin's Angel and driver Lauren Tritton took the lead in a :26.3 opening quarter, with Sangria Summer settling into second and Be Perfect BG third. The order remained unchanged through the :55.2 half before Dexter Dunn launched a first-over bid with Be Perfect BG on the way to three-quarters in 1:22.1.

Be Perfect BG got within a half-length of Darlin's Angel heading to the stretch, but Sangria Summer and driver James MacDonald ducked into the Pocono Pike to find open road and surge to victory with a :26.2 last quarter.

"That's the dream trip at Pocono; you want to be close to the lead and then when you get two heavyweights throwing down on the front end you're licking your chops behind it," MacDonald said. "It's a good feeling. I was just hoping she would have a good kick because it was a big back half, and she just powered home hard."

The win was Sangria Summer's third in a row and fourth in her last five races for trainer Luc Blais and owner Determination. In her previous start, she won the Grade 3 Shady Daisy At The Meadowlands, where Darlin's Angel and Be Perfect BG were second and third, respectively.

Sangria Summer, who was trained by co-owner Kevin Benn before being purchased by Determination on May 1, has won six of 21 career races, hit the board another six times, and earned $353,159. She was bred by Tara Hills Stud, Rene Dion, Susanne Kerwood, and Martin Leveillee.

"She's just a gem," MacDonald said. "Kevin Benn does such a great job [to] bring these things along as young horses and she just keeps getting better and better. Luc bought her, and I know she's progressed every week.

"She's a filly that seems to be peaking right now and hopefully we can keep her good for a long time."

Sent off as the 2-1 second choice, Sangria Summer paid $6.80 to win.

$125,000 GRADE 1 JAMES M. LYNCH CONSOLATION I — Pocono's leading driver Tyler Buter largely avoided first turn confusion with Say Goodnight, a daughter of Papi Rob Hanover, and got her moving quickly down the backstretch to clear to the lead past favorite Lavender Seelster nearing the far turn. Buter then kept her alive to withstand a resurgence by the favorite by a half-length to win in a career best 1:50.1 for Nicholas Devita who trains the winner for owners David Hamm and Glenn Phillips.

$75,000 JAMES M. LYNCH CONSOLATION II — Amira Hanover, a daughter of Papi Rob Hanover, set sail out of the gate, forcing favored Big Weekend into the pocket, then drew clear of that rival and the rest of the field throughout the last half, winning by 9¾ lengths while taking a new mark of 1:50.1. Joe Bongiorno drove and trains the impressive winner, second choice at 9-5, for Odds On Racing.

Pennsylvania

Brandon Blvd the best in Hempt

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Driver Dexter Dunn worked out a pocket trip with Brandon Blvd behind Al Papi, angled to the inside in the stretch to find open space, and rushed home from there to post a 1½-length win over Melillo in 1:48.2 in the $300,000 Grade 2 Max C. Hempt Memorial, for 3-year-old pacers, at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania. Al Papi finished third.

Melillo, Brandon Blvd, and Al Papi all left the gate quickly at the start, with Melillo being first to the front, but Dunn continued forward with Brandon Blvd to be a parked-out leader in a :27 opening quarter. Al Papi and driver Yannick Gingras immediately made their move to the top, leaving Brandon Blvd second and Melillo third on the way to the :54.3 half, with Gentleman's Club charging on the outside first-over.

Gentleman's Club continued to press Al Papi through three-quarters in 1:21.3 but was turned away heading into the stretch. Once in the stretch, Dunn took the inside route to overtake Al Papi and then rebuffed a late rally from Melillo, who was sixth at three-quarters, to get his fourth win in his last five starts.

"I sort of thought there would be more leavers there, but we had [post 2] and we were able to use it," Dunn said. "But then I was happy to follow Yannick... and once I got down to the inside, [Brandon Blvd] did it pretty easy, actually. He raced great."

"[Dunn] was worried about the Burke duo, so he tried to be the first one to the front," said winning trainer Andrew Harris, referring to the Ron Burke-trained Melillo and Al Papi. "When Yannick came around him, it was a perfect trip. Yannick's horse was so tough to get us all the way where we needed to get to. Everybody else was coming at the end, so it was just a great race."

"He's a great horse and when you put him in the right spot, he's going to show up. Dex does a great job with him. That was a masterful drive today."

Brandon Blvd, who finished third in his previous start in the Cane Pace on Aug. 8, has won six of nine races this year and earned $895,695 for the Punisher 11 Stable ownership group. The son of Downbytheseaside—Alexis Faith has hit the board in 18 of 19 career races, winning 13 and earning $1.28 million. He was bred by Crawford Farms.

"It's one of those things where you're always so worried about the next race that you don't get to enjoy it until it's done," Harris said. "Right now, it's great, though. It's great to have a horse like this, he's an amazing animal. I'm thrilled with the horse and it's just a great ride."

Sent off the 2-1 favorite, Brandon Blvd paid $6.20 to win.

$200,000 GRADE 2 MAX C. HEMPT MEMORIAL CONSOLATION I — Thai Hanover showed in his last line a 1:57.4 win at the Washington (PA) Fair on Monday, almost three seconds faster than any other winner at the former Arden Downs, but the crowd was not impressed and dismissed him at 44-1. Their minds were changed in 1:50.1 when Dexter Dunn gave him a second-over trip and the altered son of Stay Hungry paced past everybody in the later stages, winning by 1¾ lengths. Trainer Mitchell York shares ownership with wife Erin.

$100,000 MAX C. HEMPT MEMORIAL CONSOLATION II — Favored Toast Of The Town looked like he might be in a spot of trouble when he was parked well past a :25.3 opening number, but the Sweet Lou gelding and driver Jason Bartlett were not bothered at all, drawing clear through the latter stages of the mile to win by 2¾ lengths in 1:48.4, just a tick off the lifetime mark he set when last at Pocono. Noel Daley recorded a second consecutive consolation II win with the fast pacer, owned by Let It Ride Stables Inc., Morrison Racing Stables, Jesmeral Stable, and Alberg Racing LLC.

Inexpressable has enough to take Beal at Pocono

by PHHA / Pocono Downs

The Walner colt Inexpressable seems to be peaking at an opportune time of the 2026 harness racing season, adding to his resume by winning the $300,000 Grade 2 Earl Beal Memorial for 3-year-old trotters on Saturday afternoon (Aug. 22) at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania. He lowered his mark to 1:51.1 in the game neck victory over favorite Diabolic Hill.

Diabolic Hill was sent away wide at the start and kept on going to reach the lead by a :26.4 quarter. Inexpressable and driver Scott Zeron came out from third and made a sharp move to the lead, then got a much-needed breather to a :56 half. The next challenge came from Minoan, who gradually came up into contention, with Magic Punk on his back and Diabolic Hill waiting in the pocket as the field went by the three quarters in 1:23.2 and raced along to the stretch.

The outside horses had a little bit too much difficulty making up ground quickly enough, but Diabolic Hill, perched in the pocket behind the pacesetter, went to the Pocono Pike to try to catch the leader up the rail. But Inexpressable dipped down deep into the solid foundation that Lucas Wallin had established, and he was able to ward off the potential pocket rocket by a neck, with Magic Punk rushing up late but settling for third.

Inexpressable, the winner of the Yonkers Trot, was sent off at 4-1 on a Pocono card where favorites did not have the easiest of times. Inexpressable was a $325,000 yearling purchase, and with this win he raised his lifetime earnings to $408,270 for Wallin Racing Stable Inc. and Karin Walter-Mommert.

$200,000 GRADE 2 EARL BEAL, JR. MEMORIAL CONSOLATION

I – Dexter Dunn made it three level-one consolations in a row when he won with the Muscle Hill gelding Nix Nacken, and the sophomore did it in style, with a consistent forward gear despite being uncovered before the half and crossing the wire in 1:51.1, a clocking which reduced the Pocono record for three-year-old geldings, established by Pinkman 11 years ago, by two fifths. Marcus Melander conditions the powerful trotter for Courant Inc.

$100,000 EARL BEAL, JR. MEMORIAL CONSOLATION II –

Highball Hanover, a gelded son of Bar Hopping who had won at odds-on in his last two Pocono starts, paid a bit higher than that – $79.20 – after lowering his mark to 1:52.3 for driver Andrew McCarthy, trainer Noel Daley, and owners Joe Sbrocco & JAF Racing (partners in both group II trotting consolation winners), Sjoblom Racing & M. Dolan, Caviart Farms, and P C Wellwood Enterprises Inc. Highball Hanover came with a big move down the backstretch, avoided two breakers to get the lead with an eighth left, and then withstood Create Escape by three-quarters-of-a-length.

For Once Inmy Life breaks through in Always B Miki

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

For Once Inmy Life and driver Jordan Stratton used a late burst in the stretch to win Saturday's (Aug. 22) $100,000 Grade 3 Always B Miki Pace, for older pacers, by a nose over Surreal Ideal and half-length over pacesetting favorite Dandy Ideal in 1:48.4 at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania.

Sent off at odds of 18-1, For Once Inmy Life settled behind Dandy Ideal as the 1-5 betting choice set fractions of :26.4 to the opening quarter, :55.2 to the half, and 1:22.1 to three-quarters. Entering the stretch, Stratton moved For Once Inmy Life to the inside and was able to wear down Dandy Ideal but still had to fend off a rally from Surreal Ideal, even farther inside, to secure the victory.

"Kudos to [Surreal Ideal] because my horse is very fast off a helmet and he was getting by me, but the wire came at the right time," Stratton said.

The win was the ninth in 20 starts this season for the 6-year-old son of Downbytheseaside—Flyme To The Moon, and the most lucrative triumph of his career. Lifetime, For Once Inmy Life has won 23 of 74 starts and earned $699,773. Bred by Joe Sbrocco, the gelding is owned by Winters Racing Stable.

"He's been knocking on the door the last couple of weeks," said Stratton, who drove For Once Inmy Life for his brother, trainer Cory Stratton. "He just missed at The Meadowlands in his last start there [in a division of the Sam McKee Memorial on Aug. 8] and he got a good trip tonight and he was really good.

"He's been a good horse his whole life. He got really sharp at The Meadowlands a couple winters ago and they finally gave him a chance against the tougher horses on the Grand Circuit, and I'm glad that he finally got a win. Thanks to my brother and his wife Vicki, they do a great job. I'm really a big family guy, and it's a little extra spot in my heart [to share it with them]."

For Once Inmy Life paid $39.80 to win.

Jamieson wins first Gold Cup & Saucer, drives Fifth And Five to victory

by Dave Briggs

Driver Jody Jamieson claimed his first Gold Cup & Saucer on Saturday (Aug. 22) at Red Shores Charlottetown piloting Fifth And Five to a 1:49.4 victory that equaled the track record on the half-mile oval.

The win in the $100,000 event came 20 years after Jamieson's father, Carl, won the famed race – the pinnacle of Atlantic Canada racing – in 2006 with Banner Yankee.

Jody started from the trailing post 9 and followed Sugar Man (Doug McNair) who had the rail and tried to win the 67th edition of the race wire-to-wire. Sugar Man put up fractions of :27.2, :55.4, and 1:22.2 along the way, with Fifth And Five in the pocket through the final two stations.

In the final turn, Jody made his move while Timeisonmyside (Anthony MacDonald) waited for the passing lane. In the stretch, Fifth And Five was able to grind past Sugar Man and held off Timeisonmyside to win by a half-length. Sugar Man held on for third, followed by Ammo (Marc Campbell) and Jordy N (Jason Ryan).

"This is just amazing," Jody told Ken Warkentin on the Red Shores broadcast. The driver then opened his colors to reveal a t-shirt that said Rabbit MacDonald Memorial in honor of the PEI racing legend who died in July of 2025.

"Rabbit MacDonald," Jody said. "That's who this is for."

"All week everybody knew where I was going. I was going to follow Sugar Man. I wasn't sure if I had any pace at the seven-eighths. We were flying, and as soon as I moved [Fifth And Five] over, I was going to give him a run, I knew that, but I didn't know if I would get there. I don't know how much we won by, but I know I won, that's all I know."

"This is absolutely everything. I don't care about the track record. I just care about being in this winner's circle with all these people. This is a dream come true, literally a dream come true."

Fifth And Five paid $8.70.

Fifth And Five (Jody Jamieson) winning the $100,000 Gold Cup & Saucer on Saturday at Red Shores Charlottetown.

Fifth And Five is trained by Mark McKinnon. The 4-year-old Ontario-sired son of Bettors Delight was bred by Standardbred Canada president and CEO Darryl Kaplan, along with Roy Sproston and Harbhajan Singh Dhillon, for owner Pollack Racing LLC.

The pacer now has a career record of 11-6-11 in 41 starts and career earnings of $576,633.

"Jody's been chasing this thing for a long time, so I'm happy for him and thankful to be part of it myself," said McKinnon, who also trains Sugar Man. "It's very emotional and I'm kind of at a loss for words."

The following items were written by Nicholas Oakes for Red Shores:

ARBITRAGE HANOVER CAPTURES MACGREGOR MEMORIAL

Arbitrage Hanover delivered a sensational performance Friday evening (Aug. 21), winning the $30,000 James "Roach" MacGregor Memorial Gold Cup & Saucer consolation in 1:50.2 at Red Shores Racetrack and Casino at the Charlottetown Driving Park.

Kenny Murphy sent Arbitrage Hanover ($6.70) forward from post 3 and settled third through a sizzling opening quarter of :25.4, the fastest ever in Atlantic Canadian racing history, tripped by The Magic Moment (Brett MacDonald) battling with Papis Rocket (David Dowling) for command.

The Magic Moment cleared the lead then saw Papis Rocket pop the pocket instantly and retake the lead at the three-eighths. That is when Murphy made his move first-over with Arbitrage Hanover from the 3-hole.

"My horse got away good, and when they were playing cat and mouse on the front, I said, 'Let's keep the pressure to them,'" Murphy said in the winner's circle.

Arbitrage Hanover continued his grind on the outside past the half in 54 seconds then over to three-quarters in 1:21.2.

"My horse is a tough horse," Murphy said. "Going to three-quarters, I knew Dowling was in trouble, and I still had some horse. This horse just keeps going."

Arbitrage Hanover struck the lead and opened daylight around the final turn before holding a hard closing Dalton Shard N (Jason Ryan) at bay by one length.

"When I dropped my wheel down, I said, 'Oh my God,'" Murphy said. "I couldn't hear too many footsteps behind me. I was looking at the TV [in the infield] and said, 'I'm home. I got it.' It was unbelievable."

JMR Speak Away (Marc Campbell) completed the triactor ticket, with Twin B Tuffenuff (Gilles Barrieau) fourth and Papis Rocket (David Dowling) fifth.

Arbitrage Hanover stopped the clock in 1:50.2 for trainer Clifford Murphy and owners Ken Hardie of Bedford, and Glenn and Justin Hardie of Middle Sackville, NS. The 5-year-old son of Bettor's Wish had set the Summerside Raceway track record with a 1:50.3 performance earlier in the season.

Kenny described the MacGregor Memorial as the most significant victory of his driving career.

"This is the biggest race, I would say, in my career," he said. "It's just the prestige of the race. There's no doubt. It's an unbelievable race to win."

The celebration was expected to remain relatively quiet, although Kenny admitted his customary nightly bowl of ice cream could be larger than usual.

"That might be a double scoop tonight," he said with a laugh. "You know what? I might have a triple scoop tonight."

In other action, Windemere Skye ($2.80) kept her perfect career intact in the second $24,650 Lady Slipper Gold division for 3-year-old pacing fillies. Marc Campbell moved the Earl Watts trainee to challenge leader Serenity Now before the three-quarter station, then inherited command when that rival made a break entering the final turn.

Windemere Skye powered home four lengths clear in 1:53.1, recording her 19th victory from as many career starts for owners Windemere Farms of Springvale and Matt Burke of Stratford. Lila Berry (Corey MacPherson) finished second, with Mattnificent Rose (Paul Langille) third. The 1:53.1 victory is a record for an Atlantic sired 3-year-old filly on the East Coast and ties the all-age female record for Atlantic bred at an Atlantic track co-held by Woodmere Skyroller and Sensational Gal.

Fitness First ($2.60) dominated the other Lady Slipper Gold division in a new track record for 3-year-old filly pacers of 1:52.2 for trainer/driver MacPherson and owner James Gorman of South Melville. The 3-year-old daughter of Stay Hungry swept to the lead before three-quarters and drew away by six-lengths over Elm Grove Uncannie (Murphy), with Bakers Dozen (Campbell) third.

The $12,355 Lady Slipper Grassroots divisions were won by Mrs Gallant ($16.30) and driver Ryan DesRoche in 1:56.1 for trainer Joe Baxter, Starship Sundancer ($6.20) and Paul Langille in 1:55 for trainer Earl Watts, Howmac Fancy ($7.60) and MacPherson in 1:57 for trainer Kyle Williams, Into The Maelstrom ($4.80) and Murphy in 1:56.4 for trainer Clifford Murphy, and Bayonetta ($3.60) and Marc Campbell in 1:55.1 for trainer Landon Campbell.

BIG HEART N SOUL CAPTURES P.E.I. COLT STAKES GOLD

Big Heart N Soul delivered a front-end victory to remain undefeated in the Thursday evening (Aug. 20) P.E.I. Colt Stakes feature at Red Shores Racetrack and Casino at the Charlottetown Driving Park.

Gilles Barrieau settled the 2-year-old pacing filly away third at the start then pulled first out to charge to the lead before the opening quarter. The filly went on to command the $28,200 Gold division and controlled the remainder of the mile for her third win from as many lifetime starts. Big Heart N Soul ($2.50) prevailed by 1½ lengths in 1:56.4 over Starship Daisy (driven by Marc Campbell), with Isle Impress You (Ken Murphy) completing the triactor.

Barrieau trains the daughter of Big Jim for owner Wayne MacRae of Fall River, NS.

Four $14,100 Grassroots divisions for 2-year-old pacing fillies were also contested during the 13-dash program.

Sheeowtime Speed ($3.60) captured the first division with a 1:56.2 mile for driver Campbell and trainer Earl Watts. The Somewhere Fancy filly is owned by Windemere Farms of Springvale and Matt and David Burke of Stratford.

Howmac Lula ($4.20) used a 28-second closing quarter to win her Grassroots split in 1:57.4 for trainer/driver Barrieau. Wayne MacRae, Howmac Farms Ltd, and Brian Foley share ownership of the daughter of Malicious.

Trainer/driver Paul Langille controlled every station with A Kiss For Lucy ($5.20) before drawing away by 4¾ lengths in 1:58.3. Nikway Farms of St. David's, NL, owns and bred the Cattlewash filly.

Here For The Party ($6) completed the Grassroots action with a half-length score in 1:58.3 for driver Keith Legge and trainer George Rennison. The Sunshine Beach filly is owned by Clarissa Maher, Rennison Racing Inc, and Ian MacDonald.

Hound On The Beach ($5.10) dominated the race 13 Jeff May Memorial final for Campbell and trainer Charles Gaudreault. The pacer supplied fractions of :27.1, :55.4, and 1:24 before opening up to win by 8½ lengths in 1:52.4.

Campbell also teamed with trainer Bo Ford to win race 4 with Steady Heart ($2.10) in 1:55.1, giving the Island reinsman three victories on the card and 27 wins through the first seven programs of Old Home Week.

Campbell holds the Old Home Week driving record with 31 victories over 16 cards in 2013. He came close again in 2024 with 28 wins during the 10-program meet. With three cards and 29 programmed drives remaining in 2026, Campbell needs four wins to equal his record and five to establish a new Old Home Week standard.

JK Last Chance ($2.80) won the $4,250 Joe and Wal Hennessey Memorial in 1:55 for driver Jason Ryan, trainer Kenny Arsenault, and owner Daniel MacIsaac.

New York SIRE STAKES REPORT

Fearless Partners wins in NYSS at Batavia Downs

by Tim Bojarski for Batavia Downs

Although winless in the New York Sire Stakes in six previous attempts this year, Fearless Partners (American Ideal—No Fear Dear) was able to taste victory for the first time in the series by winning his $58,000 division for 3-year-old male pacers at Batavia Downs on Saturday (Aug. 22) night.

Fearless Partners (Drew Monti) got away fourth and trailed by 12¼ lengths as the heavily favored Knoxville (Matt Kakaley) led to the quarter in an expeditious :26.1. Knoxville was on a mission as Kakaley kept the pedal to the metal from there and passed the half in :54.1, gapping the trailers by 4½ lengths. As the group started on the second circuit, things got closer as the pocket-sitting Hunting Glory (Ridge Warren) and outside advancer Aries Blue Chip (Leon Bailey) were now only one length in arrears to Knoxville as they went by five-eighths.

When Knoxville reached three-quarters in 1:23.4, Hunting Glory pulled first-over as Aries Blue Chip faded out of contention. That left an opening for Fearless Partners to pull behind Hunting Glory and draft behind him around the last turn. But at the top of the stretch, Monti went inside instead of out, taking Fearless Partners back down to the passing lane where he drew alongside Knoxville four pylons later and forged ahead by a half-length in the shadow of the wire to win in 1:52.1.

The time was both a seasonal and lifetime mark for the Fearless Partners.

Fearless Partners ($26.62) is owned by Robert Leblanc, Pryde Stables, Joe Sbrocco and Jaf Racing, and William Beattie. Anvil and Lace Farm bred Fearless Partners.

There was another $56,900 NYSS split that was contested as a non-betting event before the first race and Cooperstown Boy (Huntsville—Twinsburg) kept his hot streak going.

Cooperstown Boy (Colin Kelly) sat second behind Unmatched Wisdom (Leon Bailey) through quarters of :28.2, :57.2, and 1:25.4, as the field of four did not change positions once during that time. The group swooped the last turn and at the top of the stretch, Cooperstown Boy tipped off-cover and paced right by Unmatched Wisdom to win by two lengths in 1:53.4.

It was the fourth win in the last six starts for Cooperstown Boy, who is owned by NY Seb Stable and trained by Jared Bako. Jeff McFadden and Jeff Roberts bred the winner.

One $20,000 NY Excelsior Series race also took place on Saturday where the Matt Kakaley-driven Rough Deal (American Ideal–Ruffie's Kiss) took the lead past the half and paced home clear by 1½ lengths in 1:54.1, which was a new lifetime mark.

Rough Deal ($10.18) is owned and bred by Greg Hayter and trained by Travis Alexander.

Live racing will resume at Batavia Downs on Wednesday (Aug 26) at 5 p.m. and will feature the New York Sire Stakes 2-year-old trotting fillies.

ROSE RUN COWBOY, MY BODY GUARD WIN NYSS RACES AT YONKERS

Heavy rain and a sloppy track made for a less than ideal night, but Rose Run Cowboy and My Body Guard braved the elements and defeated their competitors in a pair of New York Sire Stakes divisions for 2-year-old male pacers on Thursday (Aug. 20) at MGM Yonkers Raceway.

In the first $74,500 NYSS grouping, Primacy Station (Matt Kakaley), racing as part of a favored Travis Alexander-trained entry, cleared Rose Run Cowboy (Yannick Gingras) for the lead coming to the :27.4 quarter. Primacy Station then backed down the half to 59 seconds and the three-quarters in 1:27.4 as Man On A Hunt (Todd McCarthy) attacked first-over from third as they raced in the backstretch for the final time.

Man On A Hunt grabbed an advantage on the outside early on the final bend but was unable to fully clear, which allowed Primacy Station to counter and quicken on the inside. Man On A Hunt began to fade before they turned for home, but Rose Run Cowboy had been waiting patiently for room and found it in the lane. Once Gingras swung Rose Run Cowboy to the outside in the stretch, he went by Primacy Station and on to the victory by a-length-and-a-half, as Primacy Station wound up second and entrymate Bastonata Bluechip (Tyler Buter) came in third.

Ron Burke trains Rose Run Cowboy, a Huntsville colt bred by Larry Schlabach, for owners Thomas and Scott Dillon. Rose Run Cowboy has two wins, a second and a third in five starts, has earned $108,591, and paid $6.32 to win. The exacta was worth $10.46 and there was no trifecta wagering available.

The second $73,100 split saw Marie's Jet (Jason Bartlett) cut fractions of :28.4, :59.3, and 1:28.4, but My Body Guard (Kakaley) tipped out of the 2-hole on the far turn and rallied past Marie's Jet in the stretch to tally by a-length-and-three-quarters in 1:57. Marie's Jet wound up second, followed by Beatle Blue Chip (McCarthy).

The victorious American Ideal gelding is trained by Travis Alexander for owners M Spacc Stables, C M T Farms, and Alexander Racing Stable LLC. He has a summary of 4-2-2 from nine appearances, has pocketed $90,570, and returned $7.88 to win. The exacta kicked back $16.74 and there was no trifecta wagering available.

Three $20,000 New York Excelsior Series contests were also held and went to:

- Blast Blue Chip (by Shadow Play and bred by Blue Chip Bloodstock Inc. and Let It Ride Stables Inc., paid $3.58 to win) in 1:57.3 for driver Yannick Gingras, trainer Hunter Oakes, and owner Exceed Stables LLC.;

- Its News To Me (by Huntsville and bred by Fair Winds Farm Inc. and Steve Jones, paid $6.22 to win) in 1:55.4 for driver Leon Bailey, trainer Chuck Connor, Jr. and owner Ya Gotta Love It Stable;

- Lyin Inthe Shadows (by Shadow Play and bred by owner Bobbi Carney, paid $44.62 to win) in 1:57.3 for driver Gingras and trainer Andy Gardner.

MGM Yonkers Raceway is operating on a Monday/Tuesday and Thursday through Saturday live racing schedule with post time at 6:45 p.m. (EDT) except on Saturdays when it is 3:30 p.m. (EDT).

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Stars deliver in INSS filled card at Hoosier

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

It was a barrage of Indiana Sires Stakes action on Friday (Aug. 21) at Harrah's Hoosier Park, with rookie trotting fillies and pacing colts in action, to go along with the 3-year-old colt and gelding pacers. A few horsemen dominated the proceedings, with the Erv and Alvin Miller barns combining to take half of the 14 races, while driver John De Long tallied five wins on the evening.

Two-year-old trotting fillies kicked off the stakes festivities, with Redice flexing her muscles as the 1-9 favorite with Atlee Bender aboard for Erv Miller in the $66,500 first split.

Leaving from post 6, Redice trotted to the top on the first turn, leading the field of eight to the quarter in :28. In The Buff (Kyle Wilfong) moved around her to the point, taking the field to the half in :58 before Redice was back out for more from the pocket at three-quarters in 1:27.3. From there, Redice asserted herself in the lane, sprinting home in :27.2 to cruise by four lengths in 1:55. In The Buff held sway for second, with Dance Remix (Jordan Ross) up for third.

Having won three in a row since shipping to Hoosier Park from Oak Grove, Redice has won four of six this season for owners Ervin Miller Stable, Anthony Lombardi, and Stepbystep Racing. Kjell Andersen, Lucas Wallin, and Pieter Delis bred the daughter of Rebuff—Fuzzy Dice who has banked $135,250 this season.

Rebuff fillies swept Indiana Sire Stakes, with Fine Wine breaking her maiden in style during the $66,500 second split with trainer Jay Cross in the sulky.

Fine Wine snagged the pocket from post 2 while Gladden (Trace Tetrack) was put on the engine on the first turn to the quarter in :28.3. Fine Wine brushed to the lead after the quarter, taking command before the half in :59.1 before taking the seven fillies to three-quarters in 1:29.2. Gladden applied pressure in the stretch but could not reach Fine Wine who crossed the wire a length clear of that foe in 1:56.4.

Flirt Dover (Ross) was third at 17-1 to round out the trifecta. Michael Yoder, Maynard Miller, and Daniel Lehman own the winning daughter of Rebuff—Miss Fidget. Fine Wine was bred by Pheasant Hill Farm, and has earned $46,920 thus far in her rookie campaign.

The Erv Miller barn also took home the first of two $66,500 splits for rookie pacing colts, this time with Marcus Miller piloting the undefeated Mr Bear who scored decisively at 1-9.

In his familiar inside post 1, Mr Bear eased out of the gate into third under cautious handling having broken stride off the gate in his last start. Allowing the field to materialize ahead of him, Gwtrigger (Wilfong) shot out for the early advantage through the first quarter in :28. Mr Bear seized his opportunity to close out the first half mile on the lead in :57.1, climbing past Capt Peach (Tetrick) and Gwtrigger. Mr Bear continued to drive home through the three-quarter turn in 1:26.1. Mr Bear did not give a head start to the rest of the field this week, asserting his will in the stretch smashing the wire in 1:52 by 3¾ lengths under wraps with a :25.4 final fraction. Capt Peach got up for second, with Soggy Man (De Long) third.

Mr Bear is owned by the Ervin Miller Stable Inc, D&M Trading II LLC, Levi Bontrager, and Laura Perniciaro. The Rockin Image—Mamas Lil Beach gelding was bred by Mark Adams and Timothy Sullivan. Mr Bear tallied his fifth win of the season to add to the perfect start to his career. Mr Bear boosted his lifetime earnings to $110,250.

The Erv Miller barn swept the $16,000 ISS eligible races for 2-year-old colt pacers to complete its grand slam, scoring with Lahaina Memory (Marcus Miller, $53.20) in 1:52.3, and Tell's Chip (Bender, $7.80) in 1:52.2.

Tell Me It's You driven by De Long for trainer Alvin Miller made it look easy to win the second half of the $65,500 INSS 2-year-old colts and geldings pace, scoring in his second consecutive 1:50 mile.

Tell Me It's You dueled out of the gate early from post 2 with Another Mile Again (Tetrick) grabbing the early lead at the first turn in :27.1. Tell Me It's You wrapped up his time in second, gliding past the leader to mark the halfway point in :56.1. Tell Me It's You stretched out the field to the final turn in 1:24.3. Finding another gear in the homestretch, Tell Me It's You accelerated through the wire uncontested in 1:50.3 by 3¼ lengths. Another Mile Again held second, while it was 8½ lengths back to I'm Toohot For You (Marcus Miller) in third.

The winning Tellitlikeitis—Kitty Hoyne gelding is owned by Alvin Miller, Twila Harts, and Marvin Schwartz. Bred by Oakwood Farms, Tell Me It's You claimed his second win to go along with $67,725 in career earnings.

In the seventh and penultimate leg of Sires Stakes for the 3-year-old colt and gelding pacers, Swiss Lights took his turn back atop the division with Tetrick aboard for Jeff Cullipher.

Under Tetrick urging off the wings, Swiss Lights secured the pocket trip moving onto the first turn while Dancingdreamer (Bender) took command through an opening quarter of :26.1. The tempo slowed to the half in :55 before Swiss Lights began to angle out on the far turn, applying pressure to Dancingdreamer with Aces And Cinches (Wilfong) in tow at three-quarters in 1:23.2. In a three-across dual to the line, Swiss Lights sprinted home in :26.1 to fend off Aces And Cinches by a half-length in 1:49.4, while Dancingdreamer was third, just three-parts-of-a-length back of the winner.

Swiss Lights has won four of nine this year, banking $201,110 this season for owners Jeff Cullipher and Pollack Racing. The gelded son of Rockin Image—Shes Lights Out was bred by Merlie Schwartz, and boasts a career bankroll of $313,186.

In addition to the 2- and 3-year-olds the first of two $20,000 legs for aged horses were contested on the Friday night program swept by driver De Long as part of a five-win night.

Kicking off the night, the dominant On To Norway ($2.10) driven by De Long for trainer Ron Burke fended off a late challenge by Revin For Dallars (Ross) by a nose to score in 1:51 for older trotting males. There was much less suspense in the older mare pacing division, with Can'ttouthese ($2.20) wiring the field to win by a length in 1:50 over Lyin' Eyes (Joey Putnam) for trainer Roger Welch. De Long closed out the evening with M-M's Bud

($8.80) getting the best of Little Rocket Man (Wilfong) and Rock Shines Again (Tetrick) in a 1:48.3 career best in the finale for older male pacers, giving trainer Alvin Miller a hat-trick on the night.

In a non-betting race prior to the Friday night card, Yo Beth D and driver Wilfong won the match race for older trotting mares in 1:53.4 over ER Kelly (LeWayne Miller) for trainer Ken Rucker.

INVERNESS AVE, NIGHTHAWK ZETTE WIN IT LATE IN INSS

Inverness Ave and Nighthawk Zette secured big wins as they took down their respective fields in races 6 and 8 of sixth leg of the $49,500 Indiana Sires Stakes 3-year-old colt and geldings trots at Hoosier Park On Thursday (Aug. 20).

Against all odds at 22-1, Inverness Ave driven by Kevin Lambright for trainer Ernie Gaskin played underdog winning the first division while upending the previously unbeaten Dan D Man Can in the $49,500 first division.

Up the middle from post 5, Inverness Ave found easy access to the rail in fourth while Swan Affect (Marcus Miller) rode the inside from post 1 to the first turn in :28. Single file on the backstretch the post-time favorite Dan D Man Can (Atlee Bender) asserted his will gliding to the front of the seven-horse field to the halfway pole in :57.3. On the turn, Inverness Ave advanced from fourth as he cruised alongside Dan D Man Can, who led at the three-quarters in 1:25.2. Down the stretch, the trotters faced a familiar sight as Dan D Man Can continued to fend off any challenges. Inverness Ave wrote a different ending as he wore down the leader to snap this season's undefeated Dan D Man Can win streak as he crossed the wire in 1:52.3 clear by three-quarters-of-a-length. Dan D Man Can fell to second, while Swan Affect held for third.

The Helpisontheway gelding is owned by Theodore Engel, Douglas Shore, and Ernest Gaskin Stables Inc. Inverness Ave was bred by The Bay's Stable LLC, Polger Holdings LLC, and Little E LLC. Boosting his lifetime earnings to $167,585, Inverness Ave paid $46.60 to win.

In the second slate of INSS, Nighthawk Zette driven and trained by LeWayne Miller surged late to secure a sixth win of the season, winning the showdown in race 8.

Calmly off the gate from post 6, Nighthawk Zette elected to see the field in front of him from fourth as Woodside Julius (Marcus Miller) led at the first quarter turn in :27. Bravo Alpha (Trace Tetrick) wasted no time after the turn, transitioning to the helm as he held the advantage to the half-mile mark in :55.4. The seven-horse field remained unchanged with Bravo Alpha sitting comfortably on the lead to the final turn in 1:24.4. Working his way from the back, Nighthawk Zette chased down the leader as he picked off Swan Jayden (Jordan Ross) and Woodside Julius. Taking aim at Bravo Alpha, Nighthawk Zette trotted his last quarter in :27.2 and nailed the leader at the wire in 1:53.2 by a quarter-length. Bravo Alpha settled for second, while Woodside Julius claimed third.

Nighthawk Zette improved his lifetime earnings to $112,770. Owned by L&S Racing, Lyndar Stables, and Richard Freese, Nighthawk Zette was bred by Cozette Mc Avoy.

Eastie Boy takes PASS at The Meadows

by Tyler Stillings for the Meadows
Standardbred Owners Association

Hollywood Casino at The Meadows hosted 2-year-old colt and gelding pacers Friday evening (Aug. 21). A single $129,491 division of the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes known as the Tyler B Stakes highlighted the card, along with three PA Stallion Series divisions.

A select field of six lined up behind the starting gate for the lone PASS split, and after some early jockeying for position, Eastie Boy and Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. worked their way to the front through an opening quarter of :26.3. The pace picked up through a half of 55.4, as Stonebridge Blitz provided pressure in a :26.4 third quarter, but the son of Sweet Lou rebuffed the only serious challenge and paced away under wraps to a career-best 1:50.2 effort. Eastie Boy is trained by Ron Burke for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC, Weaver Bruscelli LLC, and Phillip Collura.

Corey Callahan piloted winners in two Stallion Series divisions. Celtic Wave made it three in a row in Stallion Series competition with a wire-to-wire, lifetime-best 1:51.3 effort. Trained by John Berger, the son of Captaintreacherous held off Current Events with a :27.1 final quarter to score a nose victory. Celtic Wave is owned by Kiefer Elite Bldstock LLC, Theresa Donnelly, and John Berger.

The second Callahan victory came courtesy of a pocket trip and a :26.4 final quarter with Scorecard Hounddog. The son of Stay Hungry followed Sassinator to the stretch on his way to a 1:51.3 victory and a second straight Stallion Series win for trainer Vernon Beachy and owners Green Acre LLC and Mike Klimas.

Chris Gooden

Fauvette Hanover (Scott Zeron) winning her Pennsylvania Sire Stakes test for 2-year-old pacing fillies on Thursday at The Meadows.

Chris Gooden

JK Lady Liberty (Scott Zeron) winning the other PASS event.

Hungry Marco and Tim Tetrack made it back-to-back wins in Stallion Series action with a head victory over Captain Charlie. Tetrack put the son of Stay Hungry on the lead and controlled the race on the way to a 1:52.1 victory. Hungry Marco is trained by Jamie Sullivan for owners David Hamm, Glenn Phillips, and Frank Chick.

Friday evening honors went to drivers Callahan and Wrenn, Jr., who each recorded two wins. Burke's two victories gave him training honors, while Stay Hungry's two Stallion Series wins gave him top sire honors.

PALONE DOMINATES AS 2-YEAR-OLD PACING FILLIES TAKE CENTER STAGE

A pair of $63,000 Pennsylvania Sire Stakes divisions known as the Meadow Cheer, accompanied by three PA Stallion Series divisions, brought 2-year-old pacing fillies to a rain-soaked Hollywood Casino at The Meadows on Thursday afternoon (Aug. 20).

JK Lady Liberty added to her growing résumé with a near wire-to-wire effort in her PASS division. Scott Zeron landed the daughter of Captain Crunch a close-up third but was out and moving before the quarter. Once settled on the lead, the pair reached the half in :55.2 and three-quarters in 1:23.4. The final quarter saw JK Lady Liberty fend off Loyal To The End on her right and Positive Princess on her left, stopping the timer in 1:52. Trained by Nancy Takter for 3 Brothers Stables, it was the fourth win in a row and third Sire Stakes victory for JK Lady Liberty.

Zeron used the rail to perfection with Fauvette Hanover to score a 28-1 upset in the other PASS division. Zeron placed the daughter of Papi Rob Hanover behind the two betting favorites through an opening quarter of :27. A second quarter of :28.3 brought little movement, but that changed at the head of the stretch. Aestas popped the pocket and went after the leader, GOD Impact, on the right, leaving the passing lane for Fauvette Hanover. It would take the length of the stretch, but the Britney Dillion pupil nosed out Aestas for the 1:53 victory. William Hartt and Britney Dillion own the former $30,000 Harrisburg yearling purchase.

All three Stallion Series division winners had one thing in common: Dave Palone.

Boardwalk Babe was the fastest division winner, using a quarter-pole move to the lead to cruise to a two-length victory in 1:52.1. The daughter of Sweet Lou is now three-for-three in Stallion Series action for trainer Joe Pavia, Jr. and owners Double The Fun Stable.

Set It Up and Palone navigated a hectic opening quarter, but once on the lead, cruised to a 1:53.1 effort. Owned by Let It Ride Stables, South Mountain Stables, and Richard Freese, the daughter of Heston Blue Chip is now two-for-two in Stallion Series competition for trainer Linda Toscano.

Odds On Wonderful had things all her own way in a three-length romp in her Stallion Series division. From post 1, Palone was able to work out a comfortable :57.1 half, setting up a :27.3 final panel that sealed her maiden victory in 1:53.4. Virgil Morgan, Jr. trains the daughter of Stay Hungry for owner Odds On Racing.

Palone earned the day's driving honors with four victories, while 12 different trainers scored wins.

by Darin Gagne for Running Aces Casino, Hotel and Racetrack

It was ladies night on the track at Running Aces on Thursday (Aug. 20) and Fillister Photo stole the show with an impressive stretch rally to capture the $17,000 mares open handicap pace as a 12-1 upset winner.

Driver Casey Leonard was unhurried with Fillister Photo in the early stages of the affair and floated away in seventh position while Mother Mary (driven by Rick Magee) and Premier Desirey (Dean Magee) battled for the top through a fast, opening half mile that saw fractions of :26.4 and :55 with Miss May Bell tracking from third and Wish I Had Thyme traveling in fourth.

The top two made a big break away from the rest down the backstretch before Wish I Had Thyme launched a first-over bid heading into the final turn and past the third checkpoint in 1:25 which provided cover for both Overthemoonforyou and Fillister Photo who were now in fifth and sixth respectively.

The field began to fan across the track as they straightened for the stretch drive and both Mother Mary and Premier Desirey dug in gamely and were once again locked in battle as they approached the wire, but Leonard found a clear path on the far outside with Fillister Photo to emerge from the pack and surge strongest of all to the wire to post a one-length tally in 1:53.

Mother Mary and Premier Desirey could not be separated for the place position.

The $26.40 winner is a 6-year-old daughter of Easy Again who now shows 29 career wins and earnings of $268,761 for owner Scorpio Stables and trainer Robert Lems.

Swinging On Over, by Three Of Clubs, posted a career best 1:54 mile to capture the $17,000 Minnesota-sired sophomore male 'A' pace with Adam Hauser in the bike for trainer Justin Anfinson. They rallied impressively from fifth at the top of the lane to win by a neck over CL Dancer and Cool Mr Cool and returned $32 on top.

Sparkling Chardonnay, by Aracache Hanover, and driver/trainer Nick Roland delivered as the favorites in the $17,000 filly 'A' pace for her sixth career win with a 1:56 tally by 1¾ lengths over Starstruck Fool and Thiskidcanfly.

Leonard led the program with three driving wins while Roland scored both a driving and training double and Lems and Mikaela Delgiudice each had two training wins.

Live racing returns to Running Aces tonight (Aug. 23) and will feature a special visit from Patty Strand and the Hoof Beat Therapeutic Center, a program that employs retired standardbreds from Running Aces in a therapy program for children, adults, and the elderly. One of the stars of the program is retired pacer Firedrake, who won the Dan Patch FFA at Running Aces in 2017 and he will be on site near the winner's circle tonight to meet racing fans.

Tonight, is also "Pepsi Family Night" with specials and kid's activities, trout fishing, food trucks, and a 'Sole Survivor' handicapping contest. First post for the 10-race program is set for 6 p.m. (CDT).

Maine SIRE STAKES REPORT

Switzer wins four while Hall scores three at Skowhegan State Fair

by Mike Sweeney / Skowhegan State Fair

Two of Maine's top rated harness drivers, Kevin Switzer, Jr. and Aaron Hall, dominated the action on the quickening mid-state oval on Friday (Aug. 21), combining to win seven out of the 11 races carded at the Skowhegan State Fair.

The Switzer, Jr. swagger began with a gate-to-wire romp with No Small Wonder (1:59.4) in a non-betting race before the card, putting a new lifetime mark on the 2-year-old filly, while extending her undefeated record to a perfect five-for-five in a $16,808 split of Maine Sire Stakes action.

Switzer, Jr. continued on his grand slam surge as Suge (1:57.2, $3.80) powered through a contested :28.2 opening quarter while holding enough in reserve to charge home in a competition discouraging :28.4; while Devious Moon (2:02.4, $5) made his first state-of-Maine start a winning one, as the Saratoga invader posted even fractions as the competition failed to advance; before finally rolling down the highway with Rollin Doubles (1:58.4, $4.80), and putting a seasonal mark on the Robert MacNeil trainee.

Meanwhile, Hall began his haul by putting a new lifetime mark on Wine For The Lady (2:00) in the afternoon's second $16,983 Maine Sire Stakes, another non-betting event; quickly followed by a convincing win with Jackson R Browne (1:55.1, $19.60) who rallied smartly into a :58 back-half off a legit :57.1 opening-half pace while scoring the fastest win thus far this meet at Skowhegan; and then concluding his triple with a gate-to-wire romp behind Dark Horse (1:56.2, $5), who successfully rose up in claiming class on Friday to secure his second win-in-a-row.

In other Skowhegan news, driver David Ingraham scored two wins of his own during the Friday afternoon card, coincidentally generating the lowest win price of the day with Go West Young Grace (1:58.3, $2.80), while living up to his reputation as "Double Digit Dave" in the 10th race finale, returning a hefty $44.80 as he brought home Age Is A Number (1:58.4) to her first win of the season.

The Skowhegan live video feed can be enjoyed online here, while wagering is available online on the Hollywood Races site at www.hollywoodraces.com.

SKOWHEGAN HOSTS MAINE HIGHSTEPPERS

Maine's growing family of 2- and 3-year-old trotters found their way to the Skowhegan State Fair on Thursday (Aug. 20), with all the usual suspects up to their same tricks.

Three of the four $17,000-plus divisions of the Maine Sire Stakes were held before the regular card at Skowhegan, starting with the 2-year-old trotting fillies at 6 p.m.

In that first, early Maine Sire Stake it was another easy victory for Princess Caledonia (Gary Hall) who led every step of the way to win handily in 2:07.1 by 1½ lengths, padding her account to $36,966.

Co-owned, trained, and driven by Gary Hall, the daughter of To The Hilt picked up her fourth seasonal win. Also owned by James Kelly, Jr., Betsey Kelley, and Kristina Hall, she was bred by Anita Anastosopoulos.

Cape Cod Friday (Dave Ingraham) stayed close to the action and finished second; stablemate Mikella Belle was third.

#BETONHARNESS

In the second $17,008 Maine Sire Stake for 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings, once again it was driver Heath Campbell who sent Gus's Workout to the front with Trottinfortreasure (Kevin Switzer, Jr.) ducking in the 2-hole. Wilder N Idy (Mark Athearn) got away third as they hit the opening panel in a :31.1 in the fading twilight sun.

Gus's Workout seemed pretty comfortable on the engine as Campbell rolled his charge to a 1:01.4 half. As has been his practice, when the pacesetters passed the third station in 1:32, Athearn had tipped Wilder N Idy to the outside to advance his position.

When the field hit the head of the stretch Wilder N Idy had improved to second with Gus's Workout going off-stride. Down the lane Wilder N Idy had the momentum and clear sailing to the wire, scoring in 2:01.3 and holding off the late charge of Trottinfortreasure by a quarter-length.

Trained by Gretchen Athearn for owner Patricia Leavitt, the son of To The Hilt picked up his fifth win of the season. Bred by the late Mike Andrew, he now has 13 wins lifetime with $152,622 earned.

Gus's Workout finished third.

In the third, early $17,135 Maine Sire Stake dash for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings, it was another typical wire-to-wire tour of the facility for the Watson's U Know I Know.

Ken Watson steered the son of Whataworkout to his fifth consecutive win in a lifetime best-equaling 2:05.1, prevailing by 5½ lengths over Pembroke Zagursky (Heath Campbell).

Trained by Lisa Watson for owner/breeder Barbara Lawson, the unbeaten divisional star now has $38,811 on his card in five lifetime starts.

Stablemate Race Me Bruno (Wally Watson) finished third.

In the final $17,261 division, raced as the opener on the pari-mutuel card, once again it was filly sensation Hayden who been virtually unstoppable since mid-July.

Trainer/driver Gary Hall controlled the tempo early with a :31.1 opening panel, sending the daughter of Cantab Fashion to a steady 1:02.1 half. Our Last Quote (Mike Cushing) was poised in the garden seat, while Race Me Boomer (Andy Harrington) tipped first over into a 1:33.4 third panel.

With the outer flow fading and Hall giving his star filly her head, the duo trotted home in :29.2 to a half-length victory over the pocket-sitting Out Last Quote in 2:03.1.

Owned and bred by Stephen Hall, it was the sixth seasonal victory for Hayden and her eighth lifetime, as she increased her bankroll to $94,101. She returned $3 on a $2-win ticket.

Race Me Boomer finished third.

HARNESS RACING PRESS RELEASES, NOTES & ANNOUNCEMENTS

Andrew Gaughan will not seek another term as Ontario Racing's independent chair

Ontario Racing is announcing that Andrew Gaughan will leave his position as its independent chair after his current contract expires at the end of October of this year. The organization has begun its search for his successor.

Gaughan has been Ontario Racing's independent chair since October of 2022 when he succeeded John Hayes in the role.

During Gaughan's tenure leading Ontario Racing, he was instrumental in helping secure additional funding from the Ontario Government of $35 million annually for each of the next five years.

Gaughan had already renewed his initial three-year contract another year to help see the funding agreement through to fruition.

"The commitment I made to myself, and the Ontario Racing board, was to ensure that the efforts we had all put into aiming to secure the additional funding were met," Gaughan said. "With that getting resolved fully... I felt like my goal and commitment to the four-year journey had been met."

"The other thing that was influencing my decision not to renew or ask for an extension, further mandate or term is I still have a lot going on in my private consulting business to the industry. I have several clients on a global basis. I'm the kind of person that doesn't like to engage in things halfway, and I believe the commitments that are required for the independent chair role in the next several years ahead... really require a lot of attention, focus, and effort. I didn't feel, to be perfectly honest, that I had the bandwidth to continue to do that."

Gaughan also recently became a grandfather for the first time.

"I am a grandfather now, and I've passed the 60-year-old threshold in the last year," Gaughan said. "So, I'm not looking to work as much full-time as I had in the previous 30 years."

Gaughan said he would remain Ontario Racing's independent chair until a successor is found.

At OR, Gaughan said he is most proud to have helped secure the additional industry funding, "with the support of the Board and the dedicated Ontario Racing Management (ORM) team." He said he is particularly pleased that most of the money is going to core participants to help offset, "the massive negative impact inflation was having on the core participants in the industry – namely the breeders, the owners, the trainers, and all the people that work at the racetrack level to secure a living."

Ontario Racing is currently seeking applications for its next independent chair. The role involves working closely with the Ontario Racing board of directors, the executive director of ORM and the Ontario Lottery and Gaming Corporation (OLG), and is responsible for building and promoting productive relationships with industry stakeholders. The independent chair provides strategic leadership to the horse racing industry in Ontario and liaises with government representatives in support of this vision.

For more information about the role of the independent chair, or to apply to the position, please click here or contact ORM executive director Gordon Thain at gthain@ontarioracing.com.

'Wrong' proves right in Big M's Garden State

Wrong Sounds Right picked up his third win in his last four tries Friday night (Aug. 21) at The Meadowlands after taking the featured $80,000 Garden State for 2-year-old colts and geldings on the trot.

The Jim Campbell trainee, sent off as the popular 1-9 favorite, was reserved early, sitting fourth in the eight-horse field as 5-1 second choice Easy Down Blonde took the field past the quarter in :28.1.

Driver Todd McCarthy moved Wrong Sounds Right off the rail just after the half, which Easy Down Blonde reached in :56.4, and made his way after the leader. The eventual winner was getting close to Easy Down Blonde at three-quarters (1:26.1), before collaring that foe as the field straightened up in the stretch. Wrong Sounds Right then went on to an easy 3¼-length win in 1:53.1. Jazzy Blues rallied for second with Easy Down Blonde holding third.

"He was really good tonight," McCarthy said. "Off the turn, I wanted to come easy with him. He gave me a really good kick. Jim's done a good job managing this horse. I hope he has a big year. He trotted a good mile in his last start [when second in the New Jersey Sire Stakes Platinum final]. He's got a great attitude. It's a good group of people to be working with."

Wrong Sounds Right, a colt by Tactical Landing—Broadway Jo Ell who is owned by the Runthetable Stables, has now won three of five lifetime outings, good for earnings of $111,250. He paid $2.20 to win.

GREAT IN THE GARDEN STATE: There were two $50,000 divisions of the Garden State for 2-year-old filly trotters contested on the program, and those winners were:

- Race 4 (division 1) — Special Orchid (Walner—Special Honor), Mark Herschberger was the driver, Tony Alagna is the trainer, time for the mile was 1:55.4 (first win in five lifetime tries), the win payout was $66.20 as the 32-1 longest shot on the board.
- Race 6 (division 2) — Rio De Janeiro (Walner—Devilish Delight), Joe Bongiorno, Nancy Takter, lifetime-best 1:54.1 (second win in five lifetime starts), $7.20 as the 5-2 second choice.

DEVELOPING NICELY: Also on the program were a pair of $10,000 New Jersey Standardbred Development Fund events for 3-year-olds on the trot, and those emerging victorious were:

- Race 2 (fillies) — Grand Prix Deo (Muscle Hill—Grand Stand), Bongiorno, Andrew Harris, lifetime-best 1:52.1 (second win in 13 lifetime outings), $74.60 as the 36-1 longest shot on the board.
- Race 12 (colts and geldings) — Captain Jordan (Captain Corey—Jordan Blue Chip), Brett Beckwith, Scott DiDomenico, 1:54.2 (ninth win from 20 lifetime starts), $10 as the 4-1 third choice.

A LITTLE MORE: Bongiorno was the leading driver on the night with four winner's circle visits... Melissa Keith called the races and had herself a good night picking winners. She had four on top, one short-priced favorite, and three others that paid $13.80, $17.80, and $12.20, respectively... All-source handle on the 13-race program totaled $1,922,441.

2-year-old trotting fillies in BSS action at Scioto Downs

Five divisions of the Buckeye Stallion Series for 2-year-old trotting fillies went to post Thursday (Aug. 20) at Eldorado Scioto Downs. Each of the $20,000 events were won by differently sired fillies, with homebreds Aunt Jessie (Action Uncle) and Sweet Stevie (Global Republic S) winning their splits in the fastest time – 1:56.2.

Aunt Jessie (Austin Hanners) went gate-to-wire for trainer Leroy Eicher, setting fractions of :28, :57.4, and 1:26.2. It was the maiden win for Aunt Jessie who won by three-quarters-of-a-length over Center Field Lady (Luke Hanners); Soaring Sophia (Ronnie Gillespie) was third. Owned by breeder Lavern Hostetler, Aunt Jessie is by Action Uncle out of the Jailhouse Jesse mare Jessiesexpresslane. Aunt Jessie now has $18,516 earned in six starts.

Sweet Stevie (Kurt Sugg) won her division by seven lengths after briefly giving way to Seven Lick Holiday (Tyler Smith) going to the :28 opening quarter before setting the rest of the fractions of :58 and 1:27.2. Dublins Ferani (Tyler Angus) came from the back of the pack to finish second with Seven Lick Holiday third. Sugg also trains the filly by Global Republic S out of the Dontyouforgetit mare Jogging Sweets for owner/breeders Rebecca Sugg, Ashley Miller, and Edward Miller. Sweet Stevie now has $50,125 earned in six starts. Thursday's victory was her third and set a new lifetime mark.

The other three divisions were won by DS Alisson (1:57.1), Been Thru Hill (1:57.3), and Rose Run Classy (1:57.1).

DS Alisson, by Ready for Moni out of the What The Hill mare Stephanie Hill, won for driver Chris Lems after being parked second over from post 8 to the :28.4 opening quarter and making the lead just before the :56.3 half. Leading to the 1:26 third-quarter, DS Allison held off a passing lane bid from Indigo Times, winning by a half-length for trainer Scott Cox; Alleluia (Gillespie) was third. It was DS Alisson's first victory in six starts for owners Wayne Mast, Jr., Callam Racing, Green Wave Racing, and Wayne Zollars. DS Alisson, a $30,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from breeders Double Spring Farm, Chris Beaver, and Moger-Delia Racing, now has $20,450 earned.

Been Thru Hill won her division by two lengths for driver Carson Conrad and trainer Dalton Walls. Fired up going to the opening quarter, Been Thru Hill got there in :28 and continued to lead through fractions of :57.3 and 1:27. Pocket sitter She's In My Range (Brett Miller) finished second, with Rollin Range (Gillespie) third. Been Thru Hill, by What The Hill out of the Uncle Peter mare Trumpeter Swan, is a homebred for Charles Hartzell. The filly now has $29,400 earned in five starts, with three wins.

Rose Run Classy won her division by a half-length with driver David Miller at the lines. Getting away fifth from post 6, Rose Run Classy sat until midway down the backstretch while On A Clear Day (Lems) set the fractions of :28.1, :57.4, and 1:27.1. Making her move second over, Rose Run Classy patiently waited until the top of the stretch to make her final move for the victory. Volonce' Muscle (Brett Miller) was second with Sweet Valorie (L. Hanners) third. By Long Tom out of the Swan For All mare lady Kolette, Rose Run Classy was a $27,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from breeder Rose Run Farm.

Owned by Dark Horse Farm, trainer Matthew Burkholder, and Enos Miller, Rose Run Classy now has $28,060 earned with two wins in six starts.

The 91-day 2026 Eldorado Scioto Downs regular season runs through Saturday (Sept. 19). Races are held Tuesdays and Thursdays through Saturdays, with a special holiday card on Labor Day instead of the Tuesday card that week and no live racing on Friday (Sept. 18) to accommodate horsemen attending the Ohio Selected Yearling Sale. The track will then re-open for the Breeders Crown, with eliminations held Oct. 16-17 and the finals Oct. 23-24. More information about all the racing action at Scioto can be found on the Eldorado Scioto Downs website.

Community Day at Mohawk Park set for Sept. 5

Woodbine Mohawk Park will host a free Community Day on Saturday (Sept. 5), ahead of an exciting night of racing featuring the Grade 1 Canadian Pacing Derby and Grade 1 Maple Leaf Trot.

Sponsored by the Central Ontario Standardbred Association (COSA), Community Day will run from 4 to 6 p.m. and offer fun for the whole family.

Guests can enjoy free hot dogs, freezies, and popcorn while supplies last.

Kids can take part in a variety of activities, including sulky rides, face painting, and crafts. A magic show featuring Tyler Fergus will take place at 5:30 p.m.

Racing fans can go behind the scenes with paddock tours, try their hand at driving through a virtual reality racing experience, and learn more about the standardbred industry with Ontario Racing activations.

"Community Day is a wonderful opportunity to welcome Milton families to the track," said Heather Flaherty, general manager, Woodbine Mohawk Park. "Whether it's your first visit or you're a longtime racing fan, we're excited to bring the community together for an afternoon of fun, family activities and, of course, great racing on the Labor Day weekend."

Doors open for Community Day at 4 p.m., and fans are encouraged to stay for an exciting stakes-filled card of racing. First-race post time is 6:30 p.m. Reservations for dining are available through WoodbineMohawkPark.com.

Industry needs to act on Nancy Takter's open letter

Nancy Takter's recent letter about the future of harness racing deserves more than a few days of discussion and agreement. It deserves action.

I am a relatively new owner in harness racing and a partner with Frank Calabrese at Chain Lightning Stables LLC. I came into this sport for many of the reasons Nancy describes. I didn't get involved because I saw racehorses as another investment. I got involved because of the competition, the horses and the possibility – however remote – of someday being associated with a truly special one.

That is the dream Nancy is talking about, and I can tell you from the perspective of a newer owner: it is real.

So are the problems she identifies. I won't re-litigate her whole argument – everyday racing built as a wagering product, coordinated post times, major events protected and promoted as showcases for the sport. She's right about all of it. I'd rather use this space to push one point further and add one of my own.

Is more racing actually better racing?

If too many races spread our horses across too many tracks, create short fields, dilute wagering pools and exhaust the people who make this sport possible, then the answer isn't to squeeze in another card.

The answer may be fewer, better races – with fuller fields, stronger pools and a product worth watching.

Right now, tracks compete with each other for the same horses and the same bettors instead of growing the pie together. We need to stop thinking of every racetrack as a separate product and start thinking of harness racing itself as the product.

If the overall sport keeps shrinking, everyone eventually ends up with a bigger share of something worth less. That's what has been happening.

The ownership experience is the product we keep underselling. The industry talks about economics – purses, breeding incentives, handle. Those matter.

But as a newer owner, what struck me is how much the excitement matters, and how little we sell it. It's easy to take that for granted if you've been in the sport for decades. But for everyone who hasn't experienced it yet, that's the hook.

The winner's circle. Bringing friends to watch your horse race. Following a yearling as it develops and wondering if it might become something special.

Most people capable of investing significant money in this sport aren't looking for another investment – they already have plenty of those. They came here for something money doesn't usually buy: a shot at owning something great.

That's the dream, and we've largely stopped selling it.

Major event days – the Hambletonian, Meadowlands Pace, Little Brown Jug, North America Cup, Breeders Crown and our other premier events – are where that selling has to happen.

Tell the stories. Show the owners, trainers, drivers and caretakers. Build the rivalries. Let people see the emotion of an owner watching a horse turn for home. Show what winning means to the people who have invested their money, time and emotion in these horses.

That's how you turn spectators into fans, and eventually some of those fans into owners, or a part of the sport.

None of this is easy, but it has to start somewhere.

Harness racing is fragmented – tracks, horsemen's associations, breeders, owners, regulators and wagering companies all have legitimate and sometimes competing interests.

But there has to be a point where we recognize that our common interest is greater than any one participant's interest.

So here's a concrete ask:

Bring together a small group of racetrack executives, horsemen, owners, breeders, wagering experts and people from outside the traditional harness racing establishment who understand marketing, technology and how to attract new customers.

Give them a mandate to develop an actual plan for coordinating racing schedules, improving the wagering experience and creating a national calendar of premier events.

Then test it.

Pick several racing jurisdictions. Coordinate their post times. Create a common digital presentation. Select several major weekends, protect them and promote them aggressively. Measure handle, attendance, digital engagement and owner participation.

If it works, expand it. If parts of it don't work, change them and try again.

We don't have to redesign the entire sport overnight.

But we do have to start.

Nancy ended her letter by saying that what harness racing is missing isn't effort — it is coordination, presentation and fun.

I agree.

We have magnificent horses, talented horsepeople, passionate owners, great racetracks and more than a century of history. There is still something magical about standing along the rail and watching a standardbred you own turn for home.

I know, because I'm one of the newer owners who discovered it.

Our challenge now is making sure more people discover it too.

Hambletonian sadness

The Thursday (Aug. 13), news that the Hambo was being moved to Indiana was both saddening and angering. I've loved the sport since my dad took me to the races at Yonkers as a little kid way before the advent of slot machines, racinos, and Historical Horse Racing gimmicks. Year after year, the sport figures out dumber and dumber ways to commit suicide. The Meadowlands, even in its current state, still out-handles other tracks by a ton. Hoosier has bucked the trend of declining handle, but their pools are still paltry compared to The Meadowlands.

The worst part to me is everyone is to blame, except the folks in Indiana. As Mr. Brown noted, they wanted the race and got everyone from horsemen to government to tourism behind the push. That being said, the survival of The Meadowlands is being horribly thrown aside. Why a compromise couldn't be reached for a year to give the long shot casino ballot a shot is beyond me? Now, I can't imagine any way the ballot succeeds. It was already a long shot, especially given Mr. Gural was so sure it would lose this year, it was pushed to next year. Whether you like or dislike Mr. Gural, it won't matter when he decides to finally shutter the track. Unfortunately, that's where my anger lies with him. His public threat, whether real or designed to force monetary aide (i.e., his operating costs, and losses) started the exodus of the Hambo. By stating that he's on the precipice of closing he forced the initial opening of the bidding. Why the Hambo Society and Gural couldn't try to resolve their issues behind the scenes and not in public totally baffles me. It's made both parties look bad.

I never thought that years ago that living on the East Coast would be where harness dies. Even when Michigan and Illinois had decent racing everyone felt moving east was the move to the big time. Once The Meadowlands officially closes (IMO, it will happen earliest this year latest end of next) all that will remain are slot tracks with no pools, no handle, and no attendance, simply biding time on life support until the state governments decide to redirect money from a dying industry to their own pet projects.
