Is Rixon willing to give The Big M a shot down the road?

by Debbie Little

MEADOWLANDS MATTERS

with DEBBIE LITTLE

When Will Rixon got his first win at The Meadowlands with Pack Your Bags, was some greater force trying to tell him something?

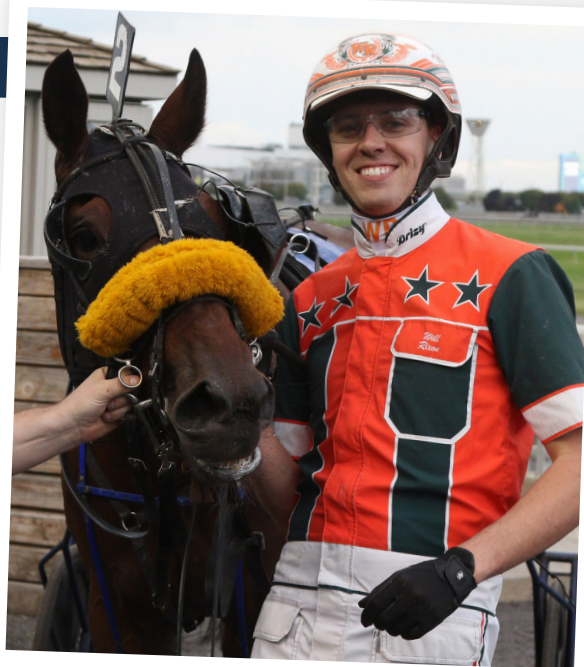

The 25-year-old reinsman from Australia came to the U.S. on holiday at the beginning of August and although his itinerary was packed with sightseeing, meeting people, and visiting friends, just like Tony Stark or Steve Rogers, he brought his suit with him.

On Saturday (Aug. 22) at The Big M, Rixon wasn't decked out in red and gold like Iron Man or Captain America's red, white, and blue, but as if they were employing some form of muscle memory, his orange and green colors found their way into the winner's circle just as they had nearly 1,000 times before.

Most drivers Down Under are not known for sporting their own colors, but the native of Elderslie, New South Wales said things are a little different where he comes from.

"We've worn driver's colors a lot more than other states in Australia," Rixon said of his home track Menangle in Sydney. "It's just certain owners that like to have their colors still... Different states, not so much, but in Sydney at Menangle, we've worn driver's colors, more so in the last two or three years."

Rixon got his picture taken not once, but twice last Saturday night, and if you had bet $20 to win on all eight of his starters

~150 HEAD • ONE STANDARD OF CARE

Six decades building champions on the Standardbred side. Now we are building it again on the Thoroughbred side — same farm, same family, same standard. We're looking for the Farm Manager who wants to build it with us, succeeding a longtime manager moving toward retirement.

THE ROLE

Hands-on leadership of roughly 150 head — broodmares, foaling season, young stock, the crew, the land and the equipment. You'll run breeding season, take the yearlings to the sales ring, coordinate with on- and off-farm veterinarians, manage lay-up and rehab for the racing stable, and own the operating budget.

YOU BRING

Seven or more years on a Thoroughbred, Standardbred or comparable breeding farm — hands-on through foaling and breeding season, with time in a senior role. Real horsemanship, and the ability to build a crew and hold it to a standard.

WE OFFER

On-farm housing, health insurance and paid time off, and compensation commensurate with experience and expertise — plus a family three generations deep in this sport, still building, with room to make your mark.

over his two Saturday nights in New Jersey, you would be showing a profit of $480.

It certainly didn't hurt that the 6-foot-2 gentleman wearing those colors has four Group 1 victories on his resume, including the $A1.25 million Nullarbor with Max Delight, or that he comes from an iconic harness racing family.

Rixon's mom, Cindy, is the daughter of the legendary Tony Turnbull, who won back-to-back Inter Dominions (1973-74) and the Miracle Mile (1974) with Hondo Grattan. Will's dad, Pete, also won a Miracle Mile with his best horse, Divisive (2008).

HRU caught up with Will in the paddock at The Meadowlands on Aug. 15 after his first drive.

“Yeah, it was really good, beautiful track, great weather as well, which makes it nice,” Will said.

It was not lost on the young driver exactly where he was.

Will Rixon winning with Pack Your Bags.

After two horses were scratched, he ended the night with a total of four drives and only missed getting a check once. Since he's not in the country on a work Visa, Will does not get to keep his driving percentage.

"I don't know any of the [trainers] that put me down," he said. "I only really know the trainers that are from Australia and New Zealand, so for [those trainers] to put me down, and the judges, it is very much appreciated.

"I'm not really one to get too worked up or nervous or anything, but I definitely would like to make a good first impression for sure and give their horses every chance. I'd be more than happy with that."

Will is staying with Todd McCarthy on his visit and has been using McCarthy's sulky, which, even though Rixon is a little taller, has been working out fine.

"He drives quite long, so I've got it as far out as it can go," Will said of McCarthy's bike. "Probably still a touch short for me, but not too bad, comfortable enough."

Prior to Will's arrival, McCarthy said, "I think he would fit in just fine [at The Meadowlands]. It's a little bit of a different style of racing, and it takes some adjusting, but it's not a totally different game.

"Will's really taken off down there kind of the last few years, but he was a really good young driver when I was there and he was just sort of getting going then, and he's always done a really good job. I'm not surprised at all to see how well he's been doing down there."

Following some sightseeing in New York City and a stop in Kentucky, Will returns home next week, but not before

I know a lot of people back home that really idolize them and are watching their success over here.”

Tellmeitsyou (John De Long) winning his Indiana Sires Stakes event for 2-year-old pacing colts on Saturday (Aug. 21) at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

Alvin Miller's latest 'Tell' is another INSS contender

by James Platz

Tonight (Aug. 28), Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino will play host to the fourth round of Indiana Sires Stakes (INSS) action for freshman pacing colts, with two divisions slated on the 14-race card. Tell Me It's You, trained by Alvin Miller, looks to make it two straight in INSS competition after winning last Friday (Aug. 21) in 1:50.3. He lines up in post 2 in the second division, carded as race 11, and is the veteran horseman's latest promising young pacing colt.

Tell Me It's You has hit the board in five of six seasonal starts for Miller, who owns the gelding in partnership with Twila Harts and Marvin Schwartz. The son of Tellitlikeitis has reached the winner's circle in his last two attempts, and has earned $67,725. Tell Me It's You looks to be one of the better colts in the division, and yet another budding Tellitlikeitis progeny developed by Miller.

“It was a real challenge to get [Tell Me It’s You] steerable and get him happy in the mouth. He’s always wanted to go. But just trying to keep him quiet and keep his head on straight was the challenge. When I first started him, it was hard to keep him happy, get him steering halfway decent. He was fussy about his mouth.”

— Alvin Miller

Consider the colts by Tellitlikeitis that the conditioner has turned into top racehorses. According to Pathway statistics, Miller has three among the top 20 earners by Tellitlikeitis: millionaire Tellmeaboutit p, 6, 1:47.4s (second), M-M-s Bud p, 5, 1:48.3s, a winner of just shy of $400,000 (14th), and Chandler Bing p, 4, 1:49.1s, 2024 Super Final winner with earnings of $375,000 (17th). All three are among the 10 fastest by the sire. He also trains sophomore King Tellit, who is approaching $100,000 in career earnings with a mark of 1:49.3, taken last Saturday night. Miller is not a horse whisperer, but he has shown a knack for getting the best out of the “Tells” in his barn. Each of the pacers listed above required patience, and in turn, paid dividends.

“The biggest problem I think most people have with them is that they are a little quirky,” Miller said. “It takes patience, but I think where a lot of guys get in trouble with them is they come to their speed early, and they go too much too early... The biggest thing I see is they can go way more than they need to, long before their body needs to. So, if you get one that can actually go, the hardest part is just keeping your foot on the brakes.”

That notion of keeping the foot on the brakes can be hard, particularly with the allure of the purse money available in the Hoosier State’s sires stakes program. But Miller has shown the patience and discipline needed to best manage a young horse, going as far as skipping sires stakes legs when needed, bypassing a purse check for the bigger picture. And the results speak to the success of his strategy.

In Tell Me It's You, the owner/trainer has another up-and-coming Indiana-sired colt. For all the polish the pacer displayed last week in a 3¼ length score, a lot of work went into getting the gelding to that point.

"It was a real challenge to get him steerable and get him happy in the mouth," the trainer said. "He's always wanted to go. But just trying to keep him quiet and keep his head on straight was the challenge. When I first started him, it was hard to keep him happy, get him steering halfway decent. He was fussy about his mouth."

Miller changed Tell Me It's You's bit multiple times, tinkering repeatedly before finding the right fit. Addressing the freshman's comfort went a long way in unlocking his potential. In turn, the results are showing on the track.

"He was good training down," Miller said. "He was always going the most at the end of the mile, so I was pretty sure he could go. I didn't have him happy in the mouth and he wasn't happy with his bit. If you want to get him to settle down, you don't want to make a one-dimensional horse out of him. That was kind of a challenge to start with. I covered him up, plugged his ears up a little tighter, which he had a hood on all along. I just kept changing bits and working with him at home until I finally got him something that he seems to accept. The biggest thing that's made him get better is the bit change."

Tell Me It's You has contested each of the three previous Indiana Sires Stakes legs, finishing second and fourth for driver John De Long before securing his division last time out. Although he hasn't missed a check, the gelding has improved markedly in his last two starts, beginning with the $20,000 Johnny Wattles final. In that event, part of the Dan Patch Stakes undercard at Hoosier Park, Tell Me It's You and Yannick Gingras took control after the quarter and blasted home in :26.1 to trip the timer in 1:50.1.

The Oakwood Farms-bred freshman backed up that effort with an equally-impressive mile last week. This time, with De Long in the bike, Tell Me It's You took a similar path, sitting second through the opening quarter before moving to the lead. The Tellitlikeitis—Kitty Hoyne product maintained a comfortable advantage on the front, then stormed home in 26 seconds to win by open lengths.

"Hopefully we're rounding the corner," Miller said. "The last couple of times, he's acted pretty good. Hopefully we haven't found the bottom of the barrel yet. I feel like there's more left, but he's coming along. I liked the way [De Long] was able to sit in with him for a little bit, and then when he moved him, he went forward."

If Tell Me It's You continues to improve, he could become the next stellar Tellitlikeitis colt from the Alvin Miller barn.

HOLLYWOOD'S HITS

with BOB HEYDEN

Celebrating the 50th anniversary of The Meadowlands, Part 1

by Bob Heyden

The 50th anniversary of The Meadowlands is on Sept. 1, and since there's a lot to take a look at, I'll break it down into three parts. Today, the principals and the firsts/beginnings, followed by the outstanding moments and participants, with the finale focusing on the impact and how The Meadowlands changed the sport.

PRINCIPALS

Bob Quigley, a 2013 Hall of Fame inductee, was the first hire in 1973 and served as general manager until Dec. 27, 1982 when he yielded to Sam Anzalone. Quigley left to try and duplicate his magic in southern New Jersey overseeing Garden State Park.

Joe DeFrank was 42 when the doors opened on Sept. 1, 1976 and he became the very first racing secretary. He had an initial five-year contract with a provision he could pursue off-season work. He stayed until 2001 when he wrapped up his Hall of Fame career with Tad Stockman assuming the role.

Anthony Abbatiello was re-elected SBOA NJ president that year in 1976 and was as instrumental as any in bull-dogging Operation Meadowlands through.

Jack Krumpe was the executive director of the NJSEA (New Jersey Sports and Exposition Authority). It's very important to know/remember that The Meadowlands was part of the world's largest sports complex, where the New York Football Giants debuted Oct. 10, 1976, losing to the Dallas Cowboys. The soccer team known as the Cosmos played there too. The most famous athlete on the planet, Pele, played his final game there Oct. 1, 1977. The Brendan Byrne Arena opened in 1981 and became the Continental Airlines Arena in 1996, and then the Izod Center in 2007 before closing for good in 2015.

Back to racing; remember that thoroughbred racing debuted at the brand-new Meadowlands at night on Labor Day weekend in 1977.

There were approximately 100 dates a year for the runners, meaning that the full racing plate had right around 300 dates per year.

Getting back to the standardbred beginnings, The Meadowlands became the 50th member of the HTA (Harness Tracks of America) headed then by Fred Van Lennep.

David "Sonny" Werblin was more or less the face of the tsunami that would soon be known as The Meadowlands. He turned the dream into reality. According to Hoof Beats just 10 years earlier the idea was that there would be "An all-weather dome built for $50 million of 800 acres touching both North Bergen and Secaucus."

This dream was now real. The $294 million bond issue floated in New Jersey solved the temporary financial dilemma caused when the initial backing of a handful of New York bankers was withdrawn.

In the judging stand, John Fay, a veteran arbiter from New York, was appointed head judge. Paul Tishuk from Newton, NJ was appointed to be the state steward with Dr. Peter DeCinque, from Freehold Raceway, the track veterinarian.

One of the more astute hires was that of publicity maven Allen Guttermann who had worked with Sam Anzalone previously at Yonkers. Guttermann stayed until 1990.

In 1979, in the day-to-day operations, two huge names surfaced. On the track, 24-year-old John Campbell won the first of his 16 national and Meadowlands driving titles, and Bob Mulcahy signed on as the CEO of the entire Sports Complex, until 1997.

Bill Kolm was the director of advertising at the Complex. They actually had the George Washington Bridge shut down for an ad for the track's opening, Anthony Abbatiello driving a horse clear across, symbolically showing that the gateway from New York to New Jersey was not an obstacle and that The Meadowlands welcomed one and all.

Joseph Malan was the director of mutuels; John J. Hall his assistant; Joseph Toscano the director of admissions; Ed Gorman the track announcer; and Charlie Singer the program director.

Just how successful was The Meadowlands in it's infancy? Try this. In 1978 and 1979 The Meadowlands made a $13 million and then a $14 million gift to the state treasury.

Ray Brienza, a Hall of Fame writer from the Newark Star Ledger, said this in 1986, a decade into the opening, "The Meadowlands was built to provide money to Giants Stadium and the Sports Complex." Whether that is entirely on point is open for debate, even now, but there is no arguing that The Meadowlands indeed was the cash cow for the rest of the Complex.

The New Jersey Nets and Devils also played their home games there and the New York Jets joined in the fun in 1984.

The first real fairytale story surely was Fight The Foe. In 1978 at 4 racing out of town, he was a pedestrian 20 7-5-0 with $15,220. But, in 1979, showing claiming lines as low as $4,000, he was claimed a record six times and kept getting better, no matter who took him. A switch went on apparently, and nobody shut it back off for four years. He retired north of three-quarters-of-a-million without ever winning a stakes race.

FIRSTS/BEGINNINGS

- The first claim was Private Label for 35G by the same team that won the first Meadowlands Pace with Escort, Carl LeCausé and Bernie Mann.
- The first female driver, on night two (Sept. 2, 1976), was Jo Ann Looney driving Ruth Baker who finished fourth at 31-1.
- The first dead heat was Flag Call and Progression on Sept. 30, 1976, with Dick Hogan and Eldon Harner, paying $7 and $16.40, respectively in the 2:02 flat mile.
- The first sub 1:55 male horse was Shadyside Trixie in the summer of 1977. But at age 6 the year prior when the doors opened in East Rutherford, Shadyside Trixie hardly looked the part with $86G lifetime on the gelding's card with a 1:59 4 career best. Can you say "horse for the course?"
- The first $100G claim, anywhere, was made on March 16, 1979 by Thomas Fay from New England taking Taurus Romeo, who finished sixth. The irony is he won the race with his own Seatrain who he had claimed for $65,000 a month prior.
- The first year Meadowlands numbers in attendance and handle going from Sept. 1, 1976 through Aug. 1, 1977 were 17,213 attended nightly and pushed through the windows and average of $1,792,510.
- The first Meadowlands Pace was in 1977 with an industry record $425,000 up for grabs. The winner was Escort. His career numbers of 36 10-10-4 and $211,975 show well over 75 per cent of that was banked on that one night.
- Who was the first Triple Crown winner to race at The Meadowlands? Gotcha! It wasn't Niatross in 1980, it was Seattle Slew in 1978, and he got beat in the Paterson Handicap.
- The first superstar was Whata Baron, most especially in 1978 when the 6-year-old powerhouse went 11-for-13 good for $234,650 with a 1:53.4 track record race mark competing for Lew Williams.
- The first real fairytale story surely was Fight The Foe. In 1978 at 4 racing out of town, he was a pedestrian 20 7-5-0 with $15,220. But, in 1979, showing claiming lines as low as $4,000, he was claimed a record six times and kept getting better, no matter who took him. A switch went on apparently, and nobody shut it back off for four years. He retired north of three-quarters-of-a-million without ever winning a stakes race.

In Part 2, we'll look at the stars and standout moments in the 50-year history of The Meadowlands.

Shann Cox honoring grandfather Dave Ratchford's legacy

by Chris Lomon

Dave Ratchford is no doubt smiling down proudly on his granddaughter.

The walls of Shann Cox's section of the barn are both an homage and an inspiration, lined with photos and racing artifacts, some of which pre-date her birth, that give her pause each morning she walks the shedrow.

"I have all of my grandfather's gear – his bike, his cart, and a ton of pictures hanging up in the barn, including ones of him in his uniform,” said Cox. “I feel a connection with him whenever I am at the track. It’s very special.”

Ratchford, who passed away on June 11, 2024, is a Maritimes standardbred legend.

His harness racing career began at 16 when he bought his first horse. He had stables throughout Nova Scotia, Ontario, and the U.S., from Foxboro to Pompano. He recorded 1,300 driving wins. Among his career highlights were victories in the Governor’s Plate in 1970 and the Maritime Breeders Dairy Queen Race in 1990 with Charlottes Buddy, as well as a 1970 appearance in The Gold Cup and Saucer with Opal Creed. His 2- and 3-year-old colts and fillies won several Atlantic Sires Stakes races and Ontario Sires Stakes races.

Ratchford’s biggest racing success was his stallion, Century Farroh, who won the Breeders Crown and the North America Cup consolation, along with other marquee races, and received three O’Brien Awards in 2019 and 2020.

He also served as director of the Maritime Breeders Association and The Northside Horseman’s Association and was inducted into the Northside and Cape Breton Sports Hall of Fame.

For Cox, he was much more than a respected and revered horseman.

“My grandfather was heavily involved in horse racing and my mom [Karen] was in it as well,” Cox said. “I was busy earlier on in my life with hockey and I also had a barrel horse, so I was focused on other things at that time.

“When I was in high school — it was during COVID, so my classes were online — I would come to the barn a ton with my grandfather. That’s where it all really started for me.”

about the idea of purchasing a racehorse for months prior, saw that dream become a reality when they welcomed veteran pacer Daddys Eyes into their world.

"I was in my fourth year of university, doing my biology degree, and my mom and I were kind of looking for a racehorse to have as our own," Cox said. "We didn't have a lot of time to commit to that. Rachel MacDonald, who is from Truro [NS], reached out because she knew we were looking and mentioned she had a horse we could have – not to buy, but to lease – because she was looking for a spot for him to race.

"So, we took him home. He was an 8-year-old stud... so that was my first racehorse. We wondered what we had gotten ourselves into."

Those doubts were then heightened when her grandfather became seriously ill.

Cox found hope through the daily presence of Daddys Eyes.

"My grandfather came back to the track and helped me out with this horse," Cox said. "To have that time together, seeing my grandfather so happy, was amazing."

Daddys Eyes gave them reasons to smile beyond his stall.

On May 11, 2024, Daddys Eyes won at Northside Downs, a half-mile oval in North Sydney, NS.

The horse who had once posted 2-minute miles was now picking up speed and wins.

"He raced phenomenally well the first year we had him," Cox said. "He went from not racing at all to racing in 1:57 and racing phenomenally well. He had a lot of wins that summer... it was unbelievable."

One of the last conversations Cox had with her grandfather was about Daddys Eyes.

"On the day he passed away at the hospital, we were going to scratch the horse from racing that Saturday," she said. "He told us, 'You're crazy if you scratch him!'"

Cox and her family honored Ratchford's request.

"We ended up doing his funeral service on Saturday morning and then went to the racetrack – there were more than 20 of us – to watch Daddys Eyes," Cox said.

A second-place finish felt like a Breeders Crown triumph.

"It was the worst day and the best day, if that is understandable," Cox said. "Daddys Eyes was horse of the month that June, so that will be something I will always remember.

The story of Daddys Eyes does not end there.

On Christmas Day, 2024, Cox received an unexpected present from Rachel MacDonald, one that didn't require ornate wrapping or a fancy bow, but very much felt as though it did.

MacDonald transferred ownership of Daddys Eyes to Cox.

In August 2025, the horse with a few white hairs on his forehead won the third race at Northside Downs, with Cox as the trainer.

"I'm not sure I have the words for what that win means," Cox said.

Fast-forward to the present and Cox is still a steady presence at the racetrack and in the barn.

Life remains busy for her, inside and outside of harness racing.

"My mom and her sisters own Century Farroh," Cox said. "My mom and I also have a filly out of him, called LD N Me. My grandfather bred the filly and he owned the broodmare, Yes You Can. We decided to name LD N Me after my grandfather and grandmother. Right now, I have three horses at home, and I am still running my grandfather's barn."

She is doing all of that while also attending medical school.

"I am able to stay home and keep the stable running," said Cox, who also coaches a girls' hockey team based in Nova Scotia and competes in barrel-racing competitions with her own horse. "LD N Me raced in Ontario this year. We are going to turn her out in September and hopefully, she can make it back there to race next season, under the care of Tyler Moore. If not, we are more than happy to race her at Northside Downs out here. I'll start training her back in January and February, and we will see where it leads to."

Cox does it all sporting a familiar look.

"I have my grandfather's colors on, keeping the Ratchford legacy going," Cox said. "They are green, black, and white. On his birthday, he gave me his old racing uniform. He said, 'I am passing over the reins to you.'"

She has no intention of letting them go.

"Racing and standardbreds will always be a part of me," she said. "No matter what time the alarm goes off, I wake up happy and can't wait to get to the barn."

"My grandfather would always say, 'When you are riding high, enjoy it, because it won't last very long.' There will always be ups and downs in racing, but the good times are about the best feeling you can have. I always remind myself of that."

It is rather fitting that Cox is walking Daddys Eyes when she answers the phone on a rainy Nova Scotia morning.

Neither is in a hurry to head back to the barn.

"He's 11 now," she said. "If he doesn't want to race, then he won't. We are just grateful for who he is and what he means to us."

Betting Pacer joins MGM Yonkers International Trot field

by Yonkers Raceway media

The work of international recruiter Klaus Koch is now complete as Betting Pacer is officially the final horse from Europe that will compete in the MGM Yonkers International Trot on Sept. 12. The 9-year-old, with the odd name for a trotter due to a pacing pedigree a few generations back, will make her U.S. debut in the Grade 1 event with a $1,000,000 purse.

Betting Pacer is coming off a victory in the Grade I European championship for mares at Solvalla on Aug. 19. It was her fourth win in 12 starts this year for trainer/driver Björn Goop.

"I think she's at the peak of her career at the moment," said Goop, who added that the return to racing barefoot has made a big difference. "She raced barefoot as a 4-year-old but she couldn't do it anymore. This year she started racing barefoot again."

Owned by Mbg I Sydost AB, Betting Pacer has won 20 of 88 lifetime starts. The 9-year-old has competed mostly at shorter distances and should be well-suited for the Yonkers surface.

"She took a world record in a long-distance race on a half-mile track a couple of years ago," said Goop. "She gets along very well on the half-mile tracks and handles the turns very well."

Goop is no stranger to the MGM Yonkers International Trot, having competed in the race several times, including finishing second in 2015 edition with Timoko. He is excited about returning to the U.S. to take part in the race.

"It would mean a lot [to win]," said Goop. "It is always a dream come true to come to the States to race, especially with one of the horses I train. It is also a dream come true for my owner. Directly after the last race they were talking about it."

Seven horses have now officially accepted invitations to the MGM Yonkers International Trot. They include (in alphabetical order with expected driver, and country of origin in parenthesis):

Ohio SIRE STAKES REPORT

Chip Shot, Rose Run Brooke win in fifth leg of OHSS for sophomore filly trotters

by Wes Mayberry / Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association

Chip Shot and Rose Run Brooke won the two $75,000 divisions of the fifth leg of the Ohio Sires Stakes for sophomore filly trotters on Wednesday (Aug. 26) at Northfield Park Racino.

The victories were the second OHSS wins of the season for both horses.

Chip Shot (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) recorded the fastest mile of the two races, taking the second division in a lifetime-best 1:54.2. Sarah's Mission (Chris Page) led at the first three calls in :27.4, Wrenn, Jr. and Beachy also teamed to win the first division with Rose Run Brooke. It was a gate-to-wire victory for the In Range filly, who recorded fractions of :28.2, :57.3, and 1:26.4 en route to winning by a half-length over Fairytale Moni (Chris Lems) in 1:55.2. Charlotte Elise (Tyler Smith) was third. Rose Run Brooke is owned by First Up Racing Stable. She has six wins in 19 career starts while banking $314,579.

2-YEAR-OLD FILLY TROTTERS SHINE AT SCIOTO DOWNS

Secrets Ilia got back to her winning ways on Tuesday (Aug. 25) in Ohio Sires Stakes action for 2-year-old filly trotters at Eldorado Scioto Downs, setting a new lifetime mark of 1:53.4.

Brett Miller got Secrets Ilia away third off the gate while Missredwhitenblue (Austin Hanners) took the field to the :27.3 opening quarter. Going into the second turn, Secrets Ilia pulled first up as the leader tripped the half-mile beam in :56. Midway down the backside, Secrets Ilia took the field past the 1:25.3 third-quarter. Coming home in :28.1, Secrets Ilia won by a-length-and-a-half over Made For More (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.); Shinie T (Aaron Merriman) was third.

It was the fourth win in six lifetime starts for Secrets Ilia, a daughter of Long Tom out of the CJ's Secret mare CJ's Super Secret. A $28,000 Buckeye Classic Yearling Sale purchase from breeder Mose Yoder, Secrets Ilia now has $118,750 earned for trainer Micah Miller and owners Wayne Mast, Jr. and Callam Racing.

The other division was won by Blue Ranger, a full sister to runner-up Hambletonian contender Big Ranger, in 1:54.1.

Rose Run Cybill (Kurt Sugg) took the field to the :27.3 opening quarter but Envious Queen (David Miller) quickly took over and sent the field towards the :56.3 half. Blue Ranger (Wrenn, Jr.) sat in fourth until the field straightened out on the backside when the filly came first up. Just off the leader's wheel as Envious Queen got to the third-quarter in 1:25.1, Blue Ranger posted a :28.3 to win by a-length-and-a-half under a hand drive. Rose Run Cybill came up the passing lane to be second with Envious Queen third.

It was the maiden victory in three starts for Blue Ranger who comes from the Marcus Melander barn for owner Bender Sweden. A $210,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from Spring Haven Farm, Blue Ranger, by In Range out of the Tactical Landing mare Big Blue Bird, now has $43,500 in earnings.

The 91-day 2026 Eldorado Scioto Downs regular season runs through Saturday (Sept. 19). Races are held Tuesdays and Thursdays through Saturdays, with a special holiday card on Labor Day instead of the Tuesday card that week and no live racing on Friday (Sept. 18) to accommodate horsemen attending the Ohio Selected Yearling Sale. The track will then re-open for the Breeders Crown, with eliminations held Oct. 16-17 and the finals Oct. 23-24. New York

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Jula Florence trips-out to NYSS victory at Batavia Downs

by Tim Bojarski for Batavia Downs

Jula Florence (Chapter Seven—Jula Shes Magic) sat a perfect pocket trip before striking late to score a narrow victory in the $110,200 New York Sire Stake for 2-year-old trotting fillies at Batavia Downs on Wednesday (Aug. 26) night.

Seveallisto (Leon Bailey) and Jula Florence (Tyler Miller) both left from mid-pack and lined up one-two in front of a full field of fillies who trotted to the quarter in :28.2. Seveallisto continued to dictate the fractions at the half when Anabella (Brett Beckwith) came calling first-over on the outside and drew alongside Jula Florence, and both just a length behind the leader.

Seveallisto led the girls through turn four where Anabella tailed off, affording Jula Florence room to tip off-cover at the top of the stretch. From there, Jula Florence trotted hard to make up over 1½ lengths, catch Seveallisto, and forge ahead late by a neck to win in 1:58.2.

It was the third win of the year, all in NYSS action, for Jula Florence ($4.48), who is owned by Andy Miller Stable, Windsong Stable, and Dumain Haven Farm and trained by Julie Miller. Jula Racing was the winning breeder.

There were also two $20,000 NYSS Excelsior Series races on the card.

The first was won by Solar Queen (Met's Hall—Supreme Seven, 2:00.3, $4.74 - Matt Kakaley/Rob Harmon) who is owned by Go For Glory Stable and Matthew Lamont and bred by Winbak Farm.

Wendy J. Lowery

Jula Florence (Tyler Miller) winning her New York Sire Stakes event for 2-year-old trotting fillies on Wednesday at Batavia Downs.

The second went to Native Pride (Chapter Seven—Oh My Goodness, 1:59.3, $2.44 - Jeff Gregory/George Ducharme) who is owned by FTM Racing Stable and bred by Blue Chip Bloodstock.

LAUREN'S CHAPTER, MY PHILOMENE GRAB NYSS VICTORIES AT YONKERS

Three-year-old trotting fillies were featured in a pair of New York Sire Stakes races on Tuesday night (Aug. 25) at MGM Yonkers Raceway, and the winners were Lauren's Chapter and My Philomene.

In the first $81,000 division, Flying Copper, driven by Ake Svanstedt, led to the quarter in :28.4 and the half in :59.1 before 1-9 favorite Lauren's Chapter (Jordan Stratton) wheeled first-over out of third. Lauren's Chapter advanced to battle with Flying Copper on the way to the 1:28.2 three-quarters, and their duel continued around the final bend before Lauren's Chapter put away Flying Copper in the stretch en route to a two-length triumph in 1:57.3. B Eyelash (Dan Dube) was up for second, followed by Julia Hot To Chill (Matt Kakaley).

Noel Daley trains Lauren's Chapter, a daughter of Chapter Seven bred by Little E LLC and Andy Miller Stable Inc, for owners Patricia Stables LLC, Allister Stables LLC, Caviart Farms, and Sjoblom Racing & M. Dolan. Lauren's Chapter has four wins, two seconds, and three thirds from 18 career starts, has earned $203,894, and paid $2.34 to win. The exacta was worth $19.92 and there was no trifecta wagering available.

My Philomene (Trond Smedshammer) got to the front before the :27.3 quarter in the other $82,500 section, then yielded to Storybook Love (Todd Ratchford) after that marker. Storybook Love continued on the engine in middle-half fractions of :56.4 and 1:26.2 as Who Dares Wins (Svanstedt) made steady progress after she tipped out first-up from third. Late on the final bend, Storybook Love and Who Dares Wins made contact and both went off-stride — as Chant (Tyler Buter) and Sharp Seven (Jason Bartlett) did earlier in the mile — which allowed My Philomene to cruise to a 9¾ length victory in 1:55.3. Storybook Love was the runner-up and Who Dares Wins checked in third.

Also by Chapter Seven, My Philomene is trained by Smedshammer for owner Melady Enterprises LLC. My Philomene has a summary of 3-0-0 from nine efforts, has put away $82,582, and returned $19.16 to win as the second-longest price on the board at 8-1. She keyed a $57.38 exacta and a $92.36 trifecta.

One $20,000 New York Excelsior Series event was also held as a non-bettor and was won by Myths And Legends (by Chapter Seven and bred by Order By Stable Ab) from second-over in 1:57.3 for driver Matt Kakaley, trainer Marcus Melander and owner S R F Stable.

MGM Yonkers Raceway is currently operating on a Monday/Tuesday and Thursday through Saturday live racing schedule with post time at 6:45 p.m. (EDT) except on Saturday when it is 3:30 p.m. (EDT).

Wall Of Fame (Andy Miller) winning the $80,000 Kentucky Championship Series third preliminary for 2-year-old trotting fillies on Wednesday at The Red Mile.

Wall Of Fame coasts in Kentucky Championship Series

by Ray Cotoledo for The Red Mile

The Walner–Saadet filly Wall Of Fame upped her unbeaten record to six with a 1:52.4 stroll in the $80,000 Kentucky Championship Series third preliminary for 2-year-old trotting fillies on Wednesday afternoon (Aug. 26) at The Red Mile.

Sent off as the 1-9 favorite, Wall Of Fame brushed towards the top through a :30.2 first quarter to grab control from Heart Of Secret (driven by Yannick Gingras) on the backstretch. Wall

Of Fame strode past a :58.2 half and gradually accelerated into the final half. She clocked three-quarters in 1:26.3 and hustled for the finish while peeling 6½ lengths clear of Heart Of Secret to win in hand. Fleur Delacour (Dexter Dunn) gave chase in third with Sweetest Of All (Scott Zeron) fourth and Maga Aintgongreen (Marvin Luna), who broke stride at the quarter, checking in last.

Julie Miller trains Wall Of Fame, a $60,000 purchase at the 2025 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale, for owners Andy Miller Stable Inc, Jean Goehlen, Hutchison Harness LLC, and Rick Huffman. She's now banked $230,000 in her career and paid $2.18 to win.

Wednesday's 15-race card also featured three $30,000 divisions of the Kentucky Commonwealth Series for 2-year-old trotting fillies. After the first division was declared a no contest when the wings of the starting gate failed to close at the beginning of the race, Hanna Hill (Andy McCarthy, 1:55.2 winning mile; $6.16 to win) rallied from a stalking trip to land a nose blow on first-up A Tale Of Kemp (Luna) to win the second division. Sabia (Zeron, 1:54.4; $3.92) won in the following division when popping from a pocket trip to score by two lengths over Luxe Lindy (Andy Miller) and tempo-setter Jot It Down (Dunn). Petter Engblom trains Hanna Hill, a Gimpanzee filly out of stakes-winner Caprice Hill, and Marcus Melander trains Sabia, a daughter of Gimpanzee—Bellareina Dolce.

Live harness racing at The Red Mile resumes Sunday (Aug. 30) with a 16-race card headlined by the $80,000 Kentucky Championship Series third preliminary for 3-year-old trotting fillies. Sunday will also feature the $80,000 Kentucky Championship Series third preliminary for 3-year-old pacing males as a non-wagering race before the pari-mutuel card. First-race post time is 5:05 p.m. (EDT).

GOODWALKSPOILED UPSETS IN KENTUCKY CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Pebble Beach filly Goodwalkspoiled played the role of spoiler when she converted a pocket ride off fast fractions in an attritional stretch drive to score a 1:51 victory in the $80,000 Kentucky Championship Series third preliminary for 2-year-old pacing fillies on Tuesday afternoon (Aug. 25) at The Red Mile.

Driver Kyle Husted pushed from the pylon post with Goodwalkspoiled to take the lead into a :27.1 first quarter, but relinquished control up the backstretch as 9-5 favorite My Taylors Swift (driven by Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) marched out of fourth to snag the top. My Taylors Swift cleared command to a :53.4 half and rolled steadily through the last turn to clock three-quarters in 1:21.4, at which point Jk Simcha (Yannick Gingras) loomed first up on the rim and prompted Husted to angle from the pocket for the stretch drive. Goodwalkspoiled set her sights on My Taylors Swift and dug into that weary leader as they drifted through the stretch in an eight-wide charge to the line. Husted successfully landed the winning blow in the final strides to edge to a half-length victory over My Taylors Swift while 42-1 shot Carly Shay (Scott Zeron) weaved through traffic to zip up an inside seam for third and Jk Simcha stayed on in fourth.

Amy Husted trains Goodwalkspoiled, a filly out of the Shadow Play mare Play Nice, for owners Husted Racing LLC and John Schwarz, Jr. The filly, a $27,000 purchase as a yearling at the 2025 Midwest Standardbred Sale, collected her third win from four starts and has now banked $70,000 in her career. She paid $34.72 to win.

The Red Mile also hosted $35,000 divisions of Kentucky Sire Stakes for trotting 4-year-olds of each sex. R Dutchess (Tim Tetrick) swept to the lead past a :28.4 first quarter and cut a quick clip of :55.2 and 1:22.3 to notch a lifetime-best 1:50.2 win over pocket-chaser Winnpanzee (Gingras) in the dash for trotting mares. Gimpanzee Dancer (Andy McCarthy) won the division for trotting males after following tempo-setter Whiskey Wow (Todd McCarthy) through splits of :28, :55, and 1:23.1 to pounce and roll under wraps for a 1:50.4 win by three lengths. John Butenschoen trains R Dutchess, a mare by Father Patrick—The Ice Dutchess with 10 wins from 38 starts and $671,070 earned, for lessees

M&L of Delaware and Armitage Farm. Chris Beaver conditions Gimpanzee Dancer, a Gimpanzee—Weslynn Dancer stallion with 14 wins from 43 starts and $654,467 earned, and co-owns him with Carolina Ortiz Acosta and Derek Ivany. Both won as the odds-on favorite in their respective divisions with R Dutchess paying $3.32 to win and Gimpanzee Dancer returning $2.80.

Haven (Andy McCarthy, 1:51.3 winning mile; $33.06 to win) topped the pair of $30,000 Kentucky Commonwealth Series divisions when she ground uncovered after leader Sister Girl Blues (Dexter Dunn) in the last turn and then held off pocket-rallying Sweet As Silk (Todd McCarthy) to win by a neck. Lindy Believer (Gingras, 1:51.4; $28.36) ripped from a second-over trip to upset in the other division by a half-length, collaring pacesetter Holy (Dunn) at the line with first-up Ryan Station (Atlee Bender) giving chase in third.

Noah Stanley of Buckinghamshire, England scored his first U.S. training win during the Tuesday card at The Red Mile. Stanley sent Whispering Angel, driven by his son Noah Stanley, Jr., to the track and scored a 1:55.1 victory bolting from last to first over the top of the field. The win was also the first stateside this year for Stanley, Jr., who debuted in America at Oak Grove in 2025 and won a total of three races from 13 drives before heading back to England.

Indiana SIRE STAKES REPORT

Fantastic fillies headline INSS action Wednesday at Hoosier

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Indiana Sires Stakes action returned to Harrah's Hoosier Park on Wednesday (Aug. 26) with 2-year-old pacing fillies and 3-year-old trotting fillies stepping into the spotlight during the 14-race card. Fitterjake and Owleo's Pride delivered in the rookie pacing fillies division, with For Dayze and Fresh Face Yankee each cruising as the heavy favorites in the sophomore filly trot splits.

Entering the night unblemished and off a track record equaling performance in her last, Fitterjake and driver Anthony Miller kicked off the stakes action in the first of two $65,500 divisions for pacing fillies for trainer Aaron Stutzman.

Slotted into post 2, Fitterjake settled in third behind Kountry Legacy (Trace Tetrick), while Ponda Era (Travis Seekman) shot off the wings to the lead at the first turn in :27. The field remained unchanged with Ponda Era tipping the halfway mark in :55. The seven-horse field tightened as they approached the turn with Fantastech (Marcus Miller) growing in confidence on the outside. Kountry Legacy took the opportunity to strike at the leader as Fitterjake shadowed her around the final turn. Ponda Era narrowly held the lead at the three-quarter pole in 1:24.1. Kountry Legacy advanced past Ponda Era as Fitterjake loomed in pursuit of Kountry Legacy. Down the stretch, Fitterjake took aim as she blasted past the leader through the wire in 1:51 by three-quarters-of-a-length. Kountry Legacy cemented second, while Callie Rocks (Kevin Detweiler) and JK's Fast (John De Long) finished in a dead heat in third.

The JK Endofanera—For Sharks Sake filly, Fitterjake is owned and bred by James Miller. The win marked Fitterjake's fourth consecutive trip to the winner's circle to start her career. Fitterjake boosted her career earnings to $103,250.

Setting the standard early, Owleo's Pride driven by Trace Tetrick for trainer Ricky Macomber, Jr. iced out the second field of rookie fillies for her first Sires Stakes score.

Out of the gate from post 5, Owleo's Pride rode the conveyer belt behind Chancey Lucre (Atlee Bender) and Mystical Jk (Kyle Wilfong) early. Chancey Lucre snagged a contested lead at the first turn in :27 with Owleo's Pride racing to her outside before taking charge moving onto the backstretch. The field was spread out on the backstretch as Owleo's Pride soared through the middle fractions, hitting the half mile mark in :54.1. Alexis It Is (Anthony Miller) powered along the outside, trying to go first over on the leader from third. Owleo's Pride held firm at three-quarters in a blistering 1:21.4. Strong on the lead despite the hot pace, Owleo's Pride found the wire just in time as a late charge by Mystical Jk just missed the leader as Owleo's Pride drove through the finish in 1:49.4 by a neck. Mystical Jk fired into second, while Era Dominance (David Miller) claimed the show spot.

Owleo's Pride took a new lifetime mark for her second victory on the season, her lifetime earnings climbing to $80,800 in the process. The JK Endofanera—Mcflirty filly is owned by Jamie Macomber along with breeder James Stonecipher.

Making up for the mid-card cancelation last Wednesday, 3-year-old trotting fillies were also in action for round six of Indiana Sires Stakes with the heavy favorites delivering in their respective divisions.

For Dayze kicked it off in the $49,000 first division, scoring as the 1-9 favorite leaving from post 5 in the field of seven. For Dayze floated away early, securing a spot in fourth while For Heaven's Sake (Brandon Bates) swept to the lead from the outside through a :28 first quarter. Omg Am I Ok (Kyle Wilfong) brushed to the lead from third, taking command before the half in :56.3 when For Dayze left the cones. For Dayze drove into second on the rim, tracked every step by Magic's Delight while Omg Am I Ok tripped the timer at three-quarters in 1:26. Turning for home, For Dayze quickly put away Omg Am I Ok, facing one final lunge by Magic's Delight who came up three-parts-of-a-length shy of the favorite who stopped the clock in 1:53.4. Dial Nine One One (Marcus Miller) shook loose late between fillies to rally for third.

Roger Welch trains For Dayze, who has won three straight and five of seven on the season for owners William and Patrick De Long. Bred by Ernie Lambright, the daughter of Swan For All—Southwind Storm has banked $388,960 lifetime following her 11th career victory.

In the $48,500 second division, Fresh Face Yankee rebounded from her first defeat of the season in her last try with a dominant score from the outside post 6.

With trainer Jay Cross in the sulky, Fresh Face Yankee found herself on the outside in fourth behind the dueling Help Cum Laude (Atlee Bender) and Bluebird Kazoom (Jordan Ross) to the first quarter in :27.4. Bluebird Kazoom crossed over to the lead on the backstretch, with Fresh Face Yankee applying immediate pressure and taking over at the half in :56. Seeing the pylons for the first time entering the final turn, Fresh Face Yankee opened up a two-length advantage at three-quarters in 1:24.4. With a motionless Cross in the bike, Fresh Face Yankee cruised by a measured 1¾ lengths to score in 1:53 over Bluebird Kazoom, while Make It Spicy (Trace Tetrick) rallied from last to be third.

A winner in six of seven this season, Fresh Face Yankee has earned $133,125 this season for owner Tim Smith. The $5,000 bargain buy at the 2024 Midwest Classic Yearling Sale was bred by Fashion Hill Farms, with the daughter of Crescent Fashion—Swan Yankee sporting a career bankroll of $174,335.

Maryland SIRE STAKES REPORT

Nobody Knows It dominates again in MDSS

by Maryland Standardbred Race Fund

The road to the Maryland Sire Stakes championships came into sharper focus Wednesday evening (Aug. 26) at Ocean Downs, as the 2-year-old pacing and trotting fillies contested their second and final preliminary leg ahead of the lucrative finals on Sunday (Sept. 6).

Three $10,000 Maryland Sire Stakes events highlighted Wednesday's program, with All That Rusty and R U Kidding taking the two pacing divisions while Nobody Knows It delivered the most commanding performance of the evening in the filly trot.

The freshman fillies will now have their sights set on Sept. 6, when the Maryland Sire Stakes 2-year-old championships take center stage at Ocean Downs with finals worth $100,000 each.

ALL THAT RUSTY HOLDS ON IN 1:59

All That Rusty opened the stakes action with a determined front-end victory in the first pacing division, holding off a fast-closing Sweet Cougar by a half-length in 1:59.

Sent off at overwhelming 1-20 odds, All That Rusty and driver Anthony Morgan wasted little time establishing control from the rail. The daughter of Rusty's For Real—Allthatjazz De Vie led by two lengths at the opening quarter in :28.4 and continued to dictate the pace through a half in :59 and three-quarters in 1:29.1.

All That Rusty carried a 1½-length advantage into the stretch, but Sweet Cougar was rapidly closing the gap.

After sitting fifth and more than 11 lengths behind at the half, Sweet Cougar began advancing on the outside and moved into second entering the stretch. The 62-1 longshot paced her final quarter in :29 flat and continued gaining with every stride, but All That Rusty dug in to preserve the victory by a half-length.

Both fillies were timed in 1:59.

Smokeys Delight finished third in 2:00.2, followed by Aintshepeachy and Pure Energy.

All That Rusty is trained by Herman Hagerman for Hagerman Racing.

R U KIDDING FIGHTS BACK TO TAKE SECOND SPLIT

The second pacing division produced an even tighter finish as R U Kidding fought back after briefly surrendering the lead in the stretch to defeat Dapper Dudette by a neck in 2:00.

Owner/trainer/driver Jared Moyer sent R U Kidding directly to the front from post 3, where the daughter of More The Better N—Really A Virgin established fractions of :29.1, :59.4, and 1:30.

The pressure intensified on the backstretch when Dapper Dudette and driver William Carter launched a first-over challenge from fourth.

Dapper Dudette quickly erased her deficit and was alongside R U Kidding at three-quarters. The two fillies continued their battle around the final turn, with Dapper Dudette putting her nose in front in the stretch.

R U Kidding wasn't finished.

Moyer's filly battled back along the inside, regained the advantage in the closing strides and reached the wire a neck in front. Both fillies were timed in 2:00 after matching :30 final quarters.

Bet Mia Dollar, sent off at 36-1, rallied to finish third in 2:00.1 after pacing her final quarter in :29.4.

Odds-on favorite If I Win Uwin also turned in a solid closing effort. Sitting sixth and eight lengths behind at the half, she paced her final quarter in :29.3 to finish fourth, only 1¾ lengths behind the winner.

R U Kidding is owned by Kayla Moyer and was bred by Jerry Zollo.

NOBODY KNOWS IT LEAVES NO DOUBT

If the two pacing divisions provided drama at the wire, Nobody Knows It made certain there would be no such suspense in the evening's $10,000 filly trot.

The Richard Hans owned and bred trainee simply overwhelmed her competition.

Sent off at 1-20 with Corey Callahan in the bike, Nobody Knows It shot immediately to the front from post 2 and quickly separated herself from the field.

The daughter of Betting Gangster S—Goo Luck Charm was already seven lengths clear at the opening quarter in :29.2.

Her advantage continued to grow.

Nobody Knows It reached the half in :59.2 with a 10-length lead and passed three-quarters in 1:29.3 15 lengths in front.

With the outcome never seriously in doubt, Callahan guided the talented freshman through a :28.4 final quarter, stopping the timer in 1:58.2 and winning by 9¾ lengths.

That's It For You turned in an impressive performance of her own to finish second and to give trainer Hans a one-two finish.

The Russell Foster-driven filly was sixth and 19 lengths behind at the opening quarter before beginning to work her way forward. She was still 18½ lengths behind Nobody Knows It at the half, but unleashed a powerful late rally and trotted her final quarter in a remarkable :27.3.

Nobody Knows It is owned, trained, and bred by Hans.

CHAMPIONSHIP NIGHT AWAITS

With the preliminary rounds now complete for both the freshman males and females, attention turns to Sunday (Sept. 6), when Ocean Downs will host the Maryland Sire Stakes 2-year-old finals. Each final will carry a purse of $100,000.

HARNESS RACING PRESS RELEASES, NOTES & ANNOUNCEMENTS

Muscle Hill retired

Southwind Farms and the Muscle Hill Syndicate have announced that champion sire

Muscle Hill has been retired from stallion service.

A foal of 2006, Muscle Hill dominated on the track, winning 20 of 21 starts and $3,273,342, including the 2009 Hambletonian in a record 1:50.1.

At stud, Muscle Hill has sired the winners of over $126,000,000 in North America, including 17 millionaires, led by Triple Crown winner Marion Marauder, 1:50.2 ($3,392,609), and champion mare Manchego, 4, 1:49 ($3,144,777), as well as numerous champions in Europe and the Southern Hemisphere.

Muscle Hill's impact on the trotting breed will be carried on by his numerous sons and daughters.

The Syndicate would like to thank all of the shareholders and breeders who have bred to Muscle Hill throughout the years.

Road to the 2027 Oak Grove Trotting Derby and Oaks kicks off

The Road to the 2027 $500,000 Oak Grove Trotting Derby and $300,000 Oak Grove Trotting Oaks is officially underway. The first two "Win and You're In" automatic qualifying races were contested on Hambletonian Day at The Meadowlands, where Lifetime Dreamer captured the New Jersey Sire Stakes championship for 2-year-old trotting colts and Wall Of Fame secured victory in the filly division. Action continues this weekend at Woodbine Mohawk Raceway in Toronto, ON, featuring the Grade 1 William Wellwood and Peaceful Way stakes.

The "Road to..." series was established to reward top two-year-old trotting performances and enrich Oak Grove's premier events. A series of designated Grand Circuit and Sire Stakes races serve as automatic qualifying events to the Derby and Oaks eliminations.

The kickoff of the Road to the 2027 Oak Grove Trotting Derby and Oaks comes on the heels of an exceptionally successful inaugural year where Spencer Hanover was crowned champion of the Derby and Jailbird Jog was victorious in the Oaks. Established as the premier kickoff to the elite trotting season and the richest preps for the Hambletonian and Hambletonian Oaks, the 2026 events featured 101 nominations and 46 elimination entries participating. Thirteen graduates of the Oak Grove Derby and Oaks competed in the Hambletonian eliminations, with four securing spots in the Hambletonian final and three reaching the Hambletonian Oaks final, representing over one-third of the championship fields.

Wagering and purses, the two driving forces of the sport, ignited the excitement around the five-race card 2026 Festival of Racing. Bettors wagered in excess of $2.5 million, anchored by a track-record single-day handle of $873,181 on Derby and Oaks eliminations Monday. The 2026 Festival of Racing featured over $2.75M in purses with $1.5M in purses awarded on Oak Grove Derby Day.

The 2027 Festival of Racing will kick off on May 3 following Kentucky Derby weekend with an anticipated record number of horses racing in the eliminations. For 2027, 559 2-year-old trotters (277 colts and 282 fillies) have nominated into the events.

2027 Oak Grove Derby Day is scheduled for May 15, 2027.

Meadowlands 2026 Horseplay Car Giveaway benefits fans and charities

David Gribb of Succasunna, NJ, walked away with a 2026 Toyota Camry LE Hybrid as the grand prize winner of The Meadowlands' Horseplay promotion.

Gribb, a loyal Meadowlands customer, has participated in Horseplay since its inception.

"I love coming here and hanging out with everybody," Gribb said after his name was drawn. "This is great. Thank you to The Meadowlands for giving the car out." For every horse that made it into the Horseplay car, The Meadowlands donated $5 to the designated monthly charity. For the 2026 season, $4,380 was donated to three charities.

The May donation recipient was the Fighting H.A.R.D Foundation, which received $1,390. This 501(c)(3) foundation's mission is to help those with rare diseases and chronic illnesses by providing emotional, physical, and financial support to children and their families.

Trot-Trot Standardbreds was the June Horseplay recipient, receiving $910. This 501(c)(3) charity is dedicated to retraining, adopting, and promoting standardbreds in second careers.

HorseSense NJ was the July/August charity recipient, enhancing the overall well-being of children, teens, and adults with a wide range of physical, mental, and emotional challenges through equine-assisted therapeutic riding programs. HorseSense received $2,080 from The Meadowlands.

Since 2015, Meadowlands Racing & Entertainment has donated over $80,000 to local charities through Horseplay.

OHHA hosting variety of fun events at Scioto Downs

The Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association is hosting a bevy of fun events for all ages at Eldorado Scioto Downs today and Saturday (Aug. 28-29).

The OHHA is hosting Charity Night tonight. Ten participating local charities will be randomly paired with a horse in a designated race of that night's card and will receive a financial donation amount corresponding to how well their horse finishes in the race. The charity paired with the first-place finisher will receive $10,000, while second and third place will receive $5,000 and $3,000, respectively. All other charities will receive a $2,000 donation from the OHHA for participating.

Saturday's festivities include a TV and Tickets giveaway and Youth Night.

Great prizes will be up for grabs in the TV and Tickets giveaway. The five grand prizes include tickets to a major college football game, 55-inch television, Roku stick, and a one-month subscription to Racetrack Television Network. The contest is free to enter and open to anyone ages 18 years and older. No purchase is required, but participants must be present to win. Entry forms will be available at the OHHA table. There is a limit of one entry per person, and each entry is limited to one prize. Participants will be selected randomly from the entry drum before each of the five designated giveaway races. The number of participants will be based on the number of horses in each giveaway race. Those selected will draw an envelope that will have the name of a horse for the corresponding race. If that horse wins, the contestant will win the prize package.

The Youth Night gathering, held from 5:30-9 p.m., welcomes kids to participate in paddock tours and horseshoe decorating while getting immersed in the exciting world of harness racing. Current OHHA youth members who bring their membership ID will receive a free T-shirt.

Both tonight and Saturday will also feature a special appearance by Queenie, the Shetland pony travel companion to 3-year-old filly pacer and Ohio Sires Stakes competitor Rhodena Blue. Owned by Canadian horseman Neil MacInnis and his daughter, Rory, Queenie will be available to “hoof-o-graph” copies of a commemorative book about her friendship with Rhodena Blue, who currently sits ninth in the OHSS standings and is scheduled to compete in race 8 tonight with a projected post time of 8:30 p.m. Queenie will be in the grandstand from 5:30-6:30 p.m. tonight and 5:30-7:30 p.m. on Saturday.

First-race post time for the 16-race cards at Scioto Downs tonight and Saturday is 5:25 p.m.

Live racing at Big M one night only

With a big crowd expected to be in attendance at MetLife Stadium to watch the New York Jets take on the New York Giants in a preseason National Football League game tonight (Aug. 28) night, The Meadowlands will not have live racing and will race only once this week, on Saturday (Aug. 29). Post time is 6:20 p.m.

Big M customers should also be aware that the track will close for simulcasting at 5 p.m. tonight.

“While we won’t be here with live racing on Friday, we will be back on Saturday,” said track chief operating officer/general manager Jason Settlemyer. “And we have plenty going on that night. We will have a big 15-race program where we will offer three Pick-5s and three Pick-4s. We are expecting good weather and hope everyone comes out to play the races and have some great food at our BBQ Extravaganza.”

Moving forward, The Meadowlands will have just two weeks of harness racing before taking a four-week break.

Harness racing will be conducted on Sept. 4, 5, 11, and 12.

Then, the “Monmouth at The Meadowlands” mini-meet will be conducted with nine nights of thoroughbred turf racing, which will be held on Sept. 18, 19, 25, and 26, and Oct. 2, 3, 9, 10, and 16. Post time is 7 p.m.

Harness racing will then return on Oct. 17.

After that, there will be harness racing on Friday and Saturday for the rest of October and throughout November.

December will see a three-day-a-week schedule for the first three weeks of the month, with live action on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday nights through the 19th. Then, after the 19th, there will be only one live harness card for the rest of the year, on the 26th.

The post time for all harness racing programs for the remainder of 2026 is 6:20 p.m.

SIMULCAST SHUTDOWN: Due to regular season National Football League action that will take place at MetLife Stadium, there will be no simulcasting offered at The Meadowlands on Sept. 13, 20, and 27.

HE SAID, SHE SAID: They won’t be revisiting their “Dueling Littles” schtick of the 1990s, but Dave and Debbie Little will make their return to the Sam McKee Memorial Broadcast Set on Saturday night on The Big M’s live simulcast show.

The presentation gets underway at 5:45 p.m.

Next month, the Littles will celebrate their 37th wedding anniversary, and many of those years together were spent writing about and handicapping the races at all area harness tracks (the duo also did plenty of thoroughbred handicapping as well) on the New York tabloid scene, where Dave spent 24 years at the New York Daily News, and Debbie, 27 years at the New York Post.

Debbie still has her foot very much in the harness racing door, currently serving as the associate editor and “Meadowlands Matters” columnist at Harness Racing Update.

Ken Warkentin will be in his usual spot at the top of the stands calling the action. Dave Little will handle winner’s circle interviews with winning connections of the featured events, which are a pair of $48,000 New Jersey Standardbred Development Fund finals for 3-year-olds on the trot.

A STELLAR MENU: The Meadowlands’ betting public is accustomed to the new $3 Late Pick-3 (races 13-15) and $5 Late Daily Double (14-15), but still go for the mile oval’s wagers that offer a low 15 per cent takeout.

These are the bets that offer that low takeout for Saturday’s 15-race program:

- Races 1-5: 20-cent Pick-5
- Races 3-9: 20-cent Survivor Pick-7
- Races 4-7: 50-cent Pick-4
- Races 6-10: 20-cent Pick-5

- Races 8-11: 50-cent Pick-4
- Race 9: 10-cent Pentafecta (Hi-5)
- Races 10-15: 20-cent Pick-6
- Races 11-15: 20-cent Pick-5
- Races 12-15: 50-cent Pick-4
- Race 15: 10-cent Pentafecta (Hi-5)

A MARVELOUS MENU: Saturday night will be a great one to come out to the track, as The Big M will present its BBQ Extravaganza.

Some of the best food trucks anywhere will be serving up some lip-smacking BBQ for everyone in attendance.

The event takes place from 5-11 p.m., so don't get shut out.

For those of you who think you make some great BBQ, you can compete for $2,500 in prize money.

Think you've got what it takes? Go here for complete information.

AN ANNIVERSARY MENU: The Meadowlands has been the top harness track in the sport since it opened, and if you come out on Saturday, Sept. 12, you can celebrate the 50th anniversary of the mile oval.

If you are one of the first 1,000 in attendance, you will receive a commemorative Meadowlands 50th Anniversary flask.

Throughout the evening, there will be video reels, interviews and more.

In addition, there will be concession specials at the Café, with $1 hot dogs, pretzels, popcorn, and soda, and $2 Bud and Bud Light drafts (for ages 21 and older).

The specials are available from 6-11 p.m. with a limit of five items per transaction.

It's a good night to be in the Players Club. Members can swipe their card at any self-service terminal for a chance to win up to $50.

A ROCK AND ROLL MENU: Hang out on the roof at The Big M on Saturday (Sept. 19) and enjoy the classic rock sounds of The Past Masters.

The show begins at 6 p.m., and there will be drink specials but absolutely no cover charge.

For complete information, go here.

GET YOUR FREE PROGRAMS: To show appreciation to its loyal fan base, The Meadowlands offers free program pages for every race of every race card on its website.

46th Annual Gateway Casino Charity Drivers Challenge to close out 2026 season at Clinton Raceway

Clinton Raceway will close out its 2026 live racing season on Sunday (Sept. 6), with one of its longest-standing traditions — the 46th Annual Gateway Casino Charity Drivers Challenge.

The popular season-ending event will bring together an impressive field of drivers, all competing for points and bragging rights while donating their driving fees to support the Royal Canadian Legion branches in Exeter, Seaforth, Clinton, and Hensall.

This year's field features four of Clinton Raceway's top dash-winning drivers: Lorne House, Brady Galliers, Paul MacKenzie, and National Driving Championship (NDC) champion Jody Jamieson. Joining them will be Nick Boyd, the leading driver from Kawartha Downs; 2025 Charity Drivers Challenge co-winner Travis Henry; Hanover Raceway's leading driver Jason Ryan; and top female driver Natasha Day.

"We couldn't ask for a better group of drivers to help us close out the season," said Jessica Carnochan, marketing manager at Clinton Raceway. "The Charity Drivers Challenge has become an important part of our season finale, bringing together some of the sport's best drivers while giving back to organizations that mean so much to our local communities."

A NEW TWIST: THE DRIVER DRAFT: For the first time, Clinton Raceway will put the drivers — rather than the horses — in control with a new draft format for the Challenge.

At the beginning of the call, Clinton Raceway will conduct a random draw to determine the order in which the drivers will make their selections.

Each driver, in draft order, will select one horse from each of the eight Challenge races. The selection process will take place race by race, beginning with the first Challenge race, followed by the second, third, and so on through the eighth and final race.

"This new format is expected to add another layer of strategy, excitement, and friendly competition as drivers weigh their choices and try to build the strongest possible lineup over the course of the afternoon," said Carnochan.

BE PART OF THE DRIVER'S CHALLENGE — CHALLENGE: The excitement will begin well before the first race, with gates opening at 11 a.m. for the season-ending matinee.

Fans can enjoy live entertainment, a driver meet and greet, and the chance to take part in the Driver's Challenge — Challenge.

One lucky fan will be paired with each of the eight Challenge drivers and will have the opportunity to earn cash based on their driver's performance, while the drivers compete to earn valuable Challenge points. It's a chance for fans to get in on the action and cheer on their driver from a whole new perspective.

Live harness racing gets underway at 1:30 p.m.

The 46th Annual Charity Drivers Challenge promises to be a fitting finale to Clinton Raceway's 2026 season — combining great racing, big personalities, a brand-new format and, most importantly, a day of giving back to the community.

Clinton Raceway's 2026 season finale takes place Sunday (Sept. 6). Gates open at 11:00 a.m., with live racing at 1:30 p.m.

BGRA Youth Contest entries due by Aug. 31

The Bill Galvin Racing Alliance would like to remind Ontario students that their stories, poems, sketches, and drawings for the Youth Literary Derby and Youth Art Derby are due by Monday (Aug. 31).

The Youth Literary Derby is for students in Grades 3-8, with junior (Grades 3-5) and intermediate (Grades 6-8) divisions. Students can write a poem or short story with a standardbred theme.

The Youth Art Derby, for Grades 3-12, has junior (Grades 3-5), intermediate (Grades 6-8) and senior divisions (Grades 9-12). Entries for the Art Derby should be a drawing, sketch or painting with a standardbred theme.

Division winners will receive a $250 prize, with $150 going to second, and $100 to third. The prize money is generously sponsored by Tom Rankin of St. Catharines, ON.

Finalists over the age of 12 will also receive Horse Behavior and Safety courses, courtesy of Equine Guelph.

Finalists will be invited to Woodbine Mohawk Park for an awards night where they will participate in behind-the-scenes activities, enjoy a meal, and receive their awards.

For full contest rules, please visit the Contests tab at bgracingalliance.ca.

VIP DAY 2026: On Sunday (Aug. 23), the Bill Galvin Racing Alliance hosted over 70 people that participated in a day of racing, experiences, and prizes.

In spite of the heavy rains earlier in the day, the weather cleared in time for the first race. The VIPs and their guests enjoyed a lovely meal while chatting with driver, Natasha Day. This was followed by a tour of the paddock area to meet the horses that would be racing that day. That was the highlight of the day for many of the attendees.

The eighth race saw eight VIPs matched up with a horse in the event. Following much cheering, the winner was Parsa Balari who was matched up with the winning horse, Playatyourownrisk.

Pictures and details can be found on the BGRA website under Past Events and News.
