Beau Jangles and the challenge of sky-high expectations

The reigning U.S. and Canadian Horse of the Year has not had the kind of year many expected, but his connections are taking it in stride and thinking the colt may be primed for a comeback.

That Beau Jangles' sophomore season has been less-than-perfect is obvious.

But his trainer, Dr. Ian Moore, said that neither negates a fantastic, and unblemished 2-year-old season that earned the Ontario-sired colt Horse of the Year honors in both Canada and the United States, nor is it an indication of what the rest of 2026 holds for big "Beau."

But it has been challenging for all involved.

On Sunday (Aug. 30), Beau Jangles pushed his career earnings to the cusp of $1.5 million with his first pari-mutuel win in seven starts. But it was how Beau won that $108,000 Ontario Sires

~150 HEAD • ONE STANDARD OF CARE

Six decades building champions on the Standardbred side. Now we are building it again on the Thoroughbred side — same farm, same family, same standard. We're looking for the Farm Manager who wants to build it with us, succeeding a longtime manager moving toward retirement.

THE ROLE

Hands-on leadership of roughly 150 head — broodmares, foaling season, young stock, the crew, the land and the equipment. You'll run breeding season, take the yearlings to the sales ring, coordinate with on- and off-farm veterinarians, manage lay-up and rehab for the racing stable, and own the operating budget.

YOU BRING

Seven or more years on a Thoroughbred, Standardbred or comparable breeding farm — hands-on through foaling and breeding season, with time in a senior role. Real horsemanship, and the ability to build a crew and hold it to a standard.

WE OFFER

On-farm housing, health insurance and paid time off, and compensation commensurate with experience and expertise — plus a family three generations deep in this sport, still building, with room to make your mark.

Stakes (OSS) Gold event that has his connections optimistic that the colt may be on the verge of a comeback. James MacDonald raced Beau out of a hole and came home in :25.1 to record a 1:48.3 triumph that equaled the lifetime mark Beau set winning the $700,000 Grade 1 Breeders Crown last October.

Yes, Sunday's Gold event was only a five-horse field. Yes, it was restricted to Ontario-sired horses. Yes, it was on his home turf at Woodbine Mohawk Park. But Moore said the performance was Beau's best all year – and despite the colt's challenges, he has won four of his 10 starts and earned over $250,000 in 2026. That's hardly peanuts.

In fact, the trainer is taking Beau's imperfect season in stride. He's been through this before with 2-year-olds that reached the stratosphere only to come down to earth during their 3-year-old seasons.

"We're dealing with an animal," Moore said.

It should be noted that Moore did repeatedly warn us last year in interviews that 2-year-old success is not a guarantee of future results.

In a story published a year ago, before Beau defeated Grand Circuit competition in both the $730,000 million Grade 1 Metro Pace and the Breeders Crown, Moore, majority owner Adam Ainspan (of the Graham Grace Stable of Virginia) and co-owner

Jonathan Roberts (of the Kiwi Stables of Maryland, which also shares the colt with Bolton Stables of Florida), all pointed to previous horses they've had that seemed virtually invincible, only to learn the hard way there is no such animal.

As such, they all stressed they were not taking Beau Jangles' success for granted.

Moore also openly cautioned last year that more than 10 starts for a 2-year-old can be tough on even the most talented horse. Last year, due to the fact the Breeders Crown was on home turf at Woodbine Mohawk Park, Beau Jangles started 12 times.

As for what has gone wrong, Moore said on Monday (Aug. 31) that he thinks Beau's challenges started last year.

"He had some little medical issues, but nothing serious," Moore said. "But what I'm talking about is he was a 2-year-old that was raced hard and raced long, well into the season. I've had several of those before. A prominent one I can remember was Malicious, who was second or third best in North America [in 2009]... He won an elimination of the Governor's Cup, won an elimination of the Metro, won all the Dream Makers, there were divisions of it that year, and so on. But, as a 3-year-old, in late July, I had to take him up to Hanover [Raceway] to get his first win of the year [in his seventh start]. He set the track record there, and it's still there for 3-year-olds, 1:53.2.

Beau Jangles' trainer, Dr. Ian Moore.

"Somebeachsomewhere, as a 2-year-old, raced six times and was shut down. He came back as a great 3-year-old. I watched Frantic Hanover at Pocono last week when we were there. He's 0-for-9 this year, and made $65,000. Last year, he was second in the Metro [and earned over $600,000]. You could say he was the second best 2-year-old last year. He hasn't had a win [this year]. He's another example of a horse that raced long and hard [at 2].

"The other thing is last year, Beau was a fully-developed, mature animal, where some of the other ones were growing, developing 2-year-old babies. So, it's all there. There's lots of reasons for me."

This year, Beau Jangles started out promising enough. He won his first three starts to extend his unbeaten streak to 15 and then suffered his first career defeat in the eliminations for the Pepsi North America Cup – finishing third behind eventual Cup champ Odds On Mr Mamba and future Meadowlands Pace champ Brandon Blvd. It was the same order of finish in the $715,500 million final, with the three horses separated by very little.

In Beau's next start, an OSS Gold event on June 27, the horse clearly was not himself, fading in the stretch to finish fifth.

It was then discovered that Beau had a lung infection. Moore, who is also a veterinarian, gave the horse a month off to recover.

"When we stopped with him for a while [this year], he had a lung infection," Moore said. "That's not a lie. We treated that, got him over it, and he had a few ulcers too, and we got rid of those, too. Whether or not that was there when he raced in the North America Cup, I can't tell you."

Beau returned to action in a Gold on Aug. 3 at Grand River Raceway. The short version is it was a tough trip and Beau finished sixth, 14¼ lengths behind the winner, Redland Rocket Man.

By most accounts, that was rock bottom for the once mighty Beau. After that, driver Todd McCarthy took over from Bob McClure, the only driver Beau Jangles had ever had in pari-mutuel competition.

"We've been doing different things lately, and I'm not going to comment on [the driver change]," Moore said, adding he is remaining silent on details out of respect for all the drivers involved. "They're professionals and so am I."

Now that Beau was healthy, the plan, in part, was to rebuild the colt's confidence.

"I think the first time or two that he got beat, I kind of think [it shook his confidence]," Moore said. "Though, it's kind of hard to tell with him... because he is the same every day. It's hard to pick out subtle or minute differences with him... but I do think that [losing] bothered him quite a bit in the elimination and the final [of the Pepsi North America Cup]. He raced really well, but it bothered him, and he became a one-dimensional horse and that hurt him, too. I had trained him all winter long sitting in a hole. I would rarely cut a mile with him because I was anticipating different circumstances this year."

McCarthy raced Beau in an overnight on Aug. 15, finishing fifth, and then again in the $300,000 Grade 2 Max Hempt final at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania, finishing sixth in his first career race in the United States. This past Sunday, with McCarthy committed to drive in Kentucky, James MacDonald agreed to drive Beau for the first time and orchestrated the colt's first victory in 14 weeks.

Ainspan, who also owns thoroughbreds, noted that Beau's final quarter of :25.1 was faster than the final quarter of :25.95 in the $1.25 million Grade 1 Travers won by Leading Change at Saratoga the day prior.

Beau Jangles' majority owner Adam Ainspan.

On Sunday night, Ainspan said the first text he received after Beau's victory was from McClure offering hearty congratulations.

Like Moore, Ainspan is a veterinarian. He said he didn't expect Beau Jangles to remain perfect or thoroughly dominate through his 3-year-old season. That would have been highly improbable.

"[This season is] kind of what I expected, to be quite honest with you," Ainspan said. "I really didn't think it would be perfect, and Doc did a great job, I think, medically. The whole team stayed together. No finger pointing. Everybody from Bob McClure to everybody else that's driven him to Ian to the ownership team has professionally dealt with an issue that came up that in my mind wasn't unexpected. I knew he would put a big race together, eventually, like he did. And I think there's a good chance he'll be even better going forward, but I can't say there won't be a step backwards. It's horse racing, the horses are living things, they're not machines."

As for the pressure of managing a potentially lucrative stallion and trying to further the legacy Beau Jangles established as a 2-year-old, Moore chuckled.

"I'm 72 years old, so I should know how to handle pressure by now," he said, adding he's not one of Beau's owners and left stallion discussions to those that do own him. "It doesn't put any pressure on me. I've been in that situation before. Though, perhaps not with this much money on the table, but I didn't have anything to do with that... other than indirectly in terms of the horse itself.

"All I can do is the best I can in an honest and ethical manner for every owner that I have."

Moore said he tries to stay off social media. Told that Beau's less-than-optimal 3-year-old season, to date, has some of the colt's critics questioning whether the pacer should have been the Horse of the Year last year – particularly from those that were against a 2-year-old that never left Canada winning top honors in the first place – Moore doesn't hesitate.

"That's total horses - - -, in my opinion," he said. "He's the champion, period. He was one of the best 2-year-olds of all time."

You can hear his ire and competitive spirit rising.

"Wouldn't it be nice if we could finish the year well now and make them eat it," Moore said of the colt's critics, before he softened somewhat to provide a realistic assessment for the rest of Beau Jangles' sophomore season.

"I would hope that he would get back in the winner's circle again a few more times before the season's out, and perhaps win a big race or two," Moore said. "I'm not going to expect that he's going to go undefeated for the rest of the year. I don't think any of us are at this point. We might hope that he is, but we're not going to expect it. But, as long as he continues to race well [that's enough]. He showed us a whole different racing protocol [Sunday] night... That was his best race all year, even though he won his first three."

Ainspan looked at the Mohawk transponder data and was astounded Beau Jangles finished the race at 36 miles per hour.

"The most exciting thing about the race was not just the way he finished in :25 flat, it was a stride at the end," Ainspan said. "It was even better than at any point last year."

For the rest of the year, Ainspan said he'd love for Beau to win the OSS Super Final for the Ontario fans that love him, and then win a big race or two in the U.S., maybe even repeat in the Breeders Crown.

"If he could put in some great performances in America and win the [Super Final] for the Canadian fans, I think he would cement himself in the hearts of the Canadian fanbase and with the breeders, and I think it would do a lot in America, as well," he said.

"I'll tell you what, there's nothing better than a comeback story."

RACING INTO THE FUTURE

with BOB DUFF

Should Woodbine development plan be a blueprint for other tracks?

by Bob Duff

Survival mode seems to be the constant state for racetracks. To their credit, they keep finding ways to fight on when outsiders are ready to write them off.

Woodbine Entertainment Group (WEG) may be on to something that every racetrack operator should be watching, studying, and figuring out how they can make it work at their track.

Woodbine is working in conjunction with the City of Toronto on a large-scale, mixed-use, complete community. The project is being planned for implementation at Woodbine. It would redevelop underutilized lands on Woodbine's property. The long-term vision focuses on approximately 70 per cent of the 684 acres of land owned by WEG. It would introduce new homes, jobs, parks, retail, and public spaces.

At the same time, the plan would ensure the racetrack and associated training and operations areas remain active and integrated on the site.

On paper, it appears to be a win-win for everyone involved. The city gets land to build much-needed affordable housing. Woodbine's horsepeople will gain a new method to create revenue to help maintain the track's horse racing product.

The racetrack will continue as a defining cultural and community asset, complementing the surrounding development. The goal is to deliver a place where sport, housing, green space, and daily life intersect, honoring the past while supporting modern city life.

The lands will continue to be stewarded by WEG, Canada's largest horse racing operator.

"This is a once-in-a-generation opportunity to create something truly special for Toronto," Michael Copeland, CEO of Woodbine Entertainment, said in a statement. "At the heart of this new urban center will be Woodbine Racetrack, a cultural landmark that will now also serve as the centerpiece of a thriving, inclusive, and connected city within a city."

HOUSING WILL INCLUDE SPACE FOR HORSE RACING COMMUNITY

The development will feature affordable housing, including new accommodations to replace the existing dormitories for backstretch workers who care for the 1,700 horses stabled at Woodbine.

Woodbine Entertainment, which operates like a not-for-profit corporation, will develop and retain ownership of the land and explore strategic joint ventures to generate ongoing revenue that will continue to support horse racing in Ontario. But for residents and visitors, the promise of the project is about much more.

"This isn't just about building housing," Copeland said. "It's about creating a complete community, a connected urban center, with culture, entertainment, green space and horse racing at the heart of it all."

RACETRACK AREA WILL REMAIN UNTOUCHED

While there's natural concern and speculation about the future of horse racing at all tracks, this project certainly seems to be a change for the better as far as that element of the equation is concerned.

Woodbine officials are assuring all that not only is the future of horse racing at the facility safe, but a key component of this project is also to ensure that remains the case for many years to come.

The racetrack and gaming operations, representing approximately 200 acres, will remain on site and continue to support daily operations.

The new development is intended to modernize certain facilities and improve operations where appropriate. The ultimate objective is to ensure a strong and sustainable future for horse racing in Ontario.

The Woodbine horsepeople are being given input on the plans for the development.

“We appreciate Woodbine's commitment to engaging with the horse racing community throughout this process,” Sue Leslie, president of the Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association of Ontario (HBPA), said in a statement. “The formation of the HBPA advisory committee is a positive step towards ensuring that the needs and perspectives of our horsepeople are considered as the property development moves forward.”

The plan builds on Woodbine’s long-standing legacy while responding to Toronto’s growing need for housing, jobs, transit, and public spaces. A new GO Train station is being constructed at Woodbine. It will mean that it will be possible to travel on public transit from downtown Toronto to Woodbine in 30 minutes.

WEG officials see this as an opportunity to reconnect the site with the surrounding city. The hope is to make Woodbine a destination, to evolve it into a vibrant, connected community that reflects the unique identity and context of Woodbine. The creation of this development will also allow WEG to reinvest in racing facilities, support track employment, and strengthen long-term sustainability.

ALMOST ALL RACETRACKS HAVE LAND TO SPARE

If there’s one thing that virtually every racetrack has in abundance, it’s land – real estate, so to speak. Developers and governments in many areas are looking for places to construct affordable housing.

There appears to be a real opportunity for the industry to take advantage of that reality.

Golf courses have developed similarly-styled projects, building homes that back onto course layouts, folding them into the fabric of the area. It’s an ideal place to live if you’re a golfer.

Why couldn’t there be similar complexes for horse racing fans? Imagine homes, condos, and apartments that are adjacent to the track? Even if they aren’t horse racing fans to start, it only figures that curiosity is going to draw some of the residents to check out what the track has to offer.

This project is in its infancy. A study began in November 2025, undertaken by the City of Toronto Planning staff. The objective is to complete the study within 18 months.

It will be fascinating to watch as progress is made. This is set to be an intriguing development for Woodbine, for Toronto, and for the future of the horse racing industry.

Celebrating the 50th anniversary of The Meadowlands, Part 3

by Bob Heyden

Part 1 is here.

Part 2 is here.

No racetrack or Sports Complex has a bio, a history, like The Meadowlands and the New Jersey Sports and Exposition Authority (NJSEA). This is not about where we are going, but rather a tip of the cap to where we've been.

The enormity of The Meadowlands and the Sports Complex was the point. Everywhere you looked there was something going on. Being herded around wasn't at all insulting but a badge of honor of sorts. Heck all of a sudden you were actually a part of all this.

Today's patron may have a hard time believing that once there were betting lines 12-15 minutes deep, with separate $2, $5, $10, and $50 windows. Clubhouse seats were treasured and friendships were forged, sometimes while on line trying to get your daily double in. Groups and organizations met there. "So, this is what my next-door neighbor was talking about," was a common refrain.

Back in the day, no matter where you went in the world, you never ever had to explain what/where The Meadowlands was.

Let's start off by looking at my five reasons why The Meadowlands exploded onto the racing scene-on Sept. 1 1976.

1. Location, location, location. It was right smack in the middle of the metropolitan area with easy access.

2. Timing was perfect. Not only were Watergate and Vietnam now in the rear-view mirror, but in racing the runners and standardbreds were quite popular. More people went to the races in 1975 than to all Major League Baseball games combined.

3. Nighttime racing on a mile track was a new wrinkle for the trotting and pacing world. T-breds also offered the fandom a new option in a neighboring state to Aqueduct, Belmont, and Saratoga.

4. They were all in. There chips were in the center of the table. Folks, this is our product, tell us what you think. The powers that be from 1974-76 were in unison here and headstrong and bullish don't begin to describe their tenacity.

5. Half-mile track fatigue. All the successful tracks within shouting distance were twice-arounders. Yonkers, Roosevelt, and Freehold in particular. A full mile track, with 10 across, provided what many thought was the truest test for the horse and the horsemen, and a much-welcomed alternative.

A TRUE PHENOMENON

For those of you not near old enough to have experienced this phenomenon known as The Meadowlands, here's a brief synopsis:

- 1976-85: The first decade, they opened the doors and got out of the way. In short, the first decade the place ran itself.
- 1986-1998: Simulcasting became the supplement that helped The Meadowlands maintain excellence. By then you couldn't just rely on your in-house customers. The biggest obstacle then was paring down the existing employees that lacked the smarts and foresight for this, because remember folks, it was state run.

- 1999-2010: Atlantic City would send money for the next 12 years for The Meadowlands not to pursue slots. That money enabled the highest level of standardbred drivers, trainers, and horses to star rather than pursue potentially greener pastures.

2011-2026: The new regime headed by Jeff Gural and Jason Settlemoir took the reins.

CROWDS GALORE AND MUCH MORE

So many things that took place then seem foreign to those fans and players of today. People by the busload coming in from everywhere. Six nights of racing per week.

In 1997, The Meadowlands became the first home of a million-dollar standardbred and thoroughbred race in the same year when the Pegasus got bumped up to seven figures. Million Dollar Babies had a four-year-run from 1986-89 starting out with over $5.3 million on the line. It was kind of like having a grade school graduation and a high school graduation in the same night, and no parent would dare miss out on that.

Not everyone could race there, but make no mistake about it, everybody wanted to go there. It felt like the playoffs and Super Bowl to many.

When looking back on the past 50 years of The Meadowlands it is almost a life lesson in commitment and doing things the right way. When you have a giveaway night make it a real one. Can you say long-sleeve sweatshirts? When you have a huge event, you have a press gathering before and make sure every owner's wife has a rose at her seat. You acknowledge all those who frequent your place of business with numerous Panasonic giveaways, overseas trips, and season passes. You can't be a world-famous track without being good and considerate to everyone.

Was it extravagant? Yes. Over the top? Yes. In short, The Meadowlands was the place to be. It was glamour and it was the standard by which all else would be measured.

IN CONCLUSION

Let's remember, or actually hear for the very first time, that 30, 40, or 50 years ago, everyone had gone or had heard of this whirlwind known as The Meadowlands. If you hadn't gone yet, you most certainly were planning to. It was a once-in-a-lifetime happening for sure.

Let's give a big THANK YOU to the State of New Jersey for bringing this to reality. Prior to 1976 New Jersey was not on anyone's radar and probably only known as "That place Stanley Dancer came from." Whether you are 30, 50, or 80 years old, The Meadowlands has undoubtedly played some role in your life. In many instances it is most certainly a proud and storied time of our lives.

Happy anniversary to The Meadowlands, and remember that a 50-year hourglass serves to highlight, not diminish.

MANE ATTRACTION

with JOHN BERRY

It's September, which means it's Jug month!

by John Berry

Oh, how I love those French fries that hang over the edge of the cup.

Most folks put ketchup or salt on them, but there's always a bottle of vinegar on the stand, if you prefer.

You will find them this month at the fairgrounds in Delaware, OH, some of what makes up the Little Brown Jug.

Those who have been to Delaware, OH, and those historic Fair Grounds know.

If you haven't ever been there, you've got to go!

To me, the Little Brown Jug is "the greatest show on earth!"

A few Mane Attractions ago, we brought you back 100 years leading up to the first Hambletonian and, now, it's time to give the Little Brown Jug equal billing.

The official history of the Jug began in 1946 and, when all was said and done, iconic harness racing writer Tom Gahagan, putting his pen to the Horseman and Fair World magazine, wrote, "The Jug is now established as a 'great American Classic!'"

How true that still is today.

Actually, the history of the Little Brown Jug goes back even further.

The Delaware County Fair, itself, was "foaled" in 1938 and two iconic gentlemen – an attorney and a newspaper editor and publisher – were the ones that put it all together; one with a seemingly poor memory.

Joe Neville was an attorney in Delaware, OH, with a gift in what is described as "foresight."

Henry Clay Thomson, known as Hank, was publisher of the Delaware (Ohio) Gazette and these two gentlemen, joined by one Thurman Wayne "Curly" Smart, were the trifecta of gents that put it all together.

In 1940, the Delaware County Fair, remember, only two years old at that time, had been invited to put the finishing touches on its year-old racetrack and join harness racing's main attraction, the Grand Circuit.

Since the early 1940s was still in the age of the trotter, [Joe] Neville thought to put the pacer on the center stage. Neville saw that the popularity of the pacing horse was gaining momentum and his vision was to create the event [the Little Brown Jug] being billed as a pacing equal to the Hambletonian Stake for trotters.

In response to that invite, many of the experienced advisors cautioned against accepting the invite, lamenting that it would not be possible to have the facility ready for this “show of shows” of our sport.

After all, there hadn’t been one single building on the grounds when the Fair opened two years before.

So, Neville told his friend Thomson that it’s best if the offer is turned down with the hope of, maybe, getting another try when the Fair had a few more years under its girth.

The Grand Circuit folk had said they’d make the invitation official if they didn’t hear anything for 24 hours with Neville saying he’d send a refusal by telegram “this afternoon.”

A couple of days later in the office of the Delaware Gazette, a bulletin came across the Associated Press wire that the Delaware County Fair had, indeed, been awarded Grand Circuit dates.

Thomson gawked as he read the release in disbelief and, when contacted about it, Neville said, “Oh my heavens, I plumb forgot to send that telegram.”

Neville was said to be kind of a gambler at heart and, if he believed in something, he was like “a bull in a china shop.”

So, harness racing history was to show that one of the most famous telegrams in all of sport was the one that was never sent out, and this became the seed for the Little Brown Jug.

The very first year of the Fair, Thomson remarked that they raced for a couple of stakes events for $2,000, which was unheard of, as the normal fair purses were no more than $500.

Some months later after that, Neville and Thomson outlined the next step, the establishment of a big stakes event – an important and forever lasting event to put Delaware, OH, in the spotlight among Grand Circuit racetracks.

Since the early 1940s was still in the age of the trotter, Neville thought to put the pacer on the center stage.

Neville saw that the popularity of the pacing horse was gaining momentum and his vision was to create the event being billed as a pacing equal to the Hambletonian Stake for trotters.

The skeptics were many, especially the “trotting purists” as the Delaware representatives presented their idea at the Grand Circuit meeting to discuss their views.

The tilting argument came from the founder of the Trotting Horse Club of America, E. Roland Harriman, who surprised the nay-sayers with his foresight the same as Joe Neville.

Fair officials then offered a $100 prize in a contest to name the event which would be advertised as the richest race in the world for 3-year-old pacers.

Entries were received – over 4,000 of them – from all over North America, but one gentleman from Mt. Vernon, 33 miles to the east of Delaware, won the contest.

Major Lanning Parsons came up with the name Little Brown Jug, honoring that pacer that was foaled in Tennessee but came to Ohio to race.

Little Brown Jug was the very first of the great Tennessee Hal horses and many of the current pacers of the pre-Little Brown Jug era were gifted with his bloodline, including the great pacer, Adios.

Major Parsons suggested that a shiny brown jug trophy be the race's symbol and as well as the tune Little Brown Jug, an American folk song (and drinking song) written around 1870 by one Joseph Eastburn Winner.

That song became a huge hit for Glenn Miller in 1939.

The track, itself, was extra wide and perfectly banked with the shape of the oval dictated by a 40-foot-deep ravine on the east end of the track.

There was a two-year gap in planning the event for the first nominated yearlings to become 3-year-olds in 1946 and that necessitated the two Little Brown Jug previews in 1944 and 1945.

There were $10,000 previews and each of the Jug previews, were the richest purses at that time for 3-year-old pacers.

The 1944 edition was won by Eddie Havens, driven by a Delaware County farmer, who lived at 219 Fountain Street, just a little over one mile from the fairgrounds, the aforementioned Curly Smart.

Eddie Havens won in straight heats – 2:03 1/2 and 2:03.

Ironically, he also drove the tractor, as well, to keep the track lightning fast.

Oh, by the way, Eddie Havens was owned by Joe Neville, with the trophy presented by Joe's uncle, Jim Neville, the gent that got nephew Joe interested in harness racing.

The 1945 Jug preview was won by True Chief, handled by the immortal Sep Palin, who won the Hambletonian 10 years prior with another immortal, Greyhound.

The Little Brown Jug was still one year away from carving out its history and was already drawing the greatest horsemen and horses in our grand sport.

Just one other note to hit the finish line on this Mane Attraction.

Years later, Thomson, who was designated to be the racing secretary at the fair, asked Neville why he picked him to that post, as Thomson knew virtually nothing about horses.

Neville began chuckling through his 350 pounds and said, "I figured that way we'd get all the publicity we needed from the Delaware Gazette.

Yes, it's Little Brown Jug time.

truly special it is,” Moyer said. “There is so much that happens beyond the race and I’m grateful to be in a position to be able to share all those moments.”

Moyer found her way to the sport through her husband, driver/trainer Jared Moyer, who has accumulated nearly 950 career combined wins.

Although she had some association with horses — she did some riding growing up — the standardbred world was unknown.

“I knew absolutely nothing about the sport,” Kayla said. “I met him when I was a senior in high school and he graduated the year before. He said, ‘I race horses. Do you want to come and watch me?’”

Once she started accompanying her future husband to the races, her fascination and appreciation for the sport grew significantly.

So, too, did her admiration for horsepeople.

“I would go with him to Chicago, to Balmoral, which was his regular track,” Kayla said. “The first few times, we went to the fair races throughout Michigan. I got to see the harness racing world through his side of things — behind-the-scenes stuff and going to the barns. It was fun and it was something different than I was used to. I didn’t grow up around horses — we would ride a few on occasion — so that was kind of it. He opened up this whole new world, and it was wonderful. You realized just how hard-working and passionate people in this sport are.”

A move to the Old Line State deepened Kayla’s appreciation for the people and horses at the heart of harness racing, while also changing the direction of her education.

“Moving to Maryland changed so much for me,” she said. “It changed my schooling direction, in where I was going with things. I was in college for early childhood education, but then things started shifting towards photography.

“I had always been interested in photography through art classes, but when we moved out to Maryland, I was in the middle of college and decided to take a break from it. My husband bought me my first real camera the first year we were living out here, so that’s when I thought I would try to make something of it.”

Whenever she would accompany Jared to the barn, she brought her camera along.

There was no shortage of subject matter for Kayla to focus on.

“It was just fun pictures, taking pictures of the horses in the barn and taking pictures of Jared jogging horses,” she said. “It started out like that. It led to people asking if I did family photos, so I did that as well.

“And that’s around the time I decided to bring my camera to the racetrack, just to have fun. I started talking to Ed [Cioffioni], the longtime track photographer at Ocean Downs and Rosecroft. I think he saw the interest that I had. He told me he wasn’t sure how much longer he would be doing the photography stuff and asked me if I would like to go out on the track and get a feel for what it was like to take action photos.”

Kayla was hooked from that first click in the summer of 2023. The timing made the moment even more memorable.

Her first finish-line photograph came on her birthday, and Jared happened to win the race.

"It was that moment where I realized I could do this," she said. An opportunity came her way the following summer.

Cioffioni wasn't returning to his post, meaning there was a photographer vacancy to fill.

When she was approached with an offer to assume that position, Kayla wasn't entirely convinced she could make it work.

At the time, she had spent years staying home with her children while pursuing photography on the side, and her youngest daughter was just 6 months old.

"I was told that if I wanted the job at Ocean Downs, the job was mine," Kayla said. "I wanted to do it, but for the longest time, I had stayed home with my kids and doing photography on the side. So, I told them I needed a little time to think about it."

After careful consideration and the encouragement of her husband, Kayla accepted the offer.

"Jared said, 'If you don't take this now, someone else is going to and you might not get another chance for a very long time,'" she said. "He told me that we will figure it out. After that conversation, I took the job. And now, here we are, my third year of doing it."

Kayla's scope of work has grown considerably since then, her photos encompassing everything from qualifiers to race action, life in the barn to candid moments and beyond.

As for the favorite type of photo she takes, Kayla took a moment to consider her answer.

"I realized when I was going through some of my photos that it may actually be leaving the gate or at the top of the stretch going to the half," she said.

It's no stretch to say that Kayla is very much in her happy place when she is at the racetrack.

That dedication, along with her skills behind the camera, continues to earn rave reviews from those who compete at Ocean Downs.

For Kayla, it is another reminder that behind every photograph is a story worth telling.

"My husband is my biggest supporter and I'm glad he helped me with the decision to take the job," she said. "It means so much to me when people share some kind words and it gives me the confidence and reminder that I can do this. It's nice to hear it from my husband and family, but to have that reassurance I am doing something people care about... it's a wonderful feeling."

North American-based trio complete International Trot field

by Yonkers Raceway media

Three North American-based trotters from different parts of the globe will complete the field for the Grade 1 MGM Yonkers International Trot. Lexus Kody (Canada), Antognoni (Sweden), and Super Chapter (U.S.) become the eighth, ninth, and 10th horses to join the $1,000,000 race at MGM Yonkers Raceway on Sept. 12.

Defending champion Lexus Kody led at every call in a 2:24.4 victory over a fast-charging Diva Ek in 2025. The victory contributed to his Dan Patch Trotter of the Year campaign for trainer Ron Burke and owners Burke Racing Stable LLC, Weaver Brusceci, and Phillip Collura.

"It's a million-dollar race," said Burke on his excitement after the 2025 victory. "We tried to win it numerous times and could not get it done. It was very fun."

This year Lexus Kody has continued the success, winning three of eight starts, including the Grade 3 JL Cruze and Grade 2 Spirit of Massachusetts Trot. The 8-year-old, who was also second in the Grade 1 Cashman Memorial, was most recently fifth in the Maple Leaf Trot eliminations and will start from post 4 in the C$620,000 final on Sept. 5 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

"He's been really good until the last couple weeks," said Burke. "It just seems like the wrong time for him to have his first lull in forever. I think I have a grasp on the situation and hopefully I have him turned around by Sept. 12."

Burke will also be represented in the MGM Yonkers International Trot by track specialist Antognoni. The 6-year-old Swedish import has 14 wins in 18 starts over the Yonkers surface, including a couple at the distance of a mile and a quarter of the MGM Yonkers International Trot.

"I've never seen a horse that gets around that track better than he does," said Burke.

Driven by Yannick Gingras, who shares ownership with Burke Racing Stable LLC, Weaver Brusceci, and FAC Racing, Antognoni has put together a quality year despite a lighter stakes season than some of his counterparts. He won the Grade 3 Maxie Lee in May and was second behind his stablemate Lexus Kody in the Spirit of Massachusetts. He also competed in the Maple Leaf Trot eliminations and advanced to the final with a fifth-place finish. He'll start from post 10.

"We put him back to the way he was [equipment-wise] when he was in Sweden, when he wasn't a good horse," said Burke on the Maple Leaf Trot performance. "It wasn't one of our brighter moves. We overthought it and tried something."

With Gingras part owner on Antognoni, he will have to drive that one and Lexus Kody will need a replacement.

"I think I'm going to use Jason [Bartlett], but I haven't committed to that," said Burke.

Super Chapter also moved on to the Maple Leaf Trot final following an impressive 1:49.4 victory in the elimination round for driver Dexter Dunn and trainer Marcus Melander. The 4-year-old Dan Patch Award winner from 2025 hasn't missed a beat this year, with four wins and two seconds from six starts, including a victory against older foes in the Grade 1 Cashman Memorial.

"I was pretty confident in him going into that Cashman race," said Melander. "Obviously, he's been great all season. He raced great in the [Maple Leaf Trot] elimination. Hopefully he'll race great in the final too. He seems to have come out of it good."

Owned by Jeffrey Snyder, Arthur Pronti, and Hanover Shoe Farms Inc, Super Chapter is no stranger to the half-mile track at Yonkers, having won the MGM Yonkers Trot over the surface in 2025. The son of New York super-sire Chapter Seven has earned over $2 million in his career and only been worse than third three times in 30 career starts.

According to Melander, Dunn will drive Super Chapter in the MGM Yonkers International Trot, and Scott Zeron will get the assignment behind Bourbonista.

"She will qualify on Friday [Sept. 4] at The Meadowlands and Scott will drive her in the qualifier and he'll pick her up in the International," said Melander. "They're both good enough to be able to win that race if we get some luck with the draw."

A native of Sweden, Melander is familiar with many of the foreign horses and sees it as a competitive group.

"I think it's a pretty even field coming from Europe," said Melander. "They're all good horses but none of them stand out above the others."

Below is the complete field (alphabetical order) with expected drivers for the MGM Yonkers International Trot. Country of origin is listed in parenthesis.

Antognoni – Yannick Gingras (Sweden)

Betting Pacer – Björn Goop (Sweden)

Bourbonista – Scott Zeron (Sweden)

Diva Ek – Alessandro Gocciadoro (Italy)

Hooker Berry – Antoine Lhéreté (France)

Lexus Kody – TBD (Canada)

Mellby Jinx – Daniel Wäjersten (Sweden)

Powwow – Ake Svanstedt (Norway)

Super Chapter – Dexter Dunn (United States)

The $1,000,000 race will be the focal point of a stellar card on Sept. 12 that starts at 11:50 a.m. (EDT) and includes the $2.4 million New York Sire Stakes finals for 2- and 3-year-olds, as well as a pair of $200,000 invitationals – the Bob Miecuna Trot and Aria Pace.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

American Power pounces, Miss Jum Jabber pops to Kentucky Championship Series wins

by Ray Coto for The Red Mile

American Power emerged victorious from his first start since competing in the Grade 1 Hambletonian and Miss Jum Jabber returned after skipping the second leg to score in their respective $80,000 third-preliminary dashes of the Kentucky Championship Series on Monday afternoon (Aug. 31) at The Red Mile.

American Power marched from off the speed after being parked the mile with cover and swept to a 1:50.4 win as the even-money choice in the Kentucky Championship Series division for trotting glamour boys.

Leaving from post 9, driver Dexter Dunn sent American Power as nearly everyone fired off the car, forcing Dunn to have to ease into a spot off the speed rounding the first turn. Dunn slotted into a third-over position while It Could Be Worse (driven by Tim Tetrick) blitzed up the rim to grab control through a :27.3 first quarter. Captain Naughty (Yannick Gingras) towed the outer tier forward and brushed to the top through a :55.1 half, leaving Spencer Hanover (Mattias Melander) uncovered to the last turn with American Power on his back.

Spencer Hanover edged to within a length of the leader by three-quarters in 1:23.3, at which point Dunn flipped his charge outside and set down for the stretch drive. American Power pushed past his rivals in the lane to grab victory by 1½ lengths with It Could Be Worse edging out from a pocket ride for second. Captain Naughty held third and longshot Lucchese (Joe Bongiorno) closed from third over for fourth.

Marcus Melander trains American Power, a colt by Walner—Ariana G, for owner M Biasuzzi Stable Inc. The colt won his fifth race from nine starts this season and his eighth race from 21 starts in his career, earning $452,820. He paid $4.34 to win.

Miss Jum Jabber (Andy McCarthy) vaulted from a pocket ride earlier in the card with a :25.4 final quarter in a :52.3 back half to win the Kentucky Championship Series division for sophomore pacing fillies. McCarthy planted on the back of pacesetter Topville Lucky (Todd McCarthy), who carved a clip of :28.4, :56, and 1:22.3 to ready for the final-quarter sprint. Andy McCarthy angled outside spinning for home and overhauled Topville Lucky in the lane to win by 1¼ lengths with She's A Bulldog (Gingras) giving chase in third and Seaside Charm (Tetrack) checking in last of the four.

Brett Pelling trains Miss Jum Jabber, a filly by Bettor's Wish—Treacherous Reign, for owner Pelling Racing LLC. The filly won her 10th race from 12 starts this season and has now banked $216,139. She paid $2.52 to win.

Inverness Ave (Tetrack) tipped from a pocket trip and edged by odds-on leader Untouchable As (Tony Hall) for a neck win and to post the fastest win of the two $30,000 Kentucky Commonwealth Series divisions for sophomore trotting males with a 1:51 effort. Ernie Gaskin conditions the gelding by Helpisontheway—Arvika. Zidane Kemp (Joe Bongiorno) converted a pocket trip to win the other dash by 2¼ lengths over first-up Lindy Living (Dunn) in a 1:51.3 mile. Inverness Ave paid $9.36 to win and Zidane Kemp returned $6.62.

Sophomore pacing fillies competed in a single $30,000 division of the Kentucky Commonwealth Series late in the card. Atte Station (David Miller) rallied from near last to clinch victory over pocket-rallying Gracious (Todd McCarthy) by three-quarters-of-a-length.

Brian Brown trains the daughter of Captaintreacherous—Amazing Alexa who paid $35.48 to win.

Randy Jerrell pupil Deuce Pop (Todd McCarthy), who won the faster of the two $15,000 Kentucky Golden Rod divisions of the day, also recorded his sixth straight victory when rallying as the 2-1 favorite in a lifetime-best 1:52.2. mile. Jerrell co-owns the Tactical Landing—Atlantic Crest colt with Atlantic Trot Inc. and Steve Stewart.

NEZUKO KAMADO S RETURNS A WINNER; MCCARTHY WINS 4,000TH RACE

Nezuko Kamado S found the winner's circle in her first start since claiming the Grade 1 Hambletonian Oaks earlier in the month when she launched off cover for a 1:51.1 victory in the $80,000 Kentucky Championship Series third preliminary for sophomore trotting fillies on Sunday night (Aug. 30) at The Red Mile.

Leaving from post 5, driver Scott Zeron secured a snug spot in the middle of the pack with Nezuko Kamado S while Heart For Two (driven by Yannick Gingras) pushed from the outermost draw for the lead to a :28.2 first quarter. Ygritte (Mattias Melander) soon circled from the pocket to the lead and then gave way as Jailbird Jog (Anthony MacDonald) brushed forward to seize command in the shuffle to a :56.1 half. Zeron found a seat third over to the last turn following uncovered Madam Cheval (Tim Tetrick) and second-over Islandgirl Hanover (Joe Bongiorno) and gradually fanned to the center of the track coming off three-quarters in 1:23.4. Nezuko Kamado S straightened and chugged over the top of her peers to snag the lead in the final sixteenth and surge to a three-quarter length win over Islandgirl Hanover. Ygritte took third and Carve (Andy McCarthy) closed from near last for fourth.

Marcus Melander trains Nezuko Kamado S, a homebred Chapter Seven—Zefira Kronos IT filly for Anders Strom's Courant Inc. The filly collected her sixth win from seven starts this season and her 12th victory from 18 starts in her career, pushing her earnings to $1,092,969. She paid $4.04 to win.

Sea Bistro Hanover (Todd McCarthy) ripped from last to first with a :24.2 final quarter in a three-horse showdown to win the $80,000 Kentucky Championship Series third preliminary for sophomore pacing males contested prior to the pari-mutuel card as a non-wagering race. McCarthy sat off of :28.1, :55.3, and 1:24 fractions cut by Ubrute (Gingras) before storming down the center of the track to grab the win by a length in a 1:49 mile over pocket-popping Funky Buddha (Dexter Dunn).

Brett Pelling trains Sea Bistro Hanover, a gelding by Captaintreacherous—Santa Rosa, for owners David McDuffee, Paul Bordogna, and Melvin Hartman. The gelding won his fifth race from 12 starts this season and his sixth race from 19 starts in his career, banking $217,387.

Sunday's card also featured a pair of $30,000 Kentucky Commonwealth divisions for sophomore trotting fillies. She's Moni (Zeron, 1:50.1 winning mile; $5.32 to win) took top honors from the two splits for trotting fillies after brushing to the lead past the quarter and strolling to a 3¼-length win over Joyofmylife As (Tony Hall) and odds-on favorite Crossover (Dunn). Degas (Gingras, 1:53; $10.80) converted a pocket trip to a head victory over first-up Naked And Famous (Todd McCarthy) to win the other dash by a head. Nancy Takter trains She's Moni for owners Brittany Farms LLC and Marvin Katz while Eric Patalan conditions Degas for TheStable Degas Group.

Rockin Image gelding Door Dash (Gingras, 1:48.3; $3.24) posted the quickest win of the two Kentucky Commonwealth divisions for pacing glamour boys when winning pillar-to-post over pocket-chasing Louaville (Zeron). Captaintreacherous colt Captain Apple (Dunn, 1:49.4; $8.54) rallied from a pocket ride a few races later to down pacesetter Thiago Hanover (Gingras) and win the other division by a half-length. Trent Stohler trains Door Dash for owners Trent Stohler Stable Inc., Ben Graber, and Tim Graber while Chris Ryder trains Captain Apple for himself and partners Lisa Ezzo, Alan Johnston, and Let It Ride Stables Inc.

Some other regally blooded winners flourished on the Sunday card. Gandhi (Andy McCarthy, 1:50; $5.34), a Perfect Sting gelding out of champion mare Pure Country, scored in the first Kentucky Wildcat division of the night while also providing Andy McCarthy the 4,000th victory of his career. La Mancha (Tetrick, 1:52.3; $24.78), a Walner filly out of world champion Manchego, kicked off a pocket trip to take the second division of the Kentucky Golden Rod for sophomore trotting fillies and Benny B Hill (Dunn, 1:49.2; $2.20), a Captaintreacherous gelding out of Breeders Crown winner Peaky Sneaky, scored in the closing Kentucky Golden Rod division for sophomore pacing males.

Beau Jangles (James MacDonald) winning the $150,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Gold Leg 4 event on Sunday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Beau Jangles goes over $2 million lifetime with Gold victory at Mohawk

by Dave Briggs / Ontario Racing

Beau Jangles surpassed $2 million lifetime and equaled his 1:48.3 career-best mile with a victory in the lone $150,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Gold leg 4 test for 3-year-old pacing colts on Sunday (Aug. 30) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

It was the first win for the reigning Canadian and U.S. Horse of the Year in the last seven starts going back to his Gold Series victory on May 23 at Mohawk.

"It's just great seeing him race like that again," Beau Jangles' trainer, Dr. Ian Moore told Woodbine broadcaster John Rallis. "He's too nice and too good a horse to be the way he's been recently. It depresses me as well as it depresses the horse. I'm sure this is going to be a big confidence boost for him now, and since he missed a lot of time, he's got lots more races into November."

James MacDonald, driving Beau Jangles for the first time, orchestrated the victory in the field of five, coming home in :25.1 on a rainy night to win by three-quarters-of-a-length over Redland Rocket Man (Jody Jamieson).

Redland Rocket Man led most of the way through fractions of :25.3, :54.2, and 1:23.1 with Beau Jangles in the pocket. Into the final turn, Louis-Philippe Roy moved Borderline Mobby out of third place and quickly challenged the leaders. In the stretch, Redland Rocket Man was game, but Beau Jangles, the 3-5 favorite, powered past to win. Borderline Mobby was third, followed by Odds On Bullfrog (Travis Henry). No Waitlist (Doug McNair) was pulled up and finished distanced in fifth.

MacDonald said Beau Jangles, "felt like a bear" in the stretch.

"I'd seen that move a lot last year down the lane way, where [Beau Jangles] just powered away," MacDonald said. "When 'Mobby' came on the outside of him, he swelled up, and I had a handful, but he was sharp, too. Sometimes they just get angry and mad being stuck in there. You could tell he wanted to go, and I just had to kind of back him out around them. And when he saw daylight, he knew what to do.”

Beau Jangles paid $3.30 to win. There was no show wagering.

Watch the race replay here.

The 1:48.3 mile equaled the mark Beau Jangles set at 2 while winning the Breeders Crown last October at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

“I just feel happy, not only for the owners and the partners, but also for the horse himself, because he’s been a big part of all of our lives in the stable for the last couple of years now, and we hated to see what’s happened with him recently,” Moore said. “It’s a confidence booster for him and a big elation, a lot of happiness, for us.”

Beau Jangles, who was a perfect 12-for-12 as a 2-year-old, improved to 16-0-2 in 22 lifetime starts. The $75,000 payday pushed his career earnings to $2,035,857. The son of Cattlewash out of Mrs Major Hill is now 4-0-2 in 10 starts in 2026. He has earned $347,107 this year.

Bred by Tara Hills Stud of Port Perry, ON, Beau Jangles was purchased for $65,000 out of the Preferred Equine consignment at the 2024 Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling sale in Harrisburg, PA, by the Graham Grace Stables of Clifton, VA, Kiwi Stables of La Plata, MD, and Bolton Stables of Clermont, FL.

Moore said the group hasn’t decided, yet, where Beau Jangles’ next start will be, but the Little Brown Jug is still a possibility.

by Yonkers Raceway media

Archon, driven by trainer Dan Daley, led all the way in winning Monday night's (Aug. 31) $156,600 New York Sire Stakes event for 2-year-old colt and gelding trotters at MGM Yonkers Raceway. Starting from post 6, Archon landed on the front-end on the first turn when Uncle Rob (Andy Miller) made a break, and Archon would post fractions of :30.2, 1:00.2, and 1:29. Behind him, 4-5 favorite Bailey J (Jason Bartlett) watched from fourth before he was guided to the outside past the half and was able to drop into the pocket ahead of a gapping Bigtime Chapter (Matt Kakaley) past three-quarters.

On the final turn Archon bore out an extra lane, which gave Bailey J every chance to go by him on the inside, but he was unable to, as Archon held him off by three-quarters-of-a-length in a 1:58 mile. Bigtime Chapter wound up third, followed by Magic Musk (Jim Pantaleano).

A Chapter Seven colt bred by Lina Alm, Archon is owned by James Crawford, Timothy Drag, and Rich Preziotti. Archon has two wins, a second and a third from six starts, has earned $163,510 and paid $7.44 to win. He led an $18.68 exacta and a $60.82 trifecta.

When Is Parade (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) winning the fastest of the three Ohio Sires Stakes races for 3-year-old pacing colts on Saturday at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

Ohio Sires Stakes legs concluded at Scioto Downs

by Eldorado Scioto Downs

Ohio Sires Stakes action accounted for nearly half the Saturday (Aug. 30) card at Eldorado Scioto Downs but produced exciting results, including two sub-1:50 miles for 3-year-old colt pacers.

With three $50,000 divisions going postward, When Is Parade took the fastest split, winning in 1:49 for Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. and Ron Burke. Odds On RPJ (Luke Hanners) set fractions from the rail of :26, :54.1, and 1:21 while When Is Parade looked on after settling fifth from post 7. Shooting up the passing lane, When

Is Parade won by a length over pocket sitter Prolific Blend (Austin Hanners); Odds On RPJ was third.

When Is Parade, by Summa Cum Laude out of the Sweet Lou mare West End Pip, is a homebred for Burke Racing, Weaver Brusceci, Michelle Yanek, and Phillip Collura. With four wins in 22 lifetime starts, When Is Parade now has $191,395 in earnings.

Tsunami Seas (David Miller) took the other sub-1:50 split, winning his division by 3¼ lengths in 1:49.4. Getting away third and parked from post 4, Tsunami Seas marched his way to the front after Backninebar (Chris Page) took the field to the :27.2 opening quarter. Tsunami Seas then led through fractions of :56 and 1:22.4 to win over Backninebar; Rock Son (Brett Miller) was third.

Tsunami Seas, by Downbytheseaside out of the Riggins mare Foxy Rigger, was an $80,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from breeder Country Club Acres and L & H Management Services. Trained by Virgil Morgan, Jr. for owners Jeffrey Rector, Larry Wills, and Hutchison Harness, Tsunami Seas now has six wins in 18 lifetime starts and $130,707 in earnings.

The last division went to Pet Project (Trevor Smith) who got the pocket trip behind fraction setter Starblazer (Luke Hanners) as he tripped the beam in :27.3, :56.3, and 1:24.4.

After interference right near the finish line, judges placed Pet Project first; Starblazer was second with Thunder Nation (David Miller) third.

Pet Project, by Pet Rock out of the Feelin Friskie mare Igottafeelinfran, was bred and is owned by Jerry Zosel, Kathy Ratcliff, and trainer Kim Dailey. Pet Project now has seven wins in 17 lifetime starts and $238,408 in earnings.

2-YEAR-OLD COLT PACERS

A quartet of heavy hitters in the 2-year-old colt pace division have continued to let their presence be known week in and week out. In the fifth and final leg, Jett James and Night Surfer came out on top, winning their races in 1:51.2 and 1:53.4, respectively.

Jett James (Brett Miller) made it three in a row when he took his $75,000 division by a-length-and-a-half over North Rim (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.). Getting away fourth from post 4 as Into The Blaze (Ronnie Gillespie) took the field towards the :27.1 opening quarter, Jett James quickly pulled and set the remaining fractions of :56.1 and 1:24.3. North Rim briefly made the front after the quarter, settled for the pocket trip but could not quite reach the winner in the stretch; Into The Blaze was third.

Jett James by Monte Miki out of the Western Ideal mare Albrizzi Hanover was a $8,000 Blooded Horse Sale purchase from breeder Jacob Mossbarger. Owned by trainer Adam Short, Jett James now has five wins in eight starts and $154,185 in earnings.

Night Surfer took his division in gate-to-wire fashion, leading the field through :26.4, :56.3, and 1:26.3 splits. Sprinting home down the stretch, Night Surfer came home in :27.1 to win by a-length-and-three-quarters over pocket sitter Don'ttruckwithme (Chris Lems); The Might Brix (Tyler Smith) got up for third.

Night Surfer by Downbytheseaside out of the Bettors Delight mare Dark Force was a $67,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from breeder KAD Farms. Owned by Let It Ride Stables, Morrison Racing Stables, and Steven Held, Night Surfer still has a perfect record winning four races in four starts and earning $153,810.

2-YEAR-OLD FILLY PACERS

Tempting Flames and Cleveland Darby, both out of McArdle mares, each took a $75,000 2-year-old filly pace division in 1:52.1 and 1:52.2, respectively.

Getting her fifth win in a row, Tempting Flames (David Miller) took a newer approach sitting in the middle of the pack as Thought I Had It (Trevor Smith) led the field through :26.3, :56.2, and 1:25 fractions. Tempting Flames got away fourth from post 7 and made a swift three-wide move right at the three-quarter pole to take the lead mid-way through the last turn and posted a :26.3 last quarter to draw clear to win by 3½ lengths over

Thought I Had It; Moni N The Safe (Brett Miller) was third.

Tempting Flames by Catch The Fire out of Hotshot Temptress was a $52,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from breeder Ivy Holdings. Owned by William Hartt and trained by Michael Hitchcock, Tempting Flames now has five wins in seven starts and $228,100 in earnings.

Cleveland Darby (Chris Page) was parked through the :26.4 opening quarter but made the lead shortly thereafter and led through fractions of :55.3 and 1:24.2. Miki Grad (Brett Miller) closed from the back to get within a quarter-length of the winner to finish second; Jar Of Hearts made a bid down the backside but finished third.

Cleveland Darby, by Downbytheseaside out of Loreenas Ruffian, was bred by Carl Howard and is owned by Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brussemi, R A S Racing, and Larry Karr. The Ron Burke trainee now has four wins in seven starts and $156,000 in earnings.

Pennsylvania

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Philly hosts final PA-sired prelims

by PHHA / Harrah's Philadelphia

The time to distribute over $3 million to the best Pennsylvania-sired youngsters, by age, sex, and gait, will come this week after the last of the preliminary rounds, the fourth and final leg for 3-year-old male trotters, raced in Sire Stakes and Stallion Series competition on Sunday afternoon (Aug. 30) at Harrah's Philadelphia, which will host the 3-year-old Sire Stakes championships and consolations next Sunday (Sept. 6). Stakes purses on the afternoon totaled $138,604.

These sophomores have been very competitive all season – not only did no one sweep all four preliminary legs, but no one even has three to their credit. After Sunday's action, only one Sire Stakes horse and two Stallion Series competitors had recorded as many as two victories, ensuring exciting, spirited finals.

The only double winner is the Bar Hopping gelding Minoan, who won his last two Sire Stakes contests, this one in 1:53. With his main rival Geologic off-stride at the start, favored Minoan and driver Johnathan Ahle had a fairly easy time of it, cutting fractions of :28.2, :57.3, and 1:25.2 before zipping home in :27.2 to win by 2½ lengths over Jim Bean, making him his division's leading prelim point winner for trainer Noel Daley, also co-owner with Patricia Stable LLC, L. A. Express Stable LLC, and Sjoebloom Racing Inc.

The other Sire Stakes cut also went in 1:53, and it clinched entry to the championship for the International Moni gelding Oversear, an 11-1 shot who set a lifetime mark with his wire-to-wire victory. Driver/trainer Charlie Norris was quickly on top, put up early splits of :28.1 and :58, then sharpened the speed to a 1:24.4 clocking into the far turn as favored Finline Hanover trotted his own third quarter in :26 without cover to pressure the leader. But Oversear had something left in reserve to win by 1¼ lengths over the chalk for the ownership of Carrie Norris, Max J. Hempt, James Zito, and Dr. James Sautter.

Sons of Captain Corey were winners in the two Stallion Series sections (all eight StS finales will be raced this Saturday at The Meadows). Captain Micah joined the absent Captain Jordan as a two-time StS winner while also emerging the top prelim point winner after reducing his mark to 1:54. Mike Wilder, who catch-drove Captain Micah for trainer Travis Alexander and owner Gino Toscani, raced in the 2-hole, then came up the inside in the lane and bested the tough first-over (:26.2 in his own third quarter) challenger Emmett Hanover by a neck.

The first Stallion Series prelim had an unusual situation, as the two favorites were a winner in 2026 Sire Stakes competition and the 2025 Sire Stakes champion. Captain Vodka appeared to have built up enough points in the Sires for his connections to give him a slightly-easier tune-up for next Sunday (he did qualify for the Sires, but not in this class), while Dublin Hanover started his 2026 campaign late and was far back in his only Sires start. But the two both raced very well in this event, with favored Captain Vodka angling wide off cover and just catching a tough pacesetter Dublin Hanover by a head in 1:55.1 for driver Jim Marohn, Jr. and trainer Robert Baggitt, Jr., the latter co-owner with J L Sadowsky LLC and Christine Baggitt.

Ahle had three sulky scores Sunday, with doubles to Simon Allard, George Napolitano, Jr., Mark Herschberger, and Trae Porter. On the training side, two-baggers were rung up by Dean Eckley (with Napolitano, Jr. winning both times) and Enrico Robinson (one handled by Ahle and one by Allard).

Racing resumes at Philly at 12:25 on "Trottin' Thursday," featuring high-quality diamondgaited horses of both the veteran and developing variety. Sunday (Sept. 6), there will be $1.4M in purses as Philly hosts the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes championship for 3-year-olds (the final prelims for trotting colts to earn qualifying points having been reported on above); consolation races will be held for those divisions with overflow entries. Those races will be drawn today (Sept. 3).

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Sophomores rally in Alberta Sires Stakes at Century Downs

by Standardbred Canada

Terrible Custard and Outlaw Country On came from off the pace to win their respective stakes events for Alberta-sired 3-year-old pacers during the meet-finale card at Century Downs on Saturday (Aug. 29).

Terrible Custard tallied her fourth consecutive stakes-level victory in the ABSS known as the Alberta Marquis for fillies. Away sixth from the second tier, Mike Hennessy pulled Terrible Custard before the :28.1 quarter to latch onto the cover of the hung-out Y V Four Roses (Logan Gillis). The filly rode the tow past the half in :58.1 and onto the backstretch, where she charged three-high and overpowered pacesetter B A Dragon (Phil Giesbrecht) at three-quarters in 1:25.3. Terrible Custard was never in danger down the lane and cruised to victory by 1½ lengths in 1:55. Blue Star Strike (Drew Campbell) marched for second, followed by a closing Lets Go Gals (Rod Therres).

The winning daughter of Custard The Dragon—Remember Terror notched the sixth win in 14 starts in her sophomore campaign, bringing her record to seven-for-22 lifetime with $130,294 in earnings. Her current four-race streak includes wins in the Gord and Illa Rumpel Memorial final and elimination and her elim for the Alberta Marquis. Rod Hennessy trains Terrible Custard for owner/breeder Lorne Duffield of Edmonton, AB. The win price was $3.40.

Outlaw Country On was well back from wicked early fractions and delivered an eye-catching uncovered rally to upset in the ABSS known as the Alberta Maverick for colts and geldings.

David Kelly dropped the colt in eighth while Y V Weller (Drew Campbell) used :27.3 speed to secure the lead and was pressured to a :55.4 half by longshot Mr Jeter (Kelly Hoerd). Outlaw Country On started his move down the backstretch, shifting onto the back of The Great Shark (Rod Therres) while evading the plummeting Mr Jeter before slipping out three-wide into the last turn.

The pocket pop of Boleto A Mexico (Brandon Campbell) kept the tempo sharp to three-quarters in 1:24.3, and that foe was ripe for the picking as Outlaw Country On entered the fray on the bend. Outlaw Country On forged ahead in the stretch, and favorite Ruler Of Dragons (Phil Giesbrecht) was too late as the former completed the victory in a career-best 1:54.2. The latter was 1¼ lengths back in second, with Boleto A Mexico third.

Outlaw Country On has won five of 15 starts in his debut season for trainer Rod Starkewski. Starkewski shares in ownership of the colt, now with earnings of $76,157, with Clauzette Byckal of Onoway, AB. The winner returned $59.50.

Outlaw Game On got home off a pocket trip to take the undercard feature, the $15,000 preferred pace. Mike Hennessy tucked the gelding in behind Ernesto Delacruz (Jean-Francois Gagne) for the garden trip through :26.4, :55.2, and 1:23 fractions. Locked in the pocket by the first-up Needabankloan (David Kelly) turning for home, Outlaw Game On shot up the passing lane in the stretch and out-sprinted the closing Midnight Mover (Drew Campbell) by a neck in 1:53. Ernesto Delacruz held third.

Rod Hennessy trains Outlaw Game On and co-owns him with Duffield, Five C Stable of Cranbrook, BC, and Jason Clouston of Okotoks, AB. The son of Smart Shark—Sobia Hanover is five-for-20 this year and 14-for-70 lifetime with a bankroll of $159,635. He paid $5 to win.

Mike Hennessy's two aforementioned wins brought his meet total to 92 as he wrapped up the driving title. The 2025 Alberta Driver of the Year finished with an 18-win margin over second-placed Brandon Campbell, with Phil Giesbrecht finishing third with 72 wins.

Rebecca Kanak captured the training crown with 53 victories. Campbell, with 45, was also second in the conditioners' standings. Chris Lancaster tallied on Saturday's card to tie with Mathew Howlett for third on 34 wins.

Snowonthe pines wows fans at Windsor

by Chris Tully for the Maine Sire Stakes

It was just another walk in the park for 3-year-old pacing sensation Snowonthe pines as Maine's unbeaten filly continued to put on a show for her fans and connections alike. With her unblemished record intact at the Windsor Fair, fairgoers on Monday (Aug. 31) witnessed two $17,000-plus divisions highlighted by the Marc Tardif-trainee picking up her 17th consecutive victory.

With the first $17,2109 division carded as an early, non-wagering race, Snowonthe pines went right to the top, but so did the upstart Heymickeyyousofine.

While Kevin Switzer, Jr. relinquished his seat on the engine to Heath Campbell momentarily, that spot was short-lived as the top filly was right back out and rolling for a retake.

Following the brief give-and-go, Switzer, Jr. posted moderate early fractions of :29.1 and 1:01 with no right lines being pulled. Heath Campbell and Heymickeyyousofine sat a tight pocket trip through the 1:30.3 third station, with the rest of the field fading from contention.

As the lead pair rolled down the stretch Switzer, Jr. never had an anxious moment, as they tripped the timer in 1:59.2 for the filly's eighth consecutive seasonal victory.

Snowonthe pines won all nine of her races as a rookie, and now has $162,3251 in lifetime earnings for trainer Marc Tardif and owner/breeder Leighton Property.

Heymickeyyousofine finished second by 1½ lengths; Graceofspades (Dave Ingraham) was third.

In the other $17,434 division, which was held on the regular program for 3-year-old pacing fillies, Just Delightful was finally able to get out from under the divisional leader's shadow, having finished second to Snowonthe pines in her four previous outings.

Co-owning driver Ron Cushing wasted little time moving his charge to the top, establishing a three-length lead by the time they hit the opening panel in a snappy :28.3. While reducing the tempo into a :59.1 midway point, the daughter of Western Maverick was on cruise control with Dudelooklikeafly (Aaron Hall) sitting in the pocket through the 1:29 third panel.

With nothing but air and opportunity in front of her Just Delightful hit her best stride down the Windsor homestretch with a :28.4 final quarter, leaving her rivals in a 5½ length wake to score in 1:57.4, a new lifetime best.

Trained by Heidi Cushing for owners Ron Cushing, Stephen Downey, Anthony Romanelli, and Joseph Romanelli, it was Just Delightful's third lifetime victory, with her earnings now at $88,414. Bred in Maine by Lynn-Marie Plouffe, she has nine second place finishes in 16 career outings and returned $2.60 as the 1-5 favorite.

Dudelooklikeafly finished second; Ekorus (Andy Harrington) was third.

Looking ahead, the harness racing action continues at Windsor Fair when freshmen sidesteppers hit town with the 2-year-old male pacers on Thursday (Sept. 3) and their female counterparts on Friday (Sept. 4).

MAINE'S TOP COLTS WRANGLE AT WINDSOR FAIR

3-year-old male pacers vying for divisional supremacy at one of Maine's historic agricultural fairs.

In the first $17,434 Maine Sire Stake race, which was held before the regular card, driver Aaron Hall had to overcome the outermost sixth post position with Rebel's Revenge to gain the lead. Parked to the opening panel by Tardif Taskforce stablemate Ghost Of Winter (Joey Mosher) in :28.4, the son of Deuce Seelster made every call a winning one, eventually settling in on the point.

With softer middle splits of 1:00 and 1:31, Hall gave his charge the cue around the final turn and the gelding responded with a :28.4 final quarter, holding off the late charge of Ghost Of Winter to win by a neck in 1:59.4.

Owned and trained by Marc Tardif, it was the third win of the season for Rebel's Revenge, who increased his career bankroll to $53,128. He was bred in Maine by Leighton Property.

Quint Asper (McGwire Sowers) finished third.

In the second $17,434 division for sophomore male pacers, another non-wagering event, it was a battle of the big shots as point leaders Daytoremember (Heath Campbell) and Real Horrorshow (Kevin Switzer, Jr.) drew into the same division.

As is usually the case, Switzer, Jr. sent Real Horrorshow right out to the front, where the son of Dude's The Man likes to be. Daytoremember had post 5 and got away fourth in a :29.4 first quarter.

As Real Horrorshow carried the field to a 1:00.2 half, Heath Campbell tipped Daytoremember to the outside, enjoying the cover of the Joey Mosher-driven Dude's The Jet. The field became stacked up at the 1:29.4 third stanza with three in and three out as the pacers tried to close in on the pacesetter.

At the head of the stretch, Real Horrorshow was able to gain some separation, while Daytoremember swooped the fading horses and was now second and bearing down on the leader. With identical :28.3 final quarters under their belts, both horses showed solid pace, but it was Real Horrorshow who reigned supreme by 1¼ lengths in 1:58.2.

Grabbing his sixth win of the season, and 15th of his career, Real Horrorshow, increased his lifetime earnings to $154,937. Trained by the senior Kevin Switzer, who also co-owns with Kathleen Mofield and Anthony Sivik, Jr., he was bred in Maine by Luke and Patricia Varnum.

With the victory, Real Horrorshow is now tied at 350 points with Daytoremember in their divisional point standings.

Silence Ofdarkness (Aaron Hall) was third.

Blazing Home N prevails in Joe Gerrity, Jr. Memorial

Blazing Home N prevailed in the 17th annual running of the $138,889 Joe Gerrity, Jr. Memorial Pace that took place on Saturday (Aug. 29) at Saratoga Casino Hotel.

One of the richest races of the year at the Spa included nine participants concluding a two-month stint in which the top local pacers slugged it out in invitational races to accrue points towards Saturday's event. Trainer/driver Larry Stalbaum's Blazing Home N scored just one victory in his six tries in the invitational races but finished on the board in each of his starts.

Leaving from post 6 in the Gerrity, Blazing Home N showed early speed to land in third but made a charge towards the lead crossing over in an opening quarter of :26.4. The 7-2 shot in the wagering reached the half in :55.3 while bracing for the challenge of 3-5 favorite Binge On Yankee (Kyle Swift), who had to come from well off the pace. Blazing Home N maintained a lead of two-plus lengths throughout before that margin was cut into late by Binge On Yankee, who finished just a neck short of victory. Longshot Full Metal Jacket (Wally Hennessey) made up a lot of ground in the race's final half to earn the show spot.

Blazing Home N's win was his ninth of the season to go along with 10 other top three finishes from 23 starts. The imported son of Rock N Roll Heaven—Capture My Heart has earned $223,486 of his $631,431 bankroll this year.

The Tyler Borth Show Saturday at Hanover

He hadn't been to Hanover Raceway for more than a month, but Tyler Borth certainly appeared right at home at the Grey-Bruce half-mile oval on Saturday (Aug. 29).

As Hanover Raceway hosted the finals for both the $44,500 Balanced Image and $53,000 Dream Of Glory for Ontario-sired trotters, Borth connected for five wins on the afternoon from his seven drives. Among those five wins: his first Balanced Image title courtesy of Mr Predictable.

Eight 2-year-old trotters lined up in the 2026 Balanced Image final, with Mr Predictable ($10.90) delivering a wire-to-wire performance for his first career victory. Borth pointed the son of Muscle Mass—Victoriahasasecret to the lead from post 3 and he cleared to the top through the opening turn. After fractions of :30.4, 1:03.1, and 1:34.3, Mr Predictable repelled the challenge of Shes Flexin (Jason Ryan) to win by 1¼ lengths in 2:04.4. Wolf Of Wallstreet (Austin Sorrie) edges Alarm Bell (Trevor Henry) for the show spot.

In six starts, Mr Predictable has a 1-2-0 summary with $33,350 in earnings. Blake MacIntosh — also a first-time Balanced Image winner — trains the gelding for Glenn Dyke of Townsend, DE.

Before Borth brought home the Balanced Image winner, he delivered Chip Happened ($3) to victory in the $7,500 Thibadeau Trot as well as Cant Control Carl (1:59.2; $5.90) and Charmbo Chip (2:02.4; $18.80) in conditioned events. He capped his five-win afternoon aboard All Bets On Leigh (2:02; $5.40) in the $15,000 Doc Morley Memorial Pace.

One year ago, freshman Toss Of The Dice was favored in the 2025 Balanced Image Trot. He broke stride while on the lead, taking himself out of contention for driver Trevor Henry and trainer Kyle Fellows. The 25th edition of the Dream Of Glory for 3-year-old trotters provided those participants with a measure of redemption.

A strong sextet lined up in the Dream Of Glory, with Thor B Good (Jonathan Drury) using the rail starting spot to find the front early and set the tempo. After a :29 opener, Stonebridge Wings (Phil Hudon) started the outer flow from fifth to prompt 3-5 choice Toss Of The Dice and Henry out of fourth to forge first up into a :59.3 half.

Henry and Toss Of The Dice still had more than a length to make up at the 1:29.1 third station, but the lead was diminishing around the final turn. Drury asked Thor B Good to be better, but Toss Of The Dice had enough left in the tank to roll past by a half-length for the 2:00.2 decision. D A Masstermind (Ondrej Gois) was third.

Toss Of The Dice (Archangel—Roll Sevens) is owned by Yolanda Fellows of Rockwood, ON, Leo Fleming of Campbellville, ON, Bill Manes of Rockwood, ON, and Bill Cripps of Acton, ON. In 25 starts, he sports a summary of 8-2-5 with $166,650 in career earnings. As the 3-5 favorite, Toss Of The Dice returned $3.20 to his $2 win supporters.

The win in the Dream Of Glory was also a first for Henry — a longtime driving champion at the Hanover oval — as well as Fellows.

Woodmere Rock It dominates Joe O'Brien Gold

Woodmere Rock It delivered another commanding performance to remain undefeated in seven career starts Sunday afternoon (Aug. 29) in the Joe O'Brien Memorial stake at Red Shores at the Summerside Raceway.

The 2-year-old son of Tobago Cays made a brief break in the middle of the first turn in the lone $27,760 O'Brien Memorial Gold division in race 11 but quickly recovered and powered to the lead for driver Adam Merner. Woodmere Rock It controlled fractions of :28.1, :58.1, and 1:28 before sprinting home in 28 seconds to win by 3¾ lengths in 1:56 flat.

The Jamie Smith-trained Woodmere Rock It ($2.10) is owned by TheStable Woodmere Rock It of Guelph, ON. Malicious Benny (Marc Campbell) finished second with Woodmere Fergus (Jason Hughes) completing the triactor.

Campbell dominated the program with six driving victories, including both $27,120 Lady Slipper Stakes Gold divisions for 2-year-old pacing fillies from the Earl Watts stable.

Sheeowtime Speed ($3.20) captured the first Gold split in race 2 with a first-over advance before closing home in 29 seconds to win in 1:58 flat. Howmac Lula (Gilles Barrieau) was second with front stepper Isle Impress You (Ken Murphy) third. The winning Somewhere Fancy filly is owned by Windemere Farms of Springvale and Matt and David Burke of Stratford.

Starship Daisy ($2.20) prevailed in the other Lady Slipper Gold division in race 7. Campbell and the Watts trainee sat second and took command in the stretch to win by two lengths in 1:58.4. Redland Equinox (Kenny Arsenault) finished second over Nauti Beach (Murphy). Francis Poirier of Havre-Aux-Maisons, QC, owns the winning daughter of Somewhere Fancy.

Watts and Campbell also teamed for victories with Ryder Roo ($2.60) in a $13,880 Joe O'Brien Memorial Grassroots division in 1:57.4 and Ys Fancy Speed ($2.10) in a $13,560 Lady Slipper Grassroots split in 1:59.4.

Campbell's other victories came in $13,380 O'Brien Memorial Grassroots divisions aboard Wilson Cassidy ($3.80) for trainer Kevin Bailey in 1:58.3 and Grampiesdirtyjokes ($2.10) for trainer Landon Campbell in 1:59.4.

Irish Rover ($33.80) supplied the upset of the afternoon in the opening Joe O'Brien Memorial Grassroots division. Trainer/driver Monica Sutherland moved the 15-1 shot first-over and prevailed in 2:01 over Woodmere Archie (Murphy) and Pour Me Another (Hughes).

Southdale Jeff ($2.60) was a front-end winner in another Joe O'Brien Grassroots division for trainer/driver Merner. The Rollwithitharry colt stopped the clock in 1:58.1.

Redland Abby ($6.20) and Hughes controlled every fraction of their Lady Slipper Grassroots division before winning by 4¾ lengths in 2:00.2. Stephen Quinn trains the Pang Shui filly.

Cafe De Flore ($2.90) captured another Lady Slipper Grassroots division in 1:58.4 for driver Murphy and trainer Saul Lanigan.

Dancin Lady Lou ($6.90) closed out the 12-dash presentation with a 2:00 victory for the daughter of Dancin Lou for trainer/driver Mike McGuigan in the final $13,560 Lady Slipper Grassroots division.

Shalom Hanover, post 1; Starstruck Dreamer, post 8 for PASS championship

This Sunday and Monday, the eastern Pennsylvania harness tracks, Harrah's Philadelphia and Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania, will be playing host to $2.8M worth of Pennsylvania Sire Stakes championship and consolation races, with the sophomores on Sunday (Sept. 5) at Philly and the freshmen on Monday at Pocono.

As stated earlier, a press release will be issued today, previewing all eight of the championships, divided by sex and gait, and that will still be forthcoming. However, the card for the 2-year-olds was drawn Tuesday at Pocono, and it yielded a significant piece of information about the highly-anticipated matchup in the freshman colt pace finale between Shalom Hanover and Starstruck Dreamer, both sub-1:50f winners at Pocono on Aug. 3 and both undefeated in five starts.

Starstruck Dreamer drew post 8.

This advantageous shake of the pills might provide a significant edge for Shalom Hanover (Papi Rob Hanover—Sammy's Magic Girl), who set a 1:49.2f world record in his Pocono race for driver Louis-Philippe Roy, trainer Dr. Ian Moore, and the Shalom Hanover Stable. He has since won the Dream Maker and Nassagaweya Stakes in his native Ontario.

On the other hand, Starstruck Dreamer (Captaintreacherous—Scarlett Hanover) is far from having had his chances ruined despite the tough draw for driver Todd McCarthy, trainer Noel Daley, and owners Steve Wienick Racing LLC, Pryde Stables Inc, JFoderaTRitchieCanAmerica, and Hyatt Holdings Inc. Starstruck Dreamer, who won in 1:49.4f at Pocono, then went on to Philly on Aug. 14 and paced the fastest mile ever by a 2-year-old on a five-eighths-mile track, 1:48.4.

The dramatic post draw in this eagerly-awaited freshman matchup seemed to merit its own short story – but the full, detailed release on all the Sire Stakes races will still be issued this afternoon, after Philly draws the card for the 3-year-olds.

Schedule for Pennsylvania-sired pari-mutuel championships

With the last preliminary rounds of the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes and Pennsylvania Stallion Series completed on Sunday afternoon (Aug. 30), there's scant time to catch one's breath before this coming Labor Day Weekend's staging of the championship events of these pari-mutuel programs for the premier Pennsylvania-sired 2- and 3-year-olds, in aggregate worth over $3 million for the cream of the Pennsylvania crop.

Pennsylvania rotates the Stallion Series championships, the 3-year-old Sire Stakes championships, and the 2-year-old Sire Stakes championships among the state's three pari-mutuel harness racetracks. In 2026, Hollywood Casino at The Meadows will lead off with all eight (by age, sex, and gait) of the Stallion Series championships on Saturday (Sept. 5) at 12:45 p.m.; Harrah's Philadelphia follows with the four 3-year-old Sire Stakes championships on the following day at 12:40; and the championship weekend concludes with the four finales for 2-year-olds at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania on Labor Day Monday (Sept. 7) at 1 p.m.

Even though the Pocono freshmen races will be raced last, through a quirk in the Pennsylvania draw schedules (partly-necessitated by program printing schedules), the baby championships were drawn first, on Tuesday morning. Both the 3YO championships and all the Stallion Series championships will be drawn this morning (Sept. 2).

The Pennsylvania Harness Horsemen's Association (PHHA), chief dispenser of racing information for the two "Eastern tracks" (Philly and Pocono), plans on sending out a combined press release later this afternoon (Sept. 2), highlighting the matchups in all of the freshman and sophomore groups, notably the long-awaited 2-year-old colt pace championship, with its two sub-1:50f world record setters in Starstruck Dreamer and Shalom Hanover.

The Meadows and the Meadows Standardbred Owners Association (MSOA) will likewise have pertinent information on the Stallion Series championships, with one focus being if the PA StS championships can produce a sub-1:50 mile – both Flash Attack (2023, Meadows) and Snack Attack (2025, Pocono) have gone in exactly 1:50, and whether that standard can be broken will be interesting to follow.
