"I think it is a sabotage," Funtime Bayama's former caretaker testifies at Richard Moreau appeal hearing

On Aug. 6, Quebec-based private investigator Joseph Nino was interviewed as a witness for Richard Moreau in the suspended trainer's Ontario Horse Racing Appeal Panel (HRAP) appeal hearing.

"It was Mr. Richard Moreau who gave me the mandate to investigate the case of doping of Funtime [Bayama] in June 2024," testified the owner of Agence d'investigation l'Exécutif, who was hired by the trainer in Oct. 2024 to look into circumstances

TROTting INTO THE FUTURE!

“There’s no conclusive evidence of who administered DPO to Funtime Bayama, you know, but [there is] evidence that Yves Filion, Bayama Farms, has [allegedly] possessed and used DPO in the past... The investigation is not finished yet... Evidence that the primary equine veterinarian of Yves Filion and Bayama Farms, [Dr.] Pierre Tardif, has [allegedly] prescribed DPO to owners of racehorses in the past, you know, we can see that.”

— Joseph Nino

veterinarian Dr. Pierre Tardif; horse owner Sylvain Côté; former Moreau employees Steve Labonté and Justin Turcotte; and Dany Mainguy, the former brother-in-law of Sylvain and Justin Filion. Nino said that Sylvain Filion was “in contradiction” about basic facts, like whether he knew Dr. Tardif. The investigator said that Sylvain confirmed that his father, Yves Filion, was “the person who [made] all the decisions” about the horse, whether Yves had “Alzheimer’s or not, good health or not.”

Nino testified that Sylvain Filion said Yves had received two offers for Funtime Bayama in 2024.

“They sold the horse... and he [Sylvain] confirmed that the horse was suspended in Canada, but he can race in the United States,” said the investigator. “[Sylvain] confirmed that it was his father’s decision, not his [to sell].”

The paper trail for the DPO covertly administered to Funtime Bayama followed a convoluted path.

In his testimony, Nino told the panel that Dr. Pierre Tardif said he got a call from Justin Filion around “February or March 2024, to ask him about information about [unspecified] medication.”

Counsel for the Appellant Robert MacKenzie asked Nino, “Were you, in your view, able to determine directly the source of the DPO for Funtime Bayama, the horse?”

Nino replied, “There’s no conclusive evidence of who administered DPO to Funtime Bayama, you know, but [there is] evidence that Yves Filion, Bayama Farms, [allegedly] has possessed and used DPO in the past... The investigation is not finished yet... Evidence that the primary equine veterinarian of Yves Filion and Bayama Farms, [Dr.] Pierre Tardif, has [allegedly] prescribed DPO to owners of racehorses in the past, you know, we can see that.”

He noted that some of his interviewees were “reluctant to cooperate” because of “fearfulness of Yves Filion or the family Filion.”

HRAP member Nicole Pace asked whether the Quebec-based investigator had interviewed Moreau.

“I’ve asked him many questions, in different occasions,” Nino said. “Mr. Moreau didn’t even ask me about Filions or other people. What Mr. Moreau asked me to get [was] the information [on] who can do that and who did that [administered DPO]... Which person that we have, it doesn’t matter if it’s Filion family or not.”

When the hearing resumed on Aug. 31, witness Justin Filion appeared under summons, with assistance from court interpreter Nathalie Feldberg.

“In the summer of 2024, you were contacted by the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario regarding an investigation into Funtime Bayama, and the investigators indicated, as far as we know, you did not cooperate or respond to their correspondence,” said Counsel for the Appellant Robert MacKenzie. “Can you tell us why, please?”

Initially answering in English, Justin replied, “My health is not good,” before switching back to French to clarify that he had been unable to respond to the AGCO at the time due to his addiction problems.

“You’re saying you previously stopped working with the horses when you felt your dependency was bad?” asked MacKenzie.

Justin said that he had done so and had sought help over the past 25 years from fraternités (support groups). He testified that when under the influence, he didn’t feel he had control over his decisions or actions, but denied that he was impaired when working with horses or at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Justin stated that Bayama Farms, located in Saint-André-D’Argenteuil, QC, was owned and operated by his father Yves. He testified that he worked there “on and off” since age 15, looking after horses and doing physical labor, but not specifically training or making veterinary decisions. Justin said that he had not worked there since relapsing into addiction in July 2024.

“Did [Yves] have a special approach or program for medication for his horses?” asked MacKenzie.

“I can’t answer for my father,” replied Justin, in French.

“Did you see it, though, when you were the trainer for Yves Filion horses, that he asked or told you which medications to use?” asked MacKenzie.

“No, he would be the one who decided everything,” Justin answered via interpreter. He denied being asked to procure medications for use on his father’s horses racing in Ontario. He said that because of relapsing, he could not remember whether his father conducted blood tests on any horses in 2023-24, or details of breaking and training Funtime Bayama with his uncle Rheo, under the supervision of Yves. Justin denied that the gelding was treated as “extra special.”

“With Funtime Bayama, before it started racing, who was the person training the horse?” asked MacKenzie.

“I don’t remember, I wasn’t,” Justin replied in English, adding that he could not speak for Sylvain.

“I never did anything with Funtime Bayama [at Richard Moreau’s stable]. I just visited it.”

— Justin Filion, via interpreter

MacKenzie presented a July 2, 2023 chart line from Funtime Bayama’s first Rideau Carleton Raceway qualifier, in which Yves Filion drove and Justin Filion was listed as trainer. When asked about why his name appeared, Justin responded that he couldn’t remember, but he could have been listed because he often helped his father. MacKenzie next presented a training agreement between Justin Filion and Richard Moreau Stables, dated Nov. 30, 2023, and asked whether the contract was for Funtime Bayama. Justin said it concerned La Barbe, a horse he, not Yves, had owned and trained.

Justin acknowledged visiting Funtime Bayama at Mohawk and Moreau’s farm in the weeks leading up to the 2024 North America Cup. He said through the interpreter that he was not working, but simply watching over Funtime Bayama because his father’s health was declining and he “tried to bring him good news, to comfort him.”

When questioned about the sale of Funtime Bayama, Justin responded in English, “At that time, it was not important for me, the money.”

MacKenzie asked him if he currently knew how much the gelding had sold for; Justin answered $800,000 American, but denied knowledge of who received the money, stating, “I don’t do the books and everything... I can’t answer for those people.”

MacKenzie asked, “After the positive test was announced, with Richard Moreau’s suspension, what happened to the sale?”

Justin said he didn’t remember; he had been dealing with personal health issues and the sale was his father’s business.

When MacKenzie asked if “[Justin] or anyone in his family, Bayama Farm owners, tried to find out the source of the positive test,” the suspended horseman replied that they had not discussed it because family relationships had deteriorated. He agreed that he knew of Dr. Pierre Tardif, but denied phoning any veterinarian in spring 2024 or knowing Quebec veterinarians who prescribed DPO.

“I didn’t have anything to do with that,” Justin said via interpreter. “I don’t know about that product.”

The Counsel for the Appellant directed attention to a screenshot of an Aug. 2024 post from Justin Filion’s Facebook account.

“I don’t remember that,” Justin said.

“Do you remember deleting it?” asked MacKenzie.

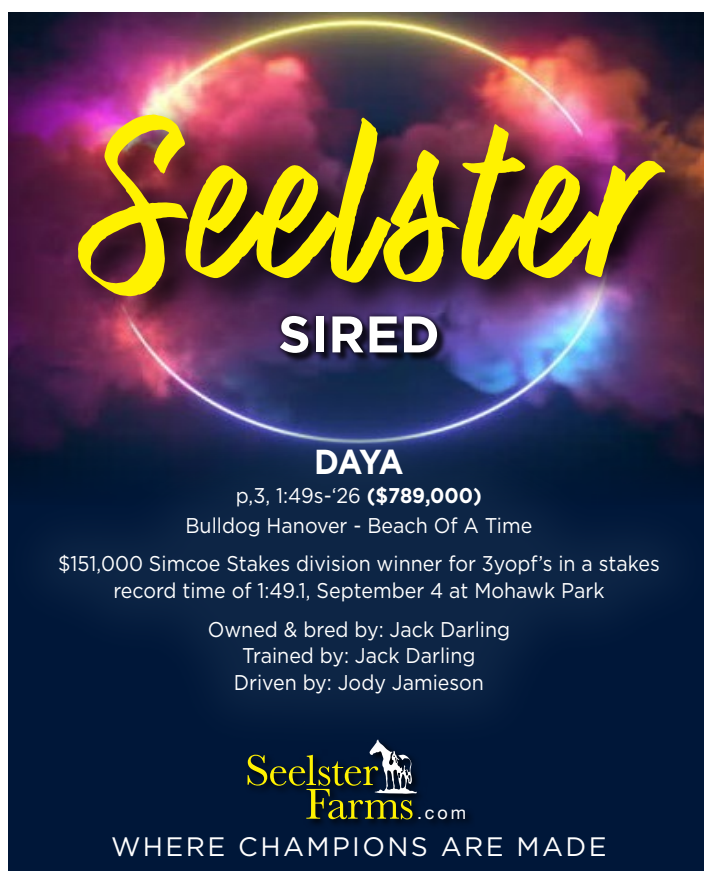

Justin replied that he did not remember because of his heavy drug use starting in July 2024.

“Do you have an idea of what it was that you were posting about when you wrote, ‘pourquoi il m’arrive rien?’” (In English, “why is nothing happening to me?”) asked MacKenzie.

Justin replied through the interpreter that he had been experiencing “toxic psychosis... so I don’t know what I wrote or what I did.”

Justin confirmed that he had been to Bayama Farms as recently as last weekend (Aug. 29-30), but to spend time with his parents, not horses.

“My father doesn’t have the health to have complete conversations,” he said tearfully, in French. He acknowledged that Sylvain Filion owned a house beside Yves Filion’s farm.

Counsel for the Registrar Alexandra Heine next questioned Justin about how frequently he visited Moreau's Puslinch, ON farm.

"Over the years, many times," he replied through his interpreter. "When, exactly, I don't know, but I would always go accompanied by my family."

Heine asked, "When you were on Mr. Moreau's property, was he always supervising what you were doing with Funtime Bayama?"

Justin replied via the interpreter, "I never did anything with Funtime Bayama. I just visited it."

He said that on the rare occasion when Moreau was absent, farm employees were around. He denied being constantly alongside Funtime Bayama at Mohawk, and said he could not remember whether Moreau was usually there when he was with the horse.

"Do you remember that you attended Moreau Stables on June 9th, 2024 with your brother, your sister [Julie], and your sister's boyfriend?" asked Heine.

"I don't remember, but it's possible," Justin replied via interpreter.

He agreed that he had attended the North America Cup on June 15, 2024, and had asked Moreau about feeding Funtime Bayama in the retention barn.

"He had told me, 'No, don't feed the horse; it's going to be too much,'" he said, in French.

Heine said, "First off, congratulations on your current sobriety. Did you ever contact the [AGCO] investigators or inspectors to let them know about your health circumstances?"

Justin replied that he had not.

In cross-examination by Robert MacKenzie, Justin said through his translator that he had visited Moreau's farm "always for my father," rather than as an independent owner.

MacKenzie inquired about whether Justin or Sylvain "gave something to the horse that you thought was going to help its health" on June 9, 2024, the day after Funtime Bayama won his North America Cup elimination.

Justin replied in French that he would never do that to a horse in training.

HRAP Chair Stanley Sadinsky allowed Justin Filion's request to complete his testimony rather than break for lunch. That afternoon, another key witness appeared under summons: Sylvain Filion.

TALES FROM THE CURMUDGEON

with MURRAY BROWN

Barry Guariglia is a proud harness racing 'lifer'

by Murray Brown

Barry Guariglia was at The Meadowlands on opening night, Sept. 1, 1976. He was one of the 42,133 fans in attendance on that special evening. He has remained a harness racing fan ever since. It was another 11 years before he attended his first Harrisburg sale, made his first yearling purchase, and bought the Colt Fortysix colt Dakota Hanover for the price of $17,000.

In the almost 40-year span since that first sale, there has never been a time when he did not own an interest in at least one and usually somewhere around a handful of horses. He is part of that relatively small number of owner/fans who we refer to as "lifers" — those who share an affinity for harness racing so great that it has become a significant part of their life.

You entered the business first as a fan, next you were a yearling buyer, and in the process, you skipped the racehorse stage through which most begin. How did that come about?

"That is very true. But there was an 11-year gap between my first going to The Meadowlands and when I bought my first horse. In the interim, I had become, for lack of a better term, a student of the game. I had continued going to the track. I had followed the various horse journals. I had become interested in the bloodlines of the horses. Perhaps, just as importantly I had evolved to a position where I was able to afford being able to purchase a horse. Likely I had wanted to own horses almost from the very beginning. Being able to afford them might have been a different thing.

"As my interest in breeding grew, I determined that I really didn't have a whole lot of interest in owning overnighters or claimers. Although through my years in the game, I've claimed a few, usually based on their pedigree with a view to having a future broodmare.

"I had followed and read about the greats such as Bret Hanover and Albatross. They had started from the yearling stage.

"I decided that if I wanted to own horses, I wanted to reach for the stars. That is not to say that there isn't a place, perhaps even the best situation for a beginner to get into the game, than for him to own a racehorse, perhaps a claimer. But I had decided to skip that entry level.

"Looking back, that might not have been the wisest way to get into the sport, but it has turned out pretty well. That first horse, Dakota Hanover, wasn't the champion that I had dreamed about, but he turned out to be quite decent. He earned $141,965 when that was more like they say, better than an empty stall, and expenses were far less than they are today."

As a financial planner for Morgan Stanley, you are far from being a full-time owner of harness horses.

"Yes. I began as a financial advisor at Merrill Lynch in 1983 right out of college. I remained with them until the financial crisis of 2008 when they were taken over by Bank of America. I then moved to Morgan Stanley where I've been since then.

"I like to think that my background in the financial industry has helped me in the horse business.

I try not to go into things in a helter-skelter fashion. Most of my decisions in both venues are made through careful planning. Perhaps just as importantly, the people I deal with in each pursuit are of prime importance.

"In the financial industry, I've only been involved with two firms. For the most part, the same applies to the horse business. I suppose I’ve chosen my trainers wisely. I began with Hall of Famer Gene Riegler. After Gene’s passing, I transitioned to Hall of Famer Jimmy Takter. When Jimmy retired, my horses went to his daughter Nancy, with whom I have been ever since.

“With regard to my partners in the horse business, they have included the Takters and two other ‘lifers,’ Herb Liverman and Marvin Katz, in addition to several other clients of the Takter family.”

What is the makeup of your horse portfolio today?

“I own parts of about a half dozen racehorses together with a similar number of broodmares. I also own some equity in Karl which I’ve owned since he was bought as a yearling and throughout his racing career at 2 and 3. He has recently completed his first season in the stud at Southwind Farms. I’ve been told that he performed quite successfully in settling his mares from a full book.”

Speaking of Southwind and New Jersey, what is the future for Karl, since Southwind has announced that they will shortly cease operations?

“That’s still open. But the powers that be are working on it. If an appropriate deal can be reached, ideally, we’d like for him to remain in New Jersey. But that would depend on the State of New Jersey, The Meadowlands, and the SBOANJ to come up with an acceptable situation.”

Let’s switch gears a little and speak of some of the best horses with which you’ve been associated.

“The three best undoubtedly are Manchego, Stienam’s Place and the aforementioned Karl... I’ve been blessed to own all three.

“The first was Stienam’s Place. We bought her as a yearling in 1994 for $62,000. She was a fantastic race filly earning $1,406,306. She has perhaps exceeded her racing exploits in the breeding rankings being the dam of the multiple Hall of Fame filly Put On A Show [$2,406,628] and in establishing her own branch of a prolific pacing family.

“Next was Manchego. We bought her as a yearling in 2015 for $120,000. I remember her as a yearling. She was drop dead gorgeous. Once she began racing, if anything, she exceeded our expectations, maybe even far exceeded them. She earned $3,144,777 on the racetrack. She is now a broodmare. Her first foal, the filly La Mancha just recently won a stakes race at The Red Mile in 1.52.3. She is not quite Manchego caliber yet. She likely will never be. But she seems to be pretty talented.

Her next foal is a yearling colt by Walner named Jarlsberg who is a day one yearling at the upcoming Lexington Selected Yearling Sale. She has a weanling filly, also by Walner and is in foal to Karl.

"The third member of that triumvirate is Karl. We bought him as a yearling in 2022 for $130,000. He earned $2,046,066 at 2 and 3. His wins included the Hambletonian. He just finished his first full season at stud where he served a full book of 136 mares. The word I've received is that he performed quite admirably and successfully got a good number of his mares in foal."

What does the future hold for you?

"In the immediate future, I'm looking forward to attending the Grand Circuit races at The Red Mile. We intend to be there for the week of the sales and the races. Of course, we will be going to the sales where we will likely be both a spectator and a participant. I generally tag along with Nancy Takter as she makes her rounds evaluating the yearlings on offer. That's something I've done ever since we had our horses with the Riegles. I don't know how much I contribute, but I enjoy doing it and I've certainly learned a lot in the process."

NOTE: This has nothing to do with Barry Guariglia or the article above, but I thought I'd make mention of what I view as potentially a very significant race coming up today (Sept. 6).

I often think of myself as sometimes being jaded by races involving our best horses. I think because I've seen so many thousands of them, I often am.

Today's 10th race at Pocono Downs is one that I would go out of my way to make sure that I saw. I'm suggesting that if you are an avid harness racing fan, that you do the same.

It's the $300,000 Pennsylvania Sires Stakes final for 2-year-old pacing colts. Sure, it's the richest race for freshman colt pacers thus far in 2026. But there will be richer and perhaps more prestigious races as the season progresses. What makes this race so interesting?

It brings together two of the most exciting pacing colts I've seen this year and perhaps ever. The two undefeated colts are Shalom Hanover, who drew the rail and Starstruck Dreamer who drew the dreaded 8-hole.

What makes this race so interesting for me?

It deals with the similarity in the pedigrees of both colts.

Through a lifetime of watching horses of various pedigrees, I've never before seen two top colts in the same year carrying such similar bloodlines.

Shalom Hanover and Starstruck Dreamer are each sired by a son of Somebeachsomewhere: Shalom Hanover is by Papi Rob Hanover and Starstruck Dreamer is by Captaintreacherous.

The similarities only begin there.

It's in their maternal lines where the similarities, to my knowledge, are without precedent.

The Western Hanover mare Sammy's Magic Girl is the dam of Shalom Hanover. Sammy's Magic Girl is also the dam of Scarlett Hanover, who happens to be the dam of Starstruck Dreamer.

In human terms, Sammy's Magic Girl is the mother of Shalom Hanover and the grandmother of Starstruck Dreamer. Shalom Hanover is Starstruck Dreamer's uncle. Somebeachsomewhere is the paternal grandfather of both of them.

If you've seen something similar ever happening, I'd like to know.

“Although I didn’t win [the Bernie Kelley International Ladies Race], I gave it my best and the mare raced great. I felt I did a good job. When the horse’s trainer met me in the winner’s circle to get his blue ribbon, he told me that was the fastest mile of his mare’s life, so that made me feel pretty good.”

— Christina Johnson

How did you first become involved in harness racing?

“I was born in Alvin, TX, but presently live in Canton, Ohio. When I was little, my mother was active in rodeos, and I was involved in barrel racing, competing with quarter horses.

“None of my family was in the sport, except for one cousin named Paul Kennedy, Jr.

“One day I met a horse trainer named Leon Cable who asked if I wanted to go to Florida to work for him during the winter and I jumped at the opportunity.

“Today, I have my own stable. It consists of one yearling, two 2-year-olds, one 3-year-old, three 4-year-olds, and two aged horses. I race mostly at Northfield Park, the Ohio fairs, and Shenandoah Downs.”

Do you have a horse who holds a special place in your heart?

“I love all my horses the same, but I would have to say if I had to pick one it would be the mare, Crystal Chris. She was my invitational pacer and once in a lifetime horse.

“I drove her at Northville Downs, and she was the first horse I won with as a driver. ‘Crystal’ won four races in a row there, despite the fact the boys parked us the entire mile.

“Disaster is my 2-year-old trotter, and I have high hopes for him; but the one horse that will always hold a special place in my heart is a little trotter my owner purchased from the Amish. His name was Ambro Believe and he cost $1,800.

“He was the horse that taught me how to balance a trotter. He kept making breaks when I first got him, but once I got him right, he went from being a $3,000 claimer at Northfield to an open trotter at Hoosier Park.

“Sadly, one night when I raced him in a Winner’s Over at Northville, he passed away after the race from a pulmonary embolism. His death broke me and I almost walked away from the business for the heartbreak was too much to bear. I never experienced losing a horse before and pray it won’t happen again. That was the worst experience I had in the business and do not wish that on anyone. It is quite devastating. ‘Believe’ was also my first qualifying drive [and I won!]”

Can you talk a little about your experience in Ireland and Wales?

“All I can say is wow! The entire experience was incredible. The sell-out crowd, and all the people who showed up to cheer on their favorite horse and driver.

“The fans truly treated the female drivers like ‘ladies’ and we felt like we were literally movie stars.

“My friend Roger Huston asked me to compete in the Bernie Kelley International Ladies Charity Race representing the USA in 2026. When I asked him what the requirements were, he said,

'You must be the best female driver.'

"In 2024, I put 100,000 miles on my vehicle, competing in every race I was put in and won every major event. I won the finals, the point standings and the Pace for the Cure race (which I won in 2023, 2024, and 2025).

"I was victorious in Delaware for the amateur trots, as well as the Lady Series final.

"For the race at the VDM, I was blessed to have drawn the rail, but I was also driving the only horse that was not handicapped in the race, with a rating of 31, some of the other horses in there had ratings of 72.

"Despite this, the racing God's were with me that day. I gave the mare a perfect trip, sat in the pocket and finished third, getting beat by two open horses who were very much the best.

"Although I didn't win, I gave it my best and the mare raced great.

"I felt I did a good job. When the horse's trainer met me in the winner's circle to get his blue ribbon, he told me that was the fastest mile of his mare's life, so that made me feel pretty good.

"Beside the races, we got to see a lot of different areas in Ireland as well as Wales. The entire country is amazing."

What has been your most exciting experience in the business?

"When I was racing Ucan Call Me Apple in the Kentucky [Fair] Stakes. We set a track record in the 3-year-old filly division and won all the divisions but one that year. We had big expectations for the final, but unfortunately the mare entrapped and we finished third."

I'm sure you have many people you would like to thank for giving you these opportunities.

"Yes, I would like to thank the USTA [United States Trotting Association], the Great Lakes Amateur Driving Association, the Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association, Harrod Insurance Company, Diamond Creek Farm, and the Delaney family who sponsored my trip and made it possible for me to go there and represent the United States as a driver.

"I'd also like to thank Heather Wilder. She puts in so much work organizing everything to get the ladies there and is truly an amazing person.

"And last but not least, I want to thank Roger Huston. He not only sponsored me but believed enough in my talent enough to select me as their international lady driver."

Tears and regrets

The stately, white clapboard house with black shutters wasn't a mansion. A blacktop driveway threaded between a canopy of old oak trees toward the welcoming front porch.

Martha Conklin Pettigrew, sporting a black and white checkerboard shirt tucked into black pants, awaited her 10 a.m. appointment with the police detective. She stood framed in the arch of the front door. Her eyes were nearly as red as her hair. With her hands clasped behind her back, she looked like a determined suffragette standing watch in 1919.

She stuck out her right hand, "You must be Detective Hooley." He took it, noticing her bones and damp palm, "Guilty as charged." "Where is your partner?"

"Emergency, he's at the dentist."

Just then, a second woman with tight blonde curls, a full head shorter, and a large cotton wad supported by two white strips of medical tape in the shape of a large letter X that extended from her eyebrows to her cheek, leaned into the doorway.

Hooley remained calm and extended his hand towards the female pirate and said, "Frieda, I presume."

Frieda remained slightly behind her friend, but snaked her hand between the doorjamb and Martha's hip. They shared a tepid shake.

There was a nervous trill in her voice when Martha said, "It's a lovely morning; what if we all sit on the porch?"

"Great," said Hooley, "I don't get many chances to work from a rocking chair overlooking a plantation."

She smiled, "Can I get you something to drink?"

"Nah, I'm good."

The trio tugged three rocking chairs into a semi-circle, Hooley on the right with Martha in the center. They each gave a tentative test tilt of their chairs.

Hooley broke the silence. "Of course, you know I am here concerning your claim against your husband. Our investigation proves that he was not involved in the incident at the racetrack that led to Miss Slotnick's injuries."

The red-haired woman erupted, "But he was! He set a chain reaction in motion. If he had allowed me access to the horse, if he had cooperated with the ownership, and if he had not concealed the valuable animal, and if he wasn't the world's biggest liar, none of this would have happened. Frieda could have lost an eye. It's all his fault - he's a con man to his core, and he leaves destruction in his wake."

"Hundred percent," muttered Frieda.

Hooley took a breath and let it out. "Let's say your husband is a scumbag."

"He is."

"Absolutely," chimed in Frieda.

"A chain reaction prosecution is not going to hold up in any court. It will never get inside a courtroom. Everything in life is a chain reaction. My partner is not here today because, at breakfast this morning, he chipped his incisor trying to crack open the shell of a pistachio. He can't blame the grocery store or the pistachio farm."

"The grocery or farm did not have malice."

"Look, Martha, that dog ain't gonna hunt. I suggest you follow other avenues for resolving your issues."

"HOW? This is such a mess. I'm such a fool. All the money he has is MY money. I feel like I am suing myself. His only job is scamming people. If he got paid by the hour, he would be a millionaire. Do you know how embarrassing, how humiliating, it is to be a widow, sucked into the web of a gold-digging gigolo?"

To be a cliché? Do you?"

"Do you?" echoed Frieda.

"Well, obviously not."

"Are the police just going to quit investigating?"

"Mrs. Pettigrew..."

"Another humiliating mistake. Please refer to me as Martha, or Mrs Conklin."

"Sure, Martha, or Mrs. Conklin. The end of a bad marriage is about lawyers and settlements. If the police got tangled in every situation like this, we wouldn't have time for real crimes."

The instant Hooley uttered the words "real crimes," he knew it was a poor choice of words. Martha crumpled into a sobbing, broken woman.

Frieda threw her arm around her friend, knelt at her side, and hissed, "It's a real crime to her."

Hooley did not know if he should stay or go - both felt rude. So, he stayed.

Fifteen minutes later, her weeping dissolved into heavy sighs. They were sitting back in their rocking chairs.

Martha collected herself and spoke softly, "I believe the racehorse is the soft underbelly that can, for once, make Alex Pettigrew pay a price. There is something suspicious about his recent interest in horses. Ironically, horse racing was his first of many lies."

Hooley tossed her a questioning shrug.

"My first husband, Charles Conklin, died last year. It was a sad time. We were not blessed with children. Both of us were only children, with not much family."

"My condolences."

"Standing in the line at the funeral home, a stranger approached me at the casket. A nice-looking man in his forties wearing a black sweater."

He said, "You don't know me. My name is Alex Pettigrew. I knew Charlie from the racetrack. I am at the racetrack all the time. I ran into Charlie five or six times a year. Over the years, we became racetrack pals. He spoke very highly of you."

"How kind of you to come. It's so nice to meet you."

"The first time I met Charlie, he was sitting in the grandstands with his race program open, maybe four or five seats to my right. I noticed him patting at his pockets, looking for something. So, I leaned his way and said, 'Need a pen?'"

Charlie said, "I seem to have forgotten mine."

So, I flipped him a blue pen with white advertising on the barrel that read - Pioneer Downs Racetrack."

He said, "Thanks."

I said, "No problem, I just swiped a dozen from the stand that sells programs." We had a laugh and a good time, and it just continued from there."

"I don't recall him mentioning your name, but how very sweet of you to share that story, Mr. Pettigrew."

"Just call me Alex. It was all informal, Charlie and me, getting together, just boys' night out stuff. I don't think we ever talked on the phone. Oh, and I have a little something for you." He reached into the vest pocket of his tan sports coat and pulled out a blue pen with white advertising from the racetrack."

The tall woman closed her eyes. "Detective Hooley, the whole thing was an act. Premeditated. He came to my husband's funeral with a fairy tale and a prop. He used the obituary that contained the sentence, 'Charles enjoyed monthly trips to watch the horses trot and pace at Pioneer Downs Racetrack.'"

Hooley could only stare into her red-rimmed eyes.

Fighting back tears, she said, "Later, too late, I discovered the slimeball never went to the racetrack, never was a financial advisor, never was a consultant for a plastic company, and never lived in Europe. But he had swindled people from everywhere and received a suspended sentence for insurance fraud."

Frieda whispered, "And the dirtbag never gets caught."

Storybook Love lands in Simcoe Stake

by Ray Cotolo for Woodbine communications

Matt Bax pupil Storybook Love, who surprised last fall to win the Grade 1 Breeders Crown 2-Year-Old Filly Trot, notched the first win of her sophomore season with a comfortable 1:53.1 victory on home turf at Woodbine Mohawk Park in the first of two divisions of the $156,000 Grade 3 Simcoe Stakes for 3-year-old trotting fillies on Friday night (Sept. 4).

Sent off as the 2-5 favorite, driver Todd Ratchford sent Storybook Love forward and snugly planted on the helm to a :28 first quarter. She encountered a mid-race challenge when Bingo Night looped out of third to push for command into a :57.4 half, but Storybook Love tracked steadily from the pocket until Ratchford eased her off the pylons to three-quarters in 1:25.3. Once given racetrack, Storybook Love zipped by Bingo Night and strolled down the lane under wraps for a 1½ length win. Courtneys Promise kicked from a close stalking trip for second with Barbara May following suit in third and Bingo Night tiring to fourth.

"I couldn't ask for a better race to get it done," Ratchford said after the race. "She had her struggles this year, but she's raced pretty good throughout the year, so to see her actually get a win is good. Last week at Yonkers [in a New York Sire Stakes race] she got run into in the last turn and made a break. I thought she was probably going to win that race, so I was really confident coming into this one. I figured it was between me and Bingo Night. I figured if I could get a little cover, that's all she'd need."

A daughter of Chapter Seven—Stirling Debutant, Storybook Love notched her first win of the season in her 11th start while collecting her fifth victory from 23 starts in her career, earning $861,079 for owners Al Libfeld and Brad Grant. She paid $2.90 to win.

I'll Have The Red earned the upset in the other Simcoe Stakes division when working a pocket trip and inheriting the lead late to score in 1:53.1. Driver Trevor Henry pushed the Rick Zeron trainee forward to clear command after a :27.4 from odds-on favorite Blue Jean Gal, the chalk swiftly tipped outside to circle back to the lead before a :57.1 half. Henry followed the favorite through the last turn and past three-quarters in 1:25.1 before finding himself on the lead when Blue Jean Gal broke stride in the stretch. I'll Have The Red assumed command and held her ground in the stretch to win by 2½ lengths over

Twin B Showbiz, who rallied from near last for second. M E Laurel took third from a ground-saving trip and Cher Hill gave chase after marching first up but tiring to fourth.

"I wanted to be behind James [MacDonald and Blue Jean Gal] and it worked out that way," Henry said after the race. "Last week she had trouble in the last turn – she was laboring in pretty good on me and we put a gaiting pole on her tonight. She still did it a little tonight, but we were able to keep closer and it helped. She felt good; I'm not saying I would've beat James, but I hadn't really asked her. When we straighten up, she usually kicks in. Tonight, we had pullout earplugs, and when I kicked the plugs, she did kick in."

Scoring her third win from 13 starts this season and her fifth win from 21 starts in her career, I'll Have The Red has accrued $194,488 in earnings for owners Rick Zeron Stables, James Walker, and Johnny Marvento. The daughter of Chapter Seven–Shishito paid $34.50 to win.

Jack Darling trainee Daya delivered as the 4-5 favorite earlier in the card with a 1:49 effort to win the single dash of the $151,000 Grade 3 Simcoe Stakes for sophomore pacing fillies. After driver Jody Jamieson perched the daughter of Bulldog Hanover–Beach Of A Time behind pacesetter Lavender Seelster through a clip of :26.2 and :54.4, he angled his charge outside and disposed of the leader with ease. Daya kicked for the finish while under late pressure to win by a half-length over Easy Station, who rallied from second-over to take second. Jen Tilly closed from third-over for third and Lavender Seelster tired to fourth.

"I was very impressed with how tough she was," Darling said after the race. "She's as good as she can be right now, so I expected a big effort out of her, but that was really tough. Sometimes when they get strung out like she did, it does them some good the next week; when they get a good trip, they're better. Getting a nice trip last week sure helped her and then she could rough it up tonight."

Winning for the third time from 10 starts this season and the eighth time from 22 starts in her career, Daya has now banked $789,000 for owner Jack Darling Stables Ltd. Following the victory, Darling said he would reconsider Daya's stakes schedule, including possibly supplementing for other upcoming races.

"I never thought about [supplementing to the Jugette], but I will now," Darling said. "Because there's the Breeders Crown too, that's a big supplement. They're things to think about, but that would be down the road. She's never been on a half. I think she'd be fine – she gets around the turns good."

Daya paid $3.60 to win.

Francent N (Louis-Philippe Roy) winning the $255,000 Grade 2 Milton on Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Francent N fierce in Canadian-record Milton victory

Ray Cotolo for Woodbine communications

A $20,000 supplement became a six-figure payday for the connections of Francent N, the 6-year-old mare who took the lead, lost the lead around the last turn and reemerged in front through a game stretch drive to win the $255,000 Grade 2 Milton Stakes, for older pacing mares, in a stakes, track, and Canadian record on Saturday night (Sept. 5) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Leaving from post 6, driver Louis-Philippe Roy floated Francent N forward and found a tow behind Twin B Joe Fresh through a skirmish to the first quarter in :25.2. Twin B Joe Fresh swept past pylon-starter Unreasonable to take the lead and soon yielded command to Francent N as she rolled to clock a :53.3 half, prompting Roy to tap the brakes for the last turn.

While Roy slowed the tempo, Louies Girl N tipped outside from sixth and blitzed forward to seize command by nearly a length, though she couldn't clear to the pylons rolling by three-quarters in 1:21.1. Roy called upon Francent N once headed and reclaimed the lead upon spinning for home. Francent N held her ground at the pylons in the stretch sprint to claim victory by three-quarters-of-a-length in a 1:47.3 mile, besting the previous Canadian and track record of 1:47.4 set by Grace Hill in 2023 that was later matched when Twin B Joe Fresh set the Milton stakes record with her victory last year.

"I was pretty confident, but going at the half there – [:]53.3 – I was a little worried," Roy said after the race. "I mean, I didn't put the best drive because then the third quarter I was trying to give her a breather, and I kind of fell half asleep on the lead. Jason came pretty hard, but the mare was so much the best that she overcame my bad drive.

"Tonight, she was really impressive. Last week, she proved to me that she could beat them all, but I thought there were five mares that could do it tonight, and right now she just proved she's the best."

Louies Girl N settled for second, Unreasonable angled off the pylons and lunged late for third while Twin B Joe Fresh gave chase in fourth.

Jacques Dupont trains Francent N, a mare by Vincent out of Down Under dam Mary Niven, for owner Ecurie CSL. Francent N has won four of six races in North America and 17 races from 35 starts in her career, earning $442,517.

"We had her when she first came from New Zealand, and we liked her then," said Marie-Helene Dupont, assistant trainer for Jacques Dupont. "We sent her to Pat [Lachance]. When she came back, she looked like a strong mare and powerful one. The way she raced last week, she was pretty tough, and I thought she had a good shot when the draw came out, since she had drawn a 6-hole, and she did it."

Sylvain Descheneaux, of Ecurie CSL, acquired Francent N after her last win Down Under on May 8. She debuted for Pat Lachance at Yonkers on July 31 with a fourth-place effort and finished second in her next start before uncorking four straight wins including her Milton Stakes victory.

"We saw that she was one of the [best] performing mares in New Zealand," Descheneaux said after the race. "That's the reason why we decided to buy her. When you want to buy a horse like that, it's not you who decides the price, you know.

"Pat said to me that if you come back at the last quarter in Yonkers as faster than :27, it's something that you don't see very often, and he said to me at the same time he said that to Jacques, too, that he was thinking she's supposed to be better on a bigger track too."

Descheneaux also said he'd consider supplementing Francent N to other stakes down the road, namely the Breeders Crown in October at Scioto Downs.

"We will see week after week, but if we have to pay three weeks before for a supplement, be sure that if she is healthy, we will be there," Descheneaux said.

Sent off as the 1-5 favorite, Francent N paid $2.40 to win.

Super Chapter dominant in Maple Leaf Trot

by Ray Cotolo for Woodbine communications

Dexter Dunn made an authoritative brush to the lead with odds-on favorite Super Chapter heading to the half and strode confidently to a track- and Canadian-record 1:49.3 victory in the $620,000 Grade 1 Maple Leaf Trot, a trotting free-for-all event, on Saturday night (Sept. 5) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Dunn eased Super Chapter out of post 2 to land in fourth behind a :26.4 battle to the quarter between Go Dog Go, French Wine, and Antognoni S. French Wine pushed to grab the lead from Go Dog Go to the backstretch while Antognoni S took back to third and Dunn revved his charge for a sweep down the backstretch.

Super Chapter marched up the rim and took command from French Wine past a :54.4 half as Emoticon Legacy surged uncovered on the outside to press the leader. Emoticon Legacy loomed within a length of Super Chapter past three-quarters in 1:22.2, but Super Chapter smoothly rebuffed that rival when kicking for home. Dunn then kept the inside seam sealed while drifting mildly for the finish to hold back French Wine and win by a half-length. Emoticon Legacy stayed on for third and Antognoni S angled off a ground-saving trip for fourth.

Watch the race replay here.

"It was a pretty good first quarter there," Dunn said after the race. "As soon as the pace slowed down, I thought if I don't go to the front I'm going to be first over with Bobby [McClure and Emoticon Legacy] on my back. We know how fast that horse is, but he's just so brave and so tough, this horse. Bobby was traveling pretty good coming off the turn as well, and [I] had French Wine breathing down my neck as well. So, you know, I knew we were going to have to knuckle down pretty good. But this horse gives you so much confidence in him when you sit behind him. He's just awesome to drive and he kicked well today."

Super Chapter's 1:49.3 win lowers the track and Canadian record for an older trotting stallion of 1:49.4, set by Aetos Kronos S in 2025, that he equaled with his victory in the Maple Leaf Trot elimination. The time came two-fifths-of-a-second off the stakes record set last year by Lexus Kody. Super Chapter also gave trainer Marcus Melander his third win in the Maple Leaf Trot after having won in 2018 with Crazy Wow and in 2024 with Periculum.

"I'm honored to win this race again," Melander said. "I mean, it's a hard race to win, and the horse is amazing. In the last turn there, 'Emoticon' came very close, and I thought it's going to be a big fight there down the wire. And it was, but he really fights them off great. He has his cheek rolls on him, so I guess when he saw Emoticon there, he really started fighting again."

A 4-year-old stallion by Chapter Seven out of 2014 Hambletonian Oaks winner Lifetime Pursuit, Super Chapter – owned by Jeffrey Snyder, Arthur Pronti, and Hanover Shoe Farms Inc – collected his fifth win from seven starts this season and his 19th win from 32 starts in his career, earning $3,223,843. WHERE CHAMPIONS ARE MADE

Best Chip equals stakes record in Canadian Pacing Derby

by Ray Cotolo for Woodbine communications

New face to the free-for-all pacing scene Best Chip asserted total control in the $705,000 Grade 1 Canadian Pacing Derby final to equal the stakes record with a 1:46.4 effort on Saturday night (Sept. 5) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Driver Tim Tetrick planted into third with Best Chip as Prince Hal Hanover brushed by 4-5 favorite For Once Inmy Life to take the lead through a :26 first quarter. Tetrick then lifted Best Chip off the pegs and zipped to the top heading to a :53 half while For Once Inmy Life edged off the pegs for a first-up attack. Best Chip stayed on the muscle through the last turn to clock three-quarters in 1:19.4 and remained resolute on the lead in the stretch. Prince Hal Hanover attempted to pry through a seam at the inside but gave chase in second, beaten 1¾ lengths, with Oakwood Ardan IR rallying from well back for third and For Once Inmy Life settling for fourth.

Watch the race replay here.

“I knew he would [race better]; he was off three weeks,” said Tetrick, who piloted Best Chip to a runner-up finish behind For Once Inmy Life in his Canadian Pacing Derby elimination last week. “Training’s not like racing, especially the miles you got to go [in] [1]:46, [1]:47. You got to be race tight. I knew the horse could just carry it. Last week being off that long, I had to take it and kind of keep him in the race. But once I saw the half pop up [this week], I’m like, they’re going to have to catch me if they can. The horse paced strong all the way to the wire.”

New Image Media

Best Chip (Tim Tetrick) winning the $705,000 Grade 1 Canadian Pacing Derby on Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

New Image Media

Best Chip and his connections in the winner's circle.

Best Chip, who supplemented to the Canadian Pacing Derby final for $40,000, equaled the stakes record of 1:46.4 set by Bulldog Hanover back in 2022. The 4-year-old stallion by Heston Blue Chip—Place Your Best, purchased privately in late April by El Dorado Stables, has meteorically climbed the ranks for conditioner Joe Bongiorno, winning his first race with the conditioner in a bottom-level pace at The Meadowlands in early May and then posting several victories up the condition sheet including two sub-1:47 wins leading to his Canadian Pacing Derby score.

“Honestly, it was just a couple of rigging changes that I found mostly with him,” Bongiorno said after the race. “We found that he had ulcers as well, and we took care of that. But I mean, he’s just a beautiful horse. Honestly, the fact that he was a cheap yearling [$7,000 purchase] was pretty amazing to me because he’s a beautiful horse. He’s got a great temperament, and we’re just thrilled to have him. He’s just a special horse, and he’s got a big set of lungs. Like I kept saying to Timmy, it just seems like he can keep going once you get him to that 26-second speed. It seems like he could do it four times. I think he’s got a bright future ahead.

“I’ve been saying it for a while, the Hambo Day [1]:46.1 was special, but when he went [1]:46.4 at The Meadowlands [on Meadowlands Pace night], it was special. Every time he stepped on the track, he’s been really good. The night at Scioto [in the #SendItIn Invitational], he was parked every step of the mile and barely got beat in that race. He matches up with these horses, and these are the best horses in the country. He’s still a young horse and he’s still developing. So, the sky’s the limit, in my opinion.”

Winning his eighth race from 14 starts this season and his 13th race from 52 starts in his career, Best Chip has amassed $606,286 in earnings. Sent off as the second choice in the betting, he paid $9.10 to win.

Ontario SIRE STAKES REPORT

Team McNair wins both Gold divisions for 2-year-old pacing colts

by Dave Briggs / Ontario Racing

The father-and-son team of trainer Gregg McNair and driver Doug McNair won both of the $100,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold leg 4 divisions for 2-year-old pacing colts on Saturday (Sept. 5) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

TH Theo posted his first Gold victory and Atlas Ross remained undefeated.

In the first division (race 6), 14-1 longshot TH Theo defeated 4-5 favorite D A Alljokesaside (Mark MacDonald) by a half-length in a career-best 1:50.4.

D A Alljokesaside was on top heading into the first turn and led the six-horse field through fractions of :26.4, :55.4, and 1:23 with TH Theo in close contention. In the stretch, Doug pulled the pocket and TH Theo dug in and managed to grind past a game D A Alljokesaside to post his second OSS win of the year and first Gold triumph.

"I wasn't really sure until really late [that I would get past D A Alljokesaside]," Doug told WEG broadcaster John Rallis. "He came out of the hole like he was going to win by 10, but as soon as he got to him, he kind of hesitated and made me work on him a little bit. But, he's a nice colt and he's on the right track, that's for sure."

TH Theo paid $30 to win.

TH Theo now has a record of 2-0-2 in seven career starts, and earnings of $36,340.

“Dad’s got a lot of nice colts this year,” Doug said. “But I thought [TH Theo] was the best one training down, or one of the top two for sure. Maybe he made me look a little stupid early, but he is starting to come around.”

In the second division (race 11), Atlas Ross won his third OSS Gold race of the year and upped his earnings to $192,550 with a 1:51.3 victory that was 1½ lengths better than Yes I Am Hanover (Bob McClure).

Sent off as the 2-5 favorite in the field of six, Doug had Atlas Ross on top before the half and rolled through fraction of :56, 1:25 to seal the victory. Cattletracks (Louis-Philippe Roy), who led the field to the opening quarter of :27, hung on for third. Big D Energy (Mark MacDonald) recovered from an early break to finish fourth. Meetmeonthebeach (James MacDonald) grabbed the final check.

Atlas Ross paid $2.80 to win.

Waves Of Fortune edged out a nose victory in a thrilling three-filly photo in the lone $150,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold Leg 4 division for 2-year-old pacers on Saturday (Sept. 5) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

James MacDonald drove the daughter of Bettors Delight—Cozy Beach to the career-best 1:50.3 victory.

Sent off as the 3-5 favorite in the field of 11, Waves Of Fortune was sitting fifth through the early going as Twin B Copacabana (Mark MacDonald) took the group through fractions of :26.4, :55.2, and 1:23.4, with both Twin B Mayreau (Louis-Philippe Roy) and Money Carlo (Todd McCarthy) in close pursuit. James pulled Waves Of Fortune around the half-mile marker and picked up Money Carlo's cover.

By the top of the stretch, Waves Of Fortune was sitting second behind Money Carlo and the battle was on. Waves Of Fortune came home in :26.2 and stuck her nose in front of Twin B Mayreau, with Money Carlo another nostril hair back in third. Jersey Bulldog, who started from a trailing post 11, was a strong fourth. Twin B Copacabana picked up the final check.

"I was able to work out a pretty good trip, and she just, she wants it pretty badly," James told WEG broadcaster John Rallis. "It was a dogfight late. I thought Todd won. Todd thought Louis won, and then it ended up [Waves Of Fortune] won. So, it was a heck of a horse race.

"We were pacing hard at the top of the stretch, and I was working hard just to stick with them. So, I knew it was going to be tight, and I knew mine would have a little bit left in reserve, and I needed it."

Waves Of Fortune paid $3.30 to win.

It was the fourth win in a row for Waves Of Fortune, who is now 4-2-0 in six starts and has earnings of $244,500 for trainer and part-owner Tony Beaton, who shares the filly with his wife Lisa Lefort, David Mercer, and Teresa Davidson. Waves Of Fortune, bred by Southwind Farms, was purchased for $17,000 at the 2025 Standardbred Horse Sales Company's yearling auction in Harrisburg, PA.

KING OF THE NORTH FILLIES SWEEP GOLD DIVISIONS FOR 2-YEAR-OLD TROTTING FILLIES

King Of The North fillies Major Contender and Flawless Lady each won a $100,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold leg 4 division for 2-year-old trotting fillies on Friday (Sept. 4) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

In the first division (race 5), Major Contender, sent off at 6-1 in the field of nine, led gate-to-wire for the father-and-son team of trainer Carl Jamieson and driver Jody Jamieson to win by a half-length over the 1-9 favorite Verily (Louis-Philippe Roy) in 1:54.

Major Contender posted fractions of :27.3, :56.3, and 1:25.3 and came home in :28.2 to record the victory. Rebel Moon (James MacDonald) went four wide to finish third, followed by Simea (Trevor Henry) and Kings Lady (Tyler Borth).

"[Major Contender is] so smart," Jody told Woodbine broadcaster John Rallis. "She was just waiting on me to call on her at any point, behind the gate or whatever. And you know, I just reacted. Louis was coming out of there [with Verily]. It looked like he was going to get an easy lead, so I pushed through the middle and you know forced the pace a little bit, causing him to go back, and my filly just did her thing. She's never been tired crossing the line other than, maybe, some bad drives or some tough trips that I've given her."

Major Contender paid $14.80 to win.

Watch the race replay here.

It was the second win of Major Contender's career in her seventh start. Her other victory came in Gold competition on July 23.

Major Contender has now earned $161,533 and has a record of 7 2-2-0.

Out of the mare Major Muscle, Major Contender is owned by Carl and Jody, along with Dave Lemon and George Harrison. The colt, bred by Princeton Farms, Mark Etsell, Robert Newton, and Chuan Tan, was purchased for $110,000 at the 2025 Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling sale in Harrisburg, PA.

"This filly is just a sweetheart," Jody said. "I call her pretty lady when I come over and talk to her... I've loved her since the first day I laid eyes on her, and it was love at first sight. We bought her in Harrisburg last year, and you know we couldn't be happier with her how she's going."

In the second division (race 9), James MacDonald piloted 1-2 favorite Flawless Lady to a head victory over fast-closing Twin B Kingsley (Henry), with Dreamtrade (Bob McClure) just a few more inches back in third. It was the first OSS victory for Flawless Lady.

After Song From Heaven (Borth) led the field to the :28.3 quarter, Flawless Lady took over and posted fractions of :57.4 and 1:26.3 to win with a :28.2 final quarter.

"[Flawless Lady] felt like she was trying hard and traveling well," MacDonald said. "So, I just tried to squeeze as much out of her as we could to kind of hang on, but she raced awesome and I'm just happy to be along for the ride."

Northernlights Glo (Mark MacDonald) was third, followed by Song From Heaven.

Flawless Lady paid $3.10 to win.

Flawless Lady, who is out of the Muscle Hill mare Hillbar, was purchased for $30,000 at the 2025 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale by Doug McIntosh, Bev Snobelen, and Randy Liepa. Previously trained and driven by recently-retired Hall of Famer Paul MacDonell, Flawless Lady is now conditioned by Julie Walker.

"She was like a little erratic early, and Paul did a great job getting her settled down," James said. "Now she's kind of been put on the front both times, but both times she raced really well, and hung on tonight,"

It was the second straight win for the trotting filly, who is now 2-0-0 in six career starts and has earnings of $69,775.

The previous Gold winners in the division were:

- Queen of Bs, Verily and Rebel Moon won leg 1 divisions on July 5 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.
- Treasure King and Major Contender won leg 2 divisions on July 23 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.
- Verily and Rebel Moon won leg 3 divisions on Aug. 14 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

ROOKIE TROTTING COLT DETONATER HANOVER POSTS FIRST OSS GOLD VICTORY

Detonater Hanover posted his first career Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) victory while winning the lone $150,000 Gold leg 4 division for 2-year-old trotting colts on Friday (Sept. 4) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The son of Muscle Mass out of Dancing Flames defeated fellow 6-5 shot D A Johnny Cash (Doug McNair), the slight favorite, by a neck in 1:54.1 for the father-and-son team of trainer and owner Dr. Ian Moore and driver Tyler Moore.

Off the gate, Trevor Henry sent Kountry Cantab to the lead from the outside post 7 and battled both Detonater Hanover and Three Six Zero (Jody Jamieson) in the turn.

"Going into that turn, Jody somehow got out there and it was a little tight, so I had to move over some for him," Tyler told Woodbine broadcaster John Rallis. "But I didn't want any problems, so I ended up being three wide in the first turn, which wasn't ideal, but the colt hung tough. He got a cheap middle half, we'll call it, but he was definitely live for turn for home."

Detonater Hanover led the field through fractions of :28.1, :57, and 1:26.4 with D A Johnny Cash on his heels from the half-mile pole onward. In the stretch, the two trotters battled all the way to the wire, but Detonater Hanover never gave quarter. Three Six Zero was third, followed by Kountry Cantab and Grand Manalishi (Tyler Jones).

Unstable Genius, who won the first three Gold legs of the season – on July 6, July 24 and Aug. 14, all at Woodbine Mohawk Park, including a 1:53 OSS record in the last start – was not entered in Friday's fourth leg.

Detonater Hanover paid $4.70 to win.

Watch the race replay here.

The victory pushed Detonater Hanover to $268,482 and improved his record to 4-1-0 in seven starts for the Moore family's Detonater Hanover Stable of Cambridge, ON, which purchased the colt for $80,000 at the 2025 Standardbred Horse

Sales Company yearling auction in Harrisburg, PA from breeder Hanover Shoe Farms.

Dr. Moore said Detonater Hanover earned a rest with the victory.

"He's had seven starts already, counting tonight, and he's had two times three in a row, which is a lot in my books for a baby," Dr. Moore said. "So, he's going to get a week in the paddock now, whether he wants it or not, and won't race again for at least two weeks from now."

UP NEXT IN ONTARIO SIRES STAKES ACTION:

Kountry Plunge stays perfect with NYSS win at Vernon

by John Horne for Vernon Downs

Kountry Plunge (Brian Sears) won the $110,200 leg of the New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) for 2-year-old trotting fillies at Vernon Downs on Friday (Sept. 4).

Secret Lover (Braxten Boyd) took the lead from her outside post and led to the quarter in :28.1. Kountry Plunge ($2.62) made her move heading down the backstretch taking control to the half in :59.2, and cruised to three quarters in 1:27.4.

As they reached the stretch, second place finisher Secret Lover and third place finisher Jula Florence (Tyler Miller) went all out after the lead, but Kountry Plunge poured it on and won in 1:55.1.

Kountry Plunge (Chapter Seven—Plunge Blue Chip) is trained by Ake Svanstedt for owners Bender Sweden, OBM Stable, Ecurie Diocles AB, Svanstedt & Midnight Son. She is now four-for-four in her young career.

Jessica Okusko had a training hat trick, while Leon Bailey and Jacquavyian Carter had driving doubles.

Swinging On Over shines in top sophomore pace at Running Aces

by Darin Gagne, for Running Aces Casino, Hotel and Racetrack

The Minnesota-sired sophomore pacers were in the spotlight on Thursday night (Sept. 3) at Running Aces with two divisions going for a total purse of $35,000.

Swinging On Over and driver Adam Hauser posted a very impressive career-best 1:53.4 mile to grab the top prize in the $21,000 'A' division as Hauser sent the sharp son of Three Of Clubs into immediate action at the start to get the first call before yielding to race favorite Cool Mr Cool and Casey Leonard just past the :28 quarter mile.

Swinging On Over tracked closely in the pocket through the middle stages of the affair while Diesel Thunder Boy (Rick Magee) was parked and applied heavy pressure to the leader as they recorded splits of :57.1 and 1:25 with CL Dancer (Mooney Svendsen) following cover from fourth.

Swinging On Over was loaded with pace turning for home and Hauser guided him out to the center of the track to surge past the leader in the final yards and post a three-quarters-of-a-length tally over Cool Mr Cool.

Hot Cheddar Flirt (Brady Jenson) emerged from the pack late to grab third money over CL Dancer.

Swinging On Over, who returned $23.80 on top, now shows six wins on the season for owners Jay De Long, Ken Stauffer, and Stephanie Anfinson, and trainer Justin Anfinson.

Westward Ho (by Western Trademark) and driver Brady Jenson delivered as the favorites in the $14,000 'B' division with a 1:56 score by one length over Thiskidcanfly and Luke Skyrocket.

Jenson floated wide from post 9 and went after the top just past the quarter mile, and once on the lead was never in doubt en route to his third win of the season and his fourth career tally. Jenson is also the winning owner, in partnership with Ken Stauffer. The win mutuel was $3.80.

Jenson led the program with four driving wins as well as a training double while Casey Leonard and Luke Plano each posted driving doubles.

Live Racing returns to Running Aces tonight (Sept. 6) for a 12-race program that will get underway at 6 p.m. (CDT).

Maine SIRE STAKES REPORT

Freshmen pacers keep winning at Windsor

by Chris Tully for Maine Sire Stakes

The entire lot of Maine's 2-year-old pacers toured the Windsor Fair facility on Friday (Sept. 4), with some of the familiar, unbeaten stars emerging as the next great Pine Tree State-bred harness horses.

Four divisions of the Maine Sire Stakes were held before the regular card at Windsor, with three divisions for the freshmen colts and geldings that were made up from the previous day's (Thursday) rain cancellation. Originally programmed for Friday was an early race for the fillies, and then a $16,983 pari-mutuel 2-year-old filly pace that was held as the opener.

Right out of the gate and blasting to the lead was the leading point winner in the colt division, The Gucci Man. Driver Kevin Switzer, Jr. was tested to the :29.2 opening panel from post 6, but made the top and kept his colt rolling to a 1:01.1 half.

Hollywood Chester (Joey Mosher) sat a tight pocket with Two Bolts (Mike Cushing) and Survive The Ride (Aaron Hall) sparking up the outer flow into a 1:32 third panel.

However, as the field hit the head of the stretch The Gucci Man was already five lengths on top. Gaining ground with every stride he tripped the timer in 2:01, all by himself with 10½ lengths on the rest of the field.

Owned, trained, and bred by Marc Tardif, he posted a :29 final quarter in his sixth straight score and increased his lifetime earnings to $47,143.

Hollywood Chester hung on for second; Fiddlestix Revenge (Heath Campbell) was third.

Trainer Marc Tardif and the Tardif Taskforce swept the other two colt divisions with One Last Deal (Andy Harrington) in 2:00.3 who grabbed his first lifetime victory from four previous outings, and a new time badge to go with it.

The son of Dude's The Man, who is also owned and was bred by Tardif, was parked the final half with Agent James Bond (Switzer, Jr.) finishing second and pacesetter Rustyonlytreasure (Aaron Hall) hanging on for third. All three are trained by Tardif.

In the third and final colt event it was Justcallmebuddy who posted the swiftest win of the day and took a new 1:59.2 record in the process. Trained by Marc Tardif for owners Leighton Property and Victoria Leighton, it was the second lifetime win for the son of Deuce Seelster. Bred in Maine by Kristina Hall, he now has two in a row.

Top Notch Treasure (Mike Stevenson) finished second; Painter's Treasure (Andy Harrington) was third.

Just like her male counterpart, No Small Wonder has never seen the back of a helmet in six starts this season, and this $16,983 Maine Sire Stakes outing was no exception. Sent right to the top by Switzer, Jr., the daughter of State Treasurer made every call a winning one, tripping the timer in 2:01, and prevailing by two lengths.

Trained by Kevin Switzer, Sr. for owners KDK Standardbreds, Kathleen Mofield, and Anthony Sivik, Jr., she was bred by Luke and Patricia Varnum and now has $48,757 earned. She returned $2.20 as the heavy 1-9 favorite.

Wine For The Lady (Aaron Hall) finished second; Bettor's Treasure (McGwire Sowers) was third.

The other $16,808 division for 2-year-old pacing fillies was captured by Feel The Fury in 2:01.3.

Driven by Aaron Hall to her first lifetime victory in wire-to-wire style, she is trained by Marc Tardif for owner/breeder Lesley Leighton.

Bad Bunny T (Switzer Jr.) finished second; Calling All Angels (Stevenson) was third.

Looking ahead, the Maine Sire Stakes action resumes with the Glamour Boys (3-year-old male pacers) at Windsor Fair today (Sept. 6), followed by the 3-year-old filly pacers who close out the meet on Labor Day Monday (Sept. 7).

Maine's freshmen compete in two more legs at Bangor and Farmington and then complete their seasons in the rich finals at Cumberland on Saturday (Oct. 3).

SBOANJ, Big M developing new summer races for 2027

The Standardbred Breeders and Owners Association of New Jersey and The Meadowlands are pleased to announce they are working to create new races for the last weekend in July and the first weekend of August 2027 at The Meadowlands. The proposed race cards will once again bring some of the best horses in the sport to The Big M and continue a half-century tradition of offering premier summer stakes races for harness racing participants and fans in conjunction with the Hambletonian Society.

Full details will be provided in the weeks to come, but the SBOANJ and Meadowlands want to share this news now so breeders in the Garden State and owners everywhere understand before this fall's yearling sales that we are working together to ensure the continuation of world class racing at The Meadowlands. This is not just for the success of the track and New Jersey racing but to help the future of the standardbred industry.

The SBOANJ and Meadowlands will release updates as they finalize the complete details for these special weekends of racing.

Standardbred Breeders and Owners Association of New Jersey

Gingras and Walspea a perfect pair in Big M's Miss Versatility

Talk about a couple in perfect harmony.

Three times this year Yannick Gingras has driven the Trond Smedshammer-trained Walspea, and three times this year the pair have made it to the winner's circle. In Friday (Sept. 4) night's feature at The Meadowlands, the prolific pairing took the fourth and final $40,000 leg of the Miss Versatility for open mare trotters in a dazzling lifetime-best 1:50.2.

"She's a sweetheart and she's got a lot of speed," said Gingras, who piloted the 4-year-old by Walner—Speak To Me to victory on Aug. 8 in the Dr. John Steele.

Woman Of Passion, a 70-1 long shot, took the field past the quarter in :27.1 before Walspea vacated the pocket to take over before the three-eighths, then reaching the half in :56. There were no anxious moments from there, as no foe got close as Walspea clicked by three-quarters in 1:23.2 on the way to a decisive 1¾-length score. Woman Of Passion finished second with 9-5 favorite Tactical Moni, who stayed in the 3-hole throughout, holding the show spot.

"[My horse] sat a 2-hole Hambletonian Day [when she won the Steele]," Gingras said. "She can do it either way. But with those fractions, I took my chance [moving to the lead]. Obviously, at the half, I did have the jump on them and it worked tonight."

As the 2-1 second choice, Walspea returned $6.20 to her backers. She now has 10 wins from 31 career tries and a bankroll of $466,460.

The $100,000 (est.) Miss Versatility final is on Little Brown Jug Day (Thursday, Sept. 24) at the Delaware (Ohio) County Fairgrounds.

'KING' REIGNS OVER APEX: King Of The Wind was put on the point by trainer/driver Joe Bongiorno and went wire-to-wire in a $25,000 New Jersey Classic elimination for 3-year-old colts and geldings on the trot.

Hambletonian winner Apex, sent to the gate as the 1-9 favorite, sat a 3-hole trip, came off the rail at the five-eighths and did not fire, ending up a well-beaten fourth.

"I was kind of reading the gate a little bit, and there was really nobody going out of there so I decided to take advantage of it and hoped to get covered up, but it didn't work out that way, and it ended up working out anyway," said Bongiorno.

With some big money bet on Apex to place (there was no show wagering), King Of The Wind, a gelded son of Walner—Wind Stroll, paid $41.40 to win, and even more, $47.60, to place. He's won seven of his 15 lifetime outings.

FABULOUS 'FAME': It was another flawless performance from Wall Of Fame, who stayed unbeaten in seven starts in a New Jersey Classic elimination for 2-year-old filly trotters.

The daughter of Walner—Saadet stopped the clock in 1:53.4 for trainer Julie Miller and driver Andy Miller. She paid $2.10 to win as the 1-9 chalk.

A LITTLE MORE: Bongiorno, who was named the Driver of the Week before the start of the program, got a leg up on winning the award again by guiding three to victory lane... Nancy Takter's three winners topped the trainers... All-source handle on the 14-race program totaled $2,605,797.

2-year-old filly pacers in BSS action at Scioto Downs

Midnight Haze and Chris Lems took the fastest split of the re-scheduled $20,000 Buckeye Stallion Series event for 2-year-old filly pacers in 1:52.3 at Eldorado Scioto Downs on Thursday (Sept. 3).

Leaving from post 7, Midnight Haze got away third as Our Grey Heart (Tyler Smith) hit the opening quarter in :28.1. Making the lead before the :56.2 half, Midnight Haze lead through the 1:24.3 third quarter and won by three lengths over Our Grey Heart; Tina Fire (Austin Hanners) was third.

Midnight Haze, by Dancin Yankee out of the Always A Virgin mare Mary Goodnight is a homebred for Dr. Michael Latessa, Ashley Miller, and trainer Edward Miller. It was the second third win in five lifetime starts for the filly who now has $28,400 earned.

Other splits were won by Gillette (1:52.4), Sempre B Bella (1:53), and Sea Jazz (1:53.3).

Gillette (Justin Irvine) lead through splits of :27.4, :56.4, and 1:24.2 before winning by three-quarters-of-a-length over DS Ava (Lems); Apple By The Sea (Luke Hanners) was third. Owned by trainer Garry Martin and B Kleinberg Racing, Lee Unkefer, and Martin Holden, Gillette now has two wins in seven lifetime starts and $26,100 in earnings. The Lather Up filly out of the Dragon Again mare Baby's In Black, bred by Sugar Valley Farm and Johnny Smith, was a $38,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase.

Sempre B Bella (Smith) won the first division after getting away sixth from post 4 as Ides Of April (L. Hanners) lead through fractions of :27.2 and :56.3. Pulling second over, Sempre B Bella followed MBT The Tanks (Sam Widger) who challenged the leader through the 1:25.1 third quarter. Sempre B Bella came three-wide around the last turn to make the lead by the top of the stretch and won by a half-length over a fast-closing Stormin Suds (Kayne Kauffman); MBT The Tanks was third. Owned by trainer Steve Carter and Haley Carter, Sempre B Bella now has $16,951 earned in four lifetime starts with two wins. By Monte Miki out of the Art Major mare Bella Marta, Sempre B Bella was a $16,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from breeder Vincent Costa, Jr.

Sea Jazz was victorious in gate-to-wire fashion with Ronnie Gillespie in the bike for trainer Ryan Miller. Leading through fractions of :27.3, :58.1 and, 1:25.1, Sea Jazz won by a length over pocket sitter Can'tcatchthelady (Widger); Poseformiki (Irvine) was third. Sea Jazz, by Downbytheseaside out of the Betting Line mare Jazzed, was a $70,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from breeder Marvin Troyer. Thursday's win was the filly's fourth in a row from seven starts; she now has $35,420 earned for owners Miller Racing Stable, Chris Gilbert, Redracer, and Roger Miller Jeff Bankey.

There will be a special Labor Day card on Monday (Sept. 7) instead of the normal Tuesday card.

Friday and Saturday (Sept. 11-12) Scioto will host the Ohio Sires Stakes championships. Each division is scheduled for $400,000 but if enough horses enter, the races will be split into a $100,000 Grey championship to be held on Friday and $300,000 Scarlet championship to be held on Saturday. Other Saturday festivities include an obstacle course bounce house for kids, t-shirt tosses, and OHSS swag give-a-way, photo booth located inside the north clubhouse entrance, tumbler cups when you buy a program, and a second chance drawing for a $100 win wager. Saturday's racing events will be broadcast on FOX Sports 2 with Jessica Otten hosting.

The 91-day 2026 Eldorado Scioto Downs regular season runs through Saturday (Sept. 19). Races are held Tuesdays and Thursdays through Saturdays, with a special holiday card on Labor Day instead of the Tuesday card that week and no live racing on Friday (Sept. 18) to accommodate horsemen attending the Ohio Selected Yearling Sale. The track will then re-open for the Breeders Crown, with eliminations held Oct. 16-17 and the finals Oct. 23-24. More information about all the racing action at Scioto can be found on the Eldorado Scioto Downs website.

Development plans for Mohawk?

(RE: Should Woodbine development plan be a blueprint for other tracks?)

I'd like to see [WEG's] development plans for Mohawk. Possibly, it would fit on the back of a postage stamp. I would love to be wrong on my assumption.

Fifty years of memories at The Meadowlands

I first stepped foot on the property as a senior in high school. It was a cold January night. The area had a recent snowstorm. The grandstand apron was strewn with 'snowbergs.' The apron was the place to be.

I had never been to a horse racing facility before. I was hooked.

I followed the horsemen and learned their names: Remmen (Larry and Ray), Ted Wing, Jim Doherty, Ben Webster, Cat Manzi, the rivalry for top driver honors between John Campbell and Bill O'Donnell.

We were also fans of certain horses over the years: Tarport Hap, Oil Burner, Rambling Willie. April's Skipper, Genghis Kahn, so many to mention.

Then there was the European invasion from which we were treated to the best trotters in the world.

We fans were treated to the best in standardbred racing.

I attended every Meadowlands Pace from 1978 thru 1989. That 1978 edition was memorable as it was contested in an absolute deluge that started just as the starting gate car began to gather the field.

I attended every Hambletonian Day through the 1980s.

Afternoon racing at The Big M was special.

Correction on Tales from The Curmudgeon

After reading this article I would like to say there is one thing that is mentioned over and over that is false information: "Deo Volente is the only full-service breeding farm left in New Jersey."

There are two other full-service breeding farms that are much bigger than Deo Volente.

Walnridge Farm is truly full service as they have four vets on staff and are the only farm in New Jersey fully USDA permitted to freeze stallion semen. They stand several stallions as well, and collect transient stallions that race and breed.

Sunset Ridge is also a full-service breeding facility that have over 200 acres, two breeding sheds, and stands stallions.

I would ask that you please correct this in the next HRU?
