Super Chapter shines in MGM Yonkers International Trot

The son of Chapter Seven defeated a field of talented foreign horses in the mile-and-a-quarter event on Saturday afternoon near New York City.

Trainer Marcus Melander (left) and driver Dexter Dunn in the winner's circle after winning the $1 million Grade 1 Yonkers International Trot with American-bred Super Chapter on Saturday at Yonkers.

Super Chapter became the first horse representing the United States to win the $1 million Grade 1 MGM Yonkers International Trot since Resolve in 2016 with a powerful 2:22.3 performance for the mile-and-a-quarter in the 2026 edition of the race on Saturday afternoon (Sept. 12).

Driven by Dexter Dunn, Super Chapter floated away from post 5 and then drove forward to take the lead away from fellow Marcus Melander trainee Bourbonista S (Scott Zeron) beyond the :27.1 quarter. After he took charge, Super Chapter didn't face an outside threat through the :55.3 half as a two-wide tier comprised of Mellby Jinx S (Daniel Wäjersten), Gio Cash DE (Robin Bakker), Hooker Berry FR (Antoine Lherete), and Diva Ek IT (Alessandro Gocciadoro) tried to make forward progress before Lherete sent Hooker Berry FR three-wide prior to the 1:25.2 three-quarters and would be joined in that flow by Diva Ek IT as the field raced down the backstretch for the final time.

Super Chapter (Dexter Dunn) won the Yonkers International Trot in 2:22.3 over 1 1/4 miles.

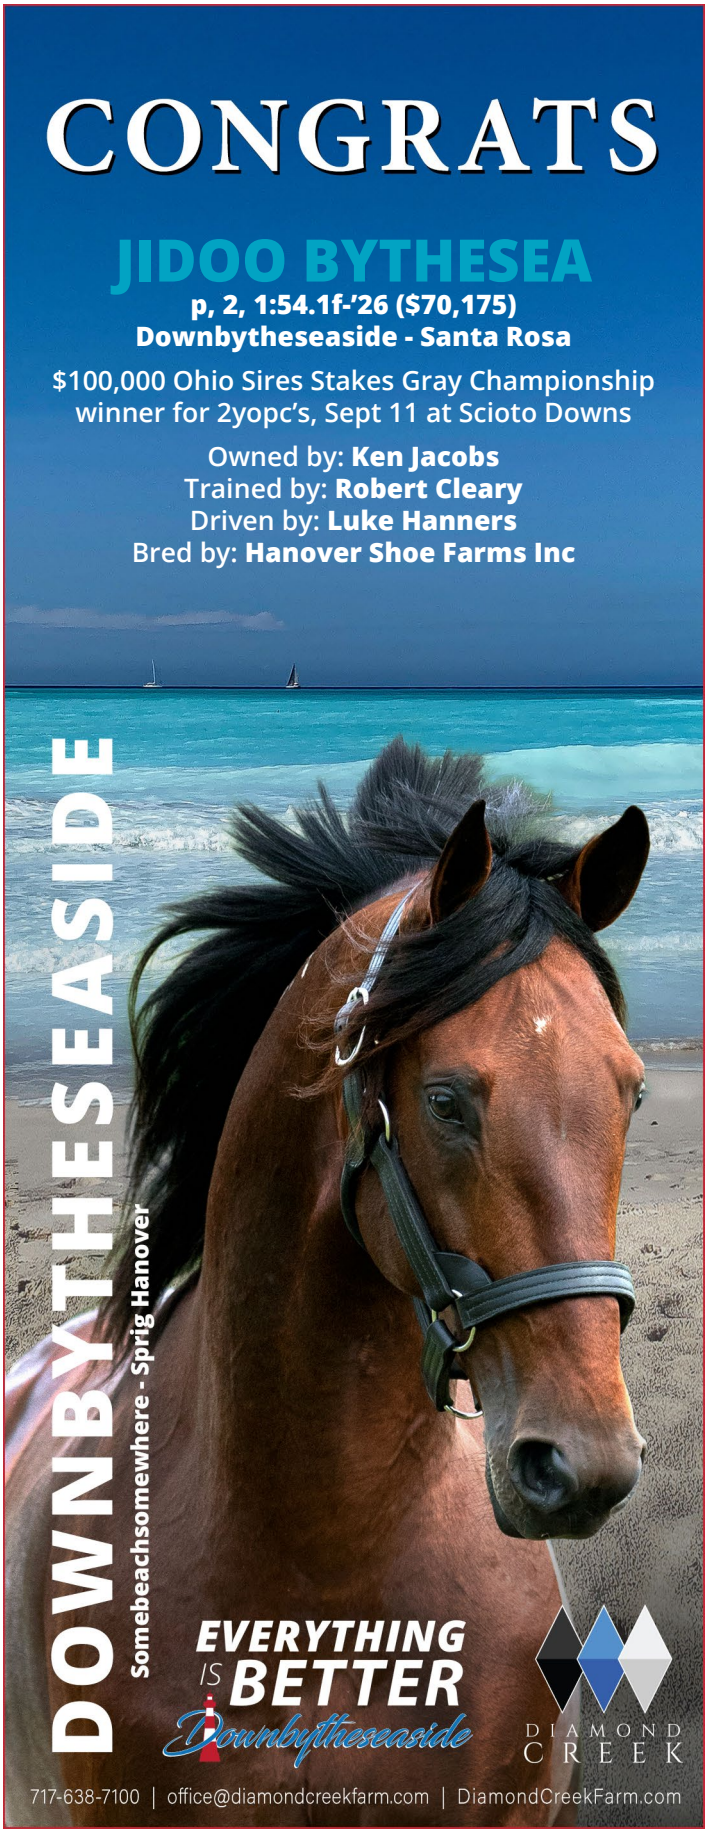

Hooker Berry FR was able to pass several horses and slid down into a loose pocket as Super Chapter opened up coming to the 1:54.2 mile marker, while Diva Ek IT tracked Hooker Berry FR's bid and then took up the first-over position on the final bend. Meanwhile, Super Chapter had fled the scene, and although Diva Ek IT did gain in the lane to get within a-length-and-a-quarter of Super Chapter, it was well after the race had been decided and Dunn had been celebrating. Hooker Berry FR held third, followed by Betting Pacer S (Bjorn Goop), and Powwow NO (Ake Svanstedt).

"I didn't really know obviously what was going to be happening out of the gate, so we had options completely open," Dunn said. "Scotty drawing inside me with Bourbonista S left the gate so good, I basically just followed her across and once he got to the front, he was traveling incredibly good the whole way.

"All credit to the horse, he makes my job so easy. I can drive him any way and he never seems to get tired. He's so light on his feet and quick at the same time. It's a true pleasure to sit behind him."

A 4-year-old son of Chapter Seven out of Lifetime Pursuit bred by co-owner Hanover Shoe Farms, Super Chapter is trained by Melander and co-owned by Jeffrey Snyder and Arthur Pronti. Super Chapter has a summary of 20-8-2 from 33 starts, has earned $2,826,062 and paid $3.36 to win as the favorite. He keyed a $23.02 exacta and a $577.74 trifecta.

The victory pushed Super Chapter over $1 million in 2026, a year in which he sports a 6-2-0 record in eight starts. He came into the International off a 1:49.3 victory in the $446,400 Maple Leaf Trot at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

"He was fantastic today," Melander said. "It was three weeks in-a-row here. He went two [1]:49 miles up in Canada, but he's so good to take care of himself between races. He doesn't need much work at all, so that helps a lot obviously."

For the second straight year in the MGM Yonkers International Trot, Diva Ek IT finished in the runner-up position from post 8 and Gocciadoro was very pleased with her effort.

"She is amazing," Gocciadoro said. "She was better than last year, I think. With this [post], I think we took the maximum result today. If we change the post, it's a very interesting race. I want to change the post next year."

BEST CHIP AND UP YOUR DEO WIN ARIA AND BOB MIECUNA INVITATIONALS

Best Chip and driver/trainer Joe Bongiorno followed up an impressive victory in the Canadian Pacing Derby a week earlier with an inspiring front-end performance, holding on gamely to capture the $200,000 Grade 2 Aria Invitational as part of Saturday's International Trot Day program at MGM Yonkers Raceway, pacing to a 2:20.4 clocking in the mile-and-one-quarter contest.

A 4-year-old by Heston Blue Chip out of Place Your Best, Best Chip turned back a solid late rally by Coaches Corner (Jason Bartlett) with Go Go Grasshopper finishing third.

With 10 horses doing battle, Coaches Corner and Sweet Beach Life stepped out from the outside of the starting gate while Go Go Grasshopper and Yannick Gingras sped out ahead of Best Chip into the opening bend. Go Go Grasshopper cleared the front but ceded control to Coaches Corner before the :27.4 opening fraction. Bongiorno had Best Chip in motion coming off the opening bend and hustled the favorite to control before the field reached the second turn.

Best Chip was in full command with fractions of :56.2 and 1:25.3 for the second and third quarters before Sweet Beach Life and Matt Kakaley made a second and bold move to engage the leader, followed at a distance by Mossdale Ben N and Jim Marohn, Jr. The pace picked up in the fourth quarter, with Best Chip clicking off the mile in 1:52.4 and putting an end to a long winning streak of Sweet Beach Life.

The final turn would set up the confrontation as Coaches Corner and Bartlett looked to come to the outside while Go Go Grasshopper went inside. Bongiorno wasn't taking chances, as he roused his horse vigorously coming into the stretch, and Best Chip battled gamely, holding off Coaches Corner by a long nose with a 28 second flat final quarter.

El Dorado Stables owns Best Chip, now a winner nine times in 15 starts this year who was bred by Winbak Farm of Maryland. As the favorite, Best Chip returned $3.10 to win and keyed an $11.90 exacta and a $45.88 trifecta.

"He's just a special horse," said Bongiorno following the victory. "I had a feeling going into the race that the extra quarter mile wouldn't hurt this horse."

Bongiorno added that the Dayton Pacing Derby was next for Best Chip and ultimately a supplemental entry for the Breeders Crown would follow.

It was déjà vu all over again, as Yogi Berra might say, when Up Your Deo and Ake Svanstedt matched almost identically the performance he put on in the 2025 edition of the Grade 2 Robert Miecuna Invitational with his effort in the $200,000 event on Saturday. Up Your Deo marched to the front, controlled the fractions, and covered the mile-and-a-quarter in 2:23.2, the exact time of his conquest a year ago. Southwind Coors and Yannick Gingras tried to track him down in the stretch but fell short while bearing out as My Degenerate held third after sitting in that position throughout.

The Miecuna marked the return of Devilish Hill to competitive racing in the United States, and he was sent off as the 6-5 favorite for the dynamic driver-and-trainer connection of Jason Bartlett and Petter Engblom, but the pair was unable to contend through the :27.2 opening quarter as Up Your Deo marched around him rapidly on the opening bend to secure the lead and Bartlett took a tuck inside. The veteran international performer Aetos Kronos S also pushed out sharply and found a seat early.

Up Your Deo rated the pace kindly, hitting the half in :56.1 and three-quarters in 1:25.1 but increased the pace when Bartlett pulled Devilish Hill first-over prior to the latter marker. In the critical fourth quarter, Svanstedt guided Up Your Deo through a :28.1 quarter and that stalled any progress on the outer tier heading into the final bend.

With just two horses on his back, Svanstedt called on Up Your Deo, and the 6-year-old son of Walner–Grand Stand responded with a 30 second final quarter, holding on to the lead with Southwind Coors gaining but bearing out at the same time. My Degenerate wound up third and Benjamin Hanover would finish fourth, with Devilish Hill fifth after the overland journey.

Bred and co-owned by Deo Volente Farms, Up Your Deo is also co-owned by Ake Svanstedt Inc, Suleyman Yuksel Stables, and Van Camp Trotting Corp. It was the second win of the year for Up Your Deo and pushed his career bankroll to $1,371,852. As the second choice in the wagering, Up Your Deo paid $6.20 to win and keyed a $49.24 exacta with Southwind Coors. The trifecta returned $219.22.

"Six was maybe not perfect," said Sarah Svanstedt of the draw. "But he's very fast."

In addition to two Miecuna Invitational victories, Up Your Deo also captured the MGM Yonkers Trot final in 2023.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Fragment heads triple for sire Huntsville in NYSS pacing finals

by Yonkers Raceway media with quotes from Edison Hatter

Three-year-old colt Fragment became a two-time New York Sire Stakes champion and stallion Huntsville sired three of the four winners of the $300,000 finals for male and female pacers Saturday (Sept. 12) at MGM Yonkers Raceway.

Joining Fragment in earning NYSS pacing crowns were 3-year-old filly Savage Cindy, 2-year-old colt Bastonata Bluechip, and 2-year-old filly Huntsvilles Honey.

Fragment won the final for 3-year-old male pacers by 1½ lengths over Hunting Glory in 1:54.2. Fearless Partners was third, followed to the finish by Unmatched Wisdom in fourth. Unmatched Wisdom, however, was disqualified and placed sixth for interfering with Cooperstown Boy in the opening quarter-mile. Hard To Forget was elevated from fifth to fourth and Cooperstown Boy from sixth to fifth.

Unmatched Wisdom, who started from post 6 in the seven-horse field, was sent to the front by driver Leon Bailey, but his attempt to make the top was rebuffed on the first turn by Fragment, who left from post 1 with driver Jason Bartlett. Unmatched Wisdom looked to drop into second behind Fragment and was ruled to have interfered with third-place Cooperstown Boy before eventually securing the pocket position.

Fragment reached the opening quarter in :27.1 and set all the remaining fractions, hitting the half in 56 seconds, and three-quarters in 1:24 while opening up a five-length advantage heading to the stretch. Hunting Glory and Fearless Partners fanned out wide from mid-pack on the final turn to give chase, but Fragment held on for his second NYSS title.

"He got the victory just because he's a good horse, but he's not at all close to being what we think he is," said Bartlett, who drove Fragment for trainer Petter Engblom. "We're going to have to try to figure it out because he's a lot better horse than that. He toughed it out despite not being on his game today.

"I knew going to the half he was really on the bit, and when he's like that, he's not at his best. I knew he was taking a little bit out of himself going to the half, and I was a little worried about that. It kind of showed in the lane. The last quarter was only :30.2; I knew we weren't coming fast. I was just trying to get as much clearance as I could because I felt him getting tired."

Fragment, who in June captured the Grade 2 MGM Grand Messenger Stakes at Yonkers, won for the fifth time in eight races this year and 14th time in 24 career starts. The triumph pushed the colt's lifetime earnings over $1 million, to nearly $1.1 million. The son of Huntsville—The Show Returns is owned by Engblom Farm, Douglas Sipple, and Peaceful Acre Farm. He was bred by Steve Stewart, Black Creek Farm, Michael Robinson, and South Mountain Stables.

Sent off as the 1-5 favorite, Fragment paid $2.54 to win. The exacta returned $29.64 and the trifecta returned $308.40.

Bailey came away with a NYSS champion in the final for 3-year-old female pacers, guiding a dominant performance by Savage Cindy in a 1:52.4 triumph. Ideal Beauty Queen finished second, eight-lengths back, while Saulsbrook Rolo was third and 2025 champ Liberty Style was fourth.

Savage Cindy, the 7-5 favorite, went straight to the front and never looked back through fractions of :27, :54.4, and 1:22, and led by 13 lengths in the stretch.

"I picked her up [two starts ago] and she's just been so good on the front-end," Bailey said. "There's no end to her. I got the front pretty easy today, and when I did, we were taking no prisoners. Surreal Spirit came at me at the half, and it was a tough decision, but I already had [Savage Cindy] rolling and decided to just keep rolling. She does it so easy. She's just an incredible filly and Cory has done a great job with her."

Savage Cindy is trained by Cory Stratton for breeder/owner Scarlett Stables. The daughter of Huntsville—Naughty Cindy won for the third consecutive start and fifth time in 10 races this season. For her career, she has won seven of 17 races and earned $457,052.

She paid $4.80 to win. The exacta returned $45.46 and the trifecta returned $1,737.28.

In the final for 2-year-old female pacers, Huntsvilles Honey swooped the field from sixth place on the final turn to post a 1:55.2 victory for driver Matt Kakaley and trainer George Ducharme. Phast Phyllis finished second, 2¾ lengths back, and Maxina came home third, just ahead of pace-setting even-money favorite Cowboy Candy.

Cowboy Candy, with Bartlett in the sulky, worked her way to the lead from post eight just prior to reaching the opening quarter in :27.1. She remained on top to the :56.2 half and 1:25.1 three-quarters while fending off first-over pressure from 8-5 second choice Annie O but was unable to maintain her advantage in the stretch. Huntsvilles Honey, who had to return to the paddock for a shoe repair that delayed the start of the race for several minutes, stormed through the lane to complete a :29.2 last quarter that was nearly a second faster than any of her competitors.

"The race set up perfect for her, and she got the job done," Kakaley said. "I was really disappointed with her at Saratoga in her last start [finishing third in a race won by Annie O]. I talked to George about it because we expected her to be a little better finishing. She gave me the punch that I needed today."

Huntsvilles Honey is owned by breeder Joseph Trice. The daughter of Huntsville—Thats Incredible has won three of seven races this season and earned $212,073.

"I just think the way the pace set up for her, she was able to get a better trip, and [the others] didn't close as hard as they have been," Ducharme said. "We just needed to get a break in the flow of the race, and it worked out in our favor today."

He added about the filly's return to the paddock, "She had a shoe come off, and we had to get it put back on. I didn't know if [the delay] was going to be good or bad for her, but we got through it, so all good."

Sent off at 9-1, Huntsvilles Honey paid $21.54 to win. The exacta with Phast Phyllis (25-1) returned $416.96 and the trifecta with Maxina (23-1) returned $8,753.46.

Mike Lizzi

Uncle Rob (Andy Miller) winning the $300,000 New York Sire Stakes final for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings.

In the final for 2-year-old male pacers, Bastonata Bluechip took the lead from 1-5 favorite Rose Run Cowboy at three-quarters, then fought through the stretch as Rose Run Cowboy rallied back, to hold on for a nose victory in 1:54.4. Free Agent finished a fast-closing third, just a half-length back, and Marie's Jet was fourth.

In a field reduced to five horses by two scratches, Man On A Hunt went to the lead off the gate before Bastonata Bluechip and driver Dexter Dunn moved to the point exiting the first turn. That advantage would be short-lived as Rose Run Cowboy came calling and was a parked-out leader at the quarter, reached in :27.3.

From there, Rose Run Cowboy and driver Yannick Gingras remained on top to the :56.3 half, but Bastonata Bluechip made his move on the backstretch and was a parked-out leader as they got to three-quarters in 1:25.2, setting up the stretch showdown.

"I wasn't worried about mine," winning trainer Travis Alexander said. "Mine was a little green when he made the front. I knew that once [Free Agent] came and he could sense him, he would go again. And that's what he did.

"The colt's been good all summer; it just finally worked out. And having Dex never hurts, he's the best in the game right now. The big thing for us is it's the first crop of American Courage. He only has five babies racing, and one won a sire stakes final."

Bastonata Bluechip is a son of American Courage—Ascending owned by Joe P Racing, Fiddler's Creek Stables, and Alexander Racing Stable. He was bred by Blue Chip Bloodstock.

For the season, Bastonata Bluechip has won two of eight races and earned $235,187. Sent off as the 7-2 second choice, he paid $9.12. The exacta returned $17.66 and the trifecta returned $55.42.

UNCLE ROB'S TRACK RECORD HEADLINES NYSS FINALS FOR TROTTERS

Uncle Rob, AI, Kountry Plunge, and Sharp Seven were victorious in their respective $300,000 New York Sire Stakes finals for trotters on Saturday afternoon (Sept. 12) at MGM Yonkers Raceway.

The day kicked off with a 1:56.2 track record performance by gelding Uncle Rob in the final for 2-year-old males.

Driven by owner Andy Miller, Uncle Rob led through fractions of :29, :58.4, and 1:27.3 and held sway by a length over Gio's Hope (Dexter Dunn), who went three-wide from mid-pack before three-quarters to take up the chase from first-over. T Money (Yannick Gingras) was third from the pocket.

"I owe it all to Andy and his groom," said winning trainer Julie Miller. "After his last start at Yonkers when he made that miscue, we added the hobbles to the bike. We thought that might steady him versus the hobbles that go underneath their belly. I don't know if that change helped or not; I haven't talked to Andy, but obviously the results are pretty fantastic for us today. I was really happy how the race obviously unfolded. Andy did great fractions and he showed up in the end.

"It's a great program. We love the New York Sire Stakes program. We definitely have the Big Apple [elims on Oct. 2 and final on Oct. 9 at Vernon] in our future. Besides that, he'll be shut down and wait until next year."

Uncle Rob is a Met's Hall—Jesse's Con gelding bred by Lee Sitto. Uncle Rob has four wins and three runner-up finishes from nine outings, has banked $321,825, and paid $14 to win as a 6-1 offering. He led a $45.26 exacta and a $133.10 trifecta.

AI (Gingras) defended his sire stakes title from 2025 by taking the final for 3-year-old colts and geldings in 1:55.4.

Read The Room (Ake Svanstedt) got away well from post 8 and was able to clear to the top in a :28.3 quarter, but Gingras swung AI to the outside from the pocket and took control beyond that marker. From there, AI hit the half in 58 seconds and the three-quarters in 1:27 while second choice Chapter Geo J (Jason Bartlett) made a break while trying to advance first-over. It was all AI in the final panel off the well-rated tempo and with Chapter Geo J out of contention, as he sprinted home in :28.4 to defeat Read The Room by three lengths. Highway Six (Jeff Gregory) collected third.

"Last week we knew he was coming around," said winning trainer Ron Burke, who said AI has the Breeders Crown on his future schedule. "He got knocked down in the first turn [in the sire stakes at Batavia] and still came back and only got beat a length. Once he made the front here, and the colt of Jason's ran, that gave him another breather in the second and third quarter. I knew he could hold them off from there."

Bred by Steve Jones, AI is owned by Burke Racing Stable LLC, Hatfield Stables, Knox Services Inc, and Weaver Bruscemi LLC. The Chapter Seven—Image Of Bee colt has a summary of 7-3-5 from 26 efforts, has pocketed $706,662 and returned $4.68 to win as the favorite. He keyed a $14.30 exacta and a $45.42 trifecta.

Kountry Plunge (Svanstedt) improved to five-for-five in her career with a 1:57 triumph in the final for 2-year-old fillies.

Starting from post 1, Kountry Plunge fired out and then gave a parking ticket to Seveallisto (Leon Bailey) to the :27 quarter and the :57 half. Kountry Plunge had dispatched Seveallisto before three-quarters went on the board in 1:26.3, and a second-over Secret Lover (Jason Bartlett) couldn't make any headway after going three-wide from second-over, which left Kountry Plunge and pocket-sitter Jula Florence (Tyler Miller) to decide it.

Tyler Miller tipped Jula Florence to the outside and did cut into Kountry Plunge's margin, but it wasn't enough, as Kountry Plunge hit the wire a half-length ahead of Jula Florence. Anabella (Brett Beckwith) rallied from seventh to third in the final quarter.

"It was a longshot that wanted to come past me," trainer/driver Svanstedt said about his strategy. "Then I would have had to have gone out again, so I decided to park him. She was a little tired today. It was the first time I felt her tired, but the track is not fast. She's a top horse. She can compete on the mile track also."

Svanstedt added that Kountry Plunge will now switch to facing Grand Circuit competition.

A Chapter Seven filly, Kountry Plunge was bred by Kountry Lane Standardbred LLC and is owned by Obm Stable, Svanstedt & Midnight Sun, Bender Sweden Inc, and Ecurie Diocles Ab. Kountry Plunge, whose dam Plunge Blue Chip was also a New York Sire Stakes champion, has earned $277,100 to go with her perfect record and returned $2.22 to win as the 1-9 favorite. The exacta was worth $6.48 and the trifecta kicked back $75.84.

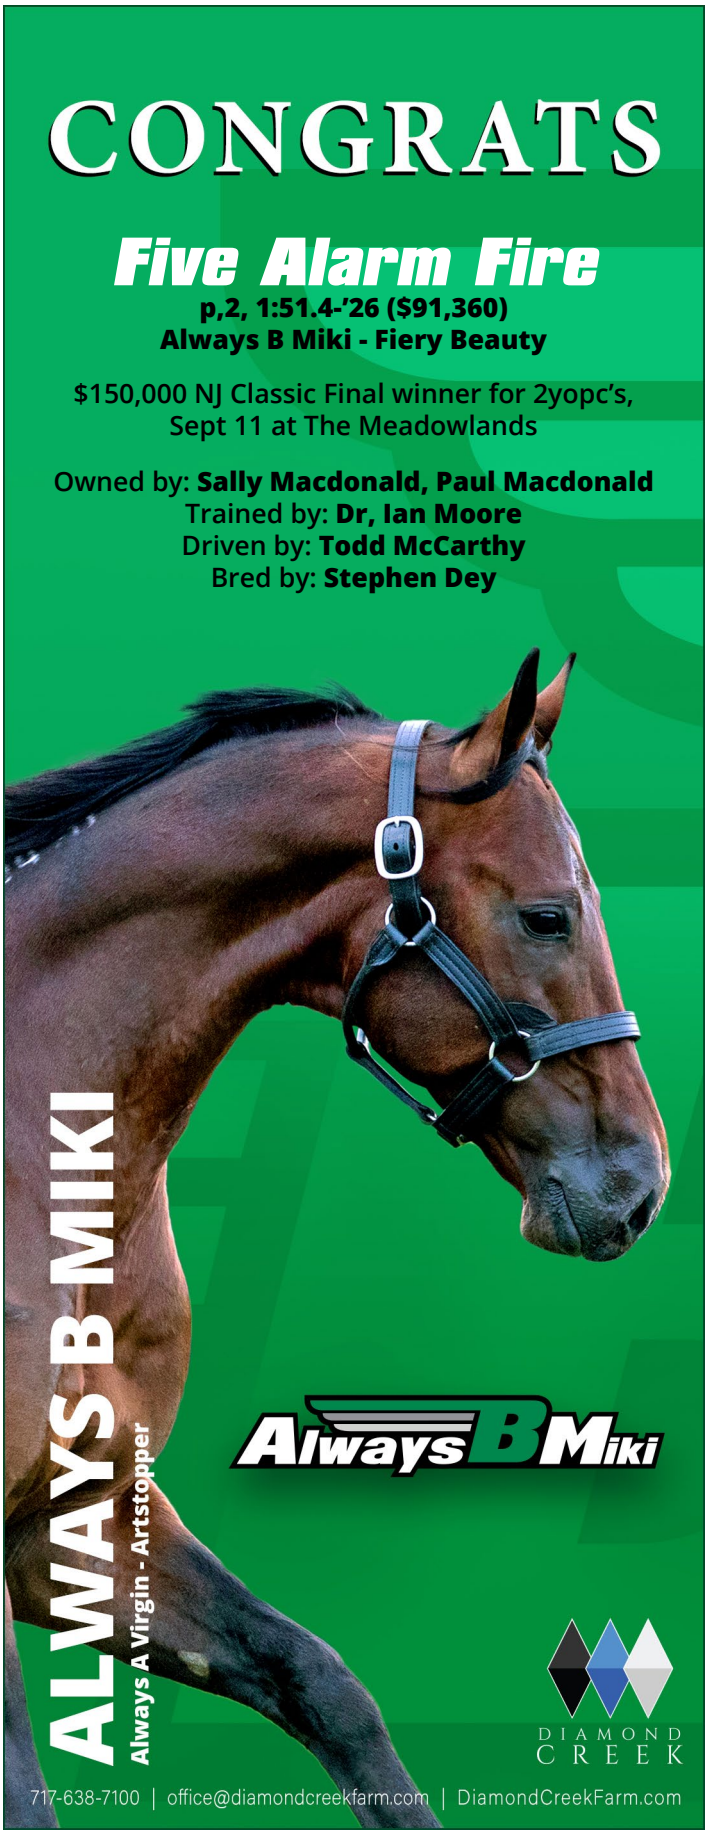

As AI did in the race for sophomore colts and geldings, 3-year-old filly Sharp Seven (Bartlett) backed up her sire stakes title from a year ago by winning the final for that division in 1:55.1.

Sharp Seven was two-wide past the :28.1 quarter to wrangle the top spot away from Storybook Love (Todd Ratchford) and would continue to show the way through middle-half panels of :58 and 1:26.4. Who Dares Wins (Gingras) tipped out from third before three-quarters, advanced into second and challenged Sharp Seven on the final bend, but then made a break before they turned for home. With that foe out of the picture, Sharp Seven just had to stave off Storybook Love, which she did by a length. Jula Hot To Chill (Matt Kakaley) grabbed third.

"She just hasn't been handling the tracks right [in a couple of recent races where she broke] ," said victorious trainer George Ducharme, who also won a pacing final earlier on the card. "I made a couple of shoeing adjustments this week and trained her pretty good. It really all worked out today finally. This is the first time in four starts [at Yonkers] she ever trotted the whole mile, so I was holding my breath a little. She's just been a great filly, a great surprise for all of us.

"She might have a couple of Grand Circuit races. We're going to look at that, but other than that she's overachieved for what we wanted so far. I'll look at, if she comes out of this good, going to Canada for the Elegantimage, and then she has the Breeders Crown if we choose."

By Chapter Seven—Lookin Sharp and bred by Fred Hertrich III, Sharp Seven is trained by Ducharme for owner Purple Haze Stables LLC. She is a 10-time winner from 23 tries, has put away $710,600 and returned $5.04 to win as the favorite. She was atop a $16.72 exacta and a $110.08 trifecta.

MANE ATTRACTION

with JOHN BERRY

Curly Smart getting the Little Brown Jug track ready.

Travelling 80 years back in time to the very first Little Brown Jug

by John Berry

The date was Sept. 18, 1946.

The town of Delaware, OH, a tiny, sleepy haven whose population, according to the 1940 census was 8,944, was about to become the pacing capital of the United States for the day — make that all of North America for the day.

In fact, Delaware, OH, was on its way to become the capital of the entire world for the day.

Sandusky Street was the main business district and Curly Smart told me many years ago that the iconic Bun's Restaurant and Bar was almost as famous as the Little Brown Jug had become.

The Village Diner had opened "not too long after the [Delaware County] fairgrounds had opened," he said.

> "Curly Smart received the most thunderous and lengthy applause in history from the huge crowd as he returned to salute the judges at the end of the final heat. That man and his great crew turned a quagmire into a world record race course [on Jug Day]. And the crowd, all 40,000 or so, wanted to salute him for it."

> — Don Evans

And for movie lovers, the Strand Theatre provided the "major entertainment" for the town.

But, now, Delaware, OH, was about to become known for "the greatest show on earth for the rapidly growing validity of the pacer."

After the Jug Previews and the inaugural Little Brown Jug in 1946, the main thoroughfare had been transformed with travelers in mind as service stations and, eventually, motels were in place to host the automobile traffic along routes 23 and 42.

The attorney, Joe Neville, got things started years earlier by allegedly neglecting to decline an invitation for Grand Circuit dates, with the editor of the Delaware (Ohio) Gazette, Hank Thomson, gawking in disbelief after the news came over the Associated Press wire that would indicate Neville's acceptance.

Neville's now famous words, "Oh my heavens, I plumb forgot to send that telegram" of refusal, now have more than 80 years of history behind them and have turned the town of Delaware, OH, into one of the most important September sites in harness racing throughout the entire world.

Thomson earned the position of race secretary and, years later, remarked, "I'll never forget the day he pulled me over and told me I was the new race secretary.

"I didn't know a thing about horses and Joe knew it.

"I asked Joe 'Why?' and he said [with all of his 350 pounds jiggling up and down], "I figured we'd get all the publicity we needed from the Delaware Gazette!"

Thomson also said that Curly Smart was the most outstanding track superintendents in harness racing.

Smart also was one of the greatest horsemen to occupy a sulky.

With a record purse of $35,358, over $600,000 in today's funds, iconic journalist Tom Gahagan of the Horseman and Fair World wrote "The Jug is now established as a great American classic."

There were nine horses in this inaugural event — seven colts and two fillies — and it took four heats to determine the winner before a crowd of around 27,000.

Yet another highlight to this inaugural Little Brown Jug was the fact that Smart was the 11th hour choice to drive Ensign Hanover, entered by Castleton Farm.

Ensign Hanover was set to be handled by Sep Palin, who had warmed up the colt.

But Palin had suffered injuries in a mishap some days before and decided to put his colt in steadier hands.

This was no cakewalk for Ensign Hanover as veteran Tom Berry had a pair of entries, DeSota Hanover and Royal Chief.

Berry drove "DeSota" while 26-year-old Del Cameron took the lines back of Royal Chief.

In a classic battle in the first heat, Cameron won over Smart as Royal Chief got the best of Ensign Hanover in what was described as a "sizzling" 2:02.3.

The filly, His Lady, handled by Joe Hylan, just did hold off the late rally of Ensign Hanover to score in the third heat — 2:05.1 — with the three heat winners coming back for a deciding fourth heat.

In a classic fourth heat duel, Ensign Hanover sat in the pocket until just past the third station and just did nip His Lady in the final yards to grab the inaugural and official first edition of the Little Brown Jug.

Ohio Governor Frank Lausche was in the winner's circle along with Castleton Farm's Jimmie Johnson, owner of Ensign Hanover.

Fast-forward to 1965 and Smart proved that he was the greatest track superintendent in harness racing, just as Hank Thomson said.

Delaware, OH, had been bombarded with storms beginning the previous afternoon leading up to "harness racing's greatest event" with the track on Jug morning a sea of mud.

The storms were torrential leaving the famed half-mile oval a quagmire!

At around 9:30, it was still raining, but the forecast was for partial clearing.

Smart had two jobs that morning, the most important one being turning the quagmire into what would be a world record setting day, if that was, indeed, possible.

The other job was to get his entrant in the race, Tuxedo Hanover, ready for competition.

Smart told me that "getting the track ready — if possible — was the number one priority and that he would take care of the next one — or try to — on the racetrack."

At around 10 a.m., Richard Downing, owner of Bret Hanover, was on his way to the Ervin barn and about the most optimistic thing he heard from Ervin was, "Well, it hasn't been officially canceled."

Then, like a miracle, the rain stopped and the sky began to brighten.

Smart and Thomson huddled and Thomson asked Smart, "What's your verdict?"

Smart told Thomson to call in the County equipment and said, "We'll skin it."

A miracle was about to unfold in Delaware, OH.

Trackmen Wray Byas, Lee Watson, Ted Ketcham, Jim Nolan, and others all went off on their own tangents with just about every earth-moving machine available.

Though post-time was delayed for around an hour, there were no complaints from the fans — about 41,200 of them — that were quickly filling the stands.

Would the track be off a second or two as the racing surface began to look like it was on its way to being good?

Not only good, it was lightning fast, after Smart and his crew performed the miracle of miracles in Delaware, OH.

Bret Hanover had conquered the most prestigious pacing event in harness racing, the Little Brown Jug, in straight heats, and in world record time, 1:57 and 1:57.2.

Tuxedo Hanover, handled by none-other than Smart, finished second in both heats.

The other entrants in this race were Rivaltime, G Lee Hanover, arch-rival Adios Vic, Scarlet Wave, and Skipper Jean.

Don Evans, one of the greatest harness racing writers in this sport, told me about another record he witnessed that day.

He said, "Curly Smart received the most thunderous and lengthy applause in history from the huge crowd as he returned to salute the judges at the end of the final heat. That man and his great crew turned a quagmire into a world record race course.

"And the crowd, all 40,000 or so, wanted to salute him for it."

The atmosphere, the horses, the speed, and the French fries that hang over the side of the cup.

Most fans put salt or ketchup on them, but there's always a taste of vinegar waiting for you if you prefer.

The Little Brown Jug, don't miss it.

THE VIEW FROM WOODBINE MOHAWK PARK

with MELISSA KEITH

by Melissa Keith

Saturday (Sept. 5) was an uneventful homecoming of sorts for Funtime Bayama. Competing in the Woodbine Mohawk Park open pace, on a card filled with Grand Circuit and Ontario Sires Stakes races, the 5-year-old gelding finished eighth for driver Dexter Dunn and trainer Andrew Harris. It was the first Canadian race of the year for Funtime Bayama (p, 5, 1:48.2m; $433,049), a four-time winner from 16 seasonal starts. It followed the conclusion of the Ontario Horse Racing Appeal Panel (HRAP) hearing of Richard Moreau on Wednesday (Sept. 2). To refer to Moreau as de facto trainer of Funtime Bayama now seems awkward, ahead of a forthcoming decision by the HRAP. Although, indisputably, he was the pacer's listed trainer from July 7, 2023 until June 15, 2024, the suspended horseman has argued that he was never responsible for the blood doping of Funtime Bayama.

On Sept. 1, Counsel for the Appellant Jean-Marc MacKenzie informed HRAP chair Stanley Sadinsky that Funtime Bayama's breeder and former owner Yves Filion had been summoned to appear.

"His counsel has requested from us that he be excused… They gave a note from a physician indicating that he has some vulnerability," MacKenzie said. "While we're not satisfied with the note itself and we requested to speak with the physician, his health is not relevant to this matter before the panel and so we are not going to force this summons."

Instead, it was time for Moreau to provide his statements. The 10-time O'Brien Trainer of the Year (2013-22) said he "end[ed] up as a horseman playing hockey" after studying finance and administration before launching his own stable.

"I've been in the business for over 40 years and a trainer for 38 years," he testified. "I was a vet assistant in the early '90s for Dr. Garth Henry, who taught me better than to play with fire. I had 60 horses and 12 employees when this [suspension] happened. They were like my family. I lost everything. Since [then], I've been praying to God every day and going to church on Sunday."

He described his move from Montreal to Rideau Carleton and Windsor Raceways, followed by racing his "10 best horses" at Mohawk, "to try to make the big league." He recalled racing "at least 30 horses a week, maybe more," in recent years, with a focus on Mohawk.

MacKenzie asked Moreau whether he had previously trained horses for Yves Filion and Bayama Farms.

> "To make a long story short, it's just like if they [the Filions] gave me a car but they kept a set of keys. I did everything in my knowledge to have everything under control, but as owner, they always had access [to Funtime Bayama]... They were in very, very close communication about their animal."
> — Richard Moreau

"I know them all my life because they were in Montreal, and when I moved to Ontario, I had something like probably 15 different horses left and right that I managed for them [over the years]," he replied. "They [Yves and son Sylvain Filion] have as much experience as I do. So, as owner, they give their own opinion of what they expect. It was always nice and easy until I dealt with this particular horse that was outstanding, and it was a little bit more hands-on and pressure."

Moreau said that members of the Filion family were at his farm with Funtime Bayama "all the time, as much as they could," with Sylvain showing up to jog or train the gelding "at least four days a week." Yves gradually stopped coming to see the horse, while son Justin Filion "was coming by himself at the end" of Funtime Bayama's final four to five weeks at the Puslinch, ON farm.

"How long had [Funtime Bayama] been on the property at Bayama Farms prior to coming to your property?" asked MacKenzie.

"I figure around eight months, at least," Moreau said.

"To your knowledge, who was doing the training and conditioning of the horse during those eight months?" the Counsel for the Appellant asked.

"Yves [Filion] and his staff," Moreau said. "It's his own farm."

MacKenzie pointed out that in over 30 announced inspections by the AGCO (Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario) since 2017, there had been no issues at Moreau's private training center.

"The Filion family, I know all my life because they were racing at Blue Bonnets when I first started, and Sylvain himself, we were still friendly, even if he wasn't my main driver back in 2024," Moreau said. "For many years he was my number one driver, and then it turned to be Louis-Philippe Roy at the end there... I usually list the leading driver."

Because he increasingly listed Roy, James MacDonald, and Doug McNair, Moreau said "Sylvain was only like back-up" by the time Funtime Bayama arrived in his barn as a 2-year-old in 2023.

In his first year with his new trainer, Funtime Bayama did not receive extra visits that were "enough to catch my attention," Moreau said. "It seems like he was regular business."

That changed when the gelding returned from a winter break at Yves Filion's farm in Saint-André-d'Argenteuil, QC.

"To make a long story short, it's just like if they gave me a car but they kept a set of keys," Moreau testified. "I did everything in my knowledge to have everything under control, but as owner, they always had access… They were in very, very close communication about their animal."

Sylvain Filion himself had appeared under summons on Aug. 31, speaking primarily in French with an English interpreter. When MacKenzie asked whether he had a financial interest in Funtime Bayama at any time, the Canadian Hall of Fame driver said he did not. He confirmed that he did own a house beside Bayama Farm, but denied working for Yves in 2023 or 2024. Sylvain said his role was "keeping an eye on my father's favorite horse" and exercising the horse "two or three times a week" at Moreau's farm.

"And who came up with the exercise regime of when the horse would be trained?" MacKenzie said.

"It was myself, Yves, and Richard," Sylvain replied via the interpreter. He confirmed that his father was in charge of Funtime Bayama's conditioning in Quebec, but had little to say about the involvement of Justin Filion.

"At that time, I didn't speak too much with Justin," Sylvain said in French. "I don't know if he was there, or if he was elsewhere."

When MacKenzie inquired if Sylvain was aware of who initially trained Funtime Bayama, the driver was unsure.

"I wouldn't be able to tell you with certainty," he replied, in French. "But I would imagine Yves Filion or Justin Filion, if he was there at the beginning."

Sylvain said that feed, vet work, blood tests, and medication were all under Moreau's control while Funtime Bayama was at the trainer's farm.

MacKenzie questioned him about the accuracy of his recollection: "Do you remember telling the AGCO that you had requested 'blood shot' supplements?"

"Yes, all under the recommendations of my father, Yves," Sylvain replied in French.

He said that Yves ordered regular bloodwork because he was concerned about Funtime Bayama tying up, which had happened twice.

"It's not me that would take the bloodwork, just to be clear, but the bloodwork started [at the] beginning to middle of May, when he arrived from Quebec," he said, via interpreter.

MacKenzie asked Sylvain about Funtime Bayama's reputation as the "family pet."

The driver replied that family members got together when the horse raced, and "all the horses [Yves] raised on his farm were like his children."

Sylvain acknowledged that when Yves "was starting to get dementia and Alzheimer's" approximately two years ago, Sylvain began buying horses from his father, including Funtime Bayama's dam. The horses were transferred to Les Ecuries S Filion Inc, Saint-André-d'Argenteuil, QC.

In French, Sylvain said that he and Yves had originally decided to send Funtime Bayama to Moreau because "we've known Richard for a long time, he trained many horses for us, and he is the best." Sylvain testified that his aging father was not able to train the gelding in Ontario because of the travel involved, and that his brother Justin did not because "it was a time when [Justin] was consuming a lot of drugs."

During cross-examination, Counsel for the Registrar Brendan van Niejenhuis asked Sylvain, "Did Richard know what you were doing with Funtime Bayama?"

The driver responded that he regularly saw Moreau on the training track and spoke with him most of the time.

Van Niejenhuis questioned Sylvain about "doing much more than the average catch driver would do for a horse that they are driving."

Sylvain replied that the extra time he spent with Funtime Bayama was because the gelding was his father's horse.

In closing submissions, Robert MacKenzie (not Jean-Marc) defended Moreau's record as a trainer who had "diligently fought for this day to come," more than two years after his suspension in July 2024.

"This horse [Funtime Bayama] is owned, bred, managed, developed, and as we will see, trained by Bayama Farms or its operators and agents: Yves Filion, Sylvain Filion, and Justin Filion," MacKenzie said. "[Yves] told the press... this horse would go to the [North America] Cup, then leave the country, probably to go to the Meadowlands Pace. The horse was moved to Mr. Moreau in May [2024]... He would have gone to New Jersey in July. Mr. Moreau does not do satellite training or U.S. racing, so that horse was dropped into his barn for a short visit."

Robert MacKenzie drew attention to an AGCO investigation that found that Moreau was "not the person with care and control of Funtime Bayama," and that Sylvain Filion was actually responsible, "as the owner or the agent of the owner" Yves Filion and Bayama Farm. Although the AGCO held Moreau and Sylvain Filion equally responsible for the horse's positive out-of-competition test for DPO, MacKenzie noted that the decision was "based on an incomplete investigation and a written report of Dr. [Mike] Weber commissioned by director [Tyler] Durand on Sept. 26, 2024."

He said that what was incomplete was that uncooperative witnesses Sylvain, Yves, and Justin Filion "were not subjected to the full scope" of investigation as "actual controllers" of Funtime Bayama. In addition, "Mr. Moreau's [private] investigative efforts were the only ones that took us into Quebec to try to reveal what was happening there."

"It appears this horse may have been the last crack at a big win before everybody happened to retire in 2024," Robert MacKenzie said.

He noted that Funtime Bayama's valuable dam Tymal Sugrbabydoll and several offspring had ownership changes submitted on Oct. 15, 2024, months after Yves Filion was reportedly unable to cooperate with the AGCO investigation. MacKenzie concluded that the Filions were extraordinary clients who only delegated certain tasks to Moreau. He illustrated the difference between "trainer" and "trainer of record" by citing the instance of Justin Filion being listed as Funtime Bayama's trainer of record even though he was unaware of it.

Counsel for the Registrar Brendan van Niejenhuis pointed out that despite the discovery and availability of additional blood samples taken from Funtime Bayama on June 10, 2024, neither side had requested them. He said that Moreau had listed himself as trainer of record when entering the horse, and "knew and understood his responsibility," regardless of accommodating the Filions' "hands-on" style of ownership. Van Niejenhuis concluded that the AGCO ruling against Moreau should stand.

With Sylvain Filion's HRAP hearing scheduled for Oct. 21, it seems unlikely that a decision on Moreau's appeal will be made before that date. In the meantime, Moreau remains fourth all-time among North American trainers by career wins (6,947), and Funtime Bayama's 3-year-old half-brother Golddiamond (p, 3, 1:56.2h; $15,522) is a perfect nine-for-nine this season in Quebec.

TALES FROM THE CURMUDGEON
with MURRAY BROWN

Rex King wouldn't trade his time in harness racing for anything

by Murray Brown

Rex King is now 72. There has never been a time in his life where he has not been involved with horses, however, initially, not with standardbreds.

"My father was a horseman, a pretty darn good one if I say so myself," King said.

In his early teens, King was already bartering and shoeing horses.

It was through his sales of quarter horses to Alan Leavitt at Lana Lobell Farms in Bedminster, NJ, that he first became involved with standardbreds.

"Back then, Lana Lobell, as did many standardbred farms, would prep their yearlings by leading them alongside a lead pony," King said. "This served to help the yearlings get their necessary exercise and also helped as a selling device to customers who came to the farms to watch them being exercised before the sales.

"I brought a draft of quarter horses to sell them to Alan for their use as lead ponies. I developed a relationship with Alan and he asked me to come work for him as a shoer for the horses and as a leader of his yearlings. I was young and willing. The money was pretty good and I thought to myself 'Why not?'"

Thus, began King's almost half-century involvement with the standardbred which still exists today, although in recent years, since his retirement from Lindy Farms, only on a part time basis.

Can you tell us about those early years at Lana Lobell Farms?

"I was there for about five years from 1978 to 1983. It was a glorious time.

"Alan was riding high. He had established this beautiful farm about a half-hour from harness racing's greatest racetrack, The Meadowlands, which was then in its thriving formative years.

Noble Victory on the trot and No Nukes on the pace. Who knows what might have developed if Alan had not had his breakup with Stanley Dancer over Albatross? Not only did he lose Albatross, but there also would have been the strong possibility that he would also have gained stud control over Super Bowl who was achieving greatness on the trot in the Dancer stable. Instead, Hanover got those two horses who were destined to become among the stalwarts of the breed.

"As I said, those were glorious days. Howard Beissinger was basically in charge of the yearlings. He remains one of the greatest horsemen I have ever known. If there was anybody more astute at rigging a horse to achieve greatness, I haven't as yet met that person. Bruce Nickells, another great horseman was brought in to help with the pacing yearlings. In addition to being an outstanding horseman, Bruce was a pleasure to be around. Even though the day outside might have not been the finest weather wise, the sun shone every day for Bruce Nickells.

"It was while I was at Lana Lobell that I developed an interest in standardbred pedigrees through Hal Jones who was the farm manger there. Hal and I would walk the yearling fields and he would enthrall me with his knowledge of the bloodlines of the horses that we were looking at. This was before Hal had bought his farm in New York that has now grown into one of the leading nurseries of the breed under the stewardship of Hal's son, Steve.

"The Meadowlands was close by. Each day would bring to the farm some of the greatest horsemen on the planet. The Haughtons, Dancers, Sholtys, Garnseys, Inskos, Millers – in addition to the Swedes who were to revolutionize trotting – were among the daily visitors. How could a young person with the love of the horse not learn?"

From Lana Lobell you moved to George Alexander's Chestnut Farm in Sugar Grove, IL.

"After Lana Lobell, for lack of a better term, imploded, I had the opportunity to come to work for Mr. Alexander.

"It was a bit of a culture change for me. I was going from proximity to New York City and harness racing's number oner track, to life in a small Illinois community.

"It actually wasn't that much of a change for me, since my roots traced to small town life in the Midwest.

"Mr. Alexander had 1,500 acres in Southern Illinois where he farmed mostly corn. Mr. Alexander was in the midst of developing a small, quality group of entirely trotting-bred broodmares. He offered me the job of raising his yearlings and leading them to pony prior to the Tattersalls yearling sales.

"I was with Chestnut Farms from 1983 until Mr. Alexander's passing in 1988.

"Mr. Alexander's will stipulated that the horses were to be dispersed with John Cashman acting as the agent in selling them. Most of the mares ended up being sold to Europe."

Note: Here's something which most, including this inveterate writer did not know. The Alexander trotting legacy still lives in harness racing. Alexander's daughter Jean Goehlen is the part owner of the leading money-winning 2-year-old trotter this season, the undefeated (eight-for-eight) Wall Of Fame who has thus far earned $361,250

You then became the manager of Harvey Gold's Rainbow's End breeding farm.

"Harvey Gold had bought a piece of land in Marlborough, CT, with a view to establishing a quality, boutique breeding farm there. He offered me the job of becoming his farm manager. We were basically starting from scratch. The land, which consisted of mostly hilly terrain, was ideal for raising horses. I decided that I was up to the challenge.

"At the outset, he didn't have much in the way of quality mares. From my vantage point, he had only one good mare. That was Evita Lobell. The rest of them had been decent at best racemares with not much pedigree. With the aid of two young guys, named Geoff Stein and David Reid who had gotten together and had established Preferred Equine Marketing and were beginning to make their mark in the industry, Harvey set about establishing a small, but select broodmare band. After a while, quality mares such as Always An Angel, Jef's Eternity, and Continentalvictory had joined our small, but select herd.

"Geoff and David had also encouraged Harvey to buy an interest in a good trotting filly named Moni Maker. Geoffrey would call almost daily with his signature greeting to me of 'What's the scoop?'

"I was with Harvey for 10 years, from 1988 to 1997, when the farm was sold and the horses were dispersed at Harrisburg."

Then you went to work for the Antonacci family at Lindy Farms.

"There was actually no time between my working for Harvey and the Antonaccis. It wasn't much more than a half-hour drive between Rainbows End and Lindy Farms. While working for Harvey, I'd built up a relationship with the Antonaccis. In the interim, Bill Perretti was interested in hiring me as his farm manager.

"Almost entirely as a courtesy to Bill, I agreed to an interview. But there was no doubt in my mind as to where I was going, that was Lindy Farms. Of course, Bill Perretti, being Bill Perretti, started telling everyone that I was coming to work for him. I quickly dissuaded him of that notion.

"I've been privileged to have worked for some great people during my years in the sport. But there have been from my perspective, none quite as wonderful as the Antonacci family.

"All of them are, and have been, special. I learned how to appreciate pedigrees from the patriarch Sonny. Many was the evening I'd spend listening to and working to absorb his great font of knowledge.

"I was at the farm from 1998 through 2020 as the manager. I seemingly retired in 2020, but my association with the family continues to this day.

"For a few years, I'd come back and help in prepping the yearlings for the Kentucky and Harrisburg sales. Since then, I help in scouting prospective yearling purchases for them, firstly, in going to the farms and nowadays just going to the sales where I look at yearlings in which they might have an interest."

What do you look for in yearlings?

"Obviously I want a well conformed individual. I like a horse to have a big, strong shoulder. I want a horse to be, for lack of a better term, sharp.

"Going back to my Lana Lobell days, I want them to have what I call a Speedy Somolli look. Ideally, I'd like to see a yearling turned out. I don't mind if they run. But when they hit the trot, I want to see it happen almost instantaneously.

"That's something I learned from Pat Waldo. Most people are able to pick the perfectly conformed yearling with the million-dollar pedigree. Pat Waldo was able to pick among others, moderately priced yearlings such as Valley Victory, Chapter Seven, and Crazed. Just think one man, in his own way altered the breed through Valley Victory and Chapter Seven."

We can probably speak for hours more. But I've gone longer than I usually do in these interviews. What is life like for you these days?

"I'm still a horse trader at heart. I've gone back to doing what I first did when I started working with horses. I live in the small town of Bristol, NE. I buy and sell horses, mostly quarter horses. I still follow the races and daily happenings in harness racing.

"In a few weeks, I'll be going to Lexington for the sales and the races.

"In a few short words, I'd say life is pretty good."

Lunella Leman dominates Critérium des 5 Ans

by Thomas Hedlund

Lunella Leman was in a class of her own in Saturday's (Sept. 12) $330,000 Critérium des 5 Ans at Vincennes, drawing away from her rivals by several lengths in the stretch for trainer Benoît Robin.

The race changed dramatically when favorite Lancier du Goutier made a break while leading midway through the contest. That left Lunella Leman (Boccador de Simm—Comète Leman) first-over, forcing her to do the hard work herself against France's best 5-year-olds. It made no difference.

By the time the field straightened for home, Lunella Leman had taken complete control. Sent off at 19-1, she powered clear to score comfortably in a 1:54 mile rate for 2,850 meters.

NAYA D'ERONVILLE TAKES DOWN THE FAVORITE IN CRITÉRIUM DES 3 ANS

Naya d'Eronville proved strongest in the final stages of the $330,000 Critérium des 3 Ans, wearing down favorite and divisional leader Nocive du Choquel for Clément Duvaldestin.

Moustik la Govelle (Damien Bonne) winning the $330,000 Critérium des 4.

With one lap remaining, François Lagadeuc moved Nocive du Choquel to the lead. Approximately 900 meters from the finish, Duvaldestin advanced Naya d'Eronville (Hohneck—Calliope de Reux) to race first-over. From there, she simply out-toughed the favorite.

Naya d'Eronville took command late and won decisively in a 1:56.2 mile rate for 2,700 meters.

Nocive du Choquel (Face Time Bourbon) finished second, with Nobel du Rib (Face Time Bourbon) third. Both were timed in 1:56.3.

MOUSTIK LA GOVELLE CAPITALIZES IN CRITÉRIUM DES 4 ANS

The $330,000 Critérium des 4 Ans turned into a chaotic affair, with several major contenders making breaks.

Favorites Mack de Blary and Monzon Normand both broke early, opening the door for 14-1 outsider and monté star Moustik la Govelle. Driven and trained by Damien Bonne, Moustik la Govelle (Discours Joyeux—City Girl) took command with approximately 200 meters remaining and held firm to capture the Group 1 event in a 1:55.2 mile rate for 2,850 meters, equaling the stakes record.

It was the third Group 1 victory of his career. Moustik la Govelle had previously won the €240,000 Prix du Président de la République, the French monté Derby, and last year captured the €240,000 Prix de Vincennes, one of the premier monté races for 3-year-olds.

EXPRESS GO MAKES IT 10-FOR-10

The remarkable story of Norwegian 3-year-old filly Express Go continues. On Saturday (Sep. 12) at Bjerke in Oslo, she captured the $100,000 Norwegian Filly Kriterium and extended her perfect career record to 10 wins from 10 starts.

The race had been billed as a showdown between the unbeaten Express Go (Readly Express), trained by amateur Ole Standahl, and Bringmewine (Calgary Games), trained by Geir Vegard Gundersen.

That duel never materialized. After just 100 meters, Magnus Teien Gundersen lost control of the race with Bringmewine when she surrendered the lead to Brooke David (Great Challenger) and became trapped. The favorite's chances disappeared completely after 300 meters when she made a break. On the first backstretch, Erlend Rennesvik moved Chasse Artist (Very Kronos) aggressively to the lead, while Dag-Sveinung Dalen waited second-over with Express Go.

Not for long. Once the early battle had settled, Dalen moved Express Go first-over. After applying pressure down the final backstretch, she took command entering the final turn. From there, it was a show.

Express Go opened several lengths on the field in her trademark style, head carried low between her front legs, and cruised home in a 1:58 mile rate for 2,100 meters.

The victory was her 10th in as many starts. Her previous major wins include Biris Elitlopp, Hans Petter Tholfsens Minnesløp, and Tamin Sandys Æresløp.

UNBELIEVABLE TALISMAN WINS NORWEGIAN FILLY DERBY

Heavy favorite Unbelievable Talisman was expected to go wire-to-wire in the $170,000 Norwegian Filly Derby for 4-year-olds. That didn't happen, but she still won.

Unbelievable Talisman (Maharajah) lost the lead from the rail to fast-starting A.V.'s Shannon, but Svein-Ove Wassberg found his way into the clear on the first backstretch when Catchagaga Volo (Googoo Gaagaa) moved to the front after approximately 600 meters.

Wassberg then sent Unbelievable Talisman first-over. She applied sustained pressure to Catchagaga Volo throughout the final lap, and the pair separated from the rest of the field with half a lap remaining. By the top of the stretch, that pressure had taken its toll. Unbelievable Talisman took command and went on to win securely in a 1:58 mile rate for 2,100 meters.

Catchagaga Volo held well for second, while G.G. Gentil (Maharajah) finished third after a ground-saving trip in fourth along the rail.

AMONG OURSELVES

with FRANK COLTOLO

Money management makes the pari-mutuel world go 'round, Part 1

by Frank Cotolo

"He's the greatest handicapper I ever saw," said someone we will call Jimmy; a diehard horseplayer from the "old school" of American horse racing punters. Jimmy was like most of the old-school ilk in the 1950s, By that I mean he was full of betting tropes; methods of gambling that were popular but would never turn over a jury of professional players.

Jimmy's sterling endorsement of someone we will call Dexter was based on envy and nothing to do with the particulars that satisfied it. Jimmy admired Dexter without understanding the details involved in Dexter's skills for managing a betting bankroll in a way that enforced his handicapping to points of profit.

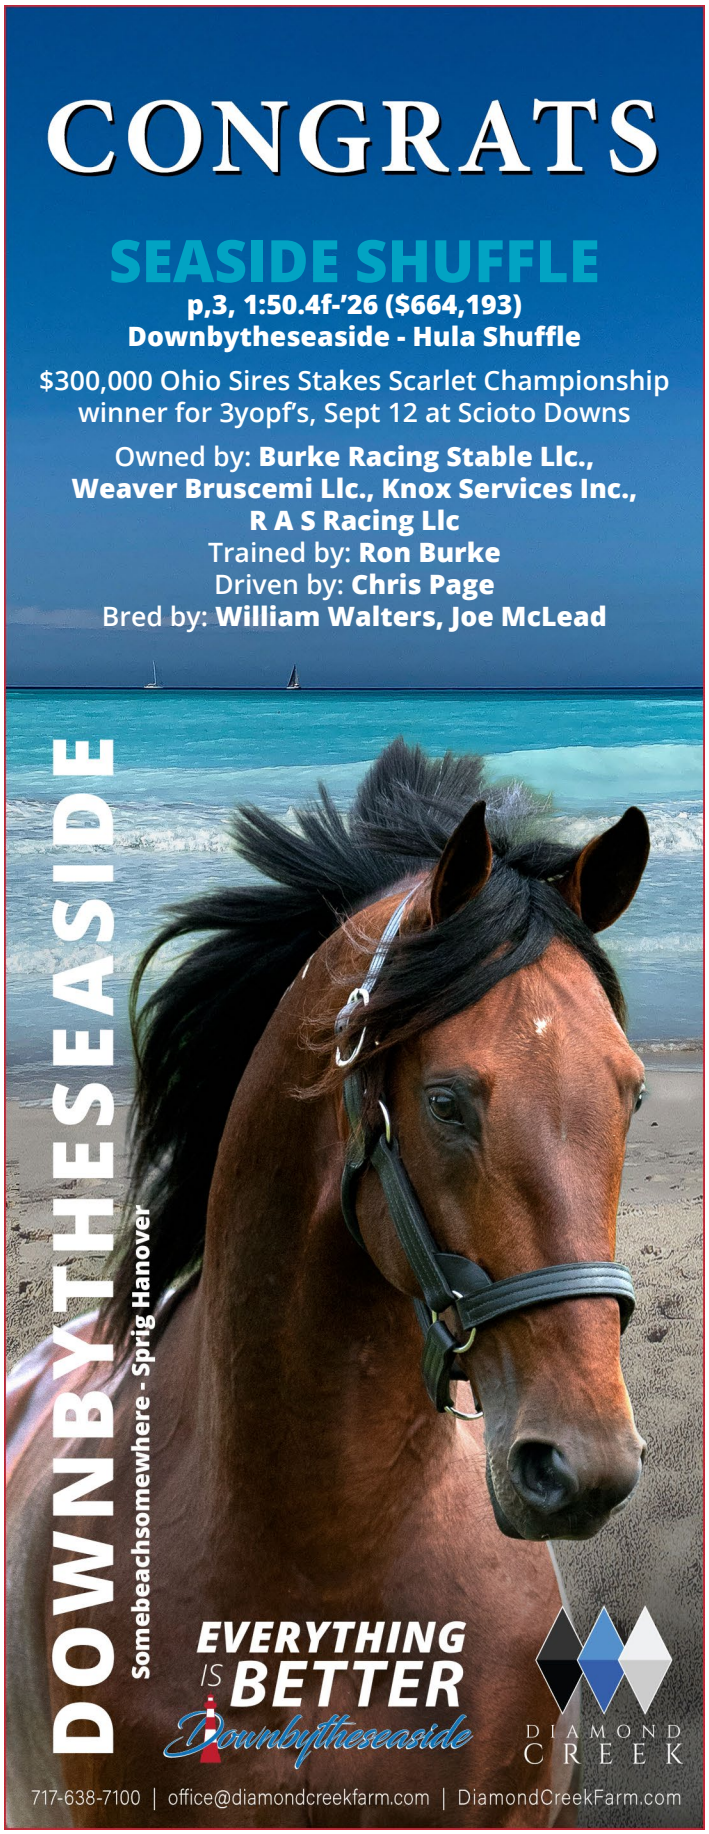

"Dexter's picks nearly always wind up in the money," Jimmy said. "You should see his Racing Form. It's got marks all over it. Figures and notes about past-performances that aren't even mentioned in the lines. I think he plays every race and Doubles and Exactas. Never breaks a sweat."

"He works with a big bankroll," I said to Jimmy. And he knows how to use it to his advantage.

"But it doesn't matter how much you got to bet if you don't know how to find good winners. You got to know how to handicap as good as Dexter does."

Jimmy's bankroll was always in his pants' pockets and he refused to accept the fact that Dexter was better at wagering than he was at handicapping. Or that Dexter passed more races than he played and never bet more or less than necessary to toss a profit at the end of a betting campaign. Jimmy did not even understand the concept of a betting campaign; nor did he understand the importance of not wagering on races based on elements of math and a commitment to its role in being a success betting the horses.

Barry Meadow — arguably one of the brightest professional pari-mutuel players in modern times — wrote, "I often hear handicappers say, 'I'm not a math guy,' but the problem is

> "I often hear handicappers say, 'I'm not a math guy,' but the problem is that horse-racing gambling is a math game. If you're not a math guy, you are probably not a winner, either."

that horse-racing gambling is a math game. If you're not a math guy, you are probably not a winner, either."

Money management is a strict boss of any good gambler. Like Dexter. The Dexter character deserves praise for his pari-mutuel success and the strengths that attract his admiration; but more for being taught and applying the math that makes gambling profitable — even in the face of extenuating circumstances beyond the control of anyone. Meaning: luck. But that is another element to understand in another essay. This area of pari-mutuel participation — how managing a betting bankroll is essential and yet dismissed by generations of players like Jimmy — is the addendum to handicapping like a pro.

The question is this: why play like a pro?

"Professional: engaged in a specific activity as one's main paid occupation rather than a pastime. Competent. Skillful. Assured."

Using professional tools and methods does not require a person to make any activity one's main paid occupation. And believe me from my personal pari-mutuel adventures: if you can adapt to modest math and methods imperative to a professional gambler then you are not required to make gambling a full-time job. And more so than being a part-time amusement, the benefits should outweigh the downside if you win or lose. And I feel you will win in many more ways than what cash you earn.

The information in this and the following articles on this topic are not rules as much as they are resolves; learning to build traits to become resolute with firmness of purpose. Do not worry about being better at math or dumbing down if you are naturally endowed; most likely you learned all you need to know in junior high school.

The most difficult parts of all the changes concern themselves with behavior. Most pari-mutuel players attempting to turn money into more money by betting on animals running in circles are searching for dopamine-like experiences that satisfy the ego more than the financial rewards. The romance of backing winners and being paid for the decisions that make it possible is as powerful as the deep holes one falls into when opposite results define being a loser with tragic depression.

Through the years of wagering, I heard of and tried a score of betting systems passed through the grandstands and clubhouses of racetracks on both sides of the Atlantic and in texts by so-called experts and sharp scammers and not one of them proved moderately consistent. Nor did any of them make me feel I performed the best possible way to achieve success.

Things changed.

He asked, "Is this Adele Elison?"

"Not if you are selling something like extended warranties or need me to send bail money to a nephew stranded in a Kurdish prison."

"Um, no, I'm a police detective from Florence, KY."

After a pause, Adele ventured a guess. "This has to be about Alex Pettigrew and racehorses."

Hooley was caught off guard. "Um, yes. I want to conduct an interview using FaceTime. If you are afraid this phone call is a scam, you can call the Florence Police Department, and they will connect us."

"No, I trust you. Give me about 15 minutes. I will FacePlant you at this number. That will give me time to round up my neighbor, Doreen Thwaite, who is involved. Sit tight."

She hung up without another word.

Exactly 15 minutes later, the faces of Doreen Thwaite and Adele Elison appeared on the screen of Hooley's laptop. Hooley saw the heads and shoulders of two tidy retirees, perfectly framed and lit, their gray hair carefully tended. They looked like they were ready to film a commercial for a retirement home that offered hot yoga and pickleball.

The woman on the right, with gold spectacles sitting on a strong, straight nose that belonged on a Roman coin, got down to business. "I'm Adele. Doreen is my BFF and collateral damage in this caper."

Doreen, who for some reason wore an aqua-blue headband with a silver circle the size of a quarter on her forehead, chuckled and chimed in, "I feel like we are in an episode of Dateline or one of those dreadful television shows where they drag out a simple murder through endless commercials."

Adele asked, "Are you recording this? We are. You have our permission. This is much more exciting than book club."

Hooley was rattled. He wasn't expecting a grilling. He tried to restore order.

"Okay, let's get some clarity. Are you both involved in the ownership of a racehorse named Assets Accepted?"

"Yes, with the Pettigrew cousins," said Adele.

Doreen added, "Absolutely. We ponied up $15,000 for 25 per cent ownership of a filly racehorse."

"Do you know the cousins you share the ownership with?"

Adele nodded. "Yes, since they were teenagers. Peter, the younger cousin, used to mow our lawns. A great kid. Instead of attending college, which we all expected, he moved east to live with his grandfather and work with racehorses."

The lady with the tiara added, "Alex is a piece of work, a real snake. He stayed in the area until he got into money problems, then he left town under questionable circumstances."

Hooley gave his partner, Bones Marchais, a "come over here" wave with his off-camera hand. Marchais rolled his chair over to watch and listen from the side.

Hooley asked, "If you believe, as you stated, that Alex is a shady character, why would you agree to go into partnership on a racehorse?"

Adele took the reins. "We didn't at first; we took a few days to do our due diligence."

"On horse racing or Alex?"

"Both."

"And then you gave him the okay, and the money?"

"Yes."

"Why?"

"Mostly for entertainment, with the possibility of a comeuppance. We thought a racehorse sounded like a lot more fun than another mutual fund."

"I don't follow."

Adele sighed, "Let's go back to last fall."

Hooley nodded. "Okay."

"Out of the blue, like a black cloud, Alex showed up at my husband's funeral to pull one of his shady deals. He probably believed I was senile and an easy mark."

"He read about your husband's death."

"Yes, no doubt he saw my husband's obituary. He showed up with some bullshit story about having a relationship with my husband, said they had a special bond from their lawn mowing days, and he felt compelled to pay his respects."

"Were you suspicious?"

"Oh yes. Alex would never drive over 400 miles for old times' sake. My husband didn't even like the kid. He referred to Alex as a weasel. No, he came to run a game on an elderly widow with money."

"What was the scam?"

"It was quite clever. He represented himself as a..."

"Financial planner?" Hooley felt he should contribute something.

Adele smiled, "Yes. When you investigate Alex, if you find any degrees, they will be from a college for grifters. But he did have a decent grasp of investments and taxes. To make a long and amusing story short, he claimed that I would be facing large taxes on my husband's estate. Alex claimed that his specialty was placing the money in places where it would not be taxed."

Hooley nodded, "A racehorse?"

"It took him a while to get there, but yes. Alex worked hard. Several visits, fake spreadsheets. A fake business card. And of course, he knew a guy who knew a guy."

Hooley asked, "Why didn't you just tell him to get lost?"

She smiled. "Sitting and watching a scam that you know is a scam is a novel form of entertainment, very much like a personalized theatrical production where the audience participates."

"But the ticket price for his show was $15,000 each, not to mention a big monthly upkeep for the horse."

"Detective, everything is under control, especially after a conversation with my connection in the horse racing business."

"What connection?"

Apex bounces back; Wall Of Fame stays undefeated in New Jersey Classic finals

by Ray Cotolo / Meadowlands media relations

Hambletonian champion Apex made amends from a defeat in his New Jersey Classic elimination to win the $250,000 final for 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings authoritatively with a 1:52.2 effort on Friday night (Sept. 11) at The Meadowlands.

Leaving from post 6, driver Dexter Dunn eased Apex forward into a spot third while King Of The Wind, who beat Apex last week, pushed from an inside draw for the top to a :27.3 first quarter. Dunn floated off the pegs in the backstretch and inched Apex up the rim to take command without a sweat through a :57 half. From there, the Marcus Melander trainee coasted to three-quarters in 1:24.4 and kept all his foes to the rear for a 1¼-length win over stablemate Nix Nacken, who marched uncovered through the last turn for second. Longshot Practical Man hugged the cones to take third from King Of The Wind in fourth.

Wall Of Fame (Andy Miller) winning the $250,000 New Jersey Classic final for 2-year-old trotting fillies.

"[His loss last week has] one simple answer: a bad trainer job," Melander said after the race. "I didn't have him tight enough. I've been very nice to him since the Hambo. He wasn't ready because we didn't find anything wrong with him and he felt good that night. He was just a little short. With that race under his belt, I could feel already on Monday that he was going to be right today."

A son of Walner out of world champion Mission Brief, Apex collected his fifth win from seven starts this season and his 11th victory from 16 starts, accruing $1,732,264 in earnings for owners Jeffrey Snyder, S R F Stable, and Steve Stewart. He paid $2.80 to win.

Undefeated filly Wall Of Fame upped her record to eight wins from eight starts with a 1:53.1 victory in the $250,000 final for 2-year-old trotting fillies.

Andy Miller planted the daughter of Walner—Saadet into fourth through a :28 first quarter and stayed put through a :57.2 half while Dandelion Wine looped out of third to take the lead. Miller activated Wall Of Fame into the last turn and swept to grab the lead to three-quarters while staying to task through the lane as Rio De Janeiro shook free from a ground-saving trip to rally for second, beaten a half-length. Dandelion Wine took third via disqualification of Gabriela Beatriz S, who finished third skimming an inside seam but was placed fourth for going inside a pylon.

"I think she's a pretty versatile mare," trainer Julie Miller said, "Andy was just going to sit patiently until he had to move her. I think she's staked beautifully — she's got Kentucky Sires, New Jersey Sires, we'll dabble a bit with the Grand Circuit in Lexington and hopefully end it at the Goldsmith Maid at The Meadowlands in the fall."

Wall Of Fame has amassed $361,250 for owners Andy Miller Stable Inc, Jean Goehlen, Hutchison Harness LLC, and Rick Huffman. She paid $2.40 to win.

a 1:51.4 victory in his division's $250,000 New Jersey Classic final.

Todd McCarthy secured a forward seat with Wrong Sounds Right when brushing past early leader Lifetime Dreamer through a :28 first quarter and yielding control to that rival when he tipped to retake command. McCarthy tracked the leader steadily through the back half and angled outside in the stretch to motor away for a 3½-length win over longshot Easy Down Blonde with first-up Free Scottie taking third and second-over Bentley Blue Chip taking fourth.

"Todd's done a terrific job having the horse where you can race him any way you want to race him," Campbell said. "It's a great feeling any time you win a race of a purse like this, especially at The Meadowlands."

Equaling the track record set in 2018 by Don't Let'em and matched in 2024 by Maryland, Wrong Sounds Right notched his fourth victory from six starts and has now banked $231,250 for owner/breeder Runthetable Stables, which famously teamed with Campbell to pull off a historic upset in the 2022 Hambletonian with Cool Papa Bell.

"I've been very lucky to breed some nice horses and he's one of them," said Scott Farber of Runthetable Stables. "I've told Jim, we've talked about this and this is going to be a little brash on my part, I don't care; I've got the best 2-year-old in America right now. We're thinking Hambletonian, believe me. It's all that's on my mind. I'm focused on that."

Wrong Sounds Right paid $3.40 to win.

Custom rolled down the road for a 1:51.2 victory in the $250,000 final for 3-year-old trotting fillies. Braving the three-wide path through the first turn to grab the top long after a :27.2 first quarter, Custom cruised on the point through middle fractions of :55.3 and 1:24.1 before kicking home and staving off pocket-popping Leading Lady for the win by three-quarters-of-a-length.

Sparks rallied from second-over for third and Adios My Lindy rode the pylons for fourth.

"I knew with the post tonight I was able to gradually get her out of there, and there was a lot of action early, but she kept plugging away," winning driver Jason Bartlett said. "We were last to the front; that's where I wanted to be. She's just such a good horse. She's been knocking all year and she really does deserve this. I look forward to driving her every time I sit behind her."

Petter Engblom trains Custom, a filly by Walner—Goldy Mary FR, for owner TLH Racing Inc. She won her fourth race from nine starts this season and her seventh race from 17 starts in her career, banking $333,953, and paid $3.80 to win.

Dunn sweeps sophomore NJ Classic paces

by James Witherite / Meadowlands media relations

Before teaming Hambletonian champion Apex to victory in the New Jersey Classic for 3-year-old male trotters, Dexter Dunn swept the event's sophomore pacing divisions, piloting New Jersey Sire Stakes Platinum champions Be Perfect BG and Bookie J to odds-on scores in their respective $150,000 New Jersey Classic finals on Friday (Sept. 11) at The Meadowlands.

Following third-place finishes in the Grade 3 Shady Daisy and the Grade 1 James Lynch Memorial, Be Perfect BG found her way back to the winner's circle with a decisive 1:49.2 score in the 3-year-old filly pace.

Dunn put 1-20 favorite Be Perfect BG in play from post 6 in the field of seven, and the Perfect Sting—JK Mardi Says filly pushed clear of early leader Car Keys (driven by Jason Bartlett) after a :27 first quarter only to yield control to 6-1 second choice Perfect Thought (Scott Zeron), whose middle move from third landed her in front beyond the :55 half-mile station. Be Perfect BG made her second move with five-sixteenths to go, angling out of the pocket to engage Perfect Thought as the pace quickened to three-quarters in 1:22.1. She made easy work of the pacesetter turning for home, and she sprinted clear under a Dunn line drive to win by 4¾ lengths. Perfect Thought held Car Keys another length at bay to save second.

"I was surprised to see Scottie move [with Perfect Thought], but it was nice to get the filly covered up for a little bit and not on the front all the time," said Anthony Beaton, who trains Be Perfect BG for Sylvain Descheneaux's Ecurie CSL. "Dex said he actually didn't even try to move her [coming off the far turn]; she just kind of moved herself, and she just exploded."

Now an 11-time winner with $511,283 in career earnings, B Perfect BG paid $2.10 to win.

Dunn came right back one race later to capture the 3-year-old male pace with Bookie J, who dug deep to parry a sustained first-over charge from Dancin Daddy (Tim Tetrick) by a neck in 1:51.4.

After protecting pole position and strolling through a :57.2 half with their five foes in single-file formation behind them, Bookie J and Dunn picked up the pace on the far turn with Dancin Daddy — who angled out from fourth with three-eighths to go and made steady ground — prompting a :28.2 third split and setting up for a stretch showdown. The two threw down off the corner for home, and Bookie J held sway as the 1-10 favorite while driven out. Dancin Daddy held second despite drifting in the final yards; Callmebigpapi (Todd McCarthy) split foes to finish third, missing by just a half-length.

"I don't think he's a particularly good sprinter; he's more of a grinder," said trainer Chris Ryder of Bookie J, who was forced to shift gears into a :26.1 closing quarter to seal victory. "I think he's a little better if he goes a little faster [earlier in the mile]... The horse has got a lot of heart. He tries hard and he got there."

Now a 10-time winner with $473,518 in the bank for owner Kennth Jacobs, Bookie J paid $2.20 to win.

The 3-year-old New Jersey Classic paces were sponsored by Black Horse Racing & Breeding.

While odds-on choices took top honors in the sophomore splits, 1-5 favorite Aintmyfirstro Deo got his first-ever taste of defeat in the $150,000 Classic for 2-year-old male pacers when Five Alarm Fire and Todd McCarthy lifted from the pocket to nab him in the final strides of a lifetime-best 1:51.4 mile.

Scott Zeron floated Aintmyfirstro Deo forward from the outside post 9 and took a brief tuck in fourth on the first turn as 5-1 second choice Five Alarm Fire brushed from third to take control just past a :27.2 quarter. Five Alarm Fire slowed the tempo through a :56.1 half before yielding to Aintmyfirstro Deo on approach to the far turn, only to be briefly boxed by Yellow Jacket (Vinny Ginsburg), who took first-over aim from third before fizzling out off the corner for home. With clear sailing at the eighth pole but two lengths to make up on an accelerating Aintmyfirstro Deo, McCarthy fed Five Alarm Fire racetrack, and the Always B Miki—Fiery Beauty colt emerged to stick a head in front of Aintmyfirstro Deo at the winning post. Goal Oriented (Andy Miller) made late inroads at 109-1 to finish third, beaten 2¼ lengths.

"Off the turn, I was asking my guy pretty good," said McCarthy. "At that point, I was kind of racing to be second, but I figured we'd be able to shake loose down the stretch. Once I got him straightened up, he swelled back up for me. I tipped him out, and he dug right in."

Five Alarm Fire, a two-time winner who has earned $88,360 for Sally and Paul MacDonald, is trained by Dr. Ian Moore. He paid $12 to win.

Perfect Body completed the quartet of Classic pacing champions, posting a front-end 1:51 score in the 2-year-old filly pace and becoming the third pacer on the card to complete the NJSS Platinum/Classic double.

Brett Beckwith brushed the Perfect Sting—Sweet Body filly to the fore out of third after a :27.1 quarter and controlled a :56.2 middle half before bracing for a host of late pursuers. Perfect Hope Deo (Andy McCarthy), who yielded for a pocket ride up the backstretch, took aim off the corner for home but faded at once; runner-up Real Choice (Bartlett) was blocked until mid-stretch but found a lane up the pegs to lunge at Perfect Body; and third-place finisher Butterfly Effect (Tetrick) cascaded down the grandstand side around cover with the best late pace of any. Perfect Body had enough left to keep them all at bay, icing her third career win by three-quarters-of-a-length.

"It's always tough to win these kinds of races, but she's really strong and felt good going underneath the wire," said Beckwith. "Right when we straightened up, I called on her a little bit, and she sprinted away pretty good. I just wanted to make sure she minded her manners the rest of the way."

Chris Choate trains Perfect Body, who has earned $213,550 for Randall Beach, Craig Smith, Charles Rowe, and Carl Austin, Jr. As the lukewarm 5-2 favorite, she paid $7.20 to win.

R Dutchess dashes home in Girl Power Mare Trot

by Frank Cotolo / Meadowlands media relations

R Dutchess, with Tim Tetrick at the reins, scored a mild upset after bursting free from traffic in the homestretch to win the $188,200 Girl Power Mare Trot in 1:50.3 at The Meadowlands on Friday (Sept. 11).

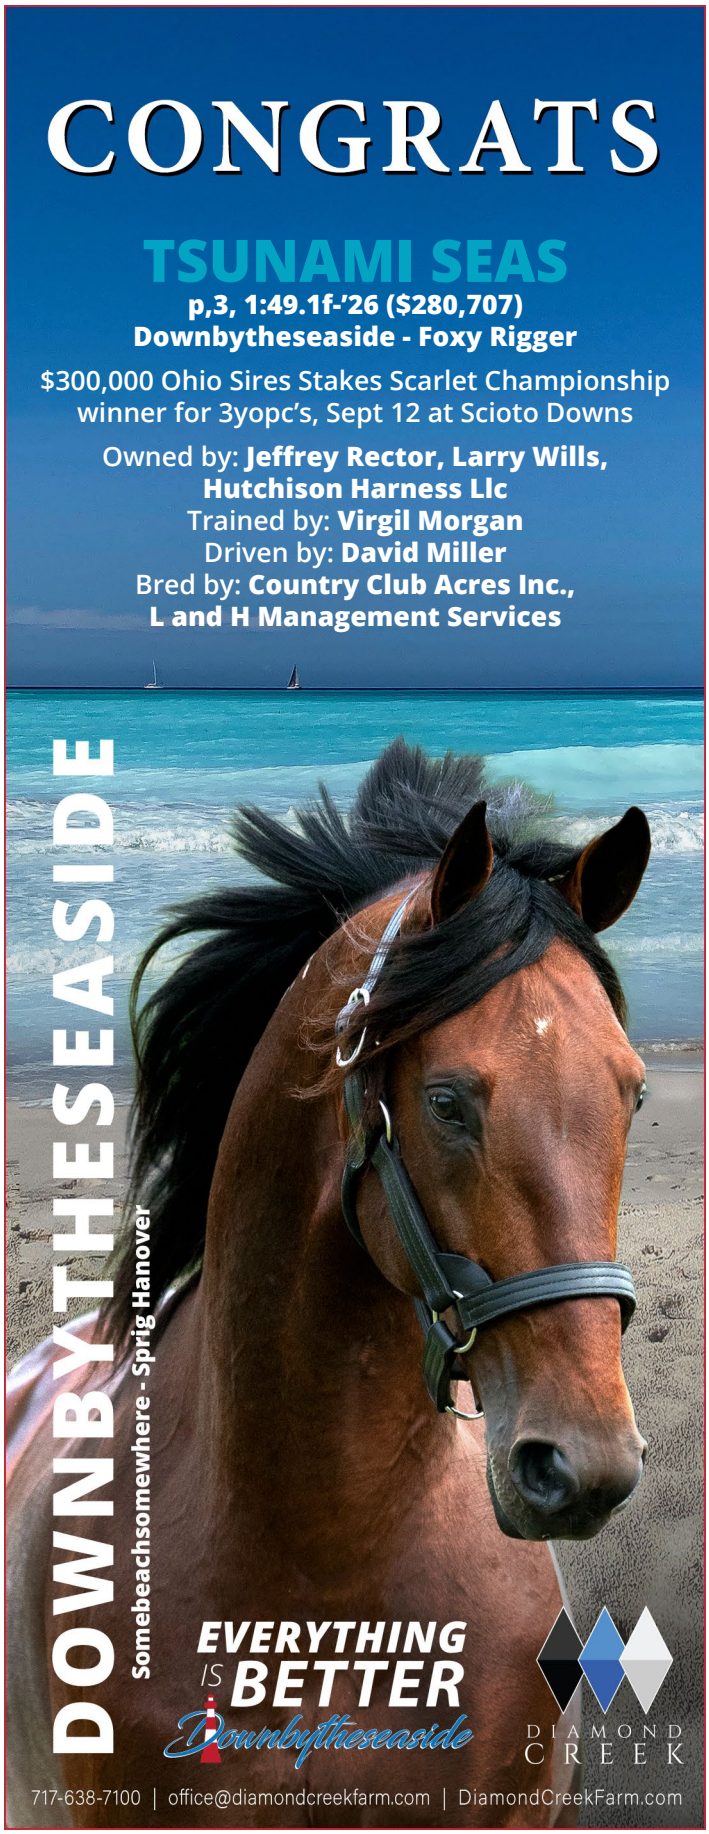

The John Butenschoen-trained daughter of Father Patrick—The Ice Dutchess was quick to challenge the early leaving longshots Warrawee Michelle and Woman Of Passion, both of whom flashed speed from the gate out of outside posts to take the front early. R Dutchess left the pylons with 7-5 favorite Walspea drafting behind her and Tactical Moni third-over in tow as they scorched the first quarter in :26.2.

Walspea shook loose among the crowd heading for a :54.2 half and took the top before Tactical Moni brushed up in the shuffle to snatch control. The two tiers rustled along, sharing the way to three-quarters in 1:22.1 with Tactical Moni fronting the field for home. Uncovered Conversano faltered while Yo Tillie kicked into gear from second-over and Warrawee Michelle soared back into contention down the center of the track. R Dutchess then sprung seamlessly between horses in the closing stages and spurted away to a 1¼-length win. Warrawee Michelle took second with Yo Tillie finishing third and Walspea settling for fourth.

"It was looking like a pretty good spot for a while," Butenschoen said. "Nothing wrong with sitting on Walspea's back, and then next thing you know we're sitting third on the wood turning for home. It took about halfway down the stretch before things shook out where she was able to find some room and she responded really well for us tonight. She had four consecutive weeks here where she never saw [the pylons] and she was closing in :26, trotted [a mile] in [1]:49.3 to end up third. [The draw] got her into play and she still threw that big last quarter at us."

R Dutchess won for the fourth time from 14 starts this season and for the 11th time from 40 starts in her career. The 4-year-old mare leased by M&L of Delaware and Armitage Farm has now banked $763,406 and paid $13 to win.

A LITTLE MORE: Dexter Dunn and Todd McCarthy finished tied atop the driver leaderboard with three winners apiece... Rambo Hanover was placed first via disqualification in the 13th race, and as the longest shot on the board in the five-horse field at odds of 18-1, keyed a 20-cent Pick-6 that returned $36,223.22... All-source betting on the 14-race program totaled $2,448,285.

Redland Rocket Man surprises with world record Simcoe win

by Ray Cotolo for Woodbine communications

John Pentland trainee Redland Rocket Man ripped off a pocket trip to a world-record equaling mile when scoring in the $140,000 Grade 3 Simcoe Stakes on Saturday night (Sept. 12) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Leaving from post 4, driver Jody Jamieson jetted Redland Rocket Man to the top and yielded for a pocket ride once Beau Jangles loomed up the outside through a :26.1 first quarter. Jamieson tracked Beau Jangles to a :53.3 half and swung out of the pocket passing three-quarters in 1:20.4. Redland Rocket Man surged past Beau Jangles upon straightening for home and paced sturdily to the line chased home by Sweet Lovin Lou in second, beaten 1¾ lengths. Beau Jangles settled for third and Odds On Bullfrog took fourth.

Watch the race replay here.

"If we're being honest with ourselves, I think we were trying to be second to Beau Jangles in here, the way he came back and raced so great last week," Jamieson said after the race. "I think he came sub-:26 as well to beat us. But tonight, I reversed it; I got to sit on somebody's back and it happened to be 'Beau.' I thought around the last turn 'I've got a lot of horse here. But it's Beau, so he's going to go.' But then when I came out, I knew

I had Beau immediately, and this horse just paced to the wire. I wasn't even paying attention to the fractions, and when it flashed up [1]:46.4 I thought 'Wow.' Just wow."

Redland Rocket Man crushed the previous stakes record of 1:48.2 set in 2015 by Artspeak and lowered the previous track and Canadian record for 3-year-old pacing geldings of 1:47.4 set in 2023 by It's My Show. He also equaled the world record for 3-year-old pacing geldings, set by It's My Show at The Red Mile in 2023, with just his second win from 12 starts this season and his fifth win from 24 starts in his career.

"He was raced right," trainer John Pentland said of the gelding's development. "We're more than halfway through the season, and when Jody unleashed him in Grand River, I think the horse was ready for it and he's showing it. That's four big starts in a row for him. I'm absolutely thrilled and shocked at getting a track record. When it popped up there, I thought 'Did they beat [1]:48?' I didn't know about [1]:46. He's just a great horse."

Pentland co-owns Redland Rocket Man, a gelding by Bulldog Hanover—Granny Hanover, with partners Murray Cox and Gary Volpe. The gelding has earned $523,885 in his career and paid $12.70 to win.

Qued Up opened the stakes action on Saturday night with a stakes-record performance in the first of two $86,000 divisions of the Champlain Stakes for 2-year-old pacing fillies. After drafting pacesetter Money Carlo through fractions of :27, :56, and 1:23.2, driver Louis-Philippe Roy lifted Qued Up from the pocket and slid to a length victory in a 1:49.4 mile, eclipsing the thrice matched stakes mark of 1:50.2 established in 2012 by Captive Audience and equaled from 2022 to 2023 by Sylvia Hanover, Pass Line, and Its a Love Thing. Money Carlo settled for second with Aceandaten third and Rockin Jade Deo fourth.

"I was just happy with the way the trip was going with a slow half," Roy said after the race. "Usually, the one on the front or near the front have the advantage there. I knew the one on the front's a pretty nice filly. Mine started feeling really good, so I kind of took a shot. I was lucky to be able to move out late and never have to use my filly except for the last sprint."

Kyle Fellows trains Qued Up, a Cattlewash—Misqued filly, for owners N. Yolanda Fellows, Blair Corbeil, Windermere Stable LLC, and James Ross. She has now won two times from eight starts, has banked $97,550 and paid $13.60 to win.

Trainer John Pentland earned another stakes win earlier in the card when Bulldog Hanover—Gallie Beach filly Jersey Bulldog rolled down the road as the odds-on favorite to win the other Champlain dash for freshman pacing fillies. Bob McClure coasted on the point with Jersey Bulldog through a clip of :27.3, :57, and 1:25.1 before crossing the beam under wraps a 1¾-length winner over Boardwalk Babe in a 1:51.1 mile. Mauritius gave pursuit from third and Charolais Cattle leveled off from a first-up bid around the far turn for fourth.

"She was just kind of built like a 3-year-old right away and she was very mature," McClure said after the race. "John's really good about never stressing them, never asking for speed. He's had a lot of success doing it that way, so you never know how much speed they have until they get to the races. This filly, it took a few starts for her to find that high gear, but once she found it the strength never went away, the gait never went away. She's been a real pro since day one.

"I never really asked her, just kept her attention. She did get easy fractions, everything her own way, but she still had to finish the job. She was super strong to the wire, and one thing about John – he's very good at keeping them fresh through the whole season."

Pentland co-owns Jersey Bulldog with Sherri Sumner, Jack Darling Stables Ltd, and Alan Alber. The filly notched her fourth win from nine starts, pushed her career bankroll to $206,720 and paid $2.30 to win.

Doc Moore pupil Cattletracks capitalized off quick fractions from a stalking trip to nab a career-best win in the lone $158,000 division of the open Champlain Stakes for pacing 2-year-olds. Louis-Philippe Roy secured a mid-pack seat for Cattletracks to follow :25.4 and :53.2 splits cut from a battle between Mascarpone and Global Choice. Global Choice persisted while parked the first three-eighths to take the lead, but Mascarpone swiftly tipped from the pocket to attack around the last turn. All the while Roy floated to race behind Yes I Am Hanover on the rim and fanned towards the grandstand side rounding three-quarters in 1:22. Cattletracks soared through the stretch and kicked for a 3½ length win while odds-on favorite Atlas Ross rallied from farther back for second. No More Exs finished third and Yes I Am Hanover took fourth.

"He's been getting better every week," trainer Moore said. "And most recently, I put earplugs in him tonight so he could race from off the pace. When you look in the program, the first few lines he went down the road a bit, and once he got fired up it was hard for Louis to do anything else with him. But boy, that was a really good trip tonight. I was really pleased with it all. I trained him this week and he trained super good. I've been training him from behind, and I think he's learning. We had a lot of problems with him in the spring, but everything's settled down now and it's all good, so we're looking forward to the next few races."

A colt by Cattlewash—Ballineen, Cattletracks has now won three races from six starts and earned $123,960 for owners Sally MacDonald and Paul MacDonald. He paid $13.20 to win.

ACCESS NOW AND BEAUTS CABARET FASTEST IN CHAMPLAIN STAKES

Grand Circuit season at Woodbine Mohawk Park continued Friday evening (Sept. 11) with the Grade 3 Champlain Stakes for 2-year-old trotters.

A total of four Champlain divisions, two open and two for fillies, were held on a clear evening at the Campbellville oval.

The Grade 1 William Wellwood Memorial runner-up Access Now scored a strong win in Friday's second $79,000 Champlain open event.

The gelded son of Walner and driver Bob McClure showed good early speed to get out in front, while 8-5 second-choice Detonater Hanover and Tyler Moore would be parked around the first turn as he worked towards the lead. Off a :28 opener, Detonater Hanover cleared to the front and would put up clips of :57.2 and 1:26.4 with Access Now following right in behind.

In the stretch, Access Now got by in the sprint home and would prevail by 1¼ lengths in 1:53.4, trotting his final-quarter in :26.4. Detonater Hanover raced well in defeat, while Three Six Zero was third.

Owned by Determination and trained by Luc Blais, Access Now was a hard closing second in the Wellwood Memorial and has taken big steps in his development.

"He had all the tools, he was just lacking maturity," said McClure. "He seemed to click in the Wellwood and five more steps he wins that race. Even tonight, moving off Tyler's [Moore] back, that's a fast horse and I wasn't sure this guy would go by, and I moved him over and he took off trotting.

"Luc [Blais] does a good job with them and they've done a great job with him and it's all clicking now and exciting time of the year for him to be this sharp."

The Champlain victory improves Access Now's record to two wins and six top-three finishes from seven starts. His earnings jump to $211,130 with the win.

Access Now paid $3.10 to win.

The first $78,000 division of the Champlain open saw King Of The South spark a 16-1 upset for driver Trevor Henry and trainer Scott McEneny. The gelded son of King Of The North got away fourth in the field of six and was first to pull entering the far turn, edging up to a few lengths off the lead turning for home.

King Of The South kept on trucking down the lane and was a clear winner by 1¾ lengths in 1:54.1, trotting a final-quarter in :27.1. Mahalo finished second off a 2-hole trip, while 7/5 favorite Grand Manalishi was third.

Taking a step up from the Ontario Sires Stakes Grassroots, King Of The South had one win and five top-three finishes in seven starts going into Friday.

"I actually just threw him in hoping there would be two small fields and he'd get a check," said McEneny post-race. "He raced good last week first-up and he won the week before… he's been coming around and he went a big trip tonight."

King Of The South knocked over three seconds off his previous career best. He's now earned $64,700 for owners McEneny, Varsakis Racing, Cantucky Farms Inc, and Martwest Racing Stable.

A $2 win ticket returned $34.

On the filly side, Beauts Cabaret was all business in posting a stakes record-equaling victory of 1:53.1 in the first $87,000 Champlain Filly Trot division.

The Steve Bossence trainee and driver Doug McNair pushed to the front and never looked back, posting fractions of :27.4, :57, and 1:25.1. Dreamtrade rallied from second-over to finish second, beat 1¼ lengths in the 1:53.1 mile. Treasure King was third.

A daughter of International Moni, Beauts Cabaret showed an impressive rebound from a break in the Grade 1 Peaceful Way final to win the Champlain.

"We got jammed up in the last turn and made a break, not saying she would've won, but she would've got a good piece of it," said McNair. "She's pretty full of herself there upfront… when I called on her, she gave me another gear… it's an impressive mile."

Stephen Palermo, Jeff Ruch, and Bossence share ownership of Beauts Cabaret, who now has three wins in six starts and $74,430 earned.

Beauts Cabaret paid $12.20 to win.

The mile of 1:53.1 matched the stakes mark set by Righteous Resolve (Paul MacDonell/John Bax) in 2022.

Favorite Major Contender and driver Jody Jamieson made multiple moves to win the $87,000 second Champlain Filly division in 1:54.4.

With co-favorite Dataprivacy making a break at the start, the action ramped up and saw multiple lead changes throughout. Elusive Station trotted out to the lead for a :27.2 opener, while Carl Jamieson trainees Major Contender and Rebel Moon got away fourth and fifth.

Major Contender marched up to the top ahead of the half, but the lead didn't last for long as stablemate Rebel Moon followed and would clear to command just after a :57.4 clocking.

Jamieson and Major Contender weren't taking any chances in the 2-hole, angling out just before three-quarters. Rebel Moon reached the third marker in 1:26.4.

In the stretch, Major Contender muscled by her stablemate and pushed home nicely to win in 1:54.4. Rebel Moon just held on for second over Elusive Station and Twin B Kingsley.

A daughter of King Of The North, Major Contender picked up her third win of the season and second consecutive. Jody was very happy with the latest effort.

"I didn't really want to move that early, Rebel Moon is a heck of a filly, but I didn't want to have to wait in case someone came to my wheel," Jody said. "I just wanted to make sure I had a clear shot. About 10 steps later I thought I had Rebel Moon and was hoping no one else was coming from the back. It was awesome, Rebel Moon was still second and this filly, to me it was the best-case scenario."

Carl Jamieson, 1140545 Ontario Limited, David Lemon, and George Harrison share ownership of Major Contender. A winner of multiple OSS Gold legs, Major Contender now has $205,033 in earnings.

She paid $5.20 to win.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Touchedbyanangel sets career best in Gold for 3-year-old trotting colts

by Dave Briggs / Ontario Racing

Touchedbyanangel posted a 1:52.1 career-best win, and pushed his lifetime earnings to the brink of $500,000 in the lone $150,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold leg 5 division for 3-year-old trotting colts on Saturday (Sept. 12) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Sent off as the 9-5 second choice in the field of six, Touchedbyanangel and red-hot driver Doug McNair left with authority, was on top soon after, and then led the group through fractions of :27.2, :56.4, and 1:25.1. Strobe Lite (James MacDonald), the 2-5 favorite, sat fourth before making his move at the half. He crept up to second and threatened to go past Touchedbyanangel in the stretch, but McNair's colt rebuffed the challenge to win by a head.

"[Touchedbyanangel is] a funny horse sometimes to drive," McNair told Woodbine broadcaster John Rallis. "He doesn't really love the front. James knows that, so I figured once I made the lead, he was going to let me get away with as soft of fractions as I wanted to go because he can usually beat me when I'm in the front and he's first up. But today, in the last turn, usually I try to get away from him. Today, I just kind of let him float up to my wheel, and my horse just felt a lot braver. He raced great, and he kicked home well, for him."

Stormont Shanlyboy (Tyler Jones) was third, followed by Toss Of The Dice (Trevor Henry), and The Green Gazoo (Todd Ratchford).

Touchedbyanangel paid $5.70 to win. There was no show wagering.

Watch the race replay here.

It was the second Gold victory this year for the gelded son of Archangel out of Rubys Are Nice, who won the first leg back on May 24.

Touchedbyanangel improved to 4-3-4 in 13 starts this year and 6-4-4 in 25 lifetime outings for owner/breeder Blair Corbeil and his ownership partners Yolanda Fellows, Mike McAllister, and Peter Porter. Touchedbyanangel, trained by Kyle Fellows, has now earned $308,677 this year and $499,064 lifetime.

The gelding was a $70,000 purchase at the 2024 Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling sale in Harrisburg, PA.

In previous Gold Series action in the division:

- Touchedbyanangel won leg 1 on May 24 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.
- Strobe Lite won leg 2 on June 21 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.
- Strobe Lite also won leg 3 on July 19 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.
- Dream For Peace won leg 4 on Aug. 13 at Grand River Raceway.

GRASSROOTS RESULTS

On Saturday, there were also two Grassroots races at Hiawatha Horse Park for 2-year-old pacing fillies. The winners were:

• We Want It All (Bulldog Hanover—Beach Gal) remained perfect through three starts with a 1:52.3 win for breeder Sergent Stables, owner Brad Grant, trainer Dr. Moore and driver Paul MacKenzie. We Want It All was purchased for $200,000 at the 2025 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

CHER HILL POSTS DOMINANT VICTORY IN GOLD FOR 3-YEAR-OLD TROTTING FILLIES

Cher Hill blasted up the inside and pulled away from the field to dominate the lone $150,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold leg 5 division for 3-year-old trotting fillies on Friday (Sept. 11) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Sent off as 7-5 second choice in the field of 10, Cher Hill, driven by Doug McNair, won by 6¼ lengths over Twin B Showbiz (Tyler Borth) in a career-best 1:52.1. It was back-to-back Gold victories for the homebred daughter of Muscle Mass out of Lauramarie Hill owned by Tom Hill.

McNair left the gate well with Cher Hill and was followed to the lead by Flowing Tribute (Bob McClure). Cher Hill led the group to the :27.2 opening quarter, but Flowing Tribute took over close to the half-mile marker reached in :56.3. Soon after, James MacDonald made his move from fourth with the 4-5 favorite Blue Jean Gal and advanced to second behind Flowing Tribute by the 1:24.3 three-quarter station, with Cher Hill inside in third. In the stretch, Flowing Tribute drifted somewhat, allowing Cher Hill to shoot up the inside. On the outside Blue Jean Gal made a break and Cher Hill sailed free to victory.

"I was just making sure we had the pace rolling along a little bit [off the gate]," McNair told Woodbine broadcaster John Rallis. "I didn't want to be sitting third when she was so handy getting off the wings tonight. But Bob's got a good filly to follow [in Flowing Tribute]. She takes you where you need to go, and then she usually drifts out late in the stretch when she gets a little bit tired. So, she's a great one to follow.

"I thought she had a really good shot at the top of the stretch, though, around the last turn, I wasn't sure. James' horse [Blue Jean Gal] was still trotting and traveling pretty well, and Bobby was still rolling along up front as well. So, I was just hoping to finish about third or fourth in the last turn. Once we straightened up, she hit another gear and she was really good."

Satu Wania (Trevor Henry) was third, followed by Flowing Tribute and TH Trix R Forkids.

Cher Hill paid $4.90 to win.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Big Ranger, Seaside Shuffle repeat in Ohio Sires Stakes Scarlet championships

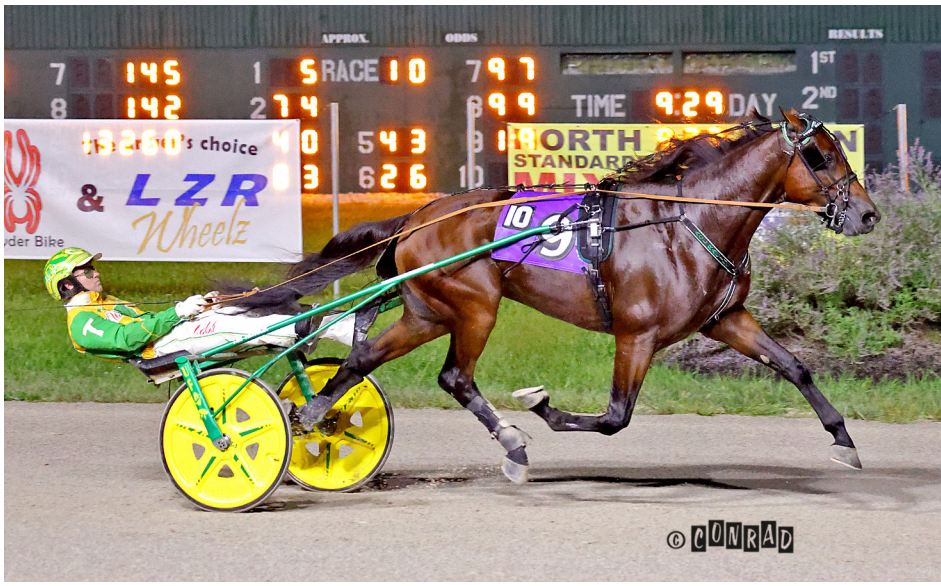

by Jeff Porchak on behalf of Eldorado Scioto Downs

Sophomores Big Ranger and Seaside Shuffle repeated their freshman success during Ohio Super Night on Saturday (Sept. 12) at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

Scioto hosted eight $300,000 Ohio Sires Stakes Scarlet championship finals on Saturday, with 3-year-old trotting colt Big Ranger and 3-year-old pacing filly Seaside Shuffle each adding a second title to their respective resumes. Sophomore trotting filly Mooter Tooter and 3-year-old male pacer Tsunami Seas also prevailed in their divisional finals.

On the tote board he was 1-9, and Big Ranger was 1-9 the best in the $300,000 Ohio Sires Stakes Scarlet championship for 3-year-old colt trotters. Leaving from the outside post 9 for driver Tim Tetrick, Big Ranger floated away and patiently stalked Tom Largo (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) through a :27.4 opening quarter. Landing on the lead around the three-eighths mark, Big Ranger faced nary an anxious moment through middle fractions of :55.1 and 1:23.3 before opening up on his eight rivals. Closing in :28 with little movement from his driver, Big Ranger hit the wire in 1:51.3 nearly four lengths better than Tom Largo. Special Moni (Aaron Merriman) rounded out the top trio.

"He's cool," Tetrick told Jessica Otten as part of the America's Day at the Races broadcast on FOX Sports 2. "He's got so much athletic ability and he's so easy on himself. He's great gaited. I just don't fall off, hit the gate or anything like that and he takes care of the rest."

Big Ranger (Tim Tetrick) winning the $300,000 Ohio Sires Stakes Scarlet championship for 3-year-old trotting colts on Saturday at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

Making his first appearance since his thrilling second-place finish in the 2026 Hambletonian, Big Ranger now boasts a 13-1-0 summary from his 16 lifetime starts with $922,947 in earnings for owner Madison Global. The son of In Range—Big Blue Bird was a $25,000 Ohio Select yearling, bred by Spring Haven Farm of Utica, OH.

According to trainer Anette Lorentzon, Big Ranger's next start could be in stakes action at the Delaware County Fairgrounds but that's yet to be determined.

As the 1-9 choice, the defending divisional champion paid $2.10 to win.

Seaside Shuffle didn't look like a back-to-back Ohio Sires Stakes Scarlet champion at the head of the lane in the $300,000 Ohio Sires Stakes Scarlet championship for 3-year-old filly pacers, but driver Chris Page found room up the pylons and the daughter of Downbytheseaside—Hula Shuffle closed with authority to pick off Vanna By The River (Aaron Merriman) in a lifetime best 1:50.4 effort. Vanna By The River was a half-length back in second with Rhodena Blue (Trevor Smith) edging out Sassy By The Sea (Tyler Smith) for the show spot.

Mooter Tooter (Yannick Gingras) winning the OHSS Scarlet championship for sophomore trotting fillies.

Tsunami Seas (David Miller) winning the OHSS Scarlet championship for sophomore pacing colts.

"Last week she raced very good, so I knew we were coming into the race in good form," said Page after the victory. "Luckily, I had room down the passing lane and, like I said, we prepped her for tonight. She was very good last week, won in the handholds, so it's kind of cool when a plan comes together."

A $115,000 Lexington Selected yearling bred by Billy Walters and Joe McLead of Delaware, OH, Seaside Shuffle is trained by Ron Burke for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC, Weaver Bruscemi LLC, Knox Services Inc, and R A S Racing LLC. With the victory, her seventh in 26 career starts, Seaside Shuffle now boasts a bankroll of $665,992 in earnings. As the 4-1 third choice, she paid $10 to win.

After racing in New York earlier in the day, drivers Yannick Gingras and Dexter Dunn rolled into Scioto just ahead of the evening's ninth race, the $300,000 Ohio Sires Stakes Scarlet championship for 3-year-old filly trotters.

And it took a photo to decide the winner of that race, with Mooter Tooter (Gingras) getting up in the final strides to defeat Setyoursightshigh (Dunn) in a 1:53.3 mile.

Chip Shot (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) cleared to the lead after a :27.4 opening quarter, and then doled out middle panels of :57 and 1:24.4 with Godusa (David Miller) pressuring first up. Favored Setyoursightshigh sat second over, with Mooter Tooter third over in the final 400 yards. Dunn angled Setyoursightshigh into the three path around the far turn, with Gingras fanning Mooter Tooter four-wide to set up a wild five-across finish. Chip Shot couldn't hold off the backfield, as Mooter Tooter and Setyoursightshigh closed aggressively and hit the wire nearly in unison. The photo revealed Mooter Tooter as the winner, by a head to earn a new lifetime mark.

"A little delay with the weather, we had to go around some storms," said Gingras in reference to his later-than-planned arrival. "Thankfully for the judges and management here they were working with us on waiting a few extra minutes to get here. It's very much appreciated.

"Early on in the race I kind of liked my spot but that second quarter, we were going so slow. I pulled right away to get the flow moving a little bit. I thought I was following two of the best fillies but sometimes with slow fractions, somebody gets away on the lead. She came home real strong."

A $28,000 Ohio Select yearling bred by Wayne Weaver of Fredericksburg, OH, Mooter Tooter (Long Tom—Moots) is trained by Ron Burke for Burke Racing Stable LLC, Knox Services Inc, Beasty LLC, and R A S Racing LLC. After going winless at 2, she's now a 5-time winner as a sophomore with $281,575 in lifetime earnings.

Sent off at 12-1, she paid $26.80 to win.

Tsunami Seas closed out the Ohio Sires Stakes Scarlet championships on Saturday night with a determined effort in the $300,000 final for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings.

Starting from the rail, driver David Miller left enough to forwardly position 4-5 favorite Tsunami Seas in third as Prolific Blend (Austin Hanners) made the first call in :27. Miller moved Tsunami Seas to the outside after that opening quarter, cleared to the front before a :54.1 half, and then kept the tempo honest through the 1:21.1 third station. Hanners angled Prolific Blend from the pocket in the stretch, but Tsunami Seas stormed home in :28.2 for the 1:49.3 score. Prolific Blend finished a length back in second with When Is Parade (Wrenn, Jr.) at the bottom of the trifecta ticket.

"He really is versatile," Miller told Jessica Otten. "We know we put him here on the front a lot because he's the best. Tonight, he came into this race very sharp and I wasn't too worried about fractions or anything.

"He dug right in when Austin moved on him. I felt pretty confident down by the wire that he wasn't going to get by."

A son of Downbytheseaside—Foxy Rigger bred by Country Club Acres Inc and L And H Management Services of Findlay, OH, Tsunami Seas sold for $80,000 at the 2024 Ohio Selected sale. He's now a seven-time winner with $280,707 in earnings for trainer Virgil Morgan, Jr. and owners Jeffrey Rector, Larry Wills, and Hutchison Harness LLC.

As the favorite in the eight-horse field, Tsunami Seas paid $3.80 to win.

Blue Ranger (Aaron Merriman) winning the OHSS Scarlet championship for 2-year-old trotting fillies.

Brad Conrad

OHSS SCARLET CHAMPIONSHIPS FOR 2-YEAR-OLDS

Blue Ranger joined big brother Big Ranger on the Scioto stats sheet, winning the 2-year-old filly trot in a track record 1:53.1.

Aaron Merriman got Blue Ranger away fifth from post 5 while Made For More (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) was first to the :27.2 opening quarter. After briefly letting Miz Ella Paige (Sam Widger) to the front, Made For More took back over to control the tempo to the :56.4 half. Kissme Ifyoucan (Austin Hanners) cruised down the backside and made the top just at as the field hit the 1:24.1 third quarter, leaving Blue Ranger to come first up. Coming off the turn Blue Ranger cruised towards the finish line, winning by 3¼ lengths over Kissme Ifyoucan; Miz Ella Paige was third. Going off as the 8-5 favorite, Blue Ranger paid $5.20 to win.

"I was really surprised actually [to pick up the drive]," Merriman said. "I haven't been following as close as I could you know, being off all summer, I'm just blessed to have some drives. She was very, very good… she's very professional. She went pretty easy. Maybe it was kind of a blessing, where I missed all summer, so maybe I would have had a commitment."

Brad Conrad

Cool Julio (Tyler Smith) winning the OHSS Scarlet championship for 2-year-old trotting colts.

Cleveland Darby (Chris Page) winning the OHSS Scarlet championship for 2-year-old pacing fillies.

Blue Ranger, by In Range out of the Tactical Landing mare Big Blue Bird, was a $210,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from breeders Spring Haven Farm. Owned by Bender Sweden, the Marcus Melander trainee now has $193,500 earned in four lifetime starts. Saturday's victory was her second on the year, lowering her lifetime mark by a second and taking two fifths of a second off the track record, set by Godusa in 2025.

Another track record performance, this time in serious rain, was a battle to the finish with Don'ttruckwithme prevailing in 1:49.4 with Mike Wilder at the lines for Daren Harvey in the 2-year-old colt pace.

Luke Hanners took Night Surfer to the front from post 9 and hit the quarter in :26.2. Jett James (Brett Miller) swiftly moved to the lead but it was short-lived as Night Surfer was back on top before the :53.4 half. Don'ttruckwithme sat in the 3-hole and Wilder pulled him going to the 1:21.4 third-quarter. Ocean Party (Tim Tetrick) came from the back second over and the two battled it out down the stretch. In a tight photo, it was Don'ttruckwithme who came out on top by a nose over Ocean Party; Night Surfer was third. Don'ttruckwithme, the 5-2 co-second choice, paid $7.80 to win.

Chris Lems has driven Don'ttruckwithme all season, but due to an accident Friday, Wilder picked up the drive late.

"Lems is a great friend of mine and he's done a whale of a job with this colt," Wilder said. "Daren said he's been real kind with him all year and I think he's ready to race. So, hats off to Chris for getting this colt ready for this kind of race.

"They were dueling pretty early. I didn't really want to come first up, but they worked really hard and he told me the colt would be really good tonight and he was right. It was a thrill. I didn't know if I was able to hold Timmy off. The colt did all the work, he just dug in."

An emotional Harvey was full of praise for Lems.

"Let's just say from the beginning, Chris Lems, he was it," Harvey said. "He got the horse ready for this. Shoot, my emotions are heavy with that. I've had a great opportunity over my years watching Mike over at The Meadows. He's an amazing horseman. He put in an incredible effort, that was tight."

Don'ttruckwithme, by Catch The Fire out of the Real Desire mare Age Of Consent, was a $37,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from breeder Judy Roegner. The track record performance was Don'ttruckwithme's sixth win in eight starts and pushed the gelding's earnings to $415,960 for owners Wayne Mast, Jr., Eden Acres Farmstead, and Kirk Nichols. The previous track record of 1:50.2 was set in 2020 by Charlie May.

Cool Julio picked a great evening to break his maiden winning the 2-year-old colt trot in 1:55 for trainer Jeff Smith. Roll'n In Moni (Brett Miller) took the early lead going to the :28.2 opening quarter but when he became a bit steppy, Debt Free (Wrenn, Jr.) took over and sent the field to the :57.2 half. Tyler Smith had Cool Julio sitting fifth and was out and moving by the half, but was still fourth at the three-quarter pole. Coming down the stretch, Cool Julio won by a length over Mind On My Moni (Mike Wilder); Debt Free was third. Going off as the 5-2 third choice, Cool Julio paid $7.60 to win.

"It's a good time to break his maiden, right?" Smith said. "We knew all along this horse had plenty of speed, it was just his manners. It's not that like he's real hot or anything, he's so quick he don't really know how to get in gear. But tonight, I got to hang on to him and in that last turn, I was just like stay trotting.

"Actually, Page's horse kind of pulled up right there and I had to check him a little bit [on the backside] and I thought 'awe, he's going to run.' Northfield was my fault, but over and over he's gotten more mature and he's a really nice colt.

"It's unbelievable [to win for his parents]. My dad and mom work so hard and they deserve it more than anybody."

Cool Julio, by Cuatro De Julio out of the Chapter Seven mare Hit The Books, was a $52,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from breeder Double Spring Farm. Saturday's victory was his seventh lifetime start and the gelding now has $190,410 in earnings for owner TDTrot.

A duel down the stretch between a co-world record holder and an 18-1 shot saw Cleveland Darby and Chris Page win the 2-year-old filly pace by a length at long odds in 1:51.

Page got Cleveland Darby away fourth and pulled after the :54.2 half. Getting a second over trip behind Thought I Had It (Trevor Smith), Cleveland Darby made the lead part-way through the last turn and was able to fend off track record holder Tempting Flames for the win; Jar Of Hearts (Ronnie Gillespie) got up for third. Cleveland Darby, who went off at 18-1, paid $39.80 to win.

"Trust the process… because she's been just a little bit hot," Page said. "She's maturing and that's one. Two, Ronnie's done a great job rigging this filly. He adapts through the season with changes. We've opened her all the way up; tonight, we were able to take the ear hood off and put ear plugs in her. She's just maturing and everything was geared her up for tonight and it's cool when it works out.

"I knew I was going forward out of the gate; I didn't know where I was getting away. When David was behind me with the fast fractions and Trevor pulled and I was second up, it was just a dream trip, it really was. Then it just comes down to the best filly at the light."

Cleveland Darby, by Downbytheseaside out of the McArdle mare Loreenas Ruffian, was bred by Carl Howard and is owned by Burke Racing, Weaver Bruscemi, R A S Racing, and Larry Karr. The win was her fifth in eight starts and she now has $306,000 in earnings.

The 91-day 2026 Eldorado Scioto Downs regular season is coming to a close, running through Saturday (Sept. 19). Races will be held next week Tuesday-Thursday and Saturday; there is no live racing on Friday (Sept. 18) to accommodate horsemen attending the Ohio Selected Yearling Sale. The track will then re-open for the Breeders Crown, with eliminations held Oct. 16-17 and the finals Oct. 23-24. More information about all the racing action at Scioto can be found on the Eldorado Scioto Downs website.

OHSS GRAY CHAMPIONSHIPS AT ELDORADO SCIOTO DOWNS

If there was ever a time to break your maiden, winning a $100,000 Ohio Sires Stakes Gray championship seems to be a good time. Three of the four freshman divisions saw first time winners take the top spot: Jidoo Bythesea (2YOCP, 1:54.1), Dancin Miki (2YOFP, 1:53.2), and Kikionamission (2YOFT, 1:56.2). The Friday (Sept. 11) card at Eldorado Scioto Downs kicked off Ohio Super Weekend, celebrating the 50th anniversary of the Ohio Sires Stakes program.

Dancin Miki was the first to break her maiden, winning the 2-year-old filly pace for trainer Ron Burke in 1:53.2. Half the field left to get to the top, but it was Demons Angel (Aaron Merriman) who made the early lead towards the :27.3 opening quarter while driver Chris Page got Dancin Miki settled second along the rail. Rose Run Charlie (Marvin Luna) took over to lead the field through the :57.3 half and got pressure from Dancin Miki as she pulled mid-way down the backside. By the 1:25.2 third quarter, the fillies were neck and neck, but Dancin Miki kept pouring it on, winning by a-length-and-a-half over Miki Grad (Brett Miller) who got up for second; Demons Angel was third. Dancin Miki went off at 8-1 and paid $19.80 to win.

"She was huge, I mean going against the one [Miki Grad] I thought it was going to be tough," said co-owner Carl Howard.

Friday's win was after a less-than-ideal August which saw Dancin Miki scratched and then finishing last in a world record mile (1:50) by Tempting Flames.

"If you saw her early lines, she was really sharp to start the year off, so we knew she had talent," Howard said. "We still got Delaware, so that will be fun."

By Monte Miki out of the Sweet Lou mare Sweet Britches, Dancin Miki was a $75,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from breeder Spring Fun Farm. With just four races now under her belt, Dancin Miki has $66,500 in earnings for owners Burke Racing, Weaver Bruscemi, Knox Services, and R A S Racing.

Sam Widger patiently sat with another Burke trainee maiden winner, Kikionamission, through the first half before taking the 2-year-old filly trot event in 1:56.2.

Shinie T (Merriman) set the early fractions of :27.3 and :55.4 before giving way to Steady Mind (Ken Holliday). Widger had Kikionamission on the move heading towards the 1:25.1 third quarter and was three-wide around the last turn. Kikionamission won by a quarter-length over Steady Mind; Victory Howl (Irvine) came up the passing lane to be third. Going off at 11-1, Kikionamission paid $25.20 to win.

A homebred for Burke Racing, Weaver Bruscemi, Knox Services, and Beasty, Kikionamission now has $59,730 earned in eight starts.

Sea Monster (Luke Hanners) went straight to the front from post 9 and hit the quarter in :27.2. Jidoo Bythesea didn't see a pylon until mid-way down the stretch and easily set the remaining fractions of :57.1 and 1:26. Irvine never moved coming down the stretch as Jidoo Bythesea cruised home to win by two lengths over State Room (Mike Micallef); Sea Monster was third. Jidoo Bythesea went off at 2-5 and paid $2.80 to win.

"Both times I drove him, I took care of him," Irvine said after the race. "Robert texted me tonight and told me just keep him quiet and give him a good trip. Leaving from post 6, the choice was get away fifth or keep going to the front. I thought the best trip would be on the front. This colt's a good turn of foot and the last couple times I drove him, he's always sprinted home good so I knew they'd have to have a pretty good kick to get to him."

By Downbytheseaside out of the Western Ideal mare Santa Rosa, Jidoo Bythesea was a $70,000 Standardbred Horse Sale purchase from breeder Hanover Shoe Farms. Owned by Ken Jacobs, Jidoo Bythesea now has $64,460 earned in five lifetime starts.

Fire Run (Luna) got the perfect pocket trip to take the 3-year-old colt pace in 1:51 for trainer Erv Miller. Odds On RPJ (Hanners) comfortably set fractions of :27, :55.3, and 1:23 and Fire Run came up the passing lane to win by a length. Odds On RPJ was second with Caillou Hanover (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) being placed third. Sent off as the 2-1 second choice, Fire Run paid $2.20 to win.

"I thought Luke was going to be good, and I was happy following him," said Luna after the race. "At the half I was happy, everything worked out great. It's a great feeling, especially for my buddy Atlee Bender and Erv Miller, they're great people."

Fire Run, a gelded son by Catch The Fire out of the McArdle mare Rose Run Vanity, was a $28,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from breeder CT Stables. Owned by Ervin Miller Stable, Mark Winship, and Bryn Campbell, Friday's victory was his sixth in 27 lifetime starts and pushed Fire Run's earnings to $180,827.

A track delay did not deter the odds-on favorite Obsessed With Me as Brett Miller drove him to victory in the 2-year-old colt trot in 1:54.4 for trainer Matthew Burkholder.

Lou Armstrong (Anthony MacDonald) left from post 8 to lead through fractions of :28.1, :57.3, and 1:25.4. Obsessed With Me got away third, pulled as the field headed to the three-quarter pole, and won by a half-length. Lou Armstrong fought valiantly through the wire to be second with Commanders Moni (Merriman) getting up for third. Obsessed With Me was sent off as the 6-5 favorite and paid $3.40 to win.

"I was very happy he was able to sit that long," said Burkholder. "It seems like if my horse can stay relaxed early in the mile then he'll finish a lot better."

Obsessed With Me is by Ready For Moni out of the Tom Ridge mare Celebrity Obsession and was an $85,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from breeders Timber Ridge Stable and Midland Acres. Owned by Dark Horse Farm, Obsessed With Me now has four wins in seven starts and $101,250 in earnings.

Joyofmylife As confidently took the 3-year-old filly trot in 1:54.1 for husband-and-wife, driver-and-trainer team of Tony Hall and Anette Lorentzon.

Leaving alertly from post 6, Hall got Joyofmylife As to the :26.1 opening quarter and was able to slow the fractions down to a :55.2 half and 1:24.1 third quarter. Joyofmylife As won by a length over Readi Two (Hugh Beatty) who was third placed second and Guardian Doll (Ronnie Gillespie) who was second placed third. Going off as the 3-5 favorite, Joyofmylife As paid $3.40 to win.

"I wasn't hoping for :26 for the first quarter, but that's what you get sometimes," said Lorentzon. "We've been very happy now lately with her and she raced very good last start at Red Mile [winning in 1:50.4]. I was hoping she would [be able to hold them off]."

By Guardian Angel As out of the Muscle Hill mare Josie's Joy, Joyofmylife As is a homebred for owners ACL Stuteri AB and Kjell Johansson and now has seven wins in 18 lifetime starts with $214,725 in earnings.

Odds On Trickster (Hanners) took the 3-year-old filly pace in 1:51.1 for trainer Virgil Morgan, Jr. Leaving from post 5, Odds On Trickster was parked through the :27 opening quarter but comfortably led through the :55.3 half and 1:23.2 third quarter. Odds On Trickster cruised home in :27.4 to win by 4½ lengths over Beach Babe Hanover (Irvine) who got up for second with Odds On Dividend (Page) finishing third. Going off as the 8-5 second choice, Odds On Trickster paid $5.20 to win.

"I liked this filly a lot; as a 2-year-old I told [owner] Dana [Parham] that she could be special," said Morgan. "As a 3-year-old this year, she got a late start... I think she's put it behind her now and she's a nice filly."

Odds On Trickster, by Lather Up out of the Western Terror mare Preppy Party Girl was a $50,000 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale purchase from breeder Steve Stewart. Owned by Odds On Racing, Odds On Trickster now has four wins in 12 starts and $84,840 in earnings.

Deer In Range powered home off a four-wide move off the last turn to win the 3-year-old colt trot by a half-length in 1:55.1 with Kurt Sugg at the lines.

Sam Widger had Where Theres Smoke hot off the car, easily making the lead from post 7 taking the field to the :27.1 quarter and :56.2 half. Sugg got Deer In Range away fifth and pulled heading towards the 1:25 third-quarter. Coming around the last turn, the duo was three-wide and ended up four-wide before coming off the turn to win by a-quarter-of-a-length over Bitcoin King (Merriman); Time Has Come (B. Miller) was third. Going off at 8-1, Deer In Range paid $15.20 to win.

"Going into the last turn, going around Ronnie Wrenn, and I said, 'I think I got this race won,'" Sugg said. "I felt pretty confident, not as much at the top of the stretch, Aaron's horse had more trot than I thought."

Deer In Range, by In Range out of the Uncle Peter mare Deer Run Lily, was bred by Aaron Yoder and is owned by trainer Allen Miller. Unraced at 2, Deer In Range now has seven wins in 13 starts with $117,750 in earnings.

Emoticon Legacy, Ken Hanover take Hill and Ewart memorials

by Eldorado Scioto Downs

Emoticon Legacy, under a hand drive, put separation on the field to set a new track and world record for 4-year-old stallions, winning the $250,000 Grade 2 Charlie Hill Memorial Trot in 1:50.2.

An uncharacteristic break by race favorite On To Norway (Yannick Gingras) as the field left the gate allowed 2025 Charlie Hill winner Hillexotic (Austin Hanners) to go straight to the front from post 4, hitting the quarter in :27.1. Scott Zeron got Emoticon Legacy away third and tipped out as the field went by the :55.2 half. By the 1:23 third-quarter Emoticon Legacy drew head-to-head with Hillexotic and drew off to win by six lengths in the world record performance. Emoticon Legacy was the 7-5 second choice and paid $4.80 to win.

Fresh off a third-place finish in the Grade 1 Maple Leaf Trot, it was just the 4-year-old stallion's seventh start, and second win, on the year. The Luc Blais trainee by Walner—Emoticon Hanover is a winner of over $1.3 million for owner/breeder Determination and has a lifetime best of 1:49.2 set at Lexington.

"I've raced against him enough to have a lot of respect for him," said Zeron, who sat behind the horse for the first time Saturday. "I felt like I had the best horse in the best spot really. I spoke to his driver last year, Louis-Philippe [Roy] and he gave me all the instructions to get in the winner's circle today. He's an incredible animal, and I could feel the speed he was giving me coming out of the last turn so we just rode it out."

The previous track record of 1:50.4 was set by Winner's Bet in the 2024 Charlie Hill. The previous world record of 1:50.3 was co-held by Uncle Peter (set in 2013) and Nordic Catcher S (matched in August 2026).

Roland Mallar's Ken Hanover took the $260,000 Grade 2 Jim Ewart Memorial Pace after never seeing a pylon, in 1:48.

Tim Tetrick got Ken Hanover away sixth as Women Layer (David Miller) was parked heading towards the :26 opening quarter. Jordan Stratton had For Once Inmy Life on the move from the word go and made the front as the field straightened out down the stretch for the first time, getting to the half in :53.

Brad Conrad

Ken Hanover (Tim Tetrick) winning the $260,000 Grade 2 Jim Ewart Memorial on Saturday at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

Emoticon Legacy (Scott Zeron) winning the $250,000 Grade 2 Charlie Hill Memorial.

Pulling from third, Dandy Ideal (Jason Bartlett) came first up to make the lead by the 1:20.1 third-quarter, towing Harrisburg Heist (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) second over, with Ken Hanover stalking third over. Tetrick pulled three-wide in the last turn and sprinted away to win by 2¾ lengths. Bythemissal (Chris Page) came up the middle of the track to finish second, with Clever Cody (Luke Ebersole) closing to get third. Ken Hanover went off at 5-1 and paid $12.20 to win.

Ken Hanover's last start was on Aug. 22 and to prep for Saturday's Ewart, Mallar opted to qualify him at The Meadowlands, where he went a 1:48.1 mile with a :25.3 last quarter.

"I think he's rounding into where he was last year, when he was sharp," Mallar said. "He needed that qualifier at The Meadowlands to get stretched out. When you race against these types of horses, you have to be ready to go and qualifying in 1:55 ain't going to do it."

Tetrick said, "This year I got to drive him, and he started the year off really good. He qualified super and then just went through a little lull spot. I think last year when the weather got cooler, he got hotter, so I'm hoping he does the same thing."

Mallar said that next up for Ken Hanover, is to take him to Hoosier, Dayton, The Red Mile and Breeders Crown.

Ken Hanover is owned by Mallar in partnership with Patrick Leavitt, William Jordan, and Dennis Osterholt. The 6-year-old stallion by Captaintreacherous—Kj's Justine now has 24 lifetime wins and over $1.46-million in earnings.

The 91-day 2026 Eldorado Scioto Downs regular season is coming to a close, running through Saturday (Sept. 19). Races will be held Tuesday-Thursday and Saturday; there is no live racing on Friday (Sept. 18) to accommodate horsemen attending the Ohio Selected Yearling Sale. The track will then re-open for the Breeders Crown, with eliminations held Oct. 16-17 and the finals Oct. 23-24. More information about all the racing action at Scioto can be found on the Eldorado Scioto Downs website.

Woodmere Rock It stay undefeated in Atlantic Sires Stakes

by Nicholas Oakes for Red Shores

Woodmere Rock It delivered the fastest performance of the afternoon Saturday as Atlantic Sires Stakes 2-year-old pacers took to the track at Red Shores Racetrack and Casino at the Charlottetown Driving Park.

Gilles Barrieau sent the undefeated Woodmere Rock It to the front from post 5 in his $15,520 Atlantic Sires Stakes A division and the rookie gelding never looked back. Woodmere Rock It controlled fractions of :28.3, :58.1, and 1:27.3 before sprinting home in :27.2 to win by 1¾ lengths in 1:55. Southdale Jeff (driven by Adam Merner) finished second with Woodmere Dougal (Corey MacPherson) third.

Jamie Smith trains Woodmere Rock It, now a perfect eight-for-eight, for TheStable Woodmere Rock It of Guelph, ON. The son of Tobago Cays paid $2.10 to win.

Marc Campbell collected four driving victories on the 10-dash program.

Campbell guided Malicious Benny ($2.30) to victory in the other $15,520 A division for 2-year-old pacing colts. The Earl Watts trainee cut every fraction and held off Philndangerous (Brodie MacPhee) by a quarter-length in 1:57.4, with Woodmere Fergus (Jason Hughes) third. Wade Peconi of Stanchel owns and bred the winning son of Malicious.

Sheeowtime Speed ($4.60) gave Campbell and Watts another stakes victory in the $20,300 A division for 2-year-old pacing fillies. Campbell moved the Somewhere Fancy filly first-over and she took command before the three-quarters on her way to a three-length score in 1:57.1. Starship Daisy (Paul Langille) completed the Watts exactor with Nauti Beach (Merner) third. Sheeowtime Speed is owned by Windemere Farms of Springvale and Matt and David Burke of Stratford.

Woodmere Twigs ($12.80) captured the other $20,300 filly A division in 1:58.4 for trainer/driver Merner. The daughter of Blood Money rallied through the stretch to defeat Redland Equinox (Kenny Arsenault) by three-quarters-of-a-length for owner Runningonempty of Stanhope. Howmac Lula (Barrieau) finished third.

Campbell's other victories came with Grampiesdirtyjokes ($3.30) in 1:58.2 for trainer Landon Campbell and Wilson Cassidy ($2.50) in 1:57.2 from the Kevin Bailey stable. Wilson Cassidy is owned and bred by Bailey of Sydney, NS.

Trainer/driver Merner also clicked with Howmac Derry ($2.90), who won her B division in 1:58.2 for owners Cory Livingston, Route Nineteen Racing, and Derryl Livingstone.

Redland Chea ($2.90) opened the card with a front-end victory in 1:59.4 for driver Paul Langille and trainer Kyle Williams. James Trainor and Williams share ownership of the Pang Shui filly.

Trainer/driver Monica Sutherland teamed Irish Rover ($5.90) to a neck victory in 1:59.1 for owner Monica Sutherland of Port Hood, NS.

Tonton Ron ($14.50) rallied to win his B division in 1:59.3 for driver Ken Murphy, trainer Rick Armstrong and owner Yvanhoe Landry of Nouvelle, QC.

LADY CAFE AU LAIT EXTENDS STREAK PLUS ATSS ACTION IN CHARLOTTETOWN

Lady Cafe Au Lait continued her dominance Thursday evening (Sept. 10) at Red Shores Racetrack and Casino at the Charlottetown Driving Park with her 13th consecutive victory.

Marc Campbell sent Lady Cafe Au Lait to the lead in the $5,550 featured pace and controlled the proceedings through fractions of :27.2, :57.4, and 1:27.2 before closing in :27.2 to win by 1½ lengths in 1:54.4. Brokeandoutofgas (driven by Gilles Barrieau) finished second with Windemere Saddy (Ken Murphy) completing the triactor.

Lady Cafe Au Lait ($2.10) is trained by Earl Watts for owners Windemere Farms of Springvale and Matt and David Burke of Stratford.

Corey MacPherson won five races on the 15-dash program to move within 13 victories of 2,000 for his career.

The Cornwall driver started his five-win performance aboard Cinnamon Swirlz ($3.00) in the opener, winning in 1:58.2 for trainer Stacey Darrach, who also owns the 4-year-old daughter of Pang Shui.

Bonmati ($2.10) delivered MacPherson his second victory in the $12,080 Atlantic Sires Stakes division for 3-year-old trotting fillies. The Blayne White trainee controlled every fraction and drew away by 11½ lengths in 2:03.2 for owner Blayne White of South Pinette.

Little Louis extended his winning streak to seven races with a front-end triumph in the $12,480 Atlantic Sires Stakes division for 3-year-old trotting colts. MacPherson guided the Kuri White trainee through fractions of :29.4, 1:00.2, and 1:30.2 before stopping the clock in 1:59.2. Hoponarocket (Mike McGuigan) finished three lengths back in second with Howmac Prime Time (Campbell) third. Little Louis ($2.10) is owned by East Coast Captains of Cornwall.

MacPherson also visited the winner's circle with Fitness First ($3.40) in 1:55.1 for his own stable and owner Jim Gorman of South Melville. The five-win night was completed in the finale as Hosskat ($22.60) rallied to prevail in 1:57.4 for trainer Lenny Myers and owners Matt and Liam Myers of Stratford.

Stunning Speed kept his lifetime record perfect with his seventh consecutive victory in the first $12,000 Atlantic Sires Stakes division for 2-year-old trotting colts. Trainer/driver Mike McGuigan moved the son of Muscle Through It to command before the half and drew away to win by 4¾ lengths in 2:00.4. Hopthroughit (Clare MacDonald) was second with Shoe Dog Speed (Paul Langille) third. Stunning Speed ($2.20) is owned by Little Pond Stables of Little Pond and The Coles Stable of Charlottetown.

The other 2-year-old trotting colt division went to Muscles Dreamer ($2.90) and trainer/driver Adam Merner in 2:04.1. The son of Muscle Through It overtook the leaders approaching three-quarters and held off Manfredi (Campbell) by 1½ lengths for owner Hal Bevan of Charlottetown.

Howmac Limerick ($19.50) scored the upset in the $12,500 Atlantic Sires Stakes division for 2-year-old trotting fillies. Jason Hughes put the Blayne White trainee on the lead and she remained there for a 2:06.4 victory. Lacey White of South Pinette owns the daughter of E L Rocket.

Buckhead Ridge ($3.40) won the $8,000 fourth leg of the Island Oceans Trot Series for trainer Landon Campbell and owner Brady Doyle of Stratford. Marc Campbell placed the 6-year-old son of Nuncio on the front and held off Fight Song (Hughes) to win in 1:57.1. Whole Nother (Colin Sheppard) finished third at odds of 94-1.

Indiana Sires Stakes galore Friday at Harrah's Hoosier Park

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Indiana Sires Stakes action dominated the Friday (Sept. 11) program at Harrah's Hoosier Park, with the penultimate leg of stakes action contested for 2-year-old pacers and 3-year-old trotters, while the older stars took aim at their second and final leg.

Opening up the stakes action, the seventh leg of the $48,000 3-Year-Old INSS Filly Trot, Bluebird Kazoom driven by Jordan Ross for trainer Henry Graber, Jr. bounced back taking down the favored For Dayze.

Slotted into post 2, Bluebird Kazoom accelerated to the early advantage off the wings to hit the first turn in :28.4 with the post time favorite For Dayze (John De Long) tucked in behind her. The field remained unchanged at the half-mile mark in :57.4 as Expressive Gal joined the top pair in third. Bluebird Kazoom aimed to stretch her lead through the three-quarter pole in 1:26.1 as the trotters held their positions. Bluebird Kazoom hit the open fairway drifting out into the middle of the stretch. For Dayze advanced along the far outside with Expressive Gal (Kevin Lambright) along the rail. Too little too late as For Dayze ran out of racetrack with Bluebird Kazoom slamming the wire in 1:53.3 by a neck. For Dayze settled for second, while Expressive Gal rounded out the show.

Bluebird Kazoom is owned by Hillside Stables, Indiana Stables LLC, Hickory Hollow Stables and Michael Rosenthal. The Swan For All—Stella Kemp filly was bred by Delvin Miller, Kenneth Bontrager, and Daryl Miller. This win marked the 10th for Bluebird Kazoom to boost her bank account to $170,850. Bluebird Kazoom paid $4.20 to win.

In the $49,000 second division, Fresh Face Yankee driven and trained Jay Cross did what she does best, as she cruised to the winner's circle in a career best effort.

Drawing post 1, Fresh Face Yankee advanced along the rail inviting half the field in front of her, as Help Cum Laude (Atlee Bender) grabbed the lead to the first turn in :27.2. Fresh Face Yankee fired along the outside taking the helm from Help Cum Laude. Fresh Face Yankee held the lead through the halfway mark in :56. Fresh Face Yankee remained dominant on the lead, stringing the field along to the third turn in 1:24.2. Hitting the homestretch, Cross sat back and relaxed as Fresh Face Yankee did the rest holding off Help Cum Laude to the wire in 1:52.1 by a-quarter-of-a-length. Help Cum Laude secured second, while Magic's Delight (Kevin Lambright) rallied for third.

In her seventh win of the year, Fresh Face Yankee posted $2.10 to win with her bankroll now at $198,835. Fresh Face Yankee is owned by Timothy Smith and bred by Fashion Hill Farm.

The streaking Tell Me It's You got the better of the previously undefeated Mr Bear as the two hooked up in the $65,500 first stakes division for rookie pacing colts on the evening.

Driver John De Long landed Tell Me It's You in the pocket behind Capt Peach (Trace Tetrick) through an opening quarter of :27.2

while Mr Bear (Marcus Miller) got away in the third spot. Tell Me It's You opted to move to the lead on the backstretch, taking the pacers to the half in :56.2 before rolling to three-quarters in 1:25 while Mr Bear looked to advance first-over from third. Off the well rated middle fractions, Tell Me It's You took off in the lane, sprinting home in :25.3 to remove any opportunity to be caught as he scampered to the wire three lengths clear in 1:50.3. Mr Bear was able to outsprint Capt Peach to snag second late in the lane.

Trained by co-owner Alvin Miller, Tell Me It's You has won four of eight on the season with each of those victories coming consecutively. Bred by Oakwood Farms, the Tellitlikeitis—Kitty Hoyne gelding has banked $132,975 on the season for owners Miller, Twila Harts, and Marvin Schwartz. Tell Me It's You paid $5.40 to win.

Also extending his win streak to four in the $65,500 second division, Tell's Chip uncorked his usual late rally to score in his first try against stakes company with driver Atlee Bender.

Away from post 6 as the 3-5 favorite, Tell's Chip settled in the sixth spot early while Soggy Man (John De Long) took control through a :26.4 first split. Soggy Man remained on top to the half in :55 before taking the pacers to three-quarters in 1:23.3 while Tell's Chip spotted the leader nine lengths gapping cover third-over from seventh and last. Soggy Man opened up midway through the lane, before Tell's Chip got straightened away and began to pick up steam on the far outside. Rocketing home in :26.1, Tell's Chip went from sixth to first in the last eighth-of-a-mile to rally past Soggy Man by a quarter-length in a career best 1:51.1. Another Mile Again (Trace Tetrick) rallied along the cones to get up for third.

Tell's Chip has won four of six this season for trainer Erv Miller, racking up $60,081 on the year. Bred by Devon Beachy, the Tellitlikeitis—Jaded Dream gelding is owned by Ervin Miller Stables and Jerry Graham. Tell's Chip paid $3.20 to win.

Nothing could separate Fitterjake driven by Anthony Miller for trainer Aaron Stutzman and Era Dominance driven by Joey Putnam for trainer Michael Hitchcock as the duo battled to a dead heat in the fifth leg of the $129,000 INSS 2-Year-Old Filly Pace in race 7.

Fitterjake lined up in post 1 as Era Dominance started in post 6, who challenged for the lead early against Owleo's Pride (Trace Tetrick) to the first turn in :26.2. Mystical Jk (Kyle Wilfong) wasted no time gearing up for an early bid at the lead to show the group to the halfway mark in :54.2. Fitterjake followed suit blazing along the outside to take the helm. Callie Rocks (Kevin Detweiler) joined in on the action before stalling at the leader. Fitterjake knocked down the three-quarter pole in 1:23 as Mystical Jk held onto second. Down the stretch, Era Dominance angled down to the rail before sliding in between Owleo's Pride and Mystical Jk to take aim at the leader. Fitterjake looked to have tied a bow on the race as Era Dominance hit the nitro for a final quarter time of :27.1 to nail Fitterjake for a dead heat at the wire in 1:50.1. Owleo's Pride held on for third.

Fitterjake stayed perfect for her fifth career win to increase her career earnings to $151,625. The JK Endofanera out of For Sharks Sake filly is owned and bred by James Miller. Fitterjake paid $2.80 to win.

Era Dominance, the JK Endofanera—Always Soggy 2-year-old filly is owned by William Hartt while bred by Let It Ride Stables Inc and J L Benson Stables Inc. Era Dominance spiked her lifetime earnings to $71,735 in her third win of the season. Era Dominance paid $5.20 to win.

In the $49,000 first division for sophomore trotting colts, the complexion changed early when 1-9 favorite Dan D Man Can went off-stride leaving the gate prior to a front-end score for Bravo Alpha.

Leaving from the rail, driver Trace Tetrick grabbed control from the outset, trotting to the opening quarter in a tepid :28 with Woodside Julius (Marcus Miller) tracking in second. Bravo Alpha went unchallenged in the middle stages, leading to the head of the stretch through fractions of :57 and 1:25.1. Bravo Alpha opened up in the lane, with Woodside Julius beginning to gap while Pilot's Lucky Day (Brad Feguson) was stuck between that rival and August Salazar (John De Long) on the outside. Pilot's Lucky Day shook loose late, taking a late shot at Bravo Alpha along the cones, coming up a half-length short of the pacesetter who crossed the wire in 1:53.3. August Salazar rallied for the show position.

Trained by Doug Rideout, Bravo Alpha has won back-to-back on the season and four of 16 on the year. Bred by Hoosier Standardbred Farm, the gelded son of Fiftydallarbill—Life Dream Hanover has banked $79,175 on the year, and $200,309 lifetime for owners Julie Rideout, Alan White, Dave Gamble, and D&S Stable. Bravo Alpha paid $12.20 to win.

In the $48,500 second split, Inverness Ave remained hot picking up his third straight victory with Kevin Lambright aboard.

Inverness Ave got away in second from his rail starting spot, tracking Swan Affect (Marcus Miller) to the quarter pole in :27.3. Lambright right-lined the even-money favorite on the backstretch, trotting to the point en route to the half in :56.3 before moving onto three-quarters in 1:25.1. Under Lambright urging in the stretch, Inverness Ave sprinted home in :27.2 to hold Swan Affect and Tuggin Thomas (Trace Tetrick) at bay by 1¼ lengths in 1:52.1.

Trained by Ernie Gaskin, Inverness Ave has won six of 18 on the year for owners Theodore Engel, Douglas Shore, and the Ernie Gaskin Stables. The Helpisontheway—Arvika gelding was bred by The Bay's Stable, Polger Holdings, and Little E LLC, Inverness Ave has banked $142,290 on the year and $206,835 lifetime. Inverness Ave paid $4 to win.

A single $20,000 split for each of the four older groups was contested on the evening as well, with Revin For Dallars ($5.60) rallying in a career best 1:51.1 to take the male trot with Jordan Ross aboard for Luis Quevedo. Can'ttouchthese ($2.10) wired the field in 1:50.1 to take the mare pace with John De Long driving for Roger Welch. De Long would also take the male pace with M-M's Bud ($3.80) rallying to score in 1:50 for trainer Alvin Miller.

Contested in a non-betting race prior to the main card, Yo Beth D took the mare trot in 1:52 with Kyle Wilfong driving for trainer Ken Rucker.

The Anderson oval is now gearing up for the Grade 1 Peter Haughton and Jim Doherty Memorials for the sport's best 2-year-olds, with those events taking place on Friday (Sept. 18) along with the $80,000 Hoosier Cup.

Cool Mr Cool and Hotcheddar Flirt shine in Running Aces top sophomore pacing events

by Darin Gagne for Running Aces Casino, Hotel and Racetrack

The Thursday night (Sept. 10) harness racing program at Running Aces featured three divisions of the Minnesota-sired sophomore pacers as well as the weekly mares open handicap pace.

Cool Mr Cool, driven by Casey Leonard, picked up his sixth win of the season with a 3¼ length tally in the $17,000 male 'A' division in 1:53 as the heavy favorite while Westward Ho (Brady Jenson) completed the exacta and Diesel Thunder Boy (Rick Magee) checked home in third.

Cool Mr Cool traveled in fourth early and then made a big move to the top down the backstretch and was never in doubt after taking control.

The $3 winner is by Wind Me Up and is owned by Kyle Larner, Jay De Long, and Terry Knothe and trained by Justin Anfinson.

Hotcheddar Flirt and Jenson posted a career best 1:53.4 victory by 3¾ lengths over Thiskidcanfly (Leonard) and Sparklinchardonnay (Nick Roland) in the $17,000 filly 'A' division for her fifth career win.

The $10.40 winner is a daughter of Karpathian Kid and is owned by Dennis Green and also trained by Jenson.

Wild About Me (Roland) made every pole a winning one as the overwhelming favorite in the $8,500 male 'B' division for his second win of the season with a 1:55.1 tally over stablemate Luke Skyrocker (Jenson) and longshot I'm Easy Peasy (Scott Cisco).

The $2.60 winner is by Wind Me Up and is owned by Set The Pace Racing and Ken Stauffer and also trained by Roland.

K T Part E (by Cattlewash) and owner/trainer/driver Jenson picked up her 12th win of the year in the $17,000 mares open handicap pace for five in a row. She was 1½ lengths better than Premier Desirey (Dean Magee) in 1:52.2 with Fillister Photo (Leonard) getting home in third.

The win return on KT Part E was $2.10.

Leonard, Roland, and Jenson all posted driving triples while Leonard and Jenson also posted training doubles on the program.

There are four more nights remaining in the 2026 live racing season at Running Aces, including today (Sept. 13), Tuesday (Sept. 15), Friday (Sept. 18), and Saturday (Sept. 19) post times are at 6 p.m. (CDT) with the exception of Tuesday, which has a first post of 7 p.m. (CDT).

The 2026 Neville Award to the late James 'Chip' Hastings

James Kent "Chip" Hastings, a long-time employee of the United States Trotting Association (USTA) and member of the Little Brown Jug Society, will be honored posthumously as the 2026 Joseph Neville Memorial Award recipient by the Little Brown Jug and the Delaware County Fair.

Hastings, who was born in Columbus, OH, was employed by the USTA for 32 years over two stints. He first joined the association in 1976, serving in the capacity of director of officials through 1984. He returned to the USTA in 1992 in the role of liaison officer, a post he held until his retirement in December 2017.

During his tenure at the USTA, Hastings spearheaded several transformative initiatives that reshaped the organization's technological and regulatory landscape. He oversaw the creation and rollout of the first computerbased race office system (now known as eTrack), as well as the industry's inaugural program for electronic eligibilities, modernizing how race information was processed and managed. He also guided the implementation of reciprocal memberships and licensing between the USTA and Standardbred Canada, strengthening crossborder cooperation within the sport.

In the realm of officiating, Hastings left an equally lasting mark. He founded the North American Judges and Stewards Association, established the curriculum for the harness racing accreditation program, and designed the sport's first penalty point system to address violations and repeat offenders. His work provided a structured, consistent framework that elevated professionalism and accountability across North American harness racing.

Hastings was a member of the Delaware County Senior Fair Board. He was passionate about the Little Brown Jug, and he was a member of the Little Brown Jug Society since 2007.

Chip Hastings passed away on Oct. 10, 2025, at the age of 77.

Arl's Troublemaker, 34, euthanized

Winbak Farm is saddened to announce the passing of Hall of Fame broodmare inductee, Arl's Troublemaker. She was euthanized on Saturday (Sept. 5) due to age-related issues. She was 34 years old. She was bred by Bernard Foti.

Arl's Troublemaker, p, 2, 1:55.4; 3, 1:54.2; 1:53.2 ($143,945), won 20 times in her race career before becoming a broodmare.

Arl's Troublemaker was purchased by Winbak Farm in 1998 and had resided as a broodmare at Winbak Farm of Maryland for most of her life.

Her offspring earned $3,200,149 and included Art Maker, p, 1:49.1 ($1,036,217), Stock Market Wiz, p, 1:49.3 ($739,283), Breakin The Law, p, 1:49.4 ($524,805), Solo Story, p, 1:50 ($374,874), Thumbprint, p, 1:53.3f ($205,925), and Own It, p, 1:53.2h ($178,615).

"Arl's Troublemaker is a major founding broodmare for Winbak Farm," said Joe Thomson, Winbak Farm owner. "Two of her daughters and multiple granddaughters are part of the current broodmare band."

Arl's Troublemaker was voted into the Harness Racing Hall of Fame in 2016 for producing a millionaire and two earners of $500,000.

Her daughters have had successful broodmare careers. Arl's Troublemaker is the second dam of Clear Idea, p, 1:50.4f ($639,323), Dubious Claim, p, 1:49.1s ($345,830), Kim's Royal Day, p, 3, 1:51f ($331,648), Artist Best, p, 1:51 ($315,471), America's Guest, p, 1:51.3f ($311,399), and many more winning performers.

"Arl's Troublemaker left an immeasurable impact on Winbak Farm," said Thomson. "She will be missed by the whole Winbak Farm team."

Ontario-bred horses now eligible to $1.42 million Harvest Series at Woodbine Mohawk Park

Owners of Ontario-bred horses now have additional opportunities to receive a return on their investment. For the first time, the $1.42 million Harvest Series at Woodbine Mohawk Park is open to both 2- and 3-year-old Ontario-sired and Ontario-bred horses.

Ontario-bred horses are those whose dam was properly enrolled in the Standardbred Improvement Program's (SIP) Ontario Resident Mare Program (ORMP) for the 2023 or 2024 foaling year, regardless of whether their sire stood in Ontario or elsewhere. Eligible Ontario-sired horses are those by a stallion registered with the SIP for the 2022 or 2023 breeding year.

The Harvest Series, which debuted in 2018, has no nominating or sustaining fees.

"We are excited about this additional opportunity for those horses born and raised in Ontario that were sired by stallions standing here or in other jurisdictions," said Standardbred Breeders of Ontario (SBOA) president and SIP committee member Stephen Palermo. "It's just another great reason for Ontario breeders to keep their mares at home and produce foals in the province. The improvements to the Harvest Series adds value to both Ontario-sired and Ontario-bred horses and enhances the benefits of breeding and racing in Ontario."

The series is in addition to the $16.6 million Ontario Sires Stakes program open to registered Ontario-sired horses.

The Harvest Series begins on Oct. 12 for 2-year-olds and extends into November.

Each of the four 2-year-old Harvest Series divisions will feature two $25,000 legs and a $60,000 final and are open to registered Ontario-sired or Ontario-bred horses that are non-winners of $30,000 in 2026 as of midnight on Sept. 30. There are no allowances on earnings.

There are two levels of competition for the 3-year-old divisions.

The first level, featuring two $25,000 legs and a $60,000 final in each of the four 3-year-old divisions, is open to registered Ontario-sired or Ontario-bred horses that are non-winners of $60,000 lifetime or non-winners of $30,000 in 2026 (minimum five starts) as of midnight on Sept. 30. There are no allowances on earnings. Also eligible: Claiming $30,000.

The second level, featuring one $35,000 leg and a $100,000 final in each of the four sophomore divisions, is open to registered Ontario-sired or Ontario-bred horses that are non-winners of $150,000 in 2026 as of midnight Sept. 30. There are no allowances on earnings. Also eligible: Claiming $100,000.

Declarations for each element of the series will close as posted on Woodbine Mohawk Park's weekly condition sheet.

The complete schedule for the Harvest Series is below. Ontario-bred eligibility can be viewed in the horse's Standardbred Canada record. Any additional questions about Ontario-bred eligibility can be directed to the ORMP coordinator at 416-576-6298 or ontariomare@ontarioracing.com.

Jimdougie Armitage and Birr Castle secure spots in the 2027 Oak Grove Trotting Derby and Oaks eliminations

Jimdougie Armitage, a $750,000 Lexington Selected yearling, secured his spot in the eliminations to the 2027 $500,000 Oak Grove Trotting Derby by winning the $300,000 Pennsylvania Sire Stakes championship on Monday at Pocono Downs. Driven and trained by Ake Svanstedt, Jimdougie Armitage has won his last three starts for owners, SRF Stable, Knutsson Trotting, Inc, Brochart Stable, Inc, and Svanstedt & Midnight Sun with a stakes record equaling performance of 1:52.4 on Saturday night at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

In the 2-year-old filly division of the $300,000 Pennsylvania Sire Stakes championship Birr Castle, a Captain Corey out of the Donato Hanover mare Melania, also secured her "Win and You're In" automation spot the eliminations to the 2027 $300,000 Oak Grove Trotting Oaks. Driven by Scott Zeron and trained by Marcus Melander for owner Pheasant Hill Farm (Ed Lohmeyer), Birr Castle captured her championship in 1:53.4, equaling her own lifetime mark, while also setting a stakes record for 2-year-old trotting fillies.

The "Road to…" series was established to reward top 2-year-old trotting performances and enrich Oak Grove's premier events. Designated Grand Circuit and sire stakes races serve as automatic qualifying events for the Derby and Oaks eliminations.

Supplements due Monday for Canadian Trotting Classic and Elegantimage

Woodbine Mohawk Park's race office has issued a final reminder regarding supplements to the upcoming Grade 1 Canadian Trotting Classic and Grade 1 Elegantimage.

Supplements for the Canadian Trotting Classic (3-year-old trot) and Elegantimage (3-year-old filly trot) must be submitted to the race office by noon (E.T.) this Monday (Sept. 14). The supplement fee for the Canadian Trotting Classic is $60,000 (CAD), while the fee for the Elegantimage is $30,000 (CAD).

Eligible horses must enter for both events by Tuesday morning (Sept. 15) at 10:30 a.m.

If necessary, eliminations for the Elegantimage will take place next Friday (Sept. 18), while the Canadian Trotting Classic eliminations will be held next Saturday (Sept. 19).

Stop screwing the bettors: Shoes off or on must be published in the program

On Sept. 4 at The Meadowlands, in elimination races for New Jersey-bred stakes races for trotters, four odds-on favorites lost. One was Apex, the top 3-year-old trotting colt in the sport. He was coming off a sparkling 1:49.2 win in the Hambletonian, which was the fastest Hambletonian ever. In the elimination race, Apex finished fourth beaten four lengths at 1-9. Other trotters that lost at short odds in the elimination races that night were Lifetime Dreamer, who finished third at 3-10 odds, Orchestra, second at 2-5 odds, Diabolic Hill, who lost at 3-5 odds. Of these four trotters, I'm pretty sure that three of them were "shoes on." I'm not sure about the fourth one because that trainer isn't known for taking shoes off in the first place.

I say "I'm pretty sure" because there's no official record of these key changes. I can't even go into any sort of database to find out which horses raced with shoes on or off.

Now, I figured that some of these trotters might not race as well as they did in their prior start and I mentioned it in my ustrotting.com Meadowlands picks that night, trying to warn bettors. The reason was because some of the trainers race their horses without shoes in stakes races, but they put the shoes back on when the purses are lower. As you know, it's not necessary to win an elimination race – all you have to do is finish in the top four or five to qualify for the final (depending on the qualifications for that particular stakes race).

Most veteran harness racing fans and bettors are aware of this. That's why elimination races tend to be bad betting races. You could argue that they should be non-betting races, because ideally, you don't want to have races where the drivers and trainers aren't doing their best to try and win the race. And there's no question that in these elimination races, especially the trotting races, some of the trainers are definitely not trying their best to prepare their horse for a winning effort.

For years now, the only equipment change that we put in the track program and PPs are hopple changes. That's important because some horses can improve sharply when adding hopples. We also put in Lasix changes. Again, this is because some horses can improve with Lasix. In the thoroughbreds, they put Lasix and blinker changes in the program and past performances.

Over the last 10 years or so, it's become much more common to remove shoes on trotters, especially in stakes races. It can often make a huge difference. I would say that the only change I've ever seen that can improve a horse as sharply is a sulky change. For instance, back in 1976, the sport started to switch from the traditional wood sulkies to the "modified sulky." There were races where only one or two horses had the modified sulky and the other horses had the wood sulky. The horses with the new sulky had a tremendous and unfair advantage. On a one-mile track, the modified sulky was probably a good two seconds faster, although it depended on the horse. Some horses improved more than others.

It's the same with shoes off. It might not help every trotter, but some trotters improve by several lengths with the shoes off. In fact, many of the fastest trotting miles we've seen in recent years were accomplished with shoes off. And by the way, over the last 10 years or so, there have been many races where horses raced without shoes, at different racetracks, and it wasn't reported at all.

This is a problem. Even though this is the biggest equipment change in harness racing, much more significant, in my opinion, than adding hopples, or Lasix, it's not in the track program. In fact, many bettors have no idea about the shoes on/off. Some have never even heard of it. We have to be cognizant of the fact that most of the money is bet off track, either online or at simulcast centers. The only place you can find out which horses are removing or adding shoes is at the track, if you're alert and listening to the equipment changes, or looking at the TV monitors prior to the races. And, as I mentioned, there's no official record of it. As a professional handicapper, I like to have as much knowledge as possible available so I can do my best to analyze the races for the public.

I'm not the only person who's aware of how bad this is. Like most things in harness racing that never seem to get fixed, we've talked about this before. One of the excuses we hear is that some of the trainers don't like to decide on removing shoes until they "test" the track condition that day. The thing is, the trainers who do this, always seem to remove the shoes for the big races, so I'm not sure that's a good excuse. I don't have a problem with the trainers. If I trained trotters, I'd be inclined to do everything legally possible to get an advantage when the big money is on the line.

We shouldn't screw the betting public like this. I'll make my opinion on this clear: Either shoe changes have to be in the past performance program, or, all horses should race with shoes on. This isn't a grey area. It's bad. For some reason, once again, harness racing seems to forget that this is a pari-mutuel sport. Every day, millions of dollars are bet on harness races all over North America.

If there's an equipment change that can help a horse go several seconds faster, it has to be in the track program. Period. That's what the past performances are for: to provide the bettors with information so they can analyze the race. You can't leave out things that can make a horse go faster.

It kind of looks like most harness tracks don't care about the bettors. Who needs them? I don't get it. Things like this leave me scratching my head in disbelief. Again, this is not a grey area – it's bad for the bettors, and therefore it's bad for the sport.
