Countdown to liftoff for Redland Rocket Man

Off a season's best, Canadian-record 1:46.4 mile in the Simcoe on Saturday the son of Bulldog Hanover has been supplemented to the Little Brown Jug.

Until recently, Redland Rocket Man has flown slightly under the radar in the 3-year-old male pacing division. On Saturday (Sept. 12) night at Woodbine Mohawk Park, the John Pentland trainee guaranteed that he won't be overlooked again, despite never having been the betting favorite in 12 starts this year. Redland Rocket Man overtook Beau Jangles late in the mile and held off Sweet Lovin Lou to capture the Grade 2 Simcoe Stake in 1:46.4, the fastest mile by a 3-year-old ever on Canadian soil and the fastest win by a North American sophomore pacer this season.

On Monday (Sept. 14), Pentland told HRU he was still savoring the moment.

"I'll get another day or two out of this," he quipped while driving to Mohawk. "I have one of my grooms with me here, and neither one of us is shocked that he won it. We might have been surprised, had he won it cutting it out or coming first up, but my team and I all thought that when it's his turn to get that kind of a trip, we thought he could beat Beau [Jangles], because you can't race a ton of a lot better than our horse has been racing."

That's an understatement from Pentland, who shares ownership of Redland Rocket Man (p, 3, 1:46.4s; $377,020) with Murray Cox of Rockwood, ON and Gary Volpe of St. Thomas, ON. The first crop Bulldog Hanover gelding broke his maiden on July 8, 2025, winning in 1:53.2 in Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Grassroots leg 1 at Mohawk for driver Bob McClure. He lowered his freshman mark to 1:52 in his only other victory last year, an Aug. 5 event for OSS Grassroots starters, in which he won going away for Louis-Philippe Roy. Fourth in the Grade 1 Metro Pace and fifth in his OSS Gold Super Final, Redland Rocket Man was sent off at double-digit odds in races dominated by 2025 Somebeachsomewhere (O'Brien) and Dan Patch Horse of the Year Beau Jangles (p, 2, 1:48.3s; $1,489,486).

On April 11, Redland Rocket Man returned from a six-month hiatus to win his comeback qualifier at Mohawk for Roy. After another two qualifiers, his first start of the season came in a May 9 SBOA Stake division at Mohawk, in which he finished third to Borderline Mobby. Closing for fifth in his Grade 1 Pepsi North America Cup elimination, Redland Rocket Man ended up eighth behind Odds On Mr Mamba in the June 13 final. After wiring in 1:53.4 a June 22 qualifier, over a sloppy Campbellville track with a 2-second variant, Pentland's pacer launched an upward trajectory.

"I'm not complaining about any of [Redland Rocket Man's] trips, but he's done a lot of the legwork. They haven't been horrible trips, but he hasn't had that nice 2-hole trip and been able to pop out at the top of the stretch and get in a position like he did the other night [in the Simcoe]. So, when he did, I wasn't shocked [he won]."

Redland Rocket Man returned $78 to place on June 27, when Borderline Mobby edged him out by a nose in OSS Gold leg 2 in 1:48.2 at Mohawk. (Beau Jangles finished fifth as the 1-9 favorite.) On Aug. 3 at Grand River Raceway, Jody Jamieson took the lines in OSS Gold leg 3, and Redland Rocket Man successfully held off Borderline Mobby by a head in 1:48.2 – the fastest mile ever paced over a Canadian five-eighths-mile track. After an impressive off-the-pace effort in the Grade 2 Carl Milstein Memorial at Northfield Park, overcoming post 7 to finish second to Melillo, Redland Rocket Man set the pace in OSS Gold leg 3 at Mohawk, getting stung late by Beau Jangles in the 1:48.3 mile. He paced identical :25.3 opening and closing quarters as runner-up.

In winning the Simcoe Saturday night (Sept. 12), Redland Rocket Man went 1:46.4 and became the fastest-ever 3-year-old pacer on a Canadian racetrack.

"I'm not complaining about any of his trips, but he's done a lot of the legwork," Pentland said. "They haven't been horrible trips, but he hasn't had that nice 2-hole trip and been able to pop out at the top of the stretch and get in a position like he did the other night. So, when he did, I wasn't shocked."

Crediting Jamieson with "power-driving" Redland Rocket Man to the latest victory, the Dorchester, ON trainer said that his horse was "fresh now partly because of the way [Louis-Philippe Roy] drove him" in earlier starts.

Redland Rocket Man sold for $30,000 at the 2024 Harrisburg Sale.

"I picked him out and bought him as a yearling," Pentland said. "He's just a solid, good-looking horse. He was placed a little back in the sale [Hip #479], back further than I thought. I bought two [2024 yearlings] off that same guy. I bought a filly [Redland Sapphire] off him too, a real nice filly, but we could never get her to stop tying up... I think the pair of them just undersold."

Redland Sapphire (p, 3, 1:54.3h; $17,860) and Redland Rocket Man were bred by Redland Farms of Bible Hill, NS. Both are from the 54-horse first crop of Bulldog Hanover (p, 4, 1:45.4m; $2,419,000), sired during his Canadian and U.S. Horse of the Year season in 2022.

"I don't consider myself that much of a prognosticator, but [trainer] Jack Darling and I are really good friends, so I watched 'Bulldog' like I owned him," Pentland said. "At the end of his 3-year-old season, when he went to Indiana... He just started to get so good. The biggest mistake I ever made was, I was going to call Jack and try to buy a piece, but I went, 'Ah, he's not going to sell it, I'm not going to bother him.'"

The self-described "super-believer in Bulldog Hanover" was determined to purchase at least one of the stallion's first crop yearlings at Harrisburg.

"I'm getting to be more of an owner than a trainer," Pentland said with a laugh.

He now co-owns Sept. 12 Grade 3 Champlain Stakes winner Jersey Bulldog (p, 2, 1:51.1s; $147,418) with a group that includes Darling.

Redland Rocket Man was gelded at the end of his 2-year-old season due to “a minor bit of a weight issue” and being hot-tempered.

“At that point, he didn’t look like he had value as a stallion,” Pentland said. “And they’re happier when they’re gelded... I don’t have any regrets, but I hope by the end of next year that I do.”

Pentland confirmed that Redland Rocket Man would be supplemented to the Little Brown Jug for $45,000 (U.S.); he had not been sustained at age 3 because of a schedule conflict with a sires stake.

“I couldn’t have imagined a scenario that would’ve prompted me to go to the Jug,” he told HRU. “Obviously he’s in great shape and he loves to race... This guy here, you’re in a back-alley fight when you come first-up on him.”

Arnold Hagen watched Redland Rocket Man’s latest win from a few provinces away.

“It’s pretty neat to watch the little bugger, how he’s maturing and really coming into his own,” said the Bible Hill, NS breeder. “John [Pentland] has done a tremendous job with him. He’s not someone that pushes them real hard and he’s really patient with them.”

While Hagen is the president of Truro Raceway and owns a Truro, NS hardware business, he has roots in the province of Redland Rocket Man’s birth.

“I have been living in Truro for the last 21 years or so, but I’m born and raised in PEI, both my wife and I,” he said. “I saw the opportunity to buy this place [in Oyster Bed Bridge, PEI] eight years ago or so, [PEI Hall of Fame horseman Harold] ‘Clarkie’ Smith’s old place. Horses have been on this property for a long time.”

The owner/operator of Redland Farms grew up on a mixed farm and became interested in harness racing as a teenager, going to the races at Charlottetown and Summerside with his uncle. He later attended the Nova Scotia Agricultural College, a short distance from Truro Raceway, and got into buying horses with a friend. Today, Hagen has four broodmares and three foals at Winbak Farms’ Inglewood, ON location, plus 16 mares with foals at foot and 11 yearlings in PEI. He has consigned 11 yearlings to the Atlantic Classic Sale in Crapaud, PEI; four to the London Select Yearling Sale; and two to Harrisburg, including Redland Rocket Man’s full brother, Redlandshananagins. The latter “came out with muscles” at birth, recalled Hagen.

“He’s a good-sized lad,” he said. “Hopefully he garners a little bit of attention.”

Reflecting on Redland Rocket Man’s achievements, Hagen was humble about his role as the breeder.

“Genetics is very much a gamble, no matter what you’re doing,” he said, adding that he used Norman Hall’s Pedigree Matching system to help him select Bulldog Hanover as consort for Granny

Hanover. “I liked the way he lined up with ‘Granny.’ She’s probably the biggest, tallest mare I have... I thought I’d give [Bulldog Hanover] a shot for $5,000.”

Redlandshananagins is only the third foal and second colt out of Granny Hanover. The unraced Captaintreacherous mare lost her Bulldog Hanover filly this spring, which Hagen said he had hoped to retain, race, and breed. Granny Hanover was bred back to Bulldog Hanover again this year.

Family ties: Banitt-bred Slipped Onmybeans follows Fancy Little Girl's lead

by James Platz

In 2023, Scott and Becki Banitt campaigned 2-year-old pacing filly Apple Juice to Horse of the Year honors in the State of Minnesota. This season, they have another standout filly pacer that is building a case for end-of-season hardware. Homebred Slipped Onmybeans has not only won nine of 10 seasonal starts, but she also possesses the same family ties as Apple Juice.

Slipped Onmybeans is the first foal from Fancy Schmancy mare Fancy Little Girl, a lifetime winner of nearly $100,000 bred, raised, and campaigned for part of her career by the Banitts. Fancy Little Girl is the older sister of the aforementioned $230,000-plus winner Apple Juice, and the first foal from the ultra-productive Computer Art, who has six winners from seven of racing age.

Fancy Little Girl won at least one race in each of seven seasons of competition, going 9-21-22 in 142 career attempts. Dean Magee was in the bike for her debut in June 2015, finishing second. Eleven years later, he was again the driver of choice behind Slipped Onmybeans in her first pari-mutuel start earlier this season, and has served as her only pilot.

"She went [1]:56.2 and I remember him coming off the track," Scott said of the first trip with Fancy Little Girl. "He was shaking his head with that big smile. He goes, 'Wow.'"

The couple would eventually sell the mare, a product of their stallion, Fancy Schmancy, but reacquired her later to add to their small breeding operation.

"She was pretty special," Scott said. "She was a nice-looking horse. And that was our first foal out of our stud. So, we had an attachment. She tried every race. Even though she wasn't the best in there, she fought to the wire every time. She was just a durable, gritty old mare, the kind you'd like. She wasn't the fastest, but she tried hard. And she really passed that on to her offspring here now."

The Banitts say that one of the greatest attributes Fancy Little Girl has passed to Slipped Onmybeans — outside of nearly identical looks and slightly different coloring — is that of endurance.

"If she could go a mile and a half races, we'd go a mile and a half because she has the endurance," Scott said. "We're not saying she's the fastest, but she has that grit and determination that she can go forever."

Conditioned by Scott, Slipped Onmybeans has become another strong performer at Running Aces. Since her debut in mid-June, the filly from the first crop of Captainryanmichael has turned in a nearly-flawless campaign to date. In her nine seasonal wins, her margin of victory has been less than two lengths only twice. And in her lone defeat, the margin was a head. Slipped Onmybeans is currently riding a seven-race win streak, including a 1:54.1 mark taken in early August, made all the more impressive by the fact that she and Magee have been saddled with the outside post in six of those contests.

"If you win three or four Minnesota-bred restricted races, which she's in, they assign you the outside," Scott said. "We're racing her out of the 9-hole, so you basically have to leave to get anywhere. You can't get away last and plan to come. She hasn't shown her versatility. She's actually more handy in a hole. She loves it."

Slipped Onmybeans has already banked $71,950 for the breeders, considerably more than what they would have received had she sold at last fall's Heartland Standardbred Sale, held in Winona, MN.

"We had a reserve of $12,000 on her at the sale, and I think she got up to $9,500," he said. "My wife looked at me, and she goes, 'I'm going to no sale this.'"

The filly was in the sale because Scott, retired from UPS, is intent on maintaining a small stable and pursuing racing for enjoyment. He isn't keen on having a barn full of horses and the responsibilities that come with them, particularly when he embraces the role of grandparent in a growing family.

“We were going to sell [Slipped Onmybeans at the Heartland Standardbred Sale] for $12,000, but didn’t quite get to that. So, we kept her. In hindsight, I’m glad we did.”

— Scott Banitt

“I’m retired from UPS,” he said. “I had a 31-year career there, and we have six grandkids, with one on the way. They’re really getting active in sports and dance and school activities. I don’t want to make this a job. I want to make it a fun hobby.”

Keeping true to his word, Scott has all four yearlings in the Heartland Standardbred sale, slated for Sept. 22 at the Minnesota Equestrian Center. The consignment includes I Lost My Bananas, a full-sister to Apple Juice and Fancy Little Girl, Fancy Little Boy, a full-brother to Slipped Onmybeans, and Rightwhereushouldb, a first foal from Meechee, another sister to the above fillies.

“The reason I have everything in the sale this year is because I don’t want to make this my job, and I don’t want to hire people to help me, you know what I mean?” he said. “I like doing it myself, and I like sitting behind the horses. I just don’t want to make this my full-time gig anymore. I want to have fun at it, and I want to enjoy it, and enjoy every day of it.”

Slipped Onmybeans isn’t just delivering on the racetrack, she makes every day a joy with her presence in the barn. The conditioner said that, like her dam, the filly is super friendly and wants to be touched, petted, and hugged. On the track, however, she’s all business. And she’s separated herself from the rest in her division at Running Aces in what is shaping up to be a phenomenal freshman campaign. Saturday night (Sept. 19), Slipped Onmybeans will battle eight others in the $65,000 Championship for freshman pacing fillies, slated as Race 3. She has drawn post seven and is tabbed as the 3-5 morning line favorite.

“We were going to sell her for $12,000, but didn’t quite get to that,” he said. “So, we kept her. In hindsight, I’m glad we did.”

Ethan MacLean can stay pumped while remembering to stay calm

by Chris Lomon

Ethan MacLean could have been easily frustrated by how his day seemed to be playing out, but he opted for calm over agitated.

On June 14 at Inverness Raceway, his Jgsjumanji finished second as the 7-5 choice in the fourth dash, while stablemate J Gs Fireball suffered an equipment break. There was little time to dwell on either result, though.

The fifth race was next, and MacLean had a 5-year-old bay mare named Stay Pumped in to go.

"You learn pretty fast that you have to shrug things off – you really have no choice," MacLean said. "It can sting when things don't go as you hoped they would, but you need a short memory in this business. So, I moved on pretty fast."

His father Travis would be in the race bike for the $1,500-purse event.

"She came to me from [trainer] Michael Gillis," Ethan said. "I had finally got everything associated with my trainer's license sewn up in the spring, and I was excited to have her come in from Ontario. It took a while for her to adjust to the new track, but then she just clicked in."

Sent on her way as the 7-5 favorite, Stay Pumped, who was third at the quarter, had moved into second through the half and was 1½ lengths behind the leader through three-quarters in 1:29.4.

By the stretch call, the daughter of Stay Hungry was a quarter-length in front and full of pace.

At the wire, she was 3¼ lengths clear of her closest rival.

"It's hard to explain the feeling I had when she crossed the finish line," Ethan said. "It meant more that my dad was driving her, too. She did it pretty easily, so there wasn't a lot of drama at the end.

"Dad and I have watched the race a few times since that day, just throwing it on the television at home and reliving it. It was awesome."

Ethan hasn't missed a beat since that win.

His horses have hit the podium in over half of their starts, his UTRS is chugging along around .400 and he's winning at a 26 per cent clip.

"I didn't have too many high expectations for myself," he said. "I have been very lucky with the horses this first year. The goal was to just be consistent regardless of how many starters I had."

His path into harness racing was hardly unexpected.

Ethan has been around racetracks and barns since he was able to walk.

"I have been sitting in a jog cart since my feet could reach the stirrups – probably before that – and spent a lot of time around the horses," he said. "I knew early on in my life that I was going to be part of this harness racing business."

Two generations of his family have been involved in racing, and several relatives remain in the business.

"There is still family who are in it, like Wayne MacLean, who is training in Ontario, and then Paul MacLean, who drove at Sudbury Downs when that was still going," Ethan said. "Dion MacLean, my first cousin, was there at Sudbury, too."

"My dad worked with [trainer] Kevin McMaster. My grandfather was part of the racing scene across the Maritimes, racing in a lot of the big stakes races."

“A horse can read a person pretty good. If you are going out with a horse, whether you’re sitting behind them or walking with them, they feed off of that. You have to make sure the horse is happy and comfortable. Every time I take a horse to the track, I remember what my dad says, ‘Stay calm with them.’ That has been a quote for so many years.”

— Ethan MacLean

Advice has been plentiful from his racing relatives, all of it helpful in some fashion.

One lesson from Ethan’s father, in particular, continues to shape how he approaches his horses every morning.

“A horse can read a person pretty good,” Ethan said. “If you are going out with a horse, whether you’re sitting behind them or walking with them, they feed off of that. You have to make sure the horse is happy and comfortable. Every time I take a horse to the track, I remember what my dad says, ‘Stay calm with them.’ That has been a quote for so many years.”

A former standout athlete — he played AAA hockey and starred in track and field — Ethan has enjoyed the transition from being the one competing to being the one who conditions the athletes.

Finding the key to each horse is now his competition.

“I was always big into hockey and other sports, so I drifted away from racing for a little bit,” he said. “But I was always training down colts for my father. And to be back in it now, to work with the horses, and finding the keys to unlocking their potential... it’s a great feeling to work with them and bring out the best in them.”

“Nothing compares to the work you have to put into the horses. It’s demanding, but it is absolutely rewarding.”

Ethan, who has two broodmares, three racehorses, and a colt-in-training, is focused on building a steady operation through the rest of the year and into the future.

Some of his short-term goals are tied to his home track in Inverness.

Courtesy Ethan MacLean
Ethan MacLean today.

“I’d like to surpass the $15,000 mark in purse earnings there with a couple mares I’m training and a colt I have, who is on the way up, but ran into a few issues,” he said. “I’d like to be in the mix as one of the top trainers at Inverness.”

In the longer term, Ethan has his sights set west, specifically, testing the racing waters in Ontario at some point.

If it indeed becomes a reality, he might add a new element to his repertoire.

“I’d like to try things in Ontario and that’s where I’d like to start up the driving side of my career,” he said. “I just want to keep pushing things forward, but doing it at the right pace, where I am continuing to learn and expanding my knowledge.”

Ethan isn’t looking to rush what might be next for him.

And whenever the pressures inevitably come, he knows exactly how he will approach it.

“Like my dad always says, ‘Stay calm,’” Ethan said. “That is something that I think will stay with me for as long as I’m in racing.”

THE DOWN UNDER DIARY

with ADAM HAMILTON

Bob Butt looks for The Lazarus Effect to continue to rise on New Zealand Cup trail

by Adam Hamilton

Bob Butt has grown up with the aura of the New Zealand Cup. The fourth-generation Kiwi horseman is used to his world stopping on the second Tuesday of November for the biggest horse race of any code in New Zealand.

And now he's counting down the days until he has his own first starter as a trainer.

"I'd driven in it a few times, but having a runner myself will be something else," he said. "It's the race we all grow up with, especially when you're from a racing family like mine.

"I remember the buzz of driving in it the first time, but this will be next level."

The first of Butt's four New Zealand Cup drives came when seventh on Thefixer in 2020 and his best result was fourth aboard

Steel The Show the next year. He has since finished 11th on Heza Sport in 2022 and last on Dalton Shard in 2024.

But now he's letting himself dream about winning it with the best horse he has trained and one of the best he has driven, 5-year-old pacer The Lazarus Effect.

"It was actually [New Zealand] Cup Day two years ago when The Lazarus Effect won his second start in one of the support races that I first thought he could be a serious horse, but never did I imagine he'd be heading towards a Cup now," Butt said.

The Lazarus Effect has since stretched his record to 21 starts for 13 wins, six seconds, and a third and is a star on the rise.

With another rising star Got The Chocolates sidelined by injury, The Lazarus Effect and the Regan Todd-trained Marketplace are the two standout Kiwi pacers trying to arrest what's been an Aussie dominance of the New Zealand Cup in recent years.

Mighty New South Wales stayer Swayzee went back-to-back for trainer Jason Grimson in 2023 and '24 and last year it was an Aussie quinella with Kingman beating Leap To Fame.

At this stage, Swayzee, Kingman, and Leap To Fame are slated to return for this year's Cup on Nov. 10.

While many Kiwis are sick of the Aussie raiders winning so many of their big races, Butt sees it differently. Perhaps because he spent a few years in Australia as a junior driver working for former Kiwi trainer Brent Lilley in Victoria. He drove 108 winners in that time.

The Lazarus Effect (Bob Butt) winning the Group 3 Avon City Ford New Brighton Cup at Addington on Sept. 4.

“No, we want as many stars as possible in a race that’s so important to the sport as the [New Zealand] Cup,” he said. “I was really disappointed when I heard about the injury to Got The Chocolates. He’d have added so much to the race.

“Sure, it makes it harder for my horse, but I want to be part of races like that.

“I know how hard those big Aussies stars are going to be to beat but bring it on.

“I don’t know if he’ll be good enough, but he’s got fantastic high speed and great manners. He’ll give himself every chance to be right in the finish, especially if he draws well.”

The Lazarus Effect has won both lead-up runs this campaign and will have a short freshen-up before his next run in the Canterbury Classic at Addington on Oct. 16.

“Then he’ll either go to the Ashburton Flying Stakes [Oct. 26] or the Kaikoura Cup [Nov. 2],” Butt said. “I’ll decide which fits best closer to it.”

Kaikoura would set up a tantalizing clash with champion Australian mare Captains Mistress, who beat Leap To Fame in the Brisbane Inter Dominion final on July 18.

Although Captains Mistress is being set for Kaikoura, she won’t go to the New Zealand Cup because owner Mick Boots doesn’t believe a grueling 3,200-meter standing-start race is a good idea for the mare.

Butt said keeping his options open beyond the Canterbury Classic was in part due to The Lazarus Effect’s history.

“I’d driven in [the New Zealand Cup] a few times, but having a runner [The Lazarus Effect] myself will be something else. It’s the race we all grow up with, especially when you’re from a racing family like mine. I remember the buzz of driving in it the first time, but this will be next level.”

“It was actually [New Zealand] Cup Day two years ago when The Lazarus Effect won his second start in one of the support races that I first thought he could be a serious horse, but never did I imagine he’d be heading towards a Cup now.”

— Bob Butt

Remarkably, vets felt he may not have a racing future when an operation to address cartilage issues in his knees didn’t work as a 2-year-old.

“That’s the only reason he came to me,” Butt said. “Mark and Nathan [Purdon] had him and I know they had a big opinion of him, but he’s basically got no cartilage in his knees and the feeling was he wouldn’t make it as a racehorse.

“They gave me a crack because I train on the beach and have a pool and water walker.

“He’d only been here three or four months when he won his first start and then he won that race on New Zealand Cup Day two years ago which really made me think he was a good horse.”

They were his only two starts at 3, then The Lazarus Effect returned at 4 where he raced 11 times for six wins and four placings.

“The signs were promising so we gave him a go against the big boys, Got The Chocolates and Swayzee, earlier this year,” Butt said. “He won a sprint against them, but it was more his second in the 2,700-meter race [Messenger] to Got The Chocolates which showed he was up right to them.

“Got The Chocolates was too good, but we were still making ground on him at the finish.

“I couldn’t be happier with the way he’s come back this time, especially last Friday’s win when he was pulling away at the finish.”

Butt, 36, carries such a rich harness racing pedigree towards the Cup and has also learned his craft from stints with greats like Barry Purdon, Cran Dalgety, and Lilley.

He trains from the superb property at Woodend Beach, outside Christchurch, bought and developed 26 years ago by his parents, David and Catherine Butt. They trained over 800 winners between them.

Bob’s grandfather, Robin Butt, trained 285 winners and his great-grandfather, Wes, put the polish on almost 600 winners.

His other grandfather, Jack Litten, is a legendary name in New Zealand harness racing as the trainer/driver of the great Caduceus, who won 28 races, including the 1960 Inter Dominion, an Auckland Cup and three New Zealand free-for-alls.

“I’ve been lucky to have some fantastic support and learn from some great people,” Bob said.

Kentucky SIRE STAKES REPORT

Captain Arturovico, Unreasonable coast in Kentucky Sire Stakes

by Ray Cotoledo for The Red Mile

Captain Arturovico and Unreasonable both landed as odds-on favorites in their respective $35,000 third-preliminary divisions of Kentucky Sire Stakes at The Red Mile on Monday afternoon (Sept. 14).

Ron Burke trainee Captain Arturovico (driven by Dexter Dunn) launched off a pocket ride and romped to a 1:48.4 score in the Kentucky Sire Stakes division for 4-year-old pacing males. Dunn settled from the pylon spot into a seat behind Damn The Torpedoes (Tim Tetrick) approaching a :27.1 first quarter and stayed put through a :54.2 half. He then angled from the pocket rounding past three-quarters in 1:22.4 and zipped away from the competition to cross the beam a 6¼-length winner chased by Somelousomewhere (Todd McCarthy) in second. Damn The Torpedoes settled for third and Whelk Blue Chip (Josh Sutton) took fourth.

A 4-year-old gelding by Captaintreacherous—Tilikum, Captain Arturovico won his eighth race from 18 starts this season and his 20th race from 48 starts in his career, banking $604,319. He competes for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC, Weaver Bruscelli LLC, Larry Karr, and Phil Collura. Sent the 2-5 favorite, he paid $2.40 to win.

Unreasonable (McCarthy) capitalized from a major scratch in Three Times Bettor and went down the road in the Kentucky

Zephyr Kemp (Todd McCarthy) winning the $80,000 Kentucky Championship Series fourth preliminary for 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings on Sunday at The Red Mile.

Sire Stakes division for 4-year-old pacing mares in a 1:49 mile. McCarthy cut a clip of :28, :55.2, and 1:23.1 before fending off a bid from pocket-sitter Champagne Room (Tetrick) in the stretch to win by 1¼ lengths. Odds On Chesapeake (Scott Zeron) followed in third and Caviart Delight (David Miller) took fourth.

Andrew Harris trains Unreasonable, a 4-year-old mare by Huntsville—Roaring To Go, for owner Punisher 11 Stable LLC. The mare won her fifth race from 14 starts this season and her 16th race from 40 starts in her career, amassing $1,020,280, and paid $3.32 to win.

Trainer Carter Pinske registered a hat trick on the Monday card. His first win came in an $8,300 overnight pace when Beach Formal (McCarthy, 1:53 winning mile; $12.38 to win) converted a pocket trip to victory, and Pinske immediately returned to the winner's circle in the following race when taking the first Kentucky Wildcat Series division of the day for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings with Father Tom (Dunn, 1:55.2; $30.42). Pinske wrapped the hat trick by taking the opening dash of the Wildcat Series for freshman pacing males with Homeland (Zeron, 1:53.2; $10.86).

MISS JUM JABBER DELIVERS, ZEPHYR KEMP UPSETS IN KENTUCKY CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Odds-on favorite Miss Jum Jabber uncorked a wicked final quarter to cross the line first in her $80,000 fourth preliminary division of the Kentucky Championship Series while Zephyr Kemp landed a 53-1 shocker in the $80,000 fourth preliminary division of the Kentucky Championship Series on Sunday night (Sept. 13) at The Red Mile.

Miss Jum Jabber (driven by Andy McCarthy) lifted from a ground-saving trip with a :24.4 final quarter to collar her rivals by a half-length in a 1:51.1 mile to win the Kentucky Championship Series division for sophomore pacing fillies.

McCarthy settled the Brett Pelling pupil into third as Hope Hill (Dexter Dunn) took command from pylon-starter Bahama Momma (Joe Bongiorno) moving to the first quarter in :28.3. Hope Hill faced no challengers to a :57.3 walk of a half and gradually accelerated through the far turn as She's A Bulldog (Yannick Gingras) mounted a first-over bid. She's A Bulldog loomed closer to Hope Hill past three-quarters in 1:25.3 while Miss Jum Jabber rattled in tight quarters to find a seam to split through in the lane. McCarthy found clearance in the stretch and chugged past the dueling leaders late to slide over the top for the win. She's A Bulldog grabbed second with Hope Hill finishing third and Bahama Momma taking fourth.

A 3-year-old filly by Bettor's Wish—Treacherous Reign, Miss Jum Jabber has now won 12 races from 14 starts and banked $406,139 for owner Pelling Racing LLC. She paid $2.76 to win.

Zephyr Kemp (Todd McCarthy) foiled stablemate and odds-on favorite American Power (Dunn) in the Kentucky Championship Series division for trotting glamour boys and won as the third longest shot on the board in a 1:51.1 mile.

Todd McCarthy planted Zephyr Kemp towards the middle of the pack as Captain Naughty (Gingras) fired for the lead and soon relinquished control to Silverstein (David Miller) in the early part of a :27.4 shuffle to the opening quarter. It Could Be Worse (Tim Tetrick) followed suit up the rim and looped around Silverstein before American Power brushed to the front through a :55 half, at which point Todd McCarthy tipped Zephyr Kemp off the pylons to race uncovered into the far turn.

Zephyr Kemp progressed up the rim and reached American Power's wheel at three-quarters in 1:23.4 before pushing past the tiring leader in the stretch. Zephyr Kemp ground past his stubborn stablemate and kept a neck in front at the beam while American Power dug in to hold second. Silverstein swung off the pylons and rallied wide down the track for third with Inexpressable (Scott Zeron) closing from third-over for fourth.

Marcus Melander trains Zephyr Kemp, a 3-year-old colt by Calgary Games—Southwind Adele, for owners Kemppi Stables Oy Inc, Suojalampi Stable Inc, PCW Racing LLC, and Sjoebloom Racing Inc. The colt won his fourth race from 10 starts this season and his seventh race from 20 starts in his career, earning $248,550. He paid $108.58 to win.

Sunday's card also featured a $30,000 Kentucky Commonwealth Series division for 3-year-old pacing fillies and one for 3-year-old trotting males. Sunny Station (Todd McCarthy) kicked off a pocket trip to down pacesetter Interstellar (Marvin Luna) by a neck at the end of a 1:50.2 mile to win the dash for sophomore pacing fillies and Maga Hill (Gingras) skimmed the pylons to collar tempo-setter Midwind Chimp (Zeron) by a neck in a 1:54.2 mile to win the division for trotting colts and geldings.

Pelling trains Sunny Station, a filly by Perfect Sting—Sandy's Beach, for owner Deo Volente Farms LLC. She paid $6.38 to win.

Ron Burke conditions Maga Hill, a gelding by Muscle Hill—Goo Doo Doll, for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC, Zippett Racing Stable, Weaver Brussemi LLC, and Bill Elliott. He paid $54.78 to win.

Late in the card, Randy Jerrell pupil Deuce Pop (Todd McCarthy) recorded his seventh straight victory when taking the second of two $15,000 Kentucky Golden Rod Series divisions for 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings with a 1:54.1 effort. Jerrell co-owns the Tactical Landing—Atlantic Crest colt, who has won 13 races from 26 starts in his career and banked $148,745, with partners Atlantic Trot Inc and Steve Stewart. He paid $3.56 to win.

Big Boys Don't Cry (Tetrick, 1:54.3 winning mile; $10.14 to win) went pillar-to-post to win the other Golden Rod Series dash for trotting males. In the pair of Golden Rod Series events for sophomore pacing fillies, Need You Now (Dunn, 1:51.2; $3.82) vaulted from a second-over trip to win and She's A Rich Girl, a Captaintreacherous filly out of stakes winner My Little Dragon, led every step to take the other division.

Maine SIRE STAKES REPORT

Seven is heaven for No Small Wonder

by Chris Tully for Maine Sire Stakes

A pair of $17,000 divisions of freshmen female pacers splashed into Bangor Raceway on Sunday (Sept. 13) for the Maine Sire Stakes with the unbeaten rookie No Small Wonder increasing her winning streak to seven.

The pacing phenom was sent right to the top in the traditional manner by front-end favoring reinsman Kevin Switzer, Jr. Scoring from post 4 No Small Wonder hit the opening panel in a moderate :29.1 during the first, early $16,983 non-wagering event for Pine Tree State-bred 2-year-old pacing fillies.

The daughter of State Treasurer continued to show the way through middle splits of 1:00 and 1:29.3, while Bettor's Treasure (McGwire Sowers) kept a tight pocket. Down the backside the final time Feel The Fury (Aaron Hall) came first over to challenge the leaders, but eventually broke stride.

At the head of the stretch Switzer, Jr. gave the filly free reign and she scampered off to win by 2¼ lengths over the wet, but fast track in a new lifetime best 1:58.3.

Trained by Kevin Switzer, Sr. for owners KDK Standardbreds, Kathleen Mofield, and Anthony Sivik, Jr., she was bred by Luke and Patricia Varnum and has earned $57,248 in seven straight victories in as many career outings.

Bettor's Treasure finished second; Bad Bunny T (Nick Graffam) rallied for third.

In the second $16,983 division a series of give and takes resulted in Siri, the horse, getting her first lifetime victory, and a new time badge for her efforts.

Leaving from post 4 the daughter of State Treasurer grabbed the lead for regular driver Heath Campbell, hitting the opening panel in :28.4. While advancing to the 1:00.3 half Lillian G (Dakota Niles) took command by a head while Wine For The Lady was first over and charging hard for Aaron Hall.

Soon thereafter Lillian G jumped off-stride allowing Wine For The Lady to gain six lengths on the rest of the field as she hit the third station in a torturous 1:29.2. However, the filly that is no relation to Apple's digital assistant utilized the backstretch breather to swoop the pacesetter down the stretch and prevail by a half-length in 2:00.2.

Trained by Jimmy Nickerson for owners Tim Bojarski and Tony Gruppo, Siri has been second three times this season, often to divisional standout No Small Wonder. The Lynn-Marie Plouffe-bred filly finally got her moment to shine, posting a :29.4 final quarter to best Wine For The Lady. Her career earnings over seven starts now total $23,490.

Showfaith Showdown finished third.

Looking ahead, the Maine Sire Stakes concludes at Bangor with the 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings at historic Bass Park today (Sept. 16). Following that race the series transitions back to the Fairs with a week of action at Farmington starting with the 3-year-old filly pacers on Monday (Sept. 21).

TOP NOTCH TREASURE TAKES SWIFTEST MAINE SIRE STAKES

Three $17,000-plus divisions of freshmen male pacers rolled into Bangor Raceway Saturday (Sept. 12) for the Maine Sire Stakes with one previously unbeaten colt being tested and ultimately finishing second.

The swiftest $17,328 Pine Tree State-bred event took place before the regular card at historic Bass Park, and pitted the top point earner and heretofore undefeated colt The Gucci Man against standings runner up Top Notch Treasure.

When the wings folded veteran reinsman Bruce Ranger sent the inside positioned Top Notch Treasure right to the top in a swift :28.4 opening quarter, with The Gucci Man (Kevin Switzer, Jr.) forced into the pocket from post 6, while the pacesetter had already established a four-length lead.

The tempo was reduced to :59.2 as the field passed the midway marker. Shortly thereafter Switzer, Jr. took his shot with The Gucci Man, and while parked managed to get within a half-length of the leader as they hit the third station in 1:28.4. However, that attack was short-lived as Top Notch Treasure found another gear and sprinted home to win by three lengths in 1:57.4, just a fifth-of-a-second off the track record.

Trained by Christopher Dubois for owner Steve Moskowitz Racing, the son of State Treasurer is also Maine-bred on the dam's side. From the Western Maverick mare Pembroke Perfect, he was bred by Lynn-Marie Plouffe. Picking up his fifth win of the season, and a new lifetime mark, his earnings now exceed $44,000.

The Gucci Man finished second; Justcallmebuddy (Aaron Hall) was third.

In the other $17,153 early Maine Sire Stakes for male freshmen pacers, it was One Last Deal who made it two-in-a-row with a wire-to-wire romp from post 5.

Clearing handily from the outside and hitting the first panel in :30, the son of Dude's The Man was sent through middle splits of 1:01.2 and 1:29.3 by Andy Harrington, with no real pressure mounting. However, at the head of the stretch Duderrific (Dave Ingraham), who had been parked since the half, got to the pacesetter's saddle pad.

With pressure mounting Harrington let his charge have his head and the pair rolled home to score by 4¼ lengths in 1:59, a new lifetime best.

Owned, trained, and bred by Mark Tardif, it was the colt's second win of the season.

Stablemate Rustyonlytreasure (Aaron Hall) rallied for second; Duderrific faded to third.

In the final $17,329 rookie pace, which was held on the betting card, nothing was as it seemed.

When the wings folded 4-5 co-favorite Agent James Bond and Switzer, Jr. took the lead, however, something appeared amiss with the winless colt as he continued to throw steps in as he led the field to the opening panel in :31.

Poocham Luck (Dave Ingraham) sat a cautious pocket while the pacesetter took the pack down to the half in 1:01.3, prompting Mike Cushing to tip Two Bolts to the outside to engage the leaders. Joey Mosher picked up that cover with Harriman as they rolled through the third turn.

Down the backstretch into 1:32.2 third station Harriman tipped three wide to go around a rough gaited Agent James Bond while Two Bolts and Poocham Luck were forced to check their charges.

Harriman had swooped the traffic jam but around the turn, driver Joey Mosher lost his colt and went on an extended break. That allowed Agent James Bond to retake command at the head of the lane.

Despite his squirrely nature, Agent James Bond did cross the wire first, however, following a lengthy inquiry was taken down and placed last for interference.

Poocham Luck crossed the wire second and was thus declared the official winner in 2:03.1. Driven by "Double Digit" Dave Ingraham, the son of State Treasurer paid a whopping $42. Trained by Mike Graffam for owner/breeder G. Austin, it was his first lifetime victory in five outings.

The 4-5 co-favorite Harriman was third placed second.

Chris Tully named 2026 Tom White Media Award winner

The Little Brown Jug and the Delaware County Fair have selected veteran photographer, publicist, and lifelong standardbred advocate Chris Tully as the recipient of the 2026 Tom White Media Award.

Tully's roots in harness racing are deep and extensive. The son of Harness Racing Hall of Famer Phil Tully, Chris grew up immersed in the family's influential auction enterprises, Woodstock Stud and the Garden State Standardbred Sales Company. His early career included a landmark contribution to the industry: in 1988, working alongside the company's catalog research and typesetting team, he helped develop the first computerized pedigree production system, eliminating the need to manually rekeystroke documents to apply boldface type. The breakthrough became a model for modern catalog production.

Following the sale of the auction company in 1992, Chris remained hands-on in the sport as a trainer before pursuing higher education. In the mid-2000s, he enrolled at Sullivan County Community College and ultimately earned both a Bachelor's and Master's degree in Business Administration. During his graduate studies, he was hired as general manager of Goshen Historic Track, further expanding his leadership footprint within the industry.

Chris later launched his own sole proprietorship, Integrated Marketing Communications, widely known as ChrisTullyTrot.com. Through this venture, he has provided marketing and media services to dozens of standardbred organizations, specializing in website management, social media strategy, racing and stallion photography, graphic design, advertising production, and videography. His versatility and professionalism have made him one of the sport's most trusted creative partners.

In 2019, Chris played a pivotal role in establishing the official Little Brown Jug Facebook page. Built entirely from the ground up, the page has grown to more than 10,000 followers, becoming a central hub for fans worldwide. Over the past decade, his photography and social media recaps have become synonymous with the sport's biggest stages, including the Little Brown Jug, Hambletonian, and Breeders Crown.

Chris' connection to the Delaware County Fair predates his media work. As a driver, he captured the 1993 Billings Amateur Trot with Picasso Lauxmont, a moment he still describes as one of the greatest thrills of his life.

The Tom White Media Award honors individuals who elevate the visibility, understanding, and appreciation of the Little Brown Jug and the Delaware County Fair through outstanding media contributions.

Chris will be formally honored with the Tom White Media Award during a ceremony on Tuesday (Sept. 22), at the Delaware County Fair Log Cabin.

The award commemorates the legacy of Tom White, a celebrated Hall of Fame publicist and long-time Little Brown Jug media representative, who passed away in 2019.

Past Tom White Media Award winners include Paul Ramlow (2019), Brad Schmaltz (2021), Dean Hoffman (2022), Dave Briggs (2023), Brad Conrad (2024), and Nicole Kraft (2025).

Two-time Breeders Crown-placed Go Dog Go to resume training as a gelding

Acting on the advice of their medical team, the connections of Go Dog Go, two-time Breeders Crown placed and 2025 Stanley Dancer winner, made the decision to geld the 4-year-old trotter.

Go Dog Go was diagnosed with a painful condition of ascending testicles. Co-owner Jon Wiesman explained "essentially Go Dog Go felt like he was getting kicked in the groin every time he was in full stride."

Following the surgery on Sept. 9 and upon testing of the removed testicles, Dr. Hernandez-Aviles of the Texas A&M University Theriogenology Clinic Service confirmed that the condition made Go Dog Go genetically sterile.

While disappointed the 4-year-old son of Greenshoe, out of the Muscle Hill mare Primary Target, will not stand at stud, Wiesman and his connections are glad the surgery will improve Go Dog Go's quality of life.

Go Dog Go was third in both the 2024 and 2025 Breeders Crowns for trotting colts and won the 2025 Stanley Dancer. He's earned over $700,000, setting a lifetime mark of 1:49.3 in the Bluegrass.

Hambletonian runner-up hails from Ohio Selected Jug Yearling Sale

It's no secret that Ohio-bred horses are just as sought after as their East Coast counterparts, however, that fact was amplified on Hambletonian Day at The Meadowlands as Ohio-bred and -sold Big Ranger was a whisker away from winning the prestigious $1 million Grade 1 Hambletonian. With the Ohio Selected Jug Yearling Sale taking place this Friday (Sept. 18) at the Pickaway Ag Center, in Circleville, OH, many astute buyers will be looking for that next great standardbred racehorse.

Of course, the accomplishments Ohio's bred and sold did not end on Hambletonian Day, as the lucrative Ohio Scarlet and Gray finals at Scioto were led by Ohio Selected Jug Sale alumnus. In fact, six of the eight $300,000 Scarlet finals were captured by Ohio Select Sale graduates.

Not only does this include the aforementioned Big Ranger who returned to his Ohio roots and easily won his divisional championship at this year's home of the Breeders Crown, but also consists of many other Buckeye State products who went through the Circleville auction ring.

Blue Ranger, an In Range full-sister to Big Ranger, captured her 2-year-old filly trot championship. And, just like her big brother, she was bred and sold by Spring Haven Farm.

Tsunami Seas, who won his 3-year-old pacing colt final, was an $80,000 yearling purchase from Hickory Lane Farm, agent for breeders Country Club Acres and L & H Management Services.

Don't truck with me was the pride and joy of the Spurwood Farm consignment last year, selling for $37,000 for breeder Judy Roegner. The son of Catch The Fire and the winner of the 2-year-old colt pace final has earned well over 10 times that amount for his new connections.

Mooter Tooter, the fast filly with the fun name, provided a big upset in her 3-year-old filly trot final after being sold for just $28,000 from the Winterwood Consignment, agent for breeder Wayne Weaver.

Last, but certainly not least, is the freshman trotting colt champion Cool Julio who brought $52,000 for breeder/consignor Double Spring Farm.

As in years past, there are 280 yearlings cataloged, and the auction will get underway at 10 a.m. on Friday (Sept. 18) with a special Show Day on Thursday (Sept. 17). The catalog is jam packed with brothers and sisters to major stakes winners and world champions.

Once again, the sales company and breeders will provide complimentary food and refreshments from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. on Thursday, while prospective purchasers take a closer look at all the well-bred colts and fillies.

Overall, 29 sires are represented at the sale, including, Branded By Lindy (nine), Catch The Fire (nine), Downbytheseaside (29), In Range (18), Long Tom (19), Lou's Pearlman (25), Monte Miki (38), Pebble Beach (17), Ready For Moni (21), Slay (eight), Summa Cum Laude (19), Uncle Peter (10), and Volstead (17).

In addition, many of the yearlings offered are also eligible to the Buckeye Owner Bonus program.

Harrah's Philadelphia celebrates 20th anniversary on Saturday

Harrah's celebrated its 20th Anniversary of harness racing on the banks of the Delaware River in southeast Pennsylvania with a special Saturday night (Sept. 12) card, 20 years to the week of its first-ever program and 58 years to the week of the inaugural staging of the Colonial Trot at Liberty Bell Park on the northeast side of Philadelphia. (That first edition of the stake for 3-year-olds was won by Nevele Pride on the evening after the day card at Freehold yielded the sport's first millionaire, Cardigan Bay, both of course handled by the immortal Stanley Dancer).

The Colonial, which has had several homes since its last racing at Liberty Bell in 1985 (Piggvar winning and setting the track record), including here, was thought to be an appropriate way to mark the historic occasion at Harrah's, and the revival race was won in emphatic fashion by the Captain Corey colt Jim Beam, a heavy favorite who trotted to an easy 1:53.2 victory.

Jim Marohn, Jr. got the call behind the winner of $212,812 from trainer Scott DiDomenico, and after a bit of wide racing to get the lead in a :27.4 opener, Jim Beam had things smooth on the front end with mid-splits of :56.2 and 1:25.2. Marohn got a :28 last quarter out of the classy colt, who came back in six days after winning his Pennsylvania Sire Stakes consolation this past Sunday for owner Allen Wenc, and his margin over second-place Captain Vodka (a Jim Beam-"Vodka" exacta) was 1½ lengths at the last call.

There was also a revival of the filly companion event, which has had several names in its history and is now billed the Colonial Oaks, raced in two $30,000 divisions, both of which went faster than the previous stakes mark of 1:53.

In the quicker, Pennsylvania Sire Stakes champion Little Road came right back six days after winning her crown and triumphed as she pleased, going fractions of :27.3, :56.2, and 1:24.1 before finishing 5½ lengths clear in 1:52.1 under the direction of Brady Brown. The heavily-favored daughter of Fordham Road was bred and is owned and trained by 80 years young Roger Hammer, who trained and drove 1995 Colonial divisional winner Keystone Galactic (at Foxboro), and she now has a lifetime bankroll of $348,263.

Trainer/driver Trond Smedshammer, who likewise has a Colonial connection as the conditioner of 2007 divisional winner Primary As here at Harrah's, also won handily with the favorite in the second Oaks section, as My Philomene is now three-for-four since moving to his barn after a 1:52.4 victory. Smedshammer had the Chapter Seven filly on the point early and put down opening numbers of :27.3 and :57.1, then tacked on matching :27.4 quarters coming home to win by 3¾ lengths for Melady Enterprises LLC.

While the big trots fell in the groove of usual mutuel payoffs, the $50,000 #Senditin invitational pace continued a recent bizarre pattern – exemplified by the seven $50+ horses in the last four cards at a track with about a 50-50 favorite average – when Christopher Dance N upset the field at 13-1 in a wild and woolly 1:48.2 race.

Favored World Of Wishes (who suffered broken equipment), Christopher Dance N, and world champion Ruthless Hanover inside-to-outside got locked in a three-across :25.4 first quarter donnybrook, with the middle horse finally clearing under the line the first time and keeping "Ruthless" hung almost all the way to a withering :52.4 half. The new leader had to keep rolling as first-over Voukefalas, the second choice, moved up to the 1:20.1 three quarters. That kind of speed took its toll, but least on the winner, a son of Sweet Lou who came up the inside and prevailed for driver Mark Herschberger, trainer Enrico Robinson, and Pollack Racing LLC, holding off a parked-the-mile, closing 28-1 Bourbon County (the top part of the third Superfecta carryover-causing race of the night, all paces) by a half-length.

Notable horsemen on the night were Simon Allard, who led drivers with three wins; driving doublers were Corey Callahan, Mark Herschberger, and Jack Pelling. Allard and Herschberger drove the winners of the only trainer who doubled on the night, Enrico Robinson. And we must mention trainer Ron Coyne, Jr., who won a race Saturday with Benhope Rulz N – and who also won the very first race ever held at Harrah's, with Silver Flash, one of many replays of notable stars (Wiggle It Jiggleit, Market Share – the list is very long) and events over the last 20 years shown throughout the evening.

Harrah's will be back in action on "Trottin' Thursday" (Sept. 17) at 12:25. Free Philly program pages are or will be available at www.phha.org.

Galante A rockets home in Big M feature

The trip was anything but smooth, but leading driver Brett Beckwith found the right path to guide Galante A to victory lane Saturday night (Sept. 12) at The Meadowlands in the featured mid-level conditioned pace.

"He shouldn't have been 12-1 as he always gives a good effort," said Beckwith. "I really like him. He tries."

Buried along the inside down the backside, Galante A advanced steadily along the rail to the half but still found himself in the 4-hole at the five-eighths. Heading onto the far turn, Beckwith found a seam and moved Galante A into a fourth-over flow before quickly shifting to the center of the track. From there, the Shaun Vallee trainee exploded home to catch the game leader, Xpert, and go on to a three-quarter-length win in 1:50.3. Xpert was second with Master Charles A third.

"You have to stay after him," said Beckwith of Galante A. "Shaun's a really good trainer. Obviously, the trip was a little more cautious but there was a lot going on. He usually gives you a pretty good kick home."

An 11-year-old gelded son of Art Major—Escovedo, Galante A has won seven times in 2026 from 28 starts. Lifetime, he's won 30 of 183 outings and banked $314,126 for owners Vallee and John Moderack.

Sent to the gate as the eighth choice in the field of 10, Galante A returned $27.20 to his backers.

A LITTLE MORE: Dale Yeah took the high-end conditioned pace in a lifetime-best 1:49 for trainer Kirsten Proctor and driver Vinny Ginsburg. The 5-year-old gelded son of Tellitlikeitis—Mystical Victress returned $5.20 as the 8-5 second choice... Beckwith finished the night with five winners to lead the driver colony while Vallee's three-bagger topped the trainers... All-source handle on the 15-race program totaled $2,334,139... Harness racing now takes a four-week break and will return on Oct. 17... Thoroughbred turf racing comes to The Big M for the next four weeks, with live action on Friday and Saturday evenings with a post time of 7 p.m.
