Record-breaking Wrong Sounds Right magnificent in Mohawk Million

by Chris Lomon / Woodbine Mohawk Park

Wrong Sounds Right, with Todd McCarthy driving, set the stakes and track record, and equaled the world record in the Grade 1 Mohawk Million, Saturday night (Sept. 26) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The seventh renewal of the marquee race once again put the spotlight on a standout crop of 2-year-old trotters, with the Million living up to its billing as one of the year's must-see showcases.

Access Now roared to the lead from the outside post 10, while Wrong Sounds Right also got away sharply, settling into second, followed by Seven Pledges and Nevis Peak, who was carried wide into the first turn and marched onward through a lively opening quarter in :26.3.

Nevis Peak found the front and took his rivals through a half in :55.2, with Access Now sitting second and Wrong Sounds Right, the 2-5 choice, waiting for his cue from McCarthy, while Seven Pledges watched the proceedings from fourth.

Soon after the half, Wrong Sounds Right was on the move, going first-up, looking every bit confident and comfortable as he set his sights on the leader.

The son of Tactical Landing out of the Broadway Hall mare Broadway Jo Ell then took center stage, gliding effortlessly to the lead shortly after three-quarters in 1:23.4.

In full control in the upper stretch, Wrong Sounds Right continued to trot with authority down the lane, while a game Access Now looked to collar the heavy favorite but to no avail.

At the wire, Wrong Sounds Right, trained by Jim Campbell, was a three-length winner.

Access Now held on for second, D A Johnny Cash was third, and Nevis Peak finished fourth.

The final time was a blistering 1:51.1. The previous stakes record for the Mohawk Million was 1:51.4, set by Apex in last year's event.

"I loved him straight away," said McCarthy. "He's just been such a gentleman and a professional from the get-go, and he's always just showed so much stamina and speed, and they're pretty special these ones when you get to come across him.

"He's just smart. You know, he'll sit on a helmet, or you can move him, do what you want. And he's all class. He just does whatever you ask him. He's a pleasure to drive."

It was the first Mohawk Million win for McCarthy.

"This is such a prestigious race to win," he said. "Any race you're going for a million dollars, it's pretty amazing to get involved."

Bred and owned by Scott Farber's Runthetable Stables, Wrong Sounds Right entered the Million courtesy of the slot originally held by Courant Inc.

"He was no drama training down, and I got to give kudos to my assistant Manny Quevedo," said trainer Jim Campbell. "He worked with the colt all winter. He just wasn't able to make it up here tonight, but Manny did a terrific job with the horse and everything that he does. You know, it's a team effort, but kudos to Manny. He told Scott a few months ago, 'I think he got a good one here.'

"As long as everything's good, he comes out of it good, a Breeders Crown elimination will be his next start."

In his start prior to the Million, Wrong Sounds Right stopped the teletimer in a then career-best 1:51.4 in the New Jersey Classic on Sept. 11.

With tonight's win, the bay colt is now 5-1-0 from seven starts.

"The thing that I'm most proud of, to be honest with you, is two weeks ago I shot my mouth off a little bit after the New Jersey Classic, and I said that this is the best 2-year-old in America," said Farber. "I realized that we're going to have to go down and face a pretty good one in the Breeders Crown, but I'm telling you right now, I'm going to stand by it. To me, this is the best 2-year-old in America, and I guess it all comes down to the Breeders Crown, like they say.

"It's an honor to be here, and I thank the country of Canada for having us."

Wrong Sounds Right paid $2.80 for the win.

Claus Andersen

Todd McCarthy drove Wrong Sounds Right to a 1:51.1 track and stakes record that also equalled the world record.

Eastie Boy (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) winning the $1 million Grade 1 Metro Pace on Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Eastie Boy a beast in $1 million Metro Pace

by Chris Lomon / Woodbine Mohawk Park

Eastie Boy stayed strong down the lane to take all the spoils in the $1 million Grade 1 Metro Pace, Saturday night (Sept. 26) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

With the scratch of unbeaten Shalom Hanover, the door was open for nine other rookies to step up and seize the moment in the preeminent classic for 2-year-old pacers.

It was Eastie Boy, full brother to two-time Dan Patch Award winner Louprint, who shone brightest.

Th Theo stormed off the gate and settled on top shortly after the starter car pulled away, as Eastie Boy, the 3-5 mutuel choice, chased the early pacesetter into the first turn, and then took command strides ahead of the opening quarter in :27.1.

Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. slowed the tempo along the backstretch, while Th Theo, Cattletracks, and Rose Run Cowboy kept tabs on the leader through a half in :55.4.

Eastie Boy, fresh off his sharp Metro Pace elimination score one week earlier, was still calling the shots through three-quarters in 1:22.4 but found himself the target of rivals on both sides, including an outside bid from Global Choice.

Th Theo endeavored to reel in the leader in mid-stretch, but Eastie Boy, under urging from Wrenn, Jr., was able to find enough to fend off his foe, going on to secure a three-quarter-length win in a career-best 1:49.2. Th Theo was second, Global Choice was third, and Rose Run Cowboy finished fourth.

"The colt was awesome tonight," said Wrenn, Jr., who earned his first Metro Pace trophy. "Proud of him. He raced great. I was confident I had a lot of go, but it seemed like Dougie [McNair, driving Th Theo] had a lot of go too, so I wasn't sure until I got near the wire. But this colt's been racing great all year, and he's peaking at the right time."

A son of Sweet Lou out of the Rockin Image mare Rockin Racer, Eastie Boy is trained by Ron Burke for owners/breeders Burke Racing Stable LLC, Weaver Bruscelli LLC, and Phillip Collura.

"It means the world to us," said Burke, who also celebrated his first Metro Pace triumph. "Sweet Lou has been the reason we became breeders. We wanted to support him, and it turned out to be the best thing we ever did because he has supported us all the way. So, you know, with it being Sweet Lou, it's always means way more to me than any of the other horses."

Eastie Boy, who took the Tyler B Stakes at The Meadows on Aug. 21, now has a Metro Pace title to add to his list of accomplishments.

"It's unbelievable to have Louprint's brother do it," said Collura. "He's just been super. He raced great, and like Ronnie said, we didn't think he was as good as Louprint, but he's been getting better and better as we're going along."

With the victory, Eastie Boy is now 4-2-1 from nine starts.

He paid $3.20 for the win.

Nix Nacken foils Apex in Canadian Trotting Classic

by Ray Coto for Woodbine communications

Nix Nacken overpowered his stablemate, Hambletonian champion Apex, in the closing strides of a 1:51.1 mile to snatch victory in the $590,000 Grade 1 Canadian Trotting Classic final, for trotting sophomores, on Saturday night (Sept. 26) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Magic Punk pushed up the rim to take the lead from Strobe Lite to a :27 first quarter while driver Scott Zeron settled Apex into fourth out of post 3. Apex bided his time entering the backstretch before committing to loop for the lead, and once he grabbed command past a :55.3 half Nix Nacken tipped off the pylons from sixth and charged uncovered towards the front. Nix Nacken reached Apex's neck to three-quarters in 1:23.3 but struggled to pass that rival as he held his ground for home. Apex held sway until Nix Nacken overhauled him in the final sixteenth to slide home a half-length winner.

Watch the race replay here.

Strobe Lite swung off a pylon trip to take third and Magic Punk gave pursuit in fourth.

"He's avoided the front the majority of his year, and unfortunately, he's been first up a lot, so he's really, really good at it at this point," said Zeron, who won his first Canadian Trotting Classic. "But that was a really Herculean effort he put forth. About 50 feet before the wire, I was like, 'I think I'm going to get him' because before that, it was a tough battle in the turn to even make up the ground I did, coming first up from sixth back there. So, it was just an amazing effort by my horse."

Marcus Melander, winning for the second time in the Canadian Trotting Classic after taking the 2019 edition with Green Manalishi S, trains Nix Nacken for owner Courant Inc. The Muscle Hill—Nixie Volo gelding, bred by Kentuckiana Farms LLC and Eddie Gran sold as Training Camp at the 2024 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale for $260,000.

In scoring his first graded stakes win of the year, Nix Nacken collected his fourth win from 14 starts this season and his seventh victory from 25 starts in his career, earning $905,896.

“He’s always been a nice horse, but he got his manners,” Melander said, “and that’s why he’s a gelding, obviously. And you know, when he wakes up on the right side, he definitely has the speed and strength to go with these ones. So yeah, it’s a nice, nice horse.”

“It’s mixed feelings [training both Nix Nacken and runner-up Apex]. You know what I mean? Like Apex is 3-5 out there. He’s obviously been the better horse, and is probably the better horse. But he got beat fair and square today. Hopefully, he can bounce back next week in the Kentucky Futurity.”

Nix Nacken, who is also bound for the Kentucky Futurity at The Red Mile on Saturday (Oct. 3), paid $26.20 to win.

Nuance prevails in Elegantimage stakes record

by Ray Cotoledo for Woodbine communications

Odds-on favorite Nuance sprung to the lead from fast fractions and past weary rivals to skip away to a stakes-record 1:51.1 victory in the $400,000 Grade I Elegantimage final, for 3-year-old trotting fillies, on Saturday night (Sept. 26) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Storybook Love and Cher Hill dashed from wide draws for the front to a :26.3 first quarter while James MacDonald landed into seventh with Nuance. A shuffle for the lead ensued to a :54.4 half once Kngtstlkr Games pounced out of fourth with Leading Lady in tow while Sharp Seven and Nuance also tipped outside but advanced steadily up the rim to the last turn.

Leading Lady brushed by Kngtstlkr Games and stretched her rivals to three-quarters in 1:22, putting Nuance uncovered with Sharp Seven ducking to the pylons. Kngtstlkr Games jumped off-stride spinning for home while Leading Lady reached desperately for the finish with the backfield swarming forward late. Nuance and Busy Miss Lissy S, who was parked the mile out of post 10, soared down the center of the track approaching the final eighth, but Busy Miss Lissy S slipped into a gallop. Leading Lady gave way once Nuance motored up and by while kicking clear for a 2½-length win going away with Storybook Love rallying from a ground-saving trip to snag second.

Watch the race replay here.

Sharp Seven settled for third Upto Laura Hanover closed from last for fourth.

"It was just one of those races where I had to leave a bit to get away bad," said MacDonald, who won for the first time in the Elegantimage. "It was all the speed was on the outside. I thought they would mix it up early, and I just wanted to get in the flow, but I got away a little worse than I'd hoped. I knew I had a good horse, and they were speeding up front, so I was just hoping we had enough late kick to get there. Initially Dex[ter Dunn] his horse [Busy Miss Lissy S] were going by, and then she just got a little rough. So, I was driving to be second, and then sometimes you're in the right spot at the right time. Tonight, was our night, and we got lucky."

Marcus Melander, also winning for the first time in the Elegantimage, trains Nuance for owner Courant Inc. The filly by Greenshoe–Hillarmbro collected her third win from 11 starts this season after going winless in her first eight tries and also scored her fifth victory from 21 starts in her career, amassing $404,668 in earnings. Her 1:51.1 victory, a lifetime best, also bested the previous stake record of 1:51.3 set in 2023 by Bond.

"She's been a big filly and we're taking our time with her," assistant trainer Mattias Melander said after the race. "She's been a little immature. But, you know, I didn't do a great job with her in the beginning of the year, so we had to do some changes, and now she's blooming out. We had to change some rigging on her and whenever we did that, that's when she started going good again."

The Hanover Shoe Farms-bred Nuance, who sold under the name Hot Shot Hanover at the 2025 Standardbred Horse Sale for $310,000, returned $3.70 to win.

Jersey Bulldog brave in gutsy 'Great Lady' victory

by Ray Cotolo for Woodbine communications

Jersey Bulldog never saw a pylon and never relented in a hearty 1:49.4 score to snag the $510,000 Grade 1 She's A Great Lady final, for 2-year-old pacing fillies, on Saturday night (Sept. 26) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Driver Bob McClure hustled Jersey Bulldog towards the fore out of post 9 but stalled briefly and rolled three wide through the first turn before taking back off an early battle between Money Carlo and Qued Up to a :27 first quarter. Qued Up inched past Money Carlo on the backstretch as Twin B Mayreau gathered momentum out of third to rush up and take control just before a :54.2 half. Jersey Bulldog marched uncovered through the last turn and steadily gained on Twin B Mayreau to three-quarters in 1:22.3 before hitting her best stride in the stretch. While Twin B Mayreau extended stubbornly for the line, Jersey Bulldog clawed to the lead and downed Twin B Mayreau at the beam by a half-length to seize the win.

Watch the race replay here.

Waves Of Fortune, the 4-5 favorite, kicked from a second-over trip for third and Money Carlo took fourth.

"I really thought she was as good as anything in there," said McClure, winning for the second time in the She's A Great Lady after taking the 2022 edition with Sylvia Hanover. "So, I pressed the pedal down leaving and she was actually going right to the front. She was crossing over, and she just must have touched herself somewhere and put a bad step in. After that, 11 horses, horses are getting parked... I could have got her in, but we'd have been out right away again. So, I decided to just put the bit in her mouth and let her ride. When I called on her down the lane, she gave me everything she had. I'm very proud of her."

Seventy-two hours after winning the Little Brown Jug with Redland Rocket Man, trainer John Pentland won the She's A Great Lady with Jersey Bulldog.

A filly by Bulldog Hanover—Gallie Beach, Jersey Bulldog won for the fifth time from 10 starts and has now banked $451,720 for owners John Pentland, Sherri Sumner, Jack Darling Stables Ltd, and Alan Alber. Pentland, who celebrated another Grade I victory earlier in the week when Redland Rocket Man won the Little Brown Jug, trains the filly and won the She's A Great Lady for the first time.

"I'm beside myself, man," Pentland said. "When she looked like she was going to clear and everyone shut her out, and for her to lay out there, parked like that, and win this race in [1]:49... I've had a good horse lately, and he's gone some big trips, but I don't know if that guy's gone as big a trip as this girl just did.

"I couldn't believe [at] the tote board there, like we still had a chance to win this. I never made a noise. My crew and I were standing there watching the race. You couldn't hear us at all, and we were just kind of like, are you going to hang on, honey? Are you going to get us paid at all? And then she won the race. This is one of the most outstanding efforts I've ever seen in a horse. Period."

Bred by Mark Mullen and Stephen Dey III, Jersey Bulldog sold at the 2025 Standardbred Horse Sale for $40,000.

Sent off as the second choice in the She's A Great Lady, Jersey Bulldog paid $11.30 to win.

On To Norway defends home turf in Caesars Trotting Classic

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

In Harrah's Hoosier Park's signature trotting event, the $200,000 Grade 2 Caesars Trotting Classic presented by Kountry Lane Standardbreds, On To Norway refused to be denied on his home track, going first-over en route to a 1:51.2 victory with John De Long in the sulky for Ron Burke on Friday (Sept. 25).

Sent off as the 9-5 second choice from post 3, On To Norway floated off the wings into fourth early in the mile while Antognoni S (Yannick Gingras) crossed over in front of Ponda Jet (Kyle Wilfong) to command the field of eight at the quarter in :26.4. French Wine (Jason Bartlett) tipped from third on the backstretch, brushing to the lead to take control ahead of the midway point trotted in :55. Moving onto the final turn, On To Norway made his move to the outside, trotting first-over into third while French Wine remained on top to three-quarters in 1:23.2.

Ken Hanover (4, Tim Tetrick) winning the $175,000 Grade 2 Hoosier Park Pacing Derby.

On To Norway dialed up the pressure spinning into the lane, charging alongside French Wine while Antognoni S split those rivals from the pocket to make it a three-across battle. Continuing to pick up steam in the lane, On To Norway trotted home in :27.3 to clear those foes in deep stretch, trotting to the wire clear by 1¼ lengths in 1:51.2. Gimpanzee Dancer (David Miller) staged a late rally up the cones to get up for second at 95-1, with French Wine edging out Antognoni S for the show spot.

On To Norway has won 10 of 12 on the year, banking $586,750 on the season for owners Burke Racing Stable, Frank Baldachino, Black And White Stable, and Michael Rosenthal. Bred by Bennett Farms Inc of MI, the 4-year-old Muscle Massive—One Class Act gelding has won 37 of 45 lifetime, banking $1,247,131 in his career. Co-owner Frank Baldachino noted in the winner's circle after that On To Norway would be pointed towards the Indiana Sire Stakes final on Friday (Oct. 9) before being pointed to the Breeders Crown at Scioto Downs for his next assignments.

In the co-feature of the evening immediately following the Caesars Trotting Classic, Ken Hanover utilized an aggressive steer by Tim Tetrick to score the victory as the 1-2 favorite in the $175,000 Grade 2 Hoosier Park Pacing Derby.

Ken Hanover left from post 4, unable to find a seat on the first turn as Clever Cody (Luke Ebersole) rocketed off the gate to cross over before Dandy Ideal (Bartlett) was out from behind him to grab a narrow lead on the outside through a :26.1 first quarter. Dandy Ideal cleared giving open road to Ken Hanover who followed that move before crossing over to the cones on the lead through a hot opening half of :53.3. Ken Hanover remained on the throttle on the far turn, leading to three-quarters in 1:21.1 with Dandy Ideal in the pocket and Swingtown (Gingras) beginning to advance first-over from fourth.

Ken Hanover braced for the challenge of Dandy Ideal at the head of the lane, turning away that foe before Swingtown dove

That makes two consecutive stakes victories for Ken Hanover who arrived fresh off his win in the Jim Ewart Memorial at Scioto in his last for trainer Roland Mallar. The 6-year-old stallion son of Captaintreacherous—KJ's Justine has won four of 11 on the year, and 25 times overall for his career. Spender settled for second as Bravo Alpha (Trace Tetrick) scored third.

Owned by Kemppi Stables Oy Inc, Suojalampi Stable Inc, Pcw Racing LLC, Sjoebloom Racing Inc, Zephyr Kemp claimed his fifth win of the year increasing his lifetime earnings to $318,050.

CLIMATIC HANOVER SCORES BIG IN RECORD TIME IN THE KENTUCKIANA STALLION MANAGEMENT

Shocking the field, Climatic Hanover, driven by Gingras for trainer Lucas Wallin, stole the show in the $285,000 Kentuckiana Stallion Management to set a track record for 2-year-old trotting fillies.

Climatic Hanover found the rail quickly out of the wings in post 3; meanwhile, Redice (Atlee Bender) took control through the first turn in :27.1 and continued to show the way through the halfway pole in :56. With Redice beginning to drift off the cones on the front, Climatic Hanover caused chaos on the stretch blazing to the wire along the cones in 1:52.2 by $2\frac{3}{4}$ lengths. City Of Light (Zeron) followed in second with Blue Ranger (Dexter Dunn) landing in third.

Setting a new track record for 2-year-old filly trotters in 1:52.2, Climatic Hanover raised her lifetime earnings to $153,333 and is owned by K Anderson Racing stable. Climatic Hanover paid $59 to win.

The previous Track Record was 1:52.4, established by Nezuko Kamado S in the same event in 2025.

SWEET LOVIN LOU CRUISED TO VICTORY IN THE JENNA'S BEACH BOY

Routing the eight-horse field, Sweet Lovin Lou driven by Zeron for trainer Daniel Lagace was all business to win the $100,000 Jenna's Beach Boy for 3-year-old colt pacers.

Sweet Lovin Lou paced out of the gate in fourth while Dancingdreamer (Dunn) rode the turn in :26.1. Sweet Lovin Lou would dominate the rest of the way as he accelerated on the backstretch to the half in :54.1 and led the field through the three-quarter turn in 1:22. Sweet Lovin Lou continued his dominance in the stretch winning by two lengths geared down late in 1:48.3. Prolific Blend (Austin Hanners) got up for second, while Dancingdreamer rounded out the trifecta.

The Sweet Lou colt is owned by Lagace Stables, Edwin Buhler, Big Als Stables, and Brittany Farms Micki Rae. Sweet Lovin Lou deposited into his lifetime total of $562,967 for his third win of 2026.

OWLEO'S PRIDE A DOMINANT WINNER IN THE KENTUCKIANA STALLION MANAGEMENT

Owleo's Pride left no doubt about it as the 3-5 favorite in the $200,000 Kentuckiana Stallion Management for two-year-old filly pacers, cruising by nine lengths with Trace Tetrick in the bike for trainer Ricky Macomber, Jr.

Protecting her inside position, Owleo's Pride got away third in line on the opening turn while Fauvette Hanover (Zeron) crossed over from the far outside to cut the opening quarter in :26.1. Amazing Tammy (Tim Tetrick) moved to the lead briefly on the backstretch, before immediately being covered up by Owleo's Pride who charged to the lead before the half in :55.2. Beginning to separate on the turn, Owleo's Pride reached three-quarters in 1:23 before pacing away from a scattered field of fillies on her way to win in 1:51.1. Mystical JK (Wilfong) was second, with Fauvette Hanover third.

There was a spill in the backfield with Iwillalwayslouveu (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) going down around the final turn. The filly left the track under her own power with driver Wrenn, Jr. remaining on his drives for the remainder of the card.

Owleo's Pride is a James Stonecipher homebred daughter of JK Endofanera—Mcflirty. The filly has won three of seven on the year, banking $146,280 for Stonecipher and co-owners Ricky and Jamie Macomber.

SOMEMORE BLUE RETAINS THE ADVANTAGE IN CARL BECKER MEMORIAL

Having now gotten the better of arch-rival Whoomp in their last three meetings, Somemore Blue remained red-hot as she took the $75,000 Carl Becker Memorial for Indiana Sired sophomore pacing fillies with Marcus Miller in the sulky for his father Erv.

Leaving from post 5 as the 1-2 favorite, Somemore Blue was seated in the pocket early with Whoomp (De Long) intent on the lead from her rail starting spot to a first quarter in :26.2. The two star fillies were shown respect in the middle stages, with Whoomp remaining in charge through fractions of :55.1 and 1:23.4. Somemore Blue tipped from the pocket at the head of the lane, with the rivalry renewing once more as the sprint for home began. Somemore Blue moved alongside Whoomp, with Whoomp briefly bobbling to her inside allowing Somemore Blue to rocket past with a :26 final fraction to win by 1¾ lengths in 1:50. Whoomp was second, with It's My Story (Wrenn, Jr.) third, 6½ lengths back of the winner.

A winner in seven of 10 on the year, Somemore Blue padded her seasonal earnings to $289,000 for owners Stepbystep Racing, Ken Duffy, Lava Java Stable, and Never 2 Late Stable. The daughter of Rockin Image—Misssomebeach Blue was bred by Lavon Miller, and boasts $568,566 in career earnings with a record of 20 14-5-0. Co-owner Andy Willinger noted in the winner's circle that Somemore Blue will finish out the Indiana Sires Stakes season, with a potential date with the Breeders Crown if all goes well for the remainder of her campaign.

MR BEAR REBOUNDS IN ELEVATION

Fresh off his first career defeat in his last try, Mr Bear rebounded with a romp in the $75,000 Elevation for 2-year-old pacing colts for the team of Marcus and Erv Miller.

Miller floated the 1-5 favorite off the wings, methodically working his way to the front on the first turn to the outside of a revved-up Stonebridge Blitz (Gingras) through a :27 opening panel. Clearing on the backstretch, Mr Bear had things his way on the front end through middle-half fractions of :55.1 and 1:24. With just a couple of Marcus Miller whip taps, Mr Bear quickly opened up on his rivals in the lane, pacing away before being geared down on the wire winning by 3¾ lengths in a career best equaling 1:50.3. Stonebridge Blitz held for second, with Another Mile Again (Trace Tetrack) rallying for third.

Mr Bear has now won seven of eight on the year for owners Ervin Miller Stable, D&M Trading II, Levi Bontrager, and Laura Perniciaro. Bred by Mark Adams and Timothy Sullivan, the Rockin Image—Mama's Lil Beach gelding has banked $196,375 on the year.

GUEST COLUMN

BY JAMES PLATZ

Why no voter love for Miss Jum Jabber?

by James Platz

During the heart of the stakes season, the excitement of each race weekend culminates in a new Hambletonian Society/Breeders Crown poll the following Wednesday. It always makes for good fodder as we roll into the next weekend. That being said, as I perused the newest edition of the poll, I found myself asking the question: Why no voter love for Miss Jum Jabber?

Let me be completely transparent. I do not participate in the poll, and I've never been asked to do so. And I'm not a "homer" for Miss Jum Jabber or her connections. I don't have a dog in the fight. But this week I found myself questioning why a filly with her credentials isn't in the Top 10 after what she has accomplished on the track in 2026. She should not be on the outside looking in.

Let's review the sophomore pacing filly's body of work thus far this season. Fifteen starts, 13 wins. She ranks ninth among all North American horses for wins, that's any age, and only fellow 3-year-olds Mt Camas and Captain Tate have reached the winner's circle more this season, with 14 tallies each.

The Brett Pelling-owned and trained pacing filly kicked off the season with a fourth-place finish in an overnight contest at The Meadowlands. She then rattled off eight straight trips to the winner's circle. In boxing parlance, Miss Jum Jabber was facing off against contenders, not tomato cans, during the streak.

I understand that the Hambletonian Society/Breeders Crown poll carries no weight in end-of-season awards. It is clearly stated that the poll does not, and rightly so. And I will concede that no system is perfect. But the poll should serve as a barometer better reflecting the product on the track each week throughout the season. The fact that it does not erodes credibility.

Competing in PASS action, she scored victories against Loua Dipa, Bahama Momma, Sangria Summer and I'm A Lou Lou. Formidable competition.

After being nosed out by Shacarri in the Grade 3 Adioo Volo, Miss Jum Jabber has reeled off another five straight in Pennsylvania and Kentucky. Twice a winner in the Kentucky Championship Series, she returned to capture the $300,000 PASS championship by a neck over a stacked field of fillies.

Back to the Bluegrass, she annexed another Kentucky Championship Series leg and followed that with a statement win last Sunday, clocking a 1:48 mile over the hallowed Red Mile clay with Andrew McCarthy in tow. Miss Jum Jabber handily secured the $400,000 final by 3½ lengths.

How did voters embrace the performance? Can we say tepid at best? In the week leading into the KYSS final, Miss Jum Jabber finished 11th in the polling with 33 points. After her second finals win in 14 days? Still 11th, this time with 57 points, five shy of Best Chip, he of Canadian Pacing Derby fame.

Unraced as a freshman, the filly has accumulated seasonal earnings of $606,139, ranking her fourth among all sophomore pacers in North America. Only Brandon Blvd, Al Papi, and Melillo have earned more this year, and among the current Hambletonian Society/Breeders Crown leaders, she trails Super Chapter, Brandon Blvd, and Apex in money won as of the last poll.

No horse in the current poll has 13 wins. To take a cue from DJ Kaled, all she does is win, win, win! Her 1:48 mark is tied with Loua Dipa as the top mark for 3-year-old pacing fillies this season. While no one statistic seals the deal, reviewing them as a collection makes a strong case for an egregious omission by voters.

Looking at this less as a journalist and more as a racing fan, this is further exacerbated by the fact that Miki And Minnie remains in the poll week after week. No offense to the great mare and her connections. This is less about the horse and more about those that continue to cast their vote for her weekly. Standardbred Canada reported Aug. 20... yes, Aug. 20, that the mare had sustained a hairline fracture that required surgery. She was shelved for the season. The day before the announcement, Miki And Minnie ranked second in the poll, garnering five first place votes to the 22 cast for Apex.

In a business that is predicated on what have you done for me lately, Miki And Minnie's season ended one month ago. We are now at the height of the stakes season and this week she slipped from seventh in the poll to eighth?! The poll should reflect horses that are currently racing, and winning. Miki And Minnie's presence in the poll is denying another horse entry to the list, be it Miss Jum Jabber or another qualified pacer or trotter.

Hambletonian Oaks winner Nezuko Kamado S, by contrast, slipped from sixth the week before to ninth in the latest poll after racing fourth in her Kentucky Championship Series final, penalized to the point she ranks below a horse that last raced in August. I focus only on the most recent poll for this column, but it is not an isolated incident. And it most certainly will not be the last poll that raises questions.

Are voters following the racing each week? Are votes cast more on name recognition and prior accomplishments over recent results? I'd like to better understand the rationale. Is the focus – and weighting – slanted more toward graded stakes wins? Dan Patch Awards? Breeding? Connections? Jurisdiction? Are victories in the Jug and Jugette, both Grade 1 stakes, so significant in the minds of voters that they propel Loua Dipa and Redland Rocket Man into the Top 10? They attracted 13 and eight points, respectively, in the last poll.

I understand that the Hambletonian Society/Breeders Crown poll carries no weight in end-of-season awards. It is clearly stated that the poll does not, and rightly so. And I will concede that no system is perfect. But the poll should serve as a barometer better reflecting the product on the track each week throughout the season. The fact that it does not erodes credibility.

TALES FROM THE CURMUDGEON

with MURRAY BROWN

Another round of foolishness

by Murray Brown

On July 9, 2023, I wrote what, when looking back, was a very foolish column. In it, I was forecasting the winners of that year's Dan Patch awards. In early July, I apparently thought I was wise enough to adequately forecast the year-end results.

Perhaps the only thing sensible about it was that I left out all the 2-year-old categories. Even as daft as I can be, I was not going to pick the top 2-year-olds when the majority of them had probably not even raced.

The intent back then was to see how good a prognosticator I could be that early in the race season. How did it turn out, you might ask? The answer would be mixed. There were a few I hit right on the mark. I was much better at picking the top pacers than I was for trotters.

As for the pacers, I picked Confederate as the top 3-year-old pacing colt, even though he had not quite shown the amazing talent that was yet to come. He became the Dan Patch winner not only in his category, but also Pacer of the Year and Horse of the Year. I picked Sylvia Hanover as 3-Year-Old Pacing Filly, which she became. I also picked Grace Hill as the Older Pacing Mare and she was that. Bythemissal was the Older Pacer of the Year, but I didn't even mention him.

With trotters I was way off the mark. I picked Special Way as the top 3-year-old filly and Trotter of the Year. She garnered none of those awards. The top filly turned out to be Bond.

I actually did say that I couldn't pick a top 3-year-old colt at the time. I felt that if there was one, I hadn't as yet seen it. It turned out to be Tactical Approach.

With the older trotting males, I felt that at the time it was a mixed bag. It turned out to be It's Academic. Regarding the females, I mentioned Jiggy Jog S and Bella Bellini as the two main contenders. Of the two, I picked Bella Bellini. The winner turned out to be Jiggy Jog S.

I am about to embark on another round of foolishness, although with the benefit of more than 2½ extra months in the racing season. But with a much more reasonable time frame, I'm going to add the four 2-year-old categories.

TROTTERS

2-YEAR-OLD COLTS

Jimdougie Armitage — This category is as much a mixed bag as it is possible to find at this time. I suspect the upcoming Mohawk Million will give us a better picture of the category. The two leading money winners as this is written are the geldings Uncle Rob ($321,825) and the undefeated Swan Good Bi ($320,800) who have earned their spurs in sires stakes competition. I'm going against logic by picking a lightly raced colt trained by one of the true trotting greats Ake Svanstedt. Thus far, Jimdougie Armitage has won three of five starts and earned $222,707.

Jimdougie Armitage is sired by Captain Corey. Uncle Rob is by Mets Hall and Swan Good Bi is by Swan For All.

2-YEAR-OLD FILLIES

Wall Of Fame — It's hard to go against perfection and Wall Of Fame has been perfect, going nine-for-nine and earning $561,250. Nearly her equal insofar as perfection is concerned is the homebred winner of the Jim Doherty, Birr Castle going five for six and earning $476,356. An extremely talented long shot in the category might be Kountry Plunge who is five-for-five with earnings of $277,100.

Wall Of Fame is by Walner, Birr Castle is by Captain Corey, and Kountry Plunge is by Chapter Seven.

3-YEAR-OLD COLTS

Apex — He leads the category with five of seven wins and earnings of $860,460. If not by losing by a nose in the Hambletonian, the leader might very well be Big Ranger who is six of nine for the season with earnings of $552,307. To me, these two stand alone. But there remain several battles yet to be fought.

Apex is by Walner and Big Ranger is by In Range.

3-YEAR-OLD FILLIES

Nezuko Kamado S — She stands at the top of what I regard as a good, but not totally stellar group. She has won six of nine starts and has earned $582,305. Next in line, to me, is Victorianas Secret, who has eight of 11 wins with earnings of $369,931.

Nezuko Kamado S is by Chapter Seven and Victorianas Secret is by Tactical Landing.

OLDER MALE TROTTER

Super Chapter — If there is a total standout in any of the categories I believe this horse to be it. He is only slightly behind the overall money leader, the pacer Brandon Blvd, winning six of eight starts and earning $1,071,707. He looks to me to be a possible horse for the ages. He seems to be getting better with each start. I'm hoping against hope that his connections decide to test the European waters and take him to the Prix d'Amérique and/or the Elitloppet in the next two years. The stud barn can wait.

Super Chapter is sired by Chapter Seven.

OLDER FEMALE TROTTER

Bourbonista S – This is a particularly bare category in my estimation. The leading money winner is the Italian mare Diva Ek IT who made only one start on these shores and earned $250,000 in finishing second in the Yonkers International Trot. Following her, is the good mare R Dutchess with earnings of $243,968. I placed Bourbonista S as the leader because of her world record of 1.48.4 in one of her four seasonal wins.

Bourbonista S is sired by Face Time Bourbon, R Dutchess is by Father Patrick, and Diva Ek IT is by Trixton.

PACERS

2-YEAR-OLD COLTS

Starstruck Dreamer – It's kind of silly, to go against perfection. That is exactly what I'm doing in picking this colt over the undefeated Shalom Hanover. He's a world champion in winning in 1.48.4 in his victory in the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes (PASS) at Chester. If not for his drawing the 8-hole and being forced to cut the mile, giving Shalom Hanover the perfect trip in the PASS final at Pocono, I believe he would have won the race at Pocono. In my many years involvement in the sport, I know that would have, could have, and should have mean zilch. It's the winners that deserve the plaudits. There are still several battles yet to be fought. They will tell us if or how foolish my pick might have been.

Starstruck Dreamer is by Captaintreacherous and Shalom Hanover is by Papi Rob Hanover. I have written several times about the similarities in these colts' pedigrees.

2-YEAR-OLD FILLIES

Seaside Ubeaut – The four leading money winners in the category are Cleveland Darby ($341,825), Tempting Flames ($321,012), Seaside Ubeaut ($271,000), and JK Lady Liberty ($244,368). All of them have raced only in regional stakes. I went with Seaside Ubeaut because I consider the Kentucky races to be somewhat less regionally restricted, I've seen her race the most, and I am most attracted to her pedigree. Those may not be the most valid reasons, but they are the ones that I chose to follow.

Seaside Ubeaut and Cleveland Darby are by Downbytheseaside, Tempting Flames is by Catch The Fire, and JK Lady Liberty is by Captain Crunch.

3-YEAR-OLD COLTS

Brandon Blvd – He has earned the title based on talent, consistency, earnings, and being there and winning the big races more than any of his foes. He is now the leading money-winning horse of the year with eight wins in 11 starts, with earnings of $1,135,695. Most of his competitors have either fallen by the wayside or have been subject with inconsistency.

Brandon Blvd is sired by Downbytheseaside.

3-YEAR-OLD FILLIES

Miss Jum Jabber – Much as Brandon Blvd is all alone with the colts, so is this remarkable filly all alone at the top of the filly ladder. She leads all in earnings ($606,139), speed (an over powering win in 1.48 in the KYSS championships), and consistency (13 wins in 15 starts). In my opinion, she is the most dominant of all the pacers.

The sire of Miss Jum Jabber is Bettor's Wish.

OLDER MALE PACER

Best Chip – At this point Best Chip appears to be the best. No doubt he is the fastest, with a winning time of 1.46.1. He is second in the category with earnings of $470,805 with nine wins in 15 starts. The leading money winner is Prince Hal Hanover, who has never been off the board earning $581,191 with a resume of 5-6-3 in 14 starts.

Best Chip is sired by Heston Blue Chip and Prince Hal Hanover is by Captaintreacherous.

OLDER FEMALE PACER

Miki And Minnie – Before being sidelined with an injury, she was far and away the best winning six of eight starts and earning $372,099. The leading money winner in this category is the New Zealand import Louies Girls N with eight wins in 18 starts and earnings of $420,337.

Miki And Minnie is by Always B Miki and Louies Girl N is by Lord Forbes.

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Readly Express sires 1-2 finish in Finnish Kriterium

by Thomas Hedlund

Better Leader, a son of Readly Express, proved strongest in Saturday's (Sept. 26) $200,000 Finnish Trotting Kriterium for 3-year-olds at Tampere. Driven by Ville Koivisto, Better Leader (Readly Express—Tonight Leader) was sitting third-over before launching a three-wide move with 800 meters remaining. Despite the demanding trip, he kept coming and eventually wore down Pinebog's Bank to win in a 1:59.1 mile rate for 2,600 meters.

Pinebog's Bank (Readly Express) was game in defeat after putting heavy pressure on pacesetter Coriolanus Frido with 600 meters to go, but couldn't withstand the winner's late charge.

Donna Madeleine (Maharajah) closed from fourth along the rail to finish third.

The Petri Klemola-trained Better Leader has now won four of six career starts. Prior to Saturday, his biggest victory had come in his Finnish Kriterium elimination.

The final, worth €80,000 to the winner, also produced a notable result for Readly Express, whose sons finished 1-2. The stallion has previously sired Kriterium winners in both Sweden and Norway and can now add Finland to the list.

A FAIR DAY DOMINATES SWEDISH CHAMPIONSHIP

Epic Kronos was expected to be the heavy favorite in Saturday's (Sept. 26) $100,000 Swedish Championship at Åby, but when he was scratched Friday, the race suddenly became much more wide open. No one took advantage of the opportunity better than A Fair Day and Oscar Ginman.

Boscha Diablo and Johan Untersteiner couldn't hold out Ready Star in the early battle. When High On Pepper advanced on the outside, Mats E. Djuse surrendered the lead to the powerful son of Ready Cash.

Favorite Kentucky River was left first-over, and over the longer distance it proved too demanding a trip.

Down the final backstretch, Ginman launched A Fair Day (Maharajah) from second-over — and the response was immediate.

The amateur-trained gelding swept past Kentucky River and continued all the way to the lead around the final turn. By the time they straightened for home, Ginman and A Fair Day had opened several lengths on the field.

There was never any doubt from there. The Elisabeth Almheden-trained A Fair Day cruised home to a dominant Swedish Championship victory in a 1:54.2 mile rate for 2,640 meters.

LA YUCA BACK ON TOP

La Yuca is a champion again. Despite entering the $100,000 Swedish Mares Championship without a victory in her previous five starts, Daniel Redén's 5-year-old mare was sent off as the favorite. Following a flawless drive from Örjan Kihlström, she left little doubt about the outcome.

La Yuca (Face Time Bourbon), owned by Eagles Rising AB, had hardly raced poorly during the summer, but victories had been missing. On Saturday, she finally collected her first major title of 2026.

Kihlström left alertly, primarily to keep Unforgettable A.Y. behind him. The plan worked, and after 250 meters La Yuca was sitting second-over, with Unforgettable A.Y. following her. Daim Brodda controlled the pace on the front end.

The tempo remained strong throughout, allowing Kihlström to remain patient until moves began developing from the rear with one lap remaining. With 700 meters to go, La Yuca moved up first-over alongside Daim Brodda. From there, it became a show.

Kihlström pulled the hood with 150 meters remaining as a precaution, and La Yuca immediately grabbed the bit again and drew clear to win easily in a 1:54 mile rate for 2,140 meters.

Eagles Rising AB certainly has an impressive pair of 5-year-old mares. In addition to La Yuca, the stable owns Allegiant (Tactical Landing), the 2026 Elitlopp winner and world-record holder.

EUROPEAN DERBY FINAL TAKING SHAPE

Sunday (Oct. 11) promises to be one of the biggest days of the year in Italian harness racing. Turin will host the $1 million Italian Derby, the $440,000 European Derby, and the $550,000 UET Elite Circuit final on the same card.

Four of the five European Derby eliminations have now been completed. Two were contested Friday night (Sept. 25) at Vincennes, producing impressive victories by France's Maestro Vrie and German Derby winner Fragolino Rosso.

In the first elimination, everything appeared set up perfectly for Philippe Allaire trainee Magic Night (Helgafell) and Benjamin Rochard, who comfortably took the lead after 300 meters. But Magic Night broke stride around the final turn.

That left Mostra de Banville in command and apparently on her way to victory until Maestro Vrie (Village Mystic) began flying for Mathieu Mottier. The Louis Baudron trainee got his head in front shortly before the wire, winning in a 1:55.3 mile rate for 2,100 meters.

German Derby winner Fragolino Rosso (Booster Winner), who has now won 13 of 15 career starts, was sent to the lead by Robin Bakker after 300 meters in the second Vincennes elimination.

The race appeared headed toward a showdown between Fragolino Rosso and France's leading 4-year-old Mack de Blary. Instead, things became chaotic.

Fragolino Rosso opened up some separation around the final turn while Golden Gio (Face Time Bourbon) and Eric Raffin came charging three-wide. Entering the stretch, Golden Gio drifted inward – or Mack de Blary moved slightly outward – and the two became tangled when Golden Gio's wheel caught inside Mack de Blary's. The incident effectively ended the night for both horses and cost two leading contenders what appeared to be likely spots in the final.

Up front, Fragolino Rosso was long gone. The Paul Hagoort trainee powered home in an impressive 1:53 mile rate for 2,100 meters.

MELLBY NARROW CRUISES AT ÅBY

Two more European Derby eliminations were contested Saturday (Sept. 26) at Åby, and Swedish Derby winner Mellby Narrow picked up right where he left off. Daniel Wäjersten was able to work Mellby Narrow (Maharajah) to the lead after approximately 1,000 meters. The pace had been demanding, but the tough opening appeared to have no effect on the Derby champion.

With 300 meters remaining, Mellby Narrow simply said goodbye to his rivals. He drew away without being seriously asked and crossed the wire with the ear plugs still in, winning in a 1:54 mile rate for 2,140 meters.

Peggy Boko (Robert Bi) finished second and Gangster Vendil (Power) was third, with all three advancing to the European Derby Final.

MILADY JOSSELYN SETS ÅBY TRACK RECORD

Milady Josselyn was strongest in the stretch in the second Åby elimination, catching pacesetter Nightlife In with approximately 80 meters remaining. Adrian Kolgjini launched Milady Josselyn (Ready Cash—Uza Josselyn) three-wide from second-over with 300 meters to go. She quickly reeled in the leader and then had just enough left to hold off a flying Recycle Cash (Ready Cash), who produced a huge finish after launching three-wide from last with 500 meters remaining.

Milady Josselyn stopped the clock in a 1:54.2 mile rate for 2,140 meters, establishing a new Åby track record.

Money management makes the pari-mutuel world go 'round, Part 2

by Frank Coltole

Part 1 is here.

I admit that there are certain elements about horse racing in general that I enjoy watching as passive entertainment. I also confess that all types of pari-mutuel activity fail for me as passive entertainment in the long run. The myriad of ways to participate in any profession one loves is to join the ranks of the insiders and hopefully make a decent living. To embrace anything one does for a living can bring rewards far greater than financial stability or wealth. But let us face the facts: not everyone can become a harness racing driver or thoroughbred jockey or would care to do the dirty work involved in horse care or pari-mutuel administration or any other employment they offer.

Then how could one love the passive side of pari-mutuel racing and be rewarded for it at the same time? Easy. We compete among ourselves by putting money on the line. Sure, someone says, that is still passive activity because we do not do it for a living. Not true, I say; it is a demanding activity and you need to approach it with knowledge and skill and acquire a good deal of experience to be rewarded; to be paid for your skills. Otherwise, pari-mutuel betting is a rollercoaster you pay to ride and the purchase of thrills and sorrows.

The offices of psychologists and psychiatrists and the rooms in soft madhouses are filled with people who lost financial fortunes gambling on sports while there were others able to embrace the passive and the active sides of pari-mutuel racing. But you can bet your bottom dollar they did not do so by getting lucky most of the time. Nor did they find a magic formula that continually increases the tickets they cash. No prayers nor Daniel Webster-devil-deals brought them riches. No less profits of any count.

Success took math and routine. Solid and targeted attacks. Battle actions. And enjoying the rewards coming from active participation which — no doubt about it — make the passive moments shine like a silver dollar. The best gamblers, professional or part time, know about managing a bankroll and when not to invest as well as how much to invest (gamble) and when not to invest on a race. They are sharp shooters right down to aiming at the smallest circle on a shooting gallery target.

“It’s all about decisions and not selections. You can’t be bias towards any element. Every time you make a bet, how much you bet has got to be set in stone and you’ve got to be able to walk away from it if it doesn’t offer you the best of results. And you’ve got to play by those rules and trust them.”

— A professional gambler

That is what it came down to for me after trying silly systems and listening to guesses from so-called experts and advice from veteran gamblers with nothing but avarice on their minds. Money management is the ultimate answer and the supreme skill every professional gambler lives with and why every big loser surrenders in poverty and self-disappointment.

Money management is a strict boss of any good gambler. This element of pari-mutuel participation and applying it like a pro makes one become competent and assured and does so without promising a fortune but proving any profit defines success by comparison to those who become active without becoming truly involved. In other words, losers.

I decided to quit betting pari-mutuels all together; at least until I understood how professionals made profits. That began with learning how professional gamblers worked and with what tools. That on its own was not enough to provoke me; I needed to understand my personal relationship with money so the positive and negative element of that relationship could work.

One professional bettor told me, “You can’t look at your dollars like tokens on a Monopoly game. You’ve got to understand how you feel when you buy Park Place and why you don’t buy it when you’ve got the money to buy it and how much it’ll pay off in the long run.”

Another told me, “It’s all about decisions and not selections. You can’t be bias towards any element. Every time you make

CHAPTER 7

On the apron

Hooley eased open the glass door that led to Pioneer Downs Racecourse and paused on the threshold. Morning had settled in gently. Less than a dozen people were scattered on the gently sloped concrete apron that separated the racetrack from the air-conditioned building. He watched horses pull jog carts that traced familiar paths beneath a sky dotted with white clouds, as the rhythmic cadence of hooves on the track mixed with the smell of horses.

Just below him, on a solitary wooden bench on the apron, sat Martha Pettigrew Conklin. She faced the track, motionless, her back to him, watching the horses. In stark contrast to her hysteria and tears during their previous meetings, she sat with a thoughtful stillness, as if the rest of the world was frozen.

Hooley knew she wasn't there to admire the horses. He wondered why she had texted, asking him to meet.

"Morning, Martha."

"Thanks for coming."

"If this is about the case with your husband, I can't say much. My job is to remain neutral, but I can tell you that the case is still active."

"I understand. I'm in a much better place. I'm afraid you caught me at my worst the other day."

"No problem, that happens a lot in my work. Divorces are about as much fun as stepping on a rake every morning."

She smiled and added, "Especially when the woman rashly married a con man." She paused and gestured for him to join her on the wooden bench. "Have you ever been married or divorced?"

Hooley sat next to her. He looked at the racetrack and horses as he spoke. "Yes, to both. We were about 20, in San Francisco, sort of a hippie vibe, a pretty girl with long straight black hair. One morning, I said, 'Let's get married.' She said, 'Why not?' About seven months later, she said, 'Let's get unmarried.' I said, 'Why not?' We were stoned some of the time, so there wasn't much trauma or drama. I've had more hassle getting a marble countertop installed."

She smiled again and asked, "Never took another whirl?"

"Nah, joined the Navy, had a few close calls in the romance game, time goes by."

They both gazed at the racetrack and were silent for a little while.

She said, "Did you notice they ride in different carts for practice?"

"Yeah, and they go slow or fast according to the direction. Today is much more relaxed than when money is on the line."

She sat up. "Hey!"

"What?"

She pointed. "Peter, the good cousin, he just went past. See him, see him. In the blue vest, over by the turn."

Hooley stood and walked to the fence. As Peter and his horse approached on the next lap, Hooley raised his hand and gave a wave.

Peter recognized him, smiled, and lifted his right hand holding the rein in reply.

Hooley shouted, "Is this the horse?"

Peter, who was now past Hooley, turned and shouted back, "No, this one's a colt."

Hooley returned to the bench. "I didn't realize that you even knew your husband's cousin."

"I don't really. I only met him at the courthouse for the small ceremony. He seems nice. Obviously, I latched up with the wrong cousin."

"We haven't dug into Alex Pettigrew's financial records yet."

"You can dig with a spoon. The only money Alex Pettigrew has is my money, and despite appearances and bluster, he had no money when he deceived me and impersonated a kindly bachelor."

"My partner and I can't figure out how he afforded the racehorse in the first place."

She sighed, "Here's how a con man works. Soon after we met, Alex suggested we keep our money completely separate. He was firm on the subject. This was reassuring to me. It demonstrated that he didn't want my money."

"Makes sense," said Hooley.

"About a week later, he also suggested we each put $50,000 into a joint account, for dinners, vacations, theater tickets, whatever. He said you have your money, I have my money, and now we have a little pot of our money."

"That actually sounds reasonable."

"Everything the scoundrel said seemed reasonable, especially after constant dinners and too much expensive wine."

Hooley added, "Paid from the joint account."

"Yes. For his part, Alex found a bank, barely a bank, more like a loan shark, and borrowed his $50,000 with interest due monthly, for HIS portion of our money."

Hooley nodded. "So, he borrowed his $50,000, put it in your joint account, and then used the money from that same account to make the payments on his loan? That's how he had this money to invest in the horse, like magic."

"Exactly. When the marriage quickly fell apart, one of the first things the lawyers did was freeze all accounts except joint accounts where he still had access."

"Did he drain the $100,000?"

"Not all of it."

"The lawyers will sort it all out."

Martha gave a frustrated shake of her balled-up fists. "That's the maddening part. This will take time. It has been almost nine months, and he still has some of my money, and he will never lose a dime because he never had a dime. People like Alex Pettigrew never pay. They can't pay."

Hooley nodded. "People like that are barely on the radar screen of the legal system. They got close to him once for insurance scams, but he wiggled off the hook."

"I wanted to murder him, but my lawyer said divorcing a corpse was complicated." She paused. "Just kidding... sort of."

Hooley gave a small smile but did not reply. They both watched the horses.

After a long minute, Martha spoke softly. "Imagine the energy it takes a person to lie every hour of every day. Detective, my time with Alex Pettigrew is almost at an end. The money in the joint account is all that remains. I'm not contesting his ownership of the racehorse. I want peace, and maybe a time machine."

Hooley nodded, "Understandable."

Martha leaned backward and lifted her chin to the breeze and said, "Before I get out of your life, I just want to mention something that may protect the other partners who are in the Assets Accepted story."

"Do you know them?"

"No, but I strongly suspect Alex is swindling them."

Hooley debated telling Martha about his conversations with the ladies from Topeka, but decided against it and just said, "Good to know. I'll keep my eyes open."

She's A Bulldog (Bob McClure) winning the $150,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold leg 5 event for 3-year-old pacing fillies on Friday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Ontario SIRE STAKES REPORT

She's A Bulldog posts minor upset in OSS Gold for 3-year-old pacing fillies

by Dave Briggs / Ontario Racing

She's A Bulldog kicked home with authority to win the lone $150,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold leg 5 division for 3-year-old pacing fillies on Friday (Sept. 25) at Woodbine Mohawk Park in a career-best 1:49.2.

Sent off as the 4-1 third choice in the field of six, following the scratch of Cold Creek Cali, She's A Bulldog (Bob McClure) passed both three-time 2026 Gold champ A Clean Deal (Doug McNair), the 1-2 favorite, and second choice Daya (Jody Jamieson) in the stretch to win by one length over the former. Daya finished third.

It was the first Gold victory of the year for She's A Bulldog, a homebred daughter of Bulldog Hanover out of Band Stand owned by Brad Grant and trained by Ron Burke.

In the winner's circle, McClure said he was surprised by She's A Bulldog's performance.

"The last few times I drove her, she wasn't quite as good as she'd been in the past, and frankly, in the post parade, she didn't feel very good tonight at all," McClure told Woodbine broadcaster Randy Waples. "But when she got into the last turn, she felt full of herself, so I gave her a shot, and she kicked home awesome."

McClure positioned She's A Bulldog fourth through much of the mile as first Daya and then A Clean Deal led the group through fractions of :27.1, :54.4, and 1:23. McClure put She's A Bulldog in gear in the last turn, following Pownal Bay Bobbi (James MacDonald).

"Ideally, I would have liked to have just sat third and follow the whole way," McClure said. "But James had the same idea. In the last turn with A Clean Deal on front, [She's A Bulldog will] not labor, but she'll let up pretty good in that last turn. So, I figured if I came first up and I rode slow enough, I'd be able to get to her, and then it would be a sprint home. I figured I could maintain third and maybe even second if Jody couldn't get out. Then when Jody popped out of the 2-hole it was the perfect situation. Then I was second over and following one of the best horses and the other best one was in front of me. When I tipped her out, she gave me everything she had, and we were able to get the job done."

She's A Bulldog paid $10.30 to win. There was no show wagering.

Watch the race replay here.

She's A Bulldog improved to 3-3-2 in 14 starts this year and 4-5-2 in 23 lifetime outings. The $75,000 payday pushed her bank account to $279,893 this year and to $807,806 lifetime. The victory allowed She's A Bulldog to jump over Pownal Bay Bobbi into third place in the seasonal Gold Series standings. Sixth-place finisher Artistic Delight earned just enough points to jump from 11th in the standings into 10th place. The top 10 points-getters qualify for the Oct. 10 $350,000 OSS Super Final. With Gold legs now complete, the final standings in the division are as follows:

1. A Clean Deal – 200
2. Daya – 162
3. Shes A Bulldog – 83
4. Pownal Bay Bobbi – 45
5. Jen Tilly – 31
6. Lavender Seelster – 28
7. Romantic Beauty – 16
8. TH Check Me Out – 15
9. Cackle Berry – 12
10. Artistic Delight – 8

In previous Gold Series action in the division:

- A Clean Deal and Daya won their respective leg 1 Gold divisions on May 23 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.
- A Clean Deal was the winner of the lone leg 2 Gold division on June 26 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.
- A Clean Deal also won the lone leg 3 Gold test on July 25 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.
- Daya won the lone leg 4 Gold test on Aug. 15 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

UP NEXT IN ONTARIO SIRES STAKES ACTION:

- Monday (Sept. 27) – Gold Series leg 5 for 3-year-old pacing colts at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Shootout sharp in Maryland Sire Stakes prelim

by Rosecroft Raceway

Following his clean sweep of the summer Maryland Sire Stakes series for 2-year-old male pacers at Ocean Downs, Shootout kicked off the fall Maryland Sire Stakes series for the same division at Rosecroft Raceway with a career-best 1:56.1 victory in his $10,000 first-round preliminary on Thursday (Sept. 24).

In line to Roger Plante, Jr. for trainer Steve LeBlanc, Shootout brushed from third to take the lead from early pacesetter Octavian (driven by Russell Foster) after a :28.1 first quarter. The Wearinmysixshooter—The New Americana colt rated middle splits of :58.1 and 1:28.1 before Octavian emerged from the pocket to test him the length of the homestretch. Shootout rose to the test and prevailed by a half-length. Medhurst (Justin Walters) finished third, another 4½ lengths behind.

Trainer Steve LeBlanc's LeBlanc Racing shares ownership in six-time winner Shootout with breeder Glenn Dyke and James Stuart. As the 1-20 favorite, Shootout paid $2.10 to win.

Both 2-year-old trotting sections, conducted as non-wagering events, likewise saw summer series champs kick off their respective fall series in victorious fashion.

Richard Hans trainee Nobody Knows It maintained her undefeated record with a 1¾-length, 1:57 win over stablemate That's It For You in the filly trot. Corey Callahan drove the Betting Gangster S—Goo Luck Charm filly, whom Hans also owns, to the sixth win of her career in as many starts.

In The Worst Way lowered his lifetime mark to 2:02.3 with a 1½-length victory over My Mago in the male trot. Corey Braden drove the Il Mago—Greatestofease gelding for trainer Herman Hagerman and owner Hagerman Racing.

The other first-round divisional winners were:

- Major Dapper ($46), a Dapper Dude—See Major colt driven by Shane Griffith to a 1:57 win for owner/trainer Ronald Short
- Paddy The Baddy ($10.80), a Nuclear Breeze—Tom's Twinkle filly driven by Tim Deaton to a 1:57 win for owner/trainer Howard Birney

- If I Win Uwin ($3.60), a Dapper Dude—Aubergine Hanover filly driven by Brandon Givens to a 1:57.3 win for trainer Les Givens and owner J M B Ventures

The Maryland Sire Stakes fall series continues Monday (Sept. 28) with second-round preliminary action for 3-year-olds. All eight series will culminate Sunday (Oct. 11), with $100,000 finals on Rosecroft's Maryland Showcase of Champions program.

Racing at Rosecroft resumes Monday with three non-wagering Maryland Sire Stakes preliminaries beginning at 6 p.m. (EDT) and a 14-race pari-mutuel card beginning at 7:15 p.m. The Jackpot Hi-5, offered in the final race, will have a carryover of $5,439.46.

Maine SIRE STAKES REPORT

Maine's freshmen pacers shine at Farmington Fair

by Chris Tully for Maine Sire Stakes

Three $17,000-plus divisions of the Maine Sire Stakes for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings finished up their regular racing season on Friday (Sept. 25) at the Farmington Fair, securing their positions for the upcoming Freshmen finals on Oct. 3.

The swiftest $17,153 Pine Tree State-bred event was slated as race 3 on the regular card at Farmington, with the favorite being thwarted by an up-and-coming youngster.

When the gate wings sprung driver Kevin Switzer, Jr. sent One Last Deal right to the top in a :29.2 opening panel. Aaron Hall had Rustyonlytreasure in the pocket through the 1:00.3 half, with no threatening outer flow advancing into the 1:30.3 third panel set by the 3-5 favorite.

At the head of the stretch driver Dave Ingraham had Duderrific looking the pacesetter right in the eye, and went right on by. The son of Dude's The Man went on to win in a lifetime best 1:59, prevailing by 1¼ lengths.

Trained by Joe Nelson for owner/breeder M And L of Delaware, it was Duderrific's second seasonal victory, returning $6.60.

One Last Deal finished second; Rustyonlytreasure was third.

In the early, non-wagering $17,754 event it was the taste of sweet redemption for The Gucci Man who had suffered his only career defeat in his last outing.

In typical Switzer, Jr. style, The Gucci Man was sent to the front and never looked back. The pacer made every call a winning one, in dominating fashion. Scoring by 3½ lengths in 1:59.3, the son of Dude's The Man now has seven wins in eight seasonal starts.

Owned, trained, and bred by Marc Tardif is the leading point earner in his division.

Agent James Bond (Ron Cushing) finished second; Poocham Luck (Ingraham) was third.

In the third $16,978 division of freshmen male pacers, it was the 1-5 favorite Justcallmebuddy that sat a perfect pocket trip to score in 2:01 over pacesetter Painter's Treasure and Andy Harrington.

The son of Deuce Seelster prevailed by a length for driver Aaron Hall and trainer Marc Tardif. Owned by Leighton Property and Victory Leighton, it was his third victory of the season. Bred in Maine by Kristina Hall, he returned $2.40.

Looking ahead, the Maine Sire Stakes transitions to the Cumberland Fair with the 3-year-old colt and gelding pacers racing Tuesday (Sept. 29). The action continues with their female counterparts on Wednesday (Sept. 30) and the 3-year-old trotters on Friday (Oct. 2). Then the lucrative Freshman finals are slated for Saturday (Oct. 3).

EIGHT IS GREAT FOR NO SMALL WONDER

A pair of $16,000-plus divisions of freshmen female pacers rolled into the Farmington Fair on Jug Day Thursday (Sept. 24) for the Maine Sire Stakes with the unbeaten rookie No Small Wonder increasing her winning streak to an even eight straight victories.

The sidestepping sensation was, as always, sent right to the top by Kevin Switzer, Jr. Scoring from post 2, No Small Wonder hit the opening panel in a moderate :30 during the second pari-mutuel $16,983 event for Pine Tree State-bred 2-year-old pacing fillies.

The daughter of State Treasurer continued to cut the fractions through middle stations of 1:00.4 and 1:30, while Bad Bunny T (Andy Harrington) kept a tight pocket. Down the backside the final time Feel The Fury (Aaron Hall) came first over to challenge the leader and was right alongside No Small Wonder as they entered the final turn.

At the head of the stretch Switzer, Jr. gave the filly the signal and she quickened her pace to win by 2½ lengths over the fast track in 1:59.1.

Trained by Kevin Switzer, Sr. for owners KDK Standardbreds, Kathleen Mofield, and Anthony Sivik, Jr., she was bred by Luke and Patricia Varnum and has earned $65,739 while winning all eight of her lifetime starts.

Feel The Fury finished second; Bad Bunny T was third.

In the other $16,808 division, which was held before the regular program, Bettor's Treasure and McGwire Sowers came away with the win and a new record after sitting a perfect 2-hole trip.

Leaving from post 4 the daughter of State Treasurer ducked in the pocket while Wine For The Lady (Aaron Hall) hit the opening panel in :29. That filly showed the way through a :59.1 half that produced no outer flow, and had no real pressure through the 1:30.3 third station.

However, Sowers had his charge out and rolling and was wheel-to-wheel with the pacesetter at the head of the stretch. They continued their momentum down the stretch and won by 1¾ lengths in 2:00.1 for a new time badge.

Trained by David Dziengiel who co-owns with John and Thelma Kiernan and Tony Lake, it was her second lifetime victory. She was bred in Maine by Larry Dancer.

Showfaith Showdown rallied for second; Wine For The Lady finished third.

$3.2 million Massachusetts Breeder Stakes get underway Monday at Plainridge Park

Plainridge Park is anxiously awaiting the return of the $3.2 million (est.) Massachusetts Breeder Stakes on Monday (Sept. 28), to welcome what could be the most talented group of Massachusetts-bred trotters and pacers ever to line up behind the gate to compete over the speedy Ridge oval, that has already produced an inordinate number of lifetime marks this season.

A total of 202 eligibles – 128 pacers and 74 trotters – may enter over the three weeks of eliminations, to determine the final fields that will produce the 2026 champions on Thursday (Oct. 29).

Horses from many prominent stables will be taking part and most have already started their seasons over the summer in preparation for this event.

Plainridge Park has hosted a series of $15,000 Romper Room races over the past several weeks that are designed to help educate 2-year-old Massachusetts-breds behind the gate and in actual competition over the track they will be competing. But many other 2- and 3-year-olds have already made their marks in stakes action in other jurisdictions, thanks to the Massachusetts resident mare program that facilitates state-breds the ability to compete in multiple stake programs, bringing more value to the standardbred breeding program in Massachusetts.

Here are just a few of the 2-year-olds that you may see competing in these stakes, that have already excelled elsewhere this season.

Travis Alexander's pacing colt, Bastonata Bluechip (American Courage—Ascending, 1:54.4, $235,187), won an early New York Sire Stake this year while hitting the board four more times in the series. But his big day came in the $300,000 NYSS finals at Yonkers Raceway where he won in a career best time of 1:54.4 and became a New York champion. This colt is at the top of his early career and will be formidable in the upcoming series.

George Ducharme's pacing filly, Huntsvilles Honey (Huntsville—That's Incredible, 1:55.2, $212,073), raced exclusively in the NYSS this year so far, winning two races and never missing a check in her other starts. But her biggest check came in the $300,000 NYSS final at Yonkers when she swooped the group late to be a runaway winner in a lifetime best of 1:55.2, and become the second Massachusetts-bred to excel as a champion in New York.

Ron Burke's pacing colt, Bacchus Blue Chip (American Ideal—Sunnynseventyfive, 1:51.4, $91,920), competed in five New York Excelsior Series races this summer, winning three legs and finishing second in the other two. He then won the $100,000 final at Tioga Downs and set his career mark of 1:51.4 in the process of becoming an Excelsior Series champion.

Then there is a host of 3-year-olds who are racing at an elite level this year, including some returning Massachusetts Breeder Stakes champions from last year.

Domenico Cecere's trotting gelding, Mother's Moni (International Moni—Mother Theresa, 1:50.4, $211,877), won two legs of the MASS last year, but made a break in the final. This year, Mother's Moni has already won three overnight events at Plainridge, but then went on to win the $50,000 Muscle Hill trot at The Meadowlands in 1:52 and the $100,800 Grade 3 Simcoe Stakes at Woodbine Mohawk Park in 1:50.4. That winning time of 1:50.4 made Mother's Moni the fastest 3-year-old trotting gelding ever bred in the state of Massachusetts. He comes into this series looking to avenge last year's final's miscue.

Paul Kelley's trotting gelding, Geologic (Captain Corey—Crystalline, 1:52.1, $388,440), was the Massachusetts 2-year-old male trotting champion last year, and his 2026 campaign has started out even better for him so far. After finishing first and second in two legs of the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes, Geologic won the $300,000 final at Harrah's Philly in a lifetime best 1:52.1. Geologic also has two wins in overnight action at Plainridge this year and definitely has a home track advantage.

Cecere's trotting filly, Lindy In My Dreams (Ready For Moni—Lindy Of My Dreams, 1:53.2, $231,700), was the 2-year-old filly MASS trotting champion last year. This year, she has been racing in overnights at Plainridge against older horses where she took a lifetime mark of 1:53.4 in August. Her only stakes start so far was a third-place finish in an Ohio Sires Stakes race at Scioto Downs, but she will be looking to defend her title in the MASS series coming up.

Ducharme's trotting filly, Cash Out Express (International Moni—Maliziosa Lindy, 1:54.1, $190,184), won two legs of the MASS last year before finishing second by a quarter-length to Lindy In My Dreams, after cutting the mile. This year, she raced in the PASS and finished second in the $50,000 consolation at Harrah's Philly. She also raced in the Zweig at Vernon Downs and Delmonica Hanover consolation at Pocono Downs, giving her a lot of stakes experience coming into this series and taking another shot at the championship.

Deborah Daguet's pacing filly, Two Twenty Swift (Huntsville—Jag Out, 1:53.1, $298,651), was the MASS 2-year-old filly pacing champion and that came right after she won the $100,00 final of the NY Excelsior Series at Saratoga Raceway in 2025. This year, she found success on the NYSS circuit again, making the $300,000 final at Yonkers where she finished sixth. She also competed in the $50,000 Park MGM at Yonkers where she finished second, and the $187,100 Empire Breeders Classic at Tioga Downs.

Tahnee Camilleri's pacing filly, Vainglorious (Bettors Delight—Bronskimackenzie A, 1:51.3, $110,235), was a player in the MASS stakes last year, posting a win and two seconds, one of which was in the finals to Two Twenty Swift. This year the filly got off to a bit of a slow start, but now seems to be peaking at the right time. She just won back-to-back starts at The Red Mile in the Wildcat Series while posting back-to-back lifetime marks of 1:52.1 and 1:51.3, in identical :27.1 final quarters. She looks like she's ready to go at The Ridge next week.

These are only eight examples of the caliber of horse expected to enter the Massachusetts Breeder Stakes this year. The list of eligibles goes on and the talent pool is deep with horses ready to make their mark on the Commonwealth's harness racing scene.

Here is a complete schedule for the 2026 Massachusetts Breeder Stakes:

Monday (Sept. 28) — 2-year-old first leg

Tuesday (Sept. 29) — 3-year-old first leg

Monday (Oct. 5) — 2-year-old second leg

Tuesday (Oct. 6) — 3-year-old second leg

Monday (Oct. 19) — 2-year-old third leg

Tuesday (Oct. 20) — 3-year-old third leg

Thursday (Oct. 29) — 2 and 3-year-old finals

The Delaware County Fair hosted seven $20,000 divisions of the fifth leg of the Buckeye Stallion Series for sophomore pacers — three for fillies and four for colts — as part of a 19-race card on the final day of its five-day meet in Delaware, OH, on Thursday (Sept. 24).

Pansy Dragon (Tyler Smith) recorded the fastest mile of the three filly pace races, winning the very closely contested second division that saw the top four finishers trip the wire in 1:54.1. Cruzin Tothe Pier (Yannick Gingras) and Zoom Call (Luke Hanners) were just a neck back in second and third, respectively. Pansy Dragon is trained by Timothy Lane for owner Corrine Lane. Unraced at 2, the Fear The Dragon filly has hit the board in eight of nine seasonal starts with four wins and $37,820 in earnings.

Eyes Up (Cameron McCown) is now a two-time BSS winner after taking the first division by a half-length in 1:55.1. Ima Beach Girl (Justin Irvine) and Vh Goldie (David Young II) rounded out the top three. Eyes Up is trained by Jessica McCown for owner Caldwell Mamie Racing. The Lather Up filly has six wins and $89,522 in earnings in 29 career starts.

Mandaloun (Chris Page) won the third division in gate-to-wire fashion, crossing the line in 1:54.3. The Downbytheseaside filly recorded fractions of :28.2, :57.4, and 1:25.4 and won by a half-length over Its Nacho Turn (Austin Hanners) with Jamie Amanda (Luke Hanners) in third. Mandaloun is trained by Ron Burke for owners Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brusceci, and R A S Racing. It was her second career win, increasing her earnings to $40,650.

Odds On Sugar (Luke Hanners) was the fastest among the four sophomore colt pace winners, taking the second division in 1:52.2. The Downbytheseaside gelding is now a three-time BSS winner on the season. He led gate-to-wire with fractions of :28, :56.3, 1:24.4, and 1:52.2 and won by 6½ lengths. Ati Kiss My Hocks (Page) was second followed by Heerz Corinthian (McCown) in third. Odds On Sugar is trained by Virgil Morgan, Jr., who co-owns with Odds On Racing, Sugar Valley Farm, and Operation Horsepower. He has four wins and $122,331 in earnings from 17 lifetime starts.

Brix's On Fire (Smith) won the first division by 3¾ lengths in 1:53, leading gate-to-wire with fractions of :27.1, :55, and 1:23.3 for his second BSS win of 2026. Sunnys In The Sea (Gingras) and Odds On Mister X (Luke Hanners) rounded out the top three. Brix's On Fire is trained by Jeff Smith for owners James Everhart and Kathy Smith. The Catch The Fire gelding has four wins and earnings of $53,775 in 19 career starts.

Contour (McCown) scored his fifth career win with a victory in the third division in 1:54, increasing his earnings to $33,375. The Downbytheseaside gelding led gate-to-wire with fractions of :27.3, :55.4, and 1:23.3 and won by 3½ lengths. Odds On Mase (Luke Hanners) and Legends Rule (Jody Jamieson) rounded out the top three. Contour is trained by Brian Brown for owners Steve Main and Sandra Edmondson.

Touchedbythesea (Page) matched Odds On Sugar with a third seasonal BSS victory, taking the fourth division by a length in 1:54.2. The Downbytheseaside gelding is trained by Burke for owners Burke Racing Stable, Knox Services, Slaughter Racing Stable, and Weaver Brusceci. He has four career wins and earnings of $41,275.
