Jody Jamieson revels in unifying wins of the two great harness racing spectacles

by Brett Sturman

BETWEEN THE LINES

with BRETT STURMAN

All the top drivers in harness racing are accustomed to winning lots of high-quality races with substantial race purses. But for most of those instances, a similar scenario plays out. They win, make a quick trip to the winner's circle in front of nearly-empty grandstands, move onto the next race, and repeat. Not that there's anything wrong with that if you're a driver, but there are races where a driver wins, and others that a driver experiences, and Jody Jamieson has had an exceptionally unique kind of year.

With his win last week in the Little Brown Jug at the Delaware County Fair in Ohio with Ontario-based supplemental entry Redland Rocket Man to go with his win one a month ago in the Gold Cup & Saucer at Charlottetown Driving Park on Prince Edward Island with Fifth And Five, the veteran Canadian driver swept two of the most storied races in harness racing. Those two races share something that has become nearly extinct elsewhere across the sport: massive, wall-to-wall crowds.

"I've got to tell you that to win those races in front of those crowds, it's f---ing unreal," said Jamieson. "I can't even tell you any other way. It's that unreal.

Jody Jamieson loves to hype up a crowd.

“I’ve been to all the races, and the only place I can think of that even comes close in terms of the fandom is the Elitlopp. So, for me to win both the Gold Cup & Saucer and the Little Brown Jug this year, and at the same time, sort of, have my way with all those fans – it’s hard for me to put into words.”

me to win both the Gold Cup & Saucer and the Little Brown Jug this year, and at the same time, sort of, have my way with all those fans – it’s hard for me to put into words.”

Relaying the uniqueness of the two events, Jamieson said, “There’s just no comparison to the crowds you would get at other tracks even on the biggest days. There’s no comparison. At the Gold Cup & Saucer, I’m sure you’ve seen the pictures. There’s standing room only on the tarmac, all down the stretch and halfway around the first turn. And then on the last turn the crowds are five, six deep against the fence and it’s unbelievable. You just don’t get that anywhere else other than Delaware, OH and Charlottetown, PEI. Those really are the only two races that we race in front of those huge crowds.”

It's been a heck of a few months for Jody Jamieson.

For Jamieson — a Maritime native — winning this year's Gold Cup & Saucer — a race to the locals that holds near mythical status — wasn't just another career achievement but more-so the realization of a lifelong dream.

"Some people might have a hard time understanding how special it is, but I think if you're a Maritime kid or a Canadian kid and maybe even a little if you're a North American kid, I think you're starting to realize how much of a dream it is to one day win the Gold Cup & Saucer," he said. "It's to the Maritimes and Canada what the Little Brown Jug is to the U.S."

Jamieson isn't the only driver to win both the Gold Cup & Saucer and the Little Brown Jug throughout their careers, but he is the first to accomplish the feat in the same season. In a way, the feat was a transcendent moment for racing.

"I don't know if this is overkill or a little bit overstated, but I almost feel as if I've sort of united two of the greatest spectacles in harness racing," Jamieson said. "These races are the common denominator in that every time we go to the Jug there are people there from Charlottetown and from PEI and the Maritimes, or others from all over the world saying how they need to get to that race in East Canada. And then when you go to the Gold Cup it's the same thing; a crossover of fans talking about making it to the Jug one year."

"Racing in front of a crowd like that [at the Gold Cup & Saucer or Little Brown Jug] is the coolest thing we can do as a harness driver."

— Jody Jamieson

"I've won both races now, so I feel that I've sort of bridged the gap between them. And how lucky am I to not only win those races but to experience that fandom. I'm obviously proud of that, but also ecstatic for being able to share it with all those people that were there."

While other races elsewhere throughout the stakes calendar may offer higher purse money, the atmosphere at these two races is second to none in garnering unrivaled excitement for the race participants. It's an experience that's only offered now a couple of times a year.

"I can only speak for myself although I feel like I could speak for all the top drivers that travel all over the place, when I say that we get more jacked up at those races," Jamieson said. "That's why those guys like Dex [Dunn], Yannick [Gingras], Andy [McCarthy], Toddy [McCarthy], Scott Zeron, myself, and others — that's why we go to those races. These guys — they know the meaning of it and they appreciate it. Nowhere else can you see true fans react to harness racing like that."

In both the Gold Cup & Saucer and The Little Brown Jug this year, Jamieson not only won those races, but he felt each person there. Though moments like those today are rare, they should still serve as inspiration and perhaps a challenge to the industry to make those moments less rare.

"Racing in front of a crowd like that is the coolest thing we can do as a harness driver," Jamieson said.

WIRE TO WIRE

with DAVE BRIGGS

Beyond the bucket list

Ten years ago, Jug-winning trainer John Pentland could barely scrape together the money to buy an inexpensive yearling. Then his fate changed for the better. Today, he is campaigning a pair of Grade 1-winning Bulldog Hanover offspring.

by Dave Briggs / Ontario Racing

This story originally appeared here.

Ontario trainer John Pentland said winning the Little Brown Jug was never on his bucket list. That's not because he didn't very much want to win it, just that it seemed so improbable he didn't dare to dream that big.

On Saturday (Sept. 26), two days after his Ontario-sired pupil Redland Rocket Man and driver Jody Jamieson did indeed win the 81st edition of the $650,000 Grade 1 Jug at the Delaware County Fairgrounds in Ohio, Pentland was still grinning as he stood on the tarmac at Woodbine Mohawk Park – and that was before another of his Ontario-sired pupils, 2-year-old pacing filly Jersey Bulldog, won the $510,000 Grade 1 She's A Great Lady out of the 9-hole later that night.

Over the last fortnight, in particular, fate has been grinning at Pentland.

Nearing 30 years into training his own stable, Pentland is well aware that, for some reason, the planets have aligned for him. He's also cognizant that it wasn't that long ago that he was struggling to keep going in the business.

In 2016 and '17, Pentland had back-to-back years when his stable earned less than $100,000 each year. In the fall of 2017, the trainer from Dorchester, ON scraped together $12,000 to buy Betterthancheddar pacing filly Powerful Chris from the sale now called the London Selected Yearling Sale.

"I only had $11,000 and I went to the sale and I bought her," Pentland said. "She trained down phenomenally, and I didn't even have the money to stake her."

In her career pari-mutuel debut on July 10, 2018, in an Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Grassroots event at Woodbine Mohawk

Park, the pacing filly won by nearly nine lengths, and looked "phenomenal" doing it.

"I knew right in that instant my life changed," Pentland said. "Tammy McNiven said to me, 'I can't believe how happy you are, John!' And I said, 'My life just changed.' I got her priced. Somebody tried to buy her for $270,000 and so Bob [McClure] got his grandfather to buy a quarter because I didn't really want to sell her, but I needed the money. I simply called Jack [Darling] for direction. I said, 'Could you put me onto somebody that would be interested?' I never thought for a second Jack might want in. Jack goes, 'I'll take a quarter.' Ever since then, he and I have owned some horses together. He's been really instrumental [in my comeback]."

"Jack Darling played a big role in that. He gave me horses to train to help me get back on my feet."

Both Redland Rocket Man and Jersey Bulldog are offspring of Ontario-sired and based stallion Bulldog Hanover. Outside of Darling, who picked out, purchased, and trained Bulldog Hanover, Pentland said he is probably the horse's biggest fan.

Claus Andersen

Jersey Bulldog (9, Bob McClure) winning the $510,000 Grade 1 She's A Great Lady.

"I watched 'Bulldog' and I never missed a single race," Pentland said. "I was absolutely hooked on him... At the end of his 3-year-old season he was just head and shoulders better than everybody."

That explains how Pentland came to purchase Redland Rocket Man, bred by Redland Farms in Bible Hill, NS, for $30,000 out of the Preferred Equine consignment at the 2024 Standardbred Horse Sales Company's yearling sale in Harrisburg, PA. It was the year Bulldog Hanover's first crop was selling – a select group of just 54 foals with only 35 sold at auction.

A year later, Pentland said he and Darling partnered to try to buy a Bulldog Hanover offspring in Harrisburg. They landed on Jersey Bulldog – a filly out of Somebeachsomewhere mare Gallie Beach bred in New Jersey by Mark Mullen and Stephen Dey – and took her home with a bid of $40,000.

"Both of us loved this filly, and we'd have [paid] a lot more," Pentland said. "We got her for $40,000, and I'm sure we'd have gone $60,000 or $70,000."

"She's push button. She's like chocolate ice cream. It can't be better. It can only be that good."

The trainer said while he couldn't conceive of ever winning the Jug, winning the She's A Great Lady has been on his bucket list for 20 years.

In 2006, he finished second in the race, three-quarters-of-a-length back, with Luck Of Michelle.

"I've had great nights. I've had a good career, but it's the Jug. We won the Jug... They can't take it away. There's no other race you want to win more. You might want to win a race just as much, but there's no race you want to win more."

John Pentland

"It was the first Grand Circuit race [I almost won]," Pentland said. "Luck Of Michelle was so close to winning. I had another filly that was third in it another year."

The journey from there to here has been a long one for Pentland, but Sept. 12 may have been another indication that his life had changed for the better. That night, both Redland Rocket Man and Jersey Bulldog won Grand Circuit races at Woodbine

Brad Conrad

Redland Rocket Man (Jody Jamieson) winning the final of the $650,000 Grade 1 Little Brown Jug.

Mohawk Park – the former with a 1:46.4 Canadian-best mile that convinced the trainer to pay the $45,000 supplemental fee to make the gelding eligible to the Jug.

Here again, the Racing Gods intervened in Pentland's favor. This is only the fourth of the Jug's 81 years that open supplements have even been allowed.

"I was flirting with the idea [of supplementing Redland Rocket Man], but had I not won that race [in 1:46.4], I probably wouldn't have gone," Pentland said. "When he beat them, and beat the Canadian record, it was like, 'If you were considering it, how can you not go now?'"

Pentland credits Murray Cox and Gary Volpe, his ownership partners on the horse, for allowing him the space to make the call on paying the supplement.

"I had no pressure from them one way or the other," Pentland said. "If I had decided not to do it, I might have disappointed them, but they weren't going to lean on me. They sort of allowed me to make the decision, or maybe they coaxed me, and I was just too naive to know it.

"They're all in as owners, and they're both terrific owners, and they've had horses for a long time with a bunch of guys, and I'm lucky enough to have snagged them right now... And my crew, they're close friends, the four main people that work for me, and my wife has been with me on all of it. We all did it together. I made the final decision, but we all did it together."

Minutes after winning the Jug, Pentland said he had 130 text messages congratulating him. Jamieson had 240.

"[Ontario horsewoman] Jody McGilveary sent me a message," Pentland said. "She said, 'John, everybody was under the TV [at Woodbine Mohawk Park] yelling and cheering, and when it was over, they applauded.' I've been in that scenario in the paddock with one of my competitors winning a big race, and we all love it. Go Canada. We cheer for each other even though we're competitors on the track."

Two days after his biggest career triumph, Pentland said he'll have the memory for a lifetime.

"I've had great nights," he said. "I've had a good career, but it's the Jug. We won the Jug... They can't take it away. There's no other race you want to win more. You might want to win a race just as much, but there's no race you want to win more.

"One day, I'll sit on my back porch drinking a scotch, thinking, 'You took the chance, and it paid off.'"

Putting that $45,000 supplement fee in perspective, Pentland said trainers, "take chances every fall. I'm about to go take a whole bunch of chances in the next couple of months, and you know what? Honestly, this is better. [The Jug] was a better opportunity than just going to buy a random yearling.”

That Pentland is having a career year given all this is not surprising. But his numbers are truly impressive. With three months left in 2026, he has already had his best year in earnings with over $1.75 million made and has his second most wins (35, two short of his personal record of 37 set in 2024). This is just the second time Pentland has earnings of more than $1 million. The first time he hit seven figures was 20 years ago in 2006, the year he campaigned Luck Of Michelle.

The moral is this: Sometimes, the fates can be cruel, like they were 10 years ago; sometimes, they can smile upon you with the radiance of a thousand suns.

On the walk back to the paddock after winning the She’s A Great Lady, the trainer stated the obvious as if he was trying to put that gratitude into the universe.

“It’s good to be John Pentland right now,” he said, still grinning. Odds are it will be a long time until that smile leaves his face.

THE VIEW FROM WOODBINE MOHAWK PARK

with MELISSA KEITH

Francent N: From New Zealand to Canadian record

by Melissa Keith

When a newcomer to Woodbine Mohawk Park blazed to victory in back-to-back starts against top pacing mares, she was anything but an unknown. Francent N was sent off as the even-money favorite in the Aug. 29 filly and mare open, which she won in 1:48.1 with an early first-over grind and late explosion up the inside path. The 10-1 morning line didn't stand a chance.

Sept. 5, in the Grade 2 Milton Stake, 1-5 favorite Francent N and driver Louis-Philippe Roy cleared leader Twin B Joe Fresh just past the :25.2 opening quarter. Louies Girl N overtook Francent N on the final turn, but it was the latter who made another winning late move without leaving the pylons. Announcer Chad Rozema instantly declared the 1:47.3 mile a new Milton and Mohawk track record.

"Louies Girl [N] and Jason Bartlett took a shot, couldn't quite clear, but you've got to show a lotta guts and a lotta talent to be able to pick it up like that and then dig in when the others are trying to come at you as well," he said of Francent N. "This mare, if anybody had any questions, she is legit."

The win was also the fastest-ever by a female pacer in Canada and equaled the year's fastest by a mare in North America.

After the record victory, Francent N returned to her U.S. trainer, Pat Lachance of Allentown, NJ. Her next start was supposed to be the Sept. 18 Yonkers filly and mare invitational, but the 6-year-old mare was a vet scratch from what would have been her seventh start in North America. Her departure was seemingly as sudden as her arrival at the top, but there is of course more to the story.

New Image Media

Francent N (Louis-Philippe Roy) winning the $255,000
Grade 2 Milton on Sept. 5 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

“[Owner] Sylvain [Descheneaux] called me and asked me if I thought it was a good idea to supplement [Francent N] to the Milton, and asked if I thought the bigger track would be good for her. I told him that yes, I felt she'd do very well out there.”

— Pat Lachance

New Zealand-bred Francent N (p, 6, 1:47.3s; $324,567) was exported to North America after three consecutive wins, the most recent on May 8 at Auckland in the Charles Roberts North Island Standardbred Breeders Association Stakes Mobile Pace. Then owned by the Patsy Marie Syndicate and conditioned by Mark Jones, Francent N and driver Crystal Hackett trailed the field until launching a three-wide bid with 750 meters remaining in the 2,200-meter race.

“Here's Francent in her swan song before heading to the land of the maple leaf!” announced Aaron White as the big mare charged to victory, three-wide down the stretch. With her sale to new owner Ecurie CSL (Sylvain Descheneaux) of Sorel-Tracy, QC finalized on May 13, Francent N left New Zealand as Bob Higgins' first Group 1 winner in his 50 years as a breeder.

“She came to my barn in early June,” Pat Lachance told HRU. “She acted like a class mare.”

Francent N began her North American career for her current trainer/driver on a winning note, qualifying at Yonkers in 1:54 flat on July 13. She repeated in another non-wagering tightener on July 24, opening up by eight lengths to win in 1:54 over the New York half-mile.

“Yes, when she qualified, I felt she was a really nice mare,” Lachance said. “I watched her replays. She looked like she had serious potential.”

The daughter of Vincent—Mary Niven, bred by Bob Higgins of Westport, NZ, arrived in her new home with a record of 13 wins from 29 career starts, three of the wins from her seven New Zealand starts this year. Francent N made her pari-mutuel debut for Ecurie CSL and Lachance in the July 31 Yonkers distaff invitational. Although it wasn't another victory, her latest trainer/driver was impressed.

“In her first race, I knew we had something special,” Lachance said. “She flew home into a really good mile with good mares.”

Francent N closed from last to a close fourth in a personal 1:51.4 mile, pacing the fastest (:26.3) last quarter of the entire card.

After closing strongly to finish second by a neck to Raspalia N on Aug. 7, Francent N and Lachance overcame Yonkers post 8 to win from off the pace in 1:52.3 on Aug. 14. After returning to the Yonkers distaff invitational with a going-away 1:51.4 victory on Aug. 21.

“Sylvain called me and asked me if I thought it was a good idea to supplement her to the Milton, and asked if I thought the bigger track would be good for her,” Lachance said. “I told him that yes, I felt she'd do very well out there.”

Descheneaux supplemented his mare to the Milton for $20,000 (Can.) ahead of the Aug. 24 deadline. There were no other supplemental entries to the race, which did not require eliminations.

While Francent N moved to the barn of Jacques Dupont in Canada, her U.S.-based trainer/driver followed Francent N's progress, albeit during his own busy race nights at Yonkers.

“I watched her race on the 29th and wasn't surprised to see her win,” Lachance said. “When she won in 1:47.3, I knew she had the ability to do it, but you never know how far they can carry that speed. She sure proved that she has a lot of class.”

The Milton was Francent N's last race, for now.

“We scratched her at Yonkers because she has a virus going through her,” Lachance told HRU on Friday (Sept. 25). “The plan is to pull blood on Monday [Sept. 28] to make sure she's healthy... If she checks out good, we will race her at Yonkers, then maybe go to Kentucky. If not Kentucky, then we will supplement to the Breeders Crown.”

The Grade 3 Allerage Open Mare Pace is slated for Oct. 10 at The Red Mile.

Game changer: Owleo's Pride another McFlirty boon for Stonecipher

by James Platz

Homebred Owleo's Pride got her first taste of Grand Circuit action last Friday (Sept. 25) at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino. The 2-year-old pacing filly aced the test with a dominant wire-to-wire performance. Sent off as the favorite in the $200,000 Grade 2 Kentuckiana Stallion Management Stake, the Ricky Macomber, Jr.-trained and Trace Tetrick-steered freshman romped by nine lengths in 1:51.1.

Fortunes can rise or fall on the output of one horse. Owner/breeder Jim Stonecipher has witnessed that personally. And while the exploits of Owleo's Pride during her freshman campaign have been formidable, it is her dam, McFlirty, that has been a catalyst for an extended string of success for both Stonecipher and partners Ricky and Jamie Macomber.

"McFlirty has kept me alive in the business," said Stonecipher one day removed from Owleo's Pride's graded stakes victory. "She definitely changed things for me."

His involvement in harness racing began two decades ago. At the time, the Tipton, IN resident was managing a radio station. He could see the writing on the wall that his days in the business were numbered.

"We were going through a lot of transitions, a lot of takeovers, and I made it through four takeovers," Stonecipher said. "The next time I had about a two-year window and I knew they were going to fire me. So, I was looking for something to do in retirement."

A friend that owned horses recommended he consider getting into the business. Stonecipher did, and over the last 20 years he has consistently campaigned horses at Hoosier Park.

"I've had a lot of horses, as many as 17 at one time," he said. "That was way too many. I bought horses at the yearling sale each year for several years and just tried to pick out good ones. Some of them were so-so. My very first horse was Tyson L. He was a very nice pacer and he did really well for me. I had a trotter that I bought out of The Meadows, his name was Wen-Mar's Chip, and he also did really well for me."

When Stonecipher purchased McArdle—Face The Table mare McFlirty in June 2012, he could not have imagined the ramifications. The 6-year-old mare had already earned $270,000 in her career when she was claimed at Hoosier Park. The next week she won her debut for Stonecipher. Trained by Jace Sundeen, the mare won three times to finish out the season, earning $57,800.

Jim Stonecipher.

As a 7-year-old, McFlirty won five of 24 starts, banking another $59,500. During her 8-year-old campaign, the mare moved to the Ron Burke barn and later to Jamie Macomber, who managed Burke's Indiana string. Over 18 starts, McFlirty hit the board 11 times with six victories. She took her mark of 1:49.3, won multiple filly and mare invites at Hoosier Park, and finished the season with $63,800 in purses.

"McFlirty was all heart," said Jamie Macomber. "Every time she went to the track, she aimed to please. She always gave 100 per cent."

The mare was retired three starts into her 9-year-old season, and while Stonecipher had never kept a mare for breeding, he entered a new phase of the business.

"She was such a good mare that I wanted to keep her and breed her and just see what the future held," said the septuagenarian. "It has turned out extremely well."

Stonecipher and the Macomers are partners on each foal that McFlirty has produced. To date, she has produced six winners from her first seven foals – two by Fred And Ginger and the rest sired by JK Endofanera – with all offspring earning a combined $815,319.

"She's been quite the producer," Stonecipher said. "You know, she's 20 years old now and she's in foal again. She's been remarkable. She's been able to catch every time, and she's just a pleasure to have."

Before the emergence of Owleo's Pride, brother Flirtin Jk showed the fastest freshman mile of the group, pacing in 1:52.1. The 13-time winner is also the richest of the bunch, with $235,676 on his card, and he is still racing. Flirtin Fanera is next on the list with nine wins and $201,687 in earnings. She is also retired to broodmare duties and was bred this spring to Breeders Crown champion and new Indiana stallion Sippinonsearoc.

"This year's 2-year-old crop of fillies in Indiana is a phenomenal crop. It's probably been one of the best they've ever had. In fact, the girls are going faster than the boys. This year is tough, but [Owleo's Pride] is just like her mother [McFlirty]. She does everything you ask of her and she has guts."

McFlirty (Ricky Macomber, Jr.) winning in 2014 at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

While all but one of McFlirty's foals have found the winner's circle, Owleo's Pride has shown to be the brightest star yet in the family. In seven seasonal starts, the filly has registered three wins and has not finished off the board while taking a 1:49.4 freshman mark winning an Indiana Sires Stakes leg in late August. She is named for Stonecipher's grandsons, Owen and Leo.

"She's good gaited, has a good attitude, and loves her job," said Ricky Macomber.

That Owleo's Pride has managed two wins among her Indiana-sired peers speaks less to her ability and more to the cumulative depth of the division this year. Foes Fitterjake (1:49.2), Kountry Legacy (timed in 1:49.2), Mystical Jk (timed in 1:49.4), and Era Dominance (timed in 1:50) have routinely outshined their male counterparts in Indiana Sires Stakes.

"This year's 2-year-old crop of fillies in Indiana is a phenomenal crop," Stonecipher said. "It's probably been one of the best they've ever had. In fact, the girls are going faster than the boys. This year is tough, but 'Owleo' is just like her mother. She does everything you ask of her and she has guts."

Sent off as the favorite in the Kentuckiana Stallion Management Stake, Owleo's Pride and Tetrack dropped in third through the :26.1 first panel before brushing to the top. Clicking off fractions of :55.2 and 1:23, she distanced herself from the field in the second turn and won handily in 1:51.1 to collect her third seasonal score and improve her earnings to $196,280.

in the business. She definitely changed things for me.”*

— Jim Stonecipher

Owleo's Pride is back in action this evening, drawing the rail in the first of two Indiana Sires Stakes divisions for freshman fillies, the last leg before the $250,000 Super Final scheduled for Oct. 9. Racing back in less than a week is not ideal, particularly when she has drawn in against Kountry Legacy (post 2) and Fitterjake (post 3), but there is strategy involved. With Tetrack committed to Kountry Legacy, Dexter Dunn will get some seat time behind the filly leading into the championship.

"Dexter is going to drive her in the final," Jamie Macomber said. "This is a good opportunity for him to get a feel for her."

The Red Mile and the Kentucky Futurity, Part 1

by Bob Heyden

It's that time of year again. With a later than usual opening on Oct. 1, the Kentucky Futurity is just the opposite with an Oct. 3 date moved up so as not to conflict with the Breeders Crown.

First a few Red Mile notes before diving into the final Triple Crown race of 2026 and 525th ever.

FOR THE RECORD

- This year marks a full decade since the 2016 Always B Miki 1:46 record mile for the ages.
- In 1980 — 46 years ago today — Niatross posted his epic time trial of 1:49.1. He did not race at The Red Mile that year after a freshman season that saw six of 13 races in Kentucky including the last four at The Red Mile.
- Sunday marks 13 years since the still-standing Shebestingin record 1:47 mile was posted with David Miller and Joe Holloway in addition to owners Val D'or, Ted Gewertz, and L and L Devisser. No filly in the last 13 years has gone as fast.
- Looking at the current track records set in Lexington, only one has been set this year: Odds On Chesapeake (1:47.3) on Aug. 24 for a 4-year-old pacing mare.
- Seven existing track standards were set in 2025, the most of any year.
- Mission Brief set the 2YOTF mark of 1:50.3 in 2014 that still stands. Her son Apex has just reset the Hambletonian record to 1:49.2.
- Dexter Dunn has the most of any driver with five track records, with Todd McCarthy Yannick Gingras, and David Miller all with four. Ron Burke heads the conditioning side with six, followed closely by Ake Svanstedt with five (four of five driving), and Brett Pelling with four. Speaking of Pelling, 2026 marks the 35th anniversary of his first Tattersalls with Stoneridge Scooter.
- From the oddity dept, no trotter who holds a current track record at The Red Mile has ever been HOY!

KENTUCKY FUTURITY FACTS

- It's the 525th Triple Crown event in history.
- The first two trotting legs have been won by a 33- and a 34-year-old Swedish born star: Lucas Wallin and Marcus Melander, respectively.
- 36 fillies have captured the Futurity but none in 34 years.
- In 2014, Jimmy Takter did what Marcus Melander has a shot at duplicating in 2026, capture the Hambletonian and the Oaks then double up with a Kentucky Futurity and the Filly Futurity.
- Walner is on a roll having sired the last three Triple Crown race winners: Emoticon Legacy in last year's Kentucky Futurity followed by Inexpressable in the Yonkers Trot and Apex in this year's Hambletonian. Remember Walner himself only had a pair of 3YO starts in 2017 before embarking on a storied stallion career.
- Erv Miller's Manofmanymissions won the 2011 Kentucky Futurity 15 years ago for the third leading money-winning trainer of all time.
- Does anyone have a better Kentucky Futurity story to tell than Donato Hanover in 2007? He came in with 17-straight victories and was nine-for-nine as a sophomore. Then he twice set his lifetime mark that day in a straight heat score: 1:51.1 followed by a world record 1:50 1. It turned out to be his last visit to the winner's circle and he was easily voted HOY.
- Can anyone find Joe Sbrocco-like good karma? Sbrocco was in the 2023 and 2024 Kentucky Futurity winner's circle with two different ownership groups: Tactical Approach and then Sig Sauer.
- Or can someone duplicate the Pacing, Trotting Triple Crown Daley double three weeks apart that Noel Daley posted in 2024 with Captain Albano in the Jug and then Sig Sauer in The Red Mile fabled chair.

- In the 524 previous Triple Crown events nobody as young as Peter Haughton, 22, who won this race in 1976 with Quick Pay foiling his dad Billy's Triple Crown bid with Steve Lobell. Peter showed two years later it was no fluke winning again with Doublemint.
- The last two Filly Futurities have gone identical 1:50.1 miles: Delaney Hanover and R Melina.
- In 2022 there was an epic battle between the ladies, a pair of stars who were only previewing what was to come: Jiggy Jog S over Joviality S.
- Todd McCarthy has taken two of the last five Filly Futurities while his brother Andy has two of the last five Futurities.

FUTURITY-HOY COMBO

- Scott Frost did it first in 1955 then repeated at 4.
- Emily's Pride used her decision in the Futurity as the decider come ballot time as she was tied in first place votes at 28 with Belle Acton.
- Speedy Scot dominated in 1963 in a no brainer.
- Nevele Pride was the same in 1968 with his HOY season sandwiched in between two others making him then, and now, the only three-time trotting HOY.

- Fancy Crown absolutely needed the Futurity and had to survive a long inquiry and did so to hold off Nihilator and On The Road Again in the final tally.
- Glidemaster's win in the then middle leg of the Triple Crown in 2006, left no doubt as to HOY when he sealed the deal in the Yonkers Trot.
- In 2007 the aforementioned Donato Hanover and Muscle Hill in 2009 in his unblemished season for the ages.

HOW SWEDE IT IS FUTURITY STYLE

Will the Swedish training domination continue in 2026? Seven have won the Futurity with Jan Johnson getting it started followed by Per Eriksson and Jimmy and Nancy Takter. Ake Svanstedt set the existing 1:49.1 mark in 2018 with Six Pack. Lucas Wallin took home first prize in 2022 with Rebuff to get his initial Triple Crown score. He followed brother-in-law Marcus Melander who took the 2019 edition with Greenshoe.

BACKSTRETCH WITH GORDON

Backstretch With Gordon: Season premier!

by Gordon Waterstone

First and foremost, let me say I am very excited that I am back for a 2026 edition of Backstretch With Gordon, with this being the 24th year that I have been trolling happenings during the two-week Grand Circuit stand at The Red Mile, the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale, and sometimes the nightlife of Lexington, which some of us call Lex Vegas.

When I signed off from The Red Mile last year, I had noted the possibility that there would be no 2026 version of Backstretch With Gordon. To say I was surprised by the response would be an understatement as I was deluged with texts and phone calls imploring me to continue on. Not only from people I knew, but also from people I did not know. But I had begun thinking that before I wore out my welcome after all these years that I would go out on my own terms.

One person I heard from who I did not know was Luis Willis, who texted me several times that he would sorely miss my columns if I didn't continue. Luis, your words really meant a lot to me and I took them to heart. One person I do know that repeatedly asked when this year's columns were starting was my longtime friend Allan Schott. I've learned over the years that when Allan talks, I need to listen.

So, after consultation with my agents Amy Hollar and Nick Salvi, who got together on behalf of myself and longtime sponsors Steve and Cindy Stewart's Hunterton Farm and Hunterton Sales Agency with HRU editor Dave Briggs ("Boss Dave"), a very generous contract was signed. The deal was so lucrative that I don't have to try and find a way to win a large sum of money like $100,000 in Las Vegas to put food on my table. My agents' commissions were so great that Amy was able to throw a gargantuan party celebrating her wedding anniversary with Buck. And Nick told me that since he didn't want his Saturday nights to be a drag, he's planning on throwing a big party for himself.

The Red Mile has been open for racing for a couple months now, with the cards featuring Kentucky Sire Stakes divisions. Just as a lot of the country has dealt with, the summer has been blazing hot in the Bluegrass. And when it wasn't hot it seemed like we had monster thunderstorms. A couple of cards were canceled due to the rain, and one Sunday night program was shortened by a deluge. That night's storm came with intense lightning, with bolts flashing across the sky.

One of those bolts actually landed in the parking lot near The Red Mile paddock, with Marvin Luna's truck receiving a direct hit. I was told there were a few horsemen nearby who felt the electrical rush when the lightning hit, but it was Marvin's poor truck that felt the brunt. Jumping ahead to Tuesday morning for a sec, I saw Marvin as he was coming off the track and I asked if he had gotten a replacement yet. He went by so fast that I couldn't hear what he was saying, but I believe he told me that his truck was fried and he's still searching for a new one.

While it has been a mostly hot summer in Lexington, fall did seem to arrive last week as high temperatures plummeted from the low 90s to the low 70s, with nighttime lows dipping into the high 40s. But this week things are on the rebound as highs for the first three days of racing that get underway on Thursday (Oct. 1) are back in the 80s. In fact, we could actually see a high of 90 on Friday. But we then pay a price as the forecast for Saturday's Kentucky Futurity day program is rain and cooler temps in the 70s.

As noted, racing will be held Thursday, Friday, and Saturday afternoons this year, with a first-race post time of 1 p.m. While the historic Kentucky Futurity has been held the second weekend, this year it has been moved up to the first weekend. The Lexington Selected Yearling Sale will get underway at 7 p.m. on Monday night (Oct. 5), continuing with 11 a.m. sessions on Tuesday and Wednesday (Oct. 6-7), and wrapping up Thursday night (Oct. 8) at 7 p.m. following the races.

I made my first trip this year to The Red Mile backstretch on Tuesday, and my commute to the track was a breeze. That was a result of the Lexington public schools being on fall break this week (students will return to class next Tuesday, Oct. 6). Also, the University of Kentucky football team plays at South Carolina on Saturday so we won't have that traffic to contend with. But UK returns home on Saturday, Oct. 10 for a 7 p.m. game against LSU, so that conflicts a bit with The Red Mile's closing-day program.

My first stop at The Red Mile Tuesday was of course to the breakfast table, with the offerings generously supplied by my sponsors Hunterton Farm. Chris Tully was hard at work trying to keep the area clean, and Agent Nick was actually waiting for me, telling me to sit at one of the tables while he brought me coffee and donuts. Nick kept asking if he could get me anything else but I told him I had to start walking around to see what was happening.

While the historic Kentucky Futurity has been held the second weekend, this year it has been moved up to the first weekend (Oct. 3). The Lexington Selected Yearling Sale will get underway at 7 p.m. on Monday night (Oct. 5), continuing with 11 a.m. sessions on Tuesday and Wednesday (Oct. 6-7), and wrapping up Thursday night (Oct. 8) at 7 p.m. following the races.

As I've done through the years, my first stop was at the back of the barn area where I popped in to see Roxie, who is Joe Holloway assistant Diane Lewis' dog. I congratulated Diane on being named the Caretaker of the Year at The Red Mile. My journey on Tuesday also consisted of stopping by to see Andrew Harris Stable assistant Kayla Chappell, who was recently honored as the Caretaker of the Year at Oak Grove.

Kayla, who you hopefully read about in the Sept. 20 HRU in a great article written by Victoria Howard, also has a dog at her side. And I was honored to meet Woodford, who just last Sunday afternoon captured the Corgi Cup Championship final at The Red Mile.

In my travels, Joe Holloway helped immensely when he offered a ride in his golf cart. I think I'm a bit out of shape (no extra comments please) and wasn't ready for what turned into a mile-and-a-half trek around the backstretch Tuesday. Joe dropped me back off near the breakfast table, which was about empty by then.

Horsepeople coming off the track and saying hello included Andy and Julie Miller, Linda Toscano, Chris Ryder, Phil Knox and PJ Fraley. Trackman Dan was lurking nearby so we talked for a second. By the way, the track lights are being turned on at 5 a.m. so people can train and then head out to look at yearlings for the upcoming sale.

I needed a break so I went into the shack that Chris Tully and Emily Ratcliff call their office. Emily came in and we spoke for a few minutes, and I had a chance to get a sneak peek at the program cover which has photos of Hambletonian champ and runner-up Apex and Big Ranger, respectively, who appear to be on course to meet up again in the Kentucky Futurity.

I need to stop here for a second and give mad props to Emily. In her role as director of sponsorships, she follows Charlie Bowen and Cindy Solverson. And Emily has done an outstanding job, one that I believe surpasses her iconic predecessors. Emily was the emcee at last week's luncheon that formally announced that the 2027 Breeders Crown races will be coming to The Red Mile. Emily's hard work paid off handsomely as attending dignitaries included Lexington Mayor Linda Gorton and former Kentucky State Senator Damon Thayer, the latter of whom was instrumental in securing state funding to help bring the Crown races to Lexington.

I'll be back Wednesday at The Red Mile as I plan on attending the Futurity draw (that I'm sure will once again be hosted by Emily) that will be held at noon in The Red Mile clubhouse. I'm excited to see who joins Apex and Big Ranger (who was supplemented to the race). I'm also excited to see Brandon Blvd, arguably one of the favorites to be voted 2026 Horse of the Year, in Bluegrass 3YOCP action on Saturday, and I saw Tuesday morning that Beau Jangles, the 2025 Horse of the Year in the U.S. and Canada, will also be making the trip to compete in the Bluegrass 3YOCP.

As I was walking out, I ran into Carter Pinske so he and I chatted for a couple of minutes. Because there's a lot going on this year during these two weeks and I've already written a lot here, I'll fill you in more when I return in Friday's HRU. The Thursday race card features several divisions of the Bluegrass 2YOFP and 2YOCT, and remember post time is 1 p.m.

Lastly, I looked at last year's first Backstretch column and it was noted gas prices were between $2.74 and $2.79. Alas, this morning a gallon of gas cost $4.24. My great friend Bill Bigler, who spent the past few weeks in Lexington with his wife, Orietta, as they watched their 2-year-old filly Bluegrass Babe race in Sire Stakes events, asked me to include the price of diesel. How does $6.69 a gallon sound Bill?

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Record breaking day for Griselda in Massachusetts Breeder Stakes at Plainridge Park

by Tim Bojarski for the Standardbred Owners of Massachusetts

Plainridge Park was host to the $3.2 million (est.) Massachusetts Breeder Stakes on Monday (Sept. 28) as the first leg of competition for 2-year-old state-breds of both gaits and sexes lined up for a total of $381,600 in purses.

Despite the Nor'easter that had hampered the East Coast over the weekend, the track was in great shape, thanks to the hard work of the track crew who worked diligently for two days to ensure a top-notch racing surface, which ended up yielding five new lifetime marks. Also, outstanding performances were put forth by Yannick Gingras, who had a grand slam at the lines, and Domenico Cecere, who had a training double during the afternoon.

But the big story of the day was the 2-year-old pacing filly, Griselda (American Ideal—Bronskimackenzie A), who etched her name in the record books several times as a result of her performance in one of three $42,000 legs.

Griselda (Dexter Dunn) got away fourth as Silver Sands (Nick Graffam) and Chase News Network (Brett Beckwith) battled to the quarter in :27.1. Silver Sands won that tussle and continued on top to the half in :56, with Chase News Network tucked in second. As they motored up the backstretch, Miss Chevious (Gingras) pulled first over and Griselda followed right on her back. Miss Chevious burst to the front before three-quarters and had the lead heading into the turn. But Miss Chevious made a bobble halfway through that bend and Griselda was guided three-wide around her. Griselda easily took the lead at that point and swelled up in the stretch, pacing away by 4¾ lengths in 1:52.1.

The time of 1:52.1 was a new lifetime mark for Griselda, a new track and stakes record for 2-year-old pacing fillies at Plainridge Park, and also made Griselda the fastest 2-year-old pacing filly ever bred in the state of Massachusetts.

Griselda ($7.20) is owned, bred, and trained by Tahnee Camilleri. The first $42,000 leg was won by Stayoutofmylane (Stay Hungry—Gold Orchid N), who prevailed after a hard-fought finish.

Siri (Matty Athearn) took a quick lead off the gate before Stayoutofmylane (Beckwith) moved from third to take the lead at the :28.1 quarter. Positions remained unchanged to the half, where Maggi Lynn tipped out from third and pushed for the front. As they passed three-quarters in 1:25.4, Stayoutofmylane and Maggi Lynn were matching strides and continued too around the turn. Then as they turned for home, Siri tipped three-high into the middle of the track and drew alongside Stayoutofmylane. The two battled to the line where Stayoutofmylane hung on by a neck and won in 1:55, which was a lifetime mark.

Stayoutofmylane is owned and bred by George Ducharme Stable, Jim Winslow, and Dr. Mean Moschgat, and trained by George Ducharme.

This was a non-betting event.

The third leg went for $42,400 and was won by Lindy Believer (Captaintreacherous—Believe Its Lindy), who was an easy, runaway winner.

Sweetness Lindy (Beckwith) took the early lead and held it to the quarter before Lindy Believer (Gingras) pulled from third and bolted to the front. Lindy Believer passed the half and then had to deal with Lula (Kevin Switzer, Jr.), who came first-over and paced alongside her to three-quarters. As the field moved through the turn, Lula tired and Lindy Believer started pulling away. At the top of the stretch, Lindy Believer was long gone and crossed the line first by 8½ lengths in 1:53.1, home in a sparkling :26.4.

Lindy Believer ($2.20) is owned by Engblom Farm, R A W Equine, Evans Nation, and Hickory Hollow Stable and trained by Petter Engblom. Lindy Farms of Connecticut bred the winner.

The trotting fillies were next and the first $42,400 leg was won by Easy Peasy (International Moni—O So Easy) who made her first lifetime start in the stake.

Easy Peasy (Gingras) got away third as Seen Lindy (Beckwith) set fractions of :29.2, :58.2, and 1:29.1, while Halo Lindy (Tyler Miller) tracked from second and Sensitivity (Graffam) chased from the outside, third. As the race moved off the far turn and into the stretch, Halo Lindy pulled and edged in front of Seen Lindy. But Easy Peasy moved to the center of the track and trotted by them both to win by 1¼ lengths in 1:58.4, to take a lifetime mark.

Easy Peasy ($32.20) is owned by John Di Antonio, Jr. and trained by Barry Segal. Moni Maker Stable bred the winner.

The second $42,800 leg went to Nanny's Ce Ce (Muscle Hill—Bomb Hugger) who was an easy winner on the front.

Nanny's Ce Ce (Jeff Gregory) got away third as Ma's Always Right (Gingras) struck the point from post seven and reached the quarter in :30.3. But Nanny's Ce Ce was out and rolling in front of the stands and grabbed the front before the half. Nanny's Ce Ce then rolled to three-quarters while Luxe Lindy (Miller) made a bid from third, trotting alongside the leader through the last turn. But at the top of the stretch, Nanny's Ce Ce found another gear and flew home in :27.4 to win by two lengths in 1:57.2.

Nanny's Ce Ce ($3.40) is owned and bred by Jesmeral Stable and trained by her driver, Jeff Gregory.

The trotting colts and geldings went in two splits and the first $42,000 leg was won by Once Upon Lindy (International Moni—Origin Story), who got a perfect trip to reel in the win.

Maxman (Dunn) took the lead from post 1 and set fractions of :30.4, :59.4, and 1:28.1, while Sparkling Lindy (Matt Kakaley) and Once Upon Lindy (Gingras) followed closely behind. As they passed three-quarters, Once Upon Lindy pulled first-over into the turn and made her way to the front by the top of the stretch. From there, Once Upon Lindy trotted home clear, by 2¼ lengths ahead of Sparkling Lindy, in a career best 1:56.3, with a sharp :27.4 kicker.

Once Upon Lindy ($5.40) is owned and bred by K R Breeding and trained by Cecere.

In the second $42,000 leg, Two Fifty (Walner—Highscore Kemp) lived up to the 1-9 hype to score the win.

On Tap Lindy (Beckwith) grabbed the front and motored to the quarter in :31.1. That prompted Two Fifty (Dunn) to pull from third and take control by three lengths before they passed the half in 1:02. Positions remained unchanged to three-quarters, around the last turn and into the stretch, where Two Fifty easily made his way home on top by 2¼ lengths in a lifetime best, 2:01.3.

Two Fifty ($2.10) is owned and bred by K R Breeding and trained by Cecere.

The final two events were for pacing colts and geldings.

The first $42,800 division was won by Takes Courage (American Courage—Norinoro Hanover), who put in a convincing performance.

Takes Courage (Kakaley) went right to the lead and never looked back. With Sting Me (Mitchell Cushing) sitting in a tight pocket, Takes Courage stopped the clock in :28.1, :58.1, and 1:27.2 before heading into the final bend. At the top of the stretch, Sting Me tipped out and took a run at the leader. But Takes Courage turned back the challenge and paced home clear by a length in 1:54.3.

Takes Courage ($2.60) is owned and bred by Fiddler's Creek Stable and trained by Travis Alexander.

The second division was won by Bacchus Blue Chip (American Ideal—Sunnynseventyfive), who tripped-out to a strong finish.

Bacchus Blue Chip (Gingras) got away second to Bastonata Bluechip (Kakaley), who got to the quarter in :27.3. As they rolled to the half, Top Notch Treasure (Bruce Ranger) ambled up the outside and drew near Bastonata Bluechip at the half, and then continued to push the leader to three-quarters, which was reached in 1:26.4. Top Notch Treasure started to fade in the last turn, leaving a clear lane for Bacchus Blue Chip to pull, who took full advantage when they entered the lane. Bacchus Blue Chip tipped out and paced up to Bastonata Bluechip, and then pushed ahead to the front and won by a half-length in 1:54.2.

Bacchus Blue Chip ($2.40) is owned by Burke Racing Stable, Lawrence Karr, Libby and Purnel, and Frank Baldachino and trained by Ron Burke. Blue Chip Bloodstock bred the winner.

Lou's Starr sets all-time track pacing mark at Shenandoah Downs, his second track record in five days

by Darrell Wood

Dan Chansky's Lou's Starr triggered his second track record of the week — at two different ovals — when he wired the field in a $10,000 conditioned pace Saturday (Sept. 26) at Shenandoah Downs in 1:51.1, the fastest mile ever recorded at the Woodstock half-miler. The 4-year-old Sweet Lou horse shattered the previous best — which he authored last fall — by three-fifths-of-a-second. The winner, who recorded quarter fractions in :27.55.4, and 1:23.1, is trained by Scott Warnick and was driven by Corey Braden.

On Monday (Sept. 21), Lou's Starr erased a record at Rosecroft Raceway that was authored by Jenna's Beach Boy 30 years ago. The star pacer completed the mile in a $13,000 open handicap pace in 1:49 — two-fifths-of-a-second faster than the Hall of Famer's previous 4-year-old pacing mark.

Trainer Scott Warnick spoke about the past week and his attention deserving pacer.

"It's been incredible," he said. "He's a very special kind of horse. I can't ask for any better. He makes a bad trainer look good. I'm going to give him a couple weeks off and point him to something next."

Asked if he felt Lou's Starr always had this potential, Warnick said, "When he was 2, I envisioned a really nice 3-year-old pacer from the work we put into him and what we paid for him. He's done it all himself. It's been a ride. He's taken us places I never thought I'd be. It's been fun."

A four-pack of Virginia Sire Stake prep races for 2-year-olds took center stage over the weekend. Tremaine Harding's Dance With Jenni captured the filly trot in 2:01.4, crossing 7¼ lengths ahead of stablemate Queen Jessica. Billy Carter drove the winner and Eric Davis piloted the runner-up — both for trainer Mike Whitaker.

Richard Havens' Andy's Disaster took the colt trot prep in 2:06.1, his fourth victory in five career starts. Trainer Chrissy Johnson drove the winner to a 4¾ length triumph. All four of Andy's Disaster's wins have come at the Woodstock oval — two during the current pari-mutuel meet and two at the county fair meet that was held the week leading up to Labor Day. Tracy Bradshaw's TNT Jabony was second and Arthur Hauser's Opie Taylor took third.

Jonda Smith's Ballarddrgoldfng captured Sunday's (Sept. 27) VASS prep for freshman male pacers, edging Joe Chindano's Ohh Hey Bud by a half-length in 2:00.1. The 2-year-old Doctor Butch gelding crossed in 2:00.1 with trainer/driver Archie Buford in the sulky. The winner is now four-for-eight with earnings of $42,500. Chindano's Ohh Nice finished third.

In the fillies division, John Pyott's Nurse Nippy went wire-to-wire in 2:01.1 besting Patrick Press's Miss Diagnosed by 1¼ lengths. The winning Doctor Butch filly is trained by Bryson Dunning and was driven by William Carter.

The Virginia Sire Stakes finals will be contested in Woodstock on Saturday (Oct. 3). Purses in each of the four divisions will be $100,000 (est.).

DSBF action headlines Monday Harrington card

by Matt Sparacino / Harrington Raceway

A trio of first leg $20,000 Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund (DSBF) divisions for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings headlined the Monday (Sept. 28) program at Harrington Raceway.

The top 8 point earners from two rounds of eliminations will return to compete in the $110,000 final on Oct. 12.

Owner Forrest Bartlett's Hawaiian Warfare ($2.10, driven by Mike Cole) continued a promising start to his young career with his fifth win in six career starts, holding off a charge from Blue Jay's Watchin for the win in 1:55.4. Dm's Delight was third. Trained by Erin Nielson, the U S Captain gelding will bid for his fifth straight win next week in the second leg.

Earl's Watching ($14.80, Brandon Givens) won the next division for owner Donna Messick, and trainer Les Givens in 1:57.4. The Highalator gelding picked up his first career win off a pocket trip over He's Soaring and Crown Apple Beach. Jo Ann Looney-King's Bootcamp Baby ($4.60, Allan Davis) won the final division in 1:56 for trainer Jim King, Jr. The He's Watching gelding was a front-end victor over Aeneas and Beachalator. It was his second career triumph.

In the $18,000 open II, Legacy Racing of Delaware and Reggie Hazzard's Armada Hanover ($4.20, Brandon Givens) was a 1:53 winner for trainer Wayne Givens.

Brandon Givens had five wins on the card, with three for trainer Wayne Givens.

Penelope Morgan and Dan Munson's Ridin The Waves ($6, Tony Morgan) won his seventh-straight race for trainer/co-owner Munson in 1:54.2 in a $25,000 claiming event.

Ontario SIRE STAKES REPORT

Beau Jangles tops OSS standings with third Gold victory of the year

by Dave Briggs / Ontario Racing

Beau Jangles claimed top spot in the Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) 2026 divisional standings with a 1:49.3 victory in the lone $150,000 OSS Gold leg 5 division for sophomore pacing colts held on Monday night (Sept. 28) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

With the victory in the final Gold leg of the season, Beau Jangles – who also won the first and fourth Gold legs – solidified his lead over Little Brown Jug champ Redland Rocket Man in the OSS standings. Entering the race, “Beau” was just six points ahead of Redland Rocket Man, who did not participate in Monday’s event.

Sent off as the 1-9 favorite in the field of 10, Beau Jangles was eased off the gate by James MacDonald and sat third on the outside in the early going as Borderline Mobby (Louis-Philippe Roy), followed by Mega Moves (Mark MacDonald), led the group to the :27.2 opening quarter. James pulled Beau Jangles not long after the field straightened out of the first turn and the pair was on top before the :56 half. Beau Jangles stayed there the rest of the way, through the 1:23.3 three-quarters, with a final quarter in :26, to seal a three-quarter-length victory over Borderline Mobby, who was the only horse still in close pursuit at the wire. Mega Moves finished nine lengths back in third, followed by Dax Seelster (Daryl Thiessen) and Windor (Mike Vanderkemp).

By finishing second and earning 25 points, Borderline Mobby jumped over Redland Rocket Man into second place in the OSS standings.

Beau Jangles (James MacDonald) winning the lone $150,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold Leg 5 race for 3-year-old pacing colts on Monday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Beau Jangles' latest Gold win came a little over two weeks after he finished third to Redland Rocket Man on Sept. 12 in the $140,000 Grade 3 Simcoe at Woodbine Mohawk Park won in a 1:46.4 Canadian record mile. That start proceeded Redland Rocket Man's two-heat victory on Sept. 24 in the $650,000 Grade 1 Little Brown Jug.

"In the last start we were rolling along, looked pretty good, and [Beau Jangles] got picked off by a couple nice horses," MacDonald told Woodbine broadcaster John Rallis in the winner's circle. "[Beau Jangles] kind of dropped the bit on me when he was rolling along, and I was hoping I could get him on a helmet [tonight] even if it was five steps. I just wanted to kind of get the blood flowing and let him kind of get focused on the race. When he came out of the hole, he was a lot more business today.

"He's so quiet when he makes the front, he just kind of goes to sleep on you, and then when I called on him, he came back to life. So, it was good to see."

Beau Jangles paid $2.10 to win.

Watch the race replay here.

Beau Jangles' trainer, Dr. Ian Moore, said the colt will now head to Kentucky to race in a Bluegrass at The Red Mile on Saturday (Oct. 3) on the same card as the Kentucky Futurity.

"I was just telling James before the race, most recently [Beau Jangles has] got really nice to be around to train," Moore said. "He's two fingers and straight as a string. I just chirp to him, warming up, and he takes off finishing the way he used to be when he started out as a 2-year-old. I think the last month he's returned to that form for us. I'm going to go home tonight and enter him for Lexington and the Bluegrass on Saturday. It's coming back in five days, but I trained him lightly last week, and I think he'll be up to the task. We'll ship him down there Friday morning to race Saturday afternoon."

Beau Jangles, who was a perfect 12-for-12 as a 2-year-old, improved to 17-0-3 in 24 lifetime starts. The $75,000 payday pushed his career earnings to $2,127,657. The son of Cattlewash out of Mrs Major Hill is now 5-0-3 in 12 starts in 2026. He has earned $438,907 this year.

Bred by Tara Hills Stud of Port Perry, ON, Beau Jangles was purchased for $65,000 out of the Preferred Equine consignment at the 2024 Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling sale in Harrisburg, PA by the Graham Grace Stables of Clifton, VA, Kiwi Stables of La Plata, MD, and Bolton Stables of Clermont, FL.

With Gold legs now complete, the final standings in the division are as follows:

1. Beau Jangles – 158
2. Borderline Mobby – 120
3. Redland Rocket Man – 102
4. No Waitlist – 50
5. Odds On Bullfrog – 20
6. Wholetthedogsout – 12

Highfield is a diversified Alberta-based investment and development company with nearly 50 years of experience creating long-term value across multiple industries, including real estate, hotel and hospitality, agriculture, property management, and energy services. The company also brings more than 20 years of direct experience in thoroughbred breeding, ownership, and racing operations in Western Canada.

The acquisition adds established racing entertainment assets in a sector that continues to carry meaningful provincial economic impact. A 2019 study found Alberta's horse racing industry contributed $311.7 million in total economic impact, including $157.1 million in direct expenditures, while supporting 1,506 full-time equivalent jobs across the province.

"We see strong long-term potential in these operations and believe they are an excellent strategic fit with our experience in hospitality, operations, and horse racing," said Adrian Munro, president of Highfield

Investment Group. "We are making a significant investment in Alberta because we believe in the continued growth of this business and in the long-term value it can create."

Munro added that Highfield's principals are appreciative of Century Casinos' role in Alberta's racing sector.

"We are thankful to Century Casinos for its significant investment in Alberta's horse racing business and for the platform it has established," he said.

Munro leads Highfield's strategic direction and diversified operations and serves as president of the Canadian Thoroughbred

Horse Society. He is joined by Paul Ryneveld, vice president of Racing

Entertainment Centres, a veteran racing and gaming executive with 38 years of experience in North American horseracing, track operations, racetrack redevelopment, and regulatory environments.

The transaction is subject to customary closing conditions and regulatory approvals.

Clarifying Meadowlands yearling eligibility

For anyone interested in competing in the big events at The Meadowlands during 2027, it is imperative that they are aware that only yearlings from stallions nominated on Feb. 15, 2026, are eligible to race at the mile oval.

“We plan to do the same thing next year by asking the stallion owners to contribute a full annual stud fee, which will make foals of 2026 yearlings of 2027 eligible to race in 2028,” said Meadowlands chief operating officer/general manager Jason Settlemyer.

Every dollar of every payment will go into the stakes event purse pool.

Simpson stakes series starts at Pocono

The John Simpson, Sr. stakes series, honoring the Hall of Fame horseman and breeding executive with a race in each of the eight stakes categories named after a horse with whom he was associated in his career, opened its annual stay at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania on Saturday (Sept. 26) with the Albatross, with three $30,000 divisions for sophomore pacing males. The atmospheric conditions may not have been the greatest (moist, cool, and windy), but the racing certainly was first-rate.

“I really didn’t expect a 1:49 mile today,” said Pocono announcer Jim Beviglia, but that’s exactly what was delivered by the Downbytheseaside gelding Gentleman’s Club in winning his cut. Like most winners on the day, Gentleman’s Club, just a head off in third in the Meadowlands Pace, came from behind, grinding up after fractions of :26.4, :54, and 1:21.3 to seize the lead approaching the head of the stretch and draw off by five lengths. Andrew McCarthy had the drive behind the winner of $486,406 for trainer Aaron Lambert and owner Anthony Licastro.

McCarthy took a second victory with the only non-favorite of the stakes trio, tucking third with the Papi Rob Hanover gelding Callmebigpapi and staying pylon bound through fractions of :26.4, :55.3, and 1:23.4. The outer tiers stalled, favored Superchamp Hanover looked ready to pounce from the Pocono Pike – only to get outclosed to his left by the winner, fifth at the stretch call but kicking home himself in :27 to edge Superchamp Hanover at 7-1 by a half-length while tying his mark of 1:51.1 for trainer Noel Daley and the ownership of Patricia Stables LLC, L. A. Express Stable LLC, Sjoebloom Racing Inc, and Michael Dolan.

The Captaintreacherous gelding Another C Note, who won three legs of his Sire Stakes in May, is still going on well in September, recording his 11th victory of the year with a three-quarter-length tally over Highland B Best in 1:50.1. “B Best” quarter-moved after a :27 opener and put up middle splits of :55.1 and 1:23.1, but Another C Note kept on coming despite an uncovered journey and got the decision for the leading driver and trainer at Pocono, Tyler Buter and Ron Burke, and the partnership of Burke Racing Stable LLC and Weaver Brussemi LLC, Let It Ride Stable Inc, and Scott Dillon.

A $25,000 fast-class pace went to one of the few speed horses to hold to the wire, the So Surreal gelding

Splash Brother, who fired off fractions of :26.2, :55, and 1:22.3, then was held together by driver Braxten Boyd for a three-quarters-of-a-length margin at the 1:50.1 finish for trainer Ray Schnittker, co-owner with Nolamaura Racing LLC, Steven Arnold, and Tammy Flannery. The victory was the fourth in the last five starts for Splash Brother; the only horse to beat him recently, Congressional, again raced in the pocket behind the winner but this time could not catch him, and indeed was placed third for a pylon violation.

Trainer Darren Taneyhill was the biggest winner on the day, visiting Victory Lane four times. Three drivers had driving doubles, with Brett Beckwith the only one of this quartet to win with a Taneyhill horse; the other two-time winners were Braxten Boyd and stakes doubler Andrew McCarthy.

Windemere Skye makes it 23 straight in Summerside

Windemere Skye kept her perfect record intact Sunday afternoon (Sept. 27) at Red Shores at the Summerside Raceway, winning her 23rd race in as many career starts.

The 3-year-old pacing filly led throughout the \$27,200 Lady Slipper Stakes Gold division in race 17 and drew away in the stretch by $3\frac{3}{4}$ lengths in 1:53.2.
