Latest chapter in Jeffrey Snyder's story worth more than a million

by Debbie Little

MEADOWLANDS MATTERS

with DEBBIE LITTLE

For a change of pace a few years ago, owner Jeffrey Snyder embarked on a new chapter in his harness racing career when he decided to focus on trotters.

Snyder had been known as a million-dollar man when it came to pacers, having won eight seven-figure races between 1994 and 2009.

But his recent trotting tendency paid off in a big way over the last year, when Apex turned a million-dollar-double winning the 2025 Mohawk Million followed by the 2026 Hambletonian. Then, Super Chapter conquered the world in the $1 million Yonkers International Trot a few weeks ago.

This year's victories by Apex and then Super Chapter in a five-week span pushed Snyder's million-dollar record into double digits.

Although there is no official list for how often an owner has received a seven-figure payday, it seems unlikely that anyone is playing in the same ballpark with Snyder.

When asked how it felt to win back-to-back races worth $1 million in a five-week span Snyder said, "It's not even the money, it's the situation. It's a bit of a nerve-wracking experience.

"We were all running into the winner's circle [after the Hambletonian], my whole family, and then they held up the photo for about 10 minutes.

Jeffrey Snyder and the late Dr. David Goodrow at the 2024 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

“It was extremely nerve-wracking, and then finally, after 10 minutes, they put up the win photo because [Apex] only won by a nose. So, these kinds of races are very stressful to start with, but afterwards, especially a day or two or the week after, you really feel wonderful about it, and admire the accomplishments that these horses have made.”

Snyder owns Apex in partnership with Lennart Agren’s S R F Stable and Steve Stewart, who bred the colt as part of the Mission Brief Stable.

Snyder is the owner with the most wins in the Meadowlands Pace — Cam’s Card Shark (1994), Rocknroll Hanover (2005), and Well Said (2009). All three of those victories occurred when the Pace was worth a million and all three horses had also won the North America Cup, worth a million or more, just a month prior.

Just because Snyder has won back-to-back million-dollar races multiple times doesn’t mean each one isn’t significant.

“It’s never old hat, but this particular horse is very special we think,” Snyder said of Super Chapter. “He’s done it three weeks in a row, and this was a mile and a quarter race and he was devastating the other day [in the International Trot], and he was eased up the last sixteenth.

"He's been going since he was a 2-year-old and he's at the top of his game right now, I would think, beating a lot of the best horses in the world. So, it's very exciting for us."

Snyder gives a lot of credit to his friend, the late Dr. Dave Goodrow, for helping to pick out Super Chapter.

"He went up and looked at him at Hanover," Snyder said. "We all looked at him, and, you know, there was quite a bit of talk at the sale that he was probably the best-looking Chapter Seven. And what led me to him particularly is the mare Lifetime Pursuit who won the Hambletonian Oaks. She earned over a million dollars.

"She had three foals before him, but I like the step up in the breeding to Chapter Seven. That's really what kind of got us interested. We really love Chapter Seven as a sire."

Snyder shares ownership of Super Chapter with Arthur Pronti and Hanover Shoe Farms Inc.

"In terms of partners, first of all I like to buy horses on my own, and I only have up till now," Snyder said of the last few years. "I only have two partners, one is Lennart Agren from Sweden, and the other one is Arthur Pronti. And I never take less than 50 per cent."

Super Chapter, bred by Hanover Shoe Farms, sold at the 2023 Standardbred Horse Sale in Harrisburg for $300,000 under the name Lorax Hanover.

Although the Dr. Seuss character The Lorax speaks for the trees, the name didn't speak to Snyder at the time of the sale.

"I don't know what Lorax means, and it sounds like some sort of detergent," Snyder said with a laugh. "I was thinking Clorox or something."

"Nobody around us knew what that name came from. Normally we don't change names, you know, when they're bred by Hanover, but I just came up with different names, and that was the name I picked, Super Chapter.

"In my business, I name products too, so I'm familiar with naming things. I came up with Super Chapter, and my partner [Arthur Pronti] agreed. There've been so many great horses by Chapter Seven... So, we submitted the name Super Chapter, and the USTA accepted it."

Super Chapter is not Snyder's first foray into the Chapter-verse.

"I had Big Time Chapter and Supreme Chapter, which I named last year, and I had another horse named Next Chapter a few years back," he said. "Super Chapter has been an amazing horse for us."

Hanover came onboard with Super Chapter in July 2025.

"Well, last year I called Hanover and I talked to them about the possibility of standing him as a stallion, and giving them the opportunity to buy into the horse, and they agreed, and the rest is history," Snyder said.

As someone who can often be seen at The Meadowlands watching his horses compete and who owns Jersey-sired horses, Snyder said he's happy about the press release from Meadowlands' owner Jeff Gural about the new races — the million-dollar Meadowlands Trot and $500,000 Meadowlands Oaks Trot – that will take place in 2027.

“It’s amazing,” Snyder said. “I think the timing of the announcement was very smart, creating an upbeat, justifiable mood for the sales and for harness racing in general.”

Both Super Chapter and Apex are in action on Saturday (Oct. 3) in the $250,000 Grade 2 Dayton Derby and $575,000 Grade 1 Kentucky Futurity, respectively.

With the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale set to start on Monday evening (Oct. 5), Snyder will be there with his trusty catalog, but he said there aren’t too many that he has circled.

“I only have a limited number of horses that I look at; usually, they’re on the high-priced side,” he said, adding with a laugh, “I’ve made my notes, I’ve studied the catalogs, I’ve studied the pedigrees, and then I bid on them, and I usually don’t stop, because I don’t buy too many of them. That’s why.

“So, I kind of focus in on the few that I like, you know, rather than looking through so many horses, which after a while, one starts looking like another. So, I won’t even look at horses that don’t appeal to me on paper.”

In addition to Apex and Super Chapter, Snyder also owns top performers Aetos Kronos S and Spencer Hanover.

“What makes me happy is we’re doing this with only a small number of horses,” he said. “Whereas some of these people have 50, 60, 70, 80, 100 horses, we’re doing it with only nine racing currently.

“When you win these races, they’re like the pinnacle of harness racing. To win the Hambletonian or to win the International Trot, which was a mile and a quarter with Super Chapter going wire-to-wire pretty much. It was totally exciting. But again, it’s emotional and stressful until the race starts, and then afterwards, it’s like a relief, but a satisfying relief and you know the effects of it, and the good feeling about it lasts for quite a while.”

BACKSTRETCH WITH GORDON

with GORDON WATERSTONE

Goodbye summer, hello fall

by Gordon Waterstone

The six days of Grand Circuit racing at The Red Mile got underway on Thursday afternoon (Oct. 1), and it was a Chamber of Commerce day in Lexington as the sun shined brightly and the temperature topped out at 87 degrees. But alas, things will be changing as a front is expected to come through overnight, bringing fall-like temperatures and rain.

So, first and foremost, before we get to the racing, let's discuss the weather. Today's (Oct. 2) high is predicted at 75, with afternoon-long rain expected to start around noon. Or in race terms, about an hour before post time. I saw Trackman Dan for a second during the Thursday races and he's getting his work face on as he knows his expertise will be needed to keep the track surface in race-ready condition.

If we get through today unscathed, up next is Saturday's Kentucky Futurity Day card. They say the rain will stop before the sun comes up, with a predicted high of just 60 degrees. As for the rest of these two weeks, daily highs will be right around 70, with lows dipping into the 40s. After a hot summer in the Bluegrass, all I can say is one word: Brrrrrr!

Speaking of the Futurity, I attended the post-position draw at noon in The Red Mile clubhouse, with Emily Ratcliff and Bob Heyden overseeing things. Both the male and female races are dominated by Marcus Melander-trained entries, as he has six in the Futurity and three in the Filly Futurity. The race for the gals changed a bit as a horse was accidentally left out of the field of 11 (the richest of 2026 earn a spot behind the starting gate), but everything is all settled now after a redraw.

I sat at a table with Bill Bigler, who left Lexington last week after being here awhile but returned from his Florida home for the races and yearling sale. There was much anticipation for the Futurity draw which is being billed as the rematch between Apex and Big Ranger, respectively the one-two finishers (by a nose) in the Hambletonian.

Apex, who was co-bred and is co-owned by my column sponsor Steve Stewart (as Hunterton Farm/Hunterton Sales Agency), drew post 7. Meanwhile, Big Ranger landed post 9. The owners Madison Global had to ante up a $75,000 supplemental payment for Big Ranger, which bumped the final purse to $575,000.

I found it ironic that Greg Wright, Jr. came in and sat next to me at the draw. Why? It was the Wright-trained Lujubee who won the 2021 Kentucky Futurity as a $75,000 supplemental entry by owner Jon Erdner. It was great to chat with Greg, who I've known, along with his father Greg, Sr., for many, many years back to my Michigan days at Hazel Park Raceway.

The USTA's COO T.C. Lane was on hand for the draw, as well as most of the members of the publicity/media team. That included Mark Hall, Rich Johnston, Kyle Creditt, and Cheyenne Christman. Missing, and sorely missed by me and everybody, was Wendy Ross. Of course, Wendy has good reason to be MIA as she recently added the title of mother to her stellar resume and she is needed at home to look after young Remy Paul (my middle name is also Paul so I thank Wendy for thinking of me).

Also, a reminder that as a bonus Saturday the Kentucky Futurity will be shown live during the America's Day at the Races on FS2. Emily told me post time is 5:45 p.m. for the Futurity.

One other person at the draw I need to mention is Sal DiMario, the now-retired, former longtime executive director of the Delaware Standardbred Owners Association. Sal is here not only for the races but also for the judges' school (the proper name is too long to mention) for both thoroughbreds and standardbreds.

Speaking of thoroughbreds, Keeneland opens its fall meet on today so they are also keeping an eye on the weather over there. Tonight, is Big Blue Madness at Rupp Arena, which is the introduction of the men's and women's basketball teams. It's sold out (tickets are free and were gone in about 20 minutes when made available) so expect heavier traffic if you're downtown today.

Before I get to Thursday's races, don't forget Sunday night is the annual Stable of Memories Round Barn fundraiser at the historic museum on the grounds of The Red Mile. Tickets are $70 and still available at stableofmemories.square.site. Dinner and music begin at 6 p.m. and runs through 9 p.m.

Ok, now to Thursday, where it was definitely shorts weather. After I grabbed a program in the main office with Bessie (it's great to see her back after breaking a heel in a fall a few weeks ago), I took a walk down to the paddock. As I was heading there, I bumped into a person who asked me not to divulge their identity as of now. While I was talking to that person under the witness protection program, Kyle Credit from the USTA came up to say hello. Actually, he didn't say hello; he told me all he wanted was to get a mention in the column.

I saw Tim Tetrick so I congratulated him on recently driving his 15,000th career winner. I asked Tim – who is just the sixth driver to reach 15,000 wins – if he missed the days when he racked up more than 1,000 wins in a single year, and he quickly answered “no!”

Jimmy and Christina Takter were nearby so I said hello to them. PJ Fraley came over and we discussed – lamented about might be a better words – the Detroit Lions. The horses were getting ready to head to the track for the first race and Yannick Gingras stopped for a second to shake my hand and say hello. What Yannick didn't tell me was the Andrew McCarthy, who was driving the number 1 horse, was about to run me over. I got out of the way quickly and Andy said hi as he went by.

CANE RUN
FARM

I watched the first race in the paddock, which was won by the Todd McCarthy-driven, Brett Pelling-trained and Diamond Creek Racing-owned Halo. I later saw Diamond Creek's Shaun Laungani in the Diamond Creek Winner's Lounge, and after he offered me a beverage, I told him I thought it was interesting that a Diamond Creek winner was the first celebrated this year in the Diamond Creek Lounge.

As I walked back to the track from the paddock, I was joined by Kentuckiana Farms' Ken Jackson. We went our separate ways when we reached the grandstand. I stopped for a minute to talk to Sally Bolon, otherwise known as the sister of ex-Boss Kathy. Sally is here participating in the judges' school so as much as I wanted to ask her why, I didn't. The USTA's Michele Kopiec was with Sally, and it was nice to see her. And not to forget, the USTA's executive VP Mike Tanner was here last week for the Breeders Crown luncheon. Suffice to say, the USTA is definitely in the house.

I saw Swedish photographer Adam Strom, who had just arrived after the long overseas flight, and then I headed upstairs to find a box to sit in. It was there that Andrew Cohen called me over to say hello, and he was joined by Bill Elliott. John Fodera also called me over for a second and he was there with Bill Bigler, Joe Sbrocco, and Joe Bongiorno.

Joe was getting ready to head to the paddock as he had two drives on the card, but he and I talked about his star older pacer Best Chip, who is currently ranked 10th on the weekly Hambletonian Society/Breeders Crown poll. Best Chip is scheduled to race Saturday night in the $250,000 Dayton Pacing Derby at Hollywood Gaming Dayton Raceway, leaving from the outside post 9. I wished Joe good luck and hoped that Best Chip continues his success as right now I consider him to be arguably the favorite for Dan Patch Older Male Pacer of the Year.

I didn't want to leave the racetrack since it was so nice out, but deadlines need to be met. The day was so glorious that I received a text from Bryan Owen, telling me he was jealous of the great weather and that "mom" would have loved it too.

There's a little good news in gas prices as regular dropped a few cents to $4.16 that I saw. Diesel also dropped 20 cents to $6.49.

Thanks again to Steve and Cindy Stewart's Hunterton Farm/Hunterton Sales Agency for being the sponsor of Backstretch. My next column will appear on Tuesday (Oct. 6), and then I'll be around all week, reporting things from the backstretch and the Lexington Select Yearling Sale that gets underway Monday night at 7 p.m.

ADVENTURES IN ILLINOIS

with NEIL MILBERT

Illinois Day of Champions

by Neil Milbert

Literally and figuratively, there was a day and night difference between the Day of Champions on Sept. 26 at the Illinois State Fairgrounds in Springfield and the 2025 Night of Champions on Nov. 16 at now-closed Hawthorne Race Course in the Chicago suburb of Stickney.

Last year the first of the 12 championship races for Illinois-bred pacers and trotters went off at 7:10 p.m.; this year the first race left the starting gate at 11 a.m.

There was pari-mutuel wagering on the Night of Champions; the Day of Champions was a non-betting event.

The Night of Champions purses funded by both Hawthorne and the Illinois Department of Agriculture totaled $1.1 million.

The Department of Agriculture was the sole source of purses for the Day of Champions races and they shriveled to $581,000. There also were three consolation races this year worth a total of $21,000 and they upped the ante to $602,500 for a 15-race program.

Last year the biggest purse was $226,545; this year it was $75,125.

In the 2026 championship races seven winners recorded career best times and another equaled her best time. Most of the championship races had either nine or 10 starters.

The Day of Champions results in chronological order:

- $68,125 Incredible Tillie for 2-year-old filly pacers – Starting from the outside in the field of 10 with Marcus Miller driving for his father, trainer Erv Miller, Morganitis came from the middle of the pack to edge Hart's Revenge by a head in 1:52.4.

The victory was the fourth in seven races for Morganitis. She never has been worse than second.

- $61,125 Incredible Finale for 2-year-old colt and gelding pacers – Fox Valley Agate improved her nine-race record to seven wins and one place in winning by three lengths over Fox Valley Kravitz in 1:53.4.

Kevin Miller is the trainer of Fox Valley Agate and Jared Finn was her driver.

- $59,625 Fox Valley Flan for 2-year-old filly trotters – The driver-and-trainer combo of Casey Leonard and Steve Searle brought out the best in Lou's Lovenote and she was a three-length winner over Shady Maple Delite in 1:56.3.

Lou's Lovenote's triumph gave her a nine-race resume consisting of seven triumphs and two seconds.

- $68,125 Kadabra for 2-year-old colt and gelding trotters – The Monster lived up to his name by scoring the day's most powerful victory, a 7½-length conquest in 1:54.3, and recording the fifth triumph of his undefeated career.

The Monster is trained by Erv Miller and was driven by Marcus Miler.

- $63,125 Plum Peachy for 3-year-old filly pacers – Evening Slippers, who has been racing at Hoosier Park, returned to her home state and won by three lengths over Fox Valley Tamara in 1:52.3, giving her an 11-race composite of 3-4-2.

Amanda Van Winkle is the trainer of Evening Slippers and she had Travis Seekman in the sulky. They were repeat champions after taking last year's Incredible Tillie at Hawthorne.

- $66,225 Robert F. Carey Memorial for 3-year-old colt and gelding trotters – Seekman and trainer Amy Husted teamed up to score a head victory with Like A Doctor. He was clocked in 1:49 in earning his fourth victory in a 17-race career in which he has placed six times and showed once.

Fox Valley Onassis was a close second and finishing fourth in the field of nine was Sleazy Captain, who is trained by Amy and was driven by her husband, Kyle Husted. Amy and Kyle bred Like A Doctor and co-own him with John Schwartz.

- $75,125 Beulah Dygert Memorial for 3-year-old filly trotters – The richest race of the day saw Pony Chrome prevail by 3¼ lengths over Shady Maple Chick in 1:52.2.

Lamar Wingard drove Pony Chrome for trainer Lewayne Miller.

- $66,125 Erwin Dygert Memorial for 3-year-old colt and gelding trotters – Last year's state champion 2-year-old male trotter Go Go Chrome gave the sire Southwind Chrome a sweep in the trotting races for members of the sophomore class. He won by 2¼ lengths over Fox Valley Snapper in 1:53.3.

Juan Franco did the driving as Go Go Chrome improved his 10-race record for trainer Jamaica Patton to seven wins and one show.

- $12,000 Tony Maurello Memorial for filly and mare pacers age 3 and up – The 5-year-old mare Fox Valley Tessa scored a 2½-length victory over Robintino in 1:51.3. The conquest was her fifth in 13 starts this year.

She is trained by Amy Husted and was driven by Kyle and the couple own her in partnership with Schwartz.

- $12,000 Phil Langley Memorial for male pacers age 3 and up – The Husted-Schwartz threesome went back to the winner's circle by virtue of Fox Valley Landen's 1¾-length victory in 1:50.2.

The son of Somebeachsomewhere led all the way in defeating nine opponents.

- $15,000 Carl Becker Memorial for filly and mare trotters age 3 and up – Whiskey Lou, a state champion for the past three years and a two-time Night of Champions heroine, showed that she still has star quality when she was a one-length winner over Unhynged Cadeau in 1:54.

The 5-year-old mare, who competed in most of her earlier races this year at Hoosier, is trained by Curt Grummel and was driven by Marcus Miller. Her 10-race past performance lines for 2026 read 4-2-1.

- $15,000 Plesac for male trotters age 3 and up – Niko Man, the state champion older male for the past two years, gave every indication that he is destined to make it three straight titles when he won by 3½ lengths over Dj's Midnight in 1:55.3.

Kyle Wilfong came from Indiana to drive the 6-year-old for trainer Richard Shrock. It was his sixth triumph in 28 outings this year.

FINISH LINES: Driven by Leonard and trained by Searle, the 2-year-old gelding Trevorsaurus Rex defeated four opponents

IN THE COURTROOM: U.S. Trustee Adam Brief is expected to make a motion in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court of Northern Illinois on Wednesday (Oct. 7) to convert Hawthorne's bankruptcy case from Chapter 11 to the more stringent Chapter 7.

At the Sept. 30 Bankruptcy Court hearing the Illinois Racing Board filed a motion stating that it has a right to revoke Hawthorne's organizational license. The Illinois Gaming Board has filed a similar request to revoke the now-defunct track's racino license that has been dormant since it was issued in 2020. Judge Timothy Barnes has given Hawthorne president Tim Carey three weeks to respond to the motions and after both responses are submitted the judge said a decision will be forthcoming within two weeks.

Harness racing is now front and center for Evan Stephenson

by Matthew Lomon

Growing up, standardbred racing was always a background character in Evan Stephenson's story.

A competitive baseball and hockey player, Stephenson's connection to harness racing came from his mother's side of the family, particularly his uncles and grandfather, all of whom trained horses.

With his focus elsewhere, a future in the standardbred business hardly, if ever, crossed Stephenson's mind.

It wasn't until his careers on the diamond and ice cooled down that the sport that long starred in a supporting role stepped into the spotlight.

"Racing's always been around, that's for sure," Stephenson said. "I grew up playing baseball and hockey pretty seriously, and when that started to die down, I started working around the horses when I was about 16-17 [years old]."

Not long after his foray into racing, Stephenson received the opportunity to work for the Whelan racing family, who reside a short distance from his Ancaster, ON, home.

"It's a great place and opportunity to learn a lot," said Stephenson. "They've been around a long time and have had a lot of success, so I've enjoyed learning from them. It's been an amazing experience."

With the multi-generational operation, which offers expertise across the industry gamut, Stephenson developed his horsemanship by familiarizing himself with all facets of the job.

In doing so, he discovered a passion for training.

"I figured pretty quickly that I like the track work more than the grooming or putting away," he said with a laugh. "I really just started trying to do everything in the barn, and that inspired the training part of it... a snowball effect type thing."

Stephenson's conditioning career officially began rolling in 2024, when, at the age of 20, he obtained his trainer's license.

Milestone moment number one came in start number seven, courtesy of Stephenson's now 10-year-old war horse Bettors Victory, on Nov. 2, 2024, at Flamboro Downs.

"Paul MacKenzie was driving, and he came first up with him," Stephenson said. "He just hung on by a head, and it was really exciting. I still have the win picture at home. Then I photocopied and sent it out to the family, which is pretty cool. That's one you remember for sure."

Going into battle with MacKenzie — a lifetime winner of more than 9,500 races — holding the reins was plenty reassuring.

"I was pretty sure he had it, but the horse was coming pretty hard behind him, and I was getting a little nervous halfway down the lane, but it was nice that he could hold on for it... he's a legend," Stephenson said.

The young conditioner picked up two more wins in 2025, both with Bettors Victory, who bested the rest at Buffalo Raceway in the summer and again at Flamboro in the winter.

Proud, but not complacent following the 2025 campaign, Stephenson took his involvement to another level in 2026, acquiring his standardbred driver's license.

"The plan, or the goal, was always to end up driving some horses," he said. "You want to do it all and go fast, you know?"

Stephenson and 6-year-old pacing mare Getting Euchred were certainly zooming on July 5 at Clinton Raceway, when the former scored his first driving win in a dominant gate-to-wire display.

The 2¾-length decision in 1:56.1 started to feel promising at the three-quarter pole.

"She felt strong, but you never really know who's coming behind you," Stephenson said. "But I knew she felt good and felt like I got a little breather in there."

It was a dream scenario for Stephenson, whose uncle Brent Belore trains Getting Euchred.

"That's how I wanted it to go, either with my horse [Bettors Victory] or one of his horses because it's special to get to drive for him," Stephenson said. "It's nice of him to give me the opportunity."

The ascending reinsman continues to feel his family's unwavering support.

"It's been huge, especially with the driving part," Stephenson said. "I've been driving a couple for my uncle [Belore], so it's really been a big help for me. Obviously, they like to come watch, and we always talk about the races and everything. It's pretty special."

Each drive is a learning experience for Stephenson, who now has more than 70 starts on his scorecard.

Touring the Signature and Grassroots circuits from his race bike, as well as occasionally venturing to the United States as a conditioner, has given Stephenson the opportunity to pick up cues from his contemporaries.

"Watching now, you see guys like Tim Tetrack and those guys in the [United] States," Stephenson said. "It's amazing how they perform and carry themselves. I've got to watch them in person a few times, traveling with the Whelans.

"There are also a lot of guys who are good to talk to around Flamboro and elsewhere. You can talk to Scott Coulter or Sam Fillion or Austin Sorrie, to name a few. They're all pretty good at giving advice. They're all doing really well."

Sharing the spotlight with some of the sport's finest has had a surreal effect on Stephenson.

"It's pretty awesome," he said. "Especially to think of the accomplishments they have, and I'm obviously just starting out, so it's cool to be around them and see how they do things... watch and learn."

For Stephenson, a life in racing has meant exploring a previously unimagined path while staying in touch with the roots his family laid generations ago.

Frequenting Ontario's B-tracks has given him the opportunity to do that.

"At the smaller tracks, the atmosphere is incredible," praised Stephenson. "At Clinton, for example, there's a big crowd; you can interact with the fans, and I like that.

"Sometimes, I'd be in early [on the card] and then go over to the grandstand after and watch some more races because I have family out there that would always come watch. I'd just go hang out with them in the grandstand and watch the rest of the card."

Making time for family and himself, with his career asking so much of him, became another chapter in his development.

"I usually start at the barn around 6:30 a.m.," Stephenson said. "We usually work here until 2 or 3 o'clock – I also have some cows at home, so I have to look after them as well in the morning and after work. Then, at night, I'm racing horses."

"You have to maximize the nights off, that's for sure. I usually play hockey or baseball if we have the night off. You have to make the most of it because the days are usually pretty busy."

Stephenson's days – and nights – are sure to get busier as he works toward his goal of one day operating a stable of his own.

"That's the main goal, training, and driving my own horses," he said. "But if somebody else wants you to drive their horses, you end up driving them, too."

As for exactly where it will take him, the 22-year-old horseman is content to pursue his racing dream with an open mind.

"Obviously, you want to race horses at the big tracks for the most money, but it's really about settling in wherever I think I can be successful," he said.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

The feel of teal drives horsewoman Lorie Davis

by Chris Lomon

The horsewoman in teal has no shortage of zeal for the standardbred world.

Her career has been anything but linear, but Lorie Davis has always maintained a passion and reverence for horse racing and its equine athletes.

Davis' connection to the sport goes back to the 1980s, when she would accompany her family, who owned racehorses, to various harness racing tracks across the U.S. Midwest.

Some of her fondest memories are of the moments soon after one of their pacers or trotters crossed the wire first.

"I can remember being around 7 and going out with my family to the winner's circle at Lebanon Raceway [in Ohio]," she said. "It's nice to look back at those days and recall all those fun times."

Although she had a deep affinity for all things racing, following her family's path into the sport was not exactly a 1-9 slam dunk.

While joining the racing ranks in some capacity was a consideration, others felt she was tailor-made for a life on the racetrack and in the barns.

"My mom kind of pushed me toward racing," Davis said with a laugh. "She had me training with her at a young age — I was probably around 11 or 12 and would sit in the cart with her — and she would tell me that I had a pretty good hand with horses who are a little bit crazy. She told me, 'You need to drive and do this.'"

One of her earliest decisions came in the form of fashion, so to speak, specifically the look she would sport whenever she was in the race bike.

She had one caveat: whatever it was, it had to be different from what her contemporaries were wearing.

After some deliberation and consideration, she landed on teal, a deep blue-green color named for the colored area around the eye of the common teal bird.

Brad Conrad
Lorie Davis in action.

"I chose that color because no one had that color back in those days and it was a newer color that had come out," Davis said. "My mom had blue colors, so the teal was an extension of that. I gravitated towards teal and that's what I landed on. I think at that time it was technically called something like Caribbean Blue.

"I don't like to be the same as everyone else. I like to be a little different."

Davis' first pari-mutuel win photo in that look came on March 11, 1996, at Lebanon Raceway.

She landed the drive aboard free-legged pacer Senator Bestman after her male driving contemporaries had passed on the chance to partner with the son of Bestman Hanover.

"I had won a matinee when I was very, very young, at Greenville [in Ohio]," she said. "It was just me and another person in the race, so this one at Lebanon was special for a lot of reasons. Nobody wanted to drive Senator Bestman because he was a tough one to handle. He would break stride and take other horses out.

"But we just clicked. I was able to get him away from the gate without him doing anything dumb."

The smart score 30 years ago saw Davis and the bay cross the wire a length clear of the 7-5 choice in 2:03.1.

"I had to drive against men when I started out, which was a challenge in itself," she said. "But I always enjoyed it when I got the better of them."

In 1998, Davis, who would begin the training side of her standardbred career 10 years later, won a career-best seven races in the sulky.

After a nine-year absence from driving, Davis returned to the role this year.

On Aug. 26, at Greenville, she won the sixth race on the card with Rock The Dragon, a son of Fear The Dragon.

It was a meaningful victory for Davis.

"I hadn't driven for nine years," she said. "I became very good friends with [horsewoman, outrider at Scioto Downs] Jazmin Short when I moved back to Ohio and she would talk to me about it. My health was getting better. When I was in Delaware, I had back surgery and other health issues. But everything has been better since I moved back home.

"She said, 'You should try it [driving]. I told her I didn't think I wanted to do it, but after talking more with her and giving it some thought, I decided to give it a shot again."

Davis is glad she did.

"The feeling never changes," Davis said. "It is such a great feeling. Even behind the gate is a huge emotional rush when the horse has a good hold of you and you just know... this is it, we’re going.” These days, Davis is in the driver’s seat when it comes to handling her career.

Aside from driving, she also trains a few horses of her own and works in the barn of trainer Michael Hitchcock, a lifetime winner of more than 2,050 races.

Setting her own pace, work-wise, has enabled her to enjoy the sport perhaps more than ever.

“I have a full plate, but I am so happy,” she said. “Mike has been superior. I have my horses right there at his farm, in a state-of-the-art facility.

“And then there is Daniel Holmes, the man in my life, who has supported me so much with getting back into driving. I feel very lucky I landed where I did. Everything is in perfect harmony.”

Those words could also be applied to one of her off-track talents.

Although she doesn’t have much time to dedicate to it, Davis, every now and again, will pick up a familiar musical instrument.

“I went to college to be a musical educator,” she said. “I played the saxophone throughout high school. I sat lead chair almost every year of high school and was second chair in college. I was in the jazz band and I really enjoyed it. Now, it’s a rare occasion where I take it out, but I still do.”

Rediscovering her love of racing is the horsewoman in teal’s greatest joy.

“I stuck with it,” she said. “I feel like I am having a pretty successful career again and I’m grateful for that.”

MANE ATTRACTION

with JOHN BERRY

A pair of bittersweet memories

by John Berry

I have witnessed a lot on the many racetracks I've seen over the last 67 years since Aug. 22, 1959.

Most remembrances have been happy ones, a few have been tragic ones, and two have been tragic and happy as time marched on, depending on which side of the track as the "witness" I resided.

The first tragic and happy coupling was at Sportsman's Park back in 1961.

The pacer Tense Moment, a pretty decent pacer that could go a 2:03 mile back then, was in competition and the gentleman, Luke, who initially brought me to SPk way back when, had made a $10 wager to win on "the six horse," Tense Moment.

"He can fly once they straighten away," Luke said. And, on this night, Tense Moment was, indeed, closing like a rocket to take the lead a sixteenth from the wire.

Seconds later, tragedy struck as Tense Moment fell lifeless, right at the wire.

The photo finish sign lit up in bright red.

The question was whether Tense Moment's nose had pierced the wire for the win, or whether he was a "ns" short and "out of the money."

Turns out that Tense Moment had crossed the wire, by the mere tip of that nose.

The tragedy was just that — a tragedy — as a lifeless 1,000-pound, four hooved athlete lay on the track waiting for the heavy equipment to arrive to transport the fallen horse off the "beaten track."

The "official" sign then lit up and Tense Moment paid $16.20.

All accidents on the racetrack, whether they be during pari-mutuel events or qualifiers, are tragic at the time, but some turn out to have conclusions where survivors are thankful to still be alive, and not just alive "in the double," if you know what I mean.

The rest of this story is also about the luckiest man alive, and it isn't about any pari-mutuel event or qualifier.

It's about the unseen, untold, unnoticed part of the business at the time of day that begins before the sun rises to keep our equine stars — past, present, and future — ready for competition.

Myles McNichol has been in several mishaps — many call them wrecks — over his grand career stretching well over a half century, but he considers himself the luckiest man on earth.

Now 78, McNichol, of course famously known as Mickey, is a "New Yawker" now residing in Florida these days after having etched his name in our sport as one of the greatest drivers ever.

He's won many of our sport's most prestigious races from "A" to "Z" — Adios to Zweig Memorial — with the Hambletonian, a few Breeders Crown events, the Kentucky Futurity, and several dozens of others sprinkled in throughout his career.

It all started more than a half century ago — give or take a few years — when Mickey, along with then partner Joe Caraluzzi, "effectively inherited" a stable from a Canadian gent named Berrigan, who had immigration problems with authorities.

It could have ended on March 24, 2026 over at Sunshine Meadows Equestrian Center with an as yet un-raced 2-year-old named Gobstopper.

As yearlings become 2 years old on Jan. 1, the tedious task of teaching the lessons of the trade to these colts (and the few geldings) and fillies, begins, slowly, but surely, showing their owners and trainers whether they have world champion blood in their genes or whether their investment has been — or will be — a profitable one or a bust.

Few trainers can handle the load all by themselves, just ask Mike Deters, for example.

Trainer Mike Deters, himself a long-time top-notch horseman with a sizable stable every year, will bear witness that it takes an army to handle the chores of building a top stable, so he relies on the "expertise of the experts" to slowly, day-by-day, second-by-second, develop a competitive stable, hopefully one with a future champion to help soften the many disappointments that are inherent in the sport.

Deters had the expertise of McNichol this day to help in that regard and, again, on March 24, 2026, it could all have come to an end — both an equine career and a human one.

Hanging in the balance this day was the unknown future of one standardbred, Gobstopper, and, most importantly, the life of an elite horseman named Myles "Mickey" McNichol.

McNichol was back of one of Deters' 2-year-old students, the above referenced juvenile, Gobstopper, a son of the great stallion Sweet Lou.

Gobstopper was just learning the trade but showing promise as all 2-year-olds are working their way, hopefully, to the tall standards of becoming a formidable major league player in harness racing.

On the Sunshine Meadows track this morning, McNichol was in the jog cart in back of Gobstopper when something caused the colt to swerve and trip, with the horse doing a somersault and unseating McNichol with the result being Gobstopper landing on top of Mickey with the consequence leaving him very seriously wounded.

“I truly am the luckiest man on this earth.”

— Myles “Mickey” McNichol

Trainer Deters was on Sunshine Meadows smaller inner track at the time and heard the commotion.

He looked over and said to himself, “That looks like my jog-cart,” and hustled over to the scene to find, Gobstopper sitting “like a dog” on top of McNichol, noticing his excruciating pain, but further noticing the precarious position that horse and driver were in, with one single move by Gobstopper putting McNichol’s very life in danger.

Gobstopper didn’t move a muscle for, “probably five or six minutes,” said Deters, and the bloody scene was just about “too much to handle.”

McNichol described it as “the longest five minutes of my life” as he was in “fragile” condition but Deters was able to, somehow, remove him from under the horse and then rushed him to Delray Medical Center.

Dr. Ronald Young, a 30-year veteran specializing in brain and spinal injuries was on the scene and found that McNichol had suffered severe damage to 12 vertebrae and began the laborious task of inserting screws where necessary “to try and put him back together” with additional work done on his nose, which was left grievously injured, as well.

As McNichol began to slowly heal, one day he began to pee blood and wondered if that was from any internal issues from the Gobstopper accident.

After a trip to his “regular” doctor, Dr. Mark Copen, a highly respected internal medicine physician (and, by the way, horse enthusiast), McNichol was back in the hospital with another bit of good luck on his side – well, good luck and bad luck.

No, the pee wasn’t from the accident, it was from the observance of bladder cancer, which was subsequently removed with the hope that it will never return.

It had not spread.

“I truly am the luckiest man on this earth,” McNichol said.

As for Gobstopper, he has turned out to be a hero in more ways than one.

After the Deters’ crew readied Gobstopper for the wars of racing, he thought he might be able to tangle with the big boys in his class and sent him down to the Bluegrass State – Kentucky – to test his mettle there.

Waiting for the colt with open arms was trainer Tony Dinges, now in his 25th year in the sport banking over $1,000,000 each of the last three for owners concentrating on just a few horses.

Rocksy and Funky Buddha are a couple of others under Dinges’ care and they, too, have added to the blossoming resume’ of the trainer.

Not only did Gobstopper play a significant role in saving a life, he’s turned out to be one of the champions of his division, winning five of eight starts thus far, over $330,000 while recently winning the $400,000 Kentucky Sire Stakes final, to go along with his 2-year-old mark of 1:50.

Owner Rick Berks has long paid his dues in the sport and has owned some great ones, among them Boston Red Rocks, Boston Rocks, and Doo Wop Hanover, to name a few to go along with Gobstopper.

“He was just one of the crop of 2-year-olds,” Berks said, “but, as time went on, he started to show some promise.

“Early in his racing career, after he won a start, I was told that Gobstopper was ‘green as grass.’

“You can take that a couple of ways but I kind of thought it meant that he had a lot of promise to become a great one.

“I’m just hoping he stays healthy because he’s got a good relaxed personality – he showed that by staying cool, calm, and collected when he landed on top of Mickey!”

I wanted to do a story about “the luckiest man on earth” for HRU and, though his reluctance as a humble gentleman was obvious, he agreed and he volunteered to take this journalist out to lunch.

We met, enjoyed a bowl of noodle soup together and a Chocolate New York Egg Cream and he spilled the beans on a very enlightening horse “tail” – make that “tale.”

The bill came and McNichol said, “I got this one, JB. I got this one. I got plenty of points to cover it.”

“Wow! A free lunch,” I thought. “Wonderful.”

So, we’re getting up from the table and he said, “Hey, JB, got any cash on ya?”

“Sure, whaddya need?”

McNichol said, “Just the tip. I left my cash upstairs.”

So, that’s the finish line to this Mane Attraction.

I got a free lunch on behalf of one of the greatest drivers ever, Mickey McNichol.

And it only cost me $10.

May The Horse Be With You!

Field set for 134th Kentucky Futurity

by Ray Cotolo for The Red Mile

The Red Mile drew the fields for its marquee events taking place on Saturday (Oct. 3), the 134th Kentucky Futurity and the 61st Kentucky Filly Futurity.

Presiding judge Casey Larson and race secretary Tina Seekman conducted the draw during a luncheon at The Red Mile clubhouse for both races on Wednesday afternoon (Sept. 30).

The field for the 134th Kentucky
Futurity.

Trainer Marcus Melander landed six into the Kentucky Futurity including 2026 Hambletonian winner Apex, who looks to win in the last jewel of the Trotting Triple Crown after succumbing to defeat in the Canadian Trotting Classic at Woodbine Mohawk Park last Saturday (Sept. 26) to his stablemate Nix Nacken. The Kentucky Futurity will also be the first rematch for Apex with Big Ranger, whom he thwarted in a stretch-long sprint to win the Hambletonian in a stake-record 1:49.2 back on Aug. 8.

"[It didn't affect me] so much," Melander said on whether the Canadian Trotting Classic impacted his approach to the Futurity. "I had those six to enter and they all got in. I didn't think Neighver Punt would [get] in but he got in. Apex trained good this morning. He came from Canada on Monday and so far, he's been good."

Melander will also send American Power, Goodtimes champ Neighver Punt, Zephyr Kemp, and last year's Breeders Crown 2-Year-Old Colt Trot winner Spencer Hanover to the Kentucky Futurity.

"American Power's been a great horse all year and made over a half-million this year," Melander said. "He drew good. Neighver Punt raced good here in the Commonwealth and he might be right under the best ones, but he draws good and hopefully can pick up a check. Nix Nacken's a good horse, but to go first over like that and win the race, it was very impressive. Spencer Hanover's been racing okay lately, but he's had a couple of weeks between races so I think he'll be okay on Saturday. Zephyr Kemp raced really well the last couple of starts here, but he drew the 10-hole so we'll need a little bit of luck."

Lucas Wallin, brother-in-law to Melander who won the Kentucky Futurity at just 29 years old in 2022 with Rebuff, also has another shot at the Kentucky Futurity with Grade 1 Yonkers Trot champion Inexpressable, who stole the show in Lexington on Sept. 20 with a 1:49.3 romp in the $400,000 Kentucky Championship Series final for 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings.

"He trained this morning and couldn't be happier," Wallin said of Inexpressable. "I learned a lot from [Rebuff], good things and bad things. He helped me a lot and I don't know how much he did for my career, but I learned a lot of things."

"I always knew [Inexpressable] was a good horse, but he usually doesn't go more than he needs to. That mile was very impressive. I wasn't surprised that he won it, but by the way he did it."

Below is the field for the 134th Kentucky Futurity:

RACE 13 – 134TH $575,000 GRADE 1 KENTUCKY FUTURITY

PP – Horse – Driver – Trainer – Odds

1. Nix Nacken – Bjorn Goop – Marcus Melander – 7-2
2. American Power – James MacDonald – Marcus Melander – 6-1
3. AI – Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. – Ron Burke – 8-1

4. Read The Room – Ake Svanstedt – Ake Svanstedt – 8-1
5. Neighver Punt – Orjan Kihlstrom – Marcus Melander – 15-1
6. Inexpressable – Scott Zeron – Lucas Wallin – 6-1
7. Apex – Dexter Dunn – Marcus Melander – 6-5
8. Magic Punk – Yannick Gingras – Ake Svanstedt – 15-1
9. Big Ranger – Tim Tetrack – Annette Lorentzon – 9-5
10. Zephyr Kemp – Todd McCarthy – Marcus Melander – 15-1
11. Spencer Hanover – Jason Bartlett – Marcus Melander – 15-1

Melander also sends three into the 61st Kentucky Filly Futurity including 2026 Hambletonian Oaks winner Nezuko Kamado S, who enters from a fourth-place finish in the $400,000 Kentucky Championship Series final for 3-year-old trotting fillies. She lost to She's Moni, a Walner filly and one of four entrants into the race for trainer Nancy Takter alongside Madam Cheval, Leading Lady, and Godusa.

"Madam Cheval drew well and she never does, and the other ones drew where they usually draw," Takter said at the draw. "I trained them all this morning and they all trained really well, so I think it's anyone's game. It's all going to be how the race sets up. She's Moni was very impressive in her last start, but she drew the worst of the four fillies, so things are going to have to go her way a bit. But I'm really happy with everybody coming into it."

Below is the field for the 61st Kentucky Filly Futurity:

RACE 12 – 61ST $300,000 GRADE 1 KENTUCKY FILLY FUTURITY

Lifetime Dreamer romps in Bluegrass freshman colt trot

by Ray Cotolo for The Red Mile

Lifetime Dreamer returned to the winner's circle with an open-length victory on Thursday afternoon (Oct. 1) in the first $91,000 Bluegrass division — sponsored by the Captain Corey Syndicate and Hanover Shoe Farms — of four splits for 2-year-old trotting males at The Red Mile.

Driver Yannick Gingras sent Lifetime Dreamer forward out of post 6 and wrangled his charge into second as longshot Mahalo (driven by Scott Zeron) led past a :29.1 first quarter. Gingras maintained a tight grip up the backstretch to keep Lifetime Dreamer nestled behind the leader to a :57 half. But once favorite Mats (Dexter Dunn) lifted from fourth to push up the rim, Gingras edged out of second and surged for the lead to three-quarters in 1:25.1. Lifetime Dreamer motored through the stretch and separated from his peers to romp by six lengths with Mats giving chase in second. Mahalo settled for third and Back Country (David Miller) took fourth.

"He has been good all along," said Sarah Svanstedt of the winning Ake Svanstedt trainee. "Tough racing up in New Jersey, but he has a heart that wants to race and an attitude, so that goes a long way. I really like him. I mean he went [1]:51[.1], and not many 2-year-olds do that. He reminds us about [his sire, Ecurie D DK] — his character and his attitude. It's always nice to see them when you've trained the family before."

A gelding by Ecurie D DK out of Walner mare Lifetime Gift, Lifetime Dreamer has now won three races from seven starts and earned $170,500 for owners Ake Svanstedt, Brittany Farms, Bruni Racing Team, and Suleyman Yuksel Stables. He paid $6.46 to win.

Fellow Ake Svanstedt trainee Yankee Boss tied for the fastest mile of the four dashes when he withstood a persistent stretch bid from 3-2 favorite Whateverittakes As to win the third dash, sponsored by Kentuckiana Farms, by a nose in 1:52.

Bluegrass division for 2-year-old trotting colts on Thursday at The Red Mile.

Floating out of post 7, Yankee Boss (driven by Tim Tetrick) raced wide from the middle of the pack to a :27.3 first quarter and continued to march up the rim in the backstretch to take the lead from longshot stablemate Red Storm Hanover (Ake Svanstedt) past a :55.3 half. Carbon Fiber (Gingras) inched forward uncovered to the far turn and prompted Whateverittakes As (Tony Hall) to swing off the pylons from third to avoid a shuffle and press for the front. Whateverittakes As loomed alongside Yankee Boss to three-quarters in 1:23.3 and stayed at the leader's throat all through the homestretch before giving way late for a narrow defeat. Opposition (Andy McCarthy) rallied for third and Red Storm Hanover took fourth.

"He raced super [in the Peter Haughton Memorial] – he just had a bad post and was very far back, but as an individual he raced unbelievably great that day," said Jonathon Roberts, winning co-owner of Yankee Boss through Kiwi Stables LLC. "He absolutely earned every step of that race and we're extremely proud of how hard he fought there."

Kiwi Stables LLC shares ownership of Yankee Boss, a Captain Corey colt out of Muscle Hill mare Brigit Of Kildare, with Graham Grace Stables LLC. The colt has now won three races from eight starts, earned $175,726 and paid $6.64 to win.

Nancy Takter trainee Presidente (Gingras) matched the quickest mark of the four Bluegrass divisions for freshman trotting males with a 1:52 victory in the fourth and final split of the day, sponsored by the Greenshoe Syndicate and Hanover Shoe Farms.

Gingras secured the lead with Presidente out of post 3 briefly to a :28.2 first quarter before relinquishing control to Top Reacher (Zeron) entering the backstretch. Presidente followed the leader intently to a :55.4 half as Jimdougie Armitage (Ake Svanstedt), pulling off the pylons from fifth, continued to progress up the rim when failing to bait any cover. Despite cutting the air after the leader, Jimdougie Armitage drew to equal terms with Top Reacher to three-quarters in 1:24.2 and edged to the lead rounding for home. Gingras squeezed out of the pocket with Presidente to swing three wide and then lay aim on Jimdougie Armitage in the stretch to mount a successful bid to the finish, scoring by a neck. Jimdougie Armitage settled for second with End Result (Dunn) closing from a ground-saving trip for third and Top Reacher settling for fourth.

"He's a really nice colt; he has a lot of ability," Takter said after the race. "I still think he's a little bit green – he really hasn't figured out that he's supposed to charge all the way to the wire. But he's definitely improving. I was very happy with him today. [Now] we'll go to the Breeders Crown."

Presidente competes for owners Black Horse Racing, Moni Maker Stable, Pryde Stables Inc, and Mr. Erik Anderberg. The colt by Walner, out of the Donato Hanover mare Grandma's Moni, won his second race from eight starts and pushed his bankroll to $231,898. He paid $2.98 to win.

Command Center (Dunn), half-brother to 2026 Hambletonian winner Apex, returned to the winner's circle in the second Bluegrass division – sponsored by Al Libfeld Equine – after livening up in a late stretch battle from a loose lead to win in 1:54.

Dunn settled Command Center, the 4-5 favorite, into fourth from the pylon post while Friday Night Fats (David Miller) pushed from the outermost draw in the octet for the lead to a :28.2 first quarter. Friday Night Fats cleared command entering the backstretch, at which point Dunn tipped off the pylons and brushed forward to seize control with Command Center approaching a :57 half. He accelerated on the point through the last turn and opened several lengths on his competition clocking by three-quarters in 1:25.1, but wavered while alone on the lead in the lane. Nights In Miami (Marvin Luna) ripped through a seam at the inside to press Command Center late, though the favorite reengaged once confronted to the finish to hold firmly for the win by a neck. Special Day (Andy McCarthy) finished third from a first-over move in the last turn while New Hope (Joe Bongiorno) followed his cover for fourth.

"He's a really nice colt, but he did get a little lost halfway up the straight," Dunn said after the race. "I had to ease him and a lot of talking to him, but he got back to it when I asked him."

Marcus Melander trains Command Center, a two-time winner from six starts with $135,100 banked, for owners S R F Stable, Holly Lane Stud East Ltd, and Steve Stewart. The colt by Gimpanzee, out of world champion mare and Red Mile track-record holder Mission Brief, paid $3.94 to win.

Live harness racing at The Red Mile resumes today (Oct. 2) with seven total Bluegrass divisions, four splits for the $377,000 Bluegrass for 2-year-old filly trotters and three dashes for the $267,900 Bluegrass for 2-year-old colt and gelding pacers. First-race post time is 1 p.m. (EDT).

SEASIDE UBEAUT BOUNDS TO VICTORY IN BLUEGRASS

Odds-on chalk Seaside Ubeaut vaulted off a picturesque covered trip and cruised to a career-best equaling 1:49.2 victory in the second of two divisions of the $236,480 Grade

3 Bluegrass Stakes for 2-year-old pacing fillies on Thursday afternoon (Oct. 1) at The Red Mile.

Driver Dexter Dunn eased Seaside Ubeaut forward into a seat in fourth as Treacherous Bet (driven by Yannick Gingras) sped alongside stablemate My Taylors Swift (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) on the front through a :26.4 first quarter. My Taylors Swift slid to the front and chugged along the backstretch to a :53.4 half while Dunn patiently followed and eventually fished cover to the last turn. Dunn perched Seaside Ubeaut behind first-up Aestas (David Miller) to three-quarters in 1:22 and fanned wide spinning for home before spurting away under wraps for a 2½-length victory. JK Alwaysbpositive (Tim Tetrick) rallied from a ground-saving trip for second with Sister Girl Blues (Andy McCarthy) closing from third-over for third and Aestas settling for fourth.

"She got a Dexter steer there and that's why we're blessed to have him sometimes," winning trainer Andrew Harris said after the race. "That's one of those things – he works out a great trip and the filly performed, so we're thrilled with both of them."

Seaside Ubeaut, a filly by Downbytheseaside out of world champion Warrawee Ubeaut, has now won four races from seven starts and earned $330,370 for owner Punisher 11 Stable LLC. She paid $3.46 to win.

Brett Pelling pupil Holy (Todd McCarthy) stole easy fractions on the lead and stayed strong to the finish for a 13-1 upset with a 1:51.3 effort in the first Bluegrass division for 2-year-old pacing fillies.

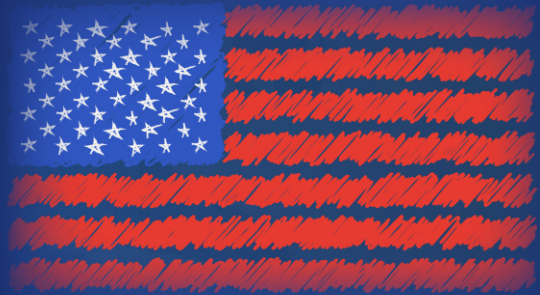

McCarthy planted Holy on the point out of post 6 to a :27.3 first quarter and strolled unfettered as 1-5 favorite JK Lady Liberty (Scott Zeron) bided her time tracking from fourth. JK Lady Liberty eventually flushed cover from Baby Puppy (Atlee Bender) after a :56.1 half and tracked her steadily through the turn while Holy rolled to three-quarters in 1:24. Holy cut the corner into the lane and opened two lengths on her rivals, which proved a strong enough cushion for the longshot to stave off a rally from JK Lady Liberty by a half-length at the beam. Baby Puppy gave chase in third and Miss Dolce (Andy McCarthy) kicked from third-over for fourth.

"She has been all go during her career here at The Red Mile," said Shaun Laungani, part of the winning ownership group through Diamond Creek Farm. "Didn't know that she'd have that left in the end to kick home, but [a] masterful drive by Todd I thought to dole out her speed. Because she's really all speed."

Diamond Creek Racing owns Holy, a Sweet Lou filly out of the A Rocknroll Dance mare Constellation. She has now won two races from seven starts, banked $86,590, and paid $29.52 to win.

Each division of the Bluegrass Stake for 2-year-old pacing fillies was sponsored by Hanover Shoe Farms.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Favorites deliver in INSS at Hoosier

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

The final leg of Indiana Sires Stakes for 2-year-old pacing fillies and 3-year-old trotting fillies was contested on the 14-race Wednesday (Sept. 30) card at Harrah's Hoosier Park, yielding formful results as the chalk delivered in each of their splits.

Owleo's Pride driven by Dexter Dunn for trainer Ricky Macomber, Jr took a business trip around the oval taking down the $65,000 first split for 2-year-old pacing fillies.

Starting from post 1, Owleo's Pride rode the rail to the early lead, beating out the six-horse field to the first turn in :28.2. The fillies taking the most play in the betting pool, Owleo's Pride, Kountry Legacy (Trace Tetrack), and Fitterjake (Anthony Miller) held the podium positions on the backstretch to the halfway mark in :55.4. The field remained unchanged to the following quarter in 1:22.4. Fitterjake tipped to the outside of Kountry Legacy battling her way into second. Owleo's Pride cruised despite the pressure from Fitterjake in second and Kountry Legacy in third, as she hit the wire in 1:50.1 by 1¼ lengths.

Owned by Jamie Macomber, James Stonecipher, and Ricky Macomber, Jr, Owleo's Pride boosted her lifetime account to $228,780 following her fourth win in eight tries. The JK Endofanera-McFlirty filly was bred by James Stonecipher.

Era Dominance driven by Joey Putnam for trainer Michael Hitchcock persevered to a third straight win in the $64,500 second split for rookie pacing fillies.

Sandwiched in the middle of the five-horse field, Era Dominance left from post 3 as Jk's Fast (John De Long) hustled along the outside, leading the field to the first turn in :27.2. Era Dominance leapfrogged the leader shortly after gaining control of the pacing field. Era Dominance and Jk's Fast separated themselves from the rest of the group, racing to the halfway point in :56.4. As the rest of the field caught up, the focus was on the top pair as they remained tight through the final turn in 1:25.2. The slugfest continued down the stretch as Jk's Fast was able to get up to look Era Dominance in the eye. Era Dominance struck back finding the extra gear to cross the wire first in 1:52 by three-quarters-of-a-length. Jk's Fast settled for second, with Callie Rocks in third, 6¾ lengths back of the top pair.

Adding her fifth career win in just seven tries, Era Dominance is owned by William Hartt and bred by Let It Ride Stables Inc and J L Benson Stables Inc. Totaling $223,585 in lifetime earnings, Era Dominance paid $2.20 to win.

Fresh Face Yankee continued her reign of terror in her division, wiring the field in the first $49,500 split for sophomore trotting fillies with trainer Jay Cross in the sulky as the 3-5 favorite in the field of seven.

Leaving from post 2, Cross was intent on gaining control from the outset, protecting her inside starting spot and forcing For Dayze (John De Long) to take a seat into second on the first turn with the favorite cutting the quarter in :27.3. Shown respect on the engine, Fresh Face Yankee went unchallenged through middle half splits of :56.1 and 1:25 before setting the stage for the highly anticipated show down with For Dayze as the fillies straightened away for home. The battle never developed however, with Fresh Face Yankee refusing to open the door for the chasing For Dayze, sprinting home well in hand in :27.4 to cross the wire two lengths clear in 1:52.4. For Dayze held for second, with Dial Nine One One (Marcus Miller) picking up the show dough.

Tim Smith owns Fresh Face Yankee, who has only tasted defeat once in nine tries this season. Fashion Hill Farm bred the daughter of Crescent Fashion—Swan Yankee who has banked $182,375 this year, and $223,585 lifetime after being just a $5,000 yearling buy for Smith in 2024.

In the $49,000 second divisions for trotting fillies, it went to the slight 4-5 second choice Bluebird Kazoom and diver Jordan Ross as they made quick work of a pocket trip to score in a new career best.

Away from post 3, Bluebird Kazoom dropped into second on the first turn with the 3-5 favorite, Help Cum Laude (Atlee Bender), taking charge to the first turn to the tune of :28.1. The fillies raced single file in the middle stages, with Help Cum Laude bringing the field to the head of the lane after fractions of :56.3 and 1:25.1. Ross right-lined Bluebird Kazoom at the top of the stretch, exploding by Help Cum Laude before trotting away by 4½ lengths on the wire to stop the timer in 1:53. Help Cum Laude was second, with Honeymoon (Tetrick) getting up for third.

Trained by Henry Graber, Jr., Bluebird Kazoom has won 11 of 14 during her 3-year-old rookie campaign. Delvin Miller, Kenneth Bontrager, and Daryl Miller bred the daughter of Swan For All—Stella Kemp who has banked $195,350 for owners Hillside Stables, Indiana Stables, Hickory Hollow Stables, and Michael Rosenthal.

SWAN GOOD BI HEADLINES INSS WINNERS AT HOOSIER

The sixth and final leg of Indiana Sires Stakes in advance of Hoosier Champions night for both the 2-year-old trotting colts and fillies was contested on Tuesday (Sept. 29), with Peter Haughton Memorial champion Swan Good Bi headlining the five stakes winners and remaining undefeated through seven starts to begin his career for Jordan Ross and Henry Graber, Jr.

In the $47,000 second split for trotting colts Swan Good Bi and Ponda Cheetah (Marcus Miller) teed off quickly with Ponda Cheetah using the rail to his advantage as Swan Good Bi in post 3 chased in second at the first quarter in :28.4. Swan Good Bi didn't let the lead last long hitting back on the backstretch to reach the half-mile marker in front in :58.4. Steppinouttohelp (Robert Taylor) broke the deadlock advancing on the outside from fourth. Swan Good Bi stayed cool on the front, passing the three-quarters in 1:28. In the homestretch, it was smooth sailing for Swan Good Bi as Ross was a passenger to the wire in 1:56 by 1¼ lengths. Ponda Cheetah cruised to the place, while Steppinouttohelp finished strong to show.

The Swan For All gelding is owned by Indiana Stables LLC, Frank Baldachino, Michael Rosenthal, and James Zito. Swan Good Bi was bred by Ernie Lambright increasing his lifetime bank account to $344,300 to stay undefeated in his career.

Fifty And Famous driven by Trace Tetrick for trainer Luis Quevedo dominated the nine-horse field in the $47,500 first division for trotting colts earlier in the card, booking his trip to the winner's circle with a career best effort.

Facing an uphill battle out of the gate, Fifty And Famous navigated the field from post 8 as he was pushed far outside at the turn. Meanwhile, Swan Ace (Lewayne Miller) held the inside advantage on Fifty And Famous who was left on the outside in third, earning the pole position at the quarter in :28.1. Getting up to the outside of Swan Ace after cruising past Nectar Of The Gods (Mike Micallef) and Heffae (Lamar Wingard), Fifty And Famous continued to use the after burners, finally cementing his place at the helm. Fifty And Famous found the front moments later marking the halfway point in :56.4. Nearing the final turn, Fifty And Famous lengthened the gap to second, hitting the stretch in 1:26.1. Despite early pressure in the mile, Fifty And Famous did not allow for a wild finish as he dismantled the field by six lengths in 1:54.1. Heffae got up for second, while Copperstone (John De Long) rallied for third.

Fifty And Famous is owned and bred by John Barnard. The Fitydallarbill colt boosted his lifetime earnings to $68,350 for his third win of the season.

Staying hot, So Joyful driven by John De Long for trainer Ernie Gaskin impressed in the final quarter to take the final $47,000 division for the rookie trotting colts.

Slotted into post 4, So Joyful hunkered in behind the spry Mendoza Mafia (Atlee Bender), who gunned to the early lead through the first quarter turn in :27.4. Ponda Solve (Kyle Wilfong) was hung out to dry on the outside falling to the back of the field as Mendoza Mafia led the field passed the halfway pole in :57.3. Rounding the turn, Royal Response was the first to act bouncing to the outside. Mendoza Mafia held through the final turn in 1:27.1. So Joyful took the perfect pocket trip to go first over on Mendoza Mafia hitting the gas with ease through the wire in 1:55.3 by 3¼ lengths. Mendoza Mafia was able to hold for second, while Ponda Solve responded in the stretch for third.

So Joyful tallied his fifth win of the season depositing into his $126,203 account. The Rebuff colt was bred by Luckiana Farm and Aaron Stutzman. So Joyful is owned by All-Wright Racing, Brian Code, and James Nellinger.

In the two splits for 2-year-old trotting fillies, a pair of fillies who were on the outside looking in on points stamped their spot into the $250,000 final on Hoosier Champions night, with Ponda Crystal being the first of the two after pulling an 8-1 upset with Bender aboard in the first of the two $67,000 splits.

Away from the outside post seven, Ponda Crystal floated into third early while Gladden (Tetrack) took the field to the first quarter in :28.3. The 1-5 favorite, Fine Wine (Jay Cross), popped the pocket and asserted herself to the lead on the backstretch, reaching the halfway point in :58. Ican Hardly Wait (Kevin Lambright) moved first-over on the turn, leaving Ponda Crystal trapped along the cones while Fine Wine guided the fillies to three-quarters in 1:28.1. Fine Wine came under fire in the lane, with Gladden taking aim along the cones before Ponda Crystal shook loose to the outside of the favorite late. Sprinting home in :27.3, Ponda Crystal sprinted home in :27.3 to get up in the shadow of the wire and win by three-parts-of-a-length in 1:56.2. Fine Wine held second, with Gladden finishing third.

Trained by Erv Miller, Ponda Crystal has won four of seven on the year, banking $56,280. The daughter of Temporal Hanover—Aperfectcrystal was bred by Pond-A-Acres, and is owned by Never 2 Late Stable, Stepbystep Racing, and Andy Willinger.

In the second division, Swan Jocelyn made her career debut a winning one, gobbling up ground late to score with Tetrack in the sulky for trainer Ron Burke.

Tetrack took back the first-time starter early, settling in sixth on the first turn while Dance Remix (Ross) trotted to the point in :28. Swan Jocelyn went unchallenged to the half in :57.1, before Twister Sister (James Yoder) started first-over into third on the far turn at three-quarters in 1:26.4 while Swan Jocelyn was still yet to shift from the cones in fifth. The field began to swarm Dance Remix in the lane, with Help My Heart (De Long) charging along the cones and Swan Jocelyn moving to the wide side and beginning to roll with five lengths to make up midway through the stretch. Trotting home in :28.1, Swan Jocelyn methodically picked off her foes in the lane, rallying to win by a length over Help My Heart in 1:56.3. Miss Kriss (Marcus Miller) rallied from the backfield to snag the show dough at 48-1.

Swan Jocelyn swiftly deposited $33,500 in the bank after her career debut for owners Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brussemi, Frank Baldachino, and Michael Rosenthal. Oakwood Farms bred the winning daughter of Swan For All—Southwind Sauna.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Geologic breaks Massachusetts Breeder Stakes record at Plainridge Park

by Tim Bojarski for the Standardbred Owners of Massachusetts

The $3.2 million (est.) Massachusetts Breeder Stakes reconvened at Plainridge Park on Tuesday (Sept. 29) with the first leg of competition for 3-year-old state-breds of both gaits and sexes, who competed for a total of $331,750 in purses. The trotters competed in single divisions by gender while the pacers went in splits for both sexes.

Highlights from the card included Yannick Gingras winning four more stakes races, four more stakes horses taking lifetime marks, and three of last year's four 2-year-old champions winning their first leg of the 3-year-old series.

But the big news came when the colt and gelding trotters lined up for $79,500 in purse where Geologic (Chapter Seven—Crystalline) was nothing less than unbeatable in his bid for a second straight championship and set a stakes record for a 3-year-old male trotter.

Geologic (Gingras) took a commanding lead as he refused to let Mother's Moni (Dexter Dunn) go by, and forced him into the pocket at the quarter in :27.3. Once fully in control, Geologic led Mother's Moni to the half in :56.4 and three-quarters in 1:25.1, where the top two horses separated and turned into a match race. As they rounded the last turn, Mother's Moni pulled and took direct aim at Geologic, who was still in control. When they entered the lane, Mother's Moni trotted closer to Geologic with every stride, but Geologic would not be denied and won by three-quarters-of-a-length in 1:52.2, home in :27.1.

Geologic ($3.40) is owned by his trainer, Paul Kelley, in partnership with Go For Glory Stable, Matthew Lamont, and VIP Internet Stable. Ray Campbell, Jr. bred Geologic.

Then the fillies lined up for $80,250 and Cash Out Express (International Moni—Maliziosa Lindy) put forth a career effort in victory.

Adios My Lindy (Brett Beckwith) left fast for the lead with Lindy In My Dreams (Dunn) and Cash Out Express (Gingras) following behind. After passing the quarter, Cash Out Express made a quick charge for the lead and got there in front of the stands. Positions remained unchanged to three-quarters but in the last turn, Adios My Lindy pulled for the attack and Lindy In My Dreams tipped three-deep around her. As they approached the lane, Adios My Lindy made a break, leaving Lindy In My Dreams and Cash Out Express to battle it out. The two trotters matched strides all the way to the wire where Cash Out Express hung on by a head to win in 1:54.

Cash Out Express ($3.80) is owned by her trainer, George Ducharme, in partnership with James De Armond, Jim Winske, and Sal Vullo. Lindy Farms of Connecticut bred the winner.

In the first $42,800 division for pacing fillies, Sweet Cindy Lou (Sweet Lou—Firefly) was much the best in a solid win.

Bettor's Gold (Nick Graffam) grabbed the lead after two early changes and passed the quarter in :27.3. But the heavily favored Sweet Cindy Lou (Corey Callahan) burst out from mid-pack and flew to the front going by the stands. Sweet Cindy Lou then set the pace to three-quarters in 1:24.3 as Perfect Lynn (Gingras) tipped from third and was moving quickly outside. At the top of the stretch, Perfect Lynn drew close to the leader, but Sweet Cindy Lou was let out a notch and opened up 2¼ lengths to win in 1:53.1.

Sweet Cindy Lou ($2.10) is owned by Michael and Sara Kimelman and trained by Michael Kimelman. Ross Bonafield bred the winner.

Then in the second $42,800 split, the 2025 2-year-old MASS pacing filly champion, Two Twenty Swift (Huntsville—Jag Out), put on a dominant performance as she ran away with a new lifetime mark.

Just Delightful (Ron Cushing) took the early lead and reached the quarter in :27.4. But Two Twenty Swift (Gingras) was out and rolling immediately at that station and took control of the race in front of the stands. Two Twenty Swift was on cruise control as she passed the half in :56.4 and three-quarters in 1:24 and opened up a four-length lead. At the top of the stretch, Two Twenty Swift extended that to a five-length bulge and held it to the line where she won in 1:51.3, which was a new lifetime mark.

Two Twenty Swift ($2.60) is owned by Donald Mac Rae and Beasty and trained by Deborah Daguet. Ross Bonafield bred Two Twenty Swift.

The first group of male pacers went for $43,200 and defending 2-year-old MASS champion Beantown Dragon (Fear The Dragon—Ace Of Pace) started his bid to repeat with a new lifetime mark from dominant effort.

Beantown Dragon (Beckwith) was sent right to the front and marched sharply to the half in :56.2 with Alcatraz Blue Chip (Matty Athearn) following intently in the pocket. As the race proceeded to three-quarters, the top two horses started to separate from the field and reached three-quarters in 1:24.2. When Beantown Dragon entered the turn, he then separated from Alcatraz Blue Chip and led by three lengths at the top of the stretch. And from there, Beantown Dragon cruised home, wrapped-up, and won by three lengths in a career best, 1:52.3.

Beantown Dragon ($2.60) is owned and bred by Michael Goldberg and trained by Chuck Connor, Jr.

The next group of colt and gelding side-wheelers vied for $43,200 and saw Hard To Forget (American Ideal—Nota Fool Bluechip) pace away with an impressive win.

Hard To Forget (Gingras) took the early lead and was at the quarter in :27.3. But he was soon challenged by Daytoremember (Heath Campbell) who stormed the leader passing three-eighths. But as soon as Daytoremember grabbed the front, Hard To Forget came right back for the top and stayed there until the end. Hard To Forget reached three-quarters in 1:23 and opened up a four-length lead. He then rounded the turn, pulled away by more and finished the mile on top by five in 1:51.3, setting a new lifetime mark.

Hard To Forget ($2.40) is owned and bred by Fiddler's Creek Stable and trained by Travis Alexander.

Please note that starting this week, Plainridge Park will be racing on Fridays for the next five weeks, through the end of October. Post time will also be 2 p.m. for all Friday cards.

Delaware SIRE STAKES REPORT

Blazing Tui sets track record in DSBF split

by Matt Sparacino / Harrington Raceway

Don and David Wiest's Blazing Tui ($2.10, driven by Corey Callahan) set a new track record for 2-year-old trotting geldings with a 1:57.4 in his $20,000 Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund (DSBF) elimination Wednesday (Sept. 30) at Harrington Raceway.

The Yankee Royalty gelding improved to three-for-three lifetime with a front-end romp over Youcancallmeroy and Lebanon Levii. Trained by David Wiest, the win came on co-owner Don Wiest's 96th birthday.

Meanwhile 2-year-old filly Vamoose ($3.20, Eddie Dennis) equaled her own 1:59.1 track record in the first filly division. Owned by Rodney Wyatt, E&K Racing, and Kevin Peck, Vamoose, a daughter of Anders Bluestone, controlled the tempo from post 7 and was a comfortable winner over Franchesca and Leap Year. Vamoose improved to three-for-three in her career for trainer/driver/co-owner Dennis.

In the next filly division, Burke Racing and Weaver Brussemi's Daringly ($2.10, Callahan) was a 1:59.4 winner over Dassie and She Is Unstoppable. The Southwind Frank filly improved to three-for-six in her career for trainer Ron Burke.

In the second male division, Mike and Linda English's Mike Franks ($3, Ross Wolfenden) was a 2:00.3 winner over Amish Outlaw and Italian Royalty. Trained by John Wilkerson, the Southwind Frank gelding earned the second win of his career. The final male division went to Sonja Booth's Platinum Ice ($3.40, Troy Beyer) in 2:01 over Cirocco and Frosty Frank. The EL Platinum gelding earned his first lifetime win for trainer Besim Odza.

The top 8 point earners from two rounds of eliminations return for $110,000 final events on October 14.

In the overnight feature, the $22,500 open trot, longshot Somebody Special (14-1) led the field through fractions of :28.2, :57.3, and 1:25.4 before pocket sitter That Ole Bar Stool ($16.60, Art Stafford, Jr.) shook loose down the passing lane in the stretch for a 1:55 win. Speed Away closed late for second while Somebody Special was third. Trained by Bobby Clark, it was the fifth win of the year for Tina Clark's That Ole Bar Stool.

Also on the undercard, Sam Banks' Lizzy Lauxmont ($17.20, Callahan) was a 1:56.3 winner in the $18,000 open II. It was one of three wins on the card for Callahan.

Round two of DSBF stakes action for 2-year-old horses will headline the October 5-7 racing programs with the male pacers on Monday (Oct. 5), female pacers Tuesday (Oct. 6), and trotters Wednesday (Oct. 7) to round out the week.

DSBF PACING FILLIES COMPLETE FIRST LEG

Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund (DSBF) 3-year-old stakes action continued at Harrington Raceway Tuesday with three $20,000 divisions for pacing fillies.

All three divisions featured short fields as Nanticoke Racing, Henry Faragalli III, and Chad Tate's Land Of The Free ($2.10, driven by Brandon Givens) won the initial split with ease in 1:58.2 over Moms Watchin and Wonderful Tonight. The He's Watching filly set the pace from her rail post position and notched her third career win for trainer Les Givens.

Legacy Racing of Delaware's Cruising Mist ($9.40, Allan Davis) won the second split in 1:57.1 for trainer Wayne Givens. The Powerful Mist filly led throughout in her first career win over Miss Mam and Jobs Not Finished. Davis drove another DSBF winner in the final division, Tyler Davis' Salty Beaches ($2.60) in 1:57 over Rynesha and Unberdnbywhatsben. The Badlands Hanover filly recorded her second straight win for her owner/trainer.

Frank Chick's Stevie Hanover ($3, Montrell Teague) won the overnight feature, the $22,500 mares open over Jett Propelled and Lou's Lucky Girl. The Jamie Sullivan trainee notched her seventh win of the season.

Live racing will continue on a Monday through Wednesday schedule (post time 4:30 p.m.) through Oct. 21.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Icaco Hanover dominates; Three repeat in Sire Stakes

by Rosecroft Raceway

After chasing for a no-match second behind a track-record 1:49 performance from Lou's Starr last week, Icaco Hanover got his share of the spotlight on Monday (Sept. 28) when he posted a career-best 1:49.3 victory in the $13,000 open handicap pace at Rosecroft Raceway.

With owner Russell Foster at the lines, Icaco Hanover sprinted to the lead from post 4 and tore through fractions of :25.4, :54.1, and 1:21.3 before repelling a stern first-over challenge from Don'tmesswithles (driven by Fern Paquet, Jr.) on the far turn. The 5-year-old Stay Hungry—Ideal Weather gelding worked to extend his winning margin to two lengths and take two seconds off his previous lifetime mark, taken earlier this season at Ocean Downs.

Don'tmesswithles sustained his pursuit to hold second; Layton Hanover (Jonathan Roberts) finished third from an earned pocket.

Megan Foster trains 16-time winner Icaco Hanover, who paid $2.60 to win as the 1-5 favorite.

On the undercard, a trio of Maryland-sired 3-year-olds completed sweeps of their preliminary Maryland Sire Stakes divisions to top their respective brackets heading into the $800,000 Maryland Showcase of Champions program, which will take place Oct. 11.

In the first $10,000 section for pacing fillies, summer series champ That'sloveto followed up her 1:57.2 first-round win with a last-to-first, 1:56 score over Pamfin. Johnathan Ahle drove the Dapper Dude—I Cant Stoplovinu filly for owner/trainer Dominik Miga.

The second pacing filly split also saw a repeat winner as Hagerman Racing's More Than Better, a More The Better N—Aristobrat Hanover filly sent off at 1-20 in line to Foster, gutted out a late bid from pocket foe I'm Feeling Spicy to prevail by a nose in 1:57 for trainer Herman Hagerman.

Better Gon was the other repeat winner, capturing the first male pacing division by 4½ lengths over Dapper Time in 1:56.2. Foster drove the More The Better N—Graygon gelding for trainer Adrian Wisher, Jr. and owner Frederick Weitz, Jr.

Foster scored a stakes grand slam in the bike, also driving trotting gelding Y'all Got No Shot to a 1:56.2 win for owner/trainer Richard Hans and trotting filly And Just Like That ($3.40) to a 13¾-length, 1:55 score for trainer Megan Foster and his own Russell Foster Racing LLC.

Pacing gelding Fast Willie ($7) completed the sextet of second-round winners with a 1:57 score in his split. Eric Davis drove for trainer Walter Bozman, Jr., who shares ownership with Deborah Bozman.

The final race saw one astute handicapper cash out for $7,707.90 on a 50-cent Jackpot Hi-5 wager after 1-5 favorite More Than Ya Know led an 8-1-2-3-5 combination that saw the second-through fifth-place finishers all go off at odds of 37-1 or longer.

Maine SIRE STAKES REPORT

Twenty wins for Snowonthepines

by Chris Tully for First Tracks Cumberland

The unstoppable filly phenom Snowonthepines added a 20th notch to her belt on Wednesday (Sept. 30) at the Cumberland Fair during the Maine Sire Stakes for 3-year-old filly pacers.

In her $17,209 event, which was held before the card, the champion filly had only air and opportunity in front of her as her regular pilot Kevin Switzer, Jr. sent the daughter of Dude's The Man on a front-end tour of the facility.

Passing the early stations in :30.2 and 1:02.2 with Ekorus (Joey Mosher) sitting in the pocket, Snowonthepines continued her air of superiority as no horses entered the outer flow to challenge for the lead.

After passing the third panel in 1:32 it was clear that the filly had things her own way and was on her way to another easy score, prevailing by 2½ lengths in a modest 2:02.

Trained by Marc Tardif for owner/breeder Leighton Property, it was the sophomore filly's 11th seasonal victory and 20th lifetime, increasing her career bankroll to $188,137.

Ekorus finished second; Perfectly Lovely (Aaron Hall) was third.

In the second $16,984 division it was Dudelooklikeafly who got a perfect 2-hole trip to best pacesetter Race Me Ireland (Andy Harrington) to score by a head in 2:01.3 and pick up her fourth seasonal win.

Driven by Aaron Hall for trainer Marc Tardif and owners Leighton Property and Victory Leighton, she was bred in Maine by Stephanie Gray.

Graceofspades (Dave Ingraham) finished third.

On the regular card the $5,800 feature was captured by Cool Man Dude in 1:59.1 with Aaron Hall returning $2.20 as the 1-9 favorite. Andy Harrington won the $5,000 Senior Citizen's Pace with his own 14-year-old Grand Galop Semalu in 2:03.2, which paid $4.40. Harrington picked up two wins on the card, as did Hall and Joey Mosher.

Always a highlight of the "Always in September" Fair, the Maine Sire Stakes continues at Cumberland with all the 3-year-old trotters completing the sophomore divisions today (Oct. 2).

Once again, Cumberland will host the $320,000-plus Maine Sire Stakes 2-year-old finals on Saturday (Oct. 3), with freshman filly pacer No Small Wonder entering the seasonal finale with an unblemished, eight-win record.

After the fair, the track's 15-day Winter Festival begins Nov. 8 and then primarily follows a three-day Friday-Saturday-Sunday schedule throughout the season, until Dec. 13. Our annual Au Revoir Retirement Ceremonies are slated for Dec. 12.

HARNESS RACING PRESS RELEASES, NOTES & ANNOUNCEMENTS

www.HarnessRacingUpdate.com

Hambletonian Society and Harrah's Hoosier Park announces 2027 Hambletonian date

The 102nd edition of the $1M Hambletonian, the most prestigious event in harness racing, will be raced on Aug. 21 in 2027 at the new venue of Harrah's Hoosier Park in Anderson, IN.

It was the intent of Harrah's Hoosier Park management and the Hambletonian Society to preserve the race's traditional August date on the Grand Circuit stakes calendar while also properly spacing and maximizing racing opportunities for human and equine competitors. Elimination races, if necessary, will be raced the week prior, on Aug. 14.

The Grade 1 Hambletonian and $500,000 Hambletonian Oaks will be the primary events on a stakes-laden card that will include many of Hoosier's established races such as the Caesars Trotting Classic, Hoosier Pacing Derby, Jenna's Beach Boy, Nadia Lobell, Vincennes Trot, and the Peter Haughton and Jim Doherty Memorials. Hambletonian Day will be the culmination of a week-long Hambletonian Festival of events for fans, bettors and race participants.

"The Hambletonian at Harrah's Hoosier Park creates an exciting opportunity for both the Hambletonian and harness racing," said John Campbell, president and CEO of the Hambletonian Society. "Hoosier Park has a strong commitment to the sport and its fans, and we look forward to expanding the exposure and creating additional involvement for all the supporters and participants throughout the Midwest."

The move to Indiana's premier racino for the next three years was the result of a collaborative effort involving Harrah's Hoosier Park, the Hambletonian Society, the Indiana Horse Racing Commission, and the Indiana Standardbred Association.

The 2027 Hambletonian will mark the beginning of a three-year run at Harrah's Hoosier Park, providing the Anderson venue with the opportunity to showcase the sport's signature event while building on Indiana's growing prominence in harness racing.

Breeders Crowns Charity Challenge stallion auction

A stallion breeding auction benefiting the Breeders Crown Charity Challenge (BCCC), presented by Prolific Equine, will be held on Tuesday (Oct. 6), at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

A brunch reception will kick off the day's festivities in the Kentucky Room at the Fasig-Tipton Sales Pavilion in Lexington, KY from 10-11 a.m., followed by the auction of the breedings at 11 a.m. The stallion breedings available include:

- Downbytheseaside
- Ecurie D DK
- Greenshoe
- Huntsville
- In Range
- King Of The North
- Ready For Moni
- Walner
- Winner's Bet

Thank you to Diamond Creek Farm, Ecurie D Syndicate, Hanover Shoe Farms, Cameo Hills Farm, Kevin Greenfield, King Of The North Syndicate, Ready For Moni Syndicate, Walner Syndicate, and Winner's Bet Syndicate for donating these breedings to benefit the BCCC.

The BCCC began in 2019 and raises funds for charities in the Breeders Crown host community. The 2026 Breeders Crown will be held at Scioto Downs in South Columbus Oct. 16-17 (eliminations) and 23-24 (finals). The local charities are the Ronald McDonald House – Central Ohio, Make-A-Wish Ohio, Kentucky & Indiana, Greater Columbus Sports Foundation, and Folds of Honor – Central Ohio.

For more information about the BCCC and how you can be involved to support these local charities, contact Jason Roth at jroth@caesars.com or Jessica Otten at jmotten97@gmail.com.
