Lexington Sale ‘tightens up,’ drops from five sessions to four story by Dave Briggs | additional quotes by James Platz

Last year, the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale saw 890 yearlings go through the ring over five sessions. This, year about 100 fewer horses will sell over four days.

“At the conclusion of last year’s sale, the sale management and the team felt that we wanted to tighten up the sale a little bit,” said sale co-manager David Reid, who oversees the sale in conjunction with Bruce Brinkerhoff. “The marketplace seemed like it was getting a little more selective. Our initial thoughts were, after getting some feedback from consignors, that we were going to tighten up the book for 2026. Going into the springtime, that was our goal.

“Then, the Breeders Crown dates were announced and, because of the calendar and the Crowns being a week earlier this year [with eliminations on Oct. 16 and 17], there was a ripple effect to the race dates. The Red Mile ended up adjusting their racing schedule to race Thursday, Friday, Saturday both weeks and moving the [Kentucky] Futurity to the first weekend, because there’s going to be Breeders Crown eliminations and finals. Therefore, we eliminated a night of the sale to adjust to the racing calendar.

“So, we ended up taking fewer yearlings after that as a result.”

This year’s auction at the Fasig-Tipton Sales Pavilion begins Monday (Oct. 5) with a session that begins at 7 p.m. Days 2 and 3 will be day sessions on Tuesday (Oct. 6) and Wednesday (Oct. 7) starting at 11 a.m., which is even earlier than last year’s afternoon sessions. The sale will conclude on Thursday (Oct. 8) with a night session beginning at 7 p.m.

“We’re going to start our sessions earlier on Tuesday and Wednesday,” Reid said. “The two day sessions are going to start at 11 o’clock in the morning. We want to get people out in time for dinner. That’s our main goal there. We’re selling more horses, obviously, on Days 2 and 3 and the quality is spread out – as it always is. We feel we have a very deep quality catalog and we’re excited to present the catalog.

“Everyone loves Lexington and they love to enjoy all aspects of it, including the nightlife, and that’s our goal – to try to make that happen as much as possible for all participants.”

Last year, 890 yearlings were sold at the Lexington sale. The gross of $60.891 million was the fourth best in sale history and produced an average of $68,417 that was also the fourth best ever. The median was $40,000 and 189 horses sold for $100,000 or more, up marginally over 2024.

“The Futurity is going to be on the Saturday (Oct. 3),” Reid said. “The racing is dark on Sunday and people can come to the facility and look at the horses, and all-day Monday as well. Then we roll right into Tuesday, Wednesday, and then conclude on Thursday night, with the racing during the day and the sale Thursday night.

As for what impact going four days instead of five will have on the bottom line, Reid said he’s not sure.

CONSIGNORS REACT TO SHORTER SALE

Reaction from some consignors was mixed, but mostly positive.

“I’d say everybody is pretty much in the same boat,” said Hunterton’s Steve Stewart. “At least, I hope they are. I think everybody’s got fewer horses than they did last year, which is fine. I like the fact that they’ve gone from five days to four days. I think that was a good move.

“It’s supply and demand. I don’t think we need to be selling 900 horses like we were a few years ago. I don’t think it had a great effect, but I think it could have an effect at some point. Every year, they were just raising it 70 or 80 horses. I think they’ve bit the bullet and cut it back and I think it’s a good thing. We sell at both sales, so it’s not a big, big problem for us... I don’t think they need to go to three days, but I think cutting it back by 70 or 80 horses was not a bad thing, in my opinion.”

Blue Chip Farm owner Tom Grossman said, "I think [fewer sessions is] better for everybody. I think people do get burned out and I think it makes it a more select sale. We viewed it that way, selling fewer in Day 3 and 4. I think it's going to be a positive. I don't see any negatives to the shorter sale, to fewer horses. I'm excited."

Shaun Laungani of Diamond Creek and Alliance Bloodstock said most of the yearlings they entered for Lexington made the cut.

"We had maybe just a few that Lexington wasn't interested in," Laungani said. "It wasn't as bad as what I've heard from some other folks. So we were really fortunate that way."

"I think that the reduction of the entries will help the sale, kind of help shed some of the low action periods. I know they're concerned about losing momentum and that kind of thing."

"So, I think it will be very helpful for them. I just think that it has reverberations for the industry that we all need to talk about. If we're reducing the number of slots in the major sales then that has an effect on the number of mares that will be bred and the stud fees people will be willing to try and the quality studs they will be willing to try. I know it's hit a lot of folks hard evaluating their mares. A lot of people breed just for the Lexington sale and if they can't get into the Lexington sale they have to reassess their mare. I would just tell everybody to proceed with caution."

Julie Meirs from Concord Stud said "just a small handful" of her yearlings were not accepted into the Lexington sale.

"I doubled the consignment on them, and they were able to accommodate," she said. "So, it's what you bring.

"I think the nights got long last year, and I think people weren't having as much fun as they have in previous years. And so I think it'll be better to cut it down.

"We've got earlier start times on the Tuesday and Wednesday, and a slimmer catalog. So, I think it's important that we are making changes that need to happen, and we'll find out in October if those were the right changes."

Senena Esty of Spring Haven Farm was realistic about the change to the sale format.

"It doesn't do me any favors if I take a substandard standardbred to Lexington and it doesn't sell well, so it just hurts me ultimately," Esty said. "I want to sell the best. So, I'm all about the need to cut days, or you need to have the best of the best. All of us got horses in that we thought were worthy. But there's got to be a selectness to the select sale, so you just have to put on your big boy or big girl britches and make another plan.

"I think we got the best in of the selection. I was fine as far as what we got in and what was on the chopping block. I wasn't surprised either. I could understand the reason."

Reid said the sales company will evaluate the results carefully before deciding on how best to run the sale in 2027.

"We'll look at everything – the average, the median," Reid said. "Obviously, gross is going to be down. We're just looking to continue to have the highest quality offering that we can have, in the time provided, in the best format we can present to the public.

"With the book tightened up a little bit, I expect the average to probably tick up a little bit and the median should tick up a little bit, if everything goes well."

HEAVIER IN TROTTERS

Reid said the sale, "percentage-wise, is heavier in trotters again this year. We have a great representation of all the top sires with Walner, Chapter Seven, Captain Corey, Tactical Landing. We've got the first-crop of Tactical Approach.

"Pacing-wise, same thing there. We have an increased selection of Captaintreacherous over last year. The first crop of Confederate is going to be offered this year and the first crop of Cannibal.

Dave Landry

"On the regional side, you've got the first crop of Branded By Lindy... first crop of Lou's Pearlman from Ohio and first crop of Beach Glass."

Other horse sales suggest the Lexington sale should be strong.

"The Ohio sale was good, year over year," Reid said. "I would expect a consistent marketplace coming into this fall.

"There's still a lot of strong jurisdictions. Sires stakes are booming everywhere. So, there's opportunity for people to get their money back.

"There's no glaring change in any jurisdiction. Ontario got stronger, a little bit. Other jurisdictions are staying the same, if not getting stronger. You've got the Kentucky program that's still rolling along. You have your Virginia program that's still plugging away. Your Massachusetts program is strong. There's nothing negative year over year, from a jurisdictional point of view, that would make me concerned.

"Every thoroughbred sale this year has been very, very strong and I would expect our marketplace to be consistent year over year, just like the thoroughbred market has been."

Stewart said the addition of the $1 million Meadowlands Trot for 2027 should help maintain the value of New Jersey horses in Lexington, especially since Meadowlands' owner Jeff Gural has added a bonus for New Jersey-sired winners of the race.

"I think we went from darkness to light," Stewart said. "A month ago, everybody was, like, 'What's Gural going to do?' I think he could've gone either way. He could've folded the tent and said, 'Screw you guys, I'll just wait for my casino,' but he's stepped up. The SBOA and him are working together and that's what was needed and I think it lacked that before the vote to move the [Hambletonian to Indiana]. It's all positive now. The big thing that he had to do, he had to make sure there was a reason for all those trainers to be in New Jersey. We all know that it's a hell of a lot more expensive on the East Coast than it is in the Midwest to take care of horses and live and everything, so there's got to be a reason to be there. People like it in Lexington, it's user-friendly here. So, you needed what he did. Hat's off to him and thank goodness he did that.

"I think it'll bode well for the sale because there's no question now. Before, there were a lot of questions."

FAVORABLE TAX LAWS AND OTHER SALES

Favorable tax laws should also help drive business. A year ago, President Trump signed a permanent restoration of the 100 per cent Bonus Depreciation.

"I do think that continues to be a big plus, yes," Grossman said. "More so for [thoroughbreds] instead of us, because their owners tend to have much more outside income in general than our owners would, but it's still a big plus for anybody with a business."

Stewart said the standardbred business just makes more economic sense than the thoroughbred game.

"We sold $12 million worth of yearlings [last year], we don't need to sell $13 million, if that makes sense," he said. "Living in thoroughbred land now for all my life and watching [thoroughbreds], they don't go boom to bust, but they go so high that there's a correction. The thing about our business is, I don't think we jump 20 per cent and go crazy. What that does is... it just costs more for everybody. When everything goes up, then at some point there will be a correction. The reason why there's going to be a correction is simple economics. They are, just like us, not racing for any more money. So, if you're buying into a business then the return is not there, when it comes to racing, I question whether yearling prices are controlled by purse money. It is by us, for sure."

"We're racing for the exact same amount of money this year as we did last year. When I'm talking to thoroughbred people about standardbreds, I always say, 'We're a great, simple business, in the fact that it's money in and money out.' If people think they can make money, they'll buy and if they don't think they can make money, they won't."

"There's no ego in our business, meaning going to the country club and talking about it. There's no value in that, like there is in thoroughbreds. So, we don't attract the people that are doing it to just to say they are doing it."

"The economics for us are much, much better than the thoroughbreds, but they have the pomp and circumstance, what I call 'the moth to the flame.' People say, 'the thoroughbreds must be the way to go – look at all the money, money, money.' I always tell them, and they look at me funny, but I say, 'if it's not standardbreds, I'd go sell shoes or I'll go do something else.' I would never get in their business because the average thoroughbred races six times a year. It's not for the faint of heart, but they do have the ability to draw the people that have money into the game. I'm not saying that we shouldn't do more of that, because we should, but I like the economics of our business right where it is and I hope it stays there for everyone involved."

Perennial leading consignor Preferred Equine has a more diverse Lexington consignment than ever

by Dave Briggs

When David Reid says his Preferred Equine has a yearling for everyone selling at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale, it's not just hyperbole.

Preferred Equine – the leading consignor at Lexington in 11 of the last 13 years, including a record total of $12.588 million in sales in 2024 – is selling 121 yearlings at Fasig-Tipton for 35 different breeders, representing 36 sires from eight jurisdictions.

"We have a great diversity of sires," said Reid, who was inducted into the Harness Racing Hall of Fame this past July. "You've got pacing sires – Bulldogs, Cannibals, Captaintreacherous, Confederates, Downbytheseasides, Sweet Lous. We're representing all the top pacing sires.

"On the trotting side, we've got great representation from Captain Corey, Chapter Seven, first crop Tactical Approach, Tactical Landing, Walner.

"Then we end with a bang on the last night with our Downbytheseasides and first crop of Branded By Lindy. Cuatro De Julio has had a good year and Ready For Moni is on fire in Ohio. We have a good representation of those, too.

"A high percentage of those are dual eligible and a lot of them are triple eligible."

Reid said diversity is especially notable in this year's consignment. "We have a very diverse consignment and we have a lot of first foals and a lot of active pedigrees that have a ton of updates, probably none bigger than Hip #337 [Wallstreetbets]," he said.

The son of Walner out of Saadet is the full brother to undefeated 2-year-old filly Wall Of Fame, a winner of nine races and $561,250 as of Sept. 30 for the wife-and-husband duo of Julie and Andy Miller and their partners.

Reid said great horses can come from any sale session and it's important for people not to overlook horses selling later in the auction.

"If I'm a buyer, I'm shopping everywhere, every night, every session... with the understanding that the sale has tightened up this year and there's going to be good horses that are generated from every sale session and I think it's important to get around and do your homework," he said.

"We have 19 Massachusetts eligibles, which would make them dual or triple eligible. I think nearly 80 of our horses are all dual or triple eligible. That's attractive and it's great for the marketplace, great for the buyer."

Reid said he's proud to represent breeders of all sizes and noted that Little Brown Jug winner Redland Rocket Man was bred by Redland Farms of Bible Hill, NS.

"[Redland Rocket Man], the Jug winner, came from Preferred Equine – not from Lexington, but another consignment," Reid said. "It's just another example of the breeders we represent and they just continue to produce horses that win on the biggest stages."

Alliance Bloodstock offering deep collection of high-end pacers

by James Platz

Alliance Bloodstock's 2026 Lexington consignment is its largest to date, with 60 yearlings cataloged. With 41 pacers in the group, and many first foals, Shaun Laungani says the consignment's composition is reflective of Diamond Creek Farm's efforts to support new stallions Confederate and Cannibal.

"It's a function of the investment Diamond Creek has made in young pacing stock, and a lot of it was done to support Confederate and Cannibal in their first crops," he said. "So, almost every Confederate and Cannibal is a first foal."

A total of 29 babies are consigned by Diamond Creek exclusively or in partnership. Confederate is represented by 11 yearlings — seven colts and four fillies — while Cannibal has five in the consignment, with three fillies and two colts. Also factoring in is the first crop of Diamond Creek trotting stallion Tactical Approach, who has four progeny in the consignment.

“We’ve got a rare situation that may not come around ever again where we’ve got three freshman stallions all debuting first yearlings in the same year,” Laungani said. “We are super thrilled that the sales companies have received the stallions so well. There are several Cannibals on Day 2 in Lexington. There are a few Tactical Approaches on Day 1. Obviously, the Confederates are all over Day 1 and Day 2, and so the sales companies appear to be liking the yearlings and the pedigrees and putting them in nice slots.”

Alliance Bloodstock will sell a pair of Confederate colts in the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale’s opening session. One is from Diamond Creek, the other was bred by Sergeant Stables and raised at the Diamond Creek’s Georgetown, KY location.

“This year is the largest group we’ve ever taken to Lexington and we’ve got the phase two, the final dispersal for Sergeant Stables, which has had a pretty illustrious run,” Laungani said. “When they sold the farm in Ocala, the weanlings were shipped to us last fall. This is the very last group of horses out of that operation that’ll be available to the public.”

Cataloged as Hip #65, Confederate colt May May will be the first of 12 Sergeant-bred yearlings to sell in Lexington. Both Pennsylvania and Florida eligible, he is the first foal from graded stakes winner McSeaside (3, 1:48.4, $595,501).

“Royal family, and this horse looks every bit the part,” Laungani said. “He’s just kind of one of those nearly flawless types. There'd be very few people that wouldn't fall in love with him. He's got all the class, presence, and tools that you'd look for. Definitely look for him to be a standout for sure."

Selling 10 lots later is Pennsylvania and Kentucky eligible colt Coast Guard, the first foal from a Captaintreacherous mare from the family of the great My Little Dragon. Diamond Creek bred the colt, cataloged as Hip #75.

"The Confederates are just off the charts with athleticism," Laungani said. "We couldn't be more excited. I mean, we're completely all in. I just can't wait for everybody to evaluate them and pick them apart because I think it's going to be a scenario where if you don't like them, you don't like fast-looking horses. They just seem to have so much athleticism. They video so well."

Alliance Bloodstock is selling four yearlings on the first day, with two among the first 10 lots to pass through the ring. Downbytheseaside colt Pappatrail, Hip #3, is an Ohio and Kentucky eligible sibling to freshman winner Sister Girl Blues (p, 2, 1:51-'26 $71,100). The dam is a full-sister to two-time Dan Patch Award winner Warrawee Ubeaut, dam of Ubrute (p, 2, 1:49.4 $436,389) and Seaside Ubeaut (p, 2, 1:49.2-'26 $271,000).

"It just seems like everything's lighting up for this colt who's just like the perfect size, the perfect look, perfect video," Laungani said. "I think he checks all the boxes. I think he'll be looked at tons and tons."

The other first day entry, dual-eligible Walner colt is Hip #7 Holy Ground. Out of the Muscle Hill mare Altar, he is a brother to freshman winner City Of Light.

Laungani also highlighted yearlings that are selling during the other sessions.

"My favorite Tactical Approach first cropper that we have is this colt [dual eligible Hip #165 Event Horizon], first foal out of Bella Macchiato," he said. "She was a pretty capable race mare, but this colt just has a bunch of size and athleticism to him. Just a natural trotter."

Confederate colt William Wallace, Hip #203, was also spotlighted. He is a dual-eligible yearling out of millionaire and top producer Darlinonthebeach.

"Not only is he stunning, he's jet black with a lot of leg," Laungani said. "He is just a crazy fast animal. He can just absolutely fly. It's like he can go three strides in half a second and he's just gone."

Hip #221 In Lou We Trust, is a dual eligible first foal from a sister to graded stakes winner Admiral Hill.

"A sweet little filly that just can really put her butt down and go," he said. "She's really impressive that way."

Hip #262 Divided Waters is a dual eligible first foal from Somebeachsomewhere mare Ipanema Hanover. The second dam is the 100 per cent producer Ideal Newton.

"He is a big, strong Confederate colt that just impresses us more and more every day," Laungani said. "I think he'll be very well received."

He also called out a pair of yearlings not to be overlooked in Sweet Lou filly Hip #343 She Be Sweet and Cannibal filly Hip #459 Pink Venom.

"[She Be Sweet] is a nice, good sized filly that's just got an amazing video," he said. "She just seems to have a lot of class, and she's another first foal out of the Sergeant dispersal."

She Be Sweet is out of a Captaintreacherous sister to two-time Dan Patch Award winner Perfect Sting.

"Our favorite Cannibal is Hip #459 out of the family of Huntsville," Laungani said. "So, this is New York through and through. She is dual eligible. This is just a lovely filly that no one will not appreciate if they come see her."

Laungani is excited to get the sale underway. He feels there are several from the consignment that will go on to do big things.

"It's probably the deepest group of well-pedigreed sale pacing yearlings that I'm ever going to be around," he said. "We've never had so many good ones. It's just got that feel in the barn like there are multiple, potentially dozens of stakes winners and hopefully a champion."

Lexington's sale time has been shortened, but Kentuckiana Farms has quality for days

by Matthew Lomon

Whether acting as a top consignor or as a part-owner of the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale, Kentuckiana Farms has played a pivotal role in the auction's sustained success.

A co-owner of the Lexington Sale since its inception in 2005, the family-owned and operated standardbred horse farm is particularly enthused about the sale's performance in recent years, headlined by a record-setting gross of nearly $68 million in 2023.

"I think [the recent success of the sale] is attributed to bringing a better group of quality yearlings to the market," said Kentuckiana Farms part-owner Bob Brady. "I think we have to applaud all the consignors for stepping up their efforts in acquiring better pedigrees and doing a better job raising horses."

CANE RUN
FARM

The outfit, situated on approximately 1,200 acres in Fayette and Scott counties in Kentucky, has routinely landed among the sale's most profitable consignors.

In 2025, Kentuckiana led all sellers with 137 yearlings sold, ranking third in total gross – a spot they also held in 2023, following a second-place slot in 2024.

Between the past three Lexington sales, Kentuckiana has sold a total of 387 yearlings for a total gross value of $26,243,200.

For Brady, who has been with the industry stalwart since 1986, the robust performance of Kentuckiana, as well as the emphasis on excellence from fellow consignors, ranks among the key reasons for optimism ahead of the 2026 event.

"It certainly does," said the University of Kentucky alum. "I also think by cutting off one of the days and shortening the entries in the sale, it just brings a much higher quality back to the Lexington Sale."

Kentuckiana's contribution to the wider quality of this year's sale is a lineup of 98 yearlings, including 31 of their own, and 67 agent horses.

The deep and diverse selection of youngsters features progeny from several standout sires, including Walner, Chapter Seven, Tactical Landing, and Muscle Hill.

Brady spoke glowingly of three standouts from powerhouse trotting stallions Walner and Chapter Seven.

"The Walner colt [Hip #96 Special Account] out of Special Hill, who's the mother of Special Way," he said. "He's a very nice individual – a top-type colt that checks all the boxes."

"The Chapter Seven colt [Hip #71 Maestro Volo], first foal from Mommamia Volo, is another very nice colt – super athletic, great conformation, out of a very deep pedigree.

"The Chapter Seven filly [Hip #9 Another Belle] out of Another Like Me. Excellent, excellent filly out of a filly family that's certainly produced very well."

Alongside Kentuckiana's top-rated trio is a pair of yearlings – one from Tactical Landing and one from Muscle Hill – that are projecting as strong value picks on Days 2 (Tuesday, Oct. 6) and 3 (Wednesday, Oct. 7), respectively.

"I have a Tactical Landing filly [Hip #160 Back Flash Volo] out of a mare called Back Splash," Brady said. "Another excellent filly. Super athletic, great conformation, and made an awesome video.

"I would say the Muscle Hill colt [Hip #557 Air Mail] out of Milady Volo is the most improved colt since we started the sale prep. He's certainly moving in the right direction and looks and is gaited like the good Muscle Hills that we've had in the past."

Kentuckiana's deep consignment also contains an intriguing lot from the first crop of champion Confederate, who set the world record for 3-year-old pacing colts with a 1:46.1 win on Sept. 4, 2023, at The Red Mile.

Kentuckiana, which has bred, raised or sold over 45 million-dollar earners, is selling six of the 52 available yearlings from Confederate's maiden crop across Days 1 (Monday, Oct. 5), 2, and 3.

The sextet includes Hip #30 Keeping My Secret, Hip #54 Dixie Highway, Hip #87 Confederacy, Hip #183 Field Drive, Hip #185 Southern Captain, and Hip #633 Tempederate.

"The Confederates are excellent; I'm very happy with them," Brady said. "They're the right size, the right type, right bone. They have a super athletic look to them – good, sharp heads. I think they're going to be very well received."

Founded in 1975 by Harness Racing Hall of Famer Tom Crouch and his wife Betty, Kentuckiana Farms has experienced tremendous growth in the decades that followed.

Today, the property houses a state-of-the-art yearling complex and turn-out facilities, complete with 90 stalls, four walking rings for yearling inspection, two mechanical exercisers with observation facilities, a round pen for breaking and conditioning, turn-out paddocks, and a video paddock designed to enhance yearling video productions.

As Winbak approaches $450 million in lifetime progeny earnings, Ladwig is proud of the yearlings selling in Lexington

by Dave Briggs

One day soon, Winbak Farm will surpass $450 million in total progeny earnings, the second most behind Hanover Shoe Farms in harness racing history and more than double the third-place farm on the all-time list.

Winbak's long-time yearling manager, Jimmy Ladwig, said the numbers are a source of pride for the farm owned by Hall of Famer Joe Thomson.

"That's pretty good," Ladwig said of the total. "We'll take that.

"It's funny, I don't think people really give us credit for our ranking. It doesn't seem like our horses are in the spotlight as much lately, but they are out there."

Dave Landry

The next generation of Winbak yearlings is now ready to sell and the farm will auction off nearly 60 of them at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

Ladwig said Thomson recently visited Winbak's Maryland headquarters to inspect the yearlings.

BREED • BUY • RACE NEW JERSEY

Standardbred Development Fund for all qualified Standardbred Mares residing in New Jersey

For 2027, the Standardbred Development Fund (SDF) series will consist of one or more legs and a final for 2- and 3-year-olds of each gait and sex. Eligibility for the Standardbred Development Fund series will be open to all horses sired by New Jersey-based stallions as well as horses that are the result of a breeding between any registered standardbred stallion and a standardbred mare that has spent a minimum of 150 consecutive days in New Jersey inclusive of foaling.

Subsequent payments to continue eligibility include yearling nominations, and sustaining payments during a horse's 2- and 3-year-old seasons. Sustaining payments for the Standardbred Development Fund program of $100 and $150 are due on February 15 and April 15, respectively. Starting fees for Standardbred Development Fund races are $200 for qualifying races and $500 for final events.

Horse owners must register the Mares Bred by December 31 in the year they foal.

"We went through them yesterday with Joe and they really look great," Ladwig said. "I'm proud to bring them in and I think they'll be well-received."

Asked whether Thomson has a favorite, Ladwig said the boss, "plays things close to the vest... but now that I'm thinking about it, there was one that he really liked... I think it was the La Minita Hanover filly [Hip #56 Uptown Angel, a Captaintreacherous filly]. It was just like, 'Whoa, look at her.'"

Ladwig agreed with Thomson's assessment. "I've loved her since I was feeding her this winter," he said. "She was just gorgeous and she's maintained it. She is one of my favorites. "We do have a nice, strong filly group. Not that our colts aren't nice, too, but our fillies – there's a couple in there that are beautiful. So, we got the show started with that yesterday. When we started going through the barns with Joe, those were the first few we pulled out and he said, 'Oh my God. Oh my God. Wow. Wow.'"

"Joe loves it. He loves to come in and look at them. It's his fun time of year, too."

This year, Winbak will sell the first crop from its Ontario-based stallion Beach Glass, a son of Somebeachsomewhere owned by some of the same connections as the late legend.

"The babies look the part," Ladwig said of the Beach Glass offspring. "They are kind of all stamped. They all look like him and all look alike – a nice copper brown, good-looking colts and fillies. They are athletic and racy-looking and pretty correct."

They've got some good videos and really look the part, so I'm really excited about them."

As for standouts from their Lexington consignment, apart from Uptown Angel, Ladwig also mentioned:

- Hip #59 Novel Life, a Chapter Seven filly out of Mets Life. "She's got a great video and trots like hell."
- Hip #260 Solid Catch, a Captain Corey–Mets Inn filly. "She's a gorgeous filly. She trots like hell in her video and looks good and smart."
- Hip #55 Bennyville, a Huntsville colt out of La Fitness. "He's a good-looking colt. He's really nice."

"You can't ignore us," Ladwig said. "We've got a bit of everything. The horses are raised well, prepped well. You can't deny it. We have a good product and I think they go on for longevity, too."

"We've got a couple of nice Cattlewashes, Captain Coreys, Huntsvilles. We've got some nice Volume Eights, first-year sire on the trotting side. We're really liking them. They are just kind of racy. They aren't really big, but they are stout and long and racy and they just went like hell in the video paddock. I went, 'Whoa, I like them.'"

Peninsula's Lexington consignment offers some ATMs

by Debbie Little

Lexington will be a little special this year for Peninsula Farm's Carter Duer as he sells for the first time as a newly minted Hall of Famer.

"It's a great honor, believe me," Duer said. "I've got a lot of good friends in [the Hall of Fame], and it is a great honor, and I appreciate it."

Duer, who will be formally inducted into the Hall of Fame in Goshen, NY in July 2027, is expecting big things from this year's Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

"This sale down here will be exceptional," Duer said. "At least the first couple days, I think it'll be absolutely exceptional. And I think Harrisburg will be big."

Duer's Georgetown, KY-based nursery will offer a total of 28 in Lexington, including 24 as agent.

As usual, Peninsula offers looks to bring you in and breeding to back it up.

"I do have, I think, some very nice horses, pacers and trotters... that have got a chance of doing something, and they're a very correct bunch," Duer said. "And you know, I just think there's some nice ones in there."

Duer added with a laugh, "I won't be getting any big checks, but I think whoever gets them has got a very good chance of getting some."

Although he's never been a big fan of showing on Day 1, Peninsula has two going that day: Hip #62 Juno Beach a Tactical Landing colt out of Magic Bee and Hip #104 Astral Skys a Walner filly out of The Ice Dutchess. Both are Kentucky and New Jersey eligible.

"They're both nice horses," Duer said.

Astral Skys is out of an amazing filly family that goes back to the great Southwind Serena.

"Believe me, she's very nice," Duer said. "I wish I owned her, but I don't. But she's a very nice filly. The family is deep, and I wish I had more of it."

Juno Beach is a first foal whose second dam is Beehive, the dam of Bee A Magician.

"They both have great families," Duer said.

Peninsula is offering yearlings from 13 different stallions.

"I think we have maybe four Tactical Landings, and they're all pretty nice, and I've got three nice Muscle Hills colts, and he still does very well; every year he comes up with something," Duer said. "I've got a couple King Of The Norths, which I like. He's done very well in Canada, and I kind of like them. And then I have three Captain Coreys, and they're all okay, and I got a few more pacers this year than normal."

Peninsula has three Tactical Landings – Hip #417 You're Unmuted out of Aperfect Ruby, Hip #549 Here Comes Magic out of Magic Touch, and Hip #597 Elizabeth Swan out of Rosalie Swan – selling on Day 3. Of their three Muscle Hill colts, Hip #199 Grasevina out of Croatia and Hip #379 Private Trade sell on Day 2, with Hip #512 Teddy Boom Boom on Day 3.

Their trio of Captain Coreys are also split across Day 2 and Day 3 with Hip #133 My Lover out of You Want Me and Hip #217 Loving Captain out of Ever Lovin on the former and Hip #617 Dateless out of Single In The City on the latter.

All three are nice horses,” Duer said of his Captain Corey’s. “I mean, very nice horses. Not just nice horses, very nice horses.”

Both King Of The Norths, Hip #535 Cantera King a colt out of La Cantera and Hip #635 Grandslam Anne a filly out of The Dealers Ace are on Day 3.

“I’ve got three Confederates in this sale here, and I really like them,” Duer said. “They’re nice horses. His yearlings are very, very nice, and they do everything right. So, I’m hoping that they’ll be alright for these clients because they’re very good clients and they’re friends of mine. I don’t have a single pacer myself, but I’m glad to have them.”

Hip #278 Midwind Loveknot out of Love For Sail and Hip #508 G H Charm out of Giver To Er are both Confederate fillies and Hip #454 Confederate Railway is a Confederate colt out of Cerise Hanover.

“I haven’t got a single colt or filly that if I had to train them, I would feel bad about it,” Duer said. “All of these, the pacers, the trotters, they’ve got good confirmation, they’ve got enough pedigree to make it, and they’re just nice horses.”

Although Duer doesn’t love the name his son picked out for Teddy Boom Boom, he does think well of the colt.

“He’s a very nice colt,” Duer said. “He’s a first foal of a mare who was destined to be a lot better than what she was, but she was alright, and it’s kind of a family horse. We own the grandam and the dam and the great grandam. So, you know, we’ve had them all, so he’s kind of like a family horse.”

Duer will always be partial to the offspring of Captain Corey, who he bred. Even though Corey has not gotten as many top-level mares as Chapter Seven or Walner, and rightfully so, Duer has faith in him as a top-level stallion.

“Chapter Seven and Walner have been so good and are getting all the good mares that it’s tough to unseat them until Mother Nature unseats them,” he said with a laugh. “[Captain Corey’s] done exceptionally well, I think.

"I follow him closer than anybody because it's just like one of my kids playing ball. I look at every one of them that races that comes on TV, so I think he's done exceptionally well, I'm very happy with him.

Duer said Captain Corey was always special and it's something that he passes on.

"He was beautiful," he said. "From the day he was born until the day we sold him; he just was absolutely perfect in every way.

"A lot of them look like him. I can look at them on TV and pretty well pick them out. He's added years to my life I think because I've just been so enthused, being able to watch his horses go and race and it gives me some pleasure."

Just like a professional gambler, Duer holds his cards close to his vest, but he did mention that he has the same feeling about one of his yearlings that he had about Corey when he was the same age. Whether he'll share that information with anyone before or after the sale remains to be seen.

Most of Peninsula's consignment is dual eligible including nine from New Jersey. As a result Duer was happy to hear the good news that Meadowlands owner Jeff Gural shared about the two new races he will have for 2027, the million-dollar Meadowlands Trot and $500,000 Meadowlands Oaks Trot.

"That surprised me," Duer said. "That really surprised me. We need New Jersey. We can't afford to lose it, but you know Atlantic City is going to make it to where I don't think we'll ever get [a casino] up there, but we do need The Meadowlands and we need New Jersey.

"I mean the whole business I'm not talking about just for Jersey, but for me, and people that do what I do, and everybody else, we need New Jersey."

Duer said he knows with the closing of Southwind Farms it has not yet been determined where all the stallions, such as Walner, will be going.

"Yeah, well, it doesn't matter where [Walner] is; he's all right," Duer said, adding with a laugh, "They could put him in Alaska, and he'd still fill his book and everything. But, if it would help New Jersey, we need him there."

Fresh off breeding their fourth Hambletonian winner since 2014, and a year after leading all Lexington Selected Yearling Sale consignors with total sales of just over $12 million – the second best consignor total in the sale's history – Steve and Cindy Stewart's Hunterton Farm are again primed to compete for the top of the sale's leaderboard.

years as much as the ones due to sell this week at the Fasig-Tipton sales pavilion.

"I think we're one of the very few consignors that only talk about the horses we've sold, not the horses we're about to sell," Steve said. "Most people are saying, 'Come buy my horses' and we say, 'Look what we've sold.'"

"There's great statistics and rankings on trainers, drivers, stallions, but there's not anything for consignors. I think if there was, we'd be right at the top."

The Stewarts were part of the group that bred this year's Hambletonian winner Apex. They also own a piece of the son of Walner out of the great Mission Brief, a mare they bred, sold and then later bought back as a broodmare after her racing career ended.

This year, Mission Brief's Gimpazee colt Top Gun, Hip #88 will be sold in Lexington. Both Apex and Top Gun's 2-year-old full-brother Command Center were sold at the Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling auction in Harrisburg, PA – Apex for $525,000 and Command Center for $500,000. Mission Brief's six foals that have sold at auction have fetched $3.5 million combined.

"In our opinion, [Top Gun is] very similar to [Command Center]," Steve said. "This one is very, very similar in the fact that he's a June foal, just like Command Center is, but he will sell accordingly. He's a solid horse."

Last year, Hunterton sold 120 yearlings in Lexington. This year the number will be down slightly to 110.

"Every year is different, but when you have 20 Walners to sell that usually bodes fairly well," Steve said. "If you look at our consignment, it's pretty much Tactical Landings, Captaintreacherous, Confederates, Bulldogs, Muscle Hills. We pretty much have what you want, that's for sure. We've got Chapter Sevens and what not."

"I would say that we're right where we want to be. A lot of times, you say, 'I wish I would've bred there,' but there's not a lot of that from what we're selling."

Steve said his best guess is his sale topper will be Hip #76 Indestructible, a Walner colt out of Jolene Jolene.

"That's a full brother to [Mohawk Million winner] Venerable," Steve said.

He said he also likes the following yearlings from Hunterton's consignment:

Hip #68 Targeter, a Tactical Landing filly out of Sarcy. "It is the full sister to Tactical Approach. It goes back to what we were talking about, if you've got full brothers and full sisters to Hambletonian winners, it kind of helps."

"The one that I think is going to be the most interesting... is Hip #728 [Zoetry]," Steve said. "It's Walner Payton's first foal. It's by Volstead. Some people have even commented, 'Who is that stallion that starts with the letter 'V'?' There's a lot of people that don't even know who Volstead is, but he stands in Ohio and had that unbeatable filly Down Under. He's a very good stallion, he's probably unheralded in the United States, but three years ago it wasn't easy to figure out where to breed a Walner out of a Muscle Hill mare. We had bred Walner Payton and she sold for $500,000 and made $800,000 and then we bought her back from Ken Jacobs and now we bred her. The best part is, when people ask me, 'Why did we do that?' then I go, 'Look at her and you'll see why.'"

"We just got an outstanding individual. I don't know who will top the sale overall, but I feel like I know who is going to top the sale on the last day and it's her. If she's not the sale topper on the last day, then someone got a good buy. She's not going to sell for as much as they do on the first day, but that's fine. For us, we paid a lot of money for her, but she's the ground floor for what the mare will do going forward."

Crawford Farms' evolved vision on full display at Lexington

by Matthew Lomon

Crawford Farms' path to prominence in the standardbred sphere has been defined by determination, and the expectation that a place among the industry's elite breeding operations was always within reach.

"Absolutely," said Michelle Crawford. "We had a vision, and we have done a lot of homework, and we have evolved – I think our consignment shows that year after year."

"I'm extremely proud of our broodmares, our lines and the offspring. I'm very excited about what we're bringing to Lexington this year, especially on opening night."

Ready to showcase 43 yearlings, Crawford Farms' sales roster is so deep that the outfit had more to offer but had to be selective with the Lexington Sale moving from a five-day event to four.

"We're doing a few in Harrisburg this year for the first time," Crawford said.

However, the award-winning breeder isn't sweating Lexington's condensed schedule.

"My hope, and my thought, is if it's any reflection of Keeneland [September Yearling Sale for thoroughbreds] and the numbers they're doing over there – I know it's different – but I'm hoping the industry trend overall is up and I think with a four-day sale you're going to have everyone in attendance and on point because there's only four days... I think the sale will be very strong from start to finish this year."

The premier breeding and racing farm with locations in Manlius, NY, and Versailles, KY, returns to neighboring Lexington at the right time for several of its yearlings, including Hip #28 Devi and Hip #111 Ubeautiful, whose superstar siblings Brandon Blvd and Seaside Ubeaut, respectively, recorded major Kentucky Sire Stakes victories on Sunday (Sept. 20) at The Red Mile.

"Brandon Blvd [Downbytheseaside—Alexis Faith] winning the Kentucky championship was a huge bonus with a Huntsville filly out of Alexis Faith [Hip #28 Devi] selling opening night," Crawford said.

"I think that result is going to bring an extra-large spotlight, which I'm not certain you need since Alexis Faith has been a 100 per cent producer, but I think that's definitely going to amplify her."

“Seaside Ubeaut also won her final for 2-year-old pacing fillies Sunday evening, and we have a Captaintreacherous filly sister [Hip #111 Ubeautiful] selling opening night that we own with Burke Racing because we own Warawee Ubeaut with them. I think that’s going to highlight her, too.”

Joining the pacing fillies on Crawford’s Day 1 watchlist is a Tactical Landing trotting filly out of Bill’s Lady.

“We have a full sister to Mambacita [Hip #36 Elietta] that I think is going to be even more exciting,” Crawford said. “She’s selling opening night and she’s fabulous. I think looking at a really stunning full sister to Mambacita, who’s earned in excess of a million dollars, is going to be exciting for somebody.

“I think those three fillies alone are going to be spectacular for us for opening night.”

Boasting value across the board, Crawford Farms’ latest Lexington lineup is flush with under-the-radar prospects.

“The Sans Defaut by Chapter Seven [Hip #600 Agassi] is a little bit later in the sale just because she’s had some bad luck with one of her first that sold was injured and never raced.

“This colt was fabulous in the chute. I’ve watched him grow up, and he’s really nice, and that’s the family of Southwind Frank. I think that he might be flying under the radar because he’s so late in the sale, but I think that’s a really nice colt.

“There’s a first foal that’s a little bit later, out of Californiaglow [Hip #182 Cali York], and it’s a Captain Corey. He is stunning. He’s probably one of the nicest horses we have in the sale. Captain Corey is coming on strong... He produces winners, and he produces stakes horses.”

Crawford is also bullish on a pair of “spectacular” Sweet Lou fillies, one out of Sandbetweenurtoes [Hip #339 Sandytozmakemehappy] and another from Stonebridge Soul [Hip #624 Taconic].

Rounding out Crawford Farms’ formidable catalog is a quartet of trotters — three fillies, one colt — by world champion Crazy Wow: Hip #401 Antonia Blu, Hip #580 Ophelia Blush, Hip #581 Sawyer Blu, and Hip #740 Bourbon Jack (colt).

“We have a couple of really nice Crazy Wows,” Crawford said. “He has his biggest book selling this year. He’ll stand next year, and we’ll see how it goes, but for a horse that’s been bred to mediocre mares, he always produces stakes winners.”

From one to 43, Crawford Farms has something for every buyer.

“I’m excited about a lot of the yearlings in our consignment,” she said. “I think it’s going to be pretty strong overall.”

TROTTING INTO THE FUTURE!

Nine is fine for Vieux Carre Farms in Lexington

by Debbie Little

Vieux Carre Farms fielded a team for the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale that any major league diamond would be proud to host.

The Gettysburg, PA-based nursery has been on cloud nine since farm founder Dr. John "Tad" Egloff was inducted into the Hall of Fame in Goshen, NY, earlier this year, so there is a symmetry to them bringing that number to Kentucky, including one as agent, with seven pacers and two trotters.

According to the family-owned farm's general manager Mark Egloff, Vieux Carre's compact consignment is complete with correct, comely, competent, customer-pleasing characters.

Their first in the ring is Hip #102 Captain's Sweetie a daughter of Captaintreacherous out of the Omen Hanover mare Sweet Phenomena.

"She's a sister to Someomensomewhere [p, 2, 1:51.2m, $527,739]," Mark said. "It's a very prominent filly family and pretty current, and this is her first foal. With [Sweet Phenomena] being a daughter out of Omen Hanover, it's a great filly family.

"This is a nice big, strong Captaintreacherous filly. You know, the competition is stiff that first night for sure, but I think we'll be OK with her. I think she'll get a lot of looks; she's had a lot of interest already and I think they'll like her."

Mark said he's also very happy with the Captaintreacherous male trio that he's offering.

"I've got three very nice colts," he said. "They're all a little different.

"The one out of Bodacious Hanover [Hip #171 Colonel Hanks], which has been a really good mare for us. He's a very long, lanky, racy kind of horse. The other two [Hip #284 Tycoon Time and Hip #364 Gagster] are more typical Captaintreacherouses, kind of more blocky and muscular, but both very nice."

Bodacious Hanover is a daughter of Dragon Again out of Bunny Lake, which makes Colonel Hanks a full brother to Captain Luke (p, 4, 1:47.3m, $953,059).

"It's a great family, [Bodacious Hanover's] been a very good producer with lots of speed in the family, so hopefully Colonel Hanks will pick up the torch," Mark said.

Tycoon Time out of the Heston Blue Chip mare Margarita Time is from the family of world champions Tequila Monday (p, 4, 1:49.4f, $993,712) and Bolt The Duer (p, 3, 1:47.4f, $1,828,995), while Gagster, out of the Art Major mare Tell Me A Joke, traces back to Glowing Report (p, 5, 1:49.2m, $2,095,144).

"[With Tycoon Time] it's a current family, and this is a very nice colt," Mark said. "So, I think he'll do fine. And the other one for our client [Gagster] is a very nice individual. Like I said, he's a very typical Captaintreacherous, kind of a plain bay, built very correct, but muscular and very well put together."

Hip #632 Rebel Rose a daughter of Always B Miki mare Teen Dream also has family ties to Glowing Report.

"It's a good family and [Teen Dream's] first foal," Mark said. "It's a nice filly, shows a lot of pace on the video, and we have high hopes for her."

Mark added with a laugh, "She's got four white feet and when she paces on the video, it really sets it off. She's a nice filly."

Rebel Rose is from the first crop of Confederate which Mark thinks will be well received.

"He was such a dominant horse that I would expect they'll be seeking them out," he said. "I mean he was definitely head and shoulders above the field for his age group."

"I would say more often than not you'll get a little premium for the first crop because this business is built on optimism. I mean, everybody's trying to build a better mousetrap, so they are paying for what they think could be better. It doesn't always work out with first crop sires, but for ones that have been as dominant as Confederate was, it usually works out pretty well for you. Those will be sought after when they're from a true champion like he was."

Along with their typical super selection of Pennsylvania eligibles, Vieux Carre is also offering something a little different that should appeal to anyone who appreciates the great money they offer North of the Border.

"I've got a nice Bulldog Hanover colt [Hip #598 Bull Pen] out of a good family, and then I've got a nice Sweet Lou colt as well, [Hip #155] Sweet Cider.

Bull Pen is out of the Somebeachsomewhere mare Sailaja Deo, a granddaughter of Worldly Beauty.

"We bought a share in [Bulldog Hanover], so we're breeding to him, and he's had a good year. I think they've done quite well, and this is a nice colt. His brother [Tank Louis, p, 2, 1:52m, $20,955] is getting better every week it seems like now that they've got him figured out. So, hopefully he'll pull off another win or so before we sell this one. But it's going in the right direction, and he's a very nice colt."

Tank Louis, a son of Sweet Lou that Vieux Carre sold last year at Lexington under the name Legal Eagle for $80,000, won his last start at The Meadowlands and hasn't failed to get a check in all six starts this season.

Sweet Cider is out of the Somebeachsomewhere mare Ava Hanover.

"He's a big strapping, very correct colt," Mark said. "I mean, he looks the part, and that mare, the best one she ever had [South Point, p, 4, 1:51.1f, $260,411], was a Sweet Lou, so I think it was good going back to that sire with her. So, he'll sell well."

Vieux Carre's only trotters in the sale are two Captain Corey daughters, Hip #197 Cool Mistress and Hip #637 Quiet Dreams.

"So, we brought nice horses and a few from some different sires, and then this year we are excited to have some Captain Coreys to sell because he's kind of put himself up in the league with the Walners and the Chapter Sevens," Mark said. "Is there a big divide between those three and the rest of the field now? It seems like it. So, we're excited to be bringing some of those to the sale."

Cool Mistress, a first foal out of the Bar Hopping mare Cool Miss Wendy, is selling on Day 2.

"She's a nice, big, correct filly, and I liked her videos," Mark said. "She's out of a Bar Hopping mare, which is kind of interesting. So, I think that she'll get some lookers too, and like I said, a Captain Corey, which everybody wants to be selling those this year."

Quiet Dreams, a black filly out of the Credit Winner mare To Dream On, is selling on Day 3. To Dream On was the Dan Patch Trotting Filly of the Year in 2012.

"Well, [Quiet Dreams would] be beautiful any color," Mark said, adding with a laugh, "She's not only black, but she's got this long wavy hair and we even hate to pull any of it off. For the sale, we usually thin them out, but her mane's so gorgeous that she might end up with a little longer mane than most of ours have. She's a very elegant filly, just beautiful. I guess the Captain Corey and the Credit Winner black came through, and her mother's black, and she's very nice."

"I think there are also great fillies in that family, like Pampered Princess [t, 3, 1:53m, $1,648,362]... I would not bet against this filly. She looks the part and she's my last one to sell in Lexington, so I'll have lots of time to tout her."

As far as selling one he likes so much on Day 3, Mark said, "It's always a crapshoot. I'm of the belief that if you have a really nice horse a little later in the sale and they're running out of options, sometimes you can do better. But I think she'd sell well wherever she goes, and, you know, we're happy to have her. She'll be the third day, and I think there'll be plenty of interest."

Spring Station Bloodstock's Lexington roster filled with variety

by James Platz

Spring Station Bloodstock's 2026 Lexington offerings are a slight reduction in size from 2025, but the consignment is still packed with variety for buyers. This roster is the fourth the Midway, KY farm has brought to the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale, with babies selling each of the four days.

"I think that we have a wide range of horses, whether you're looking for size, speed, brains, I think we have something that would fit for everyone," said Sasha Moczulski. "I think our day one is going to be a nice sale."

Of the 42 yearlings that make up Spring Station's consignment, the balance is weighted more toward pacers – 28 versus 14 trotters – but balanced between colts (20) and fillies (22). Six babies are cataloged to sell Monday, two more than the farm sold in the first session last year. In total, the roster includes 14 first foals, with 10 selling over the first two days, four of which are slated for opening night.

UBRUTE p,2,1:49.4 ($436,389) and SEASIDE UBEAUT p,2,1:49.2-'26 ($330,370).

"I think all of the ones on Day 1 and 2 look the part," Moczulski said. "All of them really stick out to me. I'm very proud that we have a lot of these first foals Day 1 and 2. I think that's an impressive feat, especially since we are still a newer consignment, so to have that with our maiden mares, I think that's great."

Spring Station's Monday roster includes two yearlings by Captaintreacherous, two from Chapter Seven, and one each from Walner and Confederate. The Confederate filly, Clarissa Station, will be the first in the ring for the consignor as Hip #27. She is the first foal from 14-time winner Classicist, and is eligible to both Pennsylvania and Kentucky.

"She is just so classy and elegant," Moczulski said. "I've liked her since she was a foal by her mother's side."

Chapter Seven colt Happylove Station, Hip #41, will be the first of the trotters to sell for the farm. He is the first foal from $400,000 winner Heart On Fire, a Father Patrick sister to Dan Patch Award winner Fourth Dimension. He is also dual eligible to both New York and Kentucky.

"He's a really nice Chapter Seven," she said. "He's got a great size to him. His attitude is really nice. He's got a great work ethic, and he's well put together."

Hip #70 Molly Station is one of two Captaintreacherous fillies selling for Spring Station in the first session. She is the first foal out of Mollop Hanover, sister to graded stakes winner Mirage Hanover and graded stakes-placed Mad Max Hanover. The filly is also dual eligible.

"That's one we're really excited about," Moczulski said.

Hip #114 Ma Cherie Station is a Chapter Seven filly that rounds out the farm's Monday offerings. She is the second foal from Mon Cheval, who's dam is the great Shake It Cerry. Ma Cherie Station is eligible to New York and Kentucky.

"Mon Cheval is a mare that we really love the looks of," Moczulski said. "She has a filly selling this year that's very impressive."

Spring Station will sell 12 yearlings Tuesday and return with 13 on Wednesday and 11 on Thursday. All told, the consignment features the offspring of 17 different sires. Tuesday's group includes four by Sweet Lou and three from Captaintreacherous.

Hip #323 Pleasant Station, is a dual-eligible Sweet Lou second foal from a Western Terror sister to eight six-figure earners, including the dam of Bythemissal.

"If you're shopping for a Sweet Lou, look no further because he looks just like Sweet Lou," Moczulski said. "He looks the part."

Hip #237 Frisky Station is a Captaintreacherous first foal out of a Bettors Delight mare whose pedigree includes American Ideal and the great Three Diamonds.

"We've had a lot of people come to look at him, and they like him," she said. "He looks the part as well."

Hip #139 Alleyoop Station will sell first for Spring Station on Tuesday. The dual-eligible Walner colt is the first foal from a Muscle Hill mare.

"He's got legs for days and he has energy that doesn't quit," Moczulski said. "I think you could put a harness on him now and put him in training. He is so energetic and he's gorgeous."

Wednesday's group includes yearlings sired by Gimpanzee, Sweet Lou, Captaintreacherous, Walner, Stay Hungry, Muscle Hill, Bettors Delight, Bulldog Hanover, and Tall Dark Stranger.

"Day three is actually one of my favorite days, just because I'm partial to some of these," Moczulski said.

Adoration Station, Hip #447, is a dual-eligible Captaintreacherous filly that is a sister to Papi Rob Hanover freshman winner Triple Twenty.

"She's a smaller 'Captain' and I have heard from trainers that they like that more, that they're looking for the smaller Captains," she said. "I think she'll get a lot of looks."

Five spots earlier is Hip #442 Brix Station, a Sweet Lou colt eligible to Pennsylvania and Kentucky out of Downbytheseaside mare Bottle N Cork. He is a sibling to freshman KYSS leg winner Bordeaux Station, and Moczulski describes him as "a total athlete."

Hip #513 Giddy Station, is a Gimpanzee filly that is the first foal from a Father Patrick mare. Her family includes Hambletonian winner and Horse of the Year Glidemaster.

"She has a motor for a hind end," Moczulski said. "She's all hind end, and she's a busy body. She always wants something to do."

Selling as Hip #590 is Paddington Station, a dual-eligible Muscle Hill colt. He is the first foal from a Greenshoe mare whose family includes Spice On Ice, dam of the incredible producer Southwind Serena.

Slated for the final day is Sensation Station, Hip #753, an Always B Miki filly out of Somebeachsomewhere mare Sandy's Beach. The dual eligible filly is a sibling to Perfect Sting sophomore Sunny Station, (3, 1:49.1-26, $139,834), KYSS Commonwealth final runner-up.

"I really, really like her," Moczulski said. "She is super athletic, she's super versatile. She can switch over to a pace and will pace all day long."

The 11 yearlings cataloged for the final day also include Hip #691 Daquari Station, a dual-eligible Downbytheseaside filly, and Midway Station, Hip #729, a Captain Corey filly eligible to Pennsylvania and Kentucky.

"I think we have a very well-rounded consignment," Moczulski said. "I think we have a good variety here."

Hickory Lane consignment smaller, but quality remains

by James Platz

Hickory Lane Horse Farm may have only five yearlings in this year's Lexington Selected Yearling Sale, but the Findlay, OH operation has a proven record of consigning horses that make an impact on the racetrack. Kevin Greenfield believes that, despite smaller numbers, the consignment is filled with the kind of quality that has previously produced Dan Patch Award winners and other top racehorses.

"We try to build quality," he said. "We've sold It's Academic. We bred Yo Tillie, we bred Victorianas Secret, we bred Mr Mouton and Ardonne, who have all sold at this sale just in the last three years. So, I feel like we bring a good product to the table."

Greenfield and Hickory Lane arrive in Lexington off a strong showing at the Ohio Selected Jug Sale. There, Perls Hotshot, a Lou's Pearlman filly consigned by Hickory Lane as agent was one of three yearlings to top the sale with a $200,000 bid.

"It was a really, really exciting day for us," Greenfield said. "I'd never had a sale topper before, so that was really cool."

While down in numbers this year, Greenfield likes the group set to sell at the Fasig-Tipton Newtown Paddocks. The first of the consignment is up for auction Tuesday, with three trotters slated for the sale ring.

"I have two Tactical Landings, a filly whose mother is a sister to Decadence, which is a nice filly, and then a colt whose mother is a sister to Peyton Hanover out of the Wheeling N Dealin family, which is really nice," he said.

Freshbreath Of Air, Hip #314, is a New Jersey and Kentucky eligible filly that is the first foal from six-time winner Penelope J. Second dam Decadence has also produced graded stakes-placed My Degenerate (3, 1:51.1 $521,116).

Immediately following is colt Epic Landing, Hip #315, also dual eligible and the first foal from International Moni mare Penny Hanover. As Greenfield noted, the dam is a sister to graded stakes winner Peyton Hanover (3, 1:51.2 $244,574) and New York Sire Stakes leg-winning freshman Celebrity Dubai.

Greenfield believes the dual eligibility is a big selling point for yearlings consigned at Lexington.

"It's extremely important, in my opinion, because it gives the yearling buyers an additional market, gives them more choices as to where they want to race, and it allows the consigner to maximize the value of the yearling at the auction as well," he said. "I just think when you give buyers more options and more choices, you're more likely to get more interest in your yearlings."

Closing out the Tuesday offerings is a colt with a well-known sibling currently racing.

"We have Victorianas Secret's brother, a Gimpanzee selling the second day right near the end," Greenfield said. "He looks like a spitting image of his sire and has a really good video. So, we'll see what happens with him."

Hip #388 Stock Ledger is the third foal from the Donato Hanover mare Victoriana. His Tactical Landing sister, Victoriana Secret, is a Grade 1 winner this season, with career earnings of $450,531 and a sophomore mark of 1:50.

"We have a first foal Downbytheseaside the fifth day out of the family of JK Endofanera that's very nice," he said. "And we have an Always B Miki filly out of a very good family and a 1:50 mare."

Hip #484 Bona Fide Beth, a daughter of Always B Miki, sells Wednesday. Out of the American Ideal mare Up Front Elizabeth, the filly is a sister to Stay Hungry mare Hungry Lizzo, now a winner of over $430,000.

Hip #730 Down By Contact is an Ohio and Kentucky eligible Downbytheseaside colt out of Always B Miki mare Miki Angelo. The mare is a sister to JK Mardi Says, dam of the speedy sophomore filly Be Perfect BG (p, 3, 1:48.4-26 $511,283).

"We try to bring the best product we can to the market and hope that those yearlings turn into champions like Yo Tillie and Victorianas Secret," Greenfield said.

Kountry Lane's consignment features first-day firepower

by James Platz

Kountry Lane Standardbreds made its Lexington debut last fall, offering a consignment of seven yearlings. This year, the Wakarusa, IN-based nursery returns to the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale armed with the experience of last season, offering a top-notch group of babies that will sell during the first two days.

"The group was hand-picked for this sale, with a bunch of first foals," said farm manager Duane Miller. "It's just a great group overall. We graded them pretty hard and tried to take the ones that we thought would stand out at this sale, so it is a pretty nice group."

Last year, Kountry Lane topped all consignors in average with $155,286 per yearling sold. The first night offerings averaged $116,250, while the three sold on Day 2 brought $207,333 on average, making them the only consignor to average over $200,000 on the second day.

The Kountry Lane consignment once again numbers seven yearlings — four trotters and three pacers — with a quartet selling on the first day. The trio of pacers, all fillies, sell during Monday evening's session.

"We have three pacing fillies that are just phenomenal," Miller said. "You know normally we might lean more with our pacers for Harrisburg, but this group is so nice, we said why not."

The first Kountry Lane yearling that will pass through the sale ring on Monday is Kountry Cassandra, Hip #24. She is a Sweet Lou first foal from Captaintreacherous mare Captain Cowgirl. The dam is a two-time PASS final winner with more than $600,000 on her card. Kountry Cassandra is eligible to both the Pennsylvania and Kentucky programs. While Captain Cowgirl may not have the name recognition of other mares in the consignment, her first foal leaves an impression. So much so that Dr. Bridgette Jablonsky, who advises Kountry Lane, suggested selling at Lexington.

"I thought maybe she would just fit in better at Harrisburg, but Dr. J said, 'Duane, I think you will be hard-pressed to find a nicer Sweet Lou filly than this,'" Miller said. "She said this is the type of filly people want to see when they look for Sweet Lous."

Kountry Penelope, Hip #78, will be next on Night 1. The Captaintreacherous filly is the second foal from Breeders Crown champion Peaky Sneaky, a $700,000-plus winner with a mark of 1:48. Her first foal, Benny B Hill, is a six-time winner with a 1:49.2 mark, a 1:48.3 beaten time, and $89,300 on his card. The filly is also eligible to both Pennsylvania and Kentucky.

"She's just a beautiful individual," Miller said. "She warrants being there in my opinion."

Rounding out the trio is Kountry Lynn, Hip #90, a Confederate first foal from Dan Patch and O'Brien Award winner Lyons Sentinel. The first offering from the double millionaire and multiple graded stakes winner is dual eligible to the Keystone and Bluegrass states.

"She is so classy," Miller said. "You'll see in the video. She does a lot of free-legged pacing in the field, and it's just hard not to like her. She is very feminine looking. She's got the finer bones and she looks like a filly, so I think she's going to get a lot of attention."

For as good as the fillies are, Kountry Lane's first-session headliner is Kountry Prince, cataloged as Hip #79. The New Jersey and Kentucky eligible son of Walner is out of world champion Plunge Blue Chip. This is her first colt after a pair of Chapter Seven fillies that have each surpassed six figures in earnings. Sonmar Pond is a five-time winner, but the biggest update on the pedigree page is freshman Kountry Plunge. At the time of printing, the filly had $8,000 on her card. After winning the New York Sire Stakes final, Kountry Plunge has increased her seasonal earnings to $277,100.

"Plunge' is a nice-sized mare, but these Chapter Sevens were a little small-ish," Miller said. "Now we bring this Walner that's got some size and he's just a beautiful individual."

The consignment finishes strong on Day 2 with a trifecta of trotters. The first to sell is Kountry Brody, Hip #178. The Walner colt is out of two-time Dan Patch Award winner Broadway Donna, and is a brother to winners Waldon Fashion and Dominant Fashion.

"We bought him out of the Fashion Farms dispersal," Miller said. "We looked at him, and man we fell in love with this guy. We bought him for Lexington, and for this upcoming sale, and I wanted to bring a little more balance to our consignment."

The headliner for the consignment's second-day offering is Kountry Faith, Hip #230. The filly is by Gimpanzee and is the first foal from half-million-dollar earner Flawless Country. She was originally a first-day selection, but Miller felt she fit better in Tuesday's session.

"Conformation-wise, she warrants Day 1," he said. "She's such a beautiful individual, so I think she'll do really well."

Rounding out the consignment is filly Kountry Winona at Hip #389. Eligible to Pennsylvania and Kentucky, she is by Captain Corey out of the Father Patrick mare Whispering Oaks, a $300,000 winner. The filly is a sister to two winners including Dexter Cup champion Hard Seven (3, 1:53.3, $233,896).

"This filly looks like a Captain Corey, she's just a beautiful individual," Miller said. "The mare has produced some nice racehorses already."

Kountry Lane's consignment is small by design, but big on pedigree and name recognition.

Stonebridge-bred yearlings enhance Spring Haven Farm's Lexington offerings

by James Platz

Ohio-based Spring Haven Farm brings an 18-horse consignment to the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale. Among the group are five trotters and 13 pacers spread across each of the four days, with 10 colts and eight fillies. The consignment includes seven from the Utica, OH nursery, four babies from Stonebridge Farm, and seven agent yearlings.

"I'm really, really excited we had the privilege of actually raising the Stonebridge horses this year," said Senena Esty, who operates Spring Haven with her husband, Jeff. "That's a nice group within our consignment."

Spring Haven is slated to sell four yearlings in the opening session, two of which are Stonebridge-bred pacing fillies.

"Stonebridge Desire and Stonebridge Babe, those are Hips #84 and #93," Senena said. "Wow, these two fillies are standouts. They just make your jaw drop, it's like they're just picture-perfect."

Stonebridge Desire, a Confederate filly out of Rock N Soul, is a sibling to Stonebridge Soul (p, 3, 1:49.3f, $763,959). The dam is a 100 per cent producer. Stonebridge Babe is the third foal from a Sweet Lou sister to O'Brien Award winner Pass Line. The filly is by Bettors Delight.

"I've especially gotten comment after comment about how that's just the nicest Bettors Delight anybody's seen," Senena said of Stonebridge Babe. "She's got leg and size which, you know, typically does not come along with a lot of the Bettors Delights."

The first yearling to enter the sales ring for Spring Haven on Monday is Hip #73 Mounds Tactics. The colt, bred and raised at Spring Haven, is a full brother to graded stakes-placed Tactical Mounds (4, 1:49.4, $531,710).

"We're really proud of that colt," Senena said. "Fingers crossed somebody's looking for a good Grand Circuit colt. I think he's got a great video and he's a really spectacular individual."

The farm's first-night offerings conclude with Captaintreacherous colt Hip #115 Captain Of Wishes. Dam Wishy Washy Girl, a winner of over $600,000, has a freshman winner in full sibling Wish For A Captain.

"He's just a vision of a Captaintreacherous," Senena said. "I mean, he's got it going on. He's got that rear quarter, good length, and he's just a beast. He's not too big, he's just right."

While there is pressure to bring a perfect individual to Monday's opening session, Senena said that if a horse belongs, she will not hesitate to sell on Day 1.

"You want to be on the first night if you've got the individual and you've got the pedigree, that's really where you want to be," she said. "You know second, third night obviously are good, but if you know you're worthy, you want to be on the first night. So, fingers crossed, but we've always got along really well there."

Last year Spring Haven sold two of its 25-yearling consignment on Day 1, averaging $87,500 for the session.

Second-day offerings include Stonebridge Always, Hip #151, a Sweet Lou first foal out of half-million-dollar earner Annabelle Hanover, King Kamayawaya, a King Of The North colt cataloged as Hip #159, and Counting Coup, Hip #224, a Captaintreacherous filly out of a full-sister to near-double millionaire Thinking Out Loud who has produced freshman winner Charolais Cattle.

"Her 2-year-old sister is really doing well in Canada," Senena said. "She won the Tompkins-Geers Stake and that is a serious collection of 2-year-old pacing fillies this year, and she's right there with them. Again, if somebody's looking for that Grand Circuit individual then she's it."

Half of the Spring Haven consignment sells on Wednesday, with two by King Of The North, fillies Northern Hazel, Hip #515 and North Of The King, Hip #556 and a pair sired by Bulldog Hanover, filly Three Dog Night, Hip #426 and colt Somewhere N Loreda, Hip #623.

Also selling that day are one apiece from Cattlewash (colt Cowie Mandel, Hip #465), Stay Hungry (colt Heart So Hungry, Hip #413, Cannibal (colt Hannibal Lecter, Hip #608), Huntsville (filly Eckert Hill Dana, Hip #572) and Sweet Lou (colt Stonebridge Newton, Hip #529).

Thursday's session consists of Tactical Approach colt Rebel Cause, Hip #748, and Cattlewash filly Cattle Shade, Hip #770.

"We've got a lot of Ontario-breds that if somebody's looking for Ontario, please come and see us because we've got a good representation," Senena said.

Spring Haven's consignment is down in size when compared to previous years. One of the biggest reasons is the resurgence of the Ohio breeding and racing programs. Senena pointed to the success of the recent Ohio Selected Jug Sale, where gross sales and average reached a new standard. At the same sale, Spring Haven sold In Range filly Free Range for $200,000 as one of the co-sale toppers. Hambletonian runner-up and Ohio-bred Big Ranger was also bred, raised, and sold by the farm.

"We have tried to scale back a bit," Senena said. "I've always said I don't want to put all my eggs in one basket; however, we have a very heavy basket in the state of Ohio right now. Obviously, we're just coming off of that good Ohio sale, but we still have a few for Lexington. We're not breeding out of state quite as much."

Despite those changes, Senena and Spring Haven have assembled a consignment that they believe will hit the mark with buyers.

"We're really proud of what we're taking," she said. "You know, I'm always the optimistic type of person, so we're just going to hope for the best."

Concord Stud Farm's Lexington roster bigger and better than ever

by James Platz

Concord Stud Farm is known for bringing a sizable consignment to the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale with plenty of options for all buyers. This year, the Cream Ridge, NJ nursery has a bumper crop of yearlings. After selling 33 babies last year, Julie Meirs and her team have cataloged 48 young pacers and trotters.

"We're in barn 15 this year, and we've got the whole barn," Meirs said. "We've got a good split between trotters and pacers this year, and a wide range of sires as well."

The growth of the consignment can be attributed to picking up new clients and the addition of 10 Fair Winds Farm yearlings to bolster the roster.

"We're selling the Fair Winds yearlings this year for their last hurrah," Meirs said. "Because this is their last group, that brings a lot of good horses to the consignment, but it also brings a new client for just one year. And it's not just Fair Winds. We've got a couple other newbies, new clients as well."

Looking at the roster by gender and gait, Concord offers 26 colts and 22 fillies, with 27 trotters cataloged versus 21 pacers. When Meirs says the group covers a wide range of sires, she's not kidding. A total of 19 different sires are represented, with five apiece by Chapter Seven, Muscle Hill, Sweet Lou, and Captaintreacherous.

Walner, Tactical Landing, and first crop sire Tactical Approach each contribute four yearlings to the group, with three sired by Downbytheseaside cataloged. A pair from both Confederate and Tattoo Artist will sell, as will singles from Gimpanzee, Papi Rob Hanover, Bulldog Hanover, Father Patrick, In Range, Pebble Beach, Long Tom, Volstead, and Monte Miki.

Of the group, 13 yearlings – nearly one-third of the consignment – will sell Monday at Fasig-Tipton's Newtown Paddocks. By comparison, Concord sold five on the first day in 2025.

"You can't really be upset with anything that they put on Day 1 of Lexington because it's such a limited group of horses," Meirs said. "I think that's something to be excited about."

Five of the 13 agent yearlings from Order By Stable will be offered Monday. Leading the group is Monkey Crown, Hip #98,

Dave Landry
Concord Stud's Julie Meirs.

a New Jersey and Kentucky eligible Walner colt out of the highly-productive mare Steamy Windows. The colt is a half-brother to multiple Dan Patch Award winner and Hall of Famer Gimpanzee.

The first night Order By offerings also include Black Square, Hip #18, a dual-eligible Muscle Hill half-brother to millionaire Back Of The Neck. Also cataloged is Hip #43 Crown Legacy, a dual-eligible Tactical Landing filly that is a sister to five-time freshman winner Gagosian and Hip #83 Flag Target, a dual-eligible Walner half-brother to the great trotting mare Atlanta.

Fair Winds Farm yearlings account for four of Concord's Monday offerings. That group includes Blue Book, Hip #14, a Chapter Seven full-sister to graded stakes-placed Who's Eyes Blues. A pair of Confederate colts also highlight the Fair Winds quartet. Hip #40 Pass Go is the first foal from half-million-dollar earner Gotthegreenlight, while Hip #58 Jeb Stuart is a half-brother to $300,000 earner Knoxville. Dam Let's Fall In Love is a sister to millionaire and top producer Romantic Moment.

Concord will back up Monday's session with 16 yearlings on Tuesday, 11 on Wednesday and eight selling in Thursday's closing session.

"I think it's important that we have something for everybody," Meirs said. "You know, every trainer, every state, every gate, every gender. And it's important that we're not just pigeonholed into one thing."

The Tuesday roster is filled with several well-pedigreed yearlings from top sires. Among the group is colt Thurbo Field, Hip #145, a Pennsylvania and Kentucky eligible Papi Rob Hanover that's a first foal from a full-sister to two-time Dan Patch Award winner Warrawee Ubeaut. The list also includes Toulouse Le Chimp, Hip #153, a Gimpanzee first foal from a Tactical Landing sister to world champion Cuatro De Julio.

Hip #179 Steel Cloud, is a New Jersey and Kentucky eligible Muscle Hill colt that is a full-brother to six-figure earners Kings Country ($523,066), Swiss House Onfire ($372,480), Hidalgo ($357,718), and Brooklyn Hill ($261,561). Hip #200 Street Sweeper is a dual-eligible Tactical Landing brother to graded stakes winner and dual millionaire Periculum.

Market Research, Hip #272, is another of several first foals in the consignment. The Tactical Landing colt is from Lady Lira, a half-sister to Dan Patch Award winner Anoka Hanover. Gideon's Sword, Hip 317, is a Tactical Approach first foal from a sister to Dan Patch Award winner and world champion Amigo Volo.

Hip #383 Odds On Tapioca, the last of Concord's Tuesday set, is a dual-eligible Captaintreacherous filly that is a sister to Breeders Crown champion Gem Quality (p, 4, 1:48.4f $798,187).

Concord's Wednesday selection continues the trend of offering several options to buyers. Included in the group are Odds On Infamous, Hip #520, a New Jersey and Kentucky eligible Tattoo Artist filly from Dan Patch and O'Brien Award winner Idyllic Beach, and Bulldog In The Rain, Hip #533, a dual-eligible Bulldog Hanover filly from a sister to the great racehorse and broodmare Kikikatie.

Another notable filly in the session is Hip #609 Shake N Quake. By Captaintreacherous, she is a sibling to multiple stakes winner Split The House ($938,289).

Concord will have a more robust offering in Thursday's session, geared toward regional programs.

"We've got more on Thursday than we've ever had with the regional group," Meirs said. "Jonas Schlabach, who sells with us in Harrisburg, put in five. He wanted to participate in the regional night with those five, so that bumps that Thursday number up a little bit."

Schlabach's quintet includes Bintheredidthatone, Hip #750, a Downbytheseaside colt out of a mare that has already produced four winners.

Last year, Concord horses grossed $2.3 million in sales at Lexington, and the farm topped out at nearly $2.68 million in 2024. The expanded roster and top-caliber yearlings give the consignor a good shot at establishing a new standard.

Armitage Farm is trotting into Lexington expecting to avoid a sophomore slump

by Debbie Little

In 2025 Armitage Farm debuted at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale with a consignment of 16, one of which, Jimdougie Armitage, became the highest-priced horse ever sold during a second session of the historic sale.

According to assistant farm manager Tim Hayes there's no pressure for the operation established in Midway, KY in 2023 to repeat last year's glory.

"It's probably not going to happen," Hayes said with a laugh. "It's a once in a lifetime, that's what it is. It's a hard feat to accomplish, but we did it, so we'll just be proud of it."

Trotters is what Armitage Farm is known for and they'll have 25 – nine colts and 16 fillies – to sell in Lexington.

"Our slogan out here is that we are 'Trotting into the future,'" Hayes said. "That's on the back of all of our shirts. It's the slogan for the farm... Jim [McLane], when he started in this, he saw that trotters sold for more money than pacers, so he thought that that was the game plan, and we wanted to specifically go for one side of the breed to try to get the best that we could of that breed and buy and produce the best of the breed."

"I mean, we bought some really nice mares last year that we bred, so in two years we're looking at trying to maybe have another sale topper at some point.

Hayes added with a laugh, "I own a lot of horses, I dream a lot."

As good as their yearlings look in their videos, Hayes says nothing beats the experience of seeing them up close in person at the farm.

"So, we're getting a lot of people to come to the farm, and it's great when the people come to the farm because this farm is probably one of the most beautiful standardbred farms you'll ever be on."

"It has a mile-long tree line you go under to get in."

The trotter-centric nursery will be showing all four days of the sale, including two on Day 1:

Hip #39 Melino Armitage a Walner colt out of the Explosive Matter mare Goodtogo Hanover and Hip #67 Seventrix Armitage a Chapter Seven filly out of Trixton mare Miss Trixton.

"Very nice big, strong colt," Hayes said. "He's a brother to R Melina. She won the [2024 Filly] Futurity, and she made a million dollars. I expect him to be a very well received colt, and we do anticipate that he will do big things."

"The Chapter Seven filly out of Miss Trixton is a very sleek, nice, long filly. Has a great attitude, and she's got a good look to her. She looks like an athlete, so we're hoping that she'll be well received on Day 1, too."

For the session on Tuesday, Hayes pointed out a few that stand out to him: Hip #156 Goraceme Armitage a daughter of Tactical Landing out of Avacakes, a sister to Karl, Hip #193 Polltopper Armitage and Hip #228 Trotability Armitage both colts by Chapter Seven out of Climb The Poll and White Cheetah, respectively, Hip #208 Wallcat Armitage another Tactical Landing filly out of The Great Wall, and Hip #390 Re Act Armitage a daughter of Captain Corey out of Dramatra, a sister to Royalty For Life.

"I think our Day 2 horses are all a very good bunch of horses," Hayes said. "Pedigree-wise they're good, but they are good individuals. So, you know, people just have to come look at them, and I think they'll like them. They're put together good, they all look good, and they all have good attitudes."

"I mean, I can't guarantee they're going to stay happy and cheerful their whole life, but right now, they do everything we want them to do."

On Day 3 Armitage will send a total of 12 into the ring.

"I have actually two on the third day that I really like," Hayes said. "I have the Insta Glam colt [Hip #528 Tarnation Armitage]. He is a Chapter Seven, and I really like him a lot. He's a later foal. He's like a mid-May foal. He's starting to come into himself and peak at the right time. He is a handsome kind of different look of a Chapter Seven, but he's going to be a really good horse for somebody. I like him quite a bit.

"And then there is a Tactical Landing colt out of Windy Corner [Hip #634 Matlex Armitage], he's just been my boy since he was born. So, I mean, he's just had a way about him since he was very young that I've liked so much. So, they're both third day horses, and I think very highly of them.

"We also have a sister to Creamy Armitage [Hip #501 Frenzee Armitage], and we have a brother to Fleur Delacour [Hip #528 Tarnation Armitage] who was just second in the $400,000 Kentucky Sire Stakes.

And then we got another Captain Corey filly that is really nice, a couple of Gimpanzees that are really nice, and a Tactical Landing that's just out of a good family that is really nice, Armitage has four Gimpanzees selling on Day 3, and the added bonus for buying one is just that, an added bonus.

"The Gimpanzees we have will be eligible for the bonus awards," Hayes said. "If they were bred and raised here in Kentucky to Gimpanzee, then they're eligible for the 50 per cent bonus... say your horse made $80,000, you get another $40,000 at the end of the year just because of the money he earned in the state of Kentucky."

Hayes also thinks everyone should check out the video of Hip #777 Fats Armitage.

"He is a big Love You, which a lot of them are, but on video day and even in the paddock, he's very light on his feet," Hayes said, adding with a laugh, "This will probably be the best one that Tanya's Dance has ever had because we sold her. So, you know he'll probably be the one that goes out and is the best one out of her.

"We all call him the slot machine because he's #777. So, that's what you want when you go to the casinos, you want to hit on triple sevens.

"You can't always have everything on the first day or second day, but I think our group is a very, very good group. We've got a lot of the middle of the range horses that I think people are going to like because they're bred to the right horse, people have just got to see them. They are very, very nice horses."

Hayes said the farm is already looking ahead to 2027.

"We have 30 for next year, and they're by all sorts of different stallions," he said. "We try to be diversified to give everybody what they want. We want a lot of bidders and a lot of people to have our horses and a lot of people to like them.

"From the time they're born till the time we sell them, we do a lot with them, so they're very well broke. So, we want to get them out there so people see them, so they'll like them, and come back and get more."

Just like every other breeder selling New Jersey-sired yearlings, Hayes said he was concerned when he heard the Hambletonian was leaving The Meadowlands.

"I was a little worried what the outcome of the sale was going to be for the horses that were New Jersey sired, so it gives me a little bit more comfort that some of my horses that I really like have a chance to help our farm make more money," Hayes said. So, I'm happy about that. I mean, I'm sad that the Hambletonian moved, but you've got to just go with what you've got. But to race for more money and have bigger races, I think it's great for the whole industry.

"It helps us. I just hope that everything can continue to grow and, you know, I'm a little worried of where the stallions from Southwind will end up, because this next year is going to be their last year breeding those stallions, and they've got to go someplace else. I hope that there's a farm in New Jersey that'll step up and take them, or that they go to a good jurisdiction, because we've got shares in those stallions."

OUR FUTURE DEPENDS ON IT!

Cameo Hills Farm is looking for their success on the track to carry over to the sale in Lexington

by Debbie Little

Just like their well-bred performers on the track have been doing, Cameo Hills Farm looks to get off the gate strong in Lexington on Day 1.

The Montgomery, NY breeding operation has a total of 31 yearlings, including one as agent, that will strut their stuff in the Fasig-Tipton Sales Pavilion.

The consignment is fairly evenly split across the first three days of the sale, with 11 on Opening Night (Oct. 5), 11 more on Tuesday, and nine on Wednesday.

Cameo is selling a total of six Walners, all on Day 1, with two among the first five in the ring: Hip #2 The Kansas Comet, a son out of You Ato Dream and Hip #5 Call Me Blonde a daughter out of Hey Blondie.

Some consignors don't enjoy being placed so early on the first night, but Jones is taking it all in stride.

"I wish they were a little later, but that's the way things shook out this year," he said with a laugh. "The You Ato Dream colt... as an individual, I don't think you'll find a nicer looking trotting colt than Hip #2. He's a full brother to Free Scottie and Free Scottie was second in the elimination of the Wellwood, and he's a nice 2-year-old.

"So, I think that will overcome his early number, I think we'll be okay there."

It's obvious that Jones hopes for great things from The Kansas Comet named for the incomparable NFL halfback Gale Sayers, the youngest inductee in the history of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

"And like I said, the Hey Blondie filly, Hip #5, is nice, and her 2-year-old [Easy Down Blonde has] already made almost $100,000 this year.

"Sometimes when they get those early numbers the sellers want to make that an excuse, but, you know, as a buyer, I don't know that it's really making my decision as far as 'Oh that one sells early, I guess I'll bid less.' That's not the way I'm looking at it from the other side. So, there's nothing I can do about it. Yeah, I have concerns, but it's probably more my imagination than anything else.

"I bought Come See The Show at the Harrisburg Mixed Sale, I don't know six or eight years ago. She was a late supplement, and I think the last horse in the entire sale, and she topped the sale. So yeah, there's not really any foolproof method. Hopefully you come up with current pages and nice individuals and two people that want to buy your horse. It's hard to get a lot if only one person likes it. If two people like it, well, that makes a tremendous difference."

Cameo's other Walners are Hip #25 Always Juggling a filly out of Check Her Out, Hip #26 Toy Cannona filly out of Agro Dolce, Hip #31 Boy Toy a colt out of Delilah Hanover, Hip #103 Check My Pedigree a filly out of Check Me Out.

"I've only got two Walner colts, but one is out of Delilah Hanover, and Delilah's first foal is a Walner filly that's already won a Jersey race in 1:54," Jones said. "Her name is Day One Dandy, and this is a brother to Day One Dandy."

Jones said he especially likes the filly from Check Her Out a daughter of the great producer Check Me Out.

"Check Her Out is selling a Walner filly, and it's the first foal of that daughter of Check Me Out," he said. "We own the dam of Instagram Model, who's another daughter of Check Me Out that produced well.

"So, we're excited to sell that first filly out of Check Her Out, a beautiful filly, and we partnered with Yankeeland Farm to breed her."

Jones said his inspiration for naming his foals comes from a variety of places and that Hip #31 Boy Toy is named for a prominent Hall of Fame owner, and he'd be only too happy to talk about it if anyone would like to ask him.

Included in Cameo's first day trotters is Hip #22 Captain Bligh a son of Captain Corey out of the Andover Hall mare Bonnie Lou.

"He's a brother to Orinoco [2, 1:54.1f, $150,445]," Jones said. "Orinoco was second in the Pennsylvania [Sire Stakes] final."

To go along with a half dozen by Walner, Cameo has the same number by Chapter Seven, as well as three by Tactical Approach, and Jones has a few favorites.

"We're selling the first colt out of Bluebird Dove [Hip #21 Blue Blood], and she's a world champion 3-year-old trotting filly on a half-mile track," Jones said. "She won in Delaware [Ohio] in [1]:52, and we're selling her second foal and first colt. That's a beautiful colt as well."

"And we've got a Chapter colt out of Sianna Hanover [Hip #347 Lets Go Rangers] and she's only had two Chapter colts and they were both colts that won several hundred thousand, Karinchak and Victor Laszlo, so those would be a couple of highlights."

"I'm selling three by Tactical Approach, and in my eyes, anyway, the nicest one is the first foal out of Blonde Bombshell [Hip #19 Earth Shaking]. Blonde Bombshell is a daughter of Hey Blondie, that we bought back from the people that got it from us as a yearling."

"That horse, I would guess he'll be close to the top of the Tactical Approaches that sell. He's a beautiful horse and the first foal of the mare."

"We've got a lot of power in those trotters."

In addition to nine Day 1 trotters, Cameo also has two pacers.

"We're selling two Huntsville fillies with one out of Big McDeal [Hip #33 Sign The Max], which is the only full sister to Max Contract that we've got so far," Jones said. That's a nice filly. And then there's a Huntsville filly out of Sweet Rock Deo [Hip #45 Sugar Fix], a filly from the Rocklamation family. Those two sell opening night, and they're both nice pages and beautiful fillies. So, I would think that they would be a couple of my highlights for my pacers."

Jones also mentioned a few of his pacers to watch for on Day 2:

• Hip #132 GirlIntheyellowtaxi a Confederate daughter out of Yellow Diamond. "We're selling a Confederate out of Yellow Diamond," Jones said. "That's a very racy, beautiful first crop filly by Confederate. Her 2-year-old Diamondsbestfriend is having a big year."

• Hip #351 Rainbow Ray a son of Bulldog Hanover out of Skies Are Blue. "I've got a Bulldog out of a daughter of Rainbow Blue. I think that'll probably be the most expensive pacing colt that I sell. He sells second day, but he's a beautiful horse, and I think everybody will like him."

• Hip #555 Pay Billy a son of Cattlewash out of Merga Hanover. "I'm selling a Cattlewash. I bought a mare in foal to Cattlewash. A good mare. The mare was very good in New York, so I've got a little something for everyone."

As someone who likes to breed to New Jersey sires, Jones said the news that the Hambletonian was going to Indiana could have been bad for the sale, but the news released by Meadowlands owner Jeff Gural of the million-dollar Meadowlands Trot and $500,000 Meadowlands Oaks Trot has righted the ship.

"There was concern about the 2028 races in New Jersey, but it sounds like Jeff [Gural] has stepped up, and other people as sponsors are in the process of stepping up; me being one of them," Jones said. "I was very disappointed that the Hambletonian moved just like Jeff was, but I certainly don't want New Jersey to dry up and blow away. There are so many of our important training stables that are based in New Jersey, and maybe more importantly, so many of the owners that buy these things, that live in New York and New Jersey and the metropolitan New York area in general, that I think it's crucial that we keep the ball rolling in New Jersey. And I'm happy that Jeff apparently feels the same way."

"It's fantastic on the part of Jeff and the SBOANJ and a lot of other people behind the scenes that are contributing to make that happen and yeah, very important for our business I think anyway to keep The Meadowlands where it's at and with these new races hopefully they can work it out where there's no conflicts with other big races."

"I'm not mad at myself for breeding to Walner. Walner's a great stallion. He's having the best year of his life, so it's a great time to be selling a Walner. But you also want to have somewhere that they can race. So yeah, this looks like this is going to make it happen. And like I said, if he's not the best sire out there, he's certainly in the top three. So, I'm assuming most people commercially, if they're looking for trotters right now, they're looking at him and Captain Corey and Chapter, and we're selling yearlings by all three sires, and we have shares of all three. So, yeah, I want New Jersey to live long and prosper."

Anvil And Lace brings depth, quality, and dual eligibility to Lexington

by Chris Lomon

For Beth Yontz, horses have always been a way of life. Raised in the horse business and exposed to numerous disciplines, her passion for standardbreds took hold in 2003 while working for Schare Adams at Saga Farm. After acquiring her first broodmare, Dancewiththebest, she had found her calling.

Six years later, Yontz was handed the reins of yearling manager at Walnut Hall Ltd., gaining invaluable experience raising and preparing young horses for the sales ring.

In 2015, Yontz and her husband, Doug, purchased 50 acres and established Anvil And Lace Farm in Kentucky. Together, they have built a reputation for developing quality standardbreds with an emphasis on soundness, conformation, and athletic ability. Beth is the breeder of Dancin Yankee, a multiple Ohio award winner and world-record holder who was inducted into the Ohio Horse Hall of Fame in 2020. Doug, a Certified Farrier with the American Farriers Association, operates Yontz Farrier Service and specializes in foal and yearling hoof care.

Over the years, Anvil And Lace graduates have consistently made their winning mark, from sale-topping yearlings to stakes winners, including Dancin Lou, winner of the 2019 Breeders Crown and 2020 William R. Haughton Memorial. In 2014, Anvil And Lace sold the highest-priced Sportswriter filly, Dancin In the Nude, and one year later, they sold the Ohio Selected Yearling Sale topper, Dancin Rebel. In 2016, Anvil And Lace sold the highest-priced Sportswriter colt, Dancin Doug.

This year, Anvil And Lace is a dual threat, with an array of dual-eligible yearlings available, complemented by a variety of must-see offerings for those attending the sale.

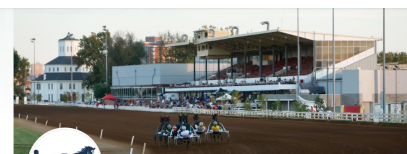

"I do [believe it will be a good sale]," Beth said. "There are some nice first-crop sires that will help, like Confederates and Cannibals, which we have available. I just left the Ohio sale, and I do see the trend of the highs being very high, the lows being very low, and the middle market being a little concerning. But overall, they cut the number of sales, so I think that will help, hopefully.

"For us, every year, it is the same thing, which is that we have a little bit of everything, and that makes it exciting because you get to see so many nice yearlings from Walner, Confederate, and Downbytheseaside. Then you add Cannibal, Huntsville, and Bettors Delight – who people will still want – into the mix. It's hard to pick out a certain one that I am excited about. When you are fortunate enough to have a big consignment, with a little bit of everything, it makes it exciting. And then to have a lot of what we sell being dual-eligible, it helps most of what we have available for people to buy."

HARNESS RACING UPDATE ON facebook

www.facebook.com/HarnessRacingUpdate/

Perhaps the most difficult aspect of this year's sale – an admitted, so-called good problem to have – is selecting which pacers and trotters might be the ones to catch the eye of buyers.

"You hope some of the ones you have might not be fly-under-the-radar types because they have a lot of promise," Beth said. "I have a couple of Downbytheseaside yearlings who are very exciting. Hip #677 Down Bellalane, is a very nice filly, first foal, and the second dam, Lady Cino, goes back to Lawless Shadow. The sky's the limit with her. She is dual-eligible and a very classy filly. On the opposite side, she is out of a Big Jim mare, so the question is, 'How will people view Big Jim as a broodmare sire?' That said, she has the qualities to be everything and more. You ask 10 people and you will get 10 opinions, but we really like this filly."

Beth is equally bullish on the Confederate offspring represented by Hip #147 Odds On Ascend, Hip #312 My Girl Eve, Hip #326 Going Topless, and Hip #348 Odds On Sushi.

"They are very nice, as a whole," she said. "I am very pleased with how consistently nice these Confederate horses are."

When it comes to the "wow factor" from Anvil And Lace, Beth notes the Walner offspring on her roster.

"If you don't have that 'wow' reaction to the opening-night Walners, it would be quite surprising," she said. "It's a given."

Beth points to Hip #303 Parachutes, a Tactical Landing colt, as a standout.

"I don't know if I have ever seen one that can trot like him in the paddock," she said. "He is pretty spectacular. People are a little questionable on the Sebastian K broodmare sire. Next Level Stuff, herself, was fantastic, but being a Sebastian K, are they going to be broodmare sires? When you bring this colt out, he's unbelievable. When you look at him, he is something else."

On the pacing side, Going Topless, Hip #326, is a head-turning filly.

"She is a Confederate filly and I am pretty certain she is the first Confederate ever born, out of the good mare Priceless, who made over $600,000," Beth said. "So, she has an excellent pedigree. She is as classy a filly as I have ever had on the farm. When she was born, she acted like she was two weeks, when she was two weeks, she acted like she was a month – she has always been a step ahead. You bring her out and she poses. She has been an aim-to-please filly so far."

The key to the sale, for Beth, goes back to dual eligibility.

"A lot of what we have falls into that category, which is very important considering how lucrative the programs are," she said. "The Kentucky fair program – they are talking about adding a couple more fairs – will have a lot to offer people who race there. Anything Kentucky-eligible is worth taking a shot on because there are so many options out there."

Cane Run Farm's Elizabeth Caldwell.

Caldwell cautiously optimistic about Cane Run's all-trotter consignment

by Dave Briggs

Elizabeth Caldwell, co-manager of Georgetown, KY-based Cane Run Farm said there is a lot to like about her consignment of 16 trotters.

"It's a good group of horses," she said. "We've had a lot of visitors out here at the farm lately. There's a bunch of Gimpanzees, and he's having a pretty good year, so hopefully that will translate in the sales ring. We'll see how that goes."

Eight of the 12 yearlings Cane Run is selling were sired by Gimpanzee, who currently ranks fourth in 2-year-old progeny earnings.

Cane Run is selling four yearlings of its own this year and 12 as an agent.

"There's a lot of nice individuals and the pedigrees are active right now, which is super helpful," Caldwell said. "Hopefully where we've gotten our horses placed will stand out on those days. We'll see what happens."

"Every year is a little different. Walner is always popular and we have two very nice fillies and strong pedigrees [Hip #301

Walيريا and Hip #328 Ascend].

"Then, there are two colts that are really nice. The Beautiful Sin colt [Hip #162 Jungle Law] and the Dibaba S colt [Hip #480 Abebe]. Those are both Gimpanzees and they are very athletic.

"Muscle Hill, he's retiring, and we have two of those. [Hip #215 Ever Since, a filly, and Hip #271 Muscle Will, a colt]. So, it's one of the last chances to get one of those, especially a filly."

Asked to pick some favorites based on looks, Caldwell pointed out a handful.

"[Jungle Law], he stands out," Caldwell said. "He's a Gimpanzee. And Hip #328 [Ascend], she's very nice, a Walner filly. The Muscle Hills are both really nice. Then, Hip #480 [Abebe], he's a standout. Very handsome.

"I'm kind of partial to Hip #477 [Dua], that's one of ours, and Hip #697 [Deanie] is a very nice individual as well.

"Somebody said, 'You have a really good group overall.' That's nice to her and they are well-prepped. The guys have done a great job and I'm hoping that translates in the auction ring.

"I'm hoping it goes well. I hope the buyers will be here to shop and they will spend a little money. You never know.

"The thoroughbred sale was really strong, but it just depends

Blue Chip's Tom Grossman is optimistic about the future of New York

by Dave Briggs

Tom Grossman, owner of Blue Chip Farms in Wallkill, NY, has plenty of reasons to be bullish about the future in New York.

The state has allowed shipped semen for two years now, Blue Chip is home to new stallions Back Of The Neck and Cannibal, whose first crop will sell this year, and the farm has been the long-time home of exceptional trotting stallion Chapter Seven.

"Everyone likes their own cooking, but I'm extremely positive about New York," Grossman said. "We have a healthy surplus in the Sire Stakes account, which insulates us from anything.

"More importantly, through shipped semen, which worked out perfectly, we and others invested heavily in educating the politicians. I don't want to tell you what I've spent on lobbyists, but I think they generally do understand the economic impact of horses.

"The problem is, obviously, that every three years these [politicians] change and you've got to go up the mountain again, but they've followed through and they did the right thing on shipped semen, they did the right thing, reasonably, on the Sire Stakes purses and breeder awards. Right now, I feel very comfortable and simultaneously [SBOA of New York president] Joe Faraldo's done an awesome job with MGM [which operates Yonkers Raceway]."

Blue Chip will sell nine yearlings at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale and another 50 or so at the Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling sale in Harrisburg, PA.

"Out of 65 yearlings, we've decided to take nine or 10 of the best to Kentucky," Grossman said. "Without sounding like we love everything, they are sort of the ones that are exceptional. Certain families sell better at Harrisburg, but largely [Lexington is] a select sale for us so we feel pretty strongly about all of them."

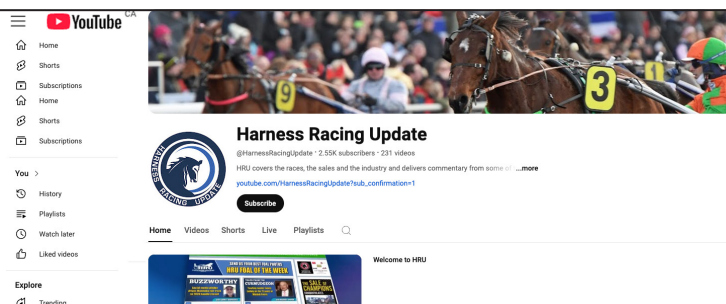

Grossman said the decision about which horses to sell in Lexington and which ones to sell in Harrisburg comes down to, "the ones we think could really hook two or three buyers and sell for really big money – those are the ones we bring to Lexington. I still think the upper, upper end is higher in Lexington than Harrisburg. The ones that we think could bring $200,000, $300,000, $400,000, largely those are the ones we're bringing to Lexington."

He said a horse Blue Chip is selling on Day 3 of the Lexington sale is an outstanding individual.

"The Chapter Seven out of Friends After Six [Hip #502, Cognac Blue Chip] is one of the nicest yearlings I think we've ever produced. The family, I think, is very timely, but the individual is really a 10-plus and we give those out very, very rarely.

HARNESS RACING

YouTube

www.YouTube.com/c/HarnessRacingUpdate

"I think he should be in Day 2, if not Day 1. That's partially our fault. He was always good, but in the last three months he's just blossomed beautifully. He videoed well, but he's been better when we turned him out the last few weeks for trainers. I thought he was very, very solid three or four weeks ago, but I like him a hell of a lot more now than I did three or four weeks ago."

That's part of the challenge with determining the correct sale for each horse. The cutoff for entries is much earlier in the year before many yearlings have shown what they could be as individuals.

"I think people generally overestimate how much we know," Grossman said. "We have to put them into different sales, I forget the exact cut off, but it's a long, long time ago."

"And you can go the other way, too. You can be very high on a horse and put him in Day 1 and there's a lot of the lower half of the Day 1 sale that would've been higher on Day 2 or 3. On Day 1, people want everything to be perfect and there's so much more to come that they are very dismissive. They think they are going to get something that they don't get... Every year you sell something on Day 1 that you think would've done better on Day 3."

Grossman also pointed out Hey Livvy's Walner filly Cruzin Blue Chip, Hip #248.

"It would not shock me if that's the fastest filly in the country next year," Grossman said. "For a lot of people that watched [the mare], when she was right, she had more ability than most trotters I've ever been associated with. She was fast."

As for the first crop of Cannibal, Blue Chip is selling two in Lexington.

"Both Cannibals we're bringing are really, really nice," Grossman said. "Looks-wise I'm extremely happy with all the Cannibals we've bred and I think we're bringing two nice ones in [Hip #169] Curacao Blue Chip and [Hip #577] Cassandra Blue Chip. They are going to show off the stallion quite well."

As for what he likes from what he's seen of Cannibal's first crop, Grossman said, "they are all medium to medium-plus size and just very sharp looking and extremely – not aggressive, but extremely motivated in the paddock. They are tough horses, I think, which makes sense... Cannibal himself is out of the Arterra family, which has already proven itself as a sire-maker on several occasions. I think they are perfect sized for New York. I think there are certainly going to be several on the Grand Circuit and they are all going to be very forward horses. They are very inquisitive, aggressive, sort of on the bit – not literally, but I think they are going to be those kind of horses."

Double- and triple-eligible yearlings headline Weaver Standardbred Farm consignment

by James Platz

Weaver Standardbred Farm's 2026 Lexington consignment offers a nine-horse assortment that is predominantly pacers, with eight of the yearlings eligible to multiple programs. The husband-and-wife team of Enos and Lexi Weaver are selling at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale for the third year, with all babies from the Utica, Oh operation cataloged on Tuesday and Wednesday.

"We've got a nice group this year," Enos said. "We've got two Captain Coreys, one is a colt, and we've got a filly as well. Very nice. Then we have three Huntsvilles, two fillies, one colt, and two Cannibals."

Of the group of seven mentioned, all but one is from Jim Crawford's KAD Farms, a key breeder that boards many mares with the Weavers.

"Jim's been wonderful," Lexi said. "He sent his first mare in 2019, and I would have to look back at the list, but I believe he's well over 90 mares. So, he's very involved and very optimistic about the business, enjoys it, and is super easy to work with. We're blessed to have him."

Weaver Standardbred Farm will sell four yearlings during the Tuesday session, with the trio of Huntsville babies and a Captain Corey filly cataloged. Hip #305 Media Man is a full-brother to graded stakes-placed Hunt Off The Press, a winner of just over $350,000. He is the second foal from Sportswriter mare Off The Press, and is eligible to New York, Kentucky, and Massachusetts.

"Media Man is a full brother to Hunt Off the Press, and a total upgrade from his brother," Lexi said.

Hip #205 Paisleys Poison is a New York and Kentucky eligible filly by Huntsville, and the first foal from JK Endofanera mare Odds On Dead Heat. Fellow Huntsville filly Hip #264 Foxyville is a sister to freshman winner and six-figure earner Atlantic Ivy.

"Foxyville is a half-sister to Atlantic Ivy, so only the second foal out of the mare," Lexi said. "She's another dual eligible, big, strong Huntsville filly."

Hip #251 Fast Like Hannah is a Captain Corey first foal from Chapter Seven mare Hotfoot Hannah. The filly is triple eligible to Pennsylvania, Kentucky, and Massachusetts. The family includes 47-time winner The Last Chapter ($723,099).

"First foal out of a Chapter Seven mare; she's a very nice, athletic filly," Lexi said.

Five yearlings from the consignment sell Wednesday, with three representing first crop sires. Hip #451 Colts Sweet Finger Tips and Hip #639 Neanderthal are from the first crop of Cannibal. Sweet Finger Tips is the first colt from Caviart Carmel, and is New York, Kentucky, and Massachusetts eligible. Neanderthal is a New York and Kentucky eligible first foal from a family that includes O'Brien Award winner Tall Drink Hanover.

"We're excited about the Cannibals," Lexi said. "We have quite a few on the farm and definitely like what we see."

Hip #496 Cynthia Lynn is a Pennsylvania and Kentucky eligible Confederate filly that is a sibling to sophomore Crunch Class. She is the third foal from a family that includes double millionaire JK Endofanera.

"The Confederate filly is a sire upgrade," Lexi said. "She's a really pretty filly. The mare was bred to Captain Crunch for the first two."

Hip #505 Ready Set Lou is a Sweet Lou filly from the productive Rocknroll Hanover mare Gettingreadytoroll. The quarter-million-dollar-winning mare has produced five winners from five previous foals including $210,000 winner Instantaneous.

Last in the consignment, but certainly not least, is Hip #641 Uncle Corey. The Captain Corey colt is eligible to Pennsylvania and Kentucky, and is the third foal from a Cantab Hall mare that has a winner to her credit.

Last year, Weaver Standardbred Farm sold 11 yearlings at Lexington, with the group averaging just over $44,000. More importantly, several of those that sold have gone on to produce on the racetrack this season.

"We're very happy with, overall, a lot of the babies racing this summer," Lexi said. "We're just thankful when they get in good hands and they go on to do their job. So, it helps the next one tremendously."

TALES FROM THE CURMUDGEON

with MURRAY BROWN

A deep dive into the yearlings selling on Day 2 at Lexington

by Murray Brown

This column is being written less than a week before and will appear in HRU one day before the beginning of the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

It is only not only timely, but it is reasonable to expect that it should be about that sale.

Should it concern the power packed Day 1 of the venue? Maybe, but much of what I would say has been previously been said many times about the opening day of the same sale.

Do I believe that the Monday session will blow the roof off the Fasig Tipton sales pavilion? If they don't, then we, meaning the collective industry, are in trouble.

Day 1 has everything the discriminating buyer looks for. It almost always does.

I have decided to concentrate on Day 2 of the event. The session has 261 yearlings cataloged. There are many among them who were probably considered for Day 1, but for likely various reasons landed in the Tuesday session. Make no mistake about it, Day 2 is also loaded.

I have decided to concentrate on what I view as the most unknown factor of the group, the first foals. No less than 79 of the day's 261 yearlings, 30.27 per cent, almost one in every three are first foals from their respective dams.

I have handicapped them to my liking. There is no real set formula, but in most instances, I would like to see what I view as at least one top performer in the second dam's production.

From those 79 yearlings, I have chosen four in each of the four categories: pacing colts and fillies and the same for trotters.

The final 16 will constitute one of my make-believe stables for 2-year-olds in 2027. I will likely do the same for Harrisburg and a combination for both of the major sales. Good luck to all, sellers and buyers alike!

TROTTING COLTS

Hip #176 Murray B — Chapter Seven—Bourbon Queen—Tactical Landing. Honestly his name had nothing to do with my choice. The mare's first two dams are replete with stakes and fast class winners. What really attracted this old guy's attention is the colt's fifth dam being one of my all-time favorites Superlou, one of the very first top Super Bowls.

Hip #317 Gideon's Sword — Tactical Approach—Pink Gypsy—Father Patrick. From a stakes winning sibling to five stakes winners including the world champion, 3-Year-Old Trotting Colt of 2020 and multiple stakes and fast class winner Amigo Volo ($2,680,432).

Hip #206 Dondi White — Walner—Defacement—Muscle Hill. From a mare whose first two dams are full of big money winners including Security Protected ($898,003) and Fifty Cent Piece ($500,000) from the first dam and the Hambletonian winner Muscle Massive ($1,239,138) and the world champion Muscle Mass ($229,000) from her second dam.

Hip #272 Market Research — Tactical Landing—Lady Lira—International Moni. From a stakes winning half-sister to the 2-Year-Old Trotting Filly of 2020 and multiple stakes winner Anoka Hanover ($792,739) and three other stakes winners.

TROTTING FILLIES

Hip #266 Lindy's Brave Maid — Walner—Joan of Arc—International Moni. From a stakes placed half-sister to the multiple stakes and fast class winner Lindy The Great ($1,498,464), Marquis Lafayette ($425,360), and Mother Teresa ($120,817).

Hip #269 Scarlett Iris — Tactical Approach—Kelsie Awaiting—Walner. From a sister to the multiple stakes winner Walner Payton ($801,071) and out of a sister to the multiple stakes winner and much missed sire Bar Hopping ($1,292,433).

Hip #212 Seven Days A Week — Chapter Seven—Egyptian Hanover—Bar Hopping. From a half-sister to the world champion and multiple stakes winner Hillexotic ($1,613,777) and out of the multiple stakes winner Exotic Destination ($282,328).

Hip #156 Goraceme Armitage — Tactical Landing—Avacakes—Father Patrick. From a half-sister to the Hambletonian winner and the 2-Year-Old Trotting Colt of 2023 Karl ($2,046,066) and a sister to the stakes winner Lucius Vorenius ($268,807).

PACING COLTS

Hip #145 Turbo Field — Papi Rob Hanover—Warrawee Jeannie—Sweet Lou. From a sister to the 2-Year-Old Pacing Filly of 2018; the 3-Year-Old Pacing Filly of 2019 Warrawee Ubeaut ($1,849,213) and a half-sister to four other stakes winners including Warrawee Needy ($1,258,027) and Warrawee Vital ($611,088).

Hip #250 Talbot Twiceasweet — Sweet Lou—Sweeties Best Bet—Betting Line. From a half-sister to the multiple stakes and fast class winner Backstreet Shadow ($1,853,149), Mack ($626,206), Backstreet Gambler ($235,8712) and Beach Babe ($161,410).

Hip #211 Dewsbury Station — Stay Hungry—Duchess Hill—Betting Line. From a multiple stakes winning sister to one of my all-time favorites Abuckabett Hanover ($2,181,009) and a half sister to All Hands On Deck ($289,218), and Attention Hanover ($206,617).

Hip #285 Kramer — Confederate—Max Contract—Huntsville. From the Breeders Crown winner Max Contract ($656,305) a half-sister to the stakes winners I'm A Big Deal ($418,910) and Hungry Man ($285,850).

PACING FILLIES

Hip #343 She Be Sweet — Sweet Lou—Shebebakin Hanover—Captaintreacherous. From a stakes winning half-sister to the 2-Year-Old Pacing Colt of 2020 and the 3-Year-Old Pacing Colt of 2021 Perfect Sting ($1,733,981).

Hip #222 Fala La La La — Downbytheseaside—Falana Hanover—Always B Miki. From a half-sister to the Breeders Crown winner and 2-Year-Old Pacing Filly of 2020 Fire Start Hanover ($1,273,448).

Hip #221 In Lou We Trust — Sweet Lou—Faithful Hill—Racing Hill. From a sister to the multiple stakes and fast class winner Admiral Hill ($872,933), she's out of a sister to the Dan Patch winner Rocklamation ($2,277,384).

Hip #142 Maneater Deo — Cannibal—Alwaysbafoolfrudeo—Always B Miki. From a half-sister to six stakes winners including Rodeo Rock ($766,740), Trente Deo ($444,181), and Ameritric ($309,536).

Nix Nacken upsets in 134th Kentucky Futurity

by Ray Cotolo for The Red Mile additional quotes by Dave Briggs and James Platz

Marcus Melander trainee Nix Nacken collected back-to-back Grade 1 victories following a win over 2026 Hambletonian winner Apex in the Canadian Trotting Classic when he sprung from a ground-saving trip and collared leg-weary rivals to win the $575,000 Grade 1 134th Kentucky Futurity – sponsored by Hunterton Farms – in 1:50 mile.

Apex jumped off-stride leaving the gate while stablemate Nix Nacken – in rein to champion Swedish driver Bjorn Goop in his first time driving at The Red Mile – fired for the top from the pylon draw. Inexpressible (driven by Scott Zeron) loomed after the leader through the first turn, with Big Ranger (Tim Tetrick) following, and swept to command passing a :27.1 first quarter. Big Ranger ground forward and planted onto the point nearing a :54 half.

American Power (James MacDonald) tipped off the pylons from eighth heading for the final turn and waited to catch cover, but as Big Ranger slowed for a breather MacDonald zipped up the rim and blitzed the leader to three-quarters in 1:22.1. Big Ranger gave way to American Power turning for home as Goop fanned Nix Nacken towards the center of the track and pocket-sitting Inexpressible shook free with clearance from second-over Zephyr Kemp (Todd McCarthy) rolling off-stride. Inexpressible reached after American Power entering the final eighth but Nix Nacken gathered steam and towered over the pair late to spurt past and win by three-quarters-of-a-length. Read The Room (Ake Svanstedt), a 67-1 shot, rallied widest of all from a shuffle to take second while Inexpressible finished third and American Power took fourth.

“This is an honor,” said Goop, who scored his first North American graded-stake victory with this win. “I drove [Nix Nacken] once at The Meadowlands on Hambo Day last year – he was a little bit childish at the time, but he showed good speed. But of course, he has improved a lot this year. I hoped to be like second or third to the inside by the rail... that ended up good and then he really blasted in the homestretch.”

Nix Nacken, a son of Muscle Hill out of the Yankee Glide mare Nixie Volo Strom said he named for a Swedish tale about “a ghost that lures ladies into a lake” won his fifth race from 15 starts this season and his eighth race from 26 starts in his career, banking $938,367 for owner Courant Inc – Anders Strom’s organization that also won in the 2019 Kentucky Futurity with another Marcus Melander trainee in Greenshoe.

"Bjorn and I have known each other for ages, so it's extra fun to win with him," Strom said after the race. "I was good friends with all of the family. I hope they watch this — and I know they are proud of Bjorn. He's a fantastic horseman. And I really appreciate that he came over. He came last night, he drove today and he's leaving 6 a.m. tomorrow, so that's a tough job; that's a good friend."

Goop said Nix Nacken, "was in good shape," after winning the Canadian Trotting Classic, "but there were really tough opponents, so we had to have the perfect trip. We were lucky in that way, but he came home so strong. He passed them and he didn't want to let them come back again. He continued all the way home. He was really strong."

Strom said Goop flew into Kentucky late on Friday night.

"He won the race for us now and then he leaves at 6 a.m. tomorrow," Strom said. "He's a world traveler."

Sent off as the fourth choice in the betting, and pointing next for the Breeders Crown eliminations at Scioto Downs on Oct. 17, Nix Nacken paid $37.48 to win.

Apex's driver Dexter Dunn said his charge, "felt normal. He really was fine. He just made a break. It's very uncommon for him. I don't know, to be honest."

Strom said, "Apex is one of the best horses in the crop, together with Big Ranger, so we didn't really think we could compete with him. Nix Nacken has had very bad post positions in many of the important races, but when he has a good race, he can always deliver."

Still the owner said the horse deserved to be overlooked in the division.

Dave Landry
Swedish driver Bjorn Goop flew into Kentucky the night before the Futurity, won the race in his first time driving at The Red Mile and was on a plane home the next morning.

"He should have been overlooked because he's kind of a difficult horse," Strom said. "He's not like the other ones, that's why he's a gelding. He deserves to be."

Live harness racing at The Red Mile resumes on Thursday (Oct. 8) with the International Stallion Stakes for 2-year-old trotting males and 2-year-old pacing fillies as the highlight events. Thursday's card will also feature a $6,063.81 carryover into the Super High 5, which is offered in race 5. First-race post time is 1 p.m. (EDT).

She's Moni wins 61st Kentucky Filly Futurity

by Ray Cotole for The Red Mile additional quotes by Dave Briggs

Trainer Nancy Takter snagged the top two finishing spots of the $300,000 Grade 1 61st Kentucky Filly Futurity when her trainee She's Moni overcame a second-tier draw to seize the front and never look back for a lifetime-best equaling 1:50.1 victory over stablemate Madam Cheval on Saturday (Oct. 3) at The Red Mile.

Driver Yannick Gingras planted She's Moni behind stablemate Madam Cheval (driven by Tim Tetrick) leaving the gate and sliced through traffic once Tetrick crossed over to the lead. Carve (Bjorn Goop) hustled out of post 6 to press for the lead but bucked into the pocket entering the first turn, giving She's Moni open road to roll for the lead to a :27.3 first quarter. She's Moni continued to speed on the lead on the backstretch as Custom (Jason Bartlett), parked from the start, idled uncovered on the rim with 2026 Hambletonian Oaks champ Nezuko Kamado S (Scott Zeron) in tow. Zeron unwound Nezuko Kamado S around stalled cover approaching a :54.1 half, but wobbled off-stride while She's Moni cruised on the lead.

She's Moni maintained an uncontested lead while charging for three-quarters in 1:22.2 as Custom retreated. Madam Cheval bided her time in her stablemate's slipstream rounding the bottom corner and gradually edged out of the pocket for an attack into the final eighth. She's Moni extended for the finish and hit the line a half-length better than Madam Cheval with Carve giving chase in third and 32-1 shot R Ro (Andy Miller) rallying for fourth.

"I was waiting to see [behind the gate in the second tier] – Timmy's filly is pretty sure-gaited and I thought was the right one to follow," Gingras said after the race. "I also had the option of maybe sliding behind [Nuance], but as the gate was getting ready to open, I thought I was in a great spot.

"[She's Moni's] got a beautiful gait. She's strong. She can get a little bit aggressive here and there, but today she was super. I was lucky to pick her up three starts back and she's a wonderful filly. I thought I had enough to fend everybody off, but you just never know. They're quality fillies. I saw Scotty [Zeron with Nezuko Kamado S] made a break at the half, so obviously that's one I had to fear late in the race but I knew she was out of the race."

A homebred for Brittany Farms LLC and Marvin Katz, Shes Moni won for the fourth time from just 10 starts this season after a brief freshman campaign of one win from one start due to soundness issues. The Walner filly, out of the Cantab Hall mare Thats All Moni, has now earned $431,106.

"I was having a wonderful day before the race and it's even more wonderful now," said George Segal, winning co-owner of She's Moni through Brittany Farms. "I love breeding fillies and I love racing fillies. It's great, and being a partner with Marvin is even better."

Co-owner Katz said, "George [Segal] had one of the greatest, if not the greatest pacing broodmare bands the sport has ever seen. Hopefully we can replicate that with trotting. It's a big statement – I don't have that much hubris, but we're trying.

"I think we bought [She's Moni's dam That's All Moni] from Frank Antonacci. We paid a lot of money for the mother. She was a beautiful filly, from Snow White's family... She raced and won about half a million. She raced the same year that we had Ariana G, but she did make half a million during her career and won big races. We kept her in the breeding program. The mare has always had colts and this was the first filly she had.

"I have to give Nancy a great deal of credit, because [She's Moni] was a challenge. She had some issues along the way and Nancy took care of it. She only raced one time as a 2-year-old, but we knew she had talent. She brought her along slowly."

Takter said, "she had a little bit of an injury last year, unfortunately. Everybody did the right thing and gave her the time that she needed to develop into a nice filly. So it was just a matter of letting her develop and she did, obviously."

She's Moni paid $8.14 to win.

Isabella Bi (Ake Svanstedt) won the $25,000 Kentucky Filly Futurity consolation with a 1:51 effort earlier on the card. Svanstedt swept to the lead with the daughter of Tactical Landing—Call Me Bi IT past a :27.4 first quarter and coasted through middle fractions of :55.3 and 1:23.1 to then stave off late pursuers for a neck victory. Southwind Chaska (Tetrack) rallied for second past pocket-popping 2-1 favorite Sparks (Gingras) in third while Decreed (Todd McCarthy) rallied from near last for fourth.

Svanstedt trains Isabella Bi for owners Ake Svanstedt Inc, Joe Sbrocco & JAF Racing, Little E LLC, and Mr. Lars Olsson. The filly won for the second time from 11 starts this season and the third time from 18 starts in her career, good for $178,564 in earnings. She paid $10.80 to win.

The 61st Kentucky Filly Futurity was named "The Atlanta" and sponsored by Crawford Farms. The Kentucky Filly Futurity consolation was sponsored by the Volume Eight Syndicate and Hanover Shoe Farms.

HOPE HILL UPSETS MISS JUM JABBER IN BLUEGRASS FILLY PACE

Hope Hill turned the tables after a 3½ length defeat to Brett Pelling's star sophomore pacing filly Miss Jum Jabber in the Kentucky Championship Series final when she overpowered her late in the stretch for a 1:49 victory in the second of the two $151,000 Grade 3 Bluegrass Stakes on Saturday (Oct. 3) at The Red Mile.

Leaving from post 2, driver Dexter Dunn eased into third with Hope Hill as longshot On Heir (driven by Yannick Gingras) swept to the lead with Miss Jum Jabber (Scott Zeron) restless in the pocket. Zeron obliged to roll Miss Jum Jabber entering the backstretch and took over command well before a :55.1 half while Dunn waited to mount his attack to the far turn. Dunn slid off the cones with Hope Hill, marched after Miss Jum Jabber to three-quarters in 1:22.1 and kept chugging against the odds-on favorite in the lane. Hope Hill matched strides with Miss Jum Jabber and overhauled her nearing the finish to win by a head with I'm A Lou Lou (Tim Tetrick) closing for third and Gala (Todd McCarthy) taking fourth.

A homebred daughter of Papi Rob Hanover—Ruth Hill for owner Tom Hill, Hope Hill won for the sixth time this season from 13 starts and for the 10th time from 22 starts in her career, good for $399,432 in earnings. The Petter Engblom trainee, sent off as the second choice in the betting, paid $24.02 to win.

Odds-on favorite Topville Lucky snatched the lead on the backstretch and asserted full authority to the finish of a 1:49.1 mile in the first Bluegrass division for sophomore pacing fillies.

Todd McCarthy secured a seat with Topville Lucky behind early leader Lyons I Wanna Chip (Jason Bartlett) to a :27 first quarter, but soon circled the Andrew Harris trainee to the top heading towards a :55 half. Topville Lucky coasted on the point through the last turn, clicked past three-quarters in 1:22.3 and glided home a winner by three lengths chased by Need You Now (Dunn) in second. Barbuda Belle (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) rallied from a pylon trip for third and Sunny Station (Zeron) took fourth.

"She's actually been a really nice filly," Todd McCarthy said. "She's just a little bit under some of them – like that Miss Jum Jabber is a freak. So, when we drew away from her, I felt pretty confident in her."

Topville Lucky competes for owner Punisher 11 Stable LLC. The filly by Sweet Lou, out of the Somebeachsomewhere mare Warrawee Winx, won her second race from 10 starts this season and her eighth race from 17 starts in her career, earning $511,186. She paid $3.02 to win.

The first division of the Bluegrass 3-Year-Old Filly Pace was sponsored by the Tall Dark Stranger Syndicate and Hanover Shoe Farms, and the second division was sponsored by Clear Creek at Brittany.

Beau Jangles, Brandon Blvd score in Bluegrass colt pace

by Ray Cotolo for The Red Mile
additional quotes by Dave Briggs

Last season's Horse of the Year Beau Jangles and this season's North American earnings leader Brandon Blvd both uncorked front-stepping 1:47.2 efforts to win their respective $79,000 divisions of the Grade 3 Bluegrass Stakes for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings on Saturday afternoon (Oct. 3) at The Red Mile.

In the first division, driver James MacDonald motored Beau Jangles for the front from the pylon draw and seated early leaver Ubrute (driven by Yannick Gingras) heading to a :27.1 first quarter. Beau Jangles sailed up the backstretch under no pressure to a :54.1 half and maintained his speed through the last turn to three-quarters in 1:21.2. Ubrute emerged from the pocket spinning for home, but Beau Jangles held that rival at bay in the lane for a 1½ length win. Sea Bistro Hanover (Todd McCarthy) kicked from a second-over trip for third and Thiago Hanover (Ronnie Wrenn Jr.) zipped from a ground-saving trip for fourth.

"This year's been a different year for sure," winning trainer Dr. Ian Moore said, referencing the colt's turbulent sophomore season off an unbeaten freshman campaign. "We've had some bad things happen here and there, and so I'm glad we're here. Looks like we're readying for a nice end to the fall season here.

"In the paddock today he had his ears up looking at everything. Sometimes he gets a little nervous before a race – he might shake a little bit and get a little upset. Not today, and he warmed up beautifully. Everything was good. I've lightened the training on him of late; he does it so easy, so I frequently might've trained him too much in the past and in recent times I haven't trained him hardly much at all, and he's been way better doing that. So we'll continue that."

Beau Jangles competes for owners Graham Grace Stables LLC, Kiwi Stables LLC and Bolton Stables. The Cattlewash colt, out of the Art Major mare Mrs Major Hill, won for the sixth time from 13 starts this season and for the 18th time from 25 starts in his career, amassing $1,582,236. He paid $3.06 to win.

Part-owner Jonathan Roberts said it was important to showcase Beau Jangles in Kentucky.

“One hundred per cent, that’s why he was here,” Roberts said. “We wanted the people here to be able to see the horse and he went a great trip and we’re very proud of him.

Majority owner Adam Ainspan said, “He really has done a lot better than people think. This is what happens after they are sick. It takes time and what not and even some of the races he’s lost recently, he’s still been really impressive. I think all of us are not shocked [about today’s performance].”

Brandon Blvd (Dexter Dunn) hit the track in the following race to dominate the other Bluegrass division. Dunn ranged outside towards early blaster Papi Rick (Joe Bongiorno) to take brief command as Sweet Lovin Lou (Scott Zeron) lunged up to grab the lead through a :26.2 first quarter. Brandon Blvd angled out of the pocket and snugly overtook Sweet Lovin Lou approaching a :54 half and cruised towards three-quarters in 1:21. He then quickened in the stretch as Sweet Lovin Lou tipped outside to challenge but only gave pursuit for second, beaten a half-length. Funky Buddha (Tim Tetrick) levelled off from a first-over push for third and Winnercircleseeker (Ronnie Wrenn Jr.) snatched fourth.

“He’s been doing it all season,” Dunn said after the race, “and Sweet Lovin Lou’s extremely fast and been in great form too. He had to fight today, but that’s one of his real credits to him – he’s a fighter and that was a great performance.”

Brandon Blvd collected his ninth win from 12 starts this season and his 16th victory from 22 starts in his career, accruing $1,564,592 for owner Punisher 11 Stable LLC. The Andrew Harris-trained colt by Downbytheseaside, out of the American Ideal mare Alexis Faith, paid $2.72 to win.

The first Bluegrass division for 3-year-old pacing males was named the “Harnessing the Future: UK College of Agriculture Day at The Red Mile” sponsored by Woodford Feed. The second division of the Bluegrass 3-Year-Old Colt and Gelding Pace was sponsored by Brittany Farms.

Wall Of Fame (Andy Miller) remained undefeated lifetime after her winning her Bluegrass test for 2-year-old trotting fillies on Thursday at The Red Mile.

Wall Of Fame stays undefeated with Bluegrass Stake victory

by Ray Cotolo for The Red Mile

Wall Of Fame remained resolute under intense homestretch pressure from pocket-popping Gabriela Beatriz S to keep her perfect record intact with a 1:54.3 effort over an off track in the $94,000 second Grade 3 Bluegrass Stakes division — the Norman Woolworth Memorial sponsored by Arden Homestead Stable — for 2-year-old trotting fillies on Friday afternoon (Oct. 2) at The Red Mile.

After landing into second out of post 5 to a :28.3 first quarter, driver Andy Miller looped Wall Of Fame around early leader

Gabriela Beatriz S (driven by Yannick Gingras) to take control before a :57.1 half. Wall Of Fame cruised around the last turn as Gabriela Beatriz S swelled following Miller's helmet, and Gingras tipped his charge outside past three-quarters in 1:26 to lay an attack. Gabriela Beatriz S pushed up to match strides with Wall Of Fame in the stretch but wavered as Miller's charge dug in to hold her ground. Wall Of Fame repelled Gabriela Beatriz S inside of the final eighth and reached the beam a neck better. Putitondad'stab (Scott Zeron) gave chase from third, beaten another five lengths, with Agano (Mattias Melander) rallying from a second-over trip for fourth.

"I just think her and Andy have a great connection," trainer Julie Miller said after the race. "She doesn't do more than she has to, but she knows how to get herself to the winner's circle. Her biggest thing is she's easy on herself. She doesn't get too excited by anything; she lets Andy do what he wants. Versatility is key. This is a great group of fillies. Andy and I over the years have had a lot of nice trotters, [and] she ranks right up there with them. We're just very blessed to have her and very grateful.

"I think we're going to take her back to [New] Jersey, a little 'R and R' and maybe target the Goldsmith Maid. I'll talk to Andy and our vet at home and see what we think is best."

Undefeated in 10 starts, Wall Of Fame has amassed $608,250 for owners Andy Miller Stable, Jean Goehlen, Hutchison Harness LLC, and Rick Huffman. The daughter of Walner, out of Donato Hanover mare Saadet, returned $2.24 to win.

Dandelion Wine (Dexter Dunn), escaping the clutches of Wall Of Fame, opened the rainy afternoon with a powerful brush off the bottom corner to snag the lead and win the $94,000 first Bluegrass division for freshman trotting fillies – sponsored by Kountry Lane Standardbreds – in a 1:53 mile.

Dunn planted the Ake Svanstedt pupil into third as 2-5 favorite Heart Of Secret (Gingras) swooped forward to take the lead approaching a :28.2 first quarter. The field stayed in alignment up the backstretch to a :56.2 half but broke rank around the last turn with Dandelion Wine angling outside and Patty's Girl (Tim Tetrick) following her cover. Dandelion Wine thrust by Heart Of Secret after three-quarters in 1:25.3 and cruised to the finish for a 3¾-length win chased by Patty's Girl in second. Heart Of Secret rolled off-stride and settled for third while Caught Speeding (Todd McCarthy) faltered from a pocket trip for fourth.

"She has actually been facing Wall Of Fame in every race that she's been in, so a second behind her is a very good record on the paper," Sarah Svanstedt of Team Svanstedt said after the race. "She's big, strong, good looking, so it's going to be a nice future with her."

A daughter of Ecurie D DK out of the Southwind Frank mare Plum Wine, Dandelion Wine races for breeder Little E LLC and co-owner Ake Svanstedt Inc. She broke her maiden with the victory in the seventh start of her career, has now earned $112,250 and paid $7.06 to win.

Beauts Cabaret (Zeron) stole tepid fractions and had plenty in store for flanking challenges late to clinch a 1:55.2 victory in the $94,000 third Bluegrass division, sponsored by the International Moni Syndicate and Hanover Shoe Farms.

Zeron slid out of post 7 to the lead in a :29.2 first quarter and remained alone on the front to a :58.3 half, at which point Blue Ranger (Orjan Kihlstrom) angled out of third to march up the rim towards the leader. Beauts Cabaret continued under minimal pressure past three-quarters in 1:27.2 and came under fire in the stretch from 3-2 favorite Rio De Janeiro (Joe Bongiorno) nudging through an inside seam and Blue Ranger continually building momentum to the outside. Zeron kept his charge to task under late duress to seal a neck victory over Rio De Janeiro with Blue Ranger settling for third and A Tale Of Kemp (Todd McCarthy) giving chase in fourth.

"I bought the mare with the foal at her side," winning co-owner Steve Palermo said after the race, "and right away I wanted to name it after [trainer] Steve Bossence's daughter. He used to call her 'Beaut', so we just called her Beauts Cabaret and it's been pretty lucky for us so far. She's got a lot of good brothers – I bought her probably as a broodmare prospect for down the line, but now she's making the money on her own right."

Winning her fourth race from seven starts and her second graded stake in her career, Beauts Cabaret has earned $100,338 for owners Steve Palermo, Jeffery Ruch, and Stephen Bossence. The daughter of International Moni, out of Muscle Hill mare Southwind Cabaret, paid $16.26 to win.

Orinoco (Gingras) made a mid-race move for the top and then denied an uncovered bid from odds-on favorite Birr Castle (Zeron) to win the $95,000 final Bluegrass split for freshman trotting fillies, the Wayne Giles Memorial sponsored by R. A. W. Equine, in a 1:54.3 mile.

Gingras settled Orinoco into third while longshot Just Dior Her (Andy Miller) crossed to the lead through a :28 first quarter. Pocket-sitter Mine Mine Mine (Mattias Melander) then broke stride into the backstretch, and Gingras soon pulled off the cones to circle Orinoco to the lead heading to a :57 half. Birr Castle, racing in third, tipped outside and reached for the leader through three-quarters in 1:26.4, but evened in her bid into the final eighth. Orinoco strode comfortably for a half-length win over Birr Castle with Two Day Hangover (Dunn) closing for third and Two To The North (Todd McCarthy) giving chase from a second-over trip for fourth.

"She's a real nice filly; all of her races she's done very well," said Bernie Noren, a member of the winning ownership with Knutsson Trotting Inc. "When we get the top, she's a tough filly to pass. We'll go for the Breeders Crown next at Scioto Downs, so hopefully we can be good there. She's good on a five-eighths track."

Knutsson Trotting Inc co-owns Orinoco, a Captain Corey filly out of Andover Hall mare Bonnie Lou, with Ake Svanstedt Inc. The Svanstedt trainee collected her third win from seven starts, has earned $197,945, and paid $9.20 to win.

RUMBLE AND SWAY RIPS HOME IN BLUEGRASS ROOKIE PACE

Rumble And Sway splashed decisively along the mud to lead every step for a 1:51.4 victory in the first of three $89,300 Bluegrass Stakes divisions for 2-year-old pacing males on Friday afternoon (Oct. 2) at The Red Mile.

Driver Tim Tetrick asserted Rumble And Sway from the pylon post to seize the lead into the first turn and locked the race down after a :28.1 first quarter. The Brett Pelling pupil strolled up the backstretch to a :56.1 half and separated from his peers through the final turn, clocking three-quarters in 1:24.2. In the stretch, Rumble And Sway widened his advantage under minimal encouragement from Tetrick and crossed the line 5½ lengths in front of Fairway To Heaven (driven by Andy McCarthy), who split through traffic for second. Pocket-sitter Eloun Musk (Todd McCarthy) levelled off for third and Jidoo Bythesea (Yannick Gingras) closed from last for fourth.

"He's quite a light horse and he's a beautiful pacer," Brett Pelling said after the race. "Travels over top of the ground. I'm watching and listening to them all warm up and one thing I noticed when he went by [was] I didn't hear him, so I thought he might have a little edge on the conditions today."

A gelding by Sweet Lou out of Western Terror mare Apple Of My Pie, Rumble And Way competes for owners Pelling Racing LLC, David Van Duesn, Canamerica Capital Corp, and Pryde & Wienick Racing. He won his third race from six starts, has accrued $167,650 in earnings and returned $4.20 to win.

Tony Dinges trainee Blazin Lou (Todd McCarthy) put together a similar front-stepping effort from the pylon draw in the second Bluegrass dash for a 1:52.2 score as the 8-5 favorite.

McCarthy protected position to take command with Blazin Lou to a :28.1 first quarter and faced minimal pressure on the backstretch to a :56.1 half. He continued unfettered on the lead through the last turn to three-quarters in 1:24.3 and coasted home to win by 1½ lengths while chased by Grandline Station (Joe Bongiorno), who skimmed through an inside seam to give pursuit for second. Vandros (Tetrick) emerged from a ground-saving trip for third and pocket-sitter Hungry Marco (Scott Zeron) faltered to fourth.

"Front's been a good spot today I think," Todd McCarthy said after the race. "He raced really good – full credit to Tony there. It was a pretty good mile on that sticky track."

Blazin Lou competes for owner Rick Berks. The Sweet Lou colt, out of Rocknroll Hanover mare Beautiful Lady, won his third race from nine starts this season and has now earned $105,050. He paid $5.38 to win.

Ron Burke trainee Stonebridge Blitz (Gingras) broke his maiden in the final Bluegrass dash for freshman pacing males when foiling his stablemate, fellow maiden and 9-5 favorite Ocean Party, in a 1:52.2 mile.

Gingras obliged to sit second when leaving from the pylon post as Ocean Party loomed forward out of post 6 to take command to a :28 first quarter. Stonebridge Blitz steadily drafted through a :56.2 half, and slowly lifted off the pylons rounding the last turn and approaching three-quarters in 1:24.3. The Burke pair sparred all down the stretch with Stonebridge Blitz overpowering Ocean Party in the final yards to win by a head with Dog Dare You (Dexter Dunn) chasing from third and Reflector (Todd McCarthy) rallying over the top from near last for fourth.

"This was a really nice-looking colt," said winning co-owner Larry Karr. "He trained down great and he's been knocking at the door against some of the top ones, but he's a little bit hard to steer. I thought he was a lot more manageable today; Yannick gave him a good trip."

Stonebridge Blitz, a gelding by Tall Dark Stranger out of Sweet Lou mare and Ron Burke graduate Shouldabeenatd, competes for owners Burke Racing Stable, Larry Karr, Mark Rosenthal, and Frank Baldachino. He collected his first victory in the ninth start of his career, has now banked $113,692, and paid $8.16 to win.

The first and third division of the Bluegrass Stakes for 2-year-old pacing males were sponsored by the Stay Hungry Syndicate and Hanover Shoe Farms. The second Bluegrass Stakes division was sponsored by Kountry Lane Standardbreds.

SUPERSTAR FEMALES OF HARNESS RACING

with VICTORIA M. HOWARD

Grace Kelly is keeping her mom's legacy alive

by Victoria Howard

Born in Dublin, Ireland, 41-year-old Grace Kelly is doing her best to keep her mom's legacy alive.

Kelly's mother Bernie Kelly was very much involved in the sport of harness racing, working as an administrator, overlooking breeding records and producing studbooks to register standardbreds in Ireland.

Bernie was also track secretary at Whitehouse, Collon, Annaghmore, and Portmarnock Raceways before her passing in 2019.

Although the name Bernie Kelly may not be familiar to some horsepeople here in the States, across the pond in Ireland she is well-known and highly respected in the sport.

Bernie helped develop the renowned Vincent Delaney Memorial with brothers Derek and James Delaney from the beginning. This annual celebration has become one of the sports finest memorial races in the history of harness racing.

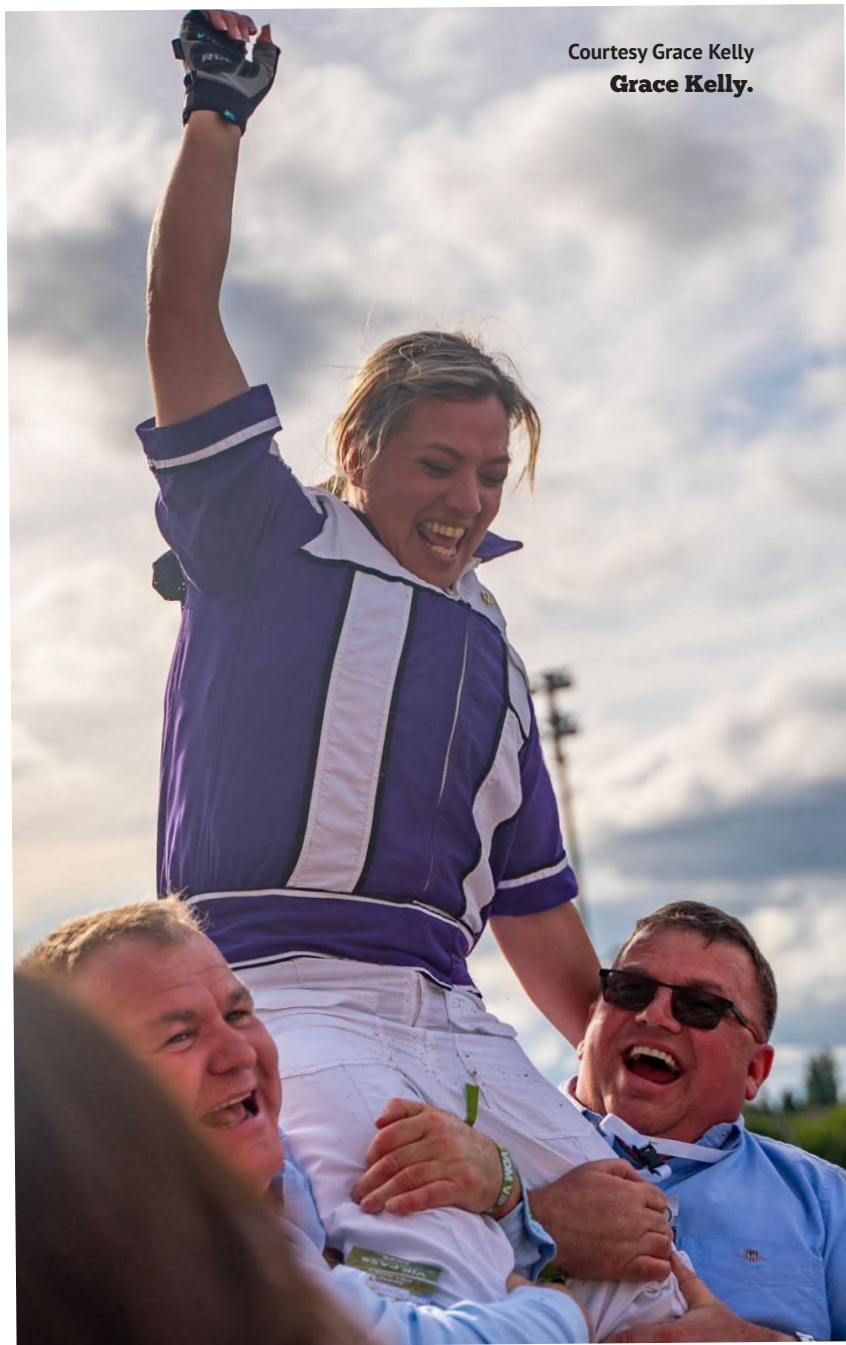

Grace's father, Paul Kelly, has always been heavily involved in the sport as a trainer, owner, driver, and breeder.

When she was a young girl, Paul took his daughter Grace to the barn to help him with the horses, teaching her the care and attention needed for the equine athletes.

It didn't take little Grace long before she decided that working with these amazing animals was what she wanted to do. Today, Grace carries on her mother's love and tradition of working with standardbreds, along with her father, for she is also a trainer and driver.

"We are a small breeding, training, and racing family that love what we do, so in our eyes we are never really working," Grace said. "We currently have a total of 12 horses on the farm --- two that I own. I've raced at all three hard tracks in Ireland, north and south.

"I've competed in the international ladies race in Solvalla, Sweden, and also in the first Bernie Kelly International Ladies

Grace Kelly.

Race at the Vincent Delaney Memorial event at Wolverhampton, UK; but have not driven since I won the Bernie Kelly International Ladies Race at the VDM in 2024. What a thrill that was! Currently, I'm doing a lot of riding some of the off-track horses and retraining them under saddle.

"I'm very excited because in Ireland we recently opened a new track in Lyre, County Cork, and I'm looking forward to driving some up-and-coming young horses my father has bred.

"Retraining after racing is something I'm very passionate about. I love racing, the sport, and above all I love the breed and want to expose standardbreds more and show how versatile they are."

“Retraining after racing is something I’m very passionate about. I love racing, the sport, and above all I love the breed and want to expose standardbreds more and show how versatile they are.”

— Grace Kelly

How is racing in Ireland different than in America?

“In Ireland we do not race for huge purses as they do in the States, but still, we race just as hard as they do in other countries. The community is really involved, and the people absolutely love horse racing. Harness racing in Ireland is a sport anyone with an interest in horses and driving can join and get involved in, although it is still quite a small unknown sport.

“Some people have negative perceptions of standardbreds and more education and marketing is needed to improve the public’s opinion, which may create more fans and interest in the sport. For those interested in learning more and possibly to compete in [by driving, training, breeding, or owning] we need to better express how they can do that and provide clear pathways to jump onboard.”

Is there one special horse that holds a piece of your heart?

“I love all my horses. When I first started apprentice driving, it was a horse named Sands Cam Ocean. Wellfield Gary was another super-fast horse I won my first open class with. Both horses are very special to me.

“I also owned, trained, and drove a horse named Lyons Super Nova who was the one that got me recognition. With his wins it catapulted my being invited to compete in Sweden at Solvalla where they hold the famous Elitlopp.

“My current favorite is a horse named The Storeman. He was not training down as quickly as our other horses, so we gave him a break and put a saddle on him. He makes me smile every day and has opened a whole new world by showing me the importance of aftercare after the track.

“I am on a personal mission to get The Storeman to mainstream compete here in Ireland. He competed in the ReBrand Initiative Online Series last year — a competition specific to showcase the standardbred breed in America.

“Luckily, they accepted international competitors, as nothing like this exists in Ireland. Unfortunately, there are no specific shows for the standardbred breed as of yet, but hopefully that will change.”

Today, there are more women competing in the sport and doing well. Is there anyone in particular you admire?

“Yes, we have many women that have competed in my mom’s race, such as Lauren Tritton, Lauren Harmon, Jazmin Arnold, and Chrissy Johnson. It makes it very special to see the distance these women will go to have a chance to compete in mom’s race [the Bernie Kelly International Ladies Race].

“The race has connected a lot of countries, promotes the females, and it couldn’t be more fitting for my amazing mom.”

What has been your most exciting time in the sport so far?

“It was definitely being the first winner of the Bernie Kelly International Race. It was the most emotional experience I ever had racing. It was unbelievably hard not to be emotional about competing in my mom’s race, as fitting as it was for an ‘all-female’ race. She would have loved it!

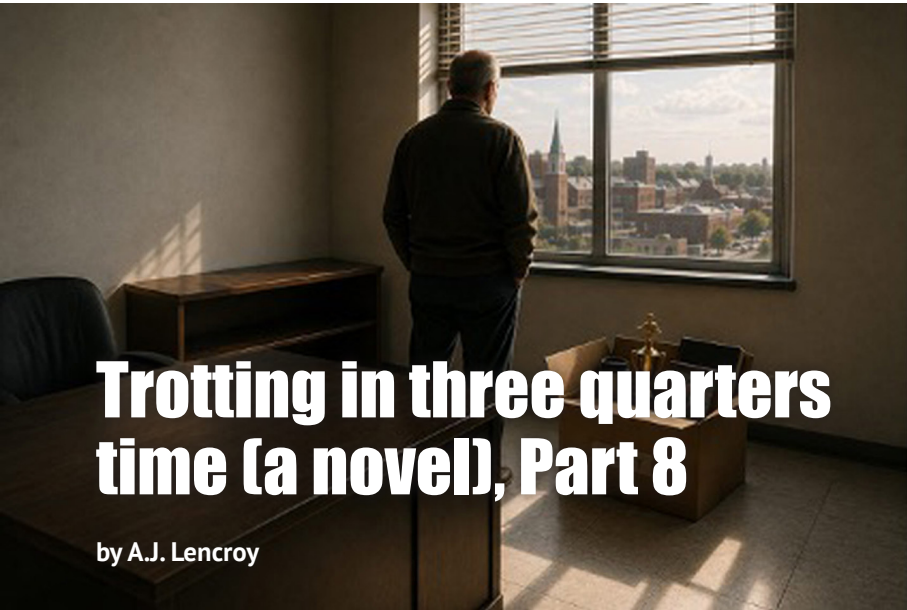

“It still chokes me up just to talk about it. Growing up in the business you never think about losing a parent. It’s doubly hard for us as a family as we all shared the passion for the sport and were always together on race day.

“To compete in a race that is dedicated for my mom definitely stirred up a lot of emotion and pressure, and to say it was a fairytale is an understatement.

“It was and will always be my most memorable moment. When I crossed the line first, with tears in my eyes, and a little heartache, I looked up and thanked my mom for teaching me to drive to the line!”

Checking boxes

At 9:40 a.m. on his final morning working for the Florence County Police Department, Hooley sat at his desk with a blue coffee mug in his left hand and a half-eaten raspberry-filled doughnut between the fingers of his right hand.

Beneath the only window in his office was a lonely cardboard box of personal items. The top of the box remained open for last-minute additions. He could see a small gold-painted plastic trophy from 10 years ago that read "World's Punniest Detective."

His partner, Richard Marchais, leaned against the door frame, fingering his recently repaired incisor.

"Any pain?" asked Hooley.

"Only my checking account. I could have bought a racehorse. Make a note: our dental plan works a lot better if you don't use it."

"Noted."

"So, what are we going to do on your historic last day? Fly to Disneyland and ride the Pirates of the Caribbean?"

Hooley shrugged. "Dunno, it's my first-ever last day."

Marchais said, "Hey, while I was getting drilled by the dental thief, I missed yesterday's developments on the racehorse with the crazy divorcee scam artist. Bring me up to speed."

"The lady in the red wig is letting the short-term ex keep the horse and any money the horse makes. She wants out. The injury was accidental."

Marchais asked, "What did you think of the sport, you know, the racing part?"

Hooley said, "I liked it. Good people. Amazing horses. Our potential perp isn't really a horseperson, so I'm not counting him. My guess is the horse racing world is full of regular people with a few bad apples."

"Just like us."

"Yep."

Hooley emptied the coffee cup and dropped the napkin into the basket near his feet. His partner looked out the window. Neither said anything for a minute.

Then Hooley clapped his hands and said, "Let's go back to the racetrack and nose around a little bit more on the racing thing."

Marchais nodded. "Sounds like a good way to fill the historic day, better than watching the clock and reminiscing, plus we haven't had a chat with the trainer when his cousin wasn't around. Let's saddle up."

"Harness up."

"Yeah, whatever."

One hour later, the guard waved the Range Rover through the open gate of the racetrack. The first person they saw was Spit Kendrick pushing a wheelbarrow with a bundle of straw. Spit stopped, set down the handles, and walked to the passenger window.

Hooley pushed the button. The window slid open.

Spit squatted and hung from the window in a yoga pose. His smile displayed the gold tooth in his wrinkled black face.

He said, "Well, well, if it ain't Sherlock and Watson returning to the scene of the crime. Now who's Sherlock? I always go straight to the boss man."

Hooley said, "Wrong movie, we're Dumb and Dumber."

Spit's smile grew. "Well, Mister Dumb, I'm sure we all watched that replay and the kerfuffle with the finger after the race. Ain't never seen nothin like that. That video could stir up some serious internet traffic."

Hooley smiled. "Hey, Spit, thanks for the tip about the replay. You cracked the case."

"Do I get a reward, you know, like a bounty?"

Hooley saluted. "Just the heartfelt thanks of a grateful nation." Spit smiled. "Thanks is hard to spend. So, what brings you back? You making one of those TV shows? Is Pioneer Park a new hotbed of crime?"

"Just wrapping up, but if I get any wind of a reality show set on the backstretch, you will be on the list, maybe have a starring role."

"Make sure old Spit is on the list that pays real money."

"Deal," said Hooley.

Spit stepped back from the Rover, gave an exaggerated salute, and marched to his wheelbarrow. As Hooley guided the Range Rover toward the barn, his phone buzzed. He read the display, tapped the button, and put the phone near his ear.

"Hello, Martha. Let me put you on speakerphone. Detective Marchais will be your contact in the future. Today is my last day. I turn in my badge and equipment at 5."

He pushed the speaker button.

Marchais joined and said, "Good morning, Martha. What can we do for you?"

She said, "I didn't know if I should bother the police, but there are a few things I found this morning when I was cleaning out the garage. I'm downsizing and started with my husband's workbench – my first husband, Charles, my real husband."

Hooley said, "Got it. Alex doesn't strike me as a woodworker, more of a termite."

She laughed. "Ever since COVID, Charles followed conspiratorial media. The advertising on his shows compelled him to purchase generators, first aid kits, and cartons of survival food. His politics were a friction point for us."

"Sure, plenty of that sort of friction going around."

"When Charles became ill, one afternoon, after one of his treatments, he took me into the garage. On his workbench was a toolbox closed with a small padlock. Charles reached into a mason jar with nails and bolts and fished out the key and opened the tool chest."

"And?"

"The chest had a top section with a handle you could grab and lift out. A tray. When Charles opened the toolbox and removed the tray of tools, on the bottom of the chest were two closed cigar boxes."

Hooley and Marchais waited.

"Charles showed me that inside the first cigar box was a mishmash of gold coins, French gold francs, and a small gold ingot about the size of a candy bar. And some medallions. Products that were advertised on his shows to guard against the economy crumbling and rampaging immigrants."

Marchais chimed in, "There are probably plenty of people who stash that sort of stuff."

"Well, if there are, and if they are like my husband, they are in for some financial disappointment at the end of civilization."

Hooley asked, "Not as valuable as he thought?"

"No. One afternoon, with Google and AI, I researched the value of the contents of the secret cigar box. His entire stash is mostly advertising nonsense. Behind the hype, the value in the real world was maybe $5,000."

Hooley asked, "The other cigar box?"

She paused.

"A pistol."

"What kind?"

"Small, it looked like a toy."

Hooley said, "Let me guess, when you looked this morning, the cigar boxes were empty?"

"Of course."

"Alex?"

"Of course."

Hooley and Marchais exchanged a look. Missing gold was one thing. A missing gun was another.

Marchais asked, "You want to file a report for an insurance claim? Add theft and possession of a firearm to his resume?"

"No, no, absolutely not. My plan is selective amnesia. I just thought you should have this information."

After a few pleasantries, she agreed to send a list of the missing items and registration papers for the gun. They ended the conversation.

Before they got out of the car, Marchais asked, "You going to miss this crazy stuff, cops and robbers?"

"Mixed feelings."

"You got any plans? You know, things to keep you busy?"

"Got a few, but I'm nervous. This has been my life; two-week vacations made me jangly."

"I understand. It's new territory for an old dog, but you will do fine. Just stay away from buying an easel and oil-painting pictures of cherubic nymphs or hiking the Appalachian Trail in flip-flops."

"Off the bucket list."

"And cross off taxidermy and mud larking."

"Mud larking?"

"Yeah, I read an article about it last week. Possibly sane people who travel around and wade in old riverbeds, sloshing around in gooey mud for lost treasure and historic items."

"Actually, that doesn't sound bad."

They both chuckled, then sat quietly for a few moments. Five o'clock was getting closer.

Ontario SIRE STAKES REPORT

Ontario Sires Stakes program crowns eight Grassroots champions

On Saturday (Oct. 3), Woodbine Mohawk Park played host to all eight $100,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Grassroots Championships.

The winners, in order, were:

RACE 1 – TWO-YEAR-OLD PACING FILLIES – STORMONT VIOLET

Stormont Violet stormed home late to take all the spoils in the thrilling Grassroots Final for 2-year-old trotting fillies.

It was a scramble for the early lead, with several rookies vying for control. Houstonweavaprobm broke stride, Sumluckylady seized command, and Elusive Station, starting from post 10, crossed over but couldn't find a seat. Stormont Violet, with Tyler Borth in the sulky, got away unfettered and settled into seventh.

Sumluckylady led by two lengths through an opening panel of :27.1, but Elusive Station, still grinding away on the outside, took over the proceedings soon afterward and was on top by 1 ½ lengths through a tepid half in :57.2. Meanwhile, Borth maintained a patient hand on the 4-5 choice, moving into sixth.

Elusive Station was still calling the shots through three-quarters in 1:27, as the daughter of Muscle Mass was tasked with fending off a host of challengers heading into the stretch.

Borth and Stormont Violet began to cut into the lead, but Sumluckylady was also full of trot, while a game Elusive Station dug in bravely, setting the stage for a dramatic final few strides.

At the wire, Stormont Violet put a nose in front of Sumluckylady for the victory. Elusive Station was a whisker back in third, with Dromoland Castle fourth.

The final time was a career-best 1:54.4 for Stormont Violet, punctuated by a field-best :26.4 final quarter.

"I was still a ways out of it, but I know how fast she can trot down the lane, so I thought I had a pretty good shot," said Borth. "I was just happy I was able to get ahead of a few off the gate. I was talking to Kevin (trainer, Benn). He always tells me the same thing, just take it easy at the start with her because she is a little bit hard to drive. She trots home fast."

Graceful King (Mark MacDonald) winning the 2-year-old trotting colt's division.

It was the third straight score for the daughter of Alarm Detector out of the Angus Hall mare Stormont Contessa.

"I wasn't expecting her to win the Grassroots Final, by any means," said Benn. "She has been kind of nerve-wracking. Every time we train her at home, she runs. I said that I was just going to jog her for the last two weeks, and it worked out well."

Bred and owned by Stormont Meadows of Long Sault, ON, Stormont Violet is now 4-1-0 from eight starts. She secured an impressive debut victory on July 9 at Woodbine Mohawk Park, taking a $30,000 OSS Grassroots division.

She paid $3.70 for her latest victory.

RACE 3 – TWO-YEAR-OLD TROTTING COLTS – GRACEFUL KING

Graceful King had managed only one win in OSS Grassroots action prior to Saturday night. The Mark Steacy-trained gelding, steered by Mark MacDonald, moved to the top and never relinquished, claiming the Grassroots Final with a 1:53.3 performance.

Drawing post six in the night's third contest, MacDonald and Graceful King pushed to the lead once the wings folded. Balius also fired from post position nine, dropping in behind the leader in tight quarters occupied by Spiritual Guidance, causing the freshman to make a break.

While Graceful King led the field through fractions of :27.4 and :57.1, Jody Jamieson and Great White North moved first up from fifth to mount a challenge with favored King Of The South following. Commanding the field through three quarters (1:25.4), Graceful King handily rebuffed the challenge of Balius (Louis-Philippe Roy), who narrowly held off a hard-charging King Of The South (Trevor Henry) to finish second. The runner-up was disqualified by judges and placed 10th due to the early incident that produced Spiritual Guidance's miscue. The revised placings elevated King Of The South to second and Stormont Maroon (Tyler Borth) was placed third. Graceful King, a 1-1/2-length victor, paid $12.30-$4.80-$3.40 after breaking stride in his last Grassroots start and finishing ninth.

"I expected tonight to be a good night for him. He got a little interference there last time and everything," Steacy said. "He's been a real green colt, but a really good colt all year. So I was expecting good things."

Bred by Andrew Shrock of Middlefield, OH, Graceful King is a gelded son of King Of The North out of Kadabra mare Princess Stephanie. A $100,000 purchase at last year's Lexington Selected Yearling Sale, the freshman is owned by Hudson Standardbred Stb Inc, Stephen Downey, Bertrand Gilhespy Stable and Landmark 19 Racing Stable.

Graceful King now sports a 2-3-1 record in eight seasonal starts. The victory improved his earnings to $93,740.

RACE 4 – TWO-YEAR-OLD PACING FILLIES – WE WANT IT ALL

The filly who continues to be a handful for the competition has now won a handful of races.

We Want It All was at the top of her game again, this time in the $100,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Grassroots Final for 2-year-old pacing fillies.

New Image Media

We Want It All (Louis-Philippe Roy) winning the 2-year-old pacing fillies' division.

The daughter of Bulldog Hanover out of the Somebeachsomewhere mare Beach Gal had a late start to her racing life but arrived at her championship engagement off four straight victories to start her career.

Make it five.

The trio of Bulldog Belle, We Want It All and Canadian Blondes scrapped it out for early bragging rights heading into the first turn, with Bulldog Belle emerging on the front end and taking her nine foes through an opening panel in :26.0.

Louis-Philippe Roy, driving the 1-9 favourite We Want It All, had his filly on the move from third and glided to the front ahead of the half, reaching that mark 1 ½ lengths clear of Bulldog Belle in :54.4.

The Dr. Ian Moore trainee was on top by 2 ¼ lengths over Diamondsbestfriend after three-quarters in 1:23.3 and began to draw off in the early stretch. Ahead by 2 ½ lengths at the stretch call, We Want It All cruised to a 1 ½-length score in a new lifetime-best mark of 1:51.4.

Diamondsbestfriend was second, followed by Canadian Blondes and Bulldog Belle.

"I liked her right off the bat," said Roy, who is less than 30 wins away from 3,300 lifetime. "Paul MacKenzie sat behind her on a smaller track and he loved her, too. I was pretty confident going into this race."

Owned by Brad Grant, We Want It All arrived at Saturday's final off a confident half-length triumph in her $30,000 OSS Grassroots divisional leg on Sept. 21. She launched her career with a 4 1/4-length victory in the Prospect Series at Georgian Downs on Aug. 29.

Purchased for $277,778 (Hip #42) at the 2025 Lexington Select Yearling Sale, she has now amassed $96,000 in purse earnings.

We Want It All paid $2.30 for tonight's victory.

RACE 5 – THREE-YEAR-OLD TROTTING FILLIES – BARBARA MAY

Barbara May was stamped the favorite in Saturday's Grassroots Final for sophomore filly trotters. She did not disappoint, wiring the field for trainer Gregg McNair in a time of 1:53. Doug McNair guided the homebred to victory.

Starting from post seven, Doug McNair rolled Barbara May to the lead from the onset and clicked off fractions of :26.4 and :55.2. Hp Imagine (Austin Sorrie) and Look A Diamond (Trevor Henry) remained in contact with the leader until McNair began to step on the gas and draw away from the field racing to three quarters, reached in 1:23.3. Despite getting tired in the stretch, the 1-5 favorite maintained a five-length margin at the wire to win for the fourth time in 14 seasonal attempts. Rare Legacy (42-1) and Tyler Borth shook loose late to finish second, followed across the wire by Miss Mass Appeal (99-1) and Travis Henry. Barbara May returned $2.40-$2.30-$2.10.

Bred and owned by Tom and Elizabeth Rankin, Barabara May is a daughter of Alarm Detector from Angus Hall mare Absolut Seelster. The victory raised her seasonal bankroll to $135,130, and her career earnings now total $246,305.

"It means the world to me," said Doug McNair. "You know it's good to win for anybody, but when it's your family it's definitely a little more thrilling. And then for guys like Tom and Elizabeth Rankin, you know, they've been in the game for a lot of years. These are homebreds and they do a great job. It's nice to see them out here."

James Platz

RACE 6 – TWO-YEAR-OLD PACING COLTS – C SCRIPT

In the OSS Grassroots Championship for 2-year-old pacing colts (race 6), C Script posted a career-best 1:50.3 victory to remain perfect in OSS competition.

It was the sixth win in seven career starts for the homebred son of Sportswriter out of Shark Hanover owned by trainer Gregg McNair, McKinlay & Fielding, M&S Racing Stable Inc. and Chris Robson.

Sent off as the 2-1 second choice, C Script (Doug McNair) sat fourth in the first half of the mile, made his move before the field hit the second turn and then powered away in the stretch to a 3¼ length victory. It was tight for second between three horses with Just Keep Flying (Trevor Henry), edging out Cattletracks (Louis-Philippe Roy) and The Swooper (Travis Henry). Cheddarlucknxttime was fifth.

C Script has earned $122,050 lifetime. He won all four Grassroots events he entered and was first across the wire in the $205,000 Battle of Waterloo on Aug. 3 at Grand River Raceway, but was set back to ninth for interference.

"He trained down pretty well all winter," Gregg told Woodbine broadcaster Randy Waples. "We had a lot of nice 2-year-old pacing colts last winter, and he was one of them, and he he's been good this whole season."

C Script paid $6.90 to win.

Mass-Incredibly gelding stopped the clock in 1:53.4 to earn his third seasonal win.

Sent off at odds of 9-5, Another Great Mass got away fifth early as Trouble With Names and Bob McClure led the field through a :27.1 first panel before being shuffled by favored Maize And Blue (Doug McNair). As the field marched to a :55.4 opening half, Henry pulled the right line on Another Great Mass and began to advance first-up for trainer Ed Peconi, Jr. Trotting third turning for home, the gelding reeled in Maize And Blue before pushing past the leader in deep stretch. Stonebridge Wings (Austin Sorrie) closed late to finish third in a photo.

"He got a little trouble with his blood," said Peconi, Jr. "He had a little bit of a virus. Not a very good time to try and get it where it is now," said his conditioner. "But we got him in the right spot, you know, and yep, healthy. Now he's ready to go."

Bred and owned by Wade Peconi, Another Great Mass collected his third seasonal win, returning $5.70-$3.10-$2.50. Now a six-time winner in 24 career starts, the sophomore possesses $310,582 in earnings, with $90,416 accumulated in 2026. The victory shaved one-fifth of a second off his previous best effort.

RACE 8 – THREE-YEAR-OLD TROTTING COLTS – CANT TURN YOU DOWN

In the OSS Grassroots Championship for 3-year-old pacing fillies (race 8), Cant Turn You Down, bred, trained and co-owned by Zach Carroll won her eighth straight race and posted a 1:50.1 triumph that equalled her lifetime best.

The daughter of Cattlewash out of Amulet Seelster, also owned by Sean Downey, was sent off as the 1-2 favourite, took over before the half and pulled away in the stretch to win by 2 ½ lengths over Horse With A Plan.

Bob McClure drove Cant Turn You Down to victory.

"I baby raced her, and I'd be lying if I said she was going to make it to the races," McClure said. "You know, she had a lot of desire and felt like she had a powerful engine, but she was just ugly going slow. She's not put together as perfect as you'd want one... when I qualified her back this year, she was kind of the same, just choppy, ugly going, and but felt like there was some go there, and then Zach took her over to Grand River, and I was shocked to see she won there in :55. Then she came here, and I got locked in, and she came flying the last 200 feet, and I was like, this thing's legit. And then the next week she won... She wants to be a good horse so badly. Tonight, she got a rough first quarter and I couldn't get her to relax very well on the front. They came at her, and down the lane, she's driving away from them with her ears up."

Malicia Speed (Travis Cullen) was third, followed by P N G Shadow (Daryl Thiessen) and Mcbubbles (Mark MacDonald).

Cant Turn You Down paid $3.

RACE 9 – THREE-YEAR-OLD PACING COLTS – ODDS ON BULLFROG

Odds On Bullfrog put away leader Exactly Correct in the stretch and held off favored Tilthecowscomehome to win the Grassroots Championship for sophomore pacing colts in 1:49.3. Piloted by Travis Henry for trainer Dr. Ian Moore, the Bulldog Hanover colt returned to the winner's circle after battling foot issues.

"Well first of all I'd like to say that Travis Henry's done a terrific job with him," said. Moore. "I think he's a great driver and he fits that horse like a glove so he's done really well with him. The horse has had a foot issue here in the last month that has plagued him, hence the lameness scratch, and one time he was raced here and he probably shouldn't have, maybe. But finally we were able to get it patched up and fixed up and he didn't get much training. I trained him Monday two three maybe, that's it, and here he is. He is a tough horse for sure."

Drawing post four in the final, Henry and Bulldog Hanover got away second behind Tilthecowscomehome and Jody Jamieson, who led the field through a :26.4 opening panel. Exactly Correct (Mark MacDonald) brushed to the lead from fourth, leading the field to a :55 first half. At that point, Henry pulled Odds On Bullfrog from third, also bringing Wholetthedogsout and Tyler Borth to the outer flow.

Racing second as the field reached three quarters (1:22.2), Odds On Bullfrog collared, and dispatched, the leader. Jamieson and Tilthecowscomehome slipped to the inside and made a bid for the front while Wholetthedogsout sprinted three-wide on the outside. Odds On Bullfrog answered the challenge and held sway in the final strides, winning by 1-1/4 lengths. Tilthecowscomehome settled for second and Wholetthedogsout rounded out the trifecta. Odds On Bullfrog paid $8.40-$4.20-$3.00 in the victory.

Scratched lame from his last OSS start, Odds On Bullfrog collected his fourth win in 13 seasonal attempts. The colt was bred by Odds On Nourrir, and is owned by Odds On Racing, both of Boca Raton, Florida. The victory pushed Odds On Bullfrog's seasonal earnings to $139,470. The eight-time winner possesses a $221,780 career bankroll.

Moore indicated the colt will contest the OSS Gold Final next week, as will his other pupil, defending Horse of the Year Beau Jangles, a 1:47.2 winner earlier in the day in a $79,000 division of the Grade 3 Bluegrass Stakes at The Red Mile.

"So we are planning on putting him in the gold final next week. Hopefully there'll be just a regular bunch in there, plus Beau's coming home tomorrow and he'll be in there," he said.

Verily smashes OSS record for rookie trotting fillies with 1:53 Gold triumph

by Dave Briggs / Ontario Racing

Verily smashed the Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) record for 2-year-old trotting fillies, previously shared by four fillies, with a 1:53 score in the first of two $100,000 OSS Gold leg 5 events on Friday (Oct. 2) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Fellow division leader Major Contender won the second Gold test in 1:54.1.

In the first division (race 2), 2-5 favorite Verily (Louis-Philippe Roy) converted a perfect pocket trip into a three-quarters-of-a-length victory over Northernlights Glo (Daryl Thiessen).

Northernlights Glo, the 4-1 second choice, led the field of seven through fractions of :27.4, :56 and 1:24.1, but was out-dueled by Verily in the stretch, who set a career best and shattered the previous OSS mark of 1:53.4 shared by Bee A Magician (2012), Lil Sweet (2024), Bingo Night (2025), and Rebel Moon (2026).

Jyn Erso (Doug McNair) was third, followed by Rebel Moon (James MacDonald), and Treasure King (Jody Jamieson).

Verily paid $2.90 to win.

Watch the race replay here.

It was the third Gold victory of the year for Verily, a daughter of Muscle Mass out of Yen owned by Bill Donovan, bred by Overseas Farms Ltd of Cambridge, ON, and trained by Meg Crone.

Verily, purchased for $85,000 at the 2025 London Classic Yearling Sale, is now 3-2-1 in seven career starts and has earnings of $256,575.

"She's just very well-mannered," Crone told Woodbine broadcaster Randy Waples. "Nothing stresses her. When she was in the retention barn, she was great. She ate, she drank well, she was never bothered a bit. She's always been really smart, too."

In the second division (race 8), 1-5 favorite Major Contender posted her third Gold victory of the year, holding off Queen Of Bs (Chris Christoforou) by a neck.

It was also the third straight victory for the daughter of King Of The North out of Major Muscle owned by her trainer, Carl Jamieson, her driver, Jody Jamieson, David Lemon, and George Harrison.

Simea (Trevor Henry) led the field through fractions of :28, :57.2 and 1:25.3, with Major Contender in the pocket the entire way. Major Contender took command at the top of the stretch. Shortly thereafter, Simea made a break leaving Major Contender and Queen Of Bs to battle the rest of the way.

R Rosie (McNair) was third, followed by Dreamtrade (Bob McClure), and Flawless Lady (MacDonald).

"They trotted :54 tonight, which I think was a huge effort," Jody told Woodbine broadcaster John Rallis. "They had three weeks between starts. You know, a week off, a little respite there in the middle... it's tough to keep them sharp all year long with the weather changes and stuff like that.

"This filly's just been a really good doer the whole time, and I think we got the right division to go in [tonight]. The other one went :53 with Verily. She was a monster, and then Northernlights Glo was awesome again, too. It's a hell of a division... These fillies are tough."

Major Contender paid $2.60 to win.

Watch the race replay here.

Major Contender, bred by Princeton Farms, Mark Etsell, Robert Newton, and Chuan Tan, was purchased for $110,000 at the 2025 Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling auction in Harrisburg, PA.

She is now 4-2-0 in nine career starts and has earnings of $255,033.

The top 10 in the 2-year-old trotting filly division are:

1. Major Contender – 176
2. Verily – 176
3. Rebel Moon – 125
4. Queen Of Bs – 125
5. Treasure King – 70
6. Northernlights Glo – 69
7. Flawless Lady – 67
8. Song From Heaven – 47
9. R Rosie – 48
10. Simea – 45

D A Johnny Cash (Doug McNair) set a 1:52.3 Ontario Sires Stakes record for 2-year-old trotting males while winning the lone $150,000 Gold Leg 5 test on Friday (Oct. 2) at Woodbine Mohawk Park).

D A JOHNNY CASH BREAKS OSS RECORD FOR ROOKIE TROTTERING COLTS WITH FIRST GOLD TRIUMPH

D A Johnny Cash set a 1:52.3 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) record for 2-year-old trotting colts while winning the lone $150,000 OSS Gold leg 5 event on Friday (Oct. 2) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

It was the first Gold victory of the year for the gelded son of Green Manalishi S out of Mabel Kipp. It was also a career best. The mark bettered the previous OSS record of 1:53 set earlier in the year by division leader Unstable Genius, a three-time Gold champ who did not race in Friday's fifth and final leg.

Sent off as the 2-5 favorite in the field of seven, D A Johnny Cash, driven by Doug McNair, sat fourth as Three Six Zero (Jody Jamieson) led the group to the :27.4 quarter. McNair had his charge out and on top just before the :56.1 half. D A Johnny Cash cruised from there, defeating Detonater Hanover (Tyler Moore) by 1½ lengths. Three Six Zero was third, followed by Kountry Cantab (Trevor Henry), and Manking (James MacDonald).

The win came a week after D A Johnny Cash finished third in his previous start on Sept. 26 in the $1 million Mohawk Million.

"I just thought as long as [D A Johnny Cash] stays to his business and trots, I didn't think they could beat him," McNair told Woodbine broadcaster John Rallis. "He's a real fast horse. He's got all kinds of trot. He's a once-in-a-lifetime horse."

D A Johnny Cash paid $2.80 to win.

No replay was available at press time.

Bred by Scott McEneny and Domenic Chiaravalle, D A Johnny

Cash was purchased by his trainer, Chris Matthews, along with Todd Williams and Jeff Bryan for $50,000 at the 2025 London Classic Yearling Sale.

The trotter is now 3-1-1 in eight starts and has earnings of $250,500.

"Before we qualified, he started showing signs he had some ability, and when I qualified him, I thought, 'You know, he might make some noise this summer,'" said Matthews. "I didn't expect to be in the Mohawk Million, but I thought he'd be all right."

"I'm blessed. Hopefully, we'll just go for a ride and hang on as long as we can with him."

The win allowed D A Johnny Cash to jump into fourth place in the Gold divisional standings. The top 10 horses are eligible to compete in the $350,000 Super Final on Oct. 10 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The final top 10 in the 2-year-old trotting colt division is:

1. Unstable Genius — 150
2. Detonater Hanover — 108
3. Three Six Zero — 85
4. D A Johnny Cash — 78
5. Kountry Cantab — 48
6. Grand Manalishi — 29
7. Tuff Gong — 16
8. Spiritual Guidance — 7
9. Arm N Hammer — 3
10. Great White North — 3

Favorites deliver in INSS at Hoosier

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

The final leg of Indiana Sires Stakes for 2-year-old pacing fillies and 3-year-old trotting fillies was contested on the 14-race Wednesday (Sept. 30) card at Harrah's Hoosier Park, yielding formful results as the chalk delivered in each of their splits.

Owleo's Pride driven by Dexter Dunn for trainer Ricky Macomber, Jr took a business trip around the oval taking down the $65,000 first split for 2-year-old pacing fillies.

Starting from post 1, Owleo's Pride rode the rail to the early lead, beating out the six-horse field to the first turn in :28.2. The fillies taking the most play in the betting pool, Owleo's Pride, Kountry Legacy (Trace Tetrick), and Fitterjake (Anthony Miller) held the podium positions on the backstretch to the halfway mark in :55.4. The field remained unchanged to the following quarter in 1:22.4. Fitterjake tipped to the outside of Kountry Legacy battling her way into second. Owleo's Pride cruised despite the pressure from Fitterjake in second and Kountry Legacy in third, as she hit the wire in 1:50.1 by 1¼ lengths.

Owned by Jamie Macomber, James Stonecipher, and Ricky Macomber, Jr, Owleo's Pride boosted her lifetime account to $228,780 following her fourth win in eight tries. The JK Endofanera-McFlirty filly was bred by James Stonecipher.

Era Dominance driven by Joey Putnam for trainer Michael Hitchcock persevered to a third straight win in the $64,500 second split for rookie pacing fillies.

Sandwiched in the middle of the five-horse field, Era Dominance left from post 3 as Jk's Fast (John De Long) hustled along the outside, leading the field to the first turn in :27.2. Era Dominance leapfrogged the leader shortly after gaining control of the pacing field. Era Dominance and Jk's Fast separated themselves from the rest of the group, racing to the halfway point in :56.4. As the rest of the field caught up, the focus was on the top pair as they remained tight through the final turn in 1:25.2. The slugfest continued down the stretch as Jk's Fast was able to get up to look Era Dominance in the eye. Era Dominance struck back finding the extra gear to cross the wire first in 1:52 by three-quarters-of-a-length. Jk's Fast settled for second, with Callie Rocks in third, 6¾ lengths back of the top pair.

Adding her fifth career win in just seven tries, Era Dominance is owned by William Hartt and bred by Let It Ride Stables Inc and J L Benson Stables Inc. Totaling $223,585 in lifetime earnings, Era Dominance paid $2.20 to win.

Fresh Face Yankee continued her reign of terror in her division, wiring the field in the first $49,500 split for sophomore trotting fillies with trainer Jay Cross in the sulky as the 3-5 favorite in the field of seven.

Leaving from post 2, Cross was intent on gaining control from the outset, protecting her inside starting spot and forcing For Dayze (John De Long) to take a seat into second on the first turn with the favorite cutting the quarter in :27.3. Shown respect on the engine, Fresh Face Yankee went unchallenged through middle half splits of :56.1 and 1:25 before setting the stage for the highly anticipated show down with For Dayze as the fillies straightened away for home. The battle never developed however, with Fresh Face Yankee refusing to open the door for the chasing For Dayze, sprinting home well in hand in :27.4 to cross the wire two lengths clear in 1:52.4. For Dayze held for second, with Dial Nine One One (Marcus Miller) picking up the show dough.

Tim Smith owns Fresh Face Yankee, who has only tasted defeat once in nine tries this season. Fashion Hill Farm bred the daughter of Crescent Fashion—Swan Yankee who has banked $182,375 this year, and $223,585 lifetime after being just a $5,000 yearling buy for Smith in 2024.

In the $49,000 second divisions for trotting fillies, it went to the slight 4-5 second choice Bluebird Kazoom and diver Jordan Ross as they made quick work of a pocket trip to score in a new career best.

Away from post 3, Bluebird Kazoom dropped into second on the first turn with the 3-5 favorite, Help Cum Laude (Atlee Bender), taking charge to the first turn to the tune of :28.1. The fillies raced single file in the middle stages, with Help Cum Laude bringing the field to the head of the lane after fractions of :56.3 and 1:25.1. Ross right-lined Bluebird Kazoom at the top of the stretch, exploding by Help Cum Laude before trotting away by 4½ lengths on the wire to stop the timer in 1:53. Help Cum Laude was second, with Honeymoon (Tetrack) getting up for third.

Trained by Henry Graber, Jr., Bluebird Kazoom has won 11 of 14 during her 3-year-old rookie campaign. Delvin Miller, Kenneth Bontrager, and Daryl Miller bred the daughter of Swan For All—Stella Kemp who has banked $195,350 for owners Hillside Stables, Indiana Stables, Hickory Hollow Stables, and Michael Rosenthal.

SWAN GOOD BI HEADLINES INSS WINNERS AT HOOSIER

The sixth and final leg of Indiana Sires Stakes in advance of Hoosier Champions night for both the 2-year-old trotting colts and fillies was contested on Tuesday (Sept. 29), with Peter Haughton Memorial champion Swan Good Bi headlining the five stakes winners and remaining undefeated through seven starts to begin his career for Jordan Ross and Henry Graber, Jr.

In the $47,000 second split for trotting colts Swan Good Bi and Ponda Cheetah (Marcus Miller) teed off quickly with Ponda Cheetah using the rail to his advantage as Swan Good Bi in post 3 chased in second at the first quarter in :28.4. Swan Good Bi didn't let the lead last long hitting back on the backstretch to reach the half-mile marker in front in :58.4. Steppinouttohelp (Robert Taylor) broke the deadlock advancing on the outside from fourth. Swan Good Bi stayed cool on the front, passing the three-quarters in 1:28. In the homestretch, it was smooth sailing for Swan Good Bi as Ross was a passenger to the wire in 1:56 by 1¼ lengths. Ponda Cheetah cruised to the place, while Steppinouttohelp finished strong to show.

The Swan For All gelding is owned by Indiana Stables LLC, Frank Baldachino, Michael Rosenthal, and James Zito. Swan Good Bi was bred by Ernie Lambright increasing his lifetime bank account to $344,300 to stay undefeated in his career.

Fifty And Famous driven by Trace Tetrack for trainer Luis Quevedo dominated the nine-horse field in the $47,500 first division for trotting colts earlier in the card, booking his trip to the winner's circle with a career best effort.

Facing an uphill battle out of the gate, Fifty And Famous navigated the field from post 8 as he was pushed far outside at the turn. Meanwhile, Swan Ace (Lewayne Miller) held the inside advantage on Fifty And Famous who was left on the outside in third, earning the pole position at the quarter in :28.1. Getting up to the outside of Swan Ace after cruising past Nectar Of The Gods (Mike Micallef) and Heffae (Lamar Wingard), Fifty And Famous continued to use the after burners, finally cementing his place at the helm. Fifty And Famous found the front moments later marking the halfway point in :56.4. Nearing the final turn, Fifty And Famous lengthened the gap to second, hitting the stretch in 1:26.1. Despite early pressure in the mile, Fifty And Famous did not allow for a wild finish as he dismantled the field by six lengths in 1:54.1. Heffae got up for second, while Copperstone (John De Long) rallied for third.

Fifty And Famous is owned and bred by John Barnard. The Fiftydallarbill colt boosted his lifetime earnings to $68,350 for his third win of the season.

Staying hot, So Joyful driven by John De Long for trainer Ernie Gaskin impressed in the final quarter to take the final $47,000 division for the rookie trotting colts.

Slotted into post 4, So Joyful hunkered in behind the spry Mendoza Mafia (Atlee Bender), who gunned to the early lead through the first quarter turn in :27.4. Ponda Solve (Kyle Wilfong) was hung out to dry on the outside falling to the back of the field as Mendoza Mafia led the field passed the halfway pole in :57.3. Rounding the turn, Royal Response was the first to act bouncing to the outside. Mendoza Mafia held through the final turn in 1:27.1. So Joyful took the perfect pocket trip to go first over on Mendoza Mafia hitting the gas with ease through the wire in 1:55.3 by $3\frac{1}{4}$ lengths. Mendoza Mafia was able to hold for second, while Ponda Solve responded in the stretch for third.

So Joyful tallied his fifth win of the season depositing into his $126,203 account. The Rebuff colt was bred by Luckiana Farm and Aaron Stutzman. So Joyful is owned by All-Wright Racing, Brian Code, and James Nellinger.

In the two splits for 2-year-old trotting fillies, a pair of fillies who were on the outside looking in on points stamped their spot into the $250,000 final on Hoosier Champions night, with Ponda Crystal being the first of the two after pulling an 8-1 upset with Bender aboard in the first of the two $67,000 splits.

Away from the outside post seven, Ponda Crystal floated into third early while Gladden (Tetrack) took the field to the first quarter in :28.3. The 1-5 favorite, Fine Wine (Jay Cross), popped the pocket and asserted herself to the lead on the backstretch, reaching the halfway point in :58. I can Hardly Wait (Kevin Lambright) moved first-over on the turn, leaving Ponda Crystal trapped along the cones while Fine Wine guided the fillies to three-quarters in 1:28.1. Fine Wine came under fire in the lane, with Gladden taking aim along the cones before Ponda Crystal shook loose to the outside of the favorite late. Sprinting home in :27.3, Ponda Crystal sprinted home in :27.3 to get up in the shadow of the wire and win by three-parts-of-a-length in 1:56.2. Fine Wine held second, with Gladden finishing third.

Trained by Erv Miller, Ponda Crystal has won four of seven on the year, banking $56,280. The daughter of Temporal Hanover—Aperfectcrystal was bred by Pond-A-Acres, and is owned by Never 2 Late Stable, Stepbystep Racing, and Andy Willinger.

In the second division, Swan Jocelyn made her career debut a winning one, gobbling up ground late to score with Tetrack in the sulky for trainer Ron Burke.

Tetrack took back the first-time starter early, settling in sixth on the first turn while Dance Remix (Ross) trotted to the point in :28. Swan Jocelyn went unchallenged to the half in :57.1, before Twister Sister (James Yoder) started first-over into third on the far turn at three-quarters in 1:26.4 while Swan Jocelyn was still yet to shift from the cones in fifth. The field began to swarm Dance Remix in the lane, with Help My Heart (De Long) charging along the cones and Swan Jocelyn moving to the wide side and beginning to roll with five lengths to make up midway through the stretch. Trotting home in :28.1, Swan Jocelyn methodically picked off her foes in the lane, rallying to win by a length over Help My Heart in 1:56.3. Miss Kriss (Marcus Miller) rallied from the backfield to snag the show dough at 48-1.

Swan Jocelyn swiftly deposited $33,500 in the bank after her career debut for owners Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brusce, Frank Baldachino, and Michael Rosenthal. Oakwood Farms bred the winning daughter of Swan For All—Southwind Sauna.

Nobody Knows It equals record in Maryland Sire Stake

by Rosecroft Raceway

Richard Hans' homebred Nobody Knows It rolled to yet another easy victory in Thursday's (Oct. 1) $10,000 second-round Maryland Sire Stakes preliminary for 2-year-old trotting fillies at Rosecroft Raceway, but she also etched her name into the track record book by way of a 1:55 performance.

With Corey Callahan at the controls, the Betting Gangster S—Goo Luck Charm filly controlled splits of :27.3, :56.1, and 1:25 before evading stablemate That's It For You (driven by Russell Foster) by 12½ lengths to equal And Just Like That's divisional standard, set in 2025.

Nobody Knows It, who remains undefeated through seven starts, boasts an aggregate winning margin of 48½ lengths, has gone off at odds no longer than 1-5 since her debut, and has banked $101,625 in purses.

In other Maryland Sire Stakes action:

- Shootout ($2.20) and driver Roger Plante, Jr. are eyeing a second Maryland Sire Stakes series sweep after fending off Cash Is Better by 1½ lengths for a career-best 1:56 win in the second of two second-round preliminaries for 2-year-old male pacers. It was the fifth consecutive victory for the Wearinmysixshooter—The New Americana colt, whom Steve LeBlanc trains for Glenn Dyke, LeBlanc Racing, and James Stuart.

- In The Worst Way and driver Corey Braden scored a third straight win, defeating Areallyfastcar by 1¼ lengths in 2:01.2 in the lone 2-year-old male trotting section. Herman Hagerman trains the Il Mago—Greatestofease gelding for Hagerman Racing. The other divisional winners were:

- pacing gelding Octavian (Frank Milby, $2.80), who held off pocket foe Major Dapper by 1¾ lengths in 1:55.2 for trainer Clifton Green;

- pacing filly Miss Annie Oakly (Braden, $30.80), who rallied off stalled cover to upend pacesetter R U Kidding by a neck in 1:59.2 for trainer Nola Leager; and

- pacing filly Sweet Cougar (Plante, $21), who stalked a pressured pace and emerged out of traffic to defeat Ashley's Talent by 1¼ lengths in 1:58.1.

The top nine point earners from all eight divisions will reunite at Rosecroft on Sunday (Oct. 11), for the $800,000 Maryland Showcase of Champions. Post time for the special Sunday card will be 6 p.m. (EDT).

Live harness racing returns to Rosecroft on Monday (Oct. 5) with a 13-race program and a Jackpot Hi-5 carryover of $1,055. First post is 7:15 p.m. For free handicapping resources and more information, visit www.rosecroftraceway.com.

Maine trotters roll at Cumberland Fair

by Chris Tully for First Tracks Cumberland

Two $16,000-plus divisions of Maine Sire Stakes for 3-year-old trotters went postward on Friday (Oct. 2) at the Cumberland Fair, with the sophomore leaders continuing their dominance in their respective classes.

In the first $16,783 non-betting division for 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings it was Wilden N Idy who sat a perfect pocket trip to prevail over pacesetter Gus's Workout (Heath Campbell) in 2:01. Driven by Mark Athearn to a quarter-length victory, the son of To The Hilt is trained by Gretchen Athearn for owner Patricia Leavitt.

Picking up his seventh win of the season, he leads the point standings leading up to the finals on Oct. 17 at Bangor Raceway. He was bred by the late Mike Andrew, and now has $178,294 in lifetime earnings.

Trottinfortreasure (Aaron Hall) was third.

In the second $17,711 event, which was held before the regular card, it was the fantastic filly Hayden who got roughed up in the opening sequence to come from behind and score by three-parts-of-a-length in 2:01.2.

Trained and driven by Gary Hall for/owner-breeder Stephen Hall, the daughter of Cantab Fashion acquired her ninth seasonal victory and has remained the leading point earner throughout the year. Her career bankroll exceeds $122,000.

Our Last Quote (Steve Wilson) cut the fractions and finished second; Race Me Boomer (Andy Harrington) was third.

Driver Andy Harrington enjoyed another leading day, taking three wins on the regular program while topping all drivers at the Cumberland Fair with 14 trips to the winner's circle. His Friday (Oct. 2) scores included the $6,200 feature with Arts Flight (1:55.4, $3.40) for trainer/wife Sara Harrington.

The track's 15-day Winter Festival begins Nov. 8 and then primarily follows a three-day Friday-Saturday-Sunday schedule throughout the season, until Dec. 13. Our annual Au Revoir Retirement Ceremonies are slated for Dec. 12.

Ontario sired horses eligible for nearly $23 million in restricted purses in 2027

The Ontario Standardbred Improvement Program (SIP) committee is proud to announce that Ontario sired horses will be eligible to more than $22.5 million in restricted purses for 2027, including more than $17 million in the Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) program alone.

The new money is part of $14 million in additional funding annually for five years specific to the standardbred industry. The funding comes from $35 million in total new money annually for five years from the provincial government for Ontario's three racing breeds.

"Thanks to the Ontario government, we are incredibly pleased to make improvements to the Ontario Sires Stakes program and add additional opportunities for those racing Ontario-sired or Ontario-bred horses," said SIP committee chair Bill O'Donnell. "Now, more than ever, is a fantastic time to purchase an Ontario-sired horse and breed mares in Ontario."

"Ontario horse breeders are the foundation on which our fantastic provincial horse racing industry is built, and their investment churns many times over to provide a tremendous return to the Ontario economy."

The SIP committee is a division of Ontario Racing.

The most notable changes for the 2027 OSS program include:

- For 2-year-olds, the first two legs will carry a purse of $60,000 per division. After the first two legs, the 2-year-olds division will move into Gold and Grassroots competition.
- All horses competing in the Prospect Series can be claimed at a price of $25,000 plus allowances. The only exception is claims will not be allowed for the first two Prospect legs for 2-year-olds.
- Gold Series divisions will be guaranteed at a minimum of $100,000.

The Gold Series legs will each have a purse of $150,000 if there is one division and $100,000 each for two or more divisions. Each of the eight Super Finals will have a purse of $350,000. For 2-year-olds, there will be three Gold legs. There will be five Gold legs for 3-year-olds.

Grassroots divisions will carry a purse of $30,000 each. Each of the eight Grassroots championship races will have a purse of $100,000. For 2-year-olds, there will be four Grassroots legs. There will be six Grassroots legs for 3-year-olds.

Prospect Series divisions will have a purse of $12,000 each. Prospect Series finals will have a purse of $25,000 each.

Two-year-olds competing in the Prospect Series will have the following claiming price for legs 3 through 5: Claiming $25,000; 2YO filly, 100 per cent allowance, claiming price $50,000, 2YO colt/gelding, 75 per cent allowance, claiming price $43,750.

Three-year-olds competing in the Prospect Series will have the following claiming price for all legs: Claiming $25,000; 3YO filly 75 per cent allowance, claiming price $43,750, 3YO colt/gelding, 50 per cent allowance, claiming price $37,500.

In addition to the $17 million OSS program, in 2027 Ontario Sired horses will also be eligible to approximately $1.2 million in restricted stakes purses for events such as the Battle of Waterloo and Battle of the Belles at Grand River Raceway, the Dream Of Glory and Balanced Image at Hanover Raceway, the Kin Pace at Clinton Raceway, and the SBOA at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Ontario Sired horses will also be eligible to some $4.3 million in restricted purses for races at Woodbine Mohawk Park, such as the Harvest Series and events for Grassroots starters. Some of those races will also be open to Ontario-bred horses. The full schedule will be made after next year's race dates are approved.

It all adds up to a tremendous opportunity for Ontario-sired horses and increasing opportunities for Ontario-bred horses that are out of dams properly enrolled in SIP's Ontario Resident Mare Program (ORMP) for the corresponding foaling year, regardless of whether the sire stood in Ontario or elsewhere.

Nearly 500 Ontario-sired horses will sell soon at the following major yearling sales:

- Lexington Selected Yearling Sale – Oct. 5-8 – 67 Ontario-sired yearlings cataloged.
- London Classic Yearling Sale – Oct. 13-14 – 282 Ontario-sired yearlings cataloged.
- Standardbred Horse Sales Company auction in Harrisburg, PA – Nov. 2-4 – 125 Ontario-sired yearlings cataloged.

NJ Dept. of Agriculture announces NJSS enhancements

The New Jersey Department of Agriculture Wednesday (Sept. 30) announced enhancements to the New Jersey Sire Stakes program for 2027, including a 50 per cent increase in Silver Series purses while keeping entry and nomination fees unchanged from 2026.

The program updates include:

- Silver Series legs increasing from $10,000 to $15,000 per elimination
- Silver Series finals increasing from $40,000 to $50,000 for fields of eight or more
- Platinum Series purses remaining unchanged
- A new 20 per cent bonus for eligible New Jersey-sired horses winning certain stakes races at the Meadowlands

The enhancements are intended to provide greater value to owners, trainers, and breeders while supporting the continued growth of New Jersey's horse-racing industry.

Unbeaten Kountry Plunge among Big Apple elimination winners at Vernon

Vernon Downs played host to eight Big Apple elimination winners for freshmen fillies as well as their colt and gelding counterparts on Friday (Oct. 2). All eliminations raced for $20,000. All the qualifiers will race for $250,000 on Friday (Oct. 9).

Jula Florence won the first elimination division of the 2026 Big Apple Trot for 2-year-old fillies, stopping the clock in 1:55.1. Driven by Tyler Miller and trained by Julie Miller, she took the lead at the three-quarter pole and held off a late charge to secure the victory.

The next three finishers who automatically qualify for the $250,000 Big Apple Filly Trot final are: Anabella (Brett Beckwith), Moonlight Kiss (Corey Callahan), and Hl Kapara (Jason Bartlett).

Jula Florance is a filly by Chapter Seven—Jula Shes Magic. She is owned by Andy Miller Stable, Windsong Stable, and Dumain Haven Farm. It was her fourth career win.

Kountry Plunge ($2.10) won the second elimination division of the Big Apple Trot for 2-year-old fillies at Vernon Downs with a quick 1:54.1 mile. Just one-fifth off the track record.

The next three finishers earning an automatic spot in the $250,000 Big Apple Filly Trot final are: Wavy Xavie (Jeff Gregory), Secret Lover (Jason Bartlett), and Seven Thirds (Matt Kakaley). Solar Queen finished fifth and will enter a draw against Diana Hanover to determine the final wildcard spot.

Kountry Plunge is a filly by Chapter Seven—Plunge Blue Chip. She is trained by Åke Svanstedt for owners OBM Stable, Svanstedt & Midnight Sun, Bender Sweden Inc, and Ecurie Diocles AB. It was his sixth career victory.

Carly Shay (Brett Beckwith) dominated the first elimination division of the Big Apple Pace for 2-year-old fillies at Vernon Downs, leading from gate-to-wire to win easily in 1:51.2 paying $8.82.

The next three finishers to qualify for the filly pace final were Huntsville Honey (Tyler Buter), Prop Bet (Matt Kakaley), and Real Choice (Jason Bartlett).

Carly Shay is a filly by Huntsville—Carly Girl. She is trained by Megan Scran for owners SCN Stable, Mark Robinson, Kyle Gray, and Hutchinson Harness. It was her first career win.

Cowboy Candy (Jason Bartlett) fired late to romp in the second elimination in a lifetime best of 1:51.3 paying ($2.44).

The next three that qualified were Annie O (Jeff Gregory), Shadow Of A Girl (Matt Kakaley), and Phast Phyllis (Braxten Boyd). Too Pink To Pass and Hunt Me Down will enter a draw for the final slot.

Cowboy Candy is a filly by So Surreal—Caviart Elena. She is owned by Chain Lightning Stables, trained by Aaron Lambert, and it was her seventh win in nine career starts.

Ocean Storm (Brett Beckwith) used a gate-to-wire route to destroy the field in 1:53 in the first elimination for trotting colts and geldings. He paid $2.22 for the win.

The next three qualifiers were Bailey J (Jason Bartlett), Betelgeusebluechip (Tyler Buter), and T Money (Braxten Boyd).

It was career win number four for Cowboy Candy a colt by Chapter Seven—Empressive Hill. He is trained by Cam Capone for owners, APH Holding, Jeff Gural, Paul Kautz, and Jean Pierre Barjon.

Gio's Hope (Jason Bartlett) made his move around the final turn getting the win in a lifetime best of 1:54. Paying $2.78 for the win in the second division for colt and gelding trotters.

Archon (Jordan Stratton), Uncle Rob (Tyler Miller), and telling Tall Tales (Tyler Buter) all qualified for the final. Leader Kronos, Bigtime Chapter, and Lionel Station will be in the draw for the final spot.

Gio's Hope is a colt by Chapter Seven—Southwind Hope and is trained by Marcus Melander for owners Brixton Medical and Hatfield Stables. It was his fourth career victory.

Rose Run Cowboy (Jason Bartlett) took the first elimination for pacing colts and geldings. He took over at the halfway point and stormed home in 1:52.3 paying $2.82 for the win.

Clear Deal (Aaron Byron), Maries Jet (Braxten Boyd), and Primacy Station (Matt Kakaley) all qualified for the final.

Rose Run Cowboy is a colt by Huntsville—Blameitonthenight. He is trained by Ron Burke for owners Thomas and Scott Dillion. It was career win number four.

Global Choice (Jason Bartlett) cruised to an easy win in the second division for pacing colts and geldings winning in a lifetime best of 1:50.3 paying $3.34 for the victory.

Its News To Me (Leon Bailey), Rowdy Station (Brett Beckwith), and My Body Guard (Matt Kakaley) all qualified. Hunt Me Down and Coco Wells will be in the draw for the final spot.

Global Choice is a Courtly Choice—Peak Of Chic. He is owned by Gino Toscani and trained by Gary Merner, Jr. It was his second career win.

All the Big Apple finals will be on Friday (Oct. 9).

Little Road and Shemightbetheone shine in Keystone Classic finale

Three-year-old trotting fillies brought down the curtain on Hollywood Casino at The Meadows' stakes season with two $24,775 Keystone Classic divisions Friday afternoon (Oct. 2).

PA Sire Stake champion Little Road returned to The Meadows with a 1:53.3 Keystone Classic victory. Regular driver Brady Brown sent the daughter of Fordham Flash right down the road through moderate fractions before a :27.4 final quarter sealed the win. Misty Blue and Aaron Merriman were second best, while Amber Ale Hanover picked up the show spot. Little Road has won seven of her last eight starts and is nine-for-15 on the year for owner, breeder, and trainer Roger Hammer of Bedford, PA.

The second Keystone Classic division would need the length of the stretch to determine Shemightbetheone the winner. Nestled quickly behind I'll Take The Cake, Shemightbetheone rode the pocket through friendly fractions that set up a sprint. A determined drive from Dave Palone coaxed a :27.4 final quarter to outsprint the front-runner for the nose victory. Pat LaChance trains the daughter of Captain Corey for owners Ecurie CSL. It was the sixth win of the season for Shemightbetheone, who boasts season earnings of more than $100,000.

Friday afternoon, Justin Irvine topped all drivers with three wins, while the Burke and Presto stables each sent out two winners.

Live racing resumes Wednesday (Oct. 7), with a 13-race card. First-race post is 12:45 p.m.

KEYSTONE CLASSIC ACTION WELCOMES OCTOBER AT THE MEADOWS

Hollywood Casino at The Meadows welcomed October on Thursday (Oct. 1) with a pair of $24,475 Keystone Classic events for 3-year-old colts and geldings.

Fineline Hanover and Dave Palone put up all the fractions en route to a 1:52.3 victory in the fastest Keystone Classic division. After an opening quarter of :27.1, Palone was able to relax the son of Captain Corey through a 57-second half. From there, it was all Fineline Hanover, who paced a :55.3 back half to keep pocket-sitter Hamlet Hall two lengths back in second, with Emmett Hanover holding the show spot. Carter Pinske handled the training duties for owners Ron Coyne Stables Inc, Blair Corbell, M. McAllister, and Larry and Gregg Stable. Fineline Hanover is now six for 11 this season with earnings of more than $150,000.

Exactly and Dave Palone raced patiently before a final-turn, three-wide move turned into a three-length Keystone Classic victory. Unhurried from post 2, the son of Bar Hopping raced fifth through the early going before flushing cover just before the :56.4 half. He stayed with the cover until past the three-quarters before sliding three wide, overtaking front-runner Oversear, and trotting home in :28.1 to complete the mile in 1:53.2. Oversear and Captain Vodka hit the line together for a dead heat for place. Exactly's Keystone Classic victory was his fourth in a row and seventh win from 10 starts, pushing his lifetime earnings over $100,000 for owner Stephen Palermo. Tim Twaddle handles the training responsibilities.

Thursday's top driving honors went to Palone, who recorded three wins, while Dirk Simpson and Abigail Wright each had two training wins.
