“It was a very energetic night, I thought the crowd was fantastic inside, outside, in the back rooms. It’s a credit to the consignors, like we always say. Trotters were extremely strong. Pacers held up great. It’s a record average and we’re up 10 per cent over last year and 5 per cent over the year before.”

of $150,000, which was on par with the last two years and second only to the record median of $170,000 in 2023.

“It was a very energetic night,” said the sale’s co-manager David Reid. “I thought the crowd was fantastic inside, outside, in the back rooms. It’s a credit to the consignors, like we always say. Trotters were extremely strong. Pacers held up great. It’s a record average and we’re up 10 per cent over last year and 5 per cent over the year before.”

“It was also the second-best gross and we only sold 111 horses tonight. We had a few ‘outs.’ Overall, it was a very good session and hats off to everybody. We always give credit to the breeders for reinvesting. Sire power carried through and the first-crops sold well, so you’ve got to be happy.”

Last year’s opening session saw 120 yearlings gross $21,801,000 total, averaging $181,675, and posting a median of $150,000. Eighty-two yearlings sold for $100,000 or more.

Eighty yearlings sold for $100,000 or more on Monday, down from 82 last year, but up from 76 in 2024. The most yearlings selling for $100,000 or more in the opening session was 97 in 2023.

“Our consignors offered a great set of horses and the results reflect that,” said co-manager Bruce Brinkerhoff. “Our team spends a great deal of time in selecting the horses for the sale and working with our consignors and then also in placement in the sessions... what sessions horses go in. We put a tremendous amount of effort into both of those things and it was reflected tonight that it has been a success and we're very happy with the results this evening."

Topping the session was Hip #79 Kountry Prince, a Walner colt out of Plunge Blue Chip, sold for $825,000 out of the Kountry Lane Standardbred consignment to trainer Ake Svanstedt on behalf of a group of people.

"I never thought, at this point, we'd have the sale topper or close to it," said Kountry Lane's farm manager Duane Miller. "The last few days, the people that looked at him were high-end people and a lot of them had him vetted out. That told me... I didn't dare get too excited, and I didn't tell [farm owner] Ola [Yoder] because I didn't want him getting fired up about it, but I had a good feeling about [Kountry Prince]. Obviously, not this much. I was thinking it'd be great if he'd bring $500,000 or $600,000, but that's a stretch for us.

"It gives me a little bit of confidence that we can sell with these farms and we can do a good job. We've taken a lot of knocks along the way. It was a big learning curve."

Svanstedt was the top buyer on Monday, spending $2.14 million, total, to purchase seven horses.

"The big one [Hip #79], obviously, I would say the mother [Plunge Blue Chip] pays the price, probably," said Sarah Svanstedt. "He looked tremendous and the sister [Kountry Plunge] has started tremendous, six-for-six. Plunge was a huge help for us to move here [from Sweden]. She wasn't very expensive, but she had nice conformation and pedigree and she turned out to be super. So, it's feelings, too, and that may be part of the reason why you don't say no. I think feelings also pay – I shouldn't say 50 per cent, but at least 30 per cent of the price.

"We didn't talk about a limit. We had five people behind us and everyone was into it. We never really set a number. It's wrong to say they are wealthy people, because I don't want to put that out there, but they love the game and they love the horses and you need those ones to perform with the high number of horses coming into the ring."

Marcus Melander was second in the buyers' standings with $1.71 million spent to purchase six horses. Next came Andrew Harris, agent for Punisher Elven Stable, with $1.485 million spent to take home five yearlings.

Hip #71 Maestro Volo, a Chapter Seven colt out of Mommamia Volo bred and consigned by Kentuckiana Farms, sold for $800,000 to Peter Cimino, agent, from Ambler, PA on behalf of a Norwegian owner. The colt's second dam is Margarita Momma, a winner of more than $600,000 and the dam of Amigo Volo, a winner of almost $2.7 million.

Kentuckiana Farms' part-owner Bob Brady said he was "ecstatic" with Maestro Volo's $800,000 sale price.

"It is a very nice colt that checked all the boxes," Brady said. "Excellent conformation. Athletic-type colt and we're very happy with that price. Who wouldn't be?"

"I thought he'd be our highest-priced colt, for sure. When they get in that range, you just never know, for sure, how much other people are going to like him, but we knew he was being very well-received.

"It's a phenomenal maternal family. Chapter Seven – he's a rock star, he's a tremendous stallion... and out of that mare that won half-a-million dollars or more. First foal. He's very correct and the family is just so strong. The second dam has been giant."

Cimino also spent $650,000 to purchase Hip #96 Special Account, a Walner colt out of Special Hill from Kentuckiana's consignment. The colt was bred and raised at Clear Creek at Brittany Farms.

Hip #4 Lake Placid, a Chapter Seven colt out of Mission Brief daughter Adirondack, got the fireworks launching early in the session with a winning bid of $700,000 from Jeffrey Snyder and S R F Stable, two of the owners of this year's Hambleton winner, Apex, who is out of Mission Brief. Lake Placid was bred by Diamond Creek Farm and consigned by Hunterton Farm. The colt is the second of three foals out of Adirondack, the first foal out of Mission Brief.

Hip #4 Lake Placid, a Chapter Seven colt out of Mission Brief daughter Adirondack, sold for $700,000 to Jeffrey Snyder and SRF Stable. Lake Placid was bred by Diamond Creek Farm and consigned by Hunterton Farm.

"We picked number four because he's by Chapter Seven and the mare is the same family as Apex out of a daughter of Mission Brief," Snyder said. "We zeroed in on him. We checked him out carefully. We x-rayed him and everything else. Our trainer, Marcus Melander, said 'He's great.' He checked all of the boxes, except for the price... Actually, thought it might go for a little more. We thought it might go for $800,000."

Hunterton's Steve Stewart said Lake Placid is "about as hot as you're going to get with family, and that has a lot to do with it. He's a very outstanding looking colt. He was probably a little more developed, in my opinion, than most Chapter Sevens."

Snyder and S R F also spent $600,000 to purchase Hip #76 Indestructible, A Walner colt out of Jolene Jolene. The colt, a full brother to Mohawk Million winner Venerable, was bred and sold by Hunterton.

"We were very happy with Jolene," Stewart said. "We were expecting more, but when you sell one for $600,000, you can't cry."

“The atmosphere [on opening night was] great. People came here to buy a horse. Anything that was good and correct sold for a lot of money.”

- Bob Brady

Hip #68 Targeter a Tactical Landing filly out of Sarcy bred and sold by Hunterton Farm sold for $575,000 to Al Libfeld.

Hip #31 Boy Toy, a Walner colt out of Delilah Hanover named after Hall of Fame owner David McDuffee and bred and sold by Cameo Hills Farm, fetched a bid of $500,000. The buyer was McDuffee himself.

Hip #101 Smart Beauty, a Walner filly out of Swanky Hanover, sold for $500,000 to Wiesman Farms out of the Hunterton consignment.

“We sold one for $700,000, one for $600,000, one for $575,000, another one for $500,000,” Stewart said. “We’ve had a great night.”

Hunterton was the session’s leading consignor with total sales of $4,974,000 for 23 yearlings. Kentuckiana was second with a gross of $3,915,000 for 16 yearlings. Concord Stud was third with sales of $2,609,000 for 13 yearlings.

By average, Kountry Lane led with a $322,500 for four sold, followed by Blue Chip Farms ($306,667), and Kentuckiana ($244,688).

Leading sires were:

- Walner – $7,127,000 for 30
- Chapter Seven – $5,397,000 for 17
- Confederate – $2,230,000 for 16
- Tactical Landing – $2,125,000 for 11

Kentuckiana’s Brady said, “The atmosphere [on opening night was] great. People came here to buy a horse. Anything that was good and correct sold for a lot of money.

“We’re appreciative of the hard work of all the consignors and the breeders to bring this group of horses in here and, of course, we’re very appreciative of the buyers for giving us their support and having the confidence in us.”

Sarah Svanstedt added, “I think it’s a very good book this year. Obviously, they have cut down on some horses, to make it even a little bit more special. I think they showed that tonight with the numbers. The business is looking to show off here. It’s a bit different from Lexington to Harrisburg. I mean, Harrisburg sells a lot of nice horses, too, but here is where the great customers are and the best horses.”

Today’s (Oct. 6) session begins at 11 a.m. and is preceded by the Breeders Crown Charity Auction brunch at 10 a.m. and the charity breeding auction.

As for the sale itself, Brinkerhoff said he expects the strong opening night numbers, “to carry throughout the sale. We do think we have a tremendous amount of quality all the way through to the end, through to the last session. [On Tuesday], we’ll be selling approximately 35-40 more horses than we did last year on the second day so if we can keep pace with those numbers and offering more horses – or exceed them – we’ll be very happy and we think we might be able to do that. Realistically, with offering more horses, it’s a little bit of an unknown factor, so it remains to be seen [Tuesday] exactly what will happen, but we’re very confident that the momentum will carry forward and we’ll see another great session.”

with GORDON WATERSTONE

Sunny and spectacular

by Gordon Waterstone

Let's get right to it as we have a lot to cover since we last met. But first and foremost, let me tell you something about the outstanding weather forecast for the upcoming week in Lexington. It'll look like Groundhog Day here in the Bluegrass as it looks like we will have sunshine and highs in the high 70s and low 80s all week. That forecast is real and it's spectacular.

I do have to admit it's hard to keep track of what's happening on what day. Moving the Kentucky Futurity to the first weekend and changing the race days from Friday-Sunday to Thursday-Saturday has thrown me off. Also, the Kentuckiana Farms Pre-Sale Party, which is normally held the Thursday night of the first week of racing, was moved to Friday night this year.

I attended the Kentuckiana gathering, and it's hard for me to come up with an excuse to not go as it's held across the street from where I live at the Malone's Prime Events Center. As a sidenote, the Events Center has been sharing space in the same building as the OBC Kitchen, which closed last Friday but is reopening today across town on Leestown Road. I know a lot of people like to go to OBC, but remember if you make reservations this week that you are going to be dining at the new location.

When I arrived at the Kentuckiana party I thanked both Ken Jackson and Bob Brady for the invitation. I found a seat at a table between Perry and Annelee Soderberg to my left and Linda Toscano and Andy Cohen to my right.

I obviously can't name all I spoke to throughout the evening as there were a lot. I will say that I hung around the Pinske family for a while and had some nice conversations, including congratulating Carter and Makenna Pinske on their victories over the first two cards. I also congratulated Andy and Julie Miller on their 2-year-old filly trotter Wall Of Fame's gutsy victory in a $94,000 Bluegrass division, keeping the daughter of Walner unbeaten in 10 career starts.

I did have to ask Julie about her double congratulatory kisses afterward though. As Andy brought Wall Of Fame back to the winner's circle, Julie jumped off the golf cart after riding from the paddock and gave a big kiss on Wall Of Fame's lips. Then she went directly over to Andy, where she then gave Andy a big kiss as well. I asked Andy if he was aware that Julie went from horse to husband, and he told me it happens all the time and he doesn't mind it.

Dave Landry

It's been beautiful in Lexington.

Denmark's Karsten Bonsdorf came over to see me at the party, and he told me he is really enjoying writing columns for Travservis.dk. Karsten actually began writing his first-person columns a few years ago in an effort to duplicate Backstretch With Gordon. But as my former co-worker Greg Schuler always told me, Backstretch may be imitated but never duplicated.

I've been able to translate some of the columns by Karsten, who also covers European racing for the USTA. He is a long-time racing journalist who has been coming over to the U.S. for the big trotting races for more than 25 years. I told Karsten that I was really flattered that he has copied the Backstretch column. I guess I need to give credit to ex-Boss Kathy (Parker), who came up with the idea 24 years ago.

With the Kentuckiana party being held in the past on Thursday nights, I never overstayed my welcome as there was always a NFL game to go watch. But this year on a Friday night, and no football game, I didn't leave the premises until after 11 p.m. While I tried to duck out a bit earlier, the now-retired Hambletonian COO Moira Fanning had Ubered to the party and I offered her a ride back to her hotel. So after "last call" was finally given, I cut my night short after about four hours to become Moira's Uber back.

Friday's card was raced primarily on an "off" track, with a 30-minute delay between races early in the card as Trackman Dan led the track crew in shaping up the race surface. I did take a moment to walk over to see guitarist Devin Hale, who has been entertaining the crowd during the races with some great music. Devin told me he is really getting interested in harness racing, and was actually glad I stopped by as he had just signed up for the Harness Racing Update newsletters and had read the first two Backstretch With Gordon columns this year.

Devin also told me he is writing a song about harness racing, which he hopes he can finish and debut on Saturday's closing-day program. While I'm sure it'll be a hit song, it might be tough toppling Ella Langley's stronghold at the top of the charts with Choosin Texas.

Saturday's weather was much better than Friday as the rain had cleared out. Shortly after I arrived, I bumped into Boss Dave (Briggs) and DRF's Derick Giwner. Both remarked how long it had been since they actually were able to attend the Kentucky Futurity program in person. With it being in the past after the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale had concluded, both had work duties keeping them away. But with the change in schedule, both made it to The Red Mile this year. I later sat in HRU's box with Boss Dave, and "quotes provided by James Platz" joined us for a bit.

I stuck my head in the clubhouse for a minute and the Hambletonian Society's new COO Gunjan Patel, who was there with her dog Zeus, invited me to join her for lunch. The Hambletonian Society's stakes manager Nadia Tarnawa and Bluegrass Staking's Erin Freibert also sat down at the table. Boss Dave sent me a text that he had plenty of open seats at his table if I wanted to join him, but I had already accepted Gunjan's invitation.

After a great lunch – the food was outstanding so kudos to all those in the clubhouse – I made my way back outside. It was then that I saw a big group from Winbak Farm. I'm glad to see they brought their mascot this year, Michael Carter.

I also had a chance to talk to Dave McDuffee for a while, and with no disrespect to anybody else, Dave is one of my all-time favorite people in racing. I also stopped by Jim Campbell's box for a few minutes, and he and I talked hockey. Specifically, about the Detroit Red Wings. Scott Farber was also there, so while I was embarrassed at first when I didn't recognize him, it was great to catch up with Scott.

I plopped myself down in a box and Sally Bolon stopped by for a few minutes. I was then sitting alone when Will Alempijevic came over. Will, who long ago was a Canadian correspondent for The Horseman And Fair World and then later was general manager at Portland Meadows thoroughbred racetrack in Oregon (where, by the way, he lined up a local writer to pen a column similar to Backstretch With Gordon), told me he had been at Keeneland for a few races before getting to The Red Mile to see the Kentucky Futurity.

Will, who is now the COO of AmWager.com, also told me that he and his longtime girlfriend Annise Montplaisir, co-founder of Amplify Horse Racing, are getting married in two weeks. Congratulations to both, who are now residents of Kentucky.

Congratulations go to the connections of Nix Nacken, who won the Kentucky Futurity at generous odds of 17-1. Owned by Anders Strom's Courant Inc, Nix Nacken was driven by Bjorn Goop and trained by Marcus Melander. I went to the winner's circle after the race to congratulate Anders. I also gave a high-five to Marvin Katz as he went by me after She's Moni, who he shares ownership of with Brittany Farms, after she won the Filly Futurity. Congrats to trainer Nancy Takter and driver Yannick Gingras.

I went to dinner Saturday night at Malone's Palomar with Moira Fanning, Jay Farrar, and Maggie LeClair. Moira had been wanting to go to Malone's as she had a hefty gift card she wanted to use. Since Moira wanted to use up the balance on the card, which she said was a lot, we all had appetizers, nice main entrees (Moira and I had filets), a few bottles of wine and desserts. I had coupons for half-price bottles of wine which helped some. The waiter brought the bill, Moira handed him her gift card and said she hoped it covered the entire amount. Our server, Caleb, told Moira that the balance on the card was $1.33.

Yep, Moira brought the wrong card with her, which resulted in only $1.33 being taken off the bill. And because she did the dinner inviting, she still insisted on paying. Thanks Moira.

Sunday night was the Stable of Memories fundraiser at the historic Round Barn. As always, it was a nice gathering and a chance to casually chat with people. That group included Heather, Mike, and Scarlett Wilder. I even spoke to Dr. John Mossbarger, even if he is a big fan of that school in Columbus.

I made it to the backstretch at The Red Mile on Monday, and was greeted at the breakfast table with two young 'uns, who offered me coffee and donuts. The young girl is kin to Devan Tharps, while the boy was Logan Shehan, the 10-year-old son of Tyler and Marna Shehan. Logan is the sole owner of the 5-year-old Lazarus gelding The Phantom, who won an overnight race early last month at The Red Mile. All of The Phantom's earnings are going toward Logan's college fund, which now totals $5,910.

And a word of warning about those two at the breakfast table. The young lady, who sadly I did not learn her name, told me they were $8 short of the goal. So, I pulled out some cash from my pocket, and gave her a dollar. But then she said, "We can break that $20 if you want." I have a hunch that a degree in business is in the future of those two.

With an early deadline on Monday, any report from last night's opening session of the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale will have to wait until tomorrow's Backstretch. I'll also let you know if anything big happened at the welcome reception this morning, which was then followed by the auction of several breedings to top stallions.

Apologies to all those who didn't get a mention today, there was just so much. And, gas prices are creeping down. Driving home from The Red Mile yesterday I saw $4.14 for regular and $6.39 for diesel.

Kentucky Futurity, Part 2

by Bob Heyden

Part 1 is here.

The Triple Crown is now history for 2026 as Nix Nacken got the job done in the Kentucky Futurity for Red Mile first-timer Bjorn Goop driving for Marcus Melander who sent out six of the 11 entrants. Marcus had won this previously with Greenshoe in 2019 and was second and third last year with his two stars Maryland and Super Chapter. Eighteen of the 21 entered in the combined 2026 Filly Futurity and Kentucky Futurity were conditioned by a Swedish born trainer. Nancy Takter had four in the filly division and went 1-2 with She's Moni and Madam Cheval.

Here are the standout numbers from Futurity Day – 20 of them – as we put a bow on the 525th Triple Crown event ever held.

1. Mr Mouton earlier on the card joined Six Pack as the only two Red Mile track record holders to appear twice on that list, and both did it at 3 and 4.

2. All three Triple Crown legs this year went to a sub-35 year-old conditioner. Marcus Melander, 34, won the Hambletonian (Apex) and now the Futurity, and Lucas Wallin, 33, with Inexpressable, won the Yonkers Trot.

3. The Futurity was the first Triple Crown race of the season that had participants in the previous Triple Crown race in it. Six of 10 Hambletonian finalists competed in the Futurity.

4. Brandon Boulevard and Beau Jangles each won in 1:47.2 on Futurity Day. Sound familiar? Tall Dark Stranger and Party Girl Hill in 2020 did the same, in the same exact time, in the Tattersalls en route to going 1-2 in the HOY balloting.

5. The Futurity time of 1:50 was four-fifths-of-a-second off the stakes 1:49.1 mark, set by Six Pack, which has stood the past eight years. Keep in mind that the Hambletonian record has been re-established in each of the last two editions.

6. The Kentucky Futurity is the race where the youngest driver and oldest has won a Triple Crown event: Peter Houghton, 22, in 1976 with Quick Pay and Bi Shively, 74, 1952 with Sharp Note.

7. Marcus Melander with Apex and Nix Nacken joined Jimmy Takter who last won the Hambletonian and the Futurity with two different sophomores: Trixton and Father Patrick in 2014.

8. Nix Nacken is a gelding, and if history repeats itself, will have a wonderful career. Previously in 1971 Savoir won this and was HOY four years later; Mr Musclemann in 2003 surged well past $3 million before the decade was out; Pinkman in 2015 completed the richest season by any Jimmy Takter trainee at $1.9 million, and the 2020 winner Amigo Volo is still going strong closing in on $3 million.

9. Muscle Hill is now retired. But the only representative he had in either Futurity came through in a big way. Nix Nacken is now the fourth Muscle Hill winner of this leg in the last decade with only Father Patrick doubling up in that time frame with Greenshoe (2019) and Amigo Volo (2020).

10. Jimmy Takter drove his final Triple Crown race here in 2018 with Tactical Landing second best to Six Pack. Tactical Landing has since sired Allegiant – 1:48 in the Elitlopp this year – as well as back-to-back Hambletonian winners from his first two crops in Tactical Approach and Karl.

11. Three Swedish born drivers got money in the Futurity. Goop followed by Ake Svanstedt (second) and Orjan Kihlstrom (fifth). If you are scoring at home that is an astounding 10 Elitlopps right there: five for Kihlstrom, second all-time to Stig Johansson's six, three for Goop who actually won three years apart with the same Timoko 2014 and 2017, and a pair for Svanstedt.

12. Bjorn Goop won his first Triple Crown race four decades after dad Olle won the first of a pair of Breeders Crowns (1987 and 1989) with the outstanding trotting mare Grades Singing. Bjorn won this year's Futurity giving himself an early 50th birthday present just 10 days before he hits the big 5-0!

13. Walner went 1-2 in the Filly Futurity but was unable to extend his streak to four in Triple Crown events with the boys. He won the Futurity last year with Emoticon Legacy, then the 2026 Yonkers Trot with Inexpressable and the Hambletonian with Apex.

14. Marcus Melander fell a touch shy in the Filly Futurity (fifth, eighth, and 10th) of trying to duplicate what Jimmy Takter did in 2014, by winning the Hambletonian and the Oaks and then the Futurity and Filly Futurity with four different horses: Trixton and Lifetime Pursuit followed by Father Patrick and Shake It Cerry. Melander took three of the four with the Filly Futurity eluding him.

15. Tim Tetrack once again had the odds-on favorite in a Triple Crown Grade 1 event with Big Ranger, but this time it wasn't a nose defeat it was a sixth-place finish.

16. When the dust cleared on the day Ake Svanstedt's stable was No. 11 all time at 6,827 starts with 1,418 wins good for $71,644,749. Melander is No. 20 with 4,219 tries with 880

17. Tim Tetrick's runner-up finish in the Filly Futurity has him inching to near $3 million of John Campbell's No. 2 spot on the all-time list. Campbell has $299.8 million with Tetrick at $296,734,782.

18. With Super Chapter winning later that night at Dayton, he reclaimed the 2026 money title that Brandon Boulevard took away during the daylight. They ended the weekend with Super Chapter at $1,196,797 and Brandon Blvd at $1,175,195.

19. Marcus Melander finishes his under-35 Triple Crown career with more than any other conditioner ever at six: the Hambletonian (Apex) and Futurity (Nix Nacken) this year which followed last year's Yonkers Trot (Super Chapter), the 2022 Yonkers Trot (Joviality S), and in 2019, the Yonkers Trot (Gimpanzee) and Kentucky Futurity (Greenshoe).

20. What a Triple Crown season this has been for Spencer Hanover. The 2025 Breeders Crown winner had the second tier in the Yonkers Trot (ninth) and the Kentucky Futurity (eighth) with a post 9 thrown in the mix in the Hambletonian (sixth).

Super Chapter's record-setting Grand Circuit performance highlights Saturday card at Dayton

by Wes Mayberry / Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association

Hollywood Gaming at Dayton Raceway played host to eight $80,000 divisions of the Buckeye Stallion Series finals and four $250,000 Dayton Derby Grand Circuit races as part of a 14-race, $1.745 million card on Saturday (Oct. 3).

Super Chapter (Dexter Dunn) highlighted the Dayton Derby winners with a record performance. The 4-year-old son of Chapter Seven led gate-to-wire and won the Grade 2 Dayton Trotting Derby by 1¾ lengths in 1:50.2, setting a new track record and equaling the world record for 4-year-old male trotters on a five-eighths-mile track. The prior track record, 1:51.4, was set by Back Of The Neck in 2021. Super Chapter equaled Emoticon Legacy's world record set at Eldorado Scioto Downs earlier this year on Sept. 12. Emoticon Legacy (Scott Zeron) and Lexus Kody (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) rounded out the top three finishers. Super Chapter has hit the board in 31 of 34 career starts with 21 wins and $2,954,066 in earnings. The Marcus Melander trainee is owned by Jeffrey Snyder, Arthur Pronti, and Hanover Shoe Farms.

DAYTON PACING DERBY

Sitting in sixth place at the halfway mark and fourth at the three-quarter pole, Harrisburg Heist (Chris Page) rallied to score an upset victory after going off with 25-1 odds. BUCKEYE STALLION SERIES

Mockingbird As (Marvin Luna) highlighted the eight BSS champions, winning the 3-year-old filly trot final in a lifetime-best 1:54.4 as a 50-1 longshot. The Guardian Angel As filly was in seventh place at the halfway mark, trailing leader Dream Of Charlotte (Braiden Rhoades) by 6½ lengths. Dream Of Charlotte continued to lead at the three-quarter pole as Mockingbird As moved up into fifth place, five lengths back. A late charge on the far outside down the final stretch spurred Mockingbird As to victory, 1¼ lengths ahead of second-place Flirtin Tomi (Smith). No Approval Needed (Brett Miller) was third. Mockingbird As, who finished ninth in the BSS point standings to become the last horse to qualify for the sophomore filly trot final, is owned and trained by Anette Lorentzon. She paid $102.60 to win. It was the third win in 17 career starts for Mockingbird As, increasing her earnings to $102,850.

Ima Beach Girl (Justin Irvine) rallied from fifth place at the three-quarter pole to win by a nose in 1:52.4. Bad Girl Up (Austin Hanners) led the field past the first three calls with fractions of

:26.2, :55.3, and 1:23.3. Ima Beach Girl trailed the leader by 3½ lengths at the three-quarter mark before using a late charge to take the win. Bad Girl Up and Eyes Up (Cameron McCown) rounded out the top three. Ima Beach Girl is a Downbytheseaside filly trained by Sam Schillaci for owners Schillaci Stables, John Manning, and Sam Bova Racing. She has six wins in 27 career starts with earnings of $178,547.

Ohio SIRE STAKES REPORT

Veteran championships cap 50th season of Ohio Sires Stakes

by Wes Mayberry / Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association

The milestone 50th season of the Ohio Sires Stakes came to a close on Sunday (Oct. 4) as Northfield Park Racino hosted four $100,000 divisions of the OHSS veteran championships for 4-year-olds and up.

Drivers Chris Page and Dan Noble split the four races, scoring two wins apiece.

With Page in the sulky, Fearless Ginger recorded the fastest mile of the four divisions, taking the OHSS Mare Pace by a half-length in 1:51.3. Dragon By The Sea (Tyler Smith) and Beautiful Seaside (Trevor Smith) rounded out the top three. Fearless Ginger is trained by Ron Burke for owners Burke Racing Stable and Weaver Brussemi. It was her sixth win in 22 seasonal starts. The 5-year-old Fear The Dragon mare has hit the board in 59 of 84 lifetime starts with 25 wins and $601,375 in earnings.

The driver/trainer pairing of Page and Burke also won the veteran OHSS Horse and Gelding Pace with Paris's Dragon, who tripped the wire in 1:52.4. Clever Cody (Luke Ebersole) was placed second, and Charlie May (Noble) was placed third. Paris's Dragon is a 5-year-old Fear The Dragon gelding owned by Burke Racing Stable, Dennis Owens, Weaver Brussemi, and Lawrence Karr. His fifth victory in 20 seasonal starts increased his career win total to 22 in 64 starts while growing his earnings to $738,142.

Abbey D won the veteran Mare Trot by $3\frac{3}{4}$ lengths in 1:54.2. The 7-year-old Uncle Peter mare led gate-to-wire, recording fractions of :27.2, :57, and 1:25.1 through the first three calls. Jurassic Hattie (Brett Miller) finished second followed by Sugar Instead (Page) in third. It was the 10th win in 28 seasonal starts for Abbey D, who is owned by Bradley Delaney. She has a 36-23-19 record with \$583,841 in earnings from 145 career starts.

Hung Over won the veteran Horse and Gelding Trot by $1\frac{1}{2}$ lengths in 1:54 as Hilltop Sonar (Page) and Caviar Gold (Aaron Merriman) rounded out the top three. The 5-year-old Creatine gelding is owned by Bluestone Farms and Lynda Stewart. It was his second win in 12 seasonal starts. He has a 16-6-15 career record in 53 starts and lifetime earnings of \$696,130.

No More Exs won the other division (race 12) in 1:51. Both pacers were driven by Jody Jamieson.

In the first division (race 2), in his first time in Totally Tyler's sulky, Jamieson orchestrated the victory pulling from third along the rail in deep stretch and brushing past front-runners Kerplunk (Louis-Philippe Roy) and D A Alljokesaside (Mark MacDonald) to surpass the OSS record of 1:49.3 previously set by Stockade Seelster in 2022.

Sent off at 9-1 in the field of seven, Totally Tyler won by a length over Kerplunk, followed by D A Alljokesaside, 3-5 favorite TH Theo (Doug McNair) and Meetmeonthebeach (Travis Cullen).

"[Totally Tyler] is a hell of a colt," Jamieson told Woodbine broadcaster John Rallis. "It was nice that they gave me a call to drive him. That was fun."

Totally Tyler, trained in the U.S. by Ron Burke and in Ontario by Scott McEneny, is now 1-2-1 in nine career starts. He has earnings of $125,816.

"I knew he could go with them," McEneny said. "He showed that last time, so it was just a matter what trip he got, and Jody gave him a great drive."

Totally Tyler paid $21.10 to win.

Totally Tyler, a homebred son of Bulldog Hanover out of Band Stand owned by Brad Grant, is the younger brother of 3-year-old filly She's A Bulldog, a winner of more than $800,000.

In the second division, Jamieson had No More Exs in front just after the quarter-mile station and cruised to a 1½ length, career-best victory in 1:51 for trainer Murray Brethour and owner/breeder Daniel Sarafian.

Stampede (Louis-Philippe Roy) was second, Yes I Am Hanover (Doug McNair) was third, TH Benedict (James MacDonald) was fourth and Gogo Gadget (Jonathan Drury) was fifth.

"I just thought I put [No More Exs] in play [before the half], and I didn't want to follow Stampede," Jamieson said. "I've driven Stampede before, and I had Stampede, I guess, where I needed him because he was really alive tonight, too, but No More Exs dug in, and that's a huge mile. I don't care what anybody says. I know the other division went in :49, but it's a lot colder now. Everything's a little bit more dull around here, and the track's a little bit tiring."

The son of Big Jim out of Kounnis is now 3-0-2 in eight starts and sports earnings of $109,542.

No More Exs paid $5.20 to win.

ACEANDATEN WINS FIRST GOLD IN FINAL LEG OF THE SEASON

Aceandaten won the lone $150,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold leg 5 test for 2-year-old pacing fillies on Saturday (Oct. 3) at Woodbine Mohawk Park in 1:51.

It was the first Gold victory for Aceandaten, who is a previous Grassroots winner.

Sent off at 4-1, the daughter of Cattlewash out of Dreamin Girl defeated Twin B Copacabana (Mark MacDonald) by 3½ lengths. Doug McNair drove the filly to victory for his father, trainer Gregg McNair, and owner Jason Castellan.

She's A Great Lady champ Jersey Bulldog (Bob McClure) was third, followed by Twin B Mayreau (Louis-Philippe Roy), and Qued Up (Trevor Henry).

"She's as good right now as she's been all year," Doug said of Aceandaten. "Her first start, I think stung her a little bit, and it kind of sent her off mentally. She went the next couple starts, and she was just a head case and a bit of a runaway. And I said to Jay, 'She's got to go one way or the other. We've got to calm her down. She might get better, but I, she could get worse.' But we got lucky, and she's minding her manners now, and she's coming right around."

Aceandaten paid $10.70 to win.

by Darrell Wood / Shenandoah Downs

Jonda Smith's Ballardrgoldfng picked up where he left off a week ago in Virginia Sire Stakes competition, capturing the $102,975 divisional final for 2-year-old colt pacers Saturday (Oct. 3) at Shenandoah Downs.

The Archie Buford trainee was fresh off a wire-to-wire effort in his divisional prep Sept. 27 (2:00.1) and wired the field again in the final in 1:57.2. The Doctor Butch gelding got to the front and cut panels of :28.3, :57.3, and 1:27.2 with Buford in the sulky, then crossed 4¼ lengths the best over Joe Chindano's Ohh Hey Bud. Ballardrgoldfng is now five-for-eight with earnings of $93,987. Earlier this year, he powered to a 1:54.3 winning effort at Oak Grove in a $40,000 Kentucky Sire Stakes event. Tracy Bradshaw's Ain't No Doctor finished third.

John Pyott's Nurse Nippy also wired the field in the $102,100 filly pace division in just her second career start. The daughter of Doctor Butch, who won her prep in 2:01.1,

Maine SIRE STAKES REPORT

Maine's freshmen clash at Cumberland Fair

by Chris Tully for First Tracks Cumberland

There were plenty of fans on hand to witness the 2026 edition of the $320,000-plus Maine Sire Stakes Freshmen finals on Saturday (Oct. 3) at the Cumberland Fair with some likely favorites prevailing, along with an upset, which made for a great day of New England harness racing.

In the first $80,760 final for 2-year-old colts and geldings the battle was on again off again between Pembroke Zagursky (Heath Campbell) and U Know I Know (Ken Watson). Before and after the start every horse except the pacesetter favorite Pembroke Zagursky broke stride at one point or another in the race.

Heath Campbell protected his pylon position but Ken Watson wanted the top and drove his trotter right off his feet heading toward the blistering :28.4 opening panel in a failed attempt to take command.

Watson ultimately ducked U Know I Know into the pocket with the tempo reduced to 1:01.1 at the half. Half in, half out heading into the 1:32 third station, Watson finally committed to the outer flow while going around the final turn. Back two lengths at the head of the stretch U Know I Know had one last valiant effort to catch Pembroke Zagursky, but to no avail as the pacesetter prevailed by three-parts-of-a-length in 2:02.3.

Trained by Valerie Grondin for owner Brenda Varney, the son of Pembroke Slugger picked up his third, and most important win of the year. Bred by the late Bill Varney, he returned $2.80. Come On Charlie (Mark Athearn) finished third.

In the third race, which was the $80,456 final for 2-year-old trotting fillies, it was all Princess Caledonia and trainer/driver/co-owner Gary Hall who made every call a winning one in 2:04.1 by 2½ lengths. Also owned by James Kelley, Jr., Betsey Kelley, and Kristina Hall, the daughter of To The Hilt returned $2.80.

She was bred by Anita "Bunny" Anastosopoulos. Stablemate Mikella Bella (Heath Campbell) finished second; Cape Cod Friday (Dave Ingraham) was third.

The fifth race $81,016 final for 2-year-old pacing fillies, was led by the Pine Tree State-bred star No Small Wonder, who heretofore sported an unblemished record going into this event.

Driven by Kevin Switzer, Jr., wearing the blue and yellow colors of the recently deceased Alex MacDonald, the filly phenom and heavy 1-9 favorite left swiftly from post 5 and took the lead in the usual fashion.

The daughter of State Treasurer continued to pace unfettered through opening panels of :28.3 and :59.4 with Showfaith Showdown (Nick Graffam) sitting in the garden seat. However, heading to the half driver Aaron Hall moved Feel The Fury first over and was advancing swiftly toward the lead.

The 16-1 longshot Feel The Fury blasted down the backside the final time to look No Small Wonder right in the eye at the 1:28.3 third station. Those two fillies battled toe-to-toe around the final turn, leaving the rest of the field in their wake by five open lengths.

Somewhere during that final quarter-of-a-mile No Small Wonder broke her check rein, which was dangling in the breeze but did not deter the filly from fighting back against her aggressor. The pair fought with equal tenacity down the stretch with Feel The Fury making one last momentous lunge to the wire to defeat the previously undefeated filly by a neck in a track record equaling 1:59.

Trained by Marc Tardif for owner/breeder Mr. Lesley Leighton, the daughter of State Treasurer had just one prior victory, but had been knocking on the door all season. She returned a whopping $35.20 to win the MaryEllen Stevenson Memorial. The winner's circle was jammed packed with horsepeople and friends of local driver/trainer Mike Stevenson who lost his beloved wife last month.

The sixth race concluded the Maine Sire Stakes events with the $81,110 final for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings, and, of course The Gucci Man who was the 3-5 favorite having had just one defeat in eight seasonal outings. Switzer, Jr. drove the son of Dude's The Man to another pillar-to-post romp from post 6, stopping the timer in 1:58.1, which was a new track record.

Owned, trained, and bred by Marc Tardif, he returned $3.20.

Top Notch Treasure (Bruce Ranger) finished second; Painter's Treasure (Andy Harrington) was third.

Our treasured outrider Sherry Cushing took the Harnessing Hope $5,500 All Women Drivers Breast Cancer Awareness Invitational with her own Gazitarena in 2:00.1. Co-owned with her step-daughter Jessica Clouser, they returned $5.40 in the wire-to-wire circuit.

Driver Aaron Hall enjoyed three wins on the afternoon program and now sits within one win of Andy Harrington who leads with 14 wins at the Fair.

Racing concludes at the Cumberland Fairgrounds on Sunday (Oct. 4) with a 12:30 post time.

After the fair, the track's 15-day Winter Festival begins Nov. 8 and then primarily follows a three-day Friday-Saturday-Sunday schedule throughout the season, until Dec. 13. Our annual Au Revoir Retirement Ceremonies are slated for Dec. 12.

POOCHAM LUCK TAKES MAINE FROSH CONSOLATION

Due to a bumper crop of 2024 foals in the Pine Tree State, the Maine Sire Stakes was pleased to host a $25,000 consolation for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings on Sunday (Oct. 4) at the Cumberland Fair, the final day of racing at the iconic Downeast oval.

The field of seven went postward as race 4 on the 11-race card, with Poocham Luck (7-5) and Dave Ingraham grabbing the early lead, with Rustyonlytreasure (3-5) and Aaron Hall parked out from post 7 and forced to trudge onward four-wide down the backside the first time into a :29.3 opening panel.

Rustyonlytreasure fought hoof and nail while parked with Poocham Luck along the cones through the second turn and into a :59.3 half with neither combatant giving an inch.

Down the backstretch the final time Rustyonlytreasure lost some ground on the pacesetter after his grueling trip past the third station in 1:30, leaving Poocham Luck well in command and pointing toward the finish.

Dave Ingraham had his charge on his toes while withstanding any would-be spoilers, scoring by four lengths in 2:01.3.

Trained by Mike Graffam for owner/breeder G. Russell Austin, the son of State Treasurer picked up his second and most prestigious win of the year, returning $4.80.

Mike Graffam also trained second place finisher Hollywood Chester (Joey Mosher) and South St Justin (Nick Graffam) who got up for the show dough.

Drivers Andy Harrington and Aaron Hall both picked up three wins on the final card of the Fair meet. Harrington led the Cumberland Fair with a total of 17 trips to the winner's circle, with Hall nipping at his heels with 16 scores. Sara Harrington led all conditioners with 10 victories.

Now that the Cumberland Fair has concluded, New England horsemen will look forward to the track's 15-day Winter Festival which begins Nov. 8. The year-end meet primarily follows a three-day Friday-Saturday-Sunday schedule throughout the season, until Dec. 13. Our annual Au Revoir Retirement Ceremonies are slated for Dec. 12.

Atlantic SIRE STAKES REPORT

Stunning Speed sets track record on Atlantic Breeders Crown Sunday

by Nicholas Oakes for Red Shores

Stunning Speed rewrote the track record book while Windemere Skye extended her perfect career to 24 victories Sunday afternoon (Oct. 4) during the Atlantic Breeders Crown Weekend of Champions at Red Shores Racetrack and Casino at the Charlottetown Driving Park.

The 14-dash program featured eight Atlantic Breeders Crown championship finals carrying $300,000 in purses. The Weekend of Champions was presented by the P.E.I. Standardbred Horse Owner's Association.

Stunning Speed ($3.20) delivered a record-setting performance in the $25,000 2-year-old trotting colt final in race 5 for trainer/driver Mike McGuigan. The Muscle Through It—Stunning Look colt commanded the mile through fractions of :29.1, :58.4, and 1:28.2 before drawing clear by 4½ lengths in 1:57.3. The clocking lowered the Charlottetown 2-year-old trotting colt record by a full second from Southwind Arturo's 1:58.3 standard set in 2021. Little Pond Stables of Little Pond and The Coles Stable of Charlottetown own Stunning Speed. Shoe Dog Speed (driven by Paul Langille) finished second with Hopthroughtit (Clare MacDonald) third.

Windemere Skye ($2.10) made it 24-straight victories with a commanding score in the $50,000 3-year-old pacing filly final in race 12. Marc Campbell sent the Earl Watts trainee to the front from post 7 and carved out splits of :27.2, :56.2, and 1:25 before closing in 28 seconds for a 1:53 victory. Always in full force (Ken Murphy) was 4¼ lengths back in second with Mattnificent Rose (Langille) third. Windemere Farms of Springvale and Matt Burke of Stratford own the Somewhere Fancy—Howmac Missy filly, now unbeaten in 12 starts this season after a perfect 12-race rookie campaign. She now sits just four races shy of the all-time pacing win streak of 28 straight wins co-held by Cam Fella and Firms Phantom.

Woodmere Rock It ($2.30) continued his undefeated season in the $50,000 2-year-old pacing colt final in race 10 to his 10th straight. Gilles Barrieau guided the Jamie Smith trained son of Tobago Cays—Musette Mindale through fractions of :27.4, :56.4, and 1:25.1 before stopping the clock in 1:54.2, 7¾ lengths ahead of Woodmere Dougal (Corey MacPherson). Woodmere Fergus (Jason Hughes) completed the triactor. The Stable Woodmere Rock It of Guelph, ON, owns the Woodmere Farms bred gelding.

The $50,000 2-year-old pacing filly final in race 8 went to Starship Daisy ($7.40) in 1:57.2 for Murphy and trainer Watts. The Somewhere Fancy—Romance In Camelot filly prevailed by a quarter-length over Lady Of Malice (Langille), with Ys Fancy Speed (Barrieau) third. Francis Poirier of Havre-aux-Maisons, QC, owns Starship Daisy. The victory helped Watts finish the afternoon with a training double.

Zero Two Sixty ($2.90) capped the championship action in the $50,000 3-year-old pacing colt final in race 14. Murphy worked the Sifroi Melanson trainee into contention from post 7 before wearing down pacesetter Shekhan (Redmond Doucet) by three-quarters-of-a-length in 1:53.2. Smilin With Lou (Adam Merner) was third. Ultimate Stable of Greater Lakeburn, NB, owns the Tobago Cays—J J Mistress gelding.

McGuigan also captured the $25,000 2-year-old trotting filly final in race 2 with Rockin Through It ($3.90). The Muscle Through It—Rockadero filly led throughout in 2:01.3, winning by seven lengths over Early Speed (Myles Heffernan, Sr.) and Howmac Limerick (Hughes). Josh MacDonald of Little Pond and The Coles Stable own the filly, who completed McGuigan's training and driving double.

Little Louis ($2.10) dominated the $25,000 3-year-old trotting colt final in race 4 for driver MacPherson and trainer Kuri White. The East Coast Captains of Cornwall owned and bred son of E L Rocket—Go With Her won by 8¼ lengths in 1:57.1. Hoponrocket (McGuigan) finished second with Howmac Prime Time (Campbell) third.

Emberlees Rocket ($10) upset the $25,000 3-year-old trotting filly final in race 7 for Campbell and trainer John Clarey. The E L Rocket—Malahide filly took command before the three-quarter pole and won by 2¾ lengths in 2:01 over Bonmati (MacPherson), with Dusty Lane Margo (Hughes) third. Mike Clarey of Montague owns and bred Emberlees Rocket.

Campbell had four driving victories, also winning with Western Artist ($21) in 1:57.1 for trainer Lenny Myers and owner Liam Myers of Stratford and Dj Mustang ($3.60) in 1:56 for trainer Saul Lanigan. Dj Mustang is owned by Saul and Peter Lanigan of Cambridge, Shane Esson of Moncton, NB, and Brady Doyle of Stratford.

Murphy completed a driving triple with Bettor Than Spring ($4.80) in 1:54.1 for trainer Tessa MacKinnon and owner Perry Burke of Grosse-Ile, QC.

There was a touching moment after race 6 when drivers, family, friends and members of the horse racing community formed the traditional memorial horseshoe in honor of longtime horseman Alex MacPhee. The ceremony included his horse Freight Air accompanied by family friend and trainer Neil Bambrick.

SHANGHAI WHISKEY GETS FOURTH STRAIGHT IN ATLANTIC BREEDERS CROWN CONSOLATION

Atlantic Breeders Crown Weekend kicked into high gear Saturday afternoon (Oct. 3) at Red Shores Racetrack and Casino at the Charlottetown Driving Park with four $15,000 consolation events highlighting the 12-dash program.

Shanghai Whiskey ($2.80) closed out the Atlantic Breeders Crown consolation action with a front-end victory in the $15,000 3-year-old pacing colt division in race 12. Marc Campbell put the Wade Myers trainee on the engine through fractions of :27.3, :57.3, and 1:26.3 before holding off Blazing Cays (driven by Darren Crowe) by a half-length in 1:55.2. Woodmere Mahomes (Gilles Barrieau) finished third. Myers of Charlottetown owns and bred the Shanghai Phil—Julep Hanover gelding who increased his seasonal earnings to $60,089.

Redland Abby ($10.90) captured the $15,000 Atlantic Breeders Crown two-year-old pacing filly consolation in race 3 for driver Jason Hughes and trainer Stephen Quinn. The Pang Shui filly was fourth early before advancing first-over and taking command around the final turn en route to a 1½-length victory in 1:58.3. Howmac Derry (Adam Merner) was second with Imafancyfilly (Corey MacPherson) third. Redland Abby is owned by John Quinn and Anna-Grace Quinn of Charlottetown and Tom Hollis of Truro, NS.

The 2-year-old pacing colt consolation went to Philndangerous ($8.40) in race 6 as Brodie MacPhee engineered the winning trip for trainer Tom Weatherbie. Philndangerous sat second behind Wilson Cassidy (Marc Campbell) through fractions of :27.3, :56.3, and 1:26 before prevailing by three-quarters-of-a-length in 1:57.1. Wilson Cassidy settled for second with This Guns For Hire (Paul Langille) third. The Shanghai Phil gelding is owned by Hal Smith of Pownal, Ian Smith of Stratford and Weatherbie of Charlottetown.

Elm Grove Uncannie ($2.40) was dominant in the $15,000 3-year-old pacing filly consolation in race 9. Merner sent the Joe Baxter trainee to the front and never looked back, cutting fractions of :28, :57.2, and 1:26.1 before opening up to win by 5¼ lengths in 1:55.3. Uptown Tonight (Myles Heffernan, Sr.) was second while Covered In Purple (Ken Murphy) completed the triactor. Elm Grove Uncannie is owned by Baxter of Kensington and Earith Riley of Summerside.

Campbell also visited the winner's circle with Mclovin ($2.20) in 1:55.2 for trainer James Perrot and Hunters Hero ($18.40) in 1:53.4 for trainer Landon Campbell.

Merner scored four driving victories on the program with Muttin N Web ($15.60) and Somewhere Wind ($10.90) from his own barn, Neptune Seelster ($5.40) for trainer Michael Gallant and the previously mentioned Elm Grove Uncannie.
