That's a wrap on the 24th year of Backstretch with Gordon

BACKSTRETCH WITH GORDON

with GORDON WATERSTONE

by Gordon Waterstone

Well, we almost made it. After a stretch of glorious weather in the Bluegrass, remnants of Hurricane Isaias resulted in much cooler temperatures and nearly all-day rain for the final day of the two-week Grand Circuit meet at The Red Mile last Saturday (Oct. 10). So instead of a perfect record for weather, Isaias came to town and spoiled it. And I'm just wondering: Do you know anybody named Isaias as I don't?

Today's column will put a bow on this year's 24th renewal of Backstretch With Gordon. I wish I could take full credit for the idea that got started back in 2003, but that all goes to back my former days at The Horseman And Fair World and ex-Boss Kathy, who asked me to head over to The Red Mile backstretch and simply write what I saw and did. For the past three years Backstretch has appeared in HRU, and I express my gratitude to Boss Dave for that. And to HRU associate editor Debbie Little as she did a lot of the work getting my words on these pages.

Speaking of ex-Boss Kathy, I invited her to join me for lunch in The Red Mile clubhouse for the closing-day program. Red Mile director of sponsorships Emily Ratcliff had graciously offered me lunch during the meet, and I pointed to the second Saturday card when I saw the gloomy forecast. I am glad ex-Boss Kathy accepted my offer as I wasn't sure who would be Plan B.

I suppose Nick Salvi would have been next in line, but I already pay him enough as my co-agent along with Amy Hollar. Plan C probably would have been Michael Carter, but in checking with Elizabeth Lewis-House, she told me I'd have to rent Michael for the day, but her price was too high.

My route to the racetrack last Saturday took me past Commonwealth Stadium, where UK had a 7 p.m. kickoff set against LSU. I knew with the drizzly weather that tailgating would be light, and as a result traffic would be light, and I was correct.

After parking my car – it was slightly more than an hour to post so I got a great parking spot on concrete and not on the wet grass – I walked up to the grandstand. I could hear the sounds of the National Anthem being sung, and I looked over and adjacent to the clubhouse doors I saw what I assumed were the four men who would be doing the honors. I had to laugh a bit though as they were all huddled into the corner facing the wall as they went through their rehearsal, so all I could see was their behinds.

My first stop was to see Art at the Bow River display booth on the main floor of the grandstand. Earlier Saturday morning Joe Holloway called and asked if I could pick up a trophy that Harness Racing Museum and Hall of Fame director Janet Terhune had left for him. It was Jenna's Beach Boy's trophy for his induction into the Hall of Fame last July. I reminded Art that the date for the next Dan Patch Awards dinner at Rosen Shingle Creek in Florida will be Feb. 21, 2027.

I then made my way up to the main office to get a program from Bessie. I also asked Bessie if I could store the box containing Jenna's HOF trophy behind her desk, and she obliged. I figured instead of traipsing back to my car in the rain I'd just keep the box there until after the races. While in the office I bumped into that same person who is still requesting anonymity so once again I am obliging those wishes.

I headed for the clubhouse but I saw Art Zubrod and his wife, Leah Cheverie standing under the overhang so they could stay dry. We talked for a few minutes and then were joined by famed saddlebred horseman Merrill Murray.

I made my way to the clubhouse and got to my table around 12:45, just as the four singers made their way to the track to perform. The rain had picked up a bit and I could see the guys squinting their eyes as the rain hit their faces as they sang away. I learned later from Emily that the group was the Superfecta Quartet as part of the Kentuckiana Men's Choir. They not only sang a great Star Spangled Banner, but they segued into a nice rendition of My Old Kentucky Home.

Ex-Boss Kathy, who earlier Saturday was at the Stable of Memories for the Harness Horse Youth Foundation's 50th Anniversary celebration, arrived just before the first race hit the track. We chatted for a few minutes before hitting the buffet table. Offerings included salad, shrimp cocktail, fried chicken, pot roast, and chicken pot pie. My trip to the food tables was delayed a second as the track mascot (a horse) walked up and waved, but I told the horse that my stomach comes first so he'll have to get back with me. The horse gave me a high-five as I walked away.

Jeff Gural and his wife, Paula, were at a table just below ours and he came over to talk for a few minutes. Jeff was in good mood, which likely got better shortly after when Seven Grand, who he is co-owner of, finished second in a Bluegrass 3YOCT division. And I'm sure Jeff's smile got even bigger a bit later when Isabella Bi, who he is co-owner of, won a Bluegrass 3YOFT split.

The Weaver Bruscelli group were also at a table below us, as were the Diamond Creek people. Diamond Creek's Caroline Vazquez walked by a couple of times and later in the program she stopped to talk for a few minutes. Diamond Creek has been a very generous sponsor for USHWA's Dan Patch Awards through the years so just as I did with Bow River Art, I filled Caroline in on the details of the upcoming event.

Yesterday I saw a price of $4.09 for regular and $6.19 for diesel.*

I will have to say that with the weather, the clubhouse was full. But service didn't miss a beat, and I have to give credit to Emily and her sister Amanda Gaskin for helping out as they were both running around filling water glasses and bussing tables.

While the windows in the dining room were open at the start of the card, it was around the fifth race when the rain and wind picked up so they had to be closed. The track was a bit muddy throughout the day (nice work Trackman Dan and Greg and crew), and I have to give kudos to owner Frank Baldachino who, not wanting to get too dirty, took off his shoes and socks and went barefoot to get to the winner's circle following Al Papi's win in the curtain close race that was the $363,000 Tattersalls 3YOCP.

And no, "Frank Baldachino is going shoeless" was not announced by Gabe Prewitt.

Trainer Ron Burke's win with Al Papi (driven by Yannick Gingras) and third-place finish with Melillo (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) sent his career earnings past the $400-million mark.

Also honored during the card as the meet's leading driver and trainer were Dexter Dunn and Marcus Melander, respectively. The pair should be unanimous winners of their respective Dan Patch Awards when announced later this year. The Red Mile also recognized during the card longtime paddock judge Mike Stone.

On my way out I made a stop in the office to pick up the trophy box, and judges Jeff James and Dave Magee came through. So did Gabe Prewitt. I talked to all three for a couple of minutes, which delayed me leaving the track. My dinner plans were scratched late so I was just planning on heading home to watch the UK/LSU football game.

I paid dearly for not leaving the track immediately. I made the left turn onto Red Mile Road pretty easy, but the line was long approaching Broadway. The light changed to red when I was about five cars back, and then police cars came from everywhere to block the intersection. A couple of officers jumped out of their cars to direct traffic. They let cars coming inbound from downtown continue on and on, and I wasn't sure what was happening.

Eventually a group of police cars and motorcycles with flashing lights came to the intersection, where they all made a left turn. I admit I was getting a bit impatient as the delay was up to 10 minutes. And then, behind all the flashing lights, came seven buses. They were the buses bringing the LSU football team and cheerleaders, among others, to Commonwealth Stadium. I thought to myself that with the game starting at 7 p.m. and it was now shortly after 5, the team was arriving slightly less than two hours before kickoff?

As you all know by now, UK upset 10th-ranked LSU in overtime 35-34, which sent much of the 60,000 in attendance onto the field in celebration. And as expected with a big victory, students spilled onto the streets where I'm sure a couch or two were burned. By the way, the SEC fined UK $500,000 for the on-field celebration.

Back to racing. And back to this being the finale for this year. Besides the great weather, walking around the backstretch was nice this year as several barns have undergone renovations.

Thanks has to go to HRU for everything, and thanks to my sponsors, Steve and Cindy Stewart's Hunterton Farm/Hunterton Sales Agency (the leading consignors by total gross dollars at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale) for their support. And thanks to my agents Nick Salvi and Amy Hollar for negotiating my contract.

And thanks to all the readers of Backstretch With Gordon. A lot of people came up to me this year and mentioned the column and I am sincerely appreciative of all the kind words. That list includes Red Mile president/CEO Joe Costa, who told me Saturday in the dining room that he loves reading the column as it's his main source of finding out info of what's going on.

Finally, the weather did another reversal these past few days after the meet as we reached the mid-80s. I can sign off by telling you that prices have plummeted a few pennies the past few days. Yesterday I saw a price of $4.09 for regular and $6.19 for diesel.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Facebook made Willow Castellán's horse dream come true

by Chris Lomon

Willow Castellán always wanted to work with horses.

Growing up on her family farm in Fergus, a picturesque and historic town in Wellington County about a 90-minute drive from Toronto, she was surrounded by animals. There were creatures great and small everywhere she looked, but there was one notable exception.

There were no horses.

"We had just about every type of animal except horses," Castellán said. "Of course, I wanted to work with horses, so I looked at finding ways to make that a reality."

She never imagined that a social media post would be the thing that finally brought her childhood dream to life or that it would lead her into the world of standardbred racing.

"I went on Facebook looking for a job and noticed that Chirs Matthews [longtime assistant trainer to Gregg McNair] posted a job, so I messaged him and we set up a time to meet," she said.

Castellán's first order of business ahead of the meeting was to do some homework.

She was aware that standardbred racing existed, but knew little more about it.

"Before I messaged Chris, I didn't know much about the industry at all," Castellán said. "I knew horse racing existed, but at that time, I didn't know how awesome it was. I didn't grow up knowing anyone in the business."

Castellán, then 18, was understandably nervous ahead of the interview.

Those emotions were momentarily heightened when she started walking the property with Matthews.

"When Chris was showing me around the farm, he showed me a harness," she said. "I remember looking at it, thinking, 'I am never going to figure this out.' And he said, 'Don't worry, you'll get it soon enough.' I wasn't so sure, but it ended up being simpler than I thought."

Apprehension and anxiousness soon gave way to a calm and collected demeanor.

Castellán landed the job.

"Honestly, a lot of it blew me away," she said. "One of my first horses was a stud. I was petrified. I had no idea that people worked with studs. But he was the sweetest horse ever. His name is Enforcer and I just bonded with him right away."

"I remember my first few days, they would tell me, 'Just walk that horse.' I thought, 'I get to walk this horse?' It was crazy, but it has become such a normal part of my life now."

Three years after that first day on the farm, Castellan has become a valued member of the McNair operation, tasked with caring for horses ranging from overnight pacers and trotters to stakes-caliber talent.

One of her favorites is Aceandaten, a 2-year-old daughter of Cattlewash out of the He's Watching mare Dreamin Girl, who won her OSS Gold leg on Oct. 3 and was a hard-charging second in the OSS Gold Super Final on Oct. 10.

The emerging talent, who is owned by Willow's father, Jason Castellan, has a big presence in the barn.

"I love her so much," Willow said. "She is my princess. She has a really big personality and she is definitely not the easiest horse to look after. That might be partially my fault because I spoil her and let her get away with a little too much."

"There has always been something about a sassy pacing filly that I love. She has come a long way this season. We have put a lot of work into her. The whole team has done a lot with her, so it's nice to see all that teamwork pay off."

The OSS Gold leg triumph is a treasured career highlight.

"I was on cloud nine," Willow said. "I called all my friends after. My mom wasn't able to make it, but she was cheering me on from home and called to congratulate me. Having my grandparents and my dad in the winner's circle was really special, along with Gregg, Doug, and Chris - it was so special to me."

"I have probably watched that race 15 times. I was so proud of her."

Willow has asked her father for one promise regarding Aceandaten.

"I told my dad probably a million times that he can never sell her - she is mine forever," Willow said. "We'll build her a big paddock and she's coming home with me."

Then there is Atlas Ross, a son of Big Jim out of the Artsplace mare Kisskissbangbang, owned by Jim Ross.

The bay colt's personality is the opposite of his barnmate Aceandaten.

"Atlas Ross, he is just like a little puppy dog," Willow said. "I love him, too. He has been amazing. Winning with him this year has been incredible as well."

"I like looking after Jim Ross's horses. There is nothing better than an owner who loves his horses and truly cares. He comes out to the farm to see his horses, and you can see how happy he is to be around them. The first horse I fell in love with was one he owned, Wicked Jenny. She wasn't much of a racehorse, but he loves her the same as he does all his horses."

As for her career path, Willow isn't certain what the future holds. There is one guarantee, however.

"I adore the horses and I can't see myself not having them in my life. I probably won't be a caretaker forever. It's a lot of work and outside of the world, I consider myself a big people person. I value my family and friends. Working so much, I don't get to spend as much time as I'd like with my grandparents, for example, which is tough."

— Willow Castellan

"I adore the horses and I can't see myself not having them in my life," she said. "I probably won't be a caretaker forever. It's a lot of work and outside of the world, I consider myself a big people person. I value my family and friends. Working so much, I don't get to spend as much time as I'd like with my grandparents, for example, which is tough."

"I am so lucky to have a supportive family. They all love coming to watch the races. My nanna knows when my horses are in before I do."

When it comes to the most rewarding part of the job - she has a long list to draw from - Willow points to the family-like atmosphere she has come to know over the past three years.

"The McNair team welcomed me with open arms, and I met some of my best friends through racing," she said. "Chris Matthews and his daughter Nyssa are wonderful. Luisa Surette is like a second mom to me. She is super special to me."

It's one of many reasons why Willow is grateful that her dream of one day working with horses became a reality - even if it wasn't exactly how she envisaged.

"I consider myself one of the luckiest girls in the world," she said.

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Iceberg Lp powers to Italian Derby victory

by Thomas Hedlund

Despite racing three-wide for much of the final 900 meters, Iceberg Lp proved strongest in the stretch to capture Sunday's (Oct. 11) $900,000 Italian Derby at Turin.

Andrea Guzzinati launched Iceberg Lp (Face Time Bourbon—Beautiful Lp) from third-over with 900 meters remaining. The colt was able to get a brief breather around the final turn before Guzzinati asked him for his best in the stretch.

Il Trio Jet (Wishing Stone) fought bravely and resisted for a long time, but ultimately had to settle for second.

Ideal Turdance (El Ideal) finished third, while Iambellesi Tq (El Ideal) was trapped in the pocket with plenty left and finished fifth.

Iceberg Lp stopped the clock in a 1:57.1 mile rate for 2,100 meters, recording his seventh victory in 15 career starts.

The 3-year-old colt is trained by Walter Zanetti, who has seen his horse develop into a major player in the Italian division.

Iceberg Lp was a massive 143-1 outsider when he won his Italian Derby elimination, but bettors had considerably more confidence in him Sunday, sending him off at approximately 10-1. Last year, Iceberg Lp showed promise by winning an elimination of the €20,900 Anact Stakes Plus before finishing fifth in the Group 1 final.

Sunday's victory was by far the biggest of his career.

ISCHIA JOY WINS OAKS DEL TROTTO THE HARD WAY

Ischia Joy did it the hard way in Sunday's $300,000 Oaks del Trotto for 3-year-old fillies at Turin.

After sitting third-over early, Francesco Facci moved Ischia Joy (Mister J.P.—Joy) first-over with a little more than one lap remaining.

Antonio Di Nardo had taken Ingrid Am to the lead early, and the pacesetter continued to fight when Ischia Joy came calling in the stretch. But Ischia Joy kept grinding away and finally took command shortly before the wire, winning in a 1:56.1 mile rate.

Gerard Forni

Iceberg Lp (Andrea Guzzinati) winning the $900,000 Italian Derby on Sunday at Turin.

“Today [Frank Gio] was exceptionally strong [winning the UET Elite Circuit final], but he’s simply a champion. And we have to remember that he’s still a young horse compared with many of these rivals.”

— Matthieu Abrivard

The filly is trained by Erik Bondo and had previously gained valuable experience racing in France, although without producing any major victories. She finished seventh in the semi-classic Prix Roquépine and also seventh in the Group 3 Prix d'Istres.

The Oaks del Trotto victory represents a major breakthrough and is easily the biggest win of her career.

FRAGOLINO ROSSO CRUSHES RIVALS IN EUROPEAN DERBY

Mamma mia!

That was the reaction from the Italian commentators as Fragolino Rosso stormed past local favorite Guglielmo Jet in the stretch of Sunday's $440,000 Grand Prix de l'U.E.T. at Vinovo in Turin.

For Robin Bakker and trainer Paul Hagoort, the European Derby became another unforgettable triumph. Fragolino Rosso (Booster Winner) is becoming accustomed to winning Europe's biggest races. After capturing the German Derby earlier this season, the German-bred colt added the European Derby for 4-year-olds with a performance that further established him among the best of his generation. And he certainly didn't get anything for free.

Bakker was unable to find a position in the outer flow after the start and was forced to race three-wide, hoping eventually to reach the outside of leader Guglielmo Jet. Alessandro Gocciadoro had sent Guglielmo Jet (Maharajah) away sharply, holding off both Maestro Vrie and Swedish Derby winner Mellby Narrow in the early battle. Maestro Vrie broke stride while fighting for the lead. Milady Josselyn, driven by Adrian Kolgjini, also left quickly on the inside, but Kolgjini waved Gocciadoro through after 250 meters, allowing Guglielmo Jet to take command. Mellby Narrow was slightly interfered with by Maestro Vrie, just enough to force Daniel Wäjersten to abandon his early attempt for the lead. After 400 meters, Wäjersten moved his colt back to the outside, looking to get ahead of Fragolino Rosso, who was still parked three-wide.

The pace was fierce, and Mellby Narrow paid a price for the effort required to reach the first-over position. After eventually finding second-over cover, he had little left to offer in the stretch. But Fragolino Rosso had endured an even more demanding trip.

He was forced to use considerable energy before finally reaching the outside of Guglielmo Jet.

Around the final turn, the leading pair appeared ready to draw away from the rest of the field. Guglielmo Jet wasn't trotting perfectly, but Gocciadoro managed to open a couple of lengths on the favorite turning for home. For a moment, the Italian colt looked like the winner. Then Fragolino Rosso came again.

Bakker's colt dug deep, gradually reeled in Guglielmo Jet and took command in the stretch. As Fragolino Rosso went past, Guglielmo Jet broke stride and was disqualified.

Fragolino Rosso captured the European Derby in a 1:54.3 mile rate for 2,100 meters.

Ginger Gio (Face Time Bourbon), trained by Sébastien Guarato, inherited second following Guglielmo Jet's disqualification.

The victory extended Fragolino Rosso's remarkable winning streak to 12 consecutive races. He can now call himself a two-time Derby champion, having previously won the €278,760 German Derby in a record 1:54 mile rate for 1,900 meters.

FRANK GIO STUNS DON FANUCCI ZET IN UET ELITE CIRCUIT FINAL

For the second consecutive year, Don Fanucci Zet appeared headed for victory in the $550,000 UET Elite Circuit final at Turin. But an extraordinary performance from Frank Gio denied the Swedish star. Sunday's final was a fiercely contested affair, particularly during the opening 600 meters. Don Fanucci Zet (Hard Livin) reached the lead relatively easily, with Daim Brodda and Frank Gio (Face Time Bourbon) both leaving aggressively from outside posts.

Daim Brodda broke after approximately 100 meters, but Matthieu Abrivard, driving the Sébastien Guarato-trained Frank Gio, had no intention of allowing Don Fanucci Zet an easy trip. After 400 meters, Frank Gio launched a powerful challenge for the lead. Don Fanucci Zet fought him off, and Abrivard eventually backed into the pocket.

“I’ve driven a great many very good horses, and I’m so tired of having to rank them against each other. I’ve also had horses who performed exceptionally well at 2, 3, and 4. No, I don’t want to rank them. But [Menza] has to be one of the better ones. I certainly think he is.”

— Birger Jørgensen

But he didn’t stay there long. With 1,300 meters remaining, Abrivard elected to leave the pocket and move behind Go On Boy (Password) instead.

It seemed a risky decision at the time. But with 500 meters to go, it became obvious that Frank Gio had something special left. He came after Don Fanucci Zet again, applying serious pressure to the Swedish leader. Don Fanucci Zet appeared to have regained control at the top of the stretch, but Frank Gio simply refused to give up. Not only did he hold off Go On Boy’s challenge, he also managed to get past Don Fanucci Zet shortly before the wire.

Frank Gio won in a 1:55.3 mile rate for 2,100 meters.

“Today he was exceptionally strong, but he’s simply a champion,” Abrivard said afterward. “And we have to remember that he’s still a young horse compared with many of these rivals.”

Trainer Sébastien Guarato was brief in his post-race interview in front of the Turin crowd, but echoed Abrivard’s assessment. Frank Gio, he said, is a champion.

Go On Boy finished a narrowly beaten second, just ahead of Don Fanucci Zet in third.

Remarkably, Sunday’s triumph was Frank Gio’s first victory of the season. His 2025 campaign had included victories in the €300,000 Prix Ourasi, €120,000 Prix Charles Tiercelin, and €90,000 Prix de Milan. As a 3-year-old, Frank Gio captured the Group 1 €154,000 Gran Premio Carlo Marangoni and the €120,000 Prix Pierre Plazen at Vincennes. He also finished second in the Italian Derby.

Although he had been winless this season, his performances had been anything but disappointing. In January, he finished fourth in the Prix d’Amérique. In May, he was runner-up to Free Time Jepson in the Lotteria at Naples, and in September he finished third in the Grand Prix de Wallonie at Mons. On Sunday, everything came together. And it took one of the most remarkable performances of the European season to defeat Don Fanucci Zet and Go On Boy.

MENZA MAKES IT 15 WINS IN 16 STARTS

Menza continues to dominate Denmark’s 3-year-old division.

On Sunday (Oct. 11), the Gordon Dahl-trained son of Ready Express recorded his 15th victory in just 16 career starts with a wire-to-wire triumph in the $165,000 Danish Trotting Kriterium.

Birger Jørgensen sent Menza straight to the lead when the gate released the field, and for much of the race there was little drama. But the finish turned out to be considerably more exciting than expected. Magic Speed (Maharajah) had enjoyed a perfect pocket trip, and when Stefan Persson tipped him to the outside at the top of the stretch, he began closing on the heavy favorite.

Menza responded, but this time he had to dig deep. The favorite managed to hold off Magic Speed, winning in a 1:58.2 mile rate for 2,500 meters.

“Today I didn’t have many options out there,” Jørgensen said. “Once he grabs the bit, I have a hard time getting him to relax again, and that means he sometimes uses his energy a little too early. You could actually see that toward the end.”

“He does what he can, and I don’t think either of us did very much. Both Stefan Persson and I were just hoping we’d reach the wire first, but fortunately I came out on top.”

Jørgensen has driven countless outstanding horses during his long career, but he remains reluctant to compare Menza with the best of them.

“I’ve driven a great many very good horses, and I’m so tired of having to rank them against each other,” he said. “I’ve also had horses who performed exceptionally well at 2, 3, and 4.

“No, I don’t want to rank them. But he has to be one of the better ones. I certainly think he is.”

THE DOWN UNDER DIARY

with ADAM HAMILTON

Harness racing has been a blessing for the 'Pacing Priest'

by Adam Hamilton

They call him the "Pacing Priest" and for good reason.

Father Brian Glasheen's life has been spent across his two passions, the church and the racetrack.

It was almost 50 years ago when renowned scribe Danny Power dubbed Glasheen the "Pacing Priest" in a story in the now defunct Sporting Globe paper. It stuck and Glasheen, who lives in Bacchus Marsh about an hour west of Melbourne, wears the moniker like a badge of honor.

"I was born into harness racing and it is 55 years since I was ordained," Glasheen said. "They've been intertwined most of my life."

"I couldn't count the number of harness racing people I've baptized, married or done funerals for.

"Harness racing has been as much a part of my life as the church has and there's never been an issue mixing the two.

"I enjoy having a bet, too, I've never been wrapped over the knuckles or called in by the archbishop.

"I'd say it's part of the Irish culture to enjoy the horses and have a bet if you're a Catholic Priest."

It was Glasheen's grandfather, Paddy, who started the family involvement in harness racing in the early 1900s.

It is 91 years since Paddy, who was a professional trainer/driver, won the Victoria Trotting Derby at the old Ascot track in Victoria with Dixie Globe.

Brian is trying to win the same race, but for pacers, with his latest horse, New Zealand import Nymbal at Melton on Saturday.

Nymbal qualified for the Group 1 final with a terrific second in his heat.

He is potentially Brian's best horse yet, although his other current star Triple Eight will take some topping.

Nymbal's 10 Australian starts for trainer/driver Robbie Morris have netted five wins, two seconds, and a third.

"He also ran fourth in the Queensland Derby, which may have been his best run," Brian said. "He had nowhere to go and was climbing all over them at the finish. He was so unlucky."

Paddy Glasheen trained and drove Dixie Globe to victory in the 1935 Vic Trotting Derby at Ascot.

“It was just [my grandfather] Paddy who loved the horses, my father John, and his two brothers Jim and Ted, were also hobby trainers. I got my love of the sport from them, but becoming a priest is something I felt I got the call to do. I wanted to help people, and God wanted me to do it, too.”

— Father Brian Glasheen

Brian revealed he had the marvelous old veteran Triple Eight, who is still racing as a rising 12-year-old, to thank for taking a share in Nymbal earlier this year.

“He [Triple Eight] is literally the gift that keeps giving,” he said. “Some of the winnings from Triple Eight have been left in a kitty and we paid for the share in Nymbal out of that a few months ago.”

It’s more than seven years since Brian was invited out to dinner by friends Shannon Nixon, Joel Watson, and Shane Cook and given a share in Triple Eight.

“We finished eating, they slid some paperwork in front of me, and asked me to sign it,” Brian said. “I asked what it was and they told me they were giving me a share in Triple Eight for free because I’d been such a part of all their lives. I’d married them and baptized all their kids.

“It was such a lovely thing to do and what a thrill Triple Eight has given us all for so many years now.

“He’s been to a few Inter Dominions, run in four Hunter Cups, and won a Group 1 race [the Caduceus Classic] as well.”

The American Ideal gelding has raced 196 times for 33 wins, 54 placings, and is tantalizingly close to topping $1 million in prize money at $973,956.

Trainer Jess Tubbs unashamedly calls him her stable favorite.

“Every time we think it might be time to retire him, he’ll come out and win or run a huge race and basically tell us he’s not ready yet,” Tubbs said.

Brian said his latest win at Melton on Aug. 22 is a prime example.

“Shannon said he thought it was time going into that race, but then they ran it to suit him and he stormed home for another win,” Brian said.

“We know the end is close, but nobody knows him better than Jess and she says he still enjoys the training and racing as much as he ever has.

“With a bit of luck, I might have both of them racing on the same [Derby final] night.”

Brian also hopes Nymbal might give him another Inter Dominion runner.

Triple Eight contested three of them — Auckland (2019), Sydney (2021), and Melbourne (2022) — being placed in three heats and contesting two finals, the best an eighth placing in Auckland.

Being Down Under’s most iconic race, the Inter Dominion has been a staple diet for Brian.

“I’ve been to more than 50,” he said. “The first was back in 1950 at the Melbourne Showgrounds. Dad [John] let me go to the heats, but not the final because the crowds were so big in those days, he thought I might be crushed.”

“I was born into harness racing and it is 55 years since I was ordained. They’ve been intertwined most of my life. I couldn’t count the number of harness racing people I’ve baptized, married or done funerals for. Harness racing has been as much a part of my life as the church has and there’s never been an issue mixing the two. I enjoy having a bet, too, I’ve never been wrapped over the knuckles or called in by the archbishop. I’d say it’s part of the Irish culture to enjoy the horses and have a bet if you’re a Catholic Priest.”

— Father Brian Glasheen

He’s still going each year now.

“I’ve been to the past two in Brisbane and driven myself up,” Brian said.

Remarkable given it’s almost a 20-hour drive one way from Melbourne to Brisbane and Brian turns 88 on Oct. 23.

“I take my time,” he said. “It’s a chance to do some stopovers and stay with friends I’ve made over the years. I’ll do the drive over about four days.”

That desire to travel also goes back to his grandfather, Paddy, who took the best horse he trained from Victoria to Auckland in New Zealand by boat in “1921 or 1922” and won the Otahuhu Cup, beating New Zealand’s best pacers, on a grass track.

“It’s unthinkable now to go all the way over on a boat but the race was worth the equivalent of about $500,000 in today’s money,” Brian said.

“The horse was Grand Voyager, who became a Hall of Famer, and won 35 races.

“It was just Paddy who loved the horses, my father John, and his two brothers Jim and Ted, were also hobby trainers.

“I got my love of the sport from them, but becoming a priest is something I felt I got the call to do. I wanted to help people, and God wanted me to do it, too.”

But while he waited for admission to seminary school, Brian thrilled his family when he got his driver’s license.

“I only had about 10 race drives but won my first drive on a trotter called San Adios at the old Healsville track,” he said. “I got some boasting rights that day because dad and the great Gordon Rothacker [champion driver of the time] had driven her a few times without winning.”

Brian always felt the mighty Cardigan Bay was the best horse he had seen but admits Blacks A Fake and now Leap To Fame are right up with him.

“I never thought I’d see one quite like Cardigan Bay again, but I have,” he said. “Blacks A Fake’s career was incredible; we’ll never see another horse run in six Inter Dominion finals for four wins and two seconds.

“And now Leap To Fame comes along and does things no other horse has done. He might be the best of them all.

“I’ll always have a special spot for the great New Zealand mare Blossom Lady, too. For a mare to beat the boys in two Hunter Cups, along with everything else she did, was amazing.”

Despite age, Brian is still setting himself goals in racing.

“I’ve just stopped breeding horses, but have two youngsters left from my mare Be Not Afraid... a 2-year-old by Captain Crunch and a yearling by Rocknroll Hanover,” he said.

“I’d love one of them to become a really nice horse. There’s something special about breeding them yourself.”

Until then, Brian’s sights are firmly on Nymbal’s Victoria Derby quest and enjoying the twilight of Triple Eight’s remarkable career.

Breeders Crown elimination fields set

by Hambletonian Society

Eldorado Scioto Downs will play host to eliminations for the $8 million Grade 1 Breeders Crown this weekend, and there will be no shortage of past champions and up-and-coming stars in action over the two-days of competition.

Eight of last year's Breeders Crown titlists will race on Saturday (Oct. 17) when Scioto Downs hosts eliminations for the 3-year-old and open events. One night earlier, Friday's elims for 2-year-olds will include undefeated male pacer Shalom Hanover, who is ranked No. 6 in the Hambletonian Society/Breeders Crown poll, as well as three Grade 1 stakes-winners: filly trotter Athena's Girl, colt pacer Eastie Boy, and colt trotter Wrong Sounds Right.

Eliminations will be required for 10 of the 12 Breeders Crown events, with the 2-Year-Old Filly Pace and the Mare Trot going directly to their finals.

All elimination purses are $25,000. Elimination winners, as well as "Win and You're In" 2-year-old filly trotter Birr Castle (who advanced directly to her final thanks to winning the Grade 1 Jim Doherty Memorial), will draw for post positions 1 through 6 in their respective finals. All other finalists will be placed in an open draw for the remaining post positions.

First-race post time is 6 p.m. (EDT) both Friday and Saturday at Scioto Downs.

Following is a brief overview of the 10 Breeders Crown events with eliminations this weekend.

FRIDAY NIGHT

Two eliminations will be contested in each of Friday's three events for 2-year-olds. For the freshman male trotters and male pacers, the top-four finishers from each elim plus the fifth-place finisher with the highest seasonal earnings will advance to their respective finals. For the 2-year-old filly trotters, the top-four finishers in each elim will advance to join Birr Castle in the final. All 2-year-old finals have a purse of $700,000 and will be held Oct. 23.

2-YEAR-OLD COLT AND GELDING TROT

Fourteen horses were entered, with Wrong Sounds Right drawing into the second of two eliminations. He is the season's richest 2-year-old male trotter, with $586,250 in earnings, and co-fastest freshman male trotter in history thanks to his 1:51.1 victory in the Mohawk Million on Sept. 26 at Woodbine Mohawk Park. The Jim Campbell trainee will leave from post 1 Friday with Todd McCarthy in the sulky. Graded-stakes winner Yankee Boss (post 4, Tim Tetrick, Åke Svanstedt) also is in the second elim.

Wrong Sounds Right heads to the Breeders Crown with five wins in his past six starts. His only setback was a second-place finish behind Lifetime Dreamer in the New Jersey Sire Stakes championship on Aug. 8 at The Meadowlands. Lifetime Dreamer's winning time was 1:51.1, also equaling the world record for a 2-year-old male trotter. He will start from post 2 in the first elim with Yannick Gingras listed to drive for Svanstedt. Graded-stakes winners Special Day, Whateverittakes As, Presidente, and Access Now also are in the field.

2-YEAR-OLD COLT AND GELDING PACE

Sixteen horses were entered, with Shalom Hanover (post 2, Louis-Philippe Roy, Dr. Ian Moore) drawing into the second elimination. The multiple graded-stakes winner is seven-for-seven this year. The elim also includes Starstruck Dreamer (post 4, Todd McCarthy, Noel Daley), who is this season's fastest freshman male pacer – 1:48.4 – and lost to Shalom Hanover by a head in the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes championship last month for his only loss in six races.

Metro Pace winner Eastie Boy (post 2, Ronnie Wrenn, Jr., Ron Burke) is in the first elimination along with graded-stakes winners Mascarpone (post 6, Scott Zeron, Dr. Ian Moore) and Blazin Lou (post 8, Dexter Dunn, Tony Dinges).

2-YEAR-OLD FILLY TROT

Seventeen horses were entered, with Peaceful Way winner Athena's Girl (post 3, Dexter Dunn, Marcus Melander) landing in the second elimination. The field also includes graded-stakes winner Climatic Hanover (post 8, Yannick Gingras, Lucas Wallin).

The first elimination includes this season's fastest freshman trotting filly Kissme Ifyoucan (post 4, Austin Hanners, Todd Luther), who has a mark of 1:51.4. She was runner-up in the Ohio Sires Stakes championship for 2-year-old filly trotters to Blue Ranger (post 2, Dunn, Melander). The field also includes graded-stakes winner Orinoco (post 3, Gingras, Åke Svanstedt), who was second to Birr Castle in the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes championship and will now try to join her in the Breeders Crown final.

SATURDAY NIGHT

Two eliminations will be contested in the events for 3-year-old male trotters, 3-year-old male pacers, 3-year-old filly pacers, and the Open Pace. The top-four finishers from each elim plus the fifth-place finisher with the highest seasonal earnings will advance to their respective finals. There will be three elims for 3-year-old filly trotters, with the top-three from each advancing to the final. The purses for all 3-year-old finals will be $664,500 and the Open Pace is $662,000.

There will be single eliminations for both the Open Trot (the connections of Super Chapter and On To Norway accepted byes based on earnings) and Mare Pace (Tarapasta and Unreasonable accepted byes), with the top-seven finishers advancing to their respective finals. The purse for the Open Trot final is $600,000 and for the Mare Pace it is $443,000. The Mare Trot (no elims) has a final purse of $400,000.

3-YEAR-OLD COLT AND GELDING PACE

Thirteen horses were entered and divided into two eliminations. Beau Jangles, who won the Breeders Crown last year on his way to Horse of the Year honors in the U.S. and Canada, will start from post 1 in the first of two eliminations. James MacDonald will be in the sulky for trainer Dr. Ian Moore. The elim also features Redland Rocket Man, who will enter with a four-race winning streak that includes the Little Brown Jug. He will leave from post 5 with Jody Jamieson driving for John Pentland. Adios winner Al Papi will go from post 7 for trainer Ron Burke, with Yannick Gingras listed to drive.

In the second elimination, Brandon Blvd, ranked No. 2 in the sport's Top 10 poll, will start from post 3 with Dexter Dunn driving for Andrew Harris. He has won five graded stakes this year, including the Meadowlands Pace. North America Cup winner Odds On Mr Mamba will leave from post 6 for trainer Melanie Wrenn and graded-stakes winner Melillo will start from post 4 with Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. listed to drive for Burke.

3-YEAR-OLD COLT AND GELDING TROT

Seventeen horses were entered, with defending champion Spencer Hanover landing in the second elimination for driver Jason Bartlett and trainer Marcus Melander. He will leave from post 6. That field also includes Kentucky Futurity and Canadian Trotting Classic winner Nix Nacken (post 8, Scott Zeron, Melander) and Hambletonian runner-up Big Ranger (post 2, Tim Tetrick, Anette Lorentzon).

The first elimination features Hambletonian winner Apex (post 3, Dunn, Melander), Yonkers Trot winner Inexpressable (post 4, Zeron, Lucas Wallin) and supplemental entry Strobe Lite (post 1, Louis-Philippe Roy, Benoit Baillargeon).

3-YEAR-OLD FILLY PACE

Fifteen horses were entered, with returning champion Loua Dipa, a two-time Grade 1 winner this season, drawing post 8 for driver Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. and trainer Ron Burke in the first elimination. Graded-stakes winner Be Perfect BG (post 7, Dexter Dunn, Anthony Beaton) also is in the elim.

The second elimination includes multiple graded-stakes winners Sangria Summer (post 4, James MacDonald, Luc Blais) and Topville Lucky (post 6, Todd McCarthy, Andrew Harris) as well as supplemental entry Miss Jum Jabber (post 5, Andrew McCarthy, Brett Pelling).

3-YEAR-OLD FILLY TROT

Twenty horses were entered, creating the only three-elimination event. The third elimination will include defending champion Storybook Love (post 2, Todd Ratchford, Matt Bax), Kentucky Filly Futurity winner She's Moni (post 7, Yannick Gingras, Nancy Takter), and Elegantimage winner Nuance (post 1, James MacDonald, Marcus Melander).

Hambletonian Oaks winner Nezuko Kamado S (post 3, Scott Zeron, Melander) will go in the first elimination. Delmonica Hanover winner Victorianas Secret (post 3, Ronnie Wrenn, Jr., Vernon Beachy) and supplemental entry Little Road (post 1, Brady Brown, Roger Hammer) are in the second.

OPEN PACE

Fourteen horses were entered, with last year's winner Ervin Hanover getting post 2 for driver Dexter Dunn and trainer David Menary in the second elimination. The field

OPEN TROT

Last year's winner French Wine (post 3, Jason Bartlett, Nancy Taker) was among the 11 horses entered and will look to join bye recipients Super Chapter and On To Norway in the final. The elim also features 2025 Dan Patch Award Trotter of the Year Lexus Kody (post 6, Yannick Gingras, Ron Burke) and O'Brien Award winner Emoticon Legacy (post 2, Bob McClure, Luc Blais).

MARE PACE

Always B Naughty (post 9, Austin Hanners, Todd Luther) won last year's event and is joined in the nine-horse elimination by 2024 champion Twin B Joe Fresh (post 6, Dexter Dunn, Chris Ryder), and 2025 3-year-old filly champ (in a dead heat) The Last Martini (post 1, Doug McNair, Jared Bako). Also looking to join bye recipients Tarapasta and Unreasonable in the final is Milton Stakes winner Francent N (post 3, Louis-Philippe Roy, Pat Lachance), who was a supplemental entry.

BREEDERS CROWN ATTRACTS 168 ENTRIES

A total of 168 horses were entered Tuesday (Oct. 13) for the 2026 Grade 1 Breeders Crown at Eldorado Scioto Downs in Columbus, OH.

Eliminations will be required for 10 of the 12 Breeders Crown events, with only the 2-Year-Old Filly Pace and Mare Trot going directly to their finals. Both events attracted 10 entries and are listed below in alphabetical order.

Six horses supplemented to 2026 Breeders Crown

by Hambletonian Society

Six horses were supplemented to the 2026 Grade 1 Breeders Crown at Ohio's Eldorado Scioto Downs by Monday's (Oct. 12) noon deadline, equaling the most in a year since 2014.

The six horses supplemented were 4-year-old male pacer Best Chip in the Open Pace, 6-year-old female pacer Francent N in the Mare Pace, Little Road in the 3-Year-Old Filly Trot, Miss Jum Jabber in the 3-Year-Old Filly Pace, Redland Rocket Man in the 3-Year-Old Colt and Gelding Pace, and Strobe Lite in the 3-Year-Old Colt and Gelding Trot.

For the 3-year-old events and Open Pace, the supplemental fee was $72,000. For the Mare Pace, the fee was $48,000. The one-time payment also makes the horses eligible to future Breeders Crown events under the normal schedule of payments.

There are no supplements for 2-year-old races.

All eligible Breeders Crown horses entered on Tuesday (Oct. 13). Two-year-olds will have eliminations on Friday (Oct. 16), with the 3-year-old and up events that require eliminations following on Saturday. The finals for freshmen are Oct. 23, with the remaining eight championships on Oct. 24. All Scioto Downs post times for the Breeders Crown are 6 p.m. (EDT).

Best Chip, a son of Heston Blue Chip—Place Your Best, has hit the board in 14 of 16 races this year, winning nine and earning $530,805. His victories include the Grade 1 Canadian Pacing Derby in a stakes-record-equaling 1:46.4 at Woodbine Mohawk Park, and the Grade 2 Aria Invitational at the distance of 1¼ miles at MGM Yonkers Raceway.

Most recently, he finished second in the Grade 1 Dayton Pacing Derby at Hollywood Dayton Raceway on Oct. 3.

He is owned by El Dorado Stables, trained by Joe Bongiorno, and was bred by Winbak Farm. For his career, Best Chip has won 14 of 54 races and earned $596,459.

Francent N, a New Zealand-bred daughter of Vincent—Mary Niven in her first season of racing in North America, has won four of six races and $155,740 in purses for owner Ecurie CSL and trainers Pat Lachance and Jacques Dupont.

Her victories include the Grade 2 Milton Stakes, which she captured with a Canadian-record 1:47.3 mile at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Sept. 5. She was bred by R.G. Higgins and has 17 lifetime wins in 35 starts, good for $324,567.

Little Road, a daughter of Fordham Road—A Little Laid Back, has finished top three in 13 of 15 races this year, with nine wins and $282,562 in earnings for breeder/owner/trainer Roger Hammer. Her triumphs include the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes championship for sophomore filly trotters at Harrah's Philadelphia on Sept. 6. For her career, she has won 15 of 24 starts and banked $360,650.

Miss Jum Jabber, a daughter of Bettor's Wish—Treacherous Reign, was unraced as a 2-year-old but has returned at 3 to hit the board in 16 of 17 races, with 13 wins and $678,139 in earnings for owner/trainer Brett Pelling.

Her victories include the championships in the Pennsylvania and Kentucky Sire Stakes. Most recently, she was second in the Grade 2 Glen Garnsey Memorial at Lexington's Red Mile on Oct. 10. She was bred by Let It Ride Stables, Alagna Racing, Big Als Stables, and Bottom Line Racing.

Redland Rocket Man will bring a four-race win streak to the Breeders Crown, with his victories including the Grade 1 Little Brown Jug, Grade 3 Simcoe Stakes (in a world-record-equaling 1:46.4 at Mohawk on Sept. 12), and this past Saturday's Ontario Sires Stakes Super Final for sophomore male pacers (in a stakes-record 1:48) at Mohawk.

The son of Bulldog Hanover—Granny Hanover has won eight of 27 career races and earned $799,520, with $669,978 accumulated this year. He was bred by Redland Farms and is owned by trainer John Pentland, Murray Cox, and Gary Volpe.

Strobe Lite, a son of Alarm Detector—Shine Bright, became a two-time Ontario Sires Stakes champion this past Saturday with a 1:52 win in the Super Final for 3-year-old male trotters. He finished third in the Grade 1 Canadian Trotting Classic, behind Nix Nacken and Apex, last month at Mohawk and was third in the Grade 2 Goodtimes at Mohawk in June.

He was bred by Glengate Farms, which shares ownership of the gelding with trainer Benoit Baillargeon, Claude Hamel, and Nunzio Vena. For his career, Strobe Lite has won seven of 25 races and earned $702,993.

Sangria Summer dazzles in Grade 3 Courageous Lady

by Kenny Livengood for Northfield Park

Sangria Summer delivered a commanding performance in the Courageous Lady, going straight to the front, setting strong fractions over a track labeled good of :26.4, :54.4, 1:22.1 and continuing on to an almost three-length victory in 1:51.1.

The impressive filly gave driver Matt Kakaley his second win in the Courageous Lady, making the victory even more special.

She had rattled off four consecutive wins including the Grade 3 Shady Daisy at The Meadowlands and the Grade 1 James Lynch Memorial at Pocono before finishing fourth in the Pennsylvania Sires Stakes final when she never had racing room.

With a good post to her advantage, Kakaley was going to make sure the race went through his talented filly and daughter of Captaintreacherous.

"She won the post draw, with Loua Dipa drawing post 8 we took advantage of it," Kakaley said after the race. "She zipped around there; she drives like a car so it makes my job easy."

Kakaley was equally confident about what lies ahead for the talented filly.

"She's a special filly so I'm sure you'll be hearing from her again," he said.

We will hear from her immediately as it is on to Scioto Downs for the Breeders Crown next weekend.

Perfect Thought (Anthony Macdonald) and Seaside Shuffle (Chris Page) completed the exotics behind Sangria Summer. Be Perfect BG went off the slight favorite and made a mild rally from the back but had to settle for fourth with Justin Irvine picking up the drive for Dexter Dunn who was unable to make it back from Lexington.

Jersey Bulldog posts jaw-dropping 1:48.1 Canadian record victory in the Super Final for rookie pacing fillies

by Dave Briggs / Ontario Racing

Jersey Bulldog (Bob McClure) smashed the Canadian, track, and OSS record with an ultra-impressive 1:48.1 victory in the $350,000 OSS Super Final for rookie pacing fillies on Saturday (Oct. 10) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Sent off as the 5-2 second choice, the daughter of Bulldog Hanover out of Gallie Beach defeated 4-5 favorite Aceandaten (Doug McNair) by one length.

Sitting fourth in the early going, McClure made his move before the half, clearing to the front and passing the midway split in :54.1. McClure parked Waves Of Fortune (James MacDonald) throughout the final turn, blasting through the three-quarters in 1:21. A wave of fillies tried to close on Jersey Bulldog in the stretch, with Aceandaten giving it the best shot, but still coming up short.

New Image Media

Jersey Bulldog (Bob McClure) winning the $350,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Super Final for 2-year-old pacing fillies with a 1:48.1 Canadian, track and OSS record on Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The mile, which shaved well over a second off the previous OSS best of 1:49.3 set by Pass Line in 2023, was just one-fifth-of-a-second slower than the 1:48 performance by 3-year-old male pacer Redland Rocket Man three races later in Saturday's program.

"That exceeded [my expectations] for sure," McClure told Woodbine broadcaster John Rallis. "I don't think anybody here expected a :48 mile out of a 2-year-old pacing filly on Super Final night. There's a helping wind, but it's cold, and you know that was a lot of racing to do to get to the front. She's just got all the tools. She's got depth, desire, and speed. She's the whole package, and she's exciting to think about for next year."

Jersey Bulldog, the winner of the $510,00 She's A Great Lady on Sept. 26 at Woodbine Mohawk Park, now has earnings of $652,920 for trainer/co-owner John Pentland of Dorchester, ON, who shares the pacer with Sherri Sumner, also of Dorchester, the Jack Darling Stables of Cambridge, ON, and Alan Alber of Thornhill, ON.

Pentland also won the sophomore pacing colt Super Final with Redland Rocket Man.

"The [She's A Great Lady] was phenomenal," co-owner Darling said. "But tonight, was every bit as good. I can't believe they went that kind of a mile tonight."

Jersey Bulldog is now 6-1-3 in 12 starts. She paid $7.90 to win.

Qued Up (Trevor Henry) was third, followed by Twin B Mayreau (Louis-Philippe Roy), and Money Carlo (Jody Jamieson).

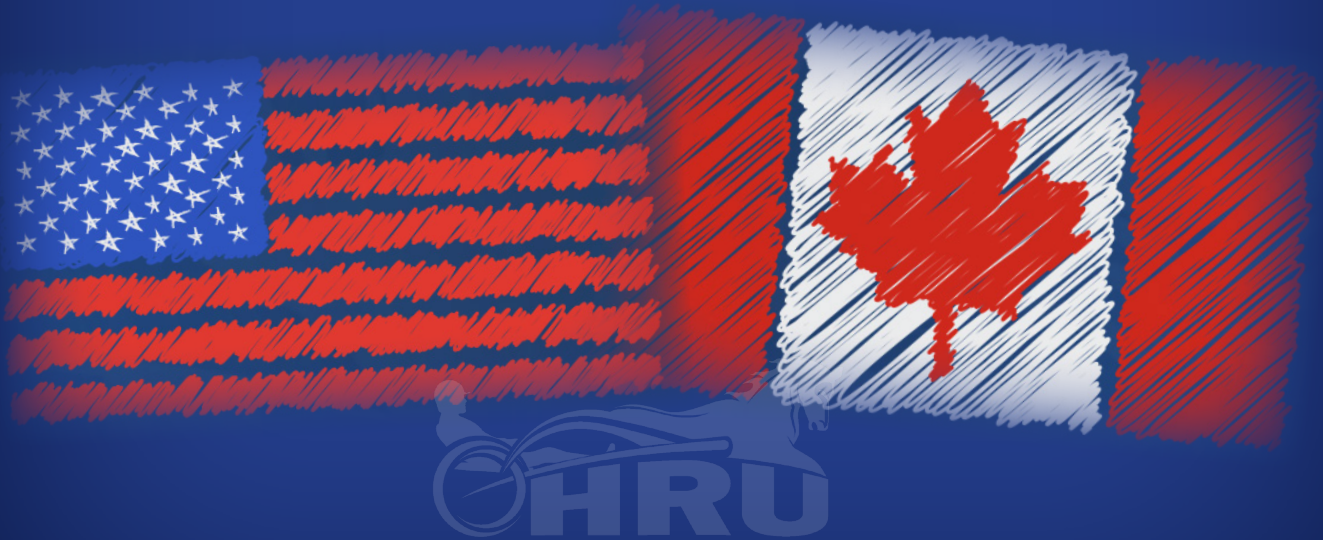

Bred by Mark Mullen and Stephen Dey of New Jersey, Jersey Bulldog was purchased for $40,000 at the 2025 Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling sale in Harrisburg, PA.

OSS record Super Final triumph latest chapter in Redland Rocket Man's story

by James Platz for Ontario Sires Stakes

Another chapter was written in one of the best feel-good stories in harness racing Saturday night (Oct. 10) at Woodbine Mohawk Park. Little Brown Jug victor Redland Rocket Man, driven by Jody Jamieson, wired the field in the $350,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Super Final for 3-year-old pacing colts in 1:48, breaking a 14-year-old stakes mark while becoming the sport's newest millionaire.

"It's been something," co-owner Gary Volpe said of the colt's evolution. "As a 2-year-old we knew he was good, but we chased Beau Jangles all year and that was pretty tough. But as a 3-year-old he really came into himself."

In a season where hopes were high for Beau Jangles – the defending Horse of the Year on both sides of the border – to repeat his freshman magic, health issues led to miscues and missed opportunities throughout the summer. The emergence of Redland Rocket Man and Jamieson, have given Canadians another star from the glamour division to cheer on. The partnership of trainer John Pentland, Murray Cox, and Volpe took a big swing when they supplemented their Bulldog Hanover—Granny Hanover colt to the Jug for $45,000, but Redland Rocket Man delivered, winning the 81st edition.

Redland Rocket Man (Jody Jamieson) winning the $350,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Super Final for 3-year-old pacing colts with a 1:48 OSS record on Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Saturday, the colt made a triumphant return to Woodbine Mohawk Park, lining up behind the starting gate for the first time since rocketing to victory at the Delaware County Fairgrounds in Ohio. Waiting in the wings was a resurgent Beau Jangles. The two sophomores had last tangled on Sept. 12, when Redland Rocket Man bested "Beau" in a Grade 3 Simcoe division in 1:46.4. Pentland shipped to Ohio and Beau's trainer Dr. Ian Moore dropped his charge into a Gold Series leg, winning in 1:49.3. Beau then headed to The Red Mile, winning a Bluegrass division in 1:47.2, and setting the stage for Saturday's final.

With Redland Rocket Man drawing inside (post 3) and Beau Jangles further outside (post 7), Jamieson made sure to protect the lead racing into the turn, clicking off a :26.1 opening quarter as Borderline Mobby (Louis-Philippe Roy) raced second and favored Beau Jangles (James MacDonald) dropped in third.

"I just wanted to make sure I could tell what Beau was doing," Jamieson said. "I think when the sheet came out and I had the inside of Beau, it really set the tone for what was going to happen. I was either going to put him in behind me, like hopefully the 3-hole would have been the best-case scenario, or follow him. In this division, I think who ends up cutting it is probably the guy that's going to be second. But since Beau was a couple back and had to come first up, my horse was large tonight, just super good."

The top three were content to maintain their positions through fractions of :54.4 and 1:21.4, setting up for a sprint to the finish. Grassroots championship winner Odds On Bullfrog, the other Moore-trained entry, never saw the rail, racing first over. Once MacDonald pulled Beau Jangles racing into the turn, it appeared the stablemates might have a say in the final outcome. Turning for home, however, Redland Rocket Man jumped out to a 2½ length lead in the stretch and powered home to win by 1¼ lengths. Beau Jangles settled for second while Odds On Bullfrog raced third.

"It was huge tonight and, you know, I think the world of Beau Jangles and so I wasn't overly confident," said Pentland, who also won the Super Final for 2-year-old pacing fillies with Bulldog Hanover daughter Jersey Bulldog in a 1:48.1 Canadian record that was just one tick slower than the 3-year-old boys. "I was confident in [Redland Rocket Man]. I wasn't overly confident that we could necessarily beat Doc's horse. [Beau is] a great horse but it was an outstanding effort by my guy and you know I mean he's taken off halfway through the season and you know he's just become a phenomenal animal."

The winning time erased the previous OSS mark of 1:48.1, set by Michael's Power at Woodbine Racetrack in 2012. Bred by Redland Farms of Nova Scotia and foaled in Prince Edward Island, Redland Rocket Man was a $30,000 Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling purchase at the 2024 auction in Harrisburg, PA that has improved his seasonal earnings to $943,133, and his career earnings now stand at $1,121,420. The colt has won four straight, and five in 15 attempts in 2026. He returned $4.10, $2.10 in victory. There was no show wagering.

"This is what we do this for," Jamieson said. "No one's asking, but I'm 50 years old next month, and to be able to do it at this point in my career is awesome. I'm just happy with the chances that I'm getting, and so far, I'm making good with them."

He made good earlier in the night, guiding Totally Tyler to the OSS Super Final in the 2-year-old pacing colts' division.

"This is the first time I ever had a double on Super Final night, let alone win a race, so I'm pretty pumped," Jamieson said. "I'm pumped for Redland Rocket Man. I'm pumped for John Pentland. I'm pumped for myself. I mean, it's been an awesome, awesome go, and hopefully we'll just keep going."

The next stop is a return to the Buckeye State in hopes of toppling the field at Scioto Downs in two weeks and adding yet another chapter to an incredible story.

"We hope to bring home the Breeders Crown," Volpe said.

Cant Turn You Down sets OSS record in sophomore filly pace, wins ninth straight

by Melissa Keith for Ontario Sires Stakes

Cant Turn You Down turned up the volume to full blast in the Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Super Final for 3-year-old filly pacers on Saturday night (Oct. 10) at Woodbine Mohawk Park. The 2026 OSS Grassroots champion had earned respect with an eight-race win streak coming into the $350,000 Gold Super Final, yet was untested against the top-tier fillies.

Regular driver Bob McClure settled Cant Turn You Down into sixth along the pylons early, as 4-5 favorite Shes A Bulldog led to a :25.3 opening quarter, co-fastest of the card. First-over challenger A Clean Deal soon charged into second, working to clear Shes A Bulldog before the :53.2 half. As soon as A Clean Deal landed on the lead, Cant Turn You Down stepped out to follow the cover of first-up Pownal Bay Bobbi. McClure's filly sat second-over in fourth approaching three-quarters, reached in 1:21.4 by A Clean Deal. Moving three-wide for the stretch drive, Cant Turn You Down avoided the confusion happening behind A Clean Deal: Pocket-sitting Shes A Bulldog ran up on A Clean Deal, then broke stride and interfered with the filly behind her, Naughty Delight.

Cant Turn You Down overtook Pownal Bay Bobbi mid-stretch, holding off a fast-closing Daya by three lengths in an impressive OSS divisional record of 1:48.3.

Cant Turn You Down (Bob McClure) winning the $350,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Super Final for 3-year-old pacing fillies with a 1:48.3 OSS record on Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Sent off as the 2-1 second choice, the homebred daughter of Cattlewash—Amulet Seelster was famously tough to get pacing at age 2, but trainer Zach Carroll believed in her, and so did her driver.

“It’s just one of my favorite wins of all time,” an emotional McClure told interviewer John Rallis after the win. “Just where this filly started and how far she’s come. She does have a great pedigree, but she’s got nothing else going for her except she wants to do it. She shouldn’t have even made the races, but she wants to be a racehorse so bad.”

In the paddock after the biggest win of her career, Cant Turn You Down stood quietly while her trainer explained how she moved from OSS Grassroots to Gold.

“A rule they implemented a couple of years ago was Grassroots champions, if the Super Final doesn’t fill with horses who had enough [OSS Gold] points, you’re allowed to enter,” Carroll said.

Cant Turn You Down did not race at 2.

“She was just immature,” said Carroll, who trains a stable of eight-to-10 horses at Dorchester Downs Training Center outside of London, ON. “She needed time to grow into herself. She was big, awkward, kind of gangly. I always joke that she had the athleticism of a baby giraffe. She’s still not great today, but she’s much better, and that time did all the good in the world for her.”

Although he did enter Cant Turn You Down in one qualifier last year, on July 7 at Mohawk, she trailed throughout and finished last.

“Then she was in to qualify a second time, and she ended up being sick the morning of, so we didn’t qualify her and we just decided to turn her out,” Carroll said. “We brought her back in in October to get ready for her 3-year-old year. Even this year, coming back, it was not the easiest road to get here. We qualified a couple of times in March, and then she come up lame after the second qualifier. She had really bad foot abscesses in both front feet. So, she missed about a month, standing around waiting to get those cleared up. Then finally in June, we qualified her again, and nothing could have prepared us. We had no idea she was this good.”

The 26-year-old trainer said it was only his third year campaigning his own roster, but he had previously worked for John Pentland. Carroll grew up on Talbot Creek Farm of Shedden, ON, which breeds standardbreds and thoroughbreds.

Cant Turn You Down will now be turned out at Talbot Creek.

“That’s all we can do this year,” Carroll said. “We’ll try again next year.”

Ontario SIRE STAKES REPORT

Totally Tyler totally awesome in OSS Super Final for rookie pacing colts

by Chris Lomon for Ontario Sires Stakes

Totally Tyler found the winning path in the $350,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Super Final for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings on Saturday night (Oct. 10) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The group of 10 rookies put on a standout show for what seemed to be nearly every second of a compelling mile.

Keeping tabs on the early going was racing drama at its best, as several hopefuls looked to find their preferred spot the moment the starter pulled away.

Meetmeonthebeach, leaving from post 9, eventually found the front, followed by No More Exs, Yes I Am Hanover, and Kerplunk, with the former calling the shots, albeit briefly, through an opening quarter in :26, as Jody Jamieson, in the race bike of 3-5 choice Totally Tyler, settled into fifth.

By the time the half was reached in :55, Kerplunk was on the front end, followed by Yes I Am Hanover, Meetmeonthebeach, and Th Theo, who was unable to find a seat and carried on in the outside flow. Totally Tyler was locked in along the rail in sixth, as the field made its way to the three-quarter pole, where he would then reside in ninth.

New Image Media

Totally Tyler (Jody Jamieson) winning the $350,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Super Final for 2-year-old pacing colts on Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Kerplunk was still leading the way after that station was reached in 1:23.4, with a host of rivals looking to reel in the 5-2 second choice straightening for the stretch drive.

While who would emerge on top was still very much up for grabs, it appeared that Totally Tyler, a homebred for Brad Grant, might not be one of the candidates.

Some Jamieson magic, coupled with torrid late-race pace, paid off with a thrilling triumph in 1:51.2. Th Benedict was second, a half-length ahead of Yes I Am Hanover, also owned by Grant. Th Theo, despite the rough trip, finished fourth.

"Everybody is out there trying to win, and I got myself in a bad spot there into the first turn and it really didn't work out," said Jamieson. "At the head of the lane, I literally said to myself, 'Just zag instead of zig.' I looked at the zig and went zag, and this horse just did the rest."

Despite the circumstances, Jamieson felt confident Totally Tyler would get to the wire on time.

"I really was," he said. "I just needed to get clear. I didn't think anybody was live on the inside. I was pumped when we got halfway down the stretch and I saw that nobody was coming on the inside."

Grant breathed a sigh of relief once Totally Tyler found daylight.

"I was getting worried down the lane, but when Jody shook him loose [we were] lucky to get there and glad we got it done," Grant said.

It was the second straight winner's circle trip for the son of Bulldog Hanover – who Jamieson drove to numerous successes – out of the A Rocknroll Dance mare Band Stand.

Trained by Scott McEneny, the colt broke his maiden in record fashion on Oct. 3 at the Milton oval when he won a $100,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold division in 1:49, setting a new OSS stakes record for rookie pacing colts and geldings.

"We always believed he was going to be good," said Grant. "A lot of people say it's nice to win the big ones, but when you breed them, raise them and own them both – mare and the stallion – it is special."

Totally Tyler, who is now 2-2-1 from 10 starts and has amassed over $300,000 in purse earnings, will head to the Breeders Crown, at Scioto Downs, for his next start.

He paid $3.50 for Saturday's win.

Longtime mayor of Milton, Gord Krantz, who is running for re-election, made the trophy presentation.

Detonater Hanover delivers record-setting OSS performance in Super Final for freshman trotting colts

by Chris Lomon for Ontario Sires Stakes

Detonater Hanover was prominent early and perfect late in the $350,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Super Final for 2-year-old colts and geldings on the trot on Saturday night (Oct. 10) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

An explosive turn of foot put Detonater Hanover in control early. A game stance in the late going put him in the winner's circle.

Tyler Moore and Detonater Hanover blasted off the wings with an early burst, as a trio of rivals each broke stride at the outset. D A Johnny Cash, the 1-9 mutuel choice, settled into third behind Three Six Zero, with Kountry Cantab and Tuff Gong positioned fourth and fifth, respectively, while the others were well back from the pack.

Detonater Hanover led by 1¾ lengths through an opening panel in :26.2, as the top five positions remained status quo. The son of Muscle Mass out of the Donato Hanover mare Dancing Flames continued to flex his muscles on the front end, reaching the half 1½ lengths clear of Three Six Zero, while Doug McNair, driving D A Johnny Cash, kept tabs on the pacesetter from third.

New Image Media

Detonater Hanover (Tyler Moore) winning the $350,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Super Final for 2-year-old trotting colts in a 1:52.2 OSS record on Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Moore let his charge out a notch with a half-mile to trot and held a 2½-length advantage through three-quarters in 1:24. D A Johnny Cash came knocking in the turn for home, setting up a showdown between the top two choices on the tote board.

D A Johnny Cash began to cut into the lead on the outside, but a game Detonater Hanover dug in and looked to repel the stout challenge. It set the stage for a dramatic few final strides to the finish line, with Detonater Hanover eking out a half-length win in a personal-best and OSS-record time of 1:52.2. Three Six Zero was third and Kountry Cantab secured fourth.

The post-race celebrations were briefly delayed by an inquiry as the stewards reviewed video of the one-two finishers touching wheels in deep stretch.

Minutes later, the victory became official.

Dr. Ian Moore, who trains for ownership group Detonater Hanover Stable, lauded his young star, who broke stride in the Grade 1 Mohawk Million on Sept. 26, but rebounded with a second to D A Johnny Cash in last week's OSS Gold leg 5.

"They didn't put [the inquiry] up initially, but they were looking at something," said Dr. Moore. "It's always anxious moments and typically, if they have a long inquiry, that's not good for the winner. In this case, it worked out pretty good.

"He's been as good as ever the last two starts. I just stopped training him. I just jogged him and raced him off the jogging. We jogged him a couple laps to warm up tonight as well – Randy Cudney did that for me – and he's been a beautiful trotter. He just wears a light pair of boots behind and a head pole inside. That's all he wears and he's been nice-gaited and a great attitude all along for us."

Striking OSS Gold with his son Tyler in the race bike made the victory even more memorable for the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame horseman.

"It's great," Dr. Moore said. "[My wife] Nancy is here as well. So, we are all here. I think that's Tyler's first Gold as a driver, for sure, so it couldn't be better."

Bred by Hanover Shoe Farms Inc, Detonater Hanover, whose other wins include the Grade 3 Millard Farms Stakes, was a $80,000 (U.S.) purchase at the 2025 Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling sale in Harrisburg, PA.

He now sports a record of 5-3-0 in 11 starts and has accumulated purse earnings north of $500,000.

The bay colt paid $10.50 for his latest victory.

Verily sets 1:52.3 OSS record in Super Final for rookie trotting fillies

by Melissa Keith for Ontario Sires Stakes

Patience was a virtue for Verily in the $350,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Super Final for 2-year-old trotting fillies on Saturday (Oct. 10) night at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Driven by Louis-Philippe Roy, the daughter of Muscle Mass—Yen got away seventh of 10 fillies, biding her time as three different leaders (Northernlights Deo, followed by Rebel Moon, and then Jyn Erso) took charge in the early going. Shortly after the :26.3 opening quarter, Verily slipped out second-over to follow the cover of Major Contender to the :56.1 half. On the final turn, she loomed the first-over threat, drawing alongside Major Contender. Jyn Erso tried to start a late rally up the inside path as the trio trotted past three-quarters, reached in 1:24.1, but Verily was in full flight, drawing away down the stretch to win by 3¼ lengths in 1:52.3. Queen Of Bs outspurred Flawless Lady for place. Treasure King was a complete pari-mutuel refund as she had not reached the fair start pole when she made an early break.

The 1:52.3 victory was the fastest of the season for freshman filly trotters in Canada, establishing a new OSS divisional record, as well as a new lifetime best for Verily. It was the fourth career win for the 1-2 favorite, who is trained by Meg Crone and owned by William Donovan of Delray Beach, FL. She had lowered the OSS record for 2-year-old filly trotters just a week prior at Mohawk, winning OSS Gold leg 5 in 1:53 and breaking a previous four-way tie.

"I was going forward a bit off the gate, but from the inside with a trotter is not always easy," Roy told interviewer John Rallis on his way back to the winner's circle. "Then, right by the moment, I saw I could get Jody [Jamieson's] cover [driving Major Contender] and my game plan was pretty much made up. You know, I had a lot of scenarios in my head, but that was one that actually worked pretty good and that was the best option I thought we had."

Put into a strong position for the stretch drive, Verily understood the assignment and trotted home strongly in a :28.1 last quarter.

"I mean, you never know," Roy said. "I had Jody's cover, but he made sure I had to work to keep on his cover. You know, he was going pretty fast. All credit to my filly. She just chased him and never gave up, and by the head of the stretch I was pretty confident, she was going so good."

An $85,000 London Classic Yearling Sale purchase in 2025, Verily was bred by Overseas Farm Ltd of Cambridge, ON and sold under the name Yeanna.

Verily has only missed the board once in eight starts. She was second to Major Contender in the OSS divisional points standings leading up to the Super Final, but ended the season on top by total season earnings $431,575, the majority ($332,350) of which was won in OSS competition.

In an early-season interview about her 2-year-olds in training, Crone told Jaimi MacDonald that Verily showed plenty of ability.

"She's nice, she's done everything," Crone said. "She's just all trot. From day one, she's just had good manners, a good mouth."

Ahead of Super Final night, Crone told interviewer Matthew Lomon that Verily had very much fulfilled her early promise.

"From day one, she's had a great attitude; very smart, great-gaited," Crone said. "There's never anything you could criticize about her. She's done everything right from the beginning. You usually don't have too many like that, but I don't think we've ever had a hiccup with her."

Verily's Super Final win was poetic justice for her dam, Yen, who finished on top of the 2019 OSS Grassroots points standings at age 2, but was scratched sick from that year's Grassroots semi-finals. The daughter of E L Titan has produced just two foals to date, Verily and 4-year-old Googoo Gaagaa mare Clarissa W (3, 1:53.2m; $147,256). Yen was bred to Kilmister this year.

Sophomore trotting gelding Strobe Lite goes back-to-back in OSS Super Final

by James Platz for Ontario Sires Stakes

Strobe Lite collected the $350,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Super Final for 3-year-old trotting males on Saturday night (Oct. 10) at Woodbine Mohawk Park, picking up his second championship for the partnership of Benoit Baillargeon, Claude Hamel, Nunzio Vena, and Glengate Farms. He did so with a lifetime best 1:52 performance for Louis-Philippe Roy, a first-time pilot behind the gelding.

"It was very gratifying," said Baillargeon, who also trains Strobe Lite. "I thought maybe we should have won a couple more this [year]. Some of them got away on us, but he got the job done tonight."

Leading into the Super Final, Strobe Lite matched Touchedbyanangel with two Gold Series wins during the campaign, and the pair were nearly identical in points — 155 vs. 153 — with the latter holding the narrow advantage. Baillargeon's trainee picked up his victories in June and July before making a break at Grand River Raceway in an August leg. He then jumped it off again stateside in the Earl Beal Memorial final.

After a successful qualifier, Strobe Lite returned to action by posting three on-the-board finishes with regular pilot James MacDonald, trotting second in a Grade 3 Simcoe division, second to Touchedbyanangel in Gold Series competition, and third behind Nix Nacken and Apex in the Grade 1 Canadian Trotting Classic. For the Super Final, Roy was tapped to drive.

"I was like really confident in the horse, but I was also worried to just do a mistake, put him on the run, you know," said Roy. "A few times he showed breaks during a race, so I was just trying to let him do his thing. It ended up me driving him in a very tough way, but I definitely had the best horse, so he responded."

Lining up third behind the starting gate, Roy got away seventh with the favorite as Stormont Shanlyboy (Tyler Jones, post 4), Thor B Good (Jonathan Drury, post 5), and Mike Me Up (MacDonald, post 6) each pushed to the front when the wings folded. Stormont Shanlyboy led by a nose over Mike Me Up at the quarter, timed in :26.1, before being shuffled to second.

As the field marched to the half (:55.2), Touchedbyanangel and Doug McNair were out and moving from fourth. Strobe Lite and Roy also angled out on the backstretch and followed. McNair and Touchedbyanangel were able to take the lead, and Roy had the favored sophomore bidding for the lead first-over in second at three quarters (1:24).

In the stretch, Strobe Lite took control as Mike Me Up dropped to the inside to move past a retreating Touchedbyanangel and take a shot at the new leader. Roy's charge dug in late to reach the wire first, holding off the late charge of Stormont Shanlyboy by a head. Mike Me Up trotted third.

"When he got in the stretch, it was the horse that worked the most out of the race, that's for sure," said Roy. "It's like I said, I was just confident. I didn't want to risk putting him on the run to give him a good trip. I was confident he was just the best. Tyler's horse was maybe a little fresher than mine. He was getting going on us, but our horse just dugged up."

The winning time knocked two-fifths-of-a-second off the sophomore's career best time. The victory is the fourth in 14 starts this year. Strobe Lite has hit the board 12 times, and now possesses seasonal earnings of $602,209. An OSS Gold Final winner at 2, Strobe Lite has banked $982,130 in his career.

Strobe Lite is a gelded son of Alarm Detector out of the Father Patrick mare Shine Bright. A $16,000 London Classic Yearling Sale purchase, he was bred by co-owner Glengate Farms.

Strobe Lite returned $2.80, $2.20, and $2.10 to his backers.

Baillargeon, who also trained Alarm Detector, said that Strobe Lite has been supplemented to the Breeders Crown. Now the decision must be made as to whether the trotter will ship to Scioto Downs.

"I have until Monday, so I will be thinking about it," he said.

Cher Hill delivers in OSS Super Final for sophomore trotting fillies

by James Platz for Ontario Sires Stakes

Cher Hill rebounded from a disappointing seventh-place finish in the Grade 1 Elegantimage final two weeks ago to capture the $350,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Super Final for 3-year-old trotting fillies on Saturday night (Oct. 10) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Sent off as the 4-5 favorite for trainer Gregg McNair, the sophomore secured the victory with a 1:52.4 with Doug McNair in the bike.

"Tonight, well, it's a little different bunch, but there's still a nice bunch of fillies in there," Gregg said. "She's a little bit inconsistent. Sometimes she'll really bring her 'A' game and sometimes not. She seems to stall a little bit around the last turn sometimes. She did it a bit tonight, but then she comes through the stretch fine."

While the trainer noted the inconsistencies displayed by his charge over her previous 12 starts this season, the Tom Hill-bred and owned trotter delivered a strong effort Saturday. Drawing post 7, Doug McNair settled into fourth soon after the start as Th Trix R Forkids (Mark MacDonald) fired from the outside and was followed by Flowing Tribute and Bob McClure.

MacDonald led the field through a :27.1 first quarter before Flowing Tribute moved to the top. On the backstretch, Satu Wania and Trevor Henry opted to leave their positions along the pylons in third and advance first over, advancing to the lead as the field trotted past the half in :56.3. The move prompted Doug McNair to sit along the inside.

"I just didn't want to get in a hurry with her off the gate," Doug said. "Once it dusted, I was going to go back to lead, but then Trevor moved, so I decided we've just got to sit and pray, that's all."

Once past the half, Cher Hill angled out and began to make her bid on the outside, flushing Flowing Tribute from second on the way to the three-quarter station (1:25). Turning for home, Cher Hill had a clear path to the wire, but she had some work to do. She reeled in the leader with every stride, putting away Flowing Tribute and Satu Wania and gamely trotted to the wire to collect her fifth seasonal score. Twin B Showbiz and Tyler Borth, sent off at 27-1, came flying late, but had too much ground to make up, settling for second. Bingo Night and Tyler Jones, 50-1, managed third.

Cher Hill is a Muscle Mass filly out of Kadabra mare Lauramarie Hill. She finished second to Blue Jean Gal in OSS Gold points over the five-leg slate, registering two wins and finishing second, third, and fifth in her other attempts.

The filly romped by more than six lengths in her last OSS start, then finished second in an Elegatimage elimination, a neck back in 1:51.2. In the Elegatimage final, Cher Hill, and McNair left from post 8 and raced second through fractions of :26.3 and :54.4 and eventually finished seventh.

"Well, you know, I kind of drove her pretty tough last week," Doug said. "She got a real tough start against Grand Circuit fillies, so I just figured if I didn't overdrive her early tonight, she would give us a little more finish than she did."

A three-time winner in 10 seasonal starts at 2, Cher Hill has hit the board in eight of 13 starts this year. The victory pushed her seasonal bankroll to $357,427, and her career earnings are now $488,264.

Cher Hill is Breeders Crown eligible, but the trainer noted a decision on whether she will enter has not been determined. "She's eligible, but we'll talk it over with Tom if she's going down," Gregg McNair said. "I'm not sure what's in store for her."

Yo Beth D (Kyle Wilfong) winning the $75,000 Indiana Sires Stakes aged mare trot final on Saturday at Harrah's Hoosier Park. It was her third INSS title.

Indiana SIRE STAKES REPORT

Yo Beth D in full control for the INSS Aged Mare Trot final

by Connor Mahoney / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Taking care of business, Yo Beth D driven by Kyle Wilfong for trainer Ken Rucker sweeps all the legs and the $75,000 INSS Aged Mare Trot final at Hoosier Park on Saturday (Oct. 10) for her third Indiana Sires Stakes title.

Starting the evening with the non-betting race, Yo Beth D was headed straight for the lead off the gate, trotting swiftly past Miracle Maven (John De Long) to the turn in :28.2. The order at the turn saw Yo Beth D at the helm with Miracle Maven using the cover, Er Kelly (LeWayne Miller) holding in third, and Delta Blues (Robert Taylor) bringing up the rear. The four-horse field remained unchanged throughout the backstretch at the halfway mark in :57.3 and at the final turn in 1:26.1. Leading every step of the way, Yo Beth D separated herself from her fellow trotters, stopping the timer at 1:53.2 by 1¼ lengths. The rest of the field was spread thin by finishing how they started with Miracle Maven scoring second and Er Kelly remaining in third.

Yo Beth D visited the winner's circle for her sixth win of the season for owner Twoforone Stable. Bred by John Schmucker, the Helpisontheway—Scented Roses mare increased her lifetime earnings to $788,850.

INSS $50,000 CONSOLATIONS

Rockinthefreeworld ($16.20) driven by Brandon Bates for trainer Henry Graber, Jr. stormed down the stretch moving from fourth to first in the final quarter in :28 to win the $50,000 INSS 2-Year-Old Fillies Pace consolation in 1:53 by 2¼ lengths. The Rockin Image out of Stella Z Tam filly is owned by Indiana Stables LLC, Graber, Jr., Kiwi Stables LLC, and Zippett Racing Stable. Rockinthefreeworld tallied $51,640 in lifetime earnings for her second career win. Rockinthefreeworld was bred by Chapel Ridge Farm and Fashion Hill Farm.

Taking the field down from the second deck in post 10, Finish Big ($3.40) piloted and trained by Robert Taylor picked up the lead from the halfway pole and stayed in control the rest of the way winning the $50,000 INSS 2-Year-Old Fillies Trot in 1:57 by 1½ lengths. Finish Big was bred by Luckiana Farm and is owned by Derek Knepp, Adrian Yoder, and Taylor Racing LLC. Boosting her lifetime earnings to $69,856, the Don't Let'em—Fuzzy Angel filly has won three of her first nine starts.

Leading every step of the way after a half mile, Let B Express ($4.40) driven by Kevin Lambright for trainer Robert Reeser controlled the tempo from that point on as he crushed the wire by three-quarters-of-a-length in 1:56.1 to win the $50,000 INSS 2-Year-Old Colts and Geldings Trot consolation. The Don't Let'em crop struck again with Let B Express adding his third win of his career and increasing his lifetime earnings to $50,552. Let B Express is owned by Twoforone Stable and was bred by James Schulte.

For Heaven's Sake ($2.80) driven by John De Long for trainer Jeff Edwards stayed hot in another impressive display taking down the $50,000 INSS 3-Year-Old Filly Trot consolation in 1:54.2 by 3½ lengths. Winning four of her last five starts, the Swan For All—Supergirl filly was bred by Blue Chip Bloodstock Inc, John Lengacher, and Danielle Henri. Owned by Denise Dennis For Heaven's Sake achieved $83,710 in lifetime earnings.

$22,000 OPEN PACE

Always B Naughty ($4.80) driven by Austin Hanners for trainer Todd Luther wired the six-horse field clocking out in 1:51.2 by three-quarters-of-a-length securing the victory in the $22,000 open pace. The 6-year-old Always B Miki—Ooh Shesa Badlands mare was bred by Steve Stewart, Conquest Acres Lp, and Oakwood Farms. Approaching millionaire status with $991,561 in lifetime earnings, the 2025 Breeders Crown champion is owned by Greg Luther Racing LLC.

Live racing at Hoosier Park resumes on Wednesday (Oct. 14) with 10-horse fields set for all but one race in the 14-race card featuring the $10,000 guaranteed Late Pick-4 and the $10,000 guaranteed Late Hoosier High-5 done in partnership with the USTA's strategic wagering program.

Delaware SIRE STAKES REPORT

Hawaiian Warfare wins DSBF 2-year-old pacing final

by Matt Sparacino / Harrington Raceway

Forrest Bartlett's Hawaiian Warfare ($6.40, Mike Cole) was a 1:56.1 winner in the $110,000 Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund (DSBF) final for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings Monday (Oct. 12) at Harrington Raceway.

The Erin Neilson-trainee has won seven straight races, and is seven-of-eight in his freshman season. The U S Captain gelding was forced three-wide around stalled cover past the half-mile mark and made steady gains before surging through the stretch to nab the victory under confident Cole handling. Long shot See Jack Run charged down the passing lane to grab the place spot with Aeneas third.

In the $22,500 open, the same connections teamed up for a 1:51.4 victory with Primo Maschio ($3, Montrell Teague) to give Bartlett and Neilson a double. The Badlands Hanover gelding set the fractions from post 2 and never stepped off the gas in an impressive score, his fourth of the year and 23rd lifetime. Mr Three O Five was second with The Dragon Reborn third.

Earlier on the card, Donna Messick's Dm's Delight ($47.40, Brandon Givens) won the $20,000 DSBF 2-year-old colt and gelding consolation in 1:58.1. The Highalator gelding scored his first career triumph for trainer Les Givens. It was one of three driving wins on the card for the meet's leading driver, Brandon Givens.

Long shot Sting Ray ($131, Troy Beyer) blew up the tote board with an upset score at odds of 64-to-1 in the 12th race for owner/trainer Virginia Louthan. The 4-year-old Papa Ray gelding utilized a strong kick in the late stages of the race to capture his fourth career win and first of the season.

The DSBF trotting finals are scheduled for today (Oct. 14). Post time is 4:30 p.m.

Maryland SIRE STAKES REPORT

Nobody Knows It remains perfect in Maryland Sire Stakes final

by Edison Hatter for Rosecroft Raceway

After authoring a track record performance earlier in the meet, Nobody Knows It punctuated her season with a victory in the $100,000 Maryland Sire Stakes final for 2-year-old trotting fillies at Rosecroft Raceway on Sunday night (Oct. 11).

Richard Hans' homebred trainee took command early in the mile and never looked back while posting fractions of :28.3, :58, 1:27, and 1:56.2 over the wet-fast track. Nobody Knows It was on top by a commanding five lengths past three-quarters, but stablemate That's It For You tried to make a race of it late, coming up just a length short at the finish.

"She's a gamer, she wants to go forward, and she wants to beat other horses," said driver Corey Callahan. "She gets bored on the front end all the time, but I knew I was going to win. I didn't pop the plugs or call on her; she just coasted in. I could've gone to plan B if I had to."

The Betting Gangster S—Goo Luck Charm filly has won her last seven starts against Maryland-restricted company, including a Sire Stakes final this summer at Ocean Downs. Her record stands at a perfect eight-for-eight. She has partnered with Callahan in all of her races so far, and together they've now banked over $150,000. As the heavy favorite, Nobody Knows It returned $2.10 to win.

Callahan knew immediately how talented of a horse he was dealing with and hopes that she gets her chance on bigger stages next year.

"After her first start, I knew right then and there that no one in Maryland could beat her," Callahan said. "She's just a really nice horse. Richard [Hans] is an excellent horseman that breeds some great horses; I hope she gets a chance in some stakes next year. I think she deserves an opportunity."

Hans also had a pair of his protégés finish in the top two spots in the Sire Stakes final for 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings.

Booger Bear and Y'all Got No Shot drew away from the competition and were nearly 15 lengths clear of the others at the finish. Booger Bear ($3.40) ultimately prevailed over his stablemate, a near carbon copy of the finish at the Ocean Downs Maryland Sire Stakes final a month ago.

In other Maryland Sire Stakes action:

- And Just Like That (\$2.20) gave favorite-backers a serious scare when she was eight lengths off the gate at the start of the final for 3-year-old trotting fillies. However, she recovered and circled the field to hit the front by the half and trotted away from her rivals late to win by an incredible $13\frac{3}{4}$ -length margin in 1:55.4. The Megan Foster trainee has been plagued with breaking issues in the past but has shown tremendous talent when she stays flat. She is owned and was driven by Russell Foster.

- If I Win Uwin ($4.80) saved all the ground around the final turn and exploded through the passing lane in the stretch to win the final for 2-year-old pacing fillies in 1:57.1. Jonathan Roberts was the beneficiary of a late pickup drive for trainer Les Givens and owners J M B Ventures.

- More Than Better ($7.40) led all the way to post a seven-length score in the final for 3-year-old pacing fillies in 1:54.1. Driver Russell Foster picked up his second Sire Stakes final win of the night for trainer Herman Hagerman and owner Hagerman Racing.

- In The Worst Way (\$2.80) made a powerful brush for driver Corey Braden after the half to take over and drew clear to win the final for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings by $9\frac{1}{4}$ lengths in 2:00.4. Trainer Herman Hagerman and owner Hagerman Racing picked up their second Sire Stakes wins on the card.

- Shootout ($2.60) led all the way to earn his eighth win of the season in the final for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings in 1:53.1, shaving nearly three seconds off his previous lifetime mark. Roger Plante, Jr. drove for winning trainer Steve LeBlanc and co-owners Glenn Dyke, LeBlanc Racing Inc, and James Stuart.

- Better Gon ($2.20) recovered from an early break approaching the quarter and survived an inquiry to draw clear late to win after sustaining a strong first-over brush in the final for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings in 1:54.3. The victory completed a stakes hat trick for Russell Foster. The gelding is owned by Frederick Weitz, Jr. and trained by Adrian Wisher, Jr.

Live harness racing returns to Rosecroft on Thursday (Oct. 15); the card features a $5,042.06 carryover in the 50-cent Jackpot Hi-5, offered in the finale. First post is 7:15 p.m. (EDT). For more information and free handicapping resources, visit www.rosecroftraceway.com.

Records set in W. N. Reynolds stake at Plainridge Park

The W. N. Reynolds Memorial for 3-year-old pacers was featured at Plainridge Park on Monday (Oct. 12) afternoon and contested in two divisions separated by gender. The races were outstanding and both divisions produced a record event.

The fillies went to post for $56,950 in the Reynolds known as the Leta Long and Surreal Spirit (So Surreal—Caviart Elena) set a new stakes record for 3-year-old fillies and also a new lifetime mark.

Two Twenty Swift (Mitchell Cushing) led to the quarter in :26.2 before Surreal Spirit (Jeff Gregory) tipped from third and took control passing the stands. Once on top, Surreal Spirit reached the half in :55.1 and three-quarters in 1:22.3 as Ideal Beauty Queen (Matty Athearn) and Lenna (Brett Beckwith) were closing in on the outside. But those threats were turned away by Surreal Spirit, who marched through the turn and then bolted home alone, on top by three lengths in 1:50.3.

It was the fourth win in the last six starts and seventh win overall this year for Surreal Spirit ($3), who is owned by Edmund Namiotka, Jr., Carol Namiotka, and Mrs. Linda Mund and trained by her driver, Jeff Gregory.

The colts and geldings competed in the Reynolds known as the Tar Heel that went for $55,850 and Everlast Sting Deo (Perfect Sting—Little Miss K) took a new lifetime mark while tying the stakes record for this division with his impressive 1:49.3 victory.

Everlast Sting Deo (Bruce Ranger) parked out Watch Em Win (Beckwith) for almost a quarter mile before he crossed over in :25.4. Then once he settled in the pocket, Everlast Sting Deo tripped-out behind Watch Em Win to the half in :54.3, three-quarters in 1:21.4 and around the last turn. As the race was turning for home, Everlast Sting Deo tipped off the pylons and took dead aim at Watch Em Win, eventually grabbing the lead in deep stretch and clearing by 1¾ lengths to win in 1:49.3.

It was the fifth win of the year for Everlast Sting Deo ($11) who is owned by Morrison Racing Stables and trained by Travis Alexander.

In the $25,000 open handicap overnight pacing feature, Fifth And Five (Beckwith) took the lead passing the quarter and then battled with Dale Yeah (Michael Oosting) from three-quarters to the top of the stretch before turning back the challenge. Fifth And Five then paced clear by 1¼ lengths and won his second straight at Plainridge, this time in 1:49.2.

The 2026 Gold Cup & Saucer champion, Fifth And Five ($3), is owned by Pollack Racing and trained by Enrico Robinson.

Beckwith led all drivers on Monday with three wins, two of which were trained by Robinson, who topped all trainers for the day.

Mappos Lion wins Premier's Cup; Lady Cafe Au Lait lowers track record

Mappos Lion unleashed his trademark closing speed to capture the $50,000 Premier's Cup at Red Shores Racetrack and Casino at the Charlottetown Driving Park, while Lady Cafe Au Lait lowered her own track record in the other $50,000 final on the 16-dash Super Saturday program.

Ryan Desroche guided Mappos Lion ($6.20) to the biggest win of the O'Leary natives driving career as he remains undefeated when holding the lines on the now 47-timer winner. The Cape Breton-bred pacer reached up to a half-length victory in the race 16 Premier's Cup for trainer Taylor Doyle and owners Hailee Currie of Rocky Point, PEI, and Carol Campbell of Baddeck, NS. The 9-year-old son of Sunshine Beach was seventh at the opening quarter before advancing with cover and storming home in :27.2 to stop the clock in 1:52.

Miki Shan N (driven by Corey MacPherson) set fractions of :27, :56.2, and 1:24 before settling for second. Arbitrage Hanover (Ken Murphy) completed the triactor.

"He's just unbelievable; There's no end to him," Desroche said afterwards of Mappos Lion. "I don't have many words for him."

It's about the only time you'll catch me speechless. Just thankful to be part of it."

Lady Cafe Au Lait ($2.10) delivered a commanding nine-length victory in the $50,000 Aged Pacing Mares Series final, presented by Standardbred Canada, in race 14. Marc Campbell drove the Earl Watts trainee for Windemere Farms of Springvale and Matt and David Burke of Stratford.

The 4-year-old daughter of Big Jim advanced first-over before taking command by the three-quarter pole in 1:23.4, then powered home in :28.1 for a track-record 1:52 victory. The mile lowered her own Charlottetown track record for aged pacing mares of 1:52.1, set Sept. 17, by one-fifth-of-a-second and is also a new Atlantic Canadian racing standard for distaffers. Brokeandoutofgas (Gilles Barrieau) was second with Windemere Saddy (Murphy) third.

Campbell had six driving victories on the evening, including Steady Heart ($4.10) in the $12,000 P.E.I. Colt Stakes Graduate Series Grassroots final for pacing mares, presented by Red Shores. The Bo Ford trainee prevailed by a neck in 1:55.4 over Freaky Fanny (Darren Crowe), with Promise Me Later (Paul Langille) third. Ford shares ownership with Arnold Myers, Luke Beck, and Scott Bridges.

Howmac Exclusive ($19.20) rallied to win the $12,000 P.E.I. Colt Stakes Graduate Series Grassroots final for pacing horses, presented by Red Shores, in race 11. MacPherson drove the Leith Waite trainee to a half-length victory in 1:54.4 for owners Leith Waite, Leslie Waite, and James Gorman. Good Omen (Langille) was second with Bettim Alive (Jaycob Sweet) third.

Fight Song ($3.20) controlled the $16,000 Island Oceans Trot Series final, presented by Burkie By The Bay Stables, in race 7. Jason Hughes sent the Ashley Gamester trainee through splits of :28.4, :58.2, and 1:27 before drawing clear by 2¼ lengths in 1:55.4. Donald MacRae of Vernon Bridge owns the 7-year-old son of Kadabra. West River Jet (Kenny Arsenault) was second ahead of Flemsteen (Murphy).

Badgirl Bridgette ($2.50) captured the $20,000 Aged Pacing Mares Series consolation in race 6 with Campbell driving for trainer/owner Bill Lanigan of Montague. The Stonebridge Terror mare led throughout to win by a half-length in 1:53.3 over Miss Dutton (Desroche), with Oh Ophelia (Barrieau) third.

Merigo Magic ($14) won the $20,000 P.E.I. Free-For-All Series consolation in race 12 for trainer/driver Adam Merner. Owned by Mike May, Herman McQuaid, and Derrick Cameron, the Tobago Cays gelding used a pocket trip to score in 1:52.4 by three-quarters-of-a-length over Gigis Dream (Campbell). Fast Louie (Keith Legge) finished third.

Campbell also swept the $6,000 P.E.I. Colt Stakes Graduate Series Grassroots consolations. Woodmere Kennedie ($4.30) won the mares division in race 4 in 1:56.1 for trainer Landon Campbell and owner Mike Pollard. Big Pond Cash ($3.50) took the horses division in race 9 in 1:56.1 for Watts and owners

Matt Burke, David Burke, Ryan MacLeod, and Everett MacLeod, giving Watts a training double.

Bentley ($2.50) was another part of Campbell's six-win performance with a 1:57.2 victory in race 8 for trainer John Clarey and owner/breeder Mike Clarey.

Landon Campbell engineered the biggest upset of the evening with Hound On The Beach ($84.70), winning race 15 in 1:53.2 for owner Martin Roy of Sayabec, QC. The trainer/driver sent the gelding to the front and held a 3¼-length advantage at the finish over One Wicked Man (Arsenault), with Phil My Beer (Marc Campbell) third. Landon Campbell had two training victories on the card.

Tenzing Bromac N wins Mountain Skipper Invitational at Fryeburg Fair

The historic stands at Maine's Fryeburg Fair were packed to capacity on Saturday (Oct. 10) as the fans turned out to cheer on the big horses when the field for the $15,000 renewal of the Mountain Skipper Invitational gathered at the iconic western-Maine venue.

A select field of five invitational class pacers, all with hooves filled with hope, lined up for the start, but it was Tenzing Bromac N and driver Ron Cushing who ultimately strode triumphantly to the winner's circle, after gallantly battling to an enticingly close finish timed in 1:54.2.

Leaving aggressively, as is his want, Tenzing Bromac N was met by a stiff early challenge from Vel Letsroll South (McGwire Sowers) as the field zoomed off into the first turn.

Jealously guarding his inside position, Sowers begrudgingly relented to Cushing's early pressure, but only after stringing his foe to a brisk :28 quarter-pole clocking. Cushing then wrangled a breather for his charge after making the point, throttling down Tenzing Bromac N's tempo and reaching the half in a reasonable :57.1, all while bristling attentively in anticipation of the expected back-half challenge.

That challenge materialized when So Rock N' Roll (Kevin Switzer, Jr.) took flight to the outside, necessitating a quick escalation in pace as Tenzing Bromac was pushed to the three-quarter-pole in 1:25.3.

While So Rock N' Roll idled in the outer-flow and Tenzing Bromac N extended out to a 1¼ length advantage at the head of the lane, Switzer, Jr. urged an unexpected burst of last-dash rally from his steed. And while the crowd roared in appreciation, So Rock N' Roll closed through determined strides, only to be out-done by the final margin of a neck, as Tenzing Bromac N's will to win proved the paramount point in the 2026 edition of the Mountain Skipper Invitational.

Tenzing Bromac N, a 9-year-old son of Bettors Delight, is trained by Heidi Cushing for owners Ron Cushing and Kevin Sywyk. The win was his eighth of the season and marked his 30th career trip down victory lane.

In other Fryeburg Fair news, Milliondollarream and driver Joey Mosher set a new divisional track record on Saturday, becoming the fastest older trotting mare to navigate the Fryeburg course after winning in a blazing 1:58. The effort eclipsed the former standard of 1:59.4 that was held since 2016 by Royal Hawaii and driver Drew Campbell.

The win was one of two on the program for Mosher who was matched in Saturday's win column by both Switzer, Jr. and Aaron Hall..
