Breeders Crown could help provide clarity in several divisions for year-end honors

BETWEEN THE LINES

with BRETT STURMAN

by Brett Sturman

Heading into this weekend's Breeders Crown eliminations, there's may be just one or two divisions where year-end winners are solidly locked down, and likely won't be changed by what happens over the next two weekends at Scioto Downs. But for the other divisions, including Horse of the Year, the Breeders Crown can reshape trajectory.

Here's how I see some of the higher profile battles.

3-YEAR-OLD COLT AND GELDING TROT

You can feel the shift in this division changing over since September. Following one of the great all-time wins in the Hambletonian, Apex was not only easily clear of anyone else as far as his 3-year-old trotting peers but also was riding that momentum all the way to the top of the Horse of the Year discussion.

Whether that 1:49.2 Hambletonian duel with Big Ranger took something out of him or it's purely coincidental, Apex hasn't truly looked the same since. In his return to the track a month after that Hambletonian win, he was surprisingly short and finished fourth in a relatively non-descript New Jersey Classic elimination field. He rebounded a week later to win that NJ Classic final, albeit without some of the explosiveness he showed prior.

From there, no disgrace in the Canadian Trotting Classic when finishing second by a half-length, but again I'd make the argument that it was a race where Apex at his best form, wins. Most recently, out of nowhere, he broke stride right at the start of the Kentucky Futurity. And it was a race in which the public wasn't fooled either – at least with regards to Apex – where he was stone cold off a 6-5 morning line and drifted up to off-odds of over 4-1.

All of that said, a win in the Breeders Crown would put almost all of that well behind and once again put him well on his way to the top of the division. It would also avenge his fourth-place finish in last year's Breeders Crown at 2. With a Breeders Crown win to go with his Hambletonian win and other stakes wins, his record would speak for itself.

As the current trending alternative to Apex, Nix Nacken has been red-hot in this second half of the season and is making an ever-continuing solid case for himself.

Take nothing away from Brandon Blvd who at this rate should be a lock for glamour division honors for the 3-year-old colt pacers, but as of this moment it does seem 4-year-old trotter Super Chapter has a firm grasp on the sport's top spot [Horse of the Year] and is in the midst of a special season.

After being second to Apex with a first-over trip in that NJ Classic final, he came back to win the Canadian Trotting Classic in impressive, uncovered fashion over Apex and then followed that up a week later with a late charge to win the Kentucky Futurity. He continues to be wildly overlooked, winning at odds of 12-1 and then 17-1 in those last two races, and neither of those were flukes. If Nix Nacken were to win next week's Breeders Crown final, that would complete a string of three highly coveted races and surely would be good enough to vault him into the division's top spot – something completely unforeseen a few weeks ago.

3-YEAR-OLD FILLY PACE

This division has turned into a fascinating one. It seemed like in the first part of the season that this division was being dominated by two fillies – Loua Dipa and Be Perfect BG – who seemed to stand apart from everyone else, but similar to the division prior, things look much different now.

Following an ill-fated move to try the Adios which was then followed by throat surgery, Loua Dipa did re-establish herself last month when winning both Jugette heats. Looking at it closer, the only three times she finished off the board this year were twice against males in the Adios, and then most recently from post 8 at Northfield in the Courageous Lady. She once again didn't draw well for her elimination landing the outside post 8, but with the goal this week to make the final and then next week to win it, she'd be well on her way for repeat honors.

One filly who has quietly shot up in the rankings is Miss Jum Jabber. She's a supplement to the Breeders Crown, and the PASS final and KYSS final winner has run her record on the year up to 13 wins from 17 starts. Hope Hill, who Miss Jum Jabber beat three different times in August and September at Lexington, turned the tables on Miss Jum Jabber in the Bluegrass and Garnsey the first two weeks there in October. A Breeders Crown win from either would put them in the discussion.

Sangria Summer is another that has to be right there in the mix too. Technically she beat Loua Dipa last out in the Courageous Lady, but doing so with a massive post advantage at Northfield and then doing it again, potentially next week in the Breeders Crown final would really be making a statement. She also has repeatedly beat the likes of top fillies Be Perfect BG and Darlin's Angel, and a win in the Breeders Crown to go with stakes such as the Lynch and Shady Daisy is another that gets put in the conversation in an increasingly open division.

Another filly worth mentioning is Whoomp, who has been flying under the radar in Indiana. She brings into the Breeders Crown that 11 5-6-0 record, which includes a mark of 1:48.3 taken in an Indiana Sires Stakes from July. With that record and a potential Breeders Crown to go with it – that would be a tough resume to knock.

2-YEAR-OLD COLT AND GELDING PACE

This division very well could come down to the Breeders Crown, or at the very least the Breeders Crown would be a major influence on how these 2-year-old male pacers shake out the rest of the way.

In a ridiculously stacked elimination race, Shalom Hanover and Starstruck Dreamer are joined by Ohio standout Night Surfer. If either of these three were to go on and win the final in a week, I'd have no problem with whomever that horse is leading the way or potentially even nailing down the year-end honor.

For that matter, Eastie Boy in the first of the two eliminations could make a case too. Sure, you could say he did luck out with the late scratch of Shalom Hanover in the moments leading up to the Metro final but give him credit for taking care of business that night when defaulted to the heavy race favorite. If he were to beat the killers next week, having Metro and Breeders Crown wins back-to-back do make a very compelling case.

HORSE OF THE YEAR

Take nothing away from Brandon Blvd who at this rate should be a lock for glamour division honors for the 3-year-old colt pacers, but as of this moment it does seem 4-year-old trotter Super Chapter has a firm grasp on the sport's top spot and is in the midst of a special season.

His only defeats coming earlier in the season to On To Norway in a pair of thrilling and world-record breaking races at The Meadowlands, and he hasn't lost since. Wins throughout that time include three Grade 1's, the Cashman, Maple Leaf Trot, and the $1 million Yonkers International. With a win most recently in the Dayton Derby, he's not only won five major races in a row but did so over four different sized ovals. He's made the transition to a 4-year-old beautifully.

He opted for a bye this week into next week's final, and a win at that time would put an exclamation point on a season to remember.

Elista Hanover gets well-deserved queen's farewell

The talented mare is officially retired and ready for her next chapter at Kountry Lane.

by Debbie Little

As the competitors for this weekend's Breeders Crown eliminations were announced, one obvious absence was top-notch trotting mare Elista Hanover.

The owners of Elista Hanover — Lynn and Philomena Curry and her trainer Annie Stoebe — exclusively informed Harness Racing Update that the 5-year-old mare has been retired and is ready for the next chapter in her career with Kountry Lane Standardbreds.

According to Stoebe, it was decided in January or February that this would be Elista Hanover's final year competing on the track.

"So, long story short, we knew that this was going to be her last year, regardless," Stoebe said. "So, we took it one race at a time with her, and by the Jug, she told us she was done, and for a horse that has given me the world and owes none of us anything, she made that decision, and we're so excited for her next career."

The last start for the charming chestnut child of International Moni out of the Deweycheatumnhowe mare Evermore was on Sept. 24 in the Grade 3 Miss Versatility final on Little Brown Jug Day in Delaware, OH, where she finished seventh after an unexpected break at the start of the race.

Hall of Famer David Miller was Elista Hanover's regular pilot during her 3- and 4-year-old seasons. That partnership was disrupted when Miller moved home to Ohio at the end of 2025, but he was the one in the bike this year on Jug Day.

"She doesn't seem lame to me, she doesn't seem sore, she doesn't seem off like that, but she made a break with me, and I told Annie, 'This ain't the same horse I've been driving for two years. I don't think she's herself anymore,'" Miller said. "And they decided to retire her, which I think is a good thing. I think it's a good move.

"That is a great horse, but she just didn't seem like herself anymore. I can't pinpoint what the problem was with lameness or attitude. I don't know, but I mean, for her to make a break is not her. It's not her to do that. So, you know, it's time to pull the plug, and not cheapen her."

“We knew that this was going to be her last year, regardless. So, we took it one race at a time with her, and by the Jug, she told us she was done, and for a horse that has given me the world and owes none of us anything, she made that decision, and we’re so excited for her next career.”

— Annie Stoebe

Stoebe said she and her partners took Miller’s comments to heart.

“David knows that horse in a race more than anyone, and I trust him,” Stoebe said. “And you know what? If she doesn’t feel like doing it anymore, she never has to do it again. This animal did more for us than she should have ever done. So, if she doesn’t want to race anymore. That’s okay with us.”

The Hanover Shoe Farms-bred Elista Hanover sold for $240,000 at the Standardbred Horse Sales Company 2022 yearling auction in Harrisburg, PA.

“So, she was the first yearling I ever bought into,” Stoebe said. “We didn’t fall in love with her because of her color, we just loved her as an individual and a pedigree, and Lynn was pretty dead set on her and went way over budget. And you know, quite a few people told us we were crazy for spending that much on a red horse, but I think she’s come around to show we weren’t too crazy after all.

“I mean, obviously she’s the most beautiful standardbred I’ve ever seen, so that came with a lot of pressure because I think everyone has their preconceived notions when it comes to a red standardbred. So, I felt like it was a little bit of an uphill battle.”

Elista Hanover ended her career with a record of 16-7-7 for 51 starts, banking $1,027,632.

In her 3-year-old season, Stoebe said “Elista” blossomed into the horse they hoped she would be.

“We went from the Weiss to the sire stakes, and then to the Grand Circuit level, and she won 10 in a row, and all of those were stakes races,” Stoebe said. “She just was such an amazing horse to go on that ride with, because not only was she so amazingly talented, she literally was my best friend. To see a horse that you’ve had and you’ve believed in from the word go, go out on a grand stage and perform like she did, she really is like a dream come true.”

Duane Miller, the farm manager at Kountry Lane, said he couldn’t be happier that Elista Hanover will be joining them shortly.

“I think she stacks up great with the lineup of mares we have,” Duane said, adding with a laugh, “But we’re kind of spoiled at Kountry Lane. Mr. Yoder kind of lets us buy what we want to buy, and if we have that option, we’re going to go after those types of mares.

“When you have Plunge Blue Chip, Shartin N, and Lyons Sentinel, and you know the list goes on, it’s hard to buy something lesser than that... We all know a no-name mare can be a great producer, but when we have that option, when we go to buy a mare, I kind of look for the name brand mares, and to me, she fits right in with our group.”

To a breeder, Elista Hanover’s pedigree is very inviting.

“That is another thing to me that was worth more because she’s an outcross,” Duane said. “A lot of our mares we buy these days that are name brand or good or our type are Chapter Sevens, Muscle Hills, or Walners. Well, where in the heck do you go with them? Some of them you are so limited.”

Duane said there will be a short list put together of who they’d like to pair up with Elista Hanover, including Walner and Chapter Seven, but they’re not ready to put pen to paper just yet.

Kountry Lane had the sale topper in Lexington and still has to get through the Midwest Sale in Indiana and Harrisburg before they start thinking about breeding for next year.

“All we’ve talked about is what’s great about that mare is we can go to anything we want to go to,” Duane said. “So, we haven’t even put a short list together for her yet. That’ll probably happen the week after Harrisburg.”

Duane said that he likes the fact that Stoebe and her boyfriend, Jeremy Morrison, will be driving Elista Hanover from New Jersey out to Kountry Lane in Wakarusa, IN.

Stoebe said she wouldn’t have it any other way.

“They said shipping, and I said, ‘I’m delivering her,’ and they were like, ‘Okay,’” Stoebe said with a laugh.

“When it’s a horse that’s that special, I’m doing that. Like it’s not even a question to me. Of course, I’m taking her.”

Stoebe is planning a private Elista Hanover retirement party fit for a queen.

“So, the theme of my party is a queen’s farewell,” she said. “Her racing days are over; her legacy is beginning.”

The party will be bittersweet for those closest to Elista Hanover, as they know her days in New Jersey are dwindling.

Martha Palafox has been Elista Hanover’s caretaker for most of the mare’s career.

“She just was such an amazing horse to go on that ride with, because not only was she so amazingly talented, she literally was my best friend. To see a horse that you’ve had and you’ve believed in from the word go, go out on a grand stage and perform like she did, she really is like a dream come true.”

— Annie Stoebe

“Martha started working for me at the end of her 2-year-old year, and she walked in and said, ‘I’m taking care of that one,’” Stoebe said with a laugh. “And her and Elista, they have such an incredible bond. And as hard as this is for me, it’s just as hard, if not harder, for her.”

“It’s pretty amazing to have a horse that has made an impact on so many humans’ lives. There are so many people that I could list that are going to miss seeing her at the track.”

When it comes to Elista Hanover’s triumphs on the track, Stoebe and David Miller are in agreement about which was their favorite.

Her Hambletonian Maturity,” David Miller said. “She raced her ass off that night. She two-moved back to the front and just kept rocking. That was probably the biggest win of her life. She was freaking awesome. I think she went the mile and [1]:49, and went a-mile-and-an-eighth, in like 2:03. They weren’t beating her. They weren’t going to beat her that night.

“She’s a champion. I thank God I got to drive her.”

In the 2025 Hambletonian Maturity, Elista Hanover beat a mostly male field and went 1:49.3 for the mile and a stakes record 2:03 for a-mile-and-an-eighth.

Stoebe said even though she couldn’t be happier for Elista and expects her to be a terrific mom, the next few weeks will be tough.

“Honestly, I can’t even think about it,” Stoebe said. “It’s hard because I’m so happy for her. Like she deserves this, and I got a really good chance to sit down and talk to Kountry Lane for a while in Lexington, and knowing what an amazing farm she’s going to, that she’s going to go from the queen of my barn to the queen of their barn, you can’t ask for more. You can’t ask for a better retirement. Like it’s absolutely perfect.

“But is there going to be a hole there? Absolutely. She’s more than a horse. She’s, you know, Martha’s and my best friend.

“The barn can be pitch black, and if she talks to me, I know it’s her. I know her voice. Yeah, there’s going to be an emptiness there, but you know, that’s me being selfish. She gave me her heart; she made a million dollars; she did what most red horses have never done or even thought of accomplishing. So, you know, she has broken the mold in so many ways, and she’s been such a special horse for so many reasons, and it’s amazing to have a horse that legitimately has so many fans and people that care about her and love her.”

MANE ATTRACTION

with JOHN BERRY

Stirring the pot

by John Berry

Our last Mane Attraction drew many responses from both sides of the fence, depending on how one is involved in our industry.

Owners, trainers, drivers, breeders, etc. have one view while the fan who loves the $2 action or a serious “gamer,” willing to bolster handle back to a point where it contributes to purses, for rebates, have a completely different view of things.

That’s a good thing as our aim is to improve our sport for everyone on both sides of the fence.

Maybe, just maybe, we are stirring the pot enough to begin the change in things to benefit those on both sides of the fence and invigorate what many think is a dead issue.

For example, comments were received that “time” (like in 1,000ths-of-a-second) means nothing and is a minor equation in what needs to be done.

Yet others wrote that timing is an important issue and races are won and lost in photo finishes decided by whiskers or 1,000ths-of-a-second.

It’s a start, folks.

Every stride forward just might create a new headline, or gain a new fan.

Mentioned in the last Mane Attraction were a few names that might begin the consortium of talent to really get things rolling.

Maybe Rick, Dana, Virgil, Eric, Dein and a few others can stir the pot even more, as they seem to have that insatiable yearning to do something great for the sport that has been great to them.

Take thoroughbred’s Mike Repole, who has taken on the fight for thoroughbred racing.

He just bought one million (1,000,000) shares of Churchill Downs stock, which has a value of close to $80,000,000 to challenge the “old guard racing groups” that he says have held racing back.

Over the years, he made his fortune in beverages and has owned several champion thoroughbred horses, including Uncle

BDHC (Broken Down Horseplayers Club) members hate the drag and hate the late odds changes where a 9-5 shot a minute to post is banged down to 2-5 in the final flash.

Mo, Vino Rosso, Stay Thirsty, Mo Donegal, and Forte, all winners of the sport’s great classic races.

There are some states, most recently Maryland, that have committed to our sport, and Indiana, Ohio, and Kentucky are players, too, but our industry has been hurt, in several instances, by the casino industry and politics, which have combined to use back-and-forth clout to make de-coupling a reality, breaking the supposedly unbreakable promise that, to have a casino, protection of racing must be a part of the deal.

Yeah, sure.

This Mane Attraction will not re-hash what happened in Florida and other venues as we are intent in putting the past behind us to re-create our great sport with a bunch of Mike Repoles willing to step up to the plate and, sorry, I’m one of them, leave the Mitchs and Chucks and thank them for their service, but we now use smart phones – not dial-ups.

This industry move is nothing new.

The thoroughbred industry tried to put together something over 20 years ago with an association that included successful businessmen, accountants, securities and commodities traders, authors, racing writers, television commentators, teachers, and economists, to name a handful or two.

Here are a few more of my thoughts on where we should improve.

Let me preface this by saying that those jurisdictions that are doing well because they have the support of legislatures and casinos are quite satisfied with the way things are going – even with empty grandstands.

That, literally, is in the heartland of the country.

Hopefully, things will not change for them as other more important items pop up on legislative agendas.

It’s the other side of the fence that really needs the work.

BDHC (Broken Down Horseplayers Club) members hate the drag and hate the late odds changes where a 9-5 shot a minute to post is banged down to 2-5 in the final flash.

Set a post-time and keep it. Bettors will be much happier. The bettors will bet. They are gamblers and, if you tell them to get their bets in by 8:33, they will.

It's the same old excuse, we have to have that late money burst. The other night, I tried to get into a fast-food restaurant as they closed at 9 p.m.

They locked the door as I was approaching.

And the lady signaled through the door window that they were closed.

Who runs the business? The stock market opens at 9:30 a.m., not one second earlier.

It closes at 4 p.m., not a second later.

You are out of luck, unless you want to go to another marketplace.

Set a post-time and keep it. Bettors will be much happier. The bettors will bet. They are gamblers and, if you tell them to get their bets in by 8:33, they will.

Here's another thought, tote boards (odds boards) change every 45 seconds or so.

The final two cycles before the start should be reduced to 10 seconds and, then, the windows close. No 9-5 down to 1-5 45 seconds after the bell.

The last transmission of win odds should be before the bell or no more than a few seconds after the bell.

We might even consider fixed-odds betting, where the bettor could lock in his odds supplied by either licensed personnel or the racetrack.

It could be tested along-side parimutuel betting to evaluate whether it attracts new players without disrupting pari-mutuel pools.

Takeout for the bettors must be examined.

It is my belief that pari-mutuel takeout rates are too high and that a reduction of same, especially in the exotic pools, would result in higher handle.

States and legislatures establish takeout rates, maybe the tracks, themselves could take over and, maybe, a little competition could go a long way in attracting betting dollars.

Taxation must be addressed on winnings to minimize withholding on winnings, especially on individual races. Since many players have accounts online, perhaps this could be addressed as cumulative wins/losses are routinely kept.

How about raising the threshold on winning from $5,000 to

Rebates can create excellent opportunities, maybe this industry should advertise 5 per cent cash back, just like credit card companies on television.

When it comes to late scratches, there should be an updated way to help the bettor who is stuck with the favorite by rule. After all, now that bettor may be stuck with the favorite in a race, the very horse they were betting against when they purchased their ticket(s).

Also, instead of cheapening our product when probable payoffs are posted, all W-P-S pays, Daily Doubles and Exactas should be posted in $2 pays.

So should the Pick-6.

Trifectas and Supers and Pick-3s, 4s, 5s, and 6s should be posted in $2 pays.

On the medication issue, instead of taking a random nanogram number that may have no impact on performance, an exhaustive study should be conducted on when a particular medication begins to impact a horse's performance.

We desperately need a fans wager that is seeded with a $500,000 - $1,000,000 prize.

My thought is the Great-8 with the bettor having to pick winners from races 1 through 7 with a capper being the eighth race trifecta.

One track could host it per week with every player in North America (or the world) eligible to play.

Consolation awards would be awarded, as well, of course.

Just like the lottery.

Who would play, you ask? Who wouldn't!

This, of course, begins on the fans side of the fence.

There are many more ideas that need study on the other side of the fence.

We are working on that for future Mane Attraction columns.

Until then, May The Horse Be With You!

Redland Rocket Man's Logan McMurren looks for a crowning achievement to his year

by Matthew Lomon

Before he became the caretaker of Redland Rocket Man, winner of the 81st Little Brown Jug, Logan McMurren had spent a lifetime preparing for the role.

"My grandpa had horses, so I was in the barn pretty much every day from when I was born," McMurren said. "I'd go to the barn with him instead of daycare, so when I say I've been in it since I was born, I really was in it since I was born."

Some of his first steps on this Earth came in the barn of his grandfather, longtime Ontario horseman Vic McMurren, whom Logan credits with laying his foundation in the sport.

"He taught me a lot; he's been the biggest role model in my career," Logan said.

Logan also recognized Richard and Mary Carroll, as well as Ron Duford, as key figures in his early development as a young horseman.

With a strong network of mentors behind him, Logan was quick to capitalize on the first opportunity to take his involvement to the next level.

"Once I was 10 [years old] and could get my groom's license, I was able to go to the track every night and race," he said. "On weekends, I'd be in the barn, and on days off I'd be in the barn."

And the occasional time in between.

"There might have been a few days of skipping school to go to the barn," he said with a laugh.

Logan's equine education took another sizable leap forward upon receiving his first racehorse, Partysatdoughs, from a neighbor the same year he obtained his groom's license.

A yearling at the time, the now 18-year-old son of Intrepid Seelster—Kendal Rhapsody provided Logan with his first victory.

While he may not remember the milestone moment in detail, Logan has since found a way of preserving his career's most precious moments.

"I keep a binder at home with all the win photos of horses that I've owned or horses that I really liked," he said.

Among those enshrined in his album of winners is trotter Frost On Ballykeel, the first horse he ever purchased.

The Majestic Son mare, who reached the winner's circle five times for Logan, was just as valuable for what she represented.

"I started buying horses when I was about 16, and that was when it became clear that this is what I was going to do going forward," he said.

Looking ahead, however, also meant reflecting on the lessons learned from Partysatdoughs and Frost On Ballykeel.

"You learn that every horse is different," he said, adding with a laugh, "Some will test your patience, especially when they're trotters. But there's no cookie-cutter, one-size-fits-all solution to every horse. You have to listen to what each horse needs and go from there."

Logan had just as much to discover on the business side.

"You figure out pretty quickly that it's a rollercoaster," he said. "You'll have some great highs and some low lows."

"When you're a kid it's all fun and games – go play and go hang out with horses. You eventually start to learn the business portion of it and that becomes the next part of your education."

In the years that followed, Logan developed connections with several other horses he owned, including Woman On A Mission and Calgary Seelster.

"There was this indescribable quality about Woman On A Mission," he said. "There was just something about her when

— Logan McMurren

I got her. He [Calgary Seelster] was such a classy old veteran that he was really hard not to like. Unfortunately, I didn't have him for very long because he got claimed."

Perhaps Logan's greatest connection is the one he's formed with pacing superstar Redland Rocket Man, whose full-time groom duties he took on after joining trainer John Pentland's operation last September.

"He's just a big, playful horse," Logan said. "Tori, one of our other grooms, and I joke that he'll pretend like he's going to bite you, but he never bites you. He'll look at you like, 'Oh, I'm grumpy,' and then next thing you know, he's nuzzling up against you being a big suck."

For Logan, who is typically "pretty contained" while his horses race, the thrill of watching Redland Rocket Man soar through the wire in the Little Brown Jug proved too much to contain.

"There are times with 'Redland' or other good horses that I do get a little nervous and start yelling a lot more than normal down the stretch – the Jug was one of those times," he said with a laugh.

"I was pretty sure at the head of the stretch that he was the winner, and five steps from the wire I'm still yelling, and you know he's won the race, but yet you're still cheering like crazy."

The trip back from Ohio's Delaware County Fair was about all the time Logan had to come down from the excitement, as Redland Rocket Man, and fellow sensation Jersey Bulldog, fresh off a Grade 1 She's A Great Lady score, were both back in action for the Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Super Final card on Oct. 10 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

It was a record-setting night that nobody in the Pentland barn would soon forget.

"It's been a whirlwind," Logan said. "The Jug was John's first Grade 1, and then 'Jersey' came back in the She's A Great Lady with the monster mile she went. While you're still on that high, they both do their big trips in the Super Finals."

Logan's reaction to Redland Rocket Man's OSS-record 1:48 mile was anything but "contained."

"There was screaming in that one," he said with a laugh. "When Beau's [Beau Jangles] chasing you down, with how good of a horse he is, you never totally know."

Once again, the cool-down period between heavyweight bouts was virtually non-existent for Logan, who traveled down to Ohio on Thursday alongside Redland Rocket Man in preparation for the Breeders Crown.

The son of Bulldog Hanover, out of the Captaintreacherous mare Granny Hanover, is set to contest the 3-year-old colt and gelding pace elimination on Saturday (Oct. 17) at Scioto Downs.

Logan is still wrapping his head around it all.

"This will be my first Breeders Crown," he said. "Now, it's still in the early phases, and he's got to make the final, but it'll start feeling more real as it gets closer."

"I've got my trainer's license already, and I'd be lying if I said I'll never train my own horses because I will, but when you get to look after horses like Redland [Rocket Man] or Jersey Bulldog – and [John Pentland is] such a good guy to work for – it's one of those situations where you go, 'If you're happy, why change it?'"

– Logan McMurren

Like Redland Rocket Man, Logan's career has taken off under Pentland's tutelage.

Longtime acquaintances while stabling at Dorchester Downs Training Centre, located just outside of London, ON, Logan took an immediate liking to his new employer's management style.

"John gives you the freedom to do your job, but he's also there if you need to bounce ideas off him, and he's willing to listen to you if you have an idea," Logan said. "He's not set in his ways. If you have a better idea, then he'll go with your idea."

"It's a big team effort. Everybody's involved and everybody will bounce ideas off each other and help each other out. It's a great environment."

Logan, now 29 and overseeing Pentland's Ideal Training Centre in Erin, ON, has come a long way since the early days in his grandfather's barn.

While Logan's ambitions in the industry extend beyond the present, with his team firing on all cylinders and a prolific pacer taking him on the ride of a lifetime, he's in no rush to get off.

"I've got my trainer's license already, and I'd be lying if I said I'll never train my own horses because I will, but when you get to look after horses like Redland or Jersey Bulldog – and John's such a good guy to work for – it's one of those situations where you go, 'If you're happy, why change it?'"

Buckeye Classic sale average improves 9.5 per cent

by James Platz

The 12th edition of the Buckeye Classic Yearling Sale took place Tuesday (Oct. 13) at the Champions Center Expo in Springfield, OH, with the auction producing a 9.5 per cent increase over last year despite cataloging more horses. A total of 294 yearlings passed through the sales ring for gross sales of just over $3.4 million and an average of $11,645. Last year, 242 yearlings grossed nearly $2.6 million and averaged $10,634.

"Any time you can sell 50 more horses and increase the average, it's a win," said sale manager Steve Cross.

Slay Bells, a colt from the first crop of Canadian Trotting Classic champion Slay topped the session with a bid of $100,000. Selling near the end of the day as Hip #281, the bay colt is the fourth foal from Bar Hopping mare Istara, whose family includes triple millionaire and Hambletonian champion Marion Marauder. Consigned by Clearview Farm, the colt was purchased by Adam Hawthorne.

"I drove all the way from Louisiana to purchase him and kind of really just came for that one horse," said Hawthorne, who races primarily in the Midwest and is expanding into Ohio. "He crossed every 'T' and dotted every 'I' in my book as far as a potential colt and maybe even a potential stud later on."

Hawthorne said he was the underbidder on another Slay colt at the Ohio Selected Jug Sale which brought $75,000 last month, and decided he wasn't leaving the Buckeye Classic without Slay Bells.

"I wasn't going to stop until I purchased him, whatever that price was," he said. "I felt that strongly about him so, hey, we're going to give him the best shot and see what happens."

The colt is headed to veteran Illinois trainer Tom Simmons, who breaks all of Hawthorne's babies.

The third-highest price of the day was garnered by another Slay colt, Lucky O Motive. Selling early in the session as Hip #11, the Vernon Miller-bred and Dublin Valley Farm-consigned colt brought $57,000, purchased by Steve Carter.

Led by Slay Bells and Lucky O Motive, offspring from Slay topped the sale in average. A total of 11 yearlings from the sire sold for a gross of $326,000, good for an aggregate of $29,636.

Ranking second in average was the stalwart Buckeye trotting sire Triumphant Caviar. Two of his progeny topped the sale results with the second- and fourth-highest bids. Seven Lick Rose, Hip #72, garnered a $62,000 final bid. Out of the Holiday Road mare Radiant Beam, the filly is a sibling to four different winners. Consigned by Seven Lick Stable, she was also purchased by Carter.

Tactical Triumph, Hip #67, rounded out the trotters that topped the sales sheet. The colt is the first foal from a Tactical Landing mare whose family includes the top producing Yankee Glide mare Psychotherapist. Rosy Weaver purchased the trotter from the Dundee Stables consignment.

Catch The Fire filly Delightfully Me was the highest-priced pacer in the Buckeye Classic sale, fetching $52,000. Consigned by Clearview Farm, the filly is the first foal from a full-sister to Indiana standout Rockin Ron p, 1:47.2s ($1,807,038). Wayne Mast, Jr. signed the slip, one of seven purchases that totaled $172,000.

A group of 25 Catch The Fire progeny sold for a $408,000 gross, good for a $16,320 average. That figure ranked third among pacing sires behind Downbytheseaside (three sold/$17,667 average) and first crop sire Lou's Pearlman (16 sold/$16,844 average).

Next on the list of pacers was Miss Western Road, Hip #194 from the Trackside Farm and Martz Creek Farm consignment. From the first crop of Cane Pace winner Rockyroad Hanover, the filly is out of 100-per cent producing Western Terror mare Bazooka Terror. She was purchased by Kayne Kauffman for $42,000.

Sensational Beach, a filly by Pebble Beach, was next in the results. Consigned by Dublin Valley Farm and cataloged as Hip #96, the pacer is a sister to Ys Sensationalcity, a winner of over $300,000 racing in Canada. She was purchased by The Stable Racing Corporation.

Weaver and Herman Hagerman were the most active buyers at Tuesday's sale, each signing 11 tickets apiece. Weaver's purchases totaled $274,500, while the acquisitions for Hagerman Racing topped out at $127,000.

Dublin Valley Farm topped all consignors in gross sales, with a roster of 55 yearlings selling for $640,500. Clearview Farm ranked highest by sale average of consignors selling five or more yearlings. The 11-horse consignment grossed $280,000, signaling an average of $25,455. Rose Run Farm's five-yearling roster averaged $22,900.

London Classic Yearling Sale average of $32,663 up nearly 7 per cent

by Dave Briggs / Ontario Racing

New and stable government funding and a diverse lineup of Ontario stallions helped the London Classic Yearling Sale (LCYS) set a new record for average of $32,663 that was the highest in the five years the auction has been operated by the Western Fair District in London, ON.

At the two-day sale, held Tuesday and Wednesday (Oct. 13 and 14) at the J-AAR Expo Centre (formerly the Agriplex) across the street from The Raceway at the Western Fair District, 264 yearlings were sold. The total gross was $8.623 million.

The province has allocated an additional \$14 million to the standardbred industry for each of the next five years. Of that, the vast majority is going to purses and horse improvement programs such as the Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS).

"I think [the new money from the province] gives [buyers] some peace of mind to know that there's funding out there and that things aren't going to be pulled back and they're not going to have to struggle," said Karen Favacho, farm manager of Seelster Farms of Lucan, ON which led all consignors with an average of $60,542 for 25 yearlings sold.

"I think any type of announcement that there's more funding is going to give them more confidence in the bidding circle."

The LCYS average was up 6.6 per cent from the 2025 auction ($30,651). The gross was down 2.7 per cent from a year ago ($8.86 million), though that's understandable given 25 more yearlings were sold in 2025. This year's average was up 14.5 per cent from 2024 ($28,516) and up 22.4 per cent from 2023 ($26,687). This year's gross was up 23 per cent from 2024 ($7.015 million) and up 14 per cent from 2023 ($7.58 million).

The Western Fair District took over ownership of the long-time London auction in 2022.

Claus Andersen

Hip #55 North Lite, a King Of The North-Shine Bright colt that is a brother to two-time OSS Super Final champ and Breeders Crown entrant Strobe Lite, was the top trotter sold at the 2026 LCYS with a bid of $150,000.

Claus Andersen

Sale manager Greg Blanchard said he was thrilled the average was up and the gross “flirted with $9 million.”

“Yesterday our average was up, and today we maintained that. On Day 2, it’s anecdotal whether the lineup was as strong or not, but obviously the buyers said it was. Today, I didn’t think we had maybe the high-level flashy pedigrees that we saw yesterday overall. But there were some really nice pedigrees and a lot of really solid offerings that seemed to be the bidding trend.”

Two yearlings sold for $150,000 each to tie for the title of sale topper – Hip #55 North Lite, a King Of The North—Shine Bright colt that is a brother to two-time OSS Super Final champ and Breeders Crown entrant Strobe Lite and Hip #86 Vaughn Seelster, a Bulldog Hanover colt out of Violet Limelight.

Jim Bullock’s Glengate Farms of Erin, ON bred and sold North Lite out of the Preferred Equine consignment to Glenview Livestock of Arthur, ON. Bullock sold 10 yearlings for a total of $517,000 to average $51,700.

“That’s pretty good,” Bullock said. “I’m very happy with that.”

Claus Andersen

The London Classic Yearling Sale grossed $8.623 million for an average price of $32,663.

Preferred led all consignors in gross sales with $1,937,453 for 55 sold.

Seelster Farms sold Vaughn Seelster – a second foal out of a daughter of Benear who has produced Limelight Beach ($1,370,324), Manhattan Beach ($869,862), Momas Got A Gun ($509,844), Im A Lou Lou ($491,701), and Southport Beach ($362,722) – to Pam Young of London, ON.

Bulldog Hanover stands at Seelster Farms. He led all sires with an average of $70,267, grossing $1,124,267 for 16 sold.

“Obviously, the Bulldogs were very popular noting his recent wins in the Little Brown Jug [with Redland Rocket Man] and in the OSS Super Finals [with Redland Rocket Man, Totally Tyler, and Jersey Bulldog],” Favacho said. “People wanted some hard proof [about Bulldog Hanover offspring], and they definitely got it these last few weeks. It was perfect timing [for the sale].”

Tina Marie Howard, Seelster’s veterinary technician, said Bulldog offspring are, “easy horses to sell. They’re very well conformed and look great... He’s a great horse himself to work with in the breeding shed.”

Seelster also sold the third-highest priced yearling, Hip #70 Soliloquy Seelster, a King Of The North filly out of Speak Of The Devil, for $145,000 to Ecurie CSL of Sorel-Tracy, QC. Soliloquy Seelster is a half-sister to Sprite Seelster ($323,963) and Salem Seelster ($99,760) and is out of a dam that is a sister to JL Cruze ($2,136,793).

Claus Andersen
Seelster Farms' Méline Pilon.

King Of The North was the leading trotting stallion by average and second overall at $43,563. His 32 yearlings grossed $1,394,016, total.

"I think the King Of The Norths were very popular," Favacho said. "We also had a Muscle Mass, who has had a resurgence this year, which was excellent for us. We also sold a really nice Archangel, which we really liked, and a Green Manalishi. We had a representation of many of the [top] Ontario [trotting] stallions.

"You see a nice resurgence of Ontario stallions right now, and that's great for Ontario. Cattlewash is doing excellent. It's a nice thing to be able to sell horses that people are excited about."

Eleven yearlings sold for $100,000 or more at the LCYS.

Still, despite improved results, several consignors mentioned that Ontario needs more horse owners to drive bidding.

"I think, generally, the sale's been okay," Bullock said. "It's just that some of the bidding is a little thin. It's always been that you have to have two bidders, and, unfortunately, a number of horses going for very low numbers is because there just isn't the second bidder there.

"But I've been fortunate, and my lowest price was $14,000. And [my trainer] John Bax bought that one. I'm not in on it... It's a King Of The North, but it's small."

Captains Mistress looks to make history in Victoria Cup

The 4-year-old could be the first mare to beat the boys and win the Group 1 event.

by Adam Hamilton

History awaits wonder mare Captains Mistress.

Victory at Melton on Saturday night (Oct. 17) will make her the first mare to beat the boys and win the Group 1 Victoria Cup.

That would be quite something in one of Australia's most treasured races, which was first run back in 1974.

For context, Kiwi queen Blossom Lady and former Aussie starlet Tailamade Lombo are regarded as the best Down Under pacing mares of the modern era. They had a combined seven cracks at the Victoria Cup without winning.

Blossom Lady came closest when second to Chokin in 1994. She also ran third to Master Musician a year earlier. Her other run was a brave fourth in 1995.

Club Menangle/Pacepix
Captains Mistress with driver Cam Hart (blue and yellow colors) and owner Mick Boots (far right) after winning the 2026 Chariots of Fire.

Tailamade Lombo's best effort was at her first attempt as a 4-year-old (the same age as Captains Mistress now) when she finished fourth in 1999. She then ran 12th (2000), eighth (2001), and fifth (2002).

In more recent times, Ameretto was second to Lennytheshark in 2017, Carlas Pixel ran third to Tiger Tara in 2018, and former Kiwi star Amazing Dream was a close-up fourth to Max Delight in 2021.

Mares try, damn good mares, but they don't win Victoria Cups.

Despite all that, Captains Mistress is the $1.20 favorite (for a $1 bet) on Saturday night after drawing perfectly in barrier 3.

That's how stunning her splash into the big league has been.

She should be in front soon after the start and looks close to unbeatable.

The daughter of Captaintreacherous only joined Jason Grimson's Menangle stable late last year.

Captains Mistress has raced 14 times for Grimson for 13 wins, five of them at Group 1 level.

There's plenty who think she should be unbeaten. The one defeat came in the Miracle Mile on March 14 when Grimson instructed stand-in driver Jye Coney to give the mare an easy run and drive for luck at her first run against the best pacers in this part of the world.

Luck didn't come. Captains Mistress hit the line full of running and nowhere to go, just 6.7 meters from the winner, Leap To Fame.

But it was that epic Brisbane Inter Dominion final on July 18, when Captains Mistress got revenge on Leap To Fame and squared the ledger 1-1, that underlined how special she was.

She won't have Leap To Fame to deal with this time.

He's still around, but trainer/driver Grant Dixon borrowed a line from Kenny Rogers' song The Gambler and decided to "fold 'em" after three previous unsuccessful attempts to win the Victoria Cup.

He ran third in 2023, missed the 2024 race with a throat infection, and then had to be content with third again.

"We've given it a fair crack," Dixon said. "Maybe it's just not meant to be."

Leap To Fame will instead stay at home in Queensland and do all his lead-up racing there before the New Zealand Cup in Christchurch on Nov. 10.

Other than her own stablemates like Dangerous, Captains Knock, Minos, and even the old boy, Swayzee, the biggest danger to Captains Mistress in the Victoria Cup will be the defending champion, Kingman.

That's despite Kingman winning just one of his 10 starts this year and even that was nine starts back in the Shepparton Cup on Jan. 17.

Trainer/driver Luke McCarthy insists Kingman is finally where he needs to be.

He's ready for the challenge, but will need plenty to go right from an awkward inside back row barrier [gate 8]," McCarthy said.

"He was just exhausted by the end of his last campaign; he'd had enough and wasn't himself.

"He got a good break, has a couple of trials, and now a couple of races, too.

"I got it wrong first-up with my drive, easing back and then he put in a couple of rough strides.

"Everything at home told me he was on target and he showed it last time. I know he had an easy run, but he felt great and hit the line really well.

"He'll be right at his top when it matters, but it's going to be very hard now the way the barriers have landed."

Captains Mistress' driver Cam Hart insists the history of mares in the Victoria Cup doesn't faze him.

"It sounds strange, but I don't think I'm driving a mare against the males when I go out on her," he said.

"I do remember thinking there was a Group 1 mares' race on the same night as the Inter Dominion final, but it never crossed our minds to go that way instead with her."

Captains Mistress has raced the boys in 11 of her 14 starts for Grimson, including three Group 1 wins in the Inter Dominion, Chariots Of Fire, and Rising Sun.

But of those, only the Inter Dominion has been a true open-class race with the latter two being for no older than 4-year-olds.

Captains Mistress grabbed a slice of history in that Inter Dominion final.

She became just the second 4-year-old mare to win the great race and the first since Jodie's Babe did so at Perth's Gloucester Park way back in 1989.

"There's lots of talk about the records she is breaking, but this could just be the start of it," Hart said.

"Hopefully she races for another 12 to 18 months and she'll do so many things no other mare has done.

"Leap To Fame is an all-time great, one of the greatest we've ever seen. I think she could be remembered the same sort of way if we get to see a lot more of her.

"You forget how quickly she's got to where she has and there's no reason she shouldn't keep getting better."

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Southwind Frank-sired trotters win Harrington DSBF finals

by Matt Sparacino / Harrington Raceway

Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund (DSBF) final action for 2-year-old trotters headlined the Wednesday (Oct. 14) program at Harrington Raceway, as finals for colts and geldings and fillies were contested to wrap up a week of stakes action as the track's 80th anniversary season winds down.

Both finals were won by Southwind Frank-sired horses.

A new track record was set in the filly trotting final as Burke Racing and Weaver Brusceci's Daringly was a wire-to-wire winner in 1:57 over Vamoose, who previously held the track record, and Franchesca. Daringly registered her fourth career win for trainer Ron Burke.

Michael and Linda English's Mike Franks ($5.80, Ross Wolfenden) was a 1:58 winner in the $110,000 DSBF final for colts and geldings. The speedy gelding utilized a strong stretch surge to grab the lead late for his fourth career win for trainer John Wilkerson over Lebanon Levii and Youcancallmeroy. The win time established a new lifetime best for Mike Franks.

A pair of trotting consolation events saw sons of Yankee Royalty get their first career wins. Robin Callahan's Italian Royalty ($21.60, Justin Vincent) was a 2:01.3 winner in the $20,000 DSBF consolation for 2-year-old colts and geldings over Frosty Frank and Royalty Counts. Italian Royalty is trained by his owner.

One race later, in the filly trot consolation, Whodathunkitstable's Diamond Advantage ($5, Jason Green) was a blowout winner over A Yankee Blast and Savannah's Joy in 2:01.4. Diamond Advantage is trained by Cliff Green.

In the overnight feature, the venerable Speed Away ($6.60, Corey Callahan) was a 1:54.2 winner in the $22,500 open trot for owners Breakaway Racing and Yorwollohan Racing Team over Dyladmar and Somebody Special. Trained by Nick Callahan, it was his 10th win of the year and 34th of his career. Driver Callahan won three straight races during that stretch of the program (races 5-7).

Live racing will continue on a Monday through Wednesday schedule through Oct. 21.

SALTY BEACHES WINS DSBF FILLY PACING FINAL

Tyler Davis' Salty Beaches ($2.80, Montrell Teague) was a four-length winner in the $110,000 Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund (DSBF) 2-year-old pacing final Tuesday (Oct. 13) at Harrington Raceway in 1:56.3.

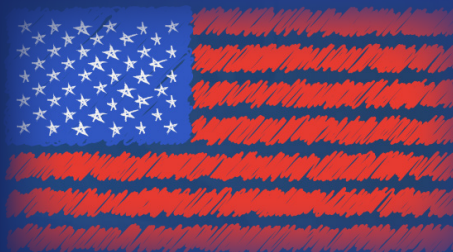

Trained by her owner, the Badlands Hanover filly overcame the outside post early and cruised to a front-end triumph, her fourth in a row. Land Of The Free was second with Unberdnbywhatsben third.

In the $20,000 DSBF pacing filly consolation, Eddie Davis' Aunt Agnes ($9.40, Teague) was a 1:58.2 winner over Double Luxe and Wisdom N Grace for trainer Martin Davis.

Steve Manzi and Pie San LLC's Remy Brown ($3.60, Brandon Givens) won the $22,500 mares open in 1:52.3 over Phoenix Rising and Earth Angel for trainer Joe Hundertpfund, Jr.

Driver Art Stafford, Jr. had four wins on the card.

Buter photoed out of Pocono stakes sweep

Tyler Buter, going for his second straight driving crown at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania, won two of three $30,000 divisions of the Super Bowl, a John Simpson, Sr. Memorial Stake for 2-year-old trotting males held Tuesday (Oct. 13) at the mountain oval – and he came as close as you can in harness racing to pulling off the sweep.

Having already won Simpson sections with Green To Go and Hook N Reel, Buter tried for the three-bagger with 6-5 second choice Strapped. Favored Red Andray took the field to the first striped pole, and then Buter brushed Strapped to the lead during quarter two. Chalooch came first-over from mid-backstretch and battled steadily with the leader around the far turn, with Red Andray waiting in the 2-hole.

Chalooch and Strapped continued their fight into the lane, where the even-money chalk got clearance in the Pocono Pike, and that one looked to be trotting right to the lead when he made a break midstretch and went to the centerfield. Given another shot to complete Buter's stakes triple, Strapped was urged on and dug in, but Chalooch proved to have the most by the smallest of photo margins, with Kountry Infusion closing well to miss it all by a head.

The 1:56.1 victory was the first win for Chalooch, a Tactical Landing–Bingo Queen colt who was driven by Anthony Napolitano for trainer Alexander Wieder, Jr. and Crestwood Farm LLC.

Buter opened the stakes action with Green To Go, an altered son of Greenshoe—Donna Hill, who took advantage of a pocket journey behind Capt Osborne then outfooted that rival by a half-length in a 1:58.1 mile; first-over Wyoming was also in the late hunt but lost his gait trying for more power. Green To Go, a Stallion Series and Keystone Classic winner and the public choice, added the Simpson to his resume for trainer/owner D. R. Ackerman.

Hook N Reel, a Captain Corey—Flos Conch Shack gelding, took the point in the second stanza, then came home in :57.4 - :28.2 – and needed to, as Whatachapter SS S closed in :28 himself in coming up shy by three-quarters-of-a-length in the 1:57.1 mile. A double Stallion Series winner, Hook N Reel is trained by Åke Svanstedt, whose Åke Svanstedt Inc shares ownership with Brochart Stable Inc and S R F Stable.

Buter had four sulky successes in all, including one for the meet's leading trainer Ron Burke. The Napolitano brothers continued their winning ways, with Anthony winning twice to complete a 10-win three-day week, and George, Jr. piloting three (including the Early Double for the day's only doubling conditioner Marc Mosher) to bring his total to nine for the week.

Racing resumes at Pocono on Saturday at 1 p.m., with $217,000 of prizes on the line in Simpson Stakes action, split between the Ayres for sophomore trotting males and the Razzle Hanover for freshman female pacers. There will also be a carryover into the fifth race Pick-5 wager. Free Pocono program pages are or will be available at www.ppha.org.

Harness racing returns to The Big M Saturday

After a four-week hibernation while the thoroughbreds took the spotlight, the standardbreds will be back racing over the mile oval at The Meadowlands on Saturday (Oct. 17) night, as the Fall Meeting resumes its march to the end of 2026.

Post time is 6:20 p.m.

Fans of all horse racing will get to sample a buffet of both breeds this weekend, as the final evening of thoroughbred turf action takes place tonight (Oct. 16) with a 7 p.m. post time.

"The four weeks of turf racing provided some variety for our regular customers," said Big M chief operating officer/general manager Jason Settlemoir. "But now, it's time to get back to what we are known for here at The Big M, the best harness racing in the world.”

He makes a good point.

The temperatures will continue to cool down as fall advances toward winter, but the harness action will remain hot through the end of the year.

The pacers and trotters will be in action at The Big M every Friday and Saturday through the end of 2026, with just one exception, as there is no live racing on Christmas Day, Dec. 25.

In addition, there are three Thursday cards on the calendar: Dec. 3, 10, and 17.

All told, there are 23 nights of live Meadowlands harness racing remaining this year, and each has a post time of 6:20 p.m.

SAVE THE DATES: There are still some dates worth circling on your calendar if you only like to come out to The Big M when the racing is at a sky-high level, starting with Saturday (Oct. 31), when four $125,000 Kindergarten finals for 2-year-olds of each sex and gait are offered on the Halloween Night program.

But that’s not all.

Two weeks later, on Saturday (Nov. 14), the last major stakes card on not just The Meadowlands schedule, but the entire harness racing calendar, takes place when estimated purses of $2.65 million will be up for grabs on Fall Final Four/FanDuel Championships Night.

The eight stakes races that will take place that evening are:

- $400,000 (est.) Valley Victory (2-year-old colt and gelding trot)
- $400,000 (est.) Governor’s Cup (2-year-old colt and gelding pace)
- $400,000 (est.) Goldsmith Maid (2-year-old filly trot)
- $400,000 (est.) Three Diamonds (2-year-old filly pace)
- $350,000 (est.) FanDuel Open Pace
- $350,000 (est.) FanDuel Open Trot
- $175,000 (est.) FanDuel Fillies and Mares Trot
- $175,000 (est.) FanDuel Fillies and Mares Pace

(All FanDuel events are for 3-year-olds and up)

The 2026 stakes curtain will then fall when four $70,000 (est.) New Jersey Standardbred Development Fund finals for 2-year-olds of each sex and gait will be contested on Saturday (Nov. 21).

IT’S LIVE ON FOX: The TV teams at The Meadowlands and the New York Racing Association will continue their partnership with two more live broadcasts that will bring high-end Big M stakes action into people’s living rooms from coast-to-coast.

Both Kindergarten Finals Night as well as Fall Final Four/FanDuel Championships Night will be televised as part of the NYRA’s “America’s Day at the Races” series. The Kindergarten races take place on Saturday (Oct. 31), and will be on FOX Sports 2 (FS2) from 8-11 p.m., while the FF4/FDC are on Saturday (Nov. 14), and will be broadcast on FS2 from 9-11 p.m.

BOZICH ON SET: Joining regular Big M TV simulcast show host Dave Little on the Sam McKee Memorial Broadcast Set Saturday night will be Mike Bozich, the longtime voice of Harrah’s Philadelphia.

Ken Warkentin will be in his usual spot at the top of the stands calling the action with Gary DiLeo handling interviews with winning connections.

THE GREAT EIGHT: The Meadowlands’ betting public is now accustomed to the new $3 Late Pick-3 (Races 13-15) and $5 Late Daily Double (14-15), but still go for mile oval’s wagers that offer a low 15 per cent takeout in a big way.

These are the bets that will offer that low takeout for this Saturday’s 15-race program:

- Race 1: 10-cent Pentafecta (Hi-5)
- Races 1-5: 20-cent Pick-5
- Races 3-8: 20-cent Pick-6
- Races 6-9: 50-cent Pick-4
- Race 8: 10-cent Pentafecta (Hi-5)
- Races 8-12: 20-cent Pick-5
- Races 10-13: 50-cent Pick-4
- Race 11: 10-cent Pentafecta (Hi-5)

PROGRAMS FOR FREE: To show appreciation to its loyal fan base, The Meadowlands offers free program pages for every race of every race card on its website.

Go to playmeadowlands.com, then click on the “handicapping” dropdown to get the past performances at absolutely no cost.

Road To Oak Grove Derby and Oaks continues with four more ‘win and you’re in spots’ secured

Four more standout 2-year-old trotters have punched their tickets to the eliminations for the 2027 Oak Grove Trotting Derby and Oaks following major Sires Stakes championship victories over the weekend.

In the colt division, Fifty And Famous secured an automatic qualifying berth in the eliminations for the 2027 $500,000 Oak Grove Trotting Derby with a victory in the $250,000 Indiana Sires Stakes championship for 2-year-old trotting colts at Harrah’s Hoosier Park on Friday (Oct. 9). Driven by Trace Tetrack for trainer Luis Quevedo, Fifty And Famous is owned by John Barnard and has increased his bankroll to $193,350. Also in the colt division, Detonater Hanover earned a spot by winning the $350,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Super Final for 2-year-old trotting colts at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Saturday (Oct. 10) in a stakes record 1:52.2. Driven by Tyler Moore for trainer/father Dr. Ian Moore, Detonater Hanover increased his career earnings to $529,232. He is owned by Detonater Hanover Stable.

In the filly division, Redice earned her automatic qualifying spot in the eliminations to the 2027 $300,000 Oak Grove Trotting Oaks by capturing the $250,000 Indiana Sire Stakes Championship for two-year-old trotting fillies on Friday (Oct. 9) at Harrah's Hoosier Park. Driven by Atlee Bender for trainer Erv Miller, Redice posted a 1:55.3 win for owners Ervin Miller Stable Inc, Anthony Lombardi, and Stepbystep Racing. Also in the filly division, Verily earned a spot by winning the $350,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Super Final for 2-year-old trotting fillies at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Saturday (Oct. 10). Driven by Louis-Philippe Roy for trainer Meg Crone and owner Bill Donovan, Verily increased her career earnings to $431,575 in a stakes record time of 1:52.3.

The "Road to..." series was established to reward top 2-year-old trotting performances and enrich Oak Grove's premier events. A series of designated Grand Circuit and Sire Stakes races serve as automatic qualifying events to the Derby and Oaks eliminations.
