Rebuff colt Ponda Tuna tops Midwest Standardbred Horse Sale at $120,000

The two-day auction at the Indiana State Fairgrounds grossed $7.85 million.

MIDWEST CHRONICLES

with JAMES PLATZ

The second edition of the Midwest Standardbred Horse Sale was held Thursday (Oct. 15) and Friday (Oct. 16) at the Indiana State Fairgrounds, and offered a catalog of 439 yearlings. Of that group, 420 sold during the two sessions, grossing $7.85 million and averaging $18,702. Seven yearlings fetched bids of $100,000 or more, with Rebuff colt Hip #317 Ponda Tuna topping the second session, and the sale, with a $120,000 final bid.

Rebuff's second crop was in high demand due to the success of his freshman offerings. A group of 40 yearlings sired by the son of Muscle Hill passed through the sale ring over the two days averaging $29,650. Ponda Tuna, consigned by Pond-A-Acres, led the list. The second foal from Big Stick Lindy mare Perfect Stick, a winner of over $250,000 on the track, was purchased by Anthony Lombardi.

Next on the list for the sire was colt Supernatural from the Black Creek Farm consignment. Cataloged as Hip #267, he is the fifth foal from Kadabra mare Majic Trend, who has produced six-figure earners Pinecraft Nellie and One Dan Show, with freshman Great Commission earning over $50,000 this season. Lucas Wallin bought Supernatural for $105,000.

Hip #267 Supernatural sold for $105,000.

Rounding out Rebuff's top sellers was Hip #393 Ponda Latte' from the Pond-A-Acres roster. The filly is the first foal from Walner mare Sugar Shoppe, whose dam is Chocolatier mare Sweet Thing, a 16-time winner with a 1:53.1 mark. Adam Hawthorne signed the ticket on the filly.

Rebuff stands at Jeff and Maria King's Victory Hill Farm, along with Swan For All and pacing stallions JK Endofanera, Rockin Image, Tellitlikeitis, and Sippinonsearoc, who was added in 2026. Perennial trotting stalwart Swan For All was represented by 61 yearlings and averaged $20,098, while offspring from JK Endofanera (46/$22,935 average), Tellitlikeitis (65/$20,154), and Rockin Image (31/$19,19,032) all sold well with a yearling sired by each topping the sales sheets. Only Rockin Image failed to produce a $100,000 sale.

"We've been very lucky there," Jeff King said of Victory Hill's sire lineup. "They still do well in sire stakes and do well in the finals, but eventually we're going to have to find something new. What's getting tough is my stallions are getting old. Swan For All's going to be 21, Rockin Image will be 20, Tell's 17, but they still hang in there."

Victory Hill led all consignors in sale average, with a roster of 22 babies that sold for $970,000 and averaged $44,091. Among the offerings was Tells Rollin Again, Hip #198, a Tellitlikeitis filly that brought $110,000 near the end of the first session and led all pacers. A full sister to near-$800,000 winner Tells On A Roll, the filly was purchased by Burke Racing Stable. Swan For All filly Beauty With Grace, Hip #66, brought $100,000. The first foal from a Muscle Hill sister to four six-figure earners was purchased by Pat De Long.

De Long also signed the ticket Thursday on Swan For All filly Bluebird Grace, Hip #192, for $110,000. The filly is out of Chapter Seven mare Gracefilly Hanover, who has produced six-figure earner Exactly.

"We liked the pedigree on [Beauty With Grace] and we looked at her at the farm and she was all trot, so she was on the list," De Long said. "And the other one is a Swan out of a Chapter Seven mare. She's already produced one in [1]:52. So, they were our two favorites [Thursday] for trotting fillies."

De Long added three more purchases Friday, spending $405,000 in total. Only Bet The House (11 for $472,000) and Tom Pollack (seven for $407,000) spent more. Pollack's top purchase was JK Endofanera filly Blue Bonnet, cataloged as Hip #285, a half-sister to top sophomore pacer Somemore Blue. Raised and consigned by In-Law Stables, the filly brought $100,000.

Pat and his father, Bo, are longtime supporters of the Indiana program and the sale, previously operated as the Hoosier Classic Yearling Sale.

"Every year we usually have anywhere from four to seven homebreds," Pat said before the start of Friday's session. "So, we'll still come here and pick some out. We don't have any trotting mares yet. Maybe down the road, but we're always kind of looking for some trotters. We kind of know what we have at home, so we know if we need to upgrade our stock or not when we come here.

Dean Gillette

"This year, for example, we know we want to buy at least four, maybe up to six or seven. It just kind of depends on how the price goes. But normally we try to have about a dozen yearlings between the homebreds and what we buy."

While top progeny from established stallions garnered much attention, the debut for first crop stallion Loubet was also strong.

> *"We liked the pedigree on [Hip #66 Beauty With Grace] and we looked at her at the farm and she was all trot, so she was on the list. And the other one [Hip #192 Bluebird Grace] is a Swan [For All] out of a Chapter Seven mare [Gracefilly Hanover]. She's already produced one in [1]:52. > — Pat De Long

A group of 27 babies representing the son of Sweet Lou sold over two days, grossing $609,000 and averaging $22,556. Colt Rocka Bye Lou, Hip #372, consigned by Premier Acres topped the list, bringing $75,000. The colt is a half-brother to freshman This Captain Rocks, a winner of just shy of $80,000 this season.

Jeff Fought, who stands Loubet under the banner of Cornerstone Stock Farm, was pleased with the stallion's reception, and purchased the aforementioned colt. He noted that despite Loubet getting a full book of mares, many of the breeders in the first crop are also trainers, resulting in few yearlings consigned to public auction.

When comparing the business levels of 2025, the inaugural MSHS sale offered three sessions, including a third day with yearlings and a mixed catalog. The Gold and Silver sessions from the 2025 sale saw 494 yearlings bring $8.87 million in sales with a $17,958 average. When totaling all yearlings sold at the sale last year — 599 over the three sessions — gross sales topped $9.5 million, setting an average of $15,912.

Captains Mistress becomes first mare to win Group 1 Victoria Cup

by Adam Hamilton

Wonder mare Captains Mistress will continue to chase records after her historic win in Saturday night's (Oct. 17) Group 1 Victoria Cup at Melton.

The stunning 4-year-old daughter of Captaintreacherous became the first mare in the history of the iconic Victoria Cup, first run in 1974, to win the race.

Now her rampaging trainer Jason Grimson wants her to become the first pacer to win Victoria's $1 million Summer of Glory bonus.

And that means a reshuffle of plans with Captains Mistress over the next few months.

She will go to New Zealand, but not for as long as Grimson had planned.

"She's booked to fly over next Sunday, but won't stay as long as we'd talked about," he said.

Plans to go from Christchurch to chase Group 1 races in Auckland in December have been scrapped.

Captains Mistress' next race will be in the Kaikoura Cup on Nov. 2, at one of the sport's most picturesque tracks about three hours north-east of Christchurch and on the edge of the ocean.

They camp at the track for weeks to get a vantage point before the two days of racing.

Spots will be a lot more sought after this year.

There is a chance Captains Mistress could tackle the Group 1 New Zealand free-for-all on Nov. 13 before returning home.

Grimson and owner Mick Boots made the call a couple of months ago not to take on Leap To Fame in the grueling New Zealand Cup over 3,200 meters on Nov. 10.

By scrapping Auckland plans, the mare will have time to return home and freshen-up before chasing the bonus in Victoria.

The Victoria Cup was the first of four qualifying races Captains Mistress needs to win to be alive to land the bonus if she can also add the Group 1 Hunter Cup on Feb. 13.

The other qualifying races are the Bendigo Cup (Jan. 9), Shepparton Gold Cup (Jan. 16), Ballarat Cup (Jan. 23), Cranbourne Gold Cup (Jan. 30), and the Kilmore Cup (Feb. 6).

The Bendigo Cup would seem a lock, given connections would almost certainly want to bypass the standing-start handicap conditions of the Shepparton Cup a week later.

This is the second year of the bonus and, ironically, it was Grimson who thwarted the great Leap To Fame winning it earlier this year when Swayzee upstaged him in the Hunter Cup.

Captains Mistress has been a revelation since joining Grimson's stable late last year from New Zealand.

This year she's raced 15 times for 14 wins and a luckless fifth in the Miracle Mile. Six of the wins have been at Group 1 level.

LEAP TO FAME GETS WIN NO. 75, STAYS ON TRACK FOR NEW ZEALAND CUP

Australia's champion pacer Leap To Fame stayed home instead of making his fourth attempt to win the Victoria Cup.

The rising 8-year-old finished third in 2023 and third again last year, while he was scratched just days before the 2024 Cup with a throat infection.

Trainer/driver Grant Dixon wanted to do all his lead-up racing at home in Brisbane before heading to Christchurch to try and win the iconic New Zealand Cup for the first time.

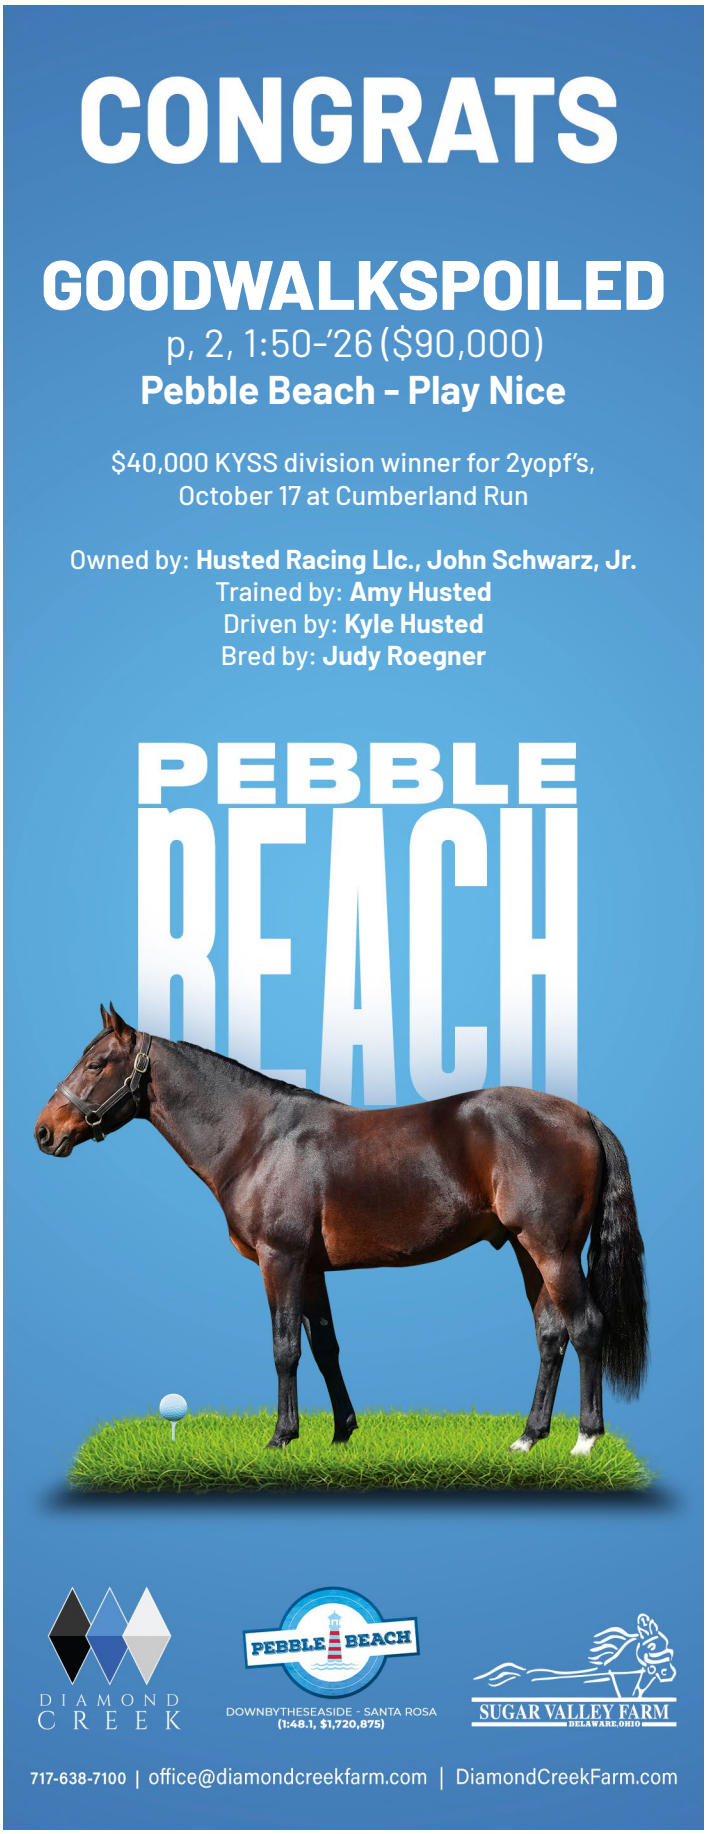

Leap To Fame cruised to his third win from as many starts this campaign and his 75th from 95 starts at Albion Park last night.

"He'll have one more here before we head across about a week before the [New Zealand] Cup [Nov. 10]," Dixon said.

I AM WILMA TAKES BILL COLLINS TROTTERS' SPRINT FOR ALFORD AND LANG, SR.

wins came with Glenbogle (2006), Kyvalley Blur (2013), Maori Time (2016), and Queen Elida (2023).

I Am Wilma is trained by Chris Lang, Sr. and his partner Sonia Mahar.

Lang, Sr. is one of the masters of Down Under trotting and landed his third Bill Collins win. He trained Skyvalley to win in 2009 and the great Sundons Gift in 2010.

He's won 39 Group 1 races in Australia.

"This is a huge thrill," Lang, Sr. said. "She hasn't been the easiest mare to train, but the ability has always been there."

I Am Wilma's 1:53.1 mile rate for the 1,720 meters was a race record and not far off The Locomotive's 1:51.9 track record.

DYNAMITEDAN GIVES EMMA STEWART ANOTHER VICTORIA DERBY VICTORY

Champion trainer Emma Stewart continued her remarkable dominance of the Group 1 Victoria Derby with an upset quinella last night.

Two outsiders of Stewart's four finalists, Dynamitedan and Mount Barker Boy, stormed home in a brutally run race to give her a fifth Victoria Derby win in the past six years.

And it was leviathan owner Danny Zavitsanos' third win in the past four years, having scored with Petracca (2023), Fox Dan (last year), and now Dynamitedan.

Zavitsanos gave huge credit to driver James Herbertson, who landed the 15th Group 1 win of his blossoming career.

"Herbie's the best," Zavitsanos said. "He's number one. He's got lengths on them."

The race was set for swoopers from back in the field when favorite Palladium had to sit outside the leader and they scorched a :26.7 split down the back straight.

Palladium's effort to still run a close fifth was enormous.

Stewart also landed the quinella in last night's Group 1 Victoria Oaks when the untapped Bettor Beach beat Willows Girl with almost 25 meters away to the third-placed Rachels Legacy.

DARYL DOUGLAS DRIVES IJUSTCANTSEEIT TO VICTORY IN VICTORIA TROTTERS' OAKS

Former dominant driver Daryl Douglas wound back the clock with an upset win aboard Ijustcantseeit in the Group 1 Victoria Trotters' Oaks.

The 53-year-old Douglas, who boasts almost 4,800 career wins, dominated Australia's driving ranks in the early 2000s, winning six successive national driving premierships from 2005/06 to 2010/11.

It was his 16th Group 1 win, but his first since winning a Vic-bred trotting final on Revelstoke on Dec. 31, 2022.

Ijustcantseeit stormed home as a $41 outsider (for a $1 bet) to give trainer Rebecca Morrissey her first Group 1 win.

It was a female trifecta with Morrissey training the winner, Tina Ridis training and driving runner-up Hallesbesofine, and Jayne Davies training third place-getter Harperseven.

FIGHTER COMMAND SCRATCHED WITH INJURY

Victoria Cup Night started on a horrible note for top Victoria trainer Jess Tubbs when she had to scratch her stable star Fighter Command from the main event with injury.

A gutted Tubbs revealed Fighter Command, one of Australia's most exciting pacers, had a suspensory ligament injury.

"It's a suspensory," she said. "Six months rehab and see if we can get him back again."

It's the latest major blow for a pacer who is special to Tubbs on so many levels.

He is the lasting equine link to her late husband, Greg Sugars, and their project horse.

Fighter Command almost died with a twisted bowel just over two years ago when he was scratched just days before being a major contender in the then $2.1M TAB Eureka.

The rising 6-year-old looked in his prime after winning a heat and running a fantastic fifth in the Brisbane Inter Dominion in July.

Fighter Command has raced just 34 times for 16 wins, seven placings, and almost $320,000 in prize money.

TALES FROM THE CURMUDGEON

with MURRAY BROWN

Mission impossible, trotting edition

by Murray Brown

Last week, I accepted the challenge to foresee a quality broodmare band made up of 10 yearling pacing fillies scheduled to sell in Harrisburg. They are indeed an impressive group.

As impressive as the pedigrees of those pacing fillies are, it's my opinion that the trotting fillies in this second part of the challenge surpasses them in overall quality of pedigree. I would go even further and say that the dams of these 10 trotting fillies as a group have produced the winners of more money than any comparable group offered at auction this year. I don't have the data on hand, but I would make an educated guess that they might even surpass the number of such a group ever offered at public auction in the history of the sport.

I realize that is a very bold statement but so are the astonishing numbers.

Assuming that my math is correct (I've triple checked the numbers), the dams of these 10 fillies have produced the winners of $23,645,494. That's an average of well over two-and-one-quarter million dollars per mare.

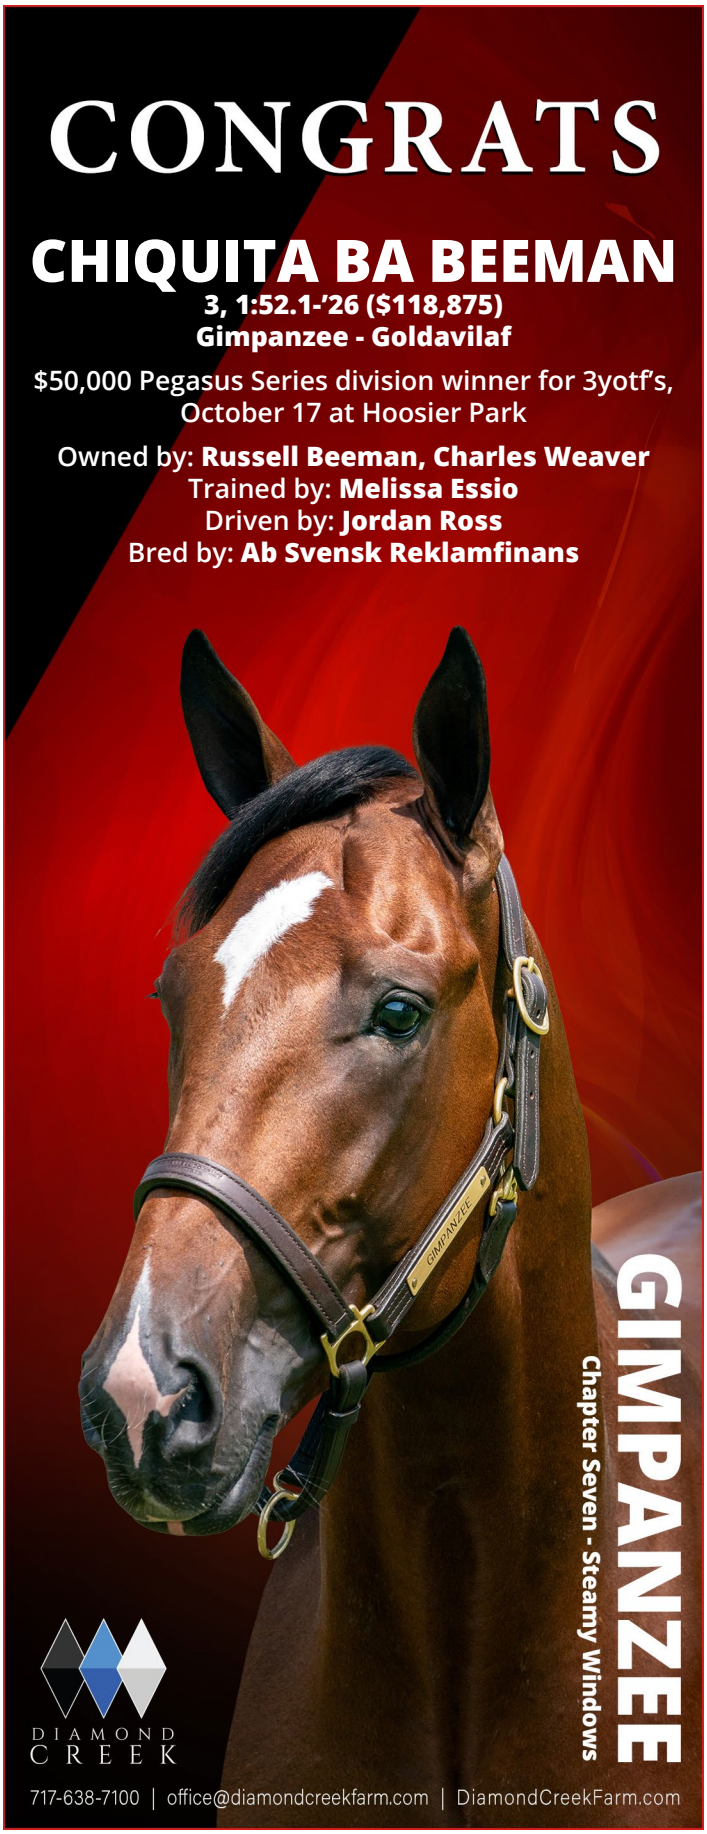

Rather than continue to speak collectively of those 10 fillies, let's take a look at them individually in order of my preference.

Hip #88 Live Long Hanover — Chapter Seven—Lifetime Pursuit—Cantab Hall. The first attribute that jumps out is that this filly is a full sister to the possible Horse of the Year Super Chapter ($2,949,066).

In my introduction with the pacing fillies last week, I said that their sires are not of primary importance, but when it's possibly the world's greatest sire, it has to mean a little more.

Her dam Lifetime Pursuit was a great Grand Circuit filly who earned ($1,065,586). She is sired by Cantab Hall as are the dams of four of the 10 fillies on this list. She comes from a great George Segal/Brittany Farms family.

Lifetime Pursuit's foals have earned $2,957,016.

Hip #143 Secret Luv Hanover — Walner—Secret Magic—Cantab Hall. Being a sibling to the great world champion trotter Manchego ($3,144,777) should be enough. But there is more, much more. She is a sibling to three other stakes winners including the millionaire In Secret ($1,006,318). Her dam is a half-sister to the world champion and millionaire Possess The Magic ($1,043,503).

If Chapter Seven is not the world's leading trotting sire, then his son Walner undoubtedly is. She is another filly that comes from a great George Segal/Brittany Farms family.

Secret Magic's foals have earned $4,495,019.

Hip #43 Coffeeshop Hanover — Chapter Seven—Crucial—Father Patrick. A full sister to the Dan Patch 2-Year-Old Trotting Colt of 2024 Maryland ($1,719,655). From the multiple stakes winner Crucial ($528,598), a sibling to the Dan Patch and O'Brien winner Venerable ($1,187,798), and three other stakes winners. Her grandam Jolene Jolene ($231,673) provides the link to arguably the top trotting family in the breed today.

Crucial's foals have earned $1,928,722.

Hip #484 Angel Angelica — Tactical Approach—Solveig—Yankee Glide. A sibling to nine stakes winners including the two-time Dan Patch winner Shake It Cerry ($2,786,104), Uncle Lasse ($931,268), the world champion Dontyouforgetit ($598,049), and Solvato ($300,931).

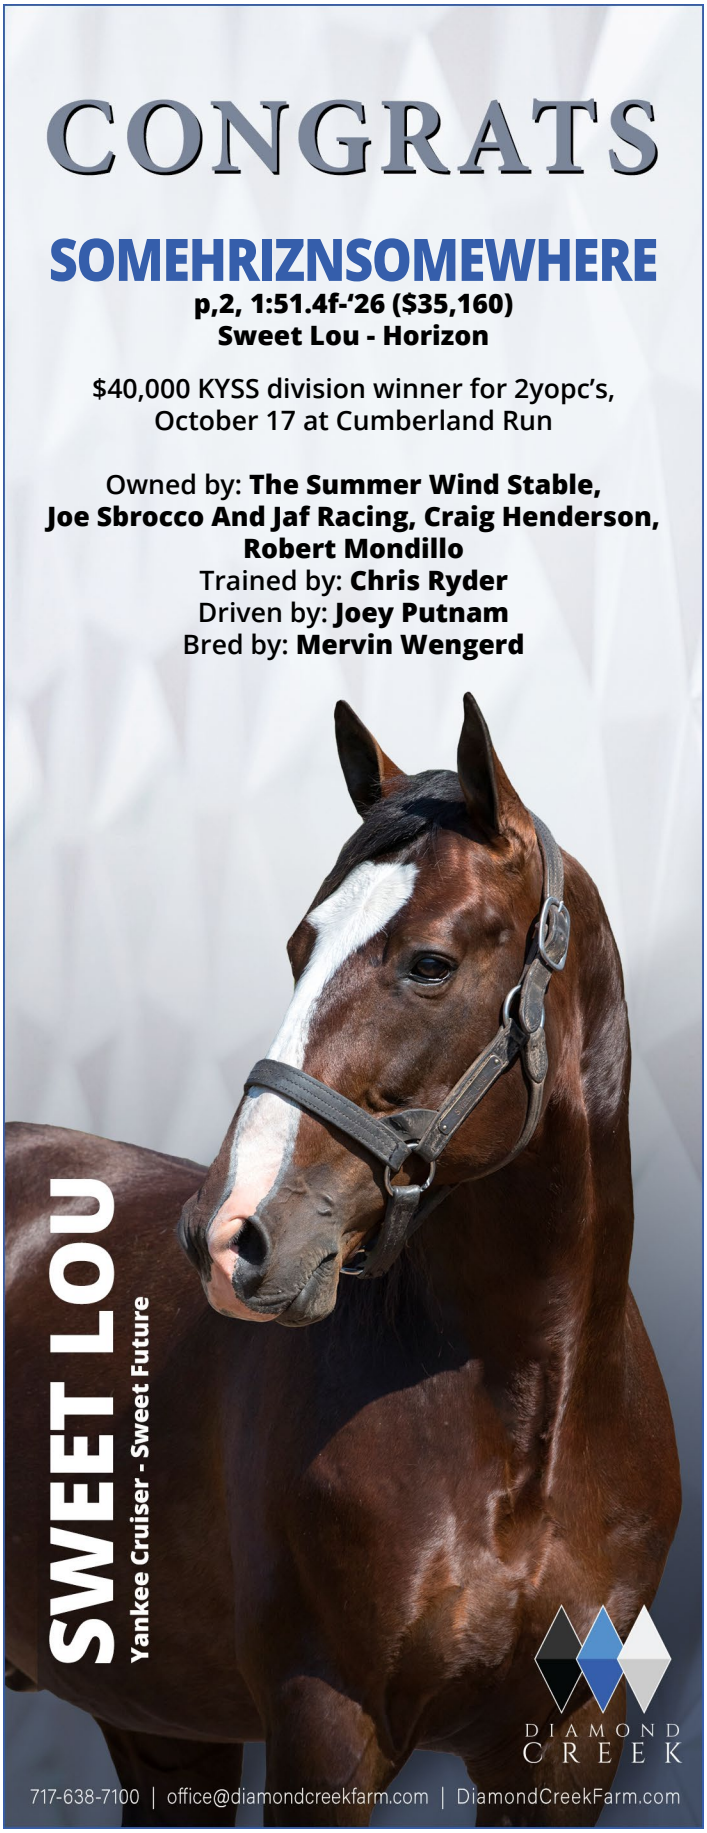

From a family brought into modern prominence by the Takter family.

Solveig's foals have earned $5,143,429.

Hip #269 Caribbean Coast — Captain Corey—Costa Rica—Muscles Yankee. To me, this filly is the most intriguing trotter being sold this year. Not because her dam Costa Rica ($1,394,797) was a great race filly, who comes from one of trotting's greatest filly families. I first became enamored of it through the 1966 Hambletonian winning filly Kerry Way ($221,559), a product of Clarence Gaines' Gainesway Farm (Yes that Gainesway Farm that is today a thoroughbred breeding colossus).

Not necessarily because of her two illustrious daughters Classical Way ($715,499) and Exclusive Way ($138,688) and their production which includes world champion Expressway Hanover ($339,606) and in turn their produce which includes Dan Patch and O'Brien winner Rotation ($1,245,143).

Why then you might ask?

Because Costa Rica has had only one previous living foal and that was 12 years ago. It's obvious that Costa Rica has had reproductive issues. This filly was produced through embryo transfer. I'm hoping that she goes on to perpetuate a great trotting line that has been somewhat dormant of late.

Costa Rica's one living foal earned $150,966.

Hip #73 Book A Spa Day – Walner–Hot Mess Hanover–Cantab Hall. She is a full sister to the great Dan Patch winning Trotting Mare of 2024 Jiggy Jog S ($3,095,467) and a half-sister to the stakes winning fillies Wild Jiggy S ($140,500) and Margareta Hanover ($112,474), they representing all of the dam's foals of racing age.

Hot Mess Hanover's foals have earned $3,348,141.

Hip #69 Hulu Hanover – Volume Eight–Hillarmbro–Muscle Hill. Half-sister to the Hambletonian Oaks winner Heaven Hanover ($555,637) and the 2026 Elegant Image winner Nuance ($304,761).

Hillambro's foals have earned $883,618.

Hip #47 Eavesdrop Hanover – Captain Corey–Evermore–Deweycheatumnhowe. Half-sister to the multiple stakes winning fillies Elista Hanover ($1,027,632) and May Karp ($281,408).

From a sibling to the stakes winners Nows The Moment ($936,782) and the O'Brien winner Up And Ready ($434,173).

Evermore's foals have earned $1,418,906.

Hip #561 Thinksmart Hanover – Tactical Approach–Think Twice–Cantab Hall. Half-sister to five stakes winners including Temporal Hanover ($972,166), Top Gun Hanover ($214,091), and Hill Street ($202,399 internationally).

Think Twice's foals have earned $1,529,667 domestically.

Hip #91 Finest Chapter – Chapter Seven–Fine Tuned Lady–Cantab Hall. Sister or half-sister to three stakes winners including Oh Well ($1,566,877) and My Way ($115,503). From the multiple stakes winner Fine Tuned Lady ($643,987), a half-sister to Everyone's Talking ($474,228), and Poster Pin Up ($439,454).

Fine Tuned Lady's foals have earned $1,784,810).

THE VIEW FROM WOODBINE MOHAWK PARK

with MELISSA KEITH

Mohawk handicapper Garnet Barnsdale on owning a piece of flawless, fractional Woodmere Rock It

by Melissa Keith

Garnet Barnsdale writes the Mohawk Horseplayers' Journal. He is also a proud fractional owner of Woodmere Rock It (p, 2, 1:52.4; $64,463), the undefeated 2-year-old Maritime champion. The son of Tobago Cays—Musette Mindale matched the all-time Canadian record for 2-year-old pacing geldings on a half-mile track in PEI Colt Stakes Gold at Red Shores Charlottetown on Aug. 19, with TheStable.ca founder Anthony MacDonald driving.

Sharing ownership of Woodmere Rock It has been a thrilling ride for Barnsdale, who has recently been watching plenty of 2-year-olds in the Harvest Series at Woodbine Mohawk Park. The fillies racing on Oct. 12 included three with PEI race lines. Although Maritime-bred Woodmere Rock It is ineligible to the series, his string of going-away victories raises the question: What could he do on the bigger track?

Woodmere Rock It is owned by Thestable Woodmererock It of Guelph, ON.

"I've been with TheStable since basically the beginning, so I guess you could say 10 years," Barnsdale said. "Some years I have bigger involvement than others. I basically saw their advertising, and at a certain point went and covered one of their seminars for the Down the Stretch newspaper."

The seminar convinced Barnsdale that TheStable.ca was "a good way to get in at your own budget," even for "a guy like [him] who never, ever thought or dreamed that he could afford to own a racehorse."

MacDonald's training videos and regular updates help in managing expectations.

"They have the training videos where his brother Curtis will go out with a drone and take videos of the horses training down during their training sets, and you can watch that on their YouTube channel," Barnsdale said. "Anthony also does videos, like every day of the week, updating people on training; after races; kind of what went right, what went wrong; what he believes the next steps are with certain horses."

Nine years later, he is still a satisfied customer who estimates he has owned shares of "30 or 40" TheStable.ca horses.

Over time, licensing requirements became one of Barnsdale's main considerations when buying shares.

"Certain jurisdictions require a license for even one per cent, like Ontario does, which I think is detrimental," he said. "You know, if 100 people buy one per cent of a racehorse, they shouldn't be required to buy 100 different licenses, plus a Standardbred Canada license… To offset that, I do like to own Ontario-bred [horses] because I can actually go and watch them race without traveling somewhere far away… But I have owned a lot of Ohio-breds, because you can own up to four per cent without buying a license."

Barnsdale has watched Woodmere Rock It race only once in person, when visiting PEI for the Atlantic Breeders Crown on Oct. 4. His horse won by over seven open lengths in 1:54.2 for driver Gilles Barrieau. He was previously able to visit trainer Jamie Smith's stable during Old Home Week.

"He's a really smart horse and a real sweetheart to be around," said Barnsdale, who purchased 10 per cent of the future Maritime star when "Rock It" was a yearling.

"That's the biggest share I've owned of any racehorse, and I guess I picked the right one to do that," Barnsdale said adding with a laugh, "Apparently, there's 36 owners: 35 are Maritimers and there's one interloper."

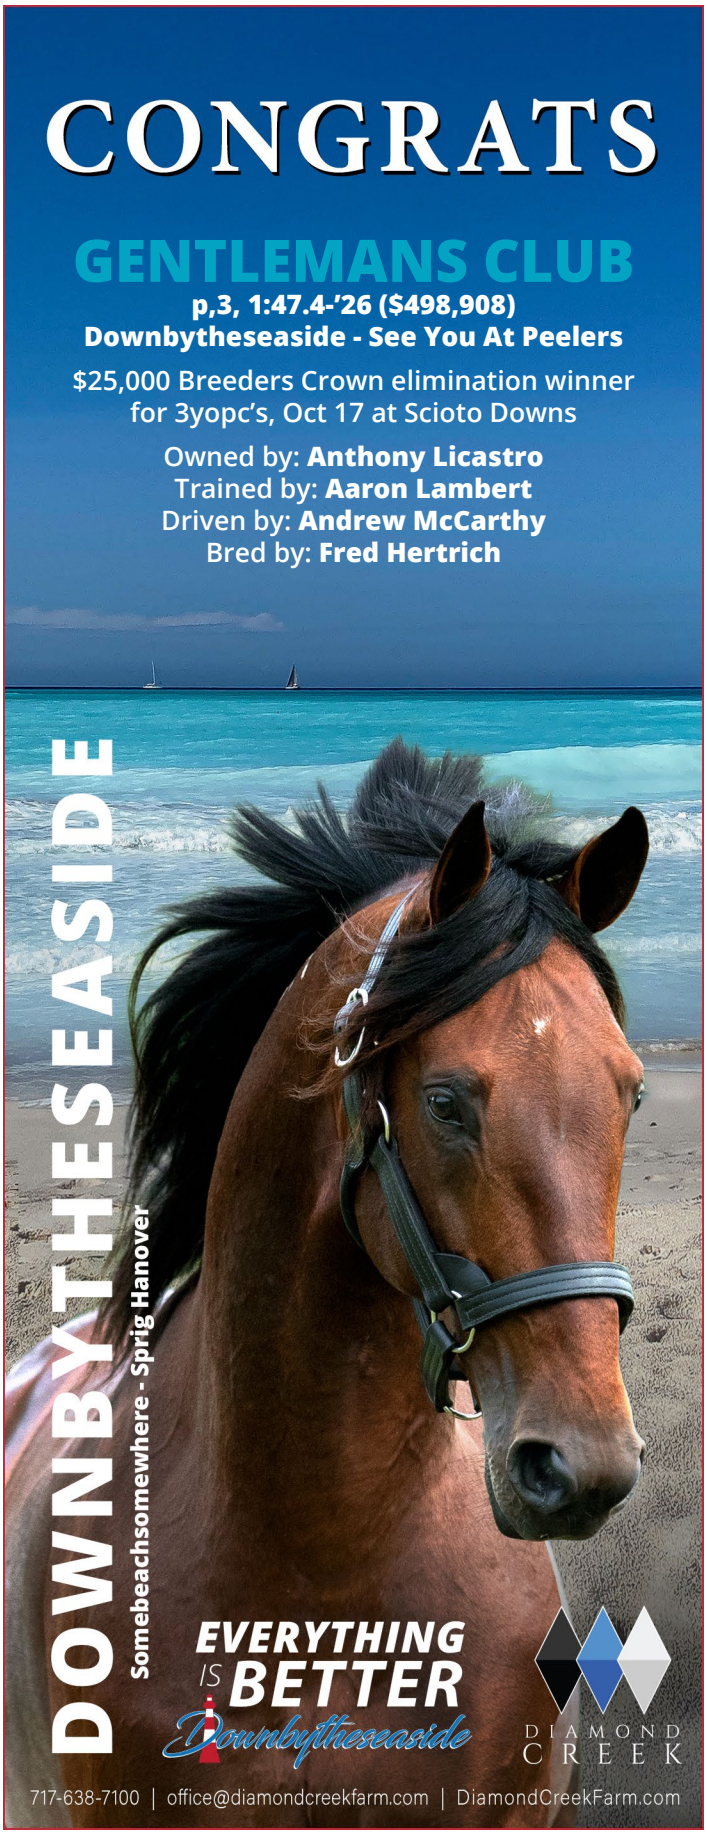

The Oct. 17 Maritime Breeders' Stake at Charlottetown was likely the last start of the year for Woodmere Rock It. Bred and privately sold by Woodmere Farms of Marshfield, PEI, he is expected to remain in the Maritimes for his sophomore stakes. After that, "he's got to go somewhere where there's money, because he looks the part," Barnsdale said.

With another PEI-foaled gelding, OSS Gold Super Final winner Redland Rocket Man, currently among the top 3-year-old pacers on the continent, it's easy to fantasize about Woodmere Rock It's upward trajectory. Barnsdale said he would eventually love to see his horse in the Mohawk open.

"That would be the pinnacle for me," he said. "I dream, but I do temper that by telling myself: 'Listen, let's see what happens in the 3-year-old season.'"

In the meantime, he has bought shares in Countyourblessings, a first-crop daughter of Tactical Landing purchased by TheStable.ca at Lexington. Shares, priced at $100.50 (CAD) apiece, are now sold out.

Susanne Oscarsson's a matriarch who keeps it all in the family

by Victoria Howard

Susanne Oscarsson was born in Sweden, a country renowned for producing some of the best trotters and horsemen in the world.

She did not grow up in a harness racing family, but as a little girl she loved being around horses and began taking riding lessons.

When the lessons became too expensive for her mother, Oscarsson got a job working in a trotting stable where she learned the ins and outs of the business for free.

That little girl has come a long way since those days.

Throughout her racing career, Oscarsson drove in approximately 1,000 races and was victorious in (approximately) 100. She also won the "Ladies SM" in Sweden and the "EM" twice in Italy.

The Oscarsson family has a notable history that has produced several successful horses and connections of prominent racing events.

Since you trained and drove yourself, where have you raced?

"I've raced in Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Italy, and Holland. Presently, I spend most of my time in the barn helping out, leaving the heavier work to my husband and son. We have a small breeding business in Sweden, too, that I enjoy."

You also breed standardbreds. Do you own a stallion?

"Yes, we breed and own one stallion, Aperfectyankee [Yankee Glide—Asixpakfromperfect]. Aperfectyankee was a very good horse who brought my family many wonderful memories. He won the Peter Haughton Memorial, Pennsylvania Sire Stakes, and finished fourth in the Hambletonian Stakes.

"In 2013 my husband and I decided to move to Florida to chase our Hambletonian dream and escape the cold winters. At that time, Aperfectyankee was the year's fastest freshman trotter, after winning the Peter Haughton Memorial in 1:54.1.

"We returned to the States for a second time [in 2024], following our success in 2011-13 with our superstars Aperfectyankee and Nuncio."

Who do you presently work for?

"I work for my husband, Jim Oscarsson. He's taught me everything I know and we work together great."

Do you own a farm and if so, where is it located?

"My husband and I have a little breeding business in Sweden that we absolutely love. Our farm in Sweden is managed by our daughter who keeps things running.

"We also have a house in Delray Beach and in season we race mainly in New Jersey and Kentucky."

How are your son and daughter involved in the business?

"My son, Kevin, trains, drives, and races in Sweden. Recently he won a big race in Sweden with one of our homebreds, Logan Huntzberger. We are very proud of Kevin; he's doing a great job.

"Our daughter Natalie is also involved. She trains and races and takes care of our farm in Sweden. Stabled there are four broodmares, our stallion, a racehorse named Muscle Rex, and our yearling, a filly by Tactical Landing. Natalie is quite busy as she also works daily with children."

You've had the pleasure of working with some exceptionally nice horses. Do you have a favorite?

"I love them all, but there are three special horses. They are Dig For Dollars and Explosive de Vie (who took me to the International race at Yonkers with my son in the bike).

"And there's also Southwind Chaska. I love this filly, but she has a big attitude. She loves to train and race, but, sometimes a little too much. She enjoys going around the farm, eating the grass, and checking everything."

With decades in the sport, what is the most exciting time you've had and what do you enjoy the most?

"I enjoy meeting all the lovely and helpful people in the sport. Also, when my children win, it is thrilling. When we won the Peter Haughton Memorial with Aperfectyankee, with my husband in the bike, it was the most wonderful experience."

Is there a particular female you admire in harness racing?

"In Sweden it would be Catharina Lundstrom, and here in the States, it is Julie Miller. She is talented, has had a lot of success, and always has a smile on her face."

Does your husband do most of the driving? If not, who do you use?

"My husband Jim does some of our driving, but we also use Tim Tetrick, Dexter Dunn, the 'Blues brothers' Todd and Andrew [McCarthy], and Scott Zeron. They all are great drivers."

Who is your fastest all-time horse?

"Southwind Chaska. She won the Bluegrass 2-Year-Old Filly Trot in 1:51.4... in 2025 with Tetrick in the bike. Southwind Chaska is a Tactical Landing—Southwind Chai filly owned in partnership with us [Oscarsson Racing Stable, alongside Dr. John Cummins].

"She is an incredible fast filly who trotted her last quarter in :26.3 finishing second in a division of the Grade 2 Del Miller Memorial. She was a half-length behind the winner Nezuko Kamado S and was race timed in 1:50.1 — the fastest mile of the year for sophomore trotters.

"Southwind Chaska is one of those dreams come true. She was purchased for $15,000 at the 2024 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale."

With racetracks closing their doors and prominent owners getting out of the business, what do you think we can do to help revive our sport to when it once was called, "the most popular spectator sport in America?"

"I think we should have a lot more open houses so people can come and watch us train and see how we care for our horses. And we need to focus more on the grooms, and those involved in the barn area. "People don't have the slightest clue how hard it is to properly care for a horse, and especially a racehorse. People need to be educated on our sport."

Any last words you'd like to say?

"Yes, I am so grateful for what harness racing has given me and my family, for all the many wonderful times, and to have lived a life that people only dream of."

Wordlessly, he walked to the adjoining stall, led out a black horse, and hooked him to crossties. Hooley and Marchais watched the trainer put the harness and the bridle on the massive head.

"I've got to get this colt out before the track closes. Just a slow jog. He's been sick. He needs some fresh air."

Then Peter disappeared out the barn door and returned in a few moments, towing a two-seat jog cart. The narrow wheels rattled over the asphalt. Hooley looked at the cart and then at the horse.

"Two seats?"

Peter grinned. "Amazing detective work."

Marchais, watching from his perch on the straw bale, clapped his palm on his forehead.

A few seconds later, the black horse stood between the shafts at the barn entrance, harness securely buckled, lines running back to Peter's hands. Outside, the late afternoon sun lay across the empty racetrack, and somewhere in the distance, geese honked.

Hooley snapped the chinstrap of the helmet Peter offered and hopped on beside him. The trainer clicked his tongue, and the horse stepped forward.

The two-person cart rattled through the gap in the fence and onto the empty racetrack. The horse changed gears from a walk to a slow trot. Hooves struck the track in a steady beat, the cart floating behind them as they moved down the backstretch. For the first time since the case began, Hooley understood why people might spend money on a horse.

Hooley held the side of the cart with one hand. "Okay," he said. "Tell me about the ugly turn this horse story has taken."

"Ugly turns."

"That bad?"

"My cousin is exhausting. He's like a hornet buzzing around your head, and he keeps you swatting like a lunatic. The day after he surprised me with the announcement that the Kansas City ladies were each taking a quarter of the horse, he suggested we inflate the sales price for the new owners."

"I told him that the sales price was published and I'm not padding anything. This didn't faze him. He was on a crooked roll and said we could call it a surcharge for resale."

I said, "Alex, I don't even know what the hell that means, but the answer is a hard no."

Hooley smiled. "People like your cousin make the ridiculous seem normal. They have a weird confidence. The woman he sucked into marriage, same thing. She is a decent person, a nice person. She's vulnerable. Alex saw that and targeted her."

"He's always been like this, even as a kid. He lies so smoothly it's scary. He's a good-looking guy. The ladies were available, but only if Alex saw an angle. And when he moves on, and he always moves on, he does not have a hint of remorse about the damage he leaves behind."

They jogged in silence. On the third slow lap, Hooley forgot that he was a few feet off the ground, pulled by a horse. He said, "The clopping is putting me in a Zen state."

"Still Kentucky, but I know what you mean. That sound is one of the reasons most of us in the horse business are broke."

"What do the twitching ears mean?"

"The horse is thinking, listening."

After a pause, the trainer said, "Hooley, I'm looking out for the ladies from Topeka."

"When you called the ladies, you made an excellent move. Not telling your cousin that you called them was an even better move. Alex thinks he is driving. But for once, he is a passenger."

"Here's another of Alex's moves. Since I won't ask them to pay over the purchase price, he wants me to pad their monthly bills, pad them so much that they cover his bills."

"What a guy."

"He goes on and on. He creates phony statements for me to use. He was smooth some days and pushy on others."

"What happened?"

"I called the Topeka ladies. I told them my daily rate, which is low, and told them not to pay attention to any other bills. Doreen is very sharp; they pay me on an iPad using pictures of checks. Actually, Alex is paying his own inflated bills with scammed funds."

Hooley said, "I find that news strangely comforting."

Peter grinned. "Those women are smart. They enjoy jerking Alex around. And they were ready. They dragged it out and enjoyed every minute that Alex tried to work on them."

"Which was?"

"As soon as the filly started looking like the real deal, he wanted to own three-quarters of the horse instead of his one-quarter. So, he goes into action. He drove to Topeka twice, each time with a bullshit story."

Hooley asked, "Story about what?"

"His first story was that the horse was a loser, and Alex felt so bad that he would personally buy back their shares and absorb their losses."

Hooley rolled his eyes. "What a prince."

"The next time, Alex told them that his calculations were wrong and the tax deductions would not work. Adele said it was as close to groveling as she had ever seen in an almost human being."

"They didn't sell?"

"No, of course not, not even close. But they tortured him like a couple of cool cats with a mouse. Acting naive and telling him that they were thinking about it. I'm not even going to get into his phantom vet bills."

Peter steered the horse off the track at the second gate. The horse slowed to a walk. Marchais had watched the entire jog with his chin on the back of his hands on the top of the gray fence surrounding the track. Both men hopped off in front of the door to barn 6.

Hooley looked directly at Peter. "Appreciate the ride; really enjoyed it. This horse business isn't really a police matter, but it was a great case to close my career on. More fun than tragedy. One last thing - do you sense that Alex is possibly dangerous, physically dangerous?"

Peter did not answer for a few beats. Then he spoke slowly.

"Probably not. He has a temper when others call bullshit on him. When he gets cornered, he turns on the charm." He paused and added, "But then again, he has never smelled a payday like this horse."

Emoticon Legacy takes Breeders Crown open trot elim handily

by Kimberly Rinker for Breeders Crown

Emoticon Legacy and driver Bob McClure prevailed as expected in the Breeders Crown open trot elimination on Saturday night (Oct. 17) at Scioto Downs. The son of Walner, out of the two-time Breeders Crown-winning mare Emoticon Hanover, was the 1-9 favorite and did not disappoint his backers with another stellar performance, stopping the timer easily in 1:51.4.

Owned and bred by Determination of Montreal, QC, Emoticon Legacy notched his fourth victory of the season in 10 starts and upped his seasonal earnings to $319,916 and his career bankroll to $1,437,447. Conditioned by Luc Blais, the trotter has 15 career triumphs, six seconds, and one third in 27 trips postward.

"He's a superstar," McClure said. "Last year he could bully his way around a lot more and this year he's had to learn a few things. With Super Chapter not being in here, I felt he had a really good shot to win. His biggest asset is his lungs — he can carry his speed a long way and he can pull through a situation where he might not have the greatest trip and still give you a great effort."

Longshots 24-1 Up Your Deo (Ake Svanstedt) and 17-1 Go Dog Go (Scott Zeron) slugged it out to the :28.1 first quarter but both yielded to Emoticon Legacy, who got away fourth, when he made his early move. As the field moved to the :56.4 half, French Wine (Jason Bartlett) was first up to the leader but was not able to progress and by the 1:24.2 three-quarter-mile marker, Emoticon Legacy had a comfortable lead that was not to be surpassed. Go Dog Go held on for second, while the hard trying 15-1 Antognoni S (Yannick Gingras) got up for third, with Up Your Deo holding on for fourth place honors.

McClure admitted he'd prefer Emoticon Legacy to have a mid-inside post for the final.

"On a five-eighths, I'd say the best post for him would be the 3- or 4-hole," McClure said. "Having the rail or 2-hole would definitely be a disadvantage."

Emoticon Legacy's best effort this season came when he won the $347,000 Grade 2 Charlie Hill Memorial Trot over this same oval on Sept. 12, setting a new track and world record of 1:50.2 for 4-year-old trotting stallions.

The draw for the Open Trot will be held on Tuesday at the Pinnacle Golf Club.

Diabolic Hill, Big Ranger capture Breeders Crown 3-year-old colt trot eliminations

by Greg Reinhart for Breeders Crown

The two $25,000 Breeders Crown 3-year-old colt trot eliminations on Saturday night (Oct. 17) at Eldorado Scioto Downs saw Diabolic Hill and Big Ranger emerge victorious.

An elimination winner in the Breeders Crown 2-year-old colt trot in 2025, Diabolic Hill, driven by Todd McCarthy, repeated that feat in 2026, tallying in a lifetime-best 1:51.2.

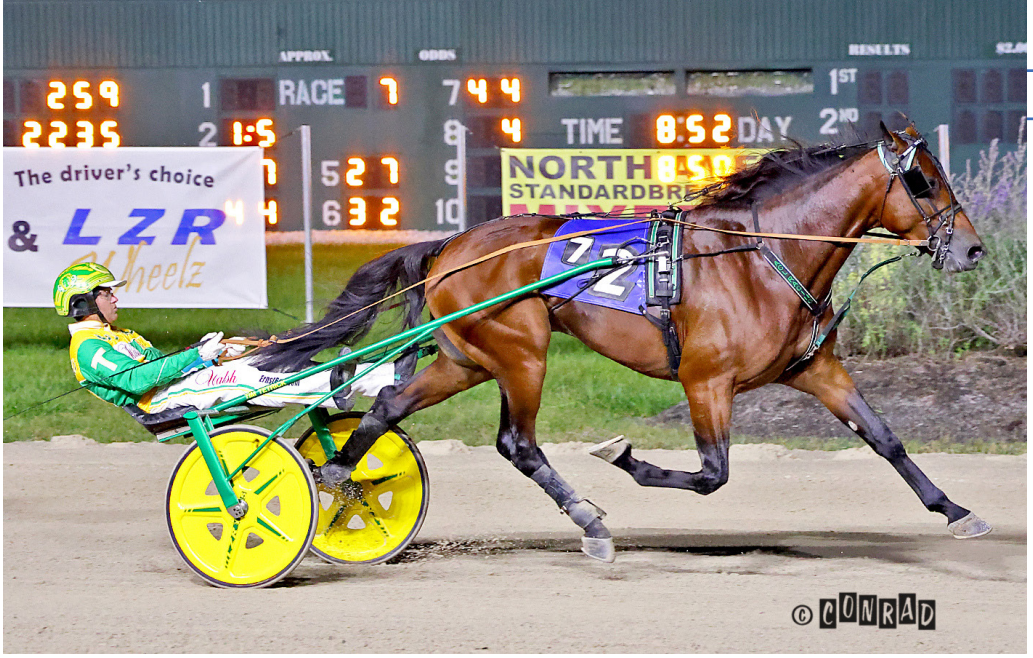

Diabolic Hill was part of the early mix for command with Inexpressable (Scott Zeron) and American Power (Yannick Gingras) but relented to sit in third on the first turn briefly before McCarthy wheeled him to the outside and took command past the :28.1 quarter. Hambletonian champion Apex (Dexter Dunn) was hot on Diabolic Hill's heels, though, and he would become the tempo-setter on the way to the 56 second half-mile marker.

Zeron put Inexpressable in motion first-over heading to the 1:24 three-quarters, but Apex remained firmly in control to that station and around the far turn. However, in the stretch McCarthy was able to get Diabolic Hill into the passing lane, and thanks to a 27 second final quarter, Diabolic Hill rallied past Apex to prevail by a-quarter-of-a-length. Inexpressable got third, followed by American Power and supplemental entry Strobe Lite (Louis-Philippe Roy). Strobe Lite would be the fifth-place finisher from the two eliminations with the higher 2026 earnings and therefore earned a spot in Saturday night's final.

"I think he was handled a little bit more aggressively [tonight]," Brad Conrad said trainer Annie Stoebe. "We stayed out of the [Kentucky] Futurity and protected him. He's super-sharp and fresh, and I think that's what gave him the edge tonight."

Following an eighth-place finish in his Hambletonian elimination, Diabolic Hill was put on Lasix, and Stoebe believes there was an adjustment period for him.

"I think it took a little bit for him to recover from the bleeding, but now we have his weight good, he's feeling great and he's just healthy," she said, while adding about his training, "I've learned with colts, it's just follow the protocol. I do the same thing every time, and it's really made a difference. He's not nervous; he's just ready."

Stoebe also co-owns Diabolic Hill, a Muscle Hill—Crysti Dream colt, with partners Mario Mazza and Ac Crawford Racing Stable. Bred by Am Bloodstock and purchased for $300,000 at the 2024 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale, Diabolic Hill has a summary of 7-6-3 from 20 appearances, has pocketed $744,905 and paid $9.60 to win as the 7-2 third choice.

Hambletonian runner-up Big Ranger, with Tim Tetrick in the bike, bounced back from a sixth-place finish in the Kentucky Futurity to score in 1:51.1.

Big Ranger, who is now 10-for-10 in his career at Scioto with this victory, got away in the third position and then brushed to the front around Nix Nacken (Zeron) beyond the :27.3 quarter. From there, Big Ranger trotted clear through middle-half fractions of :56.1 and 1:23.3 before a :27.3 final kicker polished off his 2¼-length triumph. Nix Nacken, coming in off wins in the Grade 1 Canadian Trotting Classic and Kentucky Futurity, was clear in second, followed by Read The Room (Ake Svanstedt) and Captain Jordan (Chris Page).

"He felt like his old self," Tetrick said. "He was really strong and ready to go. He finished out that mile really easy. With trotters I think [having experience over the track] does help a lot. He knows this track; he likes it here and he's won many times. He knows how to go fast here and that's a big key. When some of the other ones might have to wait on the turn or something, you don't have to wait on him.

"He's a real pleasure. They don't come along very often, and he reminds me of really good horses that I've driven in the past. He's a special animal. He's just so fast and he's so gifted off the car. He makes my job really easy. He's good-gaited and he's a lot of fun."

A colt by In Range out of the Tactical Landing mare Big Blue Bird, Big Ranger was sent out by trainer Anette Lorentzon for owner Madison Global. Big Ranger, whose 2-year-old full sister Blue Ranger won her Breeders Crown elimination on Friday night, has 15 victories and one runner-up finish from 19 efforts, has earned $965,959, and returned $2.40 to win as the 1-5 favorite. Big Ranger was bred in Ohio by Spring Haven Farm and was a $25,000 buy at the 2024 Ohio Selected Jug Sale.

"He raced good all the way up to the Futurity, but unfortunately he was sick there," Lorentzon said. "We took a gamble and gave him the whole week off to try to get him good for this. I'm very happy with the effort since he was no good last start, but you'd never know that. We thought he had bounced back because he was full of himself all week and tonight, he felt really good warming up.

"He's just a cool horse to be around. He's always happy and super nice to be around. He's not mean; he's just playful. When you drive him at home, a 5-year-old could go out with him."

The post-position draw for the Breeders Crown 3-year-old colt trot final will take place on Tuesday during a press conference at Pinnacle Golf Club in Grove City, OH. By virtue of winning their eliminations, Diabolic Hill and Big Ranger will draw from posts 1 through 6 in the final, followed by an open draw for the remainder of the field.

Finalists in alphabetical order are:

Twin B Joe Fresh sharp in Crown mare pace elim

by James Witherite for Breeders Crown

Following wins in the Grade 1 Dayton Distaff Derby and Grade 3 Allerage Farms, Twin B Joe Fresh is poised to tackle a second Breeders Crown mare pace championship following a decisive 1:49.4 win in Saturday's (Oct. 17) lone $25,000 elimination for her division at Scioto Downs.

Sent off the 3-5 favorite among eight rivals, Twin B Joe Fresh and driver Dexter Dunn used the entirety of the first turn to clear early pacesetter Champagne Room (driven by Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) at the end of a :26.4 first quarter while The Last Martini (Doug McNair) stalked from third after pressing the pace at the pegs. Once in control of the terms, Twin B Joe Fresh pulled the tempo back through middle splits of :55.3 and 1:23.2 before facing a steady but mild first-over challenge from Milton winner Francent N (Louis-Philippe Roy) on the far turn.

Twin B Joe Fresh rose to the challenge with aplomb and shook free by 1¾ lengths in upper stretch, and she was well within herself through a :26.2 sprint home to defeat Francent N by a measured length. The Last Martini angled between foes with 70 yards remaining and lifted mildly to just collar a flat Champagne Room for third, another two lengths behind.

"She had a bit of a slow start this year, but she's back in form and back to her best," said Dunn, who shares ownership of Twin B Joe Fresh with trainer Chris Ryder and partners Peter Trebotica and Barry Spak. "She felt great post parading. She can leave the gate as fast as you want to and she relaxes after that. I couldn't be happier these last three starts with how she is."

Twin B Joe Fresh, a 6-year-old daughter of Roll With Joe—Fresh Breeze bred by Brittany Farms, has won 42 of her 62 starts to date and has earned $3,292,420 in her career. She paid $3.20 to win.

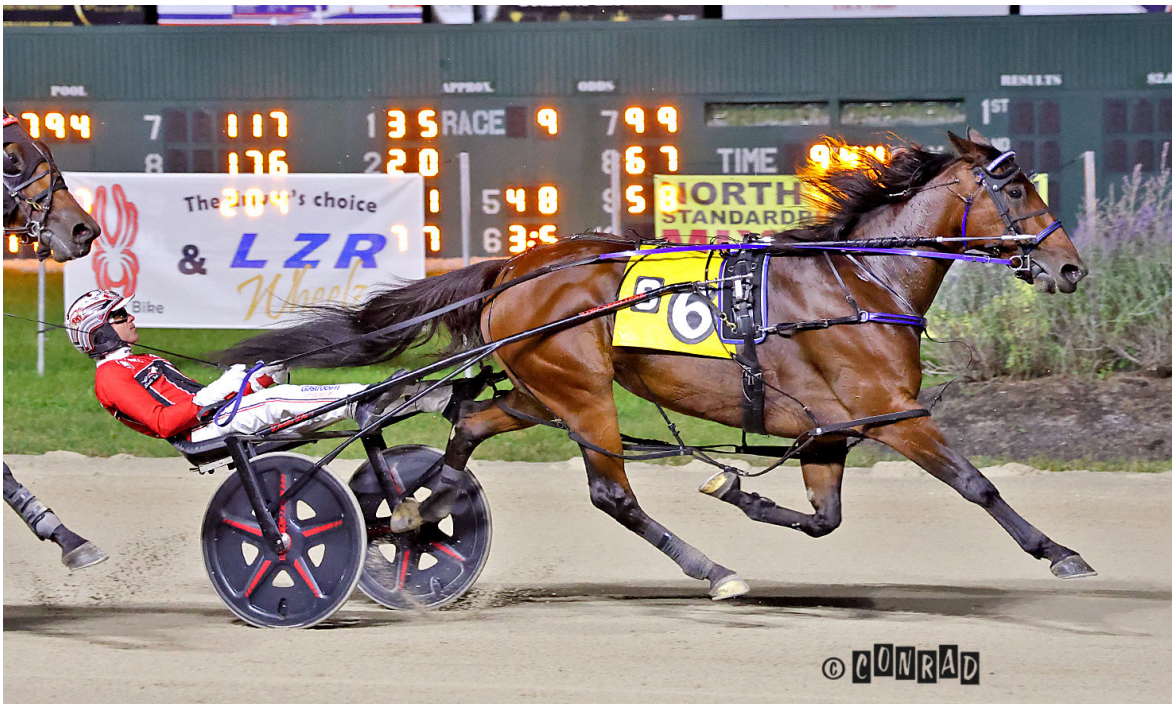

"I was impressed again," said Ryder of his star trainee. "Dex is just raving about her. She's relaxing; she's been better the last three starts. We raced her at [Harrah's Philadelphia] in an overnight and she was a little bit out of control, so we changed the bridle and I think it's helped her a lot. I think she's as good as she can be."

By virtue of her elimination win, Twin B Joe Fresh was guaranteed to draw a post position from 1 through 6 for the final. The top seven finishers qualified for the final, as did Tarapasta and Unreasonable, whose connections accepted byes.

The complete field for Saturday's (Oct. 24) race, in post-position order, is as follows:

1. The Last Martini
2. Talk Curdy To Me
3. Francent N

Gentleman's Club delivers major upset in Crown elim

by James Witherite for Breeders Crown

Sent off at 26-1, Gentleman's Club sustained a first-over grind for a half mile to overpower 2025 Breeders Crown champion Beau Jangles in a divisional track record 1:48.3 in the first of two $25,000 Breeders Crown 3-year-old colt and gelding pace eliminations on Saturday (Oct. 17) at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

In line to Andy McCarthy, Gentleman's Club eased off an early skirmish that saw Al Papi (driven by Yannick Gingras) push clear of Little Brown Jug winner Redland Rocket Man (Jody Jamieson) on the first turn as Beau Jangles (James MacDonald) stalked from third after pressing at the pegs. Redland Rocket Man angled off the pegs to take charge from Al Papi at the end of a :26.1 first quarter before yielding to Beau Jangles, who brushed from third, with just under a circuit to go. As Beau Jangles hit the half-mile pole in :54.2, McCarthy tugged the right line on Gentleman's Club, who began his first-over ascent up the backstretch.

With three-eighths remaining, Gentleman's Club had worked from mid-field to within a length of Beau Jangles, and he turned up the pressure in earnest to the 1:21.4 three-quarters while Redland Rocket Man began to gap the pocket and Funky Buddha (Tim Tetrick) overtook him for third. Gentleman's Club surged clear of a tired Beau Jangles with a sixteenth to go, and the Downbytheseaside—See You At Peelers colt sped home to cap his 10th career win with a :26.3 closing quarter.

Sweet Lovin Lou (Scott Zeron) fanned four-wide off the home turn and rallied to nab Funky Buddha for second, three-quarters-of-a-length back; Al Papi split foes out of traffic to save fourth over the weakening Beau Jangles.

Redland Rocket Man, who was sent off the 3-10 favorite, faded to finish last in the seven-horse field.

"He's come back terrific, his attitude's amazing, and he loves to do what he's doing," said Aaron Lambert, who trains the Fred Hertrich III-bred Gentleman's Club for Anthony LiCastro. "When they mixed it up like that, I knew Andy was probably going to have to come first-up. He carried his speed and kept going, and that was it."

Gentleman's Club paid $54.60 to win.

Another odds-on favorite tasted defeat in the second elimination after 5-1 second choice Melillo seized early control and evaded 1-10 choice Brandon Blvd by 1½ lengths for a 1:49.3 score.

Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. pushed forward with Melillo to clear inside leaver Fragment (Jason Bartlett) before completing a :26.4 first quarter. The Sweet Lou—Rosemary Rose colt stole the race in a :29.3 stroll through the second sectional, which set up for a monstrous back half.

With stablemate Be Sting (Gingras) offering a first-over challenge and Brandon Blvd (Dexter Dunn) stalking second-over, Melillo accelerated through a :26.2 third quarter, hitting that mark in 1:22.4. As Be Sting faded through the far turn, Brandon Blvd was forced to circle three-wide yet still posed the main threat to Melillo in the final furlong. Undeterred, Melillo held his ground and kept the Meadowlands Pace winner at bay for his eighth career win. Fragment finished third despite lacking late kick from the pocket; Cooperstown Boy (Doug McNair) was an even fourth over Odds On Mr Mamba (Peter Wrenn).

"I thought I might push forward a little bit and I thought Dex might follow me to the lead, but he decided to sit fourth," said Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. "After the breather in the second quarter, my horse raced great. I was happy with him."

Ron Burke trains Melillo, who paid $13.40 to win and races as a homebred for Burke Racing Stable, Jason Melillo, and Weaver Bruscemi.

The top four finishers from each elimination qualified for next week's final, as did Odds On Mr Mamba by virtue of being the fifth-place finisher with the higher seasonal earnings. By virtue of their elimination wins, Gentleman's Club and Melillo are guaranteed to draw post positions between 1 and 6 inclusive.

The barrier draw for the $664,500 Breeders Crown 3-year-old colt and gelding pace final will take place Tuesday (Oct. 20) at Pinnacle Golf Club.

Women Layer, Dandy Ideal triumph in their Breeders Crown open pace elims

by Chris Lomon for Breeders Crown

Women Layer and Dandy Ideal stamped their tickets to the big dance in a pair of $25,000 Breeders Crown open pace eliminations, Saturday evening (Oct. 17) at Scioto Downs.

In a week's time, Women Layer and Dandy Ideal will see if they are indeed fit for a "Crown."

On this night, both showed that they have the talent and tenacity to claim that coronation.

The first division, carded as the second race, featured a riveting late-race duel between the two top choices on the tote board: Women Layer, at 7-5, and Best Chip, at 3-2.

Women Layer, driven by Yannick Gingras, stormed to the lead at the outset, while Best Chip, who had finished second in the Grade 2 Dayton Pacing Derby in his previous start (refunded to bettors because of broken equipment before the race), was forced to march on after failing to secure a spot along the rail. Admiral Hill and Swingtown settled into third and fourth, respectively.

After an opening quarter reached in :26.3, Joe Bongiorno, driving Best Chip, slowed the pace and led the field through a half in :55, with Gingras shadowing the pacesetter from the rail.

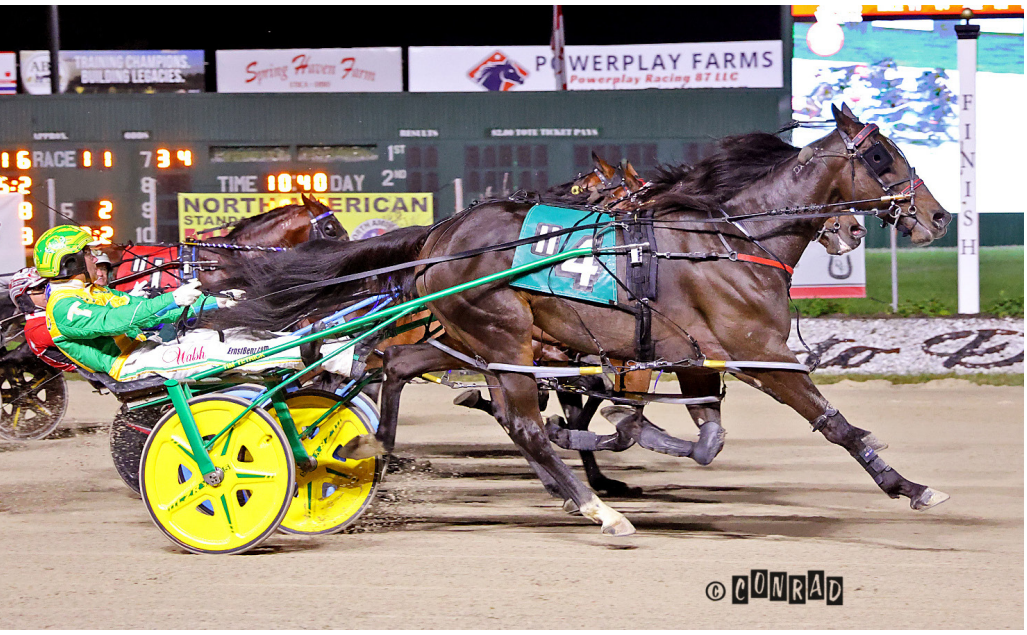

Still on top after three-quarters in 1:22.1, Best Chip soon came under pressure from the inside as Women Layer began closing the gap in the stretch. With 40 yards remaining, Women Layer seized command and went on to defeat his rival by three-quarters-of-a-length in 1:48.4. Surreal Ideal rallied past Admiral Hill to finish third.

Trained by Virgil Morgan, Jr., the 5-year-old son of Sweet Lou out of the McArdle mare Loreenas Ruffian has a career record of 33-10-5 from 58 starts, with nearly $1.5 million in purse earnings.

Women Layer entered his elimination off a 1:48.4 victory at The Red Mile on Oct. 10.

"We just wanted to prep him for this all along, probably, about five or six weeks out," said Morgan, Jr. "The Lexington race turned out perfect. I don't want to say it was a soft field, but we got the 6-hole on a mile track in a six-horse field, and it was just a nice prep. Yannick gets along with him great, and he couldn't have come into this better."

Owned by Let It Ride Stables, Jeff Fought Racing, Larry Wills, and Jesmeral Stable, Women Layer was bred by Carl Howard. He sprang a 17-1 upset on Aug. 8 at The Meadowlands, winning the first division of the Grade 2 Sam McKee Memorial in 1:48.2.

"Last year when we got him, he's a difficult horse to train, but he's extremely fast," said Morgan, Jr., who has trained Women Layer since the fall of 2024. "It was by design this year. He's just matured and he's a really nice racehorse. He's so tactical off the gate and obviously, speed wins races."

The bay gelding was purchased for $72,000 at the 2022 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale, where he was cataloged as Hip #493.

Dandy Ideal, driven by Tim Tetrick, powered home down the stretch to capture top honors in the second elimination.

It was a cavalry charge for the lead, with several contenders looking to secure the front end. Tetrick, however, opted to avoid the early fray and settled Dandy Ideal into fifth in the seven-horse field.

Calicojack Hanover emerged on the front end and led his six rivals through an opening quarter in :26.2 before Ervin Hanover took command shortly after the first quarter.

The son of Captaintreacherous continued to lead through a half-mile in :54, while Tetrick remained patient aboard Dandy Ideal. Prince Hal Hanover then made his move, launching to the outside and taking aim at the leader, while Calicojack Hanover remained in third.

The stage was set for a dramatic stretch drive after three-quarters in 1:21.1. With little room to work with, Dandy Ideal got up in the last strides, edging a game Prince Hal Hanover by a neck. Ervin Hanover and Calicojack Hanover finished third and fourth, respectively. The winning time was 1:48.4.

Tetrick, who had recently been reunited with the Brett Pelling trainee, praised his elimination partner.

"I drove him as a 2-year-old and he won the Matron and I really liked him then," Tetrick said. "Then he came back as a great 3-year-old and he has been battling ever since. He's beaten me a lot, so he is a very nice horse."

A foot issue kept Dandy Ideal out of the Grade 3 Allerage on Sept. 10, a factor Tetrick considered when developing his strategy for the elimination.

"He hadn't raced in three weeks, so I thought the best way to get him into the [Breeders Crown] final was not to beat him up," Tetrick said. "He responded. I got a good trip, second over. He's a good horse – he'll do it either way. I just like getting to drive him. He was loaded."

Owned by Susan Oakes and Alan Johnston, the gelding has now recorded 22 wins, six seconds, and three thirds from 40 starts, with more than $1.3 million in career earnings.

Bred by Stephen Dey and Dandy Farms Inc, Dandy Ideal was purchased for $52,000 (Hip #262) at the 2023 Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling sale.

The son of American Ideal out of the Sportswriter mare OK Heavenly returned $8.20 to win his elimination.

The post-position draw for the Open Pace will take place Tuesday (Oct. 20), at Pinnacle Golf Club in Grove City, OH, as part of the official draw party for the Breeders Crown finals, scheduled for Oct. 23 and 24 at Scioto Downs.

The elimination winners, Women Layer and Dandy Ideal, will draw from posts 1 through 6 in the final, with the remaining positions determined by an open draw. Ken Hanover also secured a spot in the final as the fifth-place finisher with the highest seasonal earnings.

Nezuko Kamado S sets track record in Breeders Crown filly trot elim

by Ray Cotolo for Breeders Crown

Hambletonian Oaks winner Nezuko Kamado S persisted with a first-over grind and staved off late pursuers to take the first of three $25,000 Grade 1 Breeders Crown eliminations for 3-year-old trotting fillies in a track-record 1:51.2 mile on Saturday night (Oct. 17) at Scioto Downs. Little Road and She's Moni won the other eliminations.

Driver Scott Zeron eased Nezuko Kamado S out of post 3 into fourth behind a three-wide brawl for the lead between Madam Cheval (driven by Tim Tetrick), Southwind Chaska (Dexter Dunn) and Isabella Bi (Ake Svanstedt). Isabella Bi took back to third and Southwind Chaska yielded into the pocket, leaving Madam Cheval to cut a :27.1 first quarter and then a :55.2 half with no challengers looming. Zeron angled Nezuko Kamado S off the pylons into the backstretch and steadily advanced on Madam Cheval heading to three-quarters in 1:23.1 before thrusting to the lead upon straightening for the finish. Nezuko Kamado S extended for the finish and clinched the win by a nose as Custom (Jason Bartlett) bolted from last down the center of the track to settle for second. Southwind Chaska held the last berth into the final in third.

"I thought I'd be first up no matter how I shook that race," Zeron said after the race, "and I was very happy with even being first-up, just giving her every chance to win. The only thing I didn't want to do was rush her really, really hard first two steps out of the gate. Timmy's horse [Madam Cheval] was giving a hell of a run in the last turn and I was still laboring off of him. And then when his started to tire a little bit it gave mine that second wind to just dig on by and she felt good up there. Hats off to Jason's horse [Custom] she raced phenomenal from behind."

Marcus Melander trains Nezuko Kamado S for owner/breeder Courant Inc. The filly by Chapter Seven—Zefira Kronos IT has now won seven races from 11 starts this season and 13 races from 22 starts in her career, amassing $1,143,869. She paid $3.80 to win.

Supplemental entry Little Road (Brady Brown) ripped from a pocket trip to a 1:53.3 victory in the second Breeders Crown elimination for sophomore trotting fillies.

Brown asserted his charge from the pylon draw and clicked past a :28.1 first quarter before Victorianas Secret (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) ranged forward out of third to grab the lead. Little Road drafted comfortably behind the favorite to a :57 half but lost ground in the backstretch once the tempo quickened with Setyoursightshigh (Dunn) blitzing the leader out of fourth. Setyoursightshigh reached the Victorianas Secret's throat to three-quarters in 1:26.1 and kept pressing the leader through the turn while Little Road waited for the open stretch. Brown dove his charge inside in the lane and surged by his rivals late to score a half-length win over Setyoursightshigh while Victorianas Secret held third.

A homebred filly for trainer Roger Hammer by Fordham Road out of the Great George Two mare A Little Laid Back, Hammer decided to pay the $72,000 supplement fee to make Little Road eligible for the Breeders Crown after a sophomore campaign where she's earned nearly $300,000 including a victory in the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes final in early September.

"She made the money this year and it was the first horse that I raised to have a shot at the Breeders Crown," Hammer said after the race. "I wanted to give her a shot. She doesn't like the passing lane that well. She's better when you pull her to the outside and come with her, but I figured with where she's sitting, I'm into the final, if nothing happens. It'd mean a lot [to win a Breeders Crown].

"This week, she'll go home tonight and she'll train lightly on Thursday, then come back out on Saturday for the retention barn. I hope she's ready again."

Little Road has now won 16 races from 25 starts and earned $373,150 in her career. She paid $9.40 to win.

Kentucky Filly Futurity champion She's Moni (Yannick Gingras) hauled from the outermost draw in the third elimination and held her ground for a 1:53.2 win in the third elimination.

Gingras hustled his charge to seize command from Carve (Andy McCarthy) passing a :28 first quarter and immediately hit the brakes to steal a breather to a :58 half. She's Moni gradually accelerated in the backstretch and readied for an attack once Busy Miss Lissy S (Dunn) tipped out of fourth to march up the rim. She's Moni continued to cruise towards three-quarters in 1:26.1 but endured an unrelenting bid from Busy Miss Lissy S coming for home, and she managed to keep that rival at bay by a neck to the finish. Storybook Love (Todd Ratchford) zipped up the open stretch to take third.

"I always thought that she was my best filly," trainer Nancy Takter said. "She was my best filly last year training down. Unfortunately, she had a little injury that we had to take care of and give her time off. So, she came back from that and she hasn't had any issues from that all year. It was a matter of just getting her into racing and making up for lost time, not having a lot of starts at 2. She always had the ability. She's a very gifted filly, probably one of the most gifted I've been around."

She's Moni, a homebred filly for owners Brittany Farms LLC and Marvin Katz, won her fifth race from 11 starts this season and her sixth race from 12 starts overall, banking $443,606. The filly by Walner—Thats All Moni paid $4.40 to win.

Following the third elimination, Scioto Downs conducted the post-position draw for the Breeders Crown 3-year-old filly trot final. Nezuko Kamado S, Little Road, and She's Moni earned draw protection between posts 1 through 6 by winning their eliminations. Below is the field:

Hope Hill, Sangria Summer capture Breeders Crown elims for sophomore pacing fillies

by Kimberly Rinker for Breeders Crown

Hope Hill jogged to victory in the first of two $25,000 Breeders Crown eliminations for 3-year-old pacing fillies on Saturday (Oct. 17) at Eldorado Scioto Downs. Tom Hill's homebred daughter of Papi Rob Hanover—Ruth Hill was guided by Dexter Dunn for trainer Petter Engblom to her eighth triumph of the season and her third straight victory, stopping the timer in 1:50 as the 1-2 choice.

Whoomp, who endured a first-up journey, held on to be a game second for John De Long at 9-2, with 12-1 Darlin's Angel (Lauren Tritton) garnering third place honors, with 14-1 A Clean Deal (Doug McNair) grabbing fourth.

Darlin's Angel grabbed the lead as the wings of the gate folded, but Dunn hustled Hope Hill quickly out of the pocket to take command going to the :26.4 opening panel. Whoomp then came first up heading into the second turn with a :28.2 second panel that stopped the half-mile timer in :55.1, while Darlin's Angel continued to save ground on the rail in third. Around the final turn positions remained unchanged as the field passed the 1:23.1 three-quarters, with Hope Hill easily holding off her rivals by one length at the wire.

Hope Hill upped her career earnings to $517,932 and her seasonal earnings to $408,742. She came into this elimination fresh off victories in the $212,000 Garnsey Memorial and $76,000 Bluegrass at Lexington, and now has 11 victories in 23 career starts, with four seconds, and five thirds.

Sangria Summer posted a new track record of 1:49.3 en route to winning the second Breeders Crown elimination for driver James MacDonald and trainer Luc Blais. Determination of Montreal, QC owns the daughter by Captaintreacherous, who is out of the Shadow Play mare Shower Play.

"What she showed at 2, we thought she'd be a good sires stakes filly, and she's better than we originally thought," Blais said. "She's healthy and an easy keeper who looks out for herself and is very professional."

After 56-1 longshot Topville Lucky (Todd McCarthy) took the field to the :27.1 opening panel, Sangria Summer hustled to the front and led through fractions of :55.2 and 1:22.4 basically unchallenged. She easily held off She's A Bulldog (Yannick Gingras), with Miss Jum Jabber (Andrew McCarthy) third, and Topville Lucky holding on for fourth.

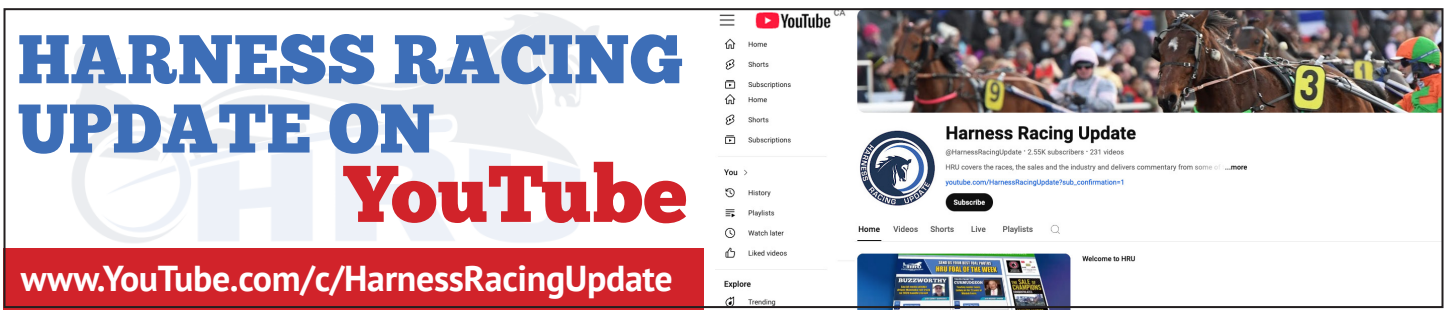

Sangria Summer notched her ninth career victory in 25 starts and her eighth of the season, pushing her career earnings to $516,435. She came into this elimination fresh off her triumph in the $150,000 Courageous Lady at Northfield Park in Cleveland.

Post positions were drawn for the $664,500 Grade 1 final, which will be held Oct. 24, following the elims. Elimination winners drew for posts 1 through 6.

Blue Ranger equals track record; Melander, Dunn sweep Breeders Crown filly trot elims

by Ray Cotolo for Breeders Crown

Ohio Sires Stakes champion Blue Ranger matched the Scioto Downs track record she set last month when ripping out of the pocket to a 1:53.1 victory in the first of two $25,000 Breeders Crown eliminations for 2-year-old trotting fillies on Friday night (Oct. 16).

Leaving from post 2, driver Dexter Dunn idled off the wings with Blue Ranger as longshot Fleur Delacour (driven by Todd McCarthy) swooped down from post 8 alongside Kissme Ifyoucan (Austin Hanners) to battle for the lead. Dunn marched Blue Ranger forward once the dust settled and overtook Fleur Delacour past a :27.1 first quarter but soon yielded for the pocket as 9-5 favorite Nevis Peak (Yannick Gingras) pushed past for the front heading towards a :55.4 half.

Nevis Peak coasted up the backstretch and endured mild first-over pressure from City Of Light (Tim Tetrick) before that rival rolled off-stride past three-quarters in 1:24.2, which gave Dunn ample room to tip out of the pocket coming for the homestretch. Blue Ranger angled out and ground down Nevis Peak in the lane to notch a one-length victory while Orinoco kicked from second-over before breaking stride and crossing the line third, which violated the breaking rule and resulted in her disqualification to sixth. Putitondad'stab (Scott Zeron) inherited third and Kissme Ifyoucan ascended to fourth to earn the last berth into the final.

"She felt sharp," Dunn said after the race. "I drove her at Hoosier [on Sept. 25] and she was a bit flat that day. She came back and raced really good in Lexington for Orjan [Kihlstrom], and she was good tonight — she won the sire stakes final here, so she likes the track obviously. We had to do a little bit early there — that first half was hot enough. She was traveling good coming off the turn, and once Timmy [Tetrick]'s one made a break and we could come out, she peeled off a helmet and did her work strong."

Marcus Melander trains Blue Ranger for owner Bender Sweden Inc. The filly by In Range—Big Blue Bird, bred by Spring Haven Farm, won her third race from seven starts this season and has now earned $251,480. She paid $6.20 to win.

Dunn and Melander teamed later in the night to win with 6-5 favorite Two Day Hangover with a 1:53.2 effort in the second elimination for freshman trotting fillies.

After Rio De Janeiro (Joe Bongiorno) blasted towards the lead, Climatic Hanover (Gingras) eased forward from the outermost draw to press for the lead with Two Day Hangover looming behind to a :28 first quarter. Two Day Hangover slid by Climatic Hanover passing the stands to take the lead heading to a :56 half and continued up the backstretch under minimal pressure. Past three-quarters in 1:24.3, Two Day Hangover cruised for home and strode comfortably to a 1½-length victory with Climatic Hanover following suit in second. Dandelion Wine closed for third with Shes A Home Run taking fourth via placing with fourth-place finisher Rio De Janeiro getting disqualified to fifth for a pylon violation heading to the half.

"She's a really nice filly," Melander said. "She really likes the five-eighths track. Hopefully she'll get a good draw here and she'll have an easy week. It'll be exciting next week."

Two Day Hangover competes for owners Brittany Farms LLC and Marvin Katz LLC. The Captain Corey—Sherry Lyns Lady filly, bred by Coyote Wynd Farms, has now won four races from seven starts and earned $246,450. She paid $4.40 to win.

Following the second elimination, Scioto Downs conducted the draw for the Breeders Crown 2-Year-Old Filly Trot final. Below is the field:

Elimination winners Blue Ranger and Two Day Hangover earned draw protection between posts 1 through 6 for the Breeders Crown final as well as "Win and You're In" recipient Birr Castle, who earned the bye to the final with her victory in the Grade 1 Jim Doherty Memorial at Harrah's Hoosier Park on Sept. 18.

Lifetime Dreamer sets one record, equals another; Wrong Sounds Right also dominates

by Chris Lomon for Breeders Crown

Lifetime Dreamer and Wrong Sounds Right took their respective Breeders Crown 2-Year-Old Colt and Gelding Trot eliminations on Friday night (Oct. 16) at Scioto Downs.

In the first elimination, carded as race 6, Presidente, leaving from post 6 in a field of seven, glided to the front moments after the starting gate pulled away. He led the field through a :27.1 opening quarter, with Lifetime Dreamer tracking in second, Mats third, and Special Day fourth, following a break by Access Now.

Presidente, fresh off a divisional victory in the Bluegrass Series at The Red Mile, continued to dictate the pace through a :55.4 half. Meanwhile, Yannick Gingras, aboard Lifetime Dreamer, remained patient as Mats and Special Day continued to race third and fourth, respectively.

Presidente, who had recorded four consecutive top-three finishes entering the elimination, remained in command through three-quarters in 1:24.3. But Lifetime Dreamer was poised to strike as the field straightened for home. Gingras then gave the bay his cue and the rookie responded with a confident outside move to take command.

From there, the only question was the winning margin. Lifetime Dreamer, the 2-1 mutuel choice, answered emphatically, powering home to a three-length victory. Presidente finished second, while Whateverittakes As, who had bobbled earlier in the mile, rallied for third. Top Reacher finished fourth.

The final time over a track rated good was 1:52.4, establishing a track record and equaling the world record for 2-year-old colt and gelding trotters over a five-eighths-mile track.

"In the last turn — I know Timmy has a nice horse [Presidente], I was tracking him — but I had a lot of trot behind him," said Gingras. "He went by him pretty easily and he had plenty left."

It was the latest standout performance for the Ake Svanstedt trainee, who arrived at tonight's test off a six-length score in a division of the Bluegrass Series at The Red Mile.

On Aug. 8, Lifetime Dreamer and Gingras teamed up to capture the $180,000 Platinum final of the New Jersey Sire Stakes in a world-record time of 1:51.1. The freshman, from Ecurie D's first crop, won by three lengths.

"He has had a couple of hiccups in between," said Gingras. "Other than that, he has been tremendous, and with a trip like this tonight leading into the final, you couldn't ask for anything better."

Brad Conrad
Lifetime Dreamer (Yannick Gingras) set a 1:52.4 track record while winning his Breeders Crown elimination for 2-year-old trotting colts on Friday at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

Brad Conrad
Wrong Sounds Right (Todd McCarthy) won the other Crown elimination.

A $65,000 purchase at the 2025 Lexington Select Yearling Sale, Lifetime Dreamer is owned by Ake Svanstedt Inc, Brittany Farms LLC, Bruni Racing Team, and Suleyman Yuksel Stables. The victory was his fourth in eight career starts.

Brittany Farms bred Lifetime Dreamer, the second foal out of Lifetime Gift, a daughter of Lifetime Pursuit, the 2014 Hambletonian Oaks champion.

Lifetime Dreamer paid $6.20 for his Breeders Crown elimination win.

Wrong Sounds Right was an easy winner in the second $25,000 Breeders Crown 2-Year-Old Colt and Gelding Trot elimination.

Opposition set the early tone, blasting off the wings to seize command, followed to his inside by Carbon Fiber, who settled into second, while Todd McCarthy, in the sulky of 1-9 Wrong Sounds Right, tucked into third through an opening panel in :28.1.

Soon after, Wrong Sounds Right, riding a three-race win streak, coasted to the lead and proceeded to take his rivals through a half in :56.2. Opposition broke stride, leaving the trio of Carbon Fiber, Gio's Hope, and Yankee Boss to slot in second, third and fourth, respectively.

Still gliding along on top through three-quarters in 1:25 with the wind picking up, Wrong Sounds Right breezed down the lane on his way to a 2¾-length win. Carbon Fiber was second, Jimdougie Armitage finished third, and Yankee Boss was fourth.

The final time was 1:53.1.

"Very happy with the way he raced," said owner/breeder Scott Farber, whose nom du course is Runthetable Stables. "Good in the turns – my only real concern was that he hadn't been on a small track before, but he passed that test like he's passed every other one."

Wrong Sounds Right arrived at tonight's elimination off a stellar showing in the Grade 1 Mohawk Million on Sept. 26, a performance that saw the bay colt, sent on his way as the 2-5 choice, set the stakes and track record, and equal the world record, courtesy of a 1:51.1 mile.

In his start prior to the Million, the son of Tactical Landing out of the Broadway Hall mare Broadway Jo Ell stopped the teletimer in a then career-best 1:51.4 in the New Jersey Classic on Sept. 11.

Farber, whose list of standout performers includes Cool Papa Bell, Take All Comers, Next Level Stuff, and Hobbs, lauded his rookie charge.

"I'm very excited about the future of this guy," Farber said. "I have had some good ones… I am as excited for him as I've been for any of the other ones. Homebreds are very special.

"We're very excited to be out here."

With tonight's victory, the Jim Campbell trainee is 6-1-0 from eight starts.

Wrong Sounds Right paid $2.20 for tonight's win.

Following the second elimination, Scioto Downs conducted the draw for the Breeders Crown 2-Year-Old Colt and Gelding Trot final. Below is the field:

Elimination winners Lifetime Dreamer and Wrong Sounds Right earned draw protection between posts 1 through 6 for the Breeders Crown final. Access Now earned a spot in the final as the fifth-place finisher with the highest seasonal earnings.

Blazin Lou, Starstruck Dreamer capture Breeders Crown elims for 2-year-old pacing colts

by Kimberly Rinker for Breeders Crown

Blazin Lou made it look easy as he captured the first of two $25,000 Breeders Crown eliminations for 2-year-old colt and gelding pacers (race 5) on Friday night (Oct. 16) at Scioto Downs. The son of top pacing sire Sweet Lou endured a first over trip in easy fashion to prevail in 1:50.4. Dexter Dunn drove the youngster, giving him his fourth victory on the night's card.

The victory came as no surprise to the colt's trainer Tony Dinges, who conditions Blazin Lou for owner Rick Berks of Paris, KY.

"I was expecting him to race good, and I didn't think the post would matter to him," Dinges said of the colt's far outside post position. "I expected a good effort from him no matter how the race went. He showed talent all along — from the beginning of his training — and he's gone even more forward since racing at The Red Mile."

Rival Eastie Boy (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.), the 6-5 choice, led the field to an easy :27 opening panel, and positions remained unchanged to the :56.3 half, as Blazin Lou steadily moved up on the outside to the 1:24.4 three-quarter-mile marker. Around the final turn, Blazin Lou turned up his speed a notch and easily collared the leader with a :25.3 final panel. Eastie Boy held on for second, while 5-2 choice Mr Bear (Marcus Miller) held on for third over 21-1 L A Captain (Bob McClure).

Ocean Party (Chris Page) was fifth, with Billly Hill (Austin Hanners) sixth, followed by Night Agent (Andrew McCarthy) seventh, and Mascarpone (Scott Zeron) eighth.

Blazin Lou has scored previous victories in the Kentucky Commonwealth stakes, and more recently in the $89,300 Bluegrass Stakes and $104,000 International Sires Stakes at The Red Mile. He now has a 5-1-2 record in 11 career starts and pushed his career earnings to $169,550. Blazin Lou was a $110,000 yearling at the 2025 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale, and is a full brother to Rocknroll Lou (p, 4, 1:51.1, $483,355) and a half-brother to Captain Rocknroll, by Captaintreacherous, (p, 4, 1:51.1, $74,552).

Bred by Cornerstone Stock Farm of Kentucky, Blazin Lou is the third foal from his dam, Beautiful Lady (p, 4, 1:50.1, $328,390), who won a division of the 2014 Jugette and was second in the finale.

Starstruck Dreamer (Todd McCarthy) winning the other Crown elim.

Starstruck Dreamer, the 9-5 choice and Todd McCarthy took the second division (race 11) in 1:50.2 with a grueling first over trip that saw him nip 2-1 Night Surfer (Dexter Dunn) by a whisker in a blanket photo, with 6-5 Shalom Hanover (Louis-Philippe Roy) third, and 87-1 Stonebridge Blitz (Yannick Gingras) fourth.

Seine, the 24-1 choice, and driver Joe Bongiorno took the early lead out of the gate, leading the field to a :27.1 first quarter before yielding to Shalom Hanover passing the stands for the first time to the :55 half and 1:23.2 three-quarter-mile marker. Meanwhile, the eventual winner had steadily been making up ground on the backside and through the final turn, where he paced nose-to-nose with the leader, before drawing off to win.

Starstruck Dreamer, a freshman son of Captaintreacherous, himself a Breeders Crown champion, is trained by Noel Daley for the partnership of Steve Wienick Racing, Pryde Stables, JFoderaTRitchieCanAmerica, and Hyatt Holdings. The victory, the sixth of his career in seven starts, upped Starstruck Dreamer's career earnings to $146,300.

Bred by the Sergent Stables, Starstruck Dreamer was an impressive force in PASS contests this season, taking a career mark of 1:48.4 on Aug. 14. He is the first foal out of the Bettors Delight mare Scarlett Hanover (p, 4, 1:49.4, $946,786) and was a $105,000 yearling purchase at the 2025 Lexington Sale.

Post-position draw for the $700,000 Grade 1 Breeders Crown 2-Year-Old Colt Pace:

1. Blazin Lou
2. Mr Bear
3. Ocean Party
4. Starstruck Dreamer
5. Shalom Hanover
6. Eastie Boy
7. Night Surfer
8. Stonebridge Blitz
9. L A Captain

Rookie colts in Harvest Series spotlight Friday night

Woodbine Mohawk Park hosted the opening leg of the Harvest Series for Ontario-sired or Ontario-bred 2-year-old colts and geldings on Friday (Oct. 16).

There were two $25,000 divisions for trotters and a pair for the pacers in the first leg of the conditioned series, which is for non-winners of $30,000 in 2026 as of midnight Sept. 30.

Erinwood Triton ($3.30) took the fastest trotting tilt as the 3-5 favorite won easily by more than four lengths in a new lifetime mark of 1:56 in rein to Travis Henry. The Trixton—Angelina Hanover gelding set uncontested panels of :28.3, :58, and 1:27 en route to notching his first victory since his successful career debut back on June 29. Trainer Mark Etsell shares ownership of the nine-time starter with Robert Newton of Walkerton, ON, Dawn Burnett of Mildmay, ON, and Grant Turner of Georgetown, ON. Rally Kalle (Scott Young) recovered from an early miscue and won the race for place over pocket-sitter Hopes Eternal (J.R. Plante).

In the other trotting division, Floriet ($9.10) and driver Travis Cullen nailed 8-5 favorite Manking (James MacDonald) in a photo finish for a maiden-breaking victory, rallying from third in the final turn to collar the race leader in 1:57.1. Trained by Shawn Steacy and owned by Natasha Steacy of Millgrove, ON, the homebred Trixton—Goingwiththeflo colt, who was a late-closing show finisher in Ontario Sires Stakes Grassroots competition on Sept. 20, picked up his first win in his seventh start. D A Volusia (Jody Jamieson) closed within a length for third.

HP Follow Me ($5.50) was another first-time winner with a 1:53 front-end effort in the quickest pacing division with Jamieson in the bike. He was on top by the quarter in :27.1 and set middle splits of :57.1 and 1:25.2 before turning back first-over challenger Luv Lou (Trevor Henry) of the final turn. Pocket-sitter Pownalbay Jimbob (Cullen) chased 1¼ lengths behind in second with Sauble Kowalski (Scott Young) closing off cover for third. Chantal Mitchell trains the Cattlewash—HP Bellamy gelding, who hit the board in three Grassroots legs, for breeder Claude Hamel, Orford, QC, and co-owner Jean Denis Pelletier of Shefford, QC.

Favorite Cattle Tori Two ($4.60) and driver Daryl Thiessen came up just a head short at the wire in 1:54.4 after rallying off cover down the stretch outside of pacesetter Aussie Pharoah (Doug McNair), but was interfered with by that drifting front-end foe and declared the winner after a judges placing. Aussie Pharoah was disqualified and placed second while Untold Story (Jamieson) followed back in third from the pocket. A homebred for M&S Racing Stable of Rockwood, ON, the Cattlewash—Sporty Tori gelding now has three (consecutive) wins from nine starts for trainer Josh McKibbin.

The Harvest Series will continue with a second preliminary leg and a $60,000 final for each division.

McGuigan doubles up in Home Hardware Maritime Breeders action

The Mike McGuigan Stable collected a pair of Home Hardware Maritime Breeders victories Thursday evening (Oct. 16) as five stakes divisions headlined the 14-race program at Red Shores Racetrack and Casino at the Charlottetown Driving Park.

Stunning Speed ($3.10) delivered the fastest stakes mile of the night in the $15,150 2-year-old trotting colt division in race 12. McGuigan moved his trainee to the front before the half and held off Shoe Dog Speed (Paul Langille) by three-quarters-of-a-length in 2:00.3. Earl Speed (Jason Hughes) finished third. Little Pond Stables of Little Pond and The Coles Stable of Charlottetown own the Muscle Through It—Stunning Look colt.

McGuigan also used a pocket trip to win the $19,500 3-year-old trotting colt division with Hoponarocket ($4.50) in race 7. West River Karuna (Clare MacDonald) led through fractions of :29.3, :59.4, and 1:29.4 before Hoponarocket surged past for a half-length victory in 2:01.3. Howmac Prime Time (Marc Campbell) was third. McGuigan trains the E L Rocket—Hop Up gelding for Valleygrove Farms of Kelvin Grove.

Bonmati ($2.70) dominated the $19,500 3-year-old trotting filly division in race 9, drawing away by 13 lengths in 2:02.1 for driver Corey MacPherson. The daughter of E L Rocket—Glidetowin carved out fractions of :30.3, 1:02.4, and 1:33 before closing in :29.1 for owner/trainer Blayne White of South Pinette. Emberlees Rocket (Campbell) finished second ahead of Roseys El Girl (Ken Murphy).

Early Speed ($13.70) landed the $15,150 2-year-old trotting filly division in race 6 for driver Myles Heffernan, Sr. The Muscle Through It—Your Word Is Good filly followed Howmac Limerick (Hughes) before pulling away to win by 2¾ lengths in 2:08.1. Mile Hill Emmylou (Gilles Barrieau) completed the triactor. Myles Heffernan, Jr. of Summerville owns and trains the winner.

I Dream Of Muscles ($3.30) captured the other $15,150 2-year-old trotting colt division in race 10 for owner/trainer/driver Jim Ripley of Amherst, NS. The Muscle Through It—Rich Dreams gelding led throughout, holding off Smokin Rocket (MacPherson) by a neck in 2:06.1. Belinki (Darrell Neill) was third.

Murphy led all drivers with three victories. Fern Hill Luna ($3.30) romped by 16 lengths in 2:01.4 for owner/trainer Joe Baxter of Kensington, while Camco Laraido ($2.40) won in 2:03 for trainer Mario Macri and owner Leah Ann Moyer of Summerside.

Murphy completed his triple with Sweet Molly ($2.30), who edged Woodmere Kennedie by a nose in the finale in 1:56.2. Mike Ramsay trains the mare for Clair Murphy of Millvale, Derrill Murphy of Lethbridge, AB, and Cindy MacLean of Charlottetown.

FEEDBACK!

Kudos to John Berry about the need to modernize harness racing

John Berry's [Oct. 11] column was spot on.

There are two main reasons that other major league sport have made significant changes: better media presentation, and wagering.

Baseball has the strike zone challenge, so people that bet on it in the 30+ states that allow it get a better product.

The NFL has replay assist, so fans get instant corrections.

Same in NHL, NBA.

Harness racing grabs its old, tired traditions. Since moving from Mass/RI to California, and now Las Vegas, I've gravitated to thoroughbred racing. I have a lot more data and media to rely on. Better odds and a lot less 1-5 shots.

Good luck in the future, from a guy who cut his teeth at Foxboro, Rockingham, Green Mtn, Hinsdale and Scarborough.
