'Right' decision put Farber and Campbell on road to possible Crown glory

by Debbie Little

When Scott Farber sent his homebred Wrong Sounds Right to the 2025 Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling sale in Harrisburg, PA, he hoped he would bring a good price. But $35,000 later, the son of Tactical Landing out of the Broadway Hall mare Broadway Jo Ell, was on his way to trainer Jim Campbell's stable after Farber signed the ticket.

"Well, he had sold one earlier that really sold cheap," Campbell said. "He thought there'd be a little better market for both of his yearlings, and when the first one didn't sell well, he just said, 'I'm not giving the other one away,' so that's how he ended up buying him back."

Telling Tall Tales sold as Hip #185 at Harrisburg for $6,000, and the gelded son of Back Of The Neck—Scores To Settle has seven wins in 10 starts this season, banking $116,600.

Wrong Sounds Right was Hip #685.

"Jimmy thinks, and I can't really argue with him, that there's like divine intervention that allowed us to buy this horse back," Farber said. "And I just flat out said to him, 'Listen, I'm not letting this horse go.' Because I was really upset with the amount of money that this horse was at $35,000. So, there's just no way I was letting that happen."

Wrong Sounds Right has rewarded his connections with a record of 6-1-0 from eight starts, banking $598,750, which included a victory in the Mohawk Million at Mohawk.

"Well, as good as this horse turned out, Scott and I have both said that we thank God that we have the horse and that we're able to enjoy this run that this horse is on because he's been nothing but a pleasure," Campbell said. "This horse, he's a real professional and he's just a real cool horse to be around.

"He loves to race, and he's the type of horse he can race any different style. Whatever [driver] Todd [McCarthy] wants to do with him, it doesn't matter to him."

Last week's Breeders Crown elimination victory at Scioto Downs was Wrong Sounds Right's first time on a five-eighths-mile track.

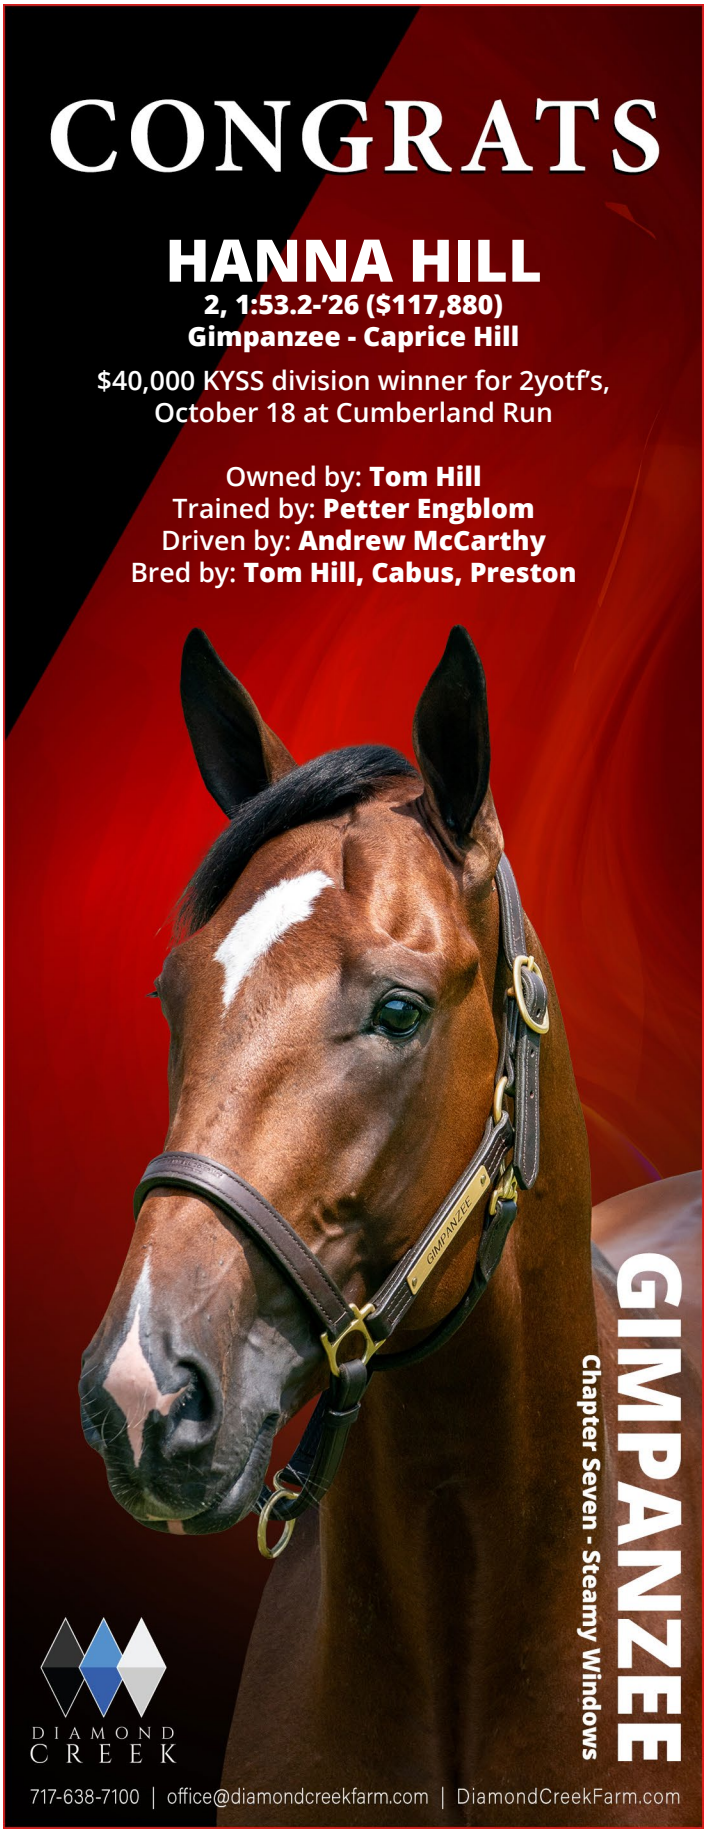

"I didn't think that he would have a problem going to a three-turn track, but him never being on it, and some of his competition had been on it, it's always in the back of your mind is it going to work against you or not make a difference," Campbell said. "But yes, it felt really good that he had no problem going around it. You know he warmed up well, seemed good going around the track warming up, and he did everything that he was supposed to do out there, but it's always in the back of your mind when they've never been on three turns before."

Campbell, a six-time Crown champion, confirmed that win or lose, Wrong Sounds Right will not be heading to the Valley Victory at The Meadowlands on Nov. 14 after the Crown.

"This is going to be his last race as a 2-year-old," Campbell said. "We didn't stake him to [the Valley Victory] because when we were doing the staking, Scott and I, obviously, had no idea what type of a horse he was going to be, but we just both said if he's not good enough for the Breeders Crown, then he probably wouldn't be good enough for the Valley Victory. And if he was good enough for the Breeders Crown, we probably wouldn't want to race him past that anyway. So, once we saw the way he was performing for us we were conscious of how many starts we were going to give him and that was one of the reasons I took the bye for the Jersey Classic race, just to give him one less start."

Campbell said management of a young horse is even more important these days because of the speeds that they go.

"Me personally, I love racing," Campbell said. "I love racing a horse. I like a good stakes horse. I like racing them every two or three weeks, and this horse has raced with three weeks off, two different times, one being last week in his [Crown] elimination, and the other being the New Jersey Classic final. He had three weeks in between those races, and I love racing them with more time in between as opposed to racing them week in and week out, just because of the speeds and it takes a lot out of them."

Hall of Famer Campbell currently trains four horses for Farber, two for Coyote Wynd Farms, and two for Caviart Farms with a couple turned out.

For 31 years, Campbell trained for Fashion Farms, but when owner Jules Siegel decided to sell everything last year, it left Campbell in a bad spot with people still thinking he trains for Fashion Farms. Campbell went as far as taking an ad out in the trades to let people know that he's running an open public stable.

"As soon as that article goes to press, I'm going to be waiting by the phone," Campbell told HRU with a laugh.

Farber couldn't have been more complimentary about his working relationship with Campbell and hoped some owners would give him a chance, especially with the Harrisburg sale coming up shortly.

"There's no better communicator that's out there," Farber said. "And I've found that out the hard way. I know they're two different businesses, but you know I've started to do a little bit in the thoroughbred business, and a couple of my horses have gone to trainers in the thoroughbred business, and really, what it's done is only made me appreciate Jim Campbell even more, because you know the guy, he's just a true professional... I don't need to know every time my horse goes to the bathroom, but I do need progress reports when these horses are training down. There's a lot of money that's involved in this, and you know Jimmy, he's just a tremendous communicator. The way he runs his operation, the guy is just a true professional."

> "Well, as good as this horse turned out, Scott and I have both said that we thank God that we have the horse and that we're able to enjoy this run that this horse is on because he's been nothing but a pleasure. This horse, he's a real professional and he's just a real cool horse to be around."

When asked if they've started thinking about next year and the possibility of multiple million-dollar races, Campbell said he and Farber are trying to take it one day at a time with Wrong Sounds Right.

"Well, you never want to get, you know, too far ahead of yourself, but I think anybody that has a horse in the Breeders Crown final is, if they're not saying it, they're kind of thinking in their head, about what type of races they want to have them ready for next year, and we're no different," Campbell said. "Scott and I have had minor discussions, but you know, the main focus is to get through this week and do the best we can this week, and then we've got lots of time over the winter to figure out a plan.

"But it is nice to know that there are a lot of different opportunities for 3-year-old trotting colts. You know, starting with Oak Grove, The Meadowlands, and Hoosier, and Mohawk has the Canadian Trotting Classic. There are just a lot of opportunities next year for 3-year-old trotting colts."

Farber has won big races in the past like the 2022 Hambletonian with Cool Papa Bell and a 2020 Breeders Crown with homebred Next Level Stuff, but something is special this year with Wrong Sounds Right.

"Well, I'll tell you, Jimmy's a very conservative guy, and I can understand why because you know how delicate a business this business is, but the other side of that coin is that I'm dreaming big with this horse," Farber said. "I really am. It's nice to be able to be 56 years old and to be able to be like a little kid and daydream. You know, I'm going to have fun with it. I really am because as we get older it's harder to have dreams. It just becomes more difficult I think and this horse has allowed me to dream, and I'm going to dream.

"I've said to Jim several times, could you imagine if we let this horse go at $35,000?"

Modestly-bred Little Road is an easy filly to root for in Breeders Crown final

Brad Conrad

Little Road (Brady Brown) winning her Breeders Crown elimination for 3-year-old trotting fillies on Saturday at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

by Brett Sturman

As is the case with almost any major stakes race in harness racing, the Breeders Crown races are a who's who of offspring from a short list of the top sires. Which is what makes the background of the 3-year-old trotting filly, Little Road, an unlikely story heading into Saturday's Breeders Crown final.

Breeding aside for a moment, Little Road would already be a feelgood story on the human element alone. Bred, owned, and trained by 80-year-old Pennsylvania icon Roger Hammer, and driven by an up-and-coming driver at The Meadows in western Pennsylvania, 33-year-old Brady Brown, Little Road already starkly contrasts the profile of typical Breeders Crown connections.

Bred, owned, and trained by 80-year-old Pennsylvania icon Roger Hammer, and driven by an up-and-coming driver at The Meadows in western Pennsylvania, 33-year-old Brady Brown, Little Road already starkly contrasts the profile of typical Breeders Crown connections.

But that's only one part of it, as the deep-but-modest local roots for Little Road are reflected through her pedigree as much as they are for the connections associated with her.

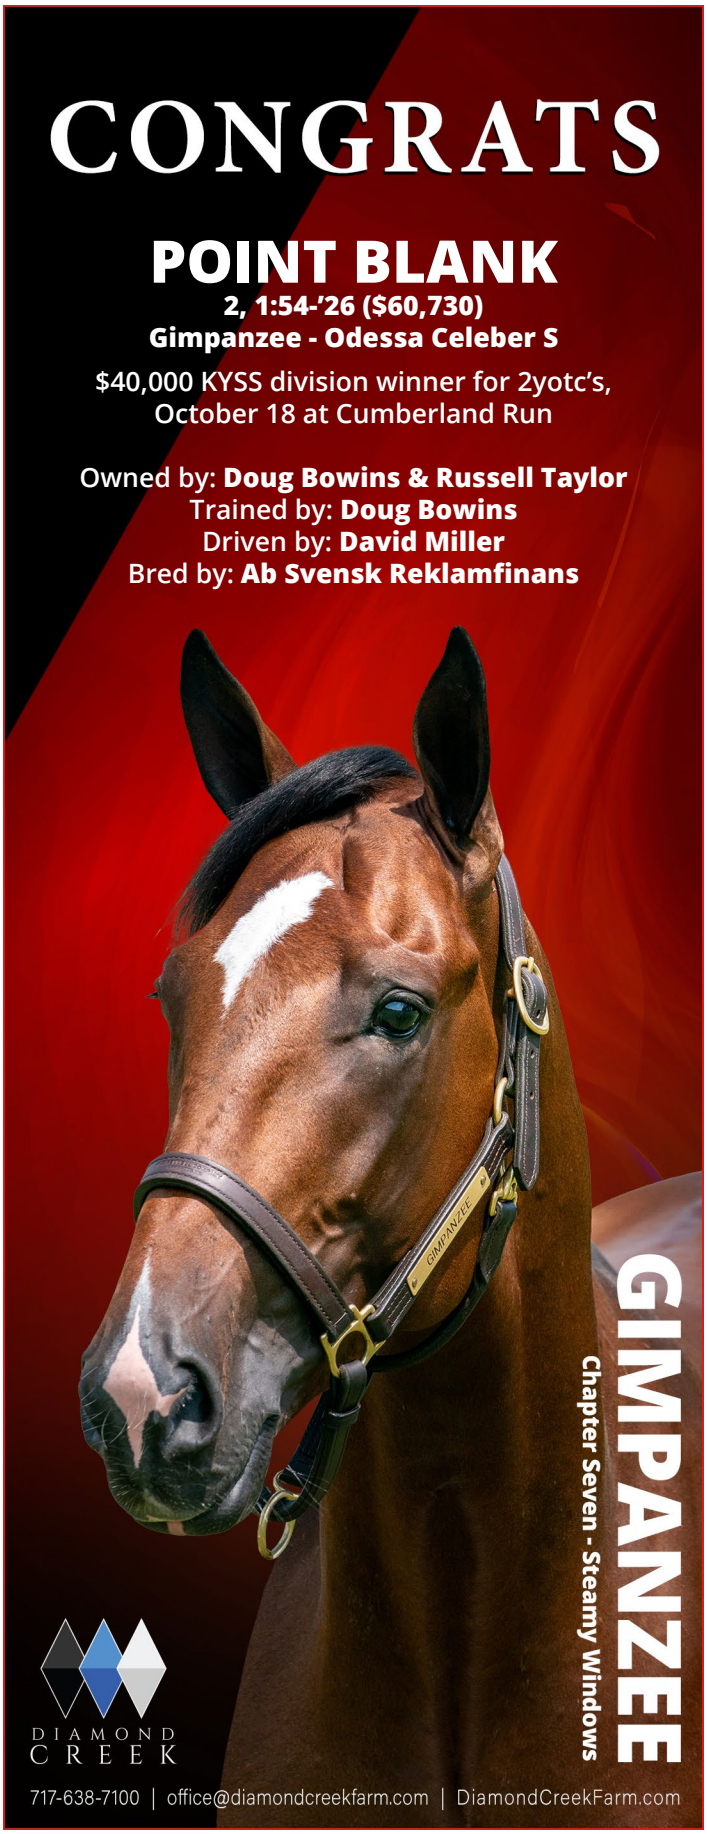

A pleasantly-surprising winner in her Breeders Crown elimination last week, Little Road is a filly by a lesser-known sire, Fordham Road.

Fordham Road, a $40,000 yearling from 2016, could have had a promising race career, beginning and ending his career two-for-two age 2, including an Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold win, before an off-track injury ended his time on the track. Standing in Pennsylvania, Fordham Road's stud fee is just $3,000.

With foals beginning as of 2020, his crops with strong ties to Hammer, have been small, registering only 86 since that time. From his foals of 2023, which featured Little Road, the total that year was just 13. Earnings from all offspring of Fordham Road total a little over $2.5 million, a vast majority of which has been earned through Pennsylvania fair circuit events, although a couple have elevated wins in PA Sire Stakes at tracks like The Meadows and Pocono.

One of those featured foals being a full sister to Little Road, named Little Town Road, also bred, owned, and trained by Hammer. While Little Road has already established herself as Fordham Road's highest earner, with potentially much still to come starting this weekend, Little Town Road was a sire stakes performer at 2 and earned over $200,000 for her career, good to be the fourth highest earner of Fordham Road.

Going back a generation, the dam of these fillies comes from Hammer too, A Little Laid Back. Going back over 10 years, A Little Laid Back similarly competed on the Pennsylvania fair circuits at 2 and 3, and was able to grind out over $200,000 in the process. Her final start of her 3-year-old season produced a career mark of 1:57.4 in a race at Pocono.

Since then, she's been bred every year since 2017, six of those years to Fordham Road. Aside from a filly by Creatine that was foaled in 2018 that earned $80,000 for her career, her only other foals to even make it to the races were Little Town Road and Little Road, both of whom have now combined for close to $600,000.

Little Road's damsire Great George Two is even more of an unlikely story. By what must have been the result of an experiment rather than something built in sound logic, Great George Two was produced by a stallion named Hobokenbahamamamas, a horse with a mark of 2:03 taken as a 3-year-old with a little over $6,000 in career earnings.

Hobokenbahamamamas only ever produced a handful of foals, but one of them was Great George Two, who defied all odds to become a champion horse, probably best known for his win at 3 in the Goodtimes final, and a horse who went on to earn $436,864 lifetime. But as a sire himself, Great George Two couldn't replicate his success in his offspring, and the filly A Little Laid Back who spent most of her career on the fair circuits, actually became one of his most notable productions.

Through it all, those ties have been very kind to Hammer, and it's led to this upcoming moment in the Breeders Crown, proving that sometimes breeding isn't always everything.

As for her on-track performance, I'd say Little Road's win last week could be characterized as a pleasant surprise. Avenging her defeat from August to Victorianas Secret in the Delmonica Hanover and beating a top filly in Setyoursightshigh in her Breeders Crown elimination in a time of 1:53.3, Little Road proved Hammer correct thus far on the decision to supplement the filly for $72,000.

In the race, Brady Brown put her on the lead early when leaving from the rail position before yielding to race favorite Victorianas Secret. Around the final turn it looked like Little Road was giving away at least a length or two from the pocket, but she found her best gear through the inside stretch to get up for the win when it didn't seem all that likely with an-eighth-of-a-mile to go.

Little Road will face those same fillies once again this weekend, and will see some new, fast editions as well in the form of Hambletonian Oaks champion Nezuko Kamado S, and Custom, both of whom impressed in the division's other elimination last Friday in a fast time of 1:51.2.

A breeding anomaly of sorts, Little Road continues to defy any limitations that her pedigree suggests, as shown last week when becoming a Breeders Crown elimination winner. As a filly that will represent all of the sport's ordinary people, she's one I will be pulling for.

HOLLYWOOD'S HITS
with BOB HEYDEN

Breeders Crown notebook

by Bob Heyden

Now 500 races into the Breeders Crown, clearly it has worked. It's a focal point. You rarely have to look up the winners. It's a measuring stick, a culmination, and even a coronation for a precious few. We're 43 editions in and hoping for many, many more. Let's take a look at some standout moments from the past.

WHAT'S 30 YEARS AMONG FRIENDS?

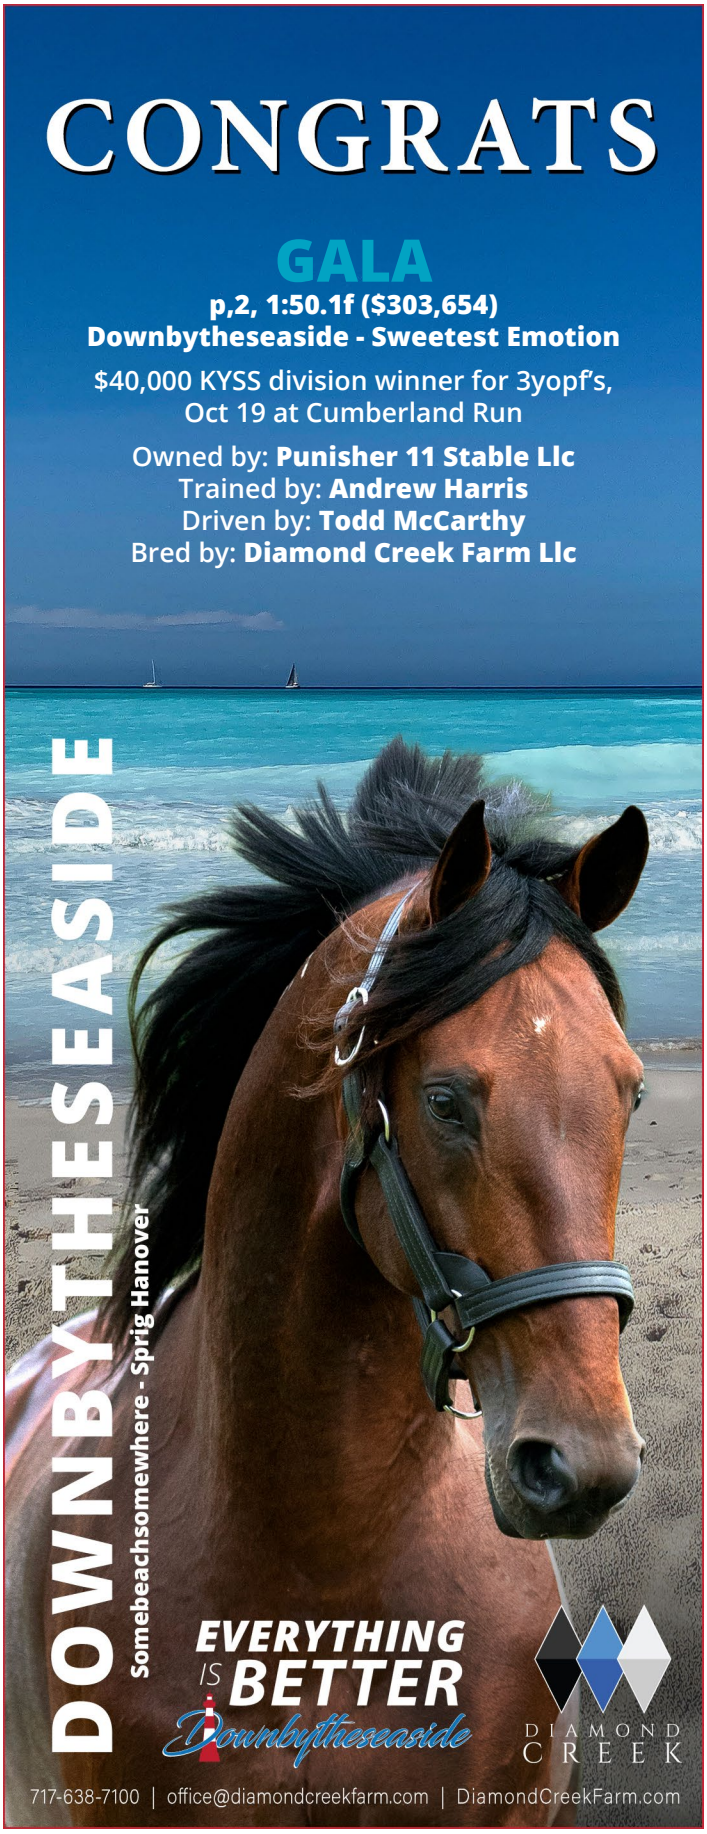

On Saturday, Odds On Mr Mamba will try to take down the sophomore Pacing Breeders Crown for Peter Wrenn. It's one day shy of 30 years since Wrenn last won a Breeders Crown, when Personal Banner ended Moni Maker's 18-race win streak on Oct. 25, 1996. Personal Banner paid $8.60 to win for owner George Steinbrenner. Yes, that Steinbrenner. It would be tough to top Steinbrenner's weekend 30 years back, since the day after the Crown, the Yankees closed out the World Series defeating the Atlanta Braves for their first title in 18 years! Wrenn's other Breeders Crown came two years prior with Yankee Cashmere in the 2YOFP, bred by Charlie Keller's Yankeeland Farms. Thirty years between Crowns in 2026 would set a new mark.

SPEAKING OF 1996

Brett Pelling broke through in the Breeders Crown that year at Yonkers with Armbro Operative (3YOCP) and Mystical Maddy. "Maddy" won the 3YOFP from post 8. Miss Jum Jabber has post 8 this year in the 3YOFP for Pelling.

HAMMER TIME

Roger Hammer actually sent out a Breeders Crown favorite with Keystone Luther who raced twice in the series in 1993 and 1994. He's back with supplemental entry Little Road who won her elim.

AGE OLD QUESTION

Ake Svanstedt has won all eight of his driving Breeders Crowns in the last five editions. He turns 68 on Nov. 18 and there's only one other driver in the 21st century who won any Breeders Crowns after hitting 60. In 2015, John Campbell won with Wild Honey in the 3YOFT after turning 60 earlier that year. The last time a driver older than Svanstedt won a Breeders Crown was 69-year-old Carl Allen in 1998 with CR Commando in the 2YOCT.

ODD STAT OF THE DAY

Dexter Dunn has 23 Crown victories and Marcus Melander has seven, with just one in common, Maryland in 2024. Dunn has won for nine different trainers and Melander has won with five different drivers with only Brian Sears (three) having multiple scores. Dunn has a .405 Breeders Crown UDRS. No one else in Crown history with at least 20 drives has a better than .300 UDRS. Svanstedt is at .294.

HOW TOUGH IS IT TO WIN A CROWN?

The two active winningest $-drivers in the sport today, David Miller and Tim Tetrick, last won in the 2022 2YOCP and 2023 3YOCP, respectively.

POSSIBLE HISTORY FOR TWIN B JOE FRESH

If Twin B Joe Fresh wins it would mark the first time that a previous Horse of the Year won a Breeders Crown after their award-winning season (2024).

SWINGING BOTH WAYS

Luc Blais, and others, are trying to become the first conditioners to win a Breeders Crown in the same year on both gaits since Nancy Takter did it with Peaky Sneaky and Kissin In The Sand on the pacing end and with trotter Manchego.

LADIES' NIGHT?

It's been 24 years since Linda Toscano and Molly Can Do It got the Crown ball rolling for the ladies in 2002. Lauren Tritton will try and do the same for all the women in the bike with Darlins Angel.

ROGER THAT

Roger Welch sends out elim runner-up Whoomp in the final. Don't forget that Welch was entrusted with Always B Miki in 2013 when the precocious youngster was just 2. Welch did some of his best work, great work really, helping the colt mature and learn his manners.

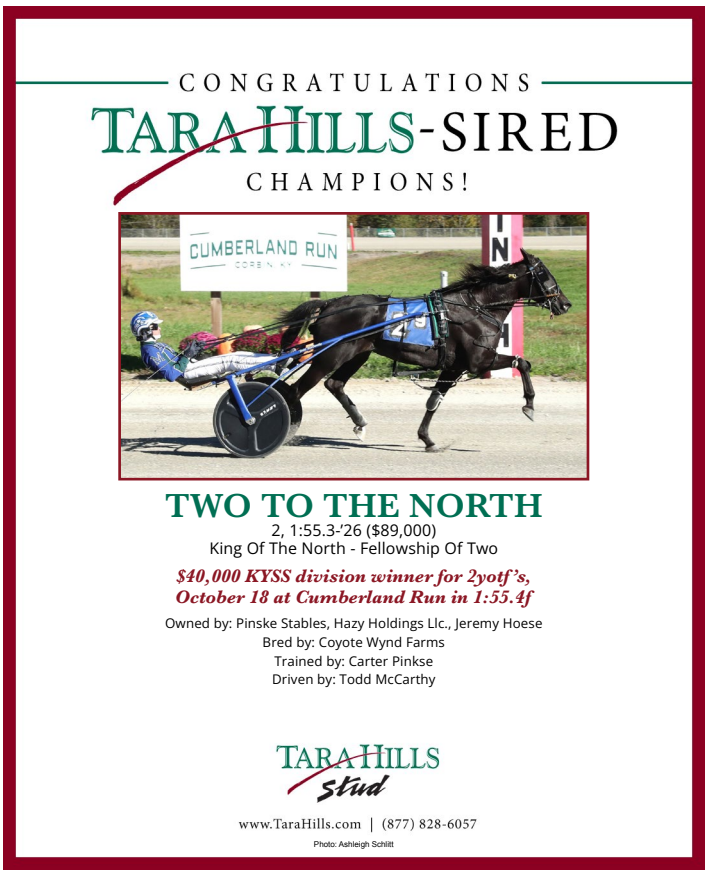

IT DOESN'T ALWAYS COME DOWN TO THE BREEDERS CROWN

In 1991, Precious Bunny and in 1994 Cam's Card Shark both reset the single-season earnings record without a dime coming from the Breeders Crown. Precious Bunny was ineligible in a time where supplementals were scarce and Cam's Card Shark didn't race past Labor Day.

WHAT ABOUT HORSE OF THE YEAR?

Depending on what goes down in the Crown, can HOY be anyone other than Super Chapter or Brandon Blvd? I guess we'll see shortly.

Mark Hall / USTA

Posts drawn for final Breeders Crown races

Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager for the Breeders Crown

The final four post position draws for the Grade 1 Breeders Crown championships at Eldorado Scioto Downs took place Tuesday evening (Oct. 20) at a draw party held at Pinnacle Golf Club.

The post draws conducted were for the 3-year-old colt and gelding trot, 3-year-old colt and gelding pace, open pace, and open trot. Elimination winners drew for posts 1 through 6 before the remaining finalists were put in an open draw. The draws for the other eight championships were completed this past weekend.

Super Chapter, the No. 1-ranked horse in the Hambletonian Society/Breeders Crown poll, will leave from post 8 in Saturday's $600,000 Breeders Crown open trot after being one of two horses to receive a bye to the final. The 4-year-old son of Chapter Seven—Lifetime Pursuit has been no worse than second in nine races this season, with seven wins and $1.19 million in earnings. His victories include three Grade

1 events — the John Cashman Memorial, Maple Leaf Trot, and MGM Yonkers International Trot — plus the Grade 2 Dayton Trotting Derby in his most recent start on Oct. 3.

Dexter Dunn will drive Super Chapter for trainer Marcus Melander as they look to extend a five-race win streak.

"I think you should always take a bye if you have the opportunity," Melander said over the weekend. "You never know what can happen in an elimination. You can be interfered with; you can take a bad stop. You lose the opportunity to win the elimination and draw [post] 1 through 6, but sometimes you have to gamble a little bit. Also, three weeks between races has never been any problem for him."

Four-year-old Emoticon Legacy, who won the sole Crown open trot elimination in 1:51.4, will start from post 4 with Bob McClure driving for trainer Luc Blais. On To Norway, a 4-year-old who was the other bye recipient, will leave from post 7 with John De Long driving for Ron Burke while 2025 open trot winner French Wine will go from post 1 with Jason Bartlett at the lines for Nancy Takter.

"I was worried about the rail, but the 4 is perfect; I think Bob has options" Blais said, adding about Super Chapter and On To Norway drawing to the outside, "They're going to need to work hard. It's going to change the game a little bit."

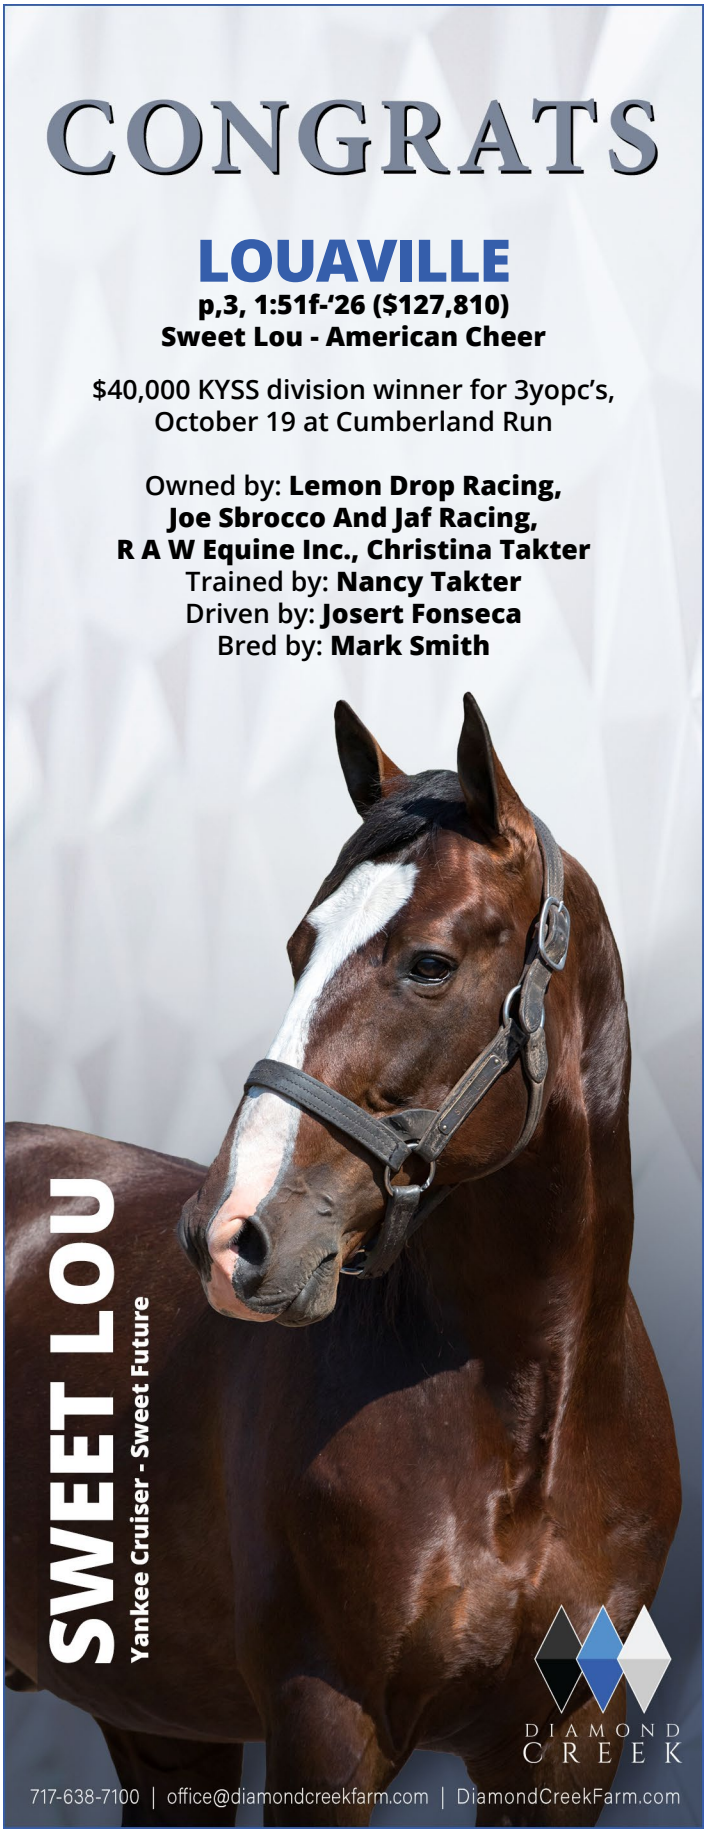

In the $662,000 open pace, elimination winners Dandy Ideal and Women Layer, who both won in 1:48.4, landed posts 3 and 1, respectively. Tim Tetrick will be in the sulky behind Dandy Ideal for trainer Brett Pelling while Women Layer will have Yannick Gingras in the bike for Virgil Morgan, Jr. Ervin Hanover, the 2025 open pace champ who was a half-length behind Dandy Ideal in his third-place elimination finish last week, will leave from post 9.

"We're just hoping to draw from the five in," Morgan, Jr. said shortly before the draw. "Hopefully the five in and I'm pretty confident will let the chips fall where they may with him."

The elimination winners for the 3-year-old male trotters, Big Ranger and Diabolic Hill, will start the $664,500 final from posts, 2 and 3, respectively. Big Ranger won his elim in 1:51.1 with Tim Tetrick in the sulky for Anette Lorentzon; Diabolic Hill was a 1:51.2 winner with Todd McCarthy driving for Annie Stoebe.

Hambletonian winner Apex, who was second to Diabolic Hill in their elimination, drew post 6 while Kentucky Futurity winner Nix Nacken, who was second to Big Ranger, got post 5. Both are trained by Melander.

"I'm thrilled with it," Stoebe said about the draw. "I just didn't want the rail, so anywhere from 3 to 6, I was going to be very happy. I can't wait [for the weekend] but I'm trying to keep everything the same, don't change anything."

In the $664,500 final for 3-year-old male pacers, elimination winners Gentleman's Club and Melillo will leave from posts, 1 and 2, respectively. Gentleman's Club won his elimination in 1:48.3 for driver Andy McCarthy and trainer Aaron Lambert. Melillo captured his elim in 1:49.3 with Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. in the sulky for trainer Burke. Brandon Blvd, the sport's No. 2-ranked horse behind Super Chapter, will start from post 4 with Dunn driving for Andrew Harris.

The Breeders Crown draw party was sponsored by Kountry Lane Standardbreds, Louprint, Right at Home and Standing Stallions.

Scioto Downs will host the four Breeders Crown championships for 2-year-olds on Friday (Oct. 23) with the remaining eight finals to follow on Saturday. First-race post time both nights is 6 p.m. (EDT). Friday night's action will be aired on FOX Sports 1 (FS1) from 8-11 p.m. and Saturday's on FOX Sports 2 (FS2) 7-10:30 p.m.

Senena Esty.

Family ties: 'Rangers' set for Breeders Crown stage

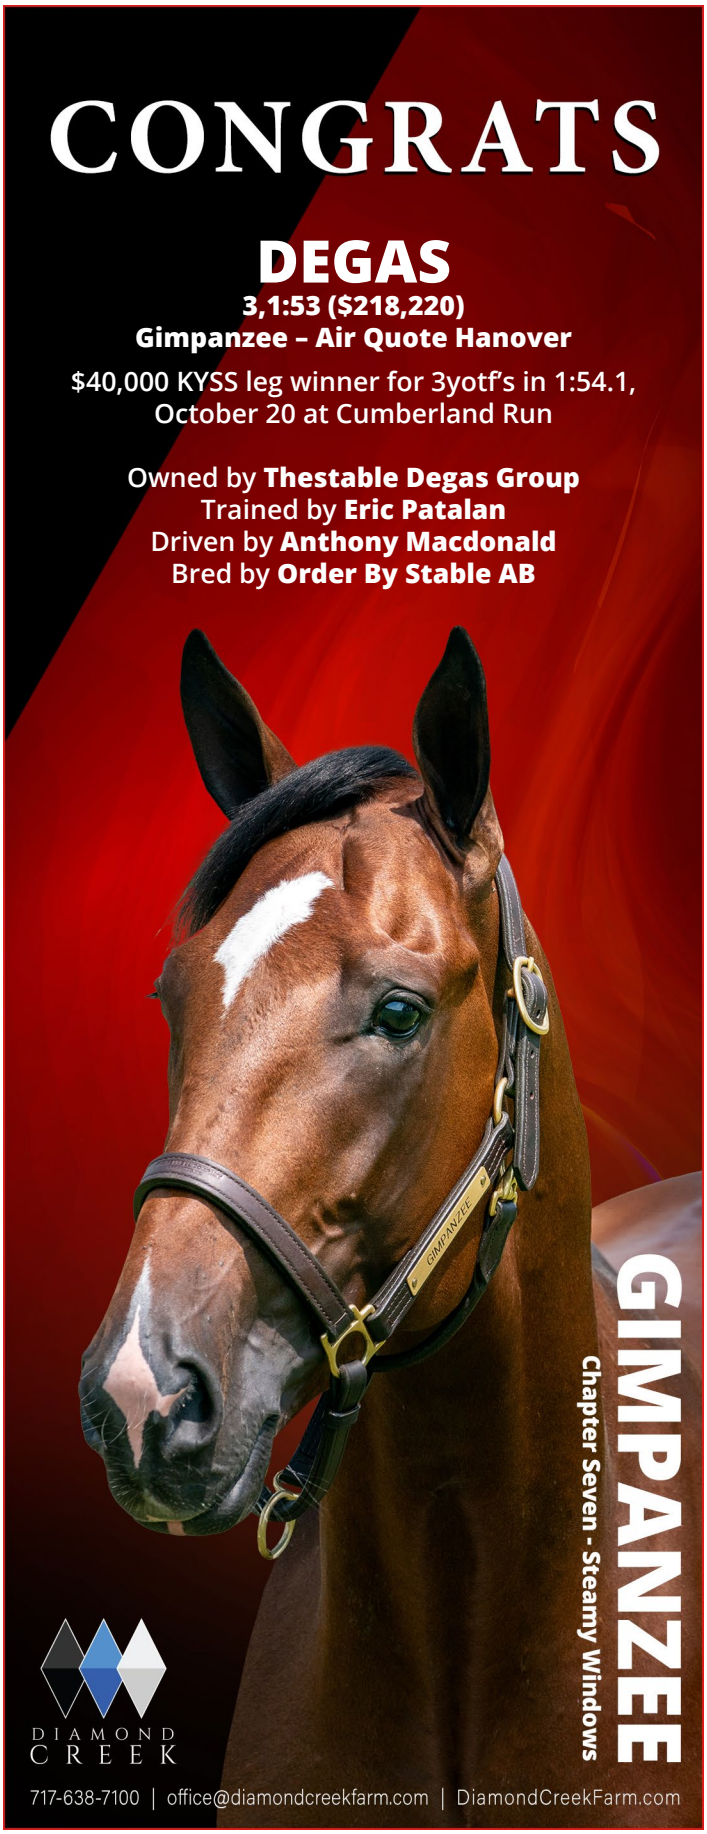

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Senena Esty is excited for this weekend's Breeders Crown finals at Eldorado Scioto Downs, she just doesn't want to think about them.

Esty and her husband, Jeff, own Spring Haven Farm in Utica, OH, located about an hour northeast of Scioto Downs. Two Breeders Crown trotting finalists — the brother and sister duo of 3-year-old colt Big Ranger and 2-year-old filly Blue Ranger — hail from the Estys' breeding operation. Both horses, by In Range out of the mare Big Blue Bird, head to their finals as elimination winners.

Full siblings have never won Breeders Crowns in the same year. The closest instance occurred in 2011 when half-brothers Bettor Sweet (by Bettors Delight) and Sweet Lou (by Yankee Cruiser) won at Woodbine Racetrack to make mom Sweet Future proud.

"I don't even like to mentally go there," Esty said with a laugh, referring to Big Ranger and Blue Ranger's potentially own sweet future this weekend. "You hate to get too pumped up about it, so I'm just trying to stay cool and calm."

Blue Ranger will be the first of the siblings to head to the track when Scioto Downs hosts all four $700,000 Grade 1 Breeders Crown finals for 2-year-olds on Friday (Oct. 23). The remaining eight Grade 1 events, for horses 3 and up, will take place on Saturday. First-race post time both nights is 6 p.m. (EDT).

Trained by Marcus Melander, Blue Ranger won her elimination last week by a length over Nevis Peak in 1:53.1, equaling her own track record that she established Sept. 12 in capturing the $300,000 Ohio Sires Stakes championship for freshman filly trotters. That time is also the fastest this season for a 2-year-old filly trotter on a five-eighths-mile oval.

Esty won't claim that she knew from day one that Blue Ranger could be that kind of filly.

"She was an average-sized filly as a weanling, and she was OK," Esty recalled. "She was nice – she wasn't nice. Everything about her was correct, but she did have a little bit of an attitude. I like to scratch them and bend down to kiss them, or whatever us girls do, and she might have wanted to take your face off. It was like, OK, we won't be kissing her too often.

"Then I literally remember one day I was out feeding the yearlings, and I hadn't seen that group for a while because me and my husband rotate what fields we do. I walked out and I looked at her rear end, and I was like, wow, this filly… is that Bluebird's? Of course, all she had to do was turn around and show that blaze on her face. And, wow, did she change. From that point on, I really, really liked her. She really developed in her later yearling phases."

Blue Ranger went for a sale-topping $210,000 at the 2025 Ohio Selected Jug Sale. She has three wins and three third-place finishes in seven starts this season, with earnings of $251,480 for owner Bender Sweden Inc.

The auction price for Blue Ranger was in contrast to that for Big Ranger, who went for $25,000 the previous year, but his success as a 2-year-old helped fuel interest in the filly. And whereas Blue Ranger left little initial impression upon Esty, the young Big Ranger was the opposite.

"He was just a really good-natured colt, just a real sweet personality, and I liked him kind of from the get-go," Esty said, adding about his yearling price, "I was honestly disappointed. I wondered what I missed. Maybe I was thinking too much of him, but I thought he was a very well-conformed colt with good size. He was big, but not too big; he wasn't too clunky. He had a good look about him."

Big Ranger proved Esty's belief in him was warranted, winning all seven of his starts at 2, including an Ohio Sires Stakes championship, and being named Ohio's Horse of the Year for trainer/driver Ronnie Gillespie. This season, his exploits include a second Ohio Sires Stakes title and memorable stretch duel with Apex in the Grade 1 Hambletonian Stakes, losing by a whisker. For his career, the colt has 15 wins and a second-place finish in 19 races and $965,959 in purses for owner Madison Global. He won his Breeders Crown elim by 2¼ lengths over Nix Nacken in 1:51.1 for trainer Anette Lorentzon.

So, what has Esty seen from her "kids" that's most impressed her so far.

"Besides what they've already demonstrated on the track, I love their gait," she said. "I like how they go with their head kind of down, and they seem to really dig in. There really is not a lot of wasted motion up front. That's what I like to see about them. They just go easy."

And while Esty would rather not think about the weekend's finals, she is happy the Breeders Crown is being held in Ohio. Scioto Downs is hosting all 12 Breeders Crown events for the first time after being the site of single Breeders Crown finals in 1986 and 1988.

"It's just huge having it at Scioto Downs," she said. "It means so much. We were over there for the eliminations, and it looks like they're ready. They've done a great job, so fingers crossed it'll go off without a hitch now."

The draws for eight of the Breeders Crown finals were held over the weekend (with Blue Ranger getting post 3) and the remaining four — the open pace, open trot, 3-year-old colt and gelding pace, 3-year-old colt and gelding trot — were conducted Tuesday during an event at Pinnacle Golf Club in Grove City, OH.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Horsepower fuels Sabrina Pelletier's world

by Chris Lomon

Sabrina Pelletier's journey in the standardbred industry began in the stalls, but it would ultimately take her farther than she ever imagined.

While most of her friends were enjoying the freedom and carefree moments that come with weekends, a then 12-year-old Pelletier was busy working in the barn of trainer Daniel Martin.

Glamorous, it was not.

But for a young, hard-working preteen, the job put money in her pocket and, perhaps most importantly, introduced her to an unexpected connection.

"Cleaning stalls was my first job," Pelletier said. "He was the one who introduced me to the world of harness racing. I didn't even know it existed before I started working there."

Every week she spent in the barn seemed to bring new opportunities and firsts. With each passing day, Pelletier's connection with the Martin horses grew stronger.

Even when she was away from the barn, her thoughts remained with the pacers and trotters.

Eventually, the weekend job became a full-time role.

"I learned different aspects of the job, including how to harness and jog horses," she said. "That's how my passion for racing began to grow."

Her dedication did not go unnoticed in Quebec racing circles.

In 2023, Pelletier received the Groom of the Year award in recognition of her efforts working for Daniel Martin, Haras De l'Estrie, and the duo of Guy and William Roy.

One year later, a bay son of Sportswriter would become her heart horse.

Bred by Louis Frederic Giroux, Bernard, now 3, began his racing career in 2025 under trainer Guy Roy.

"I also work as a service advisor at Honda. Horses and my job at Honda are both a big part of my life. They are truly my two passions and the two worlds that make up my everyday life. I also enjoy Western riding and going on trail rides whenever I get the chance."

— Sabrina Pelletier

> "I love taking care of the horses every day. I love spending time with them, getting to know their individual personalities, and giving each of them special attention."
> — Sabrina Pelletier

Pelletier had developed a bond with the horse, who sports a white right hind ankle, well before his first race.

On Nov. 11, 2024, Pelletier and Yvon Genereux became co-owners of the pacer.

"Bernard is my favorite horse," Pelletier said. "He is very special to me because I've watched him grow up alongside us. He is much more than a racehorse to me; he is a member of our family."

He is also indisputably talented.

Last September, Bernard completed a sweep of the Coupe de l'Avenir for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings at Hippodrome 3R in Trois-Rivières, QC.

"What I'm most proud of so far is undoubtedly Bernard's victory in the 2025 Coupe de l'Avenir," Pelletier said. "It was an incredible source of pride for me, especially because I've watched him grow up alongside us and know all the hard work and emotions behind that achievement.

"It's a moment I will always cherish. It may be the kind of victory you only get to experience once in your lifetime, and I'm truly grateful to have shared that experience with him."

Bernard won his first six races by a combined margin of more than 23 lengths and remained undefeated through his first seven starts.

"It's hard to put into words the bond we share and how much he means to me," Pelletier said. "He has given me so many unforgettable moments filled with emotion and pride. The connection I have with him is truly unique."

Pelletier also cherishes the other connections she has made throughout her career.

"I would definitely say that race days are the best part of my job," she said. "Every horse is different, and I enjoy taking the time to give each one the care and attention that they need."

She also appreciates every opportunity to become a vocal cheerleader when her horses take to the track.

"It's hard to describe all the emotions I feel," she said. "I'm excited, happy, and nervous all at the same time. There is so much pride in watching the horses you care for perform on the track.

"I'm always happy to see them give it their best, and when they win, it makes the moment even more special. Every race brings its own emotions."

Having to bid farewell to some of those familiar faces is, admittedly, the most challenging aspect of her job.

"The hardest part for me is having to see some horses leave the farm for a new home or a new career," Pelletier said. "When you care for them every day and become attached to them, they eventually become part of your life. It's never easy to say goodbye to horses you love and have built a special bond with."

Outside the racing world, Pelletier is still involved with horsepower, albeit in a very different way.

"I also work as a service advisor at Honda," she said. "Horses and my job at Honda are both a big part of my life. They are truly my two passions and the two worlds that make up my everyday life.

"I also enjoy Western riding and going on trail rides whenever I get the chance."

Pelletier also has a particular racetrack on her bucket list.

"I would really love to visit Meadowlands Racetrack one day," she said. "I believe it's a place you have to experience at least once in your life when you share this passion. It would be a truly special experience for me."

For now, the award-winning Pelletier will continue to focus on the horses under her care.

And just as she has done since the beginning of her racing career, she will draw on the early lessons she learned from horses as she continues along her path.

"I love taking care of the horses every day," she said. "I love spending time with them, getting to know their individual personalities, and giving each of them special attention."

Massachusetts Breeder Stakes produce multiple records at Plainridge Park

by Tim Bojarski for the Standardbred Owners of Massachusetts

The third division of Massachusetts Breeder Stakes for 2-year-old participants of both gaits and genders was held at Plainridge Park on Monday (Oct. 19) and multiple pages of several record books were re-written when the dust had settled for the afternoon.

There were seven stake races – split divisions for all but the male trotters – that went for a combined $335,000 in purses. Seven new lifetime marks were set along with three track records, three stakes records, and three horses established as being the fastest ever bred in the state of Massachusetts.

The fastest group of the day was the second group of male pacers who hit the track for $42,400 where Bacchus Blue Chip (American Ideal—Sunnynseventyfive) entered the record books on the strength of his career best outing.

Takes Courage (Matt Kakaley), Atreides (Cory Stratton), and Bacchus Blue Chip (Yannick Gingras) all battled for the front through the :27.1 first quarter before Bacchus Blue Chip finally took the lead and dominated from there. Bacchus Blue Chip reached the half in :55.3 and three-quarters in 1:23.1, while inching away from the competition around the turn. When Bacchus Blue entered the stretch, he was in full flight and pulled away to a 4½ length lead at the line where he won in 1:50.3 and set a new lifetime mark.

The time also set a new track record for a 2-year-old pacing colt, a new stakes record for a 2-year-old male pacer, and made Bacchus Blue Chip the fastest 2-year-old pacing colt ever bred in Massachusetts.

Bacchus Blue Chip ($2.20) is owned by Burke Racing, Larry Karr, Libby and Purnel, and Frank Baldachino and trained by Ron Burke.

The first group of pacing males who went for $42,400 went to Sting Me (Perfect Sting—Gallie Onthebeach).

Sting Me (Mitchell Cushing) got away third as Top Notch Treasure (Gingras) and Bastonata Bluechip (Kakaley) traded leads to the quarter in :27 flat. Bastonata Bluechip then reached the half in :56.1 before Sting Me pulled first-over and took the lead before passing three-quarters in 1:24.1. From there, Sting Me swelled up when he entered the stretch on top by four lengths and paced away by 5½ at the line in 1:52.1.

Sting Me ($3) is owned by Nancy Longobardi and Domenic Longobardi and trained by George Ducharme. Blue Chip Bloodstock bred Sting Me.

Another record-breaking performance came in the first $42,800 division of pacing fillies where Lindy Believer (Captaintreacherous—Believe It's Lindy) put in the performance of her life.

The Woman With You (Jimmy Whittemore) took the first lead and reached the quarter in :27.2. But Lindy Believer (Gingras) pulled immediately and gained control in front of the grandstand and never looked back from there. Lindy Believer passed the half in :56 and three-quarters in 1:24 before rounding the last turn. Lindy Believer entered the stretch on top by four lengths and when she straightened for home, cruised to the line in 1:52, which was a new lifetime mark.

The time also broke the track and stakes record for a 2-year-old pacing filly and also made Lindy Believer the fastest 2-year-old pacing filly ever bred in Massachusetts.

Lindy Believer is owned by Engblom Farm, R A W Equine, Evans Nation, and Hickory Hollow Stable and trained by Petter Engblom. Lindy Farms of Connecticut bred Lindy Believer. This was a non-betting event.

The second group of filly pacers vied for $42,800 and was won by Stayoutofmylane (Stay Hungry—Gold Orchid N), who notched her second MASS stake win.

Always B Winning (Cushing) led to the quarter in :28.1 before Stayoutofmylane (Brett Beckwith) bolted to the front passing the stands and settled in at the half in :56.3. Stayoutofmylane continued to lead up the backstretch where Chase News Network (Nick Graffam) and Tall Dark Lindy (Michael Oosting) made outside bids before entering the last turn. When the girls straightened for home, the field was bunching. But Stayoutofmylane was best of all and won by a length in 1:53.4, which was a new lifetime mark.

Stayoutofmylane ($7) is owned and bred by George Ducharme Stable, Jim Winske, and Dr. Megan Moschgat and trained by Ducharme.

There were also two divisions of filly trotters, the first going for $41,600 and won by Luxe Lindy (Walner—Decadence), who scored her second straight MASS victory with a late rush.

Nanny's Ce Ce (Jeff Gregory) out-left Ma's Always Right (Gingras) and Luxe Lindy (Tyler Miller), who pocketed-up behind the leader before reaching the quarter in :29.1. With no movement from behind, Nanny's Ce Ce led comfortably to the half in :58.1 and three-quarters in 1:27.1 before entering the far turn. As the race came off the far bend, Luxe Lindy tipped off the cones and bore down on Nanny's Ce Ce, eventually trotting clear by three-quarters-of-a-length to win in 1:55.3, which was a new lifetime mark.

Luxe Lindy is owned by Andy Miller Stable, Jean Goehlen, Little E, and Coyote Wynd Farms and trained by Julie Miller. Luxe Lindy was bred by K R Breeding. This was a non-betting event.

The second split of trotting fillies went for $42,000 and was won by Beyond The Rules (Back Of The Neck—Crystalline), who registered her first career victory.

Beyond The Rules (Oosting) took the lead from Halo Lindy (Tyler Miller) after passing the quarter in :29.1. Once in front, Beyond The Rules led the single-file field through even fractions of :59 and 1:28 without any challenges from behind. When she turned for home, she was up by three lengths, but Beyond The Rules then blew away the field by 8¼ lengths in 1:56.4, taking a lifetime mark.

Beyond The Rules ($4.80) is owned by Paul Kelley Racing Stable, Ray Campbell, Jr., Go For Glory Stable, and Matthew Lamont and trained by Paul Kelley. Ray Campbell, Jr. bred the winner.

Finally, there was one division of trotting colts and geldings who raced for $81,000 and saw Once Upon Lindy (International Moni—Origin Story) win his third straight MASS leg.

Once Upon Lindy (Gingras) rolled to the lead on the outside passing the quarter in :29 flat. Once clear on the pegs, Once Upon Lindy marched smartly through quarters of :57.4 and 1:26.4 while his stablemate, Two Fifty (Beckwith) followed closely. At the top of the stretch, Two Fifty tipped and tried to advance, but Once Upon Lindy was too good and won by 1½ lengths in a career best, 1:55.2.

Once Upon Lindy ($2.60) is owned and bred by K R Breeding and trained by Domenico Cecere.

Gingras scored a stakes hat trick while Ducharme had two wins and was the top conditioner in the seven events.

29th annual Virginia Breeder's Championship Series gets underway at Shenandoah Downs

by Darrell Wood / Shenandoah Downs

Hagerman Racing's impressive 2-year-old gelding trotter In The Worst Way captured his fifth straight race in a $10,000 Virginia Breeders prep division Saturday (Oct. 17) at Shenandoah Downs as round number one of the 29th annual Virginia Breeders Championship Series kicked off. A second round of preps and eliminations will take place next weekend in advance of the $400,000 Day of Champions card on Oct. 31.

Driver Corey Braden directed the son of Mach II past Areallyfastcar just after the quarter then led the rest of the way, crossing the wire in 2:01.4. The winner is trained by Herman Hagerman and came to Virginia fresh off a dominating $100,000 Maryland Sire Stakes victory Oct. 11 where he won by nine lengths. William Roberts and Graham Grace Stables' Youcancallmeroy finished second and Caviart Farms' Call Me Ovi took third.

In the female counterpart, Tremaine Harding's Dance With Jenni picked up where she left off in Virginia Sire Stakes competition two weeks ago with another solid win, in Breeder's company this time. The daughter of Armed Dangerously, who wired the field in both her Sire Stakes prep and final, came to the outside Saturday in the final turn — after a pocket trip throughout — and powered home to a 6¼ length triumph in 2:03.4. Reinsman Billy Carter led the effort for trainer Michael Whitaker. All six of Dance With Jenni's career starts have been at the Woodstock oval. Rudy Hostetler's Aren't I Pretty finished second and Tremain Harding and Cornelius Martin's Queen Jessica took third.

Pacers took center stage Sunday (Oct. 18) and Caviart Farms' Caviart Caleb delivered a solid outing in the first of two elimination division legs for males. The Papi Rob Hanover gelding wired the field in 1:56.1 after initial fractions of :29.3, :59.1, and 1:28.3. Driver Troy Beyer positioned the Jim Campbell trainee 10 lengths ahead at the top of the stretch and at the wire, was 18 lengths in front of runner-up Big Mac Dylan. Debbie Warnick's Meadowland Park finished third.

Richard Havens' Blue Jay's Watchin took care of business in the second colt division, covering the mile in 1:57.2 and crossing 2½ lengths the best. The son of He's Watching left from outside post 8 with driver Tony Morgan aboard and authored panels of :28, :57, and 1:27. Trained by Dan Gassien, the elimination winner is now three-for-five in his young career and rebounded from an eighth-place finish last out at Harrington. Joe Chinando's Ohh Hey Bud finished second and Scott Woogen's KJ Atlas took third.

In the first filly division, Ramona Gillespie's Oops All Berries paced in front at all four fractions and stopped the timer in 1:59.4. The daughter of Captain Crunch authored a :29.3 opener and followed with 1:00.2 and 1:30.2 stanzas. The Janet Davis trainee maintained a one-length cushion throughout but opened extra distance in the stretch and crossed 3½ lengths the best. J M B Ventures' If I Win Uwin was second and Hagerman Racing's All That Rusty finished third.

Jason Skinner's Denim N Pearls surged past Nurse Nippy before the three-quarter pole in the second filly clash, opened up by eight at the head of the stretch and coasted home to a 9¾-length victory in 1:58. The Perfect Sting filly has produced top-three finishes in all eight of her starts and 19-year-old Ryder Skinner has been in the sulky for all. Ellen Warren and Bob Krenitsky's Dark Sunkist took second and John Pyott's Nurse Nippy was third.

Shenandoah Downs plays host to its annual Pink Power Day in conjunction with second leg Breeder's races Saturday (Oct. 24). Details are at shenandoahdowns.com.

Maine's sophomore finals provide thrills and chills

by Chris Tully for the Maine Sire Stakes

On a brisk, but sunny autumn afternoon at Hollywood Casino Hotel and Raceway in Bangor, ME, four respective $100,000-plus Maine Sire Stakes finals on Saturday (Oct. 17) delivered some chalk and an upset in the annual culmination of Pine Tree State-bred 3-year-old trotters and pacers.

Of course, for harness racing aficionados the glamour boys division always brings the top talent to the forefront, and this year was no exception. The 1-9 favorite in the $101,168 Maine Sire Stakes final for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings, Daytoremember (Heath Campbell) scored from post 2 and fought for the lead with the pylon protecting Silence Ofdarkness (Kevin Switzer, Jr.) into a :29 opening panel.

Stuck on the rim and pushing forward was Deuces Red (Steve Wilson) who found himself first up at the :59.3 half, with Rebel's Revenge (Aaron Hall) enjoying that second over cover.

With the field starting to stack up behind the fading outer flow, Campbell got a few lengths separation with Daytoremember past the 1:28.2 third panel. Pocket sitting Silence Ofdarkness tried valiantly to keep up, but to no avail as the pacesetter strolled away a 5¾ length victor in 1:57.1.

Owned, trained, and bred by Valerie Grondin, the son of Dude's The Man returned $2.20 for his 10th win of the year and increased his seasonal bankroll to $132,168.

Nuh Uh (Andy Harrington) got up for third.

In the $101,168 Maine Sire Stakes final for 3-year-old filly pacers, the divisional leader Snowonthepines (1-5) took her usual seat at the front of the bus, however driver Switzer, Jr. had to outsprint Just Delightful (2-1) and Ron Cushing who begrudgingly allowed the filly to clear into a :28 opening panel. But as track announcer Mick Sweeney succinctly noted, "she took a little bit of starch out of that one."

Settling down a bit, the lass led the field in single file formation through a :59 half before any challengers came calling. Graceofspades (Dave Ingraham) was the first to move, with Perfectly Lovely (Campbell) picking up that cover as the pack moved tightly through the third turn.

With Snowonthepines on the engine into a swifter 1:28.3 third panel, and Cushing finding a seam for Just Delightful, the challenger extracted his charge from the pylons and set about reeling in the pacesetter around the final turn.

At the head of the stretch the fillies were eye-to-eye and wheel-to-wheel as the drivers prepared for battle. By mid-stretch it appeared that Snowonthepines was giving all she had, and Just Delightful had a little more, scoring by two lengths in 1:58.3.

Trained by Heidi Cushing for driver/co-owner Ron Cushing with Steve Downey and Tony and Joe Romanelli, the daughter of Western Maverick increased her seasonal earnings to $111,830. Bred by Lynn-Marie Plouffe, she returned $6.80 for her fifth win of the season.

Second place finisher Snowonthepines finished her Maine Sire Stakes season with 11 wins in 13 starts and $118,731 on her card for trainer Marc Tardif and owner/breeder Leighton Property.

Graceofspades was third.

In the $101,011 final for 3-year-old filly trotters, it was a classic tour of the facility by leading divisional star Hayden, who went off as the heavy 1-5 favorite.

Following several aggressive miscues at the start, the mile was somewhat pedestrian as Hayden and Hall led every step of the way with Coronation Moon (Ivan Davies) sitting in the pocket through opening splits of :30 and 1:01.

Past the 1:31.3 third panel Wally Watson sent Roseapple Ave past the pocket sitter to grab second in an attempt to reel in the leader.

However, Hayden would not be caught as she coasted to victory in 2:02.2 by 2¼ lengths.

Trained and driven by Gary Hall to a total of 11 seasonal victories, the daughter of Cantab Fashion has earned $135,647 with just a pair of uncharacteristic miscues over the long season. Owned and bred by Stephen Hall, she continued her four-race winning streak, returning $2.60.

Roseapple Ave finished second; Our Last Quote (Wilson) recovered from an early break to grab third.

In the $100,608 Maine Sire Stakes final for 3-year-old colt and gelding trotters, which was held as an early non-wagering event, it was divisional point leader Wilder N Idy (Mark Athearn) who behaved behind the gate, bided his time, and overtook Gus's Workout (Campbell), who made a break while on top at the half.

Scoring by 4½ lengths in 2:02.2, Wilder N Idy, a son of To The Hilt, now has eight wins in 13 starts for trainer Gretchen Athearn and has completed his stakes season with $129,579 in earnings.

Owned by Patsy Leavitt and bred by the late Mike Andrew, he now has 16 wins and $235,641 in his career.

Trottinfortreasure (Switzer, Jr.) finished second; Gus's Workout was third.

The Maine Sire Stakes finals represent the culmination of years of hard work and dedication of behalf of dozens of industry stakeholders, including, but not limited to the owners, breeders, trainers, drivers, and caretakers of these equine athletes.

Not only do these horses represent a significant individual and collective investment in harness racing and agriculture in the state of Maine, but the peripheral revenue generated by the truck and trailer sales and maintenance, fuel suppliers, feed companies, hay producers, tack shops, blacksmiths, farm owners, and racetracks that give them a place to compete, generously exceeds seven figures annually.

Fatal accident at Desert Park Raceway claims the life of driver Scott Knight

A tragic accident during the fifth race at Desert Park Raceway on Sunday (Oct. 18), resulted in the fatality of driver Scott Knight. The horse, Dillon James (post 1), driven by Don Ross, broke stride, lost his step and went down on the track. The trailing drivers and horses were unable to avoid the downed horse, leading to a multi-horse collision.

Scott Knight, who was driving Wits Beach (post 4), did not survive the accident. He was 52. Carson Abbott, driving Firm Ringo (post 7), was transported to Penticton hospital for medical treatment. Don Ross sustained minor injuries and was treated onsite. All three horses involved in the collision survived.

Desert Park Raceway officials canceled the remainder of Sunday's live racing program immediately following the fifth race.

Kelly MacMillan, president of the Western Canada Horse Racing Association and operator of Desert Park Raceway, issued the following statement regarding the loss: "It is an incredibly sad incident, and we are at a loss for words. Scott was part of our family and I can't begin to describe how we are feeling. We are all reeling in grief. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Scott's family and everyone involved."

Desert Park Raceway has arranged for and is offering counseling services to anyone in the racing community who feels the need for support through this incredibly difficult time.

CTV National News story highlights the damage Canada's unfair tax laws are causing the horse racing industry

The damage Canada's restrictive and unfair tax laws are causing to Ontario's horse racing industry was the subject of a recent CTV National News story by Adrian Ghobrial.

The story can be read here.

It also can be viewed here:

As Ontario Racing has previously reported here, and further expanded on for a detailed story in Canadian Thoroughbred magazine, the Canadian horse racing industry is at a distinct disadvantage compared to its U.S. counterparts when it comes to tax laws.

As Ghobrial's CTV piece said, "The tax benefit now offered in the U.S. means that Canadian-bred horses sold in the U.S. sell for thousands of dollars more than they do in Canada.

"When a horse is sold in the United States, it often doesn't make its way back up to Canada. If it doesn't race in Canada, it can't help the broader Canadian economy."

On the Thoroughbred side, "Three years ago, Woodbine Racetrack was home to roughly 1,900 horses. That number is now 1,600 and dropping fast."

In the U.S., President Donald Trump's "Big Beautiful Bill," which was signed into law in the summer of 2025, allows horse owners to write off 100 per cent of bonus appreciation for horse losses. That change is credited with sending the price of thoroughbreds skyrocketing at U.S. sales in 2025, and the trend has continued in 2026. We'll spare you the accounting details, but if you want to read more about them, you can do so at Fairness for Farmers, the National Thoroughbred Racing Association and Harness Racing Update.

In Canada, Section 31 of the Income Tax Act states that a person that owns horses as a hobby business may only write off a maximum of $17,500 of losses annually in the horse racing business against their main business.

Thoroughbred owner and breeder David Clancy of Track West Racing of Toronto is an accountant. He told Ontario Racing in 2025, "Section 31 is terrible for Canada's horse [industry]. Basically, you can deduct up to $17,500 but you have to spend $32,500 to get the $17,500 deduction.

"Section 31 basically says you're limited if farming is not your main pursuit, which, for most guys in the horse racing industry, farming is not their main pursuit. It's a total joke."

Sue Leslie, an Ontario Racing board member and the Ontario president of the Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association (HBPA) summed it up well in an interview with Ontario Racing in late 2025:

"It sure seems like the U.S. government is trying to help and promote the horse racing and breeding industry there and it doesn't seem like the Canadian government is too interested," Leslie said. "It's a huge, huge issue for Ontario and Canadian horsepeople, because we can't compete… The cost of owning a horse is through the roof and the tax laws are so antiquated. It's ridiculous, really."

Bill Manes has owned standardbred racehorses for more than 50 years. In 2025, he said if Canadian tax rules, "had no cap on what you could write off, my own personal feeling is you would have a lot more people in the game.

"There's no attraction [to horse ownership] the way the tax structure is now.

"You can't even buy a yearling nowadays for $17,500. There's no incentive for people to reinvest in an industry."

Simply put, Section 31 discriminates against rural Canada. There is no such limitation faced by other economic sectors.

The horse racing industry isn't seeking an exception or tax breaks. It simply wants Section 31 repealed in the name of fairness, and to achieve both a level playing field with other Canadian businesses and a competitive balance with its U.S. counterparts.

Herschberger, Sassinator team for Simpson victory at Pocono

Driver Mark Herschberger, continuing to make a name for himself by currently sitting third in the win production totals at both Harrah's Philadelphia and The Meadowlands, showed another sign of his upward turn in recognition during the Monday afternoon (Oct. 19) card at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania. He was asked by trainer Jim King, Jr. to make a cameo appearance at the mountain oval to drive Sassinator in the $84,700 John Simpson, Sr. Memorial known as the Bret Hanover for 2-year-old pacing males, and he cashed in fully with his only drive by winning in 1:52.2.

Sassinator, an altered son of Papi Rob Hanover—Newborn Sassy owned by Tim Tetrick LLC and Jo Ann Looney-King, left strongly from the rail and seated rivals early, but then favored River Ranch Mac decided to move past the :27.4 quarter and got the lead well before the :55.4 half.

Herschberger had plenty of horse in the 2-hole and moved Sassinator back to command past the 1:24.3 three-quarters, but just because River Ranch Mac had been passed didn't mean he was done as he re-rallied in the Pocono Pike. However, his late surge came up a head shy in the :27.4 last quarter.

In the $16,000 fast-class event for older trotters, the International Moni gelding Scudo Hanover had about as rough a trip as can be imagined, but he still strode clear to win by five lengths in 1:53. Scudo Hanover was four-wide leaving and had worked his way down to two-wide in third by the :27.4 quarter while pressing forward. Cassius Hanover would not let him clear to the lead, however, and "Scudo" was first though still outside at the mid-splits of :55.1 and 1:23.3.

The powerful winner just kept on going and finally managed to clear the leader around the far turn, drawing off to win by five lengths for driver Ridge Warren and trainer Robert Baggitt, Jr., co-owner with Christine Baggitt and J L Sadowsky LLC.

Half of the remaining 12 races on the Monday 14-race card were won by 15-time Pocono driving champion George Napolitano, Jr., including both divisions of a $15,500 trot for developing horses.

The faster of Napolitano, Jr.'s winners in this group was the Ready Cash 3-year-old filly Tindra Cash S, just a bit more photogenic in 1:54.1 for trainer Åke Svanstedt and Suleyman Yuksel Stables Inc; just a tick behind was the other winner On Golden Pond, a Southwind Frank mare who took a new mark for trainer Marc Mosher and owner Ronald Bolduc.

Aside from Napolitano, Jr.'s six-bagger, multiple winners Monday were the 2026 leading Pocono winner in the driving category Tyler Buter, along with trainer Tom Cancelliere, both his winners driven by Napolitano, Jr.

Biscuitinthebasket, Midnight Matrimony repeat in Harvest Series

Repeat winners swept the second leg of the Harvest Series for Ontario-sired or bred 2-year-old pacing fillies with Biscuitinthebasket and Midnight Matrimony back in the spotlight on Monday (Oct. 19) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The series is for non-winners of $30,000 in 2026 as of Sept. 30.

Biscuitinthebasket ($3.10) won the fastest of the two $25,000 divisions in round 2 with a 1:51.4 career-best effort in rein to James MacDonald for trainer Meg Crone and owner Laverne Turnbull of Kitchener, ON.

The Cattlewash—Beachy Girl filly got away fourth through a :27 opening panel and reached up to take the lead past the half in :55. Biscuitinthebasket drew clear to three-quarters in 1:23.2 and the 1-2 favorite took off in the stretch to score by 2¼ lengths, leaving her rivals to duke it out for the minor spoils. Closing from the backfield, 58-1 longshot Shotgun Annie (Travis Henry) got up for second over Lets Go Fishin (Mark MacDonald).

Following up on her maiden-breaking victory in last week's opening leg, Biscuitinthebasket now sports a career summary reading 2-2-2 in eight starts with $48,400 in earnings.

Midnight Matrimony ($2.40), another daughter of Cattlewash, scored in 1:53.4 for the father-and-son, training-and-driving team of Gregg and Doug McNair.

Firing from the outside wing of the starting gate, Midnight Matrimony made front at the quarter pole in :27.1 and got a rated half of :57.3. The 1-5 favorite held the lead to three-quarters in 1:26.1 as Del Ray Seelster (Tyler Borth) looked her in the eye then dug in down the lane to prevail by 1¼ lengths. TH Penelope (Mark MacDonell) escaped from the pocket late to place with Del Ray Seelster holding on for third in a show photo.

Owned by William Fleming of New York, NY, the filly out of Quantum Blue Chip now has three wins in her first seven starts and $42,160 in earnings.

MacDonald also won the lone second-leg division for 2-year-old trotting fillies as he was reunited with the Dan Lagace-trained TH Francesca ($15.30), a rookie he baby raced, for her maiden-breaking victory in 1:54.4. The King Of The North—Scorched Romance filly, who finished second by just a half-length in round one last week, found success in her ninth career start as she rallied from fourth to first off final-turn cover in a :28.1 final frame, defeating 1-5 favorite Jyn Erso (Doug McNair) by 1¼ lengths. TH Francesca is owned by Lagace Stables of Cambridge, ON, Edwin Buhler of Wantagh, NY, and Big Als Stables of Woodbridge, ON.

Harvest Series action dominated the Monday night card at Mohawk as another event kicked off for Ontario-sired or bred 3-year-old fillies that were non-winners of $150,000 in 2026 as of Sept. 30 with $100,000 claimers also eligible. There were two $35,000 trotting tilts and a pair for pacers during the first leg.

Louis-Philippe Roy drove the fastest winners on each gait: pacing filly Pownal Bay Bobbi ($2.50) in 1:50.2 for trainer Kyle Fellows and trotting filly Lo And Behold ($6.30) in 1:54.3 to give the Meg Crone stable another Harvest victory on the night.

Fresh off a third-place finish in the Ontario Sires Stakes Super Final, 1-5 favorite Pownal Bay Bobbi re-took the lead from Lavender Seelster (Travis Henry) after the opening panel and defeated that foe in a two-length tally. The Century Farroh—Bettorthanbobbi filly, a 1:48.4 winner this past summer at Mohawk, is owned by Yolanda Fellows of Rockwood, ON, and Erna and Blair Corbeil of Leduc, AB.

Roy looped Lo And Behold to the lead down the backstretch and the Green Manalishi S—Beholder filly opened up a big lead in the final turn before cruising home with enough margin to hold off the favored Super Final runner-up, Twin B Showbiz (Tyler Borth), by a half-length. An OSS Gold winner earlier this year, Lo And Behold is owned by W. J. Donovan of Delray Beach, FL.

The McNairs also won a division for the sophomore pacing fillies with Romantic Beauty ($10.20) sprinting past pacesetter Malicia Speed (Travis Cullen) off a ground-saving trip to win by three-quarters-of-a-length in 1:51.3 with a :26.3 final frame. A homebred for owner James Avritt, Sr. of Lebanon, KY, the Bettors Delight—Precious Beauty filly was a two-time Grassroots winner this year.

Satu Wania ($19.60) gave Green Manalishi S a sire sweep of the sophomore trotting filly divisions as she won the other split in wire-to-wire fashion by three lengths in 1:55 to match her lifetime mark after shrugging off final-turn challenger Douneedthemachine (James MacDonald). The filly out of Miss Everything was driven by Trevor Henry, trained by Shannon Henry, and owned by Trevor Henry Stables of Arthur, ON, David Hudson of Dallas, TX, and James Fleming of Bayfield, ON.

HARVEST SERIES DOUBLE FOR BENN, STORMONT: Trainer Kevin Benn and owner Stormont Meadows swept the pair of $35,000 Harvest Series first-leg divisions for sophomore trotting males as Stormont Fast Boy and Stormont Shanlyboy each won their contests on Sunday (Oct. 18) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Stormont Fast Boy earned the intra-barn bragging rights with the faster of the two clockings, winning the first division in 1:53.2 with Bob McClure aboard. The gelding traveled fifth as Sendi Ka (Tyler Borth) took the top past a :28 first-quarter flurry then yielded to a retake by Mike Me Up (James MacDonald) before the :56.2 half. Stormont Fast Boy shifted onto cover going to three-quarters in 1:24.4 and unleashed a :27.4 kick to power clear by 2½ lengths. Crunchintheodds (Doug McNair) battled on to nab second over Mike Me Up.

Stormont Fast Boy's win comes two starts after his first stakes victory in the final preliminary leg of the Ontario Sires Stakes Grassroots. The son of Muscle Mass—Countess Stormont, also bred by Long Sault, ON-based Stormont Meadows, is three-for-seven this year after finishing second in his one start at 2 and now has $61,370 in earnings. He paid $10.90 to win.

Stormont Shanlyboy, coming off a narrow place finish in his Ontario Sires Stakes Super Final, also impressed as he brushed and crushed in the second division. Tyler Jones took the pocket behind Maize And Blue (Doug McNair) to the quarter in :28.2, then eased to the lead before a :57.3 half. The gelding aimed to bottom out the field with a dash to three-quarters in 1:25.3 and succeeded in his mission, trotting away down the lane and gliding across the line to prevail by 3¾ lengths in 1:54.1. L P Bay (Travis Henry) rolled out of fourth for second over Trouble With Names (Bob McClure).

Stormont Shanlyboy, another homebred for Eric Baker's Stormont Meadows, is now five-for-19 lifetime with $203,920 in earnings. Sunday's win was his fifth of 16 outings this season. The win price was $2.10.

Both $35,000 pacing divisions were won by sons of Bulldog Hanover with 1:50.1 efforts. Odds On Bullfrog ($2.20) made two moves to the top and was in control for the remainder of the way to a 1¼-length win. Travis Henry piloted the colt out of Odds On Naples for trainer Dr. Ian Moore.

Barracuda Hanover ($19) devoured ground late in a :26.1 final quarter to take the second pacing division by a nose. The colt, out of Bettors Chance, scored for driver Bob McClure and trainer Don Lindsey.

The Harvest Series is for Ontario-sired or -bred horses that are non-winners of $150,000 this season as of Sept. 30 or are in for a $100,000 claiming tag. The $100,000 finals for the 3-year-old males are set for Oct. 25 at Mohawk.
