Breeders Crown sparks a great debate for year-end trotting honors

by Brett Sturman

Brad Conrad

On To Norway (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) winning the $600,000 Grade 1 Breeders Crown open trot final on Saturday at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

BETWEEN THE LINES

with BRETT STURMAN

It's hard to believe that just a single race could both suddenly and dramatically change who is viewed as the sport's best trotter, but that's what transpired in the Breeders Crown race for open trotters this past Saturday (Oct. 24) at Scioto Downs. In one race, could Super Chapter have gone from Horse of the Year leader, to not even a divisional winner?

Super Chapter went into that Breeders Crown as the sport's top-rated horse in the midst of a sensational 4-year-old season.

Here's what I said about him in an Oct.16 column, recognizing his standing atop the sport: "His only defeats coming earlier in the season to On To Norway in a pair of thrilling and world-record breaking races at The Meadowlands, and he hasn't lost since. Wins throughout that time include three Grade 1s, the Cashman, Maple Leaf Trot, and the $1 million Yonkers International. With a win most recently in the Dayton Derby, he's not only won five major races in a row but did so over four different sized ovals. He's made the transition to a 4-year-old beautifully."

In one race, could Super Chapter have gone from Horse of the Year leader, to not even a divisional winner?

With On To Norway surprising with a massive effort in the Breeders Crown — and once again getting the better of Super Chapter in head-to-head matchups — things have become far more interesting and closer than would have first thought possible this same time last week.

On the whole, the overall resume this year of Super Chapter still bests that of On To Norway. But the question becomes, how much do their direct records in races against one another come into factor. The more it does, the more you have to look at On To Norway.

The first time this year On To Norway and Super Chapter met was in the $230,000 Graduate final at The Meadowlands on July 4. On To Norway entered that race having seen his 27-race win streak snapped in a Graduate preliminary division the race prior.

In the Graduate final, with the aid of perhaps the drive of the year coming from Yannick Gingras, On To Norway upset Super Chapter in an all-time North American record clocking of 1:48.3. Super Chapter was valiant in that race having received the wider trip and wound up beaten by a neck as On To Norway split rivals late to win the Graduate in a thriller.

One week later on July 11, those two went at it again, this time in the $425,000 Hambletonian Maturity. And while you could say the trip told the story in the race the prior week, that wasn't the case at all in the Maturity. In that race, On To Norway and Super Chapter settled away 1-2. Super Chapter, sitting the 2-hole trip, was able to angle off the cones a couple of paths and had the length of the stretch — at the added distance of an extra eighth-of-a-mile to get by On To Norway — but On To Norway was able to dig in and stave off his fellow 4-year-old rival.

Going their separate ways after, where Super Chapter racked up multiple Grade 1 wins as referenced earlier, the two horses wouldn't meet again until Oct. 3 in the Dayton Derby. This one didn't provide the same fireworks as those earlier Meadowlands races did, where Super Chapter easily went to the front and On

To Norway got away in sixth. On To Norway eventually got into the cover flow third-over when he made a break, though he would have had to be monumental to win from the spot he was in regardless.

In winning that race, Super Chapter repelled a fierce bid from Emoticon Legacy to turn that rival away late and win. For On To Norway, that was one of the races in which he broke stride three times over a four-race stretch. The only race in that span he stayed flat, On To Norway won the Caesars Trotting Classic in uncovered fashion over the likes of Antognoni S and French Wine.

Both Super Chapter and On To Norway opting for byes in the Crown elims, brings us to last week's Breeders Crown final. I saw this race not necessarily as a strike against Super Chapter but rather a massive win for On To Norway.

In this race, Super Chapter went an impossible trip from post 8 that would have been too much for any horse to overcome, even Super Chapter. Leaving wide around the first turn from an outside post, Super Chapter was wide in behind leaders battling three-wide past the :26.1 opening quarter. From there, Super Chapter remained parked while pressing on for the lead, was parked again in the second turn before finally clearing just at the half in a ridiculous time of :54.

You can't discount at all the multiple Grade 1 wins from Super Chapter, but if it's said it comes down to the Breeders Crown, it does seem like On To Norway, by virtue of that win as well as the other direct wins against Super Chapter, does now have a compelling case for any award between the two of them.

From there, On To Norway moved up with a long, uncovered move and got the better of Super Chapter heading into the stretch. But what was most impressive about his win was that On To Norway had Emoticon Legacy on his back the entire time and that one couldn't have worked out a better trip if he drew it up that way. Through the stretch, On To Norway kept Emoticon Legacy at bay rather comfortably in earning the upset score, and in the process ran his head-to-head record against Super Chapter to three wins in four common races together.

You can't discount at all the multiple Grade 1 wins from Super Chapter, but if it's said it comes down to the Breeders Crown, it does seem like On To Norway, by virtue of that win as well as the other direct wins against Super Chapter, does now have a compelling case for any award between the two of them.

Walter Wlodarczyk

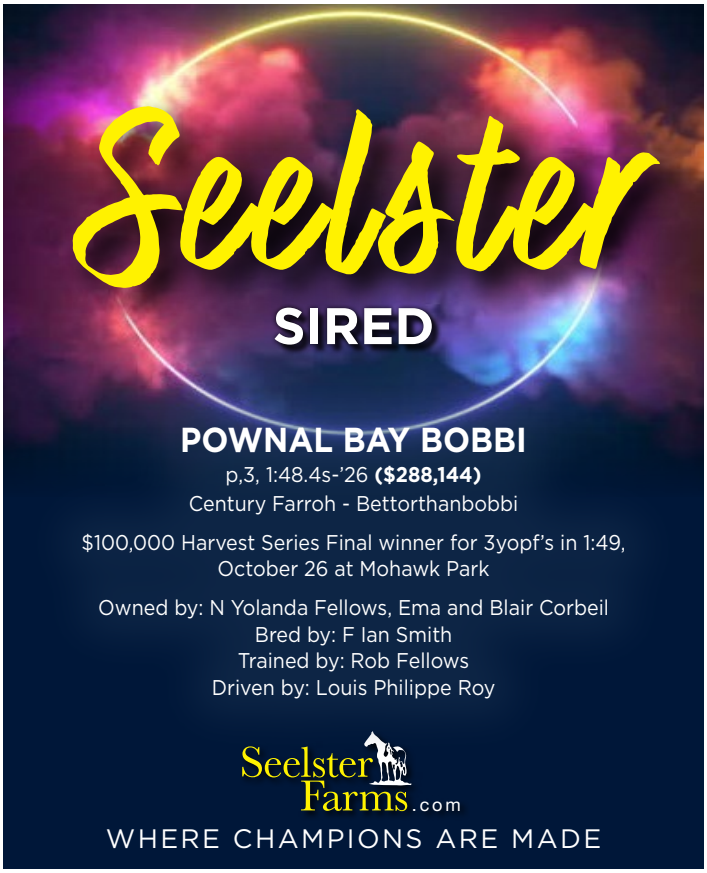

Super Chapter (Dexter Dunn) winning the $1 million Grade 1 Yonkers International Trot on Sept. 12.

And just for some good measure, does Wrong Sounds Right become a factor at all in the discussion for Trotter of the Year? He's been one of the more dominant 2-year-olds we've ever seen. His Breeders Crown win of 1:51.3 tied the fastest 2-year-old mile on a five-eighths-mile track. Prior to that, he won the Mohawk Million in a time of 1:51.1; another record that bested Apex's stakes record from the year prior. A case could be made here too.

It's impossible to say where things will shake out when it comes to year-end voting, but the results will be decidedly closer than how it looked prior to the Breeders Crown.

Some top Breeders Crown takeaways

by Bob Heyden

What a great Breeders Crown weekend at Scioto Downs. There were trainer breakthroughs, supplemental entry champs, plus winning horses with first-time drivers. Here's a look at a baker's dozen of takeaways from this year's Crown.

1. Twin B Joe Fresh won over an extremely tough Francent N. With that victory, she's now at $3,513,920 career and less than 230G from all-time pacing mare queen Eternal Camnation who retired 22 years ago and who did race until age 7. Nov. 14 in New Jersey is next on her schedule and then we don't know. She just became the only pacer ever to win a Breeders Crown after being named HOY (2024).

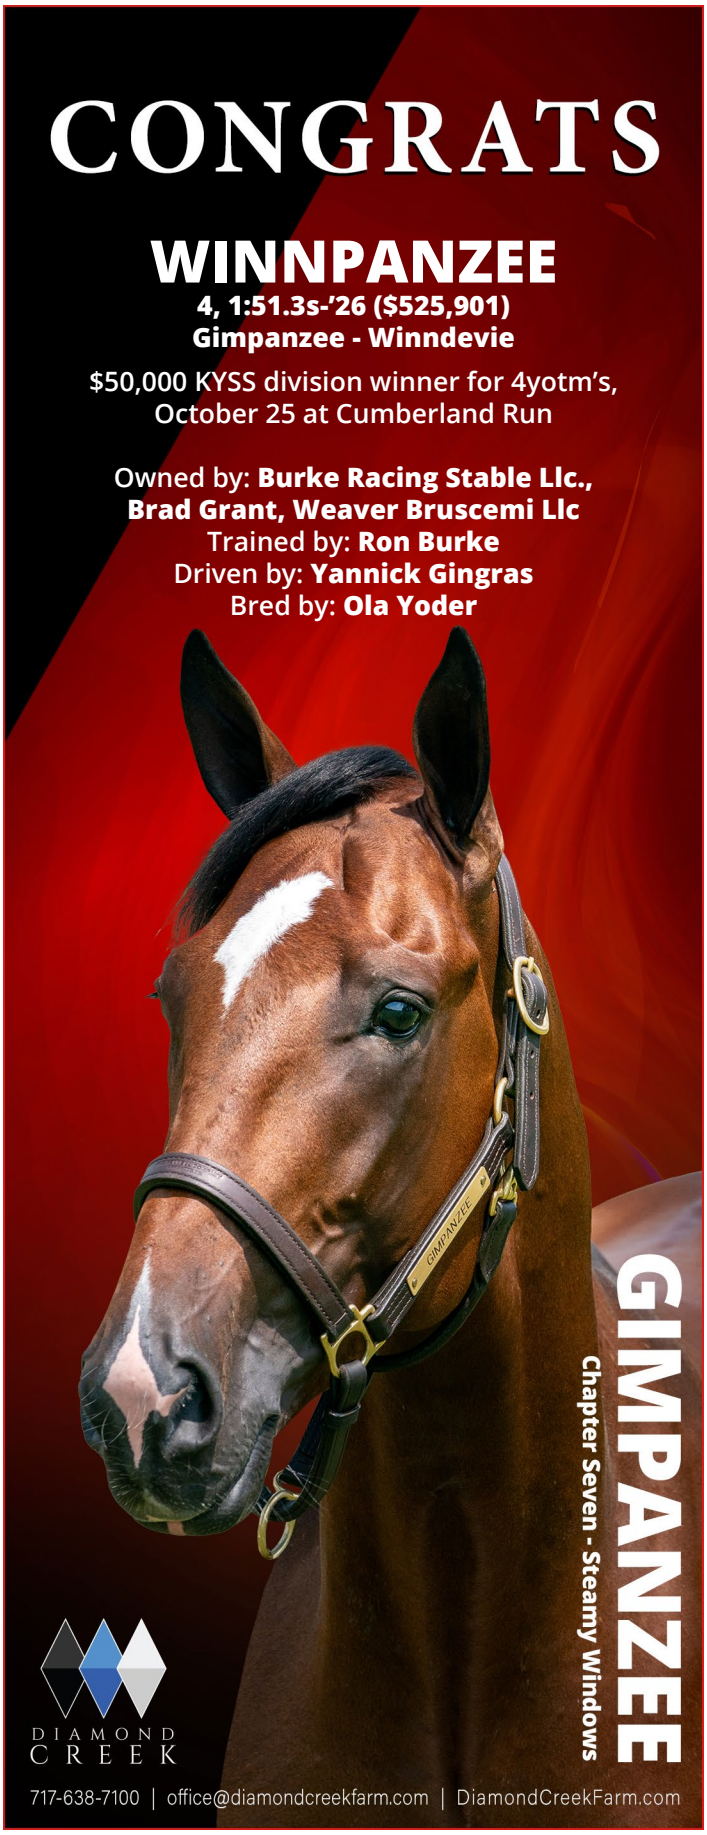

2. Todd McCarthy doubling his fun with a pair of Crowns taking both the 2- and 3-year-old male trots. He had just a pair of Crowns going into this year's action.

3. New Jersey had more final entrants than any other jurisdiction in the ownership department, and an astounding eight of the 12 winners showed ownership in the Garden State including both freshman trotting homebreds.

4. Muscle Hill went 1-2 in the 3YOCT with Diabolical Hill edging Nix Nacken. He added to his all-time best trotting sires total with his 17th winner and 19th runner-up. He's closing in on $10 million.

5. Diabolical Hill crossed the wire in the Crown in the 3YOCT in the series 500th event. A trotter also won the first Crown event too, when Workaholic got the ball rolling on Oct. 5, 1984.

6. Dexter Dunn had his eighth-straight multiple Crown season with five more this year. He improved to 28 for 89 good for fifth all-time behind John Campbell with 48, Brian Sears with 35, and Ron Pierce and David Miller each with 30. He is very likely to have secured his third HOY title also as Brandon Blvd answered any and all questions with a convincing score and surged past $1.5 million for the season.

7. Scott Zeron lowered his $67.40 average Breeders Crown win price from nine wins in the series entering 2026. He won on night one with Birr Castle (7-2) and then as the favorite on Saturday night Nezuko Kamado S in the Sophomore Filly Trot Saturday.

8. Sweet Lou and Chapter Seven both recorded their 10th Crown credit, while Marcus Melander had a three bagger to also join in with a total of 10 Crowns as did Chris Ryder after his win with Twin B Joe Fresh.

9. Some streaks came to an end in the Crown in 2026: Ake Svanstedt previously had a winner in five straight seasons; Always B Miki won in each of his first six crops and oddly didn't have a starter; Hanover Shoe Farms had an astounding 10 wins the last four seasons but none this year; and for the first time in 21 seasons there were no Bettors Delights. (for now) 87 8-13-11 with $5,182,152 good for fourth all time behind Somebeachsomewhere, Western Hanover, and Artsplace.

10. Tactical Landing and Downbytheseaside each wound up with two siring credits. That's five, if you are counting at home, for Downbytheseaside in his brief career and Tactical Landing is now at seven. No sire has ever had seven Crown credits faster than him, with Wrong Sounds Right on night one and Tactical Moni on Saturday. With five total entrants in 2026 he is now a fabulous seven-for-19 in the Breeders Crown.

11. Brett Pelling just won two Breeders Crowns including the 3YOFP from post 8 with the winningest (13-for-18) filly in the field Miss Jum Jabbers. The other was a male pacer, Dandy Ideal, who he didn't train at first (Hunter Oakes). In 1996 Pelling broke through at Yonkers with his first two Breeders Crowns. A male pacer that Tommy Haughton initially trained named Armbro Operative and 3-year-old filly pacer Mystical Maddy. She was the winningest filly in the field (19-for-21 divisional champion) and she too won from post 8.

12. A trotter named On To Norway paid $28.40 as the highest priced Crown winner over two days. This marks the first time in 16 years that a trotter has paid the highest price in a Crown season since Martiniontherocks paid $63.60 in 2010.

13. Was HOY decided? I'd say, clearly yes as Brandon Blvd responded to a Burke barrage with a statement score. Brandon Blvd (no doubt in this corner) punched his ticket for the Punisher 11 Stable that includes trainer Andrew Harris.

Clearly the Breeders Crown series is working. There was tons of anticipation. It was a definite destination point with ownership from all over the world. Division hopes were enhanced or shattered. It was a power-packed menu with not only something for anyone and everyone but almost certainly a product that, after telling your buds, you will want to come back to see.

See you next year in Lexington. I can't wait!

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Volunteer hours led Andrea Studer to a harness racing commitment

by Chris Lomon

Dedication, devotion, and dependability continue to define Andrea Studer's career in racing.

There is an unmistakable sense of gratitude in Studer's voice when she talks about her work, reflecting her deep love for the standardbred breed and the sport itself.

"Life had me away from horses for a while," Studer said. "I believe that it came back into my life at the right time, as I had forgotten how much I loved this career."

Her time in the standardbred world has been a deeply rewarding experience, one that began during her teenage years.

Studer, who hails from Seaforth, ON, located about 40 miles northeast of London, was in secondary school at the time, and needed to find a volunteer gig as part of her curriculum.

After tossing a few ideas around, she reached out to a friend with a question.

"I was in high school and needed to complete my volunteer hours," Studer said. "A family friend was working for Paul Taylor at the time."

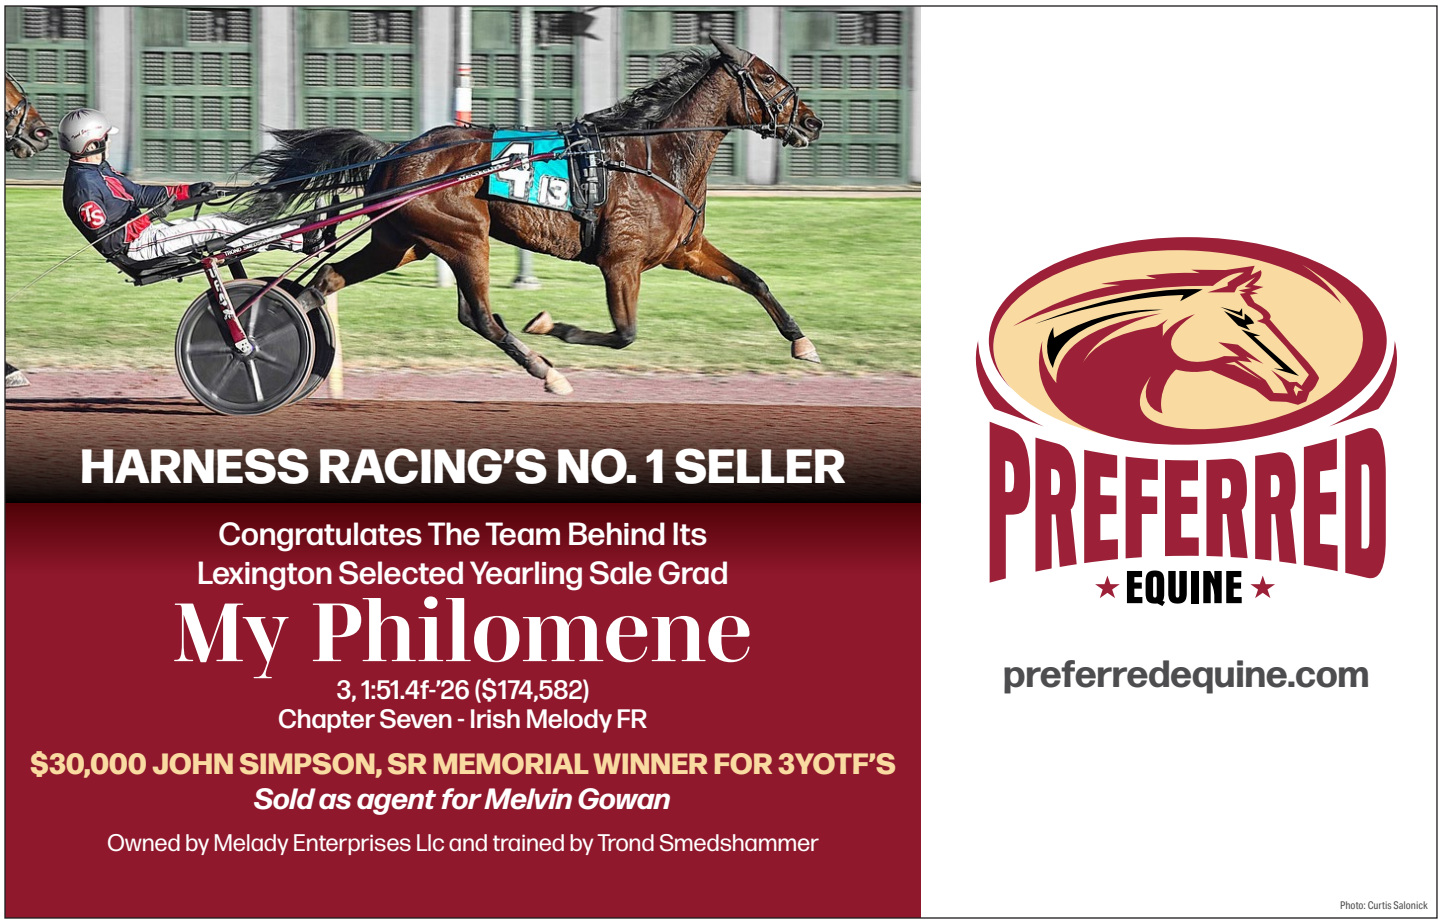

Taylor, a longtime horseman who would go on to win nearly 1,800 races as a trainer and another 16 in the race bike, gave Studer the opportunity to volunteer in his barn.

Initially, Studer had no intention of working beyond the designated hours outlined in her volunteer role.

Those plans, however, would change in ways she hadn't anticipated.

"After I completed my volunteer hours Paul hired me onto the team," she said with a laugh.

It's not as though Taylor had to do any arm-twisting to have Studer stay on.

> "[Andrea Studer] gets along with all the horses. Whether it's the crazy one, calm one or even the mean one, she is very calm, cool, and collected with them all and never is loud... Our horse kicked her very hard in the leg and she didn't even react. It still shocks me today. Not only is she a great person, she's also tough as nails."
> — Lindsey Kerr

Once she started spending more time with the horses, working alongside the pacers and trotters felt like a natural fit.

Be Bop For Life was the first horse to capture her heart.

A bay gelding by Fit For Life out of the Apaches Fame mare Winplaceshowgirl, he recorded 18 career victories for owner/breeder Ken Merner.

One of his most notable wins came in 2008 at Grand River Raceway, where he captured an Ontario Sires Stakes leg for 3-year-old pacing colts.

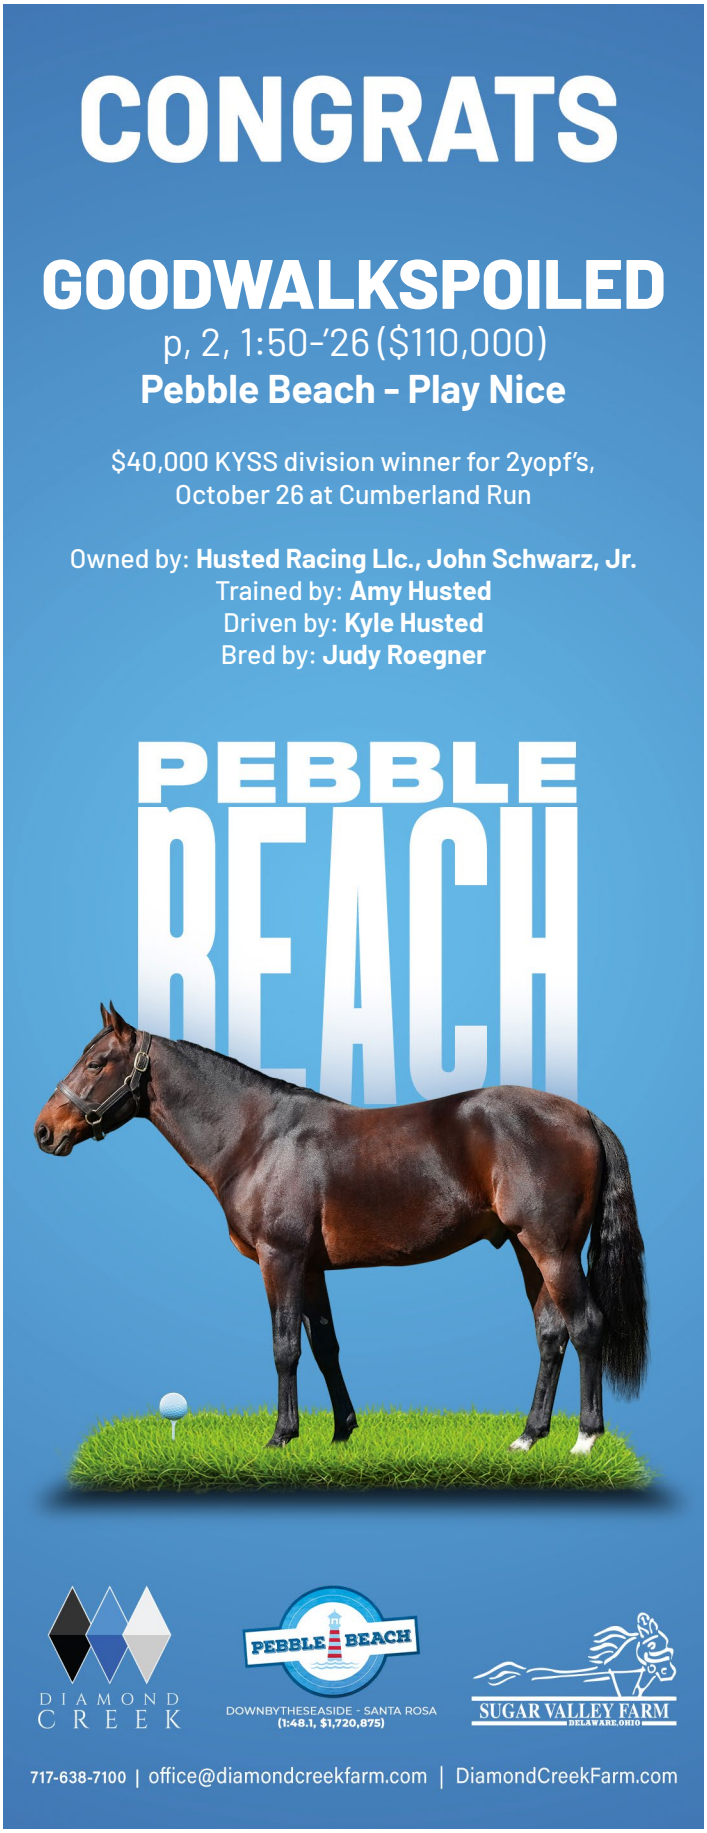

Driven by Trevor Henry and sent off at odds of 38-1, Be Bop For Life prevailed by a quarter-length in 1:57.4.

"The horses that tend to become favorites of mine are typically because of their personality and that they are fairly well-mannered," Studer said. "At the start of my career, I adored Be Bop For Life. He was all heart."

Studer has equally high praise for two other pacers, including one in the barn of her current boss, trainer Lindsey Kerr.

"I really enjoyed my time with Wild Doc Holliday, who I got to work with briefly from last fall to spring and then there is the classy guy P L Oliver," Studer said. "He is good in barn and on the track. With big personality and hearts, they always make me smile."

Kerr, who has recorded more than 550 career training wins and enjoyed a career-best campaign in 2025, has plenty of praise for what Studer brings to the barn and the team.

"Andrea became a part of our family right away," Kerr said. "She is so kind, calm, and responsible in the barn, and she is great with the horses. She's always smiling and up for anything. She jogs her favorite horse, P L Oliver, and even helps with breaking yearlings. She is a great mother, too, and we are so glad to have her as an asset to our team."

One of Studer's greatest strengths is her ability to work well with every horse in her care.

"She gets along with all the horses," Kerr said. "Whether it's the crazy one, calm one or even the mean one, she is very calm, cool, and collected with them all and never is loud."

Not even when she takes one for the team, so to speak.

"Our horse kicked her very hard in the leg and she didn't even react," Kerr said. "It still shocks me today. Not only is she a great person, she's also tough as nails."

Studer is also unwaveringly dedicated to every horse who is part of the Kerr operation.

"It is tough to see any horse get injured or watching one I care for get claimed or sold," Studer said. "It's never easy to say goodbye to them.

"When they race, I am pretty calm and don't get overly excited or nervous, but I always hope they do well and get back safely."

Despite the inevitable heartbreaks and disappointments that come with the role, Studer approaches her work with professionalism, compassion, and pride.

It is a career that continues to feel like home.

"The best part of the job would be working with the amazing people that I work with and just being around the horses and having the opportunities that I get," Studer said.

> "Life had me away from horses for a while. I believe that it came back into my life at the right time, as I had forgotten how much I loved this career."
> — Andrea Studer

Grateful is a word that Studer, who enjoys walking trails and spending time with a close friend and their kids when she isn't at the barn, often uses to describe her racing career.

The journey that took her away from horses and eventually brought her back deepened her appreciation for the work and the horses.

And for that, Studer remains deeply thankful.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Virginia Breeders Fund prep and elimination races conclude at Shenandoah Downs

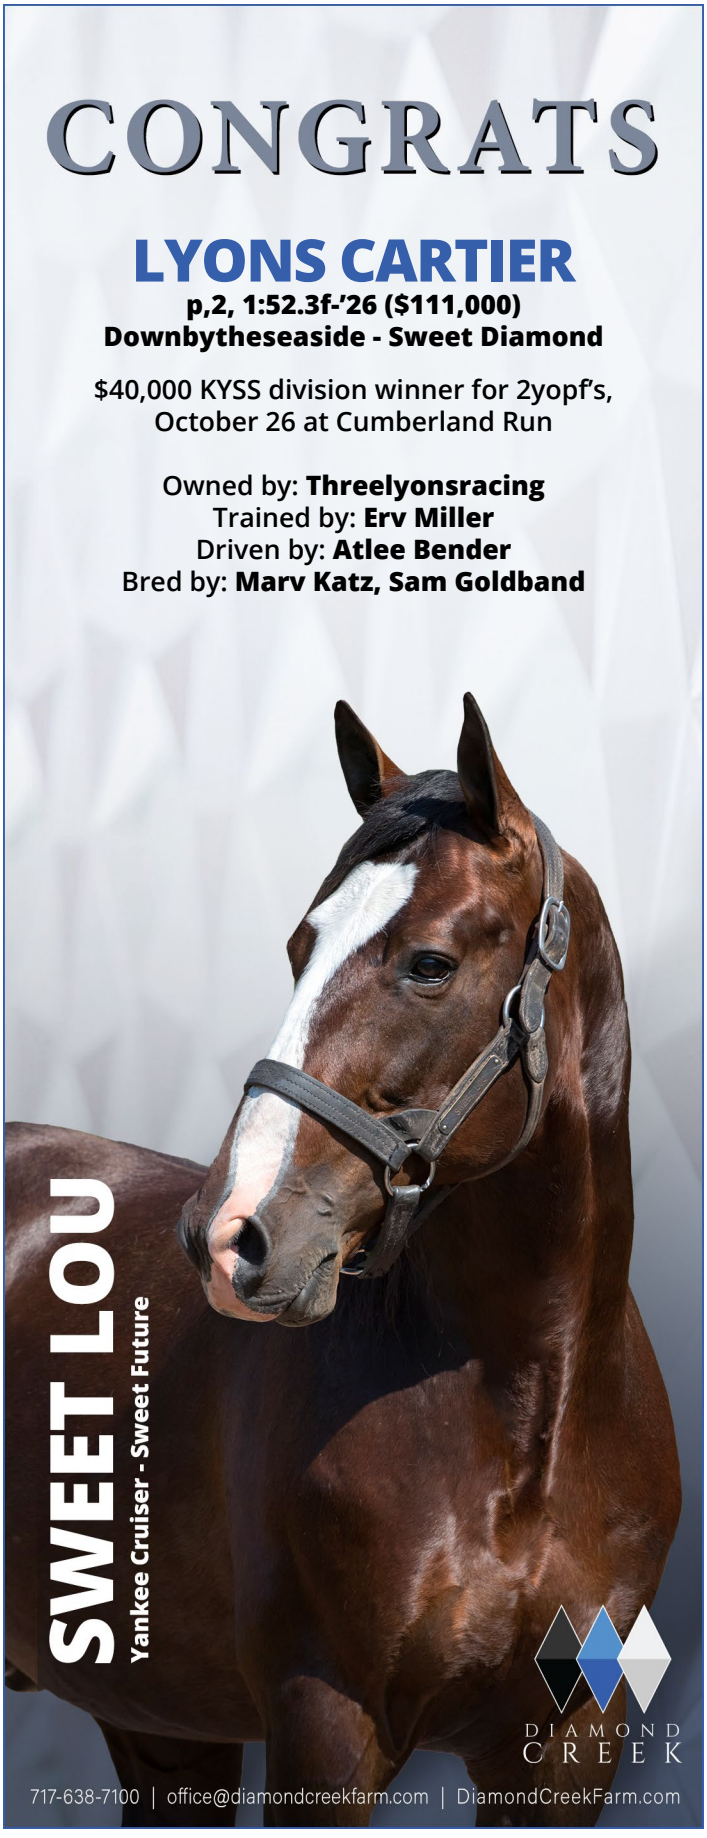

by Darrell Wood

Scott Betts' Ready Set Goo surged past Queen Jessica and PJ's Lovin late in the stretch of Saturday's (Oct. 24) $10,000 Virginia Breeders Fund 2-year-old filly trot prep and prevailed by a half-length in 2:00.4. The daughter of Googoo Gaagaa now advances to Saturday's $100,000 final which is part of Shenandoah's "Day of Champions" card for freshman pacers and trotters of both sexes.

Michael Whitaker's Queen Jessica got to the front initially and cut the opening quarter in :29.2 while the eventual winner trotted 12 lengths behind. Herman Hagerman's PJ's Lovin surged to the lead coming out of the second turn and authored the next two fractions in 1:00.1 and 1:30.2 and took a commanding five length lead to the head of the stretch. Driver Scott Betts urged his trotter to a late comeback effort though — which was Ready Set Goo's fourth lifetime win. PJ's Lovin finished second and Adrian Wisher's Aren't I Pretty took third.

In the male trot division, Jim Campbell's Call Me Ovi rebounded from a third-place finish in the series' first leg to reach the winner's circle Saturday in 2:00.4. The Gimpanzee colt settled into the pocket immediately after the start behind Herman Hagerman's In The Worst Way and remained there until deep in the stretch. Driver Troy Beyer authored a well-timed late surge that enabled the colt to gain his first lifetime win — after two seconds and a trio of third place finishes.

Trainer Steve Le Blanc's Dapper Dudette won a $10,000 Breeders Fund 2-year-old filly pace elimination Sunday (Oct. 25) in the trainer's first ever start in Woodstock. Le Blanc's Dapper Dude filly collected her eighth in-the-money finish in nine career starts, crossed in 1:58.3, and was three lengths the best. With the victory, she secured a spot in Saturday's divisional final. Lucas Myers drove the winner for the Micki Rae Stables. J M B Ventures' If I Win Uwin was second and John Pyott's Nurse Nippy took third.

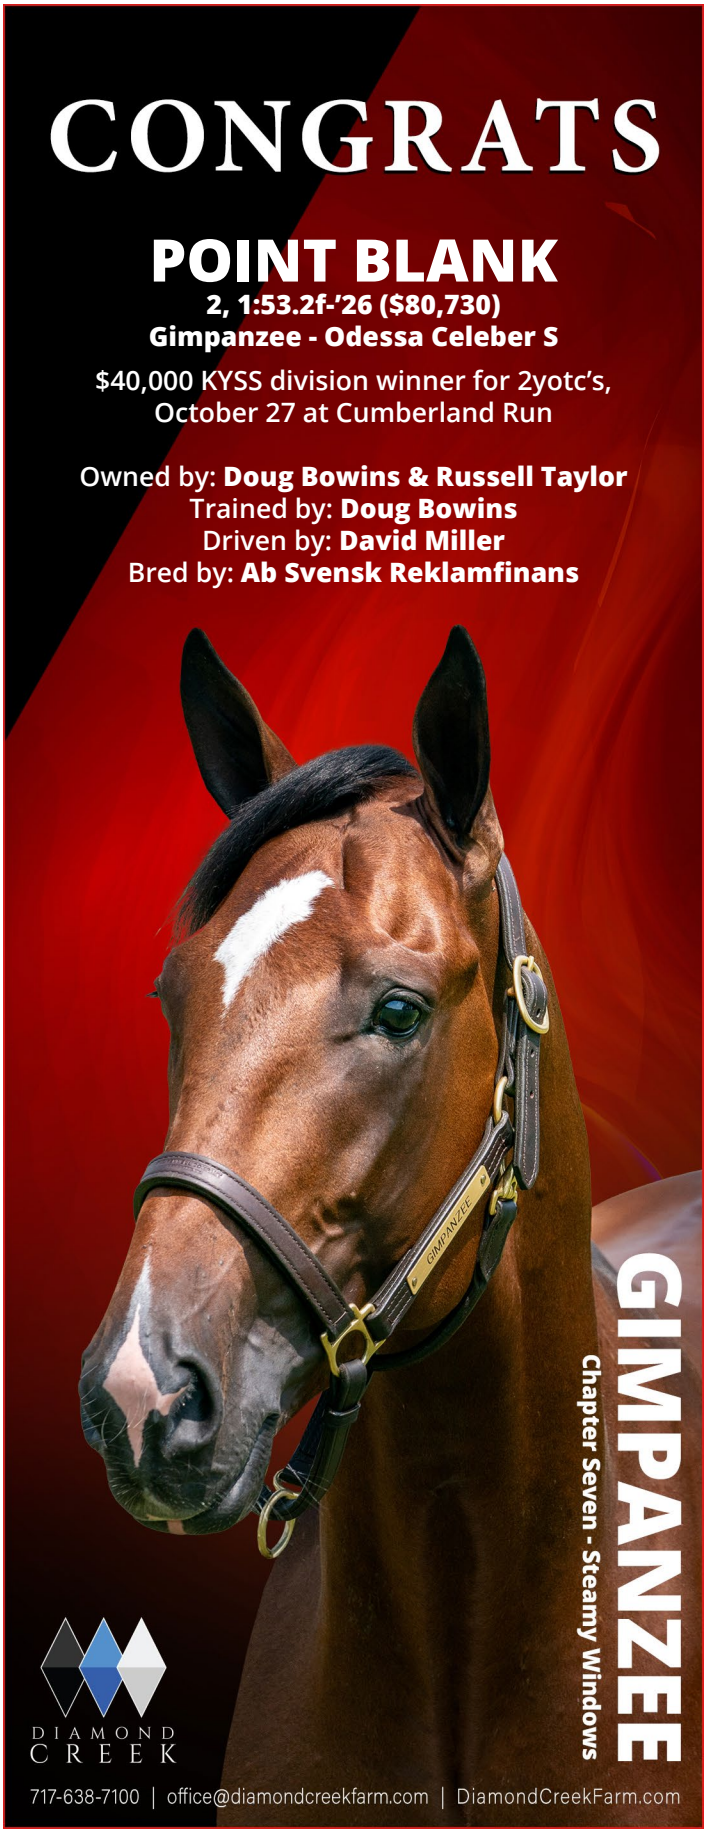

In the second filly pace, trainer Janet Davis' Oops All Berries captured her Breeders elimination in wire-to-wire fashion as the 1-9 heavy favorite. The 2-year-old daughter of Captain Crunch won her second straight in the competition. She posted quarter fractions of :29, :58.2, and 1:28 before crossing in 1:57.2, one length over runner-up All That Rusty (Hagerman Racing). The winner was driven by Eric Davis for owner Ramona Gillespie. Ellen Warren and Robert Krenitsky's Dark Sunkist finished third.

Both male pacing eliminations clocked in at 1:58.2 and the respective winners were one-two finishers in the recent Virginia Sire Stake freshman final. Archie Buford's Ballarddrgoldfngr won his Sunday elimination leg by 3½ lengths after he shook off a pesky Lovethatsoup who finished in second. Buford piloted the Doctor Butch gelding — whose 2026 bankroll now stands at $99,787 — for owner Jonda Smith. The runner-up is owned by Vanessa Powell and third place finisher Ohh Nice is owned by Joe and Terry Chindano and Leigh Clarke.

Chindano's Ohh Hey Bud prevailed in the second elimination contest over runner-up Caviart Legend who had a perfect pocket trip throughout but came three-quarters-of-a-length shy at the wire. The winner has three wins and three seconds at Shenandoah over the last two months, the last five with Lucas Myers in the sulky. The son of Neptune hit the wire in a new lifetime mark. Hagerman Racing's Caviart Legend was second while Mike Viars and Pam Horton's Artzina Storm finished third.

Shenandoah Downs finishes out its 11th season of racing this coming weekend with cards Saturday (Oct. 31) at 1:05 p.m. and Sunday (Nov. 1) at noon. Saturday's card features a four-pack of $100,000 Breeders divisional title bouts and a special Trunk or Treat promotion. Details are at shenandoahdowns.com.

Victorianas Secret to sell in Harrisburg

Victorianas Secret, the fastest 3-year-old trotting filly of 2026, will be sold as a supplement in the 2026 Standardbred Horse Sale. A fast closing third in the Breeders Crown final in her most recent start (individually timed in 1:51f), Victorianas Secret is also the winner of the Currier & Ives, Moni Maker, Delmonica Hanover, and a leg of the KYSS. From 13 starts this year Victorianas Secret has eight wins, one second, and two thirds and has earned just shy of $450,000. Victorianas Secret is still eligible to the Matron at Dover on Nov. 12 and is ready to drop in the box. Lightly raced with only 21 lifetime starts, Victorianas Secret is poised to be a major contender in the older mare trotting division. One of only 12 trotting fillies or mares that have won in 1:50 or faster and from a sister to millionaire Little Brown Fox, Victorianas Secret will be an elite broodmare in any broodmare band in the business.

Victorianas Secret will sell Friday (Nov. 6) in the Somefarmsomewhere consignment as Hip #1604 immediately after hip #1412 and is the last filly in the Fabulous Fillies section of the sale. She will be available for inspection at the sale beginning Thursday (Nov. 5) at 8 a.m. For more information or to schedule a pre-sale inspection please contact Dr. J at 717-578-7395.

Marvin Raber thanks his longtime clients

Ohio breeder Marvin Raber would like to thank all of his clients and many friends for their years of dedication, as he is officially retiring on Jan. 1, 2027.

"Many of my clients have become good friends over the years, and I will truly miss working with them and their horses," Raber said. "My wife and I have a few things on our bucket list that we would like to do in retirement, and things at the farm will remain the same, as we transition into this new era of our lives."

After 46 years, Raber and his wife Dorothy, who will continue to live on the Baltic, OH property, have turned their operation over to Crystal Springs Farm, which is less than a mile from the Raber's home.

"Clients have the option to stay here, as nothing will really change for their horses," Raber, 66, said. "I've [been] with this business for almost five decades, and it's been good for me and Dorothy, and I've made some really good friends, and enjoyed it. But I'm ready to do something else and not have a schedule.

"Crystal Springs wanted to expand and they needed more pasture, and they will keep the stallions that they currently have at their place, and this facility will be for the broodmares and foals. They will run the farm the same way I did."

Raber has stood a variety of stallions over the years, including Full Count (who passed away in 2025) and The Panderosa, who is now retired at the age of 30. Raber is keeping a few mares of his own and the stallion Black Magic, so he will not be disappearing completely from the world of standardbreds.

"It's important to give credit to our many clients who have been so loyal to us for so many years, and we send our heartfelt thanks out to them as we move forward on this new path," Raber said.

Pownal Bay Bobbi shines in Harvest Series finals

Harvest Series action continued Monday night (Oct. 26) at Woodbine Mohawk Park with four finals, headlined by a pair of $100,000 events.

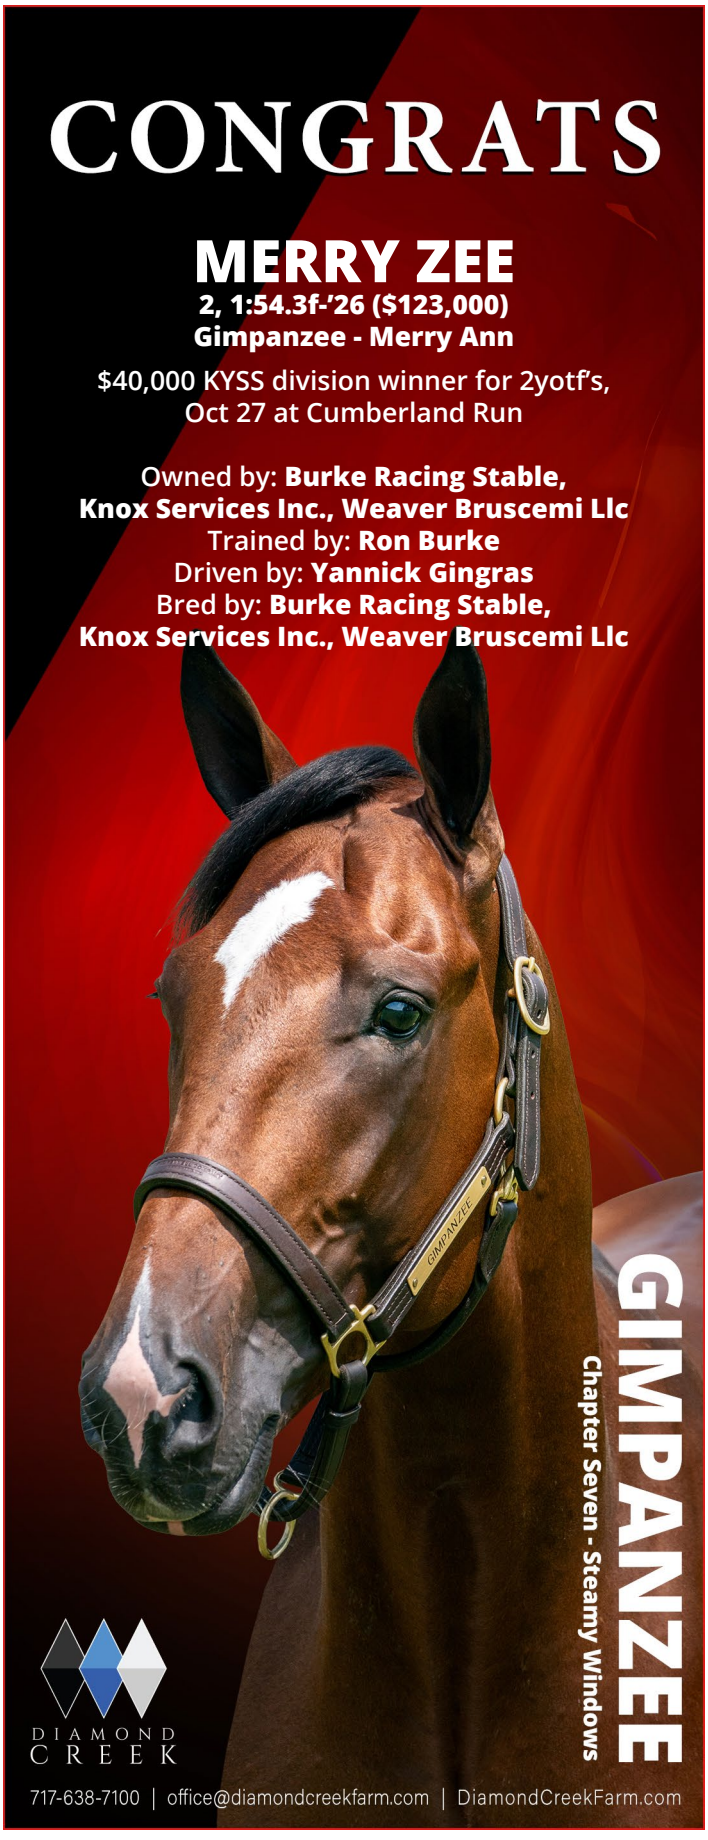

Ontario-sired or bred 3-year-old fillies competed in the $100,000 finals, while 2-year-old fillies squared off in a pair of $60,000 finals. The revamped Harvest Series provides additional racing opportunities for Ontario horses, including those coming off the Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) season.

The 3-year-old events were open to non-winners of $150,000 in 2026 as of Sept. 30, while the 2-year-old races were for non-winners of $30,000 as of Sept. 30.

Pownal Bay Bobbi delivered a late-October sizzler by winning the Harvest Series 3-year-old filly pace final in 1:49 for driver Louis-Philippe Roy and trainer Kyle Fellows.

Sent off at 1-9, Pownal Bay Bobbi charged off the wings with next-door neighbor Lavender Seelster, ultimately tucking into the 3-hole. Lavender Seelster posted a wicked :26 opener to set the tone. Horse With A Plan circled from second to first moving up the backside in anticipation of the big favorite moving.

Pownal Bay Bobbi touched down on the lead at a :53.3 half. The Fellows trainee would lead down to three-quarters in 1:21.3 before capping off the mile with an impressive :27.2 kicker to post an impressive three length victory in 1:49, just missing her career-best of 1:48.4.

Horse With A Plan was second, while Romantic Beauty edged Lavender Seelster for third.

A daughter of Century Farroh, Pownal Bay Bobbi scored her third win of the season and moved her 3-year-old earnings to $223,922 in 18 starts. The third-place finisher in the OSS Super Final is now a five-time winner overall with $288,144 earned for owners Yolanda Fellows and Blair and Erna Corbeil.

Although Pownal Bay Bobbi's earnings exceeded the conditions for the Harvest Series, horses entered in the preliminary leg for a claiming price of $100,000 were also eligible.

Pownal Bay Bobbi paid $2.10 to win.

OSS Grassroots Final winner Barbara May held off OSS Super Final fourth-place finisher Flowing Tribute to win the $100,000 3-year-old filly trot final for Team McNair.

A homebred for Tom and Elizabeth Rankin, Barbara May and driver Doug McNair went to the front with a snappy :26.4 opening-quarter and never looked back. Racing off fractions of :55.3 and 1:23.4, Barbara May had Flowing Tribute on her back turning for home and the two fillies would meet up in deep stretch with Barbara May holding on by a half-length to win in 1:53.

Cupid Hall finished third, while Upgrade was fourth.

Trained by Gregg McNair, Barbara May picked up her fifth win of the season and has now won three of her last four starts. The daughter of Alarm Detector, who was fifth in last week's preliminary leg, now has six career wins and earnings of $298,055.

Last week's preliminary leg saw Flowing Tribute make a break, which had her as an also eligible for Monday's race. The Paul Reid trainee turned in a career-best 1:52.2 qualifier on Friday and then drew in following a scratch. A four-time OSS Gold winner at 2, Flowing Tribute came up just short in search of her first win of 2026.

A $2 win ticket on Barbara May returned $4.

Muscle Mass filly Sumluckylady was a coast-to-coast winner in the $60,000 Harvest Series 2-year-old filly trot final.

Driven by Mark MacDonald, Sumluckylady repeated her preliminary leg effort by going to the lead and never being touched for a 1:55 score. The Joe Parkinson trainee was second in the OSS Grassroots final and now has three wins in nine starts. Her preliminary leg win was a career-best 1:54.3 effort.

Jyn Erso was a first-up second, beat a length, while Pink Gin Fizz was third.

Sumluckylady is owned by Bax Stable and Brilo Farms. The Harvest Series victory boosts her rookie earnings to $90,500. She paid $3.80 to win.

Cattlewash filly Biscuitinthebasket powered to a career-best 1:51.3 victory in the $60,000 Harvest Series 2-year-old filly pace final.

Driven by James MacDonald, Biscuitinthebasket left from the rail to get away fifth. Shotgun Annie blasted out to post a hot :26.2 opener. Midnight Matrimony swept from third to first in the second-split before Biscuitinthebasket came rushing up at a :55.3 half Clearing to command entering the far turn, Biscuitinthebasket took the field down to three-quarters in 1:24.1 and kept trucking along as the best of the group for a 1¾ length victory. Midnight Matrimony was second, while Effective Control was third.

Winless in six starts to begin her career, Biscuitinthebasket has now won three straight starts for trainer Meg Crone and owner Laverne Turnbull. The rookie filly has been in the top three in seven of nine starts and now has $78,400 earned.

Biscuitinthebasket paid $2.50 to win.

Live racing resumes Friday evening at Woodbine Mohawk Park. Post time is 6:30 p.m.

STORMONT SHANLYBOY AND WINDOR SIZZLE IN HARVEST SERIES FINALS: Stormont Shanlyboy and Windor delivered eye-catching performances to win Sunday (Oct. 25) night's $100,000 Harvest Series finals at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Revamped and boosted for 2026, the Harvest Series events for Ontario-sired or bred 3-year-olds features two tiers. The top tier for colts and geldings concluded on Sunday evening with a pair of six-figure finals. Ontario-sired or bred sophomores that were non-winners of $150,000 in 2026 as of Sept. 30 were eligible.

Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Super Final runner-up Stormont Shanlyboy turned heads with a sizzling 1:51.2 victory in the Harvest Series 3-year-old colt and gelding trot final.

Although the Harvest Series is not an OSS race, the clocking of 1:51.2 was notably a fifth faster than the all-time OSS record of 1:51.3.

Driven by Tyler Jones, Stormont Shanlyboy got away third and sat in that position until halfway around the far turn. Wolverine Legend sprinted to the lead and post sharp fractions of :26.3, :55, and 1:23.1.

Stormont Shanlyboy was at the leader's wheel at the head of the lane and powered right by to score a commanding 6¾ lengths victory. Crunchintheodds rallied for second, while Stormont Fast Boy was third to give owner/breeder Stormont Meadows two of the top three finishers.

A son of Muscle Mass, Stormont Shanlyboy now has six wins and 13 top three finishes from 17 starts this season for trainer Kevin Benn. The Stormont Meadows homebred now has $253,920 in career earnings.

A $2 win ticket on Stormont Shanlyboy returned $3.

Windor and driver Doug McNair pressed on early, got a 2-hole ride behind the favorite and shot up the rail to win the Harvest Series 3-year-old colt and gelding pace final in a career best 1:49.1.

A gelded son of Bulldog Hanover, Windor was one of several flashing early speed, ultimately sitting parked to the outside of early leader No Waitlist through a :26.1 opener. Windor would clear entering the backstretch as 3-5 favorite Odds On Bullfrog was roaring up behind, clearing to command just before a :54 half.

Odds On Bullfrog kept on rolling through the far turn, as No Waitlist was out to confront the leader at three-quarters in 1:21.4.

In the stretch, Odds On Bullfrog was able to put away No Waitlist, but couldn't hold off Windor and McNair from squeezing up the inside to post to win by three-quarters-of-a-length. Scorpion Seelster was third.

Trained by Michiel Vanderkemp, Windor collected his second win in 14 starts this season. The sophomore pacer competed regularly at the OSS Gold level throughout the season, finishing fifth in the Super Final.

The Harvest Series victory gives Windor $120,317 in seasonal earnings and $342,549 in career earnings for owner Dianna Secord. He paid $8.20 to win.

Sunday's card also saw multiple O'Brien Award winner Logan Park score his 10th win of the season in the $44,000 open trot. The Kyle Fellows trained 8-year-old circled to the lead in the second quarter for driver McNair and eventually stormed home in :26.4 to win in 1:52.1. Hasty Bid was second, while Gaines Hanover was third.

A winner of over $2.5 million, Logan Park improved to 10-for-16 this season with his 54th career victory.

Simpson Stakes Series closes 2026 run at Pocono

The last two stakes in the 2026 John Simpson, Sr. Memorial series, for sophomore females on both gaits, were conducted in three $30,000 divisions per gait on Monday afternoon (Oct. 26) at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania.

All three favorites won in the trotting ranks. The most impressive of the winners was the Chapter Seven filly My Philomene, who after winning in stakes company at Yonkers (twice), Monticello, Philly, and Tioga, added a sixth-straight victory to her tally in a new mark of 1:51.4, missing the local divisional track record of Yo Tillie by only two ticks. Trainer/driver Trond Smedshammer moved the filly to command past the :26.4 quarter, maintained a 1¼ length advantage over pocket-sitting Sparks past the half (:55.2) and three-quarters (1:24), then at the stretch call and the finish. The streaking winner is owned by Melady Enterprises LLC.

The Tactical Landing distaff Isabella Bi captured another division in 1:53.1, leading at every position and notching a winning margin of 5¼ lengths. Driver/trainer Åke Svanstedt, through his Åke Svanstedt LLC, co-owns the winner with Joe Sbrocco & JAF Racing, Little E LLC, and Mr Lars Olsson.

Team Svanstedt went 1-2-4 in the other Simpson trot division, as Åke guided Maya Patel Hanover to a wire-to-wire win in 1:54.4, three-parts-of-a-length ahead of barnmate Whatarace Hanover. Brittany Farms LLC and Åke Svanstedt LLC own the daughter of Captain Corey.

Only one of the three chalks prevailed in the pacing divisions, and that one, the Always B Miki filly Sandyboots Hanover, tied for fastest Simpson winner of the day at 1:51.3. Pocono's leading driver Tyler Buter gave a well-judged drive, sitting last in a field of five behind a hot pace, then out finishing the horse who backed off the rail to follow her, Existential, by a head. Pocono's top trainer Ron Burke conditions the winner, owned by Burke Racing Stable LLC and Weaver Bruscemi LLC, Lawrence Karr, and Phillip Collura.

The 1:51.3 clocking was also posted by the American Ideal filly Lenna, controlling the pace and stepping home in :54.4 - :27.1. Anthony Napolitano sulky sat for trainer Deborah Daguet and owner Forrest Bartlett, who 40 years ago campaigned Horse of the Year Forrest Skipper.

Just a tick off the other two Simpson pacing winners was the Papi Rob Hanover filly Make It Right, who used the famed Pocono Pike to catch front stepper Vanna By The River by a half-length. Jason Bartlett had the sulky seat for trainer Jim King, Jr. and owners Gary McCandless, Jo Ann Looney-King, and Larry Rathbone.

Buter guided three winners on the card; driving doubles were rung up by both Anthony Napolitano and his brother George, Jr., along with Svanstedt (as described above) and Ridge Warren. Svanstedt also trained both his sulky successes; Dean Eckley also had a pair of conditioning wins.

Racing will continue with a Saturday card at 1 p.m., which is full of highlights: Ruthless Hanover going for his third straight top-class pace victory; the first preliminary of the Game Of Claiming Pacing Series for horses with a base tag of $10,000; and simulcasting of the second day of the Breeders' Cup thoroughbred competition. Free Pocono program pages are or will be available at www.phha.org.
