“The industry stepped up and we have secured all the sponsorships.”

- Jason Settlemoir

the creation of two new 3-year-old races – the $1 million Meadowlands Trot and $500,000 Meadowlands Oaks Trot – plus an increase in purses for several major Meadowlands stakes.

With the Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling auction in Harrisburg starting on Monday (Nov. 2), Meadowlands chief operating officer/general manager Jason Settlemoir shared some more good news with HRU.

“The industry stepped up and we have secured all the sponsorships,” Settlemoir said.

Following the mid-August announcement that the Hambletonian Society decided to end its nearly-five-decade partnership with The Big M and was moving America’s Trotting Classic back to the Midwest, Gural put his money where his mouth was and came up with the aforementioned sophomore trots to replace the departing Hambletonian and Hambletonian Oaks.

Gural is putting up $150,000 of his own money to help fund the Meadowlands Trot and was hoping that members of the industry would join him to help sponsor the purse increases for the other races.

“What started out as something we’ll just call unfortunate has now turned into a positive for the entire Garden State and also for the entire industry,” Settlemoir said. “I mean, you’re talking about new races and bigger purses for those established races.”

Settlemoir said he wasn’t thinking about the time that would need to be invested to raise a total of $400,000, or $50,000 per race, because it just needed to get done.

“I went into it with open eyes, and I didn’t know how long it would take us to get the sponsorships,” he said. “There were some naysayers out there, but I knew the industry would step up and work together. I just didn’t know how long it would take. Let’s just say it took less time than I could have imagined.”

In addition to Gural opening up his wallet to help fund what will now be known as the $1 million Meadowlands Allerage Farms Trot, according to Settlemoir, his boss was in the trenches making calls and went the extra mile in person at the sale in Lexington.

“Not only is he the chairman of The Meadowlands, but he’s also put in $150,000, came up with the idea for these races, and went out and helped find sponsorships to honor our commitment to getting these new races to move forward,” Settlemoir said.

Here is a list of the individual races and their sponsors:

- The $500,000 Meadowlands Manchego Oaks Trot – Black Horse Racing and Kountry Lane Standardbreds
- $500,000 Cane Pace – Diamond Creek Farm and Kentuckiana Farms

- $400,000 Stanley Dancer Memorial – Hunterton Farm and Hickory Lane Farm

- $400,000 Del Miller Memorial – Hanover Shoe Farms and Crawford Farms

- $400,000 Brandon Blvd Graduate Open Pace – Punisher 11 Stable

- $400,000 Graduate Open Trot – Face Time Bourbon Syndicate and Melander Stable

- $200,000 Graduate Mare Pace – SBOA of NJ, Cameo Hills Farm, and George Segal

- $200,000 Graduate Mare Trot – Svanstedt Stable and Deo Volente Farms.

The Burke Brigade is also a sponsor.

All purses are estimated except for the $1 million Meadowlands Trot and $500,000 Oaks Trot, which are guaranteed by Gural and he told HRU that he would again reach into his pocket if necessary.

In addition to the higher purses for these selected races, The Meadowlands will also offer a 20 per cent bonus to any New Jersey-sired horse that wins any of them. And when it comes to the 20 per cent bonus, Gural will be writing more checks, putting up half of the money (10 per cent) through Allerage Farms.

When owner Bill Pollock of Punisher 11 Stable received the call from The Big M, he didn’t think twice about being a sponsor.

“I’m always willing to help The Meadowlands and New Jersey racing,” Pollock said. “I think it’s important for all levels of racing and needed.”

Settlemoir said he couldn’t thank the sponsors enough for helping out while The Meadowlands navigates the road which they believe will end with a casino.

“I know Jeff is working hard to get the casino question on the ballot next year [2027] and if successful he will double the purses for all our major stakes by 2030,” Settlemoir said.

“We’re extremely excited that [the sponsorships are] done and we’re deeply appreciative to those that have sponsored these races. For the whole industry to step up like this in this time of need here in New Jersey, it was just phenomenal. There’s no other way to put it.”

For Svanstedt Stable’s Åke and Sarah Svanstedt, being a sponsor was the right thing to do.

“When The Meadowlands approached us about sponsoring the Graduate Mare Trot, we felt it was exactly what the sport needed,” Sarah said. “The transition from 3 to 4 is challenging, even for the very best fillies.

THANK YOU

STALLION EARLY CLOSER PARTICIPANTS

This stallion payment made on horses listed below provides their foals of 2025 the opportunity to nominate to the Meadowlands Early closers for the life of the horse by making the one-time $400 Meadowlands Early Closer Participant payment. Nomination and sustaining payments on the foals of 2025 will not begin until March 2027. If the horse was bought or sold from a sale or farm that is not a sponsor, $600 must be paid to be eligible to race at the Meadowlands.

“Giving these young mares their own division, without having to compete against the boys, creates an important opportunity to continue developing and racing at a high level. We’re proud to support a race that invests in their future. It was an easy decision for us to support it at The Meadowlands.”

According to Settlemoir, Sarah was extremely helpful in this process.

“Not only did they take a sponsorship, but she also connected us with a couple of people that have taken sponsorships as well,” Settlemoir said. “So, I want to thank Sarah for her help; everything she did was greatly appreciated.”

Although not a goal, Settlemoir said having the sponsorships in place before the sale in Harrisburg was very important because he wants everybody to feel confident going into the sale.

“We urge everybody to stay in place and continue to support New Jersey racing,” Settlemoir said. “Thanks to the hard work of Jeff, the entire Meadowlands team, and the SBOANJ, New Jersey racing is here to stay, as evidenced by these new stakes races and the bigger purses on the others.”

World champion Walner and Meadowlands Pace winner Legendary Hanover to stand at Deo Volente Farms beginning in 2027

by Preferred Equine

David Reid, syndicate manager of both stallions, today announced that world champion Walner (Chapter Seven–Random Destiny) and Meadowlands Pace winner Legendary Hanover (Huntsville–Lillian Hanover) will stand at Deo Volente Farms in New Jersey beginning with the 2027 breeding season.

Walner, the leading North American money-winning sire of trotters in 2026, and Legendary Hanover, one of the fastest 3-year-old pacers of his generation, formerly stood at Southwind Farms in Pennington, NJ, which has announced its closure. The move keeps both stallions in the Garden State and places them at a full-service New Jersey breeding farm with a longstanding commitment to quality.

Deo Volente Farms is a beautiful, state-of-the-art standardbred breeding farm. With a well-known and professionally staffed team that has served the industry at the highest level for nearly two decades, the farm has earned a reputation for excellence in raising and standing top-quality standardbreds. Previously named New Jersey Standardbred Breeder of the Year, Deo Volente has been home to champion stallions and has produced or raised numerous stakes winners while maintaining a focus on quality over quantity.

As of late October 2026, Walner leads the all-age trotting sire list with progeny earnings of approximately $14.7 million from 261 starters, ahead of his own sire, Chapter Seven. He also ranks as the leading sire of 2-year-old trotters. Lifetime, his progeny have earned more than $64 million, including roughly 226 performers in 1:55 or faster and 10 millionaires. His standout offspring include International Trot and major stakes winner Jiggy Jog S (1:49.2, ~$3.1 million); 2026 Hambletonian winner Apex (3, 1:49.2-26), who set a stakes record of 1:49.2 at the Meadowlands; Hambletonian Oaks winner Warrawee Michelle (1:50f); Kentucky Futurity winner Emoticon Legacy (3, 1:49.2); and Breeders Crown open trot winner Winner's Bet (1:49.3).

On the racetrack, Walner himself was a phenomenon. He retired with a record of 2, 1:51.3; 3, 1:50.2 and earnings of $567,652 from nine wins in 10 starts. At 2 he set a world record of 1:51.3 at The Red Mile and captured the Breeders Crown, Kindergarten Classic, International Stallion Stakes, and New York Sire Stakes events. At 3, he won the Stanley Dancer Memorial in 1:50.2. He was named the 2016 Dan Patch 2-Year-Old Trotting Colt of the Year and retired a world champion. Walner's stud fee will remain $50,000 for the 2027 breeding season, unchanged from 2026.

Legendary Hanover, the 2023 O'Brien Award-winning 2-year-old pacing colt of the year, will enter his third season at stud in 2027. At 3, he became the first sophomore pacer to record multiple sub-1:47 miles, capturing the Meadowlands Pace in a stakes-record 1:46.3 and the Cane Pace in a track- and stakes-record 1:46.2. He also won the Empire Breeders Classic in a track-record 1:48.1f. A 12-time winner, he retired with approximately $1.48 million in earnings and is the richest and fastest son of world champion Huntsville. Legendary Hanover's stud fee will remain $7,500 for the 2027 breeding season, unchanged from 2026. He combines elite speed, a powerful gait, and a strong pedigree.

"The decision to move both Walner and Legendary Hanover to Deo Volente Farms for the 2027 breeding season reflects our confidence in the continued strength of New Jersey's breeding and racing programs," Reid said. "Walner has established himself as the dominant trotting sire of his generation, while Legendary Hanover brings exceptional speed and a proven record as one of the fastest pacers of his crop. Keeping both stallions in New Jersey allows their foals to benefit from the enhanced New Jersey Sire Stakes program and the ongoing support of The Meadowlands Racetrack."

The New Jersey Sire Stakes program has been strengthened in recent years. For 2027, Silver Series elimination purses increase 50 per cent to $15,000, with finals rising to $50,000 for fields of eight or more, while Platinum Series purses remain at $25,000 eliminations and $225,000 finals. Entry and nomination fees are unchanged from 2026. New Jersey-sired horses are also eligible for a 20 per cent bonus for winning certain stakes races at The Meadowlands, supported by the Standardbred Breeders & Owners Association of New Jersey and The Meadowlands.

Foals by both stallions standing in New Jersey remain fully eligible for the Platinum and Silver series and related New Jersey programs.

MANE ATTRACTION

with JOHN BERRY

More potpourri on which to chew

by John Berry

Our “Stirring the Pot” columns have generated a bit of interest from both sides of the fence in our sport.

If only we could turn their suggestions into reality.

Whether one is an owner of a trotting- or pacing-bred athletic marvel – to me, they are no longer “standardbreds” – your comments and suggestions are most worthy and, hopefully, might just be weaved into our sport’s future.

This week, of course, there were more track records equaled this and, as long as we continue to time races the same way as we did in the 1950s, we may, in time, see dozens of trotters and pacers tied in the record books with many claiming number one on the list.

If one glances at the records list, one will find many, many horses are clumped at one specific record time, something that could have been alleviated beginning 25 years ago.

Wouldn’t somebody like to know which of the three horses is really second on the list in back of Bulldog Hanover (1:45.4) at 1:46 – Allywag Hanover, Always B Miki or Lather Up – instead of being tied for second?

And the logjam gets much worse just a couple of ticks below – like 1:46.4 – were more than a dozen are in a so-called dead heat.

If .001-of-a-second makes a difference in a photo finish, doesn’t it make a difference in the record books, as well?

This might seem trivial to some, but if we want to bring our sport up to snuff, nothing is too trivial – especially time.

One gentleman punter brought to my attention a recent Tuesday program in Kentucky where the purses totaled over $300,000.

He said, “Nice stakes program and worthy of my $10-$20 contributions.

“All the great drivers were there, Tetrack [both of them], McCarthy [both of them, too], Dunn, Zeron, Dave Miller, you know, all the great ones.

“I’ll betcha there wasn’t $40,000 bet on the whole card and, I like to bet win and exactas, and some of the win pools were under $500.”

It’s great that the State of Kentucky props up the industry in the Bluegrass State, but what happens if the state has some other priorities in the future that they deem more important than harness racing, like education and health care improvements and/or retirement benefits?

There has been quite a bit of investment in harness racing there – in yearlings, new farms, real estate improvements, and the outreach to businesses that have benefitted from this equine boom.

Many a folk have spent hundreds of thousands to millions of dollars investing in this boom.

Is there a guarantee of some sort that this is a forever boom, because their handle on Tuesday of, roughly $35,000 would support not even a $2,000 purse for claimers.

Another fan suggested, “What this sport needs is a nationwide lottery-like contest that would have a growing weekly prize if nobody hit in a particular week.”

A recent HRU column suggested a Perfect Pick-8 or Great-8, an eight-race contest available at all locations housing harness racing featuring selecting the winner of seven winners and a trifecta in the eighth race of the contest.

It could be seeded with a $500,000 kick-off and a 10 per cent up to 15 per cent takeout (as opposed to the lottery takeout of up to 50 per cent) and smaller prizes offered for those selecting five, six or seven winners.

Advertising could show the increasing value when no person completes the task with the eighth race trifecta.

One nay-sayer already said “It won’t fly because it’s almost impossible.”

The Mega-Millions Lottery, now that’s next to impossible to hit, draws an estimated 20,000,000 (that’s 20 million) players with estimated ticket sales at $100,000,000 ($100 million) with an estimated jackpot size of $50 million.

When the jackpot grows to, say, $800 million, there are an estimated 320 million players betting $1.6 billion, and that’s on that one single play.

Harness racing’s new innovative wager implores some handicapping skill and a little luck and would have nationwide appeal; after-all, what’s the skill in asking for a quick-pick ticket?

Maybe other betting markets would join the fray.

Next, we’ve touched on this before, saddle pads haven’t changed in a century or more and, today, drivers are getting fined every week with whipping violations.

“Let’s get the betting programs down to three hours. I’m tired by then.”

— Smitty

Stretching saddle pads from current size to over the horse’s rump – with padding on the extended portion – would prevent any whipping violations causing striping, welts, and any other negative implications for the horse.

The expansion would provide sounds only with the whip, and maybe even wake up a horse when it counts.

The saddle pads should be iridescent, too.

It’s a benefit for those on both sides of the fence.

Here’s another one pertaining to charting races.

All charts should have eighth-of-a-mile splits, as opposed to quarter-mile times.

If program size needs to be revised, change the current 8½” x 11” size to 11” x 14” size (they already have paper that size available).

Check the newest uniforms in baseball, football, and other sports, bolder, much bolder.

This might give the tracks another idea of having odd-distance races from five-eighths-of-a-mile to 1½ miles.

Two other notes on the subject.

In the case of a dead heat the chart should read DH – not with the distance in front of the third horse.

It’s a tie. The distance between the two horses that have dead heated and the third horse is irrelevant.

Also, in the case of a disqualification (DQ), the current chart shows TDis or Time Disallowed.

The player deserves all relevant information and an (*) asterisk with an explanation that the time shown was disallowed by disqualification.

In other words, don’t take information from the bettor.

These are tiny strides, I know, but, at least, show the fans that we are working to bring our sport into the now years, instead of staying in the 1950s.

The breeders sure have done it. Now it’s the obligation of the tracks to try and close the gap.

One other final note for this Mane Attraction.

One BDHC (Broken Down Horseplayers Club) member is asking why those on one side of the fence get paid more than the other side – paying the top five finishers, 50 per cent, 25 per cent, 12 per cent, 8 per cent, and 5 per cent.

Note that some horses, finishing outside the top five, do get 1 per cent in the richest stakes events.

Another suggestion from an owner says that all starters should get something for their appearance on the track.

Some other suggestions say the purse money should go only as far as the betting availabilities for the fans with the first two finishers getting the bigger rewards with those south of fifth getting nothing.

Here’s a possible solution to satisfy all sides.

For 10 horse fields: 53 per cent, 27 per cent, 9 per cent, 5 per cent, 1 per cent, 1 per cent, 1 per cent, 1 per cent, 1 per cent, and 1 per cent.

For nine horse fields: 54 per cent, 27 per cent, 9 per cent, 5 per cent, 1 per cent, 1 per cent, 1 per cent, 1 per cent, and 1 per cent.

For eight horse fields: 56 per cent, 27 per cent, 9 per cent, 4 per cent, 1 per cent, 1 per cent, 1 per cent, and 1 per cent.

For seven horse fields (when necessary): 57 per cent, 27 per cent, 9 per cent, 4 per cent, 1 per cent, 1 per cent, and 1 per cent.

For six or fewer starters, well, that falls into the “fill it or kill it” category and should not be on any betting card.

As long time BDHC punter Smitty said, “Let’s get the betting programs down to three hours. I’m tired by then.”

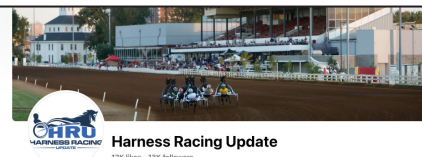

May The Horse Be With You!

THE DOWN UNDER DIARY

with ADAM HAMILTON

Thoughts of a 3-year-old winning TAB Eureka no longer a laugh

by Adam Hamilton

It is fascinating how mindsets can change.

Wind the clock back to the inaugural running of the world's richest pacing race (in 2023), the TAB Eureka, and the calls were loud and plentiful saying a 3-year-old would never win the race.

The TAB Eureka, which now carries a $1.5 million purse, is restricted to Australian-bred 3- and 4-year-old pacers.

That first running was won by classy 4-year-old mare Encipher, who shocked everyone by running down the great Leap To Fame.

There were just two 3-year-olds in the 10-horse field and they were well beaten back in seventh (The Lost Storm) and ninth (Captain Hammerhead).

And that's despite the 3-year-olds getting preferential barrier draws and starting from posts 1 and 2 behind the gate.

The feeling was 4-year-olds, especially over a grueling 2,400-meter distance at the spacious 1,400-meter Menangle track, would continually be too strong and seasoned.

Unsurprisingly, there was only one 3-year-old, Bay Of Biscay, line-up in the second TAB Eureka in 2024.

And that was despite the distance being reduced by 100 meters to 2,300 meters, which changed the starting point and made those preferential barriers even more of an advantage.

Harness Racing Australia, which had created and strongly backed the TAB Eureka, knew Bay Of Biscay needed to run very well or the pressure would mount to revisit the race conditions for the race.

Nominating 2YOs to Meadowlands 2027 Early Closers

Early Closer Payment Schedule

February 15	One Time $400 Early Closer Participation Payment for 2YO
March 15	Nomination Payments for Meadowlands 2YO Early Closers Begin

Eligible Stallions for Foals of 2025

DUE FEBRUARY 15

Any horse by a sire who is listed as eligible MUST make a one-time $400 Meadowlands EC Participation payment by February 15, 2027 to gain the option of nominating to Meadowlands 2YO Early Closers for the 2027 season and continuing for the life of the horse. Any horse from a stallion that is not farm sponsored must pay the full $600.

Only those 2-year-olds who have made the aforementioned participation payment by February 15, 2027 will be permitted to race in the 2YO baby races and be eligible for nomination to Meadowlands Early Closers in subsequent seasons for life of the horse.

The entire series of nominating and sustaining payments must then be made for the horse to be eligible to race in the chosen races.

Nomination and sustaining payments on Meadowlands Early Closers for 2YOs will be pushed back to begin on March 15 and adjusted accordingly.

He ran a blinder and, arguably, was a good thing beaten when he charged home late for second to Don Hugo.

Just like that, the stigma around the 3-year-olds was gone.

There's no doubt the slightly shorter distance and, more so, the starting point for the race was an important and smart change.

Fast-forward to last year's third running of the TAB Eureka and slot owners were jumping out of trees to pick 3-year-olds.

Amazingly, six of the 10 runners were 3.

Ironically, Bay Of Biscay returned to win the race as a 4-year-old, but 3-year-olds ran superbly for second (Fox Dan), third (Hesitate), and fourth (Go Miki).

In a different way, Bay Of Biscay coming back a year later to win also helped the 3-year-old push. Clearly tackling the TAB Eureka at 3 hadn't hindered his progress in any way.

Now the whole anti 3-year-old vibe is gone, despite the fact none of them have yet won the race.

Another tinker from Harness Racing Australia and hosts Club Menangle and Harness Racing NSW have seen 3-year-olds become an even more attractive option.

The TAB Eureka has moved from an early-September timeslot to Nov. 21.

The 3-year-olds are almost three months older and a lot more seasoned through their own age-group feature racing.

To help promote the race, many of the 3-year-olds get a chance to grow more of a profile in that extra time, too.

So, with just over three weeks until this year's TAB Eureka, three of the four confirmed slot runners — Bettor Beach, Soho Charmer, and Loucasso — are 3-year-olds.

Bettor Beach has created history even before the race is run by being the first 3-year-old filly to land a slot.

Leviathan owner Mick Harvey secured her this week through one of his two slots in the TAB Eureka, held under his publication brand Harnesslink.

Harvey said he didn't hesitate to pick the filly.

"I think she was a no-brainer," he said. "She has to draw barrier 1 if she's the only 3-year-old filly in it and being run a couple months later this year, she'll almost be 4 anyway.

"I've done all my analysis, and I think she's got a huge chance."

Bettor Beach has raced just 10 times, but it's been her past five wins, including two at Group 1 level, that have stamped her star status.

On Saturday (Oct. 17) she thrashed a good field of fillies in the Group 1 Victoria Oaks at Melton.

"That's the win that convinced me," Harvey said. "She's never been used off the gate but had to burn early that night and then she was still good enough to relax mid-race and burn home in a pair of :26 quarters to win as she liked.

"She's shown she can handle pressure, which is important for a race like this, and that she's got enough speed to take advantage of barrier 1 in the Eureka and hold a position.

"The Victoria Derby was on the same night as the Oaks and I reckon she went as good as any of the boys did in that Derby."

Successful yet conservative Victorian breeders Bruce and Vicki Edward obviously think the same way given they excitedly snapped up the slot when Harvey called them.

"Bruce was buzzing when I called him," Harvey said.

Soho Charmer, who will run in the Soho Standardbreds slot of his owner Rob Watson, ran third in that Victoria Derby.

The other confirmed 3-year-old, Loucasso, is the headline horse of this TAB Eureka.

He made it four wins from as many starts this campaign and 11 wins from 13 career starts when he smashed the clock at Menangle last Saturday night in a semi-final of the NSW Breeders Challenge at Menangle.

Soho Charmer (Anthony Butt) winning at Melton Park in November of 2025.

Loucasso ran the mile in a scorching 1:47.6, taking 1.2 seconds off the Australasian record for a 3-year-old.

He's broken 1:50 in all four wins since joining young trainer/driver Seaton Grima's stable this campaign.

For context, Loucasso's 1:47.6 was just 0.7 seconds outside the all-age Australasian mile record of 1:46.9 set by My Field Marshal in the 2018 Miracle Mile.

Loucasso, who will run in the Rampant Standardbreds slot, steps out again in the Breeders Challenge final this Saturday night.

The query on him is whether he can carry that brilliance to the 2,300 meters of the TAB Eureka.

That said, Loucasso has only raced beyond a sprint trip twice and won both times in a semi-final and final of the 2YO Breeders Crown series at Melton last year when trained by Emma Stewart.

And he did win that final by about half the straight in a scorching 1:52.2 mile rate for 2,240 meters.

With six slots still to be filled, it looks very likely the six 3-year-olds who contested last year's TAB Eureka will be matched or broken.

The only 4-year-old with a slot so far is the exciting Double

Lou, who has the Tony Licastro "The Don" slot. He also contests a NSW Breeders Challenge final this Saturday night.

Some of the other high profile 3-year-olds sure to push for slots include Yottie and Alert Bay, who will clash with Loucasso this week, along with Victorian pair Brooklyn Dan and Dynamitedan.

A left-fielder could be another buzz 3-year-old filly, Ark Sea, who is favorite for her NSW Breeders Challenge final this week.

On the 4-year-old front, horses like last week's SA Cup winner The Last Trip, star WA pacer Mad Monday, exciting mare Theartofsuccess, the untapped Cigano, and multiple Group 1-winning Queenslander Fate Awaits are all right in the mix.

That's the beauty of slot races, the chatter and debate they create around who will get a start well before the actual race is run.

This year, the odds say we will see history created with a 3-year-old winning.

And that's such a far cry from just three years ago when they were scoffed at.

ALL OVER ONTARIO

with MATTHEW LOMON

A bit of the new and the tried-and-true make for successful season at Leamington

by Matthew Lomon

Sunny skies and a lively crowd provided the backdrop for another successful season finale at Leamington Raceway.

On Sunday (Oct. 25), the half-mile oval bid farewell to its 2026 meet with an action-packed 10-race card of live harness racing, headlined by the $11,000 Lakeshore Cup, and a proud showing from its local supporters.

"It was pretty packed for the end of October," said track announcer Nathan Bain. "The weather was perfect, which was nice since it hadn't been all that good this year. We lost a day due to rain, and there were a few other days that we were able to race but the rain dampened them a bit, so it was good to close out on a high note."

Talldarklatte, trained by Melissa Loyer and piloted by Lorne House, came flying home to capture the afternoon's main event by a half-length, paying $3.90.

The spirited send-off served as a fitting end to a 12-race date campaign that saw a host of standout performances from both familiar and fresh faces.

"We saw a lot of new people racing at Leamington this year – a lot of new horses to familiarize ourselves with," Bain said.

"I think a lot of people from Rideau Carleton were going to tracks like Grand River and Flamboro, and it brought other people that were already down this way to Leamington more often than before."

YS Delight, a veteran of the Ontario B-circuit claiming ranks, made an immediate impression in his first-ever visit to Leamington, setting a new 1:55.3 track record for older pacing stallions in a $6,800 conditioned optional claiming pace on opening day (Aug. 9).

The 9-year-old bay, owned and trained by Garry MacDonald, won his only other start at the Southwestern Ontario track on Sept. 6.

"Having a horse like him around really bumps up the caliber of racing in that particular class," Bain said. "I think the fans like to see these new horses coming in and out."

Local favorites also enjoyed their fair share of the spotlight this past season.

Chief Of Staff, who made eight starts during Leamington's latest showcase, celebrated a special Sept. 6 of his own, equaling the track record for older pacers.

The four-length victory in 1:54.4 tied the mark set by Beavercreek Artist on Sept. 16, 2018. The sires of both Chief Of Staff (Art Major) and Beavercreek Artist (Artiscape) are sons of Artsplace.

"We got to see Chief Of Staff pretty well every week, and he ranks up there as one of the most consistent horses all season at Leamington," Bain said.

The boost to Leamington's already established pool of talent manifested itself in the drivers' standings, which included six reinsmen with double-digit victories.

"The driver race was very interesting," Bain said. "We had some more drivers come down this year, including guys like Aidan Dicks, as well as Lorne House, who had a bit of luck. Alex Lilley and Rob Doyle both had strong meets. Of course, Garrett [Rooney] is always in the mix, Scott Wray, too."

"It made for a great competition."

Lilley's time at Leamington was especially memorable, as the seasoned pilot reached the 1,000-career win mark on Sept. 13.

The Dutton, ON-based driver visited the winner's circle four times that day and was honored with a commemorative sign and plaque presentation afterwards.

The overall driving title went to Nick Steward, who topped the leaderboard with 19 victories. He delivered all 16 wins for conditioner Cameron McQueen, who brought home his third straight Leamington training title.

“We saw a lot of new people racing at Leamington this year – a lot of new horses to familiarize ourselves with. I think a lot of people from Rideau Carleton were going to tracks like Grand River and Flamboro, and it brought other people that were already down this way to Leamington more often than before.”

— Nathan Bain

Stallions for Foals of 2026

How To Make Your Stallion Eligible

Review information and prepare submission materials now through February 15. 100% of the cost of one 2025 breeding is due February 15, 2027.

2025 Stallions Fees on Foals of 2026

SIRES

As this is a team effort, we greatly appreciate everyone's cooperation. The Stallion Restriction Condition (Gural rule) will be waived for those stallions nominated to this plan so that their foals of 2026 may be nominated for Meadowlands Stakes & Early Closers for the life of the horse including the 2029 Meadowlands Pace. All payments go directly to purses.

Participation in the Meadowlands Early Closing program for foals of 2026 will be contingent upon the sire having been nominated by payment of 100% of the cost of one 2025 breeding by February 15, 2027.

If a stallion is NOT nominated by the February 15, 2027 payment, the 2026 foals of that sire will be ineligible to race in Meadowlands Stakes & Early Closers for the life of the horse.

“Our biggest success [at Leamington this year] was getting people to the track. People are going to fall in love with the sport by being there in person and feeling the experience... That was especially the case on Wiener Dog Day, which brought in about 2,000 people. We ran out of parking, which is quite impressive. I couldn’t even hear myself announce with all the cheering. Getting to feed off that makes my job and the atmosphere a lot more fun for everyone involved.”

— Nathan Bain

“Nick really took off this year, and he’s driving very confidently right now, and that goes a long way in your driving,” Bain said. “Nick always seems to like driving at Leamington, and I think that really showed.

“He and Cameron teamed up this year. Obviously, Cameron has won the last couple of training titles, and he gave a lot of drives to Nick. Those two seemed to really click.”

Another driver-and-trainer team, in Doyle and Darryl Laver, both top five and top 10 in their respective standings this past season, made waves of their own on Aug. 23.

Doyle drove five winners on the 11-race program, including two for Laver, who went a perfect three-for-three at Leamington, with an additional two tallies at Clinton Raceway, to finish five-for-five on the day overall.

“You’ll see those two team up at places like London, Sarnia, and Dresden, as well,” Bain said. “They’ve been working together for the last couple of years, and Rob seems to get most of Laver’s drives. That was a special day for those two and one I’m sure neither will forget.”

Bain, the voice behind every highlight at Leamington, had the opportunity to call one of his own, also on Aug. 23.

From his perch in the race caller’s booth, Bain narrated his homebred pacer Cloudys Boy’s first career victory – a two-length triumph with Scott Wray in the race bike.

While he kept his composure for the most part, he may have just slightly tipped his hand.

“He’s the first homebred I got to the track, so getting to call his first win was quite special, and I think it showed in the excitement of my voice,” Bain said with a laugh.

“A lot of people picked up on that, but that was pretty cool, especially when you train the horse down all winter yourself and get him ready to race, and you’re there from day one. It’s something I’ll never forget.”

Several other notable happenings graced Leamington in 2026, including the return of an event Bain holds near and dear.

“Kids Day has always been huge for me,” he said. “Getting to call the Young Guns race, which gives kids the chance to get a feel for the industry, it’s something we need to do more of collectively. We need to take chances on young people and give them opportunities because without our youth, there is no future.

“Honestly, just getting kids out to the track with a bike draw or face painting and giving them that experience is incredibly important. Even if just one or two out of the hundreds that come catch the bug, that makes a pretty big impact.”

Fostering an immersive and engaging on-track environment has long been top of mind for Bain, who believes Leamington delivered in that regard this past season.

“Our biggest success was getting people to the track,” he said. “People are going to fall in love with the sport by being there in person and feeling the experience. Seeing the big crowds is something that’s so special. That was especially the case on Wiener Dog Day, which brought in about 2,000 people.

“We ran out of parking, which is quite impressive. I couldn’t even hear myself announce with all the cheering. Getting to feed off that makes my job and the atmosphere a lot more fun for everyone involved.”

As for what he’d like to see improve in 2027, an increase in handle is on the short list. The track held steady in that category in 2026, but improvements are always welcome.

From Bain’s perspective, the path forward means embracing new opportunities while preserving the community spirit that has sustained Leamington racing for more than 120 years.

“The biggest thing is pushing for the next generation and making it a family experience, which is what it’s all about,” Bain said. “We see so many families racing at Leamington, and that’s what makes it so special.”

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Tom Melanson

Geologic (Yannick Gingras) won his second Massachusetts championship with a lifetime best 1:51.3 in the $165,000 Massachusetts Breeder Stakes final for 3-year-old trotting males on Thursday at Plainridge Park.

Gingras wins five Massachusetts Breeder Stakes finals at Plainridge Park by Tim Bojarski for the Standardbred Owners of Massachusetts

The $1.32 million finals of the Massachusetts Breeder Stakes were held at Plainridge Park on Thursday (Oct. 29) with eight divisions going postward for $165,000 each and Yannick Gingras stole the show by winning five of the eight finals.

Included in those five Gingras wins was the most impressive performance of the day from the 3-year-old trotting gelding, Geologic (Captain Corey—Crystalline), who after winning his three preliminary stake legs, put himself in the record books as a two-time Massachusetts champion.

Mother's Moni (Dexter Dunn) shot right to the lead while Geologic drafted in second for the mile. After getting to the half in :55.2, Mother's Moni and Geologic separated from the field by many lengths and after passing three-quarters in 1:22.3, it became a match race. Mother's Moni held the lead to seven-eighths, but that's also where Geologic came on the attack. Geologic was trotting up a storm at the top of the stretch and moved clear in mid-stretch and from there, Geologic won handily by 3½ lengths in 1:51.3.

The time was a new lifetime mark for the winner.

Geologic ($2.40) is owned by Paul Kelley Racing, Go For Glory Stable, Matthew Lamont, and VIP Internet Stable and trained by Paul Kelley. Ray Campbell, Jr. bred Geologic.

The 2-year-old male trotter division was won by Once Upon Lindy (International Moni—Origin Story), who made it four straight wins in the stakes.

Two Fifty (Dunn) took the early lead as Once Upon Lindy (Gingras) was moving up on the outside. Then just before the quarter, Two Fifty made a break and Once Upon Lindy took the lead for good. With Sparkling Lindy (Matt Kakaley) following second, Once Upon Lindy reached the half in :57.4 and three-quarters in 1:26.4. Once Upon Lindy maintained a gapped advantage around the last turn and trotted home easily by two lengths in a lifetime best, 1:55.1.

Once Upon Lindy ($2.60) is owned and bred by K R Breeding and trained by Domenico Cecere.

Next up were the 3-year-old trotting fillies where last year's 2-year-old champion, Lindy In My Dreams (Ready For Moni—Lindy Of My Dreams), claimed the crown once again.

Lindy In My Dreams (Dunn) led the field to the quarter in :27.1 before yielding the lead to Cash Out Express (Gingras), who rushed to the front before the half. With Adios My Lindy (Brett Beckwith) sitting third, positions remained unchanged to three-quarters and around the last turn. Then at the top of the stretch, Lindy In My Dreams tipped off the cover of Cash Out Express and trotted by the leader to win by 1¼ lengths in 1:52.4, which was a new lifetime mark.

Lindy In My Dreams ($15.40) is owned and bred by Lindy Farms of Connecticut and trained by Cecere.

The 2-year-old trotting fillies then took the track and that was won by Luxe Lindy (Walner—Decadence), who turned a pocket ride into victory.

After several horses made breaks off the gate, Nanny's Ce Ce (Jeff Gregory) took control as Luxe Lindy (Tyler Miller) settled in second. After passing quarters in :28.2, :58.4, and 1:27.3, Nanny's Ce Ce and Luxe Lindy were clear of the field by 10 lengths around the last turn. When the pair entered the stretch, Luxe Lindy tipped and trotted right by Nanny's Ce Ce by two lengths in 1:56.3.

Luxe Lindy ($6.20) is owned by Andy Miller Stable, Jean Goehlen, Little E, and Coyote Wynd Farms and trained by Julie Miller. K R Breeding and Preferred Equine bred Luxe Lindy.

The 2-year-old pacing fillies lined up next with Lindy Believer (Captaintreacherous—Believe It's Lindy) completing her Mass Stakes grand slam to claim her crown.

There was a lot of action early as Sweetness Lindy (Mitchell Cushing), Lindy Believer (Gingras), and Griselda (Dunn) all took turns on the point before reaching the half in :55.4. Griselda then took the field up the backstretch where Lindy Believer pulled from second and flew to the front as she passed three-quarters in 1:23.4. Lindy Believer then rounded the last turn all by herself and opened up a 4¼ length bulge as she crossed the line first in 1:52.4.

Lindy Believer ($2.40) is owned by Engblom Farm, R A W Equine, Evans Nation, and Hickory Hollow Stables. Petter Engblom trains the Lindy Farms of Connecticut bred filly.

The 3-year-old male pacers entered the track next and Manador (Bulldog Hanover—Count To Three) pulled a major 73-1 upset in a late rush to the wire.

Beantown Dragon (Beckwith) reached the quarter in :26.3 before Altair Blue Chip (Dunn) rushed to the front before the :55.3.

half. The action continued up the backstretch where Hard To Forget (Gingras) started rolling from fourth and took the lead on the outside as they went past three-quarters, where Manador (Nick Graffam) was still fifth. Hard To Forget put a three-length distance between himself and the field in the last turn, but when they entered the stretch, the field was getting to him. Hard To Forget was still on top but Mr McTyge (Matty Athearn), Alcatraz Blue Chip (Corey Callahan), and Manador were all flying late, and it was Manador out widest of all who bolted to the line first by a head in 1:54.2.

Manador ($148.20) is owned and bred by M&L of Delaware and trained by Jessica Okusko.

The win by Manador also marked the 1,000th career training victory for Okusko.

Bacchus Blue Chip (Yannick Gingras) winning the final for 2-year-old pacing colts.

The 2-year-old male pacers were next and Bacchus Blue Chip (American Ideal—Sunnynseventyfive) followed last week's record-breaking performance with a Massachusetts championship.

Top Notch Treasure (Bruce Ranger) led to the quarter in :26.3 before Sting Me (Cushing) came flying outside to secure the front before the :54.1 half. But then Bacchus Blue Chip (Gingras) made a bid from third and was on top and pulling away at three-quarters in 1:22.3. Bacchus Blue Chip rounded the turn and entered the stretch alone, eventually winning by 4¼ lengths in 1:52.

Bacchus Blue Chip ($2.10) is owned by Burke Racing, Larry Karr, Libby and Purnel and Frank Baldachino. Ron Burke trains the winner.

The final division was the 3-year-old filly pacers that was won by Vainglorious (Bettors Delight—Bronskimackenzie A), who moved early and late for the win.

Seafood Treasure (Ranger), Vainglorious (Dunn), and Two Twenty Swift (Gingras) all held the lead by the half, with Two Twenty Swift getting to that station first in :56.3. Two Twenty Swift was challenged by Sweet Cindy Lou (Callahan) heading up the backstretch to three-quarters, which was reached in 1:24. Two Twenty Swift and Sweet Cindy Lou continued to battle in the stretch, but it was Vainglorious who found room just before the wire and shot through to beat both by three-quarters-of-a-length in 1:53.

Vainglorious ($12.60) is trained, bred, and co-owned by Tahnee Camilleri, in partnership with David Kryway.

Racing will resume at Plainridge Park today (Oct. 30) at 2 p.m. and there will be a $25,038 carryover in the Wicked Hi-5 pentafecta wager in the sixth race.

Also, horsemen and women and fans alike should take note that starting next week on Monday (Nov. 2), post time will be moved to 1 p.m. for the remainder of the meet, which concludes on Tuesday (Nov. 24).

Aintmyfirstro Deo (Scott Zeron) winning his New Jersey Sire Stakes Platinum event in July at The Meadowlands.

Name game: Owners enjoying the ride with Aintmyfirstro Deo

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Forget about putting money down on a hunch bet. A hunch buy can prove to be a big winner too.

At least that's been the case with 2-year-old male pacer Aintmyfirstro Deo. A son of Perfect Sting—Some Renditions bred by Deo Volente Farms, Aintmyfirstro Deo was purchased for $27,000 by Hutchison Harness LLC at last year's Lexington Selected Yearling Sale simply because Aneta Hutchison liked the name.

So far this season, the Megan Scran trainee has finished no worse than third in any of his eight races, winning six and earning $204,000. Competing exclusively at The Meadowlands, his victories have included the $180,000 New Jersey Sire Stakes Platinum Series championship and $45,000 Renaissance. He missed by a head from post 9 in the $150,000 New Jersey Classic.

On Saturday (Oct. 31), Aintmyfirstro Deo will face nine rivals in the $125,000 Grade 3 Kindergarten Classic Series final for freshman male pacers at The Big M. He will leave from post 7 with Scott Zeron in the sulky.

"He's been a fun horse," said Dr. Robert Hutchison, Aneta's husband, who races Aintmyfirstro Deo under the Hutchison Harness ownership banner that also includes his son Randy. "He wasn't on our radar [in Lexington]. My wife was sitting in the sales ring watching the sale, and Randy and I were out looking at videos and horses, and she texted us and said, 'I really like this horse's name, I think I'm going to buy it.' It's turned out to be a pretty good buy, all because she thought he had a cool name."

The horse's success has been a pleasant surprise, particularly because Aintmyfirstro Deo wasn't the easiest horse to get going during the early stages of his training this past winter.

"Totally unexpected, but it's been exciting, especially with the story behind it," said Dr. Hutchison, a founding member of the Animal Clinic Northview in North Ridgeville, OH. "My wife's cousins and sisters all follow the horse, so it has been a really fun ride. He's turned out to be a really nice horse for us."

Said Scran, "He does have a little bit of antics, but he's as easygoing as a horse can come. He looks after himself, is super nice to drive, great gaited, has a really nice mouth – all the qualities you'd want in a racehorse. And obviously, he's pretty fast."

Aintmyfirstro Deo began his career with five consecutive wins, sweeping his three NJSS Platinum prelims and the final before adding a victory in a leg of the Kindergarten series on Aug. 29. He suffered his first defeat in the New Jersey Classic on Sept. 11 but bounced back with his Renaissance triumph on Oct. 17.

He enters the Kindergarten final off a third-place finish behind Seine and Debonaire in last week's fifth preliminary leg, where he started from post 11 in the second tier.

"I thought he raced pretty good the other night having the 11-hole," Dr. Hutchison said. "This [Kindergarten final] is a tough race; there are some really great horses in there. So, this is kind of a test for us to see how he matches up with some of the better horses. We'll see how it goes. Hopefully, it goes well."

The Kindergarten final for 2-year-old male pacers includes world-record-setting Noel Daley trainee Starstruck Dreamer, who last week finished second in the Grade 1 Breeders Crown at Eldorado Scioto Downs. The son of Captaintreacherous—Scarlett Hanover will leave from post 10 with Todd McCarthy in the sulky. Seine, the Kentucky Championship Series runner-up who narrowly missed advancing to the Breeders Crown final, will start from post 5 for trainer/driver Joe Bongiorno.

"I wish [Aintmyfirstro Deo] would have drawn inside just a little bit more, but it helps that Starstruck Dreamer has the 10-hole, even though he's going to be the heavy favorite," Scran said. "This is definitely the toughest competition he's had to face so far. In the New Jersey Sire Stakes races, he was so much the best that he could go the fractions he wanted to go, and now he's learning that he's not going to get everything his own way anymore. But Scott will definitely put him in the right spot to give him the best chance."

Aintmyfirstro Deo is not Hutchison Harness' only success story this season. The stable also shares in the ownership of undefeated 2-year-old filly trotter Wall Of Fame, 3-year-old filly trotter Jailbird Jog, and 3-year-old male pacer Tsunami Seas.

Wall Of Fame won New Jersey Sire Stakes Platinum and Kentucky Championship titles as well as a division of the Grade 3 Bluegrass Stakes; Jailbird Jog captured the inaugural Oak Grove Trotting Oaks and a division of the Grade 2 Del Miller Memorial; and Tsunami Seas was an Ohio Sires Stakes Scarlet champ.

"We've been in the horse business 50-plus years, and we've had good horses over the years, but we've never had a year like this," Dr. Hutchison said. "This has just been unbelievable, one of those dream things. We appreciate it. We're riding the wave as long as it goes."

Racing begins at 6:20 p.m. (EDT) on Saturday at The Meadowlands. The four Kindergarten Classic Series finals for 2-year-old pacers and trotters are races 6-9. For free Big M past performances, click here.

Diamond Creek announces 2027 stallion locations ahead of Harrisburg sale

Diamond Creek Farm is pleased to announce several stallion location updates for the 2027 breeding season, providing breeders and shareholders with important information ahead of the upcoming Harrisburg sale.

Sweet Lou will stand at Lindwood Farm in Greensburg, PA, for the 2027 season. Diamond Creek is particularly pleased to keep the accomplished sire in Pennsylvania, where he has established an exceptional legacy and continues to be an important part of the state's breeding program.

Additionally, multiple Breeders Crown winning sire, Downbytheseaside will remain in Ohio, relocating to Winterwood Farm, while the upstart first year stallion Pebble Beach will also remain in Ohio, standing at Midland Acres for the 2027 season.

"We are excited about these new partnerships and grateful for the opportunity to keep these stallions in their respective states," said president Adam Bowden. "Our priority has been to find the right homes for our stallions while providing stability and continuity for our breeders and shareholders."

Diamond Creek is committed to communicating these updates ahead of the Harrisburg sale to allow breeders, shareholders, and prospective buyers to make informed decisions for the upcoming breeding season.

Additional details, including 2027 stud fees, will be announced in the coming weeks.

John Hayes returning to independent chair position at Ontario Racing

Ontario Racing is pleased to announce John Hayes will return as the organization's independent chair beginning on Nov. 2.

He previously served as Ontario Racing's independent chair from 2018 through 2022. The Sharon, ON resident was then succeeded by Andrew Gaughan, who announced in August that he would not seek a new term after his current extension expires at the end of October.

Hayes, a standardbred horse owner and former executive at General Electric, Black & Decker, and Home Depot, is also a former gaming director with Ontario Lottery and Gaming, who had operational responsibilities at Ajax Downs, Georgian Downs, Grand River Raceway, Woodbine Racetrack, and other tracks across the province.

He said he is returning to Ontario Racing for one key reason: "I love horse racing and I want to do everything I can to make it prosper, and it's going to be a tough fight... We have to get all three breeds growing."

During his first term, he helped lead the province's horse racing industry to a critical 19-year long-term funding agreement with the province that was signed in 2019. Hayes also helped the industry navigate through the COVID-19 pandemic that, initially, closed racetracks.

Hayes said one of his top priorities will be expanding the wagering offerings to help horse racing appeal to younger customers and drive the very handle that funds most of horse racing's operations.

"[New bets are] what new potential customers would look at, rather than win, place, and show and exotics," Hayes said.

Hayes said he also will be focused on having Section 31 of the Income Tax Act repealed. Section 31 states that anyone involved in agriculture – which includes horse ownership – as a hobby business may only write off a maximum of $17,500 of losses annually against their main business. No other Canadian economic sector has such tax limitations. The issue has been made more acute by the fact that in the United States a person can write off 100 per cent of bonus appreciation for horse losses.

"If you're trying to pitch investing in the racing business [in Canada] to new individuals, once they understand the way the taxes work, they don't want to invest," Hayes said. "They've got better places for their money."

Hayes, who is known for his calm, collaborative demeanor, said he is also prioritizing the viability plan Ontario Racing is currently crafting.

"I have a copy of what Ontario Racing has put together, so far, for a viability plan, and I think it's pretty good," Hayes said. "I would say number one, we really have to understand the demographics of our potential customer base and how those demographics are shifting."

"Also, execution of this viability plan is absolutely key. Ontario Racing has got to pitch that to its board, get the board on the plane, and then execute. We need to identify four or five key execution points and the timing of those points."

Through it all, Hayes said a part of him still remains the child that grew up in the shadows of old Morrow Park in Peterborough. He has been going to the races since he was 7 or 8.

"I really love racing, and for every job I've had, and all the traveling I've done in my life working, I always found time to go to a racetrack, whether it was Arlington in Chicago or Santa Anita if I was on the West Coast, Hastings if it was in Vancouver," Hayes said. "As a fan, I love horse racing."

Carryovers and Kindergartens are a Big M treat

There will be no need for horseplayers to knock on doors this weekend to get tricks and treats, all they need to do is head to The Meadowlands, where three carryovers will be available today (Oct. 30) to satisfy the sweet tooth of any punter before the Kindergarten Series for 2-year-olds, a tasty treat with purses totaling $500,000, takes center stage on Halloween Night, Saturday (Oct. 31).

"This is the time of year for some special events," said Meadowlands chief operating officer/general manager Jason Settlemoir. "Last weekend, we offered simulcasting of the Breeders Crown from Scioto Downs. This weekend, we have the Breeders' Cup simulcast and, on track, the Kindergarten finals. Then, in two weeks, on Nov. 14, we will host Fall Final Four/FanDuel Championships Night, so, despite the colder temperatures, there is still some good racing to come."

THE CARRYOVERS: Tonight, the first race will offer a carryover on the Early 20-cent Pick-5 of $20,891. Last Saturday, after a sequence that saw winner's odds of 7-2, 3-5, 17-1, 84-1, and 22-1, no winning tickets were sold. Those with four correct selections collected $1,741.

Carryover No. 2 will come in race 3, as the 20-cent Pick-6 will start out with $2,655 up for grabs. Last Saturday, after a sequence that saw winner's odds of 17-1, 84-1, 22-1, 7-1, 1-1, and 2-1, the only players cashing in – for $35.22 – were those with four correct selections.

Finally, the third and final carryover tonight comes in race 7. Last Saturday, the 10-cent Hi-5 (Pentafecta) combination of 5-8-7-1-4 yielded no winning tickets, and after the low 15 per cent takeout was removed from the pool of approximately $10,000, a carryover of $8,417 remained.

THE KINDERGARTEN: The series for freshmen of each sex and gait will make up the Early 50-cent Pick-4 on Saturday. Each has a purse of $125,000.

Here is a snapshot of horses who are major players:

- Race 6 (Filly trot): Orinoco stormed home to win the fifth and final leg last Friday as the even-money favorite in 1:54.2. The Captain Corey—Bonnie Lou product finished third in her Breeders Crown elimination in the start prior, but was disqualified and placed sixth, costing her a spot in the final.
- Race 7 (Colt and gelding pace): The Joe Bongiorno-trained and driven Seine (Sweet Lou—Lock Bridge) was dominant in his leg 5 score, hitting the wire in a lifetime-best 1:50.4 as the 1-5 public choice. He will have his hands full with Starstruck Dreamer (Captaintreacherous—Scarlett Hanover), the Noel Daley trainee who just missed in the Breeders Crown to Blazin Lou.
- Race 8 (Filly pace): This race shapes up as a great matchup between Miss Dolce (Perfect Sting—Beautiful Candy) and Perfect Body (Perfect Sting—Sweet Body), the winners from last week's two divisions.
- Race 9 (Colt and gelding trot): Obiter Dictum (Tactical Landing—Insolentreusite) was a safe winner in one of two leg 5 divisions a week ago as the Marcus Melander student was using trotting hobbles for the second time. Melander's Gustav Vasa (Face Time Bourbon—Ms Emily Mariette) pulled off a 12-1 surprise in the other dash.

THE SCHEDULE: The pacers and trotters will be in action at The Big M every Friday and Saturday through the end of 2026, with just one exception, as there is no live racing on Christmas Day, Friday (Dec. 25).

In addition, there are three Thursday cards on the calendar: Dec. 3, 10, and 17.

All told, there are 20 nights of live Meadowlands harness racing remaining this year, and each has a post time of 6:20 p.m.

SAVE THE DATES: There are still some dates worth circling on your calendar if you only like to come out to The Big M when the level of racing is sky high, starting with Saturday (Oct. 31), when four $125,000 Kindergarten finals for 2-year-olds of each sex and gait will be offered.

Then, two weeks later, on Saturday (Nov. 14), the last major stakes card on not just The Meadowlands schedule, but the entire harness racing calendar, takes place when estimated purses of $2.65 million will be up for grabs on Fall Final Four/FanDuel Championships Night.

The eight stakes races that will take place that evening are:

- $400,000 (est.) Valley Victory (2-year-old colt and gelding trot)
- $400,000 (est.) Governor's Cup (2-year-old colt and gelding pace)
- $400,000 (est.) Goldsmith Maid (2-year-old filly trot)
- $400,000 (est.) Three Diamonds (2-year-old filly pace)
- $350,000 (est.) FanDuel open pace
- $350,000 (est.) FanDuel open trot
- $175,000 (est.) FanDuel fillies and mares trot
- $175,000 (est.) FanDuel fillies and mares pace

(All FanDuel events are for 3-year-olds and up)

The 2026 stakes curtain will then fall when four $70,000 (est.) New Jersey Standardbred Development Fund finals for 2-year-olds of each sex and gait will be contested on Saturday (Nov. 21).

IT'S LIVE ON FOX: The TV teams at The Meadowlands and the New York Racing Association (NYRA) will continue their partnership with two more live broadcasts that will bring high-end Big M stakes action into people's living rooms from coast-to-coast.

Both Kindergarten Finals Night as well as Fall Final Four/FanDuel Championships Night will be televised as part of the NYRA's "America's Day at the Races" series. The Kindergarten races take place on Saturday (Oct. 31) and will be on Fox Sports 2 (FS2) from 8-11 p.m., while the FF4/FDC are on Saturday (Nov. 14), and will be broadcast on FS2 from 9-11 p.m.

LOEBS AND DEBBIE LITTLE ON SET: This weekend will see a new face tonight and a familiar one Saturday on the Sam McKee Memorial Broadcast Set.

Sean Loeb, a longtime Meadowlands regular and winner of last year's $10,000 Meadowlands Monthly Handicapping Contest final, will make his debut on The Big M's live simulcast presentation sitting alongside regular host Dave Little.

Last Friday, Loeb bet an $80 cold late double and hit for $384 to vault him to victory in the 10th leg of the $1,000 contest. Loeb finished the night with a bankroll of $704 to garner his second contest win of 2026.

Debbie Little, the associate editor and columnist at Harness Racing Update, makes her return to the desk on Saturday, and will serve as host of the show alongside her husband, Dave, who will shift to the co-host seat.

The Littles observed two anniversaries recently. The pair were married 37 years on Sept. 10, while Oct. 28 marked the 40-year anniversary of the day that Dave picked the winners of all nine races on a matinee program at Roosevelt Raceway while working as a handicapper at the New York Post.

Ken Warkentin will be in his usual spot at the top of the stands calling the action with Gary DiLeo handling interviews with winning connections tonight. Dave Little will conduct winner's circle interviews on Saturday for the four Kindergarten dashes.

THE MAGNIFICENT SEVEN: The Meadowlands' betting public is now accustomed to the new $3 Late Pick-3 (races 11-13) and $5 Late Daily Double (12-13), but still go for mile oval's wagers that offer a low 15 per cent takeout in a big way.

These are the bets that will offer that low takeout for this weekend's 13-race programs:

- Races 1-5: 20-cent Pick-5
- Races 3-8: 20-cent Pick-6
- Races 6-9: 50-cent Pick-4
- Race 7: 10-cent Pentafecta (Hi-5)
- Races 8-12: 20-cent Pick-5
- Races 10-13: 50-cent Pick-4
- Race 11: 10-cent Pentafecta (Hi-5)

PROGRAMS FOR FREE: To show appreciation to its loyal fan base, The Meadowlands offers free program pages for every race of every race card on its website.

Go to playmeadowlands.com, then click on the "handicapping" dropdown to get the past performances at absolutely no cost.

Grand Circuit shifts to Hoosier Park Friday

Fresh off a successful Breeders Crown at Scioto Downs last weekend, the Grand Circuit will move to Harrah's Hoosier Park today (Oct. 30) with a quartet of six-figure stakes events for the sport's top 3-year-olds.

Tonight's 14-race program gets underway at 5:30 p.m., with the Grand Circuit events serving as the final four races on the program as part of a $20,000 guaranteed all-stakes Late Pick-4 with an industry low takeout rate of 12 per cent in races 11-14.

Three-year-old trotting colts will take center stage first in the $200,000 Carl Erskine Memorial, headlined by the Hambletonian runner-up, Big Ranger, who has been tabbed as the even-money morning-line favorite. The Ohio superstar is slated to have his regular Hall of Fame pilot, Tim Tetrick, in the sulky for trainer Anette Lorentzon, as the son of In Range exits a third-place effort in the $664,500 Breeders Crown final in his last effort. Big Ranger has won eight of 13 on the year, good for $668,710 in seasonal earnings and surpassing seven-figures lifetime with his paycheck in the Breeders Crown for owners Madison Global. Big Ranger will leave from post 6 in the group of eight in a field that also includes Hambletonian finalists, Al (post 1, Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.), Captain Naughty (post 5, Jordan Ross), and Indiana standout, Dan D Man Can (post 4, Atlee Bender).

Tetrick will also pilot the morning-line favorite in the $140,000 Crossroads of America for sophomore trotting fillies, retaining the drive on the Nancy Takter trained Madam Cheval. The Kentucky Filly Futurity runner-up leaves from post 5, having won four of 14 on the year while earning $326,394. The royally bred daughter of Walner—Shake It Cerry is part of a three-headed monster from the Takter barn in the event, which includes Leading Lady (post 3, Dexter Dunn), and Bluegrass winner, Godusa (post 4, Todd McCarthy) from the same shedrow.

In the $125,000 USS Indianapolis Memorial for sophomore pacing fillies, Whoomp will look to defend her home turf exiting a valiant second place effort in the Breeders Crown final to Miss Jum Jabber. The 3-1 morning-line favorite will leave from post 8, with regular pilot John De Long aboard the two-time Indiana Sires Stakes champion filly. The William and Patrick De Long homebred daughter of Rockin Image—Nightcap continues to close in on $1 million in career earnings, with the Roger Welch trainee having $900,936 banked in her career while finishing no worse than second in 13 tries this season. Whoomp will take on Indiana arch rival Somemore Blue (post 9, Marcus Miller), along with Jugette champion Loua Dipa (post 5, Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.), and Daya (post 7, Austin Hanners), who makes her first start after being a $345,000 onGait purchase for Team Luther.

The evening will close with the $160,000 Monument Circle for 3-year-old male pacers, where Breeders Crown runner-up Al Papi has been tagged as the 5-2 morning-line favorite. Driver Yannick Gingras will look to navigate the second-tier from post 10 with the Papi Rob Hanover—Baron Remy colt who has bagged signature victories in the Adios and Tattersalls over the course of his sophomore campaign. With more than $1.5 million in career earnings, Al Papi headlines a quartet from the Ron Burke barn that also includes Pennsylvania Sire Stakes champion and Breeders Crown elim winner, Melillo (post 4, Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.). The Indiana Sires Stakes champion, Swiss Lights, will leave from the rail with leading driver Trace Tetrick, and having won four of his last six while hitting the board in all 14 tries this year.

Guests attending in-person tonight can enjoy the annual Fright Night at the Races, Hoosier Park's yearly Halloween celebration. The Horse Costume contest gets underway in the front paddock at 5 p.m., with people's choice voting available for a $5 donation to the Harness Horse Youth Foundation. There will also be free Trunk or Treating on the track apron, corn maze, pumpkin giveaway and decorating station, and live DJ. All Fright Night festivities take place from 5-9 p.m. on the track apron.

Free online programs for tonight's card are available on the Hoosier Park website, as well as information for upcoming events at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

For more information, guests are encouraged to visit www.harrahshoosierpark.com.

Grade 1 champion Delaney Hanover to be bred to Chapter Seven

The fastest 3-year-old trotting filly of 2025 and three-time Breeders Crown finalist Delaney Hanover has been retired from racing. The announcement was made by co-owner Wiesman Farms.

Delaney Hanover debuted with back-to-back wins in her freshman season in a Kindergarten Classic leg and New Jersey Classic elimination. She was a runner-up in the final and in the 2024 Breeders Crown elimination.

As a 3-year-old, the daughter of world champion Muscle Hill rose to prominence with a reputation for devastating speed of her own. Off her Hambletonian Oaks elimination win and third in the final, she blazed to a new lifetime mark of 1:50.1 in the Kentucky Filly Futurity – the fastest divisional time of 2025 and just two-fifths-of-a-second off the world record. She set a new track record of 1:51 in the Breeders Crown elimination at Woodbine Mohawk Park and capped off her stellar sophomore campaign with five wins, a second, and two thirds in 11 starts for over $400,000 in seasonal earnings.

After finishing third in this year's Hambletonian Maturity, she could not repeat her sophomore form, and the decision was made to retire her following the Breeders Crown mare trot. She retires with career earnings of $634,597 from seven wins.

Delaney Hanover was bred by Hanover Shoe Farms and is scheduled to be bred to Chapter Seven.

Thank you to trainer and co-owner Lucas Wallin and Shermay Stables for a wonderful campaign with Delaney Hanover.
