Quintet of high-profile late supplements buoy already strong Harrisburg lineup

The 88th Standardbred Horse Sales Company auction gets underway on Monday at the Pennsylvania State Farm Show Complex.

by Dave Briggs

Last year, a number of major dispersals helped the Standardbred Horse Sales Company (SHSC) set an all-time record for single-year gross of $74,574,000 when the figures from the yearling sale ($36,029,000) and Mixed Sale were combined ($38,518,500). Sales company president and director of operations Dale Welk said due to those unique circumstances he's not expecting to top those total numbers at this year's mega-auction running Monday (Nov. 2) through Friday (Nov. 6) at the Pennsylvania State Farm Show Complex in Harrisburg, PA.

Still, Welk said the 88th SHSC auction should be strong and he thinks the three-day yearling portion is particularly solid.

"I think Monday is going to be a great day," Welk said. "Actually, I think we're going to have great days Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. I think all three days are a bit stronger than they were last year.

"We're not going to have the Mixed Sale that we had last year, but I don't want six dispersals in one year. I'm sure we're going to be down in the Mixed Sale, we're down 200 [horses] numbers-wise [compared to 2025]."

Still, this year's Mixed Sale's ranks were buoyed significantly by five late supplements:

operations Dale

- Hip #1600 Call Me Goo, a Breeders Crown-winning mare in foal to Chapter Seven, sells Thursday (Nov. 5), after Hip #1203.
- Hip #1601 Yankee Boss, a finalist in last Saturday's Breeders Crown for 3-year-old trotting colts, sells Friday (Nov. 6), after Hip #1349.
- Hip #1602 Beau Jangles, the reigning U.S. and Canadian Horse of the Year and stallion prospect, sells Friday, after Hip #1489.
- Hip #1603 Spencer Hanover, the 2025 Breeders Crown winner, sells Friday, after Hip #1602.
- Hip #1604 Victorianas Secret, the fastest sophomore trotting filly of 2026 and a runner-up in last Saturday's Breeders Crown, sells Friday, after Hip #1412.

They all should attract strong bids, but Beau Jangles is particularly intriguing. He was undefeated through all 12 starts in 2025, scoring Grade 1 wins in both the Metro Pace and the Breeders Crown.

Welk said Beau Jangles has also received a positive fertility report.

Based on his stallion earning potential, Welk said Beau Jangles, "in my mind, is going to be the highest priced standardbred ever sold at public auction."

In 2024 at the SHSC Mixed Sale, 3-year-old trotting colt Amazing Catch set the current record at $1.85 million.

"I'm cautiously optimistic, but I don't think [Beau Jangles will] stop at $1.85 million," Welk said.

That means Beau Jangles might just be the first $2 million standardbred sold at auction.

Last year, four horses in the Mixed Sale fetched seven figures. All four were trotting females sold by Preferred Equine. Armitage Farm purchased Hip #1613 Kadena (Gimpanzee–Mission Brief) for $1.2 million. Marvin Katz bought the other three from the dispersal of his longstanding partnership with Al Libfeld:

- Hip #1199 French Champagne (Muscle Hill–French Café) for $1.15 million.
- Hip #1198 French Café (Muscle Hill–Creamy Mimi) for $1 million.
- Hip #1209 Parisian Charm (Muscle Hill–French Café) for $1 million.

Welk said he expects online bidding to be strong during the Mixed Sale – something that has been borne out by the rise in popularity of regular online auctions such as Preferred Equine Online and onGait.com.

"A lot of those horses, people don't need to see or touch because they've seen them – they've seen them at the racetrack," Welk said. "It's not like a yearling where it seems that it's still a thing where people want to touch them, feel them and see what they are. The older mixed horses, you've seen them race."

Welk said the online bidding is also expected to be strong on Tuesday when some buyers will be at home voting in the U.S. Midterm Elections.

"Especially Tuesday, we expected to get an overwhelming response to online bidding," Welk said.

As for the yearlings, Welk said, "Almost every consignor has at least one [outstanding one]. Some of them have five or six. Anvil and Lace, with the Winning Key horses, they have quite a few on the first day... and they really raise a good horse out there.

"They have the Walner filly out of Hot Mess Hanover (Hip #73 Book A Spa Day). I mean, she is gorgeous. I've seen her.

"Then there's the [Chapter Seven filly] out of Crucial (Hip #43 Coffeshop Hanover) that Hanover has.

"And Concord has around 120 in the whole sale, which is more than [Julie Meirs has] ever had. She sells 43 on Monday. They've got a pretty incredible consignment, too.

"But, again, every consignor has some that are really pretty spectacular. That's why I'm really looking forward to Monday."

Welk said he is pleased to welcome a new consignor – Shaffer Equine from Pennsylvania – to this year's yearling sale.

"They were up to like 15 yearlings of their own and Jacob [Shaffer] talked to me last year," Welk said. "He said, 'I think we're going to try our own consignment next year, what do you think?' They always sold with Beth at Anvil and Lace. Well, they wound up with 33 yearlings.

"They are going to be a little overwhelmed, I think, at first because they are used to bringing their horses in and dropping them off, but I think they'll do a great job."

Of the three yearling sessions, Welk said he has the most concerns about the Wednesday session given that the middle market has struggled at recent auctions and the fact he accepted some yearlings that did not make the cut at other sales.

"There might be a few on Wednesday where somebody might question, 'Why'd you take them?' but so many horses got cut out of the other sales," Welk said. "I'm someone that looks at averages, but I don't put all my weight on averages – Geoff Stein taught me that. I like to help the little guys, if I can, to keep them involved."

Overall, Welk said he's cautiously optimistic it will be another strong SHSC sale.

"I can't wait to get it started," Welk said. "You say you can't wait to get started, then you say you can't wait to get finished, but when it's all over it's bittersweet."

Hanover Shoe Farms vice-president Mark Loewe.

The legendary nursery is not only celebrating its 100th anniversary in 2026, it also recently surpassed $1 billion in total progeny earnings. No other farm even comes close.

Hanover also leads all breeders in seasonal earnings – as it has for every year since breeder records have been kept. And, current president and CEO Russell Williams will be inducted into the Harness Racing Hall of Fame in 2027. He will be the seventh person with strong ties to the farm to be so honored.

“Not only to be in existence for 100 years, but to be at the top of the game for most of that time, it’s a testament to the horses and the people who have been here during those years,” said Hanover vice-president Mark Loewe.

“It’s very much a working farm. It’s not glamour, it’s just working people doing hard work and seeing all the success they’ve had with it.”

Last year, Hanover led all consignors during the SHSC yearling sale with gross sales of $10,502,000 for 188 sold – an average of $55,862.

“I don’t want to downplay any of them, but I would say our strength this year would be more geared towards the fillies, both trot and pace,” Loewe said. “We have a lot of exceptional colts, too, but I just think maybe the fillies slightly outpace the colts... For the pacing fillies, we’re very happy with our Bulldog [Hanover] and Beach Glasses this year.”

Loewe then mentioned a number of Hanover yearlings he thinks should sell well.

Hanover Shoe Farms celebrates 100 years and total progeny earnings of $1 billion with stellar Harrisburg consignment

The legendary Pennsylvania farm will also see its president and CEO Russell Williams inducted into the Harness Racing Hall of Fame next summer.

Of the pacing fillies, he highlighted:

- Hip #16 Amethyst Hanover – Bulldog Hanover out of American Jewel.
- Hip #70 Hermione Hanover – Captaintreacherous out of History Repeats. “The 2-year-old just won in Lexington in 1:51.2, Hamilton Hanover, for Luc Blais. He was here the other day and he thinks the colt’s exceptional.”
- Hip #98, Mizzlolu Hanover – Sweet Lou out of Mayhem Seelster. “That mare has produced nothing but one good one after another... [The yearling is] a sister to Mirage Hanover, Mad Max Hanover.”
- Hip #30 Empower Hanover – Captaintreacherous out of Eloquent Grace. “She’s a beautiful sister to Ervin Hanover.”
- Hip #11 Avigonon Hanover – Captaintreacherous out of Aria Hanover.
- Hip #211 Auguilla Hanover – Captaintreacherous out of Anderosa Hanover. “That’s an exceptional filly.”

Some top pacing colts include:

- Hip #145 Success Hanover – Always B Miki out of Shyaway. “He’s a beautiful colt and he’s a full brother to Sylvia Hanover.”
- Hip #174 Top Dollar Hanover – Confederate out of Trillions Hanover, “the dam of Thiago Hanover, who has made a couple hundred thousand.”
- Hip #188 Zeroproof Hanover – Captaintreacherous out of Zero Tolerance. “She was a $750,000 winner.”
- Hip #199 Assateague Hanover – Beach Glass out of All Tucked Up. “That’s Abuckabett Hanover’s dam... We’re really excited about that one.”
- Hip #480 Revel Hanover – Sweet Lou first foal out of Reachingforthemoon.
- Hip #503 Splendor Hanover – a Bulldog Hanover out of Sail By. “We haven’t even touched the stars of the show, that’s the trotters,” Loewe said. “I think all eyes will be watching as we sell the Chapter Seven full sister to Maryland [Hip #43 Coffeeshop Hanover]. The 2-year-old we sold for $725,000 last year, has come on late in the year and is a Grade 2 stakes winner, Climatic Hanover. She now has $215,000 on her card with a record of [1]:52.2.”

Loewe said other top trotting fillies include:

- Hip #88 Live Long Hanover – Chapter Seven out of Lifetime Pursuit. “That makes her a full sister to Super Chapter.”
- Hip #10 Baturbest Hanover – Walner first foal out of Believe U Me
- Hip #47 Eavesdrop Hanover – Captain Corey out of Evermore, “making her a half sister to Elista Hanover.”
- Hip #143 Secret Luv Hanover – Walner out of Secret Magic, “a sister to Manchego.”
- Hip #67 Henna Hanover – Chapter Seven first foal out of Hanna Too Hanover, a sister to Hannelore Hanover.

• Hip #69 Hulu Hanover – Volume Eight out of Hillarmbro, making the yearling a “sister to Heaven Hanover and Nuance, winner of the Grade 1 Elegance.”

Top trotting colts include:

• Hip #135 Rami Hanover – Chapter Seven first colt out of Hambletonian winner Ramona Hill.

• Hip #28 Cheez It Hanover – Chapter Seven out of Chezatter, dam of Coach K Hanover. “He’s a special individual.”

• Hip #96 Mr Sean Hanover – Captain Corey out of M Diddy, who is, “a daughter of Maven.”

• Hip #315 Firefoot Hanover – Volume Eight out of Finesse Hanover. “She’s the dam of Fineline Hanover, who’s made a couple hundred thousand and will probably win the final of the race down in Corbin.”

• Hip #355 Irdescent Hanover – Greenshoe out of Infinity.

“There’s a lot of depth in both the trotters and pacers, which I think will help the middle market,” Loewe said. “The Day 1 horses, we’re certainly expecting a lot out of, and if people can’t get what they are going for on Day 1 then they’ve got a lot of options on Day 2 and Day 3 that they’ll be very pleased with.”

Loewe said this year Hanover will sell 182 yearlings.

“We’ve had a couple of consignments [in recent years] that were a little higher but, as the industry has changed, we’ve tried to evolve with the industry,” he said. “In the last few years, we’ve put 20, 21 yearlings on sale online prior to the sale.”

Loewe said selling yearlings online has proven to be an interesting exercise.

“If you’re realistic, which we certainly try to be, I think we received close to what we expected numbers-wise,” Loewe said. “We can look at the results from last year’s online horses and we have stakes winners and multiple winners that people paid very little money for and that’s a huge compliment. We tell people that these are horses that we just don’t feel are in our best interest to carry them all the way to November, but they are quality horses that can win races. Whoopeddoo Hanover... and a couple of others, sold for $5,000 or $6,000 and then made money on the racetrack.”

“You know what makes the industry go around? When we sold a Greenshoe [named Sevenoops Hanover] last year – a filly that’s on the small side – at the sale for $3,000. Kudos, again, to Hanover, because we’ll never bid on our own horses. The owner then put her in an online sale in the spring and got $9,000 and she’s earned over $70,000 with two stakes wins.

“This year we’re selling a Captain Corey colt out of her mare, who is twice the size and a drop-dead gorgeous colt. You just don’t know.”

Topping $31 million in sales at Harrisburg will be difficult, but Preferred is game to try

by Dave Briggs

David Reid learned long ago not to make hard predictions about how his Preferred Equine consignment will fare at the Standardbred Horse Sales Company (SHSC) auction in Harrisburg, PA – at least not publicly. But he knows last year will be nearly impossible to top.

At the 2025 sale, Preferred set an all-time SHSC consignor record with over $31 million in sales – more than $25 million of that coming from the Mixed Sale alone where the agency represented a number of high-profile dispersals, including

Dave Landry
Preferred Equine's
David Reid.

Fashion Farms, Fair Winds Farm and the partnership dissolution of the equine holdings of Marvin Katz and Al Libfeld.

"Last year was a once in a generation that doesn't happen that often," said Reid, who was enshrined in the Harness Racing Hall of Fame in July. "This year, it's a more traditional Harrisburg Mixed Sale... and the overall numbers [in the Mixed Sale] are down from last year... With the Spring Station dispersal being the only major one, the overall numbers are going to be down, but I think the marketplace will be consistent year over year.

"It's obviously looked upon by a lot of people as a target to come to a public sale to get breeding stock and racehorses."

With Preferred representing so many breeders and so many jurisdictions, even comparing yearling consignments year over year is difficult to do, Reid said. Last year, Preferred was the second leading consignor in the yearling sale with over $5.8 million in sales. Hanover Shoe Farms led the pack with sales of $10.5 million.

"I really don't compare year-to-year, but we have about the same amount of yearlings and we represent the same breeders, so I just think we have an outstanding group of horses to offer and there's something here for everybody and I would just really encourage everyone to stop by and take a look," Reid said. "There's no greater example than Beau Jangles being sold out of our consignment [in 2024]. Moderately-priced yearling and he went on to be the champion that he was."

Beau Jangles, the reigning U.S. and Canadian Horse of the Year will be sold during this year's Mixed Sale to dissolve the ownership group. "Beau" has passed his fertility test and will make an intriguing stallion prospect.

He will be sold on Friday (Nov. 6) as Hip #1602 from Bob Boni's Northwood Bloodstock consignment. Beau, a late supplement, will sell after Hip #1489.

"We sold him as a yearling and we're proud to have done so," Reid said. "It's unfortunate that the ownership group had to take this route to put him in a public auction. I actually don't think the horse deserves it – the reigning Horse of the Year being offered at public auction. That being said, he was a great 2-year-old and he came back this year, but it's tough for horses. Everyone knows his record and whatever the fair market value will be on that day is what he's going to bring. It's just that I feel a little bit bad for the horse being offered in this manner."

But before we get to the Mixed Sale being held on Thursday (Nov. 5) and Friday, Preferred has a strong group of yearlings to sell Monday (Nov. 2) through Wednesday (Nov. 4).

"I have a very broad-base assortment of yearlings," Reid said. "There will be 119 sold, of which 66 are pacers and 53 are trotters. All jurisdictions, all price ranges. We have a lot of dual and triple-eligible horses, because we have 18 eligible to the Massachusetts program. There's something for everybody. We've got a handful of Walners in here. We've got a handful of Chapter Sevens. We've got some nice Confederates and Cannibals, Huntsvilles. It's a very typical, very workman-like Preferred Equine consignment.

"We've got Ontario, the Midwest, Ohio, Indiana, New York, Pennsylvania, we have them all covered."

As for the Mixed Sale, Reid said Preferred has a strong group of Fabulous Fillies and racehorses.

"Preferred has a cross-section of broodmares, stallion shares, racehorses that are pretty much on par with a normal year for Preferred," Reid said. "Last year was not a normal year, but this year we're back to a normal year and I expect a good marketplace."

Reid said he is also selling three racehorses that are also stallion prospects, including a late addition: Hip #1603 Spencer Hanover, a 3-year-old millionaire son of Chapter Seven out of Secret Passion that won the 2025 Breeders Crown. Spencer Hanover will sell Friday.

The other two stallion prospects are selling back-to-back. They are:

- Hip #1504 Celebrity Bambino, a 6-year-old son of Muscle Hill out of Celebrity Ruth that has earnings just shy of $1 million.

- Hip #1505 Ari Ferrari J, a 6-year-old son of Walner out of Dream Child that has earned over $1.3 million.

"All three of those horses are interesting prospects for the next career when their racing days are over," Reid said.

Asked about the state of the economy as it pertains to horse sales, Reid, who is also co-manager of the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale, said you really need to compare standardbred sales and not try to draw conclusions from thoroughbred auctions. A nice barometer was the fact the Lexington sale set a record for average sale price at $81,320.

"I think you have to stick with standardbreds when you make comparisons," Reid said. "The Ohio market was pretty even, year over year. The Lexington sale, obviously, the sale was very strong with the highest average. The Indiana sale held in line. The London sale was up a smidgen. I think the economy is stable from where it has been. I think currency for the Europeans or Canadians is consistent with what it was a month ago. I think the marketplace will be on par with last year. I don't see any new distractions to the marketplace that haven't been in the industry in the last six weeks when the other sales were taking place."

"It's going to be a typical Harrisburg week, a little bit of a grind. There will be a lot of people coming in and out and horses going through the ring. It's a good time of year and I look forward to it coming and I also look forward to the completion of the major sale circuit."

TALES FROM THE CURMUDGEON

with MURRAY BROWN

New York at Harrisburg

by Murray Brown

In the same manner as Harrisburg is somewhat comparable to the London Classic Yearling Sale in the depth and quality of its number of Ontario yearlings, so is Harrisburg somewhat the same vis-a-vis Lexington as far as New York eligible yearlings are concerned.

In terms of New York eligibles, Harrisburg, attracted a near comparable number of 142 New York eligibles to Lexington's 137.

However, when you think of New York eligible yearlings, in many cases you are thinking well beyond racing in New York. The influence of the state's two premier stallions – Chapter Seven on the trot and Huntsville on the pace – reach far beyond the Empire State. It's true that they come close to domination in restricted New York events, but they, especially Chapter Seven, are also a significant force on the Grand Circuit.

Lexington offered 59 yearlings by Chapter Seven. Harrisburg has significantly less of an offering, but nevertheless a not to be sneered at 31.

Harrisburg has the lead in yearlings by Huntsville with 29 to Lexington's 24.

There is a new kid on the block with pacers in New York with Blue Chip Farms outstanding son of Sweet Lou, Cannibal.

Cannibal's offering at Lexington was well received with 16 of his yearlings bringing $796,000 an average of $49,875.

Harrisburg has more than double the number of Cannibal yearlings with 38 scheduled to be sold.

Their competition will be great though. His counterpart on the racetrack and his paternal half-brother Confederate has 32 selling in his first Harrisburg group. In addition, there will be 29 yearlings by Sweet Lou himself which I believe might represent the highest number ever on offer by Sweet Lou at Harrisburg.

NEW YORK SIRE STAKES 2026

➤ 15.1 MILLION IN PURSES

Supporting competitive racing opportunities and showcasing the talent of New York's Standardbred industry.

➤ $1.75 MILLION IN BREEDERS AWARDS

Recognizing and rewarding the breeders who contribute to the continued success of New York's Standardbred breeding program.

➤ $1 MILLION BIG APPLE TROT & PACE

Continuing to provide premier racing opportunities for two-year-old trotters and pacers on the New York circuit.

➤ Bred in New York. Built to compete. Born to win.

Whereas, in my opinion, the quality of the Ontario pacing yearlings were somewhat more appealing than the trotters, the opposite is the case in New York with the trotters holding sway over the pacers.

The promise of this week's column was to pick a stable of 12 Harrisburg, New York-eligible yearlings, with three from each category in order of preference. So, let's get at it!

TROTTING COLTS

Hip #135 Rami Hanover – Chapter Seven–Ramona Hill–Muscle Hill. Consigned by Hanover Shoe Farms, Inc.

If ever there was a colt with a Hambletonian pedigree, this colt could be the one. The first colt and third foal out of a Hambletonian winning mare who earned $1,363,050. Her first two foals are stakes winning fillies including this season's 2-year-old Nevis Peak ($323,380).

Hip #54 Written In Ink – Chapter Seven–Blk Thai Optional–Muscle Hill. Consigned by Concord Stud Farm, agent.

Another colt with a Hambletonian pedigree. He is a full brother to the Hambletonian and Dan Patch winner Cool Papa Bell ($1,084,278) and a sibling to three other stakes winners.

Hip #164 Slew – Chapter Seven–Swinging Royalty–R C Royalty. Consigned by Concord Stud Farm, agent.

A full brother to four stakes winners including Ahundreddollarbill ($972,356), Slay ($748,931), Royal Mission ($472,022), and Royal Filly ($246,209). From the multiple stakes winner Swinging Royalty ($255,880), a sibling to four other stakes winners.

TROTTING FILLIES

Hip #88 Live Long Hanover – Chapter Seven–Lifetime Pursuit–Cantab Hall. Consigned by Hanover Shoe Farms, Inc.

Sister to the world champion and Dan Patch winner Super Chapter ($2,955,066) and out of the world champion and multiple stakes winner Lifetime Pursuit ($1,065,586).

Hip #43 Coffeeshop Hanover – Chapter Seven–Crucial–Father Patrick. Consigned by Hanover Shoe Farms, Inc.

Sister to the Dan Patch and multiple stakes winner Maryland ($1,719,655) and out of the multiple stakes winner Crucial ($528,598), a sibling to four stakes winners including the Dan Patch and O'Brien winner Venerable ($1,187,798).

Hip #166 TH Aliza – Chapter Seven–TH Present–Royalty For Life. Consigned by Concord Stud Farm, agent.

First foal from a stakes winning sibling to the pair of multiple O'Brien winners Logan Park ($1,908,550) and Willys Home Run ($769,944).

PACING COLTS

Hip #78 Gibby Meet Freddie – Huntsville–Jag Out–American Ideal. Consigned by Preferred Equine Mkt, Inc, agent.

Brother to the multiple stakes winner Two Twenty Swift ($376,488) and the third foal from the multiple stakes winner Jag Out ($457,423) a sibling to the stakes winner Rockford Peach ($114,874).

Hip #402 Twin B Ladykiller – Cannibal–Lovely Erin–Sportswriter. Consigned by Twinbrook Farms.

Half-brother to the stakes winner Twin B High Tide ($175,460) and out of the stakes winner Lovely Erin, a sibling to Wake Up Peter ($907,535) and Art's Temptress ($384,445).

Hip #111 Amir Springs – Huntsville–Music Row–Western Ideal. Consigned by Twinbrook Farms, agent.

Sibling to five stakes winners including Music Is Art ($507,203) and out of a stakes winning sibling to Allamerican Native ($1,296,304) and Allamerican Nadia ($504,465).

PACING FILLIES

Hip #86 Hunting Days – Huntsville–Lazy Day Hanover–Betting Line. Consigned by Concord Stud Farm, agent.

First foal from a stakes winning half-sister to the world champion and multiple stakes winner Dealt A Winner ($1,544,197) and the dam of Legendary Hanover ($1,088,681) and Linedrive Hanover ($655,580).

Hip #180 Peachville – Huntsville–Wannashakeyourtree–Art Major. Consigned by Weaver Standardbred Farm.

Sister to the stakes winner Shakeitonthebeach. Third foal from the stakes winner Wannashakeyourtree, a sibling to three stakes winners and from the immediate maternal family of world champion Bulldog Hanover ($2,419,000).

Hip #51 Flourish Hanover – Huntsville–Fashion Katie–Village Jolt. Consigned by Hanover Shoe Farms, Inc.

Sister or half-sister to three stakes winners including Early Action ($731,400) and Fabulous Hanover ($188,695).

Winbak yearling manager Jimmy Ladwig.

Winbak's Jimmy Ladwig has been along for Bettors Delight's entire $400 million ride

by Dave Briggs

When your farm bred the top stallion by progeny earnings by either a standardbred or thoroughbred, it's worth celebrating. If you're the man that sold that horse in your very first year as the yearling manager for one of harness racing's iconic farms, doubly so.

In 1999, Jimmy Ladwig was in his first year as the yearling manager for Winbak Farm when the Joe Thomson-owned outfit sold a plain brown horse at the Standardbred Horse Sales Company (SHSC) auction in Harrisburg, PA for $65,000 to John Grant of Ontario. Twenty-seven years later, that horse, Bettors Delight is approaching a whopping $400 million in progeny earnings as his sire days come to a close. That's about $170 million more than the next closest standardbred (Camluck, $231 million) and about $140 million more than the top thoroughbred of all time, Into Mischief ($260 million).

Today, Bettors Delight, a 28-year-old son of Cam's Card Shark out of Classic Wish, is retired from active stallion duty. He bred just 12 horses – all but two by frozen semen – in 2026.

That means there won't be many more sons or daughters of Bettors Delight coming. It also makes the three Bettors Delight yearlings Winbak is selling at the SHSC extra special to Ladwig, whose career has been in lockstep with the great stallion.

The three Bettors Delights Winbak is selling in Harrisburg are:

- Hip #33 Mischief Night, a first foal out of Darkness, a Downbytheseaside mare that is out of Loving Caroline, a sister to $880,000-winner Divine Caroline.
- Hip #243 Shake N Shimmy, a colt out of Blueberry Shake, a sister to $600,000-winner Chotat Milk.
- Hip #903 Destiny's Delight, a filly out of $700,000 winner Thong.

In total, Winbak is set to sell some 90 yearlings – 70 in the select portion of the sale and another 21 in the Mixed Sale.

Compared to Winbak's Lexington consignment, Ladwig said at the SHSC they have, "a few more Father Patricks, a few more Six Packs, a little more PA-breds, some Stay Hungrys, a real nice Papi Rob that's probably a standout, and some Canadian-breds."

"We are selling the brother to [Jug-winner] Redland Rocket Man," Ladwig said of the Bulldog Hanover—Granny Hanover colt. "He's a great looking colt and we're excited about him. He's Hip #66 [Redlandshananagins]. I haven't seen him, but [Winbak Ontario manager] Pat [Woods] says good things about him, so I'm excited to see him and sell him and see how he does."

Ladwig said Winbak is also excited about the first crop of Beach Glass, who stands at their Ontario farm.

"You see one coming and you can pretty much tell that it's a Beach Glass," Ladwig said. "He does stamp them pretty good. Nice, big, stout-looking horses. Usually they have a cool-looking star on their head.

"We had a gorgeous Beach Glass that unfortunately hurt herself and got precluded from the sale, but, man, she was one of the prettiest fillies you've ever seen. She wants to be a racehorse. She's healed up pretty good and I'm just getting her ready to go down to [Winbak head trainer] Jeff [Fout's] and I'm hoping she turns into something because she's gorgeous. She just looks the part. She would've been a top filly at the sale.

"Usually that stuff doesn't really get me too much, but when it happened to this filly I was just, like, 'Oh my God!' I was heartbroken. It kind of got me right in the stomach."

As for those selling at the SHSC, Ladwig mentioned two Beach Glass yearlings specifically:

- Hip #631 Beach Tussle, a filly out of Best Tussle.
- Hip #711 Hallie Beach, a filly out of Hallie Gallie.

Other pacers Ladwig highlighted included:

- Hip #461 Clark Kent, a Papi Rob Hanover colt out of Spreckles.
- Hip #579 Hold The Key, a Sweet Lou filly out of Village Madonna.
- Hip #250 Mooving Target, a Cattlewash filly out of Bullet Point.

On the trotting side, Ladwig pointed out:

- Hip #14 Holy Breeze, a Father Patrick colt out of Baileys Breeze.
- Hip #40 Seven Dances, a Chapter Seven filly out of Donnas Dance.
- Hip #242 Greenshu Sue, a Greenshoe filly out of Blue Yonder.
- Hip #195 Unpack It, a Six Pack colt out of Adreamcomestru As.

As a group, Ladwig said Winbak's consignment is "pretty standard." But then, Bettors Delight was initially thought to be ordinary.

Alliance Bloodstock's second Harrisburg consignment marked by balance, variety

by James Platz

Alliance Bloodstock brings its second consignment to Harrisburg this week, offering a 2026 roster of 54 yearlings. The organization, an endeavor helmed by multiple Diamond Creek Farm employees, will agent an even split of 27 trotters and 27 pacers at the Pennsylvania State Farm Show Complex. Alliance has worked to build a clientele whose horses outnumber those of Diamond Creek, and this week, the consignment will not have a single yearling from the farm.

"In our second year we're starting to really turn some heads because I think it's probably obvious to everybody, we've got a fairly young team for the industry," said Shaun Laungani, Diamond Creek vice president and Alliance Bloodstock team member.

"A lot of people don't know that it's not owned by Diamond Creek. Some of the staff at Diamond Creek came together and Adam [Bowden] gave us the opportunity to represent the horses at the sales, which is something that a bunch of us want to do. So, we essentially run it with the Diamond Creek staff, but independent of Diamond Creek. It's got a different feel to it because it's run by some young and hungry people."

Andrew Kramer is also part of the Alliance team. Bloodstock and sales coordinator at Diamond Creek, his role at Alliance is that of sales manager. Kramer talked about the strength of the Harrisburg consignment.

"I think we've got a really nice mixed bag for Harrisburg," Kramer said. "We've got a little bit of everything for everybody. We have some top-end horses, I think, and some nice middle-of-the-market horses for your smaller trainers and owners. We have a couple of Cannibals and Confederates, which I'm pretty excited about seeing how they did really well in Lexington."

On the pacing side the fillies outnumber the colts 14-13, while the roster consists of 15 trotting colts and 12 fillies.

"The strength for us is usually the New York or Ontario-bred horses," Kramer said. "I think Harrisburg is quite a big place for Canadians to come down to buy a couple good yearlings every year. So, I always feel like the Ontario-breds usually are the strongest, like last year we sold a quarter-million-dollar Cattlewash colt to Determination Stable."

The consignment includes 10 Ontario-bred yearlings, one of which is a King Of The North filly selling on the first day. Hip #95 Queen Contender is out of Muscle Mass mare Major Muscle, who has hit with her first two foals. The filly, raised at Princeton Farms, is a full-sister to Grade 3 Champlain winner Major Contender, a freshman with a mark of 1:54.

"I think she's almost at $200,000 in earnings as of now," Kramer said of Major Contender. "She was a $110,000 yearling, so that's a really good one coming in."

Another Princeton Farms-raised yearling that sells in the Monday session is Chanel, cataloged as Hip #177. The filly is a Pennsylvania and Kentucky-eligible baby from the first crop of Confederate. She is out of a Bettors Delight sister to triple millionaire and former Horse of the Year Twin B Joe Fresh.

"She's a super pretty filly," said Laungani. "Maybe one of the most attractive heads at the sale. She's got a good video."

Selling Tuesday is Hip #496 Sauron, a Muscle Hill colt and second foal from the Walner mare Romantic Tile. He is another Princeton Farms entry Laungani believes will draw attention.

"You've got to watch the video," Laungani said. "He's something else now. The first one was a Tactical Landing, a really big, growthy Tactical Landing."

"It's no surprise that he [first foal] hasn't started. If I was a buyer, I would not let that scare me. This is a well-pedigreed Walner mare, you know the family of T C I, so this Muscle Hill colt would be very closely related to T C I in blood. A Muscle Hill colt probably still gives you the very best chance, besides Chapter Seven, to have a stallion on your hands."

Laungani added that Princeton Farms horses have performed well on the track this season, pointing to the success of Major Contender, Grade 3 Bluegrass division winner Rumble And Sway and Loud Luxury, a winner that has hit the board in six of 11 freshman attempts.

"There were plenty of others where the mares have produced, they had 2-year-olds that were earning money back for their owners, so we expect that there'll be a lot of return buyers for Princeton, so that's exciting for them," he said.

The Alliance consignment also includes a trio of yearlings from the final dispersal of Sergent Stables. Stay Hangry, Hip #196, sells early Tuesday. The Stay Hungry filly is Pennsylvania and Florida Breeders-eligible, and is a sibling to six-figure earning Cattlewash filly TH Rizzo.

Always B Caroline, Hip #221, is a Pennsylvania and Florida-eligible Always B Miki filly. She is out of a Somebeachsomewhere sister to Dan Patch Award winner Divine Caroline. The dam has produced three winners from four foals. Completing the trio is Hip #364 Friar, a Pennsylvania and Florida-eligible Father Patrick colt from a Chapter Seven mare whose family includes T C I.

"These are the last three horses that Sergent Stables bred going through the ring," Laungani said. "So that's a big deal. There will be no more."

Laungani's sleeper pick from the consignment is Woodside Legacy, Hip #637, a Pennsylvania and Kentucky-eligible Father Patrick filly from a quarter-million-dollar-earning Chapter Seven mare. The bay was raised at Woodside Farm in Wolcottville, IN.

"Day 3, probably going to be a great value, a Father Patrick filly that's dual eligible and is built the right way, goes the right way," he said. "Some real quality here. I think she provides people amazing opportunity to race and then also breed."

Anvil and Lace's Beth Yontz.

"She is out of the first crop of Volume Eight," Beth said. "This filly paddocks so well and the second dam [Temple Blue Chip] is the dam of Vivid Wise As IT, who earned over $3.6 million. The first foal [My Carressable] out of Deal Wise has now raced and is a winner. This is the second foal. The Volume Eights aren't the biggest, but all are very athletic and move great in the field. "As a first crop, you don't know how people will perceive them, but this filly stands out to me."

Anvil and Lace is equally enthusiastic about its roster of pacing colts.

"I have a Cannibal out of Boots N Saddle [Hip #244 Cannibal Lecter]," Beth said. "His dam has had seven foals, five of them winners, so the production is there. This one is also dual-eligible in New York and Kentucky, so that certainly adds to his appeal."

A son of Sweet Lou, Hip #559 Rein Over Terror, is another prospect Beth believes has potential and deserves a closer look.

"The mare [Smuggle Tina] hasn't produced like she should have," Beth said. "She has had four foals and only two winners, but this is a fantastic-looking individual. The mare should be producing more than she has, so maybe Sweet Lou is what we need. That's one I would definitely keep an eye out for."

With 38 yearlings available over three days, Beth is hopeful buyers will find plenty of options in the Anvil and Lace lineup.

"I have a nice group of trotting fillies and pacing colts," she said. "We have fewer trotting colts and pacing fillies, but we're very happy with the quality of these yearlings. People will find dual-eligible ones and others who look to have plenty of upside. I haven't seen Horsepower GV [Hip #80, Chapter Seven—Katie's Lucky Day] in person — he's going straight to the sale — but he looks like the real deal.

"When I step back and look at what we have available for Harrisburg, there is a lot to be excited about."

Anvil and Lace excited about their eye-catching Harrisburg consignment

by Chris Lomon

Balance is once again the calling card for Anvil and Lace, the standardbred operation run by Beth Yontz and her husband, Doug, at this year's Harrisburg sale.

"We were pleased overall with the Lexington sale, and we're looking forward to this one," Beth said. "This should be fun. We have some very nice yearlings who I think will catch the eye of buyers."

Anvil and Lace's lineup at Harrisburg features a mix of yearlings by prominent sires, dual-eligible prospects, and others who fit into the under-the-radar category.

Hip #73 Book A Spa Day, tops the list of Beth's must-see yearlings.

"This is Jiggy Jog's sister," she said. "She has it all. When you take her out, she is what a trotting filly is supposed to look and move like, with the pedigree [Walner—Hot Mess Hanover] to match."

Beth also has high praise for Hip #34 Make It Lass, a daughter of Volume Eight by the Muscle Mass mare Deal Wise At IT.

Concord Stud Farm roster packed with options for buyers

by James Platz

The 88th edition of the Standardbred Horse Sales Company's annual sale will kick off Monday (Nov. 2), and Concord Stud Farm will once again have a strong presence. In fact, it will be the largest consignment that the Cream Ridge, NJ-based nursery has ever brought to the Pennsylvania State Farm Show Complex, with 111 yearlings set to sell.

"We got here by current clients increasing the numbers that they're bringing, and then I agreed to take on some additional clients as well," said Concord's Julie Meirs of the triple-digit consignment prior to an out. "All of a sudden, we're at 112. And I did cut it off or there could have been more. We have a lot of clients that have increased their number of mares, and then we also have more clients that seem to be selling their yearlings this year rather than retaining and training themselves."

Minus an out in the third session, the consignment is tilted toward trotters, 64 cataloged versus 47 pacers. The trotting roster is evenly split between colts and fillies, while Concord is offering more pacing colts (26) than fillies (21).

"We always pride ourselves on having something for everybody and we will definitely continue that trend," Meirs said. "We've got from the top down to something that's not going to bring as much, but still has great potential to be phenomenal on the racetrack."

The consignment is up considerably in number when compared to 2025, when 76 yearlings passed through the ring and averaged $59,184. Concord traditionally sells several babies in the Monday session. This year, a whopping 42 — close to 40 per cent of the roster — will sell in the first session. Meirs is confident Concord's Harrisburg offerings can build on the farm's Lexington selection, where the group grossed over $4.8 million and averaged $103,021.

"I was thrilled with how we ended up in Lexington," she said. "You know, an average of over $100,000, you have to be thrilled with that. So, I was really happy with our Lexington results. We always seem to have a strong consignment at Harrisburg. No matter what we take to Lexington, we always have something at Harrisburg, so, you know, we're not done yet."

Yearling eligibility has become a focal point with buyers, with more than half of the Concord roster possessing additional eligibility. Fifty-seven babies are eligible to the Kentucky program. When reviewing the catalog, the farm's offering covers several jurisdictions.

"We've got a bunch from Canada, New Jersey, New York, and Pennsylvania," Meirs said.

The consignment is made up of 14 yearlings representing Ontario, 21 from New York, 21 from New Jersey, and 39 from Pennsylvania. The rest are Ohio or Kentucky-sired.

One of Concord's top offerings Monday is Hip #91 Finest Chapter, a triple-eligible (New York, Kentucky, and New Jersey Standardbred Development Fund) Chapter Seven filly. Out of Cantab Hall mare Fine Tuned Lady, the filly is a half-sister to millionaire and Grade 1 Mohawk Million winner Oh Well.

Also selling Monday is Swinging Surprise, Hip #163, a Chapter Seven half-sister to Swinging Royalty, dam of Slay and Ahundreddollarbill. The filly was bred and raised by Jonas Schlabach of Apple Creek, OH. Also, from the same farm and same family is Slew, cataloged as Hip #164. He is a Chapter Seven colt out of Swinging Royalty. Another Schlabach-bred entry is Hip #29 Counter Clockwise. The Walner filly is out of a sister to Dan Patch Award winner Allegiant.

Written In Ink, Hip #54, is another Monday standout. The triple-eligible Chapter Seven colt is a full-brother to Hambletonian champion and Dan Patch Award winner Cool Papa Bell. Selling late in the first session is Hip #179 Glory Road, a New Jersey and Kentucky-eligible Muscle Hill sister to New Jersey Classic winner Custom.

Also on Day 1 is Vintage Style, Hip #45, a Pennsylvania and Kentucky-eligible Captain Corey filly. She is the second foal from Enjoystyle No, whose first foal, I can Hardly Wait, is a two-time winner. TH Aliza, Hip #166, is a Chapter Seven filly that is the first foal from a sister to three-time O'Brien Award winner Logan Park.

Concord's consignment also includes a pair of yearlings from French trotting champion Idao De Tillard, both selling Wednesday. Colt Sonic Field, Hip #794, is a first foal from a Trixton mare, while Hip #827 Dark Mirror, is the first foal from a Donato Hanover mare. Both are New Jersey Standardbred Development Fund eligible.

"The mares were brought over in foal," Meirs said. "Stefan Balazsi (Order By Stable) always seems to be out in front with trying new things with foreign stallions. It will be interesting to see how they are received."

Unlikely Allies, Hip #42, is one of 20 pacers slated to sell Monday. The triple-eligible Confederate colt is out of Somebeachsomewhere mare Three Way Split, who is a half-sister to world champion and O'Brien Award winner Tall Drink Hanover.

Another notable pacing colt is Hip #60 Loudemetry, a triple-eligible son of Sweet Lou. This is the first colt from Somebeachsomewhere mare Geometry, dam of Dan Patch Award winner Geocentric. The colt is one of several horses raised at Anthony Perretti Farm. Perretti is consigning with Concord Stud Farm for the first time, bolstering the pacing offerings.

Hip #151 Pickets Charge, is another Perretti Farms-raised yearling selling Monday. The triple-eligible Confederate colt is the first foal from multiple graded stakes winner Mikala, an Always B Miki mare with over $600,000 on her card.

C Is For Captain, Hip #161, is a Concord-raised dual-eligible Captaintreacherous colt. He is the first foal from Betting Line mare C Is For Cookie, a half-sister to the great racehorse and stallion Sweet Lou.

One of the top Canadian-breds in the consignment is Hip #20 Beach Mosaic, an Ontario, Kentucky, and New Jersey Standardbred Development Fund-eligible Beach Glass filly. She is a half-sister to graded stakes-placed Manolete, a half-million-dollar winner.

2026 SHSC YEARLING SALE AT HARRISBURG

STANDARD BRED HORSE SALE COMPANY

Kountry Lane Standardbreds brings trotter-focused group to Harrisburg

by James Platz

Kountry Lane Standardbreds sold the topper last month at Lexington when Kountry Prince brought a lofty $825,000. The Wakarusa, IN-based breeding operation looks to continue the momentum at Harrisburg, with a small consignment of seven yearlings set to sell at the Pennsylvania State Farm Show Complex.

"We do have some nice trotters, that's for sure," said farm manager Duane Miller.

The roster is trotter-heavy, with five diagonal-gaited yearlings, three of which sell on the first day. The first to sell Monday is Kountry Imelda, Hip #25, a New Jersey and Kentucky-eligible Tactical Landing filly. She is the first foal from Father Patrick mare If The Shoe Fits, a graded stakes-placed six-figure earner.

"The most eye-catching individual is the Tactical Landing out of If The Shoe Fits," Miller said. "That is a Father Patrick mare that was a reasonably priced mare that really was a surprise to us. She's probably thrown us as nice of a yearling. This filly could have been a Lexington yearling, but I thought the pedigree probably didn't warrant going to Lexington."

Two Kountry Lane yearlings sell consecutively Monday as Kountry Isabelle is slotted as Hip #76, preceded in the book by Kountry Cathy, cataloged as Hip #75. Muscle Hill filly Kountry Isabelle is dual eligible to New Jersey and Kentucky. She is out of Chapter Seven mare Inspired To Go, a sister to Breeders Crown champion Martiniontherocks. The mare's first foal was exported prior to racing.

"The Muscle Hill is something; she's a special filly," Miller said. "She's got a great video, and a nice looking individual out of a young mare, so that one should just sell itself."

Filly Kountry Cathy is dual eligible to Pennsylvania and Kentucky, sired by Tactical Approach out of graded stakes-placed Cash Infusion, a sister to Swinging Royalty, dam of Slay, Royal Mission, and near-millionaire Ahundreddollarbill.

"Kountry Cathy is out of a great family that includes Slay and Ahundreddollarbill, and obviously a family that sells well," Miller said.

The consignment also includes another Tactical Approach filly, Hip #540 Kountry Michelle. The dual-eligible yearling is out of Cantab Hall mare May Karp, sister to millionaire Elista Hanover. She sells in the Tuesday session.

Kentucky Eligible for lucrative 3 and 4 Yr Old KY Sire Stakes

"There is nothing wrong with these two fillies," Miller said. "I looked at the Tactical Approaches at Lexington. They did not stand great up front. These do, so I'm cautiously optimistic that Harrisburg won't grade them as hard or won't be as tough on them as Lexington."

King Of The North colt Kountry Steve, Hip #412, rounds out Kountry Lane's trotters on Tuesday. The Ontario and Kentucky-eligible colt is the third foal from quarter-million-dollar winner Spoiled Princess, whose family includes the great Broadway Schooner. Half-brother Kountry Jim won three straight beginning in late September and has doubled his earnings since cataloging, boosting Kountry Steve's page.

"We have two Canadian-breds," Miller said. "The King Of The North is a beautiful individual with a great video and I'm pretty excited about him because of the response to King Of The North up at the London sale. They were the highest trotting stallion selling out there, so he should fit in really well at Harrisburg too."

The other Ontario-bred yearling from the consignment is pacing colt Kountry Ace, Hip #519, a dual-eligible son of Bulldog Hanover selling Tuesday. He is the first foal from Bettors Delight mare Amazing Dream N, a graded stakes winner on two continents.

"He's a smaller individual," Miller said. "You cannot fault this colt other than say he's on the small side. But he has correct conformation. Since he's dual-eligible it gives buyers more options. They don't have to go to Canada."

The other pacer in the consignment is Hip #206 Kountry Sky, which sells early in Tuesday's session. The dual-eligible Captaintreacherous filly is the second foal from Bettors Delight mare Shebeaknockout, a sister to the top racehorse and broodmare Shebestingin, dam of two-time Dan Patch Award winner Perfect Sting.

"She's a smaller filly," Miller said. "The second dam, there's just all kinds of production there. That's a nice family."

Last year, the first for Kountry Lane Standardbreds at Harrisburg, the consignor's six-yearling group averaged $53,333. Miller is optimistic this year's roster can top that figure.

"We have a nicer overall group than we had last year, so I would be a little disappointed if we didn't beat last year's average," he said. "I've been wrong many a time in the horse business. It's hard to predict, but I think it's a better group than we had last year."

Hunterton Sales Agency offering expanded Harrisburg roster

by James Platz

Hunterton Sales Agency arrives at the Pennsylvania State Farm Show Complex with a bumper crop of yearlings set to sell over the first three days of the Standardbred Horse Sale. Cataloging 88 babies — 53 trotters and 35 pacers — the Paris, KY nursery features a record offering for the sale, which kicks off Nov. 2.

“It’s crazy,” said Steve Stewart, who operates Hunterton with his wife, Cindy. “We have a whole lot more. If you look out through there, there’s hardly any stallion that’s not represented in the group. We’re very well represented, which I think is a good thing.”

The trotters are divided between 22 colts and 31 fillies representing 18 different sires. Gimpanzee has the largest representation, with nine yearlings selling, followed by Tactical Approach (seven), Volume Eight, Green Manalishi S, and Father Patrick (five apiece), and four by Tactical Landing.

Lovelorn, Hip #92, leads Hunterton’s first-day offerings, one of 12 selling Monday. The Pennsylvania and Kentucky-eligible Volume Eight colt is a brother to Grade 1 Mohawk Million and Oak Grove Trotting Derby runner-up Endurance.

Cindy Stewart.

“He’s just like his father,” Steve said one day after videoing the Harrisburg roster. “He ain’t big, but boy, I’m anxious to see his video. I told my partner, I said, ‘It looked like somebody put hot pepper under his damn tail.’ I mean, he was trotting so damn fast, I’m surprised he stayed trotting, but extremely fast.”

The colt is from the first crop of Volume Eight, the Dan Patch Award-winning son of Chapter Seven standing in Pennsylvania. Five yearlings by the sire sold at Lexington, averaging $53,400.

“He’s one that people need to really look at, in my opinion,” Steve said of the sire. “I don’t have a dog in the fight. I think at the end of the day, he could be another one like Captain Corey. Endurance, when he sold, people weren’t falling over themselves to buy Captain Coreys. They are now, if you can find one.”

Selling two spots earlier Monday is Tactical Landing colt Hitchcock, Hip #90, who is eligible to New Jersey and Kentucky. He is out of Father Patrick mare Devilish Delight, a 100 per cent-producing mare that is dam to Devilish Hill, a winner of over $300,000.

“He’s the opposite of #92,” Steve said. “He’s a great, big, handsome colt, and obviously the mare hasn’t missed.”

Steve also highlighted Hip #307 Princess Citrus, a Gimpanzee filly out of a Muscle Hill filly that has two winners from two previous foals including Wellwood Memorial winner Ocean Storm. She will pass through the sale ring Tuesday.

Second foal and the half-brother to WORDPLAY p,2, 1:55.3-'26 ($25,421).

Immediate family of HES WATCHING p,3, 1:46.4 ($1,129,215).

"That's a very nice one," he said. "She moves great, has good size for a Gimpanzee, she's very nice."

Steve noted that his consignment is heavier on Gimpanzees due to the consensus on the sire earlier in the year when selections were made for Lexington prior to the racing season.

"The opinion of him is so much higher now than it was back in February and March when they were deciding," he said. "So, we have an extra number of Gimpanzees in the sale. Things change from the spring to the fall, and that kind of thing of who's popular, who's in demand, and who's not."

The pacing side of Hunterton's roster includes 16 colts and 19 fillies from 12 different sires. The group is led by seven from Perfect Sting, six by Cannibal, and five by Pebble Beach. Social Animal, Hip #36, is a New York and Kentucky-eligible Cannibal filly selling early Monday. She is the second foal from Downbytheseaside mare Lioness By The Sea. The dam is a sister to near-$800,000 winner Queen Of The Pride and Roaring To Go, dam of millionaire Unreasonable.

"All she did was just pace," Steve said. "All the time in the paddock. Pace, pace, pace. And very, very talented. She's a Cannibal, so it's a first-crop stallion."

Hunterton comes to Harrisburg after a strong Lexington Selected showing. The consignor topped $11 million in total sales for the second straight year, while producing a $110,538 per-yearling average from 106 sold. Last year, Hunterton Sales Agency sold 52 yearlings at Harrisburg, averaging $44,635.

Steve believes this year's Standardbred Horse Sale will follow some of the same positive trends observed in the other fall auctions that preceded.

"As someone that sells 200 yearlings a year, it's healthy," he said of the industry. "To me, it's healthy enough that there's reason to breed mares. The beauty of our game is right now it seems like we're just kind of right where we want to be. I think the business is healthy and you can get a good return on your investment."

2026 SHSC YEARLING SALE AT HARRISBURG

STANDBRED HORSE SALE COMPANY

Fox Den Farm brings 'PA' power to Harrisburg

by Debbie Little

Fox Den Farm rolls into the Standardbred Horse Sales Company auction in Harrisburg with 21 yearlings, all as agent.

The Frederick County, MD farm has yearlings across all three days, with six on Day 1, three on Day 2, and 12 on Day 3.

Elmer Smucker's Mahantongo Farms bred and raised yearlings make up almost half of Fox Den's consignment including five on Day 1.

All of the Mahantongo horses are literally PA-breds.

"So, we wanted to do a little bit of branding from our farm," Smucker said of the PA that leads the names of all of his yearlings. "We raise everything here in PA, but probably one of the biggest parts is it's so much easier to choose names when you have something individual in the name like that. Therefore, we went with PA, and we also do so with my other businesses. We do some roofing, and that's PA Roofers. And we put gutters on for people, and that's PA Gutters. So, we just stuck with that line."

The first yearling in the ring at Pennsylvania State Farm Show Complex from the Fox Den consignment is Hip #6 PA Caitlyn, a Confederate filly out of Sweet Lou mare Alexa's Fantasy.

"So that's probably one of the best horses in our consignment," Smucker said. "Obviously, when we see where they're starting, you know, you think through those challenges of going early and so forth. They do allow you to swap horses around, but we said, 'You know what? That's just the way things fell. We're going to keep that horse in there.' She's got a really athletic video.

"The part that we're probably most excited about with her would be obviously her pedigree, but her size. She's going to be a big horse and coming from Confederate, where he was on the smaller side, but really quick, we're excited to combine those two."

All told, Mahantongo has 10 horses in the sale, including six Confederates, five fillies and one colt.

"I don't mind fillies," Smucker said. "Every one of our Confederates physically is really pretty. I think that the fillies have some residual value for broodmares, and here on the farm, honestly, fillies are a lot easier than stud colts to manage. So, we don't mind fillies at all."

Nominating 2YOs to Meadowlands 2027 Early Closers

Early Closer Payment Schedule

February 15	One Time $400 Early Closer Participation Payment for 2YO
March 15	Nomination Payments for Meadowlands 2YO Early Closers Begin

 Eligible Stallions for Foals of 2025

DUE FEBRUARY 15

Any horse by a sire who is listed as eligible MUST make a one-time $400 Meadowlands EC Participation payment by February 15, 2027 to gain the option of nominating to Meadowlands 2YO Early Closers for the 2027 season and continuing for the life of the horse. Any horse from a stallion that is not farm sponsored must pay the full $600.

Only those 2-year-olds who have made the aforementioned participation payment by February 15, 2027 will be permitted to race in the 2YO baby races and be eligible for nomination to Meadowlands Early Closers in subsequent seasons for life of the horse.

The entire series of nominating and sustaining payments must then be made for the horse to be eligible to race in the chosen races.

Nomination and sustaining payments on Meadowlands Early Closers for 2YOs will be pushed back to begin on March 15 and adjusted accordingly.

Smucker touched briefly on the rest of his Confederates:

- Hip #24 PA Chrystal is a filly out of Captain's Muse.

"So, she's a little bit more of a medium-sized filly, but still has got some stretch to her," Smucker said. "The first two foals from this mare were a Perfect Sting and a Sweet Lou. The Perfect Sting was a good filly at 2. The Sweet Lou, he did win the Standardbred Stake there in Ohio, so they were pretty excited about him, but they did shut him down for the year now, and are excited to see what he does next year. So, we're excited for this one. We think that the Captaintreacherous broodmare meets with the Sweet Lou line, so that's why we're excited to breed her to Confederate, and hopefully you can get some of that Captaintreacherous strength with the quickness of a Confederate."

- Hip #165 PA Callie Dawn is a filly out of Tall Glass Hanover.

"So, she was one that, from the day she was born, we were super excited with her build," Smucker said. "Just the package physically for what we're looking for from a breeder standpoint, stature-wise. Like the rest of the Confederates, she's just so smooth. That's probably the biggest thing that jumped out to me about our Confederates is just how smooth they are in the paddock... The first foal had a beaten time of [1]:49 and a piece, so we're excited to see what this one will do. Her mom is from a filly family, so obviously for the first filly and first crop of Confederate, we're super excited about her as well."

- Hip #420 PA Candy is a filly out of Mimado.

"Mimado was a fast Lazarus mare... this one could be a little bit of a sleeper," Smucker said. "They put her in Day 2 because Dale was a little bit worried last spring that she'd be a little bit on the small side. She's a little bit of a smaller horse, but I think she'll still be large enough and physically, probably as correct conformationally and as sleek of a horse that we have, but a little bit smaller. So, we're excited to see if this one can perform in that range as well while being a slightly smaller horse."

- Hip #536 PA Clara is a filly out of Southwind Guiness.

"Also, a little more of a refined filly out of a Captaintreacherous mare," Smucker said. "So again, you have that Captaintreacherous cross with the Sweet Lou line. A little bit more of a refined filly, but also look at her video. I think she's still growing. I think she'll definitely be large enough, but will be more on the refined side as well."

- Hip #918 PA Copper is colt out of Harpswell.

"So, get your Kentucky eligible Confederate third to last horse in the sale," Smucker said. "He's going to be a big stretchy horse. He's maybe not as refined as some of our other Confederates are, but you put him out in the paddock and he does travel really well. So, we were super excited about that. He's on Day 3 because the mare is from a very good pedigree but hasn't produced quite as much up to this point. Obviously, we're excited to try the latest, fastest young sire on a mare like that; we're hoping to also catch some magic there."

Also selling on Day 1 are Hip #49 PA Cruiser a Sweet Lou colt out of Betting Line mare Extrilla Hanover and Hip #130 PA Cactus a Captaintreacherous colt out of Sportswriter mare Quebec Blue Chip.

"[PA Cruiser] is a big, strong colt that can still move well," Smucker said. "We are always excited when we see a Sweet Lou that has the strength to go with it as well. So hopefully he'll go on to do good things."

"Quebec Blue Chip was a really good 2-year-old... We think that this is a [great sire choice] for this mare."

In addition to his own horses, Smucker mentioned Hip #83 Hill Hayley also part of Fox Den's consignment on Day 1.

"I will say this, I do know that they have a Day 1 Muscle Hill out of Kenziesky Hanover," Smucker said of Hill Hayley. "Kenziesky Hanover was a war horse of a racehorse, really, really tough horse. She's a Cantab Hall, obviously breeding to Muscle Hill has worked historically really, really well, so they're super excited to see what that one does."

On Day 3 is Hip #714 PA Cabby a Stay Hungry filly out of Captain Crunch mare The Ideal Crunch.

"Physically, also probably one of the best in our consignment," Smucker said. "Really, really nice for a Stay Hungry. Obviously, the Big McDeal family we're excited about that. The biggest thing that I would say on this one is she is one of the nicest fillies in our barn, just really easy to work with, and wants to please you. Physically, she looks the part, but she also has the mental attitude that everybody wants."

Mahantongo's lone trotter in the sale is Hip #902 PA Charlotte a Volume Eight filly out of Donato Hanover mare Upscale.

"Obviously Volume Eight, was a super quick horse, and really good 2-year-old, which always bodes well for a sire," Smucker said. "The biggest thing with her is how sizable she is. Volume Eight was really small. This is not a small filly at all. And interestingly, Volume Eight's caretaker [Sonja Booth] was out to look at her, and she said, 'Well, she looks just like Volume Eight, she's just a lot bigger'."

Smucker, who first sent yearlings to Harrisburg — a total of three — in 2021, is happy with how his consignment has grown since then.

"One thing I will say, we've never before had a year that we were so happy with all the horses, and what they look like physically," Smucker said.

Blue Chip Farms' consignment fittingly brimming with blue-chip potential

by Chris Lomon

It is rather fitting that Blue Chip Farms' Harrisburg yearling lineup is brimming with blue-chip potential and hidden gems.

Tom Grossman, owner of Blue Chip Farms, located in Wallkill, NY, 50 miles north of Manhattan, likes what he sees in his roster of horses available this year at Harrisburg.

The consignment includes yearlings eligible to New Jersey, Delaware, New York, Pennsylvania, and Ontario, giving buyers the opportunity to compete in a lucrative slate of stakes programs. Additionally, several carry dual eligibility to Massachusetts and Kentucky, adding to their earning potential and racing opportunities.

Dave Landry
Blue Chip Farms' Tom Grossman.

"We focus on Harrisburg," Grossman said. "We only sold a small number of horses in Lexington, which left us with quite a few exciting horses, in our opinion, both for us and for our clients, at Harrisburg. I think we have a good set. I would say that we are as much New York biased as we have been in the past, perhaps a little more, which is on purpose."

TACTICAL LANDING is fastest in history to 7 Breeders Crowns

Bob Heyden

In his weekly column in Harness Racing Update, the Statistician to the Stars-Bob “Hollywood” Heyden-said, “Tactical Landing wound up with two siring credits ... and is now at seven,” listing that fact as number six on his list of 20 Breeders Crown Takeaways.

The harness racing historian continued by noting that in the history of the sport, “NO SIRE has ever had seven Crown credits FASTER than he. Wrong Sounds Right (2yo Colt Trot) on Night One and Tactical Moni (Mare Trot) Saturday (Oct. 24). With 5 total entrants in 2026 he is now a fabulous 7-19 in [just 5 of the 42 years of] the Breeders Crown!”

WRONG SOUNDS RIGHT (above) had all the right moves in the $700,000 (Grade 1) Breeders Crown final for 2-year-old colt and gelding trotters, setting both world and track records in his 1:51.3f performance.

The Mohawk Million-winner was driven by Todd McCarthy for trainer Jim Campbell and owner-breeder Runthetable Stables (Scott Farber).

TACTICAL MONI (left) handily took the $400,000 (Grade 1) Breeders Crown Mare Trot final in a track record equalling 1:51f.

The 4-year-old mare was driven to victory by Dexter Dunn for trainer Marcus Melander and owner-breeder Moni Maker Stable (Frank Antonacci & David Reid).

TACTICAL LANDING 3,1:50.2 ($812,300).
Muscle Hill – Southwind Serena – Varenne

TACTICAL LANDING will stand at Walnridge Farm of NJ, under the management of the Tactical Landing Syndicate. 2027 Stud Fee: $20,000.

"The program has never been in better shape, particularly on the pacing side, where we have a ton of interesting New York pacers, and a smattering of what I would consider Grand Circuit-type horses, depending on where their stallions are from, etc."

Since it began operations in 1969, Blue Chip has developed seven world champions and more than 1,200 stakes winners, with Blue Chip-bred and raised horses amassing over $150 million in purse earnings.

Grossman is looking to add to that success through this edition of the Harrisburg sale.

"I tend to be somewhat of a mix of skeptical and paranoid at this time of year," Grossman said. "I have to be honest, the tea leaves seem positive. I have been watching what some of the yearlings have been selling for online, in some of the other regional sales, and I hesitate to say this, but there seems to be a little more of a middle market than there has been in the last few years. The top end, I think everyone realizes that it is a totally different animal."

"The sentiment is good, the economy is amazingly good, and we are cautiously optimistic."

Grossman noted a pair of Cannibal yearlings, namely, Hip #510 Cancun Blue Chip (Cannibal—Seaside Beauty) and Hip #516 Cyrus Blue Chip (Cannibal—Shaka Blue Chip), as two who caught his attention and should likely elicit the same response from prospective buyers.

"Both of them are very nice, very well put-together yearlings," Grossman said. "Cyrus Blue Chip is Mass-eligible, so that is another perk. Seaside Beauty is from a family that is heating up, so we are very happy with the Cannibals we are bringing."

Staying on the pacing side, Grossman pointed to a trio of Shadow Play filly offerings: Hip #517 Caciopepe Bluechip (Shadow Play—Shania Blue Chip; Hip #743 Clemintinebluechip (Shadow Play—Triumphantbluechip), and Hip #773 Clove Blue Chip (Shadow Play—Lotus Seelster).

"Triumphantbluechip is another one whose reputation is starting to heat up," he said. "Her dam [Bathsheba] foaled Azrael Blue Chip, and we are very excited about this yearling, Clemintinebluechip."

A handful of Back Of The Neck yearlings, three colts, two fillies, have also impressed Grossman.

"Two of them, a colt, Hip #535 Cavalluciobluechip (Back Of The Neck—Southwind Fiesta), and a filly, Hip #705 Fortune Blue (Back Of The Neck—Greyscale), are Mass-eligible," he said. "I think that this sire quietly had a very good year. People who follow New York, I think they agree."

Grossman points to another Back Of The Neck offspring as one who deserves a second look.

"Certainly Bluechip [Hip #675], out of Destiny Blue Chip, is probably one of our nicest trotters," he said. "I think people will really zero in on this one and we're excited to see her at the sale. The mother is the nicest-looking filly we have ever raced and that's why we kept her. This foal is really nice. She might be the type to fly under the radar, but we are very high on her."

Just as he is with Hip #813 Clara Blue Chip (Captain Crunch—Twinkle In Hereye).

"This one is Mass-eligible, too," Grossman said. "I think she might fall under the radar as well, but she's a nice-looking filly and we really like her a lot."

Spring Station Bloodstock dispersal offers over 50 mares in foal

by James Platz

Spring Station Bloodstock debuted as a consignor at Lexington in 2023, offering 12 yearlings. Later this week, 57 broodmares from the Midway, KY farm will be sold at the Pennsylvania State Farm Show Complex as round one of a total dispersal, with the operation winding down. The group is consigned under the banner of Alliance Bloodstock.

"They are young and productive mares because we are still in our infancy here," Spring Station's Sasha Moczulski said of the dispersal. "Buyers have a great opportunity here."

Of the 57 mares that are set to sell, 52 are in foal, and four will be sold with recipient mares. Mon Cheval is one mare that will sell open. Her Chapter Seven filly Ma Cherie Station recently brought $475,000 at Lexington.

"We are carrying over the remaining open mares until next year," Moczulski said of the 10 broodmares not in foal this season. "We will get them in foal and then they will sell at Harrisburg next year."

Two-thirds of the dispersal are pacing mares, and the offerings consist of a combination of mothers that were campaigned by Moczulski's partner, Josh Green, or were acquired by Green and farm owner Eric Good after the completion of their racing careers.

"While this is extremely heartbreaking, I'm truly proud of what we have built here, and a lot of these are great mares to buy," Moczulski said.

One example is Hip #1094 Dandy's Sweetness, a Sweet Lou mare selling in foal to Downbytheseaside. She is a sister to recent Breeders Crown winner Dandy Ideal, and her first foal, freshman Dapper Station, is a three-time winner with a 1:52.2 mark. Moczulski worked with the mare both on the track and on the farm.

"Josh and I picked her out with Eric at the Lexington sale," she said. "I was the first one to put a harness on her, and took care of her the whole time. So that's another really cool thing. We picked her out, broke her, and were the first ones to have her on the track. Then we were able to bring her back to Kentucky and breed her. That's a really cool experience."

Hip #1121 Pass And Stow, a Betting Line sister to Dandy Ideal, is another selling from the dispersal. She was purchased at Harrisburg last year, and returns to the sale ring in foal to Downbytheseaside.

Dave Landry

Spring Station's Sasha Moczulski.

Joining Dandy's Sweetness and Pass And Stow as a highlight of the dispersal is Southwind Spring, Hip #1137. The Well Said mare is a sister to millionaire Southwind Ozzi, and has produced two winners to date. She sells open.

"She's a gorgeous mare, I mean beautiful," Moczulski said. "When you see her, she has such a presence to her."

Hip #1083 Amazing Alexa, bred to Captaintreacherous, is a Well Said sister to O'Brien Award winner Nijinsky. She has already produced seven-time winner Atte Station, clocked in 1:49.3 this season. Her latest offering, Sweet Lou colt Allure Station, brought $95,000 at Lexington.

"She's just the cutest mare you have ever seen, but do not let her cuteness fool you," said Moczulski. "She's tough as nails. She chases coyotes out of the field. She's a wonderful mother."

Duchess Hill, Hip #1096, is a full-sister to double millionaire and Dan Patch Award winner Abuckabett Hanover. She was bred this season to Papi Rob Hanover. Six-figure-earning Dance Ticket, Hip #1093, is a half-sister to two-time Dan Patch Award winner Miki And Minnie, and is in foal to Louprint.

Among the trotting mares in the dispersal, Explosionbroline S, Hip 1098, is a young Donato Hanover sister to the prolific producer Jolene Jolene, dam of Venerable, Voguish, and Crucial, and grandam of Breeders Crown champion Maryland. She sells in foal to Captain Corey.

Moczulski has strong connections to each of the mares in the dispersal, and wants to make sure the transition to new homes goes smoothly for each. She will be on hand at Harrisburg and available to talk about each with prospective buyers.

"Originally I had thought this would be too tough for me to watch, and I still think it probably will be," she said. "I love these mares and I want them to go to the best homes possible, so I'm more than happy to facilitate along the way with any questions someone might have."

STANDARD BRED HORSE SALE COMPANY

Weaver Standardbred Farm has momentum on their side heading into Harrisburg

by Debbie Little

Looking to ride the wave of recent good fortune Enos and Lexi Weaver head to the Standardbred Horse Sales Company auction in Harrisburg with nearly two dozen yearlings.

"This is the biggest consignment we've ever had in yearlings," Enos said.

This is quite a step-up numbers-wise for Weaver Standardbred Farm that debuted at the Pennsylvania State Farm Show Complex last year with nine yearlings.

"We're really excited, and looking forward to it and I don't want to say we have high expectations, you know, but have a good outlook and think it'll be a good sale," Lexi said.

Lexi said they always have an average number that they'd like to meet when they go to a sale and so far, this year has been good.

"We surpassed [the number we set] at Ohio and Lexington," she said. "We sold nine head [at Lexington], and I believe we averaged $77,000 [$78,556]. So, we were very, very happy with the small group we took down there."

The Utica, OH, farm kicks off on Day 1 with Hip #100 Michelene Star a son of Cattlewash, and Hip #180 Peachville a daughter of Huntsville.

"So, the Cattlewash colt is a nice, big, very correct colt," Enos said. Michelene Star is out of the Shadow Play mare Michelene Seelster.

"First foal of the mare, is unfortunately going to be the only foal out of the mare too, because the mare died foaling this past season," Lexi said.

Peachville is out of the Art Major mare Wannashakeyourtree.

"She might get overlooked a little bit because a 2-year-old [out of the mare] is showing up as unraced," Lexi said. "But we've been told that for Noel Daly, actually that was his favorite filly training down. She got hurt in the paddock, so he's holding on to her and going to bring her back at 3.

"[Peachville's] probably even the nicer version of her sister last year, and her sister brought $140,000. We like her confirmation a lot."

Dave Landry
Enos and Lexi Weaver.

Although the Weavers have yearlings from nine different stallions, Crazy Wow, Cannibal, and Huntsville lead the pack with seven, six, and four respectively.

Enos and Lexi highlighted three of their Cannibal colts: Hip #216 Head Chef out of Apogee Hanover, Hip #302 Canon Believes out of Eden Hanover and Hip #663 Cozy With You out of Cozy Beach.

"We're very happy with the Cannibal colts," Enos said. "Hip 216 is a very nice, racy looking colt. We're very happy with him. And then also 302 Canon Believes he's a very nice colt."

All three colts are at least New York eligible.

"[Canon Believes is a] first foal out of the mare, and he's dual eligible to New York and Massachusetts, and then 216 is not dual, but he is eligible to the New Jersey Standardbred Breeders Fund as well," Lexi said. "So, there are some options."

"Cozy With You would be a triple eligible [New York, Kentucky, Massachusetts] half-brother to Waves Of Fortune that raced really well in Ontario Sire Stakes this summer. She's a 2-year-old. He's smaller, he's a January foal, but he's perfectly put together, strong, and wicked in the paddock."

When asked what they liked so much about Cannibal, Enos said, "So actually, the first one, Head Chef #216, we pinhooked him last fall in Harrisburg. I just saw him as a baby, and he was just a diamond in the rough, and I knew once grows up, he will be a stunning looking horse, and he's that."

Lexi added, "And really, that's why we bought him too because we like Cannibals so much. We've had multiple Cannibal foals and like what we've seen overall, and we like New York and first crop."

Lexi said most of their Crazy Wows are from Jim Crawford.

"He's a big supporter of Crazy Wow," she said. "He likes them and, you know, thinks the stud fee's fair and they make a nice baby. Enos added, "And they always sell well."

As for coming up with a favorite among the Crazy Wows, Enos said, "I think they're all nice the Crazy Wows. Dazzling Wow [Hip #671], he's a very nice colt."

Dazzling Wow is out of the Father Patrick mare Dazzling Reign. The Weavers said they are happy with all of their Huntsville offspring.

Hip #382 Dudes Trip is out of Somebeachsomewhere mare Lady Dudette.

"He's a full brother to Lady Oakley who won her Excelsior Series final, and they're very, very similar," Lexi said. "The colt last year was another full-brother, but a little heavier."

Enos added, "He was a bigger colt. This colt's more of a medium-sized colt, very correct, very nice, handy colt."

Lexi added, "We love him, and we love Huntsville. We breed quite a few to Huntsville, and they seem easy to raise and turn out like nice individuals."

The Weavers said their Huntsville colts may be their own individuals, but Huntsville stamps them, and they all look very nice.

"They're all different," Enos said. "The one colt, [Hip #275] Crispy Chris, he's a very flashy, strong-built colt."

Lexi added, "And he's a late foal too, so he's only going to get better. He's a June foal."

The Weavers also mentioned Hip #506 Miss Sassy Lassie out of the Rockin Image mare Sassy Q as one to watch.

"We have a Bulldog Hanover filly [Miss Sassy Lassie] that's a really nice filly," Enos said.

Lexi added, "Bulldog's hot right now. She's dual eligible [to Ontario and Kentucky], so we're excited about her."

Lexi said one of the Cannibal colts is her favorite in their consignment.

"Honestly, Head Chef seems to wow every time I pass the stall and see him out," Lexi said. "He's just a very, very nice colt. Even in the field, you know, when he was growing up with the groups of colts, he's kind of always the one that stood out to me. So, I'm pretty proud of him."

"I wish he was dual [eligible], you know, but New York's strong and he's got the New Jersey Standardbred [Breeders Fund]."

"I think by the time we're getting to the sale you are a little higher on some than others. Some surpassed your expectations, some maybe didn't meet them, you thought they were going to grow up to be a little bit of a nicer individual. But for this group we're bringing, we're really happy with all of them. Actually, I just told Enos last week that we don't have any, I guess, junk for lack of better words, or, you know, one that really just came out and disappointed us. We're pretty happy with them overall."

THANK YOU

STALLION EARLY CLOSER PARTICIPANTS

This stallion payment made on horses listed below provides their foals of 2025 the opportunity to nominate to the Meadowlands Early closers for the life of the horse by making the one-time $400 Meadowlands Early Closer Participant payment. Nomination and sustaining payments on the foals of 2025 will not begin until March 2027. If the horse was bought or sold from a sale or farm that is not a sponsor, $600 must be paid to be eligible to race at the Meadowlands.

2026 SHSC YEARLING SALE AT HARRISBURG
STANDARD BREED HORSE SALE COMPANY

Dean and Ashley Wilson Farm look to carry momentum from London to Harrisburg

by Matthew Lomon

Triscari Video Web Marketing
Ashley and Dean Wilson.

A thrilling first awaits Dean and Ashley Wilson upon their third visit to Harrisburg, PA, for the Standardbred Horse Sales Company auction.

“We’re very excited,” said Dean. “This is our best group of yearlings that we’ve ever taken to Harrisburg. We’ve never had any on the first day, and this year we have four on the first day and two on the second.”

“We kept our top five from the group we raised to go there, along with our sixth that was raised elsewhere that we’re meeting down there. We’re really happy about what we have going to Harrisburg this year.”

The Wilsons, who did not participate in last year’s Harrisburg sale, return for the 2026 edition following another strong showing at the London Classic Yearling Sale in London, ON.

After selling 40 yearlings for a gross total of $1,351,000 to pace all consignors at the 2024 London Sale, the Wilsons sold 35 yearlings for an average of $35,629 CAD – up from the sale average of $32,663 – at this year’s auction.

“I knew going in that we wouldn’t have any of the 190 [thousand-dollar] or 150 [thousand-dollar] horses like we had last year, but I was quite confident that we would get a good price for some,” said Dean.

“I think the middle was a little stronger than it had been in years, and it was up. We got a good average for them, so we were quite pleased with the sale.”

The Kerwood, ON-based husband-and-wife team were especially successful with their own “D A” branded horses, which fetched an approximate average of $45,000.

The Wilsons are optimistic that the momentum they achieved in London will carry over to Harrisburg through the finest collection of yearlings they’ve ever offered at the sale.

Hip #128 D A King Craft, the group’s lone “D A,” bears strong family ties.

Pennsylvania Breeders Fund Awards February Eligibility Deadlines Approaching

The PA State Horse Racing Commission reminds Horsemen of two important February 2027 deadlines for paperwork due to maintain eligibility in the Pennsylvania Breeders Fund Award Program.

- Owners must register their stallions for the 2027 state breeding season by February 1, 2027.
- Owners looking to register their broodmares for the Breeders Fund Award program must register their horses as “PA-residents” by February 15, 2027 to ensure their foals are eligible for the awards.

A stallion must remain in the state, at a declared facility, from February 15 to July 4, 2027. Breeding can take place within a couple of weeks of either date. If a horse is intended to be used as both a stallion and a racehorse in 2027, approval must be gained from the Harness Racing Commission. If the horse competes out-of-state, the horse must return to his Pennsylvania home base after each out-of-state race.

For the 2026 Breeding season, broodmares whose owners want them to qualify for PA “Resident” status must have the paperwork, postmarked to the Harrisburg Commission office by February 15, 2027. Broodmares must reside in Pennsylvania for at least 180 contiguous days, including foaling, and be in foal to a registered Pennsylvania stallion for their offspring to be eligible for the breeder awards. No registered broodmare is authorized to leave the state for any reason except for a medical emergency. If that occurs, the Commission must be notified as soon as possible.

Registration forms are available by contacting:

Ryan Kell at 717-214-9053 or rkell@pa.gov or by visiting the PA State Horse Racing Commission pages at www.agriculture.pa.gov

“He’s a brother of many great siblings, including Unstable Genius who went three-for-three in the OSS [Ontario Sires Stakes] Gold before he went down to injury, which was disappointing,” Dean said. “He’s a phenomenal colt.”

“D A King Craft is a King Of The North half-brother to him [Unstable Genius], so we’re very excited about his chances.”

The Wilsons have another trotting colt by King Of The North, who may be of particular interest to fans of the Toronto Blue Jays, Hip #136 Springers Dinger.

“He’s a King Of The North brother to Touchedbyanangel, who trotted in 1:51.4 and made over $300,000 CAD this year,” Dean said. “This is just the second foal of Rubys Are Nice. He’s a very nice colt – they’re all nice colts.”

The third and final colt in the Wilsons consignment, Hip #82 Seaside Dancer, hails from superstar parents.

“On the pacing side, we have a colt out of Kendall Seelster who made over $1.2 million Canadian,” Dean said. “He’s a Downbytheseaside out of her.”

Joining the Wilsons’ three colts is a trio of fillies, led by Hip #387 Lady Kingsbridge, who shines in a class of superlatives.

“We also have another King Of The North filly who’s my favorite trotting filly that we’ve raised here,” Dean said.

“She’s out of a great mare [Lefkada], who made $140,000 [USD] and had a mark of 1:53.1 of beaten time. She’s exciting, too. We’re very proud of what we have.”

King Of The North is well represented in the Wilsons’ lot of six, siring half their yearlings.

Dean is hoping the 2021 Dan Patch Award recipient’s recent success in Ontario, particularly in the local sires stakes program, will speak to buyers in Harrisburg.

“He’s done very well in the OSS this year, and we’re excited about what King Of The North did in his first crop and we think he’ll be even better in the coming years as we go along – he’ll get stronger.”

Hip #31 Tik Tik Boom, a filly by Cattlewash out of Cusdmagicdragon, and Hip #457 Angels Landing (Tactical Landing—Peppas Angel) round out the Wilsons’ consignment.

Ahead of their most highly anticipated visit to Harrisburg yet, the Wilsons are hopeful that the laws of supply and demand, along with a sprinkle of luck, will make this trip one that delivers on its promise.

“We’ve been trying to breed to the ones that everybody wants, and we believe that’s what we have going to Harrisburg this year,” Dean said. “They all stand good, they all have good conformation, and they’re all nice-looking individuals with great pedigrees. We’re pumped going into this year.”

Hand-in-hoof approach makes Delaware Valley University consignment special

by Matthew Lomon

The Standardbred Horse Sales Company's (SHSC) yearling auction in Harrisburg, PA, marks a significant milestone for the Equine Management students at Delaware Valley University, bringing full circle a journey that began long before their yearlings' first steps.

"From day one, these yearlings and these students are together, and everybody's working in tandem to prep them," said Olivia Spofford, interim manager of the Sydney J. Markovitz Equine Breeding Center at Delaware Valley.

"Once our students foal these horses out through the Advanced Reproduction course, they're with them the whole way. They're with them through the summer, and once they're ready to start prepping in the fall, it's right back to it. It's incredible for our students to be a part of that. I was fortunate to have that experience as a student, and I wouldn't trade it for anything."

Spofford, who originally enrolled at Delaware Valley to study Livestock Science and Management, stepped into her current position after graduating with her Equine Management degree in the spring.

It was during her time at DelVal — as it's known around campus — that she discovered a profound connection to the animal that's now central to her personal and professional lives.

"I barely had any experience with horses beyond mucking a stall or leading one around," Spofford said. "I had been around them, but I never had to care for them and learn about them. I got the opportunity to do that here, and I did it all four years through college."

Spofford credited Jenna Reigle, the former breeding center manager at DelVal, for bridging her passion with the knowledge and skills to build a career.

"Jenna was my mentor in that she taught me everything I know, and now, I don't know who I am without horses," Spofford said. "I couldn't imagine myself without them. I don't know how I lived before."

"I was starstruck by them, especially the horses here. They are captivating and well-mannered and amazing to work with. I truly love seeing them be born, raising them, and then sending them to the sale. It's very full circle, and it feels way different being in the front seat now. I didn't think in a million years I would be given the opportunity to do it, and then it happened, and I've loved every second of it."

Spofford and her students will be banking on that firsthand experience when their eight-horse consignment parades through the sales ring at the Pennsylvania Farm Show Complex, starting on Day 2 (Tuesday, Nov. 3) with Hip #248 Fate Of Ophelia and Hip #268 Classy.

The former is a nod to West Reading, PA's Taylor Alison Swift, while the latter comes from a mare near and dear to Spofford. "I'm really excited about our beautiful Captain Corey trotting filly, Fate Of Ophelia," Spofford said. "I think she's beautiful, for one, and she's very nicely put together. She's a very correct horse, and she's a powerhouse."

"I am also eager to see our other trotting filly, an Ecurie D DK, named Classy. She's another beautiful, really well put together filly. I have a very strong love for her mother, Contender Hanover, who has an amazing bloodline."

Pennsylvania royalty remains well represented on Day 3, courtesy of Hip #795 Saquon, named in honor of Penn State alum and Philadelphia Eagles running back Saquon Barkley.

The son of Ecurie D DK—Miss Marina Fine took an under-the-radar route to the big stage, but like his superstar namesake, the equine Saquon is a natural athlete.

"He was born on Super Bowl Sunday when the Eagles won in 2025, so naming him after Saquon Barkley was the least we could do," said Spofford with a laugh.

"He is big and beautiful, and he really came around and surprised me. He is just striking. He's a big, dark colt, and he's really athletic. His video was beautiful. I'm really impressed with the way he performed, and I love the way he moves."

Rounding out the pacing fillies' side of Delaware Valley's 2026 sales roster are Hip #625 Stay Bougie (Stay Hungry—Baby Bugatti G) and Hip #923 Always A Delight (Always B Miki—Winbak Delight).

The consignment also features three more colts, two trotting: Hip #817 The Kraken (Green Manalishi S—Ocean Love Potion), Hip #908 Life On Tap (Volume Eight—To The Good Life), and one pacing: Hip #636 Climb Everest (Stay Hungry—Bid Writer).

"I'm very proud of our yearlings and students this year," Spofford said. "It's very rewarding because you can tell from the start to the end how much progress these horses have made, and the students themselves, too. It's a very symbiotic relationship."

Twinbrook's Harrisburg roster: no standouts, but several 'very nice' individuals

by James Platz

Twinbrook Farms has built a reputation for bringing quality consignments to Harrisburg each fall, and this year is no different. The 2026 entries consist of 27 babies, nine with the "Twin B" moniker and several others prepped at the Embro, ON nursery. Jenna McNiven talked about the farm's Standardbred Horse Sale offerings, which lean heavily toward pacers.

"We're very heavy on the pacing side because we were supposed to have five trotters this year," McNiven said of the consignment, which includes five agent trotters compared to 22 pacers. "We just had really bad luck, so we have no trotters of our own. Our pacing colts, it's hard to differentiate between so many of them because I like every horse on the farm."

Nine from the consignment sell during the Monday session, four of which carry the Twin B name. Twin B Lovemaker, Hip #93, is a Papi Rob Hanover colt eligible to both Pennsylvania and Kentucky. He is the first foal from Lazarus mare Lovevolution, who is a sister to the great See You At Peelers, the dam of Breeders Crown elimination winner Gentleman's Club and Bluegrass division winner Champaign Room.

"You can't get a hotter family than that family right now," McNiven said. "He's not very big, but he's very stout and everyone that looks at him loves him, so I think he'll get a lot of traction. His mom actually passed away, so he's a one and only, so we're really hoping for big things from him."

Next on the list is Twin B Iconic, cataloged as Hip #160. The Confederate colt is the first foal from a Downbytheseaside sister to the incomparable Sylvia Hanover, racing foe of Twinbrook-bred Twin B Joe Fresh. He is eligible to both Pennsylvania and Kentucky.

"We were really big fans of 'Sylvia' because she and Twin B Joe Fresh had the rivalry going on, and it was just so fun," McNiven said. "We were really excited when we added this sister to our breeding program. This colt is a first crop Confederate, and he's dual eligible, so I think he'll probably be one on everyone's list."

Cannibal colt Hip #402 Twin B Ladykiller, sells Tuesday. He is out of the Sportswriter mare Lovely Erin, who has produced six different winners. Her freshman, Twin B Copacabana, won the Grade 3 Eternal Camnation and possesses a bankroll exceeding $130,000.

"Personally, I think he's the best-looking horse in the barn," McNiven said. "He's gorgeous. And his 2-year-old sister this year won an OSS Gold event, and she won the Eternal Camnation. She was just really good on the Ontario program. I think he's one that when someone's walking by, they're going to turn their catalog page, because he's that type of horse that he just catches your eye."

This year's Twinbrook roster includes agent horses from fellow Ontario-based breeder Farhi Standardbreds. McNiven said that the group typically prepares and sells their own horses, but with the farm under construction, asked Twinbrook to handle the duties this year, sending seven yearlings.

"We've known them for quite some time," she said. "They asked us to take them, and we're really lucky to have them because they're pretty nice horses."

Hip #129 Mufasa is a notable yearling from the Farhi group. The Green Manalishi S colt is a full-brother to O'Brien Award winner Monalishi.

"He's a pretty good-looking colt," McNiven said. "He's big and strong, and I'm sure he'll be a hot commodity down there as well."

She also noted Meanalishi, Hip #563, a Green Manalishi S filly raised at Farhi Standardbreds.

"On video day, she really wowed everybody," McNiven said.

Twinbrook's consignment also includes six yearlings from Crystal Springs Farm in Ohio. That group includes pacing colts Amir Springs (Hip #111, by Huntsville), Atticus Springs (Hip #181, by Captaintreacherous), and pacing filly Atarah Springs (Hip #114, by Captaintreacherous), all selling in the first session.

"We don't take many outside horses, but we've kind of gotten to know those breeders, and they do a great job, so we've kind of come together to sell under Twinbrook," she said.

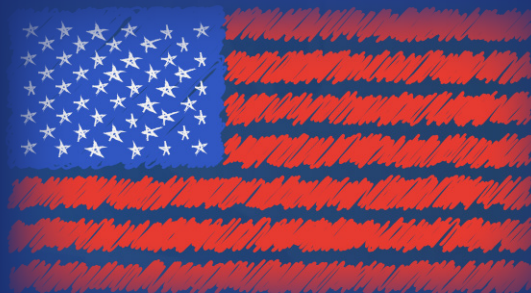

Overall, McNiven is pleased with the consignment selling at the Pennsylvania State Farm Show Complex.

"They're all very good looking," she said. "They all have good conformation, great manners. In the past there's been a standout horse, and I would say the last couple years I haven't had that. There are a few of them that are very nice, and I feel that way this year. There's some very, very good-looking horses."

Vieux Carre Farms brings something for everyone to Harrisburg

by Debbie Little

Vieux Carre Farms heads to Harrisburg with two dozen, cousin. Having had a good showing at Lexington, the veteran farm's general manager Mark Egloff would like to view similar results at the Standardbred Horse Sales Company's (SHSC) yearling auction in Harrisburg, PA.

"I've got a lot of good yearlings to sell," Egloff said. "I don't really have a lot of headliners or anything, but I think they look good. They're in good shape, and, you know, there'll be some bargains in there."

The 24-horse offering from the Gettysburg, PA farm, as usual, is pacer forward with 15 sidesteppers and nine diamond gaiters.

Nearly half of their consignment, 10 of 24, they show as agent, but all the yearlings were raised at Vieux Carre's family-owned farm.

Their first in the ring, and only one on Day 1, at the Pennsylvania State Farm Show Complex is Hip #106 Smithville, a son of Huntsville out of Somebeachsomewhere mare Mommas Got A Gun with five winners from five previous foals.

"He's a very nice colt," Egloff said. "He's a big, strong, correct colt out of a mare that hasn't really had a good one yet, but she's supposed to. She's been knocking on the door and she's a daughter of Hall of Famer Benear, so he may be the one, and, I think he'll sell really well."

"I think the two main points on him is he's a very nice individual out of a really great racemare with a lot of pedigree, and she's never been bred to anybody but Always B Miki."

"This is the first time she's been bred a different way, and I think they'll like that. He's the first Huntsville by the mare, so I think he's going to sell well. When they see him, they'll like him."

Vieux Carre has 10 showing on Day 2 (Nov. 3) — four colt pacers and two each of filly pacers, colt trotters, and filly trotters — and Egloff highlighted a couple.

"I've got a Father Patrick filly I like a lot out of a Muscle Hill mare [Danielle Hill]," Egloff said. "It's her first foal, and she's got some pedigree. I like her as an individual, it's Hip #285 Daring Dani."

Dave Landry
Vieux Carre's
Mark Egloff.

Daring Dani's maternal family includes world champion Guccio (2, 1:55.4; 3, 1:52.1; 4, 1:51.1f; BT 1:51; $1,021,809).

Egloff also mentioned a son of Sweet Lou, the cleverly named Hide Behind, Hip #529, out of Solar Eclipse. The daughter of Western Ideal has produced five winners from five previous foals.

"Can't take credit for that name, that's the owner," Egloff said. "As far as an individual, I like him a lot. He's a tall, racy, very correct colt."

More than half of Vieux Carre's consignment, 13 of 24, sells on Day 3 (Nov. 4).

"I've got a couple of Volume Eights to sell that I think are nice," Egloff said. "I'm not exactly sure how they're going to sell, but it's first crop of a son of Chapter Seven, so we'll see."

Hip #655 Straight Eight is a colt out of the SJ's Caviar mare Chips N Caviar with a maternal line that includes multiple Dan Patch and Nova Award winner Winky's Goal. Hip #809 Eight Days is out of Conway Hall mare New Day with nine winners from 12 previous foals.

Another mentioned by Egloff was Hip #861 Wildcatter a colt out of the Well Said mare Search Light.

He is a really nice individual," Egloff said. "He's a Huntsville out of a granddaughter of a mare that was really good to us. So, he may be one to consider."

Light Up, the dam of Search Light, has produced 15 winners from 15 living foals.

"Probably my favorite colt in the consignment [Hip #622 Blackmail] is selling on Day 3, and he is a Tall Dark Stranger half-brother to Perfect Body who's a really nice Perfect Sting filly that's won about close to a-quarter-of-a-million dollars this year at 2. She wasn't nominated for the Breeders Crown, but we're hoping she's going to come back at 3 and be a real top stakes filly... She's out of a mare named Sweet Body who's from that Silky line of horses that's been very good to us over the years.

"It seems like it doesn't matter who you breed her to, she's coming up with very nice horses... and this colt, he's just the colt that you notice out in the field. He's got a lot of presence. He's very handsome. He's just the right size and I think they'll like him.

"Tall Dark Strangers won't average anywhere near the top at the sale, but like I said, this mare seems to throw nice ones and fast ones by anybody, so they'll like him as an individual for sure."

Perfect Body (2, 1:50.2m, $237,300) has hit the board in nine out of 10 starts including four wins and was the morning-line favorite in this past Saturday's Grade 3 Kindergarten final for freshman filly pacers.

"We were sorry she wasn't nominated for the Breeders Crown, but they're taking good care of her, and hopefully she'll come back strong next year," Egloff said. "That mare's off to a good start... She's a nice young mare that's producing for us."

"We've got a little bit for everybody, trotters and pacers," Egloff said. "I'm happy with our consignment. We'll see what they bring."

With a Tactical Landing filly and two Perfect Sting colts in their consignment, Egloff was happy to hear the recent news from The Meadowlands about the new 3-year-old trots as well as a bump in purses for several other stakes all of which include a 20 per cent bonus if won by a New Jersey-sired horse.

"Any good news is welcome," Egloff said. "Anything they're doing over there that's positive, that's going to help the yearlings bring more that are bred there, I mean, I'm all for it.

Peninsula is packed with quality and variety for Harrisburg

by Debbie Little

While not quite matching Baskin-Robbins in total number, Carter Duer's Peninsula Farm is bringing plenty of flavors to the Standardbred Horse Sales Company (SHSC) auction in Harrisburg, PA.

The Hall of Famer's Georgetown, KY farm always brings diversity and this year is no exception with 38 yearlings from 21 different sires.

"This is a very nice bunch of horses," Duer said, adding with a laugh, "There are some really good ones in here, I just don't know which ones they are."

It's no surprise that the majority of Peninsula's offering is trotters with 29, split almost in half between colts and fillies at 14 and 15, respectively. But Duer also brings nine "very nice" pacers.

More than a quarter of Peninsula's consignment will go through the ring at Pennsylvania State Farm Show Complex on Day 1 (Nov. 2).

Kicking things off for Peninsula is Hip #9 Caviart Agent C a colt by Captaintreacherous. This son out of the great racemare and O'Brien winner Caviart Ally is one of five as agent for Caviart Farms and the first of three showing on Day 1 along with Hip #27 Caviart Andrew and Hip #38 Caviart Destiny.

Caviart Ally has two winners from three previous foals and although she hasn't produced that great one yet, Duer remains optimistic.

"Maybe this will be the one," he said.

Of the three Caviart yearlings selling on Day 1, Duer said, "They're all pretty nice horses. If I had to pick one, I'd pick Caviart Destiny. But all three are nice horses. All three have good pedigrees, and you know they're pretty nice."

Caviart Destiny is a colt by Confederate out of Captaintreacherous mare Caviart Davia and this is her first foal. Caviart Andrew is also a son of Confederate and is out of the Somebeachsomewhere mare Caviart Audrey whose one previous foal is a winner in 1:50.

Two thirds of Peninsula's consignment is dual eligible and the Caviart yearlings are no exception, but in addition to Pennsylvania and Kentucky they are also eligible to the Virginia Breeders Fund.

Duer pointed out about the VABF, "There are not many in it and they go for good money."

Duer highlighted a few standouts in his consignments.

"On opening day I've got a Sweet Lou colt that I like," Duer said. That's Hip #141 [Midwind Solo]. I think he's kind of special. He's a pretty nice colt."

Midwind Solo is out of Always B Miki mare Scorn who has one winner from one previous foal. The second dam on this colt is the amazing world champion and two-time Dan Patch Award winner See You At Peelers.

"I've got two Cattlewashes, and they're pretty popular up in Canada," Duer said. "They win just about everything. They're nice horses too. I had a couple in the first sale [Lexington], and they sold okay.”

Dave Landry
Peninsula's Carter Duer.

Hip #674 Cattleman's Gun is out of If I Can Dream mare Designated Drinker and Hip #716 Ribeye is out of Rocknroll Hanover mare Highlandopheliaroc. Both are Ontario and Kentucky eligible.

Although Duer loves all his Captain Coreys, when asked for a horse to watch, he pointed out Hip #560 Captain Kyler who is selling on Day 2.

“He’s a Lou’s Pearlman,” Duer said. “There may be some others in there, but he’s kind of an eye catcher.”

Captain Kyler is out of Captaintreacherous mare The Captains Angel with plenty of winners throughout her pedigree.

Duer also stressed that people should come and take a look at him.

“They might not look at him looking at the catalog, but he’s a horse that people ought to look at,” he said.

“I’ve got high hopes for him.”

In addition to the 37 yearlings he’s showing as agent, Duer does have one of his own, Hip #431 Sweeney Jeans. The filly by International Moni out of Swan For All mare Mrs Melania shows on Day 2, and this is her first foal. Her second dam Quick Credit has produced 10 winners from 11 living foals including Dan Patch and O’Brien champion Wheeling and Dealin.

“She’s very nice, very correct, and shows well,” Duer said.

According to Duer, he was okay with how things went in Lexington and hopes to do as well if not better at Harrisburg.

“There were two or three I thought were grossly undersold, and there were probably two or three that were oversold so I guess it worked out all right,” he said with a laugh. “You know, it’s a very good group of horses [I’m bringing to Harrisburg], and like I said, I’ve got a little bit of everything in there, I’ve got all flavors. To tell you the truth, I ain’t got much in here that I would say had no shot at all of doing anything. If you’ve got anything that’s anything, they’re going to find it.

“I think as a whole that they probably will do okay. There are no big horses in there, but they’re very good individuals for the most part, and they don’t look too bad. So, I think it’ll be okay.”

From lean times to the Breeders Crown

Eldorado Scioto Downs reclaims its place as 'Ohio's Showplace of Racing'

by Jay Wolf

Friday (Sept. 11) marked the final day of Eldorado Scioto Downs' 2009 race meet. Ten races were held with total purses of just $26,200. At the time, Ohio harness racing was at a low point. Purses were meager, horse populations were shrinking, and optimism was in short supply.

Fast forward to October 2026.

Ohio is now firmly established among North America's premier harness racing jurisdictions, highlighted by the success of the recently-completed $7.6 million Breeders Crown (Oct. 23 and 24).

"I was very, very happy," said John Campbell, president/CEO of the Hambletonian Society. "Our whole team was extremely happy with the event, not only just pulling it off and what Scioto did with it, but working with them.

"It was a good [Breeders Crown] weekend. We [at Scioto Downs] learned some stuff. If we get to do it again, in the future, we will definitely change some stuff up."

— Jason Roth

"The whole thing was really great, and obviously, you cap it off with that crowd that we had on Saturday night, we just don't see it like that very often anymore."

The return to prominence was not an easy one for Scioto Downs.

The south Columbus oval opened in 1959 when Charlie and LaVerne Hill replaced their Hilliard Raceway, located on the current site of the Franklin County Fairgrounds. Dubbed "Ohio's Showplace of Racing," Scioto Downs featured a five-eighths-mile track with an architecturally renowned grandstand that could accommodate 10,000 patrons.

Over time, however, Ohio harness racing entered a prolonged period of decline.

“Oh, yes, we’re going to do [the Breeder Crown] again [at Scioto Downs]. How could you not after an event like that? It was amazing what Scioto got done between the eliminations and the final to get ready, and they pulled it off. I thought they did a great job.”

— John Campbell

The turnaround began in the summer of 2012 when Video Lottery Terminals (VLTs) at Ohio’s seven pari-mutuel tracks were approved. Purse levels improved almost immediately, injecting much-needed optimism into Ohio racing and setting the stage for dramatic growth.

“Once the VLT’s came in, it changed everything for everybody in Ohio, and the program has just grown and grown,” Campbell said. “Not only the purses, but the stallions and broodmares. “The horses that Ohio is producing can go anywhere in North America and compete at the highest level on the Grand Circuit.”

As the sport’s fortunes improved, Scioto Downs continued to invest in its future. The nearly 60-year-old concrete grandstand was eventually condemned and demolished. In its place, a new, right-sized grandstand with seating for more than 1,000 spectators was completed in 2023.

Two years later, a spacious 64,000-square-foot paddock, featuring 16 race-ready stalls, debuted for the 2025 racing season. The project underscored Scioto Downs’ commitment to the future of Ohio harness racing.

“We have come a long way since 2009, and have come a long way since 2020 as well. The new grandstand and paddock,” said Jason Roth, Eldorado Scioto Downs’ director of racing. “Hats off to [senior vice president of racing for Caesars Entertainment] Joe Morris as well, he wants us to put the best product forward and do what’s right.”

Roth joined the Scioto Downs team in 2005 and has been in his current role since 2020.

The announcement that Eldorado Scioto Downs would host the 2026 Breeders Crown was made at the Dan Patch Awards banquet in February 2025.

Few people could better appreciate the significance of the event than Tom Charters, the Springfield, OH native and longtime Hambletonian Society executive who has attended every Breeders Crown race since the series debuted in 1984.

“I have a unique view,” Charters said. “I haven’t missed a Breeders Crown event. All 502 races since 1984.”

For Charters, the weekend carried a special personal meaning. “It was a homecoming for me of sorts,” he said. “My first job in in this wonderful sport was working for the Dick Hackett stable in Barn 13, now gone, in the backstretch at Scioto Downs some 61 years ago. I was dazzled by the new Scioto Downs facility and the overall energy and excitement of the event. I half expected Dick [Hackett] and Charlie and LaVerne [Hill], Doc [John] Jackman, and Bob Steele to pop up at any moment.”

While organizers celebrated the event’s success, they also viewed it as a learning experience.

“It was a good weekend,” Roth said. “We learned some stuff. If we get to do it again, in the future, we will definitely change some stuff up.”

Campbell quickly offered his answer to that possibility.

“Oh, yes, we’re going to do it again,” Campbell said. “How could you not after an event like that? It was amazing what Scioto got done between the eliminations and the final to get ready, and they pulled it off. I thought they did a great job.”

For Charters, however, the lasting memory wasn’t just about the racing.

“I saw many old Midwest friends,” Charters said. “After all, isn’t that what going to the races is all about – seeing old friends, and meeting new ones?”

Thanks to strategic investment, industry growth, and the hard work of the entire Eldorado Scioto Downs team, the nearly 70-year-old oval can once again claim its place as “Ohio’s Showplace of Racing.”

Retirement Party

At the end of his final shift on Friday, Detective Gerald Hooley sent out a text warning that anyone showing up at his retirement shindig at The Buzzer Beater sports bar the following evening with a card or gift would be arrested.

Most of Hooley's friends from the Florence, KY Police Department followed the edict, except for the vice squad, who presented him with a box of inappropriate items from the evidence room and a coffee mug that read "Licensed to Chill."

By 10 o'clock on Saturday evening, the bar had cleared out. Only Hooley, Bones Marchais, and, surprisingly, Rosemarie Foster, of the Dutch Boy paint can haircut, remained at the large round table beneath the dartboard. None of the trio was blotto, but none would be driving.

Detective Marchais, whose body fat hovered around zero, was feeling the effects of the celebration more than the others. He intermittently folded his arms on the table, rested his bald head on them, and nodded off.

Hooley refilled Rosemarie's glass from the last pitcher, raised his own in salute, and spoke with the careful over-enunciation of a man who'd had numerous beers.

"Rosemarie, it's too bad we didn't have a chance to work together longer. You are a very interesting person. You shall remain a youthful enigma."

"Well, thank you. I assume by interesting and enigmatic you're referring to my unfortunate outburst about excessive makeup, fashion, and cosmetic surgery?"

Hooley shrugged. "I just chalked it up to a personal relationship issue. I guess that you and your partner have a country-girl, city-girl conflict thing."

"I'm not gay."

Hooley winced. "Sorry, none of my business."

"My secret partner is a man."

"Ah, got it."

"A married man."

"Got it."

"He is a crossdresser who enjoys glamming up."

"Well, there you go. You are interesting. A lady of many mysteries. Plus, you're a whiz about harness horse racing."

"How old are you, Hooley?"

"Fifty-three last week."

"Do you have any retirement plans, like a bucket list?"

"Everybody asks me that." He fluttered his hand with an either-way wiggle. "Maybe a beer glass list."

Bones Marchais stirred, rotated his head, and then returned to his nap. Hooley and Rosemarie watched him and shared a smile. She looked into her half-filled glass and spoke without looking at him.

"I know you're off the job, but something interesting popped up on the WAPC report this morning."

"The Weekly Activities and Pending Case summary?"

"Yes, a DVO and an IPO against the guy from the racetrack business, Alex Pettigrew."

"You're kidding."

"Nope."

"Domestic Violence Order. What's IPO again?"

"Interpersonal Protection Order."

"Did the sheriff's office serve him?"

"They tried, but he was AWOL from his condo."

"That's wild. Did you look at the summary in the database?"

"Yes. Three applicants: Peter Pettigrew, his wife, and Martha Conklin. "The judge must have been pissed. Cousin Alex can't go near the people, their residences, or – and get this – Pioneer Downs Racetrack."

"No shit."

Hooley set down his beer and frowned. Then he waved to Nick, the bartender, and pretended to write on his palm, signaling for the check. Nick signaled back with a runner safe at home slide gesture, followed by a thumbs-up to indicate the tab was covered.

Rosemarie and Hooley shared a comfortable silence. He carefully examined the "Licensed to Chill" mug, deep in thought.

She fished out her phone and flashed it at Hooley. "Uber, my treat. The three of us are basically in the same direction. Our ride will be here in about 15 minutes."

"Perfect."

After a few moments, Hooley asked her, "Do you believe in coincidences?"

"Sort of. I find events happen in threes. But that may be a self-fulfilling prophecy thing. "Part imagination, part awareness, part coincidence. Maybe a little mysticism. Who knows? Why?"

"The names on the restraining orders are Martha Conklin, the horse trainer, Peter Pettigrew, and the racetrack."

"And?"

"I'm meeting Peter tomorrow at the racetrack and have a date with Martha for dinner on Friday. We delayed both meetings until I was a civilian. I wonder if the restraining orders will change our plans?"

"What plans?"

"It's not complicated. Now that I'm off the force, I got this wild idea that buying into a racehorse would be a fun thing to try. You know, kind of a hobby. I've got some time and some money to burn."

"You could save yourself a lot of trouble by buying a firepit and tossing your money into it instead of trying to turn a profit with yearlings."

Hooley chuckled. "But not as interesting."

"True, you can turn disposable money into memories." She paused. "It's really not a bad idea. I've thought about getting into racing, but I never had the money or the balls."

Hooley said, "I'll keep you posted on my equine adventures."

"Great, I'd like that. Now, what about her?"

"Just social. Dinner. She's nice. We're the same age. We seem to hit it off. That's it."

Rosemarie sighed. "Geesh, Hooley, you leave the police department, and wade into romance and a swamp where Alex Pettigrew is lurking."

Bones lifted his head, shook it once, and cleared his throat.

"What swamp?"

Al Papi (Yannick Gingras) winning the $160,000 Monument Circle for sophomore pacing colts on Friday at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

The stars were out in full force on Friday (Oct. 30) at Harrah's Hoosier Park, with four six-figure stakes races for 3-year-olds, headlined by Al Papi putting on a dazzling display with a 1:47.4 stakes record following an all-out war with stablemate Melillo in the $160,000 Monument Circle for 3-year-old pacing colts.

Leaving from the second-tier in post 10 with regular pilot Yannick Gingras aboard, Al Papi was away third from the outset after Melillo crossed over in front of Swiss Lights (Trace Tetrack) to cut the opening quarter in :26.2. Melillo tapped the brakes on the backstretch, backing things down to the half in :54.4 before Gingras right-lined Al Papi and began his first-over charge. The pace quickened around the final turn, with Al Papi racing a half-length back to the outside of Melillo at three-quarters in 1:21.4.

Speeding into the stretch, Al Papi looked Melillo in the eye as the Ron Burke trainees began to separate from the rest of the field. Trading haymakers the length of the lane, Al Papi delivered the knockout blow late to edge out Melillo by a neck on the wire in 1:47.4. Swiss Lights was third, $3\frac{3}{4}$ lengths back of the top pair.

The clocking obliterated the previous stakes record of 1:48.3, established by Cattlewash in 2020 and matched by Bulldog Hanover in 2021.

The winning millionaire homebred son of Papi Rob Hanover—Baron Remy is owned by Burke Racing Stable, J&T Silva-Purnell & Libby, Larry Carr, and Weaver Brussemi. Al Papi has won six of 18 this season, earning $1,181,518 on the year, putting his career earnings just shy of $1.6 million. Al Papi will be pointed to Dover Downs for the Matron and Progress Pace to conclude his sophomore campaign. Al Papi paid $4.40 to win as the 6-5 favorite.

The stakes racing kicked off with fireworks as well, as Big Ranger crushed as the 1-9 favorite in a stakes record performance in the $200,000 Carl Erskine Memorial with Tim Tetrack in the sulky for trainer Annette Lorentzon.

Working from post 6 in the field of seven, Big Ranger settled mid-pack in third early behind Swan Affect (Brandon Bates) while Captain Naughty (Jordan Ross) controlled the tempo to the first turn in :27.2. The field remained unchanged to the halfway mark in :56.2. Big Ranger peeled off the cones moving into the final turn, rallying along the outside zooming past Captain Naughty to the lead and began to separate at three-quarters in 1:25.

Leaving no doubt in the stretch, Big Ranger sped home in :26.2 to open up by 6¼ lengths on the wire and tripping the timer in 1:51.2. Al (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) rallied for second, with Twin B Seven Sins (Kyle Husted) getting up for third.

Big Ranger has won nine of 14 during his 3-year-old campaign, and 16 of 21 lifetime. The In Range—Big Blue Bird colt has earned $768,710 on the year for owners Madison Global and sports a career bankroll of $1,139,320. Big Ranger returned $2.20 to win at the windows.

The previous stakes record in the Erskine was 1:51.4, established by Don't Let'em in 2019.

Returning to form at the right time, supplemental entry Fresh Face Yankee played the role of spoiler with pilot and trainer Jay Cross pulling off the upset in the $140,000 Crossroads Of America for 3-year-old filly trotters.

Near the middle of the pack in post 6, Fresh Face Yankee navigated the early breakers off the wings and settled seventh on the first turn with Emmas Mystery Ccl emerging on top to cut the opening quarter in :27. Leading Lady (Dexter Dunn) transitioned to the helm at the half-mile pole in :55.4. Fresh Face Yankee took her time in sixth through the three-quarters as Emmas Mystery Ccl flipped back in front in 1:25.

Turning for home, four fillies were in with a shot as Emmas Mystery Ccl came under fire from Help Cum Laude (Atlee Bender), with For Dayze (John De Long) and Fresh Face Yankee beginning to tower up on the outside. Shot out of a cannon late, Fresh Face Yankee surged in the final stages widest of all with a :26.4 last quarter to tag For Dayze at the line by a neck in 1:52.4. Help Cum Laude was third just three-quarters-of-a-length back at 47-1, with Emmas Mystery Ccl finishing a close fourth.

The Crescent Fashion—Swan Yankee filly Fresh Face Yankee is owned by Timothy Smith while being bred by Fashion Hill Farm. Fresh Face Yankee added to her bank account, hitting $303,585 in lifetime earnings for her ninth win of the season in 13 tries. Fresh Face Yankee paid $27.40 to win.

In the $125,000 USS Indianapolis Memorial for sophomore pacing fillies, Loua Dipa provided trainer Ron Burke with a stakes double on the card and was a pocket-rocket winner with Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. aboard.

Away from post 5, Loua Dip was the quickest off the wings, blitzing to the lead through a hot opening quarter of :25.4 in front of the pocket-sitting Topville Lucky (Todd McCarthy). She's A Bulldog moved from third on the backstretch, covering up her stablemate and taking charge to the halfway point in :55.1. She's A Bulldog and Lou Dipa began to pace away from the remainder of the field on the far turn, racing one-two to three-quarters in 1:22.3.

Lou Dipa ripped out of the pocket at the head of the lane, moving alongside She's A Bulldog as the two went to battle in the final stages. Powering clear late, Loua Dipa was home in :26 to outsprint She's A Bulldog and cross the line two lengths clear in a stakes record equaling 1:49. Somemore Blue (Marcus Miller) rallied from last to be third, 7½ lengths back of the winner.

The Dan Patch Award winner at 2, Loua Dipa has won seven of 13 at age 3 for seasonal earnings of $525,590. The Burke Racing Stable and Weaver Brusceci homebred daughter of Sweet Lou—Looksgoodinaromper has won 16 of 26 lifetime and boasts a career bankroll of $1,352,618. Loua Dipa paid $5 to win.

John Manzi, 82, dies

John Manzi of Mongaup Valley, NY, a Hall of Fame harness racing publicist, former driver, and the familiar voice of Sunday-night doo-wop radio in the Catskills, passed away peacefully on Oct 28, 2026, at the Las Vegas home of his daughter Michelle, surrounded by family. He was 82.

Born into one of harness racing's most respected families, Manzi was the son of John Manzi, Sr. and Caroline Manzi of Mongaup Valley, NY. Racing was in his blood. He began his career behind the horses as a driver at Monticello Raceway, affectionately known as "The Mighty M," the world's fastest half-mile track.

In 1980, John became the track's publicity director, a position he would transform into something of an art form. Over the following decades, he became one of the sport's most colorful and recognizable personalities. John never met a publicity stunt he didn't like. Under his watch, elephants, camels, New York Giants football players, and a memorable assortment of other characters found their way onto the Monticello oval. Behind the spectacle was a simple philosophy: make people smile and give them a reason to come to the racetrack.

His contributions to the sport earned him induction into the Communicators Hall of Fame in 2006. He retired in December 2014, following a remarkable 50-year career in harness racing. But Sunday nights belonged to the music.

For 38 years, John hosted The Bop Shop on WVOS radio, filling the Catskills airwaves with doo-wop, oldies, and the unmistakable sound of his voice. For four hours every Sunday evening, beginning at 8 p.m., he shared the records he loved with generations of listeners. The show became a Sunday-night tradition and the longest-running radio program in the Catskills. As his listeners often remarked, four hours never seemed quite long enough.

Away from the racetrack and radio microphone, John was devoted to his family. He loved gathering around a table, playing cards, sharing a meal, and telling stories. He took his daughters fishing, cheered from the sidelines at soccer games and school events, and brought the same lively spirit to family gatherings that made him so memorable to his loved ones. For all his public accomplishments, it was these everyday moments that his family will remember most.

John is survived by his daughters, Tracey Manzi and Michelle Miller; his sons-in-law, Tim McNamara and Scott Miller; his cherished grandchildren, Elizabeth Kim and Clare McNamara; his brothers, Gerard Manzi and Gary Manzi; and many, many cousins. He was predeceased by his beloved wife, Sharon Manzi, in 2012, and by his parents.

Services will be held at the Church of Saint Peter, 10 Liberty Street, Monticello, NY 12701, on Nov. 9 at 10 a.m. sharp.

In lieu of flowers, donations in John's name may be made to the Harness Racing Museum & Hall of Fame, 240 Main Street, Goshen, NY 10924, at harnessmuseum.com/donations, or to Goshen Historic Track, 44 Park Place, Goshen, NY 10924.

A celebration of John's life will be held at the Harness Racing Museum & Hall of Fame, 240 Main Street, Goshen, NY 10924, on Nov. 9 from 2-5 p.m. All are welcome.

Joe Morris to receive Monticello-Goshen's highest honor

Joe Morris will be the recipient of the United States Harness Writers Association (USHWA) Monticello-Goshen chapter's Lifetime Achievement Award at their annual awards banquet in Campbell Hall, NY, which is presented by the New York Sire Stakes, and will be dedicated to John Manzi.

Hailing from a family that is rich in harness racing tradition, Joe Morris was born in Maine and grew up on the oldest continually run family farm in the Pine Tree State. Morris, alongside his cousins Mike Graffam and Bruce Ranger, learned the business from the ground up while breeding mares, raising foals, and jogging the next generation of colts on their half-mile track.

Known as the Norton Farm, and established in the 1700s, the 70-plus acre spread is located near Cumberland, ME, and is now operated by Graffam and his grown children Nick and Bethany.

From humble beginnings Morris has risen to the top echelon of our sport, and is currently the senior vice president of racing for Caesars Entertainment, which owns both Eldorado Scioto Downs and Harrah's Hoosier Park. In addition, Morris oversees racing operations at the casino empire's many racetracks across the country, which also includes Harrah's Philadelphia, and thoroughbred facilities Horseshoe Indianapolis and the company's soon-to-open Harrah's Columbus Racing & Casino in Nebraska.

During the early 1980s, Morris obtained business and finance degrees from the University of Maine and then went to work at Hinsdale and Foxboro. Derick Giwner of DRF Harness interviewed Morris shortly after the Breeders Crown announced that Scioto Downs would host the 2026 championship series in Ohio.

Giwner inquired about his first management position in harness racing, to which Morris said, "There was a guy named Tom Sheehan there. He had been a longtime racing executive. I stopped into have lunch with Loring Norton one day and he said 'You're out of college now and need a job. Talk to this guy.'"

"He dialed up Tom and he said 'I'll see you tomorrow at Hinsdale for work.' I started there and worked my way through the racing office. I was the assistant clerk of the course and program charter. I ended up at Foxboro which is where I kind of got my MBA. I was general manager at Foxboro in 1985 and 1986 when I was 25 years old. I was the youngest racetrack GM in the country."

Before landing at Caesars, Morris also held influential positions at the National Thoroughbred Racing Association, Santa Anita, the Stronach Group, and was the publisher of the Thoroughbred Times.

Very approachable and down to earth, his pleasant demeanor and vast knowledge of the sport have earned him friends and admirers from coast-to-coast, and in all three racing breeds. But ask him, and he will be quick to note that his heart is with the pacers. He currently lives on a small farm in Lexington adjacent to Keeneland, and on Sundays can be found cleaning stalls and scrubbing water buckets.

When the Monticello-Goshen USHWA Chapter holds their 67th annual Awards banquet, presented by the New York Sire Stakes, on Sunday (Dec. 6, 2026), Joe Morris will receive the chapter's highest honor, their Lifetime Achievement Award.

As part of the annual festivities, the chapter will convey all of this season's New York Sire Stakes and U. S. Trotting District 8 Awards, which will be presented in addition to the year-end awards for horses and horsepeople from the local tracks.

The Monticello-Goshen chapter will also honor Max J. Hempt (John Manzi Leadership Award); Wanda Polisseni (Excelsior Award); Chris Coyle (John Gilmour Good Guy Award); Rebecca Howard (Amy Bull Crist Distinguished Service Award); Elizabeth Lewis-House (Phil Pines Award); Winbak Farm (Cradle of the Trotter Breeders Award); William Carter (Rising Star); and Kristin Hopkins (Mighty M Award of Appreciation).

Funds raised through the banquet and souvenir journal have allowed the Monticello-Goshen chapter to give well over $165,000 to Goshen Historic Track and the Harness Racing Museum & Hall of Fame over the last two decades. The Track and the Museum are two separate and distinct entities that share the same hallowed ground and a mutual purpose of preserving and promoting harness racing.

The practice of raising money and donating funds to Historic Track and the Hall of Fame began in the mid-1970s with Monticello Raceway publicity icon John Manzi, and has continued ever since. This year's banquet and souvenir journal will be dedicated to the late John Manzi for his decades of tireless promoting and supporting harness racing in our region, who passed away on Oct. 28 at the age of 82.

Tickets for the gala event at The Country Club at Otterkill, Campbell Hall, NY, can be reserved by contacting Shawn Wiles at 845-798-4074, or email: swiles@rwcatskills.com.

To place a congratulatory ad, or a John Manzi remembrance ad in the souvenir journal, please contact Chris Tully at 845-807-7538, or email: tullytrot@yahoo.com.

Minoan, Oversear tally in Philly's Liberty Bell Stake

Minoan and Oversear were the winners of the two $30,000 sections of the Liberty Bell stake for three-year-old trotting males on Friday afternoon (Oct. 30) at Harrah's Philadelphia, and both stopped the timer in 1:53.1 on their way to victory.

The Bar Hopping gelding Minoan, who was third at 103-1 behind the epic stretch battle between Apex and Big Ranger in this year's Hambletonian, boosted his lifetime earnings to $430,053 for driver Andrew McCarthy and trainer Noel Daley, the latter co-owner with Patricia Stables LLC, L. A. Express Stable LLC, and Sjoebloom Racing Inc. Minoan made the lead near the :27.3 quarter, passed the midpoint splits in :56.3 and 1:25, then proceeded on strongly to win by 2½ lengths over Captain Jordan.

The International Moni gelding Oversear, purchased last week by Burke Racing Stable LLC and Weaver Bruscermi LLC, Knox Services Inc., and FAC Racing LLC, provided an immediate return on their investment by setting fractions of :27.3, :56.2, and 1:24, then passing under the wire a length ahead of Captain Vodka, with Corey Callahan handling the sulky duties for trainer Ron Burke.

The pacing headliner on the day was a $13,500 pace for developing females, in which the Captaintreacherous sophomore filly Luckylady Hanover recorded her second straight victory for trainer Stacy Chiodo and Timothy Tobias Stable LLC. Driver Simon Allard also employed front-end tactics with Luckylady Hanover, who held on gamely in the face of a late charge by potential pocket rocket Andiamo in winning by a neck.

George Napolitano, Jr. piloted four winners to earn the day's sulky honors; Callahan had three, and McCarthy and Simon Allard had two. Allard's pair of winners brought his Philly total victories for the year right on the bumper of five-time defending champion Tim Tetrick, 117-116. No trainer sent out more than one winner, but Dean Eckley did have a success story from his shedrow, his 43rd of the meet, which put him one ahead of Joe Bongiorno and Scott DiDomenico.

Racing resumes at Philly today (Nov. 1) at 12:40 (after everybody, we hope, has turned back their clocks), with the 3-year-old section of the Liberty Bell stakes coming to a conclusion with a pair of $30,000 divisions for pacing males. Free Philly program pages are or will be available at www.phha.org.

LIBERTY BELL STAKES MAKE 2026 BOW AT PHILLY: The Liberty Bell Stakes Series, designed to give talented Pennsylvania-sired horses a final seasonal chance at a nice payday, began on Thursday afternoon (Oct. 29) at Harrah's Philadelphia. There was an event for 2-year-old males on both gaits, and both freshmen winners, in addition to the winner of the top handicap trot for overnight horses, continued recent strings of successes on Thursday.

The $62,200 Liberty Bell for pacers was won by the Captaintreacherous—McSauna colt The Tile Guy, who is now two-for-two since coming under the care of Doug Dilloian, Jr. after setting a 1:50.4 lifetime mark. Driver Johnathan Ahle was three-wide past the eighth with his colt, ducked him in briefly before the :27.1 quarter, then had him moving making the lead well before a :56 half.

The Tile Guy went his third quarter in :27 to ward off outer challengers past a 1:23 three quarters and through the turn, then had enough left to fend off the surging pocket-sitter Hungry Marco by a half-length for the ownership of Richard Hernandez and John Moderack.

In the $45,000 companion Liberty Bell trot, the Greenshoe—Fashion Spooner colt Black Tesla tucked in behind early splits of :28.4 and :58, then trotted his own third quarter in :27 to gain the lead past the three quarters clocking of 1:26. He would go on to hold off pocket-sitting Hook N Real, who had been briefly bothered when the pacesetter broke after being passed by the winner, by a length. Ridge Warren guided the Nicklas Andersen trainee to his third straight victory for owner Wayne Stoltzfus.

In the $16,000 fast-class handicap trot, the Resolve gelding Resolve To Win came into this Philly feature with five wins in his last seven starts – three victories at Plainridge and two at Pocono. Resolve To Win added a victory at a third "P" to that tally in 1:52.2, equaling his lifetime mark for trainer Enrico Robinson and Pollack Racing LLC. The versatile Resolve To Win raced off the pace here and was still 3½ lengths off at the stretch call, but an irresistible stretch surge under the handling of Mark Herschberger got him to the wire three-parts-of-a-length ahead of the tough first-over Yall Keep Dreaming.

Tim Tetrick won four races on the card and regained the seasonal dash-winning lead over Simon Allard as he attempts to win his sixth straight Philly title. Doubling drivers included Ahle and Åke Svanstedt. One aspect of the day's training stats were Svanstedt exactly matching the numbers he had put up at Pocono on Tuesday: three wins from the barn, with him driving two and the track's leading driver guiding the other (Tyler Buter at Pocono and Tetrick here). Scott DiDomenico had a conditioning double that has put the local trainers race in a three-way deadlock: 42 wins each here for DiDomenico, Joe Bongiorno, and Dean Eckley.
