Snyder takes another dip with Black Book sales opening topper

by Ray Cotolo

Triscari Web Video Marketing

Hip #43 Coffeeshop Hanover, a Chapter Seven filly out of Crucial, topped Monday's opening session of the Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling auction with a bid of $800,000 by Jeffrey Snyder. The filly was consigned by Hanover Shoe Farms.

2026 SHSC YEARLING SALE AT HARRISBURG
STANDARDBRED HORSE SALE COMPANY

Jeffrey Snyder has been no stranger to deep pulls from the wallet over the last few years, and to great success. The man of Super Chapter fame, of Apex fame, of Spencer Hanover fame (to name a few) will hope to keep the good times rolling with the top seller from the first Black Book sale session in Harrisburg, PA, on Monday (Nov. 2).

Snyder, tucked against a curtain leading to the Main Hall alongside his right-hand trainer Marcus Melander, struck top dollar on Hip #43, a filly consigned by Hanover Shoe Farms named Coffeeshop Hanover, with a winning bid of $800,000. The daughter of Chapter Seven is out of stakes-winning mare Crucial, making her a full sister to Melander graduate and Dan Patch 2-Year-Old Trotting Male of 2024 Maryland.

"First of all, what's there not to like, right?" Snyder said. "I bought the horse with Arthur Pronti, my partner with Super Chapter. I really feel that she's the best-bred filly in both sales, if you take a look at the first dam and the second dam was Jolene Jolene. I happened to buy a colt in Lexington by Jolene Jolene, as well. [She's a] great-looking filly. We're not risking the whole amount, because when it comes time to be a broodmare, she's got value. That's it."

Among the aforementioned dynamos of Snyder's recent yearling homeruns, Super Chapter — a $300,000 purchase — banked nearly $3 million in his career and will be standing stud at Hanover Shoe Farms in Pennsylvania. Apex, a $525,000 purchase that Snyder co-owned, gave the New York owner his first Hambletonian while accruing nearly $2 million on the racetrack. And Spencer Hanover, a $450,000 acquisition, became a millionaire earlier this year while having scored marquee wins including in the Breeders Crown as a 2-year-old and in the inaugural Oak Grove Trotting Derby as a 3-year-old.

"We've been very fortunate," Snyder said. "Arthur and I have had a lot of luck together. With a filly like this, you're not gambling the entire amount. I'm glad to support Hanover Shoe Farms because they are standing Super Chapter and Apex, so Hanover is close to our hearts."

Andrew Harris once again emerged as a prominent buyer during the opening session. While second among total purchases among all buyers on the day, Harris also snatched the second highest price of the day in Hip #60, a colt named Loudemetry consigned by Concord Stud Farm. The son of Sweet Lou is a full brother to Dan Patch 2-Year-Old Pacing Filly of 2023 Geocentric, who herself is a foal of champion pacing mare See You At Peelers.

"Gorgeous animal," Harris said. "I thought he was the best pacer in the sale and then you mix it with the filly they hit with, Geocentric, she was a Sweet Lou. Then they bring her back to Sweet Lou and this is the first colt out of the family, so there's a lot to like there. He looks the part, so let's hope we have the right halter and the price doesn't matter later."

Harris, walking away with just six from Lexington for partners Bill Pollock and Bruce Areman's Punisher 11 Stable, took seven home from opening day at Harrisburg. The team is also replenishing their inventory after a sensational campaign with near double millionaire Brandon Blvd, who scored a dominant win in the Grade 1 Breeders Crown 3-year-old colt pace in late October and will be the first commercial stallion for the group once he ships to stand at Hanover Shoe Farms in 2027.

"Lexington went very strong so I was being a little soft and Bill didn't let me be soft today," Harris said. "I tried to get him to stop on this one and he's like, 'No, we came here to buy horses, Andrew, let's keep going.' This is all on Bill, because I tried to stop and he kept going. After I made him go soft at Lexington, he didn't let me go soft here."

Serge Godin's Determination registered a pair of session leaders while being the overall session leader among buyers. Luc Blais, from the bleachers of the sales arena, won the auction on Hip #96 and Hip #91, the fifth and seventh most expensive purchases of the day respectively. Hip #96, the colt Mr Sean Hanover consigned by Hanover Shoe Farms, sold for $675,000. The son of Captain Corey is the second foal from the Muscle Hill mare M Diddy, who is out of world champion mare Maven.

"The individual, he'd catch your eye," Blais said of the colt. "I don't know what to say, he caught my eye all the times I saw him. I liked them [the Captain Coreys]. They are a very laid-back horse and smart horse. That's a good sire. I like the way they are not nervous. They are very professional, those horses. I'm very happy."

Blais also signed for Determination on Hip #91, a Chapter Seven filly consigned by Concord Stud Farm named Finest Chapter. The filly, out of Cantab Hall mare Fine Tuned Lady, is a half-sister to $1.5-million earner Oh Well.

"We've bought a few in that family, like Lookslikeachpndale, Jake, What Chapter," Blais said. "I used to train those horses and they were nice horses. That's not the only reason we bought her. I thought she looked the part – sporty and good family. My owner likes her too. He likes the page and we get her."

The third and fourth highest prices of the day came with thanks to Kjell Anderson of Switzerland, who acquired Hip #73 and also Hip #179 with Lucas Wallin signing as agent. Hip 73, a Walner filly consigned by Anvil And Lace Farm named Book A Spa Day, is a full-sister to triple millionaire Jiggy Jog S and brought $685,000 through the ring, the fourth highest of the day.

"She's out of such a great family," Anderson said. "I'm also trying to get a little bit of a broodmare band myself and, of course, regardless of how she does, she's going to have residual value down the road. Being a full sister to Jiggy Jog, what else can you ask for, right? I thought I had her at $500,000, but we had to go a little bit more than that, but it's okay. Somebody was bidding $10,000 in between so I thought, 'You know what, I'll bid $10,000 on the last one and see what happens' and we got her."

Anderson and Wallin then registered the third most expensive ticket late in the session with Hip #179, a Muscle Hill filly consigned by Concord Stud Farm named Glory Road, at the cost of $700,000. Out of the French-bred Ready Cash mare Goldy Mary FR, Glory Road is a half-sister to Custom, who sparred with the best of the sophomore trotting fillies across the Grand Circuit this season.

"It was one of the nicest fillies in the sale," Wallin said. "The pedigree and the individual, we loved everything about her. I'm very fortunate to have an owner like Kjell Anderson. They invest so much money every year. Last year he bought Maryland's sister and then he bought a very nice colt in Lexington this year and now this filly. Every trainer doesn't have owners like that, so I'm just very grateful."

Ake Svanstedt bought the sixth most expensive purchase of the day in Hip #168, a filly consigned by Preferred Equine named Empressofwalnford. The Walner filly is the first foal from Muscle Hill mare The Empress Ice, who is a full sister to Dan Patch 2-Year-Old Trotting Filly of 2018 The Ice Dutchess as well as world champion and Svanstedt graduate Ice Attraction.

"It's a very good family, of course," Svanstedt said. "She has value as a broodmare already now. If you buy a colt for this price, it's more chance than to buy a filly. It's for a Swedish owner. She looks good. She has a nice figure and a good-looking horse. She looks less like Ice Attraction, more like R Dutchess [a foal from The Ice Dutchess]."

OPENING SESSION WRAPS UP

The first session of the 2026 Black Book sale saw increases in gross and average. Day 1 of the 2026 sale saw $18,814,000 in gross sales for an average of $108,126, an increase from 2025's gross of $16,293,000 by 15.5 per cent and of 2025's average of $95,841 by 12.8 per cent.

"I thought maybe with what we had, we'd be up some," said Dale Welk, president/director of operations for the Standardbred Horse Sales Company. "Once they got started today, it was just unbelievable. The crowd was phenomenal — I think it's the biggest crowd we've had in the last three or four years. The parking lot's packed. The small arena was packed. The back, they were still showing horses, so it was a nice crowd.

"With everything that's going on — I know there were discussions today about the handles at racetracks, but they are still buying them and still buying big and that's great. I've been doing this for over 50 years now, you know, so I went through the big heydays in the '80s when you could sell anything for a phenomenal amount of money."

Around 400 yearlings are slated to sell for the second session of the Black Book sale on Tuesday (Nov. 3), and Welk said he feels positive about the momentum from Monday's session carrying over.

"I think we're going to be good," Welk said. "Maybe we won't be up 13 or 15 per cent each day, but I think we're going to be up. The reason I say that is because a lot of people got shut out today. I've had guys that normally come in here with seven, eight, nine slips that came in here with one. That's exactly what they said, 'I couldn't get anything else.' So, there's money left."

Session 2 of The Black Book sale will begin at 10 a.m. (EST).

Son of a Mystery: Cornaro Dasolo's retirement, Lemon Dra's disappearance

by Melissa Keith

According to his registration papers, he was foaled on Oct. 31, 1986.

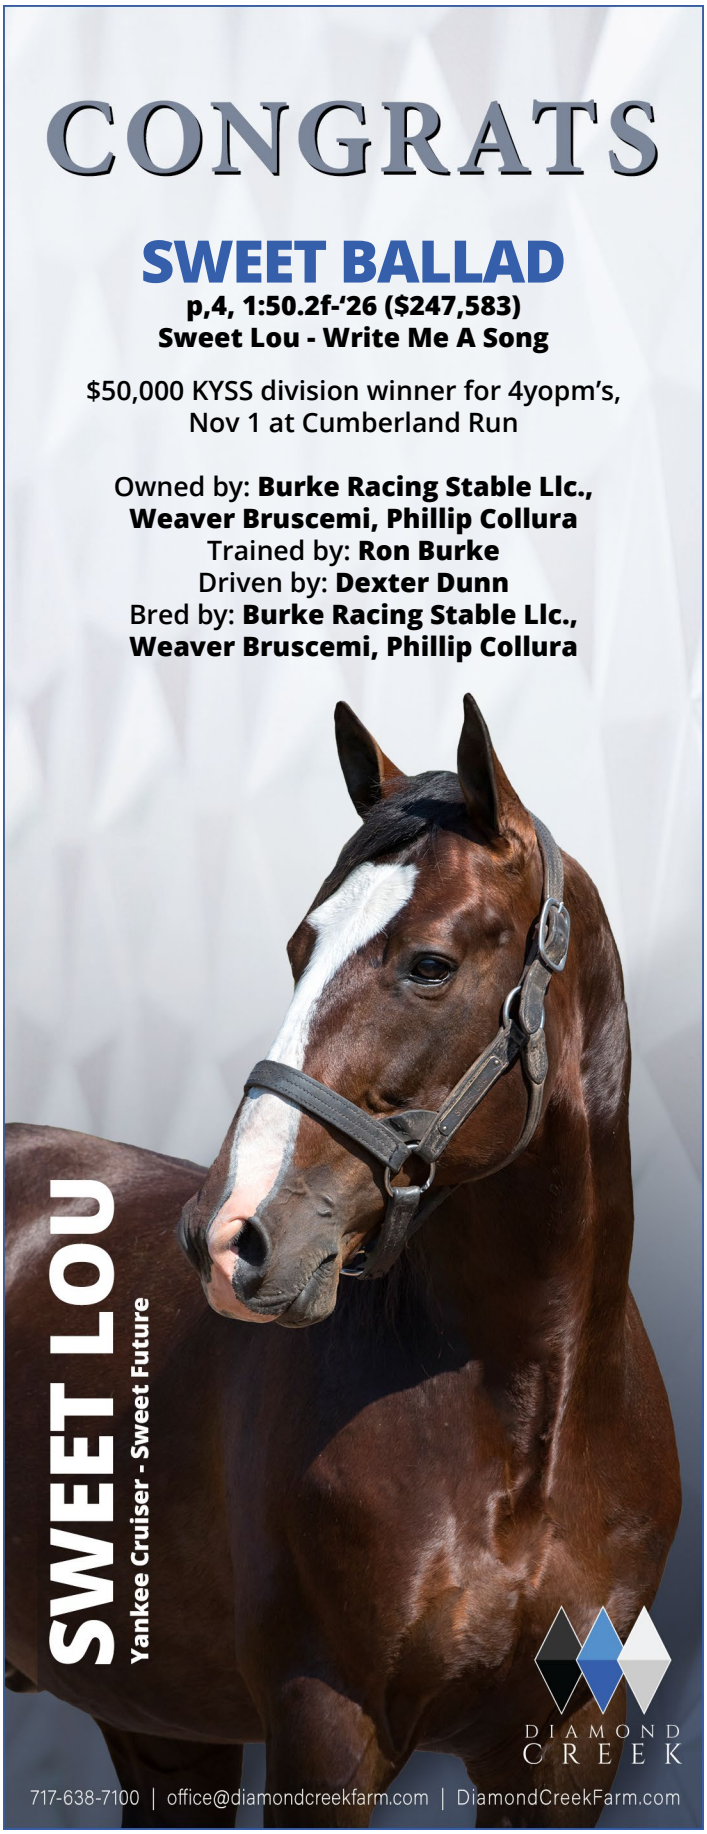

Italian trotting stallion Lemon Dra's unusual Halloween birth date seems mysterious, but pales in comparison with the greater mystery of his disappearance. While new revelations came to light this year in the case of kidnapped Irish thoroughbred stallion Shergar, who was taken for ransom in 1983, Lemon Dra's fate remains elusive. The top trotting racehorse and sire was taken from his stall at the Allevamento di Mariano stud farm in Noceto di Parma, Italy sometime overnight on April 6-7, 2006 and never seen again.

Two decades after Lemon Dra vanished, his importance to international trotting bloodlines lives on. In the 2024 Stallion Special edition of Il Trottatore magazine, writers Ezio and Davide Cipolat described his lasting impact: "Lemon Dra is notable for having solidified a sire line that regained momentum even in America, thanks to the brothers Conway, Angus, and Andover Hall... Lemon Dra is considered, by far, the best successor to the bloodline of the foundation sire Sharif di Iesolo." (Translated from Italian with Google Translate.)

There was one son of Lemon Dra at stud in Canada, until recently. Cornaro Dasolo was imported in 2009 by Guy Polillo of Brantford, ON, with the intention of offering an outcross stallion in Ontario. Although Cornaro Dasolo retired from stud in 2025, he is alive and well at age 27.

"He's still here at the farm," said Paul Polillo, son of the late Guy, on Saturday (Oct. 24).

"He was some kind of champion in Italy, and at that time, there was a lot of horses that my dad was buying here in Canada and shipping over to Italy. There was a lot of buyers at that time; harness racing was big in Italy."

Paul added that his father was primarily a "scout" of trotting talent for export.

"He was a horse owner and breeder, born and raised in Italy," Paul said. "He came to Canada when he was 15 years old."

Guy built a career in home renovations, but harness racing was his passion. Paul remembered the day that Cornaro Dasolo arrived at the family farm.

"There was an excitement about it, to see what we could do in Canada," Paul said. "You know, my dad did an awful lot of work trying to promote him and get him in magazines... But I think he had a difficult time doing that, [even with help from friends like Chris Christoforou]."

Although Cornaro Dasolo was unable to break through in North America as a commercial stallion, the Polillos believed in his potential.

"So basically, what he became at the end was he became our stallion," Paul said. "We bred all our mares to him, and actually we had a lot of luck with him through our mares. Our farm is basically all sons and daughters of Cornaro Dasolo now."

Cornaro Dasolo's only 2024 foal is Cornaro Kid.

"He's a 2-year-old, and was racing this summer," said Polillo, who shares ownership with trainer Julie Walker of Carlisle, ON and Dr. Terry Fried of Ayr, ON. "He's off right now and going to start back up in a few months for a 3-year-old campaign. He's the last baby of Cornaro."

Cornaro Kid won his first-ever qualifier on July 22 at Grand River Raceway, trotting to victory in 2:03.1 for driver Jason Ryan. The gelding qualified at Woodbine Mohawk Park on July 31 with Jean-Bernard Renaud in the sulky, finishing fifth. In his first start, Aug. 7 at Grand River, Cornaro Kid overcame post 8 to finish third. He made breaks in his next two starts at Mohawk, but won his Sept. 11 qualifier there in 2:00.3 with the addition of trotting hopples.

"He's actually down in the Campbellville area, where Julie's at; he's going to stay there for a few months and just be turned out," said Polillo, adding that he looked forward to bringing Cornaro Kid back to the track in 2027.

"He is a sentimental favorite. It was tough to see him getting gelded, but he needed to, to get racing. So, we're hoping for good things. He started out real positive this year, and then he started to get a little bit silly and have a problem at the gate and made a few breaks, so we decided to give him some time off and let him rest up and freshen up his mind until we can start back at it again."

Cornaro Kid's dam Fiorentina (4, 1:57.2s; $202,401) began her racing career at Mohawk in June 2011. The daughter of Angus Hall—Red Hot And Blue was a two-time Ontario Sires Stakes Grassroots winner at age 3, becoming a multiple Batavia Downs open trot winner in 2013 and 2014. She retired in Nov. 2015 with 24 wins from 102 career starts. Fiorentina's first foal was GP Dreamin (3, 1:53.3s; $104,434), a Cornaro Dasolo filly who broke her maiden in OSS Grassroots in her first career start at Mohawk and an OSS Gold winner there the following year.

Paul owns three broodmares: Fiorentina and her daughters, full sisters GP Dreamin and Seniorita Solo. Cornaro Dasolo lives with them on the Brampton farm.

"He's just out in the field all day long, eating, having a good time, and relaxing, just enjoying his last few years of life, I guess," said his owner. "We'll take care of him and do whatever we need to do to keep him happy for the rest of his life." Cornaro Dasolo's retirement stands in stark contrast to the little known about his sire's final days. A ransom was demanded when Lemon Dra was taken. In a 2024 article published on the VendoPuledri.it site, Italian trotting journalist and breeder Brunetto Tommaseo noted that the aging stallion was unwell when kidnapped, and likely died enroute to southern Italy.

"I did not know about that," Paul told HRU. "Maybe my dad heard something, but I never heard any stories about that.

"My dad took a chance and he did the best he could. We're happy that Cornaro is still around. He's been a great stallion for us and we've enjoyed his stay here with us... We're hoping to keep the bloodlines going, now through our mares. Hopefully they can produce something and keep it going."

As for Lemon Dra's Halloween birthday, it turns out to be the date assigned to all Italian-born foals of 1986. Official Associazione Nazionale Allevatori del Cavallo Trottatore records did not have verified foaling dates for older generations, so horses were given Oct. 31 plus the actual year of their birth on their registration papers. The Gran Premio Orsi Mangelli, the top Italian race for 3-year-old trotters, traditionally takes place on the weekend leading up to Nov. 1, All Saints Day.

Ischia Joy (Francesco Facci) winning the $295,000 Gran Premio Orsi Mangelli on Sunday at San Siro in Milan, Italy.

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Ischia Joy shines in Orsi Mangelli, Free Time Jepson delivers stunning finish in Milan

by Thomas Hedlund

It was a spectacular Sunday (Nov. 1) afternoon of harness racing at San Siro in Milan, Italy, where Ischia Joy defeated favorite Il Trio Jet in the Gran Premio Orsi Mangelli, while Free Time Jepson produced a breathtaking stretch drive to capture the Gran Premio delle Nazioni. Ingrid Am also impressed in the Orsi Mangelli Filly.

For Danish trainer Erik Bondo, Ischia Joy's victory in the prestigious 3-year-old event brought back memories of 2016, when his star filly Unicka became the last female trotter to win the race. Ten years later, Bondo was back in the winner's circle with another talented filly. Ischia Joy (Mister J.P.—Joy) had finished second to Il Trio Jet in the first $25,000 elimination, where Alessandro Gocciadoro guided the favorite to an easy wire-to-wire victory in 1:56.3. Ischia Joy closed strongly from second-over to finish second in 1:57, while Indianfire Wf (Alrajah One) finished third in 1:57.1 after a pocket trip.

The second elimination produced an upset when Enrico Belli and Ippopotamo Tq (Nuncio—Camelia Grif) caught heavy favorite Ideal Turdance (El Ideal) right on the wire in 1:56.1. Ippopotamo Tq launched his winning move from second-over turning for home, while Ideal Turdance put in a brave performance after racing first-over throughout the mile. Ilias d'Arc (Victor Gio) finished third in 1:56.3 following a pocket trip.

Il Trio Jet entered the final as the horse to beat following an outstanding season that included victories in the Gran Premio Nazionale and Gran Premio Città di Napoli, both worth approximately $190,000, as well as a runner-up finish in the Italian Derby.

But in the $295,000 final, Ischia Joy proved too strong.

Driver Francesco Facci tipped his filly out from second-over with three-eighths-of-a-mile remaining and quickly advanced alongside the leader, applying serious pressure around the final turn.

At the top of the stretch, it briefly appeared that Ischia Joy had used up her energy. Instead, she found another gear, powered past Il Trio Jet and drew clear to win in 1:54.

"She's a filly who can do everything," Facci said. "I wanted to make my move early rather than get trapped behind horses. She still had plenty left in the stretch and won quite easily."

Il Trio Jet (Wishing Stone) held second in 1:54.2, while Ilias d'Arc finished third in 1:54.4 after enjoying a pocket trip.

Ischia Joy, who returned $10.46 for a $2 win bet based on her European odds, entered the race off a victory in the approximately $291,000 Oaks del Trotto in Turin.

Earlier in the season, she had competed in France without making much of an impression, finishing seventh in both the Prix Roquépine and the Group 3 Prix d'Istres. Since returning to Italy, however, she has captured two of the country's most prestigious races for 3-year-old fillies and colts.

The filly was bred and is owned by Jean-Pierre Barjon, president of the French trotting association LeTROT.

In the $101,000 Gran Premio Orsi Mangelli Filly, Alessandro Gocciadoro-trained Ingrid Am (El Ideal—Connemara As) delivered another commanding performance.

Driven by Antonio Di Nardo, Ingrid Am took command from Impressive Gio with just over a half-mile remaining and was never seriously threatened. She cruised home in 1:57.1 over the mile.

I Love America (Muscle Hill) rallied from second-over to finish second in 1:57.4, while favorite Impressivo Gio (Face Time Bourbon) settled for third in 1:58 following a pocket trip.

Ingrid Am has enjoyed an outstanding season, having previously won the Gran Premio Nazionale Filly and Gran Premio Carlo Cacciari, both worth approximately $76,000, as well as the $40,500 Gran Premio Elwood Medium. She also finished second in the Oaks del Trotto.

FREE TIME JEPSON STORMS HOME IN GRAN PREMIO DELLE NAZIONI

The most dramatic finish of the evening came in the $246,000 Gran Premio delle Nazioni, where Free Time Jepson (Face Time Bourbon—Titty Jepson) produced a remarkable late rally to snatch victory from Falco Killer Gar.

With Andrea Guzzinati in the bike, Free Time Jepson appeared to face an almost impossible task when he launched his attack four-wide turning for home.

Up front, Falco Killer Gar (Varenne) had done the hard work, keeping Go On Boy parked on the outside before taking command with approximately three-eighths-of-a-mile remaining.

Falco Killer Gar opened up what appeared to be an insurmountable lead entering the stretch, but the final sixteenth-of-a-mile changed everything.

As the leader began to tire badly, Free Time Jepson came flying down the outside, rapidly closing the gap before sweeping past to score by more than a length in 1:56.4 over 1-5/16 miles.

"We made a plan with the owner to skip the summer racing season specifically to have the horse in peak condition for the winter," trainer Alessandro Gocciadoro said following the victory.

Falco Killer Gar held on for second, while Edgar Saba (Exploit Caf) finished third. Race favorite Go On Boy endured a difficult trip racing three-wide and was beaten well before the finish.

Free Time Jepson had failed to make an impact in his previous appearance, finishing off the board in the UET Elite Circuit final. But the horse who captured the prestigious Gran Premio della Lotteria earlier this season was clearly back to his best in Milan.

According to Gocciadoro, the difference was not simply physical.

"During his preparations, he had a little too much energy and was getting overly excited," Gocciadoro said. "Today, he had found the right racing mentality again. He was just as calm and relaxed as he was when he won the Gran Premio della Lotteria."

Guzzinati was equally impressed by the performance.

"Free Time Jepson delivered a truly outstanding performance," he said.

For Gocciadoro, the victory provided another reminder of the importance of patience and careful planning when preparing a top-class trotter for the biggest races of the season.

And for Free Time Jepson, it was an emphatic return to winning form, achieved in a fashion that few could have imagined at the top of the stretch.

INMAROSA OPENS VINCENNES WINTER MEETING WITH RECORD VICTORY

World record holder and Harper Hanovers Lopp winner Inmarosa kicked off the French winter meeting at Vincennes with an impressive victory in the $101,000 Prix des Cévennes on Thursday (Oct. 29), marking the mare's first win of the 2026 season.

With Léo Abrivard in the bike, Inmarosa (Amiral Sacha—Varkava) was forced to do the heavy lifting first-over after Jingle du Pont took command with approximately seven-eighths-of-a-mile remaining.

Despite the demanding trip, Inmarosa gradually wore down the leader and took control midway down the stretch. The final yards were far from easy, but the mare dug deep to hold off the late challenges of Harley Gema (Bold Eagle) and Hulysse Digeo (Rêve de Beylev).

Inmarosa stopped the clock in a new race record of 1:55.1 mile rate over 1¾ miles, lowering the previous mark of 1:55.2 established by Jushua Tree.

"Inmarosa was very eager and felt extremely strong," Abrivard said. "I decided to stay where I was rather than make a move for the lead. She felt very comfortable and was traveling beautifully, but when I saw the other horses closing in, I started to get a little worried. She showed tremendous courage to find enough energy to hold them off."

The victory was Inmarosa's first of 2026, following an outstanding 2025 campaign that included victories in Sweden's prestigious Harper Hanovers Lopp and the $134,000 Prix du Bourbonnais at Vincennes.

She also finished second in the Prix de France, third in Sweden's Paralympiatravet, and fourth in the Prix de Paris.

With the winter meeting now underway, Inmarosa appears ready to take on Europe's elite trotters once again, although her next assignment has yet to be determined.

"Whether she races next in the Prix du Bourbonnais or the Prix de Bretagne will be up to the trainer," Abrivard said.

BLIZZARD DIAMANT SETS ALL-AGE TRACK RECORD AT BJERKE

A mile in 1:51.3 on a cold October evening. By a 4-year-old. And he might not even be the best German 4-year-old in his own stable.

Paul Hagoort-trained Blizzard Diamant delivered a sensational performance in the $67,000 Axel Jensens Minneslopp at Bjerke in Oslo, Norway, on Saturday (Oct. 31), crushing his rivals despite a demanding first-over trip and setting a new all-age track record.

The German 4-year-old crop is something special this year, and Blizzard Diamant (Indigious—Sugabe Diamant) is certainly one of its brightest stars. His victory at Bjerke was his 15th in just 17 career starts, an extraordinary record for a horse who has spent much of the season in the shadow of his equally talented stablemate Fragolino Rosso (Booster Winner).

Blizzard Diamant has done almost everything right throughout his career. His only defeat this season came in the German Derby final, where he finished second to Fragolino Rosso, who subsequently destroyed his opposition in the European Derby final in Turin just a couple of weeks ago.

Remarkably, Fragolino Rosso's victory in Turin was also his 15th in 17 lifetime starts.

Blizzard Diamant first made headlines outside Germany in August 2025, when he established a European record of 1:52.3 in the Åby Stora Treåringspris in Sweden.

This season, the German Derby was his primary target, but he ran into a stablemate who proved just a little too strong.

At Bjerke, Blizzard Diamant was sent off as the heavy favorite in the prestigious sprint for 4-year-olds, but driver Robin Bakker was given no favors.

Swedish driver Örjan Kihlström, sitting behind Daniel Redén-trained Blank (Gimpanzee), was determined to protect the lead and had his horse in command after the opening quarter.

The pace was relentless, with the first 500 meters covered in a blistering 1:49.4 mile rate and the opening kilometer in a 1:52 mile rate.

Blizzard Diamant, parked first-over, seemed completely unaffected by the demanding fractions.

Around the final turn, he began to overpower Blank, and once he took command, the race was effectively over. The German star simply drew away from his rivals to score an overwhelming victory in 1:51.3.

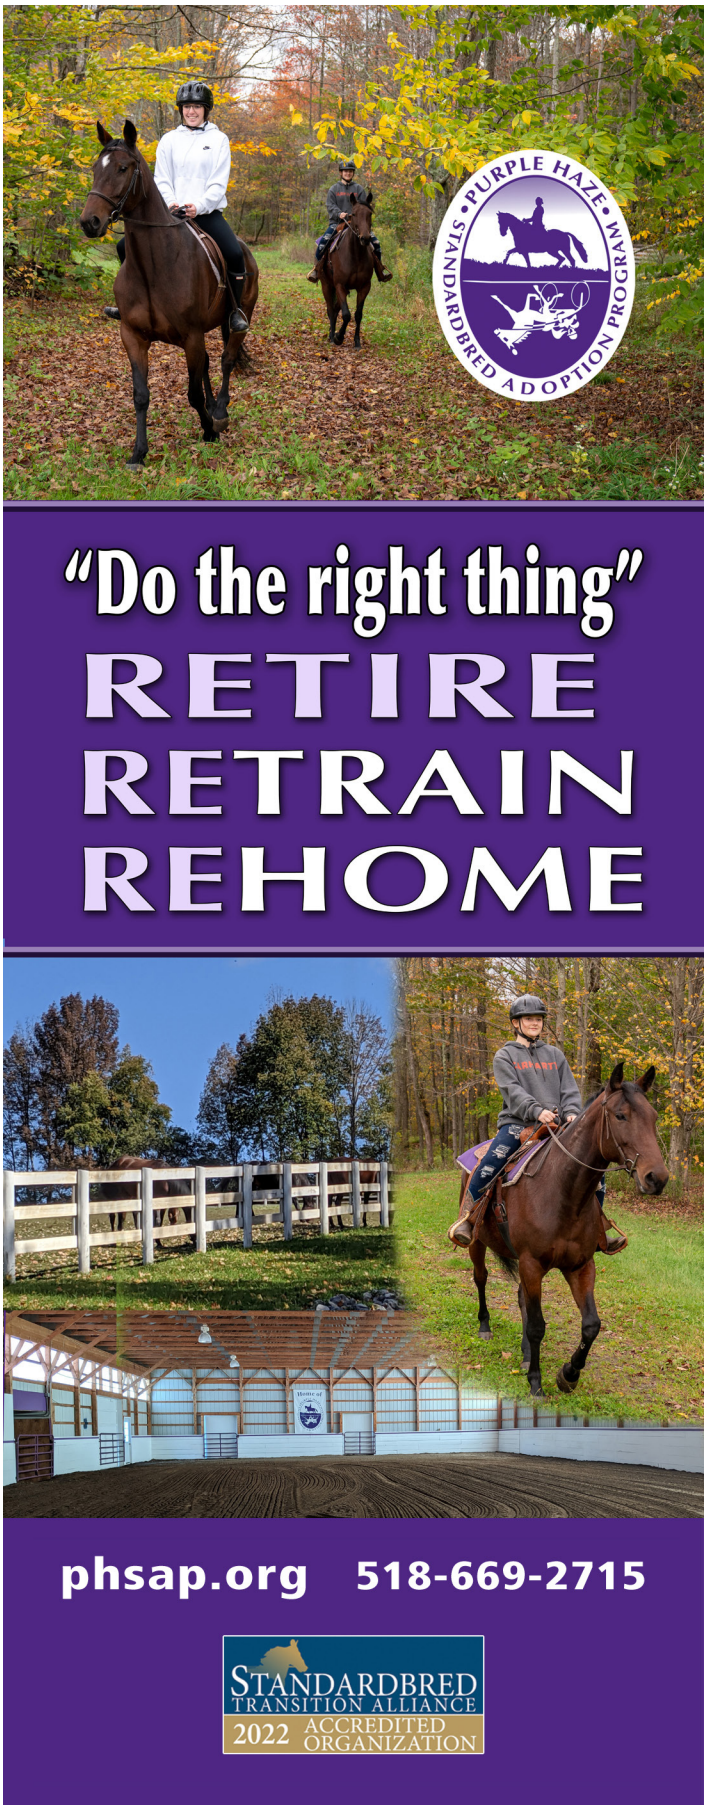

The performance established both a new stakes record and an all-age track record at Bjerke.

"I've driven a lot of good horses," Bakker said. "This year, I've had Fragolino Rosso and Blizzard Diamant, two fantastic horses. They're both incredibly strong, and it's difficult to say which one is better. They're two very good horses."

With two 4-year-olds boasting identical records of 15 victories from 17 starts, Hagoort has an extraordinary pair of German stars in his barn.

And after Blizzard Diamant's remarkable performance in Oslo, the question of which one is actually the better horse remains very much open.

SUPERSTAR FEMALES OF HARNESS RACING

with VICTORIA M. HOWARD

Theresa Brown had the guts to create something horses could stomach

by Victoria Howard

Courtesy Theresa Brown

Theresa Brown.

Although Theresa Brown's family was not involved in harness racing, she grew up near a training farm, and her deep love for animals has been constant throughout her life.

It started when she was in high school. She met and dated a dairy farmer and visited the farm every day helping to care for the calves and cows.

"I was born in Lapeer, MI, approximately 30 minutes from Sports Creek Raceway," Brown said. "Up until that time, I'd never been around racehorses, but when I started dating a dairy farmer, that was the first time I saw a horse attached to a cart going around a circle in the middle of the bean field.

"I soon discovered these horses were called standardbreds and from that day on I was hooked. It may sound silly, but at that time I knew nothing about horses or racehorses. The trainer who was stabled at the facility was Mike Sweeney. Along with his wife Patty, they operated a small racing stable. Throughout the summer Mike offered me a job as a stall cleaner."

At first, Brown declined Sweeney's offer until one day, she didn't, and the rest is history.

"I still remember my first day working as a groom — I hooked the lines to the halter instead of the bit," Brown said with a laugh. "I was immediately demoted back to stall cleaner, but was persistent and given another chance to prove I wasn't some dummy. I just needed someone to teach me.

"I believe we need more of this in our business — for trainers to take time to educate someone who is interested in becoming involved in the sport."

Since then, Brown has been a groom and an owner of standardbreds.

"Currently, I own two horses: Barley A Lie — an active racehorse who is trained by my partner of eight years, Randy Ehrhardt, and Journeyman, a retiree who has a safe, loving home for the rest of his life. Journeyman is now retired at Full Send Farm, run by Isabella Knecht who does a wonderful job retraining standardbreds.

"I've also joined a partnership that is currently in the process of purchasing yearlings — the number of horses isn't official yet, but it will be a group of between five to 10 yearlings for the 2027 racing season. I would love to own more aged horses, but the meet at Scioto Downs hasn't been the kindest to the claiming side of the business, but hopefully I will expand my stable once the meet at Dayton resumes."

What trainers have you worked for and where do your horses race?

"I've worked for Mike and Patty Sweeney, Peter and Melanie Wrenn, Kris Hinchcliff, Celebrity Farms, Ned Hodkinson, Steve Oldford, Bucky Goldschmidt, Jarold Hawks, Virgil Morgan, Ron Burke, and the entire group of amateur racing pals from Michigan. I love them all to pieces.

"I race my horses mainly in Ohio at the parimutuel tracks, but I've spent time all over the country and in Canada. One of my goals is to own horses in all jurisdictions."

Besides owning and working with your horses, in what other ways are you involved in the sport?

"I co-own a supplement business called Great Gut total stomach supplement. It all started with a few conversations I had with a friend. After we vented and discussed ideas, we came up with an idea — a recipe used in the past that a veterinarian shared, and how to make an affordable product that actually helps the animal, and horsemen would feel comfortable using."

> "I still remember my first day working as a groom — I hooked the lines to the halter instead of the bit. I was immediately demoted back to stall cleaner, but was persistent and given another chance to prove I wasn't some dummy. I just needed someone to teach me."
> — Theresa Brown

What made you think of inventing a product like this?

"At one time I had a horse who was underperforming. Originally, I thought he had a stomach problem, and I didn't know what to do. The owner of the horse was cutting costs and didn't want to spend money on medications.

"I was extremely upset, so for the sake of the horse, and every other horse out there whose owner thinks is not worth buying medication for, I went to the drawing board. I'm not talking bad about anyone because I know how expensive it can be, but when you own a horse, you must provide the necessary care to obtain a stellar performance.

"Horses deserve to be happy, healthy, and look and feel good. It's our job to do the best we can possibly do to help them. We purchase, breed, and raise them to do the things we ask and are responsible for their well-being. People need to realize horses are not machines — they are living, breathing creatures."

So how did you bring the idea to realization?

"Prior to starting this business, I was in a bad place. I had horses I loved but was not taken seriously by others. I felt undervalued and mistreated so I called my friend [my business partner today] asking, 'What can be done for these animals?' How can I work for myself and make the decisions and feel fulfilled? "Can I provide for my family and do something I would be proud to tell my daughter about? The simple ideas led to more challenging ones, so I decided to leave my job, and it was the best decision I ever made. For months my partner and I brainstormed, contacting friends to sample the product. We searched for a business location, researched the rules and regulations for supplements and fine-tuned the recipe.

"We connected with suppliers and worked closely with customers, listening to their feedback. We had before and after photos taken of the horses and watched the races every night to see if the horses using our brand showed improvement. We truly wanted this product to be something that would speak for itself. To see if it genuinely helped the horse at a price owners and trainers were happy with, while helping to give the horse the proper care needed.

"I am pleased with the final results, and the next step is to take it international. The filing and application process has been done, and we are starting to send our product overseas."

Besides your new business and caring for your horses, is there anything else you do?

"Well, presently I care for a small group of horses for Virgil Morgan, Jr. It may not make sense to some people because my plate is full, but to me it's not about the paycheck. It's about having a group of horses that I get to spoil and love until I can build my own stable back up.

"I am also the proud mother of a 7-year-old daughter named Melody, and 16-year-old step-on, Jordan. Melody ended up with her name since music has always been so large in my life.

> "I co-own a supplement business called Great Gut total stomach supplement. It all started with a few conversations I had with a friend... we came up with an idea — a recipe used in the past that a veterinarian shared, and how to make an affordable product that actually helps the animal, and horsemen would feel comfortable using."
> — Theresa Brown

"I had the chance to name a few horses, so I added the music part in. One was named Cream [a Wu-Tang song], and Ohohoh Im Fire [Bruce Springsteen]. If I ever have free time, I enjoy going to concerts and music festivals.

"Harness racing has been good to me and introduced me to many great people. I hope to give back through my product."

Is there anyone in particular you would like to thank?

"I am forever thankful for the Sweeney's and Allison Hill a coworker from my table in that stable. They taught me so much about caring for the horse, jogging, training, shipping and racing."

What female in the sport do you most admire?

"As far as a female I admire the most, it would be Melanie Wrenn. She is such a strong woman who can do it all. She can be a wife, mother, and now grandmother and still manages to hold the home together. If I can be half the woman Melanie Wrenn is that would be something to be proud of."

Starstruck Dreamer (Todd McCarthy) winning the $125,000 Grade 3 Kindergarten Classic final for 2-year-old pacing colts on Saturday at The Meadowlands.

New Jersey

Starstruck Dreamer, Miss Dolce capture Kindergarten pace finals

by Frank Cotolo / Meadowlands media relations

The freshman pacing colts and fillies launched for $125,000 purses in each of the Grade 3 Kindergarten Series finals at The Meadowlands on Saturday (Oct. 31) with Starstruck Dreamer and Miss Dolce showing their best to win the respective divisional affairs.

In the final for pacing colts, Seine was the fastest off the gate followed by Aintmyfirstro Deo settling behind him and big favorite Starstruck Dreamer securing the third spot out of post 10. Seine cut the first quarter in :28 and sailed unchallenged to a :56.3 half and to three-quarters in 1:24.2. But rounding for home, driver Todd McCarthy tipped out and furiously ground down Seine to slide by for a neck win in 1:50.3. Aintmyfirstro Deo gave chase in third and Wishawave took fourth.

"We actually pulled his shoes last Sunday — that was going to be it for the year," said trainer Noel Daley after the race. "But I decided to put them back on and we threw him on the trailer to give him one more start. After her raced down there [in the Breeders Crown] he was bouncing off the walls, so I thought we might as well give him one more go. Any time you can get away with 10 starts, we're pretty happy putting him away. He's more like a thoroughbred — he doesn't take a lot of work. He's a very good horse."

Starstruck Dreamer, a son of Captaintreacherous out of stakes-winning mare Scarlett Hanover, won his seventh race from nine starts, increasing his first-season earnings to $450,875 for owners Steve Wienick Racing, Pryde Stables, Jfoderatritchiecanamerica, and Hyatt Holding Inc. He paid $3 to win.

Miss Dolce (Joe Bongiorno) winning the Kindergarten final for 2-year-old pacing fillies.

Joe Bongiorno guided Miss Dolce to victory in the filly final, sidestepping the efforts of early speeder JK Simcha to score in a lifetime-best 1:51.2.

Miss Dolce took the lead after JK Simcha cut a :27.1 first panel, but JK Simcha looped back around to retake the lead heading to a :56.1 half. Miss Dolce tracked intently from the pocket around the last turn and edged outside to attack after three-quarters in 1:23.4. Bongiorno implored his charge and paced strongest to the finish to best JK Simcha by three-quarters-of-a-length with Perfect Kiss taking third from Call Me Crazy in fourth.

"This was my first time driving her and I was honestly shocked when I saw the driver changes come out," Bongiorno said after the race. "But I know she's been sharp the last few starts and figured I'd put her in play tonight and it all worked out. I was very happy with the 2-hole; [the connections] said she was better with a target. When [JK Simcha] re-moved, I was more than happy to go a fair second quarter and take my shot in the lane."

Miss Dolce is a Perfect Spring filly out of the Roll With Joe mare Beautiful Candy. With the filly's third win — all coming at The Meadowlands — from 12 starts, her bankroll pumped to $124,484. Val D'Or Farms and trainer Joe Holloway own the filly, and she paid $7.60 to win.

Bentley Blue Chip, HL Kapara pounce and score in Kindergarten trot finals

by Ray Cotolo / Meadowlands media relations

Bentley Blue Chip converted a pocket trip to a victory at odds of 9-2 and 19-1 shot HL Kapara persisted in her stretch rally to win in their respective $125,000 Grade 3 Kindergarten Series finals for trotting freshman on Saturday night (Oct. 31) at The Meadowlands.

Driver Yannick Gingras procured a golden seat for Bentley Blue Chip to angle out and scoot by for a 1:52.2 win in the colts' final.

With 3-2 favorite Obiter Dictum breaking stride around the first turn, Gustav Vasa forged forward to the lead with Gingras perching Bentley Blue Chip in behind to a :27.3 first quarter. Gustav Vasa coasted up the backside to a :55.4 half and slowed proceedings through the last turn, prompting Captain Kenny J to angle out of third with Seven Pledges grabbing his cover. But Gustav Vasa spun off three-quarters in 1:24.1 repelling all foes except Bentley Blue Chip as Gingras seamlessly tipped out and zipped past to snatch the win by 2¼ lengths. Seven Pledges rallied off cover to take third while New Hope skimmed the cones for fourth.

"He hasn't raced very consistently because of different things with him, but he had trained good and showed more potential after each race," Sarah Svanstedt of Team Svanstedt said. "Winning the final is just great. You don't know before if you can win it or not even if you have a great horse. So, we're very happy about the end of the season for him."

Ake Svanstedt trains Bentley Blue Chip, slated to start next in the Valley Victory on Nov. 14 at The Meadowlands, for his ownership and partners Blue Chip Bloodstock, Tomas Andersson, and Lennart Johansson. The colt by Walner—Dunk The Donato, making him a half-brother to world champion Plunge Blue Chip, has now won three races from nine starts and earned $103,625. Sent off as the third choice in the betting, he paid $11.40 to win.

HL Kapara kept grinding as the leaders labored in the lane and successfully reeled in the competition to land a 19-1 upset in the fillies' final.

Leaving from post 2, driver Tim Tetrick settled HL Kapara into fourth as Athena's Girl, making her first start since scratching sick from the Breeders Crown eliminations, pushed on the outside to take the lead by a :28.2 first quarter. Athena's Girl cruised unchallenged to a :57 half and mildly accelerated through the last turn as odds-on favorite Orinoco angled off the pylons from third. Past three-quarters in 1:25.2, Athena's Girl kept wavering Orinoco and pocket-sitter Day One Dandy at bay, though Tetrick ripped wide after sitting second-over and gathered enough steam to nail a weary Athena's Girl at the line to win by a length. Day One Dandy took third and Orinoco stayed on for fourth.

"She lost an eye as a baby and I had to work with her and retrain her," trainer Harry Landy said after the race. "With one eye she's amazing, if she had two, I don't know how great she'd be. She was really good for a while, but lately I felt her confidence come back up. I knew she would be great tonight. I would put her against any filly in the country right now — one on one, she would battle them down the stretch. She's really got heart."

A filly by Chapter Seven—Sel's Choice, HL Kapara collected just her second win from nine starts and has now banked $115,500 for owner/breeder Share A Horse Inc. The filly, bound for the Goldsmith Maid on Nov. 14 at The Meadowlands, paid $40 to win.

A LITTLE MORE: There will be a nice carryover for punters to shoot for Friday (Nov. 6) on the Late 20-cent Pick-5. After a sequence Saturday night that saw winner's odds of 5-2, 9-2, 25-1, 13-1, and 8-5, those with four correct selections collected $252.20. The carryover will be $17,328. The Late Pick-5 is offered on races 8 through 12... Brad Chisholm, Dexter Dunn, and Yannick Gingras tied atop the driver leaderboard with three wins each... Mark Silva, Noel Daley, and Bruce Lauer had a pair of victories apiece to top the trainers... All-source betting on the 13-race program totaled $2,370,842.

Alberta champions crowned in Super Finals at Century Mile

by Standardbred Canada

The Alberta Sires Stakes (ABSS) Super Finals produced four impressive winning performances as 2- and 3-year-old pacers contested the $90,000 championship events over a sloppy track on Saturday (Oct. 31) at Century Mile.

Phil Giesbrecht drove both 2-year-old winners and had a combined margin of victory of 12½ lengths as filly Captain Tahiti cut the mile and colt Somewhat Tipsy sprinted away off an uncovered advance.

Captain Tahiti bottomed out the field in the rookie distaff dash for back-to-back ABSS wins in 1:56.3. Outlaw Risk N Hope (Logan Gillis) hustled past inside starter Captain Tahiti into the first turn, but Giesbrecht sent his filly out and to the top before the quarter in :28.2. After taking a two-length lead to the half in :56.4, she dashed five lengths clear to three-quarters in 1:26.2 and ran up the score to seven lengths while equaling her career mark. Miss Melanie (David Kelly) rallied off cover for second, with Blue Star Shania (Mike Hennessy) third.

Captain Tahiti took wins in divisions of the Emerald Filly Pace and ABSS Alberta Stardust prior to Saturday's triumph, which upped her record to four-for-seven and her bankroll to $77,040. Chris Lancaster trains the daughter of Captain Deo—Tahiti Seelster and co-owns her with Doug Bowers of Brandon, Man. The winner returned $3.10.

Somewhat Tipsy was the only non-favorite of the four to score in the Super Finals as the rookie colt replicated his 5½-length winning margin from the final preliminary ABSS leg.

The son of Vertical Horizon—Mrs Suhwiggins settled in fourth and let Scouts Command (Doug McNair) dictate the fractions of :29.3 and :58.3. Giesbrecht gave Somewhat Tipsy his cue at the top of the last bend and rushed the colt alongside Scouts Command, edging ahead at three-quarters in 1:27.2. The former leader hung in there until the eighth pole, when Somewhat Tipsy blew the race open and motored to victory in 1:55.1. Dungannigans (Nathan Sobey) was second-best, followed by favorite Y V Michters (David Kelly).

Somewhat Tipsy has won three straight ABSS starts for trainer/driver Giesbrecht, taking two prelims prior to Saturday's victory that launched his earnings to $68,959. He is now three-for-eight for owners J J J Stables of North Vancouver, BC and 4WRacing of Surrey, BC. The win price was $7.20.

Lets Go Gals was responsible for the biggest blowout of the night as she captured the sophomore filly pace Super Final by 11 lengths. Blake Piwniuk orchestrated the gate-to-wire romp, putting the filly in front through :28.2 and :57 fractions before dropping the hammer with a :27.4 third panel to reach three-quarters on a three-length lead in 1:24.4. Lets Go Gals unleashed another :28.3 section coming home, with Piwniuk celebrating across the line while his charge stopped the clock in 1:53.2. Blue Star Strike (Drew Campbell) closed from sixth down the lane for place, with Mystery Shooter (Nathan Sobey) third.

Lets Go Gals improved on her ABSS Super Final consolation victory last year, upping her career earnings to $123,349 with her fifth career tally in 31 starts on Saturday. Rebecca Kanak trains the daughter of Captain Deo—Twin B Breezeway, now four-for-21 this season, for Trevor Williams of Winnipeg, MB, Aurel Vodon of Virden, MB, and Morning Line Inc. of Airdrie, AB. The winner paid out $4.80.

Jamie Gray's trainees swept the triactor in the final for 3-year-old colts and geldings, with the Doug McNair-driven Boleto A Mexico leading the trio to the wire. McNair blasted the Captive Audience—Legs Like Tina colt from post 5 to the lead and rattled off fractions of :28.1, :56.4, and 1:25.2 with Gray's Ruler Of Dragons (Phil Giesbrecht) first-over and in pursuit around the last turn. A game Ruler Of Dragons closed late on the wrapped-up Boleto A Mexico, but the leader prevailed by a measured three-quarters-of-a-length in 1:54.4. Mayhem N Madness, driven by Gray, slid out from a tight spot in fifth turning for home and closed for third.

Boleto A Mexico, also a consolation winner in 2025, nabbed his third straight win for owners Gray of Sturgeon County, AB, Max Gibb of Millarville, AB, 5 Amigos of Sturgeon County and Aaron Malkin of Calgary, AB. He has won five of 14 seasonal starts and is seven-for-19 lifetime with $132,330 earned. He returned $2.70 at the mutuels.

Oops All Berries takes spotlight in Virginia Breeders Fund Day of Champions card at Shenandoah Downs

by Darrell Wood

Janet Davis' Oops All Berries captured the $116,750 Virginia Breeders Fund 2-year-old filly pace at Shenandoah Downs Saturday (Oct. 31) and shattered the prior speed mark for that division by two full seconds. The Captain Crunch filly authored quarter panels of :28, :57.1, and 1:25.3 before crossing in 1:54.1 with Eric Davis in the sulky. She won her fourth straight race and is six-for-nine overall now with a pair of second place finishes for owner Ramona Gillespie. Jason Skinner's Denim N Pearls finished second and Hagerman Racing's All That Rusty was third.

The filly clash was one of four Breeders Fund finals on the Woodstock oval's freshman showcase card which featured a combined $453,850 in purse money for the quartet.

Hagerman Racing's Caviart Legend survived a wild 2-year-old colt pace final that saw lead changes galore. Corey Braden piloted the son of Captain Crunch to a 1:58 finish as he powered past stretch leader Ohh Hey Bud and finished one length the best. Initially, the winner paced in fourth through the half while betting favorite Ballarddrgoldfngr led early — but surrendered the top spot to Blue Jay's Watchin after going off-stride. The favored pacer regained his gait and surged back into the lead from outside at the third panel and led shortly but Ohh Hey Bud stormed four wide in the final turn to take control heading into the final straightaway.

Caviart Legend, sent off at 9-1, prevailed after respective second and fourth place finishes in two elimination legs. Joe Chindano's Ohh Hey Bud ended up second and Vanessa Powell's Lovethatsoup was third.

Caviart Farm's Call Me Ovi took care of business in the $111,475 2-year-old colt trot after an impressive second round elimination victory. The Gimpanzee colt, trained by Hall of Famer Jim Campbell, wired the field and crossed in 1:58.4, three lengths ahead of runner-up In The Worst Way. Troy Beyer was in the bike for Call Me Ovi's win a week ago in 2:00.4 and in Saturday's finale. Hagerman Racing's Il Mago gelding was second and William Roberts and Graham Grace Stables' Youcancallmeroy took third.

"This was a race we had on the calendar," said Campbell. "We kept him at Chester because he wasn't quite ready to go in Kentucky Sire Stake competition yet. Troy did a great job bringing him along. He's one of those green horses that took him awhile to get used to the grandstand and things like that. I was impressed with him today — that was a good mile over this track. As the season has gone on, he's matured and become a very nice racehorse."

Asked about Shenandoah Downs, he said, "This is my second time here and I'm most impressed by the people. They're all very friendly. I've bumped into some people I hadn't seen in 40 years or more. It's nice. It reminds me of going with my dad to some of the smaller tracks in Canada when he was racing. It gives me a special feeling to think of my dad that way."

Tremaine Harding's Dance With Jenni, winner of the $103,150 Virginia Sire Stake final Oct. 3, was best again in Saturday's $110,500 Breeders Fund 2-year-old filly trot. The daughter of Armed Dangerously completed a stellar meet when she crossed in 2:00.4 with Billy Carter in the bike. Sent off at 8-1 odds, she maintained a front stepping position throughout, posting fractions of :30, 1:00.3, and 1:30.3. The winner is trained by Mike Whitaker. Tremaine Harding and Cornelius Martin's Queen Jessica took second and Rudy Hostetler's Aren't I Pretty finished third.

In Sunday action, "Horse of the Meet" One Fell Swoop completed a perfect fall season in Woodstock in an $8,500 conditioned pace. The 3-year-old Huntsville gelding came into the race five-for-five and met a rise in class without blinking. Driver/trainer Chuck Perry directed Chris Pangle's charge to his best time yet — a 1:54.1 clocking. Locally based Pangle bought a trio of harness horses this spring — his first ones ever — and One Fell Swoop, one of the three purchases, went on to win all six starts at Pangle's home track this fall.

Twenty-two-year-old William Carter won the track's driver title with 24 wins. Corey Braden finished second with 22 and Fern Paquet, Jr. was third with 17. In the trainer chase, 23-year-old Bryson Dunning took top honors with 21 wins. Scott Warnick finished second with 19 and Elisha Lafreniere was third with 10.

Shenandoah Downs' 11th fall season came to a close on Sunday. The track will conduct spring and fall meets again in 2027.

Liberty Bell stakes to Mardi Gras Man, Highland B Best

Even though the calendar said Nov. 1, there were still a pair of 1:49.2 miles in two $30,000 divisions of the Liberty Bell for 3-year-old colt pacers on Sunday afternoon (Nov. 1) over Harrah's Philadelphia five-eighths-mile oval.

The program got off to a quick start when the Stay Hungry gelding Mardi Gras Man equaled his mark in the first Liberty Bell section. A winner of seven straight in the lower ranks but in-and-out in his last few races, Mardi Gras Man left no doubt as to his sharp form for trainer Stacy Chiodo and Timothy Tobias Stable. Simon Allard kept the sophomore in third through early fractions of :26.3 and :55.1, then gave Mardi Gras Man the word and got a :26.1 third quarter response to clear to the lead before the 1:22 three quarters, and the pair kept rolling in the :27.2 finishing stanza to win by 3¾ lengths over Good Friday.

The 1:49.2 win of the Always B Miki gelding Highland B Best represented an outright lifetime best and his second straight victory. Troy Beyer got the 3-year-old to sit in the 2-hole as Toast Of The Town produced fractions of :26.2, :54.3, and 1:22, then got Highland B Best in gear quickly to pace home in :27.1 and catch the pacesetter by a neck for trainer Katie Beyer and Highland Thoroughbred Frm.

Both Mardi Gras Man (6-5) and Highland B Best (8-5) were second choices in the wagering, as was the winner of the $16,000 fast-class pace, the Sweet Lou gelding Christopher Dance N (who was even shorter on the odds board at even money), as he stopped the timer in 1:50.2 to defeat Goliath Hanover, who had made a second quarter brush to the top, by three-quarters-of-a-length. Christopher Dance N, who got a 2-hole trip, paced home in :53.4 - :26.3 for driver Mark Herschberger, trainer Enrico Robinson, and Pollack Racing LLC.

George Napolitano, Jr. topped the drivers list with three victories; sitting in the winning sulky seat twice were amateur driver Cote Keim (who also trained his pair), Herschberger (both for trainer Robinson), Johnathan Ahle, and Allard. Allard's two-bagger again put him in the lead of the currently see-sawing battle with Tim Tetrick at the top of the local seasonal drivers list, 118-117, while Scott DiDomenico's 43rd winner at the meet gave him the outright lead, with Joe Bongiorno and Dean Eckley a single triumph behind.

Racing resumes at the riverside oval on Thursday at 12:25 p.m., with 2-year-old fillies in Liberty Bell stakes action: one $45,600 division for the trotters and two $34,500 cuts for the pacers. Free Philly program pages are or will be available at www.phha.org.

Gimmicks, smimmicks, stick to the traditional bets

I am simply amazed at the bad advice some people are giving concerning how to increase the handle at harness racetracks. Do we really think that offering crazy ideas like the Pick-8 increases handle in the long run?

Yes, I see mostly elderly people throwing $20 bills in the lottery machines hoping to hit a jackpot. It is very sad. This is money better used to buy food.

Horse race handicapping is not easy. But people only continue to wager on horses when they do win some of the time. I advise people to bet on should win horses almost every day, and avoid the seeking of "pot of gold" gimmicks. I've been betting horses for over 60 years and the crazy gimmicks come and go. I watch online these days and laugh when the announcers give their Pick-5 picks for the night. They lose $48 and never mention how upset that makes them. I wonder who is going to give newbies to the sport good advice when us old guys are no longer around.

Sure, I'm not happy when my pick clicks down from 3-5 to 1-9 as the race goes off. But that's still better than trying to hit a life-changing Pick-5 with a small wager.
