The yearling portion of the Standardbred Horse Sales Company auction concluded on Wednesday with Hanover Shoe Farms as the leading consignor with total sales of $10.24 million for 181 sold.

SHSC yearling sale wraps with strong gains

by Ray Cotolo

After a strong opening session with just over 15 per cent growth in gross year over year, Dale Welk felt that momentum would carry through the rest of the yearling sessions for the 2026 Standardbred Horse Sales Company (SHSC) auction in Harrisburg, PA. The president/director of operations for the SHSC had his feelings proven correct by the end of the final yearling session on Wednesday (Nov. 4) with figures that bested the last three years of the Black Book sale.

From 886 yearlings, the 2026 Black Book sale grossed $40,040,000 with an average sales price of $45,192 compared to 2025's gross of $36,030,000 and average of $41,701 from 864 horses – an 11.1 per cent increase in year-over-year gross and an 8.4 per cent increase in year-over-year average. The last Black Book sale to register better gross and average price figures was the 2022 sale, which grossed $44,356,000 from 904 yearlings for an average price of $49,066.

Determination's Serge Godin of Montreal led all buyers by spending $1.89 million, total, to purchase six yearlings, all on day one.

As for the third session individually, the gross of $5,762,000 represented a 6 per cent increase from 2025's third session gross of $5,436,000. The average also increased.

"It's proving that Standardbred is here to stay," Dale Welk said. "It's a regrouping; I think people need to restock and get new stock in. I was really impressed with the middle market and, today, there were some great horses sold today. Everybody thinks, 'Wednesday, aw, doom and gloom,' ... well, there were some that went through the cracks, but overall, it was a great, great sale.

"I didn't expect it to be quite as good as it was. I thought we'd be okay. I didn't think it would be down, but I didn't know. I thought we'd be kind of flat, but I'm pleasantly surprised. I guess I'd rather be a bit pessimistic and it comes out like this, than being optimistic and then something goes the other way because it gets me depressed. I'm really pleasantly surprised and I really can't thank everyone enough – my crew, my team, the buyers, the consignors, I think everybody is pretty satisfied."

Wednesday's session saw a pair of Ontario-eligible prospects leave the ring for six figures. Nikway Farms Ltd. of St. David's, NL, landed the session topper for $150,000 with Hip #724, a King Of The North colt consigned by Concord Stud Farm named Theo The King. His dam, the Guccio mare HP Guccio Girl, is a half-sister to O'Brien 2-Year-Old Trotting Colt of 2019 HP Royal Theo.

Two yearlings reached $100,000 or more on Wednesday. Hip #682 Waco, a Bulldog Hanover colt out of Endless Summer (above) sold for $100,000 to John Pentland and Hip #724 Theo The King, a King Of The North colt out of Hp Guccio Girl who topped the session with a bid of $150,000 from Nikway Farms of Newfoundland. Both colts were sold by Concord Stud.

"It's been more gaining comfort with the offerings and having confidence with the choices we're making," said Brent Chaffey, who operates Nikway Farms with his wife Sherry and daughter Kira. "We're fortunate to have aligned ourselves with a really topnotch training family. The Steacys are excellent folks and they do a really nice job with the horses, so it's just a gaining comfort level for us.

"Our dream would be to have some sort of Grand Circuit success. That's what we're trying to get to and today, and this week, we've taken a good stab at it. It's just a hobby for us. We have another life that affords us to be able to do things like this. We need to focus on that, but what spare time we have we enjoy engaging in harness racing. We don't do any of the work ourselves — our mares are cared for by other people, our foals are raised by other people, our trainers do all the training. We just get to show up and smile and enjoy whatever we can. Hopefully, we'll get some success out of this."

Along with his Wednesday session topper, the Chaffey family also took plunges during the sale on Hip #27, a Confederate colt named Caviart Andrew, for $177,000 and then bought another trotter during the second session for $62,000 with Hip #513, a Captain Corey colt named Saquon Hanover.

"We did our own research, but we really depended a lot on the advice of our trainer to help guide us through the dos and the don'ts, what things to look for and what things to avoid," Brent said. "When we boiled it all down, this is where we ended up. We tried a few more, but we didn't get… they were going to people who were not going to stop. So, I said, 'Look, we don't need to beat our brains out here, we might as well just go on and find something that we're more comfortable with.' That's what led us to this."

Another Canadian, conditioner John Pentland, hit the leaderboards Wednesday when he snagged the other six-figure yearling of the day in Hip #682, a Bulldog Hanover colt consigned by Concord Stud Farm named Waco. The colt, selling for $100,000, is out of the Somebeachsomewhere mare Endless Summer, who is a half-sister to world champions and double millionaires Rock N Roll Heaven and Clear Vision.

"Well, there's only about three quarters of a horse; he's a little on the small side," Pentland said. "He's not tiny, he's good. He's super made, perfect conformation, really well-made colt. He gave away a little bit on size. I bought the horse and I was right beside Linda Toscano and her owner and they were the underbidders.

They were really nice. They got up after and congratulated me and we chatted. Richard [Gutnick] said that the whole family is that size, good horses or bad horses doesn't matter... Rock N Roll Heaven, all of them, they are all that size, so that was really nice of him to tell me that."

Pentland, an ever-present face every year at the major yearling sales, also represents yet another player who has increased his holster thanks to a generational stable star. Back in 2024, Pentland and his partners took a chance in the second session on a son of Bulldog Hanover named Redland Rocket Man, who has since parlayed his $30,000 sale price into nearly $800,000 in earnings including a classic victory in the Grade 1 Little Brown Jug and a Canadian record with a 1:46.4 win over reigning Horse of the Year Beau Jangles in the Grade 3 Simcoe Stakes at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

"I've got really good support from some partners," Pentland said. "They realize that if we're going to get a Bulldog, we're going to have to step to the plate. When I started doing the math, dividing things by four isn't that hard. The boys all wanted a quality horse, so we had to step up to get it. I said after [Redland Rocket Man] broke that Canadian record, 'This is a whole lot of fun, this glamor-boy thing.' I've got tons of fillies. I don't really like training trotters as much, so I can't just train 15 fillies every year, so it all works out well."

Increasing his Harrisburg investment twofold in 2026, Pentland also snatched another Bulldog Hanover for $70,000 with Hip #765 consigned by Vieux Carre Farms, a colt named Bull Ring whose great granddam is the world champion Rainbow Blue.

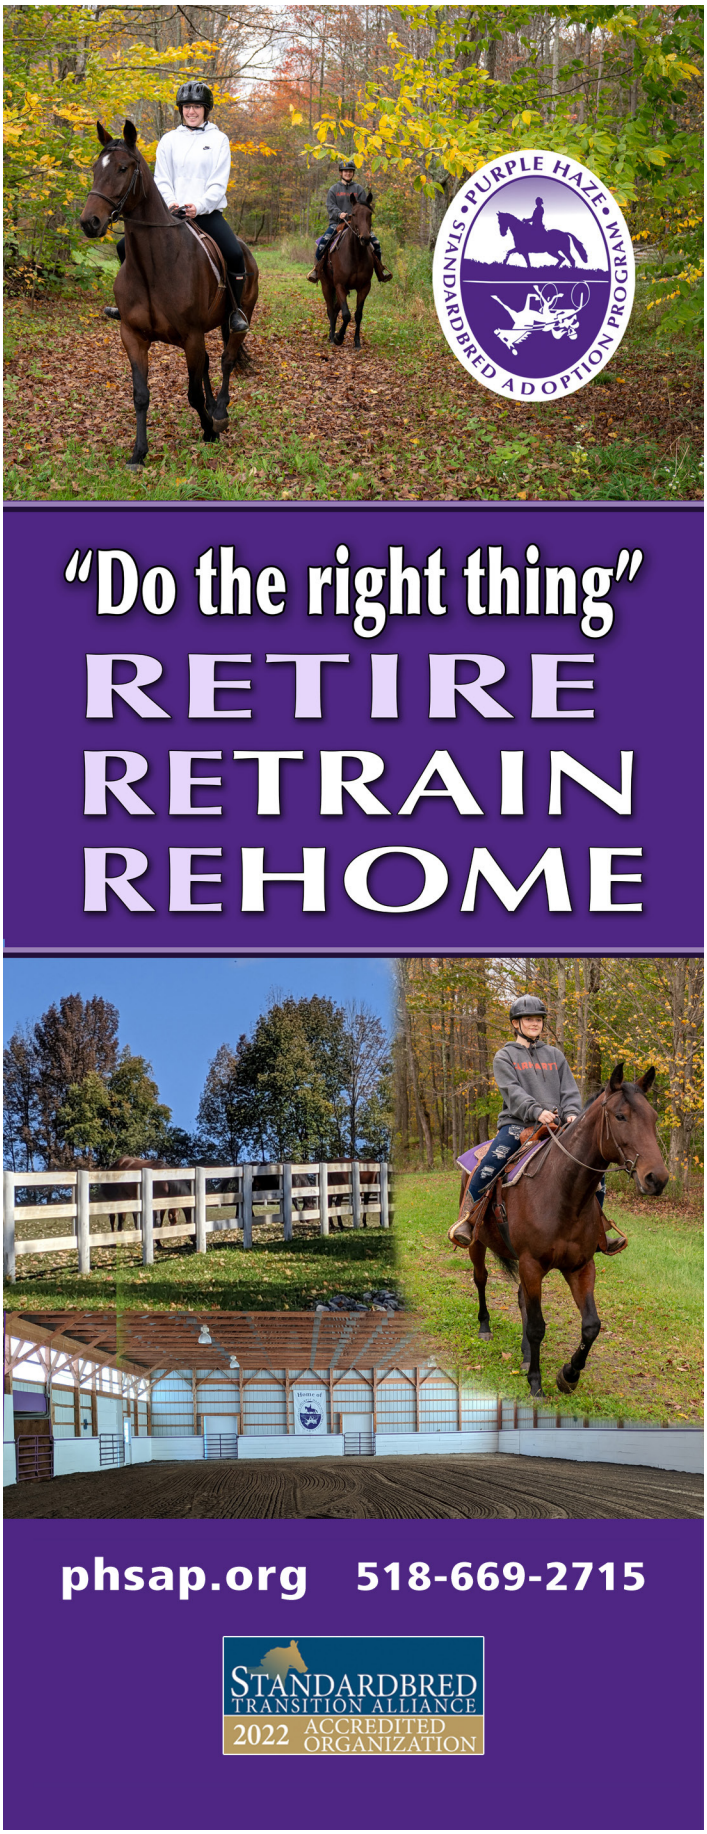

Overall, Bulldog Hanover progeny ranked second among average sale prices from pacing stallions at the 2026 Black Book sale bested only by perennial pacing leader Sweet Lou. On the trotting side, Walner and Chapter Seven remained one-two on top of the average price leaderboard.

All attention in the Farm Show Complex shifts to the Mixed Sale with more yearlings along with broodmares, stallion shares, broodmare prospects and the Spring Station dispersal today (Nov. 5) and racehorses on Friday (Nov. 6) with the highlight being the auction of defending Horse of the Year Beau Jangles.

"I'm real excited for the Mixed Sale," Welk said. "We're down a couple hundred horses, but the horses we've got there are some incredible, incredible animals and I think it's going to bode well for them because there are not as many to pick through. What's here is good, really good. I think that's what's going on with the online [auctions], but when there's a superstar, they want to sell it here. I'm not plugging my own sale; I'm just saying that that's where they sell and they do well here."

The opening session of the Mixed Sale begins at 11 a.m. (EST).

Casino referendum voted down in three Indiana counties

by James Platz

Voters in three northeast Indiana counties said "No" Tuesday (Nov. 3) to a referendum that would have paved the way for a new casino in the state. A new gaming entity placed in Allen, DeKalb or Steuben counties would negatively impact the racinos at Harrah's Hoosier Park in Anderson and Horseshoe Indianapolis in Shelbyville.

Earlier this year, Governor Mike Braun signed legislation into law allowing for a 14th casino license to be placed in the state's northeast corridor. The catch was that voters in one of the three counties must first approve a referendum. Election boards in each county placed the following question on the ballot with a Yes/No vote: "Shall inland casino gambling be permitted in [insert county name]?" Citizens in all three counties voted the referendum down.

Voters in DeKalb County had the strongest response against the referendum, with nearly 65 per cent opposing a casino.

> That impact [of a casino in northeast Indiana] was projected to be a $1.76 million annual reduction in AGR (adjusted gross receipts) at Harrah's Hoosier Park and Horseshoe Indianapolis, negatively affecting both operations and purses for standardbreds, thoroughbreds and quarter horses.

Allen County, home of Fort Wayne, the state's second most populous city and a 90-minute drive from Anderson, saw roughly 59 per cent of voters cast ballots opposing the referendum. In Steuben County, over 58 per cent voted against a casino.

It was a win for Indiana's racing industry. According to a September 2025 study prepared for the Indiana Gaming Commission by Spectrum Gaming Group, placement of a casino in northeast Indiana would result in a $14.67 million annual loss in adjusted gross receipts (AGR) among the existing gaming properties throughout the state. That impact was projected to be a $1.76 million annual reduction in AGR at Harrah's Hoosier Park and Horseshoe Indianapolis, negatively affecting both operations and purses for standardbreds, thoroughbreds and quarter horses.

Tuesday's referendum opposition defeats the second attempt to place a casino in the region in back-to-back sessions of the General Assembly. In a previous legislative session, lawmakers tried to advance a bill that would have relocated a casino license from southeast Indiana to New Haven (immediately east of Fort Wayne). The legislation never made it out of the Senate Public Policy committee. Defeat of Tuesday's referendum means further attempts to place a casino in northeast Indiana will require legislative action in 2027.

Some Apex facts and figures

by Bob Heyden

Apex is heading to Hanover Shoe Farms and will try and continue in their fine tradition. After all, the most influential Hambletonian stallion ever was Stars Pride who had a stunning eight Hambletonian credits and is the all-time Triple Crown winning sire with four in a row, all while standing at Hanover Shoe: Ayres (1964), Nevele Pride (1968), Lindy's Pride (1969), and Super Bowl (1972).

1. A 1:49.2 all-time Hambletonian best was set by Apex this year. It was three-fifths better than Nordic Catcher S in 2025. The last time it was lowered by more than that was in 2009 by Muscle Hill going 1:50 1 a full second faster than Glidemaster (1:51.1).

2. Apex was bred for this. Consider that his dam Mission Brief was the fastest freshman and sophomore of 2014 (1:50.3) and 2015 (1:50.2), while his sire Walner was the same in 2016 (1:51.3) and 2017 (1:50.2) despite making just two starts that year as a sophomore.

3. Apex joins a select Hambletonian-winning group whose sires were retired by Hambletonian Day. Walner retired in 2017 just weeks prior to the biggie. Broad Bahn (2011) as his undefeated sire Broadway Hall never raced again after 2. Victory Dream (1994) and Continentalvictory (1996) were both by Valley Victory who called it a career in July 1989 after his Yonkers Trot score.

4. Apex probably wouldn't mind following the longevity that both Stars Pride and Super Bowl enjoyed at Hanover, since both lived to age 30.

5. Marcus Melander had Meshuggah and Apex in the barn together last year as Apex was the top freshman earner and Meshuggah, the Breeders Crown 3-year-old male winner. Nobody would have guessed then that the two of them would be the fastest sophomore Breeders Crown winner 1:50 1 (Meshuggah) and the fastest Hambletonian winner 1:49.2 (Apex).

6. Apex retires as the No. 1 earner at 2 and 3. Both times a Marcus Melander filly was next. Setyoursightshigh at 2 and Nezuko Kamado S at 3.

7. Apex, Walner, and Mission Brief were all freshman Dan Patch winners.

8. Apex set the Canadian record of 1:51.4 in capturing the 2025 Mohawk Million. Sire Walner is the only sire to win the Mohawk Million twice and the only sire to win it with a filly (Venerable in 2021) and a colt (Apex).

9. Marcus Melander broke through in the Hambletonian after knocking on the door with an amazing 21 starters in now a full decade competing in the America's Trotting Classic starting with Long Tom in 2017.

10. Jeffrey Snyder had an incredible total of eight million-dollar wins with pacers before switching allegiances and now has three more including the Hambletonian with Apex on the trotting side.

11. Apex seems to be an apt name for this fella.

12. Hanover Shoe Farms is past $982 million all time and that is more than double the next slot, Winbak at $465. Hanover has bred an amazing 10 Breeders Crown winners the past four seasons while no other breeder had more than three. Here's hoping that Apex can help continue that fine tradition in the future.

Burke duo takes aim at Matron Stakes

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

The final month of the Grand Circuit season kicks off tonight (Nov. 5) with the $115,000 Grade 3 Matron Stakes for 2-year-old male pacers at Bally's Dover.

The Ron Burke-trained duo of Eastie Boy and Stonebridge Blitz will head to the race as the top choices on the morning line, at 2-1 and 5-2, respectively, after drawing the inside posts in the six-horse field.

Eastie Boy, who counts the Grade 1 Metro Pace among his four wins this season, will start from post 1 with Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. in the sulky. The homebred son of Sweet Lou—Rockin Racer has hit the board in eight of 11 races and earned $590,432 for owners Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Bruscemi, and Phil Collura. He finished fourth in the Breeders Crown for freshman male pacers in his most recent start, Oct. 23 at Eldorado Scioto Downs, where he was beaten by a length.

Stonebridge Blitz has two victories this season, which came in divisions of the Grade 3 Bluegrass and Grade 3 International Stallion stakes last month at The Red Mile, and will leave from post 2 tonight with driver Yannick Gingras. The son of Tall Dark Stranger—Shouldabeenatd has six top-three finishes in 12 races and earnings of $174,692 for owners Burke Racing Stable, Larry Karr, Michael Rosenthal, and Frank Baldachino. He finished sixth from post 8 in the Breeders Crown.

"Both of them seem really good going in," Burke said about the Matron, which is the first of this month's 14 scheduled graded stakes events. "Both were good [in the Breeders Crown], they just didn't get clean trips. I'd expect them both to be very good here."

Stonebridge Blitz (Yannick Gingras) winning his $104,000 Grade 3 International Stallion Stakes event on Oct. 9 at The Red Mile.

Eastie Boy started the Breeders Crown final from post 6 and made up more than two lengths from fifth place in the stretch despite having to angle four-wide from off the pylons. He paced his last quarter in :26.1 and missed third place by a quarter-length. Stonebridge Blitz was in ninth at three-quarters and got home in :26, equaling the fastest last quarter of any horse in the field.

"When Eastie Boy got out, he was loaded," Burke said. "He was very good. [Stonebridge Blitz] also was really good. There was no chance from where they were sitting. They can be way more aggressive in this spot."

Prior to the Breeders Crown eliminations and final, Stonebridge Blitz had a second-place finish in the Grade 3 Elevation at Harrah's Hoosier Park in late September followed by his two wins at The Red Mile.

"We made a bit change on him [before the Elevation], and he's able to be held now, and that's been the whole difference with him," Burke said at the Breeders Crown. "Before, he was about half out of control. Now, he's easy going, so we're happy."

Eastie Boy, who is a full brother to two-time Dan Patch Award-winner Louprint and half-brother to graded-stakes-winner Shacarri, hit the board in seven consecutive races prior to just missing the top three at the Breeders Crown.

"He's just a really, really good horse," Burke said. "He just tries hard. He's a brother to Louprint and Shacarri; that mare [Rockin Racer] just seems to make horses that try their hearts out. I'm really happy with him."

Eastie Boy leads all 2-year-old male pacers in earnings, with Grade 1 Breeders Crown champion Blazin Lou second with $519,550. Starstruck Dreamer and Shalom Hanover also have banked more than $400,000 this season.

Following the Matron, one graded event for the freshman boys remains – the Grade 1 Governor's Cup on Nov. 14 at The Meadowlands. Burke plans on sending Eastie Boy there.

"I think he's sharp and I've not over-raced him, so I'm going to give him a shot," he said.

The Matron Stakes is race 8 on tonight's 13-race card at Bally's Dover, with an estimated 6:50 p.m. (EST) post time. Hungry Marco, a winner on the Pennsylvania stakes circuit, is the 7-2 third choice on the morning line. The son of Stay Hungry—Always Giggling will leave from post 5 with Tim Tetrick driving for trainer Jamie Sullivan.

Big Ranger to Dublin Valley Farms in 2027

Big Ranger, (T, 3, 1:50, $1,139,320) will stand the 2027 season at Dublin Valley Farms in Fredericksburg, OH.

Owned by Reuben Hershberger, Anthony Miller, Jerry Shrock, and Matt Shrock, the son of In Range out of the Tactical Landing mare Big Blue Bird, was one of the top 3-year-olds in North America in 2026 and won 16 of 21 races during his career.

Named 2025 Ohio Horse of the Year for his unbeaten 2-year-old season when he won all seven of his starts, Big Ranger captured the $300,000 Ohio Sires Stakes championship in 1:53.4. This season, he won nine of 14 starts, including his Hambletonian elimination, the $300,000 Ohio Sires Stakes championship, and the $200,000 Grade 2 Carl Erksine at Hoosier Park. He owns the Scioto Downs track record of 1:50.3 for 3-year-olds and was second by a whisker in 1:49.2 in the $1 million Grade 1 Hambletonian. He captured his Breeders Crown elimination and was third in the $664,500 Grade 1 Breeders Crown 3-year-old trot final.

Once Big Ranger's fertility tests have been completed, his stud and syndicate fees will be announced. For more information contact Joe Yoder at 330-473-5863 or email info@dublinvalleyfarms.com.

Monticello Raceway honors Manzi with postponement

Monticello Raceway will postpone its regularly scheduled Monday (Nov. 9) racing card in honor of John Manzi to accommodate track staff and horsemen that wish to attend the longtime publicity man's funeral arrangements.

"It was with great sadness that we learned of John Manzi's passing," said track general manager Shawn Wiles. "To allow our staff and horsemen to attend his upcoming funeral, we felt the right thing to do was to adjust our schedule in honor of the public relations guru."

The postponed race date will be re-scheduled for Friday (Nov. 13), pending regulatory approval.

Manzi passed away peacefully on Oct. 28 at home with his family by his side.

Manzi, a member of the Communicators Hall of Fame since 2006, held the position of public relations manager at The Mighty M for over three decades. Not only was he a mentor to many harness racing publicists and writers alike, he was the driving force behind decades of fundraising on behalf of Goshen Historic Track and the Harness Racing Museum & Hall of Fame.

Funeral services will be held at the Church of Saint Peter, 10 Liberty Street, Monticello, NY 12701, on Nov. 9 at 10 a.m. sharp.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Manzi's name may be made to the Harness Racing Museum & Hall of Fame, 240 Main Street, Goshen, NY 10924, at harnessmuseum.com/donations, or to Goshen Historic Track, 44 Park Place, Goshen, NY 10924.

A celebration of Manzi's life will be held at the Harness Racing Museum & Hall of Fame, 240 Main Street, Goshen, NY 10924, on Nov. 9 from 2-5 pm. All are welcome.
