Spring Station dispersal grabs big bucks in SHSC Mixed Sale opening session

2026 SHSC YEARLING SALE AT HARRISBURG
STANDARDBRED HORSE SALE COMPANY

Five years ago, the Spring Station Bloodstock operation began in earnest at the Standardbred Horse Sales Company (SHSC) Mixed Sale with owner Eric Good and his team of Josh Green and Sasha Moczulski scouting stallion shares and quality broodmares to build a new boutique band out of Midway, KY. Within two years, Spring Station opened its consignment at the 2023 Lexington Selected Sale, but Thursday (Nov. 5) in Harrisburg, PA the endeavor began drawing the curtain with the first phase of its dispersal taking center stage in the opening session of this year's Mixed Sale.

"I don't really know how to put my emotions into place right now, other than just being so incredibly proud and just happy that the mares are all going to good places," Moczulski said. "We came down with Eric and picked out farms with him and everything, so it's been a huge undertaking for all of us and I'm just really proud that we've built it from the ground up. I think we built a really great broodmare band. All of these mares are going to great homes and we're happy with the way everything sold.

"It's going to be really weird going back to the farm and there not being a ton of mares. That's going to be really weird. It's over 600 acres and we just sold 62 mares, so that's going to be really odd going back there and it's just going to be the remaining 12 open mares, along with 56 weanlings. I know that sounds like a lot to the average person, but it's going to feel a little bit like a ghost town. It's just a very odd feeling."

The quality built by Moczulski and company at Spring Station spoke clearly through the auction ring with eight of the nine top sellers of the day coming from the dispersal and grossing over $4 million — nearly a third of the session's gross — from the 57 mares they sold.

"Every mare has been hand-selected, even down to the breedings – we've really come together to think about all these things," Moczulski said. "We reach out to outside sources. There's always going to be someone who knows more than you, so it's always good to reach out to those people, especially when you're trying to build a really great product, which is always our end goal."

Kentucky based Armitage Farm paid nearly $1.3 million for four broodmares offered by the dispersal including three of the four highest purchases from the session — Hip #1098 Explosionbroline S for $385,000, Hip #1141 Wind Chime for $360,000 and Hip #1116 Mon Cheval for $350,000. Armitage Farm also acquired Hip #1103 Go For Gaagaa NO for $200,000.

"We want to try to establish ourselves as one, if not, the best breeding farm in the country," said Tim Hayes, farm manager for Armitage Farm. "That is the goal, and Jim [McLane] and Rita [Armitage] have put their money behind it and we're full steam ahead. I think the trajectory is very upward. Our very first year we sold one for $750,000. He did very well — he was in the Breeders Crown and he's just a beautiful horse. Then, this year, we had a bunch of six-figure horses and we had a $450,000 horse the second day. Next year, our crop moves from 25 to 30 and I think they are all very nice. It's a very exciting opportunity we have at Armitage. We have added and added."

Of the Armitage acquisitions, Explosionbroline S sold in foal to Captain Corey and is a Donato Hanover half-sister to valuable broodmare Jolene Jolene, dam of champion 2-year-old Venerable and the granddam of another champion 2-year-old in current New York stallion Maryland. Wind Chime sold in foal to Chapter Seven and is a Father Patrick half-sister to stakes winner Fast As The Wind as well as to the mare Sound Check, who is the dam of Breeders Crown winner Warrawee Michelle. Mon Cheval is also the first foal from two-time Dan Patch Award winner Shake It Cerry and a Father Patrick half-sister to stakes-placed Madam Cheval. These mares will join the robust band at Armitage that also includes their stakes winner R Dutchess as well as recent private purchase Setyoursightshigh, the Dan Patch 2-Year-Old Trotting Filly of 2025.

"Where do I think they are going to fall? Who knows now, but this year's foaling season is very exciting," Tim Hayes said. "We're expecting foals from Kadena, Date Night Hanover, R Melina, Fashion Schooner. Dutchess is off the track this year, so she's going to hopefully get bred to Chapter Seven, so we look forward to that. You want to be excited, but you want to be realistic, too. We just hope that they come out and they look the part and people like them. Those are all very good mares and hopefully the ones we got today add to that top line and we keep moving up."

Michelle Panebianco of Crawford Farms also picked up several from the Spring Station dispersal including Hip #1115 Mollop Hanover for $240,000 and Hip #1121 Pass And Stow for $230,000, which registered as the seventh and eighth most expensive purchases of the day. Panebianco also struck the top bid of the entire session outside of the dispersal in the lone supplement of the day — Hip #1600 Call Me Goo, from a select Northwood Bloodstock consignment. The O'Brien Aged Trotting Mare of 2024 sold in foal to Chapter Seven for $475,000.

"You have a long list and then it gets shorter, and then you meet them and see them and it's a page you just have to have to bring to our program to where we want to get it over the next few years," Panebianco said. "I think everyone has a limit, but I didn't really think that I was going to get her for that. I thought she was going to be a little bit more. We tried to budget accordingly and she's definitely worth reaching. We don't have a Googoo Gaagaa — I think that it's very interesting.

I think it brings a European player to our consignment going forward and the Chapter Seven is a no-brainer.

"It's just a big year of turnover and change for us. We're rebooting and we need some new stock. Our pacing mares were definitely on the weaker side. Some of our older mares, I'm retiring a whole lot of them and then selling a bunch of them, too. So, it was time. I'm really excited about our investment into the future of our breeding program. We've acquired some really interesting prospects privately. We have a partnership with Burkes on Shacarri. Loua Dipa is also coming to the farm when she's done racing, so I'm excited about that. These are fabulous fillies that still need to get into foal, so we're a little bit further out on a return for that, so I was definitely looking for some in-foal, quicker returns on investment."

Armitage Farm's Doug Paul (left) and Jim McLane with Heather Vitale at the 2025 sale. Armitage led all buyers on Thursday, spending $1,295,000 to purchase four horses, including the second, third and fourth-highest priced horses sold, mares Explosionbroline S ($385,000), Wind Chime ($360,000) and Mon Cheval ($350,000), all out of the Spring Station dispersal handled by Alliance Bloodstock.

Wednesday night (Nov. 4) ahead of the racehorse portion of the SHSC Mixed Sale on Friday (Nov. 6).

News that Beau Jangles would enter the sales ring reverberated through the harness racing industry back in October, and it also has filled a large portion of the air through the week of the 2026 Black Book Sale. Given the undefeated freshman campaign Beau Jangles put together and the fact a reigning Horse of the Year has never sold at public auction, he has built great anticipation to potentially become the most expensive standardbred, a record set at the SHSC 2024 Mixed Sale when trotting sophomore colt Amazing Catch fetched $1.85 million.

"Whether you're buying horses or selling horses, there's nothing better than good horses or great horses and that's what he is," said Bob Boni, managing the sale of Beau Jangles as consigner through Northwood Bloodstock. "He shows it in everything about him – his demeanor, he's bright, he enjoys being shown. Over the years, some of the best horses I've ever been around selling, they enjoy coming out and you can see looking at him now, he's in his comfort. It's a big thrill."

Crowds drew around Beau Jangles on Thursday morning, and all through the day the colt continued with tours in and out of his stall. Each time he stepped out, Beau Jangles would set each hoof forward, swing his head, let out a stout huff and exhibit himself for all to see.

"This horse brought a lot of energy to the building before the sale, during the sale… people coming by to look at him," Boni said, "and it should because he had a season last year that's a season for the ages. You don't see that. He dominated from start to finish and beat a good bunch of horses and did it every week. And he's shown he can still do that. With the way he looks, the ability he's shown… I think any time you're breeding, you want to breed for brilliance, not steady. I want brilliance and that's brilliance."

Much of the excitement for Beau Jangles' sale surrounds his mystique as a stallion prospect. Though proven on the racetrack even with a bumpy sophomore season, Beau Jangles comes from a maternal line tracking back to world champion mare Bunny Lake in the third dam while also being by another productive son of Somebeachsomewhere in Cattlewash.

"The horse at the end of the week is what everyone is talking about, thinking about," said Dale Welk, president/director of operations for the SHSC. "It's like going over there and watching a movie star come out of a stall… people are lined up, lined along the walls. He's going to sell very well. I know some of the groups that are interested and they have pockets all the way down to their ankles. Who knows? I just hope whoever wants him, gets him because he's a beautiful, beautiful animal."

Beau Jangles will sell as Hip #1602 on Friday after Hip #1489 goes through the ring.

GOOD RECEPTION IN MIXED SALE

After several years with multiple dispersals, the 2026 SHSC Mixed Sale saw a lower gross from 2025 of $11,992,000 but with nearly 200 fewer offerings year over year, though the median price paid lifted year-over-year from $19,000 in 2025 to $20,000 in 2026. This year's Black Book Sale has grossed $52,032,000 over the four days, which is only 11 per cent off of the 2025 cumulative gross through four days in a year that saw five dispersals in All American Harnessbreds, Fashion Farms, Katz-Libfeld, Fairwinds Farms and Sergent Stables.

"I think the market was stable year over year," said Dave Reid, president of Preferred Equine. "I thought the market held up well, the stallion shares held up well. It seemed like the in-foal mares, especially on the higher end, held up well. It was probably a little bumpy when the mares have a little age on them, but overall was good. Last year was a once in a lifetime situation with multiple dispersals lining up all in the same year. Truth of the matter is there's fewer horses in the catalogue this year, but the marketplace is going to be what it's going to be and we'll just carry on and move forward."

Welk echoed that sentiment while excitedly looking ahead to the final day of the sale, saying, "we had a lot of great mares and good mares today and a lot of other great racehorses tomorrow. As soon as we sell Beau Jangles, then Spencer Hanover sells, so it's going to be a power-packed 10 minutes, or whatever it takes. I'm looking forward to it. It's been a good sale all the way through. We saw it today... trotting mares are through the roof. Matter of fact, people that normally buy trotters are buying pacing mares, just because they want to buy mares. I'm pretty happy with the overall sale.

"Our Mixed Sale stayed strong here. We have the online sales which are great and there's definitely a place for but, if you have the top tier, it seems like this is the place to go. Here is the place to come to."

The final session of the 2026 SHSC Mixed Sale begins at 11 a.m. (EST).

THE VIEW FROM WOODBINE MOHAWK PARK

Sylvan Filion: "I am walking away. I have no interest in returning to racing"

Hall of Fame driver withdraws request for appeal in Funtime Bayama case.

by Melissa Keith

On Oct. 12, 2024, Sylvain Filion announced that he had decided to dial back his driving career. "I'll take a bit of time off, 'til probably next summer; I'll see from there," he said on his way to the Woodbine Mohawk Park winner's circle. "You know, I'm really not sure what I'm gonna do."

A year earlier, on Oct. 23, 2023, Filion had become the first Canadian-based driver to reach 10,000 wins. He was inducted to the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame in August of 2024.

On Oct. 31 of that year, Filion and trainer Richard Moreau were both fined $40,000 and fully suspended for 10 years for what the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario (AGCO), determined to be mutually responsibility for pacer Funtime Bayama coming up positive in out-of-competition testing for DPO (darbepoetin-alfa) on June 10, two days after he won Pepsi North America Cup elimination.

Moreau's appeal recently concluded with a decision which reduced his fine and suspension, allowing him to resume training horses in March 2027.

Filion had appeared under summons in Moreau's Ontario Horse Racing Appeal Panel (HRAP) hearing, and Moreau told HRU ahead of Filion's Oct. 21, 2026 appeal hearing date that he expected to testify in that upcoming hearing.

Just over a week later, everything changed. The dates set for Filion's hearing were cancelled. Filion filed a notice to withdraw his appeal on Oct. 30, 2026 which the HRAP accepted. The Panel announced its decision on Tuesday (Nov).

Claus Andersen
Sylvain Filion.

Filion will continue serving his full suspension until Oct. 31, 2034 and is subject to the $40,000 fine and other conditions originally imposed on Oct. 31, 2024. His earlier request for a stay was dismissed on March 19, 2025. He has not driven in a race since Oct. 12, 2024.

Over the course of Moreau's appeal hearing, multiple witnesses described how owner/breeder Yves Filion and sons Justin and Sylvain Filion had effectively managed Funtime Bayama, a homebred gelding the family had raised in Saint-André-d'Argenteuil, QC, leaving Moreau on the sidelines. The horse was sold after a show finish in the 2024 Pepsi North America Cup final, from which he was subsequently disqualified and placed last. Under AGCO Rule 24.05, purse money is held by the association (licensed racetrack operator) during the course of an appeal.

On Aug. 31, Counsel for the Registrar Brendan van Niejenhuis noted that "witnesses have said that you [Sylvain] were there [at Moreau's farm] more often than would usually be the case for just for a driver of one of the horses trained by the Moreau stable." Filion responded, via translator, that "it was because of the request of my father Yves," who was in the early stages of dementia. He agreed with van Niejenhuis' description of Funtime Bayama as "a special horse for [his] father and the whole family."

Filion had disagreed with several witnesses' characterization of himself as the one "calling the shots" in the actual training of Funtime Bayama.

In its Nov. 3 decision, the HRAP revealed that "[T] he Judges have determined that both the trainer of record [Moreau] and [Sylvain] Filion are actually in charge, custody of and/or in care of Funtime Bayam; In accordance with Rule 26.05 of the Rules, Filion is hereby held to be responsible for the presence of DPO in Funtime Bayama, in addition to the trainer of record."

Lawyer Jennifer Friedman, who represented Sylvain Filion, provided a written statement from her client on Thursday (Oct. 5).

"Today, I am withdrawing my appeal of the 10-year suspension and $40,000 fine imposed on me by the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario (AGCO)," said Filion's statement. "I am not withdrawing because I did anything wrong. I am withdrawing because after two years I have come to accept that I cannot get a fair hearing before the Horse Racing Appeal Panel, the tribunal that hears appeals from the AGCO's decisions, and I can no longer afford to keep trying."

The four-time O'Brien Driver of the Year and 1999 World Driving Champion defended his record as a "hard-working, honest and principled" horseman who had raced for four decades across North America and "would never do anything to jeopardize the integrity of the sport or the welfare of a horse." Filion noted the "insufficient integrity" in the chain of custody for blood plasma samples collected from Funtime Bayama.

> "I want to be heard, to tell the truth about what happened, and to protect my family, especially my 13-year-old daughter, who should not have to carry this. Withdrawing this appeal is not an admission of anything. It is a recognition that I could not get a fair hearing, and that continuing would cost my family even more than it already has. I believe the way the AGCO and the Appeal Panel have handled this deserves independent scrutiny, and I am exploring the avenues available to make sure it gets that."
> - Sylvain Filion

Filion also insisted that he was not performing the duties of a trainer in relation to Funtime Bayama: "The truth is simple. Funtime Bayama was trained by Mr. Moreau, not by me. I am a driver, not a trainer. My father was the horse's owner, and like countless families in this industry, when a relative owns a horse, the family pitches in. For me, that meant warming up and schooling the horse for Mr. Moreau, the same thing I've done for dozens of trainers over the decades. That isn't training. It happens every day in barns across this province. No other family has ever been called out by the AGCO for it. I was."

The Canadian Hall of Fame driver argued that the outcome of the Moreau appeal represents an unfortunate precedent: "To

> "There was no evidence, none, that I ever gave that horse anything. I was their guinea pig for a brand-new theory, tested on the shakiest possible ground, and it cost me my career."

come after me, the AGCO used a rule that, as far as I'm aware, had never been used this way before. It lets the regulator hold someone other than the horse's official trainer responsible for what's in its system. An AGCO staff member then put together a spreadsheet, his own informal, unscientific way of measuring my 'involvement' with the horse, and that became the basis for a 10-year suspension. He prepared it on September 25, 2024, seven weeks after my only interview. I never saw it, and no one ever asked me about it, before I was suspended. There was no evidence, none, that I ever gave that horse anything. I was their guinea pig for a brand-new theory, tested on the shakiest possible ground, and it cost me my career."

Filion added that, "obvious questions about who else had access to the horse were never seriously pursued," including that fact that the security code to the gate at Moreau's training centre was widely known and infrequently changed. He stated that he felt singled out over the course of the proceedings: "From where I sit, this looked less like an investigation and more like a runaway train. I believe political pressure around a race that big had more to do with how the AGCO pursued this than the evidence did."

Filion said he believed that Moreau received preferential treatment in the investigation and during his appeal, including a reduced penalty.

"In October 2026, they described my family's involvement with the horse as an 'exceptional situation' and decided that someone other than the official trainer could be held responsible, which is the very question at the heart of my case," he stated. "It is hard to see how they could come to my case with an open mind. That goes against one of the most basic rules of fairness in our legal system: you should not be judged by people who have already decided the very issues in your case."

He further noted that he had raised the issue repeatedly between Oct. 2025 and Oct. 2026.

As legal costs mounted, Filion argued that his prospects for a fair hearing were diminishing.

"On Oct. 9, 2026, my lawyer wrote to the Appeal Panel asking that the two members recuse themselves, pointing out that four other members with no connection to either case were available," he said. "They did not step aside. Instead, I was told I would have to file formal legal papers and argue it at a separate hearing. That became the pattern. Every step was made harder and more expensive than it needed to be."

In the end, Filion concluded that he had no choice but to leave the sport he loves behind.

"So, I am walking away," he said in the written statement. "I have no interest in returning to racing. I want to be heard, to tell the truth about what happened, and to protect my family, especially my 13-year-old daughter, who should not have to carry this. Withdrawing this appeal is not an admission of anything. It is a recognition that I could not get a fair hearing, and that continuing would cost my family even more than it already has. I believe the way the AGCO and the Appeal Panel have handled this deserves independent scrutiny, and I am exploring the avenues available to make sure it gets that."

Captains Mistress (Cam Hart) winning the Kaikoura Cup on Monday (Nov. 2).

THE DOWN UNDER DIARY

with ADAM HAMILTON

Could we see a Captains Mistress/Leap To Fame rematch next week?

by Adam Hamilton

Down Under's most anticipated rematch could be a little over a week away.

Ever since wonder mare Captains Mistress upstaged the great Leap To Fame in that epic Brisbane Inter Dominion final on July 18, fans have been itching for the pair to clash again.

The Leap To Fame army feels he was "robbed" and craves redemption.

The all-time great produced one of the biggest runs in defeat you would ever see after being trapped wide early, snagging to last, and then doing all the work while Captains Mistress bowled along in front.

Captains Mistress' win also squared their ledger at one and one after Leap To Fame won their first clash in the Miracle Mile on March 14. Captains Mistress was the hard luck story that night, being blocked for running on the inside at a crucial stage and finishing fifth.

Many felt she would have won with clear air.

The pair have been unbeaten since that July 18 showdown at Albion Park.

Leap To Fame has won all four starts in his own backyard at Albion Park.

In contrast, Captains Mistress won first-up at her home track, Menangle, went to Melbourne to win the Group 1 Victoria Cup on Oct. 17 and then made it a hat-trick in a different country on Monday.

The 4-year-old mare ticked-off a "Bucket List" item for trainer Jason Grimson and owner Mick Boots when she won last Monday's $60,000 Group 2 Kaikoura Cup at one of the world's most picturesque seaside racetrack in New Zealand's South Island.

Leap To Fame arrived in New Zealand last Sunday.

Same country, same (South) island and, potentially, the same race.

A few things still have to fall into place, but next Friday's (Nov. 13) $150,000 Group 1 New Zealand free-for-all (1,980 meters) could be round three.

> "[Captains Mistress is] not just a mare against the boys, but she's only a 4-year-old mare. I'm sure she'd run a mighty race [in the New Zealand Cup] and could win it because she's a freak, but it's the toughest and most grueling race in this part of the world and we want to look after her. There are so many great races for her over the next few months without needing to ask that of her."
> — Cam Hart

Already just the thought of it has many saying it would trump Tuesday's (Nov. 10) iconic $800,000 Group 1 New Zealand Cup at the highlight of the week.

But it could be the New Zealand Cup which thwarts the potential showdown.

Captains Mistress will bypass the New Zealand Cup and go straight to the free-for-all.

Why, you may rightly ask, when she is such a star?

Driver Cam Hart summed it up best.

"She's not just a mare against the boys, but she's only a 4-year-old mare," he said.

"I'm sure she'd run a mighty race and could win it because she's a freak, but it's the toughest and most grueling race in this part of the world and we want to look after her.

"There are so many great races for her over the next few months without needing to ask that of her."

So, it will be a fresh, sharp, and primed Captains Mistress heading to the New Zealand free-for-all.

The real question is whether Leap To Fame will be there.

Yes, he did back-up just three days a brave second in last year's New Zealand Cup and win the free-for-all.

But he's a year older and will have to bounce out what will be a brutally hard New Zealand Cup to face one of the best mares we've ever seen Down Under.

When you throw in the sprint distance of 1,980 meters, there looks to be a lot more in Captains Mistress' favor than there is for Leap To Fame in the free-for-all.

Leap To Fame's owner Kevin Seymour kept the possibility alive.

"The New Zealand Cup is the race we've gone there to win and that's all we're focused on at the moment," he said.

"As far as the free-for-all goes, Grant [Dixon, trainer/driver] will play it exactly the way he did last year, wait and see how the horse comes through the Cup run.

"That's the crucial part. There's a lot to weigh up, including the bus racing and travel schedule he's got to come after New Zealand.

"We can't wait to race Captains Mistress again, it's what everyone who follows the sport is wanting, but the horse will always come first.

"We feel there is some unfinished business with her after the Inter Dominion, but whether we tackle her again in the free-for-all or have to wait a bit longer will be up to Grant and the horse."

Seymour makes a good point on Leap To Fame's roadmap for the next nine months.

Beyond New Zealand, the rising 8-year-old returns home for the Group 1 Blacks A Fake at Albion Park on Dec. 5.

Then he's down to Victoria for what will probably be two starts, including the Group 1 Hunter Cup, on Feb. 13.

From Melbourne, Leap To Fame heads to Sydney to try and win a record-equaling third Group 1 Miracle Mile on March 13.

Then it's right over to the other side of Australia in April for his first trip to Perth and a tilt at the $1.25 million Group 1 Nullarbor slot race.

With stud duties slated for next season, Leap To Fame's farewell to racing will come in the Brisbane Inter Dominion series in July.

Should the rematch with Captains Mistress not happen in the New Zealand free-for-all, then the Hunter Cup looks like the next logical showdown.

With Captains Mistress skipping the Blacks A Fake and unlikely to go to the Nullarbor, the Hunter Cup, Miracle Mile, and Brisbane Inter Dominion look to be the only likely clashes with Leap To Fame.

Until then, Hart will resume his other famous rivalry with Leap To Fame in the New Zealand Cup.

No horse has beaten Leap To Fame more than his older half-brother and arch-rival Swayzee.

The scorecard is 6-3 in Leap To Fame's favor, but Swayzee did beat him for the second successive year when they clashed in the Hunter Cup earlier this year.

And no race suits Swayzee better than the grueling standing start nature of the New Zealand Cup.

> "We can't wait to race Captains Mistress again, it's what everyone who follows the sport is wanting, but [Leap To Fame] will always come first. We feel there is some unfinished business with her after the Inter Dominion, but whether we tackle her again in the [New Zealand] free-for-all [on Nov. 13] or have to wait a bit longer will be up to [trainer/driver] Grant [Dixon] and the horse."
> — Kevin Seymour

He has won both attempts at the race in 2023 and '24 and missed last year with some issues.

After some indifferent form, a few tying-up issues, and a lengthy spell, Swayzee has peaked again at the right time for what will almost certainly be his last crack at the New Zealand Cup.

Despite being a rising 9-year-old, he looked like the Swayzee of old and he rolled along at a gut-busting pace in front and broke the hearts of his rivals to win by almost 20 meters at Menangle last Saturday night.

Yes, he didn't beat much and the New Zealand Cup against Leap To Fame, last year's winner Kingman and rising Kiwi stars Marketplace and The Lazarus Effect will be much harder.

But hey, this is Swayzee, and he has continued to defy his age and logic.

"He's back and at just the right time," Hart said. "It's really been the past two weeks or so where he's felt like his old self. It didn't surprise me that he went out and raced so well last weekend.

"I wanted to give him a really strong hitout as his last run before the Cup and he thrived on it.

"I'm in an incredibly fortunate position to be driving him and Captains Mistress at the same time.

"And winning a third [New Zealand] Cup on him would be as good as it gets."

The cards are stacked in Australia's favor to win the New Zealand Cup for a fourth successive year, after Swayzee went back-to-back and then Kingman won last year.

What a turnaround it's been.

Previously, Arden Rooney was the last Aussie-trained winner in 2015.

And before that you had to go right back to My Lightning Blue in 1987.

ALL OVER ONTARIO

with MATTHEW LOMON

After a brief time away, Jason Sherman got back on stride

by Matthew Lomon

At an age when most kids are still figuring out what interests them, Jason Sherman was already turning his passion into a hands-on pursuit.

"I started working with horses when I was 12," said Sherman. "My dad [Bert Sherman] and I used to go to the races all the time. We'd go to the Hong Kong nights and watch Fraser Downs and everything like that and stay up till God knows when in the morning."

The Shermans' regular visits to the track were often accompanied by Bert's good friend Mike Bannon. It wasn't long, as Jason recalled, before the trio graduated from watching the action to becoming part of it.

"One day they decided, 'This would be even more fun if we owned one of these things instead of just watching them.'" Jason said. "In no time, they ended up buying a horse together and we had it with the late Daryl Roberts."

Claiming their first horse involved not one but two trips south to Windsor, ON.

"We went to Windsor to claim the first one, but we didn't get it, so we went back the next week and got a different one, Norwell Cowboy," Jason said. "Then it just all started from there."

Roberts, the longtime Ontario horseman who passed away in July, was training 2003 and 2004 Gold Cup & Saucer champion Sand Olls Dexter at the time of Norwell Cowboy's arrival.

A green Jason never missed an opportunity to learn from the respected conditioner and his star-studded stable.

"I would come out every weekend, and they taught me on all the horses," he said. "We had three or four different ones with Daryl. I got to work with the whole stable and learn how it was done."

After about a year of sharpening his skills under Roberts, Jason ventured out on his own.

During the transition, he relied heavily on another industry veteran, Roberts' business partner, Fred Logan.

"Fred taught me a lot; he would come over and help me out and tell me what things to do and what not to do," Jason said, adding with a laugh, "At that age, I thought I knew how to do everything, but I quickly learned that's not the right mentality."

> "I started working with horses when I was 12. My dad [Bert Sherman] and I used to go to the races all the time. We'd go to the Hong Kong nights and watch Fraser Downs and everything like that and stay up till God knows when in the morning."
> — Jason Sherman

It was only fitting that Jason, who obtained his trainer's license in 2001 at the age of 16, picked up his first (unofficial) training win on a horse with Logan's name in the program the year prior.

"I had a horse named G E Cams Freedom," said Sherman of the narrow victory on Oct. 21, 2000, at The Raceway at Western Fair. "That's the first one I went on my own with. Fred Logan was down as trainer on that horse, but that was my first win."

As for Jason's first win on record, that came on Feb. 18, 2002, also at Western Fair, courtesy of the hard-nosed Camluck pacer, Rickards Ed.

"Donnie McElroy was driving for us and at the top of the lane we're sitting dead last, and he just came out of nowhere and won by a whisker," Jason said. "We had to stand in that old three-race paddock in London and wait, and wait, and wait, and wait, because back then they did actual film for the win photos."

He added with a chuckle, "It was cold, and Donnie was like, 'Just call me the winner. Let's get this over with."

Jasonn remained active in the sport through the early 2000s, but his involvement gradually tapered off before he stepped away entirely after 2010.

While not an easy decision, it was one that circumstances ultimately called for.

"I had a job opportunity to work for a company in St. Marys called Norampac and that's where Mike worked," Jason said. "He got me the job – I was down to two horses, and financially, I just had to go get a job.

"I was there for about three years, and then the other seven years my sister bought a print company, and I went to work for her."

> "Since I had been out of the business for so long [10 years], I had a big learning curve when I got back in because things had changed so much. Rules had changed, equipment had changed, and I'm relearning, trying to teach myself all over again. Getting our first win with Rollwithitannie, the one that got me back in, really sticks out to me."
> — Jason Sherman

Jason spent 10 years away from the game, but he never let it get too far out of reach.

His connection held firm through his family, particularly his sister Michelle and retired pacer Evil Bear.

"He was a pet that we've had since he was 4, and we ended up bringing him out to Cerro, where I'm currently stabled at," Jason said.

"I was looking after him here, and then you get talking to everybody, and then I'm like, 'Ah, I have to get a horse. I have to get back in this.' So, I bought one out of PEI [Rollwithitannie] – it was supposed to be a hobby, and next thing I was up to 17 and full-time… Once it's in your blood, it's in your blood."

Jason officially returned to racing in 2020, getting his stride back with just two starts.

The Dorchester, ON-based conditioner took his most substantial step forward in 2021, sending out a career-best 99 starters and achieving personal bests across the board.

The night of April 1, and the performance by Rollwithitannie, whom he still shares ownership with his father and mother Betty, remains etched in Jason's memory.

"Since I had been out of the business for so long, I had a big learning curve when I got back in because things had changed so much," he said. "Rules had changed, equipment had changed, and I'm relearning, trying to teach myself all over again.

"Getting our first win with Rollwithitannie, the one that got me back in, really sticks out to me."

Jason's watermarks didn't last for long, however, as he enjoyed his most successful season to date in 2022, compiling a 24-24-32 line, to go with $180,540 in purse earnings, from 211 starts.

"It was an absolute blast," he said of the landmark campaign. "I was putting up numbers that I didn't think I would ever put up, because, well, you can see from my past it wasn't glorious when we were just racing $3,000 claimers. But I had a great year, and I'm really proud of what we accomplished."

In a year filled with standout moments, perhaps the most impactful was when Whitney Klotz started working in his stable.

The pair formed an instant bond.

"Her support has been tremendous," Jason said. "She started out as my employee, and then the way things worked out, we ended up together. She supports me day in, day out. When times are rough, she always says, 'Oh, it'll get better,' or, 'Maybe we should focus on this more than that.'

"She's definitely the rock who makes sure that I keep focused on what needs to be done. She's got an incredible work ethic. She should be down as trainer, not me."

With Klotz by his side, Jason is still going strong today. Together, the pair have four horses currently racing and three on the verge.

The group features a little bit of everything.

"I don't like to specialize just in $8,000 claimers or young horses," Jason said. "We've got some that are high maintenance and need everything done the way they want it. And then I've got others like Lucky Dancer who's an easy keeper and basically looks after himself.

"I've also gotten back into having mares. I used to focus just on geldings, but the mares are a little different to deal with, they challenge you. It keeps things interesting, that's for sure."

Jason and Klotz have also expanded the scope of their operation, introducing breeding to the mix.

"We started foaling out our own foals," Jason said, adding with a laugh, "There was a bit of a learning curve at the beginning because we had no clue what we were doing. Hopefully, it all went natural, and we were lucky that it did."

Hovering inside that six to eight range is the "sweet spot" for Jason, whose family owns all but two in his barn.

Honoring those around him and those before him is how he got started in this business, and that same appreciation has sustained him throughout his career, some 25-plus years later.

"When I was younger, I was always taught to listen to the older guys and take in all the information that I can and then decide what to use," Jason said. "That's something I still do to this day."

Aetos Kronos S to Tisbury Stud for 2027

International trotting star Aetos Kronos S will retire to stallion duty at the conclusion of his 2026 season.

A son of Bold Eagle—Will Of A Woman, Aetos Kronos S will take up stud duties for 2027 at Tisbury Stud in Paris, KY. Owned by Jeffrey and Michael Snyder, Aetos Kronos S has competed in most of harness racing's top trotting events and won against the best trotters in the world.

The classy son of Bold Eagle is the winner of 24 races (three Group 1s and four Group 2s) and earned an impressive $1,948,769 in his career. Known for speed, Aetos Kronos S won Sweden's Hakan Wallner Memorial in world record time and also set a track and Canadian record to win his $50,000 Maple Leaf Trot elimination in the first sub-1:50 mile on Canadian soil, winning in 1:49.4.

With a pedigree as strong as his race record, Aetos Kronos S is a son of Bold Eagle, one of the most notable race horses in history. Bold Eagle is a two-time winner of France's Prix d'Amérique and third richest trotter behind Varenne and Moni Maker.

Hailing from the Conch maternal line, his dam side is just as impressive. Aetos Kronos S is out of stakes winning mare Will Of A Woman, making him a half-brother to multiple stakes winner Womans Will (1:54.1, $616,316), the dam of Woman Of Passion (1:50.1, $894,756).

Third dam Conch is one of the most influential mares in trotter breeding. Conch is the dam of Viking Kronos, who is widely considered as the creator of Europe's modern trotter. He is the sire and grand sire of many top studs in the world today.

"This is very exciting for me, my family, my farm, and Kentucky standardbred industry" said Austin Luttrell, owner of Tisbury Stud. "To stand a horse as high caliber as Aetos Kronos for my first stallion is a dream come true."

Luttrell told Trot Insider that Aetos Kronos S will head to Kentucky after the FanDuel Trot on Nov. 14 at The Meadowlands.

"Aetos Kronos has been an amazing horse for us starting as a top 2-year-old in Sweden." said owner Jeffrey Snyder. "Unfortunately, he lost more than two years of racing at the time of his being in top form due to an injury. We then decided to bring him to America after two years of inactivity and competed the last two years (at 9 and 10 years old) competitively against the best horses in North America.

"We are so excited to find a great home for Aetos Kronos and look forward to buying his yearlings."

Aetos Kronos S will stand for a stud fee of $6,000 USD. For more information, contact Austin Luttrell at 859-397-6639.

Maryland returns to Winbak Farm of New York for 2027 at $10,000

Dan Patch and O'Brien Award winner Maryland will stand his second season at Winbak Farm of New York in 2027 at a fee of $10,000. For the first time, European breeders will also have access to the champion son of Chapter Seven, with frozen semen available through Offspring at the same $10,000 fee.

A champion's record

Maryland, (2, 1:51.4; 3, Q1:51.2, $1,719,655), was voted the 2024 Dan Patch and O'Brien 2-Year-Old Trotting Colt of the Year. His freshman campaign earned $1,227,695 — the highest total of any racehorse in North America that season and the second-highest single-season earnings ever for a 2-year-old trotter.

At 2 he won four Group 1 races:

- Mohawk Million
- Peter Haughton Memorial
- William Wellwood Memorial
- Breeders Crown

Along the way he set track records at both The Meadowlands and Woodbine Mohawk Park. He returned at 3 to take a 1:49.2 BT. This is equivalent to a kilometer-rate record of 1:08. He retired with six wins and 15 top-three finishes from 18 starts.

Trained by Marcus Melander and raced by Courant Inc. and partners, Maryland was a $475,000 yearling and stands 16 hands (163 cm).

Pedigree

Maryland is by Chapter Seven out of Crucial (Father Patrick—Jolene Jolene), herself a world champion at two with a record of 1:52.4f and earnings of $528,598. His pedigree crosses well with Muscle Hill, Tactical Landing, Muscle Mass, Donato Hanover, Cantab Hall, Andover Hall, and other leading broodmare sires.

An exceptionally valuable family

Few stallions can match the commercial value of Maryland's family. This week his full sister Coffeeshop

Hanover (Chapter Seven—Crucial) sold for $800,000 at the Standardbred Horse Sale in Harrisburg.

She follows two Walner siblings, who are three-quarter siblings to Maryland because Walner is a son of the opening session at Harrisburg in 2025 at $725,000 and has since become a Grade 2 stakes winner with a record of 1:52.2. Maryland himself was a $475,000 yearling. Crucial's four yearlings to date have sold for a combined $3,000,000.

Chapter Seven. Cambridge Hanover sold for $1,000,000 at Harrisburg in 2024. Climatic Hanover topped

The strength runs a generation deeper, through Maryland's second dam Jolene Jolene, the foundation of one of the leading trotting families in the breed today. Her daughter Epoch, also by Chapter Seven, topped the opening session of the 2022 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale at $725,000. Her yearlings Ineffable (by Cantab Hall) and Voguish (by Gimpanzee) sold for $600,000 and $535,000, respectively, and her daughter Venerable was a Dan Patch and O'Brien Award winner.

In all, seven yearlings from Maryland's immediate family have sold for $4,860,000, an average of almost $700,000 each. It is a pedigree that very few stallions anywhere in the world can offer.

A strong first season

In his debut season at stud in 2026, Maryland was supported by many of the industry's leading trotting mares. He bred 134 mares, 114 of them confirmed in foal — an excellent fertility rate of 85 per cent. His first foals arrive in 2027.

Now available in Europe for the 2027 season, Maryland's frozen semen will be offered to European breeders through Offspring at a fee of $10,000 — the same fee as in North America.

Requests for bookings can be made on Maryland's own page at www.offspringab.com or through Robert Lindström on +46 70 515 65 70.

"We are thrilled to represent Maryland throughout Europe," said Lindström of Offspring. "He passed the frozen semen evaluation with flying colors, and with his achievements on the track, his pedigree and his stunning appearance, he will be a great addition for European breeders."

Potomac Pace attracts stacked field

Breeders Crown champion Dandy Ideal heads a star-studded field of eight top free-for-all pacers to contest Sunday's (Nov. 8) Grade 3 $125,000 Potomac Pace at Rosecroft Raceway.

Dandy Ideal, who rallied off cover to a 1:47.3 victory in the $662,000 Breeders Crown open pace on Oct. 24 at Eldorado Scioto Downs, has been installed as the 8-5 morning-line favorite. As a 4-year-old, the American Ideal—OK Heavenly gelding has won seven of 12 starts, including the Dan Patch at Harrah's Hoosier Park. His other signature wins include the 2025 Max Hempt Memorial and two Matron Stakes.

Tim Tetrick will drive Dandy Ideal from post 4 for trainer Brett Pelling and owners Susan Oakes and Alan Johnston.

Women Layer, whose cover carried Dandy Ideal to his Breeders Crown triumph, is the 3-1 second choice, and will start from the pole. A 33-time winner in his career, the 5-year-old Sweet Lou—Loreenas Ruffian gelding will be driven by Yannick Gingras for trainer Virgil Morgan, Jr.

In all, the Potomac Pace entrants have earned over $11.1 million in purses. The Potomac Pace is scheduled as race 11 on Sunday's 14-race card, with an approximate post time of 9:20 p.m. (EST).

The full field for the 11th edition of the Potomac Pace, in post-position order, with drivers, trainers, and morning line, is as follows:

PP — Horse — Driver — Trainer — Odds

1. Women Layer — Yannick Gingras — Virgil Morgan, Jr. — 3-1

2. Lou's Starr — Corey Braden — Scott Warnick — 15-1

3. Bythemissal — Dexter Dunn — Ron Burke — 12-1

4. Dandy Ideal — Tim Tetrick — Brett Pelling — 8-5

5. Coaches Corner — Jason Bartlett — Petter Engblom — 6-1

6. Prince Hal Hanover — Todd McCarthy — Dr. Ian Moore — 4-1

7. Mossdale Ben N — Jim Marohn, Jr. — Peter Tritton — 10-1

8. Surreal Ideal — Justin Walters — Vernon Beachy — 8-1

The card also features the $50,000 Pete Medhurst Legacy Pace, which has attracted a field of eight Maryland-owned,-sired, and -bred horses and will go as race 7.

ROSECROFT, MOHAWK TO OFFER ULTIMATE HARNESS PICK-4: The Potomac Pace will be the anchor leg of the Ultimate Harness Pick-4, a 50-cent wager which will comprise the two featured races from Rosecroft and two events from Woodbine Mohawk Park. The lineup for the Ultimate Pick-4, with approximate post times, is as follows:

Leg A — Rosecroft race 7 (Pete Medhurst Legacy Pace) — 8 p.m.

Leg B — Mohawk race 6 — 8:41 p.m.

Leg C — Mohawk race 7 — 9:02 p.m.

Leg D — Rosecroft race 11 (Potomac Pace) — 9:20 p.m.

First post for the 14-race Potomac Pace card is 6 p.m. (EST). For more information, including entries, results, the Players' Guide tip sheet, and live and archived video, visit www.rosecroftraceway.com.

Flamboro Downs moves its Saturday cards to Wednesdays for the remainder of 2026

Flamboro Downs has altered its racing schedule for the remainder of 2026, moving its Saturday cards to Wednesdays, beginning next week.

The changes, approved on Wednesday by the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario (AGCO), go into effect with the addition of a card on Wednesday (Nov. 11) and the elimination of the previously scheduled Saturday (Nov. 14) card.

The draw for the Nov. 11 card will be held today (Nov. 6).

The Saturday (Nov. 7) card at Flamboro will proceed as scheduled.

The move will provide live harness racing cards every day of the week in an attempt to drive handle which provides the majority of funding for purses and breed development program. Previously, Wednesdays were dark in Ontario. The new weekly harness racing schedule through the end of 2026 will be as follows starting next week:

- Sundays — Woodbine Mohawk Park and Flamboro Downs
- Mondays — Woodbine Mohawk Park and The Raceway at Western Fair District
- Tuesdays — The Raceway at Western Fair District
- Wednesdays — Flamboro Downs
- Thursdays — Flamboro Downs
- Fridays — Woodbine Mohawk Park and The Raceway at Western Fair District
- Saturdays — Woodbine Mohawk Park

That means the following Wednesday race dates have been added to Flamboro Downs' 2026 lineup:

- November 11, 18, 25
- December 2, 9, 16, 30

The following Saturday race dates have been deleted at the Hamilton, ON track:

- November 14, 21, 28
- December 5, 12, 19, 26

Betting menu changes, early ending highlight Big M weekend

The Meadowlands is going to make some betting menu changes this weekend when live racing resumes tonight (Nov. 6) and Saturday (Nov. 7), and, in addition, the mile oval will host 13 races for both cards, which will get harness fans — and harness horsemen and women — out of the track a little earlier so they can recharge for the next day.

Post time at The Big M is 6:20 p.m.

"We are going to make some changes to the wagering card," said track chief operating officer/general manager Jason Settlemoir. "We'll be bringing back the 20-cent Survivor Pick-7 and returning the Late Pick-3 and Late Daily Double to their original base bets of $1.

"We will also offer just one 10-cent Hi-5 (Pentafecta) moving forward, with the thought being having just one should result in a nice-sized pool, and we will also not continue with a second 20-cent Pick-5. In addition, we are moving the 20-cent Pick-6.

"As for the 13-race programs, yes, they will allow us to finish earlier than usual, sometime around 11:30 p.m. So, while some will prefer 13-race programs, if they prevent our horsemen from getting their horses raced, we will have additional races. It's all about the entry box."

Meadowlands patrons have always enjoyed betting into the sport's biggest pools, and the track will now offer six wagers nightly that have a low 15 per cent take out.

Those bets are:

- Races 1-5: 20-cent Pick-5 (Friday's carryover: $17,328)
- Races 3-9: 20-cent Survivor Pick-7 (mandatory payout nightly)
- Races 6-9: 50-cent Pick-4 (estimated pool $50,000)
- Races 8-13: 20-cent Pick-6
- Races 10-13: 50-cent Pick-4 (estimated pool $50,000)
- Race 11: 10-cent Hi-5 (Pentafecta)

THE SCHEDULE: The pacers and trotters will be in action at The Big M every Friday and Saturday through the end of 2026, with just one exception, as there is no live racing on Christmas Day, Friday (Dec. 25).

In addition, there are three Thursday cards on the calendar: Dec. 3, 10, and 17.

All told, there are 18 nights of live Meadowlands harness racing remaining this year, and each has a post time of 6:20 p.m.

SAVE THE DATES: There are still some dates worth circling on your calendar if you only like to come out to The Big M when the level of racing is sky high, starting with Saturday (Nov. 14), when the last major stakes card on not just The Meadowlands schedule, but the entire harness racing calendar, takes place when estimated purses of $2.65 million will be up for grabs on Fall Final Four/FanDuel Championships Night.

The eight stakes races that will take place that evening are:

- $400,000 (est.) Valley Victory (2-year-old colt and gelding trot)
- $400,000 (est.) Governor's Cup (2-year-old colt and gelding pace)
- $400,000 (est.) Goldsmith Maid (2-year-old filly trot)
- $400,000 (est.) Three Diamonds (2-year-old filly pace)
- $350,000 (est.) FanDuel open pace
- $350,000 (est.) FanDuel open trot
- $175,000 (est.) FanDuel fillies and mares trot
- $175,000 (est.) FanDuel fillies and mares pace

(All FanDuel events are for 3-year-olds and up)

The 2026 stakes curtain will then fall when four $70,000 (est.) New Jersey Standardbred Development Fund finals for 2-year-olds of each sex and gait will be contested on Saturday (Nov. 21).

A FOXY FALL FINAL FOUR: The TV teams at The Meadowlands and the New York Racing Association (NYRA) will continue their partnership with one last 2026 broadcast that will bring high-end Big M stakes action into people's living rooms from coast-to-coast.

Fall Final Four/FanDuel Championships Night will be televised as part of the NYRA's "America's Day at the Races" series. Those eight dashes can be seen on Fox Sports 2 (FS2) from 9-11 p.m. on Saturday (Nov. 14).

TROTTING TITANS: In what is a prep for the FanDuel Open Trot, there is a star-studded feature race on tonight's card.

The field of seven has three big names on the entry sheet, starting with a pair of Ron Burke trainees.

Defending Dan Patch Trotter of the Year Lexus Kody, who banked $1.3 million a year ago, will depart from post 5 with Tim Tetrick at the controls. He won't be driven by his usual pilot — and Burke go-to guy — Yannick Gingras, because Gingras will guide Antognoni S, a winner of 22 of 39 races over 2025-26, a span over which he has earned over $850,000. Gingras is one of the horse's owners.

The Nancy Takter-trained French Wine, the 2025 Breeders Crown champion, has post 6 for Jason Bartlett.

MEADOW AT THE 'LANDS: This weekend will mark the return of Meadow Twaddle to the Sam McKee Memorial Broadcast Set, serving as co-host alongside Big M TV veteran Dave Little.

The 24-year-old daughter of longtime horseman Tim Twaddle currently serves as the marketing director for the Meadows Standardbred Owners Association (MSOA), a role she stepped into in March of 2026.

"I've spent the past several months focusing on expanding our marketing efforts, organizing special events, building sponsorship opportunities, and finding new ways to attract fans to The Meadows and grow interest in harness racing," said Meadow. "It's been an exciting first year, and I've really enjoyed bringing new ideas to the table while continuing to promote a sport I've been involved in my entire life."

Outside of her role with the MSOA, she has continued to pursue opportunities in broadcasting, including The Meadowlands live simulcast show, where she has become a semi-regular. She was also part of The Meadows' biggest day. "One of the highlights of my year was making my national television debut on the CBS Sports Network for the 60th edition of the Delvin Miller Adios in July," said Meadow. "Being part of the broadcast team for such a prestigious event, especially at my home track, was an incredible experience and a milestone I'm very grateful for."

Ken Warkentin will be in his usual spot at the top of the stands calling the action with Gary DiLeo handling interviews with winning connections.

HAVE SOME PIE: When you have dinner before leaving your house to come to the track on Saturday (Nov. 7), be sure to not have dessert. That will be available at The Meadowlands.

That night, it will be time for pie, when $4,250 in prize money will be up for as the track hosts its inaugural Pie Palooza.

There will be four categories for pie bakers: Fruit/Berry, Apple, Savory, and Cream Based. There will also be a pie eating contest. Those five competitions will offer $850 in prize money, with $500 going to the winner, $250 to the second-place finisher, and $100 to third.

The contest takes place trackside on the ground floor from 6-9 p.m., and for those who don't bake, they too, can get in on the fun, as there will be free samples for all to taste. In addition, The Peach Cobbler Factory (peachcobblerfactory.com) will be onsite selling some great-tasting goods.

For further information, go here.

ABSOLUTELY FREE: To show appreciation to its loyal fan base, The Meadowlands offers free program pages for every race of every race card on its website.

Go to playmeadowlands.com, then click on the "handicapping" dropdown to get the past performances at absolutely no cost.

Ontario-sired yearlings grossed over $6.2 million in Harrisburg

Ontario-sired yearlings had a strong showing at the Standardbred Horse Sales Company auction in Harrisburg, PA. The three-day yearling portion of the sale concluded on Wednesday (Nov. 4).

In all, 118 Ontario-sired yearlings reached a total gross of $6,273,000 for an average of $53,161 that was 18 per cent higher than the complete yearling sale average of $45,192.

Previously, Ontario Racing announced that Ontario-sired horses will be eligible to more than $22.5 million in restricted purses for 2027, including more than $17 million in the Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) program alone.

The new money is part of $14 million in additional funding annually for five years specific to the standardbred industry. The funding comes from $35 million in total new money annually for five years from the provincial government for Ontario's three racing breeds.

This week in Harrisburg, 19 Ontario-sired yearlings fetched $100,000 or more, topped by Hip #503 Splendor Hanover, a Bulldog Hanover colt out of Sail By purchased by Marc Vaillancourt of Montreal for $205,000. Splendor Hanover was the most expensive yearling sold during Tuesday's second session.

The top two yearlings, by price, sold during Wednesday's third and final yearling session are also Ontario-sired:

• Session topper Hip #724 Theo The King, a King Of The North colt out of Hp Guccio Girl, was purchased for $150,000 by Nikway Farms of Newfoundland.

• Hip #682 Waco, a Bulldog Hanover colt out of Endless Summer, was purchased for $100,000 by John Pentland.

Both colts were sold by Concord Stud of New Jersey.

Forty Ontario-sired horses sold on Wednesday, fetching a total gross of $1,302,000 for an average of $32,550. The average price for Ontario-sired horses was 76 per cent higher than the session average of $18,468.

The top Ontario sires were as follows:

• Bulldog Hanover – 18 sold for $1,627,000, averaging $90,389

• King Of The North – 22, $1,410,000, $64,091

• Green Manalishi S – 14, $718,000, $51,286

• Bettors Delight – 15, $707,000, $47,133

• Cattlewash – 20, $615,000, $30,750

• Beach Glass – 15, $571,000, $38,067

• Muscle Mass – 9, $530,000, $58,889

FEEDBACK!

SPONSORED BY PREFERRED EQUINE

In response to Racing Into The Future by Bob Duff

I found it interesting to read Bob Duff's article regarding the move of the industry's trotting jewel, the Hambletonian.

While the article lays out the reasons for the move, it does not drive home the fact that this decision rests solely on The Meadowlands' decision not to renew its contract. Meadowlands management opted not to renew the agreement that would have kept the Hambletonian in place. That is on them. No one else. The Hambletonian Society had no choice but to open the bidding process, as required by its bylaws.

It is no secret that Meadowlands management and the Hambletonian Society have not shared the same opinions on several issues over the past few years. That's okay. What isn't okay is Mr. Gural's shortsightedness and selfishness regarding what would best serve the entire industry. To rule with a heavy hand and use leverage to get what you want at the expense of the industry can be dangerous, and possibly destructive. If nothing else, it is ignorant.

While some would have you believe that moving the race signals the end of harness racing as we know it, perhaps they should look beyond New Jersey. Mr. Duff touched on the fact that harness racing is on the rise in the Midwest. While some may consider the Midwest flyover country, harness racing has extremely strong roots here. We have a rich history, a passionate fan base, and an industry that continues to grow. We may have far more to offer than some are willing to admit or recognize. Before continuing to consider us the redheaded stepchild of the industry, give us a chance.

While the largest city in North America may slowly be turning its back on harness racing on the East Coast, perhaps Mr. Duff is right when he suggests, "Maybe this power move to the Midwest is exactly what the sport needs."

You can spin this controversy any way you want, but please understand that those of us involved in harness racing in the Midwest are proud of where we are, who we are, and what we have accomplished despite being overlooked by so many.

Hoosier Park is not the bad guy here. They simply took advantage of an opportunity created by a bad decision on the part of Mr. Gural.

The Hambletonian is bigger than any one racetrack or individual. If this move ultimately gives the race a new home and provides an opportunity to strengthen harness racing across the country, perhaps the real question isn't why the Hambletonian is leaving The Meadowlands, but why Meadowlands management was willing to let it go in the first place.
