California's lone harness meet postponed indefinitely due to sale of Watch and Wager LLC

> "We don't really want to bring up the standardbred meet. That's a hot topic. It's not really on point for this agenda item; this is the ADW."

by Melissa Keith

On Wednesday (Nov. 18), the regularly-scheduled California Horse Racing Board (CHRB) meeting briefly touched upon a matter of great importance to harness racing in the west.

CHRB executive director Scott Chaney's report confirmed suspicions already voiced on social media by racing participants concerned about the 38 proposed race dates allocated to Watch and Wager LLC at the Big Fresno Fair on Nov. 19, 2025, pending final approval by the CHRB.

The Big Fresno Fair harness meet was scheduled to start on Saturday (Dec. 12, 2026) and conclude on April 30, 2027, after what its Jan. 23, 2026 media release called "a century-long absence."

There has been no standardbred racing in California since the closure of Sacramento's Cal Expo on May 2, 2025.

"I wanted to make the board aware that Watch and Wager withdrew its application for the standard[bred] meet scheduled to begin at Fresno this month," Chaney said. "There is a pending sale of the [ADW] company that has made the logistics of putting on a race meet difficult. Should there be a change in the sale status, there's a small chance that a meet could begin in January [2027], but in my view, that is unlikely. There's also some discussion of a fall meet in 2027."

Chaney thanked Big Fresno Fair for showing "their commitment to racing and their willingness to take on this new venture." The track has played host to thoroughbred meets, but did not bring them back in 2025. The CHRB had voted down the most recent application for renewing thoroughbred racing at Fresno, according to Dania Romero's KMPH news report on Jan. 27, 2026.

Watch and Wager LLC's application for a two-year advance deposit wagering (ADW) license in the state was approved during the Nov. 18 session, but not without comment. Al Comins, president of Kentucky-based Watch and Wager LLC, was in attendance but did not make a statement about the Big Fresno Fair dates.

"We don't really want to bring up the standardbred meet," CHRB vice-chairman Oscar Gonzalez said. "That's a hot topic. It's not really on point for this agenda item; this is the ADW."

The CHRB meeting concluded with a closed session. There was no further discussion of harness racing after Chaney concluded his brief remarks on the subject.

"Hopefully it's not the last you'll hear of a standardbred meet in California," he said.

Big Fresno Fair continues to offer wagering in its on-track "The Starting Gate" simulcast lounge. The next CHRB meeting is scheduled for January 13, 2027.

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Swedish harness racing faces $27 million in budget cuts

by Thomas Hedlund

Swedish harness racing is facing a major financial crisis. When the board of Svensk Travsport, Sweden's national harness racing governing body, presented its financial outlook for 2027 during Wednesday's (Nov. 18) meeting with racetrack chairpersons, it became clear that the industry must cut approximately SEK 270 million ($27 million) in spending. Lower-than-expected wagering revenue and a we ak economy are behind the shortfall.

The consequences will be felt throughout Swedish harness racing, with reduced purses and other funding for horsemen, lower payments to racetracks and significant cuts within Svensk Travsport's central organization.

"We need to be straightforward about the situation," Svensk Travsport chairman Anders Källström said in a press release. "Swedish harness racing is facing an extremely challenging financial situation. We have less money available than we had planned, and we must adjust accordingly.

"That requires difficult decisions and priorities that will affect the entire harness racing ecosystem. We cannot keep postponing these problems. We have to take responsibility for the situation we're facing."

The savings will be divided into three main areas:

• SEK 160 million ($16 million) in reduced funding for horsemen and other industry participants.

• SEK 55 million ($5.5 million) in reduced payments to racetracks.

• SEK 58 million ($5.8 million) in cuts to Svensk Travsport's central organization.

The exact allocation between purse money and other operations will be announced at the regular budget meeting on Dec. 7. Some of the reductions have already been approved through a decrease in the number of race dates, representing approximately SEK 65 million ($6.5 million) in savings.

Total purse money paid to owners and breeders in 2027 is projected to be slightly more than SEK 1 billion ($100 million), a decrease of approximately 13 per cent compared with 2026.

> "We need to be straightforward about the situation. Swedish harness racing is facing an extremely challenging financial situation. We have less money available than we had planned, and we must adjust accordingly."
> — Anders Källström

With fewer races and fewer horses expected to compete, the average purse per race is projected to be around SEK 125,000 ($12,500), roughly the same level as in 2024.

"We know that purse money is crucial to the finances of many horsemen and owners, and that reductions will be painful, particularly when so many are already under considerable financial pressure," Källström said.

"But we have to deal with the economic reality we're facing. We've been through difficult periods before and emerged stronger on the other side. We can do that again."

Two years ago, Svensk Travsport increased purse funding by SEK 100 million ($10 million), intending to establish a permanently higher level based on long-term financial projections.

But wagering revenues have failed to develop as expected, and the organization says that level of funding is no longer sustainable. The weak economy is also affecting owners, trainers, racetracks, and Svensk Travsport itself.

"Everyone in harness racing will be affected," said Jörgen Forsberg, CEO of Svensk Travsport.

"And it goes without saying that Svensk Travsport must also examine its own costs and ways of operating. We will have to eliminate certain activities, change priorities and do things differently.

"When purse money is being reduced, it must also be clear that Svensk Travsport's central organization is taking its share of the responsibility."

ATG'S WAGERING PROBLEMS

A central part of the effort will involve Swedish wagering operator ATG, by far the industry's largest source of revenue.

"We have been living beyond our means, and now we have to take responsibility for that," Forsberg said.

ATG replaced its long-established V75 Saturday wagering product with V85 a year ago. The change was followed by a dramatic decline in Saturday wagering turnover. On Saturday (Nov. 28), ATG will reverse course and bring back V75.

STEFAN MELANDER TO SELL ENTIRE BROODMARE BAND

One of the most dedicated figures in international harness racing is preparing to scale back his operation. And the first step comes Sunday, when legendary Swedish trainer and breeder Stefan Melander offers all 45 of his broodmares for sale.

Melander, a longtime ambassador for harness racing around the world, has reached a point in his life where he no longer believes breeding standardbreds in Sweden makes financial sense.

After Sunday's auction, his entire broodmare operation could be gone.

"I started in harness racing in the early 1970s as a photographer," Melander said in a press release from auction platform Travera.

"Then I took the step into professional training. It's been 25 years as a photographer followed by 50 years as a professional trainer, without really taking a vacation day.

"Now we've made the decision to stop breeding horses.

"There are so many winners in the pedigrees of these mares. Many were millionaires themselves, and several have gone on to produce millionaires as broodmares."

Together with his longtime partner Catarina Lundström, Melander has bred more than 40 horses who have earned at least SEK 1 million during their careers. Now he is preparing to disperse the broodmare band responsible for much of that success.

Among the approximately 45 mares being offered is former Elitlopp participant Decision Maker (Nuncio—Full Authority), who earned SEK 4,398,963 ($440,000) and recorded a mark equivalent to 1:51.3. Decision Maker is currently in foal to Milligan's School.

Another notable offering is Bacio (Muscle Hill—Lily Kronos), a 1:54.3 performer who earned SEK 623,152 ($62,000). Bacio has produced three Swedish millionaires, all sired by Nuncio.

Also included is Digital Class (Super Photo Kosmos—Full Authority), a 1:54 performer who earned SEK 3,003,321 ($300,000). Her oldest offspring is currently 2.

Melander remains one of Sweden's most successful breeders. Last year, he ranked fourth nationally with SEK 22.6 million ($2.26 million) in earnings by horses he bred. This year, he ranks sixth with SEK 12.1 million ($1.21 million).

"We selected our broodmares based on conformation and durability," Melander said.

"That approach has worked extremely well, with more than 40 millionaires bred.

"Of course, it feels very sad to sell these horses, but all I can do is wish the people who buy them the very best of luck in the future."

ROAD TO PRIX D'AMÉRIQUE BEGINS WITH PRIX DE BRETAGNE

The French winter meeting at Vincennes is underway, and one of its most important traditions is about to begin. Sunday's (Nov. 22) $125,000 Prix de Bretagne marks the first of four qualifying races commonly known as the B races, which lead to the 2027 Prix d'Amérique.

The top four finishers in each of the four races earn guaranteed berths in the €1 million Prix d'Amérique, scheduled for the final Sunday in January. And Sunday's 2,700-meter Prix de Bretagne promises an exceptionally strong field. Among the stars entered are Frank Gio, Borups Victory, Jushua Tree, and Iguski Sautonne. Defending Prix d'Amérique champion Hokkaido Jiel is also expected to compete.

QUALIFICATION RULES FOR THE 2027 PRIX D'AMÉRIQUE

The €1 million Prix d'Amérique will be contested at Vincennes on Sunday (Jan. 31, 2027), over 2,700 meters.

The race is open to trotters ages 4 through 11, with the following purse distribution:

Finish	Prizes
1st	450,000 €
2nd	250,000 €
3rd	140,000 €
4th	80,000 €
5th	50,000 €
6th	20,000 €
7th	10,000 €

The winners of the Critérium Continental and Prix Ténor de Baune receive guaranteed berths, along with the top four finishers in each of the Prix de Bretagne, Prix du Bourbonnais, Prix de Bourgogne, and Prix de Belgique.

Remaining positions are determined by career earnings, with age-related adjustments.

PRIX D'AMÉRIQUE QUALIFYING SCHEDULE

Date	Race	Purse	Distance

EARNINGS ADJUSTMENTS FOR QUALIFICATION

When ranking horses by earnings for the remaining starting positions, younger horses receive the following allowances:

- 4-year-olds: Career earnings increased by 30 per cent.
- 5-year-olds: Career earnings increased by 20 per cent.
- 6-year-olds: Career earnings increased by 10 per cent.
- 7- to 11-year-olds: Actual career earnings are used without adjustment.

These allowances are applied for qualification purposes only and help younger trotters compete for starting positions against older horses with longer racing careers.

MEADOWLANDS MATTERS

with DEBBIE LITTLE

Motherhood will have to wait for Twin B Joe Fresh

The Dan Patch 2024 Horse of the Year will be back on the track in 2027.

by Debbie Little

On Tuesday (Nov. 17), HRU was informed by trainer/co-owner Chris Ryder that Twin B Joe Fresh will return to the racetrack in 2027 at age 7.

"We were waiting to finish racing, and just to give her a good once over with the x-ray machine and all that type of thing, and she got a good report," Ryder said. "We're in the racing business, and as much as we'd enjoy breeding her, we're here to race, and she makes money, so we're going to race."

Ryder, who co-owns Twin B Joe Fresh with her driver Dexter Dunn, Peter Trebotica, and Barry Spak, had been quoted earlier this year saying that he was "90 per cent certain" that Twin B Joe Fresh would be wrapping up her racing career at the end of the season and, in all likelihood, bred to Sweet Lou.

However, in the winner's circle following Twin B Joe Fresh's commanding win in the Grade 2 FanDuel Championship for open pacing mares Saturday (Nov. 14) night at The Meadowlands, Ryder waffled a little when questioned about her imminent retirement.

On Monday (Nov. 16), the day before Twin B Joe Fresh's vet visit, Ryder remained non-committal even when pressed about how well she'd been racing to close out the year.

"Well, you can't blame her for winning, can you?" he said. "It's kind of odd to stop racing a horse that just beats the best all the time. So, you know, as long as she can do what she's doing now, we'll do it next year. But just now, we've got to evaluate her and make sure she's got enough longevity, you know, to be able to commit to next year. Because if we get halfway through next year and she has issues and we can't race, well, then she's not in foal."

Even though the 6-year-old daughter by Roll With Joe—Fresh Breeze passed her vet tests with flying colors, Ryder said he knows that bringing her back doesn't guarantee similar results to this year when she hit the board in 12 of 15 races, won eight, and earned $724,191. She now has career earnings of $ 3,586,670 and is $161,904 away from surpassing Eternal Camnation to become the richest pacing mare in harness racing history.

There were some nay-sayers early this year, when Twin B Joe Fresh, the 2024 Dan Patch Horse of the Year, lost three stakes races to her stablemate Miki And Minnie. Ryder said he always had faith in Twin B Joe Fresh.

"Even when she was finishing third and fourth, and everyone was saying, 'Oh, she's no good,' I kept telling them she's absolutely 100 per cent," Ryder said. "Just a few small things went wrong, like trips and Dexter's decisions and minor stuff, and she was as good as ever.

"And I made an equipment change on her, and she hasn't lost since. So that helped her. I opened her up. I took the blinds off her."

Ryder explained the reasoning behind Twin B Joe Fresh's equipment change.

"She was racing to the three-quarters instead of racing the last quarter; too aggressive," Ryder said. "So, we got her to relax a bit, and she's finishing better. You win the race in the last piece of the mile, that's where you win it, not at the three-quarter pole."

Twin B Joe Fresh finished the season with five straight wins in the Grade 1 Dayton Derby, Grade 3 Allerage, elim and final of the Grade 1 Breeders Crown, and Grade 2 FanDuel.

She also became the first horse in FanDuel history to record three wins in the event, because, in addition to this year's victory, she won it as a 3-year-old beating older mares in 2023, and in

> "Well, you can't blame her for winning, can you? It's kind of odd to stop racing a horse that just beats the best all the time."

> *"You always dream, otherwise, we wouldn't be here. But in reality, you get them home, and you know, a few too many of them are not good enough, and you're hoping to have something that's going to be a nice racehorse. 2024, but didn't race in it in 2025 when sidelined with a hairline fracture late in the season.

With all that said, Ryder expects to face strong competition in 2027.

"It's going be a tough division next year," Ryder said. "You've got Francent [N], then you've got Miki And Minnie, and you've got Miss Jum Jabber."

Unlike some divisions, racing opportunities for older pacing mares are limited, so even trying to separate his own would be difficult.

"The thing that's hard about it, there's no spots to pick with open mares," he said. "They've both got to go. You can't send one to one race and one to another race. There are not enough options to have that choice."

There is always the possibility of having one of his mares take on the boys, but it would have to be the perfect situation, as it was in 2020 with Party Girl Hill.

"It's just something we'd consider if the time's right, but, you know, it's probably not going to happen," Ryder said. "We entered [Party Girl Hill] in the Tattersalls for three reasons. Number one, it was racing for more money, number two, we thought she could win, and number three, we did it to beat Tall Dark Stranger to give us a shot at Horse of the Year.

"He would have been on the front, so we would have been tracking him, which would have been an advantage.

"But race offices, being race offices, and they separated her from Tall Dark Stranger; there were two divisions."

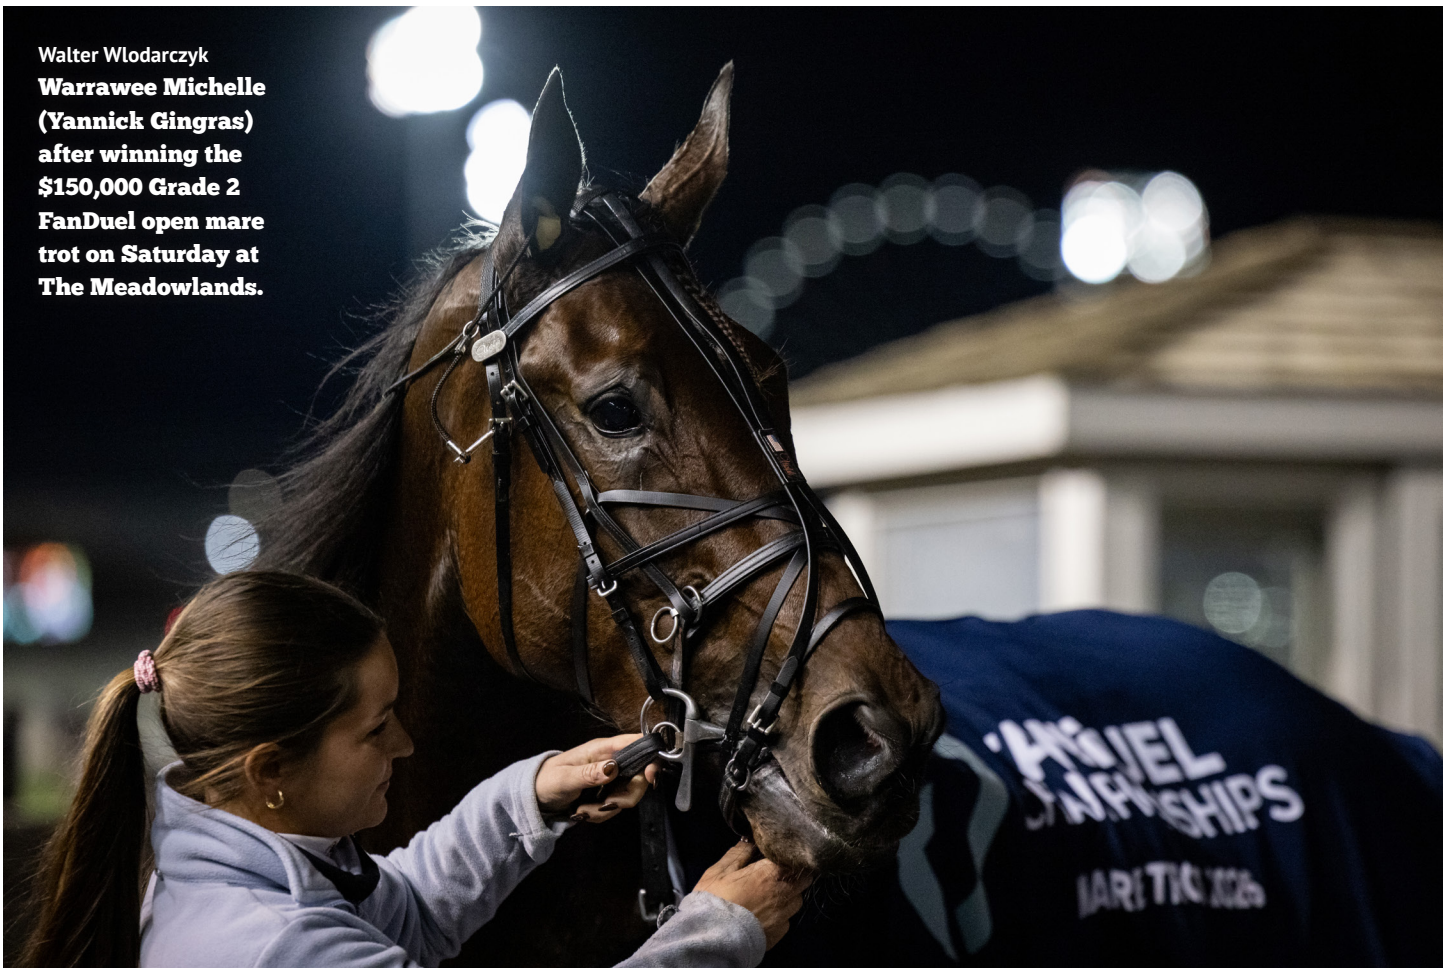

No matter what the outcome of racing her next year may be, Ryder said Twin B Joe Fresh (p, 3, 1:47.2m, $880,345) has already exceeded his expectations.

"I was just hoping we had a nice racehorse," he said. "I didn't imagine we're going to have this type of creature. You always dream, otherwise, we wouldn't be here. But in reality, you get them home, and you know, a few too many of them are not good enough, and you're hoping to have something that's going to be a nice racehorse. So obviously, you're looking for more than that. But it wasn't long that we had her that we knew that she's better than just a racehorse."

Warrawee Michelle (Yannick Gingras) after winning the $150,000 Grade 2 FanDuel open mare trot on Saturday at The Meadowlands.

HOLLYWOOD'S HITS
with BOB HEYDEN

Fall Final Four/FanDuel Championships takeaways, some year-end numbers, and more

by Bob Heyden

It's pretty much all over but the shouting with just a couple of stakes still remaining. The Fall Final Four/FanDuel Night at The Meadowlands was packed end-to-end and here are a few takeaways.

1. Warrawee Michelle finished up a remarkable lookalike season with her FanDuel win. At 4 (11 3-4-2) and at 5 (11 3-4-1).

2. Super Chapter and On To Norway may have stolen the show as the only two millionaire trotters of 2026 were right there on the wire together in a thriller. Super Chapter just became the first trotter ever to post consecutive $1.2 million seasons at 3 and 4. On To Norway is now a mind-boggling 50 40-7-0 lifetime.

3. Sweet Lou sired two winners including the dominant Women Layer who upped his fancy career slate to 35-for-61 while Sweet Lou also went 1-2-3 in the Governor's Cup with Eastie Boy, Hades, and Seine.

4. The last two females who were favored in the Hambletonian — Ramona Hill (2020 winner and public choice) and Mission Brief (2015 fave, second to Pinkman) — both had a winner on this night: Nevis Peak won the Goldsmith Maid (Walner—Ramona Hill) and Command Center the Valley Victory (Gimpanzee—Mission Brief).

5. Ron Burke with a big night with Eastie Boy and Nevis Peak and of course the game On To Norway in the bang-bang finish in the FanDuel open trot. Add in fellow homebreds Melillo and Al Papi to Eastie Boy and it's been yet another banner season not only racing but breeding for the sports top barn.

6. Twin B Joe Fresh did it again in the FanDuel. It was her fifth straight to improve to eight-for-15 on the year and 44-for-64 lifetime. If this was indeed it, she would wind up at 64 44-12-3 with $3,588,920 as compared to the all-time $$ leader Eternal Camnation who finished at 101 47-18-5 with $3,748,574. Twin B Joe Fresh is allegedly booked to Sweet Lou in 2027 so this might actually be the end of a sparkling career. But, wait, let's go back to 1985 Hambletonian Day for a second. Everyone's eyes were fixated on Nihilator winning in 1:49.3 breaking the 1:50 barrier for the very first time and Prakas winning the Hambletonian breaking the 1:55 barrier with a 1:54.3 convincing score. Quietly a new world mark was set for older pacing mares at 1:52.3 by May Wine. She was in foal to the sports hottest sire in 1985, Niatross. Can't Twin B Joe Fresh consider the same route? Potentially race in the Golden Girls and a couple others, set the new $$ standard, and pace off into broodmare land permanently?

TIM TETRICK

Tim Tetrick tipped past $299 million on Tuesday (Nov. 17) thus officially starting the clock/countdown to John Campbell ($299.8) and then Dave Miller ($304). The oddest stat on Tetrick (45 on Nov. 22) is the fact that he set the high-water mark for wins and earnings in consecutive years in 2007 and 2008 with 1,189 wins followed by a $19.7 million season. Yet, even with that out-of-reach win total, he never again led in the dash dept. He heads a list of seven of drivers who led in wins once but still made the Hall of Fame: Buddy Gilmour (1959 with 165 wins), Clint Hodgins (1948 with 128), as well as Del Insko (1960 with 157), Ron Waples (1979 with 443), Dave Magee (1994 with 639), and finally Cat Manzi (727 in 2005).

MARCUS MELANDER

Marcus Melander is completing a two year stretch similar to Jimmy Takter's of 2014-15. Consider these amazing numbers put up with over a month to go by the just 34-year-old:

• Of the top 15 trotting earners of the past two seasons — seven this year and eight last year — 10 of the 15 are Melander trainees. In 2026: 1. Super Chapter ($1,343,207), 3. Apex ($971,803), 5. Nezuko Kamado S ($927,058), 6. Nix Nacken ($910,266), and 7. Birr Castle ($896,185). That's in addition to 2025: 2. Super Chapter ($1,236,099), 5. Apex ($871,798), 6. Periculum ($838,902), 7. Setyoursightshigh ($679,158), and 8. Spencer Hanover ($649,989). Eight different horses.

• Amazingly Melander has led all of North America in trotting earnings with four different horses varying in age: Greenshoe (2019) $1.35 million as a 3-year-old trotting colt, Joviality (2022) $1.08 million as a 3-year-old trotting filly, Maryland (2024) $1.2 million as a 2-year-old trotting colt, and Super Chapter (2026) $1,343,207 as a 4-year-old trotting horse.

• Melander is No. 19 all-time in earnings.

R.I.P. CLINT GALBRAITH

The recent passing of Clint Galbraith brought back great memories. A great friend in the '80s and '90s, I had pretty much lost contact with since. He won the very first million $ race, in case you are indeed unfamiliar with the name, with Niatross in the 1980 Meadowlands Pace for $1,011,000. Ironically the runner-up was Storm Damage, and he and the third finisher Tyler B actually out-earned Niatross in the stallion dept. As a matter of fact, it was Storm Damage who sired Call For Rain who later became the first horse to break 1:50 twice in a race for Galbraith.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Kaitlyn Wesley comes up major with Maritime minis

by Chris Lomon

When she envisions the future of horse racing, Kaitlyn Wesley sees far beyond the view from her own lens.

Ask the horsewoman from Shelburne, a town in southwestern Nova Scotia, what she considers the most rewarding part of her connection to the standardbred industry, and her answer comes immediately.

"I have put together the Maritime Mini Racing Series, where youth race their minis all over the Maritimes," she said. "This has been my favorite program I have built. I have watched many kids go from their minis to now big racehorses. And that's the goal. This past summer, on July 4, youth took minis up to Clinton, ON, to participate in the Junior National Driving Championship. What an experience it was – the youth got to meet top drivers from all over the country."

What started as a modest initiative, with fewer than a handful of participants, has quickly evolved into something much bigger. In its second year, 2024, the program expanded to 24 young drivers. Last year, more than two dozen youth and their miniature ponies took to five Maritime tracks: Summerside Raceway, Inverness Raceway, Northside Downs, Charlottetown Driving Park (during Old Home Week), and Truro Raceway.

"When I started this program, we had three kids and now we have 28," Wesley said. "All the tracks in the Maritimes have supported this mini program. We went from gallop and moved to a more controlled gait, the trot, to follow suit with the harness racing world. My biggest highlight was that my proposal for the Ontario versus Maritime Junior National Driving Championship would take place this year, and it did."

The program is a perfect reflection of Wesley's commitment to laying the foundation for the next generation to discover a world she treasures.

Her first association with racing came as a teenager after she moved to Truro.

"I moved to Truro to live with my father and stepmom when I was in high school," Wesley said. "I started going to the races with my stepmom's family, Kenny Greene, and helping with his horses."

Her connection to pacers and trotters, along with her appreciation for the sport and the people involved, continued to grow over time.

Prince Adam, a bay son of Real Artist, would leave a lasting impression on Wesley.

Despite his reputation, a well-earned one, for having an ornery disposition and a difficult demeanor, the pacer, who raced 344 times and recorded 44 victories, quickly won Wesley over.

"My boyfriend, Andrew Campbell, claimed him back in 2019, and he was known as the mean horse – the killer," she said. "I worked with him and loved his crazy, quirky personality. Over the winter, in 2020, I thought why not break him, so that's what we did. We broke him to saddle. He loved it. He retired in 2022, the year that he gave me my first ever win as an owner. I had big plans when he retired. We had already done our first two matinee races together and we planned to do many more."

Tragedy, however, struck in the spring of 2023.

"On April 5 of that year, I had lost my best friend," she said. "We turned Prince out and he snapped his pastern off. I was devastated, heartbroken, and felt I lost a piece of me."

Wesley began questioning her future in racing.

Ultimately, a black mare would provide her with renewed purpose.

"In 2022, around November, our yearling came in," she said. "So, after I lost Prince Adam, Andrew pushed me to do things with the yearling just to keep me interested in the sport because I had said over and over that I'm done. I would spend my evenings at the barn, trying to find a connection with this filly."

Ahlea Wesley with Jalapeño Cheddar.

As Wesley and Campbell would soon discover, the filly came with an unexpectedly compelling backstory.

"Her name is Waterford Girl," Wesley said. "We call her Girlie. She is a homebred. Andy won a breeding to Pang Shui that was a fundraiser. This filly landed, black just like her mom. Boy, was she feisty as a baby. When we went to register her, something wasn't right. Pang Shui wasn't matching her DNA. We came to find out the farm we had sent our broodmare to breed, bred a trot stallion to the broodmare. Girlie is sired by E L Rocket out of a Western Terror mare named Barefoot Contessa."

After plenty of hard work, no shortage of questions, and considerable uncertainty, Waterford Girl found her stride.

"Girlie trained down a little on the trot, but would put a pace stride in, so we put the hobbles on her, and that was it," Wesley said. "She has paced ever since. She has a mark of 1:57.3. From what I have been told, she is the fastest trot-sired pacing filly in Maritime history. I still have Girlie. After a few hiccups this spring, she will be qualifying by the end of November."

When Waterford Girl races, Wesley can be both seen and heard.

"I'm a little over the top," she said with a laugh. "I love to yell and scream for her. I'm like the biggest cheerleader. To tell you how much I cheer – Andy stands on the other end of the fence. He says he needs hearing aids when standing by me."

Wesley is much more than a doting and vocal owner.

Her passion for the sport has opened doors to numerous other opportunities, allowing her to contribute in a variety of roles.

Whatever the job, her unabashed enthusiasm for racing is always evident.

"Ashley MacDonald had asked me for help with building a website for her stallions under Kingsmen Equine," Wesley said. "As the breeding season was going really well in 2025, Ashley had asked me to stay on to help with marketing, social media, and paperwork. That was my part-time job, but it was my love. From there, I jumped on the marketing wagon with some other stallions, at Burkie By The Bay and at Windemere Farms.

> *"I have put together the Maritime Mini Racing Series, where youth race their minis all over the Maritimes. This has been my favorite program I have built. I have watched many kids go from their minis to now big racehorses. And that's the goal. This past summer, on July 4, youth took minis up to Clinton, ON, to participate in the Junior National Driving Championship. >
> — Kaitlyn Wesley

"Most recently, I have been very involved with Speed Breeding [a breeding farm]. So, really Kingsmen Equine built me, and helped me get a wicked foundation. I still do everything I can to help Ashley and Kingsmen Equine, which is a female-run business."

Whatever the role, seeing racing thrive is always top of mind for Wesley.

"The best part about my career is being a part of the future of harness racing," she said. "Not just marketing, but the breeding side as well. I love it."

That doesn't mean the work is always easy or stress-free.

"The toughest part is I'm only one person," said Wesley, who, when time allows, enjoys photography, along with marketing and design work. "I would love to have two of me, so I wouldn't have to split myself up, because when I do that, I feel bad. I am a person that wants to help and when I do something I put 110 per cent into it."

All with the hope of attracting more eyes on the sport she is grateful to be part of.

Wesley doesn't have to look far to see tangible examples of how she is helping others discover standardbred racing.

"My proudest moment is raising a young female, my daughter Ahlea, to love harness racing," Wesley said. "Ahlea purchased her very own racehorse, Jalapeño Cheddar, a little 3-year-old Betterthancheddar filly. She has learned to put her own hard work into her horse. Time and energy go a long way, but to also love the horse before the sport.

"Just watching Ahlea work with Cheddar and put all her work into this filly, makes me so proud of what the future holds for her in this sport."

Delaware
SIRE STAKES REPORT

Cruising Mist repeats in DSBF filly pace

by Bally's Dover

Legacy Racing of Delaware's homebred Cruising Mist cemented herself as the likely favorite in next week's $110,000 Delaware Standardbred Breeders' Fund series championship for 2-year-old pacing fillies with her 1:55.3 win in the first of two $20,000 second-round divisions on Wednesday (Nov. 18) at Bally's Dover.

With Tim Tetrick again at the lines for trainer Wayne Givens, Cruising Mist methodically made her way to the top on the first turn, floating forward from post 7 and clearing to the pegs in front of Salty Beaches (driven by Allan Davis) before reaching the quarter in :29. Cruising Mist traveled uncontested through middle splits of :57.3 and 1:26.2 before shaking away from her six foes off the turn for home and evading a late inside rally from runner-up Unberdnbywhathsben (Jason Thompson) by a diminishing three-quarters-of-a-length. Salty Beaches was a one-paced third.

Cruising Mist, a Powerful Mist—Image Cruisingaway filly with five wins and $54,668 in earnings from 10 starts, became the only two-time winner in the series. As the 7-5 favorite, she paid $4.80 to win.

In the second division, 61-1 long shot Sunday Suppers and driver Russell Foster hooked three-wide from the back of the pack turning for home and charged down the center of the track for a maiden-breaking 1:56.1 win. The U S Captain—Absolutely Best filly narrowly edged High Prophet (Corey Callahan) and Jobs Not Finished (Tetrick) in a four-horse photo finish, with first-round winner and 2-5 favorite Rynesha (Ryder Skinner) splitting foes to finish fourth, beaten just a head, after finding herself in traffic trouble on the far turn.

William Wyatt trains Sunday Suppers, who paid $124 to win, for owner Cherron Davis.

The eight fillies who qualified for the $110,000 series final, which will share top billing on the Nov. 25 card with the Grade 2 Progress Pace, are: Cruising Mist, Rynesha, Sunday Suppers, High Prophet, Salty Beaches, Unberdnbywhathsben, Jobs Not Finished and Beautiful Rock.

Racin Hungry kept her undefeated record at the current Bally's Dover meeting intact with a 1:51.2 score over Jett Propelled in the $25,000 fillies and mares open pace.

Sent off the 1-10 public choice on the step up from a pair of open-length victories in winners-over company, Racin Hungry and driver Pat Berry wrested control of the terms from Jett Propelled (Jason Thompson) at the end of a :27 quarter, rated middle splits of :55.4 and 1:23.4, and edged clear of her pocket foe to win by 2¼ lengths. Earth Angel (Corey Callahan) sustained gradual gains off the home turn to just miss second.

Traci Berry trains Racin Hungry, who paid $2.20 to win in her third victory in as many starts at the meeting, for Glenn Goller and Stephen Demeter.

ROOKIES REPEAT IN SECOND-ROUND DSBF SPLITS

All three first-round winners in the Delaware Standardbred Breeders' Fund (DSBF) series for 2-year-old male trotters at Bally's Dover came back to post odds-on victories in their respective $20,000 second-round divisions on Tuesday (Nov. 17), led by a career-best and stakes-record 1:55.4 performance from Mike Franks.

With Ross Wolfenden again at the controls for trainer John Wilkerson, Mike Franks pushed clear of Lebanon Levii (driven by Eddie Dennis) to take control at the end of a :28.2 first quarter. Once clear, the Southwind Frank—Hearditinaluvsong gelding rated a :57.4 half before widening his lead to 4½ lengths up the backstretch and maintaining it through a :58 back half. Let's Roll Nerds (Montrell Teague) and Youcancallmeroy (Tim Tetrick) overtook a weakening Lebanon Levii off the home turn and finished second and third, respectively.

Now a seven-time winner from 10 starts, Mike Franks has earned $131,225 while competing as a homebred for Michial and Linda English. He paid $2.10 to win as the 1-20 favorite. His 1:55.4 effort took a full second off the previous divisional stakes record, set in 2017 by Sky Marshal and equaled in 2021 by Rivers.

In other DSBF action:

• Blazing Tui ($2.10) rolled to his sixth win from seven career starts, putting 7¼ lengths of clearance on Amish Outlaw for a career-best 1:56.4 score. Corey Callahan drove the Yankee Royalty—Tui gelding for trainer David Wiest, who shares ownership of the homebred with Donald Wiest.

• Platinum Ice ($3.20) sustained an aggressive first-over blitz up the backstretch into a slow pace to overpower leader Cirocco and evade MG Two by three lengths in 1:58.3. Troy Beyer drove the E L Platinum—Cool Cates gelding, who competes as a homebred for Sonja Booth, to his third win.

The top eight point earners from both preliminary rounds qualify for next Tuesday's (Nov. 24) $110,000 series final. They are: Blazing Tui, Mike Franks, Platinum Ice, Amish Outlaw, MG Two, Youcancallmeroy, Let's Roll Nerds, and Lebanon Levii.

In the $25,000 open handicap trot, Angela Cornell's Benjamin Hanover and driver Tim Tetrick seized early control and withstood a sustained first-over push from Fruit Snacker (Tony Morgan) en route to a 1:52.4 victory. Arrowhead Hanover (Troy Beyer) rallied off Fruit Snacker's stalled cover to narrowly nab pocket rival That Ole Bar Stool (Corey Callahan) for second, 1¼ lengths behind.

Scott DiDomenico trains 39-time winner Benjamin Hanover, a 6-year-old Sebastian K S—By A Neck Hanover gelding who paid $3.40 to win as the 3-5 public choice.

BURKE HOMEBREDS SWEEP DSBF FROSH FILLY SPLITS

Trainer Ron Burke swept Monday's (Nov. 16) pair of $20,000 second-round Delaware Standardbred Breeders' Fund (DSBF) divisions for 2-year-old trotting fillies at Bally's Dover as Francisca and Daringly took the first-over route to open-length wins in their respective sections.

Making just her second career start, Burke Racing Stable and Weaver Bruscemi's homebred Francisca, in line to Jason Thompson, sustained a bold brush from fourth to first up the backstretch before overpowering 4-5 favorite Vamoose (driven by Eddie Dennis) for a stakes-record 1:56 score in the second division. The daughter of Southwind Frank—Panamera angled off the pegs from midfield before Vamoose reached the half in :58.4, made up five lengths up the backstretch while uncovered, and edged away from the early leader in the stretch to break her maiden by 2¼ lengths. First-round winner Franchesca (Russell Foster) just missed the runner-up spot after stalking from the pocket.

Sent off as the 9-1 third choice, Francisca paid $20.60 to win. Her 1:56 performance knocked two-fifths-of-a-second off the previous divisional stakes record, which Emmy's Mayflower set in November 2019.

In the first split, conducted as a non-wagering race, Harrington DSBF series champ Daringly rebounded from a third-place finish in the first round to post her fifth career win. With Corey Callahan at the lines, the Southwind Frank—Dark Mirage filly angled from fourth up the backstretch to blitz early leader Olympic Bid (Les Givens) and subsequently evade a late challenge from runner-up Dassie (Troy Beyer) by 2¼ lengths to win in 1:58.2. She Is Unstoppable (Allan Davis) finished third, another 9¾ lengths behind.

The win propelled Daringly, who also competes as a homebred for Burke Racing Stable and Weaver Bruscemi, to $102,180 in career earnings.

The top eight point earners from both preliminary rounds qualify for the $110,000 DSBF series championship, which will take place at Bally's Dover next Monday (Nov. 23). The finalists are: Franchesca, Daringly, Angel In Flight, Dassie, Vamoose, Francisca, She Is Unstoppable, and Peach Crown.

Update on Bruce Ranger

On Tuesday (Nov. 17), the pacer The Unit fell behind the gate before the start of the race and driver Bruce Ranger was thrown to the infield. Ranger was stabilized on site before being transported to Rhode Island Hospital.

As a result of the fall, Ranger suffered multiple injuries including facial fractures, a concussion, a brain bleed, 11 fractured ribs, three fractured vertebrae, and a fractured clavicle and spent the night in ICU. Ranger remains in ICU today but is being closely monitored and is expected to be moved to a private room, possibly as soon as this afternoon.

On a call to Ranger's wife Mary Wednesday (Nov. 18) morning, she said he is awake and in good spirits and is counting the number of races he has missed since the accident. And despite the number of broken bones he suffered, there are no surgeries scheduled as all are expected to heal on their own. If Ranger continues to remain stable and show improvement, he may be released as soon as this weekend to continue to heal at home.

Any further updates will be released if information becomes available.

A lifelong resident of Maine and a New England racing legend, Ranger is one of the most respected drivers in the sport. He is the all-time driving leader at Pompano Park and has been at the top of the driving colony at Plainridge Park for the last eight years. He has won 10,800 times during his career while posting earnings of over $53 million.

Big M to stay with lower 2YO stakes payment

In this era of tariffs irritating one and all, management at The Meadowlands has decided to dial back on stakes payments for a quick-approaching check that owners of 2-year-olds will have to write if they wish to race in some of the sport's biggest races at its top venue in 2027.

The track's chief operating officer/general manager Jason Settlemoir put out this statement:

"Originally, we were going to implement a $600 tariff on yearlings that wanted to race here that came from a farm that did not sponsor at The Meadowlands. [Big M chairman/chief executive officer] Jeff [Gural] and I have agreed to remove the $600 and go with $400 only. That $400 for all 2-year-olds is due on Feb. 15th to race at The Meadowlands."

Woodbine Mohawk Park announces two pop-up claiming series

Woodbine Entertainment Wednesday (Nov. 18) announced two upcoming pop-up claiming series for pacers at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The fillies and mares series begins on a special U.S. Thanksgiving Thursday card (Nov. 26), while the horses and geldings series begins Monday (Nov. 30).

The full details for each pop-up series are listed below:

Fillies and mares — pace

Leg 1 — Thursday (Nov. 26) — $8,000 claiming — $15,000 purse
Leg 2 — Friday (Dec. 4) — $9,000 claiming — $16,000 purse
Final — Friday (Dec. 11) — $10,000 claiming — $30,000 purse
Consolation — Friday (Dec. 11) — $8,000–$10,000 claiming handicap — $25,000 purse

Horses and Geldings — Pace

Leg 1 — Monday (Nov. 30) — $8,000 claiming — $15,000 purse
Leg 2 — Monday (Dec. 7) — $9,000 claiming — $16,000 purse
Final — Monday (Dec. 14) — $10,000 claiming — $30,000 purse
Consolation — Monday (Dec. 14) — $8,000–$10,000 claiming handicap — $25,000 purse

Horses must race in both preliminary legs of their series to be eligible for the final. Trainers are limited to two starters in the final or consolation. Additional consolations will be carded if entries warrant.

The Big M had a big show on FF4/FDC Night

The Meadowlands hosted the final big night of stakes action on the 2026 harness racing calendar last Saturday (Nov. 14) night, and while real-feel temperatures were chilly in the high 30s, the action on the track was as hot as the Fourth of July.

Typically, Fall Final Four/FanDuel Championships Night at The Big M delivers outstanding performances from outstanding performers, with some of the outcomes likely going a long way toward determining some Dan Patch divisional champions.

The eight stakes races that took place that evening — with a snapshot of what went down — were:

• Race 4: $150,000 FanDuel open mares trot — Marcus Melander-trainee Tactical Moni was looking for a third straight win and a likely divisional title, but the 3-5 favorite went off stride at the start, opening the door for Warrawee Michelle, an Ake Svanstedt student, to record a 1:51.3 win, which should give her a second consecutive Dan Patch Older Trotting Mare of the Year award.

• Race 5: $300,000 FanDuel open trot — In the evening's most-anticipated matchup, Super Chapter and On To Norway went at it for a fifth — and final — time. At the conclusion of a pulse-pounding 1:50.2, Super Chapter prevailed by a head over his rival, and likely will now walk away with not only divisional honors, but quite possibly, Trotter of the Year as well despite having two wins compared to On To Norway's three in their head-to-head meetings. Super Chapter is now heading for stud duty at Hanover Shoe Farms.

• Race 6: $150,000 FanDuel open mares pace — The amazing Twin B Joe Fresh finished her season with a fifth consecutive win, crushing her foes by an easy two lengths. But was it the final start of a career that has seen her earn almost $3.6 million? After the race, trainer Chris Ryder left some hope for fans who want to see her return as a 7-year-old. "Now I've got to make a bad decision, whether to retire her or not. And that's up in the air," said Ryder. "It's such a hard thing. I don't want to race her just to prove some statistic. That's not what's important."

It was reported on Wednesday (Nov. 18) that TBJF will be back to race in 2027, according to Ryder.

• Race 7: $300,000 FanDuel open pace — Women Layer crushed as the 3-5 favorite by three lengths in 1:47.4, taking down defending division-title holder Ervin Hanover, who finished second. This division is not an easy call as Breeders Crown champ Dandy Ideal figures to get respect at the ballot box for the Dan Patch trophy.

• Race 8: $383,830 Valley Victory (2YOCGT) — Bentley Blue Chip was on his way to an easy win before going off-stride late, giving Command Center the victory.

• Race 9: $386,830 Goldsmith Maid (2YOFT) — Driver Yannick Gingras kept Nevis Peak close to the action before sailing past the previously unbeaten Kountry Plunge in a lifetime-best 1:53.2. Breeders Crown champion Birr Castle rallied to be a respectable fourth.

• Race 10: $300,000 Three Diamonds (2YOFP) — Tempting Flames used a remarkable drive from Jason Bartlett to win for the sixth time this year in 11 starts. She got shuffled to fifth at three-quarters and was still in traffic at the head of the stretch as Holy built a four-length edge, but rallied along the inside late to pull off what was a miracle score as the 3-5 favorite.

• Race 11: $300,000 Governor's Cup (2YOCGP) — The final big dash of the night went to the Ron Burke-trained Eastie Boy, who will no doubt get plenty of divisional honor consideration when you consider that earlier this year, he won the Metro at Mohawk.

ENTERTAINMENT TONIGHT: The feature race at The Meadowlands tonight (Nov. 20) finds a star from the Burke barn, who specializes in racing on half-mile tracks, looking to win again on the mile oval.

Antognoni S, who will likely go in the MGM Grand Prix in December at Yonkers Raceway, will look to stay sharp in the eighth race. He will depart from post 8 taking on French Wine (post 7), who was third to Antognoni S on Nov. 6 before a sixth-place finish in the FanDuel open trot.

SCINTILLATING SATURDAY: Saturday's (Nov. 21) card features four $48,000 New Jersey Standardbred Development Fund finals for 2-year-olds of each sex and gait, with two of those dashes featuring exceptional favorites.

In the second race male pace, all eyes — as well as plenty of win-pool money — will be on Aintmyfirstro Deo, a Megan Scran trainee who has won six of 10 starts with 10 on-the-board finishes.

Chris Choate-student Perfect Body is the one to beat in the sixth race, which is for filly pacers. She's won five of her 12 starts this year and 10 times has been first, second or third.

AN EARLY CHRISTMAN GIFT: Cheyenne Christman will be on the Sam McKee Memorial Broadcast Set this weekend, co-hosting The Big M's live simulcast show alongside Dave Little.

Christman, the multimedia content specialist for the United States Trotting Association (USTA), will add another line to her resume as she and Little will conduct winner's circle interviews for Saturday night's NJSDF races.

Ken Warkentin will be in his usual spot at the top of the stands calling the action, while winner's circle host Gary DiLeo will have microphone in hand when he interviews the winning connections after tonight's featured eighth race.

SWIM IN BIG POOLS: The Meadowlands offers the largest betting pools in harness racing, and the mile oval's fan base loves playing when the takeout is low. These are the wagers that will offer a low 15 per cent takeout over the course of the upcoming weekend. Both cards have 14 races.

This lineup:

- Races 1-5: 20-cent Pick-5
- Races 3-9: 20-cent Survivor Pick-7 (mandatory payout)
- Races 6-9: 50-cent Pick-4 ($50,000 estimated pool)
- Races 8-13: 20-cent Pick-6
- Races 10-13: 50-cent Pick-4 ($50,000 estimated pool)
- Race 11: 10-cent Hi-5 (Pentafecta)

THE SCHEDULE: The pacers and trotters will be in action at The Big M every Friday and Saturday through the end of 2026, with just one exception, as there is no live racing on Christmas Day, Friday (Dec. 25).

In addition, there are three Thursday cards on the calendar: Dec. 3, 10, and 17.

All told, there are 14 nights of live Meadowlands harness racing remaining this year, and each has a post time of 6:20 p.m.
