Luther expands "million-dollar experiment," tops Meadowlands sale

After announcing last fall he was trying a "million-dollar experiment" by spending seven figures on yearlings, the Ohio-based real estate coach and marketer continued to stock his brother's barn with the two top-priced horses sold Monday at the Tattersalls Winter Mixed Sale. The hope is that Luther's Black Magic Racing can compete with the elite and one day win the coveted Little Brown Jug.

by Dave Briggs

Greg Luther said his "million-dollar experiment" is now north of $3 million, but the Ohio native is determined to make a splash on the Grand Circuit in the next few years. He certainly made an impression Monday afternoon (Jan. 18), at the Tattersalls Winter Mixed Sale held in the paddock at the Meadowlands Racetrack in New Jersey.

Luther led all buyers after purchasing the two highest-priced horses sold — both 4-year-old Captaintreacherous horses formerly trained by Tony Alagna. Luther purchased Hip 89 Captain Kirk (a winner of $265,880 with a mark of 1:48.3 that is out of Aria Hanover) for $215,000 and Hip 91 Chief Mate (a winner of $226,619 with a mark of 1:50f that is out of Heavin Forbid) that topped the sale at $220,000.

A week ago, Luther privately purchased 2020 Adios champ Catch The Fire ($698.201, 1:49.1s) and that pacer's younger full-brother, Captains Place ($59,879), a Breeders Crown finalist in 2020 at 2.

Last fall, Luther, who races under the name Black Magic Racing LLC, spent some $1.1 million to buy 22 horses at the yearling sales — which at the time he called a "million-dollar experiment" (full story here).

"And then I've been buying up a lot of good racehorses and older horses and we've spent well over another million there, trying to fill up the barn with extremely good stock and give everybody a fair shot. That's our goal," he said when reached in his car while he was driving home to Ohio from the Meadowlands. "I'm really looking forward to the year with the 2-year-olds, getting some Ohio and Pennsylvania-breds and trying to get the best of the best. I think we're going to have a phenomenal year this year. We're definitely loading up the stalls with some good stock."

Luther's brother, Todd Luther — based out of the Winner Circle Training Center south of Columbus, OH — will train the stable.

"(Todd) said he hadn't slept in about three weeks, so there's no pressure at all," Greg said, laughing. "He worked for Brian Brown for a few years, so he would go on the big circuit, and his fiancée Toni Dale Hollar took care of Downbytheseaside. She was his groom and we bought a whole bunch of his really good horses this year. She's got one she really likes because he looks a lot like Seaside.

"We're definitely set up with some really good stock. Our team is phenomenal and I really feel comfortable with the investment that we're making based on the quality of the team we have for us here. Good team and good horses, we're hoping that with a little bit of luck we'll have a great year.

"There's so many big trainers and a lot of times they do well and they deserve what they get, but they always seem to win the big races and I'd love for the little guy to win some time. And keeping it in the family and trying to do a good job, I think it would be quite the story if we can eventually get there ourselves with the team we've had all along. It's a grassroots effort."

Greg, who lives in Reynoldsburg, OH, east of Columbus, said his goal is to win the Little Brown Jug.

"I really looked up to my grandfather as a young kid," Greg said. "My grandfather worked for Gene Riegle for years and I remember at 11 years old, as we were walking up to the racetrack for the Little Brown Jug, he said, 'If you ever make it to this race, you've made it in life.' So, that's really stuck in my mind. I remember that and here we are 31 years later and I still remember that to this day. The Jug is like no other and the number one item on my life's bucket list is to win the Little Brown Jug. My grandfather passed away about 17 or 18 years ago, but I think about it every year and I'm trying to get it lined up.

Retiring to stud duty in Sweden in 2018 after taking his world-record career mark of 1:53.2 at 2 while winning the Peter Haughton Memorial at The Meadowlands and earning $728,894, Centurion ATM has the makings of a stellar sire. With the emerging Kentucky Sire Stakes program, breeders can take advantage of the new Kentucky Stallion Bonus Program.

He is a full brother to World Champion Triumphant Caviar ($796,794), out of the multiple stakes-winning producer ENS Tag Session, dam of Prayer Session ($731,957).

"Captains Place is probably our best shot this year," Greg said. "He's eligible to the Jug this year. Maybe he's the one, but I'm just going to keep investing tons of money until we get into that race, that's the whole goal."

Greg owns and operates Greg Luther Coaching, a marketing and real estate coaching business that has been particularly successful during 2020.

"COVID-19 has actually helped me because I'm an online business and there's more people sitting at home. I know it's been devastating for a lot of people, but it's been great for me and my confidence level for taking some of my investment money and putting it over into the horses... it's what I love to do.

"I felt like it was a fair investment for me, to put money into the business I love and support the breeders and really give everybody a fair chance to profit. Obviously, when one person does well, we want the entire industry to do well, so I like putting back into the industry and taking the big gamble, so to speak."

King Alphonso was the fourth highest-priced horse to sell. Matt Morrison of Indiana, PA paid $145,000 to acquire the 4-year-old Muscle Hill horse out of Amour Heiress.

Greg said he owns all 50 horses solo, other than Catch The Fire, whose original owner wanted to retain a piece.

As for his two most recent purchases, Greg said he came to New Jersey just to buy those two horses.

"I didn't look at one other horse. Those were the two that I wanted and that's the two that we took," he said, adding that he was going to buy Captain Kirk "for whatever he was selling for... Chief Mate, I figured he would sell for $180,000 and we paid $220,000 for him. Captain Kirk, I felt like I would end up giving $300,000 for him, so they kind of evened each other out that way. I paid a little more for one and a little less for the other."

"We've got to look at the stakes list because this is all new for me, but I know Chief Mate should be good in the Graduate this year because that's definitely for 4-year-olds and Captain Kirk, he's about 90 days away yet, so he won't make it to the Levy.... All of the Grand Circuit races and,

As for his stable name, Luther said he came up with Black Magic Stable about a decade ago, but this year will say a lot about whether he continues to race under that name.

"I'm going to give it a shot this year and if we have great luck I'm going to keep it and if we have bad luck, it's probably because of the name and we're going to get a new name," he said, laughing. "This is a make-it-or-break-it year for Black Magic."

Hip 58 Karma's Delight, a Captaintreacherous mare out of Darlin's Delight, was the third highest-priced horse sold. Joe Parisi bought the 4-year-old mare for $157,000.

Matt Morrison of Indiana, PA bought Hip 96 King Alphonso, a 4-year-old Muscle Hill horse out of Amour Heiress, for $145,000.

Marcus Melander, agent, bought 6-year-old trotting horse The Veteran (Hip 123, Muscle Mass—Tequila Slammer) for $120,000 and Jolene Troyer of Lagrange, IN, bought a Chapter Seven stallion share (Hip 26) for $115,000.

AVERAGE DOWN 24 PER CENT

In all, 119 racehorses, stallion shares and breedings collectively sold for $3,741,400 to produce an average of $31,440 and a median of $19,000.

The average was down 23.8 per cent from the 2020 sale that set a record for average of $41,244 and a median of $26,500. However, this year's average was up 7.3 per cent from the 2019 sale that had an average of $29,302 and a median of $20,500.

This year's gross was down 29 per cent from the 2020 gross of $5,279,200 and down 14.9 per cent from the 2019 gross of $4,395,000.

This year's catalogue, with 119 sold, was the smallest in recent history.

In 2020, the sale sold 128 horses/stallion shares and in 2019 150 horses/stallion shares were sold.

In 2018, 221 horses/stallion shares grossed $6,694,000 for an average of $30,290 and a median of $20,000.

In 2017, 233 horses/stallion shares grossed $6,288,400 for an average of $26,989 and a median of $15,000.

In 2016, 258 horses/stallion shares grossed $5,849,400 for an average of $22,672 and a median of $16,500.

In 2015, 269 horses/stallion shares and breedings grossed $5,971,500, for an average of $23,291 and a median of $14,000.

In 2014, the gross of $5,971,500 for 234 horses/stallion shares produced an average of $25,519 and median of $14,000.

In 2013, 206 horses and stallion shares grossed $4,549,600, an average of $22,085.

Sale manager David Reid said he thought this year's sale went very well.

"I thought the sale had a good pace to it, very smooth sale that way," he said. "Like every sale has been in recent years, quality sells well," he said. "I thought the market held up very well and I was very happy with that.

"Going in, we knew we had a smaller catalogue and we knew we didn't have the overall depth. There, again, for what we sold here today, I was very pleased with the marketplace."

Reid said taking bids in person and online through ProxiBid went well.

"It was the first time we really had to rely on all forms of technology to try to pull off a sale at the Meadowlands. I've got to thank the buyers and I've got to thank the sellers, but I also have to thank our staff because right from the barns to our sales office to everything leading up to our sale, our staff did a very good job with all the circumstances. So, a shout out has to go to them as well."

Reid's Preferred Equine sold 94 offerings, grossing $3,281,900 for an average of $34,914.

Bob Boni's Northwood Bloodstock had 24 sales, grossing $455,500 for an average of $18,979.

"I had quite a bit of interest pre-sale," Boni said, "and I thought, without knowing what to expect, the turnout was excellent... In spite of all of the COVID-19-related conditions everyone has dealt with, the market remained very strong."

Reid said those that came to the sale were particularly cooperative with social distancing and mask rules.

"The live crowd was good, very good crowd," Reid said. "The open-air paddock served us well.

"But we were also forced to go the online bidding route, which was successful, as well. We had a very good response to the online bidding overall, but we got flooded with requests immediately before the start of the sale, which unfortunately, as we had been saying, we needed to have this established beforehand. There were, undoubtedly, some people we didn't get back to, but we got back to as many as we could and deemed it to be successful."

Davidson du Pont is ready for the Prix d'Amérique

by Thomas Hedlund

Jean-Michel Bazire-trained Davidson du Pont (Pacha du Pont), who finished fourth in the previous B-race ($135,000 Prix de Bourgogne over 1.3 miles), showed great form when he disarmed Delia du Pommereux just ahead of the wire in Sunday's (Jan. 17) $135,000 Prix de Belgique over 2,850 meters (approximately 1.8 miles) at Vincennes.

Bazire gave his 8-year-old colt a perfect cover trip and Davidson du Pont's ability to finish quickly with that kind of conditions was proven when Bazire gave his horse full attack order in mid home stretch. At that point, Delia du Pommereux had taken the lead from Moni Viking and seemed to cruise to victory, but Davidson du Pont showed that longer distances than 1.3 miles might suit him better. This will be a year when owner Ecurie Albert Rayon's yellow, green and red colors once again will be a sharp factor in Prix d'Amérique. Davidson du Pont was close to victory in last year's edition of Prix d'Amérique, but a sharp finish from Face Time Bourbon resulted in a silver medal and there's reasons to believe that Davidson du Pont have great chances for revenge on Jan. 31.

Delia du Pommereux finished second ahead of Moni Viking and they were both already qualified for the Prix d'Amérique. Delia du Pommereux was third behind Face Time Bourbon and Vivid Wise As in the Prix du Bourgogne, while Moni Viking was third behind Face Time Bourbon and Victor Ferm in Prix du Bourbonnais.

The mile rate of 1:55.4 was a stakes record and Bazire has a great shot in grabbing his third win as a trainer in the Prix d'Amérique. His first victory came in 2004 behind Kesaco Phedo and his second in 2019 with Belina Josselyn. His first driving win in the race came in 1999, when he got the opportunity to drive Jimmy Takter's super mare Moni Maker.

Davidson du Pont (Jean-Michel Bazire) won the $135,000 Prix de Belgique on Sunday (Jan. 17) at Vincennes in Paris in a mile rate of 1:55.4 that was a stakes record.

In The Money claimed big win

Thierry Duvaldestin-trained In The Money (Cristal Money) hit the lead with a little less than a kilometer to go in Sunday's $121,000 Prix Maurice de Gheest for 3-year-old colts at Vincennes.

First choice Italiano Vero went off stride shortly before that point and In The Money proved hard to beat from the lead. He came home in stakes record mile rate 2:01.1 over 1.6 miles and Thierry Duvaldestin knows how to produce champion trotters in France. In The Money's father Cristal Money (Coktail Jet) is just one out of many star trotters that come from Duvaldestin's barn and Cristal Money was one of the best horses in the French C-crop. His biggest triumph came in $290.000 Prix de l'Etoile in 2015.

Kelly Smith 'honored' by Caretaker of Year selection

by U.S. Harness Writers Association

Kelly Smith, who has worked for Hall of Fame trainer Chuck Sylvester for more than three decades, has been named the recipient of the 2020 Caretaker of the Year Award sponsored by Art Zubrod and Leah Cheverie's Fair Island Farm in conjunction with the U.S. Harness Writers Association (USHWA). Smith was announced the winner during the USHWA Dan Patch Virtual Awards Show on Saturday (Jan. 16).

"I was very surprised and honored," said Smith. "The competition was fierce, that's for sure. There are some of the others nominated who are very good friends of mine. Everybody nominated was well deserving; clearly somebody thought we were special.

"I am very appreciative of this. Chuck has meant everything to me."

Smith was nominated by Sylvester himself.

"Kelly often knows more of what's going on with me than anyone else," Sylvester wrote in his nomination letter. "She is there every day starting at 5 a.m., feeding all the horses, turning them out for a few hours, waiting for vets or blacksmiths and staying with the horses, holding them during their appointments.

"Kelly is honest, reliable, trustworthy and absolutely passionate about the horses. She is extremely smart and could do anything, but she chooses the horses.

"This last year Kelly even went above and beyond her usual excellence and complete loyalty. When I was unable to go north this year, as I needed to stay home with my wife Sharon, Kelly went... and was my eyes and ears. She is my unsung hero."

All caretakers in North America were eligible for the Fair Island Farm Caretaker of the Year Award, with nomination letters submitted detailing the skills and special qualities of the nominee. A seven-member panel — all USHWAns who were former caretakers themselves — selected Smith as the winner.

As winner of the Fair Island Farm Caretaker of the Year Award, Smith will receive a cash prize of $1,000 and a trophy

Including Smith, 16 names were submitted for the Fair Island Farm Caretaker of the Year. All nominees will receive an honorary certificate commemorating their nomination. Here are all the nominees, with the stable for which they work noted in parentheses:

by Frank Fraas / OHHA

Action Uncle, the Ohio 3-Year-Old Trotting Colt of the Year has been named the 2020 Ohio Horse of the Year.

Action Uncle, the son of Uncle Peter out of Action Broadway, won nine out of 10 races in 2020 earning $351,960 for trainer Virgil Morgan Jr. and owners Carl Howard, Joyce McClelland, and Larry Wills.

In 2020, Action Uncle set a world record, winning the Ohio Breeders Championship at the Delaware County Fairgrounds in 1:52.4. The victory completed the Ohio Triple Crown for Action Uncle as he won the Ohio Sires Stakes and the Ohio Fair Stake earlier in the year.

Morgan said Action Uncle is a classy horse. "He just loves to do his work. I knew from an early point as a two-year-old that he had extreme talent. I knew he was something special, but I am a little biased because I trained his mother."

Action Broadway, Action Uncle's dam, was a Dan Patch winner earning $1.2 million.

The 2020 season ended in disappointment for Action

Uncle. Morgan says the plan was to race Action Uncle in the Breeders Crown. "He raced at Hoosier Park the week before the Breeders Crown and came out of the race sore," said Morgan.

X-rays showed a broken wing tip of the coffin bone forcing the change of plans. "We felt he deserved to race on the national scene and were very disappointed that we couldn't take an Ohio-bred to the Breeders Crown," said Morgan.

Morgan said they are going to do the right thing and write off the 2021 season. "The injury will heal. He is doing extremely well," said Morgan. "We are going to give him more than enough time off. He will be back."

In 16 career starts, Action Uncle has 12 wins, three second place finishes and one third place with earnings of $577,535.

Action Uncle was honored during the Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association's virtual award show on Saturday (Jan. 16).

Brad Conrad

Action Uncle (Brett Miller) has been voted Ohio's Horse of the Year for 2020.

Dunn wins four at Big M after being named Driver of the Year

Before the start of Saturday night's (Jan. 16) card at The Meadowlands, driver Dexter Dunn was named the United States Harness Writers Association's (USHWA) Driver of the Year for a second consecutive season in a virtual Dan Patch Awards ceremony that the entire sport could view on the Internet or at any simulcast venue.

Then Dunn went out and showed why that considerable amount of hardware sits on his mantle.

The 31-year-old New Zealand product, whose 131 wins during 2020 led all Big M drivers, registered four scores on the 15-race program – after winning three on Friday – to seize control of the top of the Meadowlands' standings with 15 victories in the early stages of the Winter-Spring Championship Meeting.

Dunn scored with 4-5 favorite Some Chapter in the opener, a high-end conditioned trot, and followed that up by guiding 7-1 shot On Accident to the winner's circle in the third in a low-end conditioned pace.

Thndrfrmthethron N, the 9-5 second choice, was winner No. 3 in another low-end conditioned pace in the fourth, before Dunn capped his grand slam with 3-2 public choice Italian Delight N in a mid-range conditioned pace in the eighth.

HANDLE TOPS $3 MILLION AGAIN: For a fourth consecutive Saturday, all-source wagering surpassed $3.4 million, as a total of $3,458,896 was put in play.

Over the last four Saturdays, betting at The BIg M has totaled $15,386,226, an average per card of $3,846,556 at the industry's handle leader.

THARPS IS THE KING: Backers of provisional driver Devon Tharps may not have known that the 27-year-old Ohio native who works for Tony Alagna had never won a pari-mutuel race in his previous 52 tries, and when the second race was over, those who bet him didn't care either way.

Tharps guided Acting Out to a victory from off the pace in the Martin Luther King Remembrance Race, an event that pays tribute to the civil rights leader that features African-American drivers.

Tharps and Acting Out were fifth at the three-quarter-mile mark before pacing home in :28.3 to upset the field of $12,500 claimers at odds of 9-1, returning $21.60 to win after completing the mile in 1:54.4.

A LITTLE MORE: Shnitzledosomethin worked out a perfect pocket trip and took the featured $22,500 high-end conditioned pace in 1:49.4 for trainer Dylan Davis and driver Corey Callahan. The 12-1 outsider returned $26.80 to his backers in upping his win streak to three... Callahan finished the night with three winners... If you missed the Dan Patch Awards show, you can see it from start to finish by going to The Meadowlands YouTube channel. ... Racing resumes Friday at 6 p.m.

Harold Kelly Memorial Pace at Freehold

The second leg of the SBOANJ-sponsored Harold Kelly Memorial Pacing Series took place on Saturday (Jan. 16) at Freehold Raceway with six divisions.

Frankandjoanne took the first division for driver Jim Marohn Jr. and trainer Dawn Anderson in 1:59. Driver George Brennan teamed up with trainer Scott DiDomenico winning the second division with Nothing To Prove. Steve Smith piloted Panter's Pinot for trainer Michael Russo to the winner's circle in 1:56.3 to win the third division. The fourth division went to Taste Of History for driver Austin Siegelman and trainer Edwin Quevedo. Siegelman also won the fifth division with I Am The Cowboy for trainer Michael Fiumenero. The last division on the card went to Pirates Alley for driver George Brennan and trainer John Wyatt.

Freehold resumes racing on Thursday with a post time of 12:30 pm. The SBOANJ sponsored Vinny Fusco Jr. Memorial Pacing Series Finals are set for Friday, Jan. 22, and finals of the Harold Kelly Memorial Pace will be on Saturday, Jan. 23. The top eight horses with the most points will be drawn into each final.
