Test Of Faith voted Horse of the Year

by Ken Weingartner for USHWA with quotes by HRU's James Platz

Test Of Faith on Sunday (Feb. 20) became the fourth 3-year-old female pacer in history to be named Horse of the Year, receiving harness racing's top honor for 2021 to conclude the U.S. Harness Writers Association's Dan Patch Awards banquet at the Rosen Shingle Creek resort in Orlando, FL.

The Brett Pelling-trained filly joined Rainbow Blue (2004), Bunny Lake (2001), and Fan Hanover (1981) as 3-year-old female pacers to be named Horse of the Year.

"It's been so special," said Ken Jackson on behalf of Test Of Faith's part-owner Kentuckiana Racing Stable. "The last two years have been so much fun... with the friends, the family and everybody in the community of Lexington. We've got a new group of friends following her and fans following her, so it's been a lot of fun.

"(Kentuckiana has) been doing this forever. We've bred a Horse of the Year, but never owned a piece so you don't know how special it is."

Test Of Faith is also owned by Melvin Segal and Eddie Gran. The filly, by Art Major out of Cannae Cammie, was bred by Frederick Hertrich III.

"She was just really awesome," Pelling said. "She's a lovely horse to

In balloting for Pacer of the Year, Test Of Faith led with 97 votes, followed by Niki Hill with 24 and Perfect Sting with 15. A total of eight horses received at least one vote for Pacer of the Year.

Test Of Faith won 14 of 16 starts last year and finished second in her two remaining races. She banked $1.06 million to join Perfect Sting as the only seven-figure earners among pacers.

Her victories for trainer Pelling and driver David Miller included the Breeders Crown, Empire Breeders Classic, Glen Garnsey Memorial, New York Sire Stakes final, Park MGM Pace, Bluegrass, Matron, and Courageous Lady.

Pelling now has trained two Horse of the Year winners, with Test Of Faith joining Rocknroll Hanover in 2005. Miller was the regular driver of two previous Horse of the Year honorees, Always B Miki in 2016 and No Pan Intended in 2003.

Jujubee was the top money-earning male trotter last year, with $948,791. He finished no worse than second in 17 of 18 races, winning 14. His victories included the Breeders Crown, Kentucky Futurity, Pennsylvania Sire Stakes final, and Phil Langley Memorial.

The colt captured the Futurity in 1:49.3 and the Muscle Hill Trot in 1:49.4 to become the first 3-year-old male trotter with two sub-1:50 winning miles.

Previously announced Dan Patch Award divisional champions also were honored Sunday at the banquet.

Division-winning pacers were 2-year-old colt Monte Miki, Niki Hill, Perfect Sting, 4-year-old gelding Allywag Hanover, and 4-year-old mare Lyons Sentinel. Division-winning trotters were 2-year-old colt King Of The North, Venerable, Bella Bellini, 5-year-old stallion Forbidden Trade, and 6-year-old mare Manchego.

Other honorees included Stan Bergstein-Proximity Award winner Lindy Farms, Driver of the Year Dexter Dunn, Trainer of the Year Richard "Nifty" Norman, Owner of the Year David McDuffee, Breeder of the Year Hanover Shoe Farms, and Rising Star Todd McCarthy.

It is the third straight year Dunn has been Driver of the Year since coming to the U.S. from Australia.

"It means a lot, really," Dunn said. "I really don't take the award lightly because I'm racing against incredible drivers all year, so it really is an honor. The horses do all the talking, really. I just get the lucky job of sitting behind them."

"That's why I'm getting my award, because of the horses that are getting the awards tonight. It's always exciting to start the year off and try and find a good horse and I was lucky. The ride throughout the year with them is special, I think. To get a match on a great horse and win big races, that's special."

Also recognized Sunday at the banquet were the members of the 2022 Hall of Fame class, which will be inducted in July in Goshen, N.Y.: Chris Boring, Ron Burke, Yannick Gingras, and George Teague Jr.

Allaire's new star Just A Gigolo controlled the Criterium

by Thomas Hedlund

It's a well-known fact that French trainer Philippe Allaire dominates the high-staked races for younger French-bred trotters in his home country. The numbers of star trotters that have been produced under Allaire's management are countless and his grey and red, almost burgundy owner's colors are very recognizable at the track of Vincennes as soon big races approaches.

The $225,000 Criterium des Jeunes for the 3-year-old trotters was held Sunday (Feb. 20) at Vincennes and Allaire had his shots. Betting favorite Just A Gigolo (Boccador de Simm) has started his career showing great willingness to win races and he entered the Sunday's race with six wins in eight starts in his back.

Driver Franck Nivard didn't have his best day of work at Vincennes on the day before Prix d'Amérique in January. He was paired with Just A Gigolo that day and the charismatic 3-year-old never found the rhythm behind horses 100 meters into the races. A break destroyed the day and Just A Gigolo couldn't show that he most probably is the king of the crop, so far. At least not that day.

In the meantime, when the crown of Just A Gigolo's started to wiggle, just a bit, another talented 3-year-old trotter took top shares of the market. Jazzy Perrine dominated the $135,000 Prix Gelinotte and the $135,000 Prix Roquepine ahead of the Criterium and she was obviously the big threat for the first choice on Sunday.

Nivard sent Just A Gigolo to the lead at an early stage while Jazzy Perrine found a spot in third-fourth over, far back in the field. Eric Raffin gave Jazzy Perrine a nice cover trip throughout the last turn, but when Nivard saw that attacks were made far outside, he pushed leader Just A Gigolo a little bit more and at mid-stretch the game was over. Jazzy Perrine's fabulous finish was a high grade performance, but she couldn't reach the leader Just A Gigolo, who won in mile rate 1:59.4 over 2,700 meters.

It's early to tell, off course, but Just A Gigolo and Jazzy Perrine are two very charming trotters that most certainly will get the fans of Vincennes excited many times this season.

Widger enjoying a 'great ride'

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

When driver Sam Widger recently reflected upon winning the 7,000th race of his career last year, he was momentarily speechless.

"When I first got in this business, I just wanted to make a decent living," said Widger, who knew little about harness racing prior to leaving college and taking a job cleaning stalls in the early 1980s. "It almost seems surreal to be linked with some of the top dogs in this business, and to get the opportunity to drive with all of them.

"It's been a great ride."

A ride that shows no signs of slowing down. In addition to his milestone victory last year, Widger set a career best with $3.83 million in purses, which was fueled in good part by a strong stakes season that included an Indiana Sires Stakes championship with 2-year-old female trotter M-M's Dream.

"The program they have in Indiana is tremendous," said Widger, whose previous high in purses was $3.82 million in 2011. "Even though I won only the one (Sires Stake) final, I had a really good stakes year. When you look at 2011, it was the same deal. To get those standout years, you have to be able to drive good stakes horses."

Widger, a native of Illinois, began driving in 1985. He was introduced to the sport when his father, James, was helping build an equine spa near Quad City Downs. Widger worked cleaning stalls and eventually was asked by a trainer if he wanted to jog a horse. Widger accepted the opportunity, but it did not go well.

"The horse ran off with me," Widger said. "So, at the get-go, I was a little bit intimidated by horses. But you put one foot in front of the next, handle each day as it comes along. My dad and I started training horses together, and we did pretty good the eight or nine years we did that. So, I thought, yeah, I've got something here. Let's just keep plugging away.

"But I wasn't considered a catch driver for maybe eight or 10 years. Then, it took off."

Widger, who surpassed 1,000 starts for the first time in 1998, has been one of the top drivers at Harrah's Hoosier Park over the past decade. He was third in wins last season after four consecutive runner-up finishes behind 10-time track champion Trace Tetrack.

Dean Gillette

"Indiana has been tremendous to me," Widger said, adding with a laugh, "(The second-place finishes) are kind of like winning because of Trace. You know the Tetrack boys, they're freaks of nature. They can rank up there with your Tom Bradys and your Aaron Rodgers."

One of Widger's top moments last year was winning the Indiana Sires Stakes title with M-M's Dream. She finished the season with six wins and a second in eight races, all with Widger in the sulky, and banked $268,462 for trainer Henry Graber Jr.

"I felt like we sort of came from the same background as far as being a little guy if you will," Widger said. "So, it was fun to win that for them. They were just elated. They were elated to have that kind of horse, and then to win the big one. So, it was a good highlight of the year for sure."

Hoosier Park's 2022 season begins March 25. In the meantime, Widger has been racing at Miami Valley. Last year, he raced at the Ohio oval 341 times, which almost doubled his previous high of 176 starts there. This year, he has won 16 of 162 races at Miami Valley following a monthlong break to freshen up.

"I like having three, four, five weeks off; it's nice," Widger said. "But after that, I miss it."

As for the future, Widger, just as he did in his early days, plans to keep taking each day as it comes.

"I'm not going to change anything," Widger said. "If it ain't broke, don't fix it."

"Today is today, tomorrow is not guaranteed, and yesterday is gone."

Dean Gillette

In addition to his milestone victory last year, Widger set a career best with $3.83 million in purses.

I just put my life in the Lord's hands and let him steer my steps."
