Jimmy Freight returns no worse for wear

by Brett Sturman

BETWEEN THE LINES

with BRETT STURMAN

This past December marked the first time since the 2019 Breeders Crown that former Ontario Sires Stakes star Jimmy Freight set foot in a pari-mutuel race. Initially retired to stand stud in Ontario at Winbak Farm for the 2020 breeding season, the decision was made by Jimmy Freight's owner Adriano Sorella to bring the $1.4 million career earner (with a mark of 1:48.1 taken from the 2019 Mohawk Gold Cup Invitational) back into racing, in addition to continuing at stud.

After a few races to get his feet back under him, including his first two races back where he was placed directly into the Woodbine Mohawk Preferred, Jimmy Freight won his fourth time out, a 1:53.4 measured win off cover in a conditioned race. From there, he worked his way back up the ladder, winning a Preferred on Feb. 12 and then did so again on March 5 and most recently this past Saturday (March 12).

For Sorella, he likes what he sees thus far in Jimmy Freight, but it's been an ongoing journey.

"It's probably been a little bit up and down for me because when we brought him back there was the question mark of being off for over two years," Sorella said. "At Winbak it's totally different obviously than being out there every day jogging and staying loose. There, they go from being in a stall, pulling semen, back into a stall, and so forth. There's no knock on the process, but it's very different from racing. You don't get the same vet work, same treatments, so you question how he's going to come back after being out of it for two years.

"The one thing I said to (trainer) Richard (Moreau) is to take as much time as you want. When he started racing, those first two starts were really to see what he's capable of and to get his lungs going. And trust me, I wasn't too happy with those first two starts and was thinking, 'Was this a mistake in bringing him back?' You wonder about it. But then in his next start I thought, 'Okay, we're on the right path here.' He looked pretty good and strong when he won that Preferred last week, but it was the race before that really impressed me when he was seventh halfway through the lane and I was thinking once he got out that maybe we can get here for third, and then he kind of just closed like a freight train. I found out that night afterwards that he got shipped to Winbak on Friday to service mares, got back on the trailer to Richard's and then raced on Saturday. So, he was full of himself and that's where it looked like it came from; he was ready to go."

In addition to questions about how Jimmy Freight would respond physically after being away, there was also a question of the horse's mentality as well.

"You'd think he'd be excited when he gets to service the mares, but the one thing I noticed when I was going to Winbak was how he seemed uncomfortable and just not himself. He's nervous, and you can see it," Sorella said.

The owner said it's possible that the unease of the horse may be a contributing factor to the stallion's publicly documented fertility challenges.

With those factors contributing to Jimmy Freight being able to service only about half the mares he would have intended to otherwise, as well as restricting options that other types of shuttle stallions may have, those were factors in Sorella's decision to bring Jimmy Freight back.

"First, he doesn't seem like he's happy, and why are we going to do this to him all year-round if he's not happy? Let's bring him back into racing. And I started looking at all the other stallions that recently retired, we don't have the mares in Ontario for all these stallions. The year he retired, you had Courtly Choice retire, McWicked retire and the following year here they all come again. Tall Dark Stranger, Papi Rob Hanover, Cattlewash. And you look around and you think, 'Where are all these mares going to come from?' You're already seeing a slip in the case of Sportswriter for example who for three years was breeding 250 mares. He's always had a big book, and then you can see the decline and all the sudden his number is down to double digits. You have to look at all these stallions. Betting Line is here, you have Stag Party, Betterthancheddar, and you still have Bettor's Delight. There are all these stallions. So, if you're not going to breed a book of at least 100 mares – and he's already had some fertility issues – why not just race him, and see what happens? The breeding season is only three to four months, tops."

Jimmy Freight has been made eligible this year to the Canadian Pacing Derby and the Breeders Crown, both of which are at Woodbine Mohawk.

"When it comes down to breeding and racing, if he's racing well, he's going to continue to race," said Sorella. "Richard doesn't race in the States at all and I was very cautious with what I did with staking this year. Number one, I wanted to see how he came back. The reality is that this is still the Preferred in the wintertime, we have to call a spade a spade. There are some nice horses there, but you know they're going to go speed once the others start showing up for the big dances. It's more of taking our time to get where we need to be, and I still think he's got some rust to shake off. There's some kinks he's still working out, and hopefully by the time summer rolls around all the rust is off and we can have a good season.

"As long as he's happy doing what he's doing he'll continue to race and once the season starts for breeding, he'll go back to breeding. That's giving him a fair shot for him to do what he wants. I feel like we took him out of a situation where he wasn't happy staying there year-round, so we put him back into racing which he seems to enjoy. He's a different horse in the barn than he is in the breeding barn. His attitude is totally different. The plan is to keep him going based on that and we'll see what he can do where he's happiest."

See her, be her

by Debbie Little

In a time when TV spots are proclaiming “If You Can See Her, You Can Be Her,” drivers Nicole DiCostanzo and Marianna Monaco are doing their part.

DiCostanzo, 23, and Monaco, 26, have been seen on the track practically every Friday as members of the GSY Amateur Racing Club and, as a result, are two of only three women currently appearing in the Meadowlands driver standings. The third is Melissa Arbia, also a GSY member.

“I feel like you’re seeing more and more female drivers,” said Monaco. “And I would like to say for myself, and probably Melissa and Nikki, harness racing really wasn’t our thing.”

“Melissa met Joe [Bongiorno] and Nikki found Steady Pulse, that’s her heart horse, per se. And I feel like at one point we all took a chance on something that we had no idea was going to pretty much take over our heart and be something that we love so much.”

DiCostanzo was introduced to harness racing as a teenager in 2015 through a boyfriend who owned horses.

She met trainer Mike Russo and started helping out at his farm, which was just a mile from her house and two and a half weeks later, she bought her first horse, the aforementioned Steady Pulse.

“I really enjoy driving every weekend,” said DiCostanzo. “I hope to get a few more drives, of course, but I’ve been enjoying driving my own horses, for sure.”

DiCostanzo credits owner/trainer Victoria D’Alessandro with helping her when she started racing at The Big M.

“As soon as Victoria saw me walking in the paddock, she said, ‘You’re driving?’ And I said, ‘Yeah,’” said DiCostanzo. “She goes, ‘I’m listing you next week.’”

D’Alessandro did just that by listing DiCostanzo on Rockabilly Charm.

Three proved to be a charm for the trio of D’Alessandro, DiCostanzo and Rockabilly Charm since the third race of their collaboration was a winning one.

In both her first career and Meadowlands win, DiCostanzo exploded into contention with Rockabilly Charm on the far turn, giving her the nickname “Dynamite.”

“I don’t even really know how to explain it, because I can sit back and watch my replays and get the same feeling,” said DiCostanzo of her first win. “It’s something that you work your whole life for without realizing it. And once you get into that moment, there’s really no better feeling in the world than knowing what you just did.”

Last week, when going to the gate Steady Pulse went off stride due to broken equipment. And even though it was a scary experience DiCostanzo kept her cool.

“Somebody actually wrote to me on Twitter ‘This is why women belong in the kitchen,’” said DiCostanzo. “It matters to me that my horse comes off the racetrack and he’s sound and he’s healthy and he's happy. So, to me I kept myself safe and I kept my horse safe and to make it back to the paddock after that happening it meant everything."

Unlike DiCostanzo, Monaco's childhood included many a trip to Yonkers Raceway, where, at that time, driver Stephane Bouchard was the king of the Hilltop oval.

"Over the years, I probably had enough whips just from Stephane to probably supply the entire country with a whip," she said.

As a talented young athlete, Monaco envisioned herself hoisting trophies, but on the 18th green, not in a winner's circle, as a Division I golf star.

"Once I went to school, I told my dad if I'm going to play golf, I want to drive in at least one race," said Monaco. "And that first race was up at Goshen and I won that race, which I'm not sure if that was the best thing to happen, because once you get that win, it's like, okay, you can't stop now."

Monaco's first win at The Meadowlands came on Sept. 11, 2020, when she looped the field and went last to first to score an upset victory with Lear Seelster for trainer Chubby Stallworth.

"Once we were five-wide, in that last turn and we were turning for home it was all kind of like a blur," said Monaco. "It wasn't really until the next day that I was kind of able to comprehend what actually happened. I must have watched the replay 100 times and I was like how did we win from that spot?"

Just like DiCostanzo, Monaco has also had women support her career along the way.

"The one that stuck out the most to me was Stacy Chiodo, and actually one of the first horses I warmed up at Yonkers was for Stacy and it was Mighty Young Joe," said Monaco. "Every week, I would watch her and I was always in contact with her. I'd go to Yonkers and I'd warm up for her and being a woman, she gave me that opportunity.

"And I feel like she opened my eyes and said, 'Hey, you can do this. I got here and you can, too.' That was a big influence on me coming from another female in this sport."

Chiodo is also a big supporter of the GSY, which her husband Bruno competes in, and as a professional driver herself, Chiodo holds the world record for the fastest mile, 1:49.3, by a female driver set at The Meadowlands in 2014 with Mighty Young Joe.

DiCostanzo and Monaco are triple threats when it comes to racing, since they are owners, trainers and drivers.

DiCostanzo owns four of the six horses in her barn and she is a one-woman band.

"I clean their stalls," she said. "I groom them. I paddock them. I jog them, train them. I do it all."

Monaco has a total of six horses that she currently trains but is always open to taking on more. She usually does everything for her horses as well, but she would be remiss if she didn't acknowledge McKenzie Sowers.

"[McKenzie] is currently in nursing school, but during her breaks, she is a tremendous help in the barn and supportive of my driving/training career," said Monaco. "I currently train two horses for her and we own a third one together."

If Monaco's colors look familiar, it's because they were inspired by Bouchard. Being Italian, she felt red, white and green colors made sense, as did recognizing a driver who was so kind to her when she was just a kid. Bouchard took the time to talk to her and give her a whip, gloves, a helmet and even a set of his colors and that has always stayed with her, especially when other drivers were not so generous.

When competing at Maryland's Great Pocomoke Fair, Monaco had the opportunity to pay it forward when she took the time to give her whip to a young boy watching the races.

"And I hope he comes back whether it's for me, Dexter [Dunn], Andy [McCarthy] or someone else," said Monaco. "I feel like those are the moments, especially for the young ones, that they remember. You remember the good ones and the bad ones. Being a driver, I think about it. And growing up I remember the guys that always told me 'no' and now that I'm in the business I'm like, you know what? You don't want to be like that person."

In recognition of International Women's Day and Women's History month, The Meadowlands showed interviews with Monaco, trainer Trish Adams, veterinarian Dr. Celeste Kuntz and Meadowlands' caretaker of the month Melva Aquino.

All four "Women In Racing" interviews can be found on the Meadowlands' YouTube channel here: www.youtube.com/user/MeadowlandsRacetrack

"So, for the women that are out there and aren't sure if driving would be for them or even harness racing, sometimes you've just got to put that aside and take that chance," said Monaco. "Take that step, because at the end of the day if you don't try, you're never going to know if it's for you. I never would have thought I would have as many starts driving as I do."

End of the line for Florida harness track bill

by Melissa Keith

Last week, Florida House Bill 1269, "a bill to be entitled 'An act relating to pari-mutuel wagering'" failed to get the support it needed to become law. Put forward on Jan. 6 by Dan Daley, Democratic State Representative for House District 97, the bill had sought to provide protection for pari-mutuel standardbred racing in the Sunshine State, which will otherwise go dark on April 17 at the conclusion of the final Isle Casino Racing Pompano Park meet.

Last Friday (March 11), Daley updated HRU about why HB 1269 didn't survive.

"The House Bill moved through two committees unanimously. The third and final committee stopped meeting before we could get it on the agenda, so the bill is dead," he said. "Part of the issue is that the Senate Bill was never heard in committee. Unfortunately, the Senate President [Republican Senator Wilton Simpson] was not interested in hearing the bill – even though he is running for Florida Agriculture Commissioner."

A similar fate met Daley's previous attempt to get Florida standardbreds the legal protection against decoupling that was extended to thoroughbreds last year; Senate would not hear his amendment to protect harness racing.

This time around, "I even tried to put it as conforming language in the budget (a loophole to try and get language into law) and was unable to get a commitment from the Senate President to take the language," he said via email.

HB 1269 would have allowed other gaming venues, such as defunct greyhound tracks, to potentially host live harness racing. "If passed, it would have provided an existing operator to offer harness racing, meaning the industry would at least have an option moving forward," said Daley. "There was interest in the panhandle area and in the Tampa Bay area, as well."

He added that he has been hearing plenty of negative feedback about the imminent end of pari-mutuel harness racing in the state.

"Of course, the horse world is angry about the closure [of Pompano] – as they should be. I have continued to hit Caesars on the rollout of the rebrand and soon-to-be redevelopment of the property. They want to be patted on the back for [creating] a few hundred jobs, while simultaneously, single-handedly killing an entire industry. Horsemen at other Caesars-owned tracks should beware

– Pompano was an expertly-crafted sellout and they would do it again in a heartbeat."

With a wave of Pompano nostalgia rising as the track's final month of racing nears, Daley doesn't see himself being able to join the extended farewell in person: "Not likely. I am finishing up our Legislative session in Tallahassee."

Meanwhile, the Florida Standardbred Breeders and Owners Association (FSBOA) has continued to look for new ways to keep racing.

"Starting this fall and going forward, the FSBOA does have a license to race [Florida] Sire Stake horses in the state, and fair races, and we will do that," said organization director/past president Joe Pennacchio. "The five breeders on our board are interviewing and talking to different locations. Many of the obvious ones are possibilities, like Sunshine Meadows in Delray Beach and Spring Garden Ranch in De Leon Springs [North America's largest standardbred training facility]. They're just talking to those people about timing, opportunities, and it won't be a problem. We have our funding in place for this '22 year, so it's okay."

Currently, the FSBOA president/treasurer is George Birkhold. With the association holding its annual meeting next month, Pennacchio wasn't certain who would lead it into 2022/23, although he confirmed, "We're in good shape for this year, I mean, as good as we can be for Sire Stakes."

Saturday (March 12), Pennacchio confirmed that there will not be a pari-mutuel license in place for next season's stakes/fair races, which will be conducted at USTA-accredited venues only, "but we'll go back at it again, next year."

He added that the FSBOA has "had Sire Stakes at all those places [training centers] before, so that in itself is nothing new."

He had no comment on Daley's bill, stating only that if a prospective harness track owner/operator had stepped up early on, "I think things would have been different, but nobody wanted to be the person or the company that was going to stand up and race harness horses in Florida, because unfortunately, nobody either in or out of the industry was ready to do it."

"If you have a Florida-bred, you're gonna race. It's gonna happen. And I would just say that the political thing is over, for this year."

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Rising star Clay Craib remembers the exact moment he fell in love with harness racing

by Chris Lomon

Clay Craib is on the opposite of the fence these days, but his love for all things harness racing is still the same.

He remembers the day and the moment clearly, the time when he was around six or seven when he was standing trackside with his parents at Hoosier Park.

The sights and sounds of the standardbreds stampeding down the stretch was like music to his ears, scenes that fueled his dream to one day become part of the industry.

When one of the sport's most accomplished horsemen drove by and responded to Craib's request on that day, he was left temporarily speechless at the reinsman's thoughtful gesture.

"That was a pretty cool moment. I still couldn't believe Andy Miller did that, tossing his whip to me. Every Friday and Saturday, mom and dad, we always went out to the steakhouse for dinner and then watched the races. When the horses came down to the last sixteenth of a mile – the fence was right down by the homestretch there – and I thought it was so cool. I would take off running to the finish line. I loved doing that."

Over 20 years later, Craib still has the souvenir, which isn't packed away in storage.

"I've got it on my wall. I always wanted to keep it. It's something I always look back on and remember that played an important part in my life."

The piece that eventually became artwork served as a daily reminder of what Craib wanted to achieve himself.

But it wasn't the only thing that sparked his interest in horses and horse racing.

"I wasn't raised in this business, so I'm an outsider. Where I grew up, there were four or five farm tracks that were close by, and it just always drew me to it every day. When I would get home off the bus, there would be horses out there racing. One day, I just stopped in at [trainer] Walter Haynes' place and talked to him about getting a job. I figured the worst thing anyone can tell you is no, but he didn't. I started cleaning stalls. I did that for a about a year and a half. I was also a groom, and he let me start jogging and training.

"Walter and I bought a horse, Bens Beach Boy, together. I jogged and trained him, and Walter drove him. He made us a little money. All those experiences, it really helped me push myself to work towards having my own stable."

In 2015, Craib went out on his own and won two races from 11 starts as a trainer. One year later, he found himself in the driver's seat.

Earning his first win in the sulky took some time, but throughout the ups and downs of getting that milestone victory, Craib never doubted himself.

On November 17, 2016, he celebrated his first driving win with Pan Full Of Money at Hollywood Dayton Raceway. The triumph came in Craib's 33rd attempt.

Owners, including Marlin Fry and Jerry Schwartz, soon took noted of the young horseman's work ethic and sent their horses to him.

"That's the one thing I expect of myself, to work hard every day. I have a lot of respect for the people who have given me some great opportunities."

Craib has no doubt made the most of them.

In 2021, he set career-best marks in both the training and driving categories.

"We're just taking one step at a time, but luckily, they are getting a lot bigger. We started out small and we're growing now. We have 11 in the barn, seven of them 2-year-olds, two 3-year-olds and two older horses. It's a nice mix for us. But I do really like working with the younger horses because it's nice to see them develop. You start out at nothing, and you hope you make them into something."

Working with young pacers and trotters continues to be a source of enjoyment for Craib.

"Even when I was working for other people, I enjoyed working with the babies. But you've got to have patience. Each one is different, and you can't treat them all the same. That's for sure."

Two horses in particular, both pacers, helped Craib craft his best season to date.

The man who campaigned them plotted out a gameplan that ended up yielding strong results.

"I didn't have the stock to compete there at that moment, so I thought I'd hit up the fairs and try to have some success at that ballpark. I came up with my own program of everything that was fair eligible and saw this horse called Sunburst Kada. asked the owner if he would be interested in selling her. He was, so I had her for a little while. I paid $6,500 for her. The first start was a trial-and-error type of thing. She was rigged for the big track, and I didn't want to change anything, and I took her to the fair track, and she ran on me. So, I went back to the drawing board and tuned her up and then things came together for her. She won eight straight races. There was another filly, Dirty Talk, who was a conditioned claimer, and I asked her owner if he would be interested in selling her. She's still in my barn. My belief is that we take care of the horses, and the horses take care of us.

One of Craib's short-term objectives is to make it back to the Super Finals ranks.

Just over five years ago, he matched strides with some of the top North American drivers at Hoosier Park.

"I hope we can succeed with some of the babies we have, and we can get back to the Sires Stakes again. That's one of my goals. In 2017, I was the youngest trainer/driver to make it to the Super Finals. I had a horse named Just N Ace, who made around $55,000 as a 2-year-old. We made it to the Super Finals at Hoosier Park, going for $220,000. I finished fifth and it felt like a win for me. I drove against Yannick Gingras, Corey Callahan, Brett Miller, Tim Tetrick... it was pretty cool. I drove the horse the whole year and I was given the chance to drive in the big race. I thought that was pretty amazing. That's something that always pushes me to want to succeed. I just want to keep everything moving forward."

Perhaps one of the biggest reasons for Craib's rising star status is in knowing each horse's ceiling and each one's limitations.

"I think it's knowing what a horse is capable of and knowing how they will react in a particular situation. I study them the best that I can and really do my homework as to where the best fit is for them."

And whenever the avid fisherman and hunter makes the walk over to the winner's circle, he views it as a team accomplishment.

"I love spending time with my family. My wife Breanna and I have a son, Andrew, who is five. They are the two best things that ever happened to me. They give me that drive to want to succeed. I don't want to succeed just for me, I want it to be for all of us."

Open letter to the harness racing industry

The USTA Board of Directors hears you, values you, and appreciates your concern regarding freeze branding.

This past weekend, the board voted to maintain microchipping as the primary means of identification in compliance with state mandates. Microchips are supported by fast-growing technology that serve our horses better as time goes on. We, along with Standardbred Canada, are offering freeze branding in addition to microchipping to all horse owners, making North American Standardbreds the only major breed subdivision to do so.

We value your feedback.

Please take the time to research the current and future technology that microchipping adds to our breed.

If you are a current owner of an unbranded standardbred and wish to obtain a freeze brand, let us know. You can still get a freeze brand, members.ustrotting.com/microchipping.cfm, and spread the word to other owners.

We will continue to monitor this situation and have asked the USTA staff to keep us actively informed regarding the number of freeze brand applications.

Thank you,

Etonnant – best in the French south

by Thomas Hedlund

The $225,000 Grand Criterium de Vitesse mile-long race was held at Hippodrome Cote d'Azur in Cagnes-sur-Mer on Sunday (March 13) afternoon.

Second choice Etonnant (Timoko), who has been a serious factor in all Grand Prix races in Paris during the winter, played an unusual role as he is mostly known as a strong trotter who loves longer distances more than the mile. Driver Anthony Barrier opted for quite a strange tactic from the start. Etonnant, from post 6 behind the gate, started behind horses and Barrier didn't show any interest at all in pushing his horse when the car accelerated. Instead, Etonnant was seen in fourth over as the race's heavy favorite, Vivid Wise As, hit the lead after a quarter of a mile. And Vivid Wise As was allowed to keep his own pace in the lead, at least until the first half mile when Etonnant made company on the leader's outside.

Vivid Wise As seemed to have the race under control, even at mid-stretch, but the tough Etonnant fought well and disarmed the leader shortly ahead of the wire.

Trainer Richard Westerink's Timoko son won in 1:52.2.

Etonnant will likely be one of 16 horses racing in the Elitlopp at Solvalla in May.

Etonnant won the $450,000 Prix de Paris over 4,100 meters last year and it's fascinating that the same horse dominated a mile race the following season. Etonnant will be an attraction for several high staked races throughout Europe later this season and it seems like trainer Westerink would like to come back to Solvalla, the track where he claimed two Elitloppet titles with Etonnant's sire, Timoko.

Billie de Montfort, who made her last start in France in Sunday's Criterium de Vitesse, finished third after a perfect inside trip, while leader Vivid Wise As held to silver medal.

ADMIRAL AS IN STRONG COMEBACK

Six-year-old Ready Cash son Admiral As, trained by Reijo Liljendahl in Sweden, has been a frequent and successful participant in Swedish V75 the past two years and the talented trotter will most certainly be aimed against the very big races in Europe later on this season. His comeback and first start of the year happened at Solvalla Wednesday (March 16) in the $22,500 Dartster F:s race over 1.3 miles and merited trotters such as Milligan's School and Very Kronos were among the opponents.

Örjan Kihlström drove Admiral As, who hit the lead the second after the car left the field and when the duo was allowed to control the race in moderate pace, the chasers were out of chances to catch up with Admiral As, who came home in a mile rate of 1:57.1.

There is no secret that trainer Reijo Liljendahl very much would like to enter Elitloppet with his horse and driver Örjan Kihlström has some pleasant issues to handle in coming months. He is the first driver of Who's Who, who won his comeback in great style two weeks ago; title defender Don Fanucci Zet, who already received an invitation for Elitloppet and Admiral As, who, according to many fans, is one of the horses that are named among the favorites to win Elitloppet.

But before Elitloppet, Paralympiatriavet at Åby waits and title defender, French mare Delia du Pommereux, will most likely make a trip north even this year. The first elimination race ahead of Paralympiatriavet is scheduled at Jägersro on April 9 and the final at Åby will take place on May 7.

Walner colt out of Hey Blondie arrives at Cameo Hills

Recently, this Walner colt out of Hey Blondie arrived at Cameo Hills Farm in New York. Cantab Hall mare Hey Blondie earned $468,080 on the track and posted a mark of 1:53.1. The Walner colt is her second foal. She produced a Walner filly in 2020 named Blonde Bombshell that is a 2-year-old this year.

Yonkers stakes wrap-up and preview

by Yonkers Raceway

JM Betonsix won for the second straight week, while Belina improved from second last Wednesday to first Wednesday (March 16) in the pair of $20,000 divisions of the second leg of the MGM Rewards Ladies Pacing Series for 3- and 4-year-old fillies and mares at Yonkers Raceway.

In the first flight, JM Betonsix (George Brennan) went to the point from post four and led through soft fractions of :28.4, :59.3, and 1:27.4. It looked like it would be hard to catch her off those fractions, but JM Betonsix left the door open for the others when she went off-stride briefly in the lane. Brennan was able to get her back on the pace, though, and she hit the wire a head in front of pocket-sitter Gabby's Girl (Matt Kakaley) in a 1:56.3 mile. Pleasure Seeker (Tyler Buter) was third.

There was a judges' inquiry into JM Betonsix's break and whether or not she complied with all the rules. In the end it was determined that she had not committed a violation and was left up as the winner.

Ron Burke trains JM Betonsix, a 4-year-old daughter of Betting Line, for owners Frank Canzone and Yannick Gingras. JM Betonsix now has a record of 8-6-4 from 31 appearances, and she pushed her bankroll to $101,253. JM Betonsix, the 1-9 choice, returned $2.10 to win and was atop a $5.60 exacta and a $16.80 trifecta.

Belina (Jordan Stratton) was the runner-up in her section of the first round from off-the-pace, but a change in tactics netted her the victory this week. Stratton fired her out from post four, and she was able to clear Off The Record (Scott Zeron) for the top spot heading to the 27.3 opening quarter. Belina then backed off the tempo to just 57 seconds at the half, with Nuttinbuthebest (Kakaley) taking up the chase first-over from third after that station, and favored Divine Deo (Brennan) picking up the cover to sit second-over.

It looked like Divine Deo was in a good spot to follow advancing cover, but then Nuttinbuthebest went three-wide with an apparent issue, leaving Divine Deo first-over and having to chase Belina before the 1:25.2 three-quarters. Divine Deo's bid stalled passing that marker, and from there, Belina didn't give the competition any chance as she kicked home in :27.4 to tally by 2 1/4 lengths in 1:53.1. Off The Record was the runner-up, and Divine Deo had to settle for third.

A 4-year-old Sunshine Beach mare, Belina is trained by Lance Hudson for owner William Hartt. Belina is now a five-time winner from 23 lifetime starts, and she increased her earnings to $69,986. She paid $6.20 to win as the 2-1 second choice and led an $18.00 exacta and a $30.00 trifecta.

The MGM Ladies Pacing Series rolls on with the third preliminary round next Wednesday (March 23).

Stakes action resumes tonight (March 18) at Yonkers with four $40,000 splits of the opening leg of the Blue Chip Matchmaker Series for free-for-all pacing mares.

SARANAC BLUE CHIP IS LONE REPEATER IN MGM REWARDS GENTS PACING SERIES

Saranac Blue Chip improved to two-for-two in the MGM Rewards Gents Pacing Series for 3- and 4-year-old males with a 1:54.2 victory in the last of four $20,000 splits of the second round on Tuesday night (March 15) at Yonkers Raceway.

Driven by George Brennan, Saranac Blue Chip led through stations of :28.1, :58.1, and 1:26 and was able to keep a first-over Rhodena Road (Jim Marohn Jr.) at bay going to three-quarters and around the last turn. Saranac Blue Chip continued to dig in and show the way through the stretch, and he held sway over a fast-finishing Perfectboy Hanover (Jordan Stratton) to prevail by a neck. Barrywhite Hanover (Austin Siegelman) came in third from the pocket.

A 4-year-old American Ideal gelding, Saranac Blue Chip is trained by Dan Morrissey for owner Leona Morrissey. This was his eighth win from 40 career starts, and he has now earned $115,485. The 1-2 favorite, Saranac Blue Chip paid $3.10 to win and was atop a $12.20 exacta and a $28.20 trifecta.

Back in the night's opening flight, Bet On Blake (Jason Bartlett) and Confidence Man (Siegelman) hooked up in an early duel for the lead, with Confidence Man relenting and dropping back into the pocket after a :26.4 opening quarter. Bet On Blake would go on to hit the half in :56.4 and the three-quarters in 1:25.1, then opened up a big lead on the last turn and into the lane. He needed all that advantage, as Saulsbrook Hero (Brent Holland) rallied powerfully three-wide from last in the final quarter, only to come up a nostril short of Bet On Blake in a 1:54.1 mile. Select Friday (Matt Kakaley) grabbed third.

Dennis Laterza trains Bet On Blake, a 4-year-old gelded son of Betterthancheddar, for owners Albert Sperling and Latz A Luck Stable. Bet On Blake is now a six-time winner from 35 appearances, and he has pocketed $103,629. Sent off as the favorite at 6-5, Bet On Blake returned $4.60 to win and keyed a $29.40 exacta and a $135.00 trifecta.

The complexion of the second section changed on the first turn when leg one winner Phoenix Of Fluzzy (Brennan) broke stride while battling for the top spot with fellow opening round victor Makin Some Noise (Tyler Buter). Makin Some Noise took advantage of Phoenix Of Fluzzy's miscue to take command, and he would click off panels of :28, :57.2, and 1:26. Meanwhile, High Baller (Kakaley), sent off at odds of 19-1, would go first-over out of fourth racing to three-quarters, and he made his way up into second on the last turn. High Baller was able to sustain his bid into the stretch, wore down Makin Some Noise in the closing strides, and went on to the upset by three-quarters of a length over Makin Some Noise in 1:53.3. Bottle Rocket (Mike Whelan) came in third.

High Baller, a 4-year-old son of Captaintreacherous, is trained by Michael Spaccarelli Jr. for owners Matthew Morrison and Brian Gordon. High Baller now has a record of 4-3-6 from 29 trips behind the gate in his career, and he has now put away $65,159. He paid $41.00 to win, the exacta kicked back $171.50, and the trifecta was worth $678.00.

Also pulling an upset was 5-1 Jet Ace (Joe Bongiorno) in the third MGM Rewards Gents Pacing Series tilt. Jet Ace raced in the pocket behind Sports Section (Kakaley) through opening-half markers of :28.1 and :57.2, then went two-wide on the way to the 1:25.3 three-quarters. Sports Section was able to keep Jet Ace at bay through the rest of the backstretch and the last turn, but Jet Ace forged his way by in the lane and went on to tally by three-quarters of a length in 1:54.2. Bali Beach (Stratton) got by Sports Section to finish second.

The victorious 4-year-old gelding by Jereme's Jet is trained by Cad Gregory for owners L & L Stables and Toby Rekon. Jet Ace made his eighth appearance in the winner's circle in his 49th lifetime try, and he pushed his bankroll to $76,111. He returned $12.00 to win and led a $34.80 exacta and a $97.00 trifecta.

The MGM Rewards Gents Pacing Series continues next Tuesday with the third preliminary round.

FIELDS DRAWN FOR OPENING ROUND OF BLUE CHIP MATCHMAKER SERIES

Harness racing's Grand Circuit schedule for this year gets going tonight (March 18) at Yonkers Raceway with the first leg of the Blue Chip Matchmaker Series for pacing mares. Thirty-one horses were dropped into the box when it closed on Monday (March 14), meaning there will be four $40,000 divisions (races five through eight) on the 12-race program.

Defending series champion Machnhope drew post seven in the first flight for driver Andy McCarthy, trainer Noel Daley, and owners Deo Volente Farms LLC., Tom Pontone, and L A Express Stable LLC. The 7-year-old Mach Three mare won her last start at the Meadowlands in 1:52.1 and will look to add to her career bankroll of over $652,000 in this race. She faces the likes of Lit De Rose (post three, trainer/driver Pat Lachance), who won the last edition of the Fillies & Mares Open Pace at Yonkers on March 11.

The second split features a pair of mares who have both had three-race win streaks at Yonkers in 2022. McMarkle Sparkle (post three, George Brennan/Cad Gregory) hasn't lost since invading from Ohio in mid-February, while Best Head West (post four, Matt Kakaley/Nick Devita) tallied in all three of her local appearances last month before stepping up to the Open level, where she's been third twice.

A deep group faces off in the third split. Blue Ivy (post one, Tyler Buter/Todd Buter) won multiple legs and was second in the Blue Chip Matchmaker Series final a year ago, Racine Bell (post two, Jason Bartlett/Dave Dewhurst) was fourth in the Breeders Crown final in 2021 as part of a campaign that saw her bank $288,420, Dragon Roll (post four, Tyler Buter also listed for trainer Ricky Bucci) has been a standout at the Open level at Yonkers for several months), Scarlett Hanover (post five, Yannick Gingras/Ron Burke) won the Jugette final over eventual Horse of the Year Test Of Faith last year, and Miss You N (post seven, Dexter Dunn/Virgil Morgan Jr.) impressed in two qualifiers at the Meadowlands and then tallied there in an overnight event on March 11 in 1:52.

Karma Seelster (post four, Jordan Stratton/Andrew Adamczyk) has had a great deal of success on half-mile ovals through her career and will look to continue that in tonight's last Blue Chip Matchmaker Series match-up. She was the winner in the fillies and mares open at Yonkers back on March 3.

The Blue Chip Matchmaker Series goes for five preliminary rounds, with the last leg scheduled for Friday (April 15). The final will take place on Monday, April 25.

Tonight's program at Yonkers gets underway at 6:55 p.m.

DRAW HELD FOR THE FIRST LEG OF THE MGM BORGATA PACING SERIES

On Tuesday afternoon (March 15), the draw took place for Monday's (March 21) opening round of the MGM Borgata Series for free-for-all pacers at Yonkers Raceway. When all was said and done, 38 horses were entered, resulting in five $50,000 divisions (races three through seven) being carded.

As was the case in the Blue Chip Matchmaker Series, the defending champion drew in the first grouping. This Is The Plan, who turned in a tour-de-force 1:50.4 decision from post eight in last year's $514,000 final, will start from post five with Yannick Gingras in the bike for trainer Ron Burke. A winner of over $2.5 million lifetime, This Is The Plan prepped for this race with two qualifiers at the Meadowlands, finishing second on March 5 and winning by 3 3/4 lengths in 1:51.2 on March 11. American History (post seven, Todd McCarthy/Tony Alagna), who owns a piece of the overall Yonkers track record with a 1:49.3 mile back in 2019, will also compete in this tilt.

The second flight contains the likes of another Yonkers track record holder in Dragon Said (Joe Bongiorno/Jenn Bongiorno, post five), the invading Elver Hanover (post four, George Brennan/Ron Burke), and former Borgata Series participant and stakes winner None Bettor A (post six, Tim Tetrick/Andrew Harris).

Western Joe (post one, Dexter Dunn/Chris Choate) is back for another try in the MGM Borgata Series and leads the third section. Western Joe won two legs of last year's event and was the favorite in the final, but he couldn't get involved in the fast pace set by This Is The Plan and ended up eighth. He'll take on the likes of stakes winner Nicholas Beach (post four, Joe Bongiorno/Jenn Bongiorno), another Burke entrant in Covered Bridge (post six, Gingras), and the impressive-looking New Zealand import American Dealer N (post seven, Scott Zeron/Linda Toscano).

Another horse who had a great deal of success in the MGM Borgata Series in 2021 was Leonidas A, and he has the pole position in the fourth section for driver Austin Siegelman and trainer Sheena Cohen. Leonidas A went four-for-four in the prelims he entered a year ago, but an outside draw and being looped by This Is The Plan at the start forced him far off-the-pace in the final, and he had to settle for fifth. Tattoo Artist (post seven, Dexter Dunn/Chris Ryder), another member of the 1:49.3 track record club at Yonkers, is also in this race.

Lyons Steel, who raced in the Borgata in both 2019 and 2021, has post six for driver Jason Bartlett and trainer Dennis Watson in the last division. Lyons Steel, who was fourth in the final last year, will take on the likes of Nandolo N (post one, Bartlett also listed for trainer Shane Tritton), Pat Stanley N (post two, Jordan Stratton/Cory Stratton), and Im Sir Blake A (post five, Marcus Miller/Erv Miller).

The MGM Borgata Series will be contested over five preliminary legs, concluding on Monday, April 18. The final will take place on April 25. That card will also have the final of the Blue Chip Matchmaker Series, along with consolation events for both the Borgata and the Matchmaker.

Monday's card at Yonkers has 12 races in total and will get underway at 6:55 p.m.

HARNESS RACING PRESS RELEASES, NOTES & ANNOUNCEMENTS

www.harnessracingupdate.com

Another six-figure seller for PEO

Preferred Equine Online's second mixed sale on Monday afternoon (March 14) turned out to be every bit as successful as the first, as the well-bid auction was highlighted by another $100,000-plus seller. (See complete sale results at here).

The Australian standout and Yonkers and Hawthorne open pacer Braeview Bondi A, consigned by Doug Overhiser through Preferred Equine Online, was purchased by Dan Lagace of Ontario for $116,000. The son of Somebeachsomewhere has finished first or second in half his 30 North American starts and sports earnings of more than $130,000.

Four more of the sale's 33 lots — each a trotter — sold for $50,000, $50,000, $48,000 and $48,000.

In all, 30 horses cleared for a sale gross of $653,550 and average of $21,785.

Racehorses were — as usual — in high demand, accounting for more than $616,000 of gross sales and an average of $30,837.

"The sale and the participation was solid throughout, and the new platform has been well-received by all," said Preferred's David Reid. "We've had many compliments and I thank our sellers, buyers and our staff for helping Preferred Equine Online get off to such an outstanding start."

Reid said three more online sales are in the pipeline, each two weeks apart, on March 28, April 11 and April 25.

Those wanting to enter racehorses, broodmares, stallion shares or seasons for the March 28 sale may do so now at preferredequineonline.com.

Book full and closed for Captaintreacherous

The 2022 book for leading pacing stallion Captaintreacherous is now full and closed. In 2021, Captaintreacherous was the leading money winning sire of 2-year-old pacers with $3,358,498 earned. His 2021 2-year-old performers were led by Don't Fence Me In (filly) p, 2, 1:50.2 ($345,782), Treacherous Dragon (filly) p, 2, 1:51.3 ($299,612), Hammerin Hank p, 2 1:51.1 ($283,218), Wearinmysixshooter p, 2, 1:53f ($281,156) and Boudoir Hanover (filly) p, 2, 1:49.4 ($221,834). Captaintreacherous was the third leading winning sire of 3-year-olds in 2021. His 2021 3-year-olds were led by the millionaire filly Blue Diamond Eyes p, 3, 1:47.2 ($1,150,704) and the fast Rockyroad Hanover p, 3 1:48.1 ($595,134).

In a rare siring feat, "The Captain" is also the sire of both 2021 Dan Patch older pacers of the year, Allywag Hanover p, 1:46.4 $1,195,998 and Lyons Sentinel p, 1:48 $2,003, 594.

Captaintreacherous was the leading pacing sire by average at both the 2021 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale ($132,940) and the 2021 Standardbred Horse Sale ($113,590).

Captaintreacherous is the sixth Hanover stallion to have a full and closed 2022 book. Bar Hopping, Captain Corey, Greenshoe, Papi Rob Hanover and Tall Dark Stranger are also full and closed for the 2022 breeding season.

Sly Little Fox captures Ray Paver Sr. Memorial final at Miami Valley

Sly Little Fox (Brett Miller) won the $25,000 Ray Paver Sr. Memorial Series final at Miami Valley on Wednesday (March 16) in dominating fashion. The lightly raced 4-year-old daughter of Swan For All bested Cheesy Hanover (Tyler Smith) and Secret Or Not (Trace Tetrack). Unraced at two, the championship triumph was Sly Little Fox's ninth victory in just a dozen starts. As a 4-year-old, she now sports six wins in seven tries and seasonal earnings over $50,000.

It took Miller 3/8ths of a mile to clear eventual runner-up Cheesy Hanover and gain the privilege of controlling the pace. After two matching moderate :29.4 middle splits, Sly Little Fox sprinted home in 1:56.2 to seal the deal.

Working Together for a strong
Horse Racing Industry in Ontario
Three Breeds • One Vision

Trainer Mike Hollenback gave the champ last week off after winning a division of the first leg of the Paver Memorial. "I hated having to do it, but this mare races best with rest and I wanted her at her best going for $25,000!", he exclaimed.

Owner and veterinarian Bambi Fox produced the homebred out of On Center Stage, one of just a few broodmares she keeps at her Paducah, Kentucky farm.

Shine All The Way does just that in Miami Valley's Beissinger Memorial Medley

Shine All The Way (Brett Miller) was crowned champion of the annual Howard Beissinger Memorial Medley on Tuesday (March 15), trotting 1-1/4 miles in 2:24.3 to earn the distinction. The 5-year-old son of Dontyouforgetit got away third behind Shake It Mary (Trace Tetrick) and Outofbait (Jeremy Smith), tipped to the outside at the one-mile mark, then pushed a nose in front at the head of stretch. From there Shine All The Way took control under mild urging from Miller and beat a late-closing Riverdancing Diva (Chris Page) by 3-1/4 lengths. Shake It Mary hung on for third.

With Tetrick setting moderate uncontested fractions of :28.1, :58 and 1:27.3 there was never a threat to Homicide Hunters' 2:22.2 world record, but trainer Victor Gray Sr. was elated nonetheless.

"We bought this horse for $18,500 at the Blooded Horse sale in Springfield, Ohio two years ago and he's done very well for us," Gray Sr. said. "He made almost $100,000 in 2021 ($96,331) and has started 2022 with four wins in his first seven starts. I've been in the game a long time and this is my biggest win."

For his part, Miller said, "That's a real nice horse. He did it mostly on his own. Given the right trip, I think he could go with the open trotters."

The Beissinger honors the memory of the late Hall Of Fame trainer-driver Howard Beissinger, who was born and maintained a base of operations in nearby Hamilton, OH throughout his illustrious career that included three Hambletonian triumphs.

Miami Valley will race Wednesday (March 16) and Thursday (March 17) with 4:05 post times each day.

Drew Monti gets 2,000th career victory

Drew Monti collected his 2,000th career driving victory on Saturday evening (March 12) when he steered YS Lotus ($4.10) to the win in Buffalo Raceway's 10th race. Ironically, Monti's 2,000th win came in a race that went in 2:00.0.

Monti entered the evening three short of the mark. Things didn't start out good as four of his scheduled drives were scratched along with snow and windy conditions.

But he was able to start and chip into the mark by guiding Charmbo Orbit to the victory in the sixth race. Monti then posted an $11.80 score with Silverhill Blaze in the eighth race, setting him up for one more attempt on the night, that aboard YS Lotus in the finale.

The 27-year-old Monti, who started to drive at Buffalo in May of 2013, didn't disappoint as he took YS Lotus to a popular $4.10 decision in the nightcap.

EL's Rocker, Burrow (not Joe) are big winners at Miami Valley

EL's Rocker lowered his lifetime mark by almost four seconds while winning the $30,000 final of the George Williams Memorial Series at Miami Valley on Sunday (March 13). Owner/trainer/driver Mike Peterson's 4-year-old son of Rockin Image raced huge through the first three-quarters of the championship mile only to find himself in an exciting stretch duel with heavily favored Cody Hanover (Dan Noble).

With the two contenders pacing away from the field while stride for stride with each other, Cody Hanover made an uncharacteristic break in stride allowing EL's Rocker to coast to the wire alone in 1:51. The winner was fourth along the pylons to the halfway point, moved up to second by the three-quarter mile marker and advanced onto even terms with Cody Hanover early in the stretch drive. Cody regained his composure in time to finish second with Freddie Faves (Jeremy Smith) avoiding another breaker and streaking home third.

The Williams featured male pacers who were non-winners of four races or $40,000 at the time of nomination. EL's Rocker now has seven wins, most of them at Indiana county fairs, and his earnings have grown to $45,150 with the championship check.

A race later a southwest Ohio fan favorite, Burrow, captured a $17,500 top conditioned trot for driver Kayne Kauffman and trainer Ross Leonard. The 4-year-old Ohio-sired son of Uncle Peter caught Outburst (Tyler Smith) in the final 50 yards with Dontforgetlittlman (Noble) best of the rest.

Rachel Leonard co-owns Burrow – presumably named after Cincinnati Bengals quarterback Joe Burrow – with the Redracer and Redline Racing Stables of Ohio.

GoFundMe established for Frank MacEachern

There has been a GoFundMe account set up for long-time New England trainer/driver Frank MacEachern to help defray the costs of his recent illness that has not allowed him to return to work. MacEachern had surgery for kidney cancer and his recovery did not go as expected. What was supposed to be one day in the hospital turned into eight days, including five in ICU.

Krysta MacEachern – who is MacEachern's granddaughter and who started the fundraiser – said, "Due to these unfortunate circumstances, my Papa is now unable to work. I would love for him to be able to focus on recovering and not stress about bills that he already has, as well as the bills yet to come. Everyone who has ever met my grandfather knows he is the strongest, most hardworking, light-up the room guy they know and I hope some of his fellow horsemen can help us get him through this rough patch in his life."

A resident of Attleboro, MA, MacEachern raced at his home track Plainridge Park last year and was hoping to do the same in 2022. However recent events leave that possibility up in the air.

If you wish to help the MacEachern family with a donation, you can do so through this link. (gofund.me/2f27265e)
