What's behind The Meadowlands' new post time?

Track CEO and GM Jason Settlemoir explains why The Big M will now have a first-race post time of 6:20 p.m.

MEADOWLANDS MATTERS

with DEBBIE LITTLE

Tonight, The Meadowlands is debuting its new 6:20 p.m. post time.

Why not go back to 7:15 p.m.? Or just stay at 6 p.m.? Apparently, nothing that The Meadowlands does is arbitrary and a lot of thought went into choosing this new starting time, even though it's only a 20-minute change.

On Dec. 26, 2020, The Big M switched from a 7:15 p.m. post time to 6 p.m. to try and improve their handle on the late races.

"We found that the wagering on those last couple of races went up compared to when we were wrapping up around midnight before," said track chief operating officer and general manager, Jason Settlemoir.

So why change at all?

"Moving to 6:20 allows California to be able to add a race or two more of ours," said Settlemoir. "On Friday nights, they're taking six through 13. On Saturday nights, they're taking five through 13. By moving to 6:20, we'll be able to

PRISON SENTENCE FOR FIRST OF 29 INDICTED IN RACEHORSE DOPING RINGS

PROTECTING THE INTEGRITY OF THE HARNESS RACING INDUSTRY

Twenty-nine people involved in horse racing have been arrested and indicted by the Federal Government since March of 2020. Among the indicted are Harness Racing participants, including several trainers and veterinarians.

Unsealed indictments and criminal complaints show the indicted individuals facing charges, including conspiracy to mis-brand and mis-label Performance Enhancing Drugs (PEDs), obstruction, and smuggling. The charging documents reveal extremely disturbing conversations, recorded by the FBI, between some of the accused in furtherance of their alleged conspiracy.

The U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York announced this week the sentencing of Scott Robinson, the operator of "direct-to-consumer websites designed to appeal to racehorse trainers and owners," who pleaded guilty to one-count of Drug Adulteration and Misbranding Conspiracy. In its press release, the U.S. Attorney's Office explained that Robinson "contributed to the conspiracy by, among other things, sourcing chemicals used to create custom PEDs that were advertised and sold; falsely labeling, packaging, and shipping those PEDs to customers across the country. . . ; and collecting, reporting, and responding to employee and customer complaints regarding the misbranded and adulterated products advertised and sold online."

Robinson was sentenced to 18 months in prison, 3 years of supervised release, and ordered to forfeit over $3.8 million. Robinson's sentence validates that the penalties for those found guilty of the accusations will be severe, the consequences dire.

Despite the Federal intervention, it is suspected that some of the indicted trainers may continue to have a presence in racing, and may be supported by owners who continue to provide them with horses and/or the funding to buy horses.

“...THE PENALTIES FOR THOSE FOUND GUILTY OF THE ACCUSATIONS WILL BE SEVERE, THE CONSEQUENCES DIRE.

It is the intention of Jeff Gural and his three racetracks to rid Harness Racing of cheating trainers and any unscrupulous owners who would employ them. These practices are unacceptable and will not be tolerated at The Meadowlands or Tioga & Vernon Downs. Every resource available will be used to identify those that perpetuate the cheating culture and fund those that have been identified as cheaters.

This stance is taken to protect the integrity of our industry and those who wager on it, the horsemen who follow the rules and most importantly our horses, who have only us upon whom to rely for their protection and wellbeing.

get them to take at least one more of our races. I think the customers, trainers, drivers and grooms are all appreciative of starting earlier so they can get home and get in bed an hour earlier.

"We have always messed around with post time moving it forward and moving it backwards. At the end of the day, when you watch the handle, we've made some very good moves when it comes down to post-time adjustments."

Settlemoir makes sure that any post-time change is released at least 10 days in advance so everyone is aware, especially when the post time moves back as it did at the end of 2020. Under his watch, the races will never unexpectedly shift to an earlier post time.

"I tell them out there in Delaware [Ohio] every year at the Little Brown Jug (LBJ). If post time says 11 a.m., don't say to me we're going to race at 10:30 in the morning, because I'm going to lay in the middle of the track," said Settlemoir, the society director, simulcast director and second announcer of the LBJ. "We're not going anywhere until 11 o'clock."

For The Meadowlands, 6:20 p.m. appears to be the best of both worlds where their product is better bet and everyone still gets home earlier.

For Big M drivers that also compete at Harrah's Philadelphia, the earlier post could prove challenging since the driving time between the two tracks is about an hour and 45 minutes.

"You're not going to be able to stay the whole day, so it's going to be a little tougher," said Hall of Famer David Miller. "In my profession, you hate to pass up drives, so you want to try and make the best of your opportunities."

For Andy McCarthy, there's no question that he'd choose to drive at The Meadowlands, but on stakes days, it might be a little complicated.

"The Meadowlands is the pinnacle and if they think it's going to suit them to have a 6:20 p.m. post to make racing better at The Meadowlands, you've just got to pick one place," said McCarthy. "Obviously, I'm going to pick The Meadowlands over Harrah's."

"There's going to be a few tricky days in the summer, like Adios Day [at The Meadows, Pa.]. It's always a bit of a squeeze to try and fit both tracks in. Obviously, we want to race in the Adios final and then make it back for all the eliminations for the good races on Hambo weekend. Even with the 7:15 post, it made it quite a squeeze to get back for the early races."

Last year, the Adios Final went off at about 4:20 p.m. and allowing at least two hours of travel time in a best-case scenario, would make being on time for the first race at the Big M impossible. However, these drivers deal with this all the time during stakes season, including tonight, when several are competing at Yonkers in the Blue Chip Matchmaker pacing series, meaning those racing at Yonkers will only be in the last few races this evening at The Meadowlands.

At this time, there's no way to know whether the post-time change will have a positive or negative effect on the handle, but one thing that is certain is that even though people may be staying home or going home earlier, they definitely still love betting on The Meadowlands product.

In 2021, there have been 21 race cards, 15 of which have seen wagering of at least $3 million, which includes all 11 Saturday night cards.

During all of 2020, they bet over $3 million on 11 occasions, so they've already exceeded last year's numbers with 69 race cards remaining this year.

"And then when you start talking about the $4-million area, we've broken it three times this year," said Settlemoir. "In 2020, we bet over $4 million on three occasions, so we've matched that total already. And then when you start talking about the weekend handle, the gauge there is $7-million weekends. We've achieved that on three occasions [this year]."

"During 2020, other than Meadowlands Pace and Hambletonian weekends, there was only one $7-million weekend – June 19-20 – and it took us 36 races to get there."

Today is also the first day that the track can have 50 per cent patron capacity, up from 35 per cent.

"Watching this whole thing unfold in front of me, and I'm very, very much a news buff, the [Governor Phil] Murphy administration has handled this extremely well," said Settlemoir. "In my opinion, I think that New Jersey has handled this better than any other state and Murphy has stayed out of the big headlines and the limelight. So, I'm really appreciative of what the Murphy administration did. They did what they needed to do and kept focused on what was best for the people in the State of New Jersey"

Settlemoir is also appreciative of the work done by his own staff throughout the pandemic, especially the track's nurse Fran Guthrie, Dr. Angelo Chinnici and assistant general manager Marianne Rotella.

"I'm really happy with the entire staff here at The Meadowlands and the New Jersey Sports and Exposition Authority that works with us very closely, headed by Vinny Prieto," said Settlemoir. "Coming up [this] week is March Madness, so we have mandatory testing for all of our employees – whether you've been fully vaccinated or not – and whether you've had COVID or not."

"With God's grace and a little bit of luck, hopefully things will get back to normal here pretty quickly sometime in the second quarter, probably the latter part or the beginning part of the third quarter."

The drive of Hunter Myers

The up-and-coming driver from Ohio is constantly on the road as he shuttles between Northfield Park, The Meadows and his parents' home.

by Chris Lomon

It's rather fitting that Hunter Myers was in the driver's seat when he answered the phone.

There are just over two-and-a-half hours and 175 miles of road between the 23-year-old's apartment in Cleveland and his parents' home in Williamsport, OH.

It's a journey the standardbred driver knows well.

"When I get a day off, typically a Monday, I'll usually go visit my family, hang out for a little bit, then I turn back around and head to my apartment. Then, I get up the next morning and head to The Meadows for qualifiers. Whatever free time I have I'll either relax at home and not really do anything, but some days, I just can't stand sitting around and doing nothing. So, it's five hours total on the road when I go to see my parents, and I know I'll have to get up early the next morning, but that's good with me."

Respite from racing are brief for one of the sport's rising stars, a horseman who has put up lofty numbers over the past two campaigns, including a career-best 198 wins in 2020.

But with his career in overdrive, the son of trainer Michael Myers doesn't get worked up over a hectic work schedule.

"My weeks are nothing but constant highway, which means Tuesday is qualifiers, driving back to Northfield to race that night, then Wednesday it's back to The Meadows and on to Northfield that night. On Thursdays and Fridays, I'm at The Meadows, and Saturday and Sunday I'm at Northfield. So, I'm always on the road and always on the move. When I get the chance to get away from racing for a short time, I'm still usually on the road when I go to see my family."

His companion for road trips comes in the form of a music streaming service.

"Pandora is my go-to. Whenever I'm in the car, I have my phone plugged in and it's music all the way."

Myers, who won 19 of 110 races while competing at 29 tracks in his rookie season of 2014, is certainly hitting all the right notes on the racetrack.

With nearly 750 lifetime wins to his name, the Ohio-born reinsman has used an open mind and narrow focus to garner more attention from trainers and with it, more opportunities in the race bike.

"The way I look at it, anything can happen in life, from tomorrow, to next week or a year from now. It's why I approach things from day-to-day. Whatever happens, good or bad, I can learn from it. It's all about living in the moment. You go for what's right in front of you and things will eventually come your way. It's like my parents always tell me, 'Your time will come.' Hopefully, the time for me to shine will come and I'll be ready for it."

"There's a lot of ups and downs in racing, so it's something where you just don't give up when things aren't going your way. When you're younger, you understand there will be more bad times before the good comes. You work hard to make sure your time will come, but you have to work for what you want."

Even when he's taking one to the chin, almost literally, he hasn't seemed to miss a beat.

On May 26, 2020, four drivers, including Myers, and four horses [who escaped serious injury], were involved in an accident at Northfield Park near the five-eighths pole.

The end result for Myers was a broken jaw and a month on the sidelines.

"When they told me it was fractured, the first thing that went through my mind was that I didn't want to be out for a long time. I was ready to get back to racing right away because that was the first day back racing at Northfield after quarantine because of the pandemic. We had already sat out over two months and I didn't want to sit out any longer."

"It was a mix of physical pain and then having to deal with the mental part of not being able to drive. Both sides were fractured and they really couldn't do too much about it. Some days, my face would hurt a lot and other days it was thinking about how long it would take me to get back racing again. It worked out okay. It was about a month or so after the accident when I got the doctor's permission to resume driving again."

Myers was euphoric when he lined up behind the gate for the first time since the accident.

He took in every sight and sound before the field was sent on its way.

"To be back in the bike and be back racing, it was just great. It's what I love to do. Even on the bad days, I still love it. I don't think I could ever do anything else. It's all about racing for me."

The goal for 2021 is to improve upon his 2020 stat line.

Ask Myers what he's proud of so far in his career, and he opts for another word instead.

"There are a lot of things I'm happy about. Being able to drive some of my dad's horses in the Stallion Series, and last year, being able to win a fair final – being in some of the races I've been in and have the chance to go some different tracks has been really great. I'm happy with the way everything has been playing out."

Adding some new racetracks to drive at also remains a primary goal.

"If I could take a Monday through a Saturday to go to a lot of different tracks and have time to race at the other racetracks I'm competing at now, I'd probably take that opportunity."

Which would mean more time on the road, more miles to travel and more songs to listen to.

For the Buckeye State's travelling horseman, all of it is music to his ears.

"It's something I'm used to. If I can drive at some different places and in races that I haven't had the chance to be in yet, I'd be happy. As long as we can stay racing and I can drive as much as I can, that would be a successful year for me."

Reflections on a pandemic year and what lies ahead

by Thomas Hedlund

A year has passed since all arenas were shut down in Europe due to the pandemic.

Unlike many businesses connected to the world of sports, harness racing has managed relatively well during COVID-19, but what is missing most is the social contact.

Wednesday (March 17) was one of my few visits to a racetrack since March 20 of last year. It would be a lie to say that I didn't see any other races live during the entire season last year, but generally, it's been a year between my visits and that has been very uncommon in my life.

Vivid Wise As (Alessandro Gocciadoro) won the $202,000 Grand Criterium de Vitesse in Cagnes-sur-Mer in France on Sunday for the second straight year.

Solvalla was empty on Wednesday night. The grandstand and public area seemed like a ghost town where the big windows of the facades that run along the home stretch were barren. Even the stable area was unusually empty.

The sight was a bit frightening, but we've also been very spoiled with outstanding television productions from the tracks throughout the years and the media's role has been so much more significant during the last 12 months. In Sweden, and several other European countries, harness racing can be watched on television or via live stream basically every day, which is great for all the fans that are interested in the sport, but it's a tough task for media and especially TV media to connect people to the sport, to the horses and all the feelings that follow when you visit a racetrack, via the screen.

The pandemic not only has kept potential owners, breeders, caretakers and other actives away from direct contact with the world of harness racing, all the people that made their weekly social contacts at the tracks have been pushed aside for a year now. One must ask: will they ever find their way back to the track?

Anders Malmrot is Solvalla's sports director and I briefly chatted with him. He said the tracks' situation is unusual and that the past year has been "special".

The Elitloppet is just some two months ahead and it seems like the event will be as empty as last year, with zero audience.

"But that's what it is. The worst thing for us in this pandemic is knowing that the people who always come to Solvalla now don't get the opportunities to visit us," Malmrot said. "We try to call some of our regular visitors, try to involve them in podcasts and things like that, but it's a tough situation we all are in right now."

The horses trot like before, the drivers and trainers are all doing their jobs and the bettors don't seem to have lost interest in the sport. What it will look like when the gates re-open? No one knows. Let's just hope that harness racing, as a public sport, has survived.

Yet, I choose to be optimistic.

A good friend of mine said to me, "You love music. Won't you go to concerts again when society reopens?"

He is so right. The people will be back.

Vivid Wise As on repeat

Alessandro Gocciadoro and his Yankee Glide son Vivid Wise As repeated their 2020 victory in Sunday's (March 14) $202,000 Grand Criterium de Vitesse in Cagnes-sur-Mer in France.

The mile race contained some really interesting trotters, but when French favorite Davidson du Pont went off stride in the first turn, the excitement of the race disappeared. Vivid Wise As was sent for the lead when the car left the field, but Tamure Roc opened even more quickly and could take the lead, at least for the first 600 meters. At that point, Gocciadoro once again pushed the button and sent Vivid Wise As to the front, a position from where the 7-year-old Yankee Glide son rarely loses a race.

Gocciadoro didn't have to make any big movements behind his horse and Vivid Wise As pretty much cruised to safe win by a head in 1:52.4, ahead of great finisher Delia du Pommereux and Bahia Quesnot.

Vivid Wise As likes the track of Cagnes-sur-Mer. Four starts have resulted in four wins and this was his second consecutive triumph in Criterium de Vitesse.

10,000 wins for Bellei

Italian top driver Enrico Bellei has dominated the sport in his home country for many years and on Wednesday (March 17) he noted his 10,000th career win in the sulky.

Only two other drivers have reached the milestone 10,000 victories in Europe — Germany's Heinz Wewering and Finland's Jorma Kontio.

The 57-year-old Enrico Bellei started his driving career in 1982 and he claimed his first win the same year.

He has been the Italian champion 23 times and noted his best season so far in 2010 when he won 538 races. Bellei won European driver's championship in 2010 and 2012.

Italy's Enrico Bellei is just the third European driver to win 10,000 career races.

Favorites prove tough to beat in first round of the MGM Borgata Pacing Series at Yonkers

Let It Ride N, Lyons Steel, San Domino A, Hesa Kingslayer N and Leonidas A were all opening-round winners.

by Yonkers Raceway

It was a chalky beginning to the 2021 MGM Borgata Series for free-for-all pacers on Monday night (March 15) at Yonkers Raceway as favorites delivered in four of the five $40,000 divisions.

Let It Ride N (Dexter Dunn) began the proceedings, prevailing off a second-over trip at 1-9 to run his record in the United States to seven wins from seven starts. Dunn brought Let It Ride N to the outside from fourth after the :56.4 half, and then picked up cover when This Is The Plan (Yannick Gingras) tipped out of the pocket beyond the 1:24.1 three-quarters. Dunn sent Let It Ride N three-wide on the far turn, and he kicked home strongly to win by half a length in 1:52.2. This Is The Plan was the runner-up, and Rodeo Rock (Tim Tetrick) closed from sixth to third in the last quarter.

Richard "Nifty" Norman trains Let It Ride N, an 8-year-old gelding by Rock N Roll Heaven, for owners William Hartt and Enzed Racing Stable Inc. Let It Ride N has won 25 times from 61 lifetime starts, and he has now pocketed $395,959. Let It Ride N paid $2.30 to win and led a $5.30 exacta and a $53.50 trifecta.

New York

The lone upsetter was 9-2 offering Lyons Steel (Austin Siegelman), who won the second split in 1:53.1. Lyons Steel raced in fifth through fractions of :27.3, :56.4, and 1:25, went four-wide from third-over on the final turn, and got up in the stretch to defeat American Mercury (Andrew McCarthy), who had the second-over journey, by a neck. Mac's Jackpot (Brent Holland) was third after popping out of the two-hole nearing three-quarters.

A 6-year-old Rock N Roll Heaven gelding, Lyons Steel is trained by Dennis Watson for owner BD Racing LLC. Lyons Steel picked up career victory 27, and he pushed his bankroll to $394,668. Lyons Steel returned $11.40 to win. The exacta kicked back $58.00, and the trifecta was worth $231.00.

San Domino A (Todd McCarthy) didn't disappoint at 3-5 in the next grouping, tallying in 1:53.1. San Domino A sped out from post four and cleared to the point around Tookadiveoffdipper (Pat Lachance) passing the 27-second opening quarter. After a :56.1 half and a 1:24.3 three-quarters, San Domino A slammed the door with a 28.3 final kicker, topping a first-over Tyga Hanover (Jason Bartlett) by a length and a half. Pat Stanley N (Jordan Stratton) turned a second-over trip into a third-place result.

Chris Brokate

Let It Ride N (Dexter Dunn) remained perfect in seven U.S. starts with a 1:52.2 win in his Borgata Series leg on Monday (March 15) at 1-9.

The victorious 8-year-old Somebeachsomewhere gelding is trained by Nancy Takter for the ownership group of Joe P Racing LLC. and Oldford Racing LLC. San Domino A now has 30 lifetime wins, and he has earned $367,225. San Domino A paid $3.30 to win and was atop a $23.80 exacta and a $58.00 trifecta.

Hesa Kingslayer N (Jim Marohn Jr.) was the even-money choice in the fourth flight, and he would get the job done in a 1:52.4 mile. This race was action-packed as 42-1 shot Ideal Jimmy (Holland) forged his way to the lead going to the 27-second opening quarter, then gave a parking ticket to Shnitzledosomethin (Gingras) through a :55.3 half and a 1:23.3 three-quarters. Hesa Kingslayer N, who had joined the two-wide flow from fourth before the half, went on the attack three-wide prior to three-quarters, assumed the first-over position on the final bend, and showed an advantage on the outside before they turned for home. From there, Hesa Kingslayer N went to win by a length over Semi Tough (George Brennan), with Ostro Hanover (Tyler Buter) third from off-the-pace.

Trainer Michael Deters also co-owns Hesa Kingslayer N, an 8-year-old gelded son of Christian Cullen, with Joel Warner. Hesa Kingslayer N now has 18 career triumphs, and he has put away $149,962. He returned $4.00 to win and keyed a $69.50 exacta and a $258.50 trifecta.

Siegelman picked up another MGM Borgata Pacing Series victory when he guided even-money favorite Leonidas A to a 1:53.1 decision in the final tilt. Western Fame (Daniel Dube), who won this event the last time it was held in 2019, posted stations of :28.1, :57.1, and 1:25.1, but Backstreet Shadow (Tetrick) was moving quickly towards him from first-over heading to three-quarters, and Leonidas A was glued right to that rival from second-over. Siegelman tipped Leonidas A three-wide on the last turn, he vaulted into the lead in upper stretch, and then drew off to a convincing 2 1/2 length tally. Backstreet Shadow had to settle for second, and Chief Mate (Scott Zeron), who started from post eight, advanced from last to third in the final quarter.

Last year's Potomac Pace champion, Leonidas A is trained by Sheena McElhiney for owner Jesmeral Stable. A 6-year-old Mach Three gelding, Leonidas A has won 50 percent of his lifetime starts (26 of 52), and he has earnings of $251,848. Leonidas A paid $4.00 to win. The exacta returned $8.90, and the trifecta kicked back $76.50.

Series standings are available on Yonkers Raceway's website.

The MGM Borgata Series continues with preliminary round action through April 12, and the final is scheduled to take place on Monday, April 19.

The fields for Monday's (March 22) second leg of the MGM Borgata Pacing Series have also been set, with 30 entrants divided into four $40,000 races. First round winners Leonidas A (post one, Austin Siegelman/Sheena McElhiney) and San Domino A (post two, Todd McCarthy/Nancy Takter) lock horns in the third split, and two of the other leg one victors, Hesa Kingslayer N (post two, Jim Marohn Jr./Michael Deters) and Let It Ride N (Dexter Dunn/Richard "Nifty" Norman), head up Monday's last MGM Borgata tilt. First race post time for all of that upcoming action is 7:15 p.m.

Familiar faces prevail in M Life Rewards Ladies Pacing Series action at Yonkers

Three $15,000 divisions of the third and final preliminary round of the M Life Rewards Ladies Pacing Series for fillies and mares were the featured races on Tuesday night's (March 16) card at Yonkers Raceway. Pettycoat Business, Paige's Girl, and Turnthefrownaround were victorious, with the first two picking up their second wins in the series, and Turnthefrownaround improving to three-for-three.

Pettycoat Business (George Brennan), sent off at 1-9, took over the lead going to the 28 second opening quarter in the first flight, then proceeded to cruise through a :56.4 half and a 1:24.4 three-quarters on her way to a four length tally in 1:54.1. Dragon Roll (Jason Bartlett) finished second from the pocket, with Flirty Forty (Matt Kakaley) third.

A 4-year-old Art Major mare, Pettycoat Business is trained by Scott Di Domenico for co-owner/breeder Michael Robinson and his ownership partners Robert Mondillo, R.B.H. Ventures Inc., and Gilbilly Stable. Pettycoat Business now has a record of 5-5-4 from 19 tries, and she has earned $145,973. Pettycoat Business, who paid $2.10 to win, led a $3.20 exacta and a $5.30 trifecta.

Similar tactics worked for Paige's Girl in the next section, as she posted fractions of :29, :57.3, and 1:26.3 on her way to a 1 3/4 length victory in a final time of 1:55.4. P L Nelly (Daniel Dube) was second at 17-1, and Avaya Hanover (Joe Bongiorno) finished third at odds of 31-1.

Lance Hudson trains Paige's Girl, a 4-year-old by Captaintreacherous, for owner William Hartt. Paige's Girl is now an eight-time winner from 19 lifetime efforts, and she has pocketed $64,441. Paige's Girl returned $6.40 to win as the 2-1 second choice and topped a $70.50 exacta and a $341.50 trifecta.

Brennan also guided Turnthefrownaround to a 1:55.2 triumph in the last split. Turnthefrownaround pulled out of the pocket on the way to the :28.2 opening quarter and cleared Ready Set Rock (Austin Siegelman) past that marker to take over command. Turnthefrownaround never really had an anxious moment from there as she sailed through a :57.2 half and a 1:26.4 three-quarters before sealing the deal with a :28.3 final panel. She defeated Ready Set Rock by 2 1/4 lengths, with Break The Deal (Zeron) third.

The winner is a 4-year-old daughter of Roll With Joe and is trained by Ron Burke for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC., Weaver BrusceMI LLC., and Phil Collura. Turnthefrownaround scored her seventh victory in her 32nd trip behind the gate, and she has now banked $144,660. Turnthefrownaround paid $2.80 to win as the 2-5 favorite and headed an exacta that paid $11.20, and a trifecta that kicked back $35.40.

The M Life Rewards Ladies Pacing Series wraps up next Tuesday night (March 23) with the $57,800 final and $25,000 consolation. Series standings are available on Yonkers Raceway's website.

Diamondbeach sparkles again in M Life Rewards Gents Pacing Series at Yonkers

Cigar Smoking Tony and Salt Life picked up their first victories in the event, and Diamondbeach backed up his impressive win from a week ago with another one in the three $15,000 splits of the third and final leg of the M Life Rewards Gents Pacing Series for colts and geldings on Wednesday night (March 17) at Yonkers Raceway.

Driven by Jason Bartlett, Cigar Smoking Tony hustled to the front from the outside post six in the first division, then yielded to race in the pocket behind Sailboat Hanover (George Brennan) after the :27.4 opening quarter. Sailboat Hanover remained on the point at the 56 second half-mile marker, but Bartlett had Cigar Smoking Tony out and on the move prior to the 1:24.3 three-quarters, and Cigar Smoking Tony had the lead back in his possession beyond that station. From there, Cigar Smoking Tony could not be caught as he went on to score by three-parts of a length in 1:54.1. Sweet Truth (Austin Siegelman) rallied for second at 13-1, and 32-1 outsider Social Theories (Tyler Buter) advanced from sixth to third in the last quarter.

Jose Godinez trains Cigar Smoking Tony, a 4-year-old son of Art Major, for co-owners/breeders Joseph Betro, Ian Behar, and Kristie Leigh Farm Inc. Cigar Smoking Tony has a record of 5-1-2 from 11 career starts, and he has now earned $30,600. Cigar Smoking Tony was a 9-2 shot and returned $11.40 to win. The exacta paid $118.00, and the trifecta was worth $407.50.

In the next grouping, Diamondbeach (Siegelman) worked his way around Lou's Sweetrevenge (Brennan) to take command past a quick 27 second opening quarter. Diamondbeach was all business after that, posting a :55.4 half and a 1:24.4 three-quarters on his way to a 2 1/2 length decision in 1:53.3. Lou's Sweetrevenge held second, with Got The Mojo (Matt Kakaley) third.

Diamondbeach, a 4-year-old gelded son of Somebeachsomewhere, is owned and trained by Ricky Bucci. Diamondbeach is now a six-time winner from 19 appearances, and he has banked $51,616. Diamondbeach, the 1-2 favorite, returned $3.10 to win and topped a $7.50 exacta and a $21.80 trifecta.

Salt Life (Mark MacDonald) had gotten involved in early pace battles that hurt his chances in the first two rounds of the M Life Rewards Gents Pacing Series, but he avoided that tonight, leading all the way from the pole position en route to a 1:54.3 score at odds of 14-1. Salt Life lined up the field in post-position order well before the :28.3 quarter went on the board and continued to be well-rated through the :57.4 half and the 1:26.1 three-quarters. Rolling With Sam (Brennan) marched up into second from first-over on the last turn and tried his best to menace Salt Life, but it was to no avail as the pace-setter kicked home in 28.2 to win by three-quarters of a length over pocket-sitter Panther Time (Joe Bongiorno). Rolling With Sam ended up third.

Another 4-year-old gelding by Somebeachsomewhere, Salt Life is co-owned by trainer Bruce Mattison and Carmen Lemorta. Salt Life bagged his sixth career victory, and he has now put away $34,389. Salt Life, who returned $30.40 to win, keyed a $75.50 exacta and a $393.00 trifecta.

The M Life Rewards Gents Pacing Series comes to a close next Wednesday (March 24) with the $58,400 final and a $25,000 consolation. Series standings are available on Yonkers Raceway's website.

Tonight (March 19), pacing mares take to the track in three $35,000 divisions of the second round of the Blue Chip Matchmaker Series. Alexa Skye, Blue Ivy, and Machnhope, who were victorious in the first leg of that event, have drawn in separate races again this time. Post time for all of those programs is 7:15 p.m.

No "Continental Victories" from new Borgata (formerly Levy) Series

by Bob Heyden

Pardon me for thinking about Carol King's "So Far Away" from her now 50-year-old album Tapestry.

I was watching round one of the MGM Borgata Pacing Series Monday at Yonkers and in all five $40,000 legs, not a single winner was bred anywhere near North America.

Third race — Let It Ride ($2.30) bred by N. F. Nixon and Mrs. M. Carson of New Zealand (approximately 9,000 miles away).

Fourth race — Lyons Steel ($11.40) bred by Joseph Lyons Mound of England (3,385 miles away).

Fifth race — San Domino A ($3.30) bred by Brooklyn Lodge Aberdeen Pty LTD of Australia (9,902 miles away)

Sixth race — Hesa Kingslayer N ($4.00) bred by K J Carville of New Zealand (8,940 miles away)

Seventh race — Leonidas A ($4.00) bred by Roger Bazley of Sydney Australia (9,935 miles away).

The sub-feature also continued this trend.

Eighth race — Keep On Rocking A was bred by Fred Crews of Australia.

Marty Tannenbaum would be very proud. The former boss of Yonkers was helpful in importing none other than Cardigan Bay, the original Wonder From Down Under-who in September, 1968 surpassed $1 million lifetime while racing in North America. He campaigned for five years at the very top level on the Yonkers Roosevelt circuit.

Tim Tetrick on pace?

No, not the Meadowlands Pace which he has captured five times — for the earnings record all time.

Tim Tetrick is currently third, but is 17 years younger than #2 David Miller. Tetrick turns 40 on the 22nd of November this year.

Let's assume that he is right around $238-$240 million lifetime at that point. John Campbell with $299 million plus is the all-time leader. Here's a look at the top five drivers ever but only while in their 40s. If Tim duplicates any one of these while in his 40s, he will have it.

- #1 David Miller — $109.5 million
- #2 John Campbell — $94.7 million
- #3 Brian Sears — $92.8 million
- #4 Ron Pierce — $86.5 million
- #5 Mike Lachance — $78.8 million

Will we ever see this again?

Will we ever again see three freshman all over $1.1 million in the same season?

It happened in 1990 when Artsplace earned $1,180,271, Die Laughing earned $1,142,322 and Miss Easy earned $1,128,956.

Artsplace would go on to a Horse of the Year season — undefeated no less in 1992 — and a $3 million+ career.

Die Laughing would do what only Nihilator had done prior — back up million-dollar seasons at 2 and 3.

Miss Easy would set the all-time female earnings mark of $1.777 million and that would stand 19 years until Put On A Show broke it in 2010.

$100,000 claim anniversary

On March 16, 1979 at the Meadowlands, Taurus Romeo — a 7-year-old trained by Thomas Fay, Jr. — became the sport's first $100,000 claim. Bill Faucher took over the training.

35 years since the last HOY with a time trial mark

Time trials used to be commonplace. Cam Fella at 3 and Niatross as a sophomore took their lifetime mark in a time trail. But not since the 1:50.3 TT for Lucien Fontaine's Forrest Skipper in 1986 has the Horse of the Year done so.

Upcoming birthday milestones

Rod Allen turns 65 on April 6. Rod won the Meadowlands Pace in his lone appearance and had multiple Hambletonian drives. He campaigned 1995 HOY C R Kay Suzie, the oldest living HOY at 29 today.

Andrew McCarthy turns 35 on March 31. Now in his 14th year locally, his brother Luke just went 1-2 in the Miracle Mile Down Under and 28-year-old brother Todd is making a huge impact in the New York/New Jersey Metro area. Dad John, now 62, still trains 15.

Our Majordan A (Brett Miller) will make his 2021 debut Saturday in the $22,500 open handicap at Miami Valley Raceway.

Our Majordan A is the nicest horse Ned Hodkinson has ever owned by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Ned Hodkinson didn't need to be asked twice if he wanted to buy an interest in Our Majordan A. Hodkinson was familiar with the pacer from watching races from Australia, and had a horse he once owned, My Alpha Rock N, compete against him.

"I made my mind up in 30 seconds," Hodkinson said with a laugh.

Hodkinson and Milton Leeman each bought an interest in Our Majordan A when owners Gordon Banks and Marc Hanover of Florida-based Enviro Stables decided to bring the horse to North America last spring and turn him over to trainer Virgil Morgan Jr.

Our Majordan A won 30 of 94 races and $370,543 during his career Down Under. His six lifetime wins in 1:50 or less were an Australasian record and his final triumph in Australia came in a track-record performance in the Group 1 Newcastle Mile.

Last year in the U.S., he won four of 14 races and $105,957. His top victory came in the $123,100 consolation division of the William R. Haughton Memorial, which he captured in a lifetime-best 1:47.3 at The Meadowlands.

On Saturday (March 20), the 9-year-old gelding will make his 2021 debut in the $22,500 open handicap at Miami Valley Raceway. Our Majordan A, with Brett Miller driving, is the 5-2 morning-line favorite in the field of 10.

"If you observed him (in Australia) you would have thought that he would acclimate to our style of racing," Hodkinson said. "He's got unbelievable gate speed and he's acclimated relatively well."

"When he came over here, he was kind of a nervous, high-strung horse. Virgil found a routine that really suits the horse. As time went on, he put weight on, and going the miles he was going, that normally doesn't happen. He really adapted well. He was in fine shape when we stopped with him."

Our Majordan A competed in several Grand Circuit stakes last year and is being staked again to some events this season.

The 59-year-old Hodkinson, an insurance agent who has enjoyed success as an amateur driver, trains a small stable of horses at Morgan's training center in central Ohio and gets to see Our Majordan A regularly.

"He's a professional," Hodkinson said. "He trains well every time he trains, no matter how fast you go. I don't see all the training sessions, but I've seen probably 80 per cent, and he's always the same. He likes his work."

"I'm pretty sure he's the first horse I've ever had to win in sub-1:50. I've had some nice horses, but I'm the odd man out in this partnership. Milt has had way more nice horses than me and Enviro has had Breeders Crown winners. This is the nicest horse I've ever owned. Seeing him going to the gate every time, particularly if he has a decent chance of winning, is very exciting."

The open handicap is race No. 12 Saturday at Miami Valley. Gd Western Joe, trained by Ron Burke, is the 3-1 second choice on the morning line with Chris Page in the sulky. The 6-year-old stallion has finished worse than second only once in eight starts this year, winning four.

Racing begins at 4:05 p.m. (EDT) at Miami Valley. For Saturday's complete entries, click here.

Joe Faraldo comments further on USTA position on HISA

by Joe Faraldo / chairman of the USTA

 Editor's note: The following are comments made this week at the annual USTA directors' meeting in reference to the following articles concerning the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA): Article 1 | Article 2 | Article 3

I was asked to make some comments, so let me start with something we should not lose sight of: the USTA mandate is to promote and secure uniformity in rules and conditions affecting harness racing.

The USTA is the first, sometimes the last, and often times the only protector, defender and proponent of the breed, as well as the industry structure through which the breed's animals are bred, born, nurtured, cared for, raced and ultimately retired.

Its directors are all elected to represent horsemen, breeders and tracks from Maine to California.

We are a membership organization dedicated to defend, protect and advance the interests of our industry. Tasked with, familiarizing ourselves with the detailed facts on any and all issues that affect our game.

We are responsible for setting goals to best achieve what is in the interests of our sport and doing what is necessary to accomplish those goals. It does not mean that we must march to the sound of the loudest voices or differing opinions, well-meaning as they may be, but lacking in our experience.

People have a right to disagree with our decisions from time to time, but undermining the directors and leadership, representing some 17,000 members is not the way to do that. When there is disagreement, we are more often than not told we should stand aside and act only as a breed registry.

But there are many things the USTA has done apart from its role as a breed registry. For example, it has:

- Created a strategic wagering program.

- Developed online entries.
- Partnered with TrackMaster to provide a more attractive presentation of our wagering product.
- Retained a lobbyist to help us navigate through intricate legislative proposals that may adversely affect our game.

Provided seed money to help a Standardbred Transition Alliance emerge.

The USTA sat at the RMTC (Racing Medication and Testing Consortium) table for 10 years.

The USTA funded RMTC during that period and paid into that organization some $730,000 believing, naively perhaps, that we could get separate rules for harness racing considered and enacted. Over that period we negotiated, cajoled and literally begged for separate consideration, only to be ignored.

The USTA has had the unfortunate experience of having thoroughbred rules put forward in the interests of uniformity, and rammed down our throats. Those rules have wreaked their share of havoc in thoroughbred racing, and have now entered our industry.

In 2013, then president Phil Langley, who had gone to nearly every RMTC meeting with our annual support check, and executive VP in tow, pulled out from RMTC in sheer frustration.

Make no mistake, be it RMTC alone or along with ARCI (Association of Racing Commissioners International) with which it still has major influence, or a private entity acting under a questionable delegation of authority from the federal government, the result for harness racing, unless the law is amended, will continue to ignore our needs. Relying on a mere phase within the law to satiate our concerns is no substitute for concise language for separate and where appropriate different rules that address our longstanding concerns and distinct performance model.

If the USTA were to write a set of rules for thoroughbreds and quarter horses, would The Jockey Club and the AQHA just let these rules stand that adversely affected their games?

Of course not.

So, should we sit on our hands as thoroughbred rules are shoved down our throats from wherever the source, under the false but laudable guise of "integrity and safety"? If we don't stand up for the way our breed is treated and its horsemen are to be regulated, based upon our vast experience who can?

Let's be truthful, and let's be real. The USTA is the only organization that has the experience to accomplish the goals necessary to adequately protect our industry.

The Jockey Club doesn't do anything for our industry. It does things to our industry.

The RMTC doesn't do anything for our industry, it does things to our industry.

Congress has now listened to these thoroughbred interests, and opened a wide door that will eventually do much more harm to our industry than good. It will do so at a financial cost much higher than the three quarters of a million dollars spent with RMTTC trying to advance our interests, over a decade of rejection. If we don't protect our horses and our industry, we'll simply be subsumed by thoroughbred interests that would not whimper a bit at our demise and take unto themselves whatever we may have left.

The USTA owes our constituency the obligation to dig much deeper and use our brains, instead of our knees to remedy the ills in this law and in our industry.

Consider how infinitesimal our breakdown and death rate is when compared to the other racing breeds. Is preserving much of the status quo really an irrational decision?

Should we, without pushing back, accept a levy on harness racing to reduce the thoroughbreds cost to resolve track safety issues we don't have?

Should we just accept that the thoroughbreds can have one rule regulating a specific medication, the quarter horse industry a different one, but harness shall not have its own? Should we just give up and hope for the best, or have we not learned our lesson?

Let's all commit to not shut our ears to the clamor for concessions, but effectuate statutory modifications that are necessary, judicious and separate.

As you can see I am a little sick and tired of being made sick and tired by those who have not been involved as deeply as the USTA over the past 15 years trying to get rules that fit our performance model and who have jumped up in the rigging to attempt to undermine the USTA leadership. I have oft times seen that before as a strategy in negotiations.

All of this while the USTA president has agreed to the convocation of a "round table" to hear and discuss the issues we believe need to be placed specifically in the language of the law. The USTA shared its considerable work product with the group and the response, by some, was a letter writing campaign based upon who knows what representations were made or false premises stated including that this is a done deal. It is far, far from it, as expected imminent litigation will show. Litigation not to be paid for by the USTA, but by third parties circling their wagons around the Jockey Club initiative.

I believe we all seek the same result. Some think, as we once did, that things can be worked out, but we are at the point that if it isn't in the law we are no longer accepting "trust us" from anyone. We have gone down that rabbit hole once and we are not sticking our nose down there again.

Steve Wiseman dead at 53

Long-time California horseman Steve Wiseman died Saturday afternoon (March 13) at age 53 after a year-long battle with cancer.

Wiseman was a third-generation harness horseman, as his grandfather drove the starting gate in British Columbia and his father Raleigh was a respected horseman in both Canada and the United States.

Steve came to California as a teenager and not long after that went to work with Tim and Denise Maier, followed by a stint with the Jim Perez stable. He eventually went to Chicago where he was second trainer to Joe Anderson, who eventually encouraged him to strike out of his own.

It was at this point that Wiseman returned to California to start his stable. Soon after he met his wife of 21 years, Kathie Plested, and they have a daughter Tyler, now 20, who is currently the outrider at Cal Expo.

Steve and Kathie had made Sacramento their home while operating one of the largest stables at Cal Expo in the fall and winter and Running Aces in Minnesota in the spring and summer with a number of driving and training titles to show for those efforts.

Steve was on the board of directors of the California Harness Horsemen's Association (CHHA), a member of the California Hall of Fame committee and the drivers track committee.

Steve's favorite performers included: Magna Kay, Cashimir Dow Jones, Rhianna Seelster and Silverlode, the latter breaking the North American record for a trotter at mile and a half with a 2:57.2 at Cal Expo in the Joe Lighthill Memorial.

In addition to his wife and daughter, Steve is survived by his older brother Ken and sister-in-law Heather Wiseman. His parents Raleigh and Myrna preceded him in death.

"Steve Wiseman was the consummate horseman," said Steve and Vickie Desomer. "Professional and friendly whether training or driving or working around the barn. When we raced coupled entries, it was always our hope and good fortune when Stevie consented to drive for us. He will be sorely missed as he remained one of the horsemen that gave our industry a good name. Rest in peace Stevie."

From Tim and Denise Maier: "We have always considered Steve part of our family. It was a pleasure to see the amazing man he became. The paddock at Running Aces will not be the same without him. I hope God appreciates his humor."

"Horse owners will tell you about the money they are making or losing, but after 50 years, this small owner will admit, it's about the joy of harness racing," said Barbara Arnstine. "In creating that joy, Steve Wiseman was rightly named the Magician. I've had my worst mare and one of my best in his barn over the years, and thanks to his magic, they were both wonderful experiences."

Meadowlands stakes policy on sold horses

The Meadowlands, Tioga and Vernon Downs are announcing policy regarding the horses of which a majority interest of more than 50 per cent is held by those owners affected by the press release of March 6 (published 2021-03-07 see pg 11).

Any horse sold publicly or privately to disperse those ownership interests must be a legitimate sale to someone other than and not affiliated with the current owners.

It is recommended that all prospective buyers/owners read through the "Rules" and "Disputes" section of conditions for stakes administered by The Meadowlands, Tioga and Vernon Downs which contain language that includes the right to exclude horses from stakes that do not meet the specifications within.

It is also recommended that any prospective buyer request from the seller the current stakes schedule for which all required payments have been made toward 2021 stakes. To date, there have been no exclusions or refunds of payments from stakes at The Meadowlands, Tioga and Vernon Downs on the horses that fall into the above category, so those horses are currently eligible to the stakes in which the payments are current. Their eligibility will continue, providing the remaining payments are made by the new owner.

The horses described above, if legitimately sold to the satisfaction of the stakes sponsors would become eligible to race in overnight or stakes races at The Meadowlands, Tioga and Vernon Downs sixty (60) days after the transfer is completed.

Any horse that is or was trained in the Allard Florida stable will be excluded from overnight and/or stakes races at The Meadowlands, Tioga and Vernon Downs indefinitely, as written in the March 6 release.

Woodbine announces partnership with Diamond Creek Farm

Woodbine Entertainment is pleased to announce a partnership with Diamond Creek Farm as a year-round sponsor of standardbred racing at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The partnership highlights Woodbine Entertainment's commitment to world class racing and provides Diamond Creek Farm with a presence throughout the entire racing season and at all of Woodbine's signature standardbred events.

Established in 2005 by Adam Bowden, Diamond Creek Farm has become one the leading and most influential breeding operations in harness racing. With an initial focus on regal bloodlines and producing top quality horses for the sales ring and racetrack, Diamond Creek Farm has produced numerous champions and assembled an elite stallion roster.

Diamond Creek Farm recently announced the addition of three-time Breeders Crown champion trotter Gimpanzee to its stallion lineup. The Dan Patch Award winning trotter won his second of three Breeders Crown titles at Woodbine Mohawk Park in 2019.

Gimpanzee joins Dan Patch Award winning pacer Bettors Wish as new additions for the 2021 breeding season at Diamond Creek Farm.

The entire "all-star" stallion roster for Diamond Creek Farm features winners of Woodbine Mohawk Park's most prestigious races, including the Pepsi North America Cup, Maple Leaf Trot and Canadian Trotting Classic.

Whiskey Blu sweeps Meadows series, stretches unbeaten streak to 7

Whiskey Blu easily captured the $19,750 championship of the Dale McConnell Memorial Trot Thursday (March 18) at The Meadows to stretch his career unbeaten streak to seven and complete a sweep of the series for 3- and 4-year-old stallion, colt and gelding trotters.

Chris Gooden

Whiskey Blu (Dan Charlino) won the $19,750 championship of the Dale McConnell Memorial Trot Thursday (March 18) at The Meadows to stretch his career unbeaten streak to seven and complete a sweep of the series for 3- and 4-year-old stallion, colt and gelding trotters.

Whiskey Blu settled in third from post 7 but not for long, as Dan Charlino hustled him to the point past the quarter. The 3-year-old Southwind Frank—Kendall Blue gelding never was challenged thereafter, jogging off to score in 1:56.4 over a sloppy surface. Massive Stroke rallied for second, 3 lengths back, with The Great PG third.

Trainer Ron Burke and owners Burke Racing Stable, Kitefield Stable and Weaver Bruscelli LLC didn't race Whiskey Blu at 2, giving him time to mature. Now, with nothing but victories on his card in strictly local events, do his connections think he'll be competitive against tougher?

"We honestly don't know yet," said Charlino, his pilot in all seven starts. "We all thought he had a lot of talent and potential last year, and he just came unraveled a little bit. He races best when there's a horse beside him, and that hasn't happened yet. But he could be a good one."

Whiskey Blu wasn't the only trotter on Thursday's card to extend an impressive winning streak. In the $21,500 final of the Mary Wohlmut Memorial Trot for 3- and 4-year-old fillies and mares, Rebecca overcame a demanding trip from post 8 to notch her fourth consecutive victory.

Trainer/driver Dave Wade sent the 4-year-old daughter of Explosive Matter—SJ's Minolta for the lead, but it took her nearly three-eighths to reach it and cross over. Instead of tiring late, Rebecca surged through the lane and defeated long shot Caramel Macchiato by 2-3/4 lengths in 1:57.1. Early leader Wonmyheart Hanover earned show.

Rebecca's game performance reminded Wade of her broodmare sire SJ's Photo, whom Wade campaigned on both sides of the Atlantic.

"I was concerned when we got to the half because she didn't have her 'A' game today," said Wade, who owns the homebred with Gerald Brittingham. "I didn't know if she'd be able to hold on. She showed me a quality I had in SJ. No matter what, the sonofagun tried hard. I hadn't had to ask her for determination before today. But I asked her, and she showed it to me."

He indicated Rebecca has no stake engagements this year. "I think eventually she'll be an open trotter," he said, "but I don't want to rush her. We'll let her tell me."

Helpisontheway goes international

Indiana stallion Helpisontheway the third richest son of the brilliant Chapter Seven soon to be an acknowledged sire of sires will service a projected book of 70 European based mares via frozen semen.

Helpisontheway (Chapter Seven—Porque) took a mark of 1:51.4 at 3 accumulating $610,446 in earnings is in the process of serving another full book in his third season at Indiana's Maple Lane Farm. Members of his first two crops have earned rave notices from those who have seen the foals.

"It's rewarding to have so many repeat breeders," said Jon Wiesman of Wiesman Farms, owner and manager of the Chapter Seven stallion. "And now he's available on an international basis. Thus far, 60 mares from Italy, Finland, Denmark, Germany, Austria, Netherlands and Belgium have been booked and more are anticipated."

According to the esteemed Carter Duer, "My Helpisontheway yearling is an exceptional colt one of my best in the field this year."

Other prominent breeders have indicated similar sentiments.

The first crop of Helpisontheway will reach the yearling auctions later this year and good things are expected.

You want to drive at The Big M? Join the GSY

You watch The Meadowlands races week after week, and you can't help but wonder: Could I be out there?

Maybe you could.

Just about every Friday night, a handful of "regular" folks go head-to-head sitting in the sulky at the game's greatest track, competing for solid purses in races where wagering is similar to that of when the driver lineup has names like Dunn, Gingras and McCarthy in it.

Welcome to the GSY Amateur Driving Series, which will have its sixth and final leg for pacers tonight (March 19) in the first race at The Big M. The event carries a purse of $10,000.

"We're not as good as the pros because we don't do it six days a week, 10 times a night. But any [GSY club member] who wants to drive at The Meadowlands has to be approved by the judges. Once they are okayed, they're still under our scrutiny to make sure they're not driving like an orangutan," Club president David Yarock told Harness Racing Update (full story here). "But we put on a good show and I think it's appreciated."

The betting public apparently agrees.

Thus far in 2021, there have been 10 GSY races conducted at the mile oval, with wagering on those races totaling $2.1 million for an average per race of $211,942. Betting was especially vigorous during a 14-day stretch in February. Action totaled $285,408 on Feb. 5, $240,438 on Feb. 12 and $225,079 on Feb. 19 for a three-card average of $250,308. For some perspective, on a typical 13-race program, an average per race of a quarter-million dollars results in a night that sees a total of $3.25 million pushed through the windows.

"We are proud to host these races," said Big M chief operating officer and general manager Jason Settlemoir. "The GSY (which stands for [Jeff] Gural Settlemaier Yarock) Amateur Series races have always been hotly contested by the participants and well-received by the wagering audience at The Meadowlands. For these passionate drivers, their Meadowlands Pace takes place every Friday night."

So, can one really participate in the GSY if they aren't necessarily in the harness racing business? While it's true amateur drivers in many cases own horses, they make their living by doing something else.

In tonight's GSY event, here are some of the drivers and what they do in the "real world": Matt Zuccarello works for the snack company Herr's; Yarock is a financial insurance representative; Joe Lee is an investment advisor and also serves as the assistant equipment manager for the New York Yankees; Mark Schullstrom is an executive at Shop-Rite; Tony Beltrami is a judge in the Pennsylvania criminal court; and Bob Heckhoff is an executive headhunter. Another steady GSY performer, Todd Whitney, who isn't racing tonight, owns his own construction company.

The races provide a special challenge to handicappers, and those sharp enough to come up with the winners are generally rewarded for their expertise. During 2020, GSY races saw favorites win at just a 28 percent rate. Once, a winning trifecta combination – one that included drivers that had previously won multiple GSY races – returned a handsome $19,303.20.

This year has seen more of the same, as eight of the 10 races have seen win payoffs of $6.40 or more, with four coming back $11.80 or better. The average win price has been $11.60.

"One of the things that the bettors like is, it's a different meal per se," Yarock told HRU. "So, if you've got 12 or 13 races on the night and they're all professionals and then you've got one amateur race, it's a little bit different.

Sometimes it draws more attention because it's different."

The GSY not only creates opportunities for those who want to race, it creates revenue for some charitable causes.

"The club is open to anybody who wants to get involved," Yarock told The Meadowlands. "And revenue is produced the following ways. The 5 per cent that the drivers earn, [as amateur drivers] they can't take it, so it goes to our charity. We have a membership fee of $400 a year, and we also have fundraisers along the way. This is how we raise our money."

The charitable pursuit that Yarock has a special place for can be found on his website, equineoutreachfund.org. Sure, raising money is nice, but doing things to help others is even nicer.

"During COVID-19, we have provided food and services for people, and up at my farm in The Catskills, we will be setting up a program to help people with PTSD by connecting them with retired horses as we try to rescue both."

THE NEW SCHEDULE: Beginning tonight (March 19), post time will be 6:20 p.m., and thus, Big M TV's live simulcast presentation of its "Racing from the Meadowlands" pre-game show will now kickoff at 5:47 p.m. every live racing night.

$100,000 GUARANTEED: Every night, The Meadowlands guarantees big green on both editions of its signature wager, as each 50-cent Pick-4 sports a $50,000 guaranteed pool.

A HALF-DOZEN CHANCES: The Big M offers players six chances every night to make a score, betting on the track's popular wagers that offer a low 15 percent takeout. They are:

- Race 1: 20-cent Pick-5
- Race 3: 20-cent Survivor Pick-7
- Race 6: 50-cent Pick-4
- Race 8: 20-cent Pick-6
- Race 10: 50-cent Pick-4

FREE PPs: “Need a program? The Big M has you covered,” said Settlemaier. “We offer free programs every night.” The free past performances are available to anyone who goes to the track’s website, playmeadowlands.com.

GET SOCIAL: You can always check in with the team at The Meadowlands on Twitter.

For early changes, racing information and staff selections, go to @themeadowlands or #playbigm.

On race nights, stay in touch with the Big M’s Dave Brower (@eedoogie), Dave Little (@DaveLittleBigM), Ken Warkentin (@kenvoiceover), Andrew Demsky (@shadesonracing) and Jessica Otten (@JessicaOtten1).

CHECK OUT THE PICKS: For those who need to get a leg up on the action, go to playmeadowlands.com to see track oddsmaker and analyst Brower’s selections and commentary. Click on the “handicapping” tab and go to “race reviews”.

Brower’s input is generally available 48 hours before every card.

Additionally, track announcer Warkentin’s blog is available on the site and offers his picks and analysis.

CAN’T MAKE IT TO THE TRACK? There are several options for those who would rather catch the action from The Big M at home.

Racing fans can watch all the races live on the Roberts Television Network (rtn.tv). In addition, they can watch and wager by going to the Television Games Network (tv.com) or their favorite Advance-deposit Wagering site (ADW).

MAYHEM HAS ARRIVED: And it’s at The Meadowlands’ FanDuel Sportsbook.

The NCAA College Basketball Tournament kicked off Thursday (March 18) at 5:10 p.m. with the first of four “play-in” games. When those contests have concluded, the field of 64 will then be set to begin play with 16 games both tonight (March 19) and Saturday (March 20) with the action set to begin both days at 12:15 p.m.

The field, which then will be reduced to 32 teams, will resume with eight more games on both Sunday (March 21) and Monday (March 22). The first of those games will tip-off at noon each day.

In addition to the college hoops, action will be available on professional golf’s Honda Classic, as well as a plethora of other sports, including the NBA, NHL, Premier and Champions League soccer, professional tennis and more.

The sportsbook is open Sunday-Friday from 10 a.m.-midnight and Saturday from 10 a.m.-2 a.m. The cash counter is open from 10 a.m.-11 p.m.

Standardbred Aftercare Org’s to receive sale proceeds

The nearly $15,000 proceeds from the sale of seasonal breedings sold January 18, 2021 at the Tattersalls Winter Mixed Sale at the Meadowlands are being distributed to various standardbred aftercare organizations and facilities.

Michelle and Albert Crawford of Crawford Farms LLC donated the breedings to help jump-start the aftercare programs that are always in need of supplies and revenue.

“It is a hard message to get across, but these breedings are a great stepping stone toward raising awareness and providing much-needed funding to these aftercare facilities,” said Michelle.

Although funding for aftercare programs is generated across a wide spectrum of the standardbred industry, including regulatory agencies, horsemen’s groups, tracks, sales companies, farms, and individuals who participate as trainers, drivers, owners and breeders, this could be one of the largest single-source fundraising efforts of the year.

“We can’t say ‘thank you’ enough to the Tattersalls Sales Company, David Reid and Preferred Equine Marketing for their continued support for our aftercare initiatives.”

Providing a safe and secure future for standardbreds when their racing days are over is no easy task. With the addition of COVID-19 challenges impacting every facet of the industry, it has become even more difficult to find rehabilitation, retraining and rehoming for retired racehorses. With thousands of Standardbreds withdrawn from racing duties annually, the need for aftercare continues to grow.

Broadway Bruiser, Credit Fraud repeat winners in Pocono Series

Broadway Bruiser and Credit Fraud both became two-time winners in the Game Of Claims Trotting Series for $15,000-level horses on a Monday afternoon (March 15) at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono, where the temperature cracked the freezing mark only near the end of the card.

Those two horses shared a couple of other traits, too: they were both driven to victory by a Napolitano, with each horse retaining the brother who won with them last week; they did this despite the fact that both were claimed out of their first prelim round; and both will again be moving to a new barn via claim after their triumphs in $15,000 divisions Monday.

Broadway Bruiser, an altered son of Muscle Mass, was slightly the faster of the two, winning in 1:57.1 for George Napolitano Jr., whose three victories gave him fifteen for the Saturday-Sunday-Monday local racing week. Credit Fraud, a Jailhouse Jesse mare, went in 1:57.3 with Anthony Napolitano in the sulky.

Neither was the fastest winner in the series today: that honor went to the Cantab Hall gelding Willie B Worthy (“Anthony Nap”), who turned the tables over her first round conqueror Explosive Magic (“George Nap”) with a neck decision in 1:57. Both of those horses will reside in a new barn after a claim.

The other series winner Monday was Adagio De La Tour, an altered son of Lillum Madrik who triumphed in 1:57.1 for driver Matt Kakaley after finishing second in the first leg. He is the only one of this week’s winners who did not change hands, going back to trainer Ron Burke and the partnership of Burke Racing Stable LLC and Weaver Brusceci LLC after they claimed him last week.

It will be interesting to see if the French-bred’s connections try keeping him out of next Monday’s final preliminary round (and the claiming box), hoping his first and second will get him a spot in his championship. Love The Action was the only horse to try that tactic in the many Game Of Claims Pacing Series earlier, and he squeezed into his final in the ninth and last slot one point ahead of the AE1 horse, and then promptly triumphed in his championship.

In all, nine horses in the Series will live in a new environment after their races Monday, after 15 were taken out of the first leg. Monday’s claiming action brought the week’s totals to 38 claims for $637,000, and the meet’s to 191 transactions for $3,407,855 in thirteen cards.

Shartin N pronounced safe in foal

Beth and Doug Yontz of Anvil and Lace Farm in Kentucky have plenty to be thankful for these past years as their breeding operation in Cynthiana has grown by leaps and bounds.

The new “Queen” of the farm is the 2019 Harness Horse of the Year, Shartin N, who was purchased this past January for a reported six-figure cost. At the time, Shartin N’s stablemate was also purchased. She was the top mare, Bettor Joy N, strengthening their broodmare band to rival most any other farm.

“It’s ironic that both these great mares,” said Beth Yontz, were bred on the same day and now both are safe in foal, and they were checked together this past Sunday.”

World champion Shartin N in her four-year racing campaign, made 68 starts and won 46 times, amassing $2.4 million in purses earned, most of that in the United States where she raced the last three years.

She was voted the Dan Patch Harness Horse of the Year in 2019. That year, Shartin N won 15 of 19 starts with three second place finishes and became the world’s fastest and only mare to ever win in under 1:47, taking her lifetime mark with a 1:46.4 score in the Lady Liberty Pace at the Meadowlands.

The prior year, Shartin N became the first mare to win over $1 million in a single season with $1,053,236 earned. She also won 19 of her 24 starts headlined by victories in the Breeders Crown, Blue Chip Matchmaker Series, TVG Mares Pace, Rose Are Red, The Betsy Ross, Chip Noble Memorial, the Allerage Farm and the Artiscape Pace. That year Shartin N was voted the Dan Patch Pacer of the Year in 2018.

Who do you breed a world class pacing mare to? Shartin N was bred to none other than Captaintreacherous. Shartin N is sired by Tintin In America from the Live Or Die mare, Bagdaren.

“I’m very hands-on,” said Yontz. “I put a lot of hours in on the farm. There are some other great farms in the Kentucky area and we are honored to have these two top mares at Anvil And Lace.

“Despite the long hours I love what I do. And I treat every horse as if they were mine. Shartin N gets treated the same as every horse we have.”

Bettor Joy N had the misfortune of having to race against Shartin N for most of her career in the USA. Sired by Bettor’s Delight from the Road Machine mare, Joyfulbelle, Bettor Joy N did win 17 times in her career with a record of 1:50.1 and earnings of $516,000.

Bettor Joy N is in foal to first year stallion, Capt Midnight.

Both these mares were trained in the United States by Jim King, Jr. and owned by Richard Poillucci with Jo Ann Looney-King.

“Currently this year,” Yontz said, “We have nearly 50 mares we are breeding. Many are resident mares. We have 15 to 20 mare that come in to get bred and then head out again. Then we get mares ready to foal and then get bred again. There is always a flow of horses on the farm.

“Shartin gets a lot of publicity, but we have other mares that have produced million dollars winners and we give them all the care they deserve.

“I’m a little low key in social media. I know everyone wants to know what’s going on with Shartin and that is important, but every mare we have are important to us.

“Shartin is the kind of mare that does everything right both on and off the track,” Yontz said. She is not tough to deal with and is a sweet mare. It’s great that she caught so early on the first breeding coming off the track.”

Beth and Doug Yontz purchased Anvil And Lace Farm in 2015 and since have bred, raised and sold world class horses including Dancin Yankee and Dancing Lou.

Husband Doug helps Beth in running Anvil And Lace and he is also a local farrier. Beth has been in love with and has worked with horses since she was a child. She was the farm manager at Walnut Hall. The couple also have their own broodmares and some young racehorses.

The Anvil And Lace Farm can be seen at www.anvilandlacefarm.com/.

OHHA offers scholarships

The Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association (OHHA) will again be offering scholarship opportunities to OHHA members and their families.

Completed applications are due July 1, 2021.

Application and requirements are available on the OHHA website.

The scholarships are available to graduating high school seniors and/or students enrolled in degree or certificate programs. Graduate students are not eligible unless they are enrolled in a harness racing-specific graduate or professional level program and provide complete details regarding the harness racing-specific graduate or professional level program in conjunction with their application.

Scholarships will be awarded on academic merit and financial need and must be used towards the cost and expenses directly related to coursework and a degree being pursued at a college or university.

The announcement of 2021 OHHA Scholarship recipients will be made in August, 2021.

The Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association (OHHA) is a non-profit organization serving standardbred horse owners, breeders, trainers, drivers, and fans who participate in the sport of harness racing in the Buckeye State.

OHHA was founded in 1953. The mission of the Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association is to preserve, protect, promote and serve the entire Standardbred industry in Ohio and beyond.

Indiana Standardbred Association partners with HHYF

The Indiana Standardbred Association (ISA) is excited to announce their recent decision to partner with the Harness Horse Youth Foundation in a comprehensive educational outreach to all counties in the Hoosier state. ISA has agreed to provide the funding necessary to produce and distribute the 2021 set of Activity Boxes to each youth development coordinator in each county extension office who will in turn give them to interested 4H clubs.

"Horse racing is important to the state's economy especially in terms of horse production and agriculture. The HHYF boxes are a unique way to send our message, increase awareness about harness racing with young horse lovers, and help the HHYF all at the same time" said ISA president Joe Putnam. "This is a win-win-win opportunity."

The Activity Boxes (set of four) are designed to provide a variety of games, puzzles, and projects each of which relates to horses and or harness racing. Each box is dedicated to one aspect of the industry; Standardbred essentials – general racing information; Standardbred farm life – broodmares and raising of foals; Standardbred racing – training and racing information; Standardbred careers – the broad scope of job opportunities within racing. For further information about box content and ordering, please use this link: <https://hhyf.org/activity-boxes/>.

HHYF president Adam Bowden said, "HHYF is very appreciative of ISA's support. Our organization works best with partnerships like this because we all know that by working together, great things can happen."

Secure career opportunity for tall trotter

Racer Placers, a Standardbred Transition Alliance accredited agency, is seeking a specific type of standardbred for an approved adopter.

The adopter, an experienced standardbred owner and retired veterinarian, would like to adopt a 16 hand trotting gelding or possibly a mare, no older than 12, for training and competition in combined driving. Color is not a factor, but the horse must be 16 hands in order to fit in existing customized equipment made for a now retired standardbred.

The adopter is in Ocala, FL, so a horse in the southeast is preferred, but others will be considered. This is a lifetime, secure home providing outstanding training and care.

If you have or know of a horse that meets these requirements, please send a photo and pertinent information to Racer Placers at harold043@centurytel.net.
