Four needs more

Prominent industry members weigh in on the need for more stakes for 4-year-old mares.

by Debbie Little

"There's a chance they might stay around for another year," said Warren. "I think you would see, especially on the mare's side, more of them staying on the track rather than going to the breeding shed."

Looking at the sport's stakes calendar, the number of races limited to 4-year-olds are exactly that – limited – and even more so when it comes to mares.

Owners are appreciative of Gural's efforts, but would like to see more from the rest of the industry.

The issue appears to be twofold. Too few races for mares and half the purse amounts of their male counterparts.

If the sport really wants to keep its 4-year-old stars on the track, it needs a plan.

Thanks to Meadowlands' president/chief executive officer, Jeff Gural, 4-year-old mares now have a Graduate Series of their own.

On Saturday (May 14), those races will be featured on the "America's Day at the Races" broadcast with Churchill Downs on Fox Sports 2 from 9-11:30 p.m.

"Last year, I would have loved it, because I think it would have helped my fillies take the step into being 4-year-olds then," said trainer Nancy Takter. "And I think maybe in the long run they would have had better seasons last year if I didn't have to race them against open mares right away."

"I think it's great that they added that for the mares, especially the pacing mares, because you can't expect pacing mares to race with the boys. Trotters sometimes you can get away with a little bit more. If you have Manchegos and Atlantas, sometimes you can do it."

A total of 44 mares – 26 pacers and 18 trotters – made a $1,000 nominating payment in February and $2,000 sustaining payment in March.

Meadowlands' race secretary Scott Warren thinks those numbers should increase moving forward, especially since the addition of these races were not officially announced until Dec. 31, when retirement decisions may have already been made.

“If we want to keep 4-year-olds on the track, we have to give 4-year-olds races that they can race in. Personally, I think some of our 3-year-old races could be turned into 4-year-old races, especially for the male pacers. There’s no reason why they have as many big stakes races as they have throughout the summer. It’s actually crazy and it would have been nice if some of those races were 4-year-old races.”

~ Nancy Takter

“It’s actually a little bit depressing when you race just as hard or you have a faster mile and you race for less money,” said owner Michelle Crawford. “Why do you think we have to have the conversation with [trainer] Ronnie [Burke], ‘Are we racing the boys or are we racing the girls?’ You want to race the boys because there’s more money.”

The mare Graduate races played a small part in Crawford choosing to bring back Beltassima for her 4-year-old season.

Beltassima is currently in foal to Captain Corey, via embryo transfer using Dawn Shooter as the transfer mare.

“We really were going to retire her to broodmare status and we just thought because of the Kentucky races and some of the bigger track races, we were going to try her and see how she came back with no real guarantee,” said Crawford. “She’s a big, beautiful mare, just drop-dead gorgeous and she does have a lot of potential.”

“A lot of the stock drops off as 4-year-olds because they just can’t compete at 4. So, they’re racing the boys, or they’re racing way over their heads when they can get in.”

Owner Mel Segal and his partners brought back the reigning Horse of the Year, Test of Faith, but it wasn’t a guarantee they were going to do so.

“[Trainer] Brett [Pelling] wanted to race Test Of Faith as a 4- and 5-year-old,” said Segal. “That’s what he told us he’d like and we went along with him this year. I don’t know about next year. Maybe if she’s racing good. It all depends on her. I don’t want to see her getting beat by older mares. It’s awful tough for a 4-year-old going against aged mares.”

“I’m not crazy about racing against aged mares all the time. That’s why a lot of the fillies retire after 3, because they have to race against aged mares. But I think if they did have some more 4-year-old races, it would certainly help the sport some, because if it wasn’t for the Graduate, I don’t know if we would have been racing this year.”

Sam Bowie, owner of Hot Mess Express, always planned to bring her back at 4, but at the same time greatly values the addition of the Graduate races.

“I’m very appreciative as an owner to know that this series was established this year,” said Bowie. “It made the decision that much easier because I had numerous inquiries from people who wanted to purchase her and breed her. So, when they announced that they had this series for 4-year-old pacing mares, I was elated.”

“There will come a time, obviously, when I’ll breed her but I had always told [trainer] Tony Alagna that if she was sound and didn’t have any hiccups, I intended to race her back as a 4-year-old.”

Takter had an innovative suggestion regarding how to create more 4-year-old races.

“It’s actually a little bit depressing when you race just as hard or you have a faster mile and you race for less money.”

~ Michelle Crawford

“If we want to keep 4-year-olds on the track, we have to give 4-year-olds races that they can race in,” said Takter. “Personally, I think some of our 3-year-old races could be turned into 4-year-old races, especially for the male pacers. There’s no reason why they have as many big stakes races as they have throughout the summer. It’s actually crazy and it would have been nice if some of those races were 4-year-old races.

“I think that a 3-year-old pacer can race eliminations and finals something crazy like 10 weeks in a row for races that go for $300,000 or more all summer. There’s nobody that can race in that many races. Obviously, in some sense, it’s good because people get to pick their spots and try to avoid each other a little bit, but if we want to keep horses on the track, we need to give them opportunities to race.”

It’s long been an explanation in this business that the reason mares race for less is because there aren’t as many of them. Perhaps it should be considered that the reason that there aren’t as many of them is because they race for half as much as the boys. It’s also been pointed out that staking payments for mares are less than their male counterparts. So, why not charge them more and pay them more?

“I think it would keep a lot of the 3-coming-4 on the track racing,” said Segal. “Look with Test Of Faith, I’m no youngster anymore and I’m looking for some of her offspring. And I’m guessing that’s what some other people do, too. I think it would help if they added a few more series for them. That’s just my opinion.

“It’s a shot in the arm for the fans bringing back a good 2- and 3-year-old. It’s amazing the people that are following her. I didn’t think that there would be, but a lot of people like watching her race.”

Crawford has had many horses come back as 4-year-olds and understands what a difficult transition it can be.

“Because they’re tweens,” said Crawford. “It’s nothing different than having a 13-year-old boy. He can dominate against the 11- and 12-year-olds now, but he’s going to get crushed against the 14- and 15-year-olds.

“Why can’t we make changes to make sure that these well-bred fillies are going to be able to race throughout their career instead of just a very short 2-to-3-year-old campaign?”

As a fan of the game, Bowie enjoys seeing a great 3-year-old come back and continue to entertain the public as a 4-year-old and 5-year-old.

“The interesting thing is, when you talk to the gurus of the breeding industry, the vast majority will tell you that it’s the mare that’s most responsible for the success of the offspring,” said Bowie. “And yet the mares get compensated half as much on the track for the same races.

“If you can make it feasible and throw a carrot to the 4-year-olds where it allows the owners an incentive to race them as aged horses, I think it would be great for our industry.”

BETWEEN THE LINES

with BRETT STURMAN

O'Brien winner Duly Resolved among frosh stakes winners returning tonight at Woodbine

Stakes for Ontario-sired horses kick off in earnest at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

by Brett Sturman

Stakes for Ontario-sired pacers and trotters are about to kick into high gear tonight at Woodbine Mohawk Park with four Standardbred Breeders of Ontario Association (SBOA) eliminations to be contested. For 3-year-old colts and geldings, two eliminations are on the trot, two are on the pace and the most accomplished in that group is last year's O'Brien winner, Duly Resolved (Resolve—Motown Muscle).

Duly Resolved won the award as Canada's best 2-year-old trotting colt division by virtue of his 12 5-5-0 record, in which he earned $631,659 (CDN) for the ownership group of Bax Stable, David Hudson, Don Allensen and Gaelic Stable. He was never worse than second while racing ten times in Canada, and the only two times he was worse than third, were in his final two races of the year at the Meadowlands in the Breeders Crown elimination and final.

On changes between ages 2 and now, Duly Resolved trainer and co-owner John Bax said, "He came through the winter good. I wouldn't say he's much bigger – the thing about him last year is that he wasn't a real rugged colt to start with, and maybe got a little tired at the end of the year. But he trained well and qualified well. I'm sure there will be some more contenders this year and he'll have to learn how to race more than one way; that's for sure."

What Bax is referring to is that last year, Duly Resolved either raced on the lead or left for it in all races but one. In most cases, it worked out, as it nearly did brilliantly in the Mohawk Million.

Duly Resolved (Paul MacDonell) winning an Ontario Sires Stakes Gold Series leg at Woodbine Mohawk Park in 2021.

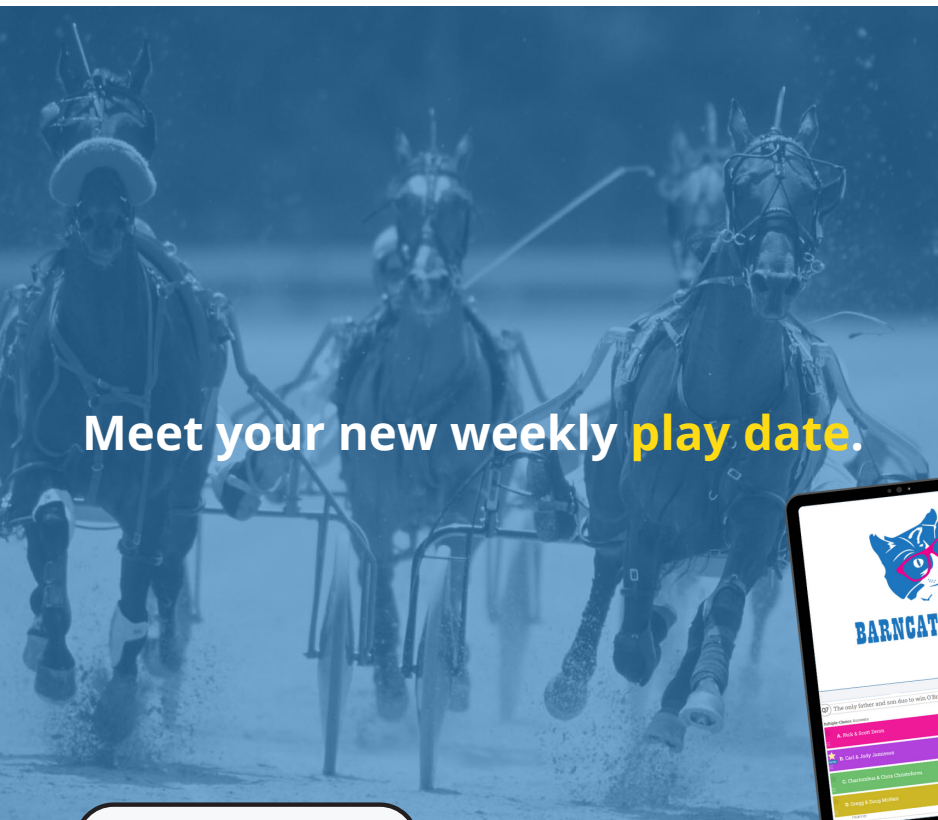

that he may have to maybe do a bit better job of picking spots with him this year.

In tonight's elimination, Duly Resolved will for now avoid nemesis Twin B Archie, who bested him in last year's $225,000 Ontario Sire Stakes Super Final – that one is in the other SBOA elimination.

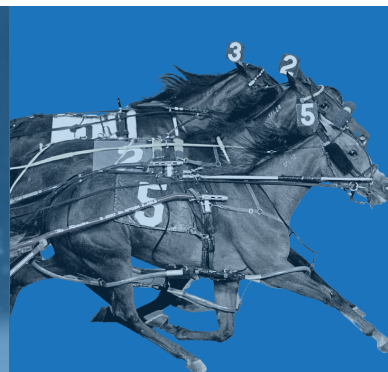

In that race, Duly Resolved was a 24-1 longshot from post 8 but ended up getting a pocket ride in behind the big favorite Venerable. Paul MacDonell angled out Duly Resolve mid-stretch that race and took a pretty game shot, just missing in the end by a head. However, the Resolve gelding couldn't replicate that race in either of his last three tries of the year. Possibly a result of the horse not being particularly rugged as Bax noted. He said

But on the heels in which he kicked home in :26.3 in his lone return qualifier his race should still give some indication as to how Duly Resolve comes back. Last year, despite earning as much as he did, his mark was only 1:55.1. That means there were at least 50 2-year-old trotters that won faster, yet only four that earned more. Pretty good for efficiency.

"He might need a race," said Bax.

The idea was that while we got an elimination race, and he makes the final one – it's nice to have him ready for the elimination but we usually don't drill them early. We kind of let them race into shape. But he's doing it right, he's eating well, feeling good and that's about all you can do, and hope that he's fast enough."

Duly Resolved was a $30,000 Lexington Selected yearling buy at the 2020 sale. Bax was familiar with the Motown Muscle family as he trained half-sister Bright Eyes (Kadabra) to a successful career.

"We went and looked at him at the farm at Cool Creek, and I liked him there," Bax said. "We go around to the some of the farms and he was one that we checked out. He had actually injured his leg in a fence, and I thought maybe that'd bring his price down a bit. But we really liked him at the farm and that's why I bought him at Lexington."

On the decision early on to geld Duly Resolved, Bax said "I'm known to geld pretty quick. We had his older sister and she wasn't very sweet, and this guy early on showed us that he could be a little hard to handle, so it's not a big deal to geld from my point of view. I always got criticized for gelding Goodtimes and I always said that I have 2.2 million reasons why that was a correct choice."

Staked predominantly in Ontario, one stake that could be targeted if all goes well is the biggest one of them all. "The Hambo is on the bucket list, so we'll make that decision when we get close to that time," said Bax. It'll depend on how he's doing, how he's feeling and how he's racing. If you think you're close to going, it's pretty hard not to go."

A pair of OSS Super Final winners' race on tonight's card as well. The aforementioned Twin B Archie qualified stylishly in 1:55.3 with a last quarter of :26.3. A potential showdown looms in the SBOA final between him and Duly Resolved.

On the SBOA pacing eliminations, Super Final winner Bob Loblaw makes his second start of the year. Following a useful re-acclimating mile two weeks ago when he closed in :26.2 after racing from the back, he seems primed for a more aggressive try now. The other elimination features Champlain winner Stonebridge Helios. He crushed in his qualifier, winning by almost seven lengths in 1:51.1, which already eclipsed his 1:51.4 mark from last year; he looks fast.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

Aaron Johnston on 200 wins and counting in Pennsylvania

by Chris Lomon

Aaron Johnston recently had 200 reasons to celebrate, even if he didn't know anything about it.

It was about as perfect a win a horseman could ask for, the one that came in race 11 the evening of April 29 at The Meadows when Bigly, a 3-year-old trotting son of Cantab Hall, crossed the wire four lengths on top in 1:55.4.

Aside from being an authoritative, career-best speed badge for the brown gelding, the victory happened to mark the 200th driving win for Johnston.

Add in that Johnston also trains the horse and his wife, Jennifer, co-owns the four-time winner from 12 starts, and it was certainly one of the most memorable evenings in the race bike for the native of Evans City, PA.

It's just too bad the 31-year-old was unaware it was a milestone result.

"Honestly, I didn't know that," Johnston said with a laugh. "I didn't look at any stats, so I guess that just passed me by."

One thing that hasn't passed the driver/trainer by is the work ethic he learned early on his career, something that is still very much a hallmark of the stable he runs.

He learned the value of hard work from his father, longtime Pennsylvania horseman Gary Johnston, who started jogging horses at age 11, and began his own racing career when his father and two uncles bought a racehorse. His sisters, Debbie Schoeffel and Tracy Chropek, and, Kelly Rader, are also involved in the sport.

"I think for me patience and making sure you put in an honest day's work are what got me to that [200 training wins]. There are lot of long hours and I do a lot of racing at the fairs, so I'm sure a vast number of wins came through Pennsylvania. Staying at it, that's the key. If you get your butt beaten, you have to dust yourself off and then work even harder."

Johnston, whose brother Shawn, is also a harness trainer, earned his trainer and driver licenses in 2007 when he was 18 and made his first driving start on July 30 at the Clearfield County Fair, piloting Satisfied Customer, a pacing daughter of Shady Character, to a third-place finish. He recorded his first win in his third career drive in on the same card when he partnered Rama's Pretty K to victory for trainer Chris Oluvic.

"It was a great moment, winning that first one. It's what you always dream about and what you hope for. I was fortunate that it came so early in my career."

A career that is still going strong, 15 years after that treasured triumph.

“The biggest thing for me is to not dwell on a loss or a tough night. When I was younger, boy, it was tough not to let it eat away at me. I took it to heart if something bad happened or things didn’t go well. Even now, I kind of catch myself when those situations come up. If it was a drive I was unhappy about, I would think about it what almost seemed like forever. Summertime, it’s not as bad. I can go drive in a fair and you can get it out of your mind faster than usual. I’ve grown up a lot since those days of pouting and getting upset. But it’s still there... I can pout with the best of them.”

~ Aaron Johnston

Johnston is grateful for the journey that’s taken him to the winner’s circle nearly 500 times, driving and training combined.

“The biggest thing for me is to not dwell on a loss or a tough night. When I was younger, boy, it was tough not to let it eat away at me. I took it to heart if something bad happened or things didn’t go well. Even now, I kind of catch myself when those situations come up. If it was a drive I was unhappy about, I would think about it what almost seemed like forever. Summertime, it’s not as bad. I can go drive in a fair and you can get it out of your mind faster than usual. I’ve grown up a lot since those days of pouting and getting upset. But it’s still there... I can pout with the best of them.”

Fortunately, Johnston has plenty to smile about. And just as much to be proud of.

Some of his most notable highlights came courtesy the mare Dream of Winning. At 3, she won five of 10 dashes and missed the board just once. The daughter of Yankee Cruiser laid claim to victories in a PA Stallion Series and Sire Stakes leg and took the PA Sire Stakes Consolation at Pocono. The daughter of Yankee Cruiser also won “The Historic,” a Grand Circuit stakes event contested at Tioga Downs.

Outside of his recent milestone, Johnston also eclipsed the $2 million mark in career training earnings, and has something to look forward to, specifically, a stable featuring some possible future stars.

Working with young pacers and trotters continues to be a source of enjoyment for Johnston, who along with his wife Jennifer, recently bought a farm just outside of Pittsburgh.

“When you are around the young horses, helping to shape them and bring out their best, I really enjoy that whole process. You find out what makes each one tick, how you can work with them to make them better – it’s such a great part of being a trainer. I have a couple right now that might be able to make it to the Sires Stakes ranks, which would be an incredible opportunity. But these horses, they have given so much to me and I’m very grateful for that.”

Currently, Johnston has 10 horses in the barn. He’s hoping to add more stock soon.

“As far as the future, I’d like to expand a little more every year. I’d love to be able to train a bunch of babies, to get to the point where we can buy somewhere between seven and 10 babies and see what we can do. Mostly, I’ve done the work myself over the past five or six years. I have a kid, a local kid named Steven Fedokovitz, who just started helping me. With having someone in the barn like that, someone who wants to learn, I’m happy to teach him, and then we can expand how many horses we have.”

One thing that won’t change, more horses or not, is Johnston’s commitment to racing and his craft, including plenty of hours spent behind the wheel, taking his show on the road, so to speak, throughout Pennsylvania.

When he does drive, he’s dialed-in, but not on his phone.

“If it’s late at night, I’ll usually jam to whatever is on SiriusXM. I listen to everything. I go from channel five or six, all the way to 60, looking for something I like. I also like podcasts, like the Pat McAfee show. I love hockey, so I enjoy the Spittin’ Chiclets podcast. So, for me, it’s random sports stuff or podcasts.”

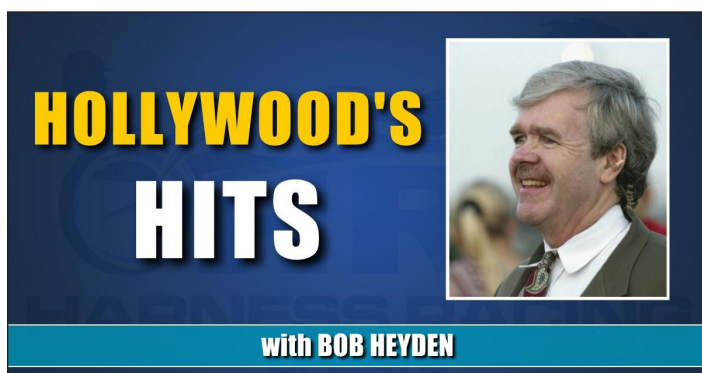

When he’s in the barn or at the racetrack, Johnston maintains a singular focus.

“In racing, you have to be 100 per cent committed in everything you do. That’s the way I’ll always approach it.”

Kentucky Derby wrap-up

by Bob Heyden

The fractions in Saturday's Kentucky Derby (#148) were: :21.78, :45.36, 1:10.34, 1:36.96 and 2:02.61. Fast fractions set it up for 80-1 closer Rich Strike.

He was the longest shot in the field.

Never has the winner of the Meadowlands Pace or the Hambletonian at The Meadowlands gone to the longest shot.

Rich Strike was 7 1-0-3, $111,289 going in. He then scratched in Friday at 11:30 a.m., even as the owners were packing their bags.

From post 21 the chart says he broke out of the gate and started with a few bad steps.

Jockey Sonny Leon then pulled off a Calvin Borel-type performance.

Rich Strikes was claimed on Sept. 17, 2021 for $30,000 from famed Calumet Farms.

Standardbred racing has some claiming history of significance, but not like this.

In 1984, Historic Freight won the richest Hambletonian (at the time), but just two months earlier was in for a tag of $52,500 – with no takers – at the Meadowlands. He wired the field and was immediately taken out of claimers by Skip Lewis and Benny Webster.

In 1979, Fight The Foe was a lower level claimer at Liberty Bell for Phil Tafone, Jr. He then went to the Meadowlands and was taken a record six times that year-working his way from the claiming ladder to the highest pacing classes. He wound up his career as the all-time highest-earning horse without a stakes win, with over $800,000 made.

Day In A Life remains the only Meadowlands Pace winner later to be claimed.

Thoroughbred star John Henry was in for $20,000 on more than one occasion in the late 1970s, with no takers. He went on to the all-time Cinderella career winning the first ever million-dollar race in horse racing history – the 1981 Arlington Million. He was voted Horse of the Year, too. Then, at age 9 in 1984, he was again HOY and took down an all-time bet of $6.59 million upon retirement. He never did race again after taking the $400,000 Ballantines Classic in 1984, which also carried a $500,000 bonus. His earnings record was not topped until 1988, by Alysheba.

DERBY EXACTA PAID $4,101.20

The 2022 Kentucky Derby exacta paid $4,101.20 with Favorite Epicenter second. Favorite should be in quotes, since $1.5 million wagered by "Mattress Mack" gave him that distinction. The superfecta was $310,500.10. The $1 trifecta $14,807.70. The Oaks-Derby Double with Wayne Lukas on the front end was $1,946.40

I mention those numbers with some emphasis because I touched on this a year back and it deserves mentioning once again – big time.

Somebody want to tell the management at Churchill Downs that even though Derby Day is wildly successful, there's absolutely no need to exclude some of your simulcast public on these two days (Oaks Day, too)

Follow this:

1. Monday through Thursday at Churchill on DERBY WEEK 2022, you could bet $0.10 superfectas on any and all races. Not Friday and Saturday, though.
2. Hello? 80-90 per cent of a track's handle comes from people not on site. Are you, Churchill Downs management, worried about people clogging up machines on Derby Day with a long list of smaller bets when big-money types stand and have to wait? Make $0.10 superfectas off site only. 99.9 per cent of those watching/wagering – yes, even on Derby Day – are doing so not anywhere near Churchill.
3. At Hoosier Park, on the simulcast, you could bet the Derby card on Thursday this year. First time ever. Used to be just the day before, too. There's some progress right there.
4. With the exclusion of $0.10 supers on America's race, you have taken a large percentage of your betting public out of the equation. Believe me when I tell you 99.9 per cent of your bettors – the ones who are the backbone of the industry – are not switching to $1 superfectas with a 20-horse field.
5. By only allowing $1 minimum superfectas, the word "ALL" is now out of the question.
6. I don't know who had the superfecta in the 2022 Kentucky Derby at $310,000, but I would guess that they were either a group or mini-syndicate of some sort. The non $.10 cent superfecta option took the dreamer – the once-a year $30-40 guy – more or less out of that equation.
7. Interestingly, the $0.50 cent trifecta was available all week and Friday and Saturday.
8. The Kentucky Derby is America's lottery. Nobody is worried about budgeting on a day like this. The track and the industry should encourage every single person who wants to play and encourage them with every option imaginable – off site. Imagine going into Baskin-Robbins on July 4 and being told, 'Sorry, no small vanilla cones. You have to get large.' Try telling that to your grandkids.

Tough battle Saturday in Normandie

by Thomas Hedlund

Top trotters gather in Caen in Normandie, France on Saturday (May 14) to contest the $157,500 Prix des Ducs de Normandie over 2,450 meters.

Elitloppet contender and Criterium de Vitesse winner Etonnant (Timoko) will try to defend his title from last year, when he won in strong stakes record 1:53.2 (mile rate).

But there are several horses that can ruin the repeat and Jean-Michel Bazire's talented gelding Cleangame is surely one of Etonnant's toughest opponents.

Ampia Mede Sm has been very successful in Paris during the winter and she can be a serious threat when it comes to challenging for the victory.

FESTIVAL IN COPENHAGEN?

Charlottenlund racetrack in Copenhagen plays host to the $105,000 Copenhagen Cup over 2,011 meters this Sunday (May 15) and 10 horses are in the race.

The dignity of Copenhagen Cup has dropped over the years and its status has declined from Group 1 to Group 2, which is sad for Danish harness racing. Charlottenlund is a jolly arena for horse racing and the atmosphere is usually good around the track.

Whether the Copenhagen Cup winner gets a start in Elitloppet will depend on how the race goes. A spectacular performance will surely catch Solvalla's Anders Malmrot's eyes, but it's getting tight for the last spots in the Elitloppet.

Home trainer Steen Juul will try against older trotters with his 5-year-old Derby winner Festival Of Speed (Cantab Hall DE), who has 14 wins in 15 starts so far in his career and the duo got post 1 behind the gate.

SNOWSTORM HANOVER TO ELITLOPPET

The $20,000 Meadow Road's Race over 1,640 meters was held at Solvalla on Wednesday (May 11) night and a ticket to Elitloppet was at stake.

Stefan Melander trained Click Bait opened quickly for the lead, but a fired up Inti Boko flew to the front position in the first turn and driver Örjan Kihlström couldn't get the Timo Nurmos horse calm once they reached the lead.

Already Elitloppet-qualified trotter Vernissage Grif took position as first over with a lap to go and in second over, Snowstorm Hanover (Muscle Massive) followed in the hands of Magnus Djuse.

Snowstorm Hanover was bought by Melander after the horse's 3-year-old season and after years of competing in his own stable, Melander took a chance and asked Daniel Redén if he wanted to try the talented trotter for a while. And the results have really been great lately. Snowstorm Hanover came to Meadow Road's race after a big wire to wire performance in 1:52.2 and when he crossed the finish line as winner on Wednesday night, he also got the pink ticket that says that he is eligible for Elitloppet 2022.

The mile rate on the sloppy track of Solvalla was 1:54.

Horses qualified for the 2022 Elitloppet, so far:

Don Fanucci Zet - Sweden
Etonnant - France
Vivid Wise As - Italy
Back Of The Neck - USA

Louis-Philippe Roy punched his ticket to the 2022 National Driving Championship after capturing the Ontario Regional Driving Championship at The Raceway at Western Fair District on Wednesday (May 11).

Roy led all drivers in wins with three in the nine-race contest, finishing with 79 points. He persevered through a first-over grind with also-eligible draw-in No Time At All ($15.60) to land his first win on the night before scoring back-to-back wins at the conclusion of the card with Dabunka ($27.40) and Willywin ($5.40). Roy, who began driving in 2008 and has 1,940 wins to his record, advances to the 2022 National Driving Championship in November at Century Mile alongside runner-up Doug McNair, who finished second with 60 points.

A 32-year-old resident of Guelph, ON, Roy made his way to Ontario after starting out his driving career in Quebec. Once he made the move to compete on the Woodbine Entertainment circuit, he quickly rose to the top of the standings. Roy won the O'Brien Award as Canada's Driver of the Year in 2018 and 2019, and he will make his first appearance in the National Driving Championship after qualifying for the event in 2018 but then stepping away due to other commitments.

Doug McNair finished second and will join Roy at the 2022 National Driving Championship at Century Mile near Edmonton in November.

Roy and McNair will compete with the top-two finishers of the remaining three regional qualifiers at the 2022 National Driving Championship at Century Mile near Edmonton in November for an opportunity to represent Canada in the 2023 World Driving Championship in Italy. Canada's most recent World Driving Championship win came courtesy of James MacDonald in 2017.

"I'll be pretty excited, especially when I qualified [in 2018] but Doug ended up taking my spot and winning the Canadian title and then going to Sweden with James. I saw them going and I had a little pinch [of envy]," said Roy after his ORDC win. "I'll be happy to be competing in the National Driving Championship. We'll have some good competition. [Doug] is a great driver and it's always good to compete against him."

The final leaderboard of the Ontario Regional Driving Championship is as follows:

Louis-Philippe Roy – 79 points

Doug McNair – 60

Colin Kelly – 49

James MacDonald – 45

Brett MacDonald – 44

Travis Henry - 40

Bob McClure - 36

Austin Sorrie – 34

Trevor Henry – 33

(Below) James MacDonald was fourth.

Roy will make his first appearance in the National Driving Championship after qualifying for the event in 2018 but then stepping away due to other commitments.

Retirement delivers excitement

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Kevin Hankins is retired from his most recent career, but as busy as ever thanks to remaining active in his first.

Hankins was a teenager when he got started in harness racing 50 years ago and embarked on a career driving and training before shifting to other fulltime occupations, such as working for the U.S. Postal Service, from which he retired in 2019.

But Hankins never completely put harness racing on hold, and since retiring has enjoyed filling his days by working with horses again. This past weekend, Hankins even picked up a driving victory at Harrah's Philadelphia, giving him his first trip to the winner's circle since — cue the Prince soundtrack — 1999.

"A lot of people when they retire don't do much," said Hankins, a 67-year-old lifelong resident of southern New Jersey. "This gives me something to do, and it's something I like. I like being around the horses, and I like the people. There is a lot of camaraderie."

Hankins' introduction to horses came by racing ponies in South Jersey at the age of 10 or 11.

"My dad did it as a hobby and I, of course, followed right along with him," Hankins said. "Some of the people crossed over (to Standardbreds) and asked if I wanted to jog a horse. I did and thought it was fun, so I moved to the horses."

"I was racing in matinees when I was 14 and won my first pari-mutuel race in 1975 at Harrington with a horse named Ed Gamble. I think I went wire-to-wire in 2:10."

Hankins eventually had his own stable, which numbered as high as 15 horses and featured primarily claimers. He competed regularly in the Delaware Valley, most notably at Brandywine and Liberty Bell. When those tracks closed, he pursued other jobs.

"Times changed and I moved on, but I never really got out of it," Hankins said. "I've always kept a hand in it. I always had a horse that I raced."

Hankins continued to drive occasionally but reached double digits in starts only once in the past 20 years. His start last week was his first of 2022. He won with Beach Boogie, who is owned and trained by Mark Akins.

"It felt good; it really felt good," Hankins said. "I'm grateful I got the opportunity to drive the horse. I thought he had a good Kevin Hankins recorded his 300th career driving win – and first since 1999 – this weekend at Harrah's Philadelphia when he piloted Beach Boogie to victory.

"It felt good; it really felt good," Hankins said. "I'm grateful I got the opportunity to drive the horse. I thought he had a good chance. He was down in class, and he's been a nice horse. When I knew I had the race won, it was a lot of fun. It was real exciting."

chance. He was down in class, and he's been a nice horse. When I knew I had the race won, it was a lot of fun. It was real exciting.

"A lot of my friends came out to the winner's circle. I know everybody at the track, and everybody was congratulating me. Some of the newer people didn't even know I drove. It was kind of emotional, really."

Hankins' win was the 300th of his career and his friends arrived in the winner's circle with a handmade cardboard sign to commemorate the accomplishment. Later in the day, driver Andy McCarthy got his 3,000th victory, which led to an additional zero being spray painted onto the sign and it being used in McCarthy's winner's circle photo.

"We've got to share the sign," Hankins said, laughing.

Whether Hankins adds to his win total remains to be seen, but he will continue to enjoy an active retirement of jogging horses in the mornings and warming up horses at the racetrack in the afternoons.

"I know a lot of the stables that bring horses and they're kind of dependent on me now," Hankins said. "It would be tough to give it up now. I'm staying pretty busy."

Sophomore trotting fillies bring sire stakes back to Philly

The Pennsylvania-sired state program returned to Harrah's Philadelphia on Wednesday (May 11) with two divisions of Sire Stakes and four divisions of Stallion Series competition for 3-year-old trotting fillies.

The division worth $67,591 proved the faster of the two PASS events, with the Bar Hopping filly Manon rallying gamely into a :27.3 last quarter to upend pacesetter Mon Cheval by a neck in a career best 1:53.3 for trainer Lucas Wallin and Harbor Racing Stable LLC.

Tim Tetrick hustled Manon to command before the :27.3 opening split; Mon Cheval waited off of that one's cover then went on up to take the lead in front of the stands, putting up midrace fractions of :57 and 1:26. The last quarter, especially the stretch fight, was a terrific contest, with Manon able to summon enough from the pocket to defeat her game adversary in just her third lifetime start, and second win in her undefeated 2022.

In the division worth $67,191, driver Joe Bongiorno got the Andover Hall filly Dreamonhigh quickly to the front. Nearing the :28.3 quarter favored Mimi Ocean Hanover, off heroics in Pocono's Weiss Series, moved up and took over the racetrack before the :57 half. The front two maintained those positions through a 1:26 three-quarters, with A Perfect Helen moving up to challenge.

At head-stretch, the favorite lost her composure, and Dreamonhigh shot right up the inside lane, beating out A Perfect Helen by 1¾ lengths to take her seasonal debut in 1:54.4. The Pennsylvania Sire Stakes champion at two, Dreamonhigh looks ready for another solid campaign for trainer Jennifer Bongiorno and K A T Stables LLC.

In the Stallion Series races, driver Yannick Gingras (in blue and black colors), trainer Domenico Cecere, and sire Cantab Hall had two winner's circle visits. Monimovesmountains broke her maiden in her section, stepping home in :57.2 to win in 1:56.2 for Moni Maker Stable, while I'll Have A Lindy, five-for-eight last year, joined her barnmate in making her 2022 bow successful, also coming the last half in :57.2 to win in 1:56 for owners Greathorse.

The other two StS races saw successful teamings of Philly's leading driver Tim Tetrick and sire Father Patrick. The fastest of all the Stallion Series races went to Vogue, who moved to the lead early and then also tacked on a :57.2 back half in lowering her mark to 1:55.3 in her first seasonal start for trainer Per Engblom and the partnership of Engblom Stable LLC, Wiesman Farms LLC, Joyce McClelland, and R A W Equine Inc.

The other section went to Senorita Paricutin, who brushed to the lead late on the backstretch and went on to fashion a 1:56.3 triumph. Anette Lorentzon trains the filly, who has now won half her ten career starts, for Anvil & Lace Farm.

Treacherous Dragon, Silent Crossing win in PA All-Stars

Treacherous Dragon was very impressive in her 2022 debut, taking one of two $35,000 divisions of a Pennsylvania All-Stars event for 3-year-old pacing fillies Sunday (May 8) at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono, with Weiss Series champion Silent Crossing winning her sixth straight in the other split.

Tetrack got away mid-pack in a seven-horse field with Treacherous Dragon, as Sweet Kisses hustled away to get the lead well before a :28 quarter, only to yield to brushing Bet On The Bay in front of the stands, with the latter posting midrace splits of :57.1 and 1:25.2.

The Captaintreacherous miss Treacherous Dragon started an attack mid-backstretch and nearing the three-quarters she rode outside the leader, a position she maintained through the turn. Straightened for the stretch, Treacherous Dragon hit a much higher gear and was clear in the blink of an eye, storming home in :26.4 on the clock to complete a 1:52.1 victory by 1¼ lengths over Sweet Kisses, who rallied up the inside to catch Bet On The Bay for the deuce.

Treacherous Dragon now has five career victories and earnings of $317,362. Owned by Hot Lead Farm LLC, Treacherous Dragon is trained by Brett Pelling, who traveled this same divisional stakes trail last year with 2021 Horse of the Year Test Of Faith.

Captaintreacherous got a stakes siring sweep when Silent Crossing nosed out Southwind Java while taking a new mark of 1:52.4. Mark MacDonald sent the streaking filly to the lead then yielded to Southwind Java nearing the :26.4 quarter, with the leader getting a nice rest to a :57 half, then stepping up the pace to 1:24.4 to the three-quarters, burning off the outside opposition.

Silent Crossing went to the Pocono Pike for the stretch drive, but for a long while it didn't look like she would overhaul her rival. However, Silent Crossing found an extra gear nearing the wire and edged the pacesetter by a nose for trainer Jessica Fallon and owners Hutt Racing Stable and Blake MacIntosh, continuing her remarkable turnaround – she lost the first twelve races of her career, but since has tacked on sixth straight successes.

SIRES STAKES REPORT

Three favorites win in Ohio Sire Stakes action

It was day for favorites and lifetime marks as the first leg of Ohio Sires Stakes (OHSS) action concluded Saturday (May 7) at Miami Valley Raceway.

Four divisions, two trotters and two pacers, each racing for $55,000, saw three of the four favorites win. Two new lifetime marks were set by the winners, with one other tying his lifetime best.

In the first division of sophomore trotting colts, Doo Wop Kid set a new lifetime mark as he was the only non-favorite to win. The victory was the first in six starts this year for Doo Wop Kid and trainer Dalton Walls.

Starting from the rail, Tony Hall settled Doo Wop Kid in the pocket behind What The Blaze and Dan Noble.

What the Blaze set fractions of :27, :57.1, and 1:25.4 only to see Doo Wop Kid make a move at the three-quarter pole and blow past the race leader.

Race favorite Rose Run Xtra and Chris Page tracked the leader down the stretch but could get no closer than a length as Doo Wop Kid won by a length and a quarter in 1:54.3. Gabby's Bit Coin finished third.

Doo Wop Kid paid $8.20 to win.

The son of Wishing Stone is owned by Walls and Bruce Soulsby. Prior to today's $27,500 payday, the biggest largest purse won by Doo Wop Kid was $5,000 from his maiden victory last year.

In the second division, Caviar Gold showed why he was the favorite. Aaron Merriman took the son of Triumphant Caviar to the lead at the start but yielded the lead at the quarter pole to Motto and Tyler Smith in :28.2.

Caviar Gold immediately retook the lead and never looked back, cruising to a two-and-a-quarter length victory in 1:54, paying $2.80 to win. Caviar Gold was the only winner not to set or tie a lifetime mark, missing by just a fifth of a second.

Motto hung on for second while Chulo finished third.

Trained by Chris Beaver, Caviar Gold is owned by Beaver, Bill Manes, Leo Fleming, and Steve Zeehandelar. Caviar Gold has won twice in three races this year and finished second in the other. He pushed his lifetime earnings to $146,500.

In the first division for the pacing colts, Tony Hall picked up his second Sires Stakes win of the afternoon as he took the even money favorite, Barry's Berries to the lead and cruised to an eight-length victory in 1:50.1. Seaside Way finished second with Sling Shock finishing third.

Barry's Berries cut fractions of :27.2, :55.2, and 1:23.1 and finished with a final quarter of :27 to win for the third time in four starts this year. He has now earned $62,500 this year.

The son of Downbytheseaside is trained by Ron Burke and owned by Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brusceci LLC, Knox Services, and J&T Silva-Purnel & Libby.

In the final OHSS race of the first leg, Bythemissal and Chris Page waited until just past the half-mile pole to make their move. Page pulled with cover and rolled down the back stretch going three-wide to grab the lead at the three-quarter mark in 1:23.2.

Bythemissal, by Downbytheseaside, cruised down the stretch to win by two-lengths in 1:51.1, a new lifetime mark. Terminator finished second with Risenshine Seaside finishing third. Bythemissal paid $3.20.

Bythemissal has won his three lifetime starts, two this year and one last year.

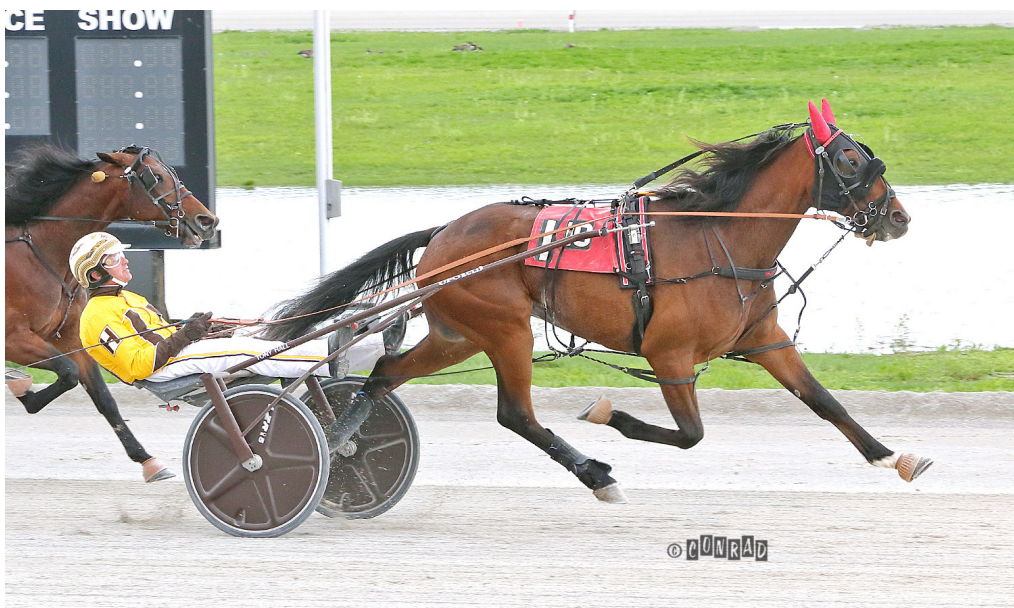

The win was the second of the day for Burke. Bythemissal is owned by Burke Racing Stable, Eric Good, Rich Lombardo Racing, and Weaver Brusceci.

Ohio Sires Stakes action resumes June 3 with 3-year-old filly pacers squaring off in the second leg at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

Cadillac Bayama fetches $134,000 at PEO Mixed

Both racehorses and breedings for the current season were popular attractions at the May 9 Preferred Equine Online Mixed Sale.

Leading the way in racehorse sales at $134,000 was the 4-year-old stakes winning son of Sunshine Beach, Cadillac Bayama p,3,1:52, who in the past two weeks finished second in both of his starts in the upper classes at Woodbine, timed in 1:50.3 and 1:50.2.

He was consigned by PEO as agent for Les Ecuries S. Filion Inc. and purchased by Sylvain Descheneaux's Ecurie CSL.

Cadillac Bayama's price tag made him the sixth $100,000-plus seller in Preferred Equine Online's first six biweekly mixed sales.

Other top-selling racehorses in the May 29 auction produced solid prices of $54,000, $46,000 and $42,000.

As the breeding season moves nearer to its conclusion, 2022 breedings to stallions whose books are full and closed were also sought after. The top lots were breedings to a pair of Hanover stallions in Greenshoe and Papi Rob Hanover that sold for $20,000 and $16,000, respectively.

\(View complete sale results\)

"At this point, I think our online sales are beyond gaining traction; they've become fixtures in the commercial marketplace," said manager David Reid. "Every sale to date has featured quality racehorses that have not only sold well, but that have continued to race successfully for their buyers.

"People who sell and buy here know they're dealing with a long-established company that prides itself on integrity and customer service. Those company hallmarks, along with our modern, easy to use online platform, are why customers are selling good horses here."

At the just concluded sale 25 of 29 hips were sold for a gross of $576,100 and a racehorse average of $26,375.

Preferred Equine Online's next mixed sale is scheduled for May 23, and according to Reid, it's the perfect time to sell quality racehorses at a premium as the summer meets swing into high gear.

Andrew McCarthy notches 3,000th North American driving victory

Driver Andrew McCarthy picked up his 3000th North American driving victory at a soggy Harrah's Philadelphia Saturday afternoon (May 7), in his last drive before heading to northern New Jersey for nighttime activities.

The 36-year-old, who has driven the winners of $61.5 million, scored four times on the windswept Saturday card, including the milestone maker behind Wager On Me. That pacer overcame the outside post eight and interference early on the second turn, going up second-over behind splits of :28, :57.1, and 1:25.2, then working by favored King James Express by a half-length, winning in 1:52.4 for trainer Joseph Columbo and George & Tina Dennis Racing while undoubtedly making Andrew's long trek northward a bit more pleasant.

Mike Cole wins 2,000th

Driver Mike Cole notched his 2,000th career win Monday (May 9) at Harrington Raceway aboard Teton Sunset ($17.40, Mike Cole) in the 2nd race on the 13-race card.

Owned by George and Tina Dennis, Teton Sunset was a wire-to-wire winner and held off all comers in his first win of the year, giving Cole the milestone win aboard the Joe Columbo-trainee. Cole, 42, has been among the leading drivers on the Delaware circuit for the past 10 years and won a driving title at Harrington in 2018.

Alagna sweeps Graduate paces at Big M

Maybe the indicator came at qualifiers Friday morning, when Tony Alagna trainees won the first six races, because Alagna's barn carried that momentum into Saturday night (May 7), taking both $50,000 splits of the first leg of the Graduate Series for 4-year-old Open pacers at The Meadowlands.

In the first division, Carbine gunned down 1-5 favorite Charlie May, who took down a stronger field of older foes one week ago in 1:48.3, after sitting a pocket trip and getting up by a head in a driving finish.

Leaving from post nine in the 10-horse field (there was one scratch), Charlie May left belatedly and had no spot at the rail as Bettors Donttell ripped through the opening quarter in :26.3 as Carbine settled into the two-hole.

Carbine then quickly took the top at the three-eighths as Charlie May continued his methodic first-over march toward the point, finally getting the lead while parked at the half in :54.2. But the tough trip would end up taking its toll.

Charlie May led past three-quarters in 1:22 and looked poised to make it two-for-two in 2022, but driver Todd McCarthy slipped Carbine, a son of Somebeachsomewhere—Shot Togo Bluechip, out of the pocket mid-stretch and under heaving urging nailed the 1-5 favorite, hitting the finish in a lifetime-best equaling 1:49.3. Southwind Gendry was third.

"I was really happy with the way the horse raced last week (when second in his first outing of the season)," said McCarthy. "It was always going to be difficult for Charlie May from the outside post. He was going to have to do a lot of work. When I asked my horse, he gave me everything he had."

"Last week, he got to running a little bit on the turn, so I had to help him out a little bit there, but Tony did a great job making a few minor changes so he'd get around the turns a little better tonight. Hopefully, he's got a good season ahead of him."

Carbine raised his lifetime stats to eight wins from 18 starts, good for earnings of $96,792. As the 4-1 second choice in the wagering, he returned $10.00 to win.

But Alagna's fun was only half done.

Abuckabett Hanover, the 2021 Tattersalls champion, shined in his seasonal debut, following a live second-over tow to get to the winner's circle in 1:50.

Driver Tim Tetrack got the son of Betting Line—All Tucked Up into a live cover flow as Abuckabett Hanover was towed into the race by Rockyroad Hanover, who left the gate hard from post 10. It was a rocky road for Rockyroad, who never found a spot along the rail, yet still had more than enough pace to drag the eventual winner into the race.

Abuckabett Hanover slid off his cover shortly after straightening away for the stretch drive and wore down a determined Lou's Pearlman, the 9-5 favorite who could not hold on for the win despite rating the third fraction back to a sleepy :29.4, settling for second. Rockyroad Hanover was a superb third.

"I was confident," said Tetrack. "He's superfast. Tonight, we got a great trip. I think that's where he likes it best (racing from off the pace)."

While recording his 12th lifetime win from 33 starts, Abuckabett Hanover raised his lifetime earnings to $784,783. He returned $6.20 to win as the 2-1 second choice in the betting.

In the lone Graduate dash for trotters, which sported a purse of $75,000, Sonofamistery, off a pair of victories in New Jersey Breeders Maturity action, was ultra-game in recording a 1:52.1 score. The son of Muscle Hill—Mystery Woman did not see the rail until clearing the lead after the half.

Rattle My Cage came calling and pressed the leader throughout the final three-eighths-of-a-mile, but Sonofamistery, who hails from the dynamic trotting duo of driver Brian Sears and trainer Marcus Melander, was dead-game through the stretch drive and held to the wire to record a neck victory. Delayed Hanover closed like a shot late to get third.

Sonofamistery returned $7.40 as the second choice in the betting.

NINE IS FINE: Saturday marked another night of big action at The Big M, as a total of $3,359,528 was put in play, marking the ninth time this year that betting busted the magic $3-million barrier.

Also, for the second time in 2022, betting blew past the $3-million plateau on both nights of the race week.

On April 1-2, a total of $6.3 million was pushed through the windows, while this weekend saw a total of $6.4 million in all-source wagering.

Saturday night's 50-cent Pick-4 races once again served to stimulate the pools, as a total of $355,651 was wagered on the sixth race before $337,816 was bet on the 10th.

Hennessey wins six including features at Tioga

Wally Hennessey swept the features and had six wins in all at Tioga Downs on Sunday (May 8).

Hennessey came from last to first with Sea Shadows ($4.00) to capture the $12,000 fillies and mares open handicap.

Talk Show Chica (Cory Braden) got the first call, but Donegalartchokin N (Tyler Jones) took the lead before hitting the first quarter first in :27. The two mares went shoulder to shoulder all the way to the half. Donegalartchokin N held a slight lead to the half in :56. The two of them continued to battle down the backstretch with Talk Show Chica grabbing a short lead hitting three-quarters first in 1:53.1.

Brilliant Beauty (Braxten Boyd) blew on by to take the lead as they reached the stretch. Sea Shadows made her move flying down the lane like she was shot out of cannon and wore down the second-place finisher, Brilliant Beauty to win in 1:53.1. Talk Show Chica held on for third money.

Sea Shadows is a 7-year-old mare by Shadow Play. She is owned by Paul O'Neil and trained by Hennessey. It was her seventh win of 2022. She now owns 38 career victories.

Prairie Panther ($4.80) cruised to an easy win in the $12,000 open pace.

Keystone Tenacious (Mike Merton) went straight to the front. Prairie Panther then made his move and grabbed the lead and led to the quarter in :27.2. He used a :29.3 second quarter to hit the half in :57.0. Villiam (Joe Chindano Jr.) was first to make a move going first-up down the backstretch but he stalled and watched Prairie Panther hit three-quarters first in 1:24.3.

As they made the turn for home Keystone Tenacious popped the pocket and went all out after the leader but Prairie Panther had plenty in the tank and won easily in 1:52. Keystone Tenacious had to settle for second. Hard Rock Hulk (Brandon Parker) finished third.

Prairie Panther is an 8-year-old gelding by Royal Millennium. He is owned by Laurie Poulin and trainer Mike Deters. It was his seventh win this season and his 54th career victory.

Hennessey got his other wins with Lori's Rock Star ($4.90), Mach West ($6.30), Lucid Dreams ($7.40), and Hot Rod Dylan ($3.30).

Miller, Burke win titles at successful Miami Valley meet

When Sweet Oliver captured the 14th race on Saturday (May 7) it closed the curtain on a very successful ninth season of live racing. The 87-day meet included 1,198 races, an average of 13.77 per card, with a total purse distribution over $16 million. The average nightly total purses was $184,000 which equates to an average purse over the course of the meet of $13,800.

Average daily all-sources handle exceed $500,000 for the second consecutive season.

"We've come a long way since we opened in 2014, when the daily handle averaged $142,500," said director of racing Ken Rambo. "We experimented with a new race calendar and an earlier post time this year and it did not seem to significantly impact our business numbers."

On the track, Brett Miller was crowned dash champion for the third time since he returned to Ohio four years ago. With 147 victories in 87 days he outdistanced Trace Tetrack, who finished with 139. A total of six drivers surpassed the 100 win plateau with eight total reinsmen earning over $1 million in purses with their mounts.

The top 11 drivers averaged over a win for every two cards. They were: Brett Miller (147), Trace Tetrack (139), Dan Noble (127), Chris Page (123), Tony Hall (109), Tyler Smith (109), Kayne Kauffman (76), Jeremy Smith (68), Josh Sutton (65), Sam Widger (47) and Trevor Smith (45).

On the training side, Ron Burke won his second Miami Valley title harnessing 59 winners, good for just over $1 million in purse earnings. Also on the Top Ten list were: Tyler George (41), Jason Brewer (34), Virgil Morgan Jr. (28), Christi Noble (28), Kayne Kauffman (25), Mike Hitchcock (24), J. D. Perrin (20), Patricia Brewer (20), Todd Luther and Chris McGuire (19 apiece). A total of 33 trainers won at least ten races during the meet while 42 had stable earnings in excess of $100,000.

The percentage of winning favorites for the meet was 38.31 per cent. The No. 5 post position proved most prolific with 18.3 percent of starters from directly behind the gate winning 219 times. It was the eighth season in the first nine at Miami Valley that No. 5 starters ruled the roost.

"We want to thank and congratulate our racing staff as well as the horsemen and women who participate at Miami Valley for another outstanding season," said Assistant General Manager Gary DeWitt. "We are gratified by the 2022 results, but look forward to even bigger and better things in 2023!"

Vernon Downs to race on Saturday

Vernon Downs will race a 13-race card on Saturday (May 14) using the horses stabled at the track in an effort to provide the opportunity for the Vernon horsemen to earn some purse money after a long, lean winter of not racing. A double draw for today (May 13) and Saturday was offered and completed on Monday, resulting in a number of races that were be condensed to a single card.

Vernon has been in the news as a result of several cases of EHV-1 which were discovered 10 days ago that led to a management declared quarantine of the stable area and the cancellation of last weekend's races.

The EHV-1 cases are confined to a single barn, which fortunately is in area that is distant from other barns. The NYS Gaming Commission and NYS Department of Agriculture have been engaged and on the scene from the time the virus was discovered and have ultimately chosen to reduce the quarantine to the affected barn only.

In an abundance of caution, Vernon Downs has elected to confine the racing to those stabled at Vernon and informed remote horseperson that any horses they chose to ship in to race at Vernon Downs would be required to remain at Vernon Downs until the quarantine of the affected barn was lifted.

Questions should be directed to director of racing Scott Warren at swarren@vernondowns.com.

New York Sire Stakes season kicks off Monday at Yonkers

The New York Sire Stakes season for this year begins on Monday night (May 16) at Yonkers Raceway with three $50,000 divisions for 3-year-old trotting fillies.

In the first of those flights (race four), Joviality S, the defending New York Sire Stakes champion, will take on Little Pink Lies. Joviality S, a daughter of Chapter Seven driven by Brian Sears for trainer Marcus Melander and owner Courant Inc., would go on to capture the Breeders Crown and Goldsmith Maid finals a year ago after her success in the Empire State, while Little Pink Lies (post six, trainer/driver Ake Svanstedt), captured the $58,025 Lady Suffolk at Freehold on May 7. Little Pink Lies, owned by Svanstedt, Triple Play Trotters LLC., and Tomas Andersson, is also by Chapter Seven.

The second split (race six) features a trio of fillies who made last year's sire stakes final. Gertrude (post three, Tyler Miller/Julie Miller), a filly from the first crop of Devious Man, compiled a 6-1-1 record from ten starts in 2021, and after exiting the New York program, would win the final of the New Jersey Standardbred Development Fund Series at Freehold. She also started her sophomore campaign in the Lady Suffolk, finishing fifth. Valentina Blu (post four, Andrew McCarthy/Tony Alagna), was the runner-up to Joviality S in the sire stakes final and then trekked to Woodbine Mohawk Park where the daughter of Chapter Seven finished third in the prestigious Mohawk Million. Bomb Hugger (post six, Mark MacDonald/Cory Stratton) won four times in six attempts a season ago, with three of her victories coming in NYSS legs. The Chapter Seven filly overcame post seven to get a third-place finish in the Lady Suffolk.

Chapter Seven fillies Seven On The Rocks (post two, trainer/driver John Stark) and Gettinmystepsin (post four, Andy Miller/Julie Miller) are two more graduates of the sire stakes final last year to appear on Monday night, racing in the final section (race nine). Seven On The Rocks has won all three of her starts this year at Saratoga in overnight competition, while Gettinmystepsin won two legs and was second in the Bobby Weiss Series final over at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono. La Vie En Blanc (post one, Dexter Dunn/Tony Alagna) also merits consideration as she is a Chapter Seven half-sister to 2020 Hambletonian champion Ramona Hill.

Monday's card also has two $7,500 New York Excelsior "A" Series tests for 3-year-old trotting fillies (races four and eight).

Action on the 12-race program gets underway on Monday night at 6:55 p.m. (EDT).
