Redén tastes sweet redemption in Elitloppet

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

When super trotter Propulsion claimed a well-deserved triumph in the 2020 Elitloppet 2020, the victory brought tears to the eyes of trainer Daniel Redén and driver Örjan Kihlström at Solvalla.

It was Redén's first victory in his country's biggest race... or was it?

You probably know the story. Propulsion was disqualified in October of 2020 due to a nerving procedure done in the United States in 2015, and the world fell apart for trainer Redén and his team (full story here).

But redemption came quickly. Five-year-old Don Fanucci Zet (Hard Livin—Kissed By The West) made his career debut in July 2019 and showed decent ability as a 3-year-old. But the story from April of 2020 – just prior to Propulsion “winning” the Elitloppet – has been nothing short of remarkable for Don Fanucci Zet. Out of nowhere, the Hard Livin son developed to become one of the crop's best horses in Sweden and after a triumph in the two-heat Sprintermästaren in 2020, people began to talk about a future horse for the Elitloppet.

Sunday's (May 30) two eliminations for the Elitloppet were unusually open. Italian-bred Vivid Wise As (Yankee Glide) stole the show in the first elimination. Alessandro Gocciadoro could, without any problems, keep the opponents on his outside when the car accelerated and Don Fanucci Zet landed on the leader's outside after 550 meters.

The pace was everything but Elitloppet-like when the field reached the first kilometer in 1:11.7 (mile rate of 1:55.2) and Gocciadoro had the race in his hands.

The final mile was 1:52.3 and behind him finished Don Fanucci Zet, Moni Viking and Aetos Kronos to claim spots in the final, respectively.

The second elimination proved to be the more open race between the two heats. French 5-year-old Gelati Cut (Coktail Jet), driven by Gabriele Gelormini, opened quickly from post 4, but Cokstile - who was elevated to the 2020 Elitloppet victory when Propulsion was disqualified - tried his best to defend the front position from the inside. In the first turn, Gelati Cut reached the lead and the pace was considerably higher in this heat, compared to the first elimination with Ecurie D. on the leader's outside. Ecurie D. really challenged Gelati Cut over the stretch. The two combatants fought side by side and it was a close call when they hit the wire. Gelati Cut won in a mile of 1:52, Ecurie D. finished second, Gareth Boko third and Cokstile fourth.

Heat 2 replay here.

Before the final, Redén and Kihlström decided to gamble and race Don Fanucci Zet without shoes. It would prove to be a savvy move.

With Vivid Wise As drawing an inside post, the prediction was that the Italian horse would take the lead and even control the field all the way.

Vivid Wise As did just that, claiming the front early and an eager Ecurie D. had to do the job first over for driver Ulf Ohlsson. Behind him, Kihlström found the perfect spot in second over with Don Fanucci Zet. But Kihlström had to leave his position early up the backstretch since Moni Viking and Björn Goop started an attack three wide with a half mile to go.

Don Fanucci Zet raced three wide throughout the last turn while leader Vivid Wise As still seemed to have some power to use over the stretch. When Kihlström pulled the ear plugs, Don Fanucci Zet accelerated and disarmed Vivid Wise As in mid-stretch to claim the victory for owner Brixton Medical AB. Vivid Wise As held strongly as runner up while Jerry Riordan -rained Gareth Boko finished well in third.

The mile was 1:50.4.

Elitloppet final replay.

Tears were running from trainer Redén's eyes when he noted that, for the second year in a row, he had a horse that finished first in the Elitloppet – this time with a horse that he produced himself.

“I bought Hard Livin from the USA, brought him to Sweden, won some races and made him a sire. Kissed By The West was a project when I bought her in Harrisburg. She is a pacing filly that I thought I could convert to a trotter, a mission that failed and we decided to breed her. Then this horse comes,” Redén said of Don Fanucci Zet after Sunday's big victory at Solvalla.

Hard Livin (SJ's Caviar—Affinity) was bred by Brittany Farms and sold to Christina Takter, John Fielding and Sweden's Falkbolagen AB for $25,000 at the 2007 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale. He earned just shy of $540,000 on the track for trainer Jimmy Takter in two years of racing before being sold to Brixton Medical AB in October of 2010 and exported to Sweden. Redén and Brixton Medical AB purchased Kissed By The West (Western Terror—Kissed By A Fool) for $15,000 at the 2012 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

The rest is history, sweet redemptive history.

Sister Sledge impressed in European record

Four-year-old Father Patrick mare Sister Sledge impressed a lot when she won $120,000 Fyraåringseliten at Solvalla on Sunday's race card. The American bred mare left quickly from post 4 and had to fight side by side with Italian star Bepi Bi over the home stretch.

Kihlström used Sister Sledge's abilities perfectly and held on by a nose in the horse's third race since she came to Sweden.

Replay here.

The mile of 1:51.1 is new European record for 4-year-old mares and it's not a wild guess that Sister Sledge will show up in bigger races than this next season. Trainer Redén bought Sister Sledge in Harrisburg 2020 with plans on making her a broodmare, but she came in great shape and Redén said he doesn't regret that he opted a further racing career.

Big upset in $241,000 Breeders Course final

Three-year-olds battled over 1.3 miles in Breeders Course final and a big upset presented himself for the fans. Gelding Love You Too (Love You), trained by Paul Hagoort and driven by Micha Brouwer, sprinted to victory in mile rate 1:57.1 after a perfect cover trip.

Redén never gave up, never stopped believing he would win the Elitloppet

by Dave Briggs

Even when he was just another teenage Swede sprinting with the hordes to grab a good spot on the Solvalla tarmac when the gates were sprung on Elitloppet morning, Daniel Redén believed one day he would win his country's most coveted trotting race.

Call it mysticism or optimism or something deeper, but the first generation trainer also believes there is a powerful energy at play in the universe.

Good thing, because given the gut-wrenching route the trainer took to Sunday's Elitloppet glory, without that positive outlook it would have been no surprise if Redén had given up long ago on his Elitloppet dream, despite his insistence that he would never stop trying.

In the last 12 years, Redén has raced 17 horses in the Elitloppet and finished second twice. In 2019, he fielded a record four horses in the Elitloppet, but the best he could muster was a third with Propulsion.

Afterward, the trainer blamed himself for allowing his charges too much time eating the lush paddock grass before the big event and chalked it up as a learning experience.

A year ago, racing Propulsion in the Elitloppet for a fifth time, Redén cried in the winner's circle after the U.S.-bred trotter charged to victory.

Five months later, he wanted to cry again when Swedish racing authority Svensk Travsport (ST) disqualified Propulsion from all 45 of his Swedish starts due to a nerve procedure that was done on the horse in the United States prior to Redén buying the horse and exporting him to Sweden. The trainer has said all along he had no knowledge the procedure had been done prior to the purchase (background story here). ST's ruling also required Propulsion's owner, Brixton Medical AB, to return some $2.9 million (U.S.)

Adam Ström / stalltz

(SEK 26 million) the trotter earned in Swedish races.

Redén initially feared the decision would force him out of the business, but just a year after Propulsion "won" the Elitloppet, Redén stood in the Solvalla winner's circle, tears again streaming down his face, after finally claiming the race that means the most to him. That he won it with the ultimate Brixton Medical AB homebred, Don Fanucci Zet, made the victory even sweeter.

Redén purchased both of the 5-year-old horse's parents in the U.S. The sire, Hard Livin(SJ's Caviar—Affinity), bred by Brittany Farms, raced in the U.S. for Jimmy Takter before Redén bought him in 2010 and exported him. The dam, Kissed By The West (Western Terror—Kissed By A Fool), is a pacer Redén purchased as a yearling in 2012 in Lexington that he believed he could turn into a successful trotter. That didn't happen, but the consolation is she has turned out to be a prolific broodmare already.

With HRU European Report columnist Thomas Hedlund acting as a translator, Redén was asked Sunday about winning with Propulsion, having the victory taken away and then returning to Solvalla this year to win the elite race with Don Fanucci Zet, a horse he produced entirely himself.

Redén said when he arrived at Solvalla for Saturday's races he, "felt great anxiety... because of what happened with Propulsion."

The trainer believes that nervousness transferred to his horses, which did not race well.

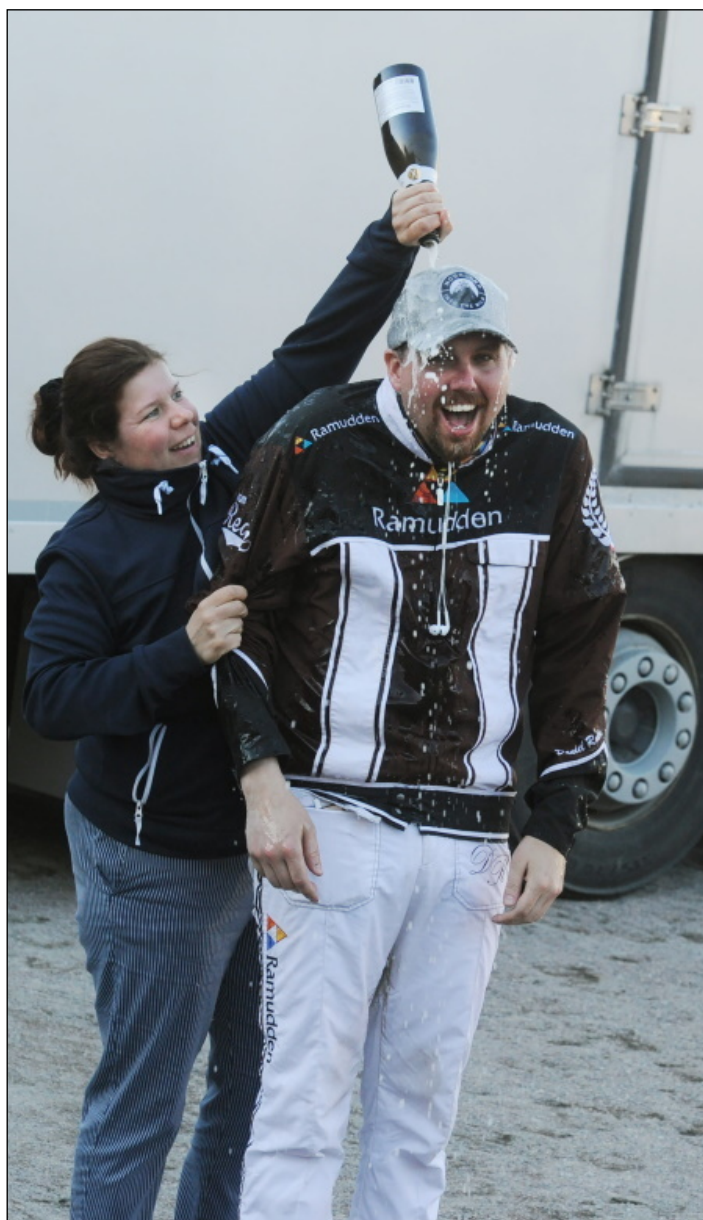

Sunday was a different story.

Redén not only won the Elitloppet with Don Fanucci Zet in impressive fashion, but winning driver Örjan Kihlström also steered Redén's U.S.-bred mare Sister Sledge (Father Patrick—Behindcloseddoors) to an impressive 1:51.1 victory in the $120,000 Fyraåringseliten on the same card. The former Ron Burke trainee earned more than $840,000 racing in the U.S. before being sold to Brixton Medical via agent Robert Lindstrom for $265,000 at the Standardbred Horse Sales Company's mixed sale in Timonium, MD in 2020. Sister Sledge's mile in the Kihlström is a new European record for 4-year-old mares.

Later Sunday afternoon, when Don Fanucci Zet crossed the wire and Redén's Elitloppet dream finally came true, he said months of anxiety melted away.

"At that moment something very heavy released from my body," he said.

The universe had finally delivered.

by James Witherite / Harrah's Philadelphia racing media

What a difference a day makes.

Not even 24 hours after being involved in a spill at The Meadowlands, driver Joe Bongiorno steered Nicholas Beach ($3.80) to a 1:48.4 score in the $100,000 Commodore Barry Pace, one of three co-headlining invitational events on the Sunday (May 30) program at Harrah's Philadelphia.

Nicholas Beach, who had not finished worse than second in any of his 18 career starts leading into the Barry, prompted a demanding :26.1 first quarter by stringing double millionaire This Is The Plan out through the first turn before yielding. After ceding control of the terms, Nicholas Beach drafted comfortably through middle sectionals of :54 and 1:21.1

before angling off the pegs midway through the final turn to take aim at American History, who sustained a first-over push out of third to reach the lead.

Off the home corner, Bongiorno tipped Nicholas Beach three-wide, and the 5-year-old Somebeachsomewhere—Michelle My Gal gelding swelled to the lead under vigorous encouragement, widening his margin to 1-1/4 lengths en route to his 15th career victory. This Is The Plan (Yannick Gingras) battled stoutly for second; Western Joe (Dexter Dunn) ducked from second-over cover to the pegs in the stretch and chased for third.

Trainer Jenn Bongiorno co-owns Nicholas Beach, who now has earned $178,400, with John Lengacher and Michael Gagnon.

"(Nicholas Beach) is one of the barn favorites and has been a really special horse to us," said Joe Bongiorno. "The horse has overcome a lot in his life, and to be out here and show everybody the real horse that he is, it's special... He's an easy horse to be around and an easy horse to drive. He's so versatile, you can leave with him so fast, you can put him in a hole; you can do anything with this horse. That's what really makes him special."

Manchego wins Maxie Lee

Similarly, three-time Breeders Crown champion Manchego ($4.20) lived up to favored billing in the $100,000 Maxie Lee Memorial Trot, cascading off third-over cover for a 1:51.3 win, the fastest mile ever trotted by a filly or mare in the 16-year history of Harrah's Philadelphia.

the Arthur Cutler Memorial at The Meadowlands, Manchego was able to benefit from a covered trip and a closer-friendly track bias in the Lee. Fellow millionaire Guardian Angel As controlled a :55.3 first half before facing sustained pressure from 2019 Hambletonian winner Forbidden Trade up the backstretch and past three-quarters in 1:23.1. As the duel raged on through the final turn, Dexter Dunn swung Manchego four-wide in preparation for the sprint home. Once given racetrack, the 6-year-old Muscle Hill—Secret Magic mare lifted to the lead, scooting away in the final yards to win by a widening two lengths. Lindy The Great (Andy Miller) emerged from traffic for a narrow second over Forbidden Trade (Bob McClure).

"We changed tactics with her halfway through last year because she was starting to over-race and not finishing the miles off," Dunn said. "Once we did that, she's just really been doing what you want her to do. There was speed early and found a good helmet to follow. She really is (spectacular). I'm so lucky to sit behind her, really. She's just amazing. I moved her over in the stretch and she just took off. For a trotter to have speed like that, it's really nice to sit behind."

Fast fractions and sustained pressure took their toll on 8-5 choice Soho Burning Love A and paved the way for Keep Rockin A ($9.60) and Brian Sears to cascade to a 1:50.1 win in the $100,000 Betsy Ross mares pace.

After Soho Burning Love A brushed to command beyond a :26.3 first quarter, Sears angled Keep Rockin A into live third-over cover nearing a :53.4 half. The 5-year-old Rock N Roll Heaven—Kept For Pleasure mare was towed into striking range as JK First Lady ground her way alongside Soho Burning Love A through a :28 third split, and then kicked cover off the home turn before lifting to a 1-1/2-length triumph as the pace imploded. Snobbytown (Yannick Gingras), the longest shot in the race at 47-1, rallied from last to claim second over Machnhope (Andy McCarthy), another 1-1/4 lengths in arrears.

"It just worked out perfect," said trainer Richard 'Nifty'

Norman. "There were great fractions and good cover, and she's a stone closer. So, it worked out awesome. Jimmy (King Jr.) had her and raced her at Yonkers, and I think she just didn't like the Yonkers thing. As soon as we got her on the big track, she loved it. I watched her race in Australia before Rich bought her and she showed being a closer. The way it all worked out for her today, it was good."

Keep Rockin A, a seven-time winner with earnings of over $156,000, campaigns for Richard Poillucci.

Racing returns to Harrah's Philadelphia today with a 12-race Memorial Day (May 31) card; post time is 12:40 p.m. EDT.

3-year-old pacing colts and geldings at Harrah's Philadelphia. Southwind Gendry ($5.00) delivered an equally decisive 1:51 score in the $76,729 second division.

Abuckabett Hanover stalked patiently from third while Literl Lad Hanover and Chase H Hanover disputed early splits of :27.3 and :56.2. With Literl Lad Hanover in control up the backstretch, Andy McCarthy angled Abuckabett Hanover first-over with three-eighths to go, and the son of Betting Line—All Tucked Up surged to the lead just beyond the 1:24.2 three-quarter split. Abuckabett Hanover vaulted to a 2-1/2-length advantage through the far turn and passed the winning post under wraps, three lengths better than rallying runner-up Gamblin Mo (Tyler Buter) in 1:51.1. Red Right Hand (Todd McCarthy), who was towed out of last via third-over cover, finished third, another 3-1/2 lengths behind.

"We were extremely happy with his effort today," trainer Tony Alagna said of Abuckabett Hanover. "We were glad to not have to race against Perfect Sting today, but look forward to an exciting season."

Abuckabett Hanover campaigns for Crawford Farms Racing, Alagna Racing, Jablonsky Held Stable and Barber N Wienick Stable. The Betting Line colt now has won seven of his 15 starts to date, and has earned over $230,000 in his career.

In the second split, Southwind Gendry and driver Yannick Gingras avenged a May 16 defeat to One Eight Hundred, turning aside a stout challenge from that rival on the far turn en route to a powerful three-length win.

The son of Always B Miki—Gambler's Passion rated a :56.4 first half before accelerating up the backstretch in preparation for a challenge from One Eight Hundred, who sustained an uncovered push out of fifth to engage the pacesetter on the far turn. Southwind Gendry responded to his rival's bid off the home turn, kicking clear to record his 12th win in 16 career starts. Hellabalou (Andy McCarthy) rode the pocket to a second-place finish; Billy Clyde (Mark MacDonald) gained off stalling cover for third.

Ron Burke trains Southwind Gendry for Burke Racing Stable, Phil Collura, Knox Services and J&T Silva-Purnel & Libby.

A 1:51.4 mile from South Beach Star (Todd McCarthy) was good for top honors across eight Stallion Series divisions, and was one of two stakes winners for trainer Brett Pelling — the other being Whichwaytothebeach (Andy McCarthy, 1:53.3). Simon Says Hanover (Scott Zeron, 1:52.3) and Rockyroad Hanover (Dexter Dunn, 1:52.4) gave Alagna two further stakes winners on the program, while Always A Miki (Dunn, 1:53.3), Bettor Not Talk (George Napolitano Jr., 1:52.4), Rifleman (Dunn, 1:52.4) and Boiler Maker (Tim Tetrick, 1:53.3) rounded out the octet of Stallion Series winners.

Total handle for the Sunday program, which also featured three $100,000 invitational events for older horses, was $1,170,968, the second best handle in Harrah's Philadelphia history behind the record of $1,382,824.
