Creditors hound Hawthorne Race Course as liens exceed $5 million

by Neil Milbert

Illinois

For the third time in six months, Hawthorne Race Course has made the front page of the Chicago Tribune. The latest came over the Memorial Day weekend.

But, like the earlier stories on Dec. 19 and April 12, the May 25 article by Robert McCoppin didn't have anything to do with what was happening on the track itself.

Instead, it again put the focus on the major problems confronting the track and the people who race their horses there.

The story revealed that liens totaling in excess of $5 million have been filed either against Hawthorne or its owners, Carey Heirs Properties LLC.

"The debt calls further into question whether Hawthorne can get financing to build a planned racetrack/casino combination, known as a racino," McCoppin wrote. "Hawthorne officials said they settled one of the claims, and plan to pay off the debt as soon as they get financing for the project. Track president Tim Carey repeatedly has promised financing was in the works and construction would begin soon, but after nearly five years, it has yet to happen."

According to the Tribune story:

- General contractor W.E. O'Neil Construction Co. in 2022 filed a lien and a lawsuit claiming breach of contract for an agreed debt of $5 million that Hawthorne "refused to pay." O'Neill and several subcontractors were hired in 2020 and did $12 million in demolition work in preparation for the construction of a casino at the track. Now, O'Neil claims it's owed the unpaid $5 million, plus 12 per cent annual interest and attorney's fees, equaling $107,000 by the end of 2022 and accruing an additional $1,400 each day.
- Another contractor, Milburn Demolition, has filed a lien seeking $430,000 for work it performed.

- Gurtz Electric Co. has filed a lien claiming it is owed $1.1 million.

Contacted by Harness Racing Update for comment, Carey released a statement that reiterated his commitment to the racino project and emphasized that the liens wouldn't be an obstacle.

The statement is as follows:

"As shared with the Illinois Gaming Board, Hawthorne is in the advanced execution phase of a $400 million financing with an investor that will make the Hawthorne Racino development a reality.

"Hawthorne has a multi-million credit facility with its bank, similar to thousands of businesses across the country. Those proceeds have been used to help rebuild harness and thoroughbred horse racing in Illinois, while also funding the expansion development so far.

"The lines of credit as well as the unfunded agreements with the former general contractor are intended to be repaid in the scope of this soon-to-be-completed financing.

"All of this work and the significant capital race is being done to benefit the future of horse racing."

A 2019 law enacted by the Illinois legislature and signed by Gov. J.B. Pritzker permits the state's racetracks to add casino gambling with 3 per cent of the proceeds earmarked for racing purses, thereby upgrading the quality of racing and making the product more attractive, both at the track and in the North American simulcast marketplace.

It seemed at the time that Illinois racing had a bright future.

But the best of times became the worst of times because corporate owner Churchill Downs, Inc. discontinued racing at the world-renowned thoroughbred track Arlington International Racecourse following its 2021 meeting to eliminate horse racing and casino gambling competition for nearby Rivers Casino, the state's most profitable casino, in which it had purchased a 62 per cent interest in 2018. The Arlington property was sold to the Chicago Bears and the NFL team in 2023 demolished the grandstand and clubhouse to lower its real estate tax bill.

Suddenly, because of Arlington's demise, Hawthorne and the people racing harness horses and thoroughbreds in the Chicago metropolitan area found themselves in a bind because the dual-purpose venue had become the only remaining track in the nation's third biggest sports market.

To control the incalculable damage, since 2022 Hawthorne and the horsepeople have worked out varying time-sharing arrangements with the breeds dividing the calendar year.

This year, the standardbreds concluded a meeting, that began last Sept. 9, on Feb. 12. The thoroughbreds took over on March 23 for a meeting that will run through Oct. 13. Then, the harness horses will return for an Oct.19-Dec. 30 meeting.

To provide more opportunities for the standardbreds, the Illinois Harness Horsemen's Association, Hawthorne and the Illinois

Department of Agriculture instituted a summer program of non-betting races at the State Fairgrounds in Springfield and DuQuoin. Hawthorne is funding the races through its purse account and additional money is coming from the Department of Agriculture's horse racing department.

This year's races were scheduled to begin on May 25 at Springfield but rain forced postponement of the card until Saturday (June 1). It will be the first of 30 such programs – 19 at Springfield and 11 at DuQuoin – laying the groundwork for the Hawthorne meeting. After recessing in August for five days of pari-mutuel racing at the Illinois State Fair in Springfield and three days of pari-mutuel racing at the DuQuoin State Fair, the non-betting races will resume in September and continue through Oct. 11.

Looking beyond the current year, a worst-case scenario would find Hawthorne having the same fate as Arlington and Hawthorne's former next-door neighbor, Sportsman's Park – the once popular harness and thoroughbred track – that went into bankruptcy following an ill-fated attempt to make it into a combination auto racing and thoroughbred venue. Sportsman's closed after its 2002 thoroughbred meeting, was demolished and remade into a liquor warehouse.

~ Tony Somone

The O’Neil Construction Co. complaint stated that if Hawthorne does not pay the amount it owes, the defendants could be found personally liable and the racetrack should be sold at auction with the proceeds used to pay its debts.

Carey doesn’t envision that happening.

“We’re doing everything we can,” Hawthorne’s president said. “We’re on the cusp [of finalizing the racino project financing].”

If Hawthorne were wiped off the map it would leave the thoroughbred track Fairmount Park in Collinsville, across the Mississippi River from St. Louis, as the only pari-mutuel venue in Illinois, putting standardbreds and thoroughbreds on the endangered species list in the state.

However, that seems unlikely because a new track or two almost certainly would be built to replace Hawthorne.

In 2023, Greenway Entertainment Group told the Illinois Senate executive committee that it wanted to build a $300 million harness racino on an 80-acre site in south suburban Richton Park.

Greenway Entertainment Group appealed to the legislature to eliminate the statutory boundary that prohibits a track to be built within 35 miles of an existing track; because Hawthorne in Stickney is less than that distance from Richton Park it has the right to veto any racetrack inside the boundary.

The Dec. 19 front page story in the Tribune amplified the frustration of members of the Illinois Harness Racing Association and the Illinois Thoroughbred Horsemen’s Association because of Hawthorne’s inability to make progress on the racino project, while the April 12 Page 1 story detailed the trip to the state capital in Springfield by IHHA leaders to push for elimination of the boundary rule.

IHHA members were hoping the legislature would do away with the boundary during the spring session that ended this week but no action was taken.

They are hoping that a bill will resurface in the fall veto session.

In the meantime, IHHA executive director Tony Somone said: “We’ll continue to do whatever we can to remedy this difficult situation we find ourselves in.”

The luck of the Irish bred

by Debbie Little

When trainer Robert Cleary brought Oakwood Ardan IR to the U.S. at the end of 2023, he thought he had found a nice overnight horse.

But Oakwood Ardan had other ideas.

Since crossing the pond, the Irish-bred 5-year-old gelded son of Sweet Lou—Trend Setter is eight-for-nine and just a neck shy of being perfect.

“Don’t get me wrong, I thought he could win non-winners of 2, 4, 6, that’s why I bought him; I didn’t think I was buying a high-end horse,” Cleary said.

Cleary, who moved to the U.S. from West Cork in Ireland 10 years before Oakwood Ardan, has always kept an eye on the racing scene back home.

“I go home for a week every Christmas, but I don’t touch any horses when I go home,” said the second-generation horseman.

“Don't get me wrong, I thought [Oakwood Ardan IR] could win non-winners of 2, 4, 6, that's why I bought him [to the U.S.]; I didn't think I was buying a high-end horse.”

~ Robert Cleary

“But I watch the replays from Ireland and England throughout the season. I have a lot of good friends over there, too, that I chit chat with.”

One of the horses who caught his eye was Oakwood Ardan.

“Well, I noticed him racing at 2, 3 and 4 in England and he always showed high speed,” Cleary said. “And I knew he was a well-bred horse because he was a half-brother to a good horse over here, Ideal Cowboy [p, 5, 1:49.1f $848,660].

“So, I made a call to purchase the horse in October of last year and the man that owned him wasn't super keen on selling him and he asked me for what I thought was a lot of money for the horse.”

Thinking back on that conversation now, Cleary said that asking price wouldn't be a lot for who the horse is now, but at that time, it seemed like too much.

“So, we didn't make a deal, but he asked me if I'd be willing to train him and I said, ‘For sure, I'd like the opportunity to train him,’” Cleary said. “So, he sent him over to me and he got acclimatized and when I got to training him fast, I realized there was a hell of an engine there. So, we qualified him twice. Both Andrew [McCarthy] and Jordan [Stratton] liked him.”

McCarthy sat behind Oakwood Ardan in his first qualifier at Harrah's Philadelphia on Nov. 28, while Stratton qualified him at The Meadowlands the following week.

Oakwood Ardan was set to make his first pari-mutuel start on Dec. 16, but with most of the top Big M drivers taking some time off, Cleary had to think outside the box.

“So, I thought about [James Haythornthwaite] that used to train and drive him in England and I asked him if he'd like to come and start the horse,” Cleary said. “It was short notice because it was Wednesday morning when I called and [Oakwood Ardan] was racing Saturday.”

Haythornthwaite did not pass up the opportunity to drive the horse again. He jumped on a plane, got to New Jersey, and got licensed.

“ I was extremely impressed [the first time I sat behind him]. I qualified him at Chester and just took him around the track and went a slow mile [1:56.4]. But he just gave me a really, really good feeling and I was just super impressed with him from Day 1. He just felt like the type of horse that whatever you asked him to do, he was going to do it for you.”

~ Andrew McCarthy

“I was very confident with the way he had trained and qualified that he would race really well that night,” Cleary said. “I didn’t expect him to have to go in [1]:50 and a piece in his first race, but I was really happy.”

Oakwood Ardan won in 1:50.4 with a final quarter of :25.3.

“I said, ‘Wow,’” Cleary said. “For a horse that’s not even tight yet, I thought it was a hell of a mile.”

Cleary felt certain that there would be more interest in Oakwood Ardan and that a sale was imminent.

“I just really wanted the horse to stay in my barn and Royal Wire Products [Bill Peshina] have been my main owner for the past seven years, so I put a call through to Bill, who had been watching his qualifiers, and Bill really liked the horse and we were fortunate enough to get a deal done,” Cleary said.

Following Oakwood Ardan’s aforementioned first start, McCarthy has been his partner on the track.

“I was extremely impressed [the first time I sat behind him],” McCarthy said. “I qualified him at Chester and just took him around the track and went a slow mile [1:56.4]. But he just gave me a really, really good feeling and I was just super impressed with him from Day 1. He just felt like the type of horse that whatever you asked him to do, he was going to do it for you.”

Cleary said when he first came to North America to work for Tony O’Sullivan, McCarthy was starting to drive for Alagna.

McCarthy said driving for Cleary is terrific.

“You know, he’s a stand-up guy that really, really cares about his horses and he wants you to drive with that in mind and I really appreciate that,” McCarthy said. “It kind of suits my style. There’s no pressure. He just pretty much wants you to race the horse the way that you think without abusing the horse, bringing back a horse for next week. And I think that really suits both of us.”

To date, one of Oakwood Ardan’s most impressive races was his lone loss, when he was beaten a neck by Red Right Hand. They went 1:50.3 on a sloppy track with a -2 variant with Oakwood Ardan coming home in :26.

“Oh, yeah, it was exceptional,” McCarthy said. “He actually pulled a hind shoe that night and came down on the toe clip, so, he came out of that race a little bit sore in one foot. So, to do what he did with those circumstances was truly incredible.”

Oakwood Ardan took off about two months following that loss, but when he came back, he went right back to winning.

On May 18 at The Meadowlands, Oakwood Ardan won his sixth race of the year, and second straight off that two-month layoff. It was a particularly special night for Cleary, who won the following race with the 6-year-old gelding Churchviewfrankl, another Irish bred.

“Churchviewfrankl was a champion in Ireland and England at 2, 3 and 4,” Cleary said. “He won the Breeders Crown [UK & Ireland] at 2, 3 and 4 and basically every other stakes race the horse was ever in. I thought he was the best horse over there ever to get exported, to be honest with you.”

Both horses are in to go on Saturday (June 1) at The Meadowlands, when Oakwood Ardan will face his toughest test since coming to the U.S. In race 10, he drew post 6 in a non-winners of $20,000 in their last 4, with Primary Colors, Nicholas Beach and Allyway Hanover outside him, respectively, in the nine-horse field.

When it was mentioned to Cleary that Oakwood Ardan would be swimming with the sharks this week, “He’ll be okay, he’s got sharp teeth.” was his response.

Oakwood Ardan is the 5-2 favorite on John Rallis’ morning line.

“He’s pretty exciting,” said McCarthy of Oakwood Ardan. “He’s been beating good horses, but he’s still got to take that next step. So, we’ll just take it one week at a time.”

Unlike their Down Under counterparts, horses bred in Ireland and Great Britain have not grabbed as much attention, but Cleary thinks that may not be the case moving forward and that’s good news for a trainer whose barn is currently built on Irish breds.

“It seems like in the past six, seven, eight years, the top sires from America are available to the mares in Ireland and that looks like it has changed the game,” Cleary said. “You have Always B Miki, Sweet Lou, Tattoo Artist, and some more top sires available with frozen semen over there.

“So now you have the availability of the top American sires and the biggest thing is Irish people have some patience. They all don’t race at 2; they all don’t go fast at 2. It’s a great climate to race horses over there. They get the best limestone grass and the horses are healthy and strong when they come over here and it makes a big difference.”

Double Hall of Famer Ray Remmen celebrated his birthday on May 28. In those now 77 years, "The Chief" has touched or influenced many, in any/all facets of the industry. I caught up with a few of Remmen's contemporaries – most of who violated my "two to three sentences please directive" – to see what they had to say to and about the birthday boy.

Rod Allen: "Ray had the best Hambo parties on the backstretch. Happy 77th!"

Brad McNinch: "He is the epitome of integrity, class and horsemanship. When you think of The Meadowlands and when it was at its peak of success, you have to think of Ray Remmen as one of the leaders of the pack."

Ellen Harvey: "In any organization it is important for the lead person to set a good example, to act and react in the way that you want those who follow you to do. Ray is the ultimate example of setting the tone for a professional and successful stable. He is professional, courteous and always a pleasure to deal with. I think he should have as much cake as he wants and everybody else will follow."

David Smith: "Ray is the definition of class when you talk about harness racing. The consummate professional, that you couldn't find anybody to have a bad word about him. The last of the great trainer/drivers."

Joann Looney King: "Kind, generous and always pleasant to people, and on top of that, he's a great horseman. Definitely a credit to the horse business."

“He is the epitome of integrity, class and horsemanship. When you think of The Meadowlands and when it was at its peak of success, you have to think of Ray Remmen as one of the leaders of the pack.”

~ Brad McNinch

Paul Macchia: “A true gentleman who was very media friendly. Open and honest about a horse’s fitness and condition, and he never offered any excuses if his horse was a favorite and didn’t win. Respected by his peers in the driver colony. I remember one time I overheard a couple of horsemen talking about rigging. ‘That’s a tough one, ask Remmen.’”

George Napolitano: “Yes sir a class act. When I went to The Meadowlands for my first year he had a very powerful stable and it continued for years. What a great trainer he was.”

Andrea Pietrzak: “I remember my time at Sportsman’s Park. Interviewing Ray was like taking a master course in harness racing. His knowledge and experience were second to none. He was also a very open and personable professional who kept the Prairie creed of ‘Hard work begets success.’”

Jerry Glantz: “I met Ray several times when I was selling horses as an agent and he was the consummate gentleman. Professional and honest. I always admired his horsemanship and the barn he and his brother ran. A credit to the game. There are very few like Ray remaining in our game. Happy Birthday!”

John Kopas: “All I can say is that he is the consummate horseman and a truly fine person. Ray is quite witty and has the art of sarcasm perfected.”

Brad Grant: “Ray is the rare person who is a true gentleman and a character by nature.”

Mark MacDonald: “One of the greatest ever. I mean Beach Towel was the original ‘Beach.’ Everyone forgets what a great horse he was and all the big races Ray won with that guy.”

John Campbell: “My friend for over 50 years and one of my best ones. The consummate and professional horseman, trainer and driver. Somebody I not only respected but somebody who I learned from when I was starting and throughout my career. Nothing but respect for the career that Ray and Larry had and how they conducted their business. His Hall of Fame induction says it all. We stay in touch to this day and have dinner periodically. It’s a friendship I treasure and will always continue.”

Jackie Wing: “Ray is kind and thoughtful. He is a great father. He always spent time with his daughters and grandkids.”

~ John Campbell

Hector Clouthier: “It is rather significant that Ray Remmen is turning 77. Sevens are cherished as emblematic of good luck. The horse racing industry can count itself lucky to have Ray in our midst. To put it plainly Ray is a ‘quiet ‘superstar. His journey from a sparsely populated province [Saskatchewan] in Western Canada to being a major player at The Meadowlands is a thing of legend. His Hall of Fame career has seen him win both the Hambletonian and the Little Brown Jug and that was the era of drivers/trainers and Ray was all of that in both those historic wins. To be candid, Ray would always say he was supported in his training duties by his younger brother Larry who in his own right was a superb trainer. Ray has an engaging smile that is both engaging and impish. Do not take that as a sign of his being nonchalant; he was a fierce competitor on the track. Ray epitomizes everything that is good and decent about horse racing. It gives me great pleasure to wish my longtime friend Happy Birthday!”

Dave Palone: “Ray was just a terrific horseman. His resume speaks for itself. I think people are going to remember the Hambo and Beach Towel. But I think, if I remember correctly, that when I was up there [in the mid to late 1980s] they became the first stable at the track to win 1,000 races when it meant something. Believe me I was on that track every morning and you were not going to outwork him or Larry, two great guys.”

Jimmy Cruise, Jr.: “A great horseman and gentleman. Happy Birthday Ray!”

Jacqueline Ingrassia: “Here’s wishing Ray Remmen the Happiest of Birthdays. A great horseman with unmatched integrity.”

Last, but far from least, Howard Perlmutter: “I was fortunate to have seen Ray, and his brothers Larry and Gord, in his and their heyday. They attracted some of the finest owners in the industry because their talent may have been exceeded by honesty, class, soft spokenness and humility. Some outfits may have been known as ‘Mr. Saturday Night’ but Ray and Larry were ‘Mr. Every Night’ for well over a decade amidst the most competitive driver/trainer combinations ever assembled at The Big M. I will never forget Ray’s win with his first Hambo starter Shiaway St Pat, his dominance with great trotting mare Duchess Faye, and naturally with Seth Rosenfeld’s Beach Towel capturing the Pace parked every step outlasting the charges of Jake And Elwood and Scoot Outa Reach. My memories of Ray will always be numerous, be it when Ray and Larry took over from Howard Beissinger with Halcyon, as well as driving really nice horses such as Alaskan Strike, Serpico Hanover, Mighty Sail, Casanova King, English Tutor, Paulsboro, Hug A Bear or even Tire Man for longtime owner John Lichtenberger. Ray never needed to pick up any catch drives, but he was certainly in the right place, right time in the 1985 Woodrow Wilson driving Lee Broglio’s Grade One, who nosed out the well-meant Michael Jonathan in a downright thriller. Honestly there are way too many moments and horses when it comes to Ray. It’s certain he will always have his place firmly etched in Meadowlands lore.”

In conclusion, I don’t know if Ray Remmen is the most well-liked or the most respected person in the industry. I do know he’s, at the very least, tied for first.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Justin Van Otterloo's key to success is not sweating the small stuff

by Chris Lomon

Whenever Justin Van Otterloo has encountered question marks in his career, he's always come up with winning answers.

The Van Otterloo name has been a familiar one in U.S. Midwest racing for decades.

Justin's father, Warren, and uncles, Merlin and Nolan, along with his aunt, Kim, and grandfather, Harvey, have each made their mark in the sport, including in Iowa and Minnesota.

Growing up at the racetracks throughout his home state, Justin mucked stalls, groomed, and drove in fairs as a teenager.

After contemplating a career as a truck driver, he decided the standardbred life was indeed for him.

Three-plus years ago, after the Running Aces racing season reached the wire, Justin headed to Kentucky to work in the barn of trainer Justin Anfinson.

It turned out to be a win-win for both horsemen as Anfinson took home the leading trainer title. Justin worked for the conditioner in 2021 before returning to Iowa to ponder the next chapter in his career.

Last year, 2023, he worked for DanJer Farm and trainer Dan Roland.

The role enabled Justin to get more fair drives and qualifying drives.

Eventually, it led to a racing opportunity in California.

Justin had considered the idea before, the one where he would bring a band of horses to Sacramento and take a shot at competing in the Golden State.

This past winter, the native Iowan decided to give it a go.

Admittedly, he had some trepidation about going.

"I had planned to go to Cal-Expo the year before, but I decided to take the winter off and relax," Justin said. "The summer was long and exhausting, so I wanted to have that downtime.

“The first couple of starts when I was in California, I tended to overthink and maybe question myself too much. Now, it’s to a point where I can bring a horse to the paddock and it feels very natural, where I am not stressing out about the smallest things. Of course, you are always nervous ahead of a race, but when you prepare your horse the best you can, then you feel more at ease about everything. You have that mindset.”

~ Justin Van Otterloo

“This past year, I decided to make that jump to Cal-Expo. The horses [owned by Wilda McDanel] just kind of fell into my lap. It was a place to learn as both a trainer and a driver.”

While his California adventure didn’t start on a winning note, he would find success there.

On Feb. 2, he teamed with Anitas Red Rebel, a Pacific Renegade bred and owned by McDanel, for a wire-to-wire score.

Just over one week later, the duo was back in the winner’s circle, a victory that delivered the five-year-old pacing mare a new speed badge.

By the time he departed Cal-Expo, Justin had posted four wins, along with three seconds and a trio of thirds from 51 starts.

Most importantly, he headed home feeling more confident than he ever had.

“It was nerve-wracking at first,” he said. “Now that I have done it for a while, and seeing how things went at Cal-Expo, I don’t have to be as nervous. When I first had these horses, I was nervous and cautious, wanting to do everything right.

Courtesy Justin Van Otterloo

“It fell into place and went smoothly; it was a big jump to go out on my own. It’s a different learning curve than anything else I have done so far in racing.”

Justin was grateful for the encouraging words – plenty of them – that he heard from other horsepeople at the California oval.

“Hearing people say, ‘Your barn is doing well, and your horses are doing great,’ means a lot,” Justin said. “It’s a big confidence booster and it makes you feel 100 times better that you are doing something right. It tells you that you are doing the things that need to be done to be successful.”

It’s one reason why he was looking forward to the 2024 Running Aces season, which began on May 19 and runs until Sept. 21.

Justin has four horses, namely, Anitas Red Rebel and 4-year-old trotter Omaha Storm Chaser (also owned by McDanel) and a pair of 2-year-old Minnesota-breds in his barn.

“The first couple of starts when I was in California, I tended to overthink and maybe question myself too much,” he said. “Now, it’s to a point where I can bring a horse to the paddock and it feels very natural, where I am not stressing out about the smallest things. Of course, you are always nervous ahead of a race, but when you prepare your horse the best you can, then you feel more at ease about everything. You have that mindset.”

He also has goals.

“I was hoping to make $20,000 in purse money for both driving and training combined when I was in California,” he said. “I wanted to set the goal and reach it.”

Justin was happy to have missed that target.

“I wound up leaving there with just over $20,000 [$20,576] as a trainer and $18,000 [$18,910] as a driver,” he said. “I want the barn to excel and keep building throughout the season. If I reach a certain purse amount, I’ll bump it up another $10,000 and see if we can achieve that. I want to get my name out there and hopefully people will take notice of what I can do.”

The horseman, whose version of California dreaming turned out better than he could have ever imagined, is more at ease, career-wise, than he has ever been.

That he can keep pace – either himself or through his horses – with his contemporaries is no longer a concern.

“In a short time, being able to be competitive against some top stables – all the big-name operations that have very nice stock – is something that I am proud of,” Justin said. “It’s enjoyable to know that my horses can compete against some nice ones. Having that confidence to know that I belong out there and that I can do it, that’s a good feeling.”

Life is also good away from the racetrack.

Although it is a four-hour drive from home during the racing season in Minnesota, he has plenty to keep himself occupied.

“I play video games,” he said. “I like going to car races or just hanging out with my friends. But I also like to get back home to visit my family and friends.”

And when he does head back to Iowa, odds are he will have more winning tales to share.

“I am happy with how things have gone so far this year,” he said. “The goal now is to keep that momentum going and keep raising the bar.”

Buy A Round seeks NJSS title repeat

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Buy A Round will be looking to make it a double this weekend at The Meadowlands.

A New Jersey Sire Stakes champion last year at age 2, the Noel Daley-trained filly will go for her second title tonight (May 31) when she faces nine rivals in this season's $240,000 final for 3-year-old female trotters. All 10 finalists are eligible to the $500,000 Hambletonian Oaks on Aug. 3 at The Big M.

On the boys' side, returning Dan Patch Award-winner Karl is the 1-5 morning-line favorite in the $240,000 NJSS championship for 3-year-old male trotters. Nine of the 10 finalists in that race are eligible to the $1 million Hambletonian, also Aug. 3 at The Meadowlands.

Buy A Round enters tonight's start having hit the board in all 11 of her career races, winning seven and earning $378,100 for breeder/owner Frederick Hertrich III. She will leave from post 8 with driver Andy McCarthy and is the 3-1 second choice on the morning line.

Spy Coast, who is three-for-three this year and won her two NJSS prelims by a total of 5¼ lengths for driver Yannick Gingras and trainer Ron Burke, is the 5-2 favorite. She will leave from post 3.

Buy A Round won her first NJSS prelim by three-quarters of a length over Volcanic Blue Chip in 1:55.1, then was second in the second round as Glamorous Hanover posted a 1:52.3 victory. Buy A Round was fifth for most of the mile before rallying for second with a race-best :26.4 last quarter.

Buy A Round (Andrew McCarthy) winning a New Jersey Sires Stakes event on May 11 at The Meadowlands.

"She's been very good," Daley said about the daughter of Walner—On Your Tab. "She just got a little too far out of it last week. She's very versatile, [McCarthy] can really do what he wants with her, he just didn't want to come first-over with her. He got stuck behind one that was too far back, and they just got away from her last week. I'm sure he won't be as far back with her this week."

In addition to winning last year's NJSS championship, Buy A Round won divisions of the Bluegrass and International Stallion stakes, as well as her elimination for the Breeders Crown. She was third in the Breeders Crown final, beaten by a neck.

As for the group the filly will face tonight, Daley said, "They're a strong group."

"Personally, I think Buy A Round is the best of them, but definitely not dominant there," he said. "Any of a handful can win with the right trip."

One of the handful includes Daley's second participant in the race, Miss I La. She was second in both of her NJSS prelims. The daughter of Walner—Southwind Venus will have Joe Bongiorno in the sulky, leaving from post 2. The Ken Jacobs-owned filly is 12-1 on the morning line.

Bongiorno drove Miss I La twice last year, winning a preliminary round of the Kindergarten Classic Series and finishing fourth from post 10 in the event's final.

"She's improving, and she will keep getting better, I think," Daley said. "She has been excellent to deal with here at home. She does everything right. Right now, she's probably not quite as fast as Buy A Round, but she's beautiful to drive. She can definitely trip out and surprise there.

"We might make a few changes on her. I might close her up a little bit, I might even take some shoes off her, just to help her a little bit, give her that little extra. I think if you can time it right where you just have a short, sharp, burst at them, she will sprint with them. I think barring something crazy going wrong, Buy A Round and Miss I La will both be in the picture there."

Daley captured both NJSS championships for 2-year-old trotters in 2023, with Sig Sauer winning the event for the boys. Daley opted to skip this year's NJSS with the colt as he looks ahead to the Hambletonian.

Last year, Sig Sauer won his first four races before going off stride in the fifth, a division of the Bluegrass Stakes. It was his final start of the campaign. This past Saturday, the son of Muscle

Hill—Sigilwig took his first steps toward his return by winning a qualifier in 1:55.3 at The Meadowlands.

"I was in two minds whether to have him ready for the sire stakes; I decided not to," Daley said. "I've basically decided, all things being good, to go into the Hambo on his fourth or fifth start. We decided to forego doing battle this early in the piece with Karl.

"I was very happy with him at The Meadowlands [Saturday]. He seemed like he had a few manners there, which was good because he can be a little tough to deal with."

Karl, the No. 1-ranked horse in Meadowlands analyst/announcer Ken Warkentin's "Road to the Hambletonian," is a nose from being unbeaten in 12 career races. He did not participate in last year's NJSS, but won the Breeders Crown, Valley Victory Stakes, Kindergarten Classic Series final, a division of the Bluegrass, and the Kentucky Sire Stakes Championship Series.

After winning his two NJSS prelims this year by a total of 10¾ lengths, the son of Tactical Landing—Avalicious will leave from post 7 with Gingras driving for trainer Nancy Takter. He has earned $1.07 million lifetime for owner Christina and Nancy Takter, Black Horse Racing, Crawford Farms Racing, and Bender Sweden Inc.

Racing begins at 6:20 p.m. (EDT) at The Meadowlands. For free TrackMaster programs for The Big M, click here.

Venerate sets stakes and track record in Maxie Lee Memorial

Scott Zeron kept Venerate reserved off a blistering pace, went wide in the lane and trotted the fastest mile in the history of Harrah's Philadelphia, 1:50.1, in winning the $100,000 Maxie Lee Memorial Invitational Trot Sunday (May 26) afternoon.

The clocking knocked a fifth of a second off the former record of Market Share and Hillexotic, who recorded their record clockings in the 2014 and 2023 Lee, respectively.

Hillexotic and Take All Comers went out flying, with the latter making the top and then hanging out the upstart Benjamin Hanover past a :26.1 quarter. Benjamin Hanover continued on to the half in :54.1, but surrendered to Hillexotic when that one went to the lead by the 1:21.4 three-quarters.

Amigo Volo was on the back of Hillexotic, and on Amigo Volo's back was Venerate, who went wide into the stretch, trotted up to take over, then held off the heavy favorite Dover In Motion, who also was out in the cover flow. Venerate, sent off at 13-1, was able to keep the chalk behind him by 1½ lengths at the finish, with Amigo Volo and Hillexotic next in line at the wire.

Venerate was the winner of the Mohawk Million at 2, but the 6-year-old has been a bit in-and-out since his big year at 2. The 1:50.1 equaled his fastest time, set in his only win last year at The Meadowlands.

Venerate comes from the power-packed barn of Marcus Melander, and is owned by Courant Inc., Holly Lane Stud East LTD, Kempfi Stables Oy Inc., and Venerate Partners.

"He raced super," Melander said. "He got a good trip, and he looked good. He raced really good in the Cutler, too, he just got way back and they all sprinted home pretty fast. He's coming along great. He needed a couple of starts and now it looks like he's getting back in form here. I'm looking forward to the rest of the season with him.

"He probably will have the Crawford Farms [Open Trot] at the end of June next. He's raced for three weeks in a row, so he deserves a little break."

Zeron praised Melander after the race, saying, "You did a great job with him this past week," referring to his fourth-place finish in his most recent start in the Cutler at The Meadowlands in relation to his track record mile.

Ruthless Hanover repeats in Auger; Twin B Joe Fresh impressive in Betsy Ross at Philly

After winning the inaugural Joseph Auger Memorial Invitational for older male pacers last year with a world-record 1:46.3 effort, Ruthless Hanover returned to Harrah's Philadelphia on Sunday (May 26) to capture the event again, this time with a 1:47.2 score as he held off Ken Hanover by a half-length. Coaches Corner finished third.

Two races earlier, 4-year-old female pacer Twin B Joe Fresh put in a dominant performance to win the $100,000 Betsy Ross Invitational by nearly 7 lengths in a stakes- and track-record 1:48.2.

In the Auger, Coaches Corner took the field to the opening quarter in :26.3 before driver Andy McCarthy pushed forward with Ruthless Hanover and claimed the top position on the way to a half in :54. Ruthless Hanover, the 4-5 favorite, rolled to three-quarters in 1:20 and fended off Ken Hanover in the stretch to win for the second time in two starts this season for trainer Tom Cancelliere.

"He really likes to roll on the backstretch," McCarthy said. "It worked out where I didn't have to use him that hard to get to the top. We went a half in :54, but it was a pretty rated half, so I decided to turn him loose on the backstretch and play catch me if you can.

"I was just trying to keep him feeling good about himself. He's a very, very fast horse and usually when he races, he races very hard. Tommy is doing a great job to keep him ready and fit and able to race like that."

Ruthless Hanover, a 7-year-old gelding, is owned by John Cancelliere. The son of Somebeachsomewhere—Rockaroundthetrack was bred by Hanover Shoe Farms. He has won 24 of 56 career races and earned $633,495.

In his first start of the season on May 19, Ruthless Hanover won in 1:47.1 at Philly with McCarthy in the sulky.

"Any horse that can go that fast is a fun horse to drive," McCarthy said. "He's got a lot of horsepower there. He's a thrill."

Ruthless Hanover paid $3.60 to win in the Auger.

Twin B Joe Fresh made it look easy in the $100,000 Betsy Ross Invitational for older female pacers, winning by 6¾ lengths in a stakes- and track-record 1:48.2 for driver Dexter Dunn and trainer Chris Ryder. Always B Naughty got the nod in a photo for second, edging Coachellabound N.

Lit De Rose led the field to the opening quarter in :26.3, but her advantage was short-lived as Twin B Joe Fresh took over the top spot with five-eighths-of-a-mile to go. She posted fractions of :55 to the half and 1:22.2 to three-quarters on her way to victory.

"It's not the first time she's given us a great race, but it's exciting to see her come back so well straight away," Ryder said. "It was very exciting to see her open up as strongly as she did today. I pinch myself, she's such a good horse.

"People say you're doing a good job, but she's the horse. She's terrific."

Twin B Joe Fresh finished second against male rivals in her seasonal debut on May 19 at Philly.

"She needed the race," Ryder said. "I don't like to drill her too much at home. She's a heavy mare, carries a lot of weight, so the race helped her a lot and here we are. It's racing time."

Twin B Joe Fresh has won 20 of 29 career races and earned $1.49 million for owners Ryder, Dunn, Peter Trebotica, and Barry Spak. The daughter of Roll With Joe—Fresh Breeze was bred by Brittany Farms.

Her winning time in the Betsy Ross set the track record for a 4-year-old pacing mare, which was shared previously by Caviart Ally and Max Contract.

Twin B Joe Fresh, the 1-5 favorite, paid $2.60 to win.

South Beach Star wins Senditin Invitational

South Beach Star won for the second time in three starts this season, capturing the $50,000 SendItIn Philadelphia Invitational by 1¼ lengths in 1:48.2 for driver David Miller and trainer Mark Silva. Backstreet Shadow finished second and Maximus Miki was third.

For his career, South Beach Star has won 27 of 75 races and earned $429,494. The 6-year-old gelding is owned by All Star Racing. The son of Somebeachsomewhere—Higher And Higher was bred by Daryl Bier and Charles Dombeck.

Sent off as the 5-2 third choice, South Beach Star paid $7 to win.

Admiral Hill authoritative in Kentucky Sire Stakes opener

Avenging his traffic-burdened third-place finish in the $100,000 Kentucky Sire Stakes final, Admiral Hill left nothing to fate and muscled home a 1:51.1 winner in the $50,000 opening preliminary of another Kentucky Sire Stakes series on Monday (May 27) at Oak Grove.

Leaving from post 2, driver Yannick Gingras floated forward with Admiral Hill as Tip Top Cat (Todd McCarty) and Blue Lou (Brandon Bates) forged towards the front into a :27.2 first quarter. Once Tip Top Cat made his brush for the lead, Gingras pulled Admiral Hill and circled to the helm through a :56 half to force his competition into his court.

A Cool Moment (Tony Hall) pulled first over moving for the backside with El Rey (David Miller) in tow and made steady gains after Admiral Hill, who stayed chilly on the point past three-quarters in 1:24. Through the final turn, A Cool Moment intensified pressure on Admiral Hill, but once Gingras shook up the 1-5 favorite to enter the next gear for the straightaway, Admiral Hill turned away A Cool Moment and strode in a 1¾-length winner with El Rey rallying off cover for third and Tip Top Cat taking fourth.

Winning his 13th race from 31 starts, Admiral Hill has now banked $384,008. Per Engblom trains the 4-year-old Sweet Lou gelding for owner Morrison Racing Stables and paid $2.64 to win.

French Wine (Daniel Dube) took top honors from the three $50,000 KYSS splits for 4-year-old horses and geldings with the fastest clocking of the divisions, a 1:53.3 stroll from pillar-to-post as the 2-5 choice.

Dube protected position from the pylon post to pocket Prince Of Honor (Todd McCarthy) moving to a :27.2 first quarter. From there, no challengers loomed, leaving French Wine to coast to a :57 half and then hit the accelerator to three-quarter in 1:25.2. Prince Of Honor started creeping out of the pocket through the final turn but levelled off on the spin for home while French Wine cruised under wraps to a 1¼-length win. Morning Edition (David Miller) gave chase in third, beaten another 5 lengths, with Drink Up Drink Up (Brandon Bates) fourth.

Julie Miller trains French Wine, a stallion by Bar Hopping, for owners Andy Miller Stable Inc., Daniel Plouffe, Jean Plouffe and One Legend Stable Inc. He won his 10th race from 32 starts, has now earned $1,081,694 and paid $2.84 to win.

Ari Ferrari J (Yannick Gingras) rebounded from a break in stride as the 1-5 choice in his last KYSS showing to snatch the opening leg with a 1:54.1 front-stepping effort in the second division.

Gingras asserted Ari Ferrari J for the front and cleared command after a :27.1 skirmish for control. Once planted on top, Ari Ferrari J settled to a :56.4 half and braced for the challenge of 3-5 favorite Once In A Lifetime (Todd McCarthy) as he emerged from third to lay aim on the leader. Ari Ferrari J stayed resolute on the lead as Once In A Lifetime inched closer through three-quarters in 1:25.2 to then match strides with the leader in the final turn. But Once In A Lifetime folded in the straightaway while Ari Ferrari J fought forward and edged to a length win. Sparks Fly (David Miller) gave chase off a pocket ride to take third and Country Dagger (Andy McCarthy) survived a wide trip for fourth.

A stallion by Walner, Ari Ferrari J won his seventh race from 33 starts and has now earned $823,681 for owner Kenneth Jacobs. Tony Alagna trains the $10.26 winner.

Djimon (David Miller) similarly rebounded off a break in stride when competing in the $100,000 KYSS final to chock the winning punch in the final division for trotting males.

Miller pushed Djimon into third as the 2-5 favorite The Hazelton (Yannick Gingras) powered to take over the lead past a :27.1 first quarter from Full Strength (Andy McCarthy), who yielded for the pocket. The Hazelton did not slow once in command, clocking a heated half in :55.3 before trying to grab a breather into the third quarter. But while The Hazelton tried to catch his breath through three-quarters in 1:25.2, Miller came charging with Djimon and motored to the lead off the final turn. Djimon reached with ease for the line to stop the clock in 1:54.4 and a length better than Brodeur (Tony Hall) closing for second. The Hazelton faded to third and Full Strength settled for fourth.

Mark Steacy trains Djimon, a gelded son of Tactical Landing, for owners Hudson Standardbred Stable Inc., Dale Larson and Stephen Downey. He won his eighth race from 29 starts, has earned $171,715 and paid $12.34 to win.

Following her KYSS sweep, Mambacita (Daniel Dube) opened the newest series seeking yet another sweep following a 1:53.2 brute-force effort in the lone division for trotting mares.

Dube pushed Mambacita for the front but faced a first-turn challenge from Muscling Vegas (David Miller), who crossed to the lead after a :27 first quarter. Once Muscling Vegas reached the pylons, Dube lunged Mambacita outside and charged her for the lead, which she cleared after a :55.2 half. Dube continued to keep Mambacita on task up the backside as Railee Something (Andy McCarthy) circled into second and perched onto the leader's helmet coming to three-quarters in 1:24.1. Railee Something swelled from the pocket through the final turn until McCarthy made the move to strike at the bottom of the corner, but Mambacita reached for the reserves and turned away the pocket pop by 1½ lengths to deliver as the odds-on choice. Picaboo Lady (Yannick Gingras) snagged third, beaten another 8 lengths, with Canterbury Hanover (Tony Hall) fourth.

Mambacita, undefeated from four starts this season, competes for owners Crawford Farms Racing, Alagna Racing LLC and Pryde Stables Inc. Tony Alagna trains the daughter of Tactical Landing who won her 15th race from 35 starts and has now earned $920,418. She paid $3.66 to win.

R Liza stays perfect in 2024 with OSS Gold victory

R Liza got the better of Willys Home Run again to take Monday's (May 27) lone Ontario Sires Stakes Gold division at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The first OSS Gold event of the season for 3-year-old trotting fillies attracted eight entrants for a $140,000 battle.

Defending champion Willys Home Run headlined the field Monday, coming in undefeated in Gold events after winning all five of last year's before a victory in the season finale Super Final. The reigning OSS champ was looking for revenge after R Liza won by a head in the SBOA final on May 11.

Willys Home Run went out to the lead and did all the roadwork on Monday evening. R Liza and driver Jody Jamieson got away right behind the leader and sat in that spot until early in the stretch drive. Willys Home Run cut out fractions of :27, :56.1 and 1:25.4 to set up the stretch duel.

R Liza edged ahead of Willys Home Run with a sixteenth of a mile to go and hit the wire first in 1:54.3. Willys Home Run had to settle for second again, this time by three-quarters of a length.

P L Rainbow Dash got up to the leaders late to finish third by only a length and a quarter.

R Liza is now a perfect three-for-three to start her sophomore season for trainer Susie Kerwood. The daughter of Muscle Mass won four of eight starts last season, earning just over $110,000.

The latest victory for R Liza gives her already $151,700 in earnings this season for owners M And L of Delaware and Alabama Harness Associates.

The next OSS Gold leg for three-year-old trotting fillies will take place on June 17 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Three series finals held at Scioto Downs

During a special Memorial Day card (May 27), three $30,000 finals were held at Eldorado Scioto Downs for Buckeye Stallion Series eligible horses who did not start in the first leg of the Ohio Sires Stakes.

First up was the Overcomer for horse and gelding trotters. Tom Swifty and Dan Noble left from the 6-hole and went straight to the top. They hit the finish in 1:55.2, 2¼ lengths ahead of their next rival after opening quarters of :28.1, :56.4 and 1:25.4. Smokeitsteady (Chris Page) finished second with Gypsy Hill (Anthony MacDonald) just a quarter length back in third. Tom Swiftly is trained by Christi Noble for owner/breeder Sandra Burnett and Norman Rae Racing LLC. After winning the first leg of the Buckey Stallion Series, Tom Swiftly finished first and third in the two legs of the Overcomer series. He now has three wins in six starts on the year and $73,261 in lifetime earnings. Monday's win was a new lifetime mark for the 3-year-old gelded son of Long Tom out of the Pilgrims Taj mare Evanora.

Noble also took the Falcon Almahurst for filly pacers with Bad Girls Racing in 1:51.4. Lady Bridgerton (Jeremy Smith) led the field to a :27.1 opening quarter while Bad Girls Racing was parked leaving from post position 5. Settling in for about an eighth of a mile, Bad Girls Racing was quickly back out and had her neck in front by the :55.2 half. After tripping the beam in 1:22.4 for the three-quarters, the Ron Potter trainee won by a length over a fast closing Naked On A Hill (Sam Widger) who came from 10th at the three-quarters, while Rose Run Zoey (Tyler Smith) finished third. This was the first win of the year for Bad Girls Racing, who was bred by Spring Haven Farm and owned by Gail Potter. After finishing fourth in both legs of the series, the Racing Hill filly out of the Allamerican Native mare Bad Girls Club now has $43,813 in lifetime earnings.

What An Ocean View won the Nobleland Sam for horse and gelding pacers in 1:52.2. Page and the Ron Burke trainee got the pocket trip from the 7-hole through fractions of 26.3, 56 and 1:23.4 behind Dancin Moon (Jy. Smith). The Downbytheseaside gelding popped out of the 2-hole coming out of the last turn to win by 2¼ lengths over Rainrock (Trevor Smith) and Dancin Moon. Bred by LMN Stables, What An Ocean View is out of the Yankee Cruiser mare Graceful Vision and is owned by Burke Racing, Knox Services, R A S Racing and J&T Silva-Purnel & Libby. After finishing third in the opening leg of the series, What An Ocean View had broken equipment in the second leg; Monday was his second win of the year and fourth lifetime in 13 starts. He now has $53,165 in career earnings.

The 90-day 2024 Eldorado Scioto Downs race meet runs through Saturday (Sept. 14). Races are held Tuesday-Saturday with a first post of 5:45 p.m. each day, except for Thursday (July 4) with a post of 3:15 p.m. and Friday (Sept. 13) which will have a 6:15 p.m. post to help accommodate horsemen attending the Ohio Selected Yearling Sale. More information about racing at Scioto can be found on the Eldorado Scioto Downs website.

Elista Hanover fastest of PA All-Stars trotters

Elista Hanover continued her run as the horse to beat among the Pennsylvania-sired 3-year-old trotting fillies, winning for the fifth straight time in one of four $30,000 divisions of a Pennsylvania All-Stars contest in 1:54.3 over "sloppy" going Monday (May 27) afternoon at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania.

Jeff Gregory reserved the daughter of International Moni off the early pace of :28.2 and :57.3, then asked her to get into high gear, and "Elista" complied quickly, challenging for command by the 1:26.1 three-quarters and taking over late on the far bend. The filly won by 2¾ lengths over the closer Fannie Lipkowitz, and she now has won a Weiss Series final, a Pennsylvania Sire Stake, and now an All-Stars event in her last three trips to the gate for trainer Annie Stoebe, co-owner with R. Lynn and Philomena Curry.

Two of the All-Stars contests went to horses driven by Matt Kakaley for trainer Åke Svanstedt. The Father Patrick miss Slip Sliding Away showed no ill effects from being away from the races for nearly seven months, getting stronger as she went nearer to her destination of the wire to win over Loveyoubunches in 1:55 for Marvin and Lynn Katz and Al Libfeld. Kakaley/Svanstedt also clicked with the Southwind Frank sophomore She Shaq, three-wide from late backstretch through most of the far turn and still winning by a neck over Cheval Rapide in 1:56 for Åke Svanstedt Inc., Little E LLC, and Matt Franklin.

The other All-Stars winner was the richest of the successful stakes quartet, the Bar Hopping filly Sambuca Hanover, who went to the lead for driver George Napolitano, Jr. in front of the stands and won handily over The Moment in 1:55.2 to raise her earnings to $303,500 for trainer Nifty Norman and owners David McDuffee, Paul Bordogna, and Melvin Hartman.

Pocono's leading driver, Kakaley, had three winners, two of them as mentioned for Svanstedt, and he was joined at that number by the leading driver at the other Eastern Pennsylvania track, Tim Tetrick, as the top man at Harrah's Philly got two home first for trainer Noel Daley.

First babies of 2024 at Pocono impressive

Two-year-olds made their first appearance at an eastern Pennsylvania racetrack this year during a Wednesday morning (May 29) qualifying session at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania.

The team of driver Scott Zeron and trainer Jared Bako won five of the baby events, including a near sweep on the pacing side, while the Todd Schadel barn produced the fastest trotter on each sex.

Zeron/Bako swept the pacing filly contests, the faster with the Huntsville—Code One Hanover miss Cowgirl Hanover, who went wire-to-wire in 1:58.1 - :56.4 - :28 for owner NY Seb Inc. They also came together for a 2:00.3 - :58.1 - :28.4 win by Th Cha Cha Cha, a Dancin Lou—Pasta Blue Chip miss owned by David Kryway.

The fastest clocking of the freshmen session, 1:57.3, was produced by two males from Team Zeron/Bako. Sire Dancin Lou and owner David Kryway again combined behind the gelding Stonebridge Wizard (dam Odds On Magic), who used engine tactics and came home in :57.2 - :28 for the victory. Matching his clocking was the Courtly Choice—Fashion Guru gelding Fast Choice, who came from behind and put in back fractions of :56 - :27.1 to triumph for owners Ashley Bako and Randy Zane.

Also successful was the American Ideal—Mako Wish colt Brayden's Bandit, moving early and going on to success in 2:00.3 - :28.3 for driver Marcus Miller, trainer Tom Jackson, and owner Peter Scamurra.

Todd Schadel now has a sub-2:00 2-year-old trotter to his seasonal credit after the Bar Hopping—Promisemethis gelding Set The Bar wired his field in 1:59.3 - :58 - :28.3, with driver/trainer Schadel also co-owner with his wife Christine and Rick and Regina Beinhauer. Encomium, an International Moni—Enfilade colt, came home in :29.4 to be successful in his bow in 2:03.1 for driver Braxten Boyd, trainer Mahlon Martin, and LCT Stable.

The quickest of the two filly trot winners was the Cantab Hall—Setintheworldonfire miss Shalamar Hanover, coming out of the pocket to win in 2:04.4 for trainer/driver Schadel, with his wife Christine also co-owning. Team Zeron/Bako saw their Devious Man—Paya La Renta filly Paya La Diva recover from an early miscue, coming her own back fractions in 1:00.2 - :29.2 to stop the timer in 2:05.2; trainer Bako is the co-owner with Carmen Iannacone.

Replays of the baby races are available at www.phha.org.

Harrah's Hoosier Park plays host to opening round of Indiana Sires Stakes action

Harrah's Hoosier Park played host to a stakes-filled card on Monday (May 27) for a special Memorial Day card of live racing. The evening's 14-race card featured the opening round of Indiana Sires Stakes action for the 3-year-old competitors. The 2024 Indiana Sires Stakes program will feature eight legs throughout the season and culminate with the $250,000 Super Finals on Oct. 11.

The 2023 2-year-old filly pace Super Final winner, Lets Go Endofaera, picked up where she left off last season to make her 3-year-old debut a winning one in the $48,000 first division for filly pacers. Driver John De Long put Lets Go Endofaera on the lead just beyond the half in :57 before sprinting away from the field with a :26.1 closing quarter to win by 3¼ lengths in a lifetime best 1:51. Driver John De Long co-owns the daughter of JK Endofanera—Lets Go Higher along with William De Long and breeder Jesse De Long, Tabby De Long does the training. A winner now of six of 11 lifetime starts, Lets Go Endofaera has banked $308,900 in her career.

Lyin' Eyes deployed similar tactics to score the victory in the $48,500 second division for pacing fillies. Driver Joey Putnam moved the 1-5 favorite from fourth on the backstretch before powering home in :26.3 to fend off All JK (Trace Tetrick) by 1¼ lengths in 1:51.1 for her second victory through two starts this season. Joey Putnam co-owns the Joe Putnam trainee along with J P Racing and Crazy Parrot Farm. The daughter of Odds On Equuleus—Miswave Hanover was bred by Silver Linden Farms and now sports a career bankroll of $163,390.

Skyway Paige kicked off the action for the 3-year-old trotting fillies, teaming up with driver LeWayne Miller to take the $48,500 first division in a lifetime best 1:53.1. Moving into second on the final turn, Skyway Paige put away a revved up Starlit Dora (Atlee Bender) in the stretch before fending off a late bid by the upset minded Hail Broadway (Jordan Ross) at 43-1 by a quarter length on the wire. Trained by Susan Miller, the victory was the first in as many starts in 2024 for Skyway Paige who is owned by D&S Stable, Ryan Raber, L&S Racing and Anthony Swartzentruber. The daughter of Swan For All—Prismatic was bred by Kenneth Slabach, and has now earned $238,670 following her fourth career victory.

Agent Of Fortune continued her winning ways in the second division for trotting fillies, extending her win streak to five to kick off her sophomore season. Driver Robert Taylor cleared to the lead just beyond the quarter with the 1-9 favorite, from there the win was never in doubt as she powered home in :27.1 to win by 3¼ lengths in 1:54.4. Taylor also trains the daughter of Dover Dan—Posterity who was bred by Black Creek Farm. Owned by Taylor Racing LLC and Bert Paddock, Agent Of Fortune vaulted her career bankroll to $133,950 while preserving her unblemished 3-year-old campaign.

The first of two $51,500 splits of 10 for the 3-year-old trotting colts saw Gruesome Twosome deliver at 4-5 in his first start off of the bench. Driver Daryl Bontrager stalked from fourth before making a first-over bid on the far turn to take command before repelling a late surge by Helpem Dance (Ricky Macomber, Jr) by a length in 1:54. Bontrager trains and co-owns along with Ira Steinberg the son of You Know You Do—All Set Lets Go who was a Grand Circuit winner at two, winning the $110,000 Madison County at Harrah's Hoosier Park. Now a seven-time winner through 10 career starts, Gruesome Twosome was bred by Merle Yoder and has banked $251,125 in his career.

Dashing Danny and driver Kyle Wilfong delivered the biggest upset of the stakes action on the card, launching off cover in the lane to score at 10-1. The Jeff Cullipher trainee found the cover of the previously unbeaten A Blue Million (Mike Peterson) before roaring home in :27.4 to track down a stubborn Ira Who (Jared Finn) in a lifetime best 1:54. Following the theme of the night, the victory came for the 2023 Breeders Crown finalist in his 3-year-old debut for owners Pollack Racing LLC and Jeff Cullipher. Bred by Steve Stewart and Black Creek Farm, Dashing Danny now boasts a career bankroll greater than $200,000, having earned $206,837 following the 10th victory in his young career.

Driver Kyle Wilfong came right back with another stakes victory on the card, this time teaming up with trainer Jay Hochstetler and Premier Romeo to pull off the minor 5-1 upset in the first of two $49,500 divisions for sophomore pacing colts. After sitting mid-pack throughout, Wilfong put the nose of Premier Romeo on the helmet of Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. and the 3-2 favorite Noblesville on the final turn where he stalked second-over turning for home. Premier Romeo wound up a :26.3 stretch rally to vault off of cover and surge to the line first by 1¼ lengths in a career best 1:50.2 over the two longest shots on the board, Stat That (LeWayne Miller) at 72-1 and Warrior For Truth (Ricky Macomber, Jr.) at 24-1. Owned by Connie Hochstetler, Mary Buddig and Janet Schwartz, the gelded son of Rockin Image—Kaitlyn Akeeper is now a two-time winner in five starts in 2024. Bred by Dennis Bontrager, Premier Romeo pushed his career bankroll to $95,980 with the win.

Things returned to form in the final Sire Stake on the card, where Sabonis and Joey Putnam delivered at 1-9 in the second division for pacing colts. Putnam wasted little time getting Sabonis to the lead, keeping the young star clean up front where he had things his way, turning for home 5½-lengths clear of the field. Play Action Pass (60-1, Jordan Ross) did his best to make things contentious in the lane for the favorite with a late rally, however, Sabonis crossed the line 1¼-lengths clear in a geared down 1:51.3. Trained by Aaron Stutzman for owner Pat Miller, the son of Tellitlikeitis—Gypsy Bellevue has only tasted defeat once in 2024 through seven starts, and has been a winner of seven of nine lifetime. Bred by Karl Dean Miller, Sabonis padded his career earnings to $77,950.

National star Karl in NJSS spotlight at Big M

Two weeks ago, a national television audience was introduced to Karl, the current early favorite to capture the 99th edition of the $1-million Hambletonian on Saturday (Aug. 3) at The Meadowlands.

Tonight (May 31), Big M fans will be able to head to the track and see the colt trotting sensation look for his third victory in as many seasonal tries as he goes for a three-race sweep of the New Jersey Sire Stakes for 3-year-old males in the event's $240,000 final.

There is also a $240,000 final for sophomore filly trotters on the card.

Karl has had no problems while beating his foes by a cumulative 10¾ lengths in his first two outings of the year. In both starts, he paid $2.10 to win after trotting his miles in 1:53.2 and 1:52.2, respectively.

"He's doing great," said Karl's trainer, Nancy Takter, the unanimous choice for Dan Patch Trainer of the Year in 2020. "I trained him [Tuesday] and he was super. He's a very happy horse.

"He's got a little bit of a break until late June [after the Sire Stakes]. We will only race at The Meadowlands until the Hambletonian. I may have to qualify him, but we'll play that by ear."

The son of Tactical Landing—Avalicious will be going after his 12th win from 13 lifetime starts tonight. A victory would lift his lifetime earnings to $1,191,977.

"Karl certainly is the one to beat this weekend when The Meadowlands presents the New Jersey Sire Stakes," said track chief operating officer/general manager Jason Settlemoir. "The entire nation got to meet the leggy sophomore two weeks ago when he dominated his division rivals on America's Day at The Races, which was shown on FOX Sports 2. And all of harness racing will be watching him as Hambletonian Day draws ever closer."

Speaking of America's Day at The Races, which is produced by the TV crew at the New York Racing Association (NYRA), a coast-to-coast television audience will watch standardbred racing's greatest stars compete throughout the Championship Meet at The Meadowlands on the networks of FOX Sports.

Here is the schedule for the remaining eight Big M FOX Sports broadcasts with the marquee event that will be shown. Where not listed, specific networks — FOX, FS1 or FS2 — will be determined:

- July 6: Graduate finals/Meadowlands Pace eliminations, 8-11 p.m. (FS2)
- July 13: Meadowlands Pace final, 8-11 p.m. (TBD)
- Aug. 3: Hambletonian, 1-7 p.m. (TBD)
- Oct. 18: Breeders Crown eliminations, 1-6 p.m. (TBD)
- Oct. 19: Breeders Crown eliminations, 8-11 p.m. (TBD)
- Oct. 25: Breeders Crown finals, 8-11 p.m. (TBD)
- Oct. 26: Breeders Crown finals, 8-11 p.m. (TBD)
- Nov. 30: Fall Final Four, 8-11 p.m. (TBD)

THE LINEUPS: These are the fields for the two $240,000 New Jersey Sire Stakes finals for 3-year-olds at The Meadowlands tonight, with post position, horse, driver, trainer and morning-line odds:

THE SKED: Live racing takes place every Friday and Saturday at The Meadowlands with a first-race post time of 6:20 p.m.

The Big M's live "Racing from The Meadowlands" pregame show begins every live racing night at 5:45 p.m. with The Big M TV "A"-team of Dave Little and Jessica Otten providing news, notes and selections from the Sam McKee Memorial Broadcast Set.

WHO'S CALLING THE RACES? With Ken Warkentin away on holiday, Gabe Prewitt of The Red Mile will be calling the races on both tonight and Saturday night.

TALKING HEADS TO TANGLE: The Meadowlands' fifth annual Sportscasters Charity Derby takes place tonight and features two harness races to benefit charitable organizations selected by area sportscasters.

Each sportscaster will be teamed up with a Meadowlands driver in a jog cart and will compete against other sportscasters in a field of four in a one-mile race.

Meadowlands Racing & Entertainment will donate $5,000 to each of the two winning sportscasters' selected charities, and, in addition, will also make a $1,000 donation to each charity selected by each sportscaster.

There are three new faces in the 2024 edition of The Derby: Chris Lopresti, Chelsea Sherrod and Perry Sook.

Charity Race 1 (After race 3, with affiliation and charity):

- 1. Chris Lopresti (WFAN-660 AM, CBS Sports Radio, SiriusXM); St. Barnabus Hospital Health System
- 2. Don LaGreca (ESPN-NY 98.7 FM); Ronald McDonald House
- 3. Chelsea Sherrod (SNY); Grow Our Game
- 4. Mark Cannizzaro (NY Post); Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center

Charity Race 2 (After race 5):

- 1. Maria Marino (Action Network); American Cancer Society/ Making Strides Against Breast Cancer
- 2. Marc Malusis (PIX11, SNY, WFAN); Make-A-Wish Foundation
- 3. Perry Sook (PIX11); St. Barnabus Hospital Health System
- 4. Keith Irizarry (MLB Network); Cavan McGovern Family Research Fund

PICK A WIENER: The sixth annual running of The Meadowlands Wiener Dog Derby takes place on Saturday (June 1).

This event is free to attend.

A GREAT CAUSE: Ten local New Jersey charitable organizations were selected to compete in the Meadowlands Charity Handicapping Contest last Saturday (May 25).

The contest offered a $15,000 total donation/prize pool, with every charity receiving a donation. Prizes were awarded as follows: First place: $5,000, second place: $3,000, third place: $2,000, fourth place: $1,500, fifth place: $1,000, sixth-10th: $500.

The top five finishers were Pacing for the Cure ($78.80), ACT Now Foundation ($54.50), North Jersey Friendship House ($50.10), Special Strides ($49.60) and Fighting H.A.R.D. Foundation ($46.30).

All who attended the races on behalf of the charities had a night of fun, and all 10 charities had their checks given to them while getting their pictures taken in the winner's circle.

FREE PROGRAMS EVERY NIGHT: Past performances for every race of every Meadowlands card are available free of charge. All one has to do is go to playmeadowlands.com to access the information.

Field finalized for Camluck Classic

The field for The Raceway at Western Fair District's signature event, the $150,000 Camluck Classic presented by Seelster Farms, was finalized with post positions drawn on Monday (May 27) during the track's pre-game show.

Canadian half-mile-track record holder Linedrive Hanover, who drew post 6, and two-time Borgata Series champion Hellabalou, with the inside post, will headline the star-studded field of eight pacers in this year's edition of the Camluck Classic, which will be contested tonight (May 31) at The Raceway. Post time for tonight's card will be 5:50 p.m. with the Camluck Classic carded as race 10.

Some of the sport's top pacing mares will also be in the spotlight in the $50,000 Forest City Pace, which is headlined by three-time O'Brien Award winner and the race's defending champion, So Much More, along with recent Margaret Juravinski Memorial winner Talk Curdy To Me.

The stacked undercard will include a leg of the Ontario Sires Stakes Grassroots Series for 3-year-old colt pacers, a quartet of City of London Series finals, the London Classic Yearling Sale Trot and the new Bulldog Hanover preferred pace. In total, more than $400,000 in purses will be up for grabs.

The wagering menu on Camluck Classic night will include a pair of $15,000 guaranteed pool Pick-5s, two $7,500 guaranteed pool Pick-4s and an additional Super Hi-5 wager on the Camluck Classic; all are low 15 per cent takeout wagers. HPIBet will offer special cashback promotions as well to those wagering on the program.

The Top Of The Fair dining room is sold out but fans on-track will be able to enjoy the action on the first level and at The Raceway Lounge on the second floor. Outside, the 'Party On The Patio' includes live entertainment with local artists Connor Morand and Kristen Renee, food trucks, local craft beers (including the specialty Bulldog Brew and Camluck Classic Lager) and much more. Ontario Sires Stakes 50th anniversary celebrations will include giveaways and contests. Fans will also have a chance to get a limited-edition Bulldog Hanover ball cap and Camluck Classic t-shirts.

COSA TV will play host to a live five-race broadcast airing on the COSA TV Facebook and YouTube channels, as well as the Standardbred Canada website, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

The field for the Camluck Classic is listed below in post-position order.

Harrah's Philadelphia plays host to sire stakes' glamour boys

In addition to the Invitational races on Super Sunday (May 26) at Harrah's Philadelphia, there were Sire Stakes and Stallion Series races as the "glamour division" of the Pennsylvania-sired raced its third of four preliminary legs.

The Sire Stakes were contested in three divisions, and first to the wire in the first division was Rush In, three-for-three in the Sire Stakes and successful in his last four starts. The Heston Blue Chip colt brushed to the lead after Ivy Park took the field to the top in :27, rattled off splits of :55 and 1:22.2, then easily held off the potential pocket rocket by a length while taking a new mark of 1:49.4. Scott Zeron drove the talented colt for trainer Linda Toscano and Let It Ride Stables & Odds On Racing, South Mountain Stables, and Island Sun Stable.

Captain Skippy got away third in his PASS cut as Dancin Champion rolled to splits of :25.4, :54.2, and 1:22, with favored Armada Hanover retaining the pocket. Dexter Dunn vacated the pylons with Captain Skippy late down the back, with Southwind Celsius joining the action from far back on the far turn. In a big battle to the finish, Captain Skippy was home first in 1:50.2, a new mark, by three-quarters-of-a-length. Southwind Celsius and Armada Hanover were closest at the wire, the former edging the latter, behind the winner, trained by Ake Svanstedt for Ake Svanstedt Inc. and Joe Sbrocco.

The final Sires section was billed as a matchup between Gem Quality, 2023 Breeders Crown winner, and Captain Albano, last year's freshman champion, with Gem Quality drawing post 5, just inside "The Captain," and being made a slight favorite. Gem Quality made the early lead then yielded as Captain Albano only paid a :27 price for the top. He went on to mid-splits of :55.2 and 1:23, then sprinted home in :26.4 and effectively blunted his opponent's late rally, winning by three-parts-of-a-length in 1:49.4.

Captain Albano now has two wins in as many 2024 starts, both Sire Stakes legs, and gave Captaintreacherous a second Sire Stakes credit while winning for driver Todd McCarthy, trainer Noel Daley, and the ownership of Patricia Stable, LA Express & Sjoblom Inc. and Michael Dolan.

There were also six $20,000 Stallion Series divisions for the same group.

Women Layer raced to his third straight Stallion Series victory, and remained undefeated in six seasonal starts, proving overpowering while lowering his mark to 1:49.3. Todd McCarthy drove the Sweet Lou gelding, who also has an All-Stars triumph on his resume, for trainer Brett Pelling and the combine of Howard and Judith Taylor, Order By Stable AB, and Jerry Silva.

"Team Timmy T," driver Tim Tetrick and trainer Tim Twaddle, combined with the Captaintreacherous colt Arson as the sophomore posted his second straight Stallion Series success in a lifetime best 1:50.1. Arson brushed to the lead in front of the stands, then held sway to the wire for Thestable Arson Group and Hutchinson Harness LLC.

Captaintreacherous picked up another sire credit with the ridgling Rock The Captain N. The "Captain" found stretch clearance after a third-in trip to win in 1:52.2 for driver Todd McCarthy (a second StS success), trainer Tony Alagna, and the partnership of Ken Jacobs and Curtin ANZ Stables.

The Always B Miki colt Steely Knife overcame the difficult tuck-then-first-over journey to lower his speed badge to 1:50.3. Yannick Gingras steered the Ron Burke trainee for Burke Racing Stable LLC, Knox Services Inc., Phil Collura, and J&T Silva – Purnel & Libby.

The 2023 Fair Sire Stakes champion, Ante Up Hanover stepped up his game in 2024 and is now a two-time Stallion Series winner after a success in 1:51 to equal his lifetime mark. The Betting Line gelding, already a 13-time winner in his career, went on to the lead after hard early usage and paced home nicely for trainer/driver Todd Schadel, also co-owner with Christine Schadel.

Schadel won a second Stallion Series event with another Betting Line gelding, Twiggs Pub, who set a mark of 1:53.3. Twiggs Pub raced forwardly-placed, came out late on the far turn, and won as a 12-1 shot for trainer Cody Schadel, Todd's son; father and son share ownership with "mom" Christine.

Millionaire T C I kicks off soph campaign in today's PASS at The Meadows

T C I, who last year achieved one of the most amazing seasons ever by a freshman trotter, begins his quest for even greater gold and glory when he launches his sophomore campaign in tonight's (May 31) Pennsylvania Sires Stake, known as the Super Bowl, at The Meadows.

The card also features a PA Stallion Series event for 3-year-old colt and gelding trotters. First post is 5:10 p.m.

T C I not only won Pennsylvania's sires stake championship, but he also took the Mohawk Million, the Peter Haughton and the William Wellwood, banking $1,238,870 for the year. Only one trotter in harness racing history earned more at 2; that would be Snow White, who won $1,252,646 in 2007. T C I put together a 10-race winning streak leading to the Breeders Crown. In virtually any other year, T C I would have been a shoe-in for the divisional Dan Patch Award.

As luck would have it, a 2-year-old colt named Karl was compiling his own gaudy statistics. When the two squared off in the Breeders Crown with Karl defeating T C I by 3 lengths, it assured Karl divisional honors and sent him over $1 million in earnings. It was the first time two juvenile trotters eclipsed $1 million in the same year.

Ron Burke, who trains T C I, doesn't hide his disappointment in the way the season ended, but he's looking forward to the renewal of the rivalry.

"It would be great for the sport if these two battle it out for the next two years," he said. "That would be really special."

Burke was drawn to the son of Cantab Hall—Nicole's Promise at the Standardbred Select Sale because Burke had trained the colt's brother, the ill-fated Global Pandemic, a star at 2 who colicked and died after his freshman season. Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brusceci LLC, Hatfield Stables and Knox Services Inc. gave $150,000 for the youngster while Bud Hatfield re-christened him T C I after the auto magnate's favorite vacation spot, Turks and Caicos Islands.

Burke, who's trained many top trotters, is lavish in his praise for T C I.

"He's probably the best trotter I've had at this point in his career with the exception of Mission Brief," Burke said. "She was more dynamic, but he's probably the smartest baby I've ever trained. He just doesn't make a mistake."

Burke said he deliberately bypassed some of this year's early stakes action.

"He had a long year, and this will be another long year," Burke said. "Nothing has gone wrong, so we've stuck to the plan."

T C I goes from post 3, race 6, with David Miller aboard.

Another horse to watch in the Super Bowl has gone about things in a decidedly different way. Blackhawk Zette (race 4, post 2, Matt Kakaley) had a single win in four starts at 2 with a modest 1:59 mark. But trainer Robert Baggitt, Jr. saw enough of the son of Cantab Hall—Zette Starlet to purchase him privately for owner JL Sadowsky LLC at the end of his freshman campaign.

The change has been dramatic. Blackhawk Zette won the $50,000 final of the Bobby Weiss series at Pocono, sweeping the preliminary legs, then finished second in the Dexter Cup, the most prestigious early-season trot for 3-year-olds. He's already banked $110,725 this year. Needless to say, Baggitt is thrilled with the improvement.

"I liked his breeding, but what I really liked was that he was lightly raced at 2," Baggitt said. "He showed speed, and he wasn't abused at all."

"Still, we didn't know what we had. He's a nice-gaited horse, and his manners are impeccable. But he trained good rather than great. Now, we're happy with what we have so far."

Blackhawk Zette is not Hambletonian eligible, but Baggitt says he may supplement to rich stakes if the colt proves competitive at top levels.

Owners' Breakfast set for June 8 at Woodbine Mohawk Park

Woodbine Mohawk Park is pleased to announce a complimentary Owners' Breakfast will be held on Saturday (June 8) for baby races.

The Owners' Breakfast will take place in the Mohawk Harvest Kitchen beginning at 9 a.m. and a variety of hot foods, juices and coffees will be available. The first qualifier of the day will go on the track at 9:30 a.m.

The Breakfast is open to all racing participants and Woodbine's racing leaders will be on hand and available to discuss any racing topics or issues.

RSVP is not required.

The first two-year-old qualifying session of the season at Woodbine Mohawk Park is scheduled for this Saturday (June 1).

Rankins host successful open house

For the second consecutive year, Beth and Tom Rankin hosted an open house event at their St. Catharines based standardbred breeding farm in co-operation with the Bill Galvin Racing Alliance (BGRA).

The event on Saturday (May 25), promoted two horse themed contests; a Youth Literary Derby and a Youth Art Derby, coordinated by the BGRA, and sponsored by the Rankins. Complete rules and details for the contests can be found on the BGRA website.

Despite some inclement weather that rolled in mid-way through the event, over 200 people stopped by to visit the horses. Kids visiting the farm found lots of inspiration for the contests with 10 mares and 10 foals on hand, eager to interact with their guests.

One of the most common comments heard from guests was, "I drive by this farm all the time and always wanted to know what breed of horses were here, and who owned it." Well now they have their answers.

"I do this to see the smiles on the faces of all ages of kids," said Tom Rankin. "That means the world to me. Not everyone is fortunate enough to have a horse or have access to horses. If we can provide them this opportunity one day a year, I'm extremely happy to do this. We were expecting 400 guests based on the registration. No doubt, once the torrential rain hit, some people would have changed their plans, but we were really pleased with the number of guests who attended!"

The Rankins started breeding standardbreds in 1990 and have enjoyed considerable success. Over the course of 34 years, they have bred more than 300 horses at the St. Paul St. West nursery.

"Horses are truly magical animals," said Karen Hauver, the founding director of the BGRA. "For those of us in the industry who have unlimited access to interact with horses, we can take them for granted. "Seeing smiles on the faces of people of all ages and hearing how they feel when they spend some time with horses, even if just for a few minutes, reminds us of the power of the horse. The BGRA directors sincerely appreciate everything that the Rankins and their wonderful staff did to host this event and welcome people to their farm."

Kids also had a chance to take part in a Name The Foal Contest for any of the seven colts and three fillies they had a chance to meet.

The event drew a wide range of guests; families, couples, business associates of the Rankins, local residents and even a couple who were visiting the area from New Zealand.

Volunteer directors from the Bill Galvin Racing Alliance were on hand to greet guests, provide information on the youth contests and answer any questions about harness racing.

Sophomores storm Summerside for P.E.I. Colt Stakes

Sophomore stakes action returned to Red Shores on Sunday afternoon (May 26) with the P.E.I. Colt Stakes at Red Shores at the Summerside Raceway.

The afternoon featured 14-dashes of the P.E.I. Colt Stakes for 3-year-old pacing colts and fillies.

Chip Of Evil started her 3-year-old campaign on a winning note, stopping the clock in 1:57.2 in her $18,400 P.E.I. Colt Stakes Gold division with Corey MacPherson in tow for trainer Eddy Doucette and owner Inarush Stable of Kensington. Fern Hill Indigo (driven by Brodie MacPhee) was a close second ahead of Rollwithitdarling (Marc Campbell).

High Roller won the other $18,400 Gold split in 1:56.2 over Dusty Lane Dixie (Gilles Barrieau) and Sensational Gal (Corey MacPherson). Adam Merner drove the winning filly for trainer Melissa Rennie and owners Marsha Knox and Cory Livingston.

The $9,200 P.E.I. Colt Stakes Grassroots divisions for 3-year-old pacing fillies saw victories by Promise Me Later (David Dowling) in 1:59.4, Redland Peaches (Mike McGuigan) in 1:57.2, Tobins Hottie (Todd Trites) in 1:59.1, Thinkingofeddie (Brady Sweet) in 1:59.1 and Woodmere Luna (Ken Murphy) in 2:00.1.

In Gold action for 3-year-old pacing colts, Jackies Boy won a $18,200 division in 1:56.3 over Good Omen (Paul Langille) and Little Leroy (MacPherson). Myles Heffernan, Sr., was at the lines of Jackies Boy for owner/trainer Myles Heffernan, Jr.

The other $18,200 sophomore colt Gold division of the P.E.I. Colt Stakes saw Merigo Magic (Merner) dominate the entire mile to win in 1:56.3 for trainer Rennie and owners Mike May, Herman Mcquaid, Derrick Cameron and Ian Walker. Pauls Crown (Campbell) got the deuce with Check Your Chip (Heffernan, Sr.) completing the triactor.

The $9,100 P.E.I. Colt Stakes Grassroots divisions were won by Mappo Oriley (Clare MacDonald) in 1:57, Reassurance (Dowling) in 1:58, Kiss My Bet (Campbell) in 1:59.4, Jack Boswall (Campbell) in 1:57.3, and Saulsbrook Litten (MacPhee) in 2:02.
