Battle of the Meadowlands Masterminds proves everything old is new again

The handicapping contest pitting Dave Brower, Edison Hatter, Dave Little, Jessica Otten and Ken Warkentin against each other is an ode to the Battle of Saratoga.

by Debbie Little

The Battle of the Meadowlands Masterminds pays homage to a popular handicapping contest.

"[Jeff Gural] just emailed one day and asked that I put together a contest that pitted our handicappers against each other and he referenced the Battle of Saratoga," said Meadowlands' director of marketing and event operations, Rachel Ryan. "That was the impetus."

For those too young to remember the Battle of Saratoga, it was an immensely popular handicapping competition that ran in the New York Daily News for about three decades.

The Masterminds competing will be Dave Brower (53), Edison Hatter (22), Dave Little (60), Jessica Otten (25) and Ken Warkentin (62).

For any that don't know, Little is my husband, and he bridges the gap between the two contests, since prior to coming to The Meadowlands he was the racing editor at the New York Daily News for 24 years and won their Battle six times.

"I suspect that people perceive me as the one with the target on my back," said Little. "But luck plays such a big part, especially when you're betting Meadowlands' races. I just hope we have some fun with it and I'll be very happy at the end of the contest when our charities and fans are our true winners."

Although donating money to charity was sometimes a feature of the original Battle, fan participation totally belongs to this reboot.

"The promotions department has come up with a pretty cool way to get the fans involved so they have a rooting interest," said Little. "I mean, hey, someone can win $10,000 at the end of this."

The wagers will be posted on social media for the betting public to follow and those in attendance each night have the option of filling out an entry form and dropping it in the box of the handicapper they think will lead the competition that night.

The fans will need to handicap the handicappers in order to qualify for the chance to win nightly prizes and to be in the running for that grand prize.

Starting tonight (June 3), the five Big M competitors will get a nightly $500 mythical bankroll, all of which must be wagered that night on races four-through-nine.

The wagers will be posted on social media for the betting public to follow and those in attendance each night have the option of filling out an entry form and dropping it in the box of the handicapper they think will lead the competition that night.

The numbers will be tabulated and posted throughout the night and after the 10th race, the nightly winner will be announced.

A random entry will be drawn from the fans that backed said champ and will win a $200 betting voucher and a $50 gas card. They will also be one of the 22 winners eligible for the grand prize that will be chosen on Hambletonian Day. Unlike in the Hunger Games, if you enter the contest every race night, the odds are in your favor.

You must be present to win and can only win one time during the challenge.

For the handicappers, the chance of winning money for their charities, as well as the fans, is extremely important.

Brower chose a charity that he has done consulting work for in the past.

"[CBH Care] is a locally based wonderful mental health care services agency," said Brower. "The work that they do and the programs that they have are exceptional and right now I can't even imagine how overwhelmed they are with what they have to do because there are just so many people that are in bad shape – adults and children – having difficulty dealing with these pandemic issues. So, if I can give a little bit back to them, that would be great."

Hatter's charity, is one of three aftercare programs chosen by the participants.

"I chose Purple Haze [Standardbred Adoption Program] because I care a lot about doing what I can to make sure our retired horses have happy and healthy second careers," said Hatter. "These horses give us so much joy while they are competing on the track, the least we can do is help them after their racing careers are over."

Nicknamed "The Trotter Guy" in the original Battle, Little, unlike his then competitors that supported thoroughbred charities, chose instead a standardbred charity.

"I won some money for the Standard Retirement Foundation back at the Daily News and I'm hoping to do the same this time around," said Little. "It's always what I felt to be a very worthy cause, because often these retired standardbreds get forgotten and I don't even want to think about what happens to some of them."

Otten wrote about New Vocations when she was working for Post Time with Mike and Mike and personally knows the family that runs the facility.

“I want to win, not for bragging rights, but for the charity,” said Warkentin. “It’s one of the only charities that we have in the business that nurtures young people. As you know, the lament of the business is that our fanbase is aging and dying off and we’re not nurturing young people enough and especially getting young people involved in the business.”

“It hits a little close to home as well,” said Otten. “Winnie [Nemeth] is from Michigan and I’m very good friends with her and I adore her family as well and I’ve visited her facilities. I’ve never personally sent a horse to New Vocations but I have friends that have and they’ve done well.

“These horses give us everything so we can live this life that we are so lucky to live. So, they deserve to have every bit of a great second career or just a second home.”

Warkentin has been a long-time supporter of the Harness Horse Youth Foundation as it is the chosen charity of his yearly announcers’ workshop.

“I want to win, not for bragging rights, but for the charity,” said Warkentin. “It’s one of the only charities that we have in the business that nurtures young people. As you know, the lament of the business is that our fanbase is aging and dying off and we’re not nurturing young people enough and especially getting young people involved in the business.

“The Youth Foundation involves young people and they get hands-on training. It gets kids out of the house and away from their phones and computers, working, getting their hands dirty, getting closer to nature working with animals. Maybe if you have 25 kids in the class, maybe a couple of them end up getting a job in the business or taking some interest in it somewhere down the road after school.”

BRUSH AND CRUSH

by DEAN TOWERS

The “Battle of the Handicappers,” with track execs

Putting on a hard-hat can open a lot of eyes, and maybe force some change.

by Dean Towers

This week, it was announced that the assembled Meadowlands handicapping talent will do battle in an “ultimate handicapping contest” for various charities. These ideas are always fun, and I wish each and every one good luck for their charity.

But if I had my way, I'd offer a twist on this contest. I'd make the participants not track handicappers, but track executives.

Yes, each and every one of them – we can even add some thoroughbred or horsepeople group heavy hitters – get a bankroll of $10,000 and have to play every race on a Friday and Saturday for a summer.

I think what they'd learn by doing what we do on a daily basis would be a more important education than any industry conference, Racetrack Industry Program course, or Zoom meeting ever could.

They'd probably learn the betting game is hard – borderline impossible – the way it's structured.

They'd probably be a little steamed about Test Of Faith pulling back to last at 1-9 on a speed track, wouldn't they; perhaps even enough to text Jeff Gural.

“How is that fair Jeff? I keyed her in the Pick 4 and she was the best horse by a mile!”

They might text Nick Salvi and ask why the drivers were half-in and half-out waiting for cover in the 5th, and before anyone moved the race was over.

“It's against the rules, right Nick? Where are the judges?”

They might contact Mike Tanner asking how a horse off 45 days won in 1:50 by four at 10-1 without having to qualify.

"I think we changed the qualifying rule at the behest of horsepeople Mike, but I was alive to five horses for a score in that Pick 5. How are we supposed to know that horse schooled in 1:54 last week?"

They might hit a Pick 3 at Northfield from Canada, and be left with $100 less on a payout because of the Woodbine Winners' Tax.

"Isn't this game supposed to be pari-mutuel? What in the hell is going on?"

At the end of the period, when not one of them has any money left (despite hitting plenty of winners), they might get their most important lesson - the phenomenon we call 'High Takeout.'

My father worked in heavy industry, and his first job was bringing timber underground to support the rock walls so mining could take place (somewhat) safely. But he worked hard, took courses at night and many years later was running a lot of the place.

One morning when I was working my summer job at the mine, I saw him walking the property dressed like I was, with steel-toed boots, coveralls, and a hard hat. He said the boys in the mill were complaining about a process so he was going to work a shift to see what was going on. When he came home that night, he told me that yes, there were some problems that needed to be addressed.

I've always taken that as an important life lesson in business.

Perhaps it can be as simple as ditching the jacket and tie for a hard hat and a pair of boots. Maybe, maybe not. But, does anyone want to give my handicapping contest a try to see if we can find out?

THE VIEW FROM WOODBINE MOHAWK PARK

with MELISSA KEITH

Stakes season in full force at Mohawk

by Melissa Keith

After a Saturday (May 28) night of double-digit winners, Woodbine Mohawk Park began the Monday, May 30 card with a Pick 5 carryover of $65,885 (Canadian). Perhaps unsurprisingly, no one hit Saturday's late Pick 5: race 6-10 winners were comprised of 24-1 Lux Seelster, 23-1 Twin B Heart Throb, 3-5 favorite Stonebridge Helios, 17-1 Highlandbeachsbest, and 15-1 Hervey Hanover.

Between longshots, Stonebridge Helios fulfilled the promise of his May 13 Standardbred Breeders of Ontario Association elimination victory with another, in the rescheduled $122,600 (Canadian) SBOA final for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings. But for much of the mile, 39-1 Macho Phil (Travis Cullen) gave the impression that another underdog might prevail.

Macho Phil led to the opening quarter in :26, keeping ahead of Bob Loblaw (Sylvain Filion) at the :54.4 half, with Stonebridge Helios (Bob McClure) trailing all but two early breakers. Macho Phil's advantage dissolved in what announcer Ken Middleton termed "a mad scramble to the finish." Widest of all down the stretch, Stonebridge Helios' :26.3 last quarter carried him past fellow closers Sport Secret and Chucky Hanover in a 1:50.3 personal best, which equalled Bob Loblaw's mark for fastest 2022 Canadian win by a sophomore male pacer.

Stonebridge Helios (Sunshine Beach—Ken Doll J) is conditioned by John Pentland of London, ON, who shares ownership with John Fleischman of Ottawa, ON, and breeder Angie Stiller of Arva, ON. Original plans were for the lightly-raced colt's next race to be a Somebeachsomewhere stake division, scheduled for June 4 at Mohawk. His earnings have now reached $369,510 (Cdn) over nine career starts.

"I don't know how much he improved [from year to year]," said trainer Pentland after Stonebridge Helios' latest victory. "He was a big, strong colt last year and he was a good colt last year. I was lucky – he doesn't have a lot of problems, and he loves to race, and I think that's the main thing about him... He wasn't great tonight. He wasn't at his best. But it's five weeks in a row he's gotta go and it's tough, so we're aiming for the [North America] Cup and that's what we want."

Monday night, Ontario Sires Stakes Gold trotters got rolling for the 2022 season. Two $101,300 (Canadian) divisions of 3-year-old colts and geldings saw familiar faces return to the Mohawk winner's circle. Last year's top OSS 2-year-old male trotter Duly Resolved (Paul MacDonell) left from the outside post, moving easily past Tymal Tiggs (Louis-Philippe Roy) before the first turn and maintaining position for the rest of the 1:54.1s mile.

The lifetime-best victory was Duly Resolved's first in three tries this year. The Resolve gelding (out of Motown Muscle by Muscle Mass) is owned by Bax Stable of Campbellville, ON; David Hudson, of Dallas, TX; Don Allensen of Wyoming, ON; and Gaelic Stable of Sharon, ON. After the win, trainer John Bax remarked, "Nobody gave him any grief, so that was the way it was supposed to happen."

Esplosione (Jody Jamieson) turned the tables on Twin B Archie (James MacDonald) in the next OSS Gold event. Two colts (R Royal Port and Simcoe Seelster) missed the gate, effectively reducing the field to six trotters. #7 Three Finger Pour (Trevor Henry), #6 Red Overbach (Louis-Philippe Roy), and #4 Safe Conduct (Chris Christoforou) battled three-wide going into the opening turn, settling quickly into single-file order by post position. The 1-9 favorite stepped out from first-over fourth along the backside, making front at the half.

Unlike Duly Resolved, Twin B Archie's lead was swiftly under threat: Three Finger Pour gave chase on the final turn, followed by second-over Esplosione, who tipped three-wide for the stretch drive. Jamieson's gelding unleashed a :27.1 last quarter that closed the four-length gap between himself and Twin B Archie in a perfectly-timed late move. The 1:53.4s neck-margin revenge was a new mark for Esplosione; he finished second to Twin B Archie in their May 13 SBOA elim and the non-wagering SBOA final, contested May 23 before the regular Monday card.

Esplosione (Kadabra—Dynamite Dame) is trained by Meg Crone for owners Mel Hartman of Ottawa, ON and Enzed Racing Stable of Allentown, New Jersey. Recent catch driver Jody Jamieson praised the gelding's sensible mindset and late speed: "Last week, he was just a total professional. I got away close to last, just stayed on the rail, and you know, I had to stop him and start him a couple of times. It really showed me that he was very versatile. Tonight, it worked out great. I got to settle right in behind James [MacDonald], which I thought was going to be good until he left to go to the lead [with Twin B Archie]. I still got a second-over trip, and he fired so hard down the stretch, he was just not gonna get beat tonight."

The 12-1 win was Esplosione's second of the year (and fifth lifetime), sending his purse winnings to $307,169 (Canadian) after 17 total starts.

Notes: Oney Hall's seven-race win streak ended in Monday's free-for-all trot, as Brad Grant's Patriarch Hanover (Doug McNair/Richard Moreau) edged past for a new 1:51.4s mark. Tonight's (June 3) Graduate Series leg for 4-year-old trotting mares is canceled due to insufficient entries. Points will be awarded to mares entered; the series resumes June 25 at The Meadowlands. Last Friday's (May 27) noteworthy qualifiers included wins by Beach Glass (1:52.1s), Warrawee Vital (1:50.4s), and Herculisa (1:53.3s). The Quick Hitch Paddock Kitchen is now open for the season, with operating hours during upcoming race nights and morning qualifiers.

Grand Circuit returns this weekend to Woodbine Mohawk Park

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

Grand Circuit action makes its 2022 debut at Woodbine Mohawk Park this weekend for the Somebeachsomewhere Stakes and Graduate Series.

The Somebeachsomewhere for 3-year-old pacers is the final prep ahead of the Pepsi North America Cup eliminations on June 11. The Graduate Series for 4-year-olds makes its return to the Campbellville oval for the first time since 2019.

A group of 13 sophomore pacers have been split into a pair of Somebeachsomewhere divisions.

The $81,000 first division (Race 2) is headlined by top Pepsi NA Cup contender Pebble Beach (PP7, Todd McCarthy). The Noel Daley trainee will make his Canadian debut and his second start of the season. The son of Downbytheseaside won seven of 11 starts during his rookie season and took a rare sub-1:49 mark of 1:48.4.

Ontario Sires Stakes Gold winner Kolby Two Step (PP4, James MacDonald) will make his season debut in the evening's first division. The Tim Gillespie trainee has tuned up with a pair of qualifying efforts after a rookie season that saw him win three of six starts and bank six-figures.

SBOA Stakes runner-up Sport Secret (PP2, Doug McNair) is another NA Cup eligible in the first "Beach" division. The Gregg McNair trainee has already made 12 starts this year after not debuting until December of his two-year-old season. Sport Secret has four wins and nine top-two finishes to his name.

Along with three notables mentioned above, Many Moons (PP3, Sylvain Filion) is the other 'Cup' eligible in the field. The Tony Beaton trainee notably took a mark of 1:51.3 in a Dream Maker Series leg last season.

The first Somebeachsomewhere division is carded as Race 2 (7:25 p.m.)

The $80,000 second division features plenty of power, led by SBOA Stakes winner Stonebridge Helios (PP5, Bob McClure). The John Pentland trainee is two for two this season and lowered his career-best to 1:50.3 with his SBOA win last Saturday. 'Helios' was a Grand Circuit winner at age two, totaling four wins and nearly $300,000 earned last season.

The namesake of the race is well-represented by a pair of standouts in the second split, Beach Glass (PP2, Paul MacDonell) and Greatest Ending (PP3, J. MacDonald).

Beach Glass races for the connections of the legendary Somebeachsomewhere, owner/breeder Schooner II Stable, trainer Brent MacGrath and driver Paul MacDonell. Beach Glass will make his season debut off a pair of qualifying victories. His rookie campaign saw a light schedule, winning three of five starts.

Greatest Ending appears to be Dr. Ian Moore's latest 3-year-old colt star. The Somebeachsomewhere colt is two for two this season with a Pennsylvania Sires Stakes victory to his credit. Greatest Ending was kept to maiden contests last season at Mohawk Park, making just five starts with one win and four runner-up finishes.

The field for the second "Beach" division is completed by Aint He Special (PP1, McClure), Frozen Hanover (PP4, McClure) and Magical Arthur (PP6, Trevor Henry). All six horses in the field are eligible to the Pepsi North America Cup.

The second Somebeachsomewhere division is carded as Race 6 (9:05 p.m.).

FOUR-YEAR-OLDS READY TO SHINE IN GRADUATE

After missing the Mohawk Park stop the last two years due to COVID, the Graduate Series, administrated by The Meadowlands, returns with a new look.

The Graduate now features divisions for 4-year-old mares. However, the Graduate mares trot division only attracted four entrants for tonight's (June 3) leg and has been cancelled. All horses that entered will receive points as per The Meadowlands stakes rules.

Star power is plentiful in the other three Graduate divisions. The Graduate Trot will go this evening with a field of seven, while Saturday's (June 4) card will feature a field of six in the mares pace and two eight-horse divisions for the open pace.

Tonight's $93,750 Graduate Trot features the Woodbine Mohawk Park return of Venerate (PP1, Andy Miller), the inaugural Mohawk Million winner.

Venerate did not flourish at age 3 as expected, winning just two of 10 starts. However, the Carter Pinske trainee comes into the Graduate off a season debut victory on Saturday night at The Meadowlands.

Joining Venerate in the Graduate Trot is Dees Red Delicious (PP2, Dexter Dunn), Mycrownmykingdom (PP3, McClure), Inaminute Hanover (PP4, McClure), Incommunicado (PP5, J. MacDonald), Take All Comers (PP6, J. MacDonald) and Logan Park (PP7, Filion).

The Graduate Trot is Race 6 tonight (9:05 p.m.)

The 4-year-old pacing ranks are deep this season, providing what appears on paper to be a pair of heavyweight tilts for the Graduate Pace on Saturday evening.

The $62,500 first division includes Little Brown Jug winner Lous Pearlman (PP3, Yannick Gingras), Ontario Sires Stakes star and NA Cup elimination winner Bulldog Hanover (PP4, Jody Jamieson) and the return of Grand Circuit winner Lawless Shadow (PP7, Mark MacDonald).

Joining Lous Pearlman and Bulldog Hanover, Rockyroad Hanover (PP6, Dunn) and Dean B Hanover (PP8, TBA) all raced in the recently contested Charles Juravinski Memorial Cup at Flamboro.

The field is completed by leg one winner Abuckabett Hanover (PP1, Tim Tetrick), American Courage (PP2, Matt Kakaley) and Commanding Officer (PP5, Austin Sorrie).

The first Graduate Pace division is Race 4 (8:15 p.m.).

The star power doesn't dim in the $62,500 second division, but all eyes will likely be on the nearly perfect Line Drive Hanover (PP3, J. MacDonald). The Beaton trainee captured the Juravinski Memorial Cup in a Canadian record 1:49 for his 11th win in 12 career starts.

Tony Alagna trainee Carbine (PP8, T. McCarthy) stamped himself a major player with a victory in the first Graduate leg on May 7 at The Meadowlands. Carbine followed that victory up with an eye-popping 1:47.4 score last Saturday at The Big M.

The second division is completed by Whichwaytothebeach (PP1, Louis-Philippe Roy), Southwind Gendry (PP2, Gingras), Highlandbeachsbest (PP4, McClure), One Eight Hundred (PP5, Dunn), Hellabalou (PP6, J. MacDonald) and Bettors Donttell (PP7, Gingras).

The second Graduate Pace division is Race 8 (9:55 p.m.).

The $50,000 Graduate Mares Pace will showcase a very talented group of six, including last year's Fan Hanover winner Fire Start Hanover (PP1, Dunn), two-time Ontario Sires Stakes champion Scarlett Hanover (PP5, Tetrick) and multiple Grand Circuit winner Hot Mess Express (PP6, A. McCarthy).

The Graduate Mares Pace has been carded as Race 3 (7:50 p.m.).

Saturday evening's program also includes a $199,900 OSS Gold event for 3-year-old pacing fillies and a $58,500 free-for-all pace.

Post time for tonight and Saturday is 7 p.m.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

In her second year as a trainer, Cassie Johnson loving her “rewarding” career change

by Chris Lomon

Cassie Johnson is always up for a new challenge.

It was around five years ago when she met a horseman from Ellicottville, NY, a standardbred driver/trainer who had already made a name for himself in the sport.

As it would turn out, Johnson wasn't only smitten by David McNight III, the man who already had recorded over 1,000 driving wins.

“Within a year, I wanted to quit my office job,” she said. “I find being around the horses to be very rewarding. As time went on, I looked into getting my owner's license.”

In 2021, she launched her training career.

There were times, early on, when Johnson, admittedly, felt like an outsider.

“It was a little bit intimidating because I've found over the years many of the people racing, it's passed down through generations.

The younger horsepeople grew up around the barns, learning all about the horses that way, going to the track and watching the races – that's how they developed their knowledge. For me to come into it starting from scratch and at the age I did, it was a little bit intimidating. I hadn't even bathed a horse at that time. So, it was a different world I was walking into to.”

Fortunately for Johnson, she was able to keep pace with her more seasoned contemporaries.

In her rookie season in the conditioner ranks, she went 18-15-14 from 109 starts, along with $130,633 in purse earnings.

“I was really starting from ground zero. I love that each horse has its own personality and that some are trickier to figure out than others. They are always trying to tell us something and it's up to us to read their cues, figure out a way to help them. It could be if your barn is a good fit for them, the racetrack their competing at is a good fit, the different races you have to put them in – some are okay on a larger track, some prefer a half-mile one... it's a constant challenge to figure all of those things out.”

Not that Johnson sees any of it in a negative light.

In fact, the more she is able to immerse herself in learning new things, the happier she is.

“That is something I do love about this business and in general. I love learning new things, doing research, finding different classes online to learn about health and new nutrition. I don't consider myself an expert in anything, but I do try and acquire as much knowledge as I can in a lot of different areas. I try to put everything I learn together and do the best I can to have a small stable and, with that, make sure each horse has their own plan and training regimen. It's never one size fits all for me. That's what I love about having a smaller stable to maintain.”

Her blueprint for success has panned out well so far.

Highlights include her first training win, a victory that came with veteran pacer Daylight Rush on May 8, 2021, at Buffalo Raceway, a moment when Johnson found it difficult to mask her enthusiasm, so to speak.

"It was during the pandemic, of course. I was supposed to have some people, my friends and family, at the track that night just hoping I could get my first win. It was the first night I was training. The first horse I sent out was my first win and David was driving. That was exciting. I remember getting out there and we still had to wear the mask because of Covid. I was so excited that I almost forgot to pull my mask down when we were getting the picture taken. I did remember, but looking back, you can still see the expression of complete joy."

Johnson sports a similar look any time Daylight Rush's name is mentioned.

Bred by Winbak Farm, the now 9-year-old son of Art Colony—Pass With Caution had a prosperous 2021 campaign, racking up seven wins, four seconds and six thirds in 31 starts.

"He's definitely one of the more memorable ones I've worked with. We claimed him and we were pretty sure he had some injuries. He's a very classy horse, so we decided to take a gamble with him, and he was able to do his rehab work. I was able to take the time to work on him and he came back for us. Two years ago, he was Pacer of the Meet at Buffalo Raceway, which was amazing. Last year, he had even more wins than he did the year before. He's been a fun one to be around. He has a very unique personality. He loves his job and being out on the racetrack. He keeps you on your toes and reminds you that you're not fully in control."

Despite a hectic life – Johnson and McNeight recently welcomed a son, Jackson – on the work and home fronts, the second-year trainer is happy, eager to see what the future holds for her, both personally and professionally.

As for her horse racing career, there are certain goals, now and down the road, she'd like to achieve.

"I love setting goals in life, to grow and look back to see where things started and how they worked out. One of my long-term goals at a certain point was to become a trainer, so that's cool to reminisce about. Short term, I would love to have a smaller stable of five or six classy horses who love to race. Not necessarily upper-class horses, but that would be fine too. I would like to have those ones who love their job and go out and compete each week.

"Long term, I would love to have my own property with a barn set up where I could breed and raise babies, horses that we could go out and travel the Sires Stakes circuit with. That would be great to be able to travel, but to also see a side of racing I haven't experienced yet."

When she isn't at the racetrack, Johnson, an avid hiker, kayaker, snowmobiler, skier and motorcycle rider, is enjoying the family life.

And while taking care of her young son is a top priority, it hasn't kept her away from her love of the horses and horse racing.

"Being a new mom, I really appreciate spending time together as a family. Recently, one of my horses was in an earlier race and I was able to pick my son up and take him over to the clubhouse, so we had the chance to watch a couple of races on the apron. It was his first time doing that. The weather was great, my family was in town, so it was just a wonderful time."

As for whatever the next challenge, career or otherwise, might be, Johnson will face it as she always has, eagerly and optimistically.

"With racing, you always get to experience new things and you always have the opportunity to learn something new. That's what so great about it and that's what I always look forward to."

Cinema standardbred: a plot to promote the sport of harness racing – Part 1

by Frank CotoLO

Harness racing and movies are two ingredients that do not commingle. By comparison, thoroughbred racing and movies have had a robust relationship.

With sufficient evidence, Alternative Actions (AA) will explain in this series why those two statements are historically true and then offer the solution that has the best change to change the nature of the film industry's ambivalence to the sport. Perhaps, as well, our case will inspire someone to pioneer a project that could be the most successful promotional tool standardbred racing ever utilized.

We need first to examine the miserable place harness racing has in the history of film. This is not an arduous study. From its revolutionary beginning in the 19th century through the moment you are reading this in the third decade of the 2000s, movies having even a whiff of harness racing have been less than few to none.

In 2011, prolific film documentarian Mark Cousins released the 15-hour "Story of Film: an Odyssey," arguably the ultimate audio-visual record of the medium's history. It covered the academic aspects of films while exploring the literal translation of themes, metaphors, symbolism and so on. The 15 hours pass without a mention of a screen frame related to any aspect of standardbred culture. For our purposes, we begin our series by amending Cousins' documentary with a list of standardbred-oriented movies.

Movie audiences in 1934 got their first national glimpse of harness racing in a movie titled "David Harum" starring world-famous American humorist Will Rogers in the title role. It's the late 1890s and Rogers is an owner of a racehorse with a problem – it refuses to gallop. Harum figures out that the horse is a trotter and it trots well but it trots best when Harum sings to it. In the climax, Harum drives the horse to victory and it's really Rogers in the sulky.

For most people seeing the movie when it hit theaters it was an introduction to standardbred racehorses, and then only trotters, which led the audience to believe trotters moved faster while their drivers (mistakenly called jockeys) sang to them. The movie obviously did nothing to define harness racing as a serious equine sport.

By the time "David Harum" was released, there were already 10 thoroughbred racing-oriented features since 1913. Some came from Great Britain but USA productions drew audiences at all due to the star power of Hollywood heavyweights such as Clark Gable and director John Ford.

In 1944, a Saturday Evening Post short story, "The Phantom Filly," became a Winston Miller-penned screenplay titled "Home In Indiana." The racing scenes were shot on location at the Sandusky County Ohio Fairgrounds in Ohio and the reviewers were more interested in star June Haver's "perfect figure which was displayed with a lavishness that makes one wonder how [it] ever got by the censors." The trotter in the movie was never identified. This movie made people think harness racing was exclusive to state fairs.

Speaking of state fairs, in 1945 came "State Fair," a romp about lovesick kids at the Iowa State Fair where harness racing was mere trimming for the music and songs of Rodgers & Hammerstein. In fact, there is a boar playing the prize-winning pig Blue Boy but never a standardbred's name is muttered.

In 1948, reviews were good for "Green Grass of Wyoming" and they included praise for the beautiful mare trotter Crown Jewel and stallion Thunderhead, her thoroughbred lover. Again, though, it depicted harness racing as a rural, state-fair novelty and emphasized the equine "romance" as the inspiration for Crown Jewel to win a stakes race.

Released in 1949, "The Great Dan Patch" starred B-movie heartthrob Dennis O'Keefe in a screenplay by John Taintor Foote, who had his hands in a few racehorse-related movies, including "Kentucky" (originally titled "The Look of Eagles") and "The Story of Seabiscuit" (1949), the original film about the thoroughbred (more about the 2003 version to come). Oddly enough, Foote's co-screenwriter for "Kentucky" was Lamar Trotti, a name which by coincidence includes the word "trot" and is the only reference to anything standardbred. The history delivered in the story of the great pacer Dan Patch is suspect, at best. Yet, it is the first movie of a standardbred pacer on screen and the first serious look at the breadth of the sport.

Finally, in 1952, a popular character series used harness racing as a backdrop in "Ma and Pa Kettle at the Races." Though the Dan Patch movie made a strong case for standardbred racing in movies, this grody movie ruined any chance of taking the sport seriously in any movie context.

There is only a little film history for part two and it centers around thoroughbreds but it's successful movies about running equine heroes where we find the roots of what is wrong with all horse racing in movies and we get closer to our plot to create "Cinema Standardbred."

Gold season gets underway at Woodbine Mohawk Park

by Austin Stanton / OSS publicity

The Ontario Sires Stakes Gold season officially got underway on a beautiful Monday night (May 30) at Woodbine Mohawk Park with a pair of $101,300 3-year-old trotting colt divisions.

All eyes were on the two division favorites, Duly Resolved and Twin B Archie, with both former 2-year-old stars looking to replicate their OSS success as sophomores.

Duly Resolved, who hadn't found the winner's circle in two starts this season, was sent off as the 1-2 favorite in the opening Gold division of the evening. The son of Resolve blasted to the early lead from the seven post and proved to be the class of the field for trainer and co-owner John Bax.

"Everything went to plan, and I was pretty happy with the way it set up," said Bax. "Nobody gave him any grief, so that was the way it was supposed to happen."

Hall of Famer Paul MacDonnell piloted the gelding to an opening panel of :27.4 and a half mile time of :56.4. No one in the field put forth a major challenge, and he won by two lengths in 1:54.1.

Bax and co-owners David Hudson, Don Allensen, and Gaelic Stable will now turn their attention to the Goodtimes Trot on Pepsi North America Cup night. The $240,000 race is named after a lifetime winner of over $2.2 million, who was trained by Bax.

"The Goodtimes is definitely where we're looking next," said Bax. "I'd love to hand the trophy to myself."

Tymal Tiggs, driven by Louis-Phillipe Roy, trailed the entire way to finish second. The son of Muscle Mass, and Jean Tourigny trainee continued a strong three-year-old season that's seen him earn over $58,000 for owner Jean Mondou.

Bill Manes and William Cripps homebred Evil Guy (Il Sogno Dream) rounded out the top three for trainer/driver duo Shannon and Trevor Henry.

In the second Gold division of the evening it was Archangel son, Twin B Archie's turn to prove he was up to the task, going off as the heavy 1-9 favorite. However, Esplosione and driver Jody Jamieson had other ideas.

The gelding from Kadabra's second last racing crop settled into fifth early on and found a second up trip to put himself into position heading into the stretch.

New Image Media

"I was behind the favorite early which is right where I wanted to be," said Jamieson. "When he vacated that spot and went to the lead, it left me thinking I was going to be first up, but the trip worked out. I just had to be a little more patient"

Owned by Melvin Hartman and Enzed Racing Stable, Esplosione closed in a final panel of :27.2 to beat Twin B Archie by a neck.

"He should have been third by rights," said Jamieson. "But he dug in to win. I was really impressed with the horse."

It was the third career Gold division win for Esplosione, and a in career best mark of 1:53.4. The Meg Crone trainee will also target the Good Times as his next outing.

"He's very consistent," said Crone. "He can race off the front, or off a helmet, and he's so smart it helps a lot. He never gets hot. I think he'll be one of the top contenders the rest of the year."

Twin B Archie now holds a record of 2-1-0 in three starts this season for trainer Scott McEneny, and already has over $98,000 in earnings for McEneny and his ownership partners Domenic Chiaravalle, Floyd Marshall, and Martwest Racing Stable.

Camilla Christoforou trainee Safe Conduct finished third. Driver Chris Christoforou set an early pace of :26.4 with the son of Archangel. The finish pushed him over $58,000 in career earnings for owners Charalambos Christoforou and Irvann Holdings Inc.

The Ontario Sires Stakes continued Thursday (June 2), with a Grassroots Leg for 3-year-old trotting fillies at Woodbine Mohawk Park (recap in our Sunday, June 5 issue). Gold action returns to the Milton oval next Monday (June 6) with the opening Gold Leg for 3-year-old pacing fillies.

Night Hawk in 1:48.4 at Pocono to win PASS division

by PHHA / Pocono

The “glamour boys,” the 3-year-old pacers, were at Pocono for the Memorial Day Monday (May 30) holiday card, competing in the second preliminaries of their respective events: three $45,986 Pennsylvania Sire Stake divisions, and four $20,000 cuts of the complementary Stallion Series.

The acclaimed Betting Line colt Night Hawk lived up to his accolades in his Sires division, winning in 1:48.4 – a new mark, the fastest mile of the year at Pocono, and tying Let It Ride N yesterday at Philly for fastest mile in eastern Pennsylvania in 2022.

But you can’t tell this Night Hawk story without giving due credit to Mad Max Hanover. “Max” made the lead just past the :26.3 quarter, then kept up a searing pace with mid-splits of :54.2 and 1:22.2; the field stayed strung out until David Miller moved Night Hawk out late on the backstretch, soon hooking up with the leader.

In early stretch, Night Hawk gained a slight advantage, but Mad Max Hanover hung in there dead-game to the wire, and the difference between the two Pennsylvania All-Stars winners here earlier was only a neck on the money. Night Hawk now has five wins in six lifetime starts, his only loss a second in the first leg of the Sires, and he looks likely to be in the headlines for a while for trainer Brian Brown and owners

Curtis Salonick

Night Hawk (3, David Miller) edges past Mad Max Hanover (4) at the end of an epic stretch battle, winning a PASS cut on Monday at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono in 1:48.4.

Leeman Lombardo Stable, Joe Sbrocco, In The Gym Partners, and Acadia Farms Inc.

Other than the star performance of Night Hawk, it was pretty much The Sweet Lou Show the rest of the stakes afternoon, as the noted sire produced the other two PASS winners and three of the four Stallion Series winners. (Sweet Lou also got three credits in the Stallion Series for the colts’ female counterparts at Philly the day before).

Along with the top two mentioned above, the third All-Stars winner here earlier was the colt Market Based, and he took his second Pocono start with a victory in 1:50.4. Dexter Dunn got the two-hole behind P J Lou as that one was on a wide lead through fractions of :27.2 and :56, then narrowed in. The outer tier didn’t make too much headway in the fast third quarter, which was reached in 1:22.4, giving Dunn plenty of room to edge out from the two-hole and go right to the lead, defeating inside late gainer Ario Hanover by 1¼ lengths.

Market Based broke in his seasonal bow in the first Sire Stakes, but he's been perfect in a pair of starts since for trainer Nancy Takter and owners Chuck Pompey, Edwin Gold, and H&M Taylor Stable. He now has $261,183 on his career card.

A five-horse division of the Sire Stakes saw the unusual (even in a big field) configuration of horses going four-wide into the first turn, with Captain Cowboy taking over from Six Feet Apart past a :26.2 quarter. The favorite Captain Cowboy was relatively unbothered through middle fractions of :55.1 and 1:23.1, but on the far turn he had to meet the challenge of Fouever Boy, who took back to fourth early then came uncovered nearing the final bend. The pair were joined by Six Feet Apart, who inched ever-closer in the Pocono Pike, and in a dramatic three-way late battle, the Sweet Lou colt Fouever Boy was a nose ahead of Six Feet Apart in a new mark of 1:51.1, with Captain Cowboy another neck back in third.

Fouever Boy was winning for only the second time in his career, but good checks in freshman stakes company enabled him to raise his career bankroll to $244,795. Mike Wilder got everything he could from Fouever Boy for trainer Tim Twaddle, who is also co-owner with Micki Rae Stables LLC.

Two of the Sweet Lous were taking their second Stallion Series races. The faster of the pair was Dancin Sancho, who had been off 23 days since that Meadows StS win, but trainer Todd Luther had him ready, with the gelding swinging wide off cover and gaining a three-quarter length decision over favored Jo Pa's Warrior in a new mark of 1:51. Scott Zeron piloted the winner for Black Magic Racing.

The other who now has two Stallion Series wins is the gelding Code Cracker, whom Yannick Gingras moved out of the pocket nearing the three-quarters, took the lead, then held off a big late brush from Hecandancencruise by a nose for trainer Ron Burke and Burke Racing Stable LLC and Weaver Brussemi LLC, Michelle Yanek, and Phil Collura. Code Cracker's 1:51.2 clocking lowered his own best win time.

Sweet Lou was also represented in the StS winner's circle by the gelding Boston, who followed the day's dominant pattern of coming from just off the pace to win, overhauling Rocknroll Gold by three-quarters of a length in 1:52 for driver Dexter Dunn, trainer Jenn Bongiorno, and owners Glenn Goller and Stephen Demeter.

Captaintreacherous got on the sire scoreboard when his Atlas Hanover took a new mark of 1:51.2 after being in control from the three-eighths, crossing the wire six lengths to the good. Dexter Dunn won his second Stallion Series race and his third stake of the day with Atlas Hanover; the gelding was 0-for-14 in 2021 but is now 2-for-2 in 2022 for trainer Tony Alagna and the ownership of Robert Leblanc, David Anderson, Kenneth Jacobs, and In The Gym Partners.

Harrah's Hoosier Park plays host to opening round of ISS action; Tetrick wins six on the card

by Emily Gaskin / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino played host to a stakes filled card on Monday, May 30 as the evening's 13-race card featured 10 divisions of Indiana Sires Stakes for the 3-year-old competitors. It marked the start of the 2022 stakes season and also a successful evening for Harrah's Hoosier Park's leading driver, Trace Tetrick, who won six of the evening's 13 races.

Tetrick kicked things off with a win in the first race on the program but his first Indiana Sires Stakes win wouldn't come until the ninth race. The 3-year-old trotting fillies were the first to square off and it was Bluebird Dove and driver Peter Wrenn who came out on top in the $47,000 opening division. Stopping the timer in 1:53.2, Bluebird Dove sat the pocket on the heavily favorable Luv Lorelei and Robert Taylor before getting up in the final strides of the mile for the win. The 1:53.2 score bested her lifetime mark by nearly three seconds. The daughter of Swan For All—Goosebump Hanover is trained by Melanie Wrenn and owned by David McDuffee and L&L Devisser LLC.

Driver Peter Wrenn had a driving double on the program as he also scored in the very next stakes, the first division of $34,500 Indiana Sires Stakes for 3-year-old pacing fillies, with AlloutBlitz for trainer Jeff Cullipher. It would once again be a late stretch showdown between favorites. After grinding the mile first up, Alloutblitz would valiantly fend off Marvelous Marshia and John De Long to score in a lifetime best 1:51.4. The JK Endofanera filly trained by Jeff Cullipher picked up her first win in three tries on the season, and now pushes her career bankroll to $109,334 for owners Pollack Racing and Jeff Cullipher.

Cullipher had a training double on the program as he also sent out Always Gonna B You who was victorious in her split of the stakes action for 3-year-old pacing fillies in 1:49.4. With driver John DeLong in the bike, Always Gonna B You converted a pocket trip into a new lifetime best score. Owned in partnership by Roll The Dice Stable and the Val D'Or Farms, the daughter of Always A Virgin—Passing Fancy scored her second win of the season and fifth lifetime victory.

The final division of the stakes action for the 3-year-old pacing fillies went to Trick Of The Light and Tetrick. Trick Of The Light went gate to wire and held off JK's Rollin Baby with Atlee Bender to win in 1:50.3. The 1:50.3 established a new lifetime best for the Brian Brown trainee. The daughter of Odds On Equuleus—Gordjus has now won two of three seasonal starts.

Dean Gillette

Bluebird Dove (Peter Wrenn) came out on top in the $47,000 opening division of the Indiana Sires Stakes for sophomore trotting fillies on Monday at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

Tetrick teamed up with trainer Erv Miller to record two victories in stakes action. The Longest Yard made his seasonal debut a winning one after he stopped the timer in 1:50.2 in a spit of the stakes action for 3-year-old pacing colts. The gelded son of Rockin Image—Balinska Hanover used a :26.2 closing quarter to hold off Fulfillmydestiny and driver/trainer James Yoder. With the victory, The Longest Yard established a new lifetime best and recorded his fourth lifetime win for owners Rocco Ruffolo and Douglas Overhiser.

Ponda Adventure also made his seasonal debut a winning one for trainer Erv Miller as he looked every bit the part of a 3-5 favorite. Stopping the timer in 1:53.3, Ponda Adventure went gate-to-wire to score in a new lifetime best and also get the win by nearly three lengths over Flat Out Foxy and Sam Widger. Ponda Adventure is owned in partnership by Engel Stable of IL LLC, Jerry Graham and Louis Willinger.

Tetrick's sixth win on the program came behind 3-year-old pacing colt JK Victory for trainer Ron Burke. The gelded son of JK Endofanera—GT Miss Royal converted a sharp, front-running effort into his first seasonal victory for 3 Brothers Stable and Caviart Farms. The 1:49.1 winning time was also a new lifetime best for JK Victory.

The 2021 Indiana Sires Stakes 2-year-old trotting colt champion Dover In Motion was victorious in the opening division of the stakes action for 3-year-old trotting colts. Also utilizing a gate-to-wire strategy, Dover In Motion was in a race of his own as he stopped the timer in a new lifetime best of 1:52.4 and won by nearly six lengths. Driven by Ricky Macomber Jr. and trained by Jamie Macomber, the son of Dover Dan—Keystone Sadie has now won nine of 10 lifetime starts.

The 2021 Indiana Sires Stakes 2-year-old trotting filly champion, M-M's Dream, also opened her 3-year-old season in impressive fashion with a victory of her own in her split of the stakes action. With regular pilot Sam Widger in the bike, M-M's Dream used a :27 closing quarter to track down Swan Trixie and Peter Wrenn late in the lane. Trained by Henry Graber Jr., the daughter of Swan For All—Trading Places stopped the timer in 1:54.4 to establish a new lifetime best and her first win of the season.

Ponda Warrior established a new lifetime best of his own after a 1:49.1 front end score in the opening split of the stakes action for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings. Driven by Jimmy Whittemore for trainer Jay Hochstetler, the son of Rockin Image—Sweetnsinful went to the front and never looked back en route to his second consecutive victory this season. Ponda Warrior is owned in partnership by Jay Hochstetler, Finkelberg Racing and South of the Tracks Rac LLC.

After they race, we find them a place!

Pleaseletmeknow, Te Amo Blue Chip take NYSS divisions at Buffalo

by Brian J. Mazurek, for Buffalo Raceway

The front end was the place to be in the two $60,300 divisions of the New York Sire Stakes for the 3-year-old colt and gelding pacers at Buffalo Raceway on Wednesday afternoon (June 1) as both Pleaseletmeknow and Te Amo Blue Chip got the early jump and never looked back.

Pleaseletmeknow (Matt Kakaley) was the quickest of the two legs with a 1:53.1 clocking over the fast track while Te Amo Blue Chip (Mark MacDonald) posted a 1:55.0 over the surface that was downgraded to sloppy due to rain.

There was little suspense in either division as both Pleaseletmeknow ($3.60) and Te Amo Blue Chip ($20.40) reached the top early, posted solid splits, and never were challenged down the lane.

Kakaley stepped on the gas early with Pleaseletmeknow as they notched fractions of :28.1, :57.1, 1:25.4, cruising to a satisfying

2-1/2 length score over Shake It (Jim Morrill Jr.) while 2-year-old NYSS champion JD (MacDonald) ended up in third.

Owned by Fiddler's Creek Stable, LLC and trained by Travis Alexander, Pleaseletmeknow (American Ideal—I Said Please) is a 3-year-old gelding that has won twice this season in three attempts. The victory launched his 2022 bankroll to $49,425 and $155,697 lifetime.

In the second bracket, Te Amo Blue Chip was the commander of fractions as he rolled out to times of :28.2, :56.4, 1:26.0 in going a 1:54.4 mile. Down the stretch, Te Amo Blue Chip kept Bounty Hunter (Morrill Jr.) out of range until very late and settled for a neck victory with American Zestar (Kakaley) finishing in third.

Trained by John Berger, Te Amo Blue Chip (Roll With Joe-Amora Hanover) is a 3-year-old gelding that has produced two victories in four tries on the year. His earnings moved to $37,840 in 2022 and $65,833 in his career.

In the $15,000 Excelsior A Series, Lanjo Lee (Tyler Buter) posted an impressive 4-1/2 length score over KJ Unreal (Kakaley) in 1:55, returning a paltry $2.10 for the win. The other division saw Kingsville (Morrill Jr.) turn back KJ Hunter (MacDonald) by a 1-1/4 lengths in 1:56.2, returning $2.60 for the win.

While there were plenty of favorites posting wins on the card, ironically it was Ideal Longshot who blew up the tote board in the finale. Driven by Justin Irvine, Ideal Longshot returned $191.50 for the victory and topped the 7-6 exacta which paid $1,445 and the 7-6-8-all superfecta for $6,990.

Kakaley and Irvine each completed the session with driving doubles.

Incaseyoudidn'tknow shatters Harrington track record

James Magno and Joseph Fonte's Incaseyoudidn'tknow ($5, Jim Morand) broke the track record for pacing mares Tuesday (May 31) at Harrington Raceway with a dazzling 1:51 effort in a $13,500 conditioned event.

Morand guided the 4-year-old Always B Miki mare immediately to the front from post two and set sizzling fractions of :26.4, :54.3 and 1:23 and was a dominant winner in track record time over Truth And Liberty and Western Secret A.

Trained by Les Givens, it was the 10th career win for Incaseyoudidn'tknow, and second straight over the half-mile oval. The win broke the previous mark co-held by Newborn Sassy and Jamie's Renegade of 1:51.2.

Graduate mare trot second leg cancelled

The second leg of the Graduate Series Mare Trot, which was scheduled to have been raced at Woodbine Mohawk Park tonight (June 3), has been cancelled due to a lack of entries.

The mares that entered for the cancelled leg will be awarded a start credit and seven points toward the standings for the final as described in the stakes conditions.

The other divisions of the Graduate second leg will be raced as scheduled on tonight's and Saturday's cards at Mohawk. The series will continue with Leg #3 at The Meadowlands on Saturday, June 25 leading up to the rich finals on Meadowlands Pace elimination night Saturday, July 9.
