With a healthy number of 26 3-year-old pacers entered for this year's Pepsi North America Cup at Woodbine Mohawk Park, three eliminations will be necessary in order to determine the 10 finalists for next week's $1 million final. The need for three eliminations where only the top three finishers from each race will be guaranteed a spot in the final is a much-welcomed departure from the established norm of non-competitive eliminations.

The setup for Saturday's (June 8) races reflects how elimination races were first intended, in that a horse will have to actually race itself into the following week's final. And to Mohawk's credit with

“ For me, having to finish in the top three wildly changes the approach, and last year it was where you had to be top two. In an elimination race you want to accomplish a couple of things. You’d love to win, but you’d love to do it without getting every single per cent out of your horse, because seven days later you have to do it again. The goal is always to win, but it’s to win without overexerting to the point of exhaustion. ”

this race, last year the North America Cup had four(!) elimination races where only the top two were guaranteed spots as finalists, so there’s a clear history in this race of horses needing to be at or near their best just to make the final.

In two of the eliminations Saturday that have nine horses, only the top third will advance to the final. In the one elimination that has eight horses, there is still an element of talent and strategy to finish in the top three. This is in direct contrast to typical elimination races in recent years across the industry where, at best, 50 per cent of the field will make the final and at worst, 90 per cent of an elimination field will pass on through. Saturday’s North America Cup races will take the form of pure elimination races and less of preparation races.

The pedal will be down far more than it would be in a two-elimination scenario and with that the races will be much more competitive, strategic, and honestly run. It also opens up the possibility that some of the better horses may not even make the final if they aren’t on their ‘A’ game or if racing luck isn’t on their side. With that, it forces the drivers to consider changes in approach as well.

Driver Scott Zeron won last year's 40th edition of this race with It's My Show and his hopes this time around rests solely with the 2-year-old Governor's Cup winner, Captain Luke. In Saturday's race 5, which goes as the second of the three Cup eliminations, Captain Luke will begin from the rail in a race where the competition is stacked. Before Zeron can even think of winning a third North America Cup final (Captain Crunch, 2019), he'll first need to get there and driver strategy in the elimination will be a major factor.

"For me, having to finish in the top three wildly changes the approach, and last year it was where you had to be top two," said Zeron. "In an elimination race you want to accomplish a couple of things. You'd love to win, but you'd love to do it without getting every single per cent out of your horse, because seven days later you have to do it again. The goal is always to win, but it's to win without overexerting to the point of exhaustion.

"In a top three, it makes it where a 2-hole trip sounds good, but sometimes you might never get out. You're going to see a lot more aggressive drives from drivers, and having to be in the top two last year was even more intimidating. It's certainly something that you're conscious of. You also want to win so that you can get a good post, which is a game changer in a final. Last year we had at least eight horses that made the final where you could have realistically said any of those can win and having us draw into the 2-hole last year was huge."

Captain Luke's elimination features last year's 2-year-old O'Brien winner Legendary Hanover, a winner two races back in a time of 1:48.3. It also includes Funtime Bayama, who got the tactical jump on Legendary Hanover in last week's Somebeachsomewhere and sprung the minor upset in 1:49.1. Not to be overlooked either is Mirage Hanover who shined at this track early in the freshman season last year and most recently comes off a 1:48.4 timed mile at The Meadowlands.

"Legendary Hanover is very good, but Legendary Hanover hasn't raced against Captain Luke, nor have others, so this is where you kind of shuffle the cards a little bit," said Zeron. "Having the rail can sometimes be a little disadvantage at Mohawk, but my horse is extremely fast off the car and we'll be looking to utilize that, but so will [Sylvain Filion with Funtime Bayama] right? So, it'll be a mad dash to the eighth pole and we'll see how it goes after that."

Continuing to add to the talent in the elimination is Number Cruncher, a horse that Zeron drove to an impressive 5-length win at Woodbine Mohawk Park a week ago and one that the driver was obviously less than enthused that both his horses drew into the same elimination.

~ Scott Zeron

“He was so good and Erv Miller has managed him very well to keep him away from the top dogs early on in the year and kind of let him come to his speed and be confident heading into a race like that,” said Zeron about Number Cruncher. “It's unfortunate to have had to book off of him this early.”

It's a similar story in the first elimination, in that at least one very good horse will not be guaranteed to make the final. That elimination alone includes Clever Cody, Captain Albano, Captains Quarters and Gem Quality. The final elimination does appear to be the softest on paper, but even that race is likely to see its share of early action as Total Stranger starts from the outside against last week's Somebeachsomewhere winner, the streaking Nijinsky who bested Captains Quarters.

Larger track opens a world of exciting possibilities for Grand River

The new five-eighths mile track at Grand River Raceway, which officially opened on Wednesday, should provide a better experience for horses, horsepeople and bettors.

Horsepeople and horseplayers, alike, will be working with more runway this season at Grand River Raceway.

The Western Ontario oval kicked off its first live racing campaign on Wednesday (June 5) as a five-eighths mile oval, following the successful extension of its racing surface.

Prior to this year, Grand River had operated as a half-mile track for the entirety of its 20-plus-year existence.

One of the masterminds behind the extension project, Greg Coon of the heralded Coon racetrack construction and development family, remembers when the raceway at 7445 Wellington County Rd was still in its pre-construction phase.

“Twenty-three or so years ago, there was a veterinarian (the late Grand River founder and Canadian Hall of Famer Dr. Ted Clarke) that called me out of the blue and said, ‘I’m going to build a track in Grand River, and I’d like a blueprint of the Little Brown Jug,’” Coon said.

What at first was the inspiration behind Grand River later became part of its identity. That was in no way lost on Coon and co., who needed to work within the parameters of The Jug’s design to ensure the accuracy of the new dimensions.

“Of course, The Jug has got bigger turns than any other half-mile track and that makes the stretches shorter,” Coon said. “We’ve essentially done the same thing given the property line limits here.

“We’ve gone from a half-mile track that had larger than normal turns and shorter stretches to a five-eighths that’s the same way.”

As Coon reminded, a traditional five-eighths track has a radius of about 300 feet. However, in alignment with the aforementioned property line restrictions, the renowned trackman says Grand River’s five-eighths course features a radius that’s approximately 50 feet bigger.

“A normal half-mile is 230-foot radiuses,” Coon said. “The Jug is 267 feet, so you can see that it had bigger turns, and so does this one we just built.”

With the expansion comes a greater opportunity for Grand River to grow its already impressive live racing meet into one of Canada’s premier harness destinations.

It is something director of equine programming at Western Fair, Greg Blanchard, envisioned as part of the revamp.

The industry veteran is lending his expertise to his Grand River friends and colleagues this season.

“By expanding to five-eighths, you should be able to attract a higher caliber of horses to race there, which generally translates to handle,” Blanchard said. “And by doing that, I think you’re also going to ensure stronger field size, which is something bettors certainly want. That, along with competitiveness of the field, and a racetrack that plays fair, meaning different trips can win.

“The hope in making the move is that you’re going to have more people that are willing to race, and better younger horses, in particular, on the bigger track, which should trickle down through those other metrics.”

That was certainly true on opening night. Grand River set an opening-day record with $404,071 bet on Wednesday despite less-than-perfect weather.

Coon has also noticed the impact that increased speed figures have had on drawing in top horsepeople to larger tracks.

“Really, and truly, it seems like the horses have gotten so much faster in the last 10 or 20 years,” Coon said. “People are sort of avoiding half-mile tracks with speed horses. But I think they’ll be able to draw some good horses here.”

Just as a pitcher with a 100-mile-per-hour fastball makes the game more exciting, so too does a bigger track with more room for unpredictability.

“I think it’ll be a fast track, for sure,” Blanchard said. “The hope from a fan or customer standpoint is that it’ll be exciting racing and the type of racing where horses can win from almost any type of trip.

“We won’t know that until we watch a couple of programs, but boy, if all of that comes together the way they hope it will, it should be a fantastic product.”

In some circumstances, change can be daunting. But on the racetrack, it can be the catalyst behind a new brand of racing.

As Blanchard put it, that’s a significant bonus for horseplayers.

“The other element that we shouldn’t underestimate for horseplayers is the excitement of change, the excitement of a newly-configured track,” he said. “I think there’s going to be that element as well, that people are going to be watching with added interest. If you factor that into all of the other things, I think it’s a recipe for potential handle growth this season.”

Curtis MacDonald

While there’s no denying that both horsepeople and players will need time to adapt to the new settings, Blanchard said he doesn’t believe it will last any longer than a few programs.

Having Coon’s meticulous eye going over every last detail also goes a long way in inspiring confidence among those traversing the new track for the first time.

“If you talk to enough horsepeople, they’ll all have a different opinion on what they like to see in a track surface or what they feel is a good track. The fact that it’s been pretty much unanimous so far that people think it’s a good surface and going to be a great track to race on, that’s really positive”

~ Greg Blanchard

“I’m getting mostly positive feedback,” Coon said as he surveyed the surface before opening day. “I’d say if I asked 10 people this morning how the track is, one of them said he thought it was just a touch loose and the rest were happy with it.”

Coon watched intently while some 30-plus horses gathered to train on the newly built surface on June 4.

Of the several key items on his checklist, one requires more than just his eagle eye.

“It sounds good when they roar by,” he said. “I’m standing right where they come off the track because I want to hear how it sounds.

“If there’s any fixing to be done, that’s why I’m here.”

It didn’t take long for Grand River’s new crown jewel to undergo its first stress test. In fact, it happened right out of the gate.

Wednesday’s season opener featured a stiff combo of rainfall and 10 qualifiers.

Rain, shine or otherwise, the forecast for a successful new racing strip looks to be a pleasant one for all.

“If you talk to enough horsepeople, they’ll all have a different opinion on what they like to see in a track surface or what they feel is a good track,” Blanchard said. “The fact that it’s been pretty much unanimous so far that people think it’s a good surface and going to be a great track to race on, that’s really positive.”

By going the extra mile, five-eighths, in this instance, Grand River and its racing fans have plenty to look forward to in 2024 and beyond.

Deep Battle of Lake Erie field set

Racing stallion Carbine looks to continue his winning ways in Saturday's $200,000 event.

by Jay Wolf

The real Battle of Lake Erie, the naval affair that became the turning point of the War of 1812, lasted just over three hours, but MGM Northfield Park's director of racing Dave Bianconi has spent much more time than that putting together maybe the deepest field in the race's history.

Headlining the 38th edition of the $200,000 Battle of Lake Erie on Saturday night (June 8) is the two-time Ohio Horse of the Year, Bythemissal (Chris Page).

The 2022 Little Brown Jug champion is making just the second start of his 5-year-old campaign. He finished fifth in the $100,000 Joe Auger Memorial Invitational at Harrah's Philadelphia on May 26.

The gelded son of Downbytheseaside is owned by Burke Racing Stable, Eric Good, Rich Lombardo and Weaver Brussemi.

Conditioner Ron Burke looks to add to his record six Battle of Lake Erie training titles.

Rounding out the 'Battle' field are Linedrive Hanover (Aaron Merriman), second in the recent $109,500 Camluck Classic, the second Burke entry Hellabalou (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.), winner of the Camluck Classic and the $457,000 MGM Borgata Pacing Series, Coaches Corner (Jason Barlett), the MGM Borgata Pacing Series runner-up, the 2021 Pepsi North America Cup champion Desperate Man (Matt Kakaley) and regional standouts Little Rocket Man (Jeremy Smith) and Why Not Now (Dan Noble).

Representing the Eldorado Scioto Downs circuit will be Charlie May (Brett Miller) and Carbine (Austin Hanners).

The fan favorite Charlie May has made just one start this season, a fourth-place finish in Scioto's open pace last Saturday. He was 2½ lengths behind Carbine, who won for the ninth time in 16 2024 starts.

“ [Carbine’s earnings] are a strong statement. We are just into June and he’s made that kind of money, all in Ohio. Surely anybody who is in the business, now knows that Ohio is one of the premier states. ”

~ Virgil Morgan, Jr.

Carbine is a 6-year-old who entered the Virgil Morgan, Jr. barn at the start of the year and was pulling double duty as a stallion and a racehorse.

“He has a history of being fast at times,” said Morgan. “He is extremely well bred and a big, good-looking horse. I was excited to get him.”

Carbine owns a pair of 1:47.4 victories – at The Meadowlands at age 4 and last year at Woodbine Mohawk Park – and has 29 career wins and is $2,031 short of half a million in career earnings.

This year he captured the $100,000 Wizard Memorial Invitational on Miami Valley Raceway’s closing day (May 4) and has earned $190,645, all in the Buckeye State.

“[His earnings] are a strong statement,” said Morgan. “We are just into June and he’s made that kind of money, all in Ohio. Surely anybody who is in the business, now knows that Ohio is one of the premier states.”

Carbine was bred by the Let It Ride Stable and is owned by Dana Parham’s Odds On Racing.

“Dana deserves a lot of credit,” said Morgan. “He has invested greatly in the Ohio program. He is very active in the claiming game. He breeds almost all of his mares in Ohio and now he is standing Carbine. He loves this sport and it shows.”

The handsome son of Somebeachsomewhere—Shot Togo Bluechip just completed his first season at Midland Acres where he bred 50+ mares.

“It is all about a routine and so far, he has liked the routine,” said Morgan. “He went to Midland Acres on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, or when they needed him... The farm has been wonderful. It’s all about communication. It’s worked out well.”

Carbine is less than a length from having a current seven-race win streak; five wins and two runner-up finishes, one by a half-length and one by a neck. Four of those wins came with the 25-year-old Austin Hanners in the bike.

“Carbine is a really good gate horse,” said Morgan. “He is extremely fast off the gate. Trace Tetrick was driving him at Miami Valley, but we knew we needed a regular driver for Scioto and I suggested Austin and it’s worked out very well.”

Despite having more than 7,450 career training wins, none of Morgan’s victories have come in the Battle. His best finish in the Battle of Lake Erie is a second place with Rockin Finish in 2014.

The Battle undercard will include a $100,000 leg of the Ohio Sires Stakes for 3-year-old male trotters and the third edition of the $75,000 MGM Buckeye Distaff, an invitational for veteran Ohio-sired pacing mares.

While not an invitational event, the six-horse field of colts for the second leg of the OSS trot is talent laden. Last year’s Ohio freshman trotter of the year, Tennessee Tom (Chris Page) will be one of the top betting choices. The Long Tom colt is two-for-two this season after banking $456,350 last year.

Spaaaanzano (Aaron Merriman) will also receive support from the betting public. The homebred son of Coraggioso is coming into this leg off a 1:53.2 track record effort in the $100,000 Bunker Hill Trot at Plainridge Park (May 16).

Royal Precedent (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) defeated Spaaaanzano by a neck in the first leg of the OHSS at Miami Valley Raceway (May 4) in gate-to-wire fashion. The Creatine offspring will leave from the coveted rail position and was installed as the morning line second choice at 5-2.

The post time for the 16-race card is 6:00 p.m.

MEADOWLANDS MATTERS

with DEBBIE LITTLE

Mark Herschberger's career is blossoming in the Garden State

by Debbie Little

On Saturday (June 1), Mark Herschberger won his fourth race at The Meadowlands, driving the Ron Burke-trained Canigetouloup (49-1) to a nose win in a career-best 1:50.1.

Coming out on top at “The Mecca of Harness Racing” is always special, but the circumstances surrounding this particular victory made it more so.

Herschberger, who turned 29 in April, didn't find out he was driving the 3-year-old filly until around 4 p.m. on the afternoon of the race in a text from Meadowlands associate judge Jim Grow.

Initially Patrick Ryder was listed on Canigetouloup. However, Herschberger said since Ryder's father, Chris, also had a horse in the race, the judges determined that someone else should sit behind Canigetouloup.

According to Herschberger, Grow's text said he needed to make a driver change on Canigetouloup, and when Grow called Burke to find out who he wanted, Ronnie said: “Put the Herschberger kid up.”

This was a surreal moment for Herschberger, who is only in his second full year of driving horses.

“It made me feel very good, actually,” Herschberger said. “I don't know, words can't really describe it. I was floored when I found out [Burke] asked for me.”

When asked why he chose Herschberger, Burke said with a laugh, “I recognized his name.”

Burke went on to say that “[Herschberger] did a great job,” and he would consider using him again in similar circumstances.

There's no question that the opportunity to drive Canigetouloup, perhaps in large part, came about because several Meadowlands drivers were north of the border at Woodbine Mohawk Park for stakes races, including the Somebeachsomewhere.

Courtesy Mark Herschberger
Mark Herschberger wore his cousin Marcus Miller's helmet for his first few wins at Freehold.

For Herschberger, it wasn't about how he got the drive as much as what he did with the opportunity.

This was only the second start of the year for the daughter of Sweet Lou—Continual Velocity, so Herschberger immediately watched the replay from her 2024 debut race at The Meadows on May 17.

“Ronnie Wrenn drove her and she made a nasty break behind the gate and it looked like he pretty much just put her up on the gate and ended up doubling her up,” Herschberger said.

The game plan for Canigetouloup last week was for Herschberger to take her off the gate and have pace to the wire, but apparently the filly didn't get the memo.

“She wasn't having any part of that,” Herschberger said. “She was a little fussy in her mouth and didn't really want me to get into her mouth so much at all. So, I just kind of let her do her thing out there.”

“There were some good horses in there. I mean, [Jason] Bartlett felt like his horse [Bath Bomb] should have beat me. We talked about it after the race and he said his horse wasn't exactly right. It was running in a touch down the lane there. And I got lucky to keep Andrew McCarthy [with Sweet Gal] locked in until late. He was coming on pretty late there and I think if we had one more foot of track, I think he would have got me. But, you know, sometimes it's better to be lucky than good. I guess that's what they always say.”

Herschberger, McCarthy and Bartlett finished three across the track with less than a length separating them.

As a horseman just starting out, Herschberger takes every opportunity, when presented, to learn from the top drivers at The Meadowlands.

“Guys like Dexter Dunn, Andrew McCarthy, even my uncle, Andy Miller, I pay attention to all those guys, even just the way they hold their hands or hold their whip,” Herschberger said. “Just the smallest things I try to pay attention to and take something from them and I feel like that’s helped me because, to tell you the truth, I haven’t had a coach to teach me how to drive and how to read a race program.

“I don’t know, words can’t really describe it. I was floored when I found out [Ron Burke] asked for me.”

“Saturday night, I got to sit with [Jason Bartlett] most of the night and just talk over every race we were in and after the race got to talk over what I could have done better.”

Bartlett said he remembers talking with Herschberger about Canigetaplouplou.

“He was a little nervous driving that [filly] because her mouth was a little funny and he’s like ‘They’re trying to tell me to do one thing and I had to do the other thing but it worked out,’” Bartlett said. “Which was good that he adjusted on the fly with that particular horse. I know he had instructions to do one thing and he had to do the other and it did work out, which was good.

“To tell you the truth, I thought he had more experience than that by watching him drive. You know what I mean? It’s kind of surprising that he’s only been driving since [2022] for two years. He acts like he’s been out there a lot more than that.”

Herschberger hopes to get more opportunities this weekend and next as several top Meadowlands drivers will again head to Mohawk for the eliminations and finals of the North America Cup.

He’s got five drives tonight including one for Burke and eight on Saturday, including two morning line favorites, one of which is for Alagna.

Herschberger already has more wins (33) and money earned ($214,009) this year than in 2023 (27 and $187,151), which was his first full year driving. He had 12 starts with one win in 2022 on the Indiana Sired Fair Circuit when he worked for trainer Joe Putnam before moving to the East Coast at the end of August, 2023.

Despite the fact that he didn’t realize how much he loved harness racing until about seven years ago while working for his uncle, Erv Miller, he grew up around horses, just not always standardbreds.

Herschberger currently works for trainer Andrew Harris and helps out, when he can, trainers Paul Jessop and Laurie Molnar, dad and stepmom of his fiancé, Brittany Jessop.

Harris said Herschberger had good references when he hired him last year.

“He’s just got a real mild-mannered approach,” Harris said. “He shows up every day, he’s got a pretty good attitude and he’s just good on the horses. That’s a major part for me. If you’re going to ride, you gotta be good on the horses.”

Harris was aware that Herschberger wanted to be a driver when he hired him and works with him should he need to leave early to race.

“Mark’s starting off the bench and that’s a lot harder of an operation,” Harris said. “He’s got a much bigger hill to climb than a Brett Beckwith. Brett started out with a much, much better situation where he’s got Saratoga and he’s got Plainridge. Mark was doing great just doing Freehold, but now, he’s starting to go up against [the top guys at] The Meadowlands, and that’s a tough hill to climb.

“[Since Freehold closed for a few weeks], The Meadowlands has been writing a lot of Freehold classes and he’s gotten to a good reputation at Freehold now. So, a lot of those Freehold horses showed up in those Freehold classes at The Meadowlands and they were good horses in there for him.”

Only once in 33 starts at The Big M this year did Herschberger drive the favorite. In fact, 75 per cent of the time he drove a horse that was double digits, with most of them at odds of 30-1 or more with two that were even in triple digits. Even with driving all those bombs, he still managed to hit the board a respectable 27 per cent of the time.

Herschberger said he appreciates every trainer and owner that has taken a chance on him.

“I’m just trying to keep Andrew [Harris] happy and trying to pursue my career as well,” Herschberger said. “It’s a bit of a grind right now, which I think every driver had to kind of start this way unless you were born into it. Those guys kind of have a leg up on me because they don’t need the paycheck as much and they can get out of the barn to go drive.

“But I wouldn’t trade this journey for anything. I feel like I’ve earned it and built all the relationships on my own and not really taken any handouts.”

Strong field for Oslo Grand Prix includes Joviality

by Thomas Hedlund

Bjerke in Oslo, Norway, will get harness racing fans' attention on Sunday (June 9) when the $225,000 Oslo Grand Prix over 1.3 miles is contested.

Bjerke has succeeded in attracting several fresh horses in the elite in Europe and 5-year-old stars Joviality and Barack Face will be joined by a 4-year-old American bred trotter in Devilish Hill, who claimed the Fyraåringseliten at Solvalla two weeks ago.

Danish top trotter Extreme enters the race with three impressive wins in Denmark in his back pocket and from a nice post he will definitely be a serious factor in the Oslo Grand Prix.

It's hard to tell who's going to be the favorite in this year's edition of the race, but high grades to Bjerke for inviting "new" names to the circuit of European races.

OPEN STORY IN ÖSTERSUND

Östersund racetrack has attracted some really interesting horses to the $115,000 Jämtlands Stora Pris, which will go to post on Saturday (Jun. 8).

Elitloppet contender Hustle Rain, who made a break in his elimination at Solvalla two weeks ago, will try the elite once again, but a bad post (7) will decimate his chances to win in Östersund this year.

Hail Mary is the most merited trotter in the strong 10-horse field and he is also trying to defend the title in the actual race.

The most exciting contribution in the 2,140 meters race is without a doubt Irish horse Harry Knows, driven by Patrick Kane, Jr.

Harry Knows tried in the Sweden Cup at Solvalla two weeks ago, but went off-stride before the car left the field. Just like Just Believe did last year, Harry Knows stays in Sweden for a while after his debut in the country.

WORLD RECORD UNDER SADDLE IN PARIS

Hanna des Molles (Village Mystic) has belonged in the top among Monté horses in France lately and on Monday (June 3) she set a new world record, all categories, when she claimed the $100,000 Prix Paul Delanoe over 2,175 meters.

The 7-year-old mare, trained by Laurent-Claude Abrivard mashed her opponents and hit the wire in a mile rate of 1:52.

Alexandre Abrivard sat in the saddle.

Taggart reflects on 6,000-win milestone

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Jim Taggart, Jr. remains driven.

Taggart, who got started as a harness racing driver by competing in amateur races in the late 1980s, added to his list of career accomplishments last week when he notched win 6,000 at Tioga Downs.

More than 3,700 of those triumphs have come since the beginning of 2011. Over the past 13 years, Taggart has averaged 278 wins and finished among the top 50 drivers in victories in North America in seven of the past nine seasons, with a high of 19th in 2015.

“It’s a nice number,” Taggart said about 6,000, which he won with Laurie Poulin-trained Prairie Magical in the fourth race at Tioga on May 31. “I just keep at it, keep working hard every day. I’ve been lucky to keep at it, doing what I like.”

Taggart, a native of Monticello, NY, began racing in amateur events at Monticello Raceway to launch his driving career.

“Since my dad had purchased horses, I became very interested in becoming a driver,” Taggart said in a previous interview. “Racing was a big part of life here in the area and I wanted to be part of it.”

He added on Tuesday (June 4), “This is what I wanted to do pretty much since I was a kid. I was like 14 [years old] when I started working with the horses and started driving when I was 18. I got the bug.”

Taggart has been the leading driver at Monticello three times in the past five years, including 2022 and 2023, and no worse than second seven times since 2014. He also has won a driving title at Pocono Downs and finished second twice at Tioga.

In addition to winning 6,000 races, Taggart is within $10,000 of reaching $30 million in lifetime purses.

Boston Rocks breaks track record in NYSS win at Buffalo

If anyone had any concerns about Boston Rocks in his 3-year-old campaign, he totally erased those doubts in the New York Sire Stakes for the sophomore male pacers at Buffalo Raceway on Wednesday afternoon (June 5).

The reigning 2-year-old New York Sire Stakes pacing champion, Boston Rocks ($2.30) showed he's more than back after romping to an easy 7-length victory over Vandiemmen Bluechip in a career best of 1:52.2. The time also broke a long-standing Buffalo Raceway track record for 3-year-old colts of 1:52.3 set on May 12, 2012 by Steelhead Hanover.

There was another Buffalo Raceway mark that was erased on the program as Forgot Thewallet A ($3.30) made her first appearance at Buffalo Raceway and she stormed to a 10½-length triumph over Flip The Script in the $14,000 Class A-open pace for fillies and mares.

Forgot Thewallet A (Heston Blue Chip—Tara Lassie) covered the mile in 1:51.3, soundly crushing the old standard for older pacing mares of 1:53.2 set on May 1, 2019 by Lady London. Billy Davis, Jr. was in the bike behind Forgot Thewallet A and ironically was the driver of Lady London in her record setting performance. It was the fourth victory of the season for Forgot Thewallet A who is owned by Team Rice Racing LLC and is conditioned by Maria Rice.

After a pair of heart breaking second place finishes in his last two starts, Boston Rocks (Jason Bartlett) righted the ship in his $58,100 division. After settling third in the early going, Boston Rocks took over the lead approaching the quarter pole. With fractions of :28.1, :56.4 and 1:25.2 over the fast track, there was no looking back. The only questions down the stretch were how many lengths would Boston Rocks win by and if it would be in track record time. Both were answered quite convincingly.

After losing the war to Boston Rocks, Vandiemmen Bluechip (Jim Morrill, Jr.) won the battle for second place over Heave Away (Brett Beckwith).

Trained by Michael Deters and co-owned by Ricks Berks and Peter Blood, Boston Rocks (Boston Red Rocks—Scirocco Sarah) has won twice in four starts in 2024, putting $58,300 in the bank and $410,222 in his brief stellar career.

In the first division, worth $57,000, Ameritric ($5.20) led every step of the way and beat Pop It by 1¾ lengths in a lifetime best of 1:52.3.

Off the starting gate, driver Brett Beckwith and Ameritric protected the pylon position, forcing the other remaining four participants to abort any leave attempts they may have had in mind. Jones Hanover broke stride around the clubhouse turn, thus leaving four to battle it out the rest of the way.

Ameritric set fractions of :27.4, :56.1 and 1:24 but had company on the outside as Taranaki (Mark Herschberger) got on even terms with a panel to pace. But Ameritric was more than up to the challenge and held his ground down the stretch to take the victory while Pop It (Mark MacDonald) rallied for second and Taranaki collected the show spot.

Owned by the Purple Haze Stables and trained by George Ducharme, Ameritric (American Ideal—Electric Fool) has four wins in six attempts this season, earning $53,760 and $109,815 in his career.

There were three $20,000 divisions of the Excelsior Series. In the first bracket, Texas Holdem ($4.50) used a wicked stretch run through the lightning lane and nipped Voltage Blue Chip by a neck in 1:54.4.

The second division saw Escape To America come flying late and tipped Hurrikane Justin by a head in a career best 1:52.4. Jason Bartlett guided him to the $5 victory.

In the final race in the Excelsior Series, Beckwith notched a double as he steered Seen Here ($2.60) to his third straight victory with an impressive ¾-length nod over Bruce's Vo N Coke in 1:54.

Racing resumes this afternoon (June 7) at 2:30 p.m. with an 11-race program scheduled.

Funtime Bayama and Nijinsky shine in Beach splits; Graduate Series opens

Funtime Bayama and Nijinsky posted strong performances to win Saturday's (June 1) Somebeachsomewhere Stakes divisions at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The Somebeachsomewhere serves as the final prep ahead of next Saturday's (June 8) Pepsi North America Cup eliminations. A group of 19 3-year-old pacers were split into a pair of divisions for the Grand Circuit event.

Funtime Bayama fired back after a runner-up finish in last week's OSS Gold division to win the $84,000 first "Beach" split in 1:49.1. Race-favorite and top Cup contender Legendary Hanover turned in a wicked :25.3 last-quarter, but had to settle for second after rallying from sixth.

A gelded son of Hes Watching, Funtime Bayama and Sylvain Filion went coast-to-coast for the lifetime best victory, kicking home in :26.1 after a well-rated middle-half. Legendary Hanover finished 2¼-lengths back, while Fast Louie was third.

"Last week he raced awesome, he just got out sprinted but I was really pleased with him last week," said Filion. "I was counting on [Legendary Hanover] to come and cover me up but I didn't see what was happening behind. When I saw the fractions, I was pretty happy."

Richard Moreau trains Funtime Bayama for Bayama Farms. Saturday's victory was the third in four starts this season and seventh overall for the sophomore, who now has over $386,000 in earnings.

Funtime Bayama paid $10.50.

The $83,000 second division saw Nijinsky flex his muscles for a sparkling 1:49 victory.

Driven by Louis-Philippe Roy, Nijinsky made a move in the second-quarter from third to overtake leader Captains Quarters at a :55 half. The pair would ride one-two around the far turn, hitting three-quarters in 1:22.3.

In the stretch, Captains Quarters angled out of the pocket to take his shot at the leader, but Nijinsky took it up a notch with a :26.2 kicker to win by a length and a quarter. Newsroom finished third.

A son of Bettors Delight, Nijinsky is now a perfect three-for-three to start his 3-year-old season for trainer Anthony Beaton.

"He's been great since he's been back," said Beaton. "I find he really matured this year. Last year he had a bit of trouble at the gate and this year, as you've seen, you can push him out of there and he always gives us that kick home."

Nijinsky is owned by West Wins Stable, John Fielding and Mark Dumain. The sophomore pacing colt now has $98,500 earned this season, boosting his career numbers to four wins and nearly $200,000 earned.

A $2 win ticket on Nijinsky returned $4.90.

The Graduate Series for 4-year-olds rolled into town for Saturday's Grand Circuit action.

A pair of Graduate divisions for pacers were held, while a single dash for the trotters was contested.

Seven Colors made the lead exiting the first turn and rolled to a 1:48.2 victory in the first $66,500 Graduate Series division for pacers.

Trained by Andrew Harris, Seven Colors and driver Dexter Dunn paced a final-quarter of :26.1 to score the victory. Christchurch unleashed a wild :25.1 final-quarter to just miss by a neck. Coach Stefanos also paced a :25.1 kicker to finish third.

"He was all along there on his free will," said Dunn. "I said to Andrew this is probably the best he's felt when I've sat behind him. He's heading the right direction."

Seven Colors is now one-for-three to start his 4-year-old season and has career numbers of nine wins and over $750,000 earned. He's owned by William Pollock, Bruce Areman and Harris.

Seven Colors paid $8.10 to win.

The $66,500 second Graduate Pace saw Huntinthelastdolar complete a front-end mission for a 1:49.2 victory. Yannick Gingras steered the Per Engblom trainee to the victory of three-quarters of a length.

No Control finished second after a 2-hole ride, while Redwood Hanover got up for third.

"He was really good and I was happy with him," said Gingras. "Good fraction in the middle half and he sprinted on good... if he keeps racing like this, I think he can go with most of them."

Huntinthelastdolar, who was coming in off a victory in the Charles Juravinski Memorial Cup, is now four-for-six to start the season for owners John Fielding and E Five Racing. His latest victory bumps his career stats to 12 wins and over $730,000 earned.

A $2 win ticket on Huntinthelastdolar paid $3.70.

The $99,750 Graduate Series Trot saw Ontario sired horses take the top three spots.

Osceola showed his determination to gut out a career best 1:52.1 first-up victory for driver Doug McNair and trainer Gregg McNair.

Chapercraz cut out the mile, posting clips of :26.3, :55.2 and 1:23.3. The leader wouldn't last, being swarmed at the head of the lane. Osceola came first-up from fourth and kept powering down the lane to win by a length.

Hasty Bid charged through late to finish second, while Ghostly Casper was third.

Saturday was the first start in nearly a month for Osceola, who last time out won the Canadian Graduate Series final.

“He’s more mature this year,” said Doug McNair. “I’m not sure what the difference is. When you can use them a little more in the turns it makes them a heck of a lot handier.”

Osceola is now three-for-four on the season with $109,000 earned for owners Gregg McNair, Willow Oak Ranch and Paul Hawman. His lifetime numbers now sit at nine wins and nearly $550,000 earned.

Osceola paid $5.10 to win.

Earlier on Saturday’s card, older trotting mares clashed in a leg of the Miss Versatility.

M-Ms Dream turned in an outstanding :27 final-quarter effort to track down and nail Call Me Goo at the wire in 1:51.3. The Ron Burke trained M-Ms Dream is now three-for-three to start her 5-year-old season. David Miller drove her to victory.

Keep Asking sets track record in NYSS win at Monticello

Tyler Buter and George Ducharme teamed up for back-to-back wins in Sire Stake, Excelsior competition and set a new track record in the process as Keep Asking established a new mark for 3-year-old trotting colts in 1:56; eclipsing the old record of 1:56.1, formally held by Money Macintosh and Neon Lights of 1:56.1 set on the same day on July 17, 2017.

The Buter/Ducharme double started with Woweress (Crazy Wow—Chaperess) who scored in his division of the Excelsior Stakes in 1:58.1, paying $13.80 for owner/breeder Purple Haze Stables, LLC of Fairport, NY.

In the following race, a $59,000 heat of Sire Stakes, Keep Asking starting from the rail was content to let Super Duper Cooper and Jason Bartlett cut the mile after stringing him out a tad before he made the top in :28.2. Positions remained unchanged with splits of :58, 1:27.3. In the paddock turn Keep Asking popped out of the 2-hole, while turning for home Nottingham (M. Miller) dove into the passing lane with Super Duper Cooper still on the lead. Keep Asking found another gear late in the lane to get the win and established a new track record of 1:56. It was the first seasonal win for the small son of Chapter Seven—Sensibility for owners W. Donovan, Joe Sbrocco, Jim Winske and George Ducharme.

The second division of Sire Stakes was a six-horse affair, where Titan Your Grip and Unscripted both made breaks behind the gate and knocked themselves out of contention. Chaplind (Tyler Buter) were the first to the lead briefly as the 1-9 favorite Sir Pinocchio and Jason Bartlett took control prior to a soft opener panel of :29.1 and the half in a soft 59.1. Down the back side Scott Zeron aboard Fly By were the first to pull the right line and mount a challenge at the next stanza in 1:28.1. Turning for home Chaplind made a break and Fly By made a strong attempt at the leader with a :27.4 kicker, but it was too late as Sir Pinocchio held on for the length win in 1:56 and paying $2.10. Crazy Brother Jim (J. Marohn, Jr.) finished third. For the Dexter Cup winner, it was his first Sire Stakes victory of the year. The son of Mets Hall—Lady Cromwell is trained by Edward Hart and owned by Carolyn Atherton of Scarsdale, NY, and with this win pushed his seasonal earnings over $115,000.

In Excelsior action, the Paul Kelly trained Sky Box (EL Titan—Goddess) driven by Brent Holland picked up a new lifetime best with a 3-length win in 1:57.4, paying $3.40 for his second win on the year. Seven Minutes Abs (Chapter Seven—Fitness Girl) won for trainer/driver Claude Huckabone III in 2:00.4 to eke out a win by a head over Jacks Boy (M. Miller).

Bruce Aldrich, Jr. registered a driving double on the nine-race card that generated a handle of $506,043.05 with a per race average of $56,227.

Monticello Raceway

Admiral Hill repeats in Kentucky Sire Stakes at Oak Grove

Admiral Hill toured the Oak Grove track again to collect his second-straight win with a 1:50.3 wrapped-up effort in the second preliminary of Kentucky Sire Stakes (KYSS) on Tuesday (June 4).

Driver Yannick Gingras pushed Admiral Hill for the front from the pylon post and clicked by a :27.1 first quarter as El Rey (driven by David Miller) settled into the pocket. Admiral Hill then cruised to a :56 half and rolled up the backside under minimal pressure to three-quarters in 1:23.2. El Rey grew antsy from the pocket ride, but sat locked at the cones through the final turn as Tip Top Cat (Todd McCarthy) progressed evenly on the rim uncovered. Though Gingras kept a tight grip on Admiral Hill and let him loose in the stretch, where he strode in a 1½-length winner while chased by El Rey back in second. Tip Top Cat settled for third and For Once Inmy Life (Andy McCarthy) came from second over for fourth.

A 4-year-old gelding by Sweet Lou, Admiral Hill has now won 14 races from 32 starts and has banked $409,008. Per Engblom trains the $2.58 winner for owner Morrison Racing Stables.

The trotting males sparred in three divisions of KYSS to start the card. The Hazelton (Yannick Gingras) opened the day with a far-turn blitz to win division one in 1:53.3.

French Wine (Andy Miller) floated forward through a :28 first quarter to grab the lead from Cecil Hanover (Peter Wrenn) while The Hazelton settled into third. The field then stayed single file through a :57.3 half and to three-quarters in 1:25.3 until Gingras made his move outside into the last turn. The Hazelton blitzed French Wine and stuck a head in front spinning for home and stayed firm on the lead to the end to grab the gold by three-quarters-of-a-length at the beam. Cecil Hanover gave chase in third and Drink Up Drink Up (Marvin Luna) finished fourth.

Ron Burke trains The Hazelton, a gelding by Muscle Mass, for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC and Weaver Brussemi LLC. He has now won 15 races from 33 starts, earned $253,656 and paid $5.82 to win.

Ari Ferrari J (Dexter Dunn) went pillar-to-post in the second division with a 1:53 effort to wade off pocket-pouncer Once In A Lifetime (Todd McCarthy).

Starting from the pylon post, Dunn slid to the top with Ari Ferrari J before a :28 first quarter and coasted to a :57.2 half. Ari Ferrari J then began the sprint for home while Once In A Lifetime stayed close in his trail. The two peeled clear of the field moving to three-quarters in 1:25.1 and continued speeding through the final turn as Once In A Lifetime tipped out and engaged for the stretch battle. Ari Ferrari J held his ground to the inside all through the lane and kept a head up on Once In A Lifetime at the beam while Deadline Hall (Andy McCarthy) took third, beaten 9 lengths, with Morning Edition (Atlee Bender) fourth.

Tony Alagna trains Ari Ferrari J, a stallion by Walner, for owner Kenneth Jacobs. He won his eighth race from 34 starts, has now earned $848,681 and paid $4.58 to win.

Bestfriend Volo (Dexter Dunn) then rolled in the last division for trotting males to a measured victory in 1:53 as the 1-5 favorite.

Dunn planted Bestfriend Volo on the lead to a :28.1 first quarter and strolled along to a :57 half before hitting the thruster for the backside. In his sprint to three-quarters, timed in 1:24.2, Bestfriend Volo slipped 6-lengths clear of his competition with just Prince Of Honor (Todd McCarthy) making inroads through the last half mile. Dunn then kept Bestfriend Volo to task through the lane as Prince Of Honor continued plugging forward on the outside to register the win by a diminishing length. Sparks Fly (Atlee Bender) finished third, another 4-lengths behind, and Yo Tater (Verlin Yoder) settled for fourth.

Nancy Takter trains and co-owns Bestfriend Volo, a gelding by Walner, with Christina Takter, 3 Brothers Stables and Deja Blu. He paid $2.78 to win.

Mambacita stayed unbeaten against her peers in the lone split for trotting mares, this time grabbing the win off a pocket ride to capture the 1:52.3 mile.

Railee Something (Andy McCarthy) powered off the wings to the top, forcing Mambacita to settle into the pocket past a :27 first quarter. McCarthy then rated Railee Something to a :56.1 half, but faced a prompt challenge midway up the backside from Dunn pulling the pocket with Mambacita. Mambacita upped the pressure on Railee Something through three-quarters in 1:24 and hit the ropes through the final turn. Mambacita swung for home and edged away from her rivals to win by 2¼ lengths while Railee Something clung to second from fast-closing Vintage (David Miller). Cessna Pride (Todd McCarthy) took fourth.

Winning her 16th race from 36 starts, Mambacita has now earned $945,418 for owners Crawford Farms Racing, Alagna Racing LLC and Pryde Stables Inc. Tony Alagna trains the mare by Tactical Landing who paid $2.90 to win.

The pacing mares competed in a non-wagering division of the KYSS prior to the betting card won by Zanatta (Andy Miller) in 1:51. Perched in the pocket behind Hungry For Love (David Miller) as she carved a clip of :27, :56.2 and 1:23.4, Zanatta swelled and responded once Miller fed her racetrack into the stretch. Zanatta scooted away from Hungry For Love with ease to win by a length while Keep My Secret (Tony Hall) took third and To All A Goodnight (Dexter Dunn) settled for fourth.

Jennifer Bongiorno trains Zanatta, a 4-year-old mare by Stay Hungry, for owner One Legend Stable Inc.

Live racing resumes at Oak Grove on Monday (June 10) at 3 p.m. (CDT) and features a carryover in the last-race Super High 5 of $714.18. ## Eliminations set for 41st Pepsi North America Cup

A group of 26 3-year-old pacers have been split into three $50,000 eliminations to determine the field for the 41st Pepsi North America Cup at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The eliminations for this year's Pepsi North America Cup will take place this Saturday (June 8). The top three finishers, plus a fourth-place finisher drawn by lot, will advance to the $1 million final on June 15.

O'Brien Award winner Legendary Hanover and Dan Patch Award winner Captain Albano are two of the headliners. Metro Pace winner Captains Quarters and Ontario stars Funtime Bayama and Nijinsky are part of a strong local contingent for this year's Cup.

The three $50,000 eliminations have been carded as races 3, 5 and 7.

Here is a breakdown of the Pepsi North America Cup eliminations.

Elimination 1

U.S. standout Captain Albano (post 4, Todd McCarthy) will make his Woodbine Mohawk Park debut in the first elimination.

Trained by Noel Daley, Captain Albano has won a pair of Pennsylvania Sire Stakes divisions to start his 2024 campaign after a Dan Patch Award winning 2-year-old season. The son of 2013 Cup winner Captaintreacherous won seven of nine starts last year and has made over $500,000 from his 11 career outings.

Todd McCarthy is seeking his second Cup after winning in 2022 with Pebble Beach.

Captains Quarters (post 6, Jody Jamieson) will look to protect home field in the first split. The Herb Holland trainee finished second in last week's Somebeachsomewhere after a victory in his seasonal debut on May 18.

Another son of Captaintreacherous, Captains Quarters won last year's rich Metro Pace in a career best 1:49.3. Saturday will be just his eighth career start, having won three of seven and never finishing outside the top three. His earnings sit at more than $550,000.

Breeders Crown champion Gem Quality (post 8, Dexter Dunn) is another major player in the first elimination.

A son of 2019 Cup winner Captain Crunch, Gem Quality has won two of three starts this season after winning four of eight as a rookie. His 2-year-old season concluded with a 23-1 upset in the Breeders Crown for trainer Chris Ryder.

Clever Cody (post 3, David Miller) is another standout vying for a spot in Saturday's elimination opener. Dr. Ian Moore trains the son of veteran stallion The Panderosa.

An Ohio Sires Stakes star, Clever Cody returns to Woodbine Mohawk Park off an easy 1:52 victory last weekend at Northfield Park. The sophomore is two-for-three this year after winning six of 10 last season. He was also the third-place finisher in the Metro Pace.

Here is the field for the first elimination:

1. Janelle Granny – Brett MacDonald – Ron MacDonald – 20-1
2. Special Menu – Andrew McCarthy – Brian Brown – 15-1
3. Clever Cody – David Miller – Dr. Ian Moore – 6-1
4. Captain Albano – Todd McCarthy – Noel Daley – 9-5
5. Ivy Park – Yannick Gingras – Nancy Takter – 8-1
6. Captains Quarters – Jody Jamieson – Herb Holland – 9-2
7. Remember The Alamo – Tim Tetrick – Tony Alagna – 10-1
8. Gem Quality – Dexter Dunn – Chris Ryder – 7-2

Elimination 2

O'Brien Award winner Legendary Hanover (post 3, James MacDonald) leads the field for the second Cup elimination.

Trained by Anthony Beaton, Legendary Hanover holds the fastest mark of any Cup elimination starter at 1:48.3. The son of Huntsville finished second in last weekend's Somebeachsomewhere, pacing a :52.1 back-half.

Legendary Hanover has won two of three starts this season after winning six of nine last year. He was the runner-up in the Metro Pace and did win divisions of the Champlain and Nassagaweya. Funtime Bayama (post 6, Sylvain Filion) is another local standout vying for the Cup.

A gelded son of Hes Watching, Funtime Bayama was a coast-to-coast 1:49.1 winner in last weekend's Somebeachsomewhere.

The Richard Moreau trainee has won three of four starts this season after winning four of seven as a 2-year-old. He's never finished outside the top-three.

Mirage Hanover (post 4, Tim Tetrick) returns to Woodbine Mohawk Park in fine form. The Bettors Delight colt is making his first trip of 2024 to Ontario after making eight of his nine 2-year-old starts at Mohawk.

The Jake Leamon trainee won a division of the Nassagaweya and multiple OSS Gold events last season as part of a four-for-nine campaign. 'Mirage' started this season with a 1:49.3 win at The Meadowlands on May 11 followed by a runner-up finish to older rivals on May 25, pacing in 1:48.4.

Here is the field for the second elimination:

1. Captain Luke – Scott Zeron – Tony Alagna – 6-1
2. Calicojack Hanover – Louis-Philippe Roy – Luc Blais – 15-1
3. Legendary Hanover – James MacDonald – Anthony Beaton – 6-5
4. Mirage Hanover – Tim Tetrick – Jake Leamon – 4-1
5. Number Cruncher – Andrew McCarthy – Erv Miller – 8-1
6. Funtime Bayama – Sylvain Filion – Richard Moreau – 7-2
7. Newsroom – Dexter Dunn – Joe Holloway – 10-1
8. Miki Ray – Yannick Gingras – Andrew Harris – 15-1
9. Cupid Shuffle – Doug McNair – Dan Lagace – 20-1

Elimination 3

Nijinsky (post 3, Louis-Philippe Roy) will look to continue his perfect start to 2024 in Saturday's final Cup elimination.

Trained by Anthony Beaton, Nijinsky posted a wicked 1:49 victory in the Somebeachsomewhere after a 1:49.4 score in an OSS Gold division the week prior. The son of Bettors Delight is three-for-three this season after winning once in 10 starts at age 2.

Total Stranger (post 9, Yannick Gingras) will look to follow in the Cup success footsteps of his big brother Tall Dark Stranger for trainer Nancy Takter. The son of Bettors Delight has won a pair of overnight events to start 2024 after going winless in 11 starts as a rookie.

Tony Alagna trainee Better Is Nice (post 7, Andrew McCarthy) will be going for his first win of the season. The son of Bettors Wish had a strong 2-year-old season, winning seven of 11 starts and earning over $500,000.

Here is the field for the third elimination:

1. Stat That – LeWayne Miller – Susan Miller – 15-1
2. Its Saturday Night – Dexter Dunn – Richard Norman – 8-1
3. Nijinsky – Louis-Philippe Roy – Anthony Beaton – 9-5
4. Unrivaled Hanover – Jonathan Drury – Shawn Steacy – 10-1
5. Captain Fear Not – Doug McNair – Paul Reid – 15-1
6. Storm Shadow – Bob McClure – Dr. Ian Moore – 5-1

- 7. Better Is Nice – Andrew McCarthy – Tony Alagna – 9-2
- 8. Wallace Hartley – Tyler Borth – Chantal Mitchell – 15-1
- 9. Total Stranger – Yannick Gingras – Nancy Takter – 7-2

Post time for Saturday's card is 7:10 p.m.

Saturday's card also includes the eliminations for the Fan Hanover (3-year-old pacing fillies) and Armbro Flight (mare trot). The weekend's stakes action begins tonight (June 7) with the eliminations for the Roses Are Red (mare pace) and Goodtimes (3-year-old trot).

Lady Almas takes Konesky Trot at Scioto Downs

Lady Almas and owner/trainer/driver Ryan Stahl took the $30,000 John Konesky Trot final Tuesday (June 4) at Eldorado Scioto Downs in 1:56.2.

Stahl eased the daughter of Triumphant Caviar off the gate from post 3 and got away seventh as Uncle Petes Dream (Chris Page) took the field to the :28.3 opening quarter. Lady Almas ducked in for a few steps before following Amazing Face (Jeremy Smith) as Westfiftyfive (Josh Sutton) made the lead just as the field went under the line for the first time. The outer flow made steady progress forward by the :57.4 half but by the 1:26.3 third-quarter, race favorite Amazing Face stalled. Lady Almas moved three-wide around the last turn and posted a :29.1 last quarter to win by a length and three-quarters.

This was Lady Almas' second lifetime win after taking the first leg of the Konesky on May 14 in 1:57. Stahl owns Lady Almas along with Watson Harness Racing, Kendall Stucky and William Hartt, who purchased the filly from owner/breeder Chris Easterday less than a month ago. She more than doubled her earnings with Tuesday's win, pushing her lifetime earnings to $24,947 in 14 starts.

The John Konesky III Trot is one of four divisions of races, for Ohio sired non-winners of one, named after past OHHA presidents and general managers. The final of the Jerry Knappenberger, for colt pacers, was held on May 23 and won by Heerz Popeye in 1:53.1. The final of the Kevin Greenfield, for colt trotters, was held on Wednesday (June 5) and won by Luther Brothers in 1:55.4 and the Steve McCoy final for filly pacers is tonight (June 7).

The 90-day 2024 Eldorado Scioto Downs race meet runs through Saturday (Sept. 14). Races are held Tuesday-Saturday with a first post of 5:45 p.m. each day, except for Thursday (July 4) with a post of 3:15 p.m. and Friday (Sept. 13) which will have a 6:15 p.m. post to help accommodate horsemen attending the Ohio Selected Yearling Sale. More information about racing at Scioto can be found on the Eldorado Scioto Downs website.

Favorites dominate Ohio Sires Stakes action

Rose Run Zane and Clever Cody made it two-for-two in the Ohio Sires Stakes for 3-year-old colt and gelding pacers, as they won easily Saturday night (May 1) at MGM Northfield Park.

In the first of two $65,000 divisions for sophomore colt pacers, Rose Run Zane with Austin Hanners outdueled Janelle Granny and Aaron Merriman to grab the lead with a :27.1 opening quarter.

Following a :56.3 half, Theheavyweightway with Trevor Smith challenged the leaders heading up the backstretch, getting to the leader's wheel as they passed three-quarters in 1:24.3.

Around the final turn, Rose Run Zane widened the lead, but could not shake Janelle Granny, holding on to win by a half-length in 1:52.4.

Dan Venier trains Rose Run Zane for owners John and Leann Saunders. The son of Racing Hill has won six of nine starts and raised his earnings this year to $129,820.

Below the banner, the words "YOUR LOCAL HARNESS TRACK" are written in large, bold, white letters. At the bottom, there is a white banner with the hashtag "#BETONHARNESS" in blue and the logo for "OHIO HARNESS RACING UPDATE" (OHRA) in white.

Janelle Granny finished second with Hundred Dollar Man third. In the second division, Merriman took Clever Cody from the rail to the lead and never looked back.

Clever Cody controlled the pace with an opening quarter of :27.4 and the half in 56.2.

Heading up the backstretch, Clever Cody increased his lead over Rock The Hill with Billy Davis, Jr. passing three quarters in 1:24.

Around the final turn, the son of The Panderosa pulled away, cruising to a 2-length victory in 1:52.

It was the second win in three starts for Clever Cody who has earned $65,000 this year.

Clever Cody is owned by The Clever Cody Stable and trained by Dr. Ian Moore.

Rock The Hill finished second, while Outer Banks was third.

Sires Stakes action resumes this evening (June 8) at MGM Northfield Park with the second leg for 3-year-old colt trotters.

Tarrific and Peace Talks nab NYSS wins at Tioga

Driver Jason Bartlett and trainer Chris Ryder sweep both divisions of the New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) for 3-year-old pacing fillies at Tioga Downs on Sunday (June 2).

Tarrific ($2.50) wins the $58,100 first division.

Bronx Barista (Mark MacDonald) went to the front and led to the quarter in :27.3. She used a :29.4 second quarter to be first to the half in :57.2. Tarrific made her move first-over from third going down the backstretch as she battled for the lead. Bronx Barista had a slight lead to three-quarters in 1:24.1.

The two fillies continued to battle down the stretch. Tarrific broke free in deep stretch and won in 1:51.3. Hunting Hula (Pat LaChance) came up to finish second. Bronx Barista had to settle for third.

Tarrific is a filly by Huntsville. She is owned by Margeret Dey and Let It Ride Stables while trained by Chris Ryder. It was her first career win.

Peace Talks ($23.20) goes gate-to-wire to take the $59,200 second division.

Peace Talks went straight to the front and led to the quarter in :26.3. She went :29.1 in the second quarter and was first to the half in :55.4. Leanne's Choice (Marcus Miller) was the first to make a move first-over down the backstretch but she stalled as Peace Talks was first to three-quarters in 1:23.1.

As they made the turn for home Peace Talks was in control but had to brace for a late charge by second place finisher Ponymadwildfire (Mark MacDonald). Peace Talks held firm to win in a lifetime best of 1:50.4. Camerican (Jordan Stratton) finished third.

Peace Talks is a filly by American Ideal. She is owned by Henderson Farms, FAC Racing Stable, J Bell, and R Mondillo while trained by Ryder. Her first win this season. She now has three career victories.

Live racing returns to Tioga Downs today (June 7) at 6:15 p.m.

Brosseau wins Quebec/ Eastern Ontario Regional Driving Championship

Stephane Brosseau topped the leaderboard in the 2024 Quebec/ Eastern Ontario Regional Driving Championship (QEORDC), presented by Standardbred Canada on Sunday (June 2) at Hippodrome 3R, and will advance to the National Driving Championship (NDC) next month back at the Trois-Rivières, QC racetrack.

Brosseau finished the eight-race competition with 67 points atop the standings with Robert Shepherd coming in second, finishing just two points behind, and also advancing to the NDC on July 5.

The top two finishers in the final regional event complete the field of drivers for the NDC. They will join defending champion Doug McNair, Atlantic Regional Driving Championship leaders Redmond Doucet and David Dowling, Ontario Regional Driving Championship qualifiers Tyler Borth and James MacDonald, and Western Regional Driving Championship representatives Phil Giesbrecht and Mike Hennessy. The NDC winner will represent Canada at the 2025 World Driving Championship in New Zealand.

Brosseau, 54, was a previous NDC runner-up in 2018 at Grand River Raceway and the L'Assomption, QC horseman will be looking to improve on that result on his home turf.

"I'm very excited to drive against all these good drivers," said Brosseau, who has driven winners of 3,816 races in his career. "And you know, like you said, I've been there before and it's a very nice thing to live.

"I'm happy to represent Three Rivers and, being at the place I've been for, I don't know, 25 years, 30 years. At my age, I know there's not many coming up after, so I'm trying to enjoy it inch by inch."

Despite having some concerns with the post draw for his drafted line up, Brosseau showcased his driving talent, his horses showed up and he had a little luck on his side.

"It's always the horses at the end there that decide if it's going good or not," said a humble Brosseau, whose QEORDC highlights included a pair of winners and two second-place finishes. "You can drive good, but it doesn't mean the horse is going to respond like you think."

The competition was fierce, but Brosseau was in the hunt for the title right from the start, missing by just a neck in the opening leg with 26-1 shot Betonawheeln. He moved within one point of leader Guy Gagnon by the competition's midway mark, winning the fourth leg with the Nicole Gagne-trained pacing mare Better Kissthe Men ($4.10) in 1:57.2.

Brosseau solidified his lead during the back half of the QEORDC, gaining enough points to tie Gagnon and then top the leaderboard the rest of the way, with his second winner in leg 6 giving him a boost to hold off the competition. Brosseau was the first driver to repeat in the tournament with favorite Gladiator S BG ($2.30) overcoming an outside post after being parked through the first half-mile and holding off all challengers for the 1:57.3 neck victory, keeping the Jacques Dupont-trained colt's sophomore record perfect in three starts.

A judges' placing in the final leg provided the luck portion of the winning equation for Brosseau when Gagnon's first-place finisher Greystone Watchman was placed back to third in the race for causing interference, ultimately taking him out of the running for a spot in the NDC. Brosseau and Ladycorona were bumped from third to second in the race with Robert Shepherd inheriting his first win of the competition in rein to the Michel Allard-trained mare YS Sensationalcity ($6). The win for Shepherd secured him the QEORDC runner-up honors after he had hit the board five times leading up to the final leg.

Here is a look at the final QEORDC leaderboard:

1. Stephane Brosseau – 67 points
2. Robert Shepherd – 65
3. Samuel Fillion – 55
4. Guy Gagnon – 54
5. Pascal Berube – 52
6. Nick Boyd – 50
7. Jimmy Gagnon – 17
8. Stephane Pouliot – 16

Triple Crown crossover helping Big M buck trend

Business has a tendency to boom at all racetracks on days when Triple Crown events take place, and at no place is that more evident than at The Meadowlands.

Based on the returns, thoroughbred bettors were happy to hang around after the big race of the day and plunk down some serious green on The Big M's live harness product.

Business at The Meadowlands continued to surge during the month of May, thanks to large, competitive fields, the biggest pools in the sport and the emergence of stars headlining the Championship Meet.

Wagering on Kentucky Derby Day and Preakness Day illustrates those gains, as action on those two evenings was off the charts.

Betting on Derby Day (May 4) Meadowlands races totaled $3,870,638, the biggest single-card handle at the track – and the sport – this year. Two weeks later, a total of $3,584,311 was pushed through the windows after the Preakness card (May 18) was complete, the ninth time during 2024 that wagering went past the $3.5-million mark.

It's no wonder that expectations are high for this Saturday (June 8), when Saratoga Race Course plays host to the 156th running of the Belmont Stakes, which, of course, will be at the top of players' lists of tracks to play in The Big M's expansive simulcast area.

The first of 14 races at Saratoga gets underway at 10:45 a.m. The Belmont is race 12 and has a post time of 6:41 p.m. and can be seen on FOX Sports. The Big M simulcast area will open at 9:45 a.m.

THE MARKET IS UP: Wagering on the nine Meadowlands programs in May totaled $29,621,969, for a nightly average of $3,291,329. That breaks down to an average per race of $235,094.

In addition, action during May saw a gain of over $300,000 per night over the same month a year ago.

What might be the best indicator of how well things have been from a business perspective at The Big M this year is the fact that in a difficult environment for the sport, The Meadowlands is thriving.

According to numbers on the United States Trotting Association website (ustrotting.com), betting on harness races is down while action at The Big M is up.

The USTA's "Economic indicators on U.S. races" showed that through June 3, wagering on harness racing during 2024 was down 4.83 per cent. Action at The Big M, off a "Gural-Settlemoir Era" record-setting 2023, is up 1.57 per cent. A year ago, betting per night averaged $3.087 million.

Through 43 race cards in 2023, total betting at The Meadowlands was $132,965,232, good for an average of $3.092 million.

Thus far in 2024, through 43 programs, wagering has totaled $135,057,933, which calculates to $3.140 million per card.

"All of us at The Meadowlands are grateful to be able to say business is up over last year," said Big M chief operating officer/general manager Jason Settlemoir. "We owe so much to our loyal fan base who always appreciate betting our product, our race office for carding competitive races, our horsemen for supporting the entry box and our employees for presenting an atmosphere where the patron can come for a great night of entertainment, and that goes for people who like betting on the races, as well as those who don't."

WHATTA WEEKEND: On what was a perfect-weather weekend, on May 31 and June 1, patrons were treated to great performances and great fun.

First was Friday, when a pair of $240,000 New Jersey Sire Stakes finals for 3-year-olds on the trot took place. French Champagne took the dash for fillies and the incomparable Karl won the division for colts and geldings.

In addition, Friday night saw bragging rights realized in the fifth annual Sportscasters Charity Derby. SNY's Chelsea Sherrod and PIX11's Perry Sook emerged victorious in their respective divisions, earning $5,000 for their charities, courtesy of The Meadowlands. Sherrod was representing Grow Our Game while Sook was racing for St. Barnabus Hospital Health System.

Saturday night saw the remarkable Oakwood Ardan IR win for the ninth time in 10 tries since coming to the U.S. from Great Britain, taking down Primary Colors and Allywag Hanover in 1:48.3. The evening also saw a huge crowd watch 10 divisions plus a final of the track's sixth annual Wiener Dog Derby.

BREAKFAST WITH THE BABIES: If you want to come out and watch the stars of the future, head to the track this Saturday (June 8) at 9 a.m. for Breakfast with the Babies.

Sponsored by Jules Siegel's Fashion Farms, fans, horsemen and owners are invited to come out and enjoy a continental breakfast and beverages. In addition, programs will be provided to all those watching the 2-year-old baby races. The action will be live streamed via The Meadowlands website, and the voice of The Big M, Ken Warkentin, will be on the microphone from the announcer's booth. It's all free and fun and everyone is invited to attend.

Qualifier and baby race proofs are available at playmeadowlands.com.

THE SKED: Live racing takes place every Friday and Saturday at The Meadowlands with a first-race post time of 6:20 p.m.

The Big M's live "Racing from The Meadowlands" pregame show begins every racing night at 5:45 p.m.

Tonight, The Big M TV "A"-team of Dave Little and Jessica Otten will be providing news, notes and selections from the Sam McKee Memorial Broadcast Set.

DRF Harness editor Derick Givner will sit alongside Little for Saturday's presentation.

Wanda Polisseni inducted into Finger Lakes Hall of Fame

Wanda Polisseni has enjoyed great success as a thoroughbred owner on the track, winning more than 900 career races with horses running under the My Purple Haze Stables name.

But Polisseni takes more pride in her success with horses off the track. Her dedication to thoroughbred and standardbred aftercare programs – both through the creation of adoption and retraining centers as well as her philanthropic endeavors – has brought immeasurable positive change to the sport.

That dedication to horses, as well as her resume as a horse owner, has earned her a deserving place in the Hall of Fame at Finger Lakes. She will become the 30th member – and sixth contributor – to be enshrined in the Hall. The induction ceremony, part of the Finger Lakes HBPA annual dinner meeting, took place on Thursday (June 6), at the Lincoln Hill Farms event center located in Canandaigua.

Polisseni is a founding supporter of the Finger Lakes Thoroughbred Adoption Program (FLTAP). The Purple Haze Center was the nation's first thoroughbred aftercare program housed at a racetrack, and since the doors opened in 2007, more than 700 horses have found new homes and careers.

"She brought so much more awareness to thoroughbred aftercare through her retirement center(s) and other means, such as fundraisers that support aftercare," said trainer Chris Englehart, who has been the primary conditioner of Polisseni-owned thoroughbreds that race at Finger Lakes and across the northeast.

She is equally dedicated to the people who ride and train her horses.

"Wanda has meant everything to me and my family," Englehart said. "She's a great lady to work with, due to her passion for the horses, which has really changed my life."

Polisseni's unwavering devotion to horses dates back to her childhood. She grew up on a farm in Yates County, where her family boarded standardbreds.

"I have loved horses and ridden since I was a little girl," she said. "My greatest wish is that no horse has to face the perils of slaughter, and I hope through all of our efforts we can achieve this."

When the Purple Haze Center opened, Polisseni said winning races is always great, but seeing her horses come back healthy and happy means even more.

So, too, does taking care of those who have been good to her. That includes her primary rider at Finger Lakes, veteran jockey John Davila, who was enshrined in the Finger Lakes Hall of Fame in 2023.

"She's like family to me," Davila said. "I've never seen another human being as kind and generous like Wanda Polisseni. She buys and brings horses to Finger Lakes just for me to ride. Once she told trainer Chris Englehart to claim a horse at Saratoga just so I could ride it there during the meet."

Among her top horses: Mom's Law, a three-time stakes winner at Finger Lakers, Heiressall, and Grade 3 stakes winner Cool Arrow.

Since retiring from Paychex, a Fortune 1000 company founded by Tom Golisano with the help of her late husband, Gene, Wanda has been entrenched in both thoroughbred and standardbred racing as an owner for more than two decades. She also continues her never-ending charitable work and serves on several boards, including Rochester General Hospital, Thompson Health Foundation, the New York State Troopers Foundation, St. John Fisher University, The Polisseni Foundation and the Finger Lakes HBPA, as well as the FLTAP.

"Wanda Polisseni has been a wonderful mentor to me and the Finger Lakes Thoroughbred Adoption Program," said Kim DeLong, president of the organization. "Without her mentorship in fundraising ideas and events, this program would not be as successful as it is. Her caring for the horses, both thoroughbred and standardbred, in regard to aftercare is the true heart of this woman."

Team Schadel has hot hand during Pocono baby races

Eleven 2-year-old qualifiers were held Wednesday morning (June 5) at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania, with Team Schadel – driver Todd and trainer/son Cody – combining to sweep the two baby colt trots and also produce the fastest winner of the day.

The quickest of the freshmen was the Schadels' Papi Rob Hanover – Dagnabit Hanover gelding Dreamboat Hanover, who sped his mile in 1:54.2 in his first charted line, with back fractions of :55 - :27.1 in the engine victory. The impressive 2-year-old is owned by Todd and his wife Christine in partnership with Timothy Hayes and Dr. Megan Moschgat.

The other freshman pacing male winners already have two qualifying victories to their credit: Stonebridge Wizard, a Dancin Lou – Odds On Magic gelding, who won in 1:55.3 - :56.3 for driver Rick Zeron and trainer Jared Bako, who combined three times in victory, and the American Ideal – Mako Wish colt Brayden's Bandit, first in 1:58.2 for driver Mike Simons and trainer Tom Jackson.

The sweep of the 2-year-old male trots by Team Schadel saw the faster mile of 2:01 turned in Andover's Hotrod, an Andover Hall – No Excuses colt; not far behind that clocking was the 2:01.2

time of Keystone Windsor, with that Bar Hopping—Scarlett's Legacy gelding recovering from an early miscue very nicely.

Fastest of all the baby trotters of the day was another performer who now has two a.m. session wins, the Devious Man—Paya La Renta filly Paya La Diva, winning here in 2:00.2 for Zeron/Bako.

In the pacing filly ranks, the day's honors went to the third Zeron/Bako horse, the Huntsville—Code On Hanover miss Cowgirl Hanover, who now has two victories in the baby races after coming home in :56.2 to complete a 1:56 victory.

Babies make 2024 Philly debuts

The first 2-year-old qualifiers of 2024 at Harrah's Philadelphia were held Tuesday morning (June 4). Early caution was the watchword of the day, with only two of the six races beating :32.2 to the quarter and a like amount reaching the half in less than 1:05, but the babies showed talent in the latter stages.

The freshmen of driver/trainer Eddie Dennis all came out ready to go as they won three races, including both sections of the 2-year-old colt trot. Those winners were Blue Patrol, a Cantab Hall—Blue Yonder colt who set the pace and came home in 1:00 - :29.2 to complete a 2:05 tally for Mulligan Stables and Jason L Johnson Inc., and Owls Nest, a Bar Hopping—Bring Your Best colt who trotted his last panel in :29 to win in 2:08.3 for E&K Stable Inc.

The other Dennis winner was the Tall Dark Stranger—Eloquent Grace colt Enrique Hanover, who dashed home in :28.3 to stop the timer in 2:08 for owner Roy Parker, Jr. in the only event for pacing males.

The familiar combination of driver Tim Tetrick and trainer Jim King, Jr. hooked up to win both pacing filly events in by far the fastest clockings of the session. Royally Hot, a Bettor's Wish—Mcsauna miss, came out of the pocket in :59.1 - :29.2 to win in 2:02.1 for Tim Tetrick LLC; just a tick behind her stablemate was the Papi Rob Hanover—Paula's Best filly Pilar Hanover, who came from third at the three-quarters and sped her own last fraction in :28.1 for owners Jo-Ann Looney King and Jon Paton.

Capturing the one race for trotting misses was Britta Pillar (no known relation to Pilar Hanover), a front-end winner who stepped home in 1:00 - :29.4 to complete her 2:06.3 journey. The Father Patrick—Giant Clash distaff was driven by Wayne Long for trainer Joyce Lineweaver and owner Eli Byler.

Replays of these Harrah's Philly baby qualifiers are available at www.phha.org.

Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association to live stream Charity Night draw

The first Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association charity nights is scheduled for Saturday (June 8) at MGM Northfield Park.

Nine charities will participate in the event, each paired with a horse during the sixth race. Each charity will receive a donation from the OHHA for participating. The charity paired with the first-place finisher will receive $10,000, second place will receive $5,000, and third place $3,000. All other finishers receive $2,000 donations.

The participating charities will find out which horse they will be cheering for during a live stream on the Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association Facebook page on Thursday (June 6) at 1:30 p.m.

The participating charities are Akron-Canton Regional Food Bank, By the Dawn's Early Light, Emergency Assistance Center, First Tee - Cleveland, Geauga County Library Foundation, Happy Trails Farm Animal Sanctuary, Kent State University Geauga and Twinsburg Academic Center, LCADA Way, and Lutheran Metropolitan Ministry.
